INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 1 and 2) were read by the Clerk and disposed of as follows:

H.C.R. No. 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RELATING TO RECESS DAYS FOR THE REGULAR SESSION OF 2009," relating to the mandatory recess for the Regular Session of 2009, determined to be the 26th and 27th days of February and the 2nd, 3rd and 4th days of March; and the dates of the recesses, other than the dates of the mandatory recess, for the Regular Session of 2009, determined to be the 27th and 29th days of January, the 9th and 11th days of March, the 1st, 13th and 15th days of April, and the 4th and 6th days of May, pursuant to Article III, Section 10 of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, was jointly offered by Representatives B. Oshiro and Finnegan.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Finnegan and carried, H.C.R. No. 1 was adopted.

H.C.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS THE LEGISLATURE ASSEMBLED IN JOINT SESSION," on the 26th of January at 10:00 a.m., was jointly offered by Representatives Say, Magaoay, B. Oshiro and Finnegan.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Finnegan and carried, H.C.R. No. 2 was adopted.

At 10:54 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

At this time, the Members of the House, their guests and audience were entertained by the following:

Nanakuli High and Intermediate School Performing Arts Center

Castle Performing Arts Learning Center

Kaimuki High School Ohana O Mele

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:02 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the Speaker delivered his address, stating:

"Welcome Governor Lingle, Chief Justice Moon, Lieutenant Governor Aiona and Mrs. Aiona, Governor Ariyoshi and Mrs. Ariyoshi, Governor Waihee and Mrs. Waihee, distinguished guests, colleagues, family members, and friends. Welcome to the opening session of the House of Representatives' Twenty-Fifth Legislature.

"A wise man once said: "Be thankful for each new challenge because it will build your strength and character."

"Members, in these times of extraordinary economic and budgetary challenges, we have much for which to be "thankful." Meeting those challenges will surely build on our strength and character.

"The world has experienced a major economic crisis within the past year, a situation that is expected to worsen. UHERO, that is the University of Hawaii Economic Research Organization, predicts that, in the year 2009, "the rich world will be in recession, and developing economies will suffer a sharp reduction in growth rates."

"One statistic that tells the story of the decline of the United States economy is this. Last year, the U.S. stock market lost $6.9 trillion in value in 2008, wiping out the gains of the previous six years. I asked my two sons and my wife, how many zeros does one trillion have? Do you know or is that number too far out for you to comprehend? Well, to the general public, one trillion is the number "1" followed by twelve "zeros."

"Naturally, the worldwide economic crisis has spilled over into Hawaii's economy. For 2008, visitor arrivals may have decreased, decreased by a double digit percentage. Primarily because of the visitor industry problems, UHERO the University of Hawaii Economic Research Organization projects that the Hawaii unemployment rate will increase to 5.8 per cent in calendar year 2009. The scary part for me will be, the number of jobs will be declining by 1.4 per cent in 2009 after a zero growth increase in 2008.

"For the Members of the House, most telling of our economic slide is the Council of Revenues' projections of general fund tax revenues. On January 9, 2009, the Council projected that the general fund tax revenues in fiscal year 2009 would decline by 3 percentage points.

"Where does this leave us? Between the end of the 2008 Session, for those who were here, and January 9th this year, the slide in the Council of Revenue's projection has resulted in a cumulative budget deficit over three years of $1.8 billion. We must make up this shortfall. And this will be our major challenge.

"To paraphrase Martin Luther King, Jr., "the true measure of a person is not how the person behaves in moments of comfort and convenience, but how the person stands at times of controversy and challenges."

"What is our true measure? How will we react to the challenges of our State?

"Members, we are no longer in the times of "comfort and convenience" of the past few years that you have experienced. For me, we are facing a budget crisis unmatched in my 32 years in the State House.

"And so consequently, I lay the following challenges on all of us. I challenge all of us to join together to resolve this budget crisis. I pledge to work with the Administration and, obviously, the Senate on a cooperative basis. And why? Everybody has to be a part of the solution.

"I also challenge all of us to focus on our priorities. Passing a balanced budget that protects public health and safety and basic education should be the top priority. Maintaining the economy until growth resumes should be another top priority.

"And there are five basic policies that should guide us in our budget deliberations.

"First, I challenge all of us to maintain a basic safety net of social and health services. We all know of family or neighbors where financial troubles cause the most stress for families, leading into increased substance abuse and domestic violence. We should make sure that troubled families have access to basic State services that may mitigate their social and health problems. Although in these problematic budgetary times we cannot afford to expand such services, we should try our best to maintain a basic level of service.

"I shared with you this afternoon, and imagine this. Imagine just being laid off from your job. You have a mortgage. You no longer have health insurance coverage. You have car payments. Your children need to visit the doctor. And you cannot rely on parents who are on a fixed income for financial support.

"Today, you are able to receive a maximum of $545 a week, or $2,180 a month, in unemployment compensation. How far does that take you? You can feed and clothe your family on that amount, but will you have enough left over to pay the mortgage you incurred while employed? Probably not. Will you have enough to pay for major surgery if ill health befalls you? Definitely not!

"And that's why, for the immediate term, we must pay attention to those persons whose misfortunes are not their fault. We should encourage the federal government through its stimulus package to provide basic health care coverage and extended, increased unemployment compensation. After all, all of us know that the federal government provided a massive bailout to financial institutions throughout this country.

"For the mid-term and long-term, we should seek structural reform that may prevent in the future the problems we are experiencing today. And we should not be afraid of considering structural reform in our health system, tax system, our land use and permitting system, and even land tenure system.

"Second, I challenge all of us to maintain the level of education in the classrooms. Education is our greatest investment in our keiki o ka aina. We owe to future generations the opportunity to improve themselves and their community and environment. And this opportunity comes from more education. We cannot regress where we are today. We cannot regress.

"And this is not to say that the entire budgets of the Department of Education and University of Hawaii, that you will be sacred. Instructional services necessary for classrooms should be maintained, but central and school administration expenses should be heavily scrutinized.

"Third, I challenge all of us, all of us this afternoon, to avoid the layoff of existing State employees to solve the budget crisis. State employees are valuable assets to this government. They know their jobs, and the great majority perform very well. Layoffs may lead to morale problems and even efficiency problems if civil service bumping procedures have to be implemented.

"This, however, is not to say that State employees will be unscathed while private sector employees are suffering. With great reluctance, we may have to implement some level of reform of State employee benefits in order to maintain basic services, to avoid layoffs, and to balance the budget. The pain should be broadly shared by all rather than concentrated on only an unfortunate few.

"Fourth, I challenge all of us to work with the federal government on the fiscal stimulus packages. We must be willing to complement with State funds, the capital that the federal government sends our way. And this will be a very golden opportunity to fix our infrastructure, advance our renewable energy technology and power sources, provide more health care coverage, build more housing, and increase the military's capability and economic contribution. Of greatest importance, the stimulus package will put our people to work.

"Fifth, I challenge all of us to always be cognizant of the big picture, always aware that a benefit to one special interest group may require a takeaway from another special interest group or the general public. Remember, almost all special interest groups, whether for-profit or nonprofit, have organized memberships with a lobbying presence at the Legislature. Ordinary taxpayers, however, have none. They only have you and me to represent them.

"Finally, I challenge all of us to treat this budget crisis as an opportunity for reform. We should not be afraid of change when for the common good. Challenges require solutions that may unleash our creativity, overturn conventional thinking, and also remove political barriers of fear. One proposal that we should seriously consider is reform of the general excise tax system by repealing various exemptions, and using that savings to decrease, decrease the current four per cent rate. Think about it.

"Another possible proposal is the repeal of various income tax deductions and credits, with a decrease of the lower bracket tax rates. Interest groups who benefit from the exemptions, credits, and deductions should be willing to forgo their special benefits in order to reduce the burden on ordinary persons, families and businesses.

"Someone once said: in a crisis, one cannot wait for the answers before taking action. That will lead to the infamous "paralysis by analysis" status quo. Our common sense, political and life experiences, good faith, and collective wisdom will be our guide in making decisions in a crisis.

"Solving challenges requires "confidence" in oneself and each other. We must have "confidence" in our ability to improve our State -- but a "confidence" built on a foundation of hard work, study, experience, and cooperation.

"I have confidence that together we will be successful in meeting all the challenges facing us.

"This speech has been primarily directed at my colleagues in this House, but I leave the following challenges to you: my friends, families, and members of the general public.

"We should take a simpler approach in trying to solve problems. Many years ago, I could talk directly to industry leaders of Hawaii, such as Doc Buyers, Bobby Pfeiffer, Henry Walker, or Hung Wo Ching, about a problem that a constituent may have had. But for all of us today, no more. In this global economy, Hawaii's industries are owned or controlled by mainland and international investors, who are often unreachable for the Legislative branch to communicate.

"We should exercise more of a social conscience when doing business in Hawaii. Developers should be more than willing to help moderate-income families by building affordable housing. In this respect, I will again push for a greater affordable housing assessment on developments in the Kaka'ako mauka area, the landowners of which benefitted substantially from the State's infrastructure investment there. We should not push all affordable housing into the country. We need communities with mixed-income families so that the rich and poor may come to know each other.

"We should try to keep our land in local ownership. Out-of-state landowners seem not to have an appreciation or understanding of our local businesses. Their bottom line is exclusively the maximum return on their investment. Personally, instead they should work with local lessees or businesses for the mutual benefit of both parties. There should be enough to go around for all. Local lessees and businesses represent the long-term future of Hawaii, and they should not be compromised by out-of-state corporations.

"I recognize that our capitalistic system is based on the profit motive. So those with money, assets, and opportunity should be able to invest freely and make the maximum return if they choose to do so. They, however, would be much more respected in the community if they were satisfied with a more moderate return that left some benefits on the table for others, such as low- or moderate-income housing purchasers or renters.

"Since I have commented on the willingness to face challenges, I would be remiss if I did not mention Representative Mark Takai. Representative Takai, will you please stand? On February 6th, he will report for active duty with the Hawaii Army National Guard and be deployed to Kuwait for six months. Representative Takai, take care of yourself and your fellow Guard members. We all wish you the very best and a safe return home.

"In closing, I would like to say a fond aloha or "good bye" to a very good friend of ours, State Representative Bob Nakasone.

"Bob was a great man because he stood strong during times of controversy and challenges. He was a great man of character. Bob would have relished addressing today's budgetary crisis and would not have been afraid of taking unpopular positions. And Bob had exceptional personal and political courage. He simply did what he thought was right -- what was in the public's best interest for the greater good.

"Members of the House, everything I have talked about here today will require courage and strong convictions. Meeting our challenges will not be easy, and many of the decisions we make will be unpopular. However, if we find the political courage to make those decisions, we can seize the opportunity to address the pressing needs of our State in the short term, and lay the foundation for our highest desires in the long term.

"So with this in mind, I offer this piece of advice as we face the beginning of our Session. When you don't know how to vote on tough issues because you're afraid of the outcome, do what your friend Bob Nakasone would have done: Vote with courage, vote with conviction, and vote for the common good.

"Thank you, and aloha."

The Chair then recognized Representative Finnegan, the Minority Leader, to present the Minority's response.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Governor Lingle, Lt. Governor Aiona, Mrs. Aiona, honored guests, Speaker, colleagues, and you, the people of Hawai'i. Congratulations Hawai'i. This year we celebrate 50 years of statehood. This beautiful state has so much to offer the world, especially with the most recent example of the election of our 44th President of the United States of America. President Barack Obama. I firmly believe our multi-ethnic people and culture, coupled with the aloha spirit helped shape President Obama; a direct contribution to his abilities to win over a nation and bring people together.

"I just returned from a conference where I was able to talk to legislators from a variety of states that are having similar struggles as ours. California's Executive and Legislative branches are feuding with one another and the result is gridlock government on the verge of bankruptcy. The very thing that we need here in Hawai'i is to not have our differences overcome the goals for this Session.

"Your House Republicans believe, especially in this day and time that we need to support the existing pillars of our economy: tourism, construction, and our military. We also believe we should create an environment to keep our businesses open and growing so labor keeps working. And we need to do these things while ensuring steps are taken toward our long range goals.

"Recently an audit criticized the Hawai'i Tourism Authority for a lack of leadership and vision. Rather than pointing fingers, we need to come together and support HTA in these tough times. For instance, the heritage tourist stays longer, spends more, respects our environment, and wants to understand our history. Working with the heritage tourism industry, we can create a marketing plan for HTA. This could save us time and money.

"In the good times, we routinely ignored infrastructure needs in favor of fancy programs. We need to come together to address these long overdue needs while helping our economy. We need to support the Governor's plan to streamline $1.9 billion in existing construction projects. Governor Lingle, your administration is taking on a huge responsibility to accomplish the much needed modernization of our airports, harbors and highways. Your aim for transparency and innovation in planning and execution are concepts we can support.

"The military in Hawai'i plays a key part in defending our nation and bolstering our economy. This State has a love-hate relationship with the military. We need to support our military and are proposing legislation to do so.

"Another vital way for us to strengthen the economy is to keep businesses open and to keep labor working. Our people cannot pay their mortgages and their rent without jobs. With our State tax revenue shortfall, government cannot be the answer for everything.

"Like government, businesses are experiencing loss in revenue. Too often, the state looks to squeeze businesses to make the books balance. Businesses, labor, and government need to come together to move us past these economic struggles in a way where businesses can thrive, workers can realize a better quality of life, and government can craft a fiscally sound budget. This is not the time to raise taxes, whether unemployment, insurance, or business fees. Let us commit to making it better for business and find ways to remove unnecessary regulation.

"Let us not underestimate the power of the individual to create their opportunities. I suspect with our unemployment numbers increasing and the job market tightening, people might want to start their own businesses as their chance, their opportunity. Let's encourage the behavior as another source of job growth. Your Republican members also recognize areas where we must step in to help employees directly. We are asking the Legislature and the Governor to partner with us to help protect pensions. Employees should not lose a lifetime of investments earned through their hard work.

"Many times the Legislature gets caught up in the important issues of the day. However, we must simultaneously work to achieve our goals for the future. We owe it to future generations of Hawai'i's people to stay committed to creating better opportunities for them. It is not an option to sacrifice tomorrow for today. This is why your Republican Caucus is committed to the Hawai'i Clean Energy Initiative and Act 221 to truly diversify our economy.

"The Hawai'i Clean Energy Initiative, a partnership between the State of Hawaii and the US Department of Energy, will be offering a proposal that synchronizes a variety of efforts to be able to meet the Renewable Energy Standards Portfolio goal of 70 percent renewable energy by 2030. We are pleased to adopt the recommendations of HCEI. This is not easy for some of us in the Republican Caucus, because of the need for the inclusion of certain mandates. However, we are willing to come together with the Majority on this proposal and the tradeoff is worthwhile.

"Achieving this goal will keep $7 billion of Hawai'i's money in Hawai'i; a substantial positive effect for our economy. It is good for the environment and makes us good stewards of our natural resources. It also gives us energy security, which is also economic security.

"Throughout the decades, all of our State's governors have tried to establish another sector of our economy. We scream that we need to diversify our economy, yet many have a hard time in taking that risk and making the investment to do so.

"Act 221, the High Tech Tax Credit has received a lot of negative attention. We need to move past this. We need to come together to realize that the aggressive nature of Act 221's tax credit is needed in order to build a high-tech pillar of our economy. Act 221 is a complicated machine with many gears that works to convince people, companies, technologies, research and money to invest in Hawai'i.

"One investor I interviewed described Hawai'i as a toxic business environment. And if not for Act 221, many companies and their investors would not be here contributing $1.4 billion into our economy. Capital investment is shrewd and will go where it has the best potential with the least risk. I believe that not extending Act 221 will equate to the loss of good-paying jobs for our people and work against diversifying our economy. Act 221 attracts the international and local investor, and high-technology companies that could take their money or ideas anywhere on the globe, and gets them to say, 'let's try Hawai'i.'

"Our goal to educate our keiki in science, technology, engineering, and math, otherwise known as STEM, will only be halfway achieved if we are unable to find local jobs for them in the future.

"I'd like to introduce to you five individuals of the very many, who have been able to live in Hawai'i due to Act 221. If you can just rise when I introduce you, and if you can hold your applause. Tamotsu Hirai, Laboratory Technician at Kuehnle Agrosystems has been able to live close to his family and has the job he desires in this field of work. Teri Wong, Scientist at Panthera Biopharma, is an Aiea High School and Washington State Graduate. Darren Kimura, CEO of Sopagy, a leader in micro-CSP technologies, born and raised in Hilo. Keiki Pua Dancil, a Kamehameha graduate was brought home as a director of research and development after graduating from Santa Clara University, Harvard Business School, and earned her PhD from UC San Diego. And Henk Rogers, CEO of Blue Planet Software, who studied computer science at our University of Hawai'i and successfully sold his first 221 company and now three new ones in his incubator. Everybody, let's welcome them.

"People of Hawai'i, the future is now. On New Year's day, the Akiona side of our family started a new annual tradition. We potlucked saimin. My husband Peter and I brought the saimin noodles and dashi, while everyone else brought their favorite garnish. Peter and I started to debate if saimin was of Japanese or Chinese origin. And what I learned brought so much more meaning to our new tradition. Saimin means, thin noodle. Living on the plantation, all of the different ethnic groups would come together to cook communally. Each group offered up what they could spare in order to save money and create a meal for all. Most likely dashi and kamabuko was from the Japanese, noodles and won bok from the Chinese, green onions from the Filipinos and so on.

"I share this story not only because my grandparents were plantation laborers who came from the Philippines in search for a better life for the generations to follow. But because I'm reminded in tough times we need to pull together. Whether employee or employer, economic or environmental, old or new, Democrat or Republican, Executive or Legislative, like the example of the different cultures working together in the plantations, we bring our differences to the table and create benefits for all.

"We must focus on keeping businesses open and labor working while staying committed to creating a better future for Hawaii's generations to come. Tough times are here, but if we are committed to coming together, we will forge a better tomorrow. Mahalo and Aloha."

The Chair then recognized Representative B. Oshiro, the Majority Leader, who rose and responded:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Governor Lingle, Chief Justice Moon, Lt. Governor Aiona, Mrs. Aiona, Chair Apoliona, House colleagues, honored guests, members, and friends.

"Today is a very exciting and inspirational day, but we're really lucky because we got to build on yesterday. Yesterday was such a historic and momentous occasion with the inauguration. Because despite the uncertainty that may be swirling about in these economic times, there literally was an electricity charged in the air. It really was about change, and our newly inaugurated President Barack Obama.

"But you know, change can't just be for changes sake, because sometimes change can take many different forms. Change can manifest into tragedy, sometimes into sudden and complete loss, such as the kind of change that the House is going to experience with the loss of Representative Bob Nakasone. In these times there will be many, many, many days when we'll miss his insight, his wisdom and his advice.

"But change can also be transformative. It can be evolutionary. Just as with our new President, it can bring the much needed hope. Such change in hope will be embodied by our newest additions to our Majority Caucus. So I'd like to take a brief moment to introduce them to all of you. If you could please hold your applause until they've all stood up.

"First we have Representative Henry Aquino of District 35, Pearl City and Waipahu. Next we have Representative Isaac Choy of District 24, Manoa, University. Next we have Representative Denny Coffman of District 6, North Kona, Kailua-Kona. Representative Gil Keith-Agaran of District 9, Kahului, Wailuku. Representative Chris Lee of District 51, Lanikai, Waimanalo. Representative Mark Nakashima of District 1 Kohala, Hamakua and Hilo. And finally, Representative Jessica Wooley of District 47, Laie, Kahana, Kahaluu and Kaneohoe.

"I got to work with all of these Representatives and I can tell you that their commitment, their vision, but mostly their hope that they will be bringing to our Caucus is really important. Because as you stated Mr. Speaker, our State Budget will be the major challenge. But the struggle is also an opportunity to reexamine, to reevaluate, and to reprioritize. As posed by President Barack Obama during his inauguration address, the question is not whether government is too big or too small. Instead, the question is whether government is improving the lives of its people, and doing so effectively and efficiently. That is really the task at hand for the Legislature.

"First, what we really must do is be smarter about how we spend taxpayer dollars. In these times, where every dollar is precious, we cannot, and should not allow an agency to be found to spend an excess of $34 million on voting machines, because they failed to do a cost-benefit analysis.

"We cannot and will not tolerate the Auditor finding that contracts spent millions of dollars in tourism marketing, without any performance standards or ways to measure success. Because what this really gets to is procurement.

"And I know, Procurement, just saying that word sometimes people's eyes glaze over, their eyes roll into the back of their heads, because it's kind of a boring topic. But if you really understand procurement, it's about how we spend government dollars. Where do we want it directed, what do we want to prioritize, and what's important?

"For example, our laws already have a preference for local small businesses, for local farmers. It's kind of like the Buy America Act. Also, in 2006, we have a small business set-aside, so that small businesses are supposed to be given State contracts.

"But despite everything that we have in the law, nothing is happening. Local farmers, local small businesses are not enjoying the benefit of this policy. But do you know why? And it's really strange. It's because we have these rules that are supposed to implement the laws, but what they do is they exempt out fresh produce, fresh meats, and foods. I know, how can? When I was a kid, when things just never made sense, I would go, 'How can?' Right?

"So it's really the question, like how can the laws we pass and provide for local farmers and small businesses, how can we have those things in the rules? How can we have that in the laws, but the rules take that away? Therefore, one of the things we must do is get rid of these ridiculous rules. Our local small businesses, our local farmers deserve better. They need better.

"Because this isn't only about how we spend taxpayer dollars, but it's also about moving us toward self-sufficiency. When we speak of self-sufficiency and its effect on the economy, nowhere is that need more dire than our addiction on imported fossil fuels. As already stated by the Minority Leader, we spend anywhere from $5 to $7 billion annually on fossil fuels, feeding our need for energy. And that's despite being uniquely situated in a place where we have solar, wind, wave, renewable energy opportunities that for some reason we just aren't able to harvest.

"The goals are clearly set though. We have the Renewable Portfolio Standards at 20 percent by 2020. And also, we have the agreement between Hawaiian Electric and the Administration to be at 70 percent by 2030. But the bigger question is, how do we get there? The Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative has a plan. I think it's a good one, but the House Majority also will be looking at alternative ways, instead of necessarily mandates, maybe what we want to do is look at ways where we can empower our counties, empower our communities, empower economies themselves, so that they build from the ground level up. And that's going to be our focus.

"And in speaking about building capacity infrastructure, the House Majority will also be focusing on the State's literal infrastructure as a much needed way to invest funds continuing to 'prime the pump' and keep revenues circulating in this economy. Most importantly, it will help us keep our citizens employed.

"We're extremely fortunate to have our Congressional delegation. They have been working closely with us to understand and communicate our priority projects to the federal government and the new Administration. But we can't just rely on the federal government, for we must be able to do for ourselves. Towards that end, our Governor and her Administration have really come up with some bold and innovative proposals, looking at possible infrastructure and investment improvements in highways and our recreational areas. These must be given serious consideration, because at the end of the day, what this brings us to is an area of collaboration.

"Moving into this Session, we've really seen efforts at collaboration and communication between the Executive Branch and the Legislature. Sometimes in the past, it may have just appeared to be missing. But these are really welcomed changes, and we hope that they will continue, because seriously, it's really only by putting our collective heads and hearts together that we will be able to strive and overcome the difficult issues we face ahead.

"Okay, now don't get too excited because it's not like we will be singing Kum Ba Yah, sitting around, holding hands, but I think the people expect us to agree whenever we can, but they know there are going to be times when we simply disagree. For example, the House Majority will fight the termination of Keiki Care. This was one of the first programs in the nation, an innovative and quintessential public-private partnership to ensure that no child is left without health insurance. And it did it all at an extremely modest cost. So we will be doing everything we can to ensure the continuance of this program.

"I really anticipate that this will be just one of several examples where we may strongly disagree, and vehemently disagree with the administration, its positions and its decisions. But what the Majority is committed to is not to be about blame, not to be about taking credit or taking credit away from anyone.

"I want to give a great, great quote that describes the public's perception of political parties and the disparateness between political parties. Our new President, Barack Obama in his book, The Audacity of Hope states that, the public is waiting for a politics with the maturity to balance idealism and realism, to distinguish between what can and cannot be compromised, to admit the possibility that sometimes the other side just may have a point. They don't always understand the arguments between right and left, conservative and liberal, but the public does recognize the difference between dogma and common sense, responsibility and irresponsibility, between those things that last and those things that are fleeting.

"The public is out there waiting for Republicans and Democrats to catch up to them. The public should not have to wait any longer, because at the end of the day, at the end of this Session, we must be judged as having done our best to live up to the oath that we have sworn to today. That we faithfully discharged our duties to the best of our ability. Thank you very much, and mahalo."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Heritage Caucus, Chair Cindy Evans and I, wanted to remind everybody that there still are bills to be signed at the Heritage Caucus.

"I would be remiss not to mention that this weekend starts the celebration of Chinese New Year, the Year of the Ox. And there are a few things that are going on. There is of course, an open house of Chinatown, with the blessings of our small businesses. There's the Chinese parade, the Chinatown parade that goes on, on Saturday.

"But I wanted to share something, because one of the things I share with one of my favorite colleagues in high school is, we're both the Year of the Ox. And this is our President who is the Year of the Ox, President Barry or Barack Obama.

"And I'd like to read just something about the ox, if you don't mind. I'm taking this from someone here, Fran Kirk. Kung Hee Fat Choy: Mine is the stabilizing force that perpetuates the cycle of life. I stand immobile against the test of adversity, resolute, and unimpeachable. I seek to serve integrity, to bear the burden of righteousness. I abide by the laws of nature, patiently pushing the wheel of fate. Thus I wave my destiny. Thus I am the Ox.' And that is our President.

"I just also wanted to mention that this is a beautiful example of heritage tourism, and I know that there has been some talk about that. If anyone has a chance, you'll see visitors and residents alike truly appreciating what's going on right nearby in Chinatown. Thank you."

"It is a great privilege and a humbling experience to come before you each year to share my thoughts about where our State stands, and where we are headed. The annual State of the State Address is a time-honored tradition in states all across our great nation. It is a time to take stock of where we are as a state, to recognize a few successes, and to lay out a clear roadmap for our future.

"In this sense, it is a fairly typical speech. But this has not been a typical year. We are facing a time like no other in our State's history. And 2009 will be one of the most challenging years in our nation's history as we confront one of the severest economic crises we have ever faced.

"The daunting task we face in the months ahead is making some very difficult decisions in order to address our immediate fiscal problems. These are not decisions that any of us want to make, but they are decisions that must be made. They are the same kinds of decisions being made across our State by individuals, families, businesses and organizations as they too confront a near-term future with substantially fewer financial resources, and a high degree of uncertainty.

"I'm an optimist by nature…and as Winston Churchill said, "An optimist sees the opportunity in every difficulty."

"So, I come before you today with a clear understanding of the enormity of what we face in the near term, but still enthusiastic about planning for our future together and optimistic about Hawai‘i in the 21st century.

"Together we will meet both our near-term and long-term obligations by making those decisions necessary to navigate through the turbulence of the current fiscal crisis and achieve our preferred future.

"That future includes energy independence, increased food self-sufficiency, and a 21st-century infrastructure that supports existing and emerging industries.

"Our future also includes a well-cared for environment that increases recreational opportunities across the State. We cannot afford to merely hunker down and muddle through the next year or two. This is a time for us to work together to address the immediate reality, while searching for those opportunities that will enable us to emerge from this situation stronger than ever.

"This dual effort will take patience and courage because there will be those who want to ignore reality and continue spending at current levels. And others who only want to deal with our immediate revenue shortfall while deferring any talk of the future. Either approach would leave us far short of meeting our duty to the people of Hawai‘i – a duty to both live within our means and position ourselves for a brighter future.

"As we face this historic challenge, it is easy to forget how much success we have enjoyed in recent years.

"I want to review the solid progress we have made in several areas, including home ownership and helping those most in need. Since May of 2006 we have built nine new emergency shelters and transitional housing projects that provide safe and clean places to live for many who previously could only find a night’s rest in our parks, beaches, doorways or in their cars.

"Nearly 2,800 people, including hundreds of children, have received not only safe shelter, but social services and an outpouring of community support to help them transition from homelessness to self-sufficiency. It took many people to achieve so much in just two-and-a-half short years. I want to thank our entire community for embracing and helping those who had lost all hope.

"In an attempt to address a completely different kind of housing need, we’re all aware of the success the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands has had. They’ve awarded more land to their beneficiaries than at any time in the history of the trust, and we all enjoy seeing families who have waited for decades finally receiving their homesteads.

"But there’s a much larger DHHL story that will be fully revealed in the years ahead. It is the story of a native Hawaiian agency that has chosen to meet its fiduciary duty to its beneficiaries by leading in a way that benefits the larger community. Whether it’s their pivotal role in the $110 million Kroc Center, development of the future DeBartolo regional mall, kick-starting the infrastructure UH West O‘ahu needed in order to move forward, or being the first state department to move its entire O‘ahu operation to the Second City of Kapolei, DHHL has chosen to lead.

"We now look to them as an important and integral part of our economic recovery, and as an example of how to develop desirable communities. They are even blazing their own trail in our State’s efforts to achieve energy independence and provide a clean energy future for the generations that will follow.

"Few could have envisioned six years ago the heights to which DHHL and the Hawaiian Homes Commission would soar. I believe their well-recognized success has been achieved partly because of how they contributed to the broader community. DHHL is not just about building homes, it is about building great communities. And they have succeeded because they have demanded more of themselves and their beneficiaries. The bottom line is that they have chosen to lead, not follow…and what a joy it has been to watch their transformation and ongoing journey.

"I want to personally thank the DHHL staff and those who have served on the Hawaiian Homes Commission for showing us all what great things can be achieved when you recognize we are all part of one 'ohana.

"An important part of that 'ohana is Hawai‘i’s keiki, especially those who are most vulnerable.

"Two remarkable trends have occurred in Hawai‘i’s child welfare system since 2005. The first is a 50 percent decline in the number of children in state care, to just 1,500 children, which is the lowest number since 1993.

"At the same time, Hawai‘i’s child re-abuse rate also dropped by half to just 3.1 percent, which is one of the lowest re-abuse rates in the United States. These positive trends were the result of a fundamental shift in the State’s approach to child welfare. The Department of Human Services previously removed children from the custody of their biological parents at a rate four times higher than the national average, with no improvement in safety outcomes.

"Today, DHS, and its community partners, uses a comprehensive assessment system to carefully weigh the risk factors in a child’s family environment, and ensure that they receive much-needed social services. Director Lillian Koller has received national recognition for these and other achievements.

"In November of last year, Governing Magazine honored her as a “Public Official of the Year” for widespread improvements at the Department of Human Services, including the overhaul of the child welfare system. This was the first time a public official from Hawai‘i has won this prestigious national award. I know Lillian believes that this success would not have been possible without our many outstanding social service agency partners, as well as her own committed staff. Mahalo to all of you.

"No matter how noteworthy these and other achievements may be, recent reductions in revenue forecasts mean that they and other worthy programs will take a back seat to our more immediate need to balance the budget.

"Today’s struggling economy has created a deep hole in our budget that we need to dig out of this session. The Council on Revenues has never in its history lowered its projections by so much in such a short period of time.

"Over the past eight months, the Council has reduced its general fund revenue projection by $1.4 billion. This downward projection reflects an unprecedented decline in tourism, construction, business activity, and consumer demand brought about by national and international events beyond our control. These events include sub-prime lending, frozen credit markets and volatile oil and other commodity prices – they will impact us for at least the next couple of years.

"Climbing our way out of this hole won’t be easy. It won’t be quick. It won’t be without pain; but it will be done.

"The pain that will be felt by individuals and organizations both in and out of government will cause some to search for a specific reason or person to blame.

"When a recently retired couple watches the value of its 401K drop dramatically…or a family struggles to make the mortgage payment now that their work hours have been cut back…or a social service agency faces the need to lay off employees because the government reduces the purchase of a service contract they were counting on…it is natural to want to understand why this is happening, and to hold someone accountable.

"But we must refrain from playing the blame game because we know this downturn was not caused by any of us. And we know we had been making good decisions in recent years to create a brighter future for Hawai‘i’s people by lowering taxes, increasing science and math education, moving toward energy independence, and preserving more of our natural and cultural resources.

"We also know that we are all in this together, and it is only by sticking together that we will be able to deal effectively with the immediate fiscal crisis and strengthen our economy in the long run.

"We will need a mixture of courage, compassion, and collaboration to cope with the unprecedented budget gap we face. Collaboration doesn't mean we will see all issues the same way. It means that for the sake of Hawai'i's future, we must acknowledge our predicament and find an acceptable way to move ourselves forward.

"In order to do this, we must start by accepting the fact that in this new economic and fiscal environment, there is simply no possible way to continue operating and spending the way we have.

"Although I am extremely optimistic about Hawai'i's long-term prospects, I am not going to sugarcoat the immediate challenge we face. In order to maintain the public's trust and confidence, we must be open and honest about the nature and magnitude of what we are facing. The reality is that we will have to make some unpopular choices that will reduce some services and cause others to be delivered in a different way. Not because we want to, but because we can't afford business as usual.

"A number of projects will likely be delayed, curtailed, or possibly eliminated. Not because we want to, but because we can't afford business as usual.

"We will have to ask government employees, like those who work in the private sector, to accept some reduction in wages and benefits. Not because we want to, but because we can't afford business as usual.

"Some who currently enjoy special tax credits, exemptions and deductions will see them reduced or eliminated. Not because we want to, but because we can't afford business as usual.

"This is a time of shared sacrifice when everyone must be willing to give up something. This is a time when we must rely on each other, because no one is coming to rescue us.

"We must also keep in mind that the economy will likely continue to soften in the near-term, perhaps causing the Council on Revenues to further reduce projections at its March meeting and then again in May after the budget is adopted.

"We are not alone in facing this new reality and near-term uncertainty. Families and businesses across the country and throughout our state have had to come to terms with this same situation. But we should also recognize that the difficulty we face is temporary. Our nation will regain its economic footing, and so will Hawai'i. How fast we recover here at home will depend to some degree on the decisions we make during this session.

"Our solutions need to be decisive enough to address our immediate situation, but just as important, must prepare the way for our future. Short-term solutions that merely defer the hard choices to those who will follow us are just as bad as no solutions at all. We can't meet our responsibility by kicking the can down the road. We must make meaningful choices now that address the reality we face today while laying the foundation for a better future. That better future is one that transitions us from an economy over-reliant on land development to one that is innovation-driven and relies on the capacity of our people.

"A key area where we must bring innovation to bear is ending our over-reliance on imported foreign oil. Oil pollutes the environment, it sucks billions of dollars out of our economy, and leaves us dependent on the goodwill of foreign countries and companies for our very survival. We remain today the most oil-dependent state in America, but we have made great strides over the past few years.

"Today windmills hum atop Kaheawa Ridge on Maui delivering clean, plentiful power and displacing the need to import 220,000 barrels of foreign oil each year.

"On Lāna'i, a 10-acre solar farm now provides 30 percent of the island's peak power needs. A geothermal project on the Big Island that currently provides power for 30,000 homes is in discussions to increase its output by 50 percent. And on O'ahu, engineers are already figuring out where we will be plugging in the electric cars coming to dealer showrooms in the near future.

"Last year we entered into a unique partnership with the federal Department of Energy called the Hawai'i Clean Energy Initiative or HCEI. It established the goal of a 70 percent clean energy economy by 2030.

"HCEI experts from government, national labs, our military, utilities, universities and the private sector have recommended specific actions to achieve the 70 percent clean energy goal through indigenous renewable resources and energy conservation. My administration and legislators will introduce several bills based on these HCEI recommendations. These changes will significantly increase energy efficiency in our commercial buildings and residences, give consumers more control over their energy costs, transition us to alternative fuel vehicles, such as electric cars, and ban any new fossil fuel power plants in Hawai'i.

"When adopted, these proposals will form the basis for Hawai'i's transformation to one of the world's first economies based primarily on clean energy. Implementing these policy changes will require a large measure of collaboration as we will need public funding, assistance from county governments, conservation by citizens, and investment by the business community.

"To successfully transition to a clean energy economy, we will need the involvement of our entire community, alignment of our efforts, and a continual focus on our objectives.

"I expect there will be a fair amount of spirited debate about the specific energy choices we should make, but if we recognize that we cannot go back to where we were, then I believe the choices are clear. We can either work together toward a clean energy future or continue to operate in a business-as-usual fashion that will leave Hawai'i vulnerable to the vagaries of world oil prices and the whims of foreign countries and companies.

"As the world's most isolated set of islands and our nation's most oil-dependent state, a clean energy future is no longer simply a desire of environmentalists, it is an absolute necessity for our long-term economic survival. This energy transformation is something we owe to future generations, and something they have a right to expect. They have a right to expect energy security.

"They have the right to expect stable and lower energy costs, and a cleaner environment. They have the right to expect higher-paying, green-collar jobs that come with a thriving new energy sector. And they have the right to expect us to stop sending up to $7 billion a year out of Hawai'i to buy foreign oil, instead of keeping most of it here at home, to circulate in our economy.

"Over the past 12 months, remarkable progress has been made toward achieving a secure energy future for our State, and we are being hailed as a national model because of our effort. We must remain steadfast in our pursuit of energy independence and security, regardless of fluctuating oil prices.

"Another area in which we must decrease our over-reliance on outside sources of supply is the food we eat. We import 85 percent of everything we consume. We need to take action now to increase Hawai'i's food self-sufficiency and strengthen and preserve agriculture for future generations as required by our State Constitution. We must increase our efforts to protect the best agricultural lands from development. And, we must strengthen our commitment to provide affordable water for agriculture.

"Increasing our food self-sufficiency will contribute to the State's economic recovery by keeping more of our money here at home. If we replace just 10 percent of the food we currently import, it would create more than $300 million in economic activity, generate $6 million in taxes, and create 2,300 new jobs.

"I will be asking State agencies such as schools, prisons and hospitals to take the lead by purchasing locally grown fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs and meat. Under new rules, Hawai‘i farmers will receive a 15 percent price preference when placing their bids for State purchases. If we each make an effort to buy more locally produced food we will be contributing to our economic recovery, helping Hawai‘i farmers lower their unit costs, and protect our open spaces.

"Agriculture keeps Hawai‘i green, it recharges our aquifers and promotes a healthy lifestyle and good nutrition for families. It also diversifies our economy and supports small businesses and rural communities.

"Another requirement for a strong and innovative economy is an advanced communications infrastructure that will serve as the backbone for connecting us to the global economy. This 21st century infrastructure is essential to creating the kind of high-paying jobs we are striving for in the coming years. The communications infrastructure we have in place today barely meets our current needs. We need to be planning for tomorrow’s needs. We shouldn’t be limited in our thinking to believe that what we have in place today is acceptable. We need to dream about tomorrow, and begin now to lay the groundwork for getting there.

"We need a communications infrastructure that will allow us to achieve competitive advancements in the areas of: education, health care diagnosis and treatment, public safety, research and innovation, civic participation, creative media, e-government, and the foundation for overall economic development.

"We have been working with the Legislature’s Broadband Task Force to craft a bill that recognizes the convergence of technologies that are used to provide voice, data and video services through wireline, wireless, cable and satellite communication. The bill consolidates regulation and advocacy of communication services under one agency, a new Hawai‘i Communications Commission, in order to make attainable the latest communications services at the earliest possible time.

"The Commission will not increase the size of government. It will be funded from existing fees, and will focus on achieving specific goals, including: creating broadband access on a competitive basis at reduced prices…streamlining the permitting process…and providing access to businesses and residents by 2012 at prices and speeds that will make us a world leader and a place that will attract investment, while empowering our residents with enhanced communications capability.

"This exciting, high-tech proposal could not have moved forward without the hard work over the last two years of the Broadband Task Force, and I applaud the Legislature for having the foresight to establish it.

"Although I have been discussing ideas that will position us well for the future, I think you would agree that the problem that bothers residents the most today is the everyday annoyance of sitting in traffic. Sitting in a seemingly endless line of cars, burning expensive fuel, missing an appointment or your child’s soccer game, is not the way any of us want to spend our time.

"The status quo has become intolerable, so we have joined with legislators in proposing a six-year, multi-island, Highways Modernization Plan to address known traffic problems with proven solutions. This plan is intended to save lives…save time…and save money.

"The program combines road building, highway and bridge safety improvements, anti-congestion traffic management, and a pavement maintenance program, in addition to safety legislation and increased public outreach and education. The bulk of the near-term projects will be started using existing funds and anticipated federal fiscal stimulus funding. The longer-term projects will be paid for by increases in highway-related taxes and fees that would be triggered at a future date if steady job growth indicates that our economy is growing again. In other words, we will have a plan in place that is ready to go to construction when our economic situation improves.

"This innovative recommendation to tie future increases to measurable economic results in order to address a long-festering problem is the kind of creative approach being used by departments and agencies throughout the government. I have challenged every one of our departments to find new and creative ways to improve our quality of life in these tough economic and fiscal times.

"The Department of Land and Natural Resources has risen to this challenge, and developed a comprehensive proposal to renew our state parks, small boat harbors and our trails, as well as the very way we care for these precious places – a true “Recreational Renaissance” that will benefit all residents and visitors.

"The heart of the plan is $240 million in capital improvements over five years for both land- and ocean-based recreation. The Department will fund this innovative plan by dedicating rents from some existing commercial properties to pay debt service, and developing now-vacant industrial and commercial lands that will fulfill the high demand for light industrial spaces in areas suitable for those uses.

"Additional funding to support maintenance and operations will be generated from leases and concessions in parks and harbors combined with a small entry fee paid by visitors at a limited number of high-destination parks.

"The plan’s final piece is the development of new land and ocean recreational opportunities through a public-private partnership to develop the long-proposed Ke‘ehi Lagoon Triangle adjacent to Lagoon Drive in Honolulu. This centerpiece initiative will include 119 acres of light industrial space as a long-term source of revenue, coupled with new marina slips, canoe club storage and practice areas, boat ramps, storage and dry docks, beach parks and picnic areas.

"I want to thank the staff at DLNR, DBEDT and Budget and Finance who developed this creative and comprehensive proposal which creates brand new, non-tax revenues and a better way of managing and caring for our recreational, natural and cultural resources. It’s sure not business as usual at DLNR!

"Working together, we can set the stage for this long-overdue “Recreational Renaissance” that will provide residents and visitors across our state with new and better recreational areas that are well-maintained, secure and enriching. I am especially enthused about working with the Legislature on this and other proposals as a colleague rather than as an adversary.

"I will do more than reach across the aisle; I will walk across the aisle, and my door will always be wide open to you. Our collaboration will demonstrate to the people of Hawai‘i that when history called on us to do so, we rose to the occasion. I firmly believe that only by working together can we produce the kind of significant results that will enable us to exit this temporary downturn, and to position our economy for a stronger and more sustainable future.

"Before concluding, I want to take a moment to speak about the case pending before the United States Supreme Court involving the issue of ceded lands. The issue involved in this case is not whether ceded lands should be sold or not. Rather the issue involves the fundamental question of whether the State of Hawai‘i has clear title to the land transferred to us by the federal government at the time of statehood.

"The roots of this case date back to a decision made by former Governor Waihe‘e in the 1980s to sell certain ceded lands on Maui and Hawai‘i for the construction of affordable housing. It was a decision he believed was in the best interest of all the people of Hawai‘i.

"It is a decision that former Governor Cayetano defended in court because he believed it was in the best interest of all the people of Hawai‘i to do so.

"And it is a decision that we are appealing to the United States Supreme Court because I believe it is in the best interest of all the people of Hawai‘i.

"Acting in the best interest of all the people is the same standard I applied when supporting the Akaka Bill, fighting to protect federal programs benefiting native Hawaiians, or expediting Hawaiian Homestead leases. And I will continue to advocate for these issues in the coming years just as passionately as I have in years past.

"I call upon all who cherish what is the essence of Hawai‘i to come together with a willingness to understand and respect the nature of this case and its importance to the future of our state.

"Our current fiscal crisis and the ceded lands issue arise during the same year that we commemorate our 50th anniversary as a state. It is a time when we can reflect on just how unique we are among the 50 states. But it is a time, more importantly to remind ourselves that regardless of the short-term decisions we must make in this moment of economic difficulty, we should remain firmly anchored on the sure footing of Hawai‘i’s rich culture, diverse heritage and sometimes complicated history.

"Governors of Japanese, Hawaiian, and Filipino descent have delivered State of the State addresses at this very podium. Hawai‘i elected the first Asian American to the United States Senate. And, less than a week ago, Hawai‘i’s heart swelled with pride as one of its own, Barack Obama, became the first African American to take the presidential oath of office when he was sworn in as our nation’s 44th president.

"We have so much to be proud of in our history, and so much to look forward to in the coming years. We are indeed the most unique among all the 50 states, and we are certainly capable of meeting this current challenge. In my heart, I know that if we work together to make these difficult budget decisions, the people of Hawai‘i will understand that these weren’t the decisions we wanted to make but that we had to make.

"The people of Hawai‘i are counting on us to lead our state through this unprecedented time – and that is exactly what we are going to do.

"When the curtain comes down on our time on this stage, I want our collective legacy to win reviews as a story of pulling together for the good of all rather than being written off as a cast of characters who was each acting in their own one-man show.

"If we deal decisively with the current crisis while keeping our eyes open to the opportunities that these kinds of challenging times create, then the people of Hawai‘i will conclude that we have lived up to our obligation.

"Now, let’s get to work. Mahalo."

President Hanabusa then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Governor Lingle. On behalf of Speaker Say and myself, I want to confirm that we have full confidence in the Members of the House and the Members of the Senate, that they are not only able, but they are willing and ready to meet this challenge.

"We all know that we are facing the most difficult economic crisis that this State has seen in recent history. We all know that the one thing we must do is to work together if we are going to face this crisis and come out of it, so the people of Hawai'i are not caused to suffer any more than they will. And we all know that it is the people of Hawai'i that we serve, and they are the ones that we must protect and understand their needs and face this challenge.

"So on behalf of Speaker Say and myself, and the Members of the House and the Senate, we look forward to working collaboratively with not only you, Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and members of your Cabinet, but also with the people. The people must be a part of this. They must hear you. You must participate, because these are the times where we cannot say that if the idea doesn't come from here, it is not a good one. We need all the input that we can have. So with that, I declare this Joint Session adjourned."

At 10:51 o'clock a.m., President Hanabusa declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Fifth Legislature adjourned.

