The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 96, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FARMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Choy voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 813) recommending that H.B. No. 857, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 857, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Woodson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Woodson's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support House Bill 857 and believe this bill should be a top priority in the Legislature. The original intent of this tax measure was to help ensure a long-term and well-funded strategy to obtain sustainability. This specific bill reallocates the barrel tax to be used for its intended purpose of supporting clean energy, local agricultural production, and environmental response.

"In adopting this measure we will be able to start moving forward in making Hawaii self sufficient and less dependent on outside resources, especially on fossil fuels and food products.

"By using the tax for its original intent we will be able to start reducing the cost of living by generating more home grown products. This measure will also allow the ability to invest in a diverse amount of energy resources. All of these efforts will help us identify the best path to take in our journey to self sustainability, efficiency, and increased environmental responsibility."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 857, HD 2. This bill would seek to repeal the sunset date of the barrel tax and reallocate the income from the tax to a variety of good causes, such as energy and food security. However, what concerns me is that this would make the barrel tax permanent, which increases the burden already faced by Hawaii's families. Many of Hawaii's people are struggling to survive in these difficult economic times, and it would not be prudent to add to their burden by continuing to keep their cost of living high."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support and I'd like to thank the committee for moving this bill forward. I'd like to thank my friend from Kailua for having faith in me over all these years, that one day we could return to the intent behind the barrel fee tax, especially when it was raised from 5 cents to $1.05 and I told her that for a period of time we would be diverting some of the money to address the budget shortfall caused by the great recession.

"So, I think she and I are in accord with moving this bill forward and hopefully have it passed upon Sine Die. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. This barrel tax, when it came into existence, hurt my community. Same thing, we have working families that are trying to get out of poverty, trying to support their families and this barrel tax was instituted once again with the promise that it would disappear after a little while. And that's something, I believe it's a simple thing, that if we're going to institute a sunset date to pass a measure, when that sunset date arrives we should keep our promises to the community that we made, that it would go away.

"This barrel tax hurt my family, my community then, it continues to do so now. With the description of the reason why we have that tax for sustainability purposes, we are not any more sustainable today than we were back then. So, I would say that we should have a certain standard to which we measure our efforts and if we are not achieving the goals that we said we were going to achieve, then we need to allow whatever efforts we put forward to sunset as we said they would and to reassess where we are and to make the necessary judgments to really pursue the courses of action that would allow us to achieve that.

"Once again, this measure hurts disproportionately the working class family and those who are underprivileged in the community. Once again that's my priority, to make sure that we raise these families out of poverty and put them in a situation where they can take care of their families and move towards a brighter future, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and I'd ask to insert written comments as well. I just note that this bill does return the amount of funding from the general fund to the purposes for which is was originally purposed out of the barrel tax, both for energy independence, renewable energy adoption and Ag sustainability.

"I will note that over the past six years we have nearly doubled the amount of megawatts of renewable energy on our grid. In addition, we are at a point where we are not just jumping, but leaping forward. Each year our renewable energy distributed generation has been doubling. It's an incredible rate unseen anywhere else in the nation.

"What we have here is a short window of time, probably 3 or 4 years before our entire energy potential is about to change one way or another. We have a short period of time before HECO has to meet all kinds of requirements from the EPA to change over the methods of generation as well as adopt new distributed generation strategies.

"One of the things we're trying to do here as a state is help our families, help our working class, help the economy. Because underlying all of this is the cost of energy which affects everybody. Whether you're a homeowner, whether you're running a business, whether you're anyone else. One of the things we can do right now is make sure our State Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism in particular has the resources to be able to continue to push the state forward and adopt the energy plan that we need, to make sure that in the future we're going to continue this forward momentum and reduce costs for everyone. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Lee be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 799, HD 3 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. This is one of those tax credits again that take away money that's supposed to go to the state coffers. Although it's well intended, Mr. Speaker, I think that with the current recession that we are having we should be hanging on to every tax dollar that we can get.

"Furthermore, this 50% wage reimbursement for 6 months that the bill is asking for, this could be high paying jobs, Mr. Speaker. We don't know what they are. So, we don't know the implication of this bill. Because of this current situation and our state budget, I'm voting no on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 799, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CREATIVE MEDIA DEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla and Oshiro voting no.

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 484, HD 1. This bill will designate that, 'existing taro-growing systems, ancient wetland taro lands, and taro-growing structures as special agricultural lands to be protected from development.'

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that this bill is overly broad and that it will produce unintended circumstances.

"The Department of Land and Natural Resources submitted the following testimony concerning the bill, 'The bill prohibits the Board of Land and Natural Resources from acquiring for development projects, lands used or to be used for taro growing that possess: 1) Existing taro growing systems, 2) Ancient taro lands, or 3) Structural elements of ancient taro growing systems. As written, the bill's prohibitions are overly broad, especially with regard to ancient taro lands and growing structures. The bill does not provide for any determination as to whether the lands may be feasible for present or future taro cultivation. In addition, the bill does not take into account whether there is any demand to engage in taro cultivation on a property. The broad application of bill's language may result in preventing noteworthy public works projects without any taro cultivation being conducted. Furthermore, the bill appears to create a conflict with other language in the statutory provision, which allows for the acquisition of agricultural lands for development under certain limited circumstances.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise in opposition of House Bill 484, HD 1."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 838, HD 1. My concern, Mr. Speaker, is that this measure will result in an increase in fees. I am also concerned about the lack of transparency that is in the language of the bill regarding how these fees will be used.

"Jodie V. Tanga, President of the Hawaii Association of Mortgage Brokers testified that, 'HAMB remains concerned with this request to increase fees without greater transparency with respect to the use of those fees. We believe that with the implementation of the NMLS system, there should be cost-savings, not increases.'

"At the end of the day, Mr. Speaker, any additional fees that are charged to mortgage brokers will be ultimately passed on to consumers. This fact could negatively impact home ownership in our State.

"Mr. Speaker for these reasons, I rise in opposition of House Bill 838, HD 1."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 838, HD 1. This bill would change registration and fees for mortgage loan originators, and could do so in quite a drastic way. The Hawaii Association of Mortgage Brokers identified a concern in that this represents an increase in fees without greater transparency as to the use of the fees. I am concerned about the impact the fees may have on the mortgage loan industry, and will be rising with reservations on this issue."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 838, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 839, HD 1. This measure 'Authorizes the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to conduct examinations and investigations and adjust the fees for mortgage servicer licensees to use NMLS.' My concern, Mr. Speaker is that this measure will result in an increase in fees to mortgage servicer licensees and that these fees will be ultimately passed on to the consumer. This could negatively impact home ownership in our State.

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 839, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MORTGAGE SERVICERS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 828) recommending that H.B. No. 713, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 713, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 828, House Bill 713, House Draft 2 which would prohibit employers from requiring employees to give their personal account usernames or passwords for a social networking website.

"I oppose this bill because I firmly believe that law enforcement should be exempt from this bill. In the Standing Committee Report from Judiciary, this section of the bill was removed from House Draft 1. In the first draft, this bill would have allowed law enforcement to require potential employees to access a personal account in the presence of the law enforcement agency. Potential candidates for law enforcement should be held to a higher level of scrutiny given the importance of the position.

"For this reason, I oppose Standing Committee Report 828, House Bill 713, House Draft 2. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. I just wanted to note what the bill does and what the bill doesn't do. This bill will prohibit employers from demanding access to employees or potential employee's social networking or any personal internet account. It will not affect their ability to search what the employee decides to set as public on Facebook or Twitter or anything else. It will not ban their right to be able to request their employee to be a friend or a follower on any of these sites.

"It will not disallow them from requesting their email address, as that could be a username for a social networking site, you still can. But the purpose of the bill is, it's 2013 and it's very common practice for an employer to look through their employees or potential employees Facebook accounts. Actually, 75% of employers now require this practice while over 90% regularly do the practice without requiring it when hiring somebody.

"But the problem exists when it goes beyond that and they're demanding access to the password information and they're, again as I said in Second Reading, they're not entitled to that information at all. Only the person whose account it is, is entitled to that information, period. It's akin to the practice of perusing through someone's mail or an employer demanding that their employee hand over their keys to their house and rummaging through their belongings. Now, those two practices are clearly, unequivocally illegal. All this law does is to bring those existing, written in law, protections of employees to the 21st century and to 2013."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. My number one concern with this bill is that I believe there could be a technical flaw. I think the bill is overly broad given that the title is only 'Relating to Social Media,' so I hope moving forward we can address that. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ing be entered into the Journal as her own, and that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Luke's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 713 House Draft 2 Relating to Social Media.

"This measure attempts to update the current discriminatory practices section of the State's employment law in order to keep pace with technology while providing safeguards for both the potential employee and employer.

"I would like to thank the Representative from Kihei for introducing this measure and for all the hard work that he has put in to this bill as it moved through the House."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with reservations. A couple of points. My first one is that I think if this bill became law it will prevent an employer from asking a prospective employee for their username or even if they have a Facebook or social media account. I think that's problematic.

"I'm going to give you a real life example. When I was in charge of the Finance Committee, I would interview scores of young budget analysts or bill analysts and I would tell them that confidentiality is a prerequisite and an ongoing requirement of employment at the State Legislature in the House Finance Committee. And I specifically forbade them from posting any of the work materials, observations, intentions that they gleaned in their work as budget or bill analysts in their social media activities outside of work.

"I did that to prevent any unwarranted, inappropriate or unintended disclosure of the legislative work product that was controlled and truly a work product of the committee and the process. All of them would agree to that. Those who could not agree to that would not get employment.

"I'm just concerned that the current draft might have some inadvertent consequences, especially in those areas where security of material is essential to the work at hand by the employer. Given today the concerns that we have over personal security of our personal records, papers, memoirs, bank accounts, investments, etc., I think many of us and our constituents are very concerned about access and distribution of what's personal to us. So I just raise that as a concern as this bill moves through the process. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. Mr. Speaker, just a brief rebuttal to the author of this bill. I understand that it's year 2013, but when you make the comparison that the information being requested in this bill is akin to taking the keys and going through your personal belongings in your home, I think that's rather disingenuous and inapposite here.

"The fact of the matter is this, and I'll say this and I said it in the Judiciary Committee. Social networking and privacy are oxymoronic. When you have a social networking website, you want the public to know everything about you, you're spilling all your personal business on there. And that's great. But my concern arises from the fact that language was removed from this bill that would have allowed law enforcement to request or require any employee or potential employee to access a personal account in the presence of a law enforcement agency, the employer, or to divulge any personal account. That's what my concern is.

"So in the event you have someone who could potentially, there are allegations this person is a molester or child molester or what not. I think law enforcement should still have that ability and that was what was removed from this bill and that's what my concerns raise from. Therefore I still stand in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to respond, stating:

"Still in support, Mr. Speaker. To speak to two points that were raised. To address again in the language, you can still ask for an email account, you can still friend employees on Facebook as an employer. How I originally drafted the language, there were provisions that if there's anything that warrants search or that could potentially hurt you as an employer, you can ask for access and there was some language included in there. I'm not sure what amendments exactly have been made since, I would have to double check, but that's something that should probably be ironed out. Especially and obviously if you have a subpoena or a reason to get in their account as you would to get a key to a house, that can still be done through the legal process.

"But in terms of social media and privacy being oxymoronic, I'm going to stand in complete opposition to that statement. It's easy for people who aren't regular users of social media to make those kinds of broad statements, that kids that use these websites are these narcissistic egomaniacs that just want to get out there and be exhibitionists. But really, these are valid tools of communication. And you're selective of what you put on and what you don't.

"We can liken this to the white pages. Yes, you put your phone number on there so it can be public. You choose to put your phone number there so it's public, but you're not allowing the white pages or your boss to check your voicemail by opting into that service.

"So just like Facebook, it's completely selective of what you put on. Of course you need to be very careful. You choose what you put on there. I know people that do not even use the public features of the social media accounts like Facebook but rather don't put any pictures of themselves but use it as an easy way to connect to numerous friends back from high school or whatever very efficiently. So I find it very misleading to pigeonhole the whole idea of social media and privacy as being oxymoronic."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. It's true in the Judiciary Committee we did remove a section having to do with law enforcement investigations with regards to social media. However, law enforcement will still be able to do the same investigations they've always done which are very intrusive. From my understanding it includes lie detector tests and extensive background checks. They just won't be able to ask for a person's username or password, just as they won't be able to go through snail mail or ask for a search warrant of the potential applicant's apartment. Mahalo."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, I rise in support of this measure. I would like the words of the Representative from Kihei entered into the Journal as if they were my own, his first speech. Thank you.

"I think this is an important bill. In fact, if you take a look at what the military is doing right now, they're all shifting towards social media and to email. And I can tell you that even in the warzone the military is encouraging soldiers and service members to utilize social media, whether it be Facebook or Twitter or what not. And they're encouraging that because they understand the necessity of keeping in contact with family and friends and how powerful these social media tools are. I think that's what we should be encouraging as well whether we're employers here or whether we're employers elsewhere.

"The fact is, the military, being that they're so conscious of cyber crimes or release of very, very personal or confidential information, has not restricted the use of social media, has not made it mandatory for me or other people in the military to provide our passwords and our usernames to them. I think that we should gauge what we do here on that. If the military's not doing it why would we have to do it? Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. I have a Facebook page. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Kawakami rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Same request," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Same request," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McKelvey rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Same request," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Jordan rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same request," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and I just want to make a quick rebuttal. The military that I know does not allow you to use Facebook. You are not allowed during working hours on government computers to use Facebook. And furthermore, in the warzone, you're not supposed to because you might disclose where you're at. So I don't know what military branch says that it's encouraged. It's definitely discouraged and you're not supposed to use military equipment for your Facebook account. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, second time in support. I think the previous speaker should just take a look at the army regulations, especially as it pertains to deployed service members. If you take a look at what the military is doing right now, they are encouraging service members to keep in contact with their family and friends through social media. I believe the Representative from Laie can vouch for this as well.

"The only thing that they restrict is the dissemination of sensitive information and in the times of a KIA or something similar, that they put a gag order on us and we're not allowed to communicate for let's say 48 hours.

"But I can tell you, without a doubt, that the military currently is encouraging service members to keep in communication with their families and friends through social media and they do not require the providing of their username or a password to the military. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, Mr. Speaker, and I would like to say that two of the previous speakers were both correct depending on what your job is. As a member of the JAG Corps in the United States Army there are situations and certain jobs that allow you to use social media and there are other occupations within the military that do not permit you to use social media. So I've got to say that they're both correct, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 713, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOCIAL MEDIA," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Hanohano and Har voting no.

Having not been able to do a lot of research yet that she's given me, I'm just going to be voting with reservations for now. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I also have concerns about the measure. I've been around long enough to see that what is said is absolute in the health field later can change, and that no longer is the standard as things move forward. So the thing I'm concerned about is it's a very scary thing for new parents to end up having shots given to their little babies and some of the babies have quite a violent reaction to that.

"I would hope that everything is being done with the best medical science that's available, but that best medical science as of 30 years ago, 40 years ago, 50 years ago, no longer is the same as today. And is today's safe enough for what may be the standard in another 20 or 30 or 40 years.

"I'm just concerned about that whole area and so I'm not voting against it because I don't want the bubonic plague to come back. We've almost eradicated polio, so yes, vaccinations are necessary, but there's also a word of caution to go with them. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, my reservations are, I guess I should inoculate myself and not sound like it's anti-health, but what we have is a growing steep climb in autism. We have military veterans coming back. And I was speaking to a researcher from mainland China recently and they said each time you get an immunization, you're getting a dose of toxicity. But if you're a baby and you get 5, 10, 15 of these per day, you're mixing different toxins together. And if you're in the military, as one of my colleagues said, when you're being stationed you walk down a line and you get shot in the arm continually.

"My point is, if this bill is going to set guidelines, let's let the volume in one day or the volume in one period of time be established because I think what China or this particular individual is mentioning is of serious concern. We cannot explain autism. Even though there are some explanations theoretically, we don't have the data. But it's very common sensical to have too many toxins in too much of a system to override the immune system and then you come up with all kinds of different things.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I think this needs further discussion, it's a very serious issue and I'm hoping that we will proceed prudently. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 907, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VACCINATION GUIDELINES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support to HB 602, HD 2, 'Relating to Motor Vehicles.'

"The purpose of the legislation was to allow the tow truck industry to support and enforce laws that are currently on the books. It was an initiative discussed with tow truck operators to see if automobiles, trucks, SUV's, etc, could support the state and county enforcement agencies.

"These agencies consist of the counties' Police Departments, Motor Vehicle Divisions, and the State Insurance Divisions, where they deal with motor vehicle issues such as 1) Registration; 2) Vehicle Weight Tax; 3) Criminal & Civil Laws that are enforced by county police; and 4) No-Fault Insurance Licensing.

"Currently, any motor vehicle that is towed to a storage tow yard must have a present up to date registration card that states the owner has paid the vehicle weight tax, registration fee, ownership papers, and posses an up to date license and No-Fault insurance card.

"The objective was to authorize the towing company's storage facility to request all of the above documentation. This would require the motor vehicle owner's compliance with our present laws on the books.

"Most tow operators believe that one third of all vehicles do not comply with our present laws and ordinances, whereby the vehicle owners are in breach of the law. Vehicles not in compliance with the current laws and ordinances must be brought up to date before they may be released from the storage facility.

"Most towing facility operators did not want the added responsibilities so that is why they amended the measure dealing with liability of the facility operators. I am happy that the Consumer Protection and Commerce Committee sent it out with amendments to further the discussion. I want to thank the Committee Chair and Vice Chair along with the members.

"A VOICE OF REASON."

This bill would allow beneficiaries of prescription drug benefits providers to opt out of the requirement to purchase prescription drugs from a mail-order pharmacy. While this bill seeks to increase the flexibility of receiving drug benefits, it may have the unintended consequence of increasing the costs of prescription drugs to all by diminishing the purchasing power of the state

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am voting with reservations on HB 635, HD,2. The measure requires the state and counties to take action within 60 business days for non-conservation district use applications and within 120 or 180 business days for conservation district use applications for broadband facilities or the application will be deemed approved. This bill also sets limitations on weight load for utility poles.

"While I appreciate the intent, I have concerns after reading through the testimonies on this bill. For instance, the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs cited the Public Utilities Commission's concerns regarding language that exempts the state, counties, and public utilities from prosecution related to permitting actions that may be overly broad. They suggest that this should be clarified by noting the entities being exempted from prosecution. The Department of Land and Natural Resources noted that under a typical scenario of putting this bill into practice that public hearings would have to take place by their Department, and there is no mention of public hearings in this bill.

"As mentioned, I appreciate the intent and applaud the effort of expanding this needed service, but I am concerned that it will reduce public input. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1314, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, the bill said it's about liquor, but I'm going to talk about beer, which is the first problem. There's a constitutional problem. The constitution in Article III, Section 14, says each bill shall have one subject. This bill actually is a euphemized 'gut in place.'

"Mr. Speaker, HB 1126 is what the beer labeling was all about, but CPC on the 27th of February actually deferred the bill. But then they stuffed it into this one, under the title of liquor. Liquor is not beer, beer is not liquor.

"Second issue is, the unfortunate thing is this is regarding a nascent industry, a beer industry. Something that, if I may, can demonstrate it's about labeling the Kona Brewing Company's beer versus what otherwise is, for my good colleague and friend from Maui, the Maui Brewing Company. There seems to be a bit of a turf war going on.

"But, as I said, it's a nascent industry and they're both small but big enough to want to get at each other's throat. The issue is, this has been accused of, this is the long board ale of which I may disclose, if I do drink beer, I drink this one. Any conflict?" and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"But, it's accused of having a label that is non-compliant with what otherwise has been the parallel of Kona coffee which, Mr. Speaker, we had almost a dozen enterprises in that before we even started regulating them.

"Here there's two guys fighting it out with each other and we're starting to clamp down already on regulations. Basically what this label says is, 'Kona Brewing Co. Kona, HI; Portland, OR; Woodinville, WA; Portsmouth, NH.' Underneath the label then it says: 'fresh, responsible, always aloha.' Does that tell you that this is all brewed in Kona, or in those four different locations?

"The problem and the bottom line, Mr. Speaker, is we've got an industry that's fighting. We are choosing sides on something that I think is dangerous. Let the turf wars, let the market decide, let us not intervene in this. Plus, it's not just my point of saying that there's a constitutional issue, this is the Attorney General who said, you guys are breaking the way that bills should be written and they should not have two subjects on the same line.

"For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think we need to seriously look at ourselves. And I would have anyone have a look at this label as long as they don't open it and drink it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. First of all, the bill that the previous speaker was referring to was the one with the title problem with the use of the word 'and.' The second thing and most importantly, really let's cut to the chase, it's not about the size of the class or the industry, it's about a consumer's right to know, Mr. Speaker.

"What the bottle says is, that yes you have those locations indicated, but it doesn't say where they're brewed. In fact, by including a location in Hawaii, one is left to assume, and rightfully so, that it's brewed in Hawaii or that they merely have locations in these other places. The Texas labeling law basically requires you to put where it is brewed. That's simply it. That's what it really boils down to.

"It's not the size of the class. It is the consumer's right to know and is an impression being made on the consumer that this is a Hawaii product. That's why the Kona Coffee labeling and the koa product labeling and the honey bee labeling, all of which the previous speaker supported, that's why those bills were moved forward, Mr. Speaker.

"It wasn't about the size of the industry, it was about simply, when a consumer picks it up, do they know, hey, this is where it's brewed. If it isn't brewed here, where is it brewed? And the bottom line is it's not going to hurt their market sales for people to know this. Because taste is king, Mr. Speaker. Whether it be beer, honey, macadamia nuts, well except koa, that's the only thing taste does not rule. But that's what this bill is. It says if you're brewing your beer in other locations, just let the consumer know.

"Now I do know they do some brewing within the State of Hawaii. My next question was, I still have to follow up on this, of all of the beer that is produced, how much is actually produced at this facility? We don't know, Mr. Speaker. And there's an economic impact, Mr. Speaker. Because as the Maui guy said, hey, I could close everything tomorrow, fire all 500 of my employees and simply go to Portland and Maine and brew there, bring it back with a nice Hawaii label and people will continue to think that it's made here.

"So, there is an economic impact, Mr. Speaker. That is why the genesis and nexus of all of these bills revolve around those two issues. The consumer's right to know, and yes, there is an economic impact. We want people to know that if they are buying a beer that they think is brewed in Hawaii, then they should know it is brewed in Hawaii. If it is brewed elsewhere then they should know that, too. That's all it really is, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support and request to insert the words of the previous speaker into the House Journal as if they were my own. But, I also agree with our Representative from Hawaii Kai in that we should let the free market decide and the market in this case is Hawaii products, Hawaii beer. And it's important that all players in that market are really from Hawaii."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, if I may add one very substantial footnote. What is beer made out of? Hops, malt, barley, yeast. Where do we produce those? Where in Hawaii? Which island grows those? None. Should we say 'beer assembled in Hawaii'? Because that's what it is. Whether it's Maui, whether it's Kona, whether it's whoever, we don't have, like Kona Coffee, grown in Kona, and it says if it's 10% and above or 10%-90% other coffees, you know that at least 10% was grown in Hawaii, in Hawaii soil.

"So, is this about Hawaiian water? And then we can go on and on to the point where it becomes absurd. What we're talking about are two companies, one on the Big Island and one on Maui, who just haven't seen eye-to-eye. I was just given a release that said that, Kona Brewing Company continues double digit growth that can provoke others to jealousy. And unfortunately, some of the standards of the private sector is once you become a monopoly you've succeeded. Well, I think competition is good, but this, in terms of squelching competition this early at the infant stage of both of these companies, is not good policy and we should just do a hands-off. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 855) recommending that H.B. No. 847, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 847, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENFORCEMENT TOOLS TO IMPROVE PATIENT SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 856) recommending that H.B. No. 1028, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1028, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I do support the minimum wage increase which I think is long overdue because of the effects of inflation. With regard to the unemployment insurance aspect of it, the history is that we've passed three major bills since 2007 having to do with unemployment insurance, all of which were intended to help the business community. And I was more than happy to help in that effort to the bills in 2010 and last year where ones where I was the lead sponsor.

"But, at some point we did, I think we were successful in ameliorating the sharp rise in unemployment insurance rates that would have happened if we had not acted. But, at this point the economy is growing, the unemployment rate in Hawaii is 5.1% which is the seventh best in the United States. We need to start preparing for the inevitable next downturn and to do that we have to allow the unemployment trust fund to build up the adequate reserve level that's required by federal law.

"Otherwise we're going to be doing this same bill over and over again sort of indefinitely. Because during the next recession we'll have to borrow money like we did during the last recession and it's just a road that I don't think is prudent to go down. So, with reservations. Mahalo."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With slight reservations. I know this bill still has a long way to go, but just because of the part that the tip credit does not move in the same calculated increases as the rest of the increases do. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 1028, HD 2. This bill would increase the minimum wage from $7.25 to $9.00 by January of 2017. All workers should have access to a quality standard of living. However, I worry about the impact of such a change on businesses. We must not only evaluate the increase in the raw wages for workers affected, but also the corresponding benefit increase that may be tied to the wage increase.

"The potential increase in benefits is an issue for a majority of businesses, as they may have to cut costs dramatically in order to compensate for these increased costs, which could lead to them cutting the hours of employees or employing fewer people. This effect is especially pronounced when the business in question is a small business. As small businesses operate closer to the margins, increased benefits and wages have an exacerbated effect on their ability to retain workers. As the majority of Hawaii's businesses are small businesses, this bill could have very wide-reaching effects.

"While I am very concerned about the plight of the workers who earn the minimum wage, I worry about the unintended consequences of this bill, and thus, I rise with reservations."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations please. Quite opposite from the Judiciary Chair's. Just the flip. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I've been looking at this issue for a while now and I had come to the conclusion, Germany which is the economic power house of Europe, does not have a statutory minimum wage. My concerns about this bill are that we are putting a band-aid over the underlying issues that are making our economy sick. That are holding down a number of our working family members within our community. We are not addressing the educational issues that we have within our community. We are not addressing the economic opportunities that exist within our community. That raising the minimum wage is simply an acknowledgement that we are not fostering an economic situation that allows our community to rise out of the depths of poverty and the situations regarding livable wages, because of the situation that we find ourselves in, in regards to education and the economy.

"It is my hope that instead of putting this band-aid over the issue, that we would move ourselves in such a way that would address the real issues and the real ailments that we face in this State. Is that we have a struggling education system and youth. Our number one export from the State of Hawaii, are our young people. That's a huge problem. And we are not addressing the reasons why they are moving away, why we are not keeping all of our best and brightest here within the state and providing them with the economic opportunity to raise their families in the places where they were born and raised and where the bones of their grandparents and great grandparents are buried.

"So, my opposition to this isn't, I would prefer to see our average wage here in Hawaii be at 30, 40 even $50 an hour if we were able to raise the skill set of the youth and the working citizen in the State of Hawaii where it would merit that. But, because we're not there and we're not really fixing the educational and economic problems that we have in such a way to drive the achievement of that objective which is what Germany has done.

"Germany has been very attentive to the education within their country, has been very attentive to opening up economic opportunity, which has placed them as the top economy in Europe. And all the surrounding countries have statutory minimum wages. This is something out of, Germany is the model that I would like our state to follow for our community and especially for young working families and the youth. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kobayashi rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1028, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Evans, Fale, Har and McDermott voting no.

At 3:18 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 635, HD 2

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, reservations and a few comments. I want to say the merit of this bill is excellent, but I have my reservations because I feel that we could be infringing on collective bargaining. The other thing that I want to point out is that public employees, I believe, are allowed one day to attend parent-teacher conferences. Also, they do have an inventory of vacation time that they may take. So, I think we're just trying to strike the right balance of what's acceptable. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition with brief comments. Thank you. First of all, may I please have the words of the Vice Chair of CPC entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Secondly, my concern with this measure is this. It penalizes those who don't have children. So, essentially what we're saying is, you're giving an additional hour to those who have children, but those who don't, don't get an additional hour. There seems to be some inequity there. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 743, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC EMPLOYEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Hanohano and Har voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 858) recommending that H.B. No. 634, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 634, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is a job killer, business killer, Tesoro refinery sale killer. It makes you retain as permanent those employees which otherwise the market would control.

We know, you don't have to be in the Finance Committee to know, that government spends 80 cents on every dollar for wages. One of the highest costs of doing business is paying wages.

"The way that businesses survive is to adjust its number of employees. This bill says, by government mandate, you corporations will, according to us, if you divest, i.e. sell you business, you shall maintain and retain those employees. Mr. Speaker, it's a crossing of the line between the private and the public sector. It's not a good policy.

"If Tesoro is not sold and we turn it into a museum, like some of these places that used to be sugar and other mills, and make a historical monument out of it, we'll remember today that we made it like that because you said you can't count down, you can't save costs, you can't cut your costs to make your business sustainable. That's something that we don't do in government, but they do it better and we're crossing the line in the private sector.

"For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I hope this thing, when it goes to the Senate and back and forth, will allow Tesoro to sell and will not have this as an albatross around their neck. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. One of the struggles that we have within the State of Hawaii is moving Hawaii into the information age and getting Hawaii fully into the advancements of the 21st Century, Mr. Speaker. Now, this bill would further throw a few mines out there that would prevent businesses from coming into the State of Hawaii.

"I'll use the example of the Tesoro refinery even better. If you have two companies and one is struggling and the other is doing so-so, and their merger would bring about a successful business, this bill would put mine fields that would deter the company from either acquiring the other and making sure that they both survive.

"For example, if Chevron were to say, our management of our refinery is such that if we were to take over the Tesoro refinery we would be able to keep that refinery open. But, because the employees are in excess of 100 it would mandate that Chevron would have to keep on all the employees from Tesoro and prevent the advantage being taken care of, of bringing Chevron's management team to manage Tesoro, because you'd have to keep everybody that's there.

"I understand the objective. The intentions of the bill are very good, in that it wants to try and help people keep their jobs. But, like with many things that occur when we rush in with good intentions, it may very well have the opposite effect. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm opposed."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. Just noting that I don't think any of us want mainland companies coming in here and buying out our local companies and getting rid of our local workers. So, I think this measure attempts to address that. I appreciate that there are some things in here that have some protections for the business. But, I am a little concerned that it could stop businesses from coming in here when we really need them. So, I'm going to vote reservations. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 634, HD 1. This bill would seek to establish job security requirements on any business with over 100 employees upon divestiture. Ensuring that workers do not lose their jobs is ideal. However, this bill may serve to discourage future investment in local companies and could even lead to business closures. I do not wish to see small businesses have to fold as we attempt to provide security to workers. In short, my primary reservation is that this bill could be self-defeating and discourage investment in our business climate."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Fukumoto be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I thank the Committee on Labor for moving this bill forward and my friend from Maui who worked on this bill to narrow it down. A couple of points need to be made. If the subsequent acquiring employer pursuant to the human resource requirement does not need all 100 employees, they could go with less than 100 employees. So that's addressed. That was the concern that was raised by my friend from the Windward side. That's addressed here.

"I think we need to look at this as being more of a 'protect American jobs act', or maybe like a little 'protect Hawaii jobs act.' That's what it does here, folks. When a foreign company comes in through acquisition or ownership, changes ownership or operations, and leaves the State of Hawaii for no other reason than they're chasing their dollar and profit, what happens to our local people whose jobs and lives depend upon it? That's what this bill does. 100 or more employees in a workplace.

"So let's say Tesoro leaves town for sound business reasons, and there are 300 or so employees there. Will they be impacted by this law? Perhaps. But, only if a similar refinery operation is going to take place. If it's just going to be a weigh station or transport station or holding station of processed fuels, that exception here regarding the HR requirements will probably kick in. So, they could reduce the number of employees.

"But, at the threshold, that's the intent behind this bill. It's been almost 15 years that we've been debating this bill in this Chamber, Mr. Speaker. So I'm really happy to see this bill before us today, moving out of the Chamber and going to the Senate. And I'm glad that we're getting such strong bipartisan support on this worker-protection bill. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. I would just like the words of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I understand the concerns that are being raised, but this continues to move us in the direction that would ignore the technological advances that we've been able to experience over the past couple of decades which we continue to see at an exponential rate.

"Now, it isn't ideal but this is the reality of the world that we live in. We have to be able to outfit, again, our young families and our youth within this state with the skill sets that would allow them to thrive in the world that we find ourselves in today. If there was a new technological or management technology that allowed us to more efficiently run an organization, like going back to the Chevron and Tesoro example, if Chevron was using a management system that was more effective that would have allowed them to keep the Tesoro operation alive, maybe instead of losing 300 jobs we would have lost only 100.

"So, this bill continues to keep us from rapidly making the adjustments necessary to bring Hawaii into the 21st Century and to make the necessary adjustments that we need to, to make sure that our state and our people are not only alive but thrive in the 21st Century. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"We are all sharpened by our colleagues and our comments. I appreciate the Representative from Wahiawa who I used to stand across from and say that 'iron sharpens iron' and he certainly has sharpened the second part of my argument.

"That being, Mr. Speaker, we're in a global economy. Everybody is doing business with everybody else. To prove that we're open for business we have to show that we can grow the pie. Precisely what I said earlier, why people think we're anti-business is because of this kind of a bill and because of comments that say, we don't want to do anything other than status quo, we want to keep the visitor industry, we want to keep tourism, we don't want to grow new industries, we don't want to keep other than the same number of employees. When in effect the reality of economic development, the economic theory, the reality of economics is you grow the pie and then you create more jobs when you grow the pie.

"If you just try to keep it the same or lock in costs that are fixed, as we are in this bill, you're going to get mediocrity, Mr. Speaker. We've got hurting, working families that need better paying jobs. We've got to grow the pie not just learn how to slice it or just keep what we've got. The status quo doesn't cut it, Mr. Speaker. This bill is on the cutting edge of that to show that we can better if we loosen up, let these guys who hire people, let them go, get out of their way and grow the economy rather than try to slice the pie up smaller and smaller by having regulations and having the government with its puppet strings running the way business should be running themselves. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 634, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Fale, Kobayashi, McDermott and Ward voting no.

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 1483, HD 2. This bill would establish a task force to study the feasibility of allowing the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation to transition to public-private partnership status. My reservations lie with the idea of privatization that is still predicated on government subsidy. The genesis of this bill involves Banner Health. A partnership with Banner Health ultimately continues government subsidization while diminishing government accountability and oversight. Given that the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation serves as the health safety for many of our rural and neighbor island residents, the potential of losing oversight raises serious concerns, thus I rise with reservations."

Representative Ing rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 1483, HD 2. This bill establishes a task force to study, among other things, the feasibility of allowing the operations of the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation regional systems and their facilities to transition to public-private partnership status.

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that this bill lacks transparency and will greatly impact HHSC workers.

"Dori Smith an attorney and real estate professional living in Maui County submitted this testimony concerning this bill:

'Hawaii will still be required to provide tens of millions of dollars to the 'leased' facilities for various concessions that will be required to the for-profit entity to encourage it to accept financial responsibilities for operations of facilities. The same can be said for current employee/union concessions that will fall out of this arrangement.'

'Vast numbers of local doctors, nurses, techs and support personnel will lose their jobs and be replaced by low-bid personnel from the mainland. The uprooting of all of these Hawaiian citizens and their families is reason enough to oppose this bill.'

'As written, HB1483 would give a for-profit entity unheralded power over the decision to reduce or eliminate critical or important health care resources and programs. There is no counter-control to this other than the perfect coordination of the Hawaii government to create and pass a 'new law' that would block any specific elimination of healthcare services that the for-profit deemed appropriate.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise with reservations on House Bill 1483, HD 2."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak in support of this bill with strong reservations, which I will discuss.

"The Hawaii Health Systems Corporation runs a network of community hospitals mostly on the neighbor islands. We must maintain this safety net of healthcare. Having one or more regions withdraw from it will destabilize it financially and will affect the medical services in the community, especially those in remote areas. Not having a unified healthcare system will threaten the long-term viability of the entire healthcare delivery system.

"We must ensure long-term care will be available to our community. The most vulnerable community members rely on the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation; recipients of Medicare or Medicaid depend on state healthcare facilities. Furthermore, patient volume is low, and most of HHSC's facilities focus on providing long-term care, which often operate at a loss. Yet we still need long-term care for the public health of our community.

"I support HB 1483 with reservations as the state should support the continued availability of healthcare for our community. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. HB 224 HD 3, Relating to the Hawaiian Language Immersion Program, where student assessments are accomplished to accommodate Hawaiian language students through Hawaiian language speakers. As you and the good Members of this Body are aware, the Hawaiian language is an official language of this State. Advocates have been working on providing parity for many decades. I would like to note that each island is unique in their use of the Hawaiian language. Therefore, I would like to ensure that those doing the assessments are aware of this issue. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 224, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE IMMERSION PROGRAM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding House Bill 674, HD 2. This measure, 'Establishes provisions for charter schools relating to annual independent financial audits, criminal history record checks, enrollment, conflicts of interest, and hiring. Makes amendments to Hawaii's Charter School Law for clarity and consistency.'

"Hawaii Public Charter Schools Network (HPCSN), submitted the following testimony, 'This language will cut off funding for most, if not all, kindergarten students, SPED students who stay in school until their 20th birthday, other overage students born in states with differing entry dates and those who have been retained at younger ages in charter schools. Hopefully this was an oversight. If the bill is not amended to allow for per pupil payment for these groups of students, HPCSN would have to change its support of this bill.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise with reservations regarding House Bill 674, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 674, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 535, HD 2. I would like this opportunity to discuss the merits of the bill before my colleagues stand up with their vote of reservations.

"Having said that, Mr. Speaker, I'm still very grateful to them because they allowed that this bill go forward to where it's at today. It's very controversial and I understand that. But, Mr. Speaker, as your Chair on the Committee of Housing, on the topic of homelessness, I wrote three goals for the Committee. That is to reduce the number of homeless people in our state, save money for the state, and third, to use the appropriations in its most effective means.

"Last year, we passed into law the Interagency Council on Homelessness. Their mission is to reduce or eliminate homelessness in Hawaii. In their first annual report they pointed out that a solution to homelessness is to build more affordable housing. There was no mention on what we should do today.

"But on the note of affordable housing, Mr. Speaker, I think we all know as a Body that's something we need to do. Although, I stand to refute that affordable housing is something that homeless people can reach.

"Two sessions ago we put into law the Housing First program for the chronically homeless people. The program received an initial appropriation of $1 million. $450,000 went to IHS and $550,000 went to US Vets. On the public info briefing that the Committee held before the session, out of the $450,000 they were able to help 30 chronically homeless individuals. But it is important to note that the Executive Director of the contracting agency paid herself $120,750 a year.

The Chair addressed Representative Cabanilla, stating:

"Representative Cabanilla, with your kind indulgence, if you can state to the Chair why this bill is good or bad for the state. State the merits, stay focused on the merits."

Representative Cabanilla continued, stating:

"I'm getting there, please be patient with me. I also invited the other contractor who got $550,000 but never showed up. The point I'm trying to make here is all these programs that we currently have are very, very expensive, which relates to the parking lots, which I think is less expensive.

"Two years ago the state purchased three apartment buildings along Kapiolani Boulevard. We gave it to a contractor, there were 80 units, Mr. Speaker, and they also got an appropriation of $780,000 out of the $63 million that the Governor appropriated for homelessness. If you add the contribution of the tenants and the $780,000, Mr. Speaker, it's market rent. So, I asked the contractor, who pays himself $120,000, what is the benefit for the state for owning the building and the land for this transitional housing. And the response was, 'we pay for their utilities.'

"During the Lingle administration, Mr. Speaker, we built a lot of emergency shelters. They were good then, they're still good today. However, what was not mentioned was that the homeless shelters charged $38 per night plus $5 co-pay from the homeless person that stays there."

Representative McKelvey rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla continued, stating:

"It is good, and it stays today, because that's the only thing we have for the homeless. We have not moved forward, Mr. Speaker, and that is what I call 'one size fits all' when addressing homelessness. And as you see, today it does not address everybody's needs.

"But, I think as long as we are willing to pay shelter providers, and not all of them are the same, let me make that disclaimer, there's a lot of shelter providers in Waianae and also the Catholic Charities that are very reasonable. However, there are some of them that charge us, the taxpayers, $148,000 a year for their services. I believe the homeless are being robbed in broad daylight.

"Now, with that argument too, I know Mr. Speaker, you and I tried to pass the return-to-home bill, and it has passed this Chamber three or four times but it doesn't pass the Senate. That would definitely decrease the number of homeless people because even though they're un-housed, the state pays them about $1600 in assistance every month in terms of food stamps, homeless housing, emergency shelters. If they don't get sick, that's what the cost is. But when it rains or when they get sick, Mr. Speaker, that amount grows exponentially, because when it rains they're all in the emergency room.

"I also want to reiterate that in one of my info briefings the $63 million that was appropriated by the Governor last year, I asked them, 'what is the impact of that $63 million? They did not decrease the number of homeless people.' And they told me, no, but it could have been worse if you guys did not appropriate $63 million.

"I'm getting to the parking lot now, Mr. Speaker. Again, I thank the Body for allowing me to bring this forward. Because like I said in the beginning, there are three goals of the Committee. I know that the reservations are because they are afraid that the parking lot that I am suggesting will end up in their neighborhood.

"There's a huge parking lot in Kakaako, Mr. Speaker, that nobody uses. Channel 2 pointed out to me, why did you build this parking lot and for what? And I said, I don't know. So, the concept is, because we have criminalized people for sleeping in their cars and we are not about to pass a law that you cannot defecate or urinate in Chinatown or Downtown Honolulu. We should have at least a place for them, not just the homeless, but the working poor to sleep at night where we can provide sanitation. And for them to be able to get in there at 6 p.m., and get out at 6 a.m., and have a good night's sleep so we can feel good about ourselves, Mr. Speaker. So, we can feel good about ourselves that we did something for them. For those people who cannot, or will not, go to a homeless shelter.

"We had an info briefing, the committee did, just to listen, why it is that they won't go to these homeless shelters. The route to homelessness is so variable. So, I believe the approach to solving it should be as varied as the people who are caught in it. We are a civil society, Mr. Speaker, and I think that we are benevolent and I ask everyone in this Chamber to help me find that solution that we can, most of us, agree on. I don't think that we can all agree on a solution, but if most of us agree on a solution, that's good enough. Thank you, Members. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for listening to me."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First, I'd like to say I have strong reservations. Although I appreciate the Representative from Ewa's comments, I have a few things to say, if I may.

"This is talking about nighttime parking and possibly public parking lots. This has not been tried before. There was a pilot on Kauai and a pilot on Maui. Neither one of them panned out to what was expected. I do come from the Waianae coast and in 1999 from Kalaeloa to Makaha we had roughly 280 homeless individuals. By the year 2003 we had 3,000 homeless individuals. The previous administration had set out this emergency proclamation and dealt with that. Today you can probably count an upwards of maybe 400 individuals in that same area. We have emergency, we have transitional, we have different opportunities for success rates for these people transitioning from homelessness into housing.

"There is a need for affordable and low-income housing. That is a no-brainer in here, we understand that. In fact, in my community there was a project that went bankrupt, there's a company that's going to buy it, 70 units they're going to allow self-help building there. Those are the things we need to focus on. I have been attending the homeless interagency council meetings and that's quite true, their focus is housing. But, their focus is on housing first.

"That's why they've looked at projects like the 100,000 Homes Campaign. Identify the first 100 most vulnerable individuals, at which they got 483. They have already placed a few of those individuals. Housing first, then deal with some of their chronic issues, such as mental illness, alcohol, drug, even social issues, trying to put them back into a structured living format. That's going to take time with some of these individuals.

"That's why we're looking at all different options, such as parking lots. We have visited this in our community, in the Waianae community. My opposition to this is if we're going to use public parking lots, we will be held accountable for the liability. And if the measure continues the way it is, we'll have to make sure these individuals don't have any substance abuse or alcohol abuse. These are going to come to dollars. I don't have a problem if a private entity would like to get into this and provide a private parking lot, I am all for that. But, when we start looking at the public parking lots and the public liability for the general populace, I start having issues with this.

"Our focus should be, how do we have people get success. And the success is the Housing First model. The success is getting them into an emergency, a transitional, public housing or private rental structure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. First of all, I want to thank the Chair of Housing who really works diligently to try to figure out this homeless shelter, emergency shelter problem that we have in our State. I thought about it earlier today and I was reminded that when you are on the mainland they have truck stops and they have rest stops, which is not what we have in Hawaii. If we were on the mainland we would find homeless people or people just traveling that they will pull over in those rest stops and truck stops. And the thing about those places is they usually have lighting and normally people, I believe, feel safe because normally the state patrol or the Sheriff would be driving by those bus stops or truck stops.

"So what do we have in Hawaii? If you're a person that, let's say, you just have to leave a bad situation. Let's say you get unemployed or domestic violence and you have your car and you have to leave, is it best to have them parking on a street? In a neighborhood? Or is it better to have these emergency places? I don't think the goal of this is to have permanent parking lot emergency shelters. I think it's unfortunate right now with the recession and what happened that we have a lot of people that are homeless.

"But, when I look at the bill and the way it was written, which says, 'the department, in consultation with the mayor of the applicable county and any interested public or private homeless assistance programs, may designate in each county temporary nighttime parking lots that will be used to provide safe overnight parking for homeless individuals who live and sleep in their motor vehicles and who would otherwise park overnight on public or private roads or property. To accommodate regular public parking daily from 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., nighttime parking for homeless persons at these designated parking lots shall be allowed daily from 7:00 p.m. to not later than 6:00 a.m. the next day.'

"What I believe is this will never happen if you don't have the mayor working with them. Sometimes things get really bad and it's just a way to accommodate it. Again, this is about food, clothing and shelter, the basics. If we're not dealing with affordable housing or have access to emergency shelters, I would like to see a single woman with a child or by herself, I'd rather have her sleeping in a car in a parking lot that's safe, than have them pulled out somewhere on the side of the road.

"I think it's unfortunate we have to do it, but I think that the Chair, I'm sure that she's heard horror stories, but, she's had to look at this problem deeply as long as she's been the Chair of Housing and I applaud her for trying. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, in support with some reservations. My reservations are based on that it should just be held to public parking facilities. I want to thank the introducer of the bill because it does some good things. One, it takes into account the safety of those that are less fortunate, especially the keiki. Two, it's just been brought to our attention on Kauai that there are homeless people that are now camping in wahi pana areas, areas that are sacred, areas like Salt Pond. So, if we can designate appropriate areas, that will alleviate some of those problems.

"Now, I just want to say also that, yes, in 2011 the Kauai Continuum of Care did try a pilot project and they ran into many different obstacles and it was overwhelming. But that should be no excuse to stop trying. Look at this very Body, we introduce the same bills that die or get vetoed over and over again, but we don't give up. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in opposition. Please let me briefly explain the concerns that I have on the bill. Very briefly, Mr. Speaker, if you look at the measure before us it does not require that the department or the county shall meet with or discuss or get approval or get collaboration from members of the community that actually may live next to these identified parks or parking lots, Mr. Speaker. As many of you have in your districts, you have county parks or even park and ride areas within your community that may be potentially designated for these potential parking establishments.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, there's no discussion about requiring appropriate sanitation and facilities for individuals, children or families that may use this type of opportunity, Mr. Speaker. There are a lot of concerns that I have in regards to requiring the counties to be responsible, and the organization and set-up being developed by the department. Again, the major issue that arises is the lack of community notification, participation, identification of this problem. So, I'm in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I respectfully rise in opposition to this measure. It's a noble and commendable goal that embodies the aloha spirit. In all honesty when I first read it I was completely in support. I thought this would be a great, great bill for the houseless community. But after listening to the testimony in the Housing Committee, it really changed my mind. Not only did DHS come out with serious concerns in regards to the Kauai Continuum of Care, the pilot program, with liability as well as sanitation.

"Also, many members of the houseless community came out and spoke out against this measure, saying, before we try to create anything new, let's really work on the programs that we have. And I thought that was a very important goal and coming from the people who are really affected by it. If they came out and took the time to testify, saying, this bill is not something that we want, I respectfully have to vote in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I was in opposition to this but after hearing the words of the Representative from Ewa, I think I will vote with strong reservations in regards to this measure. The reason why I do so is that I have no experience with homelessness. There's no homelessness in the community that I was raised in and it's something that really is foreign to me and it's something that I still don't understand to this day. I don't understand how individuals who obviously have mother's and father's and probably brother's and sister's and aunt's and uncle's and such, how we find ourselves living in a society where the family attachments have eroded themselves to a state where there is no longer the care that I am familiar with that is extended between family members.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I struggle with this issue because I think it speaks to a greater underlying issue that afflicts our community and I don't know how you would solve the homeless issue other than to restore the family to its rightful place and to strengthen the bonds that exist. There's no way in good conscience that I would allow any of my brother's or sister's or any of my cousins to live in such conditions. So, I don't know what to do about that, Mr. Speaker, but I'm deferring at this time to the Representative from Ewa and maybe this is an innovative way to solve the issue. And, with that, Mr. Speaker, I support the measure, yet with strong reservations."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this is a teachable moment bill. It shows us that we really don't know what we're doing or we have a handle on what is really in front of us. I don't think we know how to solve this problem, save the resurrection of Frank Fasi, who could probably get the job done. He'd figure something out and we're still probing. And this is the positive part of what I want to say. We've got to try as many innovative things as possible. Let's learn from what happened on Kauai, let's learn from what happens on the Big Island. Let's try this thing out, let's perfect it. It's not an easy problem but the ultimate was given as the best solution from the last speaker, and that was, a home is the best solution for the homeless. A family in a home.

"And that's the break-up of the family. This is symbolic of what's happening in America. The family has disintegrated and what we have left are things we don't know how to put back together. So, Mr. Speaker, let's progress ahead, let's experiment, let's do the things and let's hopefully come up with something where even $63 million and a czar to head it up can't do it. I think we need to put more brains and innovative, creative things, more entrepreneurial homeless spirit if you will, into doing this and solving it. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, all the fears we have, that we believe this bill will create, are already happening now. If you spend any time in the primary urban core you see all these issues. We can either decide how we're going to handle it or by default have all the problems that you believe, will happen because if this bill passes. We know what hasn't worked, everything regarding chronic homelessness.

"So, we need to try new solutions and be brave. When we have a natural disaster, the first thing government does, it provides shelter to those who don't have a home. Today we have an economic disaster and the response should be the same. We're never going to build enough shelters to house these 6,000 or so people without homes throughout the islands. So, this is at a reasonable cost, it's not going to be easy, but it certainly will require just as much energy to fix this problem as to avoid it, which we've really been doing for a long time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I'd like the words of the Representative from Waipio Gentry and the Representative from Mililani adopted as my own. Also highlighting just again, that my main problem with this bill is it doesn't seem to be an adequate mechanism for community input. Thank you."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I would like to commend the Housing Chair for advancing this legislation. I think that being the Chair of the Housing Committee is kind of a no-win situation when you're dealing with the homelessness issue. Because as we all know, there are no clear answers, there are no clear short-term solutions and there aren't even clear long-term solutions. It's a very difficult issue and it's important that proposals and alternatives be advanced on this Floor for us to consider.

"That's exactly what the Housing Chair is doing for us today with House Bill 535. It's important to remember that this legislation does not require the establishment of parking lot programs. It basically gives the discretion to the Department of Human Services to work with the counties, to work with the mayors, and with organizations that are interested in developing these programs. It does require that in the event that there is agreement to establish these programs, that safeguards be put into place, such as hours of operation, substance abuse controls, and also counseling and mental health services.

"It's also important to note that this is in effect a home rule issue as well, because the mayors have the discretion to work with the state to implement these programs. Kauai and Maui discontinued their programs basically because the non-profit agencies that attempted to implement them had concerns over liability issues. That's an issue that needs to be worked on. They wanted to continue those programs but could not because of those issues.

"So, again, I'd like to thank the Chair for advancing this legislation and for her work in attempting to mitigate our homelessness challenges. Thank you very much."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I speak in favor of the measure. I would like to have the remarks of the Housing Chair as my own. I believe that the Housing Chair's message to us was a plea to help her resolve the housing problem. Nobody thus far has come up with any ideas to resolve the housing problem and that includes the executive, the mayors and everyone else. So, what you have is a dire plea. She has a problem, she wants to solve it. She needs your help, not your criticism. So, do what you can to help the housing area and to help the Chairman. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker"

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. For the second time, still with strong reservations. I'm not fearful of NIMBY, in my backyard, because we hit it straight-on, head-first, in 2003. I have been working on this issue, such as my neighboring Representative from Nanakuli and Honokai Hale. We have both been hitting this head-on for the last 12 years.

"We have emergency, we have transitional programs, we have outreach community programs. Our State Department of Human Services has requested in their budget measures, Housing First programs - $1.5 million. They've requested $1 million to do subsidies for the neediest families. So, we are addressing these issues, we are listening to what the Homeless Interagency Council is proposing, we are listening to this.

"When I review the testimony on this measure I don't see one piece from any city and county mayor, saying they support or don't support. That raises a major red flag for me when we're asking the counties to weigh-in on this. So, I'm open, still with my reservation, to continue the dialogue on this particular matter which has a date of 2030. That's how I'm continuing to support this dialogue. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just really quick, I'd like the words of the Chair of the Housing Committee adopted as my own. I'd like to really thank her because if she had said those words in a more appropriate forum I think there would have been a standing ovation on her words. Because I think she expressed the thoughts of many of us in this Chamber.

"Clearly it's not a perfect bill, but it may be a good bill. So, let's keep moving it forward. I appreciate the comments of the Majority Leader and the Speaker, I think it shows strong support and hopefully we'll move this bill forward and find the necessary means to support this program and like programs for the homeless. I just need to point out that this is one of the reasons why we need to look at all options, so that we don't have to penalize the fact that people are merely homeless or houseless. Thank you."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. My wife and I have a very soft heart for the homeless, the poor and the needy. The reason for that is, when we came here in 1971 we almost became homeless. I had to walk the entire market street to find a place to stay in dead winter. When I hear some of the Members of this Body in strong opposition, I don't know what to say.

"I wasn't about to speak, but as soon as I became a Member of the House of Representatives in 1984, one of the first things that I passed was about the homeless because of my experience. It's called the Hale Kokua bill. What it did, what it's going to do, is to separate the homeless because there are two kinds of homeless, special needs homeless and the working homeless. On the special needs homeless we have to institutionalize this, and the working homeless put them in a home setting.

"That bill passed and it's still in the books. However, some of the non-profits, I guess for no reason that has been explained to me, more or less need both kinds of homeless to fill their institution to a point that it was never implemented, but the policy is still in the books.

"Now, when I went to the Council I again tried to help the homeless. Because they were in the park, before we knew it they came up with a policy to drive them out. So, what did they do, they moved to the fringes of the park. They came up with another policy driving them out. What did they do, they went to the sidewalks, which is what it is now.

"So, I proposed at one point in time that by separating the working homeless and the special needs homeless, let the special needs homeless, those that are on drugs, mentally, alcoholic, etc., in an institutionalized setting. We can take care of the working homeless by more or less proposing to them to designate a place in the park that they can possibly sleep from 7:00 at night to 7:00 in the morning. They fold their tents, they try to police themselves. That thing never happened because sometimes you need to experience to be able to have the heart to help them out.

"In the bill that I proposed it takes the city, the state and the federal government working together. I first tried the working homeless in a home setting because there are times when people need companionship, some house sitter and to clean the yard. All of those were in the bill at that time and we passed it out.

"So, we should at least work together. Let's have a heart to help the homeless because who else is going to help them out. We should do it, and I'll be willing to help the Chair. It's a bill in progress and the only reason why I did not concentrate on doing this, even though I have the desire to do that, is because I was given the assignment to look at the bigger issue which is the unfunded liability which I'm trying very hard to pass out. So, with that, Mr. Speaker, I strongly support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support, written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 535 HD 2. Mr. Speaker, first I would like to commend our House Committee on Housing for looking into creative options at addressing homelessness. This issue Mr. Speaker is not a glamorous issue – it is an issue that many look down upon or look away from. Homelessness is a NIMBY issue. It exists in every community, but few come forward in relation to the amount of homeless who need assistance.

"As a representative from an area where homelessness was extremely prevalent, thousands of individuals and families with infants and young children resided on the sides of the street, in city and county parking lots and along the beach. We addressed this issue by providing both transitional and emergency shelter. The residents in the Waianae Coast have come forward and helped to be a part of the solution. Some residents were relieved that they would 'get their beaches back' and others were reluctant to have a shelter near their home, but Mr. Speaker they did come together for a solution.

"Many in these shelters were not from the Waianae Coast. They were from other parts of the island, other parts of the state, other states and even other countries. Many in the 43rd District have shared their concerns that if other communities did not come forward, more will be attracted to move to those areas where services are provided as the Waianae Coast. This bill provides solutions to areas where homelessness exists but spaces and funds are limited. For these reasons, I stand in support."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still with strong reservations and a slight rebuttal. I believe that in the long-term we can solve this problem but I believe it's going to come through solving the strength of our family issues and if we're able to achieve that we will resolve. I've seen it, I grew up in a community and a country where there was no homeless and I believe it's an achievable goal.

"The second thing, Mr. Speaker, is our Housing Chair mentioned a contractor that was paid $500,000 who didn't show up. I am hoping that this contractor's past performance will be taken into consideration for any further contracts in the future, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, at first I was opposed to this measure but I'd like to change my vote to strong reservations. But I'd like to continue the conversation. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time, still in opposition. Let me say brief comments in regards to concerns regarding those with the intent on why this is a problem. As a licensed social worker who actually works with homeless on two islands of this great state, I have some experience working with homeless, homeless families and their children. Mr. Speaker, if it is an issue of home rule, as mentioned earlier, then rather than coming up with new programs, why don't we increase the budget and give the money to those who are in the field to come up with innovative services and programs.

"Mr. Speaker, too, this is an issue requiring counties to be involved, yet I'm pretty confident, talking with many of the county mayors and county councilmen and women, that they're able to handle and deal with those situations within their own backyard. And if they came to us for a request to work together, I think measures like this would move forward. However, if you leave it to the professionals, if you leave it to the counties who are dealing with these issues, and it is truly a home rule issue, then measures like this wouldn't move forward and we would put it in the budget. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to make a couple of remarks in acknowledgment of the idea of my colleague from Laie. Yes, it's very true we need the families involved. And we've tried. This Body passed the family reunification bill two years ago. However, the Senate attacked it and the very people that attack measures such as this are the non-profits that help the homeless. Because like previously mentioned, it is now a revenue producing endeavor.

"Secondly, this is not my claim to fame, because this idea had been tried in numerous cities in the mainland. We can learn from the mistakes of the cities who have tried it. And thirdly, Mr. Speaker, the reason why there is funding in this bill, because those two entities on the other islands that wanted to try it had to pull back because they realized they needed money for sanitation and also the insurance premiums went up when they found out that there would be homeless in this facility. Those are all valid needs, Mr. Speaker, so I would still want you to support this bill with the appropriation so we can properly address the needs of those private organizations that want to help us. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Standing Committee Report 892, House Bill 481, House Draft 1. Currently, this bill would allow individuals to build an indigenous Hawaiian hale on farming lands without a building permit.

"Although I support the intent of this bill, it would ultimately undermine the original purpose of building permits. As the Department of Agriculture states in their testimony, the process for obtaining a building permit 'creates a minimum standard that potential structures must meet for safety as well as public health reasons.' If the Hawaiian hales are built without permits, they could potentially create unsafe conditions. For example, hales would be at high risk for fires but would not be regulated by a building permit to be constructed at least 100 feet away from other buildings.

"For this reason, I rise with reservations on Standing Committee Report 892, House Bill 481, House Draft 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Ruling on a potential conflict. My family has a farm," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cheape then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and I'd like reference an email and an op-ed from 2008 when this loophole was passed. I just want to describe how this loophole started and why it is of concern. We all cringe when we see the legal fees that we have to pay as a state to defend various lawsuits and pay off debts. Well, with this loophole we've created potential for unknown liability and a drain on our state funds and we're encouraging big land owners to sue the State. It's bad policy.

"In Conference Committee this section was added and there was no public hearing on the issue. Again, if we're going to provide a subsidy like this you would think that we would give it to the people who couldn't actually afford to hire attorneys. But, in this case, we did the opposite. IAL incentives have nothing to do with small farmers. They were developed by a group dominated by big land owners and there were many give-aways in the process.

"Small farmers usually receive their water through the municipal system at far more expensive rates than these large land owners. Again, the IAL water litigation tax breaks create perverse incentives for big land owners to divert and stonewall and delay public and community efforts to restore balance in river and stream flows.

"I'll give you an example. In the Na Wai Eha case in Maui there are two large corporations who have refused to restore a single drop into the stream willingly. After years of litigation and the community's effort to restore bare minimum leftover flows last year, the Hawaii Supreme Court finally struck down those claims in the ruling of the water commission.

"This was at least the fifth time the water commission has been reversed for overly favoring corporate diverters. So, on top of all of this public, social and cost of litigation, why are the public and the taxpayers subsidizing the legal fees for obstructionism? So far it's estimated that the bill for this one litigation, just one, is between $1 and $2 million.

"Members, let's reduce the state's liability, stop subsidizing land owners to sue the state and try and take water from our streams and our taro farmers, and eliminate this loophole. Mahalo."

At 4:24 o'clock p.m., Representative Har requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:28 o'clock p.m.

Representative Wooley rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request a ruling on a potential conflict. My husband works for a non-profit that sometimes litigates these types of issues. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. Standing in support with reservations and just brief comments. When we passed the IAL law back in 2008, I believe, the whole point was to incentivize land owners to put, at the time I believe it was 15%, of their land into IAL so that these lands would be preserved in perpetuity for agriculture. The trade-off was other incentives, because what incentives these large private land owners have to be putting their land into IAL without the state dangling a carrot.

"So by pushing out a measure such as this you're actually dis-incentivizing those land owners from wanting to put their land into IAL. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, those were my exact sentiments and may I request those be entered into the Journal as my own. With reservations, thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and could I also adopt the words of the Representative from Kapolei as if they were my own. A few comments, Mr. Speaker. In 1978 the Con-Con said that we have to identify Important Ag Lands. This issue has been around. In 2008 we passed it, that was 30 years after it was first pushed forward in 1984. The LESA Commission tried to address it. When I came in, in 2005, I had a bill to address IAL and I said at that time that we had to tie it to water because if we were going to protect Important Ag Lands, in perpetuity, we wanted that for the purpose of using it for agriculture.

"Without water there is no Ag. I thought when we passed it, it was a mistake not to tie to water and that's why these issues, this argument I guess, is still with us today. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Har and Yamashita be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered." [Note: Representative Ito's vote was later recoded as a no vote.]

Representative Tokioka rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamashita be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Say rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. May I proceed to share a few insights about why this particular measure was adopted? For all of us we go back to the days of the 1970 Con-Con. There's just one individual here who was a particular delegate to the Con-Con and that's our great Speaker Souki. One of them was the water commission that was created and secondly the other one was Important Agricultural Lands.

"I believe the Upcountry Maui Representative is correct. It took us over 30 plus years to get to a point of how can we, in the Legislative Branch, get large private land owners to dedicate agricultural lands that they owned as Important Ag Lands.

"We have talked among all of us on this Floor the past number of weeks of how important agriculture is. To get these big land owners to agree to dedicate a portion of their lands that they own in perpetuity as Important Ag Lands was the intent in getting these Ag lands preserved for future generations. I must commend the present Water & Land Chair for her analysis of what has happened. But, is it our right now to infringe on the private land owner how they could use this tax credit that the Legislative Body granted? And that tax credit, Members of the House, came from another tax credit, which was the Ko'olina Tax Credit of $70 something million.

"We did not increase the budget one way or another. It was budget neutral based on the past legislative appropriation or legislation in regards to giving the tax credit to the Ko'olina development for their new aquarium, which did not occur. We took that and we used that to incentivize private land owners in the four counties.

"For this particular land owner, which I personally don't know what they're doing on the Island of Maui, but if it's a court case in regards to the water allocation, don't you have that right to use that tax credit the way you see fit to preserve the jobs for those who are in HC&S? To preserve the irrigation system of the East Maui irrigation system? I'm not delving into how they use the tax credit, but in this particular case, what we are doing is carving out that you cannot use the tax credit for any litigation or counsel. Which is fine because that's a policy that the Members of this House have to address.

"My only point is this. If I was Grove Farm, if I was Ulupalakua Ranch, if I was Parker Ranch, and I dedicated Important Ag Lands in perpetuity for the people of the State of Hawaii and the future generations, why can you not let me use the tax credit where I feel I could use it for the best of the sustainability of the company? That is what we're discussing today.

"I'm not going to get involved in telling this particular land owner or developer how he or she could use this tax credit. But, in this particular case I can respect the Chair's decision that it should not be used for legal fees or legal counsel. And I truly believe that this is one of the unintended consequences that the Legislature adopted in trying to preserve Important Agricultural Lands. And I can understand how each and every one of you may feel. But the key is that you have to, as elected officials, put that carrot out front there for these big land owners to dedicate their agriculture lands as Important Ag Lands, that's one.

"Secondly, I'm happy we are having this discussion, too. Because I've shared with a lot of Members, past and present, the concern that I have today of where the state is headed in regards to agriculture.

Representative Ichiyama rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. Why I say this, this afternoon, is because we, we as a state, we as a community, we in the legislative branch, are losing control of land and water. We had an excellent discussion this morning or this afternoon on the issue of controlling interest in reference to the conveyance tax. We are not addressing one of the biggest issues which all states are trying to address. How do we address these issues with hedge-fund investors who are not even presently here in the State of Hawaii, that someday may buy these particular properties, and not share with us what their visions are.

"I'm very awkward because I feel like I'm a dinosaur, yes. But, I was very privileged, for all of you here, to have been given the opportunity and privilege to have worked with people like Doc Buyers of C. Brewer. You could call him up and he would set up the appointment. Another individual that I had the opportunity to work with was Mr. Henry Walker of Amfac. Another individual that some of you may know here, was a great man, Mr. Bobby Pfieffer of Alexander and Baldwin.

"These were the kamaaina companies, where today there are only one or two kamaaina companies, or three, which is the Outrigger Hotel Corporation, the only locally-based hotel management company, Matson and A&B, and that is it. You may have on the island of Kauai, Grove Farm, but is that being offered for sale? And is Hawaii for sale? To all of you, my answer is, yes.

"But let's go back to the past, 20 years ago, and correct me if I'm wrong or right, but that book was Land and Power by Gavin Dawes. Now we have come to this point in our history, as a state, on addressing this particular issue. As far as 51 Members of this House, can we all control our destiny for the future generations of the people of the State of Hawaii. Where you have these absentee owners that are part of the REIT's, real estate investment trust. Where you have people with hedge-funds, like Blackstone, Cerberus. Like the big land owner that acquired Mapunapuna and has jacked-up the lease rents 200 - 300%, forcing the 'mom and pop's' out of their sustainability and survivability of their particular business.

"Let's be honest with ourselves. Maybe the bill that we had passed a number of years ago in regards to Important Ag Lands should have addressed what can or cannot be used with the tax credits. And I can appreciate this discussion. The corporate company that did this used the credits, fine. But, we had to incentivize them to dedicate lands as Important Ag Lands, for perpetuity. And if not, if they were to take it back, as far as declassifying it from Important Ag Lands, they would have to pay a penalty to the State of Hawaii.

"That is why we are here at a very crucial point. Are we delving into corporate operations and administration in regards to what can or cannot be done with the tax credits? I don't want to get to that point. I have to put my faith and trust in that particular corporation or business that is doing business here in the State of Hawaii. But at least it is being highlighted this afternoon for all of you.

"So in closing that is why I'm opposing this particular measure. If I was that business person to say I cannot use it for my legal fees in doing the application process and so forth, I'm not going to apply to designate my lands, which is agriculture classification, as Important Ag Lands. Thank you very much."

Representative Wooley rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In rebuttal and still in support. I want to thank Speaker Emeritus, I really enjoy these conversations and I enjoy hearing from him. That history and perspective is always useful and we really don't disagree on much. I'm not actually sure I fully understand why he is giving a no vote. But, if you look at the language in this bill there are still major provisions for IAL land owners.

"The policy issue here that is of extreme concern is that we have not limited in any way the amount of money that they might be able to claim. And we are promoting litigation against the state and in favor of taking water rights from the streams and our taro farmers. That's what we've done. This particular legal fee provision.

"So, a lot of the other carrots provided for the IAL land owners are great, they're all there. This one was a mistake, in my opinion. Mahalo."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support with some reservations. I'm looking at the bill itself and I think the Ag Chair is correct. I think what she's attempting to do is basically prohibit the access to the tax credits for Important Ag Lands for cases where there might be legal fees awarded pursuant to litigation or contested case hearings as in the Maui case.

"But, when I read the current language there, I think there is embedded within the current incentive structure the ability to receive reimbursements, so to speak, to the credit, for regulatory processing studies and consultant services related to obtaining or retaining sufficient water for agricultural activities and retaining the right to farm on lands identified as Important Agricultural Lands.

"So, I think the comments the Speaker Emeritus made and the Representative from Maui on the history of the Important Ag Lands and the constitutional amendment all tie into this one subsection 4 of the current law. What incentives do we give the current land owners who want to retain the present use for water or have a challenge or at least protect it? That's what's embedded in here, so I would suggest that as it moves along maybe to narrow it down to maybe litigation costs or something like that. But regulatory processing studies and consultant services, some of that could be part and parcel legal services besides other types of fees and charges. Thank you."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. I'd like to provide further clarification on what this bill does. It basically addresses the tax credit that is found in HRS Section 235-110.93. The tax credit provides a reimbursement for what is termed as 'qualified agricultural cost.' Those costs are defined as expenditures for the following categories.

Number one, plans, design, engineering, construction, renovation, repair and maintenance and equipment for roads or utilities, agricultural processing facilities, water wells, reservoirs, dams, water storage facilities and agricultural housing. Number two, feasibility studies, regulatory processing and accounting services. Number three, equipment related to agricultural purposes. And number four, regulatory processing studies and other consultant services that are related to the agricultural activities.

"So, what this provision tells us is that the tax credit is very extensive and covers a host of costs that are associated with the development of IAL lands. The legal portion of this tax credit is actually very small when you compare it to all of the other aspects of this credit. The tax credit is capped and it is based on a sliding scale.

"I would submit, Mr. Speaker, that if a landowner is unable to develop IAL parcels because of a loss of the legal services tax credit, then perhaps they shouldn't be in that business to begin with when you consider all of the other associated expenses that are tied to the development of IAL. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I didn't want the historical, profound and heartfelt comments of Speaker Say to go without acknowledgment and I'd like them to be inserted into the Journal as if they were my own. And thank you for indulging him to go off the context of the bill specifically because these things are a wealth of information when we get people with that experience to bring that to the Floor.

"I would only add one thing. The constitution mandates us, repeat, mandates us, to preserve agriculture. If we want to dis-incentivize what they said in the very beginning, I think we're making a mistake by forgetting that our heritage is where our large landowners still own the majority of the land in the State of Hawaii. Why all of our houses are so expensive, there's 10% of it that's traded among us small guys. The big guys and the government own the big part of it. We've got to give them incentives to give more Ag land into the Ag land bank. This is a way of doing it, but I really appreciated the historical perspective of how we got where we are and we're mandated to keep pushing to the future to preserve Ag land. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 482, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Fale, Ito, McDermott, Say, Tokioka and Tsuji voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 895) recommending that H.B. No. 892, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 892, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I just wanted to state my opposition and just say, this bill proposes to increase the motor vehicle registration fee by an unspecified amount right now to cover the expenses of DCAB, which I think is a great cause and right now is 100% general funded and I'd like to see it stay that way. But, I just wanted to express that my concerns right now are that my constituents are still complaining about the recent increase in motor vehicle registration costs and I think most of them would agree and would want me to act in a way that's fiscally responsible and will take from the pot of money we already have instead of reaching into their pockets to get more. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 892, HD 2. This bill will 'increase the state motor vehicle registration fee by an unspecified amount, to be deposited into the Disability and Communication Access Board Special Fund to cover the costs of administering the parking program for persons with disabilities.'

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that an increase in the state motor vehicle registration fee would burden residents in my district who are struggling financially.

"The Tax Foundation of Hawaii submitted the following testimony concerning the bill:

> 'This measure is asking all motor vehicle owners to subsidize a program that should be paid either by the disabled driver beneficiaries or by the public at large through a general fund appropriation. Enacting such a fee insures that the funding for this program will always be flying under the radar as there is no accountability to the motor vehicles owners who will be paying the fee for a program from which they derive no benefit.'
> 'More importantly, motor vehicle taxes are dedicated for the construction and maintenance of the state highway system. Deviating from the relationship between users and beneficiaries seriously jeopardizes the accountability for this fee.'

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 892, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FUNDING FOR PARKING FOR DISABLED PERSONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Fale, Fukumoto and McDermott voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 899) recommending that H.B. No. 487, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 487, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. My family owns and operates a farm, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cheape rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

Representative Cheape continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'd like to stand in strong support of this measure and just with brief comments. So often we hear the word 'subsidy' and kind of cringe, but in this case I think it's extremely necessary to continue because I know personally the number one cost on our farm is feed. Above wages, above electricity, above water, feed is the number one cost and currently there is no feed producer here in Hawaii. So, until we're able to produce feed here locally, whether it's the traditional feed with corn or have alternatives with either alfalfa or the Black Soldier Fly larvae, there are so many other things we can do but until that point we really need to subsidize the farms that have livestock.

