"The affordability and perpetuity are, I believe, too restrictive, and it doesn't allow for recapture of shared appreciation. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of HB 1232. I cannot support the sale of public housing. The vast majority of public lands held by the State are ceded lands. The claims of the Hawaiian people for reparations from the U.S. following the illegal overthrow of their kingdom are still unresolved. This is why our State Supreme Court banned the sale of ceded land; and this is why many are calling on this Legislature to enact a moratorium on the sale of ceded land. With a complete inventory of ceded lands still incomplete, we should not allow publicly held land to be sold, period.

"Furthermore, public housing is part of the public trust, and the State has a fiduciary duty to use public trust lands for the betterment of Native Hawaiians. We all know that land is extremely scarce in Hawaii; why else would forced lease-to-fee conversion be so controversial? Many landowners feel that no amount of money can compensate for the loss of this precious commodity.

"The State should take the same tactic; no matter how good a deal may seem today, the money earned will be spent swiftly at the discretion of HPHA. On the other hand, land that remains in the State's trust will continue to be passed to the next generation, and so on, leaving a priceless legacy that is guaranteed to increase in value over time.

"Finally, I should remind this body that HB 1232 is very similar to a bill we passed last year that the Governor vetoed it because she wanted the definitions of "affordable" tightened. Thus, the Governor supports this concept, but simply wants the measure refined.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1232, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUSTAINABLE AFFORDABLE HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 11:46 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 811, HD 2
H.B. No. 1372
H.B. No. 124, HD 1
H.B. No. 347, HD 2
H.B. No. 1044, HD 2
H.B. No. 1221, HD 1
H.B. No. 1232, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 805) recommending that H.B. No. 1694, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1694, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm voting 'no' on this, because the amended bill deletes the homeless preference."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of HB1694. This bill requires the Hawaii Public Housing Authority to establish a minimum monthly rent for State public housing units and an annual Consumer Price Index adjustment of minimum rent. We need to support and require public housing residents to be part of supporting their own housing needs. This will instill a sense of pride and will help public housing become sustainable.

"During FY 2008, HPA asked the Legislature for $27 million in CIP appropriation and $11 million from emergency funds. This year, HPA is asking for the same amount to keep public housing operational. We are in the middle of a recession, and our State budget is billions of dollars short. Mr. Speaker, this measure is proposed as an attempt to keep our low incoming housing sustainable using federal tax credits. This company proposes to turn these buildings into mixed-income housing. Although this will help the State in that it will not need to subsidize public housing anymore, the very poor will lose more affordable rentals. Asking tenants to contribute more will help them help themselves and future low income tenants have a place they can call home.

"This bill also asks that costs of repairs to these units and common areas for damages which were caused by tenants, be passed on to the tenant who created the damage, rather than the taxpayers subsidizing the repairs. This will create accountability and eventually a sense of 'pride of ownership.' Again, it is not doing anyone a favor to give these low-income residents a 'free ride.'

"This bill also prohibits preferences for tenant selection. There are 14,000 names on the waiting list for affordable housing. Some people have been working the loop-hole of fast tracking the system to move up higher on the list. We need to level the playing field.

"For the last three years: 2005, 2006, and 2007, the Legislature has passed a Resolution for HPHA to be audited for being a 'troubled performer.' Based on these performance audits, the suggestion was to make the tenants selection process more stringent to pay market rent, but can contribute to their housing needs. These are the "working poor." These people should be given priority over people with poor rental histories and criminal convictions.

"These preferences are contradictory to the audit recommendations. Presently, the preferences are penalizing prospective tenants who are working. There is a built in disincentive for people to work. These audits are paid for by the taxpayers and mandated by the Legislature, yet so far no one has bothered to implement their recommendations. We are trying to help HPA comply with the mandate of HRS 356 D-43(a) to have rents cover the costs of family and elderly housing. The law mandates that these affordable housing projects be self-sustaining. We may not be able to subsidize these programs anymore, which leaves us the only option of selling to for-profit companies, which will diminish available low income inventory. I say we increase low income housing. I ask my colleagues to vote yes and save HPHA."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1694, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 806) recommending that H.B. No. 697, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 697, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting with reservations in light of our fiscal situation. I think this particular bill, although well intended, should be one that maybe we would consider not passing. This is over and above what is coming from the stimulus, and so, there will be some relief coming from the stimulus package. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on the same measure. Just reservations. I do believe after analyzing some of the stimulus package, that this would definitely qualify for stimulus money. So, there is no need to take money out of the general fund to do so."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 697, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TEMPORARY HEALTH INSURANCE FOR UNEMPLOYED PERSONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 809) recommending that H.B. No. 989, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 989, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 810) recommending that H.B. No. 1371, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1371, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just with reservations as well, on Stand. Com. 810. This area could also qualify for our stimulus funds, and I believe the Governor's team is looking into that right now. So, we can just flag this for the Finance Committee to possibly use these general funds for something else."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations on this particular bill, SCR 810. Actually, just for clarification purposes, the Governor is proposing to substitute general funds. So, in her suggestions to balance the budget, this is to actually substitute general funds, allowing the general funds to be used for something else. So, just wanted to make that clear."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1371, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 811) recommending that H.B. No. 625, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 625, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 625, House Draft 1, Relating to Surcharge for Indigent Legal Services. The Legislature finds that in the 2007 Assessment of Civil Legal Needs and Barriers of Low- and Moderate-Income People of Hawai‘i, four out of five low- and moderate-income residents did not have their legal needs met and that legal service providers are only able to assist one in three who contact them for assistance.

"The Legislature also finds that to increase the delivery of legal service, more funding is necessary. Additional funds could be generated by increasing the surcharge for indigent legal services, as recommended by the Access to Justice Hui in its Community Wide Action Plan: Ten Steps to Increase Access to Justice in Hawai‘i by 2010.

"The Legislature further finds that the Hawaii Consortium of Legal Services Providers has been working diligently to strengthen and increase outreach and services to low-income residents, and that each unique legal service provider requires a certain minimum amount of funding to meet basic expenses necessary to operate the respective non-profit organization or program. Therefore, the purpose of this bill is to change the allocation formula so that thirty per cent of all funds distributed shall be provided equally to all organizations or programs that meet the qualifications for receipt of the funds, in addition to a seventy per cent distribution of all funds pro rata under the current formula. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"The Expansion of the Surcharge in District Court is long overdue. Since the start of the indigent legal assistance surcharge over 10 years ago, assumpsit cases have been exempt from this surcharge. These cases represent the bulk of civil cases handled in District Court and in FY07-08, of the 22,405 civil actions filed in District Court, 13,267 or (55.69%) were assumpsit cases. This represents over 13,000 filings where collection agencies and others are not paying their fair share of the Indigent Legal Assistance Fund.

"This bill is aimed to increase funding for legal services. Specifically, it would:

- Increase the surcharge from $25 to $65 in Circuit Court and Court of Appeal filings and increase it from $10 to $35 in District Court filings.
- Expand the surcharge in District Court filings from just summary possession to all cases, including collection cases.
- Continue to exempt: small claims cases, petitions for restraining orders, petitions for temporary restraining orders, cases in which the petitioner is proceeding in forma pauperis and all state and county filings.
- Adjust the distribution formula by providing an equal share of 30% of the collection to each legal services entity eligible to receiving funding. The remaining 70% would continue to be distributed pro rata based on the portion of their budget spent on direct legal services to indigent clients.

"Increase the Surcharge. This bill could potentially double the funds available for indigent civil legal services by increasing the surcharge on initial court filing fees in civil actions. In this time of economic recession, core services, like those provided by Legal Aid are fundamental to the safety net. These types of civil legal services help those in domestic violence situations, those who needed access to public assistance, those who are subject to predatory lending practices, those who are vulnerable due to disability and those who need representation in this complex legal system.

"This is a much needed bill to ensure that more low- and moderate-income residents have access to justice, which was strongly recommended by the Access to Justice Hui formed by many different members of the Hawaii Bar."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict. One of the recipients of this money, should this pass, I'm on the Board of Directors of that organization. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I'm sorry, I also need a ruling on a potential conflict. I work at one of the agencies that could receive these funds," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations on this particular measure, Mr. Speaker. Basically, what this bill does is, it increases the surcharge for Circuit Court fees. Some will go from $25 to $65, $10 to $35, $25 to $65, and so forth.

"One of my concerns was, the money raised in this will go directly to certain particular non-profits. I find some complications with that; that we're favoring just a few non-profits to get certain designations of taxes. I'm against that philosophy in general, and I believe that it should go to the general fund, and that we should make funding those non-profit services a priority in the budget.

"I'm also concerned with how this will impact those that cannot afford to file some Circuit Court motions, and different cases for people that have hurt them. For those that are low income, this would definitely increase the fees for them. For businesses especially, though. And I think of small business when I talk about this. It may be just a ‘mom and pop’ store that has many clients that they work with that owe them money. Say they have 10 to 12 different cases that they want to bring to court in one day. That's going to significantly increase, and for some of them, if they are combined, it could be increased 350%. And, in this economy right now, we don't want to add additional burdens to the small business. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, I stand with reservations. And it's based on much of the same argument, that the increase in fees is at a very bad time. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Briefly, in support. Just to rebut some of those comments. This is really about access to justice. These non-profits actually serve to make sure that those low-income people that were talked about, can access the courts, they can get legal representation whenever they are brought to be a defendant in a court action, or if they need to pursue a claim in court.

"But, first and foremost, I just want to clarify that these fees, actually, are recoverable if the plaintiff ends up prevailing. The judgment costs are allowed, and costs will become part of the judgment. Therefore, it is clearly reimbursable. And so, it's more like a pass through. That's really what we're seeking in these times when we're not going to be having purchase of services, or grants-in-aid. What we need to look at is creative ways to make sure that these people who cannot access justice, cannot access the courts, can continue to do so. Otherwise justice will be meaningless. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal. It's very difficult to have access to justice, if you can't pay for it to begin with."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I just want to respond to that. This bill would continue to exempt small claims cases, petitions for restraining orders, petitions with proceeding in forma pauperis, or when you're impoverished, and all State and county filings. So, if you're talking about someone that truly can't afford it, or a small business, they probably will not be affected by this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 625, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SURCHARGE FOR INDIGENT LEGAL SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Berg, Keith-Agaran and Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 812) recommending that H.B. No. 1016, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1016, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can I get a ruling on a possible conflict. My law firm represents plaintiffs whose claims are being funded by a portion of this measure," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1016, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE, ITS OFFICERS, OR ITS EMPLOYEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 814) recommending that H.B. No. 1379, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1379, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PHYSICIAN ORDERS FOR LIFE SUSTAINING TREATMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 11:56 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1694, HD 2
H.B. No. 697, HD 1
H.B. No. 989, HD 1
H.B. No. 1371, HD 1
H.B. No. 625, HD 1
H.B. No. 1379, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 815) recommending that H.B. No. 1713, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1713, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in favor of this motion. Just to add that we also have a problem with the same landlord. We have a very rich Japanese billionaire in my area; and also in the Aina Haina Representative's district, that owns two dozen properties in a very small area, in the one small neighborhood of Kahala, and has amassed at least 16 City and County violations. So, we would also like to see some action taken on this type of landlord who neglects his property and causes visual blight, and some safety and health hazards, as well. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of House Bill 1713 HD2, which allows Civil Defense, when no emergency exists, to enter private property to mitigate hazardous situations after giving the landowner notice. The bill also provides for possible recovery and reimbursement of costs and expenses.

"This bill is similar to a bill I introduced this year. It was prompted by a real-life situation in my own district and elsewhere on the Wai'anae Coast. The flooding that took place earlier this year, creating road closures and property damage. A significant amount of the damage might have been alleviated had precautionary measures been taken beforehand to clear clogged streams and waterways that pass through or are accessed by way of private property.

"In speaking with Civil Defense personnel, I learned that they and others helping them in the flood emergency were frustrated in their attempts to gain access to private property. They were required to obtain very detailed written consent from all landowners along waterways which was very difficult and time-consuming, given the need for prompt action during a critical time.

"This bill, which has considerable community and public agency support, will make it possible to take preventive action before an emergency exists. In the case of private property, dangerous conditions may exist that pose risks of harm to adjoining landowners and others downstream. Allowing Civil Defense to enter private property, after giving proper notice to the landowner, will in the long run help not only the private owner but the community at large. The bill also provides for recovery and reimbursement of public moneys expended in this effort to make private property safer in the interest of public safety.

"I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this important measure."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. And said billionaire also has property in my district."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1713, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HAZARDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 816) recommending that H.B. No. 268, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 268, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 816, House Bill 268, House Draft 1.

"The Assistant Registrar and the Administrator of Real Property Assessment Division have been meeting to develop the process this bill calls for. So it's already being done. It's unnecessary. It will happen without the bill, so let's save paper and table this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 268, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND COURT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 817) recommending that H.B. No. 269, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 269, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 817, House Bill 269, House Draft 1.

"The Registrar of the Bureau of Conveyances and the Administrator of Real Property Assessment Division have been meeting to develop the process this bill calls for. So it's already being done. It's unnecessary. It will happen without the bill."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. No. 817, I have reservations. They're much the same as the previous bill. I just feel that this will be resolved, and the bill will be unnecessary. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 269, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 818) recommending that H.B. No. 345, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 345, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Coffman rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. The County of Hawaii worked hard over many years to get this piece of legislation passed, authorizing the Pilot Campaign Funding Authorization. There's no reason to delay this project at this time. It does not use any general funds. The special fund account is protected by a $3.5 million minimum balance. It can't go below that. A cap of $300,000 per election cycle is included to avoid any significant use of the special fund account.

"In meeting with the Campaign Spending Commission, I asked them if they would be able to support this Pilot Project; and their answer was 'yes.' Again, there is no reason to delay this project. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in strong opposition, and would like to make a few comments. As noted by the previous speaker, last year, this Body passed Act 244, which established a Pilot Program for publicly funded campaigns for the Hawaii County Council. This bill was the result of a long term, successful, collaborative effort among voter-owned election advocates, concerned members of the public, and the Hawaii County Council, who had lent the Pilot Project its full support.

"The benefits of publicly financed elections were evident to all last year. The potential to draw out fresh, new candidates who represented a broader cross section of the community; the elimination of influence and special interests, or private wealth from political campaigns; greater public trust in government; and more active citizen participation in the political process.

"Advocates of this measure before us today appear to fall into two categories. The first group of advocates argue that there's simply not enough money allotted to this Pilot Project because of the equalizing funds provision. The second group supports delay because they believe that publicly funded elections is simply a bad idea. If the criticism truly is a lack of funding, then let's look at addressing this problem by raising the current cap by modifying the equalizing funds provision. However, as drafted, simply delaying this inception date, without addressing the purported concerns, is to delay for four years, the start of this Pilot Program. Such a delay sends a strong message to the public that this Body is not committed to voter-owned elections. It is fodder for public cynicism, that government is incapable of operating in any way other than business as usual. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, the Campaign Spending Commission in testimony on House Bill 345 urged the Legislature to be proactive rather than passively await possible litigation involving the equalizing fund provisions of Act 244, Session Laws of Hawaii 2008. The bill before us would delay the implementation of the public funding of Hawaii County Council elections to allow us to further study the issues raised by the Supreme Court's decision in David v. Federal Election Commission. This case was the basis for the Federal District Court order in McComish v. Brewer, No. 2:08-cv-1550, Order (Aug. 29, 2008), and found Arizona's equalizing fund provision "violates the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution."

"As we have received no information from the Attorney General regarding the application of the above cited cases on this bill, I believe that it is necessary to keep this bill alive as a vehicle to address these underlying concerns and prevent an invalidation of the Hawaii law."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, and may I just offer some brief comments. As one who worked with the former Chair of Judiciary on this bill, this was something that went from a large, statewide program into a pilot project. So, this is a very important measure, but when I met with the Campaign Spending Commission, I was left with the impression that the funding mechanism for this is really low, and that if they were to move forward, it would basically become a 'horse race.' In other words, whoever gets in and files first would get public financing, and if you didn't get in and file in time, then guess what? You're not eligible.

"It's that creation of an unlevel playing field which bothered me greatly. I hope that when the bill moves over to the Senate, that the Senate could look at it. Any kind of funding that could restore the program, I would support. But, as long as that inequity stays out there, I have to have reservations on this bill. Thank you, very much."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly, I think there's actually another category of people that oppose this bill and I would put myself in one of them. I do support publicly funded elections. I have and continue to do so. However, what's throwing a huge monkey wrench into this problem is a decision in McComish v. Brewer, in the District Court of Arizona. That decision came out on August 29, 2008, after we passed out the Publicly Funded Pilot Project for the Big Island. And, unfortunately, in that case, they found that the equalizing funds is a violation of the First Amendment.

"Now, of course people will argue whether we are bound to that decision, is not necessarily dispositive. But, my concern is, that case does not go to trial until December 2009. After that, it's almost a certainty that that case will go up on appeal. And when it goes on appeal, it will go before the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals. We are part of the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals. Because this decision is based on the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, any decision rendered by the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals will be binding upon us, and will be binding upon this program.

"And so, what I would hate to happen, is for us to continue along this path, getting near 2010, getting near the election of 2010, suddenly the decision comes out that is completely out of our hands, and then all of a sudden, the Big Island County Council races are thrown totally up in the air into a complete uncertainty. And that, to me, is an untenable situation. And so, for that reason, I support a delay, at least until we see how the landscape and how the dust settles. At that time we can decide how we are to proceed. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. I wanted to add to this discussion, because there's also another reason, I think, we should forward this bill and keep it alive for discussion, and that is basically the real cost of implementing this. There was discussion about the equalizing funds, and for the candidates that want to use this program. But, I think there's more to that. There's so much that has to be done to actually implement this program. It's a lot of staff work, a lot of reports need to be generated, a lot of information technology and reports that have to be created and processes. And, this is a very time-consuming process, so all these policies and procedures have to be put in place.

"Right now, we're struggling with our economy, and I know that different State agencies have pointed out what the true costs of some of these programs are, and yet, the Executive branch is asking for all of these different divisions within these departments to cut back. So, I think it's legitimate to have this discussion and let Finance and our budget analysts really look at what the impact of this has on that department, especially at a time we're asking them to cut back. So, I think keeping the discussion going forward is a good thing at this time. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, just in response. To the speaker from Pearl City, I would like to acknowledge and concede to his point that there is a third category, and would like to acknowledge that. To the previous speaker, I think how I'd like to respond is that, of any State agency, I feel confidence in the State Campaign Spending Commission to execute and implement this program.

"The testimony before the Judiciary Committee revealed that they are well on their way to preparing for this program. As a former State Campaign Spending Commissioner, I know that they are very competent staff people who do very good work. And again, I have full confidence that they could execute on this given their budgeting as it stands now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I wholeheartedly support the concept of public financing for political candidates. The goal of public financing is to level the playing field and provide all candidates with an equal opportunity to run for office -- and win, regardless of their personal wealth or corporate sponsorship. This equal opportunity would promote ideals of democracy and a government that is truly for the people and by the people. That said, the logistics of public financing is not simple. Currently, there are legal challenges that jeopardize the Big Island's implementation of Act 244 and questions about whether there is enough funding to support the public financing goals. For these reasons, I am voting to move this bill forward for further discussion, but with reservations."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 345, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 13 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Brower, Ching, Coffman, Hanohano, C. Lee, Luke, Morita, Rhoads, Saiki, Takumi and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 826) recommending that H.B. No. 1525, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1525, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of HB 1525, which relates to the awarding of Medicaid contracts by the Department of Human Services to non-profit insurance entities.

"The bid process for the QExA program was egregiously slanted. For example, one requirement was that you had to be a provider of managed care for the aged, blind and disabled population. Well guess what? DHS did not have a managed care program for this population in Hawaii at the time of the QExA bidding process. So, no Hawaii insurance company could possibly meet the QExA bid requirements: not HMSA, not Kaiser, not AlohaCare, not HMAA, not any local insurance company.

"This explains why AlohaCare's bid to be a QExA provider was returned unopened. This may also explain why my repeated requests to DHS for copies of the two winning bids have still remained unanswered.

"Who got the QExA contracts? Let me quote from HGEA's testimony in support of this bill:

> The two for-profit companies, United Health Group, Inc. and WellCare Health Plans, Inc., have been accused of fraud on the Mainland. Last month, the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) stopped WellCare from marketing and enrolling new members in its Medicare-backed drug and medical plans. CMS said that WellCare used forged enrollment applications and provided misleading or inaccurate information to potential customers of these plans. CMS also found WellCare's performance to be substandard in numerous areas and one of the worst performers among all plans. They also had complaints numbering three times the national average.

"This bill is not about curbing competition; it is about patient safety and quality of care. I firmly believe in competition, but not when it is obviously unfair as is the case here.

"Please support this measure."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. It's because of the befuddling fact that it puts an uneven playing field between profits and non-profits, and if it's about the AlohaCare flap, I think they should be open about it. This seems to be a little bit underhanded to do that. Oftentimes, for-profit has been shown to be less expensive than the non-profits. As we know, non-profits have been skyrocketing their numbers and salaries, etc. So, I think this bill is really making the playing field uneven, and to the disadvantage of the taxpayers, who will end up having to pay more for their healthcare. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"I just wanted to briefly rebut what was just stated. This bill, actually, it may appear to be not in support of competition. The fact is, is that the people that support this bill are totally in support of competition, but they just want fair competition.

"And, I just wanted to share a bit about the bid process for the QExA contracts. One of the requirements was that you had to be a provider of managed care for aged, blind, disabled at the time of the bidding. Well, guess what? Hawaii did not have managed care for the aged, blind, disabled at the time of the bidding process, so, no Hawaii insurer could qualify. HMSA, Kaiser, HMAA, AlohaCare, none of them were eligible. And this explains why AlohaCare's bid was actually returned unopened from the bid process.

"So, that's why this bill, which may seem like a drastic measure, is necessary, and I urge my colleagues to support it for further discussion."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in rebuttal, and in opposition. I will concede to the point in the way that the language was written, that excluded some non-profits, probably was very unjust, but it does not justify the fact that, now, we're just going to make it only for non-profits. So, I think there's something very wrong with that language.

"I just simply believe that what this bill does, for example, for those of you who don't really know, it allows the Department of Human Services to restrict Medicaid contract awards solely and only to non-profit insurance entities. And, I just believe that this concept is false, and I oppose this bill because it's bad for Hawaii's healthcare consumers. It does not allow competition if it's only for non-profits. Currently, those that do have the contracts are for-profits. And, there is an image out there, and a belief, that non-profits in healthcare are bad people. And, I do have to say that the companies that currently do have some of our contracts are actually reducing costs for the State of Hawaii, and therefore reducing costs for the state taxpayer.

"And so, I just believe that we should not pass this bill at this time. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. The Hawaii State Constitution does not allow the issuance of special revenue bonds to hospitals that are for-profit. And, this reminds me of Hawaii Health System, in my district.

"The idea is that non-profits are somehow more deserving of obtaining State assistance, since there is no profit involved to raise the costs. The same principals should be applied to the awarding of Medicaid contracts to non-profits only, as well. Non-profits do not charge the State for their profits, so they can keep the costs down. Many other types of State assistance, such as grants-in-aid, also show preferences for non-profits. Medicaid contracts should be no different. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"Sorry, I just wanted to briefly rebut what was said earlier, about this being bad for consumers. The reason that this bill seems so drastic is that the current situation is really bad for consumers, and I wanted to just quote briefly from HCA's testimony:

"The two for-profit companies, United Health Group and WellCare Health Plans, have been accused of fraud on the mainland. Last month, the federal centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services stopped WellCare from marketing and enrolling new members in its Medicare-backed drug and medical plans. CMS said that WellCare used forged enrollment applications and provided misleading or inaccurate information to potential customers of these plans. CMS also found WellCare's performance to be substandard in numerous areas and one of the worst performers among all plans. They also had complaints numbering three times the national average."

"So, to me, this bill really is about protecting the consumer."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just in rebuttal, again. I think the key word there was 'accused.' I think a lot of us, in our official capacities have been accused of many things. But, the result is, what are they doing for Hawaii? And, the facts are, that for Hawaii residents, they are doing a good job. They are lowering the cost for all taxpayers.

"This bill infers that this kind of free and open competition does not benefit consumers, and I think the fact, later on is, as this process moves forward, will prove that it in fact, does. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 1525 – Relating to Medicaid. The proposed bill allows for procurement of all Medicaid contacts in the State and that DHS shall solicit proposals only from non-profit insurance entities and award contracts only to non-profit insurance entities. I am concerned that the language is too broad and the lack of open competition could lower the quality of service that people receive.

"The State Procurement Office says, 'HRS Chapter 103F applies to all state agencies, and should not place restrictions on a specific procurement for one agency. If there is justification for this particular procurement to be restricted to non-profit organization, it should be addressed in the competitive request proposals document, or it has a broader application, in the Medicaid administrative rules. The State must maintain a fair and equitable treatment of all providers, who deal with the procurement processes of the State.' Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1525, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAID," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Marumoto, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 827) recommending that H.B. No. 87, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 87, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1438, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1713, HD 2
H.B. No. 268, HD 1
H.B. No. 345

H.B. No. 1438, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 834) recommending that H.B. No. 272, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 272, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII REGISTERED AGENTS ACT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 837) recommending that H.B. No. 172, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 172, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in strong opposition. Just a quick word is that this is still continuing to implement the No Child Left Behind Act, and holding schools to loose standards that just as a rote learning experience, which has proven to be a failure. We shouldn't be going down this road anymore. I really think we need to get rid of the Act, and then we can really look at our schools. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, in opposition. A couple comments. Basically, President Obama's new Education Secretary, Arne Duncan, and Congress, will be amending No Child Left Behind to make the law more fair in the coming years, on how we measure our students. I believe we should not be jumping the gun before President Obama, Secretary Duncan, and Congress have the opportunity to amend this piece of legislation. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This particular bill is about reconstituting schools. Mr. Speaker, there's been some comments in regards to NCLB, and if you take a look and you talk to people, teachers, parents, principals, Department of Education, there's a section, or quite a few people in there that said, if it weren't for NCLB, some significant changes may not be happening today. I understand, and as a previous speaker has spoken, that there may be some changes in NCLB to make it, quote unquote, 'fairer.'

"Maybe there are some changes that need to be made. But overall, putting teeth in accountability for our kids' education, making sure that we are moving in the right direction of educating our kids, is very important. Assessments and tests are very important. You don't, as some say, 'throw the baby out with the bathwater,' because of maybe some negative effects of NCLB.

"Having said that, in regards to reconstituting schools, sometimes the formula of a school of the people who are there, whether it be teachers or principals or whatever, it's not the best mix for that particular school. It's very, very difficult to have, either teachers or principals move from one school to the other. And, we should at least have our thoughts moving towards what is best for the kids. What combination of teachers or principals are best for those kids, so that they can have a learning environment that is best for their learning.

"And I think by automatically saying 'no,' I don't think that the DOE, we should not be able to do that. I think it's wrong. I think we should be looking out for our kids and what best learning environment there might be, instead of looking at, how do we protect people. We have to think about creating the best learning environment for our kids. That could mean that for that particular combination of people, at that school, that might not be the right combination. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not perfect. No Child Left Behind is not perfect. But one thing that will never wither away in both of those is accountability. Even though they're going to amend it, accountability is going to be built into it. We face a crisis in education in this country. For the first time in the history of America, in this State, people 40 years old and above, are more educated than people who are 20 years old and below.

"We are 'dumbing down' our future generations. Usually, the kids are always smarter than their parents. Now it's in reverse. That is a very, very bad sign. We're slipping into third-world education. We've got to have accountability. It won't go away, and this bill gives and empowers accountability. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill was proposed by the Superintendent of Education and would allow for the reconstitution of a public school that has been in restructuring for four or more school years. I am concerned that the Superintendent would seek legislative relief before addressing these issues in good faith with our public sector unions. The bill has been amended by the House Education and Labor Committees to require that these procedures be negotiated with the respective unions, which is why I am now able to support these proposals.

"As passed by Congress, the "No Child Left Behind" legislation explicitly left intact any existing collective bargaining agreements and protected the rights of teachers, principal and other school employees. There is nothing in the law that prevents the Superintendent from seeking amendments to these contracts to provide for the extreme case of a school that has not been able to make any progress. Obviously in this case, we must seek some other remedy.

"I am concerned that as the criteria for passing the test approaches one hundred percent under the "No Child Left Behind" law, every public school will soon find themselves failing as the law would require that every test be absolutely perfect -- an unobtainable criteria which will eventually sentence every public school in the nation to failure."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 172 Relating to Reconstituting Schools. I am concerned that this bill might have a negative impact on teachers. It seems the DOE will have the power to remove or transfer teachers to another institution, not because of anything they personally have done wrong, but because the school as a whole is not performing at an acceptable level. Having been a teacher myself, I do worry that this bill might not be fair to our educators. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. I wasn't going to say anything, but when two members of the Minority Caucus support the bill, sort of an out-of-body experience, if you know what I mean.

"I actually support this bill for different reasons than the Minority Leader. I actually don't support No Child Left Behind. I believe a high-stakes testing, one-size-fits-all approach is not the way we do school reform.

"However, in this particular bill, I urge colleagues to actually read the bill. When you reconstitute a school under this measure, it has to take into account many other factors besides just test scores. I can tell you, Mr. Speaker, if we see schools that are not doing well, I can assure you they are falling short in a number of areas, not just test scores. They more than likely have a high absenteeism rate. They do not have strong leadership. They have teachers who may not be as committed or dedicated or highly qualified as we may want. They lack community support. The children in that campus may not feel healthy and safe. The curriculum might need some tweaking. It may not be sequential or an integrator. There are just many factors that go into whether a school is successful or not.

"But, I do agree on a central premise, that if a school does well, or if a school does not do well, I look at the adults in that school, and not the children. I frankly think it's the adults in that school that make or break a school.

"So, what this bill really does, is to give the superintendent another tool, granted, a heavy tool, a 'draconian' measure to look at whether or not you walk into a school and say, 'We're going to reconstitute this campus.' There are 26 states that have this measure that would allow a superintendent to do this. I think, again, it is just one approach. It's not the absolute approach.

"If you read the studies, and I urge colleagues to read the Fordham Foundation study that was done. They looked at Prince George's County in Maryland, where they studied six elementary schools that were reconstituted in 1996, and they went back and looked at those schools in the year 2000, and how they did.

"We should do things, Members, based on research, based on what makes sense, but ultimately, and most of all, what helps our children. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to adopt the words of the previous speaker, the Chair of Education. However, aside from the NCLB comments, and just like to say we do agree on some things."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 172, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RECONSTITUTING SCHOOLS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Bertram, Coffman and McKelvey voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 840) recommending that H.B. No. 985, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 985, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Nakashima rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, strong school communities and the delivery of quality public education continue to be a great concern of mine as a former educator. The advent of Act 51, with its academic and financial plans, shifted schools' focus away from the school-based budgeting process that has been a hallmark of the greater school autonomy granted by the legislature.

"I authored House Bill 985, HD2 Relating to Education, which is included in the House Majority Package. This bill is an important initiative in an effort to insure that schools comply with existing law that requires the school to solicit input from parents, teachers, students and the community in the allocation of school resources. This bill is a significant first step toward creating greater responsiveness and transparency in school level decision making.

"Transparency, responsiveness, and community support is especially important at a time when our schools face dwindling resources with which to teach our children."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On this measure, Relating to Education, HB 985, School Finances and School Community Councils Appeals Process, I stand with reservations. Thank you. This bill requires fiscal accountability measures at the school level, and requires the BOE to develop an appeals process for school community councils.

"Mr. Speaker, in Act 51, there was a combination of parts that talked about how a school works, what authority a principal has, the government structure, that kind of thing. I've always been under the system that you have to try as best as possible, to push the decision-making down to the lower level, to the school level. By creating a process of appeals, it's really no different than what they're doing now. Anytime there's disagreement at the school level, they say, 'Okay, go up the chain of command,' and then it gets lost somewhere. Mr. Speaker, I think that's one of the reasons why I'm not supportive of doing that kind of thing.

"I hate to always bring up the Charter School system, but the Charter School system, whether you like it or not, those decisions are pushed down to the local school level. They don't have any other place to go. So, they have to figure it out. If there's a principal that makes bad decisions, that principal, through their leadership skills, or development of those leadership skills, will eventually have to communicate, do the things that that local school board wants them to do. And there needs to be some kind of communication and leadership skills on both parts to make this happen.

"What we often do is, we take those decision-making things out of the school level. That, I think is not the right thing to do. It wastes time. It takes away attention from what can be done at the school level. I understand why this bill is being submitted, or introduced, and that's because maybe we don't like the way principals make decisions in our communities. Well, then there should be an accountability measure at that school to correct that. There should be a way that the School Community Council can make something happen at the School Community Council. You can't do a 'one size fits all' approach, and that's what this bill basically does. It doesn't give credit to those principals who do a good job at communicating with their SCCs. It doesn't allow for school principals that, if they have an SCC that doesn't work, that they can take the leadership skills and move forward for the sake of the children.

"This is a very delicate matter, I understand that. But letting us, the 76 of us, determine what happens at the school level, I think is something that just causes confusion in the whole governance system of the Department of Education and in our education system. So therefore, I am with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, in my previous life, I worked for a very large organization, AT&T. And, after that, I worked for the Department of Land and Natural Resources in Washington State. And I can tell you, when you have a very large organization, after a while, you learn that sometimes you have to definitely have process spelled out for people.

"I believe that the Chairman of Education has been working on this topic of School Community Councils for several years now, and I think, as we work with this concept, we learn that sometimes we have to have standard operating procedures. So, I think that it's time to keep fine tuning this, and I think this is good, because, as we know, we have so many schools in our Department of Education, and I think that this is the right thing to do. "

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 985, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 841) recommending that H.B. No. 1376, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1376, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to HB 1376. I am a little puzzled by this particular measure. I don't know why the Education Committee is advancing it. But, it would create a Commission to be appointed by the Governor to study certain aspects of our schools. And I believe the Department of Education is already pursuing the same type of study. So, I'm just concerned in that, if the two bodies, the two Commissions come out with different information, different results, different recommendations, it could be confusing to all of us concerned. Thank you, very much."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, thank you very much, Mr. Speaker and Members. I wish to speak with some reservations. Again, in all due respect to the Chairman. On this particular measure, on facilities, I believe it is the elected Board of Education's policy-making role to act on this particular measure and not the Legislature. However, I am aware that this bill is supposed to be a spur for them to act.

"But again, the danger that we are undertaking is that if we continue to make policy for the Board of Education, and the Board of Education just becomes more lethargic and does not carry out their responsibilities. A lot of the measures that we are passing should be the Board of Education's policy role. Constitutionally, they have that right. We have provided them the power to make policies for the Department of Education.

"So, we have a dual situation. We're making policy, and the Board is making policy, and it creates a lot of confusion. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support, with just a few comments. Speaking as a Representative from the district where probably the first school will be closed shortly, I'm concerned about this whole issue of consolidation of schools, of course, as a Vice Chair, and also as a Representative of that district. At first, I wasn't real comfortable with the notion of having a Commission that would actually look generically at the criteria for schools to be consolidated, or to have the disposition decided. However, going through the process with my district school, I believe that having one Commission, one Council, one entity that will look at the whole process, and that have fair criteria, perhaps will be a little bit more reassuring to communities, rather than leaving it up to the different districts or different complexes or superintendents to decide the fate of certain schools.

"So, I rise in support of this, and I look forward to seeing what happens when it goes to the Senate. Thank you."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 841, House Bill 1376 House Draft 1, Relating to Education. This measure creates the Facilities Alignment Commission (FAC) to establish criteria for the selection of public schools to be constructed, expanded, consolidated, or closed, and recommend a list of areas for new school construction, and of schools for expansion, consolidation, or closure. This also requires the Board of Education (BOE) to comply with these recommendations if the legislature does not disapprove of them in their entirety. I support this bill to ensure effective planning for our schools.

"The Department of Education (DOE) currently has a "matrix" of their priorities for all capital improvement projects which is ultimately approved by the BOE. While the Department sets the priorities on the matrix, this list of priorities is inefficient in that we simply are not building schools fast enough or making repairs in a timely manner. This bill will help address these concerns by streamlining the priority listing.

"The FAC is an important step in having the DOE and BOE review, evaluate and make the best use of its assets and resources. The FAC would consider multiple issues when making recommendations to close, open, or consolidate schools. Furthermore, considerations such as the overuse or underuse of school facilities, school academic success, and whether the successes of schools are due to school size, will also be taken into account. Finally, a macro-perspective will be utilized by taking into consideration the best interests of the students, the best way to preserve their potential for success, and the impact of the consolidation or closure of a school, including the costs of deferred and future repair and maintenance. These recommendations would be made followed with public hearings to get appropriate public response to these recommendations. This would further ensure an objective and transparent process in systemwide planning.

"In Kapolei, the growing "Second City," the population of young families and the corresponding demand for schools is only increasing, while schools in other areas are aging and are underutilized. The FAC created by this measure would streamline the process and guide resources to areas that most need them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1376, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Ching, C. Lee, Marumoto, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 842) recommending that H.B. No. 242, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 242, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 242 HD 1. As amended, this measure would play a vital role in supporting a more diversified agriculture industry in Hawaii. Currently, our State's farmers are oftentimes unable to make full use of – and therefore profit from – lesser grade produce. The proposed added-value processing facilities called for in this bill would therefore do much to broaden what can be made from such produce by providing our farmers with the means to develop newer, more innovative products such as guava jelly and pineapple juice. Utilizing off-grade produce in this manner would generate far higher returns for our agricultural producers while enhancing their financial stability in the process. Ultimately, then, these facilities would open the door to manufacturing a more extensive range of "Made in Hawaii" products that may be more easily exported than fresh goods, adding both value and a far longer shelf life to produce that might otherwise have gone to waste.

"HB 242 HD 1 would accomplish this important endeavor by appropriating funds for the planning and modification of value-added processing facilities at Maui Community College (MCC) and Del Monte. Already, MCC's Maui Culinary Academy has developed products that have added value to sugar, pineapple, and grape products grown on Maui. The Culinary Academy is also working with the Maui Cattle Company to develop products for non-prime cuts of beef. These efforts highlight the tremendous scope of untapped potential that can be harnessed through the creation of value-added processing facilities across the State. In the midst of our present economic crisis, and with this Body charged with the task of generating revenue rather than spending it, I believe that appropriating funds for such facilities represents a worthwhile investment in our future, and therefore urge my fellow colleagues to support HB 242 HD 1 and help Hawaii's struggling agricultural producers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of H.B. 242 - Relating to Agriculture I believe this bill gives the opportunity to diversify the products that can be offered to consumers and provide products that may be more easily exported than fresh goods, such as cacao. The proposed facility will fulfill a vital need toward making our agriculture industry sustainable and will help address food security issues as well. The ability to create value-added products from agriculture resources is a win-win for both economy and agriculture.

"The Department of Agriculture states, 'The Hawaii Department of Agriculture recognizes the importance of value added processing as a component that can utilize lesser grade produce and add income to a farming operation. It also diversifies the products that can be offered to consumers and provides products that may be more easily exported than fresh goods. We greatly appreciate your committee's interest in assisting our agriculture procedures to obtain higher returns for their products and thereby achieve greater financial stability.' Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 242, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 843) recommending that H.B. No. 318, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 318, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 318 HD1, Relating to Vog Research. The bill appropriates an unspecified amount of federal funds under the Homeland Security Grant program to study vog and find specific varieties of crops resistant to vog.

"I have reservations because I'm just not sure what Homeland Security has to do with this. Can we even use this funding source? Would it be hard to meet grant requirements? Is it allowed?

"Even the State Department of Defense isn't sure on that one, and testified that the funding might be more appropriately taken from another source.

"For these reasons, I am voting with reservations on HB 318 HD1, Relating to Vog Research."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 318, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VOG," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 844) recommending that H.B. No. 1433, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1433, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of HB 1433 HD 2, which proposes much-needed improvements to the inspection, quarantine, and eradication fee collection process. Specifically, this measure would strengthen the funding mechanism for the Hawaii Biosecurity Program by establishing fines for those who fail to pay for or remit the fee, while also clarifying the scope of that fee by making exemptions for cement and liquid bulk freight.

"It goes without saying that, over the years, the threat of invasive species has increased manifold. In the absence of adequate funding, both our agriculture industry and our environment have been losing the war, whether against the coqui frog, miconia, or some other as-of-yet undiscovered, newly introduced pest. The passage of the Hawaii Biosecurity Plan in 2008 signified a landmark moment for Hawaii to begin turning the tide against invasive species. The comprehensive plan and its corresponding cargo-fee funding mechanism have together heralded a renewed sense of optimism concerning our ability to safeguard the State from unwanted pests. In hindsight, given the adverse effects of our unprecedented global recession, it was indeed a wise decision to shift the funding mechanism for our State's inspection and quarantine services from one of dependence upon volatile and unpredictable general funds, to one based firmly on a fee-for-service model.

"This fee, and the fines imposed for failing to pay or remit it, are essential if we are to fully implement our innovative and comprehensive Biosecurity Plan, which has already made Hawaii the nation's leader in the prevention of invasive species. The upfront costs associated with bringing the program online are essential if we are to create a more efficient and streamlined infrastructure to deal with the high volume of imported cargo that must be painstakingly inspected for unwanted pests.

"Simply put, we cannot develop a sustainable agriculture industry if parasitic varroa mites infect our honey bees, thus compromising their ability to pollinate farm crops. We cannot have a thriving and robust tourism industry if aggressive red imported fire ants invade our parks, golf courses, and beaches, attacking visitors and tourists alike with their venomous sting. And we cannot expect to have a reliable energy source if opportunistic brown tree snakes inadvertently short-circuit our power lines on a regular basis, causing island-wide blackouts as is the case in Guam. The costs associated with the introduction of such pests far outweigh the perceived inconvenience of paying for the inspection, quarantine, and eradication fee, or its associated fine. In closing, I therefore urge my fellow colleagues to join me in my support of HB 1433 HD 2. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do have some with reservations for Stand. Com. No. 844. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill establishes fines for failing to pay or remit the Inspection, Quarantine and Eradication Fee, and exempts liquid bulk freight and cement bulk freight from the fee. The Committee set a fine of $100 per every half ton for failing to pay the fee.

"Mr. Speaker, this particular bill comes from last year, where we enacted this inspection fee, and I was against that bill at the time, because of the increase in cost of goods for residents, and I'm still not in support of it. Mr. Speaker, also, I believe the Department of Agriculture has also had a difficult time in finding people to do some of the work that is supposed to be funded by this Fund.

"Again, this is an increase in cost of goods. I don't agree with the Act in the first place, even though a lot of money is going into inspection. But, what this does is, most of the people who are not paying for this particular fee are airlines. It's the airlines that aren't paying for it. And, that's a place where we didn't charge in the first place, in regards to these types of fees.

"But what happens is, if you put on top of that another 'failure to pay' type of fine, I don't think that that's good for the airline companies. And these airline companies, later on in the agenda, we have another bill that wants to help these airline companies by not charging them the GET on their fuel. So, if you want to help the interisland airlines, I don't think that this measure is a good one. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. In 2008, Chapter 150A was passed by this Body to address invasive species. This bill simply helps to provide clarification on that measure by excluding cement bulk freight and liquid bulk freight for which this measure was not intended. I support this housekeeping measure and I ask other Members to be just as supportive in taking protective steps as we work forward in addressing invasive species. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with auditory comments.

[Sound of coqui frogs.]

"And, because of that, I'm for the bill."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I support HB 1433, which amends the law relating to cargo fees by exempting cement and liquid bulk freight, allowing fines to be levied for the failure to pay the appropriate cargo fees, and requiring that money paid in fines be deposited into the pest inspection, quarantine, and eradication fund. I applaud the primary author of this bill. If this bill becomes law, it will help to protect our economy and our fragile ecosystem from invasive species by setting forth consequences for individuals who fail to pay the existing cargo fees. I also hope this measure will help to address problems caused by the lack of adequate funds to fully implement eradication measures for alien species."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1433, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INVASIVE SPECIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 12:37 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 272, HD 1
H.B. No. 172, HD 2
H.B. No. 985, HD 2
H.B. No. 1376, HD 1
H.B. No. 242, HD 1
H.B. No. 318, HD 1
H.B. No. 1433, HD 2

At 12:37 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:49 o'clock p.m., with the Speaker presiding.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 846) recommending that H.B. No. 281, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 281, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to Stand. Com. Report No. 846, Relating to the Environment, I'd just like to vote with reservations. I just have concerns that it might be too prescriptive. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 281, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sagum and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 850) recommending that H.B. No. 574, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 574, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to Stand. Com. No. 850, Relating to the deposit beverage container program, in opposition. I know that in the Governor's proposal for the budget, this is one of the areas where she's suggesting that there be a raid. Instead of expanding the program right now, we're under, like we said, a really different situation this year, where we have to make up for a lot of money, and balancing the budget.

"And so, instead of expanding programs, we should be, not necessarily moving forward on any expansions, and looking for ways that we can balance the budget. I think this is an additional $9 million we would have to make up. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 574, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT BEVERAGE CONTAINER PROGRAM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Finnegan and Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Sagum and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 851) recommending that H.B. No. 834, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 834, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to oppose Standing Committee Report 851, House Bill 834, Relating to Water Quality Standards. Mr. Speaker, Mayor Hannemann came over to our Committee and asked us to support the bill to reduce our water quality standards, and this is because of the City's ongoing litigation where it has been sued by the Sierra Club and other environmental groups for contaminating the water with their waste water treatment emissions. They've been found in violation by the federal government, as well. The bill, plain and simple, lowers water quality standards for Oahu, and it does it by tying Hawaii's fragile ecosystem to federal standards, that are based upon East Coast waters.

"Those East Coast waters are vastly different from our subtropical ecosystem. And it's well known that among the many differences, Hawaii residents eat three times as much fish, and we enjoy our beaches year-round, compared to our mainland counterparts. So, tying us to East Coast standards really doesn't make any sense.

"We also go much further offshore, snorkeling, surfing, sailing and fishing, and so the infrequent use designation for waters 500 meters out, simply doesn't apply to Hawaii.

"Since this measure is before the courts, we're being asked by the Mayor to step in, in the middle of the litigation, and I always think that's a bad idea, when people come to the Capitol and say, Let's impact what's going on in the Judicial system.'

"I think that this bill should not move forward, and in the event it does, I hope our side rethinks it, and does not go to Conference Committee on it. Thank you. And, I think our surfers, snorkelers, fishermen, fisherwomen, all of them will appreciate it if we keep our waters clean. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to comment on the previous speaker saying that we're doing this for an elected official, and I don't believe that. I actually believe that sometimes issues come before us, and they come before us in many ways. This just happens to have been on the front page of the paper, this discussion about a wastewater treatment plant. Sometimes when issues like that come forward, it makes us rethink and revisit our regulations, and this brought to our attention water quality standards.

"I think it's very appropriate for this Body to actually be looking at it, now that our consciousness was raised on this issue. And, when we heard some discussion in our Caucus from the Chairs that were involved in this, it seems that our water quality standards have not been changed in many, many years. And so, it's very appropriate for us to move this forward. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Through my district runs the pipelines from the wastewater sewage plant in upper Ewa. This would directly impact my constituents that use the ocean in Ewa Beach, and I can tell you that they are not in favor of this bill.

"As the previous speaker who spoke in opposition to the bill, from Kailua said, that Hawaii's very different. And now we're trying to apply some different standards from the mainland. And, so on behalf of my constituents, I definitely speak against this measure, and think that we should be a lot more special than that. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I'm one of the attorneys that represents the plaintiffs that have sued the City over their wastewater treatment plant," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Awana rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. If we are to override Administrative Rules, I do not see this measure as tightening up our water quality standards. Instead, I see it as lowering the standards which may ultimately lead to the detriment of those who live in our island state.

"The Office of Hawaiian Affairs had provided testimony on this measure. The existing standards are not conducive to the complexities to our island state. Coral reefs around the State are disappearing and near-shore reef fish have migrated to other areas to survive. Certain species of fish are deemed toxic and inedible for human consumption.

"Therefore, I believe to lower these standards and to pass this measure will be sending a message that our environment can be compromised. I have grave concerns on this and cannot support this measure. However, I appreciate the Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection in her attempt at bringing attention to the lackluster inattentiveness of the Department of Health in updating the standards that have long been overdue. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"From our bays and beaches, to our streams and their watersheds, Hawaii has among the highest water quality standards in the nation that has protected our environment and everyone who plays, swims and drinks this precious resource.

"The Department of Health has been tasked with revising Hawaii's water quality standards, but has been unable to follow through since 2005. House Bill 834 assigns the Legislature the power to decide Hawaii's water quality standards since the Department of Health has been stalled so long. However, I rise in opposition to this measure, not only because this bill lowers Hawaii's overall water quality standards to match minimum federal requirements without regard to Hawaii's unique marine environment, but moreover, because it places such responsibility with the Legislature.

"We are not a scientific body, and we are not equipped to make complicated decisions with regard to the specific science behind our water quality standards. As history has shown, the Legislature is a forum to bring all to the table and come up with a compromise. However, some policies cannot and should not be compromised, and our water quality is one of them. In the past as a matter of policy we have left these standards to best science in the Department of Health. Moving these standards back to the realm of the Legislature will move these standards back to the realm of compromise, and as has been the case in many other states whose legislatures dictate water quality standards, we risk basing our water quality standards on a compromise, for better or worse, but not on best science.

"By keeping our water quality standards dictated by Administrative Rule, we ensure that proper minds with specific experience vet such standards and prevent the corruption or circumvention of our water quality laws by special interests or as a result of the political process."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 834 – Relating to Water Quality Standards. The proposed bill amends State water quality standards for marine waters to conform to federal standards in regards to pollutants for the protections of aquatic life in surface water and for the protection of human health for consumption.

"While this measure seeks to improve the water quality standards, non-priority pollutants in Hawaiian waters are unknown. If non-priority pollutants are adopted blindly, treatment plants will be required to initiate testing for these constituents, and if found at levels higher than the standards the facilities could be held liable for violation of these adopted standards.

"According to the Sierra Club, Hawaii's standards should be different due to the amount of people in the water and the high fish diet of people in the area. Laurence K. Lau, the Deputy Director of Health for the State of Hawai'i has stated that, 'fish consumption standards are 3.1 times more stringent than EPA Criteria, because the average daily consumption of fish locally estimated is higher than average'. The passage of this bill would lead to violations of federal standards that should not apply to Hawaii's waters. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"Water quality standards for pollutants usually are set by state and federal agencies after experts expend significant time, effort, and resources to ensure public health is protected. This bill, however, makes the Hawaii State Legislature become "the expert" making the decision to seriously degrade our existing water quality standards without requiring any scientific analysis of the effects these changes will have on human health or aquatic species. While this decision may help the City and County of Honolulu save money, it is not an appropriate decision for the Legislature and may come at the expense of our tourist economy, the people of Hawaii, and aquatic species. I am particularly concerned about public health risks that may be caused by these reduced water quality standards because Hawaii has a high level of fish consumption as well as large numbers of people who use (and many who frequently use) our coastal waters for recreation."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As an ocean-water swimmer, with reservations."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 834, HD2, Relating to Water Quality Standards.

"Did you know Hawaii possesses 85 percent of the coral reefs in the nation? Do federal water standards even attempt to address this sensitive part of our ecosystem?

"They do not. In fact, federal standards have never been applied to subtropical coral reefs – so how do we know what will happen if we decide to undertake that experiment?

"Already because of pollutants, some reef fish are so full of toxins that people are advised not to eat them. Do we really want to take a step toward hastening this process by loosening our standards without first getting some element of scientific certainty?

"Our wonderful beaches and our beautiful coral reefs bring tourists and are a big economic driver in our state. Do we really want to put all that at risk?

"I don't. And for that reason, I am opposed to HB 1712 HD 2, relating to fishing."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 834, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WATER QUALITY STANDARDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Awana, Berg, C. Lee, McKelvey, Pine, Saiki, Thielen and Wooley voting no, and with Representatives Sagum and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 852) recommending that H.B. No. 1483, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1483, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just needed to request to see whether I have a potential conflict of interest. Better Place Hawaii is a client of my wife," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1483, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR BETTER PLACE HAWAII, INC.," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sagum and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 857) recommending that H.B. No. 638, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 638, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill is based on two premises:

1. A contract, once protested will be prevented from starting or if started, will cause severe financial consequence for the State.

2. The administrative hearing process is lengthy because of the nature and diligence of the process.

"Because of these constraints, a protest should not be frivolous or made for an immaterial amount. Therefore the Procurement Officer shall dismiss the protest if the amount of the error is one percent or less of the bid amount of the person awarded the contract.

"Additionally, this bill requires a person protesting a bid to:

1. Deposit a protest deposit of 1% of the contract, for contracts over one million dollars, but protest deposit should not be more than $50,000.

2. The protest will be dismissed if the amount of the discrepancy is not more that 10% of the total value of the contract.

"This bill will hopefully make any protest a thoughtful one, with everyone knowing the serious consequences to protesting a bid. In addition, the procuring office can help avert protests by making the bid process clear and not conducive to misinterpretations."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and short comments. Mr. Speaker, this bill requires the dismissal of frivolous or bad faith protests. Currently, there is no explanation as to why this is necessary. There has been no favorable testimony, only negative treatment from the State Procurement Office, which has been in DAGS, and so I'm voting 'no.'"

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 638, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII PUBLIC PROCUREMENT CODE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Finnegan voting no, and with Representatives Sagum and Takai being excused.

At 1:58 o'clock p.m. Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:02 o'clock p.m.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 425, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST HONOLULU SEAWATER AIR CONDITIONING, LLC PROJECTS ON OAHU," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Sagum and Takai being excused.

At 2:05 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:47 o'clock p.m.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 863) recommending that H.B. No. 586, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 586, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 586, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE KANEOHE BAY REGIONAL COUNCIL," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 864) recommending that H.B. No. 1604, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1604, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Stand. Com. No. 864, House Bill 1604, Relating to Real Property. Thank you. This bill imposes a new tax on the value of improvements surrendered to a lessor, by a lessee, without compensation to the lessee, upon the expiration of a long-term commercial lease.

"In other words, if you rented property from me, and you built things on it, I would have to pay a brand new tax on the value of the improvement when I get the property back.

"So, even if I didn't ask for it, even if I don't want it, I still have to pay a tax on the improvement of the property. This tax would be an addition to the added tax I would end up paying anyway, because the improvements raised the property value.

"What if a lessor wanted to give a start-up business a break by providing lower lease rents at the beginning of a long term lease, by allowing the lessee to construct or install improvements on the property? This bill would certainly put an end to that practice.

"I understand, Mr. Speaker, that we are looking at ways to generate new funding sources, or new money, however, I believe that this is unfair. Thank you."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. I'd like to incorporate my comments from House Bill 1593. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to HB 1604, for several reasons. As noted by the testimony of groups like the Tax Foundation of Hawaii, there are serious constitutional concerns about this bill including whether this Body has the authority to pass this law which imposes a real property tax on improvements made by lessees and whether this proposal interferes with existing contracts. For my opposition, however, I would like to emphasize the negative unintended consequences this bill may result in. For example, this bill could deter lessors from entering into long-term leases, which will reduce the pool of residential and commercial properties available for our residents and businesses. If lessors do decide to enter into long-term leases in spite of this law, they may decide to prematurely demolish lessee improvements to avoid paying the tax, which would be economically wasteful. For all of these reasons, I oppose HB 1604."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I wanted to make a couple comments, the first one on the Minority Leader's comments about lessors who may say, 'I'm getting something I didn't want.' Well, I'd beg to differ on that, because when you negotiate an agreement with any lessee, you always negotiate on the improvements that are going to be put in by the lessee.

"Personally, I've been involved in this business of helping lessees deal with lessors, and I have to tell you, that will come up in a negotiation. You put in the lease that you want it returned to its original condition. That is what you put in the lease. Unless, you see that you'd get the windfall. The windfall being, maybe a building, an outdoor structure. Maybe it is the waterline. Maybe it is the new road.

"I support this bill, because at the end of the day, it's not about real property. It's about improvements done by a lessee, and a lessor choosing not to have it returned to its original condition. And so, in the end, the lessor is getting an improvement, and a windfall. I guess you can almost say it's a capital gain, and I don't think this is a bad bill. I think it's a good idea, and I recommend we move it forward. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong's written remarks are as follows:

"HB 1604 proposes to establish a mechanism by which the public may share in the gain of a landowner to whom improvements are surrendered at the expiration of a lease of the landowner's land. This bill subjects the improvements to a tax if the lessee constructed the improvements without financial or capital assistance from the landowner and did not receive compensation equaling the value of the improvements at the time of surrender.

"We all have heard instances of commercial and industrial lessees who have been forced to surrender improvements constructed at their own expense upon the expiration of the leases. The lessees have not been compensated by the landowners for the improvements. While legal, this situation does not seem fair to the lessees.

"HB 1604 is intended to encourage a landowner to compensate a lessee for the improvements surrendered upon the expiration of the leased land. The tax is to be triggered only if the landowner does not compensate the lessee for the surrendered improvements. Thus, the landowner may choose to pay the lessee rather than the tax.

"If, however, the tax amount is less than the value of the improvements, the public will benefit from the imposition of the tax.

"HB 1604 is a progressive measure intended to promote fairness for Hawaii's businesses, particularly small businesses, in these dismal economic times. Admittedly, valid criticisms have been raised against the bill. It, however, should be moved along in the legislative process while the criticisms are examined further. Its public purpose is a good one. Consequently, HB 1604 deserves further consideration by the Senate."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1604 - Relating to Real Property. I believe this bill might cause problems for both lessors and lessees, which in-turn could have a negative impact on our communities. Kamehameha Schools state in their testimony that, 'This bill does not recognize the severe burdens and risk placed on lessors when such properties are surrendered, including the need to make expenditures on repairs, demolition and environmental remediation, which may be difficult to impossible to collect from lessess. A tax on the value of the improvements without corresponding deductions or credit to lessor for its "losses" on these reversionary events would be unfair.' In 2003 the Legislative Reference Bureau said, 'There is no indication at this time of a broad compelling need for the Legislature to pass legislation to mandate the alteration of existing lease agreements.' Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1604, Relating to Real Property.

"First off, why are we even doing this bill? No one testified in support of it. There was plenty of opposition, however.

"This tax really doesn't make any sense, and it could be considered an unconstitutional taking of private property because there's no justification that the proposed tax is rationally related to a public use or public purpose.

"It could also – depending how much the tax is and we don't even know that yet -- have a chilling effect on the leasing of real property in this State. That can't be good for the economy.

"For these reasons, I am opposed to HB 1604, Relating to Real Property."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1604, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Brower, Ching, Coffman, Finnegan, Hanohano, C. Lee, Marumoto and Saiki voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 865) recommending that H.B. No. 754, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 754, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to 865. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, in this bill, ex-officio members are to become an advisory group.

So, what it does is, it takes away the members and becomes an advisory group. It does away with the section change and who appoints the Board.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill, because there is no reason for changing the way in which the HTA Board members are currently appointed, nor is there justification for the removal of the current agency make-up of the Board. Having DOT, BLNR, DBEDT, and SFCA involved in tourism policy development at the HTA Board level is the most effective way to optimize our resources towards tourism. By demoting them to an advisory group would be very wasteful and irresponsible.

"Mr. Speaker, this is another one of those bills that there was no testimony in favor of the bill. And, I'm starting to see quite a bit of these, where we don't have any testimony in favor of the bill. Without any public support and no tangible reasoning behind this restructuring, I don't think that this is worth our doing.

"Mr. Speaker, I just think that this is very valuable to have these members on the Board, and we shouldn't be moving in this direction. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I speak in favor, but with some strong reservations. The only reason I have the reservation is because I believe this is a work in progress, and hopefully we can work it out in the Senate. But, to remove some of the members, and the advisory members, like DBEDT, I think, when you're looking at the long term and not the short term, it can be disastrous.

"DBEDT is the department that has to do with business, economic development, making predictions, and looking at the economy of the State. So if there is any place that they should be, it should be in HTA. And so Mr. Speaker, with these reservations, I would hope that as it moves on and goes onto the Senate, that we can work it out in Conference."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am voting no on this particular measure. The Minority Leader expressed very well the ramifications of this bill. You'll be taking away a lot of expertise that you might need in terms of transportation and land, and DBEDT.

"Speaker Emeritus talked in terms of looking more long term. Perhaps a lot of the newer Members of this Body are not aware that at one time, DBEDT, the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, the Tourism person, the liaison for the Governor, Marsha Wienert, at one time did have a vote. We, this Body, took away that vote. She is now ex-officio. But at least the Tourism person in the Department sat on the HTA Authority. Now we would not have her even there, except for maybe on call. And I don't think this is a wise move.

"I'm sure it is a work in progress. I would hope that we would improve it. We have a new HTA President/CEO who does not have an extensive background in tourism, and I would think that he needs all the expertise that he can muster. So I hope that this bill will change considerably before its final passage. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in support. I encourage us to look at this from a different viewpoint, and that is, if you consider what is being done, they're taking out four government agencies off of a voting Authority Board, and they are asking them to be in an advisory capacity.

"So what you're saying is the Hawaii Tourism Authority now will be focused on, if you look at the makeup of the Governor appointing the members, they will have expertise in visitor industry management, marketing, promotion, transportation, retail, entertainment, visitor attraction, have knowledge and expertise in the area of Hawaiian cultural practices. Then also no more than three members shall represent, be employed, or under contract to any sector of the industry represented on the Board.

"I think what the Chair has done, is he's really brought forth the idea of more of a focus, a primary focus from people in the industry that understand the industry, that are focused on the industry. And is asking government, government agencies, who's not main purpose it is to understand the visitor industry, whose purpose is much wider than that, and asking them to come and be advisory in nature.

"So now, you have them advisory. You have the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, you have the Department of Transportation, you have DLNR, and the Foundation on Culture and the Arts. I think this idea of them being advisory is very appropriate. Let the people who know the business be the ones on the Authority. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked the remarks of Representative Evans be inserted in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in reservation. You know when the 7.5 million visitors were coming, no one said anything. Now when they're not coming, this bill, along with the other bill about getting rid of HTA or giving them more money, or less money. I mean if you're going to stabilize an industry, you've got to have a stable institution. What this does is, it makes it wobble all the more. You're downgrading some of the best and brightest minds, at least those who are the keepers of the culture of the Tourism Authority. So the advantages that we get out of this look like three steps forward, and two backwards. If we're going to stabilize tourism, we've got to stabilize who's doing what.

"I know we've got another bill coming up to even get rid of this whole organization, which really makes this bill even moot. But if that's our big industry, we have to handle it a little bit better than we are now. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to do a short rebuttal on the comments having to do with taking away the departments' participation on the HTA.

"One is, they are going to be, according to the legislation, still giving their input, because they are in an advisory mode. So I still think that they even see the value of having those people sit on this committee. And if you're talking about focus, then why wouldn't we leave Marsha Weinert, the tourism person, in there?

"To me, now that I've heard that, now it makes me wonder, what is the underlying cause or reason for this bill in the first place? Is it just to get out, right now, the Governor's people? Because if you're looking at tourism, and we have a tourism liaison, why wouldn't that person, with all that experience, be on this Board? And be a voting member at that. Mr. Speaker, I am still in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose to respond, stating:

"I wasn't going to say anything. I'm going to insert this as my written comments. But with regards to the comments of the previous speaker, I do believe that there is a reason. I will quote the Tourism Liaison's testimony before the Finance Committee saying that, 'Tourism and our economy are facing many challenges, and we must foster cooperation and coordination now more than ever.' I agree with that statement, however I think that what is happening, the reality of what's happening on the Board, in practice, is very different.

"For example, in the Finance Committee, I did pose a question to one of the directors, who is an ex-officio member, with regards to the Recreation Renaissance. I asked them if this major, and it's a major proposal, about $240 million which also uses the HTA funding, I asked if this proposal was ever discussed at the Board level, and she told me that it was not. And I asked her, 'Why not?' and she said, 'Well, because I spoke about it with the Chairman of the Board, and the Interim Executive Director,' and apparently that was enough.

"Well, without any Board approval, I asked her if that was right. I can't go into DLNR with a $240 million project, ask for $3 or $4 million from their Board, just by talking to that Director and that Chairman of the Board. I would think that kind of a major proposal would have to go before the Board, and go before a Board vote.

"Another case in point. The tax increase on the surcharge for the rental cars. That was never brought up on the Board as well. That was never discussed, and the Board never took a position on that. The Director of that Department is also an ex-officio member, who's supposed to bring these kinds of discussions forward.

"With regards to the DBEDT representative, I met with somebody from the Creative Industries Division, who uses their marketing for statewide marketing in North America, and they were not using the Hawaii logo. So in order to keep the branding consistent, that issue has never been vetted on the Board. So my question is, if that's the case, if these issues are not coming before the Board, then what are the ex-officio members doing? And perhaps if it's the case that they are too busy to attend the hearings or go to these meetings, which is very understandable, then maybe perhaps they would better serve the HTA as an Advisory Board. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support and I'd like to submit written comments. I just want to add that some of the questions that came up during Committee hearings had a lot to do with who is making the decisions. We're talking about a Fund with over $70 million of our dollars, so we want to make sure that it's done right. I think it's important that we move this bill forward, especially for discussion. Thank you."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"The Hawaii Tourism Authority faces an uphill battle in these challenging economic times and after recently losing staff and leadership. In addition, there is an immediate need for HTA to improve its planning, accountability, and breadth of services. This year is the perfect opportunity for the legislature to work with HTA to create a better agency. I support this bill because it provides the legislature with a method (or at least the means to discuss solutions) to strengthen HTA and ensure that our taxpayer dollars are well spent."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"I just want to thank the Tourism Chair for clarifying the intent of the measure, because we weren't very clear in the hearings that we've had. It seems like there is a dissatisfaction with how some things have been run. And that some people weren't, possibly, doing the things that this body would like them to do. But that's no reason to reorganize an entire Board. I think instead we should just sit down with them, or pass measures that would more clarify the steps of how decision making should be done, but not appear to the public as having a vendetta against a particular person that perhaps did not behave the way we had wanted them to."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support, and may I ask that the words of the speaker from Kalihi, specifically District 29, be inserted as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

At 3:05 o'clock p.m. Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:08 o'clock p.m.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in support of HB 754, HD1, which will reorganize the Hawaii Tourism Authority (HTA) Board by removing the Director of Business and Economic Development, and Tourism, Director of Transportation, Chairperson of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, and Executive Director of the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts and placing them on a newly established advisory group to HTA.

"Generally, I support the bill because the change reflects reality. At present, the government members on the HTA are non-voting. Effectively, their current function is basically "advisory."

"The Chair of the Tourism Committee points out that there apparently is some indifference presently in being actively involved with the HTA Board. For example, on its most significant legislative issue of this Session, DLNR did not see the need to go to the HTA Board before proposing a raid of Transient Accommodations Tax funds to pay for that Department's important recreational renaissance initiative.

"The law presently allows these government HTA Board members to delegate their non-voting Board membership to some underling. As a result, these non-voting government directors often send designated employees to provide their non-voting input rather than attending themselves to provide their input. If these non-voting government officials are valuable as a resource providing non-voting insights on the impacts and effect of the tourism industry on government infrastructure and resources, making them advisory – and equally influential as non-voting advisors-- just matches the reality and practice with the written law.

"I strongly support this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 754, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 866) recommending that H.B. No. 863, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 863, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"The establishment of a County Transit Oriented Development Infrastructure Revolving Fund will allow the State to provide low- or no-interest loans to the counties to develop and construct infrastructure, particularly those involving affordable housing.

"This allows the State to have some role in the raising and management of the funding for such projects as affordable housing.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On that measure, Stand. Com. No. 866, I'm voting with reservations. I'm just wondering where the seed money is coming from."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 866, House Bill 863 House Draft 1, Relating to Establishing a County Transit Oriented Development Infrastructure Revolving Fund. This bill creates the County Infrastructure Development Revolving Loan Fund within the Department of Budget and Finance to provide no-interest loans to the counties for the development, pre-development, or construction of infrastructure projects to expedite the building of transit-oriented development, especially those involving affordable housing.

"The City and County of Honolulu is about to embark on the largest public works project in the State's history, known as the Honolulu High Capacity Transit Project (Project). The Project is expected to spur transit-oriented development all along the mass transit corridor. To accommodate the expected future growth in these areas, upgrades and improvements to increase capacity to infrastructure in these areas will be necessary. Making these upgrades and replacements will result in more compact, dense, and coordinated development along this transportation corridor. I support HB 863 HD1 because transit oriented development (TOD) promotes walking-friendly communities, reduces traffic congestion, air pollution, and our dependence on imported oil. It increases transit ridership, making public transportation more economically viable, with an important goal of reducing urban sprawl.

"Through this measure we can have smart growth and develop real vibrant, sustainable communities. For these reasons, I stand in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 863, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ESTABLISHING A COUNTY TRANSIT ORIENTED DEVELOPMENT INFRASTRUCTURE REVOLVING FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 867) recommending that H.B. No. 1388, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1388, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, what this bill will do is give concessions, lease rent concessions, to airport concessionaires. Here's some money for the Finance Committee, right here. If we give these people a break in their lease rent, that is less money that the Finance Committee has to be able to deal with the serious deficit that we have. Why should we single them out for this favored treatment? If we do that, shouldn't we look at anyone that is renting State land and say that we're doing it for the airport concessionaires, so we're now going to do it across the board for everyone in the State? I think that this just doesn't make sense.

"Yes it's a tough time. And yes, everyone has to work hard to make it. But we don't need to say to this one group, 'You're favored above everyone else.' We won't give the Finance Committee the money that they should be getting, Finance Committee, from these rents, because we're going to say that those concessionaires get a reduced rent. I would think that every Member in this Body who voted against the bill that would give lease concessions to the Mapunapuna tenants, should be voting down on this as well. As well as, I hope a lot of others that don't like the unfairness of this; that we single out one group for favored treatment, and tie the hands of the Finance Committee while doing it. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, with reservations. By changing the rules after the contract is bid and awarded, this bill undermines the statutory requirements for issuing bids. In so doing, this bill penalizes all parties, whether they bid in good faith, but failed to win the concession. Or whether they review the bid offering, but decided not to bid. Those parties who were not awarded the concession would have lost the bid to the winning bidder, who could be paying less than what they were willing to pay. The bill also prohibits the State from issuing concession agreements in the future. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. This measure will be helping many of the small businesses at the Honolulu International Airport in addressing their concerns during this unexpected economic downturn. This measure provides relief by making necessary adjustments to their leases so they can continue to provide conveniences to the travelers.

"Many businesses have operated and hired employees at the airport for decades, and I'm sure that they and their employees would appreciate our assistance by moving this bill forward. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. While I do appreciate the support from the Minority Leader, I do need to clarify that the monies that come out of these airport concessions' businesses do not go to the general fund, but remain at the airport to fund the improvements that are being made at the airports themselves.

"A second point Mr. Speaker, is that this measure, if approved, will allow the Governor's office, the Administration, the DOT, to renegotiate some of these leases where the airport concessionaires have been adversely impacted by the sudden and unexpected effect of the global crisis. This is similar to what happened post 9/11 Mr. Speaker, when we did pass emergency legislation to assist small businesses. This has a similar theme and tone to it. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate those comments from the Finance Chair, however, if there is more money that is left within the airports system, then that's less money that we have to come up with to help the airports. It's unfair, Mr. Speaker, to have one group singled out. We have a lot of State land. We have a lot of lessees. What we're saying today is, there's only one that we care about. One group that we care about. And that's just flatly wrong. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, I speak in favor of this bill. The Representative from Kailua mentioned that it's unfair that they should be given a break in renegotiating contract. But I think we all must remember that since 9/11, the situation in the airports has changed considerably. Where you can only go in and purchase things from one of the vendors of the airport if you have a airline ticket. So you're limited in that respect, you're not comparing apples and apples. You're comparing them with the other State lessees.

"Also, at the airport, there are other vendors that are getting this break to renegotiate. This is only trying to make it fair so that all would have the same opportunity. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. May I have the words of the Finance Chair, and the Chair of Transportation entered into the record as if they were my own? I also supported the other bill, so I'm being consistent. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1388, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AIRPORT CONCESSIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 869) recommending that H.B. No. 601, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 601, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"As a new state, Hawaii had the opportunity to take bold new steps to improve the quality of life for its citizens. Legislators dreamt big and enacted a pre-paid health law. The revolutionary leasehold conversion Land Reform Act came into being followed by a unique statewide land use law. A State Works of Art program, the State Foundation of Culture & Arts, funded by 1% of all capital improvement projects couldn't be far behind.

"Now it operates with only 1% of buildings funded by CIP bond money rather than all CIP, but the program is first class and helps support many local artists of all genres – painters, sculptors, muralists, performing arts – modern, traditional, Hawaiian, everything.

"With a downward spiral in revenues, legislators are now scrounging for money for all sorts of projects. The Works of Art Fund is a fat target. 'Let's grab half of it through HB 601 HD2 for other CIP projects or use it to buy facilities, or how about repair and maintenance of facilities,' say legislators.

"'Well, if we take half, there will only be half left. That's not enough. We had better increase the amount received from State CIP authorizations. If we double it, we will be whole. Or if we blank out the percentage of the money we grab, and blank out the percentage of money we receive, nobody will know what we are doing!!!!'

"Well, I say, let's not decimate the program by raiding the fund. What do the introducers want to do with the money? How much do they need? Can we talk?"

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 601, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE WORKS OF ART SPECIAL FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 871) recommending that H.B. No. 1204, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1204, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TOURISM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 3:17 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 586, HD 1
H.B. No. 1604
H.B. No. 754, HD 1
H.B. No. 863, HD 1

H.B. No. 1204, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 873) recommending that H.B. No. 1763, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1763, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in opposition to this. This is a continuation of the previous bill which, I think we said was, at the time of tourism's downturn and we have a spiraling down in the vortex of organization within the Tourism Authority. This bill essentially gets rid of the Tourism Authority, Mr. Speaker. It's equivalent to the proverbial 'throwing the baby out with the bath', or firing the coach when he doesn't win, except you're firing the coach and you actually fire the whole team, you get rid of the whole team. Or we're starting to redecorate the state room when the ship, the State, the Titanic, is going down.

"It's untimely, it's uncalled for. I think it's good that the Representative from Kalihi and the Chair of Tourism is a very astute oversight individual, but there's a borderline between oversight and micromanaging, and I think we're bumping up against that very, very closely. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. In strong support. Let me quote one of the members of the Hawaii Tourism Board, Mr. Steve Yamashiro, who said, 'Get rid of HTA. We're completely dysfunctional.'

"As the speaker from Hawaii Kai said a few bills ago, when we had 7.5 million tourists, we didn't pay close attention to things like HTA. And I have studied the HTA marketing efforts for many years. I've been concerned about them for many years. Let me give you an example.

"When HVCB used to be the prime marketer worldwide, for all of Hawaii, we knew where to go. Now they have split the marketing up. HVB has certain parts of the world. Other parts, Dentsu had something. Somebody else has somebody else. When the Japanese market started to fall on the Big Island, because the HVCB has offices there, the hotels would go to HVCB and say, 'You've got to help us with the Japanese market.' They said, 'Well, we can't do that because under our contract, we are not responsible for the Japanese market.'