SENATE COMMUNICATION

The following communication from the Senate (Sen. Com. No. 4) was received and announced by the Clerk:

Sen. Com. No. 4, transmitting S.C.R. No. 2, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION AWARDING THE HAWAII MEDAL OF HONOR TO UNITED STATES MILITARY SERVICE MEMBERS WITH HAWAII CONNECTIONS KILLED IN ACTION WHILE SERVING IN DANGEROUS, VOLATILE, AND UNSTABLE AREAS OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING IRAQ AND AFGHANISTAN," which was adopted by the Senate on January 26, 2009.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that S.C.R. No. 2 be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 2. It has been almost six years since the War on Terrorism began. While there continues to be much debate for and against this war, there is no debate about the tremendous sacrifices made by our service members and their families.

"Between March 29, 2003 and January 15 of this year, we in Hawaii have lost a total of 240 servicemembers, who have all sacrificed their lives while in the line of duty. This past year, we lost a total of 23 servicemembers. To pay a special tribute to these heroes and to their families, we passed House Bill No. 8 in 2005, which became Act 21. This Act created the Hawaii Medal of Honor.

"This special medal is awarded on behalf of all of us in the State of Hawaii to an individual who has been killed in action while serving our country as part of Operation Iraqi Freedom or Operation Enduring Freedom. Recipients of the Hawaii Medal of Honor include the members of the United States Armed Forces, the United States Military Reserves and the Hawaii National Guard, who are residents of the State of Hawaii, attended an educational institution in Hawaii, or were stationed in Hawaii by order of the United States Department of Defense.

"The Hawaii Medal of Honor will be awarded according to this Senate Concurrent Resolution to family representatives of these fine men and women at a ceremony held during a joint Legislative Session on Tuesday, March 31, 2009 at 2 p.m. this year in the Senate Chambers. Families from towns like Brockport, New York, and Jacksonville, Florida, to as far as Saipan, American Samoa, and the Marshall Islands will be invited to attend this ceremony.

"In the past six years, the War Against Terrorism has changed our world and our lives in a profound way. And ultimately Mr. Speaker, it's not about the politics, it's not even about the money, and it's not even about winning. I believe it's all about the families and their loved ones and what these brave men and women have given and sacrificed to our country. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I also would like to speak in strong support. As a new military family through marriage, I can tell you that it's very rough for military families. And I just really want to thank the previous Representative for bestowing a great legacy of honor on this Chamber. It really means a lot to the families. And the sacrifices that the families make to serve their country is just as great. So thank you so much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in strong support. As with the previous two speakers, either by service or by family who are veterans, I feel compelled as a Vietnam veteran to stand up in strong support.

"I feel, Mr. Speaker this measure is probably one of the most honorable things that will pass this desk on this Floor. And I think it's a good foreboding of what this Session will be like. I see it as the equivalent for honor to veterans as what the GI Bill was for education for veterans. It is simply a good, good measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.C.R. No. 2 was adopted with Representatives Berg, Say and Takumi being excused.

"So, if everybody could give a round of applause to Representative Chris Lee, who turns 21 today. That means anyone who offered drinks to him, you know he wasn't legal until today. Thank you."

Representative Thielen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On behalf of Co-Chairs Representative Hermina Morita and Representative Marilyn Lee, I'd like to remind Women's Caucus Members that the press conference is tomorrow at 12:00 noon in Room 312. I hope we'll see all the Women's Caucus Members there. It's a very good Legislative package, and I hope all members will give it strong consideration. Maybe we can reach a 100 percent success rate this year. Thank you."

Representative Takai moved that H.R. No. 40 be adopted, seconded by Representative Choy.

Representative Takai congratulated Coastal Windows, Inc. for being one of fifteen companies nationwide to receive the 2008 Secretary of Defense Employer Support Freedom Award.

Representative Choy then introduced the honorees seated on the Floor of the House:

Mr. Robert Barrett, Vice President of Coastal Windows, Inc., accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Pamela Barrett; and Representative Choy also introduced friends and family seated in the gallery:

Mr. Barrett's parents, Mr. Bob Winner, founder of Coastal Windows, and Mrs. Marie Winner;

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 40 was adopted, with Representatives Chang, McKelvey, Tokioka and Wakai being excused.

At 12:16 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

LATE INTRODUCTION

The following late introduction was made to the Members of the House:

Representative Shimabukuro introduced Ms. Joyce Chen of New York City, and former City Council member in Connecticut.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1) recommending that H.B. No. 28, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 28, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DEAD HUMAN BODIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, McKelvey, Sagum, Say, Tokioka and Wakai being excused.

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2) recommending that H.B. No. 29, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 29, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to say a couple of things in support of HB 29. I am in support in the sense of raising a number of questions, which this bill probably responds to. This is, by the way, the 'cadaver bill.' The Human Bodies bill. And it raises probably more questions than it may answer. It's provocative.

"But my concern is that the next Committee look at the line in the sand between science and commercialism and exploitation; between the need to educate and the need to titillate. And, quite frankly, I was in Red Square. I saw Lenin, looking at that for scientific, historical purposes. We see fetuses that are less than eight weeks old to show you what abortion can do. There's a number of things that this kind of opens the box up for.

"I just wanted to say for the next Committee that looks at this, please don't get overtaken with the commercial aspect, but be very scientifically exacting and beware of geopolitical motives, which I think are somewhat underlying within this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of this measure, but to express some reservations. I have no desire to attend the exhibit that is now at one of our shopping centers, but I have no objection if other people do wish to visit this exhibit. I understand it's quite remarkable.

"My objection to this particular resolution has to do with the governmental functions that will attend this bill. The Department of Health did not want to administrate this program, and suggested another department do it. It would take certain people to run the program to be experts in it. And there's a fee involved in it to cover the administrative expenses of this program, and I'm not sure any fee would be sufficient to administrate this program and pay for the expertise.

"So, I just think that we should take another look at this before we move this measure on final passage. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 29, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DEAD HUMAN BODIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, McKelvey, Sagum, Say, Tokioka and Wakai being excused.

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3) recommending that H.B. No. 36, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 36, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection with Representatives Chang, McKelvey, Sagum, Say, Tokioka and Wakai being excused.

Representative Hanohano, for the Committee on Public Safety presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 4) recommending that H.B. No. 358, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 358, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DRUG TREATMENT," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, McKelvey, Sagum, Say, Tokioka and Wakai being excused.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative B. Oshiro moved for the adoption of H.R. No. 39, seconded by Representative Finnegan.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, I rise with a bit of history in my support for this measure, in that I appreciate you, Mr. Speaker, and the leadership that every year entertains the possible changes that the Minority would suggest. This year, five changes were suggested and though they weren't successful, well maybe there was a half of one, there's one more that I wanted to bring forward that some of us are a little bit sensitive to and would like to remind the Members about, and that was one of the real changes was to use the Mason's Rules vis-a-vis the call for recess.

"In Mason's Rules, section 216, Rules Governing Motions for Recess. The motion to recess cannot be made while another has the floor or during the voting or the verification of the vote. Unfortunately, the Rules of the House is silent on this. When some Members were speaking and someone called for a recess, they said, 'Well yeah, it's against Mason's Rules but, it's a tradition here.' So I would only say, Members, let's be respectful of each of us as we speak, and if you don't like what somebody's saying, stand up and refute it, rather than stand up and recess it because that, according to the rules, is not 'kosher.' Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 39, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION AMENDING THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII TO CORRECT TECHNICAL ERRORS," was adopted with Representative M. Oshiro being excused.

Representative Luke: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today is probably one of our beloved colleagues' last day of Session before he heads on off to Kuwait. Joining us in the Gallery, if I may be permitted a late introduction, are his parents. Mr. Erik and Mrs. Naomi Takai, if you would stand up. And the person who will be doing all the work while he's gone, taking care of his children, Sami Takai. Thank you."

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wasn't going to say anything today. I told the Speaker yesterday that I just want to kind of disappear. But let me just say this: I really appreciate the emails, the visits to the office, the phone calls, everything that our colleagues and friends, some of whom I haven't seen or heard from for quite a while. All the good wishes, the prayers and everything are much appreciated.

"I have the awesome privilege of not only serving in this House with you and all of our colleagues, but also serving in the Hawaii Army National Guard. It's truly a double honor to be able to do that.

"While I'm away, as you know, we've got great representation by what I call the Aiea/Pearl City team on the Floor, and also in my office. I wanted to, at this time, recognize them since they're here too. And by the way, I didn't even know my family was going to be here, so thank you for coming. "So while I'm away, Mr. Speaker, everything will go on without a hitch, and you can be confident and know that my staff will be working very hard, especially on things like the Hawaii Medal of Honor.

"The last thing I'd like to say is that I truly appreciate the good thoughts and prayers, but there are a lot of other people there. In fact, there's 1,700 National Guard and Reservists from Hawaii currently serving and I'll be meeting up with them. So please, keep them in your prayers, but more importantly, remember our families.

"My family, being away from them is going to be the most difficult thing. I've gone on trips before and have been away, but this is truly going to be a challenge. My wife Sami and all of the other spouses here who are left behind to care for our loved ones; they need to be watched over, and prayers need to be directed towards them.

"But I'm going to miss this place, and I know you have some very tough decisions ahead. I do know, as the Chief Clerk reminded me yesterday, that I have the awesome opportunity of watching you on the Internet. Although it's 13 hours and it's going to be at some ungodly hour, I'll keep track of all of you. Thank you, very much. Mahalo."

Vice-Speaker Magaoay: "Representative Takai, as you leave, two things I want to ask of you. Be sure you make us proud as a Member of this legislative body of the House. And also we ask you to come home safely. Your family is here in Hawaii, good luck to you, and Godspeed with you."

While Chief Justice Lum was best known as a lifelong jurist, first in the Circuit Court and subsequently as the head of Hawaii's Judicial branch of government, Chief Justice Lum served also as the Clerk of this House from 1957 through 1961, a seat now occupied by one of his former law clerks, our own Pat Mau-Shimizu.

"Like so many other local boys of that generation, Chief Justice Lum served in the Army. After completing his term, he came home, purchased a one-way ticket to the mainland and earned his college and law degree through the G.I. Bill of Rights. And after purchasing another one-way ticket home, he returned to Hawaii and joined other progressives, such as Governor John Burns, Senator Dan Inouye, Sakae Takahashi, Governor Ariyoshi, and others to form Hawaii's modern day Democratic Party.

"That was a difficult decision for Chief Justice Lum, as the local Chinese community was predominantly Republican, due to the popularity of the late Senator Hiram Fong.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak on Stand. Com. Report No. 30 with reservations. The reservations I have are twofold. One is that we're requesting to set some money aside from the surplus that we have, if we have any. Right now we have a deficit. I don't know if they should share in the deficit also, whatever it is.

"But, as much as we favor these children's programs, the keiki programs, there are so many other needs. There are needs in housing. There are the needs for the disabled. The needs for the aged. The needs for the poor, etc., that we must look at. To single out only one program to use this surplus, I believe is basically unfair to the rest of the needy that we have. I think we need to look at it in a broad prospective area, rather than just singly choose one particular item.

"Also, for the referral, I believe this also should go to Finance. Right now it only goes to Judiciary, and if it's going to be using money, it should become a financial item. That's all, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I speak in favor of the measure. Mr. Speaker, the financial troubles facing us have highlighted the failure of our society to save and be prepared for unseen crises.

"This bill encourages the habit of saving, by establishing a custom that is very successful in Great Britain, Tahiti, and more recently in the State of Maine, where at birth, each child has established for him a savings account, with the initial deposit made from taxes collected in years of surplus. I think the financial crisis before us makes this something that we should consider very carefully. Thank you, very much."

No. 885, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION TO USE A PORTION OF THE GENERAL FUND BALANCE EXCESS TO FUND THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT ACCOUNT PROGRAM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Awana, Takai and Wakai being excused.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of Standing Committee Report No. 38. I'd just like to express a reservation. Although I favor the use of family leave so an employee can care for a sick family member, I'm not sure this is exactly the right time for us to lower the number of employees before family leave is allowed, because our economy is very weak at this point. We have just seen two popular restaurants go out of business very recently. It's another imposition on businesses with 50 employees, and I think we should wait to make this change. Thank you."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, this is the time of day when everybody's hungry, and on behalf of Representative Mizuno and Senator Sakamoto, we invite you to the Fellowship Luncheon that's going to be in about a minute in Room 437.

"It is interesting with the discussion from Representative Ching before she prayed, she talked about slavery. We're going to talk about the role of Wilberforce and the slave trade that was outlawed by his actions in the British Parliament. So come and have food and a discussion. Room 437. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to echo my good colleague from Hawaii Kai's comments. Everybody is hungry this time of year, and many of us are struggling with many issues of economy, resources, programs, and budgets here in the House. But at the heart of it, what we are struggling for are really the lives of the people who we represent.

"This year there have been a growing number of laid-off employees and working families that we'll need to help, who have been having trouble getting ends to meet. And more than 131,000 individuals, including over 33,000 children have come to rely on the Hawaii Foodbank to put food on their tables this year. My office, along with the Honorable Representative from the 19th District spent this morning with delegates of the Hawaii Foodbank, and we've been moved by the growing need in our communities for this basic support. Not fancy cuisine or plate lunches even, but the need is for real food, basic resources, things that anybody needs to survive.

"This year, I'm quite honored to have been appointed as the House designee to run the Foodbank Coordinated Program. And I know each of us wants to help. The laws we make and the budgets we craft will be an important part of helping our people cope. But on a more personal level, we can all help by giving generously to the Hawaii Foodbank. And I know in years past we've had some fantastic offices put together some awesome programs, selling hot dogs and natto and things of that sort.

"I finally ask that we all support the Hawaii Foodbank by wearing an orange ribbon, which each of us will find on our desk today, which represents hunger awareness, and tells everybody that we will not allow our ohana to go hungry. So please give generously. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I believe this is an innovative way to address our homeless population here in the islands. Forty percent of homeless are not kama'aina. This bill is a pilot program in an attempt to reduce the number of homeless people, and also decrease our State budget and our liability towards this type of population.

"As you know Mr. Speaker, when they enter the social services system in our State, the State liability is not anything lower than $2,000 a month. This measure, if they are to go back, and they volunteer to go back, please understand, we're not forcing anyone to go back home. It's just a voluntary program. The way the non-profits would handle it, is that it would be a discounted fare to those bulk travel agencies who cannot fill in the seats. So the fares could be as low as $200 for those that are available on that day of travel and they could travel, because they don't know when the seats are going to be available. So those people that are available that day can be all dressed and be taken to the airport and go back to their family and state of origin. So, considering that the State liability for these people is not anything lower than $2,000 a month, a one-way ticket to the place they want to go, I believe is much lower than the $2,000.

"Granted that there are concerns that this matter can be abused. But I think, and I believe with those people that are allocating these tickets, that they know the difference if they're being taken advantage of or not. So, those are my arguments, Mr. Speaker, and I believe this measure is not just to benefit the State budget, but also, it's known that the people when they go back to their families, that they're better taken care of. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing with reservations. I understand the Chair's intent and I support the intent as this measure moves forward. I just have concerns that we may be displacing some of our needy, and they might need adequate mental health issues, other health issues addressed before we ship them off to be somebody else's responsibility. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1187, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HOMELESS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Takai, Takumi and Wakai being excused.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise to vote in support, but with some reservations on this measure, Stand. Com. No. 43, House Bill 1692. Basically what this bill does, is it prohibits certain people from living in an affordable housing facility for more than 5 years. I completely understand the intent, because we do have a two-year backlog for a lot of our housing in the State, for affordable housing. But I think perhaps what we should concentrate more on, is why are some of them staying so long.

"I do want to reveal a conflict. I do work for a homeless shelter which also deals with affordable housing," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"With my experiences in this area, I found that some programs have very comprehensive programs. As soon as they enter an affordable housing facility, or a homeless shelter, they are immediately evaluated. Why are you in this situation? Is it for mental reasons? Is it for health reasons? Or is it just that you lack some of the education or training that will allow you to perhaps move forward in life, get a higher paying job? And sometimes it's just a simple fact of having certain programs and classes that you need to take to advance you and your family to the next level; to get out of the affordable housing situation.

"So I don't know if it's so much that we should emphasize so much on the time factor. We should perhaps have more reevaluations as people do succeed. There have been some cases, and I understand that that's why this bill was put forth, where people don't qualify for affordable housing anymore, because they are more successful and they're using their spot where someone that's more disadvantaged than them should be in that spot instead. So perhaps we should focus more on more programs that would teach them to get out of their situation and move on so that others can replace them, as well as reevaluate their economic status instead."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB329 HD1. This bill would require the State to reject all Title V federal funding.

"Title V funding requires grantees to teach sexual education in a manner that emphasizes abstinence only until marriage. Grantees are prohibited by law from providing information about the health benefits of condoms and birth control in protecting unwanted pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases, and human immunodeficiency viruses.

"In 2007 a study commissioned by Congress and done by Mathematica Policy, studied two thousand children that found that teaching abstinence does not keep teenagers from having sex, nor does it increase the likelihood that they will use contraception if they do.

"Another study done in 2003 showed that over eighty per cent of the curricula used by Special Programs of Regional and National Significance Community-Based Abstinence Education grantees contained false, misleading or distorted information. It is in the best interest of Hawaii's youth to obtain accurate information with which they can make educated decisions.

"This bill should go forward so the discussion can continue."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB330 HD1. This bill would require that any recipient of state funding that provides sexuality health education to provide medically accurate, factual, and comprehensive information that is age appropriate and includes education on abstinence and contraception.

"Between 2005 and 2006, teen pregnancies in Hawaii have actually spiked by 12%. It is not certain what the cause is. However, national studies have shown abstinence only education to be ineffective in this regard.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe youth should be provided with factual, accurate information so they can make responsible decisions to protect themselves against unwanted pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases. Giving our youth the opportunity to receive a comprehensive sexual education would do just that. Therefore, the State should only fund programs that provide comprehensive sexual education."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Report No. 58, with reservations. This would offer the ability to buy health insurance for employees who work at least 15 to 19 hours a week. And, if they're willing to pay for it, it should be okay, but I think we should be aware that this will create a lot of administrative work for the employer. It might be a for-profit business or a non-profit, and it doesn't spell out how long these people are employed.

"A lot of people are seasonal workers, construction workers, Christmas-time workers, or any short-time workers. So, it might be very onerous to have people coming on and off the health insurance rolls, if they're only employed for a few weeks at time. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against House Bill 1518, which is the motor vehicle towing-charge increase bill. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this is Standing Committee Report No. 99. What this bill does, is it will now allow tow companies to pass on the General Excise Tax. At least on Oahu, that's 4.5 percent to anyone who has had a car towed. It's another way of increasing what people have to pay in the event that they are unfortunate enough to have a car towed away.

"Last Session, Mr. Speaker, I talked about some of the tow companies that were 'fishing', and they were going around and waiting for people to maybe leave their car briefly, run in to do something, and come back out. But they were not called to come and move their car. They were driving around to areas where they knew that they could nab one and pull it away.

"I don't like to keep encouraging those tow companies by increasing the money that they're going to be able to retain, and I believe I will hear back from the Chair of Transportation in rebuttal to what I'm saying. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Honorable Marilyn Lee
38th Representative District
Hawaii State Capitol, Room 421
415 South Beretania Street
Honolulu, HI 96813

Dear Representative Lee:

The Department of Health, Healthy Hawaii Initiative would like to thank you for your participation in the recent Policy Makers Breakfast. We hope that the presentation provided you with insightful information on the Healthy Hawaii Initiative and their efforts in the promotion of active living communities.

Knowing that policy changes can have the greatest population-based impact, three policy opportunities were highlighted during the presentation. The following is a summary of the recommendations discussed at the breakfast.

- Adopt a Statewide Complete Streets Policy
  Complete streets provides an opportunity to plan and design for all modes of transportation i.e. vehicles, bikes, pedestrians and transit. Anytime a street is built, retrofitted, or repaired all modes of transportation would need to be accommodated. The adoption of a complete streets policy provides the opportunity for people of all ages and abilities to travel safely within the public right of way.

  A Complete Streets policy could contain the following recommendations:
  - Tie receipt of state DOT funds to "completeness" – requiring projects to address all four modes of transportation
  - Require accommodations for all modes (pedestrians, bicycles, transit and motor vehicles) all the time
  - Determine a process for exemptions and provide a detailed description of those exemptions. Projects may, on occasion, be unable to accommodate all modes and considerations for this should be made.
  - Identify topical areas for professional development of state, county, city, and private engineers and planners and provide funding to support the delivery of training
  - Recognize and reward efforts to retrofit areas to accommodate all modes of travel

- Support Safe Routes to School Programs
  Safe Routes to School programs encourage and enable more children to safely walk and bike to school. National programs have provided increased opportunities for physical activity and have helped to alleviate traffic congestion and motor vehicle emissions around schools.

  Safe Routes to School Policy Recommendations
  - Conduct a Statewide travel mode evaluation
    - Identify where children live, what travel mode they use, travel time and reason for their choice
  - Provide mini grants for school SRTS workshops
    - Train an in-state SRTS facilitation team
    - Provide small grants for school workshops ($500 - $1000) that encourage planning for the development of a SRTS program or application for SRTS funding

- Modify/Create Laws & Zoning Ordinances that support Active Living
  Institutionalize the details of active living designs into the zoning, ordinances, subdivision rules and regulations and provide for mixed use developments.

  Planning & Zoning Policy Recommendations
  State level enabling legislation:
  - Draft explicit language requiring multiple modes of transportation (walk, bike, transit, vehicle)
  - Conduct transportation analyses & appropriate impact mitigation
  - Provide guidance and incentives for more mixed-use developments and protection of open space

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. If I may just add to the support for Stand. Com. Rep. No. 101. And just to say thanks to the Representative for taking the lead in really pushing the Safe Routes to School Program. It's something that has been five years in the making for Hawaii. We're behind the mainland. And there's $5 million so far, racking up towards creating these programs, and has yet to be released.

"So, she's really taking a bold step in really finding a very creative way of getting these funds to the schools and to the communities to create these safe routes to schools so people are walking and biking at a very early age, and that becomes a lifetime thing. I'm really appreciative for the effort. In strong support."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to speak in strong support of Stand. Com. No. 149. Mr. Speaker, I want to speak in strong support of House Bill 1525, which relates to the awarding of Medicaid contracts by the Department of Human Services to non-profit insurance entities. As the introducer of a related bill, I speak with great concern on behalf of my many Waianae Coast constituents, whose health and well-being have long depended on services offered by a non-profit health center through a locally owned non-profit insurance plan.

"When the bill was heard by our Committees on Human Services and Health, they received strong and supportive testimony from community-oriented agencies and individuals. Opposing testimony came, as would be expected, from for-profit entities beholden to their stockholders. Objections to the bill also came from State agencies expressing concern that it would stifle competition and deny competitors, quote "a level playing field."

"While the concept of a level playing field is in theory a noble idea, these public sector testifiers may not be aware of the slanted, obstacle-strung terrain on which some of our local competitors were made to play in the recent QExA process. For example, Aloha Care, the local non-profit that has regularly under-bid other plans and given back to the community in countless ways, submitted a bid to DHS for the QExA Program. Their bid was returned unopened. So much for level playing fields.

"I believe there is room in Hawaii's healthcare arena for providers and health plans of every description, non-profit and for-profit alike. I'm not against competition, nor are the responsible leaders for non-profits, with whom I am acquainted. I say bring on the competition, but let's make sure it's fair. I urge my colleagues to move this bill along to allow for further discussion. And I have additional written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of HB 1525, which relates to the awarding of Medicaid contracts by the Department of Human Services to non-profit insurance entities. As the introducer of a related bill, I speak with great concern on behalf of my many Wai'anae Coast constituents whose health and well-being have long depended on services offered by a non-profit health center through a locally-owned non-profit insurance plan.

"The Wai'anae Coast Comprehensive Health Center - along with other community health centers in low-income areas throughout the State - has a proven track record in serving its 12,000 Medicaid patients; 1,500 of these are in the Aged, Blind & Disabled (ABD) category which is now covered under the State's new managed care program, QUEST Expanded Access (QExA). With the awarding of contracts to two for-profit companies - relatively unknown in Hawaii and with questionable performance nationally - to provide Medicaid coverage to this special population, I am deeply troubled. I fear that my constituents will lose the personal and culturally sensitive care they have become accustomed to; and I have a greater fear that in this current economic crisis some will be left with no healthcare at all.

"When the bill was heard by our Committees on Human Services and Health, it received strong and supportive testimony from community-oriented agencies and individuals. "I urge my colleagues to move this bill along to allow for further discussion."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

Speaker Say: "You would like to say a few words on Second Reading? And then for Third Reading, whatever you state will not be a part of that?"

Speaker Say: "Members, these are measures that are passing Second Reading and being placed on the calendar for Third Reading. The Chair is requesting, with your indulgence, that we have the discussion more on Third Reading rather than Second Reading. But Representative Ward has decided that he would like to speak on Second Reading, and the Chair will allow him to do so."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 444, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker for your indulgence. Thank you colleagues for allowing me to speak on an issue that is so macro, so structural that I think speaking not against it, as I rise against H.B. 444, I would be remiss in making an important footnote.

"Mr. Speaker, in rising in opposition, I say the following. As Americans, we love freedom, we love democracy, and we love equality. Of these three values of freedom, democracy, and equality, equality stands out today because of the almost sacred place it has in the two corollaries of equality of the law, and equality of opportunity.

"Even though our democracy has not always got right, it's always been self-correcting. And Mr. Speaker, that's the beauty of H.B. 444. It's correcting the past denial of rights, by extending the legal benefits of marriage to same-sex couples. I don't have a problem with this. Mr. Speaker, what I feel we've erred in, however, is the assuming that conferring the rights of same-sex couples will end at civil unions.

"If we listen to the Democratic Party GLBT Caucus, it was made pretty clear in the newspapers, even before we took Session, that this was going to be the Session that strides towards marriage could be made, and we could put marriage back on the legislative map. This combined with the statements of the Majority Leader from Aiea, in the Advertiser following last Thursday's vote of 12 to 0 in the Judiciary Committee that quote, "passage of H.B. 444 was just one small step." These statements clearly indicate that this bill is not an end in itself. It is a means to an end of same-sex marriage, not a bundle of rights for the same equal status with marriage.

"If this is not the goal, Mr. Speaker, I stand corrected. But if it is the goal, why are we pretending that it isn't? That's the basic question of my comments. Why are we pretending that what follows will not be re-living of the culture wars that we had back in 1998? Why are we pretending that we will not anger and frustrate the communities of Faith?

"For example, Mr. Speaker, the 4,000 member Muslim community, for the first time ever, weighed in on this bill. Even though it was in writing, they said they are entirely opposed to civil unions, same-sex marriage, etc. And Mr. Speaker, what about the 250,000 Catholics that were represented with the Hawaii Family Forum? The 100,000 Protestants? And the countless numbers of Mormons, who upon the knowledge of this bill being passed, will again start up these culture wars that we went through ten years ago.

"And Mr. Speaker, the bill we pass today will say to our constituents, or, do we say to our constituents, 'Oh this bill is just about legal rights and has nothing to do with same-sex marriage.' I would contend we're setting ourselves up for a fall, Mr. Speaker. I don't want to be the one who says, 'I voted for the bill before I voted against it,' because the issue will be coming back to us. And when it comes back, you will need only a bit of a tweaking in its title, and bingo, we've got same-sex marriage.

"So let's stop pretending that the issue will be resolved today, because I know, you know, and everybody in this Chamber knows that this is just round one. The fact of the matter is, we are not voting for civil unions with this bill, we are voting for same-sex marriage. I'm voting 'no' on this bill for the same reason that the Chair of EEP refused last week in a hearing to not even be able to study nuclear energy development for electricity, fearing even a study could lead to the nuclearization of Hawaii."

Representative Evans rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the speaker has been talking about this bill, and now he is referring to something done by another Committee Chair. I would think that's inappropriate."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, would you confine your remarks to the bill before us, and not the process?"

Representative Ward: "I want the people to understand, Mr. Speaker…"

Speaker Say: "…but not the process, Representative Ward."

Representative Ward: "I want the people to understand, Mr. Speaker that sometimes, it's not what's in front of us, it's what's behind the bill that is …"

Speaker Say: "Representative Ward, please continue on with your remarks."

Representative Ward: "Okay, I won't give the example where the Chair of Judiciary wouldn't hear the bill about the definition of a fetus, because it might …"

Speaker Say: "Representative Ward, could you confine your words?"

Representative Ward: "Okay, let me continue with the heart of the issue. My point is, Mr. Speaker, bills are rejected because the Chairs know what is behind them, and with H.B. 444, we too have to know what is behind the bill."

Speaker Say: "Representative Ward, you may be inferring something that may be incorrect at this point, as far as what the Chairs decide to do on measures. Please proceed with your statement."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"So, the bottom line, Mr. Speaker, is let's not be naïve about this. Let's give rights, but let's not give away marriage. The majority of the people have already spoken about marriage. Seventy percent clearly indicated in 1998, that they do not want same-sex marriage. And parenthetically, Mr. Speaker, neither does our new President, Obama, want same-sex marriage.

"But if this Body does want same-sex marriage, let's do the right thing and take it to the people of Hawaii, and let it go to a vote. The people deserve a say in this process, which I started out saying, if it's so macro, so structural, everybody should be able to weigh in on it.

"So lastly, Mr. Speaker, I am ready to admit I am wrong, if this bill passes and stops at civil unions. But, perhaps the Majority Leader would like to respond to assure us that his goal, and the ultimate goal of this piece of legislation is not same-sex marriage. And if the goal is same-sex marriage, that he would admit openly and honestly that that is the case.

"Again, I don't have a problem with civil unions. I have a problem with same-sex marriage, like the rest of the majority in this State, and possibly a majority in this Chamber. Again, the bottom line is, let's give rights, but let's not give away marriage. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the Majority Leader if he'd care to respond. Thank you."

The Chair addressed the Body, stating:

"Is there any other discussion, Members of the House? The Chair has requested to the Members that we take this up on Third Reading, but if you would like to make your statement now, that will be incorporated into your statement on Third Reading."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just very briefly, I'd just like to respond and clarify, since I think some of the statements were directed at me. So if you don't mind, I'd like to take this moment to state my reasons in support, and I think that's the problem when you read things out of context.

"When I talked about this being the first step, what I was really talking about is the legislative process. As we all know, we have Second Reading, Third Reading, then it goes to the Senate for three Readings. They will have a Committee hearing, or two Committee hearings. If that happens, it goes to Conference, and then we have Final Reading.

"So when I said first step, that's the battle and the boxing match I was talking about. And really, that's the round one that I'm speaking of, because this is only the beginning. We're three and half weeks into Session. We've got a long way to go. So, that really was what I was talking about. So, at this point, there is no ultimate goal. I think that is something for each legislator to decide, for each legislator when they get elected. That's democracy, that's the way it works, and that's the way I want to see it happen. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 444 - Relating to Civil Unions. In July of 1997, the Legislature enacted the Reciprocal Beneficiaries law (Act 383) providing reciprocal beneficiaries with hospital visitation, insurance benefits and property and inheritance rights. This bill is unnecessary.

"When a controversial law such as H.B. 444 comes to this Body we must look to the people of Hawaii for guidance and take into account what they have to say. To find out what the people of Hawaii have to say on H.B. 444 we need not look any further than their vote in 1998 on this very same issue, where an overwhelming 70 percent of Hawaii's voters voted in favor of traditional marriage."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a no vote, and I will wait until Thursday."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, yes. I rise for a brief refutation. I'm pleased that the Majority Leader has come out saying that this is not a hidden agenda for same-sex marriage. If that is true, all of the previous citations of the Caucus of the Democratic Party will not hold true also, even though I'm not sure that he can speak for them.

"The fundamental issue is this Mr. Speaker. If this is about rights and rights for equality, we already have the repository of reciprocal beneficiaries. We could just pile it to the very top if it was just about rights. But because we have not chosen that view, then everybody is saying civil unions is the only way to go. That to me says, we're not really interested in rights. We're not really interested in equality. We want something above and beyond that, which if you look at what happened in Massachusetts, it was civil unions, which then proceeded to same-sex marriage.

"Mr. Speaker, it is naïve to think that we are not on the path towards that, and we are fooling ourselves if we're just playing around with rights, because if we really wanted to do rights, we would fill up with a bundle of rights, the reciprocal beneficiaries. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to speak in support of the measure, with reservations. I rise in support this measure with strong reservations, and I do apologize to some of the members who have heard this speech, probably for six years in a row. The original bill would require hospital emergency rooms to provide medically accurate information on emergency contraception to survivors of sexual assault, and to offer emergency contraception, EC, if requested. An amendment would require the victim to be transported to another facility, if the hospital in question had a policy against the administration of EC. Mr. Speaker, I believe this is not only a patients' rights issue, but an issue of victims' rights.

"When a victim of a violent crime that results in physical injury is seeking medical attention, the system should do everything possible to respond, and do everything that is medically necessary. There should be no question about this. Sexual assault or rape is a crime that is violent, traumatic, and the ultimate violation in which a woman loses all her sense of personal control, decision-making, and dignity. Physically and psychologically, she's ripped apart.

"So what are the responsibilities of healers to this victim? She must be informed about procedures being followed to ease her pain, provided information critical to decisions regarding her injuries, be informed of the risk of sexually transmitted disease, asked to provide evidence that she may have been given substances without her knowledge before the assault, and be given honest information about the risks of possible pregnancy. She should also be offered emergency contraception.

"The amendment made to this bill takes away the victim's rights. Mr. Speaker, no providers of any kind of care should have the right to make decisions for a victim about healthcare related to rape, or to withhold information that would allow the victim to make an informed decision. No one really has the right to refuse to provide emergency contraception.

"Some may confuse RU486 with emergency contraception. This is unfortunate. Emergency contraception is a safe, effective, backup birth control method that can prevent pregnancy after unprotected sex. Emergency contraceptive pills contain high doses of the same hormones found in daily birth control pills: estrogen and progestin. RU486 is a completely different drug. EC helps to prevent pregnancy, while RU486 terminates pregnancy. The fact is, EC reduces the needs for abortion.

"Across the nation, more than 400 Catholic non-profit hospitals dispense EC to rape victims. So, we know it cannot be a violation of Catholic Tenants. A for-profit corporation seeking a religious exemption would not qualify because of the standards set in Hawaii related to contraceptive services, and surely would not be exempt if they seek public funds. An exemption, such as the one offered in the amendment to this bill, fails to satisfy two key tests. One, does a refusal to provide EC place burdens on people who do not share the beliefs that motivate the refusal? The more burdens fall on such people, the less acceptable is any claimed right to refuse. Two, does the objector of a sectarian institution engage in religious practices, or is it instead an entity, religiously affiliated or not, operating in a public, secular setting? The more public and secular the setting, the less acceptable an institution's claimed right to refuse.

"The public policy issue we face here today is that victims of sexual assault deserve the fullest and best care available. The public policy we endorsed in the original bill, is the assurance that all hospital and emergency personnel are properly trained in handling the special needs of rape victims.

"The public policy here is a patient's right to self-determination in the exercise of control over her own body, and to determine whether or not to accept lawful, medical treatment. Thank you, very much."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in strong support. I know it's only Second Reading, but I do want to address the comments made by the previous speaker, regarding the amendments made. Mr. Speaker, the Committee on Health and the Chair felt that the recommendations that are proposed in these bills would help address and make sure that every victim is treated honestly, directly, and with compassion.

"So Members, in this bill, we did give an exemption for religious entities that are providing hospital care. However, we did put in a great stipulation that they must provide all accurate information. They must provide the information like any other emergency room would. We also put in a stipulation that once a patient decides to choose an option that that religious facility felt they could not provide, that they would be given free transportation to another facility immediately. And I stress the word 'immediately,' to receive appropriate care, at no cost to that patient. It was specifically stated in this bill that information, both verbal and written would be given to the patient or victim to explain that this choice, or their option, was not due to the patient's fault, but due to their own religious affiliation.

"Members, in an attempt to make sure that all medically appropriate information was given to the patient, we assure that all choices for the patient are given. However, the choice of the Chair, and the recommendation to the Committee was to let that patient choose. If they wanted to choose an option of best care, to transport that person to where they can get it. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I would like to cast my vote with serious reservations, and I would like to adopt the words of my Co-Chair of the House Women's Caucus, the Representative from Mililani Mauka. And Mr. Speaker, I wanted to add a few words.

"I'm very disturbed that this Body isn't looking first and foremost at the victim of a rape that is taken to a hospital, and needs to have emergency care immediately. The idea that we would then say to that victim, 'You are now going to have the option to be transported to another hospital that will provide you the care that you need.' That, to me is very heartless, and I think we should have the courage to stand here as a Body to say, 'We are not going to provide any exemptions to this requirement that all hospitals in Hawaii give immediate care to that victim of rape.' Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. And in all due respect, I can see the reasonable thinking on both sides of this. I do represent the district of the Catholic hospital, and in the history of this hospital, I think it is important to understand that there would be no hospital without the Catholic Sisters creating such a hospital. So, in respect to their faith, I am appreciative of the exemption, and I ask that additional written comments, as well as the comments of the Representative of Mililani be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of H.B. 423 - Relating to Sexual Assault; Emergency Contraception. This bill appears to be a good compromise, wherein both the hospital and the concerns of the Women's Caucus are addressed. I appreciate that this bill takes into account the religious beliefs of the hospitals and does not attempt to force unwanted policy upon religiously affiliated medical centers. This bill will keep hospitals with religious objections to emergency contraception, out of a potentially precarious situation. Being the Representative for a district that has a hospital which operates with religious stipulations, I understand the importance of this bill. I am pleased that respect for religious beliefs were acknowledged."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, this is a great opportunity for a compromise between the pro-choice and the pro-life people to say, 'Well we'll get an exception. We have one hospital that wants to get out of this requirement.' And, because of the lack of understanding on both sides, or agreeing to disagree, for six years, we've been going over and over and over the same thing. But I think everybody will realize that no one's forced to go to any particular hospital, and generally, you go to the nearest one and the best one, given what the situation is. And I don't believe that the record of testimony has ever indicated that anybody was sent to that particular hospital of the Catholic faith, which had a problem.

"So, I think this is a chance for compromise, it's a chance for mutual understanding, and it's a chance for, at least 'Big Brother' to broker what otherwise has been a really recalcitrant group on both sides of this particular issue. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too have strong reservations on this bill. I would like to give a few comments.

"First, I would like to adopt the words of the speaker from Mililani and the speaker from Kailua as my own. And also, I want to emphasize that there should be no compromise for the healthcare of a rape victim; that they should receive the best care possible immediately, and not have to be transported elsewhere. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives M. Lee and Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have strong reservations."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too, have strong reservations and would like to adopt the words of the Representatives from Mililani, Kailua, and Kauai. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 423, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTIVES FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT SURVIVORS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representative Takai being excused.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 655, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REMOTE DISPENSING PHARMACIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 185) recommending that H.B. No. 811, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 811, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. May I ask for a ruling for a potential conflict? My husband is a registered nurse," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Belatti continued in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"May I also note my reservations and make a few comments? What concerns me about this bill is the potential impact it may have on our graduates coming out of our nursing programs, and their prospects for job opportunities. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to speak with reservations. But do I have a potential conflict? I am a registered nurse," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative M. Lee continued in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I rise with reservations on this bill because I feel that it would put consumer safety at risk in the State of Hawaii. CGFNS International which was formerly the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools is recognized internationally as an authority on credentials evaluation pertaining to the education, registration, and licensing of nurses and health care professionals worldwide.

"Now this bill intends to circumvent the process of credentials evaluation and verification for internationally educated healthcare professionals, and replace it with a California document known as the breakdown of educational program for international nursing programs form.

"I'm well aware that there is cost related to this, and that we have a nursing shortage. However, the form that we are talking about is completed by the foreign graduate school. Therefore, the form is not objective and does not account for the vastly un-uniformed standards of nursing programs around the world.

"So, I think the amount of money saved by this bill does not justify the risk to the healthcare consumer. I think we have to look very carefully at passing this legislation. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of this measure. I am also a registered nurse, but I'm a graduate here. And I've worked with a lot of very highly qualified nurses here in the United States that have graduated from foreign schools. And I would even venture to say that, in a lot of ways, they are more qualified and more technically proficient than the ones that have graduated here, because they have done a lot of clinical work that is mandated in foreign schools.

"This bill doesn't take away the right of the state for full examination of the nurses that are licensed in this State. This merely says that they adopt the rules that are adopted in California, which has an initial evaluation of the credentials, but not the way that is being done in this State, wherein they have a Board that looks at it, and it's subject to a lot scrutiny. This scrutiny is taking the Board exam, and that's not a very easy exam to pass. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"The Legislature finds that a foreign nursing school graduate may obtain a license to practice as a registered nurse in Hawaii either by examination or by endorsement. A foreign nursing school graduate may obtain a license by endorsement if the applicant already possesses an unencumbered license as a registered nurse in another country and, in the opinion of the Board of Nursing, meets the qualifications required of registered nurses in Hawaii at the time of graduation. If a foreign nursing school graduate does not already possess a registered nurse license in another country, the applicant may obtain a Hawaii license by examination by passing the National Council Licensure Examination and by complying with applicable requirements of state law and board of nursing rules that regulate nursing.

"Section 16-89-8(c), Hawaii Administrative Rules, requires that a school transcript of a foreign nursing school graduate applying for a license by examination be evaluated by a professional educational credential evaluator recognized by the Board and the applicant must arrange to have the evaluator send a report directly to the Board. The Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools fulfills this credential evaluation function by either issuing a certification through its international certification program at a cost of $418, or by issuing a full education course-by-course report at a cost of $378.

"The international certification program is composed of three parts:

(1) A credentials review;
(2) The international qualifying examination; and
(3) An English proficiency examination.

"The Legislature further finds that not all states require foreign nursing school graduates to undergo these additional procedures to be licensed to practice as registered nurses. For example, California only requires a foreign nursing school graduate to send a document known as the "Breakdown of Educational Program for International Nursing Programs" form to the applicant's school with a request for transcript. Hawaii's rules already require a foreign nursing school graduate to provide a student final record or official transcript sent directly from the applicant's school to the Board of Nursing.

"The purpose of this Act is to require the Board of Nursing to adopt rules to remove the requirement for a foreign nursing school graduate to furnish either a written certification or a full education course-by-course report as a condition to take the licensing examination to obtain a license to practice as a registered nurse in Hawaii."

Representative Aquino rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to raise a possible conflict. My wife is a registered nurse. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 811, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REGISTERED NURSES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 186) recommending that H.B. No. 1362, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1362, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENETIC COUNSELORS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. Report 188, I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm I represent HHSC on some contractual matters. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Mizuno rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request a ruling on a possible conflict. My spouse works as a certified nursing assistant at Leahi State Hospital, that's under HHSC. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a possible conflict. My law partner sits on one of the Regional Boards," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations, and Mr. Speaker, my reservations come from a section of the bill that exempts HHSC from the requirements of the State Procurement Code. Mr. Speaker, we've already exempted the Regional Boards from the Procurement Code. I had a hard time agreeing to that. The corporate division of HHSC does not deserve to be exempt from the Procurement Code. They have such a very gray and bad history of procurement, that they should not be exempt."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1372, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSITIONING OF THE REGIONS AND FACILITIES OF HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1585, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think this is Internet taxation for hotel reservations. I'm going to be voting in opposition to this measure. I think it's just another permutation of Internet taxation, and I think it's not a good idea to tax Hawaii reservations, since we might look a little bit more expensive than other places if it's listed with the total price.

"I also am confused about this. I would like to collect more information on it, but if indeed the tax is paid here, when people check out, then perhaps we don't need this Internet tax in that case. So, I will be watching this as it progresses to Final Reading. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1585, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TAXATION OF ONLINE TRAVEL COMPANIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Tokioka, for the Committee on Legislative Management presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 199) recommending that H.B. No. 1364, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1364, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition with comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On HB 1364, this bill requires the Governor or the Director of Finance to report restrictions of appropriations to the Legislature. The part that I'm bothered with is the remaining part of the bill, which is, 'and failure to issue such reports would result in immediate release of such funds to the Legislature.'

"It would be unwise for us to force spending, regardless of budgetary considerations and restrictions. The Governor is in the Constitution, tasked with maintaining a balanced budget. And it was also brought up in Committee that it's unclear how funds could be released without the Governor's approval to release them. So, Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this bill."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to add my opposition to that. And Mr. Speaker, as stated by our Republican Leader, I think this an unwise step, and it's probably unconstitutional."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'd like to stand in support of this measure. This bill is merely a disclosure bill. It's a bill for transparency in our government, which our Governor said she would do, Mr. Speaker. It does nothing more than just make government more transparent. So, if transparency is what the people want, this bill will do it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In short rebuttal. Mr. Speaker, we pass out all the bills and a budget at the end of the Session, and if we wanted transparency, as a Legislature, we would do the same. We would add up all the bills that have fiscal implications, and we would attach them to the budget, and we would give a clear, transparent way of seeing what we're passing out to the public, so they could see what we're doing with our finances. But we don't. I know for the Minority, we don't get to see that"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"A point of order, Mr. Speaker. The current speaker isn't talking about the bill before us. She's talking about the budget bill. That's a different bill."

Representative Finnegan responded, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I disagree. This has to do …"

The Chair addressed Representative Finnegan, stating:

"Representative Finnegan, let me make that decision. The Majority Leader has stated that you're addressing it from a budgetary point of view, on disclosure and transparency. Can you confine your remarks to them? The transparency and disclosure of what this bill is all about, on the expense side."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, in regards to transparency and disclosure, we can do a better job of being transparent with the public. And if we are going to require these things that actually handcuff the Governor from balancing our budget by having these types of consequences to not reporting, I think that is unwise. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A brief rebuttal as well. It was stated by a Majority member that this was just an effort to be transparent. It's much more than that, Mr. Speaker. It will force spending. And it will force spending, regardless of whether or not we will keep a balanced budget, as required by the Constitution. So, the bill has much broader ramifications than just being transparent. Transparent would be adding the budgetary addition to every single bill with a budget implication, and we consistently have put in such legislation. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Again in opposition and rebuttal. Really, what this bill does is we're usurping the power of the Governor, really by, as the previous speaker says, forcing certain budget matters that have been typically been given to every single Governor before our current Governor. And so, this really continues a long-standing tradition of the last seven years of this Legislature taking powers away from this particular Governor."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This bill requires the Governor to provide a quarterly report to the Legislature on all appropriation restrictions within 30 days after the close of each allotment period. This bill also requires that if restrictions are not reported, appropriations must be immediately released.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that if you look at a CEO of a company, they know the bottom line on a regular basis, month to month. They get reports. They know where the money's at. They know where the pukas are. They know how money's being spent. I do not feel this is unreasonable, because the reality is, our Governor is like a CEO of a company. They have to stay on top of all of this.

