"A lot of letters were written. We wrote to the Public Safety people and they extended the life of those prescriptions briefly, I think, maybe two months. So it gave people kind of a 60-day lease on their suffering and then they were forced to go out and find other doctors to prescribe it. And then, once again, it is legal. We as a State made people suffer. It was really horrible.

"I do have some small reservations about the amounts of marijuana. I don't think people should abuse it, but, when they're no other way, when we don't want people taking too much OxyContin and other almost toxic pharmaceutical medicines. To let someone who's got cancer, or to actually say we're not going to let someone who's got cancer or is suffering with some other chronic disease to have access to this, I think it's really a horrible statement.

"I know we have political reservations, but, we should try to make some sense of this and explain it to our communities; that it really does on occasion make a big difference in people's lives who are suffering. I would urge people to avoid political expediency and take the time to explain to their communities that we're not talking about just getting 'pot' to people who might abuse it, but to people who are suffering. And I will stand in favor of any kind of oversight to make sure people don't abuse this medical privilege. But we should really spend a lot of energy to make this right. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and I'd like to submit written comments. I'd like to just briefly state a few things. First, I'd like to just mention that for this particular idea of utilizing the development rights where Aloha Stadium sits currently on Oahu, for something bigger and better is a great idea. And although I don't take ownership of the idea, there are many people that have thought about this particular concept before.

"I want to reference H.B. 282 which was the first measure this Session that was introduced on this topic, and also recognize a couple of resolutions, H.C.R. 39 and H.R. 23, also speaking to this subject. And I mention that because I realize that over the course of the last few months, politics have gotten in the way in some decisions on this Floor and in this body. I will be the first to admit that in this particular case, it has as well.

"I spoke with Congressman Abercrombie a few weeks ago and he's really the champion of this particular issue. I believe that this issue does have merit and we should see it through. I told Congressman Abercrombie at the meeting that whatever leadership chooses in terms of the measure, to move on this particular issue, I will support. I stand here today, Mr. Speaker, encouraged and requesting that the Finance Committee and this whole body move these two measures along because I believe that this particular issue is a good one and needs to be studied. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I would like to provide strong support for HCR57 and HR38, which requests the Department of Accounting and General Services to undertake planning activities with respect to a stadium on Oahu. It is not too early for legislation to pass; these Resolutions are going to be very important in years to come, especially once the mass transit system implemented by the City and County of Honolulu has been finalized. The Aloha Stadium is in gross need of repair, and rather than bearing the brunt of the cost, it is easier and more economically feasible to relocate and rebuild the stadium in the Ewa/West Oahu area, where the city has been encouraging development and growth.

"Opened on September 12, 1975, the Aloha Stadium is nearing the end of its useful life. One of the significant problems that the stadium faces is rust. The structural steel that makes up large sections of the stadium was purported to be rust and weather resistant. As the stadium aged, it was discovered that the steel was sensitive to salt-laden air environments like Hawaii. Furthermore, areas within the stadium have poor ventilation, high humidity, were subject to the collection of water and debris, and were continually wetted due to water penetration, all of which promoted corrosion. The protective patina of rust that was supposed to make the steel stabilize failed, and instead, the steel continued to corrode.

"A ten year, $80,000,000 corrosion abatement program was funded in 1985 to try to alleviate the damage. However, the structural certification performed in 1995 failed to test the integrity of the stadium under wind loads, so the structural safety of the stadium under wind loads is still unknown (certification requirements stipulated that the Aloha Stadium, in its entirety, be closed during hurricanes or other similar high-wind conditions).

"With all of its flaws, the cost to repair and maintain the stadium was estimated to be $99,200,000 with an additional $115,400,000 anticipated to be expended for ongoing maintenance over a twenty-year period.

"To invest tax dollars into a deteriorating structure is pure folly. It is far more economically feasible to begin building a new, structurally-sound stadium, which meets safety and ADA requirements. The new stadium could include capabilities as a disaster shelter, which is of special import given the wide-spread disaster during Hurricane Katrina. The proposed rail transit system could also be linked to the new stadium in West Oahu, creating the possibility of a "park and ride" for commuters during weekdays, thus helping to alleviate the heavy East West traffic.

"Waiting too long may be detrimental to Hawaii's economy. Should a major disaster occur, the Aloha Stadium is currently in no shape to withstand any more damage. It makes no sense to spend millions of dollars to extend the life of an inferior structure, which will, despite all efforts, eventually need to be replaced anyway. These Resolutions will begin the intensive planning process that will lay the groundwork for the sale and relocation of the Aloha Stadium, and I strongly support these measures."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I, too, have spoken to some people regarding this issue. I think it's important. It gives the Legislature a chance to go ahead and take the ball and run with it. And may the words of the speaker from Pearl City, Waimalu be entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"I also rise in strong support and I request that the written comments of the speaker from Pearl City be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. The comment that we're making room in the area for something bigger or better is relative. Essentially what we're looking at is the proposal to move the stadium out to another area and utilizing the land for development and housing. At this point in time, given all of the consideration we have with infrastructure and the dialogue and dissention about the light rail system, I think we need to be very discerning, especially as we've heard in hearings that the stadium is in need of repair. I think that the Department of Accounting and General Services actually has their hands full right now. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and I'd like to adopt the words of the speaker from Aina Haina, as well as just wanting to say that this is in the middle of my district, Mr. Speaker. And I have been getting some feedback from constituents in my district, and it's of big concern to them. So I'd like to reserve my final vote for when it comes back. Thank you."

Representative Wakai rose in support of both measures with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Nishimoto rose in support of both measures with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Takai be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

That somehow they can take a plant that has been used for thousands of years for medical uses and has no side effects that these OxyContin and other drugs.

"In fact, the highest side effects for people with AIDS when they're taking those drugs are liver damage. Most folks are part of a liver damage group because of the drugs they give them. The drugs, these pharmaceuticals we give them cause so much toxic effect. Marijuana does not have any toxic effects. There is not one registered death because of it. With lung cancer, they actually find that smoking it actually reduces the cancer. We have all this research for you to see. So, either we are offering really, a true choice to folks, or we're just pretending. I certainly encourage you to take a look at this with that in mind. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this bill. This bill is asking the Department of Transportation to study how to make Honolulu less congested. There are comments in this that are just flat out not accurate.

"On the first page. 'Traffic congestion diminishes air quality and safety', which is true. 'Undermines the State economic health', I'm not sure about that. 'Its residents' quality of life and perpetuates poverty.' I don't happen to agree with that.

"But on the second page, it says, 'Major metropolitan traffic congestion reduction objectives, including preservation of non-toll roads.' We've had a lot of discussion about high occupancy toll roads. I think many of us feel that congestion is the problem in Hawaii and the rail is not going to solve it, and toll roads play a big part and have proven themselves in other parts of the country. And so for a resolution that's trying to study the causes of congestion and somehow encourage people to get out of their cars, and then say, 'absolutely make sure we preserve no toll roads', it just doesn't make any sense. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"May I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1754 and 1755? Just brief comments about how this is a valuable and important Resolution. However, it becomes so inclusive, I'm afraid it may lose its impetus, because it includes Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders. And as many of us know, homelessness and other difficulties are being increasingly exacerbated by the migration of people from Micronesia. Studies in and of themselves are sufficient, but when we make the scope so broad and so difficult, I'm afraid we may not come up with really what we're looking for.

"So, my encouragement is to the Committee on Higher Education to narrow down the 288,000 people or so that this Resolution asks to study, and limit it to those who are our brothers and sisters in the south and the Pacific Islands, because those are the ones with the most difficulties.

"As they said in the Committee hearing, if we don't know what the problems of the Hawaiian community are, of this indigenous community, we have been asleep for over a hundred years. So I don't think we need to restudy the study, we need to study the Pacific Islanders. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Thielen: "Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank you and the Members of the House of Representatives for all of your kindness, for your prayers, and your kind words. When I took my husband, Mickey, to Stanford Hospital for serious heart surgery, our children, Laura, Greg, Peter and Dave all were there, too, while Mickey underwent eight and a half hours of heart surgery where they removed a very large aneurism from his aorta. They had to stop his heart for 22 minutes and his system was synthetically functioning pumping blood to his brain and other areas that kept going.

"He came out of surgery extremely confused, extremely weak, as you can imagine. After 10 days in intensive care, he then went to a stroke nursing facility and gradually we have been able to begin to bring him back. He still will require more, less intrusive surgery to cure a heart flutter, but the major thing is, Mr. Speaker, he is going to make it and next Opening Day you're going to see him sitting right here beside me. I thank all of you for your support and your good wishes. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, on behalf of not only of the Majority Caucus, but on behalf of every Member of this body, it is nice to have the Representative from Kailua back in our presence. Her voice has been missed. And while that voice can be the thorn in our sides, particularly for the Representative from Kahului and sometimes myself, it's a voice we do want to hear, and I think we've seen through her dedication to her husband the definition of what love is. We welcome her back to this Chamber and we look forward to hearing her voice on a daily basis. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, and welcome back to the Representative from Kailua."

Representative Wakai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And a voice that we have grown to adore has gotten older today. I want to announce that Representative Scott Nishimoto has turned 33 today. The world has never been the same and never will be. Congratulations, Scott."

Speaker Say: "Members of the House, if you look on pages A through L of your Order of the Day, those are your public hearing notices which start at 1:30 this afternoon."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative Evans, for the Committee on Public Safety & Military Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1681) recommending that S.B. No. 618, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 618, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. I wanted to request that I be able to submit written comments to the Clerk. And just mention that this is I think the least we can do for these veterans who have helped and supported our country during those times years ago."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support SB618 because it recognizes the efforts and sacrifices of veterans who served in World War II, the Korean Conflict, and the Vietnam War. In the last century, many young persons from Hawaii left school to serve in the Armed Forces as the United States fought World War II, the Korean conflict, and the Vietnam War. These individuals made great sacrifices and suffered great economic and personal losses in order to protect their country and its people and to defend humanity.

"Many of these veterans were not able to continue their education upon returning home because of financial hardship and other personal reasons. Despite educational constraints, these veterans reentered society and made significant contributions to our country through hard work as civilians, while gaining substantial knowledge and skills through work.

"This bill recognizes the commitment and sacrifices that veterans have had to make while serving our country and it allows us to help them fulfill the educational goals that had been cut short by war. I hope that soon Hawaii will be able to grant diplomas to veterans as a gesture of society's gratitude for the sacrifices made during wartime. It is designed to honor the thousands of young men and women who left their homes to serve in the United States Armed Forces during times of global conflict.

"The idea of honoring war veterans by allowing them to receive honorary high school diplomas is not new. Over 30 other states, including, but not limited to: Virginia, Michigan, Ohio, Florida, Missouri, Montana, Kentucky, Mississippi, Massachusetts, and New Jersey have already passed similar legislation. It is very important to me that Hawaii also follows suit and makes diplomas available to every veteran whose education was disrupted due to wartime practices.

"I can tell you from personal experience that being a part of the US Armed Forces is difficult and demanding; we are trying to balance our finances, our jobs and family, and for many of us, our educational goals. Although we all recognize our duty and are willing to serve our nation, the disruption to our personal and professional lives cannot be denied.

"As beneficiaries of their courageous and dedicated service, the people of this State bear a special responsibility toward United States military forces, and I hope that you choose to honor that responsibility today."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 618, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takamine being excused.

Representative Ito, for the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1682) recommending that S.B. No. 987, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Shimabukuro, for the Committee on Human Services & Housing presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1782) recommending that H.R. No. 276, as amended in HD 1, be adopted; and (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1783) recommending that H.C.R. No. 344, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 276, HD 1, and H.C.R. No. 344, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. I want to first of all, thank the very compassionate and very, I believe, wise Chair and Vice Chair of the Human Services Committee and commend them, because I think that this measure can go a far way in being the solution to any possibility of abandoned babies.

"You know this project, Project Cuddle, is what it's called. But it's recognized as a successful, safe and legal alternative to abandonment of babies and is the result of one woman's crusade to prevent infants from being illegally abandoned. It basically approaches the root of the problem which is education. When a woman is very nervous about it, maybe anxious, she understands that she, if she has this number, then she can do the right thing and the baby's taken care of in the right way. And it's all the result of one woman's crusade, Debbie Magnusen and her husband Dave who fostered over thirty drug exposed babies, raising two of their own biological children and eventually adopting five more. And it's a crisis line. It's where people can call and say, 'I've got a problem. I need help.' And I think it's a wonderful solution to a problem of abandonment. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also stand in support of both Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1782 and 1783. I think this will be an excellent additional program added to the State.

"I should note that nothing precludes any private citizen from introducing this to Hawaii. And I will say this; the important thing on hearing both the Concurrent Resolution and Resolution was that the fact that there are 20,000 newborn babies abandoned every year. I think for me, as well as the Committee members, that was the most compelling and daunting statistic that we heard from that hearing. Again, 20,000 newborn babies abandoned every year.

"So I think this is a substantial step in the right direction. However, I do think that this Resolution can also work with the measure that we have moving through the Senate. They can work in concert to help save newborn babies. So again, I stand in strong support of this measure and I'm glad that it recognizes that we have approximately 20,000 newborn babies abandoned every year. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating"

"I just did want to clarify that the testimony did say 20,000 babies in the nation of the U.S."

Representative Waters, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1789) recommending that S.B. No. 1956, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1956, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1789 which basically questions the wisdom of our forefathers and the way that they protected small states like Hawaii from the big states in voting contests, even though maybe once every 200 years there will be such a close tie that we've got to add up all the popular votes and throw out the Electoral College.

"Let's face it. We are one of the smallest in the country and the present system of Electoral College has served us better. Some of the doubts were constitutionally mentioned. How can we actually do this? Can it be 'implementable'? And basically our need is not to improve the process, but improve the voters to get out and actually vote. Not worrying about ties, but worrying about the decreasing number of people not showing up.

"Mr. Speaker, Hawaii's unique. I think we have a system that's unique. It was crafted many years ago. It's worked well and as I've said many times on this Floor, if it's not broke, don't fix it. And if it only breaks once every 200 years, I think that's not a bad ratio. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As a direct descendant of one of those forefathers, I cast a no vote on this."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. Under this proposal, the State would become a part of an interstate compact that would require member states to determine the winner of a presidential election by popular vote.

"Under this proposal, it's conceivable that a majority in your state could vote against a presidential candidate and that your state could actually have, by the majority, voted for the loser in a presidential election. By this compact, it's my understanding that if you agree to this, then your electors from your state would have to vote in favor of the winner of the election. I think that is not a good outcome. So Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to this bill."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly. I think what I wanted to say was this is really something that we need some more thoughtful debate about. Because what this is saying is, are we really going to be saying that every vote counts and that every vote is equal? Or that some votes are more equal than others? And that is really the problem that we have today with the current electoral system.

"Now people have said, are we going to be questioning the wisdom of our forefathers and I think we really need to look at what they created. At that time, we all remember that slaves were worth three-fifths of a person. And that wasn't for their right to vote, but that was in the Constitution so that when it came to apportionment and how they were going to decide how to structure the federal government, those slave states wanted to have a bigger population, three-fifths of a person, so that they'd have a bigger representation. And so that translated into the Electoral College because what the founding forefathers wanted to do was to make sure that everybody, even those that were into state's rights, were willing to sign onto this big agreement and not feel that their power was going to be diminished.

"Now I agree, if some people may be concerned that there's a provincial need because Hawaii is a small state. But what we need to do is look at the bigger picture. Is the way we are electing our president currently, the best way to do it? And I would posit that that probably is not so. When you look at the statistics, actually, 99% of current campaign funds for presidential election, all get spent in only 17 states. Seventeen states eat up 99% of the funds. And what this does is makes it so that those 17 states, those toss-up states, are the only ones that the presidential candidates go and visit and go campaign in. And those 17 states allow the debate and the actual agenda of the entire country to be set. Then what happens is the presidential candidates do not even campaign in states where they know it's a foregone conclusion, which way it's going to go. They only go to the toss-up states.

"So it's this reason I think that we need to start looking at are there alternative ways in which we should have our presidential election decided. I would say that I'm not entirely confident that this is the best way, but after 200 years of the Electoral College, I think we need to start looking at a different way. There have been four elections where our national popular vote has not decided who the president is, and instead it went strictly by the Electoral College. That's a very big question for us. Four presidents in our entire nation's history has been decided not by the nation's discretion and who they wanted, but actually by this anachronistic system that really has sort of dismantled the fundamental tenets of democracy which is every person's vote should be treated equally. That is why I'm in strong support."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"I think there was great wisdom in a few of the points except for one, Mr. Speaker. And having spent three of my four years at USAID writing a book on money and politics, presidential elections are so expensive. It's hundreds of millions of dollars just to get to the seventeen states even though Hawaii is so small, probably we're not going to have too many people being flown out here.

"But my point is we're trying to keep money and politics down. A lot of people in this body are for clean elections. Let's keep it down. If we're saying we want to have more presidential candidates go all around the fifty states, I think we've not even seen the beginning of the costs. We know that some of our candidates have already raised, 20 or 25 million dollars, and it's way out before the season's even beginning. So maybe we can sell Christmas trees in May if we produce it and we start advertising them early enough, but it's going to be costly. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative B. Oshiro be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in opposition. This has been a debate that is not new to any legislature and any civic classroom. And it's one that goes on oftentimes. It's one that often comes about as honestly, also when one is disappointed. And it is a very complex issue and there are some very good arguments I believe, on either side. I would like additional written comments, please. I think that to pass something like this is a bit premature. Thank you."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in opposition S.B. 1956, Relating to the Agreement Among the states to Elect the President by National Popular Vote.

"The Electoral College forces candidates to appeal to and address concerns of voters who live in both urban and rural areas. They have to in order to win the state and get its electoral votes. Without the Electoral College, candidates would just focus on campaigning in metropolitan areas without having to worry about the very different issues and concerns of rural areas which have smaller populations. This likely will result in large urban centers controlling the election of the President and therefore, the direction of the nation. We as legislators must be mindful against giving this power over so easily to states more populous than Hawaii."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Just in opposition. This was created so that small states like ours would be more important. And if we do change to the popular vote, we can definitely guarantee that there will be no campaigning in Hawaii."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support. Just to repeat what the Majority Floor Leader said as well. But also just that in my experience, even in my district, people are really disgusted with the Electoral College. They saw what happened in 2000. And people continually talk to me. Well, I don't vote because what does it matter? You know, those four will go wherever they want to go. These electorals will get it this way." They don't even understand it. So whatever we can do to look at other alternative solutions, I think it's going to help people see that we're trying to do something, to bring some kind of sense to this kind of strange thing that we call, 'voting for a President'. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1956, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE AGREEMENT AMONG THE STATES TO ELECT THE PRESIDENT BY NATIONAL POPULAR VOTE," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Belatti, Ching, Meyer, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Souki and Takamine being excused.

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"I oppose S.B. 1010, Relating to Certified Public Accountants, which eliminates the ability for government experience to satisfy the experience requirement of the Certified Public Accountant license

"Under current law, an applicant for a CPA license must complete two years of experience, either by working for a CPA firm or by doing comparable accounting work in government or private industry under the guidance of a licensed CPA. This bill would change the law to provide that only experience working for a CPA firm can count toward the two-year requirement for licensing. Comparable experience in government or industry would not be considered.

"There is no rational basis for eliminating the option to substitute government accounting or auditing work for public accounting experience based on the following reasons: 1) much of the accounting and auditing work performed in government, including that of the office of State Auditor Marion Higa, is on par with that of a public accounting firm; 2) any candidate for licensure, regardless of work environment, must be directly supervised by a CPA; and 3) the validity of government accounting and auditing experience to substitute for public accounting experience is examined by, and subject to approval by, the Board of Accountancy.

"Proponents of this bill attempt to justify changing the experience requirements in order to protect public interest. Yet, this bill eliminates the accounting education requirement for taking the examination. The lowering of the education standard is inconsistent with the assertion that current law is not stringent enough. Hawaii would be the only State that would not require an accounting education to sit for the CPA exam. I am perplexed by this inconsistency in SB 1010, SD1. How would lowering education standards protect the public?"

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Green rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1010, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Belatti, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Luke, Marumoto, Meyer, Morita, Pine, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Thielen, Ward and Yamane voting no, and with Representatives Souki and Takamine being excused.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, please note that S.B. 866, S.D. 1, H.D. 1 has been re-referred solely to Committee on Tourism and Culture per Committee Referral Sheet No. 48 that was placed on your desk yesterday. The Committee on Judiciary waived its referral to this measure and, therefore, it's appropriate for the House to consider the action for passage on Third Reading."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the rules were suspended to reconsider action previously taken on S.B. No. 866, SD 1, HD 1. (Representatives Berg, Herkes, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro and Takai were excused.)

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative Caldwell moved that the House reconsider its action previously taken pursuant to the recommendation contained in Standing Committee Report No. 1312, recommending referral to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Berg, Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro were excused.)

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering bills on Third Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar. (Representatives Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro were excused.)

S.B. 866, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 866, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I believe that this is a bill that changes how the Board of Directors are selected to the Tourism Board. It takes away a great deal of the power that the Governor had. It also creates positions for people in various areas. This is very much like the bill that we've already passed on how to select the Board of Regents. It's one of those 109 bills that have been moving through the Legislature for the last four years. I simply cannot support it and I hope that many others in this Chamber will also vote no. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think she may be talking about a different measure. This measure is addressing the two-year break between being on the Board of HTA, versus being on the Board of HVCB. Right now, there are rules that state that.

"People in the industry supported this bill, Mr. Speaker. Basically, because HVCB falls under HTA, it addresses the issue of the appropriateness of having one board member moving back and forth. So this will actually ensure or encourage more autonomy and reduce any concern of special interest. It has nothing to do directly with the issue of specialized appointments. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I think this bill actually comes from a recommendation with the Special Master's Report to the Hawaii Tourism Authority on recommendation regarding the Hawaii Visitors and Convention Bureau dated December 31, 2003. So I think we're just following the Special Master's recommendation. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate that clarification. In looking at this Order of the Day just saying, 'Relating to Tourism, Hawaii Tourism Authority Board of Directors', I had this mixed up with another bill. Thank you. I would like to have the Clerk change my vote from no to yes."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 866, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TOURISM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro being excused.

No. 82, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROCLAIMING APRIL 30 OF EVERY YEAR AS HAWAIIAN RESTORATION DAY," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Herkes, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro and Souki being excused.

Representative Ito, for the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1794) recommending that H.C.R. No. 292, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 233 and H.C.R. No. 292, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose in support of both measures and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of H.R. 233 and H.C.R. 292, which recognize the Nuuanu-Liliha Historic Corridor.

"Historic corridors are geographic areas containing buildings, sites, objects, and vistas of natural, historic, geographic, or architectural significance. They are associated with persons or events important to understanding the history and culture of Hawaii.

"The Nuuanu-Liliha corridor uniquely reflects the three major eras of Hawaii's dynamic history, from pre-unification of the islands by Kamehameha the Great, to the monarchy period, and finally to the pre-Statehood era. The area houses one of only three royal palaces in the nation, as well as the location where King Kamehameha defeated his last opponent and unified the Hawaiian Islands. There are numerous sites that enjoy the distinction of being listed on either the State or National Historic Registries, or both, including the Queen Emma Summer Palace and Grounds, the Sanju Pagoda, and the Kawananakoa Playground. In addition to these iconic historic locations, Nuuanu houses the Walker Estate, built in1905, which features what is thought to be the oldest Japanese gardens in Honolulu and is one of the last homes of its kind remaining in the area. Liliha is said to be the birthplace of saimin, and home of the first L&L Drive-In, now a national chain, which opened on Liliha Street in 1959. Our very own Ellis Island, the area reflects all of Hawaii through its myriad of multicultural temples, its quaint "frozen in time" mom and pop stores from the 1940s and 1950s pre-Statehood days, and most obviously, some of the most important natural and cultural resources of our State and nation.

"The Chieftess Liliha, namesake of the Liliha area, is home to many religious denominations, from the Ma'ema'e Chapel (1863) to the Young Buddhist Association (1900) to St. Luke's Episcopal Church (1903) to the Korean Christian Church (1918). Liliha reflects many of the State's health systems, with Kuakini Health Systems, St. Francis Medical Center, Rehabilitation Hospital of the Pacific, and almost two dozen additional medical clinics and therapy centers. The area, which houses four of the State's consulates, is named after the important historical figure Chieftess Liliha, Governess of Oahu and was selected by students of Farrington High School as the subject of the documentary "Triumph and Tragedy: The Story of Chieftess Liliha," debuting early May.

"I ask your support for these Resolutions towards the preservation of Hawai`i's unique cultural heritage."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 233, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE NUUANU-LILIHA CORRIDOR AS THE NUUANU-LILIHA HISTORIC CORRIDOR," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Herkes, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro and Souki being excused; and

H.C.R. No. 292, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE NUUANU-LILIHA CORRIDOR AS THE NUUANU-LILIHA HISTORIC CORRIDOR," was adopted, with Representatives Carroll, Herkes, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro and Souki being excused.

Representatives Cabanilla and Green, for the Committee on International Affairs and the Committee on Health presented two reports:

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1796) recommending that H.C.R. No. 129, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the reports of the Committees be adopted, and that H.R. No. 103 and H.C.R. No. 129, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1795 and 1796. This is a bill dealing with the Global Gag Rule. The bill is requesting our Congressional delegation to support the Global Democracy Promotion Act which would repeal the Global Gag Rule and release funds for family planning programs in international countries.

"When President Bush was elected to office, one of the legs he campaigned on was the fact that he was a pro-life candidate. He was elected by a large majority of Americans. So, one of the first things he did after he was inaugurated was ask for this Global Gag Rule, which in essence would say that we would send money for assistance to international countries, but we would not allow any of those dollars to be spent for abortions. The money could be used for contraception, but not for abortions. To help in disease, but not in abortions. And in many ways, we sent thousands and thousands of dollars. But the Gag Rule was that none of those dollars would be used to kill a child in utero.

"I would not want to be a party to this. I felt that it was a very courageous thing that the President did and so I would like to register a very strong no on these two Resolutions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I rise to cast a very strong aye vote on this measure. Mr. Speaker, if Members will take a look at the Resolutions' language, and I'm going to read from one of the paragraphs: 'Whereas, the Global Gag Rule bans foreign family planning programs that receive financial aid from the United States from using their own monies to provide counseling on abortion services, family planning advocacy referrals and other services to women.' In other words, the Gag Rule says to these foreign family planning programs, that you can't use your own money, your own money, to provide counseling on abortion services, family planning advocacy referrals, and other services to women.

"I'm ashamed of the Gag Rule, Mr. Speaker, and I think that passing this Resolution sends a clear message to our Congressional Delegation that we want them to move ahead and repeal the Gag Rule. Thank you,"

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to incorporate the words of the Representative from Kailua as if they were my own, and I would also like to join her in saying I think it's a very shameful thing that our country has done. The last time I looked, women in our country, in our State, have the right to choose. And yet we have an Administration at the federal level that wants to deny that right to women throughout the world, who have access to funds that are being denied to them because of a policy handed down to these NGOs, if they're mixing federal money with money obtained, whether it be from the Gates Foundation or from other organizations.

"It's shameful, and we should allow family planning to be promoted throughout the world. And the idea of being told about the use of an abortion is something that's part of that. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"I rise in opposition to the measure. Having worked at USAID where we have given out literally hundreds of thousands, and billions of condoms, we have done more for family planning that any other nation. And I can see by the essence of what's being said on the Floor, this is a very divisive issue, not only in our country, but in the world. It comes up in the UN all the time.

"It's essentially a coalition of some of the Americans and the Muslim countries that have kept out abortions out of the mainstream of international development. So, what we've got here is essentially as the first speaker said, it's not that your country cannot use your own funds. It's just saying don't mix it up with U.S. money funding those abortions.

"And abortions are going on all over the world, so, this is not denying anybody from doing abortions. Most countries have chosen not to use abortion, and we are increasingly, as a nation, decreasing abortions. In fact, in Hawaii, the number of abortions have gone down by the hundreds over the last ten or fifteen years, even though family planning for abortions has decreased. So less money has actually resulted in less abortions in this country because the trend is the more we realize that those are children in the womb, the more we realize this is a life, not a choice, and that's where the direction of this bill is going to reverse what, in effect, as the previous speaker has said, is a very bold stand for life. Our country began with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That's what this is about. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I just want to make two points to correct some historical inaccuracies the first speaker made. The current President Bush did not win by an overwhelming majority in this country. President Bush got 50.7% of the popular vote and John Kerry got 48.3%. By no means is that a landslide victory.

"The second point, Mr. Speaker, the 62 million voters in this country that voted for the current President, I suspect, voted for him for broad range of reasons, not necessarily and simply because he happens to be pro-life. Now for the life of me, I don't know why anybody voted for the current President, but that's my personal opinion. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"I rise in support and I would like to have the words of the Majority Leader and the Representative from Kailua entered as my own. And I'd just like to enter written comments.

"Actually, I want to say that this really isn't about abortion, so I wish we could get off of that subject. Basically, the Global Gag Rule is an unjustified intrusion into the private physician-patient relationship and it prevents women from receiving certain necessary healthcare services. So I urge all my colleagues to vote in favor of this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, I think we would all agree that for the most part, people should be able to run their own affairs without the intervention of others. This is especially true when "others" means another country.

"At the beginning of our current President's administration a policy known as the "global gag rule" was enacted that essentially bans foreign NGO's in countries that receive financial aid from the United States from using their own moneys to provide counseling on family planning services, family planning advocacy, referrals and other services to women. It is one thing to restrict the use of U.S. funds entering other countries but to restrict the use of a country's own funds goes against the fundamental concept of our democracy.

"These Resolutions request Hawaii's congressional delegation to support the Global Democracy Promotion Act, which would repeal the "global gag rule" and release much-needed funds for international family planning programs.

"The "global gag rule" is an unjustified intrusion into the private physician-patient relationship that prevents women from receiving certain necessary healthcare services and I urge all my colleagues to vote in favor of these Resolutions. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. While the Chairman of Education brings up this close election, I did not say, 'the majority'. I said, 'a large majority of people'. I didn't say, 'won by an overwhelming majority'. We all know that was a close race. It's just the fact that he had the guts to stand up for what he said he believed in, which few politicians do. They've always got their finger up to the wind to see, well, who am I going to make mad here?

"We're looking at a belief that it's not right to kill a human being and that's what he was standing up for, and that's what I'm standing up for. It's just ironic, I think, that we have such strong feelings about not removing any funds so that some woman can't have an abortion, when we argue vehemently here that we must do everything possible to protect a brand new child from being dumped in the back of a truck or in the garbage can. What's the difference? Life is life.

"This is a waste of paper, requesting Hawaii's Congressional delegation to support this. Mr. Speaker, we know the position of the four Congressional members from this State. They will all go along with this. They don't need us to encourage them. This has always been their position. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support with a small amount of reservation on it. This matter was first heard in my Committee and I allowed it to be scheduled for hearing because I believe that education is a great part in population control. And in those countries in the world, there are a lot of women in poverty with too many children. And family planning deals a lot with education, but not necessarily abortion, Mr. Speaker. It's very, very unfortunate that this good measure by my colleague from Mililani who introduced these Resolutions are being taken so negatively. We need to educate all the women citizens in the world about their options, about things that they can do to control the number of children that they will have, especially they don't have the means to provide for them.

"We in this country are very strongly for education and we believe that every woman should be educated in their options and in their family planning. We should extend that to the rest of the world, Mr. Speaker. And passing this measure is an important step towards that direction. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak very strongly in favor of these Resolutions for two particular reasons. One, I had the honor of being one of the first in the State to run a family planning program on Maui that later extended statewide. That was a number of years ago. And the family planning program does not only include contraception and abortions and those kinds of things. It includes education mostly, as the previous speaker mentioned, on the need for planning and spacing your intervals in your relationships. And, in fact, it follows a lot of the religious principles where you have your relations within certain times and not in other times. And through this process of education, you can have a planned family.

"Now, the other item is the crusade syndrome that this nation of ours has. That we need to impose our will and our feelings to every country throughout the world. This is what makes many nations in the world despise us; that we know better than them. That unless you follow our will and our dictate, we will not give you any funding. We will not give you any assistance. I believe we need to recognize that there are nations in the world that think differently than we do, and we must be more tolerant of them. Hopefully, with these Resolutions and what the Congress is attempting to pass would lead us to provide for more tolerance of differences among people and among nations. Thank you very much."

"Just a statistical footnote. If you look at the 192 countries in the United Nations, just for the record, the majority of those are pro-life. That's just the fact. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In support. I would like to have the words of the Representative from Kailua inserted as my own. I'd like to commend the actions of AID, Agency for International Development, for giving out and distributing condoms as mentioned by the Hawaii Kai Representative. I feel that this is an excellent family planning device, but also it helps to stop the spread of AIDS. This is a very important prevention item that we should keep. Thank you very much."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"This is a very brief comment. Mr. Speaker, in support. I have concerns about any statement that would suggest what a country is. To say a country is pro-life, I think, is an absolute mistake. A person may be pro-life, or a person may be pro-choice, but they are people out there after all. And I think that every person has a right to make a choice for their own family. I think that's where we should all, as human beings, and not dictate as countries what others will do.

"So I would take issue with this position that we should tell a country what to do. Or have another country tell us what to do. I know, as Americans, we would object to that vehemently. So, I stand in support and I would hope that we will look out for people, especially women around the world, to make their own choices, whether they are pro-life or pro-choice. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, this is your third time speaking …"

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"My final statistical footnote …"

Representative Takai rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. This is his third speaking turn."

Vice Speaker Karamatsu: "Representative Ward, the Chair will rule that …"

Representative Ward: "Yes, exactly what the speaker just said. Thank you. He just reminded me. Do you want to say it again?"

At 1:04 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:05 o'clock p.m.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Yes, just in opposition. I'm not against education, and I'm definitely against telling other countries what they can and cannot do. I don't think repealing this Act would fix the problem that some people think has being created. I think there are good things and bad things in the Act. The good things I'd like to keep in there, but not repeal the whole thing."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a point of personal privilege. A statistical footnote. That nations are pro-life, and if the gentleman who said they are not, I would suggest to get a ticket to go to any Muslim nation in the world to see that individuals may have their choice."

Representative Takai rose to a point of order, stating:

"The speaker is speaking on the issue and this is his third speaking turn. I apologize, but the rules are the rules. It is not a point of order or point of personal privilege.

Representative Ward: "It's not a point?"

At 1:07 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:09 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committees were adopted and H.R. No. 103, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING HAWAII'S CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION TO SUPPORT THE GLOBAL DEMOCRACY PROMOTION ACT, WHICH WOULD REPEAL THE "GLOBAL GAG RULE" AND RELEASE MUCH-NEEDED FUNDS FOR INTERNATIONAL FAMILY PLANNING PROGRAMS," was adopted, with Representatives Finnegan, Meyer, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Herkes, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro and Souki being excused; and

Representative Caldwell moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 232 and H.C.R. No. 291, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support for Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1799 and 1800. Mr. Speaker, Taiwan has a population of 23 million and these Resolutions are just asking that Taiwan get observer status to the World Health Organization. They're not asking for membership. The reason for that is they have already dealt with SARS and the avian flu.

"As we know, diseases that are pandemic do not have any borders. It's not limited to one state or one country. That's a global concern. And Taiwan would like to offer its knowledge of both SARS and avian flu to the World Health Organization. In addition, if they were allowed to be observers, they could also get invaluable information that deal with these two major concerns. So, for those foregoing reasons, I stand in support of both Resolutions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm casting a no vote on this as well, and may I give a few brief remarks? Mr. Speaker, for those Members who weren't here in 1999, I wanted to explain what happened then. The Legislature increased the rental motor vehicle tax from $2.00 to $3.00 a day with the guarantee back then that that increase of a dollar would be eliminated in 2007.

"The situation we have now is that once we have a tax in place, even though we give a guarantee that it will be a temporary tax, once that tax is in place, you can be guaranteed it will be permanent.

"There was a lot of discussion, a lot of opposition to that bill originally in 1999 because it hurt our local people as they went to the Neighbor Islands or came to Oahu and had to rent a vehicle. They were assessed that additional tax. So, we felt that at least by being temporary it would be something that would live its life out and then it would be eliminated.

"I'm really sorry to see this move ahead. I think that those people that don't like to tax our local residents when they take a Neighbor Island trip might want to consider, on Third Reading, voting against this bill. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. This bill here is a little deviation from what came out of the Transportation Committee. And I understand that the Finance Committee has the prerogative to make changes in the bill, so, I have no quarrel with that. But my concern, and I wish to speak with reservations, is that it doesn't provide fairness in the tax issue and the tax is only for the rental cars. It doesn't include the tour buses and tour vehicles.

"To provide some equality, if you're going to have an increase, it should be to both. I don 't understand the reason why it did not happen that way, but hopefully, as it moves along and there's some differences, that they can provide some fairness in this bill here. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with reservations. As the Representative from Kailua said, this had a sunset date on it so the industry was counting on that extra dollar going away and going back to $2.00. But somewhere along the process here, this bill had actually raised it to $4.00. In this draft, it's gone back to $3.00.

"So, I guess I can vote aye because we're not increasing it. I'm not for increasing taxes, but on the other hand, because of previous Legislatures, Mr. Speaker, raiding funds from the Highway Fund, our Department of Transportation finds itself pretty much strapped for dollars, so with that in mind, that is why I can support this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I rise in support with reservations. I would like first to incorporate the words of the Chairman of the Committee on Transportation as though they were my own. Thank you very much. Also, Mr. Speaker, I'm intrigued by his comments and I reserve my final vote for Third Reading. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with slight, mild, inconsequential reservations. I actually want to praise the bill because it really updates us. It gets to be modern. We're going to make electronic filing a requirement. I have all the trust in the Department of Taxation as I have with the Governor's Office, but you know, this bill says' trust me' because it says the Director may require everybody to file electronically.

"At last estimation, I think 60%, 70% of the people may be online. And not that he would cause them to do it. I just don't think we should give the 'shall' in this particular measure, but insert a 'may' so that those who cannot file will not be required to go out and buy a computer. And those who are old, who don't want anything to do with computers, won't be forced to do that. So, it's a good step in the right direction, but I think it may have some difficulties by having that all inclusive language. Having good directors that we can trust is good, but who knows what may happen in the future."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1504, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRONIC FILING OF TAX RETURNS," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro being excused.

S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Having first hand knowledge of how the Legislative vacancy process was worked in the recent past, I think this bill will be a tremendous improvement and I support it wholeheartedly. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. When the framers of our State government and Constitution got together, they recognized the need for accountability of our elected officials. They also recognized that the Executive, the Governor, should be given the power to make appointments. One of the appointments of the Governor has always made is filling the legislative vacancies, and that Governor, whether he or she is Democrat or Republican has fulfilled that responsibility of making an appointment from the same political party as the legislator who vacated the position. Whether you agree with the actual appointments, the facts tell us that all our Governors have fulfilled this constitutional responsibility.

"Further, the Governor is accountable for his or her appointments because the governor is elected. The people have a right to voice their opinion on his or her performance at the next election. But this bill is accountable to no one. The process of selecting replacements is put in the hands of party leaders. Some might even call them 'party hacks'. These political types or 'party animals', if you will, aren't elected by the citizens of the State, and as such, are not accountable to the people of the State. Thus, their decision is nothing more than a political one, not a constitutional responsibility.

"For these reasons, I suggest we do what the framers of our State government and State Constitution had in mind several decades ago, and just leave it alone. The process works just fine the way it is. I urge all of my colleagues to vote no. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. It's interesting to hear the debate on this issue and also to reflect back on some of their recent op-ed pieces regarding some of the things we do here in the Legislature. And I think all of us can look at this issue from a constitutional prospective and the three branches of government, and the balance of power, and that we actually are doing our constitutional duty.

"Mr. Speaker, the founders were very concerned about this in making sure that no one branch had more power than the other and made it ambiguous around the edges as to who had the power to do what. In the Federalist papers they wrote about that. In Federalist 51, and we don't know whether it was Hamilton or Madison who actually wrote it, it said something very interesting that I think holds true to this very day. It says, 'In order to lay a due foundation for the separation and distinct exercise of the different powers of government, it is evident that each department should have a will of its own and consequentially, should be constituted that the members of each should have as little agency as possible in the appointment of members of the others.'

"In other words, we don't appoint the Governor, and the Governor may appoint legislators, but that we weigh in on how that process is done. And what's very interesting, Mr. Speaker, is it's outlined in our State Constitution and our federal Constitution, which we swore to uphold on the first day of this Session, each and every one of us. And, as a result, we're doing our constitutional duty as we exercise our rights as a Legislative Branch. This isn't about Democrats versus Republicans, or Republicans versus Democrats. It's about our constitutional rights.

"In 1963, we adopted the procedure we have today in that the Governor picks, but it has to be from the same party. And that was done under Governor Burns' time as Governor, one of the founders of the modern Democratic Party, along with Senator Inouye and others. This legislative body, controlled by Democrats, told our Democratic Governor, you did not have a free choice under our Constitution and under the federal Constitution. And that instead we were going to restrict your choice and make sure that you selected a Democrat on good policy reasons, or a good Republican on good policy reasons, if that preceding Democrat or Republican couldn't finish their term. And that has held true up to this day. Let's look at what's happened since then because there are many examples of inconsistent appointments that I think today we're trying to correct to make sure that it's done a little better.

"Governors Burns, Ariyoshi, Waihee, Cayetano, and now, Governor Lingle, have done it in different ways. Under the four Democratic governors, it was usually a sitting or a formerly elected Representative who would be appointed to that position and it was done in many, many different ways. Under Governor Burns, for example, Doc Hill, the famous Doc Hill from my hometown of Hilo, was not going to serve anymore and he begged the Governor to appoint his business partner Richard Henderson to replace him. Doc Hill, like he is, said, 'If you don't, I'll come back to haunt you.' And the Governor went ahead and he appointed Richard Henderson who served with distinction as a Republican for many years and has had lasting impact on the Legislature.

"Under Governor Ariyoshi, we now have Senator David Ige who as he rushed into the Governor's mansion, signed the Democratic Party card, met the Governor for the first time, and became a Representative. That's how it was done under Governor Ariyoshi.

"Under Governor Waihee, he was lucky enough to appoint 15 different members to the Legislature. Some of those members included Ezra Kanoho, Representative Bertha Kawakami, and current Senator, Les Ihara. And it was done in many different ways. What's interesting to note is that in 1986, Governor Waihee appointed advertising executive, Ray Milici. Some of us may remember Milici Valenti one of the great PR advertising firms of our State, to replace Donna Ikeda, who was going to fill Senator Buddy Soares' incompleted term. He went and appointed Mr. Milici, and then he had to retract it because it was determined that he didn't live in the district that Donna Ikeda lived in."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you, Majority Floor Leader. I appreciate it. Under Ben Cayetano's term as Governor in 1997, Senator Matsuura could not complete his term sadly due to his battle with cancer. The Governor flew to Hilo to meet with the Senator, and the Senator made his wishes known. He asked that his son be appointed, and if not his son, since many people said that would not be appropriate, then please, former Senator Stanley Hara. If not Stanley Hara, then the head of one of the unions in Hilo, public school union or a principal of one of the public schools. The Governor did not take the Senator's advice, his suggestions and instead appointed Mr. Wayne Metcalf to complete his term.

"And then in 2000, Senator Randy Iwase went on to serve, to be appointed to the Labor and Industrial Relations Board, so Representative Menor, now Senator Menor, was assigned to replace him, and Randy Iwase's then Office Manager, Charlotte Nekota, went on to be appointed to Senator Menor's seat. A different way each time, and different choices were made.

"Under the current Governor, there was one situation where one of our Representatives took a job to address the Kahoolawe situation. The Governor appointed a committee to select that member. It included a Democrat. Senator Ihara, in fact. And they made an excellent choice. And that person serves in our body with distinction to this day and is one of our true leaders and the leader of our Hawaiian Caucus.

"Then, we had the Minority Leader who resigned, and the Governor in that case did not appoint a committee and made a selection of someone who was well liked and respected in this body.

"And then, last, but not least, we had a situation where Representative Hiraki did not complete his term and so the Governor ignored the request of the Democratic Party which listed three well-qualified people who lived in the district a long time and served in different ways, whether it be on the Neighborhood Board. The Governor rejected those suggestions and chose someone who recently moved to the district and recently became a member of the Democratic Party. And after it was determined and proven that this woman had several criminal convictions, the Governor asked this person to resign. She refused to. She continued to serve until she ran again. She lost and we have the current Representative from Downtown, who is serving with great distinction.

"The reason why I run through this, Mr. Speaker, is that there are all kinds of ways that Democrats and Republicans have selected people to replace people who have not been able to complete their terms. Inconsistent. I think as a policy, we are attempting to make it a little more consistent by making the rules clearer, by building on the policy that was previously set under Governor Burns that says you have to pick a member of the same party. Or if they're independent, then another independent person. And there's nothing wrong with that, and it has nothing to do with being partisan. It has everything to do with enforcing our rights under the Constitution as a Legislative branch of government.

"And so I encourage everyone to support this legislation. It's the right thing to do as Members of this body to uphold our Constitution.

Representative McKelvey rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, and I appreciate your time and I hope everyone votes for this important piece of legislation. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I want to thank the Majority Leader for that historical lesson. It's because of those very same reasons I'm voting against it. He pointed out numerous inconsistencies that Governors have had in the past of how they have appointed people in the Legislature and the United States Senate, yet, not once did the Democrat Majority try to change this law. Why are we doing it under a Republican Governor?

"To me that is inconsistent. That is wrong. And to say that we're changing this law mainly because we want to uphold the Constitution, I think the cynic who's observed 109 bills, Mr. Speaker, of trying to take away the power of just this one Governor, has to say it's a little hard to believe."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Listening to all this history by the Majority Leader, it makes me want to applaud him for knowing so much about what has happened in the past. However, I need to oppose this bill for these particular reasons. I don't like this bill because of the provision that three people have to be selected by a political party. I think it goes way beyond what we're trying to correct with the appointment that's gone wrong, apparently done by this current Governor. And for the record, she made two out of three, so two out of three ain't bad. But the one bad appointment can be cured without having this provision.

"I don't think it is for our own good as either Republicans, Democrats or whatever party, to have our own party select the replacement to be given to the Governor. The reason for that is historically, if we can look at how parties have not been consistent or not been in line with the Representatives or legislators in these Houses. I think we can all agree that there is a huge disconnect between the party and the legislators. Also the members of these parties do not necessarily represent our constituencies.

"Until such time as we can see that at least for this Representative, that if I see that there is an objective party system, an objective leadership in the parties where they can stay out in primaries, stay out of primaries where people from the same parties are vying for the same position. If the party can prove through our leadership, can prove that they can stay out of this party, then maybe I may be able to support this bill in its entirety, and say, 'Yes, I trust the leadership of these parties to come up with the three names.

"The way that we have this set up in this particular bill, it ensures that it goes way beyond the concept of who you know. How do you get to the short list? How do you get to be one of those three people in this list without having to compromise certain things? And you know giving power to a political party that may not necessarily be holding the interest of your constituency is not a good thing. Therefore, I'm voting no, but only for that particular reason. I think the rest of the provisions in this bill are good. Thank you very much."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I have brief comments, Mr. Speaker. I do recognize the comments of the previous speaker. I've actually voted no on this bill in the past, but I'm now, after a year looking at it, I'm supporting it.

"I just wanted to question in my mind, out loud, the statements that were made by the Representative from Kaimuki about 'party animals' and 'hacks' because I think we have to recognize first of all that our current Governor used to be that person. To my recollection, she was the Chair of the Party, and she would have been in the position to deal with this law, so I don't think we should call our Governor a 'hack' or a 'party animal', for one. I do think we actually have to offer our party people a little more respect because they're volunteering time in those capacities and it's a tough job to deal with appointments.

"The second point I was going to make was the appointment that has caused a lot of concern was a nightmare. That Representative, who I actually like as a person, didn't live in the district and may not have even been a party member. And so we lost our way on that appointment. I think that that has spurred quite a mess, because we should remember that the Governor herself asked that person not to accept the appointment when lots of things came to light. That person became recalcitrant and wouldn't even listen to the Governor. So it was an utter mess and I think that we should be honest and say that that's what spurred a lot of this debate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. And being a former Communications Director for a political party which did choose Representative Rhoads, but was not chosen by the Governor, I stand in support of this measure. I'm glad that the Representative is here. Sometimes I'm in somewhat of a conflict because my legislator had left, and the Governor chose a candidate. Then I experienced that race later on. I think this is a good bill and just from being on the inside in that way, I support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It looks like I've been called on the carpet for calling some names, and I will apologize to anybody who may be offended.

"I thank the Majority Leader for the history lesson, but his list of appointments just convinces me that we should continue to allow the Governor flexibility in selecting our replacements, so I'm even more in opposition to this measure. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I oppose this bill. This bill is masked as an issue of quality assurance, and of checks and balances. It is simply an issue of control; control lost by the Democrat party when Governor Lingle was elected in 2002. This bill does nothing to assure quality. In only assures that those Democrats with political aspirations must first be appointed by Democrat leadership. It is a gatekeeper's bill. What does this bill do for internal party politics? What it does is say, 'It's not your turn, Mr. Ed Case.'"

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations, Mr. Speaker. The current law may not be broken at all. It may mean we need to change it. I would like to point out that several years ago the Representative from Ewa Beach decided to leave his post and the Governor at that time who was a Democrat, picked a Republican person to occupy this seat.

"So I don't think that we should be changing the rules because the cards are turned. I'm in support with reservations. And that was my reservation that I just stated."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I guess I'm going to give an analogy. This is what I see. This as a metaphor for. If I were to send my husband or I send someone, I elect them, to go get me the best possible dinner. I'm working late and I want them to get me something that is wonderful. I send them to go get me something. I wouldn't appreciate it if when they got there, somebody else said, 'Oh, yeah. But you know that menu over there. We're going to decide for you what are those things that you can purchase or you can do.'

"What it comes down to is flexibility. It comes down to choice. It comes down to the absolute most, the best possible choice that could be made, and that's why I'm sending that person because I want them to make the best choice.

"The people send the Governor. The Governor picks a choice and if we narrow that choice. Is it doing the best for the people? That's my question. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting no on this. I will only read part of what I've prepared. The preamble to this legislation states that its purpose is to preserve the integrity of the election process and to assure the public that appointments to fill legislative vacancies are not based on political considerations or self-interest. It is inconceivable that any Member of this body could possibly believe that unelected heads of partisan political parties would make such selections on a nonpartisan, unbiased basis. That simply wouldn't happen, Mr. Speaker.

"What this bill will do is remove accountability from the process by insuring that all proposed replacements for any vacancies in the legislature or the U.S. Senate would closely mirror the political beliefs of the single unelected partisan party leader and would, thus, likely hold beliefs that vary widely from the wishes of the residence of the district.

"Under the current system, if the Governor makes a poor choice, he or she can be criticized severely in the press since the Governor is almost invariably a senior elected official with first hand knowledge of the consequences of making poor policy decisions. Also, as a politician elected on a statewide basis, the Governor invariably represents the constituents of whoever he or she would appoint. The heads of political parties on the other hand, are under far less of a constraint to obey the will of people who are not their constituents and who cannot vote them out of office. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 38 ayes to 9 noes, with Representatives Awana, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Sonson, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro being excused.

S.B. No. 1956:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1956, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I rise in support of this measure. First, I would like to request that the words from the Majority Floor Leader on Second Reading be entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takai continued, stating:

"I just wanted to mention just a couple of things. First of all, I think it's ironic during presidential years, the turnout in elections, especially in Hawaii, increases significantly. I don't think the voters of this State, or the people of this State, for that matter, understand that their vote in the presidential race actually is not a vote for the President, but more a vote for an elector who then goes to College and somehow decides to vote one way or the other.

"In fact, it even gets worse because if in a presidential election in Hawaii, one presidential candidate gets one more vote than the other presidential candidates, we all know that our four electoral votes goes to the winner, so everybody else, the 49.99% of the people that voted for the loser in Hawaii's presidential vote, gets no vote at the national level. I think this particular bill attempts to address that and that's why I'm supporting it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I've been voting for many, many years and have never been disappointed. I've never, of course, won all my elections, as many of you know. Not all my Floor fights or debates. But I've never questioned the system to the point to where we've got to change it, and I think this is an extension of our debate yesterday in Second Reading where somebody tried to historically link this to simply the issue of slavery, and to forego the issue that this is really the big states taking advantage of the small states. And as a small state, I think we need to stand in defense of who we are. How do we know that this was not something that New York and California has put together as kind of to bring us into so that we as a small entity could not be overlooked?

"The fact of the matter is that this bill makes the East and West Coasts superior to all of those in between and particularly ourselves in the Pacific. Under the present system, a presidential candidate must appeal to all or most region of the country to win. No one region or country passes over a majority of electoral votes. A candidate has to travel to different regions and appeal to different needs and worries to get the votes. Without the Electoral College, a candidate can just focus all of his or her energy to getting votes in two regions that are friendlier to the candidate while ignoring the other regions. We know that the two big regions are the East and the West Coast, New York and California.

"So, despite a small hiccup in 200 years, that is the 2000 vote where we did have a problem, the same reason why some of my colleagues had a problem with changing the way that we appoint that sort of vacancies. Just because the system doesn't work once, you don't destroy the system. When the lights go out with HECO, you don't say, 'Well that company is no longer reliable.' When we have a 2000 election that's so close, we don't way that the electoral system is no longer viable. We work within it. And I would say we shouldn't take the sucker-punch which probably the big states would love us to vote, for so they can have the advantage over small states like Hawaii. I don't think that's good policy, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm just rising with reservations on the measure and I appreciate the words from the previous speaker from Queen's Gate. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition with a few comments. I appreciate the debate that we had yesterday. In principle, I agree with the idea of a national popular vote for the presidential election. But as we all know, the devil is in the details with any piece of legislation. David Broder, a commentator with the Washington Post, says this about this proposal.

> With no runoff provision possible under this scheme, would fringe candidates be able to bargain for commitments as the price for staying out of the race? Would a Ralph Nader or a Pat Buchanan or a George Wallace have less leverage or more?' These are serious questions. When this constitutional amendment was being debated in Congress, Senators asked, what would it do to rural and urban constituencies, small states and large, minority populations and the two party system? Those issues need airing again before such a change is made. They were not seriously debated in the Maryland Legislature, and they are not likely to be in others. That's why this scheme for bypassing the amendment process is, despite its honorable sponsorship a really dubious proposition.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to again repeat that we need to consider this scenario. If Hawaii were to vote 70% to 30% in favor of Barak Obama in 2008, but say, a Rudy Giuliani or Mitt Romney, were to win 55% of the national vote, our electors would have to vote for Giuliani or Romney. How does this outcome represent the will of the people of this great State? Mr. Speaker, I think the better course for this matter is to have greater discussion within our communities and revisit this bill at another time. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. With reservations. One of the things I like is that, from what I'm understanding, is that the states are having this discussion. It's an agreement among the states and we were founded on homerule and the power from the people up, so I think it's good that this discussion is happening. I support it in that way.

"I'm just kind of concerned a little bit that this isn't an issue I've talked about with my constituents, so I'm not really sure how people will weigh in on this in the district that I represent. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support. This measure, the national popular vote, will reflect the will of the nation. We will elect our President by popular vote, which is the right thing to do.

"Currently, under this system, the Electoral College renders Hawaii voters irrelevant. How often do we find that the election is called when our polls are still open? Just about every time. I'm an optimist and I'm optimistic that this will pass. But I'm also a realist as well. And before this can take effect, you need a majority of states to buy into an interstate compact. I'm not so sure that's going to happen, but I am optimistic. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just in response. I don't think that Hawaii is rendered irrelevant. We just need to look at the last presidential election and look at how Vice President Dick Cheney came to our State because we were relevant. I don't agree with that statement. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I think it was mentioned earlier but I'm going to, I guess reiterate it. That when you have a popular vote versus an Electoral College, we're looking at it, of course, with majority population. So, if you take a look at the United States, the Midwest and a lot of that is more sparsely populated than are the coastal regions. So, actually, it is my belief and many people have debated this. And I said on Second Reading that this requires a lot of debate because it's been an issue for many years. People have discussed this question: Would Hawaii be relevant with our smaller population?

"You know, what you'd want to do probably is make sure you focus on California like was said by the Representative of Hawaii Kai. He'd want to focus on New York. He'd want to focus on the cities. Cities have a culture. Sometimes rural areas have a culture. I'm really gladdened by the fact that we have a Rural Caucus now. And I think that reflects, because they know that there are issues. The people who come from cities will not be completely as knowledgeable about certain things, or what hits them on a day-to-day basis, because there are issues there. So every region has its issues and like a family, people can be different and hang on to that. Terrific. It makes the family stronger.

"But if you were to minimize, nullify one of those cultures, which in some cases are farmers. That's our nation, too. You would nullify them? The nation is made up of great things, and great people, and great stories. And they need to have a voice, too. So, what you would have is you'd have the people who are all from a certain city, there's a lot of people there, and really being the one that the candidates would probably focus the majority of their time, in not, all of their time on

"I just wanted to say this. The President that I like a lot of what he did, he was elected by an the Electoral College. He inspired people. He didn't maybe pass a lot of things, but he inspired a lot of people. His name is John Kennedy. John F. Kennedy would not have won were it not for the Electoral College. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"First I'd like to declare a conflict. I am a descendant of Alexander Hamilton who is one of the proposers of the Electoral College," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine continued in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. I want to thank the Judiciary Chair for his words that I do believe he believes this. That by changing to the popular vote, it will be the will of the people. But if we do make this change, the popular vote will not reflect the will of Hawaii's people. One of the reasons why the electoral votes were created, is so that small, itty bitty states like Hawaii will have a voice.

"And in the Federalist papers that was mentioned earlier in another speech, Alexander Hamilton, he talked about how, as we said earlier, in different speeches, how big cities would just trump little tiny states like Hawaii, and to give an example of how little states would have more power under the Electoral College. For example, Wyoming cast about 210,000 votes, which is very close to Hawaii's, and, thus, each elector represented about 70,000 votes. California, for example, cast 9,700,000 and just had 54 electoral votes, representing 179,000 votes per electorate. So, in this case, Wyoming, which is so much smaller, they had more power when you compared to the number of people who voted to their electoral votes.

"Many say that it is a possibility to change this and Mark Schuman a political advisor said, while there are clear problems with the Electoral College, and there are some advantages to it. Changing it is very unlikely. It would take a constitutional amendment ratified by three-fourths of the states to change the system. And he says very seriously, it's hard to imagine the smaller states agreeing.

"So, I'm just having a difficult time understanding why we, who represent this little tiny state would want to agree to this. If we're so concerned about being left behind, so concerned that the election is already called before we even vote, perhaps it's that problem about the fact that we live between an ocean and the rest of the Continental United States and that's why we're so last and the election is called before we even vote. Perhaps, instead of trying to change the Constitution of the United States of America, perhaps we should just try and see if we can vote earlier and perhaps it would make a bigger difference."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. The process of the Electoral College has been evolving ever since the founding of the Republic. In the early days, of course, there was no popular input into who the electors voted for. In fact, the founding fathers didn't trust the people, they didn't trust the masses to pick the President. They didn't trust a lot of people to pick the President. They didn't trust women. They didn't trust blacks. They didn't trust a lot of people. So, we evolved slowly, but fairly steadily towards a more and more democratic, small 'd' democratic, system where everyone gets to vote. And it seems to me like the fairest way to elect a president who represents the entire country, is to let the majority of the people in the country vote for him.

"So this is a step forward. It's not about our power as a state. Yes, we are a small state, but we're not the smallest state by any stretch. But this is about just simple fairness. The person who gets the most votes in the country should be President of the United States. It shouldn't be calculated any other way.

"Admittedly, this is not what the founding fathers originally contemplated, but they also didn't, as I mentioned before, they didn't contemplate a number of things that we do now. The United States Senators weren't elected directly back then either. It wasn't until like 1916 or 1918 that U.S. Senators were elected by popular votes. So I think we're moving in the right direction. I think the President just like Senators and all the rest of us should be elected by a popular vote, and that means a vote of the majority. Mahalo."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Very briefly, I just wanted to say I think the debate has been useful, and unfortunately I think it's been a little bit misdirected. People aren't thinking really about where is Hawaii's voice and what we have to remember is the fundamental tenets of, what does a vote mean? A vote means that everyone's vote should be treated equal. That's one man, one vote. And luckily through the suffrage movement we found that it actually meant every person's vote means that their vote is equal.

"Really what I'm compelled by is when I took a look at there is a speech by Senator Robert Dole, who actually was a Vice Presidential, as well as a Presidential candidate, and he actually supported a need for us to have something that looked at this so that we could have a nationwide vote. Because what he said was when we switch to a system of direct election, I think we would see a resulting change in the nature of campaigning. While urban areas would still be important campaigning centers, there will be a new emphasis given to smaller seats. Candidates will soon realize that all votes are important, and votes from small states carry the same import as votes from large states. That, to me, is one of the major attractions of direct election.

"The other thing he points out is that actually now you won't be just giving up on those states that you thought were going to flip the other way because for no longer will minority votes be lost. You won't have to just give up on the minority vote, on the minority voice, because what you care about is every single person's voice regardless of what geography they come from. Regardless of what state they come from. That, to me, is a fundamental tenet of what our democracy should be about. It should be about trusting our people to make the individualized decision for themselves who they want to have as their President. Unfortunately, our history has shown that four times that has not shown true. And what I don't want to see happen again is for that once again to occur, as we saw just recently in 2000, and that is why I think we need to move this along and continue the discussion.

"If we were to say that, 'Oh, I don't think this is going to happen. It's unlikely the small states are going to jump on. Surely, then the debate will end.' But what we need is a debate and discussion to continue, and that will only happen if this bill moves forward. So, while I recognize all of the concerns and oppositions stated by people who have spoken against this, I think what we still need is continued discussion and that will only happen with this bill. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise for the second time in support. I'd like to incorporate the words of the Majority Floor Leader as if they were my own, and just mention this. I believe that this measure should be called the 'No Voter Left Behind Act.' And, in fact, Mr. Speaker, I think we should 'let the voters decide.' In fact, maybe a little bit better. We should let the voters and not the electors decide who's going to be the next President. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Magaoay rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. At this time, we have enough discussion and I call for the question. "

At 2:02 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:03 o'clock p.m.

At this time, Representative Magaoay withdrew his call for the previous question.

The Chair then stated:

"There has been a lot of debate on this issue. We will have everyone enter their written comments into the Journal at this point."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have my second turn at speaking?"

Vice Speaker Karamatsu: "If you could enter written comments."

Representative Ward: "Very briefly."

At 2:03 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:04 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing the call for continuing dialog to be very briefly added to what we have already spoken about.

"I want to refer to the gentleman from Downtown who talked about how democracy is self-correcting. That's the beauty of what we've got. When we make a mistake, we self correct, and that's the beauty. And what I think this bill does is self correct some of the pitfalls that some of us have pointed out.

"We don't want to have an urban versus a rural, because the urban communities will have it. If you don't believe what I'm saying, let's do a microcosm in this State. Let's pilot this bill here. Would you Representatives from the Neighbor Islands let us in Honolulu decide who is going to be President in the 2010 election? Would you? Because this bill says, let Honolulu decide because we've got the most people.

"So, what I'm saying, Mr. Speaker is, there are some pitfalls here that just guards against, as a small State. It protects the Neighbor Islands if Honolulu had the vote, and I appreciate the ability to speak as a democracy that is self-correcting. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1956, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE AGREEMENT AMONG THE STATES TO ELECT THE PRESIDENT BY NATIONAL POPULAR VOTE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 35 ayes to 12 noes, with Representatives Awana, Belatti, Berg, Ching, Finnegan, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1010, SD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, and S.B. No. 1010, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS," did not pass Third Reading by a vote of 24 noes to 23 ayes, with Representatives Awana, Belatti, Chang, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Green, Har, Ito, Luke, Magaoay, Marumoto, Meyer, Morita, Nishimoto, Pine, Rhoads, Sonson, Takai, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka, Ward and Yamane voting no, and with Representatives Herkes, Saiki, Say and Shimabukuro being excused.

At 2:08 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:10 o'clock p.m.

At 2:10 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

Representative Thielen: "Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to thank everyone for the wonderful participation in the Easter baskets for IHS. I really appreciate it, and I know that the Women's Shelter, and the women, their families and their children will appreciate it, too."

A national historic landmark designation is the highest of such recognition accorded by the nation to historic properties determined to be of exceptional value representing or illustrating an important theme event or a person in the history of our nation. And as we all know, it is the former home of Queen Liliuokalani, the last reigning monarch of the Hawaiian Kingdom. This was just announced. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Just a reminder of the long weekend. Happy Easter to everybody, and may we find lots of sugar coated eggs."

Representative Green: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Before we receive calls from every accountant in the State, I would like to remind us all that we have massage therapy going on upstairs."

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. This bill clarifies that the cigarette tax money earmarked to fund the Cancer Research Center of Hawaii, emergency medical services, trauma care, and community health centers shall be calculated on a per cigarette basis.

"This bill corrects a technical flaw in a law passed by the 2006 Legislature.

"Smoking is the largest cause of morbidity and mortality in the nation that can be easily prevented. Beyond harming individual health, use of tobacco in the United States costs about $7.18 for each pack of cigarettes sold in terms of healthcare expenses and decreased worker productivity. In Hawaii, this amounts to $526,000,000 in healthcare expenses and productivity losses.

"Smoking is also associated with cancer, heart disease, stroke, emphysema, bronchitis, low birth-weight babies, sudden infant death syndrome, increased frequency of colds and ear infections, and asthma. Asthma is the largest single cause of school absenteeism in the State.

"It has been estimated that a ten per cent increase in the price of cigarettes decreases the number of children who start smoking by three to seven per cent in the long-term. The estimated decrease for adults is three per cent. Tobacco taxes can be viewed as a user tax affecting 17.3 per cent of Hawaii adults who are smokers and who do not pay the full societal costs of their use of tobacco.

"Allocating a significant percentage of tobacco tax revenues to programs that strive to maintain Hawaii's health such as the Cancer Research Center of Hawaii, Hawaii's emergency medical services, critically needed trauma centers, and community health centers are the most appropriate and effective use of such revenues to help the greatest number of people."

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1935) recommending that S.B. No. 1182, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1182, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of SB 1182. This bill increases the personal needs allowance provided to individuals in care homes and nursing facilities from $30 per month to $50 per month. This allowance was set by the federal government at $30 in 1988. States are allowed to supplement this payment as they see fit, provided the funding comes from State resources. The intent of providing this allowance to individuals is to provide for some of the most basic personal services like haircuts, toiletries, and other like purchases.

"There was considerable controversy regarding this bill and SB 427 during the hearing process in the Finance Committee. There was also some question as to the need for any statutory change to implement a program that already seems to have an infrastructure imbedded in the Department of Human Services.

"The ultimate goal, however, is to ensure that those who need support receive that support. Funding for this increase has already been included in the House draft of the State budget. I look forward to working with my colleagues to find the most efficient and accountable way to provide this $20 increase in the personal needs allowance."

Representative Cabanilla submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"I am in strong support of SB 1182, HD 1. The Social Security Administration requires a monthly charge to be set aside for social security recipients who reside in certain institutional care settings. The fee is applied to the individual's personal needs; such as clothing, toiletries, bus fares and other incidental day-to-day living expenses.

"Increases in cost of living demands an adjustment in the needs allowance to provide residents of long-term care facilities and community care-home residents an acceptable daily quality of life.

"The purpose of this Act is to enable the Department of Human Services to establish a needs allowance for persons residing in community care homes and other long-term care facilities."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1182, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NEEDS ALLOWANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 667, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELORS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to disclose a potential conflict. Members of my family are in the contracting business," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued in support of measure with reservations, stating:

"And Mr. Speaker, on the underlying bill, I have reservations. I would like just like to note my reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1425, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTRACTOR LICENSING REQUIREMENTS DURING A STATE OF EMERGENCY OR DISASTER," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 709, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, Alice in Wonderland said, 'If you don't know where you're going, any road will get you there.' So it goes with our economy. If you don't know where we're going, and then how we measure where we are, we're in trouble. And that's what this bill is all about. It's about metrics.

"This bill will measure our training in science, technology, engineering and math, STEM, as they are known as. It will also track, measure and report our capital investment, research, development and other indices of innovation. And as you know, we are trying to break out of our 'sand, surf, and sun' economy into an innovation economy.

"Today, Mr. Speaker, we have not done too much of a job and this bill brings it to the forefront. It is time to measure where we are and where we want to go. And the only thing missing in this bill, and it's one of the underlying points of my standing, is that you can't measure without money. This bill has a blank and it has a defective date. It needs $250,000 and my point is to stand and encourage the Chair of Finance, as well as my colleagues on the Finance Committee, to make sure that we know where we're going and we measure it and we put in the $250,000 for the first year, and I think the same amount for the next year. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 709, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1824) recommending that S.B. No. 1922, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1922, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with comments in the Journal, if I may. In strong support. This bill is the one that does three things creatively for our media, our film people. This is the creation of the Media Center at UH. It's for the incubator that is going to be created. And lastly, and most importantly, and the most excitingly is the MELE Program, the Music Experience Learning, and that's going to be where all of our talented musicians, in partnership with Belmont University of Nashville, will have a chance to put 'Nashville of the Pacific' in the midst of us right here in Hawaii, Mr. Speaker.

"So, I'm really excited about this. This is the future. This is part of what we're going to measure in the previous bill, and this is where we'll call all of our talent, our musicians and our actors to step forward and be part of this really creative program. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this measure. The proposals in this bill are key components in efforts to moving Hawaii forward toward embracing an economy based on innovation initiatives and policies. This measure appropriates funds for the creation of permanent facility for the Academy for Creative Media at the University of Hawaii.

"Since its humble beginning in January of 2004 with only a few students and two faculty members, the Academy for Creative Media has become the premier program for media study in Hawaii, having produced nine films and a collection of video game prototypes. The program now has 175 students.

"This stunning growth has resulted in some growing pains. The Academy has outgrown the small suite of offices it was provided in its initial stages. This has resulted in the faculty have to be placed in borrowed space in a different building. Moreover, there is no room for dedicated classrooms, workshops, labs, soundstage, and other important tool and space for creative media.

"The funds provided in this bill will answer these pressing needs by providing for a permanent facility that will allow the program to continue to grow and support the growing media industry in Hawaii.

"In recent years Hawaii has experienced a rapid growth in its film industry. With this growth, it is imperative that we focus on infrastructure that will expand local capabilities in the film and digital media sector. The Digital Media incubator facility proposed in this bill is an important step in our effort to grow Hawaii's film industry and will serve as a catalyst for startup, emerging and established firms in computer animation, visual effects, and interactive game development to move Hawaii towards a state-of-the-are cinema production center.

"Hawaii is blessed with having a number of talented young people wishing to pursue a career in digital media. However, the realities of the digital media industry demand some state support. This is because of the following factors:

- User-ready work spaces and facilities are needed for the local digital media sector to develop and grow.
- Because most digital media productions are project-based and short-term in nature, they can only lease commercial space for short periods of time.
- This is not profitable for the private sector to provide this space; therefore, a State supported user-ready digital media work space is needed to support and grow this industry.

"The range of digital media companies and projects that will be used by this center include: Digital and interactive game development; software design for mobile, web, PC, and other applications; television and feature film preproduction and post production; special FX, animation and sound design group; and design companies (graphics, art, architectural, engineering, medical).

"The key to helping these companies is provide a place to launch from for the first few years to help build these businesses.

"These types of firms offer good, high paying jobs that will not only help grow Hawaii's media industry but grow other areas of the economy as the employees of these companies will have more money to spend and grow Hawaii's economy.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill also embraces another concept originally proposed by the Governor, that of the music enterprise learning experience, or "MELE" for short. Hawaii is blessed with rich musical traditions that are found nowhere else in the world. This tradition has continued to grow as young musicians learn and perform Hawaiian music.

"In terms of economic growth, Hawaiian music has been identified as key industry sector. There is general recognition that the music has a large potential audience from all across the world. Hawaii has more than enough talented musicians to create and share this music with the world. The problem is that it lacks the support of infrastructure to assist individuals in the business side of the music world.

"In Committee, the Hawaii Musicians Union, the Hawaii Academy for Recording Arts and the Pacific Music Foundation have all indicated a need for programs that teaches business skills and knowledge to Hawaii's coming generations of musicians and entertainers. This measure recognizes this problem through the development of a support and training system called MELE (the Music Enterprise Learning Experience) program to develop the technical and business skills required for Hawaii's music industry grow and prosper.

"This program is modeled after the industry experience in Nashville, another area of the country with talented musicians with a unique musical sound. Belmont University was prominent in the musical development with Nashville and has agreed to share its experience and knowledge by being a partner for MELE.

"The potential for this program is very exciting for Hawaii. We can all recognize the success of Nashville and country music. This program has the opportunity to create something similar with Hawaiian music, and it should be supported.

"Mr. Speaker, our economy is changing rapidly. New technologies are being introduced every year. If we are to succeed in this economy, it is important that we embrace these changes, and prepare for the future. This bill will help us in that effort. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. As a former educator, I'm really excited about this measure. It's very 21st Century, as well as a clean industry; something that we should be investing in. We know that we're in a global village now, and we know that technology has taken us to this type of special industry and creativity, and I'm excited about the future that this holds for our children. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Short comments in support. I'm really in support of the MELE Program and excited to learn about what has been going on at Honolulu Community College and the support of this bill means a lot to that program."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1922, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CREATIVE MEDIA," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1825) recommending that S.B. No. 53, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 53, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some strong reservations. The purpose of this bill is to expand health insurance services by including marriage and family therapy in the substance abuse and mental illness treatment benefits. My concern is that according to our statutes, 23-51, before any legislative measure that mandates health insurance coverage for specific health services, specific diseases or for certain providers of health care services as part of an individual or group health insurance policies can be considered, that's before this bill should be considered, there should be a concurrent resolution passed requesting the Legislative Auditor to prepare and submit to the Legislature a report that assesses both the social and financial effects of the proposed mandated coverage.

"So, my problem with this is, we have put the 'cart before the horse'. We should be passing a resolution before we take this step to pass this bill. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with support with reservations, as well. My reservations are the same as the previous Representative from Kahaluu. I would like to say, though, that this is a very important bill; that when we're affected by drug addiction within our homes, it is very important to address how it affects the rest of the family. I've been able to witness that in the kids in our neighborhood, as well as our community. So, the importance of the bill, it is very important. It's just that we have to be mindful of our process. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, we already know that Hawaii has a major ice problem, but I think more attention needs to be brought up about people that suffer from what's termed, dual diagnosis. This is when an individual suffers from both a mental health condition, as well as a substance abuse disorder. Many of our citizens and residents that suffer from schizophrenia or bipolar, anti-social personality disorder or suffer from depression often go into using hard core drugs – crystal meth, cocaine, ecstasy. This exacerbates their situation and it puts a great deal of stress and pain to their family. It will cause break-ups in marriages and you'll see a family just disintegrate.

"This will help, as it will allow for a family therapist to intervene. They will meet and provide the family with guidelines to follow, possibly saving a break up of the family and saving marriages. Keep in mind, love is not enough. Although it is a very important aspect of family and marriage, this is not enough, because they are not equipped with the tools to deal with people that may suffer from mental disorder or also drug addiction. Because this is so important, I think that marriage and family therapists should be able to play an important role and be covered by health insurance so that we can protect our families, as well as our marriages. For those reasons, I stand in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 53, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPISTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1829) recommending that S.B. No. 1228, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1228, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I am in support. The historical preservation of our Japanese internment camps in Hawaii is a very important part of our heritage. In particular, the Honouliuli Internment Camp located on the West side of Oahu not only imprisoned Japanese, but those of German and Italian ancestry.

"The location of the camp was isolated – bordered by cane fields and high brush. Because of this, everyone worked together to make the best of a bad situation. The guards collaborated with prisoners; exchanging food items for example, fish for meat, and potatoes for rice. Pleasantries were exchanged between prisoners and guards. Awards were also given to this camp due to excellent condition of this site which was kept clean and tidy. Interestingly enough, military personnel would look forward to visiting Honouliuli camp. These actions were unprecedented in other internment camps outside of Hawaii.

"I support whatever efforts will be implemented to preserve these valuable historical monuments – not only for their historical importance, but also for the aloha spirit that was shared by those who resided there. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This measure would help our children once again to not only be aware of their past, but hopefully learn from the past. There is nothing like an experiential museum which a child walks into and experiences a concept. I think it's the way we reach children. I think this is a good thing because we learn from our past and, hopefully, we'll live up to our obligation to the future. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. I would like to speak on behalf of the Ewa Historical Society. The Ewa Historical Society has been around for over 25 years, Mr. Speaker, and right now they are having a renaissance. They want to bring up all the historical places in Ewa. And there is a Japanese internment camp in my district, and one of their goals is to be able to have historical tours linking the bunkers in Waipahu, the World War II bunkers, this internment camp, the Ewa Cemetery, the Ewa Mansion, and the OR&L Train Depot. We hope that with all these facilities being fixed we can contribute to the tourism industry by having heritage tours in our district. So, I urge all my colleagues to support the efforts of the Ewa Historical Preservation Society. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just very briefly, in support. I wanted to point out that there had been a camp, a temporary relocation camp in Honouliuli, near Pearl Harbor, in the previous speaker's district, and that there were 1,551 people – Japanese, Italians, Germans – incarcerated there at the start of World War II. And thanks to President Bush and his leadership, we have several million dollars to restore about ten of the permanent internment camps that housed 120,000 Japanese in the '40s. Not all will be restored, but, hopefully, we will be able to capture some of those funds to restore whatever is left Honouliuli, or somehow have some way to keep the memory alive of what happened during World War II. Thank you very much."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in strong support as well. This measure would actually allow for a study on how best to honor this part of our history and remember it. Having also, as part of my district, a former internment camp, I certainly support this measure. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to insert written comments."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this measure is long overdue. Although much is made of the injustices in other countries, the atrocities committed by other nations, it is perhaps most instructive to examine our own actions in time of war. America is at a parallel juncture to World War II. By recognizing and acknowledging our actions, we can learn from them, and better our behavior in the current situation.

"This measure is timely in that it helps us utilize available federal funds. This bill also will help recognize one such camp in the 29th District, the Sand Island Internment Camp. The unpleasantness in our society helps define our character, and should never be forgotten. This bill will help us decide, in a culturally appropriate and sensitive manner, the best way to remember. Therefore, I support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1228, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORICAL PRESERVATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1830) recommending that S.B. No. 98, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 98, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

Mr. Speaker, I am in support with reservations. As we are all aware, the efforts of our educational system should always be centered on the students. The foremost importance is that of health and safety. Should this bill move forward, a major concern is the possible elimination of the health nurse position in schools when a principal is faced with deciding between a teacher and a health nurse due to budgetary constraints. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 98, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Carroll voting no.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 686, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, but with some reservations. I realize that we have not come to the end of the Legislature, so this will be looked at carefully. This bill is related to educational assistants and putting them on a career ladder program. But as I recall, the appropriation was like $9 million and another higher figure. It is a lot of money that was being required to do this, and that's my concern. I think that after Crossover and looking at the budget, all these things will be flushed out. Thank you."

entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1931, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1832, I'd like to just give short comments. In support. Of course, we're in support of workforce development and this working group. The short comment that I have is just in regards to possibly of looking at, during Conference Committee, of moving this from DLIR to DBEDT in order for them to look to our future workforce. This would be a better fit. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1931, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 990, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with reservations. This is the bill, Relating to Petroleum Industry Monitoring. This would give the PUC broad new powers to investigate companies that should not be within the Public Utilities Commission's purview because the companies they will be investigating are neither public nor utilities.

"This bill was passed and moved along in sort of in conjunction with the gas cap and with an effort for transparency. The refiners already do a great deal of reporting to the federal government and I'm not sure that we're going to find out anything new and the way this bill is at this present time there's absolutely no money in there. The PUC has stated that they can do this work, but they must have at least, I think $1 million, $1.5 million each year in order to hire the personnel and to have the expertise so that they can do what we're asking them to do. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a comment in support. I just wanted to make sure, just a friendly reminder to the people that are sitting on this Committee that last year we passed it out with no money. So let's not forget to put money in this time. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 990, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PETROLEUM INDUSTRY MONITORING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1026, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. The main reservation has to do with the larger size containers. But there's also a good measure in here. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in opposition to SB1026, SD2, HD3, which would increase the size of containers subject to the bottle bill from 64 ounces to 68 ounces. I have always opposed the bottle bill, because what we should be doing is something other states moved to years ago -- comprehensive recycling of paper, tin, plastic, glass, cardboard, etc. with home pickup. I also feel the bottle bill is essentially a tax that supports the infrastructure and bureaucracy to run this inefficient program.

"This tax was sold to consumers under the false premise that it would substantially decrease the volume of waste going into our landfill, when in fact the percentage of the waste stream diverted from landfills as a result of this tax is in the very low single digits. The benefits of slightly extending the life of our current landfill are greatly outweighed by the substantial direct and indirect costs imposed upon our citizens by this law. Thus, I oppose expanding this insidious tax to include ever larger beverage containers, thus extracting even more taxes from our beleaguered citizens."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1026, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOLID WASTE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Finnegan and Meyer voting no.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1836) recommending that S.B. No. 1154, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1154, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just short comments with reservations for Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1836. In regards to the blank authorization, it used to have $100 million in there and that gave us some direction as to what we were thinking of in regards to these projects. However, now there's a blank amount and therefore, no direction. And if Budget and Finance and just having that coordination so that they can be able to understand what they're exposing the State to, financially. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1154, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Herkes voting no.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1672, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, currently, there is inadequate payment reimbursement for Medicaid which has actually compromised access to medical care. It should be noted that this not only for the uninsured and those covered by Medicare, but also for the individuals who also get health care from private companies.

"I note that on December 2006, LRB provided a report on Medicaid payment and reimbursement rates, and the conclusion was that providers often receive insufficient payments for healthcare from government programs. In fact, the Healthcare Association of Hawaii even went further and stated that the disparity between payments and actual cost was one of the reasons we suffer a health care crisis in Hawaii. Our doctors are leaving. We have a nursing shortage. In fact, our Neighbor Island specialists are in demand. We just don't have enough orthopedic specialists on the Neighbor Islands.

"I truly believe that healthcare should not be a privilege, but a right for all of our residents in the State of Hawaii. So, for those reasons, I stand in support for this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. In regards to the Representative from Kalihi, I'd like to adopt his words, but also add some reservations as to what are the implications this bill may have.

"Currently, this bill creates a disparity for reimbursement rates retroactive and prospective for Medicaid only, not QUEST. So, this is the fee for service part. Specifically, this bill changes the current Medicaid only, not for QUEST, to increase Medicaid reimbursement rates to 100% of the Medicare reimbursement rates. Secondly, it amends the Medicaid fee schedule to require an annual inflation adjustment. And thirdly, it appropriates funds to adjust retroactively for inflation for Medicaid. Again, all of this for Medicaid only, the fee for service, and not for QUEST.

"The total amount for this for Medicaid only, not for QUEST, is $58 million plus, and additional federal funds will be about $40 million plus. But the thing that I would like to point out are more that QUEST and Medicaid are scheduled to merge in 2008, which means additional funds will be needed aside from what I've mentioned so far to bring reimbursement rates up. Also, after the reimbursement increases for inflation, that there's no federal matching funds to the extent that the rate paid exceeds the Medicare rate. So that's some reservations that we need to look forward to because they have major fiscal implications to them. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Mizuno be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1672, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1840) recommending that S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Mr. Speaker, this bill includes a provision that requires counties to expedite the implementation of Act 310 from last Session, Relating to Indigenous Architecture. The Act was created to encourage the building of traditional hale and halau for residences and structures by requiring the counties to amend their county building codes that often serve to discourage and prevent such practices.

"To date, only Maui County has adopted rules for indigenous structures, and no counties have adopted rules for indigenous residences in accordance with Act 310. The provisions in S.B. 1917 require the counties to expedite implementation of the Act in a timely manner. By allowing full functionality of Act 310, we can help provide alternative types of housing to meet the current crisis in our State while preserving and perpetuating this ancient Hawaiian practice. Mahalo."

Representative Pine rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I'd just like to declare a potential conflict. I work for a homeless shelter and I understand some amendments are working to assist homelessness," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a couple of comments with reservations and comments to be inserted in the Journal if I may. My first reservation is that I'm not sure the counties are going to be very happy, or the developers were actually going to allow this thing to work.

"And the second comment is that the great part of the bill is regarding the Rental Housing Trust Fund, which, as we all know, we took the money out and it's broke. So the greatest thing and the greatest encouragement to the Finance Committee would be to put in the blank where it says the percentage that will go to the Rental Housing Trust Fund. If we can put that to 65%, we can get people back into rental housing because there's such a crisis going on right now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of Senate Bill 1917 SD3 HD2 the Senate Majority Housing Omnibus Bill.

"This bill will increase the percentage of the conveyance tax allocated to the Rental Housing Trust Fund to provide consistent funding which is critical for developers to build more affordable housing here in Hawaii. The Governor highlighted increasing the percentage of conveyance tax into the Rental Housing Trust Fund this year in her State of the State speech. This Fund helps finance the construction of affordable rental apartments, an integral component in trying to address the issue of affordable housing. Because of past raiding by Democratic Legislatures, this Fund is in need of a cash infusion and this method of funding appears appropriate.

"However, we all know that that the government cannot build all of Hawaii's housing needs no matter how much money we throw at the problem. That is why we must produce public-private partnerships with our local contractors. This bill appropriates funds so the State can form public-private partnerships with private and non-profit builders for construction of 4,000 affordable housing units.

"We also must make sure that we use all the funds available to us from the federal government. I was glad to see that that the Finance Committee included language that would allow Hawaii to maximize the amount of federal dollars we can receive. We must be aggressive in pursuing affordable housing here in Hawaii.

"In closing Mr. Speaker, this bill is a good start for providing affordable housing in Hawaii. I hope this legislative body will now look into removing our many regulatory barriers for developers so the appropriations in this bill will produce the maximum amount of good for the people of Hawaii. Being homeless should never be the price for living in paradise. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1284, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in regards to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1841, I'd like to give short comments and strong support. Mr. Speaker, your Minority Caucus had a bill similar to this that just basically starts to address the unfunded liability, and we stand very strong on that. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1284, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1833, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Evans, Marumoto and Meyer voting no.

S.B. No. 1833, SD 1, HD 1

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1843) recommending that S.B. No. 1950, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1950, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill is S.B. 1950, S.D. 2, H.D. 2. With reservations, Mr. Speaker. And my reservations are basically that we can do a little more to help out this situation. This bill should be amended in Conference Committee to include rehired, retired public employees who work more than 50% of the time, but less than 100% of the time, and they're hired for more than 89 days."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. On the same measure as Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1843, S.B. 1950, with reservations. I also have some concerns that I hope gets worked out in Conference. We're looking at potentially a crisis in certain areas, and so this is a way to fill the void and rehire. My only concern is it's supposed to be for hard-to-fill positions. I'd like to make sure that these positions are 'at will'. And that when these retirees come back to work, as you will note in the bill, it says they're covered by the union. They will become union members.

"I just want to make sure that the people moving up the ladder, that we have good jobs for our young people and they have ability to move up. Maybe they need to go back to school so they can quality to move up their career ladder, but I don't want some of these retirees to come back. I do want them to come back, but also if people, if there is a pool of people to choose from, I think management should be able to say it's no longer a hard-to-fill position. We have people to fill it. So I just don't want them coming back and we don't have an out where we can ask them to leave. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. For the benefit of the prior speaker, this bill was actually amended to ensure that those that are being rehired are only for those critical, hard to fill, or labor shortage positions, and that's on page 2, line 7. In addition to that, to discourage any people taking early retirement, this bill also includes a provision that a retiree must retire and stay out of the position for at least one year before qualifying to be rehired."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Evans be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1950, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE RE-EMPLOYMENT OF RETIREES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1846) recommending that S.B. No. 917, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 917, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. This appropriates funds to the Department of Public Safety to develop a plan to return all female prisoners incarcerated in mainland prisons back to Oahu, and I am definitely in support of that goal.

"The only thing that I have some concerns on is basically there's a hard and fast date of being able to do this by July 1, 2009. To be able to put that into legislation when we're still trying to develop a plan, to me, would be kind of a difficult thing to do. We have to understand how much money we need in order to do that, and what PSD needs to do in order to get there. So, I think in putting a plan together and then making a timeline according to that, instead of a hard and fast July 1, 2009, which is a little over two years away. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 917, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments with comments requested to be put in the Journal. I'm in strong support because this is a bill that is good news for the small business community. This is the Small Business Regulatory Flexibility Act and is a direct result of a White House Conference on Small Business, I believe, under President Clinton in the early '90s followed by the Hawaii State Congress where every island, and every association had input into this creation.

"Basically, this bill clarifies when the rules are made for the regulation of small business, there's actually a feedback mechanism and a review process that the small business community is very excited about. This is a very good bill with good news for the small business community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. This bill was originally introduced by the Senator from Hawaii Kai. The purpose of the measure was to clarify the Small Business Regulatory Flexibility Act.

"It would achieve this purpose by providing that a small business impact statement will be prepared and submitted to the Small Business Regulatory Review Board as early as practicable in the rule drafting process, providing that adopted rules affecting small business will be reviewed to determine if they are still appropriate within five years after adoption, and making nonsubstantive changes to Chapter 201M, HRS, to clarify the definition of a rule and to remove outdated sections of the chapter.

"The bill was amended a few times and in its present form it does the same basic thing, but it goes a little further in that it asks the Board to review all new rules, not only the ones they think should be reviewed, and asks that the Board would inform small businesses whose complaints that have not been upheld, that the business may submit a complaint to the Ombudsman. Some other points about the bill.

- It clearly sets forth when a small business impact statement is to be submitted to the Small Business Regulatory Review Board during the drafting phase for new and changed administrative rules.

- It adds review of new changed rules to the list of the Board's "powers" that were focused on existing rules.

- It requires a draft to be sent to the Board which are essentially complete, encouraging a dialogue between the drafting agency and the Board before it is sent to the Governor and for public hearing.

- It requires agencies to submit rules to the Board every odd year for review and for the board to review them and submit a report of the results to the Legislature.

- It allows a small business to petition the rule making agency objecting to the impact of a rule. If the agency doesn't make changes, the Board will consider the merits of the petition. If the Board does not recommend the small businesses changes, then the Board should tell the petitioner that they can submit their complaint to the Ombudsman.

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, these changes will continue to ensure and allow that our smallest firms have a voice in ensuring that Administrative Rules are not overly burdensome, while regulatory agencies can still provide for consumer, environmental, and workplace safety considerations as they carry out their responsibilities."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I strongly support SB 188, SD2, HD1, which modifies the Small Business Regulatory Flexibility Act by improving the procedures by which rules that impact small businesses are reviewed. This bill would increase the probability that proposed rules that would adversely impact small businesses would be caught early in the process and modified so as to minimize or eliminate the unintended consequences. Since small businesses are the economic engine that drives most of our state's economy, we need to be diligent in protecting them."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SMALL BUSINESS REGULATORY FLEXIBILITY ACT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Tsuji, for the Committee on Agriculture presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1852) recommending that S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against this measure. Mr. Speaker, this bill, S.B. 1943 will add biofuel processing facilities to the list of permitted uses for agricultural lands. I think we all need to pay particular attention to this, because I think that making the bioprocessing plants a permitted use is far too broad.

"For example, this bill will allow buildings, storage sheds, silos, parking lots, administrative offices, all of these associated with the biofuel processing facility itself. This can certainly use up prime agricultural land for more industrialized purposes and really cause a negative impact.

"Another concern is that the private agricultural land is exempt from Chapter 343, our environmental disclosure statute. So I think there are some issues that we need to look at as this goes forward. I believe one of the counties suggested that the special use permit process be used instead, so that process has a lot more protections than just saying right off the bat, this is a permitted use. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. If you think back to the days when sugar was king and pineapple was queen, you had the refineries on ag land in all the rural communities. And it was regulated by the EPA and environmental laws. If we're going to see us remain committed to alternative energy and finding energy independence with biofuels, these facilities have to be close to where the crops are grown just like they were for pineapple and sugar. Therefore, it's a good bill and deserves our support. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support, but do recognize that this measure needs to be massaged a little bit. What we would like to do is tie the cultivation of fuel crops to the processing of fuel crops on agricultural lands. There are some interstate commerce issues regarding that and how to word it, but we do recognize that there should be some tie-in with crop cultivation, as well with the production of biofuels. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, would rise in support of this measure. This measure addresses our over-dependence on petroleum by encouraging the production and use of biofuels and energy feed stock in Hawaii. This is consistent with our mission to safeguard our State's agricultural lands.

"This measure would encourage further agricultural productivity of IAL designated lands by adding biofuel processing facilities to the list of permitted uses of ag lands. Additionally, the measure would encourage us to make greater use of our State's many untapped renewable energy sources by establishing an energy feedstock program in the Department of Agriculture. This program would in turn encourage energy feedstock production and establish core objectives and milestones governing that production to meet Hawaii's energy requirements. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of SB 1943, SD2, HD2, which adds biofuel processing facilities to the permitted uses of agricultural lands. It is ironic that many of the environmental lobbyists who have been pushing for renewable energy would oppose this bill on the grounds that it would convert some tropical forests to farmland. You can't grow renewable fuels without using land – it's that simple. And, it doesn't make economic sense to situate processing plants far away from the crops being harvested, as any former plantation manager could tell you. So, if you're opposed to both fossil fuels and renewable crops, what is left? Giving up cars entirely? While that might please a handful of radical environmentalists, the overwhelming majority of our citizens recognize that our industrial civilization would collapse without motor vehicles, and do not support going back to horse and buggy days."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am rising in support with reservations, as well, and I'd like the words of the Representative from Kauai entered as my own. In addition, I'd like to add my comments to make sure that in this bill, there is specification that, as the Chair of Ag suggested, the feed stocks are from Hawaii sources and included because that seems to be missing. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1854) recommending that S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. This bill would create a State Building Code Council to establish an updated comprehensive statewide model building code and design standards. My concern is that building codes have always been handled by the counties. I think that's appropriate. I'm a little bit concerned about this may be creating a new mini bureaucracy.

"I note that they were asking for $500,000 a year, so we have to have somebody in charge of this. I think the council members, which there would be nine to start off with, are not paid. But it looks like so many things we have which is a duplication of effort, and that doesn't seem like the most efficient way to operate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, we can't get the county councils to update the building codes. The County of Hawaii's is since 1991. A lot of things have happened since then. It's important that we have a statewide building code.

"I've had members of county councils from both the Big Island and Oahu saying, 'Take it off our backs because we don't want to have to deal with it.' In this bill, we are giving the counties the ability to conform to certain disasters that might strike those islands, for example, hurricanes on Kauai and earthquakes on the Big Island. Again, in strong support."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1854 regarding building codes. I stand strong in support of this measure. This bill is about time for us, especially for the different counties we have. This will help construction. Each county has their own regulation that we have to go through. I know we're talking about streamlining a lot of things. Right now we have a construction boom. If we're going to impede the progress, whether it has to do with homeless or other situations, we need to help the counties. This is one way for us to have a uniform code which will help the process. So I stand in strong support, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUILDING CODES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1855) recommending that S.B. No. 662, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 662, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IMPORTANT AGRICULTURAL LANDS LOAN GUARANTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 10:42 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1950, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 917, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 880, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 662, SD 2, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1856) recommending that S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. As you now, this bill is about helping the State fight against invasive species. The bill will require the Department of Agriculture to create a schedule of fees for pest inspection, quarantine and eradication. It also instructs the Department to add late fees and other fees to a special fund.

"To add some of my objections, Mr. Speaker, my comments are not about opposition to fighting against invasive species. In fact, I'm all for that. My objection is how we're going about it. It would seem to me that if this is such a big problem and listening to farmers and others on the Neighbor Islands and Oahu, I believe it is a big problem, then we should be appropriating enough money out of the general fund to combat this problem.

"Additionally, there are federal funds for this program. Are these funds in jeopardy? Do we know the answer? Should we get the answer? Do we even care? Maybe we shouldn't set up a new fee schedule until we find the answers to our questions. Maybe we should appropriate enough funds from our big surplus right now to make sure we have enough funds to fight the problem. This sounds reasonable to me. I hope it sounds reasonable to some in this body, and I hope we get answers to our questions and we come with reasonable solutions before this bill has made it all the way through the Conference Committee process.

"The people in our State who make their living in the agricultural industry, deserve this. They deserve the very best from us. Let's get it done. It's very critical. My concern is with the new fees that will be charged on almost everything that is shipped in here. There were a lot of different groups that had concerns about this. Any time shipping has a new fee, they're going to add it to the cost of goods they bring in, which means you and I, everyone in this State, will pay more for the things that are shipped in here for us to purchase. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I would like to adopt the words of the prior speaker and insert them into the Journal as if they were my own. Part of what the prior speaker said was that who's going to pay for this? Essentially, we are. Our neighbors and our families in the form of a higher cost of living.

"What's being proposed here is a good idea except for the part where the source of the money to combat invasive species. The issue of the problem of invasive species in the State of Hawaii is coming from the importers instead of the exporters. We cannot do anything about the exporters through State laws. This is a federal issue. It is an interstate commerce issue. We must encourage our national delegation to change laws so that those people who import and export products, and bring them into the State of Hawaii, will be the responsible party for paying for the cost of the prevention of invasive species, in fighting invasive species in the State of Hawaii.

"We're doing what we can by funding programs in the State of Hawaii with general funds to combat the existing problem as we see today. However, obviously, that is not enough. The plants in Lake Wilson are an example. The coqui frog program in Hilo and the Big Island is another problem. The brown tree snake coming from Guam. Those are all problems that we are very concerned about, but we should also be concerned about our standard of living here in the State of Hawaii. It is very expensive to live here. And, you know, the more we tack on fees for products that we are going to use in our daily lives, such as toilet paper, food, rice from whatever source we're getting it from, it really is going to make it more difficult for our families.

"So, instead of doing it this way, I think we should really encourage our federal delegation to do something about interstate commerce so that the source of the funds to combat invasive species problems in Hawaii will be directly addressing it. Thank you very, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. This measure will establish a schedule of service fees and charges for invasive species, pest inspection and quarantine services from entities that import any article or packing material. The bill also establishes a Pest Inspection and Quarantine Treatment Services Fund.

"Mr. Speaker, the State Department of Land and Natural Resources testifies that and I quote, 'The lack of an adequate sustainable funding is the single greatest problem that the State, federal and private agencies face in the fight to protect Hawaii from harmful invasive species.' Our State has already experienced significant destruction and harm by invasive species, such as the gall wasp, miconia, and also the nemesis, the coqui frog. Remedial measures are costly and should be subsidized by importers of commercial shipments instead of the general excise tax base.

"Mr. Speaker, other areas of the world have experienced irreparable destruction by invaders such as snakes, specifically, the brown tree snake, biting sand flies, midges and many others which have negative impact on visitor resorts in Tahiti, the Caribbean, and many other places. It is prudent that this body be pro-active and responsible in protecting our fragile native eco-systems.

"Many of those who have said that the service fee approach will result in increased cost to importers, which would then be passed along to consumers. Your Committee on Agriculture has seriously considered this point of view and is concerned about what the cost impact may be to our local merchants and consumers. However, it is clear, Mr. Speaker, that the benefit of preventing the entry of new pests, far outweighs the cost of trying to control and eradicate the pest population once they have established in our State For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, this bill deserves support. Mr. Speaker, I urge you and my colleagues to join me in voting yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to vote against this measure. My objections are similar to the Minority Floor Leader who wants to fight invasive species, but her objections go more to the increase fee. And I question that increased fee.

"There's a menace out there that threatens us in Hawaii, and it is the brown tree snake. It's a menace that will cut our electrical supply and desecrate our environment by eating birds' eggs, frogs and other amphibian insect eaters. It could ruin our poultry industry if left unchecked. Small pets will suddenly disappear. In Guam, the snakes have attempted to eat babies, starting with their arms, but then fortunately it stops at the shoulders. There are 15,000 snakes per square mile on Guam.

"In the early '90s, Senator Inouye recognized this threat coming from Southeast Asia, and inserted $2 million for a snake prevention program in the Department of Defense budget, which guards us from the planes arriving from Guam. He had been ridiculed for this program. On the mainland they simply don't understand our fear of the brown tree snake because there are snakes in every state, but they are relatively harmless. They have no idea what it could do in Hawaii.

"In the early '90s, I also obtained State funds in the Department of Agriculture budget to supplement the federal program, and I understand these funds are still imbedded in the budget. But now we have another disaster. The federal money, I understand, will stop in May. I hear that the Finance Committee has wisely inserted $679,000 plus in the '08 budget, and $179,000 plus in the '09 budget bill. My question is: Is this enough to protect us from the brown tree snakes, and other invasive species? Can we stop the brown tree snake at our ports and harbors? Do we need this bill to assess another fee to stop invasive species? I would appreciate a definitive answer. Meanwhile, I will be voting no on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations, with similar comments as the prior speakers in regards to the cost implications."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INVASIVE SPECIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Sonson voting no, and with Representative Brower being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1858) recommending that S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Brower being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1859) recommending that S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on the aerospace development, I'm in strong support of this and would ask that I have remarks inserted in the Journal. I think that some people don't realize how involved we have been with aerospace. Our present Mayor had pushed hard to use South Point on the Big Island as a launching site to send satellites into space. That didn't happen at that time, but people are always looking to Hawaii.

"We've been a global leader in astronomy and astrophysics for years. We've developed a world-class facility atop Mauna Kea and helped support 13 international observatories in their studies of galaxies and star formation, so this is a real acknowledgment of the fact that we are out there. We're not out there yet, but we are located ideally and this is a great industry and this is a great bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of SB 907, SD2, HD2, which promotes opportunities for aerospace-related jobs in this State. This is a desirable industry, with high-paying jobs, and we should encourage organizations working in this field to relocate to Hawaii."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I also stand in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, this bill is literally, 'out of this world,' because it is aerospace and it's really the real frontier; the one that we've not gone or ventured to go yet.

"As the previous speaker said, we really have a leg up on this. We have Mauna Kea. We have companies that have contributed to the astronomy discipline ahead of any other place in the world. The University of Hawaii has worked with the U.S. military, the Air Force and the Navy in particular, whether it be at Haleakala, or on Kauai, with the Navy. And just to name a few of the people that they are working with which includes the 'big boys': Boeing, Raytheon, Northrop, Lockheed Martin, etc.

"The exciting thing about this bill is, not just because it's space, but because we can really do something very real and very concrete by creating this Office of Aerospace. This bill, for example, could create a Pacific International Center for Space Exploration. That's a big term for a couple of simple things. One is, space tourism, a new concept. Something that says essentially, you take a regular airplane which goes off a regular launching pad, not like Ka'u and the Big Island with all the difficulty of going vertical. You basically put a rocket on the back of it and you can go up with it in a number of hours, experience weightlessness and come back down. And that's space tourism.

"You could also fly from Honolulu, estimated to arrive in Japan in 45 minutes. Space tourism. There's also the simulation of the moon, Mars and other landings on the Big Island because of the lava there. That is a natural environment that lends itself to it.

"But I should close by saying that we are not without competition. Just this morning in the Star Bulletin, Los Cruces, New Mexico, just passed a tax increase to create a $198 million tourism spaceport. They have a lot of sand and rocks out there also, and they're taking it so seriously, they are having a tax increase.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill doesn't create any tax increases, but it gives us a new vision and a perspective for the future for tourism and to take us to scientific advancement. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of SB 907. This bill renames the Office of Space Industry, the Office of Aerospace Development, and requires the Director of the renamed office to identify and promote opportunities for expanding and diversifying aerospace-related industries in the State. The ultimate goal of the office is to position Hawaii to be nationally and globally competitive and recognized in aerospace development.

"Renewing our commitment to this industry today is timely, as companies are looking at other States to infuse investment capital as well as new jobs. Our existing infrastructure and our geographical location give us a competitive advantage that is unmatched.

"Mr. Speaker, the aerospace industry and efforts to become a leader in space related science is not new to Hawaii. We must not forget the efforts of the past that have put us in a position to take immediate advantage of this golden opportunity. The only reason why NASA and other companies are currently looking to Hawaii is because of the infrastructure and programs that have been developed over several decades of work by former Governor Ariyoshi, former Governor Waihee, Senator Daniel Inouye, and many other dedicated, visionary individuals.

"Hawaii is not a newcomer to the aerospace industry. It is already recognized as a global leader in astronomy and astrophysics. World-class astronomy facilities have been developed at the Mauna Kea Science Reserve, with investments of over $1 billion supporting 13 international observatories.