"So they would say to the head of the HVCB, 'You've got to go talk to the head of HTA to try to straighten this out.' 'Well, we can't do that.' There's even the clause in the contract between HTA and the HVCB that said it prohibits anybody working for HVB to say anything derogatory about HTA. They put a muzzle on the industry. But they haven't put a muzzle on me.

"I have a problem with this whole issue going back to 1972, when I was Vice Chair of the Hawaii Hotel Association. We were called into then Governor Burns' office and he said, 'Don't ever give up fighting the room tax. If the Legislature passes it, I will veto it.' And we fought this successfully for years.

"And then there are certain members of the industry that felt that this marketing money, if used for marketing, would be variable. When it came time to vote for it in this Body, I was very concerned, and I said to the industry, 'Are you sure that you want me to vote for this TAT, because I can assure you that you can't trust past, present and future legislators to keep their word that this money is to be for marketing, period.

"I think we need to reorganize HTA completely. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. 873, I'm in opposition and have some short comments. Mr. Speaker, I'm taking a look at this, what I show are notes of what happened in Committee. I'm looking at it in the Finance Committee, and there are many opponents to this, and no listed people who are for it. Opponents, of course you have the DBEDT, Tourism Liaison, but there's also Hilton Hawaii, The New Otani Kaimana Beach Hotel, Classic Resorts Limited, the Hawaii Hotel and Lodging Association, Starwood Hotels and Resorts Worldwide, Inc., Outrigger Hotels, the Maui Chamber of Commerce, Maui Hotel and Lodging, Marriott Vacation Club, Ko Olina Beach Club, Activities and Attractions Association of Hawaii.

"But I guess my point is, who's in favor of this? Aside from people here. We ask for public comment, and we got public comment. All the public comment says they are in opposition to this. I think that that should serve as some guidance for our decision."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Quite briefly, in opposition. When looking at who might do a better job of taking care of the business of tourism, is it government? Or is it business? HTA has those business people. And I'll just quote if I may, Mr. Speaker, Mr. Max Sword, who says, 'This bill would return tourism marketing back to the dark ages of inflexible marketing efforts, which is why the HTA was formed in the first place. This is a step backwards, not forward.' Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will vote a strong 'no' on this measure. This is probably the worst thing that we can ever do to tourism. You take it away from a quasi-independent organization and put it where it was before, its like déjà vu, Mr. Speaker. A lot of the Members don't remember it. But I remember when it was under DBEDT, and we used to provide $25 million, and it ended up with only $5 million for marketing. The same thing is going to happen again. Yes, they've had a bad year or two, especially this past year, and there's a strong reaction now among some people in this Body and with our colleagues across the hall.

"But I think we're acting too rapidly in this measure. We should sit down and take a breath, and try to remember what happened in the past, and what good HTA has done. Yes, they're going through a bad year, but it's a global problem, not just HTA's problem. HTA has increased the revenue of the State of Hawaii tremendously from 1999, to where we are now. And the repayment that they get for doing that, is a repeal. I don't understand. I don't understand how the Members, unless you want to send a message, I can understand that. I see HB 2112.

"But you're sending a terrible message, not only to HTA, but you're sending a message to all of the tourist industry. The hotels, travel agencies, airlines. This is the message that's getting out: That we don't trust the HTA. They're doing a lousy job. So we want to repeal them. But if you try and reflect, and see why they are doing a lousy job, you'll find that historically, it's not the problem of HTA as a principal, as an entity.

"So Mr. Speaker, as this moves along, I would hope that the Members begin to look at some of the historic background, as to why we created HTA and how successful it has been. And look at the problems we've had in the past when it was under a department. Because it is our number one business, and believe me, it is our number one business. We need to keep it separate and basically independent of legislators, of people like me. I was the Finance Chairman when I took away a little bit from them too. But I know the temptation when it's not a quasi-agency, to begin picking away and providing provisos so that eventually you won't have any money left for marketing. I've seen this happen.

"Mr. Speaker, in fact, what we should do is make it more difficult to add the provisos. And when we provide the marketing money, to make sure that all the money goes for marketing. Because that's the one that provides our 'bread and butter,' the money for our education, our health, etc. So please go slow on this measure. Thank you."

At this time, Representative Ward moved that H.B. No. 1763, HD 2, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Marumoto.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair, and upon a show of hands, the motion failed to carry. (Representatives Cabanilla, Nishimoto and Takai were excused)

(Main Motion)

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be very brief in support. I think when we look at the Auditor's report dated January 2009, No. 09-02, I'd just like to quote something from it, because I think that explains why we're going in this direction. Whether ultimately it will pass I'm not sure, but I think it is worth examining.

> Chief among the Authority's responsibilities is to create a vision of Hawaii's tourism and develop a strategic plan of its own that should serve as a roadmap for the organization and its partners. In the five years since our last audit, the HTA has spent nearly $270 million in State funds or 90% of its marketing funds. But without a strategic plan that maps out the long term goals and processes to assess the accomplishments of its major contractors, the Authority's Board of Directors is unable to demonstrate that the promotional dollars have been spent purposefully and or effectively. By failing to define its own strategies and account for its efforts, the Authority has not fulfilled its leadership role to manage Hawaii tourism in a sustainable manner during times of economic decline or prosperity.

"I think if we don't want our Auditor just to be spinning her wheels and giving us reports that we just put on the shelf and never look at and collect dust, then that's one choice. But if we want to actually read her reports, take a look at them, examine them, and then decide what to do, at the end of the day with the final vote, when we've gone through the Session, I think that's a whole other matter. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to add that, I don't know if I have exactly the right year, but in 2006, I believe, we were probably, thanks to the marketing efforts of HTA, the number one visitor destination in the world."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Souki be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of HB 1763 relating to the Hawaii Tourism Authority. This bill would repeal the statute which establishes the HTA Board and creates a stand-alone Department of Tourism and redirects the Tourism Special Fund to the DOTourism.

"It is important to understand a few things when considering this measure. First, this proposal before us is a proposal at this point, and the discussion is one that will be taking place eventually as the Tourism Special Fund, the funding mechanism of the HTA, will be sun setting next year. In light of this, I don't think it is unreasonable to begin this discussion sooner rather than later.

"Secondly, I want to thank those members who were open to considering this proposal, as we feel that the current Board has been dysfunctional to say the least. There is a State Auditor's report, which I'm sure many of us have read which sights specific deficiencies of the HTA, so I won't get into those details. But given this current economic crisis—a recession and near depression as it has been referred to by some—I do not think it is appropriate for this Board to be leaderless.

"The Board Chair should be working with staff to hold regular meetings with stakeholders and plan strategically, in order to get a pulse and a handle on our situation. Not to mention, the Board should be responsive to the House and Senate Committees when we ask to meet with them rather than playing politics. There are currently 11 of 12 members right now, and the Governor has not appointed anyone to fill the last seat even though the list of names has been submitted to her. I would think that this would be a priority.

"Meanwhile, we are facing 20% cuts across the board in every department and undoubtedly we will need to go vertical in order to balance a $1.8 billion deficit. Both our public and private sectors are suffering—our schools, retirees, labor unions, hotels, hotel workers, the counties, airlines, car rentals, retailers, and non-profits are all feeling the effects of the sharp decline in visitor arrivals, and this Board is barely meeting. As a result, vendors, hoteliers, and various stakeholder groups are coming to the Legislature to address their issues. If this is going to be the trend, then I would safely argue, that we don't need the HTA Board.

"Finally, this Legislature is considering pay cuts and layoffs and putting everything 'on the table'. So if everything is on the table, then why not have this on there as well? Why shouldn't we look at restructuring our government to see where we can streamline our processes and make them work smarter for the people of the State?

"And on behalf of all the bills passed out by your Committee, Mr. Speaker, let me just say this: At the event last night where many of us were in attendance, the speaker during the closing remarks, compared change to a voyage—Inasmuch as it is important to have an idea of your destination and how you are going to get there, it is equally important to consider why we want change. I ask the Members to seriously think why it is we are considering this proposal at this point in time and if with good conscience you can tell me that change is not needed, then by all means, let's go on with business as usual. Thank you Members, I urge your support of this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1763, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Brower, Ching, Finnegan, Hanohano, Pine, Souki, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 874) recommending that H.B. No. 413, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 413, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this is in regards to Stand. Com. No. 874. Just with reservations. I have comments in regards to, again, going back to balancing the budget. Something like this is a huge undertaking. This is basically establishing a State residential drug abuse program. I know that we also have difficulty in actually having some of these in-community residential programs already as it is. We also don't know the amount and what kind of fiscal impact that this will be.

"Mr. Speaker, I understand the importance of this measure in getting prisoners reintegrated back into the community, however, the timing is not very good."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 413, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 878) recommending that H.B. No. 990, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 990, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, this maybe the 5th or 6th year that this House will pass out the Natural Disaster Preparedness Plan for this State. Every other year it was killed in the Senate. There have been some changes in the leadership in the Senate and perhaps we might actually see this happen.

"There have been reliable reports that Hawaii is the least prepared state in the nation for a natural disaster. And we are the only state in the nation that has every single one. And I have them all in my district.

"The mindset of Civil Defense is to be prepared to respond to the event. Not to be prepared for the event itself. Some 5 or 6 years ago, the then Chair of Public Safety and I met with people, professors from the University, representatives from the insurance, real estate and financial institutions in the State of Hawaii. We spent many hours discussing natural disaster preparedness. What the University professors convinced us of was that we need to map all of the natural disasters that are apt to hit any part of the State with some degree of frequency and intensity. They assured us that that could be done.

"And we said, what then do we do with this information? And the information should be public. Everyone in this State should have some idea of what possible natural disaster might impact his or her home. We are short 74,000 shelters in the State of Hawaii. We have areas where there are no sirens. The district of Ka'u, which is larger than Oahu, has one disaster shelter, and that's the Ka'u High gym, which in the case of a strong wind would blow over.

"I think vog has highlighted the inability of Civil Defense to deal with natural disasters. When we get this information, then your land use planning should be based on impacts of natural disasters. Why was anybody living downstream of Kaloko Dam?

"Currently there is a renewance of a proposed development in Ka'u. In an area with no surrounding support community, that is lava zone 1 and 2, tsunami and hurricane. That just flies in the face of any good planning for this State.

"Let me give you another example. We haven't learned from New Orleans or from Houston. When those hurricanes went through there, the glass from high rises was flying all over the streets. Are we going to wait until that happens here? Or are we going to take a look at how we can harden structures that might be impacted by natural disasters. And get it done before the event hits. Did we ever think that the power might go out at the Honolulu Airport for whatever reason? And be prepared for that event? Instead of waiting to respond, this is a very, very important thing for the safety of the people of this State, and I urge all of your support. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, in support with reservations. I would definitely like to echo the sentiments of the previous speaker. I definitely support all those ideas. What I am concerned about, during this fiscal time when we're looking for money, I'm just concerned that this duplicates another department that's already in existence.

"The bill will duplicate ongoing emergency preparedness functions and planning preformed by the State Civil Defense division. This could cost millions of dollars, we're not really sure, but if there is an additional thing that we would like the current State Civil Defense division to do, perhaps we should just put that in statute and give them some more staff. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. And may I have the words of the Representative of Puna added into the record as if they were my own. And also just to inform people, there was a 5.2 earthquake in the Big Island I believe, yesterday. And that should serve as a big reminder that we are not prepared. Thank you, very much."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 990, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DISASTER PREPAREDNESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 882) recommending that H.B. No. 139, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 883) recommending that H.B. No. 142, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 142, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTRA-STATE AVIATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Berg voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 617, House Draft 2, Relating to Mass Transit Route Economic Zones. This bill would create a taskforce to recommend parameters for the creation of mass transit route economic zones including eligibility, benefits, and incentives such as tax credits. The taskforce shall report to legislature on their recommendation of the process to designate mass transit route economic zones and incentives to attract businesses and affordable housing to encourage ridership. The policy goal is to make it very convenient for people who use mass transit to reside and do their errands, business, and social activities in the area of the mass transit stations. With such an incentive, we can achieve a sufficient amount of mass transit ridership that will patronize businesses near the mass transit stations. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 617, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MASS TRANSIT ROUTE ECONOMIC ZONES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Berg voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:40 o'clock p.m.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 890) recommending that H.B. No. 1518, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1518, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, Id' like to stand in opposition to Stand. Com. No. 890. I rise in opposition to this bill because, under current law, it is illegal to visibly pass on the general excise tax if the price of the goods or services is fixed by law. Of course allowing the tow companies to pass on the general excise tax would give a special exemption to these companies. If this were to become law, Mr. Speaker, it would be the third consecutive year in which this Legislature authorized a price increase for towing companies. And in my district Mr. Speaker, with all our planned communities and very little places to park, we don't like the towing companies sometimes.

"We increased several towing fees in Act 269 of 2007, including increasing the basic tow rate from $55 to $65. Storage fees went up then as well, from $20 to $25. And mileage fees went up as well, from $6.50 to $7.50 per mile. In 2008, we reinstated a $15 overtime charge in Act 135; that's usually when they come to your house and tow you at 1:00 in the morning, which is 90% of the time in my community.

"That makes this bill a bigger fee increase than we've had for any other particular area in the private sector, because these increases just kept increasing over the last several years. So I think in these economic times, I think we need to send a strong message to the consumer that we're not going to show favoritism to any particular industry, and especially when it comes to towing their cars. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, having just had a bill regarding national disasters, and the economy going to 'hell in a hand basket,' I find it greatly ironical that we are now fixing towing charges for the State of Hawaii as we focus on this bill. I think it's the epitome of micromanaging, and I would hope that in the future it would go to DCCA. Or it can go to DOT. But to have it as part of this Body's major concern, I think, is a waste of time. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nakashima rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1518, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Berg, Cabanilla, Coffman, Finnegan, Morita, Pine, Saiki, Takumi and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 893) recommending that H.B. No. 1592, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1592, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 895) recommending that H.B. No. 1167, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1167, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, in regards to Stand. Com. No. 895, this is the Highways Modernization Plan. I have strong reservations because of the immediate tax increase on liquid fuel, however I do understand that this has a defective date and we'll see it again should it move forward, and I will wait till then. This is an important issue that I'm sure, right now, could be helping our people in regards to being stuck in traffic, and some of these things described in the modernization plan will help us do that. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support, Mr. Speaker. But I do have one reservation on one aspect of the bill, and that is increasing the tax on liquid fuels, gasoline. Although we need traffic relief and improvement on our highways, the taxation of gasoline would impact us more who have to live in the outlaying areas where we need to fill our tank more often than the people that live in the urban core. So I would say this is taxing people from Ewa Beach more than the people in Honolulu. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Just real quickly, while many of the ideas being put forward in the bill are admirable in trying to raise money for highway projects, what concerns me is the creation of a new special fund. Instead of putting the monies into the Highway Special Fund with SAFETEA-LU coming up before Congress, I think it sends a very bad message. Thank you, very much."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Stand. Com. No. 895, HB 1167, House Draft 2. Mr. Speaker, this is the Administration's Highway Modernization Plan, which proposes to increase the fuel tax, the vehicle registration fee, the vehicle weight fee and rental motor vehicle surcharges, for purported safety and capacity improvements on, among other things, our freeways and roadways.

"Before I get started for my reasons in opposition Mr. Speaker, I first want to recognize the Chair of Transportation, because he does understand the need to make basic transportation infrastructure improvements. However my concerns with this measure deal with the impact it could have to residents of the Leeward side. Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to this bill because when it is taken in conjunction with another bill before this Body, House Bill 139, known as the 'Toll Roads Bill,' it creates a system, whereby residents of West Oahu will be paying for capacity and safety improvements statewide, and would also be paying for additional capacity lanes out to West Oahu via a toll.

"Essentially, this bill imposes a double penalty against residents of West Oahu, because they would bear the burden of increased fuel taxes and vehicle fees, and a toll. Mr. Speaker, there's no equity for residents of Leeward Oahu to be paying for these statewide improvements and also having to pay for their own roads. What is so perplexing is that there is this contention from some members of this Body that government cannot afford to construct new roads, therefore only those who would use the new roads should pay.

"However, in this bill, we now want residents of the West Side to pay for everybody else's road improvements? While there are few road improvements in this bill for the Leeward side, we must not double tax our residents. This bill, in conjunction with House Bill 139, will double the taxes for residents of West Oahu, because they are paying for statewide traffic improvements, and new road improvements.

"Another reason I am opposed to this bill is because of the safety and capacity improvements that are not part of this Highway Modernization Plan. They are not specified in this bill. I direct the Members' attention to pages 28 and 40 of this bill, and highlight the tenuous language which includes terms such as, 'safety improvements may include' and other vague terms such as 'various corridor improvements.' If my constituents are going to bear the cost of these increased fuel taxes and fees, shouldn't we know exactly what is being improved?

"Moreover Mr. Speaker, since 2006, I have been asking the Department of Transportation to reinstall the lights on the freeway eastbound and westbound between the Kapolei and Kunia exits. And the Representative from Mililani Mauka has made the same request, for the lights to be reinstalled on the H-2 Freeway. I would submit that reinstallation of these lights are a basic safety improvement. And yet these basic safety improvements are not included in this bill.

"When asked before the Finance Committee on February 27, 2009, the Department of Transportation was unable to confirm whether these lights were part of the modernization program. So until such time they do so, why should residents of West Oahu pay increased taxes and fees for such safety improvements when we don't even know if we're going to even get our basic safety improvements?

"Finally Mr. Speaker, the Modernization Plan proposes the implementation of a Vehicle Miles Traveled Pilot Program, which charges drivers a fee based on the number of vehicle miles used. Mr. Speaker, while this may work on the mainland, Hawaii is different. On the mainland, people with higher incomes live further away from the urban core, while those in lower tax brackets live in the urban core. Mr. Speaker, I submit that, to charge people who live further away in Hawaii is a regressive tax. You are penalizing those who live further away, who are paying extra money for living out there. They couldn't afford to buy homes in the urban core, in East Honolulu or Windward Oahu. And that's why we bought out on the West Side. It was affordable housing out there. And now to penalize us this way, through a Vehicle Mileage Pilot Program, continues to be inequitable. For these reasons I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in opposition Mr. Speaker. And I would like to insert the passion of the previous speaker into the Journal as my own. There are bits and pieces I don't agree with, but the basic sentiment is that this does penalize those on West Oahu the most."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak in favor of this program. This bill will provide $4 billion for our Highway Fund over a period of 6 years. In the history of Hawaii, there's been no such infusion for highway funds that I can recall. Ironically, for those living in the West Side who oppose the bill, at least for some of them, most of the money, the $4 billion, is going to the West Side, to provide improvements to their respective highways. Now we've got to understand, with the highways, there's no 'free lunch.' If we want better highways, we have always paid for it. That's the highway tax.

"Now because the project is on a much larger scale, and to the Governor's credit, she is willing to look at increasing taxes to pay for the highway improvements that we need. Our highways are falling apart. Just take a look at all the potholes that we have around. They need to be improved. We need new roads. The Neighbor Islands need new roads. Maui needs new roads. Lahaina needs new roads. Where's the money going to come from? The stimulus package will provide some dollars, but certainly not enough to take care of the need for the whole State.

"Again Members, we represent the State of Hawaii. We need to remember this. We don't represent Wailuku, Maui, or Paia, Maui, Kauai, Mililani. You represent the State. And as we pass legislation, we pass legislation that's good for the State. If we're going to be provincial, Members, and only look at our particular area, nothing will ever get done on a statewide basis because, 'my area needs it more than yours.'

"So Members please, when you look at the different issues that come here, look at it on a broad basis. You are representatives of the people. Thank you, very much."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Just a quick rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. I do agree that Stand. Com. 895 does increase taxes, but it has no comparison whatsoever with House Bill 139. There is no tolling provision in this bill. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If I could give just a brief rebuttal to the Chair of Transportation. I appreciate the comments regarding the provinciality of some of my words. However, if that is so in fact the case, then we need to be consistent across the board, meaning in all of our bills, if we're going to look at only one area, then we shouldn't be taking out language in other bills that would only impact certain residents of certain sides.

"Essentially some of us are put in the position to have to defend, and be provincial, and represent our constituents because other Members of this Body have in fact taken out language, and it's not even across the board. It's not even-handed. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still with reservations, and I have a new point. I wanted to make sure that we're going to see this again, and that's one of the reasons why I'm not going to vote no on this bill right now, because I think that this needs further discussion.

"However, I did want to talk about one particular issue: that people who live farther away from the urban core pay more in taxes. That's how our gas tax is set up right now. It's per gallon and it's based on a certain amount of cents per gallon, so if you drive more, you pay more. That's the system that we have in place. One of the other things that I learned over the past week in regards to the pilot project of the miles traveled is, that would be the basis of how you would pay for this new pilot program. If you discover how many miles traveled, then you would be paying per mile, which is the same way that we're doing it right now on our gas taxes.

"I just wanted to make that clarification. Whether or not, when you compare the two, if it's a tax increase, that is up for fair discussion. But I must add that that is how we do it currently.

"Mr. Speaker, another huge thing is when we stopped, when we all started to pull back on driving, when the gas prices were really high, the State Highway Fund was not getting it's funding. And therefore our projects aren't being able to be completed, or being able to be done. One thing that I would say is, with all of the things that we're doing for electric vehicles, wanting to do renewable energy and all of these things, if we do it on a State fuel tax, I think it was a good idea to see if there was another mechanism that we could put into place, because as we look at electric cars and not having a fuel tax, how are we going to build our roads, because that Fund is no longer going to get funded. And then people who own electric vehicles versus people who can't afford electric vehicles and are still moving along with their gas vehicles, because they can't afford buying a new car, will be paying a disproportionate share of highway improvements.

"So this whole thing I think needs more discussion. Again I repeat, I'm not for increasing taxes. I think that there's some merit to switching over the way that the taxes work."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. Mr. Speaker, when I look at this bill, I'm struck by how they were trying to go to each island and identify the needs of each island, specific projects, and specific safety projects. And I agree with the Chair of Transportation that what's happened in Hawaii is that we've got many roads and bridges and guardrails and our highways are getting old. We have to work on them.

"As a Representative from the Big Island, we drive many, many miles, all of us, to get anywhere. In my community, if I want to go to a public library, I have to drive 25 miles. And our children, to go to high school have to be on the road and go 25 miles. And I know it's been a real struggle for the Department of Education in terms of bus transportation, but I have to tell you, this idea of raising taxes, I think is a reasonable one, and I'll tell you why.

"We all have to share in this together. And I would say that for the Big Island Representatives, on the Big Island we've got 173,000 people and, I can't remember how many miles and miles of road. But we've got the most miles of roads that you can imagine, on the Big Island. And many of us have always felt that Oahu, and we thank Oahu, all the people that live here, because in some ways we benefit from the taxes they pay, because we don't have the population. The population is here on Oahu. So what's happened over time is, we've all been in it together when it comes to the roads.

"And I was surprised today actually. I thought some people would stand up and say they had reservations because we didn't raise enough taxes for roads. There's a whole group of people out there that want us to raise a lot of taxes on gas, because they want us to get off gas. They want us to go electric. They want us to look for alternatives. And many people believe, to motivate policy when it affects all people, sometimes you have to make that leap, the leap being raise taxes hugely, so people start thinking about the alternative energy. So that didn't come up today, which, I'm surprised, I thought it might have come up. So Mr. Speaker, I support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks, and the remarks of Representative Souki be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. I am in support of this measure which calls for a six-year Transportation Modernization Program. This comprehensive approach will address the deteriorating condition of our roadways and the congestion that commuters are forced to endure. Jobs will be created in the area of construction at a time when employment is scarce.

"In particular I appreciate the funding mechanism which calls for everyone to contribute – kamaaina and visitors alike. The special fund for this endeavor has been added for transparency. Monies generated by the program could be easily monitored and tracked. In addition, a protection clause has been added to prohibit the use of these revenues for the sole purpose of the modernization projects. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Bertram rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Souki and Evans be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I was going to submit written comments, but I just can't help myself. In opposition. Now is not the time to raise a lot of taxes. Or for me, no taxes, period. When we raise taxes on your constituents, you make life even harder for them. Especially someone in their family who lost their job, or they got a pay cut, or they have new expenses because the medical expenses have gone up. Supplies are getting more expensive.

"Of course the people of the Leeward Coast want these roads. We don't believe we have enough of them. But just this last election, the people of Oahu, at least, decided to vote for rail. They approved of the tax increase for rail. Half the people in my district are considered to be living below poverty. Of course they want traffic relief, and they believe at least they're going to get it through rail.

"Now we're talking about increasing taxes on just about everything, because I understand the budget is the way it is. Well, we're going to add this too, because there's no longer a trigger in this anymore. It happens very soon. And so with the economy the way it is now, we're going to hurt business, especially those that have to transport things around the island. We're going to hurt families that are just getting by. We're going to have them perhaps, move out of their homes and move in with family, lose their homes, because things are just getting too expensive.

"So yes, everyone on the Leeward Coast, we love these things. But as the Representative from Kapolei said, a lot of us move out there because we can't move closer. So we are amongst the lower income population, at least on Oahu."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1167, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAYS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Berg, Brower, Ching, Coffman, Har, Manahan, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen, Ward and Wooley voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 896) recommending that H.B. No. 1362, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1362, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations on this bill. Mr. Speaker, this establishes a Genetic Counseling Licensure Program within DCCA, requires licensure in order to use the title of licensed genetic counselor, and provides exemptions from licensure requirements.

"I just wanted to bring up one thing, and that is that we should read the Auditor's report. There was an October 2006 sunrise report done, when the Auditor determined that little evidence of consumer harm existed in Hawaii relating to genetic counselors, and that regulation is not warranted, nor should legislation be enacted to license genetic counselors. I just wanted to bring up the Auditor's report. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1362, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENETIC COUNSELORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 4:05 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1037, HD 2
H.B. No. 1163, HD 2
H.B. No. 1168, HD 2
H.B. No. 1518, HD 1
H.B. No. 1592, HD 1
H.B. No. 1167, HD 2
H.B. No. 1362, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 900) recommending that H.B. No. 1187, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 901) recommending that H.B. No. 447, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 447, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 447, HD 1. This amended bill is the product of collaboration among stakeholders in the check cashing industry: check cashing businesses, asset-building coalitions, and low- and moderate-income family service providers. HB 447, HD 1 makes two simple but important changes that will protect consumers and ensure more judicious use of payday lending services. The first change is the addition of the requirement that check cashers clearly disclose their rates and fees to their customers. The second change is the provision for payment plans for consumers who find themselves unable to fully repay their payday loans on time. Because these represent changes that ensure better education of and wiser use of payday lending by the consumer, I support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 447, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PAYDAY LENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 905) recommending that H.B. No. 317, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 317, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just rise with reservations. I don't understand why it's under DLNR. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 317, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOBILE MEDICAL CARE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 906) recommending that H.B. No. 1782, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1782, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 1782, House Draft 2, Relating to Health Information Exchange. Mr. Speaker, we live in the digital age. Technology has provided us with so many opportunities to better our knowledge, services that we provide, and even time management. Likewise, technology has the ability to help us improve the quality and access to Hawaii's healthcare. By establishing a statewide health information technology system, we will be giving physicians tools such as immediate electronic access to patient medical records, which will allow them to read a patient's full medical history, including medications, lab reports, and other relevant medical information that will ultimately lower the rate of medical errors and result in better patient care.

"Both former President George W. Bush and President Barack Obama have publicly stated that every state needs to have a health information technology system by 2014. The growing importance of health information technology is even evidenced in the 2004 creation of the Office of National Coordinator for Health Information Technology within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

"Earlier this month President Obama appointed Vivek Kudra to be the Federal Chief Information Officer (CIO) for the United States of America. Mr. Kundra was named by InfoWorld as one of the top 25 Chief Technology Officer (CTO) and was the 2008 Information Technology Executive of the Year. In his role as the Federal CIO, Mr. Kundra hopes to change the federal government's use of information technology by adopting consumer technology and ensuring that government data is open and accessible, while finding a balance of openness and accessibility with information security.

"By establishing an Office of National Coordinator for Health Information Technology and a Federal CIO to take a role in the development and implementation of health information technology, the federal government is demonstrating their commitment to improving our country's healthcare system.

"Furthermore, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 appropriated $35 billion for information technology, $20 billion of which is dedicated to health information technology alone. With the upcoming availability of the federal economic stimulus funds for health information technology, it would be in our best interest to take advantage of these funds to implement a program that the federal government has mandated us to be on within the next five years.

"Because of the 2014 deadline and the availability of the federal economic stimulus monies for health information technology beginning in 2011, it is even more critical that we take action to implement a health information technology system now. By taking action on this measure and moving health information technology forward, we will be able to take advantage of a ten to one federal dollar match. There is no better time to do this.

"The private sector has already begun to make strides in the field of health information technology. But in order to take advantage of these federal funds they will need the collaborative partnership of the State. Introduction of this bill has begun to bring the public and private sector stakeholders together to further the dialogue on this new area of partnership and the commitment from all parties is strong.

"Health information technology is an essential component to quality healthcare. Passage of this measure will be one of the most important actions that we as a legislature take this year because we will be making new strides in healthcare, creating new jobs, and bringing in new federal funds.

"The private sector and the federal government have recognized the value in health information technology. It is time that we do too. Together, in a collaborative partnership with the federal government and the private sector we can make the bold step of modernizing our healthcare system.

"I want to thank all of the involved State agencies and private sector partners for their enthusiasm and commitment to making health information a reality in Hawaii and for their continued partnership as this bill moves forward. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 1782, HD 2. Sharing health data through modern information technology has the potential to improve the quality and delivery of health care for all of Hawaii's residents. It is imperative that the State explore innovative solutions for meeting citizen's health and health needs that seek to address the ever escalating costs of health care. A State health information exchange is a progressive approach to lowering administrative costs, improving preventive services, reducing medical errors and redundancies, and increasing access to affordable care. I support HB 1782, HD 2 with the purpose that its passage will continue discussion on best practices for the development of a State health information exchange."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1782, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INFORMATION EXCHANGE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 907) recommending that H.B. No. 1617, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1617, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT HILO," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 910) recommending that H.B. No. 111, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 111, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in opposition Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to House Bill 111, Relating to State Salaries. Basically what this bill does is, it establishes a two-year statute of limitation for employees in debt to the State through the withholdings of their State salary. Providing something like this sounds like a reasonable thing, but the problem that I have with this bill is very different.

"This bill makes no clear exception for fraud. So if someone frauds the State, this unfortunately, if it's discovered just after that two year period, we won't be able to recover the monies lost from that particular situation. Two years may also be a little too short. I think three is a little better for the salaries, but my biggest concern is the fraud area."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Fraud is actually a crime, and crime has a different statute of limitations. I don't believe it is two years. All this does it make it exactly the same for the individual as it is for the State. Both parties have two years to make any claim. But the fraud issue, I don't recall it being raised in Committee. My recollection is, it's a crime, and it has a different statute of limitations. It's just apples and oranges. Mahalo."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, my opposition to this bill is because of the fraud part of it also. I don't think we should reward people that way. I believe that it is covered in here, at least that was the testimony that was given in the Labor Committee through DAGS. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 111, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE SALARIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Marumoto and Pine voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 913) recommending that H.B. No. 643, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 643, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. And Mr. Speaker, I may have a potential conflict. I have contractors in my family," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm voting with reservations, because actually, what this does is, it requires a contractor to perform immigration functions that should be preformed by the federal government. If contractors follow the I-9 requirements when they hire, then that's all they should have to do. They shouldn't have to then step into the role of a federal immigration officer. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can I please get a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I represent contractors. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. My reservation is, I guess it's really difficult to determine whether or not someone is a citizen or not. I guess, because of the fraud, because of other things, it makes it very difficult, so I just have some concerns about that. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, the federal government has supplied many employers with what's called 'e-verify.' It's actually an electronic system where you just enter in some numbers, some names, and you verify whether the person is legally a resident of our country. And it's as simple as that.

"The other thing about the bill is, it only prevents or causes a sanction if it's knowing or intentional employment of the person. So you actually have to have gone through it, and known that they were illegal and did it anyway. And so, unless you're talking about those limited circumstances, I'm not really too worried about some of the concerns brought up by the other side. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 643, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTRACTORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 4:11 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 447, HD 1
H.B. No. 317, HD 1
H.B. No. 1782, HD 2
H.B. No. 1617, HD 1
H.B. No. 111
H.B. No. 643, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 914) recommending that H.B. No. 358, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 358, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"As a nurse, I can see first-hand that the drug and alcohol abuse epidemic proliferates in our society. I feel that we need consider all options for treatment. Hawaii has a severe lack of in-patient drug treatment facilities. For many drug users, outpatient treatment isn't comprehensive enough.

"This bill is not asking for additional funding, only creative allocation of existing funds already appropriated for drug abuse treatment.

"For the heavily addicted individuals with criminal tendencies, this is also a great sentencing option so they can be isolated from society thereby keeping our constituents safe and simultaneously receive treatment.

"Its also a great option for those who failed drug treatment several times and need to be away from their drug deals and other stimulant to drug use."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. I was reading this bill, and it sounds very similar to Drug Court, Mr. Speaker. So I was just making sure that as we move forward, that we try not to do any duplication. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 358, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DRUG TREATMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 915) recommending that H.B. No. 519, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 519, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I want to speak in favor of this measure. It's very long overdue. And I want to give my congratulations for the good work that the Chair of Public Safety has done. And even more so, Mr. Speaker and Members, if I can just deviate just a little bit, what makes it impressive is that the Chair of Public Safety was in Corrections. She dealt with incarceration. But all of her time has been spent as a Chair looking for rehabilitation of the inmates. And for that, I give plenty aloha to the Chair for the good work that she's done. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In all due respect, I rise in opposition. The measure would require the return of all out-of-state inmates in private prisons by December 31, 2015. Now first, many prisoners may not want to return to Hawaii's prison. In fact, many may prefer to stay housed on mainland prisons, as they offer educational and vocational programs not available in our prisons.

"The passage of this measure would require that Public Safety Department plan, design, construct sufficient facilities to house inmates by 2015. Mr. Speaker, taking into consideration the high cost of living, the high cost of property and real estate, here in Hawaii. Would you really want a prison facility built in your back yard? Do you really want that? Do tourists want to see prisons here in beautiful Hawaii? I'm quite certain that your constituents would probably, as mine have expressed, do not want it in my own back yard.

"It's simply not be prudent knowing how land in Hawaii ranges in the hundreds of thousands of dollars more than on the spacious and spacious land-abundant mainland. They have cheap land in isolated areas in which to build. We in Hawaii do not.

"So finally Mr. Speaker, this measure also requires the Public Safety Department to provide a report to the Legislature at the end of each calendar year on any of the inmates not returned with an explanation of reasoning and circumstances for noncompliance. This simply is also not cost effective. It's not a good idea at this time in such budget fiscal crisis. The Department is already understaffed as it is and requiring them to submit this annual report would be very time consuming and labor intensive. It's not practical. It's not feasible. And it's simply not cost effective.

"Mr. Speaker, I think that when we focus on the fact that our main industry is tourism; not oil, not other things. We have to reconsider this measure. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just wonder how many of you know that that high-rise building just Ewa of the Airport is a prison. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just in support with reservations, and I would love to use the words of the Representative from Liliha as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm in strong support and would like the words of the speaker from Wailuku incorporated as well. I've also just a few quick comments in the sense that, we have to do something to bring these folks back. I think what the intent of Public Safety was that it won't be just prisons that we'd be bringing them back to. There will be programs, and I think you've seen other bills that have been forwarded, that do exactly that, to start putting in a whole different way of handling low-level offenders. 60% of the men and 80% of the women in prison are for low-level, nonviolent drug offenses. So we really need to rethink this whole thing.

"Really, when we're talking about cost and expense, the Pew Center report that you just got, everybody got a copy of it, specifies the tremendous amount of money that we're wasting, without any good result in our current prison system. We have to move to a whole new system where we actually treat people in their homes, in their communities, and deal with them there rather than putting them into prisons. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak to in support of HB 519, HD 1.

"We spend $50 million of Hawaii taxpayer money annually on out-of-state prisons. This annual cost is expected to increase an additional $13 million of Hawaii taxpayer money after July 1, 2009, in which we will be spending $100 million or more of Hawaii taxpayer money by 2015 to other states.

"While this measure does not directly assist Hawaii's current budget crisis, it can in the future be one way of ending the loss of Hawaii taxpayer money to other states. More importantly, this bill sets a policy that we will invest by a time certain that money here at home in jobs and services for our own residents. We should build the needed facilities at home which will result in spending our money locally for our contractors and our workers to construct these facilities. We can then staff these facilities with local people and contract with local businesses to provide supplies and programs. We cannot afford to continue a $50 million drain of our general tax revenues each year to benefit other states without some end in sight.

"The Department of Public Safety is currently exploring plans to build a new and larger prison here in Hawaiʻi together with the Department of Accounting and General Services and several private entities under contract. That's great. This bill simply places a date and deadline for the Administration to get moving which is never a bad idea.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations and just short comments. Mr. Speaker, this requires the Public Safety Department to plan, design and construct sufficient facilities to house inmates in Hawaii by 12/31/2015. That's a very short time, and we don't have the money. Throughout the debate, and throughout the years, there has been the question of where we are going to put it.

"This is a very short time frame to do what it wants to set out to do, and I just don't know, where we are going to get the money to do this. Mr. Speaker, I have a lot more comments, but I figured, like all the rest of the bills, we should continue to debate it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 519, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INMATES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Ching and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 918) recommending that H.B. No. 987, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 987, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO UNEMPLOYMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 923) recommending that H.B. No. 1145, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1145, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REMNANT LANDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 924) recommending that H.B. No. 1712, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1712, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative C. Lee rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"While the intent of this bill is good, "to ensure that rules regarding the taking and protection of uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio are based on supporting data," I rise in opposition to it. I believe the content of the bill is contrary to its purpose, and would serve to only harm, rather than help, the proper management of these declining marine resources.

"As noted in its Committee Report, the House Water, Land and Ocean Resources Committee "stresses that when regulating marine life, DLNR should not base their rules solely on information gathered at public information meetings, but on all information available, including affirmatively obtaining data supporting the finding that take rules are necessary."

"Fortunately, much of the data this bill requires DLNR to gather already exists. In fact, it is more comprehensive and in depth in many respects than the research this bill calls for. One such study was published just this past year, conducted by:

Assessing the importance of fishing impacts on Hawaiian coral reef fish assemblages along regional-scale human population gradients
I. D. WILLIAMS, W. J. WALSH, R. E. SCHROEDER, A. M. FRIEDLANDER, B. L. RICHARDS AND K. A. STAMOULIS

"This study surveyed 89 separate marine areas to reach its conclusion:

"The availability of a large research vessel to use as a platform for survey cruises made it possible to reach remote and inaccessible parts of Hawaii which have rarely if ever been surveyed until now, and therefore enabled the largest-scale assessment of MHI coral reef fish stocks to date. Our data set provides clear evidence that stocks of target and vulnerable taxa are severely depleted around accessible and populous locations in the MHI, and a number of lines of evidence indicate that fishing is the prime cause."

"Though this and similar studies conclude that fishing has a real impact on the decline of these fish species, the monitoring called for in this bill takes into account the "effects that runoff, sedimentation, pollution, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem, and the introduction of invasive species have on the ecosystem that affects the habitat and forage of uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio" but does not account for the effects of fishing at all.

"House Bill 1712 goes on to state that DLNR has not "properly managed or enhanced fisheries for long-term sustainability of the resources; protected and restored the aquatic environment; protected native and resident aquatic species and their habitat; or provided facilities and opportunities for recreational fishing."

"If DLNR has not been able to follow through with proper management of these species, and if the best available data shows that "fishing is the prime cause" for their depletion, then DLNR must take swift action based on best science to protect the species and promote future recreational fishing.

"However, creating additional requirements for further study and monitoring stretches the resources of the DLNR at a time when resources are already short, and adds additional hurdles to effective resource management, without producing useful conclusions that haven't already been reached. After years of input from all sides, we need action to save what is left of these species in the main Hawaiian Islands. We can wait no longer."

Representative Thielen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1712 HD 2, relating to fishing.

"This bill directs the Department of Land and Natural Resources to:

(1) Continue to hold public informational meetings to hear concerns and suggestions from the public regarding the taking and protection of uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio;

(2) Use and present all available data to support the basis for any rule proposed based on the public input, and if no data is available, use all available means to gather the necessary data;

(3) Develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the effects that runoff, sedimentation, pollution, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem that affects the habitat and forage of these fish; and

(4) Develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the outcomes to be achieved by the implementation of any proposed rule and estimate the timeframes through which the outcomes will be achieved.

"This bill is very similar to measures that failed to pass the Legislature in 2006 and 2007. It puts too many constraints on the management of marine fisheries resources, and requires scientific justifications so restrictive, it would effectively place a moratorium on any management actions for the better part of a decade.

"In short, this bill is so restrictive it would inhibit rather than enhance sound resource management.

"For these reasons, I am opposed to HB 1712 HD 2, relating to fishing."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak to express my continued reservations with HB 1712, HD 2, Relating to fishing.

"This bill imposes constraints on the Department of Land and Natural Resources' management of marine fisheries resources, such as requiring "scientific" justifications so restrictive that it would be difficult, if not impossible to meet. The precautionary doctrine suggests that the stewards of these Public Trust resources should manage our fisheries with sustainability in mind. With the State facing budget challenges, I'm concerned about further impairing DLNR's ability to protect our nearshore stocks.

"The most recent data from scientific surveys in the Main Hawaiian Islands indicates that human impacts are a primary cause of impaired fisheries. See Williams, I. D., et al (2008) Environmental Conservatism: Assessing the Importance of Fishing Impacts on Hawaiian Coral Reef Fish Assemblages Along Regional-Scale Human Population Gradients: 261, 270, 271.

"The proponents of bill must agree with Williams and other scientists that "an essential first step towards developing effective management responses is to determine the importance of the various factors contributing to degradation in any particular situation. In particular, it is likely to be difficult to build support for appropriate remedial action if it is not possible to reach a consensus on the underlying cause(s) of resource declines. . . ." The anecdotal information provided by fisherman is particularly useful to perhaps explain problems with what the plain data indicates. In the Williams study, "it did not seem that proximity to high human population density was by itself associated with fish population declines, but rather that the crucial factor was proximity to human populations who were able to readily access, and therefore fish, nearshore waters." But William must conclude, based on the information collected, that "[his] data set provides clear evidence that stocks of target and vulnerable taxa are severely depleted around accessible and populous locations in the MHI, and a number of lines of evidence indicate that fishing is the prime cause."

"With this up-to-date data and information in-hand, DLNR can properly assess the received wisdom of the fishers and other users of the nearshore Main Hawaiian Islands to assist in fashioning the best management practices that will benefit all our people. I can understand and recognize the frustration and perception of water people and fishers who believe the DLNR aquatic biologists are ignoring their experience and knowledge. I think fishers can contribute great value to proper management of our resources.

"But when we are striving for sustainability, I would suggest that leaning on the conservative end may be the best policy rather than continuing unregulated takes. Supporting data, including stock assessments to be conducted for the identified species are lengthy projects, in which these species range across both the Main Hawaiian Islands and the Northwest Hawaiian Islands. It takes years of field research and hundreds of thousands of dollars for each species involved and will effectively place a moratorium on any management actions related to marine fish stocks for the better part of the next several decades. As the proverb states, the medicine prescribed for the patient's ailments may be worse than the cure.

"Please record my vote with reservations."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I support the intent of this bill, which will require that more effort be expended by the Department of Land and Natural Resources to monitor, understand and work with fisherman to determine appropriate fishing levels and limits. However, it is not clear that the Department will be able to meet this mandate, and our fishery resources may suffer significantly as a result.

"Our local fishermen need support, and our fishery resources need protection. This bill may not help either, despite its intent. For this reason, I am voting for this bill with serious reservations."

Representative Shimabukuro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Stand. Com. Report No. 924, H.B. 1712, H.D. 2.

"Mr. Speaker, some have stated that this is a fishing rights bill. It is far from it. There is nothing in this measure that states that the Department of Land and Natural Resources shall not proceed with establishing rules to regulate the taking of the parrotfish (uhu), the goatfish (weke/moana kali) and the jacks (ulua/papio). All this measure does is state that if the DLNR is to establish rules it should be done in a responsible manner.

"Mr. Speaker, testimony has been submitted stating: "The current measure would impose constraints on the management of marine fisheries resources, such as requiring scientific justifications so restrictive that they would be difficult if not impossible to meet." Nowhere in this measure does it require scientific justification to establish rules.

"The testifier further states: "The mandated process of administrative rulemaking takes into consideration the impacts of each proposal on resources, businesses, and the public, and includes opportunities provided by law for interested parties to provide their comments. Therefore this measure would to some extent re-create existing protocols. Relative to any rule achieving its intended purpose, requiring reports in the manner proposed would do no more than what is already being done, and would therefore result in duplicative effort and thereby detract from the Department's overall efficiency and productivity." This measure only reinforces existing protocol.

"This measure states in Section 2: "The department of land and natural resources shall continue to hold public informational meetings to hear the concerns and suggestions from the public regarding the taking and protection of Uhu, Weke/Moana Kali, and Ulua/Papio."

"Further, this measure does not require any reports from the department. However, it does require the DLNR to develop a monitoring and evaluation program as stated in Section 2: "The department of land and natural resources shall:

1. Develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the effects that runoff, sedimentation, pollution, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem, and the introduction of invasive species have on the ecosystem that affects the habitat and forage of Uhu, Weke/Moana Kali, and Ulua/Papio; and

2. Develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the outcomes to be achieved by the implementation of any proposed rule and estimate the timeframes through which the outcomes will be achieved."

"Mr. Speaker, this measure only reinforces what is required of DLNR as stated in statues. HRS Section 187A-2 "Powers and duties of department" states in subsection (6): "The department shall – Gather and compile information and statistics concerning the habitat and character of, and increase and decrease in, aquatic resources in the State, including the care and propagation of aquatic resources for protective, productive, and aesthetic purposes, and other useful information, which the department deems proper." Section 2 of this measure states: "The department of land and natural resources shall use and present all available data to support the basis for any rule proposed based on the public input, and if no data is available, use all available means to gather the necessary information."

"The question then arises, "Does DLNR have the available information and statistics concerning the increase/decrease of Uhu, Weke/Moana Kali, and Ulua/Papio to support the basis for any rules? If this information and statistics are not presently available will the DLNR proceed with gathering and compiling this information and statistics? If not, why not?"

"Mr. Speaker, another testifier stated: "There is already clear and abundant scientific data, analysis and evidence being utilized by the DLNR that points to serious declines in near-shore fish populations, especially among the large fishes that are so important for replenishing the reef." The question then arises, "If the DLNR has in its possession the aforementioned information has the DLNR made this information available to the public? If not, why not?"

"Mr. Speaker, I have always stated that any rule making to regulate Hawaii's marine resources should be done by the Department of Land and Natural Resources without any interference from any outside agency. This measure does not interfere with that process. All this measure does is to require the DLNR to establish rules to regulate the taking of Uhu/ Weke/Moana Kali, and Ulua/Papio in a responsible manner. At no time should the DLNR establish any rules based solely on information and suggestions gathered at public informational meetings. I too want regulations to conserve Hawaii's marine resources so my grandchildren and generations to come can enjoy what I have enjoyed; that is to be able to go fishing anywhere in the State and to be able to partake ocean resources taken from Hawaii's waters. However, I do want regulations that are established in a responsible manner.

"Mr. Speaker, I urge all my colleagues to vote 'yes' on Stand. Com. Report No. 924, HB1712, HD2."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 1712, HD2—Relating to Fishing

"The fishermen of Hawaii are the only providers of food from our ocean. In tough economic times, the people of an island state turn to its natural resources, the land and the ocean, for sustenance and subsistence. With a population of over a million people, the management of our resources is critical. Faced with challenging impact on the resources including reef decay—caused by siltation, runoff, pollution and other non-point source impacts, overuse and invasive species, the Department should take a proactive and serious approach to determine the true condition of the resource.

"With an estimated population of up to 800,000 people in the late 1700s, the native Hawaiians were fully dependent on natural resources and used temporal and seasonal restrictions to mange the islands' fisheries and create a delicate balance between conservation and use.

"Today, by statute, the Department of Land and Natural Resources is tasked with managing the state's waters from the shoreline out to three miles, and balancing conservation with use. In recent years, the Department has created many new regulations including permanent area closures, community-based managed areas, bag and size limits and further restricted gear type—basing their decisions on "some" science and a heavy amount of public opinion. In keeping with its mission to "manage or enhance fisheries for long-term sustainability of the resources," it is imperative that the Department utilize their biologists to take an actual assessment of the current condition of the marine resources and focus on gathering data and statistics instead of relying primarily on surveys and opinion polls. This would be the only way to properly and responsibly manage the resource and comply with Chapter 187A-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which requires the Department to:

(1) Manage and administer the aquatic life and aquatic resources of the State;

(2) Establish, manage, and regulate public fishing areas, artificial reefs, fish aggregating devices, marine life conservation districts, shoreline fishery management areas, refuges, and other areas; and

(3) Gather and compile information and statistics concerning the habitat and character of, and increase and decrease in, aquatic resources in the State, including the care and propagation of aquatic resources for protective, productive, and aesthetic purposes, and other useful information, which the department deems proper.

"By law, the Department should be doing its due diligence to determine the health of the resource and making recommendations to manage accordingly. Erring on the side of caution due to a lack of pertinent information is easy and instinctive, but is an indication of poor management.

"Commercial fishermen have a long and reputable history of using and caring for the resource to ensure fish stocks and their livelihood will be there tomorrow. They have provided constant and invaluable contributions to our local economy and along with recreational fishermen, have fed our islanders for more than a century. Heavily regulated and licensed, commercial fishermen provide the Department with the only substantiated catch data for all local fish caught. In working on future management measures, it is my hope that the Department will consult the expert fishermen from Kauai and all other islands to gain a comprehensive understanding of the resource as they see it. As daily and responsible users of the resource, it would be unacceptable and irresponsible to regulate them based on opinions gathered from occasional recreational fishermen.

"Mr. Speaker, HB1712, HD2 also requires the Department to develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the effects that runoff, sedimentation, pollution, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem, and the introduction of invasive species have on the ecosystem that affects the habitat and forage of uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio.

"This provision places emphasis on the need to have the Department address the factors that contribute to habitat loss which is a primary cause for any possible decline in fish populations. HB1712, HD2, most importantly, mentions this important impact as one that should be addressed by monitoring.

"This holistic approach to resource management is a step in the right direction. With a monitoring and evaluation program, the fishermen of Kauai and the entire State will have a better understanding of the true condition of the habitat and can willingly and trustingly work towards management measures to provide for continued use of the resource.

"Most importantly, Mr. Speaker, this bill encourages the Department to work with the fishermen of Hawaii towards favorable outcomes, and not against them and I urge my colleagues who eat fish or have constituents who eat fish to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1712, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FISHING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Berg, Hanohano, C. Lee, Marumoto, Morita, Pine, Saiki, Takumi and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 925) recommending that H.B. No. 310, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 310, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to HB 310, HD 2. The problem with this bill is that it seeks to impose an unreasonable “fix” to the Medical Claims Conciliation Panel (MCCP). The MCCP is intended to offer injured plaintiffs an inexpensive, expedited, informal forum to reconcile their complaints against health care defendants before any litigation begins. MCCP’s decisions are advisory only. Sometimes the parties never reach a settlement. HB 310, HD 2 would convert this conciliatory process into a quasi-adjudicatory process, prompting the parties to focus entirely on positioning themselves in anticipation of litigation, thus undercutting the conciliatory purposes of the MCCP. This bill would further create additional expense and delay to the MCCP process. For these reasons, I oppose HB 310, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 310, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAL TORTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, Luke, Morita, Nishimoto, Rhoads, Saiki and Shimabukuro voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 926) recommending that H.B. No. 1636, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1636, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Because it's such a feel-good sounding bill, I figured I'd better explain why I was going to vote against this bill, Relating to Emergency Medical Physicians.

"The cost that the negligence already takes into account that, if you're a doctor in an emergency room, you're not expected to be superman or superwoman. You're expected to do what a reasonable person would do under those circumstances. And giving emergency medical personnel even more leeway is simply unnecessary. The common law as it stands allows for negligence, and you're put in the shoes of someone who, it's understood that it’s a very difficult job that you have and that you'll be given a break legally as a result of that. So that’s why I'm opposed to this. Mahalo."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1636, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCY MEDICAL PHYSICIANS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Berg, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, Luke, Morita, Nishimoto, Rhoads, Saiki and Shimabukuro voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, McKelvey and Takai being excused.

At 4:21 o'clock p.m. Representative Tsuji requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:26 o'clock p.m.

At 4:29 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 358, HD 1
H.B. No. 519, HD 1

H.B. No. 987, HD 2
H.B. No. 1145, HD 1
H.B. No. 1712, HD 2
H.B. No. 310, HD 2
H.B. No. 1636, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 928) recommending that H.B. No. 1097, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1097, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Standing Committee Report No. 928, House Bill 1097, House Draft 1. Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of this bill, and need to point out that this is the Governor's bill to address our budget shortfall. What it would do is change the Assistance for the Aged, Blind and Disabled Program into a block grant program. And I think members should understand the effect that this might have upon those who currently receive benefits from this entitlement program. And these are those aged, blind and permanently and totally disabled individuals.

"I had a chance to talk to the Chair of the Human Services Committee, and he did inform me that approximately 37,000 people today receive these benefits as an entitlement. I guess I need to stand today at this time Mr. Speaker just to let the Body know that we are only looking at these types of 'draconian,' extreme measures to address the shortfall. I look at my notes here, and it says that the fiscal impact of about $2.1 million in 2010, and $2.1 million in 2011. That's a total of about $4 million. But what it would do is basically reduce the monthly benefits from $469 a month, to $450 a month; and reduce the benefit payment amount from 50% to 40% of the federal poverty level. Again the point is that this radical change, or shift, would change the entitlement program for our most needy and vulnerable, to a block grant.

"If this was to occur Mr. Speaker, once the appropriation and the appropriated amount runs out, that's it. I just wanted to point that out for the Members. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also have reservations, and I think that the number is actually 3,700 if I'm not mistaken. But that is still a huge number of people who would probably be put onto the beaches and the streets if their benefits were cut. So I also have reservations and would like to submit written comments."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I quote from The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii's testimony:

The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii hereby provides testimony in opposition to the House Committee on Human Services on HB1097 - Relating to Assistance for Aged, Blind, and Permanently and Totally Disabled Persons ("AABD"). While we understand the intent and need for this bill, we much prefer another solution that would preserve AABD as an entitlement program.

The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii provides free legal services to the low-income population of the State of Hawaii. We provided civil legal assistance to those in need through nine offices located in Lihue, Waianae, Honolulu, Kaneohe, Kaunakakai, Lanai City, Wailuku, Kona and Hilo. Over the years we have provided leadership around public benefits issues and on an annual basis update our public benefits manual and provide a two-day training on public benefits.

As written, this bill would convert AABD from an entitlement program to a block grant program.

AABD-GA PROBLEM
In Hawai'i there are two financial assistance programs for disabled individuals. Simply stated AABD is for those that are permanently disabled, but that don't qualify for Supplemental Social Security Income ("SSI") because of immigration status or other reasons and General Assistance ("GA") is for those who are either temporarily disabled or who may qualify for SSI.

Because the legislature has recognized an on-going need to support those who are permanently and totally disabled persons, AABD was established as an entitlement program. As such, the benefit level for AABD is set at the same rates as the TANF/TAONF programs. However, GA was created as a block grant program which means that benefit amounts are paid out based on the total allocation provided by the legislature.

Recognizing the need to disburse comparable benefits, over the years DHS has maintained the GA payment at the same rate as the AABD program even when the block grant allocated for GA would not support such levels. To do so, DHS would transfer funds from the AABD to the GA program. However, recently they've been advised that they cannot continue this practice as AABD is an entitlement and GA is blocked grant.

As such, in order to allow for continued transfers and to ensure on-going parity between these two populations, either AABD must be converted to a block grant program or GA must be converted to an entitlement program. This bill converts AABD to a block grant program.

AABD SHOULD NOT BE A BLOCK GRANT
While we understand the problem faced by DHS and the state, we do not think that the solution is in changing a program like AABD into a block grant. By changing AABD, we expose this most vulnerable population to fluctuation in benefits based on the availability of state funds and the numbers of individuals who qualify for the program. Our aged, blind, and permanently and totally disabled citizens do not deserve such fluctuation especially when they are living on a fixed income and are unable to work.

As such we oppose this bill and much prefer an option to convert the GA program into an entitlement program. We submit this solution as a part of our testimony on HB1098 - Relating to General Assistance.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify.
Sincerely,
M. Nalani Fujimori
Interim Executive Director"

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 1097- Relating to Assistance for Aged, Blind, and Permanently and Totally Disabled Persons. The proposed bill changes the State-funded Assistance for Aged, Blind and Permanently and Totally Disabled public assistance program from an entitlement program to a block grand program.

"The assistance amount would be based upon the amount appropriated by the Legislature and would not exceed 62.5% of the standard need. The proposed bill would inevitably expose the program to fluctuation in benefits based on state funds and numbers of qualifiers into the program.

"While I understand the need of the Department of Human Services and their position that allowing the Legislature greater flexibility to control the funding for this program could be beneficial to Aged and Disabled persons, we must be sure that we can improve the State's ability to track and reliably project costs for this program to ensure the protection and well-being of these individuals. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1097, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ASSISTANCE FOR AGED, BLIND, AND PERMANENTLY AND TOTALLY DISABLED PERSONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Brower voting no, and with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 929) recommending that H.B. No. 1666, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1666, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and stated:

[Speaking in a foreign language.]

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Ward, you're out of order."

Representative Ward then stated:

"Exactly. It's a linguistic protocol that I'm speaking about, and I did it purposely, Mr. Speaker. In this bill, are we saying that Hawaiian is the primary language, and English the secondary? If so, we need to invert one of the clauses that says, 'On the top is the English. On the bottom is the Hawaiian,' whereas now, it's in the opposite. Thank you, and [speaking in a foreign language]."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I believe, in our State laws, the Hawaiian and English languages are both recognized as the official languages of our State. So, I think they're at least equal. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support, with regards to Stand. Comm. Report No. 929. In addition, I'd just like to mention that, if I'm not mistaken, the Hawaiian people were here before anyone else. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support.

"I support SCR 929 HB 1666 HD1 because this bill will ensure the preservation and promotion of Native Hawaiian culture, history, and language as provided for in the Hawaii State Constitution by requiring that the accurate, appropriate, and authentic Hawaiian names and language, including proper Hawaiian spelling and punctuation with macrons and glottal stops be included on:

(1) All letterheads prepared by or for State or County agencies or officials effective January 1, 2011, provided that any revision to conform any letterhead existing on or before January 1, 2011, to the requirements, may be implemented when the letterhead requires replacement or reprinting, or otherwise requires revision; and

(2) All emblems and symbols representative of the State, its departments, agencies, and political subdivisions, effective January 1, 2011, provided that for existing symbols and emblems, conformance may be delayed until a replacement is required.

"Therefore, this bill will not cost the state anything more than making sure that the okina and kahako are in its appropriate place in the spelling of Hawaiian words.

"It is time to support the host culture. This legislation is long overdue. I urge my colleagues to please support this significant legislation."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. And just for everyone, this would actually only take effect when the letterheads and logos are being redesigned. So, I believe this will be a revenue neutral measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1666, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 931) recommending that H.B. No. 1271, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1271, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. Mr. Speaker, I am in support of parts I, II, and III of this measure, which increases the tax on a barrel of crude oil to support energy and food security issues. However, I do not support part IV of this bill, which suspends the ethanol blending mandate.

"First of all, I believe the tax increase on a barrel of oil can be well justified as a strategic, long-term investment for Hawaii's food and energy security to decrease pricing volatility, which destabilizes our Hawaii economy, and to lessen the risk of fuel and food supply disruption.

"The cost to Hawaii's residents is estimated to be minimal; as low as $20 per person, per year, compared to the continued exportation of over $2,000 per person, per year, out of Hawaii's economy, just to meet increased energy costs. This does not even include the amount of money exported out of the state for food.

"However, tying this tax increase to a supposed offset, by suspending the ethanol blending mandate is illogical for the following reasons, and without a full understanding of gasoline and ethanol pricing, and with this lack of understanding, it will increase the price of a gallon of gasoline.

"First of all, the ethanol blending mandate does not require ethanol to be blended if it's cost is greater than the wholesale rack price of gasoline. Second, the Legislature has no control over the price of gasoline, much less on the price of ethanol or crude oil. We should not be giving the public false expectations that the increase in a tax will be offset by lower gasoline prices, should we suspend ethanol blending.

"And third, I believe the Finance Committee members used crude oil and ethanol commodity prices in their assumptions. There's no statistically significant correlation between ethanol and crude oil prices. It's like comparing apples and oranges to relate ethanol prices, a finished product that has undergone significant transformation, to a raw material, crude oil, that has to undergo a significant manufacturing process to produce its finished products, which is gasoline and diesel, in this case.

"Wholesale ethanol today is quoted at $1.54 per gallon on the Chicago Board of Trade, for June 2009 delivery. Barge handling costs brings the delivery to Hawaii at a price of $1.86.5 per gallon, before applying the federal tax credit of 45 cents per gallon, yielding a comparable net ethanol price of $1.41.5 per gallon.

"Mr. Speaker, I will have more detail on how these costs are calculated. But, with crude oil at $40 per barrel, and at close today, it was at $45.71. So, with crude oil at $40 per barrel, it equates to approximately $76 per barrel in gasoline costs. Ethanol, at current prices, including the federal tax credit, equates to $59.43 per barrel. So, again, this equates to a cost of 39.5 cents per gallon, a lower cost of ethanol, compared to gasoline.

"In the most recent energy information and administration price data for wholesale gasoline prices in Hawaii, and this is for December 20, '08, it showed a State average of $1.55 per gallon of gasoline, which equates to about $68 per barrel. Since December crude prices have risen by approximately 14 percent from December lows, wholesale gasoline prices are likely to rise by a comparable percentage, to about $77 per barrel.

"Additionally, ethanol is priced on a cost plus basis, not true market value. So, if it sells at a discounted price to its actual value as a fuel extender and octane enhancer, ethanol's octane value is $112 and a half, allowing a refiner to blow …"

Representative Takumi rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you. Thank you, Representative. Anyway, there's value in octane. So, ethanol's octane value wasn't apparently factored into the wholesale price, and it's estimated to be between 20 and 35 cents per gallon, which is equivalent to 2 cents to 3.5 cents per gallon of gasoline.

"But, most important, Mr. Speaker, the blending of ethanol in gasoline was studied extensively by this Body and the Administration prior to the promulgation of Rules for the mandate, including detailed studies by Stillwater Associates, BBI International, and Decision Analysis Hawaii. All these studies concluded that ethanol blending was likely to exert downward pressure on Hawaii gasoline prices.

"Part IV of this bill is going to have a significant negative impact on businesses who have already invested substantial amounts to carry out the ethanol blending policy: The promotion of renewable energy, and our commitment of keeping agricultural lands in agricultural productions. For example, Pacific West Energy, LLC., is a company that is pursuing ethanol production in the State of Hawaii. They've invested over $8 million to date in project development. The project has an air permit, and the project's projected budget is $125 million. It is estimated to employ over 300 people, and develop and keep over 50,000 acres in crop cultivation.

"If this mandate is repealed or suspended, the project will not be able to secure further equity and debt financing, and all investments to date will be likely lost, and with it, several hundred jobs.

"Again, simply put, part IV of this bill ruins investors' confidence in Hawaii, in our commitment to renewable energy future, and keeping ag lands in ag production.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to make reference to the Federal Renewable Fuel Standards Waiver section, which Hawaii has opted into, requiring increasing ethanol use in motor fuel. This section has lots of problems, and should the State not be able to obtain the waiver from the EPA, the penalties are significant, and could add an additional 14 cents per gallon to the price of gasoline. So, again, section IV is very problematic, and again, it goes against policy that we've been establishing for the last, at least, 6 years. It is a step backwards in the renewable energy future for Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. And thank you for the comments from the Representative from Kauai. One of the things that I have to say is, this is my idea. Mr. Speaker, when I did come to this Body, you did say to use my creativity to find more revenue for the State.

"This is an idea where, what I wanted to do was, I wanted to use ethanol, the price of ethanol, to lower the price of gas, and then use that particular money to balance our budget.

"I agree with the speaker from Kauai, that there is a difference between cost and price, and the figure she's using is price. The figures I used was cost. The cost price of making a barrel of ethanol was about $80, so that's what I used.

"Now, we know that ethanol is a commodity, so being a commodity, the prices do fluctuate. But, over time, I think all companies will have to make their money, so prices of ethanol will go up. I also realize that there is a federal mandate for ethanol, and in the bill, it does have a provision in there that we must ask the federal government for permission to do this.

"Third, this is not an elimination of ethanol …"

Representative Evans rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of order. The current speaker is speaking in support, but he is also looking out in the audience."

The Chair addressed Representative Choy, stating:

"Representative Choy, please address the podium. Sorry."

Representative Choy continued, stating:

"Okay. Now, I forgot where I was. I went over the federal mandate. I went over the cost areas of it.

"But, in all fairness, this particular suspension of ethanol is only for three years. And that's when I feel that the State budget will improve. This is like a kokua from the oil companies. Will they help us for a mere 36 months? All the figures in the ethanol bill are blanked out. So, the figures, as far as what the barrel tax is going to be, what the different allocations are going to be, have to be determined. I think further conversation on this bill is very, very important. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this bill. I just want to thank the original author of this bill. I think this puts on the table some of the most important issues that we face today: energy and food self-sufficiency. And if we are successful with this bill, I think that it could be the most important piece of legislation that we pass this year.

"It addresses the $8.6 billion that we currently export. About $4 billion of that is purely for oil. This bill focuses on the planning, and the funding, and the implementation to make Hawaii energy and food self-sufficient, through economic development, and cooperation with our agencies. So, it will benefit not only our economy, but our environment, and our security.

"The challenge is that, in these times, in particular, we don't want to put additional taxes on the population. I think that is why we have a new part to this bill. I think that we really need to explore the numbers, because if some of the numbers are correct, we may be able to offset any increase in price for our barrel tax.

"So, I really encourage you all to support this bill, move it forward, and we'll continue to have the conversation. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. I also commend the authors of this bill. In Finance, it's known as the 'Freshman Bill.' The Chair of Finance gave an assignment, and I think they've risen to the occasion.

"It's a bill whose time has come. You talk to anybody in your districts, going door to door, at the filling station, 'How do you like the ethanol blending situation?' Or ask the boaters, or the fishermen, or the guys who fill-up their lawnmower, and carry their gas around in a can.

"Nobody likes ethanol. Nobody is getting the advantage of it. Even those who have the climate warming as the big issue know that the footprint of growing the corn, and taking the ethanol, and getting the energy out, regardless of whatever the octane is, it's a lose-lose situation, Mr. Speaker.

"So, this bill, I think is ingenious. It's timely. It's a chance for three years to put money into the coffers, and I think it would, quite frankly, delight the people of Hawaii.

"Now, part two of my reservation is, actually, that there's a tax increase that's associated with that. I'm not very fond of that, but in terms of the ethanol, I think it's an idea whose time has come. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just again in support with reservations. The main point that I want to make to this Body is the kind of market signals that you're sending out there. What you're doing is you're creating uncertainty in the market, even with a suspension. And again, I only gave you one example of a company that has been investing in a policy direction this Body has taken over the past, at least, six years or more. Again, looking at the continuation of mainly keeping sugar as the primary feedstock, and keeping sugar areas in ag production.

"Again, the main concern about part IV, are the kinds of market signals that you're sending out there to investors in this area. And it's not a very good signal. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose to respond, stating:

"With all due respect to my colleague from Kauai. There's not one drop of ethanol being produced here. And the three year suspension deadline was discussed with people who are going to invest in ethanol. Maybe in three years we will have one drop of ethanol being produced in Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Just some comments, Mr. Speaker. Several important points of this measure that haven't been touched upon are that this will create a task force for us to review and investigate the broad range of energy and food security issues, and develop an integrated energy and food policy. I'd like to commend, both the Chair of the Energy and Environmental Protection Committee, and the Agriculture Chair for finally melding the two most important policy decisions of this Body to promote and sustain agriculture, open lands, and also at the same time, to diversify renewable energy ability, and away from fossil fuels.

"I'd also like to thank the three freshmen, who I call the drafters of this current version before us, the Representatives from Manoa, Kona, and from the Windward side of the island. They took it upon themselves to craft a bill that would, at the same time, allow us to fund these two different initiatives regarding energy and food through the barrel tax, but at the same time, address some of the concerns that members of the Committee and the community also had.

"I'd like to also thank the Representative from Manoa for his fresh set of eyes upon the issue of the barrel tax. Interestingly, he came into my office last week all excited, like he had found some pot of gold there. He asked me this question. He said, 'Hey Chair, the barrel tax. The five cents on a barrel tax. How do you see that being imposed?' And I say, 'What do you mean by that?' He goes, 'What's the five cents on?' And I say, 'Well, it's on a barrel of oil.'

"And he said, 'No no no no no. It's not.' And I say, 'What do you mean by that? It's five cents on a barrel of oil, this unrefined crude oil coming in.' And he said, 'No,' And he said he'd tell me about it later.

"But, that's the kind of industry we have with this new class of freshmen, Mr. Speaker. So, I was just really pleased to see this measure come out the way it did, and I hope we can all work on it together, because I think it serves some really important policy direction for this state. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I rise to speak in support, but with reservations. It sounds like, from the debate that was going on, what happened after it passed the EEP Committee was that, whatever happened in the later Committees, they failed to get prior concurrence from the EEP Chair, and I hear the frustration in her voice. And, any time we work in this sense, it's just bad 'kung fu.' Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 1271 - Relating to Government. The proposed bill establishes a task force to review and investigate a broad range of energy and food security issues while developing an integrated energy and food policy, while also increasing the environmental response tax from five cents to $1 per barrel.

"This legislation is representative of one of the largest tax increases we have seen and will eventually impact the gasoline prices of Hawaii drivers. By increasing the tax on a barrel of oil, this measure has the potential to slow the economy down even further due to our states reliance on fuel for transportation.

"This tax is highly regressive and has the potential to impact the poor the most. During a time when our nation and State are in economic uncertainty we must be careful and cautious with the bills we pass. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just, in support, with reservations. I have just a couple of verbal comments. I originally was against this bill, because there was a small tax increase, but when you take the ethanol blend temporarily out of there, it's spending-neutral for the taxpayer. But at the same time, it does raise an estimated $200 million for the State.

"My reservation is, I would like, as it comes back to us, to ensure that we implement in the bill somewhere, that when the ethanol is ready to go back in there, that we would reduce the tax on the barrel of oil, so that it's always spending-neutral for the taxpayer."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. For the reasons described by the Representative from Kauai, I will be voting 'no' on this bill. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1271, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Brower, Finnegan, Hanohano, Marumoto, Saiki and Takumi voting no, and with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 932) recommending that H.B. No. 1378, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1378, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1378 - Relating to Advanced Practices Registered Nurses. This bill could be counterproductive in that it could result in more malpractices cases, which can drive up the malpractice premiums even higher than they are, which might result in even less doctors wanting to practice here. This bill is designed to alleviate the shortage of healthcare in Hawaii, but it could make the problem worse. The Hawaii Medical Association states:

1. APRN's lack the requisite education and training to prescribe independent of direct physician supervision

2. All prescriptive privileges should be decided by the Hawaii Medical Board, and not the Board of Nursing.

3. This bill will create a two-tiered health care system, in which the indigent and less educated patients will receive care inferior to that available to patients of higher socioeconomic status.

4. Should something go wrong while a patient is under APRN care, and the patient is transferred by the APRN to a physician for care, it will be the physician and the hospital who are sued, resulting in more lawsuits and higher malpractice premiums.

"Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of this measure, which recognizes Advanced Practice Registered Nurses (APRNs) as participating primary care providers for insurance purposes, permits APRNs to sign documents related to healthcare for their patients, clarifies the educational requirements for APRNs and updates their authority to prescribe pharmaceuticals, medical equipment and therapeutic regimens in accordance with their scope of practice.

"It is no secret that access to care in the rural areas of our State is limited. The cost of care has also been steadily increasing. The full participation of the Advanced Practice Registered Nurse is an important part of the effort to bring more access to our rural areas, and also to patients to whom access of care is limited. Removing barriers to APRN practice will allow healthcare to be provided to under- served populations and to those who have limited access to health care facilities.

"Evidence gathered over the past forty years demonstrates the ability of APRNs to provide safe, competent and high quality care. On Friday of this week, we will honor an APRN who was recognized recently for her work by the American Geriatrics Society—the first non-physician to receive the Society's "Clinician of the Year Award."

"The $200 million allocated for health professions training in the final federal stimulus package will be divided between the Nursing Workforce Development Programs (Title VIII of the Public Health Service Act) and the Health Professions Training Programs (Title VII). This is a doubling of present funds and much of it will go to support advanced practice education. Further, the Department of Labor will be making funds available to states for nursing education. To compete for these funds, it is critical that we pass HB1378 HD2. Hawaii will need to be in compliance with national practice to compete for the funds.

"It is hard to make the case for the University of Hawaii when our State does not allow full authority. Advanced practice registered nurses are not junior doctors. They practice an honored profession. Medicine and nursing are complementary disciplines, and the best interests of the consumer are met when APRNs can practice without barriers, and as an essential component of the primary healthcare team."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1378, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADVANCED PRACTICE REGISTERED NURSES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Ching and Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 933) recommending that H.B. No. 980, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 980, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I'm strongly in support of this bill that is proposed by the Department of Land and Natural Resources. I think it will provide many recreational opportunities for our people, but I would like to point out one part, which is of concern to me.

"Apparently, there will be opportunities for motorized recreation on two islands. I suppose this is good news for proponents of people who like to ride motorcycles and who like to ride all-terrain vehicles. But I am concerned because there might be the opportunity for minors to ride all-terrain vehicles. They might be a smaller size, but since these vehicles go very fast, perhaps up to 50 mph, it could be quite dangerous.

"A private contractor is supposed to operate these sites, and I'm sure they'll do a good job, because with regulations, with safety concerns, because they themselves do not want to be liable. But, I still think there is some danger of liability to the operator, and to us, to the State.

"So, because of the liability issue, and because of the possible danger to minors, I would caution us to perhaps put some restrictions on ATV use by minors in this measure. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations, particularly regarding Ka Iwi, and the lack of need to have commercialization, if you will. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in opposition to HB 980 HD2, "Relating to Recreational Renaissance".

"This bill offers an attractive narrative, presenting itself as a simple way to obtain the funds needed to address the backlog of repairs and improvements in Hawaii parks and recreational areas. We all have our favorite recreational areas that desperately need attention.

"After reviewing the testimony on this measure, however, I fear that this is really the 'wolf in sheep's clothing'.

"This legislative proposal is really not a recreational plan, but a risky financing venture that requires taking out a large loan at the front end and then privatizing our public lands, commercializing our recreational harbors, and saddling our natural areas with increased infrastructure necessary to support tourist use -- all in order to generate the future income to pay off that big debt. In the process, instead of being driven to protect our public trust resources, DLNR will be forced to manage our public resources as commodities to produce sufficient income to remain solvent.

"The plan provides few specifics on how the debt service requirements will ultimately translate into user fees to be shouldered by local users.

"Testimony offered on this measure shows it is favored by commercial interests, opposed by many recreational users, and viewed with utmost caution by affected communities.