"I think that the Representative who introduced the bill, as well as stood up and spoke in favor of it today, really understands the fact that companies have to know their bottomline all the time, and they have to spend money to make their programs effective. I really encourage everyone to support this. Thank you."

The Chair then addressed the body, stating:

"Members of the House, we've had a lot of discussion on this matter on Second Reading. This measure will be referred to the Committee on Finance. At that point when this particular measure is heard, these types of questions in regards to what you have stated on the Floor will be addressed by the testifiers from the Administration."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, and I'll try to be brief. I'm all for the transparency portion of this bill, so I'm for the bill and speak with reservations.

"My reservation is that if the Governor fails to report a restriction, and she's constitutionally allowed to do this, then the money is released. And that release is in contravention to the Constitution. So, therefore, I would hope that the next Committee would take a look at this particular provision very carefully. Thank you very much."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1364 - Relating to the Budget. I don’t believe this bill is fiscally prudent. Now is not that the time to propose a law that will hamstring the Executive Branch from carrying out its responsibility of balancing the budget. This bill could force spending regardless of budgetary considerations and restrictions by the Constitution in maintaining a balanced budget. At this time, it would not be sapient to pass this legislation."

THIRD READING

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 615, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The purpose of this measure is to update Hawaii's harassment law to keep up with technology by including the definition of electronic communication as defined in the Hawaii Revised Statutes section 711-1111(2), which means any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectronic, or photo-optical system. Unfortunately, many individuals are harassing others through the Internet, which is not just accessible through computers, but now through our cellular phones. Harassment can cause annoyance, mental distress, and fear for one's safety. It is our goal to reduce harassment done in person or through technology. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 615, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HARASSMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. The purpose of this measure is to update Hawaii's harassment by stalking law to keep up with technology by including the definition of electronic communication as defined in the Hawaii Revised Statutes section 711-1111(2), which means any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic, photoelectronic, or photo-optical system. Unfortunately, many individuals are stalking others through the Internet, which is not just accessible through computers, but now through our cellular phones. Harassment by stalking can cause annoyance, mental distress, and fear for one's safety. It is our goal to reduce harassment done in person or through technology. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to be recognized, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, I thought I might have missed my chance, because I stood up first the last time."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, shall we incorporate your speech from the other day as your Third Reading?"

Representative Ward: "Well, I was going to get to the back of the bus, but since no one else stood up …"

Speaker Say: "Well, the Chair recognizes you, but please keep it short, since you have already incorporated your speech from the other day into today's Journal."

Representative Ward continued in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I promised you I would speak on something entirely different, which if you listen, I think you'll be able to hear that.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition, because a few days ago I argued that HB 444, on civil unions was really a 'Trojan horse' for same-sex marriage, and that we as legislators were becoming the great pretenders as we watched the emperor going down the street with no clothes on, and insisted by our votes that yes, the emperor has clothes on, because this was really an issue about rights and about things that we could not put into the Reciprocal Beneficiaries Law.

"Mr. Speaker, today I contend again that this bill is not about equality. It's about an end run for same-sex marriage. The bill goes beyond equality, and as much as some of us don't admit it, you will usher in same-sex marriage, as sure as Massachusetts, Connecticut, California, Vermont, and others have used civil unions as the gateway to same-gender marriage.

"Let me give you a real, live example about what I'm talking about, and it entails the State of New Jersey. New Jersey passed a Civil Unions Bill, comparable to this one, in 2006. And then they created the Civil Unions Review Commission to make sure they were doing the right thing, just like a lot of us in this Chamber want to make sure that we're doing today the right thing.

"Then in December 2008, that's just a few months ago, the New Jersey Civil Unions Commission issued a report that concluded, and I quote, Mr. Speaker, 'Civil unions invite and encourage unequal treatment of same-sex couples and their children.' Unequal treatment. As the report details, 'Unless it's called marriage, you're not going to get rights in many cases', said one of the lead commissioners. 'Civil unions are not respected in the real world, and domestic partners are not respected in the real world.'

"Mr. Speaker, they said in effect, after civil unions for two years, they are not treated equally. They are given unequal treatment, and they don't get the respect or the societal approval. And the next quote is, the report went on to say, that marriage equality goes beyond getting enumerated rights that are involved in equality, because real marriage equality was about the dignity that comes with the word and the societal approval that comes with the word 'marriage.'

"Mr. Speaker, this is suggesting that if we go on today, what will happen in a while is that these values that we are putting toward equality will not have an effect. Mr. Speaker, I find it difficult to believe that we will be able to get societal approval for something, where the Muslims to be able to stop believing in the Qur'an is probably a very difficult proposition, as well as Christians stop believing in their Bibles would be a difficult proposition, the same way that if we declared pork the miracle food. No matter what we say, good things about it, Muslims are never going to start eating pork, if you get the analogy. That is not going to happen.

"What happens now with New Jersey, they may be ahead of us, Mr. Speaker, by what they have just done. Clearly, the New Jersey lack of equality argument is coming, and the motivation for us to pretend that it's not coming to Hawaii is not the reality of the situation.

"If we take a lesson from the playbook of New Jersey, the unequal treatment issue we think we are solving today will actually become the reason why HB 444 falls short of what we desire to have happen. HB 444 was supposed to eliminate something that it ends up, in effect, then encouraging. That is the unequal treatment.

"The unanimous recommendation of the New Jersey Civil Unions Commission was to suggest that legislation legalizing same-gender marriage would be the only solution to the problem. Quote, 'Gay rights leaders in New Jersey are hopeful that the report highlighting inequities in the State's Civil Unions Law will prompt the State Legislature to legalize same-sex marriage in 2009, making New Jersey the first state to do so through legislation, rather than court-order.'

"Mr. Speaker, let's stay tuned into New Jersey. It offers insight into what we are doing today, and gives us reason to pause and stop pretending that all we're doing today is about a bundle of rights. In the face of a slumping economy, lack of credit, job losses, I don't think our constituents will be happy with this bill, and the amount of time we are committing to it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Since the existence as a human race, we have been very judgmental with others, especially in the minority sector of people, because of their sex, color of skin, ethnicity, religious beliefs, culture, behavior, and lifestyle. It was the majority of the people that decided what is acceptable for society, and oftentimes, the minority of the people get the short end of the stick. Our great State and country has come so far in regards to equality and compassion. In the past, we had laws that discriminated against every type of minority that I mentioned. We have done so much to correct our wrongful acts by changing our laws to be inclusive, rather than exclusive. However, we still have much work to do in creating equality for all in our great State and country.

"In regards to the same-sex community, our laws do not extend the same rights to them as we do for the heterosexual community. We as a society want people to take care of ourselves and each other. Civil unions will allow same-sex couples to have the same rights as heterosexual couples, without having to change our marriage laws. Keep in mind that we are not only allowing rights, but we are requiring responsibilities of all couples. There are legal liabilities if couples do not care for each other. Too often we hear of cheating, domestic violence, sexual abuse, fighting over money and property, and partnering because we have financial greed.

"When partnerships are dissolved, properties are divided, and custody and visitation rights of children are decided. The real threat to marriage or civil unions, if this measure does pass, is ourselves. Again, this bill does not expand the marriage laws between a man and a woman. This bill only grants the same legal rights and responsibilities required of opposite-sex couples, to same-sex couples.

"I believe that we all want to have a society in which we do not alienate or discriminate against those who are different from any of us. We have come so far in our battle against racial discrimination, and I believe that while we have come a long way in addressing same-sex issues, there is still difficulty in extending the same legal rights that we have for heterosexual couples, to same-sex couples. And again, we are not amending our marriage laws at all.

"We, as a society, must have love and compassion, rather than anger, hate, and discrimination. This Civil Unions bill will help to unify the State and country even further. Let us try to eliminate, or at least minimize our judgments on what we see physically before us. We are judging fellow family, friends, and neighbors because they have a minority lifestyle. Let us look at this issue, not only legally, but esoterically. Body is nothing more than emptiness, and emptiness is nothing more than body. Rather than just looking at what is before us, let us look deeper and see the souls of others. One soul can really love and have compassion, or it can really hate and have discrimination. Instead of judging others, we need to look within our own soul and better ourselves. Let us spread love and compassion, and provide equality for all. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support, and I'd first like to request the opportunity to submit written comments. I just wanted to address some of the legal arguments, first and foremost. And I think it's important for people to realize that reciprocal beneficiaries, what we currently have in the law, it's not the same as marriage, as much as people may try to dress it up and make it look the same.

"When you look at the legislative history in 1997, the Legislature looked at HB 118 that ended up becoming the reciprocal beneficiary law. At that time, initially, there were 146 rights and benefits that were proposed to be conferred upon these couples. However, in the end, when Act 383 became codified into HRS Chapter 572C, only 83, or 56 percent of those rights and benefits ended up making it into law. Later on, 11 of those were removed, so what we have is a total of 72 rights, or 49 percent, or really less than half. So that's what we're really talking about. We're talking about these couples that only get half the rights that every single other couple in this State is entitled to.

"There are a total of 550 additional laws that grant rights, privileges, and benefits for married relationships that don't get afforded to these couples. And so, as much as people may say it's something about 'separate but equal,' it's really not. It's about not even being given the opportunity to ride in the back of the bus. It's actually having to hop along on the tailgate, hop off, hope you don't fall off. And when you fall down, hoping that nobody kicks you when you're already down. That's really what people are fighting for.

"And so, really in conclusion, I wanted to take this opportunity, because I don't know if I'll ever get this chance again, I wanted to personally thank the 32 co-sponsors of HB 444. I wanted to thank the Chair and Vice-Chair of the Committee. I wanted to thank the hundreds of people that submitted testimony and came out for the hearing. I want to thank the 12 members of the Committee that came out to pass the bill. I want to thank all the staff that have received all the calls, emails, and letters. I really want to thank everybody for all of that.

"I've been here for eight years, and it's really inspiring for me today. The first day I stepped foot in this place, I was just awestruck. I was floored and overwhelmed by everything that was possible. Everything that I thought was swirling around and all that could happen. But today, I really am reinvigorated. I'm re-inspired, and I'm uplifted, because what I see is what is the most probable. And even if it's not going to happen today, I know that someday it will.

"There are many days when I've been somewhat disappointed by the political process. I've been frustrated by it. And I'm not trying to bemoan it or complain about it. I understand that's the process, and I accept it. That's what I accepted when I got elected. But today, I really want to thank everybody, because for the first time, I feel like I belong, like I really am trying to make a difference, and I feel sort of my mission being reestablished again.

"As stated by Martin Luther King, Jr. and as quoted by our new President, "The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends towards justice." Today we have that chance to bend that arc. Therefore, thank you everybody for showing me that there are those that are willing to take that bar and bend it. Thank you to everybody for showing me that despite the tyranny of discrimination, the specter of religious dogma, the militancy of the oppressors, there is a day when justice will rise up. There is a day when we can do our job, rather than being worried about keeping our job. There will be a day when we will all stand together and look back at this. It's really going to be just a footnote in the pages of history. There will be a day when acceptance, tolerance, equity, and justice are not just words, but they will be truly embodied by our actions. So let that day come closer, and let that day be today. Thank you, very much."

Representative B. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"World religions such as Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism exist within our country and relate back to the foundation of our great nation. The basic principal of our Founding Fathers was to create a Nation with religious freedom and without religious persecution.

"Hence the free exercise of religion is the first freedom mentioned in the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. This portion of the Amendment states, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." The second clause, containing the phrase "free exercise," guarantees a citizen's right to express religious beliefs, and act in accord with those beliefs.

"If we truly believe this, then why is it that the topic of "benefits", which is civil rights issue, a topic that has anything to do with religion? The phrase "wall of separation between the church and the state" was originally coined by Thomas Jefferson. This is to ensure that the Government stays out of the Church's business and the Church stays out of the business of Government.

"Therefore, as government officials our duty is to fulfill the mission of the government, and to uphold the Constitution of the United States of America. And remember that the Constitution was written to protect all citizens not just a select few, from a select religion.

"The Constitution was written by men who wanted equality and freedom. With that said, it is sad to watch government officials display discourse to equality based solely upon religious affirmations."

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I know that you're very generous, but I think we need some decorum in this Chamber from the members and from those upstairs in the gallery. I'm afraid if this continues, it can escalate. So, if you would please ask for order."

The Chair then stated:

"Thank you very much for that request. For those who are in the gallery, we would like to ask you to at least present some proper decorum in the gallery and in this Chamber."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB No. 444. I support this bill for human compassion and social justice reasons. Whether or not those kinds of partnerships are consistent with our personal or religious beliefs, we all live in communities where same-sex relations exist. Our laws should be applied in a way that impacts all our residents in similar circumstances, equally. I support this bill because I'm convinced that encouraging all our citizens to form marital relations, even if we call them something else, is sound public policy consistent with our basic American value of equal justice under the law.

"I wholeheartedly agree with the opponents of this bill on one point – marriage is a bedrock institution of our civil order. We have a keen interest in preserving marriage and keeping marriage the default expectation for adult life. Marriage is, by far, the most beneficial social institution we have. It's not merely that individuals benefit in a myriad of ways from their own marriages. It's also that the prospect of marrying, the expectation that one will eventually marry, that promote and encourage a wide array of socially desirable behaviors among the unmarried, particularly as examples for young people, including practicing devotion, commitment and fidelity to our significant partners and to our families.

"Marriage benefits us as a community precisely because it conditions its benefits upon the solemn promises of spouses to mutually meet very specific responsibilities to one another. The occasion of a wedding is not merely a celebration of love, it is a ceremony in which two people stand before their loved ones, their closest friends and society at large, in love, support and faithfulness, "for better or worse, in sickness and in health, till death do us part." And these promises that everyone present, rightly expects them to keep, or at least try to keep.

"Unfortunately, because unmarried informal relations such as reciprocal beneficiaries are far less stable and less prestigious than traditional marriages, they fail to deliver many of the benefits of marriage, both to the alternatively arranged parties themselves, and to everyone else. For example, who can argue with the premise that it is better to have two loving and caring parents in a household raising children, than a single-parent household? I would suggest it is good for people to be in relationships where there are socially enforced and legally supported obligations of care and commitment, while arrangements requiring commitments less than those required of a marriage weaken our social fabric, and in doing so, harm us all.

"Finally, I have enough faith to believe that the success or failure of my own marriage depends more on the work and love I pour into it than whether or not we as a community, and today as a legislature, exclude other citizens from entering the same kind of union. The strength or weakness of my own family depends more on the values I demonstrate through my own actions than in dictating those values to others outside of my own family. I prefer to address the logs lodged in my own eyes before concentrating on the specks in others' eyes.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in strong support. I ask that the remarks of our Majority Leader be inserted as my own. I would also like to point out that my own parents were victims of the Miscegenation Laws that looked at race as a reason to keep people from being married. And so, I see this as a continuation of getting rid of these awful, hurtful laws.

"First of all, we aren't looking at marriage, we are looking at civil unions. So, whatever discussion there is about marriage, that isn't what this bill is about. It's about civil rights. And, as a legislature, we're looking at everybody's rights, not just a certain few. That when we passed that amendment back in the '90s, it was 70 percent of the 26 percent of the people who actually voted for that amendment. And so, it was a majority of a minority.

"Finally, it was Nelson Mandela who said, 'Marriage really, is not between a man and a woman. It's between two human beings.' Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, I wasn't going to speak, but when we have views that are opposing and they're considered judgmental or hateful, I felt that I should speak from my own experiences. So, I will take the time to speak. You see, this is one of the hardest speeches that I've ever had to consider writing, and at one point in time, I wasn't going to say anything.

"You see, I grew up loving a sister who was gay. The only reason I say 'was' is because she passed away of cancer in 2001. I know that she can hear me today, and the last thing that I would want for her to feel in any way, shape, or form, is that I didn't love her for who she was. I was very little when my parents found out that my sister was gay. My understanding is that the initial reaction was not a positive one. But soon after my parents found out, they accepted my sister and loved her. So I grew up respecting and loving and accepting my sister, not because she was gay and not despite she was gay. I loved her because she was my sister.

"The reason I am voting against this bill is because my belief is that the decisions we make today will shape our tomorrow. Our laws reflect the hierarchy of what is best for society for the generations of families to come. Marriage between a man and a woman is put up at the top, and has been recognized by government. If we push to have government certify or make legal a union or marriage between the same sex, I believe that we push what is accepted, to what will be promoted. I oppose this direction.

"We infuse morals and how we define marriage currently by stating that marriage shall be between a man and a woman, shall not be between relatives, and shall not occur with a child and an adult, among other things. I hope that at the end of this day, or at the end of this legislative session, that we can find peace within ourselves and with one another. But more important, remember that we can love even with our differences.

"This inner journey was a difficult one to take. I can take this vote in good conscience, because I know that my sister would love me, no matter what I vote today. Thank you."

The Chair then addressed the audience, stating:

"May we please have some proper decorum in the Gallery."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am rising in favor of this bill. Twelve years ago, I voted to make marriage between a man and a woman, but today I am voting for civil unions, because I support family values. Everyone knows that I'm a loving mother of four children and two step-children. And I'm a doting grandmother of seven grandkids. But I believe in obligations and responsibilities and committed relationships, so, of course I don't condone casual relationships. I believe everyone should love and be loved. And I believe that we are all God's little children. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of this bill. And first of all, I would like to thank the Judiciary Chair for having the courage to put us in a situation where we are voting on a monumental bill. What prior Judiciary Chairs, including myself, have failed to do, he has been able to do, and I want to thank him deeply for that.

"I feel today is a great day. I feel kind of ashamed that we have closed our eyes to the discrimination that has gone on, and we have continued to allow discrimination. And it's through bills like this, which will equalize some of the things that we have failed to do in the past. I make no pretense, and I make no apologies about this bill. I know what this bill does. It brings us closer to equality. It doesn't get there, but it's pretty close. And, as we fight for equality for all our citizens, it's something that we have to do. It wasn't long ago where women couldn't vote. And it wasn't long ago when students were segregated in the classrooms because of race. We continue to allow overt discrimination in our community to happen, and it's something that we should not tolerate anymore.

"Mr. Speaker, my son is six now, and he's at a point in time where he understands differences, and he recognizes it. And in his class, I'm thankful that he has a friend who has two mommies. And on his soccer team, he has a teammate who has two daddies. He sees the differences, and he can differentiate, but he accepts it, and he knows that for what it is. They are who they are. And I'm thankful that he is growing up in a time where he understands and differentiates differences, and doesn't discriminate, but accepts it. I'm very thankful for that, and I'm very thankful for today. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I rise today, not just as the youngest member of this body, but as a member of our next generation. And my generation, like each that has come before, has been raised with an expectation that we can make anything of ourselves if we work hard enough, pursue our dreams, and achieve the impossible. We've been promised the 'American Dream,' yet all this means nothing if some of us can be denied the single, most important commitment in our lives.

"So many in my generation are growing up, only to find their pursuit of happiness being inhibited and judged by the values of others, in a country that prides itself on equality, and applauds itself for overcoming generations of prejudice. Now how can this be? Mr. Speaker, as citizens, we have been promised the freedom to choose the way we live, to worship as we desire, to love whomever we love, and to live by the values we choose. Each of us has been promised the liberty to our pursuit of happiness and our own self-determination.

"But promises are not good enough, because today, by validating only some people's commitments to one another, government is either telling us who we should love, or it is affording us rights to one class of people over another. And either way, it isn't free, it isn't equitable, it isn't American, and it isn't right.

"Mr. Speaker, the battle for equality among all Americans is clearly not over. That is why my generation overwhelmingly supports equal rights for all couples. And I rise today on their behalf. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I want to be sure to say this in love, because I think there's been some misinterpretation about when you defend marriage, you're condemning individuals, and I want to be very clear that this is not to condemn individuals. It's to protect an institution, the same way that our forefathers fought to protect democracy, of which some of us have family now in Iraq protecting democracy, and other values which are institutional, which will go beyond all of us in this Chamber and the great nation that we belong to, into posterity.

"But, my point is this, Mr. Speaker. Some of us, if I can go back to my speech Tuesday, I said one of the great core of our country is equality of opportunity, equality under the law. And I said that democracy is self-correcting. Today we are correcting the democratic process that didn't allow equal rights. We should have no problems, as Americans, with equal rights. But Mr. Speaker, there's some of us who don't believe that this bill stops at this juncture of civil unions. That's what this argument is about. In fact, if this argument is incorrect, then let's go back to the people and ask them, as they did in 1998, what do they think? Because this Body should not be the body that determines the future of same-sex marriage.

"If what we are saying today is civil unions, then there's no problem with equal rights. There should not be a problem with equal rights. We're Americans. But if it's to where we're going to change the institution, and morph this in a manner of just tweaking a certain little name in that bill, and then come up and surprise the people, that suddenly we got same-sex marriage, we will have cheated them. We will have cheated democracy, and that's not why we're here, Mr. Speaker. This is the marketplace of ideas. We have to respect this institution, and that's why some of us don't believe that we're doing today the right thing, because of what it's going to lead to. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. As many of the people that know me in this Chamber, especially my husband, I have very strong personal opinions. But as someone reminded me, I'm not here to represent my opinion. I am here to represent the voices of the people of Ewa Beach. And they have clearly spoken. Over 90 percent of them. And that this perhaps is not the avenue in which they would like to see equality. That they would much rather prefer to expand reciprocal beneficiary rights that our leader across from me said was taken away. And that would be a compromise that they would so graciously embrace.

"They wanted me to tell everybody here today, as we talk about discrimination. They wanted me to tell everyone here, please, don't discriminate against them because they're Christian. Don't discriminate against them because they're Mormon. Don't discriminate against them because they're Muslim. It is simply the things that they believe in, and they apologize if it hurts people's feelings. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of the measure to create civil unions. I believe in stable, loving relationships, whether they are in a legal marriage or in alternative circumstances. This measure will allow couples who cannot marry the opportunity to benefit from being in a legal and recognized relationship.

"I believe that attitudes across our nation are changing, and more people are willing to accept and understand alternative lifestyles, as long as there is love and respect between the partners.

"There has been considerable debate over this issue across the nation, and I am grateful our discussion in Hawaii has lead to a positive resolution."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi's written remarks are as follows:

"It's about time. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 444, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL UNIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 33 ayes to 17 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Awana, Ching, Choy, Evans, Finnegan, Har, Ito, Magaoay, Manahan, McKelvey, Mizuno, Pine, Sagum, Tokioka, Ward and Yamane voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today we celebrate the 200th anniversary of who has been called, as I said in the Invocation last week, the Country's greatest President who, validated in every poll of professional historians and ordinary Americans, who had the hardest job of all, but did it triumphantly. It's all part of the Country's unique obsession with a martyred President, who is perceived, as historians say, as the epitome of an American. Born out of the wilderness in Kentucky, self-schooled by candlelight. Who would grow to be the savior of the Union, the fall of slavery, and then sacrificed on Good Friday night in 1865, by an assassin's bullet.

"It's Abraham Lincoln. The founder and father of the Republican Party, who is 200 years old today. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to speak in favor of this measure. I'm in favor of Standing Committee Report 220. The collection of DNA upon felony arrests for violent crimes will help solve cold cases and will save lives by providing earlier ID of serial offenders. It will also absolve the innocent. It will reduce cases of wrongful incarceration, and remove racial bias.

"In the case of rape, expanding DNA database requirements help prevent crimes. An offender that is not apprehended in a timely fashion remains free to commit more crimes. According to the U.S. Department of Justice, the average rapist commits eight to twelve sexual assaults before they are caught. So, if we are able to apprehend the perpetrator after the first assault, an average of seven rapes could be prevented. As so many courts, including the 2nd, 3rd and 9th Circuits, the Virginia Supreme Court, and other federal courts in Maryland, New Jersey and Oregon, have upheld the collection of DNA samples at arrest, as an acceptable and constitutional practice.

"Please vote for this Women's Caucus measure. Thank you."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Tomorrow will be St. Valentine's Day, and I wanted to announce that that is why, as you know, annually I put chocolate on everyone's desk. Americans themselves will consume just a huge amount of chocolate, tomorrow and today. Chocolate which comes from cacao, is able to be grown here in Hawaii. We are the only state that can grow it in the U.S. And I think that the best analogy of chocolate is what tea is to Asia. Tea is a very important drink of Asia as it has spiritual meaning. And what wine might be to Europe, is the drinking of cacao to the entire Americas.

"And so to relook at chocolate, the actual history of chocolate is that it was never meant for children. It is actually an important crop, and I'm hoping that one day we are able to grow it even more. Thank you."

Representative Chong: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is just a reminder that your Housing Committee is going to have decision-making at 1 p.m. today in Room 329. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, as the only male of the Minority Caucus, I wish all of the ladies in the House a very, very Happy Valentine's, and to know that the five women in the Caucus made me say this."

At 12:37 o'clock p.m. Representative Evans requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:37 o'clock p.m.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 276. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just short comments. In regards to this particular legislation, having to do with Abstinence-Only Funding, Title V, Comprehensive Sex Education.

"Mr. Speaker, the biggest reason why I am against this is because I called the people this would affect, and this is the Boys and Girls Club of Hawaii. But it's actually contracted through one of their Club Houses, and that is the Waianae Club House. They weren't aware of what actual legislation was moving around in the State Capitol, and so of course they were telling me about their program, and how they want to expand and do all of this other stuff.

"My no vote is mainly because this is regarding a program which is a positive program for youth that is currently operating right now that has not actually made their voice known, having to do with their program, and how it's going to affect their program. So, I'm voting no on this bill. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of HB 329, a Women's Caucus measure relating to Title V Funding.

"Studies have shown that abstinence only education is effective for teens for only a short time. After 18 months, youth who receive abstinence only education are much less likely to use some form of contraception to prevent pregnancy or to protect against STI's.

"Certain Title V federal dollars are required to be used for abstinence-only-until-marriage sex education programs. Programs accepting Title V federal funding are prohibited by law from providing information about the health benefits of condoms and birth control in preventing unwanted pregnancy, sexually transmitted infections, and human immunodeficiency virus.

"Mr. Speaker, Hawaii's teen pregnancy rate has actually spiked by 12% between 2005 and 2006, despite programs funded by both Title V and CDAE funds. Comprehensive sexuality education for all of Hawaii's youth is required so that Hawaii's youth can protect themselves against unwanted pregnancy and STI's. Abstinence is a good thing, however studies tell us it does not work for everyone and is an unrealistic standard for our public schools.

"I urge my colleagues support of this measure."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 329 - Abstinence-Only Funding; Title V; Comprehensive Sex Education. It appears this bill might not be necessary since there is an already existing comprehensive and well-rounded curricula being taught in the schools.

"Currently I must agree with Chiyome Fukino, M.D., who is the Director of Health for the State of Hawaii, when she says, "The Title V Abstinence-Only Program integrates sexual abstinence until marriage, as the expected standard with healthy youth development activities that are provided in an out-of-school setting. Abstinence-only education promotes and provides age-appropriate information about sexual health and provides accurate and factual information on sexually transmitted diseases and HIV/AIDS as reasons to be abstinent. Healthy youth development activities include character and relationship building approaches to equip young people with the skills needed to make healthy decisions and safe choices. This bill is not necessary because abstinence-only audiences have access to State-funded programs and resources such as family planning and other teen pregnancy prevention counseling that do provide comprehensive contraceptive information.""

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 329, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Evans, Mizuno and Takai being excused.

Representative Takumi, for the Committee on Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 277) recommending that H.B. No. 330, HD1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 330, HD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Chong.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with some comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 277, HB 330, House Draft 1, requires sexuality or health education funded by the State to provide medically accurate and be factual comprehensive information, but is age appropriate and includes education on abstinence, contraception, and methods of disease prevention for an unintended pregnancy and sexually transmitted disease, including HIV.

"First of all, I'd like to thank the prior Committees, having to do with the addition of the language that says, 'specifically for sexuality or health education and medically accurate and comprehensive education', because that actually protects some of the non-profits from losing other funding, so I do appreciate that particular verbiage that was added.

"My comments have to do mostly with, after digging into this, because as a parent, I want to make sure both of my kids go to public schools, and so I wanted to make sure I was making the responsible decision as a parent, as to how we teach sex education in our classrooms.

"I first should start off with, some of the people involved in this particular bill, I understand why it's so upsetting, because President Bush basically, he moved forward with abstinence-only sex education, and said that federal funding, you were not going to be able to receive this federal funding unless it was abstinence-only sex education. I don't necessarily agree with that. I agree that there should be a good array of the kinds of information that a teen needs.

"The problem that I face as a parent is, the fundamental responsibility of the parent is to make sure that these things are being taught to their children. Hopefully through the parent, but if that doesn't happen, then of course, society, the education system, or whoever has to come into play because this information is very vital for a young person.

"But there are three different things that are going on in this bill. One is the prevention of abstinence-only sex education. Two is the Board of Education currently has a policy in regards to sex education, and their specific policy is abstinence-based sex education. And then there's this bill that says comprehensive sexuality health education. And those are three different things.

"I happen to believe that we should have a combination of abstinence-only, and the other, whether it be abstinence-based education, or a comprehensive sexuality health education. And that's because there are different tools, or different things that you're promoting.

"In abstinence-only education, they're promoting abstinence, and they're basically saying, 'here are some of the tools that you might need.' You may need to be able to say to a boyfriend or someone who wants to have sex with you, that I'm not ready and here are some of the tools that they help practice and say, 'Hey you know, you don't have to give in to this kind of peer-pressure,' and that sort of thing. And I've reviewed all of the material. I actually went and read through these different things. They also say that abstinence-only works 100 percent of the time, and then they go and say about contraceptives, what their failure rate is. Now the other side of the equation is that they don't like the fact that they hone in on the failure rate, instead of the success rate of the contraceptives.

"So, what I would like to see is, in a classroom setting, age-appropriate material. Sometimes you're going to have to have boys separated from girls. Being that we have younger minds in the audience, I'm not going to give some of the examples of what they currently teach in 7th grade, which I think would be inappropriate for my kids, and something that I would want to teach on my own to my kids.

"The last point I do want to make is that in your hundred percent of students out there. There are maybe 25, I think they were saying 25 to 30 percent that are sexually active. But yet, this kind of information, in some of the explicit ways that they do this for 7th and 8th graders, they do it for hundred percent of the kids …"

Representative Pine rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"They do it for a hundred percent of the kids, and some of those kids aren't quite at that age, or it wouldn't be age-appropriate for them. That's three-quarters to two-thirds of the kids who aren't sexually active.

"So, Mr. Speaker, as we move forward with this bill, and I did interviews with parents. I didn't care what their religious affiliation was. I just went up to parents, and I said, 'Look, as a parent, this concerns me. What do you think?' And some of those concerns from all different kinds of parents came back to me. And so I think I represent a lot of parents who have kids that are teenagers that may have concerns as to how this sex education is being taught to our kids, and that maybe we should take a step back and say, we understand that there are a segment of kids that are going to be sexually active, but you cannot just go ahead and spread all of this information to kids that aren't ready for it.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I speak in opposition of this language, and I just hope that we would think broader on this particular subject. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I would just like to register a no-vote, and I would love to use the words of the previous speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would also like to register my reservations, but asked that words of the Minority Leader be incorporated as my own. I also would like to advocate for the input of parents in providing choice and what type of education would they like their children to have, and I think that this could be done. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I just want to say that the reason I support this is, I was looking at a report by the United States House of Representatives Committee on Government Reform, prepared for Representative Henry Waxman, and I just want to read one of the conclusions. 'The report finds that over 80 percent of abstinence-only criteria used, that over two-thirds of the grantees contained false, misleading, or distorted information about reproductive health.'

"As much I can appreciate what the Minority Leader is saying about how we need to make sure that parental involvement happens and that everybody has an informed attitude about it, the fact remains that abstinence-only, 80 percent of the time, in two-thirds of the programs provided false information. And if that is the data we have to go forward on, I think that's more than ample reason for us to start rejecting that type of dogma and indoctrination. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal. If it is the case that certain abstinence-only education is promoting false and misleading information, then certainly I think we would definitely be opposed to that. But it's no reason to reject all federal funding for abstinence-only education, or to force children or teenagers that are not ready to get the medically accurate education. Let's just focus on the false and misleading stuff, and fix that part."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and just as a short rebuttal. You know, some of the misrepresentation that I think that the Majority Leader is talking about in that report, and when I asked of one of the testifiers in hearing, what is that misleading information, and you know part of it was that some of the students, or student teachers, or facilitators, or I forget what they call them, the teachers that teach some of this abstinence-only education, is that they'll say how it affected them, like emotionally; if there was an effect in regards to premarital sex, or even sex at a young age, or anything like that.

"The person who was testifying said that, well, if you have sex before marriage, that it might be, what the abstinence-only people are talking about is it might be emotionally stressful and have a traumatic experience, that kind of thing, on their lives. And that was the specific example that the male testifier talked about. It's very interesting to me, because time after time now, I don't know if this is stamped by the CDC, or anyone else, but time after time from those true experiences of women who have had sex at a young age, or sex before marriage, and even those people who have been a part of the teaching program, have had these experiences where they were emotionally affected by making a decision like this.

"So, maybe it doesn't have the CDC 'stamp of approval', and this particular male testifier had said, 'That's ridiculous, that doesn't happen.' I would ask, for those women who were in situations like that, maybe they may not have regrets as to their decisions that they made, but there are so many people that don't get the message that you can wait. And one of the testimonies coming from some of the schools, like Kahuku and Waianae. They were saying that these kids don't get that message at all. They don't have anyone telling them, 'You know, you can wait.' That sex maybe should be a choice of waiting until a more appropriate age for yourself, for when you're older, and when you can make these decisions that don't have all of this peer-pressure around you.

"So, I'm just saying that this message is a good one. One that says to people who don't get the message of waiting until you're ready. We should make that available to them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor of this measure. I like the message of abstinence-only and it's a very good message, but unfortunately it hasn't worked.

"This is a Women's Caucus bill. We heard, in discussing what bills we were going to support, that the abstinence-only program has led to increased pregnancies and increased sexually transmitted diseases. So, I think we have no choice but to promote programs that talk about abstinence, plus provide accurate, age-appropriate sex education. Please keep this in mind and vote for the measure."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you again, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I wanted to support what the Minority Leader had mentioned in regards to the emotional component of some of the programs and their importance. I think that an additional aspect of this that should be looked at is the fact that we have such high teen suicide rates. And upon examination of teen suicide rates, it would be interesting to note that there are teens that take some of these things very, very hard, and I think that we should consider that when we're considering what the Minority Leader said. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mar. Speaker, in support and would like to insert written comments. Just one comment that I would like to make is that 25 states have rejected Title V funding for abstinence-only education. But many of the programs here are receiving community-based abstinence education grants. These aren't included in the bill we previously heard. So, I was a little surprised to hear that in our public schools, organizations which receive CBAE grants actually can go into the schools at the invitation of a teacher. These programs, for the most part, have been known to contain false, misleading, and distorted information. And this has been shown in several national studies.

"So, I do stand in support of the bill. I don't think the amendment made was helpful, but I'd like to see it go forward. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of HB 330, a Women's Caucus measure relating to comprehensive sexuality education.

"Each year approximately one million American teens become pregnant and approximately half of all teenagers ages 14 to 18 engage in sexual intercourse. In 2007 a study of two thousand children done by Mathematica Policy found that teaching abstinence does not keep teenagers from having sex, nor does it increase the likelihood that they will use contraception if they do. We must be sure that our youth receive the sex education necessary to understand their bodies and protect themselves against unwanted pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections.

"HB 330 requires that any recipient of State monies to fund sex education must provide accurate information about contraception and the spread of STI's. We owe our youth the best and most accurate information available.

"Mr. Speaker, I encourage all the members support."

"As printed in the U.S. News and World Report cover story on December 18, 2008 entitled "50 Ways to Improve Your Life in 2009" the author calls for silencing noise pollution. "Hearing loss, in fact, is the most obvious medical consequence of noise pollution, but it is hardly the only one," explains environmental psychologist Arline Bronzaft. In her research, Bronzaft found that constant noise exposure can impede children's learning ability and cognitive development. And beyond all that, periodically, "you've got to take a break from sound," says Bronzaft. "We need some serenity in our lives."

"While I support the need to regulate the operation of noise producing yard equipment I also recognize the possible financial impact that H.B. 64 may have on landscape companies.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will vote in favor of Standing Committee Report No. 337, but would like to express a reservation. This would devote 40 percent of the Transient Accommodations Tax toward product development. And while I support the product development aspect of the tourism industry, I think at this critical juncture, when our hotel occupancy rates are hovering at 60 percent, it's imperative that we concentrate our resources more on marketing. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 681 – Relating to the Transient Accommodations Tax. This bill requires that not less than 40 percent of the Tourism Special Fund be used for tourism product development and cultural programs. H.B. 681 insures that sufficient monies will be spent on product development (i.e. preserving / promoting culture) for tourism.

"As stated by Mona Abadir, Board President of Hawaii Capital Cultural Coalition: … (product development) "…can work as a catalyst in many intertwined areas of endeavor: stimulating creative economies and workforce, educational outreach of organizations, generating greater access to the area, reinforcing our values of preservation of our stories and treasures, and enhancing cultural tourism. Our mutual partnership and collaboration with time, resources and energy towards these ends and will achieve a return on investment that will exceed all expectations."

"The State of Hawaii has been greatly impacted by the economic changes in tourism. It is important now more than ever that we build on Hawaii's greatest resource - our culture. It would behoove us as legislators to give our support to product development that will work on preserving culture while promoting tourism.

"In addition, I would like to enter into the Journal the attached testimony of Ms. Lorraine Lunow-Luke, Coordinator, Hawaii Capital Cultural District of February 5, 2009 to the Chairman of the House Committee on Tourism, Culture and International Affairs.

Dear Representative Manahan:

I am writing to express my strong support for continuing to adequately fund the New Product Development division of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority. Our unique heritage is what distinguishes Hawai'i from other tropical destinations. The division's investment in programs that help visitors access and experience Hawai'i's special cultural heritage are essential for the long-term health of Hawai'i's visitor industry.

For example, a grant from the New Product Development division led directly to the recent introduction of legislation in Congress to designate the Hawai'i Capital National Heritage Area in Honolulu. This designation will bring together the many cultural treasures of Kaka'ako, Downtown, Nu'uanu and Kapalama into a cohesive district where kama'āina and visitors alike can experience our heritage. The grant, made under the New Product Development division's Heritage Corridors Program, supported the Hawai'i Capital Cultural Coalition's National Heritage Area Feasibility Study which served as the application for designation.

National Heritage Areas generate culture and heritage tourism by creating national and international visibility for an area's cultural assets, providing National Park Service branding and marketing, and opening the doors to funding for planning, design, interpretive centers, and other amenities that will improve the visitor experience.

The Hawai'i Capital Cultural Coalition (HCCC) is a nonprofit partnership of 25 Honolulu arts and cultural organizations and more than 40 businesses, public agencies, and service organizations who are working together to leverage the rich concentration of historic, cultural, and economic assets located in Honolulu's historic core to create one of the great cultural destinations of the world, attracting both visitors and residents, contributing to the area's economic vitality, and enhancing our quality of life.

Respectfully submitted,

Lorraine Lunow-Luke
HCCC Coordinator

Hawaii CAPITAL CULTURAL DISTRICT

"I just want to note my support, but with some reservations on Stand. Com. Report 338. The purpose of this is to reduce the term of the Hawaii Tourism Authority contracts from five years to two years, except for some contracts related to the Hawaii Convention Center. My only concern is that this could possibly handcuff the Tourism Authority for perhaps maybe dealing with the Pro-Bowl trying to come back to Hawaii. So, I just wanted to note those concerns before it went on to the next Committee."

"Mr. Speaker. On 339, I will be voting 'no' on this measure. I think it's very unwise to remove the chiefs of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, the head of the Department of Transportation, and the Chair of the Board of Land and Natural Resources from the Hawaii Tourism Authority.

"They were only ex-officio, but it's very helpful to the leaders of industry, to have someone there that you can talk to directly about State parks, or about harbor issues, or about airport issues. They will be moved to a separate advisory committee, but I think they are more helpful when they sit on the actual Authority, albeit without a vote. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. H.B. 136 establishes the Graffiti Eradication Sentencing Program within the Judiciary to allow a person who has committed an act of graffiti, to discharge a community service sentence through graffiti eradication activities.

"I strongly support the efforts of the Graffiti Eradication Sentencing Program and the aspect of the bill which requires community service sentencing. However, I do have concerns over the cost implications during this economy and hope efforts to do this through the non-profit and private sector could be examined.

"Another concern is the lack of proper implementation. This bill as written does not address proper identification and coordination. It needs to include identification of perpetrators and cooperation between agencies. In order for H.B. 136 to be effective and cost efficient, cooperation and communication is essential."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I would like to cast a 'no' vote, and I'd like to explain why. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill is to make an emergency appropriation in the amount of almost $2 million for the Judiciary to cover their electricity payments.

"Mr. Speaker, if you take a look at the record of the votes on the Committee Report, you'll see that nine members voted with reservations. One, myself, voted 'no.' And only five voted up to do this. And the Committee Report really explains why. That there's a lack of a serious effort by the Judiciary to reduce electricity consumption. That there appears to be no interest of the Judiciary in using available technology to conserve or generate sources of electrical power. And that the bill itself, with its Committee Report and vote record is to send a message to the Judiciary that continued mismanagement of energy is not acceptable.

"And Mr. Speaker, I note again, this is for an emergency appropriation. An emergency appropriation. Not one that goes through the regular process of the legislature. I would hope that this bill will be tabled and would not move further, and that the Judiciary would learn that it should do, as many others in our State are doing, and look at ways that they can conserve energy, rather than thinking they can just bring the bill to the legislature and that the legislature would just throw the money, the $2 million, to them. Thank you."

What the Judiciary Committee did, and I applaud the Chair of the Judiciary Committee, is they struck the original appropriation that was referred to by the earlier speaker of $1,854,425, and made it $1. So, I think that that would hopefully send a message. Thank you, very much."

"Mr. Speaker, I am voting with reservation as well, and I would like to make a short comment. I think that the appropriation being requested should be taken from their own budget. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. No. 375, that's the bill on the display of dead bodies. I'd like to cast a 'no' vote on this. I think it's very onerous to ask the Department of Health to enforce this provision and give out permits for these types of displays. I don't think it'll happen very often, but I don't think they have any expertise on these types of displays.

"Also, I saw in a provision, that if a body of a minor was displayed, you would have to have the written consent of the parents, and I think that's a very onerous provision in this bill. I think it's still in the measure. So, just to flag it out, I'd like to vote 'no' on this measure. Thank you.

But, if the treatment is deemed for unreasonable and unnecessary care, these contractors will not pay for this care. Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I just wanted to note my reservations. I understand that Standing Committee Report 404 would allow a qualifying patient to possess, now 12 marijuana plants to help with their medical ailments.

"By allowing this to be legal, we're still having complications with the Federal Drug Administration, as well as our Anti-Narcotics Division who is currently fighting the fact that marijuana is the number two drug of choice among our high school students. I know as we debate whether this drug is good for medical use or not, it's still just very complicated when the federal government alone does not believe that this should be legal."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition of H.B. 226 – which proposes certain amendments to the medical use of marijuana law. These amendments include: allowing a qualifying patient to possess 12 marijuana plants and 7 ounces of marijuana at one time; prohibiting identification of the site where marijuana is grown on a registry card; prohibiting a certifying physician from naming a patient's particular debilitating condition; allowing a caregiver to grow marijuana for no more than 5 patients.

"First, I am concerned that the possession of 12 plants and 7 ounces of usable marijuana maybe too much for medical use and may increase the possibility of diversion to the streets and schools.

"Second, as Captain Louis Kealoha of the Honolulu Police Department stated "We are concerned about the portion of the bill that prohibits identification of the site where the marijuana is grown on a registry card and prohibits a certifying physician from naming a patient's debilitating condition."

"Third, the extreme confidentiality with regard to certain information proposed by the bill is troublesome. The proposed amendment to not require the signing physician on the certificate to be the patient's primary care physician may invite abuse of the program by physicians that just sign certificates and never examine or establish a medical relationship with the patient.

"Additionally as the Honolulu Police Department states "Not disclosing the location where marijuana is grown and prohibiting a certifying physician from naming a patient's particular debilitating condition will encourage some people to undermine the intent of the bill and exploit medical marijuana."

"The fact that Hawaii already has a problem with marijuana is cause for concern in relation to the possible abuse of H.B. 226. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I am speaking in favor of the bill, Mr. Speaker. And, even though this wasn't generated by me, I do support any kind of reform that could come along; I know there are several bills out there.

"And just to answer the few concerns that were expressed. Nobody else mentioned anything. But, as far as the federal prohibition against this, I think a spokesman for President Obama made it quite clear, that the DEA will no longer be going after these types of issues, especially the medical issues. So, that's changing, and it will probably become official within the next six months to two years. But this has been one of his campaign promises, to leave it to the states to determine the way they'd like to treat medical marijuana.

"And then the other thing, of course, is just that we still don't know what the proper amounts are, when you're talking about twelve or seven or whatever it is. The fact of the matter is that, it's a plant. So if a plant doesn't produce every two months the way you would hope, if you're trying to get a medicine out of it, then you have to rely on what you have. So, it's important that there be some kind of way of assuring people rational, good access that's going to be there when they need it. And so, whether it's twelve or seven or whatever, we do need to look at those issues, and I think these are good steps in the right direction. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 421, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'd like to speak in opposition to this bill, Mr. Speaker. Stand. Com. Rep. No. 405 basically repeals the 'three strikes law', which requires that habitual, violent offenders be sentenced to prison for 30 or life. The 'three strikes law' that we passed many years ago was definitely watered down from what was originally proposed.

"So, what does 'habitual violent offender' mean according to this current bill? Basically, a habitual violent offender is someone who kills three people, someone who rapes three different children, and so forth. And so what we're saying today, by passing this bill, is that we want these people out of jail.

