INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 2 and 3) were read by the Temporary Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ELECTING THE SPEAKER AND VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE," was jointly offered by Representatives Saiki and Johanson.

Representative Saiki moved that H.R. No. 2 be adopted, seconded by Representative Johanson.

At this time, Representative Say offered Floor Amendment No. 1, amending H.R. No. 2, as follows:

"SECTION 1. House Resolution No. 2 (ELECTING THE SPEAKER AND VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE) is amended to read as follows:

"BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-seventh Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2013, that the Honorable MARCUS R. OSHIRO, Representative from the FORTY-

SIXTH DISTRICT, and the Honorable JOHN M. MIZUNO, Representative from the TWENTY-EIGHTH DISTRICT, be elected as Speaker and Vice Speaker, respectively, of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-seventh Legislature of the State of Hawaii.""

Representative Say moved that Floor Amendment No. 1 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ito.

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have some written comments in strong support of this particular Floor Amendment and I will not read it in respect to the Members of the House and the audience who are here for our ceremony.

"But I would like to state for the record that there are 17 other Members who would like to submit written comments in strong support of this particular Floor Amendment and with the indulgence of the Members of the House and the audience, these are the names that will be given the opportunity, with your approval, Mr. Speaker.

"Representative Marcus Oshiro, Representative Henry Aquino, Representative Rida Cabanilla, Representative Isaac Choy, Representative Ty Cullen, Representative Sharon Har, Representative Mark Hashem, Representative Denny Coffman, Representative Derek Kawakami, Representative Linda Ichiyama, Representative Ken Ito, Representative Jo Jordan, Representative Gregg Takayama, Representative Jimmy Tokioka, Representative Clift Tsuji, Representative Ryan Yamane and Representative Kyle Yamashita.

"Will they be able to submit written commitments in support of the resolution? Because this particular resolution or Floor Amendment will be a voice vote at this point in time, so their names will be recognized in the House Journal. Will that be permitted?"

The Temporary Chair then stated:

"Thank you. At this time, the Chair will allow any Members who wish to insert written comments to do so by 4:30 p.m. on Friday."

Representative Say continued to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you very much. So, I'm in strong support of the Floor Amendment at this point in time, with written comments."

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Floor Amendment to House Resolution No. 2.

"I support Marcus Oshiro for Speaker of the House of Representatives. He is qualified because of his education, experience and dedication to the State of Hawaii. He is an attorney who has worked in the public and private sectors. He has served in the House for 18 years. During those years, he has served as the Vice Speaker, Majority Leader, Majority Floor Leader, Finance Committee Chair and Labor Committee Chair. This varied experience gives him a complete understanding and appreciation of the policy, procedural, administrative, political, and human issues involved in generating good legislation in the House for the people of Hawaii.

"President Obama now uses the words 'responsible' and 'balanced' in reference to the necessary solution to the U.S. government budget crisis.

"Being 'responsible' and 'balanced' is nothing new to Marcus. Those were his guiding principles in guiding the House and Legislature through the budgetary, fiscal and economic problems during the Great Recession.

"I urge everyone to support Marcus. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks in support of the proposed Floor Amendment are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support for the amendment offered to House Resolution 2. Mr. Speaker, Chair Oshiro has been a great friend, mentor, guidance counselor at times, and most importantly, a great leader. He has managed to guide us through some of the most challenging economic times the state, the nation, and the world has seen since the Great Depression. He has shown us that the right choices are often not popular and because of this fact, tremendous bravery is required. Chair Oshiro has displayed such bravery, oftentimes taking the hit in order to protect his colleagues.

"As the Chair of the Finance Committee on which I have had the honor to serve with him, Chair Oshiro displayed what I call 'Wahiawa work ethic,' the work ethic characteristic of old plantation towns, of those that toiled the pineapple fields with the intent and determination to make sacrifices today, to benefit those that come tomorrow. Chair Oshiro truly displays this same work ethic and intent that those who came before us had. The grit, toughness, conviction to truly stand up for what is right, yet he has the compassion to be fair and the ability to listen to other people and hear their concerns. He truly led by example, showing up before everyone and always he was last to leave.

"He has tremendous patience with his colleagues. I liken him to the kid at the beach standing with his friends at the edge of a cliff staring down at the sea, wrapping his arms around his friends and asking them, 'Let's see who can hold their breath the longest' as they plunge themselves into the ocean. Slowly by slowly, one by one, we run out of breath swimming to the surface, gasping for air, but there he sits, patiently, outlasting everyone. To those on the outside, this metaphor may not make sense, but for those who have served with him recently, they will understand. Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to stand side by side with Chair Oshiro to support him as our candidate for Speaker of the House. Mahalo nui loa."

Representative Jordan's written remarks in support of the proposed Floor Amendment are as follows:

"I stand in strong support of HR 2, FA 1 (Floor Amendment), Electing the Speaker and Vice Speaker for the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature, as presented by Representative Calvin Say of the 20th District.

"Over the past two years I have worked with, learned from and come to understand the commitment that the good Representative of Wahiawa, Whitmore Village and Launani Valley brings to this body. With his many years as a Representative in this House, having held multiple positions within this organization, including under the leadership of both former Speakers Calvin Say and Joe Souki, and representing our state and Legislative Body on a national level with the Council of State Governments - WEST. I believe he holds the best knowledge, talent, compassion and courage to guide the House of Representatives forward into a new era.

"To paraphrase Martin Luther King, Jr., 'the true measure of a person is not how the person behaves in moments of comfort and convenience, but how the person stands at times of controversy and challenges.' This truly describes Representative Marcus Oshiro, to have personal and political courage, to simply do what is right, what is in the best interest of the majority party and the greater good for the majority body and the State of Hawaii. I have been a witness to the true character of this great Representative, especially during the last six weeks of this leadership organization process.

"So with this in mind, I will vote with courage, vote with conviction, and vote for the common good in strong support of this measure."

At 10:44 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 1, amending H.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ELECTING THE SPEAKER AND VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representative Rhoads being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

At 10:47 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:49 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the Temporary Chair stated:

"Members, for clarification, we are back on the Main Motion, House Resolution Number 2. At this time, the Chair will allow any Members wishing to insert written comments on House Resolution Number 2, to do so by 4:30 p.m. on Friday."

Representative Coffman rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman's written remarks are as follows:

"I am voting nay for this resolution appointing Rep. Joe Souki as our House Speaker. Selecting the Speaker of the House is a privilege of the majority party. It should be decided in caucus with all of the members of the majority party. Rep. Souki chose not to discuss the matter with all of his fellow Democrats until after his actions had been finalized. Instead of working with his fellow Democrats, he chose to gain a majority vote by making an organizational agreement with the minority party; an action that I believe weakens the majority party and will hurt the legislative process. His action to gain the Speakership does not reflect the attributes that I believe are necessary to be Speaker of the House of Representatives."

Representative Jordan rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong opposition to HR 2, Electing the Speaker and Vice Speaker for the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature. We are present today for a test of true courage and will, with the vote on this measure before us. My opposition to HR 2 is the test of my strength with my commitment to the majority of this body, the Democratic Party, its constitution and bylaws. A wise man once said: 'Be thankful for each new challenge because it will build your strength and character.' Solving challenges requires 'confidence' in oneself and each other. But first we must have 'confidence' in our ability to build upon a foundation in our commitment to our majority party, the Democratic Party of which I boast membership and loyalty to.

"I appreciate the tremendous uncertainty and pressure we are under and know how hard it is to maintain one's public and private composure. But what we need is the courage to stick to the constitution of our Democratic Party, because as time fades we will only be remembered for very few things, such as if you can speak to the people's hope and then get the legislative work done, bottom-line, the job done. To do that you will need to seek out the humble, the thoughtful, and above all the doers, the people in this Body who want to get work done and are not afraid to take a risk, true allies. Never be afraid to take a risk, your constituents have put their faith in you.

"Just short of two years ago on January 20th, 2011 I first walked onto this Floor as a new appointee. My breath taken away by the sense of responsibility, honor and duty to the institution and the people we serve. I pledged on that day that I would execute my duties and responsibilities with fairness consistent with the Hawaii State Constitution and the State Statues. I continued that same mindset thru this past election cycle and was affirmed by the majority vote to continue my work. Putting my faith in that vote before you today.

"Mr. Chair, my hope upon being elected was that the leadership of this House would be based on the principles of compromise, fairness and respect. Instead I am disturbed by a culture where the politics of retribution and punishment are the practice and protecting our elected positions and public image is more important than the public good.

"One of the main considerations I took into my decision making on this important vote in opposition of this resolution is the Speaker's decision to garner the necessary votes required to serve as Speaker from the seven members of the minority party along with the promise of three Vice-Chairmanships and capital improvement project money for their districts over majority members.

"To add insult, the Speaker boldly announced that this leadership organization was complete with the vote of the minority members to the press on November 21st, a little more than two weeks after the General Election that brought in newly elected Representatives, and before even extending the courtesy of holding a caucus meeting with members of the majority party. He then remained steadfast in those commitments thru last week's first Majority Members' Caucus and till today on this Floor. All this was not based on the principles of compromise, fairness and respect. Especially going against the principles of our majority Democratic Party values, this is not how you bring unity to the Majority Caucus.

"As this Speaker has done, I too will remain steadfast in my commitment to my Democratic values of this majority, and stand in opposition to this measure."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The Temporary Chair then stated:

"Members, if you are rising to submit written comments, the Chair has already provided that written comments can be made up to 4:30 p.m. on Friday."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"Mahalo Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to submit written comments with strong reservations to House Resolution 2, establishing the Speaker of the House.

"Please refer to my written comments submitted on behalf of House Resolution 4. Those comments share my concerns with House Resolution 2.

"Mahalo again for allowing me to submit written comments with strong reservations."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support, with written comments."

Representative Brower's written remarks are as follows:

"All House Members had an opportunity to play a role and make a choice on the organization of the House.

"Everyone made a decision and we have the results on Opening Day. Everyone should feel responsible for their choices and be positive about the future of the legislative session this year.

"I'm optimistic that everyone will act sensibly."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Chair. I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Chairman, before I get started, first of all may I request permission to enter additional written comments into the Journal? Thank you. In addition, Mr. Chairman, there was an article published this morning in the Star Advertiser authored by Derrick DePledge, I would also request that that article be entered into the House Journal as I believe that some quotes in that article should be memorialized on this historical day. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"First and foremost before I begin, Mr. Chairman and to the Members, particularly the freshman members, Representatives Cachola, Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Ing, Kobayashi, Lowen, McDermott, Ohno, Onishi, and Takayama. From the bottom of my heart with all of my sincerity, with every breath that I breathe, I apologize for having to do this right now. Unfortunately however Members, your newly elected Speaker has left us with no other choice but to speak now.

"And I am inspired by the words of a colleague who made a speech six years ago. And I quote, 'Mr. Chair, my place on this Floor is here and I refuse to be intimidated from using my voice and exercising my right to vote.' Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, I feel compelled to speak. And so I will do it very quickly, as you all know I speak very quickly.

"But that being said, over the past few months, we as politicians are able to rationalize everything that we do. In every vote that we take and every decision that we make, we sit there and we justify everything that we do. We feel that there is a reason to do it, whether it's in the name of our constituents, whether it's the name of our positions. We do things because we feel compelled that it's the right thing to do.

"Mr. Chairman, the crux though, in my opinion, of this House Resolution, the underlying crux deals with themes of revenge, vindication, retribution, punishment. These are not themes I feel that we as politicians, as leaders of our respective communities, should be facilitating. And accordingly, Mr. Speaker, I would ask that the Members of this Body reconsider the decision of House Resolution Number 2.

"I believe that as we move forward, we do not want to expound these principles of revenge, retribution, vengeance. These are not good principles. And if you even look at the seating chart right now, Mr. Chairman, some would argue that the placement of Speaker Say, where he is sitting, falls right into those principles. I, as a Member of this Body, will not condone that. As a Christian, I cannot condone that.

"And therefore, Mr. Speaker, there are other Members, and I don't profess to be speaking on behalf of my colleagues, but I do know there are Members of this Body who were afraid to speak. And therefore, Mr. Chairman, I speak on behalf of those who feel they cannot speak today. Members, again, to the members of this audience, I apologize, and again to the freshman I apologize on behalf of your new Speaker, as well as myself for having to make these comments, but quite frankly we were given no choice but to have our voices heard now and so for that we can proceed and I pray that these comments moving forward, these resonating thoughts of revenge, retribution, vengeance, vindictiveness and punitivity, do not proceed as we move forward in this session. Thank you."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Chairman: I rise in opposition to House Resolution 2.

"Before I begin, I would like to request that I receive permission to enter additional written comments into the Journal along with a copy of the Star Advertiser article dated January 16, 2013, authored by Derrick DePledge.

"First and foremost Mr. Chairman, to our freshmen Representatives:

"Representatives: Cachola, Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Ing, Kobayashi, Lowen, McDermott, Ohno, Onishi and Takayama: from the bottom of my heart and with all of my being, I apologize to you and your families for having to make this speech at this time. Unfortunately however, your newly elected Speaker left us with no other choice.

"When asked to postpone the vote on this resolution in order to give Members an opportunity to express our concerns and in a manner that would not abate from the ceremonies, he outright refused to do so. So on behalf of your newly elected Speaker and myself, I apologize for having to make this speech now. But in that same vein, I am inspired by the words of one of my colleagues who spoke six years ago in opposition to a similar resolution and I quote, 'Mr. Chair, my place is on this Floor and I refuse to be intimidated from using my voice and exercising my right to vote.'

"Mr. Chair, as Members of this Body, we find ways to justify all of the positions we take. Whether it's in the name of doing it for our constituents or doing it in the name of what we believe is right – we, as politicians, take votes and make the decisions we make because we can rationalize and justify our actions.

"But the reason I am in opposition is because the underlying crux of this resolution is based on revenge, vindication, retribution and punishment. As politicians and leaders of this community, these are not principles we should condone nor perpetuate.

"One might argue that the seating of Speaker Say in the Chamber is being done under thoughts of revenge, retribution, vengeance and punishment.

"And Mr. Chair, I don't profess to speak on behalf of my colleagues but I can tell you this, I do know that many of my colleagues did want to speak in opposition to this resolution but for fear of retribution, refused to speak up.

"As revenge, vengeance, retribution are not ideas I can condone as a Member of this Body, or as a Christian, I must do what I think is right. As a colleague just wrote to me this morning, 'what's right is right, even if nobody is doing it, and what's wrong is wrong, even if everyone is doing it.' Accordingly, Mr. Chair, I must do what is right and respectfully vote no.

"Thank you."

Dissidents reign as session opens
Members of a House faction, long on the outs, seize control
By Derrick DePledge
POSTED: 01:30 a.m. HST, Jan 16, 2013

For the cadre of state House Democrats whose opposition to Speaker Calvin Say long left them on the political margins, their exile ends today.

When the new session of the Legislature opens, veteran Rep. Joseph Souki will take the gavel from Say on the strength of a dissident faction that has sought to remove Say for the past eight years.

The internal feud unfolded mostly away from public view and was stoked by personalities as much as principle. Several of the dissidents have cloaked the struggle as a victory for progressive change, but their partnership with Souki – who as speaker in the 1990s ran the House just as rigidly as Say – and their alliance with minority Republicans suggest more of a pragmatic compromise.

"The House is the training ground for future political leaders of our state, and I felt like it was important for the House to reflect generational changes," said Rep. Scott Saiki (D, Downtown-Kakaako-McCully), a leading dissident who will be Souki's majority leader. "And we weren't giving all of the members the opportunity to advance in that way."

The leadership dispute is an example of how alliances within a chamber dominated by one political party can form and change over time. Saiki and Rep. Sylvia Luke (D, Punchbowl-Pauoa-Nuuanu), a leading dissident who will become chairwoman of the powerful House Finance Committee, were among the Democrats who had turned to Say to help oust Souki as speaker after the 1998 elections.

Luke was a vice speaker under Say, and Saiki was Say's majority leader, until their relationships disintegrated in part about how long Say planned to remain in charge of the House. According to lawmakers familiar with what happened, Saiki and Luke thought Say would lead the House for six years, but when it became obvious that Say did not plan to step aside, challenges to his rule surfaced when Democrats would organize to choose their leadership and committee assignments after every election cycle.

Dissidents complained that the more conservative Say did not involve enough lawmakers in public policy decisions or provide adequate opportunities for younger lawmakers to develop.

But many credit Say's tactical discipline and institutional knowledge – he has been in the House since 1976 – for often giving the House the edge over the Senate in private negotiations on legislation. Others also believe Say, a small businessman, held firm against broad-based tax increases when the state was scrambling for new revenue during the recession.

When the leadership dispute did go public, it was often unpleasant.

After the 2006 elections, Say's allies stripped Rep. Dwight Takamine of his chairmanship of the Finance Committee after he was slow to commit to Say. Dissidents said that Takamine was asked to mediate by U.S. Sen. Daniel Inouye and was never part of their faction, but some of Say's allies insisted that "there needed to be heads on stakes" as a warning. Inouye wrote Takamine a letter of apology, explaining that his request had made the situation worse, "with more, not less blood, on the floor."

Takamine, out of power in the House, ran for and was elected to the state Senate and was eventually chosen by Gov. Neil Abercrombie as director of the state Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

On opening day of the 2007 session, Saiki, Luke and newly elected Rep. Della Au Belatti (D, Moiliili-Makiki-Tantalus) spoke against the resolution electing Say as speaker. While colleagues were not surprised that Saiki and Luke would publicly object, Belatti's comments were seen as particularly intemperate, the equivalent of insulting the boss on the first day of work.

"It has been whispered about me that I should learn to act like a freshman, that I should know my place," Belatti said that day in the House chamber after apologizing to the guests attending what is traditionally a day of ceremony and celebration. "Mister Chair, my place is on this floor, and I refuse to be intimidated from using my voice and exercising my right to vote."

Say was re-elected speaker that year by a 48-3 vote, with only Saiki, Luke and Belatti in dissent.

Several other lawmakers – like Belatti – have spent their entire time in the House in exile, frozen out of key policy decisions. Rep. Chris Lee (D, Kailua-Lanikai-Waimanalo) sided with the dissidents after he was elected in 2008.

"When I came in, I felt there were a group of folks who were pushing, to me, the same goals that I had, which was generally a better government to address some of our hardest issues, even it means difficult political consequences. To have those discussions," he said. "With them I saw eye to eye, and support that kind of change."

Lee, who will become the Chairman of the Energy & Environmental Protection Committee under Souki, said he does not regret his choice.

"I wasn't going to let any sort of political wrangling or anything like that get in the way of my broader goal in the long term, which is pretty significant change for the state. And I think this is an important step in that direction," he said.

Two years ago, when dissidents took the leadership fight to opening day, several criticized Say for his willingness to use Republican votes to hold power if necessary. House Republicans supported Say, citing his opposition to a general excise tax increase, and were quietly promised greater staff equity and an extra seat on the Finance Committee by Say's allies.

Saiki predicted at the time that some Democrats would break from Say if he had to organize with Republicans to keep control. "It will be difficult to govern with a bipartisan organization," he cautioned.

This year the Republicans backed Souki and dissidents in return for three committee vice chairmanships, including the Finance Committee, giving Souki the leverage he needed to remove Say after his record 14 years in control. Souki, however, now has a majority with Democrats alone after Abercrombie appointed Justin Woodson on Tuesday to fill a vacant Maui House seat.

Saiki said Republicans have newer, younger members in their caucus who share some common ground with Democrats. "I think that there's common ground between the Democrats and Republicans on some issues, such as environmental issues," he said. "I think that we can work together to advance some good policy."

On Tuesday, Souki and Say finally swapped offices, with Souki moving into the spacious speaker's corner suite on the fourth floor of the state Capitol and Say slipping into Souki's old office two doors down the hall. Say (D, Palolo-St. Louis Heights-Kaimuki) plans to offer an amendment today to the resolution electing Souki as speaker, giving his loyalists the chance to vote on the record for his chosen successor, Rep. Marcus Oshiro, as speaker.

The resolution on committee assignments, which includes the three Republican vice chairmanships, could also show the divisions that remain among Democrats.

"I'm at peace with myself," Say said Tuesday, adding that he had no hard feelings against the dissidents. "It's been a great 14 years. Who would have thought I would be here for 14 years?"

At 10:55 o'clock a.m., Representative Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:56 o'clock a.m.

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Chair, I rise in support of House Resolution Number 2. And I just wanted to start off by saying that as a Member who was previously assigned to the seat where the Speaker Emeritus is sitting, I have to say that it's not really an act of vengeance or retribution, because it's actually the best seat in the Chamber.

"I support House Resolution Number 2, which proposes to elect Representative Souki and Representative Mizuno as the Speaker and Vice Speaker respectively of the House of Representatives. This resolution represents change. And I know that change is sometimes difficult to contend with. I would submit however that in this context, change is positive. Because with the new Speakership, we will usher in a new generation with new perspectives.

"And in light of our honor of Senator Inouye this morning, I wanted to use a quote from him about change. And this is what he said. 'Change and challenge should not deter us now. We have long been a party of change and challenge. The need for new ideas and improved institutions should not deter us now. We have long been a party of new ideas.' Again, Mr. Speaker, I support House Resolution Number 2."

Representative Oshiro rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"I Support Genuine and Authentic Bipartisanship

"First, let me set the record straight.

"Let there be no doubt that I support genuine and authentic bipartisanship and the practice of working across the political aisle on common policy grounds. I believe my 18 year record in the House clearly demonstrates my willingness and more importantly, my ability to work and gain bipartisan agreement and joint accomplishments in many areas.

"For instance, I did so in winning support for and passage of a measure to enact Hawaii's Family Leave Act, fight crime, set long term renewable energy policies, reform education, protect our vulnerable seniors and youngsters, as well as support the preservation of lands of important agricultural and cultural value in my immediate neighborhood. It is not unusual, in this House, to have a seventy-five or eighty percent or higher affirmative vote on the hundreds of measure. I believe the House Journals substantiates this fact.

"Even in my two stints as the Democratic Caucus Majority Leader (2000-2002 and 2004-2006), there have been many occasions of bipartisan agreement and support. And, these instances, were done whether the Republican Caucus was comprised of seven (7) or seventeen (17) members. And, under both a Republican and Democrat Governor. I also most recently served over several years as the Incoming Chair, and immediate past Chair of the Council of State Governments-WEST (CSG-WEST), leading and working with Democrats and Republicans from Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming, as well as the Pacific Islands of American Samoa, the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, and Guam. And I currently serve on the Council of State Government's Legal Task Force comprised of members from both 'red' and 'blue' states.

"More recently, I share credit with other members of the Republican Caucus in all six (6) balanced-budget measures approved over my 6-year tenure as the House Finance Chair. Certainly, the Executive Biennial Budget and working with the Republican Governor Linda Lingle is testament to my appreciation of true and honest bipartisanship.

"In 2012, all Republicans voted in support of the Supplemental Budget Act -- an achievement I take great pride in. That is true and honest bipartisanship on a major piece of legislation that requires compromise and reconciliation. In my humble opinion, I believe that many of my current and former Republican colleagues, would concur with my assessment. So, clearly, let there be no doubt that I have and I know how to work in a bipartisan manner for the common good. As our most beloved and respected Governor Burns would say, 'Let the record speak for itself.' Yes, Mr. Speaker, let the record speak for itself.

"The 'Buying and Selling' of the Speaker

"Mr. Speaker, this coalition with seven (7) Republicans is not genuine and authentic bipartisanship. It is nothing to boast about. Nothing to brag about. Nothing for the Star Advertiser Editors to laud over. And, nothing to praise or applaud. To the contrary, giving the three (3) Republican members three (3) Vice Chair positions in exchange for their three (3) votes is a clear example of 'quid pro quo' or 'this, for that'. It is the epitome of 'buying votes' but instead of silver or gold, precious emeralds or rubies, trinkets or beads, the currency for this transaction is the priceless and rare committee leadership positions and rank in the Hawaii State House of Representatives' hierarchy.

"In other words, metaphorically speaking of course, instead of you 'buying' each of their individual votes, for let's say, $2,000, or $4,000, or $6,000, the three (3) Republicans, 'sold' their individual votes on House Resolution No. 4, to 'buy' the Vice Chair positions on the Environment and Energy, Economic Development, and Finance Committees. In my humble opinion, again metaphorically speaking, my colleagues from Wailuku and Kalihi got a 'steal' or bargain when you consider there is only one (1) Committee Vice Chair for all 51 members.

"This grand bargain is even more egregious when you consider that the seven (7) Republicans comprise about one-sixth (6th) of the entire Body or that the ratio of Republicans to Democrats is one (1) to seven (7). Obviously, someone got the better end of the deal but it is certainly not the members of our own caucus.

"The House Democrats, all 44 of them, got shortchanged. The Freshman Democrats should be especially aggrieved. For according to custom and practice, these three (3) Vice Chair assignments were theirs for asking. And, never before in the history of the House of Representatives has a 'sophomore' Republican member -- without any prior service on the Finance Committee -- been given the Vice Chair authority and responsibility for that important body.

"Furthermore, and to add insult to injury is, again metaphorically speaking, 'buying' the four (4) Freshman Republican votes, is a 'steal' at $50,000 for each of the votes or $200,000 in General Obligation Bond ('G.O.') Funds. I liken it to using a credit card for the purchase of services. But, here it is even better for the Speaker since there is no 'interest' to pay and no 'principle'. For here, the Speaker's purchase of the four (4) votes comes from the state's coffers. It is akin to receiving services using your friend's credit card -- you get the services while she pays the monthly bills. It reminds me of the old televison MASTERCARD ads. 'One Republican Freshman Vote for Speaker: $50,000. Four Freshman Republican Votes for Speaker: $200,000. No Debt or Interest to Pay: Priceless.'

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, lest colleagues think or I inadvertently suggest that I leave blameless the seven (7) Republicans who are necessary parties to these contacts, which I do not, I leave this thought with you from Exodus 3:28:

'Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.'

"Apples and Oranges

"Mr. Speaker, in all these amazing acquisitions of individual Republican votes and those of the Republican Caucus, you have displayed incredible focus to achieve the Speakership at any cost. You have even persuaded a majority of the Democrats to side with you suggesting that a prior Speaker or his supporters have done the same. But, even now, I challenge you to provide me the proof, the facts, and the specific evidence upon which you make your case. For I have not seen one single document or know of any particular instance as concrete and substantial as the 'buying' of the seven (7) Republican votes through the barter of both Vice Chair positions and G.O. bonds authorizations.

"As you know, there is some public discussion and even speculation of a past agreement from the House organization in 2010. But, you also know, as past Finance Chair, that such allocation of G.O. bonds in various districts could arise for a number of reasons. The G.O. bonds in a particular district could be part of a 'lump sum' Repair and Maintenance allocation or Electrical upgrade or Americans with Disability Act ('ADA') remediation or whole school renovation, or DOE or BOE 'matrix' prioritization. The G.O. bonds in a particular district could also be the result of collective and individual actions of the Senate. As such, it is grossly misleading and incorrect to attribute any allocation of G.O. bonds to various House Districts upon one individual or Chamber, as evidence of any quid pro quo or agreement. You of all members, should know that it is an absurd hypothesis.

"But, while I strongly maintain there is no truth of any nexus between any perceived past Republican and Democrat contract and conduct, for the reasons covered above, and that the fallacy pertaining to past G.O. bond funding and Capitol Improvement Project ('CIP') appropriations is an absurdity and proffers not one iota of evidence of anything relevant to this discussion, let say, for the sake of argument that they be true. Compare the two: three (3) Vice Chair positions – Committees on Energy & Environmental Protection, Economic Development & Business Concerns, and Finance and $50.000.00 G.O. bond authorizations to only four Freshman Republican members versus additional.

"Mr. Speaker, ask yourself: 'Do two wrongs make a right?' And, then, ask yourself: 'Am I comparing apples to oranges?' Your answers will reveal as much about yourself and as what we can expect for ourselves.

"Can't Give Away What You Don't Have

"Finally, Mr. Speaker much has been said about 'keeping ones word' or 'a promise made, is a promise kept.' I wholeheartedly agree, as most would. Keeping ones promises to one another is the stuff we learn in kindergarten. It is fundamental in our public and private lives. It is the principal of contracts. But, as any good Catholic Priest knows, 'Nemo potest dare quod non habet.' (You cannot give what you don't have).

"As a lawyer, most of my civil practice has been in the area of contacts. Whether it is the sale of goods, or sale of services, or sale of real property, they all share the common pattern of a buyer and a seller. Likewise, in most instances, an offer is made and an acceptance follows. One promises to do something and in exchange the other does something. A 'benefit' goes from one party to the other and a 'burden' is incurred by the other party. Each one is expected to perform and receive his or her promise in due course. These are the basic elements of a contract.

"Mr. Speaker, this is essentially what you and the Representative from the District 31 (Moanalua, Red Hill, Foster Village, Aiea, Fort Shafter, Moanalua Gardens, Aliamanu, and Lower Pearlridge) have; a 'contract votes for Speaker.' But, unlike the illustrations above, I did not offer anything to the Representative from District 31, nor accept anything from the Representative from District 31, nor give my assent to the Representative from District 31. I am not a party to the contract. Hence, I am not bound to the promises. And, for this reason, I do not and will not condone what you did. For what you are doing violates the fundamental principles of the common law. Additionally, by your actions this day you have rammed down upon each colleague's head your 'burden' so that you may enjoy the 'benefit' of its terms. Not only do I find your disregard of the exploitation of each man's vote repugnant, but more so distasteful, since it did not have to be.

"Indeed, this is the tragedy of this scene today. Especially when you have forty-four (44) Democrats in your caucus. How disappointing and tragic a figure you are Mr. Speaker. A tragedy like Shakespeare's King Lear. That you have forsaken your most loyal and trusted colleagues for your earthy crown of glory and regalia prove Shakespeare's genus and observations that 'the art of our necessities is strange. That can make vile things precious.'

"Final Thoughts and Hope

"Mr. Speaker, I hope and pray that your tenure as Speaker will be profitable and a blessing upon this august Body and legislative institution. I hope that it bears a good harvest for the Democratic Party of Hawaii and the traditions from which you and I are beneficiaries. I hope that my worst fears are merely dark shadows at night or passing clouds in the day. That you and your leadership team will overcome the resistance of the change you seek and find favor and good fortune in the course you have set for years to come.

"I hope to be proven wrong and even labeled disloyal to this House and the Democratic Party of Hawaii if that be the price to pay for your successful tenure as Speaker. For at the end of the day, it only matters that our individual and collective actions be a blessing and not a curse upon the people we are sworn to serve within the tenets of our Federal and State Constitutions. That is my ultimate hope. That future generations of leaders will say, 'the Maui Speaker was a great speaker and under him Hawaii did well.'

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, please know that I have given all my intellectual and emotional energies to affecting a different outcome using the power of persuasion and not brute force to change the hearts and minds of our Democratic Caucus. That I have failed in this endeavor and perhaps ended my political career may it still be of some value and useful to the House Democratic Caucus and you, my dear colleague. That my efforts not be in vain but lead to a better Democratic Party of Hawaii. . . a better House Democratic Caucus, and a better House of Representatives. These institutions that we have spent our lives promoting and protecting through the years.

"Mr. Speaker, many years ago, my college girlfriend gave me hand written calligraphy of an excerpt of a famous political quote to encourage and inspire me during a rough patch in college. So uplifting and thoughtful, as well as beautifully written, that I, to this day, hold it among my most valuable possessions. It reads as follows and is apropos in describing the brave men and woman who will be casting a no vote on this instant resolution:

'Each time a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope, and crossing each other from a million different centers of energy and daring, those ripples build a current that can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance. Few are willing to brave the disapproval of their fellows, the censure of their colleagues, the wrath of their society. . .

*'Moral courage is a rarer commodity than bravery in battle or great intelligence. Yet it is the one essential, vital quality for those who seek to change a world that yields most painfully to change. And I believe that in this generation those with the courage to enter the moral conflict will find themselves with companions in every corner of the globe.' (*Robert F. Kennedy, 1966).

"Thank you very much."

Representative Choy rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Choy's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Chair, first of all, let me congratulate Representative Joseph Souki for winning the election for Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 27th Legislature, 2013 Regular Session.

"As in all political elections, there is an element of strategy. My vote in opposition is not about personalities, or my lack of respect for the Speaker-elect, but the weakness of his strategy and the price paid to win his election, in my humble opinion. In simpler terms, he 'gave away the store' to win the election. I would think that with his years of being a politician, he would have been wiser in timing and leverage in using the Republicans. If the ploy was to use the Republicans to influence the weaker minds within our party, I would have hoped that other methods could have been deployed.

"Finally, the conclusion would have to be that in the end, he won. However, the meaning of winning is far from being defined, and the price for glory is yet to be paid. History will be our judge.

"I sincerely wish the new Speaker well in this new paradigm.

"Thank you, Mr. Chair."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, just rising in strong support."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I stand for my first time on the Floor to commend Speaker Calvin Say for his 19 years of dedicated service as Speaker to the people of Hawaii and his 35 plus years of service as a State Representative. I am a freshman legislator who made a decision to run for office in late 2011, at the age of 22 years old. Naturally, when I first announced my candidacy, very few people thought I had any chance of winning. Out of those who did, at least half of them shared my last name and grew up in the same house that I had.

"However, I knew in my na'au, that I could win this because of stories that my late father used to tell me--stories of an underdog, stories of a young Calvin Say working as a bus boy while campaigning, stories of someone who walked miles a day in the sun knocking on thousands of doors to win an election as a young, working-class, local, and rooted candidate for public office. In my own campaign, Speaker Say's story was a source of hope. At 5:00 p.m., after working a 5:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. day at Four Seasons as a runner and campaigning door-to-door for four hours subsequently, I thought of Speaker Say enduring his evening shifts for the energy I needed to stride one more hour to sunset. It was this extra push that won me the election, with the margin I did, against an incumbent. In fact, I would not have run for office if not for Speaker Say, so I would not be standing here in front of you all now on the opening day of the 27th Legislature.

"I am making my decision to support Representative Souki for Speaker because I see today as an opportunity to empower my neighbor island constituents, to facilitate a more collaborative environment among lawmakers, and to usher in a new era of progressive public policy. Let it be on record that I continue to see Speaker Say as a role model and that he has undoubtedly inspired a whole new generation of public servants. Mahalo Speaker Say; I am honored to be working alongside you, your supporters, and all other of my fellow House Members this session."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ELECTING THE SPEAKER AND VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, Choy, Coffman, Har, Ito, Jordan and Oshiro voting no, and with Representative Rhoads being excused.

The Temporary Chair appointed Representatives Saiki, Awana, Johanson and Fukumoto to escort the newly elected Speaker to the rostrum.

The Temporary Chair then presented to the Members of the House and audience, the Honorable Joseph M. Souki, Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature, and presented him with the gavel.

Speaker Joseph M. Souki assumed the rostrum and addressed the Body, stating:

"Well, thank you very much. Members of the House, all of you, I wish to thank you for your vote of confidence and support. I pledge to you that I will execute my duties and responsibilities with fairness, consistent with Hawaii's Constitution and Statutes. Again, Members, thank you very much for your support and I look forward to working with all of you this session."

The Chair then appointed Representatives Saiki and Johanson to escort the Honorable John M. Mizuno to the rostrum.

The Chair then stated:

"Members and guests, I present to you the Vice Speaker, John Mizuno."

H.R. No. 3, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ELECTING THE OFFICERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE," was jointly offered by Representatives Saiki and Johanson.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Johanson and carried, H.R. No. 3 was adopted, with Representative Rhoads being excused.

Thereafter, the Speaker administered the Oath of Office to the officers named.

H.R. No. 4 further states that:

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that if any member of a Standing Committee is called to active duty in the military and is deployed and unavailable to participate in committee activities, then for that period of unavailability, the member shall not be considered a member of that Standing Committee."

Representative Saiki moved that H.R. No. 4 be adopted, seconded by Representative Johanson.

At 11:05 o'clock a.m., Representative Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"At this time, the Chair will allow the Members who wish to insert written comments to do so by 4:30 p.m. There has been a request for a roll call, so all those who wish to vote for a roll call, please raise your hand. Clerk, can you check if they have the required numbers."

The Clerk then stated:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, they have the required number for a roll call vote."

Representative Oshiro rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of clarification. For the written comments is it 4:30 p.m. this day or 4:30 p.m. Friday?"

Speaker Souki then stated:

"4:30 p.m. Friday."

At 11:17 o'clock a.m., Representative Saiki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:18 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"House Resolution Number 4 will be providing for Caucus Leaders, House Standing Committees, Chairs, Vice Chairs and membership. So again, a roll call has been called, Mr. Clerk, will you please proceed with the roll."

Representative Saiki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just would like to rise on a point of clarification. Just to clarify for the Members that the vote before us is on House Resolution Number 4, which appoints members of leadership and the Committee Chairs, Vice Chairs, and members. And to further clarify, this is a roll call vote. A vote in favor of the resolution is to approve the resolution, a vote against it would defeat it. Thank you very much."

Speaker Souki:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Majority Leader. It has been some years since I have been on this podium. The Chair stands corrected, thank you very much. As you proceed with the roll call, ayes will be in favor, nay would be opposed to House Resolution Number 4."

At 11:19 o'clock a.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:20 o'clock a.m.

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Resolution No. 4. As presently drafted, this measure would assign minority members as Vice Chairs to the Committees on Energy & Environmental Protection, Economic Development & Business, and Finance.

"At the outset, let me state for the record that I have the utmost respect for my colleagues across the aisle and that my views should in no way be taken personally. Be that as it may, I strongly object to the assignment of minority members to the Vice Chair positions of Standing Committees.

"In our state, political parties have always stood for something. Whether it be Democrat, Republican, Libertarian, or Green, political parties have stood for basic principles, platforms, and ideals. They bring people together based on their beliefs, and they also help the electorate see what candidates for public office hold true.

"Last November, the People of this state elected 44 Democrats to this House. As such, the Democrats hold a 44 to 7 majority over the Republicans in this body. Yet for the first time ever, this House stands poised to organize by assigning minority members to Vice Chair positions.

"What I find the most objectionable is that fellow Democrats – colleagues who share the same basic philosophical and political beliefs as the 'majority' – are being excluded from consideration for these very important positions.

"Take the Vice Chair of the Committee on Finance for example. Under this plan, my colleague from Aiea, who has but one term of office under his belt, would be assigned this very important position. Compare his experience and background to my colleague from Manoa, who has served this Body longer, and who is a certified public accountant and former Chair of the Tax Review Commission. Who can you honestly say is better qualified to handle this very important position?

"How about the Vice Chair of the Committee on Economic Development. While I have the utmost respect for my colleague from Hawaii Kai, don't you think our colleague from the other end of Hawaii Kai might have equally compelling insight since he is a small business owner. As with our colleague from Manoa, our colleague from Hawaii Kai was also excluded from consideration.

"And what about the Vice Chair of the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection. To sit on the committee is proposed the former Chair of that committee, who before that also served as the Vice Chair for many years. There are not many people in the state with the institutional knowledge of this important area of law as he, but like our colleagues from Manoa and Hawaii Kai, he was also excluded from consideration.

"Mr. Speaker, I am a Democrat and I firmly believe that being a Democrat is supposed to mean something. That is why I cannot support any organizational plan that would forsake the experience and qualifications of fellow Democrats for expediencies sake.

"To do so goes against our dearest traditions and practice. To do so would be a great disservice to our state.

"I urge my fellow colleagues to oppose this measure. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"Mahalo Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to submit written comments in opposition to House Resolution 4, establishing the leadership of the House Committees.

"I rise in very strong opposition to this resolution for the following reasons:

"It is my belief that amongst 44 Democrats we should not have to give a group of 7 Republicans the opportunity to empower the Minority Caucus at the detriment of our Democratic Majority Caucus. What we did is give power to three members of the minority party, taking away the opportunity for our members to hold those key positions.

"Mr. Speaker, please tell me what will happen when bills go to Conference and the Chairs, as in past sessions, have worked with their Vice Chairs to come up with the new drafts. Traditionally in those meetings have been the Chairs and their staff and the Vice Chairs and their staff. Going forward will we be letting the Minority Caucus know what our plans are, in advance, in these three key committees?

"My vote in opposition is to reflect my concerns of the impact of the new leadership organization on the future of the Democratic Party. It is one thing to reach across the aisle to work on policy for the betterment of the state and another to be organizing with the Minority Caucus in order to obtain leadership. I along with some of my colleagues have grave concerns that key leadership positions and the responsibilities that those entail were being given to the Minority Caucus. In effect, taking away the opportunities afforded to the majority members as voted in by their constituencies statewide.

"Mahalo again for allowing me to submit written comments in opposition."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I respectfully rise in opposition to House Resolution 4. My opposition stems from my belief that the organization of committees and leadership were done outside the parameters of our Democratic Party. We have offered many opportunities for Democrats to be able to negotiate within our caucus. Our first candidate stepped down, our second candidate for Speaker stepped down and we even offered a compromise Speaker all with the condition that we go back to square one, and begin negotiating within our party. All offers were turned down. This event has been marketed as bipartisanship, but I don't see it that way. I can only hope that as we move forward, we will be able to heal as a party and that we have not been divided and conquered."

Representative Tsuji rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"My no vote represents my concern, as the proposed Chair of the Economic Development & Business Committee. The designated Vice Chair is a member of the minority party. I believe as the Committee Chair, I should strive to provide effective leadership and guidance. It concerns me that this effectiveness is diminished, should I be absent, because the Vice Chair is expected to assume the leadership role of the Chair and Committee."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to House Resolution 4.

"Mr. Chair, I rise in opposition to this resolution for a multitude of reasons. First, under your newly elected speaker and his new allies, formerly known as the 'dissidents,' a deal was made to enter into a 'coalition' with the seven minority members in exchange for (1) three Vice-Chairmanships to the House Committees on Energy & Environmental Protection, Economic Development & Business, and Finance; and (2) guaranteed capital improvement projects funding in the amounts of $30,000-$50,000 for the four Republican freshmen. Under the guise of 'bipartisanship,' your newly elected speaker and his 'dissident' allies believe that their 'coalition' will serve the people of Hawaii. This is a bald-faced lie and demonstrates the delusion under which all members of the coalition are operating.

"Mr. Chair, bipartisanship is members of opposing parties reaching out across the aisle on issues to find consensus for the betterment of the people. It is a process which at its very crux fosters inclusion. What bipartisanship is NOT is the collusion of one group with another to the DETRIMENT of another group in the name of power. In this case, Mr. Chairman, your newly elected speaker and his dissident friends have colluded with the Republican Caucus under the guise of bipartisanship simply to gain power in the House, while excluding 18 members of the newly elected Speaker's own caucus. At the very core of the 'coalition' is the act of EXCLUSION, quite the opposite of what bipartisanship represents.

"Second, I oppose this resolution because the slate put together by the new leadership is an absolute abomination and direct attack against the people of the State of Hawaii. Mr. Chair, on November 6, 2012, the people of the State of Hawaii voted for 44 Democrats to represent their voices in the House of Representatives. This slate of Chairs and Vice Chairs flies in the face of what the people elected by giving disproportionate representation to the Republican membership. While the Democratic members of the 'coalition' espouse that the Vice Chairs are 'in name only,' I take great umbrage to this cavalier attitude and explanation.

"By installing Republican Vice Chairs on the three committees, these Vice Chairs now out rank our Democratic members. For example, as a six-year member of this House, I have had the privilege of serving on the Finance Committee for all six years. Now, under this current line-up, the Republican Vice Chair of Finance, who has never served on the Finance Committee, now RANKS HIGHER than me because of his title as Vice Chair. So when the newly elected speaker and his dissident allies attempt to trivialize the installation of Republicans as Vice Chairs to three committees, I would submit that because of the disproportionate share of weight it provides to the minority members, the proposed committee line-up goes against the will of the people.

"The third reason I oppose this resolution is because members of the dissident faction, when they were not in power, often complained that the previous leadership failed to utilize 'all of the talent' in the House. Whether this was true or not, it is now clear that such complaints were hypocritical based on this proposed Chairmanship line-up. For example, as a land-use attorney, I have been privileged to serve as Vice Chair of the Committee on Water, Land, & Ocean Resources (WLO) for the past four years. Our newly elected speaker has in fact publicly stated that I should have been Chair of WLO because of my background in land use and because I am well-versed in chapters 171, 205A, etc. Yet, I was not named to serve as even a member on the WLO Committee.

"Another example rests with Rep. Choy. This Body knows that Rep. Choy, as a Certified Public Accountant, is well-versed in financial issues and has served as an asset to the Finance Committee for four years. And yet Rep. Choy was not asked to serve as a member of Finance. Finally, neither Speaker Say nor Rep. Oshiro are serving on any committees which is a travesty given their respective vast knowledge and institutional history of many of the Standing Committees. These examples clearly demonstrate that this new leadership has refused to recognize and utilize all of the talent in the House, and therefore I must oppose the resolution.

"Finally Mr. Chair, I oppose HR 4 because the so-called 'coalition,' has stripped our freshmen of two Vice-Chairmanships that were quite frankly, the 'birthright' of our Democratic freshmen, and which have now been given to senior members of the Republican Caucus, all in the name of power and greed. It is well-accepted that freshmen in the Majority Caucus receive Vice-Chairmanships because the majority uses those Vice-Chairmanships as training ground to teach and mentor our freshmen, with the hopes that our Vice-Chairmen will one day be elevated to Chairs. In this proposed line-up, the new leadership team has elevated two senior members of the Minority Caucus to Vice Chairs, all for what? The only way these members can be Chairs is if the voters of Hawaii vote the Republican Caucus in as the majority.

"So to have stripped our Democratic freshmen from their birthright simply in exchange for their Republican votes to support the newly elected speaker and his dissident allies, is both disheartening and disenfranchising. Moreover Mr. Chair, as the Republican freshmen were 'guaranteed' CIP and our own Democratic freshmen were not, I am perplexed as to whom the new leadership is really looking out for - - is it really 'bipartisanship' or truly power?

"For all of these reasons, I must respectfully vote in opposition to House Resolution 4.

"Thank you."

Representative Coffman's written remarks in opposition to the measure are as follows:

"I am voting nay for this resolution that appoints this legislative sessions Chairpersons and Vice Chairpersons. This resolution appoints three members of the minority party as Vice Chairs of three committees. This action will hurt our legislative process in the following manner:

"As a general rule, the majority party and minority party have different opinions and philosophical beliefs about policy. Discussions and bipartisan compromise should occur on the Chamber Floor and not in the Chairs' office during a working discussion with the Vice Chair.

"During many of the hearings the Chair and Vice Chair are the only members at the hearing; they are the members expected to have the most knowledge about the legislation being processed by their committee. However, it is during Majority Caucus meetings that bills heard by committees are discussed. With the possible absence of the Chair who has a minority member Vice Chair, there will not be any member in the caucus to lead a discussion in regards to the bill.

"Vice Chairs should be members of the majority party that are expected to learn the subject matter of the assigned committee and be in a position to move into the Chair position in the future. It is highly unlikely that any member of the minority party will move into the Chairmanship of a committee in near future. With members of the minority party holding Vice Chair positions, we are not training our future majority party leaders. We weaken the legislative process."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"The coalition between Democrats and Republicans this year is historic and much-needed. We often hear about lower voter participation and voter apathy, especially amongst young people, but government leaders rarely do anything about it. I'm hopeful that what this Body decided to do today will encourage our disenfranchised citizens and show that there are still leaders in government who believe that people with different opinions can work together productively and that minority voices count. We may have very different opinions on issues, but those dialogues can forge stronger legislation and produce better ideas than we've seen in the past. We talk a lot about creating a different and brighter future for our children, but we can't do that if we continue to do things the way we've always done them.

"As we move forward, we must remember that we represent our constituents not our political parties. This measure today reflects what most of our communities want from their government – common sense, bipartisanship and teamwork."

Representative Johanson's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"I rise in strong support of this resolution. The people of Hawaii are asking for common sense leaders who work to find common ground. Today…we in the House of Representatives have found that common ground. Despite our differences, we have come together as one Body and put aside our political differences to work for the common good of all of Hawaii. For the first time in the House of Representative's history, we have formed a coalition government involving leaders from both political parties.

"Speaker Joseph M. Souki has cast a vision for a House of Representatives where all fifty-one members' talents and passions have the potential to contribute to a better House. I believe that this vision will ultimately engender better government – a result that benefits everyone. Today is the beginning of a new chapter in Hawaii's story, a chapter involving a more collaborative and cooperative government that puts the interests of people above all else."

Representative Jordan's written remarks in opposition to the measure are as follows:

"I stand in strong opposition to HR 4, Acknowledging and Recognizing the Caucus Leaders and Naming the Chairs, Vice Chairs, and Members of the Standing Committees of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature. I cannot in good conscience support a resolution that provides for members of the minority party to serve as Vice Chairmanships of three Committees: Finance, Energy & Environmental Protection and Economic Development & Business, in exchange for their support of Speaker Joe Souki.

"While I oppose this resolution as a deeply committed member of the majority party, the Democratic Party, this unprecedented decision of allowing minority members to serve as Vice Chairs is extremely troubling and should raise serious caution moving forward. This chips away at the foundation of the Constitution of the Democratic Party and tears at the fabric that holds it together and I cannot in good faith support this type of activity since it goes against my belief and commitment to the majority party, the Democratic Party of which I'm a loyal member.

"Today we have a good size freshman class and these new members will soon learn that survival in politics is a tricky business. Each of us should take a stand and don't worry so much about whether you win or lose. Don't be afraid to think big. Think beyond the current. Politics may indeed be local, but true achievement in politics comes from vision and courage. This is your House, this is your democratic House and this is how we operate in full and public discussion over issues brought before it. This truly is a tall order, but no one said in life it would be easy."

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Johanson and carried, H.C.R. No. 2 was adopted, with Representative Rhoads being excused.

At 11:28 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

At this time, the Members of the House, their guests and audience were entertained by Mr. Willie K.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:55 o'clock a.m.

At this time, the Speaker delivered his address, stating:

"Well how do you like the Maui boy? He's in the same district with me and I'm glad he doesn't run for the House, I'd be in trouble. Well Danny, this is for you.

"My fellow Members and all our guests, aloha, and welcome to the 2013 session. As you can see it started with a bang.

"Before I begin, I would like to take a moment to recognize some of our distinguished guests. I have the great pleasure to introduce all of them. First we have our senior Senator, I was pleased to work with him in the House years ago, Senator Schatz, please. And of course, our beloved Governor Abercrombie. Our newly appointed Lt. Governor, from Maui also, Tsutsui. Chief Justice Recktenwald. Chair Machado of OHA, from Molokai. And of course we have Senator Akaka and Mrs. Akaka here.

"Thank you very much. Former Governors, I'm proud to say that we have all of our Governor contingent here and we can begin with Governor Ariyoshi and Jean Ariyoshi. Thank you for attending. Thank you. Governor Waihee and Mrs. Lynn Waihee. Governor Ben Cayetano and Vicky Cayetano. Governor Lingle, thank you, I should say also from Maui. Thank you. And of course we have our local government, a former Member of the House and we're very proud of what he is doing, Mayor Caldwell for the City and County of Honolulu. Mayor Alan Arakawa and Mrs. Arakawa from Maui. Mayor Kenoi from the Hawaii Island. And a great pleasure to announce Council Chair Baisa, we both worked for the same agency many years ago. Aloha. And the Council Chair Furfaro from Kauai. And also there are those from the Consular Corps, welcome. And for members of our military that are over here, welcome.

"Before I go on, I would like to introduce my family. My godson, Jeffery Torres. My son Mark, and his lady friend and partner Janinne. My son-in-law, or former son-in-law but I still look at him as my son, Dutch. He's a great chef. And of course my daughter, Desiree. Thank you for being here. And my dear wife, Frances. She's getting to be a good politician by the way.

"I want to thank you all for being here to commemorate this momentous occasion with us. We are here today to chart a path forward for our state. With Hawaii's economy on the rise, construction stable, tourism up, and unemployment down, there is reason for cautious optimism.

"This is the moment we have been waiting for. Over the past few years, the state budget was cut by over two billion dollars. Meanwhile, wages dropped, health benefit costs rose, many people were forced out of work. The homeless population still grows – among them, war heroes, persons needing mental health services, families unable to pay their mortgage or rent.

"We have the chance now, to rebuild what the recession took away. We need to have investment in projects and programs throughout the state, which is critical. But to strengthen economic development and job growth, and to restore public services, we need to proceed intelligently. We need to roll up our sleeves and get to work.

"Members, if we want to restore the safety net, put people back to work, and provide the best education, including early childhood education, if we want to take care of people's health, take care of our kupuna, and make sure the state's health care system transitions into a new era of health care, smoothly and without undue delay. If we want to improve our roads, bridges, and transportation infrastructure to reduce traffic, improve the mobility of our residents, and enhance safety in every county. If we want clean energy that uses the best renewable energy resources, including our ocean and solar resources, if we want to be responsible stewards of Hawaii's natural resources and our native plants and animals, if we want to increase farming opportunities on agricultural land and the market for locally-grown products. If we want to support the tourism industry and promote the Hawaii product to the world. If we want to do all these things the people require, I know yes we do, we must enhance our revenue stream. We must put together a mix of strategies that will generate more state revenues equitably.

"One option may be to rethink tax credits. No, I'm not saying we should abandon all caution and fall for the marketing hype. Instead, let's learn from our experience and do our due diligence. The film industry claims a tax credit will generate $350 million in revenues for the state. Should we turn our back on this? Let's give it a serious and thorough look first.

"But increasing revenue does not mean placing an unfair burden on those who can least afford it. Members, the top personal tax rate was down to 7-3/4 percent at one time and now it's up to 11 percent – the highest in the nation. It's time to look at rolling back the personal income tax burden for people with lower incomes and the middle class, at least incrementally, over the next few years.