"Just a brief comment also, in the 1980's there were 21 egg farms here in Hawaii. We are now reduced to four today, four commercial farms, with all of us stating our number one cost is feed. So, in order to continue these agricultural farms and just to make a real difference in self sustainability, I think this is something we need to continue to support. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Like the previous speaker, I think this is very important to support. The last remaining four or five egg farms on this island, one is in my particular district. I hope we can find the means to support them. I think it's about $3 million a year, so if we can get $6 million set aside just to provide this subsidy, that would be good. It's very important if we want to look towards food security, food sustainability off of our own local farmers. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Strong support, written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. HB 487 HD 2 is a measure that moves our state in the direction of looking into solutions to assist our farming community. This bill if passed will help many in my community who struggle to pay for feed costs which continue to escalate. As we know, one of the highest costs to farmers is feed for animals as there are no production facilities in Hawaii. For these reasons, I rise in support."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and just a few brief comments. When I go to my local farmers market and I talk to the vendors, this is one of the biggest problems that they mention as a challenge for them. So, I really appreciate the authors and the Committees that worked on this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 487, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 901) recommending that H.B. No. 1208, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1208, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 1208, HD 2. This measure 'requires the Department of Human Services to gather data and recommend fees for licensure and certification of certain programs transferred to the Department of Health. Requires Department of Human Services to report findings and fee recommendations to the Legislature no later than twenty days prior to 2014 Regular Session.'

"Loretta J. Fuddy, State of Hawaii Director of Health testified that, 'This bill would require DHS to determine certification or licensure fees on community care foster family homes, case management agencies, and adult day care centers prior to the transfer of these programs to DOH. DOH will defer to DHS on this portion of the bill. However, the bill also would require DOH to accept those fees. The DOH strongly opposes this portion of the bill as unnecessary since the DOH can determine its own licensure fee schedule prior to the transition and without being mandated to accept the fee schedule of another state agency.'

"Patricia McManaman, State of Hawaii Director of Department of Human Services testified that, 'The DHS should not be statutorily required to set the fee schedules for programs that are the responsibility of another department.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise in opposition of House Bill 1208, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1208, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CERTIFICATION AND LICENSURE FEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 902) recommending that H.B. No. 114, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 114, HD 3 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thanks, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would just like to enter written comments into the Journal. Thank you very much."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"The recent Stevie Wonder fiasco garnered not only local attention but national attention as well. When the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, the agency that accredits the University of Hawaii, deems it necessary to come down and specifically look at the events that surrounded the concert and what actions and policies allowed this to happen, our local residents many of whom are alumni showed their concern. We as legislators were reminded through numerous constituent calls and emails that the transparent management of public funds appropriated by the legislature and expended by the University of Hawaii is a matter of statewide concern and therefore under the legislature's purview pursuant to Article X, Section 6, of the Hawaii State Constitution.

"UH officials and attorneys withheld information from the public regarding the incident only increasing our constituents' concern. I feel that an independent audit committee within the Board of Regents of the University to assist the board in discharging its constitutional powers and duties is a fiscally prudent measure with respect to the university."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 114, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHER EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 903) recommending that H.B. No. 385, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 385, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 385, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HUMAN SERVICES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Har and Ito voting no.

At 4:54 o'clock p.m., Representative Hashem requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:55 o'clock p.m.

At 4:57 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 482, HD 1
H.B. No. 101, HD 1
H.B. No. 892, HD 2
H.B. No. 487, HD 2
H.B. No. 1208, HD 2
H.B. No. 114, HD 3
H.B. No. 385, HD 2

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 904) recommending that H.B. No. 856, HD 2 pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 856, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 856, House Draft 2, which would establish a green financing program. The up-front cost of renewable energy systems and energy efficiency measures is the largest barrier to their widespread adoption. This measure will create the green infrastructure the state needs to implement an on-bill financing program, which will eliminate the need for families to come up with a large up-front payment and will make renewable energy systems and energy efficiency measures available to renters, low- and middle-income families, and small businesses.

"This measure will not only benefit our residents, it will further the State's goals of transitioning to locally-produced renewable energy. It will also bring us closer to our energy efficiency goals both by supporting distributed generation, which is more efficient as less electricity is lost in distribution, and by helping to fund energy efficiency measures.

"I urge the Members to support this measure."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 856. The bill creates a mechanism to provide low-cost loans for green infrastructure equipment to achieve measurable cost savings and achieve Hawaii's clean energy goals. While ensuring that Hawaii has an abundant stream of clean energy is a critical goal, I worry about the financing mechanisms of this bill. In particular, I am concerned that the cost of the loans will be placed on all energy consumers, which places a significant burden on those who are already struggling to pay for energy costs. While green energy may hold the key to our energy future, we should let consumers lead the movement in a way that does not create additional cost of living burdens."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 856, HD 2. This bill establishes a regulatory financing structure that authorizes the Public Utilities Commission and the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism to provide low-cost loans for green infrastructure equipment to achieve measurable cost savings and achieve Hawaii's clean energy goals.

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that this bill is not clear on what the Green Infrastructure Fee is used for. Also on the bill's overall objectives.

"The Hawaii Renewable Energy Alliance submitted the following testimony concerning this bill, that '1) Clearly, this measure supports attainment of our State's clean energy goals, and specifically offers the opportunity for funding to assist such activities as the On-Bill Financing Program, which is under consideration in the Public Utility Commission's Docket No. 2011-0186. 2) It is not clear to us whether the intent is ONLY to assist any On-Bill programs approved by the Commission. For example: a) would DBEDT consider issuing RFPs to procure clean energy technologies and provide loans to the winning bidder, and b) the apparent proposal for DBEDT to 'make' money for the state from the loans. If so, how would the profits be used? 3) It is not clear if the proposed green infrastructure fee ('GIF') would be a separate fee, or become part of the fee. Either way what would the GIF be used?'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise in opposition of House Bill 856 HD 2."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I like this idea of creating this bank-like principal to support the funding of photovoltaic and solar systems on private businesses and enterprises. Thank you."

Representative Woodson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Woodson's written remarks are as follows:

"I wholeheartedly support the effort to achieve Hawaii's green energy goals.

"This measure allows residents the opportunity to install a photovoltaic system to immediately achieve cost savings using clean energy. The significant initial investment associated with installation can be a prohibiting factor. This bill to provide low-cost loans for green infrastructure equipment will incentivize many to help lower their electric bills while supporting the State's energy goals of self-sufficiency.

"I commend the PUC and DBEDT and various other agencies in their collaborative effort in participating to establish a regulatory financing structure to effectively implement clean energy technology and infrastructure by providing a means those who would not be able to otherwise afford it.

"This bill helps to reduce Hawaii's dependence on imported fossil fuel and achieve our goals toward energy efficiency. This is a crucially important measure with significant positive effects and potential not yet realized."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 856, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 668, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support with written comments. Just a brief thank you to the Chair of Public Safety who helped our Health Committee on working this bill and moving it forward. Thank you."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 668, House Draft 2 that transfers the State's Medical Use of Marijuana Program from the Department of Public Safety to the Department of Health. As noted in the testimony of the Department of Public Safety in support of this measure, the primary focus of the State's Medical Use of Marijuana Program should be on the health of the qualifying patients and the Department of Health is better suited for managing such a program."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Chair. I rise with reservations. I'd like to thank the Chair of Health for working on this issue, but I know there's still some testimony that people had some concerns about, and for those reasons, I rise with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 668, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Ito and Ward voting no.

Representative Belatti, for the Committee on Health, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 908) recommending that H.B. No. 903, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 914) recommending that H.B. No. 21, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 21, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ichiyama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm I represent condo and community associations. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just request a ruling on a possible conflict. I'm a member of a condo association. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Same request, ruling of potential conflict," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same request. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 21, House Draft 2, Relating to Condominiums. This bill proposes the authorization of condominium associations to collect specified amounts for deposit into a reserve account to pay for unpaid common assessments in the event of foreclosure, or unit sale or transfer. I oppose this bill for three reasons.

"I do commend the Chair of the Consumer Protection Committee and Chair of the Judiciary Committee for their out-of-the-box attempt to address the issue of unpaid assessments on foreclosed properties but ultimately, there are still areas that need clarification.

"First, this bill lacks specific language about the details of a reserve account collection. How would it work? Who would run the program?

"Second, the bill does not address what would happen to the reserve account in the event that the occupant remains in the condo indefinitely. Is there a certain time limit in which the reserve account would be refunded? Many people purchase condominiums not for investment value but as a permanent residence.

"Finally, HB 21 would increase costs for all condo owners by creating an individual reserve account in which the apartment owner would pay up to 10% of their regular monthly common assessment on top of a mortgage payment and regular monthly common assessment fees. This amount would be collected monthly until the total amount is equal to the total of regular monthly common assessments for a twelve-month period. If additional monies are collected for maintenance fees in the event of foreclosure, it would add additional costs for condo owners.

"As a result, I stand in opposition to House Bill 21, House Draft 2. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 21, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONDOMINIUMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Har and McDermott voting no.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 915) recommending that H.B. No. 910, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 910, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 910, House Draft 2, Relating to Forensic Mental Health. This bill proposes to toll the conditional release for criminal charges following an acquittal for physical or mental disease. I oppose this bill for two reasons.

"First, under HRS 704-411 (b), when the court places a defendant on conditional release, there is already a one-year limit in place for those charged with a petty misdemeanor, misdemeanor, or violation. As a result, when a defendant is placed under conditional release, the one-year time limit is already in place.

"Second, the bill proposes conditional release for the defendant who is physically or mentally ill and as a result, presents a danger to self and others. Those who present a danger to not only themselves and society should be kept under conditional release for as long as needed. Instead of proposing a blanket conditional release for physically or mentally ill defendants, it should be considered on a case by case basis. This will ensure that the defendant will 'receive proper care, supervision, and treatment as needed, rather than being discharged based on an arbitrary termination date' as stated in the testimony of the Department of the Prosecuting Attorney, Maui. It is the responsibility of the Department of Health to closely monitor physically and mentally ill defendants and ensure full rehabilitation before conditional release is revoked.

"For these two reasons, I oppose House Bill 910, House Draft 2. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 910, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FORENSIC MENTAL HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Har and Ito voting no.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 916) recommending that H.B. No. 667, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 667, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cachola rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a possible conflict. The physicians are the one's dispensing and both my wife and daughter are physicians," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cachola then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of House Bill 667, House Draft 2 that makes amendments to the State's Medical Use of Marijuana Law addressing the concerns of patients in the program and embodying recommendations by the Medical Cannabis Working Group that was convened in 2009. This Working Group examined state statutes, administrative rules, and county policies and procedures relating to the medical marijuana program. The Working Group also studied Hawaii's medical marijuana program with other states' medical marijuana programs.

"Key amendments in this bill include: (i) changing the authorized number of a patient's marijuana plants from 4 immature and 3 mature to 7 plants total, irregardless of the stage of growth of the plants; (ii) increasing the authorized amount of usable marijuana from 3 ounces to 5 ounces; and (iii) changing the patient to caregiver ratio from one patient per caregiver to three patients per caregiver.

"In the hearing before the Judiciary committee, the first of these changes was verbally supported by the Deputy Director of the Department of Public Safety as it is difficult in enforcing the current law of determining whether plants are immature versus mature.

"The change in the authorized amount of usable marijuana from 3 ounces to 5 ounces was supported by testimony from patients before the Health and Judiciary Committees that 3 ounces is currently not sufficient for their needs in that more medicine is actually used in vaporizing or in the preparing of edibles which are safer and preferable to the smoking of medical cannabis.

"Finally, the change in patient to caregiver ratio is based upon the recognition and testimony that patients may not be able to successfully grow their own medicine and having a system that allows qualified caregivers to help patients provides a safer method of acquiring medication rather than having to resort to other means."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. My reservations are as follows. When I read through this bill last night I wasn't sure if this was decriminalization or legalization or just another way maybe for us to earn some revenue. But anyway, let me kind of explain what's going on in this bill just so you folks know.

"Most states authorize the use of about 3 ounces or less of dried marijuana. One mature marijuana plant can produce up to one pound of dried marijuana per growing season. With two growing seasons in Hawaii, let's say 6 months, one mature plant can produce two pounds per year. So, two pounds of 'pot' per year from one marijuana plant.

"This bill will allow 10 marijuana plants and 5 ounces of usable marijuana at any given time. So, if you get the prescription from the doctor under the program you can have 10 marijuana plants and 5 ounces of usable marijuana at any given time. 10 plants can produce 20 pounds of marijuana in a year or the equivalent of 320 ounces per year. 5 ounces of marijuana is equivalent to 189 cigarettes, also known at 'joints'. The 20 pounds of marijuana is equivalent of 12,096 cigarettes per year, or more than 33 marijuana cigarettes per day. That's a lot of joints.

"According to the DEA, the effect of one smoked marijuana joint could be felt for up to 4 hours. Up to 4 hours, one joint. So in a 24-hour period, assuming that one might get 8 hours of rest, it's logical to assume the medicinal marijuana patient could ingest 4 marijuana joints per day to adequately feel the effects. That's good, that's the purpose of medical marijuana. This equates to 1,460 joints or cigarettes per year. But if a patient only needs 1,460 cigarettes per year, what happens to the remaining 10,636 cigarettes or joints that can be produced from the 10 plants? That's 12,096 joints minus 1,460 joints, 10,636 joints. So, isn't it reasonable to assume that at least a portion of this would be, Number one, maybe sold, number two, given away, or number three, consumed.

"The 10,636 cigarettes in excess is equivalent to more than 281 ounces of marijuana. If this is sold at the going rate of $320 per ounce, that's the current going rate for marijuana, the crop would be worth more than $89,000 per year. And that's with keeping enough for the patient to smoke 4 cigarettes or joints per day. As this bill moves forward I think we should think about ways of capturing some of the revenue that may be gained from this bill. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just a simple clarification. My clarification is just that this bill does not actually increase the number of plants to 10. It just clarifies that the 7 plants that is under current law is now not distinguishable between mature and immature, and that was a change that was actually supported by the agency that currently oversees this program. So, I just wanted to make that clarification for the record.

"I would also like to add that something that I learned, which I didn't know much about marijuana except after this session, is that for people who use medical marijuana many do not actually prefer smoking. They like to use the medical marijuana in foods as a way to get the effects better, I guess. In addition they also vaporize it. So, I believe that by those two uses and not through the smoking of joints, they actually do go through more marijuana.

"So, the 5 ounces that are being suggested in this bill actually just really brings us to kind of the middle of the road of where all of the other medical marijuana programs in the nation are at. So, thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition with a brief comment. We're talking about quantity, the real issue is quality. But hear me out, this is a THC issue. When THC came on board with the 70's in Vietnam and all that, it was at about 3%. Now, with GMO and hybrids, THC, some believe that GMO is probably the best up to 30% THC in a joint. So when the gentleman from Wahiawa spoke about the quantities, if you've got a content that pushes almost one-third, you've got a really, really, really powerful drug. So, I think the quality is really an issue here and makes the quantity look like it's going off the charts. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. As far as the quantity, I did some research and there's an organization called Concept 420 and so here are some of the notes from actual patients that take the marijuana in different ways. From Dixie, who has multiple sclerosis, during the time that she was sick she ate two cookies per day containing approximately 1 1/2 grams of leaf marijuana. From Gidget, an AIDS survivor, she took a small bong hit of approximately 1/10 of a gram, held it in deeply for about 5 seconds, it took about 10 minutes to work and lasted about 1 1/2 hours. For a patient that had arthritis, they ate one brownie per day containing 2 grams each of high-grade leaf marijuana. I'm in support, but that's a lot of medicine we're giving them."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some slight reservations. I just want to touch upon the speaker from Wahiawa in the revenue aspect of this measure of the billion dollars of estimated lost GET that occurs in the State of Hawaii. Also, especially the point of the provision that allows visitors who are here for under 30 days to have access to it free, that's another huge revenue issue. We're supplying other state's patients with their medicine. Thank you very much."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered." [Note: Representative Fukumoto's vote was later recoded as a no vote.]

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. In hearing some of the comments that were spoken about earlier, the Representative from Hawaii Kai is absolutely right, it is a THC issue. So is the former Chair of Finance, he's absolutely right, because I think the point is with the THC, with some of the people who are paying the TAT, we can generate more revenue. But that is not contained in this bill, and when it is then I'll support it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kobayashi rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered." [Note: Representative Cheape's vote was later recoded as a no vote.]

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Ward and Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 667, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEDICAL MARIJUANA," passed Third Reading by a vote of 35 ayes to 16 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Cabanilla, Cheape, Choy, Cullen, Fale, Fukumoto, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ito, Say, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward, Yamane and Yamashita voting no.

At 5:15 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 856, HD 2
H.B. No. 668, HD 2
H.B. No. 1147, HD 2

H.B. No. 667, HD 2

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 917) recommending that H.B. No. 411, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 918) recommending that H.B. No. 1268, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 919) recommending that H.B. No. 1324, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1324, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOPEDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla and Fale voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 921) recommending that H.B. No. 497, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 497, HD 3 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Takayama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"May I have a ruling on a potential conflict. My spouse is a consultant to a firm that produces solar power. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. My wife has a number of companies from the solar industry as clients," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations and a comment please. In a testimony submitted on this particular measure, DOTAX says this would cost us $38 million in the year 2014, $15 million in year 2015, and $19 million in 2016. Those are some of my major concerns on the loss of those revenues. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations with written comments. And a comment that this is an industry that we're really trying to promote here in the State of Hawaii."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 497, HD 3. This bill amends the tax credit for renewable energy technologies.

"Mr. Speaker, my concern is that this bill will annually reduce tax credit for solar energy systems by 5%.

"The Tax Foundation of Hawaii submitted the following testimony concerning the bill:

'This measure would reduce the amount of credit for solar electricity generating systems that are not utility scale systems from 35% to 30% for systems placed in service for the 2014 tax year; 25% for the 2015 tax year; 20% for the 2016 tax year and thereafter. Although this slow weaning of the taxpaying public from its dependence on the tax incentive may sound like a great idea, it ignores the phenomenon that occurred this past year when taxpayers were given notice that there would be new rules for the ball game beginning with the first of the year. Instead, consideration should be given to setting the tax incentive rate at a more modest level and then warning taxpayers that it will disappear in three or five years. This will help to even out the demand for installations as taxpayers assess the cost benefit of installing such devices.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise with reservations on House Bill 497, HD 3."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Standing Committee Report 921, Relating to Renewable Energy, with reservations and I just wanted to explain those. Thank you. I believe that we should not go below 25% for the tax credit. People are stretching now to try to do it and when we lower the tax credit below something that's going to let the mainstream of the residents go ahead and put in photovoltaic, then we are going to defeat our goal of moving ahead to get off of dependency on fossil fuels.

"So, while I understand the need for reducing the amount of the tax credit, I think we should go down a bit, but then leave it at 25% and not even put a sunset on that. Let future legislatures address that 5, 10 years out and then I think we will find a lot more renewable energy on our rooftops and a lot less polluting fossil fuels being imported into Hawaii. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Almost a no vote. I totally agree with my colleague from Kailua that if we disincentive this, people are going to turn away, it's going to be up to millionaires or those who have such a commitment they're going to go in debt to go green. I've said on this Floor numerous, numerous times, the electricity we have here has 1% PV. Even though it's going gang-busters, still 1%. This is an industry that's not even a baby yet, it's a zygote. This is something where if we too quickly ramp it down it's going to kill it.

"Another case in point, Mr. Speaker. For the last 30 years we've had incentives to put solar water heaters. What percent of the people have actually taken advantage of this generous tax credits? 27 to 29% have solar water heaters. So, even with these incentives it's not happening.

"Getting off of that $6 billion fossil fuels is going to take time, it's going to take money. If we penny-wise and pound-foolish it, we're going to say, well we tried by we couldn't do it because we had other priorities. I don't think there's a bigger priority than getting off of Middle Eastern oil and other places. This is one of those cutting-edge bills which I agree with my colleague, let's not go below 25% and this bill does do that. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm speaking in support with reservations. First of all, let me thank the Chair of the Energy and Environmental Protection Committee for moving this bill forward and for even considering that we need to adjust the current tax giveaway to the photovoltaic companies and installers. I think it's good that they're willing to even look at this. Several months ago I think we wouldn't even be considering even looking at the current tax rate structure.

"My concern again is on the fiscal element of this measure, how much and when. It remains to be seen how it affects the financial plan. But I am encouraged by the fact that we have this bill before us to even consider moderating the current expenditure. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and I'd just to note that when this came over to CPC the solar industry did support it because, one, it was predictable, two, it was a compromise, and three, when you look at the big picture with green infrastructure and on-bill financing ramping up while this tax credit ramps down, things seem to balance out in the long run. Right now the way the solar tax credit works is the people that cannot afford to put PV on their roofs are subsidizing everybody else that can afford to. With on-bill financing and green infrastructure it's much more equitable. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hashem rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Potential conflict. I'm a partner in a solar project," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Hashem continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have reservations about this bill. For one thing, it came out in the Finance Committee that when I asked the PUC Chair how much is a large scale solar project coming in at, she quoted 17 cents a kilowatt hour. Hawaiian electric produces electricity from oil, from oil now, at 26 cents a kilowatt hour. We need to look at the subsidies, if it's really necessary. Because right now it's cheaper to produce energy from solar projects without the credit than it is to produce electricity from oil. That's all, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"May I have a ruling on a potential conflict. My husband owns a solar company," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fukumoto then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. 26% of all construction permits this past year have been for solar construction. It is the driver in our industry, especially at a time when our economy is in a very fragile state of recovery. The credit itself is being estimated to contribute more then $2 to the economy for every $1 that we've invested in. Quite frankly, today it saves countless of millions of dollars for homeowners across the State. Right now the industry is at a pretty critical turning point, where the solar tax credit which has previously been within the realm of the wealthy has become affordable to those folks in the middle class and even some in the lower class.

"The greatest areas of solar adoption, the greatest areas of growth in that industry have not been in areas like Kahala or Kailua for example, but other areas that tend to be demographically more of a middle ground. What we don't want to do is cut off the legs for this industry right now at this point where it's becoming more of a mass medium of adoption for folks who can really truly save energy and for whom it's going to count so much more.

"This bill is going to provide certainty to the industry, it's going to ramp down over time as the cost of solar continues to drop and we're going to have a study in 2017, some years out, that will gauge the metrics of everything that's come to pass, how effective it is and whether or not at that point a future legislature will continue it. It's a balance, a necessary solution to keep us on a path towards renewable energy and keep construction jobs going, reduce cost for homeowners and maintain at the end of the day a fiscally sound budget. Thank you very much."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Jordan and Hashem be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 497, HD 3. This bill would amend the tax credit for renewable energy technologies in a way designed to stimulate production and usage of clean energy. I will be supporting this bill, because the renewable energy industry is of vital importance to Hawaii's future. The expansion of renewable energy production and consumption is a necessary step in securing Hawaii's economic stability. However, I do believe that the support of the industry ought to be done in a fiscally responsible way, thus I am rising in support, but with reservations."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Kawakami and Lee be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 497, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Coffman, McDermott and Ward voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 922) recommending that H.B. No. 1459, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1459, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Say rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to state my opposition to H.B. 1459, HD 2, Relating to Insurance. The purpose of the bill is to more effectively manage the administration and financing of the current and potential future employee health benefit obligations of the state and county governments by creating the Hawaii Employer Union Health Benefit Trust Fund Captive Insurance Company ('CAPTIVE') as a reciprocal captive insurance company under Article 19, Chapter 431 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes ('HRS') ('Article 10').

"My concerns in opposition to this measure is that CAPTIVE is being formed without a feasibility study, and the bill provisions may be contrary to the regulatory requirements applicable to captive insurance companies. Outlined are the questionable issues to the legislative measure: 1) NO FEASIBILITY STUDY DONE; 2) THE CAPTIVE'S ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE; 3) ARTICLE 19 COMPLIANCE; 4) THE EXEMPTION FROM TAXES AND FEES; and 5) APPLICATION OF ARTICLE 15 OF THE INSURANCE CODE.

"Due to my five concerns listed above, I will be voting No. I would hope that as H.B. 1459, HD 2 progresses to the Senate, changes will be made to address these concerns.

"A VOICE OF REASON."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 1459, HD 2. This bill 'calls for the formation and implementation of a captive insurance facility to effectively manage the administration and financing of the current and potential future employee benefit obligations of the state and county governments.'

"Aaron Fujioka, Administrator from the State Procurement Office submitted testimony stating that the, 'public procurement's primary objective is to provide everyone equal opportunity to compete for government contracts, to prevent favoritism, collusion or fraud in awarding of contracts. To legislate that any one entity should be exempt from compliance with HRS chapter 103D conveys a sense of disproportionate equality in the law's application.'

"Mr. Speaker, this measure would set up a new government entity to compete in the free market with advantages written into statute. I do not believe that the role of government is to be setting up a new 'captive insurance company'; by doing so, the government is picking winners and losers in the private sector.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise in opposition of House Bill 1459, HD 2."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, which will turn into an 'aye' vote when a feasibility study is done. When government gets into business it should do that as DCCA so indicated in their testimony. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I strongly support this bill and I have written comments to insert in the Journal, in the interest of time. Thank you."

Representative Cachola's written remarks are as follows:

"I am speaking in strong support of H.B. 1459 HD 2, otherwise known as the HULA plan. This bill is a vehicle to effectively slow down, stabilize, and reduce Hawaii's health unfunded liabilities. It contains strategies for the State of Hawaii to save taxpayers money and find a solution for our health unfunded liabilities. I am very confident that H.B. 1459 HD 2 has the plan to solve one of Hawaii's biggest problems. Understanding the problems and strategies in solving the health unfunded liabilities are crucial. Added to my remarks are my research, findings, and proposed solution to our health unfunded liabilities. I once again, urge all the Members of this House to Support H.B. 1459 HD 2."

Representative Cachola also submitted the following:

"Understanding the Problem of Unfunded Liabilities

"Funding on health benefits as of 2011 was between $15-17 billion, with 13.8 billion for the state and the rest to the all other employers. The rest of the employers include the 4 counties, HART, and the board of water supply. About $500 million per year is needed for the next 30 years to catch up with the unfunded liability. For 2012-13 our health unfunded liabilities are estimated to roughly be $18 billion.

"Unless we do something, Hawaii's unfunded liabilities will continue to grow over $1 billion yearly. In 2001, yearly premium contributions by employees and employers for health benefits were under $218 million to current day approximation of $800 million.

"Unfunded liabilities affects Hawaii's bond rating. Pew, Barron's, and the Institute for Truth in Accounting are independent non-profit organizations who analyze current problems in the nation and offer solutions.

"The PEW report said Hawaii is the 10th worst in the nation for funding of liabilities. Examples of states worse than us are California and Illinois. Hawaii received Pew's worst rating with the organization reporting Hawaii's management of its long-term liabilities for pensions and retiree health care is "cause for serious concern."

"According to the Institute for Truth in Accounting, Hawaii came in third worst in terms of its financial obligation and for the second year in a row was named one of five "sinkhole states". "Sinkhole states" refers to the amount of money owed by each resident in Hawaii, which each resident owes an average of $32,700. Sheila Weinberg, CEO and founder of the Institute for Truth in Accounting said that "Hawaii would need to layoff all employees for 8 years and put all that money into the state healthcare system to catch up to the total debt owed."

"Barron's Report stated "The bottom-ranked states are Connecticut, Illinois, Hawaii and Kentucky." To improve Hawaii's credit rating, a 0.5% reduction on our rate will create a lot of savings to the state and any employer floating bonds. It will make Hawaii's bond floating more attractive.

"Possible Solutions

"The easiest way to solve Hawaii's unfunded liabilities would be to raise the GE Tax by about 1%. This will cover about $500 million per year in contributions to the fund for the next 30 years. This is something that the bill does not propose and would have taxpayers crying foul and would not support this in any way.

"Hawaii could also lay off employees or cut back on benefits that it has already promised to employees. Once again, this is not something H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 proposes and it is our obligation to attempt to keep the same benefits because that is what we have already agreed to. We must find creative and innovative solutions to this problem.

"The strategy of H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 is to slow down, stabilize, reduce and finally fully fund Hawaii's unfunded health benefits liabilities. Hawaii must also improve our Bond outlook and gain back the investing public's trust. Based on this strategy, H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 proposes to create a Captive Insurance Company within the EUTF, only for government employees. This new entity will be called the Employer-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund Captive Insurance Company. The Board of the EUTF will remain the same except one seat will be allotted to represent the 4 counties.

"This new captive insurance company will create two separate funds. The first, Premium Funds, will be a place holder for employer-employee health care premiums. Contributions of employees and employers equated to nearly $760 million in 2011. Currently, it is over $800 million due to yearly increases in health care premiums by the insurers.

"The second, Reserve Funds, will be composed of two parts. First is contributions to Pre-Fund of UL OPEB and Health UL Contributions. For starters, H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 proposes to put 10% of the $15 billion unfunded health benefits liability into the fund. This amount would be roughly $1.5 billion. Counties have already contributed around $300 million and the state has contributed $0. The time period for this amount to be reached would be 5 years. The amount contributed to the reserve by employers will be based on the number of employees that each employer currently has. The state has around 75% of the employers and would be obligated to contribute 75% of the $1.5 billion. The rest of the employers would have the remaining 25% to contribute. Counties and other employers, besides the state, have already made contributions in the amount of $300 million which will be credited to those employers who made the contribution. It is a mandate that contributions must be made annually.

"The second part, Captive Insurance Reserves, would be created to set up an emergency plan in case health care costs were insufficient from the premium reserve. If this were to occur this fund would cover those costs and then the individual employers would be billed for the amount that they would owe based on the percentage of employees they represent.

"All these premium and reserve funds cannot be raided or appropriated for any other purpose.

"Advantages in Creating a Captive Insurance Company

"The following advantages all came from a 2001 report by the State of Hawaii Insurance Division within the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs.

"Reduces operating costs. This can save anywhere from 5% to 25% on operating costs. Based on the latest premium contribution of nearly $760 million a 5% savings would equate to $37,950,000 and 25% would equate to $189,750,000.

"Direct Reinsurer Access. Typical insurers can only approach the wholesale market if they own in an insurance company. A captive is a licensed insurer that has the ability to deal directly based on wholesale price with reinsurers and provide the opportunity to:

(1) Eliminate or reduce the cost of commissions paid to reinsurance intermediaries.
(2) Secure prices that directly relate to the State's own exposures and loss record rather that those of the marketplace.
(3) Access new risk financing mechanisms.

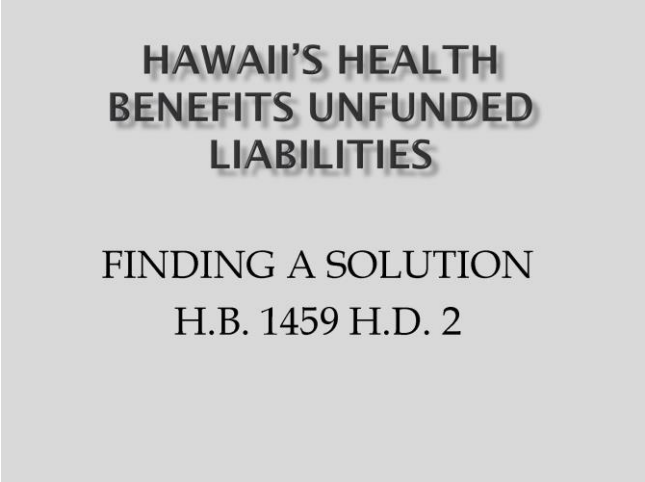
"Enhanced Risk Management and Accountability. The ability to select an optimal amount of risk that will be insured rather than one that is imposed by an insurer. It would facilitate equitable allocation of insurance and claim settlement costs among various divisions and agencies of the state, and increased visibility and enhanced appreciation of the risk management function within the State.

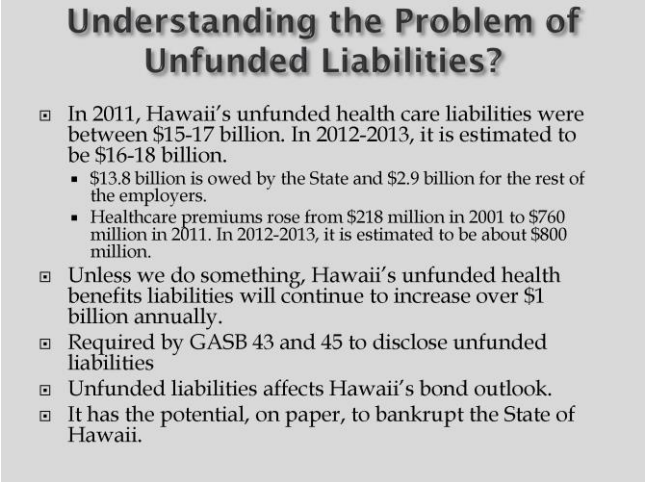
"Investment Return. Captive provides the opportunity for the state to earn investment income on loss reserves rather than allowing it to be earned by conventional insurance carriers. Underwriting profit is generated when the loss reserve set aside to pay for losses is more than is ultimately needed to settle the claim.

"These are only a few of the benefits that were listed in the 2001 report.

"In conclusion, H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 is not a perfect bill and still remains a work in progress. As we move along this bill will have the opportunity to adapt and find ways to improve. Survival and taking control of our destiny is the overriding purpose of H.B. 1459 H.D. 2. The financial viability and future of Hawaii is at stake. We need the understanding, encouragement, and support of everyone, including the public and private sector, for us to solve unfunded liabilities. We must all, therefore, work together, especially employee unions and employers, in order to solve this grave issue. This is a problem that has the potential to bankrupt, on paper, the State of Hawaii if not solved."

Representative Cachola also submitted the following:





Possible Solutions

- Easiest way to solve Hawaii's unfunded health benefits liabilities would be to raise the GET by 1%.
- Hawaii could also choose to lay-off employees.
- Hawaii could try to cut back on employee benefits that it has already promised.
- All of these options however, are not proposed under H.B. 1459 H.D. 2.

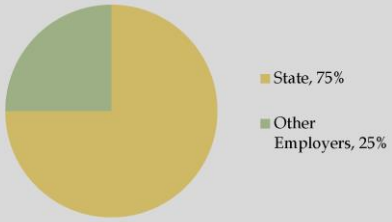
Percentage of Allocation of Employees



*Spouses and dependents not included. Total number of individuals covered under the EUTF health plan is greater than 92,466.

*HART employees are not currently included, but will be.

Possible Solutions – H.B. 1459 H.D. 2

- Slow down, stabilize, reduce, and finally, fully fund Hawaii's unfunded health benefits liabilities over time.
- Improve Hawaii's bond outlook and gain back the investing public's confidence. A 0.5% reduction in debt services creates about $10-100 million in savings to the State and any employer floating bonds.
- Based on this strategy, H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 proposes to create a captive insurance company within the EUTF that only covers government employees.

*In FY 2012 and FY 2013 Budgets of the Health Premium contributions rates reflect a 50-50 split in employer-employee contribution rates. This agreed upon 50-50 split, if kept, will help reduce and resolve the health unfunded liabilities.

Possible Solutions – H.B. 1459 H.D. 2

- The new captive insurance company will create two separate funds.
  1. Premium Fund
     A. Employer and Employee contributions to the EUTF members health care. In 2011, this amount equated to roughly $760 million.
  2. Reserve Funds
     A. Reserves for contribution to Pre-Fund Unfunded Liabilities/OPEB Funds - The 4 Counties have already contributed about $300 million and the State has made no contribution.
     B. Captive Insurance reserve – Reserve that is required by law when setting up a captive insurance company.
        i. No funds will be earmarked at this time but the reserve will be backed up by the full faith and credit of the State and employers.

These funds can't be raided or appropriated for any other purpose.

Advantages in Creating a Captive Insurance Company

Based on a 2001 report from the State of Hawaii Insurance Division within the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs.

- Reduces operating costs. Potential of a 5-25% savings.
- Direct reinsurer access.
- Enhanced risk management and accountability.
- Retention of investment income and underwriting profits.
- These are only a few of the benefits listed in the 2001 report.

Conclusion

- H.B. 1459 H.D. 2 is not a perfect bill and remains a work in progress.
- As we move along, this bill will have the opportunity to adapt and find ways to improve.
- Survival and taking control of our destiny is the overriding goal of H.B. 1459 H.D. 2. The financial viability and future of Hawaii is at stake.
- We need the understanding, encouragement, and support of everyone in the public and private sector for us to solve Hawaii's unfunded liabilities.
- We must all therefore work together, especially employee unions and employers, in order to solve this grave issue. This is a problem that has the potential to bankrupt the state of Hawaii that also affects everyone in the public and private sector if not solved.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1459, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 38 ayes to 13 noes, with Representatives Choy, Coffman, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ito, Jordan, Kawakami, Say, Tokioka, Tsuji and Yamashita voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 923) recommending that H.B. No. 357, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

By unanimous consent, action was deferred to the end of the calendar.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 924) recommending that H.B. No. 174, HD 2 pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 174, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support and would like to refer to a study from 2009, Health Risks of Genetically Modified Foods. Thank you.

"I also would like to recognize the folks who came today and are here. Hawaiian citizens for GMO labeling and the Right to Know, Hawaii SEED, Seeds of Truth, Food Democracy Now, GMO Free USA, GMO Free Oahu, GMO Free Maui, GMO Free Kauai, GMO Free Moku O Keawe, Babes Against Biotech, AiKea Local 5, Hawaii Organic Farming Association, Down to Earth, Moms On a Mission, various University of Hawaii law students, kupuna warrior Walter Ritte and the ohana from Molokai, Democratic Party of Hawaii, Hawaiian Affairs Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawaii, mahalo for being here.

"I'd also like to thank the Members. This has been a challenging issue and it's taken some time but I think it's a very important conversation and if you've had the chance to sit in any of the Committee hearings you know that it is a very important issue and a lot of people are very passionate.

"This bill, however, is not perfect. For one, the effective date is 2112. But it needs to move forward. Our job is not to run away from controversy, ignore or marginalize people's passionate concerns. That is why we need to move this forward. Our job is to make better policy for all of the people of Hawaii. This particular version represents a lot of compromise and I don't think there's anybody that's going to be happy with the final version or with this version. It's a compromise, that's usually what happens.

"But I want to emphasize that there are risks, health and safety risks, to human health and the environment, from GMO. And the state has a compelling interest in labeling. I want to be clear, this not an anti-GMO bill. It's not a ban. It's the last of 8 GMO bills to survive in this House, and as Walter Ritte said in the Finance Committee, 'it is the absolute very least and minimum that we could do.'

"It's a consumers right to know so they can make their best decisions for their own health conditions. Genetic modification is a new science, about 20 years of new technology, and the concept is, how can we grow more food? We all need food and work on GMO should continue. Many believe it saved our own papaya industry from an invasive species that could have destroyed the industry if left to run its course. That is a different issue, however, than this bill. I believe, whether you like it or not, we are going to be moving towards more labeling. We must.

"I don't want to belabor the issues because if you did sit through one of those hearings you heard hours of testimony and I think there's probably over 500-pages of testimony. And from that you would have learned there are many, many reasons to label. It's not just so we have the right to know and choose what we eat. Some people have allergies, sensitivities, or for mothers, concerns about the safety of their fetus or their children. They need to be able to make informed choices to best protect their family and their health.

"Some people are also concerned about the moral, ethical, or political implications, globalization of food supply by a handful of corporations, reduction of biodiversity, disturbing implications for vegetarians, eating GMO that may be crossed with GMO from animals. As well as the major impacts on our land and pesticide use."

Representative Say rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley continued, stating:

"Thank you. There was some opposition from some big seed companies like Monsanto who bussed in many of their employees to the Capitol last week to pressure us to vote no. Please be aware, however, that this bill does not affect those seed companies. This bill is only requiring a label on imported produce. This bill will not affect these large multi-national corporations currently selling seed products to the mainland. So, I still have questions about why they're concerned. I would like to address some of the opposition and just clarify the FDA preemption issue, in particular.

"I think that this is not a federal preemption issue and state action should not be stymied by fear of this. I have met with numerous attorneys, I met with the Deputy Attorney General who worked on this. Federal preemption occurs whenever a state law conflicts with a federal law. Under Article 6 of the US Constitution, federal law always controls in the event of a conflict. Usually preemption occurs if the state is doing less then what is required by federal law or if it imposes laws that undermine federal law.

"But there is no law requiring GMO labeling and no law forbidding GMO labeling. It's unlikely there would be any conflict that would trigger preemption if the federal government were to pass a law that could raise that issue. But, so far they have not and it doesn't look like they will in the near future.

"The opinion that the Deputy Attorney General wrote essentially identified the lack of a compelling state interest in the record. I think we've corrected that by introducing the scientific studies as he advised. I also looked at the case law on these issues. It is true that the Supreme Court, in a different circuit, not the 9th circuit, found that a consumers' curiosity about what BHT was, was not enough to show a compelling state interest. But nothing excludes the state from labeling GMO as long as there's a compelling state interest.

"There have also been challenges or concerns about the dormant commerce clause. This is easily solvable if we include our local producers. I would support that, however, I would want to make sure that if we move forward with that, we address our local farmers' concerns about the potential impact on their business, because we don't want to hurt their business. I want to make one more argument about this dormant commerce clause issue. I think we have, as Hawaii, an island state, a very compelling interest to protect our own industries, our public health and our safety, and prevent alien species from unknowingly entering into the state and potentially devastating crops and wreaking havoc on the environment.

"I'm going to tell you a quick story that's part true and part potential future. I bought some ginger from the store, it was really good, the best. Maybe it was from China, I don't know. I was too busy, maybe too lazy to cook, so it sprouts. I throw it in my garden and then I start growing it and when it's good, I eat it and I share it with my friends. So, if my friend happens to be a farmer and he starts growing that ginger, he's going to be growing, unknowingly, GMO ginger. And the thing about that ginger is it's going to be resistant to pesticides and it can easily take over in many different areas. And then that local farmer can get sued by the major seed companies for violating their patent."

Representative Morikawa rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wooley continued, stating:

"So, I think when it comes to the State's compelling interest in protecting our industries, we have to label GMO. Another compelling interest for the state has to do with our dependency on imported food as well as energy. It's one thing to be about 90% dependent on those imports. It's quite another to be this dependent and have 8,000 miles of ocean between us and the closest land.

"On top of this, we have such a fragile and unique environment that we have become the endangered species capital, for the US and maybe the world. Largely, this is a product of the fact that we have allowed imports to come in without enough precautions. Think, the varroa mite for the bee, coqui frog, ants that keep coming in, fire ants, infected cockroaches, the list goes on.

"In short, I think it's important for us not to continue this policy that allows GMO to enter into Hawaii without anyone being aware. With that, Members, I thank you for your time."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some reservations. Mr. Speaker, I think the Ag Chair summed it up. There has been a lot of testimony about this and I do support the concept of labeling. But, particularly in this bill, we're just talking about, and I know it's a work in progress and I commend the committee and Members for doing what we did to move it along. But, particularly in the language it's just talking about mainland produce. The concern with that for me is, how do we know that, that produce is not genetically modified, even if it says it is. Just because it says it is, it doesn't mean it is. So, how are we going to check that? Are we going to send inspectors to the mainland to check those produce?

"I'm not one to just say no and not have another solution, so what we've been working on, some Members in this Caucus and Members of the Senate, the Senate Ag Chair and the Senate Majority Caucus Leader, we've been working with the grocery stores here in the State of Hawaii, and one in particular who's been at the meetings is Whole Foods.

"If you walk into Whole Foods you will see Whole Foods brand the non-GMO products that are labeled throughout the store and you will see labels coming out of the shelves that specifically point out which items are GMO free. If you go into the poultry section you'll see chicken, raw chicken, GMO-free raw chicken and just regular raw chicken, and definitely the GMO free chicken is more expensive. But, they give people the choice. And guess what, Mr. Speaker, government is not involved. They also work with a consortium, the non-GMO project that goes to these different places and they check to make sure that the feed that the chicken is eating is not genetically modified corn.

"So, I think that's a direction we move in. We've met with some of the local grocery stores here, in fact all of the big one, we've met with them and they're all interested in doing something like that. And if they do something like that, I think that achieves the goal in labeling what people eat.

"When we say that we talk about labeling the food and how important it is to people, but I have this can here and I know if you drink enough of this it's not good for me. So it is a matter of choice, Mr. Speaker and I just think that by giving the people the choice at the grocery store, at the point of sale, without government's involvement. We cannot even find enough inspectors to inspect our friends that come from, sorry to the Big Island Reps, the fire ants and the coqui frogs that come to Kauai. We don't have enough inspectors to do that.

"Those are the concerns I have and I know the intent is great for this, for what we're trying to do. But I think the private sector can do it better than government in this situation and I'll continue to support this bill, but I think there are other ways as well, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, for the time."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with just a few brief comments. I just wanted to note the degree of community support we have as well as prominent leaders in our community.

"In 1999, the late Congresswoman Patsy Mink signed on to a letter supporting a recommendation to the Food and Drug Administration to label genetically modified food. Mink was a cosponsor of House Resolution 3377, the Genetically Engineered Food Right to Know Act. She also cosponsored HR 713, to require the Secretary of Agriculture to complete a report regarding the safety and monitoring of GE food.

"Fast forward to March of last year when Senator Daniel Akaka signed on to a bicameral letter addressed to the Food and Drug Administration, asking the Agency to require the labeling of GE food. Three months later in June both Senator Akaka and the late Senator Inouye voted in favor of an amendment reaffirming the rights of states to pursue their own labeling of GE food laws.

"Here at the county level in December 2011, Maui, Kaui and Hawaii County all passed labeling resolutions followed by Honolulu County in May of 2012. At our most grassroots levels of civic engagement here on Oahu are the neighborhood boards. The Ewa, Kapolei, Nanakuli, Waianae, Makiki and Ala Moana neighborhood boards all passed resolutions in support of labeling of products that contain GE ingredients. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure and hope that it continues forward for discussion. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some slight reservations. I do look forward to the continued discussion on this matter, through the Senate and possibly coming back to us. Thank you very much."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. I rise in support with some reservations. I thank the Chair of the Agriculture Committee for making the amendment and really reducing the scope of this measure to just impact imports from out of state. I hope that it does pass muster under the different constitutional questions.

"My reservation here is a more practical one, Mr. Speaker. I think the enforcing agency will be in the Department of Agriculture. I think under chapter 150, I'm just reflecting upon the comments and testimony that were brought to the committee by Carol Okada. Many of you know that Carol Okada runs the Department of Ag Division of Plant Quarantine and she's done an admirable job despite the repeated restrictions, furloughs over the past several years in trying to beef-up the inspectors that we have at our ports, at our airports and our shipping areas. She was quite impassioned in her testimony to the committee and I think it focused upon her question of whether or not she and her small staff can do the job that's required under this measure.

"She commented upon the fact that they might not have the ability, the know-how or the expertise to be certified on whether it is GMO or not

GMO. They were concerned about the labeling program itself. She mentioned to the Members in her testimony that the plant quarantines primary mission at this point in time is to protect Hawaii citizens and environments. For alien species, foreign organisms, insects, pests and disease and both our forests, farms, natural resources, native biota and endangered species, and even human health.

"In 2009 she said they had inspected 14 million parcels coming into the state and they did that with 95 inspectors. Today they have 50. 50 inspectors. She's concerned that they can't make the timely inspections when a 40 foot container comes in off Matson or one of the shippers at the ports in Honolulu. She's concerned that there are not enough electrical conduits to keep those refrigerated containers refrigerated so that there's not spoilage of produce on the docks.

"That was a problem that we're well aware of, for those of us who were here several years ago during the great recession, and there were cut-backs, restrictions and layoffs of inspectors. We were hearing from our own grocers that produce was not getting from the ship, to the dock, to the shelves, and there was a lot of spoilage and waste of food coming in because they couldn't be inspected. So, she's concerned about that and that's a current memory that's still in her mind.

"She's also concerned about keeping track of the containers as they move through the system. She explained to me that for larger shippers like Safeway or Costco, they seldom ship one type of product or one brand or one item of food product or produce in one container. There might be different sources of that and the verification process of having one suspicious cargo or carton can stop the entire container from moving forward, off the dock, off the pier and onto our shelves. So, she's concerned about that.

"She's also concerned about the same effects for shipments coming from the mainland through air freight. She doesn't believe that the airlines will have the ability or have the willingness to install the requisite electrical upgrades to make sure that their product in those containers are refrigerated and kept so there's no spoilage. And, again, she has experienced that recently.

"She told us that they have a limited staff and they have a limited budget, but they have enormous jurisdiction of containing the issues of Dengue fever, West Nile virus, besides the invasive species that come in every year. And that's only on the import side. But, she's also concerned about the export side. What about Hawaii product coming out, what about local farmers, our local producers of livestock. When we have to ship that out they have to also certify the safety of that product going to the mainland. She cited an example in California when there were 1400 containers stopped from going to California because of our alien species, unwanted pests going to the mainland. They were actually stopped. She also cited at the hearing that they used to ship out $180 million of product to the mainland."

Representative Hashem rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

"They started with out with $180 million of product going out of State. Now it's down to about $69 million, largely in part to the lack of certifying the lack of any pests or alien species leaving Hawaii going to the mainland. She says they're currently being taxed to prioritize and enhance our inspections with limited resources, limited manpower, limited capital, and they have a large area to cover. The current threat she reminded us of is that there is a threat of Ohia rust right now facing our forests, our water sheds, which can wipe out our Ohia forests, 80% of which is Ohia, by this Ohia rust. So where do we set our priorities, is a questions she asked us.

"I also have a personal concern, Mr. Speaker. I'm not sure if this bill contains any element of the prior drafts but I hope it doesn't. I have a family farm in Wahiawa that's been around for about 100 years and one of the few remaining local farms that locally produce eggs. I'm not sure where they get their feed from. I don't think it's grown locally, I don't think it's processed locally. I think it may come from a mainland conglomerate like most of the feed stock that comes into the State. I'm not sure if it will pass muster under this bill and can be used.

"Those are the concerns I have. But, I think the Chair of Agriculture has done an admirable job in narrowing the scope of this and trying to take into consideration all the different interests on this measure. So, I'm supporting with reservations. Thank you very much."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support and I'd like just note for the record that of all the issues that I've seen debated here in my time, this issue has polled higher in our district than any other with 9 out of 10 folks in support. With that, I'd like to thank the Chair of Agriculture for moving this along and look forward to further debate. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of this measure. As a member of the farm that the Representative from Wahiawa talked about, it does not affect our family farm, although it was a concern. But I do think that we've all received numerous emails, calls, testimony asking for the right to know and for GMO labeling. I think it's important that we continue this discussion. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. May I have the words of the Representative from Wahiawa inserted as if they were my own, in addition to these comments. Mr. Speaker, this has been a particularly frustrating issue. For every study that someone brings into my office saying that GMO is bad, someone else walks in saying GMO is good and I can't sort through the fog here. I want to know, is GMO good or is it bad? Is it good for people, is it bad for people?

"One person came in and said that this next generation that's coming up that's going to be raised since the first time GMO was introduced into our food supply is going to be the first generation that's not going to outlive their predecessors. So I wanted to go over to the Finance Committee and say, is this assessment correct? Because then this will affect EUTF, this will affect ERS, if people are going to be dying earlier. Because all of our fiscal planning is based around people are living longer and healthier than they ever have in the history of the country and that applies here to Hawaii as well.

"So, I don't understand, I'm not seeing, I'm trying to figure out. They said GMO doesn't increase Ag production, so I went to studies from the University of Wisconsin, University of Iowa, Iowa State University, and they have had significant gains in their Ag production since the introduction of GMO. If this industry is going to be on the cutting edge of future technology and has the potential for solving some of the great food supply problems that we have pretty much throughout the world, I think it would be a good thing for Hawaii to be leading that if it's going to help mitigate a lot of the suffering that goes on throughout the world in relation to hunger.

"So, I do support the measure, Mr. Speaker, but it definitely merits much more discussion and we need solid facts in regards to whether it's good or bad so that decision makers can make good decisions, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill 174, HD 2, Relating to Food Labeling, which imposes labeling requirements and import restrictions on imported genetically engineered produce.

"Without labeling, consumers have no way to know when they are eating genetically modified foods. Many studies show that GMOs may have harmful effects on human health. In addition, the way that genetically modified foods are engineered, often encourages the use of large amounts of toxic chemical pesticides and herbicides. Consumers have a right to know if they are purchasing products that could be harmful to their health and the environment. This measure is a first step in that direction

"It would be more rational to have a comprehensive labeling law that addressed GMOs at the federal level; however, sometimes states must lead the way in pursuing proactive policies on controversial topics for the benefit of their residents. Therefore I urge the Members' support of this measure."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Thank you very much. First of all, I'd like to just thank the Chairs of Agriculture, CPC and Finance for hearing the bill, and I'd like to thank my Colleagues for having this discussion. I think this is very healthy. In my district I also have GMO farmers and corn seed and they provide a lot of jobs.

"The intent with all the constituents that I have to deal with, which I have a very controversial district which is made up of islands, my intent was really the right to know. Not to take out Monsanto, not to take out anybody, but the right to know as a consumer, what is coming into our State. That being said, I know we've heard a lot of comments here. I think what has happened here which I think is really good, is that many issues have been raised where the Department of Ag has talked about inspections, and as we heard from the Representative from Wahiawa, all the way to the benefits of GMO.

"So I see labeling, not only just the right to know, but if like we heard from the Representative from Laie, that this technology is the way to go because we're trying to produce more food, I think it's also an opportunity to educate what the benefits are if it is GMO. Everybody has an opinion and everybody has a choice and I think we can all agree that should labeling be the way of how we provide for our food sources that come in to our state, but even the foods that we produce, I think education and letting us know what it is that's in our food that we can eat so that we can better make choices that are fitting for ourselves.

"I also would like to say thank you to all the people who came out to testify and who flew from the neighbor islands. I know that cost them a lot and I know that a lot of people are passionate and I can promise you, however you vote I will not take it personal as the introducer of this bill. I just appreciate the healthy discussion. Thank you very much."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, with reservations and just really brief comments. I think given some of the changes that this bill has gone through, it's not workable right now. If it was to move through like this I think we're going to have some very serious problems, including consumer confusion. Other than that, with reservations and given that there's still a defective date in this bill I think it good to have further discussion. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB 174, HD 2. This bill would introduce labeling requirements and import restrictions on imported genetically engineered produce. While I understand the desire to ensure that consumers know what is in the products they consume, I have some concerns over workability and the feasibility of implementing the bill.

"Specifically, the Department of Agriculture raised a number of legitimate concerns when they mentioned in the Finance hearing that they do not have enough inspectors to handle the increased demand for inspections that would be brought about by labeling nor the ability to hold all the produce that they would need to inspect at port.

"While this bill does have a noble cause in improving the transparency of agricultural products, I have concerns about its implementation."

Representative Onishi rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Tokioka and Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I would like the words of the Chair of Human Services entered into the Record as if they were my own and just some brief comments. In order to make this a well-rounded discussion, your Committee on CPC added the Part II. Because there is another issue going on, which is the popularity of non-GMO, and of course, organic produce.

"Right now there is no mechanism to verify, even though the private sector is moving ahead, whether or not what is being represented is true. So, your Committee felt it was important to include that in the conversation, especially in the conversation with Department of Ag, that the certified organic Ag program has been suspended. So, right now it's just a leap of faith as to what you're buying, saying it's organic, is actually organic.

"So, that's why I stand in support of the bill, not only for the reasons that were very eloquently remarked on by the speaker from Hana, but also for those other reasons, too. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ohno rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Carroll be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support and may I request that the words of my neighboring colleague from Hana be inserted as my own. It really goes without saying that GMO labeling is a subject of poignant interest in my district, being the very pervasive presence of the biotech industry within my district boundaries. It's dismaying to some, I think, but to me it's purely about labeling, at least this bill is.

"I'd also like thank the Chair of the Agriculture Committee for pointing out that there are no current federal laws that constitute preemption if this state law does pass. Perhaps some people may believe in this House that this issue is better handled in Congress, but if so, I think the Attorney General right now will soon opine a decision of whether or not this would conflict with at least the administrative rules on the federal level.

"But, whether or not there is any conflict, I think at least passing this out of this Chamber will send a strong message to Congress to move ahead or at least open discussion a little bit more earnestly."

Representative Cachola rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Carroll and McKelvey be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Saiki rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Carroll and McKelvey be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. This is an important bill because it will set a precedent. I think the precedent that we should set should be a small one. Frankly, I think we are biting off more than we can chew, pun intended. We have right now a very successful industry based on GMO – papayas. I would suggest that we look into a narrow sector of produce or vegetables and start labeling with those.

"Secondly, I think that people should look at what should be labeled and what should not be labeled. In this situation this bill calls for the labeling of GMO produce. Perhaps the opposite should apply, that there should be labeling of non-GMO produce because that carries a premium to it, a price premium to it. Perhaps, also as was suggested by the good Representative from Lihue, that private sector involvement might aid in implementing the general concept.

"As you know, the details are always difficult here and we're not implementers. I think that we should think about passing laws sometimes to represent a concept or a stance. And in this case, for me, I'd like to take a stance saying that I'd like to see labeling of GMO and non-GMO products. I'd like to be well informed as to what I purchase and especially what I eat. And with those comments I hope that this bill gets more work. Thank you."

Representative Ito rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Carroll be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. Very briefly, I just want to echo the comments that were made from the Agriculture Chair regarding the constitutional issues and the dormant commerce clause. That is the crux of my concerns.

"Number two, I just want to thank the CPC Chair for his hard work on this bill. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 174, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOOD LABELING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative McDermott voting no.

At 6:05 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1324, HD 2
H.B. No. 497, HD 3
H.B. No. 1459, HD 2
H.B. No. 174, HD 2

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 399, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 399, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Fale, Har, Hashem, Ito and McDermott voting no.

H.B. No. 734, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 734, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 734, HD 1. This bill 'amends public lands classifications to add taro lands for wetland cultivation as a fourth class of agricultural lands. Defines taro lands. Requires retention of supporting structures for taro fields. Adds growth and perpetuation of all traditional Hawaiian crops to agricultural planning objectives.'

"Mr. Speaker, creating a fourth class of agricultural lands to improve taro protection will not take away the threats that prevent this crop from thriving.

"House Bill 734, HD 1 states that 'this class does not make a determination of productivity and recognizes the cultural, social, economic, and food self-sufficiency value of preserving traditional taro lands for wetland cultivation.'

"By not determining productivity of the land and creating this specific class, it will prevent necessary development that could be beneficial to the production of taro.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise in opposition of House Bill 734, HD 1."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 734, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PROTECTION OF TARO LANDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Har and Say voting no.

H.B. No. 563, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 563, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 696, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 696, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and just brief comments. I do support the intent of this measure. I want to thank the introducer of the bill. My reservations come from the amendments that were put in. I do not believe that the Speaker of the House nor the Senate President should be making the call as to how much that amount should be. I do believe that the Department of Accounting and General Services is the more appropriate agency and for those reasons I stand with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Say rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Please record a no vote for me and I'll incorporate the words from the Representative from Kapolei as my own in justifying why I am voting no. It would have been nice if we went back to the original draft where the comptroller had the jurisdiction. And providing the Members of the House the opportunity of having a discussion about the per diem for the Lieutenant Governor rather than just to the Executive of the House and the Executive of the Senate making the decision without the Members of the House knowing. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. When we heard this bill, the per diem bill for the Lieutenant Governor's Office, it had significant problems because the department could set whatever fees or per diem they wanted in excess of the limit of what the Federal Government allowed. And that would be in line with about $350 a day. I think before we allow any executive members or any person to have this type of per diem, we should have a little bit more control. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, just a brief rebuttal. Thank you to the Finance Chair for her comments, but the fact of the matter is this. The Legislative Branch still has oversight via the budget. So, if the Department of Accounting and General Services still had control over the per diem amount as well as the amount that was to be set for this particular office, or the amount needed for the Lieutenant Governor's neighbor island office, the Legislative Branch would still have the opportunity to opine. So, there is legislative oversight and that's why I still think that the amendment is unnecessary. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 696, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Say voting no.

H.B. No. 31, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 31, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to rise in opposition to this measure. Again, basically I think it's wrong policy to use a criminal code, disorderly conduct. When somebody makes threatening gestures or one squats in the middle of the sidewalk and begs for alms and one threatens someone with physical blows and assaults someone, those are the things that are captured under the criminal code of disorderly conduct. But when a person at a bus stop falls asleep for 60 minutes, that doesn't seem very disorderly. I think it's a real big sledgehammer to deal with a homeless person or the idea that homeless people are taking over all of our bus stops.

"While I'm first to admit that there are some inconveniences caused by homeless people using our bus stops and shelters as temporary shelters from the elements, to criminalize that and make them criminal for seeking shelter, that any rational or reasonable person would do, I think is going a little bit too far. Earlier today we had a very vigorous debate upon letting the homeless it their own automobiles park in parking lots. I think we heard very impassionate speeches on both sides of the argument. And about the never ending crises that we have with the homeless population.

"But, this one here kind of strikes me as being almost punitive. I'm afraid about how it's going to be enforced. You guys read the testimony from the Public Defender's Office, you have one guy on the lookout and while he is on the lookout his six other buddies catch 59 minutes of rest, they make compliance.

"But to criminalize someone falling asleep at the bus stop, at a shelter or even nearby a shelter or bus stop, I think is going a little bit too far, a little bit too punitive for a person that doesn't have shelter and is seeking shelter from the elements. There must be a better way. I hope this thing comes back to us and there's something else there, but as it currently sits before us, I have to vote no. Thank you."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition and I'd like to ask if I can incorporate the words from the Representative from Wahiawa as my own and I'd also like to add some comments. It's not just the homeless, it's oftentimes the kupuna or the person that's worked an eight hour shift and has stayed up all night coming in from another job, it's many different people. So, in opposition, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Just a couple of broad points. First of all, as I've mentioned before, bus stops are an important transportation hub for many of my constituents, many of whom are not particularly wealthy and the bus is how they get to work, to the grocery store and everything else.

"I just point out that at the airport a few years ago we had a problem with homeless or street people frequenting the terminal at Honolulu International, and it didn't take long for the Department of Transportation to figure out a way to get them out of there. That was a transportation hub, they didn't want them there, they were causing problems for the travelers who were coming through.

"I would submit that this is actually a very similar situation. The kupuna are exactly who this bill is intended to help because when an 80-year old lady comes to the bus stop and she can't sit down because there's somebody there who's been lying there all day, it's more than a minor inconvenience for her, she's not going to be able to stand up forever, especially when she knows she's going to have to get on a crowded bus.

"The other thing I would point out is what's not in the bill is almost as important as what's in it. There's nothing in here about not being on a sidewalk or sleeping on a sidewalk, which happens all the time in my district. There's nothing about sleeping in the doorway of a business, which happens every night in my district. There's nothing about sleeping in parks, and street people and homeless people sleep in the parks, on the basketball court, when people are trying to play basketball, on the keiki equipment when the kids and their parents are out there trying to have fun at the end of the day after school.

"I realize homeless and street people have to go somewhere and much of my political capital and my six years in the Legislature have been spent trying to increase the number of affordable housing units and making sure that Mayor Wright Homes has hot water, etc., etc. But, this bill is important to my district because people do need to use the bus stops and many people are intimidated by the people that they meet there. So, I will stop there. Mahalo for your time."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations and I look forward to the continued dialogue."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I do not support the homeless to be sleeping at the bus stop, let me make that clear. However, criminalizing it is what I'm in opposition to. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 31, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DISORDERLY CONDUCT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Evans, Hanohano, Kawakami, McKelvey, Oshiro, Takumi and Thielen voting no.

H.B. No. 696, HD 1
H.B. No. 31, HD 1

H.B. No. 129, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 129, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILD WITNESS TESTIMONY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no, and with Representative Takumi being excused.

H.B. No. 38, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 38, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO UNLAWFUL CHOP SHOP ACTIVITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takumi being excused.

H.B. No. 37, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 37, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker in opposition with brief comments. I have grave concerns that this is going to open the flood gates of litigation and will hold the state, including the city and county as the deep pockets, being the prime defendants. Let's not forget who pays those judgments, our constituents. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 37, HD 1. This measure 'authorizes injunctive relief and damages for private nuisance due to excessive noise.'

"The Hawaii Insurers Council (HIC) submitted the following testimony, 'Even without HB 37, a person alleging the existence of a private nuisance due to excessive noise may file a petition for injunction, a civil complaint for damages, or both. Because that right already exists, HB 37 is unnecessary.' The HIC also testified that, 'The definitions of the key terms 'excessive noise' and 'nuisance' in HB 37 are unclear and subjective, which would lead to more costly and protracted court proceedings.'

"The Attorney General, David M. Louie submitted testimony that noted, 'The Department of the Attorney General appreciates the intent of this bill but has concerns that the bill is vague and overly broad. Because some of the terms are not clearly defined, it may result in unintended consequences.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise in opposition of House Bill 37, HD 1."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I am worried about the impact that it would have regarding delaying, extending and increasing the cost of projects throughout the State. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 37, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NOISE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Fale, Hanohano, Har, Ito, Kawakami, McDermott, Say, Thielen and Yamashita voting no, and with Representative Takumi being excused.

RELATING TO COLLECTION OF RESTITUTION FOR CRIME VICTIMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takumi being excused.

H.B. No. 510, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 510, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DEFERRED ACCEPTANCE PLEAS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takumi being excused.

At 6:19 o'clock p.m., Representative Fukumoto requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 6:20 o'clock p.m.

At 6:21 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 129, HD 1
H.B. No. 38, HD 1
H.B. No. 37, HD 1
H.B. No. 235, HD 1
H.B. No. 510, HD 1

H.B. No. 568, HD 1:

H.B. No. 52, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 52, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I think this bill goes a little bit too far in some issues regarding the biased-based policing. I'll insert written comments, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 52, HD 1. This measure 'Prohibits biased-based policing by law enforcement agencies and agents. Establishes the Department of the Attorney General as the enforcing agency.'

"The Hawaii State Attorney General, David Louie testified that, 'our review of this bill finds that the prohibitions are somewhat vague as to what in fact constitutes biased based policing, which may lead to problems in enforcing the statute. Further, the bill is duplicative of other statutes that prohibit improper discrimination.'

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is an example of political correctness taken to the extreme. Since this bill is duplicative of other statutes, I feel that it is unnecessary.

"For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 52, HD 1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 52, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL RIGHTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Fale, Hanohano and McDermott voting no.

H.B. No. 321, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 321, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations. I'd just like to mention that I understand the intent of the bill is to encourage more voter participation which I think is a very, very important goal and something that I support as well, especially getting young people to vote. I'm just concerned about the fiscal impact that this bill will have because it requires a county clerk to designate a registration clerk for each of the polling places and already we have a difficult enough time to get volunteers to come out to staff the polling places. So I'd just like to note my reservations. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations, Mr. Speaker. Just noting that I think this is a laudable thing to try to do but as written I think there are maybe some protections that are missing. I think, also repeating the comments of the Representative from Salt Lake, just noting that I think given that we have staffing issues and other problems at the polls, especially this year, I'd hate to make it worse. Thanks."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Ichiyama be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. My reservations, besides the fiscal side of this thing and imposition upon the county clerks, was that this might lead to a situation where you have a particular narrow, single-issue candidate or single-issue constituency, and they could be swayed by last minute radio, TV, billboards, signage, postcards, to turn out, register to vote on that particular day, turn out on just one single issue. I have concerns about those kinds of elections and those kinds of effects upon our elected officials. So those are my concerns.

"As far as the idea of encouraging voters, getting more voters signed up to register to participate, that's a wonderful, great idea. The more the merrier. I think Hawaii has the terrible distinction of being last in the entire country. Even going back several years when President Obama was the Democratic nominee. We were dead last.

"I think it's really embarrassing that so many of us don't take advantage of early registration, ease of voting by absentee. But this is another opportunity for them to cast their votes and I think it's a laudable one. Again, my concern is the actual effects it might have upon the electorate constituents on single-issue candidates or single-issue constituencies. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. This bill will encourage the youth to participate in the civil process. During election season some very excited young people came up to me. They said they never voted before but they wanted to participate this year. Their exact words were, 'brudda I never voted before but I like vote for you.' I regrettably had to tell them that it was too late to register.

"A fundamental problem in youth voter turnout is that people between the ages of 18 and 25 only had one or two election cycles to contemplate registering so by the time campaign issues, statements are clear and the potential voter has made up his or her mind, it's too late.

"However, policy made by today's elected officials will affect these young people just as much, if not more, than other voters throughout the course of their lifetime. This measure will begin to address that problem. Hawaii indeed has turned out with the lowest numbers out of every state in our union with below 49% according to a 2012 study from George Mason University. This measure is expected to increase overall turnout by nearly 6% and turnout among 18 to 25 year olds by a full 9% and that's according to a study by Demos, a national resource and policy organization.

"So, we can make a lot of arguments of how this measure may hold us more accountable, I think that's a good thing. If there are problems in the elections, Office of Elections or county clerks, then yes, they should be ironed out and this should open discussions and maybe we need to support them more. Maybe there needs to be some changes in personnel perhaps. But to vote down a measure that will help mitigate these dismal statistics of being the worse voting turnout in the nation, I can't imagine myself voting against any measure that will help increase those numbers, especially a measure that was recommended by numerous national organizations as a way to pull us out of this rut."

Representative Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I'd like to commend the primary introducer from Kihei for brining this matter to the Floor. We have long had both silent majorities and vocal minorities. We have also had a long history in this country of voter discrimination. Right now we have economic discrimination, because certain people vote and certain people don't according to economic lines. We also have age discrimination in voting, because again by age certain people vote and certain people don't vote.

"We should be doing everything we can to encourage voting. Whether it's same day registration or any other kind of registration. Whether it's making it more convenient by mail or non-mail. I think that all of these are parts of the puzzle. There's no one thing that will solve our problem of low voter turnout but anything that we can do will be of great help. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support with reservations. I agree with the young Representative from Maui, there is a sense, a strong sense, of voter apathy within the young people. I think something just off the top of my head to deal with this problem, we can register at the age of 16.

"I know I went to a school here in Hawaii and it really wasn't taught to me the importance to vote. And if it doesn't come from your parents, then you're not going to be taught. Luckily my parents told me the importance of my civic duty but I think another option is going into the schools, letting juniors in high school, tell them the importance of voting, give them a voter registration form.

"There are many other things that can be done. I have a few problems with registering on the day to vote but I think it's a discussion that we need to continue. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. There's two things. If we really wanted to drive voter turnout, if you look at communities that have higher levels of education, higher levels of income, the voter turnout is drastically higher than communities that are economically and educationally disadvantaged. If we wanted to turn that around we need to increase income levels and increase levels of education.

"As you go through, if you compare the wealthier communities with the poorer communities, if you compare the better educated communities to the less educated communities, obviously there's a correlation between income and education to begin with. There is a huge difference between the two.

"I've been deployed to the Middle East where voter turnout has been drastically higher in places like Iraq than they are here in the United States. But if we really wanted to turn voter turnout around here in the State of Hawaii, we need to increase incomes and we need to increase education. Those two things have proven, without a doubt, to increase voter participation. I would daresay that improving upon those two things would drastically improve voter turnout way beyond same-day registration."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some slight reservations. It's just because I don't think that the voter apathy is because of a lack of opportunity. There are tremendous amounts of opportunity and I support giving them another opportunity. But when you take a look at the voter turnout, who is not turning out? It's guys in my age bracket. Generation X, Generation Y. I don't know if it's laziness but it is a problem. I think the problem stems from not having civic responsibilities and duty taught in our schools.

"But nowadays you take a look at the younger generation. I think all of us have been into one of the classrooms and have participated in Kids Voting. Nowadays you have kids like my daughter Hailee who is nine years old that's the biggest political dork. That looks up to Congresswoman Gabbard more than some of the superstars that she sees on MTV.

"So I think it's part of addressing a bigger issue but I think that the next generation of voters, because civic responsibility and duty has been taught in the classroom, will have a much higher voter turnout than our generation. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to respond, stating:

"Again, in strong support. I just wanted to say that I fully agree with the last three speakers that there are many ways to address the problem of low voting turnout, especially among the youth. Education and opportunity are factors, I agree. But the biggest factor I think of wanting to participate in elections is seeing policy affect your lives. Over time, when you're 40 or so, you have kids, you have a mortgage, you send your kids to college, you see all these effects of policy.

"When you're 18 or 20 you haven't realized that much, aside from maybe student loans. It's when it becomes real is when you want to vote. I think that's why we build the excitement, we don't really feel that sense of urgency until it's the peak of election season.

"So I do agree that it's a multifaceted issue, but in terms of policy and things that we can do right now to address this problem, 9% increased turnout, this is the only way. There's no single policy that's going to increase education levels or income. This is the goal to weigh right now. There's mail-in voting which is another option, but these are the two options that will actually specifically address that problem.

"On a side note there is something to be said about growing up in a society where Obama is all over TV and the excitement of that hope and change message versus even my generation, that's a little bit younger than me, but even my generation where I grew up with G.W. Bush, for example. That's where apathy stems from too, is the public trust in government and feeling like you're able to participate, and there's a back-and-forth. So every policy that I'm standing up for is to increase public trust and transparency and accountability. So, in terms of consistency, strong support."

Representative Tokioka rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Kawakami be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe I might be the only one that was going to vote no, so the Majority Floor Leader can you withdraw my no vote after listening to the young man, the Representative from Kihei, in giving a very eloquent presentation of why we need voter registration on the same day of the election.

"The only downside I will share with the Members is what we experienced five years ago during the presidential caucus. How will we anticipate the turnout on that particular day and then have a problem of having chaos in our respective precincts. It is a concern, because there is no one to blame but we elected officials here.