"The University of Hawaii is home to over 40 principal investigators accruing more than $60 million in annual grants from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), the National Science Foundation (NSF), and other federal agencies that support space related programs.

"The United States military has made significant investments in Hawaii's aerospace industry. The Air Force Maui Optical and Supercomputing Site (AMOS) atop Mt. Haleakala supports our nation's largest space surveillance site. The Navy's Pacific Missile Range Facility on Kauai maintains the world's most extensive and sophisticated multi-environment range, capable of supporting simultaneous surface, subsurface, air and space operations.

"Fledgling local companies such as Oceanit, NovaSol, Textron, STI, Solipsys, and Trex Enterprises are engaging in aerospace related technologies.

"Major national aerospace corporations such as Boeing, Raytheon, Northrop Grumman and Lockheed Martin, already positioned in Hawaii, have potential to expand operations to Asia-Pacific markets.

"The future opportunities for Hawaii are exciting to say the least. In the coming months NASA will seek to identify remote locations in the US to develop "ground-based analogue capabilities". Hawaii has many strategic advantages and could be very competitive in the site selection process. Hawaii's mid-Pacific, near equatorial location makes it the only state in the nation from which payloads can be launched into any orbit without over flying populated areas. This enhances launch efficiencies, reduces launch costs, and maximizes public safety.

"A spaceplane under development by Rocketplane Kistler takes off and lands at an airport like a commercial jet plane, but uses a rocket engine to carry it to space. Rocketplane Kistler has requested permission to launch from Hawaii by 2009. It projects launching from Honolulu International Airport and returning to Honolulu or Kona.

"The long term build out, 5 to 6 years, include trans-Pacific flights between Hawaii, Japan, and the continental US. Over $200 million in annual gross revenues are projected through launch fees paid by tourists, universities, private companies, and the Department of Defense.

"Rocketplane Kistler also plans to develop a terrestrial space themed education and training center in the Kalaeloa district.

"The prospects for Hawaii are exciting and challenging as we enter a phase of expansion in this industry. I urge my colleagues to remember where this all began, and support this continuing effort."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AEROSPACE DEVELOPMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Brower being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1860) recommending that S.B. No. 1929, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1929, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This bill removes the criminal penalty of a misdemeanor for any person who intentionally violates the rules of procurement. And, secondly, it adds the imposition of an administrative fine which is set out in rules that don't yet exist.

"This measure requires that procurement policy board to establish proposed rules for administrative fines to implement this measure before next Session, to take the misdemeanor charge out of the law, and not have rules in place. It makes you wonder if somebody knows somebody who could come under this law with a misdemeanor and they don't want them to be caught in that web. I don't know.

"The review of whether one is in violation and assessed administrative fines will be reviewed in what appears to be a closed-door discussion between the Chief Procurement Officer, the using agency, the AG's Office, and the corporate counsel. I'm not actually sure what they're trying to do here. There's an old adage, 'if ain't broke, don't fix it'. If the purpose of this bill is to emphasize the seriousness of procurement rule violations, this measure fails to execute our purpose. We seem to be moving in the other direction. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1929, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC PROCUREMENT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and with Representative Brower being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1863) recommending that S.B. No. 156, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 156, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting no on this measure. I have no opposition to absentee mail voting. I think I mail in my ballot every election. However, the permanency of the mail ballot is a temptation I think, could lead to fraud. If the voter notification postcard is not returned to the Office, then another ballot will be mailed out and there's always room for mischief there.

"If someone dies, that person is supposed to notify the Clerk that he will no longer be voting, and actually it would be the widow or widower probably, but that's probably the farthest thing from their mind when somebody dies. That we must tell the Clerk that we will not be voting. If somebody moves away, they don't think of notifying the Clerk. If they go to jail, that's, again, the farthest thing from their mind. So I'm concerned about this particular provision of this bill, so I will be voting no. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. I do appreciate the intent of the bill and the work that was done by the Judiciary Committee. I understand the safeguards that have been put in, but having been an elections administrator in the past, I do have serious concerns, especially with regards to, as the previous speaker noted, the notification of death or change of voter's status as far as going into prison.

"There's a tremendous backlog in the Office of Elections, and they are so tremendously understaffed, especially during an election cycle. It's difficult to even be able to update those when you're trying to update the voter registration. I don't think this bill addresses that and hopefully if it does go through, that it will allow them to get more staff to do that.

"Also, in my district the majority of the votes are done through absentee voting, I don't think the safeguards protect the voters for the potential abuse that happens on the actual filling out and the collection of ballots in some cases. I'm seriously concerned about that and I think that maybe if we are to address this issue properly, we also should look into the complaints process against election fraud, as well as being able to not fear the intimidation of filing a complaint. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I ask that the words of the Representative of Kalihi be incorporated as my own. I think he expertly pointed out some pitfalls and flaws with the bill. My concern would be, to reiterate, that there's not the proper staffing right now. Unless there's going to be a copy of notification from a death certificate, the question, when you look into the details, and the devil is always in the details, really what way are we to know for sure that someone is no longer there, either through death or through moving.

"There's no way to check. And as was pointed out by the Representative of Kahala, that's the last thing on the minds of people who's loved one has passed away. So, truly, while this has a good intention and which many people would love to see, and work to see that registration is up and that voter participation is up, we don't want to do it in a way that invites fraud. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. I just wanted to counter some of those arguments. I think people need to realize that this bill is really strongly supported by AARP because I think we are starting to realize absentee voting is really about the ability for people to exercise their right to democracy and the fundamental rights of voting.

"While people may have these speculative fears about fraud, they will have to remember that that is a crime. So, if you fill out somebody else's ballot when it's not you, that's election fraud, and that's something that can be prosecuted. So, I don't think that should be a valid fear for us to not go down this road.

"When I was looking on the data on the Office of Election website, when we look at back in 1992, the earliest date that they have for the elections, back then only 40,000 people were using absentee ballots. That basically was about 8.7%. It only came out to about 1/7th of the people actually going to vote who are using absentee ballots. But we see every year thereafter, it's a substantial increase, such that, by 2006, there are 118,000 people using absentee voter ballots. That's an increase of over 70,000 of our voters participating in the democracy that we have in our State. But more so than that, it's almost one-third of those ballots cast were through absentee ballots.

"That is something I think we should remember. We need to make exercising of their fundamental rights easier, and not harder. And we cannot be using fear of bureaucracy or say that it's going to be too hard, or that we don't have enough resources, or that there is going to be potential fraud. I don't think any of those reasons are compelling enough for us to inhibit somebody's right to vote. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. One of the arguments against the bill is that the Office of Elections doesn't have the necessary resources. Well, interestingly, they supported this measure. And in fact, we introduced, at least on the House side, this measure for the Office of Elections. Would have, could have, should have, aside. This bill does try to increase voter participation. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise, Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Anything that does encourage voter participation I strongly support. We have the lowest in the nation. We've got to do something. We have to do something. My parents vote absentee and they're in their 80s. They have to go through that same process of reapplying every year and, really, that's how they're going to stay voting. If they get this, that gets to be permanent. I vote absentee and I would appreciate the convenience of this.

"In Oregon, it's all mailed ballots. So, they've dealt with it. I think what we need is, people are really concerned about fraud. We should do a study on voter fraud. How much is actually happening, and how we prevent it. But however we can get people's ballot into their hands, however, we can get it to them, I support very strongly."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. In strong support. I sort of empathize with my good friend from Kalihi in his objection to this particular measure because this is a situation where I think, he had bad personal experience in that election process and using absentee ballots. However, that personal experience should not be adequate to oppose this bill.

"This will ensure that more people will be able to vote and will want to vote. It is so hard to get our communities in Kalihi, and also in Waipahu, it's hard for them to make it to the polls. This is to encourage them to participate in their government. I think that this bill has adequate safeguards in the bill on page 3.

"In addition to that, I think if we pass another measure, that will ensure that those who are indeed, committing fraud or election fraud, will go to jail and subject them to hard labor for two years. There is a little glitch here, on page 3, line 17, however, I think it makes it very difficult to stay on the permanent list. Because if I were to study and analyze the voting records or voting habits, at least in my district, a lot of people vote at least once, but it's very difficult to have them vote twice. So, this safeguard number 4, actually ensures that almost all of the people will drop out of the list. I think this provision eventually will put people to sleep in thinking that they are on the list and not register again for absentee.

"I request that this provision should actually be removed. It should read that 'if the voter does not return a voter ballot by 6:00 p.m. on election day in an election year', should be sufficient so that if the voter does not vote for that election year, then that person has to re-register for an absentee ballot the following year. So, that way, if somebody does miss to vote in the primary or the general election, they could still permanently be on the list of those who are registered to vote in the absentee process. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a short comment in opposition. If you could incorporate the words of the Representative from Kalihi as my own, as well as just to say that, I have nothing against the absentee ballot. In fact, I find that's an okay procedure to go through. I just am in opposition of making it permanent, Mr. Speaker.

"I've noticed when I went door to door. I said if you had the option of either going in person or doing it absentee, and when I explained to them that you could do it absentee, they would just look at me and say, 'Wow, that's so easy.' It really is a simple process and it puts some responsibility on the voter to have a responsibility to, if you want to do absentee ballots, to just let them know that you want to do an absentee ballot. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. Yes, we want better voter turnout, but at what cost? We don't want to negatively affect the integrity of the process. My concern is we could have, as the Representative from Foster Village said, if you have, especially townhouses and condos, you have maybe three or four names at the same address. I can see where some people would be tempted when those absentee ballots arrived, three or four of them, to fill out all of them. So you would have some people voting three or four times, and then others that are not voting at all. I don't know if this would really solve the problem, but I do think it has the potential to damage the integrity of our voting process. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, it's interesting the discussion we're having because if you look at our current system, people can vote by absentee ballot and they can send in by mail asking for it. What it does, though, is you have to come back every year and just do it over, and over, and over again.

"The other thing is if we're really worried about people leaving the State or dying or whatever, I know from my own personal experience they can be on there four, six, eight, ten years and not be living in the same residence anymore. Supposedly, it gets purged if people don't vote after two election cycles, but I found out that's not necessarily the case. So, the way the system is working now it has a lot to be desired, and I do think this absentee ballot is a great way to go.

"For a lot of people, it's the only way they can vote. Either they're in wheelchair, they're elderly, or they've got these really, really busy lifestyle that we all talk about, voting on Saturdays when everybody's running their kids to soccer and all over the place. It's just not working so I really like this and I hope we move it forward. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just one short comment and how extremely difficult it is to catch someone who has done election fraud. We've had many complaints and most of the time they just say, 'Never mind. Let's not deal with it.' Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just want to say with regard to this fraud question, I think with the absentee ballots, we have exactly the same problem now. If you get an absentee ballot in the mail, you can take it and fill it out for somebody else and send it in. And if you have several people in the house who are voting absentee, you can mail them all in. Forging a signature is pretty easy and I don't see that if this bill passes, it will be any difference in terms of potential fraud. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 156, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VOTING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Ching, Finnegan, Manahan, Marumoto, Meyer and Ward voting no, and Representative Brower being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1864) recommending that S.B. No. 1928, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1928, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations. There are two different topics that are addressed in this particular bill. I have some concerns that in particular, in extending the role of the Auditor concerns with regards to the moneys that is going to be needed for post audits and to establish an investigative unit and all the details that are listed in the bill.

"The second concern that I have is the blank amount appropriated in this bill allocated for the 2050 Sustainability Taskforce. So I hope that the Committee on Conference will take a look at each of these issues separately. If the intent is to create an investigative unit for the Auditor to be able to look at the malfeasance and the different issues that are going on with perhaps regards to appropriate use of funds relative to our sustainability efforts.

"I think it's a little premature at the moment. We will have a draft according to the Taskforce leadership by June as to how the State Plan will be modified, as to how the 12 Functional Plans might be adjusted to reflect our movement towards sustainability, and perhaps at that time, it might be a little bit clearer as to what role the Auditor might play in helping us fulfill those plans, especially with regards to the Executive departments. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. My reservation really has to do with the Department of the Attorney General. They did comment on this bill and we heard it in Finance. They wanted an amendment in there because the Auditor might start an investigative unit on somebody or some practice, and the Department of the Attorney General may already have something going on. They wanted some kind of communication so that they wouldn't be working on the same thing and at cross purposes, but that amendment was not put in in Finance, so that's my concern. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations for the same reason."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Reservations for the same reasons."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1928, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representative Brower being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1865) recommending that S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PEDESTRIAN SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Brower being excused.

At 11:18 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 1929, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 156, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 1928, SD 2, HD 3
S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1866) recommending that S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1866, S.B. 1853, S.D. 1, H.D. 2. This is another bill that has a very good intent, but its structure may be not thoughtfully crafted at this point. This bill creates a too burdensome bureaucratic layer that may delay the management process of Hawaii's natural and cultural resources to the point of bordering on irresponsibility.

"The Aha Moku Councils are stated to be advisory bodies in this bill, but at the same time this bill gives them the power to establish regional community development programs, which have policy making and regulatory functions. According to this bill, all State agencies would have to go to these Councils for input on various State actions as related for the management and maintenance of marine, land, culture, agriculture and natural resources. Mr. Speaker, in this Legislative Session, we talked about how to fast-track permitting process. I'm afraid that this will create an extra layer of bureaucracy that would actually lengthen processes for our businesses. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise with reservations on this bill. This bill does need a lot of work and it does add another layer of bureaucracy and may hinder getting public input from a broad range of community members. I'll wait to see what comes out of the Conference Committee, but I am concerned on the structure of this bill. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with reservations, too, for similar reasons to those that have been expressed by my colleagues. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. This bill and its many forms, started off with a concept that people in the Hawaiian community, practitioners, kupuna, needed a way for them to comment on the way the resources of this State were being managed by government agencies. This is one way for people to have input.

"The decisions still rest with the existing agencies and I think in a lot of the bills that have come before this body this year regarding various natural resources, I think the underlying message is clear. Some people in this State, and a lot who are Native Hawaiians, feel left out of the existing process. I ask my colleagues to endure with us on the journey of this bill to try and make things more accessible for those. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would like to echo the words of Representative Chong, but also add to that, that over the past 200 years, Hawaii has seen and experienced severe changes. These changes include the deterioration of the Hawaiian culture, language, values and land, the ahupua'a system, that has, in part, resulted in the over-development of the coastline, alteration of fresh water streams, destruction of life giving watersheds, decimation of coral reefs and the decline of endemic marine and terrestrial species.

"Mr. Speaker, the Native Hawaiian's culture has knowledge and has been passed on for generations and is still living for the purposes of perpetuating traditional protocols, caring for and protecting the environment, and strengthening cultural and spiritual connections. It is through the Aha Moku Council that Native Hawaiians protected their environment and sustained the abundance of resources that they depended on for thousands of years.

"Today, many Hawaiian communities are becoming revitalized by using the knowledge of cultural practitioners that was passed down through kupuna and experienced farmers or mahi'ai, and fishermen or lawai'a, to engage and enhance sustainability, subsistence and self-sufficiency. Furthermore, many Hawaiian communities are interested, concerned, involved, willing and able to advise government agencies, organizations and other interested groups in integrating traditional knowledge and ahupua'a management practices.

"Mr. Speaker, I realize that in the form that this bill is in today it needs some massaging. But I just ask my colleagues to give it a chance as we journey through the legislative process because yes, the structure is not perfect. But as we discuss not only with native Hawaiians, but with every community member that comes forward who was interested in the ahupua'a management system, we are collecting that input and trying to work through to come up with a way that Native Hawaiian practitioners can voice their concern, kupunas can bring forward their knowledge. Because it's all about building trust in each community. And also teaching the respect and the protocol that they have done for centuries; to bring it forward so that we're able to bring forth best-practices management.

"I'd also like to say that this is in an advisory capacity. It is up to the department to set the policy. So this is only in an advisory capacity that Native Hawaiians will have a voice. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support and ask the words of the previous speaker be incorporated as well. This is not another level of bureaucracy. You have to have bureaucrats to have a bureaucracy. And these Aha Moku Councils are not bureaucrats. They are people of Hawaiian ancestry who have joined together to try to create an actual process that they can have more effect in creating better laws.

"On Maui, there is great excitement in seeing these brought back. In my efforts to put back the trails and to put back as we were talking about the indigenous architecture, we also have to put back the actual structure that people were able to govern themselves with. And these Aha Moku Councils are an exciting step in that direction. In order for us to really bring back the culture, we have to put back the very things that they used in order to govern themselves.

"So we're looking forward to actually seeing a new general plan that actually incorporates these Aha Moku and the ahupua'a as our land use. And it's going to be real important that we have a structure for people to tie into to be able to affect this plan. So I ask that colleagues also to look at this as a work in progress and that we can make it better, but we have to give them something."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I have the comments of the Representative East Maui, and also that of the Representative South Maui inserted into the Journal as if they were my own? In strong support. And just some brief real comments.

"I was kind of, I guess shocked, that this was being characterized as another layer of bureaucracy. I attended a meeting for the Councils in West Maui. And anybody who has been to Lahaina knows that you can't get anybody to show up unless you have a raffle to Vegas or a band. There were over 200 people there. And most of the people there were not of Native Hawaiian ancestry. They were just local common folks. Folks that engage in these practices themselves. And all they're seeking is a voice. And that's it. The governor still has power. The agencies still have a power. But what they want to make sure is that they have a voice and that also that the government looks at these traditional practices in ways of the things, the way things used to be done.

"So I hope the Members of this body will support this measure. As the Representative from East Maui so poignantly pointed out, there's work that needs to be done. But the underlying concept, participation by the citizenry and putting a check on the rulemaking of agencies that often act with total disregard, is not very much to ask. So I hope that we can support this measure and move it forward to Conference where we can work out some of these issues. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Can I have the words of the three prior representatives from the Maui in the Journal as my own? And I also want to comment that, we say, 'The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness.' And having lived here, I've noticed this idea of the ahupua'a, from the mountain to the sea is such an important concept that I think in terms of planning, it's such a good thing for us to remember that ahupu'aa concept.

"I'm very excited by this bill. I think it has a lot of potential to really add to the discussion. Adding to better land use decisions. I just see it as just a really good concept that we should take forward and make sure that planners and our citizenry hear of that concept and what that concept has to offer to us. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please just note my slight reservations. In regards to advisory capacity type boards, on Oahu we have our Neighborhood Boards and I can't tell you how frustrating it is to hear from the board members as to their only having an advisory ability and how they feel like they're really not needed because of that. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations, understanding all the underlying issues of this particular measure. I'm hopeful that as this moves forward this can also be a unifying measure for all the other Hawaiian groups. It gets kind of sticky when we start talking about Hawaiian groups and who's who, and who has the louder voice. I think out of respect for our host culture and best practices, this is a measure that is long overdue. I also hope, as the Representative prior to me just mentioned, that adjustments may be needed in the future to ensure that the advisory capacity of this particular council will be respected and adhered to. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, with reservations. My primary concern is that it's the empowerment of the community and I don't want this misperception that a piece of legislation, a statute, will empower communities to speak their voice. In my discussions with activists from my community, they empower themselves and they take on issues and they approach these agencies. And so my feeling is, yes we can strengthen the process, but we have to be real careful. Because it's up to community members to empower themselves. And not rely on a statute to do that. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Thank you. The concept is a great concept. I think people in the Hawaiian community have approached me and have strong concerns about this. But it's an excellent opportunity for us to try to move forward, to give them a seat at the table to express their concerns about the Hawaiian culture and the practices. So I strongly support this and I'm sure between the wisdom of this body and the Senate, the kinks can be lomi-ed out in Conference. Thank you very much."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support and ask that the sentiments from the Representatives from Waimea, Lahaina, Hana, Kaneohe and Kihei be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATIVE HAWAIIANS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Belatti voting no.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1868) recommending that S.B. No. 1674, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1674, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support, Mr. Speaker. Thank you. Telemedicine is fast becoming a mode of providing quality healthcare. And any step that's geared to obtaining the development of telemedicine should be supported.

"Further, there is a shortage of radiologists in our State. And this bill, if enacted, will address this problem. In fact, at our Health Committee hearing, one of the testifiers had indicated that we have 48 radiologists who hold medical licenses in the State of Hawaii, out of whom 3 still remain in the State.

"This measure will allow radiologists to review the patients' images, interpret such images and issue a signed medical report for further patient treatment care. Again, the practice will be limited to whether the radiologist is licensed to practice. Therefore, it will allow those 45 radiologists who no longer live in our State to provide such healthcare to our State. In summary, this measure will use technology and innovation to provide better access to healthcare. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support. This is about market share, Mr. Speaker because right now x-ray film can be faxed or emailed anywhere in the world, thanks to technology. So if you have a broken bone at Queen's Hospital, you can have a radiologist in Queen's New York read it for you. So this is about market share, because that would take away some of the business from the local radiologists. But I'm a kamaaina and so are they, Mr. Speaker. So I support it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1674, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative Waters, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1869) recommending that S.B. No. 946, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 946, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1869. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We've actually talked about this in depth in a former Reading on the Floor, so I'm going to incorporate those comments as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1869 in opposition and I did want to note the opposition of Mothers Against Drunk Driving. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 946, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADMINISTRATIVE LICENSE REVOCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Pine and Thielen voting no.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1871) recommending that S.B. No. 95, SD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 95, SD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1871. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I actually just discovered this a couple moments ago and I hope I'm correct on this, but I'm going to vote no on this. I thought that this was just basically a technical amendment and the synopsis is basically that it repeals a provision that any positions that are reallocated must result in positions being transferred from the State and district offices to the schools. And then the pros on this under Act 51, the schools determine the number and the kind of positions required by the school, and therefore, this section is no longer necessary.

"In the full implementation of Act 51, that is true. The school communities should be able to make those types of decisions. But what we're having right now in regards to the implementation is a very slow implementation. And of the decisions that were made and that were adopted by the Board of Education, only 15% of that is actually being implemented at this time. So I think we are actually moving on this a little quickly. That we should still have this in law, and then when we are at full implementation of Act 51 or closer, to more of the implementation of Act 51 should we decide to repeal this provision. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 95, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VACANT POSITIONS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Finnegan and Meyer voting no.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1873) recommending that S.B. No. 1068, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1068, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1876) recommending that S.B. No. 96, SD 3, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 96, SD 3, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1876 which is the DOE drug testing bill, Mr. Speaker, I have some concerns about that. I will see what happens as the bill moves forward, so I have reservations."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1876, with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Upon reviewing the bill, I think a good part of this is that this bill also adds in random drug testing, and what that is able to do is actually become a preventive measure. Many people in other labor unions also say that it's a preventive measure. I know in the fire department amongst friends, they'll say a lot of times that we decide not to do this because we can be tested at any time. So I think that that is a good measure and that's a really good thing that we have put into the bill.

"My questions are in section 1 subsection (b), (c) and (d). I'm not sure what this language gets to. It almost sounds like, 'Okay, well here we are. We have the test results.' And that's it. It kind of almost negates some of what we would need to do, and especially this part that says it becomes invalid if there's a valid collective bargaining agreement. I'm a little iffy on that because I think that's why we're doing it. Because maybe the labor union hadn't done it prior and we're not sure what's going to come up. So what if they come in and say, 'Okay, we're not going to address this issue,' although they have said that they will address this issue? Then does that mean that this is null and void?

"So I do have some questions on this. I'd like to support it as we go forward. However, I'm not sure if it has what everybody thinks it has in it. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Speaker. I rise in strong opposition to this. I think I've expressed this at Committee hearings and other times as well. But this 'War Against Drugs' is actually a war against people. People say that these drug tests are for illegal drugs. The reason they're testing for them isn't because of their affects on people. Specifically it's for marijuana because that's the reality of these tests. That it will really only catch marijuana. It won't really catch the other ones because of the way it's set up. It's not for any other drug. It's not for the way overuse of prescription drugs. And it's not in response to any problem that has been identified; that people coming to work on drugs or not being able to perform their duties because of it.

"So what this is, is a war against people. And it's a war against marijuana. And it tramples our civil rights. It requires that people hold a standard to themselves that has nothing to do with job-related performance. And so I would really ask people to really think this through. Really reconsider this whole War on Drugs. And really look at why we are testing people and punishing them just because the government at one point or another decided these things were illegal, specifically marijuana. And to really think how do we get the best teachers? How do we get the best firemen? How do we get the best people, even in this Legislature? Because I know that we're actually going to be looking at maybe drug testing ourselves. So I would ask everyone who votes for this bill to go and take a drug test ahead of time so that you can practice what you preach.

"We must stop this war against people. We must look at people that are taking all kinds of things. The most prevalent drug use is prescription drugs. And that's what being relayed right now in our kids. Our kids, marijuana use is going down. OxyContin use is going up. Is this what we want to promote? Do we want to see kids abusing prescription drugs, because that is the major problem that is facing our society right now. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some strong reservations. The previous speaker has very little to worry about with this draft of this bill because it essentially does nothing. It would make it so somebody has to get a drug test. But then, as the Representative from Foster Village pointed out, on page 2 section (b), it says that if the test results are positive, the employer may impose the following sanctions. So there's no demand that the principals do anything. So this is a really weak, weak bill that was introduced to try to solve a real problem.

"Recent press has brought attention to the problem of teachers being caught up in drug activity on school grounds. The press coverage included an elementary school teacher arrested and charged with conspiring to bring in a shipment of ecstasy and cocaine. These are serious drugs. And a high school teacher for conducting ice deals on campus. This bill was introduced because we must ensure that our teachers can be trusted and are setting a good example. This cannot happen when they have a drug problem.

"Some would say marijuana is benign. But I don't think a stoned teacher coming to school is a good representative of the Education Department. They are not going to be effective. Their thought process, everything will be affected. So this is not a small problem. Hundreds of Hawaii's families send their kids to school with the idea that it's a safe place to go, and as legislators we should do everything possible to make sure that's true. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support on this matter. I see the drug testing as a deterrent to drug use and as another armament we have towards the war on drug abuse. Whether we are searching for prescription drugs, marijuana or otherwise, I think it's good to be in the know on what our children or teachers on campus with them. I think the thought that you can be tested for drug at any time is a deterrent first of all. Secondly, it's a way to filter out those people who use them. I strongly support this measure and I would go and submit myself for drug testing any day. And I think it's good."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly. I just wanted to counter some of the arguments that have been brought up, specifically in terms of the safeguards that are put in the bill on pages two and three. What we have to remember here is that this is actually an infringement on somebody's privacy rights. And privacy is a fundamental right under our State Constitution, unlike the federal Constitution where privacy is found in the penumbra of rights and is not explicit.

"In Hawaii, we have an explicit right to privacy. And therefore, whether you like it or not, I hate to tell you, but that's a fundamental right. And when you are infringing on a fundamental right, you need to make sure that people have due process. If you don't like that, what you need to do …"

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Is the speaker speaking in support or opposition?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"He is in support of the measure. He already stated it."

Representative B. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Let me make it clearer then. Some people have said that there are too many problems with this because there are too many safeguards. I'm explaining why we need the safeguards.

"The safeguards are there to protect and give due process when we are infringing on a fundamental right. I don't know how much clearer I can make that, but privacy is a fundamental right. If you infringe on it, you need to give due process. That's what pages 2 and 3 are about. It's about due process. Because first and foremost, just because a test is positive, it does not, one hundred percent guarantee that the person has used drugs. There are false positives. Also, you cannot guarantee that the person has not used something other than what you're testing for. Some times you have prescription drugs that test positive on them and that may not be exactly what you're testing for either. It's not about health and safety sometimes if the person does have a prescription. So this is what it's about. It's giving due process rights for those individuals that do test positive.

"Now, to get to the other concern that I have with the bill. It was changed and that is why I'm a bit concerned because it does include random drug testing. Now that's something I think that does raise some constitutional concerns. There is a multitude of case law on drug testing of public employees, and while the courts have specifically found that it's fine for things like firemen, police officers and bus drivers because there is a direct correlation to their safety, when it comes to something like teachers, the case law is all over the map as to whether you need what's called, individualized suspicion. And that is what we have in the prior draft of the bill. I see that it's been changed to reasonable suspicion. So I think that's something we need to further look at as the bill continues to move.

"I do think that for now, people have said that this is something they want to see us bring forth. There were four or five arrests recently. Of course, that's only out of 13,000 teachers, so whether four or five justifies us to pass a bill and change law I'm not sure, but at this point in the game I think it's early enough where should bring it up for discussion. We'll see if the union and the employer are unable to come to an agreement and come up with something in their own collective bargaining agreement which I think, would be more prudent move; that they together come up with a mutually convenient or mutually agreeable solution. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. Thank you. I really like the intent of protecting our children and making sure that they're in a safe place, but I do have some concerns on and I want further discussion on this. One being that they did delete, if I'm reading this correctly, the support for the employee in terms of getting substance abuse treatment counseling and referral. I think we have to remember that we're dealing with a drug epidemic in Hawaii and that drugs probably cuts across the board at all different levels, in all areas of work probably, of people are having substance abuse problems.

"I also think we have to remember that alcohol abuse is a problem too, and that is a problem that is across the board, knows no boundaries. And when someone is an alcoholic, we understand they have issues, and hopefully we're there to support them and give them counseling and treatment. I hope when it comes with a drug part, if we see that people are in trouble, that we're there helping them with the treatment and the counseling, and that part of it. We have such an epidemic in Hawaii, and like we did a few years back, we really want to focus on that treatment and prevention part. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Second time with strong reservations. I'd like to address a couple of the comments that were made earlier. And I'll start with marijuana use. In my experience around me, marijuana use is different probably from some of the claims that marijuana may not be that harmful of a drug. But I've watched families and communities around us basically have some serious problems with this gateway drug. I've seen families torn apart because of marijuana. So if you think that marijuana is something that is, 'Oh, it's just a light drug. We don't have to really be careful about this type of drug.' I would argue differently.

"In regards to the whole issue about privacy issues, you know, we have Hawaii, four Hawaii labor unions that actually have this in their collective bargaining agreements currently right now. They have due process that is stronger than the language that they have in this particular bill. So I would argue right back on that and say that are we saying that these four Hawaii labor unions are violating privacy rights?

"I would also like to talk about children here. Kindergarten, first grade, second grade, third grade children for whom we cannot control their environment sat home if they have drug addicted parents. And if you talk to teachers, they'll tell you. Parents that are drug addicted can cause so much problems in school. But yet in the environment that we can control, their own classrooms, that we don't think it's important enough to have teachers not on drugs.

"And like I said, these are only whatever amount of arrests in comparison to the many good teachers out there and we're not out to get people who are not on drugs. We just want to identify those who are on drugs that could be possibly for these kids, cause them emotional distress. And if it can happen at home, when their parents are addicted to drugs, why can't that same emotional distress happen at school? National studies have shown that if you have one, two or three bad teachers in a row, that these students will never recover throughout all of their grades of public school or private school. That's why it's that important. You can sometimes hide the fact that you may be on drugs from other people like your principal or other people outside of the classroom, but these teachers are with kids …"

Representative Marumoto rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"These kids are with, sometimes singly, with one teacher for a majority of the day. Hours and hours at a time without any other adults around. We need to be able to say, if the union doesn't take care of this issue, that we will have something in place. It has not happened. From what I could see in earlier media, was that there was major resistance to this. When I talked to teachers within my district, one way or the other, they're really not against this kind of thing. So all I've got to say is we've got some very young children in an environment that we can control. And I think we owe it to them, we owe it to their families to make sure it's a safe environment.

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, note my reservations with brief comments. I thought the number was a little higher than 13,000 teachers. And for us to pass something for a small group of people who have spoiled it for the masses is, I think a bad idea. And if we're going to do it to them, then maybe we should look at doing it to ourselves as one of the bills that's crossing over from the Senate. Thank you very much for the time, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly in support. The previous speaker made a good comment. I'm perfectly happy to be drug tested. The other point I'd just like to make briefly is that I think our school teachers have to be role models directly on the issue of drugs. I don't like over-testing people, but marijuana is a big deal and other drugs are a very big deal because people drive impaired and there are a lot of accidents, a lot of car accidents on Big Island and elsewhere. I don't know how we can really expect our teachers to stand up day in, day out and tell our students not to do drugs if we're not sure that they're not doing them themselves. I don't want to persecute anybody, but I do think that teachers have to be our best role models, and they have been great role models in the State of Hawaii. So I think it's kind of reaffirming their place as role models in the State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to respond, stating:

"Still in support, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly. I just wanted to clarify. There's a difference between the collective bargaining agreement, which is a contract, when the union and employer agree to abide by certain terms, versus when we pass a bill. When we make a law, we need to follow the Constitution. That is the fundamental difference that I'm talking about. We have to stay within the constrictions and confines of the Constitution. And that is something that no matter how much you don't like it, we have to do.

"People can agree through contract to do whatever they want. And that's a different thing. So that's what I'm hoping that they will end up coming up with. I'm not criticizing what the other four unions have done. In fact, I think that's something very worthwhile and something that HSTA, I hope, is looking at. But what I'm saying is when we pass a law, we have to follow the Constitution. It's that simple. Thank you.

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Reservations and couple of comments. First of all, in response to some of the comments made by the Minority Leader, I'd be very interested in any studies that shows a direct correlation between teachers who either sell drugs or use drugs and their performance in the classroom. In my opinion, drug use in our society cuts across every demographic group, whether it's good, bad or indifferent teachers. So the example of three bad teachers in a row would damage a child, I do agree with that, but I happen to not see the correlation between that and possible drug use among these supposedly bad teachers.

"Second point is, it always is the question of where do we strike that balance. Yes, I've heard people say, let's drug test because they're role models. Why not just fingerprint everybody for that matter and put them into an automated fingerprinting system so that if a crime is committed on campus, we know who did it? Where do you cross that line? I don't know if this bill crosses that line, Mr. Speaker. But I am concerned that it may have.

"And the last point that I would make as far as gateway drug of choice, many, many studies have been done that shows the gateway drug of choice today is alcohol. Are we going to do anything about that, Mr. Speaker? In fact, alcohol stays in your system for a very short time. So, if a teacher is high on beer or Grey Goose or something, how do we catch that teacher when she or he shows up to work on a Wednesday and they had a beer at home on a Sunday? Again, Mr. Speaker, this is a slippery slope, and I do appreciate the distinction made by the Floor Leader about contracts and rights to privacy. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservations. I have a number of reservations, but I'll point out two. First, the bill makes reference to procedures, developing procedures under what they call, reasonable suspicion. And I suspect that as this measure goes along, and if it becomes law, one of the concerns will be who decides reasonable suspicion. In a school, the assumption is the principal. And I think we run into serious concerns if that's the case.

"Number two is, as the Majority Floor Leader mentioned, the contract negotiations ongoing with HSTA. There are other unions involved for employees at the school level; HGEA and UPW being the other two. In addition, Mr. Speaker, as was mentioned in hearings in the Education Committee, there are numerous individuals that work on the school campuses or volunteer or do whatever that are in close proximity of these students. And a previous proposed draft suggested that we also put these individuals under this type of scrutiny as well. So I stand with those reservations and I hope that we can fix it in Conference. Thank you."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations on SB 96, SD3, HD2: Relating to the Department of Education.

"While I am cognizant of the cases of drug use allegations against teachers, I still feel that basically, MOST teachers are law abiding, honorable members of our community. This bill is a classic case of "punishing the whole class for the wrong-doings of one individual."

"Therefore, while I support the intent of the bill to create a safe teaching/learning environment for our children, I am not convinced that controlled substance testing is the proper or only answer. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I will vote aye with reservations. I'd like to see a stronger bill and I would like to see us consider the use of dogs. Thank you very much."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in strong support and I just wanted to comment on what a previous speaker said the union should decide the policies on how we do drug testing. I think this body should be, as we call ourselves, the 'lawmaking body'. That we should be the one writing these laws about drug testing.

"And I am strongly in support of random drug testing so we can do away with this reasonable suspicion. I think that if we're working with children, that it should be part of your job to turn in for drug testing when called upon. This body had been very, very generous in protecting our children in Hawaii. And this should be one of the statements that we make. That we should police them ourselves that deals with them.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 96, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Berg, Bertram, Hanohano, Morita, Sonson and Wakai voting no.

At 12:02 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 96, SD 3, HD 2

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members of the House, we will take a one hour recess for lunch and we will reconvene at 1:00 p.m."

At 12:02 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:15 o'clock p.m. with Vice Speaker Karamatsu presiding.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1877) recommending that S.B. No. 994, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 994, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support with reservations. This measure proposed to expand the Enterprise Zone laws to include a business that produces air conditioning from a seawater air conditioning cooling system.

"While the intent of the Legislature is to encourage businesses to expand their employment base, I question whether or not they will be willing to employ those who are currently unemployed in the Downtown area. Economic growth at the cost of bringing an outside corporation and hiring those outside of the Enterprise Zone district is not what I believe is the original intent of an Enterprise Zone. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm just rising in support with some reservations. This bill is dealing with this company that's doing the seawater air conditioning cooling system. They received a SPRB from this body some time back. They've been added on as somebody that should do a tax credit because they're using energy that is not fossil fuel. Now we're creating enterprise zones. I just think that I'd like to see a little more independence from these people. It seems like they're constantly coming back for more help of some kind. I don't know who's behind it, but I can't remember a company that has had legislation moving through the legislature for so many years. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On the same measure, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting yes with reservations and my reservations are similar to the Minority Floor Leader. The seawater company has received authorization for a special purpose revenue bond and in addition they are now seeking a tax break. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations with similar concerns, as well as the concerns of the Representative from Nanakuli.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 994, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SEAWATER AIR CONDITIONING DISTRICT COOLING SYSTEMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1881) recommending that S.B. No. 138, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 138, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1923, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On 1882, I just want to register my reservations. My feeling is this bill is a reaction to the situation in Kakaako Makai a couple years ago and I'm afraid maybe we've overreacted."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1882, please. I am rising in opposition to this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A few years back we had the situation in our community regarding the Aiea Library monies being released and being able to do a land swap. And what had happened was we got down to the wire. The previous Governor did not approve the measure, and so when the new Governor came, we tried to approach it trying to do a purchase of the land. In this case, this was something that the Aiea Representatives were very much for; this particular acquiring of this piece of land. And without the ability to just get it through the Executive, which we wouldn't have been able to I believe do this procedure in time before the expiration date. So I just, I'm voting no on this."

Representative Thielen rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm standing in strong support of this measure. For those of you who recall, there was an exchange of land that was approved, or actually we failed to disapprove, because the system now currently is that we have to disapprove by concurrent resolution, when there's a land exchange.

"There was an exchange of agricultural land in Maui being done with Maui Land and Pine in exchange for land in Waipahu. At that time I objected to it because they were promising that this 126 acres of land in Maui, they say that's useless for agriculture, that was being exchanged for something that's more useful in Waipahu. But you know, many years have passed by now and the land in Waipahu actually grew. Some time after that, we acquired more land in the industrial area in Waipahu. It's nice for, I guess for the State to encourage, I guess the DLNR to have different kinds of land within their inventory. However, because we don't have any oversight in the process, it was a done deal by the time it got to us, and we really could not convince the Members to disapprove it. And as you see, we still have this land in Waipahu, and I don't know how it passed or how it passed us that it now is actually doubled the amount of land that we own.

"The argument for it was that we will be able to have someone rent the property at $11,000 a month. Well, I don't think we have achieved that goal yet. And I know that Maui Land and Pine now sits on prime ag land and they have developed it. I think the estimate was each acre of those 126, at least the usable portion, was being subdivided so that each acre was maybe around $3 million. So you want to buy land in Waipahu, land swap that land from Waipahu, without any oversight from the Legislature. I think that is what this bill is trying to cure.

"I think we do have to have an oversight, especially when we're dealing with public lands, public trust lands. We want to make sure that the State is getting their money's worth for these land exchanges. And I do support this legislation and I hope that Members not take a look at this as a reaction to something that has recently occurred. Review the history. Because of our lack of oversight, the current process, there has been many land exchanges where the State actually suffered the consequence. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1923, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANDS CONTROLLED BY THE STATE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this is making an emergency appropriation for the Department of Taxation county surcharge implementation costs. Mr. Speaker, I'm with reservations on this because this appropriation will implement the GET tax increase collection for the rail project. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 613, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm speaking with reservations. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, this has a lot to do overall with early childhood, but it also addresses some issues with junior kindergarten, the pilot project that we approved and passed out. I did want to talk a little bit about that.

"I had the chance to review the report for the HEPC Annual Meeting, this is the Hawaii Educational Policy Center, in regards to the junior kindergarten pilot program. They did a whole report and I guess the concern that I have is a concern that I mentioned when we passed out junior kindergarten in the first place. And that was the reservation that here we are. We like a program. But a lot of the time when we're talking about programs, instead of having it implemented statewide, you really need to have people at the school level that are passionate about that program for it to work properly.

"The model program that we used, and I can't remember the name, but we did go and visit the school over on Maui and they had a wonderful program having to do with junior kindergarten. The problem that I see is the passion that was behind the counselor that started up that program in Maui is not in all the different schools that have the junior kindergarten program right now. Although they would like to try it, this is not necessarily their focus.

"And so what you have back in this report from the HEPC Annual Meeting, when they reviewed this, they took an evaluation of the experiences of the 2005-2006 pilot junior kindergarten schools. and as I read through it, in a nice way, they basically a lot of the feedback and a lot of the information in here that basically gave said there was lack of guidance. And if I could just sum it up in one word it was basically, confusion. A lot of the different schools were just confused because you had a lack of guidance and resources and all of these other things, but they were required to participate in it. And what we try to do in this bill in regards to junior kindergarten is say, 'Okay, well let's try and fix it on this level,' when really, if you want to have a successful program, it has to start from the bottom up. It has to be where these folks know what's in front of them. They know what they're getting into. They want to see it done and that's why you had such a successful program in this elementary school in Maui.

"And if you look at the different implementations of how junior kindergarten was done in some of these other schools, and the way that the pilot program or the originating program was done in Maui, it's hands down very, very different. In fact, one of the comments that they had in this report was basically how, actually DOE, one of the fundamental parts about assessing, which the Maui school does on a regular basis, before you come into the school and everything, DOE is actually against it and they said that there is no scientific background on it. That is one of the fundamental parts of the program that was successful. So I don't know how this is going to work out, whether or not we have people on board to do it.

"I do appreciate the hard work in junior kindergarten. I do appreciate what everybody's trying to do. I'm not sure if this is the vehicle in which we're supposed to be doing it and we're actually trying to make it work, and I'm not sure if the people at the school level believe in it yet. So I'm going to be voting with reservations because there are other measures in regards to early childhood education in here, but if Members could just take a look at the report because I think it's enlightening.

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. With all due respect to the concerns that all of us have regarding junior kindergarten. This measure is a work in progress and it offers a cornerstone of a taskforce that early childhood education has been working with and for, for the last two years. The Hawaii Revised Statutes 302A, 409 and 410 establish a policy that the Department of Education shall develop a plan for quality voluntary education no later than January 1, 2000. The State has been waiting for seven years so far for the Department of Education to create an early learning program. With the ongoing efforts of the taskforce it is believed that this particular measure is going to anchor the cornerstone for a system that starts with 4 year-olds.

"The plan that the DOE was supposed to have created by the year 2000 would have focused on children from ages four through six, based on the current national standards and needs of Hawaii's children, etc. etc. And our Session Laws of last year actually established the four cornerstones that we hold to be the foundation for an early learning system. One, looking at junior kindergarten, not as a program, but rather as a structural component of the Department of Education's movement of children going into the regular school system. An extension of parent interaction programs. And the necessity to have teacher standards and quality teachers in classrooms.

"So I encourage actually all of my colleagues, as the previous speaker said, to look at the materials that we have before us regarding early childhood and know that this is a work in progress. And we will have some cornerstones laid out very definitely by the end of this Session."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, but with reservations. We heard this bill in Finance and it was often hard to figure out who was for the bill. There was somebody there from the Good Beginnings Alliance. They supported some things and not others. Early Learning Educational Task Force, they supported the intent, but they had other problems. The Department of Education did not support the bill at all, and the Hawaii Down Syndrome Congress offered comments.

"So we asked quite a few questions because it was pretty hard to tell who in that room was really behind this bill. But as the Representative from Aina Haina expressed that it is a work in progress, so hopefully when we get down to the end, it will please a fairly large number of these advocates. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 613, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1889) recommending that S.B. No. 871, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 871, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I will vote with reservations. I'm on the verge of going no, but I'll stay with reservations on this particular bill. One of the reservations is using the Environmental Management Special Fund. Some of the testimony was basically saying how this is being depleted. I'm not sure if there will be support from this Fund for this program.

"But the major concern for me, I think is that again, I've mentioned this last Session, that one of the problems they have is as we try to go away from the centralized bureaucracy part with Act 51 or whatever vehicle you want to identify, this particular one, what it will have to do in order to have a statewide coordination or to have that kind of effect where DOE is responsible. We have to fund a position or whatever it is, and eventually if we do enough of those, we are actually adding to that, quote, unquote, 'central bureaucracy.' And I thought that that's what we're trying to go away from.

"That although these things have a lot of merit, where we want to see food waste recycling and solid waste recycling, what we have to keep in mind is we're actually talking out of two sides of our mouth. We're basically saying, 'Yes, yes, yes. Let's have DOE be responsible. Therefore we will add some more positions.' But, 'Yes, yes, yes. We want the schools to be able to have this money and decide on what is important for them.'

"I just think that we have to as a body, we should give the right signals on what we want to do. Then in the communities, if we do what we say we want to do, which is give the communities more control, then we will be able to say when they make their decisions to not have waste recycling or to not have other programs. Then there's some accountability there because they can go to their local principal or community and say, 'Why don't you have these?' And then the principals and the community can say, 'Because we chose other things that were more important'. At this point in time, this not in the direction that I think we all said we wanted to go in. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise with some reservations on this bill. Like the previous speaker, part of my concern is that the money is coming out of the Environmental Management Special Fund. Also, there are a lot of loose ends in this bill. We have to understand what we're trying to accomplish and really what will the pilot project look like. And we don't have a handle on the cost of this project. So this bill needs a lot more work."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll be voting no on this bill. This was somebody's good idea. I think the schools have their hands full with No Child Left Behind and trying to get kids up to speed. And our passing a bill that requires a pilot project in one or more school districts when you've got the Department of Education not in favor of it, and the Department of Health opposed to the bill, the only person was in favor was a company called EcoFeed. I don't know what's in it for them.

"But if you're trying to teach kids that food waste in the garbage and the cafeteria can be recycled, they can do that on their own if they want to set up a compost area. Maybe one teacher in the school would like to do it. Food waste, if it's not meat, is great. You mix it with lawn clippings and leaves, wood chips, whatever they have. It's a good resource, but I can see why the Department of Education doesn't want to fool with it and the Department of Health doesn't want to take money out of that special fund. So I think this is unnecessary. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I also rise with some reservations and the reservations were already stated by the representative from Kauai so if I could have her words inserted as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with reservations as well. And hope that in the name of sustainability and in looking at how to become more self-sufficient, all of our Executive departments would review their policies and their methodologies of recycling all sorts of waste. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. And I have to say I agree with comments made by all the speakers on this measure."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 871, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOOD WASTE RECYCLING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Hanohano and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1890) recommending that S.B. No. 885, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 885, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I won't belabor this issue, but I just want to do mention that this also is along the lines of the previous bill in regards to points I was making about mandating, helping the DOE establish something. Whenever you give them that, they can't concentrate on the other things. They have so many things on their plate. At times, I'm a critic of how they manage the system overall. But I've got to say that we are partially to blame when we have these types of issues come up and it's not necessarily the priority of a particular school.

"I stand in strong support of agriculture and culinary arts programs in general. Throughout our school system, we have a great one at Radford High School. I believe that there are others in other areas as well. Let them do it. And let us take, if other schools want to work together with schools that have implemented these types of programs, then great. I think that that's what they should do because if you don't have the people at that particular school that have the passion to do this, then you're basically using or having the money spent not in the most effective way.

"So I am standing with reservations on this and just hope that we start to look at these things a little differently. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support and I also have some slight reservations as mentioned by the Minority Leader as well. As we know, there are measures also this year that would establish what's called STEM Academies in 14 high schools, which is sort of a mandate on these schools as well, to carve out very limited resources. Overall, I think providing opportunities and options for all our students is a good thing. Again, the devil's in the details. This is the proverbial work in progress, just like these STEM Academies and the HIEST Academies, and robotics, and all the happy good stuff that has been promoted as well. So we'll see what comes up at the end of Session. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and, touché. I think that that's a very good comment. That's why with this STEM program that is actually developed from and originated from the community colleges with their input, that hopefully what that will do is if there is no one interested in that program or has the passion for that program, then that program will fall flat. It does do a wonderful job at recognizing all the different schools that have the STEM program and are making significant affects within our education system."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 885, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1891) recommending that S.B. No. 1614, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1614, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support. This measure will appropriate funding for the implementation of a new human resource management model at Waianae High School and its feeder schools to confront the teacher retention problem at the Waianae schools. If successful, this program will allow the DOE school system to recruit highly qualified teachers system wide. In addition, human resource goals will include: the establishment of clear expectations to teacher performance, professional development with career focused opportunities and an induction program to acclimate new teachers to the area.

"In closing, this proposal is vital for the Waianae coast. It will help to recruit and provide highly qualified teachers who will improve the education of the school system and increase the opportunity for students to achieve their dreams. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1614, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1892) recommending that S.B. No. 1820, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1820, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this particular measure mainly because it will cost the State more to build these educational facilities and the interest rate is higher. So I think we should stick to the traditional way of financing our educational infrastructure."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1820, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1893) recommending that S.B. No. 1932, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1932, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1894) recommending that S.B. No. 992, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 992, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support with reservations on SB 992, SD1, HD2. The purpose of this bill is to clarify that naphtha sold for the use in a power-generating facility will be assessed a 1-cent per gallon fuel tax. Apparently, there has been confusion about that fact. Currently, naphtha is the only liquid fuel when used for electric-power generation whose taxation is not explicit.

"For those of you who are uncertain as to what naphtha is, think of Coleman lighter fluid, or the fluid in your cigarette lighter. A Zippo uses naphtha, for instance. Another usage is aviation fluid. These are just some of the examples of naphtha. But the most common usage of naphtha is in the feedstock industry. So we have a number of people in the agricultural industry and other small businesses who are affected by this bill.

"The question I have is whether we are creating consistency in our tax laws, or actually giving users of this fuel a tax break. If we are creating consistency, then I'm for it. If we are creating a tax advantage, then I believe this bill needs to be called into question.

"Those are my thoughts. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 992, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Brower voting no, and Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1899) recommending that S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with slight reservations on this bill. My reservation is a very simple question. Is Iolani Palace going to be renamed by this bill? Will it be the Museum of Monarchy History or will it be both? The people I've talked to really like the name, 'Iolani' so I state my reservation with a question.

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of SCR1899, SB162, SD1, HD2: Relating to Iolani Palace

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to designate Iolani Palace as the State of Hawaii Museum of Monarchy History and exempt the Palace from standards and conditions related to the receipt of funds contained in Chapter 42F (Grants and Subsidies).

"Iolani Palace deserves dedicated financial support from the Legislature, and SB 162 may be the vehicle to do this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do have some reservations because it appears like they're changing the name of Iolani Palace. I have some other concerns so I'm voting with reservations and will like to have these remarks inserted in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of SB162 SD1 HD2, which would support Iolani Palace by making it also function as the State's Museum of Monarchy History, and helping it receive grants and subsidies for that purpose. The history of our monarchy is an important record of our past which should be preserved and passed on to future generations. I do have a concern with how the bill is worded because it appears that the Palace would no longer be referred to as Iolani Palace, but the Museum of Monarchy History. That may be an unintended consequence."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IOLANI PALACE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Bertram and Souki being excused.

No. 1400, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FINANCIAL ABUSE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Chong, Souki and Thielen being excused.

Representative Waters, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1903) recommending that S.B. No. 1636, SD 2, HD 2, as amended in HD 3, pass Third Reading.

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1636, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUBSTANCE ABUSE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Manahan and McKelvey voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Chong, Souki and Thielen being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1365, SD 2, HD 3, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, this is another one of those innovative, creative measures for our future. It's a bill that will hopefully take us from the economy of land development, to that of human resources development and puts stress on entrepreneurship, innovation and risk-taking. That is if we're going to be ready for the big wave of the global economy that's going to hit this island.

"This bill has been somewhat misunderstood, it's been characterized a little bit slightly differently, but basically it's a soft mandate to ask the ERS to invest in Hawaii's companies. And that is to encourage those that are promising, emerging companies, promising emerging companies means that they're not upstarts. They're not new risky businesses. They are those that have already got out of the chute and are off and running.

"Presently, the ERS has 5% or $500 million that it has allocated for these, 'alternative investments.' The only downside is that $360 million of that is invested now, but it's invested offshore on mainland companies and not one penny is in any of the Hawaii companies. This bill will not force the ERS, I repeat, this bill will not force the ERS to invest in Hawaii companies. It will run the same stringent profitability, feasibility, balance sheet, cash flow, profit and loss statement, and strictly as they would any other investment. It's simply saying to give the Hawaii companies a chance. And Mr. Speaker, if we don't believe in our own companies, who is going to be able to do that?

"This bill will kick in where Act 221 and Act 215 has already jumpstarted the high-tech industry. The difficulty is once those high-tech businesses start getting off the ground, they go from a $1 to $2 million financing need, to a $5 million need and above. And generally, this is when they leave Hawaii because that's where the money is, and that's where they're relocating. Unfortunately, when they leave, we lose jobs and we lose our tax base.

"On the contrary, this bill will have a brain gain rather than a brain loss, in terms of attracting companies, as well as keeping the high paying jobs here. The rising stars that we want to keep are the ones that we need this bill to send to message. These are those in the Hawaii business community. These are those listening on the mainland and in the world for what Hawaii's going to do. This is a shot across the bow for high tech companies to seriously look at us.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill could create the future Bill Gates. Could create the Oracles. It could help create the high paying jobs that everyone in this body very, very seriously desires to have happen. This is a creative innovative thing. It's about our future and I thank everyone for voting for it now, and when it comes up for the Final Reading in a number of weeks. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in strong support and I ask that the words of the Representative Hawaii Kai be inserted as my own. I'd like to just say, 'Buy Hawaii, Invest Hawaii'. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservation. I just wanted to refute the argument that this is a creative and innovative idea. It was done nine years ago under different a type of packaging, with the same type of language. It was not a good idea then. It's not a good idea today."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise with reservations. This bill started out as a recommendation by the Governor that we have the ERS allocate $100 million for these investments. It has since then morphed in the Senate to an unspecified amount and now it is before us as a 3% allocation to Hawaii companies. What I would like to note, and I disagree with the speaker from Hawaii Kai, the total global ERS investments in venture investments at this time, as I understand it, is 2.5%. As this moves forward, I do think that there may be some merit to it, but I would like to see that percentage dropped lower to reflect a more prudent approach to spending our employees' pension funds."

Representative Berg rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. In strong support. The bill supports local businesses, and I'm in strong support for that notion. There is I guess, a misconception of the data here. There's actually $12 million that's already a part of the AI portfolio that's helping. It's not allocated, but won by a company through the process that is existing. What the bill tries to do is try to encourage more of the money that's being used for AI, that's alternative investments, to ensure that Hawaii gets a primary look or a careful look by the managers.

"What has been happening is that the Board is charged with this fiduciary duty to make money. The Board is doing a great job. If you only look at that, that their only job to the members is to make money, then we should not fight them if they want to invest in this kind of investment when it's bringing in 20%. What is prudent according to the experts is that with $10 billion in assets, is that they can invest up to three to five percent of that in AI. And when we go back and say if what the Board really wants to do is to get the maximum amount of money back for beneficiaries, who are the retirees, then that's why they invest in petroleum assets in Sudan, and of course we don't agree with that.

"It doesn't matter how much money you're making. It shouldn't go to that point. But on the other hand, we're trying to tell them again here, 'Look. You are investing this amount of money outside of Hawaii anyway. Why don't you try to take a second look at the opportunities here for the benefit of our economy. For the benefit of the people of Hawaii. For the benefit your own beneficiaries who have to live here anyway.' We're not telling you to invest in a dangerous situation. Make it so that you have the same standards as you look at other companies outside of Hawaii. This measure is to ensure that the managers that are being appointed, being contracted, that they can still fulfill their fiduciary duty which is to make lots of money, but we're telling them if you can make a lot of money in Hawaii just as well as you can make money in Sudan or any other place using the same methods, please consider Hawaii. So that's why I'm in strong support of this measure. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. And I do agree that as far as the money from the ERS, I would rather see instead of a percentage like is in this bill now at 3%, just a dollar amount like the Governor had in her original bill dealing with funding for these innovation programs. And I think it would be a more conservative approach. So, perhaps as it moves along we can get that down to a dollar amount which was $100 million. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know, it was really enlightening for me to be a part of the previous Committees. I think it was our TAC and EDB Committee jointly with Education. Anyhow, when questions were being asked about how we have exercised our fiduciary duty, the ERS representative was basically explaining about some of the different types of AI or alternative investments they have made. Some in timber, and supposedly if I remember correctly that there was a major loss in that. Not here, not a local business. And we also discovered that there were, there was a Hawaii based company that went abroad to the mainland and actually got investment monies from another retirement system, state retirement system and it's doing very successfully.

"The points that Representative from Waipahu mentioned in regards to Sudan and that sort of thing, I think rang true to me. We do have the option, and basically what we're asking them is just to kind of guide them to say, 'Hey look here. Look here first.' Because if we do invest here, using prudent practices, we're not saying to you know put the blindfolds on and basically give them a chance even though they're higher risk normally than we would take. But this is basically the 3% or 2.5%, whatever we deem as being okay and saying let's give them a chance to be able to go in front of a locally managed investment company so that these guys don't have to go traveling all over to the mainland or whatever to try and make their point to get our ERS investment dollar. I think it's a prudent way to move forward. It's a prudent way to invest in Hawaii companies. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. The second half of this bill dealing with the University of Hawaii, it is a solid part of the bill. The first part of this measure is somewhat questionable. The bill simply encourages investment. It does not mandate anything. It simply conveys the sentiments of lawmakers, so do we really need a law to go down this road? Wouldn't a resolution suffice?

"There is a resolution that is already moving forward. That resolution is favored by the ERS Administrator. Mr. Shimabukuro and his trustees do not support this bill. On repeated occasions I have asked the Director of DBEDT to get an opinion from the Attorney General regarding the fiduciary liability on trustees. He has never, over the past two years, gotten that opinion to us. So it is unclear if we remove that liability from the ERS trustees, if ultimately, that liability is placed on the taxpayers. If this idea goes south, are we actually putting the taxpayers of Hawaii on the hook for any potential losses?

"This was a novel idea nine years ago. It might be an idea we should explore. But I'm not too confident that we actually need a law rather than a resolution to achieve what we want to achieve with this idea. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Just a slight retort. I think what was said was very well said, and it applies to every investment that the ERS takes. If they go south on anything, they're going to be held accountable. What we've got here is essentially business as usual except, look local. For Hawaii. Ten billion dollars. It's not saying take any more risk than you are doing now, whether you're doing timber on the mainland, or making a lot of money in Sudan. It's saying business as usual, but geographically, Google Earth, come down, look at Hawaii. Be as stringent, as serious as the banks in this community. Look at anybody who gets a loan. We look at every investment. But we don't change our criteria. It's that simple. It's that painless, but it's that much of a benefit in terms of jobs created, tax bases and for a different kind of economy that all of us are so sad saying look all we've got is tourism, we've got military spending. Here's a chance to break out of that without any risks. To me that's a no-brainer, Mr. Speaker. It's business as usual, focused locally. That's the difference. Thank you.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1365, SD 2, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INNOVATION ECONOMY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Hanohano voting no, and Representatives Bertram, Chong, Souki and Thielen being excused.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1779, HD 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILDREN," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Chong, Souki and Thielen being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1910) recommending that S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This bill arose because of a State Supreme Court decision that sided with the City and County of Honolulu quite a few years ago. They took thirteen garbage collectors that were sitting around and doing nothing and at the overstaffed Pearl City baseyard and transferred them to where they had productive work to do at the understaffed baseyard in Honolulu. The labor union involved was opposed to this move to increase efficiency and spend taxpayer dollars wisely. They wanted these thirteen workers to continue to be unproductive and force the City and County to hire new union workers for the understaffed Honolulu facility. Also, the union could increase its membership.

"This bill would set up unreasonable demands by labor unions at the expense of the taxpayers. And the most egregious thing it does is it interferes with the ability of government agencies to manage their personnel in an efficient manner by allowing negotiations over the criteria or basis to be used in management decision making on various employment actions. In short, they are taking the prerogative of employers to transfer employees to different locations. This has always been something that management can do and they want to put that into the collective bargaining process. I think we're making a big mistake if we pass this bill. Thank you.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I can't let that pass by without speaking in support of this bill. This is a very good bill. Yes, the labor bill. SB 1642, SD 1, HD 1, SCR 1910. This bill does not take away anything from employers or management. Employers always have their, the usual say on transfer in those internal matters that the Supreme Court says they have. What is at stake is really the 'how' part. Not the 'what'. 'What' is if you're calling it 'transfers, that's the 'what'. What are you going to do? Transfer people that are sitting around? We are not interfering with that. They can transfer them. We don't want you to proceed with this measure and vote on it thinking that that's what this is all about.

"This has nothing to do with what has occurred in the City and County of Honolulu and the facts in that case are somewhat different from what has been stated on the Floor this afternoon. But let's go back to this bill. This bill clearly says that management can decide the 'what' part. If they want to transfer any person to somewhere else, that's fine. That's their prerogative. The employer can always do that. But the 'how' part which is the criteria procedure. And you know we have to avoid these major disruptions in people's lives too. And you know, this is a practice that's already out there in the City and County and the other counties etc. anyway. They do this.

"The reason why that this bill is before us is because there have been situations where the Supreme Court case has been used in a manner that's not supposed to be. If you are saying that our decision is final. You can't do anything because ILWU v. Hannemann says you can't. And the law, that was never the holding of that particular case. It was never meant to stop the grievance proceedings on the criteria and procedures, and that is something that is practiced anyway. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Really I thought somebody would get up. I'd be happy to get up again. The Chairman of Labor seems to think that this is practically nothing new. But in the wording in the bill it certainly is. We've added a lot of new language and it says that this subsection which kind of described employer's rights, this says the subsection shall not be used to invalidate provisions of collective bargaining agreements in effect on and after June 30, 2007. And shall not preclude negotiations over these procedures and criteria, promotions, transfers, assignments, demotions, it goes on and on. It is clearly an effort to put these kinds of decisions under collective bargaining where they have not been in the past.

"In Committee, only the HSTA and the Hawaii Government Employees testified in support. And those that opposed it were the Office of Collective Bargaining, Department of Human Resource Development, the Judiciary, the Department of the Attorney General, the Department of Education, the Department of Human Resources of the County of Hawaii, Department of Personnel Services of the County of Maui, the Department of Human Resources of the City and County of Honolulu. It was strong opposition. The Hawaii Police Department and the Maui Police Department opposed this measure. Bigger minds and a larger group of people than myself, feel this is not a good bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABOR," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Chong, Souki and Thielen being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1911) recommending that S.B. No. 750, SD 3, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 750, SD 3, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, I'm concerned about a language change that was made in the bill in Finance. The bill initially required counties to establish a criteria for permitting vacation rentals. As many of us know, many of our communities are struggling with this problem. Advocates before the Finance Committee embraced permitting and want to be more regulated. So my understanding is they like that portion of the bill. Now that the bill requires the counties to establish a criteria for the control over vacation rentals, and bed and breakfast establishments. I'm just worried that this may have weakened the bill and it may throw the work regulations into even further unclarity.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 750, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Chong, Souki and Thielen being excused.

At 2:12 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1756, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 1400, SD 2, HD 3
S.B. No. 1636, SD 2, HD 3
S.B. No. 1365, SD 2, HD 3
S.B. No. 1779, HD 3
S.B. No. 750, SD 3, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1912) recommending that S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. I understand the purpose of this measure, which is to assure the health of our ocean ecosystem by appropriating funds for the development of an ocean health consensus project. In other words, to help establish rules that help govern the continued health and wellbeing of our oceans, and requiring that we get consensus from all parties involved. Mr. Speaker, my concern is not about this process, but about who decides what is consensus.

"I think it's important that we receive input from DLNR and from the University of Hawaii, but it's equally important that we hear from those who are culturally and traditionally affected by what goes on in our oceans. That means, Native Hawaiians and our local fishermen. These are people who have been around the waters of our great State for centuries. They know what works and what doesn't. They know where the problems are and they have passionate ideas about solutions. It's important that their voices are heard and heard loudly, and that they are not drowned out by bureaucrats or scientists or others with a political axe to grind.

"Let's make sure that our oceans are taken care of by the very people who are affected the most. I hope we can make this bill more definitive in that context as it moves forward. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OCEAN HEALTH CONSENSUS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1921) recommending that S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support on SB837 SD2 HD2. Mr. Speaker, this bill, amongst other things, authorizes the Agribusiness Development Corporation (ADC) to issue revenue bonds to purchase agricultural land in Kunia and Ewa from private entities.

"Mr. Speaker, I am a strong proponent of preserving our agricultural lands on the leeward coast to promote a thriving and growing community. "To preserve open space, farmland, natural beauty, and critical environmental areas," is one of the principles of smart growth, a concept I support. By passing SB837 SD2 HD2 open space preservation can be achieved and will improve our community's quality of life.

"Mr. Speaker, with all of the development occurring on West Oahu, it is critical to preserve and maintain our agricultural lands to maintain a balance between our aina and the projected growth. By supporting SB837 SD HD2, we are following the principles of smart growth for the Kunia and Ewa district. This measure will allow us to do what is pono by respecting the land, our culture, and the community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1922) recommending that S.B. No. 323, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 323, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1923) recommending that S.B. No. 707, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 707, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I have reservations on S.B. 707, H.D.2 – Relating to a New Markets Tax Credit. While the intent of this bill, to encourage business investments in low-income areas, is admirable, the Department of Taxation's comments on the bill are revealing and raise questions that deserve further consideration.

"For example, the Department notes that, as drafted, it is possible "that only one or two taxpayers in the entire State may qualify" for the tax credit. The Department further states that "[w]hen it appears that the general public cannot reasonably qualify, a tax credit begins to look more like a directed subsidy to those few that qualify." The Department also raises concerns about (1) how this credit provides benefits to entities that benefit Hawaii, (2) whether this bill has recapture provisions so that the benefit to Hawaii is maintained, and (3) whether a state-run New Markets Tax Credit is effective at producing the intended result.

"As this bill moves forward into Conference Committee, my hope is that these concerns will be considered and addressed."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 707, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A NEW MARKETS TAX CREDIT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1924) recommending that S.B. No. 1804, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1804, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This measure will provide an additional funding mechanism to the Trauma System Special Fund by adding a trauma surcharge on penalties for various offenses such as speeding, accidents involving death or bodily injury and convictions related to violence under Hawaii Revised Statutes 707 and 708.

"Here, the surcharges do have a logical connection and a nexus to the Trauma Special Fund as said offenses are associated with increased risk of serious injury. In fact, we just got information from Queen's Medical Center this morning that over 50% of their trauma patients have evidence of alcohol or drugs. I believe that the money from the cigarette tax is substantial, but it's not going to be enough. Therefore, the surcharge's additional funding will ensure that we have continual viability of the trauma centers.

"It's not only for Queen's, but this is throughout the entire State. In fact, in 2006, the Legislative Reference Bureau published a report on a crisis in trauma care for Hawaii, and they concluded that the rationale for public support of uncompensated trauma service is the same as for critical police and fire services. The trauma system is a necessary public service that ought to be publicly supported. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I support this measure and I hope that all members will support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some strong reservations. This bill would impose new taxes, surcharges levied on citations for traffic violations, drug use, or various violent crimes. While the underlying purpose of this bill is admirable, improving trauma care, we can pay for this trauma care out of existing general fund revenues. We should not gouge our residents by adding a slew of new taxes when we have the highest per capita State taxes in the nation. It's the highest. I'd say that the people of Hawaii are long suffering. I mean, they are paying big time.

"In addition, the nexus for these fees for the service that would be supported is very, very indirect. I also think because of the statute that was passed last year where the trauma people are getting money from the Tobacco Tax that's barely gone into effect, we should wait and see how much that comes out to before we jump on the bandwagon to find another source of money at the expense of our taxpayers. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to respond, stating:

"That you, Mr. Speaker. Still in support. Mr. Speaker, the surcharge is actually targeted. This is for, as I mentioned earlier, speeding, accidents involving death or bodily injury. This is very targeted. It will also serve as a strong deterrent. So, hopefully, we can pass this measure and send a message to not drink and drive or cause bodily injury to others. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Could you just note my reservations on 1924, the Trauma Special Fund surcharge, for some of the reasons as the Representative from Kahaluu."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1804, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRAUMA SYSTEM SPECIAL FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1925) recommending that S.B. No. 1919, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1919, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of Senate Bill 1919. This omnibus package, which has come to us from the Senate, has three major parts, two of which were subjects of House Bills submitted by our Women's Caucus. These parts relate to the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), Financial Education, and the Individual Development Account (IDA) program as a way of encouraging savings.

"Each aspect of this omnibus bill is geared toward assisting lower income people to become more self-sufficient and less dependent on public assistance. The passage of this bill will help those among Hawaii's residents who are in most need of help.

"As is reasonable to ask of any legislation involving appropriations, the question arises as to how this bill—particularly the IDA and Financial Education portions—will be funded. The language of the bill is clear, at least in regard to Part III, the IDA section, that Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) funds shall be used for this purpose. There have also been discussions with the Department of Human Services regarding the use of TANF monies to fund the proposed financial education program.

"Both the Legislature and the Executive Branch have spoken of the need to relax the tax burden on the most economically disadvantaged residents of our State. While there are differing opinions, along with various legislative vehicles introduced, about how this can be done, the EITC does represent a step in the right direction.

"I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting SB 1919. Mahalo."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I support S.B. 1919, H.D. 2 because it provides targeted tax relief to low and moderate income families. This bill proposes a State Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) that directly benefits working people. The EITC is designed to reward and encourage work, and it is a proven policy in twenty-one other states at decreasing the disproportionate, regressive tax burden placed on those earning the least among us.

"The Legislature has the opportunity this year to ease the burden on those who struggle the most and, in fact, are working to pull themselves out of poverty. This measure is not simply a hand-out, but a hand-up and a much needed policy to help Hawaii's working families."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1919, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ASSET BUILDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1926) recommending that S.B. No. 1946, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1946, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DAM SAFETY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Chong, Green and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1927) recommending that S.B. No. 1283, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1283, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I just would like my colleagues to note there was a newspaper article this morning that indicated that one-third of all cancer deaths last year were directly caused by smoking and that unfortunately efforts to curb both adolescent and adult smoking are being hampered by the fact that the tobacco companies are outspending the opposition to tobacco 23 to 1. This bill would make that situation even worse here in Hawaii and that's why I'm opposing it. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1927, I rise with a no vote. I was going to give my 20-minute speech, but the Representative from Nuuanu suggested that I insert my written comments. So can I have permission to insert written comments? Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I am against this measure. Let me say at the onset that I continue to support the University of Hawaii and the UH Medical School.

"My objection to this bill is based on the old adage: promises made, promises kept. This issue goes back to 1999 when we set up the Tobacco Settlement Fund. It also goes back to the University's initial commitment to the medical school in 2001. But, it also goes back to commitments made as recently as a couple years ago and, in fact, just a few days ago.

"If we don't hold the University or other departments to their commitments, what good are their promises? And how can we believe them in the future?

"In 1999, we created the Hawaii Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund. The then Chair of the Health Committee said: "If all goes as planned, someday when we look back on all the issues and measures I have had the privilege of being involved with, this measure, I believe, will be one of those that I will remember as being significant and very important."

"Not two years later in November 2001, when our nation was reeling from the attacks in New York and Washington, D.C., we came back in Special Session to pass a number of measures, including one that changed the initial funding formula for the Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund and diverted 28 percent of funding to the construction of the UH medical school in Kakaako.

"In 2001, we reduced our initial commitment to the rainy day fund from 40 percent to 24.5 percent. More importantly, in 2001, we reduced the money going into the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund from 25 percent to 12.5 percent.

"The commitment to use 28 percent of the funds for the UH medical school is much more than covering a $150 million bond float. It's really about spending 300 million dollars! The debt service agreement was originally pegged at $302 million or around $10 million for 30 years.

"In addition, the University committed to raising $150 million in matching funds to cover the cost of renovating the old Bio-Medical Sciences Building, to cover the cost of construction of the new Cancer Research Center, and to cover the operational costs of the new medical school in Kakaako.

"In 2001, I voted against our efforts to erode the promises we originally made in 1999. My vote today is in part because of this. But, my vote against this measure today is much, much more.

"We must hold people accountable for their words, commitments, actions, or, in this case, inactions. I would like to read from a few letters that I have received in the past.

"On March 25, 2003, Dr. Ed Cadman, former dean of the UH Medical School, wrote: "Our best guess would be that operation and maintenance costs of the facility will be between $6-$7 million annually. We expect to primarily fund these costs through F&A (facilities and administration) cost recovery from sponsored projects."

"Cadman continued, "We understand (the Legislature's) expectation that the new School campus will be financially self-sufficient and the importance of having the ability to accurately measure and evaluate the School's return on investment."

"On February 25, 2004, David Morihara, former Director of Government Relations, wrote: "We anticipate that a substantial portion of the operating costs of the core facilities will be funded in future years mainly through the extramural facilities and administrative recovery mechanism and secondarily through interest earnings on endowments generated from naming opportunities and a contribution from the ancillary services provided on campus."

"Director Morihara also provided us with a chart explaining the Operating Cost Projections from fiscal year 2005 to fiscal year 2009. The chart shows that there were initial state funds of $1.8 million to fund the start up of the medical school in FY05. An additional $3.9 million was needed in FY06 to carry the medical school through a second year of transition. However, in FY07, which is this year, the operations of the medical school were supposed to be nearly 100 percent self-sufficient. At that time in 2004, their own figures suggested that only $364,952 was needed in additional state funds to operate the new facilities. They projected needs of $352,094 for FY08 and $337,822 for FY09.

"On March 7, 2005, President David McClain wrote: "I do want to acknowledge that with regard to the funding of the operating costs of the research building and the educational building of the John A. Burns School of Medicine at its new location in Kakaako, initial commitments made in 2001 at the time the construction of the new facility was approved have been shown with the passage of time to have been overly optimistic."

"President McClain's comments were welcomed and necessary. Two years ago, he committed to re-doing the financial plans for the medical school. He brought in Professor Shirley Daniels to come up with the new plan. At that time, we approved an additional $3.7 million for both FY06 and FY07. This temporary funding was placed in our budget as a proviso because the University committed to fixing their balance sheets by June 30, 2007. According to their commitments just two years ago, they were only going to need this $3.7 million for two years. Afterwards, their financial plans suggested that very little State funds would be needed in this biennium budget for the operations of the medical school.

"So what happened this year? The University requested $4.1 million for FY08 and $4.35 million in FY09, in addition to the $3.7 million in the two-year proviso. Just two years ago, they said that they would need little to no State funds to operate the medical school. This year, they say that they will need $15.8 million for the next two years in new money! This is absolutely irresponsible.

"A few weeks ago, we passed our version of the state budget. I said then that I would support increasing the medical school base by $3.63 million and $3.95 million for the next two fiscal years. Our budget was very generous. The total general fund support to the medical school in our budget is about $5.6 million each year.

"But the University said that it was still around $4 million short in operating funds even after our very generous support in our budget. So, what did they do? They now propose making up the difference utilizing this bill.

"I asked Vice President Gary Ostrander what would happen if they did not get the additional $4 million for each of the next two years. He said that they would be able to survive, but will need to make some reductions to their financial plans. I told him that his comments on right-sizing the budget were the same comments we heard two years ago. Did the University right-size the budget two years ago? The answer is no. If they did right-size the budget two years ago, would we be in this predicament today? The answer to this is no.

"This bill will allow the University to access the leftover monies from the 28 percent annual allotment. The University did refinance the bonds last year. We need to acknowledge and thank them for this. Now, the payment for FY08 is $6.6 million and the payments for the out years are a little less than $10 million for each year.

"If this bill passes, the University will realize a lot of money. Next year, with a significant increase in funds going into the Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund, we calculate that the University will realize an additional $7.4 million! In FY09 and beyond, if this bill passes, the University will receive additional funds in excess of $3 million each year.

"How can we in all good conscience provide this amount of funds to the University? What we're saying with this bill is that the University is no longer responsible to keep their commitments, no longer required to keep their financial books balanced, because they can always come back to the Legislature if they should fall short. Is this a good message? My answer is absolutely NO.

"I wanted to talk a little bit about our commitment to the Cancer Research Center. Recall that in 2001 when we approved the use of tobacco funds for the medical school that the University's commitment was to provide the necessary funds to construct a new Cancer Research Center facility. Last year, we passed SB 2961, which became Act 316. This bill increased the cigarette tax from $1.40 per pack to eventually $2.60 per pack in 2011. Some of this increase was to pay for the construction and operations of the new Cancer Research Center. In fact, the University will receive $11 million, $16 million, and $22 million, respectively, for the next three years for the construction and operations of the cancer center.

"Last year in my Floor speech I said the following: "Years from now when we look back on this particular bill and our allocating of funds for three years to the Cancer Research Center, I don't want us to again be placed in a predicament to increase funding for the operations of these new buildings. The University of Hawaii and their leaders must be held accountable to their commitments. The taxpayers and in this case, smokers, deserve no less."

"Leadership means many different things to different people. To me, leadership means being able to say no to those who promise one thing, but do another. Leadership means being able to tell the University that they need to honor their commitments to make some difficult decisions.

"I want to assure my colleagues that the medical school will not close if this measure doesn't pass. Killing this measure sends a strong message to the University that they must redo the financial plans for the school. I urge my colleagues to vote against this measure."

Representative Chang rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB 1283, the purpose of which is to support the University of Hawaii's John A. Burns School of Medicine by allowing the UH to use its allotment of moneys from the Hawaii Tobacco Settlement Special Fund to pay for the Medical School's operating expenses, in addition to paying for debt services.

"All of us in the Legislature were very proud – and rightfully so - of our role in helping establish the new Kaka'ako facilities of the Medical School when it opened two years ago. Its development has transformed a blighted, run-down neighborhood into one of the brightest areas of our State, as a showcase for modern medical education and health-related research. It holds the potential for serving as a catalyst for the growth of a medical biotech industry that improves human health and extends human life.

"But the John A. Burns School of Medicine – also known as JABSOM – is much more than a shiny new building.

- It has produced more than half of Hawaii's 3-thousand active physicians. It is taking steps to alleviate the shortage of doctors on our Neighbor Islands by establishing a medical residency in Family Practice later this year at the Hilo Medical Center, and plans to expand this residency to Kona, Kauai and Maui in future years.

- Its annual class of 62 medical students includes some of the best and brightest youth of the State. Our students excel – in 9 out of the past 10 years our JABSOM graduates scored above the national average in US medical licensing exams;

- JABSOM was listed this month in the US NEWS AND WORLD REPORT 2008 Rankings of America's best graduate programs. JABSOM's geriatric medicine program is rated 12th best in the nation – outdoing other medical schools that have far older reputations and far larger resources than Hawaii's. Our program was recognized for its work with senior citizen homes to improve medical care for our elderly and for its research to help our elderly lead healthy, productive lives.

- JABSOM's faculty are also spearheading research into some of Hawaii's most urgent problems – such as studying the medical consequences of crystal methamphetamine on the human brain and cardio-vascular system; experimenting with medicines that reduce the strong addiction to "ice"; and opening a clinic to assist pregnant women who are addicted to "ice." Today's Honolulu Advertiser headline announced the possible partnership by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention and the UH Medical School. This is another prime example of the type of function that avail the School of Medicine, which could serve as a model for other partnerships.

- The expenditure of Tobacco Settlement Funds on JABSOM is consistent with the Special Fund's goal of preventing smoking and dealing with its consequences. UH medical students and faculty educate high school students about the harmful effects of tobacco through the Student Health Education Program (SHEP). The ill-effects of smoking is a part of its basic medical education curriculum and scientific research. JABSOM's Dr. Elizabeth Tam holds an endowed chair on respiratory health which is leading research into the cause, prevention and treatment of respiratory diseases

"But there is a cost associated with operating and maintaining these facilities. Recent increases in utility rates have hit JABSOM especially hard because of the heavy energy use by its round-the-clock labs and scientific equipment. The annual cost of operating and maintaining the new Kaka'ako facility is about 9-million dollars a year.

"I know there is concern about the level of State support that's needed by the Medical School. That is why we are requiring the UH to complete, as soon as possible, a long-term business plan that incorporates the operational costs of its Kakaako facilities and projected overhead income generated by extramural research and training

"I am ask my colleagues to support SB 1283 because the funds provided by this measure will help JABSOM maintain a standard of excellence that benefits the health of Hawaii's people - now and into the future."

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to declare a potential conflict. I sit on the John A. Burns School of Medicine Friends Board," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this measure. This bill will allow the University of Hawaii – John A. Burns School of Medicine to pay for operating expenses with any money remaining after debt service for the medical school is paid. Current law requires 80% of the money remaining to be deposited into the Emergency and Budget Reserve Fund and 20% of the money remaining to go to the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund.

"Although this mechanism was set up in 2001, there has been minimal or no transfer of money to either the Rainy Day Fund or the Tobacco Prevention Fund because there has been, on average, a shortfall for debt service of over $1 million a year that has been made up by the University.

"Starting next year, in 2008, the State is expected to receive an increase in MSA payments. With the increase, the University will finally have enough money to make their debt service payments. Based on current projections, the amount that would be transferred to the Rainy Day Fund would be about $3 million. The Tobacco Prevention fund would get about $790,000.

"Promises made by a former President of the University should not preclude the current President of the University and Interim Dean of JABSOM from exploring different funding options. After all, we bear some responsibility for going along with the proposal of the former President. Let's be fair and open to exploring different proposals considering where we are today.

"The amount we provide JABSOM via this bill may supplant general funds being considered in the budget, so that JABSOM would not get a windfall if the projected increases in MSA payments materialize.

"Let's also be clear about what this proposal does. Under this proposal, the Tobacco Prevention Fund will still get over $2 million more each year, the Department of Health will receive $6 million more each year, and the Rainy Day Fund will get over $4 million more per year.

"Finally, the reporting requirements and sunset provisions of this bill will allow the Legislature to evaluate how each party spends its money. Our ultimate goal should be to determine whether expenditures are effective in reducing tobacco sales and use by the people of Hawaii."

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, and the report of the Committee was not adopted and S.B. At 2:25 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1093, SD 2, HD 1
S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 323, SD 2, HD 2

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1928) recommending that S.B. No. 1920, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1920, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Berg rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. My second career is in the film industry," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1920, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Berg, Nishimoto, Saiki, Takai, Takumi and Wakai voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1930) recommending that S.B. No. 1823, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1823, SD 1, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to this measure. This bill reduces the appointments made by the Governor to the Hawaii Tourism Authority Board of Directors from all twelve members to only two public members.

"There is no justification for changing the way in which the HTA board members are currently appointed. Testimony from many quarters has been in firm opposition to the changes, and the reasons stated for the proposed changes, are unclear at best.

"Under the proposed changes, there is a lack of an oversight process to ensure gender and ethnic equality and that all appointments represent each of the industries identified in the statute.

"The changes in this bill would exempt the HTA board appointment from HRS 26-34 which requires that "members of each board and commission . . . shall be nominated and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appointed by the governor." There does not appear to be justification for this exemption.

"Mr. Speaker, Starwood Vacation Ownership and Hawaii Hotel and Lodging Association both testified that the present appointment process to the HTA has served the State well, and also expressed puzzlement at why these changes are being proposed. Without any firm reasons for the changes proposed in this bill, one would have to conclude that this is yet another shameless example of a Democrat power grab to curtail the Governor's authority.

"Moreover, the bill goes beyond a power grab to a blurring of important distinctions between the legislative and executive branch when it comes to the appointment process by allowing the Speaker of the House and Senate President each to have three nominations to the Board. For the foregoing reasons, I am in opposition to the measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1823, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TOURISM AUTHORITY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Finnegan, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1933) recommending that S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1934) recommending that S.B. No. 1612, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1612, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support with reservations. I have grave concerns about this particular bill. The term, 'greenhouse gas emissions', is extremely vague. The largest source of greenhouse gas is derived from water vapor which is a natural occurrence and accounts for emissions up to 90%. Is the request to remove moisture from the atmosphere? If not, perhaps the authors of this measure should take a closer look at their desired outcome.

"I believe the need to create yet another "taskforce" at additional taxpayer dollars is unnecessary. There are existing entities who can provide such information. I am quite sure that these taskforce members will refer to the studies done by others to base their conclusions. Instead of creating new reports, let's tap into the research already done by professionals who have or are in the process of compiling their findings relating to the greenhouse gas emissions. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. I just feel like maybe this bill doesn't go quite far enough, fast enough. In Hawaii we are going to suffer probably more than anybody else in the world from global warming when our beaches disappear and the tourists quit coming because we don't have any beaches. That's going to be a big problem. I realize that our greenhouse gas emissions are miniscule compared to the rest of the world, but if we're not willing to lead when we are going to be affected so greatly, it's hard to imagine that anyone else in the world's going to be willing to help us cut back on greenhouse gas if we're not willing to make some sacrifices ourselves. So, while I support the bill, I feel like we probably need to go farther. Mahalo."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have strong reservations, although I'm pleased to see that the bill was amended the way it was. It just seems that there's some kind of hysteria going on in our country. I know I've heard the arguments over, 'everybody agrees'. I don't happen to agree with that. Based on a series of underlying though rarely stated suppositions, if any of these suppositions turn out to be false, their argument for government intervention would have to be treated with extreme skepticism. I'll just mention some of these.

"The theory that the entire earth is getting warmer. The fact is the global mean temperature appears to have risen about six-tenths degrees Celsius over the past 140 years. But much of the older data is suspect. For example, we didn't have any reliable temperatures for Antarctica until recently. Even though that continent has an overwhelming share of all the fresh water on earth, and while the average temperature is up slightly, some areas have cooled. Again, most of the interior of Antarctica appears to have cooled compared to when we first got reliable readings a few decades ago.

"Another theory. The amount of global warming in the next few decades will be very large. The fact is scientists have projected a wide range of average mean global temperatures for the future depending on the details of the computer climate modeled they use. The reality is that the global climate is an extraordinarily complex subject that is not well understood. Unless these computer models are simply guesses, no one knows what is really going to happen with any degree of certainty.

"Another theory. The warming is almost entirely due to human activities, not natural climate cycles or changes in solar radiation output. The fact is, the earth has undergone wide swings in temperature in the recent geological past, before industrialization had any major impact on atmospheric carbon dioxide levels. For example, Europe appears to have reached roughly the same temperature that we have now during the medieval warm period from about 1000 to 1300 A.D, during the time when solar activity peaked. This was followed by a little Ice Age, from about 1600 to 1850 during the time when solar activity dipped. On a longer time scale, the earth has experienced a series of ice ages over many, many hundreds and thousands of years.

"Another theory. The only important human effect in this warming is the increase in carbon dioxide. The fact is that carbon dioxide is a minor player in the greenhouse effect. Water from clouds and methane gas have a much bigger effect, thus reductions in cloud cover, from forest clearing and methane emissions from livestock could be having a much greater impact on climate than carbon dioxide.

"Another theory. Warming will cause catastrophic effects across the globe. Al Gore in his Oscar winning movie, An Inconvenient Truth, talks about sea level rises of 20 feet and massive increases in hurricanes due to global warming. In fact, actual scientists project sea level rises of just a few inches and have doubts whether global warming would have any significant effect on hurricane frequency or intensity.

"Another theory. There would be no positive effects from global warming. The fact is that the effects of warming would positive for some people or nations and negative for other people or nations. Most people prefer to live places warmer than the global average temperature. Four the most populated countries on earth are China, India, Indonesia and Brazil. A warmer earth might raise the maximum sustainable level of human population. It's absolutely clear that a sudden onset of another Ice Age would almost certainly result in a precipitous drop in human population.

"Mr. Speaker, I have pages of this, but it's so disappointing to see how the press just grabs on to a certain thing and just trumps it all the time, and the other side of the argument rarely gets heard. It really is like, you know, Chicken Little saying the sky is going to fall. We can hardly get a reasonable projection of what the weather will be two weeks from now and yet we're worried about what is going to happen in the next 200 years. I looked at some grafts, the parts per million of … "

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"… parts per million of CO_2 have not risen that much since before the Industrial Age.

"I'm going to insert all of my remarks in the Journal, but you know, this is one of these politically correct things. People who don't agree with all the hysteria are afraid to open their mouths because others will yell loudly that they are just absolutely nuts and can't they see that everybody agrees. Well, everybody doesn't agree. There are thousands of scientists that don't agree. Many times we hear about consensus. Science is not decided by consensus. That's what we do in Neighborhood Board meetings and in the Legislature here, but science doesn't go along with consensus.

"So, I think that people are overreacting to this. I'm glad that we've turned this into more of a taskforce. The Department of Health was not in favor of having to take all these regulations and all these readings, but it'll come to that. This is just a giant snow ball that won't stop rolling. I hope I live long enough to see that there are a lot of people that were not quite 'on the money' with this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"I am in support with reservations of SB1612 SD2 HD2. This bill has been toned down from the form it originally was received from the Senate, going from immediate government intervention to reduce greenhouse gases, to a study of whether to do so, which is why I am voting with reservations instead of in opposition. However, the underlying premise being advanced by the proponents of this measure is that massive government intervention is needed in Hawaii to prevent radical destabilization of the earth's climate via global warming caused by greenhouse gases emitted due to human causes. This premise is based on a series of underlying, though rarely stated, suppositions. If any of these suppositions turns out to be false, their argument for government intervention would have to be treated with extreme skepticism. These theories:

"1) Theory: The entire earth is getting warmer.

Fact: The global mean temperature appears to have risen about 0.6 degrees Celsius over the past 140 years, but much of the older data is suspect – for example, we didn't have any reliable temperatures for Antarctica until recently, even though that continent has an overwhelming share all the fresh water on earth. And, while the average temperature is up slightly, some areas have cooled – again, most of the interior of Antarctica appears to have cooled compared to when we first got reliable readings a few decades ago.

"2) Theory: The amount of further warming in the next few decades will be very large.

Fact: Scientists have projected a wide range of average mean global temperatures for the future, depending on the details of the computer climate model they use. The reality is that global climate is an extraordinarily complex subject that is not well understood, and thus these computer models are simply guesses. No one knows what is really going to happen with any degree of certainty.

"3) Theory: The warming is almost entirely due to human activities, not natural climate cycles or changes in solar radiation output.

Fact: The earth has undergone wide swings in temperature in the recent geological past, but before industrialization had any major impact on atmospheric carbon dioxide levels. For example, Europe appears to have reached roughly the same temperature that we have now during the Medieval Warm Period, from about 1000 to 1300 A.D., during a time when solar activity peaked. This was followed by the Little Ice Age, from about 1600 to 1850, during a time when solar activity dipped. On a longer time scale, the earth has experienced a series of ice ages lasting roughly 100,000 years each, followed by interglacial periods lasting roughly 10,000 years each. We have been in the current interglacial period for about 10,000 years. The peak temperatures during the previous interglacial period were higher than current temperatures.

"4) Theory: The only important human effect in this warming is the increase in carbon dioxide in the atmosphere.

Fact: Carbon dioxide is a minor player in the greenhouse effect. Water from clouds and methane has a much bigger effect. Thus, reductions in cloud cover from forest clearing, and methane emissions from livestock, could be having much greater impacts on climate than carbon dioxide emissions from industry. Further, heat islands created by cities paving over the landscape raises the average global temperature as well, as any barefooted person who steps from grass onto a parking lot on a hot day can attest to.

"5) Theory: The warming will cause catastrophic effects across the globe.

Fact: Al Gore, in his Oscar-winning movie An Inconvenient Truth, talks about sea level rises of 20 feet and massive increases in hurricanes due to global warming. In fact, actual scientists project sea level rises of just a few inches, and have doubts whether global warming would have any significant effect on hurricane frequency or intensity.

"6) Theory: There would be no positive effects from global warming.

Fact: The effects of warming would be positive for some people or nations, and negative for other people or nations. Most people prefer to live places warmer than the global average temperature -- four of the most populated countries on earth are China, India, Indonesia, and Brazil. A warmer earth might raise the maximum sustainable level of human population – the sudden onset of another ice age would almost certainly result in a precipitous drop in human population.

"7) Theory: Government-funded scientists have accurate climate models that, with a high degree of probability, correctly predict the future if atmospheric carbon dioxide levels continue to rise.

Fact: Climate models are just guesses that only roughly simulate an incredibly complex reality. These computer models can't, when run backward, generate the same results as shown in the historical record, including the Little Ice Age in Europe and the Medieval Warm Period. If they can't accurately predict the known past, how can they be relied on to predict an unknown future?

"8) Theory: Climate scientists aren't creatively interpreting data, suppressing the expression of doubts or contrary facts, or making alarmist or excessively simplistic statements that personally benefit their careers and funding.

Fact: A noted environmental biologist, Stephen Schneider, who is one of the scientists pushing for massive government intervention, wrote: "To reduce the risk of potentially disastrous climate change … we need to get some broadbased support, to capture the public's imagination. That, of course, entails getting loads of media coverage. So we have to offer up scary scenarios, make simplified, dramatic statements, and make little mention of any doubts we might have … Each of us has to decide what the right balance is between being effective and honest."

"9) Theory: Climate scientists don't make mistakes. The current consensus of opinion must be the truth.

Fact: As recently as the 1970's climate scientists made alarmist predictions that the exact opposite of global warming was likely to occur soon – a global Ice Age – with those alarmist statements personally benefiting them via increased government funding. Science isn't politics – getting more than 50% of the scientific "votes" for a theory doesn't make it correct. Einstein was initially a minority of one when he proposed his theories of relatively.

"10)Theory: The U.S., via federal and state governments, should massively intervene in the marketplace to attempt to reverse the rise in atmospheric carbon dioxide.

Fact: Government meddling in the marketplace has a long and checkered history of producing unintended consequences and failing to achieve the stated goals. The present net value cost of complying with the Kyoto Protocol has been estimated as high as $2.5 trillion dollars, borne almost entirely by industrialized nations such as ours.

"11) Theory: Such government intervention on our part would not be counterbalanced by other nations.

Fact: Developing countries tend to be strongly focused on improving the standard of living of their citizens, and less so about worrying about the environment. Countries such as China or India, which are building new coal power plants at a record clip, would have a strong incentive to scoop up any losses of production caused by our restraint. The Kyoto Protocol was rejected by the U.S. Senate by a 95-0 vote, in part because these developing countries were not constrained by this treaty.

"12) Theory: Government intervention would significantly lower the levels of atmospheric carbon dioxide, and the benefits of would outweigh the massive costs to our economy.

Fact: Reducing atmospheric carbon dioxide levels to pre-industrial levels would require eliminating the fossil fuels that power our industrial economies, fuel our cars, provide our electricity, and enable the current level of food supply. Very few people in the U.S. would be happy about a massive population crash via starvation and a return to subsistence agriculture powered by horses and oxen.

"13)Theory: Such lower levels of atmospheric carbon dioxide would, with a high degree of probability, cause lower temperatures.

Fact: It is quite possible that climate scientists are simply wrong about the causes and/or cure for global warming, as they may have been wrong in the 1970's about the imminent Ice Age predicted.

14) Theory: There would be no unintended and unforeseen negative consequences of this government intervention.

Fact: Any seasoned politician knows, or should know, that government meddling in complex systems can go badly awry.

"So, does anyone reading this still believe that all 14 of these theories necessary to justify government intervention regarding global warming are all true? I sure don't."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support and I have to say after listening to the last speech, I think we must live on a different planet than the Representative from Laie. It reminds me of the arguments we still continue to hear sometimes about whether smoking causes cancer or not. When we hear about the debate, it's not the politicians that are having this debate. It's scientists that are having this debate. And there's been report, after report, after report from the scientific community around this planet at this point that is confirming that global warming is taking place. This is not coming from a bunch of crackpots, but from the top scientists in various countries, both developed and developing countries.

"And look at the type of organizations who have reached this conclusion. You have the United Nations that came out last week and they were concerned that the politicians actually, the bureaucrats as they called them, watered down the findings by the scientists working for the United Nations. You had the organization in Paris, the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, not exactly a crackpot organization, that confirmed that global warming is taking place and demanding that the world act together to address this problem. You have the United States Supreme Court that came down recently in Massachusetts v. the EPA saying that greenhouse gas emissions shall be regulated.

"This is not a political issue. This is an issue about the future of our world, our planet, and the world we are going to leave to our great grandchildren. And, yes, it's easy to just say let's not worry about it now, because none of us are going to be around to really suffer the drastic consequences, although I'd say the 40 days of rain in Manoa, Hurricane Iniki, the weird weather that we experienced around the world has something to do with it, but the real devastating impact will not affect any of us. But isn't it the bold position to be that we make a decision now for future generations because we do care, we do care and something needs to be done.

"Now, I do have some concerns with the bill in its current form where its focus is on scoping, but I think it's a first step and I'm hoping that after this scoping is done, that we will come back and regulate heavy and hard on greenhouse gas emissions. Yes, it will be costly, but doing nothing is costing a lot of money, too, and will cost much more in the future. So, we must step up to the plate, incur those costs and make the tough decisions and work together as states, as a country, and with the rest of the world to address this problem regardless of whether China or India step up now. I believe that with strong leadership shown by our country, they will also cooperate, but it requires everyone working together. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to look at the data, to monitor, to have a look-see at it. But I think when we second guess it, instead of going too far, I think we've probably in our rhetoric gone too far when as a tourist destination, probably one of the best in the world, say that Waikiki is going to go under water. I don't think that is the proper way of interpreting this particular bill.

"And I would remind the good gentleman who just spoke, as well as all of the other intellectuals in this place, that this body was subject, like the rest of the intellectuals of the world, to the Y2K phenomenon, where the best and the brightest of the world said when the year 2000 comes, unless we do this, that and the other thing, civilization as we know it is going to stop because these computers are going to lock. People are going to riot, and food and machinery and electricity and everything is going to go down. Those were the best and the brightest minds that we had in America. I happened to be traveling with USAID in many parts of the world and I asked what happened at Y2K. Even to the farthest part of the world, I could not get anyone to say anything happened at Y2K and they didn't do anything about it.

"My point is let the data be rational and used rationally, rather than with fear and rhetoric that particularly that Hawaii is going to go under and Waikiki is going to be no more. I think that's a misinterpretation of what otherwise we're trying to do with the bill here. Look at the data, let's monitor it, and let's be rational about the way that we speak about it. The gentleman spoke about India and China. Let us also be sober. With India and China and half of the world's population growing at the rate that they're growing, take India and China out of the equation and we are fooling ourselves that Hawaii is going to make a difference. This is a global issue and a federal issue where we can do our part in the State, but we shouldn't over-react. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. First, I'd like to request the words of the Majority Leader be incorporated in the Journal as my own. Secondly, I just wanted to address some other concerns or actually the opposition. I'm actually somewhat stunned, I guess, by some of the arguments that are used. When you take a look at the scientists, of course, a hundred percent of the scientists are not going to agree on everything because that's never going to be possible. But what we really have is an overwhelming consensus by most of the scientists. As was already stated the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change recently came out and said, "'Warming of the climate system is unequivocal.' The most observed increase in globally average temperature since the mid-20th century is very likely, at least 90%, due to the observed increase in anthropologic greenhouse gas concentrations. And there's better scientific consensus on this than there is on any other issue I know, except for maybe Newton's second law of dynamics. That, to me, shows that overwhelmingly, science is behind this.

"I think some of the criticism is regarding: Why should we join on? We're such a small state. What are we going to do about it? Well, that's really missing the core issue. Already on the horizon, we have California and Washington. California, the fifth largest economy in our entire world, even though they're just a state, has agreed to do this and go on a plan towards cutbacks because they see the potential dangers. And what we really need is for other states to start joining in. Is the federal government going to take this on? I would say it's very doubtful.

"What we've seen from our current Administration is a resistant actually, to strengthening our Clean Air Act. Only because of the recent case as cited to by the Majority Leader, Massachusetts v. EPA is there the potential for EPA now to regulate greenhouse gases. But will that actually happen? That is the question that is very speculative and uncertain. We don't know if that's going to happen. If we have the petitioners as they requested for rule making by the EPA, then maybe we'll have that. But will we have that anytime soon? I would say that's probably unlikely. So, instead, this is something the states need to start taking up. This is something that we, especially in Hawaii, need to start realizing there will be a significant impact.

"I think counter to what the Representative from Hawaii Kai said, there is data by the UH Oceanographic Institute that shows that potentially Waikiki, with one meter of sea level rise, will be half under water. Waikiki will be gone. And that is not merely speculative, but that is something that they have researched and demonstrated through their own grafts and studies. So I don't think any of these things that we are relying upon is something just floating out there and sort of like this Chicken Little. What we are doing is taking a grasp on our own destiny and realizing that if we are going to care about our State and our world for the future, then we need to start doing something about it now before it becomes irreversible. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, I never thought I would be congratulating Hawaiian Electric on the Floor of the House of Representatives. Usually I'm challenging them for their lack of leadership. However, this time it's different. In the latest PBN, there is an article talking about the CEO of HECO, Michael May, and how he clearly understands the impact of climate change and the responsibility of large corporations like his to change their procedure, to change their way of doing business. Because of this, he and the Board of Directors have come out with a much more responsible policy statement of Hawaiian Electric.

"My hope is that the next step is that they will adopt some of the more powerful renewable energy systems, such as wave energy, and they're already are in talks with some of those WEC companies. By WEC, I mean Wave Energy Converter companies. When it's reaching the boardroom of one of our largest companies in Hawaii and reaching the boardroom based upon the science that they have available to it, you know that we are facing a serious situation and you know that those companies won't change their way of doing business unless there is a significant, significant reason for doing so.

"So, I do congratulate Michael May for getting it and understanding that we have climate change, and the impact upon Hawaii will be devastating. We can have the choice and the chance to be one of the leaders nationally, and also be an international leader in this field. My only concern about the measure is that it's going too slowly, and I would hope that once this passes and gets implemented, that next year we really beef up what we're going to be doing. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks and the remarks of Representatives B. Oshiro, Caldwell and Thielen be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, in October 2001 I was invited to give a presentation before the California Hydrogen Business Council in Sacramento. I opened my talk with the following statement:

> In May 1999 I finished my first term as Chair of the House Committee on Energy and Environmental Protection feeling defeated. Saving environmental programs in a down economy was not a priority in the State's budget. And, my only major bill that survived the Legislature was vetoed by the Governor. Dejected, I felt my Committee had no purpose. Things changed, however, on September 30, 1999, when I read an editorial in the *Honolulu Advertise*r entitled, "Catastrophe is just right around our corner." It was my wake up call.
> The article commented on three reports released by the United Nations Environmental Program. The reports found that:
> • Scientists said global warming will cause severe hurricanes. And, a rise in sea levels could engulf thousands of oceanside communities.
> • Tourism run amok is not a long-term economic lifeline for small island nations. Rather, it actually threatens the island's environment if it generates too much solid waste, destroys environmental attractions or depletes natural resources.
> Prior to this, I never identified the events I experienced personally as a pattern typical of other island nations. I live in Hanalei Valley on the island of Kauai . . . I have been through two hurricanes within a ten-year period, Hurricane Iwa in 1982 and Hurricane Iniki in 1992. Hurricane Iniki destroyed my family's home. Our homeowner's insurance policy allowed my family the resources to rebuild and furnish a new home, but it came with a sizable increase in premiums and high risk factor.
> In 1995, I watched three one-hundred year floods in a ninety-day period from my back porch. The first flood broke the banks of the Hanalei River and created a cut-off, which now flows through my backyard. Although I now have waterfront property, my flood insurance premiums are substantial although my home is built over 50 feet above sea level. The second flood caused me to abandon my car as a flash flood came across the road and stalled the car while driving home. That incident cost my insurance carrier over $7,000 to repair the car.
> I live in one of the major river valleys of Kauai, carved by rain water from Mount Waialeale, the wettest spot on earth averaging over 400 inches of rainfall per year. Several months ago, my husband actually had to get out the hose and sprinkler to water the lawn. I no longer suggest to people the best time of the year to visit because I just don't know when the rainy or dry seasons are any more . . . An environmental and economic disaster is staring not only small island nations but also the State of Hawaii in the face.

"In March 2003, the Antigua-Barbuda Ambassador to the United States, Lionel Hurst said "The most populous and wealthiest of the world face a moral challenge greater than colonialism or slavery. They are failing in that challenge. Men have lost reason in the fossil fuel economy. . . Inhabitants of small islands have not agreed [to be] sacrificial lambs on the altar of the wealth of the rich."