"Members, I am humbled and honored to stand before you today. Over my 30 years here, I have seen many faces come and go. I have seen our communities prosper, struggle, and prosper again. But one thing that remains constant is the privilege and price of public service. All of us know what it's like to walk the district. We go door to door, we talk to our constituents, we ask them to entrust us with their vote and a seat in this Chamber.

"The price of this privilege is the responsibility each one of us has to conduct ourselves with compassion and dignity. Every day, as you walk down these halls and on this Floor, remember the hopes and dreams of the people of this state and do your best for them.

"Before I close, I would like to thank Speaker Calvin Say for his 14 years of leadership as Speaker of the House, and thank you Speaker for maintaining the fiscal solvency of this state over these past years. You were a good steward.

"I look forward to working with each and every one of you this session. Thank you very much, for the trust you have in me. For you a big aloha, and let's get to work. Thank you."

The Chair then recognized Representative Johanson, the Minority Leader, to deliver remarks on behalf of the Minority Caucus.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for the privilege of addressing this Chamber filled with so many of our state's most distinguished leaders past, present, and future. I'm also honored today to address the people, the heart of Hawaii. People all across the country are speaking out and asking for more common sense leaders who work to find common ground. We, here in Hawaii, are answering that call starting today.

"With the cost of living rising, the effect of federal spending cuts uncertain, and the burden of unfunded liabilities looming large, we must have a common purpose. Improving the lives of our people is that common purpose. This Minority Caucus recognizes that we have a duty as elected Representatives to work collaboratively and constructively in finding solutions and achieving results that reflect the will of the people. Collective problems require collective solutions.

"Thus, where common ground and common cause can be found, your Minority Caucus will work hard to find it. However, where we cannot agree we will respectfully dissent. The upcoming session affords us great opportunity to answer the public's call to action.

"The Minority Caucus will advocate for legislation that addresses quality of life improvements, particularly affording greater protections to children, the elderly, and better caring for our veterans. Opportunity for all by guarding against cost of living increases on our most vulnerable populations and promoting small businesses. Accountability and transparency in government by reforming the local election process, addressing the PLDC, and encouraging greater public dialogue within the legislative process. On these issues and many more where common ground and common cause can be found, we will work hard to find it.

"On behalf of the Minority Caucus I would like to thank Speaker Say for his historic service to the State of Hawaii as Speaker of the House of Representatives. I would also like to thank Speaker Souki and wish him well as he leads this Body in the next chapter of the Legislature's history.

"Change brings a newness and a different perspective. Nowhere is this more apparent than in the Minority Caucus before you today. Four of our seven members are age 32 or younger and in this next generation of Minority Leaders there is a shared connection to much of Hawaii's story. In Minority Floor Leader, Beth Fukumoto, we have the granddaughter of a state labor leader who ultimately led what would become the New York State AFL-CIO. We have a fourth generation farmer in Lauren Kealohilani Cheape, whose great-grandfather started the Petersons' Upland Farm in Wahiawa in 1910. A combat veteran who fought in Operation Enduring Freedom in Richard Lee Fale who grew up in the Kingdom of Tonga. And a former White House staffer whose great-grandparents immigrated to Hawaii from Okinawa as plantation laborers in your Minority Leader.

"Youth brings an energy and new ideas to the table, but it needs a strong foundation. Our caucus's foundation has been built by a diplomat and a champion of small business, a tireless environmental advocate, a veteran fighting for the rights of other veterans and the many generations of leaders who came before us.

"The Minority Caucus's diversity is reflective of the broader diversity that exists within our House of Representatives. It is this diversity coupled with a common purpose which enables us as public servants to fulfill our role and effectively answer the public's call to action. This call resonates across ideological and geographic boundaries. Starting today recognizing common cause and finding common ground we are all answering the call. Mahalo and best wishes for a successful 2013 legislative session. Aloha."

The Chair then recognized Representative Saiki, the Majority Leader, to deliver remarks on behalf of the Majority Caucus.

"Mr. Speaker, colleagues and guests, I would like to begin today with some acknowledgments. First, and I know I can say this on behalf of all of the Members, thank you to the residents of our respective communities who have given us the opportunity to represent them in the Legislature.

"Second, thank you to our families and friends, many of whom are seated with us today. They are the ones who stand by us and believe that we are always trying to do the right thing. They make more sacrifices than we do. We want to thank them for their support and presence in our lives.

"Third, and I don't mean to repeat, but there is a Member of our Democratic Caucus whom we would like to recognize. He is grounded and strives to teach House Members to be grounded themselves, to be responsible, and to be practical and philosophical. Thank you to Representative Calvin Say and his family for their service and sacrifice through the years."

Representative Say rose, stating:

"I am not retiring!"

Representative Saiki continued, stating:

"There is also another House Member whom I would like to thank. This Representative also serves with distinction and with steadfast allegiance to our democratic process. He has been a statesman and he has made our transition an orderly one, and I am not inferring that he's retiring. Thank you to Representative Marcus Oshiro.

"Mr. Speaker, we are all here because we have a common goal. We want to ensure that the State of Hawaii is and continues to be a place where we all live in safety, with dignity, and with fair opportunity. This is not a partisan concept – it is embraced by all.

"Every legislative session, thousands of students from elementary, middle and high schools throughout the state, visit the State Capitol. They usually tour the building and observe our House Floor session from the gallery. The House Members also meet with them and usually give them a mini civics lesson. There are two subjects that we discuss with students that I believe are pertinent today.

"The first subject is the symbolism of the State Capitol. The building itself represents a volcano that is surrounded by coconut trees and the ocean. Our House Chamber is decorated in earth tones with a sun lamp above us. In contrast, the Senate Chamber is shaded in ocean blue with a moon lamp. I have to say that it's more appropriate that earth colors are on our side because everyone agrees that the House is the more grounded Body in the Legislature. But don't tell the Senate President I just said that, please. Because we have more Members and smaller districts, we have a constant check on the pulse of our community.

"The second subject that we discuss with students is the legislative process. We explain that the Legislature is an independent and co-equal branch of government, and that legislators pass laws. What we don't really explain is how the Legislature and legislators do their work. Maybe that's on purpose. Everyone knows the saying about the similarities between lawmaking and sausage making. But perhaps the lawmaking process doesn't have to always be that way.

"As we keep mindful of the memory of Senator Daniel K. Inouye, we should remember his qualities as a statesman who placed the bigger picture and the greater good ahead of personal politics. A colleague of his, Senator Rob Portman, a Republican from Ohio, recently said this of Senator Inouye:

> 'He was a counselor to younger members like me, a great listener, and a Senator who always put his nation and the people of Hawaii ahead of partisan politics and his own ambition.'

"Mr. Speaker, we should follow Senator Inouye's lead, for we know that the public wants us to work together to produce results. There are 51 Members in this Body. Each brings experience and perspective. Each Member must play a meaningful role in the Legislature. That is what we are all elected to do. Simply put and geographically speaking, our state is too small, and our challenges too complex, for there to be division within the people's House.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to conclude by introducing the newest Members of our Democratic Caucus. As you mentioned earlier, it takes a lot for someone to be a candidate for public office, to put his or her name and reputation in a public arena, and to sign-wave every morning and afternoon for months.

"I would like to begin by introducing two of what I call our quasi-freshmen. First from District 19, former Representative, former Senator, and current State Representative, Bert Kobayashi. The other quasi-freshman is from District 30, former Representative, former Councilmember, and current Representative, Romy Cachola.

"We also have six new freshmen who take their work seriously and who want to make a difference. I want our freshmen to know that we senior Members of this Body will support them, serve as examples, and work to advance them as leaders. Beginning with the Big Island, District 3, Representative Richard Onishi. From District 6, Kona, Representative Nicole Lowen. From District 9, I think he's been appointed for 18 hours now, Representative Justin Woodson. From District 11, also on Maui, Kihei, Representative Kaniela Ing. From District 27, Nuuanu, Representative Takashi Ohno. Finally, from District 34, Pearl City, Representative Gregg Takayama.

"Mr. Speaker, I know that this will be a productive legislative session that will produce good results for our state. Thank you very much."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Cabanilla: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to invite the Members of the House of Representatives to our meeting for the Filipino Caucus, right after the Chair's meeting at the caucus room. I was promised that the Chair's meeting will only last 10 minutes, so we will have the meeting then. And just let me remind the Members that the membership of the Filipino Caucus are those who are Filipinos, part Filipinos, or they represent a district that has a lot of Filipinos. Thank you very much, and I hope to see you there."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "Sorry, Representative Cabanilla, point of clarification, is it also if you were born in the Philippines, wasn't that also a requisite?"

Representative Cabanilla: "If there are people that are not Filipino and born in the Philippines, of course, Mr. Speaker."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "I remember Representative Herkes. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, point of information to the last announcer. Having a large number of Filipinos in your district would mean for example, how many? What percent are you speaking of, madam?"

Representative Cabanilla: "Thank you for the question. I will leave it to the Member of the House. Because if they say they have a lot of Filipinos, they quantify that there's a lot of Filipinos, then I will take their word for it, because I'm not about to go count them."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, being that we are State Representatives, we represent all the Filipinos, all the Chinese, all the everybody, but some of them may not be quite as quantitatively in our own districts as others, so I just wanted a clarification. So I get the impression its self-selection. Thank you."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "I believe so, and Representative Ward you could attend that meeting if you would like, so that might be in your best interest."

Representative Ward: "I was trying to hint that, actually."

Representative Cabanilla: "I am open to any more questions that they may have. That's why I'm standing. The meeting is today at the caucus room, 10 minutes after adjournment, after the Chair's meeting. And I'll be happy to explain why we are reverting to the old policy when the Filipino Caucus came about."

Representative Evans: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to just acknowledge Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., that we're celebrating him on Monday, the State holiday. I look back at his 'I have a dream' speech which was in August of 1963, and I want the Members to know that when I was 16 years old, 1968, I lived in a college town and I remember all the college students picketing, marching down the streets, fighting for civil rights. And I remember when he was shot and what that felt like. How it went through all of us, the whole United States felt that. And probably the world. Because it was a significant point in American history. So I just wanted to point that out to everybody. Thank you."

Representative Saiki: "Mr. Speaker, just a reminder to the Members that the unlimited bill filing deadline is tomorrow at 1:00 p.m. in the Clerk's Office."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 10) was announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 10, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RELATING TO THE CAUCUS LEADERS AND COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE," was jointly offered by Representatives Saiki and Johanson.

Representative Saiki moved that H.R. No. 10 be adopted, seconded by Representative Johanson.

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Chair, I rise in opposition to House Resolution 10.

"I would like to reference the comments that I made on House Resolution No. 4, as those comments are relevant to this resolution as well.

"Thank you."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition to House Resolution No. 10.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was not expecting to vote no on this measure regarding the reassignment of two members to certain standing committees. But I do so to express my continuing disagreement with the manner in which a previously approved House Resolution No. 4, came to be and eventually adopted.

"Accordingly, I request that my remarks on House Resolution No. 2, which were entered into the House Journal on January 16, 2013, be inserted here. Furthermore, please know that I did seek to eliminate an obligation from the Speaker to the four minority freshman members with the Minority Leader and Minority Floor Leader to no avail. My vote in opposition also reflects their refusal to accept my offer.

"For these reasons, I respectfully cast a no vote with these comments."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I'd just like to explain that the purpose of this resolution is to change some committee assignments based on the changes in our conference room hearing schedule. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"I want to express my appreciation to the House of Representatives for making the changes reflected in House Resolution No. 10. The changes affect me and the Representative from the 45th District. The previous committee assignments would have required us to be in two committees simultaneously."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this resolution. I believe that it is important that the Representatives from the 45th and 36th Districts be permitted to switch places on the Health and Human Services Committees. As the minority, we face a challenge in ensuring that our members are able to provide coverage on all the committees, and this change allows us to better represent the interests of all of the people of Hawaii by avoiding conflicting committee assignments. Alternatively, I do not believe that this change is unprecedented or unreasonable, and as a result, it should be adopted as a necessary measure of protocol. This change is just one step towards achieving a more collaborative and cooperative government that puts the interests of people above all else."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 10 was adopted, with Representatives Har, Jordan, Kawakami, Oshiro, Say and Tokioka voting no, and with Representative Belatti being excused.

By unanimous consent, the following resolution (H.R. No. 9) and concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 9 through 14) were referred to Printing and further action was deferred:

H.R. No. 9, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO INCLUDE THE TOPIC OF ORGAN AND TISSUE DONATION AS A MANDATED INSTRUCTIONAL ELEMENT IN DRIVER EDUCATION COURSES STATEWIDE," was jointly offered by Representatives Ing, Kobayashi, Lowen, Morikawa and Ohno.

The Governor was presented with lei by Representative Karen Awana on behalf of the House of Representatives, and Senator Jill Tokuda on behalf of the Senate. The Speaker then presented to the Members of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature and the audience, the Honorable Neil Abercrombie, Governor of the State of Hawaii.

The Governor then addressed the Joint Session as follows:

"Mister Speaker, Madame President, former Governors, distinguished justices of the courts, representatives of our Congressional Delegation and Members of the Hawaii State Legislature, elected officials, honored guests, family and friends. Aloha.

"Before I continue with my remarks, I want to just emphasize an introduction if I might. I've had the great fortune in my life of having two mothers. My mom Vera lived here with me in Hawaii for many, many years and had the privilege and the great good fortune to be able to have as her companion here my other mother, to whom I am hanai'd, Aunty Aggie Cope. Aunty, I love you. And I have had the great good fortune as well, to continue to have the company of my wife and partner, Dr. Nancie Caraway.

"My friends, politics isn't a hobby or a pastime. At its center, politics is community, and we as office holders are obliged to address the greater good of the larger community. At its heart, politics is about doing good and relieving suffering. If politics is done right, it's all about making it better for people.

"In Mahayana Buddhism, we are admonished to renounce all evil, practice all good, and save the many beings.

"But when politics gets reduced to slogans or bumper stickers – what is right; what is good? What is wisdom and virtue? Wisdom and virtue to one, is grounds for accusation and denunciation to another. Observation can quickly become doctrine, and demands for fidelity to the truth come even more rapidly. In secular political terms, the Party Line is established, and with today's cyber-technology, internet-hysteria often takes on a life of its own. Perspective can give way to prosecution or even persecution. We can do better than what we have witnessed lately. The level of discourse in our public policy discussion stands in need of elevation. And I hope to be able to exemplify a bit of that today.

"Today it seems everyone's motivation is suspect. An opposing view is likely to be judged that of a fool or a tool of special interests. One's position is not merely faulty or misguided, it is sometimes characterized as the work of someone consciously plotting to destroy the environment, or stealing public benefit for private gain, or willfully corrupting the good and welfare of the community. This is not the model of dialogue and exchange that we want or that we need in Hawaii.

"The virus of absolutism now infecting the Congress of the United States appears to be seeping into Hawaii – whether it's the use of public lands, or dealing with gun violence, determining who may marry, or decreeing how we are to be born or how we are to die. Even caring for the sick or preparing young children for life are opportunities sometimes for mocking dismissal or even patronizing skepticism.

"This absolutist attitude eliminates the human dimension from our political discourse. The absolutist has answers for everything and questions about little or nothing.

"I think perhaps it may be time to step back a bit and take a few deep breaths. In the wake of Senator Akaka's request that we let a sense of Aloha enter our lives more deeply, could we not try a little harder to practice Aloha with each other. Could we not express some generosity of spirit for each other – both in our deliberations and in our decision making?

"As I set about organizing my thoughts for today and reflected on the political atmosphere, I concluded that what we confront today is a situation of what might be called political Jeopardy. In the game of Jeopardy, everyone already has the answers; the challenge is to figure out how to frame the right questions.

"We are so busy telling each other what the answer is, so certain we already know what needs to be done, that we can ignore the questions behind our pronouncements.

"My thought is, irrespective of what we are for or against, we cannot allow ourselves to preempt the raising of pressing questions we need to comprehend and address, lest we lose our way before we even begin to understand where we need to go or what path to take.

"We need look no further than the question of unfunded liabilities. How do we address recurring needs like paying for healthcare benefits and exploding pension deficits and the means to finance them on a recurring basis? How do we make use of our resources and assets, both public and private, with continuing investment security in the future?

"The Public Land Development Corporation is but one example of an attempt to answer the question and the struggle of coming out of the worst recession in memory. What we cannot do is allow controversy over the answer to this or any other challenge to preempt asking or facing up to the questions before us.

"And then there is the greatest unfunded liability question of all – the failure to address early childhood development and education in Hawaii. Leaving our keiki unprepared for elementary school puts them at a crippling disadvantage in terms of being able to meet the demands the future will make on them.

"These questions and the questions which follow require us to embrace our island values and steward our precious island home to become more self-sufficient, more self-reliant, more self-sustaining. We must move from the status quo and provide for future generations of Hawaii.

"Therefore, our primary and priority initiatives need to be aimed at preparing ourselves as we assess the demands of the 21st century. We need to look at state government and the budget; our energy goals, our economy, our kupuna and our keiki.

"First, the question of the state budget. Unlike some of the fiscal uncertainties and the core fundamental economic issues facing the federal government, our state stands on a solid financial footing and has a stable financial outlook.

"Two years ago, our administration had just taken office amidst an extremely difficult fiscal and economic outlook. As a state, we faced a daunting $1.3 billion potential budget shortfall for the Fiscal Biennium years 2011 through 2013. But, as a result of our collaborative efforts here in the Legislature and elsewhere, the shared sacrifice and judicious administrative action we were able to take, the year-end balance for the Fiscal Year 2011 was $126 million, and for Fiscal Year 2012, $275 million. For this year, which ends in approximately 5 months, we are again looking at a healthy positive balance.

"I want to thank the Legislature for your collaboration in this process. I want to thank the public, I want to thank the taxpayers and our businesses for weathering these difficult times. Thank you to those state employees, who agreed to labor savings and additional payments for health benefits. There was no way we could have balanced our budget and achieved today's fiscally favorable outlook without the commitment of all those public workers, and I want to acknowledge it.

"Because of that sacrifice, we were able to support our workforce and avoid massive public worker layoffs. We have maintained our pension benefits for our retirees. The question is, will we be able to secure these benefits for todays and future workers.

"For the record: This is not Wisconsin. This is not Michigan. This Administration is not going to abandon collective bargaining, but neither will it bankrupt the future for all by buying some temporary solution that does not address the fundamental fiscal issues we cannot escape.

"Because we did what needed to be done, because we were able to restore critical public services such as agriculture and elevator inspections, vector control, restaurant inspectors. These are the kinds of issues we were able to address.

"We achieved unprecedented success in earning a high bond rating and being able to finance state construction at impressively low interest rates. That means our tax dollars stretch farther in improving the state's infrastructure and in creating the jobs that come with capital improvements.

"It is for these reasons that we have now turned a fiscal corner. As of July 1, 2013, the 5 percent pay reductions will end for state workers, and full pay will be restored. Good faith collective bargaining negotiations are essential if we are to move forward toward a resolution that is fair to everyone. Fair to our employees who create public value every day, fair to our taxpayers, and fair to future generations.

"Tourism numbers and profits are on a steady rise, construction is vigorous and growing, and unemployment is back down to the low rates we enjoyed before the recession.

"The recent bond sale of more than $800 million, along with historic low interest rates at 2.6 percent, is a positive indicator that the bond raters, the marketplace and its investors, consider Hawaii's fiscal condition to be sound.

"The question is, will we continue to invest in the economy via construction and repair/maintenance projects and public private ventures. Not only is this important to ensure that communities, schools and our residents continue to have much needed infrastructure, buildings and improvements, but we can do so at these historic low interests rates, saving the state millions of dollars in debt service. More importantly, these projects could mean that the state not only will be investing back into our economy, but through partnerships generate needed revenue not otherwise available. I have asked Lt. Governor Shan Tsutsui to take a lead role in working to expedite addressing this opportunity.

"I welcome the new Lieutenant Governor here today as my partner. Lieutenant Governor. Formerly President of the Hawaii State Senate, he is a valued addition to this Administration. He is exactly the sort of young and able public servant/leader that Hawaii needs. He is taking the place of another young and capable leader, Brian Schatz, our new Senior United States Senator. Senator Schatz joins a congressional team with our vigorous senior Representative Colleen Hanabusa in the House of Representatives and Senator Akaka's dedicated and committed successor, Senator Maize Hirono. Joining a team that for the first time in the fifty-three year history of the State of Hawaii, will not have Senator Daniel Inouye at its helm. For many of us, we have never known a time when Senator Inouye was not the center of our political life. But while his physical presence may no longer be with us, the spirit of his example of public service sets an unmatched standard we can only aspire toward. Senator Schatz joins another young leader in the Congress – Tulsi Gabbard, like Senator Inouye, a war veteran – but of this generation. With these bright and energetic young people, Hawaii looks to its future.

"They understand we can only continue to get good bond ratings and sell them at record low rates by continuing to practice sound fiscal management. As such, a primary budgetary priority is to recapitalize the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund and the Rainy Day Fund. When my administration began, we were forced to borrow from both the Hurricane Relief Fund and the Rainy Day Fund. Now that our fiscal house is in order, it's time to pay back those debts, and there are reasons for that. Bond raters look at these reserves, and the levels to which they have been restored. Therefore, to keep our favorable ratings and attract investors, we must recapitalize these funds.

"But, we must also deal with the question of the looming cloud of current liability obligations that have not been paid for and that will wreak havoc upon our state's future fiscal stability. During the last few years of the recession, while staring in the face of obligations to retirees, other states and cities nationwide have blinked and have either slashed retirement benefits that were previously earned, or even declared bankruptcy. That is why I am asking the Legislature to start paying toward our other post-employment benefits. These post-employment benefits are the debt to which I refer.

"To pay down this liability would require the state to put more than $500 million every year for 30 years. $500 million every year for 30 years. This is a number impossible to meet all at once. I am therefore proposing to address this liability by budgeting $100 million starting this next Fiscal Year, with plans to continue to pursue payment in the coming years.

"Next, the question of energy. When we consider long-term financial stability and talk about controlling our own destiny, energy is at the top of the list.

"Two weeks ago today, Tesoro Corporation announced it would be closing its refinery here in Hawaii. That means about 200 people will soon be out of work. Our Department of Labor and Industrial Relations stands ready to assist with job assistance for those who will need it.

"But it also means that Hawaii has only one refinery to process oil to meet our state's energy needs, and we will be importing the rest of our fuel. We face greater exposure to the events occurring elsewhere in the world that affect our fuel pipeline – whether in the Middle East, Asia, on the seas, or at Mainland refineries and ports.

"Therefore, I am establishing a Hawaii Refinery Task Force, which will be a collaboration of government, energy industries, utilities and interested stakeholders from various levels of government and the private sector – to immediately work on short-term and long-term findings and recommendations prompted by Tesoro's closure.

"Reducing our dependence on imported oil will take an equal commitment from all of us. Our new energy future, one that allows Hawaii to utilize and rely upon its fortunate circumstances and geography for renewable energy, is a long but necessary journey. We have already taken several proactive and affirmative steps down the renewable energy road.

"But along the way, we are facing financing hurdles and policy obstacles that require us to look not only at renewable energies, but at current alternative energy sources that are available now. One of those is Liquefied Natural Gas. This is a resource that would allow us to purchase fuel from American sources, and not be reliant upon foreign sources, friendly or otherwise.

"Liquid natural gas will reduce energy costs, and reduce our carbon footprint and is abundant, available, and the technology exists for us to use it now.

"Our state, our residents, our constituents, our businesses and communities need relief. To do nothing puts everyone in the state at risk. Empty rhetoric and magical thinking about renewable energy avoids the question.

"The data is clear; embarking on a plan and a path to bring liquid natural gas will result in long-term avoided costs – whether those costs are mandated improvements to utility facilities or imported low-sulfur fossil fuels at exponentially growing prices. The energy storm is on Hawaii's horizon. Will we take the necessary steps to weather it? I'm asking the Legislature to move forward with us. There is no time to lose.

"Likewise, there is a false controversy over renewable energy tax credits, and the interim administrative rules that were adopted to deal with it. Reasonable limitations and controls upon expenditures, including any tax credits, have been critical to the financial/fiscal management and our stable financial outlook. But more importantly, the lack of clarity and confusion by some who are gaming the system, created an uneven playing field for the renewable energy companies who were not doing it. It placed taxpayers, and even their expert accountants, in uncomfortable situations of not knowing whether they were following the tax law correctly. This resulted in the unsustainable growth of the tax credit.

"Therefore, I have asked my Department of Taxation to work with the Legislature to find the appropriate balance, and the proper amendments to the tax credit so that we can make the law fair for everyone, and maintain a sustainable incentive for the long-term.

"Still, the problem with our reliance on a tax credit incentive is that it principally helps those with the capital means to pay upfront for a system. The cost is typically in the thousands of dollars. We need to find an approach that allows all responsible residents to take advantage of Hawaii's renewable energy options, to save money, and contribute to moving us off of fossil fuels.

"To that end, I am happy to announce the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism will propose a sensible and fiscally sound financing mechanism that will allow residents, businesses and organizations, to take advantage of renewable energy options.

"By utilizing monies deposited in a special fund to provide capitalization, we will provide a periodic payment system that can be assessed through a customer's electric utility bill that will amortize the costs of the system over a sustained period, allowing more of us to take advantage of renewable energy in our homes, our businesses, our churches and our communities. No longer will a photovoltaic system be only available to those who can afford the significant initial investment. Instead, this program will allow users to take advantage now, and pay for it over the long run while deriving the immediate benefits.

"If we are going to move forward on energy security and self-sufficiency, then we must also have the ability and resources to invest in these initiatives. It is for this reason that I will be proposing that we redistribute the funding from the barrel tax, as well as making this law permanent, so that the monies no longer go into the general fund, but to the initially intended purposes of energy diversification and food safety and security.

"As we strive to be more self-sufficient and decrease our dependence on imported foods, we must give local farmers the tools that they need to overcome the challenges that face their industry. To this end, we will aggressively promote state agency purchases of local agricultural projects so that farmers know there is a consistent and regular market for their goods. We will also increase access to capital for farmers and ranchers by expanding the State Department of Agriculture's loan programs. We are supporting the goals of the Hawaii Cattlemen's Council and, I note, efforts by Kamehameha Schools to expand cattle ranching on Oahu's North Shore.

"An integral component to nurturing Hawaii's agriculture industry is the College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources, known as CTAHR. Under the vigorous leadership of its new dean, Dr. Maria Gallo, CTAHR is poised to meet critical research and extension needs if given the support. I'd like Dr. Gallo to stand and be acknowledged. She is a great example of the leadership throughout the University of Hawaii that we can count on.

"If we are going to nurture and expand our local agriculture – if we are going to be talking about how we meet the challenges of the 21st century and ensure that we perpetuate 'our' Hawaii, and its natural beauty and environment – the question is what must we do to keep our watershed areas protected. The Department of Land and Natural Resources Watershed Initiative remains a top priority.

"Our forests can capture and collect up to 50 percent more water than through rainfall alone. When forests disappear, Hawaii shrinks its source of water. In the last 200 years, more than half of Hawaii's forests have been lost. The longer we wait to take significant action, the higher the cost will be to reverse the damage, thereby threatening water supplies for future generations.

"I thank the Legislature for providing funding last session. But what we need is a sustainable and ongoing source of funding. I will be asking the Legislature to look at alternative methods of funding this critical initiative. One is an increase in the conveyance tax, limited to high-end property transactions – properties valued at more than $2 million. It is estimated this would generate an estimated $10 million for watershed protection. Another approach is to look at a 10-cent fee for single-use checkout bags to go into the natural area reserve fund. This is estimated to generate an income of $15 million.

"Just as we need clean water to drink, our coral reefs depend on water free of silt, chemicals and debris to survive. The Department of Health and its Environmental Health Administration will be proposing new measures to control polluted runoff, protect our streams, and keep our reef environment from harm.

"What about innovation? While the hospitality industry is fortunate to have Hawaii to rely upon; and while the United States Military derives clear advantages from our location, and while construction is rebounding, we must look to diversify our economy in order to grow our economic base.

"To this end, I will be proposing a Hawaii Growth Initiative, a state investment program focused on building an innovation ecosystem that supports entrepreneurial high growth businesses and creates high wage jobs for our people. We intend to provide $20 million of state investment capital that will focus on critical building blocks of research commercialization, entrepreneur mentoring and the mobilization of startup capital investment.

"This comprehensive investment program represents a commitment to reinvigorate state efforts to fuel an innovation economy. The Hawaii Growth Initiative will engage with the private sector to startup and grow creative and innovative companies. This initiative will help keep our established industries competitive and create new areas of opportunities to allow our young people to pursue their dreams here in Hawaii.

"We have examples of that entrepreneurial talent with us today. Dr. Jeffrey Yu is CEO of Kineticor. His company is commercializing research done at the Queens Medical Center and the University of Hawaii. Kineticor has developed an innovative system that compensates for patient movement during MRIs. This increases immensely the efficiency of performing MRIs and reduces health care costs considerably.

"Tina Fitch, from Maui, created a company that became a leading provider of software to the travel industry. She's now leading a new software startup, Umicam. Importantly, she is also a mentor to other Hawaii startups to inspire and motivate the next generation of entrepreneurs.

"Skai Ventures, a company established by kamaainas, Ellary Kim and Mark Mugiishi, and has created 5 companies that employ more than 200 people. For example, TruTag Technologies has successfully developed a way to easily authenticate real prescription drugs from counterfeits, and is now looking to expand the manufacturing of its products here in Hawaii.

"I would like to recognize and ask them to stand for recognition, Dr. Jeffrey Yu, Tina Fitch, Ellary Kim, and Mark Mugiishi. Please stand. Thank you for committing yourselves and your companies to Hawaii.

"Now comes something that is very, very close to my heart. I would say even pretty emotional for me. There is a connection here that goes beyond words. There are grassroots and farming entrepreneurs, as well, who want to work the land, improve their communities, and put their neighbors to work. They will be crucial contributors to our economy and our food-sustainability.

"An outstanding example of the synergy of communities and agricultural self-sufficiency can be seen in our Veterans to Farmers program in Waimea. A program that will be extended throughout the state. It is designed to combine classroom and on-farm education by creating operating farms. The program teaches lessees to build and manage greenhouses that produce ready-for-market produce, and they are still working full-time jobs while doing it.

"The Department of Agriculture, the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the Department of Hawaiian Homelands, the University of Hawaii at Hilo, the County of Hawaii, all are working together to bolster this new agricultural venture, keeping Hawaii dollars and workers in this state.

"Here with us today are the local leaders responsible for this vision and for helping their neighbors to put their hands in Waimea's healing soil. Mike and Tricia Hodson are the owners of Wow Farms. Mike, Tricia, and their partner David Ruf have spent endless hours creating this innovative program to help their community, their neighbors and veterans throughout the state, to build a future in farming. I want to commit $3.5 million in this Fiscal Year to build this community agriculture park that is central to the program. This program is already changing lives.

"We are fortunate today to have with us Ramona Noa. Ramona is one of the 14 new farmers, who has expressed a desire to build a legacy for her family with her new farm. I had the great honor of handing her the very first diploma she has ever received, although she has earned one in our hearts for a long, long time. I want to recognize Mike and Tricia Hodson, Dave Ruf, and Romona Noa. Please stand.

"Our veterans not only deserve these opportunities, but they deserve our respect and our support for their sacrifices. Just look around you, one out of every ten people in Hawaii is a veteran. It's vitally important for us to take care.

"In August 2012, we launched the Hawaii Network of Care website, a state of the art way to make it easy for our veterans to find all the services and support they need. We created the Hawaii Military Veterans Women's Task Force to address the fastest growing group of veterans affecting more than 12,000 women veterans right here in Hawaii.

"We have formed a Veterans Treatment Court, partnering with our State Judiciary and Veterans Affairs counterparts to help in critical treatment, counseling, and follow-up, while helping to promote low recidivism rates for repeat offenders.

"In the future, we will partner with the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation to explore an additional veterans' home on Oahu, and develop multi-service Veterans Centers in Kahului, and Maui; Lihue, and Kauai; and Kona on the Big Island.

"These veterans deserve our full support and we need to recognize and appreciate all they've done for our communities, our state and our country.

"Another group, just as important and affecting every one of our families, is our kupuna. As we look to the future, we must never forget where we came from, and to whom we owe our gratitude. Those that came before us, sacrificed to help build our state and create the foundation upon which we stand today.

"To those who have long contributed to our society, we owe much, and we could not ignore their needs.

"I will be asking the Legislature therefore increase the Kupuna Care budget by $4.2 million and make it permanent. Senior advocates should not have to come back year after year to secure funding. By being a part of the permanent base for the Department of Health and the Executive Office on Aging, we can allow programs to properly plan and rely upon a steady stream of funding. This needs be seen as an investment. and I must emphasize this. This needs to be seen as an investment that will pay immediate dividends as the aging population of Hawaii grows both in numbers and lives longer.

"Many of Hawaii's residents are products of plantation-era workers – people who worked and toiled in the fields and barely earned a minimum wage in order to afford a better opportunity for their families.

"Today, there still exists a hard-working sector of our society that deserves continued recognition. These are the working-class residents who earn minimum wage. The minimum wage, currently at $7.25 per hour, it has not increased or been changed for 6 years. Nineteen other states and the District of Columbia have higher minimum wage rates than Hawaii, with less to confront, much less to confront, in terms of the cost of living.

"Therefore, I will be proposing a bill to increase the minimum wage by $1.50, to $8.75 starting in January 2014. Minimum wage earners provide an immediate infusion of dollars into the economy. Everyone is worthy of their labor. Industry and corporations do not lack for support in these halls. Neither should those who work the hardest for the least return.

"The vision of Kakaako is about more than buildings, it is about creating a community – a place where its residents can live, and work and play. It is for this reason that I will be proposing a bill that requires the HCDA to develop guidelines to implement the complete streets concept. This is a comprehensive plan that involves all aspects of transportation, including walking and biking, and how these uses can integrate themselves into street level use for commercial, residential, entertainment and retail places. And I'm sure that Mayor Caldwell is now smiling. Aren't you? He's smiling, yes.

"Kulani. We will re-open the Kulani Correctional Facility by July 1, 2014. We will restore needed jobs on the Big Island and return more than $5 million a year to Hawaii currently spent on Arizona correctional facilities. This will be a substantial addition to the more than 400 inmates already brought back from incarceration on the Mainland.

"This renewed operational capacity at Kulani will not require any new funds. The new Kulani will work with the University of Hawaii at Hilo to provide inmates who are two to four years from finishing their sentences, with the tools to prepare them to re-enter our community as functioning and participatory members of our society.

"Last session, the Legislature granted our request to fund the Office of Information Management and Technology. It has completed and presented to you a comprehensive plan to improve business processes, and to update and consolidate all of our state technology including Healthcare Transformation. This will allow us to bring our three-decades-old information technology infrastructure into the 21st century digital age.

"To that end, we are requesting a significant, but much needed, investment of general funds and general obligation bonds. Any less in our funding commitments will adversely affect our ability to make this long overdue information transformation journey.

"This is more than buying technology and hardware. We will be instituting an Enterprise Resource Planning initiative, the ERP, a collective and collaborative and cooperative inter-agency plan, to integrate and provide a consistency within our state's finances, budget, payroll, human resources, acquisition, assets and grants. The ERP will also provide better accounting of our taxpayer dollars and allow state government to operate transparently and efficiently.

"These IT improvements and our ERP initiative will allow our employees to work smarter and not have to work with outdated and inefficient technology and paper-based processes. Modern technology will also provide the tools we need to attract new talent to the state workforce.

"We will modernize our tax collection process to empower the Department of Taxation to aggressively and effectively improve its collection of delinquent and overdue accounts. Those that fail to pay their share only unfairly burden the rest of us who are paying what is owed.

"It's vitally important to invest in and update our IT systems, infrastructure and internal processes, yes, but especially when it comes to our schools.

"Our public schools are on an average 65 years old, and many facilities have been ignored due to limited budgets. That means students learning in structures that do not reflect our modern information and technology age.

"The 21st Century Schools initiative is a public-private partnership that allows the Department of Education to lease underutilized lands for the purpose of generating income to be used to upgrade existing schools or to construct new schools. A 21st Century School provides learning spaces that are flexible and support innovative learning approaches, such as individual, project-based learning.

"The program is based on successful models elsewhere, and builds long-term value for local school communities, which benefit from better school facilities, multi-purpose community centers, workforce housing, and other needs as determined by a cross-section of the community.

"Success will require a community-based policy and planning research approach. Any use of public lands must be compatible with and provide benefits to the surrounding community. Teachers, administrators, students, parents, community residents and other stakeholders need to play a meaningful role in the planning, design and partnership between the school and the community. Over the next several months we'll be convening community meetings to solicit public input and feedback for this groundbreaking initiative.

"In addition to a new approach to school facilities to meet the needs and opportunities of the 21st century, we are going to transform our teaching and learning in the public schools.

"I'm pleased to report that great progress in the Department of Education and Board of Education's strategic plan has taken place. Last year, our students demonstrated unprecedented gains in student achievement. Hawaii was the only state to show gains across the board in every subject and grade level.

"Supported by the federal government's investment of $75 million in the State's Race to the Top grant, now in its third year, Hawaii has become a leader in moving curriculum and instruction in our schools to meet expectations for student learning. Similar to the goals of 45 other states, we want our students to graduate prepared for success in college and careers, and to be able to compete globally.

"Accordingly, I am advocating for an investment and commitment to support the Department of Education and the Board of Education's Digital Materials Initiative to provide students with the learning opportunities they need for this 21st century.

"Within the next three years, we want to provide each of our public school students with current curricular materials on a digital device, such as a tablet or a laptop. This initiative takes advantage of the new technology we have for learning and the state's broadband infrastructure.

"Having students with curriculum materials on a digital device solves the problem of not having enough textbooks or obsolete textbooks. Common curriculum statewide is no easy task but it has to take place, which is why we are seeking dedicated funds for teacher training to empower teachers with the current instructional innovations. Our students will be engaged in learning, and graduate with knowledge and preparation for using these technological tools in college and in the workplace.

"Now when it comes to how our students learn or how we treat our keiki, we need serious affirmative action in order to nurture and promote their well-being and preparation. This is the area of early childhood, focusing on best preparing our keiki before they enter our public schools at kindergarten.

"An alarming number of our children are entering school without the basics needed to succeed in school including reading, math, and socio-emotional skills.

"Only 57 percent of our students who entered kindergarten this year had attended preschool. We know that early years of a child's development are crucial to set the groundwork for a child's behavior and lifelong learning. From birth to five years old is when more than 85 percent of a person's brain development takes place.

"Our children deserve to have a strong foundation. This is for them and Hawaii's future economic and community development and growth. Investing now in our children's early years of life will pay off dividends down the road in the form of healthy and contributing adults, reduced crime and incarceration, crime costs, and less dependency on social services.

"These programs must be accessible, affordable, and voluntary for all families. The goal is to ensure that Hawaii's four-year-olds are healthy, socially developed, and cognitively prepared to learn and succeed on day one of kindergarten.

"Our keiki need to be immersed in a stimulating learning environment and have positive relationships with their families and teachers so they can thrive. Our teachers and children's caregivers need to be supported to help these children succeed.

"Our approach is ambitious but it's pragmatic. It allows for all children to be equally prepared to learn. School readiness is the key to efficient and effective learning. By investing in our children, we are investing in our future as well as theirs. A school readiness program is the best possible start you can have in life.

"I'd like to recognize Chuck Larson, the Executive Director of the Early Learning Center at Seagull Schools, and the preschoolers and his staff who are joining us today and who give us a living, breathing example of what preschool and early childhood development and education can accomplish. Chuck, kids. Chuck's holding up that painting of a motorcycle that I thought was perhaps done out of the Honolulu Museum of Art but is a product of the imagination and the instruction of the kids at Seagull School and the kind of thing that we can look forward to when every child in this state has the same opportunity.

"Hawaii News Now is presenting the whole story thanks to a special TV program put on by the Good Beginnings Alliance. It's called, the 'Power of Preschool.' Please check your listings in the newspaper to check for the dates and times that the 'Power of Preschool,' will be showing from Thursday thru Sunday. Please check for those times and have a look. You're going to really find a tremendous amount of information and insight.

"You can also read about the 'Power of Preschool' in the complete booklet form, the special report in a special insert featured in Hawaii Business magazine for this January issue that's available at outlets all over the state. Hawaii Business magazine for January, the 'Power of Preschool,' a special report from the Good Beginnings Alliance.

"So, now we return to the Jeopardy challenge. Answers have abounded! Our task obviously is to formulate and frame the right questions and the changes we need to make. The hallmark of this election, my friends, was that some Members had no opposition either in the primary or general election. Some Members were sent here with 60 percent plus of the vote. Some were sent here with 70 percent plus of the vote. This is a strong electoral foundation that enables this Legislature to set a new tone, I believe, in its deliberations.

"Set strident voices aside. You have the faith and trust of an overwhelming majority of your voters. You have the opportunity to authenticate the role of this government by acting in a bold affirmation of the faith and trust that the voters have placed in you.

"For more than half a century, Hawaii legislators have played a leading role on progressive issues from civil rights to labor law to education and healthcare. You are the inheritors of a proud legislative tradition in Hawaii. I have been privileged to be a part of that tradition. I love legislating. I love legislating – it represents the very core of democratic freedom. So I speak to you today, yes as a former colleague, as much as I do as Governor.

"Our people want us to act now. They have charged us with the responsibility and obligation to move forward now. If it was easy to solve these questions, we wouldn't be dealing with them, we wouldn't be asking them. But we wanted to meet these challenges. We asked the voters to allow us to do so. That's why we're here. That's why I said, at its heart, politics is about doing good and relieving suffering. That's why I said if politics is done right, it's about making life better for people.

"Let us resolve then not to get lost in the noise of the moment. Rather let us seize the moment to act with confidence in ourselves, confidence in the people of Hawaii, and confidence in a future we determine. The clock is ticking; the time is now. Thank you very much."

President Kim then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Governor Abercrombie. On behalf of the Senate and the House of Representatives, I would like to thank you for sharing your mana'o with us and with the people of Hawaii this morning. The new leadership in both houses pledge to work collaboratively with you and your cabinet as we formulate and frame the right questions to address the challenges facing our state. Yes, the answers are abound, so let's move together to agree on the right answers.

"So with no further business, I declare this joint session adjourned."

At 11:00 o'clock a.m., President Kim declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature adjourned.

INTRODUCTIONS

The following introductions were made to the Members of the House:

Representative Mizuno introduced his former Committee Clerk, Mr. Edgar Fernandez, and his friends Mr. and Mrs. Elpidio and Marilyn Laluan from San Jose, California.

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that he be allowed to submit remarks recognizing his student shadow from Friday, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads submitted the following remarks:

"I wanted to recognize in the Journal that an Egyptian student, Sylvana Henen, shadowed me last Friday, January 25, a recess day for the Legislature. She is here in the United States for the school year in the YES Program and the American Council Organization is sponsoring her.

"Sylvana is 16 years old and is from the city of Mansoura which is located about 125 kilometers north of Cairo. She seemed to enjoy her day here at the Capitol and my staff and I gave her a crash course in committee procedure. Anyone who can spend an academic year that far from home at that young an age is bound to be a leader someday. I wish her the best of luck on her return to Egypt and hope that the knowledge she gained during her stay here in Hawaii will be valuable in addressing the challenges post-Mubarak Egypt faces."

At 12:09 o'clock p.m., Representative Awana requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:17 o'clock p.m.

Representative Saiki moved that S.C.R. No. 25 be adopted, seconded by Representative Johanson.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak in strong support of this measure.

"Thank you. In 2005, this Legislature passed Act 21, establishing the Hawaii Medal of Honor. I recall thinking how we as a state and the Hawaii State Legislature needed to support the families of our fallen heroes. This Hawaii Medal of Honor was our way of expressing our deepest appreciation to these brave service men and women. We offer this honor as a small token that can never in itself repay the honor that has been given to us. An honor borne of courage, driven by duty, and paid for in loss. The Hawaii Medal of Honor is reserved for those who have touched our islands, and have felt the touch of our people.

"These medals symbolize our aloha, our farewell to those we have lost. But also our love for those who have lived among us, touched us, and sacrificed for us.

"A grateful state best honors and remembers the sacrifices of those who have served our nation by living our lives in deepest appreciation of our freedom. This is what they defended and that is what they fought and died for.

"It has been over ten years, Mr. Speaker, since the War on Terrorism began, and between March 29, 2003 and last year, Hawaii, our state, has lost 327 service members. Just last year we lost 19 service members.

"I wanted to spend some time talking about some of them who we will be recognizing shortly and here are some of their stories:

"Second Lieutenant Clovis Ray from San Antonio, Texas, was 35 and stationed at Schofield Barracks. Leaving a lucrative career as an investment banker, he joined the Army at age 32 simply because he wanted to serve his country. Leading his men in the very dangerous region of Kunar Province of Afghanistan, his unit was attacked by insurgents. He died on March 15, 2012.

"At age 37, Chief Warrant Officer Brian Hornsby was a highly decorated Army pilot who served medevac missions in Honduras, air assault missions in Iraq, and special operations support missions in Afghanistan. He was the pilot of the Black Hawk helicopter that crashed in Kandahar after being attacked. He died on August 16, 2012.

"Many of us are aware of the helicopter crash that happened last January in Afghanistan's southern province of Helmand. Six Marines killed in that crash were based in Hawaii at Kaneohe. One of the Marines was Master Sergeant Travis Riddick from Centerville, Iowa. He was 40 years old and served three tours of duty in Iraq and two in Afghanistan. This was supposed to be his last tour because he had just a year left on his enlistment. It is still, to this day, considered one of the deadliest crashes in Afghanistan.

"One issue that we still have unresolved is whether or not to honor those whose deaths are a result of self-inflicted action or suicide. Since the inception of this medal, eighteen service members died while in country because of self-inflicted wounds or unspecified reasons. Over the past year, there have been at least two deaths some would feel were unnecessary. And all were in support of the war.

"By this concurrent resolution, Mr. Speaker, this year's Hawaii Medal of Honor will be awarded to family representatives of these fine men and women at a ceremony held during a joint session of the Legislature on Wednesday, March 27, 2013, at 2:00 p.m. in the Senate Chambers.

"Families will be invited from far-off towns like San Juan, Puerto Rico; North Beach, Maryland; and Melbourne, Florida, to as close as San Diego, California and right here as well in Honolulu, Hawaii.

"Words are not enough to express the loss of these young men and women who have died serving our country. And for this reason, we honor the family, friends and colleagues of the fallen who have sacrificed, who have themselves paid a price, and who helped make this year's honorees the brave, strong individuals that we called on and counted on to serve this great nation.

"I urge passage of this resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, as a Vietnam veteran I would be honored to have the words of my colleague, veteran and major entered as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. I would just like to acknowledge the work of the speaker from Aiea. He has been a giant in this regard in the last 10 years. I've had the opportunity to observe him from the outside in a different capacity. He has been a clear clarion voice in support of our veterans and those who've given the ultimate sacrifice. To you I certainly say thank you, and I would like the Representative from Aiea's words entered in the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I would like to rise, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Having returned a few years ago, there are two soldiers in particular that I would like to talk about, that I had personal experiences with.

"One was Sergeant Malie Toa Steffany, who had received multiple shrapnel wounds throughout his body after being hit by an IED. Now this soldier attended to the wounds of others before he attended to his own, while bleeding out through the entire process. And because the Army was new with the issues that were going on with the military, what he was going through was not addressed. And he had an incident upon returning home, suffering from PTSD, got divorced from his wife, lost custody of his child, went through the Uniform Code of Military Justice for assaulting one of his superior non-commissioned officers and had a lot that was taken away from him.

"It was a great opportunity to see that the Army was starting to address a number of the issues that were going on to have these things restored to him. And through all that, through losing his child, through losing members of his family, he was still able to continue on believing in the values that we believe in, in the United States Military.

"Second to that is Sergeant Tagaloa, who was suffering from advanced cancer, was out there with the rest of his unit in the Middle East, and worked until he literally dropped to the ground from exhaustion, because he didn't want to quit on his team.

"These are just two experiences that I've had personally with our men and women in uniform, and the service that they give to our country. It's a great honor to rise in strong support for this resolution, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.C.R. No. 25 was adopted, with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to register a no vote for Standing Committee Report Number 15. I read the handout from DLNR. I wasn't here the last two years obviously, but I think it's certainly a well intended measure and we all want to protect the environment. But I think the amount that is extensively protected is very small, and it is being done with fences, which in the salt air in our climate will rust and will have to be replaced in a few years, and I think that the pigs and the goats will find a way around it.

"So I think there are more cost effective ways to do it, whether it's hunting, snares or other means, putting a bounty on the feral animals to get them instead of starting a new program with new employees, etc. So, a no vote, please."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to cast a no vote on that. That is a tax increase. In the last two years, previous biennium, there were 29 new taxes and fees increased. These all trickle down to the middle class and the working folks, and we all pay in one way or another. This seems to have a nexus with the previous bill where it funds it. Again, I think our priorities are skewed. I think if we're going to focus on the limited resources that we have, we should focus on education and fixing our schools instead of pursuing things that have a marginal impact, which explains my previous no vote. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, my intent is not to disrobe, but to make a point. For the Freshmen, there's a tradition in the House that on Wednesdays, those of you who have bow ties, wear bow ties. Those who have hemp shirts, wear hemp shirts once a year. Those of you who have barongs and are members of the Filipino Caucus or sympathetic therein, you wear a barong.

"But those of us who volunteered for APEC, the great world conference that was centered in Honolulu a year ago, I've encouraged and I just wanted to repeat for the Freshmen who don't know, that on Fridays we wear our APEC volunteer shirt. It shows that we are the center of a lot of international influence, having served as the APEC host. So I would encourage you to not disrobe, but to put on for all of those of you who have the APEC shirt, to wear it on Fridays. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for that decorum announcement."

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to rise against this measure. First, let me acknowledge what a wonderful job the Judiciary Chair is doing so far, running orderly workmanlike hearings, and I really enjoy being a member of his Committee.

"On this measure, Mr. Speaker, I understand, I get it that the firearm looks real to the victim, potential victim or terroristic threatening victim, whether it's a robbery or a terrorism act. I get it, I understand that, but at the same time, it's not a real gun. And to the extent that criminals are aware of our laws, the smart ones would take a fake gun so they get a lesser sentence. This provides an incentive not to use a fake gun. Might as well use a real gun, because if you use a fake gun you're going to get the same penalty.

"So to the extent that they actually pay attention, which I'm not sure that they do, this would be an incentive to ensure that every criminal who is going to engage in a crime with a weapon, instead of using a simulated weapon, would actually use a real weapon. So those are my concerns. But I understand the intent, it's well intended and the heart is in the right place, but I have those concerns."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Awana: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to share with the Members the passing of former House Representative Helene Hale. For many who may have had the privilege to have known her, you will know that she was a woman with great conviction for all people, especially the people of Hawaii. In so much as a Legislative Woman's Caucus package was dedicated to her in the past.

"Mr. Speaker, I am also requesting to include an article that was in the Star Advertiser this morning entitled, A trailblazer 'full of energy'. And when the time is appropriate, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to also request a moment of silence to reflect upon this woman who embodied all that we should all hope to attain in our quest to become a model public servant. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana submitted the following Honolulu Star-Advertiser article:

A trailblazer 'full of energy'
The Big Island politician's career spanned half a century
By Sarah Zoellick
Monday, February 4, 2013

A specific memory came to mind when Brian DeLima learned that Helene Hale, Hawaii's first female mayor and a Merrie Monarch Festival founder, had died. It was one he said encompasses her widely known spunk and fearlessness.

In the early 1990s, DeLima, then 35, was the youngest Hawaii County councilman, and Hale, then 72, the oldest.

"We had to go to an event at the Hilton Waikoloa," said DeLima, now a lawyer in private practice. "Back then it was known as the Hyatt — they had just built it, (and) it had a big water slide."

While the Council members were swimming together in the hotel pool, DeLima said he got the idea to challenge Hale to a ride down the slide. "She said, 'Oh, let's go,' and up she went," DeLima said. "She was just willing to, you know, go and try it. She surprised me. She was full of energy."

Hale died Friday of natural causes in her South Hilo Home. She was 94.

Colleagues on Sunday remembered Hale as a unique spirit, a woman with tremendous courage, a trailblazer who wasn't afraid to be contentious.

"She was not afraid of any person at all in a world of politics dominated by males," former Hawaii County Mayor Harry Kim said. "If she thought it was wrong, she would go after it. If she thought it was right, she would go after it. And that's Helene Hale."

Kim said Hale's unwavering dedication to her community inspired his political work and that he's a better person for having known and worked with her.

"You look at her lifestyle: she never capitalized on being a mayor or a councilperson or a representative — none of that," Kim said. "She never changed as a person. She just worked because she wanted to work, and she wanted to serve this community."

Hale, who was part black, moved to Kona with her first husband, William Hale, and their daughter, Indira, in 1947 because she wanted to raise a family where the color of her skin wasn't important, said her niece, Barbara Hilyer. She taught at Konawaena Intermediate School for a few years and had a son, Jasper.

Hale was preceded in death by both her children and her second husband, Richard Kiyota.

In 1963, Hale was featured on the cover of Ebony magazine for being Hawaii's top female politician. She was elected to the Hawaii Island Board of Supervisors in 1954, before statehood, and served for 10 years. Her last two years on the board were spent as chairwoman, which at the time was equivalent to county mayor.

