

SENATOR GLENN WAKAI

MOANALUA, PUNAPUNA, AIRPORT, SALT LAKE, ALIAMANU, HICKAM, PEARL HARBOR, AND PORTIONS OF PEARL CITY

END OF A MUSICAL DYNASTY AT MOANALUA

L-R: Rep. Ichiyama, former Rep. Aaron Johanson, Director Elden Seta, and Sen. Wakai at the Moanalua Band Concert on Saturday, May 4.

Moanalua High School’s grand finale marked the end of the school year and Music Director Elden Seta’s illustrious career.

Over the past 37 years, Director Seta has created the most revered music program in the state. The Symphonic Wind Ensemble has performed three times in the acclaimed Carnegie Hall in New York.

“Mr. Seta has left an indelible mark on our community,” said Senator Wakai. “Generations have benefitted from his dedication. The $35 million Performing Arts Center was constructed in his honor.”

COMMUNITY CONVEYS DESIRES TO STADIUM DEVELOPERS

A panel of community leaders from Salt Lake and ‘Aiea expressed their concerns to potential developers of the Stadium Entertainment District on Monday.

Many concerns focused on traffic, infusing Hawaiian sense of place, and infrastructure capacity.

The two teams of developers took into account the desires expressed by residents.

The two finalists will pitch their plans to the state in July and a final developer is expected to be chosen in September.

DISTRICT 15 HIGHLIGHTS

Capital Improvement Projects for Moanalua High and Makalapa Elementary were included in the Final Executive Budget bill that was passed during conference in May 2024.

Moanalua High School: plans, design, and construction for a new tennis court - $2,000,000

Makalapa Elementary: plan, design, and construction for covered walkways - $1,201,000