"As an island state, we have the opportunity before us in this measure to demonstrate our leadership and political will to the rest of the country and other island nations do our part in addressing global climate change issues. We in Hawaii have more in common with the countrymen of Ambassador Hurst then we do with the rest of the country and multi-national oil corporations especially based on the UN reports that spurred the Advertiser editorial in September 1999.

"However, it is unfortunate that eight years later and despite the headlines over the latest assessment of the second working group of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, which was charged with tracking the impact of global warming on specific regions and species, that the House Minority Leader, the Representative from Laie, still argues that there is no scientific evidence to support the notion of global climate change. I am almost certain that much of the rhetoric from the House Minority Leader can be traced to a disinformation campaign which has its origins from pseudo think tanks and their experts funded by the petroleum industry, mainly Exxon-Mobil. I would like to submit into the Journal a news item from ABC News regarding the amount of money spent by Exxon-Mobil to spread disinformation.

Senators to Exxon: Stop the Denial Democrat and Republican Say Stop Funding Global Warming Doubters
By Clayton Sandell, ABC News

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27, 2006 _ - ExxonMobil should stop funding groups that have been spreading the idea that global warming is a myth and trying to influence policy makers to adopt that view, two senators said today in a letter to the oil company.

In a letter today to ExxonMobil chairman and CEO Rex Tillerson, Sens. Olympia Snowe, R-Maine, and Jay Rockefeller, D-W.Va., appealed to Exxon's sense of corporate responsibility, asking the company to "come clean about its past denial activities."
The two senators called on ExxonMobil to "end any further financial assistance" to groups "whose public advocacy has contributed to the small, but unfortunately effective, climate change denial myth."

Phone calls to ExxonMobil were not immediately returned to ABC News. An upcoming study from the Union of Concerned Scientists reports that ExxonMobil funded 29 climate change denial groups in 2004 alone. Since 1990, the report says, the company has spent more than $19 million funding groups that promote their views through publications and Web sites that are not peer reviewed by the scientific community.

The senators singled out the Competitive Enterprise Institute, a Washington think tank, and the Tech Central Station Web site as beneficiaries of Exxon's efforts to sow doubt within the public about the scientific consensus behind global warming.

"We are convinced that ExxonMobil's longstanding support of a small cadre of global climate change skeptics, and those skeptics' access to and influence on government policy makers, have made it increasingly difficult for the United States to demonstrate the moral clarity it needs across all facets of its diplomacy," the letter said.

The letter says ExxonMobil's efforts to confuse haven't worked everywhere. "It has failed miserably in confusing, much less convincing, the legitimate scientific community," the senators wrote. The letter comes as dozens of major U.S. companies -- including WalMart, Citigroup, and GE -- are set to gather in New York next week for the Corporate Climate Response conference. The conference will provide a forum for companies to discuss their efforts to address global warming -- a topic getting increasing attention in boardrooms across America.

This week, investment bank Morgan Stanley announced it will invest $3 billion in carbon emission credits and other projects aimed at reducing greenhouse gas emissions over the next five years.

And last month, British mogul Richard Branson pledged $3 billion over 10 years -- profits from his airline and train companies -- to invest in energy sources that do not contribute to global warming.

"Mr. Speaker, climate change is a very serious environmental as well as a very important moral issue. Senate Bill 1612, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2 helps to set Hawaii's course of action to do our part in this very challenging global issue. The quality of life for our children and our grandchildren and all future generations is at stake depend on our decisive actions today. Let us not let them down and step up to the plate to shoulder our responsibilities as policymakers."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just some slight reservations, and also I just wanted to remind the Majority Leader that Kahaluu is on this island, and on this planet."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to just go through a few other things that I have prepared for today's debate. The idea that scientists can't be wrong, they don't make mistakes. The current consensus opinion must be the truth. The fact is as recently as 1970, climate scientists made alarmist predictions that the exact opposite of global warming was likely to occur soon, the global Ice Age, with those alarmist statements personally benefiting them by increased government funding.

"Science isn't politics. Getting more than 50% of the scientific vote for a theory doesn't make it correct. The United States did not join the Kyoto Protocol and the reason partially was because India, China, some of the developing countries weren't going to take place, and the cost to developing countries was going to be well over $2.5 trillion. In fact, when this came up on the Floor not to join the Kyoto Protocol, the U.S. Senate by a vote of 95 to 0 voted not to join the Kyoto Protocol. And in recent articles, countries in Europe that did join the Kyoto Protocol to decrease their emissions of carbon dioxide, they aren't meeting their standards at all.

"There is a cost that's involved in this and government intervention can have all kinds of untoward consequences, so, I guess reasonable people can disagree. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Waters rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I propose a floor amendment? No, I'm just kidding."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I would like permission to insert this morning's article written by Christine Todd Whitman in the Honolulu Advertiser regarding the Supreme Court's decision on carbon dioxide emissions. Thank you."

Representative Lee's submitted the following article:

"COMMENTARY
Supreme Court ruling a welcome first step
By Christine Todd Whitman

Last week's Supreme Court decision concerning carbon dioxide emissions from cars was welcomed by all who regret that the United States has lagged far behind in addressing this serious environmental challenge.

The decision gives the Environmental Protection Agency two choices. It could develop, implement and enforce rules to regulate carbon dioxide emissions as a pollutant under the Clean Air Act. Or, it can seek to demonstrate, using science (real science, not political science) why carbon emissions do not contribute to climate change.

This ruling should herald the beginning of a carbon-constrained U.S. economy. For a moment last Tuesday I thought President Bush might agree. When he said that "whatever we do must be in concert with what happens internationally," I thought the administration might adopt a position on carbon emissions that would bring us closer to the regulation efforts being made by the rest of the developed world.

Then the president continued, "Unless there is an accord with China, China will produce greenhouse gases that will offset anything we do in a brief period of time." True, China will outpace our emissions level, but there was a time when the United States led the world in environmental protection. I hope we are not following China when it comes to environmental policy-making.

Of course, the president is right that we must find a way to reduce our carbon emissions without cutting back on economic prosperity. However, environmental protection and economic prosperity are not mutually exclusive. Over the past 10 years, for example, United Technologies, on whose board I serve, has reduced its absolute energy use by 19 percent while its revenue has grown more than 80 percent.

For guidance on which to base a policy, we can look to the results from the last time the Clean Air Act was amended, in 1990. Those amendments required substantial reductions in the emissions of sulfur dioxide (SO2), the primary component of acid rain. There was broad agreement that acid rain was seriously damaging our environment. There was less unanimity about the method to be used to achieve the reduction in emissions — a market-based cap-and-trade system.

Controversial among environmentalists and businesses, the trading program had government-set standards for safe concentrations of SO2, a clear timetable for achievement and strict penalties for non-attainment. In a break from previous approaches, the government said it didn't care how businesses reached the goals, only that they do it on time.

In addition, if a company lowered its emissions below the required level, it could keep the difference for future development or sell the credits to others that hadn't met the standards. The government cared only that the air was cleaned to required levels. If profit motive spurred private-sector actions, fine.

Before I left the EPA, we checked how effective that program had been. The results were startling. Not only had there been nearly universal compliance across all emitters, the levels of SO2 in the atmosphere were lower than the regulation had required, and the feat had been achieved in about half the time called for at much lower cost than anticipated.

This program was a success because there was a national standard set by the government, certainty on timelines and penalties, and flexibility in how the targets were achieved. While voluntary programs are good, they are not good enough, and we need national caps on greenhouse gases.

In January, the leaders of 10 of America's largest energy, manufacturing and financial services companies — including Duke Power, DuPont and Lehman Brothers — held a news conference with leaders of several environmental groups. They called for government-required action to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, using a market-based system similar to that employed in fighting acid rain. Their call has increasingly been echoed.

Back when he was governor of Texas, President Bush enacted mandatory caps on carbon emissions in his state. During the 2000 presidential campaign, he promised to regulate carbon emissions nationwide. Shortly after taking office, though, he backed away from that pledge. There were good domestic reasons at the time, but those reasons are no longer valid.

Neither the American people nor the rest of the world want this debate to be delayed until the 2008 elections. The temptation to preserve the issue will be great but must be resisted.

Over the past several years, calls for mandatory caps on carbon emissions — from environmentalists, scientists, business leaders, evangelical Christians — have grown. Now the Supreme Court has joined in. Delay is no longer an option. The president and Congress must act.

Christine Todd Whitman was administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency from 2001 to 2003. She wrote this commentary for the Washington Post."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In support and with reservations. Quickly to rebut some of the comments that were made by earlier speakers. One of the reasons nothing happened with the Y2K is because billions, and billions, and billions of dollars were spent fixing the problem. And if we would spend the billions, and billions on global warming the way we had spent of Y2K, maybe we'd be solving this.

"With regards to the comments from the Representative from Laie, the conservative thing to do in this instance is to take the rational concerns of scientists seriously and start to take action while we have time. On most issues I don't consider myself conservative, but in this case I think I am conservative. If you see potential danger coming, you do what you can about it before every single fact is in. Thank you very much."

"Mr. Speaker. One retort deserves another. The whole point of mentioning that I went to numerous countries and read numerous articles, those who spent billions and those who spent bonkers, zero, nothing happened. It was the intellectual proposition of the possibility that a lot of people made a lot of money, including lawyers and computer companies, etc. But Y2K was not even a pimple. It was a 'blurp', which suddenly nothing happened. And my point is that those of us, particularly those of us who consider ourselves educated in the position and the community, we have an intellectual vulnerability because we understand how to intellectualize fear in how to burrow down and drill down into it. And that's what Y2K syndrome is. You burrow down into it and then suddenly all of the ghosts of fear come and then that's the driver.

"What I'm saying is, let's look at the policies, let's look at the data, let's be rational about it. And those countries that did not put money into it didn't suffer anything. And that's on the record. And suddenly all of the intellectual articles about Y2K and the sudden doom and gloom, they all disappeared. No one still to this day, doesn't talk about because they knew they made a mistake and that's what we don't want to do again. Let's do it irrationally. Let's do it scientifically. But let's let the data talk and not spin it."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1612, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1936) recommending that S.B. No. 11, SD 3, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 11, SD 3, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. This measure as it moved into the Finance Committee began as an exemption of medical services, hospital charges and rehabilitation services from the county surcharge on State tax that would have provided relief for a broad range of Hawaii residents struggling to pay the high cost of living. My opposition, Mr. Speaker, is that it now is an exemption from the general excise tax for any private hospital. This type of legislation, I think, is, while it may be worthy when we look at the expenses that we have to pay for our public hospitals, may not be a prudent course to go. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'd like to ask permission to be reclused from this vote. My husband works for Hawaii Medical Center in Liliha and is an investor in that hospital," and the Chair ruled, "You are excused."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I just want to speak in strong support of this measure. I've been a long supporter of the fact that we should not tax people when they're sick or dying. And while this measure doesn't help every single hospital on this island and the people that they serve in our community, it does help those people that are the most underserved in our community. And so I think this is a good beginning for what we could do in the future for all hospitals and healthcare in general by not taxing them."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I speak in favor of this measure, Mr. Speaker. I would hope that private hospitals would be exempt from the general excise tax, but I feel that this measure is defined for one hospital in the Ewa area and if we pass this, I'm sure other hospitals, private hospitals would be in line for an exemption as well; Sraub Hospital and whatever other private hospitals we have in the State, including possible new ones on the island of Maui. So, I would hope that we might extend this to all hospitals just to lower their cost of healthcare to their patients. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Given the health crisis that we have, the hospital crisis, the reimbursement crisis, we need to give our hospitals a break. Just on the news last night, for example, I saw that Wahiawa Hospital no longer will deliver babies after next month. It's like because of the difficulty the hospitals are experiencing, there's a real crisis going on and this is one way of getting one hospital out of it, at least in the short term, for otherwise as maybe later on with the HHSC bill that we're going to have an amendment for, it might be for the long term. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 11, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EXCISE TAX ON HEALTH CARE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Belatti and Rhoads voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Ching, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1938) recommending that S.B. No. 679, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 679, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1938. Basically, this bill proposes to establish a new office under the Department of Accounting and General Services, DAGS, Office of the Director of Disaster Preparedness. The proposed bill creates a new Office of Disaster Preparedness that only addresses natural hazards and develops policies, plans and best responses when these hazards result in disasters. This narrow concept of preparedness omits terrorism for many State and county responsibilities for homeland security and ignores preparedness planning responsibilities for man-made hazards, including avian flu and pandemic influenza.

"According to the bill, the new Director of Preparedness is expected to develop a comprehensive disaster preparedness and response plan for the State, but is not responsible for the implementation of the plan. We must assume, therefore, that the responsibility for disaster response will continue to remain with the State Department of Defense.

"Prior to Hurricane Katrina, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security removed preparedness programs from FEMA and placed these under a new Office of Preparedness. In 2006, these programs were returned to FEMA because the federal government learned that the responsibilities for preparedness and response should not be bifurcated. For the proposed bill, the new Office of the Director of Preparedness duplicates the responsibility and authorities of certain federal, State and county agencies, i.e., the flood insurance rate maps, lava flow hazard zones, dam safety, port security, land use policies, etc.

"The proposed bill also establishes a Disaster Preparedness Commission consisting of eight members who are appointed by various officials: the Governor, the Speaker of the House, the President of the Senate, the four Mayors, etc. This is supposed to be comprised of various subject matter experts who are who are to advise and assist the Director of Preparedness. The Commission is charged to work with the various government agencies to develop plans and capabilities.

"According to the bill, Commission members may perform their tasks either as volunteers or by hiring employees to do their work. In other words, the Commission could take on the structure of another government agency but in all likelihood be under-resourced, but more importantly, lack the authority and credibility to perform its duties across the spectrum of government while duplicating those functions being performed by other State and county government agencies.

"We actually should not be advancing this bill forward. The proposed bill is very narrow in scope and departs from national preparedness goals and State plans that focus on all hazard approaches to preparedness. The proposed bill creates a new office in government that is charged with a host of responsibilities without the resources and authorities to meet these expectations in the near term. And if passed, the proposed bill would cause a major shift in agency responsibilities and jeopardize federal funds that State and county government agencies receive for preparedness, homeland security programs, hazard mitigation projects and disaster response and recovery programs. And, Mr. Speaker, this is the reason why I am voting no. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Mr. Speaker, there is little doubt in our mind that Civil Defense does a good job responding to a natural disaster and we see that in any number of occasions. But where there's great failure on the State level is preparing for disasters and we see that over and over again. Many of the disasters that we've faced are because we built subdivisions below lava flows, or we build too close to a stream or too close to a cliff, or we put homes too close to the ocean. When hurricanes come in, you have tidal surges. And what we're trying to do is to address that situation by being prepared, by making sure that going forward, we're not going to continue to repeat the mistakes that we've been repeating since Captain Cook, basically, came to Hawaii.

"The Native Hawaiians knew how to handle Mother Nature. The rest of us think we can conquer it, and so we ignore, many times dangers. And, as a result, we put both human life and property with great expense. So just look at the little flood in Manoa that happened almost four years ago. We spent almost a hundred million dollars fixing up the University of Hawaii. Let's not have a repeat of that. If this bill is allowed to survive and becomes law, I think we'll begin to address some of these problems that we continue to repeat, and, therefore, it's good planning, it's good for public safety, it's good for fiscal management, and I encourage everyone to support it. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, I have the privilege of serving on the Consumer Protection and Commerce Committee and the Chair of the Committee was rightfully concerned about the needs for Hawaii to be prepared, not to react to disasters, but to be prepared in advance. He scheduled Neighbor Island field trips. I attended the Big Island one and I sat through numerous hearings listening to some testimonies saying, 'Well, we can handle it the way we've done in the past.' I don't agree with those that say we can handle it the way we did in the past.

"I think that the Chair of CPC shows great vision and I'm very supportive of the work that he's done. I believe that this bill will set us on the road to being prepared in advance, not just reacting. The teams that react do an admirable job, but we need the team that is out there in front preparing, so that the need to react will be lessened. The sole focus of the bill is to develop and implement a comprehensive disaster preparedness plan for the State of Hawaii, and, frankly, I would think that everyone in this Chamber would agree that that is a very sound and good thing to do. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some concerns and reservations. I wholeheartedly agree with the Representative from Kailua that we must plan, we must. And after recent events we know that we want to. However, I'd also like to incorporate the words of our Minority Leader and note that in the Committee Report, the Department of Defense, the Department of Public Safety, the Department of Accounting and General Services, Department of Transportation, Department of Defense, Department of Emergency Management of the City and County, Mayor of Hawaii County, Kauai Civil Defense, Hawaii Lumber Products Association, concerned individuals, all are listed here as people who oppose. So, I'd just would like to see this really, perhaps, be improved soon in the next step. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. First, Mr. Speaker, I ask that the comments and words of the Majority Leader be entered into the Journal as my own. Secondly, very briefly, Mr. Speaker, I think there's somewhat of a misconception in this measure because the fact of the matter is on October 15, 2006, this State was not prepared to handle the earthquake. We see a lot of moving parts out there and to all the credit that we give to the first responders. They absolutely did a good job, but there was a breakdown in communication. Many of our constituents across the State did not know what was happening.

"As I tried to explain to the Director of Civil Defense, we are not in any way trying to duplicate efforts. We are simply trying to put together an umbrella organization that will collect all the information that all the respective agencies have collected to date so that we don't have a breakdown in communication for the future. It's not just about our constituents. We have many disabled who did not know what was going on that day. It is clear that this State is not prepared, and that is what this measure is about. Therefore, I respectfully ask that my colleagues vote in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First, could I have the words of the speaker, the Representative from Kailua entered into the Journal as if they were my own? Secondly, just some brief comments. You know, the speaker from Kapolei really hit on a good point. We were not prepared. I mean, we had Civil Defense come out to Lahaina to give a briefing to the community. And guess what they told the community? You're on your own. We have no preparations. We won't be there to help you. You're on your own to develop your own plans. You're on your own.

"This State has really let people down. We have all these efforts going on across all these agencies, and yet we have nothing to bring them in the focus and implement them. Civil Defense does a great job, but let's remember the history of Civil Defense. What was it for? To respond to nuclear attack. That was the main reason Civil Defense came about. It's a response agency. They do a good job responding, but we need to focus our efforts in preparedness. And because we have all these scientific advisory committees and all these county groups and efforts, there's nothing to make sure that they're being brought in, they're being implemented and their being actually put into place.

"So, I think we have an opportunity. And, again, this isn't a war on Civil Defense. This isn't a turf battle. We're not trying to take anything away from the organization. All we're trying to do is to make sure that all these efforts that have been basically fragmented and never followed through on are concrete and followed through, so that the next time that my community and everybody else's community knows we are prepared. Thank you very much."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. You know, I do hear the concerns raised by the proponents of this proposal on H.D. 2. However, Mr. Speaker, I believe the way to solve this problem, if the problem does exist as they say, is to work with the powers that be right now, and improve on the process. If you take a look at the Standing Committee Report, you will notice that a significant number of departments and offices and officials in the umbrella of Civil Defense did not support this particular measure. And I'm concerned about that. The Department of Defense, the Department of Public Safety, the Department of Accounting and General Services, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Emergency Management of the City and County of Honolulu, the Mayor of the County of Hawaii, Hawaii Civil Defense Agency, and a few others.

"I think, Mr. Speaker, if we are going to be prepared for the next disaster, either man-made or natural, it's incumbent upon us to work with these people and put together a plan. I say we work with our State Civil Defense, push them if we need to, urge them, require them, but don't dismantle them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I think I need to make sure the Members understand the genesis of this proposal. It didn't come out of thin air. The former Chair of PSM and I met with a group of 20 people a year and a half ago. That included five University of Hawaii professors with expertise in geology and all of those issues that we're talking about. Mr. Texeira was at the meeting. We had representatives from the real estate industry in the State of Hawaii, representatives from the insurance industry in the State of Hawaii, and the financial community. And the basis of the bill came from that group of people, and we've been working on it ever since.

"Now, when we got into Conference last year on this bill, those people were in support and advised me that if we could not get the Senate to understand that we have a problem, to walk away. And that's what we did.

"So, let's talk about disaster preparedness as opposed to responding. Now, let's first talk about the national level. I have been to many meetings of the National Coalition of Insurance Legislators, people like us that deal with insurance and disaster issues. It's a bipartisan organization. They are very critical of what they call the 'Air Force One' solution to national disasters where the President flies out to New Orleans, opens the door up, and pushes out a billion dollars and says everything's okay. That was one thing.

"We were told that Homeland Security, that Civil Defense is responsible, Homeland Security and they are responsible for disaster preparedness. Well, that's not what Congressman Abercrombie's office says. He said it's the State's responsibility to be prepared. Not Homeland Security. And he said, quite frankly, we can't get a straight answer out of Homeland Security.

"So, let's talk about the difference between responding and being prepared. Let's just use the high rise buildings in Waikiki, for example. We should have learned from Iniki. Glass was flying all over New Orleans because of that storm. If we had a major hurricane come through Hawaii and hit Waikiki, we'd have glass flying all over the place. To be prepared is to give the appropriate tax credits to harden all of those structures so we don't have that problem. And that's the sort of thing that we want this Disaster Preparedness Commission to deal with.

"As far as the City and County of Honolulu objecting to the bill. I had two EMS people come in to see me to say, 'We were completely unprepared. On October 15 we had no idea what we were supposed to do.' And I said, 'You're the first responders.' They said, 'Yeah. We had no idea what our job was on October 15.' Not only that, they said they don't even have enough money to operate. The ambulances have over 200,000 miles on. Okay, so we're taking care of these problems. We got a bill to get new ambulances. We got a bill on dam safety. We got another bill on trying to take care of hospitals. We're all over the place. DLNR wants to deal with the dams. The Department of Agriculture wants to deal with the dams, but they're not all talking to each other. No one is in charge and no one has brought it together.

"So, let's talk about the basic difference between preparedness and reaction. And all I hear from Civil Defense, the Department of Defense, all these agencies, is we are prepared to respond. As a matter of fact, at the Finance hearing, the Director of Civil Defense says they cannot prepare for disaster. That's the definition of a disaster. What? This is coming from the Director of Civil Defense? Let me just give you the Kaloko Dam instance. It's a classic difference between being prepared and being prepared to respond. Being prepared to respond is going out and picking up the bodies of those people that drowned because of the Kaloko Dam disaster. Being prepared would have examined the structure integrity of that dam to make sure that it was secure. And then the land use policy that did not put people at risk below that dam so there weren't any dead bodies to pick up. That's if we had been prepared.

"The UH professors were very strong in saying that we need to develop natural disaster zones so we know what natural disaster may impact us, and we have every single one in this State. I have them all in my district. And then we adapt billing codes that deal with those disasters, to harden those structures that might be impacted by those disasters. And then land use planning that doesn't put people at risk. Hamakua Coast …"

Representative Say rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Herkes continued, stating:

"In my history here, nobody's ever had to do that. Hamakua Coast. We had somebody walk away from a home worth $600,000 to $700,000. We shouldn't be putting people at risk. One of the professors said to me, 'You know, your district's moving'. I said, 'Where am I going?' She says, 'You're moving south'. And I said, 'How fast?' She said, 'The speed that your fingernails grow.' That's not very slow. We have a great risk in Ka'u, but we have people who want to develop Ka'u. We have people who want to build a resort development down in Pahoi Bay, where there's lava zones 1 and 2, where there's earthquakes, where there's possible tsunamis. You know, we have to stop thinking about reacting and we have to start thinking about being prepared, and that's what this bill does and that's what I think our job is. If we're not concerned about the safety of our people, then we have no business being here."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in opposition, but I would like to clarify some points. You know, I'm not against the whole Office of Preparedness, but I am taking a look at what has happened thus far, and on the national level how we can maybe learn from that situation. As I mentioned earlier, prior to Hurricane Katrina, which is probably one of the biggest disasters that we've had in a very long time, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security removed preparedness programs from FEMA and then placed these under a new Office of Preparedness.

"And then, in 2006, just last year, these programs were returned to FEMA because the federal government learned that the responsibilities for preparedness and response should not be bifurcated. So, all we're basically saying here is if you want to accomplish the Office of Preparedness, why are you going to put it under DAGS? You can still, with the authority of the Civil Defense or State Department of Defense still be able to do something like that. But when we basically say we're not going to learn from these experiences, we try to keep it together so you can try to coordinate, but also plan for these disasters. That's all I'm saying is that if you take something like this, on the federal level they decided to go, hey, that's the wrong turn to make. Instead of taking it out, we're going to put it back in because as much as they're different, they're related. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 679, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Awana, Berg, Finnegan, Hanohano, Meyer, Morita, Pine, Takai, Takamine and Takumi voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

At 3:17 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1920, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 1823, SD 1, HD 2
S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 1612, SD 2, HD 2
S.B. No. 11, SD 3, HD 2
S.B. No. 679, SD 2, HD 2

At 3:17 o'clock p.m., Representative Caldwell requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:40 o'clock p.m., with the Speaker presiding.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1939) recommending that S.B. No. 1718, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1718, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Rhoads rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I want to speak with reservations because I don't understand all the reservations, except we are the ones that want to become independent from importing oil. We are the ones who want to be more self-sufficient. We want to be prepared for disasters. We want to be able to handle them. And this one is a bit of an astounding one because it's HECO, who my colleague praises as a very responsible company that has a joint venture put together with special purpose revenue bonds, which by the way costs us nothing, to try to see if we can use some of the empty land to put biofuels together.

"Sixty percent of all of our pineapple and sugar lands are empty. They're growing weeds. And this looks like something that should be given an opportunity. I know in all the committees that I've followed this year, it's been getting a lot of flack. I'm a bit confused by it. And, Mr. Speaker, I would also add a footnote for oil palm because I know oil palm has been kind of a poison pill here. So I put a footnote in oil palm in that oil palm has saved hundreds of thousands, if not millions of people's lives. And why I say that, because I know it, because I lived it, because I was in North Borneo as a Peace Corps volunteer working within the context of the government to plant oil palms so the people, the ex-head hunters that I lived with didn't starve. That oil palm has been planted all over Malaysia and Indonesia to the point of where some fear the rain forests are going to be gone, of which those who are the Europeans and the Americans are crying the loudest, have cut their forest down. And I know I'm getting a little off the bill, but my point is if oil palm is the reason, we have from BlueEarth themselves, they said they will not use oil palm.

"So, if they are going to have a chance to boost Maui farmers with growing grains, which can either be pressed or burned, I don't see why taking, and at a no-cost proposition to us, why we don't allow them to risk their own capital and their own ability to do stuff that's innovative and creative and entrepreneurial which we have spoken earlier about is going to be the future of Hawaii. Because if it's business as usual, we're not going to go anywhere or do anything. So, Mr. Speaker, with the reservations is a bit of confusion as to why we don't' give this company a chance. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak against the bill and to correct something that my colleague from Hawaii Kai said. I do not feel that HECO is a responsible, wonderful corporation at this point. What I did say was I was very pleased to see Michael May come out saying that HECO needs to be more environmentally sensitive and to change their policies. We have yet to see whether those are empty words or whether they will really live up to that. If they were really going to be responsible, they would withdraw their application to build another power plant on Oahu. They haven't done that.

"I'm against the underlying bill, Mr. Speaker. There are way too many questions about this bill that have not been answered. I don't feel we should move ahead with this SPRB for them, and I'm also concerned about actually, bio-diesel and it's impact upon agricultural lands in Hawaii. I don't know if that is really the best way for us to go. Until that is proven to me, I will oppose this measure. Thank you."

Representative Chang rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to withdraw my vote with reservations. I am in strong support now."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Much of the opposition to this measure is focused on the type of fuel crop, imported palm oil, in particular, which opponents believe this company may use to produce bio-diesel. I believe both the proponents and opponents of this measure understand the need for environmental sustainable practices in the cultivation of fuel crops, that the energy input in the cultivation of these types of crops and its production into a biofuel and its distribution require a cost benefit analysis and the promotion of a fuel crop should not jeopardize the growing of food crops, which I understand to be equally as important in addressing food security issues.

"However, this type of discussion may be more productive and reiterates a necessity of the development of policy within a bio-energy master plan for the State of Hawaii within the context of larger agricultural, energy, and environmental issues. Such a plan is one of the initiatives outlined in H.B. 1003, H.D. 3, which is moving through the Senate. There appears to be a lack of understanding in the process of how special purpose revenue bonds are issued and the amount of due diligence that must be performed prior to the issuance of special purpose revenue bonds, and that such bonds are not the general obligation of the State. There's no doubt that much of the opposition to this particular project was generated through environmental groups. Like many of you, I value the opinions of these organizations, however, in this case the opponent seems determined to end all discussion on biofuels that do not support their particular agenda or viewpoint or the perfect biofuel model.

"As we try to develop biofuels as an alternative, I understand the vision of developing an environmentally sustainable biofuel industry. But I am also pragmatic enough to know all the challenges we face to move in that direction. There's a larger planning issue at stake and I hope it's addressed in the biofuel master plan as that moves forward.

We have to have the right policies to drive our State-funded resources and decisions. However, other interested parties and private investment are not going to wait until the State gets its act together. The interest in biofuel, and bio-diesel, in particular, is market driven. Hawaiian Electric Company has made a commitment to transition all of its diesel burning generators to bio-diesel in the hopes of spurring local agricultural interest in the cultivating of fuel crops.

"HECO has publicly announced its preference for local crops, but with that not possible right now, is working with the Natural Resource Defense Council on strategies and how to identify and buy green tagged fuel crops. The State cannot mandate the purchase of green tagged crops because of the federal commerce clause, but HECO can. The fuel demands for HECO probably will not be met by a small company that's in business right now. Pacific Bio-Diesel with waste oil alone as a feed stock. The HECO contract has to be guaranteed by its supplier so as not to jeopardize its electricity customers.

"The real question is: Should HECO continue to rely on diesel from its current suppliers like Chevron and Tesoro or try to seek other alternatives? The bulk of Hawaii's oil now comes from the Middle East. We have a real opportunity to shift that, and shift diesel coming from the Middle East to the possibility of producing our own bio-diesel crop and bio-diesel fuel within Hawaii. This bill is the start of preliminary discussions about moving in this direction, so I think we should support this bill. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1718, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR ELECTRICAL GENERATION ON THE ISLAND OF MAUI," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Awana, Berg, Finnegan, Hanohano, Meyer, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1940) recommending that S.B. No. 1060, SD 1, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1060, SD 1, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW," passed Third Reading by a vote of 26 ayes to 21 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Ching, Finnegan, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Morita, Nishimoto, Pine, Shimabukuro, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Thielen, Wakai, Ward and Yamane voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

At 3:53 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1060, SD 1, HD 2

The Chair then announced:

"Members of the House, if you look on page 20, on the Committee on Consumer Protection and Commerce, Standing Committee Report No. 1941, S.B. 1004, S.D. 2, H.D. 2 deferred one legislative day.

"Also, Members of the House, on section 6b of the Order of the Day, Third Reading, the Committee on Judiciary, S.B. 1665, H.D. 1 deferred one legislative day for Thursday. So we will be taking these up on Thursday."

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1941, and S.B. No. 1004, SD 2, HD 2:

By unanimous consent, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1941, and S.B. No. 1004, SD 2, HD 2, were deferred one legislative day.

THIRD READING

By unanimous consent, S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, was deferred one legislative day.

S.B. No. 1092:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1092, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do have some reservations on this bill and I'd like to explain why. Earlier on in the calendar, earlier on in the day, we had another repair and maintenance bill that we were going to be appropriating more money for fixing our schools. And I think for the most part we can all agree that we'd like to put money in to fix our schools. I guess, my reservations on this is it's my understanding that this process has improved tremendously. But the lapsing of money is a built-in mechanism for accountability to ensure that projects get done in a timely manner.

"I'm not going to vote no because you think about the kids and wanting to make sure that the repairs are made, but I would like the ability to just say that there is some lack of accountability if we just tend to want to give extensions to the lapse of money.

"The other part that I'd like to just speak about is in regards to the process of priority on what gets done. There's been tremendous improvement now that the Administration and the DOE have come up with a Memorandum of Understanding where the Governor basically will release funds according to the priority or in lump sum, but I think what needs to be improved upon is just how the DOE comes up with these priority lists. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1092, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

S.B. No. 620, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 620, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative McKelvey rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"A potential conflict of interest. I'm a graduate of Hawaii Preparatory Academy," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a potential conflict also. I am a graduate, a very old graduate and my wife's on the Board," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a potential conflict. My son was a very young graduate of HPA," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 620, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR HAWAII PREPARATORY ACADEMY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE LOSS MITIGATION GRANT FUND," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Berg voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm sorry. I'm going to be voting no on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1811, and I just wanted short comments. Basically, the Department of Transportation had mentioned how they really need this because of the depletion of the Highway Fund. From my understanding, there's a history of the promise to not make this $1 increase permanent. So, I'd just like to say that one, we should follow through with our promises

"But in regards to the many years that we did raid the Highway Fund, and we also did not have the federal funds to match that. The total raiding was about $145 million, and we did lose all that federal funds. So I don't think that we should go back on our promise after doing something like that."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support with reservations on SB 1133, SD3, HD1. This bill would keep the rental motor surcharge tax at three dollars a day by eliminating a provision in the existing statute that would have reduced the surcharge to two dollars per day after 8-31-2007. This particular tax would be mostly levied upon non-residents, and it would go toward badly needed highway maintenance. Since non-resident motorists in rental vehicles do inflict wear and tear upon our highways, it is reasonable that they should pay their fair share toward maintaining those roads."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 39 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Berg, Brower, Finnegan, Herkes, Pine, Thielen, Wakai and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Green, Souki and Tokioka being excused.

At 3:59 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1092
S.B. No. 620, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1

At 3:59 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:00 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, earlier this morning I stated for the record that at this time we have eight floor amendments that had been proposed by both sides. I would recommend that we break from 4:00 until 5:30. That will give each Caucus at least ten minutes on each of these floor amendments for discussion purposes. So, we will reconvene at this time at 5:30."

At 4:01 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 6:10 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then announced:

"Members at this time may we go back, we are now at the end of the calendar and we have eight supposedly measures before us that was discussed earlier this morning."

END OF CALENDAR
UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1820) recommending that S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. Basically, this bill is designed to benefit one company. That in and of itself, is not the best policy, but however, there is language that we can change to still be able to get to the underlying reason for the bill. We can address in Conference Committee basically some language that the Insurance Commissioner can be allowed to exempt group health insurers from our anti-bundling laws if the Commissioner determines that the group health insurer does not have the capacity to adequately deliver services to its enrollees unless it bundles products.

"This basically tracks the HIPA language. We have to be mindful that there is one company that has already sold bundled products in violation of our anti-bundling laws, and the underlying bill, this bill, would absolve them from any of their wrongdoings. Mr. Speaker, we want to be able to address the issue because I believe that this a product or a group of products that small business owners or sole proprietors would like to have, but I think that there's a better way to set policy. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At 6:13 o'clock p.m., Representative Herkes requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 6:13 o'clock p.m.

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

At 6:14 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, passed Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1861) recommending that S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. I own a health insurance brokerage company," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on this particular bill, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1861, S.B. 12, I just want to make short comments with reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just basically, when we do and if we decide that this is the road that we would like to go down, that we should be treating all insurance companies the same, regulating across the board, and not giving any advantages to any one particular company, no matter how big or small. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE RATE REGULATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Berg, Hanohano, Morita and Takumi voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

At 6:17 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 2, passed Third Reading.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1867) recommending that S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, as amended in HD 1, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time, Representative Pine offered Floor Amendment No. 10, amending S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1676, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1, is amended by deleting its contents and replacing it with the following language, to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the cost of medical malpractice and hospital professional and general liability coverage continues to rise and that stability in risk financing is needed for the Hawaii health systems corporation and the physicians serving this entity. The escalating costs of premiums, lack of insurers providing coverage in Hawaii, decreased limits of available coverage, and coverage restrictions, make it important to establish a captive insurance company to insure and control exposure to the liability risks of the aforementioned entity.

The purpose of this Act is to authorize and provide initial funding for the establishment of a domestic captive insurance company by the Hawaii health systems corporation to provide medical malpractice and hospital professional and general liability coverage for the corporation and its facilities and the physicians serving therein.

SECTION 2. Chapter 323F, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§323F- Captive insurance company; authorized. (a) The corporation may establish a captive insurance company in accordance with article 19, chapter 431, to provide medical malpractice and hospital professional and general liability coverage for Hawaii health systems facilities and their physicians.

(b) In organizing a captive insurance company:

(1) The corporation shall submit a formalized financial plan to the director of finance for review and approval; and

(2) Upon receiving the approval required by paragraph (1), and in addition to the documents required by article 19, chapter 431, the corporation shall submit to the insurance commissioner a formalized business plan that includes the establishment of a captive insurer board of directors."

SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008, and the same sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2008-2009, to be deposited into the Hawaii health systems corporation special fund.

The sums appropriated shall be expended by the Hawaii health systems corporation for the purposes of this Act.

SECTION 4. There is appropriated out of the health systems special fund the sum of $, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008, and the same sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2008-2009, for the Hawaii health systems corporation to establish the captive insurance company authorized by this Act.

The sums appropriated shall be expended by the Hawaii health systems corporation for the purposes of this Act.

SECTION 5. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2007."

Representative Pine moved that Floor Amendment No. 10 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ching.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the amendment. Basically, what the amendment does is reflects the Senate version that crossed over in March. The Health Committee passed out S.B. 1676, S.D. 2, unamended, on March 20 with no negative treatment. And this very House passed the bill on Second Reading three days later with no negative treatment.

"In the Committee, Mr. Speaker, and in the next Committee, CPC, there was also no negative treatment in terms of anyone in opposition. In fact, all the testimony was in favor. And if you look at the amendments of the bill in the most recent Committee, it's dramatically very different from what passed out of the Health Committee.

"And, so, something seems to have gone terribly wrong in terms of this bill's beginning in this House to now. And I'm very curious as to what that is. But my opposition or disagreement with the amendments really, kind of go back to what happened in the beginning of Session. Senator Daniel Inouye passed out some documents and called it the 'perfect storm' talking about a serious trouble that we are having in our health system of doctors leaving, of insurance rates being very high, problems with medical malpractice. We did make attempts in earlier Committees to try and reform, at least have tort reform, but that failed. And so many people are looking at this bill of allowing basically our Health System Corporation to create its own insurance company, to have lower rates, to pass those lower rates down to the public, to pass those lower rates down to the doctors. And so a lot of people had a lot of hope with their original bill when it got out of the Health Committee and also passed unanimously in the Senate.

"What the amendments did was, one, instead of allowing our Health System to immediately start its own captive insurance rates company, it basically changed it back to a study. So no action will be taken for a year or two years. And so we will continue to have that lack of hope in the medical system where lower rates will be provided to the hospitals, to the doctors, and eventually, to the patients. Turning it into a study when we have a 'perfect storm' coming upon us, it really loses hope for a lot of us.

"I think probably, for me at least, what was so upsetting, Mr. Speaker, I talked about the 109 bills that this Legislature has introduced since the Governor has been in office, to take away her powers, to give it to ourselves. This makes 110. In the Committee Report it says that we have amended this bill to change the composition of the HHSC Board of Directors, basically, instead of the Governor appointing the Board of Directors. We now will take that power away from her and give it to ourselves.

"You know, when I ran for office, there were some people that really inspired me. My grandmother used to go door to door with Governor Burns and her neighbor, William Richardson. So I grew up with all of them telling me stories of the old days and doing something that was meaningful. And I want us to do something meaningful here, something that I can go back to my constituency and they'll be proud of what I'm doing. And all that you hear on the radio waves and in the newspapers is about this very body trying to take away powers of this particular Governor. No Governor before this particular Governor, to give us, ourselves, more power. And we've justified those actions in many, many very different bills saying it's for the Constitution. For the sake of the Constitution …"

The Chair addressed Representative Pine, stating:

"Representative Pine, could you confine your remarks to the bill, relating to captive insurance of HHSC."

Representative Pine responded, stating:

"Actually, it's now in the bill and that's why I'm kind of … Oh, I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker. I'm not supposed to doubt you.

"Okay. Well, going back to the bill, where it does take away power away from the Governor, from appointing the Board of Directors of the HHSC and giving us the power. It once again, it takes away the great things we've done so far on this bill, and that we've done so far in the other legislation that we've passed. It leaves the feeling in the minds of the people that we hadn't really done anything meaningful. And we've really been successful at taking away the powers of the Governor."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the amendment. If you want to talk about the 'perfect storm', it's the management HHSC. We agree that the HHSC needs a captive. We want to develop a fire wall between the money and the management of HHSC. The intent of the draft of the bill that's before us is to form a separate corporation with expertise in insurance and financial capability to develop a captive for HHSC, and the board would manage it.

"Now, if there is a drafting problem in the bill where, and the previous speaker was correct. It did change the board of HHSC and that is not the intent in this bill. And I'll just assure the previous speaker that when we go into Conference on this, that the intent is to try to get a captive on this as quickly as possible, but there will a board managing the HHSC captive with a fire wall between the money and the management of HHSC."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the amendment. The bottom line to this is that Kahuku Hospital's premiums jumped from $68,000 last year to $400,000 for medical liability insurance. HHSC's premiums went up from $1.5 million to $4.6 million this past year. What is that? That's approximately, almost $3,350,000 approximately. Now, HHSC is going to need start up money to do this captive, between $8 million and $11 million, depending on which number you're comfortable with. That's like at least one-third of the amount that we're going to basically let go in this one year because we put in language that basically says we're going to push out being able to do a captive insurance for HHSC.

"I don't know about you, but $3.5 million is a lot of money. We drove out medical liability insurance providers for hospitals in Hawaii. We no longer have them. The reason for this increase is because we have to go to surplus lines. This underlying bill kills the opportunity to be able to have captive insurance in a succinct way. But also, this amendment says that we must have approval and have a financial plan. So, I think we do have the ability to say, 'Yes, let's save a lot of money. Yes, we're going to address this problem. And yes, we are going to get lower insurance premiums for our hospitals in which they are in dire need of the money.' Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in support of the amendment. I would like to see our hospital system develop a captive as soon as possible mainly because there's no guarantee that there will be insurance available. The surplus line is always very iffy and you never know what the cost is. They have the State of Hawaii over the barrel on this.

"Also, I question the need for a separate board, mainly because I do have great confidence in our Department of Commerce and Consumer Protection Insurance Division. They have a Captive Insurance Branch and they have been growing gangbusters. I believe that they can guide the hospital system in setting up a captive and so I don't share the apprehension of the Consumer Protection Chairman. The Captive Insurance Division has made Hawaii number two in the whole country, and we're number five as far as assets in the world. As of 2005, there were 163 active companies signed up through Hawaii and they had $6.5 million in assets. The total premiums are $1.5 billion and out of that $6.5 billion in assets, $1.6 billion are funneled through Hawaii banks. So, if we have the hospital system also joining in on this, that makes our economy even stronger.

"Over the past five years, 25 other states have seen the wisdom of forming captives and so, it's now become quite competitive, so I think we've got to stay ahead. I will credit the head of the captive insurance branch with this success, and his name is Craig Watanabe. For his efforts, he has received the 2006 American Institute of CPA's Outstanding CPA Government Award in Washington, D.C. So, I believe that we should proceed posthaste in setting up a captive for HHSC and I think with the help of Mr. Watanabe it will be safe and secure. Thank you very much."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 10, amending S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, Nishimoto, Souki, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to the underlying measure. In the Committee Report it says the purpose of this bill is to ensure the ability of the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation to obtain adequate and affordable insurance coverage by setting forth requirements for HHSC to establish a captive insurance company to provide medial malpractice and hospital professional and general liability coverage. That's what our amendment would do.

"This bill as others have said on our side of the Chamber, forestalls it. It puts it off for at least two years. Our amendment is very clean. Actually HHSC already has the ability. I mean they can do it, but ours would just go straight to it, have them put down the documents required for Article 19, the corporation shall submit to the Insurance Commissioner a formalized business plan that includes the establishment of a captive insurance board of directors. I mean, we're not waiting two years. They could be doing most this summer and get it to the DCCA. The other thing our bill does it had an appropriation in it …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Will the speaker speak to the current bill and not the amendment which is already not before us."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Meyer could you confine your remarks to the …"

Representative Meyer responded:

"They are very similar except that one really does something and the other just puts it off. There is on appropriation in this other bill. The major part of this bill …"

Representative B. Oshiro: "Mr. Speaker, she's not speaking to the bill. She's speaking to something that's no longer before this body."

Representative Meyer: "I'm looking at S.B. 1676."

Speaker Say: "Representative Finnegan. For what purpose do you rise?"

Representative Finnegan: "Point of information."

Speaker Say: "State your point, even though I'm not supposed to be interrupting the speaker who has the floor right now. State your point of information."

Representative Finnegan: "The information that I would like is …"

Speaker Say: "Or your point of order. State your point of order right now."

Representative Finnegan: "Thank you. I'm going to state it right now. I basically would like to know if whether or not you can be discussing the bill and its former drafts?"

Speaker Say: "Former drafts. Yes, you could be discussing the former draft, but …."

Representative Finnegan: "Well then, this is very germane because the former draft is also equivalent to what the amendment was. Thank you."

Speaker Say: "What we have before us is the House Draft to which is now in this form. But she can make reference to that point."

Representative Meyer: "Thank you very much. That's exactly what I'm trying to do until I was so rudely interrupted."

Speaker Say: "Representative Meyer, you were not rudely interrupted."

Representative Meyer: "Well, it's a matter of perception, Mr. Speaker.

"But the other problem I have with this bill, number one, it does not move us towards captive insurance for the HHSC. We already know they're drowning in this, the cost of malpractice and we are simply doing nothing for it.

"The other thing this bill does, there is no appropriation so they couldn't do it even if they can do it. It makes the requirement to send a report in before the 2008 Legislature which is just sort of a stalling tactic.

"And then the body of the bill, the bill takes up most of the time creating the corporate board and having the Legislature pick the people that the Governor will choose from. So as my very good friend and colleague from Ewa Beach stated in hers, while I'm certainly for captive insurance, I would hope that we would be moving towards that for this very important organization. This bill doesn't do it, and so, I'll be voting no."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. The only reason there is no money in it is that we ran out of time and didn't have time to do a Finance referral or else the bill would have died. And so we kept it alive by excluding the money."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I have two problems with the bill. Number one is that it doesn't trust the Governor. It's going to re-engineer as was previously spoken about. And secondly, it doesn't trust HHSC. It's basically putting a foot in the aisle, to trip it up, to slow it down, to bog it down, from otherwise from what we know when we do a captive self insurance that is, we save a lot of money.

"Probably, and I'm going to refer to another amendment on the floor, probably when we hear the amendment coming down the line in the next 20 to 30 minutes, we are going to talk about are we going to save HHSC from bankruptcy. We have to save them from bleeding. We have to stabilize the hospital system. Well, that's what this bill will do by allowing the captive to proceed posthaste with all of this. Let's study this. Let's figure it out. Let's figure out how to build a firewall, number one, and then we'll get a study to do it. As we all know that a camel is a horse designed by a committee. It just doesn't work out that way. So, when we plead later on about how we're going to help HHSC, this is where it could begin. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to correct a comment that was made just as little while ago in regards to there was no appropriation section. I believe that that was the comment. Am I correct?

"This bill did start off, as it crossed over, with an appropriation section. It got passed out of the Health Committee with an appropriation section. As to whether or not, why it didn't go to Finance, I don't know why that didn't happen, but I just wanted to let you know that in our amendment, that is equivalent to what was passed out of the Health Committee. There was an appropriation section in there. Thank you. I am still in opposition."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in opposition to S.B. 1676, S.D. 2— Relating to Hawaii Health Systems Corporation

"The cost of hospital professional general liability and medical malpractice insurance premiums continue to rise. There is a lack of insurers willing to provide coverage in Hawaii, and the policies offered have decreased limits of available coverage, and restrictions on what liability exposures are covered. It is important as well as economically feasibly for HHSC to establish a captive insurance company to provide predictability.

"Predictability and stability will improve patient access to care. For example, Kahuku Hospital was nearly shut down due to financial difficulties, in part caused by the high cost of medical liability insurance. High malpractice premiums take funding away from patient care.

"The general insurance market for hospital malpractice coverage is very expensive compared to the coverage limits available, if any at all. As a result, many insurers have stopped providing this coverage in Hawaii as well as other states. A captive insurance company is a good alternative and indeed, is almost the only alternative available at this time."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Meyer, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

At 6:36 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, passed Third Reading.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1929) recommending that S.B. No. 1412, SD 2, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1412, SD 2, HD 2, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time, Representative Finnegan offered Floor Amendment No. 6, amending S.B. No. 1412, SD 2, HD 2, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1412, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2, is amended by deleting its contents and inserting the following language, to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. Insurance fraud is reported to cost every household in the United States an average of $500 per year. In Hawaii, the cost of motor vehicle insurance fraud alone has been estimated to be over $164 annually per household. In recognition of the impact that fraud has on the cost of motor vehicle insurance, Act 251, Session Laws of Hawaii 1997, was enacted to establish an insurance fraud investigations unit, and motor vehicle insurance fraud violations, and penalties. Act 155, Session Laws of Hawaii 1998, was enacted the following year to clarify the penalties for the offense of motor vehicle insurance fraud and enhanced and clarified the powers and purpose of the insurance fraud investigations unit to combat motor vehicle insurance fraud.

Insurance fraud also has increasingly affected costs within the health insurance industry. Industry healthcare fraud losses are estimated at three to fourteen per cent of the $1,200,000,000,000 in annual national healthcare costs. This is equivalent to approximately $36,000,000,000 to $168,000,000,000 annually. In Hawaii, based on the conservative estimate that insurance fraud amounts to three per cent of annual Hawaii healthcare costs, health insurance fraud causes losses that exceed $60,000,000 annually. Realizing that insurance fraud is a growing problem in the area of health insurance, health insurance fraud provisions were enacted in Act 125, Session Laws of Hawaii 2003. However, none of the healthcare insurance fraud provisions designate a specific law enforcement agency to be responsible for the investigation and prosecution of insurance fraud violations.

No line of insurance is exempt from insurance fraud. Rather than limit administrative, civil, and criminal penalties for insurance fraud to only a few selected lines of insurance, Hawaii's insurance fraud law should be expanded to include all lines of insurance to deter perpetrators of insurance fraud by demonstrating that no line of insurance will be a safe haven for those who commit insurance fraud.

The purpose of this Act is to:

(1) Establish the insurance fraud investigations branch to replace the existing insurance fraud investigations unit, and empower it to investigate and prosecute insurance fraud in all lines of insurance, except workers' compensation insurance;

(2) Establish administrative, civil, and criminal penalties for offenses of insurance fraud in all lines of insurance, except workers' compensation insurance, and for different types of insurance fraud, including fraudulent applications and sales; and

(3) Establish that fines and settlements resulting from successful insurance fraud prosecutions are to be deposited into the compliance resolution fund to help the insurance fraud investigations branch to cover some of the cost of its own operation to prevent, investigate, and prosecute insurance fraud.

SECTION 2. Chapter 431, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding to article 2 a new part to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"PART . INSURANCE FRAUD

Representative Finnegan moved that Floor Amendment No. 6 be adopted, seconded by Representative Meyer.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to this amendment, Mr. Speaker, the amendment addresses something that happened with this bill. Originally, this bill was to create this insurance fraud investigations unit originally when it crossed over. And what had happened was it had all of the lines of insurance in there except for workers' comp. What happened in a later draft, after it got passed out of Judiciary as is, according to how the Senate passed it over to us, then it went through a variety of changes.

"One main change, actually, it went from the investigative unit going from all lines of insurance, except workers' comp, to the complete opposite, to workers' comp, and let's not address all of the other lines of insurance. The reason why the original bill, or the bill that crossed over, the reason why it did not have workers' comp in there addressing the fraud for workers' comp, because as we know over the years, what has happened was we could never, the different sides could never come to an agreement as to how we would address fraud in workers' comp.

"However, the Insurance Commissioner took a lot of time and tried to do a lot of collaborating for all of the different lines of insurance and when he did that, it came out to some really good language that everybody could agree on, except for workers' comp. So the reason why they don't have workers' comp in this particular bill is because if workers' comp was in the bill, the bill would probably, most likely, not survive.

"So, what did we do? We took a 180. We said no investigating fraud of any other lines of insurance because we want to have workers' comp, I guess, addressed first. Insurance fraud, is insurance fraud, is insurance fraud. Fraud should be investigated. The people that this affects for all the different lines have come together in agreement on this particular bill, Mr. Speaker, former drafts of this bill. We just ruined that bill and ruined the opportunity to address insurance fraud in all the other different lines. What does that mean? When we don't address the insurance fraud, it means higher cost for insurance for everybody.

"What I would like to do in this amendment is put it back to what it was before. The Senate draft that came over, that crossed over, passed the Senate, passed Judiciary with no amendments, and now we've got one that would probably die because it has workers' comp, or we'll be fighting to have workers' comp in there. It doesn't make sense to me that we're going to sacrifice higher cost of premiums for everybody on these other lines just so that we can kill the bill in workers' comp, because workers' comp can't get together on a collaborative effort to make sure that we have something that they can work with. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I'm rising to speak in opposition to this amendment. First of all, I need to state that I think it's bad public policy to have the regulated industries write the laws, but will still be regulated.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, I'm speaking against the proposed amendment. May I take liberty and read from the testimony of the State Insurance Commissioner because in the bill before us that the Minority Leader is seeking to amend, which was H.B. 88, H.D. 2. These are the words from the Insurance Commissioner, and he states, 'Workers' compensation fraud is a concern nationally and locally. In 2003 Hawaii experienced a 24% increase in average workers' compensation premiums paid by Hawaii's employers. This bill would seek to ease the burden fraud puts on the workers compensation system through the prevention, investigation and prosecution of workers' compensation fraud committed by those attempting to abuse the system.'

"And in further support against this amendment, let me also quote verbatim from the testimony of the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations on H.B. 88, H.D. 2, which is in the underlying House draft. 'The Department supports expanding the Insurance Commissioner's jurisdiction to investigate and prosecute workers' compensation fraud. The Insurance Commissioner has been aggressive and successful in investigating and prosecuting automobile insurance fraud and the Department believes it is natural for the Insurance Commissioner to expand his office expertise to workers' compensation fraud.'

"Mr. Speaker, as evidenced by the testimony from the Administration officials, both by the State Insurance Commissioner and from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, there seems to be some disconnect between the Administration's departments, the Administration, and the Minority Leader with this floor amendment.

"Mr. Speaker, your Committee on Finance is in sync with the departments, and we chose to insert the provisions of H.B. 88 into this measure as the deletion of workers' compensation from the purview of the insurance investigations unit severely hampers the effectiveness of this unit.

"The Legislature, Mr. Speaker, in this Session has been criticized for taking powers away from the Administration. In this measure, your Committee on Finance has attempted to broaden the powers of the administrative division. Workers' compensation fraud has been a driving force behind the inadequacies and shortcomings of the whole system. This measure begins to address some of the faults of the workers' compensation system. With the support of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs Insurance Division, the Attorney General, and the Department of Human Resources Director, the Minority Leader may need to amend this proposed amendment to accurately reflect the wishes and preferences of these Departments and administrators. For these reasons, I stand in opposition to this floor amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support of the amendment. I would just say that in looking at the bill that was heard in Judiciary and was passed out, there was nobody that testified in opposition. The DCCA, the Department of Attorney General, Hawaii Association of Health Plans, Hawaii Medical Services Association, ILWU, National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, State Farm Insurance, and the American Council. This bill would expand the investigation of insurance fraud to all forms of insurance, except for workers' comp and that's how they got all that agreement from these various groups.

"Workers' comp is a real hot button. It's hard to get the unions to agree with the Department of Labor or it just, what the Insurance Commissioner wants to do is to save more money so that our premiums will go down. I was astounded to see the figures that he came up with on health insurance, and that was one of the things that would be covered in this amendment, but estimated at a loss of $60 million annually on health insurance fraud, where he's already investigating auto insurance fraud. It is estimated that each family, it's worth about $160 for each family, the money that they'd save because of the fraud that they are uncovering. So, if we want to reduce the premiums on all kinds of insurance, it makes sense to have the Office of DCCA do this.

"I can't understand. I question whether the Chairman of Finance had the agreement from the Chairman of Judiciary because he passed it on and it was very non-controversial and it would be a good thing for the people of Hawaii. There would be savings in insurance premiums, but by taking this out, you are essentially not expanding the kinds of fraud they can investigate. You're just pinpointing workers' comp which is so controversial.

"At first, in the Committee I thought that the Chairman of Finance had just put workers' comp in with the other things. The people that were in the Finance Committee testifying, they were not testifying on this workers' comp bill. They were testifying as it says in the Committee Report, the purpose of the bill to expand the authority to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, Insurance Fraud Investigation Unit, and that's what they were testifying on.

"So, this bill just came out of nowhere, and there certainly was nobody testifying on the workers' comp fraud and so, that's why we would like to see a bill that's clean, that had, you know, there were no no votes in Judiciary and the Judiciary Chair was in favor of it. So, that's why we have introduced this amendment. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time in support of the amendment. I think I'm still dizzy from the spin from before, from the Representative of Wahiawa in his comments in regards to talking about how DLIR and the Insurance Commissioner, and how we're not connected. There is no disconnect in this. Of course, if you asked DLIR or the Insurance Commissioner would they prefer that we investigate fraud in workers' comp, what are they going to say? They've been trying to pass that for I don't know how many years.

"We've come to the conclusion, I guess, by supporting the prior drafts of this bill, that we don't want to see it die. We'd rather to have something that allows us to investigate fraud than nothing at all. Mr. Speaker, again, let's not just play with, you know, what they support, workers' comp more than these other things.

"The bottom line is there is a perfectly good bill that would address bringing down our insurance premiums for all other lines. If you want workers' comp, we've done it before. It didn't pass. If you want workers' comp, you should have put a bill in. I'm just saying, Mr. Speaker, let's work on something to address fraud. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 6, amending S.B. No. 1412, SD 2, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE FRAUD," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, McKelvey, Souki, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1792, S.D. 3, H. D. 2 (RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION), is amended by deleting its contents and replacing it with new language, to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the State's community hospital system, Hawaii health systems corporation, is the fourth largest public hospital system in the nation. The Hawaii health system corporation's public health facilities provide essential safety-net hospital and long-term care services throughout the state and are often the only hospitals in many rural communities. Due to rapid changes taking place in the health care industry, the legislature acknowledges that the governing structure of our public hospital system must provide the appropriate flexibility and autonomy needed to compete and remain viable and respond to the needs of the specific communities served by furthering the development of centers of excellence in health care.

The current administrative arrangement places the public hospital system in a single statewide public agency, the Hawaii health systems corporation, which operates with some autonomy from the executive branch. This arrangement is the result of landmark legislation, Act 262, Session Laws of Hawaii 1996 (Act 262), after years of study. Act 262 was largely the result of the work of a task force established pursuant to Act 266, Session Laws of Hawaii 1994, charged with studying the establishment of an agency for community hospitals, then a division of the department of health. On December 20, 1994, the task force issued its report to the governor and the legislature entitled "The Preliminary Report of the Governor's Task Force on the Establishment of an Agency for Community Hospitals." Many of the recommendations of the task force were adopted by the legislature, resulting in passage of Act 262, and the creation of the Hawaii health systems corporation in 1996.

One significant recommendation of the task force included the establishment of regional affiliate boards of directors, along with the system-wide board. The task force stated that:

> "The Hawaii Health Systems Corporation should administer the state facilities in a decentralized fashion, with the facilities to be grouped into five regions. Three regions should be formed for the facilities of Kauai, Oahu and Maui Counties respectively, and the Big Island should be divided into Eastern and Western regions.
> Each region should have an operating Board of Directors consisting of nine members. Regional Boards should be initially appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, and should subsequently be self perpetuating (i.e., with future Board appointments made by the current Board)."

During the 1996 conference committee hearings on S.B. No. 2522, which ultimately became Act 262, the regional affiliate board concept was replaced with regional management advisory committees. The management advisory committees represent the communities in which the hospitals are located and meet with the management of the facilities and the executives of the Hawaii health systems corporation to give the communities a voice in the provision of these vital safety-net hospital services. However, the legislature finds that the Hawaii health systems corporation has developed strong administrative and clinical leadership in all five regions and is now ready for the implementation of the regional affiliate boards recommendation. Further, the regional affiliate board concept would enhance the ability of local communities and stakeholders to participate in the decision-making and operation of their own community hospitals. While the management advisory committees have been diligent in representing the communities, their role has been solely advisory. Local community stakeholders, through independent regional affiliate boards, are in the best position to make the critical decisions relating to the local operation of their community hospitals. Additionally, regional affiliate boards would have the ability to address local needs and concerns in a more timely fashion.

The hospitals, through the Hawaii health systems corporation, should still engage in state-wide activities where a system-wide approach may provide economies of scale, efficiencies, and inter-regional collaboration and cooperation.

The purpose of this Act is to advance the State's commitment to provide quality health care for the people of Hawaii, by moving forward on the original task force recommendation of community-based governance and establishing regional affiliate boards for all regions, to be governed by a community-based regional affiliate board of directors, and to provide the necessary authority for each region to accomplish the goal of community-based governance. The Hawaii health system corporation will continue to provide system-wide functions and governance with enhanced representation of regional affiliate board members.

SECTION 2. Chapter 323F, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding four new sections to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

Two-year budgets will be approved for regional affiliate boards, in alignment with State of Hawaii biennium budgeting. The corporate board shall not alter the two-year budget of a region except:

(3) There is a renegotiated budget approved by a regional affiliate board.

The corporation and regional affiliate boards shall collaboratively develop budgetary guidelines, and [~~may allocate to~~] negotiate with each facility reasonable corporation administrative costs, including funds determined by the corporation or any regional affiliate board to be needed from or provided to each facility to:

(d) Beginning with the first of the legislative biennium budget years following the establishment of a regional affiliate board, and for each biennium period thereafter, the corporation shall call together all the regions through representatives selected by each regional affiliate board, and the chairs of the facility management advisory committees, if any, to determine which services and functions should be provided by the corporation for the next biennium budget period, consistent with this chapter. As part of the biennium budgeting process, the corporation board and the representatives of each region working through the corporation board regional representatives, shall agree upon an allocation methodology for funding the agreed upon and statutorily created corporate services and functions.

~~(d)~~ The corporation may share in any facility's surplus and may offset any facility's deficits[~~.~~] as provided herein. Any regional affiliate board shall share in the surplus of any facility within the its region and shall offset any facility deficits within its region. Operating surpluses of the regional affiliate board shall be reinvested in the operations of that region in any prudent manner; provided that upon request, and subject to authorization by the regional affiliate board, the regional affiliate board may share its surplus or resources with a facility outside of the region to benefit the corporation-wide system of health care. Obligations undertaken by a facility shall be paid only from funds of that facility, unless the corporation board, the regional affiliate board managing the facility, or [~~its~~] an authorized agent explicitly agrees to guarantee the obligation. Loans and other transfers may be made between regions upon approval of the affected regional affiliate boards to assist in the cash flow and operations of the public health facilities.

~~(e)~~ In accordance with each annual facility budget, and subject to policies established by the corporation board, each facility of the corporation and regional affiliate board, shall:

(1) Bill and collect for its services;

(2) Maintain bank accounts; and

"[~~[~~]§323F-22[~~]~~] Annual audit and report; disclosure of revenue projections. (a) The corporation shall engage a certified public accountant to conduct an annual audit of its financial affairs, books, and records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The corporation may, in consultation with a regional affiliate board, permit or require a regional affiliate board to retain an audit firm to conduct an independent audit of the region. The corporation shall submit to the governor and the legislature within one hundred fifty days after the close of the corporation's fiscal year, a report that shall include the audited financial report for that fiscal year[.] for the corporation and each region.

(b) In addition to the submittal of the audit required under subsection (a), the corporation, in cooperation with the regional affiliate boards, shall submit a report to the legislature at least twenty days prior to the convening of each regular session that shall include but not be limited to:

(c) The regional affiliate boards shall prepare a report for inclusion with the corporation's annual report and audit."

SECTION 30. Section 323F-23, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

(1) Assessments levied by any county[~~, nor shall the corporation be required to pay state~~]; and

(2) State taxes of any kind."

SECTION 31. Section 323F-24, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"[~~[~~]§323F-24[~~]~~] Budget oversight. The corporation's and each regional affiliate board's operating and capital improvement budgets shall not be subject to review or approval by the governor or any state agency, except where state general funds or capital improvement moneys are requested. If general funds or capital improvement moneys are requested, then the corporation or any regional affiliate board shall include with its request, the proposed budget for which the funds or moneys are to be included. The corporation and regional affiliate boards, once operational, shall collaboratively submit [~~its~~] their budgets annually to the legislature for review and approval at least twenty days prior to the convening of the regular legislative session, beginning with the budgets for the [~~1997-1998~~] 2010-2011 biennium fiscal years."

SECTION 32. Section 323F-31, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(a) The corporation and each regional affiliate board shall notify the legislature of any planned substantial reduction or elimination of direct patient care services."

SECTION 33. (a) It is the intent of this Act that the ability of the Hawaii health systems corporation to carry out its mission and improve the quality and efficiency of care in all of its regions will be enhanced by the delegation to community-based, regional affiliate boards the custodial control over the assets, personnel, services and operations of the corporation located in the public health facilities, consistent with system-wide planning, policies, and guidelines. Such custodial control shall be delegated to the regional governing boards in any region in which such boards are created within a reasonable period of time following the effective date of section 2 of this legislation. This Act shall be construed with this intent.

(b) Following a transition period of no longer than one year after the establishment of each regional affiliate board, and by mutual agreement, the governance and custodial control over the assets, personnel, services, and operations of the Hawaii health systems corporation with regard to the facilities within the region, shall be transferred to the regional affiliate board, consistent with system-wide planning, policies, and guidelines, and applicable laws and regulations. The corporation and newly established regional affiliate boards shall report to the legislature within thirty days of the establishment of the newly created boards. The corporation shall assist any region considering such a request. Each transition shall take no longer than one year, unless a longer period is mutually agreed to by the corporation and the region.

(c) Custodial control of the assets, including but not limited to hospital funds relating to health facilities in each region, shall be given to the regional affiliate board at such time as the regional affiliate board is established and notifies the corporate board that it has established necessary policies and structure to accept the responsibility of controlling the assets. Upon establishment, the regional affiliate board shall assume the responsibility of the Hawaii health systems corporation board with respect to the corresponding region for the administration of all contracts, agreements, and leases for commodities, services, property, and supplies used by the Hawaii health systems corporation and its facilities in that region, subject to oversight by the corporation board.

SECTION 34. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the state of Hawaii the sum of $500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008, and the same sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2008-2009 to support the establishment of regional affiliate boards of the Hawaii health systems corporation. SECTION 35. All acts passed prior to or during this regular session of 2007, whether enacted before or after passage of this Act shall be interpreted to conform to this Act, unless the acts specifically provide that this Act is being amended. In so far as this Act is inconsistent with any other law, this Act shall control.

SECTION 36. In codifying the new sections added by section 2 of this Act, the reviser of statutes shall substitute appropriate section numbers for the letters used in designating the new sections in this Act.

SECTION 37. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 38. This Act shall take effect upon its approval; provided that sections 2, 17, and 18 shall take effect on July 1, 2008."

Representative Morita moved that Floor Amendment No. 11 be adopted, seconded by Representative Takamine.

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I introduce this floor amendment with some anxiety. I had hoped that throughout my many years in this body that there would be some amicable resolution to the Maui Memorial Hospital's relationship within the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. Unfortunately, there has not been. However, the underlying bill jeopardizes the entire system statewide, especially my island of Kauai at a time when Hawaii's statewide health safety net is at its most vulnerable and resources from the State may become scarcer.

"This floor amendment offers a compromise position establishing community based governance for the five regions of the HHSC system. These boards will not be separate legal entities, but under one umbrella, hopefully, to preserve the benefits of maintaining the HHSC as a system associated with economies of scale.

"Mr. Speaker, let me explain some of the details of the floor amendment. One, it forms an 11 member regional affiliate boards which would be established for each of the five regions of the HHSC system. The 13 member HHSC board would be reconstructed as bottom up, rather than top down. Regional boards would be granted custodial control and substantial responsibility for management of the facilities and other assets in each respective region. Each regional board would be empowered to appoint the regional CEO subject to the approval of the HHSC board. If the HHSC board is unable to act on important transactions in a timely manner, the chair of the HHSC board may further delegate authority to the regional affiliate board to take action on specific matters.

"The HHSC board would be granted duties and powers related to corporation-wide budgeting personnel policies, procurement policies, strategic planning and the development of a system-wide policies related to such matters as affiliations, multi-system and corporate office contracts, joint venture, regulatory compliance, collective bargaining, personnel, risk management, including insurance, and capital planning.

"Regional boards are granted a wide range of powers and duties. The regional boards would be responsible for developing facility and regional budgets. Revenues generated by a region will remain in that region, while each region will also be responsible for taking steps to address unbudgeted deficits, loan and other transfers of money between regions would be statutorily permitted upon approval of the regional boards. Strategic and capital plans would be developed at the regional level.

"HHSC and its regions will be subject to the procurement code. The regions would collaboratively assist in determining the services to be provided at the corporate level and methodology for determining allocations of administrative cost. Each regional board shall be responsible for all medical staff organization and there is an appropriation in this bill to carry out this transformation.

"Again, I want to stress that what this floor amendment will do is provide a reasonable restructuring of the system that was anticipated and offered as a type of governance when we moved back in, I believe it was 1996 or 1997, to look at this statewide system. I think it brings the House to a strong position as we move to Conference in offering a reasonable compromise to restructure this system.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, I would like to submit for the record a letter received from Larry Gage, President of the National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems outlining the problems with the underlying bill and what this floor amendment is striving to preserve in the statewide system. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita submitted the following letter:

"TO THE HAWAII STATE LEGISLATURE:

I am writing to urge you to vote no on S.B. 1792 in its current form. S.B. 1792 would effectively dismantle an important and valuable system that has strengthened Hawaii's statewide health safety net for the past decade.

As President of the National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems, I have been closely involved with the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation (HHSC) and its predecessor organization, the Division of Community Hospitals, for over 20 years. In the early 1990s, I was asked to serve as consultant to the Governor's task force whose recommendations led to the creation of HHSC. As the preamble to S.B. 1792 points out, that task force originally called for the establishment of regional governing boards and the delegation of considerable operating autonomy to each of the five regions of HHSC. At the same time, the task force also intended Hawaii's state hospitals to benefit from the many efficiencies and economies of scale that would be inherent in a true system.

The benefits of maintaining HHSC as a system, as opposed to its fragmentation into stand-alone regions, sometimes appear to be lost in the current debate. Yet the "stand-alone" hospital – especially in rural areas – is rapidly becoming a thing of the past in most parts of the country. Just a few of the benefits identified in the health care literature are:

Elimination of duplicative services.

Economies of scale in purchasing.

Economies of scale in consolidating administrative functions.

Ability to utilize more sophisticated (and expensive) information technology across a system.

Collaboration within the system with respect to grants or research projects.

Collaboration within the system with respect to safety-net outreach and services, e.g., expertise or needs likely to be unique to HHSC across Hawaii.
Ability to cross-subsidize under-compensated safety-net services.

Cross-referrals within the system.

Marketing advantages, including economies of scale in creating a "brand name," ability to advertise broader and deeper expertise, more services, and more convenient locations.

Potential to enhance consumer confidence regarding consistency of quality, access to technology and services, geographic access, etc.

Ability to offer "one-stop shopping" and extended geographic coverage to insurers.

Enhanced negotiating leverage with respect to rate setting and reimbursement, and ability to negotiate state-wide agreements with HMO's and other insurers.

Enhanced lobbying strength in legislature and executive branch.

Economies and stability typically enhance access to and cost of capital.

System-wide access to patient data, through shared electronic medical records and similar technology, enhances quality of care, e.g., for a patient who needs care while on another island, also in contributing to the system's overall quality improvement efforts.

Sadly, the proponents of S.B. 1792 would achieve autonomy for just one region of HHSC, the Maui region, at the expense of dismantling and potentially destroying the HHSC system. Yet I don't believe this bill is even in the best interests of Maui. So many of the fiscal and programmatic improvements achieved to date by HHSC – even on Maui – would have been far more difficult for the state's hospitals to achieve on a fragmented, stand-alone basis. On Maui, these include a beautiful new hospital wing and the development of many state of the art services. And yet as everyone knows, economic viability is extremely fragile for all hospitals in today's volatile health care environment – and hard-won improvements could be easily reversed if an effective system like HHSC is dismantled.

It is true that after a decade of operation, HHSC can benefit from carefully considered organizational and structural reforms, including greater regional autonomy and implementation of the community-based governance originally envisioned for the system. But to be effective, such reforms require a balance between system-wide and regional functions and responsibilities. Unfortunately, S.B. 1792, in its current form, does nothing to achieve such a balance, or preserve any of the benefits of the system. I urge you to vote no on this bill in its current form.

Larry Gage
President, National Association of Public Hospitals & Health Systems "

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the floor amendment. Mr. Speaker, this bill could be the most important piece of legislation that we pass this Session. The Hawaii Health Systems Corporation is comprised of 12 community hospitals—13 when Kahuku is added—and it provides acute and long-term rural healthcare. This is the nation's fourth largest community hospital system, with more than 3,400 employees making the HHSC Hawaii's fifth largest employer. With that said, this bill could shape Hawaii's health care for the next decade. In fact, it's especially going to affect our Neighbor Islands

"I should note that this is such an important measure. We need this to go to Conference. I do want to acknowledge that although I do support the floor amendment, this is still a work in progress. Also, Mr. Speaker, I would like to remind our members that we are a bicameral legislature. We have two Chambers, the House and the Senate. We need a concurrent majority to pass legislation. The reason I bring this up, Mr. Speaker, is simple. It's leverage or bargaining power. If we go to Conference with this floor amendment, it does vary substantially from the Senate version. It will provide us with a lot of leverage to meet half way or compromise.

"The Senate version actually has five regions and it creates regional affiliate corporations. This is completely different from the floor amendment in that it effectively breaks up HHSC. It has substantial control of the corporations because they are five separate corporation, they're affiliate corporations. The floor amendment allows HHSC to remain intact. Keep in mind this is, again, I repeat, this is still work in progress and if it goes to Conference, things can be changed to make this measure air-tight.

"I do want to note also that there are a number of problems with HHSC. In fact, the Administrator himself admits that they have problems. We also need more autonomy for our Neighbor Island hospitals. We need more accountability and we can't continue to lose doctors, nurses, and health care workers. We need to better address the needs of our Neighbor Island hospitals. We can certainly do this with a measure. Again, the bottom line is this. This is still work in progress. We need this measure to pass this floor. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you. Just in strong support of the floor amendment, Mr. Speaker, and it's been said so beautifully that I do want to ask that the words of the Representative from Kalihi be incorporated as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the propose floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm just rising in support of the amendment. I think that the Representative from Hana [Hanalei] made very good points. I think it's the concern of many of us in this Chamber, the concern that the underlying bill would weaken the HHSC. I'm particularly concerned because of the fact that Kahuku Hospital is hoping to come under the umbrella of HHSC and they are not in the black. They're in the red. And so, I think we all pretty much have unanimity in our thought to keep HHSC as solid as we possibly can. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this floor amendment. First, I would like to incorporate the words of the Representative from Hanalei as if they were my own. I just wanted to mention just a few things. First, I think we all have received e-mails; I think hundreds of e-mails over the past few days, and I think that this particular floor amendment addresses the concerns raised by many in the communities, especially from the islands of Kauai and the Big Island.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, when you take a look at this floor amendment, I think it's a more prudent approach to dealing with concerns raised by members in regards to our Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. It is the more prudent approach, Mr. Speaker, because blowing up the system as the Senate proposes, or carving out a bit of the system as the H.D. 2 proposes, I think destroys what we have worked so hard to create over the last ten years.

"And more importantly, Mr. Speaker, if you take a look at public policy, I think public policy is on the side of this floor amendment. A few years ago when we took a look at breaking up the school system into local school boards or a few years ago when we took a look at breaking up the university into separate campuses, we all came back to the conclusion, the realization, that keeping the umbrella over the entire system was the right way to go, and in this particular case, as well, for the Hawaii Health Systems Corp, it is the right way to go. By empowering the regional affiliates as this proposal provides, gives the Neighbor Islands and the rural areas of Oahu, a stronger say in their hospitals, specifically for their communities. And I think that's the right prudent approach, so, Mr. Speaker, I encourage our members to support this floor amendment. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the amendment. Mr. Speaker, as much as we'd like to see Maui on its own, the timing is, unfortunately, not appropriate at this juncture. As the system was put together over 10 years ago to stabilize, stop the hospitals from bleeding, the wobbling, to systematize and get bulk purchasing, try to save money. It seems as though what we promised when we did that to get something like we have arrived at today, like a private-public partnership, or at least privatization like Maui is talking about, I think this system is too much in a crisis to do that. And that's why this amendment is needed for the sake of the whole system. The time is not right to do that even though we have to address it.

"The only thing, Mr. Speaker, that when we want to keep the integrity of the system that I have one concern of in this bill is when the introducer from Kauai said, and I checked in the bill, that there are going to be sub-accounts, the money stays in the regions. I think that's a good gesture for Maui and for others that may be in the black, even though I think Maui is probably not going to be in the black. But for those regions which are in desperate shape and have been in the red and will remain in the red, keeping the money in the region is contrary to what otherwise HHSC was designed for and that was all for one, one for all. We put all of our resources in one place.

"So, that's a very slight reservation, and I know it's a work in progress, it can be worked on. But for the sake of what we are doing now, I think for the long run, it's the best thing. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 11, amending S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives

Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, McKelvey, Souki, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

At 7:05 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 11 was adopted and that S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 3 would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, April 12, 2007.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members of the House, this is the 48-hour notice for Floor Amendment No. 11. S.B. 1792, S.D. 3, H.D. 3, will be addressed on Thursday evening at 7:05 in the evening to meet the 48 hour requirement."

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time, Representative Finnegan offered Floor Amendment No. 7, amending S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1882, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1 is amended by deleting its contents and inserting the following language, to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. This Act aims to provide an income tax cut for a vast majority of individual taxpayers. Increasing the standard deduction will primarily benefit low and moderate-income individuals by raising the Hawaii standard deduction to approximately seventy-five per cent of the 2005 federal standard deduction. In addition, this Act aims to narrow the disparity between the State's high income taxes and the economic reality of Hawaii's high cost of living.

Since 1983, the tax review commission has consistently recommended that the standard deduction be increased to assure the State's tax structure provides financial equity to the poor and to reflect the economic realities of living in Hawaii. The State's present standard deduction of $4,000 for joint filers is markedly lower than the 2005 federal standard deduction of $10,000. This Act accomplishes meaningful tax relief for low and moderate-income families by making the necessary amendments to the tax laws.

SECTION 2. Section 235-2.4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(a) Section 63 (with respect to taxable income defined) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be operative for the purposes of this chapter, except that the standard deduction amount in section 63(c) of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead mean:

(1) [~~$4,000~~] $7,500 in the case of:

(A) A joint return as provided by section 235-93; or

(B) A surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(a) of the Internal Revenue Code);

(2) [~~$2,920~~] $5,475 in the case of a head of household (as defined in section 2(b) of the Internal Revenue Code);

(3) [~~$2,000~~] $3,750 in the case of an individual who is not married and who is not a surviving spouse or head of household; or

(4) [~~$2,000~~] $3,750 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return.

Section 63(c)(4) shall not be operative in this State. Section 63(c)(5) shall be operative, except that the limitation on basic standard deduction in the case of certain dependents shall be the greater of $500 or such individual's earned income. Section 63(f) shall not be operative in this State.

The standard deduction amount for nonresidents shall be calculated pursuant to section 235-5."

SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval and shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2006."

Representative Finnegan moved that Floor Amendment No. 7 be adopted, seconded by Representative Meyer.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think we have seen a lot of articles recently in the paper, people saying that this is the time to do some tax reform and our taxpayers are pretty well beleaguered with high costs, high taxes, high property taxes, and we have somewhere in the neighborhood of a $700 million dollar surplus.

"Our amendment would ask for increasing the standard deduction to 75% of what the federal deduction is. This would cost the State somewhere in lost revenue of about $30 million, but would give a great deal of tax relief to the largest number of people. We are one of the worst states for taxing the poor and that's one reason why we are introducing this amendment. While the EITC, which is moving along, does help a lot of people, it doesn't come anywhere close to the numbers that the increased standard deduction would. It's such a major thing. People really need tax relief and this is one way to get it to the most people."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Just quickly, in favor of the amendment. I just want to remind everyone that as the Floor Leader mentioned, the GET is a very regressive tax and at one point, when it was instituted, there was, to balance the tax, there was the food tax credit that was instituted, so this is not a new tax. This existed until, let's say about 10 to 12 years ago, and we collapsed this tax in order to capture more money. Some of you may have been around. Most of you were not, but that's when we were scooping $250 million out of the Employees' Retirement Fund, we were taking $150 million out of the Highway Fund just into the general fund, and at the time we collapsed several tax credits and this food tax credit was one of them.

"This is the one that helps the most unfortunate, the poorest people in our community because they spend most of their income on items taxable by the general excise tax, which is food, rent and medical services. So, I really wish that you would vote for this amendment if you care about helping those who are not rich. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the amendment. Mr. Speaker, a rising tide lifts all boats, especially when yours is made out of cement. Hawaii and Alabama are on the bottom rung of the taxation of the poor. That's embarrassing. We should all be embarrassed at that. This is a bill that gets us really fast to the top. Thirty plus million dollars for all those people who are having a hard time making it in Hawaii. It makes a lot of sense. It's quicker. It's not something that's going to be slower unless, generous as the bill is, if this amendment does not pass it will so indicate.

"But this is something that I would hope before this body adjourns, either in this Session or the next, we would address this. Rather than give lip service to the poor, we give them the substance of which they need. Otherwise, we shouldn't be crying every time we put in a legislative package, or Majority or Minority package. We have to help the poor, and then we leave this place and we don't deliver. This amendment is one opportunity to do that. We can put our money where our mouth is. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to point out that since 1983, the Tax Review Commission has consistently recommended that the standard deduction be increased to ensure the State's tax structure provides financial equity to the poor and to reflect the economic realities of living in Hawaii. By raising the standard deduction, we could take a whole lot of people off the tax rolls, and people that are paying taxes now would not have to pay. Sounds like a great idea. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"I rise in strong opposition to this floor amendment. Mr. Speaker, just so people understand, this floor amendment would remove all of the elements of the food credit and substitute it with the standard deduction amounts to 75% of the federal amounts. For those who weren't here last year, the Legislature did increase the standard deduction by 40% of the federal standard amount and we also decreased the income tax rates for a total of about $60 million that went back into Hawaii's taxpayer's pockets, just shy of a year ago.

"The provisions of this floor amendment will have a fiscal impact on the State treasury of about $30 million this year, Mr. Speaker. But Members, keep in mind and remember that since Opening Day, the Governor has submitted a total of seven Governor's messages and that seven messages between February 14 and March 30 that increased spending in our budget. We only had the opportunity to consider two of them before the First Cross and the Budget Decking. Mr. Speaker, in total the seven Governor's messages add about $114 million more in spending in the budget. This amount, Mr. Speaker, the Governor proposes to spend $40 million from the general fund.

"And let's not forget, Mr. Speaker, that the Governor did submit several messages for further emergency appropriations. In fact, this morning we passed out several of them. Those are all additional unaccounted-for request.

"And, finally, Mr. Speaker, we should remember that the Governor's balance of the biennium inches down to about $44 million. Mr. Speaker, something has to give. We should also keep in mind that the Governor is still in the middle of collective bargaining. She still has the teachers …"

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't think anything about the budget is … We're not looking at the budget now. What we're looking at is the amendment. Will the speaker just stick to the amendment?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"The amendment is addressing the overall financial plan of the State of Hawaii, which is also addressing the budget. You all recognize that. Whatever impact it has to the general fund, it affects the people of the State of Hawaii, also. Please proceed Representative Marcus Oshiro."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I thank the Minority Floor Leader for making my point. This has to consider the budget. For example, Mr. Speaker, last week the Governor just settled with the HGEA and that drops in another cost element of about $183 million. Again, something has to give, Mr. Speaker. The Governor is still negotiating with teachers, nurses, prison guards. Something has to give.

"The Committee on Finance passed out about over a billion dollars in request in many House bills. Something has to give. Mr. Speaker, at the end of the day the Legislature will have to make some tough choices and balance the budget. It is premature at this point to set any amount for the additional standard deduction increase. Even the Governor is asking us to spend more money. Mr. Speaker, there is no free lunch. And f it sounds too good to be true, it probably isn't. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the amendment. Mr. Speaker, if we could only think of standard deduction as, say, one of other programs or a new program, a government program that we passed out, then maybe this would have a chance of just actually moving along a little bit more forward along the process because it is very similar to establishing like another government program, except for investing money back into the pockets. Letting them keep more of the money that they earned, which in essence helps everybody.

"Mr. Speaker, we have exactly like what the Finance Chair has stated. We passed out many things with high price tags and we say it's a work in progress. Hey, let's try and do that for the standard deduction as well. Let's try and use that as a part of this equation, of this whole financial picture.

"The other thing that I would like to just also mention is the six year financial plan. With the six year financial plan, we were actually able to say, 'Hey, the Governor's budget says this.' That's what I would have liked to see, so that we could say the same thing about the different things that are moving through the House and say, 'Hey, how is this compared to our own six year financial plan?' Mr. Speaker, if we can pass out other programs, all this money for other things and say, 'Well, it's going to work out in the end,' why can't we do that with standard deduction? Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. My second time in favor. I thank the Finance Chair for correcting my previous statements, but I still encourage you to vote for this amendment to raise the standard deduction to 75% of the federal level. And after you pass this amendment, at Conference Committee, we should also add back in the food tax credit. I believe that we're passing a lot of bills with blank amounts. We don't know what the tax credit amounts will be. We don't know what the rebate amount will be for the constitutional rebate and so, we don't know what kind of tax relief our people will get. They deserve some. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Second time in favor of the amendment. I was just reflecting on the very interesting role reversal that's taking place. You got the Republicans pleading the plight of the poor and the Democrats saying we don't have the money. I thought that was a very interesting historical contrast because, Mr. Speaker, the statistic has become so severe, that 33% of the people of this State are dependent somehow on either a welfare check or a subsidy or some way not making it either from the federal, State or municipal level on their own.

"We don't have an independent state with independent people. It's got so serious that these Republicans will probably need to continue to plead the plight of the poor until we listen, we say either we pay now or pay later. And we know when the poor don't have the resources to get medical care and the food and sustenance that they need, we're going to end up paying later, we're going to pay more. It's in prison, it's in education and it's cost effective to do it now, so in case there is an irony in our role reversal, it's because it's practical, it works and it's in the DNA, as the Chair of the Finance Committee used to say. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the amendment. The previous speaker mentioned the Republican DNA again. I have to say that there must be something in the water in Washington, D.C. that alters Republican DNA because in 2001, when the current President came into power, the federal debt was $5.6 trillion and now it's $8.7, and I think …"

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the speaker is not talking about the amendment. He's gone way far afield."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Your point is well taken. Representative Rhoads, could you confine your remarks to the proposed floor amendment relating to standard deduction."

Representative Rhoads continued, stating:

"They opened the door on that. They're the ones who brought up their own DNA. Not me.

"Speaking directly to the amendment, as a member of Finance, I probably had 60 meetings with people coming in and asking on GIA request. I haven't seen a single project, yet, that I didn't see was meritorious. The ERS is behind by $5.1 billion. Schools need repairs. There are a whole number of things we have that are a very high priorities for us in the budget. I would support this amendment if there was an offsetting tax increase for the wealthy. If you really care about the poor, then you'll put your money where your mouth is and offset and make it a budget neutral amendment. Mahalo."

Representative Manahan rose in opposition to the proposed floor amendment and asked that the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, also in opposition. I just wanted to correct any misimpression that the Democrats from Hawaii are not concerned about the working poor of our State, or the working families of our State. If you look at any number of pieces of legislation we've moved to address that issue. What we are mandated to do is pass a balanced budget, and that's what we are trying to do while addressing the needs of working families, and there are many, many bills that do that. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 7, amending S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Green, McKelvey, Souki, Takamine, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

(Main Motion)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Green, McKelvey, Souki, Takamine, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

At 7:21 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1 passed Third Reading.

S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time, Representative Finnegan offered Floor Amendment No. 9, amending S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 148, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1, is amended by deleting its contents and replacing it with the following language, to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. The legislature finds that article VII, section 6, of the constitution of the state of Hawaii requires the legislature to provide a tax refund or tax credit when certain factors are met. The legislature finds that these factors have been met and that the legislature is constitutionally required to provide a tax credit or tax refund.

The purpose of this Act is to provide for an income tax credit of $100 multiplied by the number of the taxpayer's dependents to every resident individual taxpayer of the State with an adjusted gross income, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, below a certain amount, and an income tax credit of $1 multiplied by the number of the taxpayer's dependents to every resident individual taxpayer of the State with an adjusted gross income, as determined by the Internal Revenue Code, above a certain amount, to satisfy the constitutionally mandated requirements.

SECTION 2. (a) There shall be paid, as early as December 1, 2007, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, to each resident individual taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for the taxable year 2005, and who is not claimed or is not otherwise eligible to be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer for federal or Hawaii state individual income tax purposes, a general income tax credit of $100, with the following filing status and federal adjusted gross income:

Married Filing Jointly	100,000 or less
Head of Household	$75,000 or less
Single, Married Filing Separately	$50,000 or less

There shall be allowed to each resident individual taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for the taxable year 2005, with federal adjusted gross income in excess of the limits described above, and who is not claimed or is not otherwise eligible to be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer for federal or Hawaii state individual income tax purposes, a general income tax refund of $1.

Each resident individual taxpayer shall be paid the general income tax credit. In addition, each taxpayer shall be paid an amount equal to the general income tax credit multiplied by each dependent claimed on the taxpayer's 2005 net income tax return; provided that a husband and wife that filed a joint return shall only be entitled to be paid an amount not to exceed the computed refund amount based upon the number of dependents that the husband or wife would have been entitled to claim had the husband or wife filed separately.

Each person to whom the general income tax credit is paid shall have been a resident of the State, as defined in section 235-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, for at least nine months regardless of whether the qualified resident was physically in the State for nine months.

The general income tax credit shall not be paid to:

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a felony and who has been committed to prison and has been physically confined for the full taxable year;

(2) Any person who would otherwise be eligible to be claimed as a dependent but who has been committed to a youth correctional facility and has resided at the facility for the full taxable year; or

(3) Any misdemeanant who has been committed to jail and has been physically confined for the full taxable year.

(b) The tax credit paid to a resident taxpayer pursuant to this Act shall not be included in the resident taxpayer's gross income.

(c) This section implements the provisions of article VII, section 6, of the constitution of the State of Hawaii, enacted by the 1978 constitutional convention, which reads as follows:

"DISPOSITION OF EXCESS REVENUES

Section 6. Whenever the state general fund balance at the close of each of two successive fiscal years exceeds five percent of general fund revenues for each of the two fiscal years, the legislature in the next regular session shall provide for a tax refund or tax credit to the taxpayers of the State, as provided by law."

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval."

Representative Finnegan moved that Floor Amendment No. 9 be adopted, seconded by Representative Meyer.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of the amendment. Mr. Speaker, the State Constitution requires that taxpayers be given a refund or tax credit when the balance of the general fund exceeds 5% two years in a row. In the last couple of years, we've had a surplus of $700 million, we've had a surplus of $400 million.

"Basically, in the last two years, Hawaii's government has made over a billion dollar profit off its people, mainly the poor. Residents of my district, I can talk to you about that. A man just came up to me at church the other day and just said the fees are going up, the taxes are going up, they're taxing the poor the most in Hawaii. When is it going to stop? And, so, I just start imagining this person from my church when he gets his $1 tax refund in the mail. He only makes about $24,000 a year. He paid out a lot more. He's having to take out a mortgage on his house just so he can pay his bills. He was a good tax paying citizen his whole life, and now just to pay his bills and the high cost of living in Hawaii, he has to take a mortgage or a reverse mortgage on his home.

"Mr. Speaker, basically, what the bill does now is it changes a larger tax credit that would go back to the people to $1 and what our amendment does is, for example, if you make $50,000 or less, instead of $1, you get $100. Now, in Hawaii, after taxes, that means you're making about $30,000 a year, which is not enough to survive. I just don't believe, Mr. Speaker, that government should be in the business of making a profit from its people. And we talk about something's got to give, but is it the poorest who'll have to give? What are we going to give back? And if this person from church who's apparently benefiting from all these working family laws that we're passing is still suffering, and his family is suffering, then, perhaps, we should rethink what we're really passing these days.

"If the newspaper, itself, is saying that we tax the poor the most, then we're obviously not doing a good job of helping the working poor, and maybe we should give to the right people, and that is to the poor and to the middle class. And giving a dollar, Mr. Speaker, it'll buy this pen. Well, actually this is a Cross pen, I'm sorry. It'll buy this Bic pen. That's not really meaningful to the guy from church who is pleading with me just to help him out to survive."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just short comments. I remember reading in the newspaper in regards to this. Basically, what we're saying is in order to help with this floor amendment, we're basically saying, if you make over $100,000, even though we know $100,000 in Hawaii is not that much, if you make over $100,000, okay, we'll go with the dollar. Okay, we'll try that. But if you make under a hundred thousand and this is not in one income, this is a two income family, you know, and it's $100 per dependent, you may get for a family of four with two incomes under $100,000 in income, $400 in tax credit. It's something that we can do. It's basically addressing people and families that make under $100,000, Mr. Speaker. This is different than what the Governor has proposed and we're hoping that we will be able to adopt the amendment for more discussion on this issue.

"But, also, Mr. Speaker, I remember reading in an article early on in this Session, where the Majority Leader basically said $1 would be silly. I can't remember the exact quote, but he said $1 would be silly. And what are we moving forward in this bill? One dollar."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a couple of points I want to make. In opposition. One, I don't think I ever said a $1 rebate or credit is silly. I'd like to see where that's stated. Unless we're saying it was going to be done through the mail. That would be silly. It costs more to do that. But I don 't think I ever was opposed to a one dollar rebate or credit.

"In fact, Mr. Speaker, we've all seen the People's Pulse polls that have been taken and shared with this caucus. It is paid for by the Business Roundtable and PRP Partnership, and in it, it consistently shows in its polls, that the majority of working families in this State, would much better see the surplus plowed back into worthy needs, whether it be education, fixing infrastructure, any number of public work projects and other benefits that we all enjoy and are extremely important in that way. And I think that's what we're talking about here. We're saying, let's plow the money back into other worthy needs instead of giving someone $100.

"I've already stated that $100,000 isn't that much, Mr. Speaker. I think if you ask most working families whether they thought a $100,000 in income was a lot, and they will say yes. And, in fact, someone making $100,000 would get $100 back. And those people may belong to a country club. They play a round of golf, they eat at the golf club house afterwards. They spend $100. It's gone. Let's take that money, let's put it back into our infrastructure, let's upgrade our schools, let's commit to the programs we say we're going to support to all the GIA, to all the CIP. So, Mr. Speaker, we should vote down this amendment. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"I don't think the People's Pulse understands some of the people in my district. I can guarantee you that half the people from Campbell High School send their kids to that school who are so poor that their kids have to take these free lunch programs and they're embarrassed about it. I'm sure if I called someone on the phone and said, 'Hey, did you give back money to the people? To Hawaii? For infrastructure?' They'll say, 'Yeah', but they'll go home and then they'll sit down and go, how are we going to pay for food next week. You know, I'm mainly talking about those people.

"And maybe $100,000, for that other part of the amendment is something that someone's against. I can guarantee you that a family of four that makes that much, they're still sitting down and saying, 'Yeah, let's give back. Let's give back', but they still can't afford to live here. Taxes, especially property tax has skyrocketed. That's not enough to raise a family of four."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of this floor amendment. I wasn't going to say anything, but I will be remiss if I didn't point out a couple of things. First, I think most people would agree that for those making $100,000 a year, that's a lot of money, but maybe the DNA leads someone to believe that's not.

"The second point I need to make, Mr. Speaker, is that I don't take to heart, as a gospel truth, anything I read in the newspapers, and I'm sure that most of my constituents would also agree with that.

"And the third point I think, Mr. Speaker, the reason why I'm standing in opposition to this measure, I think the Members, especially those who are proponents of it, should understand what they're offering before this body, so they don't embarrass themselves by voting for this amendment. You see, Mr. Speaker, when I look through this draft and have the analysts look through it again and double-check it, what this bill will do is, it will provide a credit of a $100 to the so-called 'poor people'. It will give the 'rich guys' a tax refund of $1. That's the way it's drafted and that's the way it's going to be played out. And, so, that's another reason why I will be voting against this amendment."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm still very much in support of it. I just wanted to make a correction. I think the Chairman of Finance talked about a person making $100,000. We're saying it's not a person. It's a couple people filing jointly. It's up to a $100,000, but it's all those people between $15,000 up to $100,000. And it's not that we'd rather take that money for GIA. We've already taken that money. That's why we have a surplus. We've overtaxed the people of Hawaii, and the people, according to our Constitution, are to get something back. But it doesn't seem to be a recognition in this Chamber that people were overtaxed, and now, with the increase and the excise tax gone up 12.5% starting January 1, these very people are getting taxed more and more.

"So, this is just trying to do what the Constitution envisioned. I don't think a dollar is anything. I would have trouble with mailing a dollar back. But the major thrust of our amendment is the $100 per person. For a family of four, that's $400, and that would be something that would be substantial enough that people would realize they're actually getting some of their tax dollars back. Thank you."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to the proposed amendment. Mr. Speaker, I agree that Hawaii taxpayers deserve some level of relief. I disagree that a hundred dollars for every taxpayer is the correct route to go. If the State is going to give tax relief to people, shouldn't that relief be given to the people who need it the most?

"The Minority argues that everyone deserves a hundred bucks in their pocket, but you have to ask what type of people. Their position is to provide some relief to as many taxpayers as possible, providing EITC or cutting taxes on food and medicine. It's targeted to low income taxpayers, particularly, families with children. It gives more significant relief to this group than is possible through a one time give away. The hand out does very little to get people out of poverty since low income families currently bear more than their fair share of the State tax burden here in Hawaii. It is totally appropriate that tax relief be targeted to them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 9, amending S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME TAX CREDIT," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, with Representatives Bertram, Green, McKelvey, Nakasone, Souki, Takamine, Thielen, Tokioka and Yamane being excused.

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, I'm proud to announce the results are just in from the Pacific's newest democracy, East Timor. They have just completed their first election since independence from Indonesia in May 2002.

"Of great interest to Hawaii is that the likely choice for president will be Nobel Laureate winner, Ramos-Horta who's a great friend of this body. In fact, he was given a commendation in 1998 from this body and one who was a great friend of the Peace Corp while I was there as the country director. I'm sure we're going to see him again and I will keep you posted. Thank you."

Speaker Say: "Members of the House, if you look on pages A through I of your Order of the Day, we have a lot of hearings tomorrow, so please be aware of your public hearing notices."

Representative Chong for the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources and Hawaiian Affairs requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement to hear HCR No.196 and its companion HR No. 154, Requesting the Office of Hawaiian Affairs to Report on the Status of Waimea Valley, be heard tomorrow at 10:20 a.m., in Conference Room 312, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, a former long-time federal Prosecutor here who served as the head of the State Department of Public Safety. He was helping the legal system in Malawi and Southeast Africa. And this federal Prosecutor also worked in the U.S. Attorneys office.

"His most famous case was prosecuting Ronald Rewald, who was in prison for defrauding victims of millions of dollars through the bogus firm of Bishop Baldwin Rewald. And he was appointed by Governor Lingle to head the Department of Public Safety. He resigned the following year to return to Bosnia and helped that nation's legal system and to establish a judicial system in Bosnia, Herzegovinia. He died this week in a car crash in Africa.

"Many of us knew John Peyton as the head of the State Department of Public Safety. I think he served with dignity, and he was a good man, as I've known him. And I'd just like to request a moment of silence at the appropriate time."

At this time, the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in memory for former Department of Public Safety director, Mr. John Peyton, Jr.

Representative Yamashita: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to announce that my office will be sponsoring the Second Annual Bizarre Bazaar for the Hawaii Foodbank, with proceeds going to that, tomorrow from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. I just noticed that on my Palm. I don't know what room it's in, but the information is on the elevator door, so you can look at there. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, please note that H.R. No. 257 and H.C.R. No. 322 were re-referred solely to the joint Committees on Human Services and Housing and Health per Committee Referral Sheet No. 49 that was placed on your desk Thursday, April 5th. The Committee on Judiciary waived its referral to these measures and therefore it is appropriate for the House to consider action for adoption."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Representative Caldwell moved to suspend the rules of the House to reconsider action previously taken on H.R. No. 257 and H.C.R. No. 322, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Karamatsu, Nakasone, Pine, Thielen and Ward were excused.).

At 9:07 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:09 o'clock p.m.

Representative Takai rose, stating:

"A point of parliamentary inquiry. The motion that the Majority Leader made was to reconsider action previously taken. I just want some clarification because I do not believe that the motion was to suspend the rules."

The Chair responded, stating:

"It was to suspend the Rules of the House to reconsider action previously taken on House Resolution No. 257 and House Concurrent Resolution No. 322 which is on the Order of the Day."

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative Caldwell moved to reconsider action taken pursuant to the recommendations contained in Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1543 and 1544 in referring H.R. No. 257 and H.C.R. No. 322 to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Karamatsu, Nakasone, Pine and Thielen were excused.).

ADOPTIONS

Representative Caldwell then moved that H.R. No. 257 and H.C.R. No. 322 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"I would like to speak against these Resolutions. These Resolutions are obviously a response to the issues of residential carehomes being built in Manoa. However, although I do sympathize with the Representative who was bringing this measure to the Floor, it does go beyond Manoa. It will cover areas anywhere in the State. This measure is supposed to take a look at whether or not it is too easy. Basically, that's how I read this. It's that, is it too easy to build a carehome?

"Mr. Speaker, as your prior Chair of Human Services, I've looked at the issues that carehome operators have faced. It's a challenge just to open one. It's a very, very huge role. It takes six months sometimes to a year to get licensed. They try to build homes that will comply with the very strict standards that are set. Carehome operators care for a lot of our elderly, people with disabilities, people that are related to us, people who are aged. They have to find homes. People that were in Waimano Home, but were ordered by the courts that they should not be institutionalized can hardly find homes. There's not enough adult residential carehomes to care for all those individuals out there that we are responsible for.

"If we are going to move on this, and the House is saying that we should adequately look at this issue, and the attitude is that it's too easy and we should make it harder, I think we're going the wrong way. If what's being addressed here really is the issues in Manoa, I will trade you the transition homes in Waipahu and have all of those adult residential carehomes in Waipahu, it's fine. Because you know it's easier to open a transition home than it is a residential carehome.

"And mind you, Mr. Speaker, that this bill is certainly an outcry from a special group or a special community. However, it is detrimental for the carehome industry that is necessary to benefit those who are less fortunate, those who are disabled or aged, and those who cannot fend for themselves. We are going backwards. Thank you very much."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to these Resolutions. I was not expecting to see this today. I thought that we had eliminated these Resolutions, and now, it's here. And I am speaking just to remind the body how much savings these carehomes give to the State. Usually, when you send these elderly people to nursing homes, which we don't have enough of to begin with, they usually cost anywhere from $6,000 to $7,000. These carehomes save the State hundreds of thousands of dollars every year. Families taking them into their homes, anywhere from $1,000, $1,050 to $2,600. By restricting the building of more carehomes, we are putting more burdens on us to come up with more tax dollars to finance them. Not to mention that they get better care in carehomes.

"I believe that this problem comes from the publicity of the carehomes in Manoa. So I say that this bill is a NIMBY issue. The two problems that we're facing are that most of the older neighborhoods have to take these carehomes now because we're moving into planned communities. And planned communities in their covenants do not accept carehomes. I see the point if, it's being asked to expand more residential communities for carehomes. But this measure is restricting them.

"We've heard and read bills in the Human Services Committee against outsourcing our elderly. Sending them to the mainland because we don't have enough care. And we have an outcry for those. But we cannot have it both ways, Mr. Speaker. We don't want to send our elderly to the mainland, but yet we do not want to expand services for them as well. I think that we need to make a decision here. Do we want to save money in caring for our elderly? Do we want to keep them in our community? Or we will go with this NIMBY issue. And that's my case, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in opposition to these measures. Just the other day we had a group of carehome operators, quite a significant number of carehome operators, who had taken an issue with the way the Department of Health was conducting their inspections. I don't think that the Department of Health should be conducting the study for one. And until those issues are resolved, I would have serious concerns, and I would like to insert written comments."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe residential carehomes will soon become the backbone of our geriatric and palliative care. Residential homes are an alternative to institutionalization, providing an environment where our elders who are more independent and require a more basic level of medical attention can enjoy their golden years with a minimum of interference. These homes assure that the clients maintain the highest level of independence and dignity, while at the same time ensuring the safety that completely independent living cannot ensure. Although it is true that the homes are not subject to the same kind of zoning requirements that other businesses are, the proprietors of these important businesses are required to have facility experience and be licensed by the State.