Hale's stint as chairwoman not only made her the first black person elected to office in Hawaii; it made her the first woman to hold an executive position in local government since Queen Liliuokalani.

"She came from a family of breakthrough people," said longtime Hawaii journalist Hugh Clark. "Her grandpa was the first black graduate from (the University of) Minnesota, her father was an attorney who also graduated from Minnesota, so naturally she was a graduate from Minnesota."

But Hilyer said race was never an issue for Hale.

"That's why she moved to Hawaii; she didn't want it to be an issue," Hilyer said. "And she didn't want gender to be an issue. She could play the big leagues just because of who she was, and that's what she wanted to do."

Colleagues agreed.

"Here she is in the '60s: a woman, political leader, all of that," Kim said. "And none of those things phased her, absolutely none."

Clark said, "A lot of people want to emphasize her feminism, her gender rights, and she did have that in her, but I don't think that was her primary focus. I think it was more kind of break down the old oligarchy and create a new government."

HALE RE-ENTERED politics in 1980 and served on the County Council for a total of 10 years between 1980 and 1994.

Russell Kokubun, director of the state Department of Agriculture, who once worked alongside Hale on the Council, said her personal situation motivated her to fight hard for diversity, justice and equality in her community.

"She was always an advocate for the people, particularly those who were in an underdog role," Kokubun said. "She was always wanting to balance that table for everyone so everyone had a fair shot at whatever opportunities there were."

Kokubun paused for a moment on the phone, explaining that he had been trying to think of one word to "really home in on her character."

Then he said, "I really like 'feisty.' Yeah, she was very feisty. … (She had) this courage to just speak up and speak out. I think that's kind of it to me, and that's what I mean by feisty: very thoughtful but at the same time very courageous."

Kokubun said he wasn't surprised when Hale decided to emerge from retirement in 2000 and run for the state House of Representatives at age 82, because she still had so much to offer.

Former Mayor Kim said Hale's last six years in politics should teach people that age doesn't need to limit a person's accomplishments.

"She projected, I mean, real energy at any age — you just don't associate old age with her," he said. "I think we should all learn, if anything, from her (that) age is only an excuse for people; she never used it."

Former county councilman and state Rep. Bob Herkes said Hale was just as powerful a politician in her 80s as she was in any other decade.

"There's no question that she was a fighter, and that's one of the things I think that made her so successful," Herkes said. "She never gave up, and she always fought for what she thought was right, and that carried her on for many, many years."

Hale had a reputation for being a pit bull in the political ring, Kim said, but he never thought of her that way because "even pit bulls take a break." He said that despite her no-nonsense attitude, she disagreed with people in a way that commanded respect.

Hale's niece agreed: "I think people respected her because they knew even if you didn't agree with her, she did her homework and you could talk to her."

Former councilman Jimmy Arakaki, familiar with the receiving end of Hale's fearlessness, echoed that sentiment.

"We had our differences but we made up our differences," Arakaki said, recalling that the two bonded in her state representative's office over a box of manapua that he brought her, and he eventually came to consider her a close friend. "Those times that we didn't agree just faded away, and I offered my help and she accepted my help."

Arakaki said the two then worked together to make a reality Hale's last big political influence: an $8.6 million project to build a new gymnasium for Pahoa High and Intermediate School, which is now named after her.

"All the way back to her early advocacy for the Merrie Monarch Festival up until the Pahoa gymnasium, she was always just an anchor for the Big Island," Kokubun said.

Hawaii County Mayor Billy Kenoi said he has a picture of himself with Hale at the gym dedication last March that he is proud of and will now cherish.

"It was an honor to know a true public servant, a leader who is a pioneer in so many ways … who cared really deeply about our Hawaii … our people," Kenoi said. "She was everything we want in a public servant: a servant, leader, tough, courageous, smart, hardworking but most of all kind, compassionate and caring."

Hale is survived by Hilyer; granddaughter Angelique Kaiulani Tucker Stephens of Hollywood, Calif.; son-in-law Judge Marcus Tucker of Long Beach, Calif.; nephew retired Judge Bruce Hilyer of Seattle; grandnieces; and a grandnephew.

A tribute to her life will be held later in Hilo.

Representative Evans: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too, for the Big Island delegation, I want to say we are really sorry with the passing of Representative Helene Hale, whom I think all of us knew pretty well. I served with her here in the State House, and I just wanted to share one thing that she told me. She said, 'Representative Evans, any bill that comes in front of me that's over 60 pages, I automatically vote no.' Thank you."

Representative Hanohano: "I too would like to express my sentiments of the death of Helene Hale. When she left office, I decided to run for this office, so I'm currently in her position. So hopefully her mana transfers to me. Thank you."

Representative Cachola: "Mr. Speaker, your Special Committee to Address Unfunded Liability will be having a public informational briefing to address bills that have unfunded liability implications just for health benefits, in Room 329 at 2:15 this afternoon. Thank you."

Representative Fale: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to make the announcement that once again the great State of Hawaii was well represented yesterday at the Super Bowl between the San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens. And at this time, 6 out of the last 8 Super Bowls we had a Red Raider who was on the field. This past Super Bowl added one more ring to the Kemoeatu family. Now they have 3 Super Bowl championship rings in one family and they're all Red Raiders. It's been a momentous event for the State of Hawaii and for Red Raider nation, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, for those who lost money on yesterday's Super Bowl game, the Anti-Gambling Coalition luncheon is in Room 225 today."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late former Representative Helene Hale.

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. 48, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, as a former graduate teaching assistant at the University of Hawaii, it's very important that, that position be maintained. And I cannot recall that my colleagues were dissatisfied with the pay. Maybe the work was a bit heavy, but in terms of getting organized I'm afraid that there may be a rippling effect.

"As you know, our office managers, at one point, were put in a bill similar to this, and then from office manager staff, suddenly collective bargaining became basically the tail wagging the dog in the Legislature.

"So, with this, Mr. Speaker, I do have reservations and I don't believe it would increase the academic wellbeing, nor the economic standing of those graduate students. They have a vow of poverty to begin with, and being organized is not going to change that. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in opposition with brief comments. I am actually not categorically averse to an increase in the minimum wage. And I think that's definitely something the Body should continue to consider to alleviate what is already our high cost of living on all of our constituents.

"What I do oppose in this measure, and I think is the most problematic section of this measure, is that it would cede legislative prerogative in the future to control or regulate minimum wage, because it ties automatically to increases based on the consumer price index, which would be determined annually by DLIR instead of this Body.

"So, because it reduces our prerogative legislatively, as well as exposes us, I believe, to an inability to control costs and plan for the increases that may end up resulting, I do have significant concerns with this measure. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Johanson be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as the leader of the Filipino Caucus, I want to be on record to say that I support all measures to increase the minimum wage. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I do have reservations. We do need to increase, but we don't need a lock, if you will, on increasing it without any of our control. And if it gets out of hand, we're going to be responsible. I think we really have to look at locking that to the CPI. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the comments of the Minority Leader inserted as my own, but he's so articulate, no one would believe I ever said that. So, I have to make a few remarks. I've already asked Chamber of Commerce to come back with what are the entry-level positions paying out in the community right now for Burger King, Jack In The Box, McDonald's, and so on and so forth. These are folks in the private sector who generally set the minimum wage.

"We had this discussion 20 years ago and I found at that time that the minimum wage was below what they were offering to attract people. My sense is it's probably the same, it is an entry level wage, a training wage, so we need to address that. Also, the government does pay minimum wage for certain jobs and it's probably due for an adjustment.

"So, I support an increase in it, but it's just at what level. And the Representative from Hawaii Kai raised some concerns about the automatic CPI indexing, so at this time I'll vote no. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the words of Representative Johanson inserted as my own, as well as to make these additional comments.

"I believe that this small increase in the minimum wage is putting a band-aid on a bigger problem and that we are not addressing the underlining, overarching issues that are challenging our economy. I don't want to throw out a few drops of water to my community that's dying of thirst out there, to just band-aid the issue to carry it over. My concern with this bill is that it's a band-aid on a wound that needs much more to be done to heal it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, reservations please. I am concerned about the tie-in to the CPI."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I just don't like the tie-in to the CPI, that's all. I support the underlying measure, though."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. I'd just like to note that it's a great way to tie it to the CPI, because it's basically taking advantage of the free market and putting our faith therein. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, in rebuttal, and just for the Member's edification. Tying it to the consumer price index would be a market-based approach if the minimum wage were allowed to go down if consumer prices fell. But it does not do this. This bill only allows for automatic increases based in increases in the CPI, in case anyone was concerned."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. From my recollection, the CPI has only gone down twice in the last 15 years and once was by one-tenth of 1 percent and that was in '08 I believe, and then in '98 it was about the same. A healthy economy almost always inflates a little bit. And if for some reason the CPI adjustor gets out of control, it's not like this Body can't come back and say, 'Okay, we're going to reduce the minimum wage.'

"But as long as there is inflation, the minimum wage goes down by that percentage every year, which it has done since it went up the last time, which I believe was in '07. So, the minimum wage is worth significantly less than it was 6 or 7 years ago. Thanks."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a brief rebuttal to how the market, which regulates why the wage now at Burger King and other places is above the minimum wage, is because of supply and demand. What we have and what we can get for what price. The market is much more trustworthy than CPI. The CPI is basically a formulary of the government and it's a mechanical thing which can get many governments in trouble.

"I think the market entrusting that mechanism of supply and demand. And by the way, there's only 1.7 percent of our labor force of 600,000 people, 1.7 percent are in the minimum wage. So we're not talking about a huge amount of people. We're talking about a small amount, which many of us started out with minimum wage. But that was the training wage. That was to incentivize us to get up into the medium and then the top. And as Legislators, big salaries, accompanied by a vow of poverty that we have working here.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, it's not the amount, it's where these wages accelerate people to become later in their life. And it's 1.7 percent of the people, and we need to watch over them but we don't need to lock in for the CPI. Thank you."

No. 916, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MINIMUM HOURLY WAGE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Johanson and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Har, Oshiro and Takumi being excused.

HAWAIIAN WORD FOR THE DAY

Representative Hanohano presented Ka Hua ʻŌlelo O Ka Lā, the Hawaiian Word for the Day, as follows:

"Mahalo hoʻomalu ʻōlelo,
Ka hua ʻōlelo o ka lā – ʻĀina.
ʻĀina – Land.
ʻAi is food, nā is the pluralization of words in the Hawaiian language, so when you translate 'many foods,' it translates to 'land,' because it's the land that sustains us with our food.
Mahalo."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak in strong support of House Bill 154, Relating to Industrial Hemp. I wanted to just draw Members attention to the House Bill before you.

"It states in there that hemp is a superior phytoremediator because it grows quickly and can extract toxins without the need to remove any of the contaminated topsoil. Factors that make hemp a superior phytoremediator are its ability to grow unaffected by the toxins it accumulates, its fast rate of absorption, and its ability to bind compound contaminants from the air and the soil.

"The State's extensive operations in the past, as many of us know, have left toxins in vast tracts of land. Phytoremediation can remove those toxins. This bill calls for a two-year industrial hemp remediation pilot program. And let me just say this, for those who voted with reservations on this measure, it's required that the project occur with the United States Drug Enforcement Administration issuing a permit for this project. In other words, the DEA has to say, 'okay State, you can go ahead and use industrial hemp to clean contaminants from the soil.'

"We've had an industrial hemp research project before and the Speaker knows about that from 1999. That project ran for about three and a half years out in Wahiawa and with the support of the Dole Company, where they gave the land to the project for $1 a year. That project was very successful, it had a DEA permit. So, the DEA permit can be obtained, it's been done before in Hawaii and can be done again.

"I wanted to just note for people that think that hemp is a radical issue and are kind of afraid of that because it is related to cannabis or to marijuana. Hemp is very different from marijuana. Hemp grows to the height of 15 to 18 feet high, and in Hawaii we get three crops a year. You go out and take the leaves or buds or whatever you take from that plant and smoke them, you are going to get diarrhea and a headache, and you won't do it again.

"Hemp has a very low THC content, and in fact the marijuana growers don't like to see hemp come to town because the plant cross-pollinates with marijuana and lowers the THC content in the marijuana crops. And we learned that from Canada, where they have full scale industrial hemp planting now up there, where the farmers are making money, doing a great job exporting the crop to America because we can't grow it. But the pot growers had to move indoors with sophisticated air systems because of the cross-pollination.

"Now going back to the liberal approach that industrial hemp is a dream of liberal Members of this Body. First of all, I note I'm a Republican. But I want to note this press release from US Senate Republican Leader, Mitch McConnell, who made the following statement regarding industrial hemp and its impact on Kentucky. This was stated January 31st this year. 'After long discussions with Senator Rand Paul and Commissioner James Comer on the economic benefits of industrialized hemp, I am convinced that allowing its production will be a positive development for Kentucky's farm families and economy.'

"He goes on to talk about how industrial hemp can produce everything from clothing to paper, and if there is a capacity to center a new domestic industry in Kentucky that will create jobs in these difficult economic times, that sounds like a good thing to me.

"Thirty-one states are moving ahead with industrial hemp legislation. Let me just tell you why. It is economic development."

Representative Johanson rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Here's a bag of tortilla chips that you can find on your local grocery store shelves. What's the first ingredient in here? Hemp, because it is so nutritious. I'll pass those around. I would have bought a package for everyone just so you could try it, but the problem is they are a little over $3 a bag.

"Here's your paper. You all know about hemp paper. The Declaration of Independence was written on hemp paper and that's why it still exists.

"You have fabrics of course, hemp hats. They've done studies at the University of California and they've determined that hemp fabric will keep you protected from the sun so you will be less likely to get skin cancer. It's the best fabric for doing that. So, when Members go door-to-door, wear a long sleeve hemp shirt and you won't get those problems.

"Hemp wine, I hope no one has a wine opener in the Body, that's being made as well. And our own little snack shop here in the Capitol, for those Members that are afraid of this product, this is an iced tea, but it is hemp iced tea. Right here, in this building, don't be scared.

"The other thing is, anyone that's ever gone camping, you use Dr. Bronner's soap, of course you do because it lathers in cold water. It's hemp soap. And then of course my favorite, the shopping bags. When you are going to be billed ten cents a bag, carry your hemp bag to the store. It washes, it's reusable, and this fabric will last four to five times as long as cotton. No fossil fuel in this, like in your plastic bags. And it's really good.

"The other reason that I feel this is so important for Hawaii, in addition to the phytoremediation, hemp is a superior building material. They are building with it all over Europe, in the United Kingdom, and they are doing it in some states in the United States. North Carolina, California. You can pull a little bit of this material off and try to smoke it, good luck. You won't get 'high' if you ingest too much, you'll get diarrhea and a headache.

"This is termite-proof and they have done the studies and know it has lime content in it, which we produce locally. Termite-proof. And this is something that we can do, we can grow our crops here, we can process them into building materials, we can keep the money and the jobs here in our economy. This is a plant that is perfect for Hawaii with our three crops a year, versus places like Canada where they're making a lot of money but only from one crop a year, versus Kentucky which is going to breakthrough with Republican leadership, and they're going to start making a lot of money.

"We've got to stop being afraid of a plant, people. And the people that voted with reservations on this measure, learn what is out there, learn what we can do for Hawaii. Why are we importing building materials? This is fire retardant. You're going to have a material that we could produce on each island from crops in the ground, and it will be excellent for our economy.

"The phytoremediation project is just one thing that the hemp plant can do. They're using it in Chernobyl to clean-up the waste from the atomic accident there. It's something that can clean-up our agricultural land, but more than that, we need to join the other thirty-one states that are saying, enough to this hysteria about a crop that won't get anyone 'high' and that is so good for everyone's economy in the United States.

"So, I would encourage all Members; if they are afraid of this, come see me. I have automobile parts in my office, they were a little big to bring down here, but it's replacing fossil fuel based plastic in cars. And the cars are safer, they don't catch on fire, the material is stronger, it's lighter weight, so the car requires less gasoline.

Vice Speaker Mizuno addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, would you like to yield your time?"

Representative Ward rose to yield his time, stating:

"Chair, I would yield my time, but not some of the reservations I have from the federal level, so I would give the esteemed Member from Kailua the time, except the truth in labeling, it doesn't say on the side of it, that it actually has hemp in it. Unless I don't know the French. Thank you."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"The automotive industry recognizes this, and probably for about almost 10 years now, have been replacing some of the fossil fuel parts of their automobiles with hemp-based material. Guess who makes the money on that? Canadian farmers, English farmers, German farmers, you name it, but not our American farmers and certainly no one right here in Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, I know I have taken up everyone's time. I would just like to encourage those 'with reservation' voters to come see me. I have more things in the office. Buy hemp shoelaces, they won't break; they'll last four to five times longer than any other shoelaces. People know this. Come see me, I would be glad to educate you. We have another measure that's going to be heard today, which is asking Congress and the President…"

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen we're going to focus on the merits of this bill. Focus on the merits of this bill only."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Oh, we shouldn't go on to that. Alright, I won't go on to that, but come to the hearing in CPC at 3:30 and we'll have the automobile part there for you all to see.

"Anyway, I encourage all of you to vote in favor of this measure and let's move ahead and clean-up our contaminated soil in Hawaii with a crop that can do wonders for our economy. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Strong reservations. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I just want to give some background. The Representative from Kailua is correct, we did have the first test plot of hemp in Hawaii in my backyard in Whitmore Village over several years. I stand in strong support and in the interest of bipartisan support of this measure, ask that her words be adopted as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Ka koʻo. Strong support and I know the hemp pilot program was supposed to be on Hawaii Island and then it got moved to Oahu. I am in really strong support because it is a good industry and there are lands that can be used for this industrial crop. Mahalo."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I earlier mentioned with reservations, but I will gladly vote for this bill as soon as the feds pull back on their objection to it."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Reservations, Mr. Speaker. And I am hoping hemp doesn't turn into cacao."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and I would like the words of the speaker from Wahiawa entered into the record as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise against this measure. I'm not on the Committee and I do not see it coming before me at this time. I'm not a lawyer but this appears to be an unconstitutional tax increase. It is to tax housing that's built on military lands, homes for our Marines, soldiers, sailors and airmen that are currently being refurbished. Pearl Harbor in particular, they're maintaining the historic structure of many of these homes which makes the process much more expensive than just going in and razing the facility or the dwelling. But they're actually going in, keeping the outside structure and as much of the time period as possible. These are beautiful homes and this would make this process much more expensive for the taxpayer.

"Again, it goes to a concern I have about us constantly looking for new ways to grab more and more money. I was away for 10 years but nothing has changed. A fee here, a dollar here, twenty dollars there, fifty dollars here, and now this could be a huge windfall for the State in the sense that we're going to get all this new tax revenue. But I don't think the Federal Government will allow it because I believe it's unconstitutional. I'm not a lawyer, so I have a degree of ignorance on that issue, but I have serious concerns how this will impact the military and their ability to build more and a sufficient number of housing for these younger, enlisted sailors, soldiers, airmen and Marines. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote and may the words of the former Marine Captain from Ewa Beach be entered into the Journal as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Let me just share this with the Members. We will never have enough affordable housing in the State. But the reason for this, and let me just share some history on this matter. This building, the Legislature, gave developers on federal lands, about 10 years ago, an exemption to entice them to come and build in Hawaii. This exemption is for the GE Tax for the purchase of building materials. So, if it's an act of the Legislature to give them an exception, it's also an act of this Legislature to repeal it.

"So, Members, this is not something that this Body hasn't done. This Body gave that exemption and I'm sure this Body can repeal it as well. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. I just wanted to address our minority member from Ewa Beach, and assure him that what this bill does, does not violate the US Constitution. In fact, what's interesting about this particular exemption, if people take note of the history, is we did do it about 10 years ago. That's about when military privatized housing started. But it was an executive order done by former Governor Linda Lingle at the urging of US Senator Daniel Inouye that we have before us today an exemption from the GET for these particular projects.

"However, at the time, the basic housing allowance for military service members was much less. There was a need to exempt the GET in order for these developers to build the number of homes that they committed, not only to the Congress and United States but also committed to us in the State. Since then, the basic housing allowance has increased tremendously. And for a few years now, there have been discussions about possibly taking a look at the GET exemption and considering it for other uses. In fact, when current Governor Abercrombie was in Congress I had a lengthy discussion about this particular exemption for GET, and at the time he supported the removal of the GET exemption.

"I stand here with reservations because I do believe, and I do support, the removal of this particular exemption. However, I do believe that the intent of the measure should include possible support to DOE school facilities on our bases, as we all know there are facilities that we own and control as the State on military bases. And it was, I think, the intent of both Senator Inouye and everybody in Congress that when we embarked on this privatized military housing initiative, that some of the profits made by these organizations, like Hunt and Actus, and for city would in turn go to help and support other facilities on military bases.

"And I do believe that that support has not come up to the level that we had hoped in the past. So, if they're not going to do it the way that we had hoped that they would, then let's remove the exemption, but let's put it back into facilities and projects directly benefiting military families that are under the jurisdiction of the State of Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time. Good people can disagree, Mr. Speaker, and we have good people. I hold the Representative from Aiea in extreme respect and certainly my colleague from Ewa Beach as well.

"But based on my figures, I'm going to use low numbers because these are government contracts. Let's say the average dwelling is $150,000. So now you are talking about $7,500 in GET taxes. And if they finance it over thirty years, each additional unit will probably cost $12,000, just to pay for the taxes – the tax and the financing of the tax. That's one issue.

"Second issue is, these budgets at the federal level, I can assure you in my discussions with the contractors, because I have them not quite daily but several times a week. They are feeling the pinch and the squeeze and they're looking to save every dollar. And I think you're going to see less money available to build these dwellings.

"Finally, third, the two big ones, Forest City and Hunt, have been tremendous community partners. They give to a myriad of activities and charities. You will see Steven Colon from Hunt at every charitable function in town. He understands it, he gets it. Forest City, much larger, doesn't have the same mentality as 'playing outside the fence,' but still gives, and gives generously.

"So, those are the final comments I'd like to add."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to register a no vote on this. I would like to keep every incentive intact to keep this industry and what it supports in the State of Hawaii alive and give them every reason to stay here. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At 12:41 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:43 o'clock p.m.

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise again with reservations. The point that the Minority Representative from Ewa Beach made is a good one. Forrest City, Hunt, and Actus have been tremendous supporters of our community. That is not what I'm talking about. And I do encourage them to continue. What I'm talking about is that in the past we discussed a partnership with these private developers to help in our repair and maintenance of our schools and other types of facilities like that, and we continue to need the help.

"If you take a look at school facilities, let's say, Fort Shafter, Mokulele, Solomon Elementary, Hale Kula, these are on-base facilities that we struggle with each and every year to find adequate funding for renovations and construction. All I say is that if these guys are in business to develop communities, that the least they could do is help us in our schools on bases for their children as well. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that has very huge fiscal implications for the mass transit rail project and for the state coffers. This is essentially a ten percent take to administer the GE Tax increase of five percent that came in a number of years ago, which now there's probably a few hundred million dollars that is sitting there. Even though I know this would be proactive, this has major implications for the City and County of Honolulu and it has major implications for the State treasury.

"I just think this needs to be contemplated, discussed, massaged and looked at very, very seriously before we proceed ahead. And that's why I think the recommittal is probably the best thing that we could ever do."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition with brief comments. Mr. Speaker, if the PLDC is a bad bill, this is even worse. Because this is the PLCD morphed or written in a different way, in the same way. If people are against the PLDC I don't see how they can be for this bill, because basically it just crosses out some of their language and inserts harbors and parks development.

"So, what are we trying to do? We're trying to fix PLDC as part of the purpose and the goals and the vision of this session. But, if we sneak in one that says, well, we can do it very narrow, cast as harbors and parks, what have we done. We've kind of pulled a fast one. So, just for the sake of what many people have said they are being against PLDC, this is one of those issues that test it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

ORDER OF THE DAY

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Lee, for the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 166) recommending that H.B. No. 901, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Health.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 901, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Health, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. My opposition is stated because I believe this will increase the maintenance fees for condominium association home owners, everyone who lives in a dwelling of that sort. Additionally, the Chair was kind enough to spend a few moments with me and I'm very grateful for that, but I don't have a sense of clarity yet on whether solid waste ash, the way I read the bill, I don't see specific language unless I'm missing it and I welcome anyone to point that out to me.

"Solid waste ash, ash that is municipal solid waste that's already processed, is then exempt from this fee if we chose to ship it. On the Leeward Coast we're running out of space. When a third boiler gets up, it's 900,000 pounds of ash a year. Foreign countries use this, there's about 8% metal in there. At $400 a ton for scrap iron there is some value there and they don't have the environmental regulations, they can use it for other things.

"But a $900,000 premium to pay to ship it out of the State, and it languishes to a facility in the State. To ship it out would make it prohibitive and we couldn't do it. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 901, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOLID WASTE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Health, with Representative McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Cachola and Har being excused.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 902, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'm in opposition to this measure as I was to the original bottle bill well over a decade ago. This seems to be an opportunity to, as the infamous Damon Wayans said, 'mo money, mo money, mo money.' And this seems like we're trying to grab every penny, every scrap, we don't want one opportunity to go by to get an extra buck from the taxpayer, the consumer. So, I've got a real concern for this. For consistency purposes from a decade or so ago, I'm still against this. I'm just against it. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mahalo hoʻomalu ʻōlelo. Like me ʻoia la, kākoʻo ʻole. Mahalo.

"In translation I said, 'Mr. Speaker, like my colleague I am voting no on that subject matter.'"

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, for very similar reasons that were given, it's very difficult for me to reach into the pockets of working mothers and fathers in my community and to take out even one more penny. So, for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I will have to vote no on this measure."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thank you. The purpose of the measure is to include energy and dietary supplement beverage containers in the deposit beverage container program.

"I have to say, I've always looked at labels. For me personally as a consumer, I do that. And when I look at these types of containers and I look at how they're promoted for people's health, and yet when I read them it's unbelievable how much sugar and how much sodium is in these supposedly dietary and energy drinks.

"Because we work so hard promoting them and getting people to take them, I believe it's just people trying to sell us on things the way they label and market it, and it's really just getting us to drink more and more beverages. I just think it's very appropriate to treat these like the other ones.

"Again, for someone that really has to watch sugar and sodium for health reasons, I really think I can see the nexus and the reason for doing this. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 902, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT BEVERAGE CONTAINER PROGRAM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Fale, Fukumoto, Hanohano, Johanson and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Cachola and Har being excused.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 754, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Health, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I can have a no vote on this measure, please. I'm really concerned with the expansion of the definition. The type of nuisance to be investigated is to include foul or noxious orders, gases or vapors.

"The concern that I have here is that for Pacific Islanders, especially when it comes to the imu, I have had personal experiences, so have others within our community, where the cops have been called on us because of the way we cook. I'm very concerned that this measure is going to further affect negatively cultural cooking practices of Pacific Islanders. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and for the reasons that if we are getting into the cultural arena, this is really going to be a bad one. If there's an exclusion, I would say, ok, noxious orders, pesticides, whatever. But if it goes to your neighbors and we get into the cultural milieu, I think we're really barking up the wrong tree. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 754, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Health, with Representatives Fale and Hanohano voting no, and with Representatives Cachola and Har being excused.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 932, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Water & Land, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise against this one. Mr. Speaker, if the State is going to try and extract revenue from geothermal, which the best source of geothermal we have is Madam Pele and the energy and steam produced from that, it would seem to me that the natural nexus there would be for the Hawaiian people, OHA or some other loosely identified Hawaiian hui or consortium of organizations.

"Again this looks like we're just looking under every rock to try and raise a couple bucks. Again, for two reasons. One is the revenue aspect, but also the nexus, it just jumps out at me that this would be something that would benefit the Native Hawaiian people and not the DLNR. So for that reason, I'm going to vote no."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. I just would like to comment that a few minutes ago it was said that we seemed to be raising every rock to find a couple dollars, and this measure will give exemption, meaning we're giving away tax dollars that are supposed to be going to the State coffers.

"So, I believe this measure is going to the opposite direction. We need every dollar that's supposed to come to the State, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, just for clarification, this actually narrows the exemption to Section 41 and not expands it. I just wanted to mention that. Thank you."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB 358, Relating to Videoconferencing.

"This bill requires both Chambers of the Legislature to create systems to facilitate neighbor island residents' participation in the legislative process through the use of audiovisual technology, such as videoconferencing.

"I introduced this bill to help make it easier for neighbor island residents to actively take part in the legislative process. Currently, input from outer island residents is largely absent from the legislative process. If outer island residents wish to participate, they must fly to Oahu, usually on short notice and at their own expense. For many people, this isn't possible, and the result is that they get shut out of the process. This is particularly unfortunate when legislation is specifically targeted toward a location or issue specific to a neighbor island. Advances in communication technology makes it possible to provide better access, and we should be doing all we can to put systems in place to make government as accessible as possible to all residents of the State.

"I urge the Members support."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, usually speaking on Second Reading is kind of to shoot a shot across the bow, bring attention to a bad bill. But this one is so good, I'm compelled to stand up and say this is kind of, and many of you heard me speaking over the years that we should have the equivalent of C-SPAN, so for every hearing we get a recording. For every Floor session we have a recording.

"This one actually does that by saying that all of our hearings are going to be recorded and there's going to be an archive, and not only that, it's going to be open for the public to look at. So everything that we say is going to be documented.

"My only doubt about this, if we can do it with what it says by appropriation, $30,000. C-SPAN is obviously a bigger enterprise than that, but this is a breath of fresh air for transparency, it's a breath of fresh air for open government, and I hope everybody follows this through to the very end. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1209, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE LEGISLATIVE BROADCAST PROGRAM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Cachola and Har being excused.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm going to vote against this measure, Mr. Speaker. I haven't had an opportunity to sit in the Committee hearings, but it's my understanding that the penalty here if you take over a business and you fire people, or lay people off, or reorganize, or transition, which happens a lot. When people try and go in and save a business, they have to make cuts, they have to streamline, they see things differently, and that's why they're often brought in.

"But, here under this bill, say if someone was making $100,000 a year and you have three or four of those people, and that's one of the reasons you're not making any money because you have three guys make $100,000 a year, so you lay them off. And this bill, the way I understand it, you'd have to compensate the dislocated employee the difference between the employee's wages that he was making before $100,000 and what he's receiving in unemployment. So you're still on the hook for $70,000.

"This is insanity if I read this correctly. The businessman won't go into business, he won't buy a business in Hawaii. How can any business operate under those circumstances? When you take over a business, when you go in, you have to change things, and quite often, as painful as it is. Aloha Airlines, my wife worked for Aloha, they laid off a lot of people. They would be on the hook for anything that the unemployment insurance doesn't cover. If what I see is correct, I'm flabbergasted. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition to this measure. This is the opposite of my previous speech about what's good. This is a shot across the bow to say that we in this Body are saying you can cross the line between the private and the public sector and this goes way over the line, saying that we are going to intervene into your private affairs.

"I can see the intent is to keep people employed, but it's the market, Mr. Speaker, that keeps people employed. This is a job killer, this is a business killer, this is reinforcing the image that we have, unfortunately, in so many parts of the world, as anti-business, we're not open for business. This is not good for the State of Hawaii. It's not good policy. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the high tech industry was born maybe 10 years ago. It died two years ago when we took the Act 221 away from it because of the cost. What they have left is very little incentive and this is one of the GE Tax exemptions which the scientific high tech community has.

"Granted, we have to give all high tech bidders the exemption, but this one pushes aside ours, which we were hoping to grow. And even though they're very small in numbers, I don't think it's time to take away yet, unless they go away entirely.

"There's still a small core, and they came in and they testified and they said, don't take this last thing or one of the few last things that we have left as a incentive from this Body to say that we want to diversify our economy, while we want a high tech industry, the high paying jobs are there, it's just that we need a little bit more time to grow. So, Mr. Speaker, I have serious reservations about this."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I'm trying to help find high paying jobs for members in my community and a lot of that is going to come from the high tech industry. This bill kind of reminds me a little bit of when my oldest brother would have me in a choke hold, and then after he would release me, my second older brother, who wasn't as big, wasn't as strong, would put me in a choke hold. So even though it's less of a choke hold, I believe it still doesn't help expand the sector of the economy that we're trying to work on. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Choy rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this is not taking away anything from the high tech community. What this does is it clarifies the exemption to Section 41, making tax administration that much easier. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott's written remarks are as follows:

"Preschool is helpful and should be part of an overall reform agenda. However, before we start to undertake any new initiatives we must reform the current system in place for K-12. We must realize the efficiencies that can be secured, empower parents, and drive the decision making to the school level; after all, the Governor promised this in his New Day plan and I was hopeful we could undergird the core responsibilities before embarking on costly new initiatives.

"I believe comprehensive educational reform can still be done, but not with the ill will the current administration has sown among the educators. The teachers feel betrayed because the Governor misleads them. He promised to end furlough Fridays; he did in the sense that furloughs are no longer on Friday, but on different days. They are now called DWOPS, directed days off without pay.

"Teachers thought they had a friend in the Governor, but DWOPS and the current net negative 2% proposal before them, including health care costs, have led them to believe otherwise.

"They are demoralized, feeling that they have been betrayed. The recent report in the Star Advertiser (1/21/13) noting the 17 days sick leave a year that teachers take was a clear indicator of this, far above the private sector employee average. Increased pay will not assuage this morale problem over the long term, only improved working environment where they feel empowered and freed from the shackles of a burdensome bureaucracy.

"Proposing another centralized statewide program is a prescription for the same results we have gotten for a long time, why should we expect anything other than the flexibility of the IRS and the speed and efficiency of the post office.

"Further, why has it taken three years to address education, the most important issue before the State? It is the biggest component of our State Budget being responsible for over 34,000 full-time equivalent full-time employees. Aside from supporting the Governance issue of Board of Education appointments, this administration has done precious little to follow through on their New Day Promises regarding education. Now, the break with the teachers and empty promises has assured us that we shall receive zero meaningful reform from this administration. Their hearts are in the right place, they just lack the necessary leadership skills to execute.

"So, I support the measure, but only as part of an overall strategy."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

H.C.R. No. 41, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO RENAME THE KILAUEA POINT LIGHTHOUSE LOCATED ON THE ISLAND OF KAUAI, HAWAII, IN HONOR OF THE LATE SENATOR DANIEL K. INOUYE," was jointly offered by Representatives Kawakami, Aquino, Awana, Belatti, Brower, Cabanilla, Carroll, Cheape, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Evans, Fale, Fukumoto, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ing, Ito, Johanson, Jordan, Kobayashi, Lee, Lowen, Luke, McDermott, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morikawa, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Onishi, Oshiro, Rhoads, Saiki, Say, Souki, Takai, Takayama, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward, Woodson, Wooley, Yamane and Yamashita.

Representative Kawakami moved that H.C.R. No. 41 be adopted, seconded by Representative Tokioka.

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this resolution that requests from Congress to respectfully rename the Kilauea Lighthouse located on the beautiful island of Kauai amongst what used to be a small rural plantation town in honor of the late, great, Senator Daniel K. Inouye, and I would like to thank in advance all of my colleagues for their support.

"A lighthouse, Mr. Speaker, is so much more than a tower that provides illumination. For the mariner and sailor at sea, it is a sign that land is near and also warns that hazards are nearby. It guides and protects.

"Mr. Speaker, a lighthouse is hope for a sailor, symbolizing that calm waters and welcoming harbors are nearby. It provides comfort and promises that better times are ahead.

"Mr. Speaker, a lighthouse oftentimes sits upon the highest point of land nearest the sea. Standing alone, tall, in sunny and stormy weather, in darkness and in light, unmoved and calm in the midst of adversity; a symbol of relief. It is strong and stable.

"The lighthouse, Mr. Speaker, is like a star. Ancient Hawaiians looked upon the heavens and gazed at the stars, and it provided a focal point for navigators. It provided direction and guidance.

"There are many ways, Mr. Speaker, that this little lighthouse, at the northernmost inhabited Hawaiian island, is similar to our beloved Senator. Both provide guidance and protection. Both serve to protect the weak from the mighty. Both provide direction and help to navigate the lost to safety. Both provide beacons of hope and comfort.

"Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Kauai delegation, we would like to thank the family, the friends, those that have fought side-by-side with him during World War II, and of course, his staff, for allowing and giving and sharing such a great man with all of us. He will always be our protector, our navigator, our comforter, our beacon of hope, and he will always be our lighthouse.

"Thank you for allowing me this time to say these few words in support of this resolution, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask if the great words that were just spoken by the Representative from Kawaihau can be inserted into the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

At this time, the Chair asked all Members to rise, the motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 41 was adopted, with Representatives Cachola and Har being excused.

The following concurrent resolution (H.C.R. No. 42) was announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.C.R. No. 42, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION TO DESIGNATE, WHEN APPROPRIATE, ROUTE 200 ON THE ISLAND OF HAWAII AS THE DANIEL K. INOUYE LEGACY HIGHWAY," was jointly offered by Representatives Nakashima, Aquino, Awana, Belatti, Brower, Cabanilla, Carroll, Cheape, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Evans, Fale, Fukumoto, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ing, Ito, Johanson, Jordan, Kawakami, Kobayashi, Lee, Lowen, Luke, McDermott, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morikawa, Nishimoto, Ohno, Onishi, Oshiro, Rhoads, Saiki, Say, Souki, Takai, Takayama, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward, Woodson, Wooley, Yamane and Yamashita.

Representative Nakashima moved that H.C.R. No. 42 be adopted, seconded by Representative Evans.

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. United States Senator Daniel K. Inouye was a true statesman, having devoted his life to service of his country in the battlefields of Europe and in the halls of Congress. With values born in Hawaii, the Senator's actions were visionary and looked to invest in the future of Hawaii for generations to come.

"The Saddle Road project is one such investment that will bridge a growing gap between East and West Hawaii, and will serve to foster a greater sense of connectedness between the growing population centers across the vast expanse of the Big Island."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think that the commitment by Senator Dan Inouye really needs to be put in perspective, so I'd just like to share a little bit of the history of Saddle Road, because truly without the commitment and the focus and dedication by our Senator, it would not have happened.

"Saddle Road was built in 1942 by the Federal Government as an access road to the Pohakuloa Army Base. Saddle Road served as a link between East and West Hawaii. But for those us who have always driven Saddle Road, it was not an easy road to navigate. As a matter of fact, when any visitors came for rental cars, they always told them you're not allowed to drive on Saddle Road because of the condition of it.

"In 1992, Senator Dan Inouye initiated formal discussions through the Department of the Army and the Federal Highway Administration with the intent to bring Saddle Road up to modern standards. In May of 1993, Senator Daniel Inouye formed the Saddle Road Community Task Force with secretariat support from the Hawaii Island Economic Development Board as a channel for community input and consensus building. Proposed improvements would upgrade Saddle Road to a two-lane highway with shoulders to provide adequate capacity to handle projected traffic volume 20 years into the future, which is where we're at today.

"Interestingly, in 2009, 22 miles of the 48-mile long Saddle Road Route had been upgraded to modern standards and opened to public traffic. The final segment of the project, Mamalahoa Highway to Queen Kaahumanu Highway at Waikoloa Beach Drive could begin as soon as 2017 and be completed by 2019. Without the dedication, leadership and guidance of Senator Daniel Inouye, it is highly doubtful that Saddle Road would have received the federal attention. It is only fitting that Saddle Road be renamed, the Daniel K. Inouye Highway."

At this time, the Chair asked all Members to rise, the motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.C.R. No. 42 was adopted, with Representatives Cachola and Har being excused.

By unanimous consent, the following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 20 through 23) and concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 38 through 40) were referred to Printing and further action was deferred:

No. 39, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII BOARD OF REGENTS TO STUDY THE REINTEGRATION OF THE OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MANOA WITH THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII SYSTEM," was jointly offered by Representatives Takai and Choy.

H.C.R. No. 40, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING HAWAIIAN NATIONALS AS A POPULATION RESIDING LAWFULLY IN THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS," was offered by Representative Hanohano.

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is the first GE Tax increase bill that we're going to be seeing and it was a 1% GE Tax bill, but it was gutted for the purpose of getting where it is today. But this was for the purpose of helping education, a great cause, but I would remind the Members that the great regressivity of our GE Tax is going to hurt a lot of people. And I know there are other bills that are kind of flirting with the idea of a GE Tax increase, and I'm also aware that 36 Members standing or sitting in this Chamber have said, there's no GE Tax increase.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be upfront and say, I vote no on this. We've got to take care of our teachers, but I would say, Governor Abercrombie, let's at least give them a contract to start with and then we can handle stuff that has implications with these kinds of things. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 1368, HD 1. While I support teachers being properly compensated for the valuable work that they do, increasing the General Excise Tax is not the right way to accomplish this goal. This revision of the measure deleted a sub-account for the Department of Education and the amount of General Excise Tax increase. Thus, it is unclear how much the increase would amount to and for what purpose the increased tax revenue would be used.

"Families around the state are struggling to survive in these difficult economic times, and it would not be prudent to add to their burden by increasing the costs of essentials, goods and services. Furthermore, as the GET is a regressive tax, it will disproportionately affect the lower and middle income earners - those who are least equipped to handle increased taxes."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 1368, HD1, which increases the General Excise Tax. My primary concern, Mr. Speaker, is that this bill will raise the cost of living for the residents of Mililani. Due to the regressive nature of the General Excise Tax, this bill will also disproportionally hurt the poor more than other segments of society. We must remember that this is a tax on all services and goods, including staples like milk, bread and over-the-counter medication.

"Recently, the Institute on Taxation and Economic Policy named Hawaii one of the 'Terrible Ten' most regressive states for tax laws, primarily because of our existing General Excise Tax rate. Increasing that rate will only exacerbate the problem. For these reasons, I vote no on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in full support of education and want to help Hawaii's teachers and students, but the purpose of this bill is unclear. This bill increases the General Excise Tax by an unspecified amount, does not specify the account or list the purposes of the funds accumulated. This will send a negative message to the public who already struggle to make ends meet. There are many inefficiencies in the way we spend taxpayer dollars.

"Hawaii ranks in the top ten most regressive states for tax laws. Our poorest families already pay a high percentage of their total income in excise taxes. Increasing the GET would burden families who already struggle with transportation, feeding their families and providing school supplies for their children. We are also coming out of a bad recession. Many are slowly battling back, and an increase in the GET would halt their progress.

"I ask my colleagues to please think about the people this increase will really affect. Mahalo."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, in strong support and I would like permission to insert written comments into the Journal."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"From the sun to the surf to the black sand beaches, Hawaii is known for its pristine natural settings and beautiful weather. With all of those beautiful places to preserve, the State Legislature believes that there is no better way to protect the 'āina than with a healthy supply of renewable energy sources.

"Hawaii's electricity rates are the highest in the nation. Consumers need access to energy efficient devices that offer real electricity costs savings. The major obstacle for low to moderate income residents in Hawaii is the upfront cash needed or access to credit to purchase solar hot water heaters and solar photo-voltaic systems. Without question, the most important benefit of these renewable resource devices to the consumer is the lowering of their monthly electric bills.

"The Legislature believes that clean energy and energy efficiency should not be for the wealthy only. Hawaii residents who work hard and pay their bills, but find it difficult to save enough money or build enough credit to finance a solar hot water heater or solar photo-voltaic system, should not be shut out of this market.

"The on-bill financing that is detailed in HB856 HD1, allows the consumer to pay for these energy systems through the electricity cost savings on their monthly bill. This not only makes available energy savings to a greater number of Hawaii's consumers, but it also means less oil for every kilowatt hour of energy being conserved or replaced by clean energy.

"Reducing Hawaii's dependence on imported fossil fuel requires significant infrastructure and investment. House Bill 856 seeks to lower Hawaii residents' electric bills immediately and pay for the devices over the long run, while also supporting the State's energy goals of self-sufficiency and security."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 412, HD 1. HB 412 does not accurately differentiate 'sex' and 'gender' which are not interchangeable terms from a legal standpoint. Additionally, the Attorney General raised a number of workability issues including that the 'statutory amendment [the bill] seeks would allow changes to 'gender,' a non-existent data item on birth certificates, the proposed method of amending birth certificates lacks evidentiary reliability, and the part of the amendment that would allow for unsealing sealed birth records upon request may be a violation of the right to privacy under the State Constitution.' Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations. Mr. Speaker, the concern I have regarding this measure before us, not only the development of an HHSC personnel system but also the intent of the initial measure which was to move, what I think is backwards, in reestablishing a corporate system.

"If Members recall, one of the criticisms years ago was that the regional areas in which these hospitals serviced, did not feel they had appropriate input in directing and influencing the quality of care and a direction of care within their communities.

"So in an attempt to allow our constituents, those who live in those areas, to have input in how their hospitals were run, we need instituted regional boards. So my concern, Mr. Speaker, on this measure, is that we've reconstituted a centralized system which unintended consequences is that those on the neighbor islands will actually have less input in the quality and breadth of their care. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Thank you. That bill got significantly amended by the Committee and I believe that the amendments are really worthy of this moving forward. Clearly, the amendments are about retaining the system as it currently exists, however it does change how we deal with our employees from prospective, out in the future.

"I believe it's important that we start making changes to our Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. Anyone that's known me over the years being here, knows that I really want us to move more to a private system. I believe that if we're going to have systems that are supported by government that we should really move towards supporting the community health centers, definitely committed to them, because they are the ones out in the rural areas of our community which is very difficult to support. They're very small, they don't have a lot of services, they feed into the bigger hospitals, but they provide much needed services to those rural areas. So I'm all about the community health centers, and I believe we need to go that route and support that.

"But when it comes to the big hospitals that are in our community, we have to start changing them. This does not change Hawaii Health Systems Corporation yet, moving it to the private sector. It's addressing employees out in the future. It's also talking about the boards and what we want the boards to be looking at. And so with that, I think we have to keep moving on this issue, because status quo, I do not believe is working for the best of the residents of Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. In support. This bill in particular is a solution that was come up with to address a problem that has been at the forefront of Hawaii's doorstep for decades. We're going to be losing our fresh water supply in the coming decades as global warming continues to move trade winds off of our Ko'olau. This bill would appropriate funding, in particular to allow the Department of Land & Natural Resources to move forward with protections to address that issue and maintain fresh water for the State.

"On top of that, because the counties have passed bans on plastic bags across the State, retailers now are facing increased costs because they're going to have to give out paper bags, biodegradable bags, all of which carry significantly increased costs to the businesses.

"What this bill will do is not only address our watershed issues, but on top of that will give funding back to our businesses to help reimburse their additional costs so that they don't have to pass costs onto consumers. So this is a measure that is not only going to protect the businesses, it's going to protect consumers, and it's going to give consumers who want to buy bags and pay the 10-cent fee a choice, so that when folks show up, they have that option and they're not just going to be forced to absorb the cost that retailers put forward. Thank you very much."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to clarify my opposition. I actually am fully in support of taking care of the environment and making sure our watersheds are protected, but my concern here is that the average person that maybe can't drive a far way to go to the grocery store and has to take the bus, it's hard to carry bags, and they have small apartments, they don't have a place to keep the bags. And they can't make that choice to pay 10 cents extra because they're already struggling. That's my biggest concern here and that's why I'm in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please enter a no vote. Basically I think this is an ill-advised policy to tax the consumers at the benefit of the marketplace, in particular, grocers, who will be making exorbitant profits at 10 cents a bag. I think it's basically a subsidization of these grocers at the expense of the consumers, many of them who will be adversely affected by this.

"I also note that, over the last several years we've been looking at these kinds of bag bills. In fact, I think Oahu was the last county last year to enact a bag ban. I think it would do well for us to consider that in place is a ban on all the islands that were designed by the different county governments, pursuant to their home rule authority, to design the most appropriate bag bans for their constituents on the neighbor islands and on Oahu.

"So I think we should give this bag ban here, actually it's not a bag ban now it's just basically a fundraising measure, careful examination on the costs that would be imposed upon our consumers. I heard someone saying that this ban would indirectly give Safeway Corporation a $2 million check for the cost of their plastic bags, and I think that's not the right way to go. Thank you."

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Lee be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, and same request. Also, I'm from Maui where we had plastic bags banned for quite some time now and it's really no problem to bring your own canvas-type bags."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I do support the intent because we need to take care of the environment. However, the cost per bag as written right now I think is exorbitant for our constituents to bear. Thank you."

Representative Onishi rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a conflict of interest, please. My wife's family owns a retail grocery business," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Kawakami rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Same request," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, can I get the same ruling. My wife has Safeway as a client," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm voting no on the measure. I would also like to clarify, Mr. Speaker, the reason why I'm voting no on this measure is that I asked directly to the Department of Health and to the Department of Land & Natural Resources if they would reassess their support of this measure if the economic numbers came back and said that it would impact the lowest economic brackets. Because my feelings are that it will. And they said that if this does impact the lowest economic brackets, that they would reconsider their support of this measure.

"As I stated in Committee, I'm not going to reach into the pockets of working mothers and fathers in my community and take one more penny out to pay for anything, because we're dying out there. This measure, and we've raised it, there are cultural ways in which we can address the watershed issue that weren't taken into consideration when this measure was moved forward."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please change my reservations to a no vote. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak in support of the measure, but I also would like to urge the Members to use caution as we move this measure forward and then over to the Senate. I don't believe we should reduce the tax credits for photovoltaic anymore beyond what is in this bill. I think we've gone down to the bare bones.

"This is a vibrant industry, it's one of the stars in our economy, and the understanding from the economist from the University of Hawaii is that for every tax dollar credit, we generate over $2 back into our economy. I think that makes good sense. So when you read the bill, and particularly the amounts that are on page 2 and page 3, let's hold the line firm in the House and not go below that percentage of those tax credits.

"The other thing is that there's going to be a study required from Department of Business and Economic Development. It might even be better to make that study be further out. It's going to be three years out now. I'm not sure if that's going to give quite enough time for everything to stabilize, because we sent a lot of mixed signals that scared off the residential property owners from going ahead with photovoltaic. Now if we go ahead with this bill, we'll have a good signal that it's going to be stabilized at these specific percentages and you can go ahead and put in your project feeling some confidence. I think that if we allowed a study on that to occur, let's say after 4 – 5 years, then we might even at that point decide that we should ramp up those tax credits again.

"The end result is that we can get homes virtually off of the grid, and that's going to be a huge plus for Hawaii. We would keep that money that we're sending out now to buy foreign fossil fuel, we'll keep that in the State. And Mr. Speaker, that is going to be the economic engine for our State. I really think green energy means green money in our economy. So everything we can do to encourage that, I would say let's do it. But let's hold the House position firm. I'm not sure what's going to happen in the Senate, but I think we ought to be linking arms and saying, our position is the one that has to prevail. Let's hold our line that we set. We've drawn a line in the sand and 51 of us should stand firm with that line. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations with a few comments, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I think the concerns expressed by my colleague from Kailua are very well taken. I take them a little bit more seriously when they've actually ramped down the percentages of the credit that can be taken. For example, it's now 35%, it goes down in 2015 to 25%, 2016 down to 20%. The point is, the structure of the incentives are going to fade away. They're going to dissipate.

"Mr. Speaker, we have to realize that of the electricity going through the grid right now, less than 1% is PV. Less than 1% is PV. This industry is such an infant, I call it a zygote. If we take too much of the incentive away, we will then leave it to the millionaires who can do it rather than the small guys who might be able to afford it with these very small incentives.

"One more case in point, for the last 30 years we've incentivized the solar water heater. To this day we have less than 29% of our homes that heat their water by the sun. We have the possibility of becoming the nation and the world leader in this, and if we don't give some incentives, even though this does give incentives, it kind of damns with faint praise, if I can use the Shakespearean term.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, I hope that any Committee that handles this in the future is not going to say, well that's still too much. DOTAX says this is $30 million or $50 million. Well think of the $6 billion that we're giving to the Middle East and we're giving to all those fossil fuel producers in the other parts of the world. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. Just very briefly, there were a number of good discussions had on the ramped-down feature of this bill. I think what's at question here is what is the right size for this credit, and that's what we're really trying to achieve.

"In fact, members of the industry themselves actually asked for a more aggressive step down because what's coming are other bills, one of which was on our agenda today which we already voted through, which would provide, in the future, on-bill financing, and provide the means so that folks can get solar financed up-front and make renewable energy systems like this far more available to those who otherwise would never be able to afford it even with credits as generous as they have been.

"So this is a way to both maintain the forward momentum that we have in our economy with our construction and solar industries, and at the same time make sure it's not going to have a significant dent on our budget. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. I would like to make a few comments. I do support the intent which is the reporting on a website. My reservation is how the bill is currently written at this point and I hope to work with the Committees on how we can make it fair to both sides.

"As written right now, when somebody comes and inspects the facilities, they get reported on the website. I would like the reporting after the investigation has been done, to make sure that that is really how it is.

"And secondly, there should be a tier system. The ones that need to be reported are the actual violations to the patient. Care violations as opposed to just administrative or paperwork violations. Those are my concerns, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this. Mr. Speaker, it's been an honor to be, for the first time in my 16, 14, 15 years here, to be on the Ag Committee. It's really an eye opener. This bill basically is to ask, it's a 'Mother, May I' to the Department of Agriculture. May we create a genetically modified organism.

"This will stifle intellectual academic freedom. A professor may have to go get permission, and it says a public hearing, before an organism can be developed. Imagine what that would do the UH system. It would be a constraint of trade in terms of what could be brought in to the State.

"I know there's a lot of concern about GMO. We have to look at it, but in terms of what this bill asks for I think it's going a little bit overboard, and because of those reasons, I'm voting no."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to encourage the Members to take a look at the actual language of the bill before making any judgments. This is a controversial issue, GMO, but it's important that we start looking at it very closely and that we have this discussion. There are different visions of the world and how we're going to feed it.