"I would like to challenge all of you this evening that if this measure passes, can we appropriate some funds to the Elections Commission along with our county clerks in anticipation of a 9% increase in voter turnout on the day of the election. And that would be sufficient for me in going in support with reservations at this point. But a commitment would be that next year we have an appropriation for all four county clerks and our Elections Commission. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations. First of all, I appreciate the intent of this measure as Hawaii has the lowest voter registration in the nation. However, my concerns are as follows.

"Members, I would direct your attention to the testimony of all of the county clerks from each of the counties. In particular the Office of the County Clerk, County of Maui, expressed grave concerns. They stated that the introduction of election day voter registration will require the recruitment and training of additional personnel. In the County of Maui, the Office of the County Clerk estimates they would need to hire and train approximately 40 new staff members in order to facilitate voter registration and provide control center support. This is an additional burden on the clerk's office on top of election day procedures.

"Interestingly enough, Mr. Speaker, the Attorney General testified on a separate bill, House Bill 754, that it is a violation of the Hawaii State Constitution to mandate any new program without sharing in the costs. This bill does not address any appropriation for the state to share in the cost of the program. In Section 5 of the Hawaii State Constitution it states, 'if any new program or increase in the level of service under an existing program shall be mandated to any of the political subdivisions by the legislature, it shall provide that the state share in the cost.'

"This bill does not mention any additional funding from the state and therefore could be seen as a violation of the Hawaii State Constitution.

"Second, in order to have election day voter registration, all polling places would need to be equipped with a computer connection in order to access the statewide voter registration system. Currently these computer connections do not exist.

"Third, election day voter registration would allocate additional responsibilities to the precinct official or registration clerk in that they would have to verify whether the information provided is acceptable for voter registration. According to the testimony of the Office of the County Clerk from the County of Hawaii, usually this responsibility is delegated to the county elections office. In the county elections office, employees have access to the proper tools and materials needed to determine that voters are properly registered prior to election day.

"Finally it should be noted that a cast ballot cannot be retrieved. In the case that a voter registered fraudulently without proper identification or in the wrong precinct, the ballot would not be able to be cancelled. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Not to belabor the point, but I stand in strong support, although unlike the Representative from Kihei I'm long past the 18 to 25 year old demographic group. But let me tell you why this bill is important.

"Think about, back to 1954, well I was alive then, you weren't. In 1954 if you remember that was a Democratic Revolution when the Democrats took control of the Territorial House, and in 1962 the Democrats took control of the State Senate and also the Governor's Mansion. If you look at the voting turnout in those days without any kind of absentee balloting, mail balloting, voter registration drives, same-day voter registration, we had poor people in 1954 and 1962, Mr. Speaker. The voter turnout rate and registration rate was in the mid 80's to the low 90's.

"So, clearly the reason why this bill is important, the reason why every effort we can do to encourage people to vote is twofold. One, people need something to vote for first and foremost. And secondly, I would assert that people who don't vote have an equally important reason they don't vote.

"The act of voting and not voting are both civic responsibilities and civic activities, that unless you discern why people vote and don't vote, you'll never get to the heart of this. But this is a good first step. Thank you."

Representative Tsuji rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with written comments, please. Just briefly, I wanted to commend and congratulate the Representative from Kihei. It's been a while since I first got elected, I know it. But it's refreshing to see his perspective and it just makes me wonder what would have happened if we started this 20 years ago. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 321.

"In 2012, Hawaii had the lowest voter turnout rate in the entire nation. This indicates that we—as elected government officials—must help Hawaii citizens exercise their fundamental right to vote.

"Higher voter registration leads to higher voter turnout rates. By allowing same-day voting registration on Election Day, HB 321 will make voting more accessible to a wider range of potential voters and will both encourage and increase public participation.

"I commend the Representative from the 11th District for introducing this progressive measure. With his finger on the pulse of the youth, he introduced the same-day voter registration bill, assuring us that this bill will increase voter registration by 10%.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 321, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Coffman voting no.

H.B. No. 619, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 619, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, I rise in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill will make a violation, first violation, second and other violations, a petty misdemeanor for feeding wild or feral birds. The reason that I have an issue with this is, well several, but one is I do believe Department of Health has the authority to regulate for nuisances that deal with public health matters. For example, in a certain area where there are hundreds and hundreds of pigeons and it's causing a health problem, I believe Department of Health can take care of that.

"But I think more importantly, like with barking dogs, I think that this is more of an issue that should be dealt with at the county level. I believe the councilmembers should be looking at ordinances if they see this as a problem because the reality is enforcement is always an issue here.

"I hate to belabor these stories, but I'm going to say a couple just so people of record know. You go to the 18th hole of the Waikoloa Golf Course which is a pond and there's wild ducks there and as people drive up in their carts the ducks come over and beg for food. Under this law if someone gave them any food they would be violating the law.

"Another thing is a next door neighbor has a bird feeder. Anybody in this state, after this law has passed, that has a bird feeder, could be violating the law. So if your next door neighbor doesn't like you and now they know that they can get you because you have a bird feeder, because guess what? Wild birds don't discriminate, they go to trees all around the neighborhood. So this could end up pitting neighbor against neighbor.

"I understand why it was introduced because I'm sure there are many instances where birds, when people feed them they start maybe to grow in population, they go from 5 to 10 to 20 and ultimately it can cause a problem. I understand why, maybe someone in the neighborhood brought it to our attention, but I believe that this is not the way to go about solving the problem. Thank you."

Representative Takayama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the measure. This bill is something of a measure of last resort for a group of residents in Pearl City who have had the misfortune of living next to neighbors who feed pigeons and they've accumulated in numbers of more than 200 and they have been forced to live in this unbearable condition for multiple years, more than 10 years in some cases.

"They've tried unsuccessfully to appeal for help from the Department of Health, they have tried legal action and they have tried voluntary meditation. All of these have failed. Having said that, it's admittedly a work in progress. I ask the support of the House in enabling this measure to go forward so that we can further work on this measure with the Senate. Thank you very much."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please note my reservations. I do understand the introducer is working on some corrections to the current measure and at such time that happens, I'll change my vote. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll just stand by my potential conflict on the last reading of feeding the mynah birds. In support with reservations. I just want to really congratulate the author for the hard work he's doing on this. I humbly ask everybody to recognize it is a work in progress. My reservations are there are some unintended consequences for people like myself who like to feed the mynahs some dog food here and there.

"But I think the intent behind this is one that is extremely important, so I humbly ask those who have concerns to support the measure as it moves forward knowing that is a work in progress and that hopefully in working with the Senate we can address these unintended consequences and come back with a good bill. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also stand by my potential conflict of interest. Potential conflict regarding my background with enjoying wild birds when we go and feed them in the mountains," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"My initial position is to be opposed to this measure, Mr. Speaker, but I believe that the author of the measure is definitely taking into consideration the concerns that we have and I would like to support the measure with reservations."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. I'd just like to thank the Judiciary Chair and also the introducer of the bill proving that this is a work in progress. That they carved out an exemption for chickens because as you may know Kauai is very fond of their wild chicken population and people like my daughter love feeding those chickens and they pose no problems as far as health or a nuisance.

"But this bill is aimed at certain people that have taken a flock of pigeons, brought them into an urban neighborhood and now that we're putting photovoltaic and we're putting solar water heaters on every house, it's causing not only significant property damage but there are heartbreaking cases where you have kupuna that are forced to live in their homes with all the windows closed because of the allergies, the mites and all the parasites that these birds have brought to the neighborhood. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be supporting this bill with reservations. Just like what they said, it's a bill in progress. As you know there's a lot of ways to skin a bird, rather than a cat. So, hopefully it will come up with ways for not criminalizing the action but they can demand we can come up with a policy that after we move this they can come up with more a less, clean up the mess, and whatever is the cost for that they can get reimbursement from those who are feeding the birds and be able to get back their money. So hopefully rather than criminalizing it, damages might be able to get it then. So I'll leave it up to the author of the bill to work with the Senate."

Representative Cheape rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takayama be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. The difficulty is that, definitionally it's very insufficient. It doesn't really say what is a nuisance or doesn't give any quantification of how many. It simply says if you feed a feral bird, one bird. This is weak language and I think the discussion and strengthening should be to where when we have noise and what a nuisance is defined as. We can certainly zero in and do better on this particular measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 619, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FERAL BIRDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Evans and Hanohano voting no.

H.B. No. 1202, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 1202, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUSINESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 493, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 493, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, also with reservations probably for the same very reason. This bill says, no cruelty to animals by trap, particularly cats and dogs, but it doesn't have language tight enough. For example, in my district, people have to catch rats and mice and its broad enough the way that they defined the traps that it could be if you caught a rat or a mouse in your house you would be penalized for that and I don't think that's the intention. It needs to be tightened. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of House Bill 493, HD 1. This bill 'requires dogs or cats that are captured or killed in a snare or trap to be reported to a county animal control officer. Establishes the offense of cruelty to animals by trapping as a misdemeanor.'

"Mr. Speaker, my concern with this bill is that ordinary people not trained in animal control, should not be responsible to ID injured/dead cats or dogs and then report it to an officer.

"This bill requires that any person who sees a dog or a cat caught in a trap or snare must report the incident to an animal control officer. If the incident is not reported, a person could be fined $50.

"This bill is problematic. What if the dog or cat lashes out at you, when you approach it to check an ID tag? Also, people have a natural aversion to approaching injured animals; injured animals have a tendency to bite.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons, I rise in opposition of House Bill 493, HD 1."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 493, House Draft 1. This bill proposes to establish the offense of cruelty to animals by trapping as a misdemeanor.

"Under the current bill, it states in Section 3 that a 'person commits the offense of cruelty to animals by trapping if the person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly uses, sets, or maintains. . .(b)a snare, conibear trap, or foot- or leg-hold trap.' Later on in the bill, it defines conibear trap as a 'contrivance consisting of metal or steel designed to kill by crushing the body or severing the spinal cord of any animal.' Additionally, foot- or leg-hold trap is defined as a 'contrivance consisting of metal or steel that is off-set, padded or laminated, and is designed to capture and hold and animal by foot and limb.'

"As such, a person using mouse traps would fall under this definition of animal cruelty and would thus have committed a misdemeanor offense. The bill is not explicit in its language and requires additional details with a rodent exemption.

"For this reason, I rise with reservations on House Bill 493, House Draft 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 493, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ANIMAL CRUELTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Fale, Hanohano and McDermott voting no.

At 6:51 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 568, HD 1
H.B. No. 52, HD 1
H.B. No. 321, HD 1
H.B. No. 619, HD 1
H.B. No. 1202, HD 1
H.B. No. 493, HD 1

H.B. No. 951, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 951, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SERVICE OF PROCESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 785, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 785, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRODUCTION OF RECORDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Tokioka rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. It is true that the Senate was done at 1:00?"

The Chair then stated:

"The Senate was done at 12:50 pm today. Thank you very much."

H.B. No. 1316, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 1316, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I am a residential landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I would like to speak in favor of the bill, Mr. Speaker. This measure will help a lot of residents or tenants that are pet lovers to be able to get more landlords to rent to them. This will increase the amount of the deposit that's being asked, therefore the landlords will feel better about renting to tenants who have pets. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, potential conflict. I have a rental unit," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ward continued to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"A brief comment why I have reservations about this. There's no need to have an additional deposit. It's already built into the rent so I don't think this bill is really necessary. Thank you." [Note: Representative Ward's vote was later recoded as a no vote.]

Representative Onishi rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, potential conflict. I am a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Just once again, this will have a negative impact on young, working families, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not needed. The law of economics and the law of the market takes care of this. As I said before, if you have a home and you can rent it for $2,200. If you want to allow pets you can charge $2,400 and get that. That's $200 a month times 12, that's $2,400 in a year. So you already have a premium built in, as the Representative from Hawaii Kai said.

"Now in addition to that premium you can negotiate, in the way I read the language, maybe it's changed, an unlimited security deposit. This actually hurts the people with pets who are trying to rent. This is a well-intended idea but the market is already taking care of this, Mr. Speaker. So for those reasons I vote no."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. By reference, can I have get my speech I did on Second Reading entered in the Journal? Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, a potential conflict of interest. I own a fractional interest in real property that is being rented out. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Oshiro continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in strong support. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. My mother is a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McKelvey continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just strong support. Thanks."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and may I please get the comments of the speakers from Laie and Ewa Gentry entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. Does anyone think that if I can get $2,400 because I'm going to allow pets, that well I can get a higher security deposit so I'm going to take $200 less and just charge what everyone else is charging for a home without a pet? Of course not, Mr. Speaker. I'm still going to take the premium. I'm not going to leave it on the table, that would be foolish.

"People don't rent to people with pets. By the way, I have three dogs. People don't rent to people with pets because they don't want the hassle of cleaning the urine out of the rug, replacing the doors that the dogs chew on and all the rest. Yeah, the cost of that is covered in the security deposit but it's a hassle, that's why they don't want to go through it. That's why you can charge a premium and get people to come and they will pay the premium.

"People will not leave the premium on the table. So now they're going to get the premium and the higher security deposit. It doesn't make it easier, it makes it more difficult. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I am a renter. And I'm definitely looking for a place to rent," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Just with additional comments in opposition. Mr. Speaker, the description of what the Representative from Ewa just explained is actually the reality. My wife and I, as we look for a place to rent, there is a premium charged for places that will allow you to have a pet with you. We have just recently adopted an animal from the Humane Society and so finding a place that will rent to you without that premium is nonexistent. This will just add additional costs to young families like mine that are trying to find a place to rent.

"This actually has resulted in young families giving up their pets to the Humane Society because of an inability to pay the premiums which are charged to families with pets."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Still in support, Mr. Speaker, and I beg to differ. There are tenants out there who take care of their pets and take care of the places they rent. Not every pet owner is the same and those are the people that we look at.

"Not every landlord charges premium for tenants that have pets. I haven't done it but it will definitely make me feel better if I know I can recoup all the damages that may incur. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, a ruling on a potential conflict. Thank you. I have a rental near the military base in Kailua and I rent to tenants that have pets and I don't charge a premium because I know the military has a lot of pets and are looking for places to stay," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"The one thing I wanted to note, Mr. Speaker, is that in the lease agreement, I ask for the tenant to clean the rugs when they leave and that's never been a problem. So, anyway, either way on the bill, I'm not opposing, I'm not hugely one way or the other. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a couple of footnotes to point out how unnecessary this bill is. Number one, home ownership in Hawaii is about 49%, 50% at the max, on the mainland 69, maybe 70%. There's a lot of renters around, that's the point. We have the most expensive housing in the nation. The rent I think is maybe second or third in the nation. We need to give these guys a break because there's just so many renters around. To stick it to the renters is just not a fair way to go. I think this hurts our working families. Thank you."

H.B. No. 138, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 138, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL ESTATE SELLER DISCLOSURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 999, HD 2:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, H.B. No. 999, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 7:01 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 951, HD 1
H.B. No. 785, HD 1
H.B. No. 1316, HD 1
H.B. No. 138, HD 1
H.B. No. 999, HD 2

H.B. No. 245, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 245, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Onishi rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on conflict of interest. I am a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 245, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 457, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 457, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ichiyama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm I represent condo and community associations. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cullen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I need to request a potential conflict. I sit on a homeowner association. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 457, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ACT 326, SESSION LAWS OF HAWAII 2012, REPORTING REQUIREMENTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

H.B. No. 865, HD 1:

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know it's late so I'm not going to belabor the point, but I'm standing to vote no on this measure because I believe that school land should be used for school purposes.

"Mr. Speaker, I gave all of the Members a copy of the memo that was given to me by Legislative Reference Bureau about a bill that I co-introduced with the Chair of Education a few years ago. That bill was not enacted although a couple of years later the Senate liked it so much that they passed pretty much the identical bill. What it did was authorized the Department of Education to enter into financing agreements for public school facilities and established the Lease Payments for Schools Account.

"What this meant was you could do a public-private partnership similar to what the military has been doing to develop its new housing for the troops and you could do the same thing with schools, to develop the new schools on our school campuses.

"That Senate bill made it into law so the framework is already established, but the benefit of that process is it keeps school land for school purposes while improving the schools themselves. So, I oppose this present bill which could allow, even though it's very limited, very few number of schools, but it could allow development of school land for commercial purposes and I just don't believe that's the right way to go. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, if we obligate lease, sell, whatever to this land, once we do that we won't get it back, number one.

"Number two, I find it ironic and puzzling at the same time we're having a discussion about a universal preschool throughout the state which is going to require classrooms, we're also looking to sell classrooms. I wonder if the left hand is talking to the right hand. It is very puzzling. Also I would like to have the comments of the Representative from Kailua inserted as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Thielen and McDermott be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. As previously noted, I have checked the DNA of the PLDC and it traces directly to this one. A no vote, please."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, in support with reservations. I think it's a very worthy intent and we certainly need to fund our public schools. My main concern is just about some of the workability issues that might surround potential developments in the vicinity of the school and its property. But I think the bill has merits worth considering. Thank you."

Representative Lowen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Johanson be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you. The Committees, when they passed it out, they took out any references to Public Land Development Corporation. Any revenues generated will not go into a fund. It will not be linked to Hawaii Community Development Authority as the lead agency for redeveloping public school lands.

"But I'm sorry Members, it's late but there are so many people that stood up with reservations and opposition, I wanted to make sure we got some comments in the Journal. Basically, clearly our public school facilities, the age of them is such an important problem. Over 65 years of age. We have one school district over 260 schools. We understand now with what employers want that we have to go into our schools, we have to bring in electricity and computers and our infrastructure and our schools, to make it a good learning environment we're going to have to upgrade our facilities and it's going to cost a lot of money.

"I think there's really good intentions behind this bill. The intentions being, how do we generate income and revenues. Because a lot of us don't want to raise the GE Tax, a lot of us don't like nickel-and diming, a lot of us don't want to support gambling. So how are we going to do this?

"Based on, what I think is a very creative idea, is to look at lands that are underutilized or not utilized that are in the inventory of public school lands, and then determine if in fact can we do some type of development that can incorporate a new school, what a new school would look like, but maybe also on the land we could do some other projects, and those projects may generate revenue. So the way the bill's written, that revenue goes into a special fund and those funds will then go into our public schools.

"I think the nice thing about the bill is that we made the Department of Education as the lead agency but we definitely realized they probably don't have commercial, retail, business plan expertise in house, so they are going to have the ability to consult with other state agencies or with the private sector to be able to develop these lands. I ask that my Colleagues move this forward and keep the discussion going.

"I know that the Senate has a different version on this. The way we wrote ours is that we would only authorize up to five projects, which would force the Department of Education to come back to the Legislature in the future and say, we have a program that really works and we want authority to do more. So, thank you very much for you time."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I do know it's late and I'm sorry. Not to belabor the point, but let me address head on this question about this PLDC, and it was reference by the Representative from East Honolulu that you can kind of sense the DNA of PLDC in this bill. Well that's like saying you can sense the DNA of a kitty cat with a saber-toothed tiger, but I don't think anybody would confuse a cat with a saber-toothed tiger, Mr. Speaker.

"Here's the deal with this. If you don't support this, then you certainly don't support the concept of UH-West Oahu. In 2005, on this Floor we all voted unanimously, Mr. Speaker, both in the House and the Senate, to allow UH-West Oahu to develop for commercial purposes a portion of their land. As you all know, UH-West Oahu has about 500 acres, about 200 is going to be used for the school campus itself and the other 300 acres are currently zoned for various uses. In fact, Mr. Speaker, the UH-West Oahu campus is planning to apply to the City Council to allow them to use part of that land for a hotel. It can also be used for banking and other commercial uses.

"Here's the difference, the fundamental difference. I know sometimes some people will engage in inductive reasoning. Use deductive reasoning on this one, Mr. Speaker. It may have something to do with development. It may have something to do with public lands. It doesn't mean that it's PLDC.

"I'll give you a good example of how this would work. This bill only relates to the use of school lands. It can only be leased. You cannot sell it. There are no exemptions. As the Chair of Water & Land referenced, there is absolutely no relationship to the Housing Finance and Development Corporation. It requires the Board of Education to approve anything that goes forward.

"UH-West Oahu received no exemptions. It was a rigorous process, they had to apply for zoning, they had to apply for every building on that site and future buildings on that site like any other development project. I fail to see how this is PLDC. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support and ask that the words of the good Representative from Waimea as well as the Representative from Pearl City be entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you second time, I know, and still in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, a couple of answers. To the Chair of Water & Land, what can we do to improve the schools. Well, the military looked at that, what could they do to improve the housing for their personnel, for their troops? And they came up with the public-private partnership which has worked amazingly well throughout the island. We could do the same thing.

"And, Mr. Speaker, if I may ask, may the memo from Legislative Reference Bureau please be entered into the Journal. Thank you.

"The other, to the Chair of Education. When you're talking about West Oahu, 500 acres, that's a huge difference. Huge difference. When you're talking about a school campus and as my colleague from Ewa Bach noted, a school campus that soon will need to have junior kindergarten, pre-kindergarten classrooms on those campuses. When you're talking about that, that's a really small footprint compared to West Oahu, so that's really apples and oranges.

"The problem is, we need school campuses for school purposes. Leave PLDC out of it. Basically what we need are school campuses for school purposes. We do know tomorrow what the need will be for the junior-K. We don't know what other additional needs there will be 10 years, 15 years, 20 years down. But we don't want to lessen that school footprint and we don't want to turn it into a commercial structure on a school campus. Thank you."

MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Cynthia Thielen
Representative, 50th District

FROM: Terrence Lee TL
Research Attorney

SUBJECT: Public School Facilities Financing; Public-Private Partnerships

This memorandum responds to your request for information regarding legislation that facilitates public-private partnerships to finance public school facilities. Specifically, you wanted the Bureau to identify the following legislation introduced within the last ten years:

(1) A bill you co-introduced with Representative Roy Takumi to facilitate public-private partnerships to finance public school facilities but that failed to pass the Legislature; and

(2) A bill accomplishing the same purpose as the bill described in paragraph (1) and introduced and enacted in the year immediately following the year that the first bill was introduced.

Based on your description of the legislation, the Bureau believes that the bill you introduced with Representative Takumi was H.B. No. 800, 2005 (which you re-introduced via H.B. No. 2005, 2006), which:

(1) Established a pilot project for the financing and construction of new school facilities through public-private partnerships;

(2) Established the Public School Facility Financing Agreement Special Fund to provide funding to meet the obligations of public school facility financing agreements in cases where new school construction is not fully funded, and directed a portion of general excise tax revenues into the special fund; and

(3) Specified that the use of certificates of participation to finance the construction of new public schools when new school construction is not fully funded shall not be paid out of the Department of Education's operating budget.

It also appears that the bill that you recall becoming law in the year following the introduction of your bill is S.B. No., 1820, C.D. 1, 2007, enacted as Act 220, Session Laws of Hawaii 2007. Act 220:

(1) Authorized the Department of Education to enter into financing agreements for public school facilities, with the concurrence of the Director of Finance and the approval of the Attorney General as to form and legality; and

(2) Established the Lease Payments for Schools Account within the State Educational Facilities Improvement Special Fund (now codified in section 36-32(b), Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS)), for lease payments on new schools pursuant to Department of Education financing agreements.

The bills described in this memorandum are attached for your reference.

In addition, the Bureau notes the following Hawaii statutes that are relevant to your inquiry:

(1) Section 302A-1506, HRS, authorizes the Department of Education to enter into contracts, leases, lease-purchase agreements, or other transactions to acquire public school facilities, including lands for the facilities, on terms that the department deems appropriate with the concurrence of the Director of Finance;

(2) Section 302A-1508, HRS, establishes the Education Design and Construction Project Assessment Fund to defray the costs of Department of Education construction projects and associated costs, using moneys from assessments collected from the construction projects; and

(3) Chapter 302A, Part VI, Subpart B (section 302A-1601 through section 302A-1612, HRS), establishes school impact fees for land developers to provide their proportionate share of the land and the construction cost of new or expanded school facilities needed to serve new residential developments.

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with slight reservations. The first thing I want to do is just say I think this is a very creative bill. I like the idea, I think it was a good idea that was brought up last year that was maybe filled with some other things that weren't so good.

"What I like particularly about this is that there is some opportunity for the community to give input and there's an opportunity to make sure that whatever is developed on those school lands will help education. I think particularly for my district, which I don't actually think that my district will make one of these five here, but we're always looking for new ways to make our schools better and I think this is a good opportunity.

"One thing in particular, we've been looking for a performing arts center for a very, very long time. So if this even an opportunity to possibly get that moving, I'd like us to continue to consider this. My reservations are just that I have not had the opportunity to fully vet this with my community. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'm one of those Representatives who voted against PLDC and the concerns that I had relating to PLDC was that it bypassed some city and county processes. It lacked community input. The third thing was it allowed PLDC to sell public lands.

"Those components are not in this bill and I would like to really thank the Water & Land Chair, the Education Chair and the Finance Committee members and the two respective Committee members for sitting through the long hearings and coming out with this draft. It's really due to the efforts of both the Water & Land Chair and the Education Chair to strip out portions of HCDA which actually had problematic language and which would have given them far more broad discretion over what to do with school property.

"As related by both the Water & Land Chair and the Education Chair, there are a lot of underutilized school facilities and school lands that we need to maximize. There are huge backlogs in repair and maintenance that we need to do which we just don't have a handle on. This is a creative way for us to kind of move forward and take care of our schools. So, thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, speaking in opposition. Mr. Speaker, queuing off of the last speaker using the term underutilized schools really hit the button of the changing demographics of many of our districts. In fact, many of our districts now and in the future will be on this closure list. The small schools where actually classrooms are probably what they should be with 1 to 10 or 15 students per teacher are going to be probably pushed a little forward when the DOE comes and says that we're looking at your school possibly for closure.

"It happened in my district, it happened in Kalihi with Puuhale. If they find a higher and better use of your school than having the kids in it, DOE's got a list of school closure conferences for every year, this bill would be a perfect fit for that.

"Now I know we've eliminated references to the PLDC. I no longer have my right hand on my microphone but my finger prints are still there and this bill still has the finger prints of the PLDC.

"Second point. The human cry of America, the human cry of Hawaii is for better education. We've got to keep the schools fixed, but the issue is student achievement. There's an inverse correlation between money in the school and school achievement.

"So if we think because if we do this we're going to suddenly get bright kids coming out of it, I think we missed the point. There's not a correlation that does that. We have to keep safe schools but parental involvement is important. Good teachers with good teacher pay that have contracts, community involvement and then a safe and secure school is obviously important.

"But to say that this is the best way to already supplement the $2 billion budget for DOE, I think is miss-focusing on what really the issue is and why we are again 34th in the nation. It's not because we haven't rented out school land or leased the land. It's because we haven't fixed the system of which now we're playing around on the edges. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 865, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SCHOOL REDEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Fale, Ing, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no.

At 7:19 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1287, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 1287, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to cast a no vote on this and to please say a few comments, very much in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I was hoping that this bill would be recommitted. What it will do is allow any corner liquor store, any other operation that is selling a product where you need to be 18 or 21 to be able to buy the product and it's saying it doesn't matter how old you look they're going to be able to scan your identification, which means your driver's license.

"In talking with computer specialists, computer gurus, they said for identity theft, the thief only needs four key pieces of information. Your name, your address, social security and your birth date. When the corner liquor store scans your driver's license, and this is everyone in this room, it doesn't matter, even though most of us look older than 21, it's for everyone in this room. You go in to buy a six-pack of beer and the corner liquor store scans your driver's license, they'll get three of the four pieces that they need for identity theft. That's a jackpot, according to the computer specialist.

"They say, how good is the security at the corner liquor store? Is that information going to be able to be grabbed by someone? It's going to be sitting on their server and we know how those get hacked into. So, on the social security number how many of you have been asked, well you now have it really in shorthand, how many of you have been asked 'last four of your social?' Macy's asks it, Oceanic, you call up on something, Hawaiian Telcom, any of them. 'Last four of your social?' They don't ask for your birth date, but they've got the last four. I was told by one of my colleagues tonight, I didn't even know this, that if a person knows your year of birth and where you were born they're going to know your first three numbers without much effort. That just leaves the two center numbers.

"So identity theft will be really spurred on by this measure where the corner liquor store and any other operation can scan your driver's license and keep that personal information. I talked to Dennis Kamimura, City and County, Head of the Licensing Division, and his first comment was, 'is that still alive?' meaning the bill. And I said, unfortunately.

"He told me that, and so did one of the computer specialists, told me that Hawaii already does something that makes it incredibly easy for a clerk in a liquor store to know whether or not you're a minor. They don't need to add or subtract. Now, given that it could be difficult for some to be able to say, okay you were born on this date now how old are you? They don't even have to do that. Most of us, all of us, in this room, have drivers licenses that are, I don't know what the term is, sort of perpendicular to the floor. This is the driver's license that we have. The city and county licensing bureau for minors issue what's called a portrait license, it looks like this. So number one, that clerk knows you have a license that read this way, that's a minor or could be.

"Dennis Kamimura also said, and I have a copy of it, right on the face of the portrait style license it says that you are 18, or you're not going to be 21, and it gives a specific date. 21st and then here it is, February 12, 2013, fine you're 21 on that date. It also has it for 18 right under it. So right now on your portrait license the clerk will be able to read right on the face of the license what's the actual date that person becomes 18, what's the actual date that person becomes 21. The rest of us, all of us in this room, have licenses that read this way and the clerk will know automatically, okay that person is an adult."

Representative Fukumoto rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

"So, it's such a dangerous bill. I know I'm getting rather heated about it but identity theft is ripe in this state, we know that. What this bill will do is say to any corner liquor store, scan the personal information. With the portrait driver's license we don't need to do that. We frankly don't need to do that. So I don't think the risk is worth it. And Dennis Kamimura of the City Licensing Division, I'm sure will be following this measure if it makes it over in the Senate and explaining to the Senators, why risk the identity theft? Why do this?

"And Mr. Speaker, last four of your social? You give it out a lot, you give it out a lot. So, when you go in to buy a six-pack, they'll know your full name, they'll know your birth date, they'll know your address. And then they call, get in to Macy's or Oceanic or the other systems, they'll know the last four of your social. That's no big deal, it's out there everywhere and they'll know if they find out where you are born, they know your age, they'll know your first three, so they're home free. There's your identity theft. It's a bad bill and I would hope that we could recommit it. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I almost regret my conversation with the Representative from Kailua earlier. Ideally the technology will be only where your date of birth will be given when you scan, if we have that capability technology wise.

"But while I was listening to the impassioned speech I went onto Google at whitepages.com and I inserted the name of the Representative from Kailua and right now we have her street address and her known associates, her telephone number. I didn't even ask but it gave us a map to her house. It has her age, which is not important, but she is a Virgo with an earth sign ruled by the planet Mercury. The only thing missing, Mr. Speaker, was a picture of a hemp leaf with a thumbs up sign. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I think this is a measure where it offers very little benefit with a big risk. I just would like to point out that not every liquor store, according to this bill, is mandated to do it. So it's optional. However if I need to buy my booze I will do everything I can to avoid that liquor store that scans my driver's license. So there is some negative impact to certain businesses, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. My support comes from, although I care about identity theft, but most markets are very concerned about getting their customers through. They invest a lot of money on these scanners and the scanner helps them catch these people who are under age. So I really think that we have to think about them. They spend a tremendous amount of money for this machine. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Onishi rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a conflict of interest. My wife owns a business that might be affected," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Onishi then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations. While I do appreciate the concerns and I share them of the speaker from Kailua, also in deference to the speaker from Waikiki, if we're really serious about this we should look at restaurants where you give your credit card to a server, they disappear for a few minutes and come back with it. You'll find that many people have been victims of identity theft through that including our late Senator Daniel Inouye. Thank you."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Brower be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1287, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PERSONAL INFORMATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, McDermott, Ohno, Oshiro, Thielen and Ward voting no.

H.B. No. 1443, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 1443, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At 7:30 o'clock p.m., Representative Cachola requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 8:05 o'clock p.m., with Speaker Souki presiding.

Representative Cachola rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola's written remarks are as follows:

"I am speaking in strong support of H.B. 1443 HD 1, the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund Bill. The intent of H.B. 1443 HD 1 is to prepare Hawaii in the event of a hurricane hitting Hawaii (God Forbid).

"In 1992 the destruction caused by Hurricane Iniki resulted in an estimated $1,600,000,000 in insured property losses to various areas of the State. The HHRF was created under Act 339 immediately after Hurricane Iniki, to ensure that Hawaii property owners would have access to property insurance.

"To address this difficult situation, in 1994, I introduced what is now Act 32 which resulted in $230 million in savings. Kauai Legislators, namely Representative Ezra Kanoho, Representative Bertha Kawakami and Senator Lehua F. Salling, who represented the hardest hit areas of Hurricane Iniki, strongly supported the HHRF policies. The HHRF set up a plan totaling $1.6 billion to pay for property damage. This $1.6 billion covered 2/3 of homes statewide. Now, it is estimated to only cover about 2000 homes statewide.

"Also, in 1996, I introduced H.B. 4142, which proposed an amendment to the State Constitution to authorize the HHRF to float revenue bonds to finance the $1.6 billion. This required 2/3 votes of the House and the Senate. The House of Representatives passed this measure with all 51 members voting 'aye'. The Senate also passed this measure with all 25 members voting 'aye'. The proposed amendment was put on the 1996 general election ballot and 234,436 or about 64% of the voters were in favor of this measure.

"I have added a copy of the results from the 1996 Legislative voting in favor of H.B. 4142 as well, the results of the Constitutional Amendment, which the people of Hawaii voted to pass. The voice of the 1996 Legislature and voters were reflected in their support in favoring the funding of the HHRF.

"Now, today, another opportunity to fund the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund presents itself in H.B. 1443 HD 1. By updating the amount put into the relief's funds pool, we can prevent the scrambling and calling upon of the Members of this House to solve the problem in the middle of a hurricane crisis. Let us update the HHRF while we are in session, thereby saving taxpayers their hard earned money. It is incumbent on us to fund the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund and take care of the needs of the property owners of our State.

"H.B. 1443 HD 1 is still a bill in progress and we will clearly demonstrate the following:

1. This bill does not intend to set up an insurance company that would compete with the private insurance market.

2. This bill will not create an unfair competitive advantage that is not available to private insurers nor create a path to make the HHRF a major player on the insurance market.

3. The HHRF is only a back-up to protect Hawaii from a situation in which insurance companies, once again, run away from insuring Hawaii's property owners in the event another hurricane occurs.

"I ask you to please vote in support of H.B. 1443 HD 1."

Representative Say rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to state my opposition to H.B. 1443, HD 1, Relating to the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund.

"On page 4, Section 2, lines 13-15 of the bill, there is discussion of HHRF acting as a private entity. This particular language could jeopardize the tax exempt status of HHRF, which is based on HHRF being seen by the IRS as an integral part of the State of Hawaii.

"Section 5, page 7 of the bill reactivates the special mortgage recording fee. Members of the House please understand that the HHRF has no staff and cannot process the fee. Also note that this reactivation will impose administrative burdens on the Bureau of Conveyance.

"It is for these reasons that I oppose this measure and hope that if it passes, that corrective actions will be made to address the concerns mentioned above.

"A VOICE OF REASON."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition to House Bill 1443 HD 1, which authorizes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund to conduct itself as a private entity to participate in the insurance market.

"Initially, this idea was worth consideration because it fulfilled the Legislature's promise to recapitalize the Hurricane Relief Fund, returning the monies taken in previous sessions. It also appeared to be a creative approach that deserved further consideration by the Legislature.

"However, a full review of the consequences of the measure revealed that the measure also reactivates the mortgage fee previously assessed on every mortgage issue. When active, the fee was 1/10th of 1 percent, which ends up significantly increasing the cost of housing, particularly when homes are running an average of $700,000 or more in my district.

"While I still support recapitalizing the Hurricane Relief Fund, we must do it without increasing costs to homebuyers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 1443, HD 1. According to the bill description, this bill 'authorizes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund to conduct itself as a private entity to participate in the insurance market. Reactivates the special mortgage recording fee. Replenishes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund.'

"Lloyd Lim, the acting Director of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund (HHRF) submitted the following testimony regarding problems with the language of the bill:

'In Section 2 of the bill at page 4, lines 13-15, there is discussion of HHRF acting as private entity. This language could jeopardize the tax exempt status of HHRF which is based on HHRF being seen by the IRS as an integral part of the State of Hawaii. In addition, we do not think this language is necessary to achieve HHRF's goals.'

'Section 5 of the bill at page 7 reactivates the special mortgage recording fee. We note that HHRF has no staff and cannot process the fee. Also, please note that this reactivation imposes administrative burdens on the bureau of conveyances.'

"Mr. Speaker, in addition, Alison Powers of the Hawaii Insurers Council submitted testimony in opposition to the HB 1443. Powers commented that, the 'Hawaii Insurers Council opposes this bill. This bill authorizes the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund (HHRF) to compete with the personal lines hurricane insurance market. This bill also provides HHRF with certain advantages not available to the private market including, funding from state appropriations, funding from the special mortgage recording fee, and politically controlled rates either through a rate reduction or maintaining them at their existing level when the HHRF has secured from the federal government, financial institutions and/or the issuance of revenue bonds in an amount to be determined by the legislators.'

"For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to House Bill 1443, HD 1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1443, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HURRICANE RELIEF FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 27 ayes to 24 noes, with Representatives Carroll, Cheape, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Fale, Fukumoto, Hanohano, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ito, Johanson, Jordan, Kawakami, McDermott, Oshiro, Say, Takayama, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward and Yamashita voting no.

At 8:10 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1327, HD 1
H.B. No. 1257, HD 1
H.B. No. 1287, HD 1
H.B. No. 1443, HD 1

At 8:10 o'clock p.m., Representative Saiki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

"SECTION 1. House Bill No. 411, H.D. 2, section 2, is amended by deleting lines 1 to 4 on page 5.

The religiously affiliated hospital or hospital bound by a religious or ethical directive shall be responsible for the costs associated with transportation to the health care facility or provider of the survivor's choice. A hospital that is exempt under this subsection shall inform the sexual assault survivor that she will not be held responsible for the costs associated with transportation to the health care facility or provider of the survivor's choice.""

Representative Fale moved that Floor Amendment No. 6 be adopted, seconded by Representative McDermott.

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Floor Amendment Number 6. I rise in support of this amendment because it is a genuinely fair compromise being offered to the proponents of this measure. Before I get started, I want to be clear that I support House Bill 411 as the intent of the bill is certainly commendable. No woman should ever have to be subject to the horrific crime of rape and it is clear that we need protections to be made for the most vulnerable members of our society.

"I am proposing this Floor Amendment and wish to insert this exemption or conscience clause, Mr. Speaker. For a moment I'd like to talk about the conscience part of the conscience clause. As a young soldier serving in the Middle East, one of the first cases that landed on my desk was of a soldier that belonged to my own unit who had died in theater. Shortly thereafter, two other cases followed. They were two soldiers, one 18 and one 22. Shortly thereafter came another case of a soldier who wanted to abandon his military service under the conscientious objector clause.

"In the United States military, once you feel that you can no longer be part of the military because you conscientiously object to being part of the military or participating in combat, the military allows you to leave. I flew into a rage, Mr. Speaker, because how could a soldier who had taken an oath, who had received the investment of thousands of dollars, abandon his brothers and sisters in combat."

Representative Hashem rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. The bill that addresses emergency contraceptives, not the war in Iraq."

The Chair addressed Representative Fale, stating:

"Representative, if you can stick to the measure, please."

Representative Fale continued, stating:

"I'm directing my remarks directly regarding the conscience part of the amendment which I am proposing, which I believe this is very relevant to.

"Now the reason why this is important is, is I also have a neighbor, who because of their religious beliefs, would never take up arms to defend this country or anybody with the use of violence.

"Now, Mr. Speaker, the reason why we do that is because the foundation of this nation was we believe in protecting the conscience of the people who live here. And we will go to any measure because of the sacred nature of our conscience.

"Now I, after the incident, I sat down with my commanding officer and we had a long conversation about what exactly it means to be in the United States Military and what it means to protect those who have a certain belief and who possess a conscience that may be contrary to what I may believe.

"I am proposing this Floor Amendment which offers a compromise, a compromise, Mr. Speaker, by simply requiring hospitals under a religious mandate to stabilize the rape victim and to transport that victim the nearest hospital or a hospital of the victim's choice and to pay for that transportation. This compromise is not unusual or novel. In fact it occurs every day at our hospitals when a patient is brought into a hospital. It is called triage, Mr. Speaker. Often when a patient is brought into a hospital, he or she will be transported immediately to another hospital after being stabilized because the patient's injuries requires specialized medical treatment which the hospital to which the patient is transferred is able to address.

"Mr. Speaker, this Floor Amendment goes above and beyond the concept of triage by requiring the hospital under a religious mandate to pay for transportation costs to the nearest hospital or a hospital of the victim's choice, where the emergency contraceptive can be administered. This amendment puts the onus on the hospital to pay for the transportation cost of the victim which does not usually occur with triage."

Representative Johanson rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale continued, stating:

"Therefore, this represents a good faith compromise, Mr. Speaker. This good faith compromise allows us to care for the needs of the victim as well as protecting the sacred conscience, which I believe this nation was founded on protecting. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of this reasonable and very fair compromise and ask my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, the First Amendment states, 'Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion.' We do a good job in that regard. Can't even say a prayer at a high school graduation. We're pretty diligent about that. 'Or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.' There's a comma after 'establishment of a religion' comma 'or prohibiting the free exercise thereof' another comma. It means it's an independent thought, Mr. Speaker. This is the First Amendment. It's germane to the bill, trust me.

"The wall of separation must be high and impenetrable. Mr. Speaker, we're intruding into religious oriented hospitals or hospitals that operate under religious directives. We're intruding because they offer their services not just to their own believers of their own flock, but to everyone. They're being penalized because they offer care to everyone. If they only offered it to people of their own faith we wouldn't be having this discussion. But because they open it up as a ministry, we're penalizing them. We're telling them, your beliefs don't matter.

"You're going to hear, Mr. Speaker, that there's 200 Catholic hospitals nationwide that do this. Well I looked into it. They don't do it because they want to and I don't even know if the number 200 is right, but I know hospitals in Massachusetts and Wisconsin and Connecticut were victims of their state legislatures just like we're going to be attacking religious institutions today.

"Mr. Speaker, this amendment is good because it's going to disabuse me of this notion. It's going to disabuse me of the notion that we're going after religious orientated caregivers. Why do I have that notion. The reason I have that notion was Planned Parenthood in their testimony said, in 2010 they did a survey. 26 emergency rooms, 23 of them gave emergency contraception. That means there were 3 in 2010 that didn't, 2 of them are now closed. That's one hospital in the entire state and one more that might open up.

"That's why this measure's here, because somebody who doesn't even live out there wants to make St. Francis West, which would be the new Queen's West, do this. Even though they have covenance with the nuns when they sold them the property or the agreement they entered into that they would abide by Catholic healthcare directives.

"So this underlying measure, now if we pass the amendment I'm wrong. You've disabused me of the notion. But that is why we need the amendment.

"Mr. Speaker, if you talk to an ambulance driver, as I did, you ask him, on Oahu anyway, where do you take them? Well we take them to Kapiolani or Queen's trauma center if they've been beaten up and badly abused. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not needed. Currently, based on Planned Parenthood's own testimony, there's only one place in this state that doesn't offer it. And we're going to pass a piece of legislation because we don't like the way they think. They believe in some fairy dust, some spooky stuff. Mr. Speaker, it is Catholic doctrine and I'll speak to it later. Thank you, sir."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this Floor Amendment as impractical. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, I oppose this Floor Amendment as impractical and far more traumatizing to the sexual assault victim whom this bill intends to protect as a general matter. The interactions immediately following the assault are critical. The transfer to another facility or provider could further traumatize a victim and have a number of adverse effects.

"This proposed amendment does not fully consider the consequences of transport and should be opposed. Transportation in a timely manner does not satisfy the urgency required in these circumstances and it does not guarantee that the survivor will receive the medications within the recommended time period according to best accepted practice.

"Pregnancy prevention is a time sensitive issue as emergency contraception is most effective when taken within 72 hours following an assault. In some cases a survivor may present at a hospital where there is simply no time to ensure the safe transfer of a patient to another facility to obtain emergency contraception.

"The proposed amendment provides only for transportation to another facility or provider. It does not make any provisions for the survivor to get back from that other facility or provider. In this session when we were talking about the potential privatization of our neighbor island hospitals, this becomes a very important financial aspect that we need to consider. A survivor could be taken miles from their home, across oceans, away from their communities, and have no physical or financial means to get back.

"The proposed amendment does not ensure that the patient will be taken to a facility or provider who can and will provide the emergency contraception upon arrival, hence, you could have a sex assault victim bounced from emergency room to emergency room.

"If a registered patient is transported from one hospital emergency department to another hospital emergency department, there will be financial consequences in addition to the cost of transportation. A patient cannot be registered and billed for emergency services in two emergency departments on the same day for the same presenting issue, which in this case would be the administration of emergency contraception. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I oppose this amendment and urge my colleagues to oppose it as well. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Currently only about one-third of the states have a law on emergency contraceptives and 13 of those states do allow health care providers to refuse to provide services. Now, 3 of those states are not particularly conservative states. Washington State provides a conscience clause that states that no individual health care provider, religiously sponsored health care carrier or health care facility may be required by law or contract in any circumstances to participate in the provision of or payment for a specific service if they object.

"Maine also states that, no private institution or physician or no agent or employee of such an institution or physician shall be prohibited from refusing to provide family planning services when such a refusal is based upon religious or conscientious objection.

"Finally, Illinois has the exact same conscience clause that we're discussing right now that requires hospitals that refuse to provide emergency contraception to transfer those patients to another facility. So I do believe that there is precedent that this can work. It allows people to refuse.

"On a more personal note, Mr. Speaker, I have actually taken people to the hospital here in Hawaii and had them be refused. And it is a very, very horrible experience, I don't think anybody's doubting that. But at the end of the day we do need to protect religious freedom and we do also need to protect our rape victims. I think this is a very good way to go about doing it. That hospital where this person was rejected was not a religious hospital, they just simply did not have the time to treat her.

"So I think if we have the opportunity to put a measure through that will get those hospitals who do not object to make sure that they follow a good plan and take care of our victims properly, then we can afford to put in a clause like this that's going to take care of those hospitals that do have concerns and they will be responsible to make sure the patients get good, compassionate care. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment. I don't believe we should make Jews eat pork or make Muslims agree to same sex marriage. I think that's their freedom to be who they are. So what's wrong with letting Catholics be Catholics. That's why they put it in the Constitution, the freedom to worship, the freedom to act out your faith in action.

"Mr. Speaker, this is a reasonable compromise and those who have been here for the last 20 years know that this is déjà vu all over again. We go through this every year and both sides are so intractable, so unmoving and so uncompromising. And today is another reasonable compromise. I commend the Representative from Laie who has come up with something entirely different that over the last many, many session debates we never had this one where you basically give them triage and then you send them on to the next one. This is a reasonable compromise, Mr. Speaker.

"But this is also being fought on the national level between the Catholic Church and the Obama Administration regarding the same issue. Mr. Speaker, this is one way we can solve it at the local level. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the Floor Amendment. Just briefly, I'm trying to give a different perspective here. As the Representative of the 42nd District we do have one hospital that serves our constituency on the west side and it was an absolute travesty when HMC West went defunct. So many of our constituents on the west side were really in peril given the fact that we did not now have an emergency care facility servicing people in West Oahu.

"That being said, Mr. Speaker, I have grave concerns about the current measure and that's why I am supporting the Floor Amendment, because of the ramifications that the underlying bill could have upon the opening of Queen's West. Understanding the fact that there are restrictive covenants that run with the land, and yes, there are arguments that can be made but we are talking also about First Amendment issues.

"So, we don't want to see this bill struck down. This is a good measure. But all we're asking for, for those of us from the west side, we have concerns because if in any way this law impedes the opening of Queen's West, this would again hurt the residents of West Oahu. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I support this amendment. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in support. Mr. Speaker, this is a constitutionally protected right. In this Body we often hear about all sorts of rights, imagined rights, created rights, all sorts of rights all over the place that are never found anywhere.

"Here's one clearly articulated with two commas, which means it's an independent thought, it stands on its own, Mr. Speaker. And then someone said, well for the greater good we'll toss that aside, the greater good. God forbid that your rights would inconvenience someone else, but boy oh boy, I see a lot of imaginary rights around this place and here's a real right that's right there.

"We don't need to confuse the horrific crime of rape and abuse and molestation and everything else and trample on someone's rights. On Oahu you're talking about a 15 minute ride. I mean that's what you're talking about. As a matter of course, the ambulances don't even take them there right now. But this is targeted. This amendment will disabuse me of the notion, if we pass it, that this is targeted at the new hospital that's going to open on the west side, as I believe that's what it does.

"I will save my comments. Mr. Speaker, at the appropriate time I would like to ask for a roll call vote. Thank you."

At this time, Representative McDermott requested a roll call vote.

The Chair then Stated:

"There has been a call for a roll call. Clerk, can you check if there are enough votes for a roll call. All those in favor of the roll call, please raise your right hand. Clerk, is there a sufficient number?"

The Clerk then stated:

"Mr. Speaker, we count only 7."

The request for roll call was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands, the request was denied.

Speaker Souki: "You are short, the motion dies for a roll call. So going to the main action now."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 6, amending H.B. No. 411, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOSPITAL EMERGENCY COMPASSIONATE CARE FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIMS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representative Belatti voting no.

(Main Motion)

At this time, Representative McDermott offered Floor Amendment No. 7, amending H.B. No. 411, HD 2 as follows:

"SECTION 1. House Bill No. 411, H.D. 2, section 1, is amended by deleting lines 12 to 14 in their entirety and line 15 partially, so that the last paragraph on page 1 reads as follows:

"The provision of emergency contraception to sexual assault victims is the most widely recognized and accepted standard of care for sexual assault victims. The American Medical Association and the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists have stated that sexual assault victims should be informed about and provided emergency contraception. However, a 2010 survey of emergency facilities in Hawaii revealed a lack of clear policy on the issue."

SECTION 2. House Bill No. 411, H.D. 2, section 2, is amended by renumbering §321-B (d) to §321-B(e) at line 10, page 5.

SECTION 3. House Bill No. 411, H.D. 2, section 2, is amended by inserting the following at line 10, page 5:

"(d) This section shall not require any individual to discuss, perform, or assist in the discussion or performance of any part of the activities required herein if such discussion or activity would be contrary to the individual's religious beliefs or moral convictions."

Representative McDermott moved that Floor Amendment No. 7 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As promised I did not speak most of the day and that was as a courtesy to you sir, because I knew that I'd be talking here on this one, so I saved my energy.

"Mr. Speaker, the amendment, if you go to the first page, removes lines 12 through 15, essentially. 'Emergency contraception is not an abortion pill nor does it cost any abortive process to take place.' That's an inaccurate statement, Mr. Speaker. Well, it's only inaccurate if you believe the FDA labels. Of course, the FDA could be in a conspiracy against me, I don't know but I doubt it. 'Emergency contraception is a safe and effective means of preventing pregnancy after a sexual assault.'

"Mr. Speaker, in this bill we are unilaterally redefining the meaning of pregnancy. We are stating an absolute and definitive position of something that is not agreed to by entire society. A major problem in this debate is the manipulation of terms and we hear the manipulation of language all day long, particularly in politics. People change words to mean different things and when the term no longer has a good meaning they change it. I could give you examples but they'd be inflammatory and wouldn't build any good will, so I'm not going to do it.

"The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and abortion advocacy groups, long ago endorsed a change in definitions of conception and pregnancy to confuse the issue instead of equating conception with fertilization and seeing the woman as pregnant if her body contains a living, developing embryo. They now equate conception with pregnancy and with implantation of the embryo. In short, it used to be as soon as you conceived, you were pregnant. Now that's not the deal anymore. You can conceive, but until it gets implantation you're not pregnant. As to assume that there's actually some value to the fertilized egg that's implanted, because the same people are saying, well it's okay to abort that.

"The problem here, Mr. Speaker, is if we call them pregnant. Mr. Speaker, if we call them pregnant, then you can't use this drug because the hospitals are protected by conscience clause federally. That's why Catholic hospitals don't do abortions. So to change the language so this isn't classified as an abortifacient, we say, well you're not pregnant now until you're implanted. That's new to me, Mr. Speaker. I didn't even know that until two weeks ago when I started digging here. I always thought life begins at conception. Well it does and if somebody can prove to me that life doesn't being at conception, I'll walk out right now, I'll turn in my keys. But you can't.

"But, Mr. Speaker, it's not just me who believes pregnancy begins at conception. Webster's Dictionary, and I quote, 'process of human gestation that takes place inside the female's body as the fetus develops from fertilization to birth.' You all got your computer go ahead and Google it, Webster's Online Dictionary, pregnancy. That's what it says."

The Chair addressed Representative McDermott, stating:

"Representative McDermott, will you please stick to the amendment. The language that you have in the bill, please."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Well I am talking about the amendment. I did look away which was out of order. But pregnancy, well the language in the amendment, we are changing the way we define pregnancy, Mr. Speaker, unilaterally. It's not a commonly held term and it's only being put forward by the pro-abortion advocates. Mr. Speaker, I've heard of the immaculate conception, but I have yet to hear of the immaculate implantation."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative McDermott, the issue is making an exception. You're speaking to make an exception to the hospitals that they would want an exception from the bill from the main measure."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"No I'm not, Mr. Speaker. I'm speaking on the amendment which removes the language that defines pregnancy as what it's not. That's the amendment."

At 8:45 o'clock p.m., Representative McDermott requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 8:47 o'clock p.m.

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the point of this whole exercise here, is to say that emergency contraception, I'm amending this to take this language out. That's the amendment. And I'm explaining the reason why I'm taking it out. It's not contraception because people believe that they're pregnant.

"But let's go on to religious exemption because I seem to have struck a nerve there. Mr. Speaker, why should people, now this is individuals, now we're talking about individuals, not institutions, Mr. Speaker. We're talking about individuals who request a religious exemption. I'm thinking about the new facility, the old St. Francis West, whatever you call, out there in Ewa Beach.

"I'm thinking about a first generation immigrant who is a nurse, or a nurse's aide who is working there, and she doesn't know our country very well but she is a devout Catholic. I can see her in my mind's eye, Mr. Speaker. And she doesn't want to do this but she's not told she can't and there's no religious exemption for her. So she has a choice. She could violate her faith and do this. And the reason she violates her faith, Mr. Speaker, is because the Catholic Church says life begins at conception and that's the doctrine."

Representative Johanson rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"That's the doctrine. So there's no religious exemption for the institution. We've just thrown that away. So now we're asking for a religious institution, a conscience exemption for an employee who works there, says I don't want to do this. We can't even do that, Mr. Speaker.

"We've got the United States Constitution that guarantees us free exercise of religion, we can't do that. Oh, we're told in the hearings, oh you can go to the EEOC and file a complaint. Like a first generation American, English is her second language, even knows what the EEOC is or where it's located? They're not going to do that, Mr. Speaker, they don't want to jeopardize their job. They've got to pay their bills.

"But in our arrogance, in our hubris, we know what's better for them. We're going to tell them what to do, when to do it, we're going to redefine pregnancy, we're not going to give them a conscience clause and we're going to step on their religious freedom, their liberty."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative McDermott, you need to get to the exception that you requested."

Representative McDermott continued, stating:

"Well I'm talking about the conscience clause, Mr. Speaker. That we're not giving it to them and that's in here. The bill is talking about a conscience clause. We did not give the institution, now we're giving it to the person. If you work in a facility and you don't want to do it, why must you participate in this activity when you have all sorts of rights manufactured, made up, all over the place. We debate them all the time. Here's one explicitly guaranteed in the Constitution and we will not, will not do it because political correctness is the new fascism of the day, we're being swallowed alive by it. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just briefly in support. Mr. Speaker, for the same reasons, I have concerns, again without understanding what the underlying bill, what the impact would be to the new Queen's West Hospital and to the residents of West Oahu. I support the Floor Amendment.

"But finally, Mr. Speaker, at the beginning of session, the Majority touted bipartisanship and reaching across the aisle to work with our Minority colleagues. Here we've had Floor Amendments introduced by the Minority which represent compromise and working across the aisle. Yet it seems as if the term 'bipartisanship' may have been lip service and used for convenience sake. Here we have the opportunity to show the spirit of true bipartisanship."

The Chair addressed Representative Har, stating:

"Representative, that's not quite appropriate."

Representative Har: "Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Souki: "That's going beyond personal, but please proceed."

Representative Har continued, stating:

"So, Mr. Speaker, in the spirit of compromise we can make a great bill even better. Accordingly, in the spirit of good faith, compromise and true bipartisanship I ask my colleagues to support the Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I understand the hour is late. I just would like to rise in opposition and I'll reserve my comments for written comments for the Journal, but I did want to note that there is opposition to the Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Floor Amendment #7.

"Floor Amendment #7 would insert a clause into HB 411 HD 2 that would exempt certain individuals and organizations from providing emergency contraception because of their religious beliefs. A hospital's religious objection must not precede a rape survivor's access to timely and comprehensive treatment. After experiencing one of the most traumatic events imaginable, survivors deserve access to high-quality, standard care that includes access to emergency contraception.

"Several hospitals in Hawaii currently refuse to offer information about or provide emergency contraception to sexual assault survivors. It is unconscionable that Hawaii women would be denied information and access to emergency contraception after going through the unimaginable trauma of rape. Regardless of religious affiliation, emergency rooms are ethically and morally obligated to offer the best care available. Provision of emergency contraception is the accepted standard of care for rape survivors and religious objections cannot be allowed to stand against the urgent needs of the victim. This amendment would have serious consequences by allowing hospitals to choose their own standards for treating rape survivors, resulting in inconsistent treatment.

"For these reasons I am in opposition to Floor Amendment #7 and urge my colleges to also vote no."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"I also rise in opposition, but because the hour is late and I know that there's further debate I will also submit written comments. Thank you."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in opposition to Floor Amendment No. 7 to House Bill 411, House Draft 2.

"First, removal of the language in the purpose section of House Bill 411, House Draft 2 does not comport with what is known and widely accepted about emergency contraception within the medical and scientific community. As explained by Dr. Sandra Reznik, associate professor at St. John's University in New York, in her 2010 article entitled 'Plan B: How it Works,' science shows that emergency contraception is 'not an abortifacent' and that Levonorgestrel or Plan B is 'by wide agreement within the scientific community, the most effective emergency contraceptive agent available.'

"Dr. Reznik's article is attached here as further support for the statement in the purpose section that the Floor Amendment seeks to remove. Second, the religious exemption sought for individuals by the Floor Amendment is unnecessary insofar as federal constitutional provisions currently provide and require reasonable accommodations by an employer for an individual's religious beliefs."

Representative Belatti also submitted the following article:

EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTION

'PLAN B:' HOW IT WORKS

Science shows it is not an abortifacient

BY SANDRA E. REZNIK, MD, PH.D.

Emergency contraception, that is, any of a number of methods to prevent pregnancy after coitus, has become more effective and certainly easier to obtain in recent years. Levonorgestrel, also known as "Plan B," is, by wide agreement within the scientific community, the most effective emergency contraceptive agent available and, for women 18 or older, can now be obtained without a prescription. Confusion about this agent's mechanism of action has fueled debate among some non-medical people, however: Does Plan B act only as a contraceptive or also as an abortifacient?

Unfortunately, there has not been adequate emphasis on how Plan B differs from the emergency contraceptive agents that preceded it, and scientifically unsupported wording on its package insert has increased misconceptions about how Plan B works. Unlike its predecessors such as mifepristone (also known as RU486), levonorgestrel acts to prevent pregnancy before, and only before, fertilization occurs.

The purpose of this article is to review the evidence for how levonorgestrel prevents pregnancy.

We know that several events must occur for a pregnancy to begin and then to be maintained. Sperm must enter the cervix and travel up the uterine canal to the fallopian tube, which is the site of fertilization. An egg cell, or oocyte, must be released from the ovary by a process known as ovulation, and a sperm cell must unite with the oocyte by the process known as fertilization. Finally, the fertilized oocyte must develop into an early embryo, known as a blastocyst, and become implanted in the uterus. So entrance of sperm into the cervix and ovulation precede fertilization, whereas development of the blastocyst and implantation follow it.

The debate surrounding Plan B, therefore, is focused on whether this agent affects only ovulation and the entrance of sperm into the cervix, i.e. prefertilization events, or if it also affects the development of the embryo and implantation, i.e. post-fertilization events.

To begin with, levonorgestrel is an artificial progestin — a synthetic compound with a structure and function similar to the female hormone progesterone. Progestin helps to make the uterus more receptive to implantation and helps maintain pregnancies.[1] Biologically, the concept of a synthetic progestin rendering the endometrium less receptive to implantation, and thereby acting as an abortifacient, is completely illogical.

Nevertheless, changes in the endometrium after exposure to levonorgestrel were examined in animal studies. Neither the rat[2] nor the new-world monkey[3] demonstrated any endometrial changes consistent with decreased receptiveness to implantation. Similar results were found in an in vitro study that tested the effects of this agent on endometrial cells growing in culture medium.[4] Finally, a human tissue study showed only minimal changes of the endometrium resulting from exposure to levonorgestrel.[5]

There is abundant evidence, on the other hand, that levonorgestrel affects pre-implantation events. There are two mechanisms whereby contraceptives prevent fertilization. One is by preventing the union of sperm and oocyte through the introduction of an obstacle impeding that union. The other is by inhibiting ovulation. Several investigators have shown that Plan B in fact causes thickening of cervical mucus, thereby decreasing the number of sperm able to enter the cervico-uterine canal and ultimately able to reach the oocyte.[6]

It is virtually undisputed that levonorgestrel prevents ovulation. Ovulation is always preceded by a characteristic spike in production and release of luteinizing hormone, an anterior pituitary hormone that stimulates the ovary. Studies[7] have shown that Plan B suppresses the hypothalamus and pituitary glands and thereby wipes out the so-called luteinizing hormone surge. Without that hormonal surge, ovulation does not occur.

FERTILIZATION BY THE NUMBERS

Sperm remain viable inside the female reproductive tract for at least five days.

OVULATION
The egg cell (oocyte) is released each month midway through the menstrual cycle.

Plan B is ineffective after this point.

1-2 DAYS
Once released, the oocyte survives for one to two days.

FERTILIZATION
If sexual intercourse takes place up to five days before ovulation or within two days after, both sperm and oocyte are viable and the egg cell can be fertilized.

7 DAYS
The fertilized egg cell (zygote) takes one week to transform into an early embryo (blastocyst) and become implanted in the endometrium that lines the uterus.

Before I address the issue at the center of questions some non-medical people have about Plan B, namely, whether this over-the-counter pill prevents implantation of the early embryo in addition to inhibiting ovulation, I need to mention a few biological facts about human reproduction:

- The oocyte, released each month midway through the menstrual cycle, survives for one to two days.
- Sperm, in contrast, remain viable inside the female reproductive tract for at least five days.
- So if coitus occurs more than two days after ovulation, fertilization will not occur, because the oocyte will no longer be viable.
- If sexual intercourse takes place up to five days before ovulation, fertilization can occur, because the sperm maintain their viability for that long.
- Once fertilization occurs, the fertilized egg cell, or zygote, takes one week to transform into the blastocyst and become implanted in the endometrium.

Where dispute exists, it is focused on whether, in addition to preventing ovulation and thickening cervical mucus, Plan B acts after fertilization has occurred by preventing implantation of the early embryo. There is an abundance of clinical and epidemiological data that answers the question: No.

The timing of the administration of Plan B, meaning how many days elapse between coitus and when the patient takes the pill, is absolutely critical and closely tied with the success rate of the contraceptive.

Piaggio et al.,[8] have shown that the risk of pregnancy increases as the interval between coitus and ingestion of the agent lengthens. If Plan B worked by preventing implantation, then the most effective time to administer the contraceptive would be right around the time implantation would occur. Because fertilization occurs within five days of coitus and implantation takes place seven days after fertilization, the most effective time to administer Plan B would be seven to 12 days after intercourse.

In fact, levonorgestrel is completely ineffective when it is given that late.

Furthermore, several investigators have shown that the effectiveness of Plan B drops dramatically if given more than two days after coitus.[9] This result is the exact opposite of what would be expected to happen if the agent interfered with implantation of the embryo — if that were the case, Plan B would become more effective as time passes after coitus and the moment of implantation approaches. In fact, the effectiveness of Plan B decreases with time after coitus, because every hour that passes before the patient takes the pill increases the probability that ovulation will have occurred. Once the oocyte is released into the fallopian tube, and once sperm have entered the tube, levonorgestrel has no effect.

When given within two days of coitus, Plan B is effective only approximately 50 percent to 80 percent of the time, meaning it prevents only 50 percent to 80 percent of pregnancies that would have occurred in the absence of any contraceptive. This finding is perfectly compatible with levonorgestrel's mechanism of action being the prevention of ovulation. If ovulation has already occurred when the agent is given, in fact if ovulation is even imminent, as is true in the 20 percent to 50 percent of cases of failed contraception, the drug will have no effect. If Plan B's mechanism of action involved a change in the endometrium, then one would expect a higher rate of success, as there would be no such critical time period.

Taken together then, there are biological, clinical and epidemiological data clearly indicating that Plan B's mechanism of action involves only prefertilization events.

To summarize, biological experiments involving both animal and human tissue show Plan B has no effect on the endometrium that would be compatible with decreased receptivity for implantation. Thickening of the cervical mucus — as this agent does — thereby impeding the entrance of sperm into the cervico-uterine canal and thus decreasing the number of sperm available for fertilization, would certainly represent a pre-fertilization mechanism of contraception.

Furthermore, several investigators have shown that the effectiveness of Plan B drops dramatically if given more than two days after coitus. This result is the exact opposite of what would be expected to happen if the agent interfered with implantation of the embryo.

Levonorgestrel is not always effective, which is compatible with the fact that it changes nothing if ovulation has already occurred.

The effectiveness of levonorgestrel drops rapidly during the passage of time after coitus, for the probability of missing ovulation increases by the hour. Plan B is not very effective once two days have passed since coitus, and it is not effective at all if there have been seven to 12 days since intercourse — the time frame when implantation actually occurs.

Some of the concerns about how Plan B works have been driven by the unfortunate and inaccurate description on the package insert, which includes a statement that levonorgestrel acts by preventing implantation. There are absolutely no data to support this statement, while there are plenty of data, summarized above, to support the conclusion that levonorgestrel acts only before fertilization has occurred.

There is an urgent need to correct the misconception that levonorgestrel is a post-fertilization contraceptive. Contraceptives that act after fertilization are considered abortifacients, whereas agents that affect any of the events that precede fertilization are simply contraceptives. As such, the use of levonorgestrel is unnecessarily limited due to the misconception about how it works. For an individual patient, the effectiveness of Plan B decreases with every passing hour, because the chance of missing ovulation increases as time passes — and science has demonstrated Plan B doesn't work after ovulation occurs. For thousands and thousands of victims of sexual assault, the opportunity to act before fertilization will continue to be missed until the data summarized here are carefully considered.

Representative Kobayashi rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak against the amendment. There've been a number of terms passed around in recent discussions. Abortion, fertilization, implantation. There are several types of contraceptive medications. Some work pre-fertilization, some work post-fertilization. The newer category of contraceptive medications that we're talking about work pre-fertilization.

"So, when we talk about emergency contraception, as in this bill, we are talking about pre-fertilization medication. So, if the medication works as it should, there is no fertilization. There is no implantation. There is no pregnancy. The issue however is that this medication that works pre-fertilization has a timeline relative to when it is taken. The sooner it is taken, the better. This is the issue at hand. Emergency medical attention based on standards of care. We're talking about trying to prevent fertilization. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment and asked that the remarks of Representative Kobayashi be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time in support of the amendment. Just in rebuttal, I notice some speakers were given a little more leeway than I was, which I find shocking. According to the FDA, 'EC pills act by delaying or inhibiting ovulation.' Okay, partially correct. 'Or altering tubal transport of sperm and/or ova.' Okay partially correct. 'Or altering the endometrium thereby inhibiting implantation.'

"That's the crossing point, Mr. Speaker. The prohibiting of implantation means the egg has already been fertilized. FDA Notice, 62 Federal Register 861, February 25, 1997. There it is. It's a fertilized egg. It affects the implantation. It's an abortifacient. Period, pau, done. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to call for the question. I know we've had a lot of discussion on this very, very important and passionate and sensitive bill, but I think with both amendments that have been out there we've had a lot of discussion. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, Representative Tokioka called for the previous question.

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 7, amending H.B. No. 411, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOSPITAL EMERGENCY COMPASSIONATE CARE FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIMS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representatives Belatti, Ichiyama, Ing and Kobayashi voting no, and with Representatives Cachola, Oshiro and Yamashita being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support and I'm just going to make a couple comments. Sexual assault is all too common in our State. Nearly 1 in 5 of all women in the US will experience rape in their lifetime. 2011, there were 83,000 reported forcible rapes throughout the country. In Hawaii, 353 reported. In Oahu, in terms of reported numbers, that's over 21 rapes per 100,000 people.

"When a woman is assaulted sexually she should be able to prevent her pregnancy as a result of rape. That's what emergency contraception does. Some hospitals in Hawaii do not offer victims emergency contraception or even provide information about it, leaving these victims at risk for pregnancy resulting from rape.

"There was recently a survey as discussed in the Judiciary Committee in 2010 that was distributed to 26 emergency departments in Hawaii. Of the 15 surveys returned only 6 respondents were aware their facility had a clear policy on EC. Only 4 say they have a clear policy and always offer it to victims of sexual assault. 3 hospitals say they never dispense EC.

"Now, I know it's late and I don't want to extend my comments, but I want to share with you that I am personally opposed to abortion. I share some values with my most conservative colleagues. This bill prevents abortions. It gives rape victims humane choices. In testimony we learned that 50% of rape victims who are not offered EC go on to get an abortion.

"At this time the Vatican, representatives from the Vatican at least, the Catholic Church, many Catholic churches, they all recognize that this is not abortion. This is a way to prevent abortion and I think whether you're pro-choice or anti-choice, I think we all agree, the fewer abortions the better. Particularly for rape victims. Mahalo."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support of the bill but I just would say I have my reservations. My reservation has nothing to do with the content of the bill, which I support. The reservation comes from the distant possibility that there may be contractual consequences of this bill. I do have a constituency of about 35,000 people that if I would have to choose whether I support it or not I would lean toward the 35,000 people. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of House Bill 411. Providing compassionate care in the ER is the accepted standard of care that both the AMA, the American Medical Association, and the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists support. They support informing sexual assault victims about EC and providing it to them if requested.

"If compassionate care is not provided in emergency rooms it could particularly impact women who are younger and who live on neighbor islands such as in my district. For women who are under the age of 17 or live in rural areas, access to emergency contraception will be limited if it is not available in the emergency room. In rural areas women may not have access to a pharmacy that's open 7 days a week or 24 hours a day. And depending on when a woman seeks care this might mean waiting a time of up to 48 hours before she could obtain emergency contraception.

"Minors under the age of 17 must have a written prescription to purchase emergency contraception. Some pharmacies participate in a program with the Department of Health's Emergency Contraception Oral Drug Therapy Program and they partner with local physicians to offer prescriptions to these young women. However, many pharmacies do not participate and on some neighbor islands there are none that do.

"On my island, Hawaii Island, 11 pharmacies participate. However, most of these are located in Kona or Hilo town, meaning that victims who live in rural areas may not have access. According to data from the Attorney General's office, the rate of sexual assault is higher on neighbor islands than on Oahu. According to the CDC, of these reported rapes, 42.2% or almost half, involve victims younger than 18. It's also important to keep in mind that the reporting rates of rape incidents are low, so it's estimated that well under half of rapes are reported, so these numbers would be even higher.

"So considering the pervasiveness of sexual assault on younger women and the higher rates of assault on neighbor islands, it's even more urgent that emergency contraception be available in the ER, providing needed access to these victims who have no other way to access it. So in closing, I support House Bill 411 as it is currently drafted because it ensures the best standard of medical care for women in all of our communities. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. The opponents of this measure are St. Francis and the Hawaii Catholic Conference. I'm not Catholic, I don't share the same beliefs that the Catholic Church does, but I do believe that they should have the opportunity to practice their religion according to the dictates of their own conscience. That's something that I believe that everybody should have.

"I believe in the measure, Mr. Speaker. I believe that if it was any member of my family I would want them to have access to this. But I would not purchase that access at the price of having somebody act against their own conscience. That is something that is absolutely fundamental.

"My religious background, Mr. Speaker, at one point here in the United States there was a state that legalized the killing of members of my faith, Mr. Speaker. I don't think anyone in their state legislature stood up and protected their right to practice the religion that they believed.

"Mr. Speaker, I don't think anybody did then, but I want to make that different, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to stand up today and speak up on behalf of the Hawaii Catholic Conference and the members of the Catholic religion who believe that this is contrary to their beliefs and their practices. I think that is something that if we decide today that conscience and allowing people to practice their religion the way they believe, we are sacrificing way more.

"For me personally, Mr. Speaker, I hope one day we can bring back the death penalty for rape and do that thing the same way we do in the United States Military where rape does carry the death penalty, with the potential of the death penalty in the United States Military. That's something that is befitting that type of horrific crime.