"The Hawaii Kai Neighborhood Board, for example, justifiably worries about possible 'improvements' that could ruin the pristine Ka Iwi coastline between Hanauma Bay and Makapuu. The need to pay off DLNR's debt could, in the Board's view, 'cause the State to market the area to more and more tourists in order to generate revenue. This would drive out local use, as is evident at Diamond Head and Hanauma Bay where fees are already imposed.'

"Several testifiers pointed to the danger of more of our recreational areas being 'improved' by DLNR's vision regarding more comfort stations, cabins, camping areas, concessions, boardwalks, parking lots, and similar facilities. They express grave concerns that Ka Iwi could end up like Diamond Head Park, with its information center, T-shirt sales, non-stop tourist buses, vending machines, and so on.

"Residents in East Honolulu have fought for three decades to preserve the area and are justified in their doubts about this financing plan being proposed so hastily and rushed into law. Two environmental organizations reminded us of an agreement between the State and federal governments setting aside Keehi Lagoon to mitigate for the loss of habitat of the Hawaiian Stilt caused by construction of the reef runway.

"Audits done in the past several years suggest that DLNR's problems stem as much from ineffective and broken management as from inadequate finances. This risky financing plan attempts to address the latter, but gives us little confidence about the former.

"Still, even larger questions remain. What about ceded lands? How will they be impacted? For these reasons and concerns, Mr. Speaker, I vote today in opposition to HB 980 HD2 and urge my colleagues to do the same."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I applaud the State's interest to revitalize Hawaii's outdoor recreational infrastructure. One of the harbors—the Ala Wai Small Boat Harbor—is located within my district and in need of improvements.

"However, at this time, a portion of this may not be right. A number of constituents and community groups testified in opposition to the Recreational Renaissance Plan embodied in House Bill 980.

"As their Representative, I am their voice and I wish to express some of their concerns over the impact of this Plan on harbor residents and the recreational public.

"Proposed funding mechanisms would overburden the middle-class live-aboards at the Ala Wai Boat Harbor.

1) Additional Fee Increases and Co-Mingling of the Funds

"The State owns and operates the harbors to keep boating affordable for the people of Hawaii. It was never intended for revenue-making purposes. (Our State has designated other harbors for commercial use. Those designations should be maintained and those activities should not encroach upon the Ala Wai harbor.)

"Fee increases for live-aboards at the Ala Wai Boat Harbor mean that, for many who live on fixed income and are struggling through the recession, they may lose their homes.

"For years, the boaters have approached me about how the current fee-tiering system at the harbors results in them, Ala Wai Boat Harbor live-aboards, subsidizing the lower-income harbors (which actually lose the State the most money). One constituent proposes a system that charged one fee to berth a recreational boat in the State of Hawaii, regardless of where the boat is berthed.

"Recreational Renaissance exacerbates this problem because now boaters can forget about seeing more money come to improve the Ala Wai. Now, their fees could fund non-harbor improvements, such as beaches, parks and trails.

"Lumping the Special Boating Fund in with other funds administered by the DLNR would facilitate DLNR using the Special Boating Fund money for non-boating projects.

"This constituent, speaking on behalf of many boaters, proposes that each special fund should pay its own way.

2) Proposed funding mechanism would limit public access to popular beaches and parks

"As a native of the islands, I feel that we cannot let our open spaces and beaches slip out of our hands.

"These increases (including parking) will make it much more difficult for the average individual to enjoy the recreational amenities of the Ala Wai harbor.

"We are concerned that the proposal to lease submerged lands at the Ala Wai would force the commercial companies to encroach on the free parking area dedicated for recreational use.

"The State Charter on DOBOR requires the division to offer affordable use of public harbors and parks. The attempt to lease harbor lands to for-profit private companies would displace or economically restrict the Honolulu resident's use of their waterfront park in Waikiki.

"The leasing of submerged lands may be subject to the court ordered moratorium as submerged lands are also considered ceded lands.

3) Public Safety would be jeopardized if commercial vessels were allowed to moor at the harbor

"Related to the previous point, if you let "big boats" into the small boat harbor, paddlers, surfers, free divers, and others may be in danger. There simply is not enough room to accommodate the added road traffic. There may be less people able to enjoy the harbor if their safety is not protected.

4) Commercial Vessels would bring Noise & Toxic Fumes to the surrounding community

"The neighborhood cannot accept the additional noise at all hours of the day and night.

"Trucks delivering food and drink plus trash trucks, tourist buses, trolleys, cabs and other hotel traffic compete for this space and leave their noise and filth behind. To add commercial noise and traffic at this part of the Ala Wai would be an irresponsible action.

"Residents at the nearby Ilikai Marina have testified that, even now, the sounds of some of the small boats can be upsetting when the various noises mentioned above are heard. The sounds of a commercial boat engine can be heard when large boats come to re-fuel at the dock.

"Additionally, the smell of the fuel used, and the crew getting all those boats fit for sea, is not appropriate for a residential area."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 980, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RECREATIONAL RENAISSANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Berg, Brower, Coffman and Hanohano voting no, and with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 936) recommending that H.B. No. 378, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 378, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. This is in regards to the Department of Transportation, the International Airport, and our airport security contracts.

"Mr. Speaker, it's a bit befuddling that we have to have non-bid contracts, or contracts by negotiation at the airport. Two reasons for that. During the hearing in Finance, it became very obvious that what was intended to be protected, rather than open competition, were Homeland Security secrets.

"Now, if a company is going to bid for a contract at an entity as big as the Honolulu Airport, they're not going to be the small 'mom and poppers' that we have guarding a couple acres of land. These are the 'big boys.'

"So, those who are bidding for this, either had it here, or have had experience on the mainland. And to put a negotiation, rather than an open competition to save taxpayers money, and do as we do with usual procurement seems highly, highly unusual, Mr. Speaker.

"So, I stand here saying, are you sure we want to go down this line? Because every other place has procurement, procurement, procurement. This is saying, negotiate it and do it. And I think for these proprietary things, it's a little bit of a 'boogie man.' Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. I just want to point out for Members, that in the purpose section of the bill, it clearly states it is problematic to require the Department of Transportation to follow the pre-September 11, 2001 practice of publicly bidding and awarding security contracts at Hawaii's airports, as the Department of Transportation is prohibited from disclosing numerous federal requirements to companies bidding on the contract.

"If you go out to bid, and don't disclose all the requirements, it's just setting you up for a protest. So, I think this is a reasonable thing to move forward and continue discussion. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just vote with reservations, please. I believe DOT was opposed."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a brief retort. I think, in response to what otherwise we always put in the preamble, things that make the bill sound like it's really necessary. Those who are bidding for this have been there and done that.

"If there can be data showed to me that says that these are neophytes, small guys who don't know their way around since 9/11, 2001, I would gladly concede. But, the point is, they've been there, they've done that. This thing about proprietary interests, that's how the CIA and other untoward things happen, because this is top secret, we can't tell you about it, and it ends up doing a lot of spoilage, and I think our airports shouldn't be spoiled. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise to speak in opposition of HB 378, HD1, that will allow the Department of Transportation (DOT) to obtain security services at Hawaii's airports by negotiation and not through a bidding process.

"This bill is not necessary due to the procurement law in Chapter 103D authorizing the State Procurement Policy Board to allow DOT to procure services when it believes it is appropriate, to ask for a waiver or change from the usual sealed bid requirements. The language of this bill would mandate DOT to negotiate the contract. Additionally, it does not address procedures for handling sensitive information without compromising security.

"Therefore, I oppose this bill."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 378 - The proposed bill allows the Department of Transportation to hire and award security contracts by negotiation and not through a bid. Due to security reasons, contract bidders are unable to see the imposed requirements and confidential matters prior to bidding on a contract. As a result, the winning bidder is unaware of the additional cost factors, causing a contractor to be in a position to either default or cut back on services to meet the added costs imposed by federal requirements.

"The DOT understands the intent of this bill, and appreciates the legislative acknowledgement that these requirements pose unique challenges to the procurement process. The reservations held by the DOT are due to adopted rules that are comparable to this bill.

"We must always remember that security needs to come first. With cooperation from the DOT and slight amendments, this bill can be beneficial to both security contract bidders and to the security of our airports. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 378, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 35 ayes to 14 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Brower, Finnegan, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, Marumoto, Morita, Pine, Saiki, Takumi, Thielen, Wakai and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

At 5:03 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1097, HD 1
H.B. No. 1666, HD 1
H.B. No. 1271, HD 3
H.B. No. 1378, HD 2
H.B. No. 980, HD 2
H.B. No. 378, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 937) recommending that H.B. No. 681, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 937, that H.B. No. 681, HD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 681, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, on page 37, we're going to take out of order, Standing Committee Report No. 946. House Bill 215, House Draft 2."

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 946) recommending that H.B. No. 215, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Karamatsu moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 946, that H.B. No. 215, HD 2, be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Ito.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I speak in support of the recommittal. While well intentioned, this bill has many flaws and pukas and question marks on it. So I applaud the Chair and the Vice Chair for recommitting this bill and working on it, so that we can move forward with a very clean and powerful measure to address the issues in the measure. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"I stand in strong support of the recommittal. The bill as written is not ready, and it would have allowed the pay to play system of the past to be re-instilled."

Representative Saiki rose in support of the motion to recommit and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the motion to recommit H.B. 215, H.D. 2 ("H.D. 2") to the Committee on Judiciary ("JUD") because it is premature for this Body to vote on this legislation.

"The alternative to recommitting H.D. 2 to JUD was the prospect of facing a Floor Amendment that would have amended provisions regarding corporate contributions and nonresident contributions, as described in the cover sheet to Floor Amendment No. 4 (see below). Recommittal was deemed appropriate because it will afford JUD and this Body additional time to analyze the proposals in the Floor Amendment. The proposals aim to decrease the aggregate cap on corporate contributions from $50,000 to $25,000, and to close several loopholes.

"The first loophole would un-do any cap on corporate contributions because H.D. 2 limits a company's contributions made from its "treasury" under section 11-JJ(b)(1). It is unclear what "treasury" means. A narrow interpretation of "treasury" would result in companies making unregulated contributions (i.e., contributions that exceed the aggregate of $50,000) from "non-treasury" sources. The Floor Amendment would have made clear that contributions from "companies" as opposed to "treasuries" are subject to the cap.

"The second loophole would allow corporate PACs that are formed outside of Hawaii to make unlimited contributions to Hawaii campaigns. This is because H.D. 2 deleted the phrase "including a noncandidate committee organized under the laws of another state and whose participants are not residents of the state" from section 11-00(a). The Floor Amendment proposed that this phrase be reinserted into the statute.

"The third loophole would have restricted application of the 20% out-of-state contribution limit only to campaigns for public offices with two-year terms. The limitation would not have applied to those with four-year terms. This is due to the use of the term "two-year election period" in section 11-00(a). The Floor Amendment proposes that the term be revised to read "election period."

"Recommittal is appropriate because JUD will now have additional time to analyze these matters and incorporate new language into H.D. 2. Thank you."

Representative Saiki also submitted the following:

CARRIED FAILED TO CARRY WITHDRAWN

CHIEF CLERK, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 215, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN FINANCING," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 938) recommending that H.B. No. 963, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 963, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of HB 963, HD1: Relating to Works of Art Special Fund.

"Given our current economic situation, this measure provides an alternative source of funding for two very important cultural institutions in the State without committing any general funds. The Hawaii State Art Museum is very much like the Bishop Museum and Iolani Palace, yet all three concentrate on different time periods as reflected in their respective collections. I fully support using the Works of Art Special Fund to provide much needed assistance to these two noteworthy organizations.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. The measure helps to ensure that our Hawaiian works of art will be properly cared for through additional funding that is long overdue. Recipients Bishop Museum and Iolani Palace representatives were present in the wee hours of the morning to provide testimony in person – a symbol of just how important this measure is and means for them. At a time when we are experiencing financial challenges, I am sure that we all recognize the importance of these two entities and how the palace and the museum cannot be replaced and must be preserved for the benefit of future generations."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of H.B 963 - Relating to Works of Art Special Fund. The proposed bill allows expenditures from Works of Art Special Fund for acquisition of works of art for the Bishop Museum and Iolani Palace. By extending the works of art special fund to support the Palace and the Museum, the two institutions will have greater financial resources to support their important work, adding to the significant value of the culture of Hawaii. This will lead to an increase in the numbers of people who will have access to these worlds and the funds generated.

"The Historic Hawai'i Foundation has expressed the utmost support stating that. 'besides being a public benefit in its own right, the investment in these important historic and cultural resources will also serve a general economic development goal.' Studies made by the Travel Industry Association of American have reported that heritage and cultural tourists consistently stay in a tourist destination longer and spend more money than other types of travelers.

"By allowing expenditures for the Bishop Museum and Iolani Palace, this bill would lead to the enjoyment of these institutions by both visitors and kama'aina. By supporting these institutions, we will be contributing to the preservation and showcase of Hawai'i to visitors and locals alike. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 963, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKS OF ART SPECIAL FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Belatti and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 939) recommending that H.B. No. 819, HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 819, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, I'd like to speak in support of SCR 939, Relating to Crime. This is the bill otherwise called 'Karen's Law.' And I want to speak the best that I can for the family that asked the Legislature to bring this here, today. This bill was brought forth because a woman in my district, Karen Ertell, was raped, and brutally murdered, and robbed, by a 15 year old. And so, what I'm going to read to you today is just to explain why this was brought here. This is testimony from Karen Ertell's boyfriend, and what happened to them in the Judicial System. Because the juvenile was under 18, special processes had to take place in the family court system to decide whether the juvenile was tried as an adult or not.

"Kevin says, 'I cannot describe to you the daily pain and anguish that Karen's family and I, and loved ones have endured since her murder. This anguish turned into weeks, then months, and now almost two years. Yet, there's still no real trial regarding the murder. In the family court, we endured eight delays and postponements, as the legal wheels turned painfully slow, before the judge finally made a decision to waive jurisdiction and move the case to adult court.'

"This took nearly 18 months, just to decide that this person that raped, and murdered, and robbed Karen Ertell, would be tried as an adult or not. This not only put Karen's family through hell, but it cost an incredible amount of taxpayer dollars.

"Karen's daughter, Malanie McLellan wrote in her testimony:

I found my mother's body when I was 9 months pregnant with the grandson that she will never meet. She was brutally attacked, raped, beaten, robbed and finally strangled to death. The police described the attack as "very well planned, very well executed and very well covered up." These are not actions of a child but of a mature minded juvenile who will now face trial as an adult.

It took 15 long months before it was even determined whether her killer would be tried as a juvenile or as an adult for these crimes. These 15 months were long and horrible. Day after day wondering when and if justice would be served. I would not wish this on anyone. It felt like we had been victimized over and over again, only this time by the Judicial System. The waiver hearing system in place for juveniles works for petty crimes but is not efficient for heinous crimes like 1st and 2nd degree murder. It's an enormous waste of taxpayer money.

Some opponents to this bill argue that the juvenile may have some mental health issues in these cases but that's a moot point. Adults also have mental health issues in murder trials and those circumstances are taken into account regardless of whether it is a juvenile or adult case. The individual who committed the crime would still be allowed a fair trial, due justice, and a chance to prove their innocence or guilt, and will also have a chance to present their own unique circumstance to a judge or a jury.

We're not talking about children. We are talking about 15 to 17 year olds who know right from wrong. What will it take before Hawaii sends a message that premeditated murder will not be tolerated?

My mother's killer told his father and the police that part of the reason he kept up his criminal behavior, 10 felony arrests before this, is because he knew he could get away with it.

"Mr. Speaker, it took five separate family court hearings just to decide whether the juvenile was tried as an adult. That's five separate times that the family had to go into court, and again, see the alleged murderer of their mother, again tell their story how many times that they found their mother's dead body."

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"The bill you have before you is not necessarily the bill that the family wanted. But, I think that the Human Services Committee and the Judiciary Committee really thought long and hard about this.

"Just think about both the potential juvenile who is an alleged killer, and not convicted yet, but also, why this bill was brought forth. The family is suffering because of our laws in the Judicial System. So, what the Judiciary Chair did, was amend the bill to allow the juvenile to go instead to a Circuit Court. Because, what we discovered through all these different hearings from prosecutors was, because of the secrecy of the family court, all of the times that the family had to give evidence and tell their testimony, and the prosecutor's time, and the public defender's time, the police's time.

"All that was gathered, all the information, in the Family 'secret' Court, could not be used in this next trial that they're going through. So, they decided to transfer to the Circuit Court, so at least the judge can share information with another judge, and things would not be duplicated, thus allowing the family to spend less time on their suffering, and more time just recovering.

"They also added to the measure, Mr. Speaker, that if anything is found that's incorrect, or if the juvenile is found to have mental problems, it would allow them to go back to the juvenile court. So, there's multiple checks and balances in this bill, Mr. Speaker, and I urge the Members of the House, on behalf of the family, to consider other families who also may suffer from the same fate."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, and I ask that the words of the Representative of Ewa Beach be entered as my own. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, Karen Ertell was a close friend of mine. Karen Ertell called me a week before she passed, and I would not be doing this bill or this Legislature any justice if I didn't express that Karen could have been anyone here in this Chamber, because she was quite a businesswoman, she was very smart, she was not naïve, and to own a coffee roasting company, boy, that's hard work. She was doing a lot of things, any she could really be anyone here, anyone you might meet on the street. And, I just need to say that because sometimes I think she's been portrayed as someone who was maybe at the wrong place, at the wrong time; even portrayed as a little naïve. She was not. She was strong, and she was a highly contributive member of our community.

"So, I'm hoping that this bill passes."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Here, we have a 15 year old boy, Vernon Bartley, who robbed, murdered and raped a woman. This is a vile young man. I'm all for rehabilitating our children who make bad decisions, but there are some kids who should never be given an opportunity to prey on society a second time.

"Despite the fact that the waiver law has sent dozens of juveniles to adult prison, there was a notorious case where the forgiving legal system allowed a child killer to grow up to be an adult predator. In 1990, John Sua was 15 years old. He shot and killed a 24 year old Navy man and wounded two others in a Waipahu bar. Due to his age, he was not eligible to be waived to adult court.

"On his 19th birthday, he was released from the Youth Correctional Facility. Within months of his release in 1994, John Sua put a blade in the neck of a Waipahu man. Today, that victim remains paralyzed from his neck down. Sua was convicted of attempted murder, and sentenced to a life term, with the possibility of parole.

"During my former days as tv reporter, I interviewed the victim at a nursing home. He was on a ventilator and will never leave that hospital again. He was angry that justice was never served during John Sua's days as a juvenile.

"And, for the safety of our community, we cannot let another Vernon Bartley or John Sua hurt our neighbors. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Juveniles do commit horrible crimes, and my heart goes out to the family and to the victim, but it's not clear to me why we would only apply these to the most egregious crimes, when juveniles commit lots of other crimes as well, that can also be very hurtful to people.

"So, maybe there's some data to support doing it just for the most egregious crimes, but it seems to me like, if anything, we should be looking at a broader range, because even if a juvenile just beats somebody up, that can scar them for life, both physically and psychologically. So, it's just not clear to me where to draw the line on this, and that's why I have reservations about it. Mahalo."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks, and the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support with reservations on this measure, which would mandate that minors age 15-17 be tried as adults in cases of first and second degree murder. Although I am an advocate for the rights of victims, I am not certain that individuals at age 15 have the same capacity to deal with emotionally charged issues as adults. Some discretion must be left to the court in such cases. The length of time it takes to decide whether or not trial as an adult is appropriate. Clearly not every case is such.

"In addition, I agree with the statement of the Representative from Chinatown. Mahalo."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support, and may I have the comments from the Representative from Iroquois Point/Ewa Beach entered into the record as if they were my own? And just some brief additional comments. I too was concerned about the idea that the juvenile will be remanded to an adult correction center, and be confined to lockup. Because of protective custody, I just hope as this bill moves to the Senate, that maybe they will look at adopting the California model, whereby the juvenile serves their time in the youth correctional system until they're 18, and then they are remanded into the adult correctional system. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, I think some of the Founders of this nation said, 'justice delayed is justice denied,' and I think that's the whole process of why this the ethos of the bill, for the sake of the family, and for all of the others who have been postponed and postponed, as if the system doesn't care about what happened to them.

"It's important to protect the rights of everybody, but the fact is, that these young men are as virile, and as violent as any man, grown or otherwise is. And to think that their capacity, in fact, there was a matter of weeks ago, someone who was eight years old, who killed one in his family.

"So, the fact that this category is there, I think is very apt that we are looking at this bill, and at this particular time. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 819, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CRIME," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Berg, Hanohano, Luke, Morita, Nakashima, Saiki and Takumi voting no, and with Representatives Belatti and Takai being excused.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Mr. Speaker, this measure requires insurers, mutual benefit societies, and health maintenance organizations that offer healthcare coverage to the regular employees of any group or association to offer the same coverage to part-time employees working at least 15 hours per week.

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that, when you have legislation like this, and it's mandating to offer, and I understand that the part-time employees will be paying for the full cost of the insurance, according to this bill. But, my concern has to do with adverse selection issues, and should those who are the sickest choose to take this coverage, that it could make premiums higher for everyone else. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. As far as the previous speaker's concerns, we're trying to deal with that, by making sure that there is a certain percentage of those people that take the plan. They have to have some length of service, and they can't opt in and out. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 690, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Belatti and Takai being excused.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. The only thing that I have some concerns on, this is a bill relating to liquor, is that we should also have a sunset date, so that we don't provide an incentive for companies to not pay their taxes when the economy is good. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 645 HD 2, relating to Kaena Point.

"The bill creates a two-year pilot program to license overnight fishing there.

"The problem that has arisen is how to tell the difference between the homelesss who fish and the fishers who camp. The solution has become a $120 license, along with the requirement that the licensed fishers report any illegal activity to the Department of Land and Natural Resources, including reporting on those homeless who camp overnight without fishing.

"This bill is just going to cause confusion.

"The campers who fish, the fishers who camp and those overnight on the beach illegally will be a tough group for the DLNR to sort out. This could dramatically increase the cost of patrolling this area over the next two years, while doing little to increase safety there.

"For these reasons, I have reservations about HB 645 HD 2, relating to Kaena Point."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with brief comments. The reason we have this bill right now, it's a balance between the fishermen and saving our aina that we have in Kaena Point. I really appreciate the Vice Chair of Water, Land for offering a compromise on the bill, which basically permits them to fish.

"But, even with the compromise that she had for fishing, whether they had to have a permit, the fishermen are still not happy right now. So, basically, what's happening right now, DLNR has a task force, and hopefully this bill is a work in progress. Hopefully, there's some resolution that we can have, to basically look at the fishermen. Right now, the biggest problem is, we have the fishermen who say that they like to fish, but there is no place for them to fish. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 645, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAENA POINT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Belatti and Takai being excused.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"HB 1692 provides for a 5 year limit of tenancy in public housing.

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, there are 14,000 people awaiting to get into public housing. Poverty can be passed on through many generations, unless the causes of poverty are addressed. By allowing families to prolong their stay in public housing generation after generation is condoning the cycle of poverty.

"HB 1692 provides the "stick" part of the process. By making a clear boundary that, unless the person is eligible for veteran, elderly, or disabled housing, able bodied individuals will be required to become motivated to overcome barriers and escape poverty.

"Without this provision of limitation of stay, public housing in itself will incentivize and encourage poverty.

"Able bodied people generation after generation will be afraid to move on to market homes because they got it made.

"Mr. Speaker, with these economic times, we need to service more people and provide for equal access and opportunity. Not because you got in first, you can stay there as long as you want.

"Mr. Speaker, we can no longer do business as usual – we need to move, just like the tenants in public housing."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1692, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Manahan and Takai being excused.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations on this particular measure. The purpose of this bill is to make various amendments, shaping the purpose and application of the Life Settlements Act, which established consumer protections in life settlement transactions. Or, otherwise called STOLIs, this is Stranger Originated Life Insurances.

"I just wanted to make a short comment, and I think through reading some of this, that it sounds like it weakens some of the consumer protections. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 1439 – Relating to Insurance. I am concerned this bill might undermine the life insurance market, especially for senior citizens. Life insurers have increasingly found ways to make life insurance available and affordable to senior citizens, who want to secure the financial future of a child or other family member.

"The Department of Consumer Affairs is concerned with the following issues:

1. Section 2 of the bill makes clear that a life insurance producer does not need a separate license as a life settlement broker. This would make it harder for the Insurance Division to keep track of the life settlement marketplace because our database is based on licensing. Merely notifying us of the onset of activity does not give us a good basis for monitoring the continuation or cessation of that activity. If the intent is to regulate life settlement transitions, this charge makes it harder to do.

2. Section 6 of the bill removes the requirement for the consumers to receive disclosure of the broker's compensation. Although disclosure of broker's compensation does not happen in all lines of business, it is helpful in this context where the transaction dollar amounts very large. The disclosure of broker's compensation in the real estate brokerage transaction provides an analogy.

"Should this growing market be impaired due to high and inappropriate claims, the real victims of STOLI could well be those senior citizens who have legitimate needs for life insurance. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1439, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Manahan and Takai being excused.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, and just short comments in regards to this bill. Thank you. My concern is just that DLIR is one of the areas in which they were just cut to the bone, and just wanting to preserve them from not having new work, even though I know this is an important issue. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Many family caregivers remain in the workforce, even while providing care to loved ones at home, where they are often the most experienced and valued employees. The ability to take short periods of leave during acute episodes where their presence is needed to provide assistance would enable them to stay in the workplace until retirement, assuring them of adequate retirement benefits. Many now must leave early, making their own retirement uncertain.

"This measure is the first step to building a system of wage replacement benefits for families who are balancing work and eldercare. Before paid family leave is established in Hawaii, data showing the need would be valuable in estimating cost and utilization. Collection of data must apply to both private and public sector employees in order to get a complete picture of what would be required to best help family caregivers.

"Current Family Medical Leave legislation is insufficient:

- Only 55% of all employees are covered and eligible under the Family medical Leave act to guaranteed unpaid family leave for certain medical situations.
- Over three-quarters of those who needed leave but did not take it said this was because they could not afford it.

"There is no provision to provide leave to caregivers.

"Paid Family Leave could save money—it is not a budget buster

- Paid family leave could reduce the amount of taxpayer money that goes to welfare, unemployment compensation, food stamps, and other public programs.
- Nine percent of FMLA leave-takers were forced to turn to public assistance to help cover the wages they lost as a result of taking family or medical leave. Of women leave-takers, this percentage was even higher: 12%
- Paid family leave helps employers retain valued employees. Ninety-four percent of leave-takers who were fully paid, (compared with 73.8 percent of those who were partially paid and 76.5 percent of those who were not paid at all) returned to their same employer after taking leave.
- Those who care for family members provide a tremendous economic asset to our state.

"The bill includes private employers and employees in the scope of the collection system. It also includes appropriations from the Disability Benefits Special Fund and changes the expending agency from the University of Hawaii to the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

"As our community ages, more people will become caregivers. We need to help them do what they do—and also make sure they are able to build assets for their own retirement. This bill would help us prepare for the future."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"The number one quality of life issue for Ewa residents is traffic congestion. This is a fast-growing region, so it is crucial that we ensure that the Ewa Development plan includes important features that will safeguard the infrastructure, open space and environmental and historic preservation of this region."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB1686, HD2: Relating to Charter Schools. This bill recognizes the difficulty that non-profits (501-C-3's) and Charter Schools are having in raising funds for facilities or operations.

"This bill also allows the Charter schools greater flexibility to seek additional means of funding besides State general funds. For these reasons, I support the bill."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations and just a few comments. The Charter Schools, when they've been asked about their funding, and how to arrange for it in a better way have just said, 'Why don't we just follow the current law,' which has never happened. So, I'm not even sure exactly what this does, but I would prefer that we actually make the current law work."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 966) recommending that H.B. No. 1174, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1174, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition, and I would be remiss if I didn't have a few moments to say something about this. Thank you. This is HB 1174, and as I've shared with you before, my concern is setting precedent for the lessor, to the lessee to determine the terms of its lease with the lessor, which is BLNR.

"The more I look into this, the more I am convinced that there is probably something else going on than what meets the eye. And, my basic concern at the moment is that the University has enjoyed $16 million annually, according to their report from the Board of Regents in 1994, for the benefits of using Mauna Kea. And, in 2001, they admitted to the Legislature that the work conducted on Mauna Kea earned at least $8 million a year, just from patent lease contracts with defense contractors, with a couple of companies. So, I'm wondering why we need to continue this discussion, because, for 30 years, the University has allowed foreign telescope owners to use State lands on Mauna Kea, for profit, without charging fair market rent required by our Hawaii Revised Statutes.

"In this current bill, at the moment, there is nothing that mentions the comprehensive management plan that was proposed in January of 2009. It seems that this is a very obvious way for the University to gain control of ceded lands. They want to set up a special management fund, that, although there is an amendment here that was made, gratefully, to allow public participation, or public knowledge in that process. The management fund, according to the Auditor, there's no linkage that exists between the legislative appropriations that go into that fund, and the benefits that are sought.

"In addition, according to the Auditor's report, an estimated revenue and expenditure information regarding this fund is not known at this time. It gravely concerns me that we're willing to push this through, and who knows what the Senate is going to do, or where the Senate is putting this particular measure.

"I really urge my colleagues to be discerning, as this continues, because while on surface, it may seem like it's a good idea to have the University control and enforce and create all of the rules that enable Mauna Kea to be managed correctly, since the BLNR evidently is not doing it, there is more that goes unspoken. And, the ceded lands issue, as we've been talking about, limiting public access, to say nothing about the cultural values. I request the opportunity to insert more comments also. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in opposition to HB 1174 HD 2.

"This bill would grant the University of Hawaii explicit authority to adopt rules regulating access to and use of Mauna Kea. Mauna Kea is ecologically significant and culturally sacred lands and with this bill, the Administration is seeking to transfer ceded lands protected by the public lands trust from the DLNR to the UH. It is the exact same type of land transfer deemed illegal by the Hawaii Supreme Court in January 2008 in OHA vs. HCDCH. Ceded lands are the lands improperly taken from the Hawaiian Kingdom during the overthrow in 1893 and transferred to the State of Hawaii at statehood on the condition that these lands were held in trust. In addition to violating the Hawaii Supreme Court's injunction against the transfer of ceded lands, this bill would also undermine the State's authority over public trust lands by handing over management authority to the leaseholder. Since when is it good business to allow a leaseholder to determine the conditions of the lease, let alone the use of the leased land?

"For 30 years, the University has allowed foreign telescope owners to use the State lands of Mauna Kea for profit without charging the fair market rent required by the Hawaii Revised Statues sec. 171-17 and 18. This means that not only has the University profited, but the foreign corporations that own and operate telescopes atop Mauna Kea have also profited from the use of our state lands at the expense of Hawaii taxpayers, while only paying $1.00 per year in lease rent to the State. Unfortunately, HB 1174 HD 2 doesn't require compliance with State law, payment of back-rent or provide any relief to the taxpayers. In fact, the University is proposing to establish a special fund that would allow the University to divert all of the revenue collected from the use of Mauna Kea lands away from the general fund altogether! Since when is it good public policy to allow one of our state entities to have carte-blanche, with no oversight, on the monies that are in deposited into a State special fund?

"Rather than allow the University to further burden the people of Hawaii, we should require a financial audit of all telescope activity currently conducted on the summit of Mauna Kea. Only in this way can the State accurately assess the value of the University's astronomy program and determine how best to balance the financial needs of the University, the fragile natural and cultural resources of the mountain, the obligation to the tax-payers of Hawaii, and the valid concerns of the Native Hawaiian community.

"I believe, Mr. Speaker, that passing this legislation will be detrimental to the citizens of Hawaii, will undermine the State's fiduciary responsibility to steward the ceded lands of Mauna Kea, and will set precedent regarding the relationships between leasee and lessor that will compromise Hawaii in the long-run.

"For these reasons and others, I rise in opposition of HB 1174 HD2 and ask that my colleagues consider the same."

Representative Chang rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support. I believe we all agree that Mauna Kea, particularly the summit region, is a special place. One of the most culturally, spiritually, and archeologically significant places to Native Hawaiians. It is important to understand the land classification system and agencies responsible for managing the lands to protect the resources.

"Two of the major land designations falling within the jurisdiction of the DLNR are the Forest Reserves and Natural Area Reserve lands. A third classification, the Mauna Kea Science Reserve was created in 1968. Over 40 years ago, when it was removed from the Forest Reserve by the Board of Land and Natural Resources, the Land Board, and leased to the University for 65 years, to be used as a scientific complex.

"Since 1968, there have not been any administrative rules adopted to specifically cover uses within the Mauna Kea Science Reserve.

"The bill complies with the State Auditor's 1998 and 2005 reports calling for the University to develop and promulgate administrative rules to regulate and enforce activities, within the Mauna Kea lands, as it leases from the DLNR, and protects its unique cultural and natural resources.

"That highly critical report spurred the University to develop and adopt the 2000 Master Plan. This plan transferred management of the summit from the Manoa campus to its rightful place, the UH Hilo campus, and its Chancellor. That plan established a new management body, the Office of Mauna Kea Management, whose mandate used to protect and preserve the natural and cultural resources, and sanctity of Mauna Kea. This Board, in turn, is advised on cultural issues, by the Kahuku Mauna Council, made up of members of the community, selected for their knowledge of the mountains management issues, and sensitivity to Native Hawaiian culture, with community input.

"A lot of positive things have taken place since the 2000 Master Plan. The establishment of the ranger program, studies and surveys to establish baseline inventories of resources. In particular, the archeological sites and habitat, and life history of the wekiu bug. Most important, the establishment of a community based management agency on Hawaii Island.

"The Mauna Kea Ranger Corp. was established to monitor activities on the mountain and advise visitors regarding appropriate behavior. While these rangers have made a significant difference, this bill would give them the necessary enforcement authority, designed to protect the resources and visitors' health and safety.

"This bill holds the University accountable, and gives an opportunity to work together with the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, in a mutual capacity to protect the cultural resources.

"Today, the University is in the final stages of completing the Mauna Kea Comprehensive Management Plan, and this bill has nothing to do with that management plan that would serve as the guiding framework for protecting and preserving the cultural and natural resources.

Representative Nakashima rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang continued, stating:

"The University will be seeking the Land Board's approval for the CMP, which will require the University to carry out a variety of oversight and management functions and responsibilities. Having rule making authority will enable the University to more efficiently carry out these CMP functions and responsibilities.

"This bill also provides a system to establish fees, fines, and other charges related strictly to public and commercial activities, and the direct use of moneys, collected for the management, and protection of Mauna Kea. Just as the CMP is designed to continually evolve and improve the University's ability to fund any measure or activities to implement such improvements, needs to be assured and preserved.

"Contrary to what some opponents of this measure have said, this legislation does not seek to transfer ceded lands out of the Public Land Trust. It will remain in the public trust, and subject to any future potential claims by Native Hawaiians, or a federally recognized Native Hawaiian sovereign entity.

"Some have also said this legislation allows the University to limit public access. On the contrary. This legislation, and the CMP on which it is based, proposes to preserve and protect valued cultural, historical and natural resources, including traditional and customary practices, as required under the Hawaii State Constitution.

"There is no provision in this bill, or the CMP, to charge fees to access Mauna Kea or to advocate future telescope development. Simply put, this bill would implement the State Auditor's recommendations and management practices, described in the CMP. This legislation will allow the community greater control to public review and input process of Chapter 901. This bill ensures the Hawaii Island community their rightful voice in establishing rules for protecting one of our island's most sacred and historical treasures."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I am one of the attorneys representing the plaintiffs that have sued UH and the Board of Land and Natural Resources over there," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mahalo ka ha'i 'ōlelo.

"E kū iluna au i ke koho ana no kēia pila no ka hale maka'āinana 'umikūmākahi kanahikukūmāhā, 'A'ole.

"Mahalo nō e Poliahu, ke kahu 'o Mauna Kea. Mahalo."

Representative Souki rose and stated:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Is the former Representative going to be preparing that in English, so that we can understand her? Thank you."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of the supporting comments of the Chair of Higher Education, of the 2nd Representative District, in support of the measure. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose and stated:

"Yes, thank you Mr. Speaker. I believe that there was a request from one of the Representatives from Maui for a translation, and I would be glad to provide that translation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Speaking from the words of the Representative from Puna:

I rise in opposition for this House Bill 1174. This bill grants the University of Hawaii the authority to adopt rules from Mauna Kea, for all people. This bill is not right.

The Department of Land and Natural Resources is the proper agency to create the rules for Mauna Kea. This agency has not submitted any testimony for this bill. They have been silent. Why? This agency is the proper agency, for they are the experts of land management.

I encourage my colleagues to vote 'no.'

We will strive for the highest. We will remember our faith, hope, love for our land. May God be with us always. And that the life of the land will be perpetuated in righteousness. Thank you, Poliahu, the guardian of Mauna Kea.

Representative Ward rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, in the Finance Committee, there was testimony that said that this is the best place to put it, the best time, because without these rules, administrative procedures, more damage is going to be done to the summit, particularly above 11,000 feet. There would be no denial of access. It would basically be systematizing something that has been too random, and too untoward.

"So, some of the things that were stated, I find that, surprisingly, at least according to the testimony in the Finance Committee, inaccurate. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1174, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Brower, Carroll, Hanohano, C. Lee, Luke, McKelvey, Saiki, Shimabukuro and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 968) recommending that H.B. No. 901, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 901, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Berg voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 969) recommending that H.B. No. 949, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 949, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Morita rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. The primary purpose of these trust lands is not to advance leases for commercial purposes to non-beneficiary private interest parties to ensure their financial viability. We do not extend States leases beyond the 65 year period without a public auction, so why should such an exception be made for the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands where the State has an important fiduciary responsibility to native Hawaiians?

"Section 204 of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act wherein the authority to lease lands to the "general public" is predicated by the statement, "The department is expressly authorized to negotiate, prior to negotiations with the general public, the disposition of Hawaiian home lands or any improvements thereon to native Hawaiian beneficiaries or organization or association owned or controlled by native Hawaiians." It should be pointed out that beneficiaries have advised me that the DHHL has yet to implement the correct priority of negotiating with beneficiaries and beneficiary organizations PRIOR to the general public. Such a priority will drive private interest parties to native Hawaiian beneficiaries and the organizations they control to partner with them, thereby building the capacity intended under section 204. This is procedure is very similar to successful development approaches and lessons learned by other Native peoples.

"Secondly, there has been no evidence or comprehensive financial analysis presented at all, that giving 99 year leases on trust lands advances the financial interests of the trust or its beneficiaries. Simply put, if a developer wants a 99 year lease, or to be positioned for zero risk, they should look for fee simple land, not lands that are a native Hawaiian trust, intended for specific homesteading purposes. If a developer cannot get a reasonable return with 65 years, one questions whether it is a viable venture at all. However, the issue of privatizing Hawaiian homes trust lands is not something to be considered lightly and is an aberration of the State's fiduciary responsibility to native Hawaiians."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of Standing Committee Report No. 969, House Bill 949 House Draft 1, Relating to the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act. This bill would stimulate and support commercial development on Hawaiian home lands, that would in turn benefit neighboring residents and the economy, by authorizing the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL) to lease Hawaiian home lands for terms of up to 99 years for commercial land developments.

"DHHL's ability to carry out its mission to provide homeownership opportunities to native Hawaiians is directly tied to DHHL's ability to generate income. Over the past 5 years, income generated by DHHL through commercial leases has supported DHHL's homesteading program. The current 65-year term has limited DHHL's ability to attract substantial investment in the proposed commercial lease properties. This bill increases the value of DHHL's property and provides an improved tool which DHHL can use to ultimately better serve its beneficiaries. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 949, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAIIAN HOMES COMMISSION ACT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Hanohano, Morita and Saiki voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 971) recommending that H.B. No. 993, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 993, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition, and I'd like to speak against this measure. We've had this constitutional amendment for 30 years now, and I think it's held us in good stead. It returns excess funds to the taxpayer, and I think we should remember that the taxpayer's money is essentially their money, and it's not really our money. I think they could use the excess funds, now more than ever, since the economy is not that healthy.

"We should not get rid of this amendment, just because the economy is bad now, and we want to be able to keep some of the money. We must remember that the Legislature determines how much is to be returned, and this year, because times are not so good, we are giving back probably only a dollar.

"But, we really should not 'throw out the baby with the bathwater.' I think that there will be good times again, when we can return the money to the taxpayers, rather than putting it into a fund for our use. So, please consider it really excess funds being owned by the taxpayers, and not necessarily by us. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. The problem I see with the current system is that everything we do, the government spending just reinforces the natural business cycle. So, when the natural business cycle is going well, and we're collecting a lot of revenue, we spend a lot of revenue, and as a result, the boom is bigger. Then when we get to the end of the boom, which we inevitably do, because the laws of economics are like the laws of gravity, eventually there's a result from whatever you do or don't do, you crash into a recession, and then we start losing revenue, and we reinforce the recession by not spending as much.

"If we didn't spend as much at the top of the cycle, it would help to keep the bubble from blowing up any bigger than it should. And then on the way back down, when the recession goes down, we'd be able to spend money that we saved. And, in this instance, there's been a couple different versions of this bill already put out there, but if we had kept more money back, we could have probably seven or eight hundred million dollars more to spend right now, and we're $1.1 billion behind. Well, a $300 million gap is a lot easier to cover than a $1.1 billion gap. And the fact is, it would be good for the economy right now, if we had $800 million to spend.

"So, in our personal lives, it's a good idea to save some money for the hard times, when things are going well. At the government level I believe the same is true. Mahalo."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, I know this is not an economics debating club, but I think the Representative from Chinatown has to understand that the economy is run by those who consume. 70% of our economy is consumption. If this bill takes money out of those consuming, the 10% or 15% that runs from the government is not going to do it. In fact, I think we've got to get away from the notion that government spending is going to get us out of this crisis. It's going to stimulate spending, but that's the whole purpose of it, is to get money back into the hands of those who make the 70% of the economy. That is the whole liquidity argument of why we're spending a couple of trillion dollars at the federal level. Every country has got a stimulus package. It's to get people to loosen up on their money, and have their jobs to keep spending to keep economies going. That's the way economics work.

"But when government takes it, parks it, doesn't circulate it, and even when they do circulate it, with the stimulus packages that we're doing, they don't have enough to keep that 70% of the economy pumping along. And that's where this Body has to be very sensitive to do, is not to take money out of the hands of those 70% of the consumers, because the consumers are the saving grace of the economic downturn that we're in, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, very much."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, standing in strong support, and would like to make a few points on this bill. Number one, the bill proposes to change the Constitution so that we can guarantee at least 1% of excess revenues will go back to taxpayers, as a tax refund, or a rebate.

"Number two, the bill would also make sure that any excess general fund balance, over 70% will be deposited into our Rainy Day Fund to make sure that we are prepared for economic downturns or other emergency needs, such as we are currently experiencing.

"And, number three, we also amended the bills to propose the idea of a cap of the amount that would go into the Rainy Day Fund. And, on that particular issue, Mr. Speaker, I suggest that we set a cap at an amount that would assure the protection of a State's credit rating.

"And, number four, for example a 5% cap, based on expenditure levels, would assure the Rainy Day fund should be at least $250 million. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in support. Just in rebuttal to the Representative from Hawaii Kai. I do think this is actually, in many respects, a good place to debate economic policy, because obviously, the economy has a huge impact on how people live.

"I would just say that, with regards to the stimulus package, yes, I understand State government, I don't even know if it's the biggest employer in the State, but it's one of the biggest. And, when one of the biggest employers in the State starts threatening to lay people off, or furlough them, that does have a negative impact on the economy. It's as if, when the hotel industry goes 'into the drink,' yes, that has a big impact.

"So, I would say, we're working with stimulus packages, one of the big criticisms of the federal stimulus package is that it's borrowed money. This bill would allow for it not to be borrowed money, which would make it an even better situation. Mahalo."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 993 – I am concerned decisions regarding general funds should be considered for their impact on the general fund balance and not simply on the basis of projected revenue growth of one fiscal year.

"While proponents of this measure state the possibility that the capacity to generate revenue is strong, the State should save the surplus for use when revenue generation is week. Passage of this constitutional amendment will provide more flexibility to access needed funds to balance the budget. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a brief retort. 85% of the people of Hawaii work for the private sector. The biggest employer is the private sector. Government, even at its peak would not be more than 20%. And, the problem with the federal stimulus, is not the amount of money, even though that would go back to the argument, it's not enough to kick it, to make it go strong. It's that the federal stimulus is not going to create wealth, it's filling pukas in State government, and other unpaid bills, which are not going to create jobs, other than temporary ones. Then, if we look at what the FDR Conservation Corps jobs were, they were to fill pukas. And, that's so the other part of the economy, the private sector, which hires the majority of the people in this country, can get on their feet, invest in some machinery, get their markets going, and get the economy going again.

"So, the private sector is really where the key is, instead of saying 'Well, it was the Second World War.' Well it was the Second World War that then pulled all the jobs out in the private sector. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 993, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION, RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF PROJECTED EXCESS REVENUES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 993, HD 2 passed Third Reading in the following form:

H.B. No. 993, HD 2

A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION, RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF PROJECTED EXCESS REVENUES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to propose an amendment to the Hawaii Constitution to require the legislature to return a specific amount of revenue as a tax refund or tax credit to taxpayers and to deposit a specific amount into the emergency and budget reserve fund whenever general fund revenue estimates exceed seven percent growth for two consecutive years.

SECTION 2. Article VII of the Hawaii Constitution is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"Section . In any regular session during which the council on revenues estimates, prior to adjournment sine die, that for the second consecutive year, general fund revenues in the current fiscal year will exceed the general fund revenues collected in the prior fiscal year by at least seven percent, the legislature shall set aside:

1. An amount equal to one percent of general fund revenues collected in the prior fiscal year as a tax refund or tax credit to the taxpayers of the State, as provided by law; and

2. Moneys exceeding seven percent of the amount by which revenues in the current fiscal year are estimated to exceed revenues in the prior fiscal year, for deposit into an emergency and budget reserve fund as may be provided by law; provided that no deposit shall be made if the balance in the emergency and budget reserve fund is equal to or greater than ___ percent of general fund expenditures for the prior fiscal year."

SECTION 3. The question to be printed on the ballot shall be as follows:

"Shall the legislature, during any regular session in which the general fund revenues are estimated, for the second consecutive year, to exceed by at least seven percent the general fund revenues collected in the prior fiscal year:

(1) Set aside one percent of the excess revenues as a tax refund or tax credit to taxpayers; and

(2) Deposit into an emergency and budget reserve fund the excess revenues above seven percent?"

SECTION 4. New constitutional material is underscored.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall take effect upon compliance with article XVII, section 3, of the Hawaii Constitution.

At 5:58 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1693, HD 1
H.B. No. 1538, HD 1
H.B. No. 1686, HD 2
H.B. No. 1174, HD 3
H.B. No. 901, HD 2
H.B. No. 949, HD 1
H.B. No. 993, HD 2

At this time, Representative Berg rose and stated:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe my 'no' vote for Stand. Com. 969 was not mentioned."

The Chair responded, stating:

"It's too late. The vote has been recorded already."

At 5:58 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 5:59 o'clock p.m.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 972) recommending that H.B. No. 952, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 952, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this particular measure. This is a card check bill. Here we are, once again debating the merits of card check, and no matter what changes we make to it, the problem remains the same. It robs workers of their essential right to a secret ballot. How can we continue to deny the importance of this right, for it is in the privacy of the voting booth where a person is free to express his or her will, without being subjected to intimidation or fear from reprisal. It's the best way for a person to register his or her opinion.

"In doing some research on this issue, I ran across an editorial against card check, by former Senator and former Democrat Presidential nominee, George McGovern. Throughout his career, Senator McGovern has been a passionate defender of unions. Yet, he has found the card check bill fundamentally wrong. In an editorial, he said of card check, 'I am sad to say it runs counter to ideas that were once at the core of the labor movement. Instead of providing a voice for the unheard, it risks silencing those who would speak.'

"It is not just Senator McGovern who finds this bill deeply flawed. The testimony against it represents a clear outcry against the measure. Testifiers from a wide range of industries clearly showed an objection to the very idea of the elimination of the private ballot.

"This objection goes on to our local media. Today, the Advertiser editorialized against card check, stating, 'Reforming the system to protect against abuses may be necessary, but taking away the secret ballot isn't the answer.'

"The nation objects to it as well. A national survey, taken on the federal card check bill found that three out of four voters oppose this. Even union households oppose this bill, with 74% opposing, to just 20% supporting. We should listen to their voices, and vote 'no' on this bill. Mahalo."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I vote with reservations on HB952, HD1: Relating to Labor.

"The Employee Free Choice Act ("EFCA") as currently written has two primary provisions. The first changes the method by which employees decide whether or not they will be represented by a union; the second mandates binding arbitration over the terms of a first contract, if one is not reached a few short months after recognition of the union as the bargaining representative. These provisions are extreme and unnecessary. More important, they will adversely affect employees' rights, as well as result in economic harm to both employers and employees.

"In its revised HD1 form, the bill provides for a streamlined process of an exclusive representative, would only apply to businesses with 100 or more employees, would facilitate the collective bargaining process and provide for the settlement of disputes by an arbitration panel.

"While federal labor law may not be perfect in other respects, I believe its establishment of a supervised secret ballot election as the means by which employees indicate whether or not they wish to be represented by a union is a staple of our democratic society and of critical importance to employees. A secret ballot election allows employees to vote in a confidential, uncoerced, and supervised setting. Employees are able to vote their conscience, in private, without fear of any personalized repercussions from the union or the employer.

"Furthermore, it was my initial understanding that this bill would apply only to agricultural industries and in fact, all business with more than 100 employees will be covered by this bill, which adds to my reservations.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise as a minority, for a minority. That is, the card check, may I proceed? I am against the bill, clearly. I rise as a minority, speaking for the minority of the card check bill. The card check bill will have 50% plus one. If signed individually and collectively then counted, the company would become unionized. In this case, likely to be the agricultural workers, who are doing either macadamia nuts, or the seed, or the other hybrid seed-corn processing

"What happens to those 49% who didn't vote? One of the fundamental basis of unionization, was to keep recrimination of the employer out of the workplace. To protect employees. Now, everybody has their vote bared. Everybody can see how people voted.

"What happens to those of the minority? Is there something to protect them? In this case, the secret ballot protects them, because when it's unionized, everybody moves as a group. Everybody's equally responsible. Everybody is equally culpable of what they have done. And, Mr. Speaker, no one has doubted that unionization has had a great impact in Hawaii. It has much impact on this Floor. Unions are strong in Hawaii, in fact, probably one of the strongest in America is here.

"But the wave of agriculture, the wave of plantation agriculture is over, Mr. Speaker. To get these small guys, that are basically exporting seed-corn and otherwise, not that big of an industry. Why did we want to do this, and why do we want to do it now? That is the question. This is not a good bill for the policy, for the future of agriculture, which we're trying to stimulate, and make our prices affordable to the people of Hawaii, because they're so expensive when they're grown locally. This will even add to that cost, Mr. Speaker. Again, I think of the benefits. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. First of all, this measure does get to the philosophical level pretty quickly. If you look at the U.S. Constitution of course, the Right of Association is constitutionally guaranteed. It's implied in the First Amendment rights for free speech. And also, the right to unionize is specifically mentioned in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, in Article XXIII, everyone has the right to form and join trade unions.

"So, what we're really talking about is, how do we protect that right, and how do we regulate that right, which, of course, constitutional rights are not absolute, and we have to figure out how we're going to actually do them.

"But, it seems to me that the arguments against this mainly boil down to one essential argument, and that is that unions will browbeat people into joining unions, if any of it is open. And, I think that the empirical evidence, at this point, is just not with that side of the argument. The empirical evidence is that employers are the ones who are browbeating people to stay out of unions, because they don't want to have to share power with the workers. I think probably in the long run, it's bad economic policy because employers who do share power with their workers generally have a better idea of what's going on on the shop floor, get better feedback from their employees on what to do better or different to make a better product or provide a better service.

"But I also say that this bill, as amended, only applies to employers who have 100 or more employees. Those small companies that the Representative from Hawaii Kai mentioned are the likes of Monsanto or Syngenta, these multi-national companies that have a relatively small presence in Hawaii, but they have enormous bargaining power when it comes to dealing with our Hawaii residents.

"I don't think that that's a particularly strong argument. Mahalo."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this card check bill. I find this measure particularly harmful to the agriculture industry, as its workers are vulnerable to misleading verbal or written explanation due to language barriers. A study undertaken by the National Agriculture Statistics found that the most prevalent language among our workers is 89% Ilocano. Of these, the workers comprehend English verbal instruction, but only 59% may comprehend written instruction. Among all agricultural workers, 87.9% can understand written instructions in their first language, while just 71.3% can understand written instructions in English.

"On the surface, some of these numbers may seem high, but they are still too low. Labor organizing drives rest upon the full understanding of workers participating in elections. These workers need to understand all the benefits and costs that come with unionization. I'm afraid that by eliminating the secret ballot, the workers may not understand the full implications of the card that they sign. This will undermine their ability to make well-thought out decisions based on what is best for them.

"An additional problem is that this bill could force companies to let government arbitrators make business decisions about their workforce. If there is one industry in Hawaii where this is not necessary, it's the agricultural industry. The Department of Agriculture reports that Hawaii's farm workers are already the highest paid in the entire country. This is despite the disadvantage that Hawaii already has in terms of cost and availability of land, water, transportation costs, and the affect of invasive species. This bill will lessen the opportunity for ag workers through adding an additional burden that will only set back Hawaii's efforts to become more self sufficient in food production, and in the long run, result in the lessening of opportunities for our agriculture workers.

"Mr. Speaker, this is the bicentennial of President Abraham Lincoln who stood for freedom. Freedom is the freedom to choose; not to have secret ballots. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'd like to speak in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, with the federal stimulus package underway, we need to focus on the rebuilding of our economy. Unions are one of the best tools for creating an economy that works for everyone. There's a disturbing trend in the country that has led to the erosion of healthcare coverage and pension security. Coupled with rising food costs and foreclosure anxiety, a stable workforce is a formidable goal, and working people are bearing the brunt of today's troubled economy.

"Across the country, union membership has decreased, partly due to an election process that vests the majority of power in the employer and often opens the door to intimidation and threat of job loss. The Employee Free Choice Act is a way to restore a fair and equitable process for employers and employees, rebuild the labor unions, and in turn, rebuild the middle class.

"The majority sign up process is not new. In fact, a number of major companies such as AT&T Wireless and Kaiser Permanente have long recognized it as a fair, less disruptive process to determine workers' will. It simply provides workers with another option to express their desire to self organize. The growing inequality we see between employer and employee is a backward trend that will take more than economic stimulus to address. This bill applies only to companies with 100 employees or more. If passed it will level the playing field by restoring employees' choice to form unions and bargain for fair wages and benefits. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I'd just like to respond to a couple of comments made today on the Floor regarding agricultural workers and perhaps their inability to understand English, and whether or not they can fully grasp the concept of unionization. I think we just have to look back at our own history. For those of us who were around, I wasn't actually. But in 1946 there was a sugar strike where the ILWU organized 28,000 sugar workers in the State of Hawaii. And in the following year, in 1947, 20,000 pineapple workers were organized. The vast majority of these workers did not speak English as their first language, and in fact, it was a conscious policy of the sugar plantation owners and the pineapple plantation owners to import labor from many countries, specifically to divide and conquer that work force. Three generations of workers tried to organize and were constantly divided up. They were paid different wages according to their race, and so on. That resulted in the inability of the workforce to organize. It wasn't until the mid-1940s that finally the ILWU pulled it off. I would assert, Mr. Speaker, that that has led to the growth of the middle class with these ag workers. And it has led to a better life for tens of thousands of families in Hawaii and their descendants.

"Now when we talk about intimidation by the union, relative to the employer, I think we all realize that the 'big stick' that any employer has over any employee is their job. It's very difficult for any union to threaten to fire a worker when in fact that union has no ability to do that, as opposed to the employer. Indeed, in the study done by Cornell University researcher, Kate Bronfenbrenner, she concluded that 92% of private sector employers, when faced with workers who wanted to join a union, they hold these one-on-one meetings. And if any of you who have ever done union organizing, I remember years ago when I was a young lad, I was trying to organize the Halekulani Hotel when they reopened, that's precisely what happened. There were group meetings, one-on-one meetings, encouraging workers that they really don't need a union. Actually I had to point out that indeed the choice of whether or not to have a union should be done by the workers.

"Frankly, Mr. Speaker, all this bill does is to shift the choice between having a secret ballot election, or a card check. As was mentioned by the Representative from Mililani, many employers opt for the card check option which is allowed under the National Labor Relations Act. This bill would merely shift that choice from the employer, to the employee. It seems to me that if workers want to have a choice of having a secret ballot election or a card check, it should be their choice and their choice alone. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support. It would be hypocritical of me to vote against this bill because with Interisland Resorts, we asked the ILWU for card check. We wanted to be organized by the ILWU because they gave us employment stability on the Neighbor Islands. Thank you."

Representative Takumi continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in my haste, I forgot to mention why I am standing with reservations. The bill was amended in the Finance Committee to apply only to companies with more than 100 employees, and as we know, this bill would only apply to ag workers in that situation. Frankly, it would only apply to two or three companies in the State of Hawaii. Less than 2% of companies in Hawaii have more than 100 employees. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 952, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABOR," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Chang, Ching, Finnegan, Har, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen, Tokioka and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Awana, Berg, McKelvey, Takai and Wooley being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 973) recommending that H.B. No. 981, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 981, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"This is the ignition interlock bill. I'm in favor of this measure, and in passing it, I just wanted to salute Mothers Against Drunk Drivers, MADD, who has been working for this interlock device for at least 20 years, I'm certain. I can recall Attorney General Warren Price in the 1980s assisting MADD with their legislation. I give them credit for their persistence. They have been lobbying here for quite a while and they have been very effective. If there is less carnage on our roads, we must thank them for that. Thank you, very much."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, just very quickly, I want to thank the Chair of Transportation and the Chair of Judiciary. As Members of this Body know last year, in the 2008 Session, we did pass Act 171 which created the basic framework for the ignition interlock. Act 171 also created the Ignition Interlock Task Force of which the Speaker Emeritus and I were also a part of. We came together with many members and many stakeholders in the community, including Mothers Against Drunk Drivers, including the Attorney General's Office, including the Public Defender's Office, including the ADLRO. We had many stakeholders involved in the Task Force. This bill essentially codifies the recommendations of the Task Force.

"I want to thank the Members of this Body who have been very supportive because I truly believe that the ignition interlock is going to save lives in the State of Hawaii. I would also like to request permission to submit additional written comments into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support for Standing Committee Report No. 973, House Bill 981, House Draft 2, Relating to Highway Safety. As this body recalls, we passed Act 171 in the 2008 Legislative Session to implement the framework for the ignition interlock device to combat the problem of drunk driving in the State of Hawai`i. Act 171 further created the Ignition Interlock Implementation Task Force, which developed recommendations for the implementation of ignition interlock. This bill represents the recommendations of the taskforce. The Ignition Interlock Task Force was comprised of an inclusive group of stakeholders including, but not limited to the Department of Transportation, the Department of Health, the Department of the Attorney General, the Judiciary District Court, the police departments from each county, the Office of the Public Defender, the City & County of Honolulu Department of Motor Vehicles, the County of Maui Department of Motor Vehicles, the University of Hawai`i, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney from each county, the Administrative Driver's License Revocation Office, and the Legislature.

"Notably, this measure will make mandatory installation of the ignition interlock for all drunk drivers, including first-time offenders. Other penalties will include revocation of a driver's license and privilege to operate a vehicle for at least a year, and will require installation of an ignition interlock device on any vehicle operated by the person, with the cost of installation, maintenance, and calibration paid for by the offender. In addition, there will be a requirement for community service work, prison time, and a fine. Repeat offenders would receive heightened penalties.

"What our State needs is a change of mentality towards drunk driving. Among other things, we must be individually responsible by drinking within limit and urge others to drink responsibly. We also need ignition interlock to change the mentality towards drinking and driving. This bill was introduced as a part of the majority package, and I thank all members for support of this measure, and urge your continued support of this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I would like to speak in favor of this measure. First of all I would like to thank Representative Har for all the work she has done in working with this bill. She sat in long hearings during this interim period, and in long meetings with the Committee in trying to develop legislation, sharing ideas on how best to put the package together, and then ultimately writing this package. This bill should save a lot of lives, and still allow people to go to work and serve their family. Members, I ask you to please support this great bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 981, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Awana, Berg, McKelvey, Takai and Wooley being excused.

At 6:22 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 952, HD 1
H.B. No. 981, HD 2

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 520, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 520, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to note my reservations. I'm in support of the basic idea of photographing historic buildings. I think where we went wrong, I guess it was last Session, was that we required that these incredibly expensive photographs be taken. I think in the age of digital cameras we can fix the problem pretty easily by simply requiring that an acceptable photograph be taken, but it doesn't have to be of studio quality. Mahalo."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I stand in opposition to this measure, Mr. Speaker, which repeals the amendments in Act 228 wherein we were only required to take pictures of historical buildings before demolishing them. I supported this bill when it came up last year. I thought it was a very simple measure and we're totally repealing it now. We could have saved it through the amendments of the Historic Foundation of Hawaii which limits it to historical buildings.

"We could have worked on this bill Mr. Speaker, instead of totally repealing it. Hopefully when it crosses over to the Senate, we can have a measure to revive it rather than repealing it. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. As one Member of this House put it, it's not good to make it such a black and white issue. The truth is, it's gray. We just need to, instead of completely repealing it, and I will not go so far as to say, it obviously needs some revision. The fact is that it's a good idea. To completely reverse it, I contend that it's not a good idea. The Historic Hawaii Foundation says in it's testimony that this bill goes well beyond the scope and would undermine the other powers and responsibilities related to State and county mandates to protect historic sites.

"With all due respect to the contractors who I appreciate, who I have worked with, and who I know, the fact is that this is something that can be fixed. We don't need to completely throw away something that is important. Hawaii is known to be not quite like other areas where there is a longer standing and appreciation for historic preservation, there are obvious protections. These things dovetail with tourism. What comes to mind are all the historic places. When you think about where you'd want to travel. The fact is overall, on the globe, the number one place that people want to travel to, over time, not just 2006, is Paris, France. Paris, France understands the value of historic preservation. You would not knock down the Arc de Triomphe. You would not knock these things down. What we're doing is just saying, to begin with, that historic preservation is important. It's not just important to our economy for tourism to have a charming place. But it's important to our children because then they can say, 'Wow, is that what it looked like? Is that what it was like?' Our good Chairman of Education mentioned about history and the plantation experience. Well that's what a lot of these homes happen to be. They're tools.

"Just one last thing that I'm going to say. I was one of the first people in a lot of my circles, to speak up for the environment in 1980. I remember what it was like to be an environmentalist in the 1980s. You were called a 'tree hugger.' You were called, 'not too with it.' You were not aware. Well it amuses me because I know how green we've become. That's where historic preservation is today. People understand that these places are like extinct species. Things that you can't replace. In some cases, the materials don't exist. The wood doesn't exist anymore. The know-how, the craft. We're in a different economy. You can't rebuild some of these things, but at least, what this says is, take a picture. And as the good Representative of Chinatown said, we're going to change that. We're not going to make it so difficult. We understand. Yes, there were mistakes, but we don't need to repeal the bill. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this bill. Thank you. There were about 53,000 structures that fell under this bill, and the chaos that it has created for the construction industry has just been massive. There really isn't a bill that's higher on the list that they want to see passed this Session. The whole system clogged down. There were 53,000 houses. Anything that was happening to a house, no matter what, it would be referred by the City to the Historic Preservation Division, which many times was not even open because they aren't staffed with that many people there. Everything clogged down. So the best way to do it is the way that this bill does it. Repeal the law. Pull together the affected parties. Come back with something that makes sense to have photographs taken of only the structures that really would be eligible for listing on the State or national register, or that actually are on the State or national register. But this was so much overkill, and it did so much damage to our economy at a time when we can't afford to have that damage to be done. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some reservations. I know that we have to make some amendments, but if we ever lose buildings like the Cooke home in Manoa, the Honolulu Academy of Arts, various buildings designed by Vladimir Ossipoff, we will have lost a significant part of our history. Sixty years ago, I did my senior theme on historic architecture in Hawaii. On a personal note, a number of buildings designed by my grandfather are historic sites. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. I'm in support just because we need a vehicle to deal with this issue. The answer isn't repealing it; it's fixing it. There was a lot of good testimony that came in, and key stakeholders have been meeting and making suggested amendments. We just haven't put them in the bill."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, in support with reservations. I would like to use the words of the Representative from Kauai as my own. I just want to thank the Representative from Liliha for being so innovative and helping us to try to have a little bit more passion about this area. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Rhoads and Morita be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 520, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUILDINGS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Ching and McKelvey voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 361, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 361, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Lengthy delays of permit processing is making the development of affordable housing very difficult. This bill requires non-discretionary, ministerial permits for affordable housing projects be processed within 45 days by the State or Counties or be deemed approved.

"Time is money. Delays contribute to higher cost of affordable housing."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 361, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AFFORDABLE HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1186, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1186, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"While receiving cash-in-lieu from a developer for affordable hosing is helpful, it is of paramount importance for our communities to be mixed income integrated. We do not want the development of 'golden ghettos' with reciprocal 'project ghettos'. If developers are allowed to build the affordable portion of their development in a different area than the market portion, or merely contribute cash-in-lieu, it will affect our housing and hence, community and social structures."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1186, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING DEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 382, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 382, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting no on this bill. It requires notification of pending class action against the State, and the notification will go to the Governor, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House, prior to the filing of the lawsuit. It requires service of the lawsuit to the President and the Speaker, mandates the complaint remain under seal for at least 60 days after service upon the Attorney General.

"It is unclear to me what the Governor, Speaker and Senate President are expected to do once the class action notification is made. It's not logical for the Governor not to receive supporting and exculpatory materials when the Governor is served just like the presiding officers.

"This bill may violate the Separation of Powers Doctrine. If the intent is to have the Legislative Branch resolve the matter prior to filing the lawsuit, if this is meant to be kept confidential, reference to keeping everything under seal is not expansive enough. I think this is a very strange bill, and I'm not sure what it is supposed to accomplish. I would hope that the introducers could explain it to me. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will also be voting in opposition. I have some of the same questions. I'm just wondering. Our whole purpose for being here as a part of the Legislature is to take a look at a piece of legislation and say, 'What does this solve? Or what is the need for it?' This is another bill that does not have any testimony in support. It just has one piece of testimony in opposition, Mr. Speaker. I'm just perplexed as well."

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 382, HD 1. This bill would require class action plaintiffs to send written notification of their intentions to the Governor, Senate President, and Speaker of the House of Representatives prior to filing of their class action lawsuit. This bill would further require that all relevant supporting and exculpatory materials in the possession of the class representative or its counsel be submitted to the Senate President and the House Speaker. Although this bill is well-intentioned, it may impose some impractical burdens on class action plaintiffs who most likely have gone through the administrative agency process, alternative dispute resolution process, and legislative committee hearing process to have their problems resolved. It may also be impractical and overwhelming for State legislators to be recipients of supporting and exculpatory materials that may be voluminous in a class action lawsuit. For these reasons, I oppose HB 382, HD 1."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support. The intention of this measure is to avoid the situation when you wake up one morning and you pick up the morning paper and you find out the State of Hawaii is being sued by a group of attorneys on behalf of the rights of their clients who live in public housing. I'm making reference to Kuhio Park Terrace, Mr. Speaker. That's what the measure tries to address.

"The idea being that should we have known that the Hawaii Public Housing Authority was so deficient in the maintenance of Kuhio Park Terrace, and that they were not up to date on the fire alarm systems, or the federal or State laws regarding the rights of the disabled, the handicapped and the poverty community, we might have been able, through the legislative process, to inquire as to the responsibilities of the agency, and maybe perhaps appropriate the necessary funds so that the timely repairs of the elevators and the garbage disposal shafts and the security system could have been made to comply with federal and State law.

"As it turns out, Mr. Speaker, I believe that the parties have finally settled down and are looking to reach a settlement. At the end of the day, it will come back to this Branch to pay for that settlement on behalf of our taxpayers.

"I just thought this would be a vehicle to have this discussion by which we might be able to get in front of these lawsuits, should the Executive Branch and agencies not be able to fulfill their obligations under law, but be deficient and cause these lawsuits to occur. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I would like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. My law firm is one of those attorneys that was referenced who are suing the State over this, but I am not involved in that case. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Okay, this is great. At least I know what this bill is about. Mr. Speaker, I still have concerns over this because this is for one particular incident. And then on top of that, I remember we were discussing the budget, and I remember discussing the elevators a few years back, and I'm just trying to recall this debate. So, what this means is that these agencies were in front of us, telling us about the deficiencies at these properties, and we addressed it the way we addressed it.

"Mr. Speaker, sometimes lawsuits are when people start to move, I guess. But I don't know that, still, having a bill for this particular instance, talking about deficiencies. I remember us discussing this very thing having to do with public housing and needing to work on it, and needing to get these things done. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, in support with reservations. I just wanted to add that the Minority Leader is correct. We did discuss this at the Legislature. In fact the Governor put in her budget many improvements, especially for elevators for the State housing, and the Legislature rejected that request. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I think it's a prudent thing for the legislative body to get this information requiring notification of pending class action against the State. I think the legislative body really needs to understand what's coming at them. And also needs to understand what the departments are doing and why the class action came into being. It's our job to review all the programs. Each Chair in this Body looks through their budgets, looks at their programs and divisions, and determines what their needs are. This is just good information. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 382, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE TORT LIABILITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto and Rhoads voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 6:40 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 520, HD 1
H.B. No. 361, HD 1
H.B. No. 1186, HD 1
H.B. No. 382, HD 1

H.B. No. 147, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 147, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to HB 147. Thank you. This bill seeks to change the minimum value of property or services stolen to constitute theft in the second degree from $300, to a blank amount. The original version of the bill increased the amount to $1,000. Mr. Speaker, this sends the wrong message to those who would steal from our small businesses. If we are looking to increase the threshold amount to charge second degree theft, we are basically giving people license to steal more before stiffer penalties accrue.

"Besides rewarding criminals, this hurts our small businesses. That is borne out by the various retailers that testified in opposition to this bill. I would like the names of those businesses incorporated into my remarks, if you please.

"The worst offenders under this law, the professional thieves, already know the law and how to work within its limitations. Many retailers fear this means more goods stolen. Mr. Speaker, we are trying to help our businesses, our employers, by stimulating the economy. We want to be pro-business because it's pro-economy, it's pro-Hawaii, it's pro-prosperity. This bill doesn't do that. This bill only encourages criminals and that's simply bad policy. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 147, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THEFT IN THE SECOND DEGREE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Brower, Ching, Finnegan, Har, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Pine, Thielen, Tokioka and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1212, HD 1:

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 1212, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INFORMATION PRACTICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 128, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 128, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 128, House Draft 1, Relating to Elections. In the 2008 Primary Election, the last minute decisions by candidates to run for offices caused the disqualification of one candidate. The City & County of Honolulu Clerk ruled that the candidate did not formally withdraw from his State House race before filing for the City Council seat. This bill will make the process better for individuals intending to run for elected office by requiring the State Office of Elections to create and make available a standard withdrawal and declaration of candidacy form and make nomination papers available only until the Friday preceding the filing deadline. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 128, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 233, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 233, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I quote testimony from The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii:

My name is Ryker Wada, representing the Legal Aid Society of Hawai'i ("LASH"). I am advocating for our clients who include the working poor, seniors, citizens with English as a second language, disabled and other low and moderate income families who are consumers. We are testifying in opposition to HB 233 as it would weaken protections for consumers in the State of Hawaii. I supervise a housing counseling program in the Consumer Unit at the Legal Aid Society of Hawaii. The Homeownership Counseling Project provides advice to individuals and families about homeownership issues. Specifically the project provides information on how to prepare yourself before purchasing a home and what to do if you are in danger of losing your home through foreclosure. In the past Fiscal Year we serviced more than 200 clients in our Project.

HB 233 seeks to amend Act 137, the Mortgage Foreclosure Rescue Fraud Prevention Act, to, among other things, exempt real estate brokers and sales persons from the definition of distressed property consultants. Act 137 was designed to protect consumers from foreclosure rescue scams and fraudulent distressed property consultants who offer "help" to homeowners who are in arrears or foreclosure. This "help" usually comes in the form of scam artists who take a fee for negotiating with a distressed homeowners mortgage company. Instead the homeowners get little or nothing for their fee and the scam artist has disappeared with the homeowner's money. A more insidious form of the foreclosure rescue scam involves the scammer taking title to the homeowner's property with the homeowner staying in the property as a renter and attempting to buy it back over the next few years.

The terms of these deals usually make it impossible for homeowners to buy back their property, allowing the scammer to walk off with all or most of a home's equity. While LASH appreciates the challenges for real estate brokers and salespersons due to the enactment of Act 137, we do not believe a wholesale exemption of the industry is the appropriate avenue to make the process smoother while still protecting the rights of the consumer.

LASH anticipates a growing number of foreclosures in the coming years as the so-called exotic mortgage products mature and consumers are not able to keep up with their adjusted mortgage payments or find a suitable refinance. With the growing number of foreclosures, there will only be an increase in the number of foreclosure rescue scams and wronged consumers in the State of Hawaii. The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii opposes HB 233 and its efforts to exempt real estate brokers and salespersons from Act 137. We do not believe this is the appropriate means to protect the consumers in the State of Hawaii.

Conclusion:
We appreciate these committees' recognition of the need to protect consumers in the State of Hawaii. HB 233 attempts to weaken protections for consumers. We oppose HB 233 but are more than willing to work with the industry to find the most suitable way to ease the challenges of Act 137 while protecting the interests of the consumers in the State of Hawaii. Thank you for the opportunity to testify."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 233, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE MORTGAGE RESCUE FRAUD PREVENTION ACT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 654, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 654, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask for a ruling on a potential conflict? At my law firm, I represent contractors. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I have a potential conflict. I have contractors in my family," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 654, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTRACTORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 6:46 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 147, HD 1
H.B. No. 1212, HD 1
H.B. No. 128, HD 1
H.B. No. 233, HD 1
H.B. No. 654, HD 1

H.B. No. 1141, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1141, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1141, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THRILL CRAFT OPERATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Berg, C. Lee and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1144, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1144, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in support of H.B. 1144, H.D. 1 which will encourage greater participation in endangered species restoration by private landowners. By statutorily authorizing the development and use of programmatic safe harbor agreements (SHAs) and programmatic habitat conservation plans (HCPs) and allowing tools, such as certificates of inclusion, needed to implement them, restoration can be encouraged on a landscape ecosystem wide basis rather than an isolated landowner basis. Working with multiple landowners to preserve multiple species that share or interact in a common habitat in a region and which experience common threats holds great promise.

"Presently, in order to participate in the State endangered species programs, private landowners cannot take a programmatic approach and would separately need to develop their own duplicative agreements with identical terms and conditions.

"Providing standardized programs encourages many landowners to get involved because it gives them a finished product to evaluate and agree to and enter. Setting a standard within the safeguards and guidelines of the State law and the overview of the endangered species recovery committee removes the uncertainty about final product and outcomes. It also enables the development of management actions that encompass a landscape scale and offer benefits that may otherwise not be possible with a single landowner agreement.