"In Hawaii we have many different visions moving forward at the same time and I think in order to make sure that we can coexist, we need to have this critical conversation and make sure that nobody's hiding any information and that everything's above board. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. Most of the farmers in our State have problems with sustainability. It's not really one of those businesses where you can garner a lot of money and most of them are barely making it. This fee that's being imposed on them is another cost item that they need to worry about or report. So with that, I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to stand in support and clarify that there is no authorized fee. It's authorizing the Department if they need to move forward with a fee, and this is simply allowing them to put together the information they currently have on pesticides so that the public can also have that same information. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. "Mr. Speaker, ruling on a conflict of interest. My wife's family owns a retail grocery business. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takayama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict. My spouse represents a pharmaceutical company with GM products," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Having grown up on a farm and now representing a large agricultural district, my first priority is providing local food for local people, and I think we all know that there's been a large outcry from the public on the right to know. And I believe that consumers do…"

Representative Evans rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. The Representative, when she was talking, was looking at us, this direction, and I think decorum is, you look at the Speaker."

The Chair addressed Representative Cheape, stating:

"Representative Cheape, if you can just focus your comments to the Chair."

Representative Cheape continued, stating:

"I apologize. To continue on, I believe that consumers have the right to know what's in their food, but also it's important for local agriculture to succeed long term in Hawaii, that we don't hurt the local farmers and I feel a lot of people felt that this bill didn't go far enough. But I think a more overarching bill would have possibly hurt the small local farmer.

"This bill only requires labeling on genetically modified food coming into our State. Not for processed food or food that is produced here locally. And a more overarching bill could have possibly placed a burden on our small farmers. For instance our livestock farmers, if they had to find out if their feed was genetically modified or not, it could put a cost onto our small farmers.

"I believe that it's our responsibility as lawmakers to listen to the public, and there has been a long standing outcry. I think that this bill is that first step in moving forward in addressing that issue without hurting our local farmers. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. Our family owns a retail operation that imports food," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 174, HD1. The measure addresses labeling for genetically modified food products. While I appreciate the intent, I am concerned that this bill as drafted could lead to consumer confusion.

"As I read this bill, a consumer could go to the grocery store and face a choice between two bins of fresh corn – one from the mainland and one from a local farm. Both could be GMOs, but only one would be labeled as a genetically modified food product. The consumer who is concerned about GMOs may choose the local corn, thinking that it is not a GMO, even though it is.

"As I mentioned earlier, I appreciate the intent and applaud the effort to promote local products, but as this bill moves forward, I want to ensure that we are being fair to local consumers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 174, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOOD LABELING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Cachola, Har and McDermott being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 254) recommending that H.B. No. 231, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, this is a needed measure, and although I'm in opposition, I acknowledge that. The people it will hit, Hawaii Banker's Association, Hawaii Financial Services Association, actually testified in support of this. It's kind of a housekeeping measure. It's to bring our state charter banks up to speed with the federal regulations, so I understand that.

"My 'no' really is an objection to the unfunded federal mandate that these regulations place upon the State as a burden to the users of these services. Because at the end of the day, although the bank association supports it and the other regulatory agencies support it, it's going to be passed on to the consumer. So that's my no vote. Not an objection to the methodology or procedures that the committee process brought this forward. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this measure. Mr. Speaker, this bill limits the speed of jet skis to 30 mph. For those of us in districts which have jet skis, this is a very important bill. 30 mph is safe. And for the record, I want to note that in my district, Maunalua Bay, the actual commercial company that I spoke with has his jet skis at 25 mph, so there's nothing wrong with this.

"The problem that I have with this, and what I think the other members of the industry have, is that it does not exempt rescue workers. If you're going to go out and save somebody, you don't want to have a jet ski that only goes 30 mph. If you're going to tow somebody in you want to have full force of your horsepower. Jet skis can go from 30 to 40 with the small engines, up to 40, 50, even maybe 60 mph. So unless the rescuers are exempt from this, this bill has a big puka in it, Mr. Speaker, and I would hope the next committees will correct that. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support, permission to insert written comments. Thank you. And just to my colleague from Hawaii Kai, I agree with his statement, and similar to our roads we have speed limits but then for emergency vehicles as well as law enforcement, they can break those speed limits. Thank you."

Representative Brower's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, the parents of the 16 year old California native who died in a jet ski accident last summer approached me about introducing this bill to prevent more innocent people from getting killed. They refer to this bill as 'Kristen's Law,' named after their daughter. They believe that excessive speed was a contributing factor in her death.

"According to testimony from the family's attorney, people who rent personal watercraft (PWC) tend to be less experienced than people who use privately owned PWCs. Restricting the speed limit to 30 miles per hour will protect them from any recklessness or negligence that is heightened by this lack of experience.

"We have speed limits on our roads, and emergency vehicles may exceed those limits in special circumstances. Similarly, this bill is not intended to restrict emergency personnel and staff.

"This bill is reasonable. I look forward to continuing the discussion in the Judiciary Committee."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a very brief comment. This bill obviously deserves further deliberation, discussion and openness, but the way it's designed it's just not practical. When they're putting a cap on the amount of rent that is going to be charged and set aside for taro lands, that's a really difficult proposition. There's only 600 acres, according to the testifiers, that are presently now under taro production. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. I'd like to just make a couple notes for the Members. There was a very important Taro Task Force meeting today, and for any of you who were able to see it or join us you'll know how critical taro lands are in Hawaii. There's been so much work to make sure that we take care of and even inventory these lands.

"So, I think that the Taro Task Force has made these recommendations. They've been working with the State, and this bill is critical for all of those reasons. Mahalo."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Kako'o loa. In strong support, and it's because there hasn't been enough discussion and enough due diligence of the State to take care of our taro, that we still need this task force to be here. And also for Members that need to be more educated on taro, I'll be having another informational briefing on Wednesday between 5 and 7, so you can pick up your mana'o from there. Mahalo."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I'd like to also say that my reservations come from, I represent the district that produces the largest amount of kalo in the State of Hawaii. We've had members that sat on the Taro Security and Purity Task Force that were so frustrated that they couldn't get their comments inserted into the document that they withdrew themselves from the process. So, my reservations are held basically on having the largest producer of kalo being omitted from the report. Thank you."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 483, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TARO LANDS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Tokioka voting no, and with Representatives Cachola, Har, Lee, McKelvey, Takai and Thielen being excused.

Representative Awana: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Kalani Falcons Boys Soccer Team for winning the Division I Championship during a long-fought, double overtime game against Punahou this Saturday. Mr. Speaker, as a Legislator who represents the opposite side of the island, I share this information with you and the Members not only because my daughter is a senior at this school, but also because there was a deeper inspirational story that we can all relate to, and that is a message that we must all strive to do the best that we can. And sometimes there may be surprises and unexpected situations that arise, and how the human spirit is able to work through these great challenges on and off the sports field.

"Mr. Speaker, at this point I will keep the Members in suspense on the back story because I do not have enough time nor do I have enough tissue to pass out to everyone. And I would urge Members to take just a few minutes to read the article on the front page of this morning's Star Advertiser: 'Heartbreaking Win'. Mr. Speaker, I am requesting to enter this article into the Journal. This article is what we call a good read. And also a friendly reminder not to forget your tissue, Members. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

For hero of the game Leo Klink, the euphoria of leading the Kalani Falcons soccer team to a state championship lasted only as long as it took to walk off the field in victory.

Klink, who scored two goals in regulation and another during the shootout to give Kalani a 3-2 victory over Punahou on Saturday, played the end of regulation plus two overtime periods and the shootout unaware that his mother, Hiroyo Klink, 52, had suffered a brain hemorrhage while watching the game and been rushed to a nearby hospital.

As soon as the game ended, coaches told Klink what had happened. Still in his mud-caked cleats, Klink was rushed to the hospital, where his mother had been placed in a medically induced coma.

"It was definitely heartbreaking," Klink said by telephone Sunday. "I went from tears of joy to tears of sadness."The evening had started well for Klink and his Kalani teammates. Twice Punahou scored go-ahead goals in regulation, and twice Klink responded to even the score.

With 25 minutes left, Klink's mother left her seat in the stands to go to the restroom. As she walked down the bleachers, she became dizzy.

Klink's father, Paul, noticed that she was dragging her left arm and leg. Using a tip from a stroke-awareness video he'd recently seen, he asked Hiroyo to smile.

"The left side of her face was unresponsive," Paul Klink said.

Against her protests, Klink called 911, and the game was stopped for 10 minutes so she could be placed in an ambulance.

She made it clear that she didn't want her son to know what had happened. She wanted him to keep playing.

Kalani head coach Mike Ching said he struggled with keeping the news from his star player. And when the two overtime periods expired with the score still knotted at 2-2, Ching even questioned the wisdom of turning to the Oahu Interscholastic Association's leading scorer and reigning boy soccer player of the year.

"I didn't know what to do," Ching said. "I am just a high school soccer coach. Even during penalty kicks, I didn't want him to take it because what if he misses and we lose and he has that piled onto him along with his mother? But nobody else wanted to take it; they all wanted Leo."

As usual, Leo came through, scoring goals along with teammates Ryan Bui and Steve Teshima. Goalie Kazuto Moribe sealed the victory, turning back a Punahou penalty kick.

"I celebrated with the team, shook the Punahou players' hands, then did an interview," Klink said. "Then the coaches came over and told me what happened."

TV commentators noted Klink's quick exit and mistook his tears for the emotional release of victory. Klink's teammates understood the magnitude of the tragedy immediately.

"They were bawling their eyes out when we told them," Ching said of Klink's soccer teammates. "Leo is probably the biggest sweetheart you'll ever meet on the field. He's a big mama's boy, in the best way. He's the most unassuming superstar I've ever met, and he loves his mother."

What appeared to be a stroke turned out to be a brain hemorrhage. In the hours after her arrival at the hospital, Hiroyo Klink's brain swelled to quadruple its normal size, putting her life in extreme jeopardy. Doctors hope for the best but fear she might not survive the next two or three days.

Leo Klink remained at his mother's side all day Sunday, telling her that he loves her, that she'll get better, that everything will be OK.

"She's the hardest worker I've every known," Leo said. "She gets up at 6 every morning to make me breakfast, then takes me to school and goes to work. Later she picks me up from soccer practice, goes home and makes dinner for us. She's always working for us."

The Klinks aren't alone in their vigil. Immediately after the game and throughout the night, scores of teammates from Kalani's soccer and football teams as well as Leo's Abunai club team came with their families to lend their support.

"The love and caring that have been expressed to us is just overwhelming," Paul Klink said. "It's nuts and it's beautiful. This has been the best and worst 24 hours of our lives."

Representative Kawakami: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I'm also glad to announce that up on the hills of Kapahi we have our very own champs in Kapa'a Warrior Boys Soccer as they're the Division II State Champs. Mahalo."

Representative Hanohano: "We would also like to congratulate Kamehameha Girl's Basketball Team for their championship. And we would like to also congratulate Konawaena Wildcats for coming in second. So, imua, na moku o keawe – move forward for Hawaii Island. Mahalo."

It's not a Kona Coffee situation, it's an attempt to either draw a turf fight between some different islands that are brewing or whatever, but I think it's one we should not pass. Thank you."

I'm not sure if this is just a reinvention of the TOD. I want to look at it more carefully if it moves forward, and I want to make sure that those transit-orient developments are not aimed at our smaller communities such as Kailua and other areas on this island. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Standing Committee Report Number 288, Relating to Land Use, for accessory dwelling uses. I'm rising to cast a no vote and to explain why. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With apologies to our newest member who is one of the sponsors, I'm casting a no vote because Kailua has had a very difficult time with these so-called accessory dwellings, and we've ended up with out-of-state owners buying up property in Kailua and having multiple short-terms rentals. They aren't long-term rentals for local people, they're the short-term vacation rentals. It's made it very difficult for our community and I'm afraid this bill will facilitate more of that. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, in support and I just would like to explain a little bit more about this measure. Twelve years ago we passed Ohana Zoning. But the rules were so restrictive that within that time, only eight people could use it.

"This bill, accessory, is not a requirement for the counties to adopt, according to the bill how it's written. It just says that if they do adopt the conditions and the requirements shall be usable. Because that's the problem with the Ohana Zoning. Yes, they did pass it, but the requirements were so stringent that nobody really could use it. So, this is what this accessory dwelling units is trying to correct. That if the counties do decide, then the conditions and the requirements have to be implementable. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

As noted in the hearing, there is currently a long line of individuals waiting to be considered for public housing. Furthermore, the Hawaii Public Housing Authority already has a process by which they can grant an exemption to individuals who have committed infractions of the law – one of the main purposes of this bill. Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would ask the clerk to cast a no vote for me. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this measure will require the Land Use Commission to extend the time period for which a boundary amendment is effective.

"Mr. Speaker, the Land Use Commission can, in circumstances when it feels it's appropriate, go ahead and grant an extension to an applicant. This one makes it mandatory, and I don't think that is the correct way to go. I think we should leave this in the hands of the Land Use Commission.

"This, Mr. Speaker, I just want to note, these are major reclassification issues of importance to the people throughout the islands, and sometimes they can be intensely controversial. It's not a good situation to tie the hands of the Land Use Commission and mandate them to have to say, 'you're going to have to let that developer have more time.' I'm hoping the measure doesn't move forward. Thank you."

Representative Lowen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 988, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise against this measure. I'm going to cast a no vote on this. Mr. Speaker, I thought we did this 20 years ago when I was here before. I guess either my glasses are bad or my memory is going, I'm not certain, but here it is again. Apparently we didn't do too well taking care of that money and shepherding it and stewarding it where it needed to go. But nevertheless, this measure before us is an attempt to raise the barrel tax, if you will.

"Oh, it's only a couple of cents, but in this session, this blizzard, this tornado of fees that I have seen coming, it's only 10 cents here, 5 cents there, 2 cents there. It's going to hit people, it's going to hit working people. Those are the people I represent. They're not driving BMWs. They're living down in Ewa Beach, okay, Mr. Speaker. And these are the people who are going to pay the increased gas fees.

"I guess it's okay if you're cruising your BMW, you feel good, you did something, okay, we're taking care of the environment. No offense to anybody who drives a BMW, it's just you're in a higher socioeconomic strata. These folks are the ones who are going to pay, Mr. Speaker.

"And it goes to environmental response. Okay, we all support that. I wonder if the folks who drafted the bill are aware of how we bring our oil in to be processed. Two miles out off Barber's Point it's brought in through a pipeline. The reason it's done offshore is if there ever was a disaster, it would dissipate. The same reason we don't have smog, we're in the middle of the ocean. We have the vog that comes through but no smog, per say.

The oil would dissipate, that's why they don't do it near shore and that's why navy ships, even though they're in Pearl Harbor, don't refuel in the harbor. They go out to sea and refuel to mitigate any environmental disaster.

"It's also supposed to go towards food security. Mr. Speaker, we have 7 million people coming through the State. We can't feed them all, Mr. Speaker. It feels good, Mr. Speaker, to say 'food security,' but when I go into Sam's Club and I have a choice between onions that were grown here, which taste delicious, and onions that were grown in Idaho, and I can buy the ones in Idaho, 10 pounds for the same price I can buy 5 pounds, and I've got a lot of mouths to feed, guess which one I'm going to buy. The fact of the matter is we can't address food security through things like this until we get the prices down. This isn't going to help because we have the most expensive real estate in the world.

"But back to the measure, Mr. Speaker. I noticed the aviation fuel is exempt. Why is that? We refine it here, we also bring it in already processed on occasion. Why is aviation fuel exempt? Why is that? Perhaps the airlines, where my wife used to work, have a lobbyist come down here and say, don't do that to us."

The Chair addressed Representative McDermott, stating:

"Hold on, Representative McDermott, focus your comments. Focus your comments on matters that are germane to the bill."

Representative McDermott: "Well I'm pointing out that aviation fuel is exempt and I'm curious why it's exempt. I'm curious why aviation fuel is exempt."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "But we look at the merits of the bill, and so whether the intention was ill willed or not. That's not what we're looking at."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"I'm not saying the intention was ill willed. And if anyone felt that way, I apologize. What I'm saying is, aviation fuel is exempt. The rhetorical question is why it's exempt. And you can draw your own exemptions.

"But the guys who are going to get hit is 'Joe six-pack' driving a 20-year-old truck living in Ewa Beach who's got to drop his wife off at Waikiki before she goes to work. He's paying at the pump, Mr. Speaker. And this is only a small amount, but it's added to the $1.05 of a few years ago.

"We have to think about these people, Mr. Speaker. It's a tsunami of fees coming at them. It's a feel good measure that, I don't know how many positions we're going to fund, what are they going to do if there's no response, just sit around, who knows? I'm not getting a lot of answers, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, so very much."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with very, very strong reservations regarding this bill because it reaches, again, into the pockets of the working families in my community who are struggling to make it out, in my area. And we have to drive all the way to Honolulu for the jobs that we have, and this is just going to further add to the burden that they are asked to bear and it's going to very disproportionately affect those in the lowest income bracket. Those who are just trying to keep their head above water, trying to get to the next day, going from one paycheck to the next. Not even going from one paycheck to the next because they get into debt a little bit more, a little bit more, and this doesn't help them.

"I understand the intent, I understand what it is we need to do, but this isn't it. We need to address the very critical needs of the working families in our community and we're not. We need to get their heads clearly above water before we start reaching into their pockets anymore. And those are my comments, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Speaker. In the same spirit of Frank Fasi and the little guy, I vote with reservations."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Second time. I was on a riff there. I can't help it, Mr. Speaker, indulge me. With regards to the aviation fuel, I love the airlines, they're fantastic. They didn't give me any money, by the way, I just want you to know that."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "It doesn't relate to the merits of the bill."

Representative McDermott: "Mr. Speaker, this bill will increase the cost of energy in the State of Hawaii. The energy is the largest contributor to our cost of doing business. Not only does it hurt the person getting in their truck to drive to work, but it hurts the employer who's trying to hire people. We have the highest energy cost in the nation, 38 cents a kilowatt hour, I believe. This is increasing those costs. So, again, I am against this measure. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 988, HD 1. My concern is that this bill will result in higher gasoline prices in Hawaii. As a resident of Mililani, I am well aware that the citizens in my district spend an inordinate amount of time in traffic, commuting to and from work. For those that live in Mililani and commute to Honolulu, this may amount to as much as three hours a day. This long amount of time spent in morning and evening rush hour traffic adds to my constituents' already high gasoline bills. Raising the barrel tax in Hawaii even by a fraction will add to Mililani residents' cost of living. Therefore, I vote no on HB 988, HD 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Fale be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 988. While HB 988 has a noble purpose of preparing the state's response in case of environmental disasters, the method it uses significantly burdens people across the state by increasing the cost of their gas. Hawaii residents already pay one of the highest prices for gasoline, at an average of $4.24 per gallon. For working families and individuals who rely on personal vehicles to make a living, any increase to this already high price will have a severe impact. Many of Hawaii's people are struggling to survive in these difficult economic times, and it would not be prudent to add to their burden by increasing their cost of living."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. I just would like to say on behalf of my constituents who have to drive all the way to town to work, I'm casting my reservations. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. Just very briefly. In 1989, 33,000 gallons of oil were spilled right here off of Oahu. If today we had a similar scenario that we could not immediately intervene, have the funding to clean up, we would be in serious trouble. Because it's just not an increase for everybody, it's the loss of our entire economic driver, our engine. And we don't want to see what happened to the Gulf Coast happen here because that's everyone's pocketbooks and this is a small measure of preventative maintenance. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. I'd just like to point out a couple of things in this bill here. Standing Committee Report 308, House Bill 988, House Draft 1, Relating to Native Wildlife. Section 1 seems to indicate that the beneficiary of this revenue stream would be one particular agency, the Hawaii Wildlife Centers through the Department of Land & Natural Resources. I would ask that the Finance Committee consider this measure and whether or not it would violate the Constitution, special interest provision, i.e., Superferry. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations and a brief comment. I think the thing that's most troublesome about this bill is that it takes away some of the rights of the employers. I think we all want to achieve a good balance between the employee and the employer, because that's necessary to ensuring good working conditions for our employees.

"However, the independent medical examination is one of the employer's only ways to verify that indeed some of the workers' compensation claims are indeed necessary and legitimate. I think people need to have workers' compensation and people need to have good medical examinations, but I also don't want to be so overly restrictive with employer's rights that there's not a balance for the employer, and in so doing, ends up driving some of our employers away from employing people. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I'd like to ask for a potential ruling on a conflict of interest. Our family has, and I work at, a company that would be impacted by this measure," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Kawakami continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, and I'd like to ask to adopt the words of the Minority Leader as if they were my own. I'd like to also add that, although the intent sounds good, the current law already allows for appropriate checks and balances. The law specifies that the employee, when ordered by the director, shall submit to the examination of a qualified physician designated by the director and paid for by the employer.

"The other thing that this bill does is it states that only, only the attending physician can determine whether the injury or the injured has reached medical stability. This overrides everything, this overrides the worker saying that they're fine and they can go back to work. This overrides the employer and the insurer. This also gives total authority to the physician, who now has no incentive to get this patient off of their record books.

"So, the intent was well, but if we want to continue to hurt small businesses, this is a great way to do it. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to vote with reservations and to adopt the words from our Minority Leader as my own. As well as, because employers are an endangered species in my district, I am very concerned about anything that would have any further impact on their existence in my district. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. It's a common practice when you're hiring somebody or if there's anything about an employee that you question as an employer, to visit their Facebook and Twitter accounts. It turns out 75% of employers now require that practice, while over 90% do it when they're hiring someone without the requirement.

"But I've been reading more and more about how some employers, corporations, businesses and even schools as a matter of fact, are requiring access to their employee's and applicant's social media accounts. Now they're not entitled to that, only people are entitled to their own accounts. Under no circumstance should an employer be requesting or demanding a password or any confidential information from their subordinate.

"It's akin to the practice that is clearly, unequivocally illegal of coming into someone's house and looking through their belongings, rummaging or invading their privacy by opening mail, perhaps. There are some definite parallels there and it begs a question of, how do we allow someone to access such completely personal information without any protection. So, this bill is just about employee's privacy and it's really common sense. It's been enacted in a few states now, and I think in the interest of workers, it's time that Hawaii catches up."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to respond, stating:

"Please note that amendments were made to exempt law enforcement during their hiring practices. There are also some concerns about whether or not an employer will be able to friend their employee on Facebook, still can. Whether or not they'll be able to request any email information, what their address is, given that it could be a username for a social media account, still can. You just can't demand it, especially if there's going to be any repercussions if there's non-compliance."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 713, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOCIAL MEDIA," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representatives Belatti, Cachola, Coffman and Takai being excused.

This is a historical, important bill that heretofore, prior to that Committee, was actually to charge antique vehicles 1 cent per pound and another increase in their registration fee.

"This bill actually reduces, I repeat, reduces the registration fee and in effect like some elderly people are given more respect, we're going to respect antique cars rather than punish them. This is good policy and I would encourage the Finance Committee to not alter or defy what otherwise we have done historically with this bill. Thank you, Chair."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, I've mentioned Historical Day for a number of reasons and it is historical because one of the greatest American presidents was born today. Abraham Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809. Everybody knows him as Honest Abe, a man who lost more elections than probably all of us combined have won in our lifespan. He was the one who kept the Union together during the Civil War and he gave these words at the Gettysburg Address which resound in all of our hearts. He said that 'we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.'

"Mr. Speaker, I just say as a footnote that he inspires and was one of the founders, if not the founder of the Minority Party, and he drives a lot of the hearts and minds of your Minority. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott: "Mr. Speaker, today is the 40th anniversary of the release of the POWs from the Hanoi Hilton, and I know we have three of those residents in the State of Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Saiki: "Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to remind all Members that they are invited to a luncheon and a Committee Chair training following Floor session in Room 329. This event is sponsored by the National Asian Pacific American Caucus of State Legislators and the National Conference of State Legislatures. Thank you."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.B. No. 231, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 231, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak in support with some reservations. Essentially, Mr. Speaker, my reservations are two-fold. First of all, let me thank the Chair of the Judiciary Committee for working on this measure. He changed the presumption borne by the defendant to a rebuttable presumption, and I appreciate the importance of that rebuttable presumption.

"My concern basically centers around the fact that the list of nine acts may not be an exhaustive list to the different types of defenses or actions that we may want to forbid the use of the parental defense argument. That's one concern that I have. There are certain instances where that list may not be exhaustive and therefore used by defense counsel to actually subvert the intent of the offense.

"Number two, is also the changing of the burden of proof requirements upon the defendant. I am voting in support of this, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to also vote with reservations and to have the comments of the previous speaker inserted as my own. As well as the addition that, as I grew up as a little kid in the Pacific Islands that I'm most familiar with the Kingdom of Tonga and Samoa. I have been greatly concerned with the content of the character of the youth here that we find in the great State of Hawaii. But, from my personal experience as a youth growing up, there was no intrusion of government into the way children were raised in Samoa and in the Kingdom of Tonga.

"But here, in the United States of America, where I have found greater intrusion into the close circle of the family, I have been less impressed with the content of the character of the youth here. I have found, and my concerns and reservations rise greatly, that our further intrusion into telling parents what they can and cannot do will not facilitate the strengthening of the youth of our great state. So, those are my reservations, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Fale be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Saiki rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this motion.

"I want to clarify that the proposed amendment to the mens rea element of the parental discipline defense should not be construed to mean that spanking is an unacceptable 'force.' It is accepted that spanking that arises out of anger or short temper should not automatically lead to the conclusion that it was 'not reasonably related to the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of [a] minor.' As the Hawaii Supreme Court has held, 'an angry moment driving moderate or reasonable discipline is often part and parcel of the real world of parenting with which prosecutors and courts should not interfere.' State v. Kikuta, 125 Hawai'i 78, 91-92, 253 P.3d 639, 652-653 (Hawai'i 2011).

"Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. I wish I could remember my speech of last year because the same bill is the same issue of promoting monopoly, capitalism, and charging exorbitant rates for a licensure to insure portable electronics. Mr. Speaker, this bill allows people to insure devices such as the one that I have in my hand, which some of us pay $7.95 per month, in case we lose it, break it, drop it, make it dysfunctional or somebody steals it.

"Last year this bill came up and said, we're going to charge you $5,000 because there's a company on the mainland that has 80% of the market and that's what they're charging. And we said, no, we don't want to charge that much here. So it went down to $150. And lo-and-behold what happens, this baby pops up again and it's back to $5,000, Mr. Speaker.

"That is unfair, unwarranted, and I know the Committee report says well, look we're just trying to do industry standards on the mainland. Well I know a comparable sales tax of twelve percent in California doesn't justify us increasing our GE Tax. So the logic of this I just don't know because it's going to keep the small guys from entering into any insurance proposition and that's basically why Europe is so entrepreneurially backward, because they've created a monopoly capitalism by making the entry level so high that anybody who wants to do anything, they've got to have all of these leaps and hurdles and costs in order to enter.

"So I say let's keep it as it is. These are nice the way they are. Let's go back and keep the old $150 as sufficient. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the measure and wish to have the words of the Representative from Hawaii Kai inserted as my own, in addition to the comments that, I'm trying to help find markets for the youth in my community to enter into. And if we raise the standard so high that the youth in my community won't have a chance to operate in this area, then it's going to be unfair to the young entrepreneurs in my community, and therefore I oppose the measure, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker, and I think this is one of the many measures that we are entertaining this session that would increase fees. I make an analogy with the, although this is not the bill at hand, with the money transfers wherein they keep upping it to limit the small guy. So I'm in opposition, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I know it's with great surprise I rise against this measure and would like to deliver a few comments. Mr. Speaker, 26 years ago if I wanted to get a copy of my marriage certificate, which I actually had to do, it was $2. Now it's $15, or it could be raised higher, the way I read the bill. The amount has been blanked out. The fact of the matter is, Mr. Speaker, these are services that every working family accesses. Everyone needs to get a copy of their birth certificate. Everyone needs to get a death certificate. Everyone needs to get a marriage certificate for filing forms and other things.

"Mr. Speaker, this hits our working families the hardest. Now, they go to work and they say, why am I paying my taxes? When we say, well to fund government. Except when you use it, then you've got to pay more. They don't understand that. And Mr. Speaker, neither do I.

"Somewhere along the line we have lost control, which is why we are unnecessarily raising these fees. I would suggest that instead of raising fees, the various departments that come before us, such as this one here, look inward and say, are we doing everything as efficiently as possible. It's easy to say, give me more money. I've never heard any government agency come before us and say, you know what, we've got some room to cut, we can make some cuts, we're not operating as efficiently as possible. No, it's always more, more, more, more.

"And here we are again. We're the gatekeepers. We guard the pocketbooks of the working families. And here we are reaching into there again and again. I've seen this measure so many times over my career, and here we are back again. And then, if you want an expedited copy of a death certificate, well not only has your loved one died, we're going to charge you $50 as a courtesy. I mean, that's ridiculous, that should be absolutely stricken out of there.

"And then for each additional copy, the worker is already at the copy machine, they're making the copy, we're charging them $15 or whatever it is for that copy, and then if they want an extra one, it's not 3 cents, the cost of the paper, it's another $4 or $5. But it's discounted, we're doing them a favor. Because instead of hitting button one, we hit two, and for that we charge them an extra $4. Again, Mr. Speaker, we have to stop this, we're addicted to it, we have to stop reaching into their pockets. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I drive from my community out here to Honolulu and it takes me awhile to get here. And every time I check my wallet to see if I have $2 or $3 in there, because if I have $3, you have to have, I don't know if it's like 10 cents, I don't know whatever the taxes are, about 10 cents if you're ordering off the 'Dollar Menu' it's going to be like $1.10, so I need $3 and some change. Because I always want to stop off at the McDonalds either in Kaneohe over in Temple Valley, or the one over in Kalihi on School Street. I order a McDouble, because the Double Cheeseburger went away, it was too expensive, you only get one piece of cheese now, a McChicken and a small fries, okay."

The Chair addressed Representative Fale, stating:

"Representative, we're on Stand. Com. No. 366, not McDonalds."

Representative Fale continued, stating:

"So for us, for the little guys who drive who can only afford to order off the 'Dollar Menu,' because that's all we can afford, and then to come into Honolulu because we do travel far, we have to pay all the extra taxes related to gas and everything else."

Speaker Souki: "Representative, I'm going to have to call you out of order. If you can still stick to the vital records fees that you may be opposed to. Will you please speak to it?"

Representative Fale: "What I'm saying is, is that I just feel like people don't understand what the small working guys are going through and if you're coming all the way from there to go to the Department of Health to pick up whatever document you need, whether it's a death certificate, marriage certificate, birth certificate or whatever it is. If I can barely find $3 to order off the 'Dollar Menu,' how am I going to find $15 to pick up a certificate?

"So what I'm saying, Mr. Speaker, is that this is just getting out of hand and the working mothers and fathers in my community are struggling where we're at. This, the burden, one straw gets thrown on day after day and it's just too much. It's just too much, Mr. Speaker. And I would like to have the words from the Representative from Ewa inserted as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in the same spirit of Frank Fasi's concern for the small guy, I'd like to register a no vote. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker. I have serious reservations on this measure. This is the inclusion of all medical service personnel to have an assault in the second degree if they ever get, so called, assaulted. This is an inclusion of a lot of people to that category, Mr. Speaker, and so that's my reservation. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise against this measure. Mr. Speaker, this increases fees for obtaining a marriage license from $60 to $100. Mr. Speaker, this is another fee increase and it goes to funding some very worthy programs, and I will note that, and the intention is wonderful. But, if these are indeed worthy programs, they should be put into the general operating budget and compete like every other worthy program for funding, and that's our job to make the hard decisions.

"They may or may not make the cut, but when we increase fees and attach a nexus to things like this, they're not going into that process, we're bypassing it. And we need to focus on what we're supposed to do while we're here and focus on the core essential functions of government. And if these are core essential functions, let them go to the Finance Committee, let them work through their process, but when we do this we take them out of that.

"Do we need to expand these programs? Do we need to add more people? I don't know, Mr. Speaker, I'm not on Finance. But I do know that we've added over 600 people to the State payroll in the last two years in the executive branch alone. So, when we say we don't have enough money, we are bringing extra people on, we are growing the size of government and we're doing it through measures like this.

"Now from $60 to $100, I will tell you as a young couple 26 years ago, my wife and I got married at the courthouse. I didn't have $100, I didn't have $50. I don't know how much it was in those days, it was a couple bucks. This would have been a real strain for me to execute that.

"So again, I'm against it. We've got to live within our means and this is a sneaky tax increase we're passing along. We've got to stop."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 895, HD 1. This measure would raise the tax on marriage licenses from $60 to $100, which places even more of an economic strain on new couples. Families around the state are struggling to survive in these difficult economic times, and it would not be prudent to add to their burden by increasing the costs of obtaining a marriage license. While the idea of being more proactive regarding domestic violence and sexual assault is a noble one, I have serious concerns that this approach represents a fee increase that some may not be able to afford given Hawaii's already high cost of living."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support with a few remarks. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would just urge the Committee Members to look at the underlying testimony. In fact, some of this money is going towards funding the Department's functions, in particular the partnerships with our visitor industry to establish people in those tourist locations to be agents of the State so that we can in fact conduct marriages and assist with that very vibrant part of our economy. So, there is a direct nexus between the fees that are being increased and the monies and positions to which it is being put towards. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I understand the underlying causes of why we want to raise this for spouse and child abuse and special accounts and such. But I would like to see a strengthening of the cultural fiber of our community that I believe would more effectively address these concerns, than having to reach into the pockets of our working community again, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with all due respect, this is precisely what I'm talking about. We're raising marriage fees to underwrite the promotion of marriage tourism. Why should a local young man and woman living anywhere in this community have to underwrite the promotion of tourism through their marriage license fees? It's ridiculous. That's what the HTA is supposed to do. That's why we have them, that's why they go to Finance and they make their case. And in their budget they're supposed to do all of these things. If not, it falls on the young backs of the working couple 24 years old. And that's who's getting married, the 23, 24 year olds for the vast majority of this. And we're asking them to subsidize a position to promote marriage tourism. Ridiculous. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 895, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE LICENSE FEES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. You made me the Chair of Housing, a Committee that is very, very difficult. And I'm the voice of a lot of homeless people in this Chamber. House Bill 898, Relating to Parked Vehicles, the intended consequence is to remove those people who are working homeless, living in their cars, from our streets. I agree it's not meant to be a place for habitation, and we all want our streets to be used for what they are intended. But because of the number of un-housed homeless that we have here, they become the safe haven.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise against this measure. Mr. Speaker, this authorizes the PUC to give preference to renewable energy resources that reduce or eliminate the use of fossil fuel. Mr. Speaker, I want the PUC to give preferences to whatever will lower the electric bill for our community. You go door-to-door, you talk to people, you say, man my electric bill is so high, they blame HECO. Well HECO is just passing the fuel cost on that they get from Chevron and Tesoro when they were in existence.

"The people want their electric bill lowered. They don't care whether it's natural gas or six gerbils running around in a little wheel. They don't care, they just want to be able to turn on their computer, turn on their TV, and they want the lowest price possible. That's the real world, away from all of this political subterfuge.

"And Mr. Speaker, I would point out in the Committee report, Mr. Speaker, I'm an educated man, not a brilliant man, not a particularly bright man, but I am an educated man. I cannot understand the first paragraph in this Committee report. It is one sentence, and I can read, but I am unable to decipher what it means. So, please, a little more clarity, and I would urge this Body, let's focus on what's good for the rate payer. Mr. Speaker, I have some good news and some bad news."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak in support of the measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My colleague from Ewa Beach was evidently referring to the original bill. The bill has been amended in Energy & Environmental Protection, and it's asking the Public Utilities Commission to submit a report to the Legislature after the PUC examines the potential for giving preference to certain renewable energy technologies.

"The preference, Mr. Speaker, will include pricing. It will include the examination of what does it do for our customers, our rate payers, when we move away from high priced fossil fuel. So, I believe that this is a good way to go to look at renewables, which for the most part we know are cheaper than the ever escalating fossil fuel. And then to come back to us before the beginning of the 2014 Legislative Session so we can save money for the rate payers. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I have the bill and the Committee report in front of me and again my comments on, maybe I didn't understand, because I can't understand what it says here.

"The second thing is, listening to the previous speaker or some of the other comments, this might be a shot across the bow to make it impossible for us to use natural gas. This is going to do a study with all of these various factors which I don't understand, Mr. Speaker. And formulas and procedures and protocols that may make it impossible for us to bring in natural gas. America is awash in natural gas, it could lower our electric bill here by thirty percent even when capital improvement costs are taken into consideration. So, this is a bad idea for the electric bill payer, it's a bad idea all around. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, strong reservations."

Their Cadet Program enables the development of leadership skills to produce bright, poised and disciplined youth and young adults. CAP also provides an invaluable service as an extension of the State's Civil Defense mission in their abilities to use aircrafts to reach areas in the State that cannot be covered by any of the normal warning systems.

"In late October 2012, CAP was called upon to provide tsunami warnings to the community as they were capable of alerting campers along the Hilo shore who were beyond the sirens and where Civil Defense sirens had failed. CAP was able to perform this public service at minimal cost to the government, primarily because they have pilots that are trained to respond to such emergencies."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, I have an uneasy conscience about the broken promise that's in this bill. We promised the industry that if we raised the TAT Tax by 2%, we would sunset it. And this takes away the sunset, therefore taking away our promise.

"The subculture, the word is, you guys always do that, you put in a tax, you never take it away. That belittles the profession, it makes us less credible. And I would say this is probably a good warm up, a good training wheel for what's going to be a real big decision by this Body when the increase on Oahu of 5% for the rail expires in a number of years. I think the public will really see how we keep our word or we don't. I think this is just the beginning. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I have some serious doubts about this. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise against this measure. I'd like to have the words of the Representative from Hawaii Kai inserted as if they were my own, and echo the fact that we gave our word to the industry a few years ago that this would be temporary. Now we've gone back on that, and Mr. Speaker, as was pointed out to me in the past few weeks in a very difficult set of negotiations with a friend of mine, that once you give your word in this Body, you keep it, even if you have a change of heart. So I was willing to stick by that. I didn't like it, but I stuck by it. Now, we gave our word as a public institution, now we're going back on it.

"What I also find troubling was the floating of a potential increase, Mr. Speaker. It was all out there. Let people draw their own assumptions as to why that was done. But I think, my view is, it left the folks who are paying this tax with the idea that, you'd better take this because this is the best deal you're getting. So I find that very troubling. I think this tax is a symptom of a failure on our part to get our spending in control. Revenue is going up, why are we going back on our word? We can't control our spending. And whether it's this tax or the myriad of fees, we have a problem, Mr. Speaker.

"Now, the bill does do a few good things, it removes the tax on complimentary rooms. Boy, that was mighty nice of us to remove the tax on complimentary rooms. And it does remove the cap on the monies that will go into the funds, so those are two good things. But we didn't keep our word to the industry, Mr. Speaker, and this is our key industry, our primary industry. And so for those reasons, I am against it."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition, with the same sentiment that has been spoken by the two speakers before me, Mr. Speaker. I bring my family into this building every now and then, and I want them, I want my little brothers and sisters to be able to look up to me and to be able to say, 'my older brother always kept his word.' Now this is something that we set as a standard as Representatives of the great State of Hawaii.

"If we tell somebody that we're going through hard times, we need you to help out, and then when we're through the hard times we'll cut back, we'll give you back what we had taken from you. Whether this goes through or not, the fact that we are actually contemplating it, to even send out that message that we're thinking about breaking our word, I think is very bad as a public statement, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Ke ku nei au me ka kanalua, no ka mea o ka ʻōlelo oia ka mea nui no na po'i me na pilina.

"I'm rising with strong reservations. Our word is our word when we create our relationships. So we should all remember that. Mahalo."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. It's one of the fundamental principles of a legislature that we cannot bind a future legislature. So, this idea of going back on our word is tempered by the fact that there's going to be a new legislature after this one that can undo everything that we've done if they choose to. So, I don't see it in the same terms.

"I would also say that, I guess it was two or three years ago now when we passed a law that temporarily increased the TAT. The assurance and warning from the tourism industry that this increase, I think it was a 2% increase, was going to have just absolutely catastrophic effects on the tourism industry. Though I don't take raising taxes lightly, those predictions were 180 degrees off base. On the contrary, the tourism industry has grown by leaps and bounds, and if my recollection is correct, in 2012 they had a record year for revenue and I believe for visitors as well. So, there's also some question about whether what we were being told two years ago was actually accurate information or not. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with slight reservations. Thank you very much. Reservations are to the permanency of the 9.25%. Although the previous speaker was correct, however for the neighbor islands, the RevPAR for the rooms decreased quite significantly because of this and as a result the visitor industry on the neighbor islands is still trying to play catch-up. So, I'd like to see maybe another sunset or something, so we can come back and look at this, but it has had an effect on the neighbor islands. That's my only concern. Thank you."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. Thank you. Reading the testimony of the Hawaii Tourism Authority, they show concerns, like a lot of people in the House have concerns about this. But we're maintaining a tax which we can in the future decide to decrease or increase depending on what the situation is. And we are at a pivotal point with new incoming travelers, because hopefully the new business will be repeat business in the future. And also checking the testimony of the counties, they have concerns, like legislators, but they also want what they feel is their share of the TAT. So to keep promotions and the county share of the TAT coming, I think for now we should maintain this tax where it is. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time. Mr. Speaker, I remember 26 years ago, we didn't have this tax. Now we're addicted to it and we keep raising it. We're like a crack addict, we can't get enough. And we tell them how lucky they are that we're only taking 9%, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, supporters of this measure were the Hawaii Tourism Authority, and they cautiously supported 9.2% with amendments.

"Opponents: Department of Finance; Country of Kauai; Gladys Baisa, Council Chair, Maui County Council; Don Couch, Robert Carroll, Riki Hokama, Council Members, Maui County Council; Hawaii Council of Mayors; Hawaii Lodging and Tourism Association; Chamber of Commerce Hawaii; Maui Hotel and Lodging Association; Waikiki Improvement Association; Maui Chamber of Commerce; Outrigger Hotels.

"One person, one entity as far as I can see, was in support of this measure. We're addicted to the money, we have to let Finance Committee make the hard decisions with the revenue we have coming in. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. I rise in support for two reasons. Number one is, if many of you look at your hotel bills in various places throughout the mainland, you'll notice that they have hotel room taxes quite similar to the one that we're discussing today. It is not uncommon for tourist destinations, or business destinations for that matter, to levy these taxes on hotel users or people who purchase hotel rooms. That's quite common.

"But you may not notice, if you take a look at the bill, it removes a $10 a day surcharge that we're charging hoteliers when they give complimentary rooms, that's removed. So you should take note of that because that's a 'give back.'

"But the second reason why I stand in support of this is, many of you may not know, because Waikiki is in our backyard and not too many of us go to Waikiki, but just recently most of the hotels in Waikiki started what they call the resort fee. It's like a $20 to $30, sometimes $35 a day resort fee. No one's complaining about that. But the hoteliers are getting it and the reason for them doing it is because everybody else is. You take a look at all of the resort destinations, the tourist destinations throughout the world, and lo and behold, you see this resort fee. This daily resort fee. It may give you free parking, it may give you free Internet, but the fact is, it's $25 to $30 more per day. We're doing it.

"So, we can remove this tax and remove or put back the levy on the daily surcharge for free rooms, but everybody else is doing this. So why not do it? Because this revenue not only enhances the visitor experience for our visitor friends coming to Hawaii, but also helps us as a state. So, I stand in support of this measure. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I would like the words of the previous speaker as if they were my own. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, with just a couple of footnotes. Number one, I think it's really dangerous to assume that tourism is always going to be gangbusters. The rest of the world is developing top rate hotels at top rate prices. We have really got global competition going, so I think it's naïve to think that we can keep pressing the tax button on these guys and expect them to be surviving.

"Secondly, we are a leisure destination, we're not a business destination. When you go to San Francisco or New York and pay those high taxes, that's when your company or your agency is going to pick up that stuff. Here we have families, we have leisure destination. You come here primarily for leisure, not business. So it's a different deductibility.

"And thirdly, there is a bill that's floating for the previous speaker's edification, to tax those 'resort fees' that are being attached to the bill. So there'll be a TAT tax on what he just said now is a free ride.

"And lastly, let's be realistic, we held a 2% increase over the heads of the hotel executives. If you don't want this 2% increase, you better agree to a non-sunset to the 2%. Mr. Speaker, that's the reality of the political hard ball that this bill plays with. But I think it's again, it's a warm up for the game when we have the rail tax increase on Oahu of 0.5%, are we going to keep our word to the people of Hawaii or are we not going to keep our word. To me that's the essence of this bill, too. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in strong support. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, as we all know, tourism, if not one of the strongest economies in our state, is maybe the top two or three. So it's extremely competitive and the money from the TAT does in turn go to support the necessary infrastructure improvements in the Waikiki District and other resort areas, as well as throughout our state in which our tourists do utilize. As well as the sales and marketing cost to continue having our tourism market boom as it has in this past year. And even the Hawaii Tourism Authority is dependent upon the TAT money to have their department thrive.

"So, again, in support and I hope that the Members see the relevance and the extreme need to continue our tourism the way we're moving in the right direction. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, in support. Just a brief response to the Representative from Hawaii Kai, regarding the fact that Hawaii is a leisure destination. That is absolutely true, but you need only look at other leisure destinations in the country, for example Las Vegas. I think most people, except probably for you, Mr. Speaker, go to Las Vegas not for work. Their tax is 12%. Orlando, I think we all know where that is, has a 12.5% tax. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I was here when the tax was increased. I was just a regular guy running around outside. And I heard it was said, it's just for a short time. It's just until we get through the challenges that we have right now. I'm a strong believer that your word is your bond. We have to be able to lay our foundation based upon that.

"It does all these great things, it does all this good stuff and everything, but more importantly, if we say we're going to sunset something, we've got to be able to garner the faith and trust of the people. Honestly, it's disappointing for me to say, 'well this Legislature can't bind any future Legislature.' Then don't say that. Because I heard it with my own two ears, that this is only for that short time. It's just disappointing to be able to, I hope it's a precedent that doesn't proceed into the future, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, just a friendly rebuttal to the comments made by the Representative from Laie. Although we realize that our word is our bond, in times like these when the economy throughout the world is so, looking at particular market segments. And when we have a hold on tourism in our State of Hawaii and to the extent that we depend on it, it would behoove us not to look at this particular measure and to move it forward. Because in order for us to continue, the monies that were derived from that fund have actually lead us to where we are today, a leader in the tourism industry. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations, in the interest of the economy of my home island. And a brief comment on keeping our word. I agree that it's vital that we do, as an institution, in order to keep the public trust. But when I say 'we,' that's, I think, where the misunderstanding may be. Because we as a Legislature, is not the same Legislature as a few years ago. As a matter of fact, when this measure was first passed I think I was a couple of years out of high school and that was a different Legislature representing a different body of people, a different public. And the decisions we make this year need to reflect our constituents, not the constituents of however many years ago."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 963, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Cabanilla, for the Committee on Housing, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 422) recommending that H.B. No. 935, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 935, HD 2 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to rise in opposition to this one. Mr. Speaker, as a courtesy to you, I'm going to keep my remarks brief. But, I would like to say, this goes again to the fact that we are not prioritizing and not letting our esteemed Finance Committee do the tough work.

"We have employees who do not feel they are made whole yet. We have many other needs and here is a tax increase on families who are buying their first home, buying homes, buying condominiums, starter homes. We're going to charge them extra money for a program that I think is dubious at best and will absolutely have marginal or negligible impact on the environment. And so, I'm going to save the rest of my comments for another bill coming down relating to this in the future. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 935, HD2; a bill that increases the conveyance tax in our state. This bill will raise the price of real estate transactions valued at $2 million or greater. Although I understand it is important to protect our watershed, control invasive species and also support the Rental Housing Trust Fund; I believe that these worthwhile projects should be funded through the general fund.

"The net effect of this bill will be that taxes will be increased and this will have a negative impact upon the economy. In addition, high taxes on property conveyance may have a chilling effect on the construction industry. This is something that will affect working class people negatively.

"It is notable that the Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii submitted testimony that stated, 'There is no rational nexus between the real estate transactions that are being taxed at conveyance, and the uses identified in HRS 247 as the beneficiaries of the tax.' The Hawaii Association of Realtors (HAR) also testified in opposition to this bill. HAR pointed out that the conveyance tax is applied 'whether or not a property is sold at a gain or a loss.'

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I oppose HB 935, HD2."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 935, HD 2. This bill would seek to increase the conveyance tax on all properties over $2 million dollars. While HB 935 has a noble purpose in aiding in Hawaii's watershed protection efforts as well as in funding invasive species control, the bill seems to be lacking a very clear nexus between the sale and improvement of real estate in Hawaii and the need for watershed protection. For that reason, I will be voting with reservations."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 935, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVEYANCE TAX," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Choy, for the Committee on Higher Education, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 423) recommending that H.B. No. 657, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 657, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Takayama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict. My wife is a consultant with the UH Cancer Center," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, taxation does change behavior. We have raised the taxes on prepackaged cigarettes so high that people will go out of their way to buy the raw tobacco to roll their own cigarettes to avoid the taxation of $8 a pack. The retail cost is about $8 to $9 a pack, depending on where you buy them. That has been so burdensome for our community that some people actually go and do this. I don't smoke, so I don't do this, but it goes to the fact that taxation does affect behavior. Now these people are trying to get around it, so now we're chasing them for a couple extra bucks. We won't leave them alone.

"If it's that bad, let's outlaw it. You've heard that before. If tobacco is that bad, let's just be done with it. But let's not try and make money off these folks. And this is just another revenue grab, the way I look at it. And yeah, it goes to great causes, no doubt about that. But people are finding a way around it. Human beings are smart, this loophole will be closed and then there'll be another way around it. They're going to get there one way or another. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to commend the Chair of Health for introducing this measure and for identifying what the Representative from Ewa Beach has identified as a loophole or leakage in our tobacco taxes. It is true, there are people that are buying loose tobacco and rolling their own. But they should be also paying taxes. Because we have, and proudly so, one of the highest cigarette taxes in the nation. And there's no reason why people that are smoking or using other tobacco products should not be partaking in the pleasure of providing our state with these taxes that seriously go to benefit some of the concerns that we have as it relates to cancer and tobacco usage.

"In the hearing we had a great discussion with the University of Hawaii Cancer Center, and made a few requests. I'd like to, with your permission, Mr. Speaker, enter into the Journal the response from the Cancer Center in regards to that discussion, if I may. Thank you.

"One of the concerns that was addressed in the hearing, was that all these funds coming in, even for the Tobacco Tax right now, goes to very important areas of state government, emergency management, the Cancer Center and the like. One of the things that it doesn't go to is into the cancer prevention efforts. We call them the tri-agencies: The American Heart, the American Lung, and the American Cancer Society. They used to partake in some seriously significant amounts of money through the Master Settlement Agreement, but over the years that support has eroded.

"So although they support, and the Coalition for Tobacco Free Hawaii supports House Bill 657 because it increases tobacco taxes, it provides a funding stream to areas that they support. One of the things that was highlighted in the discussion is it doesn't take care of the prevention efforts. I would like to see over the next few months an effort to provide some of this additional revenue to the American Heart Association, Cancer, Lung and the Coalition for a Tobacco Free Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. As a little kid growing up, this is the kind of tobacco that my grandfather used. In a country where dollars are a very rare thing to come by, this is the only tobacco that he could afford.

"As one of the Members that live the furthest from the State Capitol Building, when I would ride the public buses to and from Honolulu, I would sit next to the people who would sit and roll their own cigarettes because they couldn't afford the bigger ones. Small little farmers, guys who would, as they approached the Windward Mall, put on their jacket, their uniform jacket to go to work at one of the stores inside the mall. So, I know who is going to get hit by this the most. I sit next to them very often. They go to work on our farms, they go to work in our small shops.

"I don't think, Mr. Speaker, that I could support any measure that would take any more nickels or dimes from that community, because I know they're struggling and I know they're hurting. So with that, Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting no on this measure."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the way I read the Committee report, only 37% of this new revenue will go to cancer related programs. My math might not be correct. I didn't do that well in school in math, but 37%. Additionally, Mr. Speaker, it taxes Skoal, Copenhagen, things of that nature, the same as cigarettes, and they don't have the same impact as cigarettes. They're not as bad for you. Still not good for you of course, but they're still not as bad for you. So we're treating them the same.

"So that means, if you want to buy a can of Copenhagen dip, it's now $9. There are people who use that, and we're just sticking it to the little guy. We throw one-third of it to cancer research and we say, 'yeah, it's for cancer.' But it's really for the general fund. That's the problem."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations, along the lines of the previous speaker. I fully, 100% support the intent of this measure. I'm not aware of how much we fund the cancer research through our general fund, and I just want to make sure that if we move this forward, that whatever special fund increase we'll make or whatever special fund we're allotting this to, isn't going to be taking from the general fund. If we're going to say that this tax is going to be used for the Cancer Research Center, let's make sure it's used for that and not replacing whatever's in the general fund, using it for something else. Because it's those types of practices that really, I think, destroys the public trust of our institution."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. I just want to highlight that I agree with the Representative from Ewa Beach that previously spoke. What always concerns me when we increase taxes on cigarettes and tobacco products is it really looks like we're trying to get more money, like we really want people to smoke because we want the money.

"Because if you look at the way they wrote the bill, clearly the money is being put towards a trauma special fund, community health centers, emergency medical services. Is this really about changing people's behavior because we think smoking is a bad thing.