"Proponents of this measure have cited traffic and parking concerns, for the most part this is simply untrue. Many of these seniors are in carehomes because they are not mobile and do not own vehicles, the operators in most cases do their shopping, run their errands, and assist in recreational activities.

"As for trash collection, noise, and EMS services, these problems are present in every corner of Hawai`i, be it rural areas with lack of ambulance services and trash pick-up or crowded streets and apartments that EMT's have difficulty getting to. Mr. Speaker, we are not describing twenty-year olds that move in to an apartment and party. These are our elders; they make no more noise than they would if they were the relatives of the people residing in the area.

"The alternatives would be commercial care which would burden the taxpayers even more than presently as registered nursing staff and doctors would need to be present or on-call at all times. This may also adversely affect the cost of healthcare. Mr. Speaker, as our baby boomer generation reaches its sunset we will assume, as well we should, the responsibility of caring for our mothers and fathers. Please do not let legislation such as this hamper one of our most important tools in this challenge."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On those two Resolutions that we have in front of us, I stand in opposition. The reason I stand in opposition is because, as far as being a part of the Filipino Caucus, I called a meeting on Monday, a special meeting with Dr. Fukino, on caregiving. There were a lot of issues that were brought upon us. We had representatives from the Neighbor Islands, Oahu, everyone talking about it. Right now in Chapter 100, regarding the Department of Health, there was a condition regarding how the people would be looking when they come into the home for the inspection. They look for different things.

"I think for me right now, I think these Resolutions are too premature because right now, I have the consent of Dr. Fukino, the Director of Health, to work with these caregivers as they go through the process. I think you should give them the time to take a look, this year. I talked to them, and I told them whatever process we go through, whatever legislation we have to do, we can bring it up next year.

"I think right now to single out this district of Manoa, I think we have to look at it globally as we go because according to Dr. Fukino, in her statement to us in the Caucus, without the Filipinos, who are 90% of the caregivers, if we do this, there is no future for the people who come in to do this caregiving. I think we should give this more time to have them work together with Dr. Fukino and the caregivers. I think right now the caregivers and the community are coming together as one. Before they had no voice. They come together as one as we go further.

"So, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I'm asking that we not support this. I think it's too premature. Let's wait, because they're meeting right now. This is the first time I have ever had this group meeting on a one-to-one basis, instead of have three to one, or four to one. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations. And I ask that the words of the speaker from Kalihi, as well as the North Shore be entered as my own. There are a lot of problems with this and as was stated earlier, I won't belabor the point, but there's a number of carehomes. We're just lucky and I've experienced this before with a loved one, we're lucky to have our carehomes and I don't know if people understand how difficult it is at this point."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Mr. Speaker, I'm not afraid to say, 'special interests'. The special interest in this bill is for all of the seniors and the elderly in Hawaii. We are finding that better care can happen in a community. They feel more a part of families. And what happens in adult residential carehomes is that you have families taking in elderly to become a part of their family. It's not just one, two hours, eight hours. This is 24 hours a day. It's not an easy job, but these people, the caregivers, do it because that's what they want to do. It's not easy, earning the money. Some make a good amount of money and others don't.

"Mr. Speaker, affordable long-term care, if you want that, if you want your elderly parents or grandparents to have a place to go, don't drive out caregivers from opening their homes to elderly who need them. Many times, many times I've visited carehomes and I listen to how they treat their 'clients' and it's just like family.

"Mr. Speaker, it's hard to live in Hawaii. It's hard to earn a living and it's hard for people like me who have elderly parents and you have a young family, it's hard to make that balance. What you're doing when you have things like this is, you're saying to the next generation of carehome operators, we're going to give you more challenges and there's a whole bunch of caregivers that are at the point where, do we think about closing down or can we pass this business off to our kids? Would they want to go through this? And many are not. Many are thinking, you know what, I think I'm going to take on something else that will be easier. You can make more money. And I'm just saying, Mr. Speaker, this is the wrong way to go. If there's some problems in some communities about having too many, well we have a lot of seniors to take care of. We can figure out another way."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in response. In support. You can read these Resolutions, word for word. Nowhere in it does it say they're against carehomes. Nowhere does it say that we're trying to keep carehomes out of Manoa. What we are saying, Mr. Speaker, is that we're an aging population, and that's been stated here by many others. The baby boomer generation of which you and I are a part of will be retiring in the next ten, fifteen, twenty years. And that is going to be a huge amount of people. Aging in homes, in residential communities is the right way to go. And these Resolutions do not say anything to the contrary.

"What they say is that with the increased demand for carehomes, are the rules and statutes currently in place sufficient to address this growing demand in our residential communities? And it's just a well thought-out approach. It's to say, let's see whether the statutes as it says here, determine whether there is adequacy of statutes and administrative rules. Are they adequate now? Do they need to be improved, rewritten, changed and so forth? And whether there's an opportunity for public notice and participation. They may say there is. And to work with the Attorney General and Director of Honolulu Department of Planning and Permitting.

"So Mr. Speaker, we're not saying by supporting these Resolutions that we're against old people in our communities. We're not saying that we're against carehomes. What we are saying is, let's step back and look as we go into the next ten, fifteen, twenty years, and that we do this in a manner that preserves the residential nature of our neighborhoods and accommodates the growing demand for carehomes. That's all these Resolutions say. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke then rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In light of all the discussion, I move to recommit these two Resolutions."

At this time, Representative Luke moved that. H.R. No. 257 and H.C.R. No. 322, be recommitted jointly to the Committee on Human Services and Housing and the Committee on Health, seconded by Representative Takai.

At 9:25 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:28 o'clock p.m.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the motion for recommital, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of the motion to recomit. The words that this is supposed to help the industry, on page 2 this measure, it states exactly what it's for. Whoever wrote this, it says there is apparently no regulation to provide an opportunity for public notice, review or comments, especially by adjoining property owners, regarding the pending application to establish, modify, expand above residential carehomes. That in itself is in black letters tell you the real reason for these Resolutions. These Resolutions that before you can open a carehome, expand a carehome, you have to file for an application to modify a carehome. In order to do that, this is going to require, what? Regulation, more regulation?"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order Mr. Speaker. The debate is only a limited debate as to the recommittal itself, and not the substance of the Resolutions."

The Chair responded, stating:

"You stand corrected. You're right. Representative Sonson, can you limit your debate to the motion to recommit? Why you are for the motion is important for recommital. Just say that these are bad Resolutions."

Representative Sonson: "These are bad Resolutions."

Speaker Say: "Okay. That's simple and fair."

Representative Sonson: "And I can say more why they are bad. Therefore I hope that all members will vote and support the motion."

At this time, Representative Cabanilla requested a roll call vote at the appropriate time on the motion to recommit.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the motion for recommital, stating:

"In opposition to the recommittal. As Acting Chair of the Human Services and Housing Committee on the day these Resolutions were heard, there's no intention to shut down the industry or to harm the industry. But there is a specific situation in Manoa that's, I think, very troubling. And the testimony was overwhelming. I think these are perfectly legitimate Resolutions, and they are only Resolutions. And I think that we should vote down the recommittal motion. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the motion for recomiittal, stating:

"In support of the recommittal. I just wanted to say that these Resolutions are another way for the Department of Health to harass the carehome industry and put more things that need to comply with.

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Cabanilla. The motion before this body is the motion to recommit. You are in support of the recommittal. State your reason why."

Representative Cabanilla: "Because these are bad Resolutions."

The request for a roll call vote was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands, was approved.

Roll call having been approved, the motion that H.R. No. 257, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO CONDUCT A STUDY OF ADULT RESIDENTIAL CAREHOMES," and H.C.R. No. 322, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO CONDUCT A STUDY OF ADULT RESIDENTIAL CAREHOMES," be recommitted jointly to the Committee on Human Services and Housing and the Committee on Health was put to vote by the Chair and carried on the following show of ayes and noes:

Ayes, 31: Representatives Awana, Belatti, Berg, Brower, Cabanilla, Carroll, Chang, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Green, Hanohano, Herkes, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Mizuno, Nishimoto, M. Oshiro, Sagum, Saiki, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Takai, Tokioka, Tsuji and Wakai.

Noes, 17: Representatives Bertram, Caldwell, Chong, Har, Ito, Karamatsu, Morita, Nakasone, B. Oshiro, Rhoads, Say, Souki, Takamine, Takumi, Ward, Yamane and Yamashita.

Excused, 3: Representatives Pine, Thielen and Waters.

At 9:34 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:34 o'clock p.m.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Meyer and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering certain bills on Third Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar. (Representatives Pine and Thielen were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

S.B. No. 1283, SD 2, HD 2:

At this time, S.B. No. 1283, SD2, HD 2 was taken from the Clerk's desk and the following action taken.

Representative Mizuno moved that the House reconsider its previous action on April 10th on S.B. No. 1283, SD 2, HD 2, and that said Senate Bill pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Green.

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise against this measure. Let me say at the onset that I continue to support the University of Hawaii and the UH Med School. My objections to this bill is based on the old adage, 'Promises made, promises kept'. This issue goes back to 1999 when we set up the Tobacco Settlement Fund. It also goes back to the University's initial commitment for the Medical School in 2001. But it also goes back to commitments made as recently as a couple years ago. And in fact, just a few days ago. If we don't hold the University or other departments to their commitments, what good are their promises? And how can we believe them in the future?

"In 1999, we created the Hawaii Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund. The then Chair of the Health Committee said, and a quote, "If all goes as planned, someday when we look back on all the issues and measures I have had the privilege of being involved with, this measure, I believe, will be one of those that I will remember as being significant and very important."

"Not two years later in November of 2001, when our nation was reeling from the attacks in New York and Washington DC, we came back in Special Session to pass a number of measures, including one to change the initial funding formula for the Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund and diverted 28% of the funding to the construction of the UH medical school in Kakaako. In 2001, we reduced our initial commitment to the Rainy Day Fund from 40% to 24.5%. More importantly, in 2001, we reduced the money going into the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund from 25% to 12.5 %. The commitment to use 28% of the funds for the UH Medical School is much more than covering $150 million bond float. It's really about spending $300 million.

"The debt service agreement was originally pegged at $302 million or around $10 million for 30 years. In addition, the University committed to raising $150 million in matching funds to cover the cost of renovating the old Biomedical Science building to cover the cost of construction of a new Cancer Research Center and to cover the operational costs of the new Medical School campus in Kakaako. In 2001, I voted against our efforts to erode the promises we originally made in 1999. My vote today is in part because of this. My vote against this measure today is much, much more. We must hold people accountable for their words, commitments, actions, and in this case, inactions.

"I would like to read from a few letters that I've received in the past. On March 25, 2003, Dr. Ed Cadman, former Dean of the UH Medical School wrote to us 'Our best guess would be that the operation and maintenance cost of the facility will be between six to seven million dollars annually. We expect to primarily fund these costs through FE cost recovery from sponsor projects.' Cadman continued, 'We understand the Legislature's expectation that the new school campus will be financially self-sufficient and the importance of having the ability to accurately measure and evaluate the School's return on investment.'

"On February 25, 2004, David Morihara, former Director of Government Relations wrote to us, 'We anticipate that a substantial portion of the operating costs of the core facilities will be funded in future years mainly through the extramural facilities and administrative recovery mechanism and secondarily through the interest earnings on endowments generated from naming opportunities and a contribution from the ancillary services provided on campus.' Director Morihara also provided us with a chart explaining the operating cost projections from FY 2005 to FY 2009. The chart shows that there were initial State funds at $1.8 million to fund a start-up of the medical school in FY 05. An additional $3.9 million was needed in FY 06 to carry the medical school through its second year transition. However, in FY 07, which is by the way this year, the operations of the Medical School were supposed to be nearly 100% self-sufficient.

"At that time in 2004, their own figures suggested that only $364,000 was needed in additional State funds to operate the new facilities. They projected needs of $352,000 in FY 08, and $337,000 in FY 09."

Representative Berg rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takai continued, stating:

"Thank you. On March 7, 2005 President David McClain wrote, 'I do want to acknowledge that with regards to the funding of the operating costs of the research building and the educational building of the John A. Burns School of Medicine, at its new location in Kakaako, initial commitments made in 2001 at the time the construction of the new facility was approved had been shown with the passage of time to have been overly optimistic.' President McClain's comments were welcomed and necessary.

"Two years ago he committed to redoing the financial plans for the Medical School. He brought in Professor Shirley Daniels to come up with a new plan. At that time, we approved an additional $3.7 million for both FY 06 and FY 07. This temporary funding was placed in our budget as a proviso because the University committed to fixing their balance sheets by June 30, 2007. According to their commitments just two years ago, they were only going to need $3.7 million for two years. Afterwards, their financial plan suggested that very little State funds will be needed in this budget for the operations of the Medical School.

"So what happened this year, Mr. Speaker? The University requested $4.1 million for FY 08, and $4.35 million for FY 09, in addition to the $3.7 million in the two year proviso. Just two years ago they said that they would need little to no State funds to operate the Medical School. And this year they say that they will need $15.8 million for the next two years in new money. This is absolutely irresponsible.

"A few weeks ago we passed our version of the State budget. I said then that I would support increasing the Medical School base by $3.63 million and $3.95 million for the next two fiscal years. Our budget was and continues to be very generous. The total general fund support to the Medical School in our budget is about $5.6 million each year. But the University said that it was still around $4 million short in operating funds, even after our very generous support in our budget. So what did they do?

"They now propose making up the difference utilizing this bill. I asked Vice President Gary Ostrander what would happen if they did not get the additional $4 million for each of the next two years. He said that they would be able to survive, but will need to make some reductions to their financial plans. I told him that his comments on right-sizing the budget were the same comments that we heard two years ago. Did the University right-size their budget two years ago? The answer is, no. If they did right size the budget two years ago, would we be in this predicament today, Mr. Speaker? That answer is, no.

"This bill will allow the University to access leftover monies from the 28% annual allotment. The University did refinance the bonds last year. And we need to acknowledge and thank them for this. Now the payment for FY 08 is $6.6 million, and the payments for the out years are a little less than $10 million each year. If this bill passes, the University will realize a lot of money. Next year with a significant increase in funds going into the Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund, we calculate that the University will realize an additional $11 million in FY 09, and beyond, if this bill passes, the University will receive an additional funds in excess of $8 million each year. How can we in all good conscience provide this amount of funds to the University?

"What we are saying with this bill is the University is no longer responsible to keep their commitments, no longer required to keep their financial books balanced because they can always come back to us if they should fall short. Is this a good message? My answer is, absolutely no.

"I want to talk a little bit about our commitment to the Cancer Research Center. Recall that in 2001, when we approved the use of the Tobacco Fund for the Medical School, that the University commitment was to provide the necessary funds to construct a new Cancer Research Center facility. Last year we passed SB 2961 which became Act 316. This bill increased the cigarette tax from $1.40 per pack, to eventually $2.60 per pack in 2011. Some of this increase was to pay for the construction and operations of the new Cancer Research Center. In fact, the University will receive $11 million, $16 million and $22 million for the next three years for the construction and operations of this new Cancer Research Center. Last year, in my Floor speech …"

Representative Nishimoto rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I will continue, but just say this. I was not going to give this speech two days ago. In fact, I was going to submit it. But I feel compelled tonight to say this speech because I think it's needed. And I think our Members, especially the new Members, need to be educated about the history about this particular situation. Thank you.

"Last year, in my Floor speech I said the following. And I quote, "Years from now when we look back on this particular bill, and our allocating of funds for three years to the Cancer Research Center, I don't want us to again be placed in a predicament to increase funding for the operation of these new buildings. The University and their leaders must be held accountable to their commitments. The taxpayers and in this case the smokers deserve no less."

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank those Members who stood strongly against this measure just two days ago. There should be no regrets. Your vote was a message to the University and to all those who spend taxpayer dollars that you must honor your promises. You must honor your commitments. I realize this Floor speech is a little long, but I felt as I said before, compelled to say these words and I hope that I have clearly explained that our no votes two days ago were based on sound public policy and sound fiscal policy. There is no need for apologies, and no needs for regrets. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, just recently we've already been talking about doctors leaving our State. The shortage of physicians in Hawaii, especially the Neighbor Islands, and the extreme measures that we need to take to ensure proper, accessible quality healthcare in our State.

"Mr. Speaker, currently we're in a crisis. We are in a 'perfect storm', when we're talking about healthcare. You've heard the Chair of Health, the only medical doctor of all the State legislators, tell us how badly we're in it. He of anyone would know. In addition, Mr. Speaker, on Tuesday we talked about the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. We looked at the twelve hospitals. We looked at the possibility of the Senate version, how that would break it up. And we actually studied, debated and came up and accepted a floor amendment. I thought that that was great in the sense that it addressed the concerns that we had and we were able to keep intact HHSC at least our version, coming out of the House, that will come out of the House.

"The importance of that is we have problems with the administrators there. In fact, at the Health hearings and the Finance hearings, they were the first to admit that their problems, that they want to address the problems. They want a second chance. And I believe with that floor amendment, we were giving them a shot at a second chance. We did not break up the twelve hospitals. If we count Kahuku, that's thirteen."

Speaker Say: "Representative Mizuno, will you …"

Representative Meyer: "Mr. Speaker, what bill is this?"

Speaker Say: "I'm asking him to confine his remarks. He's getting off the bill."

"I'm sorry. On SB 1283, this bill is so important because it addresses many of the concerns and bills that we talked about this Session. In this bill you will see such issues that relate to bills that we saw regarding tort reform, rate regulation, medical reimbursement, start new programs to try to keep doctors here, ways to attract and retain more positions, keiki care, longterm care, trauma care. All these have one thing in common. They relate to this Senate Bill. And how do they relate? Because they relate to our doctors.

"Our doctors going to our Medical School need to stay here so they can address those types of healthcare issues that I just talked about. Without them, we're going to be past the healthcare crisis. Mr. Speaker, 62 graduate from the medical school every year. It doesn't sound like a large amount, but Mr. Speaker, of those 62 medical students, two-thirds or approximately 41 will go to the mainland. This is to complete their residency which could last anywhere from three to six years. In addition, we should note that the other one-third will remain here. And in all likelihood, they will stay here. The importance of that is we are keeping a steady of stream doctors in the State of Hawaii. Moreover, I should note that 90% of our medical school students are residents of Hawaii. 90%.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, I wanted to cite real quickly an e-mail I got from George Massengale. He represents the Coalition for a Tobacco Free Hawaii. And in it he writes, in relevant part, 'Mahalo for not voting to pass Senate Bill 1283, which would have allowed the University of Hawaii Medical School,' and this is the important part, 'to keep unused portions of their tobacco settlement allocation for operating expenses.'

"Now why I bring this is up is because he hit it right on the nail. Keep unused portions of their—this is the UH Medical School's, their tobacco settlement allocation, for operating expenses. What this is, Mr. Speaker, it's called the excess. If you have an excess amount, that money without this bill will go to the Department of Health, supposedly for tobacco cessation programs. But we don't know, we don't know exactly. So if we're going to do an audit, and we should do both. Both on UH Medical School and both on the Department of Health. Because I agree with the speaker from Newtown, Pearl City. We need to make people accountable. There's no doubt there's a lot of truth in what the speaker from Newtown, Pearl City said. I agree."

Representative Sagum rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, in April of 2005, the Kakaako Medical School opened its doors. It's still in its infancy stage, Mr. Speaker. We've got to give it a chance. We are in a healthcare crisis. We need to get this school established. We need to get that stream of doctors to continue to come and stay in our State and not leave.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, I agree that we need more accountability and I agree that we should learn from our history. History is important. We can learn from our history. But we're now looking in present to work for our future. We need to work to make sure that healthcare is not a privilege, but a right. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chang rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. All of us who are in the Legislature two years ago were very proud, and rightfully so, in our role in helping establish the new Kakaako facilities of the Medical School. Were we mislead by unmet promises as we heard from the previous speaker from Pearl City? The answer is obviously, yes. And I thank him for his historical perspective that was very important for our education. But that was then, and this is now, and we're discussing the operation of survival of our investment in our State's healthcare.

"This development has transformed a blightened, rundown neighborhood into one of the brightest areas of our State, as a showcase for modern medical education and health-related research. It holds the potential for serving as the catalyst for the growth of the medical biotech industry that improves human health, and extends human life. But the John A. Burns School of Medicine, also known as JABSOM, is much more than a shiny new building. It has produced more than half of Hawaii's 3,000 active physicians. It has taken steps to alleviate the shortage of doctors on our Neighbor Islands by establishing a medical residency in family practice later this year at the Hilo Medical Center, and plans to expand this residency to Kona, Kauai and Maui in future years.

"Its annual class of 62 medical students includes some of the best and brightest youths in our State. Our students excel. In nine out of ten past ten years, our JABSOM graduates scored above the national average in US medical licensing exams. JABSOM was listed this month in the US News and World Report 2008 rankings of America's best graduate programs. JABSOM's geriatric medicine program is rated 12th best in the nation outdoing other medical schools that have far older reputations and far larger resources than Hawaii's. Our program was recognized for its work with senior citizens, homes to improve medical care for our elderly, and for its research to help our elderly lead healthy productive lives.

"JABSOM's faculty are also spearheading research into some of Hawaii's most urgent problems, such as studying the medical consequences of crystal methamphetamine on the human brain and cardiovascular system, experimenting with the medicines that reduce the strong addiction to ice, and opening a clinic to assist pregnant women who are addicted to ice. Just this past Tuesday, Mr. Speaker, in the Advertiser's headlines, it announced a possible partnership being considered by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention with JABSOM. A prime example of the opportunities that is available for our medical school that will serve as an example of other partnership possibilities.

"The expenditure of tobacco settlement funds on JABSOM is consistent with the special funds goal of preventing smoking and dealing with its consequences. UH medical students and faculty educate high school students about the harmful effects of tobacco through the student health education program. The ill effects of smoking is a part of its basic medical education curriculum and scientific research. JABSOM's Dr. Elizabeth Tam holds an endowed chair on respiratory health, which is leading research into the cause, prevention and treatment of respiratory diseases.

"But there is a cost associated with operating and maintaining these facilities. Recent increases in utility rates have hit JABSOM especially hard because of the heavy energy use by its round-the-clock labs and scientific equipment. According to the administration, the annual cost of operating and maintaining the new Kakaako facility is about $9 million a year. I know there's concern about the level of State support that's needed by the Medical School. That is why we are requiring the University of Hawaii to complete, as soon as possible, a long-term business plan that incorporates the operational cost of its Kakaako facilities and projected overhead income generated …"

Representative Har rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Chang continued, stating:

"Thank you. Generated by extramural research and training. I ask for your support, Members, on this measure because the funds provided by this measure will help JABSOM maintain a standard of excellence including quality faculty and staff that benefits the health of Hawaii's people now and into the future.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Chang be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll keep it real brief. In opposition. One of the things I keep hearing is that you know if we don't fund the Medical School, somehow it will put the Medical School in jeopardy and that's not true. Regardless of whether we give the Medical School this funding, certain UH officials have stated that they will reshuffle the funds to pay for the operation and the debt service of the Medical School.

"If you look at the entire operation of the University System, the cost of the Medical School is really miniscule compared to what they actually bring in. It's part of State funds, its part of other type of grant money. Also, tuition money. And in fact, I'll give a suggestion to the University, of how they can save some money. They should fire Herman Frazier because he wasn't able to hire two coaches and not able to … But I digress.

"Let me just say that I do appreciate the Majority Leader's quote on Tuesday, going to the motion to reconsider. The Majority Leader stated that the Democratic leadership did not lobby hard for this proposal. Clearly at that point it was not a priority, and instead let members vote their conscience. Unfortunately, maybe things have changed and now on the House Floor we have this motion to reconsider, and Members are being asked to change their vote.

"So Mr. Speaker, if I could ask the Majority Leader to yield to a question, and let me ask the question first."

The Chair addressed Representative Caldwell, stating:

"Representative Caldwell, would you like to yield to a question? Or no?"

Representative Caldwell: "No."

Representative Luke: "Thank you. And then I'll ask him privately."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. On Tuesday night when we last took up this measure, I had to leave. First time I've ever left the Floor during session my three years here. The reason I had to leave was to go back to my community where I had a group of 300 individuals in Kona who were dying to hear how we can better assist West Hawaii in the healthcare area.

"We have such an extreme shortage of physicians on the Big Island in all disciplines that I felt it was necessary to actually leave, when we still had probably about 15 votes in the calendar, to catch a plane to go back for four hours to talk to my people about how we can get doctors to stay in Hawaii. And how we can get doctors to basically be trained in Hawaii. I heard person after person in a desperate state, absolutely desperate, that they can't find an oncologist, that they can't find an orthopedic surgeon. Mr. Speaker, they can't find primary care physicians. And so I didn't have the opportunity to vote two days ago, but I'm actually grateful to have the opportunity to vote tonight on this measure.

"I do recognize and respect the history that's been given to us about our commitment in the past to the Medical School and the Cancer Research Center. But today, 2007, as my Vice Chair stated, we do have a significant healthcare crisis and we all know it. We can debate all the different remedies, but one of the important remedies is to train doctors here in Hawaii. If we train them here, they will stay here. They will be committed to the people of Hawaii. They'll be committed to the families of Hawaii. I don't really think I could go back to my community, it would be actually gut-wrenching to go back to my community and tell them that I cast a vote against supporting the Medical School in any way possible, be it from general funds or tobacco settlement funds or any funds.

"We have to commit ourselves to this healthcare crisis and there's no better way than to train doctors in Hawaii. So I'm absolutely committed to this vote, if for no other reason than to send a symbolic message that we are as a Legislature going to train doctors here in Hawaii and that we're going to solve this healthcare crisis together. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. I would like the words of the Representative from Newtown inserted in the Journal as if they were my own. There's some misconception here that if we don't do as the Medical School wants, the Medical School's going to shut down. And that just simply isn't so.

"One speaker talked about the University Medical School being in its infancy. The Medical School was operating in the old facility for many, many years. So it's not in its infancy and it's not going to stop operating because we don't 'fork up' this money. I think very good arguments have been made about people keeping their commitments. When the head person at the Medical School was asked if they didn't get this money, could they carry on? And they said, 'Yes. But it would be difficult.' They'll have to make some difficult decisions.

"But you know, I think we have a responsibility. We hold the purse strings. There are many, many fine things that need funding, but I have a real problem with the people that have not kept their word and I think that they need to buckle down and get a plan and see where they're going. Get more grants. I mean, they've got a fabulous facility, there's another building planned next door. They're going to do fine. But we have to wean them off. It's not like every time they need more money, they come here. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. May the words of the Representative from Hilo and Kona entered as my own. And I just wanted to say, I actually voted against this in the previous vote, but then left so I wasn't recorded. But just from hearing what the Chair of Finance said, and I'm really, really glad you didn't put me on the Finance Committee. I thank you for that right now. Because I recognize how difficult his job is and what he needs to do to find the funds to keep our State balanced and the budget going. So I support this to support his efforts to try to find the money that we need to keep going. Thank you."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this motion to reconsider. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I look at the way lawmakers have cut up the Tobacco Settlement money and there is really no rational reason for the how the pie continues to get sliced up. Percentages, to my recollection, were simply pulled out of the air. For three years there has been a lack of accountability. Does the Hawaii Tobacco Prevention and Control Fund really need 12.5% of the settlement each year? Who's to say 10% isn't better? Perhaps 20% isn't better.

"I also find it astonishing that we have no idea how much is in the Tobacco Prevention Fund or how the monies are being used. The UH Medical School gets 28% of the settlement and has yet to create a business plan. Now they want more money with no real roadmap to being self-sufficient. JABSOM's a point of pride for the community, certainly, but since being built has always been in a financial crisis. When does that crisis come to an end?

"Perhaps we should take a step back. Freeze distribution of the tobacco monies and make the various beneficiaries validate their take of the settlement money. None of the beneficiaries have ever done that. We're talking about $1.14 billion over twenty years. I believe it's time to clear the smoke and be financially responsible."

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. First of all, I'd like to incorporate written comments, as well as the comments of the Representative from Pearl City. And I will summarize my written comments.

"I really felt that one of the priorities for the House this Legislative Session and the next Legislative Session was to tighten our standards; the standards by which we operate. Because if we do that, I know that the work product and the policy that will result from the process will be substantial and will be good and positive for the entire State.

"My concern with this motion is that a motion for reconsideration, although it is permitted, by Rule 49, in section 450, is really an extraordinary motion. And for us to consider a vote that was taken on Third Reading where the House voted by 25 to 21 to kill a bill, is really extraordinary. And I feel that when we entertain a motion to reconsider a vote like this that there should be a higher standard by which we use to justify this kind of a vote. I don't believe that those circumstances exist in this situation.

"Some will argue that some Members were absent on Tuesday and were unable to cast their vote. Some will argue that the Members had been educated on this issue between the night of the vote on Tuesday and this evening. I don't believe that those two situations rise to the standard that warrants reconsideration. With all due respect to Members who were not here on Tuesday, the Floor session was noticed to the entire public, and if Members could not be here to vote, then that is unfortunately their responsibility.

"And as far as educating members between Tuesday, the night of the vote, and today, the Members had an opportunity to be educated and the leadership had an opportunity to educate the Members on this measure in Committee and on the Floor and in Caucus. And the leadership did not do that. For these reasons, I oppose this motion. Thank you."

Representative Saiki's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to the motion to reconsider action previously taken on S.B. 1283.

"Two days, ago, on April 10, 2007, the House voted against S.B. 1283 on Third Reading. The vote was 21 in favor and 25 opposed. Five members were absent and did not vote.

"Today we are being asked to reconsider that vote. I oppose the motion for three reasons. First, while I acknowledge that Rule 49 and Section 450 of Masons permit motions to reconsider, the House has not used this procedural motion in modern history to reverse this body's disapproval of a bill on third reading. In other words, the motion being presented today is unprecedented. Second, the House is using a lax standard to evaluate this motion. Third, there is no justification to reconsider our previous vote.

"The Democratic leadership is offering two arguments in support of this motion. First, that five Members were absent on Tuesday. Second, that Members have been "re-educated" on S.B. 1283.

"Both arguments are insufficient to meet the high standard that should be used to evaluate a motion to reconsider. By analogy, the House should consider adopting a standard like that used by the Circuit Courts. Rules 59 and 60 of the Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedure impose stringent standards for motions to reconsider. For example, reconsideration is deemed appropriate only upon a showing of (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time; and (3) fraud. None of these factors exist with respect to S.B. 1283.

"Today, the House has opened the door to disgruntled third parties to request reconsideration whenever (1) a member is absent and/or (2) there is a shred of information pertaining to the measure that could or should have been presented to this body prior to the underlying vote, but was not. Without a stringent standard in place, it will be virtually impossible for the House to adequately evaluate (and deny) requests to reconsider in the future. The lax standard that is being adopted today could apply to virtually every vote taken by this body.

"There has been no change in circumstances since our vote on Tuesday. If there are reasons other than the two cited above that warrant reconsideration, then the Democratic leadership should publicly disclose them.

"The action being taken on S.B. 1283 is just one example of the need for this body to heighten the standards by which we make decisions and manage legislation. If we heighten standards, we will enact more substantive, progressive and far-reaching legislation that will benefit the entire State. If we do not, then we will continue to hold this body hostage to narrow interests (with unobstructed access to the Legislature) that may be unconcerned with the impact of their actions upon the rest of the State.

"For these reasons, I oppose the motion to reconsider."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I wanted to look at both sides of this issue and I just very much would like to see our doctors be supported as was said. In fact, I'd ask to incorporate the words of the Representative Kalihi, as well as the one from Kona and they do make a difference, especially in tobacco control. But you know in a bigger picture, the Medical School is a shining jewel for our State. If we want to be the Wellness State, which I think we are positioned to be, uniquely between west and east, and I have my friends from the East Coast who are saying, 'I want to learn Chinese medicine'. And then I have relatives who tell me, 'Your husband, a western medicine doctor, should go to China and practice there because they're in such need of Western medicine'.

"The truth is that we're so uniquely positioned to be the Wellness State and the shining star is the Medical School. It has so much potential. I remember Dr. Ed Cadman. I respect him highly. And I just would hate to see, because of feeling that, well, you know, they need more money, they shouldn't ask for more money, etc. Do we really want another Aloha Stadium maybe? You know, where it's not properly taken care of. It has potential to be excellent. It has the potential to make us excellent. And for that passion for excellence and for our people, for the health of our people, I would like to vote yes. And may I ask that the words of also Representative from Hilo as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Shimabukuro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ching be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Brief comments in support, Mr. Speaker. Also would like to incorporate the comments of the Representative from Hilo as if they were my own. As far as a motion to reconsider action previously taken, under Mason's, there's no requirement of a higher standard. It's a procedure that is used in Legislatures throughout the United States. In fact, if there is a request that there be a higher standard, then that is stated in Mason's, that the proper approach would be submitting a resolution asking this House to vote on it. But there is no higher standard.

"As far as what occurred with the previous vote, I do stand behind my comments that initially we left the body to make the decision on its own. But in the end after further reflection and people looking at it and understanding the issue and understanding there is no vehicle to take to Conference, people wanted to reconsider their vote. As it's happening today, we did have debate on Tuesday. We have further debate this evening. All in sunshine, in front of the entire State. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"A lot of discussion has been stated at this point."

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call vote at the proper time."

The Chair responded, stating:

"It's going to be a vote by both Majority Floor Leader and Minority Floor Leader with the green slips and the pink slips, Representative Souki, so there is that form of roll call.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this motion to reconsider and pass on Third Reading. Mr. Speaker, we have recently learned as early as this morning that according to the National Science Foundation report, that the amount of federal research money coming into Hawaii has more than doubled to $169.4 million in 2004, from $81.3 million in 2000. We've also learned by that same article in the Star-Bulletin this morning, that the University of Hawaii School of Medicine is the second largest generator of funds from international, State and private grants and federal grants of the University, bringing in $61 million in 2005. Given these types of numbers and given the report that the Medical School will be entering into a possible partnership with the Center for Disease Control, I think it would be a more prudent approach if we were to wait for that long-term plan that has been promised. For that one reason I think this measure is bad.

"A second reason is advanced by the Interim Dean of the Medical School himself in an April 2nd, 2007 memo in which he states that the expenditures of these funds is consistent with the special fund's goal of preventing smoking and dealing with its consequences, because medical students and faculty educate high school students about the harmful effects of tobacco through their programs. Using that logic, Mr. Speaker, then we should also be funding from the Tobacco Settlement Fund the operating expenses of the School of Nursing and the School of Social Work, where students and graduates also work in these areas.

"A third reason I'm concerned about this proposal Mr. Speaker, is that over the next 17 years we will be diverting $35 million from the Emergency and Budget Reserve Fund or the Rainy Day Fund. This Fund, according to statute, is supposed to be a fund for times of emergency, economic downturn or unforeseen reduction in revenues. Mr. Speaker, we may be in good economic times now, but as any financial planner would advise, we should be saving for that time of emergency or economic downturn. Again, Mr. Speaker, a more prudent approach, especially in light of the past broken promises, is for this Legislature to wait for that promised long-term business plan that incorporates the Medical School's operational costs and its proposed overhead incomes generated by grants from the federal and private sectors. And for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm opposed to this bill."

Representative Saiki rose to respond, stating:

"Brief supplemental comments in response to the argument that Mason's does not provide for higher standards. Section 463 actually invites the Legislature to heighten standards on a motion for reconsideration. The bottom line for me is that there was nothing that was discussed tonight that is new. That we did not or should have known about prior to the vote on Tuesday evening. There have been no intervening changes between the vote on Tuesday and this evening. And my concern is that unless we heighten the standard for a reconsideration motion, that we really open the door to anyone on the outside, to third parties, to interested parties, to advocates, to come back to the House whenever they disagree with one of our votes and ask us to reconsider our decision. In that situation, what will we do? What standard will we apply when we consider those kinds of request? Thank you very much."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this motion and the underlying bill. I would just like to make a few comments in response to what I've listened to for the last twenty minutes. First of all, Members should understand that this is a three page bill. It's not very long. It contains four sections. One is a section that deals with its effective date, and also its four year sunset. Another part of the bill deals with the Ramseyer format of the bill. And another section deals with the change in the Hawaii Revised Statutes section 3-28.

"What this bill does, and the purpose of this bill is to support the University of Hawaii John A. Burns School of Medicine by allowing the University of Hawaii to use its allotment of monies from the Hawaii Tobacco Settlement fund to pay for the John A. Burns School of Medicine operating expense, in addition to paying for their debt service.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill before us would allow them to use this to cover some of their operating expenses. Current law requires that 80% of the money remaining to be deposited into the Emergency

Budget and Reserve Fund, also known as the Rainy Day Fund, that 20% of the money remaining to go to the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund. Although this mechanism was set up in 2001, there has been no transfer of money to either the Rainy Day Fund or the Tobacco Prevention Fund because Mr. Speaker there has always been a shortfall for debt service, of about $1 million a year. And that has been made up within the University budget.

"But the Rainy Day Fund has received about $8.1 million a year and the Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund about $4.1 million a year. And the Department of Health's Promotion and Prevention program, about $8.2 million dollars a year. Let's get to this bill.

"Starting next year in 2008, the State is expected to receive an increase in the Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement payments. With the increase, the University will have enough money to make their debt service payments. And based on current projections, the amount will be transferred to the Rainy Day Fund and that amount will be about $3 million. The Tobacco Prevention Fund would get an additional $790,000 for a total of $6.2 million.

"Mr. Speaker, much has been said about the promises of a former University Hawaii President, who I shall not name."

Representative Lee rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that that should not preclude us from moving forward on this measure and supporting the John A. Burns School of Medicine and the current interim dean of the John A. Burns School of Medicine as they explore different funding options.

"You know, I don't condone broken promises, Mr. Speaker, but I certainly don't condone punishing the innocent. I certainly don't condone punishing the institution named after Governor Burns and all the supporters, all its alumni, all the professors, and all the students who have access to medical training to become Hawaii's doctors.

"Mr. Speaker, someone mentioned tonight that the School is about two years old. I would suggest that despite the broken promises of a former University President, that we do not kill and throw out the baby with the bathwater. Mr. Speaker, the amount we provide the John A. Burns School of Medicine by this bill realistically will probably supplant, supplant, general funds currently being considered in this budget. So that the John A. Burns School of Medicine will not get a hefty windfall with any monitoring, or any accounting, but instead allow it to meet its debt service requirements that we created and endorsed back in 2001. Mr. Speaker, may I remind the Members that in House Bill 500, we appropriate about $3.6 and $3.8 million for the fiscal year to support the Medical School.

"So let's be clear about what this proposal does. Under this proposal, the Tobacco Prevention Fund will still get, still get, Mr. Speaker, over $2 million more each year. And the Rainy Day Fund will get over $4 million per year. The Department of Health Promotion and Prevention Fund will go from $8.2 million to $12.5 million, Mr. Speaker.

"Finally Mr. Speaker, there is a provision in this measure that requires reporting of all expenditures and receipts of funds to the University of Hawaii Medical School to the Department of Health and to the Hawaii Tobacco Prevention and Control Trust Fund. It will have to account for the receipt of any monies and expenditure of any monies. Mr. Speaker, for that reason alone, this bill is important. If we want to hold all these entities accountable for the expenditure and use of the public's money, then we need these provisions and the provisions in this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, finally, to address the concerns of people who are very vocal and concerned about this, the Coalition for Tobacco Free Hawaii, and I hope they are listening in. In 2006, Hawaii was listed 14th on their list. This year, Mr. Speaker, we are 7th on the list. And I believe Mr. Speaker we remain at 7th on their list or go even higher because Hawaii meets the requirement of having appropriated and spent 20% to 25% of the monies from the Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement on tobacco-related prevention and cessation programs. For this reason, Mr. Speaker, I support this motion and I support the passage of this bill. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I want to declare a potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. I am on the board of the John A. Burns School of Medicine Friends Board," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

S.B. No. 1665, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm speaking for the motion with slight, minor reservations, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this is a good bill that sends a good message to all the pet owners, the pet lovers and those who may have questionable affiliation with pets. But it looks like it's going to take away the old adage that psychologists always use. You have a bad day at the office, you go home and you kick the dog. According to this bill, you kick the dog, you get five years in jail. I would encourage the Judiciary Committee and all those who may be on it to consider that one kick not be punished so severely."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with some serious reservations. And I doubt that psychologists tell you to go home, kick your dog. I really do. They're better trained than that. Frankly, my dog has better medical coverage than most of the people in my district.

"The problem I have with this bill is that, I have two dogs at home. And when that litter was born, there was about twelve of them. And the owner cut their tails off. My dogs are fine. Under this bill, he'd be charged with a felony. There is a person here, Mike Aldrin, Buzz Aldrin's son, that practices animal dentistry, and he does it without anesthesia. Under this bill, he might be charged with a felony. So those are my concerns and I hope they're addressed in Conference."

Representative Green rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Herkes be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition on this measure. This bill attempts to elevate the status of animals to human status, asking for severe penalties to humans who knowingly harm animals. It is true, Mr. Speaker, that we should not harm animals. But I believe that this penalty to human beings asked in this bill is too severe.

"I call this the anti-human bill. I believe that proponents of this measure submit bills year after year to curtail cockfighting. This is actually an anti-cockfighting bill wherein the penalties being asked for, which is a Class C felony, the equivalent of five years in jail. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that five years in jail is too severe for our constituency who believe that this is a part of their heritage and their culture. The entire Hawaiian Islands, Mr. Speaker, from Hanalei to Kona, believe that cockfighting is a sport. Communities like Kalihi, Waimanalo, Waianae, Laie, Kahaluu and the North Shore, and especially the Neighbor Islands, believe cockfighting is a heritage. Mr. Speaker, I believe that cockfighting is a sport to some people.

"It is said that cockfighting is a poor man's sport. I believe there's truth to that because they're not here lobbying us and they cannot afford a lobbyist to represent their measure. I believe that there are so many of our constituency out there, who are very resentful of what we are about to do to them through this bill. I was in this Chamber two years ago when we made it a misdemeanor. Now it is a felony. Where do we stop, Mr. Speaker? What's next?

"To our constituents, Mr. Speaker, roosters are considered pets. Secondly, Mr. Speaker, our prisons are full. We neither have the capacity to imprison more people or build more prisons. Our prisons are now revolving doors. We spend $40 million a year to outsource our prisoners. This will compound the current dilemma of prison overcrowding. We have to concentrate more on violent crimes. A hefty fine will be more reasonable. I'm not asking this body to condone the activity, Mr. Speaker, but this bill needs more work. We now have adequate City and County laws that deals with cruelty to animals, cockfighting, protection of animals or the nuisance of roosters. We just need to enforce these laws. This is an enforcement problem. Not an issue of inadequate laws.

"Thirdly Mr. Speaker, this bill is too broad. What is a pet? This could be any animal. It could be a serpent. We have heard of children being attacked and killed by dogs such as Rottweilers and pit bulls. We never address those incidents here in this Chamber. We never wrote any stringent punishment for pets or pet owners that endanger our neighborhoods. We are quick to write laws that protect pet animals.

"In summary, Mr. Speaker, I believe that this type of penalty that we are about to vote on tonight does not fit the crime, and our constituency does not believe that it is a crime. We need to stop incarcerating our people. Because of these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I encourage you and my colleagues to turn in your green or pink slips."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Two points. First, as the Chair of Military Affairs and Public Safety, I would like to see this bill have a Finance referral because there's no language in there talking about the impact it would have on our prisons and our Public Safety Department being that it's a Class C felony right now in the bill.

"The other point I wish to make is I did point this sitting on Judiciary. You know, people that mutilate, severely mutilate, obviously, have maybe some psychological problems. Maybe they have problems with anger. We look at drug treatment and how do we prevent it and treat it, and I'd like to see in this bill some addressing of the fact that these people truly have probably some mental health issues, and there needs to be a treatment aspect to the bill. Thank you very much."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I want to read something from the National Humane Society if you don't mind. It says, Senate Bill 1665, this is the bill that I read the other day. A pet animal is described in Senate Bill 1665 as a domesticated animal kept for personal enjoyment and companionship, such as, for a hobby, for legal sporting activities regarding property and for guide, signal or service purposes, so long as it is not bred for consumption. Poultry as defined by Section 161 shall not be considered a pet animal. Game, fish and other aquatic life not in a state of captivity shall not be considered pets. I do not believe that it has cockfighting or poultry, that it's affecting that. It is only affecting dogs.

"Granted, I am a self-admitted, I hope there is no conflict, dog lover. Okay. I love dogs. I'll tell you why I love dogs. Dogs have earned the distinction as man's best friend. Whether or not you realize this, you may think, 'Well, you know, a lot has been said that pigs have the same IQ as dogs. And we eat pig and whatever and things that happen Let me tell you about what I know about dogs. They were the few animals that have served along military that have died to protect soldiers. In fact, a German shepherd was recently allowed on the Floor of Congress because of what a dog did. Dogs are now helping us in the fight against drugs. Dogs, we all well know the help they do with the blind. And what they do in terms of helping even children, autistic children, the elderly, etc., etc. And I don't think that our State, being one of only eight states that has not come up to this standard, along with pedestrian fatalities and some violence in Waikele, is helping to have an image of civility.

"Dogs are a certain breed of animal that guard, that protect, and serve, and I think that recent events in our City, in our State, constitute a look at what our laws are, and I think that by understanding that we don't treat dogs and beloved pets this way is important. I want to also share from a police officer. 'I was involved in a case,' says this police officer, 'when the boyfriend of an abused victim broke into her home and took her tiny Yorkshire Terrier. As I was interviewing the victim in her driveway, he drove pass the house in his big lifted SUV with the victim very distraught, screamed and pointed him out. I got into my marked police car and went after him. As he was speeding away, he took a right turn on to another road and threw the little dog out the vehicle window in front my patrol car.'

"Domestic violence, testified in support of this. They are mentioning how violence is very much connected to this. I never thought of this, but violence towards humans, of course, is connected to violence in animal cruelty. Law enforcement officers and prosecutors have recognized the direct link between animal cruelty and violence to humans. Since 1970, the FBI has analyzed the lives of serial killers and found that most have killed or tortured animals during their childhood. The link between animal cruelty and acts of violence."

Representative Awana rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker. I'm just reading from testimony on the bill. The link between animal cruelty and human violence is also evident in perpetrators of more common forms of violence, including child abuse, spouse abuse and elder abuse. But what was interesting is when I read some of the testimony on domestic violence, according to one of the authors, they actually mentioned how it's used a way to hurt a person to hurt their dog, to hurt their beloved pet, that this is a form of mental torture, that they use this. And imagine, imagine a child, someone goes in, and hurts your pet. That's traumatizing.

"So, there's a problem and I just think that we need to start moving towards a more civil society and I'd like to see it start with something like this. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I'll try to keep my comments very brief, but I did feel the need to counter some of the very egregious misrepresentations of this bill. First and foremost, I did want to say that yes, this is a work in progress. That's why we have a defective date and that's what everybody's knows we put defective dates in for is we make it a work in progress so that we can continue to work on it as it moves to the process.

"Secondly, there was a characterization that kicking the dog would actually be a Class C felony that's totally incorrect. If people would read the bill on page 2, lines 11 through 15, it actually requires an intentional or knowing mutilation or torture of the animal. I don't think kicking it would qualify. Instead, what would happen is this would fall potentially, if there is serious bodily injury to the pet into the second degree, which would only be a misdemeanor. But, again, that would require the showing of serious bodily injury to the animal. So, without that, you'd still wouldn't even get the misdemeanor.

'But more troubling to me is the characterization that this in any way has to deal with cockfighting. You know, I've been here for six years. Other people have said they've been here longer, and we've never been able to pass this because cockfighting is sort of a very sticky issue for us. So we've tried to avoid it in this bill, and particularly, just deal with other animals. So, I really wish before people would debate and oppose a bill, they would read it more carefully because there is a clear definition in this on pages numbers 4 and 5. This does not include poultry so it does not include chickens. I don't know in any way how someone could misinterpret that to say this is dealing with cockfighting. It does have a definition of pet, so when they say, what is a pet, it's defined, so that pretty much is clear to me what a pet is.

"So, I think people really need to make sure that they read a bill before they clearly oppose it because this is a work in progress. It is something that the Chair is trying to work on because it's been a longstanding issue, and something that we do want to address because there are serious and very violent acts that occur to animals out there, sometimes intentional. What is worse is it's used as an act of intimidation for victims of domestic violence or just to intimidate others, and we've heard horrendous acts. And we want to make sure that people are aware that those acts have serious consequences."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I'd like the words of the speaker from Aiea to be recorded in the Journal as if they were my own. And simply I'd like to say that I'm a pet lover and I believe that how we treat the least of our living creatures is a sign of our humanity. I truly believe that and I think it's long overdue that we pass an animal cruelty bill in this House."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, but I do have some reservations. I have two dogs that I love very much, and a cat, and a Mynah bird, and I would not do anything to endanger their lives. My concern with this bill is that I think some of the definitions are too broad and too vague. What does 'overdrive' mean, or what does 'overload' means? These are sort of subjective. The definition of torment is also some concern. In this legislation it means, 'to fail to mitigate significant suffering'. What is 'significant suffering'?

"Torture is also a troublesome definition. The bill defines torture to include every act, omission, or neglect whereby unjustifiable physical pain, suffering or death occurs. Death is pretty clear, but unjustifiable physical pain and suffering, again, it's subjective.

"I am concerned about the felony charge and I do have some concerns about the chickens, the cockfighting thing because I do have a lot of constituents that enjoy that sport. My concern is on page 3 where the definition of animal includes every living creature except a human being. That leaves it wide open. We do go on in other pages to talk about what a pet is, but this could just be the beginning. You get this bill passed and then pretty soon we'll stick the chickens back in and that's a concern of mine."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. I also am very concerned about the felony charge. I don't want to put anymore people in prison because we don't have any more room for it, so I agree with the idea of a hefty fine might be a better way to do. I think it was Gandhi that said the important way to determine a progressive society is to look at how they treat their animals.

"So, I think this is a great way to get started and looking how we do treat our animals, maybe looking at the unspeakable acts that are committed against animals every day. Speaking as a vegetarian, I must look to the rest of the animals, the cows and the sheep and the chickens that aren't used just for sport, but are slaughtered mercilessly everyday just to feed ourselves. So, I think this is a good start. It's a good way to get started. I'm taking a look at how we can become a better society and how we treat all living creatures, including our pets, but also all animals. Thank you very much."

Representative Sonson rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm for it with reservations, but I reserve the right to go no on Final Reading."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Just to be clear, this bill amends the current cruelty to animal statute, which we're not touching the 'overdrives, overloads, beats or starves any animal That's already in the current statute. We're not touching that.

"I also want to be clear that this doesn't have anything to do with cockfighting, whatsoever. Also, one of the comments was concerning mental health counseling. This bill does empower the court to order appropriate mental health counseling. The vast majority of Hawaii residents are kind, decent people who treat animals with care. But for the very small number of people who are capable of torturing other people's pets, prosecutors and judges need a comprehensive felony cruelty to animal law in order to impose meaningful sentences commensurate with these violent crimes.

"Research indicates that without strict intervention, people who abuse and kill animals are more likely to similarly abuse humans. Many of society's most infamous mass murderers and serial killers and a significant percentage of spousal abusers and other violent criminals initially targeted animals before turning against people. For instance, mass murderer and cannibal, Jeffrey Dahmer, killed neighbors' pets and impaled a dog's head on a stick. David Berkowitz, the so-called Son of Sam, shot his neighbor's Labrador retriever. Albert Desalvo, the Boston Strangler, shot arrows into boxes of trapped cats and dogs. Brenda Spencer, who fired 40 shots into a crowd of children, murdering two and wounding nine, had a history of setting the tails of neighborhood cats and dogs on fire.

"Again, the intent of the bill is to penalize the most egregious of acts against our pet animals and it is a work in progress recognizing what the Chair from Southern Big Island accurately pointed out that would be a felony. That's one of the things I want to look at in Conference and perhaps taking that out of the bill because that's not the types of things that this bill intended to criminalize. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ANIMALS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Cabanilla voting no, and Representatives Awana, Nakasone, Pine, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

Some day, Mr. Speaker, a bill like this could lead to every graduate in the State of Hawaii having had an internship or overseas experience in a foreign country before they graduate, and with the possibility of speaking two languages for everybody before they graduate. So, this is the right step in the right direction and are exciting measures. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you. Very quickly. In strong support. These measures increase marketing of heritage tourism in our islands. For the edification of members. Cultural and heritage tourism is defined as traveling to experience the places, artifacts, activities that authentically represent the stories and the people of the past and present. It includes historic, cultural, and natural resources. Heritage tourists include travelers who incorporate at least one visit to a historic sight or landmark, and is also part of a subset of visitors whose primary reason for traveling to visit is to go to historic places.

"Economic impacts of heritage tourism go far beyond the direct expenditures of tourists. Each dollar spent at a hotel, restaurant or retail shop circulates in the economy as an indirect expenditure for wages, supplies and contracts. But besides the benefit for the heritage traveler, actually cultural tourism, heritage tourism benefits the local community. More than ever, cultural and natural assets form the basis for economic development in small communities throughout the State. This mainstream approach to economic development which promotes economic development within the context of historic preservations is one of the most successful economic development strategies in the country. Economic development helps to revitalize small communities, and heritage tourism is one of the key strategies in this marketing plan to help recognize the importance of this activity. I hope that we'll all support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the both measures with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in support with reservations on HR 125 and HCR 158. These Resolutions urge the State to immediately begin eminent domain proceedings for Kukui Gardens. While I support affordable housing in Hawaii, I am worried about how such a condemnation under eminent domain might actually negatively affect the supply of affordable housing units.

"First, eminent domain is subject to abuse by any government employing it, and in particular for situations such as at Kukui Gardens where the property would be taken for the benefit of private individuals – the current residents of Kukui Gardens -- rather than serving an incontrovertibly public purpose such as building roads or public schools. This situation would be similar to the infamous Kelo v. New London situation, where eminent domain was allowed by the U.S. Supreme Court for non-public purposes.

"Second, since the intent of this proposed eminent domain taking would be to prevent the owners of Kukui Gardens from realizing the highest and best use of the property, and thus the highest profits, it would have a chilling effect on any developer in the future who might contemplate building federally subsidized low income housing in Hawaii. Developers of low cost housing would realize that when their federal obligation to provide below-market rentals ended, the State of Hawaii might in effect legally confiscate their property for a price below the fair market value, thus giving developers a strong disincentive to build the affordable housing we so badly need.

"Third, government-run housing, like most government ventures, tends to be inefficient and wasteful. The likely result of this proposed condemnation would be to preserve a deteriorating stock of housing with substandard occupancy rates that does not maximize land value. A private developer unhindered by state government would likely upgrade the units and keep them fully occupied, or even replace them with high-rises, thus increasing the total number of housing units available and easing our housing shortage.

"Fourth, such an eminent domain condemnation would take money out of the pocket of the taxpayers, since the money for the condemnation would then be unavailable for return via a tax refund, lowering the General Excise Tax, etc.

"If we really want to increase the stock of affordable housing in Hawaii, we should give the most efficient method of producing supply to meet demand – private housing developers – a freer reign to produce what consumers want at a price they are willing to pay, rather than letting an inefficient government agency miss the boat on maximizing affordable housing units."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of these measures. Mr. Speaker, human trafficking is a problem that plagues our world. Every year we hear of more people who have been taken from their families and homes and forced to go to places where they are used and abused. Fortunately, there is help for these people in the United States, but the process to get help takes too much time for some.

"Because certification often requires a considerable length of time to process, typically six months, there is the need for pre-certification victim services from the time that individuals are identified as trafficked persons until they are certified by federal law enforcement. It is during this time trafficked persons may experience the greatest need for services.

"These Resolutions request the Department of Human Services to assess needs and facilitate provision of social services to non-citizen victims of human trafficking. It also is an important piece of a comprehensive approach our State is taking in compliment to the Anti-Trafficking Task Force and an eventual Human Trafficking Act to stop trafficking in our islands. These Resolutions help those who are in dire straits and can give them hope. I urge my colleagues to support these Resolutions. Thank you."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I am here today to strongly support HR91 and HCR 115, which request the United States Congress to support the passage of the National Guard Empowerment Act of 2007.

"The National Guard Empowerment Act of 2007 was introduced in the United States Senate and House, and is designed to make the National Guard a stronger and more responsible defense agency that will improve the nation's defense and improve the military's ability to support civilian authorities during domestic emergencies.

"The bills in Congress are very important to the Guard because they will require the states to work with the National Guard to identify gaps between federal and state capabilities in responding to emergencies, and they further grant the National Guard the authority to set equipment requirements and procure equipment for this domestically oriented mission.

"The bills will also elevate the Chief of the National Guard to the rank of full general and make that officer a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. During times of conflict, our very own guardsmen are deployed to war zones to serve on behalf of our State, and having equal representation in the Joint Staff will better serve the needs of the National Guard.

"Since the onset of the Global War on Terror, the Nation has increased its reliance upon the National Guard as evidenced by the contributions of National Guard forces, which comprised almost 50% of the combat force and 40% of the Total Force in Iraq at the peak of Guard involvement. While operations overseas continue, Pentagon leaders are engaged in the necessary transformation of the force to ensure it remains ready for the next military contingency.

"The National Guard operates cooperatively with state and local emergency officials in response to disasters and other emergencies numerous times each year. This broad experience brings with it a sensitivity to the sovereignty of the States, the prerogatives of state and local elected officials, and the culture of civilian communities.

"As beneficiaries of their courageous and dedicated service, the people of this State bear a special responsibility toward United States military forces, and I hope that you choose to honor that responsibility today."

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.C.R. No. 109, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2026 and the following two Resolutions talk about Kona coffee and there's some really good stuff in it that. My reservation is on this measure and asking the Department of Business, Economic, Development and Tourism to do an economic analysis.

"In the hearing I was very concerned that we were asking the State to actually get into a market study, which I believe that the industry should fund and work out to determine what the price point should be for selling their coffee to the public. What is the highest amount they can charge? What's the highest amount of coffee beans to put in the coffee bag to call it Kona coffee. And it just seems like a real challenge to ask State government to try to figure that out for the industry. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 109, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, AND TOURISM TO PROVIDE AN ECONOMIC ANALYSIS OF THE IMPACT OF CHANGES TO HAWAII'S KONA COFFEE MINIMUM CONTENT LAWS, AND REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO STUDY WAYS TO IMPROVE ENFORCEMENT OF THOSE LAWS," was adopted, with Representatives Nakasone, Pine, Sagum, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"I rise with strong reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 2029 and 2030. These are Resolutions that I think are misnamed and misleading. It suggests that we store, use and then dispose of depleted uranium. And the fact of the matter is that during the hearing it was established that in 1961, Schofield had a firing and there was evidence of it. But this seems to give a message that Hawaii is somehow having much more than what otherwise there was evidence for in 1961.

"I think this is a broad buck shot rather than a bullet, trying to find and get the evidence at Schofield, so I have strong reservations on this."

Representative Sonson rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

(Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2032) recommending that H.C.R. No. 69, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the reports of the Committee be adopted, and that H.R. No. 48, HD 2, and H.C.R. No. 69, HD 2, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with slight reservations, Mr. Speaker. I'm all for child's rights, so don't get me wrong, but in both the Resolution and the Concurrent Resolution, what happens here is that the children get certain rights regarding freedom, quality and tolerance, just to name a few. This can possibly cause some problems. It's sort of like a balancing test. I can see where you can have potential conflict. You have a child that will tell his parents I have the right of freedom of association. I can pick my own friends.

"What really troubles me is when you have the children tell the parents, 'I have the right to go on MySpace.com and to talk to anybody I want on the Internet', and as we know, that's loaded with possible problems. The other concern I have is that the parents may also be accused of abusing their kids in not allowing their children to have these rights.

"So, again, although I certainly do support children's rights, I just still see a slight potential conflict with both the Resolution and Concurrent Resolution, but for those reasons I have reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of both measures with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Mizuno be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, in a recent visit to Angola and to Nepal, I've seen first hand the ravages of war, poverty and child labor on children, and with the knowledge that a full one-third of the world's population, the children go to bed either hungry, malnourished, wake up in the morning and have river water, if they have anything. They have no chance of education, and, if so, a one room school house. These are the things that this invention is for. It is for those nations who do not have that and who do put their children in as soldiers, and who do treat and beat them almost the way that we've heard about the pets earlier treated. Those are the ones who pass this and make it so warm and fuzzy and then they hide behind and say, 'Well, we signed in on that'. But they don't have the civil society like we have here watching over us and they come and they bring us to court and say, the law says you are supposed to back this up, and it's not being backed up.

"So, Mr. Speaker, given what the first speaker said regarding the parental rights and the notion that you can't spank your kids and all of the kinds of things taking it away. This is really not for the American family. It's really for the families that are so deprived and so unfriendly to their children, that it's setting a higher standard, but it's the standard that we have in the U.S. that we are perfecting that is attempting to be brought down by this. So, Mr. Speaker, I rise against these measures. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Shimabukuro rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. You know, when I was a child, I may have wanted this. But now as a parent, I'm voting against it."

Representative Awana rose in support of both measures with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Mizuno be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm so glad this is the last Resolution this evening because I rise in support of these Resolutions. Contrary to the belief that we have the perfect nation here in which children are honored, and are taken care of, according to a report from the U.S. Department of Justice, one out of five girls, and one out of ten boys will be sexually victimized before adulthood in America. According to the U.S. Department of Justice, 797,500 children under the age of 18 were reported missing in one year's period of time. 203,900 children were victims of family abductions. And these are just issues having to do with abductions and sexual misconduct.

"By now, we've all received e-mails, numerous e-mails asking us to vote against these Resolutions. These Resolutions are a symbolic measure without the force of law that invites us to adopt the U.N. Convention and the Rights of the Child. Mr. Speaker, I first of all want to thank the Home Schooling Legal Defense Association, which is a law firm located in Virginia for enabling these Resolutions to become the center point for public discussion, and of course, the last on our agenda tonight.

"The template e-mails which we have all received originating from the Virginia office represent some of the home schooling families, not all of them, and, in particular, I've received correspondence from the Unitarian Universalist home schoolers who have been writing to say that they have concerns about this law firm's position on the rights of the child. Mr. Speaker, this House passed these Resolutions in 2005 and 2006 because there was an understanding in this House of the significant leadership and the role that Hawaii can play, not only in our State, but also in the world.

"Similar to our passing the draft of the U.N. Convention on the Rights of Indigenous People in my first term when I was here in 2005, I believe that our colleagues here understand that supporting the rights of others and us ourselves, who may not have a voice does not mean that the rights that we currently enjoy are negated, usurped, superseded or disregarded.

"On the contrary. We know, I believe all of us here in our democracy, that everyone's rights are respected and honored and when that, indeed, is true, there is social justice. When that is, indeed, true, there is a possibility of peace and there is shared responsibility for building a better future for all.

"Mr. Speaker, the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child is not about children versus parents. On the contrary. It's about parents and guardians and adults and children. It's about parents, guardians, adults with children. And it's about parents, guardians, and those of us with responsibility for children. The U.N. General Assembly unanimously adopted the Rights of the Child on November 20, 1989. The Convention drafting process spanned ten years, during which time the United States was an active participant. UNICEF targeted 1995 for universal ratification and on February 23, 1995, Ambassador Madeline Albright signed the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child for President Clinton. At this point, Mr. Speaker, 192 nations, including the Vatican, and every other major industrialized nation are signatories to the Convention, with the exception of the United States and Somalia, who have not ratified the document.

"Mr. Speaker, there are 150 groups that support this, including the National Education Association, National Council of Churches, Jewish Women's League, House of Bishops of Episcopal Church, the Methodist Churches, Children's Defense Fund, the Bar Association, the American Academy of Pediatrics, the list goes on and on, Mr. Speaker. These Resolutions before us this evening, our last resolutions for this period of time, urges us once again to embrace the opportunity to 'walk the talk', and be leaders for ourselves, for our children, the nation and the world regarding the value that we place on children.

"You know, being an educator, I have opportunities to talk with many people in many walks of life, and too often we claim that children are our future. Children are our here and now, Mr. Speaker. But how can any child, in any country, even in our blessed country thrive or grow to be a productive citizen if he or she lives in poverty, lives with homelessness, lives with neglect, abuse, violence or illiteracy. The degree to which our children are safe, healthy, happy and hopeful is the barometer of our success as a society, Mr. Speaker, and these Resolutions offer a world map to wellness as a society. The home schooling law firm located in Virginia, Mr. Speaker, would have us believe several statements."

Representative Green rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"Thank you, Chair. One of the statements they would have us believe is that the Convention would allow America, 'to have its domestic policy subjected to foreign policy and control.' Where does it say that in this document, Mr. Speaker? Do we really believe that the United States will allow anyone or anything to interfere with domestic policy, let alone foreign policy?

"The home schooling law firm in Virginia would also have us believe that the right to the freedom of association given to a child means that parents cannot prevent their teenager from associating with gang members or drug dealers. Where does it say that in this document, Mr. Speaker? On the contrary. Article 5 of the U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child, specifically states that the States Parties shall respect the responsibilities, rights, and duties of parents or where applicable the members of the extended family or community as provided for by local custom, legal guardians or other persons legally responsible for the child.

"I recently received a letter, Mr. Speaker, from a licensed psychologist in Kailua who said that according to the home schooling law firm in Virginia, she understood that the right to privacy means that parents cannot search a child's room for drugs if they suspect cigarette or marijuana use, or that they cannot forbid their 12 year old daughter from sexual activity with a 15 year old boyfriend. I don't know where it says this in this document, Mr. Speaker. On the contrary. Article 16 states that no child shall be subjected to arbitrary or unlawful interference with his or her privacy, family, home or correspondence and that no unlawful attacks shall be made to his or her honor or reputation.

"I could cite you many more misrepresented statements, Mr. Speaker, but suffice to say, that both the 1959 U.N. Declaration of the Rights of the Child, and the 1989 U.N. Convention on the Rights of the Child, were borne out of the recognition that children by reason of physical and mental immaturity need special safeguards and care. Mr. Speaker, the fears and unfounded concerns incited by the home schooling law firm in Virginia is that parent's rights will be usurped by a child's rights.

"I'm bewildered, frankly, Mr. Speaker, because the preamble of the Convention states specifically and I quote, 'that the family as the fundamental group of society and the natural environment for the growth and well being of its members, and particularly children, shall be afforded the necessary protection and assistance so that it, the family, can fully assume its responsibilities within the community.' And furthermore Article 18 states that to the best efforts, recognition is to be given to the principle that both parents have common responsibilities for the upbringing and development of the child and that parents, as the case may be, legal guardians, have the primary responsibility.

"Mr. Speaker, we know that a resolution does not have the force of law, and yet I urge my colleague to support these measures as statements about our ideals and common beliefs about the value of children. As the Vice Chair of the Health Committee has repeatedly implored us throughout this Session to recognize healthcare, that healthcare is a right for children. Article 24 states and I quote, 'States Parties recognize the right of the child to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health and the facilities for the treatment of the illness or rehabilitation of health. The States Parties shall strive to insure that no child is deprived of his or her right of access to such healthcare services.' I thank the Vice Chair of the Health Committee for his vocal and passionate consistent advocacy for this specific aspect of the Convention.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that we are at a defining moment and that we have the opportunity to exemplify our leadership. That is a vision of the sustainable society of healthy, productive, safe, literate, and loved individuals. Mr. Speaker, we owe a great deal of gratitude to the home schooling law firm in Virginia for bringing these Resolutions to public attention because it gives us an opportunity to pause, and think about what we're doing here in the Legislature, particularly at such a late hour of the day.

"Mr. Speaker, if we continue to do what we've always done, we will continue to get the same results in our country, in our community, and in society. By passing these Resolutions, we have a chance to interrupt the patterns of society about how children are regarded and treated, and perhaps, actually shift the course of history to a path away from wars, the wars that we create on terrorism, poverty, drugs, violence, illiteracy, and abuse.

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, Ronald Reagan once said that we have a rendezvous with destiny. Mr. Speaker, we have an opportunity with these measures, as small as it may be, to guide our destiny. On behalf of the children in Hawaii and the world, I thank my colleagues for their thoughtful consideration."

Representative Bertram rose in support of both measures and asked that the remarks of Representative Berg be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Mizuno rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still with reservations. I think there's a reason why the U.S. does not yet support this. But the reason why I'm still supporting with reservations is this is a work in progress. It's going to likely to cross over to the Senate and I think we can get input from those concerned parents and organizations and maybe come out with a draft that's acceptable to all parties. I still do have some concerns.

"The previous speaker talked about sexual abuse, physical abuse, just a lot of concerns, and the very nature of online predators would be sexual abuse. In fact, we have a number of informational briefings from the Attorney General's office about this. This is widespread and predators just focus in on kids that go on the Internet, and so I'm very concerned about this, especially, when the child might think that he or she will have the right to use the computer.

"The other thing I still have a concern with is the freedom of association. Again, we know that parents will try to jump in. But, again, this can be misinterpreted. The kid can say, the children can say, 'No, I have a right to, absolute right to play or be with whomever I want to be with'.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, I believe that we have a number of laws in existence today. We have a strong criminal code and I believe that those laws already address the concerns that were brought on by the prior speaker. Again, I still think that this is a work in progress and this could do a lot of good for both the parents and the children, so I still support this with slight reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations on this matter, in support with reservations. I heard this in my Committee, Mr. Speaker, and I took the time to read all the 55 Articles in that Convention. This Resolution asks us to ratify the Convention even our own U.S. Congress refuses to ratify. I realized after reading all those 55 Articles that it's really very difficult to adopt this and ratify these Resolutions because they cover a lot of laws that are already in place.

"For example, it asks that we provide for free child care to every child. The State shall provide free child care. The State shall provide free medical care to children. And I think that's a subject to debate, Mr. Speaker. We should ask ourselves, can we provide it? That's one issue. And I think that those 55 Articles need to be answered one by one. It talks about child custody. We now have a lot of laws on child custody. So, ratifying this Convention would be troublesome for us because we look at laws differently from the rest of the world who had ratified it. I understood that by ratifying it, we're binding this country to an international law, just like the Geneva Convention. So, I passed it thinking that we should adopt it as a guide, but not to ratify it, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

At this time, Representative Green called for the previous question.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 48, HD 2, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE ADOPTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS' CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD," was adopted, with Representatives Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Sonson and Ward, voting no, and with Representatives Nakasone, Pine, Sagum, Takamine and Thielen being excused; and

DEPARTMENTAL COMMUNICATION

The following departmental communication (Dept. Com. No. 57) was received by the Clerk and was placed on file:

Dept. Com. No. 57, dated April 13, 2007, from Marion M. Higa, State Auditor, Office of the Auditor, transmitting the report, Cost Analysis of Disability Parking Placards.

INTRODUCTIONS

The following introductions were made to the members of the House:

Representative Takai introduced his friend, Army LTC (ret.) Jim Meadows from Washington, D.C.

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have an unusual introduction. I have an introduction of the invisible hand of the unseen that was present at the signing of our Declaration of Independence, who inspired our forefathers to say that we are endowed by our creator with certain inalienable rights that among those are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That same spirit that was upon them is still in this Chamber. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"So you're introducing a spirit for us?"

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I know we have freedom of religion in this aisle, but I think in the opening remarks, there was a statement that was very incorrect. That there was no connection between our history and our beliefs. And for those who did come for religious freedom had a very strong belief which they felt so strongly about that they said we are endowed by our creator. And having lived in the third world for so many years, it's those bodies like this that give the people …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Is this an introduction or is this a speech?"

Representative Ward: "I'm answering the question of the Speaker."

Speaker Say: "I got the message."

Representative Ward: "You got the message? And I think we've all got the message. There's something more powerful than just these bodies that give people rights."

H.R. No.	Re-referred to:
223	Jointly to the Committee on Public Safety & Military Affairs and the Committee on Health

H.C.R. No.	Re-referred to:
283	Jointly to the Committee on Public Safety & Military Affairs and the Committee on Health

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members, at this time, please note that H.R. No. 198 and H.C.R. No. 247 were re-referred solely to the joint Committees on Consumer Protection and Commerce and Legislative Management per Committee Referral Sheet No. 51 that was placed on your desk yesterday evening. The Committee on Judiciary waived its referral to these measures and therefore it is appropriate for the House to consider action for adoption on these two measures."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Representative Caldwell moved to suspend the rules of the House to reconsider action previously taken on H.R. No. 198 and H.C.R. No. 247, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters were excused.).

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative Caldwell moved to reconsider action taken pursuant to the recommendations contained in Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1694 and 1695 in referring H.R. No. 198 and H.C.R. No. 247 to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters were excused.).

ADOPTIONS

Representative Caldwell then moved that H.R. No. 198 and H.C.R. No. 247 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. We heard these measures in the Legislative Management Committee, and for those of you who are following this issue it relates to a case that happened on Kauai with a victim that was murdered. And what these measures are asking for is the Attorney General's office to work with the notary public group to resolve the issue of identity theft and to clarify it so that an issue like this will never happen again, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. May I have the words of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as if they were my own? And just some brief comments if I may. You know, most of the time resolutions really as a practical matter don't have any effect of law. But this is one of those few resolutions that actually will do a lot of good.

"Sitting in the Committee hearing listening to the story of murder and betrayal and theft was just mind-boggling. And to think that this Body could do something, even through a resolution to try and stop this from happening to another family is really important. So I just hope this Body can support these measures and adopt these Resolutions. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 198, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE IDENTITY THEFT TASK FORCE TO IDENTIFY WAYS IN WHICH THE PROCESS OF NOTARIZING DOCUMENTS CAN BE IMPROVED TO REDUCE IDENTITY THEFT," and H.C.R. No. 247, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE IDENTITY THEFT TASK FORCE TO IDENTIFY WAYS IN WHICH THE PROCESS OF NOTARIZING DOCUMENTS CAN BE IMPROVED TO REDUCE IDENTITY THEFT," was adopted, with Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters being excused.

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HCR 276, which opposes any attempt by the California Legislature to impose a fee on the processing of shipping containers in California. These fees would harm Hawaii's businesses and consumers, since a high volume of our shipping currently goes through California. This fee would also cause some shipping to be diverted from California to other West Coast ports, so it arguably isn't in the interests of California businesses and residents either. Finally, this fee would be unreasonable, since it would be imposed on empty containers, which would particularly harm Hawaii since we import far more goods than we export, causing many shipping containers to be returned to the West Coast empty."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 276, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OPPOSING THE ENACTMENT BY THE CALIFORNIA STATE LEGISLATURE OF A BILL PROPOSING TO IMPOSE A FEE ON THE PROCESSING OF SHIPPING CONTAINERS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA BECAUSE OF THE NEGATIVE IMPACT OF THE FEE ON THE PEOPLE AND THE ECONOMY OF THE STATE OF HAWAII," was adopted, with Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HCR 230. I support this Resolution because I have had calls from fishermen on Kauai that commercial fishermen have been harvesting upwards of 2,000 pounds of parrot fish a night. It doesn't take much to extrapolate that continuous harvesting of the parrot fish at this quantity will all but eliminate the supply.

"At this point in time, the only regulation on harvesting the parrot fish is the prohibition of taking fish less than 12 inches in length. Therefore, I support this Resolution to request the DLNR to conduct an analysis of the fishing of parrot fish, to consider imposing an annual periodic closure prohibiting the night-time commercial harvesting of parrot fish during the months of February through October, or imposing a bag limit on the night-time commercial harvest of parrot fish. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. "I rise in support of this and I'd like to offer my apologies for giving a speech today, but I said very little yesterday so I feel like I'm entitled to a speech today.

"So I'd just like to read the words of Carla Nip-Sakamoto, who's a dermatologist related to sun protection. Because I think it's very, very important for all of us. And she says:

> Hawaii is uniquely positioned to take the lead in sun safety awareness and education for our country. With our geographic location near the equator and our year round tropical climate, residents of Hawaii enjoy a lifestyle that embraces the outdoors. As a dermatologist, I am faced with the daily task of identifying individuals at risk for skin cancer, particularly, the deadliest of them, malignant melanoma. Many of our skin cancer patients were children and young adults in a time when the role of ultraviolet radiation was not fully understood nor appreciated. The body of evidence defining the role of sunlight in skin cancer development is now well established and we all know that all ethnic groups are at risk.
> Few schools provide adequate sun protection for our most vulnerable population. Few schools have a sun protection policy. I've been involved in the sun safety education program at Iolani since its inception in 2000. Kindergarteners and fourth graders receive as a part of their science curriculum, specific content on the effects of sunlight, the ozone layer and its depletion, identification of risk factors for sunburn and sun damage, sunscreen selection and appropriate use, sun protective clothing choices and sun smart behaviors. The children are encouraged to be safe in the sun, not afraid of the sun. The content is simple, yet powerful.
> There is really no cost. Just some dedicated time. A collaborative, community-based effort involving parents, educators, health professionals and legislative government bodies can serve to assist in the development of a statewide program to teach children about preventative practices and lifelong sun safe habits. Enhancing knowledge and an understanding of sun protective behaviors will serve to promote positive attitudes and practices in the area of preventive healthcare. Studies have demonstrated that early intervention provides a greater likelihood of influencing positive behaviors. Protecting our keiki from overexposure to the sun is a healthy investment in Hawaii's future.

"So I urge the members to support this Resolution. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 203, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ENCOURAGING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO DEVELOP A SKIN CANCER EDUCATION AND PREVENTION PROGRAM AND COLLECT DATA ON THE INCIDENCE OF ALL FORMS OF SKIN CANCER AMONG RESIDENTS AND TO WORK WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO IMPLEMENT A CANCER AWARENESS PROGRAM IN ALL PUBLIC SCHOOLS," was adopted, with Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think this is a kind of neat resolution, considering a Capitol Gift Shop in the State Capitol. We're all here and most importantly the public is here and they spend a lot of hours here. I just wanted to bring up that perhaps another suggestion would be that, we're world renown for our Hawaii regional cuisine, of which Leeward Community College, Kapiolani Community College is known for some of the best, most healthy food and it'd be nice to add that somehow to what is offered here at the Capitol."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.C.R. No. 132, HD 2, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTING AND GENERAL SERVICES TO CONDUCT A FEASIBILITY STUDY ON THE ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF A CAPITOL GIFT SHOP IN THE STATE CAPITOL BUILDING," was adopted, with Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters being excused.

"Ruling on a potential conflict of interest. For these two measures, I'm a member of the Hawaii Army National Guard. In 2005 I served on active duty and I stood up the medical readiness processing unit. This unit and other medical facilities across the nation are under scrutiny by the public, as well as these two Resolutions," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of these two measures and since I spoke a lot last night, I'd like your permission to insert written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I want to take advantage of this opportunity to discuss these critical measures as they relates to our State and the Hawaii National Guard.

"For the last few years, thousands of members of the National Guard and Reserves across the nation have been mobilized onto federal active duty for service in and deployed to Iraq, Afghanistan. Many reserve component military service members have sustained injuries or illnesses in the line of duty that have caused them to be placed in military retention processing units (MRPUs) on "medical hold" status in various military facilities around the county.

"At this time, it is a fairly common practice to give these individuals one year after their return from deployment in which to heal, at which point they are reevaluated and frequently either given a medical discharge or released from active duty to their National Guard or Reserve units. While the one year time limit may serve as a simple and clear standard for purposes of the United States Department of Defense military policy, the reality for many of these individuals is that one year is simply an inadequate amount of time to heal from serious physical or mental illnesses or injuries sustained in the line of duty.

"There are currently several injured reserve component military service members in Hawaii, and they are very concerned that their discharge from the military or being released from active duty to their reserve component units will terminate their eligibility for medical care at the United States Department of Defense medical facilities at which they have been treated. With the termination of this eligibility, these reserve component military service members will have to rely upon either their private or employer sponsored health insurance, or facilities operated by the Veterans' Administration of the United States Department of Veterans' Affairs.

"Unfortunately, the extensive media coverage of overcrowded and understaffed Veterans' Administration facilities and programs in recent years leaves many injured reserve component military service members very concerned about the care they will receive. Many ill and injured reserve component military service members would, if given a choice, prefer to continue to receive treatment at the United States Department of Defense medical facilities after they have been discharged or released from active duty to their reserve component units.

"With our support, we will be able to give them the medical coverage that they so rightly deserve. Let us honor our citizen-soldiers for the many sacrifices they have made to protect our country, our State, and our families."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee were adopted and H.R. No. 171, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TO ALLOW MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD AND RESERVES WHO ARE STILL RECOVERING FROM ILLNESSES OR INJURIES INCURRED IN THE LINE OF DUTY WHILE MOBILIZED FOR DEPLOYMENT TO IRAQ OR AFGHANISTAN, AND WHO HAVE EITHER BEEN DISCHARGED FOR MEDICAL REASONS OR RELEASED FROM ACTIVE DUTY TO THEIR RESERVE COMPONENT UNITS, TO CONTINUE TO HAVE ACCESS TO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE MEDICAL FACILITIES ON THE SAME BASIS AS ACTIVE DUTY SERVICE MEMBERS, OR TO RECEIVE TRICARE COVERAGE ON THE SAME BASIS AS RETIREES," was adopted, with Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters being excused; and

No. 213, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TO ALLOW MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD AND RESERVES WHO ARE STILL RECOVERING FROM ILLNESSES OR INJURIES INCURRED IN THE LINE OF DUTY WHILE MOBILIZED FOR DEPLOYMENT TO IRAQ OR AFGHANISTAN, AND WHO HAVE EITHER BEEN DISCHARGED FOR MEDICAL REASONS OR RELEASED FROM ACTIVE DUTY TO THEIR RESERVE COMPONENT UNITS, TO CONTINUE TO HAVE ACCESS TO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE MEDICAL FACILITIES ON THE SAME BASIS AS ACTIVE DUTY SERVICE MEMBERS, OR TO RECEIVE TRICARE COVERAGE ON THE SAME BASIS AS RETIREES," was adopted, with Representatives Nishimoto, Takamine and Waters being excused.

Representative Evans: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Following the Medal of Honor Ceremony in the Senate Chamber, we're inviting all the families, all of the military people and the Senate and the House Members to the courtyard at our State library. This is not done very often. The State Librarian has been very gracious. Her name is Florence Yee. She heads that library and will host us in the courtyard.

"So following the Ceremony, we will invite you over. There will be guardsmen and staff that will be outside that will be leading people to the State library so I invite you to come and meet and greet those families who have come from the mainland, and those who have come from the different islands. You know, these are our people that have lost their lives in Iraq and Afghanistan from March through February of this last annual year, and so we invite you to come and spend just a little time with them following. Thank you very much."

Speaker Say: "For the edification of the Members of the House this afternoon, we will convene at 9:30 on Monday. H.B. No. 1756, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTY CONCESSIONS." (ACT 015)

The following message from the Governor (Gov. Msg. No. 326) was announced by the Clerk and was received for possible consideration at a later date:

Gov. Msg. No. 326, transmitting H.B. No. 853, HD 2, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 13, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 853

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 853, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Work Projects."

This bill is objectionable because it would require the State to cite a contractor for each individual construction project for which work is performed, no matter how minor the infraction and whether the violation was committed knowingly or not. If violations were discovered in one investigation involving multiple construction projects, the contractor would receive multiple citations.

Upon the receipt of a third violation, a contractor would be precluded from performing any new public work construction for a three-year period. Considering the complexity of the law and the difficulties it poses for a contractor to successfully navigate, this result is too harsh. This rigid violation structure fails to take into account the severity of the violations found and the willfulness of the contractor in committing the violation.

The mandatory, progressive penalty structure in current law allows firms to correct errors as soon as they are identified and ensures that the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations is able to work with affected contractors to provide fair wages pursuant to the wage schedules, benefit formula, and applicable overtime rules in place.

The changing of the manner of issuing violations from one based on investigations to one based on projects will likely result in potential litigation. Further, the number of firms bidding on and accepting State and county projects is likely to diminish if the rigid penalty structure imposed by this bill is enacted.

Diminishing the number of firms that can bid on State and county projects, and passing measures that further discourage qualified firms from bidding, will inevitably result in higher costs for public works projects. This will adversely impact the State's ability to fund and execute construction and repair of schools, highways, parks, harbors, and the entire spectrum of public facilities operated by the State of Hawaii. It will also negatively impact the ability of the counties to repair and rebuild our sewer systems, upgrade wastewater treatment plants, and expand police and fire facilities and similar local government structures.

The prevailing wage should be paid when applicable and no contractor should be allowed to ignore the law. However, this bill is unreasonable in imposing a rigid approach that fails to take into account the severity of violations found and the willfulness of the contractor in committing the violation.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 853 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

The following messages from the Governor (Gov. Msg. Nos. 327 and 328) were received and announced by the Clerk and were placed on file:

Gov. Msg. No. 327, transmitting S.B. No. 776, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 13. 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 776

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 776, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Fire Protection."

The purpose of this bill is to clarify that the State, and not the individual county fire departments, is responsible for the fire inspection of State-owned airport facilities required by law.

A substantially identical bill, House Bill No. 1138, was also passed by the Legislature. Because I approved House Bill No. 1138, as Act 10 of 2007, which accomplished the same purpose as this bill, there is no necessity to also approve this bill.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 776 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/

LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

Gov. Msg. No. 328, transmitting S.B. No. 1513, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 13, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1513

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1513, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Motor Vehicles."

The purpose of this bill is to conform State motor vehicle equipment specifications to the federal and automobile manufacturers' specifications by: (1) changing the minimum headlamp height requirement from twenty-four inches to twenty-two inches above the road surface and (2) deleting the requirement that a license plate be attached no lower than twelve inches above the ground.

An identical bill, House Bill No. 1427, was also passed by the Legislature. Because I approved House Bill No. 1427, as Act 7 on April 9, 2007, which accomplished the purpose of this bill, there is no necessity to also approve this measure.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1513 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Chair then announced:

"This House will stand in recess for the purpose of convening in Joint Session in the Senate Chamber at 10:00 a.m. We will reconvene the House session this afternoon at 2:30 p.m."

At 9:46 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess and the House of Representatives stood in recess, subject to the call of the Chair, and in accordance with House Concurrent Resolution No. 329, met in Joint Session with the Senate, for the Hawaii Medal of Honor Ceremony.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Third Legislature was called to order at 10:13 o'clock a.m. by the Honorable Colleen Hanabusa, President of the Senate.

Senate President Hanabusa addressed the Members and audience, stating:

"This is indeed a momentous occasion. We honor members of the Armed Forces of the United States, with ties to Hawaii, who fought and died bravely, in a combat zone designated by Presidential Order.

"On behalf of the House Speaker and all of the Members of the Hawaii State Legislature, I convey our deepest condolences to our very special guests—the family, friends and colleagues of loved ones, who have lost their lives overseas in the Middle East. Our prayers are with you, and we are honored by your presence."

The members of the House, guests, and audience rose for the presentation of our Nation's and our State's Colors by the Joint Service Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard, Royal Guard. The singing of the National Anthem and Hawaii Pono'i was led by Mr. Randall Hongo, Mrs. Gay Hongo, and their son, Mr. Andrew Hongo, thereafter the invocation was delivered by Mr. Ray Ganotise.

At this time, Senate President Hanabusa delivered the following remarks:

"Mahalo Joint Service Color Guard, Reverend and Mrs. Randall Hongo, and son, Andrew, and Mr. Raymond Ganotise your participation in today's ceremony is greatly appreciated.

"Courage, that rare and indefinable character that propels a few among us to do what is difficult and dangerous; to take on challenges that so many of us find beyond our grasp. Duty, the drive to serve country, community, and family; that will carry daughter from Washington, a son from Delaware, or a husband from Hilo across the world to stand for their nation in a time of war. Honor, the result when that uncommon valor and unshakable duty combine in action that awes us, inspires us, humbles us and shows us the height to which human endeavor can aspire.

"Today, we gather in Joint Session to honor those who have made a sacrifice for which we cannot ask and we shall not forget. We honor the family, friends and colleagues who have also sacrificed. Who have themselves paid a price and who helped make today's honorees the brave, strong individuals that we called on and counted on to serve our nation. We offer this honor as a small token that we can never in itself repay the honor that has been given us. An honor borne of courage, driven by duty, and paid for in loss, the highest price ever.

"The roll of heroes that we call today is more than a list of names. It is an acknowledgement of community. The Hawaii Medal of Honor is reserved for those who have touched our islands and have felt the touch of our people. And in offering to those gathered here in memory of those who have fallen, we recognize that they are part of us. For each and every one of you, your tears are our tears. Your loss, our loss. Your pride, our pride.

"Wherever each of these medals finds it final home, a piece of our heart goes with you. You will always be part of our ohana, our family, because you have brought us honor and allowed us to share these lives. These medals symbolize our aloha. Our farewell to those we have lost. But also our love for those who have lived among us, touched us and sacrificed for us. And our enduring welcome for all represented here today, the fallen and their families who will be counted among us forever. Mahalo."

At this time, the President of the Senate introduced the following dignitaries seated on the floor of the Senate:

Major General Robert G.F. Lee, representing Honorable Linda Lingle, Governor of the State of Hawaii;

Lieutenant General Daniel P. Leaf, United States Pacific Command;

Lieutenant General John M. Brown, III, United States Army Pacific;

Lieutenant General John Goodman and Mrs. Gayle Goodman, Untied States Marine Corps and Marine Forces Pacific;

Rear Admiral Townsend G. Alexander, United States Navy and Navy Region Hawaii;

Brigadier General Alexander Kozlov, United States Army Reserves;

Captain Charles Ray, United States Coast Guard and the Fourteenth Coast Guard District;

Colonel Jeffrey Stephenson, United States Air Force and the Pacific Air Force;

Ms. Jennifer Sabas, representing the Honorable Daniel K. Inouye, United States Senator;

Mr. Kekoa Kaluhiwa, representing the Honorable Daniel K. Akaka, United States Senator; and

Mr. Carl Takamura, representing the Honorable Mazie K. Hirono, United States Congresswoman.

The President then called upon Major General Robert Lee to deliver his remarks as follows:

"Thank you, Senator Hanabusa. Good morning and aloha. I want to thank everyone for coming to this Medal of Honor Ceremony today. Your presence here is strong testimony to the support Hawaii has for our military personnel, our veterans, and their families.

"We are once again involved in hostilities in foreign lands. Our armed forces are once again fighting and dying for the ideals that our nation holds so dear. America's sons and daughters bravely go into harm's way to protect us and to defend our way of life.

"Losing a loved one is never easy. It is difficult to say goodbye to a parent or grandparent who has lived a long and fruitful life. But it is so much more difficult to witness the passing of a loved one who was in the prime of life and whose full potential did not yet have an opportunity to blossom. Such is the case of our heroes from the armed forces who we lost too soon.

"We will lament the missed birthdays, anniversaries, holidays, and really thousands of other daily events that could have been. We will continue to mourn this premature passing of our brothers and sisters in arms.

"The State Medal of Honor is Hawaii's way in which we can remember that ultimate sacrifice. To show our appreciation to the families and to assure them that they will always be part of the State's ohana or family.

"A circle of kalo or taro leaves is part of the Hawaii Medal of Honor. The word ohana was derived from kalo and the circle is emblematic of the embrace of the people of Hawaii. Whether a fallen soldier, marine, or sailor grew up in Hawaii, or were members of units based in Hawaii, he is still embraced as part of our ohana.

"The star in the coat of arms of the medal represents the fiftieth state star on the American flag and also represents the person who is being honored. But the star also evokes a symbol of America's past. During World Wars I and II, families that had a member serving in the armed forces would display a blue star on a banner or flag in front of their home. If a service member from that family was killed in action, a gold star was often displayed in a window facing the street to let the neighborhood know that the life of a hero who had grown up there had been taken.

"Today this medal is a token of our gratitude from the State of Hawaii proclaiming to all that this is a family of a fallen hero. There is no greater sacrifice a family can make than the loss of a soldier, sailor, marine or airman while in service to our nation. And there is no greater honor which we the people of Hawaii can bestow upon them to symbolize that sacrifice.

"There's an attachment device in the middle of the red and yellow ribbon which is a rendering of the ancient puela or flag. And this was raised at sea above the sail of their canoes. All who saw the puela from afar, knew that a person of the highest rank or honor was coming.

"Today, this service ribbon and its puela will remind us that these families are of the highest rank and honor. We appreciate even more President Abraham Lincoln's humble wisdom at Gettysburg: "When brave men die, it is their deeds, and not our words that are remembered. It is their sacrifice and not our brief recollection that offers everlasting testimony to their love for others and their love for us".

"To the families of our fallen heroes, I humbly ask that you accept this Hawaii Medal of Honor on behalf of the people of Hawaii, who are today, and forever shall be, your devoted ohana. May God bless all of you, and may he continue to bless the United States of America."

At this time, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House presented the Hawaii Medal of Honor. The Clerk of the Senate announced the names of the Hawaii Medal of Honor recipients, which was followed by the ringing of the memorial bell.

At this time, Members of the United States Air Force proceeded with a 21-gun Salute and the playing of Taps outside the Senate Chamber in the Capitol Rotunda. The Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives, honored families, special guests and audience then stood for a moment of silence.

House Speaker Say then delivered closing remarks as follows:

"We have all just participated in a most somber and touching ceremony. We -- family and friends, colleagues and strangers – all mourn together. And we all, have an abundance of thoughts and emotions to contemplate and put to rest.

"We should not, however, consider this day as a completely somber occasion. There are some very positive lessons to be derived from this ceremony.

"First, we have honored 67 young men and women for the ultimate sacrifice one can give to his or her country. The Medals awarded today, will help us here – and this generation – to remember these courageous individuals. More importantly, by placing these names in the permanent record of Hawaii's legislative history, we are assured that these warriors will be remembered in perpetuity, by generations to follow.

"Second, this ceremony has brought us together. Family members and friends of the fallen ones have come from locations across the State, and across the Nation, to participate in this ceremony, and to commemorate the memory of their loved ones and comrades in arms. We, the participants from Hawaii, welcome the opportunity to make new friends – to reminisce with our honored families and to listen to their stories – and to share our aloha.

"Third, this ceremony reminds us of the importance of dignity and tradition, and the strength and resolve of America's armed forces. Without the protection of our uniformed men and women, we civilians would probably not be able to reap the benefits of a free and democratic society. The military is the unseen force that protects us from threats far and near, and allows us to exercise our democratic rights of speech, liberty and peace. As civilians, we should show our appreciation to our military personnel more often.

"And finally, this ceremony reminds us that we must be deserving of the sacrifices of these brave men and women honored today. For them, we must live our lives honorably. For them, we must be unselfish, and willing to serve and share with others. And for them, we must work towards progress for the betterment of society and mankind – not for personal award or acclaim. In sum, we must live in a manner that proves – that we are worthy of their sacrifice. Aloha and mahalo."

The Speaker of the House then called on the Joint Service Color Guard and the Hawaii Air National Guard, Royal Guard for the retiring of the Colors, and at 11:12 o'clock a.m., declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate adjourned.

RECONVENE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Awana: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to request a point of personal privilege. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Earlier today we were privileged to honor the families of servicemen who lost their lives sacrificing for our country. It is ironic that this memorial came on the same day when families on the East Coast were grieving at the tragic loss of lives at the Virginia Tech University this morning. Thirty-three college students working to educate themselves so they could go on to serve their country were helplessly gunned down. The needless loss of life was incomprehensible.

"We have come to expect that there will be casualties on the battlefield, but our County's schools and universities are supposed to be our safe havens. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of my constituents and all of us in this Chamber, I ask for a moment of silence in memory of the friends, families and individuals who are directly affected by this tragedy. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in memory of the friends, family and individuals affected by the Virginia Tech University campus incident of this date which resulted in 33 deaths.

Representative Takai: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With your permission I'd like to acknowledge some of the people that participated and assisted with this morning's ceremony.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. First of all, Mr. Speaker, thank you for giving me the opportunity to once again coordinate the Hawaii Medal of Honor Ceremony, as well as all the preparations prior. But it took many, many people and I'd like to acknowledge the people who made this all happen.

"First, I'd like to thank all of our staff here and in the Senate. Senate Chief Clerk, Carol Taniguchi and her staff; House Chief Clerk Pat Mau-Shimizu and her staff; Senate Sergeant-at-Arms Ben Villaflor and his staff; House Sergeant-at-Arms Kevin Kuroda and his staff; and Linda Oamilda and the House Majority Staff Office.

"We did get a lot of support and assistance from the military. And I would like to recognize Dennis Fujii from the US Pacific Command, and Leighton Siu from the Governor's office, who helped us with protocol.

"I also wanted to mention three individuals who helped us very early on to identifying the people that we recognized today. From the Army, we had Mr. Mark Van Doorne. From the Marines, we had Captain Mark Nicholson and Master Sergeant Antonio Sears.

"In addition Mr. Speaker, as all of you noticed, the Medal itself is a beautiful recognition of the State of Hawaii's appreciation for our fallen comrades. I wanted to acknowledge Sergeant First Class Aaron Pollick once again, for he was the one that originally designed the medal.

"A lot of other people participated in the medal design and the medal framing and many other things, and I'd like to mention Brady Pilster and Richard Goodman from Symbol Arts who minted the Medal. Kent Untermann and Valerie Wang from Pictures Plus who did the framing. Rose Lee from Rose Lee's Alterations who helped us sew the ribbons. And Ty and Cindy Tamanaha from Awardline who helped us with the plaques.

"In addition Mr. Speaker, we all knew this was going to turn into a much bigger event than we all ever imagined especially after last year. And because of this we worked very closely with the Pearl Harbor Historic Sites, including the USS Bowfin, the USS Missouri, and the USS Arizona. They all came through with support for the families. In addition Mr. Speaker, the Hale Koa Hotel came through, and the Polynesian Cultural Center came through, again. And we worked specifically with the Hawaii Hotel Association who provided excellent, excellent hotel rates for families.

"Many people were asking about the ʻOlelo Broadcast and I wanted to mention again, Mr. Speaker, this year as last year, Capitol TV will be providing a DVD for each family, both present and not present at today's ceremony. In addition, there are additional copies available for anyone in our Chamber who is interested.

"Mr. Speaker, I wanted to recognize the Planning Committee. Many people in this Chamber, as well as the Senate, and a few other individuals really put in the hard work over the past year to make today's event a reality. Senate President Colleen Hanabusa, you Mr. Speaker, Senator Lorraine Inouye, and Representative Cindy Evans, who served as Co-Chairs of our Planning Committee, helped to make today's event a reality. In addition, we got support from Major General Robert Lee and Colonel Retired Emerick Kaneshi, from the Hawaii National Guard.

"We all know as Representatives that much of our success and the things that we do in this Chamber, as well as in our communities, are the direct results of our staff. And I wanted to at this time, acknowledge the staff people who made this all possible. From Senate President Hanabusa's office, Rod Tanonaka and Eric Hamakawa and her other staff members. Richard Rapoza from Senate Communications. Georgette Deemer and Kim Fassler from our House Communications office. From Senator Lorraine Inouye's office, Arlina Agbayani, Trina Ishii and her other staff members. And from Representative Cindy Evan's office, Tommie Suganuma, Micah Young and her other staff members. And from my staff in particular, I wanted to recognize Chrysalis Reyna, Sandra Kim and Marnelli Joy Basilio.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, as I did last year, I saved her for last because she really did a lot of work and without her, we would not have had what we did today. And as I said before, our staff makes us what we are. But more importantly, Lisa Vargas, my office manager made us, the State of Hawaii, and the House of Representatives, the Senate, the entire Legislature, made us all look good. She did the due diligence, and covered all of our bases and contacted all of the service members and those who were deserving of the award.

"This award went and continues to go families with Hawaii ties. So far, as of February 28, a total of 186 medals have been awarded. And I believe we have all the families. So Mr. Speaker, at this time I'd like to ask the Members of our body to once again thank all of the people involved in the planning and preparation of today's activities. And I'd like to ask for a round of applause please.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to at this point, defer to Representative Cindy Evans who has some other acknowledgements to give."

Representative Evans: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to thank this body, the House of Representatives, and the staff. Many of you allowed your staff to help in today's event. I believe there was over 45 staff members coming from the different offices. Mr. Speaker, would it be all right if we submit their names in the Journal for record?

"I think it was exemplary how I think the Sergeant-of-Arms and the National Guard, the ones that volunteered to direct people to the library and how they stood around the Chamber and really took care of the people that were visiting our Capitol today. I think we should thank them and make sure their names are also in the Journal, if that's all right.

"And members, I think just being present and acknowledging them really helped the families deal with their loss and it was a time and a moment for them to reflect and it's so important to deal with loss and grief and they need to move on with their lives. But it's very appropriate to take a moment and stop and I really want to thank all of you in participating in making this a special event. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "May I also rise in thanking the progenitor of this, the author of the Resolution and the law of last year, and for those who participated from the Big Island. It gave great honor to those families. It gave great honor to the State. It gave great honor to the country. It should be a very proud day for us. I just think they deserve all the thanks possible. Thank you."

From House Bill 8, designated as Act 21, Session Laws of Hawaii of 2005:

"The purpose of this Act is to provide for a Hawaii Medal of Honor that would help express the deep appreciation and gratitude of the People of Hawaii to the loved ones of members of the military who sacrificed their lives in defense of our nation and its freedoms."

SYMBOLISM OF THE HAWAII MEDAL OF HONOR

The Hawaii Medal of Honor was designed by Sergeant First Class Aaron Pollick from the Hawaii Army National Guard. This medal consists of the following six components, superimposed on each other:

Circle of Kalo Leaves: The kalo leaves represent the family or Ohana. The leaves are designed in an encircled fashion and represent the concept of Ohana, which we strive to embrace.

Coat of Arms: The Great Shield is the keystone of the design. The eight bars represent the eight major islands of the state of Hawaii. The kapu sticks, or Pulo'ulo'u, symbolize authority and protection. The star in the center of the medallion is the Star of Hawaii, the 50th star on the flag of the United States. This star also represents the honorees of this prestigious award.

Maltese Cross: The Maltese Cross represents the four directional axes of the globe, denoting Hawaii as the Crossroads of the Pacific.

Sun Rays: The irradiant sun is symbolic of the new era. Its position in the center of the Maltese Cross represents our sunny shores and warm hearts ever shining on all the corners of the world.

The Neck Drape: The neck drape is red and golden yellow in color. These colors symbolize the royal monarchy that once ruled these islands. The red represents courage and strength. The golden yellow depicts the honor that the recipients have brought to our islands.

Service Ribbon & Attachment: The service ribbon represents distinguished service. Its colors are identical to the colors of the neck drape. The attachment device at the middle of the ribbon is an ancient flag or puela of Hawaiian Chiefs. In olden times, the puela was raised above the sail of the ancient Hawaiians' canoes while at sea. Our puela signifies that the person receiving this medal is of high rank or honor.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES

The following messages from the Governor (Gov. Msg. Nos. 329 through 331) were received and announced by the Clerk:

Gov. Msg. No. 329, informing the House that on April 13, 2007, the following bill became law without her signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution:

H.B. No. 1081, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORKS." (ACT 016)

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 14, 2007

The Honorable Calvin K.Y. Say, Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives
Twenty-Fourth State Legislature
State Capitol, Room 431
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: House Bill No. 1081

On April 13, 2007, House Bill No. 1081, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Works" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

This bill allows a joint labor-management committee established under the federal Labor Management Cooperation Act of 1978 to file a lawsuit against an employer who fails to pay the prevailing wage required by chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes. This is Hawaii's law on Wages and Hours of Employees on Public Works. It covers laborers and mechanics working on a governmental construction project.

The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations currently conducts both complaint-generated and random routine investigations of public works projects for compliance with chapter 104. In addition, the Department's improved educational and outreach programs have decreased the number of violations. Thus, there is no demonstratable need for the enforcement of chapter 104 by labor-management committees. Lawsuits against certain contractors may delay existing public works projects and deter contractors from bidding on such projects, increasing potential costs to governmental contracting agencies and the taxpayers of the State.

Joint labor-management committees were created under the federal Labor Management Cooperation Act of 1978 to negotiate and resolve disputes between labor and management. This is a legitimate and important role for them to play. It is not wise to turn these committees into enforcement vehicles. This turns over to an outside party functions handled by the State under chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and may adversely impact the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations' ability to control the proper enforcement of State statutes.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed House Bill No. 1081 to become law as Act 16 effective April 13, 2007 without my signature.