"The end result is that using a cooperative process for SHAs and HCPs will reduce the private landowner's time and cost to participate in these programs, and at the same time encourage more participation and recovery effort for endangered species.

"For these reasons, I am voting in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1144, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSERVATION OF THREATENED AND ENDANGERED SPECIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Wooley voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1008, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1008, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1008 HD 1, Relating to Land Use.

"This bill purports to protect and promote the proper use of Hawaii's best agricultural lands, but in truth, it is an end run around the Land Use Commission and the Important Agricultural Land designation.

"It attempts to define "gentleman's estates," but in reality, it encourages fake farms.

"It does this by exempting certain projects from the LUC, by allowing "family subdivisions" in place of "farm dwellings" by allowing the sale, subdivision, leasing, consolidation of agricultural land and by using the Condominium Property Regime to double housing density.

"This is not a bill to preserve and promote the proper use of ag land, but an attempt to allow non-agricultural related development on some of our best agricultural lands.

"For these reasons, I am opposed to HB 1008 HD 1, Relating to Land Use."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I do not agree with the amendment to this bill which grandfathered in existing "gentlemen's estates." I read from the Committee Report:

Your Committees also find that the requirements in this bill may create confusion as to the treatment of uses that may be non-conforming uses under the provisions of this bill.

Accordingly, your Committees have amended this bill by clarifying that uses and activities that were lawful as of the effective date of this Act shall be grandfathered and treated as legal nonconforming uses.

"Furthermore, I found the Hawaii's Thousand Friends' testimony compelling, and I quote:

HB 1008 introduces several development oriented provisions 1) the county controlled I5-acre exemption from the LUC process, 2) "family subdivision" which is an end run around the definition of "farm dwelling," 3) ability to sell, subdivide, lease, consolidate or re-subdivide agricultural land and transfer land titles under county regulations, and 4) the use of HRS 514 Condominium Property Regime which will double housing density.

In reality HB 1008 is not a bill to "preserve and promote the proper use" of agricultural land but an attempt to allow non-agricultural related development on Hawaii's agricultural land and must be held in committee.

"Quotation from testimony of the Ka'u Farm Bureau:

First:
The language in HB 1008 provides that an applicant for a building permit must first "demonstrate a substantial and established agribusiness activity" before being granted a building permit for his farm dwelling. Should a small farmer be fortunate enough to secure a manageable parcel of farmland, where is he expected to live? He will likely first what to build his house and move his family in so they can all work to establish the farm. I can envision a family in Hilo that wants to start a coffee farm in Ka'u. Is he expected to commute from Hilo to Ka'u every day for more than three years while his coffee trees are established? Add his fuel and vehicle maintenance costs to land and preparation, fertilizer, and plant material? This is hardly an efficient and sustainable model.

Second:
The language in this measure provides that the applicant demonstrate "... sufficiency in quantity, storage, and distribution of irrigation water for each proposed 101..." Some of the best coffee in the State is grown in Ka'u without a single drop of irrigation water. Who will make the determination at the County Building Department? Will they have a resident Ka'u coffee expert that is intimately familiar with site specifics?

The Ka'u Farm Bureau has members that are successful farmers that could not qualify for a building permit or subdivision under HB 1008 because they do not know, or cannot define "cost of production, potential income, and market outlook..." Are they to be denied their land use rights?

Additionally, the language of HB1008 states that a "form of organization of lot owners" must be identified by the applicant. Consider a case in which one farmer wants to grow coffee, another papaya. Should they form a co-op? If the State truly wants to promote diversified agriculture on small family farms, it needs to be sensitive to the realities and needs of the small farmer. Additional land use restrictions and permitting hurdles that deter the creation of small family-manageable tracts will continue to promote large corporate-style agribusiness, which has proven time and again to be an unsustainable model given Hawaii's remoteness and resultant high cost of production.

It's hard enough to create new farms and farmers given the current economic climate, marketing challenges, high cost of production and challenges posed by vog. Please don't make it harder for young and new farmers to compete.

Thank you for this opportunity to testify.

"Quotation from testimony of The Sierra Club:

In addition to making the farm dwelling requirements in HB 1008 applicable to all agricultural lands, we respectfully ask the committees to amend HB 1008 to include an additional farmland protection. Specifically, we should amend Haw. Rev. Stat. § 46-4 to make clear that the counties cannot allow developments that are violate Hawaii's Land Use Law:

Anything to the contrary notwithstanding. no county. by ordinance or private agreement, may permit any use in the agricultural district, as described in section 205-2, other than a permissible use pursuant to section 205-4.5."

These amendments would help achieve the original intent of Hawaii's Land Use Law. This would help protect Hawaii's agricultural lands and decrease real estate speculation on farmlands."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

At 6:51 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1141, HD 1
H.B. No. 1144, HD 1
H.B. No. 1008, HD 1
H.B. No. 1035, HD 1
H.B. No. 640, HD 1

H.B. No. 1226, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1226, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. In summation, this bill addresses two things. To ensure agricultural viability, we must be at the forefront of research and development to remain competitive in the global marketplace. And at the same time, it is absolutely essential that we preserve and perpetuate our island cultural values. HB 1226 addresses both of these needs. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in opposition to HB 1226, HD 1. This bill effectively prohibits the communities most affected by the risks from testing of genetically modified plant organisms (GMOs) from asking local officials to impose precautions tailor-made for a particular county or locale. This measure prevents State administrative regulatory actions and county regulatory actions from banning or otherwise regulating activities related to GMOs.

"Hawaii County's elected officials have already acted based on the concerns of their residents to adopt customized regulation of GMOs on their island through Hawaii County Ordinance No. 08-154. This bill pre-empts any regulation that a county other than Hawaii County may introduce to regulate GMOs, but also limits Hawaii County from any amendments of its regulations after January 1, 2009.

"The Standing Committee Report of the Agriculture Committee acknowledges that this measure has implications for homerule. At the heart of homerule has always been the value of giving voice to a local community's vision for the use of its land, and especially for how agriculture is both maintained and encouraged. It's simply unnatural that this bill would strip not only the counties, but also the State of the ability to determine the kind and shape of safe agriculture we desire and want.

"I urge my colleagues to vote against the bill."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in opposition to House Bill 1226 HD1, which prohibits State administrative regulatory actions from banning or otherwise regulating activities related to genetically modified plant organism, with certain exceptions.

"I must admit that I feel uneasy about supporting a GMO bill that appears to be offered as a trade-off to ensure the passage of other legislation – such as HB 1663, which I support – that prohibits genetically modified Hawaiian taro. I feel even more uncomfortable in being told that HB 1226, unless amended, will actually nullify the protections provided in HB 1663 against contamination from non-Hawaiian GMO taro.

"The report from our Agriculture Committee does acknowledge certain exceptions – such as Ordinance No. 08-154 of Hawaii County, which prohibits genetically engineered taro or coffee in that County. The bill also provides another exception regarding State statutes, claiming that it is "not superior" any law that prohibits GMO Hawaiian taro. I should also take some consolation in the language of the Committee Report that says: "It is your Committee's intent to have that measure (HB 1663) and this measure passed and enacted together as a complementary package."

"Unfortunately, this bill will remain more "contradictory" than "complementary" until it is amended to include the same prohibition against open-field planting and importing of non-Hawaiian GMO taro that exists in HB 1663. At such point in time, I will be able to reconsider my opposition and offer my support to an amended version of this bill – a version that does not give away more than it gains in the way of protection for our native Hawaiian taro."

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1226, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENETICALLY MODIFIED PLANT ORGANISMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 36 ayes to 14 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Carroll, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, Luke, McKelvey, Morita, Saiki, Shimabukuro, Takumi, Thielen and Wooley voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1048, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1048, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A no vote for me, Mr. Speaker and I wanted to just highlight the section that concerns me. On page 5, it's saying that the Land Use Commission shall allow low density residential lots and residential subdivisions on agricultural lands existing before January 1st, 2009. The Land Use Commission shall put those into the rural districts. I think that's a mistake. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition with just a short comment. Like the speaker before me, this bill concerns me because it threatens to strip the Land Use Commission of its authority and its discretion by automatically sweeping into the rural district existing agricultural settlements, plantation camps and subdivisions, many of which might be sited on important agricultural lands. This bill jumps the gun in eliminating these lands from consideration in identification of important ag lands in this State. A process that was set into motion last year is still on-going and is of paramount statewide importance. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I am compelled by the testimony of Hawaii's Thousand Friends in opposition to this bill. I quote from their testimony:

Hawaii's Thousand Friends, a statewide land and water use organization, opposes HB 1048 that amends chapters 46 and 205 to give the counties greater authority and flexibility to define uses and regulate land use in the State Rural District consistent with broad State policies and standards.

HB 1048 goes beyond giving the counties greater authority in the rural district. The bill shifts decision-making power to the counties over lands in the agricultural district, even IAL, through passage of county ordinances for permitted uses, density, and lot sizes.

In addition, HB 1048 eliminates the LUC thus curtailing public participation through the contested case process. Removing LUC oversight of the Rural District would make it virtually impossible for Oahu residents to participate in contested case hearings because the Oahu Planning Commission is advisory and there is no appeals process to the decision-making elected City Council.

The Hawai'i County Planning Commission has made it virtually impossible for citizens to participate in contested case hearings by charging large fees from anyone making such a request. The Commission rarely recognizes that anyone has standing to participate in such a hearing and strict time deadlines make it very difficult to request a contested case.

County land use decision-makers do not consider impacts on issues of statewide concern such as public schools, libraries, state highways and the counties do not have the biological or cultural expertise to protect important natural and cultural resources that are abundant within the rural district.

The LUC must comply with PASH and analyze the effect of a reclassification on Native Hawaiian customary and traditional rights. Under county jurisdiction of rural lands the State loses the ability to impose conditions and comply with PASH because the newly allowable intensive uses will be allowed as a right and can be implemented without State review.

HB 1048 is a major overhaul of Hawaii's land use planning system with implications and consequences not known or even thought of and should be held in committee."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, the Rural Lands Advisory Group was established by the Legislature via Act 205 in the 2005 Session. The Rural Lands Advisory Group recommended that State law specify the basic policies governing land use in the rural districts, and that the counties by ordinance determine the permitted uses and land uses consistent with State policies.

"Moreover, they recommended that minimum lot sizes should not be specified in State law. They further recommended that once a county has adopted policies and ordinances for managing land use in the rural districts in accordance with its general plan, the county petition the Land Use Commission to reclassify the land on a regional basis following a quasi-legislative process.

"And finally, the Rural Lands Advisory Group recommended that the counties be authorized to manage land use in the rural districts with the same degree of discretion as they have in managing uses in the urban district. The criteria for the lands in the rural lands district in HB 1048 are based on the recommendations by the Rural Lands Advisory Group. For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of the measure. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On Stand. Com. 736, I'm in opposition. This measure basically exempts the Office of Elections from the Procurement Code. Many people were very concerned and dissatisfied with how this last election was run. So, exempting them from the Procurement Code, we feel, is problematic. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 861, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 36 ayes to 14 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Ching, Coffman, Finnegan, Hanohano, C. H.B. No. 1642, HD 1:

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"The Hawaii Primary Care Association, Community Clinic of Maui, AlohaCare, and a concerned individual testified in support of this bill.

"Testimony provided by Waianae Coast Comprehensive Health Center on a related bill, HB 1525 HD 1: Relating to Medicaid, sheds some light on why a bill like this is necessary:

Submitted By: Richard Bettini, Chief Executive Officer
Contact: wcchc@wcchc.com. . .

We believe the recent QUEST Expanded Access Bid Process produced poor value for both tax payer and citizen. Changes must be made to assure that insurance companies with poor performance records in other States do not receive contracts to provide healthcare to Hawaii's most vulnerable.

We believe the QUEST Expanded Access bid process needs to be investigated to determine why a health plan under federal investigation for fraud, with questionable financial stability and without a proven network of medical providers in Hawaii, receives a bid for hundreds of millions of dollars.

Unless stronger regulation related to disclosure is firmly in place, a limitation on for-profits doing business in Medicaid in Hawaii may be appropriate.

"Mahalo."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1642, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PURCHASES OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1728 – Relating to fees. I am concerned this bill will remove flexibility for DCCA, UH and the Judiciary to adjust fees using the expedited process. Lawrence Reifurth, Director of Consumer Affairs, says 'The Department is opposed to removal of its flexibility to adjust fees in an expedited manner, notwithstanding that bill provides the increased flexibility to other agencies.' Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1728, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Bertram, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1741, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1741, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong opposition to HB 1741 HD1, which suspends temporarily the distribution of a portion of the Conveyance Tax to the Land Conservation Fund, and reduces portions transmitted to the Natural Area Reserve Fund and Rental Housing Trust Fund. I realize that the Legislature and the Executive branch must work together in these difficult times to cut expenses, increase revenue, and balance the budget. However, the negative social and environmental costs of cutting off funds to land conservation and affordable housing programs far outweigh whatever budgetary advantage is achieved by this ill-considered measure.

"If we look at the public testimony offered to our Finance Committee, we can see that it is not just the usual advocates – the environmentalists, community activists and nonprofit agencies – who spoke out against this bill. The Department of Land and Natural Resources was especially strong in laying out its policy, legal and technical concerns over redirecting conveyance tax revenue.

"Allow me to summarize the testimony, which begins by noting the loss of $3.5 million in revenue that would result from this bill. It speaks of losing highly skilled staff which would take years to replace. Threatened and endangered species would most likely become extinct. Federally funded projects that depend on Conveyance Tax revenue for the required State match would be lost. And this is just one department that would suffer negative impact. Equally harmed would be State housing agencies that have depended on a percentage of the Conveyance Tax to leverage federal monies for developing affordable housing. This is a time when we should be increasing our support for low-cost housing rather than diminishing it.

"My own district has seen the positive benefits, both environmental and economic, of our State Land Conservation Fund's Legacy Land Program, which enabled Ma'o Farms to acquire land to expand its highly acclaimed agricultural and educational work on our Wai'anea Coast. More than just keeping land from harmful development, the Legacy Land grant has provided jobs for our residents and training for young aspiring farmers. I urge my colleagues to vote against HB 1741, which clearly sacrifices long-term benefits for questionable short-term advantages."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak with reservations on HB 1741, HD 1 which temporarily suspends the distribution of a portion of the Conveyance Tax to the Land Conservation Fund and reduces the portions to the Rental Housing Trust Fund and Natural Area Reserve Fund.

"While I see these as options to balance the budget, the percentage of the Conveyance Tax revenues dedicated to these very important funds will severely affect the development of rental housing for lower income households, severely affect our islands' natural resources, conservation programs and the protection of rare, unique cultural, natural, agricultural and recreational resources and management of these important lands. I hope that other measures moving through the Legislature will indeed address maintaining these important programs with other funding sources.

"It is for these reasons, I vote with reservations."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill is part of a package of bills that have been moved forward by the House of Representatives to provide adequate options and flexibility for Senate members, House members, and the Governor during this legislative Session as we address the State's serious budgetary difficulties. Although I do not like many of the bills in this package, I have supported them to ensure that we do not limit our fiscal options and shoot ourselves in the foot. This bill, however, is penny wise and pound foolish, as it diverts dwindling funds (the conveyance tax will already fall between 50-60 percent as a result of the economic downturn) and small amounts of money into the general fund at the expense of critical programs that protect our economy, our health, and our safety.

"Without this funding, resources for affordable rental housing, private-public partnerships that protect our watersheds (i.e., our drinking water), and youth programs will disappear. In addition, programs that prevent invasive species from entering the State or becoming established and efforts to protect land for agricultural, conservation and cultural use will end at a critical time. In tough times, we need to be extra vigilant to make sure we don't jeopardize our future options, particularly when we can make a big difference at cut rate prices. Testimony against this bill also identified a significant number of critical jobs that will be eliminated if this bill becomes law. All that said, I am voting to support this bill -- with reservations -- because it is part of a package of bills we need to provide ourselves with fiscal options as we work to balance the budget."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in support. This bill will temporarily change the distribution of the Conveyance Tax revenues between July 1st, 2009 and June 30th, 2015 as follows:

For the Land Conservation Fund - from 10 percent to 0 percent;
For the Rental Housing Trust Fund - from 30 percent to 15 percent;
For the Natural Area Reserve Fund - from 25 percent to 10 percent; and
For the general fund - from 35 percent to 75 percent.

"What this means Mr. Speaker is that, for the Land Conservation Fund, they will lose $3 million per year. The Rental Housing Trust Fund will lose $5 million per year. The Natural Area Reserve Fund will lose $4 million per year. But for the general fund, we will gain $12 million per year. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Just for a little clarification, there are two other bills which will actually, or may, go to help these programs where we are taking money from that we would not otherwise be able to use so that there is no major adverse impact to these programs. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

At 7:10 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 7:13 o'clock p.m.

Representative Manahan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1741, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVEYANCE TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Berg, Brower, Hanohano, C. Lee, Marumoto, Morita, Saiki, Shimabukuro and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1744, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1744, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I know it's late. I know we want to go home. We've only been here for ten hours, but it's a déjà vu for me because in Finance, we start at 10:00 in the morning and we finished at 5:00 in the morning. That's 19 hours. And in the wee hours of the night, kind of like the ways some of you are feeling right now, this bill suddenly came upon us. And I couldn't believe it. I can't believe it's gone this far, Mr. Speaker, because there's no heart in it.

"This is the TAT tax that the counties have which represents $100 million, or 25 percent of their budgets. To take that out is to basically say to all our friends and family on the Neighbor Islands, that your property taxes have gone up, your lifestyle has been shifted.

"Mr. Speaker, I know that this is an important issue for balancing the budget. Of course it must be kept alive. But let's take out the extreme claw that it has which has reached out to our Neighbor Islands. Why not have a manini percentage? Not the 'whole nine yards,' Mr. Speaker.

"So people are tired. My apologies. But this thing came upon the Finance Committee in the same conditions that we're experiencing right now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations. I don't have any problem with using this to help balance the budget. My reservation is that I don't think any of the TAT should have gone to the counties in the first place. The TAT is for marketing, period."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with written comments. And I just want to note that the Finance hearing was actually 20 hours. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Despite our ailing economy, raiding the counties' appropriations out of the Transient Accommodations Tax will help balance our State budget at the expense of deeper budget deficits for the counties. While the addition of tens of millions of dollars to State coffers would bring us a small step closer to a balanced budget, it would be a devastating loss for the counties, for whom tens of millions of dollars is a significant portion of their budget.

"Everyone is going to have to bear the burden of these difficult years, both the State, each county, businesses and families. We are all in it together and we will all have to do our part. The State must act responsibly and overcome its own deficit without unilaterally passing the burden on to the counties."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 1744 - Relating to Transient Accommodation Tax. I am concerned this bill might hurt the counties and, in turn they might have to raise property taxes to make up for lost revenue. As the Hawaii Council of Mayors states in their testimony, "The counties provide the critical security, transportation, water and sewer infrastructure." It is important to continue sharing revenue with the counties so they are able to provide the necessary services. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'm in favor, but have strong reservations. I will watch the progress of this as it moves to the Senate and into Conference. Thank you, very much."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak with reservations in support of HB 1744, HD 1. This bill will suspend the Transient Accommodations Tax (TAT) that the counties rely on to provide services to resident and visitors alike for a period of six years.

"Revenue from the TAT is a vital source of funding for all counties in the State. The TAT revenue assists the counties with funding critical services, facilities, programs and government operations, including beach parks, police, firefighters, drinking water, and wastewater treatment. Because I fully understand the dire budget challenges facing the State, I am voting today to move this measure forward, but I see it as a vehicle to use as the discussion continues on how we address the expected budget shortfalls. I am very concerned that cutting off substantial funding to any of the Neighbor Island county governments will not be the best course of action to take to balance our State budget. Our Neighbor Island counties have great challenges and only property taxes and fees to balance their own budgets. Withholding this important revenue source from the counties may further worsen the economic conditions that we all as a community are currently experiencing.

"While I support the bill today, I hope that this discussion will evolve into a way to collaborate with the counties rather than taking away benefits from them. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes. I have strong reservations, Mr. Speaker. Strong reservations."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support. I know this is a controversial bill, but it is a part of the package to address the $1.8 billion, three-year shortfall. I ask the Members to support this to keep the discussion going.

"A lot of people are talking about the counties, and that this is their tax. I ask my colleagues to keep in mind one related item, so to speak. As we move forward with the deficit, one of the big issues that has come up is HHSC, as an example. In most counties throughout the country, hospitals are funded through real property taxes by the county. It's not funded by the state. So perhaps this gives us an avenue for further discussion to address, not just State problems, but each island's problems. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support and ask that the comments made by the Representative from Kaneohe/Kailua be entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. As we said earlier in the Session, there are going to be many difficult decisions that we will have to make, and this is one of them. We have many hard decisions coming up in the next few weeks.

"I think one of the things that the Representative from Kaneohe/Kailua just mentioned is the issue of HHSC. But there are other issues like the health safety net. We have got to be strong, and we have got to realize that this needs to go ahead. I ask that I be able to submit some additional comments. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, this measure is necessary to help the State deal with the present fiscal crisis and to reduce expected revenue shortfalls.

"This has been a most difficult year, and all indications are that the revenue projections for the coming year will be inadequate to meet our needs.

"We have said publicly that all options are on the table, and this and other proposals we are hearing today are part of a plan which may assist us to retain core programs, save our healthcare safety net and avoid significant job loss.

"In our present fiscal situation, our primary responsibility is to the State of Hawaii and the services it provides to our statewide constituency.

"This is a difficult decision, but a proposal we must advance in order to keep our options open."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This bill suspends for six years, from July 1st, 2009 to June 30th, 2015, the distribution of the Transient Accommodations Tax revenues to the counties.

"This will generate $97.9 million to the State coffers in fiscal year 2010; $102.3 million to the State coffers in 2011; $107.1 million to the State in 2012; $112 million to the State in 2013; $117 million to the State in fiscal year 2014; and $122.7 million to the State in 2015. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In favor, Mr. Speaker. The Chair of the Consumer Protection Committee spoke his piece like a true hotel man. I think he and I are two old war horses that remember. You may recall that when we instituted the TAT, the hotel room tax, we told tourism leaders, when they asked us to, 'Please not use it for anything else but tourism. We want to build a Convention Center.' And I think some of us said, 'Don't worry. We're going to use it all for tourism. Trust us.' Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. I had my doubts about the wisdom of this particular bill because it basically just charges our same constituents in a different way. But I think because of the severity of the fiscal situation, I think at this point, if we're going to get up and oppose money-raising bills, we're going to have to substitute something. My suggestion is to either increase the rates or lower the income level for HB 1747 which would increase income taxes. Mahalo."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have strong reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1744, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 33 ayes to 17 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Bertram, Brower, Carroll, Ching, Coffman, Hanohano, Har, C. Lee, Luke, McKelvey, Morita, Nakashima, Sagum, Saiki and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1748, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1748, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. The purpose of this bill is to temporarily increase the insurance premium tax rates on insurers of life insurance contracts from 2.75 percent, to 4.265 percent; and for ocean-marine insurance contracts from 0.8775 percent, to 4.265 percent.

"According to the Department of Taxation and the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, this bill, if approved, will raise about $5 million per year in additional revenues. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. This is one in a series of bills that mention the T word. And in fact pushes the T word to the ultimate on a number of tax increases. There are some of us in the Finance Committee who don't believe the TAT tax and some of these tax increases are at the point where we are going to say, 'We are going to increase your taxes, business.' Because let's be frank, anytime a business tax is increased, the businesses pass it on to the consumer. The consumers are our constituents. The consumers are the people of Hawaii. So when we think that we're just going to get it out of business, it's like saying that we are going to bleed it out of the people of Hawaii. Again, back to the principles of an economic recovery, circulation of the 72 percent who are the consumers, they need to keep their money and they need to spend it. We don't need to take it away from them.

"So Mr. Speaker, this stuff can blow up in our face. I know we have to balance the budget, by law. But there are ways of not going to the extremes until we really see. Until Thursday, when the Council on Revenues meets again, we probably don't know how dire the situation is. We shouldn't be mentioning the 'tax' word. The income tax increase; a GET tax increase. Until we really even know it should be part of the thing that we're going to be discussing. So all of these things are on the backs of the people of Hawaii, and particularly on the Neighbor Islands. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. Again, we said we would put everything on the table and we need to do this. Thursday will be too late to pass this bill if we should need it. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Just to address some of the comments made by the Representative from Hawaii Kai. First of all, if you look at the Insurance Premium Tax statute, not all insurance companies are treated the same. In fact, the bulk of the property and casualty line pays 4.265 percent, while the rest do not pay as high. This does generate revenue, but also this is a tax equity issue.

"And secondly, to follow up with the Representative from Mililani, on Thursday the news will probably get worse. The US mainland has not bottomed in their economy and therefore, since we lag, neither has ours. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1748, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE PREMIUM TAXES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1598, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1598, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to HB 1598. My opposition to this bill is based on the same constitutional concerns and concerns about unintended consequences that I have for HB 1604."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1605, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1605. The purpose of this bill is well-intentioned in that it encourages an independent study of Hawaii's tax code. However, the creation and funding of the Hawaii Tax Review Initiative as proposed is duplicative of the constitutionally mandated Tax Review Commission that is scheduled to convene on July 1, 2010. In light of current economic conditions, a better approach might be to convene the 2010 Tax Review Commission earlier and afford this Commission the proper funding and time to present the Legislature with a thorough report as contemplated by HB 1605."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.B. 1605, H.D. 1.

"This legislation proposes to create a commission to review Hawaii tax policy. The legislation also proposes to equally split the cost of the initiative between the State and private donors. It is questionable whether private entities should be able to co-share the cost of a commission that is charged with reviewing tax policy. This could open the door to private interests that are inclined to manipulate our tax structure and laws through such a process.

"This possibility is particularly applicable here because the private individual who has testified in support of this measure at Committee hearings and who has offered to raise private funds for this Commission has a track record of using the legislative process to advance his personal and financial interests. Just today, this individual has advocated for House Bill Numbers 1593, 1604, and 1598 to be approved by this Body on Third Reading. These bills propose to alter existing commercial lease rent contracts in favor of lessees. The individual also caused this Body to call for a study to review commercial real property leases by the Legislative Reference Bureau in 2003.

"The private individual is a commercial lessee, and it is apparent that objectivity may be lost if he is permitted to co-fund the tax review analysis.

"Accordingly, I oppose this legislation. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1605, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Finnegan, Hanohano, Luke, Morita, Pine and Saiki voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1735, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support. This bill simply advances the payment of the general excise tax by 20 days. It provides a one-time boost to the general fund of about $40 million. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1735, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative McKelvey voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1739, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1739, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. This bill would prohibit the recipient of federal grants from qualifying for State tax credits. Right now we are currently working with the Department of Taxation to re-price the estimates based upon federal grants and other monies as an amendment to this draft. The prior estimation of revenue gain by the Department of Taxation was about $20 million. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"The purpose of Section 1 of this Act is to address State low-income housing credits. It reduces the period over which credits may be claimed from ten years to five years. The Legislature finds that the reduction should make the credits more valuable to investors.

"Part II of this Act addresses the election of a federal grant in lieu of a portion of the State tax credit allocation for 2009, as authorized by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, just passed by Congress.

"Mr. Speaker, as the federal government is stepping up to the plate to give incentives for the development of affordable housing, I hope that the State of Hawaii will follow suit."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1043, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LOW-INCOME HOUSING TAX CREDITS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. I originally submitted my no vote because I'm concerned that transferring money away from smoking prevention is in the long run, much more expensive than the money that we would save here. But considering the financial situation, I would like to change my vote to aye with reservations, and see how things turn out. Mahalo."

Representative Sagum rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I have grave reservations about taking funding from longstanding effective programs that protect our youth and prevent underage smoking. We are in a difficult economic time, but shifting these funds to overcome a budget deficit is dangerous in a time when smoking rates for our children are likely to rise. With our budget deficit likely to grow in the coming months, I am voting on this measure to move it forward so we have options on the table to help reach budget solvency."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With strong reservations, please."

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This bill again, is a part of the overall financial package to balance our $1.8 billion deficit. While I do agree with the Representative from Chinatown, there are a lot of things, as we progress, and should the Council on Revenues projections get worse on Thursday, that we will be making tough decisions to make sure we can provide services in the present by sacrificing a little in the future.

"I do understand that this is one of those bills that helps us provide the safety net today, especially for healthcare and human services. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I would just like to say that this is a particularly hard vote for me to take because I've always been a strong advocate against smoking. But I know that this is something that is really necessary for us to do. We've got to do it, and we'll see what happens on Thursday. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this bill, H.B. No. 1731, HD 1. Just a couple of points. This bill does reallocate for two years, the money the State currently gets from the master settlement agreement. These have not been easy decisions, as expressed by the votes with reservations. I too share the sentiments of the Members.

"Currently, the master settlement agreement distribution is as follows:

The Emergency Budget Reserve Fund, the 'Rainy Day' Fund currently receives 24.5 percent of the funds. However, the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund currently receives 12.5 percent. The University of Hawaii John A. Burns School of Medicine receives 28 percent. And the Department of Health receives 35 percent.

"That's 24.5 percent, 12.5 percent, 28 percent and 35 percent.

"The new master settlement distribution would be as follows:

The Emergency Budget Reserve Fund, the 'Rainy Day' Fund would receive 24.5 percent, so no change there. However, the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund would now receive 2 percent. The Medical School would receive 23.5 percent. And the Department of Health, 25 percent. The general fund would receive 25 percent, or $12.5 million per year.

"When we looked at the apportionment as proposed in this HD 1, we strove to preserve the services to the children as much as possible. And although the Tobacco Trust Fund will see a large reduction in this measure, they have assured me that there is a healthy corpus, even if you consider the market loss of the Trust Fund this year. The current Trust Fund balance is about $37 million, Mr. Speaker.

"We've also maintained the debt service payment for the John A. Burns School of Medicine. But we did take a little bit back from the operations of the Med School. I don't believe this will hurt them in the short run.

"And finally, we did defer the growth that the Governor had assumed in her Financial Plan, that's H.B. No. 1732. We did not move on that bill, and I don't intend to move on that bill. HB 1732 promoted by the Governor and assumed in her Financial Plan would tap the Medical School, and also possibly harm the Cancer Research Center's special fund. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask for a ruling on a possible conflict of interest for HB 1731. At my law firm, I represent the Coalition for a Tobacco Free Hawaii. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1731, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOBACCO SETTLEMENT SPECIAL FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Berg and Brower voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1749, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1749, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, again, I am rising in support for H.B. No. 1749. The purpose of this bill is to impose for a six-year period of time, July 1st, 2009 to June 30th, 2015, the Insurance Premium Tax on Mutual Benefit Societies, Fraternal Benefit Societies, and Health Maintenance Organizations. The bill also establishes a medical workforce promotion, health workforce education, or indigent healthcare program tax credit that may be claimed against the tax.

"In this House Draft 1, your Committee on Finance did amend and exclude fraternal benefit societies from this taxes application. According to a memo from Budget and Finance Director Georgina Kawamura, the bill is estimated to generate about $25 million per year."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1749, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INSURANCE PREMIUM TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1184, HD 2:

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, H.B. No. 1184, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE GOVERNMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1584, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1584, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1584, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE RATE OF INTEREST APPLICABLE TO OVERPAYMENTS OF TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

H.B. No. 1600, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1600, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"It should be emphasized that reimbursements should be for payroll related items only, i.e. payroll, payroll taxes and employee benefits. No amounts for administrative services or other cost should be transferred from one entity to another.

"Additionally, the Director of Taxation orally testified that the current enforcement of a common paymaster is based on IRC 267(b) as stated in this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1600, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

At 7:43 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1731, HD 1
H.B. No. 1749, HD 1
H.B. No. 1184, HD 2
H.B. No. 1584, HD 1
H.B. No. 1600, HD 1

At 7:44 o'clock p.m. Representative Pine requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 7:52 o'clock p.m.

H.B. No. 1747, HD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1747, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support however, with reservations of H.B. 1747 – Relating to Taxation. This bill creates an extremely broad tax bracket at the rate of 8.25% for those earning between $96,000 and $750,000 and I am concerned that those on the low end of this proposed tax bracket, who are the middle class of Hawaii, will feel this tax increase harder than most.

"Raising taxes during economic hardship is never a good idea. This takes money out of the hands of those who would otherwise be spending money and stimulating the economy. People making over $750,000 are being taxed nearly double their current rate, and those are the people with the capital needed to create jobs and keep the economy going. I think this bill could potentially send the message that Hawaii might not the best place to invest or do business. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 1747, House Draft 1. This bill increases the income tax on individuals earning more than $125,000, head of households earning more than $187,000, and joint taxpayers earning more than $250,000. Again, $125,000 for individuals, $187,000 for head of households, and joint taxpayers earning more than $250,000.

"This bill also increases the standard deductions and personal exemptions by 10%. Just a few citations here, Mr. Speaker. According to the Tax Foundation, Hawaii's income per capita is about $46,500. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, the median household income for Hawaii is $62,543. And, according to the U.S. Census Bureau, the median family income for Hawaii is $71,784. Mr. Speaker, this bill will not raise taxes on any of these groups.

"This bill balances the needs of our communities by asking those with the means to pay more, to pay a little bit more. Let me explain. This bill asks individuals making more than $275,000 to pay less than 1% more in income taxes. So, if you're fortunate enough in this community to earn more than $275,000 a year, we're asking you to pay less than 1% more in income taxes.

"This bill also asks a couple who earn more than $550,000 per year, for those couples in our community who earn $550,000 per year, to pay less than 1% more in income taxes. The income tax bracket changes will generate about $62 million per year. The standard deduction and personal exemptions increases will provide a tax cut of $11.3 million to those of the lower income levels.

"Finally, the Institute on Taxation and Economic Policy Study, showed how regressive our tax system is. One way to fix this is to create these high income tax brackets. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support with just slight reservations. My concern is only that, just reading a news report here, that this would also include small businesses whose income flows through to a personal tax return. So, I hope that when they look at deductions on the Senate side, they can keep in mind that small businesses do utilize this bracket. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting for this measure with reservations. It's difficult for me to vote for a tax increase, but considering the situation, I will do so, but I'm hoping that the brackets don't slip downwards at all. It's always preferable to derive revenue from the income tax, rather than from the general excise tax, because the income tax is progressive, and the GET is very regressive. So, I am reluctantly supporting this measure."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives McKelvey and Marumoto be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative M Oshiro be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1747, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Finnegan voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 7:57 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1747, HD 1

END OF CALENDAR

At 7:58 o'clock p.m. Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 7:59 o'clock p.m.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 882) recommending that H.B. No. 139, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 139, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 882, House Bill 139, House Draft 2. Mr. Speaker, once again, we are dealing with yet another bill for the establishment of toll roads. While proponents of this measure believe that if we pass this bill, the DOT will enter into an agreement with a private company to build additional roads in Hawaii, at no cost to tax payers. I submit there are many costs which have not been addressed, and for which I base my opposition upon. Mr. Speaker, I base my opposition upon six reasons.

"First, Hawaii is in no jeopardy of losing federal funding for our highways, should we not pass this bill. As this Body knows, in 2005, the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act, also known as SAFETEA-LU, provides funding for state's highways, highway safety, and public transportation, and is the federal funding source from which Hawaii receives its 80-20 match for repair and maintenance, as well as construction of new projects.

"While SAFETEA-LU is up for reauthorization this summer, the Hawaii State Department of Transportation made clear to the Finance Committee, in its testimony on February the 27th, 2009, that this bill would not, in any way, enhance or jeopardize the 80-20 match we receive from the federal government, assuming SAFETEA-LU is reauthorized. If somehow we did not pass such a measure, and in doing so, we would be endangering the availability of federal funds for our road projects, I would certainly understand the reason for this bill. However, failure to pass this bill will not endanger or jeopardize our federal funds, and therefore this bill is unnecessary.

"A second reason for my opposition to this bill is that this bill would allow for the privatization of roads. Mr. Speaker, there is an inherent danger to privatizing roads, because roads are for public use. Any driver knows how events that take place on one road affect another connecting or alternative route. Thus, toll prices, maintenance and safety standards, and congestion on a toll road have a substantial impact on the number of cars using alternative routes, including local roads and mass transit.

"Decisions about how to operate and manage these roadways, have the effect of creating traffic policy for the State. What may seem beneficial from a narrow profit perspective, does not necessarily benefit transportation networks generally. As a result, public control of key toll roads is necessary to ensure coherent statewide transportation planning and policymaking.

"Road privatization in other states shows that when private operators profit, their motives produce very different management decisions than government would. For example, allowing a private entity to set a toll, enables the private operator to largely dictate traffic management. While concession agreements lay out schedules for toll increases that can sound reasonable, they often times compound over time to very high rates. For example, Chicago's 99-year toll agreement lays out a schedule of permissible rate hikes. If these same rate increases had applied to New York's Holland Tunnel since its inception, that road really could presently charge a one way toll of more than $180. As a practical matter, a toll operator would be unlikely to charge such a high price, because drivers would instead take alternate routes.

"But again, the point is that private toll decisions equate to a private entity having broad control over our traffic management. Transportation policy should be made according to what is in the best interest of the public. Not dictated by what kind of extra payments may have to be made to a private operator.

"A third reason I am opposed to this bill, Mr. Speaker, is because it specifically targets residents living in newly developed areas, such as West Oahu and West Maui. This bill exacerbates inequity, in that it restricts the ability of the DOT to enter into agreements with private entities to build, operate, own, or finance transportation facilities, including toll highways, to newly constructed facilities only. In other words, roads already built in the State cannot be tolled.

"As new roads are built, predominately in newly developed areas, such as West Oahu and Maui, this bill is directed at only those who live in these newly developed areas. If this measure allowed for existing roads to be tolled, I suspect many members of this body would then be in opposition, because this bill could then potentially impact their constituencies. But, if this bill allowed all roads to be tolled, then I submit this bill would be more equitable. Because, if one person paid a toll, then all persons would pay a toll."

Representative Saiki rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. Interestingly, in a previous bill, the Chair of Transportation reminded us not to be provincial, because we represent the State. My concern is that this measure, and the language in this bill, basically takes out the ability to toll everybody in this State, and therefore, I have no choice but to be provincial.

"A fourth reason I am opposed to this bill, is because not only does it target mainly residents of West Oahu and West Maui, but when tied to another bill before this Body, House Bill 1167, it creates a system of double payment for West Oahu and West Maui residents.

"A fifth reason I am opposed to this bill, is because it is dangerously similar to that of a regressive tax. A regressive tax is a tax that takes a larger percentage from the income of low income people, than the income of high income people. While the bill does not create a regressive tax, per se, what this bill does do is raise the issue of geographic equity. Mr. Speaker, geographic equity refers to issues surrounding how one part of the state is treated, compared to another. In the case of toll roads to be paid on by the residents of the Leeward side, I submit that geographic equity is an issue here.

"Proponents of this bill believe toll roads will work in Hawaii, because they have been successful on the Mainland. Again, Mr. Speaker, Hawaii is not like the Mainland, in that, on the Mainland, those with higher incomes typically live outside of the urban core, known as suburbia. Hawaii is exactly the opposite. Those with higher incomes generally live in the urban core, while those in lower income brackets live in Central and West Oahu, because the homes are more affordable.

"Moreover, there is no question when comparing the socio-economic demographics of those from East Honolulu or the Windward Side, from Leeward Oahu. As such, to expect residents of the Leeward side to bear the burden of a toll is essentially akin to a regressive tax, because lower income residents would now be required to pay an additional fee if they wanted to find a faster way to get into town.

"The sixth and final reason I am opposed to this bill, is because Hawaii simply does not have the population base, or even the projected population growth to support such toll roads. In his testimony before the Finance Committee last Session, Director of Transportation, Brennon Morioka testified that 21 other states have enacted legislation to enable public-private partnerships to finance highway capacity improvements. When asked if one of the key factors to the success of these public-private partnerships was population and ridership, Mr. Morioka answered in the affirmative.

"While the proponents of this measure believe that this bill will create a mechanism, by which a private entity will come to Hawaii, finance and build new roads, and then collect its investment through tolls, our State DOT Director has already been clear on this point. Our DOT has been in discussions with private financiers on the Mainland, about the possibility of toll roads in the State of Hawaii, and the private financiers have all unequivocally stated that they will not come to Hawaii to build a toll road, because we simply do not have the population base for them to charge. In other words, the private investors would never make up their investment on the backend, due to our limited population.

"This year, on February 27th, 2009, before the House Finance Committee, the Deputy Director of Highways was explicitly asked whether anything had changed in these discussions with the DOT and the private financiers …"

Representative Ito rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. The Deputy of Highways was explicitly asked whether anything had changed in the discussions between the DOT and private financiers, indicating that private investors would now come to Hawaii to build toll roads. The Deputy Director of Highways again confirmed DOT's talk with private financiers, and that the private investors would not come to Hawaii to build toll roads because these private financiers would never be able to recoup the money via tolls they invested in building a toll road.

"While many hail public-private partnerships and the implementation of toll roads as a solution to building more roadways, there are additional dangers that exist. More prevalent now are the non-competition agreements that many private entities are imposing on states. Strapped for adequate road building funds, the California Legislature passed a law, enabling the California Transportation Department to entertain proposals for up to four privately funded highway projects. The SR91 HOT Lane was the first project to be funded privately. The State awarded a private entity a contract to build a roadway down an SR91 median, for the purpose of adding additional lanes. The private entity, however, required the State of California to assent to the private company's requirement for a non-competition agreement, so that public highways near SR91 would not be maintained or improved until the year 2030. In other words, the State of California was to allow the state highways to crumble for decades, forcing the public onto the private toll road.

"The State of California eventually agreed that it could not leave the roads to deteriorate, and endanger drivers' lives, so it began fixing the nearby roads. The private entity sued the State of California for breach of contract, and the public learned the true costs of the private road. The public was furious, and turned against the project and the government that agreed to do it.

"Most recently, the General Accountability Office, the non-partisan Congressional investigative agency found that an increasing number of toll ways include non-competition clauses in their contract, under which the public sector agrees not to build any new road or improve any of the existing roads that may result in additional capacity, or the predetermined distance of a newly constructed road for a certain period of time. Where these agreements did not exist, there were understandings that the state would not build a competing road.

"The SR91 experience has forced privatization proponents to find creative ways to achieve the same end. One way is to require the state to compensate the private owners for any revenues lost when improvements are made to nearby roads. California State Route 125 includes a provision that allows the State to build a competing, but only if the State reimburses the private company for revenues lost to the new road. Calculating these lost revenues is, again, an enterprise filled with uncertainty and opportunities for overreaching. This bill, Mr. Speaker, provides no safeguards against these dangers, which is yet another reason I am opposed.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition because I am not sure whether building more lanes on our freeways is the answer to our traffic woes. I am skeptical after witnessing the widening of the Waimalu viaduct in Pearl City. The State spent $70 million to widen the H-1 Freeway, Ewa bound, to six lanes in Pearl City, alleviate congestion in Central Oahu. But, now that it is all said and done, the additional lanes have not really significantly improved the quality of traffic in Central Oahu.

"As such, I submit that we must continue to support alternative methods of transportation, such as fixed rail. The point is, in order to alleviate traffic, we must get people out of their cars, which is precisely why I support alternative methods of transportation, such as rail. Creating additional roads will only encourage people to remain in their cars. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to House Bill 139, House Draft 2. Should this measure move forward, I ask my colleagues to consider the equitable arguments I have raised, and propose that if one person on this island is required to pay a toll, then all people living in Hawaii should have to pay a toll, since we all represent the State, and all laws should be applied fairly and evenhandedly. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I will give three reasons why I think we should support the bill, but I first would like to start by telling a story. I lived in Kuala Lumpur for five years, and during that time, the traffic was horrendous. And, it reminds me of the traffic that we have today in Honolulu. We would go out on the freeway, we'd get caught in traffic, we'd try to go four miles and it'd take us an hour and a half. It was almost unbearable.

"I remember that the country, I thought, got very innovative. What they did was they entered into these agreements to build some toll roads. But they didn't just build toll roads indiscriminately. They actually thought it through. Where were the main traffic patterns? How many people were on the roads? They needed relief immediately. They couldn't wait. They found that entering these partnerships would jump start it, and solve the problem.

"So, what they did, and what I saw, is that they gave people alternatives. And so, what would happen is, the regular roads were the same, and people could stay on them. People could be caught in traffic and sit in their cars. We're talking stop, go, stop, go, stop, go, for an hour and a half to get from point B to point A. Four or five miles. Or, they could pay some money, and jump on a toll road and get there quickly.

"And what I saw is, people actually did make those choices. And sometimes, you get in traffic situations and you need alternatives. I think what we're talking about, is giving DOT the potential of a tool, in areas where it's significantly jammed up.

"So, let's talk about the three reasons. The three reasons I believe is, yes, it's correct. Hawaii is very different. We're an island state. But when you're on an island state, you have a lot of restrictions on land. I'm fortunate. I've travelled. I've seen Hong Kong. I have seen Singapore. I've seen island states. You start putting a lot of cars there. Now mind you in Hawaii, we are limited. One of the things we could do, is tell people they can't have more than two cars per household. Or, we could auction off rights to cars and say that families can only get one car. If we're not willing to limit the cars that we have on an island, then we have to build roads. It's unfortunate, but I believe it's true. So yes, that's one reason. We're an island state, and we don't limit the amount of cars that people can buy and purchase.

"Number two. Those of you who saw the newspaper not too long ago, saw that Hawaii was rated the worst traffic in the whole United States. The whole United States of America, and we get that reputation. That shows we haven't solved the problem. So, what are we doing to resolve the problem?

"And third, I'm always shocked when I talked to people in my district, and I say to them, I think we're paying up to $5 million per mile for a road. Unbelievable. And we know what kind of situation we are in, in terms of our budget. So, this is not a bad idea to give DOT a tool to think about.

"In regards to any concerns about concessionaires, I know in Malaysia, when they gave these private sector people the ability to build a toll, they built into the project the fact that maybe 40 years later, it actually reverted back to the State, with ownership. But, they were required, when they owned that toll road, to maintain it. Those roads were spotless, they were clean, no potholes, maintained. But not those other roads. The alternative roads were a mess, with potholes. The state didn't keep up those roads. And so again, people had a choice, either you're being on those roads, public roads that were potholed, and had traffic for an hour and half to go four miles. Or they got on a toll and paid, and they were clean and spotless, and they were amazing. They even had good lighting.

"So, Mr. Speaker, those were the three reasons I think it's worth giving DOT the tool. I also want to comment that I have family in Chicago, so I go there every year. I've always ridden on a toll way. It's called the Indiana Tollway. I've always done it, every year. It's 40 cents. This last year it went up to $1.10, but why? Brilliant technology. It used to be that on toll roads, you would just drive up, stop, throw your money in a basket and go through the toll road. Not anymore. Technology, electronics are amazing. They put a little thing on your windshield. They put money in a debit account …"

Representative Magaoay rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans continued, stating:

"So anyway, you would just drive as fast as if you were driving on the freeway. You can go 55, or 65. In Illinois, it's a little higher than here. So, 65 miles per hour. You drive right through. It has a camera, and bang. It deducts it from your account. So, traffic goes really fast, no slowdown. It's a fabulous system. And, I think that seeing it in Chicago, it's really helped alleviate the traffic jams there. So, Mr. Speaker, I support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, I rise in support. This is kind of strange, for somebody who's always talking about walking and biking, but there are several reasons.

"Number one is that, as much as I've voted with reservations on various bills to take away taxes, we are facing a very, very dire situation right now with our budget. We need to look at any answers that we can look at in maintaining our infrastructure, even in building new roads, which don't always have to be in new developments. You can put new roads in old developments too. So, there's no restriction in that sense.

"Number two is that, as much as ridership's increasing on transit, all across the nation, more people are walking and biking, more is going towards that. The fact of the matter is, the current land use patterns we have now are going to basically dictate that we are going to still be basically dependent on the car for probably another generation. I mean, it's going to take that long, even as we move to rail, even as we get more walking and biking, we're going to have to deal with the cars, and we're going to have to deal with it in much more creative ways than we've been left with so far.

"But, number three, basically is just that, we have to have a balanced transportation system. And, if we don't find different ways that we can finance this, we can't rely just on the federal government. That time is gone. We can't just rely on government for these things. If this is one tool that we can use to get public-private partnerships, we could. I did go to the NCSL conference. There was a whole thing on toll roads, and the stories were just mixed. There were some that were very successful. There were others that weren't as successful. But I think if we have a good oversight of how these are done, and we've learned from other places, we can do a good job. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm speaking for the bill. I know that we're all tired. We've heard the pros and the cons from two great orators from both sides, and I think we've heard enough. So, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to call for the question."

At this time, Representative Souki called for the previous question.

The Chair then addressed the Members, stating:

"The question has been called at this point. Thank you. Before calling the question, the Chair will allow members to insert written comments at this point, for or against."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. And, I would like to thank my colleagues for passing this legislation that would benefit everyone in Hawaii, and I would like to insert my two-page comment into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support HB 139. The intent of this bill is to provide language in the HRS that will allow private developers to build roads at their own expense and then have a mechanism to recoup their investment. Any possible negative impacts of this program will be addressed in the pre-implementation stage of the build. This bill is intended to provide enabling legislation.

"Because of our diminished State budget, we aren't in the position to fund transportation projects, yet also because of the recession, the need for efficient transportation is even more vital, in order to keep our economy going. Public-private partnerships is a creative solution to this dilemma.

"Partnering with the private sector would help the State improve our transportation systems. By transferring a portion of the risk, planning, study, development, financing, and acquisition to a private entity, the State can meet its essential transportation needs.

"Toll roads are a new concept in our State, although it is used by 20 other states in the nation as a way to build themselves out of congestion. Traffic congestion remains the number one quality of life issue in the entire State. This condition is only worsening as there are no planned new freeways or highways up to the year 2030. And, in the meantime, more homes are being built every day. In Leeward and Central Oahu, there are 24,000 homes scheduled to be built as we speak. We have embraced the "no build" concept when it comes to our freeways and highways.

"We passed HB 70 last Session knowing that our government can no longer afford to build highways and freeways without raising taxes. As a legislator, I do not want to be the advocate of raising taxes.

"This bill, HB 139, was crafted to merely provide enabling legislation. I believe that this Body and the State should provide options just like the City and County of Honolulu. There are measures before you to raise the cost of vehicle registration, vehicle tax, and additional tax of gasoline. I do not dispute the former two, however, increasing gasoline taxes will definitely tax those from the outlaying areas, such as Ewa Beach who have to fill up their tank more often. So, Mr. Speaker, Members, we do not have an exit plan to paying for highways or freeways. If you ride the train, the bus, drive, you cannot escape the tax. So, paying a toll is not to say that you are paying more.

"Tolling for the creation of new roads is a very simple concept. A private company builds the road now and we get to use it right away. The mortgage is paid through the collection of tolls. If we wait for government to build the road, we will be waiting for decades. With the toll concept, once the contractor has been paid off through toll collection, the road can then become a free road. The public roads will still be there for those who do not want to pay. Even they will still benefit from it, because the free road will be less congested. The savings on fuel, and the amount of time spent behind the wheel are very attractive to consumers.

"I believe that toll roads are a crucial component of the overall plan of improving transportation for a fiscally constrained state such as ours. I ask that my colleagues support this bill."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks, and the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 139 - Relating to Transportation. I am concerned this bill might be detrimental to the long-term public interest because it relinquishes public control over transportation policy while failing to deliver the value comparable to the tolls that the public will be forced to pay for the duration of the agreement. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure provides for options to address the infrastructure shortages; in particular, lack of roads – a statewide issue. I believe that we should keep our options open by passing this measure.

"There are toll roads in many major cities throughout the United States. The Federal Highway Administration documented toll roads even in Puerto Rico – 22 tolls in an island territory. Public-private partnerships have become an option as it leverages state funds with private funds to help the general public. The reality faced before us is that the economic environment can no longer provide for State tax dollars and or State matching funds to adequately keep up with the number of roads needed in accordance to the rate of growth that we are experiencing.

"In addition, before major roadway projects are undertaken, community meetings and input is accepted in the affected communities. If this measure does not pass, my fear is that those who need congestion alleviation will not be allowed options and be forced to wait hours to get to and from work. The Oahu Metropolitan 2030 Plan reflects an 80 minute commute for those in the rural areas such as the Waianae Coast and the North Shore.

"Let's keep an open mind on this measure, keep our options open and keep this measure moving. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations on this bill, which would allow the State to enter into agreements with private entities to build, operate own, or finance newly constructed transportation facilities, including toll highways.

"Before we take this route, we must thoroughly examine what such a change in public policy would mean for our State. There is a growing trend in the United States for privately financed roads. Many see privately operated toll roads as a panacea for our traffic problems, as they have the potential to increase the capacity of our roadways without raising taxes. Others encourage the construction of toll roads as an alternative for a transit system.

"Chicago and Indiana entered into private concession agreements for public roads, which extend as long as 99 years. America has been more resistant to free-market infrastructure construction than the rest of the world, but as bridges and roads deteriorate, private investment groups see great opportunities to reap profits over the long term.

"Add to that, the Federal Highway trust fund is billions of dollars in debt, and many feel an increase in the federal fuel tax is long overdue. Hawaii is a donee rather than a donor state, which means it gets more from the highway fund than it puts in. Predictions are that raising the federal fuel tax by 3 cents a gallon would raise millions in revenue, while costing the average driver about $7.06 a year. Even this would not be enough.

"According to the U.S. Transportation Department, the cost of fixing the highways and bridges of the United States exceeds $495 billion. If railroads and ports are included, the cost exceeds $1.6 trillion. Although Chicago and Indiana have forged ahead, opposition prevails in states like Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Texas.

"Modern transit solutions take cars off the road, reduce traffic, shorten commuter time, improve the public health, provide reliability and increase the quality of life—all leading to economic well-being. Toll road solutions and road privatization are policies that will put more cars on the road and in the long run might provide enormous profits for investors who expect rising tolls to justify their investment, putting even more of a burden on taxpayers.

"U.S. PIRG, a federation of state public interest research groups, an independent, citizen-funded group, is working to encourage public support for new public transportation projects and improved service, while making sure that privatization and toll road deals are in the public interest.

"A report from U.S. PIRG cites the effect of multi-million dollar deals in Chicago and Indiana, which have encouraged Wall Street investors and high-priced consulting firms to promote such deals to state and local government. In anticipation of huge profits, private road operators are promising miracles for our congested roads and highways.

"Some would argue that this path is necessary because neither the state nor the counties have sufficient funds to build more highways. U.S. PIRG cautions that through such deals, the public loses control of transportation policy, and there is no guarantee that toll roads will deliver their promised value. The report cites such problems as an inability to prevent toll traffic from being diverted to local communities and difficulty changing traffic patterns on toll roads without paying additional compensation to road operators. The U.S. PIRG report also notes the difficult of ensuring fair contracts when they stretch over multiple generations and changing community needs.

"As public officials, we have a responsibility to protect the public interest. Before we enter into any agreements allowing the Governor or the Department of Transportation to enter into private agreements, we must thoroughly investigate this change in public policy. Selling our roads to put more cars in service would not be the responsible choice."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. With half of my family living in Kuala Lumpur, I am in support."

Representative Ito rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have some grave, grave reservations. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 139, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Berg, Ching, Coffman, Har, C. Lee, Manahan, McKelvey, Rhoads, Tokioka and Yamane voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 8:22 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 139, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 900) recommending that H.B. No. 1187, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1187, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can I please be recognized? I haven't spoken tonight, and I would like to give the closing remark on this matter.

"House Bill 1187 is the Return to Home program. The purpose of the Return to Home program is to assist homeless people from other states, voluntarily returning to home. This is not meant to solve the entire homeless problem, but it is a compassionate bill to repatriate and return our homeless population to their home for those who have encountered the harsh reality of homelessness in Hawaii. This is meant for the out-of-state homeless that already have family, friends, or other support services in the place where they are requesting transfer.

"Social services costs for the homeless is $35,000 to $45,000 a year per person. 40% of the homeless population are from the Mainland, and a good number of them want to go home, and have families to go home to, but rather cannot afford the airfare to go home.

"Mr. Speaker, if this bill should die today, I want it to be remembered as the Family Reunification Bill. A compassionate bill that remembered those unfortunate human beings, and cannot afford to pay their way home.

"The proponents of this bill are already doing this. It is just because of strained budgetary needs and diminishing grants-in-aid, they may not be able to continue doing this humanitarian act.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is heavily supported by so many individuals, organizations, and businesses. Practically no one came to the hearing to oppose this bill, but rather, we received so much accolades in the merit of the bill.

"There is concern of being misused, and the bill will encourage more homeless people to come to Hawaii. It costs money to come to Hawaii, and a one-way ticket costs just as much as a round trip ticket. Homeless people from elsewhere cannot afford to come here, unless someone sponsors them, and other states have done so. This is only a two-year pilot project. If we do not start it now, we will never know what we need to fix, to address these concerns.

"Yesterday, I called the Waikiki Health Center, because during Caucus, they were concernd about this program being misused. They gave me two examples, Mr. Speaker. The Honolulu Police phoned the Waikiki Health Center, and told them of a homeless heroin addict who wanted to go home to the Mainland. The Waikiki Health Center contacted his family, who said they would be happy to receive him, but didn't have the funds to pay for his ticket. He was a perfect candidate for the program.

"On the other hand, a couple came in, requesting tickets to go to Florida to be with her dying mother. They were turned down. The homeless advocates truly will screen to make sure that this program is used exclusively for actual homeless people.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I'm here to say that we will be remembered for this bill that we're passing tonight. This is a family reunification bill, a repatriation bill, and very compassionate act from this Chamber. I thank you for your support."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. As the Representative of the Chinatown area, I have taken a number of stances that people considered not to be very humane, but if you live there long enough, I think you'll understand why I have. But, I oppose this bill, mainly because I worry that once jurisdictions on the Mainland realize what we're doing, they're going to turn around and say, 'Well, if they're sending us their homeless, we'll do the same thing to them.' The problem with that scenario is that if California, just one state in the Union sent us 5% of their homeless, we'd be totally inundated, whereas we could send every single one of our homeless people in the whole State, and they probably wouldn't even notice the difference. So, I am very reluctant to get in a dumping-our-homeless-on-you situation. And, that's the main reason I don't support the bill. Mahalo."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Standing in opposition, brief comments. Mr. Speaker, I wasn't planning to speak, but I need to make several comments.

"I guess for several of us, we have different definitions of what 'compassionate' is. 'Compassionate' to me is not looking at a client, or an individual, based on a $35,000 to $40,000 price tag for services, versus a $300 to $500 ticket back to the mainland. 'Compassionate' or 'passion,' or whatever you want to call it, is the issue of understanding the person you're dealing with, and looking at options, and working with them. Sending people who are homeless, because they claim or may claim to have family on the Mainland is not an adequately, or appropriate way of treating our homeless.

"These people deserve dignity. They deserve our time. They deserve our respect to work with them.

"I heard the issue about family reunification. Mr. Speaker, family, and addressing the issue is, we have to look at what this State is called. We look around, Mr. Speaker, and we help our neighbors. We help those in need. We give our time. We call the State of Hawaii the 'Aloha State,' so, why don't we change our name? The Aloha State, that if you're homeless will send you away. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Rhoads and Yamane be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition with brief comments, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition for two reasons. First of all, this bill purports to use general fund moneys. As we know, we are looking at a $1.8 billion shortfall. This is not a priority at this time.

"Secondly, and quite frankly, Mr. Speaker, this is just bad policy. This is not something that should be put in a bill, and this is not good policy for the people of Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1187, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HOMELESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 38 ayes to 12 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Har, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Pine, Rhoads, Saiki, Thielen, Tokioka and Yamane voting no, and with Representative Takai being excused.

At 8:32 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Carroll, for the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 974) recommending that H.R. No. 61, be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 975) recommending that H.C.R. No. 75, be adopted.

Representative Carroll rose in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support."

Representative Sagum rose in support of both measures and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of both HR61and HCR 75: Requesting the United States Postal Service to Issue a Stamp honoring Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole.

"Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole was born in the Koloa district of Kauai on March 26, 1871. At the time of his death on January 7, 1922 he held various positions from Prince to Hawaii's delegate to Congress from 1903 to 1921. Among the outstanding achievements during his twenty years in Congress were:

1) The retention of the Kalaupapa Leper Settlement;

2) The creation of county governments with elected officials;

3) The development of Pearl Harbor and army installations on Oahu;

4) Funding for improvements of harbors at Honolulu, Hilo, Kahului and Nawiliwili;

5) The enactment of the Hawaiian Homestead Act;

6) The creation of the Kilauea volcano areas as Hawaii National Park; and

7) The Rehabilitation Act, better known as the Hawaiian Home Commission Act.

"Prince Kuhio was the last Hawaiian who by right of blood and designation could have claimed the crown of Hawaii.

"It would honor the memory of a great ali'i of Hawaii to have the United States Postal Service to issue a stamp honoring Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of both measures and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of H.R. 61 and H.C.R 75 - Requesting the United States Postal Service to Issue a Stamp Honoring Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole. I believe Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole deserves the merit of these Resolutions. If you look at this man's body of work you will see a man who served Hawaii without hesitation. Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole had many accomplishments throughout his life such as creating the Hawaiian Home Lands and being elected to Congress and serving on the Military Affairs Committee.

"In 1902 Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole founded the Republican Party in Hawaii and in doing so brought the principles and ideals of freedom and equality to the Hawaiian people. I cannot think of a better person to have carried the torch of Abraham Lincoln to Hawaii than Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support."

Representative Awana rose in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative McKelvey: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, on Saturday, Hawaii lost one of its own brave servicemen who was defending our freedom in Iraq. First Lieutenant Daniel Hyde, of Modesto, California, who was a graduate of West Point, was killed Saturday in Samar, Iraq, when a RPG, or rocket propelled grenade, slammed into his HMMWV, killing him.

"His sister eloquently described that basically he wouldn't sit by and let others do the job. He would do the job for them. He showed true leadership all the time, and especially in the most tragic moment of his life. He was a platoon leader in the 25th Infantry Division, 2nd Battalion, the 35th Infantry Regiment, and it was his first deployment since he graduated from West Point in 2007.

"First Lieutenant Daniel Hyde was 24 years old and was stationed at Schofield Barracks. I'd like to ask, Mr. Speaker, if we could observe a moment of silence for Lieutenant Daniel Hyde when appropriate. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto: "Mr. Speaker, it's my understanding from reading the newspaper, that former Representative Ted Mina passed away, and he served in the Legislature many decades ago. I wonder whether we could also have a moment of silence at the same time for him."

Representative M. Lee: "Yes, I'd just like to announce that the Finance Committee will be holding a hearing tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Room 308 to hear the State budget, OHA and Judiciary budgets. Thank you."

At this time, the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late Lt. Daniel Hyde and former Representative Ted Mina.

At 8:37 o'clock p.m. on motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 12:00 o'clock noon Thursday, March 12, 2009. (Representative Takai was excused.)

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering a certain House bill for Third Reading by consent calendar. (Representatives Takai, Wakai and Wooley were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.B. No. 1175, HD 3:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 1175, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of House Bill 1175, House Draft 3. Mr. Speaker, just a couple of points. This was a short form bill, introduced on behalf and at the request of Governor Linda Lingle. The bill, as proposed would raise the cigarette tax from 10 cents per cigarette, to 14 cents per cigarette. This is a tobacco tax increase.

"The bill as amended would raise the cigarette tax from 10 cents per cigarette, to 20 cents per cigarette. As originally proposed from the Governor's Office, the bill would generate for fiscal year 2010, $42 million in additional tax revenue. In fiscal year 2011, $25.1 million in additional tax revenue. In fiscal year 2012, $14.4 million in additional tax revenue.

"When we calculated the increase from 10 cents to 20 cents, for fiscal year 2010, it would generate an additional $80 million in tax revenue. Supportive testimony came in from two department heads, from Budget and Finance, and I think it's worth reading, and I quote, 'We support moving this bill forward to foster continued discussions during these difficult times, and considering the grave fiscal conditions we are facing, all options must be kept open. While it is recognized that this bill may be unpopular, we will need to make difficult decisions to address our budget shortfall and ensure the fiscal health of our State.' This is submitted by Director Georgina Kawamura, on March 2nd.

"We also did receive favorable testimony from the Department of Taxation. This measure is effective July 1, 2020. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm also rising to speak in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, I'm in strong support, both on the health side, and then for our children. I think that when we raise the price of cigarettes, we lessen the number of people that are going to be addicted to cigarettes. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, in support, Mr. Speaker. I would just like to thank the Finance Chair for reminding us that this is a tax increase on just cigarettes, because I definitely could not support any tax increases that would affect everyone, like increasing taxes on healthcare, and increasing the general excise tax, which would definitely hurt Hawaii's population. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to stand in support of this measure. Actually, I think we should be happy to support it, because it's a really important public health issue, and it's been shown, time after time that raising the tax on cigarettes decreases the amount of smoking. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1175, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

At 12:31 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1175, HD 3

At 12:31 o'clock p.m. Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:38 o'clock p.m.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 977) recommending that S.B. No. 823, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 823, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 978) recommending that S.B. No. 695, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 695, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with support, but with some reservations. This relates to workers' compensation. And my only reservation is from being on the Finance Committee, the Department of Labor estimated that to start this new program, it would cost almost half a million dollars, and then almost another half a million dollars in salary every year thereafter. So, I don't think it's time to start new programs right now."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting 'no' on this bill on Second Reading. It will provide continuous medical care to an employee. And, even if a doctor has already determined that further medical care is unnecessary, it will call for a hearing to take place in the Department of Labor. I think it really should be a doctor's determination whether a worker could go back to work or not.

"If the medical care is unnecessary, then it will needlessly raise the cost of workers' compensation insurance. So, that is the reason I am voting 'no.'"

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Now is the time that we want to maintain as many jobs as possible. Yesterday, or the day before, we just got a new report that it's 6.1 percent unemployment. Some of our Neighbor Island colleagues have 7, 8 percent, even higher than that.

"Anything that creates more straws on the camel, i.e. the unemployment camel, that causes businesses to release employees is not good policy. This is not the time for this, as my colleague said, it expands government. Now is the time to keep our people employed. And anything, any gesture that we send, or any bill that we pass that jeopardizes the employees of the State of Hawaii, is not good policy. And that's why I have serious reservations. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. Since I've been at the Legislature, so many times I've heard the terminology 'children first.' I really believe this bill is about 'worker first.' And I really encourage us to move this along for discussion, because if a worker has been hurt, and they're in pain and suffering, maybe a doctor believes they should go back to work. But the way we've set it up, is we've got our department, they have the ability to go in front of the hearing, and get a ruling. It gives an opportunity due justice to the worker to talk about their pain and suffering. I think it's a legitimate process, and I encourage us to vote it along. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. The countervailing argument is that workers who are injured and who have legitimate claims, and don't get continuous medical services are the ones who are most likely to cost the system more in the long run. If you have gaps in your medical coverage, that can be a very severe problem, depending on what your ailments are. So, I think this is an important step forward.

"In regards to the economic argument, it will help the economy, because it will keep doctors employed and medical providers, so I think that cuts both ways. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 695, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Finnegan and Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

Representatives McKelvey and Hanohano, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs and the Committee on Public Safety presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 979), recommending that H.R. No. 14, as amended in HD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.R. No. 14, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ADJUTANT GENERAL TO IDENTIFY THE LOCATION OF EVERY PUBLIC SAFE ROOM IN THE COUNTY OF HAWAII PROVIDING SUITABLE SHELTER FROM VOG AND DEVELOP PLANS TO ESTABLISH SUCH SAFE ROOMS IN ADDITIONAL AREAS THAT NEED THEM," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

Representatives McKelvey and Hanohano, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs and the Committee on Public Safety presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 980), recommending that H.C.R. No. 10, as amended in HD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 10, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ADJUTANT GENERAL TO IDENTIFY THE LOCATION OF EVERY PUBLIC SAFE ROOM IN THE COUNTY OF HAWAII PROVIDING SUITABLE SHELTER FROM VOG AND DEVELOP PLANS TO ESTABLISH SUCH SAFE ROOMS IN ADDITIONAL AREAS THAT NEED THEM," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs presented two reports:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 26 and H.C.R. No. 24, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor of these Resolutions in Stand. Com. Nos. 981 and 982. Although most of us, as legislators are familiar with the heroic exploits of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, the 100th Battalion and other military units, many young people in Hawaii have not heard about their story. On the mainland, even fewer know the story of these brave nissei. So, a postage stamp would convey their history throughout the entire country to all Americans, young and old. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measures, stating:

"Yes, thank you very much. I rise in support of both of these measures. Mr. Speaker, I echo the words of the Representative from Kaimuki, but as a former educator, I cannot tell you the deep impact that when people see what their great grandfathers or grandfathers have done, how this inspires them to be the best that they can be.

"The Go For Broke members, my district has had, traditionally, many people who are, many of them, unfortunately, have now passed, but still some that are members of the 442nd, and that Go For Broke courageous attitude of seize the day. All because they wanted to show that they too were Americans. This is so inspirational. The film, Go For Broke, if there are those of you who have not seen the black and white film, I recommend it wholeheartedly, and I've always been a supporter of the Go For Broke.

"So, thank you very much for introducing this, the Representative of Kalihi."

Representative Karamatsu rose to speak in support of the measures, stating:

"In support. My uncle was in the 526th Artillery, attached to the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and I also have friends, both in the 442nd and the 100th Battalion. So, I would like to also insert written comments in support of both Resolutions. Thank you very much."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Resolution 26 and House Concurrent Resolution 24, which urges the United States Postal Service to issue postal stamps honoring the World War II Japanese-American Nisei soldiers, other distinguished military units in United States history, and Americans who fought against discrimination based on race or national origin.

"I look up to the Nisei generation and how they faced discrimination. Many proved their loyalty by serving in the United States military. My uncle, Roy Okubo, served in the 522nd Artillery that was attached to the 442nd Regimental Combat Team. My political mentor, former State Senator Nadao “Najo” Yoshinaga, also served in the 442nd Regimental Combat Team. I have friends in the 100th Infantry Battalion, 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and the Military Intelligence Service. Words cannot describe my gratitude for the ultimate sacrifice they have done for future generations such as mine.

"In addition, I am inspired by the many individuals who were instrumental in enhancing race relations in the United States and who worked towards ending discrimination based on race or national origin. They too, played a key role in making our country a better place. This generation is considered by many, including me, as one of the greatest generations in the history of the United States. I am forever grateful for all they have done. It is because of them, I am inspired to continue my work to provide equality for all and bring peace to every individual in the world."

At 12:46 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:47 o'clock p.m.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Thank you very much. May I have the words of the Representative of Kaimuki entered in the record as if they were my own? And I just want to add a few brief comments, that this also applies to other units, and one such unit is the Tuskegee Airmen. I was very honored to meet one of the surviving members of the Tuskegee airmen at the Hilton Hawaiian Village the other day, and managed to share a few minutes with him. Their sacrifice can't be understated. So, again, in strong support. Thank you."

The motion was out to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 26, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE TO ISSUE POSTAL STAMPS HONORING THE WORLD WAR II JAPANESE-AMERICAN NISEI SOLDIERS, OTHER DISTINGUISHED MILITARY UNITS IN UNITED STATES HISTORY, AND AMERICAN'S WHO FOUGHT AGAINST DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE OR NATIONAL ORIGIN," was adopted, with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 24, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE TO ISSUE POSTAL STAMPS HONORING THE WORLD WAR II JAPANESE-AMERICAN NISEI SOLDIERS, OTHER DISTINGUISHED MILITARY UNITS IN UNITED STATES HISTORY, AND AMERICAN'S WHO FOUGHT AGAINST DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RACE OR NATIONAL ORIGIN," was adopted, with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Economic Revitalization, Business, & Military Affairs presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 983) recommending that H.R. No. 21, as amended in HD 1, be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 984) recommending that H.C.R. No. 19, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 21, HD 1, and H.C.R. No. 19, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

At this time, Representative McKelvey moved to amend H.R. No. 21, HD 1, to include the words "each member of Hawaii's Congressional delegation" after the clause "the Secretary of Defense," in the "be it further resolved" clause so that it is consistent with H.C.R. No. 19, HD 1, seconded by Representative Choy.

Floor Amendment No. 5:

"SECTION 1. House Resolution No. 21, House Draft 1, is amended by amending line 3 on page 2 to read:

"WHEREAS, upon hearing of Sgt. Peralta's bravery, in late 2004, U.S. Representative Bob Fliner wrote a letter to then Marine Corp Commandant Gen. Michael Hagee recommending Sgt. The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and Floor Amendment No. 5, amending H.R. No. 21, HD 1, was adopted with Representatives Luke, Takai, Wakai and Wooley being excused.

"And I believe that this may be Eric Nouchi's last time with us. He'll be moving on to bigger and brighter things I believe, with the Department of Education after this Session.

"I really want to thank all of you for helping us, and I ask the Members for a round of applause for the budget staff please.

"Mr. Speaker, I would also like to thank the members of the Finance Committee, and the respective Committee Chairs for all their input, suggestions and responses to requests from the Finance Committee budget analysts. Starting in December, the development of this budget has been guided by the invaluable input of the Committee Chairs and the Members of the Finance Committee.

"We have our veterans; those who are not freshmen: Representatives Awana, Brower, Har, Nishimoto, Pine, Sagum, Tokioka, Ward, and Yamashita.

"And of course, our fabulous freshmen: Representatives Aquino, Choy, Coffman, Keith-Agaran, Chris Lee, and Wooley.

"And last, but certainly not least, my own Vice Chair Marilyn Lee, who from time to time conducted the hearings, drove the agenda, and ruled with 'an iron fist, but velvet touch.' When members lost their way, she was quick to draw them into line and keep the process moving. She is my co-pilot, first mate, and exemplifies the adage that 'behind every good man is a very great woman.'

"To all of you, thank you for spending so much time and effort in constructing this difficult budget. You have certainly earned your seat on this important Committee. Think about it. We started meeting in late November with our initial overview of the financial plan, the 2008 Supplemental Budget, and you learned about the Council on Revenues and its significance. We worked on holidays, weekends, and held the longest Committee hearing in recent memory. You have demonstrated to your constituents and your colleagues that you take your Finance Committee assignments and responsibilities seriously.

"Please know that I appreciate that some of you had to cross over the aisle. That some of you had to distance yourself for awhile from your special interest friends. The briefings have been long, hearings extensive, and decision making complex and controversial. Your stamina and kind demeanor is one for the record books. As your Chair, I appreciate your sacrifice and statesmanship.

"You all have my heartfelt appreciation. Indeed, I am standing to speak today only because you have stood by me before today. I know this is not an easy budget, but I'm reminded of something our new President said at his inauguration:

> What the cynics fail to understand is that the ground has shifted beneath them – that the stale political arguments that have consumed us for so long no longer apply. The question we ask today is not whether our government is too big or too small, but whether it works – whether it helps families find jobs at a decent wage, care they can afford, a retirement that is dignified. Where the answer is yes, we intend to move forward. Where the answer is no, programs will end. Those of us who manage the public's dollars will be held to account – to spend wisely, reform bad habits, and do our business in the light of day – because only then can we restore the vital trust between a people and their government.

"Mr. Speaker, this budget cuts $235 million for fiscal year 2010, and $170 million for fiscal year 2011, over and above the budget submitted by the Governor back in December.