"But, Mr. Speaker, we must allow those who possess strong religious beliefs to continue to practice their religion according to the dictates of their conscience and I don't believe we have any right to reach in, Mr. Speaker, and force people to act contrary. That's the reason why the United States of America was founded in the first place, because people were being forced to act contrary to their religious dictates, Mr. Speaker. And with that, I remain in opposition to this measure."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll try to keep it short. I'm rising in opposition to this measure and I'm very sorry to be, this is probably one of the hardest votes that I've had to take. Unlike a lot of the people in this Body, I'm at an age where I was in college when rape was a very big deal. It happened more often than it did in the past and I did take people to the hospital to get emergency contraceptives because I wanted them to be taken care of. So I know how difficult this is and I know how hard it is to vote no on this measure.

"But what we're looking at now, as the Representative from Kapolei mentioned earlier, if we pass this measure as is, because we've now denied the conscience clause, we are now limiting access to care for all of our residents, not just rape victims. Especially for those of us that are in Central Oahu and Leeward Oahu. We now have the possibility of perhaps not getting the hospital that we desperately need.

"Unfortunately, some of the things that have been stated in the debate here today and in the past have misled people to believe that the Catholic health directives have changed in some way and that somehow they no longer apply to emergency contraceptives.

"What's been happening is people are not reading the whole Catholic directive. They are leaving out the final sentence in that they're saying that compassionate and understanding care should be given to a person who is the victim of sexual assault. And proponents of this measure are saying, well okay the Catholics are okay with it. But they leave out the final sentence that says, 'it is not permissible, however, to initiate or to recommend treatments that have as their purpose or direct effect the removal, destruction, or interference with the implantation of a fertilized ovum.'

"Now, the New York Times just put out a very interesting article that states and explain that the FDA and others are now considering reclassifying plan B to say that it no longer disrupts implantation and it's just something that stops fertilization. In that case I think there's a good chance we'll all be okay with it after the FDA reclassifies it, but they haven't. It also includes other drugs that don't have the same kinds of studies to show that they probably don't disrupt implantation.

"So I think if we can maybe focus this measure on, one, getting a conscience clause maybe later. I guess it didn't go well today but maybe later, and just wait and see, because until the FDA reclassifies these drugs, the Catholic hospitals still can't do it and we have a very good chance of losing our opportunity at a hospital that we desperately need, again, for every single victim of assault, which we won't get if this bill goes through. Thank you."

At 9:09 o'clock p.m., Representative Saiki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be brief. This is my first time actually speaking on the measure. Thank you. The rub with the Catholic Church is not if it prevents implantation, that's the rub. Because the Catholic bishops are against it, the Catholic Church is against it, Hawaii Catholic Conference is against it. That is certain and they were here today to watch. So make no mistake about it.

"Don't take my word for it, take the warning label from Ella, one of the EC pills. 'It's possible that Ella may work by preventing attachment, implantation.' That's it, that's the rub, that's where they have a problem. Their doctrine, human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. This is Catholic Catechism. Doesn't matter what anybody on this Floor says, this is the book endorsed by John Paul II when he was still alive. That's their doctrine. That's why they're against it. And I'm done. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition because of the religious freedom but would like to offer just a few comments if this bill does pass. It is a personal issue with me. My father was adopted and it's something that's near and dear to my heart. So just the area in the bill that says, 'shall be trained to provide a female sexual assault victim with medically and factually accurate and unbiased written and oral information about emergency contraception.'

"I just hope that this is followed and women who are in this very traumatic experience are given both options. I'm so blessed to have my father who was adopted from Kapiolani Hospital. Just that they're given the option and also know the health risks involved with emergency contraceptives, so that's really what I ask going further with this measure. Thank you."

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just stand in strong support and for the sake of time I'd just like to have the words of the Representative from Kona be entered as if they were my own and I will also submit written comments, but this is a good bill. Thank you."

Representative Morikawa's written remarks are as follows:

"I too believe that Hawaii's women, and the women of my island, deserve the best and accepted standard of medical care available.

"Through the extensive discussions we have had in the underlying committees and in the 17 years that this bill has been contemplated by the legislature, we have learned that Emergency Contraception is the accepted standard of medical care.

"In 2012, sixteen states and the District of Columbia have adopted legislation requiring the provision of information about and/or access to EC to sexual assault victims in emergency rooms. The Federal Government now requires all military and federal hospitals to stock EC. The Army Medical Command Regulations advise discussing and providing EC to sexual assault victims. EC is the broadly accepted standard of care across the nation that the women on my island deserve.

"As noted by the representative from Kona, women living on neighbor islands and in rural areas do not have access to a pharmacy that is open 7 days a week or 24 hours a day where EC can be acquired over-the-counter for women who are over the age of 17. Depending on when a woman seeks care, this might mean a waiting time of up to 48 hours before she can obtain EC, after which EC becomes less effective.

"On Kauai, only 2 pharmacies participate in the Department of Health's Emergency contraception Oral Drug Therapy Program that would allow women younger than 17 to have access to EC and as described by the representative from Kona. These 2 pharmacies are located in Kapaa and Lihue, leaving young assault victims in the communities like Hanalei, Kalaheo or Koloa without access to the best medical care available.

"Because HB 411 establishes the accepted standard of medical care as the general policy of the state that will reach women survivors on all our Islands, I stand in strong support of this bill."

"I stand in strong support of House Bill 411, House Draft 2. I will try to be very brief, Mr. Speaker. Others have spoken eloquently about how emergency contraception is the best and accepted standard of medical care. How the bill is drafted protects the health, safety and welfare of sexual assault victims, so I will not belabor these points.

"However, I'd like to focus my remarks on the religious and ethical concerns raised by this measure and by many colleagues here. There are two principles of lawmaking that I try to follow. I believe it is incumbent upon us as leaders to look beyond our borders, to ask ourselves what is the best practice in laws that we can act for the people that we represent.

"With the subject matter involving medicine and healthcare we should also be compelled to ask ourselves, what is the accepted standard of care and science underlying our policies. As one advocate at the Judiciary Committee hearing stated, we should be persuaded and informed by rigorous peer reviewed, tested science, not simply fringe science. I took these two principles and I ask for your indulgence to listen to these comments.

"I took these principles and looked at it through the lens of being a Catholic legislator. It is in fact very daunting when the opposition lined up against this bill is largely from the Catholic leadership of this State. But I am comforted to find that by applying these two principles and looking beyond our borders, what I have found is that the Catholic leadership beyond our state stands very strongly for this type of measure in front of us now.

"And please don't just take my word for it, Mr. Speaker. Look at the experience of Mercy Medical Center, a Catholic hospital founded by the Sisters of Mercy in New York with active and ongoing participation of the Sisters in leadership roles at the Mercy Medical Center. According to the Mercy Medical Center they offer emergency contraception to victims because it is, 'highly effective in preventing a woman from becoming pregnant from the violent crime of rape.'

"Don't take just my word for it. Look at the work of Dr. Sandra Reznik of St. John's University, one of America's leading Catholic Universities. She states, 'science shows it is not an abortifacient,' and she addresses head on the issue of the FDA labels.

"Don't take my word for it. Look at Ron Hamel, Senior Director of Ethics at the Catholic Health Association, an organization of more than 600 hospitals, 1,400 long term care and other health facilities in all 50 states who states, 'given what is currently known about Plan B from scientific research, Catholic hospitals can respond with sensitivity, compassion and assistance to women who have been raped and are in need of care, while being confident that they are also remaining true to Catholicism's fundamental commitment to respect for human life.'

"Don't take my word for it, look to the New York bishops who in 2002 dropped their opposition to a bill very similar to ours because of the change in the bill's wording that allowed hospitals to administer a pregnancy test before providing the medicine. We have this provision in the bill before us, Mr. Speaker.

"Don't just take my word for it. Take the word of German bishops who just recently announced, and let me say this, German Cardinal Joachim Meisner who announced on behalf of German bishops that the 435 Catholic hospitals in Germany can provide emergency contraceptives to rape victims. They stated, 'an emergency contraceptive that acted to prevent fertilization is 'permissible' in the treatment of a rape victim.' The same cardinal spoke with and consulted with representatives from the Vatican.

"A few days after his statement was released the Archdiocese statement also cited an action by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith that allowed religious women who minister in areas of the world where they are in danger of being raped, to take contraceptives.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that this is a bill that is it's time to be passed. What I would want to refocus our attentions on is that this bill is not about the hospitals, it's not about the religious freedoms, it's about the assault victim who is emotionally traumatized and just seeks the best medical care possible.

"A 2005 study found that survivors who experienced negative reactions when first disclosing their sexual assault are more likely to experience post traumatic stress disorder and less likely to make subsequent disclosures. Survivors who are required to make multiple disclosures regardless of negative reactions suffered from acute PTSD symptoms.

"Mr. Speaker, I stand with the 78% of American Catholic women who prefer that their hospitals offer EC for rape victims. And for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of House Bill 411. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, very briefly. Promoting the health, safety and welfare of sexual assault victims is a legitimate government interest well served in this respect. The bill's requirements are applied generally to protect sexual assault victims. But religious freedoms in this respect are protected without the need for explicit broad religious or secular exemptions in the bill.

"As policymakers we cannot include broad exemptions without infringing on the basic rights of sexual assault victims by subjecting them to a system of healthcare ruled not by best medical practices but by individual beliefs other than their own.

"Federal law already allows those with conflicts of conscience to delegate their own duties to another as required of all employers preserving the individual religious liberty and freedom of choice.

"This moreover doesn't appear to be any one religious issue. It doesn't appear to be a Catholic issue, per say. The Catholic Health Association has made clear that Plan B contraceptives 'do not cause abortions.' A position supported, as the Representative from Makiki stated, by bishops in other states as well as Catholic cardinals from other countries.

"Here in the United States where this is our jurisdiction I think it's important to point out that a 2010 poll just a couple of years ago shows that 78% of self-identified Catholics nationwide support access to emergency contraception in cases of rape and 57% support its availability more broadly. With that, I'd just like to stand in support."

Representative Woodson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just very quickly, just something to think about. We cannot say on one side that an institution or an entity has a right but an individual or victim does not. Just something to think about.

"Secondly, in regards to the biology, once a sperm touches an egg it does not necessarily result in a pregnancy directly. So there could be either a partial fertilization or the egg could in fact touch the sperm which doesn't always 100% or even 50% result in fertilization or pregnancy, just in terms of understanding the biology behind it, what actually happens in the timing. Thank you."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm supporting this bill with reservations. My support on this bill lies on the fact that this applies only when it comes to sexual attack or rape. My reservation lies on the fact that it's not tight enough. We want to make sure that if it is rape it's got to be properly documented that there is sexual assault. And then before giving the emergency contraception they must also do it in writing rather than orally. Because anybody can say I'm raped, I'm sexually assaulted, but it's got to be documented and reported that that's the case.

"Now, when it comes to the treatment, by giving them the emergency contraception it's stated here that they can do it in writing and orally. Information, etc. has got to be in writing to make sure it's tight. So hopefully as the bill goes through the other side it could be massaged to make sure it's really tight, that it applies only to sexually assaulted cases and has to be supported and documented. As well as when it comes to the emergency contraception, that the information should also be in writing rather than orally. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support, Mr. Speaker. I would just like to respond to the comments of the Representative from Kalihi. Rape is one of the most underreported crimes because of the stigma that's associated. I would have very strong objections to any amendment to the bill that would require a victim to disclose in writing a report of a rape in order to receive emergency contraceptives because of the social stigma that's attached to it.

"I think it's very unfortunate that I personally know over three people who are victims of sexual assault, but for fear of retaliation, for fear of the stigma, have not come forward to report it. Anything that would discourage them from receiving adequate treatment I think is a serious, serious concern. With your permission I'd also like to insert further written comments in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support.

"Sexual assault is one of the most traumatic crimes that target Hawaii's women, both physically and emotionally. In the 2011 Crime in Hawaii report, there were 353 forcible rapes reported to law enforcement. Major studies show that the reporting rates for rape and sexual assault are severely underreported. Despite these troubling numbers, Hawaii currently has no legalized standard of care to treat victims. The survivors of sexual assault require emergency medical care at Hawaii emergency rooms and deserve to receive the best treatment available.

"Sexual assault is a life-threatening event, and one that goes beyond the moment of attack to evoke long-term trauma in victims. The crime of rape does not end with violence. Survivors suffer from depression, intense fear, anxiety, and other crippling symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder. Victims may find themselves the object of scrutiny or blame, even by their own families. Rape occurs at an alarming rate in Hawaii, yet many victims do not seek emergency care, counseling or assistance through the criminal justice system and most sexual assaults go unreported.

"In the aftermath of rape, victims find themselves dealing with a host of reproductive and sexual health issues, including the fear of an unwanted pregnancy. Sexual assault takes away a person's fundamental control and autonomy over her body. Victims often feel powerless after a sexual assault. Statistics vary, but indicate that approximately 5-8% of all rapes result in pregnancy. HB 411 HD 2 ensures that women will receive medically accurate information and emergency contraceptives (EC) if requested. Female victims also have the option to deny the treatment if she chooses. In both cases, the needs of the survivor and her choice of treatment are fulfilled.

"Emergency contraception is often misunderstood and underutilized. Emergency contraceptives are a safe and effective way to prevent a pregnancy after a sexual assault. EC are high-dose contraceptives that, when taken within a recommended time period after a sexual assault, will prevent pregnancy. EC is not the 'abortion' pill, nor does it terminate an existing pregnancy. As legislators, we should base our decisions on sound science.

"Providing EC in the ER is the accepted standard of care. Seventeen states and the District of Columbia have all passed legislation requiring hospitals to comply with this nationally endorsed standard of care. Both the American Medical Association and the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists support the policy that victims be adequately informed about and provided with emergency contraception.

"While opponents of this measure cite religious objections, emergency rooms - whether religiously affiliated or not - are ethically and morally obligated to provide the best care possible. An institution's religious objections to EC cannot be allowed to stand against the urgent needs of the victim. A victim of sexual assault should not have to seek further medical care on her own because of an institution's refusal to provide basic care. Victims of sexual assault deserve better treatment and every effort should be made to ease their path to healing.

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please note my strong support. I haven't been here over all the last 20 years to hear these issues but I think the time has finally come and I think we're finally at the position. So, I encourage my fellow Members to please support this measure. If it's not for your wives, your children, your mothers, please. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, it pains me to have to vote no on this bill. As a female I absolutely agree with this bill. Rape is the most heinous crime that could ever be committed, not only against a woman, against any human being. Nobody should have to endure that type of violation.

"So it pains me to hear that some of the discussion has been framed as the rights of rape victims versus the right of the religious. That is not the case in point here. We have a very good bill and the concerns that have been raised from some of us who supported the Floor Amendment were legitimate. Again, for those of representing the west side, we don't know what this measure could mean to the impending opening of Queen's West, first and foremost.

"Secondly, when did we become so intolerant? As elected officials I refuse to believe we're that intolerant. Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, it pains me, it pains me to vote no on this measure, but I must. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with brief comments. Like the previous speaker it also pains me to vote in opposition to this measure. I think the underlying bill is a very good one. I would have supported it had it included just some form of a conscience exemption as a compromise. I think we do need to seriously treat rape victims and it is unfortunate to have to vote no on this measure.

"But, not only do I worry about present access to healthcare and how it may adversely impact the west side, but I also would like our state to be positioned to be able to be most attractive to all healthcare providers in the future. Because we are an isolated state and because I worry that it may forestall some other healthcare providers from coming into the state, I will be in opposition."

Representative Thielen rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Belatti and Jordan be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 917, House Bill 411, House Draft 2. This bill would require Hawaii hospitals to provide sexual assault victims with information about as well as access to emergency contraception.

"First, I would like to say that I whole-heartedly support the original purpose of this bill. Sexual assault is a horrendous crime and I firmly believe in compassionate care for all victims.

"However, it is a disservice to the Leeward community to mandate ALL hospitals to provide emergency contraceptives. According to Dave Kowalski from St. Francis Healthcare, 'as a part of the sale of St. Francis' West Oahu Medical Center real property assets to The Queen's Medical Center, Queen's Medical has contractually agreed with St. Francis to operate its West Oahu hospital ('Queen's West') and medical facilities in the spirit of a Catholic Healthcare facility and pursuant to the moral, ethical and social teachings of the Roman Catholic Church.'

"As such, there could be a huge negative impact on the residents of west Oahu. Since the details of the sale agreement between Queen's Medical and St. Francis are unknown, the ramifications of this bill could vary dramatically. As a result of this bill, a worst case scenario could occur if Queen's West does not to open an emergency room to ensure that it does not breach its agreement with St. Francis. This could have a devastating effect on Leeward coast residents if we had no emergency room.

"Therefore, without understanding all of the ramifications of this bill on the pending opening of Queen's West, I must respectfully vote in opposition to Standing Committee Report 917, House Bill 411, House Draft 2. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fukumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Still in opposition. I just wanted to state for the record that I actually agree with the Health Chair and would like to see emergency contraceptives more available because I do believe it is less traumatic than going through an abortion, especially for a rape victim.

"But again, my concern as the Representative from Kapolei just reiterated, is that we're not governed by the Catholic Diocese in New York or in Germany or anywhere else. We have to follow the directives of what St. Francis has decided to agree to and they are the 2009 Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services. Which means that no matter what other Catholic hospitals do, we could still lose our opportunity at another hospital. Thanks."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Fukumoto and Johanson be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and I would just like to thank the Chairs of Judiciary and Health for shepherding this bill. Additional written comments into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Luke's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 411 House Draft 2, Relating to Hospital Emergency Compassionate Care for Sexual Assault Victims.

"I wanted to thank the Chair of the Health Committee for shepherding this measure as it moved through the House. This is a very important measure for sexual assault victims and their access to proper healthcare services. Let Hawaii join the other 16 states and the District of Columbia who have adopted similar legislation."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. HB 411 HD 2 relates to providing emergency contraception to those entering an emergency facility.

"Mr. Speaker, although there has been much discussion surrounding the religious aspects and beliefs of this measure, I would like to address this bill from the view of a purchase agreement with the landowner. There is a vacant hospital that once serviced those in the Leeward side and some of the central areas of the most populated island here on Oahu. On this parcel the owner has mandated that the ideals and beliefs will continue in perpetuity. The current landowner has provided stipulations that if the new landowner takes ownership may jeopardize the final agreement. My hope is that this measure does not jeopardize the final agreement. If this measure moves forward, my hope is that a mutual agreement can be achieved so the people of this area will have the services that they need.

"For these reasons, I stand in support with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to say that for me at least, I'm a Christian too, and that my Christian principles that I try to live by compel me to vote for this because compassion is the overriding principle here, I believe. Mahalo."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. I'd like to thank the Health Chair for work on this issue and also our Minority Floor Leader for providing more perspective on this issue."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 411, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOSPITAL EMERGENCY COMPASSIONATE CARE FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Har, Johanson, McDermott and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Aquino and Cullen being excused.

At 9:31 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 411, HD 2

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 918) recommending that H.B. No. 1268, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1268, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 918, House Bill 1268, House Draft 1. This bill would allow for the creation of a land trust for 999-year homestead leases. Since the creation of the homestead leases in 1895, there has been constant familial conflict. This bill creates land trusts for families given 999-year leases – a program phased out in the 1950's. I oppose this bill for two reasons.

"First, a land trust is only a temporary solution. Once families have created a land trust, it does not solve any underlying conflict.

"Second, this bill could have an adverse effect and protract conflict between family members. Governor Linda Lingle vetoed this same bill in 2010 stating that:

> 'setting up land trusts to hold and manage these leases will not resolve the conflict among surviving family members. . .The establishment of a trust can complicate the process because the descendents must now also agree on the process of setting up the trust, appointing a trustee, and naming the beneficiaries.'

"Although I do support the intent of this bill, I feel land trusts would be a quick-fix solution and merely postpone the underlying problems behind the mismanagement of the homestead leases. I urge the Legislature to move towards a more viable long-term solution to help lesees with 999-year leases.

"For these reasons, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 918, House Bill 1268, House Draft 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"I rise in serious reservations about how a 999-year lease can have relevance in the year 2013. Mr. Speaker, this is harkening back to the feudal days when there were only a few landowners who then could have land for perpetuity and we still have remnants of that. I just don't see how it fits. It needs to be phased out rather than institutionalized like we're doing today. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with strong reservations. My greatest concern from this arises out of, the issues which directly relate to this bill in my community come from the kingdom days of Hawaii and also the territory days.

"The issues are very complex and this measure does not adequately address what is at hand, and there should be further work done on this, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to insert additional written comments."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding House Bill 1268, HD 1. This measure will allow, '999-year homestead leases to be assigned to trustees of land trusts that are created for managing and holding the homestead leasehold estate for the benefit of the lessee and lessee's family members.'

"Laulani Teale testified regarding this measure that, 'While HB 1268 may not, in itself, resolve existing disputes over successorship, it has the power to prevent future disputes by giving lessees and their families the ability to determine the long-term caretakership (sic) of their family lands.'

"Mr. Speaker, I would prefer a trial period first before this measure becomes an Act. For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding House Bill 1268, HD 1."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I realize that residents that will be affected in this area have been diligent at working on moving this issue forward through legislation for some time now. I am aware that there are some family issues where members are disagreeing amongst themselves. A 999 year lease is quite aggressive. I would like to see additional interest in similar measures as it relates to land rights of other native Hawaiians besides those being address on this measure. For these reasons, I rise in support."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, seven years ago I think I would have voted no but this year I'm going to vote with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, after listening to the discussion and being so efficient from this morning where I presented a green slip to the Majority Floor Leader, can I withdraw that green slip and go with reservations?"

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1268, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LANDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Choy, Fukumoto, Har, Hashem, Ito, McDermott, Tokioka and Tsuji voting no, and with Representatives Ichiyama and Takumi being excused.

At 9:35 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1268, HD 1

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 923) recommending that H.B. No. 357, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 923, that H.B. No. 357, HD 3 be recommitted to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 357, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ENVIRONMENT," was recommitted to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Takumi being excused.

At 9:36 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

H.B. No. 694, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 694, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting against this measure. A concern that I have is, as currently drafted it might lead to a $49 million loss of revenues. Just today I think we passed out some important measures in the affirmative from both caucuses that would require every single penny of that $49 million in order to effectuate its purpose. So I cannot support this measure.

"But equally important, Mr. Speaker, in deference to yourself, I will be withdrawing my Floor Amendment and ask that it be set aside and not considered by this Body. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and may I have the words of the Representative from Wahiawa inserted as my own. I too, Mr. Speaker, have major concerns with the loss of $48.6 million if this measure was to move forward, currently. Looking at the economic situation we're going to have right now it's very important to have this money in our budget to provide some of the services that we currently fund. So that's my opposition at this moment and time, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, what's wrong with giving the poor and the middle class a break. There's nothing wrong with it. People tend to forget that our marginal tax rates in Hawaii are higher than California, higher than New York, higher than New Hampshire, Vermont. We are the highest in the nation and we're giving them a little bit of a break. And now we're complaining about it.

"These are the kind of breaks that go directly into the mainstream of the economy. All of this is cash that goes right into the economy. Can they use it better from their pockets or from the state coffers? I think if we worried more about the people on the street we'd have our coffers filled much better and much more quickly.

"So this is good for those who are working families in Hawaii, for middle class families, and quite frankly these need to be ratcheted down. The Tax Foundation has spoke year after year about how we're the highest taxed even with our regressive GE Tax. So this is a breather and I think we should step back and enjoy it. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just note my reservations and also I would just note that to do fair tax comparisons between states you have to look at the overall tax burden. Because we fund our education through the state instead from local sources, our income tax and our state taxes are quite high compared to other states but our real property taxes are very low. Mahalo."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This vehicle will allow us to continue discussion on whether we have parity and reduce the tax burden on the middle and the poor. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. Second time. This has nothing to do with the lower income or middle class. I think that's my concern as currently being considered. Not only is it a $49 million loss to the General Fund. Again, Members, we've spent the better part of today discussing all these other programs and services in the bills that we have passed unanimously or near unanimously on this Floor. Close to $375 million. So whether it's a program to provide services to victims of breast cancer, or to support our local farmers, or to give tax credits to developing industries, or just to provide seed capital, that has to come from somewhere. So that's my major reservation.

"Just so we understand what we're voting on. When we did this is back in 2009, Mr. Speaker, we had to make a choice. Where do we find the revenues to fund the important necessary services desired by our constituents. I made a choice as a Democrat back then to go take a more progressive approach of the higher income level earners, the upper 2%.

"Let me give you an example. We're talking about individuals who are making over $200,000 a year. A head of household, $300,000 a year, and a couple of $400,000 a year. Far from being what I consider middle income taxpayers. Thank you very much."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support just very briefly. I think the concerns raised by the Representative from Wahiawa and the Representative from Waianae are certainly valid ones and I think that's partially why the bill was drafted with blanks in the various tax brackets.

"But there are many blanks if Members look at the pages and that is to encapsulate more than just the upper income bracket. It is specifically designed to be able to incorporate the middle and lower income brackets so that this actually can be broad-based tax relief. I think they were left blank specifically so that there can be a measure of fiscal prudence in considering what the actual fiscal impacts are as we move out the budget and other bills with fiscal impacts. So with that, I think a broad-based income tax relief for all of Hawaii's people affords us the chance to really reduce people's cost of living and increase their quality of life. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to respond, stating:

"Still in support and I just wanted to clarify. The upper income bracket section as referenced by the Representative from Wahiawa. I wanted to just clear up the misconception that it's not all dealing with the upper income bracket. It deals with about 37,000 people who file as sole proprietors, partnerships or Subchapter 5 corporations. So it's dealing with middle income people as well. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB 694.

"This bill is designed to bring tax relief to those in most desperate need of an improvement in their quality of living. By ensuring that the temporary increase in income tax rates established by Act 60, SLH 2009 is repealed one year ahead of schedule, we can bring some peace of mind and tangible financial improvement to working families and members of the middle class who have been hardest hit by the Great Recession.

"I commend the Representative from the 31st District for his idea to include all tax brackets to expand the bill's tax relief to the middle class, lower income, and those most in need.

"While it is important to ensure that we have enough revenue to make sure that important services are provided, we must also do what we can to help people have enough resources to thrive. This measure provides broad-based and timely tax relief, which a bold idea to make the most meaningful impact on lowering Hawaii's high cost of living for everyone.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'm always the first one that's concerned about taking money out of the pockets especially of our working middle class families and I would like to have the words of the Representative from Moanalua inserted as my own, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Say rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I state my opposition primarily because we're talking about this particular $48.6 million. It is part of our overall base budget. There is no increase. Basically what we're talking about this evening is just a reallocation of your General Fund balance that you have and if you folks decide to use it for personal income.

"But there are also very much other outstanding demands out there that I truly believe that we are not trying to avoid or not trying to address but we'll have to. One of them would be the collective bargaining legislation that we all as a Body had supported with blanks. The other blanks were maybe the unfunded liability of our pension and health fund.

"But I believe the speaker from Wahiawa is absolutely correct, and the Representative from Waianae. It is not an increase in our base, it is a reallocation of the base budget that the Finance Committee will have to address. That is the concern for me.

"But overall, I'll be submitting written comments in opposition, but I wanted to share that with the Members of the House."

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to H.B. 694, HD 1, Relating to Taxation.

"As presently drafted, this bill would do two things:

- It would eliminate the temporary increase in income tax rates established by Act 60, Session Laws of Hawaii 2009, one year ahead of schedule by changing the sunset date of the increased tax rates from December 31, 2015 to December 31, 2014; and

- It would establish new schedules by which the income tax would be levied after December 31, 2014.

"Act 60 adjusted the taxable income and tax base amounts for new tax rates of 9, 10, and 11 percent for:

- Joint filers with incomes in excess in $300,000;

- Head of household filers with incomes in excess of $225,000; and

- Single filers with incomes in excess of $150,000.

"This legislation was intended to temporarily raise revenue in light of the worst economic decline in the state since the Great Depression. The income tax increase was to be applied to the highest rates on the top 2% of the income tax filers each year, and revert back to the way they were on December 31, 2015.

"According to the Department of Taxation, the elimination of this tax increase one year early would cost the state $49 million.

"In addition, because the amounts and income levels of the new income tax schedule to be applied after December 31, 2014 are left blank, it is unclear how the income tax would be applied.

"As I see it, as this bill progresses, there can only be two scenarios that could play out with this bill. Either:

- The bill is made revenue neutral, and the $49 million tax burden is shifted from the richest 2% of Hawaii's tax filers to middle- and lower-income individuals; or

- The new schedule will also decrease the tax burden on a larger group of taxpayers, but increase the lost revenue to the State's financial plan requiring the Legislature to either cut more spending or find other sources of revenue.

"Given the Council of Revenues will meet next week and likely downgrade the revenue forecast for both the short- and long-term in light of federal sequestration and the 'Inouye' fiscal cliff – not to mention the growing unfunded liabilities of our public sector health and pension systems – any additional burdens on our revenue streams will have disastrous impacts on our citizens.

"How many more essential programs and services will need to be cut? How much more can our most vulnerable populations take for the sake of tax breaks for the rich?

"For these reasons, I am opposed to this bill.

"A VOICE OF REASON."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support with brief comments. It's been a long day and we've talked a lot about moving things forward for further discussion. I think it's really important that we move forward this discussion. This talks about reducing the tax burden on our lower income families and middle class families. So in support and can I also have the words of the Representative from Moanalua adopted as my own. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. I would like to have the Representative from Palolo's words inserted as my own. Secondly, Mr. Speaker, this is, we're basically just moving it from one point to another point. I understand how we need to uplift our middle and lower income families but what we also have to remember is we don't want to make Hawaii so enticing for the higher income brackets to come and live here, especially our retirees. With our enticements for lower property taxes for them, lower income taxes such as not taxing their retirements.

"We really have to look at this structure we have. Again, if we lose $48 to $49 million in our base budget, what are we going to do when we don't have the money to fund these programs that we are talking about today?

"Secondly, we really must focus on this. This is a very difficult decision. Where are we going with this? I don't remember reviewing that tax commission report saying that we need to lower these rates. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Say and Oshiro be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 694, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 34 ayes to 16 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Cabanilla, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Har, Ichiyama, Ito, Jordan, Kawakami, Oshiro, Say, Takayama, Tokioka, Tsuji and Yamane voting no, and with Representative Takumi being excused.

At 9:52 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

ORDER OF THE DAY

SUSPENSION OF RULES

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, please note that House Bill Number 143, House Draft 1, has been re-referred solely to the Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce, and House Bill Number 1308, House Draft 1, has been re-referred solely to the Committees on Public Safety and Transportation, per Committee Referral Sheet Number 30.

"The Committee on Judiciary waived its referral to these measures and therefore it is appropriate for the House to consider action for passage on Third Reading."

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the rules were suspended to reconsider action previously taken on H.B. No. 143, HD 1; and H.B. No. 1308, HD 1.

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the House reconsidered its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 362, recommending referral to the Committee on Judiciary.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain House Bills for Third Reading by consent calendar.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.B. No. 143, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that H.B. No. 143, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and I would just like to insert comments into the Journal. Just a quick side note, hopefully this will stop all the cat fighting that's been going on in the building between these different entities. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Under the present statutory scheme as found in HRS, Chapter 92, as Relating to Freedom of Information, individuals applying for licenses have certain privacy rights that are protected from disclosure. These rights are protected when they outweigh the public's right to know. As the law presently stands, the individual applying for a contractor's license or any other license, is protected from having the following information about him or her disclosed:

1. The record showing that the requisite experience for licensure is met or exceeded;

2. The record showing that relevant trade examinations have been passed; and

3. The record showing possession of adequate bonding.

"I believe the public's right to know clearly outweighs any privacy rights the applicant may have as pertaining to these 3 examples as set forth above. By passing this bill, all applicants for contractors' licenses would be required to disclose 1., 2., and, 3. above. HB 143 makes clear that licensed professionals' credentials and qualifications have no privacy interest, and is thus subject to disclosure.

"It is my hope that this bill puts an end to the unnecessary conflicts in the building between the different entities. This bill would at least create a platform for continued discussions for all interested parties."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 143, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 12:34 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 143, HD 1

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked the Clerk to record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked the Clerk to record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Same request. But I do realize that this bill has a long way to go, so I look forward to working with the Senate on trying to address some of the concerns. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record and aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked the Clerk to record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hashem rose and asked the Clerk to record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with strong support. Our beautiful island state is known for the beautiful sandy beaches, sunshine almost all year and an eclectic array of residents and visitors from throughout the world. Our number one industry is dependent upon this image. However, Mr. Speaker, there is another side that some may know about, and others turn their heads away. For a vast majority, they do not know realize it exists. What I am speaking about Mr. Speaker is human trafficking.

"What HB 1068 HD 1 attempts to address is to inform and distribute information via the posting of signage in areas to inform those who witness trafficking or are engaged in being trafficked with a contact telephone number to report this activity. This measure will save lives. According to James Dold of the nationally renowned Polaris Project, Texas, Virginia, Maryland, Louisiana, California, Pennsylvania and Alabama have already enacted a hotline posting law in their respective states. Nevada, Arkansas, Florida, South Carolina and Georgia introduced legislation this year along with Hawaii.

"Testimony provided by Kathryn Xian of The Pacific Alliance to Stop Slavery stated that, 'Shared Hope International rated Hawaii second worst in the nation in protecting child victims of sex trafficking by law.' '…there is no sex trafficking statute in Hawaii…'

"Mr. Speaker, the City and County of Honolulu Emergency Medical Services also provided testimony in strong support stating, 'City and County of Honolulu EMS personnel received comprehensive awareness training regarding the enormous and despicable amount of trafficking victims in our backyard. Unbeknownst to them, EMS paramedics have cared for these victims over the years without any understanding as to the real story behind the victims' lives.'

"Chief of EMS, Patty Dukes, goes on to say, 'On behalf of the EMS professionals, I strongly support the requirement to post information regarding resources available to enslaved trafficked person, as well as the general public.'

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend Chief Dukes for her leadership role in ensuring that her staff was trained. Before this training, first responders such as our EMS were not aware of the signs to look for when they had attended trafficked victims. Hawaii's strategic location in the pacific makes us ideal for trafficking activity from throughout the world.

"The Judiciary committee amended this bill to require every employer to post a signage, however my hope is that we can address this to focus it especially on to those establishments where this activity is known or suspected to take place as this measure moves forward. HB 1068 HD 1 is a move to aid those who are vulnerable to abuse and will provide assistance to get those trafficked out of this bleak situation.

"For the aforementioned reasons Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, it's rarely we have a time to save money when we pass a bill. This one is going to save lives. But there's a better way that this bill could be saving money, and that is targeting it specifically like it was last year to those that are mostly highly probable to have these kinds of sex trafficking or otherwise human trafficking.

"I think that bill died, but as the fishermen have taught us, you fish where the fish are. This one goes too broad in places where it's going to a waste of postage and printing and I think even though it's small, it's symbolic that we can pass a bill to save money by making this bill better. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record and aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1068, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HUMAN TRAFFICKING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 12 noes, with Representatives Choy, Coffman, Har, Ito, Jordan, Kawakami, McDermott, Oshiro, Say, Tokioka, Tsuji and Yamashita voting no.

At 12:38 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1068, HD 1

H.B. No. 200, HD 1:

Representative Luke moved that H.B. No. 200, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Nishimoto.

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in favor of House Bill 200, the budget bill for the Executive Branch. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, first and foremost I want to thank my Vice Chairs for their support and assistance and the committee members for standing alongside me to craft this budget. To the veterans on the committee, thank you for your insight and experience. And to the freshmen on the committee, I want to thank them for their enthusiasm and their willingness to learn.

"I would also like to thank the CIP sub-chair for evaluating the numerous requests. In his fiscal prudence, we are proposing a GO bond appropriation lower than what was proposed by the Administration. So, thank you very much. I would also like to thank the GIA sub-chair for taking the role of evaluating 224 applications. Having him take on this challenge was terrific because it allowed me and others to give this budget the full attention it deserved, so, thank you very much.

"However, I can't stress enough that this budget would not be possible today without the hard work of the Finance staff. So, Mr. Speaker, please allow me to introduce them at this time. When I call your name, please stand, but Members if you could hold your applause until after I introduce everyone. We have analysts: Dongming Huang, Kara Takasaki, Sachi Takita and Matthew Tsujimura. We have CIP Specialist, Leslie Goo; Budget Supervisor, Puna Chai; Budget Chief, Susan Fernandez; and Committee Clerk, Nan Kalupahana, who is hiding behind me in the media box somewhere.

"A lot of times these folks work so late in the hours and they are the ones who put this budget together to make us look good and a lot of times these people work directly with the Committee Chairs and the Members. I can't really show my appreciation enough and there's not enough lunches I can buy for them that's going to repay all the hard work that they have done. So, thank you very much. If the Members could just thank them with an applause at this point.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm not ashamed to admit that a lot of times they probably wanted to kill me, so I wanted to thank them for not killing me. So, thank you very much. But our hard work has just started and we will continue to work hard on this budget as it goes through the process.

"At this point I would also like to thank the subject matter Committee Chairs. I was very impressed with the depth of knowledge that each brought and I was especially impressed with the Higher Ed Chair who put all his suggestions in a type-written single-spaced thesis and he submitted in a pronged manila folder to me with tab exhibits. So, next go around, if subject matter Chairs want me to take your suggestions more seriously, then you have to get to the level the Higher Ed Chair has done with his budget suggestions.

"But these are the things that the subject matter Chairs have done. For instance, the Public Safety Chair alerted us about some things that they did in the past and asked us to be prudent in our spending. So, we really appreciate all the subject matter Chairs taking time to look at the budget and giving us guidance. So, thank you very much.

"Mr. Speaker, I would also like to thank you for the confidence and trust you had in me and the committee members in allowing us to craft this budget.

"The Administration, as you know, submitted a budget of over $6.1 billion in General Funds and over $11.7 billion in all means of financing for Fiscal Year ending 2014, and over $6.2 billion in General Funds and over $12 billion in all means of financing for Fiscal Year ending 2015."

Representative Luke continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. Although the Council on Revenues, as you know, will be meeting in about 30 minutes, because we are obligated to use the January 7, 2013 Council of Revenues forecast as our guide, I wanted to just alert the Members that the Council on Revenues, the January 7, 2013 forecast showed a General Fund Revenue of $6.1 billion in Fiscal Year 14 and $6.4 billion in Fiscal Year 15.

"Because of this and because of the looming sequestration issues, because of the uncertain collective bargaining costs and because of the numerous appropriation and tax credit bills still going through the legislative process, your committee has taken a conservative approach to tackle and craft this budget. We funded those programs that required immediate attention and balanced competing interests to fulfill the needs of the state.

"In the end, the committee has appropriated about $5.9 billion in General Funds for Fiscal Year 2014, and about $6 billion in General Funds for Fiscal Year 2015. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, this is a responsible budget and I proudly present this for your consideration today. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"For the Members' indulgence, I will be calling some other Members from the Finance Committee before I get to the general membership."

Representative Onishi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First, I'd like to thank you and the leadership of the House for appointing me to the very important Finance Committee. Serving on the Finance Committee has given me the opportunity to get both the overall and detailed perspectives of the financial picture of our state. I would also like to thank Chair Luke, Vice Chairs Nishimoto and Johanson, and all of the Members of the Finance Committee for sharing their insights, knowledge and mana'o, for answering the many questions that I had and for their encouragement to actively participate in the committee hearings.

"I would like to highlight our committee's efforts to continue our support of agriculture, which is a very important part of my district as well as the rest of the state. The budget includes important legislation to provide funding for the development and support of irrigation projects, subsidies for livestock feed, livestock feed development and family farms, and expands the agricultural loan program to include infrastructure, infrastructure improvements, implementation of new farming techniques and bio-security projects.

"We supported the education of our youth by including funding to the DOE and UH for the implementation and operation of the Future Farmers of America and 4H programs, and authorized schools to grow food in school gardens for use in their school lunch programs. We continue to support the department's efforts to protect our state from invasive species through providing 19 additional specialists and inspectors, and 4 inspectors and funds for the detector dog program.

"Finally, I too would like to thank the Finance Committee staff for their hard work, dedication, and for putting in the many long hours necessary to support us and our efforts to present this budget. I would like to thank all of the departments and agencies for their participation in the process of developing the budget. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also want to thank the Chair and the Vice Chairs, Members of the Finance Committee and the Finance Committee staff for all of their hard work on the budget. There are many important programs, projects and positions that are supported in this budget and I want to highlight a few that, as the Vice Chair of the Water & Land Committee, I've been following this session.

"I'm very happy that this budget includes important funding for watershed protection and natural area reserves management. Fresh water is a limited resource and its availability depends on the health of our forest and watersheds. By providing these funds, the House Finance Committee has taken steps to ensure our future supply of drinking water, which we need to safeguard our prosperity and quality of life.

"The Natural Area Reserves program protects Hawaii's natural resources, many of which can be found nowhere else in the world. The NARS System includes over 100,000 acres of Hawaii's most unique ecosystems, ranging from lava flows, to coastal areas, to tropical rainforest, and provides needed habitat for rare and endangered plants and animals. The reserves also protects the major watershed areas. This budget includes $8.5 million for Fiscal Years 14 and 15 for watershed management and Natural Area Reserves programs.

"Also in this budget is funding for the Na Ala Hele trail system. These funds will help to preserve trails and increase access to them, including many historic trails, and will promote cultural awareness, environmental stewardship and encourage outdoor recreation.

"Again, these are just a few of the many worthwhile programs that we have been able to support in this budget. Sitting on the Finance Committee has been an exciting and very educational experience and I look forward to our continued work in the future."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. I too would like to thank the Finance Committee Chair, Vice Chairs, staff and Members for their hard work and patience in going line by line throughout the budget and teaching all of us freshmen. Also to the Members of the Finance Committee and their staff for all the great food.

"I'd like to highlight a few points that I think demonstrate the House's continued commitment to the public safety of our state as the Vice Chair of the Committee on Public Safety. There were nine positions added to provide security and intake services associated with inmates returning from out of state facilities for the Justice Reinvestment Initiative. Mr. Speaker, there was also $3 million in each Fiscal Year for the rising utility costs included.

"I'd also like to highlight some work done for the Department of Taxation, which includes 12 positions in Fiscal Year 14 in the areas of tax collection to make our system more effective and also $32 million in GO bonds for a modernization plan to bring it up to date. So, once again, thank you, Finance Committee Chair, Vice Chairs and staff."

Representative Morikawa rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. As a Member of the Finance Committee and Vice Chair for the Health Committee I would like to share some important highlights that will affect the health and safety of our people. We all recognize the significant influence of environmental health programs, food safety issues and the importance of family health for community health and the overall health status of the state.

"To address environmental health services, 16 positions and funds were added for eight vector control workers for increased surveillance of state ports of entry on Oahu, Maui, Hilo and Kona. Eight sanitary workers and related office supplies and computers to address the high number of food safety violations on Oahu and to continue the electronic food inspection and permitting database. Seven environmental and health specialists were added to administer water quality, green house gas and clear air regulations.

"For state laboratory services in Fiscal Year 14, about $271,000 and Fiscal Year 15, $244,000 of General Funds were added for five islands for the microbiology shellfish testing program to support FDA certification of the local shellfish industry and thereby support the export of local shellfish products. Three other items will help identify bacterial causes of outbreaks quicker and at lower cost to the state, and to detect and provide legally defensible confirmation of all classes of compounds for the environmental health analytical services branch.

"For family health services, we added a position in maternal and child health branch to reestablish a violence prevention coordinator position in children and youth services section, who will be responsible for statewide domestic violence planning and programming. In addition, we added $800,000 in General Funds for both Fiscal Years for Hale Makamae at Kula Hospital, $91 million in GO bonds for repair and maintenance for HHSC, and $10 million GO bonds for Waimanu home renovations.

"I would also like to thank the Finance Chair and Vice Chairs and especially the staff for their guidance and leadership in working out the details of this budget. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takayama rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'd like to highlight a few impacts of HB 200 on the University of Hawaii. To help address the University's huge backlog in R&M, HB 200 includes $100 million for repairs and maintenance with $25 million designated for our community college system.

"Recognizing the importance of access to higher education, especially for our neighbor island and rural community students, $2 million was appropriated for our community colleges, which are an important gateway to four-year degrees and which have seen significant growth and enrollment in recent years.

"The budget also contains $1 million in each Fiscal Year for operating costs for our new West Oahu Campus to serve the students of Leeward and Central Oahu.

"Finally, to sustain our medical school's Native Hawaiian Center of Excellence, which has lost its federal funding recently, it appropriates $850,000 each year for this outstanding program. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ohno rose in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I also want to thank the Chair, Vice Chairs, committee members and staff of the Finance Committee. I'm here to highlight the education portion of the budget. It includes $12.9 million in additional funds to the weighted student formula. This money is directly used in classrooms for teachers, technology and supplies.

"The budget also includes $113 million for school improvements and renovations. $42 million for health and safety and electrical upgrades for our public schools.

"Finally, I'm proud to say the House's budget includes $800,000 and $300,000 in the next two years respectively to fund our public libraries. This includes funding for physical books and e-books. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Woodson rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'd like to thank the Chair and the Vice Chairs and all the committee members for all their hard work this session on the budget. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to share my perspective on the budget.

"Driving around my community, Mr. Speaker, during the daytime, it appears that everything is normal. If you drive around at night you'll begin to notice something, a recurring theme at each house. At the front of each house, Mr. Speaker, you'll see 5 cars, 10 cars, sometimes 15 cars, in front of one house. That tells you that people are living together, Mr. Speaker, because of the necessity of financial situations. I bring this up to illustrate the point of the realness of the issues for the need of affordable housing. So I greatly appreciate, Mr. Speaker, the significant investment incorporated into the budget for various rental housing services.

"Besides housing, Mr. Speaker, I also acknowledge that the community members are struggling with the cost of health care. I greatly appreciate $290 million that was also incorporated into the budget for healthcare and human services resources. A portion of these funds, Mr. Speaker, is going towards enactment of the Affordable Healthcare Act specifically related to the expansion of healthcare coverage and people earning up to 133% of the federal poverty level.

"Another portion, Mr. Speaker, is going to be utilized in terms of payments for primary care providers, health home services and specialized services for our mentally ill, just to name a few. These are all crucial components of enhancing aspects of our human service resources.

"Lastly, it is extremely important, Mr. Speaker, that we take care of our most disadvantaged keiki. There is $6.5 million slated for important programs such as increasing voluntary foster care for kids up to the age of 21 as opposed to the age of 18, and added neighborhood drop-in centers for various locations. These inclusions, Mr. Speaker, are extremely important and are great investments for all of our communities and I am grateful for the opportunity. I stand again in strong support. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with slight reservations. Mr. Speaker, I have three doubts about the budget. Number one, it increases spending at a time when we are the edge of a cliff, fiscal cliff, Inouye cliff. Unions have not been funded, and as the good Chair of the Finance Committee said, in a matter of hours the Council on Revenues will give their prognostication of the amount of money we have. Because of those things, I think adding $300 million to the last biennium may be a little precarious. But this is only now, we are only at Third Reading in the House. It has to go to the Senate, it has to go to Conference Committee, we'll see what's going to happen.

"My second doubt, Mr. Speaker, is that this bill closes the Taiwan Tourism Office. When Chinese visitors are blossoming, when the visa waiver that so many of us in this Body and in Washington worked hard to get is allowing a free flow of Chinese visitors, what do we do? We close the Taiwan office. The Chinese visitor is $407 per day, our best customer. Mr. Speaker, this is an oversight. It puts a big doubt in my mind as to the efficacy of this.

"Thirdly, Mr. Speaker, this budget puts no check on the rising cost of living for Hawaii's families and is too dependent on fee increases and some hefty, potentially hefty tax hikes and fees that are buried in other parts of this Body and may come out as future parts of legislation. My point is, it's too soon to give it a clean bill of health. It's too soon to brag about it. It looks good so far but until we are at a strong finish point at May 2nd, Mr. Speaker, I have these reservations. Thank you."

Representative Nishimoto rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted into the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nishimoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, this budget is a document that showcases the collective and collaborative efforts of many individuals. As you know, the budget process is not an easy one and I'd like to take a moment to acknowledge individuals who played a crucial role in getting us to this point.

"First, I'd like to commend Chair Luke for her leadership, vision and openness to input during the budget process. I'd like to thank all the Members of this Body, and Members of the Finance Committee in particular, for their efforts in reviewing, evaluating and analyzing the enormous amounts of testimony, data and information.

"And finally, thank you to the Finance staff for their countless hours of behind the scenes work to make this budget possible. They truly are the unsung heroes of the budget process.

"Mr. Speaker, the Finance Committee was pleased that the revenue collections for the state have finally reached and exceeded the amount collected prior to the Great Recession in 2007. As we worked to prepare this budget, however, we remained cautiously optimistic about this encouraging economic trend. With an uncertain fiscal future, resulting from the Inouye cliff and the federal budget sequestration, this budget reflects a conservative approach.

"The Finance Committee envisioned a more stream-lined and efficient government by eliminating positions in departments that have been vacant for over a year. This will increase transparency and accountability in the budget."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted into the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 200, HD 1. This is the House budget bill for the State of Hawaii. Overall, this bill is fiscally responsible. I do like the fact that this bill removes some spending that I feel is frivolous, such as a fashion show. It also reduces the budget amount requested by the Governor by $600 million.

"Mr. Speaker, unfortunately this bill did not fund an audit of the Department of Education, a department that is allocated a budget of $3.7 billion dollars. In an economy where costs continue to increase and students at the University of Hawaii are affected negatively by increasing tuition expenses, I feel it is important to know how public money is being spent.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on House Bill 200, HD 1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 200, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Mizuno being excused.

At 1:39 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to ask the Clerk to cast a no vote for me and I would like to explain why. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, if you look at subsection (g) on page 2, there's language that really should be of concern, particularly to neighbor islanders. 'The land planning activities of the authority shall be coordinated with the county planning departments and the county land use plans, policies, and ordinances.'

"Well, 'coordinated' is a very open term. It can be coordinating with them, could be just talking to the county officials. It doesn't say that they should be subject to, and that brings us back to the PLDC issue, Mr.

Speaker. If this language were changed to allow the counties to retain their authority under land use plans, policies and ordinances, then the language would say, 'the planning activities of the authority shall be subject to the county land use plans, policies, and ordinances.'

"The other thing is on page 3 of the bill. 'In connection with the development of any public housing dwelling units … the authority may also develop commercial, industrial, and other properties if it determines that the uses … will be a benefit to the community in which the properties are situated.' That's pretty broad, a pretty broad authority. Again, it reminds me of the PLDC. Then it goes on, 'the authority may designate any portions of the public housing development for commercial, industrial, or other use and shall have all the powers granted under this chapter with respect thereto.'

"I think this language needs to be tightened up significantly, and at this point I vote no. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure and I'd like to make some brief comments. Mr. Speaker, this will hurt first generation American families, working families, immigrant families who come to this country and are trying to make a better life for themselves. I see these people in my mind's eye. I have gone to church with them, mass with them for over 30 years in Kalihi and Ewa Beach. They are working people who are trying to make a better life and then they want to send money back to their homeland to help those folks who are still there have a better life.

"I think we're penalizing them, Mr. Speaker, because undoubtedly the purveyors who engage in the money transfer process will pass this cost on to them. That's the way the market works. Mr. Speaker, we're going to increase the application fee by 150%. 150%. I wonder, Mr. Speaker, rhetorical question, will their application process speed up by 150%? I doubt it.

"Mr. Speaker, it just seems to me that every time we have a piece of legislation dealing with DCCA it has an increased fee attached to it. I've been away for a while and maybe there's a master plan I'm not aware of, but I find it very troubling, particularly when everything is automated. You want to get a GET license, you go to the website, automated. You're not dealing with people. So folks are wondering, why are we paying for government? Every time we touch it, it costs us money.

"I wouldn't be surprised in the future if you call up if you can get a hold of someone, and I've had to do this, that if they're going to reverse the telephone charges to you and make you pay to talk to them on the phone. It's very troubling.

"The fees here, we increase the application fee from $2,000 to $5,000. That's a substantial cost that may make marginal people not be able to execute. License renewal fee is established, from $5,000 up to $15,000 for a license. Name change fee. You want to change your name, increased to $1,000 from $250 for an administrative action that can be done automated.

"Mr. Speaker, this is a fee increase and it's going to hurt these families who are minority, working, at the bottom of the socio-economic ladder who are trying to get ahead and at the same taking care of those they left behind. So for those reasons, I cannot in good conscience support this."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I would like to have the words from my colleague in Ewa Beach entered into the record as if they were my own. I would like also to make the following statements.

"As a state we must stand up for our own local Hawaii-based small businesses and give them a fighting chance to survive, which is becoming increasingly more difficult in an increasingly interdependent global economy.

"We were promised a new beginning for Hawaii small businesses in the state, but instead, SB 1068 passed over from the Senate. The House deferred the House companion 837 because the overregulation and high fees result in the killing of small businesses and formation of tight oligarchy of two to three giant multinational corporations from lands afar.

"The small business mom and pop stores would be forced out of business and become a surrogate or vessel of a giant multinational corporation who takes Hawaii's money and profits out of state to lands afar.

"We, as the representatives of the people of the State of Hawaii and the guardians of Hawaii residents doing business in the state, must level the playing field to encourage and give Hawaiian people the chance to survive.

"SB 1068 will kill off local minority-owned small businesses in favor of giant multinational companies and foreign conglomerates. SB 1068 will run the small businesses local money transmitters out of business by erecting huge barriers to entry and high license fees and expenses for operating in Hawaii. Small businesses would have to pay huge deposits and pay unlimited fees and penalties for the investigation of complaints and enforcement of regulations.

"Senate Bill 1068 amends the Money Transmitter Act, Chapter 489D, Hawaii Revised Statutes, that increases the fee structure to amounts unfavorable to small business that is passed on to consumers. Senate Bill 1068 changes the registration fee, again let me mention, from $5,000 to $15,000, Mr. Speaker. $5,000 to $15,000. SB 1068 will give big banks and money institutions a monopoly and allow them to charge huge transmitting fees even for small transmissions of money. This overregulation is uncalled for, as there have not been any notable complaints about the industry.

"DCCA is conducting business as usual by empire building at the expense of the overburdened small businesses who are forced to pass the fees on to the poor immigrant clients. The problem with this type of insidious taxing of the consumers is that it binds bigger and bigger government without any benefit or protection to the public. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong opposition to Senate Bill 1068. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to SB 1068, SD 2. This bill enables the Commissioner of Financial Institutions greater authority to enforce the money transmitter's law and expand regulation over licensees. One of the major issues with the bill is that it raises fees significantly. These fees are likely to adversely impact those communities that regularly transmit money to their relatives in foreign countries. This may have a particularly detrimental impact in many of our Filipino communities. Because I believe the fee increases are too steep, I rise in opposition to this measure."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be voting with reservations. I thank the Committee Chair for reminding us that there are several other committees to go through. I think the recommendation in the Committee Report that the Commissioner of Financial Institutions works closely with the Chair of the subsequent committees to really look at their expenditure plan, current fund balances, current deficit balances over the last several years and the status of those six unfilled positions. I think those are all important questions.

"I'd like to also share the sentiment of the Chair of the Housing Committee, that if there is going to be an increase in these fees, it should be borne by those larger, nationalized, international type corporations and not by the smaller, more independent entrepreneurs in our community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, at this time I'll be voting with reservations. I'd like the remarks of my manang over there to be part of my statement. Let me just say this. I have a lot of relatives. When they send money it's not in the thousands, it's just sometimes $50, $100 to help relatives. If you are going to exact a high fee to these people, they end up suffering. They'll be getting a lot more fees and they pass it on to them.

"My reservation lies also on the fact that the Division of Financial Institutions covers a whole slew of activity. They have supervision on banks, supervision on savings and loans and others, aside from the transmittal of money. When they come up with presenting to us what they need, they lump up all the deficit of the activity that they have within the division. So I suggest that if they can just narrow it down to the portion of that activity for transmittal of money so we know exactly how much they need. Raising it from $5,000 to $15,000, to my mind, is overkill. So for that reason at this point in time, I'll be voting with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, in addition to the aforementioned reasons and the fact that it barely squeaked out of the EDB Committee, I want to add a humanitarian component to this discussion. I mentioned earlier that I was in the foreign aid office at USCID. We did a study and it was a study of how much foreign aid comes into the country versus expatriate repatriation of funds. The country in question actually has one of the biggest exports of talented, educated people, so repatriation of funds is a huge impact on the gross domestic product of the Philippines.

"If this is going to be an increase for the licensees and all of the other fees that were indicated, that's a direct proportion to many of the barriers and many of the people who are going to be receiving this and a country that doesn't need to have less money than it has now, but more money.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I take it to the humanitarian argument that what we're doing here has a global impact. What we're doing here has a very strong survival and humanitarian component to it and I would hope that others would consider that as we push this bill along. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. May I have the words from both of the Representatives from Ewa and the Representative from Hawaii Kai inserted into the Journal as if they were my own. With these additional comments.

"One of my favorite stories here in the State of Hawaii is that of the late Senator Inouye and his upbringing here in the State of Hawaii. What brought his family here to Hawaii was the opportunity to help out his own family back in Japan. There are many of us here, as could easily be identified by our names, that came here from another place and often they were in very poor and difficult circumstances with the hope that one day that we would be able to send back a little bit of help to our families wherever they were.

"The part about Senator Inouye's story that I remember is watching that video where his dad told him that this country had been good to him and his family and if he had to die for that country then so be it. Now this takes away, I believe, Mr. Speaker, a little bit of the goodness to those minority and first generation Americans who are here in the State of Hawaii with an enormous negative impact on them and their families. So I would like to continue to be as friendly as we can to our small businesses and especially to those who are in the most difficult financial circumstances, Mr. Speaker, and their families. So, for those reasons I am opposed to this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1068, SD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MONEY TRANSMITTERS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Cabanilla, Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Johanson, McDermott and Ward voting no, and with Representatives McKelvey and Mizuno being excused.

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations regarding this measure, with the following comments. I'm very concerned that there's going to be a statewide increase in fees but only a certain group of people will have access to those facilities to have put on their homes. So until it's clear who will qualify for those loans and the process in which they will receive the loans to put this infrastructure, to have access to this infrastructure, Mr. Speaker, I still have some serious concerns and reservations with this measure."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In support. Very briefly, this measure is going to be a game changer for the State of Hawaii. It raises no fees, it places no further burden on our constituents, rather it empowers them to be able to reduce costs in their electric bills over time and will provide for the first time the ability to put upfront financing forward so that they can put photovoltaic and other renewable energies on their rooftops, for renters, for middle and low income folks. It leverages the existing capital we have to bring in outside capital, private investment capital into the state with no liability on the state to do this.

"It's going to be something that I think will allow us in the long term to meet our goals of renewable energy here in Hawaii and at the same time reduce cost for all our homeowners. Thank you very much."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, again with reservations. In regards to what the previous speaker just said. In the language of the bill it actually does say that there will be a green infrastructure fee that will be assessed. I'm concerned with some of the testimony that was offered, especially by the Hawaii Electric Company, which did say that this will have a significant impact on the consumption of electricity within the State of Hawaii. He said that it actually would raise the cost per kilowatt-hour of production of electricity.

"So until further clarification is actually given in regards to whether it's going to cause electric rates to increase, once again, having this fee that's going to apply statewide but only a certain few will be selected to have access to those loans. Mr. Speaker, I think there are still a number of concerns that have to be addressed in regards to this measure."

"Mr. Speaker, in favor. The mantra of my office has been solar on every roof for the last five, six years since I've returned to the Body here. We have 1% of our lights coming from PV now. We've got to try all the different ways, this is a creative way. We have to try all ways of financing because nobody's going to prepay their light bill for 10 years. We don't know what the interest rates are, this gives that option hopefully to make it low.

"But the gentleman from the North Shore is correct. It says a fee, and I think, given what has been said and the selling and the marketing of this, there shouldn't have to be a fee for this. These are to have bonds sold and low interest rates to pay them back and then as you have on-bill payments, you shouldn't have to do it. But the goal of getting off of fossil fuels of the $6 billion that we export every year, we've got to do it. This is a good attempt at trying it and hopefully it's going to succeed, but I think this is a measure, so far and so good. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. Never let it be said that there is no love between Hawaii Kai and West Maui. I would like the words of the previous speaker from Hawaii Kai entered in the record as if they were my own."

Representative Fukumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Fale be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. I think this measure will benefit our working class and middle class families and make renewable energy accessible to them. On top of that, if you think about the big picture and the long term, we can expect that the cost of fossil fuels will continue to increase. So, this is actually, it will reduce cost over the long term by transitioning us to more renewable energy."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1087, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Mizuno, Oshiro and Takai being excused.

No. 507, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PLANNED COMMUNITY ASSOCIATIONS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Mizuno, Oshiro and Takai being excused.

Representatives Lee and Belatti, for the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection and the Committee on Health, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 966) recommending that S.B. No. 1135, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1135, SD 2, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to rise in opposition to this measure with just some brief comments. Mr. Speaker, this does address a problem of, I didn't hear the bill, so if I'm wrong or mistaken I welcome any critique or correction. It addresses a problem of things like laptops, CTVs, televisions, electronics. These are a real problem. Anybody who's seen the 60 Minutes program over in China has seen the vast wasteland of all these things that are collected by US recyclers and they put them in containers, ship them over there and then they just pick through what they want and throw the rest out. So, there is a real issue there.

"I'm not Nostradamus, Mr. Speaker, but occasionally I make a prediction. I'm not going to bring it up now, but going back to 2000 in the Journal I made a prediction on some things and they actually came to fruition. But what I see is going to happen with this, and I've always wondered, Mr. Speaker, why the folks who propose recycling and all this. This is 5 cents, it's about 10% of the cost of the water. Why they've never put a fee on this computer. Why we don't have a $50 fee on laptops, $100 fee on desktops. I mean, after all, this is made out of an evil petroleum product. It's terrible, it's filled with poisons. Why don't we have that fee?

"Mr. Speaker, what I see here is we're laying the groundwork for that because we're going to charge the collector. Whoever is going to stand alongside the road with a container, he's going to collect these things. There is some stuff of value in there, some precious metals. $250. But then we're going to charge the manufacturer $5,000. So, guess who they pass that cost on to. I'm not sure the mechanics of how the collector would recoup it, because if he's going to charge you to take your computer back, you're just going to throw it in your trash can. That's what you're going to do. At least that's what people in the real world do.

"The manufacturer is undoubtedly going to pass it on to the vendor, Circuit City, whatever they are, Sears, whoever they are that sells these electronic devices, they're going to add $2 or $3 in the cart. But this lays the groundwork and the mechanics for coming back a few years from now, which we undoubtedly will, and start saying okay, there's going to be a $5 charge on every laptop to recycle. $5 isn't much and then $2 or $3 on your handheld device. Mark my words, prediction number two from Bob 'Nostradamus' McDermott, that we are going to see a fee, I'm not suggesting that we do this by the way, but we're going to see a fee on these laptops for recycling. I hope I didn't give anybody a bad idea, but thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with strong reservations. As stated by the previous speaker, this measure would further drive up the cost of a lot of electronic equipment. One of the greatest things that helps to raise people out of poverty, Mr. Speaker, is the access to technology. Now this measure would further increase the cost of the technology and as the previous speaker noted, that cost is going to get added on to the consumer.

"This measure would push that technology a little further out of the reach of the most disadvantaged in our communities, Mr. Speaker. Because it pushes that technology and the opportunity for those members of the community to further rise out of poverty, Mr. Speaker, I have very serious concerns with this measure."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. SB 1135, SD 2, HD 1 addresses the issue surrounding electronic waste. As the Representative of a district where solid municipal waste is deposited, I see this measure as a step in the right direction. This bill provides a method of reusing and recycling electronic devices such as appliances, computers, televisions and other waste which in the long run, will mean that this waste can be kept out of our landfills – aiding our environment.

"There are other types of waste that also needs to be addressed and we have done so with the recycling programs with cans and bottles. In addition, the City and County of Honolulu has been initiating curbside recycling to include other plastics and cardboards. Addressing these additional items through SB 1135, SD 2, HD 1 allows us to think about trash a little smarter, reusing it a little wiser in hopes of sustaining ourselves a lot longer. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Transportation, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 972) recommending that S.B. No. 693, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 693, SD 2, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this. Mr. Speaker, you and I have been here before. We've done this dance once before and it occurs to me that two of these van cams, if you will, will be in the Ewa area. I love my constituents, Mr. Speaker but I'd rather not be fielding angry calls from them based on this. It sounds good, it's a safety measure, it improves safety and we know that. I'm not disputing that, Mr. Speaker. But the public does not want it. We felt the wrath the last time. We heard it. And we quickly reversed course.

"So, I would suggest as it goes on to the esteemed Chairman of Judiciary that we consider the past history and what we went through and how we reversed course within 12 months of implementing this. So that's all I'd like to say. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 693, SD 2, HD 1. This bill establishes a three-year pilot photo red light imaging detector system program in all counties. While the bill has an admirable goal of improving the safety of both passengers and drivers, as well as reducing traffic related injuries, there are a number of unintended consequences of this legislation that are worth noting. The bill restricts the rights of individuals to contest the violation and does not cover all forms of vehicles. For these reasons, I will be voting with reservations."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Number one, Mr. Speaker, we don't need a pilot the last three years. If you don't know what's happening after a year, you're blind. I think we can narrow it down so the sting of those who don't think we should be catching speeders and accident makers to alleviate that fear.

"Number two, I think we should put it in communities that want it. I know there are many people here or on Maui that would want this and welcome it.

"Number three, Mr. Speaker, I think we should put it where the most deaths occur. Either by running the red light or having the speeding of the red light. But those dangerous intersections so you can show unequivocally with data, not just impressions that we've been using for the last 10 years to talk about this stuff. But to show that here's what it is and here's what it's done.

"But it should take two years and it should be where it's wanted and where the data is where it's really dangerous so it can show the difference. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, in regards to the five noted intersections, to rebut what was stated earlier. Mr. Speaker, part of the five intersections includes the number one and two identified highest traffic accident intersections on the island of Oahu. As well as, Mr. Speaker, we will be continuing to work with our colleagues on Maui because that was an identified intersection, at the request to help alleviate some traffic issues in that sector of Maui. Again, requested.

"As well as Mr. Speaker, if you notice that there are two areas in Ewa Beach, which is where we felt the community who has expressed an interest through their State Senator, we put those identified intersections in the bill, Mr. Speaker.

"Also to address some of the concerns that were brought up in past measures including van cams, we made the program a nonprofit, tickets will be issued by county police officers as well as we added more time for summons and response. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with a slight reservation. It says the purpose of the act is to establish a three-year pilot photo red light imaging detector system programmed to improve enforcement of the traffic signal laws in all counties. I think it would be nice to have one in East Hawaii and one in West Hawaii, because if this law becomes effective it will affect Hawaii County. So I think putting it there and seeing how effective it is, given that the intent of this is to become a statewide program, I think that should be looked at. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, just slight reservations, because I do think that the Chair of Transportation did a very good job limiting the scope of this measure. So just in an abundance of caution, reservations. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time, still in opposition and certainly a no vote on this. I certainly appreciate what the Transportation Chair said. He is absolutely right, this will increase safety, there is no question about that. I wasn't asked about it, so maybe the State Senator was, but no one asked me.

"We do many things that will increase safety, we could require everyone who's driving a car to wear a bicycle helmet. That would certainly increase safety, but we don't do it."

"Mr. Speaker, government is a nonprofit. It doesn't mean people like paying tickets or giving us money or doing things. The point is that people feel that this is intrusive. Whether it's a stationary thing, and I haven't heard the bill yet so I'm not an expert, but whether is a stationary thing or a camera, boy they don't like it and they let us know.

"We've done this once before. It could improve safety but so could stationing a police officer standing right there or having more vehicles. When you see a police car on the street you slow down. That would be a better way to do it. Thank you, Sir."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. The Senator and I live on that corner, Fort Weaver and Kolowaka Drive," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I would like to support this measure. I know it's a pilot project and we are willing to be the guinea pig to see if this is a good measure for the rest of the people of our state. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. However, I have to apologize to the Chair of Transportation. When this issue came up we had a walkthrough with parents at the intersection that's named in the bill because right now the Lahaina bypass under the safe routes offset, they have a police officer there to watch the kids that are crossing the street. And the parents wanted me to come up and walk with the kids to school to see how dangerous it is with people flying down the road where a child was nearly hit right in front of us.

"The Safe Routes to School funding will run out when the highway project is complete, there will be no officer at that area anymore. However, when I was back on Maui, my light bulb in my head went off and realized that it's a red light camera program not a traffic camera program and the intersection that we've identified doesn't have any lights. So, whoops.

"So, we want to work with the Chair of Transportation on this, however that is a fatal flaw for that location. But it doesn't undercut the seriousness of what I witnessed personally and what the parents are really upset about, especially when the officer leaves because the Safe Routes to School funding will not be there when the bypass is completed. Thank you very much."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 693, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, with Representatives McDermott and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Mizuno, Oshiro and Takai being excused.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. As my colleagues know, I've been a foster parent and an adoptive parent. And too often, and I hate to say this, I say negative things. But this is a really good measure and it helps kids in that gap group before they're fully adults. So I want to commend the Body and the Chair for doing a great job. A lot of wisdom and discernment went into this. So, thank you so much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative McDermott be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

I support SB 1084 because Hawaii needs to step up to provide families the opportunity to attend a preschool focused on education with qualified staff and curriculum. It is our responsibility as legislators to ensure children statewide are presented with the tools to thrive in our education system."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1084, SD 1, HD 1. This bill is a constitutional amendment with the title: 'PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE X, SECTION 1, OF THE HAWAII STATE CONSTITUTION TO PERMIT THE APPROPRIATION OF PUBLIC FUNDS FOR PRIVATE EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROGRAMS.'

"It should be noted that HSTA submitted testimony in opposition to any measure that supports public funds to be used for 'any privatization or subcontracting program' that will expend public funds to be used in a private educational institution. The HSTA feels this would reduce resources that would go towards public education and that it would also blur the lines between public education and private faith-based educational institutions.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1084, SD 1, HD 1."

Representative Coffman rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1084, SD 1, HD 1. This bill proposes a constitutional amendment to permit the appropriation of public funds for private early childhood education programs. While the bill has a noble goal of helping expand access to educational programs, I am concerned about the potential impact on schools that may have a religious affiliation, such as many of the schools in my district, including the Aiea Hongwanji Preschool. Because I support the autonomy of private schools, I will be voting with reservations."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this is a very good program because it prepares primarily families, which have the most influence over students and their achievement in the future.

"What I find ironic about this is that right now kindergarten is not mandatory. Kindergarten is optional. If we want to drill down into the age groups and do these services I think we should at least make it mandatory that kindergarten in Hawaii, even though I think 97% according to DOE do attend kindergarten, 3% are being overlooked. HSTA however says it's in the 60 percentile that attended.

"The notion is, if we're going to get early learning, we're going to get all of these readiness things going, it shouldn't be an option for kids to go to kindergarten just before they go into the first grade. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCHOOL READINESS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Mizuno, Oshiro and Takai being excused.

Representative Ohno's written remarks are as follows:

"There is no investment more wise than early education. This program would allow those students most in need the opportunity to attend preschool at no cost and provide financial assistance to our middle class families. The neediest students have demonstrated benefits such as higher employment and lower incarceration rates among adults after attending preschool. Beyond a test score, these are the outcomes we should be focused on. By shifting our focus and resources to our youth population, we guide them toward positive choice in adulthood which, in turn, saves our state resources. "

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, reservations with a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, I said earlier that nobody wants to prepay their light bill for 10 years or 5 years or anything by putting up a lot of upfront money. If we dis-incentivize this PV program, my fear is this nascent industry, which I call a zygote, not even born yet, is going to either wither away or die off rather quickly. It will un-realize our potential as a nation model as well as an international model taking advantage of the climate that we're blessed with.

"I always, case in point, cite the fact that for over two decades we have had incentive for solar water heating but to this day only 27 – 29% of our over 435,000 homes have solar water heating. You can see this cycle of the solar water heating goes up and down according to the incentives.

"Mr. Speaker, the people out there are not foolishly withholding their money. They know when there's a deal and if we don't incentivize it, it's not going to happen. If we tinker too strongly with these numbers and dis-incentivize it, we're going to lose our opportunity to be a world leader in renewable resources. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Just briefly, in support. I will note that up to this point this bill has actually increased the incentives for, in particular, solar water heaters, as well the bill as it currently stands is blanked out so that we can continue to push it forward so that we can continue to provide incentives for all the renewable energy technologies that this would cover. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this measure I am quite certain which group in our community would be affected the most. This is the good working families that we have in the State of Hawaii that are up 4:00, 5:00 in the morning headed to work. This measure would further increase their cost of living, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons I must be opposed to this measure."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1133, SD 2, HD 1. This bill removes the exemption for liquid dietary supplement containers in amounts greater than one ounce from the deposit beverage container program. Senior dietary supplements, such as Ensure, may now be made less affordable with the passage of this measure. My worry is that this bill would have the most impact on those who are least equipped to handle increased fees."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Just very briefly, this is really a housekeeping measure. We've had a loophole built into our deposit beverage container law for some time and it's been exploited by a number of companies. While some voluntarily make sure that they properly label their drink bottles so that they fall within the program, others have exploited this loophole, labeling all sorts of different stuff as dietary supplements despite the fact that in fact are not. So this would close that loophole and allow all the folks in the beverage container industry a level playing field to compete fairly. Thank you very much."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is more of a flagging for CPC, but with reservations and the concern is that, while we understand the intent is to close a loophole we feel that this could inadvertently target those types of supplements that our seniors in particular need as part of their dietary regiment. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1133, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT BEVERAGE CONTAINER PROGRAM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Fale, Fukumoto and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Mizuno, Oshiro and Takai being excused.

