The Internet has changed the way the world does business and the State must invest in its workforce so that it can compete in the new global economy. The State Administration recently proposed $1 million for the Asia Pacific Center for E-Commerce and Entrepreneurship at the University of Hawaii's College of Business Administration (CBA). Dr. David McClain, Dean of the CBA, proposed the Center whose mission is to give students the skills they need to excel in the burgeoning Internet economy. The Dean with the assistance of several colleagues, will share his vision, plans and programs.

Panelists:

David McClain, Dean and First Hawaiian Bank Professor of Leadership and Management;

Jack Suyderhoud, Associate Dean and Professor of Financial Economics and Institutions;

William Chismar, Chair of the Department of Decision Sciences;

Shirley Daniel, Director of the Pacific Asian Management Institute and Professor of Accountancy;

James Wills, Executive Secretary of the Academy of International Business and Professor of Marketing; and

Barry Weinman, General Partner of Media Technology Ventures/AVI Capital, Los Gatos, CA.

If you require special assistance or auxiliary aids or services to participate in the public hearing process (i.e., sign language interpreter, wheelchair accessibility, or parking designated for the disabled), please contact the committee clerk 24 hours prior to the hearing so arrangements can be made.

Public Folder. A folder labeled "Public Folder" containing the measures and testimonies for the hearing will be available for shared use by members of the public.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL THE COMMITTEE CLERK AT 586-6230.