"The purpose of why this was introduced, according to my notes here, was that this didn't help reduce the safety of the community, that our prisons were being overpopulated. So then, I can surmise from the purpose of the introduction of this, because our prisons are overpopulated, we want to release the guy that killed three different people. Because our prisons are overpopulated, we want to release the person that raped three of those different children.

"We have made this law very extreme, where you have to be the worst of the worst for the 'three strikes law' to apply to you. And so, I just don't agree in the direction of approving these types of criminals being put back into our community."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to Standing Committee Report No. 405, House Bill 421, relating to sentencing. This measure would repeal the “three strikes law” codified as Act 81 which requires habitual violent felons to be sentenced for 30 years to life.

"I strongly oppose the repeal of Act 81. A majority of crime is committed by repeat offenders. In consideration of the victims of violent crimes, the continuation of this Act is essential to keep repeat offenders in prison. With the certainty of a lifetime sentence, this law acts as a very effective deterrent after a second conviction. While a concern is that non-violent offenders would be unjustly affected, please note that Act 81 only applies to persons convicted three times of murder, manslaughter, assault in the first degree, kidnapping, sexual assault in the first or second degree, continuous sexual assault of a minor, robbery in the first or second degree and burglary (when at least one of the prior offenses is for an enumerated offense other than burglary).

"Lesser non-violent offenders do not fall under Act 81, unlike the widely criticized "three strikes" laws of other jurisdictions. For these reasons, I stand in strong opposition to this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support and against Stand. Com. No. 414. I'm between a 'with reservation' and a 'no,' and let me explain, if I can, very briefly. This is a bill that says, no protesting at a veteran's funeral. You have to be 300 feet away. Where it bothers me, is that the soldiers that have died, died protecting the freedoms of this country. They died to protect the freedoms of the First Amendment, and the protesters to go and protest.

"Where I feel we're kind of in between there, is that it is a little bit of a mushy place where government says that we feel strongly about one thing, but we don't in another. So what I would say is that it's not a problem in Hawaii. It's a mainland problem. This is a preemptive strike, and if there's any advice to the Judiciary, look at it as a First Amendment issue. We got to have family decorum. We have got to respect the life of the dead, we've got to not do what is being done, but at the same time, we don't want to ravel those rights that these guys and gals have died for. Mr. Speaker, that's where I'm in between. I'm voting whatever is between a 'no' and any 'aye with reservations.'"

Vice Speaker Magaoay addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, is that with reservations?"

Representative Ward: "I'm between a 'with reservations' and a 'no.' Okay, I will vote 'no' until the Judiciary Committee says otherwise."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support, and just a few comments. I respect the comments of the previous speaker, but the First Amendment rights have always been available to what they call 'reasonable restrictions.' If you read the bill, you can go beyond the 300 foot limit and you can protest. You can make your voice heard.

"But what is wrong, Members, with giving the family who's lost their loved one in a war, the right to be able to peacefully bury their relative? Think about it. Think about this. Think of your son or daughter, who lost their life in a conflict, and you have somebody with a sign, right there during the service, saying, 'God deserved to make them die.' That, Mr. Speaker, goes far beyond First Amendment rights.

"What the bill says is, there's a 300 foot buffer for 60 minutes before or after the service. They can go 310 feet. They can go 320 feet, and they can protest. They can, you know, 'go nuts', for lack of a better word. But what is wrong with giving the family the dignity to be able to bury somebody who they've lost, without having hateful messages directed at them in this time of personal and emotion turmoil?

"The First Amendment rights, I think my record on that is clear. I support them, I always have and will. But this is a very reasonable restriction upon those rights. To give the families of loved ones, who've lost their member, the ability to just be able to quietly and peacefully and with dignity, say goodbye to them.

"And Mr. Speaker, veterans did die for our freedoms, but you know what, I think that giving the families the ability to be able to say goodbye to their family members and to be able to do it in a quiet and dignified manner, is not too much to ask. They died for rights, but they also died for the right of privacy, Mr. Speaker. They died for the right to protect the individuals from needless, I guess, protest. I mean, Mr. Speaker, this is a very reasonable request, and they can have their say 24/7/365 days thereafter. But 60 minutes before and 60 minutes after and 300 feet is not unreasonable. Not given the sacrifice that these families have had to go through and not given the terrible price that they have had to pay. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I think that this is a step towards a more civil society and a good message on behalf of us and the government. And I'd like to ask that the words of the speaker from Lahaina be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. Rep. 429. Basically, what this Stand. Com. Report 429 does, is it basically provides that any public housing project that is constructed or managed with the State or county, basically be affordable forever in perpetuity.

"I am voting with reservations. Basically, to make it affordable forever. I truly believe that is a great intent. But the only problem is, is sometimes when the market changes, you find that there's a certain building that we have, that's affordable, that perhaps we don't have enough funding, like this year, to build more affordable housing, but we see a great opportunity of selling a couple of units that's in a great location, at a much higher price, where we can get a very huge profit. And from that one unit, perhaps, we could fund five or six or seven, or even ten more, to help not just one family, but ten families.

"So, that's my reservation. That we're really handcuffing possible opportunities that may arise in the future."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of HB 828. In response to the previous speaker, I cannot support the sale of public housing. The vast majority of public lands held by the State are ceded lands. The claims of the Hawaiian people for reparations from the U.S. following the illegal overthrow of their Kingdom are still unresolved. This is why our State Supreme Court banned the sale of ceded land; and this is why many are calling on this Legislature to enact a moratorium on the sale of ceded land. With a complete inventory of ceded lands still incomplete, we should not allow publicly held land to be sold, period.

"Furthermore, public housing is part of the public trust, and the State has a fiduciary duty to use public trust lands for the betterment of Native Hawaiians. We all know that land is extremely scarce in Hawaii; why else would forced lease-to-fee conversion be so controversial? Many landowners feel that no amount of money can compensate for the loss of this precious commodity.

"The State should take the same tactic; no matter how good a deal may seem today, the money earned will be spent swiftly at the discretion of HPHA. On the other hand, land that remains in the State's trust will continue to be passed to the next generation, and so on, leaving a priceless legacy that is guaranteed to increase in value over time.

"Finally, I should remind this body that HB 828 is the same bill we passed last year. The Governor vetoed it because she wanted the definitions of "affordable" tightened. We have addressed the Governor's concerns in this version of the bill. I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 828, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC HOUSING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takumi and Ward being excused.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, I have reservations on this bill. Basically what this bill does is it repeals the constitutional amendment that will require us to give a tax refund after we've had two years of five percent excess in the general fund revenues.

"I do understand, during this time, why we have this purpose, but I'm just really concerned that we need perhaps spend a little bit even more frivolously, by not having this provision held on the Legislature and the Governor."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to repealing this constitutional amendment. I think we should retain this amendment on excess revenues, because it makes us very conscious when we do have a surplus in our treasury. There are times when we have offered only $1 back to the taxpayers. But, on other occasions, I think we've given $100, or maybe even $150. The economy is very cyclical.

"We're looking at, maybe a deficit of $600 million, if you consider all of the appropriation bills before us at this time. But, at times past, we've seen revenues in excess of $700 million. So, we definitely should keep this on the books, and use it.

"The amount is set by the Legislature that we determine whether we should give back, so I think it is flexible enough for us to live with. So, please consider not passing this bill. Thank you very much."

Steps must be taken at the local, state and federal levels in order to protect the current and future wellbeing of the population.

"In order to most effectively and immediately address these concerns, H.B. 317 provides for the establishment of a mobile medical van program, to serve the people of South Kona, Ka'u and upper Puna. The mobile medical van shall administer medical services to these communities, respond to emergencies, and coordinate with the Department of Education to provide immediate medical services to affected schools.

"This project will be funded by the Department of Land and Natural Resources, in coordination with the Department of Health, through the receipt of federal funds under the Homeland Security Grant Program. The intent of this measure is also to use the prospect of these appropriations to motivate a funding partnership to preserve and continue the operation of this program beyond its inception.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'd like to stand in opposition to this measure. Basically, what this bill now does is remove the religious exemption for religious facilities for the emergency contraceptive drug after a victim is raped. We've debated this already on the previous readings. I'll leave the rest for Third Reading."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 423 – Relating to Emergency Contraceptives for Sexual Assault Survivors because this amended version deletes the exemption for religiously affiliated medical centers and would jeopardize medical institutions.

"The previous bill took into account the religious beliefs of the hospitals and did not attempt to force unwanted policy upon religiously affiliated medical centers. The previous version would have kept hospitals with religious objections to emergency contraception, out of a potentially precarious situation. Being the Representative for a district that has a hospital which operates with religious stipulations, I understand the importance of this issue and I would have hoped that the respect for religious beliefs would have been acknowledged."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to register a 'no' vote. Brief comments. The reason why we put in the exemption, the religious exemption, was to allow one specific entity to be able to provide emergency care services. As the Health Chair, we were concerned about access. We've been fighting access, and would hate to lose an emergency room. Various emergency rooms currently now provide triage services for burn victims and different issues, in which patients can be transported to another facility for treatment.

"I'm hoping something can be worked out, as this measure moves forward. But, without the exemption, I am concerned about access to care. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to read a small portion of this article that appeared in the American Journal of Public Health. And this section is called, Ethical Considerations in the Treatment of Rape Victims.

And the article goes on to note the variability in treatment policies reflects the local control that theism bishops have over medical services. The general principles to be applied in keeping with the church's religious beliefs are stated in the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services. Directive 36 provides the following:

> A woman who has been raped should be able to defend herself against potential conception from sexual assault. If, after prolific testing, there's no evidence that contraception has occurred already, she may be treated with medications that would provide ovulation in sperm capacitation, or fertilization. It is not permissible, however, to initiate or recommend treatments that have, as their purpose or direct affect, the removal, destruction, or interference with implantation of a fertilized ovum.

"Emergency contraception does not do that. It's a contraception. And the article goes on to, again, quoting from Pope Paul VI:

> A conjugal act imposed upon ones partner, without regard for his or her condition and lawful desires, is not a true act of love, and therefore denies exigency of right moral order in relationships between husband and wife.
> Simply the proscription of contraception, does not apply in cases of rape. Indeed, Catholic nuns working in the Congo in the early 1960s, were permitted to take contraceptives because of the high chance of rape.

"So, again, we have to look at this ad protecting the victim's right. And it goes on to say, 'A physician who does not inform a rape victim of her options to help avoid pregnancy, violates the obligation to act in her best interest.' And that is why I support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to cast a strong vote in support of this measure, and Mr. Speaker, I would like make a few comments. I also request that the remarks from the Kauai Representative be entered in the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you.

"Mr. Speaker, all hospitals should provide emergency contraception to rape victims. Just take a look at what could happen with a daughter of one of the men sitting in this Chamber, or a granddaughter of one of the men sitting in this Chamber, or a spouse, or a sister, who's brutally raped, taken to St. Francis, and St. Francis is supposed to give that victim some counseling as to what her rights could be. When you have a victim that's in shock from a brutal rape, and the hospital is supposed to say, after she may have to wait in line to even be treated. They may say, 'But wait a minute. We can tell you, you can get emergency contraception, but you're going to have to be transported to another hospital.' So, does St. Francis then pick up the phone and call a taxi? Put the woman into a cab unattended to go to another hospital? I mean, what are you talking about here? That you're doing to women that are victims of rape. What are you talking about when you vote against this bill? When you say, no, that there should be an out for this hospital …"

Representative Evans rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of information. I think there might be confusion about being in support, because my understanding is the Committee amended it to remove the religious exemption. So, I'm just hoping that we're not being confused."

Representative Thielen responded, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I know that the Committee removed that exemption. The people that are standing up are casting 'no' votes because the exemption no longer is in there. That's what I'm talking about. What are you doing to this woman? This sister, this wife, this child that has been brutally raped, that is now told, 'Okay, we'll get you alternative transportation. You can go to another facility.'

"I mean, this is just incredibly heartless. It's more than that. What are we doing to the women in our society when we're saying you've got to allow one hospital to opt out of providing this care, that according to the message that was read by the Representative from Kauai, is in keeping with the medical profession's ethics, and also with the Catholic Church's Directive. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"You know, we talk as if a religious woman is never raped. What about their rights? Do you know what would happen to a person that is truly Mormon, truly Catholic? They don't believe in contraception. They believe that that is going against God's will, that that is abortion …"

Representative M. Lee rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Is the speaker in favor or against the bill in question?"

Vice Speaker Magaoay responded, stating:

"She stood up the first time in opposition. This is your second time speaking so keep it brief. This is being referred to the Finance Committee and you are a member of that Committee. Please proceed."

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"I apologize. I was just taken by all the previous speeches that I forgot to state my position. And I'm in rebuttal. Thank you.

"I'm sure we'll talk about this again on Third Reading, but, what about their rights? Do you know what it's like to be a religious woman, to be raped? To be forced to go to hospitals that force this pill on you? Do you know what it's like to be raped, and you're sitting there and you don't remember, and you want to forget everything? You can't even hear the person talking to you about your options. They say, 'Take this pill, you'll be okay.' And then they find out what that pill is. That is the worst thing you can do.

"So, if we're talking about the feelings of rape victims, let's give them one option to go to one hospital where they know that they will truly be cared for. And I can tell you, the nuns at St. Francis aren't going to put you in a taxi. They're going to care for you, and they're going to love you, and they're going to hold your hand until you get to your next location."

Vice Speaker Magaoay then stated:

"Thank you, Representative Pine. I just want to make a correction for Representative Thielen and Representative Pine. There is no St. Francis Hospital. It is Hawaii Medical East and West."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly, I just wanted to rebut. I think all of our healthcare providers truly provide good care. So, I don't think it's fair to characterize one as doing a better job than others. Especially since, really, it's about informed consent. You cannot do anything to a patient without informed consent. That's their entitlement to choice.

"But, I did want to point out something that the Representative from Kailua did make me think about, in that when I look at the Bureau of Justice statistics. Generally, across the nation, only 37 percent of all rapes ever get reported. Thirty-seven percent, so that means one-third. So, when we look at the bill in the purpose section, in 2007, there are 326 forceful rapes in Hawaii alone. If we take that percentage and multiply it just by the national average, we're talking about a thousand rapes that occur in our State.

"The bill further goes on to say that one statewide study found that nearly one in three hospitals failed to offer EC. One in three. So, we're talking about 300 victims, potentially. Of course the numbers and data could be skewed. But that's 300 victims that are not even given that offer and choice. And that is what is disturbing. Because, if we are going to be making a public policy, if somebody is going to be holding themselves out as a public facility to offer healthcare, then I think they need to do everything they can, and offer people the right to informed choice and selection of their own decisions. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with just a short comment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm still voting 'no,' but I wanted to rebut just a little bit, having to do with how many emergency rooms do we have? How many emergency hospitals do we have. If the statistics are correct, where you're saying only one offers out of the three, then if you don't have those two hospitals, the HMC hospitals, the East and West, then the law with the religious exemption gets you somewhere. Why would you want to, when you can at this point in time, compromise. Get those other emergency hospitals, and include them in this law. And, for those two hospitals, you could be saving, according to this choice for rape victims all across the islands.

"Religion for a lot of people is very important, and when government comes in, what I am saying, is that this particular issue is an example of reaching in and forcing a certain belief, not to just the average rape victim, but what I am talking about is a hospital that has their tenets.

"There are three parts of how the emergency contraception works. One of the parts of the emergency contraception, which you cannot tell, is when an egg is fertilized. And, in the Catholic tenets, I believe that it says that if it is fertilized, that that would be considered an abortion.

"So, let's take a look at respecting some of these religious hospitals, and saying, let's move this legislation with a religious exemption, and for respect of religion, this is an example of how people are reaching in, our government is reaching in, and telling people what to believe in their religion. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sagum rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support, and I would like the words from the Representative from Hanalei entered into the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I am speaking in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker. I just want to rebut some of the things that were said in here about the Hawaii Medical System. I used to work for them, and as to what I know nowadays, there is no such thing anymore as St. Francis Hospital. It no longer exists. It is now Hawaii Medical System, and Hawaii Medical System is a for-profit hospital.

"And this should be the discussion, because St. Francis Hospital no longer plays a part in this hospital. They are just landlords, Mr. Speaker. And they want to play with this, just because they own the land. They lease the land, and they have no say with the current administration or the operation of that hospital.

"In the whole time that I was there, I never saw a nun work there. Not in the emergency room, or any part of the hospital, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted a rebuttal to what was said. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to respond, stating:

"Again, same position. Mr. Speaker, if it was that easy, my vote would be changed. However, in my discussions directly with the Catholic Church, to clarify the previous speaker, my understanding is HMC has a lease, which requires them to follow the agreements that the Catholic Church has had on the previous existence of St. Francis. So, Mr. Speaker, what was explained to me was, this new entity, HMC is required to follow the understanding and agreements made by the Catholic Church, in order to provide those needed services that they currently provide.

"Again, we had numerous discussions in the Health Committee, regarding bills to do things like SPRBs, to protect them and support these entities. We need a clarifying issue, as this measure moves on, to look at these entities, like HMC, who are providing very valuable services, not only in the ER, but also dialysis, and other needed services in this community. And if it was just a simple issue of victim access, I would be standing alongside those here to support you. However, we're talking about a healthcare entity that is fully struggling right now, and as we move forward, both looking at patient's rights for this issue, there are a lot of other services that will be negatively impacted if this issue can't be resolved. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Still in opposition, and wanted to ask that the words of the the Health Chair from Mililani be entered as my own. I am still in opposition, and I appreciate that he clarified it, as the Representative of the District that has HMC in it. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

At this time, the Chair addressed the body, stating:

"Members, on this measure, as we discuss it, you should take a look at what President Bush did before he left office. There was a bill that he signed in the federal law, that basically stopped the process of EC. You should take a look at the last act that he did, I think it was in December. Take a look at that federal law."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks, and the remarks of Representatives Morita and Thielen be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. According to law enforcement reports, a woman is raped every six minutes. In addition to the already traumatic experience is another issue which is unavoidable, the potential of unwanted pregnancy. In fact, over thirty-two thousand women become pregnant each year due to sexual assault.

"Although emergency contraception may provide some relief for victims of this heinous crime, only a small percentage of women are aware of its availability and stipulations. Emergency contraception is an effective, safe, FDA-approved method to prevent unintended pregnancies. I repeat—to prevent unintended pregnancies. If the person is pregnant, it does not cause termination. It should be easily accessible in all hospitals as they are the first place victims look to get treatment for sex assault.

"Professional medical standards mandate providing emergency contraception to sexual assault survivors, and the American Medical Association standards of emergency care REQUIRE that rape survivors be counseled about the risk of pregnancy and be offered emergency contraception. In fact, a California court ruled that a hospital could be held liable for failing to give sexual assault victim information about and access to emergency contraception.

"The public supports increased availability of emergency contraception, according to a national survey. A January 2000 Peter Hart Research poll of New Jersey and Oregon voters found strong support for access to emergency contraception—62% in New Jersey and 64% in Oregon. In addition, voters overwhelmingly opposed "conscience clauses" that permit pharmacists to refuse to fill prescriptions on "moral grounds"—79% in New Jersey and 69% in Oregon.

"Across the nation more than 400 Catholic non-profit hospitals dispense EC to rape victims. A for-profit corporation seeking a religious exemption would not qualify under the standard set in Hawaii related to contraceptive services, and surely would not be exempt if seeking public funds. An exemption such as the one offered in the previous version of this bill fails to satisfy two key tests.

(1) Does a refusal to provide EC place burdens on people who do not share the beliefs that motivate the refusal? The more burdens fall on such people, the less acceptable is any claimed right to refuse.

(2) Is the objector a sectarian institution engaged in religious practices, or is it instead an entity—religiously affiliated or not—operating in a public, secular setting? The more public and secular the setting, the less acceptable an institution's claimed right to refuse.

"In closing, the removal of the religious exemption from this bill was a good thing. It is not needed and would most probably be the subject of a law suit should the measure become law."

Representative Morita rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker: Again, I stand in support of this measure in its present form and thank the Judiciary Chair for removing the offending provisions in the House Draft 1. Simply put, and according to this article which appeared in the American Journal of Public Health, and which I would like to submit for insertion into the House Journal, some Catholic hospitals have policies that prohibit the discussion of emergency contraceptives with rape victims or these victims learn about the treatment only by asking. Such policies and practices are contrary to Catholic teaching, but more importantly, undermine a victim's right to information. And, as I mentioned earlier, a physician who does not inform a rape victim of her options to help avoid pregnancy violates the obligation to act in her best interest and violates her right to give an informed consent to treatment.

"Additionally, Mr. Speaker, there are two issues that the opponents of this measure fail to understand. First, emergency contraceptive is not an abortifacient. The scientific definition of pregnancy is that pregnancy begins when an embryo implants into the uterus. An abortifacient (like RU-486) changes the uterine lining and expels the implanted embryo. Emergency contraception, however, prevents pregnancy by preventing ovulation, fertilization, or implantation of a fertilized egg in the uterine lining. Secondly, the hospital in question is a secular institution -- that is they serve the general public and do not provide healthcare to or hire solely people of the Catholic faith. There is a standard of care that this healthcare facility should not be allowed to deviate from just because the local diocesan bishop reflects a certain policy. Again, it should be noted that this local policy is inconsistent with the general principles of the Church's religious beliefs (Directive 36) that are stated in the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services.

Thank you for allowing me to make additional comments in support of this measure."

Informed Consent for Emergency Contraception: Variability in Hospital Care of Rape Victims

Steven S. Smugar, MD, Bernadette J. Spina, BA, and Jon F. Merz, JD, PhD

A B S T R A C T

There is growing concern that rape victims are not provided with emergency contraceptives in many hospital emergency rooms, particularly in Catholic hospitals.

In a small pilot study, we examined policies and practices relating to providing information, prescriptions, and pregnancy prophylaxis in emergency rooms. We held structured telephone interviews with emergency department personnel in 58 large urban hospitals, including 28 Catholic hospitals, from across the United States.

Our results showed that some Catholic hospitals have policies that prohibit the discussion of emergency contraceptives with rape victims, and in some of these hospitals, a victim would learn about the treatment only by asking. Such policies and practices are contrary to Catholic teaching. More seriously, they undermine a victim's right to information about her treatment options and jeopardize physicians' fiduciary responsibility to act in their patients' best interests.

We suggest that institutions must reevaluate their restrictive policies. If they fail to do so, we believe that state legislation requiring hospitals to meet the standard of care for treatment of rape victims is appropriate. (Am J Public Health. 2000;90:1372–1376)

Emergency contraception is a Food and Drug Administration–approved method for postcoital pregnancy prophylaxis,[1] the use of which is recommended by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.[2] Emergency contraceptives are the standard of care for rape victims.[3] Nevertheless, a growing number of surveys have shown that Catholic hospitals throughout the United States are likely to have policies prohibiting emergency room physicians from prescribing emergency contraceptives, even to rape victims.[4–7] Such policies may place a serious burden on rape victims, who are likely to be particularly vulnerable because of postrape trauma and stress. The victim has less than 72 hours to act to protect herself from pregnancy, and she may have delayed seeking care.

Because many women do not know about the treatment,[8,9] we decided to examine whether rape victims are likely to be adequately informed by providers who believe such treatment is immoral.[10,11] In some views, providing information or a referral can make a provider morally culpable for the subsequent acts of the rape victim. This view is supported by abortion-related conscience clause laws enacted by some states. In the broadest, most "permissive" conscience clauses, providers are protected from liability not only for refusing to perform or participate in abortion but also for refusing to discuss abortion and to counsel or refer patients for such a procedure.[12]

To examine whether rape victims are given information about emergency contraceptives, we performed a pilot survey of large hospitals across the United States. In this commentary, we present our results and discuss the moral and ethical implications of our findings.

Pilot Survey

We designed and piloted a telephone questionnaire that addressed (1) whether providers are prevented from discussing or prescribing emergency contraception and whether hospital policies are followed; (2) whether the hospital pharmacy dispenses emergency contraception; (3) if necessary, whether referrals are made; and (4) hospital volume of rape cases. This survey was approved by the University of Pennsylvania institutional review board.

To examine whether conscience clause laws have any bearing on these practices, we chose a set of the largest Catholic[13] and non-Catholic American Hospital Association–member hospitals in large cities in states with "permissive" conscience clause laws and those with either no law or a "standard" law. We identified 8 states (Illinois, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, Montana, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina) in which the law specifically exonerates providers and institutions for refusal to "suggest,"[14] "counsel,"[14,15] "recommend,"[14–16] "advise,"[17–19] "refer for,"[14,20] or "aid, abet, or facilitate" abortion.[21] Although these laws do not necessarily apply to emergency contraception,[22] we hypothesized that the laws may be a proxy for conservative social environments in which withholding information would be more acceptable. Indeed, permissive conscience clause laws are more likely to have been adopted in what Halva-Neubauer called "challenger" states (i.e., those that have enacted more abortion laws restricting the rights created by Roe v Wade).[23]

Our control group was drawn from the District of Columbia and 10 states contiguous to the permissive law states. Two of these jurisdictions have no conscience clause law (District of Columbia and Mississippi), and 9 have laws that protect providers who refuse to "perform or participate" in medical procedures that result in abortion (Arkansas, Delaware, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Washington).[24–32]

All telephone interviews were performed by one of us (B.J.S.) between June and August 1998. The interviewer was blinded to conscience clause law. We called each hospital, were transferred to the emergency department, and held an interview with a person who indicated that he or she knew how rape victims were treated in the emergency department. On average, 2 telephone calls to each hospital were made before completing an interview. Respondents were assured that their identity and that of the institution would be kept confidential. Interviews took approximately 5 minutes.

As shown in Table 1, our final sample included 78 hospitals. Staff at 9 hospitals refused, stated that they were too busy, or told us that an appropriate person was unavailable. Staff at 11 hospitals stated either that they stabilize and transfer or that they do not handle rape cases (e.g., long-term care facility, mental health hospital, or no emergency room). These respondents indicated that emergency medical personnel would not bring rape victims to the hospital except in exigent circumstances. We thus have usable data from 58 interviews (74%).

The results of our survey are presented in Table 2. Staff at 12 of 27 Catholic hospitals reported that their policy prohibits the discussion of emergency contraception with rape victims. Despite these policies, respondents at 8 of the 12 hospitals with restrictive policies indicated that relevant information likely would be provided to victims. In 4 hospitals, providers would discuss contraceptives despite the policy; in 2 hospitals, the victim would be transferred to the gynecology department or to another provider where information would be provided; and in 2 hospitals, rape counselors who come to the emergency room would provide relevant information. Three of these 8 hospitals also tell victims that they have a policy prohibiting discussion of emergency contraception. In the remaining 4 hospitals, a victim would find out about emergency contraception only by asking. One of these 4 provides a pamphlet stating that there may be other services that the hospital does not provide because it is Catholic, but emergency contraception is not specifically mentioned. In all respondent hospitals, providers would discuss emergency contraception if specifically asked.

Regarding the effect of conscience clause laws, 5 of 25 (20%) were in states with permissive conscience clause laws, and 7 of 32 (22%) were in control states; this finding was contrary to the hypothesis that policies restricting the provision of information would be more prevalent in hospitals in permissive law states (2-sided Fisher exact test, $P=1.0$). Given our limited sample size and the 20% average prevalence of restrictive disclosure policies in our sample, we had limited power of less than 60% to detect a difference of about 10%, a medium-size effect, if it exists.[33] Our results nonetheless provide important base rate data that may be useful for future nationwide sampling and study.

Respondents at 7 of the Catholic hospitals in our sample stated that physicians were prohibited from prescribing contraceptives. Five of these 7 also had policies prohibiting discussion. Four respondents indicated that victims would be referred elsewhere, such as to their own physicians, for a prescription. Four respondents noted that victims would be told about their policy prohibiting prescription, and 3 of these 4 also would make a referral. One respondent stated that physicians in that hospital could write prescriptions on their own private prescription pads but not on those bearing the hospital's name. For individual physicians who are uncomfortable prescribing contraceptives, that hospital also had prescriptions presigned by another physician. One respondent stated that physicians might prescribe despite the policy.

Respondents at 17 Catholic hospitals stated that their pharmacies are prohibited from dispensing emergency contraceptives. In one hospital, the inpatient pharmacy could not dispense contraceptives, but the outpatient pharmacy located down the hall would. In another, the pharmacy would dispense contraceptives only to rape victims.

Although many of the Catholic hospitals in our study have no emergency contraceptive restrictions, respondents were quite candid about the controversy over emergency contraceptives. Two individuals commented that the treatment is a "big deal" or a "big issue" and that even though it is provided, the hospitals "don't like it." Two others indicated that physicians may discuss emergency contraceptives but that the use of such contraceptives "is not promoted." One respondent hinted that prescriptions are written, but this respondent "officially abstained" from answering our question. Another respondent from a Catholic hospital that recently merged with a non-Catholic one stated that "contraceptive issues are currently uncharted waters, and for the time being, contraceptive discussion is allowed but not encouraged."

According to our respondents, hospital policies were followed much of the time, but there are various ways of providing treatment for victims while upholding the policies. Clearly, some Catholic hospitals (and their staff) are willing to compromise on the issue of emergency contraceptives, generating "creative solutions" to meet the standard of care.[34]

Ethical Considerations in the Treatment of Rape Victims

This pilot study confirmed that the nationwide standard of care for treatment of rape victims in large urban hospital emergency rooms includes emergency contraception. Nonetheless, we found that some Catholic hospitals prohibit the discussion, prescription, and distribution of emergency contraception in the care of rape victims.

The variability in treatment policies reflects the local control that diocesan bishops have over medical services.[35–37] The general principles to be applied in keeping with the Church's religious beliefs are stated in the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services.[38] Directive 36 provides the following:

> A female who has been raped should be able to defend herself against a potential conception from the sexual assault. If, after appropriate testing, there is no evidence that conception has occurred already, she may be treated with medications that would prevent ovulation, sperm capacitation, or fertilization. It is not permissible, however, to initiate or to recommend treatments that have as their purpose or direct effect the removal, destruction, or interference with the implantation of a fertilized ovum.[38]

In Catholic moral theology, contraception is viewed as an illicit interference with the procreative purpose of the conjugal act of a married couple. However, as stated by Pope Paul VI, "a conjugal act imposed upon one's partner without regard for his or her condition and lawful desires is not a true act of love, and therefore denies an exigency of right moral order in the relationships between husband and wife."[39] Simply, the proscription on contraception does not apply in cases of rape. Indeed, Catholic nuns working in the Congo in the early 1960s were permitted to take contraceptives because of the high chance of rape.[40]

Emergency contraception generally refers to high-dose estrogen or estrogen–progestin combination pills, or a progestin mini-pill, which inhibits or disrupts ovulation, interferes with fertilization or the transport of the embryo to the uterus, and possibly inhibits embryo implantation in the endometrium.[41] The mechanism by which emergency contraception prevents pregnancy thus encompasses both permissible and nonpermissible actions. However, the directive only enjoins acts performed with the specific intent of "removal, destruction, or interference with the implantation" of an embryo regardless of whether they in fact do so. Testing a rape victim to determine whether conception has occurred as a result of the rape is not feasible, and the most that can be accomplished is an extremely rough judgment of probabilities.[42] Thus, a provider cannot tell whether giving the victim an emergency contraceptive will prevent ovulation and conception or may instead interfere with implantation of a fertilized ovum. Under the principle of double effect, as long as the provider has the intent of preventing ovulation or conception, prescribing or giving a victim an emergency contraceptive is permissible even with the foreknowledge that it might instead cause rejection of a fertilized ovum.[43]

Some Catholic organizations have adopted more dogmatic positions. The Pennsylvania Catholic Conference, for example, stated that although conception may be avoided, use of any "medical procedure, the purpose and/or effect of which is abortive, is never permissible."[44] By sidestepping the intentionality of an act, the true effect of which act can never be assessed with certainty, they reject both the gross uncertainty surrounding the processes of fertilization and implantation and the principle of double effect.

Restrictive policies leave providers sailing between Scylla and Charybdis: if they provide emergency contraception, they may contribute to an act that they view to be immoral, but if they fail to inform about or offer emergency contraception, they may contribute to the (perhaps morally more repugnant) later-term abortion resulting from an avoidable pregnancy. Indeed, pregnancy occurs in up to 5% of rapes, and victims often abort.[45]

A physician who does not inform a rape victim of her options to help avoid pregnancy violates the obligation to act in her best interest and violates her right to give an informed consent to treatment.[46,47] Providers may justify the failure to disclose by asserting that there is not 1 patient but 2—the rape victim and an embryo. This is precisely the point over which rape victims and providers may disagree. This disagreement can be discovered and resolved only through open discussion about the provider's conflicting personal morals or institutional policies that prevent the discussion or prescription of emergency contraceptives.[48–50]

In our view, the failure to discuss emergency contraception is tantamount to abandonment.[51–53] If a physician "discontinues his services before the need for them is at an end, he is bound first to give due notice to the patient and afford the latter ample opportunity to secure other medical attendance of his own choice."[54] Clearly, the uninformed rape victim may think she has received all possible and appropriate medical care.

This analysis suggests that hospitals with restrictive practices or policies regarding discussion or prescription of, or referral for, emergency contraceptives should reevaluate the theological, medical, and social justifications for those policies. One of our respondents summarized the dilemma and her hospital's solution: "Being able to give the pill is a big deal, but it is given to rape victims as a standard part of care." If hospitals continue to fail to meet the standard of care for treatment of rape victims, we believe that state legislation is called for that will require providers to meet the standard.[55] Simply requiring a referral is inadequate, because the effectiveness of the treatment decreases with time lapsed from coitus.[56,57]

We examined hospitals in larger metropolitan areas. Our results thus may not be applicable to rural or even suburban hospitals and need to be confirmed in larger studies. Because victims' options may be quite limited in areas with few providers or hospitals, restrictive policies (or laws that permit pharmacists to refuse to fill contraceptive prescriptions) could have particularly harsh effects. This may be exacerbated by the expansion of the Catholic health system, particularly because of the growth in the number of Catholic sole providers (where the closest similar facility is more than 35 road miles away), and because mergers often lead to restriction of reproductive services.[4,34,58] These issues need to be examined in greater detail.

Conclusion

The use of emergency contraceptives at Catholic hospitals is clearly a divisive issue. This study confirms that no consensus exists across Catholic hospitals regarding compliance with the medical standard of care or, for that matter, with the Church's own health directives. These hospitals should reevaluate their policies and practices in light of the directives, which we believe adopt a compassionate and reasoned approach, within the Catholic moral framework, to the treatment of rape victims.

What seems to be missing is a clear moral analysis of culpability and duty that would help Catholic and other health care providers resolve the dilemmas posed by a conflict of their own beliefs and values with the beliefs, values, and, perhaps most important, treatment needs of their patients, including rape victims. The permissive conscience clause laws enacted by several states appear to resolve this conflict purely in favor of the provider. These laws are unreasonable because they create unique, dangerous, and insidious exceptions both to the quasi-fiduciary role of physicians and to the obligation of providers to secure informed consent to medical care and, most significantly, because they are inconsistent with patients' reasonable expectations that their physicians will act in their best interest. A better resolution would be to strike a balance between the interests of providers in their moral integrity and their fidelity to patients' well-being and trust: to require not performance or participation in acts the provider believes to be immoral, but communication and discussion fully respectful of patients' status as independent moral agents. □

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"One of the reasons I am in favor of offering emergency contraception to a victim after a rape without exception is that "time is of the essence." The sooner EC is administered to a victim, the less likely pregnancy will occur. Time is important because if a victim is transported to another medical facility, she increases the likelihood of pregnancy.

"This is important when the victim is very young and too immature to handle pregnancy – or too old. There are those who do not want to get pregnant – especially by a rapist. Though a victim and her partner may not realize it before a rape occurs, in some cases the partner will reject the victim after she has been violated. The relationship may be permanently impaired, and this reaction cannot be predicted before the incident.

"Timely EC is also important because the issue of a rape may not be well-received. Though a victim may bear a child as a result of a rape, the child may not be well-received as another from the family. The child could be a constant reminder, to all members of the family, of its violent beginnings. Again, this adverse reaction cannot be predicted.

"EC is voluntary and will not be forced upon a victim, but will allow a victim to decide whether to prevent pregnancy or not."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against House Bill 834, and that's Standing Committee Report 522. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill would lower the water quality standards for Hawaiian waters.

"I wanted to talk about a few reasons why I think we should not have this bill pass forward. First of all, OHA brought up a very good point. They said that actually federal water quality standards may not be the best measure of Hawaii's unique water quality. And Hawaii shouldn't therefore lower its water quality standards.

"Another testifier brought up the fact that the Legislature is the wrong venue for this. It should be done administratively, as it is currently happening. And, we as legislators don't have the scientific expertise, or knowledge, actually, to set standards.

"And then the Sierra Club brought up the concern that Hawaii's standards should be different because there are more people in the water, and evidently, people in Hawaii eat three times as much fish as those on the mainland.

"And then finally, a testifier said something that I agree with, and have constantly echoed in this Chamber; that the Legislature should not intervene in ongoing litigation. This is another one of those cases, where the Mayor has come in, this time the Mayor has come in, asking the State to intervene in the middle of ongoing litigation. And we all know that we've been asked to do that in other instances in this Body.

"So I'm casting a 'no' vote, and I hope that others will join me. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I happen to represent the coastline area that the EPA has deemed that we have untreated sewer water where we fish and swim and surf and paddle. And so, we're definitely in opposition to this bill."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I represent the plaintiff that has sued the City over their wastewater treatment and the pollutants identified in this bill. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I encourage the Members to read the lengthy Committee Report, because it gives a lot of detailed history.

"One of the problems here is the Department of Health has not updated its water quality standards. They've had rules promulgated since 2005, and they have not adopted those rules. It's been acknowledged that these water quality standards have changed, given the best science available now. It's unfortunate that the Administration has not done its work in getting these standards changed and corrected in a timely manner. What has happened is that there has been litigation, but I think more so, the citizens of the City and County of Honolulu are bearing the brunt of the additional cost that may not be necessary in certain upgrades just because the standards have not been updated.

"So, I think the Legislature is right in taking the extraordinary steps of making these corrections, simply because the Administration has not acted. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose in opposition and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to insert the following comments on the bill from Robert Harris, Director of the Sierra Club, Hawaii Chapter:

> "HB 834 (HD1) is an unprecedented. It removes the State water quality standards -- established to protect human health and our fragile marine ecosystem -- from the administrative rule-making process and asks us to adopt drastically lowered standards without scientific consideration of the impacts on Hawai`i. This proposal could have drastic impacts on human health and our fragile marine ecosystem.

For example, HB 834 (HD1) arbitrarily establishes “waters between five hundred meters and three miles from the shore” are “coastal recreation waters that are rarely or occasionally used.” There is no objective basis for this conclusion. Surfers, paddlers, and fisherman frequently go out further than five hundred meters. However, the effect of this proposal drastically increases the amount of contaminants allowed at this range. Can we assure our constituents that this will have no impact on their health and safety? Or do we simply rely upon the arbitrary conclusion that these waters are “rarely or occasionally used?”

Nor is there any research in Hawai`i considering the effects of decreasing the pesticide limits two to five times lower than currently permitted. Previously the Department of Health concluded that the national standards were unacceptable because Hawai`i consumed 3.1 times more fish than the national average. No research has been made available to this body or the public that allows for consideration of these drastically lowered standards.

Finally, it has been incorrectly suggested that HB 834 (HD1) mirrors a proposal suggested by the Department of Health in 2005. There are significant differences between these two proposals. Tellingly, the Department of Health expressly indicated that three years of testing, which have not been completed, were necessary before the 2005 rule changes could be considered. Further the Department of Health did not consider revising the pesticide limits, nor did it define the waters between five hundred meters and three miles from the shore as coastal recreation waters that are rarely or occasionally used."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak with a 'no' on Standing Committee Report 536, Relating to the Coastal Zone Management. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, what this will do is, it will increase the trigger for a special management area permit, from $125,000 expenditure, to $250,000. In other words, at this point, if you're going to make improvements in the special management area, and they are going to be $125,000 and one cent, then you must get a special management area permit. And I believe that, as some of the environmentalists said at the hearing, that our coastal zones are in very much of a battle for survival, and I think that we need to be more cautious, because the coastal zonings do need much more attention.

"So, I don't like to see this bill go forward, because it will allow more development to go through with just a minor permit, which doesn't have the protections of a SMA permit. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand with serious reservations to HB 939, Relating to Coastal Management.

"Keeping the valuation low will most likely guarantee that the accountability and purpose of the special management area is upheld. This is imperative in such a pristine and important area. By increasing the valuation rate to $250,000 rather than maintaining it at $125,000, the passage of this bill ensures that projects conducted along any coastal beach front area will be subjected to increased criticism.

"I believe that doubling the rate for "special management area minor permit" and "special management area use permit" will lead to the scrutiny and the question of purpose. Are we really taking into account any environmental or ecological effect that doubling the rate may cause? If already at $125,000 and the current condition of Hawaii's coastline (i.e., Kailua Beach) poses possible environmental hazards to residents and visitors, then increasing it by any standard gives reason to believe that increasing commercial or residential development is more important than the preservation of coastlines and the safety of Hawaii's people."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of HB 1763 Relating to the Hawaii Tourism Authority. This bill would repeal the statute which establishes the HTA Board and creates a stand-alone Department of Tourism and redirects the Tourism Special Fund to the DOTourism.

"It is important to understand a few things when considering this measure. First, this proposal before us is a proposal at this point, and the discussion is one that will be taking place eventually as the Tourism Special Fund, the funding mechanism of the HTA, will be 'sun setting' next year. In light of this, I don't think it is unreasonable to begin this discussion sooner rather than later.

"Secondly, I want to thank those members who were open to considering this proposal, as we feel that the current Board has been dysfunctional to say the least. There is a State Auditor's report, which I'm sure many of us have read, which sights specific deficiencies of the HTA, so I won't get into those details. But given this current economic crisis—a recession and near depression as it has been referred to by some—I do not think it is appropriate for this Board to be leaderless.

"The Board Chair should be working with staff to hold regular meetings with stakeholders and plan strategically, in order to get a pulse and a handle on our situation. Not to mention, the Board should be responsive to the House and Senate Committees when we ask to meet with them rather than playing politics. There are currently 11 of 12 members right now, and the Governor has not appointed anyone to fill the last seat even though the list of names has been submitted to her. I would think that this would be a priority.

"Meanwhile, we are facing 20% cuts across the board in every department and undoubtedly we will need to go vertical in order to balance a $1.8 billion deficit. Both our public and private sectors are suffering—our schools, retirees, labor unions, hotels, hotel workers, the counties, airlines, car rentals, retailers, and non-profits are all feeling the effects of the sharp decline in visitor arrivals, and this Board is barely meeting. As a result, vendors, hoteliers, and various stakeholder groups are coming to the Legislature to address their issues. If this is going to be the trend, then I would safely argue, that we don't need the HTA Board.

"Finally, this Legislature is considering pay cuts and layoffs and putting everything 'on the table.' So if everything is on the table, then why not have this on there as well? Why shouldn't we look at restructuring our government to see where we can streamline our processes and make them work smarter for the people of the State?

"And on behalf of all the bills passed out by your Committee, Mr. Speaker, let me just say this: An event last night where many of us were in attendance, the speaker during the closing remarks, compared change to a voyage—inasmuch as it is important to have an idea of your destination and how you are going to get there, it is equally important to consider why we want change. I ask the Members to seriously think why it is we are considering this proposal at this point in time and if with good conscience you can tell me that change is not needed, then by all means, let's go on with business as usual. Thank you Members, I urge your support of this measure."

Representative Souki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 1378 HD 1, Relating to Advance Practice Registered Nurses.

"This measure will greatly improve access to healthcare at a time when Hawai`i is suffering greatly from a shortage of doctors. HB 1378 grants APRNs global signature authority and certain prescriptive rights. It also requires insurers, mutual and fraternal benefit societies, and health management organizations to recognize APRNs as primary care providers.

"APRNs are extremely valuable providers of healthcare. Their education and experience position them very well to address the State's critical provider shortage. HB 1378 will do just that by expanding the scope of practice for which they are qualified.

"Moreover, HB 1378 removes inefficient barriers in the current APRN practice, authorizing them to certify documents related to the health care of their patients that are within their scope of practice.

"If enacted, this measure would allow Hawai`i's APRNs the ability to move more swiftly and effectively, filling the gaps in the current healthcare system.

"Most important, Mr. Speaker, this bill will have an immediate positive impact on the healthcare crisis in Hawai`i's rural areas; among the most underserved populations, where primary care physicians are in short supply."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On HB No. 1271, House Draft 2, Relating to Government, I will be voting 'no.' This would increase the tax on a barrel of oil from five cents, to one dollar. And it is rather vague as to how the money will be spent. It specifies that five cents should go toward addressing drinking water, two and a half cents should go toward other purposes, the Energy System Development Special Fund. And I don't know how the rest will be spent, except that it should be used, as provided by law. So, there's no clear definition of what 'provided by law' means. So, I will unfortunately be voting 'no' on this measure."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I support the intent of this bill, but have serious concerns about moving it forward. This bill proposes to increase taxes that will disproportionately hurt middle- and low-income families and small businesses. While an increase in the barrel tax is a better way to raise revenue than the proposal to increase the general excise tax ("GET"), it is still regressive and will hurt those least able to afford it. A barrel tax would have significant benefits compared to an increase in the GET in other ways as well. Rather than reducing business activity and making it more expensive to do business in Hawai`i, a barrel tax will likely result in less oil use, which would lead to environmental and greenhouse gas benefits in addition to the economic benefit – fewer local dollars will be exported directly out of the state. However, I cannot support a regressive tax unless the adverse economic effects are neutralized with a reduction in income taxes, or some other method, for our middle- and low income families and small businesses.

"Second, this bill allocates a quarter of a million dollars for a task force -- made up of government employees – at time when we must reduce government spending. Task forces can help the State plan ahead and accomplish more, but the budgetary challenges we face this year require that the State do more with less. I believe the task force could do the work needed with members contributing their time as part of their existing job, or with a minimal allowance for expenses.

"Last but not least, this bill provides no information regarding where and how 92.5% of the revenue from the tax collected will be spent."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 396, HD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this, with a few comments. Mr. Speaker, this the Employee Retention bill, which essentially says, if you sell your business and you have 100 employees, you cannot fire, sack, displace, or replace them. The unfortunate thing is, I think this bill would put Hawaiian Tel out of business, quite frankly. They have 1,400 employees; they're wobbling, they're shaking, and if we're going to get anybody to buy it, I know there's a Resolution to make it a co-op. But if anybody is going to put money into that, and they know survival is going to be based upon cutting of costs. Mr. Speaker, this bill doesn't make any sense.