"If this Body really goes down this path and finds the nexus of increasing taxes because they want to stop people's behavior, then we have other bills, I believe, about taxing soda pop. Maybe we should tax sugar because clearly there's a nexus between diabetes and kidney disease and other things that have high sugar. So we can start using that as a reason to start taxing those products if it's really health related. So I just have concerns that this is really about raising money. For that reason I have reservations. Thank you."

Projected Budget Plan
(Millions of Dollars)

Fiscal Year	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018
Beginning Cash Balance	46	27	12	5	1	2	3	3
Revenues	22	22	22	22	24	24	24	24
Cigarette Tax	18	17	17	17	17	17	17	17
Philathropy	2	2	2	1	1	1	1	1
Indirect Cost Return	2	3	3	4	6	6	6	6
Expenditures	41	37	29	26	23	23	24	24
Operating	23	23	20	16	15	15	16	16
Building	18	14	9	8	8	8	8	8
Ending Cash Balance	27	12	5	1	2	3	3	3

Budget Plan Revenue Assumptions

- Cigarette tax revenue declined 4% last year and is projected to decline 4% this year. We assume another 4% drop before stabilization.
- Indirect cost return is projected from current grant revenue of $30M. Increase in revenue would result from addition of funded investigators and a higher percentage indirect cost return to be negotiated for new facility.
- Philanthropy is expected to increase in conjunction with new building construction and decline after completion.

Budget Plan Expenditure Assumptions

- Salary expenditures based on typical compensation packages for biomedical researchers
- Facility operating expenses based on medical school Kakaako research facility expenses

Challenges

- Loss of General Funds or reductions in special or revolving funds would negatively impact budget
- Indirect cost return revenue dependent on successful researcher recruitment and availability of biomedical research funding
- Philanthropy may be negatively impacted by the economy and other competing needs such as the Sendai earthquake and tsunami
- Cigarette tax revenues may decline further than estimated in this operating budget plan

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations, and just an observation. If we're looking for revenue and we're looking at taxing plants by the ounce that people are going to roll into their own, we should cut to the chase and dump this for House Bill 150. Thank you very much."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations. I do share some of the concerns that the Representative from Aiea raised about where the money is going. I do think it would make more sense to plow it straight back into smoking cessation programs.

"But previous speakers have indicated that they feel like this is nickel and diming people who can't afford it. But the problem with that argument is that, according to the Center for Disease Control, each pack of cigarettes causes $10 worth of damage, $10 worth of damage to society. Currently our taxes are at $3.20. So until that gap is closed between $3.20 and $10, we're essentially subsidizing smokers because of all the damage they do to themselves and those around them that we all end up paying for. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 657, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TOBACCO PRODUCTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Choy, for the Committee on Higher Education, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 424) recommending that H.B. No. 1073, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1073, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you very much. We had a really great discussion in Committee and I wanted to thank the Chair of Higher Ed for allowing for this discussion. One of the things we asked the University for was some information as to how much they're spending for outside legal counsel. They provided us with information and I think it's important to note that this information is quite significant. I believe that the cost to operate the general counsel's office per year is about $800,000. But we learned through the discussions at the hearing and subsequently to that, the information provided by the University, that the University is spending about $2 million a year in outside counsel.

"This particular measure attempts to address that and other things, and I do think that that information is noteworthy. And as such, I would like to request inserting that into the Journal if I may. Thank you."

Representative Takai submitted the following:

Re: Office of the University General Counsel for the University of Hawai'i System

Dear Representative Choy:

On behalf of the Board of Regents of the University of Hawai'i System, we have provided herein general information regarding the Office of the University General Counsel ("OGC"). Please let us know if, after review of this letter, you require any further detail or specific information.

Executive Summary

- OGC's goal is to serve the University's legal needs in rendering quality legal services in a timely manner to support the University in meeting its mission "to provide all qualified people of Hawai'i an equal opportunity for quality college and university education at both graduate and undergraduate levels."
- The OGC works on all areas of the law pertaining to state agencies and large companies in general, but also works on specialized areas of law unique to an institution of higher learning to support the core mission for the benefit of the citizens of the State of Hawai'i.
- The budget allocation and actual expenses of the OGC has remained relatively constant since Fiscal Year 2008 despite tremendous growth experienced by the University.
- The retention of outside legal counsel to complement the work of the OGC is done only when it is deemed in the best interest of the University or if there is a legal conflict which prevents the OGC from rendering legal services in a particular matter.

Operational Background

- What kinds of cases does the OGC focus on?

As background, the OGC was created by the Legislature in 1999 as a direct outgrowth of constitutional autonomy for the University. Prior to that, the University relied on the state Department of the Attorney General for legal counsel, just as the other state departments do. The Department of the Attorney General assigned one or two attorneys to the University to handle the University's entire legal services workload.

There are many reasons that the OGC is critical to the University's growth and future success:

The growth of the University system with 10 campuses statewide over the past ten years has been significant. This is evidenced by the University's record enrollments for several consecutive years and the increase in the University's workforce (faculty and staff) since the time the OGC was established. The University's growth, combined with issues that are unique to higher education (including such areas as research, academic programs, development, and collegiate athletics), required dedicated legal expertise to facilitate the attainment of the goals and mission of the University. The Legislature determined the creation of the OGC was to be an integral part of the University's success in its autonomy.

Operationally, the OGC monitors the number of legal matters handled by the office, status of those legal matters, and provides quality legal services to the University in a timely manner. The OGC reports directly to the Board of Regents and the President of the University.

OGC basic facts:

- Serves the University (a statewide "corporate body" having an annual operating budget of approximately $1.4 billion per year, with approximately 8,000 to 10,000 employees statewide and approximately $4 billion in net assets.)
- Staff: 1 General Counsel/6 Staff Attorneys/3 secretaries/1 secretary-legal assistant/1 legal assistant [1 staff attorney position and 1 secretary position currently vacant]
- Current number of active and open matters: approximately 1,625
- Average number of new matters opened per year: approximately 650-750
- OGC Operating Budget: approximately $1.2 million per year (see table below)

The Honorable Isaac W. Choy

Areas of practice:

OGC covers all areas that are faced by one of the largest corporations in the State, but also does specialized work in the area of research, academic freedom, patents, copyright, trademark, licensing, academic ethics and other areas related to higher education - labor and employment issues, workplace injury, research grant applications, contracts, personal injury, sponsorship agreements, real estate development, land use issues, environmental issues, collections, student issues, collegiate athletics issues, financing and bond matters, risk management, equal employment, civil rights, Native Hawaiian issues, ceded lands issues, information technology, distance learning, etc., to name a few.

The numbers represented below are the OGC's actual expenditures for FY2008 – FY2012.

FY	Salary	Operating	Total
2008	$1,092,193	$95,803	$1,187,996
2009	$1,158,533	$113,370	$1,271,903
2010	$1,110,951	$44,593	$1,155,544
2011	$1,006,062	$67,422	$1,073,484
2012	$1,136,396	$74,323	$1,210,719

- Why does the University retain outside legal counsel?

Outside legal counsel is retained when it is considered in the best interest of the University to do so. The retention of outside legal counsel to perform work for or on behalf of the University is an integral and critical part of handling and managing the University legal services workload, particularly given the high volume of matters that come into the OGC annually (ranges from an average of approximately 650 to 750 new matters per year with a current total of approximately 1,625 active matters) and the limited number of OGC attorneys (7 attorney positions at the present time, which includes one vacancy). Without outside legal counsel, the University and OGC would be hard pressed to maintain their current level of effectiveness and would not be placing themselves in the best position to succeed on behalf of the University or making the best use of its limited resources.

- How does the University make the decision to retain outside legal counsel to handle a matter? And how does the University decide which outside legal counsel to select?

The 7 staff attorney positions are a streamlined, concentrated core providing legal services to the University system statewide. It would be impossible for such a small staff to manage the volume of complaints, cases, actions, and matters that come in every year, particularly when many frequently require attorneys with specialized skills in a particular area. The specific instances in which the University would seek to hire outside legal counsel are as follows:

1. Conflict of interest. If there is a legal conflict of interest with the office being able to represent more than one party in the case (for instance, if an employee complains against another employee and UH and UH is the employer);

2. Specialized knowledge required. If there is a particular specialized field or area of knowledge that is not adequately covered by or represented on the current staff; or

3. Complex litigation. It is a large, complex litigation case that would require dedication of significant attorney and staff time away from other priority legal matters and occupy an inordinate amount of attorney and staff time to properly supervise and monitor.

- What is the process for hiring outside legal counsel?

The process for selection of outside legal counsel involves the steps listed below and is followed as a regular practice consistent with the applicable procurement laws:

1. Request for Qualifications. Annual RFQ (Request for Qualifications) conducted through both advertising and internal industry communication. Names, expressions of interest, statements of qualifications, and resumes received by the University Procurement Office are forwarded to the OGC. One or more committees made up of members of the OGC reviews the submissions and determines whether the attorneys are qualified to perform legal services in the areas for which they applied (e.g., creates an "approved vendor" list).

2. Need for outside counsel. The OGC in consultation with the client (Board of Regents or UH Administration) determines whether outside counsel is needed in a particular case.

3. Screening committee. Three-member internal committee made up of staff attorneys, excluding the University General Counsel, evaluates the listing of qualified attorneys in the relevant field or fields of law. The screening committee ranks the top 3 attorneys as to suitability for a particular case and submits them to the University General Counsel for consideration. The screening committee frequently consults with clients regarding the type of attorney they seek to assist them, particularly if it is a specialized area of law.

4. Selection. The University General Counsel selects from the list submitted by the screening committee. Although the University General Counsel has the prerogative to choose an attorney not ranked first by the screening committee, the University General Counsel almost always selects the top ranked attorney, as recommended by the screening committee. Additionally, if it is discovered after the selection that the first ranked attorney has a legal conflict and is unable to accept the matter from the University, the University General Counsel may select another attorney from the recommended list submitted by the screening committee.

5. Compensation. Rates and specific attorneys who staff any matter are negotiated by the University General Counsel to obtain the optimum rates and results on behalf of the University. If no agreement can be reached, then the University

General Counsel may select the next ranked attorney and commence negotiations toward a contract.

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. My family does operate a farm, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 1266, HD 1. While this bill laudably seeks to expand potential streams of revenue by establishing agricultural tourism activities as a permissible use of state agricultural districts, there are a number of concerns that are inherent in this particular bill. I would note the concerns brought up by the City and County of Honolulu that 'provisions are already in place to allow agricultural tourism as an accessory use in state agricultural districts.' Additionally, I am also concerned with the potential modification of zoning regulations to support tourism which may come at the expense of purely agricultural uses of land."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I make a brief comment with reservations. I think we're flirting with a questionable policy for putting visitor or tourism accommodations on agricultural land. I know we discussed it at length last time and it went down. It's come back again. I think it's questionable. We really need to discern and adjudicate this with wisdom. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note a reservations for me. On Kauai County we have actually capped the amount of overnight accommodations and I would just be hesitant to instill an act that would override that. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to clarify because it sounds like there's a little confusion. There is already a law that is in place, so this bill is trying to clarify and make sure that we don't allow it in counties where they would not permit it. And this has some language that allows the counties to ultimately determine how it will be regulated or if it will be allowed. So just look at the language closely if you have concerns. We are trying to make sure that the counties have the ultimate control. Mahalo."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe that the former speaker is talking about Senate Bill 2341, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2, Conference Draft 1. And just to be consistent, I voted no on that measure. I'm just responding to what the former speaker said about a law already on the books, and I'm referring to the 2012 Senate Bill and the Conference Draft. And I voted no on that measure.

"There were a number of us that did vote no on that measure, I think there were 21 of us. And I would refer the Members to the legislative website to go look at the names of those that did. Thank you. I'm still in opposition to the measure before us, the overnight accommodations on agricultural land. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. Just to clarify for the previous speaker, if she goes to Section 205-2 HRS. Mahalo."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I would just like to insert comments in the Journal. Thank you very much."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"On June 14, 1925, in Newport Beach, California, Duke Kahanamoku rescued eight men from a fishing vessel that capsized in heavy surf while attempting to enter the city's harbor. Twenty-nine fishermen went into the water and seventeen perished. Using his surfboard, he was able to make quick trips back and forth to shore to increase the number of sailors rescued. Thus was born the tradition of lifeguards having rescue surfboards at the ready.

"It is only fitting that today's Ocean and Water Safety officers continue Duke's legacy of innovation through jet-ski rescues. As first responders, they are highly trained in all areas of emergency response, including medical cases, natural disasters, and search and rescue. Furthermore, they risk their lives daily to protect our most valuable resource, our keiki, our kupuna, our kama'aina, and our malihini.

"Lifeguards have to be vigilant, in shape and ready to respond at all times. This measure gives our bravehearts of the sea the recognition that they deserve.

"These professionals have long served our state and saved thousands of lives through skillful training and attention. It is appropriate for Ocean and Water Safety officers to have a bargaining unit that recognizes their dramatically different skill sets and job requirements. While this will be the smallest bargaining unit in the state, this profession is unique and deserving of an appropriate bargaining unit."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1172, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to speak in support of this measure, HB 509, HD 1. I would like to thank, first of all, the Chairs of the House Committees on Water & Land and Ocean, Marine Resources & Hawaiian Affairs, for hearing this measure and for their commitment to moving this bill forward.

"However, I humbly ask that the Chairs consider keeping the measure more in line with the first draft, which created statutes in line with the Kahoolawe Island Reserve Commission rather than the Aha Moku Advisory Committee, which was established last year. As shared at the hearing on this measure, this bill is a culmination of many years of effort to ensure community involvement in the preservation and restoration activities in Makua Valley.

"One of the key provisions in the original measure of this bill was to involve interim activities of the commission that provides as follows: 'Prior to the return of the valley reserve from the United States Army to the state, the commission may enter into discussions with the United States Army to facilitate the expedient return of the valley reserve upon the expiration of the United States Army's lease.'

"This and other provisions of the original bill are critical components for this measure that were left out in the new amended version. I am committed to working with the Chairs for the Water & Land and Ocean, Marine Resources & Hawaiian Affairs Committees, as well as the Finance Committee, where this measure will move to, on a draft of the bill that would accomplish the original vision of this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 622, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 622, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 622, the Media Shield Law. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill was to take out the sunset date, which is good. But I think the Committee went a little beyond that and started nuancing what otherwise was a perfectly good bill that has been in effect and protects our media. And my fear is that as we drill down into it and pierce some of the shield, if you will, that our media now, that is already as you can see never around here anymore, the media is polarized. The media is buying up and getting so small, that this may even discourage them further.

"And I know sitting behind me is a former member of the media who is now a Representative. And the way we had treated his profession in the past, we even wanted him to give us his assets. If some of you who didn't recently graduate from high school remember, we required that media give us a disclosure. It didn't pass, but it was requiring people from the media to disclose their assets, thinking they had an axe to grind because they were after us.

"So, Mr. Speaker, this is not a paranoid bill, but it does look like we're not really ready to give the 'fourth estate' the status that they had when they established this nation, because they were the ones who kept all of us honest. The ones who kept businesses honest. The ones that, if you will, Jefferson said, 'if I had to choose between government and the media, I would choose the media.' They were the watch dogs, the ones who kept us truthful and forthright. So, whether it's worth watering down, I'm not sure that that's the case, but it may be on a bit of a slippery slope that we've already pushed them down. As you can see, they're nowhere around. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. As the Representative from Hawaii Kai noted, I am a former news reporter and I have on occasion used sources, and some of them are sitting here in this Chamber today. I assured them that I would protect their identities, but I could not protect their identities against a court order, which the current law and proposed law does in most cases.

"Now, I appreciate the efforts of the House Judiciary Chair on this measure which would remove the sunset date of the current law, which is considered a model for the nation. I understand his reasons for incorporating some of the proposals suggested by the State Judiciary. As the Legislature continues to consider this measure, I ask that he keep an open mind towards possibly including more of the protections that are afforded by the current law.

"Finally, I would like to remind our colleagues, Mr. Speaker, that the real beneficiaries of this law are not reporters, nor their sources. The people who really benefit from this law is the public, which benefits from a free press, free from the threat of intimidation and reprisal. Mahalo."

Representative Oshiro rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Takayama be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 622, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EVIDENCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no, and with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 160:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 160, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERANS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 1412:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 1412, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SMALL BOAT HARBORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Coffman voting no, and with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

H.B. No. 189:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 189 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of House Bill 189. Thank you. Hawaii has a long history of valuing diversity. With respect to gender diversity, I dare say that we are leaders. Our legislative branches of government in particular can be proud of the number and quality of women's voices we have in our decision making process. In our Congressional Delegation we are represented by three women who have risen from our very ranks.

"Together, the 16 women of this House and the 8 women of the Senate make up 31.6% of the Hawaii State Legislature, well above the national average of 24.1%. Looking more closely at this House, our track record is even better with 39% of Committee Chairpersons in this House being women, and two Committees, our Committee on Water & Land and our Committee on Health, led by two women.

"I have no doubt if you were to ask any of the women legislators in this Body how they came to this place, two things are true. They have been inspired by women leaders who came before them, and they were given opportunities to exercise their voice and develop valuable leadership skills. House Bill 189, which strives for equal gender representation on boards and commissions, will encourage various perspectives to be heard and considered. But more importantly, as enunciated in the testimony of the Women's Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawaii, ensuring that women hold positions of respect and power helps to grow a new generation of young girls who will engage with and lead their communities. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 189, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENDER EQUITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 1133 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would first like to thank the members of the Water & Land and Finance Committees who met on February 9th for a very long hearing that we had on this particular measure. I also want to thank the public who wrote testimony and also came out to that hearing, and people who flew from around the state to come to that hearing.

"It was very clear after the hearing that overwhelmingly there was opposition to keeping the current status, which was keeping the Public Land Development Corporation. House Bill 1133 repeals Act 55, Session Laws of Hawaii 2011, which established the Public Lands Development Corporation.

"One of the problems I think that came about was clearly the way it was structured. The public really came to a point of understanding that the authority that we gave the Corporation in fact bypassed county plans and subdivision and zoning codes. And so what happened was, the public felt they had no say in what was going to happen in their community. So there was this outcry of, where's home rule.

"During this last year, many of us spoke to our constituents across the state. One of the things that always came up was, 'what are you going to do about the Public Land Development Corporation? We do not trust what in fact is in law.' When we had the hearing it became very obvious that the constituency across the state overwhelmingly said this Corporation is not a good idea.

"Some people thought we could amend it, some people thought we could fix it. There were actually bills on the agenda at our hearing that were amendments to the current law. And overwhelmingly people said, 'you can try as hard as you want to fix it, but the reality is, we don't trust what's going on, you just have to wipe it out.'

"Now the original idea of this law, I think, had some good intentions. And that is, we have some unused state land in locations where we have maybe some demand for services. And so that land has potential of providing things that the community wants, but we don't in-house have the expertise to do that.

"So this whole attempt of the Public Land Development Corporation was to have a public-private partnership so that we could actually go out and meet the needs and the demand that may be out there. And the state land happens to be in the right location. So I think conceptually it sounded good, but when the law itself came out, it came out in a manner that became very unacceptable to people.

"And so in closing, I want to point out what is democracy. Democracy allows eligible citizens to participate equally, either directly, or through elected representatives in the proposal, development and creation of laws. It encompasses social, economic and cultural conditions that enable the free and equal practice of political self determination. I believe the public spoke loudly through each one of our Members of this Legislative Body, and I think overwhelming through the Members they came out and said, we cannot have Public Land Development Corporation. I believe democracy was well served by passing House Bill 1133. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of the bill that repeals the Public Land Development Corporation. Mr. Speaker, as the former speaker said, this really is a victory for the people of Hawaii. In 2011 this bill was changed in the final hours of the Legislature. A few Members caught it, but the majority of us didn't, and voted to establish the Public Land Development Corporation.

"As the public began to become aware of this, that this would allow private development of our precious state lands without the normal environmental and county oversight being in play, it worked out that the public really mobilized more than on any issue I've seen in the last 23 years, and spoke out loudly and said, 'repeal the PLDC, it's a bad law, we want to get rid of it.' And to our credit, this Body has done that. And I believe that we have held the trust and the faith with the public.

"I give a great deal of credit to the public that stepped forward and spent so much time on this issue. I also want to give special mention to the Sierra Club for its creativity with its site called, 'Grand Theft Aina.' Those three words said it all. It really is a wonderful day today, Mr. Speaker, to be able to stand up in strong support of repealing the PLDC, a law that never should have become enacted, and now we're correcting that problem. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I too was one of those who were hoodwinked by the PLDC covert operations that were in the middle of the night. They get that out and then in the next day in the rush to get everything through, we missed it. But fortunately, the public, and I think some of the media following the public, made that happen.

"My point of speaking forth, Mr. Speaker, is this. This is a teachable moment. Because there are sons and daughters of the PLDC still alive in this Body. There's a PLDC harbors, there's a PLDC DOE, which we are going to be taking up. So as we speak about, hey we're doing the right thing in killing the PLDC, there's some of its keikis that are still out there that we need to be alert to. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support, just with these comments. I definitely do admire the innovate effort that went into the thought processes that did bring about the PLDC. It's just kind of reminiscent of some times in class where you come out with a different way of solving a problem and it doesn't work out so well so you get whacked really hard on the head so nobody else wants to try and find a new innovative way to solve the problem.

"We have enormous challenges in this state. And I admire at least those who went out on a limb to try and solve some of the financial problems within our communities, within our state, without having to reach into the pockets of the working mothers and fathers that we have that are struggling out there, that I interact with on a daily basis.

"So even though I do support the repeal of the PLDC, I hope this doesn't discourage any legislator from leaving no corner, no stone unturned in search of new ways in which we can resolve the fiscal challenges we have within the great State of Hawaii in the service of our people.

"This was one way that didn't work out so well, but I certainly hope that this doesn't discourage anybody from latching on to that spirit of entrepreneurship and adventure to find some new way to serve our people and not hurt the working families that are out there, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support with just one short comment. I'd like to just quote the words of the Minority Leader Emeritus, that this is indeed a teachable moment where a future Legislature has undone the past promises of a past Legislature. Thank you very much."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support with a quick comment. It was really clear when the public came out, especially in my district, that they said, no, ʻaʻole, try again. And I'm really proud to be a member of this Legislature that listened to them. I'm very proud and excited to cast my vote in the affirmative."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. I likewise would like to thank the Water & Land and Finance Committee members and I also would like to thank the other Chairs who were willing to waive off or to make considerations so that we could make it a little bit more of an expedient hearing. We wanted to thank all the Members for showing up for a long hearing and thank the public for participating in this process. Additional written comments. Thank you."

Representative Luke's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"First of all, I'd like to thank the Chairs of the House Committee on Water & Land and the House Committee on Education for their collaboration and insight as we prepared for the hearing on this measure, as well as numerous other PLDC related bills, on Saturday, February 9, 2013.

"I would also like to thank all three Committees' members for actively participating and asking very good questions of the testifiers. I'm sure the public appreciates the dedication to this issue that all our Members have shown.

"I thank the public and all those who came out to testify on this important issue. Active citizen participation in the numerous public hearings held by DLNR and the fledgling PLDC throughout the year, as well as the participation of all who came out to our hearing on February 9th, clearly indicated the will of the people in measures we heard.

"Repeal the PLDC.

"And that is exactly what we have done in this measure.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, special thanks to the staffs of Chair Evans and Vice Chair Lowen, led by Terii Perez and Keanu Young. Together, they processed over 1600 individual pieces of testimony for the hearing, made sure testifiers were informed and organized, and ensured a flawless hearing for us."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for this opportunity to speak in support of this bill.

"There was an overwhelming show of support for the repeal the Public Land Development Corporation. Our offices were bombarded with emails in support of the repeal from across the state in addition to the hundreds of pieces of testimony that were submitted to the legislative committees.

"The people spoke loud and clear. The PLDC, they explained, undermines democracy by overriding existing procedures and safeguards, and cuts out participation by the public. In addition, many feel that the provision exempting the PLDC from court challenges is particularly dangerous and un-democratic.

"Although the original intent of this law was to make optimal use of public land for the economic, environmental and social benefit of the people of Hawaii, it has instead given over-reaching powers to the PLDC.

"The PLDC should never have been made to allow it to be exempt from all statutes, ordinances, charter provisions, and rules of government agencies relating to special improvement district assessments or requirements; land use, zoning, and construction standards for subdivisions, development, and improvement of land; and the construction, improvement, and sale of homes thereon for development of public lands to generate revenues.

"The law allows the PLDC to ignore the expressed wishes of the counties as reflected in our adopted ordinances and plans. This trivializes the substantial time and resources invested by the counties in land-use planning and rule-making.

"Act 55 Section 4(b) appears to protect public trust land, but this section finishes with the words 'except as expressly provided in this chapter' and the chapter expressly gives the PLDC Board almost unlimited powers to develop public trust lands for what they deem private benefit at public expense.

"Article XI Section 1 requires public lands trustees to 'promote the development and utilization of these resources in a manner consistent with their conservation and in furtherance of the self-sufficiency of the state.' But Act 55 turns the words 'conservation' and 'furtherance of self-sufficiency' on their heads when it allows 'optimization projects' to use public lands to create revenue – generating centers or to exploit local, national and international markets.

"This 'public trust' has morphed into a developer's business plan, replete with uncontrolled opportunities to spend state funds and dispose of public land primarily for the benefit of private entities.

"I urge you to support the House Bill 1133 and repeal the PLDC. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support this bill.

"The bill, as introduced, would repeal the Public Land Development Corporation and transfer certain assets to the Department of Land and Natural Resources. I will not belabor this Body by repeating the many points previously raised. However, I will remind my colleagues that the Public Land Development Corporation Law was enacted by this Body in 2011 with 41 votes in the affirmative on Final Reading because this Body understood that there was and continues to be an overwhelming need for the state to better utilize its resources.

"The state is land rich and cash poor. As your Chair of the Committee on Finance during the 'Great Recession,' it was necessary for the state to make significant cuts in essential government services. The enactment of the PLDC Law was intended to provide the state with the means of developing state assets for the support of these essential state programs and services – the very same programs and services that are demanded by our constituents and important for a high quality of life.

"To a certain extent, the PLDC Law reflected the approach taken by the Bishop Estate during the 1960s. Then the largest private landowner in the state, the Bishop Estate raised very little revenue from its vast holdings. They were barely able to operate its Kapalama campus on their meager returns.

"But under the leadership of Matsuo Takabuki, the Bishop Estate began to diversify its holdings and develop the lands held in trust to make them more viable economically. This in turn greatly increased its wealth and prosperity. Today, the Kamehameha Schools/Bishop Estate is one of the richest privately-owned trusts in the world, and the institution has been able to build new campuses on the Islands of Maui and Hawaii.

"When Governor Burns appointed Takabuki to the Estate, it was an extremely controversial move. Native Hawaiians picketed and protested the appointment of a non-Hawaiian to the panel. The bells at Kawaiahao Church were rung in protest. Yet despite all of this controversy at the start, no one can deny today that Takabuki's influence was for the public good. The Kamehameha Schools saw its corpus grow and beneficiaries saw its programs expand. When Takabuki retired more than two decades later, the bells at Kawaiahao Church rang again, but this time in recognition and appreciation for all that Kupuna Takabuki did for Native Hawaiians. Only a few recognized the wisdom of Matsuo Takabuki's appointment initially, but all recognized the unmistakable blessing upon the trust many years later.

"Certainly, the PLDC Law raised many questions and brought thoughts of the worst in everyone's minds. Indeed, it has been my humble observation that we have demonstrated that we are an overly suspicious and cynical community with little trust among ourselves and our neighbors. It is as if we have forgotten that we are one people and it is our neighbors, our co-workers, and our fellow citizens that would be jointly involved in these kinds of enterprises. As such, from its enactment into law in 2011, the PLDC has had to battle a perception problem that had become a public relations nightmare. Furthering obfuscation and promoting misperception has been a lazy and biased media and poor and inarticulate PLDC leaders. Little was ever discussed of the tremendous win-win public-private partnerships that could be created.

"For example, I thought the community of Wahiawa could benefit from a public-private development of the state DLNR Wahiawa Freshwater Park and Public Fishery along with the sacred Birthing Stones of Kukaniloko. I envisioned the DLNR (State Parks, Na Ala Hele, Historic Preservation, etc.) along with the Office of Hawaiian Affairs and the Hawaii Chapter of the Boy Scouts of America as co-developers and also involving the DOE through the Wahiawa Middle School and Leilehua High School participating on issues of fishery development along with DOE's core S.T.E.M. curriculum. The City and County of Honolulu would also be a key stakeholder as operators of the Wahiawa Waste Water Treatment Plant and therefore, essential to the water quality in Lake Wilson.

"Similarly, the PLDC could have been the means to foster the public-private development of the Wahiawa Civic Center area with the Departments of Accounting and General Services, Health, Human Services, Education, Library, the Judiciary, and the non-profit Wahiawa General Hospital (Acute Care & Long Term Care). Furthermore, the City and County of Honolulu through the Satellite City Hall Office and Departments of Parks and Recreation, Transportation Services, and THE BUS, would also have been partners because of the proximity of adjacent lands and roads lending itself to codevelopment of mutually beneficial projects benefitting the residents of Mililani, Wahiawa, and the North Shore, Oahu.

"But, without the PLDC, it is uncertain whether the respective government jurisdictions and private parties will jointly be able to summon common political and governmental focus on projects of mutual benefit for their constituents, albeit it may not be solely for the respective state and county political authorities. In this regard, I hope I am dead wrong. And, that given the strong community support for these types of public-private partnerships, we will see some movement on the ideas in the foreseeable future.

"Still, by these remarks let us not forget that the PLDC Law also had much promise and potential to do good and great things. Again, the measure passed with 'supermajority' or 41 ayes, and received strong bi-partisan support in 2011. The projects listed above would be of the kind that would find support and favor from many, many stakeholders. They are consistent and complimentary to current and past community-based development plans and zoning allowances and supported by both public and community and business stakeholders.

"And equally importantly, we must not forget that we are still in the same situation of being land rich and cash poor. There are never enough CIP monies or appropriations to go around. And, our constituents still demand more and more services and more and more amenities to enjoy the public spaces and lands and features that we all seek to improve and enhance but for limited funds and other priorities, we are unable to address their endless but sincere desires.

"Finally, let me express my appreciation to the Chair of the Board of Land and Natural Resources, Mr. William Aila, and his staff for their tireless advocacy on behalf of the kuleana he oversees that has no voice and real presence at the public meetings. I wish him well as he continues to seek and find new and rational means for funding his critical programs and services that we all desire and are essential to high quality of life for our respective communities. And, last, but not least, Mahalo Nui Loa to Senators Dela Cruz and Solomon for their strong commitment to the people of Hawaii and their pursuit of a non-traditional means to sustain, protect and enhance our nature resources for all the people of Hawaii and those to follow. I hope that history will be kind to them as it was and is to Matsuo Takabuki.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Kākoʻo loa. In very strong support.

"Ke ku nei au me ke kāko'o loa no keia pila. Mahalo no nā lala ma kēia Hale Luna Maka'āinana e Ho'oponopono ka pila hewa. Mahalo nui loa hou no ku'u lā lā no kēia Hale Luna Maka'āinana e holo mua kākou i nā mea pono. Mahalo.

"I'd like to thank everybody in the House of Representatives for moving forward this bill and for doing the right thing that we need to do and to correct our mistake for what has been done in the past year on the Public Land Corporation. M*ahalo* again, thank you again. Mahalo."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support and I'd like to ask that the words of our insightful Chairs of Ocean, Marine Resources, & Hawaiian Affairs, and Water & Land be entered into the Journal as if they were my own. I also ask if additional written comments may be entered into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This measure is an attempt at repealing the Public Land Development Corporation that was passed last year. Currently we have systems already in place when looking at the development of public lands, and I believe the existing bill – although the intention is good – needs a lot of work. Our land is too precious to take for granted. As stated in our state motto, 'Ua Mau Ke Ea O Ka 'Āina I Ka Pono'. The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness. Let us do the right thing and care for our lands. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mahalo."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Evans be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. First of all, I'd like to say thank you for everybody listening. Not only to the community, but listening to those, I think nine individuals, who voted no to this measure last year. So thank you for this Body for hearing the community's concerns as well as the individuals that supported with a 'no' last go around. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1133, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LAND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Har and Tokioka being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Awana: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As you're aware my district is comprised of the largest concentration of Native Hawaiians in the world, where we are fortunate to have a Native Hawaiian language school in our community. I would like to request that our Members please take notice of the Valentine's Day cards which were made by our three and four-year old keiki from Pūnana Leo o Wai'anae, for each of you as a mahalo for all that we do to help perpetuate the Hawaiian language.

"Being that we are celebrating the Hawaiian language month and being that today is Valentine's Day, it was our hope that we would blend these two events for this very special day. The 'Olelo no'eau listed on the bottom of the card, I maika'i ke kalo i ka 'oha, says that we as parents, or the kalo, are judged to be good by the actions of our oha, our offspring, our children. In other words, our children then become a reflection of the upbringing of those who raise us.

"I would also like to share with the Members that a fundraiser is being held to further support the Hawaiian language schools throughout the island of Oahu. And this will be held on Saturday evening at the Bishop Museum lawn from 4:30 to 8:30. Both Hawaiian and English are the two official languages of our state, and therefore I would urge Members to support these efforts. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, today is a day of lovers – Valentine's Day and chocolate lovers. And just to remind those who are chocolate lovers, there is a chocolate festival on Saturday the 23rd of February, 5 p.m. at the Dole Cannery. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"This is a life-saving measure that deserves to be made permanent. Making permanent the liability protections afforded county lifeguards will enhance public safety by fostering a climate in which lifeguard services can be provided without fear of liability. The law has been in effect for the last decade, and since its first enactment in 2002, the Legislature has twice been convinced of the wisdom of extending such protection.

"Any need for a trial period has been exhausted, and the law should be made permanent. Passing this measure will help to protect the financial assets and reputation of county lifeguards who otherwise jeopardize both, in addition to their own health and safety, through their valiant rescue efforts."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on House Bill 1459, HD 1, I have written comments. I can assure you that this bill has no downside. It's a bill in progress. It reminds me of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund when I was introducing that way back in 1994. Our colleague, the Representative from Kailua, called me the dreamer, but we were able to save over $200 million which was used by this Body to balance the budget.

"I can now challenge everyone, and I will put my money where my mouth is just like way back in 1994. I'll give up my salary from now until we have passed this and implement the bill, but after we have implemented it I will take 5% of savings. Any takers, I'll sign it any time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola's written remarks are as follows:

"I would like to take this opportunity to expound on the merits of HB 1459 and share with you some salient information.

"HB 1459, HD1 only covers the Hawaii Health Unfunded Liability. As of 2011, the Health UFL for the State of Hawaii was between $15-17 billion. It's imperative that we do something about this because to do nothing to address the issue, Hawaii's Health Unfunded Liability will continue to grow over $1 billion annually. It also can bankrupt the State of Hawaii like what has happened to other states in the US. As a result, Hawaii is not being looked favorably upon by non-profit organizations such as Pew, Barron's and the Institute for Truth in Accounting and this affects Hawaii's bond rating.

"Creating a captive insurance company is a tool in addressing our health unfunded liability. A 2001 report on the findings and recommendations on a potential captive insurance company by Hawaii's Insurance Division listed the advantages for having a captive insurance company. As an example, operating costs could potentially be cut by 5-25%. It would also have a positive effect on Hawaii's ability to have direct access to re-insurance.

"HB 1459, HD 1 is not a perfect bill and still remains a work in progress, and as we move along it will have the opportunity to evolve into a complete bill. There is no downside in establishing a captive insurance company in addressing Hawaii's Health Unfunded Liability.

"I urge all Members to please support HB 1459, HD1. Mahalo Nui Loa."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would join my colleague reminiscing about 1994 when we did pass this bill, because this bill really created an industry, one of the best kept secrets in the State of Hawaii. This is a $10 billion industry. We are the second in the nation in terms of captive insurance. And I think we're going to go for international number one if we pass this bill and other things. But there's a billion dollars sitting in our banks locally because of bills like this. It's an excellent piece of legislation. Thank you."

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with the only concern that I hope the Committee on Finance will also look into the legislation in regards to OPEB Trust Fund as another combination of addressing the unfunded liability of our health fund. Thank you."

Representative Cachola rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in response to the statement made by Speaker Emeritus Calvin Say, there are provisions in the bill that take care of that. We have created reserve funds under this bill, HB 1459, one to take care of the unfunded liability contribution, and OPEB funds.

"Right now the only contributors to this are the counties. They have $300 million in the 'kitty.' State, zero. And that's the reason why we have been maligned, because of the way we handle our unfunded liabilities. Speaker Emeritus, it's taken care of. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 837, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to House Bill 837, HD 1. This measure will run most small ethnic money transmitters out of business, create and protect monopoly, resulting in increased fees to the public and greater inconviences to find a money transmitter. Please help protect small businesses, Members, and kill this bill.

"We were promised a new beginning, especially for small businesses in the State, but instead House Bill 837 is killing off locally owned small businesses in favor of giant multinational companies and foreign conglomerates.

"HB 837, HD 1 would ruin the small businesses in Kalihi, Waipahu, Lahaina, Lihue and Hilo. Small businesses would have to pay huge deposits and pay unlimited fees and penalties for the investigation of complaints and enforcement of regulations.

"HB 837 is supported by big banks and money institutions that are charging huge transmitting fees even for small transmissions of money. Right now the fees are very small, Mr. Speaker, but I'm sure that once we pass HB 837, the fees will no longer be the same.

"HB 837 amends the Money Transmitter Act, Chapter 489D that we passed a couple years ago, that increases the fee structure to amounts unaffordable by small businesses. This overregulation is uncalled for, as there have not been any notable complaints about this industry, and only one lobbyist supports it. We must stop empire building at the DCCA at the expense of the over-burdened small businesses who are forced to pass the fees onto the poor immigrant clients.

"The problem with this type of insidious taxing of the consumers is that it builds bigger and bigger government without any benefit or protection to the public. The DCCA is well known for building empires in government and even in so much as bought an entirely new office building to move into with all the money they squeezed out of small businesses. The jobs they are creating are then given to political supporters and contributors.

"This bill must be killed, Members, as it is hurting the most vulnerable residents among us. Newly arrived immigrants who have limited income and cannot afford to send a large amount of money at one time. In addition, they have many relatives in the old country who are living hand to mouth, so they must frequently send money to their families back home. It's an onerous requirement and will effectively eliminate all the small businesses in money transmitting, thus creating a monopoly for big businesses. This bill is for overregulation that will result in higher fees without any protection for the public. I have more to say, Mr. Speaker, but I will put that in the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose HB 837, HD l. HB 837, HD l will run most small ethnic Money Transmitters out of business, and create and protect monopoly resulting in increased fees to the public and greater inconvenience to find a money transmitter.

"Please help protect small businesses and kill this bill. We were promised a new beginning especially for small businesses in the State, but instead HB 837 is killing off locally owned small businesses in favor of giant multi-national companies and foreign conglomerates.

"HB 837, HD l would run the small businesses money transmitters out of business by erecting huge barriers to entry and expenses operating in Hawaii. Small business would have to pay huge deposits and pay unlimited fees and penalties for the investigation of complaints and enforcement of regulations. HB 837, HD l is supported by big banks and money institutions that are charging huge transmitting fees even for small transmissions of money.

"HB 837, HD l amends the Money Transmitters Act, chapter 489D, Hawaii Revised Statutes, that increases the fee structure to amounts unaffordable by small businesses. This over-regulation is uncalled for as there has not been any notable complaints about this industry and only one lobbyist supports it.

"We must stop empire building at the DCCA at the expense of the over-burdened small businesses who are forced to pass the fees onto the poor immigrant clients. The problem with this type of insidious 'taxing' of the consumers is that it builds bigger and bigger government without any benefit or protection to the public.

"The DCCA is well-known for building empires in government and even insomuch as bought an entirely new office building to move into with all the money they squeezed out of small businesses. The jobs they are creating are then given to political supporters and contributors.

"This bill should be killed, as it is hurting the most vulnerable residents among us. Newly arrived Filipino immigrants who have limited income and cannot afford to send large amounts of money at one time. In addition, they have many relatives in the old country who are living hand to month so they must frequently send money to their families back home in smaller amounts.

"HB 837, HD l's onerous requirements will effectively eliminate all the small businesses money transmitters, thus creating a monopoly for big business. HB 837, HD l's over regulation will result in higher fees without any protection to the public. Poor immigrants, especially Filipino and Hispanic, sending money back home, will be hurt the most.

"I vigorously opposed the bill on behalf of the immigrant and low-income community. There have not been any complaints, so why is this bill needed? It is a thinly veiled excuse to create a monopoly by big business and foreign corporations while wiping out locally owned small businesses using consumer protection as a false pretense. It takes the immigrant community a little time to digest all that is evolving on this issue, but when they do, there will be a price to pay.

"Please kill HB 837, HD l. This over regulation will only create a monopoly for big businesses and jack up the costs of sending money and hurt small businesses."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to register no vote on the same measure and I would like the articulate, erudite comments of my colleague from Ewa Beach inserted as if they were my own. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, there are references on the Floor to the working families of the State of Hawaii. They're also working entrepreneurs, those people who are just making enough money to survive, and in this economy sometimes survival is success.

"The two Members from Ewa Beach who know this front and center, real and not imagined, can see this is almost an anti-immigrant bill. Because that's where the fees are going to be passed on to. This is not a policy that we should be proud of. It shouldn't be a policy for our small entrepreneurs, and particularly if it affects a particular ethnic group in a particular region. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered into the Journal as his own, and that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 837, HD1. The Chair of the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce commented that this bill supports, 'effective enforcement of the Money Transmitter Act.' I agree that it is important to properly regulate money transfers from Hawaii to locations outside of Hawaii.

"The Committee Chair noted his concern for how this will impact small businesses. In an earlier form, this bill sought to more than double initial application fees and annual renewal fees. This is a problem, because any increases to fees will ultimately be passed on to the consumer. People that need to use these types of money transfer services are most often rushed for time and they have limited options. Finally, this bill will directly impact minority working class people who regularly send money back to their families that live outside of the United States. This is an unnecessary hardship to people who are struggling to make ends meet in our State.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I am in opposition to House Bill 837, HD1."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with grave reservations. Mr. Speaker, in Judiciary we had the opportunity to question the Attorney General on this matter. Some of my colleagues agree with me, but because we're coming at it from two different perspectives, some on the 'left' are not comfortable, some on the 'right' are not comfortable. I'm not comfortable because this, as I understand it based on the questioning, this sets up a mechanism where we can fund preschool and we can have private preschools. In order to do that we need a constitutional amendment.

"So, sensibly the Catholic schools could participate. So then I began to ask the Attorney General, if that's the case, can we have a nun teach the class, wearing her habit? The answer was no. If it takes place in the Catholic schools on the Catholic school campus, do they have to remove the crucifixes from the classroom? The answer was yes.

"We're amending the Constitution to allow this to go to private schools, but we're not including a religious exemption amendment where it can go to religious institutions. It's kind of like a half-baked voucher, if you will. It's not all the way there, but the parents have a choice.

"So if the parents want to take their child to St. Anthony's or they want to take them to Seagull School or whatever, it's up to the parent, they have a choice under this proposal. The school though, if they want to receive this, has to stop doing what makes them special. We're saying it's okay to take your child to a Catholic preschool, provided we take the Catholic out of the preschool.

"That's what makes a Catholic preschool special. That's why parents, whether it's Catholic, Baptist, Jewish or a Buddhist preschool. That's why they send their kids there, to get that religious inculcation. We're saying, 'well you can teach them the ABC's but the other stuff, you can't,' and we have to amend the Constitution anyway to do that, because it is a private institution.

"So if we're going to do it, Mr. Speaker, let's do it right. Give the parents a choice. It's not K through 12, it's preschool. And if they want to take that and go to a religious institution, it's already private, we're amending the Constitution anyway, let's let them do that. This is a friendly and supportive suggestion.

"My other fear is that if we don't do that, two things are going to happen. One, the Catholic schools won't participate. I know there's a limited participation through the Open Doors Program, but this will get very sticky. Because it will be so big, we will have lawsuits. We have one fella who likes to come around here occasionally. He will be all over monitoring those schools, I can assure you. We're asking for trouble, Mr. Speaker.

"So let's make it a full blown constitutional amendment, where the parents can choose. If they want a religious education for their child in preschool to teach them values that the parents agree with, let them do that. If they want a secular education, let them do that. It's up to the parents. The parents aren't being forced, they have a choice. So that's a friendly, encouraging, positive recommendation to move this measure forward, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, sir."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 853, HD 1. This bill would create a constitutional amendment to permit the use of public funds for private early school education programs. While the bill has a noble goal of helping expand access to educational programs, I am wary about the potential impact on schools that may have a religious affiliation, such as many of the schools in my district, including Aiea Hongwanji Preschool.

"The Attorney General has submitted testimony confirming that affected schools would have to agree to not attempt to influence students through acts like prayer sessions. Because I believe in the autonomy of private schools, and have workability concerns with this bill's implementation, I will be voting with reservations."

"Two years ago, we passed the Center for Nursing, and that measure that we passed caused an increase of licensing fees to the nurses. Now we're passing another measure for sharing data with DCCA. Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to register a no vote. This appears to me to be just another attempt to grab a couple of bucks. We're missing a few loose bottles and cans and, my gosh, we've got to get that money for those few that we're missing. It just goes to the mentality of our entire government, the executive branch. We don't have a revenue problem, we have a spending problem. And so I will say no."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. In the Committee hearing when we were discussing this bill, the sample that was brought in, in discussion in that Committee, was a representation of a beverage that is mostly consumed by young working people. That's exactly who I do not want to take more money from. Because this measure would further take away money from working members of our community, I cannot support this bill, Mr. Speaker."

"In support with reservations. I want to note that I did oppose this bill before and noting the same concerns and echoing them of my caucus members. I do have concerns about the increase in cost of living, but I think the draft has gotten progressively better and has narrowed the scope of who it applies to. So, I appreciate the amendments made to it in Committee. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 902, HD1. This bill encourages the expansion of the Deposit Beverage Container Program, which has existed since 2005. I believe our efforts will be better served if we focus on curbside recycling. In fact, the district I serve was a pioneer in that recycling movement two decades ago, and many of my constituents do not see their 5 cent deposit returned to them because they do curbside recycling. Therefore, I do not think it is in the best interest of my constituents to further expand the deposit beverage container fee to include new types of containers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 902, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT BEVERAGE CONTAINER PROGRAM," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Fale, Fukumoto and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Coffman, Hanohano, Har, Kawakami and Ward being excused.

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with reservations. First, Mr. Speaker, I would like to note that as the former Chair, I understand what the current Chair is going through on dealing with this very emotional issue, dealing with the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation and the various issues regarding home rule, what's the centralized rule regarding the health systems.

"So very briefly, Mr. Speaker, I would like to just go over some of the concerns that I do worry about as this measure progresses. I am confident that the Chairs will address all these concerns, but I did want to highlight it because many of our colleagues have to deal with the constituencies back home. Especially as this issue may seem to be initially a neighbor island issue, Mr. Speaker, however, there are impacts to those on Oahu.

"Some of the concerns that I have, Mr. Speaker, is that there are going to be changes in which the corporation would be now allowed to review, approve and reject the recommendations both for planning, as well as corporate fiscal issues. So now what will happen is, Mr. Speaker, the regional boards will now have to convince the corporate board in order to move forward for issues addressing their specific island and their specific constituencies.

"Mr. Speaker, also in this measure, there is language in here that allows them to enjoy a full immunity from suit, Mr. Speaker. So that means they'll have a sovereign immunity available to the state as well.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, I would like to express some concerns as this bill moves forward. This new corporation will actually have some quite extensive fiscal powers, now. Mr. Speaker, now this system can develop, from time to time, and actually sell securities, Mr. Speaker. Also, the financial gains from these securities can be put into their own separate bank accounts. And this depository of this section shall be secured manner.

"Mr. Speaker, some of the other concerns I have, and I know it's an issue depending from where you are and how you address these issues, is who has the overriding governing authority to decide what is best for the islands. Mr. Speaker, years ago you were actually directly involved in the development of the current regional system.

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to express these concerns, not to say that I'm against moving forward in the health care, but some of these decisions were intentionally brought on behalf of our colleagues and former colleagues, so that our areas, our communities, can have direct impact on not only the quality of care, but the breadth of care, Mr. Speaker. And I do not think that it should be an Oahu-based corporation, or any corporation that determines the needs as well as the funding and priorities of every community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Woodson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I would like the words of the Chair of Transportation entered into the record as if they were my own and just a quick, brief comment, if I may.

"Your Committee was looking to defer this measure, however at the request of the Health Chair, we wanted to afford her more time to work with the parties to see if there's something to be done to resolve these situations. You note the Committee report, we do have grave concerns of moving this measure forward, but we believe that we should give them the opportunity to try to work on the concerns that were raised by the Chair of Transportation and others, to see if we can find some win-win in this situation."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations with a few comments, please. I appreciate that the previous Health Chair and also the current Health Chair really understand that, and I believe that what they're saying is that there needs to be some changes. In the current form of the bill, the way it's written there are a lot of problems with it that were articulated by the former Health Chair.

"But I want to go on the record to say that status quo right now is not working for us, and that maybe this vehicle as it moves forward will give us an opportunity to really address what's happening at the corporate board level and the regional board level. It may be a vehicle to help us figure out how we create a system where decisions are made, people are accountable, there's transparency, that the local regents can have an opportunity to express themselves. But at a corporate level we can gain efficiencies, we can find a way to make this system, which is a statewide system of healthcare, we've got to make it work. I'm glad that it's still moving forward, but clearly there are a lot of problems. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Reservations and just some brief comments. It is our safety net, the healthcare corporation, and I just don't see how this is good for our keiki or our kupuna. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I have to declare a conflict. I'm a devout Catholic and a member of the Knights of Columbus. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McDermott continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, sexual assault is a serious crime. As a father of two daughters, I don't even want to contemplate that action. I certainly would support stronger measures for those who commit these heinous crimes. In fact, I would be the first one to sign legislation calling for chemical castration of these perpetrators.

"But back to the issue at hand, Mr. Speaker. This deals with emergency contraception, and good people can disagree. We have a lot of good people in here and we have different viewpoints. But, Mr. Speaker, this is a violation of the First Amendment, which I'd like to read here:

'Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;'

"The comma and semicolon are very important because they mean it's an independent thought – 'or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.'

"Now, Mr. Speaker, we have the Hawaii Catholic Conference in opposition to this because Catholic Church doctrine is that at conception – not implantation, conception – it's a human life. That's their belief. You can disagree with it, you can pooh-pooh it. We're all entitled to our opinions because the First Amendment guarantees that. But here we are forcing our views upon the Catholic Church.

"Now I know there are times when, if I wanted to go in my backyard tomorrow and start my own religion and take peyote, invite some of the neighborhood kids around and call it a religion, government would say, 'you know what, that's not really a religion.' But this is one of the world's largest religions with a longstanding doctrine. And we are telling them, this is what you must do. This is what you must do.

"Requires, requires that Catholic hospitals offer emergency contraception."

At 1:52 o'clock p.m., Representative McDermott requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:53 o'clock p.m.

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of inquiry, can you tell how much time I have left? I lost track. Can the Clerk tell us how much we have?"

The Chair then stated:

"Two minutes."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll get somebody to yield three of their times, just let me say what I want to say and I'll be done or else I'll filibuster. I've been a good boy today, I haven't talked too much. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, you are a gentleman. Mr. Speaker, I understand St. Francis is no longer 'in the business.' I'm not sure exactly what their relationships are with the remaining institutions, but I know they can't be involved in this.

"But, Mr. Speaker, our healthcare system is in tough shape. We've got some good people working on it, Healthcare Chair's working on it. But if we pass this measure, Mr. Speaker, we are prohibiting ourselves from ever entertaining a Catholic hospital coming into the market. We're telling them, you can't come in. They will not come in. The Hawaii Catholic Conference is against this bill. The Hawaii Catholic Conference, Mr. Speaker, as you know, means the Bishop is against this bill. That's what it means.

"Why is he against it? Does he dislike women? Of course not. Because it violates Catholic doctrine. This is about religious liberty, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, would we require a Jewish hospital to install pig valves when they do heart procedures? Of course not. We wouldn't do that. That's religious liberty, Mr. Speaker. Now, Mr. Speaker, I understand that this could be a problem on some of the neighbor islands, particularly if the only hospital over there on the neighbor island was a Catholic hospital, and there are concerns.

"So what good people do, is they get together with Planned Parenthood and they say, 'we've got a problem over here. Let's establish a consortium of doctors and let's set up a system where we can go and get this information out, where these people who want to get this emergency care can.'

"Mr. Speaker, I run a nonprofit. This would be an absolutely enticing fundraising opportunity for Planned Parenthood to go and serve those underserved areas. But don't trample on the religious freedom, the religious liberty of the Catholic Church or any other faith. We can't mandate them to do these things. By putting this out there, we're telling them, Hawaii is closed for business to the Catholic churches or hospitals."

The Chair addressed Representative McDermott, stating:

"Representative, will you please limit yourself to the civil liberties, and not mention the church. Thank you very much."

Representative Say rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott: "Thank you, Speaker Emeritus. Mr. Speaker, we are telling the world that Catholic hospitals are no longer welcomed in Hawaii."

Speaker Souki: "Representative, please refrain from using the name of the church. This is a basis of civil liberties that can affect all people and not only the Catholic Church. Please proceed."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I appreciate your comments and concern. I'll just point out that the Hawaii Catholic Conference does not support this measure. The Hawaii Catholic Conference is the Catholic Church. But, Mr. Speaker, we are guaranteed freedom of religion. This is a religious liberty issue. We see it as a national issue. We're doing it here, Mr. Speaker. We're telling these religious institutions that they're not welcome if their beliefs are different than ours. We can't do that, Mr. Speaker.