Representative Rhoads rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. Thus, these cuts to the budget are in addition to the Governor's proposed cuts of $208 million in fiscal year 2010, and $185 million in fiscal year 2011, of which we have adopted in part.

"Mr. Speaker, although I appreciate the Governor finally submitting an official financial plan to the Legislature on Tuesday, March 4, 2009, I was expecting a revised plan deserving of the courtesy we displayed. We gave the Governor almost 60 days from the Council on Revenue's January 9th projection of a minus three percent growth rate. The Governor's March 4, 2009 revised financial plan seemingly hinges upon 9 action items: 7 House Bills and 2 Budget items. What's of concern is a lack of detail for us to critically consider them. In a nutshell, much is speculation and blind assumption. The Committee Report before you details these concerns, so I won't repeat them here.

"Mr. Speaker, I am also disturbed by the Governor's sudden change of heart and her unilateral decision to end open discussions with the Legislature on fixing the budget shortfall. Equally so, her unilateral proclamation that there will not be any layoffs or raising of taxes. If I might, forget that the fact that I don't believe in 'pulling rabbits out of a hat,' or 'wishing upon an evening star,' or believing that I will find a 'pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.' Mr. Speaker, I honestly thought we had pledged to work together, that it would not be business as usual, that she would even 'walk across the aisle.' Mr. Speaker, it is as if the Governor that I was fast becoming friends with, who I referred to in my office as my 'BFF,' 'Best Friends Forever,' had returned from the cold and distant Nation's Capitol with a different mindset, a different political agenda, and somewhat wrapped up in national GOP politics.

"Honestly, what happened? What happened to all things being on the table? Wasn't the Governor the one to admit that even the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund was up for consideration? That although she despised gambling, it too needed to be considered. And even the fact that she moved off her prior position of using or raiding non-general funds. The Governor even proposed the initiative, and asked me to submit the bill for her, to raise taxes for transportation needs and highway improvements. She also asked me to float a bill to raise sin taxes on cigarettes. I thought it was premature at best, not having seen the details of our budget reductions, to pass judgment and summarily discard all options. It appears suspicious, especially before the Council on Revenues issued its revised projections last week.

"Mr. Speaker, it brings me no pleasure to make these recommendations, and we may not be able to avoid laying off employees of State government. I have wrestled with this for many weeks and it has bothered me deeply. But we can make sure that those who may be affected, have the essential support services and options to help them.

"So let me make this public promise: that it is my intention to consider all reasonable options that may allow us to reconsider, yes reconsider, the decisions we make in this draft today. Indeed, I would rather be in gross error and find my assumptions ridiculed and mocked, than have anyone lose their job. I would rather be adjudged and found disloyal, than have it be said that I put political expediency over people or policy and indulged fantasy over facts."

Representative Brower rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. Likewise Mr. Speaker, it brings your Finance Committee no joy to make these recommendations. But in times such as these, it can bring opportunity. Opportunity to re-examine functions of government and simply ask some key questions: Does this make sense? Why are we doing it this way? Should government be doing this? Or should this be left to the non-profit or private sector?

"We took a different tack this year, Mr. Speaker. Early on, the Chair of the Ways and Means Committee and Vice Chair, along with Vice Chair Lee, met with the directors in private meetings. We did so privately so we could be frank and candid with each other in what we were facing. It was a useful meeting because there, we discussed some of the issues and problems they had with the legislative process. Even Georgina Kawamura, the Budget and Finance Director, acknowledged the value of having that meeting and encouraged, even cautioned all department heads to play close attention to the requests coming in from the Committees on Ways and Means, and Finance. It is my belief that she understood and appreciated the shift in the approach to the budget by this Legislature.

"Mr. Speaker, your Committee understands that what we asked the departments to do was difficult. Change usually is. Habits are hard to break. But that's the burden of leadership we all carry and must rise to. And while I realize that we are ultimately the policy-making body, our policies need to be tempered by practicality of work place norms and customs. This requires the cooperation and consultation of those who administer the programs and serve the public: the managers, the supervisors, the department directors, and especially the line agents. Top to bottom. Bottom to top.

"Mr. Speaker, for the most part, the directors were responsive and appreciative of our requests. May I highlight just one individual in particular, and that is the Director of Land and Natural Resources, Laura Thielen, who personally agonized over her task and responsibility to prioritize the functions of the department she leads. The decisions she made were not easy, nor free of criticism, but she made them. She even stayed with your Committee until 5:00 a.m., in the morning, to be available and participate in the hearing process.

"A few directors were not so diligent, responsive or available. It serves no purpose to dwell on that at this time, but the public record and the members of the Finance Committee know who I am talking about. They know who was available and ready to serve, when we had to make those difficult choices

"Mr. Speaker, paradigm shifts are rarely easy or stress free. One example: We posed the fundamental question to the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism and the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs – What's the difference between a department dedicated to business and a department dedicated to commerce? Aren't they one and the same?

"Those in the system will claim that the goal of the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism is to ensure support for commerce in the State. And those in the system at the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs will say it serves a business regulatory role. Does this have to be mutually exclusive? I don't think so. If businesses are being charged a fee to be regulated and registered, shouldn't they be supported as well?

"The Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism also seems to be the repository of stray entities or functions; the place for half a dozen 'foster children' who might otherwise have no home. In other words, they are administratively attached. The Statewide Land Use Management, the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawaii Authority, the High Technology Development Corporation, the Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation, the Hawaii Tourism Authority, the Foreign Trade Zone.

"This draft proposes the following: transferring Statewide Land Use Management to the Department of the Land and Natural Resources; NELHA to the University of Hawaii …"

Representative Mizuno rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you. The Foreign Trade Zone to the Department of Transportation; and the High Tech Development Corporation to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs.

"Mr. Speaker, locally and nationally, one issue seems to be gathering momentum. One issue seems to be the key to our economic and political future as a nation: energy. Perhaps it's time to elevate this to a fully fledged department of its own. Perhaps it's time for the State to have a Department of Energy and High Technology.

"In order to secure a future of energy independence, renewable technology and the research and science that go with it need to be nurtured and supported. Perhaps it's time to revisit the goals and functions embodied in NELHA, the High Tech Development Corporation, and the Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation. Perhaps these currently independent entities with their individual governance structures need to be working more closely to share in developments and progress.

"Although the answers to these questions may not come, and the issues may not be settled before we conclude the 2009 Session, we set the discussion in play for further consideration. This is more than a fiscal decision, but one that involves a multitude of disciplines and crosses over and between many relevant divisions and agencies.

"In closing, let me reflect upon some observations. During this process, especially in the last couple of weeks, there have been those seeking to pit public employees against the public they serve, taxpayers against taxpayers, public verses private, or to pit the House against the Senate. For those deploying these unfruitful tactics seeking to conquer and divide this community, forestall honest and open dialogue, and resort to worn out clichés and partisan rhetoric, I plead to you, stop. Enough is enough.

"It is time for our community to put away these childish ways. This is the time for us to come together, to put aside our petty political differences and our personal political agendas, and join together with our better selves to help carry the load. We who love Hawaii and call her home are in the midst of a global economic crisis not unlike, but probably more severe than the terrorist acts of September 11, 2001. As then, so as today, we must come together.

"The financial crisis we face is real. I will not sugar coat it, nor dumb down the reality of what we face. To do so would be political malpractice. I am not saying that the 'end of the world' is at hand, nor the 'sky is falling.' But, anyone who suggests that we weather this storm as we have done in the past, or that the status quo holds the cure, needs to be shaken from their sleep and brought back to life. This is not the time for slogans like, 'We can have it all,' or 'Don't worry, be happy.'

"Mr. Speaker, I am once again reminded of the words of our native son; a son of Hawaii who is now the new President of the United States:

Our challenges may be new. The instruments with which we meet them may be new. But those values upon which our success depends — hard work and honesty, courage and fair play, tolerance and curiosity, loyalty and patriotism — these things are old. These things are true. They have been the quiet force of progress throughout our history. What is demanded then is a return to these truths.

What is required of us now is a new era of responsibility — a recognition, on the part of every American, that we have duties to ourselves, our nation, and the world, duties that we do not grudgingly accept but rather seize gladly, firm in the knowledge that there is nothing so satisfying to the spirit, so defining of our character, than giving our all to a difficult task.

This is the price and the promise of citizenship.

"Mr. Speaker, your Committee on Finance has accepted its responsibility to craft a budget constrained by the fiscal realities thrust upon us. We have not taken the easy route, but embarked upon a new path for others to follow. The journey thus far has not been easy, but we have carried each other and we have left no one behind. We have worked hard, honestly, courageously – and with unbowed loyalty to our constituents, our communities and to the people of Hawaii whom we serve. We have given our all, without complaint or strife, and manifested our collective will to this most difficult task, and we have memorialized the same in the attached Committee Report.

"Mr. Speaker, last week we had to make numerous difficult and unpopular decisions. Our work is not done. We will face equally challenging options and decisions in the coming days, weeks and months. But we will succeed. We shall overcome. And this too shall pass. And, that is the Good News that I promised you, and leave with you this day. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Thank you. Before I give the three reasons why I am in opposition, I want to thank the Chair of Finance for the 'Good News.' The sweet coating that you gave here was probably less so than in your remarks. Although I am pleased to have yielded to you. It was very conscientious of you, very gracious remarks, but very grave remarks. It has been a pleasure serving with you, and thank you for the extraordinary effort that was taken to balance this budget.

"Also Mr. Speaker, I want to thank some of the best and brightest minds in this office – the staff. I'm not sure which one of you is the 'Zookeeper,' but you have done a good job of keeping us together and I know some of the names I was called might fit into that analogy.

"Having said that Mr. Speaker, I want to paint my remarks in a larger context. The backdrop of my concerns are as follows. First, this budget doesn't fit within the national economy and the efforts that are going forward to keep the United States and the world, if you will, from further decay. The world, the nation, and our State is suffering its worst credit crisis since the 1930s, and this budget will not help that situation. Let me give you a quote from Federal Reserve Chairman, Ben Bernanke. He said, 'The United States has avoided the risk of plunging into a depression.' This is really good news. We can strike the word 'meltdown' from our vocabulary in this Body. It's taking away the fear factor of a financial free fall.

"But secondly he said, 'There's no lack of money in the world. Just a lack of confidence.' Very profound words that hark back to what FDR told us, 'the lack of confidence, not of money and its supply.' I'm afraid that this budget is not a confidence builder, and that's what this Body needs to be, a confidence builder.

"Bernanke went on to say that, people and institutions with money, private investors that is, sitting now on the sidelines rather than being in the game, he said they were the key to the turnaround. Private money is fearful and holding on to their money. Key players have called time out. Mr. Speaker, that's the kind of confidence we need to get. For those who are calling time out, those who do have the funds to invest, they need to get back on the field.

"And finally, Bernanke was asked, 'What would be a clear sign that we've come out of this?' He said private investors putting their capital into our banking system. That is buying stocks in the banks. When that happens, we will be totally out of the woods, giving confidence to businesses and investors so they will do that. Mr. Speaker, I submit that this budget does not push that confidence to the businesses. It does not push that confidence to the investors. And let me outline the three reasons why that is the case.

"Firstly, this budget raises taxes. That's strike one against anybody taking money out of their pocket to invest. Over 30 percent of the budget gap is based on new taxes in this budget, and it balances the State budget on the backs of the people of Hawaii. I should add that it's a double burden for those on the Neighbor Islands because they have the TAT tax, the $100 million that's going to be transferred from them to Oahu. So it's a double burden for them.

"We are often told that one of the cardinal rules of hard economic times is not to burden consumers so that liquidity in the economy can be maintained. Interestingly, President Obama is contemplating a middle-class tax cut. Not tax increase, as we are proposing here. Burdening the people of Hawaii with new taxes is not the policy to follow …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. This bill is not about a tax increase. It's about the budget. We passed the tax increases last week. Thank you."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"The budget is the budget, Mr. Speaker. The same way you'd say that the State economy is not really talked about in terms of the national economy. The national economy is the same as the State economy. I'll try to keep the nexus very clear.

"The tax increases that this budget is premised upon balancing, and particularly one tax that we should not even mention …"

Representative M. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Again, I think it was raised earlier by the Majority Leader, but this is not a bill dealing with taxation. This is the State Budget bill."

Representative Finnegan rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. I believe in order to speak about the budget, you have to talk about revenues, as well as expenditures. That's how we look at balancing the budget. I think it's very within the purpose of the Representative speaking currently to speak about tax increases."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Ward, could you …"

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I won't say anything else about taxes. I'll just show a visual aide, if that's sufficient. I won't say anything else about taxes."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Ward, could you please proceed and confine your remarks to the contents of the House bill that we have before us."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, my point is that this Body needs to be mindful that consumer spending, keeping money in the pockets of the consumer is how our economy is going to recover.

"Seventy percent of our economy is spending; 15 percent is investment; 15 percent is government spending. But right now, between President Obama and Governor Lingle, 85 percent of the job, if you will, the drudgery of getting this economy kick-started, is in government's court. The point and the key to our recovery is getting that other part of the economy moving. That's why this budget is detrimental to that.

"If the budget is going to be balanced by raising taxes, it's equivalent to a man who is drowning and throwing water on him. That's what this budget will do for some."

Representative Marumoto rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. That was number one: tax increases. Number two, the reason why I can't vote for this budget is because it's putting people out of work. This is strike two against our economic recovery. These layoffs that are in the budget are premature and unnecessary. 374 people from the Department of Health and the Department of Human Services will be on the street within a matter of months. This is the body that usually cares very deeply for the weakest among us. Yet 70 percent of the warm body cuts are for the Department of Health. And those cuts in the Department of Human Services are for eligibility officers, those who actually sign up people to get benefits so we can take care of the weakest and most vulnerable.

"Some will say that these are redundant programs, but I submit that you ask those who are going to be on the streets on July 1 if they agree with you. The problem is that we are only half way through the budget process and I believe we have prematurely cut out the livelihood of about 400 people without consideration of other options of which Mr. Speaker, I would submit, we have millions of dollars still on the table. We have plenty of different options before we go to warm bodies.

"Governor Lingle has said, and I reiterate, 'I remain committed to balancing the budget without raising taxes or laying off employees. Either of these actions would further weaken our economy.' Mr. Speaker, we must think of the big picture. We must balance the budget, but we have to think about what's beyond next year and the year after. What's going on in the nation. What's going on in the world. Weakening the economy with taxes and layoffs is not the answer.

"Mr. Speaker, my exact sentiment is, I just quoted from the Governor; until we find that we absolutely cannot balance the budget, then and only then do we consider raising taxes or laying off people. The wise Chair of Finance, he may be correct, but not now. Wait until you see everything analytically and diagnostically, with precision, systemization and orderliness, and then we arrive at those things. But not now, prematurely.

"And now to my final and third reason for opposing this budget. I oppose this budget because of inaccurate and unfair statements that it makes which will jeopardize, possibly, federal funding for some of our very important renewable energy programs. This is strike three against economic recovery.

"For example, why does this budget decimate 90 percent of the programs of DBEDT? Why so many of it's programs are transferred out of the Department? Why does this budget cut the salary of the Director of Human Services, Lillian Koller, who by her own initiative and entrepreneurship literally brought in hundreds of millions of dollars, $175 million of federal funds which heretofore were not in the budget. Why is her salary cut out? Why is her position cut out? Is there anything vindictive implied by that? What's really going on here?

"But perhaps the unkindest cut of all, or perhaps the lack of professionalism present in this budget is in the statement of the Committee Report, suggesting that the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative, which is one of the best in the nation, is either a failure or has no measures of success for a strategic plan. This statement is not only untrue, but could jeopardize federal funds and millions of dollars in grants-in-aid that the Department is seeking. If Washington or the Congress get a hold of this, and they say that there is no confidence in the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative, why did we go there last year, the Department of Energy, and point out that Hawaii is one of the best models? Hawaii has one of the best potentials for being a national, if not international model. This budget will jeopardize those funds.

"Let us all remember that it is this same clean energy program that the US Department of Energy chose last year as the one most likely to succeed in the nation.

"Therefore in summary Mr. Speaker, this budget raises taxes, cuts warm bodies, contains inaccurate analysis of the Executive programs, and to me this constitutes three strikes and the impairment of Hawaii's economic recovery. For the foregoing reasons, I'm voting no on this budget. Thank you, very much."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I be permitted to possibly look around the room occasionally to thank certain people? Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.B. No. 200. It is a quiet assumption that when you vote against a bill in this Chamber, that you are not supporting the Chair of that particular Committee who made the final decision. Mr. Speaker, I am voting against the budget for no such reason. In fact Mr. Speaker, I am voting against this budget because I wholeheartedly support the Chair and the Finance members, the staff, and you Mr. Speaker.

"This weekend, I just couldn't sleep. And that often happens when my gut feels that something is terribly wrong. I was reminded of one of my favorite quotes. 'A leader takes people where they want to go. A great leader takes people where they don't necessarily want to go, but where they ought to be.'

"I am voting against this budget because we failed to follow you, Mr. Speaker, to where we needed to go to solve this crisis, and today I will stand with you. Mr. Speaker, we killed all your labor-related ideas that could have been included in the budget, and would have prevented us from raising taxes and firing good people. Even ideas that asked the employees to sacrifice as little as $14 per month, but would have saved the State $30 million was killed in Committee, leaving the Finance Chair and staff very little wiggle room to close the budget gap.

"If employees and legislators donated one day a month toward working without pay, the State could save almost $100 million, Mr. Speaker. This is also off the table today. Mr. Speaker, I believe that it was not the intention of Members to reject your solutions entirely. Decisions were made in the Labor Committee based on not being given the whole picture of the crisis that we are in. To quote my friend from across the aisle, maybe the lack of information had all of our heads in the sand about the realities we are faced with.

"Sitting on the Finance Committee, the crisis became very real. Mr. Speaker, Chair Oshiro, my fellow members of the Finance Committee, and to the Finance staff, I have been deeply honored to serve with you. You are some of the hardest working people I have ever met, and I know that you did everything in your power to find a balanced budget based on what you were given. Thank you, for all that you have done.

"With the Council on Revenues last week projecting another huge shortfall, our new total that we must find is almost a billion dollars. This is a staggering shortfall of projected revenues for such a small state. This is the largest budget shortfall in Hawaii's history. Today the budget before us is now obsolete, and so we must be bold and bring back solutions that were previously off the table.

"Mr. Speaker, we have almost 100,000 residents in the State of Hawaii who have been blessed by the taxpayers to either have pay raises almost every year, superior benefit packages, or a steady retirement income. These generous benefits make up over 60 percent of the budget you see here before you today. This is one of the highest ratios in the nation. State employees are in a unique position to help save Hawaii from our economic crisis. Just a little sharing of resources by State workers can go a long way to ease the overwhelming burden that Hawaii families are feeling and will feel when this Legislature concludes in May.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe union members too, did not know the full extent of the crisis that we were in when they came to the Capitol to fight against any bill that touched their benefits. I also believe that these very same members would rather give a little than to see their friends lose their jobs and taxes increase on the people of Hawaii."

Representative Ching rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, we must be bold. We must revive some of the labor ideas to the Floor that were killed in Labor Committee to help share the burden. Yes, this may be leading us to where we may not want to go, but it is exactly where we need to be to prevent a total shut down of State government and tax increases that will cripple our economy for many years to come. Political will and union support could help revive these ideas. Just passing the buck to the Governor to negotiate with the unions ensures that only she has to make the difficult choices.

"Now Mr. Speaker, I love football. And being that I am Catholic and part Irish, I just love Notre Dame. Their famous football coach, Lou Holtz said something that we can all live by today. To solve big problems you have to be willing to do unpopular things. That is what the Finance Committee did. We were asked by Leadership to put everything on the table. Tax increases were proposed. Government spending was cut. Over 300 of our friends in State government will no longer have jobs. The Finance Committee even cut worthy programs. We cut the Disability and Communication Access Board which my good friend and my first campaign manager is a member of. That was the hardest cut of all for me. He is a disabled veteran from Vietnam, just a few votes shy of being awarded the Medal of Honor for his heroism. I'm sure many of you have seen him riding around in his electric wheelchair, so happy to be a voice for so many of the disabled.

"The Finance staff, with a heavy heart, recommended the cut because it duplicated other programs already in existence. And with a heavy heart, I too voted for this cut. And to my friend Mark who is out there, I hope one day you will forgive me for the tough decision that I had to make. I am very sorry.

"We all need to share in these tough decisions, even if it means that we have to go to our biggest supporters who got us here, and tell them, 'My friend, this year I cannot help you. Instead I need you to just this once, just give a little to help all the people of Hawaii.'

"Yes Mr. Speaker, this is an extraordinary time that requires brave leadership. And maybe we're all here today for this very moment in time, to show the people of Hawaii that we are willing to do whatever it takes to help them. And we are even willing to sacrifice our own political careers to do what is right.

"On page nine of our Finance Committee Report, it says, 'During times of financial crisis, the burden of sacrifice must be shared by all.' In this spirit then Mr. Speaker, let's really do this. And let's really do this beginning today."

The Chair then announced:

"Members, on this measure we've had a long discussion. We had two Members from the Minority and one from the Majority. I will be asking for one more speaker, Representative Marilyn Lee. If you want to insert comments into the Journal, you may stand up to insert your comments whether you are for or against the bill."

At 1:22 o'clock p.m. Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:26 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then addressed the Body, stating:

"Members, before we start, what we will do is Representative Marilyn Lee will be the last person from the Majority to speak. We will have one more speaker from the Minority, Representative Finnegan …"

Representative Souki rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. I also wish to speak, and I'm sure there are others who wish to speak."

At 1:26 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:28 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then addressed the Body, stating:

"Prior to the recess, I mentioned that Representative Marilyn Lee would be the last from the Majority, and Representative Finnegan for the Minority. There was a request from another member to speak. I will ask the Members who want to speak, to speak."

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the measure, and I promise not to speak too long. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. Recently the National Conference of State Legislatures reported fiscal year 2009 stands out as the year to remember, though one not likely to be looked on fondly by state legislatures. Lawmakers were aware of the slowing economy when drafting their fiscal year 2009 budget, but none could have foreseen the magnitude that has stricken state finances.

"In February, NCSL forecasted the largest fiscal year 2010 double digit gaps would be in Nevada, Arizona, New York, California, Louisiana, Washington and Hawaii. The most recent projections from the Council on Revenues confirm the fear that weaker tax collections and other receipts have made the fiscal situation in Hawaii even more tenuous. It is unfortunate that the Governor has chosen to include over $200 million in unrealistic revenue assumptions in her financial plan.

"The budget you see before you is the result of weeks of briefings, hearings, meetings, study and consultation by the Chair, the members of the Finance Committee and the Finance staff. Sincere efforts were also made to conduct open discussion with the Administration. Much credit should be given to all the participants in the process. The Finance staff who you see in the gallery, working 24-7, always with a smile on their face. The Chair who has put his heart and soul into the process and works harder than anybody. And the members who never complained about giving up weekends, staying until the wee hours of the morning, or waiting patiently for the decision making to come.

"Some may see the budget as 'draconian.' In essence it is a reflection of the uncertainty of the times and a reminder that each and every one of us will have to help our State recover and move forward. This means taxpayers, businesses and public employees will all have to be a part of the solution.

"The Honolulu Star-Bulletin opined in a recent editorial, cooperative effort is needed to spread the budget pain evenly. In contrast, the Advertiser has reminded us yesterday that ultimately the budgeting challenge is not to spread around the fiscal pain in an even layer, but to insulate as much as possible, those areas in health, education and social services that are most in demand, core, and most vulnerable during this economic distress. Mr. Speaker, these decisions are not easy, and the Committee has agonized over how to stretch the revenues which have become increasingly limited.

"Economist Jared Diamond has written about how nations respond to economic crises in his book, Collapse. Diamond is cautiously optimistic about the ability of the US economy to rebound, but lays out fundamentals that need to be addressed: attitudes towards foreign governments; environmental issues; and last, but most importantly, resistance to basic change.

"He further states that when decision makers themselves are affected, they will be motivated to make good choices. Mr. Speaker, each and every one of us here today will be affected by the decisions we make this year. The bill before us is not perfect, but is a strong beginning grounded in reality. I urge the Members' support. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. First of all, I would like to recognize the people of the House Minority Staff in our research office, because not only do they cover the budget for us, but they also cover all of the other Committees as we have had some cut backs within our own office. I'd like to mention their names because without them, we wouldn't be able to do what we do. Boyd Akase, our Director; Nadine Nishioka, Candace Kelsey, James Delavan, Michele Van Hessen, Claire Draper, Kelsey Wells, Brett Huelsman, and Nancy Cook Lauer. They have really done a great job of trying to help us through this very difficult time.

"I'd also like to echo the words of many who have been saying that our Chair of Finance has done an excellent job. I know that you can see it in his eyes; he's tired, but he's still working very hard for the people of Hawaii. He is almost at times, unfairly shouldering the burden for a lot of us in regards to this decision making process.

"One comment that I would make however, is in regards to the personal, political agendas. You see Mr. Speaker, we come from two different Parties, and we have two different ways of looking at things. I don't think that this is political politics or personal agendas. What this is, is a contrast in beliefs, and at times I think it is appropriate for us to talk about the contrast in beliefs. Far too often we talk about how this is a political personal agenda, but what it is, it's a difference in opinion.

"Mr. Speaker, I hear from the people outside of this Capitol everyday. My mother-in-law, who was let go last year, still has not been able to find a job in the private sector. She was a private sector employee. My sister who was an Aloha Airlines employee continues to not have a job. These people on the outside are saying, on top of these types of cutbacks and layoffs, that you are going to look at increasing our costs through higher taxes. That's what we're saying here, Mr. Speaker. And if we are going to look at all options and try to share the burden, that we need to look at government spending, and that means sharing the burden so we can try to prevent layoffs, or avoid other layoffs.

"In hard economic times, Mr. Speaker, we need people to have jobs. How do we avoid layoffs? We avoid layoffs by having State government employees share in that burden so that the person next to them doesn't have to go without a job. And that's what we're asking for us to take a look at.

"What are some of the other problems with layoffs, Mr. Speaker? It's the terms, 'bumping' and 'red circling.' 'Bumping' says that if you're at a higher paid level, that you can bump somebody lower, at a lower paid level. What does that mean? They keep their job and the other person doesn't keep their job. They also bring with them their higher salary. So what does that mean? They bring with them their higher salary, therefore, the job that they may be getting paid for is not necessarily the most effective use of our tax dollars. So you might be having somebody who's making $70,000, they take their ability to bump someone off who's making $40,000. You're still paying someone $70,000 for a $40,000 position. You can do that from department to department, so it might mean a disruption in services. Governor Cayetano, our former Governor said that when this happened, when there was an impasse, that that is what took place. And the savings that we talked about, that we are balancing the budget with, was never realized. It never materialized.

"So what I'm saying here is logically, this is not the way to do it. In a time, if you want to talk about being courageous, let's talk about being courageous. Courageous would be taking programs that don't work, and in a time when the economy is good, then you do those deep cuts so they can find a job in the private sector when the economy is good. That's courageous.

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to talk about one other thing, and that's my passion for public school education. There's a statement here about Charter Schools. It talks about how, in all of the budget, the Charter Schools submitted an increase in spending. The increase in spending that they submitted had to do with …"

Representative Thielen rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. What took place is over the years, we've said it before. When it comes to Charter Schools, public Charter Schools, the funding mechanism, the fact that they don't have money for facilities and they're using that per pupil amount that they receive for their kids, they're using that amount for facilities and other things. There's also a report that has just come in and I'm not exactly sure what it says, but it talks about the possibility of Charter Schools not receiving an equitable share of federal funding as well.

"So they are already not at a level playing field. And, for the 2008-2009 school year, the Charter Schools already took an 8.8 reduction, I believe, before anybody else started taking reductions. On top of that, for 2009-2010, they'll be taking a 17 percent across the board cut. So that is why I disagree with this statement made in here. The way we fund Charters is different, and by making this statement, it makes me understand that maybe the people that see these numbers don't understand how Charter Schools get funded.

"So Mr. Speaker, for all of those reasons, I stand in opposition. Thank you, very much."

"Yes Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I wish to speak for the measure with one or two reservations. First of all, I want to compliment the Chairman, the Committee and the staff for doing a wonderful job in balancing the budget. It's no easy task. Mr. Chair and Vice Chair, your dedication has shown. But even as dedicated as the Chair and Vice Chair are, I question one item. I hope Mr. Chair, that as this moves along, you will look at it. This is the stripping of the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism. It's a reorganization of sorts, and maybe long overdue. But the manner in which it was done boarders on cavalier. Something like this, as great of a change that it is, I believe it requires a statutory change. I believe it requires a hearing so that people can voice their opinions, and not be settled in one Committee. As powerful as the Finance Committee is, I don't think it should be the determinant as to whether an agency can continue in its way, or if a change is necessary.

"I have served in that Committee, Mr. Chairman and Members, so I know the responsibilities, the heavy responsibilities and duties of the Committee. I have shared the long hours also. I know what that is. I know you get tired and you need to make tough choices. But Mr. Chairman and Members, as you go along, re-look at that with the Committee. It might be a constitutional problem. I don't know. It certainly is a statutory problem.

"As far as the staffing is concerned, an argument has been brought up. I know there are cuts that need to be made. But whether the timing is right, it may not be. Again, I ask of you, as you move along, and you revisit those cuts on labor again. Cuts will have to be made, but the question is, how. And what is the best way? Are furloughs the best way? Should we cut on a straight line? Or on the particular positions? All these things need to be looked at, and I'm sure they will be in the end if you need to balance the budget.

"I'm not opposed to tax increases. I've never been. If it's necessary so we can continue to provide for the people of Hawaii a quality of life that they have had in the past, then we must continue give them that. It's our duty. We should not be afraid and not shirk from that. Mr. Chairman, you have never been afraid of that and I congratulate you for that. But I wish you would take to heart some of the points that I have made. And hopefully, as you work with the Senate, we can resolve this. Thank you Mr. Chairman, and Members."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to rise and speak with reservations. I note that this budget cuts out several warm bodies. But because of our bumping provisions, cuts I believe are an unworkable method to save money. I believe that furloughs are easier to take than drastic layoffs. I rise simply to suggest that we consider furloughs, but also provide assurances to our government employees that a furlough not be considered a break in service. I think we might need some legislation to protect against this. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm standing in support. I don't have any planned rhetoric. I wasn't planning to speak, however, I feel compelled to speak with the comments that were made since 298 of the positions talked about on this Floor come from the Department of Health. That means 298 field positions out of 374 projected in this budget involve people under the purview of the Department of Health.

"I stand in strong support and I commend the Chair. I have had many sleepless nights on this matter, Mr. Speaker. It bothers me deeply. All I can say is Mr. Speaker, I respect the Chair for taking my recommendations for these employees being laid off. He looked at the members and he looked at the positions. If you go through this, Mr. Speaker, 568 positions are administrative, 250 are managers, 94 are accountants, and 55 are planners. These are people with families and we don't take this very lightly.

"However Mr. Speaker, what upsets me most is, as Chair, I've been waiting here. I haven't seen a plan. I haven't seen anything from the Administration on how to deal with this certain crisis. As Chair, I remain open and looking for an option to prevent these layoffs. We talked about furloughs on this Floor, but I haven't seen it. Where is it, Mr. Speaker? Where is the leadership and the plan to prevent these cuts from happening? As Chair I've been waiting patiently. I've asked this Administration. I've asked the budget people to please sit with us, privately or openly, to address these concerns. So if people on the Floor of this House want to talk about people losing their jobs and affecting their families, then you know what? There's some people out there who need to wake up and come down and start working as a team. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just wanted to make two quick points. One is, when we heard all the so-called, 'take back' bills in the Labor Committee where we considered reducing benefits for government employees, the Republican on the Committee voted with the Majority on every single vote. I think, obviously, from that Member's perspective, the arguments that were made were as convincing to that person as they were to the Majority Democrats.

"Secondly, for people to say that government workers aren't going to take any pain in this recession is just ridiculous. They're still on the hook. Just because we decided not to go back on the deal with them, that you would have lower wages and better benefits in the long run, that doesn't mean that people aren't going to be laid off. Whatever the Governor is saying right now, I think she's being extremely unrealistic if she really believes that there aren't going to be any layoffs. Mahalo."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support with just a short comment. I actually wrote something out. I rarely do this. You know, whenever the budget comes up for Third Reading, I've always said the same thing and I'll say it again today. The budget is not just an accumulation of numbers and figures. It really represents a moral document because it reflects who we are and where we want to go in terms of our values and priorities. What do I mean by this?

"Back in December, the Governor announced that she would float out $1.86 billion in bonds to fund the 1521 projects that we have already on the books. That kind of makes sense because governments do this all the time. The current Administration is no different; you fund infrastructure. There's a new term that I learned in the federal budget. It's called, 'shovel-ready.' But I think when we talk about shovel-ready projects, we also have to discern if these projects are shovel worthy. Let me give you one example.

"One of the projects in that 1521 is refurbishing the State Seal that hangs on both sides of the State Capitol. Now one would say that this is a project that can be done relatively quickly. It's shovel-ready, if you will. And I think the answer to that is, yes. But is it shovel worthy? I wonder.

"Furthermore Mr. Speaker, we need to strike the right balance between investing in infrastructure and investing in people. I will continue to assert that we need to do more in our investment particularly when it comes to education with preschool, K-12, and higher education. I'm really hopeful that by the time the Session ends, the budget we have truly reflects who we are as a collective body, what our values are, and what our priorities are. Of course, hard choices need to be made, but lets ensure that in our zeal to stimulate the economy in the short term, that we don't forget that we need to think in the long term as well. Ultimately that means investing in our best resources, and of course, that is our people.

"I have further comments I would like to submit to the Journal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi's written remarks are as follows:

"We need to be mindful that the measure before us is a work in progress and may very well be different when we end session in May.

"That said, we need to keep in mind a few sobering facts when we look at the budget of the Department of Education.

"The Governor's budget as submitted in December to the Legislature reduced the DOE's budget by $40 million or 15 percent of discretionary funds including one percent of non discretionary funds each fiscal year.

"Her budget included a reduction of 239.5 positions within the DOE and of these, 149 of these positions are currently filled including 73 teachers in the Office of Curriculum, Instruction and Student Support and in the Office of Human Resources.

"While any reduction in positions does not automatically mean that warm bodies will be affected, it is inaccurate as the Governor has stated that there will be no layoffs. Indeed, both her budget and the budget bill before us eliminates 671 positions including 374 filled positions.

"Furthermore, due to reduced mental health and other social service funding, the private sector such as Kahi Mohala and Easter Seals have laid off employees that were funded with state dollars.

"The DOE/BOE $40 million reduction in the Governor's budget was designed to preserve funds for classroom instruction, with no proposed reductions in the funds allocated to schools through the Weighted Student Formula. Most reductions were taken in administration and support services.

"However, not every program or support service to teachers was spared. The HD1 before us today reduces the DOE budget approximately another $30 million each fiscal year. This includes the reduction of another 6.5 positions and programs such as Hawaiian Studies and bonuses for teachers with national board certification. While there is hope that the federal stabilization funds may mitigate these reductions we know that further cuts to the DOE will be necessary with the recent Council on Revenue Projections.

"As we continue to craft a budget, let's be strategic. Even if some initiatives are counter-cyclical or have upfront costs, we will save at the back end. For example, it makes sense to focus on energy efficiency and pre-school education despite the funds that need to be spent now."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure and have just some brief comments. Thank you.

"I do have some concerns about the misperception of the Legislature's lack of support for the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative. I agree with the editorial in this morning's Honolulu Advertiser that DBEDT's energy efforts must be scrutinized to ensure that the division is spending its allocated resources wisely. I agree that it is the Legislature's responsibility to hold the Administration accountable.

"I can agree that we want an understandable strategic plan of action from the Administration with measurable achievements for the Energy Division as we expect from other departments. But this should not be interpreted as a lack of support from the Legislature. I'd like to remind the Members that the bedrock for the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative is due to many legislative actions that we have taken over the past decade in setting up policies like net metering, renewable portfolio standards, pay as you save, the solar water heating mandate, to make us the ideal location for the deployment of renewable energy and energy efficiency.

"So, as we move forward, I want to emphasize that we should not lose sight of what we are trying to accomplish, and I hope the final budget and the Committee Report will embrace a more defined picture of the Hawaii Clean Energy Initiative and any implementation actions by the Administration. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.B. 200, H.D. 1.

"In light of the economic downturn both statewide and nationwide, your Committee has remained mindful of the need to stimulate our local economy through Capital Improvement Projects (CIP) while maintaining an affordable level of debt service so as to not detrimentally affect future funding for not only CIP, but programs and services as well.

"In addition to this, your Committee has also taken into account and considered the following criteria: projects that are most "shovel ready", projects with the most potential for vast and diverse job creation, projects that address Health, Safety and Compliance needs, department requests that went unfunded in the original Executive submission, and projects with potential for funding through the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

"This year, the Administration requested a total of $955,155,000 in G.O. and general G.O. Reimbursable bond-funded projects. In the proposed House Draft 1, the G.O. and general G.O. Reimbursable your Committee requested is $881,279,000 over the biennium. The total G.O. and G.O. Reimbursable bond appropriation has been reduced from that which was submitted by the Administration by $73,876,000 allowing a debt service savings.

"Despite challenging economic times, your Committee has remained dedicated to the needs of our education system. Your Committee has appropriated a total of $287,076,000 to the Department of Education for various school projects and even increased from the Executive Budget their Repair and Maintenance appropriation by $20,000,000 in FY2011.

"For the University of Hawaii, your Committee has appropriated $568,487,000 in all means of financing for various projects, including $10,000,000 increase from the Executive Budget for Repair and Maintenance in FY2011. Also, included is $28,132,000 in Revenue Bonds and $12,660,000 in GO Bonds for a long overdue Information Technology Center.

"In addition to education, your Committee has also attempted to address the needs for affordable housing. The CIP budget includes funding for affordable rental units for our elderly community. It also includes funding to improve the condition of our affordable and public housing facilities by addressing its repair and maintenance backlog and provide additional affordable housing options for low income persons. Your Committee has also included funding to address the health care needs and facilities statewide.

"Your Committee crafted a comprehensive CIP budget that will not only help spur our economy, but will be in a position to supplement and enhance the effectiveness of ARRA funding."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support with just a brief comment. I appreciate all the comments from the other Members about what they saw in the budget that they didn't like, or did like. But the one thing that I see in this budget is that we're actually making some good choices as far as what programs need to be eliminated, including the State Health Planning and Development Agency. This is the right direction to be moving in. We need to be removing barriers to private investment to allow for greater participation by private interest with the public in developing our healthcare.

"We also took out the pay for the HHSC and moved that into the Department of Health. So this is a good step and we need to keep moving in this direction in reducing the barriers to private investment in looking for ways to encourage the State to be partners with the private investment."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to rise in support with some reservations. I want to echo some of the comments and reservations by Speaker Emeritus, and request to submit written comments. Thank you."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 200, HD 1. The State currently faces an economic downturn, the enormity of which is only now becoming clearer. The Council on Revenues continues to revise its dire projections; meanwhile, federal stimulus money recently became available. Consequently, any plan for dealing with our State's economic crisis rests on rapidly shifting sands.

"In light of these circumstances, I acknowledge how difficult it is to balance the State's budget. Nevertheless, I feel compelled to comment on the procedural shortcomings behind the drafting of HB 200, HD1. There has been plenty of finger pointing between the Legislative and Executive Branches and very little communication. Even within this legislative body, meaningful communication and vetting has not occurred.

"Plans for cuts and defunding of entire programs within the Health and Human Services Departments were not openly shared with the Health and Human Services Committees, and no informational briefings or public hearings on these proposed budgetary fixes were held within those Committees. The substantive Committees should have had the opportunity to vet the policy implications of these proposals and develop the legislation that will be needed to comport with HB 200, HD 1's recommendations.

"For example, while funding for the State Health Planning and Development Agency (SHPDA) has been deleted, it is purported that the certificate of need process overseen by SHPDA will still occur, but just not under the auspices of SHPDA. Where is the statutory vehicle that changes this responsibility from SHPDA to, presumedly, the Department of Health or is there an implicit policy choice being made that the Certificate of Need process is no longer the policy of the State? The type of methodical consideration of changes to statutes and drafting of laws could and should have occurred with the substantive Committees to support the proposals in HB 200, HD 1.

"Other programs had their funding deleted because they were considered duplicative of other State programs. For example, it has been suggested that HB 200, HD 1 eliminates the Disability and Communication Access Board (DCAB) for this reason. However, without the benefit of a public hearing, my understanding is that the DCAB is the only State agency that coordinates compliance with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act and similar State laws. In short, whether the DCAB is duplicative or not is not fully understood and HB 200, HD 1's proposal could have been better vetted with a hearing in the appropriate substantive Committee.

"For these reasons, I respectfully vote with reservations for this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks, and the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.B. 200 - Relating to the State Budget. The budget, as written does not reflect prudence; giving the appearance of partisan politics at a time when we can least afford it. The idea of balancing the budget with divisive partisan tactics, expressed by some of the statements contained in the committee report, does not address the people's needs and concerns.

"First, the budget is balanced too heavily on the increase of taxes and user fees, which I feel will only further damage the economy. Second, it appears this budget will bulldoze over certain departments. We cannot merely take a chainsaw to certain initiatives without research and regard to the consequences and repercussions of which have not been examined adequately.

"According to this budget, there is no longer a need for the Director of Human Services. The Department of Human Services, especially at this time is vital to the well being of our citizens. It is irresponsible to cut Director Lillian Koller's job. I am curious as to how a department can be run without a director? Director Koller is one of the most gifted people in or government, having been named "Governing Official of the Year" by Governing magazine. She is the first public official from Hawaii to win the award. Director Koller was also the first Director to put to use the millions of dollars in TANF that had previously set idle each year, and allocated that money for community-based programs that prevent and reduce poverty.

"I am also concerned with the impact of transferring and dividing DBEDT at a time when we must look beyond our shores to encourage economic growth. There has been no testimony or chance given to DBEDT to discuss the impact of moving their departments. The two things we must protect and nurture in a bad economy are the safety- net that DBEDT provides and expertise to stimulate business that DBEDT provides. By passing this budget, and the actions it proposes we would cut our support networks and cut off opportunity.

"The people of Hawaii are counting on this Body to make sagacious decisions. Let's unite and put aside our differences for the people of Hawaii. Now is the time to come together for the greater good of Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 200, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Herkes and Takai being excused.

At 1:53 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, in the next few hours, a major West Coast city's newspaper will run its last newspaper. Tomorrow is the last edition of the Seattle Post. It's the beginning of a new era. It will only be on the Internet. Just so we are up to speed on what's happening, and hopefully, something like this will not happen locally."

Representative C. Lee: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Yesterday was a very special day, not just because some of us got to sleep in, but it was the birthday of an esteemed colleague of ours who turns '21.' Representative Lyla Berg. And if we may all give her a round of applause. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I also have some wonderful news to share with my colleagues. On Friday, I took to heart the 'Good News' candy bar. I know there's been a lot of bad news today. There is some good news, even when newspapers are shutting down and businesses are closing. The West Maui Hospital project was given its final approval for the Certificate of Need process, which means the $45 million facility, which will create jobs and be a growth in healthcare is finally on track. I'm just proud to announce that."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative McKelvey: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I've been designated by your unofficial Irish Caucus to wish everybody a Happy St. Patrick's Day, on behalf of all the Members who are Irish and Scottish. As you know, many of your Members Mr. Speaker are actually Celtic 'poi dogs,' for lack of a better term. Being Irish and Scottish and English, and while our people have had some differences, today is the day where we all come together and put those differences aside. We come together as Irish, Scotsmen and Englishmen, and celebrate the fact that we're not French. Thank you, very much."

Representative Brower: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a reminder for all Members that our adult students will be at a lunch today that everyone is invited to in Room 423. Mr. Speaker, if you and your shadow would like to participate, please feel free to stop by with the other legislators."

Representative Souki: "Yes Mr. Speaker, and a Happy St. Patrick's Day to you and to all. It is with some disappointment that I've heard from the Representative from Lahaina talking about the Celts' relationship between the Scottish and the Irish. He should know that the Celts were one of the first to invade Iberia, which is Portugal now. They were there for about two or three hundred years, so I'd like to say "Happy Erin go Brau."

Representative Ching: "Mr. Speaker, I would add to this, as the former English as a Second Language, multicultural person. As you know, I had the privilege of going to Ireland and they have an expression there. Apparently the proper thing to say, the phrase that Irishmen will know that you have been acquainted with their culture. "May your gee never run dry."

"I was told this on their ferry. The Irish have so much in common as an island culture with Hawaii. What a gee is, is the equivalent of the auwai. So what it means is, may your stream, may your water always run and flow abundantly. So may your gee never run dry."

Speaker Say: "The Chair has an announcement for all of you. Tomorrow morning at 11:45, we would like to have the Members of the House on the Floor for the Joint Session we are having in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Statehood. So we'll have a Joint Session at 12:00 noon, but Members, please be in your seats by 11:45 so we can start on time.

"Then at 2:00 in the afternoon, we will begin our regular daily session for the Members of the House of Representatives."

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:19 o'clock p.m. on motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 12:00 o'clock noon tomorrow, Wednesday, March 18, 2009. (Representative Takai was excused.)

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

Wednesday, March 18, 2009

JOINT SESSION

The House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2009, convened in Joint Session at 12:03 o'clock p.m., with Speaker Calvin K.Y. Say presiding, following a flyover by two F-15 fighter planes from the Hawaii Air National Guard.

Speaker Say called upon Mr. Danny Kaleikini to open the special Joint Session with the singing of the National Anthem and Hawaii Pono'i, after which Reverend Curt Kekuna of the Kawaiaha'o Church delivered the invocation.

House Speaker Say addressed the Members and audience, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Kaleikini, and Reverend Kekuna.

"To all in the Chamber here today and to those offshore viewing these proceedings via the Internet. . . Aloha 'auinalā.

"It is a privilege for me to be here today to preside over these proceedings with Senate President, Colleen Hanabusa. As I look around this Chamber, I recognize a number of familiar faces from Hawaii's rich past . . . visionary people, pioneers in our early Statehood days and years. It is moving to be here in the presence of so much history in one room. It is nearly overwhelming, and I am humbled to be able to recognize and acknowledge such greatness today.

"On this day 50 years ago, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed the Hawaii Admissions Act into law. This stroke of the pen set into motion a plebiscite, which took place on June 27, 1959, whereby Hawaii voters overwhelmingly ratified the congressional vote for statehood.

"The pen used by President Eisenhower has been placed on the Floor here along with other statehood artifacts from the State Archives.

"The road to statehood was not easy. There were those who opposed Hawaii's admission to the union. Some opposition was political. Some opposition was based on economics. And some opposition had harsh racial overtones. However, the people we honor today persevered and overcame those obstacles.

"In order to fully appreciate what was done for us 50 years ago, one must ask, "What does it mean to be a state?" Sure, it means being a star on the flag, and yes, it means being number 11 on an alphabetical list of 50.

"But more important, it means we in Hawaii have a system of justice that is equal and fair. We have the right to face our accusers, and to be deemed "innocent until proven guilty."

"It means we are protected from foreign threats, by a military composed of the most dedicated volunteers in the world, who stand ready to fight . . . not for a dictator, a king or even a president, but for a principal and belief . . . for a constitution . . . for a Nation.

"Being a state also means we have opportunity. We are a part of a Nation where you are your own person, no matter who your parents are, or where they came from. History shows us time and time again, that even if you are born in the poorest part of town, you can achieve.

"We, the people of Hawaii, citizens of the United States of America, are truly blessed.

"Today is a tribute not only to those who worked to gain Hawaii's statehood, it is also a tribute to all who have worked to develop our unique way of doing things and our identity as "the Aloha State."

"We have much to be proud of:

"Since 1959, Hawaii has produced the first U.S. Senators of Chinese, Japanese and Hawaiian ancestries. And we have been lead by governors of Japanese, Hawaiian and Filipino ancestry.

"We have produced a Miss Universe; giants of trade, finance and industry; world renowned scientists, scholars, musicians, astronauts, philosophers, artists, athletes and culinary experts; an Army Chief of Staff; and yes, a President of the United States.

"Even more important to the fabric of Hawaii as "the Aloha State," are the men and women, who may never be on television or on the radio or mentioned in the newspaper. It's the people, who work hard every day to make a living, and who don't give up when faced with life's difficulties. It's the people, who care and provide for their children, so each succeeding generation has a better quality of life. It's the people who keep Hawaii moving forward, growing positively and striving.

"Put simply, it's our people who make Hawaii a great state."

The Speaker then introduced the following special guests:

Governor Linda Lingle, co-host of the event;

Lt. Governor James Aiona and Mrs. Vivian Aiona;

Mr. Barry Fukunaga, the Governor's Chief of Staff and Members of the Executive Cabinet;

Chief Justice Ronald T.Y. Moon of the Hawaii State Supreme Court and members of the Court:
Associate Justice Paula A. Nakayama,
Associate Justice Simeon R. Acoba, Jr., and Associate Justice James E. Duffy, Jr.;

Chief Judge Mark E. Recktenwald of the Hawaii Intermediate Court of Appeals and members of the Court:
Judge Daniel R. Foley,
Judge Alexa D.M. Fujise,
Judge Katherine G. Leonard,
Judge Craig H. Nakamura, and Judge Corrine K.A. Watanabe;

General Vern Miyagi, US Pacific Command;

Major General Stephen D. Tom, Deputy Commanding General, Mobilization and Reserve Affairs, U.S. Army Pacific;

Brigadier General Jan-Marc Jouas, Director of Operations, Plans, Requirements & Programs, U.S. Pacific Air Forces;

Captain Lee Hankins, Commodore Submarine Squadron ONE, U.S. Navy – USS Hawaii;

Honolulu Mayor Mufi Hannemann;
Honolulu Council Chair Todd Apo;

Big Island Mayor Billy Kenoi; and

Mr. Kippen deAlba Chu and Mr. Lenny Klompus, Chair and Vice Chair of the 50th Anniversary Statehood Commission, and Members of the State Commemorative Commission.

Senate President Hanabusa then introduced the former Governors and their family members as follows:

"Hawai'i owes a tremendous debt to the men and their families who dedicated themselves to leading our young state through its first four decades. Joining us today are the former governors of the State of Hawai'i and their representatives.

"Representing the State of Hawaii's first governor, William Quinn, are his wife, Mrs. William Quinn and their son, Gregory Quinn. Governor Quinn was appointed as the Territorial Governor by President Eisenhower and then became the State of Hawaii's first elected governor, serving in that capacity from 1959 - 1962.

"Representing Governor John Burns: his son, the Honorable James Burns, along with Ms. Emme Tomingbang, and his daughter, Dr. Sheenagh Burns. Largely credited with building and maintaining Hawaii's Democratic Party through the Territorial years and early statehood, Governor Burns was the State's first elected Democratic governor and served from 1962 - 1974.

"The Honorable George Ariyoshi and Mrs. Jean Ariyoshi. As the State's first governor of Japanese American descent, Governor Ariyoshi served from 1974-1986 and is a visionary who, as governor, understood the need for planned development and managing our precious natural resources. This understanding led to the Hawai'i State Plan, which embodies the State's current and future priorities and laid the groundwork for the Legislature's focus on sustainability.

"The Honorable John Waihee and Mrs. Lynne Waihee. Serving as governor from 1986 - 1994, Governor Waihee, the State's first governor of Hawaiian ancestry, brought a heightened awareness of the plight of the Native Hawaiians. His compassion and personal understanding of Hawaiian issues has led to the enhanced funding for the Hawaiian Home Lands Trust and other important programs.

"And the Honorable Benjamin Cayetano and Mrs. Vicky Cayetano. Raised in modest surroundings, Governor Cayetano's no-nonsense and straight-talking style of governing served the State well during a period in which Hawai'i was facing tough economic times. The State's first governor of Filipino descent, Governor Cayetano served from 1994 - 2002.

"Governors, family members, thank you very much for joining us today."

Speaker Say then assumed the rostrum, stating:

"I would now like to call upon certain House Members to introduce some very, very special guests: pioneering members of the Class of 1959 of the House of Representatives who are here to join us today in the House Chambers."

The Speaker called upon Representative Belatti who introduced former Representative Thomas P. Gill as follows:

"I am privileged to stand before you today to recognize a man whose life is intertwined with the life of our state from its very inception—a son of Makiki whose penchant for sticking to his convictions with unflinching dedication has brought him to great heights as a leader of our state and our nation. That man is Thomas Ponce Gill.

"Following the career path of an individual like Mr. Gill is quite the roller-coaster ride, because he is one of those rare public figures who pursued his political ideals without exception, leading to his fair share of considerable triumph and tribulation. Mr. Gill made a name for himself early on for his ability to argue intelligently and for his mastery of the timely phrase or sharp quip, whose sting I believe has been felt by some leaders in this room.

"This sharp wit, coupled with a strength of character and the courage of his convictions, propelled Mr. Gill to positions in Hawaii's Territorial government, then into the position of House Majority Floor Leader of Hawaii's First State Legislature, and next to Hawaii's last at-large seat in the United States House of Representatives.

"During his single term in Congress, Mr. Gill was appointed as the Floor Manager for the famed Civil Rights Bill. It was his task to move this bill through the House, as well as to write the opening section of Title VI. The Act passed in 1964 due in no small part to the efforts of Congressman Gill, marking one of the greatest milestones toward equal rights in our nation's history.

"Not one to shy away from unpopular ideas or from a political fight, Mr. Gill continued in his quest for equality, his dedication to protecting Hawaii's natural environment, and his commitment to civil rights for all through victory and defeat, losing a bid for the US Senate, winning the Lieutenant Governorship, and then narrowly losing to Governor Burns in the 1970 democratic primary. Through the highs and the lows, Mr. Gill never compromised his integrity, and with the help of his lovely wife, Lois, who is with us today, he has instilled his deep sense of civic responsibility and leadership in his children, several of whom, including Eric Gill who is here with us today, have become prominent public figures themselves.

"And so it is with great respect and admiration that I now present to you a man who has been an integral part of Hawaii's political landscape since our birth as a State; a man whose steadfast commitment to the advancement of human rights alone would justify his attendance here today, but whose impact on Hawaii and our nation has been so broad that it is fitting to introduce him not by the many titles he has borne over the past five decades, but by a few simple accolades; ladies and gentlemen, it is my great pleasure to introduce a beloved husband and father, a staunch advocate of social and economic justice, a true citizen of Hawaii, Mr. Thomas Ponce Gill."

Speaker Say then called upon Representative Nakashima who introduced former Representative Stanley I. Hara as follows:

"Good afternoon Governor and Lt. Governor, Madame President, Mister Speaker, legislative colleagues and members of the audience.

"Stanley I. Hara was one of numerous authors who helped to draft, edit, write and publish the first chapter of the story of the State of Hawaii.

"Mr. Hara, who represented my district on the Big Island, was elected to the Territorial House in 1954. As a freshman to the Legislature, Mr. Hara, a Big Island Democrat, helped to transform the educational system by passing legislation that made education available to all, including the disadvantaged. Before lawmakers restructured the educational system, the Territory of Hawaii only required free education up to the eighth grade level and high school students had to rent their books and pay other school fees.

"During the 1959 Special Sessions, and the 1960 Budget Session and Special Session, which essentially shaped the future of Hawaii, Mr. Hara served as Chairman of the Finance Committee. Concerns that year included reviewing the areas of economic development on the Neighbor Islands, transition and reorganization issues, and budget threats to the health, safety and welfare of Hawaii citizens. It was necessary for lawmakers that year to draft legislation which addressed fiscal problems related to the transition from territory to state.

"Mr. Hara played an integral role in shaping the State of Hawaii through urgent legislation and worked across party lines to create the foundation upon which Hawaii's government and laws now lie.

"In 1968, Mr. Hara became a delegate to the Constitutional Convention, and then on January 14, 1969, he was appointed by Governor John A. Burns to fill the unexpired term of Senator Nelson K. Doi.

"As Chair of the Senate Education Committee in 1971, Mr. Hara played an instrumental role in turning the 2-year University of Hawaii at Hilo into the 4-year University of Hawaii at Hilo that it is today. The University of Hawaii at Hilo recently honored Mr. Hara with the 2008 Distinguished Service Award.

"Please join me in recognizing Mr. Stanley I. Hara, his wife, Diane Hara, and their son, Judge Glenn Hara."

Speaker Say then called upon Representative Nishimoto who introduced former Representatives Walter Heen and George Koga as follows:

"I'm honored to introduce two members of that historic class. The first is Mr. Walter Heen, a native son of Hawaii, active political player and dedicated public servant for almost 50 years.

"Mr. Heen was born in 1928 and raised on the island of Oahu. A motivated and ambitious student, Mr. Heen obtained his bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Hawaii in 1953 and later a law degree from Georgetown University in 1955.

"Shortly after graduating law school, Mr. Heen was elected to the Territorial House of Representatives in 1959, where he served in the Hawaii Legislature as a Representative until 1964. Mr. Heen began his political career during one of the most exciting and historic times in Hawaii's history, and as a member of the Committees on Government Efficiency, Judiciary, Public Employment and Housing, he not only witnessed, but also assisted in the restructuring and reorganizing of our young state's government.

"After serving in the House of Representatives, Mr. Heen continued his service to our State as a Senator from 1966 thru 1968, and then on the Honolulu City Council from 1969 thru 1972.

"Following his retirement from the Legislature, Mr. Heen began a distinguished judicial career as U.S. Attorney, from 1978 to 1980, and as U.S. District Court Judge, in 1981. He was then appointed to the State Intermediate Court of Appeals in 1982, where he served until 1994.

"In 1998 and 2000, he added to his accomplishments by being elected Chairman of the Hawaii Democratic Party. Finally, in 2006 he was elected to the Board of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs.

"Mr. Heen is a man who dedicated almost 50 years of his life to public service in the Administrative, Legislative and Judicial Branches of the county, State and federal government. Please join me in giving a warm welcome and mahalo to Mr. Walter Heen and his lovely wife, Norma Heen.

"Next Mr. Speaker, on behalf of myself and you, I would like to introduce Mr. George 'Scotty' Koga, who along with other members of the Territorial House, crowded the halls of Iolani palace in 1959 to be one of the first citizens of Hawaii to hear the exciting news that the U.S. House of Representatives voted to pass the Hawaii Admission Act.

"Mr. Koga as a member of the House of Representatives from 1959 thru 1964, served in several notable positions including Chairman of the Committee on Government Efficiency and the Vice Chair of the Tourism Committee. During this time he was also a member of the Committees on Harbors & Airports, Transportation, Economic Development and Finance. After leaving the Legislature, he continued his political service as a member of the City Council of Honolulu from 1971 thru 1978.

"Please join me in recognizing and honoring Representative George "Scotty" Koga and his wife, Ruth Koga."

Speaker Say then called upon Representative Choy for his introduction as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, to introduce our special guest, I would like to defer to a voice that hasn't been heard in this chamber for quite awhile. Mr. Speaker, may I defer to the Senior Senator from Manoa, Senator Brian Taniguchi."

Senator Taniguchi then introduced former Representative Katsugo Miho as follows:

"I would like to introduce, on behalf of Representative Choy, Katsugo Miho. Mr. Miho was a member of the famed 442nd Regimental Combat unit. He served as State judge. He was also the judge that presided over my first case as an attorney. I won't go into the details of that, but suffice it to say that it was an uncontested divorce, and I didn't get my way. But it turned out very well.

"He also served in the 1959 Legislature, and with him today are his wife Laura, and daughter, Mariko."

Speaker Say then called upon Representative Marumoto who introduced former Representative Fred Rohlfing as follows:

"I would like to introduce to you today Fred Rohlfing, who was first elected to the Legislature from the 17th District which ran from Kaimuki to Makapuu Point. To cover his accomplishments would take longer than the time allotted. But don't worry, Fred has been working on his memoirs - and soon hopes to be in print, just like Ex-Governor Ben! The book's tentative title is In Hawaii's Service—the Life and Times of Fred Rohlfing.

"Fred was born in territorial days so he's at least 50 years old. He was raised in Manoa and graduated from Punahou, Yale, and George Washington Law School. Then he came home to run for office and served 11 years in the House, and 9 years in the Senate.

"Some of you here may remember that Fred surprised his colleagues when he was the only Republican to vote for the Maryland Land Law – it was a major Democratic Party plank, and Fred was a Republican. He gave the only speech on that measure. With the help of the late Senator David McClung, Fred's 'Lessees Bill of Rights' that regulated residential leases was incorporated in the groundbreaking Land Reform Act of 1967.

"Always a visionary, Fred was out in front with new issues such as the environment, mass transit for East O'ahu and affordable housing.

"Fred also managed a legal practice and he represented Registered Nurses for collective bargaining. So when the nurses went on strike, Fred was on the line with them.

"He also served in the US Naval Reserve Intelligence program for 36 years. He was also appointed by Presidents Ford and Reagan to the South Pacific Commission, so he's familiar with many of the Pacific Islands and their leaders.

"In 1978 Governor Coleman appointed him Attorney General in American Samoa. In 1972 and 1976 Fred ran for the 1st Congressional District – first against Spark Matsunaga and then against millionaire TV mogul, Cec Heftel. He lost that latter one even though he had the active support of all the major unions.

"Fred and his wife, Patty, retired to Maui in '84. There he was pressed into service as Corporation Counsel by Mayor Hannibal Tavares. After that Fred spent 4 years as a federal Magistrate Judge, and has continued to serve on various State and county commissions ever since.

"Fred is the ultimate public servant, having worked in the federal, State and county levels; in the Executive, Legislative, Judicial Branches, and the military.

"Patty also served in the Legislature working for Fred, and I was there too, and for former legislator, Buddy Soares. Fred's eldest son, Fritz, is a lawyer in town and his other son, Karl, is a Brewer on Maui. Fred and Patty combined have six talented grandchildren.

"But to find out more, please read his book. Please recognize Fred Rohlfing and Patty Rohlfing."

President Hanabusa then assumed the rostrum, stating:

"It is my pleasure to call upon certain Senators to introduce distinguished guests: Members of the 1959 Hawaii State Senate who were able to join us today."

President Hanabusa then called upon Senator Chun Oakland who introduced former Senator and Governor George Ariyoshi as follows:

"Colleagues and guests, I have the honor and distinct privilege to introduce one of Hawaii's foremost pioneers and leaders, the Honorable George Ariyoshi.

"Governor Ariyoshi may be best remembered as one of Hawaii's outstanding Governors and the first Asian-American Governor in our nation.

"George Ariyoshi began his more than 30 years of service to our State as a member of the Legislature. As Hawaii approached Statehood in 1959, he was serving in the State Senate. He dedicated 11 years to addressing the concerns of his Senate district, as well as issues confronting our growing territory and State.

"Even in those early days, Senator George Ariyoshi stood for causes that laid the foundation of our State's future strength. Responsible economic policies, stability for our working men and women and their families, land reform and planned development, and effective business and international relations.

"It is my honor and distinct pleasure to present to you a man of few words, great humility, a man of great vision and action, and a well-respected leader. Governor and Senator George Ariyoshi and our beloved first lady, Jean Ariyoshi."

President Hanabusa called upon Senator Tsutsui who introduced former Senator Nadao Yoshinaga as follows:

"Today I have the great honor to be able to introduce to you today Senator Nadao Yoshinaga who also is widely known as 'Najo.' Senator Yoshinaga was elected into the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii in 1954. In 1959, he was elected into the Senate of the State of Hawaii where he served until he retired in 1974. Senator Yoshinaga was the Chairman of the very influential Senate Labor Committee and the Committee on Ways & Means.

"During his career, he was responsible for landmark legislation such as the Pre-Paid Health Act, the Art in Public Places Act that established the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, and the creation of the Hawaii State Commission on the Status of Women, among many others.

"At this time, I would like to yield the floor to my colleague, Representative Jon Riki Karamatsu to continue with our introduction."

Representative Karamatsu continued with the introduction, stating:

"Senator Nadao Yoshinaga, or as we like to call him, Senator Najo Yoshinaga, has been a mentor to so many leaders in Hawaii, including many of us here today. He has been my friend, advisor and confidante ever since I met him when I was working for Senator Carol Fukunaga in 2002. It is a dream come true for me to have a mentor who was a member of the 1954 Democratic Revolution and 442nd regimental combat team. I am very appreciative of the knowledge he has shared with me and many others.

"Senator Yoshinaga graduated from Maui High School and the University of Hawaii at Manoa, where he attained his Bachelor of Arts degree. He volunteered for the United States Army and served in the 442nd Regimental Combat Team.

"After the war, Senator Yoshinaga decided to apply his GI benefits to study law at DePaul University, where he attained his Juris Doctorate degree. He returned to work for the law firm of Bouslog and Symonds in Honolulu, then Maui, which was known for its defense of the ILWU, or otherwise known as the International Longshore and Warehouse Union.

"Senator Yoshinaga's pro-active and progressive vision, strength of conviction, organizational and strategic brilliance, helped to shape and inspire legislative, business, and community leaders long after his formal retirement. He continues to encourage, advise and inspire legislators and legislative staff during his many visits to the Hawaii State Capitol. Even today he is making an impact on Hawaii through his many protégés.

"I would like to leave you with a statement Senator Yoshinaga likes to say: "Make Hawaii the Best Place in the World."

"Senator Najo Yoshinaga, thank you for all you have done to make Hawaii the Best Place in the World. Senator Najo Yoshinaga and his daughter, Susan Ward."

President Hanabusa then called upon Mr. Danny Kaleikini to introduce the '50 Voices of Hawaii,' stating:

"Thank you. The Commission is sponsoring a media program entitled, 50 Voices of Hawaii, which showcases a broad spectrum of people from our community. I now call upon Mr. Danny Kaleikini, one of the memorable voices to introduce other participants of the 50 Voices of Hawaii program with us today."

Mr. Danny Kaleikini introduced the 50 Voices of Hawaii as follows:

"Aloha kakou āpau. Aloha. Aloha, the breath of life and love that we share with another. Aloha kekahi i kekahi. The love for one another. But most important, Aloha ke akua. God is love.

"It is my honor to introduce the distinguished citizens who have been featured on the Commission's 50 Voices of Statehood. And they've been airing statewide on Hawaii television, radio stations, since August of last year, so that the young people and all the residents of Hawaii would hear unique perspectives on Statehood.

"As a voice in the series myself, I can tell you that it has been very interesting to watch and listen to all the participants, to see how their memories compare with your own.

"And one of our 50 Voices is no longer with us, but she lives on with her spirit, intellect and passion. Her name, Ah Quon McElrath. She was a key figure in Hawaii's early labor movement, and a tireless advocate for social justice and political change over the past 7 decades. We're going to miss her, and I ask you to join me in a very brief moment of silence to honor Mrs. McElrath's commitment to Hawaii and its people."

At this time, the members of the Legislature, guests and audience observed a moment of silence in honor of the late Mrs. Ah Quon McElrath.

Mr. Danny Kaleikini continued as follows:

"Thank you. I would like to ask the 50 Voices who are here with us today to please stand when I introduce you so that you can be acknowledged, and I want to ask all of you, the 'ohana, to please hold your applause until the very end.

"Ms. Dodie Bacon Brown. This young wahine, she was only 6 at the time Hawaii became a State, and she soon entered our collective memory as the young wahine featured in a well-known 1959 photograph, holding a newspaper announcing "Statehood!" in big, bold letters. Ms. Dodie Bacon Brown.

"Retired Judge Jim Burns. Not only a judge, but a great golfer. The former Chief Judge for the Hawaii Intermediate Court of Appeals, he is also the son of John Burns, and John served as the delegate for the territory of Hawaii to the US House of Representatives and later became Hawaii's second governor. Judge Jim Kimo Burns.

"And now we have the former State Land Board Chairman, Bill Paty, who is a lifetime resident of Hawaii, World War II veteran, and retired business leader in the sugar industry. And also, a very unique guy, and one good kanaka maoli.

"His duties in Washington D.C. prevent him from being here, as our new secretary of Veterans Affairs, Kauai native, General Eric K. Shinseki. He was a very invaluable addition to the 50 Voices segments. Of course we also know General Shinseki as the first Asian American to become a four star general, and to lead one of the four US Military services, General Eric K. Shinseki.

"Dr. Fujio "Fudge" Matsuda. A member of the famed 442 Regimental Combat Team, Dr. Matsuda later served as Director of the State Department of Transportation under Governor John Burns, before being named the president of University of Hawaii.

"Mrs. Nancy Quinn had an interesting first-hand glimpse of Hawaii's road to statehood as the wife of Governor William Quinn, who was Hawaii's last territorial Governor, and the State's first elected Governor. Mrs. Quinn, you look lovely. God bless, and thank you.

"Lucy Ramirez. A very successful business wahine who came to Hawaii from China 20 years ago to pursue the American dream. She runs her own company, and we're very proud of Lucy.

"Milton Motooka. A partner in the firm Motooka Yamamoto and Revere, who has been practicing law in Hawaii for more than 30 years. His father served as a member of the famed 442 Regimental Combat Team during WWII. Milton, aloha mae.

He is also founding chairman of the Nature Conservancy of Hawaii, and founder of the Manoa Heritage Center. He is one good Hawaiian. Sam, aloha no.

"The fifth Governor of Hawaii, former Governor Ben Cayetano, who served as our nation's first Filipino American Lieutenant Governor from 1986 till 1994, and became the first American of Filipino descent to be elected as Governor in 1994. Governor, I want to thank you for putting me in your book, and when I do get in any kind of pilikia, I call 911.

"Dr. Kekuni Blaisdell. President of Medicine, UH Manoa, and the cofounder of E Ola Mau, an organization for Hawaiian health professionals. He is also the founding chair of Department of Medicine at the UH Burns School of Medicine.

"Our next 50 Voices participant was former Hawaii County Mayor Harry Kim, who served as mayor until 2008, and is well known for his 24 years of service as Director of the Hawaii County Civil Defense.

"The series was very fortunate to hear perspectives on statehood from US Senator Daniel Akaka, my Minister of Music at Kawaiha'o Church, and a proud longstanding member of our Congressional Delegation.

"US Senator Daniel Inouye, joining his colleague in providing the series with memories and all that we have to be grateful for. A member of the famed 442 Regimental Combat Team. He hemolele ho'i 'Āmene.

"Aloha ke akua, God is love. Mahalo akua. We thank you for all these blessings, we thank you for this beautiful day. All this we ask in your name. Amen."

At this time, Mr. Danny Couch entertained the audience in the first musical interlude.

The President then called upon Governor Lingle who delivered her remarks as follows:

"Senate President Hanabusa, Speaker Say, Chief Justice Moon, Lt. Governor and Mrs. Aiona, current legislators, Mrs. Nancy Quinn and and son Gregory, Judge Jim Burns, Emme Tomimbang and Dr. Sheenagh Burns, Governor Ariyoshi and Jean, Governor Waihee and Lynn, Governor Cayetano and Vicky, Members of Hawai'i's First State Legislature in 1959, especially I want to address you and tell you what an honor it is to be in the same room with you today, to the “50 Voices of Statehood" representatives, to the 50th Anniversary of Statehood Commissioners for the great job that you are all doing, and the people of Hawai'i, good afternoon and aloha.

"I'm so honored to be joined by former governors, legislators and other special guests to recognize this historic day on which President Dwight David Eisenhower signed the Hawai'i Admission Act.

"President Eisenhower was an ardent supporter of Hawai'i's statehood. He would later say, "Years of effort have finally extended the boundaries of our beloved land far out into the Pacific to encircle the islands of Hawai'i."

"With the stroke of a pen, President Eisenhower changed the landscape of our nation.

"As our nation's 50th state, Hawai'i is the youngest member of the Union. Our relatively young age is reflected today in the presence of Hawai'i's only six governors or their representatives since statehood. And what a privilege it was for me to be able to stand with our former governors and their families to have my picture taken. It really was a great privilege.

"Mahalo Mrs. Quinn, members of the Burns family and former governors, for joining the people of Hawai'i in commemorating this special day.

"The memories of Hawai'i statehood remain vivid for all of Hawai'i's people. And the history remains fresh, fresher still after today, in all of our minds.

"This is underscored by the unique "50 Voices of Statehood" audio and video anthology created by the 50th Anniversary of Statehood Commission. Each segment is filled with distinctive memories and personal perspectives on 1959 and Hawai'i's road to statehood. I want to thank each of the "50 Voices" who are with us today, as well as those who will be part of the series in the months ahead.

"I want to take a moment to mention Mrs. Ah Quon McElrath who was one of the 50 Voices of Statehood, and also a dedicated and vocal member of our Statehood Commission. Although no longer with us, she remains in our hearts and in our minds. Her leadership and her commitment to Hawai'i and its people will never be forgotten.

"It is also important to recognize the individuals who labored over the period of decades to make statehood possible. These include Joseph Farrington – a territorial senator and delegate to the United States Congress; Samuel Wilder King – a territorial governor and delegate to the United States Congress; Governor William Quinn and Governor John Burns.

"Statehood was achieved through the dedication and perseverance of these great leaders, along with the people of Hawai'i – who in 1959 voted 17 to one in support of statehood. They voted for basic rights and privileges of American citizenship. They voted to have a voice in Washington. And, as Governor Ariyoshi said so well in his 50 Voices of Statehood piece, they voted for "control over our own destiny."

"In honoring the 50th anniversary of statehood, we are recognizing theses leaders as well as the working men and women who were passionate in their conviction about what Hawai'i's future should look like. What all residents shared then, and what we all share today, is a deep love of Hawai'i. And this was true even for those who opposed statehood.

"Hawai'i is truly a place like no other!

"Hawai'i was and is in many ways a simple place. But at the same time, a place with complex issues and in many ways defined by our contradictions. We are isolated geographically, yet we serve as a vital bridge between the mainland United States and Asia-Pacific region. As a state we are young, yet we are also home to an ancient and proud host culture. We are the most diverse state in the Union, yet a place where racial and ethnic lines are often blurred or deemed irrelevant. Hawai'i is a place of breathtaking natural beauty, but also a world-class center of innovation and scientific discovery. There are moments when living here is like living in the paradise we see depicted on travel posters and in the movies. But, the Pacific Ocean's great expanse does not shield us from the challenges of everyday life. It also doesn't drown out the differing opinions that exist in our community. And I am for grateful that.

"Our differences are our strength and they create the vibrant tapestry of our culture. Statehood brought self-determination and federal dollars to our shores. It conferred benefits of the most powerful and prosperous nation on Earth. And, most importantly, it allowed our citizens to enjoy the rights enshrined in the United States Constitution. Because of this, we can speak our minds freely. We can have vigorous debate, which is the lifeblood of our democratic system and has served our nation well for more than 200 years. We may not always agree, but we all have a voice, and are free to express our views.

"Hawai'i's road to statehood began decades before 1959. It was a journey beset by many false starts and failed attempts, as it faced a very hesitant United States Congress. But the people of Hawai'i remained determined, hopeful and focused on their task at hand. They refused to give up and ultimately they convinced Congress of the many ways in which Hawai'i was a worthy and beneficial addition to the United States.

"It is well known that Hawai'i's strategic importance was key to victory in the Pacific during World War II. But the more resounding story coming out of the war was the bravery and the sacrifice exemplified by our Nisei soldiers in the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, the 100th Battalion and the Military Intelligence Service. These soldiers showed that being loyal to the American cause was in no way defined by ethnicity. It was determined instead, by a belief in the principles of freedom and democracy.