"The problem is that we have hard economic times upon us. We've got to watch out for our workers, but remember, 85 percent of the private sector hires the people who work in the State of Hawaii. The other 15 to 20 percent is government workers. We've got to keep the Hawaii private sector healthy, so this is not a good policy. My problem here is that it's all 'stick' with no 'carrot,' whatsoever. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with short comments. In the beginning of the year, Mr. Speaker, the Legislative Session, we talked about keeping labor working, and that's what I see this doesn't do. I know the intention is to keep the same employees in, if you sell a company. But I'm afraid that what it will do is close down companies and lose more jobs. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly. I think the purpose of this bill is just merely to reiterate the fact that employees are not fungible goods. Everything else in a business is fungible. It is something that can be easily transferred. But employees are a valued asset that need to be recognized as a part, an integral part, of the business and its success. And therefore, that is the purpose of this bill, and why I believe we should support it. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 396 - Relating to the Employment which requires successor employers to retain all incumbent employees.

"My concerns are based on the following points laid out by the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations in essence pointing out that the proposed bill would create a negative business climate:

1. Dictating that a buying company that is investing money in a local business, keep employees not needed or not serving in the best interest of their company is an over-reaching and improper action that interferes with a business's ability to make necessary decisions relating to their economic well-being.

2. An adverse affect is created for the selling employer's current employees when a company is being sold due to a financial crisis, and potential successor companies do not choose to purchase the existing company due to the proposed bill's requirements. (In effect ensuring a greater likelihood that the company will go bankrupt and all employees will become unemployed.)

3. Requiring a successor employer in a divestiture to retain all of the incumbent employees of an affected establishment, or a number proportionate to total human resource needs, seems overly prescriptive because it would not allow the successor employer to bring its own employees, except for supervisory or confidential workers.

4. Additionally, the bill is vague on how to measure human resource needs. For example, a successor employer retains only 200 of 300 employees because the business can be successfully operated at that lower staffing amount. How would the employer (or Department) verify that the human resource needs of the company merited the release of 100 employees? If the employer is found in violation, he is responsible for compensation to affected workers. Why should an employer compensate persons who were not their employees?

5. Collective bargaining agreements, which were developed to protect the interests of employees, exist in larger companies and must be taken into consideration by all parties involved in a divestiture.

"Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a footnote to the Majority Leader that, as we are told continually in the Finance Committee, 69 percent of government costs are employee costs. So, if a business, which is probably not quite as high, is going to be able to adapt, adjust, and otherwise survive, it's got to look at that. So, to say if it's fungible or not fungible, it's where the reality is. Employee costs are one of the highest costs, particularly in the US, where we pay very, very high wages. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 396, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, McKelvey, Takai, Takumi and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of SCR 549, HB459 HD1: Making an Appropriation for the Hawaii Civil Air Patrol.

"On Kauai, the Civil Air Patrol has played an integral part in the emergency operations for tsunami warnings and hurricane recoveries. All of the members of the Civil Air Patrol are volunteers who have a history of serving the CAP for many years.

"All of their equipment (aircraft, hangar, etc.) is supplied by the United States Air Force. These monies being requested are for training and emergency preparedness.

"The operating funds that they are requesting are a small price to pay for the service they render for the people of Kaua'i and the State of Hawai'i. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. House Bill 459 makes an appropriation to the Hawaii Civil Air Patrol. With active members of the Civil Air Patrol as constituents of District 37, as well as an active Civil Air Patrol Squadron located nearby at the Wheeler Army Airfield, I stand in strong support.

"Since the Civil Air Patrol's establishment over 50 years ago, members of this volunteer service organization prove to be vital in the emergency response and disaster relief efforts to aide our State. All Civil Air Patrol members are volunteers who receive the proper training through the Air Force, FEMA, and Homeland Security to lead in search and rescue, medical emergency transport services, pre-disaster emergency warning and post-disaster recovery operations. These volunteer members are people from our neighborhoods trained and ready to serve our State during a time of need.

"Being located in the middle of the Pacific we are continuously exposed and threatened by hurricanes, tsunami, volcanic eruption, and earthquakes. We are isolated and need to be able to respond accordingly to local disasters. When Hawaii endured an earthquake measuring 6.7 on the Richter scale in October 2006, islandwide blackouts affected the islands of Hawaii, Maui, and Oahu. Communication resources were dually affected prompting grave concern and fear among the population. The Civil Air Patrol volunteer members responded immediately with their inter-island radio communication frequencies to assist in the disaster efforts. Because of their tremendous assistance over the last fifty years, we need to continue to support this vital program and service to our State to ensure the safety, security and wellbeing to the people of Hawaii."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Standing Committee Report 549, House Bill 459 HD1. This measure provides funding for the operational costs of the Hawaii Civil Air Patrol (HCAP), which is an unpaid, all-volunteer organization. HCAP provides essential services for the people of Hawaii, as first responders providing airborne patrol for tsunami warning, tsunami damage assessment, homeland security and search and rescue. HCAP also has a cadet program similar to JROTC, providing beneficial training ground for Hawaii's youth. They have provided assistance to the US Coast Guard, the Army National Guard, Hawaii State Civil Defense. We must recognize the dedicated service the HCAP provides to ensure the health and safety of the people across the State. For these reasons I stand in strong support of this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak to express my reservations with HB 1165.

"The Department of Transportation in the bill is asking for authority to create rules for the various commercial harbors, ostensibly based on the need to address safety concerns. I certainly understand that there is a need for safety rules; however, the community's long-established shared use of certain commercial harbors for recreational and cultural purposes should be recognized and preserved.

"The Department of Transportation's recent strained relations with local residents using Kahului harbor for canoe racing and practices, and for fishing and surfing, raises some concern that perhaps the rules proposed ostensibly for safety will in actuality operate to limit or even displace the longtime community use of our harbor and other nearshore waters. I certainly hope this will not be the case and I believe rules can be crafted through creativity and improved strategic planning in the State's master plan, including the use of better technology for business and recreational activities that will foster rather than inhibit joint use of the available space. Existing residents who gather for traditional and cultural practices should be taken into consideration when planning for the future so that they may continue to carry out their customs.

"As this bill moves forward, I hope there will be practical, open and frank dialogue between traditional and cultural practitioners, government agencies and the business community about the goals of this bill. Please record my vote with reservations."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With strong reservations. This is the bill that's about modernizing our highways in the State. But unfortunately, it has a fuel tax increase, a vehicle registration increase, as well as some other tax and fee increases in here on the people of Hawaii.

"I just believe that we should focus on what we just recently did in this election season, and that is, the residents of Oahu, at least, supported a rail, and they're already paying a tax increase on that."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"A mild no, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Mr. Speaker, I think the biggest issue that I have with this is, we're in the beginning of the Session, and we want to keep bills alive for conversation purposes and debate. But, the way that I could swallow this bill, as a tax increase for now, was because there was a mechanism that basically said, if the economy starts to recover, then we could do this. And what this does now, is that a huge amendment was made to say, automatically, the tax increase is activated on July 1st, 2011. If we haven't recovered, we're kicking people while they're down. If the economy hasn't recovered, we're taking more out of people's paycheck. I don't think that that is smart in this time period. So, that's my strong reservations, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. I have similar concerns as the Minority Leader."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As this bill keeps resurfacing, I'll keep voting 'no' on it, Mr. Speaker. And if I may make just a couple of comments. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, under current Hawaii law, it's illegal to visibly pass on the GET, if the price of the goods or services is fixed by law.

"So, if this bill passes, it's going to award the towing industry, not one of my favorite industries, but, it will award the towing industry with a privileged exception to current Hawaii law, that no other industry appears to enjoy. And for all those people who have their cars towed, I think they will not be very happy. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I speak for the bill. In regards to the previous speakers, I want to say that exceptions are made through law every time we pass a bill, so it's not very unusual that we're having legislation like this here.

"It's discriminatory in some ways to the beloved towing companies that they cannot pass on the tax, where everybody else can. And, there's an exception with the insurance company, where instead of paying the excise tax of four percent, they pay one half of one percent. That's an exception. And we can go on and on and on, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, very much."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. No. 576 with brief comments. This is a good bill. It allows for Hawaiian Language to take its rightful place, next to English. It's the official language by the Constitution, so it implements that.

"My problem, Mr. Speaker, with it is that it commits a breach of linguistic protocol in that the bill has the two languages. It appears by the way it's juxtaposing the language, it's making Hawaiian primary and English secondary, by way of the translation. Case in point: Canada; English and French. Generally, you see the English on the top, and then you see the French on the bottom. This bill has it in opposite in it, and there's no place in the world that I've seen that. Unless we intend to have Hawaiian as the primary language and English as the secondary language, in which case, Mr. Speaker, I suggest that we all better get into the Hawaiian language classes. Mahalo Nui Loa."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

Representative Morita rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker: I rise with grave reservations about this measure. The primary purpose of these trust lands is not to advance leases for commercial purposes to non-beneficiary private interest parties to ensure their financial viability. We do not extend States leases beyond the 65 year period without a public auction so why should such an exception be made for the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands where the State has an important fiduciary responsibility to native Hawaiians?

"Section 204 of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act wherein the authority to lease lands to the "general public" is predicated by the statement, "The department is expressly authorized to negotiate, prior to negotiations with the general public, the disposition of Hawaiian home lands or any improvements thereon to native Hawaiian beneficiaries or organization or association owned or controlled by native Hawaiians." It should be pointed out that beneficiaries have advised me that the DHHL has yet to implement the correct priority of negotiating with beneficiaries and beneficiary organizations PRIOR to the general public. Such a priority will drive private interest parties to native Hawaiian beneficiaries and the organizations they control to partner with them, thereby building the capacity intended under section 204. This procedure is very similar to successful development approaches and lessons learned by other Native peoples.

"Secondly, there has been no evidence or comprehensive financial analysis presented at all, that giving 99 year leases on trust lands advances the financial interests of the trust or its beneficiaries. Simply put, if a developer wants a 99 year lease, or to be positioned for zero risk, they should look for fee simple land, not lands that are a native Hawaiian trust, intended for specific homesteading purposes. If a developer cannot get a reasonable return with 65 years, one questions whether it is a viable venture at all. However, the issue of privatizing Hawaiian homes trust lands is not something to be considered lightly and is an aberration of the State's fiduciary responsibility to native Hawaiians."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. For Stand. Com. Rep. 583, this requires that the return of all out-of-state inmates in the private prisons be returned on December 31st, 2015. And I just wanted to also just comment that some prisoners in the mainland feel that they have better services up there. I would say, even through some of my conversations and readings, that it's most. So, it may sound a little odd, but I think I'm speaking on behalf of some of those prisoners, that they want to stay there. And so I don't know if this is the way you want to move forward with requiring all of them returned."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1780 - Relating to Sentencing of Repeat Offenders. The purpose of this bill is to change the mandatory minimum sentencing provisions of the repeat offender law from mandatory to discriminatory.

"I quote Dara Carlin, a counselor for Independent Domestic Violence Survivor:

> “While I recognize the intent of this bill is an effort to reduce overcrowding in the prison system and allow for a more community and family-based approach to addressing crime, I have to say that this measure is seeking this benefit for the wrong population. It would make more sense for this proposal to be targeted for First Time offenders, but it's specifically asking for discretion for Repeat Offenders; in either case the discretionary aspect being proposed will erase the "mandatory" in mandatory minimum sentencing.”

I agree with her wholeheartedly.

"“The repeat current offender law, enacted in 1976, was enacted in the Legislature to protect the people of Hawaii from the relatively small group of criminals who commit so many of the crimes that occur in Hawaii” writes our Attorney General Mark Bennett. The Commentary on section 706-606.5, citing the 1976 House Conference Committee Report No. 32, Senate Conference Committee Report No. 33, states:

"Finding a clear danger to the people of Hawaii in the high incidence of offenses being committed by repeat offenders, the legislature felt it necessary to provide for mandatory terms of imprisonment without the possibility of parole in cases of repeated offenses by prior offenders."

"I am concerned that the proposed bill impacts more than just non-violent crimes. As Peter Carlisle, our City Prosecuting Attorney states "Our repeat offender statute covers offenses such as murder, sexual assault, robbery, burglary and auto theft and already permits the judge to sentence the offender to a lesser mandatory minimum when he or she finds strong mitigating circumstances."

"In essence this bill does not serve the public's interest. Should we send the message that crime pays? I don't think so. I think it behooves us to consider the positions of those such as the Attorney General and the Prosecuting Attorney of the City, both of whom oppose this bill. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1780, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SENTENCING OF REPEAT OFFENDERS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, McKelvey, Takai, Takumi and Tokioka being excused.

Representatives McKelvey and Morita, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs and the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 595) recommending that H.B. No. 1704, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1704, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I vote with reservations, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this is asking for $1 million to be appropriated out of our general fund for 09-2010, and then $2 million, or as much as is necessary for 2010-2011, for an operation of a government industry consortium.

"We did not really get that much detail about what this is about. I'm somewhat concerned about putting that much money into this consortium. And, if we could put those same funds into deploying actual renewable energy projects that are here in Hawaii, that are either ready to go, or need to have additional structures put up to be able to provide the renewable energy. It's just a little bit 'pie-in-the-sky', and actually, that's where it may be located by this consortium. I'm just not sure, so at this point, until there's more information, I'm with reservations."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. What the bill tries to do, even though it is costly, is to do for Hawaii what otherwise we're almost strategically located to do, and that is to reap the energy from the sun. In this Committee discussion, there was use of the term "space solar energy," and the harnessing of "space solar energy." In fact, I believe that there's one member of this Body who said that his friend, who is an astronaut, said there's enough energy on the moon to basically power the whole earth. Hawaii has an opportunity to become on the cutting edge of that. If there is "space solar energy," Hawaii is the place, or the epicenter, to do that. It's not going to be free, but that's something that the Finance Committee will look at thereafter. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. "Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 604, with just a brief comment. This is trying to 'recreate the wheel' of companies. It was initially an ingenuity company, then it became a public purpose company. Everything that we have on the books for people who have eleemosynary charity or goodwill intentions, we have enough structure to do that. It's a bit of an odd hybrid of sorts. It's convoluted. It will probably be misunderstood and misplaced, but it is something I think that the next Committee needs to look at very seriously, in the Judiciary Committee. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing to vote with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 618, Relating to Campaign Financing. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, the bill is basically a recodification and cleanup of the campaign spending law, but there's one provision in there that really runs contrary to good government, or clean government. What it will do, is eliminate the 20 percent cap on non-resident contributions. If it were to state that that would occur after the coming gubernatorial election, I could support it. But, taking away that 20 percent cap on non-resident contributions now, while the gubernatorial election is going to be coming up in 2010, I think that's very suspect. I think it's really, very suspect.

"I know there's an effort in this Body to do clean government, good government bills. This one unfortunately, has a 'poison pill' in it. I've not been an advocate of the 20 percent cap from non-resident contributions, because we have a lot of our Hawaii people that now are living on the mainland, that still want those ties to Hawaii. But the time to do that is after the next gubernatorial election, not before. Because what it looks like, is that it's a handoff to a particular candidate. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I guess the most succinct way of explaining this bill is that it doesn't pass the 'smell test.' Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations and a few comments. Unlike the previous speakers, I had a little bit of a different take on this. I'd like to point to the language of the purpose statement in this bill, which is 'the purpose of this Act is to update, organize, and clarify the current campaign finance laws and make minor substantive changes to the current laws.'

"My concern is that this is more than just a minor substantive change to the law, and I think we need to take a look at this carefully. So, as it moves forward, as it moves to the Finance Committee, I hope those reservations are listened to. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak in favor of this measure. I just wanted to make mention that some years ago, there was no cap on the importing of means and money to Hawaii. A former mayor won the governorship by basically all those imported dollars from the mainland. So, I think it's kind of disingenuous, in a way, where you have a lot of the Minority members of the Governor's same party, now complain, when they did not in the past. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal. If we're going to talk about history, it was this very Body that removed that cap, purposely, so that our current Governor could not continue to raise money that helped her to get elected. So, we're just trying to be consistent, so that this Body does not look as if it is only targeting Republican governors only."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 215, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN FINANCING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representative Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, McKelvey, Takai, Takumi and Tokioka being excused.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1188, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AFFORDABLE HOUSING," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Bertram, McKelvey, Takai, Takumi and Tokioka being excused.

HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF HAWAII, 117 HAWAII 174 (2008)," which was adopted by the Senate on February 20, 2009.

At 12:07 o'clock p.m. Representative Evans requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:08 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Representative Berg moved that S.C.R. No. 40 be adopted and requested a roll call vote at the appropriate time, seconded by Representative Hanohano.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Thank you. A motion for a roll call has been made, and a second supporting this motion has been recorded. The Chair at this time will be calling a short recess to allow the Clerk to verify the referral status of the measure in question. Since I envision a very short recess, I ask that all Members remain on the Floor."

At 12:09 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:12 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Prior to the recess there were two motions before this Body. The last motion that was made was a motion for a roll call vote, and at this time, the Chair will recognize the movant of the roll call vote to withdraw that motion."

At this time, Representative Berg withdrew her request for a roll call vote, and Representative Hanohano withdrew her second.

Representative Berg then moved for the adoption of S.C.R. No. 40, seconded by Representative Hanohano.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm just standing up with reservations, today. I haven't had the opportunity to ask my constituents how they feel about this particular measure. There's definitely strong feelings on both sides, and I would have preferred that there had been a hearing of some sort, so I would first be able to forward this information to my constituents.

"Actually, in light of that, I would like to move that we refer this Resolution to Water, Land, Ocean, and Judiciary."

At this time, Representative Pine moved that S.C.R. No. 40 be referred to the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Marumoto.

At 1:14 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:21 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Representative Saiki requested a roll call vote on the motion to refer S.C.R. No. 40.

At 1:22 o'clock p.m. Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:23 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Representative Saiki withdrew his request for a roll call vote.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Thank you very much. Members of the House, at this time, we have a motion before us in regards to the Senate Concurrent Resolution being referred to Committee. Any discussion?"

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the motion to refer, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I do believe that this Resolution would warrant more public testimony and input. I'm speaking to the motion to refer this measure to a Committee, and, if we do that, then we would be able to receive more public input from the community. Rather than pushing it through for adoption today, I believe that we should go step by step, and be a little more open and transparent. Thank you, very much."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the motion to refer, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I am speaking against the motion because time is imperative on this issue, with the court hearing going to be held this coming Wednesday."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the motion to refer, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Very briefly, I just oppose referring this measure. We've heard this issue multiple times through various bill forms. This is actually just a Resolution that is in front of us. The issues are very similar, and therefore, I think the House is informed enough at this point to take a position without having to go through Committees. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the motion to refer, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the referral. Mr. Speaker, that's kind of in line with all the things that I've been for, in regards to making sure that it gets public testimony on issues. But, this particular Resolution has only gone to one Committee on the Senate side. I think it would be prudent of us to make sure that the public has ample time to respond to a big situation like this. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the motion to refer and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Just a short rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. This is a substantive resolution, and previously, we've had in our rules that substantive resolutions must be referred to Committee so they could be fleshed out, and aired out. The only things that we passed on the Floor were congratulatory type of resolutions. I don't like this departure from tradition. This is a very important piece of legislation, and it's coming before the Supreme Court. I don't think we should unduly influence …"

The Chair addressed Representative Marumoto, stating:

"Representative Marumoto, could you confine your remarks to the motion of the referral, and not the influencing of the US Supreme Court?"

Representative Marumoto continued, stating:

"Thank you, sir. Since this is so important, I urge you to vote for this to send it to Committee, so that we may fully discuss this issue. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the motion to refer, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the motion. Mr. Speaker, I would contend that, yes, there's an urgency, but I don't think there's a depth of understanding as to what we're really doing here. In the short run, there's a court case, but in the long run, the viability of the State of Hawaii is at stake. And I think all of our major groups need to buy in on this. I would contend that probably even those who think they know what it is, really don't know, because this has long, long, long, long, long, long range implications to it, depending on how this issue falls out in the legal side. So, to rush something that is so long range is premature."

At 1:27 o'clock p.m. Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:29 o'clock p.m.

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal to the Majority Leader. He said that this issue has been discussed enough in different versions and different bills, but we could say that about everything that we're talking about. Civil unions, we've discussed so many times."

The Chair addressed Representative Pine, stating:

"Representative Pine, would you confine your remarks to the motion of the referral of the Resolution? I know it's very difficult."

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"It's hard. Okay, well, again in responding to the Majority Leader's remarks that, in his opposition to the referral, he said that we have talked about this issue multiple times. I would then rebut him on that particular comment on the motion, that we've discussed the same educational issues, and discussed civil unions. There are lots of issues that we have discussed in various forms, but we typically allow the public to give us more input, even though we've discussed it before, Mr. Speaker. And I think asking for transparency is a great thing for the people of Hawaii, and that's why I'd like to get more information through the Committee process."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the motion to refer with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, could you put me down for reservations, and I would want to state that the reservations are not against the good Hawaiian people, but in the manner that this is being done right now."

The Chair addressed Representative Souki, stating:

"Representative Souki, I believe you are out of order. The main motion is not before for us."

Representative Souki continued, stating:

"I'm speaking with reservations for the referral."

At 1:31 o'clock p.m. Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:32 o'clock p.m.

The motion that S.C.R. No. 40, entitled "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE GOVERNOR AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO WITHDRAW THE APPEAL TO THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT OF THE HAWAII STATE SUPREME COURT DECISION, OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS V. HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF HAWAII, 117 HAWAII 174 (2008)," be referred to the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and the Committee on Judiciary, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote failed to carry with Representative Takai being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be registering a vote with reservations. A few points. The first one is that on page four, lines one through three, it states, 'Be it further resolved that the Legislature declares the public policy of the State of Hawaii, is to honor the decision of the Hawaii State Supreme Court.' It is my understanding as of today, that there are several vehicles being considered to change that policy. So, I for one, would not like to be bound to that declaration in this document.

"The second reason for my reservations, Mr. Speaker, is that I think we should also include having certified copies of the Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to our Congressional Delegation, Senators Inouye, Akaka, Congresswoman Hirono, Congressman Abercrombie, and also to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, with some reservations. I would like to just add on to what my colleague said just a minute ago, that we also should request that certified copies of the Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the United States Supreme Court."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support, with reservations. I also have some concerns regarding the language of this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, with a couple of comments, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, some of us remember the Gavin Dawes book, Land and Power in Hawaii. This Resolution, I think, comes close to where the lines cross, and clearly, this is about land and power.

"The unfortunate thing is that resolution between land and power in the Hawaiian community has never been reached. We must reach some reconciliation. This Resolution however, calls into question the legitimacy of the State of Hawaii, or as Mark Bennett has said, the 'corpus' of the State of Hawaii.

"What's at stake is, was land transferred in 1959, to the State of Hawaii, really the State of Hawaii land. Do we, Mr. Speaker, have any land base in the State of Hawaii? Are we the legitimately-formed Body of the State of Hawaii? Which, if we are not, how can we give permission to sell land, if we don't have actually the land? So, there's a bit of a circular argument, a conundrum.

"But I recently found out, finally, how much land there is, and how much of the ceded lands are really at stake here. There are 4.2 million acres of land in the State of Hawaii. And 2.2 of those are in private hands; that's why the whole notion of land and power. There's a very, very few people who own a lot of the land. Half of it, 2.2 million acres are private lands. 1.4 million acres are public lands. 1.2 of those are the ceded lands that we are now talking about. That leaves the State of Hawaii 200,000 acres: 400,000 of federal lands and 200,000 for the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands.

"So, Mr. Speaker, can you have a state without any land? I don't know. It calls into question the legitimacy of the corpus, or the body of the State of Hawaii having a land base, rather than just if we have power, as we are as the constituted body.

"If we don't have clean title. And the US Supreme Court is going to decide whether we have that. I think it's a very, very pointed issue. The notion is, that's the short range, just the Supreme Court decision. But in the long range, what happens to the State, is what my biggest concern is, in which we don't, hopefully, as impetuous as we have today, when this is resolved in the long run, we will have full deliberation with the people of Hawaii, and for the sake of preservation of the land and the eulogy of our people, to have as a primary consideration. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, what the previous speaker just stated, to me, puts the case out for why this type of legislation is so critical. Land is so extremely scarce in our State of Hawaii. This is why issues like lease-to-fee conversion are so extremely controversial. When you live in a place like Hawaii, no amount of compensation can compensate for the loss of land. The claims of the Hawaiian people for reparations from the US Government, following the illegal overthrow of their kingdom are still unresolved. And this is why OHA, the Hawaiian community, people that typically don't agree, have agreed on this issue, that we cannot sell the ceded land until those claims are resolved.

"The ceded lands inventory's still not complete. Until that inventory is done, I cannot support the sale of land.

"Another thing I wanted to say is, one of the arguments made in favor of selling ceded land, is that we don't want to pass up deals. That may be a good deal, and we can then spend the money to benefit Native Hawaiians with affordable housing, and so on. What I would say to that is, no matter how good a deal may look today, the money's going to be made. The money will be made by today's policy makers. It will not be kept in trust for the future generations.

"We have to keep the land in the public trust, so it can be passed on to the next generation, and so on. And, it's a priceless legacy that will be guaranteed to increase in value. So, with that, I just urge my colleagues to support this measure."

Representative Magaoay rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing up with reservations. I just want to say that I understand the intent, and this a very important Resolution. I just wish that we could have gotten this Resolution quicker from our colleagues on the other side. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting with strong reservations on this measure. As I said earlier, I think it's very premature for us to do it. This is an important case which bears better airing of the issues, and it deals really with the State ownership of public lands. If OHA is successful in this, it will give them greater leverage in negotiating the Native Hawaiian claims to ceded lands.

"I would like to see a resolution of this issue. I strongly support an amicable settlement of these claims between OHA and the State. We've had the opportunity in past Sessions. We did not avail ourselves of it. I have never heard this Resolution in the Committees I belong to. I serve on Agriculture, Tourism, Consumer Protection, and Judiciary Committees, and I do not recall airing these issues on this particular Resolution before, and I look forward to the opportunity. So, I would urge all people to express their reservations on this, pushing this Resolution through today. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support with reservations. The short time that we have had to deliberate on this complex issue makes it difficult for me to form an opinion. Having listened to the opposing viewpoints has made the wisdom of this Resolution even less clear. It is doubtful that this Resolution will have the effect of removing the issue from the Court's agenda, and that it will be a mainly symbolic gesture."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support however, I have some reservations. As someone who resides and represents the largest concentration of Native Hawaiians in the world, I am in support for this Resolution. However, we are forced to decide upon this issue with a limited amount of time.

"In addition, the Resolution states that a copy of this measure is being sent to both the Governor and the Attorney General. I would have preferred that in addition, copies be delivered to the United States Supreme Court, the Hawaii State Supreme Court, our Hawaii Congressional Delegation and the Office of Hawaiian Affairs.

"As I understand, time is of the essence and support for this measure is relative to the decisions that may be made in Washington D.C. Being given this Resolution on Monday without proper time to review for clarity and consistency I believe is moving hastily. I believe allowing at least one Committee to review this Resolution, preferably the Hawaiian Affairs Committee should have been considered, thus still allowing this Resolution to move forward before opening statements are made in Washington D.C. on Wednesday. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, the importance of this Senate Concurrent Resolution is for several reasons.

"First of all, it's the first time a state government has ever challenged the highest state court, being the Hawaii State Supreme Court. And let me just let everybody know here, that when the Hawaii State Supreme Court did their ruling, it wasn't challenging the title. It was just purely saying, 'Do not sell ceded lands until Hawaiians have their reconciliation process.' Remember, if you look back in history, and this is where the Attorney General does not want to go back before the Federal Admissions Act. He does not want to look at the history where the lands were stolen. So, when you see many independent Hawaiians out there saying that the lands were stolen, the Hawaiians did not turn over the land to the federal government. So, when the lands were ceded or put into the public trust with the notion in law in the Admissions Act, there were purposes, five purposes why those lands were put there, and one of them was for the betterment of Native Hawaiians.

"Now, we ask you to please support this issue, because first of all, if we're going to talk about transparency, the Governor never took the time to talk to the Native Hawaiian community before filing this appeal.

"The second thing is, she never had a conversation with us directly as to her intentions, until after the appeal.

"And thirdly, I do respect my colleagues who are voting with reservation because of our timing, but in our process, a lot of bills are rammed down our throat. If we talk about issues like the SuperFerry, and how that came down. That was an initiative that the Governor wanted. All we're purely asking for, because of February 25th, where oral arguments are going to take place at the US Supreme Court, and because of their process, they don't have that much time to do the oral arguments.

"All this simply says, as a policy, in a resolution, and not a bill, is that this Body supports, as a policy, to not sell ceded lands. Or at least to give it consideration, because when you allow the State to sell ceded lands with no checks and balances, whether this Body, in the measures that are coming before us, decides, as a policy, we need checks and balances. Not just for us, but for the general public, and how those lands are used.

"And yes, there is a mistrust with government. Yes, the public out there says that we cannot trust government. And, as each and every one of us, who have to go out there and face our communities, and have to answer to them in how decisions are made. So, I ask kindly of this Body, to give this consideration. I know that this is an unusual situation with this Resolution being heard here at this time. But the timing is crucial. We need this Resolution, as a form to go to the US Supreme Court, to at least say that the Legislature supports some form of policy that ceded lands should not be sold or transferred until Native Hawaiians have their reconciliation process.

"In the appeal, it's challenging title. At the Hawaii State Supreme Court, it didn't challenge the title. All it said was, 'Don't sell the land, until Hawaiians have their process.

"And last, as someone who also comes from the Kamehameha line, which is my genealogy, I'm very torn, because we're not asking at this time to decide what that policy should look at. We're just asking that you honor the highest court in the State of Hawaii, with their ruling. And I understand some of the reservations, and I respect my colleagues because of the information. But, this would be a great Resolution to set forward, to take to the US Supreme Court. At least we can say that there's some support for some kind of policy to protect ceded lands until Native Hawaiians have their reconciliation.

"So, I humbly ask my colleagues of this House to please support this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in support of SCR 40, which urges the Governor and the Attorney General to withdraw their appeal to the United States Supreme Court regarding the selling of the former Crown Lands of the Kingdom of Hawaii.

"It has been 50 years since Statehood and Native Hawaiian claims to the former Crown Lands that were "ceded" to the State of Hawaii have not yet been resolved. Our State Constitution entrusts our government as the steward of these lands and I agree with the Hawaii Supreme Court that no land should be sold until all Native Hawaiian claims to the former crown lands have been resolved.

"The Governor's appeal of the sale of Hawaii's ceded lands to the United States Supreme places the fate of this issue in the hands of nine judges in Washington D.C. as it currently is, and risks a ruling that could impact Hawaii's self-rule and any decision to reach a settlement with Native Hawaiians.

"I believe that it is in the interest of all people in our state to preserve our right to self-determination."

Representative Morita rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of this Resolution. In January 2008, the Hawaii State Supreme Court in Office of Hawaiian Affairs v. Housing and Community Development Corporation of Hawaii, 117 Hawaii

174 (2008), enjoined the State from selling or otherwise transferring to third parties any ceded lands from the public lands trust until the claims of the Native Hawaiian people to the ceded lands have been resolved.

"The Court stated, that "[b]ased on a plain reading of the . . . [Apology Resolution], we believe Congress has clearly recognized that the native Hawaiian people have unrelinquished claims over the ceded lands, which were taken without consent or compensation and which the native Hawaiian people are determined to preserve, develop, and transmit to future generations." The Court further held, ". . . we believe and, therefore, hold that the Apology Resolution and related state legislation . . . give rise to the State's fiduciary duty to preserve the corpus of the public lands trust, specifically, the ceded lands, until such time as the unrelinquished claims of the native Hawaiians have been resolved. Such duty is consistent with the State's 'obligation to use reasonable skill and care' in managing the public lands trust and Ahuna court's declaration that the State's conduct 'should . . . be judged by the most exacting fiduciary standards.'" 117 Haw. at 193.

"In April 2008, the Governor directed the Attorney General to petition the United States Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari on whether the passage of Public Law 103-150, otherwise known as the Apology Resolution, strips the State of Hawaii of the authority to sell, exchange, or transfer ceded lands unless or until the State reaches a political settlement with the Native Hawaiian people about the status of these lands. In October 2008, the United States Supreme Court granted the State's petition for certiorari in the foregoing case.

"This Resolution sends a message to the Governor and the U.S. Supreme Court that the Hawaii State Legislature is a co-equal branch of government. And, in light of the unusual actions taken by Governor Lingle, I believe that it is necessary to reassert via this Resolution the Legislature's constitutional authority that it has the sole authority to resolve the ceded lands issue on behalf of the State and to dispose of lands under the control of the State as it deems appropriate."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, just in opposition. This has nothing to do with the contents of this Resolution, and I truly understand the emotion behind this. But I came here to believe that even someone that has a different philosophy to different people, that this Body would do things with transparency, and do things in the way that the people of Hawaii will honor. And that's by going through the proper procedures here.

"Just because we feel someone hasn't been transparent with us, doesn't mean that we should be leaders that also promote that same philosophy. Just because we feel that other leaders have rammed down our throats certain issues, doesn't mean that we should be leaders that do the same. I'm simply against the way that we're doing this today with the lack of transparency that we're promoting.

"This means that any other issue that a majority feels strongly about, that would possibly benefit them, in maybe a bad way next time, that we've set this precedent instead, that it's okay for this Legislature to do whatever we want. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I may just say a few more words, to make it clear that those of us who have voted with reservations are not saying that we should be selling ceded land. No one is saying that. And I don't even think the Administration has one parcel up for sale. The issue however, is if there's 1.4 million acres designated as public lands, and 1.2 million of those are ceded lands, and that is up to the Hawaiian Nation to discern, the corpus of the body of the State of Hawaii. Will the State of Hawaii be in business? That's the question.

"What is the preservation of the State of Hawaii, versus the reconciliation? And that's where this is a political question. We've got to be on one side or the other, and we're being rushed through with a very, very serious intent here today, Mr. Speaker. But the issue is not whether we should sell it. It's whether the legitimate transfer will not cloud the title forever and ever, until the Akaka Bill and hereafter, we reach some resolution. That's really what's at stake. Mr. Speaker, thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support, and with a preface comment appreciating my colleagues for their voting with reservations, because it really indicates that we're thinking about what we're thinking about.

"You know, in 1993, Congress passed the Apology Resolution, acknowledging the complicity of the United States in the overthrow of the Hawaiian Kingdom, in violation of International Law, and in deprivation of the rights of the Hawaiian people to self-determination.

"Congress, in passing the Apology Bill, apologized to the Native Hawaiians on behalf of the people of the United States and 'Urged the President of the United States to also acknowledge the ramifications of the overthrow of the kingdom, and to support reconciliation efforts between the United States and the Native Hawaiian people.'

"In October of 2000, the US Departments of Interior and Justice issued a joint report entitled, From Mauka to Makai. This report detailed the conditions of the Native Hawaiians and outlined, outlined corrective actions for the Congress and federal agencies, including Justice and Interior to pursue, in order to implement the reconciliation between the United States and the Native Hawaiians.

"We've said before that we've been waiting for this reconciliation to happen. I believe that the efforts of the Native Hawaiian community are very visible right now. If we are able to pass this Resolution, the message will be sent very clearly to the Executive Branch, that the Executive Branch is not above the law, and cannot preempt what federal legislation has already put in place.

"The lawsuit will impede the reconciliation efforts. So, I respectfully request our colleagues to consider passing this forward with strong support, and give Hawaii, give the State, give the Hawaiians the opportunity to resolve those issues in a manner that is in the best way for us, ourselves here in Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, thank you very much, Mr. Speaker and Members. Members, I'm tempted to vote 'no,' but I'll vote with strong reservations. The reason I will not vote 'no' is because I have great love for the Hawaiian people.

"But I don't appreciate the way this whole situation is being handled now. We get a bill at the last minute from the Senate. The Senate, in a desperate measure, because we didn't hear their bill, feels that this measure will influence the federal judge, and to make a decision. This is all about land. It's not about the Governor. It's not about the Hawaiians. It's not about the general population.

"And then who's going to hold the power and the title of the land? I believe the land should be shared among all of the people. Members, you have got to look into your own conscience as you vote for this bill."

The Chair interjected, stating:

"Representative Souki, it is not a bill, it's a resolution."

Representative Souki continued, stating:

"A resolution. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I remember one time when I was correcting you a little bit. Anyway, let's go on. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, for giving me the time.

"But Members, again, I will vote with reservations. I want you to look in your heart, as to whom you represent. When you take your Oath of Office, you have your devout, but fiduciary relationship. So, you think of this as you move along and you vote, not only for this bill, but for all the bills. You represent the people of the State of Hawaii. That's who you represent. And with this, Mr. Speaker, I end. And I hope that this will end peacefully for all of us. I do not appreciate the divisiveness that has been brought upon this Body here. And so I hope that we can have a ho'oponopono right after this. Thank you, very much."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just additional comments in opposition. I do want to publicly state that my opposition is not because I do not have love for the Hawaiian people. I was hanai-ed into a Hawaiian family and was raised partially by one. But my opposition is because I have a greater love for good government in the State of Hawaii, and I dream that no matter what happens, we will always be righteous in our actions, and how we listen, and how we do a certain process here, and not make special exceptions for certain things. I truly believe that we can become that, if we try."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, I'm standing in strong support. I agree with both my colleagues from Maui. Both of them. I'm standing in strong support because I don't think it's so much about land, as it is about faith. And right now, there's a large group of people, Hawaiians, who have a very tenuous, if any, faith in our government. And so, I'm supporting this. I agree with many of the legal issues that are being put forth, and it's really going to be up to the Supreme Court at this point. But I think we need to give that faith a little shot in the arm, and that's why I'm voting in favor."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This has been an issue that we've had very intelligent, legal minds on both sides. And, for someone who does not have a law background, I've listened to both sides of the issue. Coming from the legal standpoint, both sides make very good arguments, Mr. Speaker. I think that it's important for us to hear from the general public, and that's one of the issues why I'm voting 'no.' But the one thing that I hear, from not only us, as elected officials, but also from the Administration, and the Governor's office, is that no one is talking about the intention to sell any land.

"And on this particular Order of Business that we have today, we have Senate Bill 1677, a bill that talks about giving the Legislature the authority, that it would be the Legislature's approval or disapproval, on the sale of ceded lands. If you were to ask me this question, about whether or not I'd be for this Resolution in, I don't know, two weeks from now. Maybe it goes through some Committees, and I may have a different decision. I may be up on it. But at this point in time, I will have to say 'no,' because of the possible ramifications of this, and Wednesday's oral arguments at the Supreme Court.

"I say it again. I haven't heard any intentions to sell any ceded land property. This bill, Senate Bill 1677, would show our commitment as individual elected legislators. To sum it all up, this affects all of us. I'm not Native Hawaiian, but my kids are. And I want what's best for the State of Hawaii, just like everyone else, and for the Native Hawaiian community. So, I think that our energy should be put into reconciliation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. Just a few brief words, if I may? I stand in support of this Resolution, because to me, when you look at the four corners of the issue, it's pretty much about, should this be a process that we handle within the State of Hawaii? And should we not have a process of reconciliation in place before ceded lands are sold?

"When coming over on the plane today, it was the words of our former Governor Waihee, who did not agree with other Governors; Governor Waihee basically does oppose this lawsuit going forward, and I thought his reasonings were very profound in that we are inviting the ugly hand of federalism into what is pretty much a state issue.

"Members, to me, this Resolution says, do we believe that we should look at this issue and keep it in our own backyard, instead of inviting federalism and the United States Supreme Court into it. And should we have a policy of reconciliation in place before we move forward with the sale of ceded lands?

"To me, that's really what the focus of the Legislature needs to shift to now, is the reconciliation process of embarking upon it now, because this is going to continue to dog us and future generations of all the people of Hawaii.

"My good colleague from the other side of the island said to remember, you took an oath of office for all of the people of Hawaii, and he is correct. But, reconciliation is a process that brings all of the people of Hawaii to the table.

"To me, the Resolution today is simply to say 'Whoa, pull back. Let's not take this to the next level.' And also what worries me about this Court case is that this could have a nebulous touching effect upon 14th Amendment arguments, which have been raised as to the legitimacy of the entitlement programs up for Native Hawaiians.

"So, that's why I stand in support of this Resolution today, Mr. Speaker. Because I believe that it is a call to bring the ho'oponopono process home. To have it done at home, and to work with all of the people of Hawaii to bring resolution so that justice may be served to all of us. Both, now in the present, and most importantly, especially looking at the keiki up there, to the future. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to respond to some of the comments that were made by some previous speakers, about there being no discussion of sale of ceded land. I would beg to differ. We talked a couple days ago about House Bill 828, about the sale of public housing. HPHA has said that they want to be able to sell public housing, most of which is on ceded land.

"Another thing is that, the reason there hasn't been much discussion about what the intention of the Administration is, is because there has been no disclosure. If you look at the exhibits that have been to the Supreme Court, there's only one exhibit that talks about the sale of ceded land, and it only covers, I think from the mid '70s to the mid 1990s. And, it doesn't have acreage. They admit to selling over 2200 sales in fee of ceded land, without acreage provided.

"When you ask the question about what's happened in the past 10 years plus, there's no response. I submitted a request to DLNR to tell me what has been sold; what ceded lands have been sold, and still no response. So, in that respect, I think that's why there's been no discussion. We need more disclosure on that fact.

"The other thing I wanted to respond to is this issue of this Resolution being rammed down our throats. This issue of the ceded lands moratorium, and the Supreme Court appeal has been all over the media. You'd have to have been dead or asleep for the past, I don't know how many months, if you didn't know what was going on. It was in the Sunday paper, there were several pieces on it. There was a huge article I saw. There was an editorial on it. So, this is nothing new. It's a simple Resolution. We're asking the Lingle Administration to withdraw its appeal to the Supreme Court, and I don't really think there's many people that read the news in Hawaii that don't know what we're talking about. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just some additional comments. We talk about fiduciary rights or fiduciary responsibilities. Well the Hawaii State Supreme Court said the State has a fiduciary responsibility to Native Hawaiians.

"Members, I'd like to think of this discussion as a meaningful and healthy discussion, and not a devisive one. Because like anything that is of urgency, we all put our efforts, whether we agree or disagree, we have that discussion. So, I'd like to think that it is not necessary to have a ho'oponopono, because we are already pono, in whatever we decide.

"The other thing is, as my colleague from West Maui said, this reconciliation process does bring everyone to the table, because it involves all of us. And our hope is that that will happen soon, especially with Legislation at the federal level that is happening at this time.

"The other thing is that, as the Chair of the Hawaiian Affairs Committee, I've had meetings with the Governor, with the Attorney General. We've had through Hawaiian Caucus many different forums where the public has been invited. I've sat through many different debates of this issue. And that concluded for me, as an individual, and as a lawmaker, why is the Governor doing this? Why is she challenging the Hawaii State Supreme Court? So, this is just basically asking her to withdraw her appeal.

"Whether or not we agree on the issue of title, again, the Hawaii State Supreme Court did not challenge the title, but just merely said that, do not sell our ceded lands or transfer them until the fiduciary responsibility of the State is fulfilled.

"And also, it would not hinder the Governor's ability to do what she's already been doing, and what Governors in the past have been doing, where lands are transferred within State agencies. Again, I ask for your support. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations. Very strong reservations. I'd like to adopt the words of the Representative, Speaker Emeritus of Wailuku/Waihe'e. Thank you. This is a very difficult decision, because I think that you have important issues on either side, to which have already been articulated.

"I know that we all have a deep love and recognize that Hawaii would not be Hawaii without our Native Hawaiians. However, as Speaker Emeritus did mention, everyone is involved. And actually the best interest of the people sometimes are impeded, because of the way the land policy is right now of our Native Hawaiian people. So, in the best interest of this State, again, I reiterate that there's some things that need to be done, and to vilify the Fifth Floor. It's really tough. She's making a tough decision.

"So, I think that people have to understand, there's no one who wants to do bad to anyone. It's just your principles, you're standing for your principles, and actually the person who's sometimes the toughest, is the one that you should take a look at. The one that's been willing to stand up on the unpopular side of an issue. Maybe they're the ones that are willing to stand by their principles. So, to me it's what's in the best interest of all of our people. We don't want to divide our people. And at the same time, I think that it is bad policy to be pushing things so fast, which is one reason I was in favor of a referral.

"The formality of a hearing, versus some of the forums that we've had. Sure, they're forums, but then why do we have hearings? We have hearings so that there's a formal way for our public of all sides to benefit us, and making decisions with good legislation to come feeling free, feeling not intimidated, and not so charged, and that is a good system. So I'm voting with strong reservations."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, I feel compelled again that I need to speak. Some say that the Supreme Court, coming up with their decision, and how dare we speak against the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court is only one of the triangles of government. The check and balance system. The Legislature through laws can trump the Supreme Court. The Governor can have differences with the Supreme Court.

"I remember some years ago, when the Supreme Court Justice Moon was speaking on the State of the Judiciary to the Legislature. And in the end of his speech, he mentioned that the Legislature has the 'trump card.' Not the Supreme Court. They are not omnipotent. If you would continue to rely on the Supreme Court, you would not need the Legislature and you would not need the Executive Branch. Each one is of equal power, and because we have differences with the Supreme Court, that doesn't mean that we are doing something that is not pono. We have every right to disagree with the Supreme Court, and I believe in this time, the Supreme Court erred when it mentioned that it had to do with the apology.

"Yes, we need to have reconciliation with the ceded land. But not this way. Not the way that we are doing it. You're forcing a situation, and it's not true ho'oponopono where you are working it out. You're putting a sledge hammer on our heads. That's what you're doing right now. And with this, I'll end my remarks right here."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Second time in opposition, just a quick comment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm sure we're all trying to be very mindful on this decision, and I just wanted to read something short, from an article this morning. And it said, 'Lingle also said it's possible anti-Native Hawaiian groups would have sued the State, had it not appealed.' Then she follows up by saying, 'that would have opened up this whole issue in a very big way,' Lingle said. I think that by us doing the case ourselves and narrowing it, we have actually reduced the possibility that this would go on to other issues.