"America was built on religious liberty. That's why the first settlers from Europe came here, to escape religious tyranny. Now we're coming in and saying, well our secular beliefs trump whatever you believe. That stuff you guys believe, that's fairy dust. We don't, wink-wink, nod-nod, we don't take it seriously.

"Some people do, Mr. Speaker. And we can disagree with them. But it's the doctrine of their faith. It's the doctrine of their faith and I take them very seriously. Just as I take the other folks seriously who have a different point of view in this issue. And they can have a different point of view, but don't force your viewpoint and infringe, infringe upon the religious liberty of a long established organization with a long held doctrine. It's outrageous and I am insulted. Thank you, sir."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, when I look at this bill, it's about emergencies. It's about emergency rooms. It's about what happens when a women has an emergency. Maybe we wouldn't have this experience if when a man gets raped, he has an opportunity to get pregnant. And the reason I say that is because I do believe that women, they understand that if they're sexually assaulted and there's penetration, that in fact, they could get pregnant. If they're sexually assaulted and raped, it's an opportunity to go to an emergency room and say, I need help. I need a lot of help.

"One of the things that may come up is that they're concerned about possibly getting pregnant. I do not believe that people are saying in this type of bill, that it's religious. It's like, you go to an emergency room, they're there to help people. If a woman says, 'I've been raped and I want to prevent a potential pregnancy,' I believe this emergency contraception should be provided. I believe that the man, and I'm going to repeat it again because I can be as emotional as the previous speaker and raise my voice and say I'm insulted by what he said, but I'm telling you that being pregnant changes your life forever. And having, you should be doing it because you want it, but also maybe it's an accident with someone you love, that you're doing it with someone.

"But rape and that whole experience, and just this opportunity which is a very short, maybe it's only within 12 hours, it's a very short time, that prevents the semen to get to where it needs to go to implant in the uterus. It's a very short time frame. It's very critical, the timing of it. I think our emergency rooms need to recognize that it's an emergency for this person.

"And so I feel very strongly about this issue and I don't know why we keep bringing it back and back and back, but we do. But I think it's time that we move this forward and be compassionate. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 411, HD1 because, among other concerns, I am worried that it could limit emergency care options for Central Oahu residents.

"In August of 2012, St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii and The Queen's Health Systems finalized a deal to reopen the former HMC West emergency room. In their testimony, the Hawaii Catholic Conference explained that 'the legal relationship between Queens and St. Francis is governed by a contract binding them to operate the hospitals in a manner consistent with Catholic ethical and religious directives.'

"Contrary to comments made by this bill's proponents, the most recent (2009) 'Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care' maintains their long-standing policy of disallowing Catholic hospitals from administering emergency contraceptives. In its entirety, Directive 36 states:

> 'Compassionate and understanding care should be given to a person who is the victim of sexual assault. Health care providers should cooperate with law enforcement officials and offer the person psychological and spiritual support as well as accurate medical information. A female who has been raped should be able to defend herself against a potential conception from the sexual assault. If, after appropriate testing, there is no evidence that conception has occurred already, she may be treated with medications that would prevent ovulation, sperm capacitation, or fertilization. It is not permissible, however, to initiate or to recommend treatments that have as their purpose or direct effect the removal, destruction, or interference with the implantation of a fertilized ovum.'

"Advocates of this bill have, perhaps inadvertently, utilized the initial sentences of this directive to state that the Catholic directives have changed to allow emergency contraceptives. However, while many studies have shown that levonorgestrol-only emergency contraceptives do not prevent implantation, the FDA has not yet reclassified this drug, and therefore, it would still be disallowed under the guidelines governing hospitals that operate on St. Francis Healthcare System of Hawaii's properties.

"Furthermore, the bill is not limited to levonorgesterol-only emergency contraceptives like Plan B. Newer emergency contraceptives, like Ella, have not been studied to the same extent and less is known about their effects on implantation.

"Passage of this measure could place our hospitals in a position to choose between violating their directives or paying fines for noncompliance. Either alternative could threaten their ability to operate a much-needed hospital with emergency services for the Central and Leeward Oahu communities. Providing an exemption in the measure for religious providers would help avoid this problem and still address many of the concerns that proponents of the measure have raised about access to emergency contraceptives for assault victims. Currently, this measure does not contain such an exemption and could limit emergency care options for my constituents, and for that reason, I am voting no on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I've had some long discussions with members of Planned Parenthood regarding this bill. I'm familiar with a number of different cultures across the world, as well as the history of my own ancestry, when they came to the United States in the early 1600's to escape religious persecution from their homeland. And it's a founding principle and a driving reason of why I felt, not only the need, but the duty, to become a member of the United States Armed Services to fight for, and if necessary, lay my own life down for the right of others to live according to their dictates of their own conscience.

"I'm not Catholic. I don't hold the same beliefs as other members of my community regarding this. I would want this service available for my little sisters, my mother, my wife, if the case were to arise. I believe it's a good and valuable service to be made available to the public, but that's my own personal beliefs.

"And this benefit, this act of healthcare, I would never purchase, I would never purchase at the cost of having somebody else sacrifice or act against what their own conscience tells them is right or wrong. Even if I were to severely disagree with their position in regards to that issue. Like they say, I may disagree with what you have to say or what you do, but I would defend to death your right to do it.

"I don't agree with the reasons that the Catholic Church is in opposition to this. But for that same reason, I would defend to the death their right to act in according to the dictates of their own conscience. As the same for anybody here. I would never ask, and I would never purchase any benefit or any service for me, my family or anybody else, at the cost of having somebody else sacrifice a fundamental core belief of what their conscience tells them to do.

"It is a founding principle of why I am as proud as I am to be an American, is because I believe that's what America stands for. Is that, never in this country will you ever be forced to do anything against your conscience, because that is the freedom we believe in. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in favor with reservations, Mr. Speaker. First I want to mention that I'm Catholic. But I'm one of those that, what my colleague in Ewa Beach says, that some respectful people will disagree.

"I have not been assaulted, Mr. Speaker, but I know how other women that have been assaulted feel. I have been in this Chamber for nine years and I have heard this discussion over and over again. The way I read the bill it says, 'required to offer.' That doesn't violate anybody's rights, Mr. Speaker. You are required to offer. The person has the right to refuse or accept it. And I believe it's the right of that woman to make that decision, whether she wants to accept that pill or not.

"Technology has changed. It's no longer an abortion pill, Mr. Speaker. It's just a pill that can change the pH of somebody's womb. It's no longer an abortion pill. It's just like any other pill that has an impact to a woman's reproductive organ, but not to kill a fetus or a fertilized egg, Mr. Speaker.

"My only reservation is that, I have a constituency in Ewa that needs a hospital, and that's what's stopping the Catholic Church from relinquishing the hospital or impairing the next buyer to impose their belief. That's my only reservation, because my constituents need a hospital there, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I know this has been a long issue. I feel for the Chair, but I'll be going with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 411, HD 1. While I deeply sympathize with victims of sexual abuse and assault and fully support the disclosure of medically accurate information by hospitals to their patients, I am concerned that this measure does not offer the necessary flexibility, particularly for religious medical institutions. Because this bill lacks a religious exemption clause and a professional conscience clause, it may force all hospitals to provide services that may not be in line with their mission, beliefs or philosophy.

"Particularly at a time in our State when medical services are in dire need, we should be careful not to potentially limit or dissuade healthcare providers, particularly those with religious affiliations, from entering Hawaii and providing these much-needed services to Hawaii residents. This measure is well intended, but it may lead to unforeseen consequences of reducing medical care options and access for the State of Hawaii."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote with a brief comment. Déjà vu all over again, Mr. Speaker. It even predates the captive insurance issue, that was 1994. Mr. Speaker, the problem has been that each side has dug in their heels and said, 'hey we're not going to budge on this one.' So I propose a timeout, let's take a deep breath, let's let the proxy battle that's going on at the national level between ObamaCare and the Catholic Church throughout the United States, who are fighting this back and forth. Let them settle it and then we will follow. In the meantime, I just don't think that we're going to break this deadlock that's been going on for the last couple of decades. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I'm going to reserve most of my comments for Third Reading, as this is only Second Reading, but I did want to respond very briefly to two statements made earlier. I would like to note for the record that over 200 Catholic hospitals in the United States today provide emergency contraception to rape victims. So this notion that a Catholic hospital could not do that is false.

"Secondly, according to the Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services, Directive 36, 2001. This is the language from the Catholic Ethical Religious Directives: 'If, after appropriate testing, there is no evidence that conception has occurred already, she,' the rape victim, and let me emphasize, Mr. Speaker, this is the rape victim, 'may be treated with medications that would prevent ovulation, sperm capacitation, or fertilization.'

"I would note, Mr. Speaker, that on subsection C of page 4, that very option is recognized in this bill where it states: 'No hospital shall be required to provide emergency contraception to a sexual assault victim who has been determined to be pregnant through the administration by the hospital staff of a pregnancy test approved by the US Food and Drug Administration.'

"I did not think that we would be discussing religious directives, but clearly, our bill, this bill before us, respects the religious beliefs of those in our communities. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to make a few short comments. Thank you. I want to emphasize that this is a legacy of a former Representative of ours, Marilyn Lee, who has worked tirelessly for years to try to help push this through. The House has failed her year after year. So I'm very hopeful that this year we will be able to meet her expectations.

"I just want to say one other thing that has bothered me since this last year, and there are men on the Floor who have made comments that no one has the right to force someone to do something they don't want to do. Or, forcing your views on someone's religion is not acceptable. Well, the problem is, there are men who force themselves on women. They are victims, and we're trying to make sure they have medical advice so that they don't end up in a situation that everybody regrets. Mahalo."

Representative Woodson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. I think there's been a lot of discussion about this bill. If you look at the legislation as it is currently drafted, what it states is that if an individual is sexually assaulted, specifically if a female is sexually assaulted, it gives that individual the choice of taking specific contraception. So, what the contraception actually does is, it makes the womb what's defined as 'hostile.' So what that means is, for a period of about five days, it makes it so that womb builds up a mucus, there and by any sperm that's in the system cannot attach to that uterus. That is the science behind it.

"Now, I am a very religious man, and I know that if you believe in God as I do, if God for whatever reason in his master plan wants that unification to transpire, it's going to happen regardless. If God could part the seas, if he wants this to transpire, to move forward, it will happen. So again, it's a choice for sexually assaulted victims to have the option, if they so want to, to take this contraception. And I just wanted to provide some clarity as for when we move forward on this measure to continue the discussion."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting with reservations. I have a lot of problems with this bill. I don't know how tight the provisions are in this bill. Like for example, there is an assault, it happened several days ago, and then they go to the hospital and say, I was assaulted. Is it to be the same day as the assault happened that you are going to get contraceptive pills? This bill has still a lot of work to be done, because they can always say, I'm assaulted and then what. So it's got to be tight, who is going to enforce it."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 411, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOSPITAL EMERGENCY COMPASSIONATE CARE FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIMS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representatives Fale, Fukumoto, Johanson and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Coffman, Hanohano, Har, Kawakami and Ward being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this came out in the Committee as a regulation of aquaculture, and suddenly no one was really sure of why it should be regulated because there are 25 permits that aquaculture already requires for these farmers. I think it was clever, but it's a face-saving device to now make it where the Department of Agriculture is going to promote aquaculture, which really means we don't actually need this bill.

"So it's nice, it's warm and fuzzy, but it was an attempt to do an overkill to over-regulate something that's already highly regulated, and quite frankly given the sales of countries in Southeast Asia that are making a lot of money in aquaculture, we are really at the beginning of an industry not really well developed. So we need to leave them alone and not over-regulate them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in strong support. Thank you. I appreciate the comments from the previous speaker, how regulated it is, and that's probably one of the biggest problems and why I worked with my community to introduce this bill.

"One of the things we're realizing is, there's huge potential for aquaculture farming in our State and actually it's underutilized. As a matter of fact, many, many years ago, we used to do more aquaculture farming. And so the definition of it really is to look at taro farming, potentially rice fields, crawfish, land-based shrimp. There are lots of opportunities to do aquaculture farming and it's time that we really work hard to make that industry prosper.

"Yes, we originally started in the Committee to regulate it, but basically the Department of Agriculture came in and said, yes, we really see the value that we should be focusing on this and moving forward. But based on people's concerns, as the previous speaker stated, maybe 'regulation' wasn't where we wanted it to be, so we changed it to 'facilitate' to keep it alive and keep it moving through the session. I look forward to continue working on this as we move forward. Thank you."

The inclusion of a statement as to require absentee voters to affirm by signature that the ballot was completed in secrecy and without influence from others is one step to further ensure a fair election.

"It is unfortunate that incidents of voter intimidation are not merely hypothetical. Voter intimidation and fraud not only reflects poor character of the party involved, it discredits the integrity of every elected public official and the election process itself. HB 1027 begins to address the historical and very real issues of voter intimidation and voter fraud."

ORDINARY CALENDAR

H.B. No. 88, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 88, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. House Bill 88, House Draft 1, seeks to repeal a long standing rule of statutory construction that the terms 'or' and 'and' have the meaning of the other or of both. At first glance, it seems to make sense. Words should be used in their ordinary meaning and interpretation. However, Mr. Speaker, if you look at the rationale behind the rule and at an example of its application, there are really cogent reasons not to alter this rule of statutory construction.

"This rule is applied 'in order to arrive at a reasonable construction' … 'in construing ambiguous statutory language [to determine] the true meaning of ambiguous words… by examining the context in which they are used.' I'm citing Wee v. Board of Accountancy, 51 Haw. 80, 84, 452 P.2d 94, 97 (Hawaii 1969) (substituting 'and' for 'or' in construing HRS § 164-1(b); In re Pratt, 34 Haw. 935, 1939 WL 8141, *4 (Haw. Terr. 1939) (substituting 'or' for 'and' in construing Section 4850, R. L. 1935).

"The rationale for this rule is to allow the courts to construe 'the sense of a word which harmonizes best with the whole context of the statute and promotes in the fullest manner the apparent policy and objects of the legislature…' Again, citing In re City and County of Honolulu Corporation Counsel, 54 Haw. 356, 374, 507, P.2d, 169, 178 (1973).

"I'll give you an example of how this statutory construction rule is used in the prohibition of what would be considered unfair and deceptive trade practices under HRS § 480-2, which prohibits 'unfair…acts or practices' and 'deceptive…acts or practices.' Read literally, Mr. Speaker, as would be required by the proposed amendment, a practice under the Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices Act that is both unfair and deceptive is not actionable. The act or practice must be either unfair or deceptive. Similarly, the action must be either an act or a practice, not both, to be actionable.

"This is just one example, Mr. Speaker. Unless the Legislature would like to go and command a review of all the Hawaii Revised Statutes, and all the areas where an 'and' or 'or' is located, I think this is premature and rife for all kinds of misinterpretation and misapplication of both criminal and civil law. For those reasons, I am voting no. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I understand the concerns raised by the two previous speakers, and if you read the bill it says, 'provided that if the context requires, the term 'or' may mean both 'or' and 'and', to address the exact situation the previous speakers indicated.

"The countervailing concern is that if you read the current statute, it says 'and' and 'or' mean the same thing, and they don't. And I think it is embarrassing to the State to have statutes that are clearly, logically incorrect, and that's why I wanted to address this issue. But, the previous speakers are correct that this is not as simple an issue as it would appear to be on its face. Mahalo."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to cast a no vote as well. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to note, this is a change that may seem small in the length of a word, but it could be a major impact. I think we ought to proceed more carefully. This is something our Legislative Reference Bureau would be very capable of, doing an examination of this and coming back to us with proposed legislation. I think it's wiser to wait. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I completely agree with the intent of this bill, because a lot of times when we put specific things like 'and', we make specific note on whether things are 'and' or 'or'. For instance, when we're dealing with some agency or any type of things that have to meet the requirements of four items, there's a big difference between making it an 'and' or making it an 'or'.

"So, if you want somebody to follow all four things, we put 'and'. If you want to make a choice, you put 'or'. The fact that courts can read 'and' as an 'or', or 'or' as an 'and' or vice versa, gives too much discretion to the courts. If there is a problem, and there is some type of confusion, we can always come back, but we need to retain this jurisdiction. We're the policy makers, we're the ones who write the law, we need to have that discretion and we need to retain that authority.

"If we allow the courts to continue to interchange between 'and' and 'or', you're giving too much power to the courts. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 88, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSTRUCTION OF LAWS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Fale, McDermott, Oshiro, Say, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Belatti, Carroll, Coffman, Hanohano, Har, Ichiyama, Kawakami and Nishimoto being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations because this is going to deal another blow against our floundering, already almost dying, high tech industry. This is the exemption of the GE Tax for those high tech companies that get defense contract and other types of federal monies, generally SBIR grants, etc.

"It's going to bring in a lot of money from the mainland. Basically, it's the $20 million that this is going to get, is going to be mainland contractors. So there's obviously a State benefit, but there's also that very small high tech industry that we're going to be pushing aside, and because of that I have some reservations.

"This is basically a tax increase for our high tech industry, which heretofore we've been giving tax credits, etc. So I hope it's not getting even with them, but giving them a chance to grow in the future. Thank you."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 932, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the measure. Mr. Speaker, this is rather esoteric, hard to understand, but I think I've finally seen the light underneath the surface here.

"This bill is about wrapping geothermal into Chapter 182, which basically says, if you find gold under your backyard, it belongs to the State. If you find oil in your backyard, it belongs to the State. And this is an attempt to bring geothermal into the resources and the minerals of the State.

"The problem I have with it, other than believing that your backyard, your castle and those resources are your own, is that this is going to increase probably the taxes, fees, and heretofore the cost of cheap electricity by geothermal to make it more expensive. Mr. Speaker, we need this source of geothermal to be as least expensive as possible and right now geothermal energy is the least expensive. But if we wrap it around this category in Chapter 182, it's going to make it be regulated, taxed, fee'd, etc., like any other resource.

"The difficulty of this bill, you can see if we were in Texas or Alaska or even California when the Forty-Niners had the gold rush. When they said, 'well wait, you can't have that gold, it belongs to the state.' In effect what we're doing now with geothermal saying, 'if you've got geothermal on your land, it's not yours, just like all the other resources.'

"For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, and I would gladly yield to anyone who can say that this is not what it is in the interpretation, because it's not really apparent what they're up to. But the way I read it and the way that some of us see it, it probably is not a good move for the future. So I hope somebody can rebut what I've just said. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 932, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MINERAL RESOURCES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, McDermott and Ward voting no.

At 12:31 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 932, HD 1

Representatives Hanohano and Evans, for the Committee on Ocean, Marine Resources, & Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Water & Land, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 635), recommending that H.C.R. No. 5 be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 5 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Awana rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to request a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. My family owns Kuleana Lands. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 5, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING KULEANA LANDS AS HISTORICAL LANDS AND URGING THE COUNTIES TO SUPPORT EFFORTS TO PROMOTE CONTINUED ANCESTRAL OWNERSHIP OF KULEANA LANDS," was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Evans, for the Committee on Water & Land, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 636), recommending that H.C.R. No. 25 be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 25 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 25, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION SUBMITTING TO THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII FOR REVIEW OF ACTION TAKEN BY THE BOARD OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES ON A LAND EXCHANGE," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Hanohano and Jordan voting no.

Representative Hanohano, for the Committee on Ocean, Marine Resources, & Hawaiian Affairs, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 637) recommending that H.C.R. No. 14 be adopted.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 14 be adopted, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Hanohano rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Ke ku nei au me ke kako'o loa make ia pila. I stand in strong support of this measure. This bill corrects the Native Hawaiian's lifestyle and also their health issues, because this is having food for the table. Mahalo."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. This measure, for indigenous peoples, is very important. Especially those of Polynesia and the Pacific Islands, because it allows an opportunity for people to reconnect with a lot of the heritage which is connected with the sea turtle. I think this will go a long way in helping to reconnect Hawaiian people, especially with the culture associated with the turtle, and will help preserve Hawaiian culture, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In strong support. Very briefly, first of all, I want to thank the Chair of Ocean, Marine Resources, & Hawaiian Affairs for getting this measure out. As the former Vice Chair of Water, Land, & Ocean Resources, we had tried for many years to get this out, and so I want to commend her for moving out such an important resolution.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, may I request permission to enter written comments into the Journal? Thank you."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.C.R. 14, relating to the Hawaiian green sea turtle.

"I support H.C.R. 14 because I believe that the Hawaiian green sea turtle, or honu, should be recognized as a discrete population segment (DPS), separate from that of the endangered green sea turtle. Studies have shown the resurgence of the Hawaiian green sea turtle population and have deemed it a species of 'Least Concern.' As a result, it no longer requires the protection of Endangered Species Act. If the Hawaiian green sea turtle is categorized as a DPS, it would allow Hawaii to create a management system particular to the honu which may further benefit the species. For these reasons, I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. With respect to the Chair, I rise in opposition. And just a note that, the current breeding population is still at less than 20% of what constitutes a stable breeding population, and we may be premature at this time. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose to respond, stating:

"Just a slight rebuttal. They're talking about the premature recovery of the honu, which is a misconception, because we do have a lot of imbalances within the ocean, primarily because we have a lot of turtles. Now the turtles are swimming up into the rivers and eating all the foliage there because they do not have any food in the ocean and they have to compete with everybody else for their food. So it's been creating a lot of imbalances, and to me we need to manage it, and this is where this bill is going.

"It's a management plan. It is not to take all, and for indigenous people to eat all the turtle. This is more of putting things back into perspective of how things should have been.

"Because we do a lot of federal mandate types of laws and that upsets our ecosystem. So our ecosystem right now is being upset because of these laws. So in order to put it back in perspective, from an indigenous point of view, we need to manage it, and also part of the management is to capture and also to provide food for our tables. Mahalo."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Hanohano be entered into the Journal as her own, and that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. Although the Hawaiian green sea turtles will be delisted, this will by no means lead to the automatic harvesting of this important species. Monitoring will continue to ensure that the population increases. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Hanohano be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tokioka rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Hanohano be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lowen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. May the words of the Representative from Puna be recorded as my own? Thank you very much," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Hanohano be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 14, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES TO RECOGNIZE THE RECOVERY OF HAWAIIAN GREEN SEA TURTLES AND BEGIN ACTIVE MANAGEMENT OF THIS IMPORTANT SPECIES," was adopted, with Representatives Lee, Lowen and Wooley voting no.

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in support of HB 266 HD1.

"Thank you for the opportunity to support House Bill (H.B.) 266, House Draft (HD) 1. The purpose of this bill is to establish a language access resource center and a multilingual website in the Office of Language Access. As I represent immigrants of all colors and ethnic groups, I have been very supportive of any opportunity that would promote and enhance language access in the State of Hawaii.

"I believe that establishing a language access resource center will not only lead to the growth and development of a badly-needed pool of qualified interpreters in the State but will also address the interpreter needs of State and state-funded agencies and Hawaii's more than 151,000 limited English proficient (LEP) population in general.

"We badly need a multilingual website that will enable limited English proficient LEP individuals to access electronically information about government services and programs and in their own language.

"These proposals will lead to better customer service, promote equal access, and bring about greater participation by the LEP population in government services and programs. I strongly urge my colleague to pass this worthy bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 266, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANGUAGE ACCESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Coffman and McDermott being excused.

Representative Kawakami rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. Our family owns a small business that may be impacted," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Kawakami continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Please note my reservations, Mr. Speaker. I'm just concerned about the potential cost that this could impose on businesses. I would also like to note that the Director and Insurance Commissioner can already implement the increase. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations, and just some brief comments. My concern with the measure is, and I totally support the underlying measure, given that most other states have the workman's comp rate set at 140 and this would still have it 10% below others.

"My main concern is that there's been no decoupling between this and the no-fault auto insurance rates, which other states have statutorily done. And if we don't look at this as the measure moves forward, it could have an unintended effect of an immediate increase in everybody's auto insurance premiums and exasperate uninsured drivers.

"So I'd just like to note it just for the record, so as we move forward on this important measure, we can perhaps discuss this more. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"May I have a ruling on a potential conflict, since everyone else who is in small business has stood up. Thank you very much," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Say then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 152, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION MEDICAL FEE SCHEDULES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Coffman and McDermott being excused.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 269, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. Very briefly, I very much support the intent of the bill of having public officials actually representing the community that they live in. Of particular concern though, is with young people who are born and raised in a district that move away to get educated, won't be allowed to return home and decide to run for public office.

"And more generally, any time we consider restricting the right of anybody in the public to run for office, we need to be very provident and conscientious."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition and if I could adopt the words of the previous speaker. I understand the intent of this measure is so that the people who run for office come from the districts that they represent. But I can imagine a hypothetical situation where, let's say, somebody from the neighbor islands comes to Honolulu to be educated, let's say to become a doctor at the medical school, or moves to Honolulu to attend the law school. And while they're living here, they change their voter registration so that they can vote for the person where they're living, here in Honolulu.

"However, they may return home and wish to run for office, and this bill would prevent them from doing so. And I think it unfairly would prohibit especially young people from running for office, and that's why I'm in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A no vote and I'd like to ask that the words of the speaker from Red Hill be inserted into the Journal as if they were my own, although I'm an old person," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takumi rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, with just a couple of comments. Rather than belabor the point. I know the intent of this. The intent of this is to prevent someone who's totally unfamiliar with a district, moving in very recently and running for office. But for every person that this precludes from running for office, you're actually hurting another person, who for example was born and raised in that district for 30 or 40 years, for example, and then for whatever reason, whatever circumstances, did not live in that district in the previous year or so. That person now cannot file to run.

"In my book the best test as to whether or not voters, and they're sharp enough to discern the difference. Voters can make up their minds, and it's called elections. If they feel residency, long term residency, is an issue, they will not vote for you. If they feel you bring to the table other attributes that they feel represents their values, they will vote for you. Essentially what this does is, we're kind of making up the minds for voters. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ito rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Takumi and Ichiyama be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takumi be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ichiyama be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition and would like to say a few words. Thank you. I don't want to limit someone to put their name in if they want to run. There already are requirements to be a US citizen. I think the test will come with the voters, if they want to vote for that person or not. So, I just don't see that this is a good policy to move forward. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and brief comments. Mr. Speaker, my difficulty with the bill here is that it's not clear, that it implies physical residency. But definitionally residency, even if you've gone off to the mainland, as indicated by our Member from Maui, you don't lose your residency unless you register to vote in another state's election. So actually by the statute and the strict interpretation, you don't lose your residency because where you were before you went is considered your residence.

"This bill is 'loosey goosey' because it doesn't say 'physical residence' versus 'residency in the State of Hawaii' and I think that needs to be clarified. But I think the legal definition of residency has always been rather interpretative with intention and motivation, etc., to establish residency, and I think that language needs to be clarified. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in support of this measure. And the reason why I support it is that the first time I ran for office, there were about five of us who are bona fide residents of the district that would like to represent our people, until somebody from outside came in that was well-funded and had a bigger name and took that opportunity from all of us. So, I stand in strong support of this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Onishi rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and just a brief comment, if I may. First, I would like to adopt the words of the Chair of Education as if they were my own. And also I just would like to say that, Mr. Speaker, this is for the very same reasons that I am opposed to term limits and other things, which was so well articulated as the choices aren't being made by the voters anymore.

"The voters are really akamai, Mr. Speaker. They can see through anything and they're the ones who are the ultimate judges of who is best to represent them. Thank you very much."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. First, I would just say that we're talking about a 12-month residency requirement in the district, which isn't very long. And I think for those who were out of town for whatever reason. Students, if you go to the mainland to go to school it doesn't necessarily mean you move your residency.

"But a minimum level of knowledge about the district I think is a good thing when you run for office. And I'll also just point out this is a con-am, so people will have to support the idea. Voters will actually have to support the idea before it becomes law. Mahalo."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. I wasn't going to stand, but I think the words of the Chair of Education kind of prompted me. And in fact to some degree I almost feel like I need to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict, because if this law had been in place when I first ran for office, I would not have been able to stand for a seat in the House back in 1994.

"At that time, Mr. Speaker, I was living in Mililani, about two miles away from Wahiawa. But with the suggestion of my father, I decided to seek public office, and do so from a community which I was born and raised and grew up and schooled in. So that's what I did by moving back to Wahiawa.

"I did so approximately two and a half months before the general election. And I have been serving the community of Wahiawa proudly for the last 18 years.

"So I think with that kind of history and my own personal experience with the voters of my district, I think this is a bad idea. I think it short-changes them and it basically preempts the opportunity for people who are born and raised in the community, who understand the community and are from the community, of the chance to represent that community. So, I would recommend that we not move this bill forward.

"I would also like to remind people that with the current reapportionment that we just went through, the current case that's before the Federal District Court, that the district lines might change before the next election. And for all of us sitting here, we might be impacted by those changes. And if this law would be in place, some or many of us might find us without a seat to run from or run for.

"So I think the words that are suggested here are to be taken under consideration. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, again in opposition. This bill would also exclude a cousin of mine who has served nine tours in the Middle East and has spent more of the last 10 years in the Middle East than he has at home. And this would prevent him as well as many other veterans who have served numerous terms in the Middle East serving our country. And I believe it would be a disservice to them for them to come home and feel the need to run for office, and then to be told that they would not be able to run for office, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Please adopt the words of the Judiciary Chair as my own. I would like to also note that, just to clarify that, Article III, Section 6, of the Hawaii Constitution currently includes language that addresses reapportionment years. It provides that in reapportionment years, the residency requirements in this provision do not apply. So, in that sense there is a safe harbor for incumbents who face reapportioned districts. Thank you very much."

Representative Ing rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict. If this law was in place a year or two ago I would not be qualified to run for public office because I spent the last six years on Oahu and voted in the 2008 presidential and 2010 interim election here before I decided to return to my home island to run. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ing continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Still with reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. The untold story of Honouliuli Internment Camp
A film marking 70 years since the facility's opening recalls families' separation ordeals

Edna Saifuku was 15 when she saw the towers with guards bearing machine guns at the Honouliuli Internment Camp in Kunia, where she and her siblings visited their father, Sam Nishimura.

Nishimura, a tailor shop owner, was detained at the internment site with hundreds of other Japanese-Americans during World War II.

On a cloudy afternoon recently at her home tucked at the end of a cul-de-sac in Wahiawa, Saifuku, 86, talked about the injustice by the federal government against her father and other internees. "I thought we were protected by the Constitution. We are Americans," she said. "Nobody should've been taken to the internment camps."

This month marks the 70th anniversary of the opening of Honouliuli, the largest of the 13 internment sites in Hawaii during the war. The Nishimuras are one of the families featured in the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii documentary "The Untold Story: Internment of Japanese Americans in Hawaii."

One day in April 1942, an FBI agent took Sam Nishimura, a nisei born and raised in Haleiwa, to the immigration station in Honolulu. He was taken from his Haleiwa home for questioning about a truck that was sent to the Japan Red Cross, according to information gathered for an Ethnic Studies Oral History Project at the University of Hawaii at Manoa.

Nishimura told investigators that he believed the truck was going to be used to help people, as would have been the case with the American Red Cross. Despite being an American citizen, he was detained at the Sand Island detention camp and later transferred to Honouliuli, according to information from the oral history project.

During his internment, Nishimura worked as the camp tailor, altering coats for internees, including those of German and Italian descent, and uniforms for guards.

Saifuku recalled the hardship their soft-spoken mother, Hisae, endured to support six children while their father was interned for 2½ years. "She took care of all of us," she said.

Their grandfather Keitaro Nishimura stepped in to help tend to the children as their mother worked nonstop at the family's tailor shop in Haleiwa.

Saifuku leafed through an old box filled with letters and birthday cards that she and her siblings sent to their father while he was confined. Nishimura saved all the letters written by them and his wife.

Among the letters Saifuku shared with the Star-Advertiser was one her mother wrote to Lt. Gen. Robert Richardson Jr., military governor of the Territory of Hawaii, in September 1943 requesting her husband be released from internment.

A necklace her father made for her from shells collected while at Sand Island, and colorful rings he created out of toothbrush handles at Honouliuli, also were some of the items she shared. According to the oral history project, internees created and molded the rings from toothbrush handles using a hacksaw, hot water, a round pole and sandpaper.

Nishimura was released from Honouliuli before the end of the war after he signed documents stating he wouldn't sue the government.

He didn't talk about his experience at the internment camp with his children. It was only when his granddaughter Sandi Chang – who was working on an assignment for her ethnic studies class at the University of Hawaii – asked him if he could tell her what happened at Honouliuli that he agreed to talk about it.

Chang said her grandfather in his own way did hold resentment against the federal government but didn't show it. "When I was interviewing him, that's kind of when it came out," she said.

Saifuku, Chang's mother, said, "We didn't know that he was angry."

She said people need to know what happened so history doesn't repeat itself. "Something like that shouldn't happen again."

Nishimura's oral history interview conducted by Perry Nakayama appeared in a collection called "Waialua and Haleiwa: The People Tell Their Story." The interview occurred in 1976, a year before Nishimura died. He was 71.

Efforts are being made to ensure the history of Honouliuli is not forgotten.

The National Park Service is working on a study of 13 Japanese internment sites in Hawaii. The process started two years ago when the park service held public meetings to gather information and recommendations.

Paul DePrey, superintendent of the WWII Valor in the Pacific National Monument, said the goal of the study is to determine the significance of the internment sites on a national level and how best to preserve them. DePrey said he hopes the final draft of the study will be ready this summer for public review.

In the state Legislature, House Bill 1396 would appropriate funds for the planning, design and construction of the Honouliuli Internment Camp Education Center and Nisei Veterans Legacy Center.

At UH-West Oahu an archaeology course is offered to students that involves work conducted at Honouliuli. Also, a team of researchers is putting together a journal focusing on the internment camp, said Suzanne Falgout, anthropology professor at UH-West Oahu. The journal is expected to be available to the public by year's end.

"The story of the WWII Honouliuli Camp reminds us of the truly global reach and complexities of that war. And, it highlights some of the significant challenges to our important principles of democracy and social justice in times of conflict. World War II internment and imprisonment impacted a wide diversity of people in Hawaii, and the lessons it holds are important ones to remember today. In that sense, Honouliuli is everybody's story," Falgout said in an email.

Later this year marks the 25th anniversary of the Civil Liberties Act, signed in August 1988 by President Ronald Reagan, that acknowledged the federal government's unjust actions against Japanese-Americans during World War II. Each surviving internee received a formal apology and $20,000 in restitution, according to the Japanese American National Museum website.

Norman Osumi's father, the late Rev. Paul Osumi, was one of the former internees who received reparations from the federal government. His father was detained a day after the Pearl Harbor attack.

"My father never understood why he was picked up. He didn't believe he did anything wrong against the United States. He did right by the government," said Osumi, 71, of Nuuanu, who is also featured in the documentary.

Osumi's father was born in Hiroshima and raised in Hawaii. He was confined at Sand Island before he was transported to a mainland internment camp.

While at Gila River Relocation Center, an internment site in Arizona, Osumi became gravely ill with pleurisy, an inflammation of the membrane that surrounds the lungs. Osumi's mother, Janet, left their Honolulu home with her two sons and moved into the internment camp to care for her husband. His health later improved.

Norman Osumi was a toddler when they moved to the internment camp.

They stayed there until the end of the war and lived on the mainland for a while before returning to Hawaii in 1946. Norman Osumi said when his father received the apology and restitution, he never spoke about it.

He believes his father didn't hold any resentment against the federal government. "He didn't show it or state it," Osumi said.

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 1396, HD1, a bill that would appropriate funding for the planning, design and construction of a center in West Oahu that would incorporate a Nisei Veterans Legacy Center and a Honouliuli Internment Camp Educational Center.

"The history and legacy of our Nisei community here in Hawaii and the service they gave to our country is a beacon and a light that I believe should be held high for all to see, and especially held up as a motivational banner for young members of our community. Their story has been an enormous inspiration for me to serve in a quiet and humble way.

"I am concerned that because of the great humility with which they served important stories and lessons may be lost, this facility would serve us well in preserving and portraying this legacy to continue to inspire us and our posterity. For these reasons I strongly support this measure."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support on HB 1396, HD 1 because the existing remnants of the Honouliuli Internment Camp is a historical site that is located within State House District 39. It is humbling to represent a district with a strong history dating back to World War II and I have supported the establishment of a Honouliuli advisory group since 2012. I believe that it is important to preserve this piece of history so that future generations can understand the sacrifices made by all groups of people, especially those of Japanese ancestry, to protect and preserve the freedoms we are privileged to enjoy today. Their courage shall not be forgotten."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 120, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, this is about care facility inspections and violations that after a chance for adjudication, they go to the public, and they're on a website for everybody to see. Which is good, but I have two reservations.

"One is, this care industry is a budding industry. As you know, we cannot afford long-term care, and these care facilities, primarily in Kalihi, are a real boon to the community, Mr. Speaker.

"And secondly, for the sake of equity, what's fair? Right now we have restaurant inspectors, sometimes of which have gross violations, and they don't get put up on the website for the public to see. They don't have a 'ding' in the owner and the employee's reputation.

"So until we do that for all of these other things for the public health, I think we're picking on this industry which is in its nascent stage and we should back off until we're all going to do that for all the public health, public information. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with reservations and I would like the words of my colleague from Hawaii Kai to be inserted into the record as if they were my own.

"Normally I would stand in opposition, but since my colleagues here have worked with me in making this bill a little bit more palatable to the care home operators, I'm voting with reservation out of respect to them.

"But I think that the care home industry has been taken to a level wherein a lot of the care providers are exiting the business because there is so much manipulation to this industry.

"In 2008, Mr. Speaker, there were 500 care home operators. And up to today, that number is still the same, while the market should have risen exponentially because of demands. So because of this micromanagement and laws written to micromanage and put a lot of sunshine to these small business owners, it had an impact of not wanting to be in that business.

"So I think measures such as this, although it's well intended, we should not forget that these are people's homes, and people's homes are their castle. So we should have a little bit more respect for these people, because they are not paid well, and the work is so tedious, Mr. Speaker, that not too many people would like to enter. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting with reservations. I just want to let this Body know that the amount of money that they're getting is about $1,300 a patient. And that $1,300 is not enough, the way I look at it, because the caregivers give more or less, house them, feed them, bring them to the doctor, and it's 24/7. And the way I computed it is, if you compute the amount of money they receive it's just like they're being paid $1 or $2 an hour.

"So hopefully this bill is not a destruction of what they do. If they give up taking care of the elderly or the patient that they have, we will be losing a lot of money. The alternative is bleak. So treat them nicely. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations on HB 120, HD 2 because I support the intent and want to ensure that our kupuna are being cared for in a safe and responsible manner. My reservation with this bill is because it does not clarify the ways in which a care facility may appeal to a related posted violation that, while the violation may be justified under the potential law created by this bill, it inadvertently will also hurt those in the facility who are properly caring for our kupuna. As the bill moves through its process in the Legislature, I hope that language may be inserted that would address such concerns."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and if I could just make a few comments. With this particular bill and with a number of bills moving through the legislative session this year, there really is an emphasis on the public's right to know.

"In the Health Committee we heard moving testimony from individuals who were looking to put their parents into homes, and they just wanted information. They had to call the Department of Health and they were told, maybe in 15 days we'll be able to give you some information about any of the care homes that you would like to consider. In those 15 days, at that point in time, that individual would have had to have already made a decision very quickly to move an aging parent from a hospital to a care home setting.

"I think what this bill highlights and what this focuses on is the public's right to know. On transparency, on making these documents that are already available, to be made available online, it's a good measure and a good direction for this House to move in.

"I do want to thank all the Members who are working on this and we will continue to work on this because I think there is a balance that will need to be struck between the public's right to know as well as the business interest's right to protect their reputation.

"And I fully embrace Minority Leader Emeritus's suggestion that we go, after we deal with this and use this potentially as a model, that we go to the other business entities in this State for disclosure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I appreciate that information and I would just add one thing in with my reservations. As the Department of Health, Sanitation Branch, has physical hard copies now available for people, I didn't hear it was 15 days later, but it's now available. So if people want to do it, they can go, get in their car or however they get there, because the hard copy is available.

"The issue is this is going to go public, it's going to be over the Internet. And as my colleague said, it's not equitable given that our other public health concerns that we're not publicizing. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. This measure has a little bit more work to be done on it before we get to the complete end of it. I think it is our obligation to provide to this industry that is going to be growing in the near future to care for our elderly and disabled in these care homes in our communities. And it should be up to us to put this information out to the general public when such incidents happen. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Say rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I take up Stand. Com. Report 698 and 699, in opposition with written comments. Thank you very much."

Representative Say's written remarks in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 698 are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak against H.B. 1173, HD 1, relating to Collective Bargaining. House Bill No. 1173, HD 1 repeals the prohibition of using arbitration to resolve impasses or disputes relating to State and County Hawaii Employer Union Health Benefits Trust Fund (known as EUTF) contributions and authorizes arbitration panels to decide EUTF contributions. HD 1 also repeals the prohibition on the right to strike over EUTF contributions.

"I truly believe that the best way to maintain control of EUTF costs is to leave the final decision for EUTF contributions in the hands of the Legislature if the two parties are unable to reach an agreement. While arbitration panels are tasked to consider the employee's ability to pay and overall economic conditions, panels often fail to grasp the complexities of the State Budget.

"Recent fiscal conditions have made it increasingly difficult to reach resolution in collective bargaining negotiations. However, altering what is done in these situations to allow binding arbitration would take this critical decision out of our hands (elected officials) and put it in the hands of unelected and unaccountable arbitrators. Even though the Legislature would still have the authority to reject an arbitration award, it appears all cost items would be rejected, not just EUTF contributions. And so the end result of this measure could result in giving the Legislature a choice of fully conceding control of this significant portion of the State Budget to the arbitration panels or RISK ending collective bargaining negotiations.

"Let us not get into the fiscal irresponsibility for the future generations of the people of the State of Hawaii.

"A VOICE OF REASON IN THIS HOUSE."

Representative Say's written remarks in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 699 are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak against the repeal of the base monthly contribution amount formula for public employee contributions to the Employee-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund (EUTF) for State/County Retirees health benefits.

"Why I am opposed to this measure is that first the base monthly contribution formula provides an upper threshold parameter for the EUTF Board of Trustees in determining health benefits plan designs and benefits for State/County Retirees. Cost is a significant consideration in the design of a health benefit plan, and removing the upper threshold parameter could lead to development of health benefit plans for retirees that are unsustainable. And it should be noted that collective bargaining of public employer EUTF contribution serves as the comparable upper threshold parameter for active State/County employees.

"Secondly, the base monthly contribution formula for State/County retirees is one of the factors used by the actuary in determining the unfunded other post-employment benefit (OPEB) liability of the EUTF. Repealing the base monthly contribution formula could result in an increase of the EUTF unfunded OPEB liability, which is currently $16.3 billion for all State/County jurisdictions – the State's portion of the unfunded OPEB Liability is about $13.6 billion.

"For these reasons, I oppose H.B. 1174, HD 1.

"A VOICE OF REASON."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 698, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. Basically I'm reading from the Committee report, Mr. Speaker. It states that this would repeal the prohibition against using binding arbitration to resolve impasses or disputes relating to State and county EUTF contributions. I'm not very much concerned with that, I think that's part of the process right now. And I think it will probably lead itself to better negotiations and better resolutions.

"But what I find troubling is that it repeals the Legislature's role in determining the State and county contribution amounts where agreement cannot be reached between the parties. In other words, once it goes to arbitration, the arbitration panel decides the amount and the cost shared between the employer and employee. It basically end-runs the legislative prerogative and responsibility of funding and appropriating any necessary cost items.

"I think this is an essential component of the responsibility of the Legislative purse strings in the area of collective bargaining. Not that we get involved in the bargaining itself, but we are given the responsibility to find the funding of all cost items against the other needs of the day.

"And then a third consideration that I'm concerned about, Mr. Speaker, is that it would permit the bargain unit members to use State and county EUTF contributions as a basis for striking. It seems unusual that this one component, if there's no settlement reached, that it will allow all parties to strike.

"I think under current Chapter 89 provisions, only certain units are allowed strike provisions. The rest need to go to resolution through binding arbitration. But this seems to open it all up to the strike versus arbitration when there's a dispute on the EUTF contributions. So, for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I respectfully oppose this measure. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 698 and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same request, adopting the Representative from Wahiawa's words. I have reservations and a brief comment. As Speaker Say noted, I would say comments to both of these bills, 698 and 699 with a question.

"My reservation is, why would we want to tempt the unfunded liability which for this health fund is already six-point-something billion dollars and rising without this, because of costs going up. Why would we as a Body, who have been told by various and sundry sources of actuarial with the ERS and the EUTF, to make it whole we have to put $500 million and on for the next 30 years to make our unfunded liabilities whole.

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to have our eyes open on what we're doing by doing this, because it's already going up without releasing it. And with that are my reservations. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 698, stating:

"I'm also standing in opposition, Mr. Speaker, and I would like the words of the Representatives from Hawaii Kai and Wahiawa as my own. And I just would like to add that we have a huge unfunded mandate right now, and these next four bills that we're about to consider would definitely aggravate that. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Standing Committee Report Number 715, House Bill 31, House Draft 1, Relating to Disorderly Conduct, I'll be voting against this measure. Just briefly, my main objection is that you're basically using a criminal code, I think it's the 710, 711 chapter, when you criminalize disorderly conduct. And when one thinks about disorderly conduct, one thinks about provoking a fight, provoking a scuffle, obnoxious noise to irritate people, creating a commotion or even panhandling in Waikiki is disorderly conduct. And that's the kind of offense that I think is fitting for the criminal code and description of disorderly conduct.

"What we're trying to do here is to criminalize a person who might need to find shelter from the rain or the elements and they do so at the bus stop, or near a bus stop, or adjacent to a bus stop. But some shelter from the elements. Most of these people are probably poor, homeless, but they use bus facilities as a shelter.

"I think my reading of this bill would basically criminalize that person finding shelter there. If that person sleeps for 60 minutes or more, they'll be charged with a crime. This is not only bus shelters that you see on Beretania or King Street but those larger facilities in and about our communities. I just think that's a little bit too far to address the homeless folks misusing bus benches or taking up space for others who are using the buses getting to and from work or their business of the day. And that's my concern. So that's why I'll be voting no. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As your advocate for the homeless in this Body, I'm voting no because I feel that this is a little bit too harsh for them. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I have a no vote cast for me please, and could the words of the former Legal Aid attorney be entered into the Journal as if they were my own. I spent five years at Legal Aid and I'm embarrassed I didn't stand up first and cast a no vote on that. I appreciate my colleague from a later era at Legal Aid for doing that. I think he's very correct on this. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. For many of my constituents, the bus stop is an important transportation hub. They use the bus all the time to get to and from work and to do everything else they need to do. And especially for the older ones, not being able to use the bus stop is more than a minor inconvenience.

"If the homeless were camping out in the middle of Beretania Street and taking the middle lane of traffic and we were putting up cones so that people would drive around them, I don't think there'd be any question that this would be considered at least a violation, as this bill calls for. It's obstructing a form of transportation and it's an important form of transportation in the district I represent.

"It will not be easy to convict anybody under this bill, because it does require an hour and you have to prove that they've been there an hour. There's always a balance between treating people humanely and allowing the rest of the people to live their lives, and that's what I'm trying to strike here. Mahalo."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. My only reservation is applying the negligent mental state in this case. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, just a quick rebuttal. If the concern is for the homeless people to go and use it as a sleeping facility, there are ways that we can mitigate that and I think that in some certain bus stops that's been mitigated by having small sitting stools as opposed to a bench. So I don't think this bill is necessary, because the City and County is already addressing the issue. Thank you. In opposition."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

At 1:00 o'clock p.m., Representative Awana requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:03 o'clock p.m.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I want to register a 'with reservations' on this. As someone who has ridden the bus here on Honolulu, I understand why people have concerns walking up and maybe sometimes feeling threatened, maybe experiencing something they haven't before with a homeless person. They're on the bench and maybe it's raining and you want to get out of the rain.

"So I understand the concern and why it was introduced. But the bigger problem is we need to find places for our homeless people and shelters for them. Thank you."

The Attorney General's office and the construction industry testified in opposition, as this proposed bill also conflicts with existing administrative rules within the Department of Health. Again, Mr. Speaker, I am sure that other Members of this Body have received phone calls from constituents relating to loud noises from vehicles and neighbors blasting music to where homes are vibrating and for these reasons I am hopeful that the concerns that have been raised will be addressed as this HB 37, HD 1 moves through the process. Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 321, HD 1. I am in favor of the intent of the bill which is to increase the number of registered voters in the State of Hawaii. I do have some concerns.

"Ricky Watanabe, the County Clerk, County of Kaua'i, submitted the following comments on the bill, 'We are particularly concerned with the additional burden being placed on poll workers or the 'registration clerk' as noted in the bill. Though the EDR process for most voters should be fairly straight forward, situations involving questionable voter residency and related issues frequently occur, and are sometimes quite difficult to resolve. Since poll workers (or registration clerks) are essentially volunteers, we do not believe they should be handling such complex and potentially contentious issues. Additionally, the bill will likely increase operating costs for both the State and Counties. 'Registration clerks' will require fairly intensive training on the various statutes and administrative rules governing voter registration and residency, and would likely require related support documents or devices to properly fulfill their responsibilities.'

"As Mr. Watanabe points out, the very nature of the polling place will change if this bill becomes an Act. The ability to hold elections to select public officials is a cornerstone of our constitutional republic. I am concerned that if our election-day polling places take on a dual-function role of both registering voters and managing the polling place, that this may compromise the election process.

"Jeffrey Kuwada, from the Office of the County Clerk, County of Maui, had similar grave concerns about lack of staffing, additional training needed and computer connections to the State of Hawaii voter database.

"The County Clerk's offices from County of Maui, City and County of Honolulu and County of Hawaii also had similar concerns. In addition the Clerk from the City and County of Honolulu noted that, "a cast ballot cannot be retrieved (nor election results amended) if that election day ballot was issued either fraudulently (albeit unlikely) or perhaps erroneously (i.e. without proper authorization/documentation, in the wrong precinct, or if not in adherence to established procedure)."

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 321, HD1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 321, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 726) recommending that H.B. No. 619, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 619, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some reservations on this measure. I'm still studying this draft here, but my reading last night kind of gave me pause to share my thoughts on this bill. I think this bill is trying to address the situation where you have an inconsiderate neighbor or reckless neighbor in your neighborhood, maybe feeding their pigeons, maybe inviting the wild birds to one's backyard for their own personal enjoyment, not knowing that the birds might land adjacent to their homes and do their natural business on people's eaves and porches and patios and rooftops.

"My family has certainly been at times negligent of doing that, growing up in Wahiawa, raising some pheasants and Japanese quail and pigeons and all the other kinds of animals that go along with that.

"But what kind of struck me is that there is no measurement of when and what degree ones feeding of feral or wild birds would become a problem and would need to be criminalized in order to act as a deterrent to that behavior. It basically almost sets a strict liability of standard that if a person feeds a wild or feral bird, that person can be guilty of a violation for the first offense. But the second and subsequent offenses will be a petty misdemeanor, you will charge them with a crime.

"There's no authorization or distinguishing element in this bill to impose a different fine, nor would you expect one for a minor. Let's say that a child would go out there and toss the old stale bread into their backyard, or at Ala Moana Beach Park threw a piece of their musubi to feed the dove or the sparrows going about. A strict reading and application of this bill might criminalize their behavior or at least make it a violation.

"This bill seeks to address a nuisance in some communities, but I think it kind of goes a little bit too far on the current draft. So those are my reservations. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Thank you. Next door to where I live, a 99 year old man feeds the wild turkeys that come into Waikaloa Village, and it really gives him a lot of pleasure. I know people in the neighborhood maybe find it a little bit of a nuisance. Because instead of having 2 or 3 birds you have maybe 12 turkeys, and they fly all around the different neighbors and they do their duty on people's lawn furniture or whatever. But we tolerate it because it brings a lot of pleasure to this old man.

"I just think if things are a nuisance, I just kind of, in my heart, want to believe that communities can find answers to these types of problems and that we don't really have to pass a law on this kind of behavior. So for that reason, I'm in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Takayama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as the introducer of the bill, I rise in support of the measure. The intent behind the bill was not to punish the occasional feeder, but the intent was to make it illegal for persistent feeders who create a public nuisance to their neighbors. Public nuisance defined by causing property damage or health problems to their neighbors. That was the intent behind the bill as it was introduced. Thank you very much."

Representative McKelvey rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ruling on a potential conflict. I feed the mynah birds with dog food on my property," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McKelvey continued in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Evans be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, reservations with a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, in my district the issue is feral cats. And I'm sure it's in probably many other districts where feeding feral cats, and you've got almost half the population saying it's the best thing you could do, and the others saying it's the worst thing you could do for public health, for encouraging and having this proliferation.

"So for consistencies sake, if we're going to punish people for feeding birds, there's got to be a re-examination, are we going to take in cats, then from cats is it going to chickens, then on and on. So I'm afraid that we're entering a slippery slope here and we should cautiously proceed. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same ruling on a potential conflict. Not only do I feed some wild birds, I happen to eat them as well," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"That actually goes exactly to the point that I'm actually raising right now. That used to be one of my favorite pastimes as a little kid, is to go try and feed these animals and try to catch them.