Representatives Hanohano and Evans, for the Committee on Ocean, Marine Resources, & Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Water & Land, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 990) recommending that H.C.R. No. 46 be adopted.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 46 be adopted, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition with a brief comment, please. Mr. Speaker, one of our roles is to encourage the entrepreneurial spirit, not dampen it or kill it. This bill basically makes accountants out of lemonade stands, swap meet personnel, etc. The difficulty I have with it is that three or four years ago we passed a bill that says, we're going to go after everybody who does business and they're going to have to give receipts and they've got to keep records. We said okay, but don't let it go 'gestapo'. And what they did was drew the line at nine receipts or nine transactions per day.

"This bill in the committee was based upon the testimony that, well they're just saying they did nine or they did under ten. Basically, the testimony personified the anti-business, we're not open for business attitude in the State of Hawaii. The unfortunate thing is that some businesses only do a few transactions per day and the way it is put now, the casual sales, just makes it look like we're out to get everybody.

"Lastly, let me say this. There are some big fish out there to fry that have over a billion dollars of outstanding payments due to the Department of Taxation. If we add in the cash economy of drugs, there's probably another billion. We've got $2 billion of big fish to fry, which we're not going after but we're going to pass a bill like this and go after the small guys. Mr. Speaker, it's penny-wise and pound-foolish the way we're going after these cash economy guys. We need to encourage entrepreneurship, not discourage it by putting all these restrictions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. My concern with this bill is that I don't want to further hurt, once again it comes down to senior citizens, our retirees and working families. I don't want to further, they're already economically struggling and this fee increase would not help them in getting out of the economic difficulties that we're currently in, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. I'd like to just note that the EDF fee has been purposed by the Legislature in 1994 to recycle glass and give that money to the counties so they're able to ship it off and pay for that.

"Since that time 15 years ago, the dollar, of course, has declined in value so that what was then a dollar is now today roughly 65 cents. At the same time shipping costs, oil and everything else related to this have gone up through the roof to the extent that counties have had to actually increase the fee already. Today should we not act we would potentially leave this program as an unfunded mandate for the counties and at the same time force them to dispose of glass in our landfills or find other, alternative methods which are going to be equally costly or have other unintended effects.

"So, I would note that this bill actually is blanked out in its amounts as it goes on to the Committee on Finance for further discussion. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1131, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RECYCLING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives McDermott and Oshiro voting no.

Representatives Lee and Belatti, for the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection and the Committee on Health, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1031) recommending that S.B. No. 1143, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1143, SD 2, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Again, very briefly in support and I'd just like to note that it's so rare that we actually have coalitions between the building industry, between developers, between the environmental community and everybody else here in government. This has been one of those examples where you have a task force come together over the last several years which have come up with consensus solutions to be able to fund the review of environmental review documents so that things are timely processed, that projects can move ahead quickly.

"This is one of those that had unanimous support including that from the Building Industry Association and others, and we are here today to move this forward as it goes forward to the Committee on Finance for further discussion. Thank you very much."

Representative Kawakami rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with very slight reservations and I would like to explain why. Just as a tracking for the conversation in the next committee, I noticed that money is being used from this fund to support and maintain technology systems for the office. However, we are undergoing a major infusion of capital into OIMT for the very same purpose and my concern is we could be having duplicative efforts here. So maybe just as the conversation moves forward, that they would look to OIMT and their initiatives to cover those expenses. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and brief comments. Two slippery slopes, Mr. Speaker. One is special funds. Everybody knows my colleague in the Senate will never vote for a special fund because basically, and as the Tax Foundation indicates, they basically hide it from investigative and oversight on the legislative process. 30% of our funds up into the billions are in the special fund areas already.

"What we're doing here, we're taking another step to saying, look if you use government that you've already paid for, we want you to go on a fee by fee basis. Mr. Speaker, we have talked about core services after we had a $3 billion deficit a number of years ago. Is our core service where every vote that we take on this Floor we should be given a, what's the per diem, 5 cents every time we vote, or every time we stand up to speak, you probably fine us a dollar or something.

"But the point is, doing our job is government, is doing our job is government. We get on this second slippery slope, it's going to create what we've already done with the special funds which are really already out of control. If we say everybody's got to charge a fee for doing what otherwise we pay them for, I don't think that's going to end up being good governance at all, Mr. Speaker. So I think we should proceed very cautiously. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time. Reading the Committee Report, there were five reservations in one of the committees, which I find troubling. Then if you read it, it says, number A, 'support and maintain technology systems for the Office.' Well, we already had the Representative from Maui address his slight reservation regarding that. We're not sure if the left hand knows what the right hand is doing with an overall technological reformation throughout the state.

"Second thing is, 'support outreach, training, education, and research regarding environmental stewardship.' Don't we have enough of that, Mr. Speaker? I can't walk down the street without hearing something about the environment. Everything is about the environment. We need more and we need to hire more people? Grow government just to do that, Mr. Speaker? I disagree. Then of course we have to 'provide for the hiring of adequate staff for the Office,' so they can do this environmental outreach training research. You can't turn on the TV without being inundated with pro-environmental messages. Wonderful, we're all conservationists, we're all environmentalists, because here in Hawaii we're selling our good looks. That's how we sustain ourselves. We have enough of that.

"Then of course you establish fees to enhance activities of the office and the council and appropriate funds. I mean, this is not needed. This is not a core service. This is not something we need. A lot of times these stakeholders won't partner with us because they're afraid we're going to put something worse in front of them. Thank you, sir."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I would just point out that OEQC has been very underfunded for a long time and it's not just general outreach we're talking about. We're talking about outreach to agencies to help agency employees understand the Chapter 343 process which will make it run more smoothly and save everybody money in the long term. That's all, thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. No. 1143, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY CONTROL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Cabanilla, Fale and McDermott voting no.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At the appropriate time I'd like to ask for a moment of silence. Today marks the 10th year since the Iraq War began, on March 20th, 2003, local Iraqi time, or March 19, 2003, Hawaii time. Many service members and civilians have sacrificed their lives over the last decade to protect the basic freedoms that allow me and you to stand in front of everyone today. About 4,500 US service members have been killed in Iraq along with about 3,500 contract workers.

"This number hits home. Colleagues, as you know, we created the Hawaii Medal of Honor for military personnel with Hawaii ties killed in action. Since the war began we have awarded 327 medals to families of our military heroes. Let's honor them today and let's honor their families with this moment of silence. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in memory of the victims of the War in Iraq.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of these resolutions. Thank you. The 2011 Tohoku earthquake and tsunami left a devastating path and destroyed many lives. 15,881 people died, 6,142 people were injured and 2,668 people went missing across 20 prefectures. Though these numbers cannot possibly reveal the individual counts of loss and hurt, it is clear that many were affected by this disaster. Many are still being affected as the far reaching effects of the earthquake and tsunami are still being discovered today.

"Though we may be an ocean away we cannot ignore our ties to Japan whether by ancestry, relationships, cultural interests, we cannot ignore our moral responsibility to show support and encouragement during this rebuilding and healing process.

"These resolutions state that the people of Hawaii will continue to support the people of Japan and will be carried to them by Japan Consul General Toyoei Shigeeda. For these reasons and many others, Mr. Speaker, I support these measures and urge our colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

Representative Ito rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in support of HR 203 and HCR 241. Mr. Speaker, the 2011 Tohoku earthquake was a magnitude of 9.0 and was the most powerful known earthquake to hit Japan. Along with the lives lost and displaced, the earthquake resulting tsunami caused structural and economic damage. 129,225 buildings were completely collapsed, 254,204 buildings half-collapsed and 691,766 buildings were damaged.

"Mr. Speaker, in all, the disaster caused approximately $235 billion in damage, making it the costliest natural disaster in world history. Rebuilding city structures and economy is an ongoing process. I would like to commend the people of Japan for their unwavering resilience in the face of adversity. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I support these measures and urge my colleagues to do so. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Prior to the vote may I request a moment of silence for the people of Japan and the people that we lost."

I know many of us wring our hands, there's nothing that we can do, other than I think between the ERS and this one, pay $500 million a year for 30 years which is almost impossible.

"But there is something, because this bill says rather than turn it over to arbitration, we still as elected Representatives will have a say in increasing the health care costs. So why would we want to say, well there's nothing we can do about the escalating costs and the unfunded liabilities and there's nothing we can do when we've got a bill like this.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I would ask that everybody would look at this unfunded liabilities rather than wring their hands to put their minds around this bill and look at its long term implications. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As you are well aware, next week Wednesday is the Hawaii Medal of Honor ceremony. That's March 27th, at 2:00 p.m. in the Senate Chambers. My office sent out an email yesterday asking for volunteers to host these families. Although we were going to recognize 19 families, so far 9 will be here in person.

"As we've done in the past, we encourage our fellow colleagues to volunteer and be escorts and we're, only this year because we only have 9, requesting that only Legislators be these escorts. So if anybody is interested, and I know a couple of you have already contacted our office, please do so soon. Once those 9 are taken I guess what we will do is maybe consolidate and put a couple of Legislators with each family.

"But again, it's next week Wednesday, the 27th. Please coordinate your committee hearings and what not accordingly. I do believe that parking will be available in the morning for the public but then will be restricted as we get closer to the event. Alright. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "The Chair would like to remind Committee Chairs that today is the Second Lateral filing deadline for bills that need to move to their final committees. Please file your Committee Reports and drafts with the Chief Clerk's office by 9:00 p.m. this evening."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be voting aye on the measure but I just want to bring up to the Member's attention. I believe that this bill should be amended in the final committee to direct the Board of Land and Natural Resources to actively pursue buying up the two years left on those leases with these lessees. The properties have been left in disrepair and a lessee that has a two year period to run on a long lease, say it was 35, 50, 65 years, they're not going to be interested in making any improvements.

"If you take the example of what happened in Kailua Town a number of years ago, as the leases were due to expire, the buildings really went into disrepair. I was told by the Executive Director of Kaneohe Ranch that they learned a lesson, that it was better that they managed and developed their own properties themselves because otherwise as the lease term expired, they were going to end up with the same thing again with buildings just in disrepair.

"So, with a two year period left on a lease that lessee would be, I believe, very open to selling out. This would mean that the Board of Land and Natural Resources in conjunction with the community over there could look at doing some significant improvements to the properties that have been an embarrassment to that area for a number of years. Thank you."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have written comments to be inserted into Journal. But before that, let me just summarize the difference between this Senate Bill and the House Bill.

"The Senate Bill 946, there's only one way that they can address unfunded liability and that is to put money in the trust fund. We are doing the same thing under captive insurance. In addition to that, right now we have about $18 billion of unfunded liability. Under the captive insurance, based on the study in 2001 we have the potential of saving 5% to 25% of the premiums that are being paid in the operation of the captive insurance. 5% of $800 million is equivalent to $40 million now.

"If we are going to save $40 million we can make it a point that the members of the EUTF, which are the employees, dependents and retirees, will not be required to pay an increase in the premiums. You have to understand that from 2001 to 2012 the increase in premiums has been going from here all the way up and it's consistent on a yearly basis. If we have savings in the operation of a captive insurance, we will not be asking the employees to pay more in the premiums because we have savings, as well as the employers, meaning the state, the counties, the Board of Water Supply or those agencies categorized as employer. Those are the benefits that I can see, Mr. Speaker and Members.

"We have the potential of stopping and making our members pay more in premiums. Whatever savings we have will be placed in the reserve fund. We also are going to put money in the unfunded liability reserve fund. With that we are going to make sure that the amount of money and the premium funds to pay for the health needs for every member of the EUTF is just like fully funding it. If we are going to do that year in and year out, we will make sure that the employees and members will have the health care that they need. Those are the advantages, Mr. Speaker, and I'm going to ask that my remarks be inserted into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Cachola's written remarks are as follows:

"In 2011, Hawaii's unfunded health care liabilities stood at between $15-17 billion. In 2012-13, it is estimated that the health care liabilities will be over $18 billion.

"According to recent reports, it would take $520 million annually over 30 years to eliminate the full liability. Healthcare premiums will only continue to grow in the future. Premiums rose from $218 million in 2001 to $760 million in 2011. It is estimated to be around $800 million for 2012-13. We need to find ways to slow down, reduce, stabilize, and fully fund the unfunded health care liabilities for the State of Hawaii.

"This bill would address the healthcare unfunded liabilities and save the state money by creating a captive insurance company within the EUTF that covers only government employees. According to a 2001 report by the State of Hawaii Insurance Division, there is the potential for Hawaii to find savings with a captive insurance company of between 5-25%. At 5%, Hawaii would save nearly $40 million. Another benefit through our savings is that the state would likely not have to increase employee contributions.

"The difference between the Senate and House strategy is that the Senate is only looking to provide direct contributions to reduce the healthcare unfunded liability. On the other hand, S.B. 946 S.D. 1 H.D.1 reflects the strategy coming forth from the House.

"The House strategy will provide direct contributions AND will include a program to save money that can be used to further reduce the healthcare unfunded liability. The bill will also mandate the governing body to allocate enough money to provide for members' health care needs yearly, now and going forward. Providing reinsurance coverage to protect the captive insurance company from a catastrophic event. As an insurance company, the company will have a direct pipeline to the wholesale price of reinsurance, hence, lower premiums.

"As well, this bill has the potential to greatly improve our bond ratings. Improved bond ratings will allow us to float bonds at a cheaper rate for us resulting in lower debt service. Remember, we use bonds to pay for most of our large scale projects like repairing schools. A 0.5% reduction in debt services creates about $10-100 million in savings to the state.

"We are all aware that this is a major problem affecting our state. Survival, taking control of our destiny and the future of Hawaii is at stake. We need to address Hawaii's healthcare unfunded liabilities now."

I do think Part I is a very good portion of this bill, I think it is incumbent upon us to begin dealing with the EUTF, and by having a task force examine the unfunded liability and make recommendations to the Legislature I think would be very beneficial given our situation with the EUTF.

"But similar to what the Transportation Chair said, I have very strong reservations about Part II. I do not think this captive insurance company for the EUTF is necessary. We will continue to watch this bill and hope that the Finance Committee will address this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote and just brief comments. Mr. Speaker, I have three dogs. I had four, we had to put one down. I am an animal lover. So I come at it, I gave the economics lecture before, I won't bore the Members with that again, but I love pets. And I want to see people get into homes if they want to. I think, although this is extraordinarily well intended, I think it's going to have the reverse effect.

"Ironically, the folks charging that premium are still going to keep that premium and then they're going to increase the security deposit. Why? Because they can.

"So a wonderfully intentioned bill, and as a dog lover I want to help these folks do it because I know how hard it is to find a place that will take a pet. They're just not there. And it's not because of the security deposit, it's because people just don't want to rent if you have pets because they know, yeah they can get the money back even if they have to take you to small claims court, it's just they don't want to go through the hassle of it.

"So, I think this will have the reverse effect and it will actually make it more difficult because you're still going to pay the premium and now you're going to pay a higher security deposit. That's my concern. Thank you, sir."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may the words of the previous speaker be inserted into the Journal as my own plus a few comments. In opposition.

"Mr. Speaker, we are one of the unfortunate states in the nation that has one of the lowest home ownership ratios possible. We're around 49-51%. The nation is at about 69-71% people who own their homes. In Hawaii half the people don't own their homes. Therefore, to make it harder for people to rent seems cruel and unusual, particularly for working families.

"Those who love their dogs, this is unnecessary because they're already going to have a rental for pets built into their existing monthly deposit. So it's unnecessary and it's punitive because, again, we've got as many renters as we have homeowners. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. I'm a landlord," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Cabanilla continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I would also like to express my strong support of the bill. I think this will open up more choices for pet lovers, pet owners, for places to rent, because with this provision there will be more landlords that would be welcoming to people with pets. Not every landlord is the same, Mr. Speaker, and not every pet owner is the same. So, even though it may increase the deposit, if you are a good pet owner, you're going to get all your deposit back.

"Also, I have prospective tenants who had begged me to double the deposit just so I would accept them, but yet I couldn't do that either. But if this bill passes I think that it would increase the supply for the pet owners in terms of renting places. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a landlord. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Takai continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Thank you. I agree with the previous owner, actually I had an experience myself. I used to rent to families with pets. I love pets. In fact we still have a dog. But as I mentioned in the previous discussion on a similar House Bill, I'm no longer going to rent to anybody with animals unless this opportunity comes up. This bill is an enabling bill, it allows for an additional deposit. It doesn't require it.

"Right now state law doesn't allow for that. So as the previous owner mentioned there was a tenant that wanted to rent, wanted to double the deposit, but because state law prohibits it, we're not allowed to do it. So I think that this particular measure actually is pet friendly and it's going to increase the inventory of rentals for people with pets. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Onishi rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict of interest. Our family has rental property," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, ruling on a potential conflict. I also have a rental. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I support the bill, it's a common sense way to do it. I rent to people who have pets, but I have in the lease that they're required to clean the carpet in the one room that has carpet before they leave. But I think this is a more sensible way to do it and will open up more housing, rental housing for people with pets. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I forgot to mention I have also a rental unit. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"But I can't see the logic, when you put the price of something up, you're going to increase the demand. That's exactly opposite of all economic theory, all economic principle. When you increase the price, you reduce the demand or you eliminate it to a very niche market. So if my colleagues are correct, my fellow landlords are correct, I wish them the best, I hope we pay attention to the numbers because right now it's against raising any prices to get more of anything to be purchased. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, potential conflict of interest. I have a fractional interest in property that is being leased as a rental. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Oshiro continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in strong support. Thank you very much."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, ruling on a possible conflict of interest. I also have rentals. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"A ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a renter with a pet," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fale continued to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I believe that this measure is going to further disadvantage those as the Representative from Hawaii Kai mentioned. We live in a state that unfortunately has the lowest home ownership in the entire country. This is due to the high cost of living here, which I fall into that category, Mr. Speaker.

"As someone who lives day to day with the challenges that we have for young working families here, this makes it that much more difficult for the young working families in our community, Mr. Speaker. If you happen to go down to the Humane Society to rescue a pet it just means that you're going to have to fork out more money to be able to afford to live somewhere, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons and for the working families throughout the state who may have a pet, Mr. Speaker, I think that this hurts them and this measure wouldn't be good for that segment of our community, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. I also ask that the words from the good Representative from Pearl City as well as the Chair of Housing be entered into the Journal as if they were my own.

"I'd just like to make an additional comment, Mr. Speaker. On page 2, line 4 it says, 'a landlord may require,' it doesn't state that he must require this. So I'd just like to add that as another note. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, and I just want to make sure that folks who oppose the bill have read the testimony because there's broad support from both landlords and tenants, whether they are low income or high income. There's no actual additional charge in your fee, in your leases, your monthly charges. It provides an option if you want to have an animal and a landlord wants you to be able to have an animal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. My concern with this bill, Mr. Speaker, is that it's going to further eliminate the opportunity for entry into this market, Mr. Speaker. Coming from a background that has a lot of entrepreneurship there, I'm very much interested in opening up these opportunities for youth of Hawaii to especially explore the possibilities in the financial world, Mr. Speaker. This measure would further eliminate or make it more difficult for them to explore those opportunities, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons, I'm opposed to the measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1071, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Hanohano, McKelvey, Takumi and Woodson being excused.

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Once again, if you find yourself on the road between 4:00 and 6:00 in the morning, you'll find that those who make the most use of this dietary supplement that would fall into this new fee increase, Mr. Speaker. That's who this measure would hurt the most and those are the backbone of the State of Hawaii. Those are working families who keep this place going, Mr. Speaker and this measure would hurt them the most. For those reasons, I'm opposed to this, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in strong support, just very briefly. I'd like to just note that this bill closes a loophole and specifically excludes legitimate dietary supplements. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just once again in opposition. What those workers consume in the morning I consider legitimate dietary supplements, Mr. Speaker, and they consider it legitimate dietary supplements as well. This measure would hurt them, Mr. Speaker, therefore again in opposition."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to have a no vote cast for me on this please and just brief comments. Thank you. This bill establishes the public-private partnership authority. I know it's limited to just some specific projects but in the testimony that we received on this, numerous people said, just wait. Repeal the PLDC, give the public some time and earn back the trust before you step forward with another PLDC type of measure. I would hope that this bill does not emerge from its next committee. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, also in opposition with a brief comment. Everything that the previous speech maker indicated is true, and I add two points. Number one is that in the hearing it came out that this is going to cost us $1 million a year just to implement a project which, second point is that, we're already doing in DBEDT. That we've got a number of projects going on now. So to build the bureaucracy to do something that we're already doing to make it look good, to make it PLDC turbocharged doesn't make a lot of sense. So I agree with the previous speaker. Hopefully this is the last we have to talk about this one. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with slight reservations. Mr. Speaker, my slight reservations are in regards of course to the predecessor, in the past where we had the PLDC, Mr. Speaker. But I'm actually supportive of this measure because I believe that there is the opportunity to find funding in innovative ways to meet the needs of our community because the needs are great. Instead of increasing fees and taxes and other ways, I think this has the potential of serving our community very well, Mr. Speaker. Being able to meet the demands and needs of services within our community without having to raise fees or taxes, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons I am supportive of the measure."

Representative Lowen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Wooley rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and a brief comment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. While I have concerns about the fiscal impacts of this bill, I'm willing to let it go on to Finance and let them work through that. But I was concerned because as the bill went through this it addresses pilot projects and we actually in the committee added additional projects to this particular bill. So it's up to seven pilots. I would like, maybe Finance can take a look at this bill and reduce it maybe to three projects. More like a pilot. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, let me focus some attention upon one physical description of a project. That's the Wahiawa Main Street Project. Just for the edification of the Members and those who may be listening in, that particular project which is controlled by the Department of Accounting General Services is state land. It's about the size of three football fields. It's right smack in the middle of Wahiawa Town and let me just give you some background.

"Unlike any of the other PLDC initiatives that we discussed over the last several years, this one is one of those projects that really is from the grassroots. It's really organic to the community.

"In fact, I can point out, and I did at the discussion phase of the decision-making in EDB and Water & Land, that some of the ideas of developing that particular parcel, which is the Wahiawa Civic Center site, goes back to July of 1994 when the Wahiawa community, working with the council representative, at that time Rene Mansho, and the mayor's administration. We all got together and over the summer months in discussing what is the most appropriate use of that land and what they would want to see in it. Out of that grassroots effort came the Wahiawa Town Master Plan, and it's here. I'm going ask for permission later on to submit pertinent relevant portions of this into the Journal. That's back in 1994.

"When I got elected in 1994 we moved ahead on that Master Plan and we looked at the Wahiawa Civic Center conceptual design. What could be appropriate as far as the state developing the Civic Center also along the notion of maybe developing or co-developing with the Wahiawa Courthouse facility.

"So, in 1996 April, we came up with a conceptual design report plan for a joint Civic Center/Courthouse for the Wahiawa-North Shore area. I'm also going to submit some of that into the record.

"Also, in 1998, working with Jeremy Harris's administration at that time and the Department of Planning Permitting, City and County of Honolulu. We embarked upon an urban design plan to make sure that anything we do at that particular site is congruent and consistent with what we wanted our community to look at, specifically our community for our people. That's January 1998, City and County Honolulu, Planning Department, Wahiawa Urban Design Plan.

"Then I go back to July 2001, the Wahiawa Area Redevelopment/Civic Center Master Plan was studied, and the proposal there was to see the feasibility of developing that particular site and what it would look at based upon the Master Plan Task Force, 1994. So we're going back on that basis.

"Finally, in February 2002 and the Central Oahu Sustainable Communities Plan, which adopts the general plan for this particular region of Oahu, basically codifies and adopts all the prior work of the community at the grassroots level of what we have there.

"That's why I feel so confident that we can move forward on this particular bill, on that one element in this bill for the Wahiawa community, the Wahiawa Civic Center. Again, it's about three acres or less than three football fields, but I believe it's congruent and consistent with what we have there. I'm going to be available for anyone who wants to talk to me about this, the proposal right here. I may submit written testimony to the next committee in my support.

"But I just want to thank you, Mr. Speaker, for this opportunity to share that this particular project in this particular bill has strong and deep support from the Wahiawa community that I represent. Thank you very much."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"As I mentioned in the earlier Floor discussion in support of SB 215, SD 3, HD 1, listed below are some of the relevant government reports and pages, supporting my clam that the Wahiawa Main Street Project upon the Wahiawa Civic Center site is consistent with the 'grassroots' vision for Wahiawa and strongly supported by the Wahiawa community.

"In closing, I wish to thank my colleagues for allowing me to express my strong support for this re-development opportunity for my community. Wahiawa is where I grew up, live today, and would like to spend all my days. We are a small but close-knit community with deep roots in our Plantation heritage and proud of our Military history and unique place in Hawaiian culture. Insofar that SB 215 provides us with another option to pursue our collective vision it is greatly appreciated and has our endorsement and support. Thank you very much."

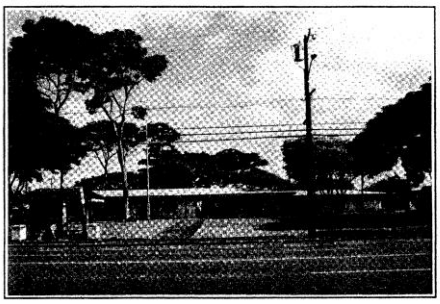
COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMITTEE

CIVIC CENTER

Wahiawā's civic center, which was dedicated on January 11, 1957, is located on a parcel of the approximately 160,000 square foot of state owned land, bordered by California Avenue and Lehua, Center, and North Cane streets. Services have outgrown the building.



WAHIAWĀ CIVIC CENTER

The civic center currently houses the Department of Human Services (DHS) and Department of Health (DOH). The DHS has the welfare office. The DOH has the Adult Mental Health Services, Public Health Nursing Office and Treatment Service, University of Hawai'i County Extension, and the Family Planning Office.

The DHS rents office space for the Women, Infants, & Children (WIC) program and the Jobs Unit IV. The Central District Office of the Department of Education is presently located at the Mililani High Tech Park. The Judiciary branch of the government is currently renting space and is very much in need of a larger space.

PROFILE ON STATE CIVIC CENTER

There is a lack of office space for the government and private community services offered to Wahiawā Town. When a state or city program must rent office space, the money comes out of their budget, resulting in less money for program funds. Our concern is that these programs may be moved to another town where space

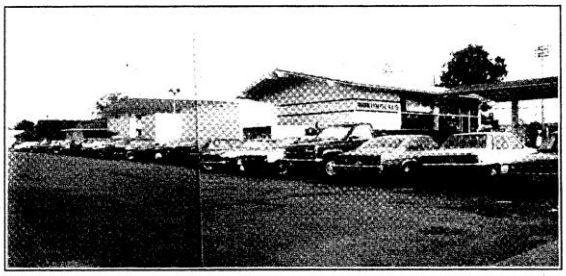
TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE

WAHIAWĀ "TOWN CENTER"

The long awaited project to re-stripe Kamehameha Highway through Wahiawā is scheduled to begin in 1994 and will take approximately four months to complete. The plans call for the highway to be re-striped from Avocado Street to Kilani Avenue with two lanes going in either direction and a left turn lane established at every intersection with a two way left turn lane to be created in some areas along the route. This project will do much to ease traffic flow through town. Limited parking stalls will remain on the highway.



STATE PARKING LOT BETWEEN CENTER STREET AND CALIFORNIA AVENUE

PROFILE TO IDENTIFY "TOWN CENTER"

To identify the town center of Wahiawā which includes the hospital, civic center, library, and parking facilities.

Provide a green zone and open space in the vicinity of the "Town Center" to emphasize the rural nature of Wahiawā.

is more readily available. These programs are necessary for the well being of Wahiawā Town.

STRATEGY

In planning for the civic center we support removing the state parking lot to make room for maximum open space consisting of trees and greenery.

To include a veteran's memorial consisting of a multi-leveled fountain with a commemorative plaque.

To build a multi-level parking structure on Center Street not only for the civic center but also for the hospital and to provide delivery access to the hospital.

To include office space for quasi-government organizations.

ACTION

To strongly urge our Councilmember and State Legislators to put priority on the completion of a State Civic Center that includes the Satellite City Hall.

Wahiawā residents envision a satellite center servicing the Central O'ahu/North Shore eliminating the need to travel into Honolulu, thereby relieving traffic congestion.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

With the rapid growth in population and housing development in Central Oahu there is a need to ensure community and social services remain in Wahiawā to help maintain our economic base. It is important for businesses, community organizations, and government agencies to work to accommodate such growth and to support our town for the quality of life in which we want to live.

The District 2 Wahiawā Police Department is staffed with approximately 100 people. District 2 is comprised of 12 patrol beats, 4 of which are in the Wahiawā, Whitmore, and Helemano areas. The facility is equipped with a helipad to service the hospital.

The Wahiawā Fire Station (Station 16), built in 1941, needs to address the planning for a ladder company. In the last few years several low income and three elderly projects of over 4 stories have been built. The closest ladder company is located in Waipahu.

The Wahiawā library will be installing a federal required fireproof book-drop before the end of

Define the "Town Center" of Wahiawā as that area bounded by California Avenue, North Cane Street, Kilani Avenue, and Lehua Street.

ACTION

To strongly urge our Councilmember and State Legislators to put priority on the completion of a State Civic Center that includes the Satelite City Hall.

Build a multi-level parking structure on Center Street to accommodate the Civic Center and Wahiawā General Hospital.

To eliminate the state parking lot between California Avenue and Center Street to be used for the new Civic Center.

Encourage the use of the Wahiawā Park and Ride Facility located at the National Guard Armory.

The civic center will serve to minimize the amount of traffic into Honolulu while providing much needed services to Wahiawā and the surrounding communities.

BUS SYSTEM

The Wahiawā Park and Ride Facility, located at the Hawai'i National Guard Armory parking lot on Kamehameha Highway and is .9 miles Honolulu side of the Wilson Bridge, was opened in 1989. It is a shared military parking facility of 280 stalls. The bus system now has express buses that originate at the site. This facility provides and encourages bus ridership and ridesharing.

The park and ride is quite accessible to the H-2. If a mass transit system is designed, it should be made available for the Wahiawā residents and not go only as far as Mililani.

PROFILE ON BUS SYSTEM

To have a transportation system which will enable people, commercial, and recreational access to work and play sites.

B. EXISTING FACILITIES

1. Wahiawa Civic Center Building: The existing Wahiawa Civic Center building of 7,190* square feet was completed in 1957 and is located at 910 California Ave. The Civic Center building currently houses the Department of Human Services (DHS), the Department of Health (DOH) and the University of Hawaii County Extension. DHS houses the Public Welfare office. DOH houses the Adult Mental Health Services, Public Health Nursing Office and Treatment Service and Family Planning Office.

   DHS leases additional offsite office space for the Women, Infants & Children (WIC) Program and the Jobs Unit IV.

   The Central District Office of the Department of Education is also located off site.

2. The Wahiawa District Court (Judiciary): The District Court is housed in a leased space of approximately 6,720 square feet* on Kilani Ave. According to the Hawaii Judicial System Master Plan the existing Courthouse facility is inadequate.

7. CIVIC CENTER DEVELOPMENT PLAN ALTERNATIVES

A. PREFERRED DEVELOPMENT PLAN ANALYSIS

Combined State Office Building and Judiciary Building with Parking Structure on Center Street

This plan assumes that Center Street can be decked with additional parking and be considered in fulfillment of the parking requirements for the Civic Center. The plan integrates the Judiciary and the State Office requirements into a mostly two story building, except for a partial State Offices third floor and with internal courtyard and connecting arcades. The plan shown assumes that the State Offices will be constructed before the Judiciary facility, or that they are constructed together. Should the Judiciary facility proceed prior to the State Offices then the plan can be reversed so as to allow the Judiciary to be constructed and yet allow the existing civic center to continue in operations.

1. The plan assumes that Center Street has parking at grade and on a single suspended parking deck accommodating a total of 260 stalls, and with the addition of the use of the existing parking lot's 50 stalls and 16 new stalls elsewhere on site, there will be a total of 326 parking spaces compared with a requirement of 244 spaces.

2. Covered arcade walkways are envisioned to connect the buildings.

3. The street setback and open space at grade opportunities are limited due to the large footprint of this development scheme.

4. Most preferences for ground level access can be accommodated with this predominately two story scheme.

5. Due to its integration, accommodating phasing of the development of the State Offices and the Judiciary poses potential problems in design and construction coordination.

6. The preferred plan is 28 per cent less expensive than the alternate plan.

URBAN DESIGN PLAN

B. Planning Approach

1. Development Plan Revision Program: Special Area Plans

The City and County of Honolulu is currently revising its Development Plan for the Central Oahu region. Development Plans provide maps and policy statements to implement the objectives and policies of the City General Plan and serve as a guide for more detailed zoning and public and private sector investment decisions.

The Central Oahu Development Plan (DP) Area includes communities from Wahiawa to Waipahu. Central Oahu's role in Oahu's future development is to provide lands for diversified agriculture and residential development, new employment in existing commercial and industrial areas, and to help alleviate urban development pressures on other rural and urban fringe areas.

Wahiawa, along with Waipahu were identified through the Central Oahu Development Plan revision process as areas that merited more detailed planning. This is being accomplished through the preparation of Special Area Plans which, for Wahiawa, has taken the form of this urban design planning process.

2. Wahiawa Town Master Plan

The Wahiawa Town Master Plan was published by the Wahiawa Master Plan Task Force in July 1994. The Town Master Plan was prepared through a community-based effort that grew out of City Council Resolution 93-255, CD1, "Establishing a Task Force to Prepare a Master Plan for Wahiawa". The Task Force conducted a survey of Wahiawa residents spanning six categories of issues, including Buildings, Community Services, Environment, Infrastructure, Recreation, and Transportation. Committees addressing each of these categories were established. They produced a series of associated profiles of issues and concerns along with strategies and actions to address them.

The Wahiawa Urban Design Plan builds upon the foundation established by the Wahiawa Town Master Plan, but with a narrower focus on urban design. To the extent possible, it incorporates issues and concerns of the Town Master Plan that can be addressed through urban design.

3. Community-Based Planning Process

The Wahiawa Urban Design Plan was formulated through a community-based approach coordinated and supported by the City's Planning Department and its consultants. As a community-based effort, much of the impetus for the direction of the plan and its scope came from the Wahiawa Urban Design Plan Task Force. The membership of the Task Force is included in Appendix A. The chronology of activities undertaken by the Task Force is summarized in Appendix B. Minutes of the Task Force meetings are included in Appendix C.

Alternative Concept B:

- Intent is to provide further enhancement of the streetscape. Within the road right-of-way, improvements cou'd include sidewalks enhanced with patterned paving, street trees - including trees in new planters placed in the street parking lane where possible, theme street lighting, and theme street furniture (benches, trash receptacles, etc.).
- Improvements in private property fronting Kamehameha Highway could include a low screen wall of unified design with an associated planting area along the sidewalk and spaces for street trees.

Street Corner: (see Figure 13)

- Intent is to enhance the major street corners. Major vertical elements such as Royal Palms could be introduced to create a strong visual image.
- Architectural elements such as a variation of the low wall design could be integrated with business signs or signs about Wahiawa, enhanced with landscaping to create a more attractive treatment.

Streetscape: (see Figure 15)

- Intent is to enhance the streetscape and consequently the storefront areas along the other major streets, including California Avenue, Kilani Avenue, North Cane Street, and Wilikina Drive to create a more pedestrian-friendly and visually attractive street environment.
- Improvements within the road rights-of-way could include infill of street trees placed in street parking lanes where possible, patterned sidewalk paving to provide an enhanced surface, and theme street lighting and furniture.
- Further enhancement of storefront areas on private property could be achieved through encouraging unified signs (using a designated palette of colors and graphics) and architectural treatment. (This is discussed in more detail under "Building Character/Redevelopment Potential").

- Intent is to create a "visual" focal point in Wahiawa town; in a sense, a variation o traditional public town square.

Task Force Meeting No. 3 - February 19, 1997:

- Distribution of updated Task Force membership list to include State Senator Robert Bunda, Councilmember Rene Mansho, and State Representative Marcus Oshiro.
- Discussion of the April 3, 1997 Wahiawa UDP Community Workshop format.
- Presentation and discussion of proposed illustrated concepts prepared for four categories which correspond to the four Wahiawa UDP objectives and associated policies: 1) Highway Signs to Wahiawa; 2) Gateways to Wahiawa; 3) Streetscapes of Wahiawa; and, 4) Building Character/Redevelopment Potential.

Community Workshop - April 3, 1997:

- An "open house" community workshop was held at the Kaala Elementary School Cafetorium to elicit comments from the community on proposed urban design concepts for Wahiawa to be considered in setting the direction for development of the UDP. Approximately 60 people attended the workshop.

Task Force Meeting No. 4 - May 8, 1997:

- Presentation by Councilmember Rene Mansho of the Hawaii Enterprise Zone Program.
- Presentation, discussion and recommended action by the Task Force of comments received at the April 3, 1997 community workshop.
- Presentation of an overview of the State Department of Land and Natural Resources Division of Forestry and Wildlife's Kaulunani Urban Forestry Program by Ms. Teresa Trueman-Madriaga, Program Coordinator.

3. Mr. Chun explained the UDP's work program process and schedule. There are three phases of the project: 1) inventory urban design features/formulate alternative urban design concepts; 2) preparation of the Draft UDP; and 3) preparation of the Final UDP. The planning process will include five task force meetings, one community workshop, and one community meeting.

4. Mr. Chun discussed the project's task force. Consensus was reached that all community members in attendance at the meeting would be included on the task force. Mr. Chun requested from the group the submittal of additional names to be included on the task force, indicating that a membership of 18 to 20 persons should be used as a standard guideline. A list of potential names was presented to Mr. Chun who indicated that the City will review the names for representation.

5. Mr. Matsukawa initiated discussion for establishing the UDP's planning boundaries and indicated that as a start, the boundaries depicted on the aerial photo include the business core.

6. Mr. Matsukawa opened up the meeting to discussion and the following comments/questions were raised by various attendees:

   a. How close will the City work with the State concerning the Civic Center? Discussion of the Civic Center has been going on for years. Due to the Civic Center's location, there was a suggestion that the City get this going as it will help the economy (stores), post office, and hospital as well.

      Mr. Okino responded that the State Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS) is responsible for implementation of the State Civic Center. The City has little control over this. He pointed out that there is a Satellite City Hall in Wahiawa. Mr. Okino explained that the UDP will identify improvements that can be implemented to enhance Wahiawa. Mr. Chun suggested that an urban design plan can create an overall framework capable of receiving the Civic Center.

   b. The Plan should accommodate the military as they are an important part of Wahiawa.

Re: Wahiawa Area Redevelopment/Civic Center Master Plan, Wahiawa District, County of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, State of Hawaii

Dear Mr. Mitchell:

Please find attached a market study concerning the proposed development of the new Wahiawa Civic Center. This facility is proposed to be located on a parcel of land fronting California Avenue between Lehua Street and North Cane Street in Wahiawa Town. The proposed improvements will replace an existing, but inadequate, facility also referred to as the Wahiawa Civic Center, in addition to various temporary structures. It is our understanding that the proposed facility will largely be tenanted by a mixture of State of Hawaii and City and County of Honolulu agencies.

This market study was prepared without benefit of any specific design nor tenanting assumptions. Accordingly, our findings were intended to provide a broad overview concerning the dynamics surrounding the introduction of a new civic center into the Wahiawa area, as well as this particular site. This market study was prepared under the perspective prevailing as of the date of this letter – July 10, 2001.

Our findings are provided following.

MARKET STUDY OVERVIEW

In the preparation of the preliminary master plan, Kober/Hanssen/Mitchell Architects (KHMA) engaged Lesher Chee Stadlbauer, llc to prepare a market study providing KHMA with baseline market data that will be employed as a guide to forecast the possible impact of the new civic center on the Wahiawa Area Redevelopment plan as well as the community at large. The new civic center is proposed to be situated on a parcel of land fronting California Avenue between Lehua Street and North Cane Street in Wahiawa Town, located in the Wahiawa District of the County of Honolulu. The proposed civic center development site is situated adjacent to the Wahiawa General Hospital and is within walking distance to existing commercial support services. The proposed improvements will replace an existing, but inadequate, facility also referred to as the Wahiawa Civic Center, in addition to various temporary structures.

To this end, KHMA have identified the following as key elements of the market study:

- Determine existing baselines of market types, market lease rents and property values in the surrounding market area.
- What current governmental services are currently housed on-site and in surrounding developments and which could potentially be relocated to the Civic Center.
- The influences of the Civic Center on the surrounding properties, including lease rents and property values.
- Complementary business, services, etc. that would benefit by being in close proximity to the Civic Center.

Following, Lesher Chee Stadlbauer, llc presents their findings and conclusions. Our findings have been presented in the following order:

Section I:	A comprehensive overview of the Wahiawa/Whitmore area, including a discussion on area demographic trends.
Section II	A comprehensive overview of the Wahiawa business district, which also addresses current prevailing market conditions in the business district.
Section III	A detailed description of the civic center site and immediate surrounding area.
Section IV	An overview of government agencies currently located in Wahiawa and a survey of their respective service areas.
Section V	A discussion on the potential impacts of a new civic center on the surrounding business district.
Section VI	Results of an opinion survey of the Wahiawa community concerning development of a new civic center.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Our primary findings and conclusions are summarized following.

- Wahiawa contains all the elements of a true community (versus a suburb or neighborhood). In addition to an interesting history, Wahiawa has an identifiable economic base, a significant commercial district, residential neighborhoods, supportive services (such as a hospital, schools, and churches) and recreational facilities. Unlike the urban sprawl of lower Central Oahu, Wahiawa also has relatively clear geographical boundaries.
- Historically, Wahiawa's population growth and economic base has been dependent upon the agriculture industry and the military. While the agriculture industry in Hawaii has been in continual retreat since the 1970s, pineapple and other diversified crops continue to be grown in Wahiawa. Despite drastic downsizing in the military over the 1990s (resulting in an overall decrease in Wahiawa's population since 1990), Schofield Barracks continues to be an integral component to the military's defense strategy. Wahiawa can be characterized as a mature, stabilized community; however, it does not appear to enjoy outstanding potential for growth.
- The Wahiawa Business District is comprised of 168 commercial properties containing approximately 810,000 square feet of improved building area. These properties are typically smaller properties under 5,000 square feet in area and are primarily owned in fee simple. Much of the inventory is comprised of older improvements, many of which have not been well maintained. Of the total amount of building area, approximately 624,000 square feet is considered to be office and retail space. The current vacancy rate is believed to be between 6% and 10%. In terms of the current commercial real estate market, the available indicators suggest this market to be stable and in-balance. As noted, there does not appear to be significant demand for new businesses entering Wahiawa. However, while a level of vacancy does exist, there appears to be limited availability of quality office and retail space.
- Unless there is a shift in the overall dynamics, land use trends over the last 20 years in the Wahiawa business district will likely continue. Older properties will continue to age with minimal reinvestment expected. A certain amount of redevelopment will occur but the nature of the tenant base is not expected to change. It appears that successfully attracting more visitors headed to and from the North Shore may be a possible solution to increasing reinvestment into the business district.
- The existing government agencies located in Wahiawa serve not only the Wahiawa community but selected agencies also serve the Central Oahu region as well as the North Shore. Hence, Wahiawa is a proven location for providing government services on a regional basis.

- It was determined that much of the existing governmental agencies in Wahiawa could be successfully be integrated into a new civic center. Development of a new civic center was considered to be a definite upgrade over the existing use of the site and would be a benefit to the surrounding properties. However, developing a new civic center and increasing the intensity of site use by tenanting such a facility with various government agencies may also involve potential negative impacts. Increased traffic congestion and loss of street parking may occur. Also, if certain government agencies currently leasing space in private properties were to vacate, Wahiawa's commercial real estate market may be negatively impacted.
- The proposed site of the new civic center was concluded to be particularly well suited for this use. The civic center site features a highly centralized location, which is in very close proximity to Central Oahu's primary health care facility, Wahiawa's largest retail development, its regional public park, public library and post office. Furthermore, the site is currently improved with the existing civic center and is occupied by a variety of government agencies.
- The findings of a community opinion survey indicate that the respondents overwhelmingly support the need for a new civic center serving Central Oahu and the North Shore. The vast majority of respondents also considered Wahiawa and the proposed civic center site as being appropriate. However, the opinions of respondents were more mixed in terms of their perceptions on the impact of Wahiawa and the business district. Recurring comments involved an increase in traffic congestion, loss of parking and the cost of development.

OVERVIEW OF GOVERNMENT SERVICES IN WAHIAWA

Research was conducted to identify the City and County of Honolulu and State of Hawaii governmental agencies currently established in the Wahiawa/Whitmore area. Emergency services (fire and police) were excluded from this survey. The effective service areas for the Wahiawa/Whitmore agencies were also determined.

3.6 WAHIAWA TOWN

Wahiawa's historic role as a stopping point for people traveling to and from the North Shore has been eroding as a result of improvements in the highway system and the residential development of areas around Pearl Harbor and on the Ewa Plain.

Wahiawa's role as a regional center for Central Oahu has been diminished by the development of major new towns and residential areas such as Mililani Town and Melemanu Woodlands. Its commercial areas have had difficulty competing with the shopping centers of the newer communities and the major new "big box" retailers in power centers at Mililani, Waikele, and Pearl City.

Wahiawa has also been affected by the decline in both the pineapple and sugar industry and changes in military force levels at Schofield Barracks and Wheeler Army Airfield.

3.6.1 GENERAL POLICIES

Earlier planning efforts which considered Wahiawa's development include the Central O'ahu/North Shore Regional Plan (July 1993) and the Wahiawa Town Master Plan (1994).

Beginning in 1996, the Planning Department (now the Planning Division of the Department of Planning and Permitting) began working with a Wahiawa Urban Design Task Force, comprised of various community businesses, organizations, and elected representatives to formulate an urban design plan for Wahiawa as part of its Central Oahu Sustainable Communities Plan revision program.

Wahiawa and Waipahu had been identified as areas needing Special Area Plans, plans providing more detail than is provided in the Sustainable Communities Plan (see Chapter 5). It was agreed that the Special Area Plan for Wahiawa should take the form of an urban design plan.

A number of community meetings and public workshops were held during 1996 and 1997, and in August 1998, the Wahiawa Urban Design Plan was transmitted to the City Council. The following general policies are drawn from the Wahiawa Urban Design Plan and earlier community-based planning efforts.

Key Policies. Wahiawa should build on the strength of its stable and attractive residential areas and protect and enhance its unique characteristics:

3.6.1.1 Maintain and Enhance Wahiawa's Plantation Heritage and Rural, Small-Town Atmosphere. The scale and feeling of Wahiawa as a small town should be maintained. Wahiawa's plantation heritage and "country town" atmosphere give it a character that is not found in newer master planned communities. Commercial and civic buildings and residential neighborhoods which reflect the town's plantation heritage and multi-cultural roots should be preserved. The quality of the living environment offered by existing single-family residential areas should be maintained and protected.

3.6.1.2 Enhance Wahiawa's Role as a "Gateway" Between Town and Country. Wahiawa has historically been the boundary between the urban growth of Central Oahu and the broad vistas of the agricultural and rural areas of the North Shore. This role should continue with Lake Wilson and Kaukonahua marking the northernmost extent of urban development in Central Oahu. Appropriate gateway entry features should be established on Kamehameha Highway at both the northern and southern entrances to Wahiawa.

3.6.1.3 Enhance the Town Core as a Setting for Social, Civic, and Commercial Interactions. Wahiawa's State and County offices have historically provided services to both upland Central Oahu and to North Shore communities, and played a role as a regional civic and shopping center. Wahiawa's civic center should be strengthened by consolidating public services and encouraging the location of more social and community service organizations in the town. In addition, the character and role of Wahiawa's business area as a community shopping district and regional service center should be maintained and enhanced in order to encourage Oahu residents and visitors to discover what Wahiawa has to offer.

3.6.1.4 Protect and Enhance Forest and Lake Features. Wahiawa's unique forest and lake features should be protected and enhanced. Wahiawa is unique because it is a town surrounded by forest, it has a forest within town in the tree-lined gulch that courses through the center of town, and it borders on Lake Wilson which provides special views and recreational opportunities. Public-private partnerships should be pursued to explore opportunities to redevelop commercial and residential areas on the Town side of the northern and southern gateway entry points (where Kamehameha Highway crosses Lake Wilson) to take advantage of shoreline views and make the shoreline more accessible and enjoyable to the public while reinforcing the integrity of the Wahiawa Town Center.

Exhibit 3.4 shows the town's business district and civic center, as well as other major land uses within Wahiawa.

3.6.2 GUIDELINES

This section provides guidelines for the development of the business district, civic center, and residential areas; for improvement of circulation; and for preservation of open space and views.

3.6.2.1 Business District

- Wahiawa's historic "identity" should be re-established within a "Town Center" located along Kamehameha Highway in the vicinity of California and Kalani Avenue.

- Existing structures that reflect the historic character of Wahiawa should be maintained and restored where possible, and adaptive reuse encouraged where necessary to ensure their continued viability and use.

- Redevelopments should reflect an architectural theme consistent with the historic character of Wahiawa. The architectural character of new buildings and of the building renovations should be compatible with historic buildings in the area and reflect the town's plantation heritage.

  - Open space and landscaping should be provided to reinforce the historic character of Wahiawa.

  - Distinctive and attractively landscaped gateway features should be established at each of the Kamehameha Highway entries to the town to reinforce a "sense of arrival" along these approaches.

  - New commercial uses should be encouraged to in-fill on vacant and underutilized parcels within Wahiawa's existing business district. Expansion of the district is not needed and should be avoided.

  - Repair shops, storage and similar uses which provide needed services should continue to be allowed, but should be confined to the town's existing industrial area between Palm and North Cane Street. Buffer landscaping and similar edge treatments should be provided to minimize impacts on adjoining areas.

  - Building heights should generally be in keeping with Wahiawa's small town scale. However, some flexibility should be given for public buildings, such as government offices and churches, in order to allow for designs that create symbols of identity for the community.

  - The location of parking areas behind commercial establishments should be encouraged in order to improve the pedestrian environment and appearance of the streetscape.

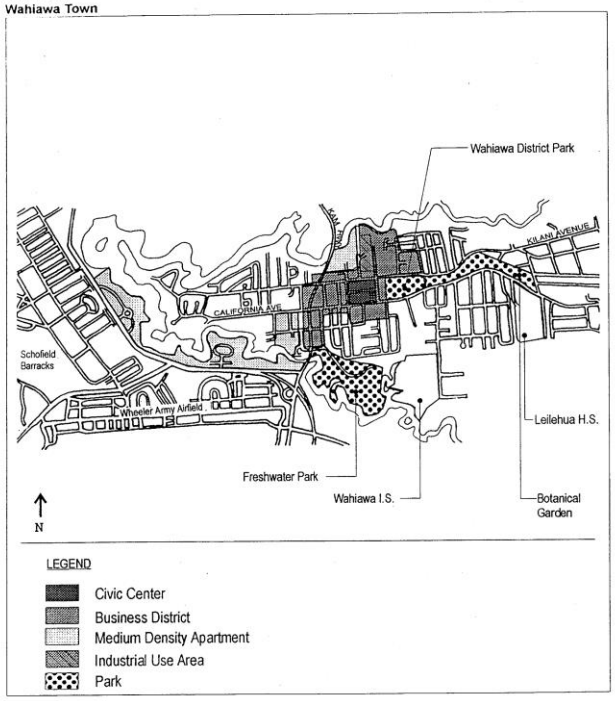
Wahiawa Town



- The visual appearance of business developments should be upgraded through building facade improvement programs and through the greater use of shade trees within parking areas and of landscape buffers between parking areas and adjoining streets.

3.6.2.2 Civic Center

- Expansion of existing government facilities and community services should be welcomed and encouraged. To the extent possible, these uses should be clustered within and bordering the area bounded by California Avenue, North Cane Street, Kilani Avenue and Lehua Street.

- Parking for civic center and Wahiawa General Hospital users should be expanded and consolidated within a multi-level parking garage located on Center Street.

- The Wahiawa Satellite City Hall should be relocated adjacent to the police station.

- Available setback areas and open spaces should be landscaped and developed in a manner which gives the area a unifying visual image and provides a "village green" for informal gatherings and relaxation.

3.6.2.3 Residential Areas

- The intrusion of apartment buildings or other incompatible uses into existing single-family residential areas should be prevented.

- The extensive use of street trees to enhance Wahiawa's rural character and image as a "town within a forest" should be maintained and extended into all of its residential areas.

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with strong reservations. Mr. Speaker, this bill is something that when it was first talked to me about seemed like something that I was extremely supportive of. But concerns have arisen, Mr. Speaker, because some of the language within the bill allows the imposition of a green infrastructure fee which would go utility wide. The money that would be raised and the bonds that would allow members of the low income bracket, Mr. Speaker, access to be able to put PV systems on their homes, it doesn't exactly clarify how many. The estimates that were talked about in the initial phase could be anywhere from 10-20,000 homes.

"The reason why I'm concerned, Mr. Speaker, is that I have a 69-year-old widow who lives next door to me in Hauula, and this individual I believe would not qualify to receive a loan under this measure. But this individual would still be paying this green infrastructure fee for my family which would qualify for this loan.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I'm concerned that the 69-year-old widow who lives next door to me will be funding the benefits that I would be receiving next door, Mr. Speaker. Because it seems like it's not clear exactly whether everyone in the low income bracket will have access to the benefits of this measure, Mr. Speaker, but we know for sure that everybody will be paying the fee. So I don't want to be taking any money from 69-year-old widows to benefit any other person because I know it still hurts that person, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons, because there isn't exactly clarity on who will benefit, how they will benefit.

"Also, I have concerns with some of the testimony that was given from HECO, Mr. Speaker, where they said that nobody's rates would increase. Well I did a calculation, at full effect with this measure, Mr. Speaker, there's the potential of about 40,000 homes being taken off the grid with the possibility of having their revenue stream, the payment that they would be making to HECO would be reduced potentially by 80%.

"I just did some of the rough calculations, Mr. Speaker, if someone's paying on average a bill of $250, that's over a year that revenue stream to HECO is reduced by about $96 million. And HECO says that that will not affect anything that's going on and I find that hard to believe, that if you reduce a business's revenue stream by $100 million year that it's going to have zero impact on the rates for everybody else. So until I have greater clarity on those questions, Mr. Speaker, I still have very strong concerns regarding this measure."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, very briefly. Thank you, in support. I'd like to just note that this measure, let me be explicitly clear, does not raise fees. In fact it has one of the greatest potentials I think of any of the bills we're passing this year to save money for our residents, in particular low income, middle income, etc. What the bill does is provide, well we don't need to go into that, we've had this discussion before, basically it provides a mechanism for up front financing to be able to put PV, etc., on people's homes.

"The fee in question, which is called the Green Infrastructure Fee, is being paid for out of the Public Benefits Fee, which is a fee that everybody pays on their electric bill right now whether you're a 69-year-old grandmother, brand new tenant, whatever. That money goes to pay for renewable resources, energy reduction, etc. What this bill would do is take a portion of that fee that's currently paid already, give it a new title called the Green Infrastructure Fee, and use it to implement the purposes of this bill.

"The program criteria for who specifically is going to be in receipt of this money to be able to put PV on their homes and things like that has not been written yet. That is the next step. This is an enabling bill that will allow the PUC and the state to move ahead with creating that program and moving forward.

"The money that HECO currently uses and receives that is lost every time somebody puts a PV system on their homes actually in large part goes to pay for oil costs. The production of electricity, which if someone is not using it will over time gradually be reduced.

"But everybody continues to pay a portion of the Infrastructure Transmission Fee in the form of a base rate which no matter how much you get off the grid you'll still have to pay for because you're still connected to the grid and that's used to continue to pay for transmission, infrastructure upgrades and everything else that HECO is tasked with doing. Thank you very much."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just with slight reservations. I think it's a good program, I think it's innovative and going to be a good idea in the long run. I do have similar concerns as the Representative from Hauula. I think that he raises a good point that if there is a loss to HECO, there is a possibility of them increasing the PBF. So, the PBF is in here and right now we're paying that and it shouldn't technically increase fees but there's a possibility of the PUC reevaluating that if there are losses. So that's just my concern. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. I ask that the words of the Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection be inserted as my own.

"I think this is one of the best energy diversification renewable energy policies that will come out of this Legislature. It's similar to what we looked at over the last several years of creating a type of green energy bank using the public's money.

"In this case, through the online assessment that we're currently paying on our monthly utility bills. Using that pot of money right now instead of doing rebates, credits to purchasers of utility based demand-side appliances. Using some of that money, about $300 million a year, using that and leveraging that with the issuance of bonds at pretty competitive rates. Having a good reliable stream of income to service those bond payments will enable this program to have the means to provide loans to most of my constituents who are of more moderate means in our community, so they can take advantage of solar systems, photovoltaic systems, that many of the more affluent folks are currently taking advantage of.

"I'd like to also submit further written comments. But again I think this is one of the best measures I think of this Legislature. So I hope we can get this measure out. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for permission to submit these additional remarks in support of this important measure.

"As I have stated previously, this bill could be one of the most important energy policy decisions for Hawaii of the last decade. The reason I say that is, this measure, upon full execution and application will provide the financial means for common folks and families of low to moderate means the ability to share in the benefits of renewable energy water heating and cooling and electrical production through low-interest loans and low-interest payments on the purchase of a solar or photovoltaic system.

"It has been conclusively demonstrated that the up-front costs of purchasing and installing 'green' energy solar systems have been a barrier for many households to acquire energy saving and producing equipment. As such, those of modest means or who lack access to capital or have unfavorable credit ratings were not able to take advantage of the 'green revolution' and lower their energy costs and take advantage of Hawaii's favorable climate and solar energy production capacity. Likewise, nearly half of Hawaii residents are 'renters' and not-for-profits whom renewable energy credits are inapplicable or irrelevant.

"Through the use of the current on-bill financing program being proposed by the PUC, there is a financing model that could provide predictable and sufficient funds to provide the capital for securitization and leveraging of bond financing. This means that present funds of the public benefit fund can be tapped to provide low cost capital and leveraged to sell low interest revenue bonds to fund a low cost/interest program for homeowners, not for profits, landlords/tenants, and others currently left out.

"For example, one financial model could allow for the loan of about $8 million from the Public Benefit Fund to the Hawaii Green Infrastructure Special Fund, which in turn could take out of 'loan,' in the form of revenue bonds, of about $100 million at a very low interest rate. According to DBEDT, this may translate into the installation of between 5,000-10,000 solar Photovoltaic installations or 25-50 MW. Revenue from the current and future electrical rate payers through the on-bill charges would be a sustainable and predictable stream of cash to service the revenue bond costs and be viewed by financiers as a safe and secure investment, thereby lowering the risk and interest rates. This means that the proceeds can be used as low cost loans to qualified consumers, many of whom will be ratepayers themselves and able to demonstrate a reliable payment history as either homeowners or renters.

"As I see it, this is a 'triple-bottom line' investment of our public funds:

(1) Homeowners of modest incomes and renters gain access to eventual free electricity via affordable monthly payments;

(2) Hawaii become less dependent on non-renewable fossil fuels; and

(3) Solar and photovoltaic industries are supported directly through more installations and servicing opportunities.

"The third 'win' is especially important as we seek to curb and rein in the current renewable energy tax credit that all agree is rife with abuse and disadvantageous to those of modest incomes and means and most not-for-profits and renters.

"Finally, I applaud the Governor and his Directors of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, and Budget and Finance for taking the risk and seeking to 'think outside the box' in this innovative and useful financing mechanism that uses public funds to leverage private capital and use said proceeds to provide low interest loans to qualified homeowners, not-for-profits, landlords, and renters. It gives me great pleasure and quiet pride to finally see our state government use our vast public funds and the inherent powerful banking principles retained by the State of Hawaii for the sole purpose of promoting the interest of Hawaii's residents and taxpayers."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, the mantra of my office for the last six years has been 'solar on every roof.' Let's get on with it, let's do it. This is one of the mechanisms to do it. It's almost as good as the PACE bill but this is kind of a pilot because $200 million is going to leverage us maybe 10-15,000 houses. We've got about 400,000 houses we need to do to become a national and world leader. So it's a good beginning.

"The promises I've had from DBEDT, or at least discussion with the experts, is that this PBF, this Public Benefits Fund, will be bifurcated as the Chair indicated earlier. But they equivocated when I said, so it's going to be a wash. You're going to take from the PBF and you're going to put it into green infrastructure fund and it's going to be same amount and it's not going to increase. You know how you say yes and your face looks like you're not sure when you're saying yes?

"So I would hold the Chair and the others to saying that if there's no increase, because the problem is Members, HECO never puts its rates down. Every time we get a good idea, the rates go up and people are saying, what are you guys doing? You want to help me but you're hurting me by helping me. So when we give our word that's it going to be a wash, we're not going take any PBF and add to it with this other surcharge, we're going to actually just bifurcate it. Let's stick with it, do it, but we've got to get solar on every roof, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, once again in support with reservations. I'm looking here at the language of the bill, Mr. Speaker, and it says that in Section 269-B, it says, 'for the financing orders authorizes the following: the imposition, charging, and collection on behalf of the department of the green infrastructure fee, to become effective upon the issuance of the bonds.'

"Once again, Mr. Speaker, I can just, as the Representative from Hawaii Kai mentioned, every time we come up with a great idea we seem to stick it to the rate payers, and that's my concern, that this is another. Maybe if we could tighten up the language, Mr. Speaker, to effectively 'seal the deal' as far as it comes to making sure that this fee does not increase and that it is solely just a movement of the funds from currently within and that there will be no room for increasing the fee, Mr. Speaker. I think that would satisfy my concerns regarding this measure. It just seems to me that there's enough room there for this fee to be increased over time, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Thank you."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In very strong support of this measure that I believe will reduce costs over time to rate payers if you're looking especially over the longer term. I would also like to request that the comments of the Representative from Waimanalo be entered as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1087, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Hanohano, McKelvey, Takumi and Woodson being excused.

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1198) recommending that S.B. No. 623, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 623, SD 2, HD 2 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and comments. Thank you. I have some concerns regarding this bill because some of the amounts are blank. The Tax Department did a ruling that went into effect this year that I think was very fair. There were a lot of complaints about multiple systems going in and multiple tax credits begin taken. The Tax Department actually capped it as our legislative intent and the original tax credits were, but they allowed multiple systems. And I don't hear the world screaming right now that it's not fair.

"So my concern going forward is parts in this new bill allow funds to be, it's really a production tax credit for the next 10 years. Costs are going down continually on these products. So my fear is that we're going to strap ourselves in for a long term expense that won't match the actual cost of these systems and it will actually hurt our state and we'll be spending more money for a tax credit 10 years out. So, thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hashem rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Potential conflict. I'm a partner in a solar project," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Hashem then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Ruling on a potential conflict. My husband owns a solar company," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Fukumoto then asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote, brief comments. This tax credit phobia that we keep hearing about is all about this little zygote, this little industry that's not even born yet that has 1% of our lights coming out of PV and we want to slash and burn all of these tax credits which we fear is going to bankrupt us. Let's let the thing come alive, be born and let it grow, and then, say every 12 months when we meet here, hey let's temper this thing down rather than presumptively guessing what the industry has been doing and start tampering them down ahead of time before we actually have the roots and the growth of this PV industry.

"Of course it's going to cost some money. Of course we have to take some risks. But if we're going to use our natural resource, get off of that $6 billion a year in imported fuel, we've got to be serious about this industry. It started with a great bang and now it's going to end with a whimper if bills like this continue to be processed here. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takayama rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"A ruling on a possible conflict. My wife is a consultant with a solar generating company. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still with reservations and a comment please. According to the testimony, this may cost us, in five years, $110 million according to DOTAX. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 623, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives McDermott and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Hanohano, McKelvey, Takumi and Woodson being excused.

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations and a comment please. My reservations on this measure pertain to Part IV, the Return-to-Home program and setting up a special fund, and the Part V, temporary nighttime parking that was added into this measure, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Everyone talks about the problem of homelessness but no one wants to try any out-of-the-box solutions. So we can't apply the same thinking that got us into this problem of homelessness. We can't use that same thinking to get us out of it because we're in a new paradigm. We have a different type of homeless that doesn't fit the traditional means of shelters. So I'm in support and will provide written comments and would encourage the Members to be open-minded."

Representative Brower's written remarks are as follows:

"Within the last decade, Hawaii's homeless problem has become one of the top challenges facing the state. Out of the 14,000 homeless individuals in the State of Hawaii, 9,000 of them reportedly live in Waikiki.

"Residents and visitors continue to share their health and public safety concerns about the homeless camping in parks, beaches, sidewalks, bus stops and other public spaces, despite vacancies in homeless shelters. More needs to be done to get the homeless off the streets and into their own homes.

"Homelessness requires both short-term and long-term solutions, such as efforts similar to S.B. 515. This bill provides funding to the Dept of Human Services and Dept of Health for various programs assisting the homeless.

"Mahalo for the opportunity to provide comments."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. As a licensed social worker that worked with the homeless and has walked with them, talked with them, talked with families on the beach and their various programs, I'm confident that if you really want to address the homeless as open-minded as I am, then let's fund the programs that are existing and continue outreach rather than come up with new programs without the input and support of those that are providing the direct service currently. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Last year we funded the homeless, reducing homelessness initiative with $63 million in terms of the current measures that we are doing now. That $63 million did not make a dent. We still have the same number of homeless people right now as it was. We can fund more money but we already know the result, it will be no impact whatsoever. So we should try other means.

"We don't want them in our parking lots, we don't want to return them to home. We don't want to build a safe haven. So what do we want? We end up with homeless people all over our state, all over our cities, all over our sidewalks and everywhere you look. So the point of saying that we don't want all this initiative, is saying we want the status quo. Is that what we really want? I don't think so, Mr. Speaker.

"We should be a Body that discusses solutions and enacting other solutions that might give us an impact. Doing nothing and sticking to what does not work is not what we are here for, Mr. Speaker. I ask that we move on and try other means, and see if this measure will help us all. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. It's no fun to be a homeless person. It degrades that person. You have to understand that the homeless are human beings just like us. So the first thing I did when I was elected to office was introduce a bill to help house the homeless. I just want you to understand that nobody wants to be homeless but it's just that sometimes people's income is not enough to cover for everything that they need and the first thing that is going to be let go is the homes. Food, clothing and everything else is what the family needs.

"So all I'm asking you folks is, put yourself in the shoes of a homeless person and you will understand how to be homeless. Let's help them big time and that's what I'm doing and I'm trying to do the best thing me and my family are doing, because we have experienced it for a short time, is to help people. Lets again be reminded that the homeless are human beings like us. So let's pass this bill out. Thank you."

Representative Aquino rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Bill 515, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1. First, I'd like to commend our House Committee on Housing for allowing a hearing on creative options at addressing homelessness. This issue, Mr. Speaker, is not a glamorous issue. It's an issue that many look down or look away from. Homelessness is a NIMBY issue, 'Not In My Back Yard.'

"It exists in every community, but few come forward to provide resources and our services in relation to the amount of homeless who need this assistance. As a Representative from an area where homelessness was extremely prevalent, thousands of individuals and families with infants, young children, resided on the sides of streets, in city and county parking lots, and along the beaches.

"We addressed this issue by providing both transitional and emergency shelters. The residents in the Waianae coast have come forward and helped be a part of the solution. Some residents were relieved that they would get their beaches back while others were reluctant to have a shelter near their home.

"But Mr. Speaker, inevitably they did come together for a solution. Many in these shelters were not from the Waianae coast, they were from other parts of the island, other parts of the state, other states and even from other countries. Many in the 43rd District as well as the 44th District have shared their concerns that if other communities did not come forward, more will be attracted to move to those areas where services are provided, such as in the Waianae coast. This bill provides solutions to areas where homelessness exists but spaces and funds are limited. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise in support."

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this measure does address homelessness. Housing First programs, which has been a successful program. Shelter in place, shallow subsidies, these are all effective measures. That's what this measure does address.

"My objection is to the two other inserted portions which are the Return-to-Home and temporary parking structures in the evening. I feel nonprofit organizations under private properties can handle these. I don't think the state should be moving forward in that direction. Currently our Interagency Council on Homeless does not support that, our Department of Human Services does not even support these particular initiatives.

"Yes, from the 44th District along with the 43rd District we have addressed the homeless issue in the last 13 years under the emergency proclamation during the last administration in 2003. It has been proven successful. But currently we are at the end of that toothpaste tube. I currently as of this past Saturday have 177 adult individuals and 42 homeless children living on 17 acres on Farrington Highway. Those need to be addressed by Housing First, Mr. Speaker. Those are successful programs.

"We do think out-of-the-box with these programs. We need to be proactive on what has been proven successful. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Brower rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank all the Members. There was some very thoughtful discussion on this issue. But we need to recognize, in my mind, there's two homeless. Homeless often with families, children, pets who are without lodging but do have the discipline to go into a shelter. But there has been no solution offered by government for the chronic homeless. These are people who refuse to go to the shelter, whether it's lack of discipline or they're more comfortable on the street.

"Unless we come up with a plan for the chronic homeless, then the only valid solution, because they are human beings, is to allow them to be in a camp site similar to how they're camping on the street. That's the only way that they will go somewhere where they're welcomed.

"So as I said before, I would encourage our homeless service providers to be open-minded but they have offered no solution on the chronic homeless. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I failed to include that also the Chair of Human Services had heard this measure in committee. In addition, I believe that we have a defective date, as well as the amounts that will be allocated for these programs have yet to be decided. So, I know that there's still a ways to go and I just hope that as we move forward with this measure many of the issues that were provided by those with reservations, we can close that gap. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to emphasize that there are so many reasons why people are homeless and there are so many kinds of homeless people. So there should be a myriad of solutions to address their needs. We know that the solution we have now is not sufficient. And this bill doesn't strip all or doesn't strip the current measures that we now fund. They are still in place.

"The Housing First that we have passed two years ago has proven to have decreased that. This Body came up with that. It's not those outreach services, it's not the nonprofits that put this up, it's we in this Chamber that put up the Housing First, and it has proven. So let's try it again, the things that we come up with here in this Chamber. It has worked, Mr. Speaker, and I ask that we continue doing so. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's been disturbing lately to see all the violence that we're seeing in the newspaper and on the mainland and see how people are hurting other people. When I think about this bill, I think about women and children that, maybe someone's lost a job, maybe they're escaping domestic violence and they're living in their car, and I can't imagine people wanting them in their car parked in front of a residential community. I can't imagine them being down an end of a road in rural Hawaii Island off on a road, a woman by herself or with children. It bothers me for their safety.

"I'd like to think that if we have these designated areas, not only can they go to them, but if they need services, there's an ability to interact with people that may come and offer services. But for me it's an issue of real safety for people that might be in harm's way. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Brower be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cullen rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition again. I feel compelled to make a few comments why I'm in opposition to this measure. Before coming here into the Legislative Branch and into the House, I worked with many of the homeless, on the Leeward coast, within many of our communities here that we represent right now. The funding that we provide is not adequate because a majority of the programs that I've worked with in the communities were not sufficient enough and we are trying to attack that.

"My big concerns lie within the area of allowing these temporary nighttime parking lots for homeless or those that need a place to stay. We do take responsibility for what we do as individuals. So, as a responsible legislator for my community, and understanding that we all do have large parking lots and we all do have areas of concern. We all need to look at that and we need to have further discussion.

"I would not object if they would have an area or a task force to look at it. To come into communities where these areas, open areas, can be used. But the concern is are we going to create an area or be a slum village or whatever term that may be there. We know that there's a big situation. There are creative ways to doing it. We should fund the programs we have because we are not doing it adequately.

"But we've got to understand that, we've got to look at where we are and it can be 'not in my backyard' but it's all our concerns because the number one rule is safety. Safety for our constituents, safety for everyone. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. No. 515, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Cullen, Fukumoto and Yamane voting no, and with Representatives Hanohano, McKelvey, Takumi and Woodson being excused.

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'd just like to add into the Journal that I wanted to thank the Chair of Public Safety for all the hard work he did on this bill. When the bill started there were a lot of concerns from people all over the state as we all got the emails. As the bill stands now, the bill is a fair bill and it also gives more time for the people who are registering guns to get the registration done. So, I'd like to thank the Chair of Public Safety and also say to our constituents on Kauai that our comments that were given to the Chair were inserted into the bill. So, thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 693, SD 2, HD 1 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, as Yogi Berra said, this is déjà vu all over again. Mr. Speaker, I was here with some of the other Members when we did the van cams and we all thought it was a great idea. Understanding these are not van cams, they're stationary. But that is the van the fact that it is mobile that is one objection. But the Jason Bourne-like quality of being looked at by big brother is what people object to. It just goes against their interest as freedom loving people.

"Mr. Speaker, I don't like speeding, I don't like running red lights, I don't think it's good at all and anything we can do to deter that is wonderful. But this crosses the line and it's going to be intrusive. Now what will happen is, and I'm putting my Nostradamus hat on again, Mr. Speaker, Perry & Price are going to come on one Monday morning, 'well, red light cams are up and these are the areas.'

"So let's talk about the areas that are going to be affected. Two of them are on a street, Fort Weaver Road, which boundaries my district and I share that road with my kababayan from Ewa Beach, we share that road, Fort Weaver Road. We both voted against this in committee.

"Now, Mr. Speaker, this affects both of us. Now I'm speaking for myself, but Fort Weaver is the main thoroughfare down to Ewa Beach and I live all the way inside. I drive it every day back and forth and based on anecdotal observations where I've spent literally hundreds of hours out there waving signs, I don't see a lot of red light running because it is almost a semi-freeway, so you have longer yellows, okay. So structurally it's not setup where you would have that sort of problem anyway.