"Mr. Speaker, the reason why I bring this up, is because I actually had conversations with people who were a part of former lawsuits against the State having to do with this issue, and they were preparing a case, Mr. Speaker. So, although it says 'possible,' I can tell you that they were preparing a case, a suit against the State.

"The other issue having to do with this being a federal issue, we would love to keep it only in Hawaii, and it be our backyard issue and stay here, but like we know, this issue has already been brought, not particularly this issue, but the issue as a whole, has already been brought to the feds, with the Akaka Bill and other things.

"So, Mr. Speaker, it would be great if we could keep it in the confines of our State, but I don't think that that possibility, especially with some of the quotes that I've read a little bit earlier, that we can do that. And that's why we are all focusing in on what we think is best for the Native Hawaiian groups and Native Hawaiian people, and I think we just see things maybe in different ways on how we might be able to do that.

"So, I hope that we can continue to have this debate. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition to the subversion of the people's right to testify by permitting SCR 40 to be adopted on the Floor without prior hearing in Committee. The issue of ceded lands as this Resolution addresses is a topic which is extremely complex and is not so simple a matter as to advance by rubber stamp as some of our colleagues would have us do by adopting it without due process. To make such a bold and sudden initiative as a legislative body as to direct the Governor and Attorney General of Hawaii to withdraw an appeal presently before the U.S. Supreme Court is a matter that deserves public input and its own hearing.

"Mr. Speaker, we are a government of the people, by the people, not a government of the few, for the few. I am reminded of the motto an old company once proudly displayed: "No job is so important, no service is so urgent that we cannot take the time to perform our work safely." I recognize that many feel that the issue of ceded lands is one which time is of the essence, but no issue is so important as to override and overstep the due process of the people's House.

"Bills and resolutions are referred to Committees before coming to a Floor vote because our process is built on the understanding that the people have a right to discuss their support and opposition before those they have granted a trust to vote on their behalf. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support the spectrum of Hawaiian issues, but what I do not support is this attempt to sidestep a system that works for the people. Quite simply Mr. Speaker, this action opens the door to allow us to abuse democracy.

"I urge my colleagues to do what is right and oppose the passage of SCR 40 that we may return to the rule of law and respect for the people."

Representative Ching rose and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations to S.C.R. 40 – Relating to Native Hawaiians; Appeal; United States Supreme Court. While I am in support of ensuring a fair and just settlement leading to reconciliation with the Native Hawaiian people and fully committed to the support of Native Hawaiian rights, I agree, as stated by Mark Bennett, that "The state's defense sought to preserve intact the state's right to manage the ceded lands for the benefit of all its citizens." And that, "The ceded lands at issue are explicitly entrusted to the state for the benefit of all the citizens of the state."… "The sovereign dignity of this State and the interest of all its citizens require nothing less.""

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.C.R. No. 40, entitled "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE GOVERNOR AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO WITHDRAW THE APPEAL TO THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT OF THE HAWAII STATE SUPREME COURT DECISION, OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS V. Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition, with a few remarks on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 647. Mr. Speaker, let me first begin by saying this is a good bill, but I don't think it's very good policy that's in the bill.

"We need to protect our environment, but I'm not sure that this is the best method to begin with, or to put it in the front of the chronology to do that. And, for historical purposes, we should know that, Mr. Speaker, this bill was vetoed twice. One by the Governor, and secondly, and this is where it comes to my community, by my community, very vigorously, for three reasons.

"The first reason, Mr. Speaker, why they vetoed it was because of the aesthetics. The Commodore and the Mauna Luan, and all those beautiful Hawaii Kai condos, just couldn't imagine, or envision laundry hanging out on the lanai, which has a beautiful view of Maunalua Bay.

"The second reason is properties values, which is a direct result of that. For some of us who have been to Hong Kong, and other parts of the world, you know that laundry hanging in or around and in front of property doesn't enhance it, it distracts from its value.

"And thirdly, and most importantly, and this is what I really speak for my community for. There is irreparable damage that some of the retrofitting of clotheslines would cost. Some of the structural integrity of the building, particularly the condo people came very strong and very clear; when you drill into the side of a condo, which is reinforced concrete, and this spalling effect takes place. Then the moisture gets into the rebar, the rebar then oxidizes, the oxidization basically weakens the structure of the building.

"So they said, 'Look, we've got so many things that we can do before that.' In fact, one of the things that, Mr. Speaker, I would hope would get a hearing here is HB 1836, which mandates solar on every roof. We haven't got even that far, and now we're saying, 'All of you community associations, all of you homeowners associations, break those contracts with those who sold it,' which by the way, is why the Governor vetoed this bill, and now we're starting out with this as the high priority for renewable energy.

"I just think it's a bit of a misplaced priority. It will eventually be needed, but right now, it's not something that I believe either the Governor wants, or, at least for sure, my community doesn't want. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. For the edification of the Members, especially the Member from Hawaii Kai, this bill is limited to single family residences and townhouses."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please note my reservations on this measure and I will reserve comment until Third Reading."

H.B. 1436, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1436, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I waited until the appropriate time, I hope. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising with reservations on this. I know it's Third Reading, but the Bill still has to go over to the Senate and be considered by them.

"A couple of things concern me. We are saying that we are opening up the agricultural district to educational facilities. The first thing I would think about there is, the wisdom of placing an educational facility in an agricultural district, where you're going to have some chemicals applied to the agricultural crops. So, what you're doing is putting students, really, in proximity to some substances that could cause some serious ramifications for the students.

"The other concern I have is, just because years ago I represented a client in a case involving the attempt to put a slaughter house near a residential project on Maui, and the concern is that if you're going to open this up to appurtenances that are handling livestock, then you could end up with some uses that maybe should go through a special permit process, instead of just being allowed as of right.

"And I would hope that the Senate would take a look at those concerns and consider it as they look at this bill. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, my apologies for failing your pop-quiz, because I was thinking about what I was going to say, anticipating that she was going to speak. A good excuse, right?

"I was actually preoccupied, because this is a bill which hits very close to home in the farmlands of Hawaii Kai, where the Kamilo Nui Valley has nurseries. That is Kamehameha Schools Bishop Estate land, and they want to integrate some of their educational classes with that land, and to get them down on the farm, so it's not abstract classroom, but here's really nurseries, here's real coqui frog dangers, etc. And also, the Malama o Maunalua Bay wants to show how the runoff from that valley really contributes to the pollution in Maunalua Bay. So, Ag. and education can go hand in hand. And for the edification of my colleague, I hope she would take that to heart. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1436, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition of Stand. Com. Rep. 665, Relating to Buildings. Thank you, very much. This bill seeks to completely repeal a law that was passed last year, which was passed through both Chambers, House and Senate, went up to the Fifth Floor, and was signed into law. And I think that the Founding Fathers, who created the process of the Legislature, understood that bills would be vetted and that everyone should have a chance to improve and hone bills. And occasionally, yes, like a little manini fish, somehow some mistake gets through a hole in the net. But that does not mean to me that, because a manini fish got through the hole in the net, that somehow it didn't work.

"It's a bill that had a reason why it was voted on and passed into law. Because it was some kind of an idea that said that, 'Maybe this might work. Maybe this might be important.' Because we're knocking down a ton of buildings that are actually, like the plate lunch, a unique part of Hawaii. Hawaii is so unique in the sense that it can blend many different diverse elements. It doesn't stop at food. It doesn't stop at music. And it doesn't stop in architecture. What happens with architecture in Hawaii, when nobody really notices, 'cause look old, so knock 'um down. It's old fashioned. Like any kind of art, it has a message. It reveals our history, and it reveals our heritage. And in unique cases, such as certain plantation homes, it is a unique blend, the hapa haole blend of Asian plus European, in the architecture.

"So, when people look at that, and you can explain it to a child, he's going to say, 'Wow, that's pretty cool.' It also expresses the graciousness of our time before, when you sat on your veranda and you looked out. These are ways to teach children.

"The thing is, we're knocking down buildings. Sometimes, they need to be knocked down. Go for it. What this bill initially intended, was merely to say, 'If the guy's dying, can we give him a funeral?' That's all we wanted. All the bill initially said was, take a photograph, and to go for it. So at least, later, we can recreate the building. It's not 'zippo,' gone forever. Like a person, gone forever. You never can learn from them again.

"So, what I'm just saying is that I understand. It was the intention, and it got a life of its own. It went on, and there were mistakes made. The implementation was not in accordance with what this House and the Senate passd. But do we 'throw the baby out with the bath water?' To me, that is no more rash than the rash implementation of the bill. So you're kind of like doing the same thing, and then you're saying, oh, somehow it made it through two houses, and it's a wrong bill.

"So, with all due respect, and I do respect very much the opponents of what's going on, and I empathize deeply. I know it has to be fixed. I cannot, in good conscience, vote in support."

Representative B. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"In support of HB 520 HD1, which aims to modify Act 228 (2008) that was originally aimed at strengthening aspects of the State's Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) by requiring structures over fifty years old to be documented through archive quality photographs; the intent of this Act was consistent with best practices for historic preservation – and should be implemented in the future with the proper coordination with City and State officials.

"If our intention is to strengthen the State's current historic preservation practices then we should have a holistic approach and work to strengthen the State Historic Preservation Office both statutorily and financially.

"The introducers of this measure correctly identify the inability of City and State departments to effectively carry out the intent of Act 228. If we want real change as to how historic preservation protocol is carried out, then we need to adequately fund and staff the State Historic Preservation Office. This office is consistently underfunded, understaffed, and the support services to effectively carry out this office's mission are lacking (storage facilities, museum support, etc.).

"In the future, I hope that improving our State's Historic Preservation Office, and its mission, will include: adequate funding and staffing of the SHPO; improved research and conservation capabilities; appropriate recruiting of the SHPO director - requiring that the individual has some background in historic preservation; adoption and implementation of the International Existing Buildings Code (IEBC); convening a task force to identify ways to improve the Department's overall mission; and expanding the technological capabilities of the SHPO."

"I just want to stand with support with reservations for this particular measure, Stand. Com. Rep. 671. Originally, this bill increased the minimum value of stolen property of services constituting theft in the second degree, from $300 to $1000. But now in the recent amendment, it leaves it blank, and so it's a little easier for me to vote with reservations. I think my concern is that in 2005, the Penal Code Review Committee fully considered to increase this. However, they rejected it, saying it was unnecessary.

"And, my second concern is that I think we should stop veering, as a Body, to be more lenient to criminals, and instead, have them serve their time, or pay the price for their criminal actions."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

According to the Humane Society of the United States, in a national ranking of dog fighting laws in the states and the District of Columbia, Hawaii ranked 50th in part, because it is one of two states with no penalties for paying admission or wagering on an organized dogfight or for breeding, selling or possessing dogs with the intent to fight them in a dogfight.

"The Michael Vick case sadly exposed the truth that no community is immune from dogfighting. Comprehensive laws, such as the contents contained in this measure, will properly equip Hawaii's law enforcement sector to successfully charge and convict those involved in dogfighting in Hawaii.

"Dogfighting is also associated with other crimes such as illegal gambling, drug distribution, and gang violence.

"Bait animals are also used, such as smaller dogs, cats, or even rabbits, to determine a dog's propensity to fight. These "bait animals" are also used in ring practice to sharpen the dogs killing skills for their matches.

"Dogs used in the actual dogfight are subject to extreme injuries and often die because of blood loss, dehydration, exhaustion, or infection hours or days after the fight."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A 'no' vote, please, for me on this, and just a few comments. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, there is a process underway right now, where there is a comprehensive review of the Environmental Impact Statement procedures in the statutes. Some of us have been contacted for personal interviews by the group that's doing the comprehensive review.

"There is a process in place whereby the Department of Transportation or other entities can request an exemption. They have a list, in fact, of exemptions and should be able to refer to those to exempt certain things that will not have an environmental impact, or a cumulative impact. I don't think it's a good idea to step in the middle of this process and do a piecemeal fix. I don't think it's necessary at this point. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support of the measure, and just some additional information regarding this bill. This bill really wouldn't be necessary if certain agencies were doing their job. But unfortunately, the Department of Transportation is not using its exemption list, and they're requiring projects to go through the Chapter 343 process unnecessarily. As a result, there's a backlog of over 400 construction projects, and at some point the Legislature has to step in, because this kind of situation, which is really unnecessary if the laws were interpreted properly, and the exemption list, which actually exists right now, was used as it should be.

"So, in order to clear up this backlog, unfortunately, the Legislature needs to step in. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 640, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"This GMO-industry supported bill raises serious questions about regulation in the State of Hawaii that need to be addressed. However, our legislative response should not be a preemptive law that would eliminate nearly all county and State authority to regulate GMO.

"Currently, anyone can buy, grow, sell, or research GMO in Hawaii with very limited exception. In addition, GMO need not be labeled anywhere in the process. As a result, we actually have a lack of oversight, particularly as research has shown GMO can cross over and infiltrate crops on farms that are trying not to grow GMO and is associated with significant, but as yet unknown, human health risks. Also, many developed countries prohibit GMOs, which means we may jeopardize our ability to export crops in the future. My biggest concern is this bill, if law, would handcuff our State and county agencies and put our farmers and consumers at serious risk. Before moving forward with a GMO bill that would prohibit our State and county agencies from taking any regulatory action, we must make sure we have a system in place to protect our local economy and the health and safety of our people."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This is a very good bill. Thank you very much for your nodding in compliance. I believe that bio-technology will play an increasing and vital role for our future. We therefore need science. We depend upon science, but also we respect culture. And we need legal protection for genetic engineering for plant organisms, and their use is therefore necessary.

"This bill tries to address both sides. Science and technology, and also respecting culture and heritage. If carried out, and I believe in a responsible manner in compliance with federal requirements, genetic engineering will be conducted safely, without endangering public safety, and also disrupting our heritage and culture in Hawaii. Thank you, very much."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support, and may I ask that the words from the speaker from the Big Island be inserted as if they were my own? And I'd like to thank him for all the hard work he has done over the past year and a half on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Tsuji be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with a brief comment. As we talk about a global economy, it's a genetically modified economy. For those of us who worked a lot in overseas development, literally 80 percent of the cornmeal and the corn-fed people of the world have genetically modified corn. There's no turning back, and I know there's precautions about it. Taro is exempted in this one. Wheat has, maybe, 10 or 20 percent already. With genetically modified rice, it's maybe a little bit less. But in order to feed the world, this has been a blessing, and not the curse that I think some people may be possibly mistaking it as being.

"It's science, it's a little more sophisticated than we can truly understand. But, it's something that's here, and it's something that I think we have to protect as we proceed. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I want to speak in support of the bill. And I would like the remarks from the Chairman of Agriculture to be entered as my own. I just want to add that this is one of the best drafted bills that I've seen in a very long time. The language is very substantive, and it provides a balance for agriculture. Thank you, very much."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I represent the Hawaii Crop Improvement Association, but nothing related to this bill. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a vote with reservations, and a few remarks. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I would ask Members to look at page 5 of this bill. The thing that is causing me trouble is found on lines 13 to 15. The bill states that in the establishment of boundaries for rural districts, the 'Land Use Commission shall include,' and then it goes on to this provision that I find to be troubling, 'low density, residential lots, and residential subdivisions on agricultural lands existing before January 1st, 2009.' This could go out and catch some of those developments, including the one on the Big Island that was such a controversy a couple of years ago. I think it deserves further analysis, and I think the bill could go forward without that provision. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1048, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of Stand. Com. Report No. 698, House Bill No. 866, House Draft 1. Mr. Speaker, first of all, I want to thank the Chairs of the Transportation and Judiciary Committees for hearing and passing out this measure, because I truly believe that this bill will, in fact, provide traffic relief for the residents of West Oahu and Central Oahu.

"Mr. Speaker, may I request permission to submit written comments into the Journal for my further comments? Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 698, House Bill 866, House Draft 1, Relating to High Occupancy Vehicle Lanes. This bill would allow all motor vehicles, regardless of number of persons on board, to use high occupancy vehicle lanes or zipper lanes when one or more lanes of traffic have been shut down by law enforcement officers or emergency services personnel. It would also require the Department of Transportation to develop protocols for the use of HOV or zipper lanes.

"As commuters from the Leeward side know, many long hours that could be better spent at work or with family are spent commuting. Adding to the commute is the issue of accidents or other incidents on the freeway. For every minute that an incident (i.e. stall, blown out tire, car accident) is allowed to stay on the freeway, that incident causes 10 minutes of backlog in traffic. This adds to additional time wasted in traffic. Currently, the HOV/zipper lanes are overly restrictive and underutilized. As such, there must be more flexible use of the HOV and zipper lanes, particularly when incidents cause a lane to be closed. We must make full use of all lanes, mitigate traffic and reduce time on the road. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. At first when I saw this bill, I had to admit, I thought it was another toll road special, but it obviously isn't. What's great about this bill is that it keeps traffic moving, and anything that keeps traffic moving is music to my ears. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 866, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH OCCUPANCY VEHICLE LANES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak to express my continued reservations with HB 1165.

"The Department of Transportation in the bill is asking for authority to create rules for the various commercial harbors, ostensibly based on the need to address safety concerns. I certainly understand the need for safety rules; however, the Maui community's long-established shared use of certain commercial harbors for recreational and cultural purposes should be recognized and preserved. The Department of Transportation's recent strained relations and record of indifference to local residents using Kahului Harbor for canoe racing and practices, and for fishing and surfing, raises some concern that perhaps the rules proposed ostensibly for safety are primarily aimed at limiting or even displacing longtime community use of our harbor and other nearshore waters for commercial interests. I certainly hope this is not the case and that this is not primarily another example of commercial and business interests trumping local community concerns.

"I believe appropriate safety rules can be crafted through creativity and improved strategic planning in the state's master plan, including the use of better technology for business and recreational activities that will foster rather than inhibit joint use of the available space. Existing residents who gather for traditional and cultural practices should be taken into consideration when planning for the future so that they may continue to carry out their customs. Access and use of our nearshore waters are an important aspect of the Public Trust. As this bill moves forward, I hope there will be practical, open and frank dialogue between traditional and cultural practitioners, government agencies and the business community about the goals of this bill.

"Please record my vote with reservations."

H.B. No. 1273, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1273, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. I rise after quoting the Majority Leader who says, 'Read the bill, and then speak to the bill.' And I want you to know that I've read, I've re-read, then re-read the bill, and I've even talked to the Chair. Well, we exchanged an email about this. Does this have condominiums in it? And, as I indicated on Second Reading, I have a substantial concern in my district in that regard.

"Mr. Speaker, what I'd like to do is to walk through the bill, particularly where there seems to be a convolution, or a contradiction.

"Page 1 is very clear. It's a great bill. It has great intention. But on the purpose, it states that it is with single family dwellings in mind, except when you go down to the bottom of page 2, line 17. Every private entity is then mentioned, where it cannot prohibit or restrict clotheslines. And if you go to page 3, where it says what is a private entity, private entities include condominium associations.

"So Mr. Speaker, the intention is to exempt them out. Let us be clear, let us tweak it and tighten it, but the way it reads now, it's too 'loosey goosey' to really say that these guys in my district are not going to be brought in by this. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1273, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Ward voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 365, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 365, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have ruling on a potential conflict? At my law firm, I represent contractors. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 365, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTRACTORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

At 1:29 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1273, HD 1

1503, HD1	Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members of the House, prior to going on to the Order of the Day, the Chair would like to request your indulgence since most of these measures are on Second Reading. If you're going to state your comments, for or against, on Second Reading, they should be incorporated in your remarks for Third Reading. I would like to adjourn session today by 1:00 this afternoon so our Neighbor Island Members can catch their flights home. If you're going to speak on Second Reading, we'll incorporate that as part of Third Reading. If you don't speak on Second Reading, then you can speak on Third Reading.

"Let's move on Members of the House, to the Order of the Day, Unfinished Business. Members, please note that House Bill No. 1503, House Draft 1, has been re-referred solely to the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs per Committee Referral Sheet No. 25 that has been placed on your desk today. The Committee on Judiciary waived its referral to this measure, and therefore it is appropriate for the House to consider action for passage on Third Reading."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Representative B. Oshiro moved to suspend the rules of the House to reconsider action previously taken on H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, the Chair addressed Representative McKelvey, stating:

"Representative McKelvey, what is the Motion before this House?"

Representative McKelvey responded, stating:

"The Motion before this House, Mr. Speaker, is to reconsider the recommendations made in the Standing Committee Report to move this on to the Judiciary Committee, and to instead bring this measure before the Body for Third Reading."

The Chair then stated:

"You're absolutely correct. Thank you, very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the rules were suspended to reconsider action previously taken on H.B. No. 1503, HD 1. (Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai were excused.)

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the House reconsider its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 604, recommending referral to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans and carried. SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain House bills for Third Reading by consent calendar. (Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.B. No. 1503, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This measure basically is looking at setting up a new limited liability company for what they call, public purpose corporations. A public purpose corporation is one where the bottom line isn't maximizing profits to the shareholders. It's about supporting a higher public good. Legislation like this is being considered in other bodies across the United States. One company, a major one, has pulled out of California because of the failure of that Legislature to look at this kind of issue.

"I believe that this is a good opportunity. The bill is a work in progress. There are a lot of issues with it. I will admit it's the 'bufo toad' to bills right now. But it will go to the Senate, and will hopefully come back to us so we can continue to work on this. But, we will be one of the first States in the country to have such a thing. And given the interest of major corporations becoming public purpose corporations, I think that it's wise that the Legislature continue to look at this issue. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with some reservations on this bill. It's not quite as good as it's been made out to be. It's in effect, a hybrid and an aberration, if you will, from the standard corporate laws, the standard nonprofits, which are public purpose corporations, which do have social purposes.

"This one is convoluting, I'm afraid, into more big government, and probably some kind of a 'voodoo economics' to make things on one particular group of the political spectrum look much better and more invasive. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of HB 1503 which provides Hawaii limited liability companies the ability to declare themselves as public purpose companies.

"This law does plow new ground and we should not be afraid of taking the lead on a new area.

"The purpose of the legislation is to provide any limited liability company that opts for a public purpose designation to exercise the right to exclude conferred by any patent in which the company has an interest for three public purposes: creating and retaining jobs, strengthening labor rights and enhancing environmental protection. This law creates a category akin to non-profit corporations and other entities that place the public interest ahead of making a profit, and in fact, for non-monetary objectives that support community building."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just in strong support. This is a relatively new concept, but I think it's one well worth exploring and investigating. We do need corporations whose bottom line is not just the bottom line, but is the community in which they serve. So, I applaud the Chair for actually putting forward a very progressive and forward thinking bill. My only hope is that this does get more discussion, and we do get a good bill out of this, because this is a good thing to have; corporations that are looking out for the community."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in support of HB 1503 HD1, Relating to Limited Liability Companies.

"Mr. Speaker the purpose of this measure is to require any limited liability company that opts for a public purpose designation under this measure to exercise the right to exclude conferred by any patent in which the company has an interest for three public purposes: creating and retaining jobs, strengthening labor rights, and enhancing environmental protection. In addition to directly serving the public interest, creating a statutory requirement that a public purpose designated company use its patents to pursue specific non-monetary objectives may also increase the likelihood that the company will obtain a permanent injunction in court should its patent(s) be infringed upon [see eBay v Mercexchange 547 U.S. 388 (2006)], further increasing the company's ability to serve the public interest.

"Furthermore, the immediate demand for a public purpose designated LLC is twofold:

1) Public confidence in traditionally structured corporations and other corporate entities, which are designed to pursue short-term profits at the expense of all other considerations, is at an all-time low. Hawaii would be the first state in the nation to offer a public purpose LLC designation; and

2) Given the large number of U.S. corporate giants that are in either in bankruptcy or on the verge of filing, thousands of patents essential to rebuilding our economy and strengthening our nation's competitiveness, including a significant percentage of green technology patents, will be coming under some measure of public control. Hawaii's public purpose LLC structure will provide the ideal vehicle to redeploy the technologies covered by these patents back into the private sector in order to reenergize the innovative core of our national economy.

"For the reasons stated above, I support the measure."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with a few comments. Members, I'd just like to express my support for this. In the past, I've had some concerns with this type of legislation, but I think it is worthy of continued discussion.

"My concern is, and I hope what will be discussed as this moves forward, is that what is being created through this bill is a public purpose company that links the ability of this new type of corporate entity, to the noteworthy goals of job creation, strengthening labor rights and enhancing environmental protections.

"I think this is something innovative, and I applaud the introducer for introducing this bill, but I do hope that it will receive much more considerable attention, particularly in the areas of how this type of corporation may be subject to our tax laws, and other parts of State government. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, to be fair, if we want to strengthen labor rights nationally and internationally, why don't we say we want to strengthen stockholders' rights, nationally and internationally. That's where the skew is, and that's where I think we have to see through that it's not a balanced bill, unless it's adjusted according to what the previous speaker said is on one side, can be on both sides of the issue. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

At 12:36 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

"Yes, in support with reservations regarding Stand. Com. Rep. 740, at the bottom of page 10. I'm just concerned because this removes the requirement that fees cannot exceed 50 percent of the statutorial assessed fee for the non-taxed revenue.

"But, what's more concerning is that it removes the requirement that a fee can be changed within a department, and no longer be subject to the approval of the Governor. I think we need those checks and balances. If the Legislature's not going to talk about just the fees, we also need the Governor to be the check on the fees that we're going to raise on the people."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, support with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 741. What this bill does is, it suspends the portions of the Conveyance Tax transmitted to the Land Conservation Fund. It also reduces the portions of the Conveyance Tax transmitted to the Rental Housing Trust Fund, as well as reduces portions of the Conveyance Tax to the Natural Area Reserve Fund.

"We went through, several Legislatures ago, to create this type of appropriation to these different areas because we believe the environment was something we should take more seriously, as well as taking seriously, providing affordable housing to the people of Hawaii. So, I understand we're trying to balance the budget, but I think this is an area that we should try to avoid as much as possible."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"In these tough economic times, the Legislature must turn over every rock in State government and look for ways to balance our budget. And as a member of the Finance Committee, I have supported many bills that I dislike because I know that we need to put all potential options on the table. I believe this bill, however, is 'penny wise and pound foolish,' as it diverts dwindling funds (the Conveyance Tax will already fall between 50-60 percent as a result of the economic downturn) and small amounts of money into the general fund at the expense of critical programs that protect our economy, our health, and our safety.

"Special funds are not the best way for government to support programs. However, without this funding, resources for affordable rental housing, private-public partnerships that protect our watersheds (i.e., our drinking water), and youth programs will disappear. In addition, programs that prevent invasive species from entering the State or becoming established and efforts to protect land for agricultural, conservation and cultural use will end at a critical time. In tough times, we need to be extra vigilant to make sure we don't jeopardize our future options, particularly when we can make a big difference at cut rate prices. Testimony against this bill also identified a significant number of critical jobs that will be eliminated if this bill becomes law."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1744 - Relating to Transient Accommodation Tax. I am concerned this bill might hurt the counties, and in turn they might have to raise property taxes to make up for lost revenue. As the Hawaii Council of Mayors states in their testimony, "The counties provide the critical security, transportation, water and sewer infrastructure." It is important to continue sharing revenue with the counties so they are able to provide the necessary services. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, a 'no' vote with a small comment. Because I love my Neighbor Island guys, but I don't serve at your pleasure. I serve at the pleasure of my district. But this bill is for you guys, because it's going to take $100 million from your islands. This is the TAT Tax, which we are pulling out of counties, and putting in the State coffers.

"This is bad policy. I know we got to have everything on the table, but this goes to the edge and off, and too far into the deep, Mr. Speaker. So, I'm voting 'no.' Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Just thought I'd help the Finance Chair on one of these. You spend 15, 16, to 17 hours together, you realize how tough the budget's going to be for us this year. And really, the one good thing that this bill does, is take away the super priority given to the counties, and allows the State to prioritize allocation amongst the programs that serve the people of Hawaii through the State.

"So, it's a good discussion that will continue. And in the end, we'll decide whether this is the way to balance the budget."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1744, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Belatti, Bertram, Carroll, Ching, Hanohano, Luke, McKelvey and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1748, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1748 - Relating to Insurance Premium Taxes. I am concerned this bill might hurt consumers. Hawaii already has one of the highest life insurances premium tax rates in the nation and I believe we shouldn't be increasing taxes when the economy is not growing. I believe this bill might force the insurance companies to raise new policy rates, which could lead to more uninsured, or there is a chance the companies could go out of business.

"The National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors states in their testimony that "Increasing the GTE rate to 4.265% will only increase the cost of the life insurance contract on new life insurance policies to the consumer because it is the consumer who will bear that increase in the tax rate because the insurance companies will include the tax into the set premium charge." Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill simply asks for two measures. First, the bill asks that late fees cannot exceed more than 20% of the monthly maintenance fee. There are associations in Hawaii that currently charge a fine of as much as fifty percent of association fees if the condominium owner is more than ten days late. With these difficult economic times, this added fee can place untenable hardship on the owner.

"The second provision of this bill is to require associations to give owners ten days notice of an action or possible action to turn matters over to an attorney. This should be done by both postal and electronic mail – in the event that the owner is out of town.

"Mr. Speaker, the compelling necessity for this type of legislation is that, in many cases, the condominium associations, contrary to standard fair credit practices, are conglomerating late occurrences instead of treating each late occurrence separately. They are counting the 10 day notification period of a previous late occurrence as credit towards a subsequent late occurrence. This decreases the waiting and notification requirements before they are allowed to refer the case to an attorney. Condominium associations need to be regulated in the same manner as any other debt collector.

"Attorney's fees are very costly and can contribute to a property going into foreclosure.

"These are simple measures to place in the statute, however they will increase fairness to condominium owners."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 770, HB 355, HD1.

"Currently, each condominium association has the autonomy to assess fines, fees, and collection mechanisms for those within its membership that are in arrears. This bill does not erode that autonomy on the collection process, but rather defines parameters to protect condominium owners from egregious financial penalties for merely being late in their maintenance payments.

"In these economic times, association boards have the means to assess attorney fees and fines without any cap or financial ceiling for a member who may be late in paying their maintenance fee by one day.

"In Ewa Beach for example, a condominium association charges $115 a month for maintenance fees and if the member is late by one day- is assessed a fine of greater than 50% of that fee- that amount being $60 and attorney's fees of $200 applied.

"Albeit associations have the authority to set their own fining policies, we need to ensure homeowners have the ability to stay current on their financial obligations and offer remedy without ramifications that penalize them into homelessness.

"A 20% cap on the amount of the late fee/fine is necessary to ensure owners in financial difficulties have the capability to repay their debts. The bill also addresses the added burden of attorney fees being assessed after one- day in arrears. A ten- day holding off period or stay on attorney's fees will assist homeowners pay off their debt and remain in their homes.

"Mr. Speaker, I strongly urge my colleagues to support HB355 HD1 to help define and guide associations into preserving a sound collection process without harming those trying to repay their debts."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 355, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONDOMINIUMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 875. The purpose of this bill is to enhance options for resolving condominium disputes by extending the Condominium Dispute Resolution Pilot Program for another two years.

"The pilot program, set forth in sections 514A-121.5 and 514B-161, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and set to expire on June 30, 2009, was established to facilitate quick and economical resolutions of disputes between condominium owners and management.

"If HB875 were to not advance, owners would still be required to pay a $2 per year tax into the Condominium Education Trust Fund without being in receipt of the very services the tax was supposed to sustain.

"Mr. Speaker, I cannot as an elected official condone the collection of a tax assessed upon one segment of the population that happens to own a condominium unit and offer them nothing of value in return for that tax. Our founding fathers coined such maneuver, "taxation without representation." Mr. Speaker, I strongly urge my colleagues to support HB875."

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of Standing Committee Report No. 660, House Bill 1554, Relating to the Hawai`i Community Development Authority. This measure allows the Chairperson of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL) and the Director of the City and County Department of Planning and Permitting (DPP) to designate a representative to serve on the Hawai`i Community Development Authority, which will make it easier to obtain quorum and allow important decisions to be made without delay, without depriving the representation of DHHL and DPP. This is a small technical amendment, but without which crucial development decisions would be delayed unnecessarily. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, and I would be remiss if I didn't also lend my support, as someone who used to teach at an elementary school. Truly, when the children do see that something's being done on behalf of them now, they have an interest and a stake in the Legislature. So, you are doing something very powerful. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 135, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE INSECT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Finnegan and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of HB 319 HD1. This bill would require employees to post and keep posted employee entitlements to family leave, as well as possible adverse impacts of taking family leave.

"Mr. Speaker there is a considerably large discrepancy between the types of family leave that employees offer, and what the employees know are offered to them. For example, according to surveys done in 2007 by the Executive Office on Aging and the Joint Legislative Committee on Family Caregiving, 80% of employers surveyed offer paid bereavement leave, while only 4.7% of the employees surveyed knew of this benefit. Over 66% of the employers also offer leave without pay, but only 5% of the employees knew about it. By making this information available to employees, this bill would help family caregivers and others to plan ahead for family emergencies and to avoid taking actions which might affect their retirement benefits.

"Mr. Speaker, doing more to inform workers about their employment rights is always a good thing, and Hawaii's employees need easy access to this information. We are just two years away from the first of the 'baby boomers' to reach 65, and the need will only continue to escalate as our community ages.

"I urge my fellow colleagues to support HB319, HD1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 319, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Finnegan voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 556 House Draft 2 Relating to Veteran Burial Grants. Mr. Speaker, On July 26, 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt issued Military Order No. 81, placing the Philippine Commonwealth Armed Forces and the Special Philippine Scouts under the United States Armed Forces command to join the military assault against the Japanese forces in defense of America's democracy thereby making them eligible for equal benefits.

"Throughout 1941-1946, tens of thousands of Filipino soldiers were held as prisoners, risking their lives and the lives of their families while maintaining underground battles against the invading Japanese forces and boldly assisting the United States Armed Forces in its campaign to liberate the Philippines.

"Filipino wartime veterans, many of whom were permanently disabled and honorably discharged from the military after serving more than ninety days on active duty military service during World War II became eligible for federal veterans' benefits and services.

"Mr. Speaker, former President Bill Clinton on October 17, 1996, former President George W. Bush on July 26, 2001, and the United States Congress by House Resolution Number 622 on September 13, 2006, recognized and proclaimed the vital role that the Filipino wartime soldiers played in assisting the United States Armed Forces to defeat the invading Japanese forces in defense of freedom.

"Despite these formal acknowledgements of Filipino and Filipino American veterans' contributions to the cause of the United States during World War II, have not received veterans' benefits and services from the federal government, a long standing moral injustice that needs to be corrected. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 556, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERAN BURIAL GRANTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.B. 1429 HD2, Making an Appropriation for the About Face Program.

"H.B 1429 recognizes the significant role the Hawaii National Guard plays in the training and development of at-risk youth to become future contributing members of society by first keeping them in school and second, helping them to successfully graduate.

"The Hawaii National Guard's About Face Programs are now entering its sixth year of operation having served 2,000 plus youth annually statewide. Its mission is to provide positive youth development programs during after school and non-school hours that are designed to help at-risk and not at-risk youth, ages 10 - 19, statewide, focus on: alternative activities that steer them away from immersion into juvenile crime, family strengthening, prevention and reduction of teen pregnancies, and drug awareness issues that will contribute to the prevention and reduction of teen drug use and abuse.

"The Department of Defense contracts with six (6) social service agencies statewide to carry out the service delivery of its About Face programs.

"The youth that we serve come from diverse ethnic, socio-economic status, and psycho-social backgrounds. Many are from low-income families with histories of involvement with the juvenile justice or child welfare services system.

"Youth attend a class after school or during the summer break at 39 sites located on all islands except Niihau. Many classes take place in Hawaii Army National Guard Armories throughout the State. Some students completing their programs enroll in yet another and sequential curriculum chosen from the various age appropriate About Face programs. Other students apply their learning to their school work with the goal of better grades, promotion to the next grade level and eventual graduation from high school. Still others apply their recently acquired life and work readiness skills to find part-time jobs to help supplement their family's income.

"This bill will provide much needed positive role models to youth who are faced with a daily barrage of mixed messages from the media that on one hand, promotes "Just say no to drugs!" and on the other hand, the Hollywood industry that glamorizes drugs, criminal pursuits of fast money and popularizes sex to the level that confuses and pollutes the impressionable minds and developing attitudes of youth. Through National Guardsmen and women, dedicated curriculum instructors and facilitators, the youth receive a different take on life and their future. They learn through decision-making and critical thinking skills development that there is always a choice. That you don't have to join the neighborhood gang. That you don't have to have sex at 11 years old. That you don't have to end up in Juvenile Detention or jail. These role models, mentors and teachers must somehow tell their students, especially the very socially and economically oppressed ones, that there is hope, there is resolution, there is a way out.

"True, there are those youth who although enveloped in urban blight, profound poverty and surrounded by ignorance and want, somehow manage to succeed in life through their own stubborn resiliency and sheer determination. However, there are not many of these self-made attorneys, physicians and professionals and we find fewer of them every day. We are long past the days of Oliver Twist where a child remains inherently good, kind, and decent regardless of his bleak environment and situation. Now, we have TV, the Internet and the movie industry constantly assaulting our youth with propaganda to form a new mindset. Thus, the after school About Face programs are very much needed in today's latchkey society.

"In summary, the Department of Defense remains committed to the youth of Hawaii in delivering its About Face programs statewide and in remote places such as Waimea, Waianae, Molokai, Lanai, Hana, Pahala, Naalehu, Keaiakekua and Honokaa that are in dire need of such programs to keep teens and adolescents gainfully occupied and out of trouble.

"On behalf of the Department of Defense and for the sake of the children, I urge you to support this bill, now about to crossover to the Senate, as my colleagues in the House have. Thank you, very much."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"In support. House Bill 1429 HD2 makes an appropriation for the National Guard's About Face Program. This legislation is aimed at helping the Hawaii National Guard serve at-risk youth. The National Guard uses this program to promote a healthy lifestyle and fulfill its mission of community service by helping disadvantaged youth. The About Face Program works to develop valuable life skills, such as filling out job applications, balancing a checkbook, problem-solving, critical thinking, budgeting and working with computers. The About Face Program also provides children and teenagers with valuable after-school activities, while also allowing our National Guard members to serve their communities.

"The About Face Program is truly valuable, and even in this current time of economic difficulty, the Legislature cannot afford to allow such a worthwhile program to falter. I support this bill."

They looked and smelled like candy.

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. State identification is vital for seniors, children, and other individuals who do not possess a driver's license or other picture identification. Currently, obtaining a state identification card (certificate of identification) is a lengthy process because processing and administration is conducted at a single location with limited hours of operation. This leads to long lines and some individuals are turned away due to the daily demand. There have been recent attempts to bring state identification personnel into the community, but only for specific dates and times.

"Community members and organizations such as the Waipahu Neighborhood Board recognize that the City & County of Honolulu's Satellite City Halls are convenient locations for State identification processing. Satellite City Halls provide services with extended hours, weekend availability, and convenient locations.

"The authority to process and issue State identification cards is vested in the Attorney General. The purpose of this bill is to allow the Attorney General to contract with one or more counties to process and issue State Identification cards at Satellite City Halls or other locations. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"In support. The purpose of this bill is to reduce the cost of energy production from diesel fuel, by reducing the Hawaii license tax from two cents to one cent per gallon, and to undo the inadvertent application of other fuel tax increases set upon diesel sold for the purposes of power generation.

""Naphtha" is a new cleaner-burning fuel source and is cheaper than diesel. It is new to the State and is therefore not defined in Hawaii Fuel Tax Laws. Act 103 (2007) clarifies that naphtha fuel, used in power-generating facilities, is subject to the fuel tax rate of one cent per gallon, not the State tax rate of 16 cents per gallon, and the county transportation tax rate of 13 cents per gallon. KIUC annually uses 15 million gallons of naphtha fuel. At the current 16 cents per gallon State transportation tax rate, this would result in a $2.4 million annual tax liability, while the current 13 cents per gallon County of Kauai fuel tax rate, would result in a $2 million annual tax liability.

"Due to the large dollar impact to KIUC members, if the sunset provision is not repealed, KIUC may be forced to burn diesel in their naphtha generator. This will result in a less efficient plant with higher emissions and operating costs. This will also result in no net tax revenue gain for the State of Hawaii, and in our current economic climate, this is an opportunity to generate revenue that we cannot pass up.

"In an effort to lead the way in renewable energy generation, KIUC's Strategic Plan calls for them to be at 50% renewable energy generation by 2023. This is more aggressive than the State's proposed 40% by 2030. KIUC's next unit of generation will be able to burn multiple fuels, including renewable biofuels. KIUC member/shareholders will bear the investments in renewable energy, and economics and reliability should be properly evaluated.

"In summary, applying road taxes to fuel that will never be used for transportation-related causes is unfair to those consumers purchasing that fuel, and I support this bill and its intent to correct such a mistake. This legislation will help reduce the burden placed upon local residents and businesses by the ever-increasing costs of electricity, and will make sure that the revenue from taxes levied on power generating fuel will not be mistakenly used for other purposes."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 370, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 371, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"In support. The purpose of House Bill 371 is to make permanent the one cent per gallon tax set on naphtha fuel for power generating facilities. Naphtha fuel is a cleaner-burning, more environmentally friendly source of power than diesel and other liquid fuels, and we should do everything we can to promote its use in Hawaii.

"Act 209 (2007) is accountable for the one-cent addition to the license tax, but it was not intended to be applied to diesel oil sold or used for power generation purposes. Act 209 was supposed to help promote the use of transportation fuels containing alcohol through an exemption of the excise tax on retail sale of fuels containing at least 10% alcohol.

"This bill will ensure that naphtha sold for the purpose of power generation will remain exempt from fuel tax increases that were intended to support our highway infrastructure. This, in itself, is a worthy cause, but not one that should be laid at the feet of our power producers. On average, KIUC burns 15 million gallons of diesel annually which amounts to an additional $150,000 tax liability. This bill will help to ensure that our most modern power generation plants are able to continue to use cleaner burning, more environmentally friendly naphtha fuel whenever possible."

"There is a need to support the certification of farmers throughout the State to meet standards for a safer food supply. This would be a great partnership which would increase our local market supply of fresh and safe cuisine for our hotels and restaurants.

"I believe it is imperative that we promote locally grown produce while making sure that food safety will be a priority to all concerned. This bill will accomplish these goals.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 1568, House Draft 1. Mr. Speaker, the American Red Cross is a volunteer-led humanitarian organization whose mission is to prevent and alleviate human suffering by helping people prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies, and providing disaster relief to the people of Hawaii. Although established by Congressional Charter in 1905, the American Red Cross is NOT a government agency and must rely on the generosity of Hawaii's people to provide critical services to the community. All disaster training, services, and financial assistance to victims is free. I strongly urge this body to support House Bill. No. 1568 HD1 in assisting the American Red Cross, Hawaii State Chapter, with needed capital improvement projects.

"The Hawaii Red Cross renders aid to victims of about 100 disasters in Hawaii per year with food, clothing, shelter, rental assistance, and mental health counseling for everything from everyday house fires to major disasters like hurricanes, earthquakes, and floods. In addition, they teach about 35,000 people per year how to prepare their families, schools, and businesses for a disaster.

"The majority of disaster victims are the poorest of the poor. Up to 82% of them live in low to moderate income areas, and at least 34% live below poverty level. The majority make less than $25,000 per year. Over half do not own their homes and have no property insurance, so they are truly destitute after a fire destroys everything they own or claims the life of a loved one. Hardening of the Red Cross headquarters building to protect renovated assets and ensure continuity of operations during times of disasters will require funding for hurricane screens and film for doors and windows, generators to continue operations at headquarter and neighbor island offices, retaining wall and lanai to prevent flooding and mud in room where disaster volunteers assemble. Additional building renovation needed to create disaster storage space and solar panels for clean reliable energy.

"The Hawaii Red Cross 30 year old headquarters building has never undergone any kind of upgrade or renovation, is badly in need of repair and maintenance, is not ADA compliant and has no disaster operation center. This headquarters building coordinates statewide operation of 8 other Red Cross offices on Neighbor Isles and military bases. Major renovation has been completed, but there is not enough funding to protect this renovated building. It is still vulnerable to hurricanes and major floods, and there is no generator to operate the building after a disaster strikes. Improvements are needed to ensure the continuance of statewide disaster relief and safety services to the people of Hawaii for everyday and major disasters. This funding will make a difference between being prepared or not.

"In making this appropriation, you will ensure the Hawaii Red Cross will be there to respond after disaster strikes throughout the islands. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of Standing Committee Report No. 892, House Bill 1045 House Draft 1, Relating to the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation (HHFDC). This bill would clarify the authority of HHFDC to modify and amend development agreements for housing projects between HHFDC's predecessor, the Housing Finance and Development Corporation, and eligible developers, as well as authorize HHFDC to impose fees to recoup program administrative expenses for loans, grants, services, and real estate documents.

"This bill makes housekeeping amendments to Chapter 201H, Hawaii Revised Statutes. This would help HHFDC cover administrative costs, and thereby preserve more of its fiscal assets for use in developing and preserving affordable housing statewide. For this reason, I stand in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"In support. House Bill 243 will help to ensure that Hawaii's farmers have access to reliable sources of irrigation water. By allocating funds for specific irrigation systems across the islands, as well as for a general agricultural water development plan, this bill takes into account the need for a comprehensive, state-wide plan of action that focuses on area- and county-specific needs. We will need both in order to ensure the survival of our State's agricultural industry, and I believe that this bill could be a useful tool to further that cause."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 243, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IRRIGATION SYSTEMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support of HB 1451, HD 2 which will continue to provide financial support for Hawaii high tech industry via credit while also mitigating revenue losses to the State by placing a limit of $50,000,000 on the aggregate of credits claimed in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 2009 by all taxpayers for investments in Qualified High Tech Business (QHTB).

"I understand the concerns of opponents of credits, yet I think that in the long-run, providing local high-tech entrepreneurs a reason to locate initially in the islands is a good thing. This bill recognizes the benefit of attracting high-tech businesses to Hawaii with tax credit incentives so that we can provide high tech jobs to our people, yet rein in any potential abuses that the tax credit provides to those QHTBs in Hawaii. The bill fine tunes the treatment of high-tech credits under Chapter 235 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes so that only those QHTBs who are truly committed to providing additional jobs to our people will get tax credit to initially help the QHTB in starting up in Hawaii. The bill also provides sources of revenue for the State through fees generated by certain comfort letters and certifications issued by Department of Tax.