Sincerely,
LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 330, informing the House that on April 16, 2007, the following bill was signed into law:

H.B. No. 1377, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION." (ACT 17)

Gov. Msg. No. 331, informing the House that on April 16, 2007, the following bill was signed into law:

S.B. No. 1006, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MORTGAGE BROKERS AND SOLICITORS." (ACT 018)

The following message from the Governor (Gov. Msg. No. 332) was announced by the Clerk and was received for possible consideration at a later date:

Gov. Msg. No. 332, transmitting H.B. No. 1672, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 16, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1672

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1672, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Legislative Service Agencies."

This bill increases the maximum salary of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) from 87% to 92% of the pay of the Directors of these three organizations.

This will raise the maximum salary of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau from $90,514 to $97,631 on July 1, 2007. This is the second significant pay increase for legislative attached agency personnel in two years.

This bill is objectionable because it increases the inequity in compensation levels for these three legislative agencies as compared to other positions in State government.

Under this bill, the Legislative Branch second-in-command positions will be allowed to earn more than the Directors of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL), the Department of Public Safety (PSD), the Department of Human Resources Development (DHRD), and the Chairperson of the Department of Agriculture (DOA). These Directors are responsible for millions of dollars of public funds; hundreds and, in some cases, thousands of employees spread across the State; the stewardship for hundreds of thousands of acres of land held in trust for the native Hawaiian people; the survival of our agricultural sector; and the management of our prison system, which includes multiple facilities on four islands. Yet they are compensated less than a First Assistant in the Ombudsman's Office that supervises eight investigators, a First Assistant in the Legislative Reference Bureau that supervises nine individuals, and the Deputy Auditor responsible for fifteen personnel.

If the 2007 recommendations of the Commission on Salaries are adopted, this bill will raise the maximum salary of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) from $90,514 to $100,508 on July 1, 2007. The four Directors listed above would earn several thousand dollars less.

It should also be pointed out that a number of key positions in the Executive Branch with significant managerial and public policy responsibilities have not had compensation adjustments that allow the Administration to attract and retain personnel. These include, but are not limited to, the Public Utilities Commissioners ($77,390), Executive Director of the Hawaii Public Housing Authority ($79,590), Executive Director of the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation ($79,590), and the Vice Director of Civil Defense ($81,463). A full list of these positions is attached to this Statement of Objections.

These positions have significant responsibilities, such as managing almost 6,000 public housing units, coordinating statewide responses to natural disasters, and setting tariffs and rates in complex utility cases.

This Administration introduced bills this year, House Bill No. 1367 and Senate Bill No. 1453, to de-link the salary levels for Executive Branch senior staff members who were adversely affected by Act 226 SLH 2005. Despite the inequity that existed prior to this legislative session due to Acts 226 and Acts 225 of 2005, the Legislature failed to pass the Administration's proposal that would have brought parity in pay for Executive Branch employees and recognized the importance of treating all State employees fairly and equitably.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1672 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

EXECUTIVE BRANCH POSITIONS THAT ARE "LINKED" TO THE PAY OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT HEADS, BUT THAT THE LEGISLATURE REFUSED TO DE-LINK SO THAT THESE POSITIONS MAY BE COMPENSATED MORE FAIRLY.

Gov. Msg. No. 342, transmitting S.B. No. 14, SD 1, HD 1, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 18, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 14

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 14, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the University of Hawaii."

This bill attempts to implement the provisions of Article X, Section 6 of the State Constitution, approved in 2006. It establishes a seven-member Candidate Advisory Council, exempts this Council from the open meeting provisions of Chapter 92, Hawaii Revised Statutes, increases from twelve to fifteen the number of University of Hawaii Regents, and establishes geographic criteria for 12 of the Regent positions.

This bill is objectionable because it contradicts what public citizen trusteeship should be--that is, citizens who are independent in their individual and collective judgment and who serve the people of Hawaii, not special interest groups. Instead, Senate Bill No. 14 establishes a narrowly focused constituency-based selection council with each member appointed by seven separate interests, including the All Campus Council of Faculty Senate Chairs, the Executive Council of the University of Hawaii Student Caucus, the Association of Regents Emeritus, and the President of the Alumni Association.

These individuals can recommend as few as only two names to fill a vacancy on the Board of Regents, further contributing to the partisan and narrow focus of potential Regent candidates.

Three nationally recognized and well-respected organizations have expressed serious concerns about the selection process proposed in Senate Bill No. 14-the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB), the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), and the Accrediting Commission of Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC). They have, on several occasions, pointed out that the process contained in this bill runs counter to national best practices in university governance.

I do not believe any governor, regardless of party, would agree to a process that is opposed by the President of the University of Hawaii and those very organizations that judge whether to accredit the State's premier institution of higher learning.

I am also troubled by the exemption of the selection council from Part 1, Chapter 92, of the Hawaii Revised Statutes covering open meetings, also known as the Sunshine Law. This blanket exemption would allow this council to conduct its proceedings behind closed doors away from public scrutiny. This increases the possibility of political or partisan overtones in the selection process being hidden from public view. Further, it makes it difficult for the selection council members to be held accountable for the recommendations they make since the public will be unable to observe how certain persons were selected, what qualifications were applied, and what screening process was used.

I affirmatively state that I respect the decision of the electorate in amending the State Constitution to change the method for selecting the Board of Regents. I have demonstrated my commitment to implement this Constitutional change by recommending legislation (House Bill No. 1431/Senate Bill No. 1517) to establish an advisory council to screen and propose candidates for appointment to the Board of Regents. This Administration bill does not create the kind of narrow, constituent approach that Senate Bill No. 14 creates and respects the importance of an open selection process.

Should the Legislature send me a bill that incorporates the unbiased and open approach embodied in House Bill No. 1431/Senate Bill No. 1517, then I would be able to sign that measure without hesitation.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 14 in its present form without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. A point of information. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Will we have 24 hour notice of any action that we might take on the Governor's messages?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"At this point I believe it will be up to the respective Caucuses. This deals with the veto messages. So, there is no 24 hour requirement because you have it before you and it was received. But if there is a motion for override, you will be notified prior to, but not within a 24 hour time period."

At this time, the Chair invited Ambassador Chowdhury to the rostrum, and the Ambassador addressed the House of Representatives as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, distinguished Representatives and the young children over there, I am absolutely delighted to be present in this House of the people in Hawaii. Hawaii has a rich history of living in harmony. In harmony with nature, in harmony amongst its diverse mix of ethnic backgrounds, in harmony with the environment and now a wonderful harmony of distinguished representatives and the younger generation in this House. I am absolutely delighted to be here.

"I'm here to speak tomorrow at the Aloha Peace Forum on an event which is titled, "Building a Culture of Peace and Ensuring their Right to Human Security". The concept of security is transiting through a great change. It's no longer security of territories, but it is about security of people. It is security of individuals, rather than security of nations. It is security achieved through development, rather than through armaments. It is security for all people everywhere: in our streets, in our homes, in our schools, in our jobs, in our living environment. And that is what we are emphasizing tomorrow as we talk about the right to human security. Our nations can be all powerful, but if each one of us felt insecure in our own environment, we will not achieve the quality of life that we are all seeking for everybody.

"The quest of human security is individual and it is global. Insecurity anywhere is insecurity for all of us, and I believe it is very important that we need also to understand that poverty creates a serious challenge to security. That is what I do on a daily basis as a representative of the United Nations; to work for the poorest, the weakest and the most vulnerable countries of the world.

"And I believe that this is a challenge, which probably doesn't stop at national boundaries. There are problems which create insecurity for all of us. Drugs, terrorism, trafficking of human beings, this is what we need to ensure that these problems without passports need to be addressed by all of us together. At the heart of this effort should be the young people, and we believe that the present generation, we the adults, have somehow failed to make the world more secure, but we should not fail our future generations. If the present generation does not prepare the world for the future, neither the future nor the present will be secure.

"So it is very important for us and I'm very happy that at least the young people, the fifth graders are able to listen to this. We need to involve them more in our work. Sometimes we say they are our future leaders. I believe that they are our present leaders. The decisions that we make, that you make in your legislative assemblies affect all of them so they should be part of this process, they should be involved.

"I must pay tribute to you for your position on the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and for the Global Youth Center that you have just approved, and for all the support that you have provided to the Earth Charter. We are delighted, as representing the United Nations my felicitation to you, each one of you, for supporting these very commendable initiatives in the world.

"I would also like to propose that you please include education for peace in your curriculum, in the curriculum at all levels, at the elementary to the university. Everywhere, peace studies should be part of growing up. And I believe that way we can make the world a better place. Thank you very much."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, the U.S. is not only the leader of the democratic world, but the organizations found within its borders also take the lead among similar organizations in other countries. These countries look to U.S. organizations for leadership and methodologies. No where can this be more prevalent than in Hawaii; the link between East and West.

"Mr. Speaker, this Resolution asks the Hawaii State Commission on the Status of Women, which is mandated to act as a central clearinghouse and coordinating body for governmental and nongovernmental activities and information relating to the status of women, to convene a network of organizations for the support and development of local and international organizations addressing domestic violence and sex assault issues. It also requests that the Commission report back to the Legislature on the success of the network and the international training, including recommendations for further training and international networking opportunities to address issues of domestic violence and sex assault.

"This Resolution will not only help the people of Hawaii, but will help organizations dealing with domestic violence and sex assault in other countries. I urge my colleagues to support this Resolution. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 91, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CONVENING AN INTERNATIONAL NETWORK ADDRESSING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEX ASSAULT," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Berg, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 147, SD 2, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE HAWAII PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY TO REPORT ON PROJECT SPENDING," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Berg, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

Representative Shimabukuro, for the Committee on Human Services & Housing presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2088), recommending that S.C.R. No. 220, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 220, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to submit written comments in support and also support the amendments that were made in the Resolution because I think they're very good."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, human trafficking is a problem that plagues our world. Every year we hear of more people who have been taken from their families and homes and forced to go to places where they are used and abused. Fortunately, there is help for these people in the United States, but the process to get help takes too much time for some.

"Because certification often requires a considerable length of time to process, typically six months, there is the need for pre-certification victim services from the time that individuals are identified as trafficked persons until they are certified by federal law enforcement. It is during this time trafficked persons may experience the greatest need for services.

"This Resolution requests the Department of Human Services to conduct a statewide needs assessment of non-citizen victims of human trafficking. In completing the needs assessment, the Department of Human Services should collaborate with the task force that was established, to determine how Hawaii can best combat and deter human trafficking, identify existing obstacles, in statute, rule, or policy, that limit or deny benefits to non-citizen victims of human trafficking, and identify appropriate social, financial, and other services for victims of human trafficking, in general, including gaps in the services offered by state, county, and private agencies for victims of human trafficking.

"This Resolution is an important piece of a comprehensive approach our State is taking in compliment to the Anti-Trafficking Task Force and an eventual Human Trafficking Act to stop trafficking in our islands. I urge my colleagues to support this Resolution. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 220, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES TO CONDUCT A STATEWIDE NEEDS ASSESSMENT OF NON-CITIZEN VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Berg, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

Representative Shimabukuro, for the Committee on Human Services & Housing presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2089), recommending that S.C.R. No. 81, be referred to the Committee on Legislative Management.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 81, be referred to the Committee on Legislative Management, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this one. We heard much testimony both for and against, and really, most of the testimony, there was no evidence of any kind of wrongdoing or financial mismanagement or even program mismanagement. Just some disgruntled people. So it really, it goes beyond what needs to be done and just seems to be an overreaction, so I rise in opposition."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 81, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A FINANCIAL AND PROGRAM AUDIT OF HAWAII'S INDEPENDENT LIVING CENTER," was referred to the Committee on Legislative Management with Representative Bertram voting no, and with Representatives Berg, Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

Representative Shimabukuro, for the Committee on Human Services & Housing presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2090) recommending that S.C.R. No. 122, SD 1, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 122, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I have remarks in support, and I'd also like your permission to submit into the record the bill from the State of New York that contains the Breastfeeding Bill of Rights," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, studies have shown that breastfed infants are healthier than bottle-fed babies. We also know that it is cheaper to breastfeed than it is to buy formula. In fact, a United States Department of Agriculture analysis estimates that at least $3,600,000,000 could be saved nationally if only fifty per cent of mothers breastfed their infants until they were at least six months old. Furthermore, women who receive appropriate, culturally sensitive information and support about breastfeeding during and immediately following their childbirth delivery are eight times more likely to continue breastfeeding for at least six weeks compared to women who received little or no post delivery support about breastfeeding.

"It is therefore important for information about breastfeeding to be available to women. This resolution supports Senate Bill No. 1674 and Assembly Bill No. 3782 of the New York State Legislature, which proposes to codify every woman's right to be informed about the benefits of breastfeeding and to have an environment that is conducive to what all pediatricians agree to be the safest and healthiest choice for newborn and infant feeding. These bills propose adoption of a statement of rights, known as the breastfeeding mothers' bill of rights, to: provide mothers with basic breastfeeding-related rights before, during and after the birth of their baby; require that the statement of rights be conspicuously posted in a public place in maternal health care facilities, nurseries, maternity floors, and post-delivery recovery rooms; and require assistance from lactation specialists in the hospital and after discharge.

"This is an important statement and I urge my colleagues to support this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro, for the Committee on Human Services & Housing presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2091) recommending that S.C.R. No. 136, SD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. H.B. No. 1818, H.D. 2, S.D. 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 1818, HD 2, SD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition with written comments and just a short comment. Mr. Speaker, this bill is quite different. In fact, it's a 'gut and replace' from when we last saw it, I believe, and I really did like the House version. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to this bill. This bill supposedly clarifies what happens when the term of a single executive expires without a renomination or nomination of a person to fill that office by the Governor. In other words, what happens to a holdover?

"I say supposedly clarifies because even if the intent of this measure may be clear, the consequences are not. This legislation calls for "the highest ranking and most senior officer in a civil service position" to perform the duties of the vacant office until the Governor makes a nomination of grants a commission to fill the vacancy.

"Let's paint a clearer picture. The Director of Labor and Industrial Relations is in this position now. The Governor has not named a replacement. Indeed, they are undertaking all due diligence to find a replacement. To date, she has been unable to find someone willing to accept this appointment.

"Under this bill, a civil servant will assume the duties of the vacant office until the Governor remedies the matter. That is fairly clear. What is not clear are the legal ramifications of this bill.

"There is case law that states that a worker can assume the duties of a higher office as long as they are compensated accordingly. The more important issue appears to be that case law and the laws of other jurisdictions are unclear on whether the individual leaves their civil service position and becomes an at-will employee in this situation.

"I am wary of this. When a civil service worker assumes the pay and duties of management, in this case, the highest management position in a department, they are no longer labor. They are management. And under chapter 26 of the Hawaii Revised Statues, the Governor has the ability to remove a single executive from office at any time. In other words, this bill creates a mechanism whereby senior civil servants can be fired.

"Worse, carried further, by continued inaction, the Governor could turn this situation into a conveyor belt, allowing senior civil servants to assume the role and pay of the single executive and firing them. The result would be turnover on a grand scale in the office of the single executive, and the positions vacated below the executive.

"This would be the consequence of this legislation. To think otherwise is to sanction the potential improprieties that a person serving in this dual role could perpetrate. For example, the senior civil servant assumes the duties of the Director. As Director, this person could authorize appropriations, leave, and travel requests for their civil service position that they could "return" to.

"There could be conflicts of interests, commingling of funds, unauthorized activity, or decisions on promotions and discipline, and all this could be done without accountability because this person serves in two roles, one being the director, the other being the civil servant. That cannot be, and is not, the intent of this Legislature.

"Because of the creation of a process that would allow the firing of senior civil servants, I remain in opposition."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition. First, I would like to incorporate the words of the Minority Leader as my own. While this legislation attempts to solve a problem with holdovers, it also creates a situation where senior civil servants can be subjected to the termination at the will of the Governor. That is a bad policy and contrary to the principles of civil service.

"I also agree that it is not the intent of this Legislature to create a situation where a civil servant could straddle the line between management and labor and allow for various wrongdoings.

"I would like to bring up another issue, and that is the vagueness of parts of this legislation. Namely, on page 3, lines 8 & 9, the person selected to perform the duties of the vacant office, other than the Department of the Attorney General or the Department of Defense is "the highest ranking and most senior officer in a civil service position."

"There is a possibility that the highest ranking civil servant is not the most senior officer. How is a civil servant selected in this situation? Does seniority trump rank? Does rank trump seniority? There is no case law in this area.

"There is also no discretion in this bill. What if the highest ranking and most senior officer in a civil service position refuses to perform the duties of the vacant office? Especially in light of the possibility of being fired by the Governor. What is the recourse? Suspending the civil servant? For what? Wanting to do their job? I cannot support this."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to HB1818, HD2, SD1. This bill is another thinly veiled attempt to usurp the responsibilities of the Governor. Under this proposed law, the Senate could reject all the Governor's nominees and appoint their own department directors. Given the ridiculous machinations and "kabuki-esque" drama that has played out in this year's confirmation hearings, it is questionable whether any nominees would be approved if the Democrat majority is given the license that this bill provides.

"Our State constitution is modeled after the US Constitution. In drafting this incredible document, the Founding Fathers created a system that spread power among three branches of government. This keeps a rein on those that would run rampant over those with an opposing view point. This system of checks and balances was termed "essential to the preservation of liberty" by the writers of the Federalist Papers[1]. It goes on to state, "that each department should have a will of its own; and consequently should be so constituted that the members of each should have as little agency as possible in the appointment of the members of the others.[2]" The Founding Fathers knew the mischief that could be made if members of one branch over-meddled in the selection of the members of the other. "Were the executive magistrate, or the judges, not independent of the legislature in this particular, their independence in every other would be merely nominal.[3]"

"Mr. Speaker, the State constitution charges the Governor with the responsibility to nominate and appoint the directors of each department. As stated, "Each principal department shall be under the supervision of the governor and, unless otherwise provided in this constitution or by law, shall be headed by a single executive. Such single executive shall be nominated and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appointed by the Governor.4"

"Mr. Speaker, if passed, this bill would take this power away from the executive branch and shake the very foundation of our state constitution. In the most recent election, the people of Hawaii gave their overwhelming approval to this Governor. Why does the Legislature seek to handcuff her?"

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition. I would like the words of the Minority Leader, Minority Floor Leader, and Assistant Minority Leader incorporated as if they were my own. I am very troubled by the process we are legislating today, a process that can be used to eliminate our highest ranking and most senior civil servants. In the interests of time, I will not reiterate that which has been said.

"However, Mr. Speaker, looking at the concerns of the Minority Floor Leader, there are many loose ends to this legislation, and there are some bad consequences. This was sloppy work by the Senate, and we should have sent this bill to Conference Committee to work out the flaws. But that is not what we have decided to do today.

"Mr. Speaker, the Senate may have been sloppy, but we are being negligent in agreeing to this sloppiness. I cannot be a party to this. I continue to be in opposition."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 1818, H.D. 2 and H.B. No. 1818, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 37 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Awana, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Green, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

At 12:25 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 1818, HD 2, SD 1

At 12:26 o'clock p.m., Representative Ward requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:28 o'clock p.m.

Representative Nishimoto for the Committee on Transportation requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement to hear SCR 98, relating to sunrise review for bail agents, today at 3:00 p.m. in Conference Room 224, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, this has been quite a week. It began with presentation of the Hawaii Medal for those families who lost members in Iraq. Virginia Tech took place this week. And we just learned that a graduate of our high schools, Punahou and Kalaheo, a Peace Corps volunteer, Julia Campbell, who I would consider a colleague, has been killed in the Philippines. I would ask this body with your permission, if we could have a moment silence for the young lady, Ms. Campbell who was killed."

Representative Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, along the same lines as mentioned, the Representative of Waianae earlier this week did very eloquently talk about the tragedy at Virginia Tech. Today is a national day of mourning across our country for those who have not only been killed, but those wounded, and their families, friends and the larger community. And therefore when we do have our moment silence, also request that there be a moment of silence for what occurred at Virginia Tech University."

Speaker Say: "Members of the House, after the motion to adjourn is made, we will all rise to signify one's concurrence for a moment of silence in memory of the victims of the tragedy at Virginia Tech University, and also the young woman who died or was murdered as a Peace Corps volunteer in the Philippines."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, when I took a look at the voting record, I noticed that there was a mistake. It does show me as a yes vote on this particular Resolution, but I was with reservations.

"Taking a look at this Resolution, I think that there's a lot of merit to what it has to say in regards to making amendments to the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001. The main problem that I have with this particular Resolution is the title which says, Requesting the United States Congress to Propose Amendments to the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001. But in the Be it Resolved clause, it basically says, 'Be it resolved', and dot dot dot. And then it says, 'Congress is strongly urged to propose specific amendments to or recommend the repeal of the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.'

"There are several things that I'd like to comment on. One is although I agree with a lot that's being said in this particular Resolution, the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 actually served some good. And it's recognized, from what I spoke to one of the teachers during their union conference a couple weeks ago, that there was actually a resolution that the union was presented with, and it was repeal the NCLB of 2001. And it was voted down. They did not want the repeal of this Act.

"The other thing is some of it is confusing to me. Whether or not the it is the implementation of the Act, because they do give the State authority on a lot of items. For instance, meeting standards. Yes, you need to make these standards and the schools will be basically judged by meeting or not meeting those standards. But where the standards are, are determined upon each state. So that's something often that we talk about standards either being too high or not being able to meet them. But that is the implementation of the Act that the state has control over.

"There are other things that represent that as well. There's some flexibility from what I'm told on the federal level, but yet when it comes to the state level, it's almost like a blame game between the two. Either the feds, it was because they feds say that you have to do this, and then sometimes it's because of the DOE that you have to do this. So some of the things are very unclear to me. So I just wanted to reflect that I think that we could use the proposed amendments, some of which we've talked about a lot, whether or not you have everyone passing, but yet one special group or one of the subgroups may not be able to pass, whether it be Special Ed, or English as a Second Language. And it reflects off of the whole school "failing." So I think that we could use some amendments to NCLB. I disagree though, strongly, with the repeal of NCLB."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to echo some of the comments made by the previous speaker. She mentioned that in going and looking at the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 now six years later, we all recognize, on a bipartisan basis throughout all legislatures throughout the nation, we all recognize that there are some major fixes that need to be done to the No Child Left Behind Act. And I would also agree with her that we cannot repeal the NCLB law of 2001. In fact, the NCLB Law of 2001 is now the ESEA, Elementary and Secondary Education Act that Congress passes once every eight years.

"But moving forward, I think one needs to reflect on the history since 2001, and needs to be mindful of the fact that the Hawaii State Legislature in particular, this body in 2003 voted against the federal mandates of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001. We're actually, Mr. Speaker, the very first legislative body to take that bold step. And since then, numerous, I would hazard to guess a clear majority of the legislatures, throughout the nation now realize what we have said many years ago and that is that the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 not only attempts to address concerns on both sides of the aisle, but actually erodes some of the significant progress we have made over the years as it relates to education reform.

"I'd just like mention one other thing. In 2003, when we were discussing this particular issue, many of us felt that the mandates at the federal level coming down and reaching in to the states like Hawaii were intrusions on state's rights. And we wondered why there was so much emphasis at the federal level focusing on what they called, research base initiatives. And just recently in Washington Post, on Saturday, April 21st, there was an article and I'd like to insert the article in the Journal with your permission. The title of the article was, Key Initiative of No Child Under Federal Investigation. And the subtitle of this particular article reads, Officials Profited from Reading First Program.

"Mr. Speaker, I think once we get down to the 'nitty gritty' and the foundation of No Child Left Behind, which I think Congress is right now getting down to, we'll find that there's so many concerns and conflicts with this particular measure that you know we need to be wary as a state as we move forward. The last thing I'd like Mr. Speaker, is if I can insert additional written comments in support," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"I want to make sure that everyone remembers what was said on the Floor of this House just a few years ago. In 2003, when it was politically correct to support the Bush Administration's No Child Left Behind Law of 2001, we here in Hawaii took the bold step to point out the significant challenges that states would have in implementing this flawed piece of legislation. What follows is information that will shed some light as to how correct we were in our opposition to NCLB.

"Stand Up for Public Education wrote "Trends: What Legislatures are Doing and Why" in their August 29, 2003 issue. What follows is the blurb for Hawaii:

The passage of No Child Left Behind (NCLB) not only has had a major impact on local schools, but also has had a ripple effect in the various legislatures across the nation. Bipartisan concerns about federal intrusion, an unfunded mandate and possible erosion of existing state assessment plans prompted legislative activity from exhortatory resolutions to outright refusal to implement the law.

In each issue of The Leader's Edge, we provide a thumbnail sketch of the conversation and legislating that has taken place in response to NCLB in several of the nation's statehouses. This month's canvass stretches from Maine to Hawaii.

Hawaii: State Rep. K. Mark Takai, D-Pearl City, said that NCLB and its mandated tests will "reflect things the school has no control over," such as poverty and parental education, and is "truly unfair to our children and our education system." He noted that the state's top high school will fail under NCLB, because reading scores for the limited English proficient and disabled students were short of the NCLB target.

Takai has developed a school evaluation system that "uses business techniques to gauge progress on a weekly basis [that] motivates and creates an environment" in which improved learning can occur. Education, he notes, should not be "based on one test every year. You don't see the local gas station, the 7-Eleven or Safeway measure their success on one test a year."

Takai said that NCLB "is a recipe for failure" and that "its requirements will ensure that nearly every school in Hawaii and throughout the nation will fail in four years, if not sooner.

Based on these observations, Takai introduced a non-binding House resolution "urging the [state] board of education and the superintendent of education to decline any further participation in the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 and return all Title I program moneys conditioned on the implementation of the Act by the State of Hawaii.

After being amended to have the Board and Superintendent "consider" declining the funds, Takai's bill passed the House April 11, 2003.

"What follows now is a copy of a speech I made on the House Floor on April 2, 2003 for HR 118: "Urging the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Education to consider declining any further participation in the 'No Child Left Behind Act of 2001' and to return all federal moneys conditioned on the implementation of the Act by the State of Hawaii, unless Congress fully funds the act."

Before anyone accuses me of not supporting educational reform and making excuses for non-performing schools, let me say that I believe that all schools and all students must move forward . . . must perform better . . . and must make progress each and every year.

But, the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) is a recipe for failure. Not only is this law a huge unfunded federal mandate, but this federal law and its requirements will ensure that nearly every school in Hawaii and throughout the nation will fail in four years (if not sooner).

I call the No Child Left Behind Act, the Leave No Public School Standing Act, because in a few years and without tremendous intervention at the congressional level, it will label schools as failures . . . they will fail even if all progress indicators suggest that the schools are improving.

I have spent the better part of two years working with Mark Hunter, a banker from Tampa, Florida. Both Mr. Hunter and I developed the Hawaii Educational Performance System (HEPS). This program uses business techniques in schools to gauge progress on a weekly basis. Additionally, Mr. Hunter developed an econometric model that shows that there is a strong correlation between a school's performance on assessment tests and factors that are beyond the scope of the school and its personnel.

These factors that affect a school's performance include the attendance rate, the percentage of students on free or reduced lunch (disadvantaged), percentage of limited English proficiency students (ESL), percentage of students in special education programs (SPED), percentage of teachers with more than five years at that school, percentage of parents who graduated from college or had some college education, enrollment, and the suspension or discipline rate.

Mr. Hunter found a statistically-significant correlation between test scores and these "uncontrollables." As a matter of fact, Mr. Hunter says that if you provide him with the information on these eight uncontrollables then, he can predict the school's test scores within a few percentage points.

Why is this important? And how does this relate to the No Child Left Behind Act? Simply because the results of these high-stakes tests are what makes all the difference under this federal law. The results of these tests determine whether a school fails or succeeds.

Besides requiring states to mandate student testing, NCLB requires states to collect and disseminate subgroup results, ensure a highly qualified teacher in every classroom, and to guarantee that all students, regardless of socioeconomic factors, achieve a "proficient" level of education by the 2014-2015 school year.

When Congress passed this Act and President George Bush signed it on January 8, 2002, everyone believed that the federal government would provide the states with the necessary funding in order to carry out the purposes of the Act. However, this is not the case.

Although the federal government is expected to provide Hawaii with $35 million in fiscal year 2004 for NCLB, an analysis of the fiscal impact of NCLB by the Hawaii Department of Education indicates that the DOE will need an additional $176.3 million for FY04.

In FY05, the DOE anticipates needing an additional $260.7 million. In FY06, the shortage is $302 million. In FY07, the shortage balloons to $349.5 million.

Some will argue that we cannot afford to decline participation in NCLB because we will need to return all funding tied to the Act, which amounts to approximately $125.8 million in FY04. I say that we must consider returning this money because we don't have the $176.3 million in additional state funds necessary for the Act. We don't even have enough money to fund the department at 2002 levels. How can we expect to be able to afford an additional $349.5 million more for NCLB in FY07? This is simply ludicrous.

But what about the highly qualified teacher requirement? We only need to look at the headline in the Wednesday, March 26 edition of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin: "Higher standards put 1,453 substitute teachers out of work."

Under NCLB, substitute teachers are required to have a bachelor's degree. Failure to comply with this requirement will lead to a loss of federal funds. Hawaiian immersion programs and Hawaiian charter schools will be heavily impacted by this provision of the law.

The most egregious part of the Act is the requirement that all schools, including charter schools, must make "adequate yearly progress" toward achieving the target by the end of the 2013-2014 school year – that is, all students must meet or exceed proficient levels of academic achievement on required state assessments.

Under NCLB, schools deemed as failing for two consecutive years must facilitate student transfers to better schools – even those filled to capacity – and provide private tutors for students. If a school continues to be labeled as failing, then the school's principal and teachers must be replaced or the school must be reopened as a charter school.

The biggest challenge for our schools is that the law requires schools to raise achievement levels of students in each of five racial and ethnic subgroups, as well as among low-income students, those with limited English proficiency and special education students. If a school fails to make the established cut scores for any of the subgroups for two consecutive years, then the school is labeled a failure.

The surprising element of this law is that it makes no distinction between a school in a well-educated and very affluent community versus a school in an impoverished community. Both these schools have the same goals or cut-scores for reading and math (In Hawaii, the cut score requirements for this year are 30 percent proficiency for reading and 10 percent proficiency for math.)

In the Education Committee hearing, we learned about how two schools are beating the odds. Kauluwela Elementary School and Solomon Elementary School are the only two schools (out of more than 100 high-poverty schools statewide) that have met the state's requirements for four straight years.

David Rolf, a successful businessman who served on various state and national task forces on educational improvement, touted these two schools as "diamonds." Mr. Rolf says that the Legislature should support the NCLB "in light of the data now available here in Hawaii on the two high-poverty schools that succeeded."

I asked a very simple question to both Mr. Rolf and the DOE officials. The question: how did these two schools do in the Hawaii Content and Performance Standards II (HCPS II) State Test for the disaggregated sub-groups?

I regret to inform all of you that both schools failed the NCLB barometer. Although Kauluwela's students performed well as a whole for both reading and mathematics, students who were deemed not proficient in English failed the state standard.

For Solomon, the story is the same. Both Black children and those considered to be disadvantaged fell short of the state standard. So, even though Solomon's students overall performed above the state standard, the school failed under the NCLB report card.

One of the absurd requirements of NCLB is that the act requires all schools to test 95 percent of their students. According to one secondary school administrator, this requirement is "one of the ludicrous factors that make way to failure." She adds, "schools have very little leverage in conquering this problem when parents are not supportive."

Schools like Nanakuli High & Intermediate School, Kealakehe High School and Pahoa High & Intermediate School don't stand a chance because of this requirement. On any given day, these schools have only 76.7 percent (Nanakuli), 80.7 percent (Kealakehe) and 87.5 percent (Pahoa) attendance, respectively.

So what about our other schools?

Mililani High School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 7 percent of the disabled students and only 23 percent of the disadvantage students passed the reading section.

Roosevelt High School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 92 percent of the students took the test. (Again, the law requires a 95 percent test-taking rate else the school fails.)

Lahainalua High School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 28 percent of the students passed the reading section, and because no disabled students passed the math section.

Kailua High School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 28 percent of the disadvantage students passed the reading section, and because only 89 percent of the students took the test.

Ala Wai Elementary School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 9 percent of the ESL students and only 22 percent of the disadvantaged students passed the reading section and only 7 percent of the ESL students passed the math section.

Laie Elementary School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 29 percent of the Asian students passed the reading section.

Kapaa Elementary School: Fails the NCLB barometer because only 27 percent of the Asian students, 8 percent of the disabled students, and 24 percent of the disadvantaged students passed the reading section.

I feel sorry for schools like Linapuni Elementary School, Palolo Elementary School, Aiea Elementary School and Makaha Elementary School. In each case, they will never make the required "adequate yearly progress" (AYP) under NCLB because of the significant percentage of disadvantaged students (98.8 percent for Linapuni, 95.6 for Palolo, 87.1 for Aiea and 84.1 for Makaha).

Only 11 percent of Linapuni students passed the reading section (the state's requirement is 30 percent) and only 2 percent of the students at Linapuni passed the math section (the state's requirement is 10 percent).

Palolo's scores are even worse. Only 11 percent of the students passed the reading section and only 1 percent of the students passed the math section.

NCLB fails miserably for schools like Linapuni and Palolo because even if these two schools double their scores this year, they will still be labeled as failures. How can we sit here and support such a law that allows this?

Declaring an entire school a failure using only a single crude instrument – a test – is fundamentally unsound. The Congressional Research Service estimates that 90 percent of the schools in the nation will fail. I again say that in four years, nearly all schools in Hawaii will be labeled as failures by this federal law.

How will children react to being labeled as "failures?" In testimony presented before our committee, a student from Moanalua High School said that her principal predicts that her school will fail within six to seven years. Moanalua High School on numerous accounts has been touted as one of our successful schools. "To think that we may become a failing school is very disturbing," she said.

So I again ask: How will children, children living in our districts, and how will you as lawmakers react when our schools are labeled as "failures?"

We have some serious issues facing education in Hawaii. Without getting into too much more detail, I will end with a quote from an excellent principal in one of our elementary schools.

She says: "NCLB purports to be about caring about students, but I see it as about punishing schools and I very much resent the illogic that went into this legislation."

"If we can't help the U.S. Department of Education and the President understand that there is something fundamentally wrong with the premise of the NCLB law, then the option may be to refuse the money," she concludes.

NCLB will put the challenges we faced with Felix to shame.

I urge all of you to visit the schools in your district. I urge you to talk to the principals and educators in these schools. I urge you to understand the details of this unfunded federal mandate. I urge you to support these resolutions.

I apologize for spending so much time on this issue, but at the end of the day, it's about the children in the classroom who are ready to learn. To call these children failures is nothing short of criminal.

"Finally, I have included an article from the Washington Post. This article provides some insight into the decision-making process of the past and how people close to the Bush Administration may have benefited from the passage of NCLB."

"Key Initiative Of 'No Child' Under Federal Investigation
Officials Profited From Reading First Program
By Amit R. Paley
Washington Post Staff Writer
Saturday, April 21, 2007; A01

The Justice Department is conducting a probe of a $6 billion reading initiative at the center of President Bush's No Child Left Behind law, another blow to a program besieged by allegations of financial conflicts of interest and cronyism, people familiar with the matter said yesterday.

The disclosure came as a congressional hearing revealed how people implementing the $1 billion-a-year Reading First program made at least $1 million off textbooks and tests toward which the federal government steered states.

"That sounds like a criminal enterprise to me," said Rep. George Miller (D-Calif.), chairman of the House education committee, which held a five-hour investigative hearing. "You don't get to override the law," he angrily told a panel of Reading First officials. "But the fact of the matter is that you did."

The Education Department's inspector general, John P. Higgins Jr., said he has made several referrals to the Justice Department about the five-year-old program, which provides grants to improve reading for children in kindergarten through third grade.

Higgins declined to offer more specifics, but Christopher J. Doherty, former director of Reading First, said in an interview that he was questioned by Justice officials in November. The civil division of the U.S. attorney's office for the District, which can bring criminal charges, is reviewing the matter.

Doherty, one of the two Education Department employees who oversaw the initiative, acknowledged yesterday that his wife had worked for a decade as a paid consultant for a reading program, Direct Instruction, that investigators said he improperly tried to force schools to use. He repeatedly failed to disclose the conflict on financial disclosure forms.

"I'm very proud of this program and my role in this program," Doherty said in the interview. "I think it's been implemented in accordance with the law."

The management of Reading First has come under attacks from members of both parties. Federal investigators say program officials improperly forced states to use certain tests and textbooks created by those officials.

One official, Roland H. Good III, said his company made $1.3 million off a reading test, known as DIBELS, that was endorsed by a Reading First evaluation panel he sat on. Good, who owns half the company, Dynamic Measurement Group, told the committee that he donated royalties from the product to the University of Oregon, where he is an associate professor.

Two former University of Oregon researchers on the panel, Edward J. Kame'enui and Deborah C. Simmons, said they received about $150,000 in royalties last year for a program that is now packaged with DIBELS. They testified that they received smaller royalties in previous years for the program, Scott Foresman Early Reading Intervention, and did not know it was being sold with DIBELS.

Members of the panel said they recused themselves from voting on their own products but did assess their competitors. Of 24 tests approved by the committee, seven were tied to members of the panel.

"I regret the perception of conflicts of interest," said Kame'enui, former chairman of the committee, who now works at the department as commissioner of the National Center for Special Education Research. "But there was no real conflict of interest being engaged in."

The intricate financial connections between Reading First products and program officials extend beyond issues the committee explored yesterday.

Another researcher, Sharon Vaughn, worked with Kame'enui, Simmons and Good to design Voyager Universal Literacy, a program that Reading First officials urged states to use. Vaughn was director of a center at the Univesity of Texas that was hired to provide states advice on selecting Reading First tests and books.

The publisher of that product, Voyager Expanded Learning, was founded and run by Randy Best, a major Bush campaign contributor, who sold the company in 2005 for more than $350 million. Now Best runs Higher Ed Holdings, a company that develops colleges of education, where former education secretary Roderick R. Paige is a senior adviser and G. Reid Lyon, Bush's former reading adviser, is an executive vice president.

"I'm very disappointed and saddened by the information that was provided at the hearing today," said Lyon, who had been a strong defender of Reading First, which he said had nothing to do with his new job. "The issues appear much more serious than I had been led to understand."

Despite the controversy surrounding Reading First's management, the percentage of students in the program who are proficient on fluency tests has risen about 15 percent, Education Department officials said. School districts across the country praise the program.

Members of both parties continue to support the goals of Reading First even as they attack its management. Miller and Senate education committee Chairman Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) joined Republicans yesterday in pledging to tighten restrictions on conflicts of interest in No Child Left Behind.

Education Secretary Margaret Spellings, who declined to comment yesterday, has said management problems with Reading First "reflect individual mistakes." But Doherty said nearly every aspect of the program was carefully monitored by the department and the White House, where Spelling was Bush's top education adviser.

"This program was always firmly under the watch and control of the highest levels of the government," Doherty said."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker, in support of the Resolution. As you know, Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of repealing No Child Left Behind, but as the previous speaker said, that will not probably happen. It's up for reauthorization right now.

"If anyone has had the opportunity to read the No Child Left Behind Act, it was over 1,400 pages. It kind of reminds me of a badly written Russian novel. It's long, boring and in the end everybody dies. Just like with No Child Left Behind. In the end, the vast majority of schools in this country will not make AYP. And any policymaker that's worth anything will look in the mirror and say, 'Boy, should we pass a law that the vast majority of the very people, in this case, schools, that this is supposed to help are not going to make it?' You might want to reflect upon that and think of another law or at least amend the current law to help more schools succeed."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Any policy that is ever passed by any body always can be improved. Obviously, No Child Left Behind can be improved, but the option of throwing out the baby out with the bath, I think we have to stop there because I think we're in trouble as a country. Educationally we are slipping. We are fourteenth in math and science. We are becoming a Third World country in terms of our educational plan.

"What No Child Left Behind in its thrust was to get monitoring and accountability and raising the level up of who we are as a country. Because we were doing kind of 'Swiss cheese' approach. Everybody was doing higher or lower etc. And being that democracy is self-correcting, I think this is a process by which we are going through. But always being mindful that some of the greatness of America is education is the great equalizer. If we don't raise our standards, those people who are raised by education are going to be hurt by this.

"So for that sake, let's change it but let's not throw it out or think that there is a way that we can do it on our own. I don't think we see the global educational wave tsunami that's coming. I don't think we see the scores that are going exceptionally high in Third World countries and we are either level or lower. Mr. Speaker, there is a clear and present danger educationally for this country and I think this Resolutions says we can make it better. Well, let's not be fearful of making it better."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support. During the campaign, many people approached me about this issue. And I agree with the previous speakers who talk about trying to hold accountability and some kind of transparency and trying to get kids to achieve better. But I think we found that answer in the Charter Schools and the experiential learning that the Governor's been proposing through her STEM initiative as well. That type of learning is exciting. It gets people and kids engaged. And it makes them want to learn.

"Unfortunately, the No Child Left Behind as it's been implemented has become a rote learning to take a test. And it's taken up way too much time of the teachers and it punishes them for not being able to make that test. It's just the wrong way to go. It's been proven so far. So let's go the new way that's exciting and really gets kids to like learning."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, breast cancer is the most common cancer among American women and cervical cancer is the second most common cancer among women worldwide. These cancers are more deadly among low-income groups because they are less likely to have access to routine screenings. We all know that screening and early detection can be the difference between life and death. Through the Hawaii Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (HBCCCP), the Department of Health screens populations disproportionately affected by cervical cancer. Since its inception, DOH reports that "approximately 5,000 women have been screened; 126 breast cancers diagnosed and 90 pre-cancerous or cancerous conditions of the cervix diagnosed." Without HBCCCP, these cancers would have most likely been undetected and these women would probably have lost their lives.

"Unfortunately, this program is only funded through federal moneys which might begin to decrease in the future. This Resolution requests the Governor to establish a program to provide coverage of cancer screening for women fifty to sixty-four years of age who are low-income or have no or insufficient health insurance. Screening and early detection work and I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this Resolution. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and S.C.R. No. 213, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO FUND BREAST CANCER AND CERVICAL CANCER SCREENING FOR LOW-INCOME WOMEN IN HAWAII," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Cabanilla and Takamine being excused.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 23, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1956

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1956, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote."

The purpose of this bill is to add a new chapter to the Hawaii Revised Statutes that will cause Hawaii to join an interstate compact or agreement among the member states to award their electoral votes to the national popular vote winner regardless of the popular vote winner in each member state.

Under this bill, Hawaii's four electoral votes would be awarded to the presidential slate that receives the most votes as determined by the national popular vote regardless of which candidates won the popular vote in Hawaii. Given the potential under the interstate compact that Hawaii's electoral votes would be awarded in a manner that may not reflect the will of the majority of the voters in Hawaii, I believe that this bill is not in the best interest of the citizens of the State of Hawaii.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1956 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

ORDER OF THE DAY

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Tsuji, for the Committee on Agriculture presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2122) recommending that S.C.R. No. 193, SD 1, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 193, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong opposition. While I support my friends in agriculture, we must take heed of the call for sustainability. Livestock, historically, was responsible for the destruction of our native forest, and they continue to use more land and water than is sustainable. Methane released from cows is a major cause of greenhouse gas and meat consumption is a major cause of disease and obesity. For those reasons we really need to rethink our agricultural policies and really see how we can actually disincentivise livestock raising and move towards the real food that we need that's sustainable. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of S.C.R. 193, S.D. 1. Actually, on the Big Island, Parker Ranch, they've been raising cattle for many, many years. It's not known by many people, but during the Second World War, Hawaii cowboys were responsible for many, many, many pounds of beef going to the mainland. They helped to feed Americans when many things were being rationed. We were doing our part and I think that we should try to help and see that our cattlemen and farmers can compete and stay in business. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of parliamentary inquiry. Thank you. I believe that the Second Crossover for Concurrent Resolutions was yesterday."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Takai, I believe you are out of order. This particular Senate Concurrent Resolution was not amended. It is a Senate Draft which is in its original form."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 193, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING HAWAII'S CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION TO LEGISLATE A REDUCTION IN FEDERALLY REGULATED FEES OR AN EXEMPTION FROM FEDERAL STATUTES FOR TRANSPORTATION COSTS FOR LIVESTOCK FEED TO HAWAII," was adopted, with Representative Bertram voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

No. 31, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OPPOSING THE CREATION OF A NATIONAL IDENTIFICATION CARD AND THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE REAL ID ACT OF 2005," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

COMPENSATION FEES," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

Representative Morita, for the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2126) recommending that S.C.R. No. 53, SD 1, be adopted.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 164, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND TOURISM CONDUCT A STUDY TO CREATE A ONE-STOP PERMIT SHOP FOR RENEWABLE ENERGY PROJECTS," was adopted, with Representatives Cabanilla, M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 118, SD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm casting a no vote on Standing Committee Report 2129. Mr. Speaker, what this measure does is it requests the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the State Department of Health to pursue a global settlement of the wastewater issues. What it also does, Mr. Speaker, is undercuts a lawsuit that has been brought by the Sierra Club. The matter is in the courts now and I believe that that's the proper place for it to proceed. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations and possibly a no vote. Being in the Finance Committee, it's being referred to Finance, I will wait until then. But I just have some doubts as to the exemption that we may be asking for because we are the center of 7.5 million tourists. We know that our environment is our economy, and our economy is our environment. I'm not sure that if the attempt to get an exemption gets out, that it's going to be very good for us, but not only from that point of view, but from the general health of our people, our swimmers, our surfers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. At my law firm, I'm representing the citizen plaintiffs that are suing the City for the sewage discharges, including this 301H violation," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative B. Oshiro then asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with reservations. I don't think that we should be encouraging the EPA to renew the waiver. I think we have probably the only waiver. We have all kinds of states that are treating their sewage to a secondary level, and I think we have to do that. I'm not interested in seeing the City pay huge fines, but I think rather than the City fighting, and I'm not sure that this Resolution goes into all of that, but there is a way to settle with the EPA by making these improvements over time where the money doesn't have to be spent all at once, but move in the right direction to secondary treatment. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 118, SD 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY AND STATE OF HAWAII DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO PURSUE A GLOBAL SETTLEMENT OF OUTSTANDING WASTEWATER ISSUES WITH THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU, AND URGING THE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY TO RENEW THE 301(H) WAIVERS FOR THE HONOULIULI AND SAND ISLAND WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANTS," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, B. Oshiro and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, and M. Oshiro being excused.

At 12:19 o'clock p.m., Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:19 o'clock p.m.

Gov. Msg. No. 357, informing the House that on April 24, 2007, the following bill was signed into law, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

HB659 HD2 was enrolled to me on April 12, 2007. During the legislative process, the bill's effective date was amended from "upon approval" to January 1, 2025.

The purpose of HB659 is to recognize the importance of taro in Hawaii's heritage by designating the kalo plant as the official State plant. I agree that kalo should be designated as Hawaii's state plant and to preclude the necessity of having those who gave their time and effort to assure this bill's passage return next year to testify on a brand new bill, I am approving this measure.

I urge the Legislature to send me a bill next session correcting the effective date of Act 36.

Therefore, this is to inform you that on April 24, 2007, the following bill was signed into law:

HB659 HD2 A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TARO. (ACT 036)

Sincerely,
LINDA LINGLE"

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 24, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 863

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 863, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Work Projects."

The purpose of this bill is to mandate that a private construction project will be considered a public work project subject to chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes, Hawaii's Wages and Hours of Employees on Public Works law, if the State or a political subdivision leases or is assigned more than fifty percent of the project. Copies of the lease agreement must be filed with the Department of Accounting and General Services and the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

Additionally, this bill requires the construction project owner submit weekly certified payrolls to the leasing governmental agency or the governmental agency using the leased or assigned space which, for the purposes of chapter 104, shall be deemed the governmental contracting agency.

Finally, this bill requires that prior to the start of construction, the construction project owner sign an agreement with the leasing governmental entity agreeing to pay the prevailing wage to the laborers and mechanics working on this project and to otherwise comply with the requirements of chapter 104.

This bill is objectionable because it is an unwarranted expansion of the types of projects that could be subject to public works projects rules and statutes. Currently, section 12-22-1 of the Hawaii Administrative Rules defines a public work to encompass a private construction project when the State or a political subdivision leases the entire building or structure and where: (1) the lease was entered into prior to construction of the structure or building; and (2) the construction work was performed according to plans, specifications, or criteria of the leasing governmental entity.

Expanding public works coverage to mixed public-private structures may inject confusion and needlessly increase the associated building costs of a private construction project. Smaller owners in particular may not want to develop commercial space for lease to the government because of the additional burden of complying with unfamiliar labor laws. It is anticipated that this bill will also probably limit or reduce the number of office buildings that will be available for lease to government agencies. This bill may likewise impede the development of mixed use housing projects, wherein some of the units were for market sale or rental and others were leased to a public housing corporation for elderly, Section 8, or transitional housing.

Finally, because this bill directs that certified payrolls be submitted to either the governmental leasing entity or the governmental agency accepting the construction project and not to the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, this data will go to entities that have no authority to audit or enforce these payrolls, thereby inhibiting the enforcement of wage laws this bill attempts to impose on private projects.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 863 without my approval.

Respectfully,

LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

Gov. Msg. No. 361, transmitting S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 24, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1642

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1642, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Labor."

The reported purpose of Senate Bill No. 1642 is to establish clear distinctions between mandatory, excluded, and permissive subjects of collective bargaining by (1) allowing negotiations over the procedures and criteria on promotions, transfers, assignments, demotions, discharges, or other disciplinary actions and (2) subjecting violations of negotiated and agreed upon procedures and criteria to the grievance procedure contained in a collective bargaining agreement.

Rather than providing clarity, this bill would blur the delineation provided by existing law between matters that are subject to collective bargaining and matters that have been excluded from collective bargaining; including certain "management rights" such as determining criteria on promotions, transfers, assignments, demotions, layoffs, suspensions, termination, discharge or other disciplinary actions.

This bill is objectionable because it constitutes an unacceptable infringement upon management rights currently protected under section 89-9(d), Hawaii Revised Statutes. It attempts to overturn the case of United Public Workers, AFSCME, Local 646, AFL-CIO v. Hanneman [sic], 106 Hawaii 359 (2005), the Supreme Court of Hawaii case that held that the City and County of Honolulu's decision to transfer refuse workers from the Pearl City baseyard to the Honolulu baseyard was not subject to collective bargaining. The Hanneman [sic] case reaffirmed management rights as set forth in section 89-9(d).

This bill erodes management rights and, by allowing negotiations on the criteria management uses to act on matters such as layoffs, transfers, and assignments, it involves labor in the fundamental decision-making process of management. In permitting negotiations over assignments, this bill would adversely impact the employer's ability to make assignments of specific employees and groups of employees and hinder the delivery of services to the public.

This bill does not achieve its reported purpose, and only obfuscates the clear distinctions that currently exist between management rights and items that may be negotiable under collective bargaining. The provision added to section 89-9(d) by the bill stating that section 89-9(d) shall not be used to invalidate provisions of collective bargaining agreements in effect on and after June 30, 2007, could be interpreted to mean that the areas specifically excluded from collective bargaining pursuant to section 89-9(d) and the Hanneman [sic] case may be subject to negotiations by the parties to a collective bargaining agreement.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1642 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

No. 1709, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOPEDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Takamine being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 3 and S.B. No.946, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 946, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll try to keep this short. I am in opposition to Conference Committee Report No. 3. Mr. Speaker, I am being very consistent with my prior votes and being able to speak on the Floor on this particular issue. What this issue does is it permits drivers whose license has been administratively revoked for life to seek reinstatement of their license after ten years have passed since the lifetime revocation.

"It is with sadness that I actually am voting no and against this measure. The message is not, for me, in voting no saying that people cannot recover from alcoholism or drug abuse; that people shouldn't be forgiven for their actions that they have done against people or society prior in their lives. I believe very much that people can recover from that and be forgiven for those types of things. What I'm against, Mr. Speaker, is that if you have something like a lifetime revocation, that it is government saying that there are consequences to driving drunk. This is not a mistake. These aren't mistakes when you go out there and you accidentally drive a little bit tipsy after having a couple drinks, and you get caught one time and, boom. You have your license revoked. This is about having your license revoked after being caught at least four times.

"So what does that mean? When somebody drives drunk, every single time that they drive drunk they get caught? No. It means that the probability of them being out on the streets, driving drunk is more like ten, twenty, thirty, maybe forty times before they get caught and have a lifetime revocation.

"Mr. Speaker, there are consequences and I believe that we should stick to them. Life is tough. We talk about one part of the bill where it says you have to have a certification from a substance abuse counselor. At any one particular time after ten years of being sober, and I've talked about this before as well. Alcoholism, from almost everyone that I spoke to, they say that they are a 'recovering alcoholic'. So what does that mean? That means that the struggle is almost on a daily basis. I can't speak to the truth of that, but I can listen to the people who are recovering who say that. I can also say that it only takes one time. It only takes one time. Maybe a death in the family. Or maybe something that's really tough in their lives. They have the propensity to drink, and drink and drive, and they actually have to resist drinking and not all the time is that easy to do.

"I think the last time we brought this up and we debated on the Floor Mr. Speaker, it was about a pastor. A pastor of a church not being able to shepherd his flock, and my heart bleeds for a situation like that. But we are lawmakers making decisions on behalf of the whole of the State. I don't believe that we should be making or passing a law for one person. And I also don't believe that pastors should be exempt from making mistakes. Like they can't make mistakes. Like once you become a Christian or a believer then, boom you're healed. You're not going to make a mistake. I think coming from the Christian perspective we all know that that isn't true.

"I'm not saying that we should say that pastors should not be given breaks either. But what I am saying is, we're all human and I think that this type of law made for one person shouldn't affect the whole State in a negative way. One of the things that I think is very difficult to accept is after something like this happens, and should someone get killed upon having a lifetime revocation of a driver's license, who is to blame then? Basically, what I think is happening is it becomes our fault. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. Thank you. And I ask that the words of the Minority Leader be entered as my own. Thank you. I think she outlined pretty much my similar concerns, but I guess I did want to also reiterate that when I support or don't support something, I try to think about how would someone else feel? How would it be if I were in their shoes? And I think my conscience tells me that if someone were to have, and this is talking about people who might have four DUIs. If I were the family of the fifth DUI which resulted in injury or death, how would I feel? How would I feel about a lawmaker who allowed this sort of thing to happen?

"And it's real because we do have people who are struck down as a result of a DUI, a person under the influence. And additionally I've had a friend who's had a DUI. And it occurred to me that it was a very serious thing. When this person went through it, I could tell the gravity of the situation of this DUI and all the things. In other words our laws, I think, are very much clear on the importance of a DUI. So to me, someone who would go beyond and not change their behavior after one DUI, this is a different kind of profile of a person.

"And I think that we put our public in harm's way when we allow it, and I reiterate the words of the Minority Leader that I too am not about thinking that people cannot change their lives. I think most people, all people, are capable of that. But again, I reiterate that if I were the fifth, somehow related to the person of the fifth DUI or the next one, I just couldn't sit with myself."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I just wanted to counter some of the characterizations of this bill. One of the characterizations was that this is for one person. And I think that's actually very, very false. One person can often show us that sometimes our laws are too draconian and our laws may need to have some recognition that it went a little too far, well intended as it may have been when it was adopted. And I think this is one of those cases.

"This will not give any one person an automatic right to go back and get their license. What it gives them is the opportunity to prove that they deserve the chance to get that privilege. And that is what we're talking about. Really, it's a fundamental difference as to whether we want to have, as I've said many, many times before, a 'cookie cutter' approach to justice. Is there a 'one size fits all' for every single circumstance? Or are there occasions where we can find a genuine exception, such that someone deserves the right to have that accommodation? I think this is all we're trying to do in this case.

"And I think people really need to take a look at what this is doing because they need to show that they are going to prove that they aren't going to be infringing upon the violations again. And that is something that's very, very crucial. If you look on the bill page three, line number 21, what we're talking about, is the decision of the administration as deemed final. That's it. Too bad. Except that you can go and get judicial review. However, the burden for you to get that overturned is very, very hard. Under 29E-40, you basically have to show that it was arbitrary and capricious, exceeded constitutional or statutory authority, or was an abuse of discretion. All of those standards are very, very high standards to prove.

"So really what we're talking about is you get one chance. After ten years, if you can show that you were clean, you get one chance to go before the administrator to show perhaps you should be able to reapply for a license. And if you can show by a high standard of evidence that you are clean and sober, then you are given that chance. And I think this is all the bill does. It gives a person one chance and that is something that if we don't want to have a 'cookie cutter' approach to justice, it's something we should look at in this bill. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. Talking about the 'cookie cutter' approach. If we don't want the 'cookie cutter' approach, then why are we giving them one chance? That's like a cookie cutter approach. Instead of giving them two, or three, or four. We are just saying that we have different ideas on how we approach this subject.

"In regards to lifetime revocation, I'm sure, I'm sure if that person doesn't know the second time they're in court, the third time they're in court, that possibly at the fourth time or beyond that that they could get their license revoked, I believe in the system enough to know that they've been warned that they're going to get their license revoked.

There are many, many, many chances before you get to the fourth time. I'm going to reiterate. Maybe ten, maybe twenty, maybe thirty, maybe forty maybe a hundred times that you can go without very many consequences. This is after four times of being caught driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

"Mr. Speaker, still in opposition. I think that there are a lot of chances and sometimes in my personal experience I've seen people who have said you know we've recovered. We've done all of this type of stuff. We've been substance abuse clean and sober. The thing that doesn't sit with me is there's no way to prove that this person is not doing drugs or alcohol. That's the whole mystery part of it, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. You know, it saddens me to hear my colleague who is wearing all white today, looking like an angel, and doesn't realize that this bill is a compassionate bill. This recognizes the fact that we are indeed human and make mistakes. And some of us are parents in this room. And we know that a lot of times children make mistakes. They're humans. And people that drink, they make mistakes. They're human. And how can we say that four or five times is sufficient.

"You know, a wise man posed that question a long time ago, over 2,000 years ago. The question was, how many times shall I forgive? How many times shall I expect this person to do bad things to me? How many times? And the answer is, seventy times seven. That's an example that we should follow. That we should take a look at human frailties including drinking.

"I was a bartender for eight years and people enjoy their drink. It's legal. It has been the job for legislators before us to say that it should be illegal, but it's legal. And then the doctors came forward and stated not only is it legal, it's also a sickness now, when you have a certain condition where you love it so much that it causes you to be reckless and make bad decisions three, four or five times.

"But there are also laws that we created to make people more sensitive to others and say that it's legal all right, but you can't put yourself and other people in danger anymore. Here's a program. We fund programs for these people. We put them in the program to make sure they understand the consequence of their actions, in this case, drinking and driving.

"We stand here today and say that if we weaken this law, or if we take this law and allow a person that indeed can show in proof to the court that they have changed in their ways, that they're able to go on with their lives, make their lives better and other people's lives better, why not allow them this one chance. We should. This is a compassionate bill. Let's think this over. What we're doing here is to ensure that the policy that the State of Hawaii, the policy of this House, is to ensure that we don't close the door on anybody.

"We have other bills that we're looking at. We're considering. And in fact, it comes back over and over, where even murderers, rapists, and other criminals get a second chance. Now, somebody that does something legal which is drinking, consumes something legal which is alcohol, and then breaks a law, in so doing puts himself and others in jeopardy. But now this person is able to prove to himself, to his family and to the court that they have changed and they've become productive in the community, let's give that person a chance also. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the Committee Chairs who worked on this bill in Conference. It was a pleasant surprise for me to see this bill before us this morning and I really sincerely thank them.

"Before I came down, Mr. Speaker, I did make a telephone call to Pastor Jack Smith of the Church of the Nazarene in Wahiawa. And just to explain for the last time perhaps, just some history on the genesis of this measure. It's been with us for several years now and it did come through one person, that's Pastor Jack Smith. But he brought it to me not so much for his own self, but because there was a associate pastor of the Church of the Nazarene group who had recently lost his wife, and because of that not having a license was unable to attend to his duties, as the Minority Leader stated, to tend to his 'flock'. And so he has been, I believe, clean and sober for thirteen or so years, and we thought that he might deserve a second chance. So that's how this bill came about Mr. Speaker. But the bill before us that came out of the Conference Committee applies to more than just one individual or one occupation. It applies to all people in this State.

"The second point I need to make, Mr. Speaker, is that it depends on where you come from in these kinds of matters. I come from the belief that in some instances, drug abuse in a medical problem. Same for alcohol abuse. A medical problem. It might not always be one of will, but one of genetics or one of even organic deficiencies that cause a person to over-consume and abuse alcohol, or abuse illegal drugs. So that's my perspective, Mr. Speaker.

"A third point, Mr. Speaker, I believe that people can redeem themselves. I think each of us if you look into our own lives can find instances of making wrong choices and wrong decisions. But for people extending us some graces and allowing us a second chance, we might not be where we are today.

"So I think those three points I just want to touch on today Mr. Speaker, and ask that the words of the Majority Floor Leader and the Chair of the Labor Committee be adopted as my own. Thank you."

Representative Green rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I do recognize the need for compassion. There's no question about that and I commend all previous speakers for that position. I just think personally that enough is enough. It's very risky when people drive and drink, and the points are well taken that people deserve many chances to go on with life. I wouldn't want to incarcerate a person after making these mistakes once they've gotten clean, but I just can't possibly go back to some of my friends who have had family members who died at the hands of drunk drivers and tell them that I wasn't going to be extremely stern.

"I just think that possibly if the penalty does stay in the books, and people realize that they'll never be able to drive again, that may prevent a few people from, I guess refusing to go get help, to keep themselves clean. So I just err on the side of wanting people to never ever drive drunk."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, all behavior has consequences. Clearly it should be. But I think this consequence of a lifetime revocation is extreme. And so I've got my problem with the law itself, which in the context of the bill is seen, because a lifetime revocation is going above and beyond what otherwise could be maybe a ten years revocation. And if somebody killed somebody maybe you wouldn't be eligible for this one. Or if you did a whole series of consequential things that didn't even allow you to be looked at.

"In the Caucus we were talking about this and one colleague said that if you murder somebody, you get out in a few years and we know that recidivism is up to 66%. So these guys or gals are out on the street. Yet those who may have cleaned their life up are not allowed because of a lifetime revocation. So Mr. Speaker, I'd like to recommend to the Chair of Judiciary if they could look at this law next time around in the 2008 Session, to say that this lifetime revocation is too extreme and that's my reservation."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much for allowing me to say a few words on this measure. I speak in favor, of course, of this measure. Some of the Members of this very august body seem to be alarmed that they want to lessen a sentence, rather than keep a lifetime sentence. Well, they should be assured that this will not take effect for another year. At that point in time, they'll be developing the rules as to how this program will be administered. Next year we hope to have interlocking devices passed by this body hopefully, and that will be probably incorporated to allow someone to have their license back after a lifetime revocation.

"So if you look at this, as our good Member here had mentioned, we should have compassion. Sometimes when I look at the Members here, and not mention anyone or any Party, they need to develop a little heart inside here. That we're not only here to punish. We're here to rehabilitate. To help. Punishment is one of the items. But not the sole item. And you know how I feel about these lengthy terms. And how I feel about the 'three strikes'. And now we have a lifetime revocation. People who murder get only twenty years. Twenty years or less. They're out in five. Someone who has the misfortune of having a drinking problem gets a lifetime revocation with no reprieve, and yet you don't want to give them any reprieve at all. They should be getting a lifetime. This is the harshest penalty in the State that we have right now. It's even worse than the three strikes. Because it's for a lifetime.

"So all we're asking in this measure is that after a period of ten years, they have an opportunity to get their life back and they must have proven through all those years they've been sober, they've been diligent community people, they need to pass this test, plus they'll probably have an interlocking device in their car, and to give them a chance. Rather than to condemn them for life. And some of you must take pleasure in condemning people for life. Thank you very much Members. Think about having a heart and compassion as a Representative."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker, and I think this will be my last time standing. Number one, I just wanted to address what I consider an incongruent argument. The incongruence is murder, incarceration, privilege to drive, revocation of license. To me, they're not congruent. And at this point I'd like to adopt the words of the good Representative of Kona, the ER physician. It's not congruent. One, is a right. Driving is not a right. Driving, the last time I checked was a privilege. It's a privilege sometimes we deny to teenagers. Promise to our children, if you don't do this, you're going to take away, can't have the car keys. It is a privilege.

"There are a lot of people who don't drive by choice. I have a lot of friends, one in particular I won't mention who, she's very prominent, and the thing is I always see her coming home, and someone's driving her because she chooses not to drive. There are people who can't drive because of eyesight. There are people who can't drive because of age or infirmity or what have you. Driving is a privilege. Last time I checked when we want to even raise our children, we say, 'three strikes, you're out'. This is four or five times. And as the Minority Leader said, this is the times you were caught. Not the times that you drove drunk. So we're thinking about apples and oranges I think.

"Secondly, they're time bombs. You know, when are we going to learn that? I think my constituents want to see that we protect the public and I think that if you were to poll most people, they feel that our laws our more focused on the perpetrator than the victims. Once again, you talk about those who are victims of the crime, the families and whatnot. When are we going to start to focus on the victims? I think we do a lot for the belief in all that to try to help. You know how hard it is to even get a case to trial. Where's the equity? Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to a point of personal privilege, stating:

"Point of personal privilege. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You know, I totally respect the Chair of Labor, but I am offended that he brought into the language that maybe my outfit, in wearing all white today, is a symbol of being angelic. By no means do I feel like I'm above anyone else, or that I feel like I'm an angel. In fact, I do know that I don't belong to the angel level. I am human and I understand consequences, and I understand compassion, and I feel compassion. I just wanted to make that statement. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 946, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADMINISTRATIVE LICENSE REVOCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Green, Pine, Rhoads and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Takamine being excused.

H.C.R. No. 292, S.D. 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.C.R. No. 292, SD 1, be Adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I strongly support H.C.R. 292, which recognizes the Nuuanu-Liliha Historic Corridor.

"Historic corridors are geographic areas containing buildings, sites, objects, and vistas of natural, historic, geographic, or architectural significance. They are associated with persons or events important to understanding the history and culture of Hawaii.

"The Nuuanu-Liliha corridor uniquely reflects the three major eras of Hawaii's dynamic history, from pre-unification of the islands by Kamehameha the Great, to the monarchy period, and finally to the pre-Statehood era. The area houses one of only three royal palaces in the nation, as well as the location where King Kamehameha defeated his last opponent and unified the Hawaiian Islands. There are numerous sites that enjoy the distinction of being listed on either the State or National Historic Registries, or both, including the Queen Emma Summer Palace and Grounds, the Sanju Pagoda, and the Kawananakoa Playground. In addition to these iconic historic locations, Nuuanu houses the Walker Estate, built in1905, which features what is thought to be the oldest Japanese garden in Honolulu and is one of the last homes of its kind remaining in the area. Liliha is said to be the birthplace of Saimin, and home of the first L&L Drive-In, now a national chain, which opened on Liliha Street in 1959. Our very own Ellis Island, the area reflects all of Hawaii through its myriad of multicultural temples, its quaint "frozen in time" mom and pop stores from the 1940s and 1950s pre-Statehood days, and most obviously, some of the most important natural and cultural resources of our State and nation.

"The Chieftess Liliha, namesake of the Liliha area, bore tremendous influence upon the area's religious diversity. Liliha is home to many religious denominations, from the Ma'ema'e Chapel (1863) to the Young Buddhist Association (1900) to St. Luke's Episcopal Church (1903) to the Korean Christian Church (1918). Liliha reflects many of the State's health systems, with Kuakini Health Systems, St. Francis Medical Center, Rehabilitation Hospital of the Pacific, and almost two dozen additional medical clinics and therapy centers. The area houses four of the state's consulates.

"The purpose of this Resolution is to designate the Nuuanu-Liliha corridor as the Nuuanu-Liliha historic corridor. I ask your support for this Resolution, aimed towards the preservation of Hawai`i's unique cultural heritage."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.C.R. No. 292, and H.C.R. No. 292, S.D. 1, entitled: "RECOGNIZING THE NUUANU-LILIHA CORRIDOR AS THE NUUANU-LILIHA HISTORIC CORRIDOR," was Adopted, with Representative Takamine being excused.

It's someone that we all know and love, and that's Speaker Emeritus Joe Souki, who if you judge by his friskiness and his love of life, he's probably around the age of nineteen and twenty five. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I believe today is Administrative Assistants Day. And I just wanted to thank everyone working in that capacity here in the House, as well as the Legislature and in government. On behalf of the House and both Caucuses I'm sure, we thank them for all their hard work, especially the ones we have just in front of us, a whole bunch of people that we know we couldn't run the Capitol without them. Gov. Msg. No. 362, informing the House that on April 25, 2007, the following bill was signed into law:

H.B. No. 426, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PSYCHOTROPIC MEDICATION." (ACT 039)

The following message from the Governor (Gov. Msg. No. 363) was announced by the Clerk and was received for possible consideration at a later date:

Gov. Msg. No. 363, transmitting S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 25, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1063

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1063, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Legislative Vacancies."

The purpose of this bill is to require the Governor, in filling vacancies in the State Legislature and United States Senate, to select from a list of three names submitted by the political party of the former incumbent. Prospective appointees must have been members of the incumbent's party for at least six months prior to appointment, and incumbents who were not members of any political party could only be replaced by other non-party members.

The goal of the present law is to fill vacancies in the State Legislature and the United States Senate in a timely manner when such vacancies occur. These vacancies in elective office are appropriately filled by the Governor, who is elected by the public at large, and, as such, is accountable to the public. The process for filling vacancies in the United States Senate and the Hawaii State Legislature has been in place since 1970 and has not been shown to have compromised the integrity of the election process.

This bill places the ability for determining who may be appointed by the Governor with the political party leadership of the vacating office holder. This is in spite of the fact that these individuals are not elected by the public and, as such, are not accountable to them.

Additionally, the bill, without any stated rationale, narrows the field of qualified candidates that the political party can consider to those who have been registered members of that party for at least six months prior to the appointment. Such a provision fails to recognize that this may unreasonably restrict the pool of potential candidates as the majority of people who personally and philosophically associate themselves with a political party and vote along party lines may not meet this requirement.

The Governor's ability and responsibility to select the most qualified person to fill a vacancy should not be so narrowly restricted.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1063 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

The following messages from the Governor (Gov. Msg. Nos. 364 and 365) were received and announced by the Clerk and were placed on file:

Gov. Msg. No. 364, informing the House that on April 25, 2007, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 820 SD 1

On April 25, 2007, Senate Bill No. 820 SD 1 entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Developmental Disabilities" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to extend the repeal date of Act 303, Session Laws of Hawaii 2006. Act 303 established a pilot project to expand the residential options of individuals with developmental disabilities or mental retardation to allow them to live in a setting of the person's choice if it is determined that "the person can be sustained with supports, the supports are attached to the person, and adequate consideration and recognition is given to the person's safety and well-being." Act 303 is scheduled to sunset on June 30, 2008. Senate Bill No. 820 SD 1 extends this sunset date to June 30, 2009.

In Governor's Message 861 (2006), I expressed concerns with regards to Act 303. These concerns have not been addressed, and Senate Bill No. 820 SD 1 further extends the date of Act 303. Therefore, my concerns with Act 303 are applicable to this bill.

First, Act 303 does not state how the person's choice of residential setting is to be made and how the Department of Health (DOH) is to support the choice. Under the current system employed by the Developmental Disabilities Division (DDD) of the DOH, DDD assists clients to locate licensed or certified homes. This program creates uncertainty over the DOH's role in selection of these residential alternatives even though State money is spent supporting the individual.

Second, Act 303 does not specify how to determine whether "adequate consideration and recognition" has been given to the person's safety and well-being. Act 303 does not mention licensing or certification requirements, an omission that could lead to an interpretation that the program allows placement in unlicensed or uncertified homes. Allowing placement in unlicensed or uncertified homes poses a risk for the safety and well-being of persons with developmental disabilities or mental retardation because it is only through licensing or certification requirements that safety standards such as criminal history background checks of the home operator and periodic monitoring or unannounced home visits are maintained. Any program that purports to assist persons with developmental disabilities under the care of the State must include a degree of accountability within the system.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 820 SD 1 to become law as Act 40, effective April 25, 2007, without my signature.

Sincerely,
LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 365, informing the House that on April 25, 2007, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

RE: Senate Bill No. 95 SD 1

On April 25, 2007, Senate Bill No. 95 entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Vacant Positions in the Department of Education" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

Senate Bill No. 95 repeals Section 302A-1115, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which promotes decentralization and facilitates restructuring of the Department of Education. The Legislature granted the department this flexibility to reallocate existing vacant positions and resources in the State and district offices to the school level via Act 89, Session Laws of Hawaii 1996. Senate Bill No. 95 repeals this language with the justification that the implementation of Act 51, Session Laws of Hawaii 2004, as amended by Act 225, Session Laws of Hawaii 2006, and the weighted student formula makes 302A-1115 unnecessary.

There are two concerns with this bill. First, the weighted student formula has not truly been implemented, in terms of dollars and discretion reaching the school level. In school year 2006-2007 only 10% of the weighted student formula has been implemented. In school year 2007-2008, only 15% of the formula will be implemented. For fiscal year 2007-2008 the Department of Education requested an additional $20 million in funding to supplement "shortfalls" experienced by schools due to the 10% implementation of weighted student formula. Therefore, the argument that weighted student formula has rendered the decentralization and reallocation of vacant State or district office positions to the school level unnecessary is inaccurate because the weighted student formula has not been fully implemented. With the formula implemented only at 10%, there is no way to determine that this decentralization requirement is unnecessary.

Second, and more importantly, repealing this language allows the State and district Department of Education offices to keep their vacant positions and, in some cases, funding because the weighted student formula and Act 51 do not require the decentralization and reallocation of vacant State and district positions to the school level. On the contrary, under weighted student formula the school would be funding additional positions on their own through the per-pupil allocation, not by taking positions reallocated from State and district offices. Further, at this time the weighted student formula does not include State and district program funds, so none of this money currently goes to the school level. The Department of Education should not be allowed to keep vacant positions at the State and district office level, as well as the funding for these positions; these resources should be placed at the school level.

Therefore, for the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 95 to become law as Act 41 effective April 25, 2007, without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE"

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

April 26, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1816

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1816, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Historic Preservation."

The purpose of this bill is to require consultation with the Kahuna Nui of the Mo'okini Heiau before any alteration, improvement, or organized profit-making venture involving the Kohala Historic Sites State Monument can occur.

This bill is objectionable because it grants the exclusive right of consultation to only a single entity. This bill does not require consultation with other Kohala community groups such as the Kohala Hawaiian Civic Club, or other land owners and interested parties within the monument, including Kamehameha Schools and the Luhiau family, who has ancestral ties to the Kukuipahu Heiau. Neither does this bill provide for consultation with the Office of Hawaiian Affairs. The Kahuna Nui of the Mo'okini Heiau should not be given absolute consultation authority over the entire monument.

Generally, it is unnecessary to mandate consultation through legislation for historic sites. Currently, the Department of Land and Natural Resources consults with the Kahuna Nui of the Mo'okini Heiau for any alterations or improvements to this specific heiau. Additionally, the Department consults with interested community members and groups prior to alterations or improvements to the monument and any other State-managed historic sites.

Furthermore, the specific mandates in this bill are not clearly defined and may result in allegations of violations of the law. It is unclear what authority that the Kahuna Nui shall have with the consultations, there is no defined process for determining succeeding Kahuna Nui, or a contingency plan if a Kahuna Nui is not named or is not accessible for consultation, there is no process for dispute resolution, there is no clear definition of the properties involved under the purview of this bill, and there is no definition of "organized profit-making venture involving the monument."

Finally, this bill may be construed as special interest legislation for the Kahuna Nui of the Mo'okini Heiau on the island of Hawaii. This legislation could set precedent causing Kahuna Nui or other parties to seek legislation specific to other historic or culturally important properties. Consultation between the State and community interests should take place under existing laws and rules rather than be legislatively mandated on a case-by-case or an interest-by-interest basis.

The Department of Land and Natural Resources, the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, the Kohala Hawaiian Civic Club, and Kamehameha Schools expressed concerns with this bill and recommended the bill be amended to include other organizations in the consultation process, limit the consultation with the Kahuna Nui of Mo'okini Heiau, and better define the vague language of this bill. Unfortunately, none of the proposed amendments were adopted in this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1816 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 27, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 10

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 10.

This bill would mandate that pharmaceutical companies, which voluntarily participate in the Hawaii Rx Plus program, provide rebates in addition to the discounted prescription prices that the manufacturers already provide to enrollees in the Hawaii Rx Plus program. It also requires the Department of Human Services to disclose information on drug manufacturing costs.

This bill is objectionable because its enactment will likely cause voluntary participation in the Hawaii Rx Plus program by prescription drug manufacturers to end. Approximately 112,000 Hawaii residents participate in the Hawaii Rx Plus program. Low-income uninsured and underinsured residents who are enrolled in the Hawaii Rx Plus program and need prescription medications would be hurt by enactment of this legislation.

Second, this bill sets no mandatory level for the rebate. Thus, firms could make token offers and still be in compliance. Nor does the bill seem to recognize that the major reason why the rebates have not been successful is the limited volume of prescriptions written on a monthly basis under Hawaii Rx Plus.

Finally, the bill does not recognize the role the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services play in securing rebates for government-approved drug programs. Without the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' approval, the Department of Human Services does not have the ability to impose a meaningful penalty on the prescription drug manufacturers that do not provide rebates.

My Administration supports the requirement of rebates from drug manufacturers but believes the rebates must be implemented in an appropriate and effective manner. My office proposed House Bill No. 1359, which is currently being considered in conference committee. This bill consolidates the current Medicare Part D State Pharmacy Assistance program and the Hawaii Rx Plus program under a single comprehensive Hawaii State Pharmacy Assistance Program. Once the Department obtains approval from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services as a federally qualified state pharmaceutical assistance program, prescriptions purchased by Hawaii Rx Plus program enrollees will qualify for the same mandatory and supplemental rebates received by the Medicaid program. In addition, the market size of this consolidated program would be larger by the integration of the Hawaii Rx program into the State Pharmacy Assistance Program.

Should the Legislature send me a bill that incorporates a comprehensive approach such as that embodied in House Bill No. 1359, ensuring that the State has appropriate authority to secure pharmaceutical rebates and which will not discourage manufacturer participation in the Hawaii Rx Plus program, then I would be able to sign that measure.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 10 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/
LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

At 10:25 o'clock a.m., Representative Say requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:26 o'clock a.m.

Representative Say moved that S.C.R. No. 226 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservations on SCR No. 226. I just have short comments. I know that this has to do with the confirmation that did not happen, of the Director of DLNR. I've only read some of what went on and some of it had to do with an investigation that actually, Director Peter Young, requested on his own Department, the Bureau of Conveyances. I just don't want this particular Resolution to have any type of negative treatment, as if this were pertaining to him, when he was the one that actually initiated the investigation. That's all my comments are for. And I wanted to thank the Speaker for pointing out that we were taking this up at this time. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to disclose a conflict. The firm that I'm a partner in, one of their major clients is Title Guaranty & Escrow. They may be the subject of this Resolution. Two of my former partners are General Counsel and Associate General Counsel over at Title Guaranty, and many of the family members that own that company are close personal friends. I believe I do have a conflict."

The Chair then ruled:

"You may be excused."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"I would like to disclose a conflict. It's a conflict between what the people of Hawaii wanted and what the Senate wanted. And now what is resulting is this. When you throw mud, you're going to get mud back in your face. Mr. Speaker, this is with great reservations …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. He's not asking for a ruling on a conflict. He's giving a speech."

Vice Speaker Karamatsu: "Madame Clerk, could you check the statement, the last part of the statement? Thank you."

At 10:29 o'clock a.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:31 o'clock a.m.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand corrected. I should not have stood on the basis of a conflict of interest. I should have said that I stand with strong reservations because this measure is in conflict with the will of the people of Hawaii who wanted Peter Young reappointed, and with which now he has initiated an investigation, which now we are going to have our fingerprints on, and the mud by which we are throwing at this issue is going to come back upon us. That was what I previously wished to state. Thank you very much."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some reservations. Just a couple of reservations, the first one being that procedurally, I do have some concerns when we pass substantive resolutions like this, this one being a Senate Concurrent Resolution that did not have full debate and discussion through our Committee process.

"And, number two, I think that this particular measure, based on what I know about it, will convene an investigative committee with full subpoena powers. A Joint Investigative Committee, both House and Senate. And if you take a look at the Constitution, I think the Constitution already provides the Senate with subpoena powers and the ability to do this.

"I go back a few years ago when we had the Special Joint Investigative Committee on Felix, and that took a lot of time and energy and that was a Joint Committee, but we fully supported it and it was endorsed by everyone from the start of the Session, I believe. And as we moved through, we understood that we had to move on this jointly. I just think that the Senate has been wrapped up in this issue for quite a while now. We haven't been privy to much of the discussion and I don't necessarily think that we have to be dragged into this, as well. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to express my grave reservations, as well, and have them based on much of what the prior speaker just said. I am disturbed that we have not had a hearing on this side so the public could weigh in on this. And I am afraid that it may be an after-the-fact vendetta from the Senate. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have reservations based on a number of the arguments of the previous speaker from Kailua. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. The title of this investigation seems to be dealing just mainly with the problems at the Bureau of Conveyances, which has been a longstanding problem. I've got some concerns about the makeup of the Investigative Committee and I hope that the Minority will have sufficient membership on that so that we'll have some kind of balanced representation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations, Mr. Speaker. I apologize. I only got to the bottom of page 2. At the bottom of page 2, I'm quite disturbed by the last paragraph, and I don't like its implications and how it reads. It says:

> Whereas, despite the ongoing investigations by the Department of the Attorney General and Ethic Commission, the Legislature is highly concerned with the security of these recorded documents, private computer access and potential tampering of these documents, as well as the overall personnel and fiscal management of the Bureau of Conveyances.

"Basically, this paragraph reads to me that this Legislature does not trust the ongoing investigations of the Department of Attorney General and the State Ethics Commission to keep these documents private. I just wouldn't want to see this Legislature passing resolutions with this type of language that basically says our intentions that we really don't trust these investigations that are going on. I think that's just wrong. I do understand the concern. However, I do believe that the Attorney General and the State Ethics Commission are positions of honor that we have placed in the State of Hawaii, and I think just with that paragraph alone, the tone of this Resolution is very insulting."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly. I think I need to counter some of the characterizations of this Resolution. Everybody knows who anybody who has done transactional work with the Bureau of Conveyances knows that it's a very problematic system, and that's been ongoing for several years. It's not necessarily attributable to one director. I don't think we're pointing fingers. But what we really need to do is realize that there is a huge backlog at that Department. It is dysfunctional.

"The Land Court and the regular Bureau of Conveyances often have this turf battle going on between them. And, really, we need to make sure that our system is going to be sound, because what this is talking about is the clearness of title. It's making sure that people, when they have their property, are assured that whatever is recorded is proper and that it's clean. That is a primary purpose, I think, of why we need to do this Resolution and Investigative Committee.

"Now, I think, some characterizations have been made that we don't trust the Attorney General or the Ethics Commission. But I think that's actually an overbroad statement because what we are doing at the Legislative Branch is making sure that if there are policy needs that have to happen, if there are additional resources, if there are changes to the law, if there are actual overarching core functions that need to be changed, then that is something the Legislature needs to undertake, and we will only be able to do that if we really spend the time and investigate this.

"As one person who had been on the Felix Investigative Committee, I can tell you that the tone and tenor of a hearing, when you have the subpoena power, when you have people testifying under oath, is dramatically different than anything you can do during the Legislative Session or interim, when people are just sitting there and giving their information. That is what we need if we are going to get to the core root of the problem. We need to have people in front of us accountable answering under oath, knowing that their testimony will be recorded and may be used against them if they are providing false statements. That is the kind of information we need if we are going to fix this system. Thank you very much."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak with some reservations. First of all, I think we're all aware that for years the Bureau of Conveyances has been understaffed and as legislators, including me, we supported taking money away from the Bureau of Conveyances for our special projects. The money from the conveyance tax originally was supposed to be for the Bureau of Conveyances, to support the Bureau of Conveyances. We've been tapping them all these past years for special projects and so they find themselves without sufficient staff.

"Now, of course, they could come back to the Legislature and ask for additional dollars, which I really don't know whether they did or not, but it's not because we weren't aware of the problem. So in some respect, we are culpable in the problems that we have there, and this is just kind of an 'eye opener' for the Members here. Sometimes if you point fingers, you'd better look at yourself. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as the good Representative from Maui, as the keeper of the culture reminds this body, that there have been more egregious difficulties, a need for investigation in the past. For example, at the airport. Millions of dollars were missing. It makes the charges for this look petty, but there was no investigation. So, why now? Why are we rushing? When, in fact, why are we putting this issue at the forefront of the agenda. We haven't even had introductions yet.

"So, there seems to be a rush to make sure that we get this out front and center, that we made an investigation after going against the will of the people, and not appointing Peter Young to the Department of Land and Natural Resources. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition. I've heard all the discussion and this is the first I've actually seen of it this morning. It just seems there is already an investigation going on. And I agree with the Representative from Wailuku that a lot of this is our own doing. It should really be left to the investigation that's already taking place and let them find out what's going on and then we could take the next steps, which could be, hopefully, giving them more money and more support. And, so, I rise in opposition."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I also have some serious reservations about the Resolution and would like to take the words of the speaker from Maui and the speaker from Pearl City as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Responding to the Representative of Queen's Gate. Maybe we should have investigated some of the things that went on at the airport, but just because we didn't investigate it when we should have before, it doesn't mean we shouldn't investigate now.

"The allegations that have been made are very serious and if this body doesn't step in and do something, along with our Senate counterparts, I think we're falling down on our duty and I support this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Nishimoto rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Takai and Souki be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I am with reservations. The recent confirmation hearings in the Senate for the Director of DLNR were conducted with sometimes inappropriate decorum. I felt that it was more like an inquisition than a hearing. I have no strong opinions about the wisdom of the proposed Investigative Committee, but rather question the timing—are we giving our approval to bad behavior of a legislative body by joining?"

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also vote aye, with reservations, and would like to have the words of the Chairman of Transportation taken as my own. This has been a longstanding problem. It's been decades. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to the discussion, I'd like to change my vote from with reservations to a no vote. The power in this Resolution is quite strong. And in regards to the process, I'd rather have it that we have had a full discussion on this prior to today."

Representative Wakai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to change my with reservations vote to a no vote as well. And for the record, I would like to state that I represent the area from Hawaii Kai to Kalama Valley, and not Queen's Gate, as the gentleman from the Chinatown does not represent Hotel Street. He represents Downtown. Just for the record, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson rose, stating:

"I'm glad I'm the last person to stand up and so I'll make it very short. This is a very important Resolution. Whether we vote yes or no, the Senate's going to go through with this. I think it is incumbent upon us as the other half of the Legislature to participate; to at least be there and take part in the process.

"If you read the Resolution carefully, there's goals stated in there what we need to accomplish, and I think that we need to be there, whatever process that the Senate's going to go through to achieve these goals and we have not said our piece. Like the Chair of Education once said, 'If you are not at the table, you are part of the menu', and I wouldn't want the Senate to be looking at me in that manner. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.C.R. No. 226 entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING A JOINT SENATE-HOUSE INVESTIGATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE SECURITY OF RECORDED DOCUMENTS, PRIVATE COMPUTER ACCESS AND TAMPERING OF SUCH DOCUMENTS, AND THE OPERATIONS AND MANAGEMENT OF THE BUREAU OF CONVEYANCES," was adopted with Representatives Bertram, Finnegan and Ward voting no, and with Representative Caldwell being excused.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"As you know, the Senate President and the Speaker waived the Friday midnight deadline for the filing of Committee Reports and Conference Drafts for certain measures which were agreed upon in public on Friday evening. I want to take this opportunity to explain the procedural reasons why these reports and proposed drafts were not filed on Friday night, and the reasons why the President and the Speaker waived the deadline.

"Back in January of this year, the Senate President and the Speaker prepared an internal legislative timetable setting April 27th as the last day to file fiscal bills for constitutional decking purposes prior to Final Reading. On April 4th of this year, the President and the Speaker signed Conference Committee Guidelines that provided in paragraph 11(c) that all Conference Committee Reports for fiscal bills should be filed by 11:30 p.m. on Friday, April 27th.

"However, several measures were being negotiated up to the last few minutes before midnight on Friday night. Several Conference Committees, even though they had reached agreement on the substance of their measures, did not have time to prepare and adequately review the Conference Reports in final form of the Conference Drafts prior to the filing deadline. Therefore, the President and the Speaker exercised their powers in Rule 13 of the Conference Committee Guidelines for an exception to this deadline for these measures, which were agreed upon in public. They allowed these measures to be filed with the respective Clerk's offices prior to 12:00 noon, Saturday, April 28th.

"The President and the Speaker felt that since the Conferees had reached timely agreement on the bills allowing these measures to die based on an internal procedural deadline for filing the requisite paperwork with the Clerk's office in each Chamber was not in the best interest of the people of Hawaii. Rather, they felt it important to exercise the discretion that the guidelines gave them to waive that deadline and insure that important initiatives, such as tax relief, dam safety, children's health care, and the future of Kahuku Hospital would reach the Floor of both Chambers for Final Reading as the Conference Committees intended.

"I wish to emphasize that previous Legislatures, when facing similar situations in the past, have followed the same procedures we will be following on these measures. The Conference Reports and Conference Drafts for the measures received by 12:00 noon on Saturday, April 28th, are listed on today's Supplemental Order of the Day. Please note that these measures and any floor amendments appropriately offered and acted upon today on these measures will receive the required 48-hour notice in final form as required by the Constitution and will be before this Chamber for Final Reading on Thursday, May 3rd.

"The Chair will now entertain any floor amendments to any item listed on the Supplemental Order of the Day."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143 and H.B. No. 1292, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 152 and H.B. No. 1757, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, C.D. 1:

At this time, Representative Souki offered Floor Amendment No. 19, amending H.B. No. 1757, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, C.D. 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 1757, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, C.D. 1 (RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION), is amended by amending section 2 to read as follows:

"SECTION 2. Chapter 237, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"§237- Exemption of sale of alcohol fuels. (a) There shall be exempted from and excluded from the measure of the taxes imposed by this chapter all of the gross income or gross proceeds arising from the sale of alcohol fuels, as defined in subsection (b), for consumption or use by the purchaser and not for resale.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "alcohol fuels" means neat biomass-derived alcohol liquid fuel or a petroleum-derived fuel and alcohol liquid fuel mixture consisting of at least ten volume per cent denatured biomass-derived alcohol commercially usable as a fuel to power aircraft, seacraft, spacecraft, motor vehicles, or other motorized vehicles.

(c) A producer, wholesaler, or retailer of alcohol fuels shall pass any savings realized from this exemption on to the end consumer. Any producer or wholesaler who violates this subsection shall be subject to a fine of $100,000. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a violation of this subsection shall be deemed an unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of and enforceable under chapter 480.

(d) The director of taxation shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91 necessary to administer this section."

At 11:48 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:49 o'clock a.m.

Representative Souki moved that Floor Amendment No. 19 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, this bill needs to be amended to remove all references to 'profit' that you have in the prior draft of H.B. No. 1757 on page 4. The word 'profit' in there would give an implication of the gas cap, where anything above the June 30th profit area would be suspected of going beyond the exemption that we are providing, and they could then be subject to a penalty of $100,000. So this measure would clear that up and would remove all references to 'profit' in this measure."

Representative Yamashita rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict? I am a partner in a gas station that sells alcohol fuels," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with … it's not a reservation. A question. As long as we're not doing price fixing and we're taking profit out of the context of then not passing it on. I hope that we're passing on, or something in the Committee Report makes it very clear that this is not going to be where 'profit' becomes a bad word. And corporations that do make a profit will hire people, and are not going to be maligned by this. My point being that if we're 'word-smithing' with an amendment, that we do it carefully, and that we not do it in such a way to denigrate the word, 'profit'. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Please state your position, Representative Ward."

Representative Ward, stated:

"In support, with reservations."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I believe to the contrary. The removal of the word, 'profit' is to provide for the dealers to continue to earn as much profit as they can. The word, 'profit' in the bill right now would provide for a mini gas cap. It would mean if you go beyond the profit in the future, then you will be suspect and subject to the fine. That's one of the reasons. And this is to help the business person, my friend, and not to hamper their ability to make a profit."

Representative Ward, rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a rose by any other name. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of the amendment. I did receive numerous e-mails. The original language was fairly problematic and it set up service station owners to be very defensive. To me it looked like they could be found guilty of not passing on the savings just by a slight difference in the price. So I think that this will take care of that problem. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 19, amending H.B. No. 1757, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

At 11:53 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No 19 was adopted, and that H.B. No. 1757, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 176 and S.B. No. 1931, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1

At this time, Representative Takumi offered Floor Amendment No. 16, amending S.B. No. 1931, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1931, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1 is amended by amending sections 1 and 2 to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. (a) There is established an educational workforce working group within the department of labor and industrial relations for administrative purposes only. The chairperson of the workforce development council or the chairperson's designee shall convene the first meeting of the educational workforce working group no later than August 1, 2007, at which time the members shall select a chair, to examine and address the following issues:

(1) How well the workforce needs of Hawaii are currently being met;

(2) How prepared the State is to meet the workforce needs of the future;

(3) What recommendations can be made to improve Hawaii's educational system to fulfill the workforce needs of the future;

(4) What is the current relationship between the public schools and emerging industries;

(5) What percentage of high school students participate in any form of vocational or professional training outside of the school setting;

(6) What aspects of high school curriculum, standards, and assessment strategies have a direct relationship to the State's future workforce needs;

(7) What are the challenges or impediments to creating a more direct relationship between schools and economy- driving industries of the State;

(8) How might autonomous schools-within-schools, magnet schools, specialized schools, and charter schools be better used to create more direct links between high schools and economy-driving industries of the State; and

(9) How might the size of public schools, the distribution of discretionary funding, the decentralized authority of school community councils or charter school local school boards, and other organizational reforms be better used to satisfy the workforce development needs of the information and technology age.

(b) The educational workforce working group shall submit a report on its findings and recommendations regarding the issues set forth in subsection (a), including any recommendations and proposed legislation, to the legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of the regular session of 2008.

(c) The membership of the educational workforce working group shall be as follows:

(1) Two representatives appointed by the president of the senate;

(2) Two representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives;

(3) The director of business, economic development, and tourism or the director's designee;

(4) The superintendent of education or the superintendent's designee;

(5) Two representatives from the University of Hawaii system; provided that at least one shall be the chancellor of a community college;

(6) Two high school principals appointed by the superintendent of education from the high school principals leadership group;

(7) The executive director of the Hawaii P-20 council or the executive director's designee;

(8) The chairperson of the workforce development council or the chairperson's designee;

(9) The president and chief executive officer of Enterprise Honolulu or the president and chief executive officer's designee;

(10) The president of the Hawaii Science and Technology Council or the president's designee;

(11) The president and chief executive officer of the Hawaii Community Foundation or the president and chief executive officer's designee; and

(12) The executive director of the Honolulu Community Action Program or the executive director's designee.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $25,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008 for the educational workforce working group.

The sum appropriated shall be expended by the department of labor and industrial relations for the purposes of this part."

Representative Takumi moved that Floor Amendment No. 16 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. This is a technical, friendly amendment that was suggested by the Senate leadership. It merely changes the expending agency in this bill from the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, to the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think this is a bit more than a technical, nonsubstantive amendment and I rise in opposition. Having sat through the testimony, hearing the Department of Labor saying that they don't want it, and DBEDT is the more logical, professional, competent and qualified area to do this, I am rather surprised that suddenly this would appear on the Floor as a technical, nonsubstantive amendment. Unless, of course, DLIR has contacted us or somebody or someone can state that they have agreed to do this, because the consensus was this is DBEDT's baby. It's the best thing that they could do because they have the wherewithal, not only professionally, but the machinery, and the mathematical techniques that are needed for this.

"So, I really question how this can be a technical, nonsubstantive, friendly amendment, and just because the Senate did it, doesn't mean that we should agree with it. So, I take this as very suspect and without the agreement or the consensus of the Departments in this State. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Yes, just in opposition, Mr. Speaker. I'll have to concur with the previous speaker. It is not a technical amendment, and the reason I'm opposing this is because it really didn't go through the correct process.

"Just for the information of the body, what happened in this process was that on March 22 at 8:30 a.m., there was a Joint Committee on Labor and Public Employment and the Economic Development and Business Concerns Committee. And on that day, the Director of DBEDT had said repeatedly, he has been asking this Legislature to please put this Council into DBEDT. He felt that with all the new things we're doing here at the Capitol with economic development and combining with the workforce, it was the best merge for this to happen. And so all the members of the Committee on Labor and Public Employment and the Committee on Economic Development and Business Concerns voted aye. There were no reservations or noes.

"This also passed out in the Finance Committee, as well. It also passed out in Final Reading, as well in this form. And so, now, in the eleventh hour, after it also passed out of Conference Committee despite all these people voting in favor in keeping this in the DEBDT Department, now we're changing in the eleventh hour as a technical amendment. I just have to disagree with that, and that's why I'm voting no."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, based on the comments from the previous two speakers, I will be voting no on this amendment. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you. Similar comments. I'll be voting no based on the arguments that were set forth by the Representative from Ewa Beach. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you. Please note my no vote, Mr. Speaker. I do feel that the proper department to be guiding this along is the department that is looking into the future for this. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on the proposed floor amendment, and the Chair "so ordered."

At 11:58 o'clock a.m., Representative Sonson requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:04 o'clock p.m.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to also cast a no vote for the reasons expressed by my colleagues. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 16, amending S.B. No. 1931, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING EDUCATION," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no.

At 12:04 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No 16 was adopted, and S.B. No. 1931, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 310, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 (RELATING TO TECHNOLOGY), is amended by adding a new section 3 to read:

"SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $50,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008 for the purpose of supporting the work of the Hawaii broadband task force established in section 2.

The sum appropriated shall be expended by the office of the auditor for the purposes of this Act."

Representative Caldwell moved that Floor Amendment No. 20 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I offer this amendment. It's a technical amendment providing for a $50,000 appropriation out of the general fund. Simple as that. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 20, amending H.B. 310, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TECHNOLOGY," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

Representative Caldwell moved that Floor Amendment No. 21 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"This is another technical amendment. It increases the expenditure ceiling to $500,000. That's it. Technical. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to disclose a potential conflict. My daughter is the Director of the Office of Planning," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 21, amending H.B. No. 1270, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE PLANNING" was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

Representative Tokioka moved that Floor Amendment No. 22 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, thank you. I think with all of the deliberation that we've had on this one particular item, I think everybody who has gone through it realizes that this piece of the bill is a vital part of it. I think all of the Members who were involved in it from one side or the other feel that this is an important item. I'll just go over the proposed revisions as briefly as I can, Mr. Speaker.

"What it does, what it requests to do, is to change the Board makeup. And what this will do for the regional system in the City and County of Honolulu, it will change it from one member to two members. In the regional system on Kauai, it will change it from one member to two members. In the regional system of Maui, it will change it from one member to two members. In the regional system from East Hawaii, it will change it from one member to two members. In the regional system of West Hawaii, it will change it from one member to two members.

"Four at-large members will be deleted, and the 13th and 14th members will be physicians. And the final member, Mr. Speaker, will be a member designated by the Director of Health as an ex-officio voting member.

"This also, Mr. Speaker, gives the Board a lot more autonomy and it also gives them a waiver of the procurement process. So, that's the amendment, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much."

Representative Herkes rose, stating:

"I believe the amendment also changes the effective date."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It sounds like this would make the Board a more equitable representation calling for two from each regional district, and I'm glad to see that.

"But, on the other hand, I must rise in opposition because these 10 or 11 amendments were laid down on our desks. We convened about 20 minutes ago and we have not had time to adequately digest these amendments. True, some were technical, but on the other hand, this one, No. 22, is a 97-page bill, and just the enumerated descriptions runs to at least four pages, five, maybe six. It's a little too much to digest too quickly, and for fear of voting for something that I do not know what it's about, I must vote no. Thank you very much."

At 12:11 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:12 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then stated:

"Members, we are going to take a recess and have lunch until 1:00, for Minority Members and also Majority Members. So, recess subject to the call of the Chair."

At 12:12 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:15 o'clock p.m.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"I'm rising in opposition to this amendment. The way these amendments have been made, it would be changing the way the Board members are selected. It takes the Governor entirely out, then it asks the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate to come up with names within fifteen days of the effective date of this Act.

"It appears that the intention is to get rid of the Board members that are there now as soon as possible and put in people that are of the liking of the Legislative leaders. I don't see that that's an improvement to the underlying bill. Of course, I have a problem with the underlying bill as well, but I will be voting no on this amendment."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is a good bill, but with a bad way of getting around. What is good about it in that it has pushed people on both sides of the issue time, and time again. In the eleventh hour, when we did the Conference Committee on Friday night, came in controversial. Now here we've got another amendment on top of that amendment which is eleventh hour. I'm not sure whether we know where we're going, or we're not sure what we're supposed to be doing, or who's driving this train, but it seems to be getting worse rather than better.

"And my suggestion is that the latest is, the Governor's not very happy with even this change and I think we're, the three branches of government, have to be somewhat in a consensus with what we're going to do with it because it's all of our hospital system.

"So with that, I would hope the good Representative who's led this charge and defended the faith of the HHSC will say a few things. And I don't mean to put him on the spot, but probably the most authoritative speaker on this is Dr. Josh Green. And I yield to him if he would be so kind to say something."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment with reservations, stating:

"I guess I've been called out a little bit. Thank you, though. I stand up in support with reservations of the amendment. I think there are some good things that are happening with this amendment. I do appreciate the work to get equal representation from every region. I think that's very important as we proceed toward Regional Boards. I do reserve final judgment on the bill until Thursday.

"I'm just not positive if the pace is right, getting to this end that we do want, which is local control for all of the regions. That's what, I think, matters to me most. So I do want to see the good work that everyone's put into this to yield that fruit, which is a safe and productive health care system that doesn't have any major problems in its transition. So I will be thinking a lot about this bill in the next 48 hours, and so I'll be voting with reservations on the amendment recognizing the good work, but also still looking at the whole to see if it's going to improve matters. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I fluctuate between going with reservations and no, but I'll go ahead and say no. The reason why I'm saying no is, there's a slight possibility that I may not be here on Thursday to actually see the outcome of the amendment and get some feedback. But this particular issue has gone from being a good bill, to a not so good bill, and it really is putting HHSC as our State system for hospitals, which is a huge decision that all of us have to make. And going back and forth between whether or not it's good for the system.

"Mr. Speaker, the direction that it's heading is probably better, but I have to admit that the process was one of much confusion, with the allowances that both the Senate President and the Speaker had made because of course, this is a difficult bill. So it went to the last hour. But through that there were different, aside from the actual amendments that you see here, or the amendments that ended up on the website, that there were other amendments floating around which we tried to keep in sync with.

"So at this point in time, it's such a confusing issue on whether or not the words are representative of keeping the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation in a good situation to not hurt other hospitals or our Statewide system. I am very much for local control, but I do think that as we move forward that it deserves more open debate. Because of the many changes it makes it difficult to decide on this particular bill. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this floor amendment. Thank you. I wanted to first of all thank the Representative who introduced this particular floor amendment for at least addressing some of the concerns raised after the Conference Committee deliberations and the report out as CD 1. However, I cannot support anything right now in terms of a floor amendment if I don't support the underlying bill.

"And I know the discussion for the underlying bill will come up on Thursday, but it doesn't make sense to me at this point if I am going down on the underlying bill, that I support this floor amendment. So to be consistent, and I'm not reserving my final vote to Thursday. I'm already going to vote down on the final bill. So to be consistent, I will have to not support this floor amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. My vote is no."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, in strong support. In response to one of the earlier speakers, we know exactly where we're going with HHSC. We're trying to get local control over the hospitals and I represent two of them in the System. The Big Island has five of them.

"There have been numerous problems over the years with the management of HHSC. It's got a bloated bureaucracy here in Honolulu. By statute, I think that they're supposed to be limited to thirteen people here, and they've got over a hundred. For example, Kona Hospital was charged for an attorney and they didn't even know it. HHSC has five attorneys and one of the problems that the hospitals have is, they don't get any financial reports. They have absolutely no idea what their operating costs are.

"Over the years we've had numerous people within the system asking to be anonymous, complaining about the CIP that's going to hospitals that the hospitals don't want or need it. I know of a CFO at one of our hospitals that was discharged. She was discharged because she wouldn't falsify documents. She wouldn't falsify an overstatement of revenues. In order to shut her up, they gave her severance on the condition that she sign a letter of confidentiality. That's happened two or three times. The HHSC Board allows the Chief Executive Officer to spend up to a half a million dollars without prior approval.

