Aloha Board Members and Neighbors,

The legislative session has reached its midway point and the major, "First Cross-Over" deadline where House and Senate bills switch sides for review from the opposite chamber. In addition to attending hearing on Senate bills, I will also be considering Resolutions.

With the help of students from Waipahu High School who shared research they did on crosswalks with me during a capitol visit, I was able to take their findings to introduce House Resolution (HR) 32 and House Concurrent Resolution (HCR) 31 to urge the Department of Transportation to construct an all-way crosswalk or "pedestrian scramble" for the cross-streets of Kahualii Street, Waipio Point Access Road, and Farrington Highway.

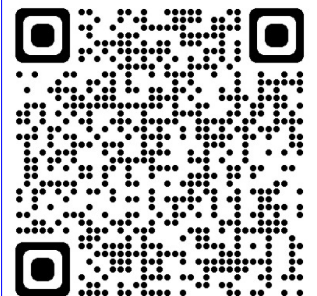

I will be monitoring this and other resolutions along with the Senate bills that have been sent over to the House.

Please feel free to call my office, (808) 586-6170, or send an email to: repchun@capitol.hawaii.gov if you have any questions or concerns.

Mahalo,

Congratulations to Waipahu High School Teachers

Representative Chun provided a legislative update to the Midweek Voice - West Oahu Community News. The column highlights two Waipahu High School teachers who have achieved the National Board Teacher Certification (NBCT). The Waipahu Public Library recently unveiled a memorial honoring Filipino Veterans of World War II. Representative Chun was among over 100 people who attended the dedication ceremony. Amy Agbayani and Representative Lamosao helped him honor the contribution of Filipino Americans in the war efforts in the Pacific.

The Hawaii Farm Bureau held their annual Agriculture Awareness Day at the State Capitol where Representative Chun was able to network with and learn from many experts and organizations in Hawaii's agriculture industry.