"In the future, we do need to work on other quality of life, education and workforce improvement issues that impact whether high tech business will stay in Hawaii even after these credits are gone.

"Overall, this is a good compromise for high tech businesses and for the State of Hawaii. I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1451, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 983, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 983 HD 1, the Majority Package Safe Routes to School Bill.

"Mr. Speaker, we all know rush hour traffic is horrendous. This is because far too many of Hawai`i's 180,000 public school students are personally chauffeured to school by parents who feel the roads are too dangerous for their children to walk or bike there, themselves. This self-fulfilling prophecy becomes true because, then, there really are too many cars on the road.

"There is a federal program, started four years ago, to fund community planning efforts and the construction of infrastructure for the creation of Safe Routes to School (SRTS). This program was intended to provide funds for programs like the walking school bus and the installation of traffic calming road treatments around Hawai`i's 257 public schools. The funds were also earmarked for community planning.

"We have HB 983 before us, Mr. Speaker, because there has been little action on the part of our responsible state agency to fully implement this program. HB 983 requires the Department of Transportation (DOT) to conduct a statewide pupil travel evaluation to learn how students get to school. This is a problem not only for the counties and the DOE, but also for the State, and we need to work together to fix it.

"HB 983 requires the Director of the DOT, in consultation with the Department of Education, the Department of Health, and Hawaii Association of Independent Schools, to use the information obtained to disperse the funds for SRTS school-based workshops and community-based planning projects. After five years and $5 million dollars appropriated, there are still over 82 percent of those funds waiting to be used.

"By passing HB 983, the funds will help reduce vehicular travel and congestion by encouraging walking and bicycling and, most importantly, empowering the community to come together to solve the traffic problem.

"HB 983 requires the DOT to work with the community organizations that have received or applied for SRTS grants to streamline the funding process. Helping these community organizations help Hawai`i's kids get on bikes and walk to school is a crucial part of the SRTS vision.

"Last, HB 983 requires the DOT to come back to the Legislature, report on efforts and progress, so we can see improvements in multi-modal, balanced transportation planning and the creation of Safe Routes to School. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB 1390, HD 2 which increases the fee schedule of compensation for medical care in worker's compensation cases to an unspecified percent of fees prescribed in the Medicare resource-based relative value scale applicable to Hawaii as prepared by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The current allowable fee which has a cap of 110% of fees prescribed in the Medicare resourced-based relative value scale drastically limits the number of medical providers who could provide medical services to injured workers. By increasing the medical fee schedule, more medical providers will be willing to take in injured workers who need medical care. If we wish to support our medical doctors, it's measures like this that will make sure they will come to Hawaii and be able to make a living in Hawaii.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1390, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this purpose of this bill is to close a loophole that allows persons to place banners and other advertising devices for others on their vehicles or trailers for compensation, as long as the vehicles or trailers are not used primarily to display advertising.

"I believe by changing the current Hawaii law, we will close the loophole that enables some companies who work around our system which was designed to reduce billboards and inappropriate advertising in our islands.

"We have the opportunity to preserve our island beauty from commercial advertising for future generations and the quality of life of our residents.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1417, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOBILE BILLBOARDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of H.B. 332 H.D. 2, which is a Women's Caucus measure relating to employment security for victims of domestic violence.

"HB 332 provides that victims of domestic violence will not be denied unemployment insurance if they are separated from their work because of abuse, if they have to move to avoid future violence against themselves or their children, or if they have to obtain treatment from being injured by their abuser.

"HB 332 also provides that a domestic violence victim's suspension or discharge from work will not be considered misconduct under the law and will not effect their eligibility for unemployment benefits. Women often fear being stalked while going to work, or fear that violence could happen at home or at work. They are at risk of losing their employment because of the chaos surrounding them. It is nearly impossible to find employment living under threats of violence.

"Fear of losing financial security is often the main reason domestic violence victims return to their abusers, so it is very important to allow victims to assert their independence with the assistance of unemployment benefits. With these financial resources, women can escape the destructive relationships they're trapped in, leave these abusive situations, achieve safety, pick up the pieces of their lives and start the healing process. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB 1766, HD 2 which addresses the woeful conditions of our small boat harbors and helps to implement the Recreational Renaissance initiative of the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR). This bill allows the State to responsibly raise revenues to repair Ala Wai and Keehi Harbors by allowing limited issuance of commercial use permits for vessels with assigned moorings in those harbors.

"The bill also authorizes the DLNR to enter into a public-private partnership to develop portions of Ala Wai Boat harbor facilities that are presently under-utilized to maximize the revenue potential from this harbor. Additional revenues will reduce overreliance by DLNR on higher mooring fees to support long overdue improvements to these two harbors.

"To allay safety concerns of the Ala Wai Harbor recreational boaters and nearby surfers who cross the passageway from the harbor to the open water from time to time, the number of commercial use permits is limited to fifteen percent (15%) of the total berths and vessels are limited to 65 feet in length.

"The bill also provides for a cost-of-living index increase to keep up with the increasing maintenance cost of the harbors.

"Altogether, this is a responsible measure that emphasizes that the main purpose of the Ala Wai and Keehi harbors remains recreational, and yet provides for essential revenues by allowing a very limited amount of commercial activity.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 813, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB 813, HD 1. This bill, which designates a language access month to publicize government services providing language assistance, is entirely fitting. More than any other state, Hawaii has been built on being welcoming to immigrants and making opportunities equally available to immigrants. As Hawaii continues to be a crossroad in the Pacific, we benefit by allowing our residents with limited English proficiency to access government services that enable them to be self-sufficient and productive members of our community. This bill promotes more awareness of the available services and educates all of us of the importance of such services in fostering a more cohesive and dynamic society.

"I strongly support the bill."

As a Neighbor Island Representative, I am in strong support of any measure that will help streamline the notification process for meetings, hearings and briefings etc., for our Neighbor Island constituents. Requiring all state meeting notices to be posted on the state calendar would eliminate duplication and centralize the postings to one easily accessible location that would adhere to Sunshine Law and support the public who wish to participate in the legislative process."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. A goal of mine is to play a small role in helping survivors of domestic violence. There are cases where an individual has threatened to harm not just his partner, but his partner's pet. Unfortunately, pets get caught in the crossfire of an abusive relationship. Therefore, House Bill 1512, House Draft 1 addresses this threat by authorizing the family court, when issuing a temporary restraining order, to award exclusive care of a pet animal or equine animal and enjoin the restrained party from having any contact with the animal. Under the Hawaii Revised Statutes section 711-1100, "Pet animal" means a dog, cat, domesticated rabbit, guinea pig, domesticated pig, or caged birds (passeriformes, piciformes, and psittaciformes only) so long as not bred for consumption and "equine animal" means an animal of or belonging to the family Equidae, including horses, ponies, mules, donkeys, asses, burros, and zebras. Thank you."

"I rise in support. This bill updates existing statutes relating to cable television and telecommunications service fraud to address an expanding array of technology services offered by communication companies that include cable television and telecommunications, Internet-based, or wireless distribution networks. It establishes the offense of communication service fraud in the first and second degrees, provides civil remedies, authorizes forfeiture, and establishes evidentiary presumption. The purpose of the measure is to discourage theft of cable television and telecommunications service. Thank you."

H.B. No. 570, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 570, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The amendments in HB 570, HD 1 address some of the challenges of climate change in a state where the coastal zone is an important area for recreation, subsistence and residential use. The bill aims to clarify, among other things, the importance of maintaining public access in a meaningful way in the coastal zone, and the protection of shorelines for present and future recreational purposes, and the proper criteria for the counties to consider in creating shoreline setbacks and the regulations for applying those setbacks.

"Given the reality of climate change, the bill authorizes tools to minimize the damage from coastal hazards including tsunamis, hurricanes, wind, storm waves, flooding, erosion, sea-level rise, subsidence, and pollution. The bill also requires the use of shoreline erosion data for setback purposes as appropriate and encourages the use of early planning, variances for innovative design, and minimum buildable areas.

"For these reasons, I am voting in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 570, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COASTAL ZONE MANAGEMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 214, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 214, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB214, HD1, Authorizing the Issuance Of General Obligation Bonds and Making an Appropriation for Wailua Emergency Bypass Road Repair and Resurfacing, and Waimea Wastewater Treatment Plant Upgrades for the County of Kauai.

"The Bill provides an appropriation of $6 million for fiscal year 2009-2010 to assist Kaua'i County with upgrades to the Waimea Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP). The project is anticipated to cost approximately $12 million, and the County will fund the difference between any appropriated State funds and the total project cost.

"The funds will be used to expand the capacity and upgrade the Waimea WWTP, which treats wastewater from the community of Waimea, Kaua'i. Users of the plant include the public schools in the Waimea area, as well as the Kaua'i Veterans' Memorial Hospital, which is part of the State's Hawai'i Health Systems Corporation.

"Benefits of the West-side project include:

1. Ability to lift present capacity restrictions, by allowing new connections, including connections for the development of affordable housing and business expansion;

2. Upgrades in effluent water quality to meet standards for irrigation reuse and improve water quality on the coastal plain between Waimea and Kekaha; and

3. Solar electric capacity in order to offset the energy requirements associated with the plant expansion.

"The Wailua Emergency Bypass road repair funds are sorely required, as there is ONLY one road to get from Waipouli to Lihue. IF a fatal accident occurs on any part of the highway, residents and visitors have no way to get to Lihue and the airport. Unfortunately, that corridor has had more than its share of fatalities in recent years, and residents and visitors have experienced delays of two or more hours.

"Mr. Speaker, the upgrading of the Waimea Wastewater Treatment Plant is very important to the growth of the West Side of Kauai and the Wailua Emergency Bypass road repair funds are important to the East side of the island. I strongly support this bill."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"In support. HB 214 is intended to appropriate funds for the County of Kaua‘i to repair the Wailua emergency bypass road and upgrade the Waimea wastewater treatment plant. These capital improvement projects are not only necessary, but long overdue.

"The Wailua bypass road is the only access between the county seat of Līhu‘e and the largest population centers on Kaua‘i when the main State highway is closed. Closures occur frequently, because of weather emergencies and traffic accidents. The route experiences almost 90 major traffic accidents a year. When fatalities are involved, the State highway must be closed for hours, cutting off residents of the North and East sides of the island from the airport, the major hospitals and medical centers, and University of Hawai‘i facilities. The State Department of Transportation is planning alternatives to the main highway, but implementation is years away. The planned improvements to the bypass are of a basic nature – resurfacing and installation of basic safety features such as guardrails and signage to enable its continued use during emergency closures.

"The Waimea wastewater treatment plant upgrade will be used to make improvements necessary for reliable sewer service to private and public customers in Waimea, including the Kaua‘i Veterans’ Memorial Hospital and Waimea area public schools. The upgrade will also improve effluent water, resulting in better water quality on the coastal plain between Waimea and Kekaha. The Waimea wastewater treatment plant is currently running at over 90 percent capacity, causing the County of Kaua‘i to restrict new sewer connections due to the facility's limitations. The upgrade will allow the County to lift present capacity restrictions, allowing new connections for the development of affordable housing and business expansion in Waimea.

"I can clearly see the need for State funds to support these capital improvements, and as such, I support this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 214, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS AND MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR WAILUA EMERGENCY BYPASS ROAD REPAIR AND RESURFACING, AND WAIMEA WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT UPGRADES FOR THE COUNTY OF KAUA‘I," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 694:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 694, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB 694 which authorizes the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation (HHSC) and the Maui Regional System Board to remove the Maui Regional Health Care System (Maui Region) and its facilities from HHSC by transferring regional assets to a legal entity that will finance and continue to provide healthcare services to Maui residents.

"Maui Memorial Medical Center is the only hospital facility for Maui and Lanai. Given HHSC's continuing financial difficulties, this bill provides the opportunity to spin-off the Maui Region and to allow its managers to explore partnerships and other non-state financing transactions with third-parties. This measure holds the promise that the Maui Region can survive and continue to provide the level of service needed on Maui and Lanai.

"A related bill, HB 1372, which applies to all of the regional health care systems under HHSC, including the Maui Region, also allows for this possibility. I am also in support passage of these related bills to continue the dialogue on this important issue to my community and to the State.

"For these reasons, I am voting in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 694, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1231, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak to express my support for HB 1231, H.D.1. which would establish a transitional management team within the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation to plan for necessary restructuring to ensure the strength of the State's healthcare safety net.

"I believe this bill will allow for streamlining services while creating efficiency of operations. This will allow for restructuring functions and services by eliminating duplication of services and eliminating certain expenses without compromising quality of services.

"It is for these reasons I support this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1231, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 979, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 979, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB 979, HD 1 which addresses two important environmental concerns affecting our aina. This bill will set aside special funds to: (1) support invasive species control and mitigation; and (2) promote reforestation and sediment run-off mitigation.

"Invasive species range from the pesky cocqui frogs that are spreading throughout our islands, to miconia that still needs monitoring and eradication, to blocking brown tree snakes that devastated the birds on the island of Guam. By investing financial resources to protect against unwanted invasive species, we preserve our fragile environment for future generations. Even in tight economic times, guarding against harm to our natural environment are wise and prudent outlays.

"Similarly, we must nurture our environment by promoting reforestation of our forests and conservation lands. By taking these measures, we do our part in mitigating sediment run-off and thereby protecting and fostering the continued health and welfare of our residents.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 979, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ENVIRONMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Wooley voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

ORDINARY CALENDAR

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 766) recommending that H.B. No. 1171, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 766, that H.B. No. 1171, HD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am speaking in opposition to the motion to recommit. On the process. I will try my best to stay within process. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe that if this bill is recommitted, that this bill will be then killed. And if this bill is killed, there are consequences to that, Mr. Speaker.

"I rise with objections to the motion to recommit. Excuse me, Mr. Speaker. I'm trying to figure out how I speak about this, in opposition to the recommital. Mr. Speaker, because we are recommitting the bill, and it kills the bill, I find it very difficult to discuss this bill without even referring a little bit to the bill. Can I have some leeway on it?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"No, if I let you a little leeway, I'll have to let everyone have leeway. So, just keep your remarks to your opposition to the process of the recommital."

At 10:10 o'clock a.m. Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:12 o'clock a.m.

Representative Finnegan continued in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will keep my comments very short. This is the Superferry bill that we are killing, and that is why I am in opposition. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1171, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Finnegan voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Morita, for the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 701) recommending that H.B. No. 245, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 245, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak in favor of House Bill 245, Relating to Renewable Energy Facilities. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I think the bill is very well crafted. It contains all of the protections that we need to have, while also helping renewable energy projects move forward.

"If the Members turn to page two of the bill, it talks about the siting of a renewable energy facility that may be allowed. It's not a 'shall' be allowed. It's not a mandate. It may be allowed. And it's very clear that the section shall not exempt renewable energy facilities from our land use and environmental protections. And, it also does not prevent any agency or authority from imposing reasonable and appropriate restrictions on the type of siting, development, construction and operation of a renewable energy facility. I applaud the amenders of the bill, and I think it's a very good measure and should move forward. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 245, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY FACILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representatives Morita and Ito, for the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection and the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 702) recommending that H.B. No. 1351, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1351, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRIVATE AGRICULTURAL PARKS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 706) recommending that H.B. No. 1537, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1537, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"HB 1537 specifies that any person who provides for an automated external defibrillator training program is generally immune from vicarious civil liability resulting from any act or omission of a Good Samaritan attempting to use the device to resuscitate a person.

"It is a good bill, as it will encourage more businesses to have defibrillators on their premises and to train their employees to use it in an emergency. Glen Waki of Kahala and Aina Haina McDonald's has installed defibrillators in his restaurants and had the respective staff trained to implement the device. Good owners should not be sued since they are acting as Good Samaritans. Lawsuits might cause the removal of defibrillators to avoid liability. We need to encourage our business owners to have emergency equipment available and not discourage them from doing so! Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1537, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AUTOMATED EXTERNAL DEFIBRILLATORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 707) recommending that H.B. No. 1040, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1040, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORT LIABILITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 708) recommending that H.B. No. 1316, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1316, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict, please? At my private law firm, I do represent design professionals. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, we already have in Hawaii, in the Uniform Contribution among Tortfeasors Act, which allows those who have been found negligent, if more than one person is found negligent for a specific incident, everyone's on the hook. The Uniform Contribution among Tortfeasors Act allows the negligent parties to take money to contribute to each other's payments so that no one gets stuck with more than their fair share.

"No one wants to be sued. I understand that, but it does seem to me that if we have an exemption for everyone, then no one can be sued. Mahalo."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. In cases involving tort claims relating to the maintenance and design of public highways, design professionals and public utility companies are sometimes left with liability beyond their percentage of negligence because of our current joint and severability law. This measure will help our local companies, but still protect our public by abolishing joint and several liability for design professionals and public utilities in tort claims relating to the maintenance and design of public highways, except when a design professional's or public utility's degree of negligence is 25% or more. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1316, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, Luke, Nishimoto, Rhoads, Saiki and Shimabukuro voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Ito, for the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 709) recommending that H.B. No. 865, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 865, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 709, House Bill 865, House Draft 1, Relating to Transportation. This bill would require the Statewide Transportation Council to comply with county transportation-related plans, county general plans, and all community, development, or community development plans adopted pursuant to the county general plan, to the extent that compliance does not affect the receipt of federal funds. This bill was a recommendation of the 2007 Interim Task Force on Smart Growth Development because the Smart Growth Task Force recognizes the need to ensure that state and county plans are coordinated appropriately.

"Improving coordination between the State and counties is critical to ensure our major backbone infrastructure is planned, funded and constructed in a timely basis. As transportation funding begins to shrink at the federal level, it is important to coordinate our efforts at the State and county levels to maximize our returns.

"While the Island of Oahu has the Oahu Metropolitan Planning Organization (OMPO) to set its priorities, the Department of Transportation (DOT) sets the Statewide Transportation Improvement Program, or STIP, for the Neighbor Islands. This bill will ensure that the DOT will take into account county transportation and general plans to ensure consistency and to eliminate conflict with county plans when the STIP is implemented. Furthermore, by providing consistency between the STIP and county plans, Hawai`i will have more effective transportation systems that will better meet the transportation needs of Hawai`i's citizens.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, as we know Hawai`i has a finite amount of land, and our development decisions will continue to affect us as our population continues to grow which is why I continue to advocate for smart growth development. HB 865 HD 1 will ensure that our transportation-related plans will be cohesive and comprehensive.

"Accordingly Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 865, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Karamatsu, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 710) recommending that H.B. No. 1611, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1611, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. This bill, H.B. No. 1611, House Draft 2, requires truthful labeling of meat and fish that has been gas-treated. Mr. Speaker, the bottom line is whether or not you believe that gas-treated meat and fish is dangerous to one's health. I think that's what we're here to, I guess to protect people's health.

"These products are regarded as safe by the FDA, however, there are some questions in regards to that. So, there's still time to research and debate this issue further, because it has a defective date, Mr. Speaker. So, I'm going to leave that for a later time. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, please. Basically, as the previous speaker said, that this bill would require certain supermarkets to start labeling their food that had been treated with a certain gas. This particular gas is used nationwide to keep meat fresh.

"My only concern is, as we, as a legislative body, despite the fact that there has been really no proof, nationwide, that this type of gas is bad for people. We, as a Body are making a determination away from the Food and Drug Administration, to say that there is something wrong with this particular process. My concern, by taking that position, that we are publicly saying to the State of Hawaii that any store that does this particular process is doing something wrong to you. I think that's just the wrong way to go about it. I understand that there's some concern, but it's a concern without true proof."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm also voting 'aye' with reservations. I think it might be preferable to allow people who do not treat the meats with gas to be able to allow them to say that their meats are not treated with gas. Thank you very much."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. I know that as all things change, I think this is a time where the public is asking us to do more labeling, making more educated choices for themselves. So, I think that we should support moving this bill forward. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. May I have the comments of the previous speaker inserted into the Journal as if they were my own?

"And, just real quickly, this is a disclosure item, as far as I can see. People are being told that this is fresh, and it's not. It's been gassed to preserve it beyond its life. I know of real allegorical stories of people who have gotten meat that they thought was fresh, opened it up, and ate it, and were sick. With all the food poisoning scares, and the peanut industry, and other things, this bill is all about, basically, food safety, and it's very imperative. Thank you very much."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. I would be happy to concede that this is something that's very important to do, if the previous speaker can provide evidence that that person did get sick from this particular treatment. It could just be that the meat was just plain bad."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1611, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABELING OF MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Karamatsu, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 711) recommending that H.B. No. 812, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 812, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Stand. Com. Report 711, House Bill 812, House Draft 2. Thank you. At least two former United States Surgeon Generals, Antonia Novello and C. Everett Coop have declared domestic violence to be a problem of epidemic proportion nationwide.

"According to our Honolulu Police Department, up to one-third to one-half of the police officers' work time is spent responding to domestic calls. The bill before us is to protect our victims of domestic violence by allowing them to terminate their rental agreement without penalty, so long as they can confirm abuse, with a temporary restraining order, or a protective order with a written affidavit by a deputy prosecutor.

"In a domestic violence situation, victims are often faced with multiple competing challenges; escape, economic viability, appearance in court and single parenting, are only some of the difficulties they face. This measure will save lives by allowing our victims an option to flee their violent situation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 812, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Karamatsu, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 712) recommending that H.B. No. 1696, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1696, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE RENTAL INDUSTRY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 10:23 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 245, HD 1
H.B. No. 1351, HD 2
H.B. No. 1537, HD 1
H.B. No. 1040, HD 1
H.B. No. 1316, HD 2
H.B. No. 865, HD 1
H.B. No. 1611, HD 2
H.B. No. 812, HD 2
H.B. No. 1696, HD 2

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 713) recommending that H.B. No. 197, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 197, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a request for a ruling on a potential conflict. I serve on a board of directors of a condominium. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 197, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONDOMINIUMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 714) recommending that H.B. No. 244, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 244, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker I'm rising to speak against House Bill 244. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill will provide lower utility rates for agricultural activities, and the lower rates are including potable water, electricity, and freight transportation. I support ag operations and their need to be able to bring their produce and other products to market. But the problem with this is, all other utility and transportation ratepayers are going to have to pay a higher rate. So, by passing this bill forward, what we're really doing is ensuring that our constituents who are not agricultural operations or operators, are going to have to pay higher utility rates for water, electricity, and transportation.

"OHA, who normally would be in favor of an ag bill of this nature, cautions that the bill has the potential to go too far, and it stated that to provide these discounted rates across the board, at the expense of other ratepayers, it could be overly burdensome, almost at the point of a tax for other ratepayers, especially in these economically-challenging times. And that is why I'm opposing the bill, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. I think our community overwhelmingly has said that they want agriculture to succeed, and not only that, they want to eat local foods. If the community rises up and says this is important to them, then I see that this bill really reflects what I think is an overwhelming opinion of our taxpayers that they want this for us. I think this promotes agriculture, and I ask our Members to support it. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Yes, I'd like a ruling on a potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. My law firm represents both water public utilities, and ratepayers of water public utilities," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, and I'd like to adopt the words of the speaker from Kailua. And, just additionally, when you're talking to the community in regards to whether or not they want to be supportive of agriculture, of course they're going to say 'yes.' I think we all want our food to be fresh and be grown here in Hawaii.

"But, when you put that in comparison with paying more for some of these expenses such as, we need our food, we need water, we need some of these other thing, like electricity, because it says, 'included, but not limited to' some of these services. But these costs that increase at the home level, they may have a different opinion. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I would say that in this Chamber, we always talk about preservation of important ag lands. We always talk about preservation of agriculture. This is one way that we can support what we say. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. I rise in support. Thank you. Current HRS provides a mechanism for the establishment of preferential rates for potable water used in agricultural activities. This bill increases that scope of the law to provide preferential rates for any other public utility service used for agricultural activities in agricultural districts, such as electricity and freight transportation.

"I know there are concerns that preferential rates would be subsidized by all other utility ratepayers who may find that higher rates may be overly burdensome, particularly during our economically challenging times. These concerns merit further consideration. And should this bill move forward, the current language also includes a defective date of January 1, 2090. And thus, I urge my colleagues to support this measure, and encourage further discussion. Thank you, very much."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just with reservations. I have similar concerns as the previous two speakers here. However, I would much rather prefer that we allocate money through the Agriculture Department, instead of having the rest of the ratepayers pay during this economic time."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 244 Relating to Public Utilities. Agriculture is important and we must support it, but I am concerned that utility and transportation ratepayers might have to pay higher rates as a result of this bill to subsidize agricultural utility and transportation ratepayers. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs worries that this bill might go too far and in their testimony said, 'We must be careful to ensure that the preferred rates from the public utility services are provided to ratepayers who are engaged exclusively in agricultural activities. Otherwise, the intent of this bill will be frustrated and OHA's support cannot be maintained.' Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 244, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC UTILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 715) recommending that H.B. No. 591, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 591, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. This is very similar to the previous bill, and so I just wanted to vote with reservations."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 591, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC UTILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Tsuji, for the Committee on Agriculture presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 717) recommending that H.B. No. 1663, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1663, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 1663: Relating to Taro Security.

"The Kauai Taro Growers Association, a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization was registered in 1987, following in the footsteps of an organization founded by a generation before them. The registered purpose statements are as follows:

To engage in and support study and research relating to taro production and of poi and other taro products.

To disseminate information among the members relating to improved farming techniques, equipment and all other developments pertinent to the industry.

To promote the availability of land for taro production; promote the production of taro and taro products; enhance the marketing of taro and taro products; engage in all other activities for the advancement of the common interests of taro growers.

To publicize taro and taro products and to encourage their consumption by the public.

To promote mutual cooperation and encouragement among taro growers.

"The 42 farms on Kauai totaling 396 acres of taro, provides approximately 78% of the state supply (Oahu/Maui 18% and Big Island 4%), have signed to support HB1663 HD1, and have made compromises in respect for the Hawaiian culture, which will leave the Hawaiian taro varieties that they now grow vulnerable to possible diseases that may enter Hawaii.

"According to DOA, new pests and diseases are entering uninspected since 2006, due to a change in federal procedures since 9/11 that doesn't allow our State inspectors to check the 900,000+ pounds of taro entering Hawaii per year. From 1997 to 2005 there were over 345 insects, mollusks, weeds and nematodes (and this does not include possible bacteria, fungus or diseases) that the state inspectors previously stopped prior to 2006 and it would be a matter of time before the leaf blight in Samoa and disease in the Solomon Islands that decimated the taro crops arrives here. The insect vector required to transmit this disease is found in Hawaii. It is hoped that the continued research on the non-Hawaiian varieties may provide a future remedy should the disease reach Hawaii.

"The taro industry has been on a steady decline from 1948 when there was 14,000,000 pounds of taro, to 6,800,000 in 2000 and now 4,300,000 pounds that correlates with the decline in taro farms. Kauai farmers also have the highest yield per acre at 13,600 lb/acre and Oahu/Maui at 10,533 lb/acre and Big Island at 4,222 lb/acre.

"The following calculation is the amount of servings per week that the Kauai taro farmers supply the State.

4,300,000 X 78% = 3,354,000 lbs from Kauai
3,354,000 lb X 4 (servings per lb) = 13,416,000 servings
13,416,000 servings / 52 weeks = 258,000 servings per week

"Everyone is encouraged to educate themselves on the research that has been done and know that there are ways to use genetic engineering in a secure facility that will not allow the results to escape nor allow public access to avoid previous destructive acts at experimental areas with plants destroyed, mistakenly thought to be genetic modified plants, and that could lead to the release of results of the study. Research being conducted on the Chinese Bun Long variety has resulted in stopping the leaf blight problem that plagues current organic and conventional taro production and lead to solving the severe leaf blight disease that decimated the taro in Samoa.

"Genetic engineering could focus on this particular aspect in which researchers can identify the gene that could fight the disease and look for similar genes in the current varieties and then use the hand pollination method to cross breed and create a variety resistant to leaf blight. This method would be more efficient in finding the correct crosses that would work instead of the trial and error method that leads to creating hundreds of crosses and then go through a process of elimination.

"Education is needed on how cross pollination occurs with taro and that the odds are about 2 billion to one, of taro cross pollinating in the field, which would be similar to someone never leaving their home because they are afraid that a meteor may strike them. Bun Long which has been in Hawaii for 150 years as stated in this bill has never crossed with the Hawaiian varieties. Have the Hawaiian varieties cross pollinated with each other? And if it did, the only way to check would be to utilize genetic engineering to find out.

"The farmers have also compromised to avoid the cross pollination issue all together, by agreeing to the amendment that there be no open field testing and that all open field testing be conducted outside of Hawaii. The farmers also want to make it very clear that there are no GMO taro planted and that there are no GMO taro to be planted.

"The farmers are worn down by this issue for the past three years and would like to go back to the fields, spend their time farming and focus on ways to remedy the many other challenges facing them daily.

"Mr. Speaker, it is time to let the taro farmers do their farming. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of House Bill 1663 HD1, which prohibits the development, testing, propagation, release, importation, planting, or growing of genetically modified Hawaiian taro. It also prohibits certain activities related to GMO non-Hawaiian taro.

"Legislation to protect this valuable cultural and nutritional agricultural resource had a rough, and ultimately disappointing, ride in this Body during the 2008 session. With this bill, we have a fresh opportunity to redeem ourselves and do what is right to preserve Hawaiian taro for present and future generations.

"As Vice-Chair of the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs, I have heard compelling testimony from Native Hawaiians, grassroots farmers, concerned scientists and academics, and a widely diverse number of individuals who want to preserve kalo as it has been handed down through the generations. I am also pleased that this bill is also designed to preserve and protect to some extent varieties of non-Hawaiian taro as well.

"I also realize that this bill is not perfect. It needs more work as it moves ahead through the remainder of the Session. Some of the suggested amendments that have come to my attention are: no non-Hawaiian taro shall be genetically modified outside an enclosed laboratory to which public access is either prohibit or strictly regulated; no genetically modified non-Hawaiian taro shall be released within or imported to the State of Hawaii. There will no doubt be other amendments put forth – some desirable, others less so – but the important thing is to keep the momentum going … and ultimately produce a law that will truly protect our precious taro resource.

"I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting HB 1663."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1663, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TARO SECURITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 719) recommending that H.B. No. 1272, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1272, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill, Stand. Com. No. 719, makes clarifying amendments to the Electronic Waste Recycling Act by making minor revisions to the terms, 'covered electronic device' and 'manufacturer.'

"Mr. Speaker, actually, I'm not really in favor of the clarifications. I'm actually pretty curious as to who this will affect. But, I'm going to be voting 'no,' and, my 'no' vote is because I'm not in favor of the Electronic Waste Recycling Act. I do not believe that development of this State-run program is necessary, as many manufacturers and industry associations provide extensive information on their websites about how and where to recycle their electronic products, Mr. Speaker. And, I'm just not that fond of State-run programs. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. We have moved into the information age, and the technology age. With electronic waste, the volume is unimaginable. What's going to happen to us over the next years to come? We have got to set the groundwork, and I applaud the Chair moving this forward.

"This issue has been around for many, many years. It started out as a Resolution to look at it. I think people see it as a problem, and I, again, think we have to move forward on this issue. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1272, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRONIC WASTE RECYCLING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Finnegan voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 722) recommending that H.B. No. 1593, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1593, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to note my reservations and make a few comments. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the impetus for this bill is to assist with a conflict between certain lessees and a land owner. I guess I'm really just concerned about this bill because in some of the testimony, it was brought to our attention that this bill might be a violation of the contract clause, under both the Hawaii State Constitution and the U.S. Constitution.

"Again, I want to stress that I understand the nature of the conflict and that this bill is being cast as a way to support small, local businesses. And for that reason, I can see why it might be something favorable to do. However, it does concern me, regarding these constitutional questions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. Small businesses and farms are an essential element in strengthening and diversifying Hawaii's economy and creating jobs for our people and despite their contribution to Hawaii's economy, small businesses and farms are at a disadvantage in terms of land ownership. The commercial, industrial, and farm properties that exist within the State's districts are primarily owned by a few landowners. These landowners control large tracts of land and retain their ownership by means of leases to small businesses and farms, which in turn supply services and products for our community.

"The purpose of the first part of this bill is to stabilize Hawaii's economy by addressing some of the burdensome or vague provisions of existing commercial and industrial leases of certain lands within urban districts by clarifying provisions in long-term commercial and industrial ground leases, without substantial reduction in the economic benefit to the landowners or impact on their ownership of the land, without impairing their lease contracts, and without the taking of any property rights without due process of law. House Bill 1593, House Draft 1 states:

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary and unless expressly stated to the contrary in the lease, any lease of commercial or industrial leasehold property shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) Whenever a lease existing on July 1, 2009, or entered into thereafter, provides for the renegotiation of the rental amount or other recompense during the term of the lease and the renegotiated rental amount or other recompense is based, according to the terms of the lease, in whole or in part on a fair and reasonable annual rent as of the commencement of the term, that provision shall:

(A) Be construed to require that the rent shall be fair and reasonable to both the lessor and the lessee to the lease; and

(B) Take into account any and all relevant attendant circumstances relating to the lease, including:

(i) Past renegotiation practices and policies throughout the previously renegotiated lease rents;

(ii) The uses and intensity of the use of the leased property during the term of the lease approved by the lessor;

(iii) The surface and subsurface characteristics of the leased property and the surrounding neighborhood of the leased property on the renegotiated date; and

(iv) The gross income generated by the lessee on the renegotiated date; and

(2) Unless otherwise specified in the lease, if the lessee has subtenants with subleases that provide for recovery by the lessee of ground lease rent, those subtenants shall be charged their pro rata share of the fair and reasonable annual rent as renegotiated pursuant to this section.

"In the second part of this bill, the purpose is to carry out the mandate of Article XI, section 3, of the Hawaii Constitution to conserve and protect agricultural lands and assure availability of agriculturally suitable lands.

"The Legislature finds that the land use law was enacted to "preserve and protect land best suited for . . . agricultural purposes and to facilitate sound and economical urban development" (Senate Standing Committee Report Number 580; 1961 Senate Journal). Since that time, however, lands classified by the land study bureau as class A and class B lands, the lands most suited for intensive agricultural use, have declined from three hundred fifty-nine thousand six hundred ninety acres (Class A, one hundred twenty-five thousand one hundred sixty acres; class B, two hundred thirty-four thousand five hundred thirty acres) in 1960 to one hundred seventy-two thousand ninety-four acres (Class A, fifty-six thousand six hundred fifty-three acres; Class B, one hundred fifteen thousand four hundred forty-one acres) in 2007. These agricultural lands are a resource that cannot be replaced once they are lost to development.

"The inventory of lands that are suitable for agriculture is essentially fixed. Unlike other agricultural inputs, agricultural lands cannot be manufactured when the demand for them increases. In 1960, the land study bureau estimated that there were nearly three hundred sixty thousand acres of class A and B lands on the six major islands. These were the lands upon which the State depended for profitable, competitive agricultural production. By 2007, the inventory of class A and B lands had declined to slightly more than one hundred seventy-two thousand acres, making it more important than ever to conserve Hawaii's most productive agricultural lands, especially in counties with a population of over five hundred thousand residents.

"Part two of this bill provides that whenever any agreement or document for the lease of private agricultural lands with soil classified by the land study bureau's detailed land classification as overall (master) productivity rating class A or B for agricultural use in counties with populations of over five hundred thousand provides for the renegotiation of the rental amount and the term of the lease, and the lessee has made improvements or is seeking to make improvements on the land, the renegotiated term of the lease shall include an extension of the lease for a period of not less than seventy-five per cent of the original term of the lease.

"Further, the measure requires that for a boundary amendment for agricultural lands with soil classified by the land study bureau's detailed land classification as overall (master) productivity rating class A or B, no amendment of a land use district boundary shall be approved in counties with a population of over five hundred thousand where: (1) A farming operation as defined in Hawaii Revised Statutes section 165-2 is being conducted on the land; (2) The land is important for agriculture based on the stock of similarly suited lands in the area; (3) The district boundary amendment will harm the productivity or viability of existing agricultural activity in the area; and (4) The district boundary amendment will cause fragmentation of or intrusion of nonagricultural uses into largely intact areas of agricultural lands with soil classified by the land study bureau's detailed land classification as overall (master) productivity rating class A or B. These requirements will help to protect some of our most valuable and productive agricultural lands. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. This is House Bill 1593. It is the first of a line of somewhat troubling bills today that are attempting to impair existing commercial contracts. Although bills enacted by the Legislature enjoy a constitutional presumption, the presumptions should not apply here, because this bill, as previously mentioned, violates the contracts clause of the U.S. Constitution.

"The test for the contracts clause is comprised of three factors. The first is whether the statute operates as a substantial impairment of a contractual relationship. Second, whether the statute is designed to promote a significant and legitimate public purpose. And third, whether the statute is a reasonable and narrowly drawn means of promoting a significant and legitimate public purpose.

"I would submit that this legislation meets none of these criteria for the following reasons. First, this bill rewrites provisions that are contained in existing contracts. Second, this legislation does not set forth a significant and legitimate public purpose, and the Legislature has not conducted any recent due diligence to determine whether or not commercial lease rents are or are not burdensome.

"The most recent due diligence that this Body has conducted was done in 2003, when we asked the Legislative Reference Bureau to conduct a study on commercial lease rent. That study was completed in 2003, and one of the conclusions that the LRB found was, quote unquote, 'lease rents are probably right where they should be.'

"Whether we agree with that conclusion or not today, the fact of the matter is, that there is no other legislative finding on this specific issue that justifies this legislation.

"The third reason that this bill is not constitutional, is that it is not reasonable and it is not narrowly drawn to promote a public purpose. Even if there is a public purpose, and there is not, this bill is arbitrary, and does not even consider other alternatives to address this specific situation, such as by creating incentives for lessors to lower their commercial lease rent. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 1593 – Relating to Real Property. While I agree and sympathize with the tenants, I do have a concern that this bill is targeted at one group of people and may end up effectively changing agreed upon terms of previously negotiated long term commercial and industrial lease contracts. Proponents of this bill have candidly admitted before the Senate Committee that they are pushing this bill as leverage in their negations. I am also concerned that this bill will limit the ability to freely negotiate leases in a manner that best suits the business requirements of both the lessor and lessee. Agreements to provide lower lease rents at the beginning of a long term lease to allow the lessee to grow their business in exchange for a long term commitment by the lease to maintain and improve the property may no longer be feasible under the provision of this bill. By prohibiting the enforcement of higher standards for the repair, maintenance, and surrender, the overall maintenance of properties may decline, impacting both subject property and the surrounding community. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I'd just like to counter, I think, some of the criticisms as to the constitutionality of this measure.

"First and foremost, the question is whether it is a substantial impairment of the contract clause. I don't believe that it is, because all this is doing is finding a definition for what is fair and reasonable. Most of the commercial leases say 'fair market rent.' And so, therefore what you do is you look at the market value prevailing throughout that area, or that county, or the state, and you determine what is 'fair and reasonable.'

"Unfortunately, this lease term is subject to renegotiation every 10 years. And because it doesn't say anything about market; all it says is 'fair and reasonable,' all the landlord needs to do is put forth some justification to state that it's reasonable. And so all they need to do is say, 'I'm going to make this the best commercial property you've ever seen. I'm going to make substantial infrastructure improvements. I'm going to make the roads great. I'm going to make a great building,' and all of those things. As long as they can show that it's reasonable, they therefore get to bump up the lease rents by five times, ten times, per square foot. And that's what we're faced with, with this issue.

"And so it's for that reason, I think, we need to really look at this, because, unfortunately, when the new landlord came in, they did not go with the previous practice of the Damon Estates. And that, unfortunately, has put the lessees into a very untenable situation.

"In these days and times of economic downturn, where our small businesses are already struggling, I don't think that it's anywhere near fair to be asking them to pay 5 times or 10 times more their square-foot rent, in these economic times, where very, very few people are able to make it as it is. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support, and with the hat of a former small businessman who basically was in business with my landlord, because every time I made a dollar, there was a huge percentage. And, I don't think we're breaking a lease so much as we're shooting a 'shot across the bow' of guys who are either part of the local oligopoly, or those who have come in from the mainland who can do the 100, 200, 300, 400 %, and basically decimate the heart of the small business community, because there's only, what, eight to twelve percent of the land in circulation, which otherwise is taken off because of huge ownership.

"There's such an imbalance that's going on, Mr. Speaker. And some of these rents are just prohibitive. What we've got to do is tell them, we don't want rent control, but we don't want them also to go crazy and knock everybody out, just because they're trying to bleed another 100% or 50% out of the lessees.

"So, I think this piece of legislation will serve to put sobriety and sincerity in the renegotiations, at least for the sake of halting some of the stuff that's chasing a lot of people away. And it's not only just the small 'mom and poppers,' it's substantially large businesses who don't own the land, but they own the buildings, and their businesses are in jeopardy. And they are the ones who hire the people who make Hawaii work. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative B. Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1593, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Berg, Hanohano, Luke, Morita, Nishimoto, Saiki and Takumi voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 723) recommending that H.B. No. 1784, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1784, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in opposition of HB 1784, HD 2 which purports to alleviate the perceived crisis of doctors leaving Hawaii. The approach in this measure is reckless, wrongheaded and generally based on faulty assumptions, and fanciful use of facts and comparisons. There are a number of bills moving through this body today, including HB 1636, HD 1; HB 310, HD 2; HB 1316, HD 2; and HB 1037, HD 2, which tip the balance of fairness towards the wrong doer and against the victim, but this is the most egregious.

"One major concern with this bill is that it unnecessarily reduces or takes away rights of patients who may have valid and substantial injuries as a result of a medical provider's negligence. Section 3 of the measure reduces the statute of limitations for medical tort claims- from 2 years to 1 year after the patient discovers or should have discovered the malpractice. It also reduces the outside limit of bringing suits from 6 years to 3 years.

"In the case of minors, the measure not only shortens the limitation period from 6 years to 3 years, but also changes the outside limit in the case of minors and effectively shortens what we understand as childhood from 16 years old to 8 years old. We have this kind of limitations period to balance the need to protect minor children with some certainty on when a claim must be sought. This proposed "reform" impacting victims who are minors effectively sacrifices these children on an insurance company's altar of actuarial certainty.

"Proponents argue that high malpractice premiums charged by the doctor-run and owned insurance company providing coverage to Hawaii's physicians are the primary cause of doctors leaving practice in Hawaii. Putting aside the fallacy in that premise, I simply object to skewing rights of patients to chase a Holy Grail of lower malpractice premiums. The key to lower malpractice is to follow the simple maxim of "Do no harm." Since the Insurance Commissioner reports that the carrier covering Hawaii's doctors has paid out excess premiums to its members regularly in recent years, it appears that the insurance company has enjoyed good years and the Hawaii payout experience merits a return of excess premiums to Hawaii's doctors. With that kind of recent experience for the carrier, it belies me why this bill did not include a premium rollback as a condition of these drastic changes.

"This bill supposedly addresses a shortage of doctors practicing in certain specialties, particularly in rural areas, as well as to reduce the alleged high malpractice insurance premiums that these medical specialties pay. The Hawaii Medical Association (HMA), a primary proponent of the wish list of harsh changes in this bill, asserts that many doctors are leaving the state primarily due to high medical malpractice insurance premiums. Yet HMA offered no substantiated facts in support of this contention. HMA also claims that there is a flight of doctors from Hawaii because of the so called high premiums. However, the record of registered physicians at the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA) shows that there has been an increase of licensed physicians in Hawaii for years 2000 to 2009. The data shows that in 2000, there were 3,044 licensed physicians and in 2009 there were 3,925 licensed physicians, an increase of almost one-third over the nine year period.

"The so-called reformers also argue that this bill will solve the dearth of specialty physicians in the rural areas. However, this problem is not unique to Hawaii. The problem affects every rural area across the country. Medical malpractice tort limitations and caps on damages will not solve this problem. It has not solved the problem in rural areas of California or Texas, both of which have enacted caps on damages.

"There is also the lie that there is an explosion of lawsuits against doctors practicing in Hawaii, and that somehow a lawsuit explosion is to blame for the higher malpractice premiums. The Legislature addressed lawsuits against doctors previously by creating a screening procedure that has effectively deterred the filing of frivolous medical malpractice lawsuits: the Medical Claims Conciliation Panel (MCCP). Under Hawaii law, medical claims must first be submitted to the MCCP before a lawsuit can be filed. Furthermore, a claim cannot be filed unless a doctor in the same specialty who is a member of the panel finds that the claim has merit. The MCCP annual reports show that medical malpractice claims filed in Hawaii has been reduced by 42% from 2001 to 2008. The claims that have gone before the MCCP screening panel have dropped from 173 in 2001 to 100 in 2008. And as for allegations of frivolous claims, the MCCP panel found 2 claims to be frivolous in the last 4 years and 11 over the past 15 years; this is less that 1% of all the claims that MCCP heard. Finally, the number of medical claims that actually ended up in courts shows that there is a substantial reduction of cases filed, from 55 in 2002 to 40 in 2008. As for cases that actually ended up going to trial, only 11 cases went to trial in the past five years. That amounts to roughly about 2 cases per year. These facts demonstrate that there is no explosion of malpractice claims, lawsuits and trials.

"Mr. Speaker, it's perplexing that we are addressing a perceived problem in ways that only harm important rights of our regular residents. Making changes to our existing medical tort laws should not be based on a whim. The facts do not warrant radical obliterations of the rights of those who have valid and reasonable claims for their injuries arising from negligent care from their providers. The system is not broken, so let's not fix it. For all of these stated reasons, I will be voting against this bill."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, in the year 2008, there were exactly 3,917 physicians and surgeons in Hawaii. In that same year, 2008, the Medical Claims Conciliation Panel accepted, or 100 claims were accepted with the MCCP. So that means for 3.9% of the doctors in 2008, a claim was filed against them. What that also means is that the average doctor in Hawaii gets sued once every 39 years. The number of doctors in Hawaii has actually increased since 2000. In 2000 there were over 3,044. Now there are 3,925.

"The number of claims that have been filed with the MCCP has dropped from 173, which is still a tiny number, considering how many doctors visits, surgeries, and medical procedures are done every year. That number has dropped to 100 in 2008.

"I understand that there's a problem on the Neighbor Islands in particular, with the availability of medical care, but this bill isn't going to make any difference in terms of improving that situation. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on this bill. This bill tries to move us forward with a very important issue of medical tort reform. I support this bill, as it is a way to continue moving forward. Capping non-economic damages is an important part of medical tort reform, and caps on non-economic damages do not come into effect until economic damages reach $1.5 million in this bill.