"Look at the abuses that the Legislative Auditor has pointed out on the procurement side. The month before they were brought in, kicking and screaming, to the procurement system, they extended the contract with Clinical Labs for five years. That's millions and millions of dollars without any consideration of going to bid at all.

"Mr. Speaker, I could talk about an hour on the irregularities in the current management of HHSC which includes their Board, because they don't seem to want to take control of it. A few years ago, there was some question about the amount of money that goes to the HHSC. And as a Big Island group when we went around the island, we were followed by HHSC people, demanding the release of the money, although there were very serious concerns about that funding. I was going to speak to the Kona-Kohala Chamber, and a member of the HHSC Board, in front of two other people, told me that if I did not support HHSC's funding, that he would start a grassroots campaign against Representative Takamine and myself.

"Talk to the Legislative Auditor sometime. She's still trying to do the audit for HHSC for this year, which is due Friday and they won't give her the figures. She'll probably get the figures Thursday which is not appropriate. Talk to her. Go back and read some of her audits about HHSC and the irregularities that have been going on for years. It's high time that we put some control into the local level into the hospitals themselves, and it's about time that we have a new Board controlling HHSC. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. May I have the comments of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as if they were my own? And I'd just like to say from our perspective, we only have one hospital in Maui and that's it. You know, as one of those people who are trying to facilitate a hospital or a facility in West Maui where there's only one road to the third largest generator of TAT revenue in the State, it is crucial we have some sort of local autonomy.

"I hear all this, 'Well we're in strong support of local control, but … We don't … You know …' It's lip service. Do you not trust us? Do you not trust us to run our own hospital? Do you not trust us to be able to handle our decisions locally to do what's in the best interest of our people? We'll never get a second hospital. We'll never get a West Maui facility unless there's some sort of local autonomy that allows our people to do that.

"And from my perspective, this isn't a condemnation of the State system. It's an improvement. That's all it is. It's an improvement. Representation is fair and equal. I want to thank the introducer of the floor amendment for really 'beefing up' this regional Board system so there is equal representation. And all we're asking for is your support, especially from those in Honolulu who have many facilities to go to, to basically let us survive. To let us improve our healthcare system. So our people don't have to be turned away at the waiting room, Mr. Speaker. If the good Representative from Kihei was here, he could tell you the story of a lady who was turned away with her husband from the emergency room, and how her husband died.

"This is a crisis now in Maui and all we're asking for is the ability to be able to basically take control of our decisions and to improve our local system until we can meet these healthcare needs in these areas. So anyway, I hope we can support this because it's not about a battle. It's not about vindication. It's simply about local control, decision-making and the Neighbor Islands. And we desperately need this. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. At my law firm, I represent HHSC on procurement matters," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising with reservations and plan to do a lot more studying of this issue before Thursday. I just wanted to comment. Doesn't the same thing, the local control, apply to our schools? Thank you."

Representative Sagum rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to disclose a potential conflict. I am on the HHSC Management Advisory Committee for Kauai. Thank you," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Green rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm an ER doctor on the Big Island," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with some reservations on this measure. While I recognize and support adding another Board member for the Kauai region, giving the smaller regions an equal footing in the Corporate Board, I appreciate that. But I do have some concerns which relate to the underlying bill about the Board's structure and I think the 'proof is in the pudding'. That we need to ensure that we have good Board members that understand the role of the Corporate umbrella, and that the whole situation doesn't devolve into the regions competing and fighting against each other for limited funding. So I do have grave concerns about that, but again it all depends on who are the members selected on this Board."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Second time in opposition. I just had to add a little bit more to my argument. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. HHSC, you know, there's always two sides of every story and sometimes when you're at the Capitol, there's all kinds of allegations which are sometimes it's hard to confirm. I think we have the responsibility of taking it slowly and making sure that we understand that different allegations can be proven.

"HHSC has had a financial audit and has already had one for this year by an outside firm, Deloitte and Touche. This is the ninth consecutive clean audit. And when we talk about these kinds of things, and with no material weaknesses, so what I want to say about that is just basically, we have this other outside audit that has been done. I'm not saying that you go and you just believe everything that they say, but you cannot discredit that. And you have to take all of this information and say if you're going to make such a huge decision, that you take into account all of these different types of information and you move forward with that. I think from testimony that we received from other islands, even though they are against, even though they are in support of adding equal representation to the Corporate Board or the Regional Board, I forget which one, but they also said that they believe that this is premature; premature for the system as a whole.

"So in regards to that, I still stand in opposition Mr. Speaker, and I'll be looking forward, should I be here on Thursday, to complete the discussion.

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on the proposed floor amendment, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. I am a former Board member of the Board of HHSC," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"I rise in opposition and I'd like to adopt the comments of the Representative of Pearl City and make a few comments as well. I'm very concerned that the way that these amendments have been brought to us, the way that the CD 1 was brought to us at the 11th hour does not provide the transparency that we need for this process. This question of the State hospital system is far, far too great with its fiscal implications and the implications it has for individual patients on all islands. And I'm always reminded by the fact that yes, I'm a Representative of my district, but I am also a statewide Representative.

"So as I stated, I would like to adopt the words of the Representative from Pearl City, and I have serious concerns about the underlying bill. And I'm in opposition to this floor amendment."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm just very concerned because I don't think I have all of the information that I need to make a correct vote on this. I need to talk to more people and I'd like to find out more about what has been said in allegations and such. So at this point because it is an important decision, I do have to register my no vote."

Representative Tokioka rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Because of the discussion on the concern with the last minute amendment. The amendment was drafted and presented because of the concerns from many, many people who came to the meetings with the Health and Human Services Committees, and in Finance, that they wanted more representation. When they saw the first draft, they didn't feel comfortable with that. So as far as transparency, the amendment came from those discussions.

"There was a comment that was made about the Board members and the community hospitals being able to talk to the Legislature, and to lobby for their hospitals. From my understanding, they have a gag rule and they're not allowed to talk to us. And I think that's a concern. That's a big concern. You know, we have hospitals on Kauai and my question was, 'Have you come to us with your list?' Well, they can't do that. So this gives them more autonomy at their level, Mr. Speaker.

"Another concern I have is, I'm not sure, because this is my first year here, but I'm not sure if any particular hospital has lobbyists that come that we give money to, to lobby for and against the things that we do here at the Legislature. And that's part of this package and that's part of the concerns from many in this Legislature.

"So thank you Mr. Speaker for the second opportunity, and I ask for everyone's strong support."

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise again in opposition. And I just wanted to mention a few things on the debate in Second Crossover. I made mention about breaking up the State system and empowering regionals. And I know that there's tremendous concerns on the Neighbor Islands and the rural communities regarding the lack of adequate representation and the lack of decision-making authority that they feel they don't have right now under the current structure.

"But I also mention that my biggest concern is that we need to go back ten years ago to look at why we created the HHSC. And the reason was, we were bleeding. We were bleeding red. Big red. And I'm just concerned as we move forward what we're going to see ten years from now. And I don't want to have a situation where ten years from now, the Legislature, whoever's still here, regrets this decision because there are some efficiencies in a Statewide system that need to be preserved and protected. I submit to you that I think this proposal and the underlying measure is, once again, going down this slippery slope of empowering these regionals, but at the same time destroying the efficiencies of the State system.

"I know someone brought up the idea of local School Boards and whatnot, and in the discussion on Second Cross, I brought up the discussion that we've had on numerous occasions, regarding the University of Hawaii system. There's a reason for keeping systems like this intact, and I think we need to focus on that and realize that this is so important to us as lawmakers. What is the concern with moving a little bit more slowly on this, taking a look at it and not relying on eleventh hour decisions or floor amendments today to fix a bill that many people had major concerns on? Why don't we take a step back and review this, and work on it through the interim and come back with a much better proposal. I'm just really concerned about what we're trying to do and what this will mean to the State of Hawaii in the next few years."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a few more comments in the opposition. In consideration of the slippery slope of autonomy, it's also has occurred that we are as elected Representatives. We are not lobbyists. But I can see the 'food fight' if these become regional corporations. I want for my island, my money for my hospital. and competing with the rest. I fear that that could be a very negative development for what otherwise is a systemwide, islandwide system by which we all are pushing for. Of course, if we just want to empower the Neighbor Islands, that's another issue.

"But I think this is putting too much on Neighbor Island Representatives and having each of their hospitals come in to do the Finance Committee testifying, going in to the Health Committee and testifying, that is going to be a considerable amount of confusion, one competing against the other, etc. And someday those are going to be represented by the Minority Party, and some of these we know by CIPs and other things are not very well funded. And do we want to have a hospital system so politicized? Polarized according to your party affiliation depends on how much money you get to fix your wing that's deteriorating, or that it is eaten by termites. I don't think we want that, Mr. Speaker. That's just another caution about empowering people and turning elected Representatives into lobbyists."

Representative Caldwell rose to call for the question, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I call for a question. We've had a lot of debate on this. We're just talking about the amendment now. We're going to have the vote on the main bill on Thursday. So I call for the question."

Representative B. Oshiro seconded the motion, and the motion to call for the previous question was carried.

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 22, amending S.B. No. 1792, S.D. 3, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION" was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives Belatti, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Takai and Ward voting no.

At 1:39 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 22 was adopted, and that S.B. No. 1792, S.D. 3, H.D. 3, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

ORDINARY CALENDAR

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 22 and: S.B. No. 1803, SD1, HD1, CD1:

At this time, Representative Herkes offered Floor Amendment No. 14, amending S.B. No. 1803, SD1, HD1, CD1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1803, SD1, HD1, CD1, is amended by amending section 1 to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. Section 431:2-201.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (c) to read as follows:

"(c) All group health issuers shall offer all small group health plans to all small employers whose employees live, work, or reside in the group health issuer's service areas; provided that the commissioner may exempt a group health issuer if the commissioner determines that the group health issuer does not have the capacity to deliver services adequately to enrollees of additional groups given its obligation to existing employer groups[~~.~~]; and provided further that the commissioner shall exempt from this subsection group health plans offered to small employers that employ only one employee, if the group health issuer offers the small employer groups at least one small group health plan that meets the requirements of chapter 393, and upon the determination by the commissioner that the group health issuer has the capacity to adequately deliver services to enrollees of the additional groups, subject to its obligations to existing employer groups.""

Representative Herkes moved that Floor Amendment No. 14 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, these changes are operative language changes. It's a friendly technical amendment made by the House and Senate leadership. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. It might seem odd to vote against a friendly technical amendment Mr. Speaker, but I don't believe and I don't think ever do we actually consider changing, 'may' to 'shall' as a technical amendment throughout the Session. A lot of people actually throughout the Session get really, really upset about the difference between 'may' and 'shall'. Say if we did that with our prisoners reentering into the community and we told the Public Safety Department that they 'may' do some of these things. There's a big difference between 'may' and 'shall'. And that's why I'm standing up in opposition for this particular amendment.

"This amendment basically changes 'may' to 'shall', and previously when we had offered an amendment on this particular bill, in the past, we basically said there's an insurance company and they're doing some good for small companies or sole proprietors. They're offering some benefits and they call it, 'bundling', putting in different kinds of insurance into one bundle or package that the sole proprietor or small company can purchase. When you do that, there are times when you're actually going against our laws that we have in existence today.

"What this does is it says that the Commissioner shall exempt from this subsection. And it basically says he doesn't have to determine on whether or not you should or shouldn't be exempt from the law. It says that he has to exempt an insurance company, and that's where I would say I am against this floor amendment. I liked it better the way it was, to have the Commissioner take in the information and basically say yes, no, or I think there's legitimate reason, instead of just doing a blanket. And then again, if it does pass this way, it does end up being a solution for maybe just one company, which I've been pretty consistent in saying that we not do something for just one person, not for one company, and trying to stick to making laws that are more beneficial to the whole. So Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure."

Representative Herkes rose to respond, stating:

"In support. The amendments have the Insurance Commissioner's support. This bill applies to all health insurers. We took out the requirement of 30% of the business, so it applies to everybody who's in this business. Thank you."

Representative Green rose in support of the proposed floor amendment and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Green's written remarks are as follows:

"Approximately 10% of Hawaii's population are medically uninsured. A significant portion of the uninsured are workers not covered by Hawaii's pre-paid Health Care Act, particularly self-employed workers. It is estimated that about 11,950 self-employed workers are uninsured.

"The Hawaii Uninsured Project also reports that approximately 13,300 part-time workers and 46,500 self-employed workers currently have health insurance. Many of these workers are subscribers of individual plans provided by Hawaii's insurers. Because individual plans and group health plans with one or few number of employees are not part of larger employee pools, health insurance premiums for individual plans are generally more expensive than large group health plans. Larger employee group health plans are able to more effectively spread the health risk amongst their employees to better manage the cost and administration of coverage. The cost of health insurance, particularly for self-employed workers, single employee corporations or partnerships, and small business group health plans with few number of employees are of significant concern to Hawaii's business and general community.

"One of the reasons for higher premiums of individual plans results from impediments to insurers more cost-effectively combining various health-related benefits under the same policy. Although at least one small insurer has combined benefits under a single policy for seventeen years, the Hawaii Insurance Commissioner has recently chosen to interpret Hawaii law as prohibiting combining different types of health and sickness insurance benefits within the same policy. The Insurance Commissioner's position will necessarily increase costs that will be passed onto consumers through increased premiums.

"It is the goal and intent of SB 1803 to expand access to health insurance by allowing broader coverage for less cost. SB 1803 targets coverage to self-employed workers and businesses with one or few employees. It is the Legislature's intent to encourage the existing practice by smaller accident and sickness insurers to "bundle" different classes of insurance, such as health, dental, and vision together, thereby continuing the historical acceptance of this practice by small insurers who lack coercive power in the marketplace. In these circumstances, bundling provides broader healthcare coverage in single unified policies, ultimately resulting in lower overall premiums, fostering greater competition within the Hawaii insurance marketplace, and providing consumers with greater flexibility, coverage and pricing options."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The word I got was the Commissioner did not like 'shall', and on that basis I'm voting no."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on the proposed floor amendment, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 14, amending S.B. No. 1803, SD1, HD1, CD1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE" as put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan and Meyer voting no.

At 1:46 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 14 was adopted, and that S.B. No. 1803, SD1, HD1, CD2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 43 and S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

At this time, Representative Finnegan offered Floor Amendment No. 17, amending S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 1066, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 2, Conference Draft 1 is amended by amending Section 1 to read as follows:

"§150A-A Inspection, quarantine, and eradication service fee and charge. (a) There is imposed a fee for the inspection, quarantine, and eradication of invasive species contained in any marine commercial container shipment, foreign or domestic, that is brought into the State. The fee shall be computed on the basis of $1 for each twenty-foot equivalent unit per container. The department shall collect the fee at the port of disembarkation and deposit the fee into the pest inspection, quarantine, and eradication fund under section 150A-B.

§150A-B Pest inspection, quarantine, and eradication fund. (a) There is established in the state treasury the pest inspection, quarantine, and eradication fund, into which shall be deposited:

(1) Legislative appropriations for inspection, quarantine, and eradication services;

(2) Service fees, charges, and penalties collected under section 150A-A;

(3) Federal funds received for pest inspection, quarantine, and eradication programs;

(4) Grants and gifts;

(5) All interest earned or accrued on moneys deposited in the fund; and

(6) Any other moneys made available to the fund.

(b) The moneys in the pest inspection, quarantine, and eradication fund shall be expended by the department for the operation of pest inspection, quarantine, eradication, and monitoring programs, related facilities, and the execution of emergency remedial measures when pests are detected in the course of inspection and quarantine activities by the department."

Representative Finnegan moved that Floor Amendment No. 17 be adopted, seconded by Representative Meyer.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Some may say that introducing this floor amendment is quite silly being that it won't be adopted in the Senate, and therefore you must vote for the underlying bill so that it can pass through and be sent up to the Governor. I would like to argue that we have a responsibility in the House to make sure that we pass out a bill that is a good bill, or at least that is a bill that has some action to it.

"This bill currently is defective. The reason why it's defective, I'm sure all of you have already been told, is that we impose a fee for inspection, and then we ask the Department to collect the fee, and then it said it needs to be deposited into the Pest Inspection Quarantine and Eradication Fund. Pest Inspection. And then it goes and says that there's going to be established a Pest Control. I'm not sure if I got that backwards. I'm sorry, I'm reading the amendment.

"But basically what it is, is we're putting in the money into a special fund and say it's called special fund A, and then we establish special fund B. So basically, if we're collecting the money, we're supposed to put it in special fund A, that doesn't exist, and then we establish special fund B. I say that at least we can say that we're offering an amendment that corrects that problem and if it kills the bill because it's not the same language as the Senate, we can say that we didn't pass out a defective bill.

"What we're doing now is we're saying yes, we agree. It's a defective bill, but we're going to let it pass so that the Governor can veto it for whatever, because we can't do anything with the bill anyway. So the reason why I offer this amendment is probably to make a statement that we should do our job and stop a defective bill from moving forward when we see it. So Mr. Speaker, I offer this amendment and I hope to get the support on our Floor."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in opposition. We hear the Minority Leader loud and clear. We are concerned, Mr. Speaker, that this would kill the bill, and our goal is to get a good bill up to the Governor, as good as possible and hope that she will not veto it and allow it to go into law. They can start to implement this program, which is a very noble program. I think everyone on this Floor would support it in terms of protecting our islands, our environment from invasive species by assessing a fee of one dollar, or two dollars, depending on the size of the container.

"I think the language is clear enough for the Executive to understand what we're trying to accomplish here, and that in the long run, it's better to get a bill up than to come back next year. Thank you very much, and I encourage everyone to vote this amendment down."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 17, amending S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INVASIVE SPECIES" as put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry, with Representative Green being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 67 and: H.B. No. 964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1:

At this time, Representative Sonson offered Floor Amendment No. 13, amending H.B. No. 964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 964, House Draft 1, Senate Draft 2, Conference Draft 1, is amended as follows:

1. By amending the definition of "substance abuse on-site screening test" in section 1 to read:

""""Substance abuse on-site screening test" means a portable substance abuse test that meets the requirements of the United States Food and Drug Administration for commercial distribution [~~and is approved by the director for such pre-employment screening.~~] or is manufactured by a facility that is minimally certified as meeting the ISO 13485 standard established by the international organization for standardization and which may be used by an employer in the workplace."

2. By renumbering the second section 3 as 4, and section 4 as 5.

Representative Sonson moved that Floor Amendment No. 13 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. This is another technical amendment. What happened is that the bill that was decked, the CD 1 that was decked, did not represent the agreement of the Conferees. Some language was omitted.

"If you take a look at the floor amendment, starting on the fourth line, it starts, 'substance abuse test that …' in the definition of 'substance abuse,' it omitted this particular portion stating, '… meets the requirement of the United States Food and Drug Administration for commercial distribution'. So we're reinserting that language into this CD 2, which corrects the problem that occurred. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in opposition to the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"I rise in strong opposition. I understand the idea of the amendment and I appreciate what they're trying to do, but the underlying bill is onerous. It's also defective in the sense of still trying to weed out certain people because of certain drugs that they may or may not have taken. So the whole idea is that we need to get away from this whole thing, rather than find how we actually chase down the culprits. We're changing it from a 'rope around the neck' to maybe a 'nylon around the neck,' but it's still the same. Thank you."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 13, amending H.B. No. 964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUBSTANCE ABUSE" was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representative Bertram voting no.

At 1:54 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 13 was adopted, and that H.B. No. 964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

At 1:54 o'clock p.m., Representative Herkes requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:55 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 96 and: H.B. No. 928, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1

At this time, Representative Shimabukuro offered Floor Amendment No. 15, amending H.B. No. 928, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 928, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by amending section 4 to read as follows:

"SECTION 4. Section 346-53, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (c) to read as follows:

(c) The director, pursuant to chapter 91, shall determine the rate of payment for domiciliary care, including care provided in licensed developmental disabilities domiciliary homes, community care foster family homes, and certified adult foster homes, to be provided to recipients who are eligible [~~either~~] for Federal Supplementary Security Income[~~,~~] or public assistance [~~in accordance with state standards~~], or both. The director shall provide for level of care payment as follows:

(1) For [~~those~~] adult residential care homes classified as facility type I, licensed developmental disabilities domiciliary homes as defined under section 321-15.9, community care foster family homes as defined under section 346-331, and certified adult foster homes as defined under section 321-11.2, the state supplemental payment shall not exceed [~~$621.90; and~~] $641.90;

(2) For [~~those~~] adult residential care homes classified as facility type II, the state supplemental payment shall not exceed [~~$729.90.~~] $749.90; and

(3) For skilled nursing facilities and intermediate facilities, the state supplemental payment shall not exceed $20.

If the operator does not provide the quality of care consistent with the needs of the individual to the satisfaction of the department, the department may remove the recipient to another facility.

The department shall handle abusive practices under this section in accordance with chapter 91.

Nothing in this subsection shall allow the director to remove a recipient from an adult residential care home or other similar institution if the recipient does not desire to be removed and the operator is agreeable to the recipient remaining, except where the recipient requires a higher level of care than provided or where the recipient no longer requires any domiciliary care."

Representative Shimabukuro moved that Floor Amendment No. 15 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a friendly technical amendment made by the House and Senate leadership. According to DHS, this is necessary for the personal needs allowance because not every recipient qualifies to receive the full $50 depending on their income sources. The State payment portion could be less than $50. So it's a technical amendment that is needed."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 15, amending H.B. No. 928, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOCIAL SERVICES" was put to vote by the Chair and carried.

At 1:55 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 15 was adopted, and that H.B. No. 928, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 100 and: H.B. No. 1004, H.D.2, S.D.1, C.D.1

At this time, Representative Caldwell offered Floor Amendment No. 23, amending H.B. No. 1004, H.D.2, S.D.1, C.D.1, as follows:

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 1004, H.D.2, S.D.1, C.D.1 (RELATING TO CONSUMER ADVOCACY), is amended by amending section 6 to read as follows:

"SECTION 6. There is appropriated out of the public utilities commission special fund the sum of $30,000 for fiscal year 2007-2008 and the sum of $30,000 for fiscal year 2008-2009 to be deposited into the compliance resolution fund."

SECTION 2. House Bill No. 1004, H.D.2, S.D.1, C.D.1 (RELATING TO CONSUMER ADVOCACY), is amended by amending section 9 to read as follows:

"SECTION 9. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $100,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008 for research and support services necessary to protect Hawaii consumers by developing additional deterrents for identity theft, and in particular those related to the compromise of electronic data and information, and social security numbers in public records.

The sum appropriated shall be expended by the office of the auditor for the purposes of this part."

Representative Caldwell moved that Floor Amendment No. 23 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, very briefly this is another friendly technical amendment agreed to between House and Senate leadership. What it does is it appropriates $100,000 in general fund money, and not Compliance Resolution Fund money. That's it."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 23, amending H.B. No. 1004, H.D.2, S.D.1, C.D.1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER ADVOCACY" was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representative Say being excused.

At 1:57 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 23 was adopted, and that H.B. No. 1004, H.D.2, S.D.1, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 114 and S.B. No. 148, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 148,S.D.2,H.D.1,C.D.1 (RELATING TO INCOME TAX CREDIT), is amended by amending section 1 as follows:

"SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Article VII, section 6, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii requires the legislature to provide a tax refund or tax credit when certain factors are met. The legislature finds that these factors have been met for the second year in a row and that the legislature is constitutionally required to provide a tax credit or tax refund to taxpayers.

$20,000 and over but under $30,000	120
$30,000 and over but under $40,000	110
$40,000 and over but under $50,000	100
$50,000 and over but under $60,000	90

Representative Caldwell moved that Floor Amendment No. 24 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the proposed floor amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support. This is a technical amendment suggested by the Department of Taxation to clarify the language in the bill. A lot of it is some technical language by Tax, from Adjustable Gross Income, to Adjusted Gross Income. Also, it is clarifying and strengthening the residency requirement and other items."

The motion that Floor Amendment No. 24, amending S.B. No. 148, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME TAX CREDIT" was put to vote by the Chair and carried, with Representative Say being excused.

At 1:59 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that Floor Amendment No. 24 was adopted, and that S.B. No. 148, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 2, would be placed on the calendar for action on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 93 and H.B. No. 500, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative M. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 500, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative Lee

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you very much. I rise in support. I'd first like to thank the leadership and all the Committee Chairs for providing the framework for the budget. The many hours spent putting together proposals to help all our communities is appreciated and much welcomed.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd also like to thank the efforts of the members of the Finance Committee, both Majority and Minority members. Mr. Speaker, we started the journey in January right after the New Year. Members spent three weeks leading up to Opening Day in lengthy budget briefings, asking tough questions that helped to prioritize where taxpayers' dollars would be spent.

"Mr. Speaker, I thank the Finance committee staff for all their hard work and time dedicated to analyzing the details of the budget and all the other bills that affect the budget. If I might, Mr. Speaker, acknowledge their work and them, individually. They are: Nandana Kalupahana, Committee Clerk; Michael Ng, Budget Chief; Eric Nouchi, Budget Supervisor; Brian Hallett, CIP Specialist; Budget Analysts, Leslie Goo, Robin Kindred, Jacob Nakasone, Alana Taniguchi and Blake Yoshiura.

"We also have Randall Hiyoto as our Research Chief; Stacey Tagala as our Research Supervisor; and Researchers, Jordann Ares and Danny Vasconcellos.

"Last but not least, the Front Office staff led by Jo Hamasaki, Finance Committee Specialist; Tracy Kubota, Administrative Services Manager; Legislative Aides, Tiffany Bumanglag, Anna Donald and Sallie Hamada. And Mr. Speaker, our '1L' legislative aides from the Richardson School of Law, Tracey Kubota and Dawn Nakagawa. Mr. Speaker, if we could we give them a round of applause please.

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to acknowledge and thank the tremendous contribution of Vice Chair Lee. Not only did she make sure that the Committee was well fed and hydrated, but she also helped manage and run all the Committee hearings and provided valuable insight into the legislation we passed, both in bills and in budget.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, I'd like to thank Chair Baker and Vice Chair Tsutsui of the Senate Ways and Means Committee and their members and staff for their hard work in helping to craft this final version of the biennium budget for all of us.

"And now Mr. Speaker, I present to you the top ten reasons to vote for the budget.

"Number ten: it provides $190 million more to the Department of Education for items such as student transportation, food services and utility costs.

"Number nine: it provides 90 million more dollars for the University of Hawaii including items such as the Nursing Program at UH Manoa and the College of Pharmacy at UH Hilo.

"Number eight: $195 million more for health and human services programs including Medicaid, QUEST, adult mental health and early intervention services.

"Number seven: it provides $68 million more for homeless services, and kitchen unit replacements in public housing. Vacant unit turnaround for public housing, and deposits into the Rental Housing Trust Fund.

"Number six: it provides $10.6 million to help critical community hospitals in Hana, Waianae, Molokai, Wahiawa and Kahuku."

Representative Karamatsu rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro continued, stating:

"Thank you, Vice Speaker. And the number five reason to support the budget Mr. Speaker: it provides $17.8 million more for expansion of EMS services and purchase of emergency equipment such as ambulances and defibrillators.

"Number four: this budget provides over $7.6 million in our war against invasive species that includes the purchase of the Invicta Manifest System to target high risk shipments for inspection, money to eradicate the coqui frog, funding to fight the bee mite infestation and more DOCARE Officers to enforce our environmental laws.

"Number three: $8.4 million more to our Charter Schools.

"The Number two reason to support this budget: $50 million in cash for the repair and maintenance of our public schools.

"And Mr. Speaker, the number one reason why my colleagues should vote for this budget: this budget, Mr. Speaker, is $17.4 million less than the budget submitted by the Governor to this Legislature. Thank you very much."

"Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in strong support. I rise to speak in support of House Bill 500, in particular, the portion that deals with human services and housing. Together these two major areas account for a healthy percentage of the total funds we're appropriating through this biennium budget bill.

"Another way of looking at what we are doing in these categories, although on a diminished scale, is look at the distribution of this year's surplus. Of this amount, $75 million or 11% is in our housing and homeless package. Overall, when combined with funding for health programs, human services account for $195 million or 28% of the surplus dollars.

"I'm especially pleased today to report to my colleagues that much has been accomplished in our ongoing effort to meet the challenges of the housing crisis throughout our islands. The appropriation will enable both our State Housing Finance and Development Corporation, and Public Housing Authority to plan, develop and fund more affordable housing units in the private sector, make badly needed improvements in our public housing projects, and provide temporary shelter and support services for those of our people who unfortunately do not having housing of any kind.

"Specifically, this budget provides $8.7 million for homeless services. For FY 2007 and 2008, $15 million will be deposited into the Rental Housing Trust Fund, making low interest grants or loans available to developers of affordable rental housing units. Over the biennium, more than $10 million will go to public housing for repairs and energy efficiency and to expedite the rental of vacant units.

"In addition Mr. Speaker, I may add that SB 1917 which we have also passed out of Conference, adds an additional $6 million for homeless services and keeps the Rental Housing Trust Fund share of the conveyance tax at 50% for another year. And those revenues are estimated at $14 million a year by the way, from the RHTF, the Conveyance Tax.

"I'm also happy to report that the bill before us strongly supports the efforts of the Department of Human Services to provide critical services to those least able to provide for themselves. There's approximately $100 million for QUEST and Medicaid services. For Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, we've added $4.5 million for the first budget year for Purchase of Service contracts that will strengthen families, teach life skills and improve the employability of low-income families.

"Of those in need, our children are the most vulnerable. Our budget includes a half million dollars more than the Administration's budget request to fund CPS or Child Protective Services. We have also made sure that youth in foster homes, Safe House programs and correctional facilities are given the help they need during their critical formative years.

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, I believe there's a lot more to be done, now and in the future to meet the housing and daily living needs of our most needy citizens. This budget points us in the right direction and provides a solid foundation for the work that lies ahead. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise also to commend the staff and thank them, but I am with reservations. The staff did a tremendous job and the Chair of Finance also. Someday the system will trust even the members to make some of the decisions that staff does, but that's another issue on a different day.

"My reservations, Mr. Speaker, have to do with when we give our word in the profession we're in, we should keep it. Our word is our bond and when we break it, people tend to think or may distrust us. And what I'm referring to is when we started this Session, we said we were going to fix everything in terms of affordable housing, homelessness, all of those things, public housing. And what seems to have taken place is that we have fallen short to the extent that I want to give a few examples.

"I'm assuming I'm reading off of the same budget because regarding the amount of money that the Governor asked for the Rental Housing Trust Fund was $50 million. This budget gives $15 million. That's a $35 million cut. I'm not sure that's something we should be proud of. The Governor also asked for $15 million in the Dwelling Unit Revolving Fund and got zero. That's another big hit. What with a few other infrastructure requests that were refused, it totals out to be for that group, $148 million which the Governor requested, with $29 million being delivered.

"Now let me move on to public housing and homelessness. The Governor requested $15 million to fix the elevators. Are elevators are an important issue? Well it's something that the Department of Justice and HUD has been directing us to do short of some legal action, and Governor had asked for $15 million and got $5 million. A $10 million cut. Sometimes I guess we have to use the Marie Antoinette, 'If they can't have bread, let them eat cake.' If they can't do the elevator, let the poor walk. And I think if we don't repair those elevators, that's exactly what we're going to be doing with the poor. Making them walk up those three and four story areas.

"I think in terms of repair and renovation, we can see another example. $40 million was requested to get the housing units that are sitting there vacant, and people are saying, 'You've got a housing crisis. These things are empty. You've got to fix them.' Which we said we're willing to. The Governor asked for $40 million to fix it, and instead of the $40 million, she got $20. Fortunately for the homeless services, as the Chair previously spoke of, almost all of that was given as the Governor requested, short only of $4 million, and that's very good news.

"The security budget of $2.8 million and $2.4 million was also totally given, which is good news. But taken as a whole, Mr. Speaker, the Governor asked this body to resolve that crisis. This body, in various press releases and congresses said that they will resolve it. But much like her tax rebates amounts of $300 million, getting $100 million, basically everything's been cut by two-thirds. That means we're going to have to revisit it. That means we have to be very clear about what we intend to do in 2008, because once we tell the public that we're going to do this and we don't do it, then our credibility, then our sense of drawing people to the voting booths, then drawing people to have confidence in this Legislature, is lessened.

"Having said that Mr. Speaker, it's a good budget in many other areas which I don't have time to speak about, but these are the few things that I have reservations with."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In support with just a couple reservations. And I do want to commend the Finance Chair and the staff. I know this isn't an easy task, working on the budget and especially with this many Representatives in the room wanting their own share. It's not easy to appease us all. But I just want to comment on a potential conflict. That I do work for a homeless shelter and there's a lot of homeless appropriations in this budget," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Pine continued, stating:

"Well, I do want to kind of expand on that. I really had actually the blessing of working in the homeless community and I've learned so much and have discovered that so many of the people that work in the homeless shelters and in the homeless community are clearly people that can be making a lot more money than they're making now. And I think my concern is what I've been hearing in the homeless provider population is their frustration with the Legislature, making them come back year after year to beg for the same monies that they need because the homeless population is growing. And in fact they need even more money.

"I think when we do not take this more seriously as a problem that we must fund for many years until the problem goes away, it's going to be very frustrating for the homeless community. What I mean by that is, here's an example of what I've observed happening in the whole homeless provider community. Basically, IHS will get funded for a year for particular services. And every single person that is funded under that particular item knows that they don't have a job in a year. And sometimes the funds get shifted and then another homeless provider gets the contract and then that person moves over to that other place. And this is going on from homeless provider, to homeless provider. And let me just explain what it's like being a possible family getting help.

"For example, a particular family got off the streets in Waianae and the father had several heart attacks and this is what led them to their homelessness. And what had happened is they did get help from one shelter, but that person was funded for only another three months. Then that person that was helping these people to get better, to get the medical care, to get them emotionally prepared to do the things that they need to get out of homelessness, that provider or caseworker left because they really just couldn't take not knowing if they had a job in the future anymore. And so we've created this kind of culture in the homeless provider community that no one has a secure job, so why have these big plans to really help the homeless population for the future when we only know we have enough funding for a year.

"So I'm just kind of pleading with this body. Next year, let's take this subject so seriously and make a commitment for maybe six years so these providers can truly solve this problem and help the people that we are trying to help."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in favor of the budget. And there's some very good things in it. And people who are receiving the money from it are very grateful. However, I rise to point out one deficiency.

"Apparently, the Department of Transportation requested $21 million in each year of the biennium to supplement their maintenance program. They've had massive problems in Waimea, in the Makapuu area. They have to fix Ala Moana Boulevard, the Pali Highway had issues during the last big rain. And they feel that the base budget of the Highway Fund is insufficient to handle many of the problems that they will have to deal with. And I don't know how they're going to deal with all the problems that they have to face, so I had hoped that the money would be found in the budget. If we have a chance to add it in sometime in the future, I do hope that we will consider their pleas.

"We receive a lot of complaints about potholes and people really don't know the difference between City and State streets, but we've got to deal with both and how can we expect the Department of Transportation to fix potholes and keep up with the traffic demands if we don't fund them. Thank you very much."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just have very brief comments in support. Just proud from the health perspective to look at this budget and see a large investment in increased reimbursements across the board, especially in the Medicaid realm which was mentioned earlier by the Human Services Chair. That's going to provide reimbursements to all of our facilities.

"We've been talking about the healthcare crisis and from my standpoint, that was the single biggest thing we could do as legislators. Invest in the basic healthcare needs for the whole State without excluding anyone. So I think that was terrific addition to the budget.

"And I would also mention that the investment in the training program, both on Oahu and now the expansion over to Hilo to train primary care physicians is a really shrewd investment because those providers will stay in Hawaii, they'll provide basic healthcare at all of our facilities and it's really going to set us up well for the future.

"So I just would like to commend the Finance Committee and all the Representatives for making this investment."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Thank you. I also extend my kudos, congratulations, to the Chair of the Finance Committee and its members and everyone else who played a role in this budget.

"Mr. Speaker, I do though have a comment to make and it concerns something that we did a few days ago on Second Crossover. And it's tied into this budget and I'll make the connection right now and it has to do with the UH Medical School. In the budget, we still see, which is good, an additional $3.6 million for the first year and a $3.9 million add for the second fiscal year. That's all good. In fact, those two figures were in the budget as it left the House and it was a signal to all that this House supports and continues to support the UH Medical School.

"On Second Cross, we passed SB 1283, SD 2, HD 2 against my concerns. And during that discussion, I pointed out that this particular measure that we were contemplating a few days ago would increase the amount of money going to the School of Medicine for operating costs. In fact, I mentioned that the University did a refinancing of the bonds, and for the first payment in fiscal year '08, it's going to be about $6.6 million.

"We understand, also, that the Tobacco Trust Fund is going to see a tremendous increase in funding starting from next fiscal year. So, my concern then, and it's still my concern now, because by the way, Mr. Speaker, this particular measure that was supposed to be negotiated in Conference and we were supposed to work on this tied in with the budget, it in fact, went straight up to the Governor. So, my concern now is that in addition to the $3.6 million in the first fiscal year that we already said that the University's Medical School will receive, I believe that they're going to see an additional windfall close to maybe five or six million. That's on top of what we're already giving them. That's what that bill says.

"I just wanted to mention something as we move forward, because I think we need to continue to monitor this. During the discussions that day, the Finance Chair mentioned that the purpose of moving the bill forward was to allow us to debate and discuss this measure tied in with the general fund appropriation and the operating budget, and we were going to possibly supplant general funds for the amount realized in the Tobacco Special Fund. Unfortunately, that didn't happen, and now I'm sorry to say both bills are going up the way we had sent it out. We just need to monitor this, Mr. Speaker, because I think left unchecked, it's not good for us. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. I want to thank the Chair of the Finance Committee, as well as the Members. This is the most comprehensive, across the board coverage that I've seen. It touches all aspects of our State. It has appropriations for schools, colleges, workforce development, transportation, and I'm grateful that we now have funding for the Ewa Makai Middle School. More importantly, Mr. Speaker, there's now an appropriation for the Nursing School at Leeward Community College, something that I've been crying about for the last three Sessions and I'm very grateful for that.

"Also, there's more appropriations for transportation. I would like to see more, however I'm very grateful that we did not raid the Highway Fund. And with that, I leave my comments there."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of the budget and I'd like to actually insert my written comments into the Journal, but I would like to make a few additional comments.

"One thing that wasn't mentioned when we talked about housing was the strong support that the budget gives to women's domestic violence shelters. This is a critical form of housing that we have supported well in the budget. This is going in the opposite direction to the trends in Washington. Family planning monies have been restored to the budget after an absence of over 10 years and this takes us out of dead last place in the nation in this category, so that's a really important change. Victim's services had been given an increase in funding in this budget showing a recognition of the many needs of crime victims in our communities. So, this is really very special.

"The budget is truly one that recognizes human needs and the Herculean effort to secure its completion should be recognized. The Finance staff literally worked nonstop all Session, sacrificing sleep and recreation, yet maintaining a helpful and cheerful demeanor. Their expertise in financial analysis coupled with their willingness to share information and teach others was amazing.

"Last, the Finance Chair should be commended not only for his 16 hour days, but also for his commitment to produce a fiscally responsible budget providing for the future of Hawaii with an eye to possible fluctuations of the State's future financial condition. His tenacity has been incredible. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of HB 500 HD1 SD1 CD1.

"Last year, the Legislature seized an unprecedented opportunity to invest strategically in the State's future. Strong revenue projections allowed for the investment of capital in critical areas of need, particularly in the area of education.

"This year, by again dedicating a significant amount of funding to the public education system, the House of Representatives has crafted a budget that invests in our State's greatest resource – its people.

"Hawaii's public school system served 179,000 students across the state in the 2006-2007 school year. Again, this year, the House has provided DOE with generous funds to provide quality education to our students.

"The majority of this increase goes toward fixed costs such as debt service and fringe benefits for employees, but the House also funded several key initiatives that support efforts to improve student achievement which were not included in the Governor's proposed budget.

"While they aren't all glamorous, basic needs are fundamental to a solid education system. The House fulfilled the critical need to pay for such costs.

"UH is an important component of our public education system, and instrumental in charting the course of Hawaii's future. To affirm its commitment to Higher Education, the House has funded Higher Education in ways sufficient to develop the workforce needed for Hawaii's future. A case in point is the $1.7 million allotted to the UH-Manoa School of Nursing.

"The House stands behind the UH community colleges in their mission to ensure access to quality post-secondary education for all residents of Hawaii. The community colleges prepare students for basic job skill training and ongoing workforce and development as well.

"Communities on Oahu will be safer because the amounts appropriated for EMS services have been increased, and funds to replace 2 of the 10 year-old lifpaks and worn out ambulances are included.

"In addition, the community hospitals have been supported – recognizing the struggles inherent in healthcare today.

"The budget strongly supports women's domestic violence shelters continued existence, and going opposite to the trend in Washington DC, family planning monies have been restored to the budget, taking us out of dead last place in the nation in this category.

"Victim services have also been given an increase in funding, showing recognition of the many needs crime victims have in our State.

"The budget is truly one which recognizes human needs, and the Herculean effort to secure its completion should be recognized. The Finance staff literally worked non-stop all Session sacrificing sleep and recreation, yet maintaining a helpful and cheerful demeanor. Their expertise in financial analysis coupled with their willingness to share information and teach others was amazing.

"Last, the Finance Chair should be commended not only for his 16 hour days, but also for his commitment to produce a fiscally responsible budget, providing for the future of Hawaii with an eye to possible fluctuations in the State's future financial condition. His tenacity has been incredible.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

'Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with a few reservations. First, I want to say that this was really a pleasure working under our new Finance Chairman and with his very able Vice Chair who never complains, is pleasant at all times, and sits there for hours on end. It was just a good working relationship. The budget has so many pieces in it, just million of balls in the air, and many, many good things in there, and, of course, we are all 51 different people, so, we don't all see things the same way.

"I guess the biggest disappointment for me looking at over a $700 million surplus was the really fairly small amount of tax relief that came out of the budget at the end. I would love to see things work a little differently in the last few days of the Legislature. This past Friday night you had scores of bills that had money in them and it was just now becoming final and people were beginning to see what might go into those bills. But in Room 309, I felt like maybe 70% of the people were in the dark, shouting out, Three million the first year, three million the second year'. I mean, you know, 'What was that? Two hundred fifty thousand? Was that one year or two?' There's got to be a better way to do this. And then, of course, the tax relief is always kind of at the end there with what will be left. Who would be disappointed if they don't get this? What's the most important thing?

"So, I'm not saying it's an easy process. Easy to criticize when you're not sitting in that seat. But when you are representing a district and as others have said, we also represent all the people in the State, you want to be as knowledgeable as you can be. And it is very difficult to really get a firm picture of what's happening even when you have been part of the Finance Committee and you have been there for the whole Session. And at the end you're just going, 'Oh, I'm not sure what happened.'

"But I had hoped for a lot more. The Governor had proposed $340 million. I think one of the major things that she and the Director of Taxation had been pushing for is to raise that standard deduction which would take a lot of the people in the low income bracket right off the rolls. They wouldn't pay any taxes at all. Now, those very people, in order for them to get a tax rebate, even those that don't file now, will have to file a long form in order to get that rebate. I don't think that was what the writers of our State Constitution meant when they created that section that talks about mandatory rebate. Many people will think they're going to get a check. They're not. It's a bit of a slap in the face, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair addressed Representative Meyer, stating:

"Representative Meyer, you will have an opportunity to address those comments at another time in regards to the measure that will be before this body. Could you confine your remarks now to just the budget bill, House Bill 500?"

Representative Meyer responded, stating:

"Well, the thing is that the tax relief comes out of the budget. So, it is very much related."

Speaker Say: "But you have another opportunity to talk about that particular issue, the constitutionality of the rebate. But please proceed."

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will wrap it up. It's just that I think that the middle class, our bill talked about $60,000, but middle class is like two people working maybe like $80,000 up to a $100,000. So for those people we have said, 'You don't get a rebate.' And that's one of my problems. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. House Bill 500, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, appropriates $135 million for the University of Hawaii West Oahu, of which $35 million will be issued in general obligation bonds. I have always said the government needs to live up to its commitment to the residents of the Leeward Coast residing in the Second City, which would include a world class university.

"House Bill 500 shows our commitment to the people of the State of Hawaii, the University of Hawaii System, and, particularly, the residents of the Leeward Coast by allowing the vision of UH West Oahu to finally come to fruition.

"I want to thank the members of the Finance Committee, our fearless Chair and Vice Chair, the Finance staff, and the Senate Ways and Means Committee for their hard work on this budget and for helping to make the dream of UH West Oahu a reality. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just a few words, and I'm speaking in favor of the budget. As you all know, I am a former Finance Chairman, as you are aware. And I'm very impressed with this Finance Chairman that we have here in his first year. I am equally impressed also with his able Vice Chair and the members. And of course, one who is never mentioned, but is always behind the scene, is Representative Bob Nakasone. What would we do without Bob and CIP? Thank you all in the Finance Committee, and thank you to the staff sitting up there. Aloha."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to respond briefly to some of the claims that the Legislature only funded two-thirds of the needs for homeless and housing compared to the Governor's request. I just wanted to point out there are many items that were not requested by the Governor that were funded in bills and grants-in-aid, other measures, but are a part of our whole financial package.

"First of all, we have the $25 million GO bonds for Kukui Gardens in House Bill 667. We have several measures in House Bill 928 which provides homeownership funds for the very low income in public housing in Section 8. House Bill 835 for the Kunia Plantation workers provides much needed funds for their relocation and shelter. We have money for Safe House shelters for troubled youth, just to name a few.

"Then there's many, many grants-in-aid, just to name a few. HCCC, which has a homeless shelter out in Waianae is getting a grant-in-aid. Nanakuli Housing Corporation, Nanakuli Hawaiian Homestead Association, Habitat for Humanity. And then just to remind the body, like I said before, $75 million of the surplus went towards housing and homeless, and $195 million to health and human services. So, the Legislature, no doubt, put a high priority on the homeless and the needy. Mahalo."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. We've heard a lot of accolades about the Chair and Vice Chair. No doubt they've done a great job. Also, the staff of Finance. But we shouldn't forget that we have a fresh crop of freshmen, both Minority and Majority, who have sat on this Committee and really worked hard and there's a lot of proof in terms of strength to this budget and the support they've given to their Chair and Vice Chair and they deserve a lot of credit, too.

"Another thing we heard, Mr. Speaker, is a lot about we didn't spend enough money or we spent too much money, depending on what program we talked about. And to all of us, I think that signals a good budget. In the end I think the Finance Committee looked very carefully and showed fiscal constraint and responsibility. They wanted to make sure that whatever money was spent would be spent well, and that we wouldn't overspend so that in the out years, particularly, if the economy softens, and we've heard discussions in the past couple of days of softening in this economy, both the national one through the fed and the local one, that we're not going to have to come back and cut programs that we funded.

"So, I think it says a lot about fiscal constraint and responsibility. It's always easy to give away money. Always easy, and it's hard to hold back for the rainy day. And that's what they've done here. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, I rise in tepid support. I guess we really couldn't vote this down because we wouldn't have any money. But I do understand, all these numbers and the whole idea of rebates, as well as the surpluses and all that. I know for the common person, because I feel I am one, and this goes straight over my head. I have no idea what all these millions are and where they're going. But we did the best we could, but we're not the only player at the table. We're not the only people with money or with power, and that's where we really, really fell down.

"I keep hearing what the government can do or what they can't do. Well, we can't be the only player, we just can't. So, in Kihei, we may get a new high school built by a private developer if the State allows them. We may get. This House passed a CON reform, which would have allowed a $350 million brand new, privately run public hospital. And it was turned down by others. When we start letting go of these reigns of power or who makes these decisions, and open ourselves to other ways of doing things that actually encourages private investment. We're always going to be in the same discussion. Half a million there, five hundred here, like she was talking about. Five hundred, twenty-five thousand. When we're not including the very people who have the money.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I hope we can work next year for a no-cost item as part of the solution and as regulatory reform. In our Certificate of Need, in planning, in road construction, every single one of these things can benefit from private-public partnerships. And until we step forward and make regulatory reform a major issue, we are going to be having the same discussion probably until I'm old too. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support with some reservations. Mr. Speaker, I do, of course, want to basically say that I appreciate all the hard work of the Finance Chair and everyone that was involved. Just a couple of things that I did want to mention is overall, without trying to do nitpicking on programs or where we spent the money, overall one of the things or themes that I thought happened in the State budget is we're doing a lot this year and we're waiting next year to find out where we're going to be. And so a lot of things that were suggested by the Governor in the out year, the second year, did not get funded.

"And I can understand the reasoning because basically you're just saying, 'Well, we've got to find out where we're going to be? What are the Council on Revenue projections? As they change, and let's take a more fiscally responsible position.' But I would also argue that the fiscal responsible position is in the biennium, there's two years, and I believe that we do it in two years because what it does is it gives some stability. It gives some stability and the ability to plan. And that's why we don't have a, 'let's just take one year at a time' approach. So, overall, the theme of saying we're going to do a certain amount this year and we'll wait and see for next year really hinders, I think, a lot of the things and a lot of the future for the departments, the nonprofits, or whomever may be affected by it.

"For instance, and here's where I'm a little confused, too. In speaking with some of the folks that took a look at the homeless and housing part of the budget, there are three things that kind of look like its being transferred in, transferred out, or from interdepartmental transfers, and the three different things have to do with very important infrastructure that supports many affordable housing units. So, I would have preferred it if the language was just straightforward. Yes, this is what we're going to do.

"However, it looks like the money is going to go in one place, and possibly, interdepartmental transfer. I don't know why, but that's what's going on. This is the East-West Collector Road for Kapolei; Waiahole water, $2.5 million; and the North Kona water, as well. The affordable projects that that supports, the affordable housing that that supports is 1,100 units at Keahuolu Planned Community; 2,600 units for the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands in the Lai Opua Project. And on Oahu, there's a development of 2,138 housing units. And of that, you have 1,138 single family DHHL homes and 1,000 HHFDC units, which include 600 affordable multi-family rental units.

"So, Mr. Speaker, it's not that I'm saying that it's not funded, but because it's not quite doing it directly, that there could be problems with the actual money getting to where it needs to be and the actual implementation of getting these projects done. I'm concerned about that.

"In talking about planning out one year, two years, the Representative from Hawaii Kai mentioned the elevators that was a strong need. The elevator needs are so strong, and, basically, now, you're going to go, okay, we've committed $5 million out of this $15 million, and now you have to basically pick and choose which one, because we're not sure if we're going to get the other $10 million. I understand, like I said, the constraints with the money, but I'm not sure that doing that overall theme of, fund now, some, with no kind of commitment towards even next year, not even the out years of two, three, four years out. But just next year, I think, is difficult for departments as well as nonprofits to handle."

Representative Ching rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. Another thing is we also talked about the, the Chair of Finance talked about $20 million in CIP, and this was for what the Governor had called repair and renovation at public housing. For many years now there have been a lot of discussion about vacant units. Puuwai Momi is in my district and there at least a year ago, there was, at least a year ago, there was almost a whole building that didn't have renters in there, and it was because there needed to be some renovation and repair. We did, in this budget, fund $20 million. The request was for $20 million this year and $20 million in the next year. And when we don't do that, we don't plan, we don't know how much we can actually get done within this two-year period. I think it is our responsibility to do that.

"And, on top of that, I have to step back and take a look at it and say, 'Okay, we are putting all of this money into repair and maintenance for the DOE,' and we want to do that. We also are putting another, I think it was $190 million for the operations and other things for DOE. So, when I look at that and I look at this, which is public housing and the vacant units, I have to say, at what expense to the rest of the State are we incurring, we're not helping with the public housing in this particular situation and we're addressing all of the DOE, or a lot of the DOE projects. I want to do that, but there is a bigger picture and by putting so much into the Department of Education, I'm afraid it's going to be not enough for the other areas.

"We don't want to come back and say, 'Let's fix our public housing ten years from now when the backup is whatever, $500 million.' It will never be that because we don't have that many projects, but, we don't want to do that. We don't want to go in the out years and say we 'coulda, shoulda, woulda'. And, so, I think, an approach, more even keeled, I guess, and saying that we want to be a little bit more on the planning side would have been my approach.

"But overall, looking at everything, I really have to say that there a lot of things that I can agree with, Mr. Speaker. I know that the Chair from Finance did an excellent job and he had a lot of pressure. I hope we didn't give him too many gray hairs, and I just really have to appreciate the process and hope that maybe we can rethink next year about how we do our planning. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members of the House, we've had a lot of discussion. For those of you who would like to insert your written comments, the Chair will entertain that motion at this time. Does anyone have written comments to insert in the Journal?"

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support. On behalf of all of those involved in the University of Hawaii System, from students to supporters, alumni, faculty, staffs and administration, I want to thank the House Finance and Senate Ways and Means Committees and their hard-working staffs for their tremendous support.

"Of our entire surplus, 19% or $90 million was earmarked for the UH System's much needed positions and operating expenses.

"In the second year, when taking into account all funds, there are approximately 7,000 positions and over a billion dollars for each year.

"Thanks to Representative Bob Nakasone, Chair Marcus Oshiro and their Senate counterparts for CIP projects totaling over $183 million of general obligation bonds.

"This is a reflection of our strong economy and of us taking the opportunity to catch up in funding our higher education system that will provide the work force in all sectors, especially in nursing, teaching, and engineering, throughout the next decade.

"Mr. Speaker, this is our commitment to our future generations."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 500, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Manahan being excused.

At 2:55 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:09 o'clock p.m. with the Speaker presiding.

Speaker Say: "Members at this time, there will be no discussion on these items agreed upon by this body for placement on the Consent Calendar."

Representative Meyer rose to a point of inquiry, stating:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 39 and S.B. No. 1182, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 1182, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. This measure has been long overdue, as the needs allowance was last raised in 1988. The basic necessities that we take for granted, such as toothpaste, shampoo, and other items, have become too costly for those who have been on the monthly needs allowance. This modest raise from $30 to $50 will go far to make life a little easier for those who already must deal with hardship and difficulty.

"Mr. Speaker, I commend the Conference Committee for their work on this measure, especially the amendment which provides the need allowance for individuals who are incapacitated. Again, this measure will make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate.

"My only concern, Mr. Speaker, is that adequate safeguards to protect against fraud and misuse are in place to help these individuals maintain an acceptable quality of life. Our goal should be that this money goes to the individual and not the institutions that may be providing care for them. I urge the Department of Human Services to require a high degree of accountability for the uses of this money.

"This measure demonstrates the Legislature's commitment to the health and well-being of the people of Hawaii. With funding for this measure already provided in this session's biennium budget, this Legislature, Mr. Speaker, has shown that it is indeed committed to helping those who need it the most. Thank you and I urge my fellow legislators to support this measure."

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Senate Bill 1182, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to provide an increase in the Personal Needs Allowance for nursing home residents from the current $30 per month to $50 per month, and an annual cost of living increase thereafter. The $30 amount was mandated in 1988 by the federal government as the minimum amount for nursing home residents receiving Medicaid. The Personal Needs Allowance is used by nursing home residents to spend at his or her discretion on items such as phone calls, sending cards to friends and family, reading materials, hobbies, haircuts, clothes, footwear and other items. This is important because it enables the resident to maintain a minimum level of independence and decision-making while living in a nursing home environment.

"Mr. Speaker, in 2001, a survey conducted in all 50 states by the National Ombudsman Resource Center concluded by saying and I quote, "It is important that states, particularly those that are still at the federal of $30 increase the allowance to compensate for years without an increase. In addition, automatic increases in the Personal Needs Allowance are important to keep pace with the economy."

"Mr. Speaker, in 2006, forty-three states provided an average of $50 per month to residents on Medicaid. Several states are presently working on increasing their Personal Needs Allowance.

"Mr. Speaker, if we were to take the Consumer Price Index and use the 1974 amount as a base line of $25 per resident and take into consideration the increase of the cost of living, to match the same buying power between 1974 to today's buying power of the dollar, would amount to over $115. Clearly Mr. Speaker, raising the amount to $50 has been long overdue and for the sake of our kupuna and those who are less fortunate, I strongly urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and S.B. No. 1182, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NEEDS ALLOWANCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 40 and S.B. No. 1222, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1222, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME TAXATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 42 and S.B. No. 1929, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1929, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC PROCUREMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 44 and S.B. No. 17, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 17, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of Senate Bill 17 S.D.2, H.D.2, C.D. 1 – Relating to Procurement. Mr. Speaker, an architect's professional liability insurance only covers harm caused by the design professional's negligence. It will not advance the cost of defending other parties before the negligence of the design professional is established. The State's current contract language provides an unacceptable risk especially considering that design professionals are personally liable, and in addition, that this liability would follow those design professionals into their retirement years.

"Neither the City and County of Honolulu, nor the federal government makes this requirement. In absence of the contract, there would be no obligation to defend another party, as under common law, only the obligation to indemnify is required. It is never appropriate to shift this responsibility to those wishing to do business with the State of Hawaii. The cost of the State's defense would be paid for by the consulting firm, as their insurance does not cover the defense of another party. Under Professional Liability policies, the insurance would pay for damages and expenses incurred due to the consultant's negligence, which would include the defense costs of the State of Hawaii. But if there is no negligence, the insurance does not pay for these costs.

"Mr. Speaker, this issue has risen because the State has unfairly attempted to shift their risk from public works projects to design firms, by asking design firms to defend the State in legal actions, even if the design firm is not negligent. Since the State and its citizens derive much more benefit from public works projects than design professionals, requiring design firms to defend the State in absence of negligence is unreasonable. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me to give comments in support of this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and S.B. No. 17, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 46 and S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of SB 795, SD2, HD1, CD 1. SB795, SD2, HD1, CD 1, will create a State Building Code Council that would establish a comprehensive building code. This Council will appoint a subcommittee, to include the various counties that will recommend any necessary or desirable State amendments to the model codes as it applies within their jurisdiction.

"Mr. Speaker, currently counties adopt building codes on independent schedules, resulting in the simultaneous use of several archaic building codes in Hawaii. These older code provisions may not include improvements to implement disaster-resistant building constructions standards. As a result there is a lack of consistent building standards from county to county. A coordinated process to bring the various building codes in compliance with updated standards will improve public safety and promote efficiency in the construction industry.

"Passage of SB795, SD2, HD1, CD 1, establishes a State building code that incorporates the latest editions of nationally recognized codes and standards thereby promoting the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of buildings and structures. It will provide for uniformity across counties, recognizing that the counties can amend the code to permit some uniqueness.

"I believe that the proposed Bill will draw on the expertise of local design professionals and government agencies responsible for code enforcement that would bring their experience with local conditions and practices that are critical to the design of safe, secure and efficient buildings for our community.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker and I ask my colleagues to support me on this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and S.B. No. 795, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BUILDING CODES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 47 and S.B. No. 678, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 678, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 48 and S.B. No. 149, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 149, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE BONDS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 50 and S.B. No. 1284, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1284, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 52 and H.B. No. 1646, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 71, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I am in support of House Bill 71, H.D.2, S.D.2, C.D.1. Mr. Speaker the measure we have before us codifies existing responsibilities of three State agencies in the certification of nurse aides of Medicare/Medicaid certified nursing facilities. This bill further proposes to certify and recertify nurse aides in State licensed and State agencies, the DCCA, the Department of Health and the Department of Human Services.

"Mr. Speaker, passage of this measure will enhance consumer safety. It requires all nurse aides employed in State licensed or certified healthcare settings in the State to successfully complete State approved nurse aid training and examination to be certified. In addition Mr. Speaker, this measure will provide uniform training, examination and continuing competency requirements for all nurse aides certified by the State of Hawaii.

"The necessity and impact of this proposal is immense. As sometimes happens, the passage of time, the evolving nature of the long term care provider landscape and the density of the statutory jungle can result in unaddressed issues going unnoticed, because they either did not exist or were not relevant at the time the original law passed. The current statute was enacted many years ago to conform to federal mandates, it pertains only to CNA's in Medicare/Medicaid certified nursing facilities. We must understand that the law, at the time it was enacted, did not concern itself with non-Medicare/Medicaid nursing facilities, nor did it address such elements of the long term care continuum as assisted living facilities, adult residential carehomes, adult foster carehomes etc.

"We now find ourselves in a position where huge number of CNA's who are the backbone of the health and long term care industry, according to the wording of the present State law, are without legal processes by which they can be certified or recertified. This measure would remedy that dire and urgent problem. It provides for a reasonable transition and ensures the continuation of the high standards of quality of care for which Hawaii is known.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 71, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NURSE AIDES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1612, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in support of House Bill 1612 S.D. 1, C.D. 1. Mr. Speaker every day, we are faced with the possibility of identity theft. We often hear of corporate databases being stolen and social security numbers being compromised. We have heard of friends and relatives, Mr. Speaker and no one in this body is immune to identity theft. Anyone who has been a victim of identity theft suffers from the loss of large sums of money, hours of time spent trying to correct their credit reports and immeasurable frustration knowing that it could happen again at any time.

"Mr. Speaker, under current Hawaii laws, only a victim of identity theft may place a security freeze on their credit report. Passage of this measure will allow Hawaii to join the vast majority of other states with credit freeze laws which allow anyone to freeze their credit report. Out of approximately twenty-five states that currently have credit freeze laws, twenty allow anyone to freeze their credit report.

"Under current law, unless someone has become an actual victim of identity theft, it is virtually impossible to freeze one's credit report. Numerous states have broadened eligibility for seeking the freeze because of a widespread perception that restricting the freeze to victims, provides inadequate protection against identity theft.

"For example Mr. Speaker if someone's personal information has been stolen as a result of a security breach, a citizen cannot ask that their credit report be frozen. Instead, they have to wait until they can establish that their identity has been stolen. The victim of the security breach is limited to asking for a "fraud alert" which recent studies have shown to be inadequate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 1612, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER CREDIT REPORTING AGENCIES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 65 and H.B. No. 1518, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1518, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in support of House Bill No. 1518 H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1. Mr. Speaker, this House Bill proposes Certificate of Merit requirements that will go a long way toward reducing frivolous lawsuits against design professionals by requiring a plaintiff or their attorney to hire a qualified professional to certify that the case brought before a design professional has merit, and there is evidence of errors and omissions or negligence. This will help improve the professional liability insurance climate in Hawaii and provide fairness, equity, and justice in our legal system with regard to design professionals.

"Mr. Speaker, many malpractice and negligence claims brought against architects and engineers have no material basis or justification in fact or in law. Nevertheless, these groundless suits are a source of considerable cost to architects and engineers in terms of direct expenses, increased insurance premiums, lost productive time, and tarnished professional reputation. Engineering firms and their insurers often settle frivolous lawsuits simply to avoid the cost of defending themselves. For small firms, the cost of defense could jeopardize the firm's existence. Meritless suits also waste valuable public resources and choke the civil justice system.

"Mr. Speaker, as a case in point, a number of states such as California, Colorado, Maryland, Oregon, Missouri, New Jersey and Texas have adopted "certificate of merit" laws, which require the plaintiff to consult with a third-party design professional to review the facts of claim before moving forward. Data from California indicates that the law has helped to reduce the number of frivolous suits, and to reduce professional liability insurance rates. With the deletion of the Design Conciliation Panel by the Hawaii Legislature in 2004, the Certificate of Merit brings some balance to the judicial process for design professional firms. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 1518, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DESIGN PROFESSIONALS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 69 and H.B. No. 791, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 791, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill requires fuel distributors to report to DBEDT on the distribution and availability of non-ethanol gasoline to provide information to the Legislature and aid in its formulation of Hawaii's energy policy. Specifically, this bill will explore and address the problems that a niche market made up of boaters, fishermen, motorcyclists, antique car operators, certain aviators, and a plethora of other small gas-engine-driven machine owners have contended with since the removal of non-ethanol gasoline in Hawaii.

"Ethanol-blended fuel has been known to degrade fiberglass fuel tanks which are common in marine and small airplane applications. Ethanol dissolves the fiberglass resins, which creates a sludge that clogs fuel filters and leaves a thick coating on the valves, consequently ruining engines and creating a dangerous situation for mariners and aviators as the likelihood of engine failure is significantly increased. It is to be noted that the Federal Aviation Administration forbids small airplanes from using ethanol-blended fuel because of problems such as this.

"While the Legislature has been forward thinking in its energy policy and should be lauded for its ongoing commitment to reducing Hawaii's dependence on imported fossil fuels through the promotion of renewable energy; it is key to assess every policy impact as it applies to all people within the State. Further, it is vital to study aspects of our energy policy that may have unintended consequences that jeopardize public safety. Therefore, HB 791, CD1, is a necessary means to improving the State's energy policy and ensuring its safe application."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 791, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GASOLINE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1130, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill would exclude Internet activities conducted by uncompensated persons or committees from the definitions of "contribution" and "expenditure". I believe this measure encourages participation in the electoral process.

"Many individuals may not have the monetary resources to contribute to the candidate of their choice, but would like to contribute to their candidate's campaign in some form. In this day and age, the Internet is an extremely popular method to disseminate information quickly to a large amount of people and can be more effective than paper fliers or mailers. The use of the Internet to endorse a candidate is no different from an individual or group walking the district of the candidate and going door to door to the homes of the candidate's constituents.

"Therefore Mr. Speaker, I support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 1130, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Representative Karamatsu submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"I am in support. This is an exciting time for Hawaii where companies in our State created by local residents are researching and developing technology to produce and store renewable energy. One such company is Sopogy, Inc., which is developing clean electricity from a renewable and abundant resource, the sun, at a price lower than the market price and independent from oil price fluctuations, which is in the best interest of the public.

"I am happy to play a small role in assisting Sopogy, Inc. by introducing and supporting this measure that would authorize the issuance of special purpose revenue bonds in an amount not to exceed $10,000,000 to assist the company with planning, designing, constructing, equipping, and operating a solar farm power plant at the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawaii Authority or another suitable site in the State. I look forward to the exciting work of Sopogy, Inc. as they help Hawaii and our world produce clean energy. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. On the surface, this measure may seem to be symbolic and have little or no effect on Sudan, a country far away and removed from these islands. Yet, when taken as a part of the world-wide movement against the declared genocide and atrocities that have occurred in Sudan, this measure becomes a much stronger tool against the continuation of those unspeakable acts of violence and inhumanity.

"I commend the Conference Committee for the amendments made to this measure which had addressed legal concerns and the concerns of the Employees' Retirement System. This Committee made certain that only companies with direct dealings with Sudanese businesses or entities would be subject to action, in response to federal inquiries about the legality of such actions. Mr. Speaker, this makes the measure not only more effective, but also more manageable for the ERS. The ERS had been placed in a difficult situation of balancing the interests of its beneficiaries with the moral issues at stake.

"Divestment, which this measure has determined as the most severe penalty for a company with direct dealings with the Sudan, has already been proven to be effective. Mr. Speaker, I am reminded of similar actions by this same body in addressing apartheid and the segregation that existed in South Africa. Divestment worked then, and I believe, Mr. Speaker, that this measure will have the same effect on ending the genocide and violence against our fellow human beings in Sudan. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support of House Bill 34 S.D.2 C.D.1. Mr. Speaker, the President has declared that the massacres in Darfur, supported by the Sudanese government, are genocide. Meanwhile, some companies, namely our Employees' Retirement System, invest and continue to do business in Sudan.

Therefore, the State of Hawaii is directly supporting genocide by allowing these investments to continue.

"In the late 1980's, the Employment Retirement System divested over one billion dollars from countries that do business with South Africa. We did that as a way of pressuring the South African regime to stop their heinous policy of apartheid. Two weeks after the Employees' Retirement System announced our divestment, the South African regime released Nelson Madela. Our divestment was one of the five largest in the country. Was it instrumental in securing Nelson Madela's release? We will never know. But we did act to use our investments to support our moral convictions. And the Employees' Retirement System continued to thrive even with this enormous divestment.

"Mr. Speaker, another situation has arisen in Darfur, a situation that may be even more tragic than the South African apartheid because of the huge death toll involved and the displacement and virtual starvation of hundreds of thousands in Darfur. So we must act again.

"The ongoing genocide in the Darfur region of Sudan is one of the worst humanitarian crises in recent memory. Up to 400,000 members of our human family have been killed, and over 2.5 million have been displaced by the Sudanese government forces and its allied Janjaweed militias. Women and children are routinely tortured, raped and murdered. The extent of the carnage is incalculable.

"After the Rwandan genocide of 1994, the world, again said, 'Never again.' And yet here we are – again. Mr. Speaker, the citizens of Hawaii are horrified by this repugnant assault on humanity. The more difficult question for many is simply: What can we do to stop it?

"Among the measures being taken by California and other states, and being considered by the Hawaii Legislature is this measure we have before us and that is the divestment of funds from companies actively supporting the Sudanese government.

"As a Legislative body, we want to be sure that our tax dollars do not benefit Sudan's genocidal regime and allow their offending actions to continue. The extreme circumstances surrounding the genocide in Darfur make divestment a reasonable option, and indeed, the only moral option. This is the first time in history that genocide has been declared while atrocities are still ongoing. In the last months, the situation in Darfur has deteriorated so much that the lives of four million people dependent on humanitarian aid are seriously threatened. Mr. Speaker, as an example, thirteen aid workers in Darfur have been murdered since the May 2006 Peace Agreement. Most aid groups such as Oxfam and Global have already suspended operations citing the intolerable danger their workers face. Four-hundred thousand people have already died in genocide, but millions more can be saved if U.N. peacekeepers are allowed into Sudan, creating an environment in which aid workers can return and a sustainable peace agreement can be reached.

"Mr. Speaker, I strongly urge all my colleagues to vote for this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 34, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this measure. In recent years, affordable housing has become one of the most pressing issues and dilemmas that the State must solve. Kukui Gardens presented an extremely unique and difficult situation as a majority of the tenants are elderly immigrants, some of whom speak little or no English. The preservation of Kukui Gardens as an affordable housing area was quickly recognized not as something that should be done, but something that needed to be done.

"Mr. Speaker, the sheer number of tenants who depend upon the reasonable rents and its location in urban Honolulu was identified through the dedicated and concerned residents who made it a point to attend each hearing when this measure was discussed. We owe it to these residents to make sure that they will not be forced out into the streets.

"Mr. Speaker, I stand here with pride and renewed conviction due to the efforts of all those involved in the resolution of this matter. Community leaders, fellow legislators, and most importantly, the people themselves, have allowed this measure to proceed. This Legislative Session, the first step, a very important step, was taken. There are more steps to take, but I believe, Mr. Speaker, we are on our way. I voice my strong support for this measure, and urge my colleagues to do the same.

"With your permission, Mr. Speaker, I would like to submit 2 memos that clearly underscore and indicate the long term legislative intent of this measure. Thank you."

The Honorable Calvin K. Y. Say
Speaker of the House

Dear Senate President Hanabusa and Speaker Say:

Re: Kukui Gardens

I wish to advise you that substantial progress has been made in negotiations with Carmel Partners towards a structured transaction by and among Kukui Gardens Corporation (KGC), Carmel Partners, and Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation (HHFDC) which if finalized would result in the long term preservation of the Kukui Gardens complex as an affordable housing project in a cost effective manner from the State's perspective. I am, therefore, alerting you that a general obligation bond appropriation of $25 million for fiscal year 2007-08 will be needed from the State Legislature in order to fund the State's initial cash contribution to such a structured transaction, if successfully concluded. I have summarized below the proposed general structure of the proposed transaction.

First, please refer to the enclosed Kukui Gardens site map. Under the proposed transaction, the 22 acre property would be split into two parcels. HHFDC would acquire the fee ownership of Parcel A from KGC. Parcel A is approximately 10 acres in size, and contains approximately 389 units in the buildings located thereon. In order to take advantage of private activity tax-exempt revenue bonds and non-competitive (4%) tax credits, HHFDC will need to partner with a private nonprofit housing entity that would be granted a long term below market ground lease demising Parcel A and all buildings and improvements thereon, including the approximately 389 rental units. HHFDC currently anticipates partnering with EAH, a nonprofit housing corporation, as the owner/operator of the rental units on Parcel A. EAH was established in 1968 and is one of the nation's largest nonprofit housing development and management organizations in the western United States. It manages the 350-unit Kukui Towers which is located nearby Kukui Gardens.

Under the proposed transaction, the rents for the existing 389 units on Parcel A would be kept affordable to households earning 60% or less of the HUD area median income. In addition, the potential exists to develop additional units on Parcel A. Under a plan which HHFDC has reviewed, approximately 340 more affordable rental and for-sale affordable units could be added to this portion of the site. Please note that additional and typical HHFDC financing resources would be needed to make these additional improvements to Parcel A.

Carmel Partners would acquire fee ownership from KGC of the land and improvements comprising Parcel B.

As a further and important part of the proposed structured transaction, Carmel Partners would agree to operate and maintain the existing 468 units on Parcel B at the affordable rents charged in accordance with the existing HUD Regulatory Agreement (with possible CPI increases) until May 2011. Between May 2011 and May 2013, Carmel Partners would be able to gradually increase the rents on these 468 units. After May 2013, all 468 units will continue to be rented at rents affordable to households earning 140% and below the HUD area median income for 55 years (to May, 2062).

The cost to acquire the land and improvements comprising Parcel A is approximately $60 million. Estimated State resources required for the acquisition and renovation of the existing 389 rental units on Parcel A are as follows:

- $50 million State appropriations[1]
  - $25 million in FY 2007-08 for land acquisition
  - $25 million in FY 2009-10 (in the following biennium) equity infusion after renovations are completed
- $45 million tax-exempt revenue bonds to acquire buildings and for renovations
- $32 million in federal and state low income housing tax credits over 10 years

The use of tax-exempt revenue bonds and tax credits are typical financing mechanisms for affordable rental housing projects and do not require legislative approval.

[1] Approximate and subject to appraisal

While a number of details need to be clarified and refined, I am optimistic that we, collectively, will be able to successfully conclude negotiations with Carmel Partners for a structured transaction which will preserve the existing 857 units in the Kukui Gardens complex as an affordable housing project for the next 55 years or longer at a cost effective basis for the State.

Should you have any questions regarding any of the above, please call me at 587-0680.

Sincerely,

Orlando "Dan" Davidson

Dear Senate President Hanabusa and Speaker Say:

Re: Kukui Gardens, H.B. 667

This is an update to my letter of April 19, 2007 regarding the financing mechanism for the preservation of Kukui Gardens as an affordable rental housing project.

I previously indicated that a general obligation bond appropriation of $25 million would be needed for fiscal year 2007-08 and a second appropriation of $25 million would be needed for fiscal year 2009-10. After further discussion with the Department of Budget and Finance and in consultation with financial analysts, we believe that the second appropriation should be moved up to fiscal year 2008-09. Therefore, the financing structure to acquire and renovate the existing 389 units on Parcel A is revised as follows:

- $50 million State appropriations[1]
  - $25 million in FY 2007-08 for land acquisition
  - $25 million in FY 2008-09 equity infusion after renovations are completed
- $45 million tax-exempt revenue bonds to acquire buildings and for renovations
- $32 million in federal and state low income housing tax credits over 10 years

[1] Approximate and subject to appraisal

The financial analysts have indicated that the State's up-front financing commitment will allow for a better pricing of the tax credits. As tax credit proceeds represent a significant part of the financing plan (i.e., $32 million), we believe moving up the appropriation strengthens the financing package.

Perhaps, more significantly, there is concern that not having the second legislative appropriation in FY 2008-09 could create problems in terms of completing the transaction to acquire Parcel A. Given this, we believe it is important to move up the appropriation to FY 2008-08. We therefore, request that H.B. 667 be amended to include the second appropriation of $25 million in FY 2008-09.

We are continuing our discussions with Carmel Partners for a structured transaction which will preserve existing 857 units in the Kukui Gardens complex as an affordable housing project for the next 55 years or longer at a cost effective basis for the State.

Should you have any questions regarding any of the above, please call me at 587-0680.

Sincerely,

Orlando "Dan" Davidson
Executive Director

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted, and H.B. No. 667, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KUKUI GARDENS RENTAL HOUSING COMPLEX," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 91 and H.B. No. 835, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 835, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. This measure is intended to assist the employees, retirees, and families who live at Kunia Camp and Poamoho Camp.

"Specifically, this measure establishes a program for low-interest loans and grants for home acquisition and property rehabilitation for affected plantation workers. This measure also establishes a rental assistance program and provides supportive services to prepare displaced or affected workers for homeownership.

"The closing of Del Monte Fresh Produce has had a significant adverse affect on pineapple workers, as many workers and their families live in plantation homes owned by the company. With the closing of Del Monte Fresh Produce, many workers find themselves undergoing a transition period during which they must continue to find a way to support themselves and their families. The intent of this measure is to assist the workers affected by the closing with supportive services, low-interest loans, and rental assistance.

"For the record, I'd like to provide a historical account of what has happened to these people. In February 2006, Del Monte announced plans to shut down its Hawaii pineapple operations in 2008. However, in November 2006, 2 years ahead of schedule, the company announced that closure would be immediate. The Del Monte employees were stunned. They were preparing to transition into new jobs, but needed time to complete education and training programs. They thought they had 2 years. Most of the workers only know plantation work. 90% are Filipino immigrants with limited English proficiency. According to the International Longshore & Warehouse Union ("ILWU"), of the 516 bargaining unit workers about 150 have found new jobs, but it is uncertain what their pay and benefits are.

"Federal funds are available for their training and education programs, but developing the knowledge and skills for new employment will take time. Meanwhile, these workers must pay their rents and mortgages with far less income than they had while employed by Del Monte. Financial help of any kind for their housing expenses will provide welcome relief to the workers as they transition.

"Many former Del Monte workers currently live in one of two camps that had been operated by Del Monte for employees and retiree housing. Others live in rental units or homes they are purchasing in the private market. Housing needs vary for each of them. It should be pointed out that the Hawaii State Legislature in 1995 provided assistance to the Waialua Sugar workers laid off when the company closed in 1994. Acts 30 and 31, provided for mortgage assistance and rent subsidies, but only eight mortgage loans were made and four rent subsidies were granted.

"Those living in Kunia or Poamoho Camp pay relatively affordable rents, but their primary concern is ensuring the viability of their camps. The Kunia land is owned by Campbell Company, which intends to assist the residents to maintain their affordable homes. Del Monte has pledged to continue to operate Kunia Camp until its lease with Campbell expires in December 2008. Thereafter, no one knows for sure what will happen to the homes. Poamoho Camp is now owned by Hawaiian Island Homes (Peter Savio) which plans to keep homes affordable and eventually wants to turn ownership over to a cooperative of residents. Both camps are situated on agriculturally zoned land and face issues related to land use ordinances and building codes. Those living outside the camps are faced with high rents and mortgages. With less income, they will struggle to keep up with payments.

"Mr. Speaker, I am pleased that the Conference Committee allocated $600,000 in general funds for both fiscal years 2007-2008 and 2008-2009, to provide for mortgage loans and rent subsidies. This amount could provide about 200 workers with a $500 monthly grant for six months. The Hawaii Housing and Finance Development Corporation ("HHFDC") will develop criteria and administer the funds. This assistance should be viewed as an investment to prevent homelessness and to help preserve a special way of life. The plantation traditions and values are alive and well in Kunia and Poamoho Camps and can be nurtured with this assistance. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of HB 835, HD2, SD1, CD1. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the passage of HB835, HD2, SD1, CD1, will help to address the negative effects of the closure of Del Monte Fresh Produce. The Del Monte workers were already in a bad situation when they were told that Del Monte's pineapple operation in Hawaii was set to close in 2008. This past November, things only got worse as Del Monte announced "immediate" closure – two years ahead of schedule.

"The transitional period for these workers to find new employment was always going to be difficult. Most of these workers know nothing else but plantation work, and for a vast majority English is not their first language. The fact that the closure has occurred two years earlier that expected, only compounds the problems of these displaced workers.

"The paramount concern of these workers is housing. Currently, many employees, retirees, and their families live in plantation homes. The closure could mean that these families will lose their homes. By passing this bill, the Legislature can come to the aid of these families who are simply trying to keep a roof over their heads.

"This measure will establish a program of low-interest loans and grants for home acquisition and rehabilitation; establish a rental assistance program; and provide supportive services to prepare current renters for homeownership.

"The plight of these displaced workers is of the utmost importance to me, and I am committed to seeing them successfully transition into new employment and secure adequate housing for them and their families. This measure will do much to facilitate such success.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill."

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of HB 1614, HD1. The purpose of HB 1614, HD1, is to appropriate funds out of general revenues to continue the enforcement and prosecution of the drug nuisance abatement law.

"I believe that continued funding of the Drug Nuisance Abatement Unit of the Attorney General will provide for the effective enforcement and prosecution of the nuisance abatement law related to the distribution or manufacture of drugs, and will assist law enforcers in keeping our streets free from the hazards of these drugs.

"In a report by the Department of the Attorney General, over 1,192 complaints about drug houses and illegal drug activity have been made to the Unit, since July of 2003. In that time, 645 of the cases have been closed, leaving the Unit with an existing backlog of 575 complaints. In addition, new complaints are made to the unit's hotline each week. At present, the Unit's personnel consist of one Deputy Attorney General, one full-time Investigator V based on Oahu, and a half-time Investigator V based on the island of Hawaii. In order to increase the number of drug house closings and decrease the backlog, funding for the Drug Nuisance Abatement Unit will have to be imperatively increased so that additional personnel can be hired.

"Appropriation of said funds will effectively provide the necessary personnel and provisions that are needed by the Attorney General's Office to implement the services that this Drug Nuisance Abatement Unit provides.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker and I ask my colleagues to support me on this measure."

Representative Magaoay submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of SB 1916, SD2, HD 3, CD1. Mr. Speaker, there is a shortage of care providers in Hawaii. Family care giving has become a critical element of our healthcare and long-term care systems.

"As Hawaii Legislators, it is imperative that we establish the necessary elements to address this increasing need in the state of Hawaii. We must develop and design a comprehensive and sustainable, community-based family caregiver support system, that will maximize resources in all communities.

"SB1916, SD2, HD3, CD1, requires that the Legislative Committee be extended and conduct a comprehensive assessment of care recipients' needs and the needs of their family caregivers; by requiring the Executive Office on Aging to conduct a comprehensive assessment of grandparents raising grandchildren in Hawaii, and conduct an assessment on appropriations needed to expand services for care recipients and their family caregivers, including the continuous development of the aging and disability resource center project.

"I believe that passage of SB1916, SD2, HD3, CD1, will strengthen the much needed support of family caregivers by extending the Joint Legislative Committee on Family Care Giving, and assist this Legislature in providing appropriations to implement its purposes.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker and I ask my colleagues to support me on this measure."

Representative M. Oshiro submitted written remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support for House Bill No. 122, House Draft 1, Senate Draft 1, Conference Draft 1, Relating to State Funds.

The purpose of this bill is to increase transparency in state government by requiring the Department of Budget and Finance to develop a single searchable website for the purposes of public disclosure by any for profit or nonprofit entity that receives certain types of financial assistance by the State. Financial assistance does not include single transactions less than $25,000 and credit card transactions before October 1, 2009.

"This bill was modeled after the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006 which was sponsored by U.S. Senators Tom Coburn from Oklahoma, Tom Carper from Delaware, and Hawaii's own, Barack Obama from Illinois and signed into law by President Bush on September 26, 2006.

"In Hawaii, support for this bill has come from diverse members of our community. With your permission, I ask to insert an article written by Kristina Rasmussen, Sr. Government Affairs Manager for the National Taxpayers Union; David Williams, Vice President of Policy for the Council Against Government Waste; and Richard O. Rowland, president of the Grassroot Institute of Hawaii.

"With the passage of this bill, Hawaii will be aligned with the Federal government by providing its citizens access to both federal and state government spending. This is a big step forward for Hawaii in a continuing its effort to maintain a level of trust and accountability with its budgetary process. I urge my colleagues to support this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Upping Transparency in Hawaii Government
Taxpayers Support Creating Grant and Contract Database in Hawaii
By Kristina Rasmussen, David Williams and Richard O. Rowland, 4/13/2007 1:14:31 PM

Open Letter to Hawaii Lawmakers

On behalf of our thousands of members in Hawaii, we ask you to support SB 1689 and HB 122, which were introduced by Senator Les Ihara, Jr. and Representative Marcus Oshiro, respectively.

If signed into law, this legislation would create a public website (available by January 1, 2009) that would list every entity receiving state financial awards (e.g., grants, loans, awards, and contracts) over $25,000. Providing such a database would better enable state residents to make sense of how their tax dollars are being parceled out. Both SB 1689 and HB 122 have passed their respective chambers.

As you may know, last year President Bush signed S. 2590, the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act, into law. Originally sponsored by Senators Tom Coburn (R-OK) and Barack Obama (D-IL), the bipartisan legislation directs the U.S. Office of Management and Budget to create a searchable online database (located at www.federalspending.gov) that the general public can use to track the flow of hundreds of billions of dollars in federal grant and contract expenditures.

Hawaii residents deserve the same kind of tool from Honolulu. Creating a similar website on the state scale would entail little cost, but it would greatly increase transparency in the distribution of precious tax dollars and help hold elected officials accountable for their spending programs. While more than a dozen other states have limited versions of disclosure websites for grants and/or contracts, no state to date has created a single comprehensive database. By acting now, Hawaii has the opportunity to lead the nation in making government spending data more easily accessible to the public.

Currently, HB 122 and SB 1689 call for exempting all expenditures under $25,000 from the database, which is also the federal exemption limit. We would strongly recommend that the bills be amended to lower the financial threshold for inclusion in the database. Given that the State of Hawaii spends vastly less than the federal government, providing for public inspection of all defined expenditures (or at least those above $5,000) would be a positive adjustment.

As we found at the federal level, support for this legislation will likely transcend party lines. Advocates from across the opinion spectrum share the common notion that transparency of and public access to government information is vital to the health of our political system. We sincerely hope you decide to support this legislation and help pass it into law. If we can be of any assistance in this effort, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

Kristina Rasmussen is the Sr. Government Affairs Manager for the National Taxpayers Union; David Williams is the Vice President of Policy for the Council Against Government Waste, and Richard O. Rowland is the president of the Grassroot Institute of Hawaii.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in favor of this bill to have County Ethics Commissions. At the beginning of this year, you said, I'm happy to say, that we are here trying our best to improve the conduct of all elected officials and State officials in trying to bring the trust and confidence back to the people of Hawaii. This bill looks like it will bring back some of that trust in our counties. We're even going to require the City and County of Honolulu to do the same thing, even though they already have an Ethics Committee.

"I think the sad part of this bill, Mr. Speaker, is that we are not applying the same high standard on our own body and the Legislature. This bill does not go far enough. I would have liked to see this bill call for the establishment of a Standards of Conduct Committee similar to that proposed in House Bill 1909. That's the one the House proposed.

"I commend you for trying to establish this Ethics Committee. I would have also liked to see someone be able to bring a charge against someone on the county council to such a Standards of Conduct Committee, just like someone could bring a charge against members of the Legislature as proposed in House Bill 1909. I would have liked to have seen the Standards Committee with authority to recommend ethics rules for members and employees of its respective councils, and review ethics issues as requested by the Chair of the County Council as in House Bill 1909. I think we could also have asked the counties to consider ruling out nepotism or considering drug testing for its members. After all, if it's good enough for our teachers, it may be good enough for us.

"Mr. Speaker, I would have liked to have seen all these things in this bill. Even though they are not here, I will still vote with a full and resounding yes because I believe that elected officials should be held to a higher standard of ethics and steps in that direction should be supported. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to register an aye with reservations on this measure. I believe that this is anti-home rule. I think it's up to the counties to create county ethics commissions. I don't think we'd like the County of Honolulu to set up an ethics commission for us, but maybe that's the only way we'll get one, but that's my problem with this."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I just need to clarify some of these mischaracterizations, again, on this bill. Really, it's about letting an independent body select who is going to be the Commissioner, same as we have for our State Ethics Commission. It's an independent body separate from our legislative body that makes the evaluation on ethics issues, and that's what we're doing here. That's all the bill was about. It was letting an independent body be set up to address these concerns.

"I find it very surprising that the Representative from Waialae Iki has been saying she wanted to see all these things in it because when we had the Committee Report that she voted aye on, on March 15, 2007, I don't recall any of that discussion occurring at that time. Like the Chair of Judiciary has always done, he's entertained any potential recommendations, but none of that came to the table. Instead, she's trying to fold in H.B. No. 1909, which, unfortunately, has not passed the body and is something that we can take up at a later time. But this bill is specifically limited just to county ethics commissions, and I think we should all be voting in strong support. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I too, had concerns of homerule concerns. You know, I'm a big homerule advocate or 'freak', but I contacted our County Council and they're actually in very strong support of this measure. They don't think there is political will at the county level to ever initiate this kind of thing. They're in very strong support, so, I'm in strong support, as well."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in my defense, I will say I was very supportive of the House bill when we voted on it because it did contain some of the features that I specified, and I would have supported the Senate bill, as well. But I would just like to point out that we are being hypocrites by demanding a county ethics commission and not passing one for ourselves. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Thank you. Just to clarify. Currently, the Mayors appoint the Ethics Commissions for the counties and the county councils approve. What this bill does is it conforms to the State Ethics Commission as a model, where an independent body appoints them. And that's what we're asking the counties to do. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 755, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTY ETHICS COMMISSIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 3:22 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 139, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a potential conflict. My family is in contracting," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict.

Representative Thielen continued in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. And, Mr. Speaker, I do support the bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1425, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTRACTOR LICENSING REQUIREMENTS DURING A STATE OF EMERGENCY OR DISASTER," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Mizuno being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1924, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Har rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of SB 1924 SD2 HD2 CD1. This bill would allow the sale of up to fifteen acres of land to an eleemosynary organization for a community center. I am in support of this measure because it would allow the Salvation Army Kroc Corps Community Center to be developed in the Ewa region. The Kroc Corps Community Center will provide quality programs and services to the residents of Ewa and Kapolei.

"Hawaii was selected over competing states because of support from community leaders, businesses and City and State officials during the application process and this measure would provide further evidence of support for this project. Accordingly, I stand in strong support of SB 1924 SD2 HD2 CD1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1924, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LANDS CONTROLLED BY THE STATE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Mizuno being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 18 and S.B. No. 866, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 866, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TOURISM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Mizuno being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1017, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to point out a couple of things. Throughout the length of this bill, what this bill tries to accomplish is basically money in grants-in-aid that was appropriated last year and due to some language, Habitat for Humanity has not been able to utilize those funds. I understand that an AG opinion was completed as to the legality of it and that is actually not the problem. It's not a legal issue. It actually is that $700,000 that Habitat for Humanity is supposed to establish a zero-interest revolving loan fund to be used to provide loans to low income families to build self-help ownership homes.

"In the past, the reason why they were unable to establish this or use this money is because last year there was this section where it says, to be administered in accordance with subpart (b) and, basically, it refers to 201. At the time it was G, and now it says H, and that's Hula Mae Funds by the Hula Mae Loan program. And over the year, Habitat for Humanity and Hula Mae tried to do exactly what this says, but they cannot integrate the two programs together. So, it's not a legal issue, and the AG would not be able to say that this bill is flawed or anything like that, legally.

"What happens is there's going to be another year where Habitat for Humanity will not be able to use this $700,000. We were wanting to do an amendment, but because of our history of not being able to pass amendments on the Floor, we didn't attempt to do one. So, we just pointed out a glaring error, and what had happened was throughout both Houses, I believe, the section in which it connects it to Hula Mae was never discussed. This was put in during Conference Committee. I would almost think that why would you want to do that when you've heard throughout the whole Session that they are unable to do it, so, I'm just kind of puzzled."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I'd just like to read an e-mail that we just received from HHFDC, Mavis Masaki, a planner. I'm just quoting her. She says, 'Before I spoke with you this morning', and it's my office manager, 'I consulted with the Deputy AG working with me on the Habitat contract. She's assured me that the floor amendment is not necessary and that we will be ready to execute the contract with Habitat by the end of the month with amended contract language that she is preparing. I am meeting with her this Thursday to go over the amended contract language. The only other remaining items that must be completed before we can execute the contract and encumber the GIA monies is to obtain the necessary certifications from Habitat, such as tax clearance, labor certification, etc. I've also spoken with Kathi Hasegawa', who's from Habitat for Humanity, 'this morning to discuss this with her and let her know that we'll make it work on our end.'

"It seems it's hopeful that has been addressed and I think we all agree that Habitat is a very worthy cause, and it appears as though the problems have been worked out. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with some reservations that probably have just been taken away, except I want to put a strong plug in for Habitat for Humanity. We have a housing crisis and we also have a housing solution. This area using local labor with small amounts of money using people who have equity in a house, 'sweat equity', by doing fantastic things. If there's any delay in that $700,000, I think we're cutting off our nose to spite our face.

"This is something I've seen firsthand not only at the Carter Center in Georgia, but I've seen in Aceh the first housing that went up was Habitat for Humanity. So, they're not only doing good things here, but all over the world, and to let them go on unbridled and free to do what they can do, I think is the best thing that we can do. So, I hope the previous speaker and the Chair speaks precisely from her e-mail and the implementation will be decision driven."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If that is true, I am very happy to hear that they are working it out. It was a strong point that they were saying that it was near to impossible that they would be able to work out the two programs together. So, if they did the impossible and are able to figure it out, then great. I just hope that we don't have to come back and try to fix it later."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support for SB 1017 HD1 CD1.

"Habitat for Humanity is a self-help home building/buying program for low-income families who are in need of a simple, decent and affordable home. Currently, there are many ongoing Habitat projects in areas where "truly" affordable homes are scarce. There are many homeless/houseless families who are working, but cannot afford the cost of buying a traditional home. The funds provided by this bill will allow for a zero-interest revolving home loan for at least 30 families on the Leeward side of Oahu to become homeowners. We need to support this effort. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1017, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Mizuno being excused.

At 3:29 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 1675, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1425, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1924, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 866, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 58, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1017, HD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 23 and S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. This bill, Mr. Speaker, originated from a special guy. He's from Hawaii Kai, but it doesn't have his name on it any longer. He's the great orator that, I think, a lot of you will know by name and reputation.

"But the purpose of this bill is to clarify the Small Business Regulatory Act. Mr. Speaker, some of us go way back to the mid-90s when we went to the White House Conference on Small Business where Small Business Regulatory Acts were sweeping the nation. We then came back from the Washington conference and had essentially a Statewide Small Business Congress by which then the following year, 1997, legislation was submitted. And this Act was actually passed.

"What we've done through the years is to perfect it and to, with this bill, even make it better so that when there's a regulation, its impact on small business will be written up, circulated for input very democratically, and very systematic for the sake of small business survival. Having curtailed my remarks, Mr. Speaker, the remainder I wish to insert in the Journal with your permission. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this measure.

"This bill was originally introduced by the Senator from Hawaii Kai. The purpose of the measure was to clarify the Small Business Regulatory Flexibility Act.

"It would achieve this purpose by providing that a small business impact statement will be prepared and submitted to the Small Business Regulatory Review Board as early as practicable in the rule drafting process, providing that adopted rules affecting small business will be reviewed to determine if they are still appropriate within five years after adoption, and making nonsubstantive changes to Chapter 201M, HRS, to clarify the definition of a rule to remove outdated sections of the chapter.

"The bill was amended a few times and in its present form it does the same basic thing, but it goes a little further in that it asks the Board to review all new rules and those being amended and not only the ones they think should be reviewed, and ask that the Board would inform small businesses whose complaints that have not been upheld, that the business may submit a complaint to the Ombudsman.

"It clearly sets forth when a small business impact statement is to be submitted to the Small Business Regulatory Review Board during the drafting phase for new and changed administrative rules.

"It adds a review of new changed rules to the list of the Board's "powers" that were focused on existing rules.

"It requires a draft to be sent to the Board which is essentially complete. This encourages a dialogue between the drafting agency and the Board before it is sent to the Governor and for public hearing.

"It requires agencies to submit rules to the Board every odd year for review and for the Board to review them and submit a report of the results to the Legislature.

"It allows a small business to petition the rule making agency objecting to the impact of a rule. If the agency doesn't make changes, the Board will consider the merits of the petition. If the Board does not recommend the small businesses' changes, then the Board should tell the petitioner that they can submit their complaint to the ombudsman.

"Mr. Speaker, these changes will continue to ensure and allow our smallest firms to have a voice in ensuring that Administrative Rules are not overly burdensome, while regulatory agencies can still provide for consumer, environmental, and workplace safety considerations as they carry out their responsibilities."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SMALL BUSINESS REGULATORY FLEXIBILITY ACT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 25 and S.B. No. 46, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 46, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. The purpose of this bill is to require a public disclosure in a timely manner of proposed changes to compensation packages for University of Hawaii administrators. Sounds reasonable. But is it? Consider this.

"The University of Hawaii is a public university supported by taxpayers of our State. We expect the best. We expect the Board of Regents, the President of the University, and the Chancellor to recruit top-notch personnel. We expect the best. But this bill will hamper that effort, Mr. Speaker. Allowing proposed compensation to be disclosed for public comment prior to a contract being negotiated or signed will clearly damage the University's bargaining position. This would frustrate the process by breaking confidentiality and potentially causing some applicants to withdraw for fear of affecting their current employment. Obviously, this would stifle our effort to get the very best.

"Think of it this way. Would you put the same requirement on union negotiations? Of course not. Thank you very much."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I'll try and make this really short. I had some concerns originally because I was going to vote no, and decided to change my mind. But what had happened originally was basically saying, we wanted to attract the best people and that might mean high salary. One of the things that Office of Information Practices was mentioning is that in this form, it may properly be withheld from public disclosure. I know the transparency is something that we always talk about and we want to make sure it remains in the forefront of the public that we're being transparent with them.

"The reason why I have reservations now and not voting no is because if you have a Board that overpays or gives contracts, a really high amount of money and that person is not worth the amount of money, then you would most likely say, 'Okay, through the appointment process, hold accountable the people who had appointed them.' Before it used to be the Governor. The Governor's responsibility was reflective of them and it would reflect off the Governor, and there was, to me, more accountability. As it stands, and I believe that will change, that there is less, in my opinion, accountability. And so, now I'm kind of changing my stance and saying, 'Well, if there's less accountability from the Board level, then maybe the only thing that we can do is have something like this.' Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this particular measure. I'd just like to point out what the OIP office said in testimony. They testified that the government employees have a significant privacy interest in proposed compensation, which generally is not outweighed by the public interest and disclosure. Consequently, the salary that an agency is proposing to pay an employee is currently not public information and may properly be withheld from public disclosure. This bill runs counter to the previous point by requiring the Board of Regents to disclose proposed compensation or changing compensation for certain UH administrative posts.

"OIP also went on to note that this bill may not be necessary. The Sunshine Law, and I'm quoting them now, 'Currently gives the public the opportunity to testify on any matters listed on the Board's agenda.' The Board's agenda must provide sufficient information so that the public knows what the Board intends to consider. As a result, 'although the exact salary that the Board proposes to pay a specific employee may not be included in the agenda, the Board is already required by the sunshine law to provide sufficient information to inform the public of its consideration of an employee's proposed compensation.'

"Although the goals of this bill are admirable, we should not place an under burden on UH that is not necessary. The testimony presented by OIP presents a compelling case of a right to privacy of an individual for proposed compensation. Moreover, this bill is not even necessary, as the Sunshine Law offers the public an opportunity for their input. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 46, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 27 and S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing to speak against this bill. Mr. Speaker, this bill adds biofuel processing facilities to the list of permitted uses in an agricultural district. What concerns me is that it's not just processing facility that will be a permitted use in the ag district. It's also the appurtenances associated with the biofuel processing plant.

"My concern is that there won't be any land use review. Once it becomes a permitted use in the ag district, that's it. They can be built. There's no county land use review that would minimize any impacts that could occur. Biofuels are really on a fast track. The concern I have about that is that we have natural resources that are much better to tap for renewable energy. We have the wind, we have the ocean, we have solar, and those are the true renewable energy sources. Our ag land should remain in ag production for food for the people of Hawaii. We're going to need that. And as where conflicts escalate, we're going to need to know that we are self-sufficient with our food grown right here in the islands. Buy local, but you can't buy local if it's not grown local, so, save the ag land for food. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, with 60% of our ag lands from sugar and pineapple, and yesterday we just learned from Maui that, I think, pineapple is closing down. Until those 60% that are empty just growing weeds, I think we've got to get behind this. We want to diversify, we want to sustain. We have to also be entrepreneurial, experimental and open-minded. Otherwise we are wasting our lands because of the lack of use of them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Berg, Ching and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 28 and S.B. No. 56, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 56, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO JURY SERVICE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Evans and McKelvey voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 29 and S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At 3:40 o'clock p.m., Representative Souki requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:43 o'clock p.m.

Representative Cabanilla rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"With reservations in that the offense to rise to the level of a felony is too severe for some cases contained in the measure."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. First of all, I don't condone anyone abusing a pet. I think that we should take care of our animals. In fact, I just purchased a rabbit named Pufi for my daughter three days ago, and I told her that she must be responsible for it. If I didn't purchase Pufi, who is a one-year-old rabbit, they were going to give it to the Humane Society, and I know that they are going to put it to death.

"So, we saved this rabbit, put it in our backyard, gave her in a nice cage. And, now, my daughter has extra work to do, along with me. I'd like to point to this bill and say that it is really, really a big step for us to make causing the death or substantial bodily injury to pet animals a five-year felony. The bill, I think, does not treat each animal the same way, because if you look at the definition of pet animals, it means a dog or cat. That means it could be either a wild dog or a wild cat that no one owns, and you can still be included if you kill it or cause substantial bodily injury to it, you could end up being in jail for five years.

"For the rabbits, however, because my daughter's rabbit, Pufi, is domesticated, if someone were to kill or cause bodily injury to that rabbit, that would be a five year felony. But a hunter who's gone to the backyard somewhere, I don't know if we have wild rabbits somewhere that's running around in Hawaii, and you shoot it and cause bodily injury to it, that is not a felony. It's exempted. A domesticated pig, if you cause a death of substantial bodily injury to it, that will cause you to be prosecuted for a five year Class C felony. But a wild pig running around in Mililani, running around in Ka'u, somewhere where there are wild pigs, and you cause a death of that pig or substantial bodily injury to that pig, that is not a felony. That's not even a violation. So, we're treating animals by their status. Or, rather, we're giving them a different status.

"When I voted for this bill in Committee and I said, I'm voting yes, I had people calling me and saying, 'Why are you changing your vote?' I said that I really didn't change it because I feel any differently. I really don't feel that animals should be treated in a way that would cause people to be in prison for five years. I value them, but I think the law as it exists, one year in jail, I think, is sufficient. This bill goes one step forward and it takes a huge step for us.

"We are a community that's very diverse. We have different feelings and ideas about animals. But I think this idea where we take a cat or a dog, be it a wild cat or wild dog, or a domesticated cat or dog, domesticated rabbit, or domesticated pig, and treat them as if they were more valuable than our children left in cars. We as a society should have this discussion.

"I think most of society right now in the State of Hawaii, does not support a five year Class C felony for substantial injury or death to a cat or dog. Not when we still take the same animal, such as domesticated pig, for instance. If that pig was grown in a barn, put it in a slaughter house, we kill it, and put it on our plate. It's the same animal. Why do we give it a different status?

"If we really, truly care about animals. If we take a cat that's outgrown its use in the home or because you are moving, you give it to Humane Society, and they have hundreds of dogs and they destroy them, what is the exemption on that? In fact, the bill does not have an exemption because it might be problematic.

"Destruction of animals is exempted or you may be exempted from 711-A that's contemplated in this bill, that means you can cause the death of an animal by torture, mutilation, and poisoning … "

Representative Sagum rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative. It does not give an exemption for anybody to put any animal to death. If it's an accepted veterinary practice, then maybe that's exempted. Activities carried on for scientific research governed by standards accepted for educational or medicinal purposes. That means you can take a dog or a cat and dissect it. Cropping or docking as customarily practiced, which I think is a good idea. But it does not have exemptions for anyone to put an animal, such as a cat or a dog, unless there is something else in the statute that exempts them, then the Humane Society, who is the main proponent of this measure should take a look at that to see whether or not they're exempt from killing cats or killing dogs or any of these domesticated animals that are contemplated in this particular measure.

"I'd like to point you again to page 4. It gives the definition of what is torture. Torture includes every act, omission, or neglect whereby unjustified physical pain, suffering or death is caused or permitted. That means, Mr. Speaker, that if I give my daughter the responsibility to care for Pufi and for some reason, I don't do a good job of supervising her, and Pufi dies, she has just become a victim in this particular bill because it is any act or omission causing death, although it is neglect.

"This is a dangerous bill. I think we're moving a little too fast. I don't think Hawaii is ready because no matter which we go on this bill, we're going to have somebody calling us. When I voted no on this the last four years I've been in this Legislature, I got phone calls saying, 'How would you like somebody stabbing you in the chest?' When I voted yes on this bill, somebody called me and said, 'How could you vote like that?' When I made a comment in the paper, and was quoting the paper that I think we should prefer human beings to animals when it comes right down to it, somebody called me on the phone and said, 'How dare you? How dare you prefer humans over an animal? How could you say such a thing?'

