OPERA COMING TO SALT LAKE

The Hawaii Opera Theater (HOT) will be performing An American Dream at Moanalua's Performing Arts Center on October 13, 14 and 15. Set during World War II, this opera explores the lives of two women: a Japanese American forced to leave her home and a German Jewish immigrant preoccupied with those she left behind. An American Dream is accompanied by a four-piece chamber ensemble, and while this opera is a piece of fiction, the story was crafted from interviews with those who experienced the mass incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II.

Bringing HOT to Moanalua is Senator Wakai's commitment to turn the neighborhood into a focal point for arts and culture, and drive revenue for the maintenance of the theater. He continues to chase the Hawaii Symphony Orchestra to perform in the 700 seat facility in its upcoming season.

Tickets for the opera are now available for purchase by clicking here. Please enjoy a first class performance by professional artists and help Moanalua High School to keep its theater dazzling!