"The median settlement awarded in a jury verdict of this nature is $235,000. The deletion of the section of attorneys fees, along with the elimination of a non-economic cap for the awards, less than $1.5 million in economic damages, dilutes severely the reform aspect of this bill.

"I appreciate the work of the Chairs of Judiciary and Health, as I know that this issue is very difficult to deal with. However, my hope is that this bill returns from the Senate with more of a reformed aspect to it.

"Mr. Speaker, the previous speaker spoke about doctors in general, and how there're more doctors. Well, we can also take a look at my mom, my father, and how it's not easy to get doctor's appointments, especially in these fields. You can tout, and you can speak about all of these numbers of many doctors that exist out there, but services also continue to climb, and more people using these services continue to climb. And, we're talking about specialties in the medical field.

"So, if you're going to start talking about all of these doctors, when this bill covers specialties of doctors, I didn't think that the speaker was providing the type of evidence to get to the way the things that are in this bill in regards to specialty areas of medical practice.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I hope that this improves, but I am still with reservations on the bill. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, just in rebuttal of the Labor Chair. As the previous speaker mentioned, some statistics were a little skewed. I can just tell you, for example, orthopedic surgeons have said that they get sued several times a year. And that is one of the reasons why they're leaving in mass droves. Yes, I'm speaking in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Also in support. At least this is a beginning, and I applaud the Chairman for beginning this, though it is far from perfect. If you talk to doctors, you will hear the reality of what's going on. And I think there were a number of panel discussions earlier in this Session. And I think that this is an area that the public has also expressed their concern. They know that their own doctors are deciding to leave the field, especially in the specialties that we mentioned."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. And I'll be very brief. I just want to thank the Chairs of Health and Judiciary for taking this on. This is my fifth year in this Chamber, and I'm really happy that we're having this discussion on medical tort reform, because I think it's something that we should have accomplished years ago.

"This is a small measure to appease our specialty doctors to stay where they're at, and a way of us expressing to them that we are listening to them. That they have a part in this Chamber. That their interests are also being discussed. Out there in the field they feel that their interest is not heard, and that this Chamber is full of lawyers, and their interests are not being undertaken. I'm happy to report to them that no, they are not forgotten. We talk about doctors in this Chamber. And I want to thank the lawyers in this Chamber for supporting this bill. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Very briefly, Mr. Speaker. In favor. I'm happy to see some caps on damages in this field. I think the fear of lawsuits on the part of doctors has led to very high costs and defensive medicine, in ordering excessive tests, and leaving long paper trails in case of a lawsuit. I don't understand one provision of the bill, that says the caps on the judgments will not apply if the claimant's economic damages are less than $1.5 million. I don't know the effect of what percent of people have damages that are less than $1.5 million. But, it would seem that many people would fit under this limit. So, I don't know whether this might negate the cap on non-economic damages. But, we shall study it further as this bill progresses, hopefully to final passage. Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Mr. Speaker, in this bill, we tried to find a delicate balance to protect patients, and at the same time to retain doctors. So, at this time, I'd like to insert written comments into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 1784, House Draft 2, Relating to Medical Torts. Mr. Speaker, there has been a disturbing trend over the years as more and more doctors either leave the islands or retire, leaving our residents with inadequate access to healthcare, if at all. Our Neighbor Island residents especially suffer the unfortunate consequences of our growing lack of physicians. There are several factors contributing to this mass exodus of doctors, including a high cost of living, low reimbursement rates, and high medical malpractice insurance premiums.

"House Bill 1784, House Draft 2 attempts to address one of the main reasons that doctors claim is forcing them to leave our State. This tort reform proposal originally offered a $250,000 cap on noneconomic damages, with a $3 million cap for gross negligence cases. However, after careful consideration of the concerns expressed by the medical community, legal community and patient advocates, the Judiciary Committee has amended this measure to better reflect a more balanced approach to addressing tort reform. More specifically we removed the specific award amount for noneconomic damages, included a provision to exclude the cap on noneconomic damages in cases where the economic damages are less than $1.5 million, removed the sections on attorney fees, periodic payments, admissible evidence, and the $3 million cap in cases of gross negligence, clarified the language in the adverse notification section, and established a medical malpractice taskforce and a medical malpractice rate and awards cap commission in order to best determine and regularly maintain the most reasonable, yet realistic medical malpractice insurance premiums and noneconomic damage caps possible.

"And while your Committee recognized the importance that the physician profile section brings in encouraging consumer awareness and protection, we felt that it was best not to jeopardize passage of this measure because of a potential title problem that the profiling section posed, and therefore, with the prior consent of your Health Chair, chose to delete that section.

"The measure before us today is a well-thought out compromise that attempts to address the concerns of all affected parties based on factual research and best practices from other states, while keeping in mind the unique situation of our island state. This measure also strives to bring all the affected stakeholders together to develop realistic solutions to the impending medical crisis we are facing. Medical tort reform is a very complex and emotional issue that has gone unaddressed for years. It is time that we bring the affected stakeholders and experts together to have an open and candid discussion about the actual reasons that are forcing our doctors to leave and what we can do to keep them here. Without that discussion we will never truly find the solutions we need, which is why the establishment of this task force is so important.

"In short Mr. Speaker, your Judiciary Committee recognizes the sensitive divide on this issue, the need to bring the affected stakeholders together for an open and honest discussion, and that even though this is only one of many different components affecting our State's healthcare system, the critical need to move this measure forward for further discussion.

"This measure in its current draft provides us with the opportunity to continue the meaningful policy discussions regarding doctor recruitment and retention and therefore, I ask my colleagues to support this measure so that these discussions may continue on in the Senate. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill and would like to make a few comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a bill that I've been very conflicted over, as both a person who has family members who are nurses, doctors, physician's assistants, and, as a lawyer. I've been conflicted because, I think out there in the community, the constituents are also divided.

"And, to reach my conclusion, I had to look back on what was the overarching purpose of the tort law system. Going back to torts 101, the overarching purpose of the tort law system is to encourage socially efficient behavior, by setting up legal structures that …"

Representative Evans rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. The current speaker seems to be looking at the audience and not addressing the Speaker."

The Chair addressed Representative Belatti stating:

"Representative Belatti, would you please address the podium?"

Representative Belatti continued, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. So, the purpose of the tort law system, as I've learned, is to one, compensate victims for their injuries. Two, to deter potential wrongdoers from intentionally or negligently injuring others. And three, to promote fairness and corrective justice.

"As this Body knows, low reimbursement rates for doctors, the high cost of living, and high malpractice insurance premiums have contributed to the crisis that exists in Hawaii's healthcare system, with Hawaii's doctors leaving rural areas and high-risk specialties to the detriment of Hawaii's patients.

"Tort reform is just one piece of a larger plan to address this crisis. Originally, when House Bill 1784 made its way through the Health Committee, I supported it, because it included measures of transparency and accountability. Other pieces, which are a part of House Bill 1784, as it passed through the Health Committee, included the requirements that, one, mandated liability and insurance premium rollbacks. Two, required patient notification by healthcare providers of adverse events, which would increase communication between doctors and patients. And three, provided transparent public information on doctors, so that the public at large would be able to make informed decisions when selecting their healthcare providers.

"As the bill progressed to the Judiciary Committee, however, important features were gutted. For example, this bill no longer requires the online publication of physician profiles. It also narrowed the definition of 'healthcare provider,' so that the notification requirement is essentially ineffective in alerting and protecting Hawaii's people from medical errors.

"For these reasons, I no longer support the reforms contained in this amended House Bill 1784. Recognizing that this bill will likely move out of this House, I hope that some of the concerns that I have raised and other colleagues have raised will be taken up by the Senate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1784, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAL TORTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 13 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Brower, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, Luke, Morita, Nishimoto, Rhoads, Saiki, Shimabukuro, Takumi and Wakai voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 10:53 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 197, HD 1
H.B. No. 244, HD 1
H.B. No. 591, HD 1
H.B. No. 1663, HD 1
H.B. No. 1272, HD 1
H.B. No. 1593, HD 1
H.B. No. 1784, HD 2

Representatives Cabanilla and Ito, for the Committee on Housing and the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 771) recommending that H.B. No. 1443, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1443, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Herkes rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I'm guilty. I do carpentry in my garage. It's what we do in the rural areas. One of my neighbors is retired and to supplement his income, he makes ukuleles. I believe that's carpentry. It's just, that's what our garages are for."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. My only concern with this measure is the fact that it doesn't take into account previous contracts entered into, for example, declarations of covenants, conditions, and restrictions. And, I think that those are superseding documents and arguably, should we pass this measure without some language regarding that previously entered into agreements between homeowners and developers or associations are not recognized, we could be, arguably, interfering with contractual relations. So, I would just caution the Members on that. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is really all about the future. The future of small business is going to be in the home, and if you're a carpenter, or if you're otherwise, this is a beginning document which we're going to have to amend continually, because if we go more telecommuting, more computer technology based businesses, this bill will be filled up to the brim. Right now it's just an opener. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I support this bill and have short comments. Thank you. This is a very good idea. During these tough economic times, we should be responsibly looking for ways to encourage entrepreneurship. The purpose of this bill is to allow owner-occupants of the home to operate a small business out of their home, as long as it does not have serious negative impacts on the surrounding residential area.

"This gives start-up businesses a way to keep costs low. The risk of starting a business is lessened. And this is also a good quality of life measure for those who are trying to juggle home, family and work. This is a good idea that deserves more discussion. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am voting for this measure, but just would like to express a reservation. I believe this is more a county function, and if they would like to pass this, I would encourage them to do so. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"In this time of recession it is important to encourage as many revenue streams as possible. Also as a social worker I support giving Hawaii residents the opportunity to realize the 'American Dream' of owning and operating their own business. This will give self-determination and autonomy for many people. Instead of relying on an employer, their successes and failures are solely their own responsibility.

"It is expensive to rent office space. In this time of high rents and increased environmental awareness, it makes sense to utilize the home that has already been purchased or rented instead of leaving it to sit empty all day while the occupant is taking up precious office space.

"This bill will help many types of home businesses, from lei and handicraft makers to and other cottage industries to accountants, naturopaths and e-Bay sellers. Now, especially with the advent of the Internet, many businesses can easily be operated unobtrusively at home. This diversifies our economy, a goal of many Hawaii policy-makers. Remember, Microsoft was started in a garage.

"HB 1443 will especially help mothers with young keiki or elderly kupuna be able to care for their ohana while bringing in income for their family. Opponents have said that they are concerned that if many home businesses were allowed to have to employees, not already living in the home, it could destroy the "social fabric" of neighborhoods. I hold a masters degree in psychology and am a professional social worker. I can tell you definitively that if many mothers stayed home to care for their children or parents and had a couple of friends over to help them with their business at the same time, it would actually greatly strengthen the "social fabric" of these neighborhoods.

"Opponents have also said that they were concerned about traffic impacts. Actually home businesses would have the exact opposite effect. More people would stay home, instead of contributing to rush hour traffic. And the employees would many times be neighbors that could walk or bike to work. Or they would be driving in the opposite direction to commuter traffic. And regarding parking, most neighborhood parking problems are during the evening, when people are home, not during working hours.

"While opponents talk about county homerule, I am interested in even more fundamental homerule, that of the homeowner deciding how to live in their own home."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1443, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOME OCCUPATIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Herkes, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 772) recommending that H.B. No. 951, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 951, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the bill. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this would give landowners immunity, were there to be falling rocks or other things that would occur from their property. I'm particularly concerned about a parcel that is located right above Kalaheo High School's playing field. And, if the private landowner were to have immunity, and not do anything to make sure that that hillside stays stabilized, we could end up with a football player, or soccer player, or whoever, being injured. I don't think we want to do this, and I think that we ought to take a look throughout our districts, and those people who have hillsides that may be not so stable, should take a hard look at this bill. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition. Mr. Speaker, boulders don't care who's liable when they fall on people or smash houses, and I speak from personal experience. In the flood of '88, a boulder probably as big as your desk, 10 feet tall, came through my neighbor's house. I only had three feet of mud and boulders, and small ones in my house.

"The problem with this bill is that it would give upslope landowners license to ignore these hazards. It also gives immunity for conditions that can be remedied. The point is, if liability is only linked to those where maintenance is done in negligent terms, why would a landowner do anything at all, Mr. Speaker? It sends the wrong signals, for what otherwise is a very dangerous situation in many of our constituencies.

"Just last week in Ahukini Street, a boulder as big as that rug on the top of our House Chamber, fell off and broke down. And there's people, as I speak, sleeping at night in terror, fearing that this is going to happen.

"Fortunately, there is liability, and fortunately, there are people who are looking at it; engineers who are measuring it's movement and it's dangerousness. But this bill kind of gives too much carte blanche.

"Mr. Speaker, The bottom line is this. If you own a swimming pool, you're always going to be liable if anybody drowns in it. If you're fortunate enough in Hawaii to own a mountain, if boulders fall down, you should be liable. Especially, we live in a volcanic-formed island. We have mountains all over the place. This bill is contrary to the geography in which we live in. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. The way I read the bill on page three, it says, 'the landowner shall not be liable for any damage, injury, or harm to persons or property outside the boundaries of the landowners land.'

"If I listen to the previous speakers, I really have concerns of all the people that can't control the land that's outside of their boundaries. And if I listen to the previous speakers, I would say that government must have a role in this. If we're going to hold this landowner responsible for a hillside that's above them, these people don't have the knowledge and experience to understand storm water runoff. They don't understand if in fact there was an earthquake, and somehow it got compromised. So, what, are we going to subsidize and pay for people to counsel and go and analyze?

"You know the Representative from the Big Island would love to have experts look at the terrain, and what's going on with earthquakes and storms and flooding, and how it's impacted. But we're not there yet.

"So, I think this bill actually, really addresses the fact that people that live on land can't control what's above them on hillsides, for example, or how streams may change course because of flooding. So I think the bill, the House Draft 1, I think really included some good consideration, provided, the bill says, 'that a landowner shall remain liable for damages proximately caused by negligence or wanton acts or omissions committed in the course of any activities on the improved land.' So, if the landowner, if there's storm water runoff and it's coming down and it's coming on their property, and somehow it's compromising their property, they have some responsibility, because they know it's a problem. So, I think this is covered in here, so I think this is a good bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. You know, this bill actually goes a little further than giving immunity to landowners. What it does is, for instance, if you see a boulder, and it's on your land, if you don't do anything about it, then you have full immunity. But, if in trying to go ahead and protect your neighbor from your boulder coming down, and you try to stabilize it, then you're hooked for liability. So, it's actually backwards. So what it does is, it encourages, even during dangerous situations, if you see a dangerous situation, you ignore it, because you know you'll be immune. But if you try to go and see if you can stabilize it or try to correct it, then you're liable.

"It's just backwards thinking. Especially when, people who live on cliff sides, boulders are coming down. I don't know if it's because of changing climate, or changing soil concentration, but just in the last 10 years, it seems like boulders are coming down all over, whether it's in Nu'uanu, Liliha, or Hawaii Kai side, Manoa, Nanakuli side, it's coming down all over. We as policy makers need to figure out what we can do to proactively encourage landowners to get rid of dangerous situations, instead of discouraging. And this bill goes ahead and discourages that. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, and just short comments. Our legal review of the bill said exactly the same thing as the previous speaker. The liability for the owners of this unimproved land would only incur liability if they tried to maintain the land. The safer counsel may be to do nothing to avoid liability. So, only the landowners who try to do preventive maintenance can be held liable. This is definitely a disincentive to fix a potentially harmful situation. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. Yes, I agree with the previous speaker, in that if a landowner does nothing, then the landowner is not liable. But, if there should be a boulder looming above a home, the landowner, in moving it and trying to ameliorate the situation, is liable. The unintended consequence of this bill is to encourage landowners to do nothing. If they do nothing, then they are not liable. Once they try to remove a rock, or ameliorate a landslide condition, then they are liable.

"So, I am opposed to this measure, because in my area, in Ainakoa, a young girl was killed by a boulder a few decades ago. But, just a few years ago, a boulder came down and smashed into a car in Waialae Nui

Valley. So we are always living with the threat of boulders, and we don't want to give landowners complete immunity from removing hazards. The word 'stabilize' is in this bill. During the hearing, I asked a question, whether the stabilization meant removal of threatening rocks, and my understanding is that is what one meaning of that word is.

"So, I encourage all people to take a good look at this. Vote 'no' if you feel that you want to protect the people who are downhill from many of these landowners. Thank you. That includes the State and large estates. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Also in opposition. And it's all been well said by previous speakers, so I will try not to go too long. But, in my valley that I share in Nu'uanu, we have had our share of problems and danger, and knowledge is a great thing. The more people know about what's going on, the better. And when people are not knowledgeable, this is where problems exist. So in opposition, and I ask that the words of the speaker of Nu'uanu/Pacific Heights be entered as my own."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I continue in opposition. Just for the record, so the reading of the bill is correct, and following where the Majority Floor Leader left off, she forgot to mention that it says, 'provided that a landowner shall remain liable for damages proximately caused by negligence or wanton acts or omissions committed in the course of any activities on the unimproved land,' which has been translated as, 'if you don't do anything, you're not liable. If you do something to try to prevent it, you're theirs.' So, it sends the signal, don't touch your land, jeopardize other people, because you're going to be okay, you're not going to be liable.

"So, it's very clear that this is bad policy for those of us, and all of us who live on mountainous, volcanic islands. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, I've been listening to all the previous speakers, and again, let's look at the language in the bill. It clearly states: 'provided that a landowner shall remain liable for damages proximately caused by negligence or wanton acts or omissions.' 'Proximately caused by negligence' means, Mr. Speaker, that if the landowner knew or recently should have known of this condition and did nothing, they will therefore be liable. So, all these concerns that are being raised are essentially moot, because the language in here clearly addresses, if a landowner knows, or should have known, reasonably known, that there was a dangerous condition that existed on their land, it doesn't say, 'look away and don't do anything about it.' It states you will still be held liable. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I am in support. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I support the intent of this bill and the concept of indemnifying landowners for natural conditions that exist on their property. However, I have concerns that this bill may discourage landowners from taking action to make their property safe. I suggest the language of the bill be amended to indemnify landowners that make a good faith effort to make their property safer for themselves and their neighbors."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. This bill as introduced, has been introduced every year for several years now by landowners who want to be absolved of any responsibility for maintaining their open spaces. Every single member of this Body whose communities are adjacent to a mountain, a ravine, a slope, or a valley, should think very carefully about this legislation.

"Last year, when we heard a bill that was similar to this in the Water, Land Committee, where landowners testified that if legislation like this were to pass, then the onus would be on down slope residents to protect themselves from the potential for a rock fall.

"The solution that was provided by the landowners was that residents should, at their own cost, build walls or fences to protect themselves from boulders and other dangerous conditions that were upslope of their homes.

"We should think very carefully about enacting this legislation, because it will also reverse over 50 years of common law in Hawaii, that basically imposes upon landowners a duty of reasonable care to innocent bystanders.

"For these reasons, I oppose this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 951, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANDOWNER LIABILITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 32 ayes to 18 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Ching, Finnegan, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, Luke, Marumoto, McKelvey, Morita, Nishimoto, Pine, Saiki, Shimabukuro, Takumi, Thielen, Wakai and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 774) recommending that H.B. No. 560, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 560, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to 774. This was a tough one for me. First, I'd like to reveal a potential conflict. I work at a homeless veterans' shelter," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine continued in opposition, stating:

"Basically, what SCR 774 does is, it increases the tax per wine gallon to benefit veterans. The first sentence was okay, but when you combine it with benefitting veterans, it was not more of a logical feeling for me, but an emotional one. As I deal with homeless veterans every day, I understand their personal struggles. And there is already a negative connotation put on them, that many of them are homeless because they're drunks and alcoholics and things like that. I just saw this addition of these two things as a bad message to send to the public. I would much rather prefer that we have a specific allocation to this special veterans' fund. For those reasons, I am in opposition."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, if you want to fund programs for veterans, then prioritize it. I'm sure that the intentions of the introducers weren't to say that there is a nexus between funding veterans' services and alcohol consumption. When I first read the bill, I was a little stunned that this mechanism for funding sends a bad message. I cannot support something that gives the impression that veterans are drunks.

"The funding mechanism for special funds are almost always created with a nexus. I think we should kill this bill and fund veterans respectfully and rightfully out of the general fund. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as a veteran and not a drunkard, I would like to adopt the words of the previous speaker as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 560, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERANS SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Brower, Finnegan, Herkes, Marumoto and Pine voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 775) recommending that H.B. No. 610, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 610, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 776) recommending that H.B. No. 658, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 658, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of SCR 776 HB 658 HD1.

"The purpose of this bill is to support military veterans by appropriating general fund revenues to support an additional full-time veterans' counselor position for the Maui Office of Veterans' Services. At this time, the current Maui Office of Veterans' Services is short handed and lacks the ability to reach all veterans on the island of Maui. This also includes the islands Lana'i and Moloka'i.

"We must never fall short of what is due to our veterans and it is our duty to make sure that they receive adequate and essential services.

"Again, I strongly support this measure and ask my colleagues to support our veterans by supporting this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 658, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE MAUI OFFICE OF VETERANS' SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 777) recommending that H.B. No. 988, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 988, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 779) recommending that H.B. No. 1405, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1405, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"Other states in the last few years have requested guidance on how nexus is established in their states for purchases from the Internet or mail order companies' products sold to their residents. To help solve this problem, states have started clarifying this situation by legislating nexus laws. This bill is similar to legislation being heard in three other states.

"This bill establishes economic nexus by following the decision made by the State Courts of New York. Nexus is established if there is an agreement between an out-of-state seller with a resident in this state which the resident receives a commission directly or indirectly from the out-of-state seller. If this relationship occurs, the seller has established a nexus for all sales made by the seller to the state.

"This bill also will help level the playing field for local 'brick and mortar' establishments."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On SCR 779, House Bill 1405, House Draft 2. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. The purpose of this bill is to ease the fiscal crisis currently facing the State, and maximize the State's ability to capture taxes owed by out-of-state businesses by specifying the business activities that would constitute a sufficient connection with Hawaii, to allow the State to impose the general excise tax on those activities. This is akin to the Streamline Sales Tax, and I have concerns on the overall effects on taxes on our residents, Mr. Speaker.

"Also, though, an unintended effect of this bill is that online sellers are likely to eliminate their compensation programs for persons who are residents of this State. So, for those reasons, I stand with reservations."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I also rise to vote with reservations on this bill. As noted by the previous speaker, this bill attempts to collect general excise tax on out-of-state purchases made by the Internet, by mandating the general excise tax if the sales are due to referrals by a Hawaii resident.

"A similar bill is moving through the Senate that adopts a different approach. It adopts voluntary collections. Which approach is better, is unclear to me at this time, but I hope that more light is shed on this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Just a couple of points. The Department of Taxation estimates that the revenue gained for this measure is about $4 million per year. But more importantly according to Director Kawafuchi, this legislation allows for clarification of the current law in place today. And, it will do so without raising any additional taxes. What this does, Mr. Speaker, is level the playing field between the bricks and mortar businesses here, in retail, with those that are doing business on the Internet. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative M. Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. And just want to clarify that this does not tax Hawaii residents."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in support, Mr. Speaker. Other states do it, why can't we do it? Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I believe it is a tax on the residents when they purchase something online. Thank you very, much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1405, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Brower, Hanohano and Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 11:18 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1443, HD 2
H.B. No. 951, HD 1
H.B. No. 560, HD 2
H.B. No. 610, HD 2
H.B. No. 658, HD 1
H.B. No. 988, HD 2
H.B. No. 1405, HD 2

At 11:18 o'clock a.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:19 o'clock a.m., with Vice Speaker Magaoay presiding.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 782) recommending that H.B. No. 333, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 333, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Thank you. This creates a State Earned Income Tax Credit funded initially with TANF funds, Mr. Speaker. My reservation on this bill is that the EITC on the federal level is highly abused, and this bill could also cause some administrative and legal issues for our Department of Taxation. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 333, HD 2. Opponents to State earned income tax credits often warn policymakers about taxpayer abuse or high rate of overpayments associated with federal and State EITC programs. This criticism, however, tends to exaggerate the issue of abuse insofar as critics often rely on an Internal Revenue Service report published ten years ago as evidence of overpayment. That report, however, was compiled using a methodology that has since been criticized and discredited by the United States Department of Treasury Inspector General in a 2001 December report entitled, "There Are Significant Weaknesses in the Internal Revenue Service's Efforts to Measure Earned Income Credit Compliance." Within the past ten years, tax laws have changed, and the IRS has implemented an improvement plan to catch and prevent EITC overpayments due to error and fraud. Because concerns over EITC fraud are overstated and based on outdated and faulty data and because the EITC is a proven tool for incentivizing work and supporting working families, I support HB 333, HD2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 333, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 784) recommending that H.B. No. 704, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 704, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a bill to license homecare agencies. The Department of Health is already struggling with the cuts that are going to be, and have been made on that particular department. And, at this point in time, I think we should be really cautious about how we move forward in spending more money, especially because of balancing the budget.

"This bill also states, and I understand that this is, I guess a booming industry, from what I've read. But, it also states that there is a repeal for the license in the bill. So, I'm not actually understanding. Did they want to just try out licensing them? Is it important enough to license them? If so, then why would you consider already putting a repeal on a licensing requirement. So, I'm voting 'no.'"

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Standing in strong support of Stand. Com. No. 784. In recent years, there has been a proliferation of homecare agencies, and homecare agencies are really important these days because we want to encourage people to be taken care of in the home. But, we want to make sure that the care is safe care. So, this bill is an extremely important bill, and it's part of the package that is supported by the Joint Legislative Committee on Aging in Place, and actually brought to our Committee by people in the community who saw a need for licensure.

"So, I hope that we can pass this bill on, and that even though it may cost a little money, I think in the long run it will save money, because our hospitals, our long-term care facilities are becoming more and more expensive, and we need to encourage people to be cared for at home. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. In just short rebuttal. In regards to saving money, Mr. Speaker, I don't think that it saves money. People are doing this currently without being licensed, so those options for going into being cared for at the home level is already occurring. And that's my point, Mr. Speaker. We go in with spending more money in an area when we just, at this point in time, we're struggling for every nickel and dime, from what I understand. This is probably unprecedented in the amount of money that we have to make up for the budget balancing. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. It isn't true that people are always being cared for safely, at home. There are documented incidents of where people are not being cared for safely at home, and that's precisely the reason for this bill."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. I know it's my third time, but I just wanted to make sure it was clear that I did not say that people are always being taken care of in the home, safely. That was not my statement. My statement was that people are being cared for at home. That this is additional money, and I don't see how it's saving money. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support. I didn't want to get between the two, the rebuttals. They can go in the middle. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like the words of my colleague from Mililani, her first statement entered as my own.

"I did want to make a couple comments. I understand the concern about the fiscal impacts, and I would just like to share with my colleagues that, that is a concern as this bill moves forward.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, the intent of the bill, again, is to look at this as a viable option in the future, as it moves forward. There are cost impacts right now, but if we do not find ways to support the proper care, and the most expedient care in the home setting, then it will have a negative cost impact to the whole system.

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to comment in regards to the question regarding the potential repeal date of June 30, 2014. The reason why the Health Committee left that in, is because, as it goes forward, there should be a reevaluation to make sure that if this is the right direction to go, that we have an opportunity in this Body, to relook at that. And, if there needs to be changes, or a repeal, or even an extension or elimination of the sunset, then, we, as a Body can set that forth at that time. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 704, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOME CARE AGENCIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 787) recommending that H.B. No. 1284, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1284, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of H.B. 1284 - Relating to Health. The current healthcare system does not provide parity to those physicians who provide services to our needy. The Occupational Therapy Association of Hawaii states in their testimony that, 'Currently, many private clinics do not accept Medicaid because of the low reimbursement. These consumers are then referred to another clinic, and must wait for approval for medical care. Access to care is compromised, which may escalate the intensity of care needed and preventable use of the emergency room, which is costly. Reimbursement to providers at 100% of Medicare may encourage more providers to accept Medicaid clients.' This bill will help encourage specialist to accept patients who may not otherwise be able to find a physician to treat them. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1284, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 789) recommending that H.B. No. 1364, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1364, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"The purpose of this bill is to enhance the openness and transparency of our government.

"People come to the Legislature to request funding for their many deserving causes. Their requests go through a grueling process and if they pass, their requests are sent to the Executive Branch for execution.

"It is at this place in the process that transparency becomes clouded. People have very little information on their appropriations. They constantly have to wonder if their appropriations will be released.

"Disclosure is the key for financial accountability. When information is displayed and reasons given for decisions made by the Executive Branch, confidence in government is enhanced. This bill does not diminish the powers of allotment by the Executive Branch. It merely asks for disclosure. There are no consequences attributed to not do this request, but passing this measure will go far in showing that openness in government is alive in this State.

"Finally, this bill can be accomplished by merely requesting that the Director of Budget and Finance to post on their website the status of items such as CIP, GIA, or other appropriations on a spreadsheet."

Representative Nakashima rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill will require the Governor or Director of Finance to submit a report to the Legislature for each restriction of an appropriation authorized by the Legislature. I believe that it is sound fiscal policy for the Legislature to receive a report from the Executive Branch with regard to any restrictions that have been placed by the executive on the actions of the Legislature. Such variance reports are common and are good business practices.

"This is a fundamental check in the checks and balances of government, and I strongly support this measure."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. This bill singles out the Governor to report to us when, and if, and ever, there's a withholding and not a release of funds. It breaks with 50 years of traditions, with the Gubernatorial-Legislative relationship. It is something that is not needed, particularly at this time.

"The Governor balances the budget every month, vis-a-vis the Department of Budget and Finance. Cash in, cash out. How much can we spend? How much do we have to hold back?

"I think this bill is based upon a wrong assumption, a misinterpretation, of the very nuanced financial fiscal role that the Governor now plays. This is not the best way to do policy by punitive, and mistrust. We have the purse strings to allocate it, but they are the ones who give it out. I think this just is a bad bill. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, HD1 takes out the punitive aspects of the bill. This bill is for openness and transparency, and that's always good in good government."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1364, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE BUDGET," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 790) recommending that H.B. No. 28, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 28, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HB28 HD1 Relating to Dead Human Bodies.

"This measure would prevent commercial exploitation of human body remains by prohibiting the sale of dead human bodies, including human bodies or remains that have been plastinated through the use of polymers; unless it is for the purpose of medical education or research by a university, hospital or qualified institution.

"This measure will also raise the monetary penalty for the misuse of a dead human body from $1,000 to $5,000, or imprisonment of up to one year or both.

"Medical and educational research is beneficial to the understanding of the human body for medical treatment. However the educational or health related values do not outweigh the moral and ethical concerns regarding the possible exploitation of unconsenting human beings. The selling and buying of dead human bodies or remains reduces the human body to an article of trade and opens the door to unscrupulous individuals attempting to profit financially from those less fortunate.

"For these reasons, I support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 28, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DEAD HUMAN BODIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 791) recommending that H.B. No. 29, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 29, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HB 29 HD1 – Relating to Dead Human Bodies.

"This measure would ensure the ethical treatment of human body remains, including human bodies or remains that have been plastinated through the use of polymers by requiring a permit issued by the Department of Health prior to commercially displaying dead human bodies.

"The measure will also require the Department of Health to adopt rules to require an exhibit promoter to provide valid written authorization to publically display a dead human body for consideration has been obtained from any of the following individuals: the decedent, including but not limited to, authorization given by will; or a person authorized to make an anatomical gift under the Revised Uniform Anatomical Gift Act. If the dead human body is a minor, the valid written authorization will be from the parent or legal guardian.

"The fee will be determined by the Department of Health and be no more than what is reasonably necessary to fund the administration of the permitting process. It also establishes the Human Remains Exhibit Permit Fund into which shall be deposited the fees collected.

"Various exhibitions of plasticized cadavers arranged to demonstrate the workings of the human body have been travelling across the country. Exhibits have been set up in Atlantic City, Fort Lauderdale, Cincinnati, Las Vegas, and New York and internationally in Budapest, Hungary; Vienna, Austria; Santiago, Chile; and Madrid, Spain.

"The State of Hawaii is no exception. An exhibit displaying dead human bodies put on by Premier Exhibition Inc. opened on June 14, 2008 at Ala Moana Center and ran through January 18, 2009. There is no doubt that the exhibit is a dramatic and educational display. However, the exhibitors admit that they could not verify where the bodies came from, and this means that the human beings, while they lived, most likely did not give their consent for their bodies to be used in this way after they died. Interestingly, soon after the opening of the exhibit we learned that Bank of Hawaii had sold all of its shares of Premier Exhibition Inc. In doing so, Bank of Hawaii joins twenty-one other financial institutions that have also divested all of its shares of Premier Exhibition, Inc. Although there could be a myriad of reasons for Bank of Hawaii's decision to divest holding, it demonstrates that the long term investments in Premier Exhibition Inc. is not in the best interest of Bank of Hawaii and its shareholders.

"The issue of selling, donating, or gifting one's body for a commercial purpose is important, but not germane to the central concern regarding consent or lack thereof. In this instance, it is questionable that these people gave consent and if so, whether the people understood that they would be plasticized and propped up and exhibited in this manner. Anatomical or whole body donations are negatively impacted when the public perception of unethical procurement and display occur. These exhibits do not come from a philanthropic educational institution; while exhibit promoters may claim to put these displays for educational benefit of society, the true bottom line here is profits. According to the advertisements for such exhibitions, millions of people across the world have been to such exhibits. According to Sarah Redpath, Director, " No Bodies 4 Profit", there are currently three major body exhibition companies, each with about a dozen shows each containing about 25+ whole human bodies, galleries of fetuses, and uncountable organs. Combined, there are potentially thousands of whole and partial human remains circulating the US unchecked." If anyone would like more information on the organization's mission, they can go to www.nobodies4profit.org.

"Plastination, is a process wherein human tissue is preserved by the removal of liquids and fats and then injecting it with plastic polymer. Exhibitor's claim that it is safe and without public health risks, however there is evidence that if the plastination process is not cured properly, the bodies exhibited may leak liquefied fat. This poses potential health risks, which can be complicated further by the lack of donor consent and knowledge of body origin. California Assemblywoman Fiona Ma observed at a human remains exhibit in San Francisco, "The bodies on display were porous, leaked bodily fluids and immediately raised health concerns." Testimony provided by Dr. Scott Lozanoff, Chair of Anatomy Department of the University of Hawaii John A. Burns School of Medicine states " these remains could harbor disease that would be almost impossible to track…The 'bodies Exhibit' recently shown at Ala Moana is an example [of] a commercial display that poses potential risk in terms of the origin of material, transportation, and handling. Commercial distribution of unclaimed human bodies and parts presents a significantly greater risk if used in commercially related activities involving anatomical dissection."

"These exhibits of plasticized cadavers have generated controversy over human rights violations. Questions of who are these people and where do they come from remain unanswered. New York Attorney General Andrew Cuomo concluded his investigation of one such exhibitor, finding "The grim reality is that Premier Exhibitions has profited from displaying the remains of individuals who may have been tortured and executed in China. Despite repeated denials, we now know that Premier itself cannot demonstrate the circumstances that led to the death of the individuals. Nor is Premier able to establish that these people consented to their remains being used in this manner. Respect for the dead and respect for the public requires that Premier do more than simply assure us that there is no reason for concern. This settlement is a start." A press release of the report may be obtained from http://www.oag.state.ny.us/media_center/2008/may/may29a_08.html. I wrote a letter to Attorney General, Mark J. Bennett seeking his interpretation and possible injunction. A written response from Attorney General Bennett states, "In regard to possible criminal violations, section 711-1108, Hawaii Revised Statues, prohibits abuse of a corpse, which is defined as when 'a person treats a human corpse in a way that the persons knows would outrage ordinary family sensibilities.' It is not unreasonable to believe that the exhibitor knew that this type of exhibit may offend certain people, both because of the possibility that the people were political prisoners or victims of torture in life, and due to the graphic nature of the display. The facts presently known, however, do not appear to rise to the level of criminal abuse of a corpse." The Attorney General further states "It is my understanding that DOH has no concerns about the exhibit that would fall under its purview, and will not be pursuing the matter further."

"By requiring a permit, the measure seeks to eliminate the potential for unscrupulous individuals to benefit from the commercialization of displays of dead human bodies without prior consent from the decent.

"This measure seeks to balance the right to display human bodies or remains for educational and health purposes while ensuring that the bodies have been procured in a legal and ethical manner and pose no public health risk.

"Mr. Speaker, I would also like to thank the following persons and organizations for their assistance and support for this measure: California Assemblywoman Fiona Ma and her staff, Pennsylvania Representative Mike Fleck and his staff, Sarah Redpath Director of No Bodies 4 Profit, Dr. Scott Lozanoff Chair of Anatomy Department of the University of Hawaii John A. Burns School of Medicine, Dr. Marita Nelson Professor Emeritus University of Hawaii Department of Pathology, Dr. Angel Yanagihara University of Hawaii Pacific Biosciences Research Center, Mr. Harry Wu Executive Director of the Laogai Research Foundation, Mr. John White, Mr. Richard Hennessey, and Dr. Hong Jiang members of Falun Dafa and Mr. Glennon Gingko a concerned citizen. Special recognition is also given to my session Legislative Aide, Ms. Carmen Rodrigues. Her diligence and passion for this issue has enabled this measure to come this far and if approved, forever memorializes her exemplary work.

"For the reasons set forth above, I support this measure."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations on this particular bill, HB 29, HD 1. Thank you. My reservations continue to be the same from when I sat in the Health Committee, and that is the additional responsibilities of the Department of Health, in creating a new, I guess, a new responsibility, and going through the motions of doing a new responsibility, when these types of exhibits don't happen very often. On top of that, maybe not the Department of Health, and maybe the Department of Commerce and Consumer Protection should be the more appropriate place to do it, because it's more a business matter than a health matter. And so, I speak with reservations. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 29, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DEAD HUMAN BODIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 792) recommending that H.B. No. 343, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 343, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RURAL PRIMARY HEALTH CARE TRAINING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 11:30 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 333, HD 2
H.B. No. 704, HD 1
H.B. No. 1284, HD 1
H.B. No. 1364, HD 1
H.B. No. 28, HD 1
H.B. No. 29, HD 1
H.B. No. 343, HD 1

At this time, Representative Marumoto rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I make a correction to that last vote, if I may?"

At this time, the Chair responded, stating:

"It's too late, the vote has already been taken."

At 11:30 o'clock a.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:31 o'clock p.m.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 793) recommending that H.B. No. 811, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 811, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak against this measure. This bill removes the requirement that foreign nursing school graduates have their credentials evaluated by the National Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools. The intent of this bill is to ease the nursing shortage, by relaxing some of the requirements for international school graduates.

"I understand the need to find ways to answer the shortage, but we cannot do it at the expense of the quality of our nurses. We need to have high standards, because there is a potential for harm. CGFNS, that's the graduates of nursing, have a track record of protecting the public, by ensuring that nurses and other healthcare professionals educated in foreign nations, are eligible and qualified to meet licensure, immigration, and other practice requirements in the U.S.

"CGFNS checks each international nurse's history for prior convictions, and all foreign licenses must be validated as authentic and unencumbered in every nation that the nurse has been licensed in. If a nurse's credentials are adequate, then he or she should not have a problem. It is a good system that has ensured the qualification of nurses, here in Hawaii.

"Under this measure, CGFNS would be replaced with a burdensome and expensive State review process. One of the reasons the Board of Nursing testified against this bill is because of this burden. The Board stated that New Mexico and Alaska recently relinquished their state reviews, in favor of keeping the CGFNS process, because the number of reviews they had were in the thousands, and they could not keep up. This could be a worse problem in Hawaii, because our great State attracts so many foreign nurses, from a variety of countries.

"Moreover, this would cost the State resources at a time when we cannot afford to do it. Supporters for this bill have used California as a model for how a state review could operate. Yet, in California, it has found that the cost of retaining reviewers went to approximately a million dollars a year, and they were still unable to review Ukrainian, Eastern European, African, and some South American nurses' credentials, because they did not have the money to hire more reviewers with expertise in these countries' nursing programs.

"Finally, It has been stated that a reason we can do away with the CGFNS, is because the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nursing is an assurance that nurses are qualified. If that was the case, why do we have to worry about credentials? Let's just open up the NCLEX exam to anyone, regardless if they've got a nursing degree or not. I don't feel comfortable with that. I think we can all agree that our nurses need the proper education and training, beyond just taking a test to assure that they are qualified to take care of their patients. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker. Well, I think these arguments are moot for two reasons. The agency that licenses nurses is the National Council on Licensure Examinations, which every registered nurse has to take to be able to pass. That's the national standard.

"As far as the Commission on Foreign Graduates, there are two states that have done away with that. And, what's happening is that every nurse, a foreign graduate nurse, of which I am not one, can go to those states and take this examination. In those states, you can go everywhere, in any state to do that. You can come here, in Honolulu and take a California exam. Or, you can go to California and take a Hawaii exam. And, there is a reciprocity law for this State, meaning any nurse that's licensed in the other 49 states, can apply for reciprocity.

"Those states that open up the doors for foreign graduates, without the CGNFS are now enjoining that, in the sense that they're now having application fees and examination fees, in which we're losing out, by maintaining this CGNFS. They just take the exam there, pass there, and apply for reciprocity.

"I think that we should do away with it, because of our market share, and application fees, and examination fees, because there's no way that we can stop a foreign nurse from coming and practicing in our State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Aquino rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of this measure. The intent of this bill is to streamline the licensing requirements for international nursing graduates, to meet Hawaii's, and our nation's shortage of qualified and certified nurses. Some states, including California, do not have CGFNS certification requirements. The removal of this certification requirement would allow Hawaii to meet the growing pressures and demands of needed healthcare delivery.

"The bill offers alternatives to this certification requirement, by requiring a breakdown of educational programs from the applicant's nursing school, as well as an official school transcript.

"This proposed process will help all internationally educated nursing license applicants the opportunity to prove their competency in the NCLEX. This bill does not lower nursing practice standards. In the proposed process, the Board of Nursing is still required to adopt rules to make sure that State patient care will not be compromised, and nursing standards are where they should be.

"All this bill does is provide equal opportunities for both domestic and international nursing applicants. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Aquino be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of HB 811, HD 2 which removes an unnecessary barrier to entry for qualified foreign nursing school graduates applying for licensure by examination for registered nurses in Hawaii.

"This bill allows Hawaii residents who are nurse graduates of foreign nursing schools to apply for a Hawaii license without incurring the added financial burden of obtaining certification from another agency, the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing School.

"This bill does not decrease Hawaii's standards in anyway. Instead, it facilitates applications for licensure by Hawaii residents who are foreign graduate nurses. Streamlining the certification process, while at the same time safeguarding our high nursing standards, is accomplished under this bill. The certification process created by this measure not only retains accountability of credentials and professional nursing skills, but also fast tracks qualified nurses into Hawaii's health care work force.

"I support and vote in favor of the bill."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with concerns on HB 881, Relating to Registered Nurses. As a registered nurse, I know for a fact that nursing is regulated because it is a profession that poses risk of harm to the public if practiced by someone who is unprepared and incompetent.

"To be a licensed registered nurse, one must meet certain education requirements and pass an examination requirement. For unlicensed foreign nursing school graduates applying for a registered nurse license in Hawai`i, this bill will remove the requirement to have educational credentials evaluated by a professional evaluator.

"Forty-five state boards and the National Council of State Boards of Nursing firmly believe that domestic and international nurses must be held to the same standards of nursing education, training and testing. The days of having separate State nursing requirements are gone. In a few years, licensing will move towards global mobility that would allow health practitioners to provide aid to countries in need, be they the Philippines, England, the U.S. or any others.

"The Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools International is an immigration-neutral, nonprofit organization that is an internationally recognized authority on RN credentials evaluation. According to the State Board of Nursing, soon there will be forty-six states that will require the CGFNS review. The remaining four will be the gateway where thousands of international nurses whose credentials are not reviewed by the CGFNS will go through. New Mexico and Alaska recently relinquished their individual state reviews because they simply could not keep up. California does 1,000 reviews a month. If California decides to abandon its reviews, those numbers will go to the remaining handful of states, of which Hawai`i will become one. This measure would create something we could not implement.

"In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, preserving uniform licensing requirements for education and examination ensures consumer safety and nurse mobility in times of crisis and emergencies. Uniform requirements lessen confusion for patients, nurses, other health team members and third party payers, as well as legislators and policy makers. Implementing the California model will be extremely costly. It would be better to consider a resolution to the Commission on Foreign Nursing Schools encourage a more timely response to applicants who are experiencing challenges with the current system."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Aquino be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"The legislature finds that a foreign nursing school graduate may obtain a license to practice as a registered nurse in Hawaii either by examination or by endorsement. A foreign nursing school graduate may obtain a license by endorsement if the applicant already possesses an unencumbered license as a registered nurse in another country and, in the opinion of the Board of Nursing, meets the qualifications required of registered nurses in Hawaii at the time of graduation. If a foreign nursing school graduate does not already possess a registered nurse license in another country, the applicant may obtain a Hawaii license by examination by passing the National Council Licensure Examination and by complying with applicable requirements of state law and board of nursing rules that regulate nursing.

"Section 16-89-8(c), Hawaii Administrative Rules, requires that a school transcript of a foreign nursing school graduate applying for a license by examination be evaluated by a professional educational credential evaluator recognized by the Board and the applicant must arrange to have the evaluator send a report directly to the Board. The Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools fulfills this credential evaluation function by either issuing a certification through its international certification program at a cost of $418, or by issuing a full education course-by-course report at a cost of $378.

"The international certification program is composed of three parts:

(1) A credentials review;
(2) The international qualifying examination; and
(3) An English proficiency examination.

"The legislature further finds that not all states require foreign nursing school graduates to undergo these additional procedures to be licensed to practice as registered nurses. For example, California only requires a foreign nursing school graduate to send a document known as the "Breakdown of Educational Program for International Nursing Programs" form to the applicant's school with a request for transcript. Hawaii's rules already require a foreign nursing school graduate to provide a student final record or official transcript sent directly from the applicant's school to the Board of Nursing.

"The purpose of this Act is to require the Board of Nursing to adopt rules to remove the requirement for a foreign nursing school graduate to furnish either a written certification or a full education course-by-course report as a condition to take the licensing examination to obtain a license to practice as a registered nurse in Hawaii."