"There will always be people who will be unhappy no matter which way I go. So, I might as well be honest with you, Mr. Speaker, and this body. I do prefer humans over animals. I love animals. I have pets. But when it comes right down it, I'm not going to put anybody in jail for five years for the death of a dog or a cat. One year is sufficient. It's on the books.

"We're expanding this quickly because of special interest, but I think it is really, really difficult to craft legislation that is proper, careful, and that will not have negative consequences. It has unequal protection for pigs and rabbits. It is unequal protection for any animal that we put on our plate, really. So, Mr. Speaker and Members, I'm saying this because the public's going to look at us anyway, and who is protecting animals and who is protecting humans? Basically, if you are for this bill, there will be people who are for you. If you don't vote for this bill, there will also be people for you. I think it is everyone's choice.

"I'm sorry for that yes vote. I was compelled to do so, and I might as well disclose it. That is the reason why I voted yes. I've never, ever meant to vote yes, but I had to. I would like to thank the Chair of Judiciary, the Vice Chair of Judiciary and the staff of the Committee on Judiciary and the House. They worked so hard in this measure. I know that I put considerable input into this and I thank them for their consideration. But when it comes right down to it, when it comes to put my cast this vote, I feel very strongly that we should limit punishment to one year, which is on the books, especially when we have such a conflicting bill which obviously we are not ready and prepared for. Thank you very much."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Pet animals provide companionship and enjoyment to their owners. Harm committed against pet animals causes significant emotional distress to their owners. Thus pet animals are protected by this felony provision and that's what this bill does. It strengthens Hawaii's animal cruelty law by creating a Class C felony offense of cruelty to animals in the first degree.

"In criminal law, there are three things that are required. You need an act. You need a state of mind. And you need a result. In this case, the act is to torture, mutilate or poison. You have to do one of those three things. You have to intend to torture, mutilate or poison. It has to be a conscious object to do this. Or you have to knowingly do this. And it has to cause a specific result, the result being death or serious bodily injury. Death is death, of course. But HRS defines serious bodily injury as an injury which causes a substantial risk of death or serious permanent disfigurement or protracted loss for impairment of a bodily member or organ. And the state of mind applies to all those elements. And as well, it has to be a pet animal.

"So, if there's a pig and you're hunting it, it's not a pet animal. You're not a felon. You're not a misdemeanant either. It applies to pet animals. So, again, this is for the most serious of acts against pet animals. The reason is because like I mentioned in onset; that for many people intentionally or knowingly killing or causing bodily injury to their pets causes huge injuries to them.

"And, by the way, just for the Members' information, we're only one of nine states, I believe, who doesn't have this. And this bill does not deal with cockfighting at all. If you notice the definition of pet animal, chickens or cocks are not included there. We also put in an exemption where you clip the tail or clip the ears. That's not a felony.

"We put an exemption in for pest control people for misdemeanor offense. If you intentionally kill a pet animal when you tent the house, well, that's a felony because you intended or knowingly did it. But if it was reckless, you're not a criminal. We did do a lot of work on this. We had the input of the Labor Chair. And by the way, he wrote half the bill. Anyway, thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. The last time, I reserved the right to vote no on this bill. Mr. Speaker, I have two dogs that I adore. I would never hurt them. In fact, they get better medical care than most people in my district.

"When I was at Cornell Hotel School and taking courses in food, we were required to go New York City and watch the slaughter of chickens and steers. I know that's not covered by this bill, but you want to talk about cruelty to animals. What they do to the chickens. They put them on a conveyor belt. The heads are in a cone. The heads were sliced off. Then they're dipped in paraffin and the rubber rods knock off all the paraffin. The chickens in many cases are still alive.

"In the case of kosher kill for cattle, which is what is done in New York City, the cattle are lifted up by their feet, alive. The rabbi slices their throat. To watch that, and it was almost 50 years ago that I took those courses, it still sticks in my mind.

"So, if we want to talk about cruelty to animals, we need to go way beyond pets. If we're really going to talk about, let's talk about it. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm still in opposition, Mr. Speaker. I just want to continue my comments regarding the charge of felony. It seems like we believe that harshening punishment is affixed to everything there is, and it's an easy way to fix something in our minds. But we received and heard different discussions repeatedly in this Chamber, that harshening punishment really does not deter crime. It only sounds good, but it doesn't work. We heard that same discussion on the three strikes bill and we still affixed it. We still made it to be 30 year mandatory, and I'm bringing that same discussion into this right now. And I think that this is just the practice of this Chamber and I'm saddened by that. That harshening punishment is the only solution that we can come up with.

"And, again, on the special status of animals, I've heard multiple times of children getting killed by vicious dogs, but yet we never do anything about it except to destroy the animal. We never go after the owner and make it a felony charge for them. There's a lot of inequity in this Chamber, Mr. Speaker, and I say this is one of them. This is definitely a special interest for people with special stature in which their initiatives and mandates are heard. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. There have been many arguments on this bill, I think, over this Session, and the most recent one about comparing this to chickens. Chickens, I will repeat for the third time, chickens and cockfighting are not in this bill. I want to also ask that the words of the Representative of Kailua, a big pet loving community, be entered as my own.

"In this bill, I count six times that pet animal is referred to. Pet animal. Not wild boar. Not wild chicken or wild feral cats, but a pet animal. And then domesticated pig. I submit that this bill is not against humans or against pets; or raising pets to a human level, or lowering humans to a pet level. What this bill is about is, it's against cruelty. That's how I read this bill. It's against cruelty.

"I personally think it's time we take a stand against those things that are uncivil. We have one of the worst rates in the nation for pedestrian fatality. We have one of the worst rates in the nation for a number of things, in this State that calls itself the Aloha State, and which bases its industry on tourism, which is the hospitality industry.

"Relatively, in making things well. What do you call cruelty? There is an old saying, 'Even a dog knows when it's been kicked', and no pun intended. Letters to the editor, phone calls, testimony. We have one of the highest rates of pet ownership in the United States, and I've gotten numerous calls on this bill. There are a lot of people, they are not pet owners, that don't like what they're hearing.

"If I can just briefly go through a few. Try this one. Someone coming on to your private property and says to the person who is trespassing, 'Stop, stop. It's a pet pig. It's a pet pig.' The person proceeds to come on your private property, take machete in hand, mutilate the pet, cut off one of its legs and run off with it. The pet, for however you feel about pigs and all that, the pet pig was actually one of these, like the dog for one of the banks. It was a movie star pig."

Representative Green rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you. Conjure up this. Conjure up that someone coming on to your private property. I mean, relativity. You want to go with relativity. Nothing's cruel, nothing's bad, nothing's uncivil. But when something like that happens, it's a little different. This bill, I think, is a very well thought-out bill. It took a long time and we kept, in the past denying this bill. Deny, deny, deny, deny this bill. We took out the cockfighting. What we're talking about is decency here.

"I've said this before on the Floor. In particular, I must admit, I believe in dogs. Dogs have earned the distinction of man's best friend. They fought along side our people in war. They've died for it. They've been allowed on the floor of Congress. They take care of our people. In some cases, they're the only family for some of our members of society, for people without companions, for the blind. Some of them for elders, for people who have, in fact, they show that dogs have very much an effect on mental illness and people who are depressed. They've earned their right as man's best friend.

"I have friends on the mainland that are just thinking, I can't get over what's going on in the Aloha State. I don't understand why they're still one of nine that just won't do this. This is a very well thought-out bill. There are a lot of exemptions. I think that's a step in the right direction. If we're going to step towards civility, it is to say that we are anti-cruelty. And I think that's what this bill is about. We know the difference. We're not talking about just kicking a dog. We're talking about cruelty. And for those that understand that we don't allow that and the link between that, and later violence for people who have that sort of thing.

"I might add that it's one of the symptoms, when they talk about serial killers, etc., it's one of the symptoms. Early, cruelty to animals and continuously, how that can affect someone if you were to hurt their animal, and what that does to another person. I think it's pretty clear. This is not a frivolous bill, and I do take umbrage against it being cast that way. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, I don't think it's any secret that I love animals. I've handfed, rocked, and nursed my 16-year-old dog, Flash, through several illnesses and I get up to take him outside, two to three times at night. Another dog of mine was rescued from a garbage heap and nursed to health. My five cats have been rescued as abandoned kittens screaming in hunger in the night, or starving adult cats that no one wanted. I've rescued many baby birds, handfed and protected them until they could fly, or given them a quiet place to die.

"A few weeks ago, I stood on the Floor of the House and said that this bill is long overdue. I still think that. I'm really sorry because I support the contents of the bill. But, today the Legislature and, particularly, the Senate has got its priorities wrong. We need to take a good look at what or whom we should protect.

"About two months ago, a little three-year-old Sarah Okutani died after being left in her seat in the back of a car all alone. It must have been a horrible death. The car's temperature likely rose to over a hundred degrees, and her body temperature to 105 to 106 degrees, causing her to have a severe dry mouth, eyes, and skin. She may have convulsed and vomited, and probably aspirated. She surely screamed in terror, but no one came. No one was there to listen and she died alone.

"So, Mr. Speaker, in good conscience, as a nurse and a mother of four, and a grandmother of two little girls about the same age as Sarah, I can't vote for this bill until the Legislature gets its priorities straight and passes a bill to protect and prevent injuries to children left alone in cars.

"Senate Bill 1665 creates a Class C felony. In the case of the Keiki Bill, all that was asked for was a fine. A fine, Mr. Speaker. Only $200 for the first offense; something that may have saved a little life. Inexplicably, that was turned down by the Senate. Therefore, I vote no on this bill with hopes that we decide to come back next year when we're thinking more clearly to pass bills that protect both our children and our animal friends. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Lee be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm standing in strong support. I understand all the discussions been going on, but I think it's true from everything that we do have to stand sooner or later for animals; for those who can't speak up and animals are one of those. Our whole society is rife with violence, not only to each other and ourselves, but to all the things around us. So, whatever step we can take is good.

"I also don't agree with heavy fines or heavy prison terms. I don't like it. But we do need to send a very strong message out there that any life that's above a plant, is precious and needs to be protected. And it says a lot about who we are that we don't trade that off for anything, and that we do protect the very things that are in our protectorate. So, I vote very much in favor of this."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with support with reservations. As the Chair of Public Safety, I need to point out that this bill does not have an appropriation. It does not look at a study on the impact that it may have on our facilities because it does have a Class C felony in it. That concerns me.

"I like the idea that we're addressing the cruelty to animals because I, like others that have spoken, believe that people that who can mutilate and do it viciously, could psychologically have problems with them. I don't know if throwing them in jail for five years is appropriate if you don't have the mental health services and the treatment services necessary. You put people in there like this, that may be extremely angry, just venting themselves on an animal. What happens when you put them in prison for five years and let them seethe? Where do you solve that problem of their internal anger? So, you put them right back into the community and again, they may commit a crime.

"So, if we're going to step up and say they need to be put in jail, then we'd better have the services and the programs and the facilities for them. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing up with reservations. Last year this Legislature moved to make our shelters expand to allow pets, and as the introducer of the bill, I committed to supporting our friends and family members of the four-legged type. But I was also moved by my colleague from Mililani, so I will be voting with reservations."

Representative Sagum rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ANIMALS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Chang, Herkes, Lee, Meyer, Sonson and Souki voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 30 and S.B. No. 1833, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1833, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This bill talks about the Family Leave Act. The Family Leave Act pertains to companies with a hundred or more employees, but neither big nor small businesses should have their management rights taken away, especially, in these instances where they are required to permit employees to take up to four weeks of family leave.

"This bill changes the phrase, "employee or employer" by deleting the word "employer." It unilaterally permits an employee to elect to use accrued paid leave, including vacation, personal or family leave, for any part of a four-week period of family leave provided under law. The Family Leave Act provides a presumption that four weeks of family leave is: number one, unpaid; and number two, restricted to four weeks, unless otherwise agreed upon by both employer and employee, referring to an accrued ten sick-day limit or employment or collective bargaining contract.

"Under the Family Leave Act, employers who provide sick leave are required to allow employees up to ten sick days for part of the four weeks. It currently defers the election to the employee for up to half of the time. Passage of this measure allows employees to usurp managerial decision-making authority which greatly impacts other employees, operations and customer service.

"I have more remarks, Mr. Speaker, but I will just insert them in the Journal. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"For any part of the four weeks, an employer may need to hire a temporary employee for the remaining two weeks and may simply not be able to afford the cost of two employees for one position during the four weeks. Employers are substantially challenged by having to identify qualified replacement for short term placements. Also, when they do find replacements, it is extremely costly on the front end of the employment and training cycle.

"This bill is one-sided and places a disadvantage on employers who have generously provided paid leave that were intended to apply to absences caused by reasons under the Hawaii Family Leave Act.

"Permitting either the employee or employer is reasonable in the context of an employee/employer relationship. If employees anticipate the need for anything different, employers should not be forced to concede if it is not in the best interest of the company. The existing provisions do not prohibit employers to voluntarily permit employees the unilateral choice to elect if that is their company policy and non-discriminatory.

"It is one-sided as employers will have no guidance from this measure or legal recourse because even the Director of DLIR points out that there is no provisions for enforcement or regulation, or guidelines for proper accounting of paid and unpaid hours during the four weeks, or even at termination.

CLOSING

"The current version of the Family Leave Act adequately provides the public with protection from losing their jobs when they need time to take care of their personal or immediate family health concerns within a four week period.

"The Supreme Court consistently decides in favor of preserving management rights when management decisions do not infringe upon or abuse employee's rights. We should vote the same way. I urge my colleagues to vote WR or NO. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1833, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

At 4:14 o'clock p.m., Representative Magaoay requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:19 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 31 and S.B. No. 1004, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1004, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. In support and I would like to present remarks on this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to increase access to mental health care by establishing requirements under which qualified, licensed psychologists practicing at federally qualified health centers may prescribe certain types of psychotropic medication under the general supervision of a medical doctor.

"S.B. 1004 represents a viable solution to address the significant access to mental health care problems that plague our State's medically underserved areas and populations.

"S.B. 1004, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 has been amended several times to include significant changes that effectively respond to safety and training issues raised during the Legislative Session. These changes include: 1) increased training hours to exceed those required by the Department of Defense's PDP; 2) limiting the practice to Federally Qualified Health Centers only and not other clinics in underserved areas; and 3) improved language to further clarify the supervisory standards.

"Rural areas such as my district and others, are geographically isolated, impoverished areas and their residents are in a state of crisis when it comes to getting the mental health care they need and deserve.

"One doesn't have to look far to see the devastating effects of substance abuse, particularly ice. According to a Justice Department report, "Hawaii has the worst crystal methamphetamine problem in the country and it is destroying families and communities with 40% of people arrested by police in Honolulu testing positive for methamphetamine use.

"Increasingly, community health centers in rural and urban areas are the providers of behavioral health care in at-risk communities because their patients, who typically have a number of social, educational, economic and health problems are more likely even than the norm to suffer from depression, anxiety and other mental disorders. At the same time, they are much less likely to have access to any behavioral healthcare providers other than those who work at the health center.

"The homelessness, domestic violence, and suicides that occur in our State on a near daily basis, are also prevalent and devastating and warrant attempts to improve and re-establish effective mental health treatment approaches. S.B. 1004 represents such an attempt. Oftentimes, these problems are the end result of normal stressors that go untreated and become chronic, lifestyle problems. The Community Health Centers are positioned to provide holistic, integrated care that could effectively treat and prevent problems such as depression, anxiety, and substance abuse from getting worse.

"The Hawaii Primary Care Association, along with the majority of Community Health Center CEOs, EDs, and Medical Directors, have testified in strong support of S.B. 1004. They have come to rely heavily on licensed clinical psychologists as members of their primary care teams to provide holistic, timely, and integrative behavioral health and primary care services.

"The Molokai Ohana Community Health Center and the Hana Community Health Center are both in my district and would be positively impacted by this piece of legislation.

"Hana is in one of the most isolated areas of our State. Their unemployment rate is 13% and almost half of the families that reside in Hana (47%) fall below the 200% Federal Poverty Level. Hana has the highest infant mortality rate in the State and meets federal designations for a mental health professional shortage area and medically underserved population. Fifty-one percent of the clinics' patients are either under- or un-insured, and 49% are Native Hawaiian.

"On Molokai, the Community Health Center was established in 2004, and also serves an island community that has been designated a mental health professional shortage area, as well as a medically underserved area. Ninety percent of the patients that frequent this health center live less than 200% below the Federal Poverty Level, 62% are either under- or un-insured, and 33% are Native Hawaiian.

"These community health centers are typical of those across our State in that among the patients they serve, 70% are in need of behavioral health services. However, in 2005, only about 11% of the community health center patients actually received these needed services. With extremely limited mental health referral networks in rural areas, and an overburdened mental health system statewide, the community health centers have become the de facto mental health system in many communities.

"Depression and anxiety are the two most often diagnosed mental health conditions in Hawaii's community health centers, accounting for 60-75% of all patient visits. These conditions have been linked to strikingly higher costs; thus, people who report persistent untreated depression have annual adjusted medical costs that are 70% higher than those who do not report having depression.

"We cannot ignore the fact that the community health center community is largely in support of this bill.

"The CEO's from Waianae and Waikiki have testified in person at recent hearings. The medical director, Dr. Dan Shuman, from Molokai Community Health Center was also here at the last Consumer Protection hearing testifying about the high quality of care provided by the psychologists he has worked with in his center. Dr. Ric Custodio and Dr. Bob Bohnert have also testified in overwhelming support based on their real life experience in working with psychologists who have already received some extra training in psychopharmacology and provide irreplaceable services in both their primary care clinics and emergency room department. The community health centers know what they want, and what will work best for their patients. They want the psychologists who are already working successfully on their teams to receive advanced training to enhance their ability to manage the medication aspects of the behavioral health patients' needs, and to provide combination therapy (both medication and talk therapy) which has proven to be the most effective treatment approach for multiple psychological problems.

"Community health center doctors are overwhelmed with their patients' behavioral health needs. They deliver half of all mental healthcare in the U.S. and account for more than two-thirds of all psychoactive agents and 80% of all anti-depressants in the U.S.

"In a survey of our local community health center doctors, primary care physicians reported the top three functions they see as essential in the primary care setting: (1) behavioral health intervention (therapy); (2) psychotropic medication consultation; and (3) relapse prevention/compliance enhancement. Combination therapy (both medication and talk therapy) is the most effective treatment approach for the most common problems seen in community health centers.

"Psychologists have proven to be leaders in serving Hawaii's rural and underserved populations and have been doing so in 10 of the 13 community health centers and in the Native Hawaiian Health systems since the year 2000. These clinics include: Waianae Coast Comprehensive Center, Waimanalo Health Center, Bay Clinic, Ho'ola Lahui-Kauai Community Health Center, Molokai Community Health Center, Hana Community Health Center, West Hawaii Community Health Center, Kalihi Palama Community Health Center, Kokua Kalihi Valley, and Na Pu'uwai Native Hawaiian Health Care System.

"It's time to pass this much needed legislation and get necessary care out to the thousands of primary care patients who have problems that, if left untreated, will result in unnecessary impairment, suffering, and devastation."

Representative Carroll also submitted the following letter to the editor:

"We must take exception to the letter claiming that passage of a measure to provide prescriptive privileges to psychologists would make mentally ill people second class citizens. This is just one more piece of sensationalist misinformation. Here are the facts about the bills we support that would expand what properly trained psychologists can do:

ONLY psychologists who have completed a rigorous multi-year post-doctoral training program in psychopharmacology would be eligible for the expanded privileges. That means they will have an educational background comparable to other primary care providers who can prescribe these medications.

ONLY a limited range of prescription medications will be on the psychologists' formulary. That means they'll be limited to prescribing drugs for people with anxiety and depression. They will NOT be prescribing drugs for people with schizophrenia, bi-polar conditions, or other problems that should be properly managed by a psychiatrist.

ONLY the appropriately-trained psychologist who practice at COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS will have these privileges and ONLY when they are working as a part of team with physicians. This means that psychology prescriptive practice will be limited to places where there are considerable unmet needs, where quality improvement and evaluation processes are in place, and where systems and practices are established to meet the particular needs of people with neglected health problems complicated by economic, educational, and cultural barriers to care elsewhere.

As Richard Bettini, CEO of the Waianae Coast Comprehensive Health Center, noted in recent testimony, "Prescriptive authority for psychologists is what most community health centers want. Give us some credit. We're the people who care most about what's best for our clients and know what works."

Paul Strauss,
Executive Director of Waikiki Health Center and Board Chair

Beth Giesting, CEO Hawaii Primary Care Association of the Hawaii Primary Care Association"

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm voting no on this measure, CCR 31. Just quick comments. The only reason why I'm voting no is because I'm unsure whether or not we meet all the LRB recommendations and the DOD requirements, and I'm wondering if all those things were met. From what I understand, the DOD requirements are quite expensive and we're still not sure if that meets that. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On Conf. Com. Rep. No. 31, I'll be voting no, and I have some remarks I want to insert in the Journal. I'm not on the Health Committee, but it seems to me, I've heard a lot about this. I wasn't aware that actually only two states in the United States have passed a law similar to this. During the 2007 Session alone, legislators in California, Georgia, Illinois, Mississippi, Montana and Tennessee have all rejected similar legislation. It doesn't look like this is an issue that's been embraced in a large way across the country.

"With the huge difference in training, and the fact that psychologists have no medical training whatsoever, I think the 660 hours are just a 'smidgen' of the ten-year training that psychiatrists have had. So, I would caution my colleagues here to move very cautiously on this. This is not something that has been universally accepted and it definitely could create problems for the very people that you think you're going to help. Thank you."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition on CCR 31, which allows psychologists practicing at federally qualified health centers to prescribe certain types of psychotropic medication.

"This bill may cause more harm than good. Even the Board of Psychology sent in testimony in opposition to this bill. The Board of Psychology stated this bill is not as stringent as the formulary that was used by the Department of Defense PDP program. All Board members agreed that the training model in the bill was not sufficient for psychologists to prescribe psychotropic drugs.

"The lack of training this bill requires for a psychologist to prescribe psychotropic medication is inadequate. Currently, a psychiatrist must perform forty-eight months of didactic training and forty-eight months of clinical training for a total of ninety-six months before they are allowed to prescribe psychotropic medication.

"In this bill, it would only take a psychologist four months to complete the required 660 hours of classroom instruction and only a little over one month to complete the 400 hours of clinical training. This bill would allow a psychologist to prescribe psychotropic medication in less than six months of full-time training, while it takes a psychiatrist eight years to complete his or her training.

"Instead of helping the mentally ill on Hawaii, this bill will give second-class services to a portion of our population that need the best care available. We are avoiding the question of why we are losing more psychiatrists in Hawaii and substituting a practice that may put our vulnerable population at a greater risk. Thank you."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just very brief comments in support. We've talked at length about this on numerous occasions. I would only say that I would reassure the Members that we have strengthened language further in the last reiteration of the bill. So, for those of you who've had reservations and been up on the bill, it is tighter; it is stronger.

"I know we have philosophical differences of opinions about this. I won't go into them because it's a long day and we have a much longer day ahead, but I do believe this will be a safe bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of CCR 31, SB 1004, SD2, HD2, CD1. This bill will allow qualified, licensed psychologists practicing at federally qualified health centers to prescribe certain types of psychotropic medication. Community Health Centers, like one on the Waianae Coast, are at a distinct disadvantage in recruiting mental health professionals – financial resources are limited – yet, the needs are great. Clinicians, including our psychologists, are required to perform a broad range of services. Because of the limited funding sources, the existing positions for psychiatrists are also limited. Available psychiatric positions may be provided at a part-time basis only.

"Psychiatrists are not in favor of going out to these rural communities. In order for a psychiatrist position to be feasible, psychiatrists need to spend most of their time in the urban centers where they are able to generate more revenue. This is understandable and I find no fault in psychiatrists. However, we need to support patients and those who work in the rural communities – our psychologists. As I understand, the bone of contention is an educational component that has since been adequately addressed so patients can be serviced safely. Mr. Speaker, active steps must be taken to address our mentally ill. This bill will assist in addressing this concern. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1004, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PSYCHOLOGISTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 27 ayes to 20 noes, with Representatives Chang, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Har, Ito, Lee, Magaoay, Manahan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Sonson, Souki, Thielen, Tsuji, Wakai, Ward, Yamane and Yamashita voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

At 4:23 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:24 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 32 and S.B. No. 1400, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1400, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I am in support of this measure. The purpose of this bill is to protect elderly consumers in our communities by requiring financial institutions to report suspected financial abuse. As a member of the Kupuna Caucus and a duly appointed Conferee, I believe I must stand to give our kupuna a voice in this body.

"Our elders have given so much to us. They have paved the way to many of the freedoms we enjoy today and provided us with loving homes. They protected us when we are young, and now we are in a position to protect them.

"The National Center on Elder Abuse has stated that according to the best available estimates, between 1 and 2 million Americans age 65 or older have been injured, exploited, or otherwise mistreated by someone on whom they depended for care or protection. The Center estimates that only one in twenty five of cases of financial abuse get reported, and that there could be as many as an estimated 5 million incidents of financial abuse against the elderly.

"Mr. Speaker this is a scary thought that people would prey on some of our most vulnerable. It is even scarier to think of how many of these incidents go unreported. Mr. Speaker it is for this very reason we need this bill. When a financial institution suspects that there may be some type of financial abuse, they can call in the Department of Human Services to initiate an investigation.

"Financial institutions may be the first to become aware of financial abuse directed at our elderly. They witness the elder engaging in banking activity that is unusual or is deviating from the norm. Without this law it is too easy for them to turn away for fear of getting involved or become insecure if their perspective suggests abuse.

"This bill sends a strong message to the citizens of Hawaii that financial exploitation of elder dependant adults will no longer be tolerated, and that our kupuna, our elders, should be held in high esteem, honored, and protected instead of victimized.

"Mr. Speaker for these reasons, I am in support of this measure, Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1400, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FINANCIAL ABUSE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu, Nakasone and Saiki being excused.

At 4:28 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 188, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 46, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1943, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 56, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1665, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1833, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1004, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 1400, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 34 and S.B. No. 228, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 228, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GRAFFITI," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 35 and S.B. No. 1603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support. Thank you. I want to thank everyone for the time given on this issue, and I know each Committee worked very, very hard on this. I just wanted to highlight a couple of things Mr. Speaker, on Act 190 and what it does. I won't take too long.

"Act 190 has given the counties and agencies for the past ten years liability protection from signs posted on county beaches. This bill makes it permanent. This will certainly assist the counties in claims for accidents which may occur on county beaches. An example, on the Island of Kauai was a sign was posted in an area, and a gentleman went down to swim in this area. The sign says, 'Don't dive into the beach. It's a very dangerous condition.' He dived in. This happened seven years ago. The County is still dealing with this liability issue, so, I'm certain that this will help in that area.

"Another thing that this bill addresses, Mr. Speaker, is an indemnification for the counties and I can give you an example. On Kauai, we have a convention hall that the Department of Education uses for children, whether it's listening to Frank DeLima or for plays that the Department of Education puts on. When the County hosts these functions for the Department of Education, which is a State function, the county is held liable. But if the same thing happened in reverse, where the State were to use a county facility, it's different. The liability is not there.

"So, I really want to thank everyone for working on this particular bill because it means a lot to the counties, and I know the counties are very appreciative. What the counties could have done was the counties would not have allowed the State, the Department of Education to use those facilities, but to my knowledge, they have never done that, and they've wanted to make sure that the best things happen for the people in the community. So, thank you for that.

"The bill also extends the sunset date for Acts 82 and 170, and provides for a taskforce to work on a possible repeal or amendment in 2010.

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the Senate President, the Senators from Kauai, Kalapana, Hilo, and both Senators from Kaneohe. I also want to thank the entire House leadership for stepping up to the plate on this bill and, especially, the Chairs of Judiciary, and Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs for taking the Committees to Kauai to listen to the issue. As everyone should know in here, Kauai has the most liability claims for drowning in the entire State. And if I'm not mistaken, the entire country, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much, Members, for allowing me the time and, Mr. Speaker, thank you very much."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support, but I do have reservations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a very good bill just like the previous Representative has said. The question that I have or the part that I have reservations on is that throughout the Session, my understanding is that this bill did go through the Session without the part about extending the statute of limitations for actions against the county for damage or injury from six months to two years. I believe that there was a bill that was introduced to do that, that was never heard. This part of the bill was added in Conference Committee. I'm not sure that if it passes, whether or not this particular provision had public testimony on it or not.

"It does contain the language or similar language that I believe the Governor had vetoed in the past. When you're doing something like this, I can see why the language was put in there. Maybe it's kind of like a balancing effect, having or extending the six months to two years. However, we should not be considering that so late in the game in Conference. So, my reservations, because the bill is a very good bill and helps counties as well as the County of Kauai, I stand with reservations on that particular part."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Tokioka be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIABILITY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 36 and S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"On Conference Committee Report No. 36, I rise in support and have always been in support and will remain in support, except I have a very puzzling question I want to ask. This bill changes the Friends of Iolani Palace, to be called the State of Hawaii Museum of Monarchy History. My question, Mr. Speaker, to either the Chair or the originator of the bill is: do they become a part of the government now because we call them State of Hawaii? Do they become something different than the 501C-3? What actually in the last change in the Conference Committee is being done and we are asked to vote on today? Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IOLANI PALACE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 38 and S.B. No. 138, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 138, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I am in favor of this measure. This bill will help to ensure that one of Hawaii's most beloved natural treasures, Diamond Head, is preserved and cared for. The bill mandates that 55 percent of the admission fees charged will be used to cover repair and maintenance and operations at the national monument.

"As a historical footnote, the Diamond Head monument was established right after Statehood, in 1962, to protect the slopes of the crater, as well as the view planes. Since that time, millions of people have visited the crater. Last year alone, 600,000 people made the hike to the summit with almost 90 percent of those listed as visitors, according to the Hawaii Tourism Authority.

"Thus, with all that traffic, it's important to make sure that the monument is properly maintained. This bill sets aside necessary funds to ensure those important tasks are completed so we can enjoy our treasure forever.

"This bill is a good bill. I thank Senator Sam Slom for introducing it, albeit in a different form, and I urge all my colleagues to vote yes."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 138, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DIAMOND HEAD STATE MONUMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 41 and S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations. I've always been a supporter of pedestrian safety and it really is very sad that we've had such a large number of pedestrian accidents this year. I'm sad to see that we couldn't recognize the value of the red light part of this bill, and I think it would have saved a lot of lives in the long run. I'm hoping that in the future, we will be able to pass that bill because I think it would play a large part in improving pedestrian safety and saving lives. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with the same support and reservation. I also have remorse that the red light cameras did not get put into this and perhaps the next time around, and even a second remorse is that driving while talking on a cell phone probably is another one of the causes of a lot of our difficulties.

"Every year there's 30 to 40, almost 50,000 people killed on our highways, not to count all the pedestrians that are being maimed and injured. I think it's time that we do something. It's unfortunate that we've chosen not to do this more comprehensively, but I think, if the time is right, then in the future I'm sure it will be brought back up. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm speaking for the bill. However, I would like say that in order to strengthen the future of pedestrian safety, I would hope that the Representative from Kailua, who speaks of the 'van cam', or the 'son of van cam' would also support the cameras. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PEDESTRIAN SAFETY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 43 and S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. Allow me to say upfront that Hawaii has been always undergoing a continuous war against invasive species On one hand, alien flora, such as the miconia, have placed our precious watersheds and native ecosystems in danger, jeopardizing the freshwater supplies while pushing endemic species to really the brink of extinction. Similarly, alien fauna, such as the coqui, dengue, and its carriers, threaten to undermine our health, our tourism industry, and really our quality of life. Estimates by one State biologist alone have shown that these pests have cost residents and the ag industry upwards of $400 million annually. And the problem is getting only worse.

"A variety of DOA risk assessments have shown that many more pests are entering the State than existing resources can really address. DLNR itself cites that, a lack of adequate sustainable funding is the single greatest problem that the State, federal, and private agencies face in their fight to protect Hawaii from harmful invasive species. This measure seeks to address these glaring deficiencies by imposing a nominal $1 fee on maritime commercial shipment containers, 20-foot shipment containers. This is really a miniscule drop in the bucket, Mr. Speaker, when you compare it to the actual freight cost that transportation companies impose.

"It is the intent of this measure to collect the fee from the importer of the shipment and deposit it into the Pest Inspection Quarantine and Eradication Fund. The revenue generated by these fees would then be used to fund the operation of the much-needed inspection and monitoring programs and facilities at major ports of entries, along with the execution of emergency remedial measures when invasive species are detected.

"Let me say, Mr. Speaker, some have argued that this bill would increase the overall cost of goods and services that are brought into our State, resulting in higher retail prices that would be pushed onto our residents. In looking at the bigger picture, however, I would argue that, 'an ounce of prevention is really worth a pound of cure'. Consider this: Instead of enacting a series of piecemeal legislation year after year to combat those pests that slip through the cracks, costing taxpayer millions of dollars, Session after Session, biennium after biennium, I ask this question: Why not establish a front-end approach to prevent the introduction and spread of these pathogens in the first place? These fees would not, as some have criticized, fund some obscure concept not with substantive plan of attack, but rather, would go towards funding DOA's comprehensive Biosecurity Plan, which is poised to begin Phase II of a multi-tiered strategy to combat the introduction and spread of alien species."

Representative Magaoay rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji continued, stating:

"Thank you. Accordingly, we as lawmakers are obligated to take a firm stand against invasive species in order to safeguard our precious ecosystem and way of life for generations to come. S.B. No. 1066 places this responsibility firmly on the shoulders of everyone in our State, since only in standing together can we expect to turn the tide against our war on invasive species. With this in mind, I strongly ask you, Mr. Speaker, and fellow Members to stand behind me and support this bill. Mahalo."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm rising in opposition to this measure. Whatever the shipping people are charging us now, with the passage of this bill, they will be charging us more. That's just guaranteed. So, the way businesses work, when their costs go up, they pass it on to the consumers.

"And we're creating a new special fund, which we have hundreds of already. We have had money for this before from federal funds. This new special fund, federal funds, can go into it, State funds. This is an important measure. We do have to be ever diligent about alien species and we have had some success in the past. As we see it being a larger problem, we should fund it out of the general fund. It should be a line item in the Department of Ag. Nobody has to keep introducing special bills. If it's in there, we know that this is a problem that we have to stay on. That would be the most reasonable way to fund an important kind of program like this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. I'll make my comment short. Basically, it has to do with the fact that the bill is flawed, and I'm just disappointed that the Senate did not consider correcting it so that we could, if this is the way that we want to do it, that we could actually start doing something about it now. The Representative from the Big Island that spoke a couple of times before this did basically express the importance, and that's why I think that this should have been corrected. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INVASIVE SPECIES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Finnegan and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 45 and S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE RATE REGULATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Karamatsu and Nakasone being excused.

At 4:45 o'clock p.m., Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 4:45 o'clock p.m.

At 4:45 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 228, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 162, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 138, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1191, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 1066, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 12, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 49 and S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 837. In recent years we have seen lands once designated as agricultural, reclassified as urban, particularly on the Leeward Coast. Thousands of homes have been constructed resulting in an increase in traffic and undoubtedly impacting our quality of life. This bill will allow lands on the Leeward Coast to remain agricultural.

"It has been noted that these lands are recognized as being amongst the most agriculturally productive lands in our State. We must ensure that our lands in the Kunia and Ewa districts remain classified as agricultural to support and promote the growth of diversified agriculture in our State, and to preserve the open lands that remain on the Leeward Coast. Allowing Agribusiness Development Corporation to purchase these lands will help us to accomplish these goals. For these reasons, I stand in strong support of Senate Bill 837, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting yes on this, but I'm somewhat confused because with some of the accounts we've read in the newspaper, I was under the impression that Monsanto has already purchased this land in Kunia. And the Ewa property, I think, has also been purchased. So I don't think the bill talks about condemning. That's my confusion. Thank you very much."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this measure allows the Agribusiness Development Corporation to purchase lands in the Kunia and Ewa areas on Oahu, and allows them to lease these lands for up to 55 years, thereby protecting important and productive agricultural lands.

"Mr. Speaker, there is a demand for urbanization in Central Oahu. New subdivisions and homes are slowly becoming the main feature of this area. With the former Campbell Estate selling it's lands in the Kunia and Ewa areas on Oahu, it is vital that the State protect these lands which are considered some of the most fertile and productive agricultural lands in the State. If these lands are sold to separate and unrelated purchasers who are not interested in preserving them for agricultural use, the likelihood of these lands being used for agriculture become doubtful and could be lost forever.

Mr. Speaker, protecting agricultural lands is fundamental to Hawaii's future. Agriculture and its value-added products contribute over $2 billion to the State's economy and employ over 38,000 people. More than that Mr. Speaker, the agricultural industry is important to our way of life. Our residents appreciate the fresh, local fruits and vegetables that are available in our markets. With top award winning chefs and restaurants utilizing fresh, local ingredients in their dishes they expose our tourists to numerous other island produce rather than just the stereotypical pineapple and sugarcane that they have come to associate with Hawaii. Locally grown produce also improves our food security, decreases our dependence on imported produce and ensures the availability of certain items should there be a natural disaster or problems with transportation on the mainland.

"For these reasons Mr. Speaker, I support this measure."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of Senate Bill 837 S.D. 2, H.D. 2, CD 1.

"Mr. Speaker, most of us know that the Kunia lands on Oahu are probably the most fertile and productive agricultural land in the State. If there are any lands necessary to support a sustainable agricultural industry, these lands would fit this category. The purpose of this bill is to preserve agricultural lands by authorizing the Agribusiness Development Corporation to purchase, via general funds or revenue bonds for the sole purpose of using this valuable agricultural land for agricultural use in the foreseeable future.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill addresses the concern on the future of our agricultural lands in central Oahu that are generally recognized as being among the most productive lands in the State. We are aware that the 8,000 acres of former Campbell Estate land in large parcels along Kunia Road have or are being sold. One pending sale may result in a 1,700 acre subdivision with 300, five-acre agriculture lots. If these lands are sold to separate and unrelated purchasers who are not interested in establishing agricultural production, the likelihood of their use in agriculture becomes doubtful and could be lost forever.

"Mr. Speaker, the State needs to ascertain whether it is in the best interest of the public as articulated in the Hawaii State Constitution in Article XI, Section 3 and in the State Land Use Law found in Chapter 205, that certain agricultural lands with associated agricultural support infrastructure that are currently or anticipated to be offered for sale should be purchased by the State in fee or have developed rights extinguishing by purchase of agricultural conservation easements.

"Mr. Speaker Senate Bill 837 provides for the purchase of agricultural lands in fee or through purchase of agricultural conservation easements whereby the landowner retains title to the property but is restricted as to the use of the property for the duration of the easement. The source funds will be from an appropriation from the general fund and issuance of revenue bonds.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker and I urge my colleagues to pass this measure."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support. I created this bill to protect Hawaii's most valuable agricultural lands. It appropriates $9,200,000 and authorizes the Agribusiness Development Corporation to purchase agricultural land in Kunia and Ewa from private entities. In addition, it enables the Agribusiness Development Corporation to lease agricultural lands in Kunia and Ewa for up to 55 years to farmers. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 59 and H.B. No. 1608, SD 3, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1608, SD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker, HB 1608.

"A major aspect of this measure is that it will empower the Governor, county Mayor or the Director of Transportation to designate an area to be a traffic emergency zone as an alternative route during times of emergencies.

"Members, we have knowledge of our major thoroughfares closed due to accidents or road blocks caused by floods, erosion or other safety concerns, where commuters were caught in a standstill with no recourse, but to wait until the traffic is cleared. In situations like these, our government officials seem helpless in view of the present restrictions that prohibit or bar them from taking immediate action to address the current problem, which is counter productive of being an effective government official.

"I believe, Mr. Speaker, that this measure will do away with bureaucratic red tape that usually causes delay in taking immediate action during emergency situations, to ensure and protect the health and safety of our drivers during traffic emergencies, while seeing a safe access for our commuters.

"For this, Mr. Speaker, I support this measure."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of CCR 59, HB 1608, SD3, CD1. This measure establishes traffic emergency zones that will aid in quicker access to areas affected by road closures. This bill allows both State and county leaders with the tools needed to act when public health and safety is being jeopardized by accidents, or natural disasters.

"This is a good bill because it reaches specific emergency hurdles and limits any exemptions, procedural leniency, and indemnification of liability to areas designated as a Traffic Emergency Zone. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1608, SD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 62 and H.B. No. 487, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 487, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with reservations to Conf. Com. Rep. No. 62. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I didn't think that this was going to be anything that I would rise up on, but my reservations on this bill have to do with the fact that it was explained to be making technical amendments.

"One of the recommendations by LRB states, and I'm reading this from the State of Hawaii, Department of Human Services, HPHA, the Hawaii Public Housing Authority. It says, 'We have concerns about Section 35a which states that the Authority shall construct, develop, and administer property or housing for the purpose of State low income public housing projects and programs.' And on the surface it sounds like something that we would like to do. We would like for the Authority to be able to or force the authority, mandate by using the 'shall' language.

"However, we've seen examples of how the federal government is actually moving in an opposite direction where they're saying to not have a government build and develop and administer, but, instead, turning it around and having nonprofits take over and they find it's much more successful that way. So by accepting this language which is supposed to be technical in nature, that it actually starts us going in the opposite direction of where the federal guidelines are telling us to go or guiding us to go "For instance, one of the examples that I can share is, like in our district, they're doing that with military housing. Actually, that's not a nonprofit, but it is a for profit. But they just feel that these things in regard to building, renovating, and managing, that they do a better job. Mr. Speaker, another example is the Palolo Valley homes. Only positive results have come from that particular situation. And it's basically saying that the tenants are going to be more a part of decision making, and that's what happened in that case.

"So, I have reservations in regards to, maybe it's overlooking that particular section, but I would strongly recommend that since we are going to leave it in for this Session, that we turn around and go into a different direction next year. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 487, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING PROGRAMS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 63 and H.B. No. 692, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 692, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of extending the lapse date of special purpose revenue bonds issued to assist Aloun Farms to June 30, 2010. This company has played a huge role in Hawaii's agricultural industry and sustainability. Aloun Farms plan to use the special purpose revenue bonds to build an agricultural processing plant in the future to strengthen its operations. However, not too long ago, the company's landowner sold the land to a developer that plans to build homes on its land once the lease expires. With the uncertainty of where Aloun Farms will be located in the future, an extension of the special purpose revenue bonds would be very helpful for this important Hawaii agricultural company. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 692, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 66 and H.B. No. 1830, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1830, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, Members, the right to life is a fundamental right. So important is this right that it's guaranteed by both our State Constitution, in Article I, Section 5, and the United States Constitution, in our Fourteenth Amendment. Mr. Speaker, we have a golden opportunity today to protect our newborn babies. So far, 47 states have already enacted safe-surrender laws to save newborn babies. We can be the forty-eighth state, Mr. Speaker.

"These babies who are just born are helpless. In fact, so compelling is the testimony that we heard from our paramedics at the hearings, not only in the House side, but they went to the hearings on the Senate side. One paramedic explained how she helped deliver 10 babies herself. Very compelling was her testimony about a 12-year-old who didn't know what to do, and the baby was near death, badly dehydrated, pale. We don't want this to happen. With this measure, we believe we can save newborn babies, Mr. Speaker.

"If you think about the concept of this measure, this is really saving the lives of two people. First, of the newborn baby, and also of that mother. What happens, Mr. Speaker, is if the mother is caught abandoning her baby and that baby dies, most likely she'll be charged with murder. At the least, manslaughter. If that case goes on and she is prosecuted for murdering her newborn baby, she'll probably get a sentence of 25 years to life. This will cost the State approximately $1 million to house that person at a correctional facility."

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, is he speaking on this bill?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"Yes, the safe haven bill."

Representative Meyer: "With talk about murdering, and I just was confused."

Speaker Say: "Please proceed, Representative Mizuno."

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To address some of the concerns, yes, if a mother does leave, and abandons her baby, she can be charged with murder. So, I take this very seriously, and that's why this measure is so important. Again, 47 states have already passed it. It's time for us to pass this.

"I have another major concern, Mr. Speaker. We've got approximately 9,000 unintended pregnancies in our State every year. When we look at our target group, and when I say target group, I'm talking about our youth, ages 12 to 19. The reason why we call them our target group is because this would be the group that will be most likely to abandon their newborn baby. They have approximately 1,500 unintended pregnancies a year. This represents a whopping 78%. That's eight out of every ten pregnancies. Many times they would not know what to do, Mr. Speaker. And this will give them a chance, an option, to take the newborn baby somewhere, instead of placing that baby in a shallow grave or dumpster.

"I also wanted to state that statistics indicate that 57 babies everyday are abandoned. This comes out to approximately 20,000 babies abandoned every year. And this I got from our House Concurrent Resolution 344, which we passed on April 4th by our outstanding colleague of mine, the Representative from Liliha. I completely supported that Resolution and I stand here today still supporting that because that was a prelude to this bill that gives us hard core facts here. The point is it's nationwide, but it is also happening in Hawaii. It's not in California only, or New York or some other place. This happens in Hawaii, because we have testimony from our paramedics.

"Someone also wrote me, a director from one of our youth agencies, who, I think it's better I not say her name, but she wrote and I quote, 'As a case worker, I worked on cases where newborns were found in the dumpster and a bathroom, one discarded from an immigrant, the other from an adolescent.' So, to say that this doesn't happen in Hawaii, well, that's just not true. It happens in Hawaii, too."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Thank you. Members, today we will hear that this measure is relating to adoption, lineage, and heritage. All those issues are very important, no doubt, but keep in mind that that newborn is murdered, is buried, then heritage, lineage, adoption, that's all moot. That's moot because they don't ever have a chance to know about heritage. They won't be able to have an education. They won't be able to play any games because they're dead. That's why we have to stand up and pass this measure and become the 48th state.

"Back in March, and I'm sure the count has gone up, we've had a count of 1,160 newborns that have been received in safe havens, and I've mentioned this before, but it still stands true today. These babies, some of them with developmental disabilities, down syndrome, fetal alcohol syndrome, autism, mental retardation, some of these babies are even HIV positive, they've all been adopted. All of them.

"Mr. Speaker, we have worked feverishly with the Senate to come up with a draft to address the concerns by the Governor, and our Conferees surely feel that we did that and I commend both the House Conferees and the Senate Conferees. They did a great job. I feel this is an air-tight bill. For those foregoing reasons, we should support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. First of all, I wanted to commend my colleague from Kalihi because it just goes to show it's nice when you can have a cordial relationship and just agree to disagree and I have utmost respect for my colleague from Kalihi. I also wanted to express my appreciation for the passing of the Resolution on Project Cuddle which attempts to look at this issue from a different standpoint, from the standpoint of education.

"What I wanted to clarify is just a couple of things. First of all, when I think about this bill and I'm asking my colleagues here in the House to really get to the crux of the bill. Who are we saving here? What does this bill do? What this bill does is it basically gives a level of immunity to the person, the woman. Sometimes, who knows, it could be a gentleman, who abandons a baby. So, the question becomes are we saving those who abandoned babies? Are we saving those who are abandoned? I hope everybody will keep that in mind, because when that 12-year-old that was referenced gave birth to a baby, I'm questioning whether that 12-year-old would have known or ever know the next 12-year-old, that we passed this bill. It is an emergency situation, which our good EMS people took care of. In fact, we need to ask, who called the EMS, right? And they just appeared there, right?

"And, also, a third point is babies abandoned, 57,000, etc. Let's be clear. That's in the nation. The two of the three holdouts on this are the states of ourselves and Alaska, and I would say that if you've been to Alaska, and I've been to Alaska, Alaska and Hawaii have actually, if you would to take out the climate, they have a lot of things in common. And what it is, is it's in part, culture. They have the good sense not to pass this.

"I wanted to clarify another thing. LRB's report that concluded that 47 states have similar legislation is not completely correct. Because that's noted in the text of LRB report, 16 states do not give immunity from prosecution. Rather there are laws that provide affirmative defense, which does not preclude arrest or trial for child abandonment. In these cases where there's affirmative defense, there is still the possibility the abandoner can be identified so that the state can determine if they need support services. If they've done it before, they are chronic abandoner due to mental illness. The abandoner can be identified so that the state can ensure that the abandoner is on the DHS abuse and neglect registry so that the abandoner cannot become an adoptive or foster parent, and the father of the baby may be identified and/or the family may be identified.

"And as noted in DHS' testimony, one of our concerns is that women who would otherwise go through adoption, those are the ones that would probably use the law. Adoption Institute and other child welfare organizations and policy experts question the effectiveness of safe haven laws. Whether women who would unsafely abandon newborns are the ones that are leaving infants at designated safe havens. Specific concerns as reported in the National Conference of State Legislatures report as follows: that the National Abandoned Infants Assistance Resource Center sincerely doubts, 'whether the people who actually use safe havens are the group it's targeted at,' and, 'noting that these laws have a lot of pitfalls and do not even try to address the root causes of the problem.'

"The National Conference of State Legislatures questions, 'whether the mother would have tried to go through an adoption agency to legally relinquish the baby or if this is a person who would have left the baby by the roadside.' Howard Davidson, Director of the American Bar Association, Center on Children and the Law, advises, if we're to effectively face the newborn abandonment problem, rushing to pass 'Baby Moses' or safe haven laws or creating new baskets for baby drop off locations do not provide the answer. The Child Welfare League of America has reservations and questions whether the at-risk population …"

Representative Meyer rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you. Thank you, Representative. Child Welfare League of America has reservations on whether the at-risk population uses safe havens or whether they're being utilized instead by the expectant mothers who may have made an adoption plan or raised their children themselves.

"What they're talking about is the people who are trying to help, who are in a panicked frame of mind, are they the ones who are going to use this? Or those that would naturally go to give their child or ask tutu or their moms to raise the child. The Family Research Council states that safe haven laws' chances for efficacy are doubtful. Neonaticide experts say that because women who kill their infants are typically confused and panicked, it seems somewhat unlikely that safe havens would be a viable alternative for many young women.

"Furthermore, the Donaldson Adoption Institute cited safe haven laws represent a relatively easy and quick, but superficial answer to the question surrounding unintended concealed pregnancies and the welfare of the resulting newborns. Not only is it unclear that these policies work, but they also address the problem at the last possible opportunity, after birth, instead of prevention and education. Public policy should prevent unintended pregnancies, protect infants at risk of abandonment and assist mothers in making informed decisions that serve both their children's interest and their own. In order for that to happen, new and existing resources must be directed towards the target population, women who deny and conceal their pregnancies.

"House Bill 1830 will not effectively prevent abandonment of infants by mothers in unsafe places. Instead, there must be a plan to incorporate it into a comprehensive strategy for the prevention of infant abandonment and increase efforts to enhance education. That's why Project Cuddle, I think, is a good idea. And services for birth parents, both the young mothers and fathers and women who are at risk of abandoning their infants. The anonymity provided by this bill creates conflicts with biological parents, due process rights, and family court proceedings, and the possible termination of parental rights. This bill also does not take into consideration and address existing statutes related to adoption, maternity, custody and …"

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Ching continued, stating

"Thank you, Minority Leader. … judicial proceedings associated with child abandonment. It does not contain provisions to ensure that the rights of fathers are not violated and that reliable and accurate medical and family histories are provided by the person dropping the child off.

"The individual who drops off the newborn would not be required to prove he or she is the baby's parent. The abandoned baby would be prevented from ever learning about their medical or genealogical history and this could jeopardize the child's health and make it exceedingly difficult for extended families, even the child's father, to learn of the baby's whereabouts and assert their interest. I will remind you like I've said numerous times on the Floor, there have been incidences where the father did not know about it, and therefore, when they find out, it's just too late.

"I appreciate the revisions. I understand there was some attempts at revisions, but now the attempt, I appreciate the attempt of revisions, but it doesn't look like it's really acceptable. We've gone back to the previous draft.

"The Legislature was informed that there are over 9,000 unplanned pregnancies in Hawaii per year. I'll cut this short because I know that I've said a lot of this before. What I want to say in sum is that a number of states are re-looking at this solution to this problem. And it is ironic that Hawaii, of all places, that doesn't even have a problem, would actually pass a bill that would create problems. There are a number of problems with this, and what I'm asking my colleagues to do is to remember that we want to save the life of a child. We also want, as soon as that child is born, to have a good life. This bill jeopardizes definitely the second half and it's questionable whether it does anything for the first half."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, I tend to agree to disagree with my colleague and believe it or not, the Representative from Kalihi and from Liliha and Hawaii Kai have become much closer because of this bill because it really put us together to really speak to where our hearts are on this particular measure. Having said that, I'm going to repeat a few things and sit down.

"The bill is about life, it's about saving a life, and, Mr. Speaker, if someone before this Session came up to you and said if you could vote one vote before you go to bed tonight, before you leave this Floor, and it could save one life in the next 12 months, would you vote yes on that bill?

"Mr. Speaker, that's what I see is before us today. A chance to even just save one life. Forty seven states have done it. Maybe 47 kids have been saved. What is at risk is that it is much greater to be gained than to be lost. To me it's that simple. And, Mr. Speaker, as much as I'm going to object later on about overriding the Governor's veto, this is one I hope you would have passed earlier, so, when tonight we're going to do that, we could have done it. Because I think it deserves that. Let's save one life. Let's vote for this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in support. Mr. Speaker, I think the Representative from Liliha, she made some outstanding points and we did address many of her concerns. In fact, in the bill on page 7, it states that every reasonable effort will be made to get the following information: the name of the newborn child, the name and address of the parent or person dropping off the newborn child, the location of where the newborn child was born, information pertaining to the newborn child's medical history, the newborn child's biological family medical history, including major illnesses and diseases, and any other information that might reasonably assist the Department in determining the best interest of the newborn child, including whether the parents plan on returning to seek custody of the child in the future.

"In addition, to address the speaker from Liliha's concern about the father, that was a concern. We made sure in this measure that it would not preclude the father's rights in coming back to get his child. In fact, we have a clause in there, I think it's the second to the last page, it could be on page 11, that talks about the rights to reunite with the parents, or, of course, the father. So, that has been addressed.

"Furthermore, regarding the abandonment issue, it's a very small window. The baby is a newborn baby within 72 hours. That's three days, Mr. Speaker. The truth be told, when you look at the 47 different states, some of them will allow as long as 30 days. There's another state that had, I think, 60 days. Hawaii drew this very narrowly. We allowed only a window opportunity to drop off that newborn baby of 72 hours after birth. So, to see this as being a major abandonment or adoption issue, I just don't see it. Again, the window is very, very small, a small time, 72 hours, three days is all.

"We know that sometimes there is going to be emergency situations and parents or the parent may just lack clarity, and we are going to allow them a chance to have an option instead of putting the baby in an unsafe place, having an option to put that baby in a place where he or she will survive and be fine. And if they have clarity later and they want to come back, nothing in this measure will preclude those parents or parent from coming back.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, Project Cuddle is a very good hotline. I don't see anything wrong with it. And, again, going over some of the statistics, 20,000 babies abandoned a year. It shows you how much of a problem this is nationwide. This is only a hotline. We need something more, and, so, that's why we think having this in law, and having not only the House, but …"

Representative McKelvey rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Thank you. Having in fact, again, the paramedics were compelling. How many times have we been in hearings when you see someone from the State agency say, 'Excuse me, we want to be in that measure. Put us in that bill.' We had paramedics that came and everyone knows that was on the Health Committee or whatever committees it went through, Judiciary. They came to our hearings and they said, 'Place us in statute. This happens in Hawaii. We know that firsthand.' So, we've got firsthand knowledge that this happens in Hawaii.

"Second of all, it was unprecedented that we had paramedics that came up and told us, 'We need to be in the statute, don't leave us out. We need to save babies' lives.' That's so compelling.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, when we talk about people being prosecuted, this measure will not allow for complete immunity. In fact, we worked it out in Conference. What happens in a situation if a baby is brought in that's injured, someone should be told. We didn't have that at the beginning, but in Conference we saw that as a glitch that we had to deal with. We ironed it out. If the baby is brought in injured, that person is not going to leave. He or she doesn't get a free pass. They will be prosecuted. So, this is not a drop off place, a drop off bin at all. This is very fair. It's to save lives, and, yet, protect parents that are having a lack of clarity, but yet to prosecute parents that would injure the baby and bring them in that situation, that state.

"Again, for the foregoing reasons, we believe that we addressed a lot of concerns by our speaker from Liliha, as well as what the Governor had stated in her message back on House Bill 133. That was back in 2003. For those reasons, again, I still support this measure and I hope our Members will, too. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered in the Journal as her own, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of CCR 66, HB 1830, HD2, SD2, CD1. The focal point of this measure, Mr. Speaker is on ensuring an infant survives. The intent of this bill is to ensure the safety of infants who are unwanted and whose natural parents are unready or unwilling to care for them. This provision of a safe haven will enhance the infant's chances for survival and for safe adoption.

"The best interest of the child should have the highest priority over the possible prosecution of a parent who is unable to care for the infant. Mr. Speaker, we are lucky in Hawaii that abandonment is not a common practice. Nonetheless, this bill is a proactive approach at making sure that we save as many newborns in Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Briefest of comments. In strong support. This year my wife and I had a baby and, so, I've seen firsthand how difficult it can be. Even in a married and happy relationship, I can only imagine how difficult it would be for a young parent and how desperate they might get. So, I supported it on that ground.

"And, additionally, my younger brother, my only brother, actually, was adopted. And I recognize all of the compelling arguments that had been made on both sides of the issue. But he was adopted in the City of Pittsburgh where he was born from a very poor single mother, and I can only imagine what would have happened if she had been desperate enough to abandon him in a different way.

"So, from my standpoint, I feel that we should pass this bill because we should give desperate mothers or desperate young mothers every opportunity to protect their babies."

Representative Souki rose, stating:

"A point of information. I speak in support on this issue. I'm convinced I'm going to be voting for this measure. I don't think we need anymore discourse on this. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1830, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILD PROTECTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2

noes, with Representatives Ching and Meyer voting no, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

At 5:17 o'clock p.m., Representative Karamatsu requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 5:17 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 68 and H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to speak on the last bill on the page, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 68. I'm sorry, I know that people are getting a bit weary, but I feel that this is such an important bill. Actually, I am in opposition and I believe that we should not pass this, but if you don't mind me pointing out some features of it. It's House Bill 1503, CD 1 and it deals with a dislocated workers' law.

"This measure requires commercial industrial businesses with 50 or more employees to notify each employee within 60 days of divestiture or closing activities that would result in dislocation of employees. This measure also imposes severe notification and civil penalties for failure to notify those employees of divestiture or closing activities.

"Let me highlight a few points. It penalizes companies who may not be in the financial or legal position to meet these requirements. Divestiture activities do not necessarily shut the business down as in closing activities. Divestiture includes the transfer of the business from one employer to another because of the sale, transfer, merger or bankruptcy or other business takeover or transaction that leads to layoffs or terminations. Notification penalties include up to 60 days of back pay to each affected employee for an amount equal to back pay and benefits. This is minimum, 50 employees.

"There are different types of divestiture or transfer of ownership transactions that may impede conformity to the 60 day requirement. For example, final negotiations as late as hours before a transfer contract is signed may produce worker termination conditions. The selling company may have little or no financial or legal choice to prevent such conditions and may not be in the position to further delay the transfer another 60 days to be in compliance with this measure.

"Current civil penalties for noncompliance notification rules are severe and in addition to new notification penalties. These penalties include three months of wages and benefits to each affected employee for the three months prior to the closing, partial closure, or relocation of the company. This bill will have chilling affects and disrupts ownership interest and operations.

"There are multiple forms of bankruptcy which may require a formal transfer and termination of employees or closing of a company on paper, but do not effectively result in dislocating employees. This measure adds bankruptcy in both the divestiture and closing definitions, but does not specify types of bankruptcies. Premature or unnecessary announcements of bankruptcy will cause confusion and unnecessarily lower employee morale or cause some employees to leave prematurely. Notification, no matter how benign, the intent, may cause a chilling effect that disrupts business, management and operation. The 60-day notice may not be reasonable depending on the unique circumstances or management transaction decisions made by the board of directors in the best interest of the corporation's shareholders or simply to save the company from shutting down.

"This bill leads to an unintended chilling effect and the severe penalties that unnecessarily harm a company's goodwill and financial reputation when it opts for sound financial strategy to undertake activities under bankruptcy, yet, still has a viable going concern. The divestiture notification and bankruptcy provisions likely overstep the board of directors or management's fiduciary responsibility to shareholders. Therefore, I urge my colleagues to vote no. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. This is a very compassionate bill. This ensures that those workers who are working for a company, and the management pursues any action of transfer, merger, sale or of any act that will dislocate them or, lay them off, that they will merely comply with the law, which is to give employees a 60-day notice. All the statements made that this will somehow have a chilling effect on the sale, merger, or transfer of a business are untrue and uncalled for. I think we should read the bill carefully because we provided exemptions for it on page 3, section (c).

"This bill going forward, clarifies it so that if there is some work being done by the employer to save the business by either a sale, transfer, merger or otherwise, that they're exempt from notifying the employees, exempt from the requirement of this law, unless at some point and time such sale, transfer, merger of this company or establishment will result in divestiture.

"Divestiture is defined on page 1, which says it has to result in dislocated worker. So that was really the huge concern of the businesses when it went through the first time to the hearing, and we fixed that in the Conference Committee. We made sure that the businesses who may have other plans, who may try to save their business, either bankruptcy or otherwise, somehow at some point and time, they will have to make a decision. Are we going to be permanently closing the place and will our action result in workers being dislocated? That's the law now, anyway. So, we're merely clarifying it.

"This is a very good bill if you look at real life examples right now on what has happened to the people in Kunia. Over 500 families, all of a sudden, the company just takes off after promising that they're going to be there to take care of them for at least another year. It is an impact on the families, not just the worker, but the workers' families. So, this is a good bill going forward. I don't think it is unfair to businesses. In fact, the language that's in here that allows businesses to take action to save their company is there at the request of businesses. So, please read Section (c) in this bill. It will explain and maybe it will mitigate some of our speakers' concerns."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure. In business, as in politics, perception is reality. If the word gets out about this bill as it has in many other instances, gotten out about the business unfriendly environment that we have, that's going to be a chilling and dampening effect on our economy and for the investment that we're trying to do with an innovative economy and all the new bioscience, high tech, robotic things that we're trying to do.

"If this bill was compassionate, a similar bill would not have been vetoed last year. If this bill gives a warning, why would, for example, somebody in a Chapter 11 who is trying to survive it, not want to send chills to bankers, not want to send chills to their employees, frightening them thinking they're going to be leaving, because even the big airline Delta just came out of 19 months of bankruptcy. That is Chapter 11. Is this bill nuanced enough to be subtle enough to settle those business issues? I don't think so, Mr. Speaker, but I think it's going to be perceived as anti-business and we're going to hurt from it. It's not good policy. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMPLOYMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

At 5:27 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 837, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1608, SD 3, CD 1
H.B. No. 487, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 692, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1830, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1503, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 72 and H.B. No. 895, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 895, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I voted for this in Conference Committee, but somehow I missed the fact that we were raising the fee for highway beautification. We're doubling it from $5 to $10. I wasn't keen on some of these increases. I thought the bill was mostly dealing with towing fees, but it has this increase in beautification.

"The towing fees are increasing by $10. The charge that the towing people will charge you per mile is going up by $1. The storage of your car is going up by $5, from $20 to $25 for the first seven days, and then, thereafter, if it stays there longer, it goes from $15 to $20. So now it's $20.

"There was one thing that it did, which was good, which one of the Conference Chairmen pushed for. The way the bill exists today there was a payment by the owner if they happen to come back when the tow truck was just hooking them up. And if they were hooked up and they said, 'Oh, please, don't take it,' they would charge you $50 to unhook. On this bill, that's being removed to which I concur with. I'm happy about that.

"But I just feel like we're just nickel-and-diming people to death. We've got these special funds. Once we set it up, every couple of years we just raise the fees and I think the people in Hawaii are just being taxed and fee'd to death, so, I've changed my mind and I'm voting no. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, also, am going to be voting no and I appreciate the Minority Floor Leader bring this bill to my attention. I've always opposed the increase in fees for towing companies. I think that really does a disservice to the people that find themselves unfortunately having a car towed away. That's difficult enough.

"We had to fight very long and hard, Mr. Speaker, as you will recall, to make those companies allow a credit card to be used because they were demanding cash, and at 1:00 in the morning, a person whose car may have been towed would be very unlikely to have over $100, and now, $100 plus, an additional $10 to be able to pay for that tow. So, I also will be voting no, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. This bill is somewhat misunderstood in its purpose. I, too, would like to regulate towing companies and the rates that they charge. However, this particular measure is for the counties and when they have contractual relationships with towing companies.

"What was not included in here is regulation of any sort. And we don't have any regulation over private companies that tow people's cars outside of a contract between a towing company and the county. In other words, a person such as myself would park my car somewhere and it's towed. That's not regulated. They could charge me an arm and leg and something else. They can charge me anything they want, and that is really a problem. So the prior speaker was on point on that we should actually also regulate towing when they're towing outside of a contract with the City and County or the counties."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm going to vote no based upon the last sentence of the speaker from Kahaluu; that is, we are taxed and fee'd to death, little by little, and I think this is one of those where you just have to draw the line."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm voting no, as well. And just similar comments in regards to this. It's just a death of a thousand cuts, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 895, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Brower, Finnegan, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 73 and H.B. No. 14, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 14, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 74 and H.B. No. 275, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 275, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of H.B. 275, Mr. Speaker. As of February 27, 2007, the Uniform Athlete Agent's Act has been passed in 35 states together with the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands.

"Just yesterday it was in the Advertiser Hawaii had ten (10) players who were offered a contract, either by way of draft or free agent contract. This placed the University of Hawaii in the top ten of all universities in the country for athletes getting drafted in football.

"Concerns with some of the Sports Agents:

a) False or misleading information or promise and representation to the student athlete. Not telling the student athlete they will lose their scholarship if they sign a contract. (Don't date the contract then date it after the athlete signs it.)

b) Providing anything of value to the student athlete. Cash, cars, gifts, clothes, tickets, jobs, parties, etc.

"the University will lose:
a) Revenue from their sports program, also may be sanctioned by the NCAA.

b) Scholarships.

c) Students (hurt our student athletes – we need to protect them).

"The lure of high compensation and false representations offered by unscrupulous agents may entice student-athletes into leaving school and turn pro only to find later that he or she had been short-changed by the agent, if they fail to make a pro team. They can't go back because they have lost their amateur status.

"I firmly believe that Hawaii has a lot of potential athletes in the waiting and it is high time that we pass this Uniform Athletes Agent's Act into a law to protect our athletes from the impermissible and oftentimes illegal practices of some athlete agents.

"The Uniform Athlete Agents Act is an important tool in regulating the activities of athlete agents and student-athletes and member institutions. For this, Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 275, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIFORM ATHLETE AGENTS ACT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Marumoto and Meyer voting no, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 77 and H.B. No. 30, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 30, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to say a few words in support of Conf. Com. Rep. No. 77. This is a bill that was vetoed by the Governor last year. And over the past two Sessions, I would say, both on the Floor and in opinion pieces, I think we've heard a lot of arguments against this measure. I would like to take a few minutes to clarify and to refute some of them. Because when I hear some of those arguments, sometimes I feel like I'm in Burger King, you know, when you get served one Whopper after another.

"Let me try to clarify and refute some of the 'fast food' arguments that are made. One of the opinion pieces that the Lt. Governor recently wrote, he said that the federal government frequently asks states to consent to such arrangements on short notice. And that's been a point of contention, whether or not these agreements come up in such a fashion that we are unable to deal them in the Legislature.

"Now, I suspect the reason why he didn't mention even one trade agreement is that it has never happened. In fact, the FTAs currently with Columbia and Peru have taken over two years, and that's not even talking about the number of years it takes before that trade agreement is even debated in the Congress.

"One of the most troubling things about this whole issue has been how this would put local businesses at a severe disadvantage. Mr. Speaker, when the Governor committed Hawaii to the Central America Free Trade Agreement in March of 2004, that is exactly what happened. We put local businesses in this State at a severe disadvantage in the global market place. What do I mean by this? I'm just surprised that the Lingle-Aiona Administration seems to be unaware of the fact that we have a local preference when dealing with businesses in our State. For example, for printing. We have a 15% preference when we give to local printers so that they can have an advantage over printers that are bidding from out of state. It's a good policy. It helps local businesses and it keeps jobs at home.

"When the Governor signed on to CAFTA, this hurt these businesses because now a business, say, in Guatemala, could file a complaint with their government …"

Representative Pine rose, stating:

"I'm just standing on a point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker. I take great umbrage in the previous speaker saying that the Linda Lingle and Aiona Administration does not understand our local needs and he implied that."

The Chair responded, stating:

"The Chair recognizes Representative Takumi in continuing on his discussion. Please proceed."

Representative Takumi continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. A printing company in Guatemala could ask its government to challenge its bidding process as a trade barrier, and this State could then be subject to trade sanctions. Let me retract that. The Lingle-Aiona Administration is aware of this and is doing it deliberately to hurt local businesses. There's only two ways to look at it."

The Chair recognized Representative Pine, stating:

"Representative Pine, for what point do you rise?"

Representative Pine rose, stating:

"The same point as I did previously. I don't think that the Lingle-Aiona Administration is trying to purposely hurt the local economy, local people, local families."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The current speaker is not raising on a point of personal privilege. She should look at Mason's, Section 223, to find out the definition, and that is not even close. Thank you."

At 5:36 o'clock p.m., Representative Pine requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 5:38 o'clock p.m.

Representative Takumi continued, stating:

"Let me continue here. Does the Lieutenant Governor, and I would urge everybody to read the opinion piece. I can give you the citation. I forget the exact date. It was both in the Advertiser and the Star-Bulletin. Does the Lieutenant Governor and those who oppose this measure believe that giving jobs to a company in Guatemala helps our local economy? I beg to differ."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think that's speculative and I don't think that's really …"

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"For what purpose do you rise, Representative Thielen?"

Representative Thielen: "I don't know what the point is, but I will just rise."

Speaker Say: "No, you are out of order."

Representative B. Oshiro: "Point of order. She needs to do that on rebuttal."

Representative Thielen: "It's not exactly rebuttal, but the Lt. Governor is not here to defend himself."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, you are out of order at this point. Representative Thielen. You are out of order at this point. Representative Takumi, please continue."

Representative Takumi continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Let me just point out, in deference to the Representative from Kailua, there have been many times on this Floor when people made references to newspaper articles, and to speeches that were made not on the Floor of the House. That is precisely the point that I am making now. Now, if that's not going to be allowed, then I say that knife cuts both ways and you should not allow that in the future. Please let me continue, Mr. Speaker.

"Let's leave aside the trade agreement argument for this moment. There's a basic constitutional principle at work here. Anyone who knows the Hawaii State Constitution, Article VII, that lays out the power of the Legislature when it comes to budgets, taxation, and spending. The Lt. Governor wrote in that opinion piece that this will eliminate the Governor's authority to enter into international trade agreements. You know, Mr. Speaker, it reminds me of a recent study a couple of days ago in the paper about this guy in Nebraska who mistakenly got $80,000 put into his bank account and spent it. He was asked by the media, is there a point that you knew it wasn't yours or what? And his reply was, 'I can't say there was a point. I guess in the back of your mind you're thinking it's too much of a good thing.'

"Well, for the Lieutenant Governor to assert the Governor has the authority to enter the State into the non-tariff provisions of the trade agreement, which smacks straight at the heart of procurement is also too good to be true. Mr. Speaker, the Legislature determines procurement policies. Plain and simple. "

Representative Morita rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takumi continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. These free trade agreements impact more than just our State spending decisions. Recently, you may have heard that the World Trade Organization confirmed that the U.S. lost its internet gambling dispute with Antigua, a decision that could have enormous implications in our State since, obviously, we don't have gaming. So, do the Lt. Governor and others believe that we should allow foreign countries to dictate our social policies? You be the judge. I happen to disagree with that point of view.

"Fortunately, a growing number of governors, 31 at last count, Mr. Speaker, have declined the U.S. Trade Representative's invitation to sign on to CAFTA. And if we look at the more recent trade agreement, such as the Korea Free Trade Agreement, even more governors are doing so, as well. Maryland and Rhode Island have already passed a law similar to the measure before us.

"And unlike the Lt. Governor and those who oppose this measure, I happen to believe that there should be open debate and public hearings so that we can best judge, if it's in the best interest of our State to enter into these trade agreements and non-tariff provisions of these trade agreements. After all, shouldn't we be taking the time to analyze whether these free trade agreements benefit the people of this State? This is why this measure is necessary, Mr. Speaker, and this is why it's good public policy. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose, stating:

"In rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the measure. Just a couple of points. One, just for the record, the Lt. Governor and the Governor are not against local people. Two, the Lt. Governor and Governor will never do anything to purposely hurt the local people. Three, the Lt. Governor and the Governor would not do anything to put the people of Guatemala above the people of Hawaii. Four, what this bill is really about is just giving the Legislature more power, just like so many other bills that are going to this Legislature. And, lastly, the Lt. Governor and Governor are not from Nebraska. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"I said earlier I would insert comments in the Journal, and because the speaker rose without having anything to rebut I thought rather than having him 'shadow box', I would give me some things to rebut. So, I'm going to stand up and say a few things, if I may. In opposition.

"First of all, free trade is good. Free trade is what made America prosperous. Free trade is what made Hawaii prosperous. It's not putting barriers to free trade. It's opening us to free trade. Friedman said the world is flat. The Earth is flat. Well, sometimes I think we've got our heads in the sand if we forget that we're in the middle of the Pacific and we have the global forces around us with a global economy. As the Governor says, we have a global wave that's going to either hit us. Are we going to ride it or we're going to get smashed by it? This is one of those wake-up calls about either adjusting or become antiquated like the dinosaurs.

"We have to realize who we are and what special location, what special destiny we have. And having constraints by having the Legislature oversee what, basically, is a federal issue, which, basically, is an international issue. To do that is simply just, I think, missing the mark of who we are, what our destiny is, and what we can do to compete for the future, of which we've got two to three billion people just around the corner, across the ocean from us. That is not going to just be like that forever and forever. And if we put more constraints on people coming to Hawaii, doing business in Hawaii, free trade with Hawaii, we're going to be very sorry for that.

"But I would just repeat, Mr. Speaker, the prosperity of the West is a trading prosperity. Free trade is what brought us here today, not these protectionisms. Having worked with both USAID and the World Bank, any of those countries that do protectionism, price setting, subsidation of industries that are going to die off, they are the ones who kill their own economies. This is proof with the World Bank publications left, right, and center have shown that.

"So, this, insular view, this provincialism that I hear on this particular bill, and I see written in the statute, is not good policy. It's not the world of the future. It is not, I think, what is going to be good for Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, you just approved recently that I'm going to go to an ALEC Conference, so, I called to rent a car. I called the rent-a-car and guess where I landed up in? I was in Manila. The Manila people booked me to go to Philadelphia. I called again and I got India. That is not an uncommon experience. This is part of what we're experiencing in Hawaii. This is part of what we have to adjust to. And what we have to be ahead of, and not be behind the curve. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. I just really feel the need to actually characterize this in its proper form. People need to read the bill and realize this is not talking about any trade agreement, we're not interfering with the free market. This is limited to trade agreements that deal with procurement. If you look at the bill, page 4, line 16, that's what we're talking about. And procurement is how we, as a State, want to spend taxpayer money. That's all we're dealing with. We're not talking about the free market.

"The free market can enter into as much agreements and free market as they want to. If they want to go in a conglomeration and find that doing their business in India is cheaper, we are not limiting that by this bill. What we are saying in this bill is when it's taxpayer money and when we are deciding where that money is to be spent, through contracts under the Procurement Code 103D, then what we want to make sure is that those preferences that we have declared in our Legislative body, whether it's for local preferences, for recycling products, for enumerated different categories under our Procurement Code those things should always be respected. And that is what we are protecting by this bill. It is not an infringement on the free market place. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. I was going to make the same point as the Representative from Aiea, but it was probably not as eloquent, so I'd just like to adopt his words as my own, and also the words of the representative from Pearl City.

"I also want to make this point. That what we seek is not free trade, which is unbridled capitalism. What we really want to seek is fair trade. Trade agreements that are fair to everyone, and are sustainable for all countries."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 30, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTERNATIONAL TRADE AGREEMENTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 42 ayes to 8 noes, with Representatives Awana, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no and, with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Representative Bertram rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Conference Committee Report No. 82. I am standing in strong opposition, Mr. Speaker, and just brief remarks. I oppose allowing the telecommunication towers on agricultural land as a permitted use. Because this will not have any land use review, I think that they could be sited in very inappropriate places. And I think it also takes over the jurisdiction of the counties in looking at what should or should not take place on the land. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Everybody wants cell phones. Nobody wants towers. In my district, you can't get radio. You can't get cell phone. You can't get television. In my district, 98% of the people I represent live on ag land. If we don't put towers on ag lands, we got no towers."

Representative Manahan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. "I'll simply say that's a very good decision. I think there were a lot of problems with that bill. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee and H.B. No. 483, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHECK CASHING," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference, with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 94 and H.B. No. 1212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I'm happy to report that the Judiciary budget boasts an additional $13 million in fiscal year '07 - '08, and $10 million in '08 - '09. The funds are designed to improve the efficiency and productivity of existing programs and services and provide additional staffing and resources to ensure the Judiciary is able to maintain its high level of service as demand rises.

"In 2006, the Judiciary received over 113,000 filings, including over 74,000 criminal and civil filings, over 32,000 family court filings, plus over 491,000 criminal violations. While most of the items funded are not sexy, they are sorely needed. Highlights include funding for juvenile detention workers, juvenile sex offender treatment, treatment for child victims of sexual abuse, domestic violence treatment services, social workers to provide victims equal services, funding for the Interagency Council on Intermediate Sanctions, and equipment for the new courthouse in Hilo.

"The budget also includes grants-in-aid for Hawaii Family Law Clinic, Legal Aid Society of Hawaii, Na Loio Volunteer Legal Services, and Domestic Violence Clearinghouse. And, also, for those of you who care, $25 million for the Kapolei Court Complex. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in support with slight reservations. This is in regard to his last statement. The Kapolei Courthouse is very well done that they did finally fund it. They are going to have all the different floors and stories and lofts fully built out. The only thing is that this bill lacks a proviso regarding the Family Court issue, which has been brewing for the last few years because there are a number of vocal and aggressive groups, lawyers, including some family members of my community, and a large number of Neighborhood Boards are saying if all the Family Court has to go out to Kapolei, that's cruel and unusual driving time and punishment for them to have to do it. Why don't we have 50% there and 50% here?

"Mr. Speaker, otherwise, this is a good bill. It's the right money at the right place, but I think that issue has to be addressed by the Chief Justice. Hopefully, in the State of the Judiciary in 2008, he will have addressed that. Otherwise, I'm sure these groups that are very discontented with that issue will come back to haunt him. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd also like to thank the Chair of Judiciary and Representative Bob Nakasone for his hard work and also the Representative from Hawaii Kai. He was on the Conference Committee, as well. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm voting against the Judiciary budget and I'd like to explain why. It's purely because the budget is silent on the move of the Family Court to Kapolei. We heard quite compelling testimony of the hardship that this would place upon people who are in Family Court for various reasons and having to drive all that way out there, having to pay for the attorney's fees for the Downtown based attorneys driving out there. It would create quite a hardship.

"At one point, I thought it was going to be guaranteed that there would be at least one courtroom in Downtown Honolulu. I really think one is too few for Family Court matters where so many of the practitioners and the parties to the cases are in the Downtown area or in the broader Honolulu area. So, for that reason, I'm voting no. Otherwise, I think the budget is fine, but not the Family Court situation. That's not been solved satisfactorily. Thank you."

Representative Waters

"Mr. Speaker, may I be permitted one quick …"

Speaker Say: "A point of rebuttal?"

Representative Waters: "No. Actually, I think I thanked myself. I would like to thank the Chair of Finance."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have the same concerns that my colleague from Kailua does and I would like her words inserted in the Journal as if they were my own, and I would also be voting no because of that."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I will be voting aye on this budget. We received a letter from the Chief Justice a couple of weeks ago that indicated his willingness to keep five courtrooms open in Downtown Honolulu for the Family Court. I don't know whether this budget will allow it, but he did indicate that he would be seeking funds to renovate the Downtown courtrooms. Because of his intention to comply with our request, I am in favor this budget. Thank you very much."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in support. Mr. Speaker, as was mentioned earlier about communities that are going to be negatively impacted from the long drive, as a Representative of a community that has been negatively impacted for years, driving into town, I'm very supportive of the budget. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I am in strong support. I practiced in Family Court for 13 years now, and the drive from Waipahu to Downtown takes about an hour and a half, because you have to be there at 8:00 or 8:30. But the data that was presented by the Chief Justice in our briefings is that two-thirds of the family practitioners actually can go to Kapolei a lot faster than going to Downtown.

"For example, people from Kailua can use the very nice H-3 and get to Kapolei quicker than they would be able to get to Downtown. And that's why this is, actually, a very good idea to keep it down there. I think those who are impacted are more like Kahala and Hawaii Kai, but you know, they're lawyers. They can adjust.

Because most of the people that they represent don't live in Hawaii Kai. It's usually they live somewhere else in the rural area.

"So, this is a very good idea. We are going to have a brand new court. And, members, you should know that in 1990-ish, around there, Representative Alcon from Kalihi, was talking to me about this and how the Legislature dealt with this issue. There was money appropriated, and all of a sudden because of some lawyers complained and the judges for that matter. They were complaining, and I don't know what they did, but they took the money away and put it somewhere else. And that's why it took this long to improve a Family Court system.

"We really, really should support this. That's the Second City. Hopefully, we'll get a new mayor someday over there, too. But, the thing is, it is great to have a nice facility with courtrooms. We're going to have more positions for judges in the Family Court. So, it is an improvement in totality of the Family Court system."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE JUDICIARY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takumi being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 95 and H.B. No. 1200, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1200, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE BUDGET OF THE OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takumi being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 97 and H.B. No. 1899, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1899, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of the bill relating to Kawai Nui Marsh. Mr. Speaker, I would like to just briefly have thanks entered in the Journal to Muriel Seto who was such an advocate for Kawai Nui Marsh restoration. And to Christina Ho who was in my office several years ago and spent countless hours working to get Kawai Nui Marsh listed as a Ramsar Wetland of international significance and we were successful in that effort. So, I think, they both deserve credit for where we are today. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker and Members of the House: It is with great pleasure that I support of HB 1899 HD2 SD2 CD 1, Related to Kawai Nui Marsh.

"As everyone knows, reaching an agreement acceptable to all parties concerned has been a long process. However, throughout the many discussions, good reasoning prevailed and we have drafted legislation that resolves the long-standing dispute between the City and the State over the jurisdiction and management of the Marsh and that provides funds for the restoration of the Marsh.

"I want to thank everyone, City officials included, who worked hard to come up with legislation that ensures the restoration and protection of the Marsh -- one of the State's largest remaining wetlands -- for future generations. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1899, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAWAI NUI MARSH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takumi being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 101 and S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Because of time, I'm going to save us all from my 9 page speech and just submit comments to the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support of this measure. This measure adds a new Chapter to Title 12 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes and was amended in Conference and replacing it with language that creates an 'Aha Kiole Advisory Committee.

"The purpose of this Act is to initiate the process to create a system of best practices that is based upon the indigenous resource management practices of moku (regional) boundaries, which acknowledges the natural contours of land, the specific resources located with those areas, and the methodology necessary to sustain resources and the community.

"In addition, this legislation calls for perpetuation and preservation of the knowledge of practitioners and the restoration of healthy ecosystems through furtherance of the ahupua'a management system. This includes konohiki management with kapu and hoa'aina rights, and the re-establishment of the 'Aha Moku Councils."

"As you may or may not know, the ahupua'a is an ancient Hawaiian land division system which contained strips of land that extended from the mountain to the kupapaku (ocean floor). The ahupua'a supported a self-contained and ola (life giving) community working with a spirit of cooperation of caring and revering the land to meet the needs of all. Through the study of the ancient Hawaiian ahupua'a, the biological and non-biological factors and their interactions, we hope to identify those elements which supported the success of that ecological system. Learning to build on those elements and not rival nature but to cooperate and live in harmony with her to build a sustainable future is the goal.

"Furthermore, Native Hawaiian culture and traditions is knowledge passed on for generations and still living for the purposes of the perpetuating traditional protocols, caring for and protecting the environment, and strengthening cultural and spiritual connections. It is through the Aha Moku Council that native Hawaiians protected their environment and sustained the abundance of resources that they depended upon for thousands of years.

"Today, many Hawaiian communities are becoming revitalized by using the knowledge of cultural practitioners that was passed down through our kupuna and experienced farmers (mahi'ai) and fishers (lawai'a) to engage and enhance both sustainability and subsistence and self-sufficiency.

"Across the world, specifically in Ghana, in their efforts of identifying best practices on indigenous knowledge, the traditional practice begins by establishing a dialogue between the practitioners and professionals seeking to solve specific problems and various key persons in the communities: spirit mediums, traditional healers, elders, women functionaries, and persons who are knowledgeable in the subject concerned. The dialogue generates debate which gives rise to further action for development and to the improvement of local practices. The result is a blending together of indigenous knowledge and improved practices.

"This sounds very familiar. As this bill similarly does the same.

"In the 2005 Hawaii Ocean Resources Management Plan report to the Twenty-Third Legislature Regular Session of 2006, it was identified under the protection of natural and cultural resources section that development of a system for assessing management needs and developing management practices that draw collectively on regulatory, science based, traditional and cultural, community based and political systems such as the konohiki or ahupua'a concept is needed. The 'Aha Moku Councils provide meaningful feedback. This came out of the 2005 Hawaii Ocean Resources Management Plan report.

"According to Office of Hawaiian Affairs testimony, this is also consistent with the Hawaii State Constitution which reaffirms and protects all rights, customarily and traditionally exercised for subsistence, cultural and religious purposes and possessed by ahupua'a tenants who are descendants of native Hawaiians who inhabited the Hawaiian Islands prior to 1778, subject to the rights of the State to regulate such rights.

"When the first settlers arrived here, they found incredibly unique ecosystems, but within those ecosystems there was very little that could sustain them, other than the marine ecosystem. The plants they brought with them in their voyaging canoes were the core of their culture. They were their food plants, their fiber plants, their medicine plants, their ritual plants. Initially, they would have looked for a place with abundant marine resources, fresh water, and rainfall to water the plants that they had brought with them on their voyages.

"The traditional Hawaiian perspective saw the 'aina and the ali'i nui (high chiefs) as elder siblings (brother or sister), with the maka'ainana as the younger sibling - all three having descended from the mating of the earth and sky. It was the duty of the maka'ainana to malama 'aina (care for the land), while it was the duty of the 'aina and the ali'i nui to ho'omalu (protect) the maka'ainana.

"The ahupua'a was viewed as a single system. The konohiki managed the ahupua'a as one system. What happened in any one part of the ahupua'a affected all the other parts. The head was connected to the tail, the mauka connected to the makai. The maka'ainana worked as a community with a shared interest in protecting the land and water resources from wao to ko kaha kai.

"Pre-contact Hawaiians depended upon an extremely ordered and equitable system of land division in which district boundaries were most carefully planned and laid out. This guaranteed that all natives residing within these boundaries would receive a fair share in the rights, privileges, and benefits essential for a self-sufficient yet comfortable life. Private land ownership was unknown, and public, common use of the ahupua'a resources demanded that boundaries be drawn to include sufficient land for residence and cultivation, freshwater sources, shoreline and open ocean access."

"There was a clear line of responsibility from gods to ali'i to konohiki to maka'ainana. There were clear kapu (prohibitions), which controlled when and how resources were used, with very strict penalties for those who did not follow the kapu.

"As the native Hawaiians used the resources within their 'ahupua'a, they practiced aloha (respect), laulima (cooperation), and malama (stewardship) which resulted in a desirable pono (balance). This is sound resource management where the interconnectedness of the clouds, the forests, the streams, the fishponds, the sea, and the people is clearly recognized."

"Hawaiian settlers changed their new island home to suit their needs: the kula (lowland mesic forest) was cleared for agriculture, valley slopes were terraced, the muliwai (estuary) was used for fishponds, the wao akua (wet forest) provided building materials, firewood, and medicinal plants; and birds were hunted for food and feathers.

"Hawaiian native plants and animals developed over many millions of years with no defense against large ground predators like man, or his domestic plants and animals. The first canoe carried perhaps up to thirty types of crop plants, and pigs, dogs, and chickens. Also on board were stowaways like the Polynesian rat, geckos, landsnails, and weeds.

"A major change was habitat alteration for agriculture. As the population grew, more and more of the lowland mesic forest was cleared and used to grow food. Other areas were burned to encourage the growth of pili grass, used for covering their houses. The wao akua was less affected, yet it was logged for woods like koa and 'ohi'a.

"As in most of the Pacific islands, many species of endemic birds became extinct after the arrival of man. At least forty endemic species disappeared - large flightless geese, ibises, rails, owls, a hawk, an eagle, ravens, and many songbirds. The cause of these extinction was not only hunting for feathers and food, but also the introduction of the Polynesian rat, wild pigs, and destruction of the kula habitat.

"To the farmer, wai was life, wai was wealth, wai was the source of the law of the land. Wai was needed to grow kalo, the principal food resource. The right to use wai depended on the use of it. As long as the maka'ainana cultivated the land and contributed their share of labor required to maintain the water resource, they had a right to use the water for their kalo.

"Kalo lo'i alone could claim the water. Other plants were considered dry land crops, unless there was water to spare. People worked together to build and maintain lo'i (taro fields) and 'auwai (irrigation canals) in each of the ahupua'a.

"Kalo cannot grow in stagnant water. It needs a constant supply of cool water flowing through it. Although planters diverted water from the stream into an *'auwa*i to deliver this water to the lo'i, the total amount taken was never more that 50% of the total flow. Once used in the lo'i, the water was returned to the stream. Pani wai (dams) were used to divert the stream into the 'auwai.

"These pani wai were built by stacking basalt boulders across a stream. This did not change the stream bottom and stream width, or block the passage of native stream animals from mauka to makai. Groups sharing the pani wai killed anyone who broke it, cramming the dead body into the break. Water was extremely serious to the native planter.

"Another use of wai was for aquaculture. The invention of the loko 'ia (fishpond) was a special achievement of the Hawaiians. Fishponds were highly productive and developed during the growth and expansion of the population. Those who had fishponds "loved the lands where they dwelt. Fishponds were things that beautified the land, and a land with many fishponds was called fat."

"The main species of fish raised in ponds were awa (milkfish) and anae (mullet). It was not unusual for a taro farmer to cultivate o'opu and opae in his loko 'ia kalo.

"Tradition associates the most famous loko 'ia, Alekoko Fishpond, with two ali'i, a brother and a sister. These fishponds were symbols of chiefly status and power, and usually under the direct control of ali'i or konohiki. The fish from these ponds often went to feed chiefly households.

"Hawaiians were primarily planters of the land. By the time Captain Cook arrived in 1778, Hawaiians had developed agricultural production far beyond any of their Polynesian relatives elsewhere in the Pacific.

"Hawaiian agriculture was based on two main crop plants. The first was kalo (taro), a water loving plant of southeast Asian origin. No other Polynesian society admired kalo as a plant and source of food as much as the Hawaiians. The Marquesans were into breadfruit - the Tahitians into bananas - Hawaiians were really into kalo. It was and is the heart of their culture. In all of Polynesia, there were no extensive flat valley bottoms, so perfect for kalo cultivation, that could compare to those found in Hawai'i.

"Second only to kalo as a crop plant was 'uala (sweet potato) - tolerant of dry conditions and capable of producing high yields, even in marginal soil. Because 'uala is of South American origin, it was once believed that Polynesians were from that area. However, our recent understanding of the voyaging skills of Polynesian explorers indicates that they acquired the plant in their travels, well before European arrival.

"Other crop plants important to the native planter: mai'a (banana), 'ulu (breadfruit), ko (sugarcane), niu (coconut), uhi(yam). Other plants extensively cultivated were *wauk*e (paper mulberry) for kapa, 'awa as a narcotic, ipu (gourd) for containers and musical instruments, hala for mats, and many other useful and medicinal plants. However, crop tending activities were most focused on kalo and 'uala.

"To the right, 'awa - used as a ritual drink and as a remedy for sore muscles after a hard day of work in the lo'i (taro patch). A little 'awa, a little lomi lomi (Hawaiian massage) - aole pilikia (no problem).

"The earliest planters did not immediately begin construction of large irrigation systems for taro because their small population did not require intensive production. For the first few centuries following their arrival, slash and burn gardens, or shifting cultivations, were their most efficient techniques. Land early on was plentiful, and Hawaiian settlers also made extensive use of the natural food resources - native birds, fish, and shellfish.

"However, in the period from A.D. 1100-1600, the Hawaiian population would grow to several hundred thousand. It was at this time that large irrigation works, dryland field cultivation, and aquaculture were developed. This period was called the Expansion Period, because the growing population, having occupied all the choice agricultural lands, had to expand into marginal areas with less agricultural resources.

"It was in the Expansion Period that stone- faced lo'i (pondfields) and 'auwai (irrigation channels) were built. Around the fifteenth century, the earliest loko 'ia (fishponds) were built. The native population had become large enough to provide the labor for these massive projects of agricultural intensification.

"It was in the Expansion Period that the ahupua'a system of land management developed, along with its associated social class structure. As the population grew and the amount of available land and resources diminished, the need to divide these resources and resolve territorial boundaries increased - thus, the ahupua'a system. Residents of an ahupua'a had free access to all the resources in their ahupua'a, from mauka to makai and makai to mauka.

"By the Expansion Period, the society had divided into a pyramid type of structure, with the mo'i (king) at the top, layers of *ali'*i (chiefs) below him, the konohiki (managers) in charge of the ahupua'a below them, and at the bottom the maka'ainana (common people).The maka'ainana were the real native planters, and as their name suggests, "the eyes of the land". At the top of the pyramid, ali'i nui Kamehameha I.

"In return for their use of the land, the *maka'aina*n*a* owed the upper layers of chiefs labor, loyalty, and a share of their agricultural product . All rights to the land were with the ali'i, and the ali'i could gain or lose power with a turnover in chiefs above them. Changes in upper level ali'i rarely affected the native planters because the maka'ainana who faithfully cultivated the land were valuable to whoever was in power.

"Once constructed, Hawaiian irrigation systems did not require much management. However, these systems produced high yields for the labor invested.

"'Ainakumuwai is the land that is the source of the water. It is another name for the watershed. The quality of a stream's water depends on its source. Rain runs off of the land into streams, or percolates into the groundwater. What ever the rain carries into a stream affects the qualities of that stream.

"High quality Hawaiian streams are clear, cold, and have a strong flow all year long. There is little sediment, leaf litter, and other loose debris because of uninterrupted stream flow and flash floods caused by heavy rains in the mountains. Flow rates can rise and fall rapidly in response to rainfall. Hawaiian streams have a relatively short and steep descent from the mountains, and their bottoms are typically basalt (bedrock, boulders, cobbles, gravel, and sand). Any withdrawal of water by well, tunnel or diversion affects the streamflow. (Mauka to Makai Connection)

"Biologically, alien introduced species dominate to the near exclusion of native species. We see primarily poeciliid fish (small mouth bass, guppies, sword tail, medaka). Hinana (young 'o'opu) are like candy to these introduced fish. Many streams are a poor habitat for native species because of severe sedimentation, dewatering, bank erosion and human impacts to riparian areas. The riparian zone and forests are mostly alien species.

"When humans arrived over a thousand years ago, they began changing their new island home to suit their needs. We have examined the attitudes and effects of the ahupua'a and plantation management systems on land, water, and sustainability throughout Hawai. As we continue to change our island home, the effects of our decisions will be visible in the streams and water. We have looked at what was and what is. What will be is our kuleana (responsibility)

"Over the past two hundred years, we have seen and experienced severe changes. These changes include the deterioration of the Hawaiian culture, language, values and land tenure system have in part resulted in the over-development of the coastline, alteration of fresh water streams, destruction of the live-giving watersheds, decimation of the coral reefs and decline of endemic marine and terrestrial species.

"Stewardship of the land and its resources was formalized through the kapu system. The kapu (taboo) - administered and enforced by konohiki and kahuna, or priests - placed restrictions on fishing certain species during specific seasons, on gathering and replacing certain plants, and on many aspects of social interaction as well. In this way, the community maintained a sustainable lifestyle. Through sharing resources and constantly working within the rhythms of their natural environment, Hawaiians enjoyed abundance and a quality lifestyle with leisure time for recreation during the harvest season of the year. This lifestyle also encouraged a high level of artistic achievement. Many crafts, including Hawaiian kapa and featherwork, were the finest in the Pacific. Hawaiians devoted themselves to competitive sport and martial arts as well as expression through dance and chant, creating rich traditions that continue today.

"Restoration is the return of a degraded ecosystem to a close approximation of its remaining natural potential. We know some of the problems that restoration has to deal with already. We review the physical, chemical, and biological conditions separately, although they work together as one system. Then we speak about the most important element of all - the modern day maka'ainana.

"The ahupua'a is an ancient Hawaiian land division system which contained strips of land that extended from the mountain to the sea. The ahupua'a supported a self-contained community working with a spirit of cooperation of caring and revering the land to meet the needs of all.

"Through the study of the ancient Hawaiian ahupua'a, the biological and non-biological factors and their interactions, we hope to identify those elements which supported the success of that ecological system. Learning to build on those elements and not rival nature but to cooperate and live in harmony with her to build a sustainable future is the goal.

"Native Hawaiian Practices means cultural activities conducted for the purposes of perpetuating traditional knowledge, caring for and protecting the environment, and strengthening cultural and spiritual connections. It is through the Aha Moku Council, Native Hawaiians protected their environment and sustained the abundance resources which they depended upon for thousands of years.

"Today, many Hawaiian communities are becoming revitalized by using the knowledge of cultural practitioners that was passed down through our kupuna and experienced farmers (mahi'ai) and fishers (lawai'a) to engage and enhance both sustainability and subsistence and self-sufficiency.

"Furthermore, many Hawaiian communities are interested, willing and able to advise the departments, agencies, organizations and other groups in integrate traditional knowledge, and "ahupua'a management practices."

"This is consistent with the Hawaii's State Constitution which reaffirms and protects all rights, customarily and traditionally exercised for subsistence, cultural and religious purposes and possessed by ahupua'a tenants who are descendants of native Hawaiians who inhabited the Hawaiians Islands prior to 1778, subject to the rights of the State to regulate such rights.

"This program shall foster understanding and practical use of knowledge, including Native Hawaiian methodology and expertise, to assure stewardship of the interconnectedness of the clouds, the forests, valleys, land, the streams, the fishponds, and the sea. It shall include the use of community expertise, establish programs and projects to improve communication, education and training on the stewardship (mauka to makai, and makai to mauka) issues throughout the region (moku) and increase scientific education among related professions including community residents and native Hawaiians.

"I urge my colleagues to please support this measure. Mahalo!"

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and may I have the nine page comments of the speaker from Hana entered into the Journal as if they were my own."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my strong support for S.B. No. 1853, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1. The purpose of this bill is to establish a framework to provide input in how the State manages our natural resources. The framework is based on the indigenous resource management practices of moku boundaries.

Mr. Speaker, conservation has been one of our major focuses. This Session, we have wisely made conservation a priority and made progress in many ways. We have devoted a large amount of our resources to ensure the beauty of our islands, to ensure the abundance of resources in our oceans, and to ensure the health of our 'aina.

"But no amount of money can help us if we go about it in the wrong way.

"This bill is the first step towards the creation of an Aha Moku Council Commission. The Council, with the input of Native Hawaiian practitioners from 37 mokus, can help us find the right balance between growth and sustainability.

"We now begin this process with the creation of the Advisory Committee.

"This bill is the product of policymakers and stakeholders statewide who joined forces to find a way to integrate traditional knowledge into our efforts to shape a sustainable future for our State.

"I strongly believe that this bill will continue the process that they have started, to create an Aha Moku Council system that is efficient, inclusive, and beneficial for all of us.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATIVE HAWAIIANS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, and with Representatives Cabanilla, Morita and Takumi being excused.

At 6:03 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 1212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1200, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1899, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 1853, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 106 and S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting no on this measure. I'd like to explain why. It's the Loss Mitigation Grant Fund, which means that if you apply for some money to either harden your roof against hurricanes or to build a safe room within the house, you can have funding from this Fund. My concern is it's not at all means based, so, it could be used by a millionaire to build a wine cellar as a safe room and I think it should be means based, instead, to go to the people that wouldn't have adequate money to be able to do that work on their home. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations for those same reasons."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Reservations for the same reasons. Also, something that the Chair of Consumer Protection and Commerce has brought over repeatedly, over and over again is. We're going to be basically giving this fund for safe rooms in places that have never even had hurricanes. I just think we're opening up a giant 'slush fund' for people's home improvements in places where there's really no risk. Thank you."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Thielen be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Could you retract my vote with reservations? I'm going to vote no."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE LOSS MITIGATION GRANT FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Meyer, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 108 and S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the High Technology Incubation Center in Kakaako. This is 66,000 square feet of lab space, office space, and what I hope is going to be the beginning of what some have as a Silicon Valley. We will have a high rise there of 66,000 square feet of scientific and otherwise advancement that produces a Bill Gates, or Steve Jobs, or the others who, because of the jobs that are going to be created, are high paying and with strong education and qualifications. And, Mr. Speaker, all of my other remarks I request to be in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in strong support of this measure. At the beginning of the Session, Governor Lingle laid out her plan for an innovation economy. One of the goals she wanted to accomplish was the support of a private sector-led life sciences and biotech research facility and technology incubator in Kakaako. While this is not the exact same piece of legislation that the Governor wanted, it does accomplish this part of the innovation economy she has laid out for Hawaii.

"What does the incubation center look like? Currently private developers are developing a four hundred thousand square foot Class A life sciences research complex on 4.98 acres in Kakaako.

"This facility will be the only facility in Hawaii with Class A wet laboratory space available to the non-institutional market.

"The High Tech Development Corporation (HTDC) is currently negotiating with these private developers, to establish a ten year lease for approximately sixty-six thousand square feet of lab and office space.

"Benefits of the bill. Grow Life Sciences and Biotech Industries. This facility will allow HTDC to grow Hawaii's life science and biotech industries by providing high-quality incubator and innovation facilities.

"Creation and growth of Life Science industries will revitalize the region, diversify the economy, stimulate and sustain economic growth for a broader impact on Hawaii's economy.

"It will help retain, grow, and recruit high tech businesses, knowledge-based industry, and talent in the State by increasing academic and research excellence.

"It will provide the much needed infrastructure for further growth in the Life Sciences sector and position Hawaii for global competitiveness.

"It will provide facilities and opportunities to foster public and private sector collaborations for research, with its close proximity to the Medical School and other planned projects.

"Support Hawaii's High Tech Industry — Start-Ups are Key. We all know that capital is important to growth. The High Tech start-up companies will not have to worry about financing business infrastructure and wet laboratory developments.

"Dollar and Job Benefits of this Bill. High Tech industries have a track record of producing high paying and fulfilling jobs. This in turn means a better tax base, which means we all benefit.

"It provides the living wage jobs that this Legislature is intent on creating, without regulating and interfering with businesses and their operations.

"Educational Benefits and Brain Gain Benefits. The media has painted a grim picture for Hawaii's future, that our children will need to leave Hawaii or if they remain, will have to endure low paying and unfulfilling jobs, that there is no hope here in Hawaii, and they call it the price of Paradise. This facility will bring hope and can quickly change this grim outlook to that of hope and the ability to remain here in Hawaii.

"This will encourage our keiki to get involved in the STEM programs because this is a field of fulfillment and opportunity.

"Our medical students at the John A. Burns School of Medicine will have increased opportunities because this facility will be clustered in close proximity to the school.

"Mr. Speaker, this is one small part of the Governor's innovation package, but it will pay big dividends to the people of Hawaii, both directly and indirectly. We all can benefit from this, we all will benefit from this, and we should all support this."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support. This bill would help in developing Hawaii's technology and life science industries by appropriating $150,000 for fiscal year 2007-2008, and the sum of $250,000 for fiscal year 2008-2009, for the lease agreement between the High Technology Development Corporation and the developers or owners of a life science complex in Kakaako, and for plans for and operations of a high technology incubator and innovation center to be held at that complex. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of Senate Bill 896 SD2 HD2 CD1, Relating to High Technology. This measure will support the fledgling life sciences and biotechnology industry in Hawaii.