"But my concern is, why do I have two, two, not one, two out of five throughout the state, two in my district. I didn't ask for it and I don't want them. Then in the Committee Report we hear that we'd like to add another one, Vineyard and Punchbowl. You don't have to add another one, Mr. Speaker, you can have one of mine. I don't want either of them, honest to God. I shared that with the Chair, but for some reason I got stuck with them.

"So I would ask as this goes on to Finance, and I read the Committee Report, it seems like a lukewarm endorsement of the measure. But I would ask that at least please heed my suggestion, I don't want them. Because I know what's going to happen. The phone is going to blow up. Not because people got mad because they got dinged with speeding, they just don't like the big brother quality. If a policeman is there and he tags you, that's fine. And then I'd like to point out that the revenue goes straight to the General Fund, so is this a money making opportunity? I don't know.

"All that being said, Mr. Speaker, I do not condone speeding. Safety is very important, but I don't like the way we're doing this. Thank you, sir."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, and I'd just like to say that if the previous speaker keeps on standing up and speaking on Second Reading bills, he may end up with 10 of them in his district."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, he is lucky he wasn't here 20 years ago when I was here. He doesn't know what he's missing."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Although I'm not as theatrical as my counterpart in Ewa Beach, I would like to express that I agree with him this time, wholeheartedly, that we should put those photo red lights in Kauai as opposed to in Oahu.

"I think that this is an issue that we should defer for now, Mr. Speaker, because I think that my constituents need to hear about this since two of them, two of the four, are in our district. It might have a small advantage, but again, this is something that is near and dear to people, whether they're being photographed without their permission. So I think that we should consult them first and let them know that this is going on. So I'm in opposition, Mr. Speaker, mainly because I am sure that my constituents would not like it. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong reservation and this might be a good idea to just keep it in committee and think about it during the interim. Thank you."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Photo red light imaging detection systems have been shown to reduce the 't-bone style' collisions, thus saving lives. I'm going to take the opposite route, if somebody doesn't want it in their district, then I think Kihei could use one."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Just listening to the strong persuasive arguments given by the Representatives from Ewa, I'm inclined to support them in this measure and to vote no, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1068, SD 2, HD 1 be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Small Business Caucus and the Filipino Caucus I am compelled to vote no on this bill that punishes rather than encourages the poorest of the poor and who's going to be impacted by this. Thank you, Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I commend the Chairman of CPC, he made a bad bill better. He's a hardworking man, but I'm going to vote no on this. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I do know that the CPC Chair tried his best but I think this is a bill that has to be held because once we increase these fees it can be used as a tool to encourage anybody downstream, like the agents, to increase fees. At that point in time even the DCCA was saying that once they increased the fees to the big guys, DCCA's testimony mentioned that once they increased the fees there is really no way that they can control the other transmitters beneath them.

"So it still has some negative effects and again, even though I'm appreciative of the work, I think this measure should be held. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Unfortunately, the Consumer Protection Chair is not present. However, I'm somewhat familiar with the idea and the notion of what this measure is trying to do, Mr. Speaker. It was trying to address some of the issues that were brought up by the federal government regarding the transfer of money internationally.

"This has been an ongoing issue as well as continuing investigations have shown that money transmitting has also contributed to terrorism and terroristic activities against the United States.

"So, Mr. Speaker, some of the things that we're trying to do is allow a review and monitoring process in which to support the legitimate, both large and small mom and pop transmitters, to be able to function and work legitimately, be monitored and ensure that those that are participating in money transmitting are doing it appropriately. As well as, Mr. Speaker, to address the issue that none of these funds or profits used can be used against the people of the United States. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Still in opposition, Mr. Speaker. The reason why I am opposing is that I think of the increased fees as astronomical to the needs that need to be addressed. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and if I could make a few brief comments. Mr. Speaker, I want to just point out that the Part II that was added was something that we had passed through this House in the first half of this session. I'd also like to note that in part this was added because of a very interesting informational briefing that was sponsored by Members of the House and the Senate with regard to an organization called Smart Approaches to Marijuana.

"I want to point out Members, as this bill moves forward, this bill in fact adds what I think came out of some of those discussions. Which, if you look on pages 4 and 5, adds a new section which provides a new law enforcement tool. In fact, a smart approach to marijuana, within the context of the medical marijuana scheme.

"In this, Mr. Speaker, I believe we are breaking new ground as a state because it does provide a legal enforcement tool for officers to be able to identify properties, and if a property were to have over a certain number of marijuana plants grown that would be a clear violation of the medical marijuana program.

"Again, this bill and the amendments that we put into it, amendments that we had earlier put into it which had gotten the support of our Department of Public Safety with regards to the changing of the plants from immature to mature to seven plants irregardless of their state, are all representative of smart approaches to marijuana regulations.

"So, I want to thank the Members for letting this move along and I'm very certain that we'll be able to get some very good legislation out of this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

A similar issue was addressed by the courts in 1997 in the Kahana Sunset vs. County of Maui case where they clarified that under the state's Environmental Review Law, you have to look at a project in its entirety.

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, opposition and some comments. In the hearing this bill proved to be extraordinarily problematic to the point where I think it's unworkable. What I brought up somewhat half in jest a few weeks ago, maybe a week ago, about how this five cents is about 10% of the cost of the bottled water. Apparently, California already has a deposit or a fee that you pay when you buy a laptop. I'm concerned that's where we're headed, that's where we're going.

"Now, I asked the Deputy Director Gill in the hearing, what happens if I take this laptop and I throw it in the trash can. What happens when it goes to H-Power? Of course, my focus here is Oahu. It gets grinded up and it gets burned because it's not steel or anything like that. It provides a good amount of electricity based on the content and size that it is when it goes through H-Power.

"So, I understand the electronic waste, but I fear we're going to go down the road, and it might not be this year but it might be the year after that, where we're going to start charging $10, $20, $30 per laptop. For every electronic device that we use, you have to pay, because they're doing it in California. And you pay that up front and that's going to be a burden to everybody so we can feel good about ourselves. So, that's why I object to it. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, I will reserve my rather long comments in opposition should this bill make it out of Finance. Thank you."

So, the committee members who were there heard the testimony, it was extraordinarily problematic and I believe it's unworkable in its current form. Thank you."

INTRODUCTIONS

The following introductions were made to the Members of the House:

Representative McDermott introduced wives and family members of today's honorees: Ms. Stephanie Bates, Ms. Nina Castagnetti, Ms. Susan Page, Ms. Carole Hickerson and Ms. Vivien Stackpole; and his wife, Mrs. Utu McDermott.

Representative Takai introduced Mr. Clayton Fujie, former Deputy Superintendent of the Department of Education, and his wife, Mrs. Gwen Fujie, facilitator of the 70th anniversary of the Go For Broke celebration.

Representative Ward introduced Mrs. Pasha Christian and Mr. Kerry Christian.

Representative Coffman introduced Mr. Trevor Tanaka, Senior at Konawaena High School and Harvard Book Award recipient and honorable mention awardee of County of Hawaii's Student Malama Award; and Ms. Nancy Redfeather, Program Director of Kohala Center's Hawaii Islands Garden Network and Hawaii State Director for Food Care.

Representative Cachola introduced his friend, Mr. Wes Deguchi, son of Mr. Yasunori Deguchi.

Representative Oshiro introduced his aunt, Mrs. Nancy Higa, wife of Mr. Masayuki Higa.

Representative Awana introduced her legislative intern, Mr. Jared Dmello.

Representative Awana also submitted the following:

"Mr. Dmello is a legislative intern in my office who will be graduating with his bachelor's degree in Political Science and a Certificate in Hindi Language from the University of Hawaii at Manoa. At the ripe old age of 19, his chosen area of expertise is in International Affairs with an emphasis on the South Asian region. His senior thesis is relating to the plausibility of the case for Reverse Partition of the Indian Sub-continent.

"Jared also gave presentations at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory Dryden Flight Research Symposium Student Symposium and before the NASA Cassini-Huygen's team.

"Mr. Dmello also finds passions with enhancing human rights and education. One of his biggest goals is combating the significant lack of proficiency of mathematics in the state. He is also trying to work in conjunction with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioners for Refugees to be an advocate for Refugee Rights.

"His intention is to obtain a PhD in Intelligence Studies from Henley-Putnam University.

"At the age of 13, Mr. Dmello won the Cassini Scientist for a Day Contest at the National Level. The resulting image of Saturn's rings was an unprecedented advanced in Cassini-Huygens' mission to deeper understand the astronomical phenomena surrounding Saturn and her beautiful rings. In his paper, Mr. Dmello offered some predictions that were never heard of before; all members of the Cassini-Huygens team discredited his predications. When the image was captured and completed, the resulting image gave us the first picture of Atlas and Daphne in the same line of view. In addition, the image also provided concrete evidence for the intertwining of Saturn's Stranded F-ring within itself, showing the fluidity and dynamics of the rings as a system, not a rigid body.

"Mr. Dmello went on to be awarded the Excellence in Science Award awarded to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Mr. Dmello also was asked to present a heart-wrenching presentation at the dedication of Columbia Middle School as a NASA Explorer School in honor of those individuals who lost their lives in the Columbia disaster; there was not a dry eye in the theater when he was finished!

"I am extremely proud to have Jared serving as a legislative aide in our office. He is a shining example of the hope that is brought to our future. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cullen introduced Ms. Stacey Hayashi, author of the 100th/442nd RCT Manga/Graphic Novel.

S.B. No. 870, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that S.B. No. 870, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be voting with reservations. Essentially my reservations have to do with the rebuttable presumption and the listing of certain offenses under that rebuttable presumption. I ask for permission to submit written comments. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support this bill with reservations.

"This measure would create a rebuttable presumption that certain types of forces are unjustifiable under the parental discipline defense law. Among the types of force included in this prohibition are: throwing, kicking, burning, biting, cutting, striking with a closed fist, shaking a minor under three years of age, interfering with breathing, or threatening with a deadly weapon.

"The bill would also alter the state of mind requirement or mens rea, with respect to other types of force to impose a requirement that the force used 'does not intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or negligently' create a risk causing substantial bodily injury, disfigurement, extreme pain or mental distress, or neurological damage. The current state of mind and law focuses on whether the force used is 'designed to cause or be known to cause' the aforementioned types of injury.

"The proposed amendment to the defense which would alter the state of mind is troublesome. The measure includes reckless and negligent conduct. Such conduct would only have to create a risk of causing substantial bodily injury, disfigurement, extreme pain or mental distress, or neurological damage. No actual harm is required. Thus, if a child is spanked and the parent is deemed to have negligently created the mere risk of mental distress, the defense would be unavailable. This may inadvertently have a chilling effect upon parental discipline of a child.

"I feel this measure is not necessary to the fair application of the parental discipline law and is vague to the point that it is likely to cause confusion among litigants in court and among judges and juries. Specifically, are the nine (9) acts exclusive to the rebuttable presumption? Does the list, by its exclusivity to these nine (9) acts mean or suggest all other acts are appropriate and therefore justifiable? What does this mean for jury instructions and how will jurors be instructed?

"Under the current parental discipline law, a parent can only use disciplinary force which is not designed to cause 'substantial bodily injury, disfigurement, extreme pain or mental distress or neurological damage'. In fact, this current provision already prohibits many of the acts specified in the bill. For instance, of the nine (9) listed acts, burning or cutting a child would definitely be designed to cause either 'substantial bodily injury',

'disfigurement' (scarring), or 'extreme pain' and are most assuredly covered under the current law. Likewise, two of the other acts listed and presumed unjustifiable – threatening someone with a deadly weapon, and interfering with breathing (i.e., choking, arm lock, etc.) can already be prosecuted as felony Terroristic Threatening and felony Abuse of Household Member, respectively. Both are serious Class B and C felonies.

"The parental discipline defense also currently requires that a parent or guardian employ force 'with due regard to the age and size of a minor'. Thus, the law already prevents such acts as the shaking of an infant or the punching or throwing or kicking of a young child. These incidents would obviously not be in compliance with the 'due regard to age and size' requirement. But, again, does the listing of specific types of force upon a certain aged minor excuse or exonerate a shaking of a minor who is three years and one day or more, regardless of the 'age or size'? My reading of the current case law and law suggest that these four (4) acts – shaking an infant, punching or throwing or kicking of a child, are covered under the present law. Also, consider that the specific facts may also suggest an appropriate application of the parental discipline defense even when there is 'striking with a closed fist' or 'kicking'.

"For example, when kicking an infant would no doubt be prohibited under current law, when you take into account the age and size of the minor, a similar kick to the leg of a 17 year old who is rebelling in a physical way might be appropriate as a form of discipline. Likewise, an act which would be presumed unjustifiable is 'striking on the face' which would include a slap. Again, such a slap might be an appropriate form of discipline on a teenager.

"In closing, please be assured that I am not condoning any degree of corporal punishment that in fact is nothing less than assault and battery or abuse of a household member. I have in my previous career as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney tried and gotten many convictions and very similar with a myriad defenses and alibis tried and tested. Violators of our criminal codes should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law and held accountable for their actions. Especially with the elderly and children. There should be no tolerance. But here in this measure with these amendments, I am not certain that it will lead to better outcomes for both victims and defendants. And, whether the old legal adage, 'bad facts make bad law', may be an appropriate description here.

"Currently, the decision on whether a form of corporal punishment is permissible under the parental discipline law is made, in most cases, by a jury. This is the appropriate Body to decide on this issue. A jury, but its very makeup, brings community values and morals to each case. Corporal punishment is a controversial issue with many differing opinions regarding when, if ever, it should be employed. The legislature should leave the decision on this issue to the people in the form of juries.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 870, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO USE OF FORCE BY PERSONS WITH SPECIAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR CARE, DISCIPLINE, OR SAFETY OF OTHERS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Seventh Legislature was called to order at 2:04 o'clock p.m., by the Honorable Donna Mercado Kim, President of the Senate.

The President addressed the Chamber, stating:

"The Joint Session called pursuant to Concurrent Resolution adopted by the Members of the Senate and the Members of the House is called to order.

"On behalf of the House Speaker and all the Members of the Hawaii State Legislature, we honor members of the armed forces of the United States with ties to Hawaii who fought and died bravely in combat zone designated by Presidential Order."

At this time, the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, guests, and audience rose for the Hawaiian Blessing which was delivered by Ms. Hinaleimoana Wong-Kalu, followed by the presentation of our Nation's and our State's Colors by the Joint Service Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard Royal Guard. The singing of the National Anthem and Hawaii Pono'i was then led by Mr. Danny Kaleikini.

President Kim then addressed the Members, guests and audience as follows:

"Thank you, Ms. Wong-Kalu. Mahalo, Joint Service Color Guard, Royal Guard and Mr. Kaleikini. Your participation in today's ceremony is greatly appreciated.

"Good afternoon honored guests, ladies and gentlemen. On behalf of the Members of the Hawaii State Senate and the House of Representatives, I extend to all of you our warmest aloha and welcome, and a special aloha to the families of those we honor today. Many of you have travelled a long way to be here, and we are humbled and honored by your presence to join us for this ceremony.

"The Medal of Honor is Hawaii's expression of gratitude to those who gave their lives in the service of our nation. These citizens volunteered to carry the flag of the United States, to uphold the ideals and principles of a free and democratic nation, to put themselves in harm's way to fulfill their military missions, and to represent our people and country with pride, honor and distinction. We admire them immensely for their courage and willingness to make tremendous personal sacrifices for the greater good.

"The Medal of Honor is awarded posthumously. As such, this day is one of sorrow, of heartbreak. The families of our servicemen and women endured great suffering and hardship, and we convey our deepest condolences to all the families and loved ones.

"At the same time, in honoring these heroes, let us celebrate their lives and what they stood for. They are sons, brothers, husbands, fathers, comrades-in-arms, friends and neighbors. They represent all the good things in life. They stood for those qualities we admire in our fellow citizens: honor, loyalty, courage, sacrifice, patriotism, and a commitment to putting the needs of others above their own. And they symbolized the values and traditions that have made our country a place of freedom, equality and opportunity.

"To the families of our honorees, please accept this Medal of Honor Ceremony as a small token of our appreciation and admiration, which we present with our heartfelt and lasting aloha. Mahalo."

President Kim then called upon the Honorable Neil Abercrombie to deliver his remarks as follows:

"Ladies and gentlemen, aloha. Friends, the purpose of the Act, designated as Act 21, Session Laws of Hawaii 2005, states: 'the purpose of this Act is to provide for a Hawaii Medal of Honor that would help express the deep appreciation and gratitude of the people of Hawaii to the loved ones of members of the military who sacrificed their lives in defense of our nation and its freedoms.'

"It's a position of gratitude. It is an honor for those of us who are privileged to occupy elected office to be able to represent to you, not only those who are gathered here to my immediate right, as family of those who are to be honored as a result of the passage of Act 21, but for all those assembled here today and who may see at least a portion of the results either in the newspapers or throughout the media.

"We do this, a public ceremony, because we wish to express in more than just a symbolic way what it is we regard as most fundamental to recognition of what it takes to enable us to be a free people. In some respects as I have indicated in previous remarks on another occasion, where this opportunity was provided for us, that this involves inevitably then, if it's to be described, a ritual. Why are we gathered in such a manner, in such a solemn regard for what it is we're about to undertake.

"It's because we understand that in ceremonies such as this we are engaged in a public expression of what constitutes our fundamental values. A public expression of what it is that we believe. We are trying to put three dimensions and a human context on to what otherwise might be considered an academic exercise. That is to say, the recitation of a philosophy or the verbal expressions associated with what we say we believe.

"It's one thing to take an oath. Everyone here has taken an oath of office. Everyone who is to be honored today took an oath of office. It's a verbal expression, a particularly and peculiarly human endeavor in which we verbalize in front of our fellow what it is that we say we're about to embark upon in terms of our commitment to it, our fidelity with regard to it and what we say is an extension of who we are as human beings and as free men and women in this democracy.

"I carry with me today a book that I brought with me the last time I did this, because it's a constant reminder to me and it's something that I read and re-read. It's Guard of Honor by James Gould Cozzens, written in the wake of World War II, and was an expression of Cozzens' ideas in a fictional sense of what it was to be involved in World War II and by extension what was involved with us as human beings in expressing not just to ourselves but to the nation and the world what it meant to make an ultimate sacrifice.

"The quote that formulated the foundation for Cozzens' work was from The Tempest and Shakespeare. 'I and my fellows are ministers of Fate. The elements, of whom your swords are temper'd, may as well wound the loud winds, or with bemock'd-at stabs kill the still-closing waters, as diminish one feather that's in my plume. My fellow-ministers are like invulnerable.'

"All those we honor today have embodied in their sacrifice, in their commitment and their determination to be as fellow ministers of each other's fate. A sense not that they were invulnerable. What was invulnerable was their commitment. What was invulnerable was their fidelity and loyalty to each other. What was invulnerable was their dedication to the proposition that freedom had to be defended and that they were willing to put themselves forward to accomplish that.

"None of us know at any given moment how we would be able to respond, how we would react, whether we would be able to carry through on that to which we pledged ourselves. Who knows among us at this moment whether we too could have met that challenge?

"But we know that we are ministers of our own fate and that as ministers of that fate we know that our own vulnerabilities are known only to us and known to God. What we do know is that sacrifices were made. What we do know is that we can acknowledge those sacrifices and that we can make certain that those who have had to bear the brunt of what those sacrifices meant, know that they are not forgotten. Know that all those honored today are carried in our hearts and that we are brothers and sisters for and with and to each other.

"And with that sure knowledge we hope that some small measure of comfort will be extended from us to you. Not just this day, but in the days to come. And that you will carry with you from this ceremony our commitment and our pledge not just to remember but to try to fulfill the promise that was made ultimately and with complete sacrifice by those whom you love."

President Kim then called upon Major General Darryll Wong to deliver his remarks on behalf of the military as follows:

"Governor Abercrombie, Lieutenant Governor Tsutsui, Senate President Mercado Kim, Speaker Souki, Members of our State Legislature, and especially, family and friends of our honored heroes. Good afternoon and aloha.

"We are honored and privileged to be in the presence of the families of our fallen heroes. There is no honor higher that our state can bestow upon a member of our armed forces, than the Hawaii Medal of Honor. But the price of that honor is far too high. To receive that medal means a member of our military with Hawaii ties has given up his or her life in service of our nation.

"The burden imposed on the families and friends is heavy beyond measure. This is not an honor that we bestow with joy, rather we do so with heavy hearts and solemn resolve. Collectively, as a state, we have made it our mission to express our deepest appreciation to these brave men and women. We resolve to ensure that the families of our servicemen shall always be a part of our Hawaii ohana, and that the ultimate sacrifice made by their loved ones will always be remembered.

"As evidenced by these great men who sit up in the gallery there, you know our nation has been at war for 11 1/2 years and the burden of that war has been carried on the shoulders of a select few. Some 2 million men and women who currently wear the uniform or who are now war veterans have deployed since September 11, 2001. Of those more than 6,600 have given their lives, of which Hawaii has lost 327 service members.

"Our grateful state best honors and remembers the sacrifices of those who have served our nation by living our lives with deep appreciation for our freedom. While the Hawaii Medal of Honor cannot take away the pain of losing a loved one, it symbolizes that Hawaii will never forget. They will never forget them nor will we forget their families.

"During World War II gold stars denoting that a service member from a family had died in action were all too commonly displayed on the windows of apartment buildings, farm houses, and in the communities that mourned the loss of these fallen heroes. The gold star in the Hawaii State Medal of Honor that will be presented to each family today represents the star of the 50th State on the American Flag. It's also a reminder of the gold star placed on the windows of American homes from past conflicts.

"The attachment device in red and yellow is a rendering of the ancient puela or flag that Hawaiians raised above the sails of their canoes. Anyone who saw the puela from afar knew that a person of the highest rank was coming. Today the service ribbon and its puela reminds us that these families are of the highest rank and honor.

"The kalo or taro leaves in the medal symbolizes the embrace of the people of Hawaii as one ohana. There is no community in the United States that embraces and loves its military members more than we here in Hawaii. To the family, friends and comrades-in-arms that are here with us today, there may be times when you feel all alone, that no one understands your pain or that few appreciate the ultimate sacrifice that your husband, father, son or daughter has made on our behalf.

"In those times, please remember this. It doesn't matter whether a sailor, soldier, airmen or marine grew up in Hawaii or called Hawaii home for only a short period of time. Their warrior spirit will always be a part of our islands. And it doesn't matter whether the families of our heroes from Hawaii were from here or the mainland, your loss is our loss. It is with great humility that we present these Medals of Honor to these families who are and always will be a part of our ohana and will always have a place of honor in our islands."

Speaker Souki then gave his closing remarks as follows:

"Before proceeding on with the 3-Volley Salute and playing of Taps, I would like to thank all of you for being here today to join with the Members of the Hawaii State Senate and the House of Representatives as we pay our respect to these fallen servicemen and women, and their families, their friends and fellow soldiers who served beside them.

"I am sure that I can speak for all of us here, as well as the communities we represent, and indeed our state and our nation, when I say, we honor you, our fallen heroes. And we offer our deepest gratitude to you for answering the call to duty and for making the ultimate sacrifice.

"Freedom is not free. We hear this phrase so often, and yet it is in ceremonies such as this that its truth is deeply felt. When we pause to appreciate our freedom and our liberties that we too often take for granted and when we are reminded that each of us, in our own way, also have a duty and responsibility to protect and uphold these basic human rights at home and abroad.

"And to the families, the friends, the brothers and sisters in arms, please know that the people of this state, this community, stand with you in remembering and honoring your loved ones – heroes, each of them. May God bless them, may God bless the United States.

"And now, Members of the Senate and House, our special guests and audience, please rise as I turn your attention outside to the Capitol Rotunda for the 3-Volley Salute and the playing of Taps which will be followed by a moment of silence in honor of our fallen heroes. Members of the Hickam Base Honor Guard, please proceed."

At this time, Members of the Hickam Base Honor Guard proceeded with a 3-Volley Salute and the playing of Taps outside the Senate Chamber in the Capitol Rotunda, which was then followed by a moment of silence.

The Speaker of the House then called on the Joint Service Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard Royal Guard for the retiring of the Colors, and at 2:57 o'clock p.m., declared the Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives adjourned.

SYMBOLISM OF THE HAWAII MEDAL OF HONOR

The Hawaii Medal of Honor was designed by Sergeant First Class Aaron Pollick from the Hawaii Army National Guard. This medal consists of the following six components, superimposed on each other:

Circle of Kalo Leaves: The kalo leaves represent the family or Ohana. The leaves are designed in an encircled fashion and represent the concept of Ohana, which we strive to embrace.

Coat of Arms: The Great Shield is the keystone of the design. The eight bars represent the eight major islands of the State of Hawaii. The kapu sticks, or Pulo'ulo'u, symbolize authority and protection. The star in the center of the medallion is the Star of Hawaii, the 50th star on the flag of the United States. This star also represents the honorees of this prestigious award.

Maltese Cross: The Maltese Cross represents the four directional axes of the globe, denoting Hawaii as the Crossroads of the Pacific.

Sun Rays: The irradiant sun is symbolic of the new era. Its position in the center of the Maltese Cross represents our sunny shores and warm hearts ever shining on all the corners of the world.

The Neck Drape: The neck drape is red and golden yellow in color. These colors symbolize the royal monarchy that once ruled these islands. The red represents courage and strength. The golden yellow depicts the honor that the recipients have brought to our islands.

Service Ribbon & Attachment: The service ribbon represents distinguished service. Its colors are identical to the colors of the neck drape. The attachment device at the middle of the ribbon is an ancient flag or puela of Hawaiian Chiefs. In olden times, the puela was raised above the sail of the ancient Hawaiians' canoes while at sea. Our puela signifies that the person receiving this medal is of high rank or honor.

"Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on these measures. This would call for a study for the unionization of graduate students. Mr. Speaker, I rise as a former graduate teaching assistant and that's really what the resos are about. It's not about graduate students, it's about teaching assistants.

"Mr. Speaker, where I have a problem is that this, I would presume, should have been vetted with student government. I know a lot of Members have been in student government. And the Board of Regents. This now goes to the auditor, which has a backlog of doing audits and as you know audits usually start from 35 – 50,000 and up. This is not a time when they can actually probably even afford to do this, but I'd like to see it processed through student government, through the Board of Regents, rather than kicking it here and knowing that they themselves have not processed. As we know, the Board of Regents have skipped over a number of things in the past and I think this is one of those resos that they could deal with. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Cheape: "I just wanted to announce that this weekend, Friday, Saturday, is the final home games of the UH Men's Volleyball team. And the reason I'm letting you know about that is I'm a very proud older sister, and my brother Matthew Cheape is the only senior on the UH Men's Volleyball team and they'll be having Senior Night on Saturday. So if anybody can make it I would love to have you come out. We sit in the cheap seats, no pun intended, and we wear bright yellow shirts and we'll have one for everybody. So please come out, I'd love if you'd support my brother. Went to Mililani High School, worked his way, played for five years and is finally being able to start in his senior year. So, that's just my announcement for today. Thank you."

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Dr. Ching and Dr. Agbayani wanted to remind everyone that they have lunches for all of us, and that's just for the Members, both House and Senate. I believe it's in Room 329. But please don't bring your staff because there's only enough for just the Members. Thank you."

Representative Awana: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate the middle and high school students in both private and public schools who garnered numerous awards during the National Student Television Awards event which was held in Los Angeles, California about two weeks ago. Students from across the state from Kauai to Hawaii Island were represented. I'd like to ask, Mr. Speaker, with your indulgence, that I be allowed to enter additional comments inclusive of the schools and awards received in their respective categories. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

HONOLULU – Led by five awards from Waianae High School, public schools captured 16 of 17 awards won by Hawaii schools this month at the 10th Annual Student Television Network (STN) Convention in Los Angeles, Calif.

Nearly 2,500 students from 153 middle and high schools across the country attended this year's convention, March 7-10. Hawaii was well represented with the third-largest contingent with 15 public and private schools. During the four-day convention, students and teachers were able to select from more than 90 breakout sessions taught by industry professionals covering all areas of broadcast journalism, video production, filmmaking and media.

Waianae High School's videos are available for viewing at http://vimeo.com/spwhs, while Chiefess Kamakahelei Middle School's winning videos can be found at http://vimeo.com/cktvmediaproductions.

"This is also a safety issue and this measure simply asks for all interested parties to gather together to help address this issue because, again, it is a safety issue and it is not necessarily an issue to dismantle these memorials in as so much, it's just so that constituents have a passage or a way in which they can go ahead and voice their concerns and so that they know whether or not these are indeed allowed or not. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Let me just be clear, Mr. Speaker. This resolution does not ask to mandate every woman in the military to serve in combat arms. This resolution, amongst other things, simply asks that the bar against women to fully serve within their capabilities be repealed. In my 26 years of service, Mr. Speaker, I personally know that there are women in uniform that can perform in combat arms equally or even better than their male counterparts. Representative Takai rose in support of both measures and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of these resolutions.

"The Vietnam War was a trying test of character for a divided America. It defined—not only our country—but each service member who bravely answered the call to arms. From the start of conflict to the search for peace, service members found their morals and values tested by war.

"While many speak of the brutality of the Vietnam War, I'm asking that we instead acknowledge the extraordinary heroism and humanity that arose from it; let us choose to recognize the unfathomable bravery and unwavering commitment to country and people, and let us be clear—there is nothing natural nor easy about standing down fear with courage and noble action. It is a rare, chosen sacrifice, made in the darkest moments of battle. As a grateful nation, we recognize this decision to sacrifice through medals and commendations, including the highest medal for valor in combat, the Congressional Medal of Honor.

"Today, I'm asking that we urge Congress to award this honor to First Lieutenant John Kuulei Kauhaihao. Lieutenant Kauhaihao chose to sacrifice everything to protect the lives of his fellow brothers in battle.

"Before listening to his story, Members, please allow me to briefly explain the criteria of the medal:

The Congressional Medal of Honor distinguishes extraordinary gallantry and courageousness while risking life and going beyond the call of duty:

While engaged in an action against an enemy of the US;
While engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing foreign force; or
While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the US is not a belligerent party.

"First Lieutenant Kauhaihao excelled as a Hawaii National Guardsman. He received his commission and lieutenant bars after completing the Hawaii Army National Guard's Officer Candidate School. Lieutenant Kauhaihao was presented with his certificate of completion of the school on May 10, 1968.

"He and 3,200 other officers and soldiers of the 29th Infantry Brigade were soon called to active duty three days later, on May 13, 1968. Lieutenant Kauhaihao became a platoon leader and served with Company B, 2nd Battalion, 8th Cavalry Division (Airmobile) in a reconnaissance operation in the hostile Tay Ninh province. His company's mission was to locate enemy North Vietnamese bunkers in the area.

"During this operation, Lieutenant Kauhaihao's company was outnumbered. Despite this disadvantage, he avoided reckless engagement with the enemy and instead worked to preserve the lives of his men. While leading his platoon through thick jungle terrain, his company was fired upon. Lieutenant Kauhaihao took preventative measures, directing some of his men to seek cover behind bamboo-covered dirt mounds.

"When engagement was necessary, Lieutenant Kauhaihao took it upon himself to tactically and self-sacrificially protect his men. While the rest of his company was caught in a crossfire with the enemy, Lieutenant Kauhaihao hacked through the bamboo and used it as cover, hurling more than 30 hand grenades through his makeshift opening. He drew enemy fire upon himself so that his men could locate and fire on the enemies. He then crawled over a hundred meters of gunfire-swept terrain to drag vital equipment to the rear and help wounded soldiers get to safety.

"On September 5, 1969, after rejoining his company, Lieutenant Kauhaihao saw another enemy squad closing in. He acted in a moment's notice and advanced to engage the enemy to protect his men. This resulted in being mortally wounded by grenade shrapnel and small arms fire. Lieutenant Kauhaihao was immediately evacuated due to the severity of his wounds. However, the medivac helicopter could not safely land under heavy fire and crashed. By the time help arrived, Lieutenant Kauhaihao had already died from his wounds.

"Colleagues, I think you'll agree that the story of Lieutenant John Kauhaihao is not defined by a single act, but rather multiple, extraordinary acts of bravery that reveal a soldier dedicated to his country and comrades, a leader unshaken in his values and honor, who went above and beyond to exemplify the ideals of our military today. Furthermore, his readiness and willingness to activate at the call of duty reminds each of us of the responsibilities of Guardsmen across the nation. He lived with dignity, courage and honor, and his immeasurable sacrifice will not be forgotten.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 174, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO AWARD THE CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR TO JOHN KUULEI KAUHAIHAO, OF HONAUNAU, HAWAII," was adopted, with Representative McKelvey being excused; and Representative Saiki moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 148; and H.C.R. No. 183 be adopted, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of these two resolutions. I was a boy when the Philippines was invaded by the Japanese Imperial Army and my dad fought side by side with American soldiers. At that time we were promised citizenship. It's just like pulling teeth after the war, that a lot of those who served with the American troops were not given citizenship. Their children are also applying for citizenship here in the United States.

"That's why I want to thank Senator Hirono and Congresswoman Colleen Hanabusa for introducing the Filipino Veteran's Family Reunification Act of 2013. There were moves way back for this. Some of the children have been waiting 15, 20 years, and still are waiting to join their parents. Sometimes they cannot even join their parents because they died before they were allowed to come in. I have other written testimony that I want to be inserted into the Journal and hopefully all the Members will vote in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola's written remarks are as follows:

"During World War II, Filipino soldiers fought side by side with the American forces in defense of Bataan. We recognize the value of their sacrifices. They volunteered as spies, serving as guerrillas in the jungles, and fighting in American units. They exhibited great courage.

"The wars have ended. In their footsteps, the world had witnessed the epic struggle that the Filipino soldiers put up in the jungles and the rugged coast of Bataan. Despite the trials of defeat, the captured soldiers stood strong and heroes emerged from the event. American and Filipino liberation forces eventually retook the peninsula on February 8, 1945 and the rest became an inspiring history of valor.

"Because of the circumstances as reflected in the measure's text, veterans were given options to pursue United States Citizenship. Since these changes in immigration laws, thousands of Filipino veterans immigrated to the United States; and many of them have been separated from their children and families in the Philippines who are awaiting the day when their visas are granted and their families can be reunited in the United States.

"The family is the crux of Filipino existence. Allowing it to disintegrate because of the limitations and restrictions of immigration laws is a travesty of what American justice is all about.

"We urge you honorable ladies and gentlemen, to support these measures so that families will be reunited and the promise of fairness will finally be attained for Filipino veterans and their families. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker, with a few comments. I just wanted to say that by the time US Congress passed the recognition of the Filipino veterans who served in the Second World War under the US flag, 90% of them had passed. There's only probably 2% that are still alive.

"However, Mr. Speaker, nevertheless having them recognized, I think they should be given the rights of their families as if they were living and be recognized as a US citizen with the right to petition for their family. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 148, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND CONGRESS TO SUPPORT AND PASS THE FILIPINO VETERANS FAMILY REUNIFICATION ACT OF 2013," was adopted, with Representative McKelvey being excused; and

Representative Yamane, for the Committee on Transportation, presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1308) recommending that H.R. No. 113 be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1309) recommending that H.C.R. No. 142 be adopted.

Representative Saiki moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 113; and H.C.R. No. 142 be adopted, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Awana rose in support of both measures and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. As our population in both central Oahu and west Oahu continues to increase, so will traffic. Many families need to commute into Honolulu, whether it be for the purposes business, work or school. The quality of life for residents would in part be enhanced by addressing the area where both the H-1 and H-2 merge. In particular, I would like to see instead of a merge, an additional lane designed. Relief is needed. There resolutions and my suggestion is an answer and for these reasons, I am in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my strong support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. Representative Awana rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Requesting the same, in strong support with written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. These measures, although resolutions, are a sign of support from our Legislature that we realize that the needs of residents on the west side of Oahu is just as important as other areas throughout the state. Currently, drivers run the risk of traffic citations when travelling on the shoulder lane to get to work or arrive to their classes on time. Mr. Speaker, other areas in the island allow for contra flow lanes, shoulder lane usage and the like during peak rush hour traffic times. However, in the areas such as the one listed in these resolutions, between the Makakilo on-ramp until the Kunia off-ramp heading east, there is no relief for those coming as far back as Makaha.

"Quality of life is strained in both the high cost of gasoline and the time in traffic instead of being with their families. It is my hope that the State Department of Transportation will take these resolutions seriously. I will continue to work with the administration during the interim to see what action can be done to further assist and/or address these challenges for the people on the west side of Oahu. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my strong support. Thank you."

No. 141, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION TO MAKE THE NECESSARY ACCOMMODATIONS TO ALLOW THE EASTBOUND SHOULDER LANES FROM THE MAKAKILO DRIVE ON-RAMP TO THE KUNIA OFF-RAMP ON THE H-1 FREEWAY DURING PEAK MORNING TRAFFIC HOURS TO ASSIST IN ALLEVIATING TRAFFIC CONGESTION," was adopted, with Representative McKelvey being excused.

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of these resolutions.

"As many of us know, the United States has had a tumultuous history in the Middle East over the past three decades. This history cannot be ignored. The Persian Gulf War, Operation Desert Storm, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation New Dawn, and Operation Enduring Freedom were the wars of this generation and its veterans and heroes must be honored.

"Hawaii has already dedicated the Korean-Vietnam War Memorial on the grounds of the State Capitol to remember those in Hawaii who sacrificed their lives for others during these wars. For some of us, these wars directly affected our generation or our parents' generation. This memorial holds special significance for those who can remember what it felt like during those times of hardship. We could relate to our Korean and Vietnam War veterans who gave their lives to serve their country; they were our classmates, our relatives, our peers, and our friends. We remember who they were. We remember their stories in the news, and the memorial serves both as tribute to their sacrifice, tribute to the wars' living veterans, and as a beacon of hope for us.

"The veterans and families of these Middle East wars also deserve to have the same tribute because they too sacrificed everything for our nation. After 9/11, our security was shattered, our country broken, and we mourned for those lost. Though we in Hawaii are separated from the continental US, distance did not separate our collective grief and resolve to prevent another 9/11 attack from occurring. Local men and women did not merely endure, but instead joined the armed services intent on rebuilding what our nation lost, and left home to enter lands of uncertainty and conflict. Service members from Hawaii gave and lost their lives. Though memorializing their sacrifice cannot possibly express the extent of gratitude of our state, it serves to remind veterans and family members that we do not forget those who have sacrificed everything.

"This memorial established for the veterans of the Persian Gulf War, Operation Desert Storm, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation New Dawn, and Operation Enduring Freedom would honor this generation's heroes, veterans, and military families, and would remind them that there is hope in loss, that there can be honor in death, and that freedom does not come without a price.

"For these reasons, I support these measures and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

Representative Takai continued in support of both measures and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of these resolutions.

"State and county workers who are in the National Guard and Reserves are eligible for both the federal's Tricare Reserve Select (TRS), a premium-based health plan available for purchase by eligible members of the National Guard and Reserves, and health coverage under the state's Hawaii Employer-Union Health benefits Trust Fund (EUTF).

"Currently, state and county workers in the Guard and Reserves can choose TRS. By choosing TRS, state and county workers are forced to forfeit their allotted health plan employer-payouts from the state. If they do choose TRS, there is tremendous savings that EUTF and state and county employed Guardsmen and Reservists will realize. EUTF should consider covering the employee part of the TRS co-payment rather than the employer part of the EUTF co-payment.

"Opting for TRS is cheaper for qualified Guardsmen and Reservists than opting for EUTF. For example, the current monthly premium cost for TRS for a family of four is only $195.81. This premium includes medical and prescription drugs. This family will save $432.61 monthly or $5,191.32 yearly (assuming current premiums rates for EUTF and Tricare RS). Other state and county workers also in the Guard and Reserves would see savings.

"Covering the TRS costs would not only save Guardsmen and Reservists money, but would also save EUTF a large amount of money. Based on the current premium rates, EUTF will save $533.34 monthly and $6,400.08 yearly if it will no longer need to pay the employer portion of the premium for a family of four. If EUTF decides to pay the employee part of the TRS premium for each employee, EUTF will save $340.45 monthly or $4,085.40 yearly for each employee. Furthermore, if only 245 TRS-eligible employees choose this option, EUTF will save more than $1 million each year.

"These figures reflect large amounts of savings on both sides; this proposal would decrease EUTF's payouts for these employees and would also ease the financial burden on qualified Guardsmen and Reservists. Again, it makes sense to consider covering the employee part of TRS payments. However, I appealed to EUTF with these figures for three years through four letters requesting consideration of TRS coverage. My requests were denied on all accounts.

"These resolutions urge the Board of Trustees of EUTF to further consider covering TRS and encourage further discussion of the feasibility of this proposal.

"For these reasons, I support these measures and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

This is not to show, hey I speak fluent Indonesian, but to say that we are Hawaii, we need to be more bilingual, multilingual, the way the rest of the world is coming. This is linked directly with China. China is the future of our tourism. Mr. Speaker, I will finish by requesting remarks into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support for Stand. Comm. Report No. 1372, House Concurrent Resolution 92, HD 1. China has the second largest economy and is likely to be the largest within the next couple of decades.

"Businesses are looking to China to extend their wealth and their influence. Most believe that the next global language will certainly be Mandarin Chinese. This is especially important to Hawaii, since it is the halfway point from the 'East' to the 'West.' Hawaii has a culture of its own, having a very large Asian influence and population. Hawaii is incredibly important to the Asia Pacific region. It is the home of the U.S. Pacific Fleet and is a tourist hub for Asian visitors. Chinese visitors on average spend over $400 a day, making them crucial to Hawaii's economy.

"China, having traded socialism for capitalism, is emerging as an economic power, perhaps the only one that could rival U.S. dominance in the 21st century. For a new generation of students, business people and even artists, the land of opportunity now lies in the East, not the West.

"As of 2008, at universities in the U.S., the number of students studying Mandarin jumped to 51,600 in 2006, a 51 percent increase from 2002, according to a Modern Language Association survey. The increase is significant, although Spanish is still the most popular foreign language in the U.S., with 800,000 students.

"In 2007, more than 3,000 U.S. high school students took the Advanced Placement exam for Chinese language offered for the first time. About 500 U.S. high schools, junior high schools and elementary schools offer Mandarin, nearly twice as many as in 2004. Worldwide, about 40 million people are learning Mandarin, China's official spoken language and its most common dialect.

"For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I encourage the Department of Education to expand its Mandarin Chinese programs offered in our high schools and stand in strong support for this resolution."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. "North Korea has recently said it put all its missile and artillery units on 'the highest alert' ordering them to be ready to hit South Korea, as well as the United States and military installations in Hawaii and Guam.

"The escalation of these threats on the Korean peninsula has garnered worldwide attention via our own local news stations due to our proximity to the conflict.

"Japanese experts have increasingly voiced concerns that North Korea may already be able to hit – or at least target – U.S. bases and major population centers with nuclear warheads following their third nuclear test last month.

"Every effort must be made to defuse the situation, without conceding any diplomatic ground to an isolationist regime that in recent weeks has demonstrated itself more determined than ever to sneer at international sanctions and threaten war. Unlike other instances of North Korean bellicosity, this continues to boil with explicit threat of nuclear attack, and reports missiles have been moved to more strategic firing points prompting the US to respond.

"When people watch the destroyer USS John S. McCain along with the sea–based X-band radar leave our ports to monitor North Korea with serious concern asking me if Hawaii is safe from harm it is my kuleana to ensure them with the knowledge that we fully support the Aegis Ballistic Missile Defense system and the Ground-Based Midcourse Defense System."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations and a point of clarification. Mr. Speaker, the way that the title of this reso is listing just corporations implying that this is only against corporations, it's also including unions. Mr. Speaker, the history of banning corporate funds goes back to 1907, and the history of banning unions funding and political contest goes to 1947. This is all in a book called Money in Politics, written in 2003 at USAID by somebody called Gene Ward.

"The point being, this bill makes it look like this is only corporations. Unions are corporations, and the way it's written by the author it makes it look like this is corporate America, not big-buck America which means both corporate and union. With that clarification I think it would be a more honest, genuine attempt to say, yeah we don't want Super PACs, we don't want money to flood, to buy us, to push aside the small guy. But the way it's written it makes it look like it's the corporate and it's very biased and it's unfair. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this just doesn't go far enough to go towards getting rid of all the special interests that really kind of dabble in the politics, which kind of has cast a shadow over the entire elected process in the United States of America. This is something that needs to be expanded further, not just target specific areas but needs to be broader in its scope to address all special interests that unduly influence the election process, Mr. Speaker. For those reasons, I would like to see the measure broaden to include all special interests. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm opposed."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 10, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO PROPOSE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO OVERTURN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT'S HOLDING RELATING TO CORPORATE INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURES IN CITIZENS UNITED V. FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION," was adopted, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representative Ito being excused.

Representative Ichiyama rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I support this bill with serious reservations.

"I understand the intent behind the bill is to clarify the definition of a 'permanent resident' for the purposes of reapportionment. These two words have created much debate, both in this building and for more than one Commission on Reapportionment. I support the attempt to redefine 'permanent resident' to include members of the military stationed in Hawaii. Our service members and their families live and work in Hawaii, their children attend our schools, they drive on our roads and use many of our public services. They deserve to be counted and to have a say in their state and local government.

"My reservations arise from the testimony of Attorney General David M. Louie to the Committee on Judiciary, dated March 12, 2013. The Attorney General expressed 'strong concerns' about this bill. His legal analysis leads me to believe that this bill, should it be signed into law, may be declared unconstitutional. His testimony cites to the decision of the Hawaii State Supreme Court in State v. Kahlbaun, 64 Haw. 197, 206, 638 P.2d 309, 317 (1981), which states, '[a] legislative construction implementing a constitutional amendment cannot produce an absurd result or be inconsistent with the purposes and policy of the amendment.'

"The record of the constitutional amendment inserting the phrase 'permanent resident' did not contemplate inclusion of the military. This bill would produce an inconsistent and contrary result to the purposes and policy of the original amendment. If we truly want to accomplish the goal of including the military in the reapportionment of our legislative districts, we should do it the right way, through a constitutional amendment. Then the voters would be able to exercise their constitutional right to approve amendments of the Hawaii State Constitution.

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request on a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm a plaintiff to a federal lawsuit. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 286, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAPPORTIONMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Jordan and McKelvey voting no, and with Representative Ito being excused.

S.B. No. 6, SD 1, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, S.B. No. 6, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ANIMAL CRUELTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Ito being excused.

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement for the purpose of decision-making on the following measure today, April 3, 2013, at 2:15 p.m. in Conference Room 325, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Senate Bill 586, SD 1, HD 1, Relating to Agricultural Building Permits, which provides under certain circumstances an exemption for building code and permit requirements for non-residential buildings or structures. We're requesting the waiver to reconsider action previously taken by the committee because we believe we have concurrence among the parties to move the bill."

Representative Brower: "Mr. Speaker, just on a lighter note, one of our colleagues is celebrating his birthday today. One of five Aries in the House. I consider this gentleman a friend, occasionally. To many people he's a sharp dresser. To many, many, many more people he is not a sharp dresser. Compared to my buddy the Vice Speaker, I find the birthday boy's choice of suits unimaginative and one day I hope we honor him with the title 'LMG Chair Emeritus.' May we please recognize Representative Nishimoto?"

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition with a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, the monthly maintenance fee in condominiums is getting to be, it's almost a second mortgage, it's getting so high. And they keep going up because costs keep going up. My fear on this bill which is asking for another fee, either $3 a unit or $1 a unit, is going to be one of the straws that breaks the camel's back.

"Why I say this is because some condominiums, like some families, like some businesses, like some nations, like some cities, are managed very well and they get along. This is going to be used for those that don't get along very well and they have to go to arbitration. There's going to be some bad apples out there, going to suck all this money in this trust fund, and all the good managed condos are going to have to be subsidizing and paying for that. Because of that I think it's running in the wrong direction. Because of those reasons I'm voting no."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm I represent condominium associations. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Thank you."

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, once more with reservations. As this measure goes into conference I would hope the conferees of the House would consider the federal standard as the tip credit amount, the federal standard in regards to the tip credit amount at the federal level. Thank you very much."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. I think it's laudable that we want to raise the minimum wage and I think it's great that we've heard in testimony that many businesses are willing, up to a certain point.

"I do hope that as this bill moves into conference we look at potentially providing some relief period in between the successive increases so that it allows a little bit more flexibility in terms of everyone's budgets for these small businesses just to be able to adjust and plan accordingly so that we actually can fulfill paying higher wages. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, when I first came to Hawaii in my mid-teens, the minimum wage I believe was about $5.15 an hour or so. I was one of those workers at minimum wage. And a BBQ mix plate was about $5.50 at L&L, and McDonald's had 49 cent hamburger days and I think it was either on Tuesday or Thursday.

"Now, Mr. Speaker, the BBQ mix plates on average are $10 or more. Minimum wage is what, $7.75 right now an hour? My little sisters work at minimum wage. What I don't like about this bill, Mr. Speaker, is why are we tinkering with the system? If we're going to do something, let's go big, let's go big as they say, as some of my friends in the army say.

"I have something here. It's the Spotlight on Poverty, Mr. Speaker, and it says, the hourly wage necessary to afford a 2 bedroom apartment is $31.68 an hour. $31.68 an hour. What we're moving this up to is $9.00 an hour by 2017. Is this really going to get the help to the people that need it, Mr. Speaker? I don't think it does.

"So, this continues to put a band-aid, Mr. Speaker, on an over-arching economic and education problem that we have throughout the state. We know that this is a big issue, it's a hot topic in the community. People are always talking about living wage, increasing the minimum wage. But we're not doing what we need to do to really impact the quality of life and the cost of living here in the State of Hawaii, Mr. Speaker.

"That's my big concern with this, is we have a tendency like with a lot of issues that we have with our Department of Education, where we go and we just repair, we just throw a little duct tape on it. Like I do with my car, Mr. Speaker, I don't have the money so I put a little duct tape on my bumper, hope it stays on for another few months until I can save the money to fix it.

"I don't want to put duct tape on problems, Mr. Speaker. We need to do something real. We need to fix the problem. These little micro increases so that we can turn around, we raised the minimum wage, and still not address the hard questions, the hard problems that need to be solved. I really don't like it when I see people come and say, okay all we need to do is tinker here, tinker there, a little duct tape here.

"Mr. Speaker, we need to do more than what we're doing, and this small increase isn't going to. If we're going to fix the problem, let's go to $31.68 an hour. Let's not play around. So, Mr. Speaker, my opposition to this is that one, we're not addressing the underlying issues with the cost of living, with the hardship that our community faces.

"I guarantee you, Mr. Speaker, when we get to $9.00 an hour in 2017, a BBQ mix plate is going to be $20. The purchasing power of this $9.00 probably isn't even, at the rate we're printing money, at the rate that our currency is losing its value, the purchasing power of this $9.00 isn't even going to be the same as the $7.75 that it is today. Just like it's not the same as the $5.15 when I got my first minimum wage job, Mr. Speaker. So I'm just saying, let's stop playing around and actually solve some problems, Mr. Speaker, when it comes to this issue."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 1431, Senate Bill 331, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1. The purpose of this bill is to increase minimum wage in increments from the current $7.25 to $9.00 by 2017.

"I do support a minimum wage increase because we want to ensure that Hawaii's people are earning a livable wage. However, while the current bill includes language for a tip credit, it is blanked out. Until that number is inserted, I am forced to oppose the minimum wage increase because without it, the bill will ultimately hurt the very people we are trying to help.

"SB 331, SD 2, HD 1 would severely impact low-wage earners in the restaurant industry. In a restaurant, only 'Front of the House' employees, such as wait staff, are making minimum wage. However, they earn also daily tips on top of their minimum wage earnings. Those who work in the 'Back of the House,' such as kitchen staff and maintenance, earn above minimum wage but do not receive any tips. According to the testimonies of those working in the restaurant industry, the total wages of 'Front of the House' staff far exceeds that of those working in the 'Back of the House.' Without a tip credit increase for employers, only 'Front of the House' staff would receive wage increases since they are technically only making minimum wage. This would consequently take away from the ability of an employer to increase the wages for kitchen workers and maintenance, or those who need it most.

"For this reason, I respectfully oppose this measure in its current form. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, very briefly, my concern with this measure, and I am voting no, is that it goes out all the way to 2017. I don't know what the economy will look like then. I'd rather come back yearly or biannually. Thank you, sir."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. My reservations have to do with something not in this bill. It has to do with tip credit. Tip credit applies to only a small number of people in certain businesses and industries. Hawaii's tip credit is the lowest in the nation by far of the states that do have tip credit. Our tip credit is 25 cents. Most states that have tip credits, have tip credits in the range of $3.00 to $5.00.

"Now the difference between a 25 cents tip credit in Hawaii and the so-called norm in the $3.00 to $5.00 range, is enormous. We have a larger than average number of restaurants that of course have employees that rely on the tip credit. For the most part, increasing the tip credit for certain employees does not affect the work force in general. So for many people, a change in the trip credit would have no effect on them at all. But it would have an effect on restaurants and it would essentially redistribute the wages within the restaurant between the front and the back of the house.

"I think that many of the people working in the back of the house work for much, much less than the people in the front of the house. We've had several people comment in public hearings that it is sometimes very difficult to get the front of the house people, the waiters and the busboys, to leave their jobs and go into management, because the managers are getting less than those who get tips. So with these reservations I am in support. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I'd like to echo the sentiments of my colleague from Laie, that perhaps this amount doesn't go far enough and maybe the increase should be a little more. Maybe not until 67 hamburgers. Maybe not $31, but a little more."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. This matter had been brought forward before and it passed and it was enacted and then we repealed it. Now we're going back again. I know that the people out there in our communities are in strong opposition of this matter. They perceive it as an invasion of privacy. And now we are discussing it again. I think this supplants the interest of the community. We know what their sentiments are and we're slowly giving it back.

"I think this is a waste of time, Mr. Speaker, a waste of resources, and this is not something we should be entertaining. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, on the face of this it doesn't look like a big deal. It only points out the small guys. If you're a sole proprietor, you've got to meet certain standards. This and the previous bills that Speaker Emeritus said 'with reservations,' the fees, the escrows, the banking institutions. What we're doing is a creeping strangulation of competition.

"Mr. Speaker, I've worked in the UN and I spent a lot of time in Europe because our headquarters when I was in Africa was in Europe. So I learned a lot about entrepreneurship that was going on in Europe because I was doing small business in Africa. What the Europeans have done is lift the threshold for entry into business by regulations, qualifications, fees, dues, insurances and what have you, so only the big guys can make it. This is another one of those. It kind of grieves me that I see these, they pick on the small guys. It makes the big guys with the fees who can afford these things without a problem, and I'm speaking to the other issues that Speaker Emeritus referred to.

"I think we have to keep an open field and an open market, Mr. Speaker, if we're going to be really entrepreneurially sound. To have colleagues like my colleague from Laie bemoaning the fact that, hey if you don't have $31 an hour you can't even buy a house. We've got a bad economic model, we've got a bad business model in Hawaii. 57% of our people can't afford to send their kids to school without a subsidized lunch. We need to generate jobs and good jobs, Mr. Speaker.

"Every time I see one of these bills it grieves me that, get the small guy, push him down, don't let the sole proprietor become a partnership or corporation and then hire people and become prosperous. We've got to have a mindset that's slightly different from this, Mr. Speaker.

"I'm not speaking from my point of view, I'm speaking from the reputation we have in this nation as anti-business, too regulated, too overly bureaucratic and too much stuffed with our own self. We've lived off our good looks for so long, we've stopped using our brains. I think we've got to get into our brains and stop picking on the small guys like this one does. Thank you for hearing my ventilation. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, there's a lot of guys, a lot of workers in my community that are trying to get out of poverty. 79.2% of them are on subsidized lunches at the elementary school. A lot of them want work. But the challenges that they face in getting into work that will actually be enough to raise them, their families and their children in the way that they want, Mr. Speaker, it seems to be growing harder and harder every day. They definitely have a huge uphill battle, especially if you're in the situation of poverty, Mr. Speaker, and you're trying to rise out of it. There's roadblock after roadblock after roadblock.

"This, Mr. Speaker, continues to add some of those roadblocks to the members of my community that are trying to better their own lives and the lives for their families by making it that much more difficult to become an entrepreneur, to become an individual who takes the initiative to start their own business, to become their own person and to succeed. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I must be opposed to this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. "Mr. Speaker, a no vote and brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that says if you consume liquor or food, meat, fish, either traveling away from Hawaii between the islands, or traveling to the mainland, or Japan, or wherever overseas, we no longer are going to exempt you from paying the GE Tax.

"Mr. Speaker, 15 years as a retailer in Waikiki, anytime we had customers come in who ordered something and we sent it to the mainland, i.e. an export, we were exempted from the GE Tax, just like these people here were.

"Mr. Speaker, right now you know how much it costs to get to Maui or the Big Island? It's called one arm and one leg. Mr. Speaker, this is going to take the airlines, our local airlines, and say all of these exemptions for the food you serve is no longer going to be exempt. I don't think we need the price of air travel to go up. We're in the middle of the Pacific, we need to keep people able to travel. And this small exemption, and I know a couple of years ago we exempted everybody and their uncle, well we took away exemptions. But we're still on that exemption pull-away, and I think this is a cruel and unusual one because it's going to affect a lot of our neighbor island people.

"For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, this is nothing but a money grab, and I see comes out of 'by request,' the Governor's office, interesting. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, I live in the Koolauloa community, which is actually shrinking in population. And that has largely to do, Mr. Speaker, with Hawaii's number one export which is our young people. There are more and more people moving into my community, the millionaires from the mainland, millionaires from Europe, who spend a couple weeks of the year in my community before they spend the rest of the time elsewhere. We make it more and more expensive and push the hope of owning a home farther and farther out of the reach of young people. We make it more difficult and more expensive to own condominiums, now.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill to me seems like we're trying to squeeze the last few pennies out of the young people who may find themselves in a position where they have to leave the State of Hawaii to find a life for themselves elsewhere. For that, Mr. Speaker, making the cost of travel both to and from the State of Hawaii, I think is a bad idea. Especially for those reasons where the people that I hope to make life a little bit better for, our working families, our elderly, Mr. Speaker, I think this bill does not assist them. So for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I must be opposed."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Strong support and I just would like to enter written comments into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Lapses in election law produce unforeseen consequences. While I hold all of my colleagues in the highest esteem, the possibility of a single unscrupulous candidate tarnishing the integrity of our state's system of representative government is at present an unfortunate reality.

"The State Legislature must be vigilant in providing adequate safeguards to preserve the integrity of each and every ballot. Any candidate handling or in possession of another person's voter registration ballot raises serious concerns to me regardless of the situation. The public eye has grown tremendously with the popularity of social media and camera phones and any situation with a candidate handling another person's ballot will have disastrous effect. For this reason I fully concur with the penalties proposed in this bill. This measure protects all voters, especially our kupuna and disabled who are the most susceptible in these scenarios. Finally, this bill ensures that everyone's perspectives, experiences and interests are accurately voiced in the electoral process."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 827, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTION OFFENSES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1417) recommending that S.B. No. 930, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 930, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative McKelvey offered Floor Amendment No. 12, amending S.B. No. 930, SD 1, HD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 930 S.D. 1, H.D.1, RELATING TO THE PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL SPACE CENTER FOR EXPLORATION SYSTEMS SUSTAINABLE CONCRETE INITIATIVE, is amended as follows:

1. By amending section 1 to read:

"SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the Pacific international space center for exploration systems, including its proposed aerospace technology research and development park project, is an economic driver for the island of Hawaii that promotes the establishment and growth of new sustainable and green industries along with associated jobs, workforce development, internships, and science, technology, engineering, and math education programs.

The legislature also finds that the Pacific international space center for exploration systems aerospace technology research and development park project will attract investment that will help leverage the costs of expanding the island of Hawaii's broadband capacity.

Current market demands for concrete in Hawaii are primarily met through cement and asphalt imports. Research and development enabling innovative technologies in basalt concrete composition and delivery is an attractive and self-sustaining alternative to continued cement and bitumen imports.

There is also interest in and work being done on developing various basaltic concrete binding methods at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Hanyang University of Korea, Purdue University, American Society of Civil Engineers, and many other professional organizations. In addition to enabling three dimensional concrete printing technology, this work holds amazing potential for creating advanced manufacturing jobs and inexpensive building options in the State of Hawaii.

The proposed Pacific international space center for exploration systems sustainable concrete initiative is an important step toward realizing this potential, providing an investment in the future of Hawaii and its economy by offering a self-sufficient and in-situ source of concrete for local applications.

The purpose of this Act is to provide state funding to support the investigative stage of the Pacific international space center for exploration systems sustainable concrete initiative. This investigative stage will help identify appropriate binding methods and technologies; quantifiably test and validate the identified technologies in terms of durability, compressive strength, and other ASTM International certification standards; and help identify appropriate out-of-state partners and investors, as well as other extramural funding sources, for program development."

2. By amending section 2 to read:

"SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $ or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2013-2014 to support the investigative stage of the Pacific international space center for exploration systems sustainable concrete initiative.

The sum appropriated shall be expended by the department of business, economic development, and tourism for the purposes of this Act."

3. By amending section 3 to read:

"SECTION 3. The Pacific international space center for exploration systems shall submit a report to the legislature on September 1 of each year, commencing on September 1, 2013, that includes:

(1) An updated business plan regarding the aerospace technology research and development park project;

(2) Details on any progress made toward the development of a world-class space center in Hawaii;

(3) The development of technologies for basalt concrete composition and delivery and any effect on the level of cement and bitumen imports into the State;

(4) The status of all working relationships with educational and research institutions, federal agencies, and local industry on the use of existing basalt resources in the State to identify, verify, and validate sustainable and in-situ concrete binders;

(5) Details on any progress made toward the development of a robotic operator training and certification program, including program location, course and curriculum development, and when the program is expected to begin accepting students;

(6) The level of private sector investment in aerospace and related industries, including the number and nature of any partnerships with private industry to facilitate state-based manufacturing and operations related to green energy technology;

(7) The status of the memorandum of understanding with Hawaii Techworks and the east Hawaii community development corporation regarding the cultivation of a skilled local workforce to support planned manufacturing operations; and

(8) A detailed statement of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses for the corresponding fiscal year ending June 30.""

On motion by Representative McKelvey, seconded by Representative Choy and carried, Floor Amendment No. 12, amending S.B. No. 930, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL SPACE CENTER FOR EXPLORATION SYSTEMS SUSTAINABLE CONCRETE INITIATIVE," was adopted, with Representatives Say and Tokioka being excused.

This bill expands the application of the GET and Use Tax and requires collection of taxes from sellers who engage or continue within the state in business. In essence, the bill is designed to tax internet transactions conducted by businesses with a physical presence in Hawaii. My primary concern is that this bill is a functional tax increase, which will increase the cost of living for residents. Additionally, this bill may have the unintended consequence of ending affiliate relationships in the state and could lead to local businesses losing revenue. For these reasons, I am voting with reservations."

Representative Ohno's written remarks are as follows:

"SB 573 is a vehicle for this Body to give back to individuals who give so much of themselves to their profession. As state budget limitations continue and parent support dwindles in many areas, teachers in our public school system often reach into their own pockets to ensure that their students are properly equipped with everyday essentials to learn. While we work to find balance fully funding our statewide classrooms and other necessary programs, I support this opportunity to ease the burden on teachers who have so willingly stepped up to close the gap with their own finances."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"As many of us know, the United States has had a tumultuous history in the Middle East over the past three decades. This history cannot be ignored. The Persian Gulf War, Operation Desert Storm, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation New Dawn, the Global War on Terrorism, Homeland Defense and Operation Noble Eagle were the wars of this generation and its veterans and heroes must be honored.

"Hawaii has already dedicated the Korean-Vietnam War Memorial on the grounds of the State Capitol to remember those in Hawaii who sacrificed their lives for others during these wars. For some of us, these wars directly affected our generation or our parents' generation. This memorial holds special significance for those who can remember what it felt like during those times of hardship. We could relate to our Korean and Vietnam War veterans who gave their lives to serve their country; they were our classmates, our relatives, our peers and our friends. We remember who they were. We remember their stories in the news, and the memorial serves both as tribute to their sacrifice, tribute to the wars' living veterans, and as a beacon of hope for us.

"The veterans and families of these Middle East wars also deserve to have the same tribute because they too sacrificed everything for our nation. After 9/11, our security was shattered, our country broken, and we mourned for those lost. Though we in Hawaii are separated from the continental US, distance did not separate our collective grief and resolve to prevent another 9/11 attack from occurring. Local men and women did not merely endure, but instead joined the armed services intent on rebuilding what our nation lost, and left home to enter lands of uncertainty and conflict. Service members from Hawaii gave and lost their lives. Though memorializing their sacrifice cannot possibly express the extent of gratitude of our state, it serves to remind veterans and family members that we do not forget those who have sacrificed everything.

"This memorial established for the veterans of the Persian Gulf War, Operation Desert Storm, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation New Dawn, the Global War on Terrorism, Homeland Defense, and Operation Noble Eagle would honor this generation's heroes, veterans, and military families, and would remind them that there is hope in loss, that there can be honor in death, and that freedom does not come without a price.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

It will help small businesses, particularly in the Mapunapuna area, folks that I know, folks that a lot of us know came to testify. One company, GP Roadway Solutions, friends of mine over there, told me they could lose 150 jobs.

"What this measure does is put up the neighboring lease rent renegotiations for all to see, transparency, openness. I understand the legal concerns about contractual issues, I get that, but this helps the small businessmen who employ our friends and neighbors stay in business. So I want to commend the body. ORDINARY CALENDAR

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, please turn to page 19 and refer to HSCR Number 1564, Senate Bill Number 858, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 2."

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1564) recommending that S.B. No. 858, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 858, SD 1, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Evans offered Floor Amendment No. 13, amending S.B. No. 858, SD 1, HD 2, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 858, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, is amended by amending section 1 to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to promote gender equity for members of boards and commissions and to clarify the legislature's intent that a person who has failed to receive the advice and consent of the senate shall continue in office as a holdover member of a board or commission only until the senate adjourns sine die."

SECTION 2. Senate Bill No. 858, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, is amended by adding a new section 2 to read as follows:

"SECTION 2. Chapter 26, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to part II to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§26-__ Members of boards and commissions; gender equity. The governor or relevant appointing authority, as far as practicable, shall strive for the goal of equal gender representation when appointing members to boards and commissions and shall give priority to achieving the goal of gender equity when appointing members to vacancies, at-large positions, and as alternates."

SECTION 3. Senate Bill No. 858, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, is amended by renumbering Sections 2 to 5 to Sections 3 to 6."

At 11:04 o'clock a.m., Representative Saiki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:05 o'clock a.m.

Representative Evans moved that Floor Amendment No. 13 be adopted, seconded by Representative Oshiro.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you. Members, I'm asking for you to support this Floor Amendment. This was a bill, it was House Bill 189 that we as a Body fully supported and sent over to the Senate and it did not come back. But I think it's a policy statement that we should move forward, and this is to address gender equity on boards and commissions. The amended language says, 'the Governor or relevant appointing authority, as far as practicable, shall strive for the goal of equal gender representation when appointing members to boards and commissions and shall give priority to achieving the goal of gender equity when appointing members to vacancies, at-large positions, and as alternates.'

"Members, I want this to go in the record. As of yesterday when we double checked, the University of Hawaii Board of Regents has 15 members. Of the members there are 12 males, 3 females. On the Board of Education, 11 members, of that 6 male, 5 female. On the Land Use Commission, 9 members, 8 male, 1 female. On the Small Business Regulatory Review Board interestingly as of yesterday, 9 members, 1 male, 8 vacant. The Land and Natural Resources Board, 7 members, 6 male, 0 female, 1 vacant. The Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawaii, 13 members, 10 male, 3 female. On the Tax Review Commission of the 7 members, 6 male, 0 female, 1 vacant. On the Hawaii Tourism Authority of 12 members, 10 male, 2 female. On the Council of Revenues of the 7 members, 5 male, 2 female. And on the Board of Nursing of 9 members, 4 male, 4 female, 1 vacant.

"I think that is why I think it's good that we have in our policy that we do want to strive for gender equity. Thank you."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some slight reservations and permission to insert written comments. Thank you."

Representative Ichiyama's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I rise with slight reservations on this Floor Amendment. I support the intent of the amendment, which is to require the Governor to consider, as far as practicable, the gender representation on boards and commissions when appointing members of boards and commissions. I agree with the Representative from Kona that women are significantly underrepresented on our state boards and commissions.

"My slight reservations arise from the amendment's phrase in Section 2, which reads, the governor 'shall give priority to the goal of achieving gender equity when appointing members to vacancies, at-large positions, and as alternates.' This could be interpreted as a mandate to the Governor to make appointments to achieve gender equity. In most situations, this would be laudable. However, certain boards and commissions, such as the Commission on the Status of Women, or the Commission on Fatherhood, in my mind, should not be mandated to have gender equity. I would hope for participation by some members of the opposite sex on either Commission, but I disagree that in these instances gender balance should be required.

"I hope that the qualifying language 'as far as practicable' evidences legislative intent that this section should not be construed to require an equal number of men and women on gender-specific boards and commissions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. I think part of the issue too, is the Senate, our colleagues next door, they approve a lot of these appointments, so we have to look within our bodies as well. So thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose in support of the proposed Floor Amendment with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations on Standing Committee Report 1564, Senate Bill 858, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 2, Floor Amendment 13. Although I respect and support the original intent behind the bill, I have reservations about Floor Amendment 13, relating to gender equity.

"To be clear, I fully support gender equity in the workplace. However, Floor Amendment 13 would essentially override meritocracy in favor of creating gender equality. The Floor Amendment mandates that appointing authorities 'shall give priority to achieving the goal of gender equity when appointing members to vacancies.'

"Therefore, if there is an open position on a board or commission, the amendment requires that a woman be given priority, regardless of her qualities, experience and achievements. In other words, this amendment abrogates a woman's accomplishments and requires that she be selected solely for her gender. Women have worked hard to achieve high levels of success in the workplace and this amendment would abate their efforts for equality.

"For this reason, I rise with reservations on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Hashem rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. In this Chamber there are 35 men and 16 women."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. I think commissions should be the starting point for women to get their opportunities to play in the bigger field. So this bill will help that cause. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 13, amending S.B. No. 858, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

At 11:10 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 13 was adopted.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, please refer to HSCR Number 1565, Senate Bill Number 516, Senate Draft 1."

Representative Rhoads, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1565) recommending that S.B. No. 516, SD 1 pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 516, SD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Rhoads offered Floor Amendment No. 14, amending S.B. No. 516, SD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 516, S.D. 1, (RELATING TO PATERNITY), is amended by amending Section 3 to read as follows:

"SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2013.""

At 11:11 o'clock a.m., Representative Saiki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:12 o'clock a.m.

Representative Rhoads moved that Floor Amendment No. 14 be adopted, seconded by Representative Har.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"This is just to correct a mistake that I made as Chair of the Judiciary Committee. I forgot to put in an effective date. Otherwise if we do not accept this Floor Amendment then this act will become effective on July 1, 2050. If we do put in the Floor Amendment, it will have a difference with the Senate and go to conference. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 14, amending S.B. No. 516, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PATERNITY," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition with brief comments. Mr. Speaker, this is about the Labor Relations Board and giving it more powers to what I think it says to be more efficient but in effect it's going to be more inefficient.

"There are two problems with this bill. The first is, it's suggesting, rather than certified mail to notify the party to show up to a hearing, it becomes regular mail. Mr. Speaker, they're doing this to save a whopping $2,200 to possibly make a small business person show or not show up and be fined, and this is where the second part is bad, for contemptuous behavior. This bill, in its second instance, gives almost the same power that circuit courts have to reprimand people for contemptuous and disrespectful behavior.

"Labor relations boards are not courts but the fact that we're trying to save a few cents by not telling people through certified mail for certain you've got to show up and for certain you received it, you can't wiggle out of it. I just don't see the logic of that, Mr. Speaker. So it's pennywise, pound foolish, and it's getting to the point where we're empowering it as a mini court. Thank you."

Representative Hashem rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. The reasoning is, this bill, by not requiring the Labor Board to do registered mail, will save about $2,000 to $3,000 for the department. That's all. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I think that this bill really should be labeled a bad bill for small business. We know that we're having some difficulties with the United States Post Office now. They're now going to be, I guess, dropping the Saturday delivery.

"What will protect small businesses is to keep the requirement that they receive the notification by certified mail. It may be saving the Department of Labor some money, a very minimal amount of money, but it could cost our small business community significant money if that ordinary mail letter does not reach them, and then they'll be subject to some sanctions from the Labor Board. I think it's an anti-small business measure and I vote no."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, briefly in support. Actually it's the other way around. Because the Department of Labor is requiring certified or registered mail it takes a little bit longer because somebody needs to be there. If it's closed or you can't find them, they can't give the notice. For first class mail at least there's some assurances the mailed will be dropped.

"If it's certified or registered, unless somebody signs for it they're never going to get it. If it's stuck at the post office and nobody knows about it, they're not going to get the notice. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time. Mr. Speaker, precisely because of the previous speaker's speech, that's precisely why we should go to certified mail. Mailing it in time to get it, to make sure. These are leading procedures, these are things that people can be fined thousands of dollars for. If we give them this permission to be contemptuous in their behavior, they can be jeopardizing in the survival of their business. So why do we want to save $2,200? Why do we want to save $2,000 and threaten our small business community? That doesn't make any sense, Mr. Speaker. Let's use our logic, let's use common sense, and this bill doesn't meet either criteria. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 877, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH HEARINGS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Johanson, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no.