"There's a group of guys, we like to go out into the mountains regularly, we live in the country part of Oahu. And one of my friends that we go out and do this with, a new person moved into the neighborhood who is very wealthy and bought a really nice piece of property, and the birds that we feed and sometimes enjoy kind of happen into the yard of the neighbor and now this would make what we do criminally wrong. But I think this is just part of being a country boy and doing some of the country things that we do. So with that, Mr. Speaker, I'm opposed to this measure."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please note my reservations. Just a few comments. In Makaha Valley we do have birds known as peacocks and that retirement community does enjoy the pleasure of, I guess watching them and feeding them as well. And I do have some concerns with the harshness of some of the penalties in this and I'll review it between now and Third Reading. Thank you very much."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I'd also just like to vote with reservations. And if this bill moves forward I hope that the original intent is realized with further work on this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 619, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FERAL BIRDS," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Evans and Fale voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 727) recommending that H.B. No. 1202, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1202, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition for House Bill 1202. It says in the bill, 'any person, who engages in an activity requiring a license issued by the licensing authority.' That equates to hundreds of thousands of people in Hawaii, Mr. Speaker. There goes your plumber, your lawyers, your nurses, your doctors, etc., etc. There's hundreds of thousands of them. And then the bill goes on, 'licensee who inadvertently fails to maintain licensing requirements under the appropriate licensing statute and who subsequently corrects the failure so that there was no lapse in licensure, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and each day of unlicensed activity shall be deemed a separate offense.'

"We will be prosecuting every day, Mr. Speaker. There will be a lot of people that will be criminalized based on this statue. It is so broad and is so wide that I think that it's either we're going to make a lot of money out of these people or the courts will be so busy with them.

"And so that's the reason, Mr. Speaker, not unless I'm reading this statue in error. But that's what it sounds like to me. It affects hundreds of thousands of people that have licenses in this State. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I think probably a prior draft of this measure, way before it got to a public hearing, maybe it suggested that. But actually the current draft, as I read it, actually protects an inadvertent failure to maintain a person's license, so they will not be penalized if it's inadvertent.

"And I think it's good for businesses who might inadvertently fail to file on the right day, or because of the change of the calendar or some computer glitch, they might not get the requisite documents in, so that their license might lapse and then they might be penalized for unauthorized license activity.

"So I think the bill as a current draft, I think it cures the concern that was raised by the prior speaker. And I think it was supported by DCCA as well as the Contractor's Association. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1202, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUSINESS," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representative Cabanilla voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 587, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PENAL CODE," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 729) recommending that H.B. No. 493, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 493, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. This bill has great intentions and I think the initial thrust of it is good. If you're going to trap cats and dogs, you're going to be punished for it. And my only concern is, and it's been voiced by the Director of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, is that if you trap a rat or a mouse, you may fall under this particular bill.

"In other words, it's trying to avoid trapping animals, particularly cats and dogs. But as the DLNR stated, this section should also not apply to persons carrying out accepted practices for rodent control that do not involve the devices listed in subsection 1 above.

"In other words, if we're going to do it, let's do it right. And it's with good intentions, but I think people shouldn't be penalized for catching rats in their home. And right now it implies that it could be. And I think we just have to be crisp and clear about it. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this measure too, similar to the words of the previous speaker from Hawaii Kai. In fact may the record reflect that I adopt his words as my own.

"Further, I just have concerns, I think not so much in section 1 which is really I think to address the situation when you have an inadvertent trapping of a person's cat or dog. I think that's terrible and it should be criminalized. But I think the concern that we have is, under the current draft, is that someone who may be setting out a rat trap or a mouse trap, depending upon on how that trap is configured, whether it's considered a conibear trap or a foot or leg-hold trap or a steel-jaw leg-hold trap, any of those described in this bill might inadvertently subject the homeowner who is trying to rid their home of a pest like a mouse or a rat to a criminal fine here. So that's my concern. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"In support. I just want to make sure that Members read the bill closely. Thanks."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1316, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. I think this will increase, or make life more difficult for families trying to rent places, particularly on Oahu, at least that's where my expertise lies. If you want to try and rent a home as it is, it's very competitive and if you look in the paper there are practically no, almost zero, dwellings that will allow you to bring a pet in there. So the ones that do, know that they have an edge on the market and therefore can charge a premium if they're going to allow you to bring a dog to the house.

"So, a unit that would normally rent for say $2,200, you know that you can get $2,400 - $2,500 for that, because you're going to allow a pet. So, the market already addresses a built-in mechanism for the extra money that you might want to have to clean up a urine spill or whatever it is. When you go into the deal, you know you're going to allow pets, okay. So you charge more. There's a premium. That's how the free market works, particularly here on Oahu, because if you look in the paper there are no dwellings to rent.

"So the young family renting, and they have a dog and a little boy, this is going to increase the cost of, not only will the people charge a premium when they put the dwelling up for rent, they're also now going to take more in a security deposit from you then they already would have. So it's going to make it more difficult for families with a little pet, and I think back to when we were little we had the little dog, to try and get a dwelling. It's very difficult. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I think the previous speaker is misunderstanding the bill. The comments from the realtors and all the other landlords indicate that they want this kind of language. Mahalo."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I would like to get a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. I see this bill to be excellent, because as a landlord, I do not rent to people with pets. Because usually, based on previous experiences, the damages are so enormous that the deposit is not enough. So what I do, I don't rent to people that have pets.

"But if there's a mechanism to put a bigger amount on the deposit that would make me feel comfortable, that if that tenant walks out on me or the lease expires, that I can recoup my damages. So I would agree with the realtors, I think this is a measure that would help people that rent as opposed to disadvantage them. Because now if this measure passes, there will be more landlords that will be open to tenants that have pets. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, ruling on a potential conflict. My mother's a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McKelvey continued in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Cabanilla be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a potential renter," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"This bill, there's a lot of young families like mine that are kind of struggling in the community and we're very much concerned about the adverse effects that would enter the marketplace to hurt us. And this is something that I believe that would really have a negative impact on young working families in my community. And I would like to adopt the words of the Representative from Ewa on the Diamond Head side as my own, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, with reservations. I think the only reservation I have is when I consider the definition of service animal and what is a service animal. Because the reality is, I think dogs are service animals for everybody. We have animals, they lower blood pressure, they're wonderful companions. What this is saying is, you can charge more money for a dog or a cat but if it's a service animal, you can't.

"So then what we have is people trying to get their animals now classified as service animals. There may be an unintended consequence to this bill. That's why I have reservations. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. A security deposit to be increased beyond the statutory minimum. Beyond. We're not regulating that, it's an agreement between the tenant and the landlord, Mr. Speaker. And we love to regulate things, so I'm not sure how that slipped through.

"As I said before, you can charge a premium. So if you're going to allow a dog or a cat, you can charge, instead of $2,200, you can charge $2,500. And you'll get it. That's your increased premium right there. The market is already taking care of that for you.

"So, who supports it: Hawaii Association of REALTORS, Cornerstone Properties, National Association of Residential Property Managers, numerous other individuals and property management companies.

"Opposition: none. You know why, Mr. Speaker? Because they're out driving truck for a living, mom's working, they're trying to go to school. They don't know about this. They couldn't come and even if they could they're not going to take off time at work to come to do this. We're not helping working families with a measure like this. The market is already taking care of it. We don't need it.

"I understand it, and I see who supports it, and it doesn't say 'working family' on here anywhere in the measure's supporters. Maybe my glasses are fogging up, but I 'm sorry. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. I'm a landlord. In fact, I will not, well I'm going to pause before I rent to someone with an animal in the future, and I speak from experience. And I know that many of you may have had these experiences or heard of these experiences, but it's tough to rent to people with animals. I think this bill strikes a balance. It allows for landlords to increase a deposit just in case there are damages. I think that's fair.

"Because what's happening now, for families that have pets, you're limited to the places where you can rent. And the volume of apartments and condos and townhouses and homes that you can get into, are being further reduced because we have a law that says you can only charge one month's rent for your security deposit.

"I think if you take a look at this bill, we're all talking about the same thing. We're saying that we need to increase the amount of available rental units for families with pets. This bill does that. This will allow for people like me and other landlords to consider, or reconsider, renting to families with pets because of this new provision, if it should pass.

"So I think some people should take a look at this bill and kind of look at it from the standpoint of landlords that no longer are renting to families with pets. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Possible conflict of interest. I'm a landlord. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. I ask that the words of the Representative from Aiea be adopted as my own. I think this is really good policy. We've already recognized, I think in prior legislatures, the importance of an animal or a pet in the lives of most of our constituents. Many of our families do have pets of different pedigree and type, and they are so important that they would even be allowed to be taken into a storm shelter on evacuations.

"So, I think we've already recognized the importance of a family's pet to them. This is consistent with that policy. I think it allows the landlord to address the potential damage that could be incurred because of an animal, whatever pedigree or type it might be, that's reasonable and rational, related to their rental contract. So I think this is good.

"I'd like to also express that I might benefit from this also as a renter myself. It may enable me to have my American Pit Bull Terrier reside with me, instead of residing with my mother right now. Thank you."

Representative Ito rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a conflict. I'm a landlord. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Onishi rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a conflict of interest. I am a landowner. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I did mention it earlier, but I just wanted to officially request a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a landlord. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support with written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. For those with pets, renting has always been a challenge. Understandably, landowners are hesitant that they will be faced with property damages caused by pets. This measure addresses these concerns for both persons wishing to rent and willing to pay an additional fee and landowners willing to rent to those with pets. For these reasons, I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Could the clerk please cast a no vote for me. Thank you. I'm concerned about taking school land and using it for other purposes, for private developers such as commercial buildings and other things. I know there have been protections put into the bill, but the basic point is, it will allow some school land in our State now to be developed for other than school purposes. I don't think that's a good idea. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote to this son of PLDC, and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, for the Representative who, I forget who is the specific one, but the Puuhale Elementary School was to be closed following what in my district was Koko Head Elementary. Both communities fought back and won.

"But Mr. Speaker, this would be such a foot in the door to say, look Puuhale Elementary, you're down in Mapunapuna or you're near the industrial district. We can make better use to put workforce housing in there. We can make better use to get a condo and then we can give DOE a lot more money and they can live happily ever after.

"Mr. Speaker, this came up years ago and it came in a different form, but then the PLDC appeared. This is a clone of that. And it's a great cause, we want to fund education, we want to get good results for our kids. But the way that this thing is now timed with the PLDC and it looks and walks and almost smells like it, I don't think in good conscience that we should be pushing this legislation. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 865, HD 1. According to the bill description, this bill 'Establishes framework for the development of twenty-first century schools through the redevelopment of public school lands by the DOE.' Although I am in favor of supporting teachers while developing and maintaining our school infrastructure, I also recognize that this bill will move us into uncharted territory, in terms of the use of State lands that are designated for public school usage.

"Mr. Speaker I am also concerned that the Legislature may be making the same mistake that was done in the past with the Public Land Development Corporation.

"For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 865, HD 1."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and just two short comments. I really appreciate the work of the Committees on this bill, and I want to note the limitation to no more than five school projects as part of this program. I think that's a step forward with this bill. I'd also like to say, as this bill moves forward, and say the DOE is to be given this authority, that they truly do integrate a very meaningful community engagement process, because I think that will help to reassure some of the concerns and reservations out there. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

H.B. No. 1203, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 1203, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with great reluctance I rise in opposition to this. I have so much respect and aloha for the Chairman of the Committee, who is a very good friend of mine. My only concern, and I understand the testimony was impassioned and heartfelt from some great leaders. My only concern is that we would limit the pool and not allow folks like General Lee or Bob Fishman, who we all know, wouldn't be allowed to be considered for selection as Adjutant General.

"And part of that job is, there's more to it than just being a great soldier. And I understand the concerns, but for that reason, limiting the pool, I'm going to say no. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. My concerns are very similar to the concerns shared by the Representative from Ewa in regards to this bill. As a member of the 442nd 100th Infantry Battalion, it would exclude my unit as well as many other soldiers and service members who served outside of the Hawaii National Guard, from possible inclusion and selection in leadership for our unit here. And for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm opposed."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also stand in opposition for this matter. I understand that there are unique missions that are inherent to the guards alone. However, if you're up for selection for Adjutant General, you have proven to yourself that you are intelligent, akamai, and capable of learning anything in front of you. Not so many people, Mr. Speaker, get to that level.

"To bar anybody from the reserves who are from Hawaii and have lived here in Hawaii to be considered to be the leader in the National Guard, in my opinion, is limiting the chances of leadership for the people of Hawaii. There are those people from the reserves in this State, Mr. Speaker, that could do the job. Yes, there are special missions, but those missions can be learned. And anybody that got into that level is flexible enough to occupy that role. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

"Oh, I'm now retired from the reserves so I don't have to get a ruling of a potential conflict. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a member of the National Guard," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just briefly in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I understand the concerns raised by the previous speakers, but the National Guard has a very unique mission unlike any other, across the world in fact.

"If you take a look at even the active duty service members who serve us well in the Army Reserves, or the Navy in Pearl Harbor, or Air Force at Hickam, or for that matter even the Army soldiers at Schofield. Their missions are very focused, focused on a federal mission with the Commander in Chief being the President of the United States.

"The National Guard here in Hawaii and across the entire nation has a very unique additional mission, and that is to serve the people of their respective states, and in Hawaii is to serve at the pleasure of the Governor, but more importantly, to serve us here in Hawaii.

"And what do I mean by that? Well I mean things like State Civil Defense, homeland security, the Youth Challenge Program, the State Office of Veterans Services, the Counter Drug Program, and even sea burning or responses to chemical, nuclear, biological or explosive events. Those are very unique missions immediately addressed only by the National Guard. And as such, I think it's important to have National Guard experience.

"General Lee, as mentioned by the previous speaker, was the Adjutant General for the State. And he's an outstanding individual. But General Lee lacked the experience of being in the Guard. And I think that it mattered, it really did matter from my perspective on two points.

"Number one, the people that have served the Guard for many, many years, they look forward to one day possibly being the General. And for someone to just kind of come in and take that position is demoralizing. So that's one point.

"But number two, I think without the experience of going through being a National Guardsman, going through efforts like Makani Pahili and hurricane response or disaster response in Iniki on the island of Kauai or on the Waianae Coast, it's difficult I think to take an organization and lead it without that experience.

"So I think those two points are critical as we take a look at this bill. I'll just leave everything else for written comments, Mr. Speaker, in support. Thank you."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of House Bill 1203. House Bill 1203 provides preference for a person who has had at least five years of service as an active commissioned officer in the Hawaii National Guard, whether Army, Air, or both for eligibility to serve as Adjutant General.

"The role of the Adjutant General in Hawaii is very unique in that it is more than that of a military leader. To define the role in only military terms will be too narrow. Unlike most of the other states, the Adjutant General of Hawaii is not only the commander of the Army and Air National Guard, the TAG is also:

"Director of State Civil Defense, therefore head of emergency management in the State of Hawaii. This is a tremendously important role the TAG of Hawaii plays. It is important for the people of Hawaii to have someone that has experience in working in this system before he becomes in-charge of it. You would not get much of this experience outside the National Guard.

"Homeland Security Advisor to the Governor. In charge of the security for the State of Hawaii for all hazards to include terrorism, cyber attack, nuclear, biological attack and more. This is another very important job that the Hawaii TAG has. There are only 12 other TAGs in the United States that have this role also. Military training alone will not prepare you to take on this role. Building the strategy for this department is key. Having prior networking and understanding and having experience working with local, State, and federal law enforcement is important. Having the ability to work with the private sector in this area is also important.

"State Authorization Agent for which all Department of Homeland Security Grants come through for the State of Hawaii. He should understand how the FEMA grant system works and provide strong leadership in collaboration across the State to define capability gaps and use proper DHS grants to mitigate those gaps. The grants funds in the State of Hawaii have decreased appreciably and understanding how to try increase the amount of funding the State of Hawaii can write to is tremendously important.

"Responsible for the Youth Challenge Program in the State. Hawaii is one of a few States that have more than one program. Understanding and using this program to help save Hawaii's at risk kids is key.

"Has oversight of the Hawaii State Office of Veteran Services.

"In-charge of the State's Civil Support Team which is on call to help across the State in responding to any chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear incident. There is no other unit like this in any of the other services.

"In-charge of State's Counter Drug Program. Current TAG needs to understand its critical role in the community and fight for its federal budget. This will be with the National Guard Bureau in the Pentagon.

"In-charge of the Hawaii National Guard Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear, and Explosive (CBRNE) Enhanced Response Force Package (CERF-P) team. A team that has medical, urban search and rescue and decontamination components and used in any consequence management response here in our State. We have sent portions to help American Samoa after their earthquake and tsunami response. Key for TAG to understand its role, how to resource it and deploy it.

"The TAG is the senior leader of the Hawaii National Guard Association organization, which is the State component of the overall National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS). These two organizations provide National Guard inputs to Congress for those issues to promote National Guard readiness and welfare concerns. The TAG must understand his National Guard units to help affect changes that need to be advocated to congress.

"The TAG is also a member of the Adjutant General Association of the United States (AGAUS). This organization is made up of all the TAGs of the 54 States and Territories. This group meets to provide requirements, policy and direction for issues and concerns on the readiness, equipment, force structure, and military construction to the Chief of the National Guard as well as the Congress of the United States. The TAG must know how the Pentagon works, how the Congress of the United States work, and above all know his own state's congressional delegation to help provide the information and updates to them for any political influence needed.

"The role of the TAG in Hawaii is more than just a military leader. To only define the qualifying criteria solely in terms of the military aspect is too narrow and would not provide the people of the State of Hawaii the best selection for the TAG. The National Guard is a State entity and there is no other organization like it in the world. The role of the TAG in Hawaii and the two other key roles he plays as the Director of State Civil Defense and Homeland Security Advisor to the Governor is also unique and only duplicated in 12 other states.

"Therefore to truly understand the National Guard, its interrelationship with Domestic Operations, Homeland Security within the State Department of Defense, to lead it at the highest level, and to be effective immediately upon selection, a person needs to have spent some time in the National Guard. The requirement to at least be a Lieutenant Colonel (0-5) or above is also important. It ensures a minimum amount of professional development, experiences and maturity to become a General Officer and operate in that circle.

"The proposed criteria are broad enough and offer good requirements for qualifications as a TAG for the people of the State of Hawaii."

Representative Takai also submitted the following documents:

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a quick rebuttal. The main function of the National Guard is still its federal requirement. Its federal duties nationwide. The state responsibilities that were mentioned are secondary duties, Mr. Speaker. That's why the National Guard is mainly composed of combat arms, because they're for deployment.

"According to the state duties that were mentioned, when you get up to that level, Mr. Speaker, as I previously mentioned, you have been trained for those. And furthermore, when you become an AG, you have about five or six Colonels giving you advice. You are not standing alone. So if the General doesn't have that necessary training or knowledge or know-how, there are five Colonels behind him or behind her, Mr. Speaker. So that knowledge can be augmented and it should not be a showstopper. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. I'd also like to ask if the words from the Representative from Aiea be entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Just a few comments here.

"In the State of Hawaii, the Adjutant General holds three important positions. Command of Hawaii National Guard, homeland security, advisor to the Governor and director of civil defense. Five years of service in the Hawaii National Guard will allow the individual to gain the understanding of Hawaii's culture and the needs of its people, no matter if these officers are crossing from other branches of the military.

"Most states already have this requirement as being requested in House Bill 1203, House Draft 1, and for these reasons I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as a veteran I feel compelled to rise in this case with reservations. Mr. Speaker, leadership is about leadership, not what branch of service you're in. When you're in the service, you're in the service. You serve at the pleasure of the President or of the support of the Constitution.

"If this was not a national function it would be called the 'State Guard.' It's not called the 'State Guard,' it's the National Guard. And if we didn't have the National Guard we wouldn't be able to have two wars going on simultaneously in Afghanistan and Iraq. It was the National Guard that was the pillar of those. So to say that it's a state function I think is a little bit of a historical revisionism.

"Secondly, we have a joint chief of staff that doesn't belong to the Army or the Navy or the Air Force. It's the most qualified leader that the President puts in that position. And I think that's what we need to give to the Governor, the most qualified leadership. Leadership is what this is all about. This is like a third-world turf war that we're going into, and generally the civilian control of the military doesn't even bring this kind of stuff up.

"So I think we should get over with it, just let the thing die off and forget about it. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. I understand very clearly what was put forward by the Representative from Aiea. When you limit where you can pick your leadership from, it just narrows the pool of access to what will serve best the people in the State of Hawaii. And I believe that when you limit options, you limit the opportunity to bring in the best and brightest from wherever they may be.

"And I understand that we should definitely have preference for that, understanding the uniqueness of our community would probably best come from within our own National Guard. But why would we limit that. And I think whoever would appoint our Adjutant General would understand that clearly. But if we leave the door open where they can still go out and pick.

"And the mission of the National Guard has been very fluid over the past few years. The driving mission that we've had is the two wars that we've had in Afghanistan and Iraq. And probably during that time, having someone who has a better understanding of the federal nature of the armed services would have been the better person to have leading our National Guard at that time through this era of our history here in the State of Hawaii.

"And that mission may change in the future. Now we've closed the door on the war in Iraq, we're winding down the war in Afghanistan, and the mission will change. But then again, we don't know what's coming down the pipe and we need to be able to be ready for whatever it is.

"And leaving the door open for the selection of the best leader possible, I think is always a good idea. It's always a good idea. Even though we should probably, definitely, weigh in consideration someone who comes from within our own National Guard. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Just a ruling on potential conflict. My husband is a member of the National Guard. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1203, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE NATIONAL GUARD," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

H.B. No. 524:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 524 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I understand the intent of this bill, Mr. Speaker, but I do rise in opposition. And the reason for that is, Mr. Speaker, is that especially coming from, as a member of the unit that I belong to, the soldiers from the 442nd Regimental Combat Team and the 100th Infantry Battalion received the flag of the United States of America in recognition, to honor and remember who they were and the sacrifices that they gave.

"Just from my perspective, Mr. Speaker, if the stars and stripes were good enough for them, I believe they're good enough for anybody else out there. And that the flags that we fight under when we carry the flag of the United States of America and the flag of the State of Hawaii, that this encompasses everything that we do fight for, everything we do believe in and everything that we represent.

"And actually my concern is, is that we've actually reached the point in our community and in society where it's almost a common place thing to see the stars and stripes burn, to be desecrated. So it no longer carries for the average person the meaning that it does for so many who serve in uniform and those who have laid the ultimate sacrifice on the altar of liberty. And I would prefer to see our stars and stripes re-elevated to that status where it would, no question, honor and remember those who have given so much service to our great country including the ultimate sacrifice.

"And so for those reasons, for those who have gone before me, Mr. Speaker, if that was good enough for them, that will be good enough for me, and I believe it will be good enough for everybody else in the future, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 524, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HONOR AND REMEMBER FLAG," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Fale voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

H.B. No. 489, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 489, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL BUILDING PERMITS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

H.B. No. 763, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 763, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUILDING CODE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 694, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 747) recommending that H.B. No. 1257, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this bill has appeared over numerous sessions. It's basically a huge tax increase by having a nexus with just about anybody, from selling flowers on the side of the road to a multinational corporation, because of the nexus factor.

"It has two big problems. One is, I think it's in the Constitutional context, the Interstate Commerce Clause may not allow this, as it has for the streamlined tax in the past not allowed it. And secondly, and surprisingly, DOTAX, in the Finance Committee hearing yesterday, said this is with the language that it uses worse than what it was the way it is using the GE Tax license as a privilege of doing business rather than this nexus of doing business.

"So not even the tax department that would have a boon, said that this would not be in their best interest. In fact, they might even lose money. Counterintuitive, but for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, this is not a good bill. It's a huge tax increase potentially. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. As Hawaii is trying to get into the information age, Mr. Speaker, this bill has a huge potential to significantly push some of the best and brightest further away from the State of Hawaii. It is my objective to help try and create an environment that would foster the inclusion of our youngest and best and brightest within the State of Hawaii. And I would like to see that environment grow and I believe, Mr. Speaker, that this measure does not support keeping our best and brightest here. For those reasons, I oppose it, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, in support with reservations and brief comments. While I do have concerns about the measure, I think it is worth exploring as we try to create equity for small businesses who may not necessarily have an Internet presence, but also have to face the taxation levels for the privilege of doing business here. I think the intent of this measure is just to explore that concept of equitability for those who may only have an Internet presence. So, because I think there is merit in the purpose, I will be supporting this with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1257, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Fale, Fukumoto, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 748) recommending that H.B. No. 418, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 418, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIFORM MEDIATION ACT," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 749) recommending that H.B. No. 1287, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1287, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the clerk to cast a no vote for me and explain why. Thank you. This bill means, when you go into a corner liquor store to buy a six-pack or a bottle of wine, regardless of your age, the clerk is going to be able to scan your driver's license. The bill was opposed by the Office of Consumer Protection for very good privacy reasons.

"Before this, the businesses were not allowed to scan driver's licenses unless the person appeared to be below the legal age to buy the product."

"Representative Thielen, focus your comments to the Chair."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Okay, I'm sort of focusing on the bill too, sorry about that. I think it's a dangerous situation. I think there's just been another incidence of identity theft going on in this State. This means that every corner liquor store, every convenience store, 7-11's across the State and others will be able to take your driver's license and scan that very personal information. Information that is far in excess of what they need to see as to whether or not you're old enough to purchase a bottle of alcohol.

"The other thing is that this will apply to all ages, every age. So, as the scammers become faster and more technically adept at stealing personal information, this system probably will feed right into that.

"I'm going to have more information on Third Reading to be able to argue against it if the bill comes out of caucus and does reach the Floor for Third Reading, which I hope it will not. But in talking to some of the people in the high-tech field, they think it's a really bad idea. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In strong opposition, Mr. Speaker. This bill offers very small benefit in comparison to the possible harm it will create. Driver's licenses carry a lot of important information that can be used in frauds. And I'm not talking about my birth date, Mr. Speaker. But if you match a name and a birthday, chances are, those high-tech frauds can make something out of it.

"But furthermore, my address is there, Mr. Speaker. And like I've said in the past, my house is my castle and I would only want that address to be given to the people that want to visit me, that I want them to come visit me.

"But when they scan that driver's license, you don't know who's going to get a hold of it or what they're going to do with it. I am for showing my driver's license, Mr. Speaker, but scanning it and not knowing where it will end up, I think is a matter of concern and should be a matter of concern to all of us.

"Again, it's a very small benefit in comparison to the possible harm this measure will hold. For those reasons, I'm in strong opposition."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, it's getting increasingly difficult to protect one's identity and this simply makes it easier. Case in point, I was sitting in Finance a couple of days ago and somebody sent out under my name, under my Gmail, a pro-marijuana paragraph. And my colleagues wondered, 'hey Ward, what are you doing, you switching over or what?' And I had to go back and apologize that that wasn't really me but somebody had taken my identity.

"Now we just had, I think last week, those who were scamming fuel pumps with the credit card, that when you swipe it they have this little thing that transmits the information. And now I understand you can even walk by a person with software and get the information out of their purse or out of their wallet.

"The point is, it's already out there and it's scary. Why make it easier by doing this or having people get temporary jobs who get in there just to collect identification, work for a couple bucks an hour to do that. I think we're just tempting those that are already out there prowling in cyberspace, and I would think we would do better without this bill. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1287, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PERSONAL INFORMATION," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Cabanilla, Evans, Fale, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 750) recommending that H.B. No. 1443, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1443, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, it is with a degree of reluctance that I rise in opposition to this because the author of the bill is a good friend of mine. But this is consistent with my stand against increasing fees and taxes and so on. I would note that when we use the Hurricane Fund money, we never said we would come back with a reinstituted tax. We said we would repay it.

"And that's the tough job that the Finance Chair has, to balance all these competing demands with the limited amount of resources we have. Thank you."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. But first let me thank the Chair of the Finance Committee and the Members for passing it out even though there are a lot of no votes. I guess they might have misunderstood what we're trying to do. Let me tell you a brief history of this bill.

"When Hurricane Iniki struck, all the insurance companies insuring property owners ran away. So we set up a policy which requires up to $1.6 billion to insure all the homes here in the State of Hawaii. Based on that, we were able to insure two-thirds of the homes here in the State of Hawaii. That $1.6 billion will not be enough to cover and insure not even 2,000 homes because the average price of homes now is about $700,000 for residential and condos is over $500,000.

"What this bill does is just to update the numbers. $1.6 billion is not enough, we should raise it. And when it comes to setting up that amount, at that time we had four ways to do it. One is the deductible. Second are the contributions made by the insurance company. The third is $500 million of insurance. And the rest of the $1.6 billion was put up by the State of Hawaii and that includes recording fees at that time.

"The intent of this bill is to make sure that if there's another hurricane, and we don't know when because in our research at that time for the past 100 years most of the hurricanes are from 20 to 25 years apart. Hurricane Iwa in 1982 and Hurricane Iniki in 1992 were freak hurricanes because they were only 10 years apart. If something happens and we are not ready, we might end up calling you back here and saying, let's upgrade those numbers because those numbers will not be enough to cover for our insurance needs and to cover for the protection of our homes.

"The negative impact if we don't do that and if the insurance companies run away again, is one, the lenders will not be able to loan out money because they need to have catastrophic insurance to be able to sell their loans in the secondary market to be able to get more capital to loan out. If there is no mortgage to loan out, the real estate market will come to a screeching halt, because unless it's a cash sale, you might need to borrow money, and the lender will not be able to loan out because they cannot sell their loans in the secondary market, you impact everyone.

"So, we were able to come up with the mechanism which I proposed to save a lot of money and be able to cover a lot of this loan transaction. I guess some of the provisions the bill states might have scared some of the Members that we are competing with the private sector. We are not going to compete with the private sector. If that's what it takes, is for us to put in the bill that we can only activate this policy if, one, the insurance companies will again run away, and two, there's a need for us to do it.

"In our research we also found out, in the hundred years that we did, most, if not all, of the hurricanes occur mostly in Kauai and the North Shore. So, we have to help at one point in time, we have to help out our brothers in Kauai and come up with ways to help them out way back. Not just this bill but other monetary, economic incentives.

"So, I will let you know that this is a bill in progress. As we move along we will make sure that this policy will only be activated if, one, they run away again, meaning the insurance company."

Representative Awana rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola continued, stating:

"And most likely, two, that to preserve and protect the economic condition of Hawaii and most of the households in the State of Hawaii, that we should upgrade it now rather than coming back and doing it when the hurricane occurs. Since we are in session, let's do it. So I urge all the Members to please vote aye on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my no vote, and a comment please. Coming from the Waianae and Makaha community and living through hurricane Iwa and Iniki, I understand how important this particular measure was, developed after that incident. But going forward we also must be cognizant of our bond rating, and this is a key component to one of our bond ratings going forward.

"So, for that aspect, I think we should table this measure for this point in time. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask for ruling on a potential conflict. I lived through Hurricane Iniki and I lost my house," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Tokioka continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I'm not sure, because when we listened to the testimony and I read the testimony from the prior Committees, the Hurricane Relief Fund folks came, the Council came, people from the tax department came and they said that there may be issues of us losing our federal tax exemptions if we pass this bill. And as the Representative from Kalihi mentioned, another concern was, should government be competing in the private sector. So, for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in opposition to this bill. Thank you very much."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Onishi rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with a mild reservation and a short comment. Until the Representative from Kalihi delivers what he said will be changes, I will be with skepticism and reservations. I've also been reminded and I should remind the Members, we had promised to repay what we otherwise had raided, $76 million that was supposed to go in last year, back into the Hurricane Relief Fund. And in 2013 we were supposed to put back in another $68 million. So, I would say if we could 'show me the money,' I think that there would be some momentum of this without having to charge the mortgage fee that is attached vis a vis this particular bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 1443, HD 1. According to the bill description, this bill 'Authorizes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund to conduct itself as a private entity to participate in the insurance market. Reactivates the special mortgage recording fee. Replenishes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund.'

"Lloyd Lim, the acting Director of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund (HHRF) submitted the following testimony regarding problems with the language of the bill:

'In Section 2 of the bill at page 4, lines 13-15, there is discussion of HHRF acting as private entity. This language could jeopardize the tax exempt status of HHRF which is based on HHRF being seen by the IRS as an integral part of the State of Hawaii. In addition, we do not think this language is necessary to achieve HHRF's goals.

'Section 5 of the bill at page 7 reactivates the special mortgage recording fee. We note that HHRF has no staff and cannot process the fee. Also, please note that this reactivation imposes administrative burdens on the bureau of conveyances.'

"Mr. Speaker, in addition, Alison Powers of the Hawaii Insurers Council submitted testimony in opposition to the HB 1443. Powers commented that, the 'Hawaii Insurers Council opposes this bill. This bill authorizes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund (HHRF) to compete with the personal lines hurricane insurance market. This bill also provides HHRF with certain advantages not available to the private market including, funding from state appropriations, funding from the special mortgage recording fee, and politically controlled rates either through a rate reduction or maintaining them at their existing level when the HHRF has secured from the federal government, financial institutions and/or the issuance of revenue bonds in an amount to be determined by the legislators.'

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding House Bill 1443, HD 1."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. It is a novel idea and one that probably does have some questions about it, but it does seem like it's worth at least exploring further and moving along farther in the legislative process to flush out what the proposal is and what the benefits might be. Thank you."

Representative Cachola rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I did not do this proposal way back, we should not be saving a lot of money. This is the bill that I had stated before, when I introduced the health unfunded liability.

"I stated that our colleague from Kailua was very skeptical of that bill at the time."

The Chair addressed Representative Cachola, stating:

"Representative, keep the other Representative out. Focus your thoughts on this bill."

Representative Cachola continued, stating:

"So, the way I look at it is, we save a lot of money. I should be given a lot of credit for saving that. Now, it was raided to balance the budget. We will need whatever they took as seed money in case a hurricane occurs. And to my mind, the second part of this bill is to recover those monies and be placed in the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund, that will be needed in case an emergency occurs.

"So, those are the things that I think Members will at least take into consideration. I will again promise that this bill is a bill in progress, that we will be able to come up with more or less making changes to tighten this bill so that we will not be competing with the private sector, as well as to assure the Members that we can only use it when the insurance companies will run away again. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and Members, I wish to speak in favor and have the comments made by the Representative of Hawaii Kai as my own and the comments of the Representative from Kalihi, in his first comments to this measure here, as my own. And just a short note. However you may look at this measure, I think it's a measure that deserves further consideration and I ask this Body to allow it to move up and move on so we can have further discussion on this measure.

"It is a step forward. Certainly it needs a little work, but it's a step forward. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1443, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HURRICANE RELIEF FUND," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Cheape, Cullen, Fukumoto, Ichiyama, Jordan, Kawakami, McDermott, Takayama and Tokioka voting no, and with Representatives Coffman, Hanohano, Morikawa, Nakashima and Takumi being excused.

Representative Takai's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak in support of this bill.

"The purpose of this bill is to appropriate funds to support the Veterans Treatment Court, which is intended and designed to recognize the unique needs of veterans entering the criminal justice system with mental illness and substance abuse issues arising from their service to our country.

"Veterans Court is uniquely positioned to identify veterans who have combat-related mental health and substance abuse conditions. Through no fault of their own, our veterans sometimes come back different people. It makes no sense to throw them out to the sharks, which is what the typical system does. This court is specifically designed to connect these veterans to a broad array of treatment and support services while strictly monitoring their rehabilitation progress. Upon completion the graduate will develop into a law abiding citizen.

"Physical injuries are easy to identify and treat, but the injuries of war are not always physical or visible because exposure to combat can often cause damage to the emotional and mental state of returning service members.

"I'm pleased to see our four-year effort culminate in this lifesaving veterans court because I have witnessed first-hand the devastation to our soldiers and their families when they turn to drugs or abuse various substances. In many instances, their substance abuse is compounded by combat stress related conditions like Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI), depression, etc. Lives that have honorably served our country during the war disintegrate and are shattered when they return home and are not helped. We owe our soldiers better.

"Hawaii's Judiciary has achieved significant success in problem-solving and treatment courts that rehabilitate offenders, reduce incarceration costs, and ensure public safety. The Hawaii Veterans Court will be the only Veterans Court in the nation to expand and enhance services to target National Guard and Reserve soldiers. With the Iraq and Afghanistan wars, 30 percent of the troops are National Guard and Reserve soldiers. Once these soldiers return, their experience with reintegration into civilian life is vastly different than active duty soldiers and warrants tailored solutions.

"The most important aspect of the program is that it brings the courts together with the VA department. We owe it to our veterans. This court will definitely save families, careers and lives.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 196, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERANS TREATMENT COURT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Ward's written remarks in support of the measure are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support for Stand. Comm. Report No. 818, HB 1419, HD 2, Relating to the Pacific International Space Center for Exploration Systems. This initiative, known as PISCES, supports the development and expansion of aerospace and related industries.

"Hawaii's unique location in the Pacific, Moon/Mars-like terrain, resident expertise in aerospace-related technologies, and long-standing ties with space-faring nations in the Asia-Pacific region, affords strategic assets and capabilities that can be leveraged to realize humankind's full potential in space, and enable our state to engage as both a major contributor to and beneficiary of the global space enterprise.

"PISCES is designed to leverage Hawaii's assets and capabilities, as well as emerging global trends in the aerospace industry, toward developing a world-class center of excellence in Hawaii to design, test, and validate new technologies to support both robotic and human missions to space.

"PISCES will serve as an economic driver for the Big Island and the entire State. It will promote the establishment and growth of new sustainable 'green' industries, along with associated high-paying jobs, professional internships, and new science, engineering and math education programs statewide.

"PISCES provides high quality planetary test sites which will enable PISCES to play a leading role in collaboration with international, federal government and commercial companies for the development, testing, and validation of key technologies, systems and processes for both robotic and human missions beyond low-Earth orbit.

"PISCES provides new construction techniques including 3D printing and 'additive manufacturing' which are rapidly emerging high-tech methods with multiple applications. PISCES is currently working with teams from the NASA Kennedy Space Center, UH Hilo, UH Manoa, the University of Notre Dame as well as the Army Corps of Engineers to couple the space research sector with local companies in ways that will help introduce these new advances to Hawaii and allow our state to lead in this effort.

"PISCES is collaborating with educational and R&D centers nationwide to develop state-of-the-art education and training programs that can help meet the need for a highly-qualified technical workforce, while simultaneously inspiring students to pursue professional careers in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM).

"In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, Dr. Buzz Aldrin, the second man on the moon, in his testimony in support of the bill, said it best:

'I commend this Legislative Body for their vision and commitment to support this important effort – and investment that I feel confident will be returned many fold to the great State of Hawaii.

'By supporting PISCES through the legislation before you today, you will affirm that Hawaii can be a leader in the international exploration and development of space which will afford exceptional economic and societal returns to humanity on Earth, as well as to this great state, and that will enhance economic prosperity and wellbeing for generations to come.'"

"On page 36, House Bill Number 694, House Draft 1, end of calendar."

Representatives Rhoads and McKelvey, for the Committee on Judiciary and the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 720) recommending that H.B. No. 1068, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1068, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and brief comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My concern is the amendments that were made in the previous committee expanded this bill. For those of you who may recall this bill in past years, it was the poster that would require the human trafficking hotline to be placed in certain specific areas where human trafficking was an issue.

"My concern is that the last Committee that heard this bill did in fact expand the definition and the placement, so essentially now we're requiring every employer in the State of Hawaii to now put up one of these hotline posters. So that means my law firm now has to put one up, my physical therapist has to put one up, we as individual employers now have to put one of these hotline posters up.

"I don't know if that was the intention, to expand it to every single employer in the State of Hawaii, but it seems it's a little bit overreaching at this point. And so respectfully I do realize it's only Second Reading, but I will be voting no. Thank you."

Representative Choy rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This bill just requires the posters go up wherever other posters that the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations would have to put up a poster anyway. It simply adds one more poster to the plethora of posters that are already required for labor law reasons. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Brief rebuttal. Members, I would direct your attention to the Standing Committee Report Number 720. It clearly states, 'your Committees have amended this measure by, number 1, requiring that every employer, rather than specified establishments, display in a conspicuous place a poster containing the information relating to the National Human Trafficking Resource Center Hotline.' It does in fact say, 'requiring that every employer.' Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support still. Every business establishment that has to put up notices to employees, and yes that's everyone, but it's an important issue and one that certainly qualifies as something that all employees should be aware of. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1068, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HUMAN TRAFFICKING," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representatives Choy, Fale, Hanohano, Har, Jordan and McDermott voting no.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Going on to House Bill 190, there's going to be a number of motions on this measure here and this is Unfinished Business. Please note that House Bill Number 190, House Draft 1, has been re-referred solely to the Committee on Education per Committee Referral Sheet Number 29 that was distributed on March 1st. The Committee on Judiciary waived its referral to this measure and therefore it's appropriate for the House to consider action for passage on Third Reading."

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the rules were suspended to reconsider action previously taken on certain House Bills.

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the House reconsidered its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 517, recommending referral to the Committee on Judiciary.

At 10:56 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 190, HD 1

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

At this time, the Chair stated:

"We are on House Bill Number 989. Again, please note that House Bill 989 has been re-referred solely to the Committees on Water & Land and Ocean, Marine Resources, & Hawaiian Affairs per Committee Referral Sheet Number 29 that was distributed on March 1st. The Committee on Finance waived its referral to this measure and therefore it is appropriate for the House to consider action for passage on Third Reading."

Representative Saiki moved that the House reconsider its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 79, recommending referral to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the motion, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Just briefly, I have some concerns given the fact that this bill does in fact, the Finance Committee did waive off, but this bill does in fact deal with fines, calculating fines. This is a new way that we're moving in the HRS and so for that reason I'll be voting in opposition to the motion."

At 10:58 o'clock a.m., Representative Mizuno requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:58 o'clock a.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House reconsidered its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 79, recommending referral to the Committee on Finance. (Representative Har voted no, and Representative Say was excused.)

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 989 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In opposition. I want to thank the introducers of this bill. I understand for many years this has been an issue. As the former Vice Chair of Water, Land, & Ocean Resources, we dealt with this issue for many years. The fact of the matter is this, though. When it comes to aquatic resources, the policy has always been to educate. And that is why we allowed for any administrative fines to be done via the rulemaking process.

"So to begin now allowing fines to be put into statute really doesn't necessarily perpetuate the need for education, which is what we've always tried to do within DLNR aquatic resources. So I'm just concerned that at this point if we start to put fines, it doesn't actually help our fisherman and the aquatic resources community from wanting to be educated. Once you start going down the road of fines, it opens the door. So it really creates a dangerous precedent.

"And more importantly, Mr. Speaker, from what I understand for many years from working with aquatic resources, they've been working with all the stakeholders to deal with the penalties and so they're pretty much finished with their administrative rules, they're very close. So to allow this bill to go forward really would just be to supersede the hard work of all of those stakeholders that have been working so diligently on the rules. So for those reasons, I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support. I just want to clarify that the admin rules will still be in place in terms of what the fines will be. What this has done is, showing that the best way is I think tell a story, because I think that really explains what this bill is doing.

"There were 500 yellow tangs taken and they were thrown in a dumpster. The DOCARE officer said it was unfortunate, but when they caught the person who did it they could only fine per species, because that is how our law was guiding them, that it's a fine per species. Basically what this does is it says it's a fine per quantity by species, but the fine for the species will be developed in the admin rules.

"So I think this is really an important bill. It was unfortunate that 500 yellow tangs were dumped in a dumpster, but they could only do a fine on the species instead of the actual quantity of the fish that were taken. So this is to try to clarify it. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm speaking in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. I do thank the introducers of this measure because I think this is a topic that should be discussed, but I think we should let that discussion continue. They have been in the process of rulemaking with the individuals in this industry. And that's what we do under Chapter 91, Mr. Speaker, which I think is the best way to handle this, not the Legislative Body to supersede that public process.

"In reviewing the testimony from the Department of Land and Natural Resources, they had proposed an amendment to this measure. I don't see why it wasn't taken into consideration, because I think their amendment would have resolved what they wanted to do and it would have focused on applying that measure to all aquatic resources, not just a specific industry.

"I don't think we should be focusing on a specific industry. We should be looking at everything holistically and therefore that's why I'm speaking against this measure, Mr. Speaker. I think we should be cognizant of letting our administrative bodies handle those administrative procedures. If they don't work in the long run, then we should step into those matters. But for the time being, Mr. Speaker, thank you, and I would like to request written comments. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Jordan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to HB 989. I represent a huge constituency of ocean users who reside on the west side of Oahu. Like many of us who were raised on and continue to enjoy fresh fish from the ocean, we believe the management of our resources is critical. As legislators, we cannot claim that we are experts in everything. Because of this, we need to rely on those who are hired to do the job to provide us with knowledge.

"For resource management, we turn to the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR). They are also tasked with the responsibility of promulgating rules to carry out the laws we create. The Legislature delegated rule making authority to the departments via Chapter 91. Statute tasks DLNR with managing the resources and so we should allow them to guide us in doing so. It is our responsibility to work with our departments and our constituents to learn and educate and find responsible and workable solutions to issues as they arise. If we continue the practice of passing bills to usurp policy and processes already in place, we erode our departments' abilities to perform consistently and fairly.

"Many of the bills that come before us are opinion driven, initiatives from one segment of the community, and suggestions to find solutions to perceived problems. The Legislature is tasked with doing their due diligence to vet these issues and determine the best course of action using policies, processes, precedent, fact and data.

"We must work with our agencies and departments to provide the best solutions for the public so that we do not pass half-baked legislation. By usurping a department, we may pass legislation that seems to provide immediate solutions which appear to be 'harmless,' but we may never be able to realize the unintended consequences of our actions. And since we are not the experts, we may not have measured the legislation for appropriateness.

"In this bill, fining a person for taking illegal fish seems like a relatively easy issue to support. On face value it seems harmless, but if not a commercial fisherman or a tropical fish collector, one may never know the true impact of this bill after it is enacted. Is it responsible? Is it appropriate? Does it fulfill its intended purpose? We can only guess that this bill is intended to better manage the resource. Yet, do we know if there is a true need for this or if this is just one group of the community's view on what is needed.

"With questions like these, I understand why the Legislature relegated to the departments the authority to make rules to promulgate law, such as the Chapter 91 process. After all, it is the responsible thing to do. Therefore I cannot support this bill or any similar bill that will trump the DLNR's role to manage the resource.

"It is our role to sift through legislation to not only hear, pass or kill, but to also question why the issue has been brought before us and to determine if passing a law is the right solution or if another solution is more appropriate. In this case, I do not feel passing HB 989 is the responsible thing to do so I cast my no vote and urge my colleagues to do what is responsible and vote no. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 989, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FISH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Fale, Har, Ito, Jordan, Oshiro and Say voting no.

Representative Tokioka rose to a point of order, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, a point of order. Thank you. I did vote no, I did not turn in my green slip and I apologize for that. But my question is will my vote be counted as a no vote."

The Chair then stated:

"It will be recorded as a no vote for the Journal."

At 11:08 o'clock a.m., Representative Saiki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 866, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 866, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SEWER SYSTEMS SERVICING ON HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 690, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations to Standing Committee Report 755, House Bill 690, House Draft 2. This bill would require an increase in the minimum liability coverage from $20,000 to $30,000 per person for motor vehicle insurance policies.

"This bill would adversely affect low-income consumers who can barely pay the costs of a minimum coverage plan as is. In the event that this bill passes, minimum insurance costs would increase and may become unaffordable for some customers. By raising overall insurance costs, this bill would be a disincentive for consumers to purchase mandatory insurance, thereby increasing the number of uninsured drivers in Hawaii.

"For this reason, I have reservations on Standing Committee Report 755, House Bill 690, House Draft 2.

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 690, HD 2. My concern, Mr. Speaker, is that this measure will raise the costs associated with owning and driving a motor vehicle in our state because this measure will raise insurance premiums.

"Mr. Gordon Ito, the Hawaii State Insurance Commissioner, testified on behalf of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. Mr. Ito noted that, 'Increasing the minimum liability insurance coverage will result in a higher premium to consumers who purchase only the minimum coverage and may make motor vehicle insurance unaffordable for some consumers. This may result in a higher number of uninsured motorists, which may also impact the assigned claims program.'

"National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies (NAMIC) also submitted testimony on this measure. The NAMIC pointed out that the unintended consequence of this bill may be that there will be an increase in uninsured motorists in Hawaii.

"Christian J. Rataj, Esq. of the NAMIC stated, 'the real impact of the proposed legislation will be on those well-intended consumers, who want to purchase auto insurance liability coverage, but who won't be able to afford the new mandated coverage limits. These consumers will have no financial choice, but to break the law and operate a motor vehicle without mandatory automobile liability insurance coverage. Not only does this create new criminal liability concerns for these lower income consumers, but it also creates greater civil liability exposure for these consumers, because now they won't even have the currently mandated $20,000 liability coverage protection.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise in opposition to House Bill 690, HD 2."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 690, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Johanson, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm a paid employee of a nonprofit and I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I need a ruling on a possible conflict, please. I work for a nonprofit," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The Chair then stated:

"All those who work for nonprofits, no conflict. So you don't have to stand up."

Representative Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I also serve on several nonprofit boards. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 17, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak in support of the bill but with a caveat. I'll state my support first if I may. The House Bill 17 proposed, as the original sponsors of the bill, proposed, to make permanent Act 160 of the Sessions Laws of Hawaii of 2010. That law requires landowners in shoreline areas to ensure that public transit beach corridors are passable and free from human-induced, enhanced or unmaintained vegetation that blocks the shoreline access.

"It's a wonderful bill, it's been very successful. As noted in the Department of Land and Natural Resources testimony, the Department has been successfully utilizing Act 160 to compel offending landowners to cut back vegetation that inhibits lateral shoreline access. Thus Act 160 has been an effective tool to protect lateral shoreline access.

"The only problem with the bill, Mr. Speaker, is that in the last moments the Judiciary Chair put in a new sunset provision instead of just eliminating the sunset forever, so our public can have shoreline lateral access. I would hope as the bill goes over to the Senate that the Senate will make this law permanent, and when we go to Conference Committee that the House will agree that's in the best interest for the people of Hawaii. Thank you."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Just for my own information, is your caveat 'with reservations'?"

Representative Thielen: "Absolutely not, but I dislike intensely the fact that the bill will sunset in two years and then we again have to fight this battle."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support and may I have the words of the previous speaker adopted as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 17, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COASTAL AREAS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 866, HD 2
H.B. No. 690, HD 2
H.B. No. 17, HD 1

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 90, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 90, HD 2. This bill will establish 'a temporary Emergency Response Vehicle Noise Task Force to determine the impact of the emergency response vehicle sirens in terms of excessive noise, the effect on public safety, and the relative effectiveness of the use of emergency lights instead of the use of sirens at night.'

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that this bill creates a task force that already exists; the 'State Emergency Medical Services Advisory Committee,' within the Department of Health could fulfill the purpose of this bill. The Department of Health would also have to find additional funding for the Emergency Response Vehicle Noise Task Force activities.

"The Department of Health submitted the following testimony concerning the bill, 'While "emergency response vehicles" is not defined in this measure, it appears that the focus is on vehicles responding to medical calls, i.e. the emergency medical services system. If this measure is primarily focused on emergency medical responses, then the State Emergency Medical Services Advisory Committee (EMSAC) would be an appropriate venue to address the concerns expressed.'

"Cindy Kamikawa, Vice President of Nursing, Trauma, ED, and Chief Nursing Officer for The Queen's Medical Center submitted testimony sharing her concerns, 'We respectfully suggest that a task force on this issue is not necessary as sirens are an important option that EMS must retain the use of, as necessary, to navigate through traffic swiftly and safely.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise with reservations on House Bill 90, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 90, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL

FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCY RESPONSE VEHICLES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 762) recommending that H.B. No. 343, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 343, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GAMBLING OFFENSES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 763) recommending that H.B. No. 1481, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1481, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with brief comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First of all, I want to thank the introducer of this measure. I think it is clearly well intended. While the intent is laudable, my concern is this. I think many of my constituents would have grave concerns that their taxpayer dollars are actually going to candidates who don't support their views. And for that sole reason, Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. I think this is poor policy that forces taxpayers to support a position or party that's not consistent with their own. Number two, I think there is a fiscal impact that's quite severe to the General Fund. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Since the Citizens United ruling in 2010, there's been a very stark increase of the influence of money in politics. I think this is a very elegant measure to help mitigate those effects and really make elections about the candidate with the best ideas and not just the ones with the biggest donors.

"The language worked in through the Finance Committee, I think it gives a lot of, there's a lot of due diligence that this candidate would have to do and a lot of public support he would have to garner before being funded. So I think it does make, to rebut a point that was previously stated, it does hold this candidate to be more in-line with the public interest and not the donor's interest."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. In response to my Vice Chair's opposition, I just wanted to say that I think that is the best political argument against this bill, that people would have to support a candidate indirectly through their tax dollars that they don't actually agree with their views.

"But I think the taxpayer should also be looking at who they want to be the biggest donor to any particular campaign. I think it is important to consider the possibility of the taxpayer themselves being the biggest donor to any person's campaign instead of a corporation or a political action committee or a labor union or a wealthy individual can write a big check to any one of us.

"I think the cost of this, first of all, it's voluntary so no one has to do it if they don't want to. But if, say, pretty much everybody did do it, say there were three candidates per House seat and three for each Senate seat that was up that year. Of course, the Senate tends to be up only every other cycle. The cost will be about $8 million. That's less than 1/10th of 1% of the total budget. The total budget is approaching $12 billion. The amounts of money we're talking about to make democracy work better aren't very big.

"So I hope Members will consider moving forward with this and I guess we really should all be asking for conflicts of interest on this one as well because obviously we're all incumbents and we're voting about our own future. So, thank you very much."