"Hawai'i provided a model of tolerance ahead of its time. The diversity of Hawai'i's people was touched on often in statehood testimonies before members of the United States Congress, including in 1935, when Territorial Senator Joseph Farrington said these words:

> "To anyone who has lived in Hawai'i, and has grown up with the boys and girls of other races, it is difficult to understand the suspicions in which they are held by some people… You come to judge people according to their character and not their race after you have lived with them for a long time."

"Since becoming a state, Hawai'i has contributed to the nation in more unexpected ways. The forms of human expression unique to our islands, such as surfing, hula, our food, words, phrases and our music, have traveled well beyond our shores and ignited the world's imagination. Who could have imagined 50 years ago the degree to which Hawaiian culture would resonate with people of other states and countries.

"We have also put our stamp on science. Today, we are the site of ground-breaking discoveries in a variety of fields, including marine research, genetics research and astronomy. More recently, we have embarked on an ambitious plan to achieve a clean energy future, creating a model for other states and nations.

"When the United States House sent the bill to President Eisenhower granting Hawai'i statehood, the effect 5,000 miles away was immediate. As our local newspapers reported on that day – and so many of our residents still vividly remember – civil defense horns wailed, church bells pealed, ships' whistles tooted, and motorists leaned on their horns. That evening, there was dancing across the islands that would become America's newest state and fireworks illuminated the sky over the Pacific. If many people were joyful, it was because they had worked so hard to achieve this historic milestone. They had looked forward to seeing this day for decades. It was a day that marked new opportunities – socially, economically and politically. A headline in one of our local newspapers proclaimed on that day, above pictures of diverse Hawai'i residents, "First Class Citizens Now." This headline reaffirmed that on that special day, that while we were a place like no other… and a people like no other… we were all now citizens.

"Now, on the 50th anniversary of statehood, Hawai'i, the nation and the world face new challenges. Each new day brings more challenging economic news, but also a wealth of new opportunities for the future. In overcoming what is perhaps the biggest challenge Hawai'i has faced since 1959, many of the same qualities shown in the struggle for statehood are needed today.

"We must encourage the participation and collaboration of the entire community. Our efforts must be characterized by determination and hard work. We must embrace flexibility, and have the wisdom to adopt a new plan or strategy when the previous plan falls short. Perhaps most importantly, we must have faith in the strength, resilience and pioneering spirit of Hawai'i's businesses, residents and leaders.

"As Hawai'i's current governor, I will tell you that leading this State has and continues to be the greatest privilege and the most humbling experience of my life. I know the former governors here today feel the same; that it is an honor to lead Hawai'i, which is a place like no other and home to people who are unique in all the world. Our collective history and experience in this House Chambers today offers an incredible reflection of who the people of Hawai'i are, and what they are capable of achieving.

"Columnist Thomas Friedman, in the New York Times last month, pointed out that despite our nation's troubles, the world still looks to America to lead the way out of our current crisis. In the Pacific region, it is up to us to provide that leadership and serve as an example to our neighbors. We did that when we achieved statehood, standing as a model of democracy to Asian and Pacific nations. We will do it again as a model of economic recovery and long-term prosperity.

"And, Hawai'i will always be the model of a community whose diversity is its greatest strength, where people of different ethnic and cultural backgrounds work together and live side-by-side. All of us, one 'ohana, we will ensure the next 50 years will be as rich and diverse as the first 50.

"I feel blessed, and I am proud to be a resident of the State of Hawai'i and a citizen of the United States America. And, I am optimistic and I'm excited about what we can accomplish as we pull together in the months and years ahead. Thank you for the privilege you've given me. Aloha."

Ms. Arshiel Calatrava, a Kalakaua Middle School student entertained the audience in the second musical interlude which showcased Hawaii's youth.

President Hanabusa then gave her closing remarks as follows:

"Mahalo Arshiel.

"Our development of the Hawai'i that we know today has been a journey, and one that has not been without controversy. It is fitting, then, that we must stop and reflect on those moments, and not only celebrate our progress, but also ask ourselves if we have done the most that we can with what we have been provided.

"The first vital steps toward statehood not only provided Hawai'i's people with the full rights and benefits of citizens of our nation, but also promised a chance of drafting our own Constitution and to fully determine the direction our State would move in. Hawai'i today is the Hawai'i of our own making, just as the Hawai'i of tomorrow will grow from the choices we make today.

"To everyone here today, those who have contributed to our past as well as those helping guide our future, I would like to add my personal thanks for allowing us to reach the heights we have achieved, and to overcome the challenges we have faced together.

"What is great about Hawai'i today, and what will be best about our Hawai'i tomorrow, grows from our shared commitment, not only to our people, to our environment, and let us not forget, our precious host culture. Mahalo to you all for being here and sharing this commemoration. Mahalo to those who have spent endless hours, and put so much effort in planning the commemoration.

"With that, there being no further business, I declare this Joint Session adjourned."

At 1:27 o'clock p.m., President Hanabusa declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate adjourned.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1142, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, and I will reserve my comments for later."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1142, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS," passed Second Reading and was referred jointly to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, Luke, Mizuno, Saiki, Souki, Takai and Thielen being excused.

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1006) recommending that S.B. No. 930, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 930, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of S.B. 930 - Relating to Volunteer Medical Assistance Services. I am currently concerned that the lack of coverage for professional liability may mean that valuable healthcare workers will not participate as State volunteers. This measure would provide immunity from liability and coverage of medical expenses for licensed medical personnel providing volunteer services in non-emergency situations, such as school-based immunization clinics, on behalf of the State or a county.

"The University of Hawaii states in their testimony that "The University of Hawaii Manoa supports the intent of S.B. 930, which provides protections to healthcare workers volunteering emergency services that are consistent with Good Samaritan practices elsewhere, provided it does not adversely affect our UH priorities as set in our budget request, most notably in health and safety repairs and maintenance issues. Addressing these urgent needs is critical to our ability to perform our core mission for the State of Hawaii." And "We believe S.B. 930 will protect those healthcare workers who come to the aid of their community in times of crises anywhere in Hawaii. The bill also strikes a balance with patients rights, in that it does not diminish the legal rights of those who were inadvertently harmed when assisted by such volunteers given there is willful or criminal misconduct, gross negligence or reckless misconduct." Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 930, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VOLUNTEER MEDICAL ASSISTANCE SERVICES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, Luke, Mizuno, Saiki, Souki, Takai and Thielen being excused.

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1007) recommending that S.B. No. 777, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Education.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 777, SD 1, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Education, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 777 - Relating to Comprehensive Sexuality Health Education. I believe that this bill is unnecessary because the current sexual education curricula being taught by the State is accurate and appropriate. The Department of Health states in their testimony that "Information currently provided by State-funded DOH programs regarding sexual health education, family planning, pregnancy counseling, and sexually transmitted diseases, including Human Immunodeficiency Virus and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, is medically accurate, based on scientific fact, and is age appropriate. This bill is unnecessary because as part of the contracting process, program materials are reviewed by DOH on a regular basis, and inaccurate information would be corrected at this time."

"The Hawaii Family Forum, which is a non-profit, pro-family education organization committed to preserving and strengthening families in Hawaii, states "S.B.777 is an unnecessarily punitive measure, which will de-fund successful local abstinence programs for Hawaii's youth." I agree with the Hawaii Family Forum and would like to see the continuation of such programs as "Try Wait." Catholic Charities Hawaii has operated this successful federally funded abstinence program, which is a medically accurate abstinence-only program. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, although I supported the original version of this bill I have to vote with reservations on the HD1. I have to vote with reservations because the purpose of this bill was changed from requiring "any recipient of state funding that provides sexuality health education to provide medically accurate, factual, and comprehensive information that is age appropriate and includes education on abstinence and contraception," to requiring "any recipient of state funding specifically for sexuality health education programs to provide medically accurate, factual, and comprehensive information that is age appropriate and includes education on abstinence and contraception."

"Mr. Speaker this change does not accomplish the goal that this bill set out to accomplish. It still allows funding to programs that do not provide comprehensive sexuality education to our children and does not change the current status quo. For this reason Mr. Speaker, I am voting with reservations on SB777 SD1 HD1."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 602, SD 2, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on 1026, Senate Bill 602, Senate Draft 2, I have some reservations. This bill would take up to $1 million a year from the Works of Art Special Fund, to allow Bishop Museum and Iolani Palace to purchase art. This would happen for two years, so it would be up to $2 million.

"While I have no problem helping the museum and Iolani Palace, I question whether we should take the money out of this particular Fund. The Works of Art Special Fund generally purchases contemporary art from local living artists. So, the mission of the State Foundation of Culture and Arts and the two institutions are quite different. Remember, local living artists are small business people and are very vulnerable to economic downturns. The purpose clause states that any loss could result in a loss of 2,357 jobs.

"So, because the arts community is a very vibrant community, I'm wondering whether we should take any money out of the Fund at this time. So, just wanted to express my reservations. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll try to be brief. In support of Stand. Com. Report 1038. Mr. Speaker, this bill came along, Senate Bill 190, because someone who was married for 63 years, was unfortunately forced to be separated from her husband. This person is Terry Kaide. She's 86 years old, and she's a retired Clerk of the Third Circuit Court in Hilo.

"Her husband, Sydney, age 89, is a retired contractor, and they've been married for 63 years. Sydney is bedridden and diagnosed with bladder cancer. He's suffered some strokes, and so he's unable to talk, but Terry stays at his side, whenever she can. And, this is her words: 'Although he's unable to talk, he's tube-fed, he can see me, hear me, feel my touch. When he hears or sees people that are familiar to him, he's so overcome with joy and emotions. I want to live with my husband before the Lord takes us home. We don't have too much time left. I want to be able to wake up and see his face every morning, hold his hand, and sing his favorite songs. I miss him all the time, and I just want to be at his side. I want to hold his hand for more than an hour or two each day. In my silence, I'm suffering from hurt, guilt, confusion, and the injustice to my marriage.'

"Mr. Speaker, this bill came along because Terry Kaide wanted to do something about this. And, because of that, we passed out of your Human Services Committee, a bill to address that. The underlying laws actually have a good rationale. We want to have in a foster home two Medicaid clients and one private pay. The rationale is to have more Medicare low income families be allowed to live or reside in a care home.

"Unfortunately, it's not an airtight and perfect law, and this is the perfect example why. Because of Mrs. Kaide, we passed a law out of our committee, with the Department of Human Services helping us craft this piece of legislation to now allow a married couple, this would be the exception to the rule now, now you can have another private pay if you have a married couple, such as Terry and Sydney. This will also allow reciprocal beneficiary couples to be together. This will also allow siblings, and a parent or child, as well as best friends to be together.

"So, because of Mrs. Kaide and her steadfast commitment to this, she has opened her door to so many other people, so that they can live together. I just wanted to thank Mrs. Kaide, and let the people out there know that some of the best pieces of legislation are not crafted by the legislators themselves, but the people from the community. I totally support this bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of Senate Bill 190. And out of respect for the lady who came all the way from Hilo and her daughters all the way from California, Mr. Speaker.

"This bill puts common sense back into government. It says that if you're married, you can live together. And, I think it's true to what marriage vows say, that not, 'until sickness do we part,' but, 'not until death do we part.' Mr. Speaker, I would like to request submittal of this letter from the Governor, to Mrs. Kaide, that says that if we pass it, she will sign it, and as the request from Mrs. Kaide, upon her husband's birthday, April 11th, this could become law. That's what the goal is, that's what we're hoping for. Thank you, for your indulgence."

Representative Ward submitted the following letter from the Governor:

"February 18,2009

Ms. Charlotte Kaide
Ms. Gale Sakaguchi

Aloha Ms. Kaide and Ms. Sakaguchi,

Mahalo for writing me regarding your mother's request to join your father in an adult community care foster home. I understand that your father is too frail to move into another facility at this time. I regret that the current law does not enable me to give you the result you seek.

As you may know, the State Department of Human Services licenses and regulates adult foster homes so low-income Medicaid clients can receive long-term care in family-like residential settings, as opposed to institutional hospitals and nursing homes.

Because there is a significant shortage of adult foster homes for Medicaid recipients, the law stipulates that no more than one private pay client can live in these two- or three-bed facilities.

Under Senate Bill 190, however, a couple who are private pay clients could live together in an adult foster home under certain conditions. My Administration opposed the original version of this bill, but is now working with the State Legislature on modifications that would apply to your situation.

If the House and Senate approve the amended bill in a timely manner, my policy advisors and I will give it careful consideration and I could sign it into law as early as April.

I hope this information is helpful. I also wish you and your family all the best as you strive to find a long-term care solution for your parents.

Sincerely,
LINDA LINGLE"

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, I'm in opposition to 1055, and I have a couple brief comments. Mr. Speaker, SCR 1055 would allow people in prison to vote, and very few states allow prisoners that right.

"Basically, prisoners had their rights taken away, as part of their punishment for the crime that they committed. One of my other concerns is, this measure does not consider that a great deal of offenders use multiple means, multiple social security numbers, dates of births, and various addresses in their efforts to elude law enforcement.

"There is a real potential for voter fraud, as there is no way to verify previous residence information provided by the incarcerated person.

"I just believe that we're going in the wrong direction in giving too many criminals rights."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the her written remarks, and the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 619 - Relating to Voting Rights, Incarcerated Person. I believe that this bill could put a financial burden on the State. I also believe this bill unfairly rewards those who have broken our laws. The Governor's Chief of Staff, Barry Fukunaga, states in his testimony that, "At present, Hawaii law does not permit offenders to vote during their period of incarceration. This limitation is a sensible one, as it denies voting rights to individuals who have been convicted and incarcerated for deliberate criminal activities. The vast majority of states do not give incarcerated offenders the right to vote."

"The Department of Public safety also has concerns and states in their testimony that "Any perceived disfranchisement of the offender by temporarily disallowing them to vote is done as a result of their willful criminal activities that victimize the community," and "This measure does not consider the fact that a great deal of offenders use multiple names, social security numbers, date of births, and various addresses in their efforts to elude law enforcement. This measure also fails to consider the fact that there is no way for the Office of Elections or various County Clerks to address the real potential for voter fraud as these entities have no way to verify the previous residence information provided by the incarcerated person."

"Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just like my colleague in Ewa Beach, when I saw this bill, I had a lot of concern about it. What I did is, I called the introducer, who is my Senator, and asked him, 'What are you doing?' And he said that we need to incorporate them as part of our society. We need to train them, as part of our society. And we have to give them responsibilities. They need to be a part of a bigger society. Therefore, we should allow them to vote.

"So, I just want to resonate what my Senator said to me, when I called him. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB782 SD1 HD1 Relating to Employment Security. This measure provides unemployment insurance to those who are separated from their employment as a result of domestic violence in a manner that accommodates the legitimate interests of employers.

"SB782, SD1, HD1 also provides that domestic violence victim's suspension or discharge from work will not be considered misconduct under the law, and will not affect their eligibility for unemployment benefits. Women often fear being stalked while going to work, as well as fearing that violence could happen at home or at work. Fear of losing financial security is often the main reason domestic violence victims return to their abusers, so it is very important to allow victims to assert their independence with the assistance of unemployment benefits.

"Just this week a women was shot to death in her car by a man she held a TRO against. Was she on the way to work? Must women who are abused and stalked leave their homes and eventually the state to find safety? This is a small part of the fight against domestic violence. If a woman is not economically independent how can she avoid going back to her abuser?

"For all these reasons, I urge the Members' support."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1070. SCR 1070 prohibits the sale of ceded lands, until the unrelinquished claims of the Native Hawaiian people are resolved, or reconciliation between the State and Native Hawaiian people are no longer supported.

"The reason why I'm standing, however, is for what the Attorney General said, and said very passionately to the Committee. According to the AG, the bill raises the potential for additional federal court lawsuits against the State, by persons opposed to government programs that provide benefits to Native Hawaiians.

"I asked the AG, 'Do you really believe this? Is this your best legal opinion?' And he said, 'Definitely, yes.' And, he further stated that if that was not the case, OHA would otherwise not want to take the risk, and it would seem that their lawyers would be able to put that legal opinion in writing.

"My point, Mr. Speaker, is to vote with reservations, but to go on record, that if this bill ends up denying, lessening, or threatening Hawaiian rights, this Body will have been warned by the AG. It's simple as that, just going on the record. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I quote from testimony from The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii:

LASH anticipates a growing number of foreclosures in the coming years as the so-called exotic mortgage products mature and consumers are not able to keep up with their adjusted mortgage payments or find a suitable refinance. With the growing number of foreclosures, there will only be an increase in the number of foreclosure rescue scams and wronged consumers in the State of Hawaii. The Legal Aid Society of Hawaii opposes SB 34 SD1 and its efforts to exempt real estate brokers and salespersons from Act 137. We do not believe this is the appropriate means to protect the consumers in the State of Hawaii.

Conclusion: We appreciate these committees' recognition of the need to protect consumers in the State of Hawaii. SB 34 SD l attempts to weaken protections for consumers. We oppose SB 34 SD 1 but are more than willing to work with the industry to find the most suitable way to ease the challenges of Act 137 while protecting the interests of the consumers in the State of Hawaii. Thank you for the opportunity to testify."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HCR16 HD1 which encourages State and county action to stimulate individual savings and development of credit and to formulate an inventory of banking services available to low-income persons and those with no credit history in the State.

"Consumers without a relationship with a mainstream financial institution may pay higher transaction fees for services and may pay interest rates to purchase items through rent-to-own companies. Whereas, consumers who have established banking relationships have access to better tools to save, build assets and enhance their ability to manage money and make significant financial decisions.

"On February 5, 2009, the FDIC annual survey of banks' efforts to serve the unbanked and underbanked noted, "While most banks offer basic checking accounts to customers, few offer deposit, payment, credit and electronically based products that address the unique needs of unbanked and underbanked customers."

"Those who will be the most affected by this Resolution include low-income individuals and families, female-headed households, the less educated and individuals living in rural communities because they are the most vulnerable to being financially underserved. Not having this happen could be extremely detrimental for these individuals in these financially hard times, Mr. Speaker.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations with a portion of SB 1311, SD 1, Relating to Aquatic Resources.

"I am concerned about granting the University of Hawai'i a blanket and broad permit exemption for repair and maintenance of State land and buildings at the Hawaii Marine Laboratory Refuge on Moku o Lo'e, also known as Coconut Island. This exemption is neither needed nor prudent.

"Hawaii is an Ocean State and we owe it to future generations to be attentive stewards of our precious nearshore aquatic ecosystem. For many of our residents, the Pacific Ocean is our main place of recreation as well as a source of spiritual sustenance. Many of our families still depend on nearshore resources for subsistence and cultural purposes.

"By exempting the University of Hawai'i from following the proper procedures in place for any other user of State fast and submerged lands puts at risk our marine life. It's a fact that the invasive algae species that have overtaken the coral reefs in Kāne'ohe Bay have been traced to samples introduced by researchers from the University. These foreign species remain a challenge and cause problems for the Windward O'ahu's nearshore areas. I certainly hope the University of Hawai'i staff and researchers of today take more than a clinical appreciation of our islands and hold a better and more profound admiration for our native ecosystem. I'm sure they will be vigilant in preventing the destruction or removal of corals or other marine life and taking proper precautions against the introduction of alien species.

"But the exemption is simply not needed.

"I'm not persuaded that the University somehow needs to avoid regulatory oversight for the broad and undefined category of repair and maintenance. It troubles me that the University would seek a broad exemption when the existing regulations already provide exemptions that have been established through rulemaking and the experience of DLNR. Since the mid-1990s, the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) has employed a sliding scale of regulatory requirements for work in the conservation district. If the proposed work is truly minor repair and maintenance, DLNR's Office of Conservation and Coastal Lands (OCCL) can process a simple site plan approval or even employ a proper and considered categorical exemption in the existing rules. Further, work that is more involved may still only require a permit processed through OCCL. Only profound changes to the landscape would require a full Conservation District Use Permit and a Land Board hearing.

"For these concerns, please record my vote with reservations."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of SB 417, which establishes guidelines for Medicaid reimbursement to hospitals and facilities with long-term beds. The bill also makes appropriations for safe house programs for at-risk youth, as well as for emergency services at Federally Qualified Health Centers.

"While I speak in support of the bill in its entirety, I speak with special concern for my many constituents whose health and well-being have long depended on emergency services offered by our non-profit federally qualified health center. The Wai'anae Coast Comprehensive Health Center (WCCHC)—along with other community health centers in low-income areas throughout the state that will benefit from this legislation—has thus far been able to keep its emergency room open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Without help from the Legislature, this around-the-clock service may not be able to continue.

"Our Committees on Human Services and Health heard compelling testimony submitted by the CEO of the Wai'anae Center. Of the $1.8 million needed to operate emergency services between midnight and 8 a.m., he pointed to a $332,000 shortfall for the coming fiscal year. As a result, the Committees amended SB 417 to include an unspecified appropriation to help WCCHC and other health centers maintain current levels of service.

"During all my years as a legislator, even when times were better, I have heard the same cries for help. Each year, WCCHC has had to come to us and beg for emergency services funding. Somehow, whether by tapping into Rainy Day funds or other sources, the Legislature has risen to the occasion and managed to keep these critical services from being shut down. This year, the need is greater than ever.

"I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this bill, which gives some measure of hope to those who depend so heavily on our community health centers."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. No. 417, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Takai being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 777 - Relating to Comprehensive Sexuality Health Education. The Department of Health states in their testimony that, "Information currently provided by State-funded DOH programs regarding sexual health education, family planning, pregnancy counseling, and sexually transmitted diseases, including Human Immunodeficiency Virus and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, is medically accurate, based on scientific fact, and is age appropriate. This bill is unnecessary because as part of the contracting process, program materials are reviewed by DOH on a regular basis, and inaccurate information would be corrected at this time."

"The Hawaii Family Forum, which is a non-profit, pro-family education organization committed to preserving and strengthening families in Hawaii, states, "S.B.777 is an unnecessarily punitive measure, which will de-fund successful local abstinence programs for Hawaii's youth." I agree with the Hawaii Family Forum and would like to see the continuation of such programs as, "Try Wait." Catholic Charities Hawaii has operated this successful federally funded abstinence program, which is a medically accurate abstinence-only program. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"HB 995 resolves claims and disputes relating to the portion of income from the lands of the public land trust for use by the Office of Hawaiian Affairs between 1978 and 2008. It conveys certain parcels of land in fee simple to OHA.

"I speak as a proponent of a "global solution" to the OHA issue. This bill is but a small step towards that goal.

"My reservations stem from the Senate intent to transfer Mauna Kea and other properties to OHA, and although subsequent HDs have not reflected this desire, the original idea can always re-emerge in conference drafts.

"Regarding the properties of Kaka'ako Makai, the testimony of the Attorney General pointed out that OHA's unilateral ability to pick and choose means that the State could be left with property that is fragmented rather than contiguous, and substantially de-valued by the selection. We should be more careful with the land owned by citizens and taxpayers."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 580, SD 2, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support SB 580, S.D. 2, H.D. 1 which will clarify that the State's forfeiture laws apply to natural resource violations. A recent Hawaii Supreme Court decision, Carlisle v. One Boat, et. al. (No. 26995, November 17, 2008) raised the issue of whether the State's forfeiture statutes and the DLNR administrative rules, as applied to natural resource violations, provide a legally sufficient statutory basis to authorize forfeiture claims by the State.

"This bill will validate the use of certain civil remedies, including forfeiture of property such as boats or water vessels, imposed to enforce violations of laws protecting the Kaho'olawe Island Reserve, caves and other historic preservation areas. This bill clarifies and confirms what DLNR and DOCARE have been doing over the years (i.e., seizing and forfeiting boats and other instruments used in natural resource violations). The language of Section 2 of this bill specifically provides that "violators may be subject to civil remedies, including forfeiture pursuant to Chapter 712A." Section 3 authorizes DLNR to participate in forfeitures by policy and to adopt rules for covering certain kinds of natural resource violations.

"I generally support giving DLNR's enforcement officers the necessary tools to be good stewards and to better foster sustainability. Many natural resource violations involving the use of a boat or fishing vessel fall within the category of petty misdemeanors punishable with a fine of no more than $1,000 or imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or both. The relatively light punishment for such violations is not sufficient to deter a boat owner who commits a natural resource violation. Forfeiture of a violator's boat or vessel provides stronger deterrence than the current penalty provision for a petty misdemeanor. However, risking the loss of a boat or vessel worth possibly ten times more than the monetary penalty will certainly cause someone to think twice before attempting to use a boat or vessel to unlawfully poach within the Kaho'olawe Island Reserve and similar historic preservation areas.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of SB1680 SD2 HD1. At the EBM Committee, there were over 500 testimonies in support of Senate language that would finally resolve the long standing PEG access organizations controversy. The Senate language follows the recommendations of our own HCR 358 task force which recommended against the use of procurement and recommended proper and effective oversight by the cable regulator.

"The CPC Committee received over a thousand testimonies in support of keeping the Senate's PEG language in. While there are some technical corrections requested by the Administration and industry, no one has testified or requested that the PEG language be removed. The public has overwhelmingly spoken and it wants the PEG issue resolved with the rest of the broadband issues. I stand with the public and the people of Maui and support passage of this bill."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 1295, Senate Bill 295, Senate Draft 1, Relating to Transportation. This bill will allow high occupancy vehicle lanes to be used by hybrid and other energy-efficient vehicles including plug-in hybrid electric vehicles, regardless of the number of occupants.

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support for two reasons. First, this adds an incentive to purchase energy efficient vehicles. Energy-efficient vehicles, such as hybrid vehicles and plug-in hybrid vehicles, are gaining increased acceptance in the consumer market. These vehicles are being purchased in greater numbers and are becoming a more common sight on our roadways. The use of these vehicles not only reduces the consumption of fossil fuels, but also aids in the reduction of pollution, including greenhouse-gas emissions. Providing incentives for the purchase and use of these vehicles, such as allowing these vehicles to use HOV lanes regardless of the number of occupants, will benefit the environment and decrease the State's dependence on fossil fuels.

"Secondly, our HOV lanes are currently underutilized. By allowing energy efficient vehicles to use HOV lanes, we can get more cars out of general purpose lanes and improve the flow of traffic. This will be one part of a traffic solution to minimize the time spent on the road. For these reasons, I stand in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of S.B. 295 - Relating to Transportation. I introduced a similar measure as a freshman member of this Body and I am glad to see this bill is moving.

"Sierra Club says, "Hawaii is the most dependent state in the nation on imported oil. Some 50 million barrels are imported annually, nearly 80% of which originate from foreign sources. In addition, over 805,000 tons of coals are imported into our state. These sources provide power for over 92% of Hawaii's electricity generation. The combustion of these resources also contributes over 23 million tons of climate changing greenhouse gas into our atmosphere annually." Thank you."

No. 295, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, Herkes, McKelvey, Pine, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB718 SD1 to require the adoption of a statewide "complete streets" policy. This bill makes the modest requirement that all roads, streets and highways constructed or maintained by the State or counties make reasonable accommodation for convenient access and mobility for all users -- not just cars.

"While the Department of Transportation has testified that building complete streets would cost too much, sadly we see what it costs in terms of tragic pedestrian accidents, countless lost hours stuck in traffic, billions from the local economy thrown down the tube to foreign oil, and the marginalization of an estimated one third of the public that doesn't own a car. When we don't have complete streets, our streets are not safe for every user and our roads are not inviting for all modes of transportation.

"Contrary to DOT testimony, this is not a mandate without flexibility. SB718 includes reasonable exemptions for highways, for example, where bikes and pedestrians are prohibited, and for projects in sparsely populated areas that would cost too much for their low probable use. And the task force called for in the bill should help resolve some of the questions heard in the testimony and bring groups together.

"Mr. Speaker, I am very optimistic that complete streets will revitalize our communities simply because the policy requires we build what's missing, like street and sidewalk lighting, beautiful landscaping, feeder routes, and safe bikeways.

"Let's ensure our beautiful island towns and cities have complete streets. Through this simple policy, we will be improving safety, reducing car congestion, cutting the foreign oil habit and improving public health, just by encouraging walking and biking. I urge passage of SB718. Mahalo."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB 718, SD 1. I am in support of a Complete Streets policy for this State. The goal of Complete Streets is to make our public highways and trails accessible, convenient, and safe, not just for motorists, but also for a broad spectrum of other users, including pedestrians, bicyclists, transit users, and persons of all ages and abilities. A Complete Streets policy encourages alternative forms of transportation so that the people of Hawaii may come to rely less on their cars.

"Designing our streets to make room for pedestrians and bicyclists will produce many positive results for our State and our people. Making the option of walking or biking more readily available will promote healthy physical activity. The resulting decrease in cars on our roads will reduce our dependence on fossil fuels, reduce traffic congestion, and reduce vehicular air and noise pollution. A Complete Streets policy will make room for all of us on Hawaii's roads, thereby reducing the incidence of pedestrian and bicyclist injuries and fatalities. A Complete Streets policy promises to improve the quality of life for all of Hawaii's citizens. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"A 'no' vote, please, on 1277. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill where we give a break to lessees out at the airport, but we don't give a break to the others that are leasing State or county lands. It singles out one group for favorable treatment. Maybe there are compelling reasons, but in this time, there are compelling reasons, I think, for many other small business people. I just don't think this bill is fair.

"Now, we have the SuperFerry decision, so this may be looked at, as that kind of single issue, single focus legislation, and it may not even withstand judicial scrutiny. But, I think we're being unfair to all the others, at the expense of their operations, by giving this off to this one group. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations for S.B. 1224 - Relating to Airport Concessions. This bill would allow government to pick winners and losers in the economy by deciding how much rent concessions should pay based on their performance. Unprofitable concessions would then pay less rent that profitable ones. This is not fair to the profitable concessions. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. I'll be very brief because the Chair of EBM is not here, because I wanted to commend him for doing what otherwise would be impossible. This is a bill that says that if you buy a business, you've got to keep the employees, or at least those who are non-supervisory.

"But, he and the Vice Chair, in a very innovative way, have brought the two sides together. I like the spirit of bringing labor and management together. That's very, very well, and that's really why I wanted to stand to commend them about. Because it says that if you keep the employees, you get a 4% G.E.Tax holiday for a year.

"Now because this was a HD 1, I'm not sure whether business likes it, or labor likes it, but the fact that it's moving on, and it's creative, and it's in the spirit of trying to put a quarter of a loaf and a quarter of a loaf, and maybe you get a half of a loaf out of it. I wanted to stand to commend the Chair. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This measure addresses the concerns from constituents along the Waianae Coast who have been plagued by the only solid municipal landfill in the City and County of Honolulu. I had organized and held a series of three meetings with the community on their concerns about landfills for the past two years. Officials from the Department of Health were present to answer questions and provide resources to meeting attendees.

"Mr. Speaker, landfills have been a concern for the residents along the Waianae Coast for a very long time. This measure will force our City and County to look elsewhere if another solid municipal landfill is to be established. However, my hope is that discussions surrounding landfills will soon be the thing of the past and alternatives can be implemented when addressing waste. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise with reservations on this measure. First, this bill is a good example of bad public policy. I do understand the concerns of residents on the Leeward Coast. They have been burdened with the problem of waste for many years, and the health concerns are valid.

"This bill, however, places a moratorium on the construction of any new solid waste landfills and/or the expansion of any existing private solid waste landfills in the Waianae, Waialua, Koolaupoko and Koolauloa Districts. It does not mention Central Oahu, Mililani, Kunia or Wahiawa—all of which lie above the Pearl Harbor Aquifer.

"I was part of the effort to keep Mililani's water supply pure after pesticide contamination was found in 1986. I strongly oppose any policy which, intended or not, would permit any landfill over the Pearl Harbor Aquifer. I suggest this bill be amended or voted down."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 701, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANDFILLS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Chang, Herkes, McKelvey, Pine, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB 536, SD 1, HD 1, which calls for the development of a Statewide Starlight Reserve Strategy to preserve the quality of Hawaii's night sky. The night sky visible from Hawaii, the most isolated land mass on earth, is perhaps more spectacular than the night sky that can be viewed from anywhere else. It is a unique educational, scientific, cultural, environmental, health, and economic resource worth preserving for future generations.

"First, our night sky has important educational and scientific value. Our two astronomy observatories at Maunakea and Haleakala are world-renowned for the views of the heavens that they afford.

"Second, our night skyscape has irreplaceable value to our native peoples, who have relied on the stars to assist them with agricultural cycles, fishing cycles, and oceanic navigation. Younger generations who are now reviving Native Hawaiian cultural and traditional practices depend on the continued preservation of the night sky.

"Third, a naturally dark night sky is a valuable environmental and health resource. Endangered animals like Newell's shearwater birds and sea turtles can become disoriented by too much ambient night light.

"Lastly, there are a growing number of visitors who come to Hawaii to enjoy our unparalleled views of the heavens. These visitors constitute a tourist market we should cultivate.

"Hawaii is a unique place with natural resources found nowhere else in the world. This State should be at the forefront of worldwide efforts to preserve its view of the night sky. For all of these reasons, I stand in strong support of the Statewide Starlight Reserve Policy embodied in SB 536 SD 1 HD 1."

Represent Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I stand in strong support of this bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, what this bill does, is it requires DBEDT to develop an Advisory Committee to develop a Statewide Starlight Reserve Strategy and preserve the quality of the night sky, associated scientific, astronomical, natural, landscape related values.

"One of our prides and joy is the fact that we are one of the best places in the world for astronomy. That is a reflection of excellence in this State. And, what they came to tell us, is that the light from Maui and Oahu is traveling over to the Big Island, to Mauna Kea. And it is affecting the ability to see the astronomical constellations, etc. All the research that's going into that.

"What catches my attention, because I've been following this issue for some time, is that not only is light linked to problems with some of the natural behavior of our honu, but actually, they're finding more and more that it is detrimental to health of human beings. It interrupts the circadian rhythm of people. Even though you may have curtains, even though you may have all of this, it's linked to breast cancer and some other ailments.

"But more important, well, that's important too, but all three of the reasons, not only is it affecting one of our reflections of excellence, and it is bad for the natural environment and our health, but it costs a lot of money. And I would propose that if we were to, as there are initiatives coming out of Australia and New Zealand, to turn off your lights more often, and to be more judicious about when we're putting our nightlight's on, you would save a lot of money. You would save a lot of energy.

"And so, this is something that to me has a lot of merit, and I would just like to ask for additional written comments."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of S.B. 536 - Relating to Starlight Reserve. I believe the starlight reserve has a vast range of benefits to the State. The starlight reserve will produce energy savings by reducing wasteful use of light at night, improve glare from roadway lighting and preserve the ability of Hawaii's residents and visitors to view the beauty of the night sky.

"Richard Wainscoat, who works at the University of Hawaii Institute for Astronomy and as President of Commission 50 of the International Astronomical Union, states in his testimony that "Mauna Kea Observatory on the Island of Hawaii is arguably the best observing site on Earth. Haleakala Observatory on Maui is among the best observing sites in the Northern Hemisphere. Mauna Kea is threatened by light pollution. Haleakala already suffers from significant light pollution that comes both from Maui County and from Oahu. Much of it is unnecessary, and results from careless and wasteful use of light at night." Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 536, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STARLIGHT RESERVE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Chang, Herkes, McKelvey, Pine, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations to H.R. 67 – Urging State and Local Law Enforcement Officers to Abide by State Laws Relating to the Medical use of Cannabis. The law enforcement community is well abreast of Hawaii's current medical marijuana laws and I feel this measure might not be necessary. The Honolulu Police Department states in their testimony, "We are well aware of the medical marijuana law of this state and do not need a resolution to remind us of our obligation to obey the law."

"I also have concerns that this bill might send the wrong message to law enforcement. The Department of Public Safety says, "The Department feels that House Resolution 67 is not necessary and derogatory in nature to Hawaii's hard working law enforcement officers. For these reasons the department cannot support House Resolution 67 and ask that it be held." Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HR 67. Since the inception of Hawaii's cannabis program there has been a hostility towards the program and the patients by law enforcement. Recent testimony from the Maui Police Chief stated bluntly that he "did not support the program in its entirety".

"There have been dozens of anecdotal and many verified instances of illegal seizures and harassment by local law enforcement. For this worthy program to work patients must have faith that local law enforcement will honor and follow state law. This resolution is one small step in that direction. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram's written remarks are as follows:

"It has been universally accepted that eating more fruits and vegetables promotes better health due to the fiber and nutrients they contain and that eating more fruits and vegetables provide greater protection from a myriad of diseases from diabetes to cancer and heart disease later in life. Research has also shown that children who eat healthy meals score higher on tests.

"That said, there are increasing numbers of families eating vegetarian meals and it is unfair to place their children, or any child that chooses to adopt a vegetarian diet, at a disadvantage by not offering that option at their school cafeteria."

Representative Ching rose in support of both measures and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of H.C.R. 59 – Requesting the Board of Education to Develop a Policy to Offer Vegetarian Meals on a Regular Basis in All School Menu Plans. Hawaii has one of the highest rates of diabetes in the United States and I believe this measure will benefit the children of Hawaii by giving them healthier dietary options while they are in school.

"Sally Belles, who is a Registered Dietitian, states, "A poor diet leads to poor nutritional status and decreased performance in the academic setting for our school age children and teens. Research has shown that children, who eat a healthy, balanced breakfast score higher on standardized tests. In addition, childhood obesity is one of the most pressing public health and nutrition issues today, and has become the most common chronic disease in childhood. Specifically, it is associated with the growing incidence of type II diabetes, poor self-esteem, and poor health as adults.

"The American Dietetic Association and the Hawaii Dietetic Association recommended that there be greater emphasis on a "plant-based" diet including fruits, vegetables, whole grains, legumes and nuts. Plant-based diets are nutrient-dense and naturally low in total fat, saturated fat, trans-fat, cholesterol and sodium." Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of H.C.R. 63 – Urging the Governor to Include the Kukui Gardens Affordable Housing Project in the State's List of Shovel-Ready Projects for the President's Proposed Economic Stimulus Plan. Through the efforts of Governor Lingle, Senate President Colleen Hanabusa and Speaker Calvin Say half of the property of Kukui Gardens was able to be saved for affordable housing. Currently there are plans available to build units that accommodate the rest of the residence, but due to the current financial situation those plans have been unable to go forward.

It is a known situation that homeless from other states are being transported here. This is not for the situation where they come to Hawaii not being homeless, and then we're asking for this consideration. It's known through the law enforcement, as well as our homeless shelters, that people are being transported here and they are already homeless. Thank you."

Of the 23 names enrolled, 9 medals will be presented to the family and friends this afternoon.

"With your permission, Mr. Speaker, I would like to request that the House Members assemble in the Majority Caucus parlor at about 1:45 today, for escort over to the Senate by the Sergeant-at-Arms. And just for the Members' edification, because we're awarding nine medals, this should be a very brief, but touching ceremony. So, I hope all of you can attend. I'm sure it would mean a lot to the families.

"After the Ceremony, we'll also be having a reception with light refreshments, sponsored by the Legislature, for our special guests, and that will be in Conference Room 329. And of course, all legislators and their staff are invited to attend. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I hope to see everybody at about 1:45."

Representative Ward: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to make an announcement. As a member of the of the Minority, representing 6 out of 51, if I could include a footnote from the Representative from Idaho, who said they have 50 Republicans and 20 Democrats. The other side of the story is, they get paid $15,000 per year. $15,000. I just thought the Body would like to know that."

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess and the House of Representatives stood in recess, and in accordance with Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 2, met in Joint Session with the Senate, for the Hawaii Medal of Honor Ceremony.

The President addressed the Chamber, stating:

"This is indeed a momentous occasion. We honor members of the Armed Forces of the United States, with ties to Hawai‘i, who fought and died bravely, in a combat zone designated by Presidential Order.

"On behalf of House Speaker Say and all of the members of the Hawai‘i State Legislature, I convey our deepest condolences to our very special guests—the family, friends, and colleagues of loved ones who have lost their lives overseas in the Middle East. Our prayers are with you, and we are honored by your presence."

At this time, the members of the Senate, House, guests, and audience rose for the presentation of our Nation's and our State's Colors by the Joint Service Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard, Royal Guard. The singing of the National Anthem and Hawaii Pono'i was led by Mr. Eric Wahilani, thereafter the invocation was delivered by Master Sergeant Retired Raymond Ganotise.

President Hanabusa then addressed the Members, guests and audience as follows:

"As citizens of this great land, born with the freedom to speak, to believe and to dream, free to express personal thoughts without fear of recrimination or reprisal, to protest and participate in government, I am thankful to be a part of this ceremony in honor of our fallen heroes.

"In protecting all we treasure, in defending all we hold dear, and in preserving those values which distinguish us as proud Americans, no man and no woman stands sentry alone. We stand as a nation and a community, beside them in spirit and with them in a shared commitment.

"And just as surely as we will not see them stand alone, we will not allow them to fall alone. We stand together in their name, by pausing to reflect on the unshakable duty and unquenchable bravery that have marked their passage among us. We share the pride of countrymen, and share the tears of brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers and friends.

"Today, we gather in Joint Session to honor those who have made a sacrifice for which we cannot ask, and shall not forget. We honor the family, friends and colleagues who have also sacrificed, who have themselves paid a price, and who have helped make today’s honorees the brave, strong individuals that we called on and counted on to serve our nation.

"We offer this honor as a small token that can never in itself repay the honor that has been given us. An honor borne of courage, driven by duty, and paid for in loss.

"The roll of heroes that we call today is more than a list of names. It is an acknowledgement of a community.

"The Hawai‘i Medal of Honor is reserved for those who have touched our islands, and have felt the touch of our people. And in offering it to those gathered here, in memory of those who have fallen, we recognize that they are a part of us. For each and every one of you, your tears are our tears. Your loss, our loss. Your pride, our pride. Wherever each of these medals finds its final home, a piece of our hearts goes with it. You will always be a part of our 'ohana, our family, because you have brought us honor, and allowed us to share these lives.

"These medals symbolize our aloha. Our farewell to those we have lost. But also our love for those who have lived among us, touched us, and sacrificed for us. And our enduring welcome for all represented here today, the fallen and their families, who will be counted among us forever.

"A grateful state best honors and remembers the sacrifices of these who have served our nation by living our lives in deepest appreciation of our freedom. That is what they defended. That is what they fought and died for.

"In reflecting on another day marked with great bravery and great sacrifice, Shakespeare wrote, "This story shall the good man teach his son." We owe no less a duty to our honorees and to future generations. These names and deeds shall remain etched in our State's shared history. And we will each say to a companion, young or old, at a moment of great pride or great sadness, "I have heard a story of brave Americans."

"Today, we remember, in moments of quiet reflection, each and every one of these heroes. We stand united to honor their memory and express our profound gratitude for their ultimate sacrifice.

"Mahalo."

At this time, the President of the Senate introduced the following state, congressional and military leaders seated on the floor of the Senate:

Representing the Hawai'i Army National Guard, Colonel Joe Logan, and Mrs. Gaylene Logan.

The President called upon the Honorable Linda Lingle to deliver her remarks as follows:

"Lieutenant Governor Aiona, President Hanabusa, Speaker Say, Legislators, Major General Lee, and all of our special guests here today, Aloha.

"We're gathered for a somber purpose. These soldiers who are no longer with us represent a profound loss for their families, for our State, and for our nation. However, I am grateful for this opportunity to recognize these soldiers who died for our freedom, and to express my personal and our collective gratitude to their loved ones. It's a privilege to help present the Hawaii Medal of Honor to families of these 23 heroes.

"Honor is a rare and precious quality. Honor is something that is earned. As Calvin Coolidge said, "No person was ever honored for what he received. Honor has been the reward for what he gave." These soldiers gave their country their very best. They paid the ultimate price, and the Hawaii Medal of Honor represents just a very small token of our very deep appreciation.

"The military has a long history here in our community. Soldiers have protected our people and our shores. They've also defended democracy abroad. This legacy of service is epitomized by Nisei soldiers in the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, 100th Battalion, and the Military Intelligence Service.

"In October of this past year, I was privileged to visit members of today's military training at Fort Hood. This included National Guard soldiers from our 29th Brigade Combat team, and the Army Reserves 442nd Infantry. It's important that soldiers know how much the people of Hawaii respect their service. That we will continue to support their families until their safe return. When soldiers don't return, our responsibility to their families is even greater.

"I was very touched recently by a ceremony in my office by an organization called, The Home of the Brave Quilt. They made a presentation to Deyson Cariaga's mother, Theresa Inouye. You all remember that we honored Deyson here with a Hawaii Medal of Honor in 2006. I was there that day, and I was with Deyson's mother right after he died, and I was with her when she received the quilt. And it was incredibly meaningful to her, because she said it showed that the community hadn't forgotten about her son, or about her loss.

"Every service member we are honoring today, regardless of where he was born, was a beloved member of our 'ohana. I appreciate that many of you have traveled from the Neighbor Islands and from the mainland United States to be with us today. You are a part of our 'ohana as well. The people of Hawaii join you in sorrow and in praise for your loved ones' courage and bravery.

"The poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow wrote movingly of fallen soldiers. In poem, he wrote:

Your silent tents of green,
We deck with fragrant flowers;
Yours has the suffering been,
The memory shall be ours.

"I know that each of you consider it a privilege to have known these soldiers during your lives. Whether as a wife, a mother, a father, a brother, a sister, a cousin, a friend, or a fellow soldier. Our collective privilege as a state and as a nation is that we were able to benefit from their service. Their memories will live on through you. And they will live on in the proud tradition of service that they perpetuated.

"The rights and freedoms we enjoy are precious gifts that your loved ones gave their lives to protect, and we will never forget.

"Mahalo, God bless you all, and God bless America."

President Hanabusa then called upon Major General Robert Lee to deliver his remarks on behalf of the military as follows:

"Good afternoon and aloha. I want to take this opportunity to recognize a key individual who can't be here today. A person instrumental in establishing this award and this ceremony, State Representative Mark Takai. Representative Takai is currently Major Mark Takai, United States Army, serving in Camp Arifjan, Kuwait. So Mark, I hope you are watching through the Internet. It's only 3:30 in the Middle East. It's time to get up anyway.

"Mark was mobilized this past February, and is currently serving as the Civil Affairs Officer on the staff of the 29th Infantry Brigade Combat Team, and we look forward to his return and all of the soldiers of Hawaii's 29th Brigade this summer.

"The ceremony has been held annually since 2006 to honor the ultimate sacrifice of our heroes with ties to Hawaii. This is the time when the civilian and military community in Hawaii can bond together in a spirit of shared sacrifice and recognition. From the thousands who have answered our nation's call to duty, we honor today 23 members of the United States Army and the United States Marine Corps who gave their last full measure.

"While it may be difficult for civilians to understand the world in which the military inhabits, I certainly appreciate very much how our civilian community in Hawaii supports our troops. From the many care packages sent to our troops overseas, to the genuine appreciation expressed to our troops at the airports and restaurants across the State. Mahalo.

"Everyone who puts on the uniform and takes the oath to support and defend our Constitution, knows that he or she may be called upon to put their life on the line. There is an inherent risk involved in service to our nation. It is one of the few professions where, perspective employees are told they will be challenged to the limits of their physical and mental stamina. They may be asked to perform their jobs in dangerous locations. And maybe, they might not come back. In spite of the risks, we are just so fortunate that thousands volunteered to serve in the Armed Forces of the Unites States.

"And I have personally witnessed in Iraq, Afghanistan, and trouble spots throughout the world, the finest sons and daughters America has ever produced, so we are most saddened when we lose one of our own.

"The State Medal of Honor is Hawaii's way to remember their ultimate sacrifice. To show our appreciation to their families, to share in their loss, and to assure them they will always be part of this State's 'ohana, this State's family.

"The k*alo*, or taro leaves, in the Medal, is emblematic of the embrace of the people of Hawaii. Whether the fallen Soldier, Marine, Sailor, Airman or Coastguardsman grew up in Hawaii or were members of units based in Hawaii, he is still embraced as part of our 'ohana.

"Following America's tradition in past wars, a gold star was often displayed in the window to let the entire neighborhood know that the life of a hero who had grown up here had been taken. Today the gold star in the Medal's Coat of Arms represents the 50th State star on the American flag, and also represents the person who is being honored today.

"The attachment device in the red and yellow ribbon is a rendering of the ancient puela, or flag, that the Hawaiians raised at sea above the sail of their canoes. All who saw the puela from afar knew that a person of the highest rank or honor was coming. Today this service ribbon and its puela will remind us that these families are of the highest rank and honor.

"There is no greater sacrifice a family can make than the loss of their Soldier, Sailor, Marine, Airman or Coastguardsman, while in service to our nation.

"And there is no greater honor where the people of Hawaii can bestow upon them to symbolize the sacrifice. So to the families of our fallen heroes, I humbly ask that you accept this Hawaii Medal of Honor on behalf of the people of Hawaii who today and forever, shall be your devoted 'ohana.

"May God bless all of you, and may God bless the United States of America."

At this time, Members of the Hickam Base Honor Guard proceeded with a 21-gun Salute and the playing of Taps outside the Senate Chamber in the Capitol Rotunda, which was then followed by a moment of silence.

Speaker Say then gave his closing remarks as follows:

"On this most hallowed day, I am reminded of the eloquent Memorial Day remarks offered by the late Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes in 1884 that continue to ring true today:

Such hearts were stilled twenty years ago—and to us, who remain behind, is left this day of memories. Every year, in the full tide of spring, at the height of the symphony of flowers and love and life—there comes a pause, and through the silence we hear the lonely pipe of death. Year after year, the comrades of the dead follow, with public honor, procession, and commemorative flags and funeral march. Honor and grief from us, who stand almost alone, and have seen the best and noblest of our generation pass away.

"The pain of losing the best and the most valiant is raw and unrelenting. I hope you will find some consolation in understanding that our young men and women of the United States Armed Forces died a noble death. They died to ensure that no further harm may reach our shores. They sacrificed their lives to protect their loved ones at home. They perished defending the American ideals of democracy, liberty, and justice.

"There is a high cost that comes with conflict. Over 200 servicemen and women with Hawaii ties have been lost in Iraq and Afghanistan. Many more have returned wounded, both in body and in spirit. The survivors bear emotional and physical scars that most of us can never fully feel or know.

"It is often said that nothing that is of value in this world comes without a price. Well, our soldiers have paid that price a hundredfold. And for those who are still paying for the wages of war, the people of the State of Hawaii are in your debt.

"How do we turn our collective sorrow into positivity? How do we honor them? We can commit ourselves to remain true to the spirit of the deceased. Be involved in the activities he or she enjoyed that are greater than our own self-interest. Put family and community above personal gain. Live a life enriched with the aloha spirit, with pono or balance, with maika'i , goodness and wellness, and ho'okipa, hospitality.

"Live life as if it were a gift.

"Finally, with the recently announced troop reductions in the Middle East, we can rededicate our efforts to do whatever we can to make sure that all of our sons and daughters are brought home as quickly as possible. For where we love is home; home that our feet may leave, but not our hearts. Ultimately, all the soldiers should be home, with their loved ones. And for those who did not find their way home, please take some solace in knowing that their hearts and spirits are at home, where they have always belonged, with you.

"It is my greatest hope that one day, it will no longer be necessary for us to come together every spring to memorialize the fallen. My greatest wish is for the Hawaii Medal of Honor to retire quietly into history, a poignant, but obsolete relic of a past that no longer burdens us.

"I conclude with the final passage from Justice Holmes' speech. His words echo my own hope for a brighter future replete with peace, harmony, charity, respect, and love.

But grief is not the end of all. Our dead brothers and sisters still live for us, and bid us think of life, not death. As I listen, the great chorus of life and joy begins again, and amid the awful orchestra of seen and unseen powers and destinies of good and evil, our trumpets sound once more a note of daring, hope, and will.

"To all of you, Aloha."

The Speaker of the House of Representatives then called on the Joint Service Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard, Royal Guard for the retiring of the Colors, and at 2:58 o'clock p.m., declared the Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives adjourned.

Symbolism of the Hawaii Medal of Honor

The Hawaii Medal of Honor was designed by Sergeant First Class Aaron Pollick from the Hawaii Army National Guard. This medal consists of the following six components, superimposed on each other:

Circle of Kalo Leaves: The kalo leaves represent the family or Ohana. The leaves are designed in an encircled fashion and represents the concept of Ohana, which we strive to embrace.

Coat of Arms: The Great Shield is the keystone of the design. The eight bars represent the eight major islands of the State of Hawaii. The kapu sticks, or Pulo'ulo'u, symbolize authority and protection. The star in the center of the medallion is the Star of Hawaii, the 50th star on the flag of the United States. This star also represents the honorees of this prestigious award.

Maltese Cross: The Maltese Cross represents the four directional axes of the globe, denoting Hawaii as the Crossroads of the Pacific.

Sun Rays: The irradiant sun is symbolic of the new era. Its position in the center of the Maltese Cross represents our sunny shores and warm hearts ever shining on all the corners of the world.

The Neck Drape: The neck drape is red and golden yellow in color. These colors symbolize the royal monarchy that once ruled these islands. The red represents courage and strength. The golden yellow depicts the honor that the recipients have brought to our islands.

Service Ribbon & Attachment: The service ribbon represents distinguished service. Its colors are identical to the colors of the neck drape. The attachment device at the middle of the ribbon is an ancient flag or puela of Hawaiian Chiefs. In olden times, the puela was raised above the sail of the ancient Hawaiians' canoes while at sea. Our puela signifies that the person receiving this medal is of high rank or honor.

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to offer my reservations regarding House Concurrent Resolution 36, which would request the Auditor to conduct a comprehensive financial audit of all federal funds designated for healthcare received by the Department of Human Services (DHS).

"Mr. Speaker, I question the need for this Resolution at this time. Given our current budget crisis we must undoubtedly give particular oversight to our State government to ensure that each department spends prudently. However, DHS is already thoroughly audited by the federal government in order to maintain its current level of federal funding. Moreover, under its current leadership, DHS has demonstrated a propensity for finding further sources of federal revenue. Under Director Lillian Koller, DHS has brought $175 million of new federal funding into the Department's budget.

"As DHS has already demonstrated that it is fiscally sound, I believe this Resolution is unneeded and would be a waste of State resources, especially given the limits of our means in this budgetary period. Thus I submit my reservations.

"Thank you for this opportunity to offer my reservations to this measure."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Standing Committee Report No. 1424, Senate Bill 715, House Draft 1, Relating to Transportation. SB 715 HD1 is the companion bill to House Bill 865 which I introduced, and which is a recommendation of the 2007 Interim Task Force on Smart Growth Development. This bill would require the Statewide Transportation Council to comply with county transportation-related plans, county general plans, and all community, development, or community development plans adopted pursuant to the county general plan, to the extent that compliance does not affect the receipt of federal funds.

"Improving coordination between the State and counties is critical to ensure our major backbone infrastructure is planned, funded and constructed in a timely basis. As transportation funding begins to shrink at the federal level, it is important to coordinate our efforts at the State and county levels to maximize our returns.

"While the Island of Oahu has the Oahu Metropolitan Planning Organization (OMPO) to set its priorities, the Department of Transportation (DOT) sets the Statewide Transportation Improvement Program, or STIP, for the Neighbor Islands. This bill will ensure that the DOT will take into account county transportation and general plans to ensure consistency and to eliminate conflict with county plans when the STIP is implemented. Furthermore, by providing consistency between the STIP and county plans, Hawai`i will have more effective transportation systems that will better meet the transportation needs of Hawai`i's citizens.

"Mr. Speaker, as we know Hawai`i has a finite amount of land, and our development decisions will continue to affect us as our population continues to grow which is why I continue to advocate for smart growth development. SB 715, HD 1, will ensure that our transportation-related plans will be cohesive and comprehensive.

"Finally, I would like to thank Senator English for introducing this Senate bill on my behalf. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 715, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of these two measures. As you know, traffic congestion is a major problem, negatively affecting the quality of life for thousands of residents who live in Ewa, and all of Leeward Oahu.

"The establishment of a ferry operation in Hoakalei's planned marina would be a wonderful and much-needed alternative form of transportation that would help to alleviate traffic congestion. The ferry would increase mobility, and get people out of their cars and to their downtown destinations efficiently.

"The ferry would also be providing a multi-modal transportation system needed in West Oahu in order to service this rapidly growing area. We believe that a ferry operation should be an integral part of that system.

"I urge your support of these measures and request that they be passed out of Committee, which would encourage the State Department of Transportation to engage in and facilitate discussions with the City and County of Honolulu Department of Transportation Services, private developers, and other stakeholders to explore the possibility of establishing a ferry operation from the Hoakalei Resort and Marina to downtown Honolulu."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Unfortunately, I need to vote against 1451 and 1452. And, I have some comments that last night, a bunch of Veterans asked me to read. What these resolutions do, is urge the State of Hawaii to change the street name of Fort Barrette Road in the Kapolei/Ewa area to Kualaka'i Road.

"In 1999, many attempts were made by Hawaiian activists to change the names of the streets at the former Barbers Point Station, to all Hawaiian names, after succeeding in changing the name of the area to Kalaeloa.

"Veterans groups, members of Ewa, Ewa Beach, Makakilo, and Filipino residents voiced opposition. Filipinos were sensitive to keeping those historic World War II street names, as many were relevant to the battles in the Philippines, such as Corregidor, Bataan, and the Philippine Sea.

"The Barbers Point Redevelopment Commission did not rename the street names. In 2000 and 2001, activists introduced these bills to change the street names again, and again the people rallied opposing changing the street names. Former Representatives Romy Cachola and Ezra Kanoho, both held their versions of these bills in their Committees.

"Fort Barrette was named after a General during World War II. He was a General who served honorably in the United States Army, and for whom a fort was named that protected the coast of the Island of Oahu from any ship-borne invasion. It was a fort that suffered casualties, as a result of an attack on American soil by the Japanese.

"According to many of the Veterans that have been emailing me, and this is all last night, and I've talked to the introducers. I'm sure they reviewed some of this information as well. The reason why this is such an important area to a lot of the Veterans, at least in my community in Ewa Beach, and why they've been calling me is, Fort Barrette Road saw action on December 7th, 1941, when the roadway was destroyed by Japanese Zeroes and 'Val' dive-bombers during the attack on Pearl Harbor.

"This attack on Fort Barrette, an Ewa Field Marine Base, lasted only one hour in a series of three waves. This area of Oahu saw more continuous strafing than any other area during the Pearl Harbor raid, due to the fact that the Japanese air units used this Ewa area for their staging and regrouping point.

"So, as you can imagine, there are a lot of people who don't want to see the name changed, and just asked me today to voice their opinions for them."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition, and I thank my colleague from Ewa Beach for pointing out those facts. With respect to the Veterans and the history of Hawaii, I'm asking my colleagues to vote 'no' as well. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, like most people, all of us generally don't have Floor debate as a time to make up our mind. Sometimes we don't even listen, but this time I think it's pretty convincing, the debt of gratitude that we owe Filipino Veterans. This is just one small gesture that we could have to say, 'Yes, we remember you because you remember the street as it was.' And all the other streets, if they want to be Hawaiian, fine, but if this is the one exception, I think we should agree with that out of respect for them. Thank you."

Representative Sagum rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I think the person who testified, the Hawaiian consultant who testified at the hearing, correctly identified how the canoes came from Tahiti, and they landed in this area. And, he really talked about a lot of cultural aspects of what the land holds, and why the name is appropriate. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. One of the comments from the Minority Floor Leader really struck me, and that this was former Barbers Point, that it's now returning to the people. And I believe that this discussion is a really good one on what is the future of Barbers Point, and what does it really mean to return it back to the people.

"I do honor veterans. I was the former Chair of Military Affairs. I believe we should honor them continually, and it could be very appropriate to have a memorial out there for Fort Barrette. There were all kinds of veterans who actually served there, and all the armed services should be honored out there. This Body should definitely support memorials, but I believe the Representative from Kauai really pointed out there's a huge history to that area, far before the military ever came there. So I strongly support this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. And again, this is not to disrespect the Hawaiian community at all. I think Pearl Harbor is probably one of the most significant events that ever happened in this past century, and one of the top monuments in the world that people visit in terms of a war area.

"There's currently a petition to the United States, and to the President, to make this very same area another memorial. I guess it's just a clash between cultures right now. And that's why in voting 'no.' I feel that we should tread a little lighter on this, and have a little bit more community discussion within the communities that are affected, with the Hawaiian groups and the Veterans groups. Because even if this passes today, it's like the whole House of Representatives is saying that we don't want it to be called Fort Barrette Road anymore."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I wasn't going to speak on these Resolutions since I don't sit on the Transportation Committee. However, I was raised in Ewa Beach, and like my good colleague from Kauai said, the information that was provided in the Committee, there's a lot of history.

"If we're going to do memorials, let's talk about the host culture that's always forgotten. Let's go back to when our ancestors were first ones here. So, Mr. Speaker, with my whole heart, I ask that this Body supports these Resolutions. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I too do not sit on the Transportation Committee, but the Kauai delegation from the House of Representatives was invited to the Hawaiian Civics Clubs Convention on Kauai this past summer. At that convention, this was one of their number one priorities for the thousands of members of the Hawaiian Civic Clubs throughout this State. So, Mr. Speaker, again, in strong support. Mahalo."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I thank the Representative from Ewa Beach for bringing this to my attention, and I think we should remember General Barrette. I do not want to disrespect the host culture. Perhaps we can name Kualalaka'i Road on another street, or a school, or some other fitting place, like a park. So, I think we can 'have our cake and eat it too.' Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to rise with strong reservations, because to me, what I've always felt in our beautiful culture, one of our attributes, one of the strengths of our culture is that we are always able to accommodate and blend. To me, history is all about everybody. It's about everybody, and definitely our host culture. Hopefully we can coexist. It's one of our strengths. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the Resolutions. Mr. Speaker, Fort Barrette was originally known as Fort Kapolei. The construction of Fort Kapolei was opposed by both the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and civilian contractors, but not withstanding this opposition, the Army Corp of Engineers proceeded with its construction.

"Fort Kapolei eventually had its name changed to Fort Barrette in 1934, after Brig. General John Barrette. However, little is really known of Brig. General John Barrette. Changing of the name Fort Barrette to Kualaka'i is not proposed out of disrespect or disloyalty. Instead, the Resolutions were introduced out of respect for the land. The street referred to as Fort Barrette was an ancient Hawaiian trail for over 1,000 years. As the State formally changed the name of Barbers Point to Kalaeloa upon the closure of Barbers Point, many in my district believe it is appropriate to change the name of Fort Barrette Road to Kualaka'i Road, to celebrate the rebirth and renewal of our new great City of Kapolei.

"As we designate the names of our streets, we must consider what would best honor Hawaii's history. Moreover, I do remind the opponents of this measure, that the Department of Transportation in its testimony stated that it would be willing to rename Fort Barrette Road, provided that the community supported the proposed new name change. Community members have voiced opinions, both for and against the name change. All opinions on the issue are welcome and necessary to continue the dialog on how best to preserve the rich cultural and military history of Kapolei.

"It is my hope we can work together as a community to reach consensus on how best to preserve our history. Until consensus can be reached, the street name will not be changed. Hawaiian Civics Clubs who had been working to malama the land, hope that the opponents of these Resolutions will work with our Hawaiian Civics Clubs towards this endeavor.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, symbolically, ulu refers to rebirth or life renewal. Kapolei is a growing city. This name change will help define the future of Kapolei as its growth as a new city. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose in support of both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose in opposition to both measures and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HR87/HCR108.

"In addition to my comments made on the House Floor, I would like to submit comments made from a constituent, Mr. Earl Arakaki regarding the reasons that the name, Ft. Barrette Road, should not be changed. His arguments are as follows of which I am in agreement and offer my colleagues to consider:

I rise in opposition to HR87 that changes the name of Fort Barrette Road [1] to Kualakai. This resolution has nothing to do with just changing a name, it is an attempt to change the history of the area. We have all ready changed historic names like Barbers Point and Dillingham Airfield when will we stop trying to erase history?[2]

Fort Barrette was one of a series of Forts that defended Pearl Harbor from enemy warships. Before the advent of radar, large naval guns depended on lines of position to determine the range of a target. Fort Ruger, Fort DeRussey, Ft. Kamehameha, Ft. Weaver and Fort Barrette all provided line of sights to provide to the gunners a range at which to fire their 16 inch guns. They served us well since because of this defense, Pearl Harbor was never attacked by warships. During the attacks on Pearl Harbor by enemy aircraft, Fort Barrette defended Ewa Marine Corps air Station with it's anti aircraft battery and at least one soldier was killed at Fort Barrette by Japanese aircraft while defending the airfield.

Fort Barrette Road served the fort by allowing for the movement of men and ammunition from the nearby Oahu railroad. Without the existence of Fort Barrette Road, the Fort itself could not have survived or performed it¹s function of defense. The road is as historic as the Fort itself and has served with honor since the early 1920s.

To now change the name is to dishonor our valiant men and women who are serving and dying in 2 wars, the one in Afghanistan and in Iraq. There is a saying in the military ³leave no one behind.² Not only does this apply to bodies on the battlefield but also to the memory of those killed in battle in the defense of our country. Fort Barrette and Fort Barrette Road honor those brave men and women who are now just memories to their loved ones. [3] Many soldiers, sailors and marines and airmen have fought and died in the wars we face today and some have earned our highest military honor, the United States Medal of Honor, are we to disrespect them today by changing the name of a historic road? We have honored them in this very body with a state medal of honor and proclamations from our legislature was that gesture so meaningless that at the first opportunity we alter history to which they were a part of?

HR87 even states that ³Kualakai was a trail that paralleled Ft. Barrette Road.² It never connected with Fort Barrette Road and yet we seek to change the name just because Fort Barrette Road happens to be nearby and is a military name. Why do we not show respect for both names and seek a trail marker and monument for Kualakai trail rather than erase one history for another.

At the House Transportation Committee hearing on April 1, 2009 there were 16 people who provided testimony opposing the street name change. One group in opposition was the Oahu Veterans Council that has 35 veterans organizations with 80,000 member veterans. At the Committee hearing there were only 2 that gave testimony in favor of the change. Why do we hold hearings if we are not going to side with the majority?

If we change the history that is Fort Barrette Road why should we not change all other roads named for the military like, Fort Weaver Road, Fort DeRussey and even Nimitz Highway?

I ask that particularly at this time when our men and women are dying for our freedoms that they not be dishonored. Let us work together to remember both Kualakai and Fort Barrette rd. and not choose one over the other.

Please vote no for HR87.

NOTES

[1] Fort Barrette Road, named after United States Army Brigadier General John D. Barrette.

[2] Such as was done by the 2001 Legislature which approved the changing of the name of Dillingham Airfield, to Kawaihapai. Dillingham Airfield was named honoring World War Two Captain Henry Gaylord Dillingham, Captain Dillingham was not simply the son of Walter H. Dillingham, and Grandson of Benjamin Dillingham, he was much more. Captain Dillingham was a B-29 pilot who was killed in action over Kawasaki, Japan on July 25, 1945, giving his life defense of our country.

[3] who trained at the former Naval Air Station Barbers Point, now renamed Kalaeloa, for many the last sight of United States soil prior to being sent of to World War II in the Pacific, Korean War, and Viet Nam, never to return."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of both measures with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations to H.C.R. 108 – Urging the State of Hawaii To Change The Street Name of Fort Barrette Road To Kualaka'i Road. As Founder of the Heritage Caucus I have a great appreciation for history and heritage and believe in the accurate portrayal of past events. However, let us beware that while this particular site is sacred and perhaps worthy of a name change, future street changes should scrutinized, handled on case-by-case basis with close and careful attention to history.

"Both Hawaiian history and American history are important, and deserve a place in our books, schoolrooms, and yes, even our street signs. Fort Barrette served an important role in Oahu's defense up to and following World War II. Though the Fort itself no longer exists, its contribution is remembered only by this short stretch of road called Fort Barrette Road. Changing the name of Fort Barrett Road will erase the last traces of the service and sacrifice of those who served at Fort Barrette in times of national need. Therefore, I agree that a statue or other signage is in order to preserve the memory of Fort Barrette. One of the most important things about history is that it is preserved and protected for future generations and I have concerns that this measure may open up the flood gates for the changing of street signs across the State, beyond Kapolei.

"Additionally, we must ask the question, is this the right time to be implementing changes to street names? Are there other ways to honor the many histories of places? In changing street signs, maps will need to be changed, stationery, etc. and there are costs to all of this. To be considered is that the State's economy is in a downturn. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. "Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to offer my support for Senate Bill 574 Senate Draft 1, which would extend the condominium dispute resolution pilot project until June 2011.

"Mr. Speaker, the program has demonstrated considerable success in being able to resolve disputes within condominium associations. Hawaii Kai has numerous such associations, providing my community with the ability to better resolve issues that could otherwise only be handled through expensive legal action. I think this program is a great example of government working to provide a positive service to the community. I believe that this program should be extended to provide a further benefit to our State, perhaps one day leading to a full scale program. With that, I offer it my full support.

"Thank you for this opportunity to offer my support to this measure."

FINAL READING

Representative B. Oshiro moved to agree to the amendments made by the Senate to H.B. No. 520, HD 1, (SD 1), seconded by Representative Evans and carried. (Representatives Awana, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Nishimoto, M. Oshiro and Takai were excused.)

H.B. No. 520, HD 1, SD 1:

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.B. No. 520, HD 1, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I guess this is the last time that I will rise, still in lonely opposition. Just two reasons why I oppose House Bill 520, House Draft 1, Senate Draft 1. It's a repeal of the Act. And I've said this before, that I'm truly in support of revising it, or amending it. But in repealing the Act, I'm not sure that we recognize also what this means.

"In conversation with people who are still building, and in conversation with SHPD further understanding of how to implement Act 228 resulted in much change, and making sure that the problems that initially started, because of the way it was being interpreted, are no longer there. I've had architects come up to me and say that now things are whizzing through. It's okay.

"Number two, I think this was said in the *Honolulu Advertise*r by an architect, that it's hard when there's not a single photograph to even record the history of some of these buildings that are truly unique within the world, because they are a blend. That is again, our legacy. It's our blend. There is nowhere else in the world where you might find a complete blend. There is Japanese architecture in Japan, or European architecture in Europe. But nowhere else in the world is it the blend. It's kind of like our President. He's a blend. That's what makes him kind of intriguing too.

"So, the thing is, lastly, what was relayed to me was that the State of Hawaii is very remiss in what they call, surveying and having a record, as compared to other regions in the U.S. And that is one of the reasons why we cannot apply for certain grants, because we don't have this adequate inventory, and this would add to that. So, basically, we're saying 'no' to more money.

"So, with that, that's my final speech. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. I believe that Act 228 could have been amended to just limit it to significant historical buildings, as opposed to a total repeal. I'm passionate about keeping the Act, because I have a historical district. I hope that when we bring this matter back again, that we could put in the right language, so we can go on with historical preservation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. Just wanted to explain my 'no' vote briefly. I think we lose a lot by not taking photographs of older buildings that we're knocking down, for one reason or another. I think we're 'throwing the baby out with the bathwater.' The original bill did have serious flaws, but considering the ease with which you can take pictures now with digital cameras and the importance of remembering our heritage through architecture, as well as in other ways, I think we would have been better off just amending, as opposed to repealing it completely. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 520, HD 1, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUILDINGS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Ching and Rhoads voting no, and with Representatives Awana, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Nishimoto and Takai being excused.

At 1:10 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 520, HD 1, SD 1

At 1:10 o'clock p.m. Representative Carroll requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:11 o'clock p.m.

At this time Representative Carroll moved to suspend the rules to recall S.B. No. 1085, SD 2, HD 1, seconded by Representative Shimabukuro.

At 1:11 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:16 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Prior to the recess, Members of the House, there was a motion that was to suspend the rules to recall a measure out of a particular Committee. So, the main motion before this Body is to suspend the rules, which is a non-debatable procedural motion.

"I shared with the Majority Caucus and the Minority Caucus, that we will be doing a roll call vote on this, so we don't have to do a division of the House. This is not going to be a voice vote. So, for those who support the suspension of the rules, you will vote 'aye.' For those who do not support the suspension, vote 'nay.'

"So, Representative Aquino, being the first Member that will be called upon, you know the script. I just want to make sure you are awake. You're awake. So, Madam Clerk, at this time, please call the roll."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to suspend the rules to recall S.B. No. 1085, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CEDED LANDS," was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes: 15: Belatti, Berg, Bertram, Brower, Carroll, Ching, Coffman, Finnegan, Hanohano, C. Lee, Luke, Pine, Saiki, Shimabukuro and Thielen.

Noes: 28: Aquino, Cabanilla, Chong, Choy, Evans, Har, Ito, Karamatsu, M. Lee, Magaoay, Manahan, Marumoto, Mizuno, Morita, Nakashima, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Rhoads, Sagum, Say, Souki, Takumi, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward, Wooley, Yamane and Yamashita.

Excused: 8: Awana, Chang, Herkes, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Nishimoto, Takai and Wakai.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, from time to time, I rise to bring some international event or news. As we know, President Obama is now in Europe, and tomorrow, the 4th of April marks Liberation Day for Hungary. Hungary, in 1945, was liberated from the Nazis.

"And, the other significant event is that Hungary led the fall of communism by opening its border with Austria, in 1989. The last thing that we should note is that Budapest is the 15th most popular destination in the world. Next to Hawaii, of course. There's no comparison, but it's a beautiful city. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Brower: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have an important birthday announcement for one of our Representatives today. I didn't want to make this announcement, because I would have to admit to being his friend, so I asked 49 other legislators, and they all turned me down, Mr. Speaker.

"This is a big birthday announcement. He's the Representative who put the letters ME in the word, 'metrosexual.' And he put the letters ME in the phrase, 'What's in it for me?' When he's not in the Chamber, he's upstairs sharing makeup tips with his staff. We're used to seeing this Representative in drag, and today he's wearing his favorite pink shirt and matching boxers. A big hand for Representative Scott Nishimoto, please."

Representative Morita: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think lunch is still being served in Room 329. I'm not sure if the honorees are still there, but I think we have food. Thank you."

ADJOURNMENT

At 2:23 o'clock p.m. on motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 12:00 o'clock noon Monday, April 6, 2009. (Representatives Awana, Chang, Herkes, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Nishimoto, Takai and Wakai were excused.)

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to offer my support for HCR 158/HR126, which will strongly urge the United States Congress and the Department of Interior to provide additional federal aid to migrants from the Compact of Free Association nations. It should be noted that migrants from the Compact of Free Association nations are currently proportionally over-represented in the population of persons who receive various State social services in Hawaii. It has been estimated that social, educational and health services for Micronesians in Hawaii cost the State approximately $90 million, but only about $10 million of this is presently reimbursed by the federal government. In order to more adequately provide funding for these migrants, I support HR 126 and HCR 158 which urges the passing of federal legislation to amend the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 to allow the Compact of Free Association migrants to once again receive federally funded financial and medical assistance.

"It is my belief that the passing of federal legislation to provide federal funded social services and medical services for these migrants provides a more equitable and stable distribution of the financial responsibility for social services provided in the State of Hawaii. Thank you for this opportunity to offer my support for this measure."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Testimony strongly opposing this measure was submitted by the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs and the Department of Human Services. They clearly outline the concerns that I have regarding SB 940 SD1 HD1. There are warnings that the bill, "…is disadvantageous to the establishment of any new health plans, including existing health care organizations that are interested in offering a plan in a different program. The result is decreased competition. Competition has been demonstrated to increase quality, which benefits clients, and increase value, which benefits taxpayers. This bill places special interests above those of vulnerable clients and Hawaii taxpayers." This is of great concern to me. This could easily spell further difficulty for people here in Hawaii who already face enormous challenges in regard to healthcare.