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I'm rising to speak against Senate Bill 1209, which would permit vending from highways in the airspace. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I think people that have been concerned about keeping our areas safe from billboards or other commercial activities should take a real hard look at Senate Bill 1209.

"This bill will allow the Director of Transportation alone, it's not with any oversight by the Legislature, the Director of Transportation can just issue a written permit authorizing someone to vend in the airspace either under or over the freeway. I'm concerned particularly because some of the more creative vendors will use this as a way, I think, to be able to put up billboards, and we've worked very hard in our state to prevent that, to keep our areas free of billboard blight.

"I would ask that Members look at this again and make sure that this is something that we want to see go through, or if you share my concern, then I would hope it would not emerge from Conference Committee. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the words of the Representative of Kailua are exactly my own. May you enter them into the Journal and add one footnote, please."

"I oppose the measure. For those of us who have visited and have seen the airspace used in the mainland, not only do you have billboards, but you have Goodyear blimps and other things and balloons and these guys that flop back and forth. All kinds of distractions to drivers. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I just wanted to note my opposition and also request written comments. In addition, I'm a little bit concerned because the Executive is right now stating that this is just about one particular project, but in their justification sheet they said it's to create revenue for the department. So, thank you."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to SB 1209, SD 1, HD 1. The bill would change current law to allow, at the Director of Transportation's discretion, vending in the airspace of a highway. The measure uses the federal definition of airspace found in 23 CFR 710.105, which reads 'Airspace means that space located above and/or below a highway or other transportation facility's established grade line, lying within the horizontal limits of the approved right-of-way or project boundaries.' My concern, Mr. Speaker, is that this bill could allow the Director of Transportation to issue permits for billboards and other advertisements in the airspace above our highways.

"Proponents of the bill have indicated that the measure is simply to address the problem that one building occupant has with hanging banners and other advertisements on their property. However, the Governor's initial justification sheet for the bill indicates that the measure is, in part, meant to be a revenue source for the Department of Transportation. It is unlikely that much revenue will be raised if the department only intends to issue a single permit.

"In short, the language and the purpose of this measure remains unclear, and we should receive further assurances and information from the department before we risk moving forward on what could be a significant change to our state's current policies. For this reason, I vote no on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1209, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAYS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Cheape, Fale, Fukumoto, Johanson, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1537) recommending that S.B. No. 1214, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1214, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative McDermott voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1539) recommending that S.B. No. 1082, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1082, SD 1, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. When we left session last year no one in this Chamber and I think the other Chamber realized how much of an impact the decisions that the Department of Education and the Board of Education was going to have on our children in school transportation. As you all know, we lost numerous routes throughout the state as a result of their decisions.

"This measure here is an important piece of solving the problem of student transportation, or at least the challenges that we face, because of the rising cost of student transportation. It was one of the things recommended by the consultant to the Department of Education in the November 2012 report.

"I strongly support this, but I just wanted to make mention, Mr. Speaker, that if we don't solve this problem, the problem about shortages of student transportation options and elimination of routes will continue. I don't want other colleagues of ours next fall to be caught in a situation that many of us were caught in at the start of this school year.

"So I'm hopeful that this and the other measure before us today will address the challenges that the department faces and they'll fix the student transportation problem throughout the state. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and written comments in support. Thank you."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this bill.

"Members, as you know, with student bus costs tripling to $72.4 million over the past seven years and last year's school transportation budget leaving a $17 million deficit, it's clear that student transportation is an important and crucial issue to our state. Last year, rather than taking money from other educational programs, we tried to address this deficit through budget cuts. We hoped that these cuts would encourage the Department of Education (DOE) to reign in and restructure contracting costs of private bus companies.

"In analyzing the management of these DOE bus contracts, the State Auditor reported that bus services have been managed 'ineffectively' and 'unsystematically.' In Report No. 12-07, Management Audit of the Department of Education's School Bus Transportation Services, the State Auditor determined that the DOE failed to acknowledge anticompetitive behavior, thus wasting state resources.

"Over the past few years, the private bus market in Hawaii has been monopolized and run by a few select big-name companies. Smaller companies have been run out and a lack of competition has led to increasingly higher costs and higher rates of rebid contracts. Simply stated, without competition and oversight, costs of private bus transportation will continue to rise and we will continually face the dilemma of student transportation cuts.

"Without addressing the repercussions of anticompetitive behavior, this not only translates to a higher cost for students, but also into cuts in bus routes that inconveniences students and families. Throughout the past few years, bus costs have risen from $0.35 to $1.25. Furthermore, last year, the Department of Education was forced to cut student bus routes. These cuts were initially estimated to affect 20,000 students, decreased to 4,000 in June, and 2,380 in July (with the help of $11.7 million in federal impact aid funds).

"These cuts place a further unreasonable burden on students and families, and without bus service, many students will choose to stay home. Take for example, Aiea Elementary School, where students come from as far away as Puu Wai Momi in Halawa. If bus service is not provided to these students, they would need to walk more than one mile across the entire Aloha Stadium property, and then over a six-lane freeway to get to school. Additionally, some children living in Aiea Heights and who attend Alvah Scott Elementary School on Moanalua Road would have a three mile walk to school. Aiea Heights Drive is a dangerous road, without adequate sidewalks, and safety is an understandable concern. It is with absolute certainty that a student will not learn if he or she isn't in school, and some kids will not go to school without student bus service.

"This bill encourages competitiveness among contractors and allows the DOE to create procedures to decrease student bus spending. It takes out contractual requirements by statute and allows for a larger pool of contractor applicants. Per the suggestions of the State Auditor for the DOE to 'develop and implement a policy concerning procurement training,' and to 'develop and implement procedures for reporting suspected anticompetitive practices,' these amendments give the DOE the leeway to create said policies and procedures.

"As legislators, we have to do our part to help the DOE manage the rising costs of student transportation. We cannot dehumanize the harsh truth of cutting student transportation and must remember that—not only will thousands of children and family members continue to be affected by the lack of access to school, but those who will suffer most will be the students that cannot afford to find other ways to commute. By cutting routes and not providing all public school children with an option for affordable, safe and efficient student transportation, we disregard our obligation as a state to provide each child with the same opportunity to get an education.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Nishimoto rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1082, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 11:39 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 902, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 903, HD 1
S.B. No. 1214, SD 1, HD 2

Representatives McKelvey and Rhoads, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce and the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1541) recommending that S.B. No. 642, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 642, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations to Standing Committee Report 1541, Senate Bill 642, House Draft 2.

"While I support the medical marijuana law, marijuana remains a Schedule I Controlled Substance under federal law. Since federal law preempts state law, any amendments made to Hawaii's medical marijuana law also remain illegal under federal law. As such, federal enforcement agencies may conduct raids and make arrests for marijuana in Hawaii.

"For this reason, I support this measure but with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cullen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Aquino's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I am rising with reservations on Standing Committee Report 1541, SB 642, HD 2.

"Mr. Speaker, this measure may cause serious issues with our state's medical marijuana program. The current version, in Part II of the bill, has some areas of concern. First, the bill already implies that a transfer of the medical marijuana program has already happened. Currently, the program is administered by the Department of Public Safety, but the bill references the Department of Health as the administrative department. Secondly, some areas of concern includes a significant increase of usable marijuana, another increase to the patient to caregiver ratio, clarifying language that the physician who certifies a medical marijuana patient does not have to be the patient's primary care doctor and the prohibition of the location of the qualified plants on patients' registry card for verification purposes.

"Mr. Speaker, these concerns that I just mentioned may cause difficulties for law enforcement and raises more questions. Why the increase of usable marijuana and the patient to caregiver ratio? Wouldn't it make more sense to have a potential medical marijuana patient be certified under this program by his or her personal, primary care physician? Why not disclose the location of the medical marijuana plants on a patient's registry card so law enforcement verification may be done more quickly and efficiently?

"It is because of these concerns and doubts, Mr. Speaker, that I stand with strong reservations on SB 642, HD 2. Mahalo."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 642, HD 2. This bill would require cigarettes and tobacco products to be sold only in a direct, face-to-face exchange between the retailer and the consumer and would amend the Medical Use of Marijuana law. My concern is that this bill will make it much more difficult to ensure compliance with the medical marijuana program, and much more difficult for law enforcement agencies to determine when a crime is being committed.

"Additionally, marijuana is still a Schedule I Controlled Substance under federal law. It is in violation of federal law to grow, distribute or use marijuana. Although this bill could legalize conduct that is currently prohibited under state law, federal law cannot be ignored.

"Also, allowing persons visiting from other states to use medical marijuana is also problematic, as we do not have the means to determine that a registry identification card is valid."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB 642 HD 2.

"Our medical marijuana laws were enacted in 2000. This bill improves on our existing law to make access to medication for Hawaii's seriously ill patients less burdensome, which could decrease recourse to the illegal marijuana market. The bill also improves confidentiality for both patients and caregivers, which is important for a safe and secure program.

"Medical marijuana has been proven to have significant therapeutic effect for sick patients, with fewer significant side effects compared to other types of medication. The expanded access to medication will also permit people to use the most effective and safest modes of ingestion.

"For these reasons I urge the Members to support this measure."

Representative Ichiyama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with just one brief comment. I do want to point out that there is an addition of a certificate for the site where medical cannabis is grown that is now being required by this bill. This is another one of the smart measures embedded in this bill to improve and update our medical marijuana program. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered into the Journal as her own, and that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This measure takes a look at where cigarettes and tobacco products are sold. Now it will be mandated that these items are placed behind the check-out counter. The other portion of the bill as it relates to medical marijuana will be moved from the Department of Public Safety to the Department of Health. This is a common sense move for issues relating to medical marijuana where it should belong so it will be monitored in the proper department. For these reasons, I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this bill.

"The purpose of this bill is to prohibit retailers from imposing credit card surcharges, in certain instances, on cardholders electing to make payment by credit card.

"The advantages of paying with credit card include tracking expenses, protection against fraud and theft, building credit history and gaining rewards. Thus, the credit card is an especially important, convenient, and safer method of payment for many consumers, and they should be able to use the credit card without any financial penalties.

"Implementing a surcharge or a 'checkout fee,' will discourage and prevent customers from using their credit cards. Customers should continue to have the freedom and option to choose whatever payment device works best for them, without any financial penalties influencing their decision.

"Some merchants, like hotels, rental cars and many online merchants, virtually require a credit card for their purchases, and giving them the ability to assess an additional fee for the transaction would simply provide unjust enrichment for the merchant.

"Visa and MasterCard banned the practice of surcharging credit card payments, so merchants could not financially penalize consumers who pay with credit card. However, effective January 28, 2013, this ban was lifted, allowing merchants to now add a 'checkout fee' to the transaction, should their customer opt to use a credit card as their payment device.

"While this ban has been lifted by the bank card associations, 10 states have instituted a ban on surcharging and at least six other states have bills pending to implement the ban. We believe Hawaii should also implement this ban against surcharging.

"For these reasons, I support this measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Thank you."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Standing Committee Report 1658, Senate Bill 8, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 2. This bill would prohibit pet owners from performing surgical procedures on pet animals. Although I respect and support the intent of this bill, I stand in opposition for the following reason.

"This bill would only penalize responsible pet breeders. Responsible pet breeders are experts in their specific breed and are well-versed in tail-docking and ear cropping. As such, these responsible pet breeders have studied the breeds in which they specialize and are equipped to perform these procedures themselves. When a litter is born, it is well-accepted that docking and cropping be performed within 3-5 days. Interestingly, veterinarians do not use anesthesia because a puppy's nervous system is not developed between 3-5 days. In this case, there is little difference between a veterinarian and an experienced breeder performing these procedures.

"For this reason, I respectfully oppose this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations to Standing Committee Report 1575, Senate Bill 753, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1. This bill allows the Department of Agriculture to lease lands to the Agribusiness Development Corporation in order to provide more land access for farmers, to create more jobs in the agricultural industry and to decrease our dependence on a foreign food supply. Although I support the original intent of this bill, I do have reservations.

"This bill, in its current form, promotes a very small and specific sector of the agricultural industry. While I appreciate having choices with organic, we need to promote all agriculture, not just organic. Multiple testimonies stated the need for more affordable livestock feed for all agriculture, so why are we encouraging production of only organic feed? All farmers feel the effects of the high cost of feed, not just organic farmers. On a larger scale, we should be supporting bills that not only spur local organic food production but encourage ALL local food production, if we are to be truly sustainable.

"For this reason, I support this bill with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I have two reasons to vote against the recommittal. Number one, we have the votes to kill the bill. This is a democratic process, we have the votes now to say, 26 people don't want this bill. Why do we have to recommit?

"Number two, teachers deserve to know where we stand on this and that's why voting is what we do as Representatives, Mr. Speaker. So for those reasons, I'm against the recommittal."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this motion to recommit. My district, for my schools have gone to longer institutional hours under the School Innovation Zone and I want to show my support for my schools, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much."

Representative Tokioka rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. As the debate was going on and the Majority Floor Leader called out the votes, is that announcement still going to be part of the Journal?"

The Chair then stated:

"That vote was not final. That will not be recorded."

Representative Tokioka continued to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Okay, then I guess I've got to stand in opposition to the recommittal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. Is this same ruling applicable to the minority who came out against this and that will not be on the record also? And for the reason, why should that not be on the record?"

The Chair then stated:

"The minority didn't have the opportunity to change the vote."

Representative Ward: "But the Minority Leader gave the votes."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"You're out of order sir. The question is on the procedure. It has nothing to do with the previous vote."

Representative Ward: "So the previous votes will not have been recorded. So my no vote that she spoke out will not be reflected in the history of this session."

Speaker Souki: "It will not be reflected."

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1084 HD 1, which proposes a constitutional amendment to allow appropriation of public funds for private early childhood education programs.

"Early childhood education is a proven way to help reduce the gap in achievement that exists for lower-income children. Public funding will provide access to these programs for the families that need them most, and I am strongly in support of expanding access to early childhood education in our state. However, I think that this issue merits further discussion about alternatives to providing these services. The current proposal is one approach, but there may be other options, including taking a second look at the Junior Kindergarten program and why it was unsuccessful, and other possible ways to provide for early childhood education within the public system.

"Moreover, there is a need for further discussion about what will be the most effective approach to early education. Simply imposing our current approach—separating children based on age, assuming that children at different stages of development or levels of achievement do not benefit from working with each other and then establishing a set of learning standards that don't provide for the uniqueness of each individual—may leave us facing the same issues in early childhood education that we are already having with the K-12 system.

"For these reasons, I have reservations about this measure."

Representative Coffman rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1093, SD 2, HD 2. This bill would establish the School Readiness Program within the Early Learning System as a component of the Governor's Early Learning initiative. While the bill has a noble goal of helping expand access to educational programs, I am wary about the potential impact on schools that may have a religious affiliation, such as many of the schools in my district, including Aiea Hongwanji Preschool. The Attorney General has submitted testimony confirming that affected schools would have to ensure that their mission does not conflict with state positions. Because I believe in the autonomy of private schools, I will be voting with reservations."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1093, SD 2, HD 2. This bill, 'establishes the School Readiness Program within the Early Learning System.'

"This measure seems rushed and I believe that it needs more time to be vetted. In a recent House Finance Committee meeting on this measure, straightforward questions from the committee about how much money the program will require and how many children it will serve were met with evolving answers. The Governor's Executive Office on Early Learning – the very people who will be charged with implementing this program – were all too ready to amend the plan and consider new ideas.

"Mr. Speaker, this does not seem to be the way to present sound public policy. Clearly the administration is in favor of this measure, but by their own testimony, they seem to be ready to change the plan and consider something else. This leads me to believe that this is not a well thought out proposal and that it has been presented prematurely.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1093, SD 2, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCHOOL READINESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Cabanilla and Hanohano voting no.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, I have two concerns. One is the concern about the substance itself and secondly is a confession. As a freshman I naively thought that the decisions we made were based upon numbers, were based upon data. After 15 years I find that sometimes there's no numbers, there's no data.

"But this bill really calls for something because early learning is a concept, it is one of the best that there is but it's one of the easiest things that we could do poorly. What I'm referring to is the learning curve that the billion dollar program called Head Start has attempted to do and has spent $8 billion a year which began back in the 50's or the 60's actually with the War on Poverty that President Johnson began. My fear is that the studies that they did in 2010 and 2012 by the Department of Health and Human Services, they basically said that Head Start was a failure. That those who went into it didn't markedly show any difference in 1st and 3rd grade reading.

"So my point is, Mr. Speaker, and I said this to the Governor directly as he sat for 2 1/2 hours very patiently, honored the Finance Committee by his presence and his answers, but I told him very directly, Governor, this is one of the things if we do it we should do it well. Mr. Speaker, my concern is that the lessons that we have learned from Head Start be built into it, and then secondly that we have metrics to measure how effectively we're doing.

"Two of the things missing in the metrics that seem to be implied by this bill are that one, the underserved are not being served. The metric of those people who are the hardest to reach, if we don't show that we're reaching them here, all we've got is a middle class babysitting program. Mr. Speaker, the money that's going to go into this program is up $135 million when it gets full blown. This is not chump change, this is a serious bill.

"The second thing we need to do is to know that when they do reach the 1st and the 3rd grade, that they do have a leg up, that there has been a difference. Short of those metrics, Mr. Speaker, we're throwing good money after bad in the sense that if we've learned anything from Head Start, we should learn this.

"One of my colleagues in the Finance Committee said that we have a free Head Start program in our community and only half the people show up. I asked the Governor and his 18 executives, what do we do about this? And they said there's a parental outreach, a recruitment to get parents involved, to get the kids involved.

"The point is we've got to reach out to the underserved youth and those families that otherwise may not be functional enough to what otherwise is the highest correlation in any study in any part of the world for the last 100 years. Student achievement is linked to parental involvement. You've got to get the parents involved. If they do an outreach to do this and they get better than 50%, this would be a good investment.

"Clearly, education is the great equalizer in America. A lot of us or none of us would be here without an education. Mr. Speaker, we have to get them as early as possible. A brain is a terrible thing to waste but so is money if we don't learn from what we've done with Head Start and billions of dollars at the federal level. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1095, SD 2, HD 2. This bill would establish the Early Childhood Education Program within the Early Learning System as a part of the Governor's Early Childhood Education initiative. While the bill has a noble goal of helping expand access to educational programs, I am concerned about the financial impact of this program. I do support the expansion of access to education, particularly for those who lack the financial means to afford private schooling, but there are a number of details that are lacking at the present for the creation of a major new governmental initiative. While this program is a great idea in theory, because of the lack of clear details regarding implementation and the large potential financial commitment by the state, I rise with reservations."

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1095, SD 2, HD 2, which establishes a statewide early childhood education program.

"Early childhood education is a proven way to help reduce the gap in achievement that exists for lower-income children. Public funding will provide access to these programs for the families that need them most, and I am strongly in support of expanding access to early childhood education in our state. However, I think that this issue merits further discussion about alternatives to providing these services. "For these reasons, I have reservations about this measure."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1095, SD 2, HD 2. This bill 'establishes the Early Childhood Education Program within the Early Learning System.' Mr. Speaker, this measure is very similar to other measures that are moving regarding school readiness.

"Senate Bill 1095, SD 2, HD 2 addresses early childhood education. Mr. Speaker, this program does not seem to be ready for presentation to the Legislature. Although it is being touted as early childhood education, it is in fact 'school readiness,' or more simply day care.

"In addition, the Hawaii State Constitution does not allow state monies to be expended towards private entities. Since the State of Hawaii has no intent on building its own preschool facilities, the state is relying upon existing private facilities.

"The constitutional prohibition becomes clear in the language of the bill which reads, 'This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050; provided that a constitutional amendment permitting the appropriation of public funds for private early childhood education programs has been ratified.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1095, SD 2, HD 2."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 623, SD 2, HD 3 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Coffman rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. What I find interesting here, this bill has really been opposed by the Administration. It's not supported by the Tax Department. It's basically supported by the people that wrote the bill, that's the PV industry.

"That should give you a hint as to why we're going from what's called a 'tax credit' to a loosely used term called 'production tax credit.' So here in the state we're going to obligate ourselves for 10 years to pay a subsidy to people producing electricity, which I'm already convinced they don't even need any subsidy right now for the utility scale. So, Mr. Speaker, I can't support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in opposition to Senate Bill No. 623, House Draft 3. Among other things, this bill would replace the current renewable energy technology systems tax credit for solar energy property and wind energy property. More specifically, this bill would:

- Provide a renewable energy credit for solar water heaters at a rate of 35% with caps of $2,500 for single-family residential applications, $500 per unit for multi-family residential applications, and $250,000 for commercial applications; and

- Provide a renewable energy tax credit for solar energy property that has an alternating current capacity which is less than one megawatt at a rate of 30% for solar energy property placed in service between January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2013, a rate of 25% between January 1, 2014 and December 31, 2016, a rate of 20% between January 1, 2016 and December 31, 2017, and a rate of 15% thereafter.

"The Department of Taxation ('DOTAX') testified that declining rates for each year will create an unnecessary rush for energy property to be installed and placed in service at the end of each year. This rush will cause compliance and enforcement issues for DOTAX and taxpayers who would have an incentive to claim the tax credit in the earlier year. Certainly, this has been the case with the current tax credit. Since the Governor issued revised tax rules last year, there has been a doubling of photovoltaic installations -- partially as a consequence of greater competition and market place dynamics, but also because of the inevitable legislative changes to this unsustainable government subsidy.

"Also, based on inquiries to DOTAX at the end of each calendar year, DOTAX raised concerns about the accuracy of tax information some renewable energy installers have provided to taxpayers with respect to the taxable year in which the tax credit may be properly claimed. DOTAX's primary concern is that the taxpayer, not the installer, will be required to substantiate that they claimed the tax credit in the correct taxable year. That fact alone should be reason for pause as most homeowners are unaware of the intricacies of the tax laws, rules, and unit cost components.

"Lastly, DOTAX noted that for a 10-year production credit, assuming the same amount of capacity is installed each year starting in 2014 and ending in 2019, the amount of the tax credits that show up in the budget window will be only 35% of the actual total cost of the tax credit to the state's taxpayers. This is true regardless of the amount of the production tax credit per kilowatt hour. For example, for the systems installed in 2014, 60% of the total cost of the credit will be paid out in the budget window, whereas for systems installed in 2019, only 10% of the total cost of the credit will be paid in the budget window. In other words, any proposed revenue estimate for the production tax credit will account for only about one-third of its total cost with the rest of the cost becoming an unfunded liability in future years.

"This is not only poor fiscal policy but exposes the state to unnecessary expenditures that may not be offset by revenue gain in the year the credit is applied. Imagine reconciling the general fund accounts in a biennium or fiscal year with declining revenue and other important expenditures against previous years' production tax credits. Should tax credits trump health care for the aged, shelter for the homeless, or wages for our workers? Obviously not, but this may be an 'unintended' consequence and taxpayer reliance upon the 'comfort letter' almost guarantees this.

"While I agree with my colleagues that we need to promote alternative energy and self-sufficiency in Hawaii, we must also live within our means. In my view, because of the difficulties DOTAX will have in administering this tax credit, the confusion it will cause to taxpayers (and in particular raised expectations), and the uncertain fiscal impact this measure will have, I oppose this measure. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just ruling on potential conflict. My wife has clients that are from the solar industry," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Hashem rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Potential conflict. I'm a partner in a solar project," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 623, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Har, Hashem, McDermott, Oshiro, Say and Ward voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1587) recommending that S.B. No. 1087, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1087, SD 2, HD 3 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Woodson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Woodson's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in strong support of measure SB 1087, SD 2, HD 3, Relating to Green Infrastructure. The intent of this measure is to create affordable financing programs, administered by the state, for those who would otherwise not be able to afford the large upfront costs required for green infrastructure installations. Existing programs and incentives do not serve the entire spectrum of the customer market, particularly those customers who lack capital. These potential customers are underserved, thus hinder the State of Hawaii from reaching its clean energy goals.

"However, if we allow the Public Utilities Commission and the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism the funds to acquire and provide alternative low-cost financing programs, we will potentially eliminate a large portion of upfront costs. With this elimination of initial cost, consumers will be granted the ability to afford the clean energy technology. I support and believe that as a direct result of this measure, as a state we will be able to achieve our 70% clean energy goal. "

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1087, SD 2, HD 3. According to the bill, this measure 'establishes a regulatory financing structure that authorizes the PUC and DBEDT to provide low-cost loans for green infrastructure equipment to achieve measurable cost savings and Hawaii's clean energy goals.'

"Mr. Speaker, this bill will mandatorily raise the rates of all Hawaiian Electric customers in order to partially fund the new Hawaii green infrastructure authority. The money in the fund will then be used to administer green infrastructure loans.

"This measure will raise electrical utility costs on members of my community and especially those in poverty. In addition, it is clear that green infrastructure loans will not be given to everyone that pays for electricity in Hawaii, nor would these loans be appropriate for everyone. Therefore, this measure has the potential of producing more harm than good, for many members of the community that I represent.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 1087, SD 2, HD 3."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, I may sound to some like a broken record but this is about getting PV on every roof, a mantra of my office. One that I fear with this bill which is ratcheting down the tax credit.

"The notion of a budding industry which is not even a baby industry as I've said many times, it's a zygote, it's not even here, we have less than 1% of our electricity coming out of PV.

"This is going to ratchet down the tax incentive. The lesson that we've learned is that when you downgrade the tax incentive like in solar water heaters you take away basically all of this work, that we're now saying we have a green revolution. You take away this incentive and it's going to kill the industry. There have been those who've said, well there's people gaming the system. You name me one law, one system that's not gamed by a few people. And as in my earlier lament as a freshmen we make stuff on data not anecdotes and hearsay. A lot of this stuff that's complaining about this bill is hearsay. There's no substantive data that says those people who gamed the system have really ripped off the state for billions and millions of dollars.

"We have $5 billion that we're giving overseas to keep our electricity generated by oil. If we are serious we have to pay a little bit to give an incentive to our people to put solar on the roof, to put PV on the roof. This one is the beginning of the slippery slope to slide away before we even get to probably 2% or 5% of our grid from PV to kill the industry.

"Mr. Speaker, policies are incentivized by particular bills. This is one of those that is de-incentivizing and I regret the demise of what otherwise we could be, not only the national leader, we could be a world leader in solar because we have been blessed with the sun day by day by day. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think it's a bad policy bill and I vote no."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of SB Number 1087, Relating to Green Infrastructure. To make a couple of notes for the previous speaker. This does not ratchet down the incentives, in fact it provides another means of incentivizing getting photovoltaic up on roofs. So, in support, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that my colleague from Hawaii Kai was speaking in opposition to Senate Bill 623, not the green infrastructure, but 623, which deals with the photovoltaic tax credit. I will leave it to him to correct that."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"I yield to those who have corrected me again. The bills of which, because I missed this in our caucus, I was scrambling. It's 1586. No question about it. Senate Bill 623."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1087, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative McDermott voting no.

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 563, SD 3, HD 2. This measure 'amends the form and function of the Candidate Advisory Council for the Board of Regents of the University of Hawaii. Repeals the existing Regents Candidate Advisory Council.'

"Mr. Speaker, unfortunately the University of Hawaii Board of Regents selection process was changed a few years ago under the administration of the former governor. Testimony at that time reflected the sentiment that this was not an idea endorsed by the accrediting committee for the University of Hawaii. Now the legislature is trying to undo something that essentially was not a very good idea in the past.

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 563, SD 3, HD 2."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 563, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 867, SD 2, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting up with reservations. Essentially my reservations stem from the fact that this is a very complicated area of law and collective bargaining regarding the EUTF and the retirees. I think it's important for us to make sure that we're examining this bill as it comes back from the Conference Committee.

"My concern is two-fold. Number one, that the removal of the cap on the contribution by the employers to the cost share of the health premiums for the retirants, without that cap we might not be able to begin to pay down the unfunded liability and exposure that's currently existing for both county and state employees under the presupposed employment benefits, that's one.

"Number two, according to the commentary from the Attorney General's Office, it may even preempt the ability of the employers themselves to properly fund and make the transfer of the required sums to the EUTF for the purposes of insuring the insurance coverage for the retirants, given the present language that has been stricken from currently Chapter 87.

"Another concern that I also have is that this may also tie into an ongoing case presently being litigated, I'm not sure if it's at the Supreme Court or the circuit court with ICA regarding whether or not a certain type and quantity of retirees' benefits are indeed protected under the State Constitution. These are very important questions, policy questions, very technically complex and legal questions, and that's the reason why I have my reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Oshiro be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1171, SD 1, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and just a couple of brief comments. The whole question here is phasing of projects and it seems to me like the difficulty is in how do you define a phase. There are certain projects where you may have a long term project in mind where it has several phases, but in some cases the whole project isn't done until all the phases are complete. In other kinds of projects, like a road widening project, even if you only finish one phase of it, it still can be useful for transportation purposes and be complete in just the one phase.

"So I hope the lead Chairs at conference can work out the correct language. I'm not sure we're there yet, but it does seem to me that this is a tricky issue but an important one. Mahalo."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to Senate Bill 1171, which would allow segmented approval of developments. Mr. Speaker, if the Members would look at page 2 of the bill, what the Department of Transportation will be allowed to do is segment a project where 'the proposed project consists of corridors or large land areas,' where 'access to properties is restricted.' And then it uses the word 'or,' and my colleague from Wahiawa knows that 'or' means 'or' not 'and' in this instance. So 'or where circumstances dictate that construction be done in stages.'

"Well that opens a door that's wide enough and large enough for an aircraft carrier to sail through. This really removes any restriction. I mean you could virtually put any project in your community, on the island of Oahu, neighbor islands, in here. 'Access to properties is restricted.' That's private property maybe, that the state may be acquiring an easement over it. 'Circumstances dictate that construction be done in stages.' Who makes that determination? The Director, out of the sight of the public.

"I mean, it really guts the whole archeological inventory study requirement and really I would say in essence the proponents of this bill just should have repealed the requirement to even do that because the exemptions are so wide they can fit virtually anything that the developer would want to do. When you look at this as being, in essence, a rail bill, the problem is that it's going to have a very negative impact not just on the rail corridor, but it's going to have a broader negative impact on all of the islands. Neighbor islands particularly where they're not going to want to see this exemption used.

"And then the whole thing, when you segment a project, Mr. Speaker, they did that in Los Angeles decades ago. They built a freeway coming from one direction, stopping at the boundary of a historic cemetery. They built the other section of the freeway coming from the other direction stopping at the other end of the historic cemetery. Guess what happened to the historic cemetery.

"So this is the whole situation here. You segment, you get your project in place and you eliminate your options to, number one, consider not to do that project, number two, to reroute it somewhere else.

"I think the bill is a very bad idea. Actually in all of the contacts that I've had from the public on any measure this session, and that includes some of the very controversial ones such as the decriminalization of marijuana, I would say that I've received more in opposition to this segmentation bill than on any other measure. And this is from people throughout the state. Some in the archaeology profession, others that are trying to protect Hawaiian resources, and others that don't believe our environmental law should be gutted. So I would encourage Members to take a hard look at this and to vote no. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you. This talks about the Department of Land and Natural Resources and the State Historic Preservation Division and when they go in and do archeological inventory survey. In no means does this stop the EIS process. So a good example in my district is we have the Kawaihae Road Bypass. Very expensive project, very difficult, but when they looked at the different alignments they came up with over, I think 12, and they went out on site and they did their EIS.

"What we know here, EIS in Hawaii is a disclosure statement, it talks about people looking and trying to determine what is of record and what they might know. This is not addressing EIS. I think that's a real important distinction that people need to understand.

"This is the AIS. So for again the Kawaihae Road Bypass, they've done the EIS, it's very long, it's very complicated. They've already told the community they're going to do it in three phases. The way they do roads is they can't build a phased road if it isn't usable so they will do three phases. They may start, let's say Kawaihae Harbor, work their way up the hill. They'll do the bypass road, they'll connect it back to a road so that the circulation, it's like you can't build a road to nowhere anymore. So they'll have this phased part. When they do that phased part they will contact the State Historic Preservation Division and they'll actually go out and do a lot more research, which maybe it's digging, I don't know, but that is where SHPD and DLNR has to go out and work on that phase.

"They've already told us with Kawaihae Road Bypass, it may take 20 years to get the full road in, but the one phase they might be able to get in 6 years from now. So I think the important part is to understand that some of these projects from the get-go, everybody knows they're phased.

"When it came to the Committees on Transportation and Water & Land, we understood that phasing is the way big projects are usually done, a lot of it because you don't know where the funding is coming from, especially with roads, you've got to go back to the federal government. You have to, like this project is $110 million, they might get it in segments of $40 and then $50 and then $30 million.

"So what we did when it got to our committee was we said, knowing that you have a huge project and you want to go in and say, this project we know from the get-go is phased, we put in this language that they have to have an agreement with DLNR and SHPD where everybody up-front understands that they're going to address this as a phased project. So that's why it says there's going to be a programmatic agreement.

"I appreciate everybody standing up and commenting on this, it is going to go to conference and maybe there needs to be a little more clarity in people's minds on some of the language we've used. But I think conceptually it's something that is probably really good that we're actually talking about it now. Because I think it's been a practice, it's probably been a practice around for a while and this will hopefully bring better clarity to everybody in terms of the projects. If it's a 20 year project and it goes in phases, we'll clearly understand up-front we've entered into a phased project and we have expectations. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I just want to make a couple of comments and then insert written comments if that's alright.

"I just want to echo the comments that the Vice Chair for Energy & Environmental Protection stated, and I also want to note that it did not go to that Committee and it also did not go to the Hawaiian Affairs Committee. My concern is that we're talking about bones, people's ancestors, and I really think we should have more discussion. Unfortunately, this does not have a defective date. It's going to be effective if the Senate agrees, so that does concern me.

"I do believe that there is an issue that deserves discussion. I know that DOT has raised issues as a result of the decision in rail, but I think this is premature. It's just an instant reaction to something that they didn't like and I think that we need to pause and make sure that we have a full discussion before moving forward. Mahalo."

Representative Wooley's written remarks are as follows:

"I am also concerned that we have not had enough discussion on this issue to even begin to understand the full implications of adopting a phased approach. Allowing archeological discovery for a project to be done piecemeal, 'in phases,' will impair our ability to make the best decisions given the circumstances.

"The phased approach means that decision makers will have less information. Yet we know the more information we have, the better our decisions. Without information, we waste time and money undoing and/or litigating over what should or should not have been done.

"In addition, there is concern this phased approach will threaten iwi and historic sites. It's easy to imagine a DOT project moving forward in a way that accidentally causes cultural resources to be mauled or destroyed.

"Good planning simply requires we get a sense of the big picture before we start spending money on a project that could be doomed or will result in unnecessary conflict."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I know that people have been getting a number of emails and there've been a lot of concerns regarding the language in this measure that you see before you. I do want to state, and I have supporting documents that I will insert within my testimony, but I do want to highlight that we did receive language from the department as well as an individual, Greg Thielen, who is also in support, which states that this bill does not circumvent Chapter 6E, the historic preservation law, or any rules that were implemented regarding Chapter 6E. All required archaeological inventory studies, which is required by our HRS, will be completed, reviewed, and necessary mitigated or other actions.

"Mr. Speaker, the discussion regarding what we see here today is the issue about phasing. Mr. Speaker, I do want to highlight for the Members, because we all want projects and have projects affecting our communities, to note that all statewide-type programs are conducted typically in phases. Specifically for stuff like pedestrian and ADA compliancy as well as freeway management systems. They're done in phases, Mr. Speaker.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, all pavement projects are conducted regarding long corridor roads and highways. These, for example several of the highways are Kalanianaole, Kamehameha Highway, Farrington Highway, Hawaii Belt Road, Volcano Road, Kuakini Highway, Haleakala Highway, Kuhio Highway and Honoapiilani.

"Mr. Speaker, also because of the way the funding is situated, large projects are broken up in phases and some of these phases need to concur with the federal matching moneys. So I'll give you some other examples, Mr. Speaker. For example, Waimea Canyon Drive and Koke'e Road improvements, phases one and two are $9 million. H-1 p.m. contraflow phases one and two, the reasons why they're broken up in phases is because phase one is Radford to Waiawa and the second phase is Waiawa to Paiwa, $120 million.

"So Mr. Speaker, the reason why the issue is done in phases, it's not as simple as we go by the length of road or the name of the road, but we go by how the segments in which, one, we can ascertain state and federal matching funds, as well as improvements. Again, when they're going through the process of doing these improvements all archaeological processes are still in place. So if anything is found there needs to be mitigation.

"So, Mr. Speaker, as we talk about moving forward, as well as the addition of programmatic agreements which is consistent with federal law, we have a lot of projects, we have a lot of needs from what I've been told from the department that this would have an immediate chilling effect on projects and road improvements. Not just on new developments in highways and freeways. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of SB 1171: Relating to the Review of Historic Preservation Projects. This bill would allow the phased review of certain large projects by the Department of Land and Natural Resources' State Historic Preservation Division.

"The Departments of Accounting and General Services and Hawaiian Home Lands testified that this bill aims to make state law consistent with existing federal regulations regarding phasing of projects. Testimony provided by the Departments of Transportation and Agriculture highlighted that the bill would allow for the timely completion of large scale projects around the state. The Department of Transportation, specifically, cited a list of impacted projects. These projects include:

1. Mokulele Highway Widening, Kolaloa Bridge to Piilani Highway; $3.7 million

2. Honoapiilani Highway Widening & Realignment, Maalea to Launiupoko; $50 million

3. Haleakala Highway Widening, Hana Highway to Pukalani Bypass, Phase 1; $9 million

4. H-1 PM Countraflow, Phase 1 and 2, Radford to Waiawa & Waiawa to Paiwa; $120 million

5. Kohala Mountain Road, Drainage Improvements, Phase 1, 2, & 4; $3 million

6. Puainako Street Widening, Kawili to Komohana; cost to be determined

7. Kaumualii Highway Widening, Lihue to Rice Street; $30 million

8. Waimea Canyon Drive/Kokee Road Improvements, Phase 1 and 2; $9 million

9. Kihei-Upcountry Highway; cost to be determined

10. Castle Hills Access Road, Drainage Improvement Phase 1 and 2; $25 million

11. Kalanianaole Highway Improvements, Olomana Golf Course to Poalimia Street; $50 million

12. Kanoelehua Avenue Widening, Kamehameha Avenue to Panaewa; $6 million, cost for Phases 2 and 3 to be determined

13. All statewide-type programs are conducted in phases: pedestrian and ADA compliance, freeway management system, etc.

14. All pavement projects are conducted in phases for long corridors that cannot be funded in their entire length. E.g. Kalanianaole Highway, Kamehameha Highway, Farrington Highway, Hawaii Belt Road, Volcano Road, Kuakini Highway, Haleakala Highway, Kuhio Highway, Honoapiilani Highway, etc.

"For these abovementioned reasons, I believe SB 1171 will be beneficial to the state of Hawaii and I stand in support of the bill."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with some reservations on SB 1171, SD 1, HD 2. This bill authorizes the phased review of certain projects by the Department of Land and Natural Resources' State Historic Preservation Division.

"While I agree that continuity with federal law is an important goal, I am sensitive to concerns brought by archeologists and Native Hawaiian cultural practitioners that this bill may weaken the protection of Native Hawaiian archeological sites. Permitting a phased investigation will enable and authorize project construction to commence regardless of a latter-phased area's unknown potential yield and composition of historic and cultural resources, which may complicate preservation efforts. However, I also want to ensure that needed public infrastructure projects are also able to progress. Therefore, I do support this measure with some reservations."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The speaker from Waipio mentioned that he had received an email from Greg Thielen. Greg Thielen is this year's president of the Building Industry Association, he is also my son. I received the same email. I emailed back to him saying, 'Thank you for your email in support of this bill. I respectfully disagree. Love, Mom.'

"Mr. Speaker, Department of Transportation, with the Director sitting up in the gallery, is the one that has brought all of these bills before us that have been so troublesome. This is the segmentation bill. There's going to be another one where we're supposed to give Department of Transportation an exemption for harbor repairs. It's one after the other after the other as we have our lands paved over and projects fast-tracked.

"This bill is so broad, I tell you, you neighbor islanders particularly take a look at this, you have some wonderful historic resources. But if the access to the property is restricted, my goodness that could just be a locked gate, then you can go ahead with this whole new scheme. If circumstances dictate that construction be done in stages, hey a house is built in stages, then you can go ahead using this new scheme. It's just the wrong way to go if we want to preserve our cultural resources.

"For neighbor islanders I think it's even a more bitter pill for them to swallow. On Oahu we've lost so much already. So, Mr. Speaker, I would ask Members to consider voting no and stopping this bill right here in its tracks. Thank you."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, just note my reservations. I'd just like to thank the Chairs and everybody for moving this along and giving it so much consideration. I know there are legitimate issues to be resolved, at the same time I know a lot of concerns have been raised. I look forward to seeing this go to conference before being considered for a final vote. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Senate Bill 1171, SD 1, HD 2 will make the state's Hawaii State historic laws consistent with federal historic preservation laws which allow phased reviews. Anyone that is familiar with large construction projects, as mentioned by the good Representatives from Waipio as well as Waimea on the Big Island, most are done in phases. This bill will help state projects to be more cost efficient and time effective by circumventing delays in projects that would end up costing more money and taking longer to complete.

"This bill would also save the state money, taxpayer money, by removing redundancy in agency appeals. Under the current law if any agency does not agree in the determination by the review, they may appeal and the state and counties are still obligated to consult with the State Historic Preservation Division on 'the effect of the proposed project on historic properties, aviation artifacts, or burial sites, consistent with Section 6E-43.'

"The obligation and responsibility of the state and counties are still implemented. The only change is that it will be done in phases rather than one review for the entirety of a large project, as mentioned again by the Chair of Transportation. In other words, Mr. Speaker, if a large project in size is forced to provide the entire information, should necessary changes be made to mandate a change or revision, the entire project will need to go back to the drawing board.

"This measure addresses a possible loss of large sums of financing and labor hours that was spent on such an endeavor. Again, I would like to stress that this measure still mandates review.

"I'd also like to refer to emails that were provided to us from the Department of Transportation as well as Mr. Thielen, President of Complete Construction Services and BIA Hawaii, and further written comments. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This bill is needed to ensure that our tax dollars are used properly when large construction projects are taking place. There are many infrastructural projects that are needed or are long overdue in the Leeward Coast. If this measure does not move forward, many construction projects may be jeopardized or delayed. Mr. Speaker, as a Representative whose district will be directly impacted by these issues, I am concerned for the quality of life for our constituents. Other areas of the most populated island have already been afforded with roadways and highways, water and sewage line improvements. Now that it is our turn, construction becomes an issue. Well Mr. Speaker, what is right is right, and right now it is the time that the people on the Leeward Coast of Oahu need their projects completed. For these reasons, I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Woodson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition. I understand what is trying to be accomplished here, I just have concerns that the language as it is right now is overly broad. There's not a lot of clarity about what makes a programmatic review adequate, and clarity between what exactly is phasing, because there's a difference between phasing a project and what at least in federal laws is sometimes called segmentation. So I hope that it gets worked on in conference and I'm just voting no now because of the lack of a defective date. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takayama rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In slight opposition. Generally, the reason why I decided to become a public official is to help restore the public trust in government, especially in my generation. This is obviously a very unpopular bill, so I wish that a lot of the issues were clarified a little bit more in committee. But I understand the purpose of this bill and I hope that those things can be cleared up in conference."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, just with slight reservations. But on the support factor because, since the Chair of the Transportation brought up Honoapiilani Highway, that is correct, it is done in phases, there was an AIS that was done. However, the AIS did not reveal what the crews discovered when they came to start doing the prep work, which was the location of pristine archaeological terraces.

"Even though it was a phased project it allowed, the department went out, worked with the various historic preservation entities and was able to redesign the highway to avoid these sensitive archaeological sites, thereby creating a win-win, getting a second highway that our community desperately needs for public safety and for transportation while protecting and preserving these important monuments.

"I do agree, there is some concern with the scope of language. However, my main concern is about the title which is 'Relating to the Review of Historic Preservation Projects,' and I think that could be problematic as this bill moves on. But I just point that out for the edification of the Members and also to clarify some of the discussion about phasing as it relates to the highway in West Maui. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives Rhoads and Yamane be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, we have less than half of our people who own homes. This is going to increase the cost of homeownership by putting what I believe are exorbitant fees on mortgage origination fees, mortgage licensure, etc. It's not good for Hawaii's families. Thank you."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1141, SD 2, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ito rose in opposition to the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ito's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to SCR 1615, SB 1141, SD 2, HD 2.

"Mr. Speaker, in Section 1 it states, 'Conditional release means that a person has been acquitted of a crime on the ground of mental disease or disorder, excluding responsibility, but can be controlled adequately and given proper care, supervision, and treatment in the community under specified conditions.' Who is to guarantee that the individual will be controlled adequately? Will that person also be with the individual 24/7? Additionally, will that person guarantee that he is giving proper care, supervision, and treatment to the individual? I doubt if that person will be able to guarantee any of those conditions.

"It further states in Section 4, 'For any defendant granted conditional release pursuant to this section, and who was charged with a misdemeanor, petty misdemeanor, or violation, the period of conditional release shall be no longer than one year.' Who is to guarantee that a person charged with a misdemeanor, petty misdemeanor, or violation, and has a mental disease or disorder will not commit a more serious felonious crime while on conditional release?

"Mr. Speaker, in general, I am not against a defendant being granted a 'conditional release'. What this measure lacks is that it does not specify conditions under which a 'conditional release' can be granted; such as, restriction on specific localities where a defendant can/cannot attend, the wearing of an ankle bracelet to monitor the whereabouts of the defendant to ensure compliance to the conditions set forth in the 'conditional release', etc.

"As you know, the Hawaii State Hospital is located within District 49, which I represent. In 2011 a State Judge granted a Hawaii State Hospital patient a 'conditional release' to physically attend classes at Windward Community College. Regardless of whether the patient was under a supervised release, would the attending supervisor have been able to prevent an out-of-control patient from committing an assault on a student? I very much doubt it. During that period I received numerous phone calls from concerned parents, as well as students. If the patient wanted to attend classes at WCC the judge could have set conditions on the patients' 'conditional release' by requiring the patient to take e-classes.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I am in opposition to SCR 1615, SB 1141, SD 2, HD 2, and ask my colleagues to oppose this measure."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1196, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this bill is I would think an aggressive move to shut down the small mom and pop lemonade stands, garage sales, swap meets, anybody who's doing a small business. It's an attempt for anybody who now can have less than 10 sales not having to do receipts. This says anybody who sells anything at any time for any amount of money has to give a receipt. We're going to make bookkeepers out of our immigrants and our other entrepreneur people.

"What's the irony of this, Mr. Speaker, is that this bill is projected to raise maybe $100,000. The reality is DOTAX has over a billion dollars, I repeat a billion dollars, outstanding taxpayers who are the big fish who they can't catch. So they're going to put resources to get these small guys who are trying to just make a living and making bookkeepers out of them, it's a misuse of state resources when we've got billions of dollars for those who are smart enough to evade what otherwise the DOTAX should be going afterward. So with that, Mr. Speaker, I vote no."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1196, SD 1 HD 1. This bill expands the requirement of vendors to offer receipts and keep contemporaneous records to all vendors, removing the exception of those businesses who conduct ten or fewer cash-based transactions per day. I have concerns about this bill because it seems to be targeting businesses that are struggling to survive, without much revenue (projected to be less than $100,000 recouped) gained in the process. Additionally, I am not certain how this law can and will be enforced."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I represent an area where there's a lot of mom and pops, and I support the bill because many of the moms and pops are trying to do the right thing. They report their income, they do what they're supposed to do, but it puts them at a competitive disadvantage against those who aren't trying to do the right thing. Therefore, I think this is an appropriate measure. Mahalo."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations on SB 1196. My reservation with this bill, Mr. Speaker, is that there is no definition for casual sales. I agree that giving receipts in everything and anything would be too cumbersome. I also believe that there are certain people who do casual sales that need to be taxed. So as this bill moves forward I would look forward of having a definition of what casual sales is, because I don't think that we should require receipts for everything and anything because, like it was previously said, it would be too cumbersome to small businesses. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just another comment about the origins of this bill and why I think DOTAX likes it. Because the Chair of Judiciary said that the bad guys are making the good guys look good. My point is that the bill has been premised on the fact that the character assassination of the small guys is why this bill is here. That's why they said, well they're lying to us. All these small guys are lying to us. They say they have less than 10 transactions. So because of that lack of character or the assassination of the character, we've got this bill labeling all the small businesses liars.

"That was the premise and that is what came through in the hearing, that because they don't tell us the truth we've got to go down now to not 10 or below, we've got to go for everybody who sells anything at anytime for any amount of money. That's overkill, Mr. Speaker. That's the point. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1196, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CASH ECONOMY ENFORCEMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Fale, McDermott, Thielen and Ward voting no.

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations and just a few brief comments. I think the intent of the bill is certainly good, it's to mitigate impasses caused when there's a tie and there's not an ability to appoint a successor. I just hope that in conference perhaps the Chief Justice is removed and there's another appointing authority. It just seems somewhat problematic to be having the head of the Judiciary appointing to an adjudicative body that ultimately may end up resulting with that appointing authority in terms of jurisdiction. Thank you."

END OF CALENDAR

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, please turn to page 18, and refer to House Stand. Com. Report Number 1562, this would be Senate Bill 987, Senate Draft 1, House Draft 1."

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1562) recommending that S.B. No. 987, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 987, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Thielen offered Floor Amendment No. 21, amending S.B. No. 987, SD 1, HD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 987 S.D. 1 H.D. 1, RELATING TO IMPACT FEES, is amended as follows:

1. By amending section 1 to read:

"SECTION 1. The legislature finds that it is important to ensure consistency between state and county laws where necessary for efficient and effective governance. One of the major challenges in this regard is the lack of clear policy guidance on the collection of impact fees for new water meters.

The legislature recognizes that current state law does not provide the counties with sufficient flexibility to assess the fee at a time most suited to the type of development in question -- for example, whether prior to the issuance of a building permit, prior to the issuance of a water meter, or upon the installation of a water meter. As a result, the counties are hindered in their ability to timely provide water to projects in need.

The purpose of this Act, therefore, is to facilitate efficient and effective governance by authorizing counties to collect impact fees before or upon issuance of a water meter, as the counties see fit. At the same time, however, it is not the intent or purpose of the legislature to unduly burden an applicant seeking a water meter for a single-family home by requiring that applicant to pay the impact fee in full prior to the county's actual installation of the water meter."

2. By amending section 2 to read:

"SECTION 2. Section 46-146, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"[{]§46-146[}] Time of assessment and collection of impact fees. Assessment of impact fees shall be a condition precedent to the issuance of a grading or building permit or water meter and shall be collected in full before or upon issuance of the permit[.] or water meter; provided that the counties shall not require an applicant seeking a water meter for a single- family home to pay the impact fee in full prior to the county's installation of the water meter.""

3. By amending section 3 to read:

"SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed and stricken. New statutory material is underscored."

4. By adding a new section 4, to read as follows:

"SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2013.""

Representative Thielen moved that Floor Amendment No. 21 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of this friendly Floor Amendment. It is a friendly Floor Amendment, primarily to help the residents on the island of Kauai. As currently written, the bill would give counties the authority to collect water meter impact fees in full before, and before is the key word, or upon issuance of a water meter. That makes a lot of sense, Mr. Speaker, in terms of major developments that are extremely taxing or on existing infrastructure that requires construction of the infrastructure to support the new major massive development.

"But this has an unintended consequence on individual homeowners. Specifically the broad language of Senate Bill 987 doesn't prohibit the counties from forcing an applicant wishing to build a single-family home from paying the impact fee in full prior to the counties actually installing a water meter. What does this mean to the individual homeowner on the island of Kauai?

"At a cost of $4,000 to $19,000 per water meter, it requires the little guy to pay this cost out of pocket, which would be difficult if not impossible for them to do. It's particularly important to keep in mind, because most people use their mortgages to cover the cost of the water meter. They won't have that mortgage in place before they have their building permit and are able to proceed with the construction of their home.

"I believe that this amendment will take care of it and protect the water department. The amendment says that the county shall not require an applicant seeking a water meter for a single-family home to pay the impact fee in full prior to the county's installation of the water meter. The water department is protected, the homeowner calls the water department and asks to have the meter hooked up. The water department says, fine, we will be out there on this day, have your check made payable to the water department for full payment of that water meter. We hook up, you hand us the check and both sides are happy, because the homeowner has been able to get the mortgage in an amount that will be able to cover this water meter payment.

"So it's a friendly amendment. I believe that the bill does need to be amended. I've been told that it has the harshest impact on the island of Kauai and I've been told that the other neighbor island water departments are fine with the present system, and why did they even need this legislation. Kauai and Mr. Craddick have been the ones pushing this bill, but I'm afraid that the way it's written presently without this amendment will hurt the individual homeowner. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, I rise in opposition to the Floor Amendment. I hear what the previous speaker's concerns are and I really appreciate the fact that she's for the single-family owner, but I want to put it in perspective. When a subdivision is created and they create these lots, there is an impact fee paid by the developer. When I called the water department and said, how would that affect the single-family homeowner? What they said was, if you go to our Hawaii Revised Statutes 146, this section talks about impact fees. The way the law is written is it says the developer that develops these subdivisions, that the county can put what's called these public facility impact fees and it actually talks about how you calculate them. When you go later in that HRS statute they talk about the timing of when you collect them. This is what the underlying measure addresses is the timing.

"The current bill says you can assess and collect impact fees, 'condition precedent to the issuance of a grading or building permit.' What we're suggesting is, 'or water meter.' I personally do not believe the language that's being proposed for the Floor Amendment is necessary. The main reason being is that if you have a lot and you go to the county and say you want a building permit, they won't give you a building permit if they know you can't get water, which means you have to go apply for the water permit. At some point when you build it, you'll have to get the issuance of the water permit. At that time, what the underlying bill says is the impact fee can be collected by the county. But the county isn't collecting for the original development, the actual facility fee for the development of the water system was already charged to the developer. It would not pass to the single-family owner.

"However, if there was something subsequent, let's say in the neighborhood where they maybe did some upgrade, maybe they recalculate and say there is a small facility impact fee. Maybe that would get passed on to the lot owner.

"But I have to tell you I don't believe the scenario that was said by the previous speaker because if you want to build a house on a lot, you're going to go to the bank and you're going to get a construction loan. After that construction loan you will then turn it into a mortgage. But the reality is you've got to have the money to be able to build your house. When you get building permits now with the counties, they really limit you. It's like they're going to say, your building permit is only good for 6 to 9 months. We expect you to be back here for an occupancy permit so we're only giving you a short window.

"So I think that anybody that's doing single-family development has already, like I said, I think that the cost of water meter, driveways, electrical HELCO connection, building the house, that's all put in to whatever loan you're going to have with the bank. I don't think you build all that stuff and then go get your mortgage loan. That isn't the way it works.

"In my community of Waikoloa we actually have developers at the bottom of the hill that you can actually go in and negotiate the building of your home and they put together the whole package for you. They design it, what kind of roof, what kind of materials. So that thing all gets worked out, and they already have some agreements with the local bank on what their mortgage packages are. So it's kind of a one-stop shopping deal, and that would be done. So I don't think this language is really necessary. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Yes it is. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If the Members would just read the language, what this language does in this friendly Floor Amendment, it says that the counties shall not require an applicant seeking a water meter for a single-family home to pay the impact fee in full prior to the counties installation of the water meter. So what it's saying is, to the individual homeowner, you're not going to be caught in this chicken and egg situation where you won't have your construction loan until you have a building permit and therefore you're going to have to pay for your water meter in advance before you can get your construction loan. So come up with that $4,000 to $12,000 in advance.

"It's very onerous for the individual homeowner. Different for a large development, different for if you're developing multiple lots. That's set aside. This only protects the individual single-family home, and they are not going to be required to pay for that water meter before installation. By the time it's installed they would have the construction loan that would be in place, and they exchange the check for the connection to the water meter.

"So, Mr. Speaker, it's really needed. I know that there are instances on Kauai with a lot of difficulty with the water department. Extensive delays, which again with your individual homeowner puts a huge burden on them, to have to come up front with those thousands and thousands of dollars.

Kauai came in and wanted this. Neighbor islands didn't need it. And I'm afraid what we're doing is hurting the individual homeowners on Kauai. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the Floor Amendment. I think I spoke with the gentleman that the Representative from Kailua spoke with twice and he understands what the measure does now. He's okay with it now. All of those concerns are still existing, Mr. Speaker, but if you look at what the bill does, they're already doing it right now. The counties are already doing it right now. The county manager from Kauai wanted to make sure it was in statute so he went out of his way to do that.

"But there is a double edged sword to the situation, Mr. Speaker. If they don't pay for it upfront and their house goes through and they don't reserve that water meter, they could lose the right to get that water meter. So I would think they want to make sure they get that water meter upfront. And I understand it's expensive. I don't think anybody wants to tax anybody more. Whatever the water department does or water departments do throughout the counties is not what this Body is doing as far as the fees are concerned. But if they don't reserve that water meter upfront, that's where the problem is going to be, Mr. Speaker, and they're going to lose the opportunity to reserve that water meter. So that's why this bill is very important for the counties. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 21, amending S.B. No. 987, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IMPACT FEES," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representatives Evans and Tokioka voting no.

(Main Motion)

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm in opposition to the bill as it states. Mr. Speaker, I'm casting a no vote on it because it's saying that it's adding in now the language that a water department shall collect in full before or upon issuance of the water meter. Not connection, just upon issuance of the water meter, and I think that's harsh for the individual homeowner. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 987, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IMPACT FEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Fale, Fukumoto, McDermott and Thielen voting no.

At 3:28 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 987, SD 1, HD 1

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1576) recommending that S.B. No. 757, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 757, SD 2, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Har offered Floor Amendment No. 15, amending S.B. No. 757, SD 2, HD 2, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 757, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, is amended by deleting the "PART I" designation on page 1, line 1.

SECTION 3. Senate Bill No. 757, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, is amended by amending Section 2 on page 2, lines 5-6, to read as follows:

SECTION 4. Senate Bill No. 757, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, is amended by amending Section 3 on page 2, line 8, to insert $100,000 as the sum to be appropriated in each year of the 2013-2015 fiscal biennium.

SECTION 9. Senate Bill No. 757, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, is amended by renumbering Section 11 as Section 4, and to read as follows:

"SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2013.""

Representative Har moved that Floor Amendment No. 15 be adopted, seconded by Representative Hashem.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Floor Amendment Number 15. Mr. Speaker, when Senate Bill 757 first came over from the Senate as a Senate Draft 2, the purview of the bill dealt with the Livestock Revitalization Program. Specifically, the bill capped the Livestock Revitalization Program grant per qualified producer per year at the lesser of a specified amount or a percentage of the cost of feed for production of poultry products, milk or pigs and beef cattle raised and slaughtered in Hawaii for local consumption. Furthermore, the bill expanded the livestock program to include subsidies for costs incurred in raising goats, sheep, fish and crustaceans.

"After the bill came out as a House Draft 1 from the House Committee on Agriculture, Senate Bill 757, HD 1 still dealt with the Livestock Revitalization Program with minor amendments being made by lowering the number of sows needed for pig farmers to qualify as qualified producers, and specifying when qualified producers will not be eligible for livestock.

"After the bill came out of the Finance Committee the bill changed drastically from the livestock program to a Part I which promotes the 4H and Future Farmers of America programs, very worthwhile programs, and then the Part II, which added language into Chapter 171-10, adding a fourth class of classification for intensive agricultural land use.

"While I very much appreciate the Finance Committees posting of the HD 2 which is the current draft before us, the Floor Amendment does keep in Part I of the current House Draft 2, which is the 4H, Future Farmers of America program but the Floor Amendment deletes Part II. Mr. Speaker, I will note that Part I was formerly known as House Bill 486, in which there was unanimous consent amongst this Body with every single Member of this Body voting in support of House Bill 486. However, Part II of the measure was formerly known as House Bill 734, and at Third Reading there were six individuals who voted with reservations and there were three in opposition.

"While I very much appreciate the Livestock Revitalization Program language and I wish that it would have remained in the HD 2, in support of the House and the Chairs this Floor Amendment demonstrates the House's support of the 4H and Future Farmers of America program inserting an appropriation amount and clean date. The FA just simply deletes Part II and shows our support as a Body for these very important programs. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of the Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Wooley rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition. I appreciate the previous speaker's support of the 4H program and I am very hopeful that moves forward. That is an important House position and I am very hopeful we'll see it come back to us. This bill is a work in progress and the taro additions are critical and based on the Taro Task Force recommendations.

"I just want to note for those of you who haven't been here for the last few years, the Taro Task Force was created in 2008 and the reason is in part because of our concerns about food security, but in a large part it has to do with a fact that taro is in crisis.

"In the 1940's there were over 30,000 acres registered as kuleana loi. Today there's about 600 or less that's registered. In addition, we're now importing over 1,000 pounds per year of taro. That brings with it many challenges including recent discovery of invasive species that were on taro and they were intercepted at the airport. So we have a lot of challenges. Taro is the main starch for many families including my own, I love it, but particularly Hawaiian families, and it is really critical for Hawaiian health issues today.

"The bill itself focuses primarily on public land. On page 4 it amends Section 171, which is applying only to public land. That provision simply creates a fourth class, taro lands, and the second section that makes a change simply protects 'auwai that may be existing, ancient 'auwai. So with that, Mr. Speaker, I just want to encourage everybody to vote down this Floor Amendment, and I look forward to working more on taro protection and food security. Mahalo."

"Just a brief rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. While the previous speaker noted that these were recommendations of the Taro Security Task Force, the fact of the matter is many of our very well respected taro farmers in the State of Hawaii actually are not part of this task force. So I don't think this is truly representative of all the taro farmers and their recommendations in this state. So again, we should take pause and proceed with caution. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 15, amending S.B. No. 757, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representative Wooley voting no.

(Main Motion)

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 757, SD 2, HD 2. This bill would define and expand protections of taro lands as well as appropriating funds for the operation of 4-H and FFA programs. While the cultivation of taro is vitally important to the preservation of the Hawaiian culture, there are a number of questions raised by the wording of this bill. The bill ostensibly prevents lands that were used for taro cultivation 'prior to statehood' from being used for other purposes. This begs the question of whether or not the bill is requiring land that has long since been used for other purposes to be returned to taro production purposes. Also, the process for determining what lands were in use of taro cultivation is unclear in the bill, which means that there may be barriers to proper implementation."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, written comments. Actually, Mr. Speaker, can I change that to a no vote. Taro is not in crisis, Mr. Speaker. As a taro farmer myself and as a Pacific Islander, taro itself is not in crisis. The Pacific Islander community and the Hawaiian community is in crisis, Mr. Speaker. If we divert attention to try and address taro and not address the people who grow it, who care for it and take it into their homes, Mr. Speaker, this is a diversion from what really is the issue. If we resolve the issues within the Hawaiian community and the Pacific Islander community, taro will flourish.

"This measure, this portion over here addresses a symptom. I always like to use this example. When a person goes into a hospital and they have a brain tumor and you give them aspirin for their headache it doesn't solve the problem, Mr. Speaker. This is a headache over here. There's a brain tumor that needs to be addressed and this diversionary stuff is not helping the Hawaiian community, it's not helping the Pacific Islander community, and it's not going to help taro in the State of Hawaii, Mr. Speaker. We need to look at the real issues and not play around."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with opposition regarding Senate Bill 757, SD 2, HD 2. This bill addresses agriculture; the Future Farmers of America Program; the 4-H Program and taro lands in Hawaii.

"This bill has undergone a number of changes since it was first introduced. Mr. Speaker, the original bill was about grants for agricultural feed subsidies for animals raised by commercial farmers. My concern is that the new language of the bill could adversely affect economic opportunity in Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, I am also concerned about the new language in the bill regarding taro lands. This language was not the original intent of bill. It is notable that The Land Use Research Foundation of Hawaii testified against this version of the bill.

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 757, SD 2, HD 2."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my strong reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 757, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Choy, Fale, Fukumoto, Ichiyama, Ito, Takayama, Tsuji and Yamashita voting no.

At 3:38 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 757, SD 2, HD 2

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1596) recommending that S.B. No. 1057, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1057, SD 2, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Oshiro offered Floor Amendment No. 23, amending S.B. No. 1057, SD 2, HD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1057, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, is amended by deleting Section 1 of the bill and renumbering Sections 2 and 3 as Sections 1 and 2, respectively."

Representative Oshiro moved that Floor Amendment No. 23 be adopted, seconded by Representative Say.

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is really a friendly amendment. Let me tell you what's going on here, Members. This is a very important bill. Senate Bill 1057 is actually a situation of first impressions for this Legislature where, because there has been no settlement between the employers and the employees on the split between the employees and the employer on the ETUF contribution amount, we find ourselves here, as the body, to resolve this dispute. Pursuant to Chapter 89 as currently drafted it is the Legislature to decide what the apportionment will be between the employer and the employee.

"This is regarding Unit 10, which is UPW Unit 10 who recently won an arbitration award I think earlier this year, or maybe the latter part of last year for their members. That arbitration award settled the duration of the contract as well as the wages and salaries for that. What was not discussed or was disposed of in that arbitration award was the EUTF contribution.

"As currently drafted, it is my understanding that Section 1 of the measure purports to support a 50/50 split between the employer and employee which is consistent with the Governor's request and the request made by Budget and Finance in the prior hearings both in the Committee on Labor as well as the Committee on Finance.

"My amendment here does not have a Section 1, in fact it basically deletes Section 1 and goes to the substantive components of the funding portion of the bill. The reason I'm doing that, Mr. Speaker, is to allow the Finance Committee and the Labor Committee Chairs to have the full measure of authority and breadth under the conference rules to find an agreement, whether it's going to be 50/50 or 60/40 or somewhere else in between.

"I need to point out the concern that I have with the current draft in that it states 50/50 cost share. That might be used against us in conference to seek a compromise settlement. I point to the Joint Conference Rules Section 2, Conference Committee Scope and Amendments. 'The authority of the Conference Committee shall be limited to resolving differences between the Senate and House drafts of a measure. Accordingly: (a) With the exception of the Executive Budget, the Judiciary Budget, and the Budget of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, a Conference Committee shall not amend a measure by inserting any unrelated or new subject matter. (b) To assure the integrity of the individual measure, the merging of two or more distinct but related measures into one encompassing measure shall not be allowed.'

"That language there gives me concern that the current draft which states in Section 1 as to support a 50/50 split between the employer and the employee might inadvertently tie our hands in the negotiation process in the Conference Committee. That's my concern and that's why I had this amendment here, Mr. Speaker.

"Let me just also add that I think it's important for us to understand that it may not have come out in public hearings but it's come to my attention that there was actually a sidebar agreement in the UPW Unit 10 amongst other public worker unions. When Governor Abercrombie was elected, this was back in 2011, he came to discover that the prior Governor Linda Lingle had unilaterally imposed a cap on the amount of the contribution upon the public workers union going back to 2009. One of the things that he did was to rectify the increase that was going to be imposed upon the employees.

"So in his first term in his first year as Governor, he came to us and asked for an emergency appropriation for us to at least make the members of the employee unions whole. So from March 1st of 2001 to June 30th of 2011, the split between the employee and employer was 60/40. At that point in time we did fund through I think it was Act 6 an emergency appropriation to make the employees whole. It was about that time that the employee unions with the Governor entered into an agreement that should any of them not settle the contracts by June 30th of 2011, that the current 60/40 split going back to the prior contract 2009 – 2011 would hold in place. At that point in time the 60/40 split was part and parcel of that agreement.

"So I think there's a lot to be said for the UPW's position in this measure. It's not in this bill right now but again my intention is to allow the conferees the full measure and authority to make that adjustment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the Floor Amendment. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this bill did come to the Labor Committee and we are cognizant of the concerns that were raised by the UPW. In checking on that with the Director of Budget and Finance we were assured that we should move ahead.

"Since that time we did review the original documents in question and have posed the question to the Attorney General. I do believe that the Finance Chair was very wise in blanking out the amounts that were in the bill and it does continue to give us the flexibility in conference when we go back to fill in those amounts to make a decision with regard to what the actual amount will be. So because of that I see no reason to delay passage of this bill any further and I ask that we vote down the amendment. Thank you."

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support of the Floor Amendment. This afternoon is indeed a pleasure to be addressing an issue of this magnitude. Before this House there was a legislation to do away with the legislative authorization in approving or disapproving a health fund arbitrated agreement. Today you are experiencing it first-hand, but the legislation that passed this House took it away from the Legislative Body to approve or disapprove a settlement. Now I think we should try to fulfill our obligations in supporting our blue collar workers known as the UPW union. So I am in total support of our working people who are working so hard with little resources that they have as far as their salaries and benefits.

"This particular measure should go into conference whereby they could discuss it further, if it is in the testimony that was submitted on the arbitration that it was a notion that it should be 60/40, this Body should support what was presented by both parties at the arbitration. Thank you."

At this time, Representative Say requested a roll call vote.

The request of roll call was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands, the request was approved.

Representative Oshiro rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to add a few more comments in support of this motion. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to make sure that everyone understands the import of this bill. Again, if you look at your copy of Senate Bill 1057, SD 2, HD 2, look at Section 1. I believe Section 1, in the second paragraph or the second item, sets forth a 50/50 split. It's consistent with the Budget & Finance request from Kalbert Young. If you read Mr. Young's testimony he is absolutely correct. He doesn't state this is a finding, he doesn't state that this is a requirement, but he basically states what is allowed under law. It is his recommendation.

"But he erroneously makes the recommendation that it is the same as what all other units got. But those who follow what has been going on with the public workers unions over the past several years know that in 2011, this UPW 10 did not settle. Only the other units settled. I believe UPW 10 went to arbitration. Unit 9 with the nurses went to arbitration. The rest settled and as part of their settlement they received a 50/50 split between the employer and the employee for the contributions.

"In fact, I think it needs to be stated in the public record that when the settlements were not reached by the deadline of June 30, 2011, the same employee union trust fund contribution levels for UPW 10 were also the same for Unit 9, which is the nurses who were in arbitration, firefighters who had not settled at that time, and also Unit 12, police officers had not settled at that time. So this is very much consistent, I guess with the letter and spirit of that agreement that was entered into by the employers and the different public worker unions. But in this particular case, UPW 10. So that's something to keep in mind.

"Again my concern stems from the fact that I don't want to be caught off guard pursuant to the Conference Rules because the current draft in the Senate Bill that came over from the Senate went through the Senate Judiciary and Labor Committee, expressed a 50/50 split. It came out of the Ways and Means Committee expressing a 50/50 split. It came out of the House Labor Committee expressing a 50/50 split. It comes out of the House Finance Committee expressing a 50/50 split. I don't want us to be locked in to going to something else. That's my concern, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. The portion dealing with the Conference Rules deals with the substantive portion. The Floor Amendment only takes out the purpose section. The purpose section does nothing substantive. While I appreciate all the discussion that's on the Floor, that will all be decided during conference. Taking out the purpose section does nothing. Thank you."

Roll call having been approved, the motion that Floor Amendment No. 23, amending S.B. No. 1057, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYER UNION HEALTH BENEFITS TRUST FUND CONTRIBUTIONS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 20: Aquino, Cabanilla, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Fukumoto, Har, Hashem, Ichiyama, Ito, Jordan, Kawakami, McDermott, Oshiro, Say, Takayama, Tokioka, Tsuji, Ward and Yamashita.

Noes, 31: Awana, Belatti, Brower, Cachola, Carroll, Cheape, Evans, Fale, Hanohano, Ing, Johanson, Kobayashi, Lee, Lowen, Luke, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morikawa, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Onishi, Rhoads, Saiki, Souki, Takai, Takumi, Thielen, Woodson, Wooley and Yamane.

(Main Motion)

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support of the measure that is before us and I hope that during conference, that the conferees of the House will represent what was stated on the Floor of the House, that they will be looking for parity, they will be looking for equality for our blue collar workers here in the State of Hawaii.

"Yes it is silent that is 50/50 at this point in time, but I hope that the House leadership will give the House Labor Committee Chair and the Finance Chair the flexibility of opening it up to make it 60/40 because I truly believe that these individuals who are of the UPW deserve that 60/40 rather than 50/50. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the main motion on Senate Bill No. 1057, House Draft 1, but with strong reservations.

"I will not belabor the points raised during the debate on the Floor Amendment, but I want to stress my concerns that the language contained in the bill may preclude any discussion during conference on the employer's contribution for health insurance benefits. Again, this is based upon my reading of the applicable rules pertaining to the limitations of conference amendments.

"Rule 16.5 of the Rules of the House of Representatives, State of Hawaii, the Twenty-Seventh State Legislature, 2013-2014, states:

'The authority of a conference committee shall be limited solely to resolving differences between the House and the Senate versions of a bill or resolution.

Accordingly, a conference committee shall not amend a bill or resolution by inserting into the bill or resolution any unrelated or new subject; provided that the restrictions in this Rule 16.5 shall not apply to the General and Supplemental Appropriations Bills; provided further that any increases to the salaries, pensions, or retirement benefits for any elected or appointed officer of the State or County shall be considered by separate bill other than the aforesaid Appropriations Bills or any bill ratifying collective bargaining agreements.'

"In addition, Item 2 of the Joint House-Senate 2013 Committees on Conference Procedures, approved on April 6, 2013, states:

'The authority of the Conference Committee shall be limited to resolving differences between the Senate and House drafts of a measure. Accordingly:

a. With the exception of the Executive Budget, the Judiciary Budget, and the Budget of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, a Conference Committee shall not amend a measure by inserting any unrelated or new subject matter.

b. To assure the integrity of individual measures, the merging of two or more distinct but related measures into one encompassing measure shall not be allowed.'

