

Hawaii State Representative Adrian K. Tam

House District 24

NEWSLETTER

Aloha neighbors,

November 2024

Mahalo for choosing me to continue to work for you and our community at the State Legislature. I am eager to continue my work crafting and advocating for legislation that will positively benefit our community and Hawai'i. Issues at the top of my list are noise, public safety, mental health care and services for the unhoused. Please write to me or call with your ideas-- your voice matters!

Have a safe and Happy Thanksgiving!

REP TAM AT WORK

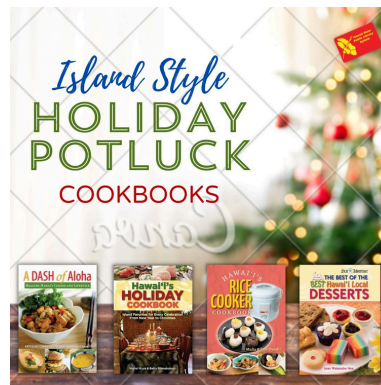

Ready Keiki is Hawai'i's statewide initiative to bring universal access to preschool for all 3- and 4-year-old 'keiki' (children in 'Ōlelo Hawai'i). The mixed-delivery approach focuses on expanding Pre-K seats – both public and private, increasing preschool and childcare subsidies, and supporting the early childhood workforce. Rep Tam and state officials with Lt. Gov Sylvia Luke had the opportunity to tour the new classroom at Ala Wai Elementary School.

You can learn more about the Ready Keiki Program at the the Executive Office on Early Learning (EOEL) earlylearning.ehawaii.gov

CONDO CORNER

Condo Owners: Be informed. Get involved.

The Hawaii condominium law, Chapter 514B, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires a condominium have at least one association meeting and one board meeting a year. Association and board meetings are open to all unit owners.

Owners should get involved and attend the annual association meeting. The agenda items typically include important governance, maintenance and financial matters, board elections, officers' reports, rollover of surplus funds and amendments to the governing documents.

Owners may also attend board meetings to stay apprised of what is going on at their condominium. Owners are permitted to participate in any deliberation or discussion, pursuant to board rules, except for executive sessions.

You may find more information on meetings at <https://youtu.be/p64uQ9Brpyo>