"The Department of Human Services further warns that, "In our most recent experience with QExA, hospitals were not willing to execute a contract until 11 months after the health plans were awarded the contract from the State. Had this bill been in effect, the QExA program would not have been able to be implemented and have further caused our most vulnerable low-income population to continue to fall through the cracks of a fragmented fee-for-service program." I believe that we should make accurate assessments that particularly ensure that the most vulnerable of our communities are not placed under greater stress or laden with heavier burdens. In this light I have reservations about the passing of this measure."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations to S.B. 940 – which Requires direct payment for the provision of pre-hospital ambulance treatment and transport services. The measure requires insurance entities contracting with the State to provide Medicaid coverage to enter into written contracts with a minimum of 50 percent of hospitals and providers in their coverage area.

"I have concerns that this bill might cause the State to take on new costs and that the State would end up involved in private sector negations. The Department of Human Services states in their testimony, "Part II of this bill would result in State interference in private sector negations and decrease healthy competition resulting in decreased quality of care for clients and decreased value to Hawaii taxpayers." Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 940, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that S.B. No. 58, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. In testimony, the State Insurance Commissioner said that this measure will increase the number of uninsured drivers.

"I am with reservations only because it's a work in progress, and I was assured by the Transportation Committee Chair that it only takes effect in 2050, so we've got a little while to work on it. But, it seems to me that any measure we pass out of here, one of its goals should be to decrease the number of uninsured drivers, not increase it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. No. 58, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takai being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to these measures. The Hawaii Capital National Heritage Area will help to tell the story of the people who lived and contributed to our multi-cultural history. It will help to tell the story of unique and important Hawaiian cultural and historical sites, and bring much needed funds for a worthy and deserving area that started the Democrat Party of Hawaii, has the first L&L, and is the birthplace of saimin.

"And, it will help to educate our young people to appreciate their past, to have pride in their heritage, to preserve, enhance, and to interpret important sites for them. And, as stated in the Honolulu Advertiser, this cultural district official says, 'It will trigger a stream of federal and private funds.'

"With the current economic situation we face, we hope to have the area designated. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to these Resolutions. The Resolutions would ask the Hawaii Congressional Delegation to withdraw its support for the Hawaii Capital National Heritage Area, and I am fearful that this may jeopardize the designation of the beautiful Nuuanu ahapua'a, as a national heritage area.

"I speak with some experience of the difficulty in obtaining this particular designation. I was involved with the San Francisco Japantown community who has been trying for many years to obtain this particular designation. And, they are one of the last three Japantowns left in the U.S., and they have not yet been able to secure this honor and its benefits.

"I would assume that the Commission that is looking at these nominations would look at this: whether or not the Legislature supports this designation. And if not, we may seriously jeopardize its chances. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations and would like to make just a few comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As a Representative of an area that is going to fall within this designated area, I ask the Members' indulgence to let these Resolutions move forward. I do think that there are many constituents who were not aware of this process, and who can be brought around to understanding the importance of this process. But, because they have not been consulted, and because this process initially started at looking at a very limited area for designation, that I think what these Resolutions have done, is brought attention to the matter, and will now allow the community to engage more fully.

"So, as a Representative of the area that is directly impacted by this designation, I urge moving this forward so that there can be further discussions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

One of the things that people have faced in trying to live within the law that has been providing medicine for people here in this State, is the fact that they can't even take it from island to island. This really prevents people from going to visit relatives or from traveling to get to friends. And it's basically a misinterpretation of FAA rules, which actually allows for transport on planes of these things, if allowed by state statute. And yet, TSA does not recognize these rules.

"The thing is, if we're going to make a medicine, and say that you can have this medicine, but you can't take it with you, it's just cruel. It's not right, and I'm in strong support of this measure."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of Senate Concurrent Resolution 52, which calls for reports to the Legislature on collaborative and innovative efforts by the Ho'okako'o Corporation, three Conversion Charter Schools, and our State Department of Education. The Resolution is a companion to HCR 89, which was adopted unanimously by this Body on March 24.

"I am proud to report that one of the three Charter Schools, Kamaile Academy, is located in my Wai'anae district. I's principal, Glen Kila—along with the other two principals, the Executive Director of Ho'okako'o, and Superintendent Pat Hamamoto—presented compelling testimony to our Committee on Education last week. All agree that the time is right to implement models of Expanded Learning Time (ELT), which demands the complete redesign of a school's educational program in a way that combines academics with enrichment for a well-rounded student experience.

"Kamaile Academy plans to begin implementation in the fall of this year—the first Conversion Charter School in Hawaii to pilot an ELT model that supports teacher professionalism and fills systemic gaps nececessary to improve learning and achievement, especially for at-risk children in high-poverty areas such at the Wai'anae Coast. Kamaile's success in this endeavor will encourage other Charter Schools—and other schools throughout our public system—to follow its example and demonstrate needed growth in academic achievement.

"I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this Concurrent Resolution."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will rise to speak against these Resolutions. Yes, I feel that we haven't had enough information on it to make up our minds. If the information is forthcoming, I may very happily change my vote. But, I am a big fan of historic preservation, a member of Historic Hawaii Foundation, Charter Member. My husband was President. I'm a proud member of the Preservation Caucus, and support legislation to benefit us keeping historic and significant remnants of our past.

"But my vote on these Resolutions would change if we had more information. It was lacking at yesterday's hearing. For instance, there was no testimony from the owner, and the Historic Hawaii Foundation pointed that out.

"So, not knowing the owner's intent, these Resolutions may be premature. The Tourism, Culture, & International Affairs Committee did not have information as to whether the building was owned in entirety, or whether it was a condominium. That might have made a difference to me.

"Finally, there was no explanation why there was no recommendation for the State Register of Historic Places. So, just because of all the unanswered questions, I cast a 'no' vote to flag out this lack. Thank you, very much."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of Standing Committee Report Number 1548 and 1549. To address any questions Members might have, this issue has been discussed in the media, it's on the front page of today's Star Bulletin, and in the A Section of today's Advertiser, and was on three different network TV stations in the last four days. And, the owners are aware, and they are in support of considering this to be placed on the National Historic Registry.

"There have been other comments made, that I think this is a good measure that we show our support, and then let the public decide, as well as the owners, what the future of that building should be. But, I think this is an important statement that we as a Legislature make.

"All Presidents' homes are on the Historic Registry, nationally, and I would like to include President Obama's home also on that. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. As long as people are respected, I think that's what historic preservation's all about, is that we come together and we put our differences aside in support of what we love, which is the State of Hawaii, our children, our people. And, I think the children have an opportunity to be inspired. We have our first President ever from Hawaii. And, I thank the Representative of Waikiki for introducing this measure.

"I personally, am a classmate, one year younger, of the current President, and we look forward to his many trips here. I think that he represents on a large scale, many good things. And, no matter what, goodness is what's important. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, with a few short comments. The theme of today seems to be that everyone wants to come into my district and identify things of important historical significance. I know that my district is the home to many historic places, but my reservations are based on the fact that I don't believe that the residents of the building have been consulted, and so, I would actually like to go to them and see what their views are. Perhaps, what is the impact of the identification as placement on the National Register. Because, if it does have impact on things that can be done at the building, I think those residents should be made aware of that. Then the choice can be made whether designation is appropriate or not. So, thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with support, and with a footnote, in that the Obama birthplace home resides in Hawaii Kai, in my colleague Lyla Berg's district, and my own. And that is now being vetted and researched, and I'm sure that you will hear from her and myself at a later point. But, that was the one where when he was born at the hospital, that was the address that was used. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on the matter. Yes, I am very proud that we have a President from these islands. And yes, I acknowledge that the birthplaces of Presidents are historically registered.

"But, my reservation is that he just started as a President a few months ago, and think it's kind of premature about that. We should wait a couple of years and see how he does in the Office before we make those decisions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Brower rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in strong support. To be placed on the National Historic Registry, one of the qualifications is, what would be most symbolic as a home to the President? And, President Obama was born in the same hospital that I, and many of us were born in, at Kapiolani Medical Center. Not in a home in Kahala. The location in question has, for all practical purposes, has become what we consider his home, and that he considers his home, where he visits and spent the most time in his formative years. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"I only want to say that the Representative from Waikiki knows that it's a house in Hawaii Kai, and not Kahala. Hawaii Kai. Kalanianaole Highway and Kuliouou Road. Thank you."

As founder of the Heritage Caucus, I believe this is a great opportunity, as long as it is respectful to the building's owners and residents, and that they have a chance to give their input on the matter.

"While the newspapers have said that this building is non-descript, I feel some of its unique architectural touches bring about a tropical feel. This building has the power to inspire the children of Hawaii. It shows them that they to can be the leaders of tomorrow. Putting President Barack Obama's home on the National Register of Historic Places will increase tourism, which in turn will increase revenue for the State. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 268, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE EMMA KWOCK CHUN CORPORATION, THE STATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE, AND THE HISTORIC HAWAII FOUNDATION TO APPLY FOR PLACEMENT OF PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA'S PUNAHOU CIRCLE APARTMENT ON THE NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES," was referred to the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Luke, Mizuno, Saiki and Takai being excused; and

As founder of the Heritage Caucus I believe it is important for people to know about our diverse and complex history. On October 11th of this year Father Damien will be declared a Saint by the Catholic Church in a ceremony to take place at the Vatican. Father Damien was a magnificent man with a caring heart and the world deserves to know his story. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"October, 1944 saw fighting by the American Forces to liberate Bruyeres, Biffontaine, and Fremifontaine, France from the Nazi's. These towns are in the province of Lorraine, France. Our heroic 442nd Regimental Combat Team Nisei Veterans, many of them from Hawaii, as well as the internment camps on the mainland, were instrumental in liberating these towns. They also helped to rescue the Texas "Lost Battalion" in Biffontaine, France. As such, close ties were formed between the town of Bruyeres, France and Honolulu, Hawaii, such that Bruyeres and Honolulu have a sister-city relationship. Because of the ties between Hawaii and these towns in Lorraine, France and because we have many veterans still living in Honolulu as well as their relatives, I am in favor of HR 189 and HCR 220 calling for a sister-state/province relationship between Lorraine, France and the State of Hawaii."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 189, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE SISTER STATE COMMITTEE TO EVALUATE AND DEVELOP RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE INITIATION OF A SISTER STATE OR PROVINCE RELATIONSHIP WITH LORRAINE, FRANCE," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Luke, Mizuno, Saiki and Takai being excused; and

Representative B. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HCR 153/HR 123, which requests a feasibility study of the construction of a prison at the current State quarantine station at Halawa.

"While I believe that our State must continue to facilitate the retrieval and re-entry of inmates currently serving the duration of their incarceration in U.S. mainland facilities, it is my firm conviction that an additional facility will not help the State achieve this goal.

"District 33 is already home to a considerable portion of our freeway, a stone quarry, an animal quarantine station, and an existing correctional facility. An additional prison will strain the current infrastructure of our community and will prove undesirable with the hardworking citizens of my district.

"During a hearing on the Resolution(s) by your Committee on Public Safety, the Director of the Department of Agriculture, Sandra Lee Kunimoto testified that any construction of a prison at the current quarantine site must include additional plans to relocate all current quarantine operations to a new location.

"The Director also disclaimed that the quarantine currently houses multiple federal and military agencies alongside those of the State. Therefore, I find that construction of a new prison in Halawa and the resulting relocation and construction of another quarantine facility will be costly and in these dire economic times, fiscally imprudent.

"In the interest of 'implementing the return and reentry provisions of Act 8, First Special Session Laws of Hawaii 2007' as stated in your Committee report, the Legislature should commission a study on a survey of a list of several possible sites for an additional prison instead.

"For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I must oppose HCR 153 and HR 123. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to H.C.R. 153 and H.R. 123 – Requesting the Legislative Reference Bureau to Study the Feasibility of Constructing a Prison at the State Quarantine Station at Halawa, Oahu. I am concerned that this measure might bring about an unnecessary cost to the State. Currently the Animal Quarantine Station resides on the proposed prison site and I don't feel it is cost effective to move the location of the Animal Quarantine Station at this time. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. "I don't think that should be a top priority of us, raiding people who are using…medical marijuana. With all the things we've got to worry about, and our Justice Department should be doing, that probably shouldn't be a high priority."

"On July 21, 2007 at a town hall meeting when asked if he would end raids, Senator Obama replied:

"The Justice Department going after sick individuals using this as a palliative instead of going after serious criminals makes no sense."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak to express my reservations with SB 1055, HD1.

"As in the case of HB 1165, the Department of Transportation in SB 1055, HD1 is asking for authority to create rules for the various commercial harbors, ostensibly based on the need to address safety concerns. I certainly understand the need for safety rules; however, the Maui community's long-established shared use of certain commercial harbors for recreational and cultural purposes should be recognized and preserved. The Department of Transportation's recent strained relations and record of indifference to local residents using Kahului Harbor for canoe racing and practices, and for fishing and surfing, raises some concern that perhaps the rules proposed ostensibly for safety are primarily aimed at limiting or even displacing longtime community use of our harbor and other nearshore waters for commercial interests. I certainly hope this is not the case and that this is not primarily another example of commercial and business interests trumping local community concerns.

"I believe appropriate safety rules can be crafted through creativity and improved strategic planning in the state's master plan, including the use of better technology for business and recreational activities that will foster rather than inhibit joint use of the available space. Existing residents who gather for traditional and cultural practices should be taken into consideration when planning for the future so that they may continue to carry out their customs. Access and use of our nearshore waters are an important aspect of the Public Trust. As this bill moves forward, I hope there will be practical, open and frank dialogue between traditional and cultural practitioners, government agencies and the business community about the goals of this bill.

"Please record my vote with reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1055, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HARBORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Luke, Mizuno, Saiki and Takai being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, in support of Stand. Com. Reports 1583 and 1584. Mr. Speaker, the Falls of Clyde is one of the few remaining man-built jewels of old Hawaii. She was launched in 1878 from Scotland, named after an actual waterfall in the river that runs from Glasgow, Scotland, where she was built. The ship serves as a reminder of all the great contributions the Scots have made in Hawaii since their arrival in the 1700s. The beautiful Princess Kaiulani was the hapa haole daughter of Scot, Mr. Archibald Cleghorn and Princess Likelike, and Kapiolani Park's ironwood trees in Ainahau are symbols of that devotion of Mr. Cleghorn for his daughter, Princess Kaiulani.

"In 1900, an act of Congress allowed the ship to fly both the U.S. and the Hawaiian flags, and the Falls of Clyde serviced the residents of Hawaii by carrying sugar from Hilo to San Francisco.

"In 1963, it was rescued and returned to Hawaii, with the help of Honolulu Advertiser's columnist Bob Krauss, the maritime community, Hawaii's school children, and the U.S. Navy. Over the years, tens of thousands of people have toured the Falls of Clyde. She was named a National Historic Monument.

"In 2008, the Friends of the Falls of Clyde formed a non-profit to save her. The Falls of Clyde, with a wrought-iron hull at 265 feet long, weighing more than a thousand tons, is the last, the only surviving, fully-rigged, four-mast sailing ship remaining in the world. And, this has taken interest from a lot of people, including the royalty of Great Britain.

"The Falls of Clyde has a rich history. I ask that my colleagues recognize its importance as a sailing jewel of Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in opposition to this bill. This bill started as, 'if somebody enters your home, and you feel threatened, you can kill them, dead.' But, it has expanded to, 'if you feel threatened anywhere, you can kill them, dead.'

"It's problematic, and because of that, even the law enforcement community, the police and the prosecutor came out in opposition. They don't want people going around shooting people who you feel would be a threat to you, even if they're not threatening you with deadly force. So, it's almost matching deadly force against what you think is dangerous.

"In fact, if you want to expand it, you can actually kill somebody dead, drag them onto your property, and say, 'Oh, the person was threatening me, and so I killed them dead.'

"So, because of those reasons, I rise to speak in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Luke be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you. The effect of this bill is to essentially eliminate the duty to retreat. If that's the case, then we should just remove all of Section B. I'd also like to echo the words of the Representative from Pauoa, and register a strong opposition. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 350, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO USE OF FORCE," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Hanohano, Luke and Morita voting no, and with Representatives Souki and Takai being excused.

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations to S.B. 711 – Relating to Transportation. I do support this bill for the fact that the 80 ft bus can carry 150 people at a time and provide traffic relief to Hawaii's congested roadways, but I also have some concerns on this bill. I am concerned about the visibility of the roadways and cross-walks for our seniors when there is an 80 ft bus in front of them. I also have concerns that many of the bus stops would have to be increased by 90 ft and doing so could take away a number of our already limited parking spaces.

"There is a trend of larger vehicles these days and we are experiencing problems in my district. This trend has resulted in my residence having to give up parking spots. I am a big believer in the concept of a walkable-livable community and I hope this bill does not increase the number of our already high pedestrian fatality rate. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 711, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Berg, Herkes, Keith-Agaran, Morita, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations, with just a brief comment. This bill attempts to make the Governor subservient to the Legislature, by having to report what she is or is not doing with the money. And, I know somebody is going to say, 'No, no, no. This bill doesn't do that.' Well, why just now? And why just this Governor, is the question. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Very briefly. This isn't a matter of making anyone subservient to the Legislature. This is a matter of being accountable to the public. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1111, SD 1, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, on Stand. Com. Report 1603, I am in opposition. Yes, this would increase the Transient Accommodation Tax, and I think that in this economy, as we're trying to compete with other visitor destinations, it's important that we don't do anything that would increase the costs of people to come here. I think it would be devastating to our economy. And with that, the House Republican Caucus will be voting 'no' on this measure."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as my colleague has just stated, and I'm standing in opposition. The Finance Committee, without even an iota of doubt, said, 'Don't do this. Don't do it now. It's going to hurt.' And the response is, 'Well, it's still blank.' Well, they're talking about 1%.

"The point is, the people of Hawaii, the industries of Hawaii, the small businesses of Hawaii are Taxed Enough Already. That stands for TEA, which on the 15th of this month, there is going to be a big rally, and this is probably one of the things that they're going to be upset with. This is not a good bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I travel throughout the United States, like many of us as legislators do. We go into towns, we pay our hotel, and we pay our transient taxes. I think you'll find that they vary significantly. In many, many places, they charge a whole lot more than us. And I think keeping this alive, keeping the debate going, and knowing where we fit overall across the United States, is a good thing.

"We love our visitors. We want them to come. But also, we need to know where we fit elsewhere, and it may be appropriate to take a look. So, I think we should keep the discussion going. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. I'd like the words of the Representative from Ewa Beach entered as my own.

"It's easy to tax tourists. It seems like it's not us, so, why don't we load up on taxes against the tourists. But, tourists are our lifeblood. And whether we like it or not, tourism still is our number one industry. It is most important to our economy. It pays for our education and health services, and we need those revenues very much, especially in these days.

"Other towns may have a heavier tourist tax, but they may be an hour away, or a three hour's driving distance, or five hours. It's hard for people to get to Hawaii, and so I think we have to be very vigilant about not scaring away our tourists. I think at present, they're paying 11.5%. The tourist tax, the hotel tax, plus the general excise tax, which on Oahu is a half percent higher than the Neighbor Islands.

"So, let's not overtax the tourists and our hotel industry. They're very important to us. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker and Members, I wish to speak with reservations. In fact, with strong reservations. The money from this, the increase, of course are planned to go into the general fund. And, we need the money to balance the budget. But, I don't think we should be attaching some of the special funds, especially in a very competitive tourism market, where we have an unprecedented downfall in the hotels. This certainly would not help.

"We need money. There is no doubt. If we really need money, then we shouldn't be taking it from our employees. We shouldn't be taking it out of exempt employees. Or possibly raising the personal income tax, which will affect each of us, individually. Let's look at raising the excise tax. I know it's a bad thing, but you need to have a balanced approach, rather than a piecemeal approach, which I don't even know what is going to balance the budget. And, this is my concern.

"Hopefully in the end, everything is going to be balanced, and there will be some satisfaction as we move on. But, I would prefer to have an excise tax increase of a half percent or so, rather than nickel-and-diming and everything. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 1111 – Relating to Taxation. This bill will have a negative impact on our already struggling economy. Tourism is our number one source of revenue and currently the number of tourists coming to visit Hawaii is dropping. The Star-Bulletin and The Honolulu Advertiser both recently did front page articles on the lack of visitors coming to Hawaii and how economic recovery is tied to tourism. The headline in the Honolulu Advertiser read "Recovery tied to tourism" and the headline in the Star-Bulletin read "Visitor arrivals plummet 12.7%." The States Tourism Liaison says "Hawai'i ended 2008 with a 10.8% decrease in visitor arrivals and a 9.9% decrease in visitor spending ($1.2 billion). Visitor arrivals in January were down 12.5% and visitor expenditures decreased 13.6%, or $149 million." and "Now is not the time to increase the transient accommodations tax. Our visitor industry is having a difficult time as it is convincing visitors to come. Further decreases in visitors will result in more of our residents being laid off. We need to bolster the visitor industry so that we can keep our residents employed, not tax it further."

"We must do everything we can to attract visitors here. Raising the transient accommodations tax just might be enough to keep people from coming to visit Hawaii. Tourism is vital to this State's economy and we must protect it, not go out of our way to hurt it. Outrigger Enterprises Group states, "The balancing act we are currently dealing with is the maintaining of a decent occupancy rate, but with low room rates. While this is not the ideal situation, it is keeping our heads above water. Some employees are still working, the hotels are still in business and the State is receiving revenue," and "This bill can very well tip that balance were the cost of a room will deter a traveler from coming, which is the formula for disaster, resulting in low room occupancy and low room rates."

"This bill will harm Hawaii's economy and it concerns me that the Legislature can pass this bill so easily while ignoring the impact this bill will have on tourism and the economy. The Department of Taxation states, "Recent studies and data show that Hawaii's tourism industry is hurting badly. Increasing the tax on this industry, thus making Hawaii more expensive and a less favorable destination, could force Hawaii's economy into further disarray." This is some compelling testimony and I implore the Legislature to heed their warning. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A 'no' vote, please. And, may I have the comments of the speaker from Wailuku entered into the record as if they were my own, except the portion about the general excise tax.

"And, let me just note one thing. In the newspaper about a week ago, there were big headlines that said tourism is our biggest industry. And that, when you look at stimulus, that the State needs to focus on that. And that is a pretty pressing tale to tell. We want to diversify our economy, but until we actually get there, this is our 'bread and butter.' So, that is a very serious concern of mine. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just short comments in opposition. Thank you. Aside from all the other concerns that were brought up today, I also did want to mention that some of these hotels, in fact most of these hotels, are dropping their rates at this point in time to incentivize people to come here. And, what we do when we increase that, it's like we're taking right out from under the noses of these people who have jobs here at the hotels.

"And so, if you have a district that employs a lot of people at these hotels, we're doing absolutely the opposite thing of what these hotels are trying to do, which is bring people to Hawaii. They're lowering the cost. They're trying to make sure that we have jobs in our hotel industry. And we're going right back and saying we're going to increase the tax. I think that's not a good idea. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a footnote to my previous opposition. In this room, there are probably those who are doubting the price sensitivity to tourism. And, I would only add to look at the Japan visitor record. Each year, the slippage of 10 percentage points, even double-digit figures and beyond, have been visiting us for the last 10 years. Each year, we slip a little bit more. I had the opportunity to go with the Governor with her delegation to Japan. We sat around with all the airlines, with all the hotels, all the big tour agencies, and they basically said there are places that are more competitive. They cost less. They're as beautiful as Hawaii. Well, they didn't say as beautiful as Hawaii, but they're cheaper, quicker in access than other markets and destinations that people have.

"So, the sensitivity, and, particularly I emphasize again, that there was not one person in the Finance Committee who even suggested that the industry here could afford an increase in the taxes. Mr. Speaker, I trust those who've been in this business, their families for decades, for 50, 60, 70, 100 years. They should know better than us. I know it's our responsibility, but it's our responsibility to listen to those who are in the know. Those of the 'Delphi Oracle,' those who know what's going on. It's our job to implement that. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in support of this measure. Hawaii's still, as far as a visitor destination and to the visitor, I think we're still one of the most tax-friendly states. Not to mention, this would also bring added revenue for marketing, which would drive an increase in visitors. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just rise with reservations, and I just want to note that I don't think it's anybody's intent to unnecessarily increase taxes on anyone. But we are chasing a nearly $2 billion shortfall this year. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1111, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Brower, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Herkes, Karamatsu, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Morita, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1604) recommending that S.B. No. 1206, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1206, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTIES," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Berg, Herkes, Karamatsu, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Morita, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1605) recommending that S.B. No. 1327, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1327, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO

THE RATE OF INTEREST APPLICABLE TO OVERPAYMENTS OF TAX," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Berg, Herkes, Karamatsu, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Morita, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1343, SD 2, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in opposition. What this bill does is, it removes the administrative agency's authority to establish fees, and it instead replaces them through statute. And, as busy as the Finance Committee has been lately, I would much rather a department take care of that little piece of the pie, than us debating a fee for a small, little area in a department. Thanks."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm also standing in opposition. As previously, I think we have to trust our directors. They know they're on the front lines. They're the ones who know what these fees should, or should not be. And, I think we should be listening closer to them. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 1343 – Relating to Fees and Other Assessments. In a slumping economic environment broad strokes aren't always the best answer. My concern is that this bill does not allow for the State to adjust to the ebb and flow of the economy. The Department of Transportation says, "The bill takes a one size fits all circumstances approach which fails to realize the complex mixture of uses, tenants, customers and regulations which make up the airports system."

"Certain State agencies need to adjust their fees for various reasons and this bill hamstrings them from doing so and as result the citizens of Hawaii will be the ones who get punished. The Hawaii Housing and Finance and Development Corporation states in their testimony, "As a special-funded agency, the ability to establish and revise fees and service charges through the administrative rulemaking process will ensure that administrative expenses are covered and a larger portion of the HHFDC's special funds are devoted to housing finance and development assistance. We would prefer to maintain the authority to set our own service fee schedule via administrative rulemaking processes." The University of Hawaii shares a similar concern as HHFCD and UH states in their testimony that, "The necessity to establish and revise fees related to the many programs and services only through statute would be impractical and unwieldy and would likely result in fees that are not commensurate with costs and expenses." Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1343, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FEES AND OTHER ASSESSMENTS," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Finnegan, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Herkes, Karamatsu, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Morita, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1607) recommending that S.B. No. 1461, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1461, SD 2, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm casting a 'no' vote on this, and I'd like to explain why. I've heard from a number of small businesses that this bill is going to have a bad impact on them. And, in fact, one company said, it's going to be like having another noose around their necks in these bad, slow economic times.

"What it does is, it accelerates the deadline and payment date for paying general excise tax, and other fees and taxes. And it's a short term way to get some money. And it's a big hit on the businesses, by making them do these payments that soon. Many of them don't have the data that they need, and the reconciliation that they need in order to do it.

"So, I think it's a foolish way to grab a little bit of money -- one time only, and then put this noose around small businesses' necks. So, I have a very decided, loud, and emphatic 'no' on this measure."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the previous speaker said it all. The State will gain one time by having a higher balance on June 30th, but small business will be paying the price for it. It's a lot of work for this, every single month. So, I would also be voting 'no' on Second Reading. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that he written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 1461 – Relating to Taxation. I am concerned that this bill might have a negative impact on small business. In these economic times we need to make things easier for small businesses not harder. The Retail Merchants of Hawaii states in their testimony, "Of great concern is that accelerating the filling and payment due dates most surely will have a negative impact on our hundreds of small businesses." Thank You."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's with regret that I vote in opposition. And, I wrestled with this one, Members, because I was thinking, 'Well, let's go with reservations.' But as the Chair of the Business Committee, my conscience could not allow me to do anything but vote 'no.'

"As I've been going up to all the districts in Honolulu, Maui, and elsewhere, talking to small businesses, this is the reality: they're behind. A lot of them are behind. This would have the effect of pretty much, a nuclear weapon being detonated on a small business community. You will have layoffs, Mr. Speaker. You will have job closings, and you will have a detrimental hit. Maybe you'll get a one-time spike, but when you look at the unemployment rolls increasing, and the tax-base shrinking, it's going to be a net loss.

"This is not going to only be on corporate. We're talking about the little guys. The little guys, the people who we recognized today in the gallery, families, small business, they are the biggest portion of our economy.

"So therefore, I know we're trying to search for all these ways to balance the budget, but I really think, I would just advise everybody to look at the net effect. Because I can tell you, businesses, because of what happened with oil and the economy this summer, fell behind, and they're playing 'catch up.' And this would be basically killing them. Killing them, Mr. Speaker.

"I just hope that we can put the brainpower of this institution together to come up with other ideas than this one. Thank you, very much."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, it's only 10 days earlier. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in strong support. I will keep the bulk of my comments for Third Reading, but just a couple of points. The contents of this bill, Senate Bill 1461, is the same as the House Bill just passed, nearly unanimously by this very Body on Third Reading, on March 6th, 2009.

"The second point I need to make is that this has the strong endorsement of the Governor of the State of Hawaii, and is in fact, a part of her financial plan for the biennium. There is a revenue gain of about $20 million in the fiscal years '10 and '11. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"I'm rising again in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. I appreciated the comments of the Chair of Finance, but the point is, many people in this Body have never been small business people. Some Members in the Body never were in business, or in anything other than government work from the very beginning.

"The reality is, for the small business people, this is a burden. It's going to be harmful to them, and they're the very people that we need to continue to stay afloat and to stay alive. It's a cheap-shot, and a one-shot only at getting money from them, and leaving them with a burden of that early reporting, where their reconciliation and other figures are not available to them. So, why on earth do we do that?

"If we were going to gain millions and millions of dollars, there could be some justification. It's a one-shot only, and it makes no sense, and we're hurting the very people that we need to protect the most.

"And, I would also like the comments of the Maui Representative entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair, "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1461, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Herkes, Karamatsu, Keith-Agaran, McKelvey, Morita, Takai and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I Also would like to note my reservations. And what we've just said about the previous bill on business, and the impact really goes to this one also, because we're kind of doing a wholesale hatchet, rather than a scalpel.

"For example, the important ag. lands that has been worked on for 30 years, which we finally passed. That one gets blown out of the water with this thing. Some of them have to go of course, but some of them need to stay, which are very, very important. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 1625, Senate Bill 862, Senate Draft 2, Relating to Housing. SB862 is the companion bill to HB1044, which I also supported. SB 862, SD2 enables HHFDC to more easily collect the value of shared appreciation equity (SAE) and other restrictions when an affordable housing property is publicly sold through a foreclosure. It also requires written notification of intent to foreclose on properties encumbered by such priority liens.

"Passage of this bill will allow the HHFDC and county housing agencies to avoid costly litigation when enforcing their claims on affordable for-sale homes undergoing foreclosure. The sale of affordable housing properties sponsored or assisted by the HHFDC is subject to a buyback restriction and a shared appreciation equity (SAE) lien. The HHFDC has provided deferred sales price liens to assist low or moderate income homebuyers in purchasing a first home. Upon the sale or transfer of an HHFDC-assisted home, the SAE is collected and deposited into the Dwelling Unit Revolving Fund, where it can be used to support the development of additional affordable housing projects.

"Recently, the HHFDC has not been receiving sufficient prior notice of foreclosure proceedings on HHFDC-assisted properties. The lack of sufficient advance notice makes it difficult for HHFDC to prepare to bid at foreclosure sales. This measure would afford the HHFDC with notice of intent to foreclose forty-five days before commencement of the foreclosure. This notice period would allow HHFDC sufficient time to conduct due diligence and, when appropriate, to prepare to bid at the foreclosure sale.

"Additionally, because this clarifies that SAE or other government entity liens are priority liens, a mortgagee pursuing foreclosure must satisfy the amount due to the HHFDC before claiming a property at auction. The HHFDC has had to intervene in over 50 bankruptcy and foreclosure actions and litigate to assert their rights as a priority lien holder. This bill will protect HHFDC's lien rights in the event of foreclosure, and enable them to recover funds to support the development of additional housing. For these reasons, I strongly support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 862, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support SB 585, SD2 HD 1 which will ensure access to prescription medications in rural and underserved areas. This measure allows remote dispensing pharmacies in health maintenance organization facilities, or in areas that are at least five miles from another pharmacy.

"This bill will alleviate hardships for a segment of our population who do not have convenient access to a pharmacy near their home or where the clinic does not have a pharmacist. The Island of Lanai, for example, will benefit from the enactment of this bill. Lanai is a community particularly affected by its remoteness and is an underserved population. Lanai has no pharmacy. Its residents have to travel to Oahu or Maui in order to obtain their medication. Passage of this bill will allow Lanai residents to obtain their medications from a remote dispensing pharmacy kiosk located in a clinic such as Lanai Community Health Center.

"This bill also benefits those who are members of Health Maintenance Organizations (HMO) that have clinics in rural areas, but have no pharmacist in the clinic. The HMOs, however, do have pharmacists in the hospital who can supervise the remote dispensing of medications in the clinic.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill 523, S.D. 2, H.D. 2. Mr. Speaker, this piece of legislation amends the High Technology Research and Development loan and grant program allowing the State to catch up to increased federal award amounts.

"This bill proposes a modification to HRS Section 206M-15, which defines how the High Technology Development Corporation may grant funds to Hawaii companies that have been awarded federal Small Business Innovation Research Phase I awards and federal Small Business Technology Transfer Phase I awards.

"The Hawaii Matching Grant Program helps support Hawaii companies by matching federal awards at 50 per cent, but not to exceed $25,000. This matching formula was created when the maximum Phase I federal award was $50,000. This measure would remove this cap and the Hawaii matching grant would be at 50 per cent of the federal award. This is a vital improvement as the present Phase I federal average award is $100,000 or more.

"The current $25,000 Hawaii match has not kept up with the increased federal funding levels and this amendment would remedy the imbalance. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill 423, S.D. 1, H.D. 2. The measure we have before us appropriates money to match federal funds for Medicaid.

"Mr. Speaker, Hawaii has a population of low-income citizens with limited healthcare options. Among them are our low-income elderly who are disproportionately affected by the rising costs of healthcare and other daily expenses.

"This measure provides an appropriation, enabling Hawaii to become eligible to receive Disproportionate Share Hospital Program funding from the federal government in the amount of $12,500,000. Congress established the Disproportionate Share Hospital Program in 1981 to help ensure that states provide adequate financial support to hospitals that serve a significant number of low-income patients with special needs. Since 1993, as part of the agreement when Med-Quest was established, Hawaii did not qualify for Disproportionate Share Hospital dollars. This bill would authorize $10,181,909 as the State's matching share.

"The real problem facing all Hawaii Hospitals is inadequate reimbursement by Medicaid and Medicare for medical services. On average, Hawaii hospitals lose 20 cents on every $1.00 spent to provide care for a Med-QUEST patient and 21 cents on every Medicare patient. Hawaii Pacific Health provides care for thirty six percent (36%) of the total State Medicaid/QUEST discharges and loses tens of millions of dollars each year in order to provide care for these patients.

"The status quo of inadequate reimbursement by government payers is unsustainable. As cumulative losses to Hawaii hospitals continue to grow, the real costs to the community of inadequate reimbursement are physician attrition, patient access to specialty care, and compromised quality of care. The only way to maintain the level of healthcare Hawaii's residents deserve is to ensure that the State pays its fair share of Medicaid costs.

"Mr. Speaker, our Congressional representatives worked hard to ensure that Hawaii be eligible for receiving adequate Disproportionate Share Hospital Program funds this fiscal year. SB 423 would be a significant step in helping to address the current healthcare crisis by ensuring that adequate resources are made available to cover the true costs of providing care. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 1046. Mr. Speaker, the passage of SB1046 is essential because it is a road through which we are able to provide health care to the most rural areas of Hawaii. These are the areas that currently receive little or no medical assistance. In this day and age, it is essential to be innovative in creating ways to provide health services to all members of our State. SB1046 is one of these innovative ways.

"This bill will fund students of the Quentin Burdick Rural Health Interdisciplinary Training Program (QB), giving them an opportunity to work in rural areas of Hawaii and service the people who live there. While this bill will not solve the recruitment and sustainment of the health workforce in rural areas, it does provide a constant flow of healthcare students to these areas. It also gives students exposure to the needs of rural areas and the job opportunities that are available, with some of these students taking the opportunity to work these areas.

"Some of the programs and initiatives that have been set through the 10-year relationship of between QB students and our rural areas include advanced directives for kupuna, programs that help rural residents apply and prepare for college, and many other programs. As mentioned before, this program has been in effect for 10 years. By not providing more funding to this program, we will be removing an integral part of the health care system in rural areas. It is because of this reason, that it is essential to pass SB1046 and provide continual support for this program.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I am asking my colleagues to support me on this bill."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB718 SD1 HD1 to require the adoption of a statewide "complete streets" policy.

"This bill makes the modest requirement that all roads, streets and highways constructed or maintained by the State or counties make reasonable accommodation for convenient access and mobility for all users -- not just cars.

"While the Department of Transportation has testified that building complete streets would cost too much, sadly we see what it costs in terms of tragic pedestrian accidents, countless lost hours stuck in traffic, billions from the local economy thrown down the tube to foreign oil, and the marginalization of an estimated one third of the public that doesn't own a car. When we don't have complete streets, our streets are not safe for every user and our roads are not inviting to all modes of transportation.

"Contrary to DOT testimony, this is not a mandate without flexibility. SB718 includes reasonable exemptions for highways, for example, where bikes and pedestrians are prohibited, and for projects in sparsely populated areas that would cost too much for their low probable use.

"And the taskforce called for in the bill should help resolve some of the questions heard in the testimony and bring groups together.

"Mr. Speaker, I am very optimistic that complete streets will revitalize our communities simply because the policy requires we build what's missing, like street and sidewalk lighting, beautiful landscaping, feeder routes, and safe bikeways.

"Let's ensure our beautiful island towns and cities have complete streets. Through this simple policy, we will be improving safety, reducing car congestion, cutting the foreign oil habit and improving public health, just by encouraging walking and biking. I urge passage of SB718. Mahalo."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of Standing Committee Report No. 1687, Senate Bill 714, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 2, Relating to High Occupancy Vehicle Lanes. This is the companion bill to House Bill 866, which I introduced. This bill would allow all motor vehicles, regardless of the number of persons on board, to use high occupancy vehicle lanes or zipper lanes when one or more lanes of traffic have been shut down by law enforcement officers or emergency services personnel. It would also allow the Director of Transportation to declare an emergency to open use of HOV and zipper lanes.

"As commuters from the Leeward side know, many long hours that could be better spent at work or with family are spent commuting. Adding to our commute time are accidents or other incidents on the freeway. For every minute that an incident (i.e. stall, blown-out tire, car accident) remains on the freeway, that incident causes 10 minutes of backlog in traffic adding more wasted time and gridlock to an already stressful commute. Currently, the HOV/zipper lanes are overly restrictive and underutilized. As such, there must be more flexible use of the HOV and zipper lanes, particularly when incidents cause a lane to be closed on the freeway. As Hawai`i already has limited lane miles, we must make full use of all lanes to mitigate traffic and reduce time on the road. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak to in support of SB 1118, SD 2, HD 2, Relating to Low-income Housing.

"These are challenging times. Throughout the State we have a growing need for affordable housing, while at the same time, the impact of the global economic crisis reaches its claws into the empty pockets of low-income and working class residents. Affordable rental housing projects, needed now more than ever, have been stalled. The increase in foreclosures in Hawaii further reflects on both the housing crisis and the glaring need for homes that our basic working families can afford.

"This bill makes better use of State monies to encourage affordable housing development by our building industry. Federal low-income housing tax credits will aid the high costs that families struggling to make ends meet are unable to pay.

"Through the changes proposed in this bill, we can increase the value of low income housing tax credits as a primary source of equity for financing of new developments and preserving existing affordable rental housing. This measure will also add an effective incentive to potential affordable rental housing developers.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 1118, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, Relating to Low-Income Housing, which reduces the period over which State low income housing tax credits are taken from 10 years to 5 years.

"Mr. Speaker this bill will provide flexibility needed to jump start affordable rental housing projects for families at or below 60 percent of the area median income. The low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) program promotes the development and rehabilitation of low income rental housing through the use of federal and State LIHTCs.

"Under existing law, taxpayers may claim 50% of the aggregate federal low income housing tax credit equally over a 10-year period. This measure allows the taxpayer to claim 50% of the federal low income housing tax credit equally over a 5-year period. I support this provision because it is similar to the administration proposal and is already factored into the budget.

"Finally, amending the period over which State low income housing tax credits are taken from ten years to five years would increase the present value of the credits when sold to investors, allow taxpayers to claim larger tax credit amounts over a shorter period of time, and provide a more attractive financing incentive to potential developers of affordable rental housing.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1118, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LOW-INCOME HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 464, SD 2, HD 2, Relating to Taxation (renewable energy technologies, and income tax credit).

"Mr. Speaker I support the general intent of this bill and its intent to establish energy efficient initiatives. This bill will help to accelerate the investment in Hawaii's clean energy future by encouraging more private investment in solar thermal and wind energy technologies.

"By making the Renewable Energy Technologies Income Tax Credit (RETITC) refundable at a reduced level, SB464, SD 2, HD 2 will enable the solar industry in Hawaii to expand its role as an engine of economic stimulus and job creation in the current recessionary environment. Hawaii would further benefit in the long term because renewable energy finance companies would immediately move in to propose agreements offering immediate and long term savings to the State with no capital investment required.

"Finally, RETITC is necessary for a recessionary environment when State resources are low and there are limited opportunities from stimulus activities. As fossil fuel and petroleum prices become more volatile, Hawaii's ability to generate its own energy from home will make the State more secure and less reliant on others."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 464, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1732) recommending that S.B. No. 1137, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1137, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1737) recommending that S.B. No. 1352, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1352, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support SB 1352, SD 2, HD 2, which would allow an owner to opt out of the Land Court system and which transfers recording of time share fee interest to the regular system. It further establishes a pilot program to implement electronic recording of fee time share interests.

"The Land Court system was originally designed to handle the recording of individually owned properties. No one denies the value and security of the Torrens system with its careful, technical and concentrated review of every document presented for inclusion in the certificate of title. But Hawaii's property law has evolved to recognize and create additional forms of ownership or right to the use of a property which may involve large multiples of owners or interest holders. The rather cumbersome review in the Land Court system was neither designed to handle, nor does handle, the volume of routine and uncontroversial transfers and transactions in an efficient and effective manner.

"This bill authorizes streamlining an important tool in our economy – the timely recording of transactions involving timeshares on Land Court system property. Bringing our real property recording system into the modern world is long overdue.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1352, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUREAU OF CONVEYANCES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

"Members at this time, please remember to submit to the Clerk the list of Senate Bills on the Consent Calendar for which you will be inserting written comments, in support or in opposition, into the Journal. For all of you, this must be done before the adjournment of today's Floor session."

At 9:17 o'clock a.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:33 o'clock a.m.

ORDINARY CALENDAR

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, at this time we will be taking up the items on the Ordinary Calendar. Members of the House, let me state for the record that we will have lunch at 12:00 noon. Lunch will be for half an hour, so that we can get through by 1:00. There are a lot of events this evening, so can we push for 1:00 as our goal and objective.

"At this time Members, on page 10, the Unfinished Business, Members please note that S.B. No. 1108 has been re-referred solely to the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs per Committee Referral Sheet Number 53. The Committees on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources and Finance waived their referral to this measure, and therefore it is appropriate for the House to consider action for passage on Third Reading."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, to rules were suspended to reconsider action previously taken on S.B. No. 1108. (Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai were excused.)

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the House reconsider its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 1068, recommending referral to the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources, seconded by Representative Evans and carried. (Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai were excused.)

S.B. No. 1108

Representative B. Oshiro moved that S.B. No. 1108, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I would like permission to add comments into the Journal on SB 1108.

"Mr. Speaker, the `Aha Kiole Advisory Committee was established in 2007 with the purpose of fostering understanding and practical use of knowledge, including native Hawaiian methodology and expertise, to assure responsible stewardship and awareness of the interconnectedness of the clouds, forests, valleys, land, streams, fishponds, and sea.

"The `Aha Moku System has allowed for those who are directly knowledgeable in the care and protection of our natural and cultural resources to assist policy makers in sustaining these natural resources. The `Aha Kiole Advisory Committee has been able to communicate to lawmakers, State departments and the administration on this system, which is based on the indigenous resource management practices of traditional moku boundaries that acknowledge the natural contours of land and the specific resources and methodology and resources necessary for the community.

"The current members of the Committee are all native Hawaiian practitioners and have established a strong rapport with moku representatives and ahupua'a communities.

"In the mokus, we are taking a grassroots approach and gathering data from the community on what is the best way to structure the `Aha Moku Councils. The extension of the sunset date through Senate Bill 1108 will allow time for the `Aha Kiole Advisory Committee to bring forth the information to the Legislature and implement the process. It is essential that we allow them the time to finish this process.

"Mr. Speaker and Members of this Body, I urge you to please support this measure and allow for the `Aha Kiole Advisory Committee to continue their work by voting 'yes' on SB 1108. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1108, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATIVE HAWAIIANS," passed Third Reading with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

At 9:35 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1108

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1456) recommending that S.B. No. 1677, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1677, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Standing Committee Report 1456, I stand in support with reservations and have just a few comments. As we all know, I've been in support of a full moratorium. I have been around the State, consulting with many Native Hawaiians and non-Hawaiians on this issue.

"As we all know, in our process there's much discussion and consideration, and because there's some unresolved issues, I'd like to support this measure, and help it to move forward in the discussion. I still stand strong on legislation or a policy with some sort of a full moratorium. Mr. Speaker, could I also offer comments to the Journal?"

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of SB 1677, SD1, HD2, but have reservations. You all know that I am and still stand in support of a full moratorium. However, I am still going to support this measure because it is the only one that we have left to set a policy. And because there are so many unresolved issues, I feel that we need to amend this bill later in Conference to a full moratorium.

"I also believe that it is in the best interest of all of Hawai‘i's people that the language of SB 1677, SD1, HD2, be amended from putting forward a disapproval process of public lands to establishing a full moratorium or a limited number of years whether it be a one, two, three, or five year moratorium on the sale and transfer and/or exchange on these lands. The reason that I feel we should amend this bill is mainly to protect the corpus of the trust and to give this Body some time to discuss further a policy that is appropriate and with integrity.

"SB 1677, SD1, HD2, requires the majority vote of House and Senate to disapprove the sale or exchange of State-held lands to non-State entities or persons. This process doesn’t protect the corpus of the Trust, it allows for the State to sell and exchange these lands easily.

"The language of the original bill called for an approval process of two-thirds majority vote in both houses through a concurrent resolution. Granted, it is not easy to get two-thirds majority vote in both houses. But then again, it shouldn’t be easy to sell or transfer public lands, either. There should always be a process in place which is transparent and has integrity. Such lands should never be easy to sell or transfer. We must have checks and balances as well as accountability.

"A disapproval process is saying that the State agrees that this sale or transfer should take place until the Legislature disapproves of it. I think we have it backwards. Public lands should not be easily sold or exchanged.

"Furthermore, in December 1986 a Final Report on the Public Land Trust was completed by the Legislative Auditor, in which the report was made to the Legislature of the State of Hawaii. In this Final Report on the Public Land Trust, Chapter 4 reported on the inventory of the public lands. In this chapter it states that the Department of Land and Natural Resources is responsible for all public lands used by or under the management control of all agencies, except the University of Hawaii and the Hawaii Housing Authority.

"For many years there was no inventory of public lands. However, in September 1981, the DLNR, through its Division of Land Management, completed an inventory of all State-owned public lands for which the Department is accountable. The inventory lists approximately 1,271,652 acres. Also excluded from the inventory are all lands defined as "available lands" by the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, except those encumbered by a lease to a State agency. In addition, State highways and roads are excluded. About 14,656 acres are set aside to the Department of Transportation for airport and harbor purposes and about 2,240 acres are used by the Department of Education for school and library purposes. These numbers were noted in this 1986 report. The number of acres may have changed over the years.

"Later in chapter 4, the report talks about the problems with the inventory. The inventory was done by the DLNR and they were the first to admit that the inventory contains inaccuracies. The inaccuracies are in the classification of land as ceded or non-ceded and as trust land or non-trust land and in the acreages of parcels. For many different reasons, DLNR was challenged with trying to accomplish the task of completing an inventory of the public land trust. And while they have done their best with what resources they had to work with, the inventory is still not accurate or complete.

"My point is that until a complete accurate inventory is completed, I don't feel that the State should be selling ceded lands. I reiterate that we need to protect the corpus of the Trust.

"From a monetary standpoint, a moratorium would help the State to secure its bond rating, which will be necessary getting through these difficult economic times, while also preserving the lands for the reconciliation process to come to fruition.

"Another concern that I have that leads me to being in favor of a full moratorium is the State Admission Act, section 5(f). As I read section 5(f), it states: The lands granted to the State of Hawaii by subsection (b) of this section and public lands retained by the United States under subsections (c) and (d) and later conveyed to the State under subsection (e), together with the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of any such lands and the income there from, shall be held by said State as a public trust for the support of the public schools and other public educational institutions, for the betterment of the conditions of native Hawaiians, as defined in the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, for the development of farm and home ownership on as widespread a basis as possible for the making of public improvements, and for the provision of lands for public use. Such lands, proceeds, and income shall be managed and disposed of for one or more of the foregoing purposes in such manner as the constitution and laws of said State may provide, and their use for any other object shall constitute a breach of trust for which suit may be brought by the United States. The schools and other educational institutions supported, in whole or in part out of such public trust shall forever remain under the exclusive control of said State; and no part of the proceeds or income from the lands granted under this Act shall be used for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, college, or university.

"Even the State Admission Act acknowledges the Native Hawaiians' connection to its lands by adding in section 5(f) language which states that one of the five purposes these lands can be used for is for the betterment of native Hawaiians.

"In addition, there are the Hawaii Legislative Acts: Act 354 (1993) Relating to Hawaiian Sovereignty, which provides funding to develop programs and curriculum to educate the general public about Hawaiian Sovereignty. After reviewing some of the facts surrounding the overthrow of the Hawaiian government, the Legislature acknowledged that many native Hawaiians believe that the lands taken without their consent should be returned and if not, monetary compensation made and that they should have the right to sovereignty, or the right to self-determination and self-government as do other native American people.

"Another piece of legislation: Act 359 (1993) Relating to Hawaiian Sovereignty established the Hawaiian Sovereignty Advisory Commission to advise the Legislature on a voting process to determine the will of the native Hawaiian people regarding a convention.

"Act 340 Relating to the Island of Kahoʻolawe affirms that Kahoʻolawe resources and waters are to be held as part of the public land trust. It also provides that the State shall transfer management and control of the island and its waters to the sovereign native Hawaiian entity upon its recognition by the United States and the State of Hawaii.

"And lastly, Act 329, Relating to the Public Land Trust which responded to controversies over the revenue due to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs from the public land trust, where this act established an interim revenue amount due to OHA, sets up a committee to make recommendations on issues related to the public land trust, and requires the Department of Land and Natural Resources to complete an inventory of the public land trust. In the finding section of this act, it states: "The legislature finds that the events of history relating to Hawaiians and Native Hawaiians, continue to contribute today to a deep sense of injustice among native Hawaiians and others. The legislature recognizes that the lasting reconciliation so desired by all people of Hawaii is possible only if it fairly acknowledges the past while moving into Hawaii's future."

"In closing, we have heard so many versions and interpretations of why or why not a moratorium should or shouldn't be imposed. The U.S. Supreme Court's ruling stated that they have no authority to decide questions of Hawaiian law or to provide redress for the past wrongs except as provided for by federal law. The judgment of the Hawaii Supreme Court is reversed, and the case has been remanded for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion.

"By providing a policy of a moratorium, it allows the Legislature more time to discuss further a policy that is appropriate and fair. And it also protects the corpus of the trust while these unresolved issues such as a complete inventory of the public land trust, native Hawaiians relinquishing their claims and beginning their reconciliation process are addressed.

"Mr. Speaker, I support SB 1677 with reservations, and would like to see this measure move forward as we discuss further the issue of the policy on selling, exchanging and/or transferring ceded lands. Mahalo."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Carroll be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just rise with some reservations. I'm very concerned about the implications of this bill. The current draft allows for sales and transfers of ceded land via a disapproval process. What this means is that one Chair can kill the disapproval Resolution, and the sale or transfer will go through without the rest of us knowing about it. The process has already been used to transfer 547 acres of ceded land to Maui Land and Pineapple, and the Boy Scouts, in return for 2.6 acres of land.

"Although this measure went through the disapproval process in 2004, I was not aware of that until this year, when discussions regarding ceded lands came up as a result of the Governor's appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. And, like the Representative from Maui, I do know that this bill has a lot more discussion to go, and I appreciate that. So I look forward to working on this bill in Conference."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, and may I have the words, the eloquent words of the previous speaker from the Waianae Coast entered into the Journal as if they were my own? Thank you, very much."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Shimabukuro and Carroll be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just very briefly, I wanted to clarify that under our House Rules, 11.3, the Chair does not have unilateral discretion in terms of refusing to hear a bill or resolution. Ultimately, it lies upon the majority of the Committee, if they want to have a bill and/or resolution heard, they need to follow the procedures set forth in rule 11.3. That's the way we've always had it in our House Rules. The majority of the Committee still has that power, and so it is not a unilateral discretion of the Chair. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"So far, the only bill providing oversight or potential limits to the sale of State land (including ceded lands) is SB 1677. This bill requires that the State Executive (through the agency administering the proposed sale) submit a Resolution to the Legislature prior to the sale of the public land, and the sale may move forward if the Senate and House approve of it by a 2/3 vote. Existing law allows for the exchange of public lands (i.e., public land in exchange for private land) by an agency if, after submitting a Resolution to the Legislature, the Legislature does not disapprove of the sale.

"I am concerned that if this bill passes and a proposed sale or exchange of ceded lands moves forward, litigation will ensue and any legislation relating to a specific land sale or exchange will be found unconstitutional. In addition, the current disapproval process for land exchanges may not only result in litigation, but will also for the exchange of a land deal to close without the envisioned legislative oversight because of the Committee hearing process (i.e., the Chair of any single Committee could defer the action and prevent it from moving forward to the floor for a vote). Despite these problems, I support the idea that the Legislature should play a role in the sale of public land and SB 1677 will add a legislative step to the process that will, hopefully, ensure the public interest is served."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Strong reservations."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. With support, and very slight reservations. The reservation I have is that this measure includes all public land, including ceded land, and that could provide some problems in the future. I hope that the Conference Committee would look at that particular area. Thank you, very much."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations, only because I believe a full moratorium on the sale, exchange, or transfer of ceded lands is a better policy to follow. This branch of government rightfully possesses the authority to set policy over the management of the State's 1.2 million acres of ceded lands. As the United States Supreme Court acknowledged in its recent opinion in Hawaii, et. al v. Office of Hawaiian Affairs, (Slip Opinion, March 31, 2009), the question of how the state should manage the ceded lands trust is up to "the citizens of Hawaii . . . to resolve," because it is one "of great importance to the people of the State." Insofar as it is this branch of government's duty to legislate, make laws and set policy for the State as elected representatives of the people of this State, we have the authority to enact a moratorium as a policy that benefits all the people of the State.

"Under the terms of the Admissions Act, the State must use the land and any proceeds from the land, not just for the betterment of the conditions of native Hawaiians, but also to support public education, to provide farm and home ownership on as widespread a basis as possible, and to provide lands for public use. These "other" trust objectives benefit all of us. As trustee, the State of Hawaii owes a fiduciary duty to all of the people of Hawaii to prudently manage the trust.

"When a situation like the one we face arises, where one set of beneficiaries may have unrelinquished claims to the trust property, the trustee is obligated to preserve the trust corpus until the matter is resolved. This is not possible when there exists the possibility that the trustee could sell, exchange, or transfer the trust corpus. The trustee can effectively and properly administer the trust only when it has a clear sense of what all of the beneficiaries are entitled to.

"Another reason to support a moratorium is that in these uncertain times, the prudent action that the State should take, as trustee of 1.2 million acres of ceded lands, is to preserve the corpus of lands as a long-term strategy and to continue leasing these lands for income. The sale of land during this time of economic recession would very likely result in prices lower than those that could be realized in a more robust economy. A full moratorium on the transfer of ceded lands would merely reinforce the fiduciary duty the State already knows it has. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman's written remarks are as follows:

"Disapproval is a negative option process that requires no action for approval and the process will confuse the public."

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1677, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANDS CONTROLLED BY THE STATE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Berg and Hanohano voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

At 9:42 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1677, SD 1, HD 2

Representatives Herkes and Karamatsu, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1590) recommending that S.B. No. 205, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 205, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First of all, I'd like to disclose a potential conflict. My family members are contractors," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising with some reservations on this measure. What it's trying to do is cut down on owner-builders that aren't really operating as owner-builders. But the thing is, if someone is actually building their own home, they act as their own general contractor. That person, she or he, would very unlikely carry workers' compensation insurance. The other thing is, they might find it a little difficult to get the federal tax clearance. We know you can get a state tax clearance, that's quite easy. Going to the federal building and trying to track down how to get a federal tax clearance could be a little bit more onerous and time-consuming.

"So, I would like to have the Conference Committee take a look at that. If we're really talking about true owner-builder, she or he would not necessarily have the workers' comp insurance, and do we need to make that a requirement? Thank you."

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I get a ruling on a potential conflict? At my law firm, I represent owners, builders, and contractors. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 205, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OWNER-BUILDERS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representatives Herkes and Karamatsu, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1592) recommending that S.B. No. 53, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 53, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with short comments in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill has to do with life settlements Model Act, the stranger-originated life insurance.

"Basically, my opposition is just wanting to give it a chance to see how it works. This particular bill was amended in the last Committee, and that kind of changes the whole model part of the Act. It takes out the transparency part of it. So with that, I just wanted to see how the existing law works before we make any changes for consumer protection. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 53, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan and Pine voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1593) recommending that S.B. No. 420, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 420, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATUROPATHIC MEDICINE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1594) recommending that S.B. No. 764, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 764, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, this is really wonderful, the way the legislative process worked, and the way the Mainland owner of this property paid attention to the concerns of the local tenants.

"It started out to be a Mainland owner who was going to deal with things from afar. They had put an absolute requirement in lease renegotiations that the tenants could not talk to each other about what each individual tenant was being asked to pay. So, this gag order was in place, and then the bill started its way through the proceeding.

"The Mainland owner listened at the hearings, their counsel was here listening, and I believe gave good advice to this Mainland owner. I have a letter from them saying, and this is to one of the tenants: 'I would like to inform you of two changes in our policies, regarding rent negotiations and comparable market data. We no longer require tenants or potential tenants in our Oahu industrial market to sign confidentiality agreements before entering negotiations for rent resets, lease renewals, or new leases.'

"So, that's a real positive thing. It was the tenants who were fighting for survival, and they couldn't even talk to each other, under the gag rule. So, the gag rule has been lifted. And, they're also saying, 'In going forward, we will release transaction comparables to commercial real estate brokers and appraisers upon request, when contractually permitted.'

"And, it's a much better situation, Mr. Speaker, because this bill is alive and moving, and I encourage everyone to keep the bill going forward. Thank you.

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. If I may have permission to insert the letter in the Journal in its entirety, please. While blanking out the name of the tenant. Thank you."

Representative Thielen submitted the following letter:

April 9, 2009

Dear :

I am the Chief Operating Officer and Senior Vice President of HRPT Properties Trust, and I would like to share with you some recent developments regarding HRPT and the Hawaii office of its affiliate and property manager Reit Management & Research LLC (RMR).

We have made a change in leadership, and for the interim Chris Woodward will be Acting Vice President in charge of our Hawaii office. Chris has been with HRPT and its affiliates for five years working in our headquarters office outside Boston and is highly respected throughout our organization. He has been on the ground in Honolulu for the past 10 weeks and is committed to remain in place until we fill the Hawaii Vice President role on a permanent basis. Chris can be reached by calling 808-599-5800 or via email at cwoodard@reitmr.com.

Our Honolulu office is fully committed to meeting its goal of responding to any tenant inquiry within one business day, and we are in the process of increasing our staffing levels to achieve this. I would remind you that we have an emergency hotline for property management issues (808-945-1185). Resolution of our request might take longer than one business day; however, you will receive a timely return call or email to let you know that your issue is being addressed. In addition, if you have questions regarding any upcoming rent re-opening, I encourage you to call our Honolulu office to schedule a meeting.

I also would like to inform you of two changes in our policies regarding rent negotiations and comparable market data. We no longer require tenants or potential tenants in our Oahu industrial market to sign confidentiality agreements before entering negotiations for rent re-sets, lease renewals or new leases. In addition, going forward, we will release transaction comparables to commercial real estate brokers and appraisers upon request, when contractually permitted. It is our hope that these changes will help tenants make better informed decisions and result in a smoother renegotiation process for all parties.

For our James Campbell Industrial Park tenants, we will be opening an onsite office and establishing regular business hours there. We will notify you when the office opens and of its hours of operations in a subsequent letter.

We remain committed to supporting our Hawaii tenants and thank you for the opportunity to strengthen our relationship.

Best regards,
David M. Lepore
Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer
HRPT Properties Trust"

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of Senate Bill 764, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2, Relating to Real Property. Small businesses and farms are an essential element in strengthening and diversifying Hawaii's economy and creating jobs for our people and despite their contribution to Hawaii's economy, small businesses and farms are at a disadvantage in terms of land ownership. The commercial, industrial, and farm properties that exist within the State's districts are primarily owned by a few landowners. These landowners control large tracts of land and retain their ownership by means of leases to small businesses and farms, which in turn supply services and products for our community.

"The purpose of the first part of this bill is to stabilize Hawaii's economy by addressing some of the burdensome or vague provisions of existing commercial and industrial leases of certain lands within urban districts by clarifying provisions in long-term commercial and industrial ground leases, without substantial reduction in the economic benefit to the landowners or impact on their ownership of the land, without impairing their lease contracts, and without the taking of any property rights without due process of law.

"Senate Bill 764 explains that notwithstanding any other law to the contrary and unless expressly stated to the contrary in the lease, any lease of commercial or industrial leasehold property shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

1) Whenever a lease existing on July 1, 2009, or entered into thereafter, provides for the renegotiation of the rental amount or other recompense during the term of the lease and the renegotiated rental amount or other recompense is based, according to the terms of the lease, in whole or in part on a fair and reasonable annual rent as of the commencement of the term, that provision shall:

(A) Be construed to require that the rent shall be fair and reasonable to both the lessor and the lessee to the lease; and

(B) Take into account any and all relevant attendant circumstances relating to the lease, including:

(i) Past renegotiation practices and policies throughout the previously renegotiated lease rents;

(ii) The uses and intensity of the use of the leased property during the term of the lease approved by the lessor;

(iii) The surface and subsurface characteristics of the leased property and the surrounding neighborhood of the leased property on the renegotiated date; and

(iv) The gross income generated by the lessee on the renegotiated date.

"In the second part of this bill, the purpose is to carry out the mandate of Article XI, section 3, of the Hawaii Constitution to conserve and protect agricultural lands and assure availability of agriculturally suitable lands.

"The legislature finds that the land use law was enacted to "preserve and protect land best suited for . . . agricultural purposes and to facilitate sound and economical urban development" (Senate Standing Committee Report Number 580; 1961 Senate Journal). Since that time, however, lands classified by the land study bureau as class A and class B lands, the lands most suited for intensive agricultural use, have declined from three hundred fifty-nine thousand six hundred ninety acres (Class A, one hundred twenty-five thousand one hundred sixty acres; class B, two hundred thirty-four thousand five hundred thirty acres) in 1960 to one hundred seventy-two thousand ninety-four acres (Class A, fifty-six thousand six hundred fifty-three acres; Class B, one hundred fifteen thousand four hundred forty-one acres) in 2007. These agricultural lands are a resource that cannot be replaced once they are lost to development.

"The inventory of lands that are suitable for agriculture is essentially fixed. Unlike other agricultural inputs, agricultural lands cannot be manufactured when the demand for them increases. In 1960, the land study bureau estimated that there were nearly three hundred sixty thousand acres of class A and B lands on the six major islands. These were the lands upon which the State depended for profitable, competitive agricultural production. By 2007, the inventory of class A and B lands had declined to slightly more than one hundred seventy-two thousand acres, making it more important than ever to conserve Hawaii's most productive agricultural lands, especially in counties with a population of over five hundred thousand residents.

"Part two of this bill provides that whenever any agreement or document for the lease of private agricultural lands with soil classified by the land study bureau's detailed land classification as overall (master) productivity rating class A or B for agricultural use in counties with populations of over five hundred thousand provides for the renegotiation of the rental amount and the term of the lease, and the lessee has made improvements or is seeking to make improvements on the land, the renegotiated term of the lease shall include an extension of the lease for a period of not less than seventy-five per cent of the original term of the lease.

"Further, the measure requires that for a boundary amendment for agricultural lands with soil classified by the land study bureau's detailed land classification as overall (master) productivity rating class A or B, no amendment of a land use district boundary shall be approved in counties with a population of over five hundred thousand where:

(1) A farming operation as defined in Hawaii Revised Statutes section 165-2 is being conducted on the land;

(2) The land is important for agriculture based on the stock of similarly suited lands in the area;

(3) The district boundary amendment will harm the productivity or viability of existing agricultural activity in the area; and

(4) The district boundary amendment will cause fragmentation of or intrusion of nonagricultural uses into largely intact areas of agricultural lands with soil classified by the land study bureau's detailed land classification as overall (master) productivity rating class A or B.

"These requirements will help to protect some of our most valuable and productive agricultural lands. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Senate Bill 764 sets forth statutory factors for determining what is fair and reasonable rent for long-term commercial and ground leases. While I am very sympathetic to lessees, many of whom may be small businesses providing valuable services and employment to Hawaii's people, who are struggling during these difficult economic times and who are affected by the vague terms the Legislature now seeks to define, I am not certain that passing SB 764 is the appropriate solution. This bill rides a fine line between general and special legislation. This bill also poses other problems. Its provisions may invite litigation under the contracts clause of the U.S. Constitution. Some of the testifiers concluded that a constitutional challenge would fail because this bill, if passed into law, would easily survive judicial scrutiny under the rational basis test. Because of these uncertainties, please note my reservations with this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 764, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Berg, Hanohano, Keith-Agaran, C. Lee, Luke, Saiki, Shimabukuro and Takumi voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1597) recommending that S.B. No. 34, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 34, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak with reservations concerning SB 34, which excludes real estate brokers and salespersons from the definition of distressed property consultants. The bill also prohibits certain conduct relating to the acquisition of an ownership interest in distressed property by licensed real estate brokers and salespersons.

"The bill seeks to amend Act 137—the Mortgage Foreclosure Rescue Fraud Prevention Act—which became law less than a year ago. It was designed to protect consumers from foreclosure rescue scams and fraudulent distressed property consultants who offer so-called "help" to homeowners who are in arrears or foreclosure.

"This "help" usually comes in the form of scam artists who take a fee for negotiating with a distressed homeowner's mortgage company. Frequently, this results in the homeowner getting little or nothing for their fee and the consultant disappearing with the money. An even more insidious form of the scheme involves the consultant taking title to the property … and the homeowner staying on as a renter in an often futile attempt to buy it back over the next few years.

"While I appreciate the challenges Act 137 presents for real estate brokers and salespersons, I do not believe a wholesale exemption of the industry is the appropriate way to deal with the existing situation. If Act 137 is causing problems for the real estate industry, this bill in its present form is not the best way to solve them. My inclination is to vote 'no' on this bill. For now, I express my reservations in the hope that a better bill might emerge from Conference Committee … or even next year."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 34, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE MORTGAGE RESCUE FRAUD PREVENTION ACT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1622) recommending that S.B. No. 1, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Can I note my reservations on this, and just give quick comments with reservations. It's just very difficult to be able to monitor this: when the opihi is above the waterline or below the waterline. I think that it's going to just be problematic. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, I share the reservations of the Minority Leader. I'm voting with reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OPIHI," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

At 9:49 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 205, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 53, HD 1
S.B. No. 420, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 764, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 34, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 1, SD 1, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1626) recommending that S.B. No. 878, SD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 878, SD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support for this cost-saving measure. Thank you. This bill saves money by allowing the PUC to provide hearing notices to only the islands affected by a public utility proposal for change in utility rates and rate making procedures.

"Present State law requires the PUC to provide three statewide notices of a public hearing regarding such items as a proposed change or modification in rate. And these notices must be published statewide, even if the public utility, which the notice pertains, and the customers who may be affected reside in another county and are not statewide.

"By amending this law to provide that notices be published only in the counties served by the utility seeking the proposed change, the PUC's publication cost could be reduced as much as 50% per fiscal year. For instance, had this proposed change been in effect in fiscal year '06-'07, the PUC would have reduced its advertising expense by $74,000.

"Affected customers will still receive direct and adequate notice of public hearings on rate changes. The PUC will regularly post notices of public hearings on its website to keep the general public informed. But, I think this is a great cost-saving measure, and promotes efficiency in government. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 878, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLICATION OF HEARING NOTICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1633) recommending that S.B. No. 164, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 164, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE FEDERAL GRANTS SEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, AND APPLICATION REVOLVING FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1636) recommending that S.B. No. 166, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 166, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure.

"Cancer drugs constitute the second biggest category of drugs in the United State behind cholesterol-lowering medicines and account for $18 billion in sales. Oral chemotherapy drugs can be used to treat many cancers including; breast, ovarian, colorectal, prostate, lung, and leukemia.

"For patients, the advantages are many. Oral drugs offer a targeted approach, attacking the cancer cells directly, and they produce fewer nasty side effects, such as gastrointestinal problems and hair loss. They also reduce the amount of time patients must stay in the hospital; even in an outpatient setting, IV chemotherapy can last up to 6 hours. Because we are an island state, they reduce travel time and cost. They also eliminate nursing and physician cost as there is no need to insert an IV port or intravenous catheter, which can remain in place for weeks. Needless to say IV chemotherapy is not pleasant and there is always a risk of infection, especially in the immunocompromised patient.

"During hearings on this bill, the vast majority of the testimony reflected support; this included oncology physicians, nurses, and patients. There was opposition from the health insurance carriers. Their point was that oral chemotherapy drugs are covered by their prescription plan. This is partly true. Yes, they do cover a limited number of oral cancer therapy drugs, but there are many newer more effective drugs that they don't cover. For example, Avastin, is one of the many new oral chemotherapy drugs, but it is only covered for IV use and is not on the prescription drug formulary of a major insurer.

"SB166, is a good bill, it will do three important things. It requires health insurance carriers to provide coverage for all chemotherapy treatment, including orally administered drugs under the same terms and conditions and payment rate and reimbursement as that of intravenously administered drugs. Next, it should reduce the out-of-pocked financial burden that is associated with cancer. It is not uncommon for families to sell their homes to pay for treatment, and it is not unusual for treatment cost to exceed $100,000. Finally, this bill gives cancer patients another treatment option, and reduces the time they must spend traveling and receiving IV treatment. Our Neighbor Island residents will not need to travel to Honolulu as frequently, for treatment.

"For these reasons, I strongly support the passage of SB 166 and urge the Members' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 166, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1637) recommending that S.B. No. 568, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 568, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. Mr. Speaker, rising in strong support of 1637. Mr. Speaker, I'm in support of this measure, because it establishes a task force for electronic prescription to develop a plan to implement electronic prescription drug programs. And, the health information technology is an essential component for improving quality of care. Quality of care would be improved by the use of registries for proactive care, and patient safety will be improved, as well as avoiding the incorrect filling of some ineligible handwritten prescriptions. Efficiency will be improved by not needing to spend time locating or filing paper charts.

"This is a good bill. It's something that, I think a number of the hospitals and the medical centers have wanted for a while. And, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 will provide funding to support implementation of this, maximizing this funding, and it will require more expediency. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 568, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRONIC PRESCRIPTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1639) recommending that S.B. No. 777, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 777, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is Senate Bill 777, SD 1, HD 1. The description of this bill states that it requires any recipient of State funding to provide medically accurate sexuality education, and I believe that it's misleading, Mr. Speaker. I say this because this bill would prevent programs, like the Catholic Charities of Hawaii's successful, currently federally-funded program that is a medically accurate abstinence-only program from receiving State funds in the future. SB 777 is an unnecessarily punitive measure, which targets successful local abstinence programs for Hawaii's youth.

"Mr. Speaker, I think a lot of the presenters who present the comprehensive, medically accurate sex-education programs currently, many don't believe that people, in general, can actually accomplish no sex before marriage. So, to have them teach a part of it that talks about abstinence, as you talk to kids, they don't believe it. They don't believe that it can be done, because it's taught by people who don't believe that it can be done.

"Requiring abstinence only and comprehensive sexual education to be taught at the same time, is similar to the principle underlining the controversial needle-exchange program. And, what I mean by this is, someone standing in front of kids and telling them, 'Don't use drugs. But if you use drugs, use a clean needle, and we'll give it to you.' Mr. Speaker, you have kids. Many of us have kids, and they don't quite get that, when you tell them, 'No, don't do this. However, we're going to show you how to do it, and how to do it safely.' I'm not saying that you don't teach the other side. I'm just saying that you don't force the people who say they are going to teach one particular thing to teach all aspects of what is considered comprehensive, medically accurate sex education.

"Mr. Speaker, of course we want our children to have that proper information, but at some times, what these programs are teaching are displays of sexual promiscuity. It is hard enough for parents to teach their child sexual morality when television and movies promote anything but that. And, it makes it much more difficult when adults come into our schools and make sexual promiscuity look cool.

"In actuality, this bill is an effort to stamp out abstinence-only programs. Just by reading the purpose clause, anyone can see the hostility that some have toward abstinence programs. The purpose clause implies that abstinence-only groups provide inaccurate information. What groups like Planned Parenthood don't like is how abstinence groups tell the truth about the failure rate of condoms. How the only 100% effective birth control method is abstinence. And how sex is closely linked to emotions, therefore has been one of the causes of teen depression, Mr. Speaker.

"Let me just tell you, because most parents, when I talk about this, they're pretty shocked. Most parents, they don't know what's happening in our education system. So, I'm just going to go ahead and read from a couple of the articles from last year. This is a Honolulu Advertiser article, and it's entitled, Kalani Sex Education Program Blasted.

> 'We sat there for five minutes listening to a young man tell us how he used his finger to have sex with his girlfriend,' said this parent. 'A female student had to read off a cue card about how to have hand sex with a person who has HIV, and how to get his penis erect. They had a dildo stuck to the board. There it hung, flaccid.'

"And it also says in here, in another article,

> 'The State's Board of Education requires public schools to follow an abstinence-based education policy promoting it in health classes as the surest and most responsible way to prevent unintended pregnancies, STDs, and emotional distress. However, the schools are also expected to teach other forms of protection from the 5th grade on.'

"So, what is that protection, Mr. Speaker? At Kahuku High School and Intermediate School, and another at Kalani High School, have focused no attention on the programs, especially the use of sex toys, demonstrations about how to use male and female condoms, and the discussion of oral sex.

"Mr. Speaker, remember now, in regards to parental choice on whether or not this is acceptable to the parent, my understanding on how it exists today, from the Education Committee, is that the form is given to the child, whether it be from 5th grade to the 12th grade. Then, if they don't receive the form back, then that means the parents are ok with this being taught in their health education class."

Representative Pine rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"I'm almost done, Mr. Speaker. But, how many high school kids actually give their forms home to their parents. Sometimes you have kids who don't even send their report cards home, and you have to mail it home so that their parents see them.