"Moreover, this Body has recognized the importance of these rules in supporting and unanimously approving a Floor Amendment to Senate Bill No. 930, RELATING TO THE PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL SPACE CENTER FOR EXPLORATION SYSTEMS SUSTAINABLE CONCRETE INITIATIVE, brought forth by the Chair of the Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce, to avoid any question of the House position and avoiding risk of any collateral attack for 'new' language or position.

"While the Chair of Finance is correct that SECTION 1 of the bill is prefatory language, and that it does not have any operational effect on the law, it should be noted that it does carry weight in that it is a statement of the Legislature's – or more to the point, the House's – intent on this measure.

'[The purpose of this Act is to provide:]. . . [e]mployer plan contributions of a specific dollar amount equivalent to fifty per cent of the premium rates established by the board of trustees of the Hawaii employer-union health benefits trust fund for the respective health benefits plan plus fifty per cent of all administrative fees. . .' [Emphasis added.]

"As discussed earlier, when there is impasse between the employer and the union on health fund contributions, the statute makes clear that each side provides RECOMMENDATIONS to the Legislature, and that it is then left to the Legislature to determine the amount to be appropriated for that cost item. For the House (Labor and Finance) at this time to provide identical language in the purpose clause as the Senate Position (Judiciary and Labor and Ways and Means) stating that it is the House's position to fund ONLY 50% is at best premature and may greatly limit the House's ability to negotiate with the Senate on the appropriate amount that reflects settlement should an agreement be accorded (i.e., 55% instead of 60%, or 60%) or allow for discussion of the union's position when the conferees determine the appropriation amount. At its worse, it may preclude the ability to even discuss or propose an amount greater than 50%.

"Mr. Speaker, I do hope Members understand that this is an instance of first impression for this Body in applying the provisions of Chapter 89, Hawaii Revised Statutes, where the employer and employee representative have not reached settlement on the cost share for employee health benefits. As such, careful thought must be given to this precedent setting decision. How this measure is resolved will be a reflection of this Legislature's will and application of its own conference rules and practices.

"During the previous discussion, we received assurances from the Chair of Finance that the House will not be precluded in any way during the negotiations. Well, I really hope that is the case. I will be monitoring the conference on the measure with great interest as will I'm sure the employee representatives of Unit 10. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support with some slight reservations. Thank you very much."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 1057, SD 2, HD 1. This bill establishes employer contribution amounts for plan years 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 for EUTF health benefit plan premiums for the employees of collective bargaining unit (10) and their excluded counterparts. I am concerned about the 50-50 contribution ratio that the bill references, as it is inconsistent with the 60-40 ratio that has historically defined the EUTF contributions between employers and employees. Although it is a semantics issue, it is still important enough to express some concerns.

"Additionally, potentially using the Legislature to impose terms outside of a collectively bargained agreement undermines the process of collective bargaining."

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1057, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYER UNION HEALTH BENEFITS TRUST FUND CONTRIBUTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 3:56 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1057, SD 2, HD 1

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1597) recommending that S.B. No. 946, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 946, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Tokioka offered Floor Amendment No. 16, amending S.B. No. 946, SD 1, HD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 946, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, is amended by deleting:

(1) All part designations;
(2) All sections contained in Parts II, III, and IV; and
(3) Sections 21 and 22.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 946, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, is amended on page 1, line 2, by changing the word "part" to "Act".

SECTION 3. Section 23 of Senate Bill No. 946, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, is renumbered as section 6."

Representative Tokioka moved that Floor Amendment No. 16 be adopted, seconded by Representative Tsuji.

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll make this brief, I know we've had a long day. I rise in strong support of the Floor Amendment, Mr. Speaker. I think the proposed bill is premature, Mr. Speaker, and I think the content of the Part II of the bill needs to be vetted more. I don't believe the portion of Part II was vetted through the CPC Committee, which I think would be important for a bill like this.

"I have not heard any discussion of how this particular bill is going to help the Members or save the state any money, Mr. Speaker. I ask my colleagues to consider voting in support of the Floor Amendment. I know this particular bill or that portion of it died in the Senate when it went over in the House Bill. So I think we need to do more work on our side, Mr. Speaker, and I ask for the consideration of the Members of the House. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the Floor Amendment. When I was given the assignment to look at addressing unfunded liability, all I did was research, research, research, and I came up with House Bill 1459. For somebody like our good friend from Kauai that says it's premature for us to come up with a solution to address the unfunded liability, I say it's not premature.

"You have to understand that captive insurance has been existing here in the State of Hawaii way back in the 1980's, and we have clients all over the world and the total amount of money that we have that is being handled by our captive insurance is about $10 billion.

"So when I did my research as to the problem of the health unfunded liability, because that's the most serious of the problems rather than just also looking at the unfunded liability on the patient plan. We found that as of the 2011 state auditor's report, the total unfunded liability is between $15 and $17 billion.

"Then one of the things that is so glaring that I found out, that if we delay for another year, it will increase unfunded liability by over $1 billion. This captive insurance, the way it works is this. If you look at the Senate proposal it just states putting money in the trust fund. Captive insurance not only does by having a reserve account on unfunded liability and other post-employee benefits, but also has the potential of saving a lot of money based on a 2001 report that I found. It has the potential of saving 5% to 25% in the operation of the captive insurance.

"At that time in 2001 we only had about over $200 million of premiums, both active as well as retirees. In 2011 we had $760 million. The rate has been going up. Now we have about $800 million. 5% savings at the low end of the spectrum, 5% to 25%, translates to about $14 million. That amount of money will be placed in the reserve account in addition to the amount of money that is being contributed yearly.

"The other benefit is this. If we have savings, most of us are paying for health benefits taken out of your salary. If there are savings, that means you have enough money that had been collected to address the health care needs of our members, both retirees and active. So we have the option of not raising the rates. So you will be saving money in the long run as well as the employers' contribution.

"What I'm asking all of you is give me the chance to look at ways to marry the bills that are in Senate Bill 946. I say three bills, and that is the Ways and Means Chair's bill of contributing about a million dollars a year to the trust fund. The bill of Representative Isaac Choy in terms of forming a task force to address the unfunded liability and of course the guts of House Bill 1459 that creates the captive insurance. We can marry those three. Because of their captive we also contribute to the unfunded liability and other post-employee benefits.

"The effective date of House Bill 1459 that is now in Senate Bill 946 is July 1st, 2014, so we have time to come up with a feasibility study because the delay of one year costs us over a billion dollars."

Representative Brower rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cachola continued, stating:

"I urge the Members to please give us the chance to go to Conference Committee with the Senate and hopefully by doing it we are not just going to address the unfunded liability but also to save a lot of taxpayers money. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Standing up in support for the Floor Amendment. Mr. Speaker, as was noted by the previous speaker, this issue has a very broad and huge impact both on active as well as retiree members. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of having a discussion on captive should include areas of not only insurance, but labor unions, costs savings, budgeting and a number of other issues that should not be relied on either one Member or even a small Member to actively go out and conference within the next two weeks to come up with a bill to marry all these multiple issues in one measure.

"Mr. Speaker, the impact to fund a captive insurance program is a range of about $1.3 billion which we cannot take lightly. Mr. Speaker, I think we owe our constituents, we owe all those potentially impacted, those that use and currently pay into the health benefit program, as well as all those retirees that would be impacted immediately if we put this type of money or any money to fund this kind of discussion.

"Mr. Speaker, as we look at options to address the current budget, we also have to look at the impacts of putting money into another special fund or funds and how that would impact not only our bond rating but the ability for this state to function by dealing with not only ongoing projects but meeting the basic needs of the people of the State of Hawaii.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I think it's prudent and appropriate that we take the off-session to have the appropriate discussions with all those affected areas. So I support the Floor Amendment."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition to the Floor Amendment. Thank you. I was part of a committee that was appointed by the Speaker to look at our problems of unfunded liability and what the problem we have in Hawaii.

"The Representative from Kalihi when he spoke, he really is trying really hard to solve the problem and I have to say, in this committee hearing that we had an informational briefing it's become very clear that in Hawaii employers are really taking it upon themselves to go the captive insurance route and actually we're like the leader it seems in the United States of captive insurance companies. It's something I think that's worthy to keep in discussion.

"I think sending it over to the Senate doesn't mean that this is going to be the end-all, and in fact we are going to end up passing a bill on captive insurance. I think what it does do though is if it gets over to the Senate and people are really starting to realize the captive insurance is gaining momentum, it could really highlight and bring light to the issue and the work of the Representative from Kalihi that this is a solution that has to be discussed.

"I think forwarding it to the Senate may in fact bring more people to the table and encourage them to have this discussion, because I'd hate to have it die today and then nothing happens during the interim, because the problem is huge for us. This solution has merit to be discussed and I think moving it forward keeps us focused on this. So I'm against the amendment. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time again in support of the Floor Amendment. I just wanted to make note on the comments that the speaker from Sand Island made about me saying it was premature to address the unfunded liabilities. I never said that. I said what was premature is the language in Part II.

"I've been looking, I don't know how many committee meetings they had, but I've been looking for Waldo, and Waldo has not appeared to tell me or anyone in this room why this is a good bill. None of the testimony that we received in the committees were in support of this. So that's that concern. To echo the comments from the Chair of Transportation, I would say yes, we need to start moving in that direction, but not this quickly, Mr. Speaker. Because the unintended consequences can be detrimental to the state. So once again, Mr. Speaker, in support of the Floor Amendment."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 16, amending S.B. No. 946, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RESOLVING THE UNFUNDED LIABILITIES OF THE STATE AND THE COUNTIES," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representatives Cachola and Evans voting no.

Representative Tokioka rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of clarification. I may be a little hard of hearing because I'm getting older, but it sounded kind of close, Mr. Speaker. You might have better hearing than me, but that decision was quick. I don't want to take up more Members' time but I think this is going to go back to the main motion, Mr. Speaker, and we'll have discussion there. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"The Speaker is going to ask for a Division of the House. All those in support of the Floor Amendment signify by raising your right hand, keeping it up for sufficient time."

At this time, the Chair called for a division of the House, and upon a show of hands, the decision of the Chair was upheld.

(Main Motion)

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Just brief comments, Mr. Speaker. Part I of this bill is not a controversial part, but based on the conversation in the Floor Amendment, Part II establishes the Hawaii Employer-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund Captive Insurance Company. As we all know, captive insurance falls squarely within the purview of the CPC Committee. My objection lies on the fact that the current referral was LAB/FIN, and again captive insurance we all know for many Members who've been here for many years, that the CPC Committee should have heard that bill.

"This is a major shift in policy and as such the CPC Committee should have had jurisdiction over this bill, it should have been vetted before the members of the CPC Committee. For those reasons I stand in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, note my opposition to this measure, and I hate to go in opposition since our Floor Amendment has failed. I do support Part I of this measure and I'm sad to say I will have to vote against Part I because of the Part II, because I am so strongly adamant against the Part II at this point in time.

"I wouldn't have minded a task force forming, hearing the lively debate with appointed individuals with knowledge of these particular fields have that discussion. But as it stands right now, Mr. Speaker, I have no choice but voting no on this measure."

Representative Say rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition and may I incorporate the speech that I gave on Third Reading on the original House Bill in opposition as my own for this? Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Thank you very much. My opposition is very simple. This captive would be a government captive that would be competing with the private sector. That's number one.

"Number two, as far as addressing the unfunded liability, the most important thing we do right here is to pre-fund. I thank the Chair of Finance that we did do that. $100 million in the first year, $105 million in the second year, respectively. That is huge. By pre-funding, that is the biggest thing we can do right now. There is no way we can address the total unfunded liability, but we are changing from a system of pay-go to a pre-funding system. That will change the actuarial outcomes by, the previous speaker from Kalihi said, a billion dollars in one year. Increasing the unfunded liability by pre-funding, going from pay-go to pre-funding that would also have the reverse effect and will have billions of dollars going in the opposite direction.

"For those reasons, I think we are premature in putting this forward. I think what the House has done in the budget is huge. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on SB 946, SD 1, HD 1. This bill would establish the Hawaii Employer-Union Health Benefits Trust Fund Captive Insurance Company. While I am definitely in favor of exploring methods to help finance the state's unfunded liabilities, I am unsure that establishing a captive insurance company is the right method to address this issue. It is unclear if the captive insurance company will reduce current benefits costs. It also is not readily apparent how a captive insurance company, with all the additional insurance regulatory requirements, could be more cost effective than the status quo."

Representative Kawakami rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Har and Yamashita be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cullen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Har and Yamashita be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Fukumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to insert the words into the Journal from the Representatives from Waianae and Upcountry Maui. I'd also like to mention that we still have the option to insert that language in the House Bill that's on the Senate side. So if the Senate feels that this is a good measure I'm sure they will agree to insert that language, Mr. Speaker. But right now I cannot support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Ito rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations. I'd like to plagiarize the words of the Representative from Upcountry Maui. Also, this is the House stance so that's why I'm supporting it, and if we bring it to conference and there's disagreement there, then it can be taken out."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Fale's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 946, SD 1, HD 1. This measure addresses: EUTF; Task Force and Captive Insurance.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that the Legislature has the political will to seriously address the problem of the unfunded liability in relation to the EUTF. I am in support of the formation of a task force to address this issue, as addressed in this bill.

"There is a captive insurance portion to this bill which was added to the bill in a later version. It is important to note that the City and County of Honolulu does not support the captive insurance company portion of this bill. The City and County of Honolulu stated, 'It is not clear how the establishment of a captive insurance company would improve the administration and financing of the unfunded liability of the EUTF compared to the Hawaii Employer- Union Health Benefits Trust Fund.'

"It is also important to note that Kalbert Young, Director of Department of Budget and Finance, State of Hawaii stated that, 'It is unclear if the captive insurance company will reduce current benefits costs.'

"Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I rise with reservations regarding Senate Bill 946, SD 1, HD 1."

Representative Morikawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cheape rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ohno rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamashita be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Onishi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations Mr. Speaker, with a brief comment. I too would like to have seen more information provided on the captive insurance program. So again I think it's very important, it's an important issue, I think it affects a lot of people and I'm happy there's going to be a task force established. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 946, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RESOLVING THE UNFUNDED LIABILITIES OF THE STATE AND THE COUNTIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 36 ayes to 15 noes, with Representatives Aquino, Choy, Coffman, Cullen, Har, Ichiyama, Kawakami, McKelvey, Say, Takayama, Tokioka, Tsuji, Woodson, Yamane and Yamashita voting no.

At 4:18 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 946, SD 1, HD 1

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1601) recommending that S.B. No. 381, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 381, SD 2, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Ward offered Floor Amendment No. 22, amending S.B. No. 381, SD 2, HD 2, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 381, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, is amended by adding a new section 3 to read as follows:

SECTION 3. The campaign spending commission shall submit a report to the legislature no later than January 31, 2015, that compiles, for each of the 2010, 2012, and 2014 election cycles, information from the comprehensive public funding program, established pursuant to part I of Act 244, Session Laws of Hawaii 2008, that states:

(1) The number of declarations of intent to seek comprehensive public funding received;

(2) The number of applications for certification received;

(3) The number of candidates who were certified for comprehensive public funding;

(4) The amount of comprehensive public funding committed to certified candidates;

(5) The number of candidates who actually received comprehensive public funding;

(6) The number of candidates who received comprehensive public funding and on whose behalf nomination papers pursuant to section 12-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes were never previously filed for any preceding election cycle;

(7) The number of candidates who withdrew from nomination or election after declaring intent to receive comprehensive public funding;

(8) The number of candidates who received comprehensive public funding and who were elected to the offices sought;

(9) A comparison of the total campaign expenditures of each candidate who received comprehensive public funding against each opposing candidate who did not receive comprehensive public funding;

(10) The amount of funds distributed to candidates pursuant to the comprehensive public funding program that those candidates returned to the Hawaii campaign election fund; and

(11) All known violations of Part I of Act 244, Session Laws of Hawaii 2008.

SECTION 2. Senate Bill No. 381, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, is amended by renumbering the existing sections 3, 4, and 5 as sections 4, 5 and 6, respectively."

Representative Ward moved that Floor Amendment No. 22 be adopted, seconded by Representative McDermott.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is all about data collection, it's all about, I would say, doing our homework. Some call it metrics, some call it keeping score, some say if we're going to spend money, let's make sure we spend it well.

"Mr. Speaker, this is in regards to the bill that has been a pilot program for the last three years on the Big Island. It's basically taking public funding, taxpayer's money, and funding elections. Funding elections only at the county councilman level. If this pilot is successful, everyone in this body, everyone in the Senate, likely will have their races also impacted by this.

"Mr. Speaker, what's missing conspicuously when you do a pilot is the measurement to see whether it worked or didn't work. You might want to call this a bit of a pointed-head sort of a nerdy kind of amendment, but I think it's friendly and I think it's necessary because if we spend all the money that we've already spent and the only evaluation they have is of the first year, we don't know even know what they've done because they haven't kept score.

"This amendment simply does the following. It asks the campaign spending commission to collect data by 2015, saying how many people did they have, how many applications came in, how many did they accept, how much money was spent, how did they fare in their elections compared to those who spent their own money, how many people actually quit, how many were perennial people who, like we always have candidates who run against, whether they have money or not they run, what actually took place in those elections, Mr. Speaker.

"The point is, if we can't measure a pilot program and then we're going to send it, as one bill already said to the House and the Senate to fund those elections. Mr. Speaker, I don't think we're being responsible. So for those reasons, I think if we just add some metrics, measurements to this public funding of the Big Island, I think we'll be better off. For those reasons, I'm offering this amendment."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support. First of all I'd like the comments of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Also, Mr. Speaker, when we are spending taxpayer's money on nonessential items, I think there's no harm in collecting the data to see if it has value, particularly in something that most folks view as nonessential, funding campaigns. So I think the Representative from Hawaii Kai made some very good points, and for that reason, I'll be supporting this. Thank you."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, may I also have the words of the Representative from Hawaii Kai adopted as my own. Mr. Speaker, for the Members of this House, we're often we're either described as lunamaka'āinana or 'elele. I prefer the term 'elele which more or less translates into 'messenger' in English. When we come over here we do our work and I like to go back to my community and give a report, which means I have to track what's going on inside this building so that I can give a report.

"This is something that I believe, Mr. Speaker, is a principle that we follow throughout life. As a rugby player, as a boxer, everything I do, you perform an activity, you measure your progress and you give a report. One of the things that shocked me a lot, Mr. Speaker, is the number of task forces that we have to perform, the number of audits that we have to perform because we're not keeping track of exactly how we're spending the taxpayer's money and getting reports back as to the effectiveness of the taxpayer money that we're spending.

"I believe, Mr. Speaker, this is a very strong commonsense approach to this measure, to make sure that every penny, every dime that goes out of this body. Because I know where we're collecting them from, we're collecting them from 74 year old widows who live next door to me in my community.

"There are a number of things that are going on, Mr. Speaker, and I would like to go back and give a report for the dimes and pennies that we're taking out of their pockets and spending and just saying, did it work or did it not work, and if it's not working, so that we can make adjustments necessary. It's a principle that we follow in the military, we employ tactics, we employ resources and we give a report back to our commanders and our superiors so that we can make decisions regarding the future of any activity that we engage in, Mr. Speaker.

"I believe this is a very good, very strong commonsense approach that not only we should apply to this measure but to many other measures, Mr. Speaker, that we pursue in this House. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I support this amendment."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 22, amending S.B. No. 381, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMPREHENSIVE PUBLIC FUNDING FOR ELECTIONS," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representatives Cabanilla, Cachola and McKelvey being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 381, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMPREHENSIVE PUBLIC FUNDING FOR ELECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Fale and McDermott voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Cachola and McKelvey being excused.

At 4:25 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 381, SD 2, HD 2

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1602) recommending that S.B. No. 49, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Saiki moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 49, SD 2, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

Representative Jordan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 49, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla, Cachola and McKelvey being excused.

At 4:27 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 49, SD 2, HD 2

S.B. No. 1092, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that S.B. No. 1092, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Say offered Floor Amendment No. 18, amending S.B. No. 1092, SD 1, HD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 1092, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, is amended on page 2, lines 12 and 21, by inserting $25,000,000 as the additional amount to be transferred to the hurricane reserve trust fund in fiscal year 2014-2015.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 1092, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, is amended on page 2, line 17, by inserting $157,000,000 as the amount of the projected fiscal year 2014-2015 balance of the hurricane reserve trust fund."

Representative Say moved that Floor Amendment No. 18 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ito.

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this is a very friendly Floor Amendment in trying to educate the Members of the House in regards to what was presented to this Body by the Governor. In the Governor's financial plan there was $25 million set aside for the second year of the biennium in trying to recapitalize our Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund.

"For those who were here who were highly critical of me as the former Speaker in regards to taking some of the funds from the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund, it is my commitment today this afternoon to recapitalize and support this particular fund once more for the people of the State of Hawaii.

"We've been very, very fortunate that we have never had a natural disaster since Hurricane Iwa, but someday it will occur again and this particular measure is a measure that I think everyone should be able to support, because it is a work in progress with the effective date being 2030. Thank you very much, Members of the House."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Although I appreciate the efforts of the Floor Amendment, at this point in time the reason why Finance Committee blanks out all of the appropriation amounts is we don't know what's going to happen to the end result until the budget is done. There are many various items that are important that we need to fund. Collective bargaining is still outstanding.

"This bill and the next bill is not funding for the first year of the biennium, it's providing HHRF additional funds for the second year of the biennium. At this point in time to put any kind of dollar amount will tie the hands of the Finance Committee in negotiations. At the end we might do more, we might do less.

"But let me just kind of remind the Members, the Governor's financial plan depended on a lot of tax increases. It depended on increase of the TAT to 11.25%, and that's why they were able to afford something like this. In opposition."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, I want to acknowledge that the Speaker Emeritus has openly, honestly and publicly admitted that he has raided money in the past. As the former Minority Leader, I'd like to say that it was the minority who said, let's borrow the money from the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund, and now we're finally paying it back and in it's in a specific amount. So for those reasons, I support it. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support of the Floor Amendment. Mr. Speaker, over the last two years we have dealt with this. Me as a freshman sitting on the Finance over the last two years and having to explain to constituents at community meetings why we were borrowing from the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund was very challenging. Especially when the thought process out there with constituents was that was their money.

"I feel at this point in time we as a body, the House should set a precedent and support our current Administration by showing good faith to our constituents out there at least in this tool going into the negotiations during conference time. So therefore I will be supporting this Floor Amendment, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Let me just draw everyone's attention to page number seven of the Budget in Brief. I read from it directly. 'Recapitalizing Our Reserves. Pursuant to Section 237-31, Hawaii Revised Statues, a sum from all general excise tax revenues realized by the State that is equal to one-half of the total amount of funds appropriated or transferred out of the hurricane reserve trust fund under Sections 4 and 5 of Act 62, Sessions Laws of Hawaii 2011.'

"Just for the Members' recollection, the new Members here, the authorization to expend those monies was given to the Governor for the purposes, again, of settling the furloughs that were in place by the prior Administration. That's where we got the money. Times were tight, there were no General Fund revenues available, but I think all of us agree that Furlough Fridays was a terrible, disastrous mistake. To correct that we had to go back and allow the Board of Education, the Governor's office, to settle the contracts and that's where we found the money, out of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund.

"Fortunately, we had the foresight at that time to automatically replenish or repay the amount that was borrowed from the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund. As such, for Fiscal Year 14 and 15, set amounts will be deposited in each Fiscal Year by October 1st of that Fiscal Year. As such, $55 million will be deposited to the trust fund each year for Fiscal Year 14, which is where we are right now, and Fiscal Year 15.

"Additionally, this is where the Governor's strategy comes into play as a prudent fiscal matter. Our Administration will be proposing to further recapitalize our reserve funds, the EBRF, Emergency and Budget Reserve Fund, and the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund, HHRF. Through separate legislation we will be proposing to transfer $25 million from General Funds to each fund in Fiscal Year 15, that's the second year of the biennium.

"This is the point. With these additional transfers, the balance of the EBRF will be $64 million. Just about making it whole from where it was two years ago, Mr. Speaker, when we had to tap that because the Members wanted to provide grants-in-aid to many of the nonprofits who were being shortchanged given the economic conditions we're in. Also, Mr. Speaker, by appropriating an additional $25 million we're bringing the HHRF up to $136 million, just about where it was two years ago when we had to use that to address the Furlough Fridays issue for a total of $200 million in reserves.

"As the Representative from Upcountry Maui understands, to have a $200 million reserve means something when it goes to the bond market. So that's why I think this is a reasonable request. I think it's one that is fiscally prudent and it's something we can afford right now. Thank you."

Representative Nishimoto rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is my 7th year on the Finance Committee, under my 3rd Chair, and it's been standard operating procedure to blank out amounts in bills like this. It gives the Finance Committee the flexibility to see what we can afford later in the game. We might actually want to put in more than $25 million. But it gives us the flexibility to do that. Thank you."

Representative Say rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time, just to clarify it for the Members of the House. The $25 million for the second year of the biennium is incorporated in the Governor's budget. It may be the minimum of what the House and Senate conferees will agree upon, it may not. But for the Members of the House, you want to show the commitment to the administration that we as a Democratic Caucus and Minority Caucus do support recapitalizing the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund.

"To top it off, I stated for the record earlier, 2030, effective date, it's a work in progress. We're not locked into this $25 million for the second year. Take it to conference because of the defective date. This is what the discussion has been on the Floor of the House for the past 46 days. We defect the dates of the bills and we take it into conference. I plead with you to support this particular measure. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as a gesture of good will and my limited influence over the direction of financial matters, I will support this amendment. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. In Conference Committee, if the Senate comes back and says we agree to the $25 million, at that time if we change our minds and wanted to do more, it is tying our hands. Thank you."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this Floor Amendment. I believe that if we are going to assess the Governor's financial plan we should not look at very narrow items like the one that is contained in this measure. We should look at all of the Governor's proposals and be consistent in supporting all of his proposals.

"For example, the Governor proposed that we increase the barrel tax, he proposed that we increase the conveyance tax, he proposed that we create a tax on sugary drinks. He has requested an increase to 11% of the TAT tax and he's asked us to spend $120 million per year on an early education program. His financial plan did not fully account for collective bargaining. His estimate was at 2%. It's likely to be at least 3% for all of the bargaining units without including step movements, which would add another 6% in some cases.

"If we're going to convey a message of support for the Governor's Financial Plan, then we should be consistent and we should focus on all of the significant aspects of his plan, not the small pieces like this one. Thank you very much."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Thank you. I appreciate the discussion of who did what, why and when. But I know one thing, I have confidence in our Finance Chair and her Committee members to understand that bond rating is really critical and it's one of the important issues that we have to deal with this legislative session and that is why the issue of even captive insurance came up, is because we're concerned about our bond ratings. I know that they get it and so I'm not worried about that.

"I do not believe that there's any need for this Floor Amendment. That in fact, just like the Vice Chair of Finance pointed out, normally we go into conference with the Senate and we understand what's going on with bond ratings. We understand now that we have some moving parts, collective bargaining, early childhood education. We've got a lot of bills out there and a lot of priorities and a lot of us here in this Chamber are going to vote on what those priorities are. In the end you've got to have all these pieces in play. This Floor Amendment is not necessary at this time. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak in opposition, with kind of a tongue-in-cheek a little bit. We have three former Finance Chairmen present right here and it's kind of disingenuous in a way and ironic, and most of us in the past always leave something like this with a dollar amount of zero and wait until the end, until we see how many dollars are available. Suddenly we have here, in this late hour, speaking how important it is to recapitalize.

"I have the highest respect for all of them because they all work very hard. In the past I have been a Finance Chairman, I know how hard it is. I think the timing right now is not quite right. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have been inspired by Speaker Souki's comment that there are three, now four Finance Chairs, of which I've sat under all four on the Finance Committee. I point out to mention that this is the first time we will be doing an appropriation as publicly and as important as this, because otherwise the way that the Finance Chairs have run the Finance Committee is the decision is made by one, two or three people who see actually the balance sheet of the State of Hawaii.

"So this is actually more of a direct election, a free democracy, an open and transparent one, actually voting on the budget piece by piece. Now if we did everything we'd be here for probably another six months. But the point is, this in front of the Finance Chairs, is a first sort of breath of fresh air democratically speaking. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in support. I beg to disagree with the Speaker, the former Finance Chair, this is not disingenuous at all. This is very genuine. As many of the former Chairs know, what you put forward as far as draft proposals allows us to have the ability to negotiate.

"One of the problems that we face right now is that no one here either in the coalition or those outside the coalition has any idea what the financial plan looks like. We know that the Governor's revenue bills have failed. The bag fee, the soda tax, the conveyance tax, the barrel tax, the TAT. They have all failed. So we understand the revenue side of the picture. We don't know what the expenditure side is right now.

"One of the priorities of the body, and I think that's why this is a very encouraging discussion and I appreciate the proposed amendment by the Speaker Emeritus, but it doesn't foreclose or prevent the negotiators to come up with some kind of set-aside for the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund or the Rainy Day Fund. Again, we were there two years ago and we had to use the money and we did it with great concern. In fact, some of the minority members who are sitting here today were very critical of us even using that approach, of touching the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund, of using the Rainy Day Fund. Very critical. Go and check the record.

"All we're trying to do is make those pots of money whole while we have the ability. That was the whole idea back in 2011. When we have the opportunity, to make those pots whole. That's what we're trying to do here. This is not going to constrain any negotiations that go on.

"But it leads me to the bigger question. What is the House's financial plan? What are the revenue generators under consideration? What other expenditures under consideration? How does it comport with the Governor's financial plan? I mean, those are questions that all of you guys should understand and acknowledge or have some idea of where we're going to go because in the wee hours of the Conference Committees, if you guys start to negotiate all these bills and it piles up at the very end, you guys are going to have no idea unless you're a member of the coalition. From there, you'll get some insight to what's going on.

"For the rest of you like me, you'll learn on the Floor what the priorities were, what the priorities are, and how we're going to balance. So thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll submit written comments if you'll allow me."

Representative Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Floor Amendment No. 18 on Senate Bill No. 1092. The Floor Amendment would transfer $25 million in general funds to the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund (HHRF) for Fiscal Year 2014-2015. This is the amount proposed by the Administration in its six year financial plan, which would change the projected Fiscal Year 2014-2015 balance on the HHRF to $157 million. Under this Floor Amendment, the effective date would continue to be July 1, 2030.

"As the Chair of the Finance Committee during the worst recession this state has faced since the Great Depression, I recommended to this Body that we borrow funds from the HHRF to make up for a $1 billion shortfall in revenues so that essential programs and services would be continued. This was an essential move to provide funding for our social service net – the non-profit providers throughout our communities helping our kupuna, our keiki, and those most in need. Conceptually, these funds were to be used to end 'Furlough Fridays' which kept public schools closed. Not all agreed with the decision but those who did understood that the money would be paid back as soon as practicable and that this was a 'lesser of evils' choice among very limited options. I am sure that many of my Republican colleagues would be supportive of making the HHRF whole as soon as possible.

"As such, we were able to preserve these services and keep our schools open but it came at a cost. By reducing the reserves of the HHRF, our real property markets and banking industry were placed at greater risk in the event of another hurricane. As what happened after Hurricane Iniki, private insurers stopped covering wind storm damages and mortgage lending came to a halt. The Legislature at that time determined that mechanisms were needed to ensure that when another hurricane hits our state, our government would be prepared to step in and preserve our markets from another insurer pull-out. Thus was born the HHRF.

"Also, as noted recently, the HHRF reserve serves another purpose. The bond market considers the existence of and levels of solvency of the HHRF favorably in determining Hawaii's bond rating. It demonstrates the state's commitment to preserving its fiscal well-being for future events and serves as another cash 'savings account'. For my new colleagues, the other 'savings account' is the Emergency Budget and Reserve Fund (EBRF), which is projected to have a 2014-2015 balance of $64 million if the Legislature approves a $25 million infusion of cash, or $39 million without such an addition.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill reaffirms the state's commitment to paying off the loan the Legislature took from the HHRF in 2011. By passing this Floor Amendment, this House is saying 'yes, Governor, the House of Representatives stands with you in committing the state's resources toward paying off this loan.' We are saying that the House is committed to appropriating $25 million above and beyond what was formally budgeted because this is important to the financial health of our state, and important toward us keeping our positive bond rating.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I understand that as budget negotiations proceed, the managers need flexibility to negotiate. That is why the Floor Amendment retains its July 1, 2030 effective date. But I believe it is important for the House to take a position on whether we pay our debts when we are able.

"I urge my fellow colleagues to support this Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. While I appreciate the intent of the Floor Amendment, I think we all do because we all support the underlying bill to recapitalize the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund. I'd like to make that extremely clear, that I think we all support, especially my caucus, the recapitalization of the fund.

"What I do appreciate about the underlying bill and less the Floor Amendment is I think it takes into account a more holistic approach. Instead of artificially putting in a figure to put in a figure and perhaps unduly raising the hopes or expectations of the community, having it blank ensures that we can, in a fiscally responsible way as details and figures becomes more apparent and clear to us throughout the budgetary process. It allows us that flexibility without just putting in something, a number to put in a number.

"I think many of us know that while it's certainly not objectionable in and of itself, at this point it's just a random number. It could be more, and if we support a greater recapitalization of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund, I wouldn't want to artificially just peg it to a number for these purposes. I also want to do it in a way that I think is fiscally responsible and fiscally prudent which heretofore has been the tradition and I think that is currently being continued under the underlying bill, which this Floor Amendment may abandon in terms of tradition. So for those reasons I do oppose this Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the Floor Amendment. Mr. Speaker, there's been some comments regarding looking at this measure holistically, if we're going to support the Governor's initiative. While I don't disagree with that I still think that for some Members to say that we shouldn't be looking at this piecemeal, that this is a small measure and that this is a random number, is just incorrect.

"The fact here, Mr. Speaker, is this is the responsible thing to do. As the Speaker Emeritus noted that there is a defective date, this states the House position, that at a minimum we're willing to take $25 million. As the Finance Chair noted, yes we can in fact come in for a higher amount, but it's clear that this Body has not necessarily supported many of the Governor's initiatives. So the chances of that happening are pretty much close to nil.

"So I take great umbrage to the fact when people say that's an arbitrary, capricious number, because it is in fact not. This is a number that was vetted by the Administration, and so for those of us who want to support the fiscally responsible thing to do, we support this Floor Amendment.

"It can still be changed, and granted yes the Senate can agree to the $25 million and we would be stuck, but at a minimum it shows our support for the Governor's financial plan with respect to recapitalizing the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund which we did transfer money out of in past years during the Great Recession when we were dealing with things like Furlough Fridays. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of the Floor Amendment. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 18, amending S.B. No. 1092, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO RECAPITALIZE THE HURRICANE RESERVE TRUST FUND," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representatives Evans, Johanson, Luke, Nishimoto, Saiki and Souki voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla and McKelvey being excused.

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'd just like to say that I would encourage, as negotiations are ongoing, that we seriously take a look at putting money back into this Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund. The birth of this fund was a result of Kauai and parts of Oahu being hit in 1992 by a tremendous hurricane. Private insurance companies left us and so this relief fund was a safety net for people from Kauai.

"Now for Kauai, we're looking at it from a different perspective. When you think about it, when we raided the fund to address the economic hurricane that hit Hawaii, for the people of Kauai it made them very wary because for them they remembered this as a safety net when the private companies left Hawaii. So, Mr. Speaker, in support, and I seriously would like to see the negotiations address this issue. Thank you."

Representative Say rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in support of SB 1092, SD 1, HD 1, 'Making an Appropriation to Recapitalize the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund.'

"The purpose of this measure is to appropriate general funds to the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund. In the past years, the Legislature has transferred funds from the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund to balance the General Fund budget. The transfer of monies from the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund to the budget was considered a loan. The previous Legislature conducted this transfer in an effort to not impose increases on the General Excise Tax (GET) and the Income Tax. It would negatively affect the standard of living of our taxpayers and the people of the State of Hawaii.

"It is for these reasons that I support the General Fund appropriation of $25 million dollars to recapitalize the trust fund.

"It is inevitable that another natural disaster such as a hurricane or earthquake may occur in the next decade, so it would be prudent to set aside more General Funds before the disaster occurs. I truly hope that the House conferees will restore it at $25 million dollars, which was at the Governor's request for the second year of the biennium. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Johanson's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB 1092, SD 1, HD 1. This bill makes a general fund appropriation of an unspecified amount for Fiscal Year 2014-2015 to recapitalize the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund. I concur with Budget Director Kalbert Young, when he said in his testimony before the Finance Committee, that 'now that the economy is rebounding and more revenues are available, a concerted effort must be made to recapitalize the state's depleted fiscal reserves as expeditiously as possible.'

"The people of Hawaii expect the Legislature to make prudent financial decisions, which restoring fund to the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund certainly is. Once the final budget is decided, we will be able to allocate a fiscally prudent sum to recapitalizing the fund. I strongly believe that this is a bill of vital importance, and am proud to strongly support SB 1092, SD 1, HD 1."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, and may I have the words from the Representative from Kauai submitted as if they were mine. I too come from a Westside that was hit by both those hurricanes very strongly, especially the first one. Trying to drive out of your community when you have telephone poles across four lanes of highway, no electricity for more than 13 days. Now when I stand before constituents saying, did we recapitalize the hurricane fund? That is very difficult, Mr. Speaker. So I encourage our Finance Chair to please heed our calls and recapitalize this account and do your best efforts during our negotiations for the budget. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. I just want to let everybody know that way back in 1992, I concur with the observation of the Representative from Kauai that when Hurricane Iniki struck, all the insurance companies covering homeowners and catastrophic insurance ran away. That's when I introduced a bill to save the taxpayer's money that we are now debating to put back.

"It's really very critical that we have to put back the money. Based on my research at that time, most of the hurricanes occur 20 to 25 years apart. We are now in our 21st year from 1992 when Hurricane Iniki struck, and I just want to let you know that we are now in a danger zone in terms of the frequency of hurricanes that is based on a hundred year history of hurricanes here in Hawaii. It is very imperative that we should put back the money.

"In respective of how fast we can do it is very critical. That's why I introduced House Bill 1443 and I thank all the Members of this Body because we passed it and on the Senate side they don't want to hear it. What it does is to upgrade the amount of money that is more or less the coverage that's needed because the amount of money that is in 1992 is way different now. The pull of money that was placed to at least pay for damages was only $1.6 billion. The $1.6 billion at that time covered 2/3 of the homes here in the State of Hawaii. Now that $1.6 billion can only cover not even 2,000 homes because the home has escalated in value.

"So it's very important that we should be putting the money in as fast as we can, because if a hurricane occurs and the insurance companies run away again, we will be faced with the same problem. So I urge everyone to please vote up and put back the money right away. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Tokioka be entered into the Journal as her own, and that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, as a former resident of the 44th District, I was present during the last two hurricanes that caused damage to the Waianae Coast. I sat in my parent's home while the eye of the storm passed over. During hurricanes Iwa and Iniki, thousands of homes were damaged and others demolished by the high winds, heavy rains and high surf that slammed into the Leeward Coast. Luckily our home was spared, but for many that was not the case. SB 1092 replenishes funds into the Hurricane Reserve Trust Fund after having raided it to balance our state's budget. I am glad to see that this measure is here before us so that we can restore trust and faith with the people of Hawaii – before the next one hits. There will be a next one. For these reasons, I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This is a particular measure that will be of a lot of meaning to my community which would be severely vulnerable to a hurricane on the windward and north-facing shores of Oahu. So this will go a long way to giving my community a lot of peace of mind. I'd like to incorporate the words of the Representative from Kauai as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1092, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO RECAPITALIZE THE HURRICANE RESERVE TRUST FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla and McKelvey being excused.

At 4:53 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1094, SD 1, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Saiki, seconded by Representative Awana and carried, S.B. No. 1094, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO THE EMERGENCY AND BUDGET RESERVE FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Cabanilla and McKelvey being excused.

At 4:55 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1194, SD 2, HD 1:

Representative Saiki moved that S.B. No. 1194, SD 2, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Awana.

At this time, Representative Say offered Floor Amendment No. 20, amending S.B. No. 1194, SD 2, HD 1, as follows:

"SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1194, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, is amended by deleting the proposed new paragraph (6) being added to subsection (a) of section 237D-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, to read as follows:

"(a) There is levied and shall be assessed and collected each month a tax of:

(1) Five per cent for the period beginning on January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1994;

(2) Six per cent for the period beginning on July 1, 1994, to December 31, 1998; [~~and~~]

(3) 7.25 per cent for the period beginning on January 1, 1999, [~~and thereafter;~~] to June 30, 2009;

(4) 8.25 per cent for the period beginning on July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2010; and

(5) 9.25 per cent for the period beginning on July 1, 2010, and thereafter; on the gross rental or gross rental proceeds derived from furnishing transient accommodations."

SECTION 2. Senate Bill No. 1194, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, is amended by deleting Section 2.

SECTION 3. Senate Bill No. 1194, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, is amended by renumbering Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6, as Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5, respectively."

Representative Say moved that Floor Amendment No. 20 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ito.

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, let me give you a brief history of how the Transient Accommodations Tax was created. It was first created in the early 80's by a Representative on Oahu from Kapahulu, which was Representative Ken Kiyabu. The TAT, as we call it as the Transient Accommodations Tax, was a tax on hotels in exchange of having the counties giving up the state's grants-in-aid, historically.

"I'm proud to say that the formula developed for the four counties and our tourism agencies was developed by our Speaker today, and that dealt with the percentages of how much went to each of the four counties along with the Hawaii Tourism Authority, the Convention Center Authority and other appropriations that were requested by the Legislature.

"The Floor Amendment before this Body is to ensure that the Transient Accommodations Tax fund be maintained for the respective four counties and the tourism agencies. I've asked that we consider lifting the cap as far as the ceiling for the counties, the Hawaii Tourism Authority and others. Why I am asking you to consider it is primarily if we could give more back to our four counties where they need the resources.

"I truly hope that this Body will be supporting their constituencies by supporting the services that our friends and families in the districts that we represent will have the restoration of our bus routes, maybe the lowering of our sewage fees, maybe trying to find the resources for our city parks in addressing our pools, where we have today individuals who are buying the heaters for our respective city and county park pools. Supporting our law enforcement, SHOPO, and also our firefighters and our emergency medical services groups that I think we all depend on.

"Mr. Speaker, I've always been a strong advocate for the tourism industry, and the comments being made this morning and this afternoon that I'm raising taxes on the TAT is incorrect. The present tax today is at 9.25%. Later I'll talk about the original draft of the bill, but it is at 9.25% with a sunset of 2015. Why can't we all from Oahu, Kauai, Maui and the Big Island support this particular Floor Amendment?

"For the great Representative from Kihei, I truly believe that this particular measure would help you in getting your infrastructure for the Kihei High School. For those on the Big Island in supporting Mayor Kenoi, and for those from Kauai supporting Mayor Carvalho, in their respective councils.

"So this measure basically maintains what we have today, which is the 9.25% Transient Accommodations Tax. Thank you very much."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. The Floor Amendment does nothing to lift the cap. The difference between the Floor Amendment and the original bill is a difference between 9.25%, which is proposed in the Floor Amendment, and the underlying bill is 7.25%. The Floor Amendment does nothing to lift the cap.

"Regardless of whether it's the Floor Amendment or the underlying bill, the appropriation to the counties will remain the same at $93 million. The Senate's position at this point is 9.25%, and again for Conference purposes, if the position of both the House and the Senate is to remain at 9.25% on a permanent basis, I don't think that's the position that we want to take. Thank you."

Representative Oshiro rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Back in 2009 we were amidst the Great Recession. We had to look for ways of balancing the budget and at that point in time $2.2 billion shortfall. So not only did we have to go and cut government services by 50%, allow for some reduction in force and really put constraints on our public workers, but we looked at different special funds, revolving funds, we looked at the different fees. We even looked at the personal income tax at that time.

"One of the key components that we used to balance and just basically keep the ship of state aright and keep government services up and running and to honor our commitments to our constituents, was to look at raising the hotel room tax. Back then Senate President Donna Kim was the Chair of the Ways and Means Committee. So what we did was look at the six year financial plan back in 2009, and the state raised over 1% first year, 1% over the second year. So that is what we did. In 2009 it went up 1% from 7.25% to 8.25%. The next year it went up another percentage point to 9.25%.

"We did that throughout, just to balance. We set it so that it would expire in 2015. Not in 2013, not in 2014, but in 2015. If you recall back in 2009, there was such strong opposition from the hotel industry that the sky was falling, that the end of the world was nigh and that we would destroy and cripple hotel industry. The rhetoric was beyond belief.

"In fact it was so strong I think it even encouraged the Governor back then, Governor Lingle, to veto this bill. But back then we had the foresight to realize that it wasn't the end of the world, it wouldn't destroy our most important industry. Because people still would come and they would not be dissuaded. So that's why we raised it from 7.25% to 9.25%.

"I think our record is clear over the last several years, if you talk to Mike McCartney from the Hawaii Tourism Authority, you talk to any of those hoteliers down in Waikiki, that we've hit record number of visitors. Record number of expenditures and record head counts filling our hotels. Record seat counts filling the seats coming into Hawaii. So our current rate of 9.25% has not been a deterrent. People are coming and we're setting records of visitors visiting us.

"This bill right now prematurely wants to take it down from 9.25% to 7.25%. According to the Department of Taxation there's a fiscal consequence to this action. If it's effective July 1, 2013, which is what, three months out, four months out? $78.9 million. Let's say $80 million, 2014, $85 million 2015. $160 million.

"We talked earlier about collective bargaining contracts, we talked earlier about OPEB, we talked earlier about health fund liabilities, we talked earlier about all the bills and programs and services we want for our constituents. And here we are today looking at a bill that's going to cut the hotel room tax by two percentage points and give us close to a $200 million budget puka. Yet we know we have contracts to honor with our teachers, with our public workers. We just talked about UPW 10. That's a current year emergency appropriation of $8 million for salaries that they won in arbitration. We talked about another bill dealing with the EUTF contribution of 60/40. If we are to honor their contract, that's about $4 million."

Representative Oshiro continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the teacher's contract, HSTA, four year contract, 3%, 3.2%, 3.2%, 3.2%. They got a 60/40 split, which might be 55/45. But anyway, the cost of that is an expenditure, $43 million first year, Fiscal Year 14. $73 million Fiscal Year 15. If we look at the assumption of 3% across the board for other collective bargaining units, 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 13, about $100 million. If we look at a 50/50 split going to 60/40 for other workers because they're going to want the same thing the teachers want, $45 million.

"Just on this document here, I start to jot down these numbers, we don't balance, Mr. Speaker. We don't balance, even with the council giving us $100 million more this year, we don't pencil out. So I don't think we can afford to reduce the hotel room tax right now from 9.25% to 7.25%.

"There's no pressing requirement for that. I haven't heard from anyone, not one of my constituents. Truth be told, I think if we were to settle this year at 9.25%, they'll be happy. They won't say it publicly to their shareholders, but they'll be pleased that we set it at 9.25%. We don't go up to 11.25% like the Governor wanted, we reject that proposal. But keep it at 9.25%, I think they'll be pleased.

"Otherwise, as you know Mr. Speaker, next year, 2014, we'll be looking at the sunset date of 2015, it'll be back at our doorstep. So that's why I support this Floor Amendment. Thank you."

Representative Jordan rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support of the Floor Amendment. Currently we're at a time where the TAT is at 9.25% as you heard before us until 2015. And I don't hear people complaining. In fact, I hear 7, almost 8 million visitors coming and visiting us at this point in time.

"Mr. Speaker, when those visitors come and visit our islands and enjoy what we have here, I don't see them paying my impact fee such as I pay for my sewer system, although they use my sewer system. I don't see them paying for the additional water that they use, when I pay additional water fees.

"So when we look at this TAT, I look at that as helping to recoup what they impact upon our facilities and our services that we have here. And this is the only way we can recoup that. I don't think we should be setting it back to 7.25%, which is the original measure. The Floor Amendment keeps it at the 9.25% and actually removes that sunset date, which I think is great going forward. So therefore, I will be supporting this Floor Amendment at the 9.25%. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 20, amending S.B. No. 1194, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representative Luke voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Carroll, Choy and McKelvey being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative Say rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to rise in opposition to the main motion that is before this body, which is lowering your 9.25% to 7.25% as of July 1st, 2013. For the Members of this Body who did not recognize how this particular measure occurred, it occurred with a six year financial plan. This measure was part of a six year financial plan, and if this House goes down the path of lowering the 9.25% to 7.25% I bet you all the Council on Revenues is going to revise our revenue projections. It's a loss of revenues that the Council will incorporate with the loss of the two percentage points.

"We are here as a responsible body, and today I'm very honored and privileged to share my mana'o with all of you. This is the only venue that I have to share what I've shared with all of you today. I don't get a chance to go to Finance, I don't get a chance to go to other subject committee hearings, but this is the arena that all of you and the people of the State of Hawaii and the district that I represent have given me this opportunity.

"I'm very proud of my actions today because it has educated all of the sophomores and freshmen who never did see the six year recession that we were in. Some call it the deepest recession or depression, but for those who were here this past four to six years, not one time did this Body enact a 1% General Excise Tax. Last year I'm very honored to have had 25 Members of this House sign a petition to the Tax Review Commission that the study that they had conducted was basically 'tax and spend.' Find ways to generate revenues, and it is through taxation.

"Last year walking the district it was very difficult for me because we're all one big family. The person up St. Louis Heights or the family up St. Louis Heights or Palolo Valley or Wilhelmina Rise, Maunalani Heights, goes through the same bills that we all pay. The sewage fees, our water fees, our property taxes which we discussed in caucus, pass it on to the Council. That is not my responsibility to pass it on, but to take it head on today.

"This particular measure will also show a sign of uncertainty, of question. Where is the Legislature heading? With the robust tourism industry that is occurring and the comment this past spring about how we don't have enough hotel rooms in Waikiki. So that's great. Why? Now we can raise the hotel room rates on our visitors.

"Don't you folks feel that what we're doing today with this particular draft is corporate welfare? You're giving back 2%. If that's what you want, I respect your decision. But for the kid from Palolo, I'm not going to support this particular legislation because it really sends mixed messages to the community as a whole.

"So in closing, I'm just honored and privileged to share what I have to share with all of you. Loss of revenues to the General Fund, don't blame anyone but yourself. And there've been other measures where we took away revenues from the General Fund of $48 million, which I can't make reference to because we're addressing the TAT. But it is a concern because people out there want certainty. They want to know where we are going in tax policies. They want to know we will shore up the other measure in regards to the big leakage on the solar that we just addressed today."

Representative Kawakami rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Say continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative Kawakami. These concerns have brought a lot of confusion out there. I don't have the answers, but I am concerned for all of the Members of this House as far as where we are going. So in closing, I may be the only one who voted no on this, and my tourist friends will not buy chopsticks, like how I used to gauge the tourist industry. But I can say this, at least here in this House, I tried. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Say be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Jordan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I will be voting no on this measure also since the Floor Amendment has not made it. I too cannot take a stance of reducing our Transient Accommodation Tax down to 7.25% when currently it is at 9.25% through 2015.

"A few weeks ago we passed some measures over to the Senate reducing tax tables. Now here we are reducing transient accommodation. We have no other measures to drive revenue for our budget. How are we going to explain to social services where we're going to get our money? I don't understand where we're going with this. This does not sunset until 2015. This is 2013, Mr. Speaker.

"To give the tourism industry a break? Give me a break. I will not stand for it. Increasing hotel rates for industries that are offshore industries, meaning mainland companies, now own our hotel industries. Now we're going to provide tax incentives to them while we suffer as residents here on infrastructure costs.

"I just came out of a meeting yesterday saying that we might not be able to develop anything more in Makaha because we don't have enough sewer and water infrastructure. No more homes, Mr. Speaker, no more commercial small mom and pop stores. That will keep it rural. So for these reasons, I will be voting no on this measure. I can't support this type of measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Thank you. This is such a moving target because I remember when we decided to raise it to 9.25% and how we told the industry that this was not going to be forever and you've got to bear with us, we've got to hunker down, we all have to support each other, we have to do this to make ends meet.

"I look at it from a different perspective and that is, the cost of living is skyrocketing in Hawaii. Some of the local unions have negotiated with the hoteliers and the wages have gone up. The cost of energy continues to go up, the infrastructure of the hotels is deteriorating and we have to have a very viable hotel product if we're going to attract people continually to Hawaii, which means we have to ask our hotel people to invest a lot of money and go out and borrow money.

"I want to believe that as this moves forward and it goes back to the Senate that there's wisdom with the Finance Chairs and the Tourism Chairs. Working with the tourism industry because we have to keep them whole. If this helps them. In the past I remember when I was here, 11 years ago when I first got here, it was the big push for a hotel renovation tax credit because we knew that the product was deteriorating and the industry said we've got to borrow money and you've got to help us because it's a huge investment. $40 million, who knows down in Waikiki if you were to renovate the Hyatt how much it would cost. Can you help us with a tax credit? We said no.

"The result of 'no' in those days was them going out and changing our hotels to timeshares because it seemed that the banks were willing to lend money on the timeshare accommodations. It created more timeshares in Hawaii because they actually could sell the room a week at a time and they could show the bank what the cash flow was and the banks went, gee, this is great, we'll go for supporting timeshares. So there was this huge conversion of hotel rooms to timeshares. That would have been in '04-'05, I think.

"So that was because we were unwilling to do a tax credit, but times were tough. We felt that was a good call by the Legislature. I'm just thinking that there may be something we need to think about here and that is, this hotel industry, a lot of wear and tear, and I think we still want hotel rooms and this may be a way to really support them.

"So I disagree with the comment that this is corporate welfare or subsidizing the hotel industry. That somehow they'll raise the hotel rates. Well, I have a sneaky suspicion the cost of doing business in Hawaii, I can see it this year is going up, up, up and it's not stopping. So for that reason I support this measure moving forward to conference. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition very briefly, Mr. Speaker. When this Body raised the TAT back during the Great Recession, of course the hotel industry came out screaming and yelling. Tourism is our number one industry and so they were upset, saying this is going to hurt our industry.

"Yet here we are in the year 2013, our numbers are at an all time high. We have not been able to even keep up with the amount of rooms, we don't have enough rooms that are available at this point. So to continue to say that, oh this is somehow going to further hurt the hotel industry, is quite frankly unwarranted.

"More important, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to echo the comments of the speaker from Waianae. We have a population of over $1.2 million people in the State of Hawaii. Yet every year we have over 8 million visitors to our great state. Those 8 million visitors should in fact be paying their fair share, and their fair share does go through a pass-through via the counties. So we can debate the cap that goes to the counties, but I still believe that at this point to do this is premature, because we did make a deal with the hotel industry.

"We said, okay in 2015 we'll go up to 9.25% but in 2015 it'll go back down to 7.25%. So why are we sunsetting it early? What is the rationale? We still have time to wait, just to make sure. We haven't necessarily turned that corner yet with respect to the financial plan. So this seems fiscally imprudent to do this at this juncture. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. Thank you very much. My reservations are with the rate, dropping it to 7.25%. My support is for the cap. I kind of support the cap, I think there are some tax structure issues that come with the cap, but I'll discuss that at another time.

"Let me discuss the rate. As far as our previous conversations as far as we talked about our bond rating and how the bond raters review us, there are certain things that they look at. They look at our reserves, they look at our commitment to fund reserves, they look at our commitment to have revenue, and they like certainty. They like commitment and certainty. By us moving this rate down, it creates some uncertainty going forward. So these things do have impact as far as bond rating. They will look at these issues and question it.

"I think we have to be careful when we set these kinds of policies going forward. It's kind of interesting, they don't really care how responsible you are as far as raising taxes. In fact, they want to know that you're willing to raise taxes. So I found that very interesting also. With that, Mr. Speaker, those are my reservations. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, maybe three quick points. Originally this was sold as a limited time deal by many in this room. A previous incarnation of this bill three weeks ago did have the TAT at 9.25%. I feel some House Members voted with their feet not to support that. The measure went to Finance and they chose a different number amount and we still don't know the outcome of this legislative session if that number amount will hold.

"Three, as far as, do tourists pay their fair share? Well they pay the TAT, they pay the GET, hotels pay property taxes, rental car companies pay vehicle taxes. I'm not aware of any tourist getting a free ride, I don't think they are. If there's other similar legislation we need to look at to bring things more balanced then I think we should do that in the future. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I speak in favor. Just a couple of items for the Members' understanding of the hotel industry. When you look at 9.25% it's more than that. It's 9.25% plus the excise tax which is about 4.16%. If it's in Honolulu it comes to about 13-some percent that the tourist pays. For Honolulu, if you go to neighbor islands or if you book a hotel over here to the west side you're going to be paying 4.5% plus 9.25%. So that's a heavy hit. Yes, we've been very lucky these last few years and just this past year that tourism is booming.

"But it's not booming because of so much of maybe what we're doing, but it could be because of the economic situation in the world. The Euro is in bad shape. Nobody wants to go to Mexico and in the winter months everybody is freezing in the United States because of this weather change and in Canada. So there's a lot of factors that affect them coming here. Of course we have the best weather in the world and they get plenty aloha that I can see over here for the business.

"So we reward this good work that the tourism industry, the hotels are doing by increasing their TAT. I think you reward somebody by giving them something, not increasing it. Yes, we needed the money then and I can understand that.

"Everybody is saying that we don't have a financial plan. Well our budget went over to the Senate, we made a $600 million cut into the Governor's budget and we still had a balance approaching $200 million. That's not so bad. I believe that now when we go work with the Senate we'll come out with a good financial plan also which we will be working on very shortly.

"But the last financial plan was a $600 million dollar cut and approximately $200 million to our balance. If anybody doesn't have a financial plan might be on the 5th floor, but not here. So with this and all I hope the Members understand the process and why these things are happening. Thank you very much."

Representative Jordan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. I'm still not getting this, Mr. Speaker. Because the committee prior to Finance, which was the Tourism Committee, deferred this measure and I thought it was gone. All of a sudden it was re-referred and brought back to Finance.

"So what that is telling me as a young sophomore, that's the position this House is taking. This House is telling me, 'Representative Jordan, we're going to decrease our Transient Accommodations Tax from 9.25% down to 7.25%.' I'm not comfortable with that, Mr. Speaker.

"Where are we going to get these revenues? Why are we as a House Body taking that sort of position? This was on a measure that was deferred and then re-referred to make sure it came back to say we have this stance going forward. I might be going out on a limb here but I come from a community that has high Title I, families living below poverty, and I'm going to give tourists a break? I can't, when legislators prior to me made that commitment through 2015 and 9.25%.

"Contrary to what Speaker has said, the tourists pay between us and them the 9.25%. We as residents don't pay the 9.25%. We still pay our 4.172%. So the only difference they're paying, and again I feel that's fair. They're visiting us, they're using our infrastructure, they're using our roads. I hear the pothole complaints, they don't. I sit in two hours of traffic, they enjoy the beach.

"So I don't see why we should be, as a body, looking at reducing it from 9.25%. Especially on how this measure has moved to where it is today on the Floor without any explanation. And I sit on Finance. So those are some of my major concerns for why I'm voting no. And it's rare I vote no on a defective date bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kawakami rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations. Thank you. I can see the rationale of keeping our promise to the visitor industry, but we also made a promise to the counties that we would lift that cap come 2015 and I notice that it's not there anymore.

"Now I've been criticized for being a tremendous supporter of the counties in the past, but coming from the County Council I realize the impact that the visitor industry has on the county's infrastructure. Every time a tourist drives their car it could be on a county road. When they flush the toilet, county water, county sewer. When they need to be rescued at the beaches, county lifeguards, county firefighters. When they need to be protected, county police department.

"The cost of doing business is going up in the private sector and public sector. So I would hope that as negotiations continue we take a look at that promise we made to the counties to lift that cap and take that into consideration. Thank you."

Representative Coffman rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. What I find very interesting here is there's an absolute nexus between the TAT and services provided to our tourists. Many people have given testimony to that fact. If you take a look at the statute, TAT has gone up about every four years. It doesn't go back. The reason it doesn't go back is because our costs go up. So for us to drop back to a 2009 fee structure is like saying we're going to help subsidize the tourist industry. It doesn't make any sense.

"Another point I want to address, people have talked about a promise made to the hotel industry. Well when they came in and cried, I mean loud and clear, we did what we always do to a lot of bills that you feel a little uncomfortable, you put a sunset date in there. Well, we put a sunset in there. I've never believed there would be a problem. There is no problem, the sunset should go away. It's time to move on. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ing rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I just want to clarify that this bill doesn't touch the percentage that goes to the counties and the cap remains. So on Maui it'll still be the 22.6% which equates to about $17.5 million of TAT revenue and that's the budget they're working with. That's what the budget is going to be if this passes. And because the cap is still there and like our Representative from Wahiawa said, the numbers of tourists are increasing and the industry is doing great, then that revenue is going to come to the state and any loss of General Funds will quickly be reinstated."

Representative Kawakami rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, still in support with reservations. I'd just like to clarify to the freshman Representative from Maui that what I was pointing out, that as TAT revenues increase perhaps we would consider that the amount delivered to the counties shall perhaps increase as well. I fully understand that it doesn't touch the $93 million going, but as we collect more maybe we should be delivering more. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition, just briefly. Mr. Speaker, I do want to touch upon some of the comments made by the speaker from Waianae. We have a process in this Body and that's called bill referrals. A bill goes to a subject matter committee to be vetted before that subject matter committee because that committee has certain purview over certain subject matters. This is a bill that deals directly with the Transient Accommodations Tax, and rightfully so it was referred to the Committee on Tourism as well as the Committee on Finance.

"The Committee on Tourism spoke loudly when the five committee members walked out, there was no quorum for this bill. So I'm confused that it was now, the message was given to leadership and yet the bill was re-referred. I'm just confused, where's the transparency? Has this bipartisan coalition taken transparency and thrown it to the wind? There was no harm if the bill had died, because in 2015 the 9.25% would have gone back down to 7.25%. So I don't really see what the harm was in doing this.

"With all due respect to the Speaker, I do appreciate his comments regarding tourism and how many factors have affected tourism, whether it's Mexico and the Euro and why our tourism has done so well. But the fact of the matter is this. Obviously the 9.25% hasn't negatively affected our tourism. For those reasons, I'm still in opposition. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support and I just wanted to clarify the referral process because a couple people brought it up. As far as my understanding is concerned, this bill was heard by the Tourism Committee. Because of fear that either the percentage would remain at 9.25% or be increased to 11.25%, the committee members walked off, resulting in no quorum.

"So in order to allow the wishes of the Tourism Committee, which is not to support an increase, we accommodated the Tourism Chair and Tourism Committee members to continue the discussion on this issue and lower the TAT. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, we've had a lot of discussion on the measure. I want to clarify something for the entire Body here. The intent of the measure, the referral pattern. We should be focusing on the merits of the bill. Again, is this measure good for the people of Hawaii or is this measure bad for the people of Hawaii? So I've given wide latitude to speak about the process, but really when the measure comes on the Floor, the focus is on the merits of the bill. If there's any further discussion we're going to focus only on the merits of the bill."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I'd just like to request that the words of the speaker from Maui as well as the Representative from Waikiki be entered into the Journal as if they were my own. I'd also like to request for additional written comments."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. SB 1194, SD 2, HD 1 is a measure which tells our largest economy in Hawaii that we value the sacrifices that they have made for many years. The increase that the legislature had added through legislation provided support to many during difficult economic years. We had promised to repeal the TAT increase which was imposed in 2009. We said we would, Mr. Speaker. We kept our word and with the passage of this measure, we will. For these reasons, I rise in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ing rose, stating:

"Could you change my vote to reservations? I agree that at least maybe looking down the road we should think about lifting the cap too, just for fairness for the counties, but as of now I think it's important that we leave that cap there to help the state's General Fund in the meantime and at least be on track with the Council on Revenues."

Representative Fale rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. Mr. Speaker, this has been a very, very healthy discussion and I really appreciate the extra knowledge I've been able to acquire as a freshman in regards to this issue.

"A lot of the discussion of course, Mr. Speaker, is focusing around the amount of revenue that would be lost if this measure were to move forward. I do have concerns in regards to that, Mr. Speaker, but on a broader level I'm also concerned with, I would like to see more innovation in the ways that we are generating revenue.

"It was very unfortunate that the task force that we were moving forward in regards to poverty and economic opportunity didn't move forward on the Senate side, Mr. Speaker, because if we were to resolve a number of our poverty issues we would above and beyond solve the revenue issues that we would lose in regards to this measure if it were to move forward.

"So this measure isn't as innovative. I would like to see greater innovation, Mr. Speaker, in regards to the way we generate revenue in the State of Hawaii because I think, once again, we have issues that are systematic of a wider problem, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, Representative Tokioka called for the previous question.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1194, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Coffman, Har, Jordan, Oshiro and Say voting no, and with Representatives Belatti, Cabanilla and McKelvey being excused.

At 5:40 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "Members, please remember to submit to the Clerk the list of Senate Bills on the Consent Calendar for which you will be inserting written comments, in support or in opposition. This must be done by adjournment of today's Floor session."

Representative Evans: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today is the 50th Anniversary of the Equal Pay Act, which was signed by President John F. Kennedy in 1963 and today is the day that a woman working the same job would reach the equal pay of a male person in that job.

"The Act made it illegal to pay men and women different wage rates for equal work on jobs that require equal skill, effort and responsibility, and are performed under similar working conditions. In 1963 American women earned on average 58.9 cents for every dollar earned by men.

"According to a 2012 study on the gender pay gap conducted by the American Association of University Women, Hawaii ranks 11th in the nation. On average in Hawaii a fulltime working woman earns 82% of what men make doing the same type of work.

"Equal pay is not simply a woman's issue, it's a family issue. Families increasingly rely on women's wages to make ends meet. In typical married households, women's income accounted for 36% of total family income in 2008, up from 29% in 1983.

"A large majority of mothers are in the paid labor force and about 1/3 of employed mothers are the sole breadwinners for their family. For the 34% of working mothers who are their family's sole breadwinner the gender pay gap can contribute to poor living conditions, poor nutrition and fewer opportunities for their children. For these women, closing the gender pay gap is much more than a point of pride, it is a matter of necessity.

"Remember the goal. For your sister, aunt, mother, classmate, colleague, neighbor, daughter. Equal pay for equal work. Please join the millions of women earning wages across America and across our state to continue the fight for equal pay."

Representative Cachola: "Mr. Speaker, I just want to let you know that today is the Day of Valor or in Tagalog, Araw ng Kagitingan. For the veterans who fought during World War II, Filipino descent and American soldiers fighting side by side. It happened today at 4:00 at Punchbowl, the Veterans National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific. We cannot attend that even if we are invited because we are here doing our job as legislators.

"So I just want to give those who are celebrating and those who have organized this event a warm congratulations and I hope they have a very good and successful event at the National Memorial Cemetery. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

A Conference Committee shall meet in the conference room assigned or reserved, pursuant to the Room Scheduling Procedures and Guidelines and Room Assignment Schedule, as attached.

4. Initial Public-Meeting Notice

The signatures of all chairs shall be obtained before the notice of an initial meeting is posted or distributed. Prior to offering the initial meeting notice for signatures, the chairs shall consult with one another on the information to be included in the notice. Lead chairs from both houses are encouraged to sign meeting notices first, before distributing them to other chairs to sign.

Chairs shall provide at least 24 hours public notice of the first meeting of the Conference Committee and are strongly encouraged to provide more than 24 hours notice if at all possible. Written notices shall be submitted to the Senate Chief Clerk and the House Sergeant-at-Arms for official postings on the Legislature's website and Capitol bulletin boards. The lead committee staff shall post the notice adjacent to the door of the assigned conference room at the time of the meeting.

5. Notice of Subsequent Meetings

a. If agreement is not reached at a duly noticed meeting but the lead chairs of both chambers agree to meet again before midnight on the same day, the lead chairs of both chambers shall publicly announce at the meeting the time and place at which the Conference Committee will reconvene. Written notice of the reconvening of the Conference Committee on the same day is not required to be distributed. However, written notice containing information on the subsequent meeting shall be submitted to the Senate Chief Clerk and the House Sergeant-at-Arms for official posting as soon as possible. The lead committee staff shall post the notice adjacent to the door of the assigned conference room at the time of the meeting.

b. The lead committee staff shall post the notice adjacent to the door of the assigned conference room at the time of the meeting.

c. If agreement is not reached at a duly noticed meeting and the date(s), time(s), and place of future meetings are not publicly announced at that noticed meeting, chairs shall ensure that a written meeting notice, signed by the lead chairs of their respective chamber, is submitted to the Senate Chief Clerk and the House Sergeant-at-Arms for official posting at least 24 hours in advance of the next meeting of the Conference Committee.

6. Attendance at Meetings

a. To convene the initial conference committee meeting only the lead House and Senate chair must be present. All other conference committee managers, especially any co-chair, should attempt to be present.

b. Once a conference has been opened, reconvening of any subsequent meeting of a conference committee shall require the following:

For the Senate, the lead chair or co-chair must be present.

For the House, the lead chair must be present.

All other conference committee managers, especially any co-chair, should attempt to be present at the convening of and during each meeting.

c. For decision-making at a meeting, a quorum must be present. "A quorum shall be a majority of the House Committee managers and a majority of the Senate Committee managers, and shall include the lead House and Senate chair and majority of the chairs of the Conference Committee for their respective chamber." See Section 9.a of the "Procedures." The lead House and Senate chair of the conference committee must be part of this quorum.

d. For a measure with fiscal implications, approval must be given by the chair representing the House Finance Committee and Senate Ways and Means Committee during the decision-making on the measure.

7. Conference Discussion

Except as authorized by the respective chairs, only the respective chairs may speak during conference. All other managers or other authorized persons shall be recognized by their respective chairs before speaking on any issue.

8. Decorum in Conference Committee Meetings and Courtesy to the Public and to the Managers

a. Managers shall respect the differing views of other managers and conduct themselves in a courteous manner.

b. Chairs shall ensure that meetings convene and reconvene at scheduled times. If none of the chairs of one of the Committees are present within 15 minutes of the scheduled meeting time, the chairs of the other Committee shall have the names of the absent chairs paged through the State Capitol public address system.

c. If none of the absent chairs are present within 30 minutes of the scheduled meeting time, the chairs present shall inform the managers and members of public present that the Conference Committee cannot be convened or reconvened, and that, pursuant to 5c of these Committees on Conference Procedures, a 24-hour advance notice shall be provided for a subsequent meeting of the Conference Committee.

9. Decision-making Meeting

The decision-making meeting of a Conference Committee shall comply with the following open meeting provisions:

a. A quorum of the Conference Committee shall be present for the decision making meeting. A quorum shall be a majority of the House Committee managers and a majority of the Senate Committee managers, and shall include the lead House and Senate chair and majority of the chairs of the Conference Committee for their respective chamber.

b. To report a measure out of Conference Committee in amended form, Conference Draft (CD), a majority of the quorum of managers for each respective chamber shall vote in favor of the proposed amendments.

c. The lead chair (or the lead chair's designee) representing their respective chamber shall call the roll and be the recorder of the quorum and the votes on that measure for that chamber. (Sample attached)

d. If, after naming a Conference Committee on a measure, the Conference Committee managers representing the chamber from which a measure originated agree to the amendments made by the non-originating chamber, only a quorum of those representing the originating chamber shall vote on the agreement at a duly noticed meeting. For example, if after naming a Conference Committee on a House measure, the House managers of the Conference Committee decide to agree to the amendments in the Senate draft (SD) of the measure, then only the House managers of the Conference Committee shall vote on the measure, returning it to the House in its SD form. For such action, only a quorum of the Conference Committee managers representing the chamber from which the measure originated need to be present. The "Record of Votes of a Conference Committee" sheet detailing the votes of the managers of the originating chamber shall be filed with the appropriate chamber without a Conference Committee Report.

10. Conference Committee Reports

a. A majority of the House and Senate chairs, respectively, of a Conference Committee shall attest to the action of the Conference Committee by signing the Conference Committee Report on behalf of their respective managers; provided that no Conference Committee Report concerning a measure with fiscal implications shall be reported out of a Conference Committee without the signature of the chair (or the chair's designee) of each fiscal committee to which the measure is referred. The "Record of Votes of a Conference Committee" sheet detailing the votes of the managers of the Conference Committee shall be attached to the report as a part thereof.

b. All House measures reported out of Conference Committee shall be filed with the House Chief Clerk, and likewise all Senate measures shall be filed with the Senate Chief Clerk. A document filed in the originating chamber shall be deemed simultaneously filed in the other chamber. Only the original Conference Committee Report, with the attached Record of Votes, and the Conference Draft of the measure shall be required for filing.

c. If the Conference Committee votes to report the measure out, the Committee must file a Conference Committee Report and Conference Draft with the appropriate chamber's Chief Clerk.

11. Decision-making Deadlines

On the deadline nights for Final Decking of both non-fiscal and fiscal bills:

a. Conference Committees shall conclude their negotiations by 6:00 p.m. to allow adequate time for final preparation of the bills and Conference Committee Reports.

b. To provide all chairs with ample opportunity to review and sign the Conference Committee Reports before filing, all Conference Committee Reports shall be available for review and signature by 9:00 p.m.

c. All Conference Committee Reports and Conference Drafts of measures shall be filed with the respective Chief Clerk by 11:30 p.m.

12. Electronic Transfer

Should a Conference Committee for which the vehicle is a Senate bill decide to use a proposal drafted by the House, the House chair shall have the House proposal electronically transferred to the appropriate Senate office so that the Conference Draft can be prepared. The converse shall apply to House bills with proposals drafted by the Senate that the Conference Committee agrees to.

13. Exceptions to these Deadlines and Procedures