Representative Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. Well, as an incumbent, this is probably more advantageous to me to get the requisite signatures, requisite $5 donations, to fund a campaign. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McKelvey rose, stating:

"Just a point of clarification, Mr. Speaker. On the description for the House Draft 2, it says it exempts all State Senators and State Representatives from the scope of the bill."

At 11:27 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:28 o'clock a.m.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will stand with reservations. My concern is, first-in-time, first-in-line, and this could provide candidates who file early an advantage, where candidates who come in at the last minute may not be able to receive funding due to the fact the funds may have expired."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on potential conflict. I am currently an elected official," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ing rose to respond, stating:

"Still in support. Just a small point regarding previously stated comments. I think that entering the race late in terms of fund-raising is a disadvantage whether it's public or privately funded."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in strong support. I'd like to note that in the last Legislature, of all elected officials in the House and Senate it's very easy to see that more than half the money raised came from outside the boundaries of our districts from other interests. This would help answer that question as to whether our constituents want us beholden to the folks who raise money for us who may not be from our district or a state to which we are going to be accountable and whose intentions we support with our actions here. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of information. So as all of us in here are elected officials, is that a blanket order."

The Chair then stated:

"That would be a blanket 'no conflict'."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Slight reservations. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1481, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Har and Oshiro voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 765) recommending that H.B. No. 7, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 7, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ELDERLY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 766) recommending that H.B. No. 407, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 407, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. Breast cancer is one of the most common cancers among women here in Hawaii. The Hawaii Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program provides critical screening and early detection to women who are at high-risk that are uninsured and underinsured, having incomes below 250% of the federal poverty level. This funding is essential for these women and so I ask for all support. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support and permission to insert written comments. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of House Bill 407 HD 2, which appropriates funds to the Department of Health for the Comprehensive Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program. It supports early detection, screening, and treatment of breast and cervical cancer by appropriating $100,000 for each year of the fiscal biennium.

"Providing this additional funding will preserve a critical safety net for thousands of women, who will remain uninsured or underinsured and will lack access to essential screening, diagnostic, and treatment services. This provides low-income, uninsured, and underserved women access to timely, high quality screening and diagnostic services to detect breast and cervical cancer at the earliest stages and refer women with cancer or pre-cancerous conditions to treatment. Early detection of cancer greatly reduces treatment costs and increases survival rates. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I hope we can find the $100,000 in each fiscal year to cover the costs, as it's a very important program. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 407, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CANCER," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 191, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to vote against the bill and to say a few comments. Thank you. House Bill 191, Relating to Small Boat Harbors, authorizes the Board of Land and Natural Resources to consult with and receive assistance from the HCDA with regards to planning, developing, operating, administering and maintaining small boat harbors.

"When you look at the testimony from Department of Land and Natural Resources you'll see the nexus of this bill with something else that we in this Body have voted to repeal. And I quote from the Chairperson, 'as part of the administration's proposed revisions to the Public Land and Development Corporation law, HCDA is contemplated to assist the Department with development expertise.'

"I don't like this nexus with the PLDC, Mr. Speaker, but even more, I'll quote from testimony in strong opposition to House Bill 191. And I quote, 'HCDA does not manage harbors. In fact, due to this innate inability they have found it necessary to sub-contract their harbor management assignment to a certain chosen private party, thus layering the cost of managing the harbor and increasing this cost to state taxpayers.'

"Another testifier goes on, 'the HCDA has proven itself to be dismally ineffective at operating, administering and maintaining Kewalo Basin Harbor. I can't speak much to their planning and developing skills, but every time I see one of their plans, the first thing that comes to mind is, what are they thinking, or, what are they smoking at their office parties?' And the testifier concludes, 'we wish that Kewalo Basin Harbor was run by the DLNR.'

"There's more opposition to it, Mr. Speaker, that rather than correct any deficiencies of the experienced and capable DLNR's division of boating and ocean recreation, House Bill 191 proposes to place the HCDA, which is proven to be problematic, at the center of management of all harbor operations. This is a move that will complicate and add an additional layer of bureaucracy.

"They go on, 'HCDA does not employ a proper maintenance staff with the skills to repair and maintain the pier where customers are boarded.' The testimony was quite negative as to HCDA's management skills, Mr. Speaker. And even more so I don't like the nexus with the Public Land Development Corporation. That's where this bill generated, that's its generation, and I think that we should not move this forward. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This bill does not have anything to do with PLDC. Basically what it does is it just authorizes the HCDA and the Department of Land and Natural Resources to talk to one another. This administration, since they came on board, told us that we have to stop working in silos and we have to work collaboratively in terms of expertise and talking to one another to get the people's business done. There was never any connection with this to the PLDC.

"There was a bill, I think we heard along with the PLDC, that the Governor supported some authority for parks and harbors. That bill died in committee and that would have given maybe some authority to HCDA to work on harbors. But that's not what this bill is about. It's just they may consult and talk to one another.

"Kewalo Basin is a harbor under HCDA's jurisdiction and they've been working a lot on doing planning and doing business plans and floating bonds and through time have learned a lot of expertise. I don't think it hurts at all that the Department of Land and Natural Resources can at least sit down at the same table and talk to them. At this point in time, they can't. We have, I don't know, I guess some people call it firewall, but there's a wall there where they cannot talk to each other. This just allows that.

"I think the previous speaker spent a lot of time talking about why people don't like HCDA, but that's not what this bill's about. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, if anybody looks at the DNA, this is clearly a child of the PLDC. There are two children actually. There's a PLDC harbors and there's a PLDC DOE, which we'll get to later. But what we need to do is to take a deep breath, step back, clear the slate, start over again instead of trying to euphemize that this is something other than what we've already killed. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This is not PLDC and we actually voted down a harbor's version of PLDC. That's HB 492 and that's another bill, for clarification."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 191, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SMALL BOAT HARBORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Thielen and Ward voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 772) recommending that H.B. No. 193, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be speaking with reservations. My concerns are as follows. This is dealing with the Land Use Commission for extension of time for a completion of district boundary amendment, section 205.

"It basically states that, if a person who has petitioned for a district boundary amendment that has been approved by the Land Use Commission requests an extension of the time period to comply with any requirement, term, or condition imposed by the Commission as part of the approval of the amendment, the Commission shall extend the date or time by which the requirement, term, or condition must be completed for at least two years, provided that the appropriate officer or agency identified under section 205-12 of the county determines that the petitioner has substantially commenced development of the property in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed.

"Other good cause exists to extend the date or time for completion of all commissioned-imposed requirements, terms, and conditions of the district boundary amendment, and the requirement, terms, and conditions of the extension of date or time shall not be more restrictive than those contained in the commission.

"In other words, it's a default of automatic extension on a PUC land designation approval. This is an extraordinary change of the current law, the current practice, the current state of law, the current case law on the books today. And I'm just sort of surprised that none of our environmentally active friends have called us about this bill. So there must be something good in this bill, Mr. Speaker, so that's why I'm voting with strong reservations. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to ramp it up one and I'm going to be voting no. And Mr. Speaker, if I could have the remarks of the previous speaker put in the Journal as if they were my own, please," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I request a ruling on a potential conflict? I'm a land use attorney. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Har continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you very much. I just want to point out that the Land Use Commission clearly does their job designating what should be urban, conservation, agriculture, rural, and I really appreciate the work they do.

"After they do that, when it comes to the development of the land, you're working with the local county. The county is the one on the ground working with the developer, making sure that they're working on process.

"It's very clear that what this law is saying is, if the Land Use Commission is considering some action, that in fact they will have to now interact with the local planning director and the department to determine if in fact there is work that's been commenced on property, that in good faith the developer is working hard on the project.

"I think that involving the county, because sometimes people may come back and say, we want to extend it because of the recession, because there were problems in our financing. They may say, can we have another year, but we're in the middle of the permitting and we're doing it in good faith.

"I don't know if people realize, but because we cut so much in our funding, the processing of sewage treatment plants and water systems really slowed down. Here's an opportunity for the Land Use Commission to actually work with the local departments and find out, are they in fact doing what they need to do to move this project forward. I think there's nothing wrong with this.

"We're encouraging development in Hawaii. People spend $20, $30, $40 million, they're in process, and I think this is just good business. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate the comments of the Representative from Kona and maybe the necessity for this kind of discussion, but nothing prevents that discussion from occurring today under the current law and rule and rulings of the Circuit Court and the Supreme Court on the Land Use Commission's prior decisions.

"Again, this is a mandate that they will grant the two-year extension, at least two years extension, upon the petitioner coming in. And there are no additional conditions or requirements to be imposed upon the prior awardees. So those are my concerns, Mr. Speaker.

"And secondly, just to clarify the record, earlier I had said that I'll be voting with reservations, in fact I'll be voting no, and I've given a green slip to the Majority Floor Leader. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in strong support. Mr. Speaker, may I please have the words of the Chair of Water & Land entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 193, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Oshiro and Thielen voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 773) recommending that H.B. No. 194, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 194, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to speak in reservations on this measure. I think this is a $275,000 expenditure in Fiscal Year 14-15, and I think after that it's revenue gain of $251,000. I just have concerns about the source of funding and how this measure is prioritized within our current financial plan and balanced budget responsibilities. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm sorry I made a mistake there. I was speaking on Standing Committee Report 774. On 773 I'll be going with reservations. I have concerns about giving, I think these are tax credits for preservation purposes of historic homes. Thank you."

At 11:49 o'clock a.m., Representative Har requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Representative Oshiro continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on 773, I apologize. I'm somewhat new at this, I'm a novice at this process. I have concerns on this bill. If you look at page 6, it sets forth in quite descriptive detail the requirements for the State Historic Preservation Officer. I think if it's applied to the appointment process of the selection, recruitment of the State Historic Preservation Officer, I think you might have a little difficult time fulfilling all these requirements on that very important position.

"But what I find very troubling is also section 4. This is the first time I've seen something like this in a bill being proposed for passage by us. It states, the employee occupying the division administrator position of the Department of Land and Natural Resources State Historic Preservation Division on the effective date of this Act shall not be transferred, demoted, or otherwise dislocated from that position solely as a consequence of this Act.

"Concerns I have are, number one, it may create a cause of action for the transfer, demotion, or termination or otherwise removal of that individual regardless of the language restricting it too slowly. There's still enough language there to still probably give the person a cause of action against us. Of more concern is that you'll put this into a session law protecting this one individual. I just can't understand that.

"So those are my concerns, Mr. Speaker. Effective date of July 1, 2030, so perhaps we can fix those concerns in the next iteration. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still noting my reservations on this measure and I just wanted to point out to the Body that this is creating a new position, and contrary to the other appointments that our Bodies do with the Governor, this one would exempt the Senate confirmation process. I think that is something we should clearly look at, when the Senate does confirm appointees from the Governor. This one is requesting not to do that process.

"So we should be just cautious going forward. I do look at the continued discussion until 2030. Thank you very much."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with slight reservations, and first of all may I please have the words of the speakers from Wahiawa and Waianae entered into the Journal as if they were my own.

"And secondly, very briefly, Mr. Speaker, as the former Vice Chair of Water, Land, & Ocean Resources, in 2010 our State Historic Preservation Division was put on high alert status by the National Park Service. So for those of you not here, what that means, that is very grave consequences for the State of Hawaii.

"For every federal project that the state works on where federal monies are involved, our State Historic Preservation Division, also known as SHPD, has a requirement to sign off. The fact that we are now on high alert status means that every single federal project could be held up if our SHPD is decertified.

"So at this point we are still waiting, and unfortunately due to sequestration we have not had the opportunity to meet with Washington DC NPS organization to finalize whether we are now going to be off of high alert status.

"So, on one hand I do support having certain measures in place for the SHPD administrator, because at the end of the day this person is in charge of so many far reaching areas that would affect our daily lives. So I support whole heartedly having in statute some certain prerequisites in place for that person. But for the same reasons mentioned by my colleagues, I do stand with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I just wanted to clarify that the purpose of this measure is basically to increase standards in our Historic Preservation Division office. And the bill attempts to do that by converting all of the positions to civil service positions where minimum qualifications and vetting would be done in hiring practices in the future. The one exception is for the administrator who will continue to serve at the pleasure of the Governor. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 194, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORIC PRESERVATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 774) recommending that H.B. No. 988, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 988, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition with just quick remarks. I understand that the intentions of the bill are very good. It's just a matter of what I would see as my own priority for my community. The first priority that I have for my community is to help a significant portion of my community rise out of poverty which includes a lot of mobility. And this bill would, I believe, hinder the mobility of those members of the community to try and help them rise out of those conditions, Mr. Speaker.

"Any increase on taxes relating to fuel, which is our main source of movement, would further hinder their efforts to rise out of poverty, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons, I'm in opposition."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I agree with the comments made by the Representative from the North Shore. I think the only thing that I would like to echo in my opposition is that primarily I am for wild life conservation and remediation, so I think the intent of the bill is certainly a good one. I would prefer a different funding mechanism. One that is not necessarily born by the consumer in a way that they may not necessarily understand. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing up in opposition. Mr. Speaker, brief comments. I understand the valuable need for this measure. I'm also concerned that this barrel tax increase would have a negative impact in our community. I just wanted to highlight to Members who pay attention to what's going on in our community. Just in today's paper it was noted that our Honolulu gas prices were raised about 2.6 cents per gallon this week, with an average of $4.30 per gallon, according to Gas Buddy.

"So, Mr. Speaker, bills like this that affect petroleum, which affects our ability to do commerce, move our children from school to home, I think will have a negative impact on struggling families, especially those of the middle and lower income. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Johanson and Yamane be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to make a couple of points. First of all, may the words of the Representative from Waikele Gentry be entered as my own on the rise of the gasoline price.

"Two concerns. First of all is the creation of the Wildlife Recovery and Rehabilitation Special Fund. It would not only receive a portion of the barrel tax that is currently being reprogrammed to go back to food and energy security, but in fact create a stand up new fund just for the purposes of dealing with Hawaii's native wildlife through emergency response, rehabilitation, education and research.

"It's a stand up facility, it's not only dealing with those birds when they are affected by oil or spills, but also the research and education of those wildlife in this area. I think it's very important, but again balanced against the cost to the barrel tax and the need to make sure we can fund the current food, energy, security proponents portions of that. I think that trumps this one.

"Secondly, I think Mr. Speaker, is that it raises the barrel tax from $1.05 to $1.07. That may be only 2 cents but I think when you consider the millions of gallons of oil that we bring in at 55 gallons in a barrel, it's quite a sizeable sum of money. I think the Department of Taxation testimony said it's anywhere from $275,000 into this new fund on an ongoing basis. That's why I'm voting no. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support and I just wanted to note that out of Finance the House Draft 2 deleted the increase in the barrel tax. It's a blank amount."

Representative Cullen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

At 12:02 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:03 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 988, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATIVE WILDLIFE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 31 ayes to 20 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Cheape, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Fale, Fukumoto, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ito, Johanson, McDermott, Ohno, Oshiro, Say, Takayama, Tokioka and Yamane voting no.

At 12:06 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 658, HD 2
H.B. No. 908, HD 2
H.B. No. 115, HD 3
H.B. No. 191, HD 1
H.B. No. 193, HD 1
H.B. No. 194, HD 2
H.B. No. 988, HD 2

Representative Tsuji rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with your kind permission could I review again SCR 774, HB 988. I believe I submitted my green slip."

At 12:06 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:07 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Tsuji, we already took action on the measure but for the Journal I will instruct the Clerk to include a no for you. But again to the Members, please I know it's getting to be a long morning but after the vote is counted by the both the House and the Senate, it's too late to include your vote except in the Journal. Thank you very much."

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 775) recommending that H.B. No. 1074, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1074, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please note my reservations and a brief comment. Noting the testimony from Department of Taxation in the Finance Hearing, this would cost us about $6 million in the first year and $12 million thereafter every continuous year. Although I do support the intent, I think we should be more fiscally broader on what we're doing going forward and I continue the discussion again until 2013. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition on House Bill 1074, House Draft 2. I'd just like to echo the comments of the previous speaker, that I can see no pressing need to provide this very generous income tax credit for individuals, corporations, who would be rehabilitating their historic structures.

"Again, I'm looking at it from the fiscal aspect of what it might mean to the General Fund. Again, DOTAX, the Department of Taxation, states that it might result in a revenue loss of $6 million in Fiscal Year 2013 and $12 million for every year thereafter. That's quite a lot of money that's going to be drained from the General Fund that could go to cover a lot of the cost of the programs that we're advancing today, in the new programs especially. So, those are my concerns.

"I'll be voting no. I think this is not the right tax policy for us to be considering today. Especially in light of the concerns that we have to address on the horizon given the effects of the sequestration, the Inouye cliff. I think we need to maintain the public faith appropriately. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with brief comments. Mr. Speaker, first may I have the comments of the speakers from Wahiawa and Waianae entered into the Journal as if they were my own.

"Secondly, my only concern with this bill, it is well intended but the fact of the matter is this. Many structures falling under historic preservation are already exempt from taxes, meaning real property taxes. To give them this tax credit, this refundable tax credit, I think is a little bit over broad in my opinion. For those reasons, I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, in support with reservations. I just wanted to say that I appreciate the recapture provisions put into this bill which gives me a lot more confidence in it. I do think the underlying attempt is a very good one. I do worry though that given how similar tax credits have been subject to abuse, there are certain concerns still lingering. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. I really like the innovative way that this bill goes about to try and preserve. Because our state is so rich in culture and in heritage, efforts to preserve that culture and heritage I think are very good and this is an innovative way to do that. I do have concerns, and I would like to have the words of the Representative from Moanalua inserted as if they were my own."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1074, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Choy, Coffman, Hanohano, Har, Ito and Oshiro voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 776) recommending that H.B. No. 1292, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1292, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and just a couple of comments. For big pieces of property or big pieces of land or something of historic value, I believe that this measure has a lot of merit. Although I can't imagine an administration, for example, suggesting that we sell Iolani Palace or something, but I think in a situation like that, the Legislature would certainly want to have a say.

"But for little, in my understanding this applies to land parcels of any size, and it just doesn't seem to me like it's necessary. I was involved a few years ago in construction of a city park on what was then state land at the end of Pele Street just below the freeway, it's 1/10th of an acre. And if the community activist who pushed for the creation of that park had had to have a legislative vote with a 2/3rd's majority to transfer 1/10th of an acre that no one was really concerned about, I don't know, it just seems like a waste of a legislature's time.

"I'm also concerned about the 2/3rd's majority. I don't know why we need to have 2/3rd's, why can't it just be a regular majority vote. But in any case I do support it and talking about it but I do think there are some problems with it. Mahalo."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. In support with reservations and I would like the words of the Chair of Judiciary entered in the record as if they were my own. One other brief comment. I do have a concern about how this would impact executive orders of transfers of land between government entities like the state and the county, which occurs quite often, for the betterment of the public. Thank you very much."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, brief comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know that this bill is well intended and I really want to thank the introducer of this measure because I know exactly why he did it and I do commend him. Truly, this bill has well intentions.

"But first and foremost, Mr. Speaker, may I ask that the words of the Judiciary Chair be entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Secondly, my concern as a land use attorney. Oh and Mr. Speaker, may I please have a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a land use attorney," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Har continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"So getting back to the issue of remnants, which I think the Judiciary Chair touched upon. For those of you who understand how remnants work, there is a specific section in Chapter 171 dealing with remnants. And the problem with this particular measure as it stands, it does not give the Department the ability to deal with remnants, which is what I think the Judiciary Chair was talking about.

"The fact is if we have to require legislative approval for all of these tiny remnants, the fact is we're in session from January to May and oftentimes the DLNR needs to have that latitude to do exchanges for remnants. It just practically doesn't make any sense. So that's my first concern.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, having been a Member of this Body for seven years now, unfortunately I do have concerns to the extent that any time you put things into the hands of legislators, it becomes politicized. That is a grave concern for me.

"The fact is, all of a sudden there could be a project in somebody's district. And let's say it could be a very well intentioned project, it's community support, a community center, but for whatever reason certain activists are opposed to development, whatever the case may be. Then you now subject this particular project that could be supported by the community and the Department of Land and Natural Resources to being politicized. You then have people lobbying Members of this Body to do the right thing, and that's the worst possible case scenario.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, this is the most egregious of all matters and why I have concerns about this. No elected official should ever use his or her position subject to a vote. But I do have concerns because we're dealing with land acquisitions and transfers and exchanges, the fact is, in the worst egregious case you could have a politician who could very well use his or her position and get other votes to say we're not going to stop your project unless you give us money, a contribution.

"So for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, and I think in the immortal words of Thomas Jefferson, and I quote, 'my reading of history convinces me that most bad government results from too much government.' Thank you. For those reasons I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, I rise in support. I really appreciate the previous comments from all the speakers because clearly this bill does need some work. I think any concerns need to be addressed as it moves forward. But I think the underlying point of the bill is really a good public policy. And the reason, as stated by the previous speaker, that things get politicized, and so you worry about obviously getting approval.

"But the way the current law is, is that these fee simple lands can be disposed of and then you'd have to come back to the Legislature to disapprove it. And my concern has always been, since I've been here, is that these deals take place, and the public which is represented by the elected official doesn't know it's taking place. And you're only given the next legislative session to disapprove it. So there's a time clock, there's a limited clock on it.

"So the reality is this stuff can happen under the radar screen where the public and elected official doesn't even know, and I think that is legitimate that we move this forward and try to figure out how to solve that problem. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. In support. Just to respond to a few of the scenarios put out there. Indeed there's the potential that someone could come in and bribe perhaps 2/3rds of the Legislature to have us pass something. But I think the far more realistic and far more dangerous scenario is that in a disapproval process, you're going to have a far easier time bribing one or two people, perhaps a particular Committee Chair, to not hear a bill required to pass in order to prohibit a sale of land.

"So if there is a project that somebody really wants, it's far easier under this existing setup to make sure that it's going to happen in your favor. Thank you very much."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. And I do want to thank the introducer of this measure because I think we as a Body should be protecting these particular lands, especially the types of lands that we have in this State. I do realize it's a 2030 date and there needs to be some more discussion on remnants or smaller pieces, but I appreciate the introduction of the measure and I do support it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. I just want to mention that I think this reflects a shift in this Body to be a little more conservative as we look at our public lands. I think it's a very good step. I think we do need to be critical before we liquidate our precious public lands. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1292, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LAND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Hanohano, Har, Ito, Oshiro, Say and Tokioka voting no.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1330, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DIVISION OF CONSERVATION AND RESOURCES ENFORCEMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 780) recommending that H.B. No. 473, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 473, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. 780, please note my reservations and also the testimony by DOTAX on what this measure could cost us. In the first year, $1.2 million. Lying out the next six years would cost us $2.4 million each year. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. My opposition is really two fold. Mr. Speaker, first and foremost before I go on with my opposition, I would like to note for the Member's benefits that we do have something called the Hawaii's Enterprise Zones Partnership Program. For those of you who are not familiar with Enterprise Zone Programs I would suggest that you read this to understand exactly what an Enterprise Zone is.

"But for the benefit of the Members, very quickly I'd like to quote, 'the usual purpose of Enterprise Zones is to reduce poverty and spur economic development by coordinating incentives for investment and job creation to clean up blighted areas.' … 'In order to be most effective, the most successful Enterprise Zone programs also include governmental financial and administrative resources such as grants, loans, and venture capital along with staff that can undertake zone marketing efforts and provide support services for zone firms.'

"In addition, counties provide incentives to make the Enterprise Zones work. These include but aren't limited to incremental property tax relief, zoning, building fee, and permit waivers or variances, priority zoning or building permit processing.

"So that's for some of the Members who are not clear on what's going on with Enterprise Zones. My concern here, Mr. Speaker, is this. NELHA is a wonderful program. And I think that I understand the intention from the introducers of this measure. We want to support this program, but the fact of the matter is we already do. I would direct the Member's attention to Chapter 227. NELHA already has exemptions from taxation and competitive bidding, there's no legislative oversight over NELHA. The fact of the matter is, is that they are completely special funded and they have preferential treatment over the land as well as the ocean resources.

"So to now give them the enterprise zone tax credit allows them to essentially double-dip, and for that reason, Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 473, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE NATURAL ENERGY LABORATORY OF HAWAII AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Choy, Hanohano, Har, Oshiro, Say and Tokioka voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 782) recommending that H.B. No. 1188, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1188, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY POVERTY REDUCTION TASK FORCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 12:25 o'clock p.m., Representative Tokioka requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:25 o'clock p.m.

At 12:26 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1074, HD 2
H.B. No. 1292, HD 1
H.B. No. 1330, HD 1
H.B. No. 70, HD 2
H.B. No. 473, HD 1
H.B. No. 1188, HD 1

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 783) recommending that H.B. No. 1298, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1298, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ohno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ohno's written remarks are as follows:

"Given a chance, all people can succeed. Members of our communities with intellectual or physical disabilities successfully rise to the challenge of overcoming their limitations each day, but are often overlooked or excluded from ordinary opportunities like employment. This measure rewards businesses that also rise to the challenge of inclusion for all individuals in our state and promote diversity in our workforce. In addition, we open employment doors for those with disabilities, building their confidence and empowering them to improve their lives."

Representative Choy rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of this income tax credit. If we are to give income tax credit, Mr. Speaker, we should be doing this type of credit that helps the less fortunate. This is the reason why I think all the other tax credits are no good, but this credit is very good. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support, written comments please."

Representative Kawakami's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support and I would like to thank my colleagues for their support. Mr. Speaker, I have had the privilege and honor to spend many hours working side by side with members of our community who have various disabilities. But I don't see them as disabled, I see them as extraordinary individuals with boundless abilities. These are individuals who take pride and ownership of the work they produce.

"While many people try to find ways not to get things accomplished, the men and women I have worked with will try to find every way possible to get the job done, even when faced with extreme adversity. Mr. Speaker, there still remains a social stigma that people with developmental and intellectual challenges cannot 'keep up.' I find this stereotyping absolutely heartbreaking and completely unfounded. In fact there is a lot we could learn from disabled persons in our community and work force. I know I have. I have learned that they raise the morale and the work atmosphere, they raise the level of performance, and they raise the level of awareness at how capable and able bodied they are.

"This measure provides an incentive for the small local business community to help break down the walls of ignorance. I stand in strong support and stand ready to work side by side with my brothers and sisters with abilities any day of the week."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I'd like to ask if the words, I never thought I would say this in my life, but I'd like to ask that the words from the Representative from Manoa be inserted as my own on the tax credit. And I'd also like to thank the introducer of the bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same request. In support, with the words of the Representative from Manoa except striking the latter part of his comments," and the Chair "so ordered." (by reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Just a few comments. I'm in complete support of the bill but I have a concern for the intended recipients in that once the credit expires after six months will they still be employed by the company or will they be let go because the credit is no longer available."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Very briefly, Mr. Speaker, strong support. Thank you very much. I thank the introducer of this measure. I think along with my colleague from Manoa, this is a well designed, limited in scope and application tax credit for those who are most needy in our community. The developmentally, intellectually or physically disabled constituents. Thank you very much."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support and may I have the words of the Representative from Manoa and the Representative from Wahiawa adopted as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1298, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 784) recommending that H.B. No. 1402, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1402, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOCIAL IMPACT BONDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 786) recommending that H.B. No. 858, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 858, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support as a continuation of my remarks from Second Reading when I said, this is one of the few bills that uses the 'e' word, entrepreneurship. Entrepreneurship is written all over this because it's about a high growth initiative to stimulate our high tech businesses. Mr. Speaker, this bill will help us overcome a couple of problems that we have in Hawaii.

"One is our total over-reliance on tourism. Mr. Speaker, we have lived off of our good looks for too long, we now have to start living off our brains. This is one of the transitional bills to do that.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, we have a reputation of being anti-business, we have a reputation of being closed for business. Mr. Speaker, this Legislature needs to be more open for business and able to 'grow the pie' rather than just keep slicing it up the way we do every year with our budget. We need to be thinking 'growing the pie' and being open for business.

"But this bill follows what otherwise the federal government has taken the lead on and that is there's $100 billion that we put into high tech research and high tech development for our companies. Mr. Speaker, the reality is that only 1% of our corporations are exporting, we need to stimulate them in a high tech industry. After all, we have the most innovative, creative brains in the world. We used to have all the money also, but now we're on borrowed money. So Hawaii needs to get on the bandwagon with what's going on in the rest of the world.

"Mr. Speaker, it's critical for our state in the sense that we need to be reminded that 85% of all jobs, I repeat, 85% of all jobs are private sector jobs. It's not the government that hires people. 15%, 20% at the most. 70% of all new jobs come from new businesses. In Hawaii we are really a micro business state. 52% of our employers have less than 5 employees. Those are kind of micro businesses. And 95% have less than 50 employees. 1/3 of our corporations are overseas corporations, which is good but we need to grow our own.

"My own office often promotes, contrary to the Eisenhower admonition about beware of the military industrial complex, we need an indigenous ownership of the military industrial complex. Mr. Speaker, what they do with the $12 - $14 billion military federal defense contracting spending is they fly in and parachute a guy down to do those contracts and then after getting the money 3 or 4 years later they fly out. We need to indigenize that entrepreneurship effort.

"Hopefully something will come out of this because some of the things that we have already done with our high technology is exemplified by Oceanit, Patrick Sullivan. He's been with his high technology saving lives by his advancements all over the world. Some of us had the honor to go to the convention center a number of years ago and to see his sniper fire tracing technology. Mr. Speaker, before the shot was even heard, he had a machine to show where the sniper was shooting from. That has saved lives because they know where to then engage the enemy.

"Those kinds of technologies are applied by searching out those companies in Hawaii and funding them, training them, mentoring them and hiring new people, diversifying our economy and harnessing our entrepreneurial talent.

"Mr. Speaker, I would be naïve to think this didn't have any detractors just like tax credit detractors or solar, tax detractors for other things. This is going to cost a few bucks. The federal government's thrown in $100 billion. This I believe is only $20 million. And it's something that when you look at the $14 billion tourism economy, $12 billion in military and federal and contract spending, Mr. Speaker, this is a drop in the bucket.

"So for those detractors I would say have a look at what government's role has been, particularly if you've been to Asia recently, and look at, as I learned while a student at the East West Center, ultimately all economic development is political if you trace it back and forth. Government has a role to play. It should be the referee. But in this case it should be stimulating, going forward and creating high growth for more jobs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support of the measure but I'm also looking forward to, we just passed a measure in support of a poverty task force, I'm looking forward to coupling what we find in those results with the efforts that are going to be necessary in the high tech industry, which will bring environmentally low impact but high paying jobs into our state, which is critical for the future, especially of our youth. That's all I have to say, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. This is like Part II of what we did last year when we set up this special fund working with DBEDT. Mr. Karl Fooks has done an extraordinary job. I think last year we started the program. I think this is the second allocation of funds they are seeking, $10 million each fiscal year. The jury is still out on how successful this program has been, but I'm willing to keep this measure moving forward. Again this is $10 million each fiscal year. Total price tag, $20 million. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"In support, Mr. Speaker. House Bill 1119, this is about the redevelopment of Mayor Wright Homes, Mr. Speaker. This development was built in 1953 right after World War II and it was named after the first Mayor George Wright in 1958.

"Having said that, Mr. Speaker, it's a very old housing development that has been costing the state millions of dollars every year. And I think it's about time to put a new building in it so we can decrease the cost of maintenance and we also can increase density, because there are about 10,000 people waiting on the wait list to get into public housing. This is a very good measure, Mr. Speaker, for our citizens and to increase the pool of affordable housing. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would like the words of the previous speaker entered in the Journal as if they were my own except for the part that says World War II, please change it to Korean War. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to thank the Chair of Housing for introducing this legislation. Everything she said was true, except maybe with regards to the war. Mayor Wright Homes definitely needs refurbishment, rebuilding and there's some huge development opportunities there. So thank you again to the Chair of Housing. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1119, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 486, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time I rise in strong support of this measure. This bill appropriates funds for the Future Farmers of America and the 4H programs. There's a growing sense of involvement and interest in agriculture among the youth but unfortunately we don't really have the funds to support these programs.

"Qualified farmers are decreasing while the age of our farmers who work in the industry is increasing with the average age approximately 65 years old. One way to encourage youth to participate in these programs, increasing student's agricultural education, would give them the necessary experience and skills to pursue a future in the agricultural industry while making them better students and citizens.

"My mother always used to tell me that they really need to have pineapple picking 101 in schools to teach kids what it is to work hard and really get their hands dirty. It's a value that is often missing from my generation. With this increased exposure and support, our keiki can help the State.

"I had the opportunity a month ago to judge a regional FFA competition where one of the competitors was a young woman from Aiea, an area that's not really well known for farming. She expressed her excitement for urban and backyard farms. FFA doesn't just aid students in rural communities but the entire State.

"What is often overlooked is many FFA programs are almost self sustaining. They grow their crops, they sell them at farmer's markets and they fund their own program. They also learn the value of how to recycle and reuse. One of the schools in my district found a bath tub on the side of a road and now has an aquaponic system. They get very creative. I appreciate the opportunity to express my views in strong support of this measure. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in strong support. I want to highlight one of our remarkable teachers at Leilehua High School, Ms. Akuna, who is doing a heck of a job with the Future Farmers of America program at Leilehua. Thank you very much."

Representative Onishi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in strong support. We are very serious about sustainability, especially in agriculture. These programs are very important to our youth and for the training of future farmers and ranchers. These programs in the past used to be very strong. Over the course of years they have deteriorated. This funding will help to revitalize these programs and bring them back into prominence in our schools. Thank you very much."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support and may I have the words of the previous speaker adopted as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 1, HD 2. I do agree that it is important to discuss the need for long term health care in Hawaii, however I am not convinced that HB 1, HD 2 is the best approach to meeting this challenge. According to the bill description, this bill will establish a 'public long term care insurance program for the State's working population.'

"The National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) Hawaii, testified that, 'We do not support this measure because in principle, we are against a mandatory (tax) financing program.'

"Mr. Speaker, I believe as policy makers we should be looking into options other than a new tax to fund long term care insurance. NAIFA Hawaii further pointed out that no other state in the country has a state tax to fund long term care insurance.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise in opposition of House Bill 1, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LONG TERM CARE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no.

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I represent condo associations at my law firm. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on potential conflict. I sit on a homeowner association. Thanks," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Rhoads rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, similar request for a conflict. I'm the member of a condo association. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Similar request, Mr. Speaker. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 24, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONDOMINIUMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 680, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. On one hand I can sympathize with some of the reasoning behind this bill. There have been some entities that have outright abused the current statutory structure of the conveyance tax law in attempt to avoid paying the tax. There have been testifiers who have criticized the loophole.

"I can understand the concern that the people in the businesses need to pay their fair share, but I feel that one of the areas that is overlooked in this bill is that it will hurt some of the small businesses. When you think of the conveyance tax you often think of large businesses and corporations. An area that is not as apparent is the effect it will have on family farms.

"When passing the business from one generation to the next, this current bill would put an undue hardship on agricultural businesses that are hanging on by a thread. My concern is what happens when mom and dad own 100% of a small family business and their kids want to take over.

"My point is this. The bill could have the unintended consequence of hurting us in an area that we're trying to support, an agricultural self-sustainability. So because of this I think there are a few farming families that are on the financial brink as it is and this conveyance tax could be the last straw in them continuing to farm.

"In an effort to stop abuses under the current law we may be painting with too broad of a brush. As the bill has a defective date I look forward to discussing these issues further with my colleagues, but based on my concerns I must vote with reservations."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, in support with reservations. I do like the intent of the measure and I think it's important to close the loophole, which is why I will be voting in support of this measure. I do just worry slightly that it may have potentially adverse impacts on the broader investment climate in Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Cheape and Johanson be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I do appreciate the comments of the previous speakers. We've tried to address these concerns in Committee. In particular, page 2 subsection 1 exempts any transfer or acquisition that consists of the change in identity or form of ownership of an entity where there is no change in the beneficial ownership, including transfers to an entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the same common ownership as the transferor. So we are trying to address these concerns. We recognize it's a work in progress hence the defective date. Thank you very much."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Cheape and Johanson be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. In strong support. Just for the edification of the Members, if this law had been in place two years ago, when Mr. Ellison bought the island of Lanai from Mr. David Murdock, Castle & Cooke, I think we would have received anywhere from $3 million."

At 1:37 o'clock p.m., Representative McKelvey requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:37 o'clock p.m.

Representative Oshiro continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just to clarify that Mr. Ellison wouldn't have paid the conveyance of the interest transfer cost, it would have been done by Castle & Cooke, who was the seller of the property. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 680, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Fale voting no.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1149, HD 3 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. Our State's dependence on fossil fuels is no secret, given our geographic location and our energy needs. This bill institutes standards and provides assurances of adequate financial resources for safe and proper decommissioning of wind energy facilities.

"I have a few wind energy facilities in my district, and that's something that's very important to us. I realize that some of the current companies in our area do have the decommissioning standards in their power purchase agreement, but I think it's important that we protect what is so beautiful about Hawaii and make sure that they get taken down. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support and ask that the words of the prior speaker be reflected as my own. I'd just like to add that in my current District 46, I probably have the most windmill turbines in any district in the State. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I've spoken with a number of the wind companies, especially those who have turbines in my district, and not a single one of them has not worked out a decommissioning portion of the contract that they sign.

"My reservations rise just from the fact that, this I believe should be left to the entities that are involved to work out what it is and not have the state insert themselves into the process and mandate something that should be handled between the entities involved. That's all I have, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1149, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WIND ENERGY FACILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm we do foreclosures and we also represent condo associations," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I sit on a homeowner's association. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same request. I'm an officer on a condo association board. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. I rent condos. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations and I'm just little bit concerned that the cost of this may prohibit some families from sending their kids to school. But, those are my only reservations and if I can get further written comments, that would be great. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am voting in support with reservations on HB 1131, HD 2. The measure requires a child to have a dental examination prior to entering any elementary, middle, or high school for the first time in the State. While I appreciate the bill's intent to help ensure a healthy school population, I am concerned that some children and families across the state who do not have access to a provider will be unable to fulfill this entry requirement. This would have a negative impact on low-income student attendance in school.

"In 2009, the Department's public health dental program was eliminated as a result of budget reductions and there is currently no infrastructure to support full implementation. Many other factors can affect access, including: lack of insurance, high co-payments, limited availability of dental providers, transportation, and cultural and language competency. Children with special health needs may also experience difficulty finding dentists trained and willing to serve this population. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ohno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I do want to point out that the date that this bill would take effect is after ACA and many of the Hawaii Health Connector has been put into place, meaning that many of the families who may not be able to afford a dental exam, will so, under ACA or ObamaCare. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm rising against this measure. Essentially, the concern that I have is this would require, as a prerequisite to entering public school, to have a report from a licensed dentist of a dental examination. I don't know what the nexus is between having a dental examination and entering a child into a public school system.

"I think there are some requirements right now on the books that require a child to maybe show some immunizations for certain infectious diseases, but I don't really understand the nexus or the requirement of preventing a child to be enrolled in school.

"The concern is that, at no fault of the child, but perhaps the guardian or the parents, maybe given their social-economic situation or the lack of affordable health care access or dental care access, they might not be able to get the dental examination. I think just to use this as a further barrier of the child to enter our public school system would hurt the child more than help them. That's why I'll be voting against it at this point in time. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, standing in support. Brief comments. I do not know the nexus of why the bill was put forward but I can speak to some of the questions that were previously discussed regarding the value of having children be required to do a dental examination.

"As many of you know, we have children who come in through immunization shot records as well as a physical. During their physical we check a child to see if they have vision or potential hearing issues that will impede their ability to learn.

"Mr. Speaker, dental examinations may seem benign, however, it is an important factor for a child's overall health. Mr. Speaker, there has been proof that poor dental and oral hygiene can lead to debilitating and at-risk life factors like coronary heart problems regarding valves, because of poor oral health. So, Mr. Speaker, at no fault of the child we should look at ways of getting these children evaluated as soon and as early as possible.

"Children who miss school due to poor health having debilitating cavities as well as teeth loss actually have been proven to have lower self esteem and some behavioral health issues. So, Mr. Speaker, I think this is a good step forward. Parents and those families that are unable to pay for their medical cost, this is a great opportunity for them to get access to free care or get their children at least signed up for insurance that is provided by the state government to cover their dental care. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition with brief comments. First of all, may I have the words of the speaker from Wahiawa entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Secondly, just briefly, while I appreciate the intent of this measure, I think in response to what the Transportation Chair noted, this bill does in fact punish the child, and I think that is what the concern is.

"While the previous speaker said that this would be at no fault of the child, you are in fact punishing the child for the sins of the parent. Because now if the parent refuses to be responsible with their child's dental care, the child suffers. The child will be prohibited from entering into the public school system. For those reasons, I stand in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please note my no vote. Please also take into the Journal the words of the Representative from Wahiawa as if they were my own.

"Growing up as a child I was not covered under any dental plan. So, I look at this as a measure of one more step of trying to get a child into public education. I don't think we should be going there at this moment in time.

"I think it is a good measure, but if this was in place 50 years ago, I wouldn't have been in public school. Not contrary to what my parents provided or didn't provide, we just didn't have the service.

"I understand that there could be public services for these, but currently that system is not large enough or capable enough to take all of our public school children. So therefore, I am voting against this measure at this point in time. We should really look at this going forward. Anymore stumbling blocks for our children to enter public schools in not conscionable for me. Thank you very much."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support with some slight reservations. I know on the Big Island we have our federally qualified community health centers that are doing dental examinations for children and adults, for those that can't afford private physicians. So, I really hope that our system that we have around the state actually supports families getting their dental care taken care of.

"The reason I support it moving forward is because, I do know one thing, if a child has tooth decay and lots of problems in their mouth it could really affect their learning experience. And as we're moving forward this session I believe we're supporting early childhood education and just looking at the needs of children that are entering school, kindergarten, first grade, second grade.

"Maybe the bill as it moves forward we'll see it come out in Conference modified and maybe it's down to just elementary school level, I don't know. But, I do think it's of value to keep it moving and keep the discussion going. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in opposition to this matter. I do recognize the good intention of the bill. However, I'm looking at it that it could be a deterrent to those impoverished parents that may not be able to afford this. So, I think that we should encourage it, however, we should not make it a requirement. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Oshiro and Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and just a few comments. I really want to thank the introducer of this bill because we've been struggling with the issue of dental health care and how can we ensure that more of our keiki have the important dental care that they need. And I think this bill actually represents out-of-the-box thinking. We have been focused on insurance and other issues, but this is looking at existing laws and existing requirements that ask that our children have physical exams.

"So, the nexus is that a dental exam is like a physical exam. It's an examination to ensure that the health and wellbeing of the child before they enter school is there, that they have the important health care and access to that health care available to them.

"What I think this bill also does, if you look at the language of the bill, there is actually a safe harbor. This in no way hinders a child from going to public school and it actually expands the window of time in which the child can get either their physical exam or dental exam, from 30 days to 90 days. So, this is a bill that actually, again I want to emphasize, it's out-of-the-box thinking, about how we can get our keiki the kind of good physical and dental care that they need. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be brief, I just want to make a comment. If individuals or people have concerns regarding the impeding of students going into school, I do want to highlight that currently in state law we require children to have immunization records proven, as well as they are required to have a physical. We specify within who can provide that, within 30 days prior to entrance into school.

"So, again, if the issue has been that we are putting up requirements to prevent children from entering school for a variety of reasons, again we have to look at eliminating those requirements as well. However, I think, Mr. Speaker, as we have our kids coming into school to give them the best opportunity to be successful, includes their ability to learn, their academic environment as well as their overall health. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ohno rose to respond, stating:

"I take the comments about deterring kids from going to school very seriously, and it was thought through. When a kid goes on a field trip and you ask them to pay money or bring a lunch, you can also see that as a deterrent to going on a field trip. Or, if a kid has a Christmas concert and they have to wear a red or a green shirt, you could also see that as a deterrent. But, many times these kids and their parents will rise to that challenge.

"I think also similarly with this bill, kids and parents will rise to the challenge that at least once during their childhood they will see a dentist. I think that's a standard that we can hold our parents to, particularly with ACA coming into effect. I think those kids will be thankful in 10-20 years when they have less cavities. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Still in opposition. The opposition is not really too much on the examination. But, in the process of the examination if the child requires a lot of dental work, then that becomes a financial deterrent to going to school. Let me also add that there are very few dentists in this town that will accept Medicaid. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I have a few comments. With all due respect to the Chair of Health and to the previous speakers, the reason why I'm voting in opposition is because, I know firsthand where you have a family who has 8 children and let's say that the parents cannot afford the 8 children at one time to get their kids into school.

"I don't think we should penalize the kids. I do believe that we want to make dental examinations and dental care a priority. But, in the places such as where my district is, where on Molokai, Lanai or Hana, you sometimes don't have an option where the provider will provide free services or even take the child. Therefore it becomes an added cost because of transportation, because you have to go somewhere else. So, for those reasons."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Just a couple of points. The dental work is not the same as getting immunizations against measles, mumps, rubella, tuberculosis, things like that, which are communicable and would actually pose a threat to other children in the school. So, it actually falls into a different category. The second issue, Mr. Speaker, is that I'm willing to go out and say that this would probably have the biggest impact, in a negative way, on poor and struggling working families. Because they are the ones who have the least amount of time and the least amount of resources to dedicate to this particular effort to get their children into school.

"So, once again, I believe that this will have a disproportionate impact on disadvantaged families with both working parents who are working three or four jobs, as well as those in the lowest income bracket, Mr. Speaker. And I believe if we were to follow up this bill with a study on its impact that those results would probably come out. For those reasons, again, Mr. Speaker, I'm opposed."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Mr. Speaker, the data says that 57% of Hawaii's families can't send a kid to school with lunch money without a federal subsidy. They can't even buy lunch for their kids without a federal subsidy. 57%. So, imagine what this is going to do to these working families that the previous speaker and others have talked to. This is a serious issue.

"Let us not lose focus of the fact, it's about their brains, not their teeth. Where we have a bigger deficit, where we have a lot of cavities, is the educational component, the achievement component. The, if you will, having one of the best rather than the 43rd or 44th educational system in the United States. For those reasons, I have serious reservations. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. It's been interesting to me to hear the various comments from people who are not in support of this. I can fully understand the concern if you don't have the means to pay for a dental examination. But, I would ask those who are concerned about that, what would be the cost to that child who has no dental examination and their teeth literally are rotting in their mouth, and what would be the cost of that down the road?

"It would be much, much more, Mr. Speaker. And not to mention for that poor child, the inability for that child to concentrate in school, because this is what it's all about. Relating to the point about communicable diseases, of course it's important that you don't want your daughter sitting next to somebody with active tuberculosis and that's why we require children prior to entering school to be tested for these and be immunized and get chest x-rays and the whole bit.

"But, we also test for hearing and vision. If I can't hear well the guy next to me can hear just as well, that's not contagious. So, we require certain things of all our children because it is a benchmark, it is a gate keeper for not just the ability and willingness of children to learn, but also to assess the health of these children. I think as a state we owe no less to these children. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I would just say that the problems that are brought up with this bill, about half of them would go away if the entire state fluoridated its water. The military bases already do and their rate of dental decay is approximately half of what it is everywhere else.

"As a chemistry minor in college I am aware of the nastiness of fluorine as an element, but if you look at the element directly below fluorine on the periodic table, it's chlorine. And chlorine is something that all four boards of water supply in the state already add in the water to keep us from getting other food borne illness. Mahalo."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations. And I'd like to ask that the words from the Representative from Hana be inserted as if they were my own. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1131, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCHOOL ENTRANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Coffman, Fale, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Jordan, Oshiro and Say voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 810) recommending that H.B. No. 808, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 808, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative McDermott voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 811) recommending that H.B. No. 1374, HD 1 pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1374, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. I understand the intent of this bill is to improve our procurement procedures in allowing the state, when it's procuring services, to look at past performance of the people who submit bids for those contracts.

"I would just like to register my reservations because I have some concerns. First of all, the way that the bill is drafted, on page 2, lines 9 thru 10, it raises a questionable standard. It states that these criteria that will affect the bid price and be considered an evaluation for award shall be 'fair in the eyes of a reasonably objective taxpayer.' I think that language, hopefully as this bill moves to the Senate, will be tightened up. I think that is a difficult standard to articulate, a difficult standard to apply.

"I also note that in testimony in Finance, the Department of Education and DAGS did submit amendments and I hope as the bill moves forward those amendments do get considered, because I think it would serve the intent of the bill and would protect us in future procurement contracts.

"Finally, I'd also like to note that the Department of Transportation noted that the way that the bill is currently drafted could cause serious delays. We all know that DOT works on our harbors, our airports, our highway, our critical infrastructure. Causing delays in the improvement of these infrastructure projects is a serious concern. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ichiyama be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. For the very point that was raised by the Representative from Moanalua, the term 'fair in the eyes of a reasonably objective taxpayer,' I think that's quite broad. In fact, I think anyone would probably say it's somewhat subjective. If you consider the former Minority Leader and myself being both reasonable, rationale, fair-minded taxpayers, we probably have different interpretations of how this law might be applied. So, I'll be voting no, thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I appreciate the comments made by all the previous speakers. With respect to their comments, I think many of their concerns are right and I would support further amendments to this bill. I think as we've often heard, this is one of the many bills that are a work in progress.

"The impetus for this bill is largely based on a phenomenon that occurs in many of our schools in the Department of Education. I'm sure in each of our districts each of us can probably find a capitol improvement project that has either incurred significant cost overruns or significant delays. Oftentimes it's by what most people can see is a bad actor, meaning a contractor who deliberately bid-dives and regularly gets contracts from state work all over our schools, knowing full well that they are not submitting a bid in good faith, that is both on time and will be reasonable and actually the lowest price.

"So, while we award through the competitive sealed-bid process, particularly with respect to DOE projects, projects by lowest bidder. But what I would pause at is that I think in the end when you factor cost overruns, delays, in terms of both to the students and to the taxpayer as well as to the state, I don't know that the state is ultimately getting its best bang for the buck.

"The motivation behind this bill is to try to at least take a first stab at addressing what is a problem that is fairly pervasive, which the DOE notes and Pacific Resource Partnership also supports. Because we're trapped in this loop, Mr. Speaker, where all of us can acknowledge and many of our principals often say, I'm glad I got this capital improvement project, it's now been awarded and it's been awarded to a contractor that I know across the island didn't do the best quality job and I hope it all works out for me and I hope our results are different.

"Sometimes we're not getting different results. I think many of the points brought up today would definitely improve the bill and tighten it, and I would support those. But, I do think that, as an idea and as an amendment rather than focusing on the purity of the procurement code in isolation, we have to take a look at what's really going on in our schools and try to address that and try to achieve a results-based policy in terms of procurement that our students and the taxpayers really feel is best value. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, this bill is all about common sense. Who would hire somebody who did a junk job and you wouldn't take that into consideration. Case in point, 86% of us are University of Hawaii graduates. They put out a contract to build a baseball diamond. The contractor built the bleachers so you couldn't see home base. Equivalent to having this thing built in our gallery so you can't even see the Speaker for those up in the gallery.

"Would you do another contract with that person having that mistake or would you not at least take into consideration that kind of common sensical experience rating. Yeah, we can fine-tune it, we can polish it, but let's stick to the common sense. That's all this bill is about. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. First, I'd like the words of the Representative from Foster Village, Moanalua and lower Aiea as if they were my own.

"I think this is a very important issue for all of us and as noted in previous discussions, the biggest issue occurs in our schools. I know of many different examples of projects not coming out the way they came out because of a particular contractor being hired and not being skilled and adequately versed with some of the things, and it's just coming out terrible.

"The aquarium a few years ago did a project and the contractor who did it, because he was the lowest bidder, we found out had failed on two occasions previously on state jobs. Yet, he was the lowest bidder and we had to hire him.

"I think the best analogy I would give to you and my colleagues is this. If I was to build a project at home and I had to do it through a bid process and I had to go out and get, let's say 3 bids. And the lowest bid, my friend right here from Mililani and Waikele said 'oh, I had my house done by that guy and I wouldn't recommend him because he does poor work, in fact we had to redo everything.' Would I still pick him? Would I still pick that lowest bid? The answer is no. So why can't we, in state government, do what we would rationally do as homeowners, as business owners paying for a contractor doing like work.

"I think this bill is a reasonable approach and I hope that we can address some of the concerns in the future. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, just a brief rebuttal. Still with reservations. Again, I appreciate the comments that have been made from the previous speakers. But to be clear, my reservations, again, have nothing to do with the words of support that were offered. I think we're all in agreement that in fact we should be allowed to account for past performance for those bidding on contracts, particularly for state projects.

"The issue at hand deals with the current language in the bill. So, that being said, as this bill moves forward we hope that language can be tightened up and we're pleased to hear that the author of the measure is amenable to that, thank you."

Representative Ing rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. Still in support, with additional written comments. Thank you."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB1374.

"This bill is designed to allow past performance to be factored into the competitive sealed bidding process for state procurement contracts. This bill just makes sense, in that it allows state policy to reflect the best practices we use in our everyday lives. If a contractor doesn't finish a project on time, there are costs associated with their delay, through change orders and increased labor costs. When the lowest initial price is coupled with poor results throughout the project, this does not constitute value for the taxpayer. The risk of these costs occurring should be a factor in determining whether or not a bid is acceptable.

"This bill does not force past performance on bids as a criterion, nor does it exclude new contractors from receiving state work. Rather, it allows state agencies to avoid having to choose bids from the same contractors who continue to submit low bids, but fail to deliver on what they have agreed to complete.

"We cannot afford to keep making the same costly mistakes and this measure offers a cost-efficient and way to tackle a serious problem.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1374, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Oshiro and Say voting no.

At 2:11 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1149, HD 3
H.B. No. 25, HD 2
H.B. No. 1440, HD 1