"Mr. Speaker, I just think that what you have here is a situation that sets it up where parents do not have the choice on whether or not their kids have the choice of what kind of sex education class they are going to be given.

"The other thing is, if you talk to some of the teachers, the health education teachers from across Oahu, because this is where the Try Wait! Catholic Charities Program works in, you'll find testimony from these teachers that are saying, no other group, no other person is giving this kind of information about abstinence-only, and helping them to understand that there is another choice, and that they're very thankful. These educators are very thankful that there is another message aside from, 'it's ok to sleep around.'

"Mr. Speaker, I just feel really strongly about this, because there are many parents that feel that this is not the place to have this kind of say about sex education in such a broad way. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Well, first of all, I want to make some comments about a few of the statements the previous speaker gave. One, she mentioned that she believed that people who were teaching sex education in schools did not believe in abstinence, and so, when they were teaching, they really weren't teaching that as an alternative. I think that was really such a general statement. I believe in my heart that people who do teach, understand abstinence is a good thing, but the reality of the world we live in today is, it's really changed.

"I'm always shocked when I go with my niece and nephew to some of these movies that we have that are still rated PG. There was one in particular that I remember where you hear the baby speaking in a voice. I can't remember what the name of the movie was, but at the beginning of the movie, this woman was having sex with her boss, and then she ended up getting pregnant, telling him she didn't want to get married to him. I don't know if it was John Travolta, but it was a big, major movie that parents thought was really great. But, at the beginning of the movie, she was having sex with a married man, and I'm thinking, where are the moral values here? What's wrong with the messages we're sending?

"So, I think the reality is, we've shifted consciousness. When I was 12 years old, we learned about sex, abstinence, what it was all about, all the toys, all that stuff, but we talked story with each other. We didn't know if we were accurate in what we were talking about, but we were talking at 12 years old about what's going on, and what do our parents do, what we're seeing. Some people were getting magazines, going to the grocery store, and looking things up, because we were curious. We wanted to know about this. We knew it was going on around us. And when we talk today, and when I talk to gals my age, and I'm 56 years old, they're saying, 'Why didn't they teach us all that stuff? Why did we have to go around and sneak about it, and try to figure it out?' We really didn't know what was going on.

"I think what's happened is we now have to address sexually transmitted diseases. It's huge now. It's major. In my generation, we weren't talking about sexually transmitted diseases. But now the world's changed. Now there's sexually transmitted diseases, and there's a lot of television and movies. If you want to talk about getting things correct, that's where we should head. The reality is, we have a responsibility to children. Responsibility to educate them.

"And, if you want to talk about drugs, like the previous speaker, we want to teach kids to make smart choices. The reality is television ads, and stuff in magazines are all about taking drugs. You take drugs for everything now in our society. Headaches, sex, you can't sleep, you want to lose weight, whatever it is, there's drugs for absolutely everything. Depression. It just goes on and on.

"And so, I think what we're trying to teach children is that you've got to make smart choices. You have to know there are good choices, and that people out there may be leading you the wrong way. It's up to adults, it's up to parents, and some parents are so busy that they're not seeing that their kids are being exposed to some of these things.

"So, I think that what's coming about is the fact that our society is changing, and this really is helping our children make good choices. So I really encourage us to keep this discussion going. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly. I do recognize the concerns that have been brought up, but I think overall, what we need to do is look at the evidence, because we want to make evidence-based policies. I just wanted to cite four reports.

"The first one is by Douglas Kirby, a PhD who published a study in November of 2007. It clearly shows that comprehensive sex education, abstinence-only, as well as explaining the true risks, and potential benefits, and everything else about sexual behavior, about how to use contraceptives effectively to prevent pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections, can help teens make healthy and responsible life decisions.

"The second study is one by Pamela Kohler in Spring of 2008. This was a nationwide study of 15 to 19 year-olds, that found that teens who participated, again, in comprehensive sex education, abstinence-only, as well as how to use contraceptives were significantly less likely to report teen pregnancies than those who received either no sex education or attended abstinence-only until marriage programs.

"The third one is a report by Douglas Kirby, a PhD who I talked about earlier. This is a report, again from him. November, 2007, a review of 115 sex education programs found that, again, the comprehensive sex education approach can significantly delay the initiation of sex, reduce the frequency of sex, reduce the number of sexual partners, and increase condom or contraceptive use amongst teens.

"And the last one is by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, which noted, 'research has clearly shown that the most effective programs are comprehensive ones that include a focus on delaying sexual behavior, and provide information on how sexually active young people can protect themselves.'

"So, while I recognize that there may be a lot of fear out there by parents, based off this anecdotal evidence that they've heard, we in this Body need to make decisions based on policy. I think the overwhelming evidence shows that comprehensive sex education is something that is valuable and is something that is necessary. Because, despite how we may want to shelter children, and how we believe that, at the end of the day, parents can protect them against everything, unfortunately, that's not true. And there are forces out there that need to be reckoned with, and these studies show how we can do it in the best, and most reasonable way. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do have comments in rebuttal. Mr. Speaker, I'm not sure what the former speaker was talking about, the anecdotal evidence having to do with a parent's responsibility, or a parent's experience. What I was commenting on, in regards to the articles, was actually a parent sitting in on one of these comprehensive sex education classes. So, it's not anecdotal about their fears. He was just explaining what he observed in this particular article.

"The problem that I have is, you have different audiences when you go as a presenter to these kids. You have audiences that are active in sex, and then you have audience members who aren't active, and some on the verge of being active. And, I understand. When I was younger, my parents just told me a certain way. They didn't teach me about sex. I'm very open with my kids in teaching them about sex.

"So, I'm not necessarily against teaching some of these things that are in comprehensive sex education. What I am against is the mandate of saying that if you want State funds, you have to teach both by the same group, or the same person, in the same presentation. That is what I'm against.

"And, I want to make it clear for these people to understand what they're doing is taking people who say that, 'I might not be able to teach about having a condom stuck in front of me, or some dildo stuck in front of me, in front of a class. I may not be able to teach that with my program, but I can teach about the ineffective rates of a condom. I can teach about sexually transmitted diseases without having these sex toys in front of me. And, I can teach about how you deal with the pressures of having sex in high school. I can teach about all of these kinds of things, just don't make me teach about dildos and sex toys.'

"Mr. Speaker, like I said about the audience, you have different kinds of kids in the audience when you're teaching. And for some people like me who are responsible parents, who want to go in and not shelter my kids, but teach them in the way that I feel is appropriate for their maturity and their age. I don't shelter my kids.

"This makes me very upset, Mr. Speaker, because the comments are made to sound like we're oblivious to what's happening in the world. This is undermining the responsible parent that has a child in the school that is trying to teach their kid, according to their maturity, and according to their level of age-appropriateness. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I just wanted to also add, still in opposition, that it's about balance and it's about parental choice. I ask also that the additional comments made by the Minority Leader be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in opposition. I just wanted to make clear that my opposition is the fact that I believe that this discriminates against religious families who want to have that option to be taught just abstinence-only education, so that the school can be consistent with what they're being taught at home.

"The Majority Leader talked about the importance of data in this discussion. A great author once said, 'There's truth, lies, and then there's data.' And data can usually be used in any way that you want it to be used. So, I'd like to give some data as well.

"According to a report to Congress, that was required by Congress to be given to them, it states, 'Abstinence is the only 100% effective method to prevent pregnancy and STDs. The greatest risk factors for teen pregnancy and transmission of STDs are the age at first onset, with a multiple number of partners. Abstinence education serves to help teens delay the onset of sexual activity, and reduce the number of sexual partners they have through education, monitoring, counseling, and peer report.' And that is a report to Congress by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. It's right here if anybody wants to read that data.

"Also, in another report, by Jones and Toffler, and it states the declines in adolescent pregnancy, birth, and abortion rates in the 1990s. This study, which was done by several different doctors, reported that abstinence and decreased sexual activity amongst sexually active adolescents are primarily responsible for the decline during the 1990s in adolescent pregnancy, birth and abortion rates.

"In another institute, the Medical Institute for Health says, 'Abstinence-only education teaches core ethical values that are held more or less universally. Most appropriate for schools to target those core ethical values of responsibility, self-discipline, self-control, integrity, honesty, fairness and kindness. And these can be objectives for a curricular development.'

"Another report, back to the Congressional report, expressed some concerns over the inconsistency in the promotion of a health curricula. Comprehensive-based sex education has an innate inconsistency with the health curricula, the study states. Students are taught to say 'no' to tobacco, alcohol, drugs, gun-use, drunk driving, but when it comes to the potential dangers that come to sexual activity, the message is just practice safe sex if you're going to do it.

"So, it's a very confusing and a dangerous message to our keiki. And that's all the data that I have for today."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a very brief comment with reservations. As a matter of fact, there are three kinds of lies that Mark Twain said: 'There are lies, damn lies, and statistics.' The fact of the matter is both sides of this argument need to be heard. Where the rub is, Mr. Speaker, if you're good at teaching evolution, you would not be very good at teaching creationism. I think that's where the Minority Leader is coming from. Let's not force the same to have to do both of those, because they would do a very poor job. Let them both do what they do very well, and let's get on with it. So, let's get the birds and the bees, and beyond where we are for 20 minutes here. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in favor. The Minority Leader mentioned Kalani High School, so I think I should relate the experience at that high school, if I may. Thank you.

"At Kalani High School, they do have a medically accurate, age-appropriate program that was funded, and there was a newspaper report about very graphic programs, as mentioned by the Minority Leader. I phoned up the principal and asked whether he had received any calls on this graphic program, and he said 'no.' He had not gotten any. He had not received any complaints about their program, which they had for many years. I expected to receive some negative calls against the program, and I did not receive any.

"So, I urge you to vote for this bill. I think the people who are for it are not against abstinence. They are only opposed to a federally funded abstinence-only program that hasn't worked, because pregnancy numbers have gone up, sexually transmitted diseases have increased. So, programs that teach abstinence-only are not effective. So, we must go back to our medically accurate, age-appropriate programs that also teach abstinence. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino's written remarks are as follows:

"The bill's intention is to ensure that abstinence-only education, as well as comprehensive sex education, is taught at the same time. This would undermine the message of abstinence-only programs, who in fact, teach alternatives to abstinence, but at different times of the curriculum. The bill's language prior to the House draft would force organizations, like Catholic Charities Hawaii, with successful federally funded abstinence-only programs, to choose between the loss of those federal dollars or the loss of State funding for other non-sex education programs.

"I support the House amendments made in SB 777, SD1, HD 1, which would prevent the loss of funding and employment of people hired by Catholic Charities Hawaii to conduct abstinence-only programs. However, the notion that abstinence-only curriculums are ineffective or inaccurate can be disputed."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 777, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMPREHENSIVE SEXUALITY HEALTH EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan and Pine voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1642) recommending that S.B. No. 378, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 378, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ito rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Stand. Com. Report No. 1642, SB378, SD1, HD1.

"Mr. Speaker, during the hearing before your House Committee on Water, Land, and Ocean Resources on March 9, 2009, the Department of Land and Natural Resources presented testimony which stated, "The Department is currently conducting statewide public meetings on many marine species in need of further conservation, including the species in this bill. At these meetings, fishers are being asked for their input on a variety of management options including: minimum sizes, bag limits, restriction on take based on commercial or non-commercial purposes, open and closed seasons." It is my understanding that since January 2009 the Department of Land and Natural Resources has been holding public informational meetings throughout the State. These meetings were held to gather public input to regulate the Parrotfish and Goatfish through size limit, bag limit, seasonal closure, etc.

"The first meeting was held on Maui on January 14, 2009, at the Maui Waena Elementary School with the last being held on March 5, 2009, at the Lanai Public Library. Granted, the Legislature has the authority to enact any legislation which it deems necessary to manage Hawaii's marine resources. However, to do so at this time would only detract from the Department's ability to formulate proper and effective Administrative Rules. We must permit the Department of Land and Natural Resources to continue with their rule making process without any interference from an outside agency. It is the Department of Land and Natural Resources that has the expertise to determine how best to manage Hawaii's marine resources. If I may remind my colleagues that the 2002 Legislature passed HB2552, which was enacted into law as Act 151, Session Laws of Hawaii 2002. This measure amended Act 85, Session Laws of Hawaii 1999, by repealing the sunset date and transferring many of the marine life regulations from statues to the Department of Land and Natural Resources' Administrative Rules. The 2002 Legislature agreed with the Department of Land and Natural Resources that the creation of regulations for such matters as minimum sizes, seasonal closure, bag limits, etc. were better handled through the Administrative Rules process.

"Mr. Speaker, when SB378, SD1 crossed over to this Chamber it set minimum sizes and bag limits on the Parrotfish and Goatfish, the very thing that the Department of Land and Natural Resources is responsible for. As I stated before, the Legislature gave that authority to the Department of Land and Natural Resources. Additionally, fishermen have always stated that Administrative Rules should not be formulated based on public opinion alone, they should be based on available data with public input. To support the Department of Land and Natural Resources continued effort to formulate Administrative Rules to regulate the taking of the Parrotfish and Goatfish and to take note of fishermen concerns SB 378, SD1 is amended in its entirety. Section 2 of SB378, SD1, HD1 reflects this Chamber's intent as follows:

1. The Department of Land and Natural Resources shall continue to hold public informational meetings to hear the concerns and suggestions from the public regarding the taking and protection of Uhu, Weke/Moana Kali, and Ulua/Papio.

"Mr. Speaker, the intent of this section is to encourage the Department to continue with holding public informational meetings. Gathering such public input will enhance the Department's ability to better formulate statewide, as well as regional (island by island), rules.

2. Use and present all available data to support the basis for any rule proposed based on public input, and if no data is available , use all available means to gather the necessary data.

"Mr. Speaker, this section only reinforces what is required of DLNR as stated in statues. HRS Section 187A-2 "Powers and duties of department" states in subsection (6): "The department shall – gather and compile information and statistics concerning the habitat and character of, and increase and decrease in, aquatic resources in the State, including the care and propagation of aquatic resources for protective, productive, and aesthetic purposes, and other useful information, which the department deems proper." Nowhere is this measure does it require scientific justification, as stated by the Department of Land and Natural Resources in their testimony before the House Committee on Finance on April 6, 2009.

"Presently the Department has some available data for the taking of the Parrotfish and Goatfish. The only data have come from licensed commercial fishermen. Commercial fishermen, licensed in the State of Hawaii, are required to submit monthly reports to the department for all of their catches, including the Parrotfish and Goatfish. What the Department lacks is the data from recreational fishermen catches. Presently recreational fishermen are not required to possess a saltwater fishing permit nor submit monthly catch reports. In the State of Hawaii there are, presently, 4,000 licensed commercial fishermen and, at a minimum, an estimated 100,000 recreational fishermen. It can only be assumed that with such a large number the recreational fishermen can catch more of a specific fish then the commercial fishermen.

"Case in point: if 100 recreational fishermen on the Island of Maui caught two Parrotfish each month in 2008, this will result in a total catch of 2,400 Parrotfish for the whole year. This is nearly as many as the 2,851 Parrotfish reportedly caught by commercial fishermen in the waters of Maui in 2008. Without catch reports from recreational fishermen it is difficult for the Department to properly assess the Parrotfish stock, or even the Goatfish stock. This only indicates that the Department of Land and Natural Resources must make a better effort to obtain the necessary catch reports from both recreational and commercial fishermen.

3. Develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the effects that runoff, sedimentation, pollution, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem, and the introduction of invasive species have on the ecosystem that affects the habitat and forage of Uhu, Weke/Moana Kali, and Ulua/Papio.

"Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that presently, the Department of Land and Natural Resources does not have a monitoring or evaluation program to determine the effects runoff, sedimentation, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem, invasive species, and the introduction of alien species have on Hawaii's marine ecosystem, mainly the marine fish life. Without such a program it will be quite difficult for the Department to determine whether overfishing or the effects of runoff, sedimentation, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem, invasive species, or the introduction of alien species may be causing a decline in the population of a certain species of fish.

4. Develop a monitoring and evaluation program to determine the outcomes to be achieved by the implementation of any proposed rule and estimate the timeframes through which the outcomes will be achieved.

"Mr. Speaker, whenever the Department establishes any new Administrative Rule, a monitoring and evaluation program need also be developed in order to determine what outcomes are to be achieved and whether these outcomes have been achieved. All too often the Department has established Administrative Rules without any indication as to what outcome is to be achieved or even if the outcome has been achieved, resulting in Administrative Rules being on the books for years with no recourse. Such a monitoring and evaluation program will go a long way when the Department revisits the rules in future years and needs to determine if the rules can be lessened or made more restrictive.

"The federal government, NOAA in particular, has such a monitoring and evaluation program. In 2007, NOAA set a maximum take limit of 170,000 pounds for the seven bottom fishes; Opakapaka, Onaga, Lehi, Ehu, Gindai, Kalekale, and Hapuupuu, within the main Hawaiian Islands for the 2007 – 2008 fishing season. Subsequently, NOAA conferred with fishermen to fully understand how the fishery works. Scientist learned how the fishery has evolved historically with the introduction of new technologies that have helped fishermen; such as GPS, color recorders, power reels, etc. All this information was factored in by scientists to more accurately analyze the commercial marine landing data. This helped scientists to build a better population model, which gave a much more accurate assessment of the bottom fish population. With this evaluation and monitoring program NOAA increased the taking of the seven bottom fishes by 70,000 pounds for the 2008 – 2009 fishing season.

"Mr. Speaker, I do want to commend the Department of Land and Natural Resources, Division of Aquatics Resources, for taking the time to conduct community informational meetings to gather public input on possible new regulations for Uhu, Weke and Ulua/Papio. However, gathering public input alone is not enough. The Department must take a more active, as well as proactive, role in conserving Hawaii's marine resources. The Department must actively educate the public on Hawaii's fishing regulations, including seasonal closures and the effects that land-generated pollution, siltation and run-off have on the marine ecosystem. They should initiate working with other departmental agencies to assess the possible impacts on the marine resources and to offer mitigating measures when any type of development—land or ocean based, could adversely affect Hawaii's endemic marine species and unique marine ecosystem.

"As with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), the Department must constantly confer with Hawaii's commercial fishermen to learn of advances in fishing technology and of Hawaii's unique style of fishing for various species of fish. Hawaii's commercial fishermen are already regulated by law and via other means, including market demand, weather conditions, competition, and user conflicts. These fishermen possess the knowledge of fishing habitats and impact upon the habitats and are regarded as the caretakers of the resources. Using the resources responsibly today is the only way to allow for continued use tomorrow and ensure their survival. To impose regulations on any commercial fisherman based on opinions gathered from recreational fishermen is just not proper. The DLNR should seriously consider conferring with NOAA and examine their model to help provide for a more accurate assessment of fish populations and to properly craft enforceable regulations, only as necessary.

"Mr. Speaker, there is nothing wrong with fishermen wanting the freedom to fish responsibly. The acts of catching fish and eating fish are important to our island lifestyle. My family, constituents and I enjoy eating fresh locally caught fish and support continued responsible fishing practices—and I'm sure my colleagues share this sentiment—therefore, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting Stand. Com. Report No. 1642, SB 378 SD1, HD1. Let us give the Department of Land and Natural Resources, Division of Aquatic Resources, our full support in their efforts to responsibly and reasonably evaluate, assess and monitor the resources and work on establishing fair and equitable fishing rules to conserve Hawaii's precious marine resources for future use."

Representative Keith-Agaran rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Keith-Agaran's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I support of SB 378, SD 1, HD 1, Relating to Fishing, with reservations.

"Uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio species unquestionably show a decline in population with fewer fish in our reefs. These fish play a critical role within Hawaii's unique reef ecosystem. We must make a move to balance the downward slope of our fish and build on what we have now. The bag limits proposed in earlier versions of this bill and similar bills this Session would have effectively maintained these important nearshore resources in an easily enforceable fashion, but I will grant that allowing the Department of Land and Natural Resources ("DLNR") to pursue its information gathering may result in effective management as well.

"I must agree that the wisdom handed down from people who know our nearshore waters can provide valuable insights into effective management. Fishing in Hawaii is a tradition that existed hand-in-hand with sustainability. Hawaiian customs taught the island communities to maintain a balance of their resources to ensure generations to come would live in a sustainable environment.

"There is certainly value in having DLNR consider sedimentation, pollution, lack or profusion of fresh water intrusion into the marine ecosystem and the introduction of invasive species have on the habitat and forage of uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio. Public input should always be welcomed to illuminate the best available data produced by sound science to shape management decisions. When the public acknowledges participation in shaping an effective regulation, the community – including the nearshore fishers – will take responsibility for these conservation efforts.

"But as I said with regard to the similar bill HB 1712, HD 2, the precautionary doctrine suggests that the stewards of these Public Trust resources should manage our fisheries with sustainability in mind. With the State facing budget challenges, I'm concerned about further impairing DLNR's ability to protect our nearshore stocks.

"The most recent data from scientific surveys in the Main Hawaiian Islands indicates that human impacts are a primary cause of impaired fisheries. See Williams, I. D., et al (2008) Environmental Conservatism: Assessing the Importance of Fishing Impacts on Hawaiian Coral Reef Fish Assemblages Along Regional-Scale Human Population Gradients: 261, 270, 271. The proponents of good management must agree with Williams and other scientists that, "an essential first step towards developing effective management responses is to determine the importance of the various factors contributing to degradation in any particular situation. In particular, it is likely to be difficult to build support for appropriate remedial action if it is not possible to reach a consensus on the underlying cause(s) of resource declines. . . ." The anecdotal information provided by fisherman is particularly useful to perhaps explain problems with what the plain data indicates. In the Williams study, "it did not seem that proximity to high human population density was by itself associated with fish population declines, but rather that the crucial factor was proximity to human populations who were able to readily access, and therefore fish, nearshore waters." But William must conclude, based on the information collected, that "[his] data set provides clear evidence that stocks of target and vulnerable taxa are severely depleted around accessible and populous locations in the MHI, and a number of lines of evidence indicate that fishing is the prime cause."

"With this up-to-date data and information in-hand, DLNR can properly assess the received wisdom of the fishers and other users of the nearshore Main Hawaiian Islands to assist in fashioning the best management practices that will benefit all our people. Again, I can understand and recognize the frustration and perception of water people and fishers who believe the DLNR aquatic biologists are ignoring their experience and knowledge. I think fishers can contribute great value to proper management of our resources.

"But when we are striving for sustainability, I would suggest that leaning on the conservative end may be the best policy rather than continuing unregulated takes. I would be concerned about adding requirements that effectively place a moratorium on any management actions related to marine fish stocks for the better part of the next several decades. As the proverb states, 'the medicine prescribed for the patient's ailments may be worse than the cure.'

"Please record my vote with reservations, but with confidence that in Conference an effective bill will be produced.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of the bill."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I support the intent of this bill, but I am concerned that the Department of Land and Natural Resources will not be able to meet the mandate, and our fishery resources may suffer as a result.

"While it is clear that the Department must make a better effort to hear and work with our local fishermen, this bill may tie DLNR's hands to such an extent that it will be difficult or impossible for the agency to ever make decisions or impose restrictions to protect our fish stock from crashing dramatically.

"Our local fishermen need support, and our fishery resources need protection. This bill may not help either, despite its intent. For these reasons, I am voting for this bill with serious reservations."

Representative Coffman rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman's written remarks are as follows:

"DLNR wants to establish "bag limits" based upon existing data. I do not believe that we should delay their approach by the approach taken in this legislation."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition, just quickly. It sounds like throughout the testimony that DLNR is doing a pretty good job, and so, I am in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"In opposition to SB 378, SD1, HD1, Relating to Fishing Regulations/DLNR.

"This measure instructs DLNR to continue gathering information and monitoring certain fish populations (uhu, weke/moana kali, and ulua/papio or parrotfish, goatfish and jacks) before any rules are made.

"It mandates DLNR to develop a rigorous monitoring and evaluation program that will study various intrusions on the habitats of these populations as well as the outcomes to be achieved by implementing regulations.

"It has constraints that are too restrictive and that would be difficult if not impossible to meet, especially under an unfunded mandate.

"It would take years of research to accomplish these tasks.

"And it effectively places a lengthy moratorium on the regulation of these fish populations.

"And finally the measure would benefit a particular group of people who do not want to see restrictions or limits placed on their fishing activities regardless of how necessary these regulations may be for the protection of our ocean resources."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 378, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FISHING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 11 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Finnegan, Hanohano, Herkes, C. Lee, Luke, Marumoto, Pine, Saiki and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

At 10:20 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 878, SD 1
S.B. No. 164
S.B. No. 166, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 568, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 777, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 378, SD 1, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1643) recommending that S.B. No. 1167, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1167, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. No. 1643. I have three concerns about the bill. This is the bill that I consider downgrading or weakening of the Hawaii Tourism Authority, at a time when we need tourism to be strong, and to be an over-comer in this trying economic time.

"I think it lowers the stature, particularly in the eyes of those visitors from Asia, if you have an Executive Director of the Hawaii Tourism, which this bill makes it, versus the President of the Tourism Authority. I think that lowers it a bit.

"Secondly, I think the fact that they have to go through the State procurement process. Tourism, like the private sector, has to be quick, agile, adjust to situations. There's no more of a volatile industry than the tourism industry. One incident, as we know from 9/11, we know from earthquakes, we know from Bali and its bombing. You've got to be really quick. Our procurement process is more adjudicated for fairness and balance and keeping corruption out, but we also have to be agile. And my fear is that this bill doesn't give us the agility.

"And lastly, Mr. Speaker, my concern is, even though he's a former Senator, I wish him the best to make lemonade out of what otherwise is a bit of a souring of the tourism agency. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1167, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Bertram voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita, Souki and Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 537, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support for Stand. Com. No. 1646. Mr. Speaker, this is just the opposite. This is about the future. This is about the stimulating, if you will, of our economy. Because of what this Committee will do, is to focus on aerospace. This is the new frontier, the one that we haven't really put ourselves fully to the fore with. It will be a systematic way of capturing our potential in space tourism. You know the rocket planes that we're talking about bringing to the International Airport. If we can get licensed with the transportation authority, those rocket planes will go up two miles, shoot a rocket, and then within a matter of five miles, cut their engines and then coast down weightless. That is the second generation of tourism for this State, Mr. Speaker.

"The other is, the rocket plane goes up two miles, shoots its rockets, a normal takeoff and landing, but when it gets up two miles, it shoots its rockets, and it will be in Hokkaido in 45 minutes. Again, the future prospect of tourism.

"The other is what's going on at Pisces at UH Hilo for the Mauna Kea simulation of a moon landing, a permanent station, as well as making oxygen and other minerals out of the rocks on Mauna Kea.

"Lastly, the bill is about stimulating other small businesses that are ancillary to these. Otherwise, Mr. Speaker, it's future-looking. It's space. It's the new frontier. It's a bill that I hope has many, many returns in the future. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 537, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AEROSPACE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita, Souki and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1648) recommending that S.B. No. 178, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 178, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With all due respect to the Chair of Education, I'm rising with reservations on this measure. Mr. Speaker, it will set up a food waste recycling program in a school using new money from the general fund for a new program. And, I'm just wondering, Mr. Speaker, if this idea is so good, why it couldn't be done by the Department of Education under a public-private partnership, using existing DOE money, rather than tapping out of the general fund in this tough time? Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 178, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOOD WASTE RECYCLING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita, Souki and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1650) recommending that S.B. No. 1164, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1164, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Nishimoto rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nishimoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak in support of this measure.

"I wanted to take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank Representative K. Mark Takai and Lisa Vargas for their commitment and tireless efforts to improve the quality of education for military children transitioning to and from the State of Hawaii.

"Since the 2008 Legislative Session, Representative Takai and Ms. Vargas worked with numerous organizations and individuals to analyze how Hawaii supports children who frequently move into and out of our education system.

"The Council of State Governments was charged by the US DOD with creating model legislation to remove educational barriers faced by children of military families due to frequent moves and deployment of military parents.

"Representative Takai has worked hard over the past 10 years to build a comprehensive partnership between the military and our school system to understand and recognize the unique challenges facing military children and their families. He understood that passage of this bill provides Hawaii and our schools the recognition that we deserve and tells people throughout the military circles that Hawaii's public schools are extremely supportive of our military children and their families.

"As you are aware, Representative Takai is currently Major Takai serving our country and state in the Middle East. Major Takai is serving as the Officer-in-Charge of the Camp Command for Camp Patriot, Kuwait. Despite his current duties, Major Takai continued to orchestrate and mobilize the effort to pass this bill. I want to thank Representative Takai/Major Takai for his tireless efforts in support of our nation and our State.

"With the passage of SB1164, Hawaii will join 11 other states that are part of this compact. These states include Arizona, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, North Carolina and Oklahoma. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. For those who may not be familiar with this, Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children, it merely helps when military dependents enter our public schools. This will help them transition much better before they get here, while they're here, and also when they leave to their next school, wherever their parents are assigned.

"Just based upon the work that has been done by the Joint Venture Education Forum. Mr. Speaker, I'd also like to mention the work that Representative Mark Takai did on this effort over the past three years to ensure that the interest of our school system, and the interest of the military dependents are well served. Thank you very much."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a very important bill that the military community needs, as the former speaker, the Chair of Education just mentioned. These military kids, a lot of them in my district do have that instability and need help with the transition, coming in and out of Hawaii. But, I would also like to say that there are a couple of ways that I think that maybe the bill could be improved.

"One is that we have such a strong military presence here, that I don't believe that we should put a sunset date on this. As well as the second thing that I think can be improved is more active participation and say from the military community. I believe they have one representative, and then you have a lot of the Board of Education and the Department of Education making up, or having control over this particular Commission. And those are my two suggestions for improvements. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takumi be entered into the Journal as his own, and the chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takumi be entered into the Journal as his own, and the chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1164, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTERSTATE COMPACT ON EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR MILITARY CHILDREN," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita, Souki and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1652) recommending that S.B. No. 470, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 470, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, in opposition, Mr. Speaker. What this bill does is, it makes revisions to various liquor licenses and tax laws. Included in these revisions is a provision that allows liquor licensees who have an agreement to repay delinquent taxes on payment plan, and who are applying for a liquor license. Basically overriding AG Op. 95-1.

"DOTAX in Committee, warned that this provision defeats the purpose of the tax clearance mandate, which is to ensure that all liquor sellers are current with their taxes to enjoy the benefit and the privilege to sell liquor. The provision no longer ensures a guaranteed flow of tax revenue, as the licensee can extend their tax obligations over time and still obtain a temporary license if they enter a payment plan. So, why even make this rule to begin with if people are going to get away with it.

"It seems like we're making special interest legislation, just for people who sell liquor. Now, are we going to then come back next Session and do this for people who sell burgers? Are we going to do this for those small businesses that are really hurting in this economy, and have back taxes and they sell clothes? So, I think it really sends a very bad message to the people of Hawaii, that we're making this special interest legislation just for those people who sell a liquor license.

"And so DOTAX, of course in Committee was definitely against this bill, and that is why I am too."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Not too long ago, I was in a meeting with the Retailers' Association, and they were talking about the struggle that restaurants are having right now, with the slowing of the economy and tourism and people tightening up their belts and not going out to dinner as much. So, I think we're in a really tough time right now, and I think that this legislation is a really good way of saying to the greater community and the restaurateurs that we understand that times are tough. Maybe you did get behind, but let's work with you on an installment plan.

"If these people don't meet their payments on this installment plan, they're going to get shut down. So, I think we're not going to have tax flow, we're not going to have money coming in if we don't keep these businesses going. And so I think this is a really good measure during a real tough time. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. This is a small business protection bill."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support, and may I have the brief, but eloquent words of the previous speaker entered into the record as if they were my own? And, if I had my druthers Mr. Speaker, yes, we would have bills for this kind of thing for burger joints, for small businesses, for car people, whatever. But you know what? We've got to basically work with the tools that are given to us.

"So, this is a bill in which we can extend relief, and it's a small business bill. And, I think it's important to listen to them, instead of the Department of Taxation. Thank you very much."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just in rebuttal. You know, I actually agree with all the previous speakers. I think it's very compassionate to think about these businesses who are suffering. But, I don't think we should have selected compassion. We need to have uniformity in our tax laws, and we're going to have a bill that's going to talk about that. And so, let's talk about making this bill uniform.

"We can't say, 'Oh gosh, we've got to just deal with what was given to us in these final bills that are left.' I mean, we really are sending a message here to the people. If you sell liquor, hey, the Legislature is going to help you out when you're suffering. And, I just think that's a very bad social message to be sending from a very prestigious body as this."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. In this economy, Mr. Speaker, it's all about jobs, and I think it's not been said any better than by the Representative from Maui, who I request his words become mine in the Journal. Giving every small business a chance to survive, to keep their employees. That's what the next three years are going to be about. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, and just ask that the words of the Representative from Ewa Beach be entered in the Journal as my own. I'm all for small businesses, but again, the message, when we are number one in the nation for some fatalities, and there's some definite controversy on liquor in Hawaii to have chosen this particular way to help this particular sector. It's a bad message."

Representative Finnegan rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Pine be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Lee, Pine and Wooley voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita, Souki and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1657) recommending that S.B. No. 43, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 43, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"It is no secret that we have a shortage of doctors in the State of Hawaii. We actually don't even know how bad the situation is because we do not have a system to monitor our healthcare workforce. The Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs collects mailing addresses and information on physician competence, however they currently do not collect demographic information, work location information, services provided or future practice plans. As a result, nobody knows how many physicians are actually practicing medicine in Hawaii, or what services are available in which communities. Although 8,000 physicians are licensed in Hawaii, it is assumed that less than half are actually practicing, but it is hard to know the who, what and where of the shortages because there is no data collected.

"The best and cheapest way to obtain this data would be by expanding the questions asked of the practicing physicians themselves at relicensure. Every physician who provides care to patients in Hawaii must be licensed, therefore asking the questions at relicensure allows us to obtain new information every two years in a cost effective way.

"Mr. Speaker this measure would not increase costs to the taxpayers of Hawaii, but the funding for collecting the data would come from increasing the physicians licensing fees by $30. This increase would only increase the relicensure fee to $150 which would still keep Hawaii's physicians' relicensure fees well under the national average of $250. This small increase allows us to obtain the necessary information to address the physician shortfall in the State of Hawaii at a small cost. I note that a number of physicians supported the bill in Committee.

"For all these reasons I urge the Members support."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to Standing Committee Report 1657, with reservations. It's very honorable what we're trying to do for this Physician Workforce Assessment and Planning Program. I just had some concerns because it's very similar to the situation with the nurses, where the doctors are saying, 'You're taxing or increasing a fee for us so that we can provide this,' and for them, they had some concerns as well."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Again, I rise in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Just a few sentences and I will submit the rest in written comments. It's just that this particular bill does establish a fee and it will ask the physicians to foot the bill for this fee. And, the bill did not receive support from the Physicians of Hawaii. They don't want it. And so, I feel, and a number of doctors that I've spoken to, is that it's creating a more expensive licensing fee, and the timing of this bill is bad. So, I please encourage everyone to consider its harmful effects."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B. 43 – Relating to Physician Workforce Assessment. I intended to vote 'no' on this bill, but due to a mix-up on the Floor, a vote of no will not be reflected in the record. I believe this measure is unfair to our doctors. This bill proposes to raise physician licensing fees when physicians are already having financial burdens due to high medical malpractice insurance and low reimbursements. It is unfair to raise fees on the doctors to fund this study. The Hawaii Medical Association states the following: "The issue is continued rising costs with prohibitions against passing those costs on to patients and customers. Physicians are taking their own actions to solve this dilemma in their own way. This includes

- Leaving to greener pastures where they can better provide for themselves and their families, and where the cost of living is far less;
- Closing their practices as a means of preserving financial security, and either retiring or finding a job that avoids the pitfalls that exist in being a private practice physician."

"Thank You."

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ching be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 512, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Just with reservations. I just have a slight $7 million reservation on this bill."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"I am rising with reservations. This bill will inflict $8 million in tax expenditures in the State financial plan for each fiscal year, 2010 and 2011. The industry will not utilize this expenditure in these years; therefore will have a negative impact at a time when every dollar will count."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 512, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1667) recommending that S.B. No. 1224, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1224, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

At 10:37 o'clock a.m. Representative Pine requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:40 o'clock a.m., with Vice Speaker Magaoay presiding.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the bill, relating to giving rent reduction to airport concessionaires. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, a lot of people in today's economy are suffering. I'm not against rent concessions, but I am against them when they only single out one group of tenants of the State.

"The bill starts off with saying 'The legislature finds that the State of Hawaii, along with the rest of the nation, is facing an economic recession that is sudden, extraordinary, and severe and one that may result in greater hardship and economic suffering than has ever been faced by the State.'

"In that instance, Mr. Speaker, we need to be extremely fair to the numerous small businesses that are tenants of this State, and instead we are only favoring one group. I can't cast a vote in favor of an unfair bill. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. We should give the same support to any business where the federal government prevents people from going to that business, like they do with the airports."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Herkes be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Choy rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"I am rising with reservation. Airport concessionaires must be prudent enough to survive within the constraints of the environment they work in. During testimony it was discovered that there are other potential concessionaires that are waiting to move into the concessions at the airport. I believe the natural selection process of business entrepreneurship should prevail in this case."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I do want to say that I'm in support of this bill, but I do also want to say just a short rebuttal in regards to the federal government not allowing people to go to that business on airport grounds, and that is that these businesses knew about that when they did their negotiating for their leases. So, I just wanted to add that. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Herkes be entered into the Journal as her own, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. This measure assists those businesses who have been adversely impacted by the decline due to the international economic downturn. Air travel has been impaired to a point where those businesses providing services and goods to travelers have been faced with large financial burdens. We must support this measure as it will allow these vendors and their employees to continue to operate. They will continue to pay leases, but at a rate which is beneficial to both our Department of Transportation and our airport concessionaries. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, after 50 years of being a retailer in Waikiki, no small business, no business in Hawaii is really in business for themselves, they're in business with their landlord. Any way we can give a break, whether it's State, federal, etc., is good for business because outside of government, basically it's an oligopoly. The land is controlled by a handful of individuals, and the rents are usually non-negotiable. We are at least giving them an option to do something at the airport. But to turn them over to the oligopoly is unthinkable. So, if we're going to treat them across the board, we've got to do more than just what we're proposing here. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1224, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AIRPORT CONCESSIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support and would like to submit written comments; particularly the section about domestic violence. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, speaking in strong support of SB1568 SD2 HD1, Relating to Unemployment Insurance.

"SB1568 is the Senate's unemployment insurance omnibus bill, and Mr. Speaker, there are a lot of people out there right now who really need this lifeline to keep from going under.

"The amendments which I am speaking in support of strengthen the language of SB 1568 for victims of domestic and sexual violence. The HD1 incorporates the language of HB332, a measure introduced by the Women's Caucus, which provides an expanded safety net for victims of stalking and sexual assault, in addition to domestic violence.

"In this House Draft, the conditions for qualifying and documenting victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking are clarified. And last, there is provision to insure that these victims are not required to accept offers of employment that pose the same dangers as those causing the victim to leave work in the first place.

"In short, Mr. Speaker, this is a very important bill for many of our people who could really use the help right now. Our job as public servants is being fulfilled by passing it now. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1568, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 210, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with support, but with some reservations. A few comments. Basically, what this does is it changes the criteria from moving prisoners from the Mainland to Hawaii, and I just believe that there's been a lot of bills that really micromanages the Department of Public Safety, which is something that if we think something needs to be done, we'll pass legislation to do so. But the Department really is being stretched thin with other things that we've mandated them to do. This would really hinder some of their operations. And with that, I'll put the rest of my speech in written comments."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 210 SD2 HD1, Relating to Corrections.

"This bill specifies criteria that must be considered in deciding whether to transfer inmates between correctional facilities located in Hawaii and correctional facilities located outside of Hawaii.

"This measure is unnecessary as the Public Safety Department has established open and public standards used to assist in identifying and determining the transfer of inmates using a "sequential phasing" process.

"If enacted, this measure would hinder legitimate government operations and would place staff and the public at risk as it is already difficult to manage the inmate population while addressing inmates who need protective custody, issues relating to inmate gangs and other security threat groups. Appropriate levels of security and facility overcrowding will also need to be addressed.

"This measure would also add to the already over burdensome administrative requirements and responsibilities of institutional case managers and correctional supervisors and managers.

"To permit the individual desire of the inmate to be a significant factor in determining where an inmate is held, will make effective population management unachievable. The Paroling Authority is confident that instead of saving the state money, this bill might actually increase costs because some facilities may not have sufficient resources while other facilities which have more resources may be underutilized.

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for allowing me to rise with reservations on SB 210 SD2 HD1, Relating to Corrections."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, please. And I believe, on Stand. Com. No. 1670, that the Paroling Authority said that it was difficult to do for them. So, that's all."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 210, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

At 10:47 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1140, SD 2, HD 3
S.B. No. 1205, SD 2, HD 3

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"In opposition to SB540, SD2, HD1.

"PSD already operates a work furlough program at OCCC.

"OCCC currently houses 142 offenders who have completed the appropriate level of in-facility substance abuse treatment.

"The measure risks public safety, and cannot be accomplished without substantial funding for additional full-time staff to both provide security in communities and administer the program

"And finally, additional resources are needed to include certified substance abuse counselors, correctional staff and administrative and clerical support personnel."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 540, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan and Pine voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1676) recommending that S.B. No. 190, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 190, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support for Stand. Comm. Report No. 1676. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's not too often that we're able to place a face and a family to a bill. In this case, we are. If I can, I'd like to explain to you the genesis of the bill and how we crafted this. Terry Kaide, an 86 year-old who retired after 30 years of public service with the 3rd Circuit Court in Hilo as their Clerk. Her husband, Sidney is 89 years-old and he's a retired general contractor, having built many homes in Hilo.

"The Kaides have been married for 63 years. This is the problem, Mr. Speaker: they both reside in foster care homes, but in separate foster care homes. They're just asking that they could live together. Now, the problem stems from a current law that only allows one private pay and two Medicaid patients per home.

"Now, the rationale is actually a good rationale. It allows two Medicaid clients an opportunity to reside in a home setting and receive standardized health care. I'm not against the rationale, but the problem lies with the married couple. They're not being able to reside together. Notwithstanding their marriage.

"The problem is that we have to change the rule, and that's where the Department of Human Services, the Attorney General's office, as well as the Kaide family came. We collaborated, we crafted a measure, which will address this problem in a demonstration project. It's a two year demonstration project, Mr. Speaker.

"And the bill will also open up, not only for married couples, but reciprocal beneficiaries, siblings, a parent and a child, this will now allow two private-pay clients in a foster home. That's the big reason for the bill. Now, if I can point to two important reasons why we need to pass this bill, Mr. Speaker. First, time is of the essence. According to Terry Kaide, these are her words: 'I want to live with my husband before the Lord takes us home. We don't have too much time left. Please don't rob me of the one joy in my life. Our lives are short, and I pray that you pass this bill as soon as possible.'

"Terry Kaide is 86, and her husband is 89. They may not have much time. There is an urgency. We have to pass this bill. We have to pass it now.

"The second reason, Mr. Speaker. This represents an established principle that marriage is a fundamental right. Even Terry Kaide, being a retired Clerk of the Circuit Court knows how important marriage is. She states: 'Why can't the law recognize and honor our marriage, as husband and wife. In my silence, I am suffering from hurt, guilt, confusion, and the injustice to my marriage.' For 30 years, she worked in the Judicial Branch, and in 2009 she came and is working in the Legislative Branch, helping move this by Senate Bill 190.

"My last comment. I promised Terry Kaide I would say this. She wanted to thank the Legislature, and these are her words:

> 'I sincerely thank my God, for I know he has answered our prayers, and I will be together with my husband very soon. It's been a long and painstaking journey. However, being near to my husband is what I most desire. I feel so blessed that my husband is still alive, and that I am still alive also. I look forward to the day that I can move into his community care foster home and never have to be separated from my husband, until we go home to be with our Lord. I am overjoyed that I will be able to enjoy whatever days we have left together. I am ever so grateful to all our legislators for understanding our plight, and working hard to help pass Senate Bill 190, in order that married couples like myself can live together in their golden years.'

"Mr. Speaker, today the House of Representatives will decide if we can support a demonstration project to allow two private-pay clients to reside in community care foster homes, and thus allow marriage to become whole again. Mr. Speaker and Members, let's support this measure and participate in something special. Let's pass Senate Bill 190, SD 1, HD 2. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, written comments for the Journal, please, including the words of the compassionate Chair of the Human Services Committee. And secondly, that from Charlotte Myoko Kaide, who felt that it was not only individual legislation, but she felt a passion, if you will, almost of suffering that they were doing this so others who are 86 or younger can have the same opportunity as they are having with this bill, if it proceeds.

"And the second is a letter from the Governor I'd like to submit into the Journal that says she is ready to sign it when we are ready to pass it.

"Mr. Speaker, only one regret. Last week, this month, was her 86th birthday, and I know the Chair of Human Services had said that if we could, we could get it passed by her birthday as a birthday gift. But, as long as it goes through, she's going to be happy, but we didn't make that one. Thank you."

Representative Ward submitted the following:

To: Rep. John Mizuno
From: Charlotte Miyoko Kaide

After reading the front page cover story of the Hawaii Tribune Herald on March 11, tears welled up in my eyes as the Lord spoke to me. I began to understand that behind all the heartbreaks, sorrow and frustration of Mom not being able to live together with her husband for the past two years had a deeper meaning to this heart-wrenching story of a "forced separation."

The lord impressed upon my heart that it was all in God's plan that DHS did not grant us a waiver but denied our three insistent requests for Mom to move into Dad's community care foster family home and occupy the vacant bed two years ago. He directed me to share with my parents and sisters that He had chosen my mother and father to be the privileged couple to suffer along with their family that others may not have to experience this same painful dilemma.

Therefore Senate Bill 190 was drafted by Senator Suzanne Chun Oakland to offer a beacon of hope not only for my parent's however, for everyone in the State of Hawaii. We thank God and we are honored to be able to bless our community by ushering this bill through the Senate and the House standing up for what we believe. This has been a priceless experience to work with our legislators to bring about changes in our laws that will benefit everyone.

Rep. Mizuno, your guidance and support through this all has been outstanding and we want to express our gratitude for having the faith to believe with us that together we can make a difference and touch many lives through our united efforts.

Senate Bill 190 would have never been birthed if a waiver would have been granted to Mom to live with Dad in his community care foster home early on. We have faith to believe that soon Senate Bill 190 will be signed into law by our Governor Linda Lingle and that Mom will be able to live with her husband happily ever after.

We highly commend our awesome lawmakers who joined us in our plight to change the present law to bring justice to a fundamental right of a husband and wife wanting to live out their lives together and fulfill their marriage vows for marriage as a sacred union.

What a blessing to see this love story have a happy ending and that everyone in our Hawaii Nei can benefit from this compassionate compelling historical epic."

Ms. Charlotte Kaide
Ms. Gale Sakaguchi

Aloha Ms. Kaide and Ms. Sakaguchi,

Mahalo for writing me regarding your mother's request to join your father in an adult community care foster home. I understand that your father is too frail to move into another facility at this time. I regret that the current law does not enable me to give you the result you seek.

As you may know, the State Department of Human Services licenses and regulates adult foster homes so low-income Medicaid clients can receive long-term care in family-like residential settings, as opposed to institutional hospitals and nursing homes.

Because there is a significant shortage of adult foster homes for Medicaid recipients, the law stipulates that no more than one private pay client can live in these two- or three-bed facilities.

Under Senate Bill 190, however, a couple who are private pay clients could live together in an adult foster home under certain conditions. My Administration opposed the original version of this bill, but is now working with the State Legislature on modifications that would apply to your situation.

If the House and Senate approve the amended bill in a timely manner, my policy advisors and I will give it careful consideration and I could sign it into law as early as April.

I hope this information is helpful. I also wish you and your family all the best as you strive to find a long-term care solution for your parents.

Sincerely,
LINDA LINGLE"

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of S.B. 190 – Relating to Community Care Foster Family Home. I believe this measure will result in a more comfortable and stable living environment for those that need care and meet the requirements specified in S.B. 190. The Hawaii Coalition of Caregivers states in their testimony that, "HCCG believes that allowing married couples to live together in the same home will result in better health and well-being, physically and emotionally, for residents. Indeed, preserving one's personal relationship, especially a close relationship one has with a spouse, is central to one's sense of independence, self-worth, and dignity. This sense of independence results in better quality of life for our residents." Thank You."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support and short comments. Mr. Speaker, throughout this Session, we've heard a lot of bills and legislation being commented on, on behalf of various individuals and entities, but this is really a feel-good bill. I'd like to refer to this, if I may, with your kind permission as the 'Terry and Sidney Kaide Legislation.'

"This is about love, marriage and companionship. This is about a journey, not only a journey, but a never-ending journey. There are no buffer zones. There are no moratoriums. This is a complete testimony of husband and wife, until the maker calls. Further written testimony will be provided for Journal entry. Thank you."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of SB190 SD1 HD2, Relating to Community Care Foster Family Homes. I am a Hilo resident and friend of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kaide who are the inspiration for this measure. I sympathize and understand their plight as a married couple unable to live in the same community care foster family home because of the current law. The merits of this bill are many, especially with the recent House amendments. I urge this Body to support the measure to fulfill Mr. and Mrs. Kaide's wish to spend their golden years together under the same roof."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just strong support and very short comments. Thank you. Although we may think that this had come about with this particular couple, I have been told that in my own district there have been several situations where couples aren't able to live together in their end of life.

"So, I just wanted to thank the Chair of Human Services for taking action on this particular bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 190, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMMUNITY CARE FOSTER FAMILY HOME," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1677) recommending that S.B. No. 415, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 415, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support.

"Home care is a rapidly growing sector of the health care continuum. It is a cost-effective service for many individuals who are recuperating from a hospital stay and also for many who, because of a functional or cognitive disability, are unable to take care of themselves. As more elderly and disabled individuals require such care, the need becomes more urgent for the monitoring of the agencies and individuals providing such care.

"Elderly and disabled people increasingly prefer to remain at home rather than being institutionalized. Home care reinforces and supplements care provided in the home by family members and friends, maintaining the recipient's dignity and independence. Unfortunately, home care is often confused with other types of health care. Home health agencies are currently licensed by the Department of Health. Home health is directed by a physician and focuses on services provided by licensed professionals, such as registered nurses, physical and occupational therapists, and speech therapists.

"Home care may be provided by professionals as well as ancillary personnel and homemakers. Currently, many families using the services of home care agencies no doubt think that the industry is regulated, but it is not. Without licensure, the safety of those who receive home care is at risk, especially since home care is provided to frail and elderly consumers in many cases. The measure would also benefit the family caregiver who use home care services such as respite and homemaker services. Licensure of the agencies would give them peace of mind.

"The State has an obligation to protect consumers from improper care, exploitation, and abuse. At a minimum, the competence of home care agency employees should be established, and criminal background checks should be performed.

"The mandatory licensure of home care agencies is designed to assure the public that the services provided by such agencies comply with appropriate standards. Without mandatory licensure, these assurances cannot be given."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just rise with reservations. I want to remain consistent on this particular bill. And, just a reminder that the Auditor did a report that said that we didn't need it for this particular group. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 415, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOME CARE AGENCIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1679) recommending that S.B. No. 912, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 912, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PERMANENCY HEARINGS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1681) recommending that S.B. No. 1344, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1344, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. No. 1681, with reservations. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill that has to do with QUEST and the QUEST Expanded Access recipients. I do understand the issue having to do with this, and maybe there is some disruption and care of some of the people who are members of these programs.

"I would also like to somehow speak in favor though of the mind-frame in which the DHS was moving forward with the pro-business type of legislation, and maybe talk about some of the positive things of QUEST Expanded and how they do this positive enrollment. This requires insurance entities contracting to provide Medicaid services to enter into written contracts with at least 50% of hospitals and providers in their coverage area.

"Positive enrollment is a 60-day period, during which clients can select a health plan, and it occurs only when a new round of contracts has been awarded. The 10-day period stated in the Preamble of this bill is actually incorrect. During the last positive enrollment, 83% of clients selected a health plan. This has been documented as the best response of Medicaid clients nationwide selecting their health plans.

"Following the initial 60-day plan selection period, clients are allowed 90-days to change health plans. During this transition period, the new health plan will pay for care, delivered by the patient's usual provider, even if that provider is not participating in the new health plan.

"DHS awarded these Medicaid contracts in a fair, open and transparent process, upheld by the independent State Procurement Office and two federal judges. The selection of the providers was based on who had the highest qualifications of the five competing bidders.

"Mr. Speaker, as this bill moves forward, and like I had said earlier, that I understand that there are some issues with the bill. I would just want to remind people that this does save money for the State, and the more money that we can save for the State, I believe that we can help more people. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong support for SB No. 1344 and quote from testimony submitted by AlohaCare:

AlohaCare initiated this measure in order to put an end the Hawaii Department of Human Services (DHS) policy of positive enrollment, which has disrupted the delivery of medical and related services to the enrollees of the State of Hawaii QUEST Program. As you know, Hawaii's QUEST and QUEST Expanded Programs represent some of Hawaii's most medically fragile and vulnerable residents, including low-income families, the aged, the disabled and many other groups.

Positive enrollment is a policy whereby QUEST recipients are involuntarily dis-enrolled from their health care plan and consequently from their Primary Care Provider (PCP). QUEST recipients then must select a plan and PCP, either their former plan and PCP or new ones. Those who do not select a health plan are automatically assigned one by DHS, which can be a different plan. At our request, the HD1 version of the bill applies to the QUEST and QUEST Expanded Program due to our concern that positive enrollment will be applied to that program as well. DHS supports positive enrollment because their goal is to encourage competition among health plans. DHS opposes S81344, HD1.

In 2006, DHS implemented positive enrollment and caused unnecessary confusion among QUEST beneficiaries and providers, delays in necessary medical care, disruption to case management, loss of contact between enrollees and their primary care providers and unnecessary expense for all involved. S81344 will ensure that this disruptive practice will not occur again.

On March 23, the House Human Services/Health Committees made the following substantive amendments, improving the bill by eliminating rather than just modifying positive enrollment:

- Removed language that details limitations on the positive enrollment policy;
- Adds a provision that prohibits DHS from requiring a QUEST or QUEST Expanded Care recipient to re-enroll in a health plan unless their chosen plan no longer actively provides services and coverage;
- Requires insurance entities contracting with the State to provide Medicaid coverage to enter into written contracts with a minimum of 50 percent of hospitals and providers in their coverage area; and
- Changes the effective date to January 1, 2050, to encourage further discussion.

AlohaCare supports the elimination of positive enrollment, despite the fact that we benefited from the 2006 auto assignment of approximately 20,000 enrollees who did not select a health plan as a result of positive enrollment. These enrollees were assigned to AlohaCare because we were the lowest bidder. As the result of our low bid, AlohaCare will save the State of Hawaii approximately $23 million over the current four year contracted period.

It is important to note that the elimination of positive enrollment does not prevent QUEST enrollees from changing health plans under the QUEST Program. Annually, as does any Hawaii health plan, including employer purchased and State employee plans, QUEST beneficiaries have the right to stay in their current plan or choose a new one. In addition, as a matter of policy, AlohaCare assists enrollees to change to alternative plans anytime of year, above and beyond the annual open enrollment period required by QUEST. We do this because we believe that offering QUEST enrollees a choice of health plans that best meet their individual needs is optimal. Thus, positive enrollment is not needed.

Again, our goal is to prevent positive enrollment from jeopardizing the care of some of Hawaii's most vulnerable and medically fragile population. AlohaCare is a non-profit health insurance company, founded in 1994 by Hawaii's community health centers, to serve the needy. Serving the healthcare needs of the people of Hawaii with aloha is our mission. AlohaCare has more than 60,000 health plan members, of which 1,200 Medicare members."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1344, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1682) recommending that S.B. No. 1679, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1679, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 1679, House Draft 1. This bill sets aside funding for important State safety net programs. In these difficult economic times, it is the State's duty to protect the most vulnerable among us: the poor, disabled, young, elderly, mentally ill, uninsured, and victims of abuse and domestic violence--those least able to lobby the Legislature to protect their interests. Reduction or elimination of services to these populations could be catastrophic; people who are struggling to feed themselves, keep a roof over their heads, and stay healthy and productive may find themselves a step away from homelessness. The Emergency and Budget Reserve Fund was intended to be used precisely in these circumstances and specifically for these populations. Ensuring funding for safety net programs also keeps our government social services and non-profit agency employees working at a time when their expertise is critical. Saving the safety net is not just for the vulnerable and those who serve them—it is a reflection of the State's commitment to all of its people. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1679, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMERGENCY AND BUDGET RESERVE FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takai being excused.

At 11:02 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 539, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 540, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 190, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 415, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 912, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 1344, HD 2
S.B. No. 1679, SD 2, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1685) recommending that S.B. No. 1345, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1345, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Berg and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative Karamatsu, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1686) recommending that S.B. No. 468, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 468, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"The goals of this bill may be well-intentioned. However, I have serious concerns about this draft, which provides an exception for Waikiki and potentially allows for construction along the shoreline with no public review process."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations on Standing Committee Report 1686, and Mr. Speaker, my reservations relate to a firsthand experience on Kailua Beach. What this bill would do is, it would allow a beachfront owner to apply for an emergency permit in the special management area to put up either a revetment wall, or some sort of temporary structure at that person's home. The difficulty is there is a particular house on Kailua Beach that has been built out so far, it's on sand area that used to be underwater within the last 20 years. Those of us that have walked the beach during that period of time were aware of that, as the water lapped up that far. This would mean that, that owner, as the sea level rises, that that owner is going to be able to go to the permitting authority, request an emergency permit to put up a shoreline structure, or temporary structure, which could begin to erode away Kailua Beach.

"There won't be any public hearing under this bill. Now, the bill can go forward without this provision, and I would encourage those people that are on Conference Committee to look at that, and don't exempt that kind of a structure, or that kind of a situation from a public hearing.

"The public hearing is where you get your shoreline experts to be able to come in and say to the permitting authority, 'Wait a minute, don't allow that owner to do X, Y and Z, because here's going to be the result.' You're going to start an erosion pattern that would turn Kailua Beach into what has happened to Lanikai.

"And so, I think that this bill should really have a hard look, and have that provision taken out. It doesn't need that provision in it to go forward. Thank you."

Representative C. Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. Mr. Speaker, this bill will allow for better management practices to protect our beachfront homes in many areas and properties today, and safeguard and preserve our beaches and natural shoreline habitats for many future generations to come.

"However, I'm voting against this bill, as drafted, because for those beachfront properties covered by the Waikiki Beach Reclamation Agreement of 1928, which includes all the beachfront properties from Ala Wai Canal to the police station on Kalakaua Avenue, and beyond.

"This bill unnecessarily eliminates all State and county building setbacks. While current State law allows for the counties' expanded discretion to sit greater than the 20-foot State minimum setback, these provisions, as written, prohibit the county from exercising any authority in Waikiki. And it will go further and prohibit the minimum 20-foot State setback as well.

"So, while throughout the rest of the State, this bill provides for greater setbacks, as deemed appropriate. In Waikiki, at our premier beach, we have eliminated setbacks altogether.

"Mr. Speaker, it is our obligation to protect and preserve Waikiki Beach as an important destination for both locals and tourists alike; an icon of our State, that we must not allow to disappear beneath concrete foundations, or beneath the waves. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Senate Bill 468, House Draft 2. In its original form, this bill promised to establish safe and sensible shoreline setback requirements that would take into account global climate change, rising sea levels, erosion, and natural disasters. It reflected the smart long-term planning that we should be undertaking as an island state. As this bill moved through the House, however, its positive intent was distorted.

"Specifically, the twenty-foot shoreline setback requirement in Waikiki was eliminated. The reason given for this elimination is that a shoreline setback in Waikiki would violate the rights of property owners who were parties to the Waikiki Beach Reclamation Agreement of 1928. This Agreement, however, (a copy of which I attach here) merely stated that various property owners would agree to have the Territorial government of the state replenish the sand in the beach areas fronting their properties. In exchange, the property owners would own the sandy areas fronting their properties, subject to an easement for the public. Nothing in this Agreement appears to prevent this body from imposing a twenty-foot setback.

"Moreover, Waikiki, perhaps more than any other area of the State, must take into account how its built areas affect and are affected by shoreline changes. Development in this area must proceed with care. Waikiki is the engine that powers our economy. Waikiki Beach lures millions of visitors to the State each year. If thoughtless and short-sighted shoreline development is allowed to proceed, it may, in the long run, destroy the very resource that it was intended to exploit. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

MAIN AGREEMENT

BETWEEN THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII AND PROPERTY OWNERS AT WAIKIKI FOR THE RECLAMATION OF WAIKIKI BEACH, DATED OCTOBER 19, 1928, RECORDED IN THE BUREAU OF CONVEYANCES AT HONOLULU IN BOOK 1047, PAGES 176-202.

Agreement made as of this 19th day of October, 1928, by and between The Territory of Hawaii, party of the first part, and the undersigned (other than said Territory), parties of the second part,

Witnesseth: Whereas, Act 273 of the Session Laws of Hawaii, 1927, authorized the building of a beach at Waikiki, Oahu, by or under the authority of the Board of Harbor Commissioners; and

Whereas, said Act provided that said Board shall not begin any construction work unless and until legal arrangements are made whereby the general public shall be assured of the right to use such portion of any beach built as lies within seventy-five (75) feet shoreward of the mean highwater mark; and

Whereas, said project if completed, will be a public benefit and of benefit to the property owners concerned.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the execution of this agreement by the parties of the second part, and of their covenants and agreements herein set forth, the party of the first part hereby covenants and agrees with the parties of the second part as follows:

1. That it will commence the work of building said proposed beach outward from the present line of mean highwater mark, as shown by the shoreward line of the area described in Exhibit A hereto attached and made a part hereof, not later than the first day of January, 1929, and will diligently prosecute said work so long as moneys therefor are available or until it shall have been demonstrated that the project is not practicable.

2. That it will not erect or place upon the beach any building, wharf, structure, machine or other obstruction of any kind, except such as may be necessary to be used in connection with such work of construction, and upon completion of the work, or on demonstration of the impracticability of the project it will remove all such obstructions, except such retaining walls, groins or other structures as may be necessary for the preservation of that part of the beach as may be deemed practicable within the meaning of this agreement, and, in case the project shall have been a success, will, subject to the above exception, forever thereafter keep the beach free and clear of obstructions and open for the use of the public as a bathing beach and for passing over and along the same on foot.

3. That such beach, while in the process of construction, and after completion of construction, or in case the impracticability of the project shall be shown, shall become and be deemed to be natural accretion attached to the abutting property, and title thereto shall immediately vest in the owner or owners of the property abutting thereon, in proportion to their sea-frontage, subject only to the easement in favor of the public as above stated.

4. That in case such project shall prove to be impracticable it will, at the request of any party of the second part, recommend to the Legislature that the necessary legislation be enacted for the removal of any retaining wall, groin or other structure which shall have been placed in front of his property in the attempt to build such beach.

In consideration of the foregoing covenants and agreements of the party of the first part, the parties of the second part hereby covenant and agree with the party of the first part as follows:

(A) That they do, and each of them does, hereby approve and consent to the building of a beach at Waikiki aforesaid, as authorized by said Act 273 of the Session Laws of 1927, and in furtherance of such approval and consent do hereby promise and agree to abstain from raising and/or making any protest, objection and/or complaint, in court or otherwise, against the same, and do further subject all their property within the area described in said Exhibit A, and all their right, title and interest in the beach which shall be built pursuant to the authority of said Act within such area, to the uses and purposes provided in said Act and in this agreement.

(B) That they will not erect or place on any part of such beach so to be constructed as aforesaid within seventy-five (75) feet of mean highwater mark of such beach as it may exist from time to time, any building, fence, wall or other structure or obstruction of any kind unless such mean highwater mark shall be more than seventy-five (75) feet from the present line of mean highwater mark as shown by the shoreward boundary of the area described in said Exhibit A, and in any case will not erect or place on such beach any such structure or obstruction other than portable fences and/or hedges for the purpose of marking the boundaries of their respective abutting properties, and such structures as shall be removable in nature, providing, however, that such fences, hedges and/or structures shall at no time be situated within the area reserved for the public as herein provided.

abutting properties, and such structures as shall be removable in nature, providing, however, that such fences, hedges and/or structures shall at no time be situated within the area reserved for the public as herein provided.

(C) That in the event that said project shall prove successful they will at no time prevent such beach in front of their respective premises from being kept open for the use of the public as a bathing beach and for passing over and along the same on foot, provided that such open and unobstructed beach adjoining their respective properties need not exceed seventy-five (75) feet in width from mean highwater mark.

And it is hereby mutually understood and agreed by the parties hereto as follows:

I. That this agreement shall not be construed to be a recognition by the party of the first part of any right, title or interest on the part of any party of the second part in any property abutting on the present highwater mark at Waikiki, nor shall it give the party of the first part any right whatsoever to molest or hinder any party of the second part, in the possession of any such property now held by him, that is to say, all right, title, interest and possession, of each party of the second part, shall be and remain the same as though this agreement had not been executed; and provided that if deemed advisable and in furtherance of the purpose of the said project, and in the mutual interests of the public and of any party of the second part, and if mutually agreed by said Board of Harbor Commissioners and such party of the second part, the shore line along the property of such party as it is now or may hereafter be, may be moved seaward.

II. That said project shall be deemed to be impracticable within the meaning of this agreement if after the expenditure of a substantial amount of money thereon, and after reasonable efforts shall have been made to build such beach, a strip of an average width of less than ten (10) feet shall have been constructed within any one of the following described four natural sectors; then as to such sector the project shall be deemed to be impracticable:

1. Ala Wai to outer seaward boundary of Pierpoint Peninsula.

2. Thence to outer seaward boundary of that property known as the Young Property.

3. Thence to the westerly end of the Kalakaua Avenue Retaining Wall.

4. Thence to the Elks' Club.

III. That the failure on the part of the party of the first part to comply with and perform any covenant herein contained on its part to be observed and performed shall render this agreement void and of no further force or effect as to any party of the second part at his election; provided, however, that title to so much beach as shall have been constructed shall remain vested in the owner of the abutting property adjoining which such beach shall have been constructed; and the failure of any party of the second part to comply with and perform any covenant herein contained and on his part to be observed and performed shall not avoid the same but the party of the first part may enforce the observance and performance of such covenant by any proper legal proceeding.

That this agreement shall be deemed a several and not joint agreement, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and assigns, but the same shall not become effective for any purpose unless and until the United States of America by presidential proclamation or other lawful means, shall have transferred all its title in and to the area described in said Exhibit A to the party of the first part.

In witness whereof, the party of the first part has caused these presents to be executed on its behalf by C. T. Bailey, Commissioner of Public Lands of the Territory of Hawaii, and countersigned by W. R. Farrington, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, and by Lyman H. Bigelow for and on behalf of the Board of Harbor Commissioners of the Territory of Hawaii, and the parties of the second part have caused these presents to be duly and properly executed as of this 19th day of October, 1928.

Lee, Luke, Nishimoto, Shimabukuro and Takumi voting no, and with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1692) recommending that S.B. No. 389, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Evans and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 389, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1693) recommending that S.B. No. 496, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 496, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to SB496, SD 2, HD 2. Thank you. This is relating to Charter Schools. This bill eliminates the per-pupil funding method and requires Charter Schools to follow the same budgetary request process as other State agencies. It also has several provisions giving the Department of Education and the Board of Education more control over Charter Schools.

"Charter schools, although they are public schools, have never received the same funding as Hawaii's traditional public schools. Currently, the law requires that Charter Schools receive a per-pupil amount, based on a funding formula. And, throughout the process of coming up with that number, there are many different levels that don't necessarily follow that formula.

"This year, Charter School students are receiving approximately 8.8% less per pupil than they did in 2007 and 2008 school year. And, under both the Governor's and House's version of the budget, Charter Schools will have a combined decrease of 17.7% per pupil. Keep in mind that this also means a lot of the other types of support that other schools get, like facilities' funding, is not in the Charter School amount that is in the budget bill right now.

"The Charter Schools also have lost what equates to millions of dollars of support for Charter Schools through some of the DOE cutbacks that they had done in submitting their budget. Clearly, there are problems with Charter School funding, but this bill is not the solution. Our Charter Schools are an effort to decentralize education and put decision-making authority as close to the classroom as possible.

"By allocating funds on a per-pupil basis, local school leaders are empowered to maximize their funds, using efficiency and thrift. Even the DOE Superintendant has said that she wants to go to a per-pupil formula for the traditional public schools. By requiring the Charter School Administrative Office to submit a budget request for all Charter Schools to B&F in requiring Charter Schools to comply with all BOE and DOE directives, this bill enables the Legislature and B&F to micromanage Charter Schools, deleting or approving programs on a line-by-line basis.

"This bill increases the procedural hoops and red tape that Charter Schools will have to go through, and ensnares them in the regulation and bureaucracy that typifies State-run education.

"Mr. Speaker, Charter Schools were meant to bring innovative ways of educating your child to the forefront, and in a lot of the Charter Schools, that has happened. And, what we're doing here is we're moving in an opposite direction. And, just to give you some behind the scenes type of information, the Charter Schools last year, after seeing some of the language having to do with DOE control and BOE control, they killed the bill on the Senate side, because they said, 'We don't want that. That's why we're Charter Schools.'

"And so this year, they've supported this measure and other measures moving forward, because they felt, 'Okay, maybe we were too knee-jerk reaction last year, and we killed the only avenue for any Charter School help.' So, they allowed it to go through Committees, and supported it with reservations and everything.

"At this point in the bill, the appropriation section was deleted, in which they were hoping to get a little bit more funding to help them survive these upcoming two years. Being that that was taken out, and the provisions are to be under the directives of the DOE and BOE, it just makes absolutely no sense for Charter Schools to support this legislation.

"I think the majority of us on this Floor have said that they're in support of Charter Schools, and I hope that you will vote 'no' on this piece of legislation, because it definitely is not in support of Charter Schools. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, also in opposition. Just some quick comments. As the Representative of a district that has one of the best Charter Schools in the State, and has been really exemplary in putting out great students and great results, I have seen the ups and downs that Charter Schools have gone through in trying to get equitable funding. As was suggested by the other speaker, this goes in the wrong direction. We need to be going in the opposite direction, and really giving much more independence to these schools, and the proper funding as well. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative C. Lee rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I don't have any prepared remarks. I am actually a bit baffled by the opposition on this bill, particularly from the Minority Leader, since she's a member of the Education Committee, and has never stated her concerns to me personally. And until she stood up at this moment, I was not aware that she had grave concerns about this measure.

"Let's look at what's in the bill, Mr. Speaker. As I always say, when in doubt, read the instructions. You know, for the Charter School community, it's been a very challenging journey to try to figure out what would be adequate funding. And let's be clear about this. I don't know of any agency, any department, any program in the State that believes they get adequate funding. So, Charter School community, join the parade, because everybody feels they don't have adequate funding.

"The question is, what should they be getting? This approach merely says that Charter Schools should be under the same budgeting process as every single program, department, branch, agency, service, in the State. They should not go with a per-pupil approach. And let me just say, with the Charter School community, it's very difficult. It's like what Woody Guthrie once said: 'If you want to know the working-class point of view, be sure you only have one worker in the room.' Well, if you want to know the Charter School point of view, be sure you only have one Charter School in the room, because there is not unanimity and consensus among the Charter School community, as well. And why should there be? They're made up of very diverse, disparate types of delivery systems and constituencies. So, you're going to have disagreement, even within the Charter School community.

"There are those who are in favor of this approach, Mr. Speaker. But, of course they have some trepidation. They have some concern whether or not, at the end of the day, they're going to actually end up with more money in their budgets than they currently have.

"With the per-pupil allocation, here is the dilemma. The Director of the Budget and Finance Department says she has funded the Charter Schools. She has given them what they should be getting, according to the formula. The Charter School community says, 'No, she did not.' And they go back and forth, and back and forth. Rather than getting engaged in that battle to determine what should be in the formula and what should not be, this approach, in my opinion, is a far cleaner approach.

"As far as the Board of Education being heavy handed, that's again, very ironic because the language that's in the bill was worked out between the Executive Director of the Charter School Administrative Office, and the Board of Education. There was an agreement that this language best conveyed the point of view of both parties. So, again, I'm a little surprised now to hear that some people are worried about that as well.

"It seems to me, Mr. Speaker, the only way we're going to get out of this is to keep this measure going forward, continue to have dialogue and try to figure out what's best for the Charter Schools, because I am a strong believer in Charter Schools. I believe they provide a valuable alternative for our students. And don't get me started about whether or not they achieve better or worse than the regular public schools, because the jury is still mixed on that. But, I still believe that this is an experiment that should go forward.

"But, I am a little dismayed when I hear that there's opposition to this bill, and without any prior discussions about what we could have done to make the bill better. Thank you, very much."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm still in opposition, and I do have to comment. The Education Chair has been quite helpful and quite supportive of moving pro-Charter School legislation forward and getting that discussion out there. And, he is correct in regards to me not bringing up some of these things in the past. In the Education Committee, I did talk about the language of Charter Schools following the directives of the BOE and DOE. I did have concerns about that, and language was being worked on. What this is, is it's a tilting point for the Charter Schools. Before, when there was a possibility of having additional funds, and maybe seeing the bill move forward and kind of leaving an open door for possible different ways of a funding mechanism.

"You've got to realize that the Charter Schools are survival type of schools. They come in, they don't have the kind of funding that other public schools get. So, when they have to cut, because the budget comes down and cuts, this goes down to classroom cuts. They don't have a central bureaucracy, or any other kinds of cuts like that to take. So, this is direct services to the classroom, that when they have cuts in the Charter School budget, it goes directly to the support of what each child gets.

"So, I do have to apologize to the Chair on that. This has been an ongoing conversation. It's the lessons that the Charter Schools have learned from last year, having to do with, do we kill a bill right after the first Committee, because we don't want to be another starting of a Department of Education? And like I said, they acted with a very knee-jerk reaction. 'We've got to kill this bill because we didn't like it.' This year they're trying to be a little bit more fluid, a little bit more open on how we might be able to address some of the issues.

"But I do have to say that the Hawaii Charter School Network, which is a combination, and if you look at the opponents of the bill, when they talk about the concerns that they have, whether it be the Hawaiian Charter Schools, or the Hawaii Charter School Network, the Chair is absolutely right that they come from different places, because they're all different innovation types of schools, and they believe differently. But the Hawaii Charter School Network is a group where they've tried over and over again to bring their voices together in one voice, because they understand that that's the language of this Legislature. And that they have to come together and support something, and that's what they do here. They are basically saying that this is not the direction that they would want to go in. The appropriations section was in there, and now it isn't. So, this is why the strong opposition to it. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with just a few comments. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the colloquy, this conversation that we are having between the Minority Leader and the Education Chair. I guess the comment that I would like to insert as this bill moves forward, is that we do, at the federal level have a President and Secretary of Education who are greatly in support, in favor of Charter Schools, and allowing Charter Schools to flourish and develop within all of our states.

"So, as this bill moves forward, I hope that that the parties can continue to negotiate, as has been described by both the Minority Leader and the Chair of Education. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I represent a couple of Charter Schools. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 496, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHARTER SCHOOLS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Bertram, Carroll, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Morita and Takai being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1694) recommending that S.B. No. 1223, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1223, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Evans.