"Many other locations in the United States and abroad provide incentives for high technology companies to develop and grow because of the high paying jobs provided by a flourishing high technology industry.

"In the last three years, thirteen biotechnology corporations chose not to select Hawaii as a site due to a severe lack of commercial laboratory space.

"By appropriating funds to the High Technology Development Corporation, to negotiate a long-term lease of sixty-six thousand square foot technology incubator and innovation center, we will provide the needed facilities to attract life sciences and biotechnology companies in the future. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill appropriates funds to the High Technology Development Corporation to negotiate a ten-year lease to house a technology incubator and innovation center in a life sciences research complex. This will allow HTDC to participate in a public-private partnership with Kamehameha Schools and developers KUD International and Phase III properties to build wet lab space so that Hawaii can be competitive with life science hubs around the world.

"This life sciences complex will be built in close proximity to the John A. Burns School of Medicine and the Hawaii Cancer Research Center. With the addition of this complex to the cluster of research and development activity presently existing in Kakaako, this concentration of research laboratory space, medical facilities, and high caliber scientists will serve as a signal that Hawaii is a serious option for companies to relocate or establish branch laboratories.

"Currently, one of the major obstacles preventing mainland technology companies from establishing businesses in Hawaii and local technology companies from expanding their operations has been market cost and lack of facilities. Consequently, this bill will directly assist in the growth of the science and technology sectors by helping to provide wet laboratory facilities that are presently in demand. Additionally, the life sciences facility will create an estimated 1,000 new living wage jobs, creating opportunities to bring skilled kamaaina back from the Mainland. It is my understanding that the average annual salary in life sciences is $62,000.

"This bill is one means of ensuring that Hawaii's fledgling startups have what it takes to expand their existing businesses. I urge my colleagues to support this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of SB 880, SD2, HD2, CD1. This measure will preserve and promote Hawaiian culture by first creating a committee which will assist in establishing a Museum of Hawaiian Music and Dance. As a member of the Finance Committee, I was privileged to receive testimony in support of this bill from Mr. James Stone, Jr., President of the Hawaiian Music Hall of Fame expressed beautifully sentiments of many Hawaiians when he stated:

> Of particular importance to Hawaii is the unique voice Hawaiian music gives to its people. Hawaiian music and hula express the language of the heart, and therefore the heart of the Hawaiian people. This bill is a tangible … expression by this body that Hawaiian music and hula are important to our cultural life.

"I am excited about the potential of this bill, and look forward with great anticipation to the Committee's work and the establishment of the Museum of Hawaiian Music and Dance. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1228, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support. The story of the wrongful and unconstitutional internment of Japanese Americans by the United States government during World War II must never be forgotten. Many of them lost their jobs and property because of their imprisonment for simply having Japanese ancestry. Unfortunately, some died in these internment camps. Many young Japanese American men volunteered for military service and died for their country while their families were imprisoned by the very country they were fighting for.

"Through this bill, the State of Hawaii supports establishing a process to determine the most appropriate means of memorializing the World War II Japanese American internment camp experience in Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1228, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORICAL PRESERVATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 111 and S.B. No. 1026, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1026, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with reservations and just a short explanation why. I'm against the accepting of the two liters bottles, however, I support the flexibility to suspend the fee increase."

Representative Brower rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am against this bill. This bill is about increasing the size of containers under the current bottle law from 64 to 68 ounces.

"It should be noted that there is one good thing in the bill—an added provision that allows the Director of the Department of Health to temporarily suspend the extra one cent or one-and-a-half cent fee if the deposit beverage container special fund contains sufficient funds. That's a good thing.

"But the rest of the bill is unnecessary. Some Reasons:

It's another example of a regressive tax.

Reverse vending machines as currently made don't allow for 2-liter bottles and would need to be repurchased or retrofitted.

Passage of this bill and its effect on the amount of the litter involved, especially roadside litter or beach litter, is considered of "little impact" by the Department of Health.

And, finally, this will have an adverse on low-income families who try to get some economic advantage by purchasing larger packaging size, and we're taking that advantage away with this bill.

"For these reasons, I'll be voting no. I urge all my colleagues to vote no, as well."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1026, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOLID WASTE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Brower, Marumoto and Meyer voting no, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 113 and S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Just to say I'm really very happy to see the reinstitution of a Low Income Food Tax Credit. Just to let the folks know that we used to have an Excise Tax Credit and a Low Income Tax Credit, and these two have been sort of meshed together into one. It's not enough, but I'm very happy to see it here. Thank you very much."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of SB 1882, SD2, HD1, CD1. This measure will grant much needed relief to low income individuals by expanding the current low-income refundable tax credit. Food is a basic need. We cannot sit back and watch some of our neediest citizens struggle to purchase food. The tax credit in this bill helps recognize the high cost of living and helps in mitigating this issue by giving these individuals much needed relief. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure, but with some serious reservations. I started this Legislative Session with high hopes for the working class families of our State and that there would be a strong, progressive, systemic changes to our tax system that would alleviate the tax burden on the working poor and the middle class throughout the State.

"There were many proposals from both sides of the aisle that were considered by this body. An Earned Income Tax Credit, the Low Income Refundable Tax Credit, inflation adjustments to the Standard Deduction, personal exemptions, and tax brackets, and income tax credit equal to the general excise tax assessed on gasoline, increases to the standard deduction, and elimination of the GET on certain food items. Some of these proposals rose to the top and others fell to the wayside. All part of the legislative process.

"While S.B. 1882 in its final form as a refundable food excise tax credit did come from of these initial proposals and while this measure does provide for some targeted relief for which I'm grateful, I have concerns with substance and procedure.

"On matters of substance, Mr. Speaker, this bill does not go far enough. Preliminary analysis of this bill by the Center for Budget and Policy Priorities shows that we will have done little to alleviate the tax burden on the poorest among us, and for families. For example, for single parent families of three at the poverty line, we will move from first worst in the nation to second worst in terms of State tax burden. For two parent families of four at the poverty line, we will move from second worst to seventh worst. And for two parent families of four, we move from third worst to ninth worst in terms of State tax burden.

"On matters of procedure, Mr. Speaker, my concern relates to how S.B. 1882 appeared at the eleventh hour in Conference Committee at the expense of another measure. That was both a part of the Senate Majority package and signed on to and introduced by all of the Majority in the House. This is, of course, on the Earned Income Tax Credit. Mr. Speaker, my concern about procedure is twofold. First, many advocates within the community strongly believed that we were going to act on the Earned Income Tax Credit. Energy was focused on that proposal. Again, while this measure, S.B. 1882, did move to the legislative process, it did not receive the kind of public debate that the other had received.

"For example, Mr. Speaker, the numbers that are given in the Food Income Tax Credit, the $85 for those earning under $5,000 or the $75, is that linked, my question would be, to what people are spending and what the tax burden is for general excise tax on food? We don't know the answers to those questions.

"Mr. Speaker, it is no secret that I have been a strong supporter of the Earned Income Tax Credit all Session, because it is targeted tax relief that provides strong work incentives and provides asset building opportunities for those individuals and their families. I will not vote in opposition to this because I think that this measure does provide targeted tax relief, but I think we can do better. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. I think that this is a good first step to address the issue of excise tax on food items. This is not the only thing that the Legislature has done. We need to remind ourselves that last year, not only did we increase the Standard Deduction, but we also increased the widening of the brackets. That is something that taxpayers are taking advantage of right now. In fact, it started this January.

"Second, in looking at the bill in terms of what the prior speaker had said. The U.S. Department of Agriculture states the average household spends, if I'm not mistaken, about $1,500 per household on food items bought at the store. Again, this does not include food purchased at the restaurants or other means. We took a look at increasing that amount kind of based on some general inflationary numbers on food items, and came out with a range between $75 and $85 per household, in what people pay for taxes.

"Could we have done more? Yes. But I think, like we talked about in House Bill 500, the basic needs of the State, this will provide good targeted relief for the working families of Hawaii, again, not just for low income, but middle income families.

"I would also like to point out, and this is my own individual opinion on the Earned Income Tax Credit. I think it was one of those things that it is a good bill. We need to still take a look at it. At the same time, there are many programs, both in the budget and other bills, that address the issues of those in need. Whether we are going to talk about the $700 million we spend every year in human services programs, not including the federal match, to all the other programs in Medicare, Medicaid. I think that this overall budget and these various tax bills is a good step for Hawaii's people. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. First, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to thank the Representative from Kahala, Kaimuki who was with you and I back in mid-90s, Mr. Speaker, when we had to make the tough decision to repeal the Food Tax Credit to basically fund essential services in health care, education, elderly, and basic government services because of the recession we were in. And something that had really plagued me for the last 12 years since I've been in the State House. So, for me, this is an important measure to return to a promise, I guess, I made to myself about 12 years ago, Mr. Speaker. That should I have the opportunity and the ability to reinstate the Rental and the Food Tax Credit for the low income, then I'll do so. So, for me, Mr. Speaker, today is a day of reckoning with myself and my conscience to for what we did about 12 years ago during that recession.

"But, more important, Mr. Speaker, I think this measure, as mentioned by the previous speaker, allows us to expand the Low Income Tax Credit and combined with the Food Tax Credit, so we can start touching the lives of the middle income families, not only the low income families.

"And another point on this particular measure, Mr. Speaker, is that unlike the prior tax credit that we had in the '90s which applied to anyone regardless of income, this one is very focused and measured to those who really need it the most, the low income working families and the middle class families.

"You know, Mr. Speaker, I wish I had the luxury of espousing all kinds of tax measures and ideas and suggestions to address my constituents also. But I have the responsibility of looking at the numbers as they are before me and to take heed. And just so the body can know, I had a meeting this afternoon with Director Kawafuchi and he came me some very sobering information. He basically told me that given the current tax collection trends that we've been experiencing the last several months, he does not think, Mr. Speaker, we will reach the six percent Council on Revenue projections. We may not even get to four percent.

"He also suggested to me this afternoon, Mr. Speaker, that in order for us to even reach that point, we would have to generate 20% more taxes on the next two months than we did in 2006. It was very glum, but that's the reality, Mr. Speaker.

"I'm glad we're getting this measure out, Mr. Speaker because, hopefully, it'll stand against what the Governor and what this Legislature may have to do next year should the forecast remain as stated by the Director of DOTAX. Mr. Speaker, I have some written remarks. I'd like to ask for permission to submit them later," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support for Senate Bill No. 1882, Senate Draft 2, House Draft 1, Conference Draft 1, Relating to Taxation and submit these additional comments to the House Journal.

"This bill renames the current Low Income Refundable Tax Credit to the Refundable Food/Excise Tax Credit, provides additional income tax brackets that qualify for the tax credit, and increases the amounts of the tax credits for each bracket.

"Act 134, Session Laws of Hawaii 1995, reduced the food tax credit from a maximum of $55 to a single rate of $27 and repealed the general excise and medical services tax credits as part of a package to address the projected deficit in balancing the overall biennium budget. Act 157, Session Laws of Hawaii 1998, repealed the food tax credit and established a low income refundable tax credit which provides a maximum tax credit of $35 per a qualified exemption for taxpayers with adjusted gross income under $10,000.

"According to the latest tax credit report by the Department of Taxation, the low income tax credit was taken by 30.4% of the returns filed by individuals in tax year 2004. The credit amounted to $8.1 million in tax year 2004 and $8.3 million in tax year 2003. Senate Bill No. 1882, Conference Draft 1 with its expanded brackets will result in approximately 60% of the taxpayers receiving some benefit from these changes at revenue loss of approximately $ 31 million. Senate Bill No. 1882, Conference Draft 1 will provide a greater impact on addressing the regressivity of the general excise tax and at the same time providing more relief to those at the very bottom of the income scale.

"The 2005 - 2007 Tax Review Commission cautions against exempting health care services, food, apparel, or shelter from the general excise tax to address its regressive nature, but suggests "that if the Legislature finds it desirable to grant such tax relief on equity grounds, that it should pursue those goals either through low-income tax credits against income taxes or through the appropriation and expenditure process, which enhances transparency and accountability."

"For these reasons, I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of the measure. While one confession deserves another, I, too, confess that I voted for the repeal of this. In the '90's, in fact, we not only raided this, we raided just about anything that had any money left, and we're still in pain because we've got unfunded mandates here, unfunded mandates there, and we're still not recovered from that. I really appreciate the frankness and the heartfelt confession from the Chair of Finance.

"However, Mr. Speaker, I think I have to go back to the words of the Representative from Makiki who said, Mr. Speaker, we can do better than this. I think that's what is a resounding underlying factor of this. Even though it's reinstated, it's small, we give a little, we feel good. But I think we're still damning with faint praise. Why don't we just get off the backs of the poor and get on with developing this State for its future. Every Session we've got promises that we don't keep. As I began my speaking in reservation against the budget, if we beat our chest and we claim to these people that we're going to help and we don't help them, and they come back every year. And we say again we're going to do it the next year.

"Mr. Speaker, we need the political will to do this and to finalize this. Right now, we still have one-third of our population dependent upon some kind of a government program, or subsidy, or financing to keep them above water. That is not a good sign. And we were reminded earlier today that only Alabama taxes its people as heavy as we do. That is not a good reputation. So, Mr. Speaker, we can do better. This is a good beginning and I think it great and I applaud it, but I think this should be a beginning for a momentum by which we can restore, educate, get the poor to be on their feet, to be independent so that we can get on with all the other development needs that this State has to do. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker and Members, I speak for the bill. I've been hearing a lot about that we should be doing more and I think we all want to do more. That's why we're here. We're here because we want to serve and we want to help those who cannot help themselves. That's why we're here.

"But if you compare us to the other states, that are ahead of us as far as providing less tax burden than we do, you need to look at the total picture. You compare apples and apples? Or apples and oranges? Most of the states, including Alabama, have other means of drawing income besides the normal taxes that they have. Also, as a state, we're very unique, in that we are responsible for the education budget. All the other states go through either the cities, Board of Education or the respective counties. We are responsible for education. We are responsible for all the district courts where none of the other states are responsible for the district courts. We are responsible for social services. Most of the other states have the cities or the counties running social services.

"So, when you begin to compare all these things, look at the burden that the State has relative to the other states in the nation, our burden is that much greater. So, inevitably, our taxes to maintain these services that we are providing, unlike the other states, need to be higher. So, if we want to change this, you need to look at other sources of income. Do we have other sources of income? And I'm not suggesting anything. I'm just saying be realistic. Do we want to delegate? Does the county want to pick it up? I don't think they have the capability. They did at one time. The counties ran the courts, the district court. The county ran the hospitals. The counties ran the school system as far as the buildings and repair. And they came to the State and they said, 'Please, take it over,' and we did. So the burden is with us. So, please, when you look at our taxation, look at what we have to do to arrive and save in order to serve the people. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In regards to CCR No. 113, it's been said that this is a good first step. But like the Finance Chair had mentioned, it's not guaranteed that we're going to have additional surplus money in the future. In fact, if it is true, then we are looking at a little gloomier expectation for the future.

"So, in regards to a good first step, I think the comment should more likely reflect that it's probably the only step. This is our chance to do a significant tax relief for the State of Hawaii, at least for the upcoming few years. So, in regards to we could have done better. I know that the budget was stretched to try and address many needs, but the State Constitution and all of the other language in the part about wanting to do what is right, which is return money to the taxpayers because of the type of collection."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support and written comments in the Journal, but I just wanted to say that in many ways we have helped low income people by our investment in those people. For example, the Keiki Care bill that we just passed, and maintaining the social safety net. In a state like Alabama, I am sure, that is not as nearly as complete. So, I think we've really used our resources to invest in our people, in our school system, in our health system and in many other ways. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support. Mr. Speaker, this modest credit will go a long way in providing the most needy of our citizens some help with rising food costs.

"In general, I have not supported removal of the excise tax on food because much of our tax revenue is derived from the many meals and food stuffs purchased by tourists.

"However, this credit is fair and reasonable. I urge the Members' support."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. I think it's more than a first step, Mr. Speaker, and when you look at what we did last year, we can all be proud of that. We did provide a significant tax relief. We have expanded the brackets by 20%, which resulted in $38 million in savings, which we benefit again this year, in fiscal year '07 - '08. And we increased the standard deduction by 40% of the federal level, which resulted in $10.8 million, almost $11 million, which we again can claim in the fiscal year '07 - '08.

"Now, you add the food tax credit, you add the forgiveness of the excise tax on gas, and you're looking at about $150 million worth of tax breaks to those on the 60%, or the lower end of the economic spectrum. These are all things we can be proud of and it's a continuing step. Things like EITC, which are strongly supported by members of this Caucus, and if money was no object, we would be looking at EITC today. But to imply somehow we don't support it or that we're not going to look at it in the future is not correct, and the hope is that through being fiscally responsible this year, that perhaps next year there will be funds to continue additional steps to address those who need the help the most, which is what we focused on this year. That you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"I rise with further comments, brief comments. Mr. Speaker, we are, in the first time in our history, people who are 40 years and older, more educated than our 25 year olds. We have students come out of our high schools, they go into the university. Sixty per cent of them have to take remedial math and English. My point of saying this is that when the Chair of Finance and I confessed that we had taken away this tax credit, right now I bet you it's twice what it was before. But, yet, the poor among us we still have is the same numbers, or the same problems, or the same issues that we're doing previously. So, there's something we've got to do better, and I go back to what the Representative from Makiki said. Mr. Speaker this is the beginning, but we can do better. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I do share some of the concerns that the Representative from Makiki brought up, and I'd like to request that written comments be inserted into the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this bill but have some reservations. This Session, we had an incredible opportunity to help relieve some of the tax burden from our working families. However, most of this opportunity was wasted because we did not have the will or vision to push for more progressive tax reform.

"While a refundable Food/Excise Tax Credit is one small step in the right direction, we should have been more aggressive. Our record-low unemployment rate offset by the extremely high cost of living tells us that people are working, but they just cannot keep up. Why should these hard working families have to live by just scraping by each month? They deserve better.

"A more progressive solution would have been to pass a refundable State Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC). This is a proven mechanism for directing truly meaningful relief to those who need it most.

"Like with so many issues this Session, we stopped short of the finish line on meaningful tax relief. I hope in the future we will continue to push for more progressive initiatives that will benefit all the residents of our State. We owe it to them to do better. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative Belatti be entered in the Journal as his own, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak in support of this bill with reservations.

"This Session we had an incredible opportunity to begin to lift the burden of our State taxes from the shoulders of Hawaii's workers who can least afford them. Following multiple years of a budget surplus due largely to taxpayers in this State, a lack of funding is not an issue that should stop meaningful, systemic change in our tax code to put the best interests of working people first.

"A refundable food/excise tax credit is one small step in the right direction. However, given the tremendous resources now available to the State and the increasing majority of families in Hawaii that find it harder and harder to get by each year, we could have been more aggressive. Hawaii continues to have a skyrocketing cost of living, yet record-low unemployment rates. People are working, but they just cannot keep up. Better long-term solutions are needed today to help the countless workers in Hawaii who are just scraping by.

"One such solution is a refundable State Earned Income Tax Credit that has been debated thoroughly in our community and heard in numerous legislative committees this year. While the Food/Excise Tax Credit is certainly admirable, the effectiveness of federal and State Earned Income Tax Credits in supporting work, alleviating child poverty, and encouraging asset-building among low-income families should have been given greater weight. As a legislative body, we are constantly asked to weigh policies against one another. In this instance, had our priorities been set out more openly from the beginning, we could have had a better solution for working families and for the community at large. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, and with Representative Cabanilla being excused.

At 6:31 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 1402, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 896, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 880, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 1228, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1026, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1
S.B. No. 1882, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 117 and S.B. No. 1672, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1672, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support of this, Mr. Speaker, but I do have a question."

At 6:32 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 8:02 o'clock p.m.

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. You know what, Mr. Speaker? No reservations, but I do have some questions on this particular bill. I brought it up the last time that we had this on the Floor. Basically, the general fund amount for this should be more along the lines of being about $30,000 and currently it's about $16,000 that is appropriated in this bill. Did I say, 'million'? Sorry.

"Currently, it should cost about $30 million and there's $16 million appropriated in the bill. I don't know that once you've paid out the $16 million, or $8 million per year, that if we have to come back for an emergency appropriation? Or we just say first come, first serve and then after that we revert to an old schedule. So, I do have concerns about that.

"I think that what we're trying to accomplish in the bill is really good, but in regards to knowing the overall financial picture, understanding the budget, all of those types of things, that this comes into play. So, if it does it affect and we do end up asking for an emergency appropriation, Mr. Speaker, I think that it would be better if we planned and had the full amount in here. And then, as I mentioned before, that in 2008, we are scheduled to merge both the QUEST and Medicaid programs together, the fee for service programs with QUEST. So, those are my concerns."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1672, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 118 and S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1676, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 120 and S.B. No. 1060, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1060, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to Senate Bill 1060, C.D. 1 regarding the workers' compensation law. There is one good feature about this measure and it will exempt small businesses from having to purchase workers' comp insurance, so that's a glimmer of hope. However, I think the rest of the bill will cost employers a lot more and I fear for the cost and availability of workers' comp insurance.

"We've received countless letters from employers in opposition to this bill, but I would just like to read one letter that I received, and it is from the owner of Foodland, a young woman named Jenai Wall, and she writes:

> I'm writing of behalf of Foodland Supermarket, Ltd., to express our company's strong objection to this bill, and urge you to veto it. As a locally owned company that has been serving Hawaii for the last 59 years, we believe Senate Bill 1060, CD 1 will seriously impact our ability to run our business.

And as we all know, Foodland employs a lot of our friends and family. I continue.

> Currently, an employer may require an independent medical examination, IME, if they feel that the injured worker has reached maximum medical improvement. Or, in other words, no further medical progress will be made. IMEs are one of the few tools an employer has to manage workers' compensation cases.

I'll skip a paragraph or two.

> As you know, Senate Bill 1060 seeks to change this process, the most burdensome of which would require mutual agreement between the employer and the employee on an IME physician. Mutual agreement can be difficult to achieve in situations where an employer is challenging the treatment rendered by a provider. Other proposed changes to the process include detailed and somewhat onerous experience requirements for those who would be allowed to perform an IME, and allowing the employee to bring their physician to the IME and make the employer pay for it. The latter proposal presumably would enable the treating provider to challenge the credentials of the IME physician and could be viewed as intimidation.

"I will just end it there. I would ask you to look at this bill quite carefully. It will increase referrals to vocational rehabilitation. It will increase cost. You will have to wait until there's a hearing and the Director of the Department of Labor must determine when maximum medical improvement is achieved. It will be very difficult for the employer to retrieve any reimbursement from excess medical care and this bill, I fear, will create more problems than it will solve. I urge your no vote. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm also rising in opposition to this measure. As the previous speaker said, there is one good section, but is overwhelmed by a host of bad and wasteful provisions.

"Some of the troublesome provisions are that the bill would allow an allegedly injured employee to unilaterally ignore a finding by the employer or the employer's insured that certain workers' comp medical treatments are no longer medically justified for the employee. The employer would be forced to continue paying for this unnecessary treatment until the Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations issued an order to stop the treatment. Worse yet, even if the Director of DLIR ruled that medical treatments were medically unjustified, the wasted money would not be recovered from the worker unless actual fraud could be proven.

"Another troublesome provision is the current law allowing vocational rehab benefits for permanently disabled workers would be amended to include workers who are able to work at a reduced capacity, but who have not received a job offer from their old employer that offers them their old pay levels for this lesser level of work. That is, the employer would have to either pay an employee more money than their labor is worth or else pay for some costly rehab procedures that might not result in the worker being able to earn more money.

"Still another wasteful provision requires paying Temporary Total Disability payments even if the employer has determined that the employee is able to resume work if the employer can find any physician or chiropractor who will state that the employee is not ready to return to work. In essence, a chiropractor who has a vested financial interest in the employee not returning to work, could override the decision by a physician who went to medical school.

"Further, this provision says that even if an employee is able to return to work, they can keep getting this total disability payments anyway unless the old employer has made a bona fide offer of suitable work within the employee's medical restrictions. In other words, Mr. Speaker, the employer would be forced to either pay disability benefits to an employee who is not disabled or offer the employee a job even if they have no productive work available that the employee is capable of doing, instead of the employee simply finding another employer who does have productive work available which they can do.

"I could go on and on about the bad provisions in this bill. But in the interest of brevity, lets just say that this bill could be titled, 'the omnibus stick-it-to-the-employers and suck up to labor unions bill.' If you're looking to end our economic expansion and drive employers out of business and cost employees their jobs, this bill is a heck of a start. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of this omnibus workers' compensation bill. Let me point out all the good provisions in this measure. Section 1 is an alternative dispute resolution that was recommended by the Director of Labor. This is one of the Governor's package that tried to introduce rules when we didn't want it at the Legislature. I stuck it in here. We're sticking it in here because the Department of Labor and the Lingle Administration really wanted this provision. Labor didn't want it, but we put it in here anyway.

"Also, one good thing in here that we took out is the handcuff that we had on the Director. We took it out of here because the Lingle Administration didn't want it, so, that was one provision that we took out.

"Section 2, Rule Making. That one right there is according to Mr. Hardaway it's fine. It was just an omission.

"Section 3, Small Business Exemption. It's been very, very difficult to pass this provision. A lot of people don't like this provision because it does weaken the whole concept of a safety net for workers. But we put it in here because it's very, very important to the business community, and I think it makes sense in order to balance this bill.

"Section 4, Continuation of Medical Services. Now, most businesses who actually understand this bill, employers say, 'You know what? We want to take care of our workers.' This says that in those situations, where medical treatment is necessary to prevent further injury or degradation of the injured worker, then you continue it. It doesn't include things that are not necessary for the person. Plus, it has a 30 day window. How many treatments, how many doctor visits can you take within 30 days? Not much. So, really, this is not much of a benefit.

"Actually labor wanted a lot more, but we wanted to make sure this is a well-balanced bill going forward. And since this is the work of a Committee, this is what comes out, a lot of give and take. And that's why there was a lot of give from the labor, so that business can keep on taking. Or if you say business in this case, it's not really employers. Business in this case is the insurance companies. And I will get to that a little later when I explain the other provision that's really good for employers.

"In vocational rehabilitation and under the law, there's only a right to work, a right to return to your work. If you got injured and somehow you come back, the employer sometimes in a real situation, in real life scenarios, they don't want you back because you are liability. Because as you know, once an employer spends about $10,000 within three years, you will be considered high risk. High risk means you are about to pay triple your regular yearly premiums. It's just the way high risk is done. The high risk provider is HEMIC and I'll tell you about HEMIC a little later, too. So, vocational rehab here, I wasn't really in support of this, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I think he's exceeded his time."

Representative Nakasone rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative Nakasone. The vocational rehab provision in here is just to ensure that those individuals who are discriminated against in a very subtle way, which is, we don't have work for you. We don't want you anymore after 30 years of service. Because it could happen and it happens in real life. They are a liability to an employer so they rather not rehire them. So, in that case, Mr. Bob Dove crafted that very language that we stuck in here. Mr. Dove is, of course, the head of HEMIC, and he is Mr. Insurance in the State of Hawaii. And, so, he crafted that language and I hope that you could support that.

"Now, the next section that is really good is the IME provision. This provision is not new. Mutual consent is not new. If you look at our no-fault statute, we've been doing that for automobile. When there is a question regarding reasonable treatment and the insurance company says, we need to subject you to an IME, independent medical examination', the independent medical examination is chosen by both the insurance company and the claimant, in which case, there's no problem with that. Except if they don't agree, if they don't agree in the no-fault area, I'm not talking about this bill, this bill is much better. If they don't agree in the no-fault area, existing law in no-fault, what happens is you go directly to hearing. So what we did in the provisions under this bill, is we made it better so that if they don't agree within ten days, the Director can choose for them, so there's no lag time. We save money based on that.

"And why do I say the intent for this is to save money? Because let me tell you why. They may claim that they need this tool. But they claim a lot of other things. They say they need this to ensure there is no excessive treatment, and that the employee is not receiving too much benefits or medical treatment, treatments that are not necessary. That's a good way take a looking at why they want it. But we have to take a look at the record of what's going on.

"According to national standards, seventy per cent of all premiums are supposed to go to benefit people that are injured, workers that are injured. That's the national standard. Seventy per cent of premiums. Now, let's take a look at an example in the State of Hawaii. Oh, let's see, HEMIC. Since they post their financial statements on their website, it's accessible. In 2005, they collected from employers $87 million in premiums. Seventy per cent of that is approximately $60 million. That's how much they should give in benefits. And what the actual financial statement say, $20 million went for medical and TTDs, that's the temporary total disability, lost wages.

"Now, even if you add that together, it's only 36% for premiums. So where's the rest? The rest is in their pockets. And it's clear that it's in their pockets, and it should be in the employer's pockets. That's why this is a bill to help employers and employees. It is a well balanced bill. Let me also add that they spent in the same year $14 million in what we call IMEs in defense attorneys. Fourteen million dollars for that? Shouldn't we just have given that as benefits? It doesn't even come up to seventy percent.

"The next section that is good in here is the submission of treatment plans. Doctors always complain that there's too much paperwork and that's why this provision is there, in order to mitigate their complaints so that they can go on with their job of treating their patients.

"Now, Section 10, Annual Report. Here's a good one. This is very good for employers because this will break down what we call loss cost reporting. What is being currently reported to the Commissioner in order for the Commissioner to establish the rate, in order for them to get a rate set so that an insurance company can use this rate …"

Representative Lee rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"Thank you for volunteering your five minutes. Thank you. I really appreciate it. I'm almost done. But there's so many good things in this that I really need to explain, because it is a comprehensive bill. And it is very difficult to understand.

"Again, the annual reporting that's been done is what we call loss cost. Right now, it's lumped all together so we really don't know how they set rates. But, my point is that this is requested by the Department. This Department wants clarification, too. It's good to have 'sunshine'. We need to know what is the reason why employers are paying so much in premiums. Employers are paying way too much premiums. But do you know why they are paying so much premiums? They don't know why. Because the Insurance Commissioner sets rates according to what we call, loss cost. But loss cost is not what we think it is. We thought, and I thought, prior to being the Labor Chair in which I have access to some information now. I got real smart. Well, not that smart. I got a little smarter because of the information provided. In loss cost, it's not actually what I thought it was. I thought loss cost was what the insurance company paid out to injured workers in benefits. But, no, it's not. And that is why we need to break that down because what is being reported to the Insurance Commissioner is a lump sum which actually lumps the benefits for injured employees and it also includes containment cost. In other words, when every time and each time that the employer, or in this case, insurance carrier, questions the kind of treatment that an injured worker is receiving from …"

Representative Cabanilla rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"I'm trying to speak really quickly, but, then again, there are a lot of good provisions in this bill. We must not miss any of them. And that is why this is a cost savings if we understand that employers are, indeed, paying for IMEs and the use of IMEs. Some IMEs are making a million dollars not practicing medicine. They are practicing IMEs. IMEs are supposed to be independent. If they are not independent, we're trying to addressing that problem with this bill."

The Chair then stated:

"Would you like to summarize your remarks at this time, Representative Sonson?"

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"I'm trying to make sure I don't miss any, but, yes. In summary, this is a very good bill. It brings sunshine. It really tried to bring peace between employer and worker, because if you ask the Chamber of Commerce, they care about their employees. And the number one priority is to take care of their employees. And that's what this bill is all about, to take care of employees. There is nothing here that will stick anything to the employer. We are probably sticking it to the insurance carrier, but that is another matter. So, thank you very much. I'm sorry it took so long to explain that."

Representative Manahan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1060, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW," passed Final Reading by a vote of 27 ayes to 22 noes, with Representatives Awana, Belatti, Berg, Brower, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Green, Hanohano, Har, Marumoto, Meyer, Morita, Nishimoto, Pine, Saiki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 126 and H.B. No. 436, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 436, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker, HB 436.

"Chiropractic as a distinct form of healthcare dates back in 1895 and is now practiced by more than 100 countries including the United States. Here in Hawaii, chiropractic is fast becoming a popular and effective alternative mode of treatment for patients. This measure which seeks to include chiropractic in the coverage of medical assistance programs such as Medicaid and QUEST, if enacted into law, will be another milestone in improving health care access to the people of Hawaii.

"It requires medical assistance programs such as QUEST and Medicaid to include chiropractic coverage.

"Hawaii will be the 31st state to include chiropractic coverage in healthcare plans.

"Thirty states offer some form of medical chiropractic benefit under a fee-for-service agreement.

"Twenty states extend coverage to those considered medically needy but who do not qualify for financial assistance."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 436, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HUMAN SERVICES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 127 and H.B. No. 506, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Conf. Com. Rep. No. 129 and H.B. No. 718, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 718, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of HB 718, SD2, CD1. The purpose of this bill is to ensure that children and their families have access to one of the State's most precious water resources – the fishing cove at Kewalo Basin.

"In addition, I am proud to support the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy, just like many others who spoke in support of this bill. During testimony, one grandfather spoke about taking his grandchildren fishing at this site. Fishing provides a safe and healthy environment for families. These are lifelong experiences that family members will share for generations. Such experiences are priceless. My hopes are that this conservancy is kept in its current place and for many generations to come. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of HB 718, Mr. Speaker.

"This measure will ensure our keiki have access to fishing and to be educated about our marine resources and Hawaiian culture.

"Background – This program will take a group of ten to a cove located at Kewalo Basin for their fishing excursion; and the group will consist of youth, the disabled (blind and deaf children and the mentally challenged – certified workers with them, pair up worker and program member) and our kupuna (this program will enable our disabled and kupuna the opportunity to experience fishing).

"Some of the organization that have been involved with this fine program: Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, Adult Retardation Center, Tutu and Me traveling pre-school program, all have taken advantage of this fine program.

"Education and Conservation – 100% Tag and Release Program – Participate in a tag and release program – wherein they have already tagged and released over 17,500 fish and have a recovery rate of 35% or over 6,000 fish which have been recovered, since 2004; and this program has been endorsed by the Department of Land and Natural Resources, Aquatics Division. Recapture is statewide with fish caught as far as Kona, Molokai, Kauai, and Maui. This proves our fish completes channel crossing – valuable data as we first believed our fish would remain local (on the same island). All participants, keiki, disabled, and kupuna are directly involved in this program – providing empirical data for the State of Hawaii.

"Strong Family Component and Hawaiian Education – The program will teach parents how to fish and allow them to fish with their children or grandchildren (tying a knot – palamar knot, landing a fish, seasonal fish – A*kule* arrive in May and could stay as late as October – come in to spawn, the Needle Fish or Ihe Ihe are brought into the cove via the southwest winds from Kauai and this is in January and they will remain in or near the cove until March, Owama come in late August and remain until October, Squid move in year round and the cove is an ecosystem, thus, a haven for the smaller fish and the larger predatory fish drop by looking for a meal).

"The Hawaiians would reserve or close off the season (spawning season for certain fish), for example, January to March would be closed for Mullet (ama ama) because they are spawning and how a relation exist between the fish and the moon, tide, season of the year.

"Because of the ecosystem of the cove, we always have such fishes as Palani, Weke, Kale, Uhu, and Papio. They also do clean up projects to take discarded trash, tires, bikes, from the cove and shoreline area for proper disposal, thus, reconfirming the need for preservation of our natural resources.

"One of the most important aspects of the program is that it is not about money – 6 days a week, two classes a day, three hour excursions for these volunteers who do not get paid a single penny, but are providing this service wishing to help our youth, the disabled, and our kupuna, without expecting anything in return. Helping the people of Hawaii to better learn about the Hawaiian culture and to preserve our ocean resources.

"For the foregoing reasons, I ask our members to support HB 718. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am with strong reservations. I understand the purpose of this legislation is to give our young keiki a place to fish. I'm all for that.

"But here are some of my concerns:

Through this bill, the Legislature is now dictating to HCDA where and how it should put this so-called fishing conservancy.

HCDA is an authority that is supposed to be run by its Board of Directors, not the Legislature.

The Legislature has received little or no input from the fishing community.

Finally, there are questions about access to this site and the safety of this site that remain unanswered.

"For these and other reasons, I can't throw my whole support behind this bill despite its good intentions. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to thank and congratulate Scotty Furushima for all his hard work on this bill. I think on Friday night he was limping out of the building, and it just shows how hard he worked. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this bill. As an island state, there are many cultural, recreational and historical values significant to Hawaii, but the ocean is our unique treasure and a most distinguishing source of recreation, healing, sustenance, and sport.

"Fishing, a practice passed on from generation to generation, is one of the Hawaii's greatest values. I recall my initial experiences fishing with a bamboo pole for aholehole at Kawela Bay. As I got older, we learned to fish with rod and reel and soon were "dunking" for ulua at Pupukea and Paumalu, or "whipping" for papio at Haleiwa or Waialua. Much of what I learned about shoreline fishing came from uncles Richard and Choko. But, more than mere technique and style, I learned about ocean conservation and customary Hawaiian fishing kapu and practice. Keep in mind Mr. Speaker, that this was in the 60s and 70s before environmentalism became vogue and conservation became a trend. These lessons have stood the test of time and remain relevant and instructive today.

"Today, however, it is not very common for many Oahu youngsters to experience the same "hands-on" fishing experiences that I had growing up. Many of my peers don't fish anymore and access to fishing areas are being curtailed by private shoreline development and unmonitored closure of fishing areas. It is my opinion that most people won't lift a finger to protect what they can't see, touch, or experience, and without fishermen and fisher-women, we may loose appreciation for fishing as a recreational activity, vocation, or cultural practice.

"Fortunately, the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy, a non-profit organization, provides "hands-on" education to children on proper fishing techniques for the conservation and preservation of fishing resources. Teachings are passed on from kupuna to youngsters to instill cultural principles in the generations to follow. Not only do children learn the simple pleasures of fishing, but also the Hawaiian cultural principles of malama, aloha aina and kai, and aloha.

"The Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy provides a convenient venue and means for perpetuating proper fishing practices that is critical to the sustainability of aquatic resources for future generations. Exposing young people to the joy of fishing and the responsibility inherent in such activities ensures that future generations will protect and preserve this treasured activity and sport, and help to support fishing today so that future generations can ensure fish for tomorrow.

"Finally, I wish to acknowledge the one person whose tireless and boundless passion had much to do with the Legislature passing this measure. His name is Scotty Furushima. He is to be commended for this community activism as he exemplifies the notion that one person, with the right motivation and cause, can make a big difference in the lives of so many.

"For the aforementioned reasons, I strongly support the passage of this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 718, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAKAAKO," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, and with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2135) recommending that S.B. No. 1210, SD 1, pass Third Reading.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1210, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE FACILITIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

At 8:28 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 1210, SD 1, passed Third Reading.

Representatives Magaoay and Waters, for the Committee on Legislative Management and the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2136) recommending that H.R. No. 176, as amended in HD 1, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.R. No. 176, HD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2136. Mr. Speaker, this measure is what's left of House Bill 1909, the ethics bill, which led us to believe that we might have an Ethics Committee, we might have equal representation, and it might actually shape us up a bit in our behavior.

"What we have here is essentially the fourth morph if I can remember what HB No. 1909 was in the beginning. This one comes from the Republican Caucus and is a call for a resolution for a study by the Ethics Commission to see if we needed to set something up here in the House, that is on conduct, etc. Mr. Speaker, in my support, in my remarks by saying that in the hearing which you graciously testified, in fact probably the longest I've ever seen you in front of a Committee, 10 to 15 minutes as it was, you said you would be open to the possibility of equal Republican, as well as equal Democrat representation. And as we know in the U.S. Congress, the Senate has three Republicans, three Democrats. The Congress has four Republicans and four Democrats. I hope this taskforce that looks through this in the interim period will be equally represented and therefore more credible and more apt to be believed by the public. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. And the reason why I rise in opposition is because I believe that, we don't really need a taskforce to do what we need to do. We don't need a taskforce to figure out what we need to do as far as ethics is concerned. And I'm confident in that because my esteemed colleague, the good Majority Leader, has drafted what he believed would have been a good ethics bill. So I think he knows exactly what needs to be done and I have the confidence in him to figure it out without the taskforce. I know he was very confident in that he had to even call a press conference in the beginning of Session. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.R. No. 176, HD 1, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING AN INTERIM HOUSE TASK FORCE TO EVALUATE THE PROPRIETY, MERITS, AND, IF FOUND, POSSIBLE PROCEDURES FOR A STANDARDS OF CONDUCT COMMITTEE TO HANDLE POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS AND OTHER BREACHES OF THE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT BY MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES," was adopted, with Representative Luke voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Sagum being excused.

Representative Magaoay, for the Committee on Legislative Management presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2137) recommending that H.R. No. 153, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, be adopted.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2139) recommending that S.C.R. No. 91, SD 1, be adopted.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.C.R. No. 91, SD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to speak in support of this Resolution. I don't want to speak a long time, but it is an important part of the comprehensive approach to doing something about the trafficking problem, not only in our State, but internationally. And it's really important that we have an assessment of the needs of social service for the people who are trafficked here in Hawaii. I'm hoping that eventually with this Resolution and with a new anti-trafficking bill next year that we can finally solve the problem and get going on our anti-trafficking work. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. Representative Takai rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I speak in support of this measure.

"One hundred years ago, the University of Hawaii was born. Far from the world-renowned 10-campus system we have today, it all humbly began in a small house on Young Street.

"On March 25, 1907, Territorial Governor George Carter signed Act 24, which established the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

"In 1908 there were 13 faculty teaching five freshmen and five preparatory students. Four years later, four students graduated from the College with two receiving science degrees, one receiving an agriculture degree and one receiving an engineering degree.

"Today, our University serves more than 50,000 students across Hawaii through our 10 main campuses across the state, through educational centers in West Oahu, West Hawaii, Maui, Molokai and Lanai, and via distance learning technologies through the Internet, two-way video or cable television.

"The University does much more than educate degree-seeking students. Each year, more than 75,000 people take non-credit courses, more than 33,000 people participate in university-sponsored conferences and training sessions, and nearly 130,000 people each year attend theatre, music and dance events at the University's four performing arts centers. And each year, nearly 700,000 people cheer on the UH athletic teams from Manoa and Hilo.

"There are more than 250,000 UH alumni residing in all 50 states and in more than 80 countries around the world. The Hawaii State Legislature proudly boasts 38 alumni in the House of Representatives and 15 alumni in the Senate.

"The centennial gives all of us an opportunity to reflect on the many contributions the University of Hawaii has made for the State of Hawaii and to each one of us. Members of the faculty have enriched our parents, our children and all of us. They and the University have been our mentors and innovators, creating educated, committed individuals that enhance Hawaii's work force and economy.

"Researchers at the University have made significant contributions of the world's body of knowledge.

"While the past 100 years have been truly worthy of praise, what I am most excited about is the future of the University of Hawaii. We have a unique opportunity and responsibility to shape the next 100 years.

"The Legislature over the past couple of decades has unleashed our firm grip on the University. We granted the University increased administrative and financial flexibility, culminating in the UH flexibility constitutional amendment passed by the voters in 2000.

"Those of us around during the 1995 Legislative Session recall a very painful downturn in the economy. The University suffered greatly during this economic recession. Another downturn will come. It's not a question of if it will come, but when it will come.

"We cannot afford to neglect our University in the future. Because of this, we call upon the leaders of this state to come together today to work with us to ensure the continued prosperity of our University. Working together with Rep. Jerry Chang and Sen. Norman Sakamoto, the two Chairs of our Higher Education Committees, we will develop a plan to address the new partnership and relationship between the taxpayers, the students (and future students) and the University.

"This commitment will boldly go where no one has ventured before. Should we, for example, fund the University based on outcomes and benchmarks, such as graduation rates and job placements? And should we fund the University based on its response to statewide needs and job shortage areas? And should we embark on a funding formula that prioritizes these outcomes and benchmarks?

"One hundred years from now, what will they be saying about the University? What will become of our University? Whatever it is, know that what we do today for and with the University of Hawaii does matter.

"This centennial celebration honoring the good deeds of our alma mater is only as good as our combined commitment to ensure a brighter, more productive, more profound and far-reaching second century. It's a commitment to a second century of promise.

"Each of us has our very own University of Hawaii story. For me, the University has made me what I am today. I have been tied to the University for more than 22 years – more than half of my life. As a recipient of a cherished college degree through an athletic scholarship from the University and a master's degree while working at the University of Hawaii, I owe much to our University.

"I love our University. I'm proud of my alma mater. Our university and the future students have my commitment to do our very best for our University of Hawaii.

"Here's to our commitment, The Second Century of Promise!

"Happy Birthday University of Hawaii!"

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES

The following messages from the Governor, (Gov. Msg. Nos. 373 and 374) were received and announced by the Clerk, and (Gov. Msg. Nos. 372, 326, 360, 332, 342, 363, 361, 369 and 356) previously received, were taken from the Clerk's desk and the following action taken:

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of H.B. No. 10, SD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 372, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of H.B. No. 10, SD 1, entitled: " A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRESCRIPTION DRUGS," as contained in Gov. Msg. 372, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and was approved by the required two-thirds vote of the House pursuant to Section 17 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes: 46: Awana, Belatti, Berg, Brower, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Ching, Chong, Evans, Green, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morita, Nakasone, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Pine, Rhoads, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Noes: 3: Finnegan, Meyer and Ward.

Excused: 2: Bertram and Sagum.

At 8:45 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of H.B. No. 10, SD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 372, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 326, informing the House that on April 13, 2007, H.B. No. 853, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORK PROJECTS" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of H.B. No. 853, HD 2, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 326, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the motion. Mr. Speaker, I'm in receipt of information from the General Contractors Association of Hawaii and before I go on with my remarks, I would like to disclose that my two sons are contractors and do ask whether or not that presents a conflict," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. I'd like to also note that none of them are on this list of contractors that have written to me, so, I'm not speaking on behalf of them because they aren't one of the members of this group that has sent this in.

"The general contractors are saying that this is the most detrimental bill this Session to the construction industry and request that the Governor's veto be sustained. I'm just going to mention a few of the names because I'm sure that members here know people that work for these companies while the companies …"

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Thielen, would you like to insert those names in the Journal?"

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"I'm only going to read six names and it will be quick. Albert Kobayashi, the General Contractors Labor Association, Harry Asato Painting, T. Iida Contracting, SNM, Sakamoto, Ralph Inouye, Keeno Farms Construction Company. These are just a few of the myriad of 50 names that are here.

"Specifically, they're saying that the bill is grossly unfair to the contractor who has numerous public works jobs going on at the same time. And the same violation, no matter how minor, and regardless of whether or not the violation was committed knowingly or not, it would be counted as multiple violations under this legislation. And then on the receipt of a third violation, a contractor would be precluded to performing any new public work construction for a three-year period. This would reduce the number of contractors available to the public works construction for these minor or inadvertent violations. And actually what it will do is it will affect the ability of this State and the counties to build, repair, rebuild and upgrade government roads and buildings when we knock these people off the list for three years.

"I think the bill is excessive in its scope and penalties, and I would suggest that we uphold the Governor's veto."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. This is a very important measure. Prevailing wage requires employers to comply with wage requirements. Basically, the law says you have to pay prevailing wage. You should. Now, these construction companies have been in business for many, many years. They know what the law is. They know how to avoid penalties. This bill is merely to catch those who continue to evade the law both in letter and spirit. It is not draconian.

"If you look at it in light of the Director who is enforcing this, even if it is not a bundling like this one, there's really not that many that they investigate and there's not many that they cite. In fact, they take two years to do an investigation, for that matter. And maybe that's one those things we have to fix for next year. But this bill makes sure that those who are cheating, using the system, the way it is right now and cheating, will be caught.

"And with this, you can also be rest assured that those de minimis type of infractions, those are unfounded because the Department of Labor already has the authority through rules to look at those de minimis You know, those little minor errors that they are complaining about. Those don't exist because there is this discretionary power of the Director under their own rules.

"So, we are making too much of a big deal of this and it will continue to be a big problem out there if we don't correct it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Yes, in opposition. The previous speaker talked about these contractors that have been in business for a long time and they should not be making these mistakes. Well, Mr. Speaker, 'Thou who has not sinned should throw the first stone.' We just amended about 10 to 11 bills because we made mistakes. And many people in this House who have been here for so many years, and they should know not to make those mistakes. But we are all human. These contractors are human. And to have the punishments of saying you can never step foot on this type of contract again, is just wrong."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Representative from Kailua gave my speech and she was in opposition, and I, too, am also in opposition. But I have the same pack of testimony and the same list of contractors in opposition to this.

"This is a three strikes bill. If you're out, you're out for three years. You're debarred and that is a serious consequence. The Chair of the Labor Committee said the Department of Labor will overlook de minimis errors and I have an article here written by the head of the Building Industry Association who said no matter how small the error, it becomes a violation and the same classification may occur more than once until the error is identified. Sometimes the books are checked over, maybe two years after a job and at the time the contractor may be working on other State and county jobs. But if there is a violation found, then all work must stop immediately and all the projects must be rebid.

"This is just too drastic a law. I urge all of you to vote no because this is not a sane law. We will be the laughing stock if we pass it. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. We've heard a lot of discussion tonight about the contractors. But what's missing from this equation are the workers, and that's what we're talking about here. We're talking about paying a prevailing wage to the men and women of our State who work in the construction industry, and it's an important requirement.

"We talk a lot about affordability. We've heard the Governor talk about it. And this how we can help the people of our State afford to live here by making sure they are paid a prevailing wage on government contracts. And what we have here is the situation where people can do multiple violations, they bundle them together as one violation. We're de-linking that. It is true, it is a three strikes bill. We've heard a lot from the Administration about three strikes on criminal issues. We passed legislation along those lines. And now we're going to do it for while-collar violations. It's something we need to do in order to honor the hard working men and women of our State.

"When you think about it, Mr. Speaker, and you look at the impact for people who fail to pay prevailing wages, and we have statistics from the Department of Labor going back for years, and these are only the ones that have been investigated. But, for example, in the year 2004, $401,000 worth of wages were not paid to workers. In some cases, thousands upon thousands of dollars were not paid to workers. These people when they were not paid, could not pay their mortgages, could not pay their rent, could not buy food for their families. That's what we're talking about. And we forget about that aspect of it.

"Mr. Speaker, it is absolutely true that the Department of Labor looks at errors de minimis, and we believe just like in the investigations conducted up to this point, that they are not going to investigate de minimis violations, but they are going to crack down and make sure, for example, in 2004, that $400,000 worth of additional wages are paid to the hard working men and women.

"This is a good bill, we should override the veto, and we should be strong on white-collar violations just as we are on criminal violations. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Just in rebuttal. I think, especially when you come from a working family, where every member of my family is a member of a union. I do sympathize with the workers and my problem with the bill is that we'll punish a particular contractor that happens to make the same mistakes on three projects going on at the same time, really believing that what they're doing is right. To me, the right way is you punish them for that one time and then, you know, because then we know that they know that that is a serious violation, and then you start counting. But if it is the same mistake on three projects going on at the same time and for some reason they don't know that that's wrong, then in one fell swoop, they will never be able to do a contract for many years to come. And that's my objection."

At 8:55 o'clock p.m., Representative Magaoay requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:01 o'clock p.m.

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to respond to the Majority Leader and just mention that when an inadvertent minor violation occurs, the bill doesn't distinguish between that. So those employees are going to be in great shape for three years. They won't have jobs."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm against the override. The current law is a mandatory progressive penalty structure. It allows firms to correct errors as soon as identified and ensures that the Department of Labor is able to work with contractors to provide fair wages. The problem with this new law is that it's such a complex law and imposes many difficulties to construction companies. This result is too harsh. This fails to take into account the severity and the willfulness of the contractor in committing a violation.

"The Majority Leader talked about $400,000 of wages that weren't paid. I'm sure they were paid. They may not have been paid and that's accumulative thing of many hundreds and thousands of construction workers in a billion dollar industry. There are more problems with this bill changing from issuing violations based on investigations, to issuing violations based on projects could result in potential litigation. This also could have the effect of diminishing the amount of contractors who would be available to bid on a project which could raise the cost of all kinds of construction. This will result in higher cost for public works projects. This will slow down the State's ability to fund and execute construction and repair of highways, schools, parks, harbors and many other projects.

"I would hope that there are enough reasonable people in this Chamber that will vote against this override. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Against the override. I just wanted to make clear that it is because of the worker, in my opinion, when you have a construction company and construction workers, it's an interdependent relationship. Basically, the worker needs the construction company and the construction company needs the workers. When you have something like this that are minor infractions and then the contractor is precluded from performing any new project work construction for a three year period, that's serious. We want them to be able to continue to work and we want them to be able to work this out.

"Mr. Speaker, it was mentioned about this three strikes law. I believe the Majority Leader voted against the three strike law that had, basically, much harm in regards to people that would do these types of things to get into the three strikes. But yet, for minor infractions, he's willing to have a construction company be precluded from performing any new public work for three years with the possibility of not having good paying jobs for these employees. I don't think that that's consistent. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Just to recap. I did vote for the three strikes law and I'm still in support of this. I did have conversations with a lot of the opponents of this measure, and, really, I tried to ask them what is their thinking. What is de minimis? What is this minor? They could not give me that answer. I asked is $500 a minor infraction? And they said, 'Oh, I don't want to give a number.' All they say is, and it is repeated throughout, that if one clerk makes a mistake in one job, it could possibly maybe make mistake in the second and third job.

"Again, if it is a minor infraction, it is not going to be something that's going to be enforced the way that you think it's going to be. There will be minor violations out there that the jurisdiction of DLIR Director has and that they will ensure that those de minimis infractions, however they interpret it, will protect the employers in this particular case. Thank you."

At 9:06 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:07 o'clock p.m.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 854

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 854, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Continued Temporary Total Disability Benefits to Injured Employees."

This bill allows the continuation of temporary total disability (TTD) benefits until the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations (Director) issues a decision terminating the benefits or until the employee's treating physician determines that the employee is able to resume work and the employer has made a bona fide offer of work within the employee's medical restrictions.

Currently, pursuant to section 386-31(b), Hawaii Revised Statutes, an employer/insurance carrier (employer) may terminate TTD benefits upon order of the Director or if an employee is able to return to work. The existing law provides that an employer must notify the employee and the Director of its intent to terminate TTD benefits at least two weeks prior to the date when the last payment is to be made. Section 386-31(b) also requires the notice to inform the employee that the employee may make a written request to the Director for a hearing if the employee disagrees with the employer's decision to terminate TTD benefits. Current law protects against unwarranted early termination of benefits by allowing the Labor Director to assess a twenty percent penalty against an employer who fails to continue paying an injured worker.

While I support the intent to ensure that injured workers collecting TTD benefits receive their benefits in a timely manner while preventing employers from unreasonably denying or delaying payment of TTD benefits, this bill is objectionable for the following reasons:

(1) It does not recognize that the twenty percent penalty already deters employers from terminating TTD benefits unless there is a valid and good faith basis to do so.

(2) Although this bill entitles an employer to a credit, any credit is limited to the amount paid to the employee after notification by the Director of the Director's determination. Any benefits paid prior to the decision of the Director are specifically not recoverable by the employer. Because most employers will immediately terminate benefits once they receive notice of the Director's decision, the period of credit allowed by the bill is an extremely short period of time, and more importantly, specifically excludes the period in which the employee collected benefits to which the employee was not entitled. In other words, even if the Director determines that TTD benefits should have been terminated at some prior date, an employer would not be entitled to a credit nor would it be allowed to recover any of the TTD benefits paid prior to the decision of the Director, thereby allowing a employee to retain benefits to which the employee was not entitled.

(3) The bill would needlessly increase the costs of workers' compensation claims and would also create a disincentive to return to work. More specifically, it may encourage certain employees to continue to contest returning to work because even if the Director determines the employee should and could have returned to work, the employee bears no risk for failing to do so, as the benefits the employee was paid are non-recoverable by the employer.

(4) It provides a process for an employee, but not an employer, to request a hearing. Pursuant to this bill, an employer cannot terminate TTD benefits unless the Director orders the termination of benefits or the employee's treating physician determines that the employee is able to resume work and the employer has made a bona fide offer of work within the employee's medical restrictions. The bill, however, does not provide a specific process for the employer to request a hearing, establishing inequitable treatment of the employer versus the employee through this provision.

(5) Finally, this bill establishes disincentives for an employee to return to work within a reasonable time since their wage benefits continue as long as they stay away from their job and their treating medical provider allows them to do so. Since the employee must initiate the request for a Department of Labor and Industrial Relations hearing, the bill is silent as to what happens if the employee fails to request a hearing.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 854 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 861

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 861, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Works."

The purposes of this bill are as follows: (1) to require that public work projects financed through the issuance of special purpose revenue bonds (SPRBs) are reported by the Director of Finance to the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations (DLIR); (2) to require the DLIR to monitor projects where there is no governmental contracting agency for compliance with chapter 104, Hawaii Revised Statutes (H.R.S.), Hawaii's Wages and Hours of Employees on Public Works Law; 3) to make chapter 104, H.R.S., applicable to housing developed by the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation pursuant to chapter 201H, H.R.S.; and (4) to provide that, when a SPRB project party enters into a collective bargaining agreement with a bona fide labor union governing the project party's workforce, the wages and terms provided by that collective bargaining agreement be deemed the prevailing wage and terms for that project party's work force on the public work construction project.

SPRBs are used to build hospitals, schools, early childhood education centers, utilities, housing projects, and related works deemed to be in the best interests of the general public. Often it is non-profit organizations that seek SPRBs to finance a new structure. This funding tool is used to lower interest costs of the financing for such projects. No taxpayer funds are used and taxpayers are not responsible for a default on the bonds.

Subjecting these projects to the administrative burdens in Chapter 104 runs counter to the intent and spirit of using SPRBs to help reduce expenses incurred by strictly private and non-profit entities and may actually act as a deterrent to using this financing mechanism and decrease the number of projects on behalf of the general community.

In 2003, the Attorney General's office opined that SPRB projects are public works projects as defined under Section 104-2(a) HRS and are subject to prevailing wage provisions. However, Chapter 104 requires that the public work is to be performed by a contracting government agency that oversees the work and holds the appropriated funds. However, with SPRBs, funds go directly from the lending institution to the entity building the project and no government agency oversees the work.

This bill attempts to remedy this problem by requiring the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to act like the governmental contracting agency. However, the Department has no authority to oversee the work of a SPRB project nor would it be able to withhold funds should the non-profit or firm building the SPRB-financed project violate Chapter 104.

Furthermore, this bill specifies when an employer has entered into a collective bargaining agreement with a labor union, the terms of that agreement will be the prevailing wages on that project. This provision has the potential to create a different prevailing wage for each project and would negate current law requiring a single prevailing wage. This provision could also result in a conflict with Section 104-2(b)(2) which requires Hawaii's prevailing wages paid to workers to not be lower than the federal rates for Hawaii.

Additionally, this bill would place enforcement and monitoring functions on the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations without the commensurate resources to carry out these duties.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 861 without my approval.

At 9:15 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of H.B. No. 861, HD 1, SD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 374, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 360, informing the House that on April 24, 2007, H.B. No. 863, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORK PROJECTS" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of H.B. No. 863, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 360, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be voting no on this. This measure establishes and requires that a construction contract between private parties is a public work contract if more than 50% of the assignable square footage of a project is leased or assigned for use by any level of government, whether or not the property is privately owned. Construction project owners to sign a lease or other agreement that complies with State prevailing wage law, and copies of the lease agreement to be filed with the Department of Labor and DAGS. I just want to highlight a few points.

"This bill attempts to rewrite Administrative Rules and disregards primary purpose of Chapter 104. Currently, public works projects are classified based on contracts created after approval of plans, specifications and criteria leasing to governmental entities. Prevailing wages designed to benefit the public by using appropriate funding is a secondary public benefit byproduct of such contracts. As such, this measure disregards the primary and underlying purpose to safeguard public funds in one sweeping underdeveloped bill. This is like the tail wagging the dog.

"This measure is designed to regulate failure to pay established prevailing wages in construction projects which simply do not benefit the public. This measure will force private construction companies to bid at higher amounts in order to afford prevailing wages and ultimately the State pays the bill. This measure will have exponential unintended consequences, including unauthorized access to payroll information for regulating whether prevailing wages have been paid. This measure has conflicting underlying purposes and simply is confusing because it does not address real and likely negative consequences. Thank you very much."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of H.B. No. 863, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORK PROJECTS" as contained in Gov. At 9:20 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of H.B. No. 863, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 360, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 332, informing the House that on April 16, 2007, H.B. No. 1672, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE SERVICE AGENCIES" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of H.B. No. 1672, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 332, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is a bill that is going to increase the maximum salaries of the Deputy Auditor, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman, and the First Assistant to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau. These are similar to Deputy Directors of various State departments.

"The formula they use is that the Deputies will now get 92% of what their boss gets. As the Governor said in her veto message, she found that this was not acceptable. In the situation with the Legislative Reference Bureau, the Assistant's salary would go from $90,500 to $97,600. That's an amount that's more than the Director of the Department of DLNR, who has just recently lost his job. I don't think you would say that the Ombudsman's Office, the number of people they have to manage and the kind of work they have to do, comes anywhere near running a department the size of DLNR.

"I know that the people that work in these departments and work here for us much of the time work hard, they do a great job, but I think we have to look at the balance of things. It's hard to justify that kind of an increase. The Chairman of Finance on the Floor just a little while ago was concerned about the fact that our economy is not growing at such a robust state as it has been, and the tax revenues have dropped.

"So, I think we have to be realistic. It's nice to play Santa Claus, but none of it is money out of our pockets. It's taxpayers in the State of Hawaii. They are somewhat beleaguered. We are an island state, which makes everything cost more. And I think that this is out of line and I think that the Governor is appropriate in having sent this bill back. And I think we should all sit back and think twice about what we are about to do. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to just add to what my colleague just stated. I'm opposing the override of the Governor's veto. Mr. Speaker, in her veto message, she's noting that this bill, under this bill, the First Assistant to the Ombudsman will get $97,631 starting July 1 in 2007, under this bill.

"When you take a look at the Chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, the Chairman makes $81,000. The Chairman's responsible for a huge effort by this State to reduce global warming, our footprint in global warming, to manage all of the other entities, utilities, and everything else that's under his purview. I just don't see how it's justified to give this increase for a First Assistant to the Ombudsman who only supervises eight investigators and give that person $97,000 and a Public Utilities Commission Chair is getting $81,000. I mean something's totally out of whack here.

"I think that we should support the Governor's veto, take a look at this, and if anything is done with money that will be available next year, I would say the PUC Chairman and the Public Utilities Commissioners, who have a huge amount of work to do, their salaries should be looked at and increased, provided, that the Finance Chair finds that we have the money available to do that. This is spendthrift and we should not override the Governor's veto."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of H.B. No. 1672, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE SERVICE AGENCIES" as contained in Gov. Msg. 332, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and was approved by the required two-thirds vote of the House pursuant to Section 17 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

At 9:29 o'clock p.m., Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:29 o'clock p.m.

Gov. Msg. No. 342, informing the House that on April 18, 2007, S.B. No. 14, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of S.B. No. 14, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 332, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to this attempt to overturn the Governor's veto. This bill is the vehicle to implement the Constitutional Amendment approved by the voters in 2006. The language on the ballots simply asked, 'Shall the Governor be required to select Board of Regents candidates from a pool of qualified candidates screened and proposed by a Candidate Advisory Council for the Board of Regents of the University of Hawaii as provided by law?' It doesn't say what that advisory council is going to be, who will be on it, how many people, who will name them. None of those things.

"This bill establishes a seven member Candidate Advisory Council and exempts that council from open meeting provisions from Chapter 92, the Sunshine Law. It also increases from 12 to 15, the number of University of Hawaii Regents and establishes geographic criteria, and that's new, for 12 of the Regent positions.

"The bill contradicts what public citizen trusteeship should be. The membership on the Board of Regents says it is vital that we find people who are independent in their individual and collective judgment and who serve the people of Hawaii, not one group or another.

"This bill would act as a roadblock to this need by establishing a narrowly focused constituency-based selection council, with each member appointed by separate interest, those being one member, each appointed by: one, the Governor; two, the Speaker of the House; three, the Senate President; four, All Campus Council and faculty Senate Chairs; five, the Executive Council of the University of Hawaii Student Caucus; six, the Association of Regents Emeritus; and, seven, the President of the Alumni Association.

"What's worse is the Board can recommend only two names to fill a vacancy on the Board of Regents, further contributing to the partisan and narrow focus of potential Regent candidates greatly reducing the Governor's ability to choose qualified individuals. The Association of Governing Boards of the Universities and Colleges, the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, and the Accrediting Commission of Community and Junior Colleges have each pointed out that this bill runs counter to national best practices in university governance.

"I'm not going to go through it all. I'm speaking to you folks here that know what's in it, and we argued at length from the Floor, but it's hard to justify that we would want to have such narrow membership and not open it up to the widest pool possible and pick the brightest people we could possibly have on there rather than dictating what the various membership should be. So, I'm hoping that people will have a second go at this and realize that this is not the best way to go. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Chang rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Senate Bill 14, S.D. 1, H.D. 1 is a strong, all-encompassing bill that improves public policy in how we select University Regents. The bill also reflects what the people of Hawaii voted for overwhelmingly in the last election, a selection process that aims to minimize politics and opens the field so that the best qualified candidates are chosen to serve our University.

"The University of Hawaii Board of Regents is one of the most important boards in the State. They have the opportunity to influence the future of Hawaii through higher education and it's important that we get the best qualified people to serve. By having representatives from various geographic regions of the State makes sense since we will be developing a pool of candidates from different backgrounds and perspectives. They will know what the students in their district need from a university education.

"And having representatives appointed by different constituencies within the University System also makes sense because they all have a vested interest in seeing that the University succeeds. It does not necessarily mean that they will serve only those groups, but would come to the Council with a wide variety of experiences and an appreciation of the full spectrum of concerns and opportunities that face our University System.

"In 2004, the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, the AGB, recommended to the Governor, as well as to all the other governors of the 50 states, the creation of a nonpartisan Advisory Council to help select Board of Regents candidates. The Governor could have simply created such a Council with a stroke of the pen by Executive Order as did governors of several other states and appoint all the members of the Council. The Governor chose not to do so. The Legislature did follow the AGB's recommendation and drafted Senate Bill 14.

"In a letter dated February 12, 2004 to Senator Hooser from Richard Novak from the Association Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, who is the Vice President for Public Sector Programs and Executive Director for Center for Public Trusteeship and Governance, Mr. Novak wrote:

> Dear Senator: We read about your bill to create guidelines for appointments and a screening nominating committee for the University of Hawaii Board of Regents. Your efforts are to be commended and supported. As a national group for Board of Trustees and Regents, the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges had advocated for this approach for nearly two decades and have worked successfully with states to see such committees enacted. Please see the enclosed state policy brief produced by the Center for Public Trusteeship and Governance. The brief makes a strong case for such committees and will give you a sense of their status in a few other states. We have also distributed the brief and communicated these ideas to the Regents directly and to Governor Linda Lingle and her Education Advisor, Randy Roth.

"Senate Bill 14 encompasses the recommendations of the AGB contained in this letter addressed to Senator Hooser. As stated in this letter, the same recommendations were communicated at the time to the Board of Regents as well as to Governor Lingle and Advisor Randy Roth.

"In a letter to Senator Colleen Hanabusa from the Secretary of Education of the Commonwealth of Virginia dated March 2, 2004, the Screening Committee in Virginia was described as containing specific designated slots for its members. This was also the case for the State of North Dakota as stated in his testimony before the Senate on March 2, 2004. Governor Lingle chose to ignore these recommendations of the AGB at that time, nor did she follow the example of some of her then distinguished colleagues, namely, former Democrat Governor Mark Warner of Virginia and former Republican Governor Mitt Romney of Massachusetts. Instead, she chose not to establish a Regents screening panel by Executive Order as was done in those states. The inconvenient truth …"

Representative Chang continued, stating:

"Thank you. The inconvenient truth in this matter is that the UH Administration and the Governor want to maintain the status quo. The AGB has for many years advocated screening panels for merit-based Regent selection systems and has only recently objected to constituency-based screening panels at this specific request of the UH Administration, while apparently not objecting to such constituency-based panels in Virginia and North Dakota. The AGB's objection at this time to the constituency-based screening panel in Senate Bill 14 is based on the erroneous theory that such panels always and inevitably result in constituency-based governing boards.

"By having this bill stated, the Governor wants to maintain her own power and control the appointees of the Board of Regents. That's not what is best for the future of higher education in Hawaii. And I urge my colleagues to vote to override the veto. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to not override the veto. Mr. Speaker, one thing that's missing in the argument here is that no one has been against the Advisory Councils. It's who and how they are appointed. That is the issue here. It is not what the people voted for. The people voted for to have the Council. Correct. And the Councils are there. But the vote was silent on how those Council persons are chosen.

"What the AGB, Associated Governing Board said, and I have the article here by the President of the University of Hawaii, David McLain. They said don't politicize the University of Hawaii. And that's exactly what this bill is doing and exactly what they say not to do. Get your Advisory Board, but don't have it all politically chosen, as he called it, constituencies. And, Mr. Speaker, that's what we're falling into. We have a great University. We've given it autonomy. We've given it lots of money. But now what we're doing is politicizing it and thinking that we're making it better.

"As the quote here, it says, 'Senate Bill 14 does not represent real reform, as Senator Norman Sakamoto would have it, but rather another example of questionable practices endorsed by our Legislature.' Mr. Speaker, the question is are we trying to make it better or just trying to make it ours so it's something that the Governor has no longer the power to regulate, to embrace, to do as in the past, which we were here in this body, a hundred years of celebrating the University of Hawaii, have said, 'Great job. But by the way, we are going to restructure you, and this is the bill of how we're going to do it.' I'm not sure that's the way we make it better.

"That's why I would suggest to my colleagues that they look at the future of the University of Hawaii and the future of this bill, by not overriding the veto."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a brief comment in support. The last time I looked, the Governor was the top political official, elected official in our State. This Governor gets, whether the Democrat or Republican gets to pick all the Board of Regents, there can't be a more political process than we currently have. What we're looking at is a way to get politics out of this system.

"And it's much like our Judicial Selection Commission that we adopted back in 1978 in response to things that Governor Burns did. That Commission is composed of different kinds of constituencies, including you, Mr. Speaker, appoints a member. The President of the Senate appoints a member. The Bar appoints a member, other constituents appoint members. No one complains how that Commission makes its decision and it sends up its recommendation. For example, we saw Mark Recktenwald be recommended by that commission, and he was confirmed by the Senate and just sworn in yesterday. It works, and the Regents Selection Commission works in much the same way. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of the override. I just wanted to make a few points because I know we've already discussed this ten zillion times. But first, I'd like to incorporate the words of the Higher Ed Chair as if they were my own.

"I think it's been said but it needs to be repeated that the way we currently select our Regents, letting the Governor select her Regents for the University, is the most political of any way. This bill proposes to do it a little differently. Well, a lot differently. In fact, Mr. Speaker, if you take a look at the press release by the Governor dated April 27, 2007, in hopes of landing a Director of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, she formed a committee of 30 people from diverse environmental and culture groups, many people that have an interest, a specific interest, in who becomes the Director of Land and Natural Resources. That's what we're doing for the Candidate Selection Committee. We're allowing the people that we believe matters the most for the University: the faculty, the emeritus regents, the students, the alumni and a few others; to come together to select the best and the brightest and to give those recommendations to the Governor for her to make the final decision.

"I also wanted to mention, Mr. Speaker, that the other side talks about allowing special interest to get in the way of the selection of the Regents, but I'd like to submit to you that allowing the faculty or the students, the Emeritus Regents, or whomever to suggest a list again, it's a lot better than what we have now. And even where we have now in place with the current Board, three of the current Board members are former faculty members of the University of Hawaii: Byron Bender, Marlene Hapai, and Ramon de la Pena, all former faculty members at the University. No one says anything about them. So, why then do we start questioning the process if we allow the faculty to participate in the selection of Regents. I don't get it, Mr. Speaker.

"I also wanted to mention one other thing, and that is, so much has been said about taking away the power of the current Governor. What I'd like all of our members to realize is that I went back to the 1995 Session. That was the first Session of Governor Cayetano. And during the course of his eight years, 11 bills basically recommended what we're doing here today. In fact, Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2069 in the year 2000, actually came out of the House Committee on Higher Education and was voted on this Floor and it passed Second Reading. So, we're not talking about a take away for this current Governor. We believed back then, or a few of us believed back then, ten years ago, that this type of process needed to be done to depoliticize the selection process for the Regents.

"And lastly, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to read from a column written by Frank Boas on Sunday, July 2, 2006. Frank, by the way, is a retired attorney and a member of the UH Foundation Board, and I quote:

> I look forward to the time, hopefully in the near future, when all the stakeholders of the University, including the faculty, students, alumni and employees will feel that their vital interest are represented on the Board of Regents. They will then not only have a renewed sense of confidence in the governance of the University, but they will also be able to enjoy the pride of ownership in this great institution.

"Mr. Speaker, our vote tonight to support the override will do just that. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 14, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII" as contained in Gov. Msg. 342, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and was approved by the required two-thirds vote of the House pursuant to Section 17 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes: 39: Belatti, Berg, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Chong, Evans, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morita, Nakasone, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Rhoads, Sagum, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Noes: 10: Awana, Brower, Ching, Finnegan, Green, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward.

Excused: 2: Bertram and Souki.

At 9:50 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 14, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 342, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 363, informing the House that on April 25, 2007, S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 363, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the motion. Mr. Speaker, let's just imagine a scenario. Let's imagine that Barack Obama loses the election, decides to move back to Hawaii. His membership on the mainland to the Democrat Party expires. He moves back to Hawaii and has often been called Hawaii's 'third Senator'. One of the senior Senators dies. Barack Obama doesn't have membership in the Hawaii Democrat Party. Barack Obama would not be eligible. Is that what we want to do? To limit the pool of who would be eligible to be appointed to United States Senate in the event of a vacancy?

"I think the bill is very limiting from the six-month membership requirement as well as it's very limiting from saying you have to be a card carrying member of the party, whether it's Republican Party or Democrat Party. So many in our population identify with one or the other parties that they don't officially hold a card. So, Obama would not be eligible; neither would a large number of the population that do identify with one or the other parties. So, I think the bill is a mistake and I would hope that we would uphold the Governor's veto."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to the veto override motion. This bill requires the Governor to select from a list three prospective appointees nominated by the party of the incumbent to fill the legislative vacancy. The bill says, it goes on to say that the process should be free of political gamesmanship or controversy to ensure the integrity of the legislative process, provide for effective representation of the residents of the legislative district. However, by placing this process in the hands of a political party, actually, aren't we adding political favoritism? Political parties by themselves, by their nature, are full of political favoritism. These parties tend to be the driving force of political gamesmanship.

"And is this the intent of this bill to be reminiscent of the days of Boss Tweed and Tammany Hall, when an organization from a political party ran the political game? We all know the history and we don't want to encourage more of the one-sided politics. It doesn't ensure the integrity of the election process. The bill places the ability for determining who may be appointed with the political party leadership of the vacating officeholder in spite of this leadership not being elected by the public. And, therefore, it's not accountable to them. The only people that can be held accountable by the voters are those who are elected.

"A Party Chair is not elected by the voters at large. Instead, they are elected by a small portion of their population. They're not accountable to the rest of the citizens of Hawaii. So, how is that ensuring the integrity? In this very body, we currently have a Representative who's been appointed by the Governor and would anyone question this Representative's representation? I don't think so. She's representing her district nobly. So, therefore, the current system provides for the effective representation for residents.

"Others in this body may say other appointees as people who have not been effective Representatives of their districts. But where are they today? They are no longer in this body, are they? That's because the system works. If they do not step up to the plate and provide the right representation, then they do not stay.

"So, finally, in echoing the remarks of my colleague from Kailua, this limits the selection pool. By limiting the pool of potential people, we are tying our own hands. We want the best for the Legislature, the best for Hawaii, and so why should we be restrictive? And if we had these current restrictions, then the people of Molokai would have lost out today. Mr. Speaker, this measure does not accomplish what it sets out to do."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"In support. I, having been through the process both at the party level and at the Governor's office, I have to say that I think the Democratic Party, anyway, took the job very seriously, tried to find good candidates, and the four that they picked were all perfectly competent. Maybe better than competent. One of whom is sitting in the audience tonight, Kevin Mulligan. Peter Leong would have been an excellent legislator, as well. As would have Roy Benham.

"As for being political, I think that the decisions made in the Governor's office were every bit as political in the 28th District case as the decisions made at the Party. I think this is a perfectly legitimate response to the events that happened in '05 and '06. Thank you very much."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES" as contained in Gov. Msg. 363, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and was approved by the required two-thirds vote of the House pursuant to Section 17 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes: 41: Awana, Belatti, Berg, Brower, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Chong, Evans, Green, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, Mizuno, Morita, Nakasone, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Rhoads, Sagum, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Noes: 8: Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward.

Excused: 2: Bertram and Sonson.

At 9:58 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 1063, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 363, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 361, informing the House that on April 24, 2007, S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABOR" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 361, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Mr. Speaker, my first responsibility as a Representative in the State of Hawaii is the safety of the people of the State of Hawaii. This bill asks us to be derelict in our duties. This bill seeks to overturn the Supreme Court case of the UPW v. Hannemann, in 2005, the case in which the City and County attempted to transfer refuse workers and were subsequently taken to court. It seemed like a pretty simple management decision. If people over here are idle, put them over here where they're busy.

"Now, imagine that those are police, Mr. Speaker, that your district is left unsecured, but the ability to put, reassign the police department is unable because it has to go to collective bargaining, which this bill calls for. I think, Mr. Speaker, when you see the Honolulu Police Department and all of the other counties coming down here, as they did last week, saying, 'Don't pass this bill. This is not good', I think we should listen to those. They rarely get politically involved in such as that, and when they came down and made those statements, it's saying that this bill is taking stuff out of traditional management practices and putting them into collective bargaining practices.

"I think the bottom line is that when public safety is at stake, public safety comes first and public unions would come second. If we override this veto, Mr. Speaker, it's not going to change anything. Management is always going to have to manage. Managers will always manage. What there may be is a 'Hannemann 2' or 'Hannemann 3' or 'Hannemann 4', and it'll keep going back to court. But the issue of getting the job done, that's why there's managers. That's why you're the Speaker.

"Mr. Speaker, you don't have a meeting of a committee every time you make a decision. This one says for the unions every time that there's a decision on reassignment, hiring, firing, discipline, it's a collective bargaining issue. And not that management should have their way with everything, but there's certain things, there's certain divisions of labor. That's the way society is structured and that's the way society works best; when people know who they are, what's expected of them and what to do. This one clouds the lines between the rights of management and the rights of labor.

"It's going to be confusing and when it gets down to the safety and to the security of the public, of the people of Hawaii, I'm afraid this veto is an endorsement of your responsibility on our part. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition of the override. Real quickly, I'm going to read a letter. This is from the Chief of Police Boisse Correa.

> The four county Police Department strongly oppose Senate Bill 1642 because its passage would jeopardize public safety. The bill's purpose is to amend the law relating to collective bargaining by making certain subject matters areas that are currently excluded from negotiating, permissible. The bill proposes to allow the negotiation procedures and criteria for promotion, transfer, assignment, demotions, layoffs, suspensions, terminations, discharge, and other disciplinary actions. It will allow current grievance procedure to be utilized in the event there are alleged violations, of negotiated and agreed upon procedures and criteria.
> As law enforcement agencies, our ability to provide optimum service to the community is dependent upon our ability to direct the workforce as need arises during daily operations, and especially during an emergency. Police Departments need to be able to assign officers, dispatchers when and where they are needed most. Requiring negotiations for the assignment of personnel due to understaffing from employees on vacation, sick, court, training, etc., would greatly impact 911 emergency response times for service. Requiring negotiations for suspensions, terminations and other disciplinary actions will reduce employee accountability. This kind of negotiation will delay the Department's ability to remove police authority from officers who are being investigated and to terminate employees who should be discharged.
> The four county Police Departments believe that the public is best served by existing law that aptly ensures an environment that allows management to direct its work force and oversee operations while respecting employee and union rights at the same time. The passage of this Senate bill will have an extremely detrimental impact on the efficient, effective delivery of police services and we urge you not to override the Governor's veto.

And it is signed, Boisse Correa, Thomas Phillips, Lawrence Mahuna, and Clayton Arinaga, all acting police chiefs.

"I wanted to add just one more thing. I don't think we apply this to ourselves, do we? We want to manage our offices the best we can. I would hope that we would be equal."

Representative Takamine rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in favor of the motion. I think much has already been said about this particular measure, both by the opponents and proponents. And I must admit that at times our deliberations and the decisions we make get determined in part by the decibel level of those arguments that are made in the lobbying process. It appears as though, with respect to this particular measure before us, it may be helpful to understand the existing current law, what it provides for and the public policies that we've established in the area of collective bargaining.

"And, Mr. Speaker, as you and I are aware, at one time workers never had any rights, real rights to engage in concerted activity, and to join and be members of the union, and have someone bargaining on their behalf, as an exclusive representative. When Congress passed the National Labor Relations Act, for the first time these rights came into being. Hawaii as a State, not until we became a State, was covered by that law, and therefore, upon Statehood, for the first time, Hawaii workers were able to enjoy and exercise those rights to work collectively as they dealt with various measures with the employer.

"However, even at that time, public workers were not covered by the National Labor Relations Act, and, therefore, it wasn't until 1970 that this Legislature determined that collective bargaining and joint decision making should be what determines the policies in the workplace, in the public sector.

"And Chapter 89 was established, and if I can ask your indulgence, Mr. Speaker, because Chapter 89, I believe, establishes the framework for this very bill that is before us. And in that, in the very first section of Chapter 89, which is entitled Collective Bargaining In Public Employment, 89-1 establishes the statement of findings and policy and there, the existing law states: The Legislature finds that joint decision making is the modern way of administering government where public employees have been granted the right to share in the decision making process affecting wages and working conditions. They have become more responsive and better able to exchange ideas and information on operations with their administrators. Accordingly, government is made more effective.

"And the law is even more exclusive because if you look at subsection (b) of 89-1, it states: The Legislature declares that it is the public policy of the State to promote harmonious and cooperative relations between government and its employees and to protect the public by assuring effective and orderly operations of government. These policies are best effectuated by: (a) recognizing the right of public employers to organize for the purpose of collective bargaining; and (b) requiring public employers to negotiate with and enter into written agreements with exclusive representatives on matters of wages, hours and other conditions of employment."

Representative Chang rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takamine continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. So, we established as a Legislature that this would be the manner in which decision making would occur. We know that in the private sector, wages, hours and conditions of employment, the whole gamut, is subject to collective bargaining. But in the public sector it's different. In the public sector we need to protect the public's health and safety. Therefore, there were safeguards implemented in Chapter 89 and the so-called, management rights provisions are incorporated in Section 89-9(d).

"And in 89-9, which establishes the scope of negotiations, again, the statute states clearly the employer and the exclusive representative shall meet at reasonable times and shall negotiate in group faith with respect to wages, hours and conditions of employment. In 89-9(d) there were provisions to protect the so-called, management rights. And 89-9(d) states: Excluded from the subjects of negotiations are matters that would interfere with the rights and obligations of a public employer to: (1) direct the employees; (2) determine qualifications, standard for work, and the nature and contents of examinations; (3) hire, promote, transfer, assign and return employees in positions. Again, just to repeat, the hiring, the promotion, the transfer and assignments is something that is explicitly stated in the provision. In (4) it goes on to include suspend, demote, discharge or take other disciplinary action against the employees for proper cause; (5) relieve an employee from duties because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons; (6) maintain efficiency and productivity, including maximizing the use of advanced technology in government operations; (7) determine methods, needs, and personnel by which the employer's operations are to be conducted; and (8) take such actions as may be necessary to carry out the missions of the employer in cases of emergencies.

"I know I'm taking a while, Mr. Speaker, but I think it's important to note that because when we look at the measure before us, when you look Senate Bill 1642, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, the measure that was vetoed by the Governor, all of that language is intact in the bill. If you look at page 1 from lines 4, to page 2, line 13, those provisions that relate to protecting management's rights are included in the bill. Point number one.

"And I guess in light of the decibel level that we referred to earlier, there has been a lot said regarding this matter, and in fact, just this morning I'm sure all of us received the communication from the Governor's Chambers and it was transmitted to us by her Senior Policy Advisor, Linda Smith. And even there, I guess, dated May 1, 2007. 'Dear Representative. Please read this before voting to override the Governor's veto of Senate Bill 1642. '

"Specifically, Mr. Speaker, I wanted to point out that in the middle of page 2, Ms. Smith states, and that is in S.B. No. 1642: The proposed amendment requiring negotiations, requiring negotiations, over the impact of transfers, assignments, and layoffs of public employees would adversely affect the ability of a public employer to manage its employees and adversely affect the service provided to the general public. That is precisely the point made by the previous speakers.

"I raise the point because I'm sure in the lobbying efforts, sometimes we try to be a zealous advocate, we may tend to stretch what is actually incorporated in the bill and what is not. And that's why I think our Majority Floor Leader a lot of times reminds us if we wanted to know what we're deliberating about, it's important to know what's in the bill. Because when you hear things like requiring negotiations, taking away our management rights, taking away our discretion, it is important …"

Representative Har rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"Thank you. It's important to know what the bill says and, does it really affirm that what is being represented is true. Let me just call your attention to page 3, lines 2 to 3, because here the bill says this is what is being characterized as requiring negotiations. What the bill says is that this subsection shall not preclude negotiations over the procedures and criteria on promotions, transfers, assignments, demotions, layoffs, suspensions, terminations, discharges or other disciplinary action as a permissive subject of bargaining during collective bargaining negotiations.

"It doesn't sound like a requirement to me. And I know that there can be sometimes confusion because last year we had a bill similar to this that had different language that could be interpreted as requiring negotiations on the impact of these transfer and assignment decisions. But this is the measure before us, and this is the language that is before us.

"Again, I realize that this is late into the evening and a lot has been said. But Mr. Speaker, in light of the existing law, in light of the language of the bill, I will be supporting the motion to override the Governor's veto. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Very short and in support. I just really wanted to emphasize I think what the Representative from the Big Island said. It's really important to read the bill because I think there's been a lot of mischaracterizations of it. He's already cited page 3 of the bill that talks about, this shall not preclude and is permissive.

"And what this really is about is, because there was a time when before the Supreme Court came down with their decision on issues such as transfers and promotions. And it's not necessarily when you do it, but it's how you do it. It's the procedures and criteria as you see on lines 2 and 3 of page 3. That's what's going to be negotiated. Because as you already see on page 2, subsection 3, lines 1 and 2, the issues of hiring, promoting, transferring, assigning, and retaining employees in their positions. That is not able to be negotiated. That is purely within the management right. But how you do it. The standards and criteria by which you will be doing those things, that is something that can be negotiated.

"What happened was after the Supreme Court case, the union would come forward and say, 'We want to negotiate how you're going to be transferring people. How you may be promoting people.' And management would say, 'Well, after the Supreme Court case that I have, too bad, so sad, sorry. I don't need to. It's no longer necessary.' That is what the issue. Allowing them in the negotiations to negotiate the how; not the what. So, for those reasons, I stand in support."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I read the Governor's veto message as contradictory. Of course, the police chiefs, the fire chiefs are going to oppose this. It's just going to make their job a little harder.

"I learned years ago that unions are the result of bad management. I spent 15 years across the table from the ILWU, and we had to bargain everything. We had to bargain everything. Nothing was off the table, and that was fine with us. And I will tell you another thing, that union grievances resulted in showing us where we had bad management, and we had to clean it up. There's nothing wrong with this bill."

Representative Finnegan rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ruling on a conflict. My husband's a firefighter," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan continued in opposition of the override, stating:

"Thank you. In opposition. I'm starting to see it in a little different way, but I have some serious concerns because we are talking about how you determine, for instance, when doing a transfer of personnel and determining maybe you can do it under the conditions of an emergency. So the negotiations can be done upon what is considered an emergency? Is that what we're saying? I'm still confused, possibly because it is difficult to interpret what their words say. It's not just as easy. As we know, what we think we write in bills, sometimes get interpreted in all different kinds of ways after it passes out.

"So, I still have some questions about that because emergency services are so important. First and foremost, it's not necessarily a worker going to be transferred, but more so, the public safety. For instance, for firefighters, it isn't, is there an emergency at that particular time that we have to move somebody over to another station. It may be something like, there's always a need for you in the different places. It's a matter of whether or not you have the proper staffing that can respond, whether it be seven minutes versus five minutes to a location. That could make a huge difference in whether or not you will be prepared or be able to answer to an emergency. So, I'm still cloudy. I think it's cloudy in regards to what and how it can be negotiated. So, I still stand in opposition, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. I would like to, at the risk of expanding the House Journal, I'd like to enter the remarks from the Representative from House District 1 as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you. It's really true. When in doubt, read the bill. This bill does not in any way, shape, or form affect Chapter 89-9(d). That is the crux of the issue. So, for the previous speaker who said she's confused, I would recommend that you read the bill and you read that Chapter and you tell me what's the change to 89-9(d). There is no change whatsoever. We're just talking about permissive and that's why this whole thing is called the permissive bill, if you will. It's about those sections of Chapter 89 that may be negotiated. In this case, the bill says, 'shall not preclude negotiating'. So, I, frankly, don't know what the confusion is. It's pretty much in black and white, what this bill does and what it does not do.

"I will not read into the record, the letter that all of us got from Mr. Bob Lee, the President of the Hawaii Firefighters Association, but all of us did get that letter. And if you read it, he expressed some disappointment in the Fire Chiefs, in the way they are approaching the bill. And, Mr. Lee is a 'rank and file' firefighter, someone who is out there on a daily basis, on the front lines. Mr. Speaker, I would trust him, when he says this does not impugn the safety of our community, and I would take his word for that. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. This whole public safety issue, I think, is shibai. The Hawaii Firefighters Association Agreement in effect from July 1, 2005 to June 30, 2007, and Section 4 Management Rights clearly states that the employer, and I'm quoting, 'The employer reserves and retains solely and exclusively all rights, authority, and prerogatives, including the right to manage, control, and direct its employees and operations, except specifically abridged or modified by this Agreement.'

"Mr. Speaker, I just don't, I can't imagine a situation where a firefighter would say, when a supervisor comes to him or her and says, 'There's a fire in Kapolei and you're based in Kalihi. But I'd like you to go help fight the fire in Kapolei,' and the firefighter says, 'No, I don't have to because it's not in my district.' Or a police officer, where there's a murder call that's outside of his normal kuleana and he or she says, 'No, I'm not going to go.' In the first place, in the contract, they're going to have to negotiate exactly what's in the firefighter's contract. And in the second place, even if the contract said something different, we're talking about firefighters and police officers and emergency medical service workers. This is not going to be an issue. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this motion. I don't consider myself anti-labor. I am an associate member of HGEA and have been for maybe 25 years or so. There are worker's rights and there are management rights, and this bill is an erosion of management rights. Yes, it is permissive and the opposite of permissive is, not permissive. There is a term in there that reads, 'shall not preclude,' and the opposite of that is 'shall not.' So once you open it up, you're allowing a whole lot of negotiations which makes it a little more difficult for management to manage.

"When you're a parent, you negotiate some things. But on other issues, you say, 'Hey, I'm firm on this. This is the law. I'm sorry, it's time for bed.' This is one of those bills and I think it is very important to retain some management rights so they are able to transfer people and do other things that are necessary when they're thinking about the overall mission of their departments or agencies. I urge you to vote no. Thank you."

The Chair recognized Representative Sonson, stating:

"Representative Sonson, would you like to summarize your statement since it is 10:25, and we've had a lot of discussion on this particular measure."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you very much. I will keep it very brief. This is a very important issue. It does deserve a lot of press and I'm glad there's a lot of coverage in this so that we can all be educated on what this is all about.

"Chapter 89 is what we are really discussing. Chapter 89 was the work of the prior Legislature and it is intended to be legislation that will establish guidelines for decision making between employers and employees. The Hannemann case that was decided in '05, did have a holding that would require us to revisit Chapter 89, and that's why we're doing so. Because the holding did say that the transfer of employees from the base yard, from one area to another, was not subject to collective bargaining under Chapter 89A. This is the holding of the case of the UPW v. Hannemann. But it does outline, as was stated earlier, Chapter 89D says the employer has exclusive right pertaining to the hiring, promotion, transfer, etc., and the parties are permitted, they are encouraged to negotiate matters regarding wages, hours, and conditions of employments. But there is an overlap between what is condition of the employment, and when the management exercises their right to hire, promote, etc.

"So, what was relied on by the Hawaii Labor Relations Board, because they were the first to look at this case, and they found in favor of the employee. They said that when you are looking at these particular rights given by the Legislature for employer and employees, you should balance them so that they're not really mutually exclusive. You don't take them one here, this is yours, and here is yours. Actually, the intention of the Legislature was: you talk about it, and you talk about it in good faith. That is why everything should be subject, although that is their stuff and this is my stuff, you still talk about all that because they do interact. There is an overlap between the rights. And what the Supreme Court found was this was not subject to a balancing test. But, you see, that is counter to what the intent of the Legislature was when establishing these rights. The Legislature did not intend that these will be …"

Representative Sagum rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Sonson continued, stating:

"Thank you. A couple more minutes. What we're trying to do is really tell the Supreme Court that we do mean that these, that the law that we establish in Chapter 89 or the prior Legislature, establish in Chapter 89-9, is really to apply this balancing test. We're providing that mechanism so that when they look at this law again, if it ever reaches them again, then they will know for sure that that is exactly what we meant.

"It is, it is very difficult sometime for the Supreme Court to go beyond what is black and white, so that it is so important to insert or debate these things when we do research on what is the intent of the Legislature. So that now it is really clear. It is the intent of the Legislature that these rights will be subject to a balancing test. That's all. Thank you, very much."

Representative Pine then called for the previous question.

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LABOR" as contained in Gov. Msg. 361, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and was approved by the required two-thirds vote of the House pursuant to Section 17 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes: 38: Awana, Belatti, Berg, Brower, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Chong, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, Mizuno, Morita, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Rhoads, Sagum, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Noes: 9: Cabanilla, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward

Excused: 4: Bertram, Green, McKelvey and Nakasone.

At 10:30 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 1642, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 361, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 369, informing the House that on April 26, 2007, S.B. No. 1816, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORIC PRESERVATION" was vetoed.

Representative Caldwell moved to override the veto of S.B. No. 1816, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 369, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition of the override. I'm just going to read here from what, maybe you have a copy of it. But I want to read just one or two sentences. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The bill is objectionable because it grants exclusive right of consultation to only a single entity. It doesn't require consultation with other Kohala community groups, Kamehameha Schools, Lohiau Family, Civic Club, etc., etc., etc.

"I'm just going to say that it hurts me that something like this that is for historic preservation comes out like this, but there's two reasons why I think that we should uphold the veto. When thinking of something so precious as historic preservations and our sites, we want to bring in as many vessels of wisdom as possible. They say it takes a village to raise a child. I say it takes a village to malama malama all the sites. We want to have input from people. Historic preservation, ironically, I think, is about knowledge, not about curtailing knowledge.

"This legislation could set a precedent where other people think they have their own, they have their own only dibs on something. And we know in historic preservation, that we're trying to bring in everybody. In sum, Mr. Speaker. historic preservation should bring people together, not exclude them. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, let's talk about this veto. What are we talking about? The Mookini Heiau located on the Big Island. The secret site where Kamehameha the Great received his blessing and birth rights in 1758 on the eve of his birth.

"Let's look at some of the facts. Let's talk about some of the people involved. The people that we involve regarding consultation, the word located in the bill. We are asking for the consultation of Ms. Leimomi Mookini Lum, a Kahuna Nui. Mr. Speaker, we're talking about vessels of wisdom. This is a living vessel. A direct descendent of the Kahuna Nui Kuamoo Mookini. I probably butchered that and I am sorry. The first Kahuna Nui and director of the building of this temple some 1,500 years ago, Mr. Speaker.

"Let's look at some other things affecting this important site. Mr. Speaker, we're talking about a 2.915 acre monument, which was donated to the State of Hawaii by the Kohala Corporation on December 1978 for its protection. This bill codifies the language contained in the deed when it was given over. I find it kind of ironic, Mr. Speaker, that our Governor's own DLNR, Department of Land and Natural Resources, testified more than once in support of this bill.

"Mr. Speaker, in the testimony it says that included in the Deed of Conveyance is a provision that prior to making any alterations or improvements within the Mookini Heiau, the State, quote, 'shall consult with the Kahuna Nui of the Mookini Heiau.' The Department's Division of State Parks maintains the Mookini Heiau and consults with the Kahuna Nui on plans for any improvements. Mr. Speaker, in their own testimony, they state that they consult. I find it kind of ironic that our own Governor will oppose the testimony in support of their own department.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill, if people actually read it, states that prior to any alterations or improvements, not including routine maintenance to the monument, including the Mookini Heiau, the Department of Land and Natural Resources shall consult. It doesn't need approval. They just need to ask for a consultation.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, this bill is talking about historic preservation. Let's not let moneymaking opportunities take over such a precious site. This bill will protect it. It states, page 3, section (c), prior to any additional organized profit making venture involving the monument, including the Mookini Heiau, the entity proposing the venture shall, again, consult with the Kahuna Nui of the Mookini Heiau. Mr. Speaker, I ask for everybody's support. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"In support. May I have the words of the Chair of Tourism and Culture entered into the Journal as my own? And I just want to make one further comment. I like his new forceful voice. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Same here, Mr. Speaker. In support and I would like to incorporate the words of the Tourism and Culture as if they were my own. I think it sums it up better than anyone can, on what we're doing here on this veto override. And, also, I like his new voice too. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Sagum rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, as a Native Hawaiian, I'd like to speak in favor of this bill, and I'd like to insert the words of the previous speaker in the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I just wanted to also incorporate the words of my Chair for Tourism as my own. I would just like to add that as he mentioned that this Heiau, particular Heiau, and the oral tradition that goes along with it has been entrusted to the Kahuna Nui since 480 A.D. I really don't think it's in our place to change that. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I speak in favor and I was very impressed with the speech from the Chair of Tourism. I've never seen such expression in my time. I'm sure the spirit of Momi must be watching and giving him all the graces for the evening. Thank you very much."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, would like to rise in support and incorporate the words of the Representative from Mililani. In addition, I'm looking at the concerns that the Governor has. I would like to further reiterate that this particular site, which consists of three specific areas and the spaces in between, is a nationally registered historic landmark site. We are codifying the statement that already exists in the deed signed by Governor Ariyoshi in 1978, and that is present in the Executive Order.

"I'd like to reassure my colleagues that one of the concerns is what will happen when this Kahuna Nui passes on. The next Kahuna Nui has been already selected and named. So, with that in mind, when we're talking about historic preservation sites, we're not just talking about building on one site. We're talking about the kauna of the land and we're talking about the history of Hawaii. So, I strongly encourage my colleagues to understand and accept that the Priest of this particular site do emanate from 480 A.D. and Aunty Momi is the seventh High Priestess. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the override, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in support of the override. The Mookini Heiau is, without a doubt, just an unbelievable treasure and site. Mrs. Lum has worked tirelessly to get some kind of support. I think she should be a consultant and I'm sure she will work with other groups there because one person cannot do it all alone. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the override and asked that the remarks of Representative Berg be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the override, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. The bill talks about the entire monument, not just the Mookini Heiau. DLNR did not testify in support. They recommended the measure be amended to limit the authority of the Kahuna Nui to just the Heiau and not the entire monument. OHA, DLNR, the Kohala Hawaiian Civic Club and individual families with interest in the area, and Kamehameha Schools ask to be included. They all asked for the measure to be amended to include them, or to defer the measure and hold Kohala community hearings to provide them with a voice. Thank you."

At this time the Chair called for a roll call vote and the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 1816, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HISTORIC PRESERVATION" as contained in Gov. Msg. 369, was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and was approved by the required two-thirds vote of the House pursuant to Section 17 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes: 43: Awana, Belatti, Berg, Brower, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Chong, Evans, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Mizuno, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Rhoads, Sagum, Saiki, Say, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Souki, Takai, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Ward, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Noes: 3: Ching, Finnegan and Pine.

Excused: 5: Bertram, Green, Morita, Nakasone and Takamine.

At 10:43 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the motion to override the veto of S.B. No. 1816, SD 1, HD 1, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 369, had carried.

Gov. Msg. No. 356, informing the House that on April 23, 2007, S.B. No. 1956, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE AGREEMENT AMONG THE STATES TO ELECT THE PRESIDENT BY NATIONAL POPULAR VOTE" was vetoed.

Action on S.B. No. 1956 was deferred one legislative day.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of reconsidering action previously taken in disagreeing to amendments proposed by the Senate to certain House bills. (Representatives Bertram, Nakasone and Takamine were excused.)

At this time, the Chair discharged all House conferees for H.B. No. 1493, HD 2, SD 1.

The Chair then stated:

"At this time, Members of the House, before we proceed on, are there any other measures on the yellow Action Sheet where the Co-Chairs want to be discharged? Please ask the Chair at this time so we can call a short recess to give all of you the opportunity to have a 48-hour notice. We will discharge conferees, move to reconsider action taken, and move to pass for Final Reading on Thursday.

"I could just do it on Thursday, but I'm giving you, the Members of the House, an opportunity."

At 10:46 o'clock p.m., Representative Yamashita requested a recess, and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:47 o'clock p.m.

The Chair then stated:

"Did everyone understand the Chair request for the Co-Chairs of all respective bills where we had disagreed, and you were a conferee, and at this point this evening you would like to be discharged so that we can address it on Thursday on the reconsideration of the disagreement. I'm not going to give anymore chances to the Co-Chairs."

Representative Green rose, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. If it's the will of leadership and the Caucus, I will agree to be discharged from H.B. No. 1479."

At 10:48 o'clock p.m., Representative Caldwell requested a recess, and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:50 o'clock p.m.

Representative Green rose, stating:

"Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. I spoke in error. They're still defective dates, so it's impossible. Thank you.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Okay, thank you very much. So, that's the only measure that I'll be discharging conferees on. House Bill 1493 on page 44, and you all are hereby discharged."

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, I have the pleasure to announce that Representative Evans and Representative Ching will be honored tomorrow by the Historic Hawaii Foundation with the highest prestigious Hawaii Preservation Awards for the work on Heritage Caucus of which we are now 75% members. It'll be on the Island Princess at 5:00 p.m. Congratulations to Representatives Evans and Ching."

Speaker Say: "Representative Caldwell, would like to make an announcement on behalf of the Members of the House in regards to a young man whose wife gave birth? Do you want to do it Chair Waters? The Chair recognizes Representative Waters."

Representative Waters: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm happy to announce, and this is probably old news to most of you, that on Friday, April 27, at 7:48 a.m., my wife gave birth to a bouncing baby boy. He was 8 pounds, 7 ounces, and his name is Thomas James Kaehukai Waters. Thank you for letting me go to the birth on Friday morning. It was in the middle of Conference Committee, but thank you guys."

At 11:15 o'clock p.m., Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:17 o'clock p.m.

Representative Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, I do have one other announcement. So many people have worked so hard back starting on Friday and then this week. I think on behalf of both the Majority Caucus and the Minority Caucus, we want to thank our personal staffs, but also the Chief Clerk's staff, who has operated under a lot of pressure and have come through very well without showing any sweat. To the Sergeant-at-Arms for their help in keeping us on schedule. And, of course, HMSO, for their review of all the bills and Committee Reports. We want to thank all of them very much for helping us get to the goal that we're at tonight. Thank you."

Representative Thielen: "Thank you. And I'd also like to thank the staff that keeps this building shining, particularly, Annie on the Fourth Floor, who is absolutely outstanding. She is always helpful, always with a smile."

Representative Magaoay: "Thank you, Speaker. Just adding to what the Majority Leader said. Our thanks to the LRB staff, also. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka: "And, Mr. Speaker, one other comment is we'd also like to thank the Printshop. If you go in there, there's a lot of trees in there. But they've done an excellent job in giving us our information, and I'd also like to acknowledge them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"So, before closing, I just wanted to share with all of you, thank you very much for a wonderful day, even though it was a little long. But we really enjoyed the debate this morning, this afternoon, and this evening."

ADJOURNMENT

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the House of Representatives adjourned until 9:00 o'clock a.m., Thursday, May 3, 2007.

Representative Meyer: "Mr. Speaker, I'm not going to second that. I thought we were starting at 10:00."

Speaker Say: "No. We decided to start at 9:00 because you also want to finish early. There two individuals who will be catching a flight Thursday afternoon, and whatever we can do to finish the eleven pages on tonight's Supplemental Calendar #1, and the floor amendments which we will also be taking up Thursday. So if we could, I would like to finish on Thursday by 6:00 in the evening. Or it may be longer. It took us, for the same amount of pages, twelve pages, all this morning, this afternoon, and this evening to accomplish this. And that's with the Consent Calendar. So when you think about it, I'm just trying to run this Chamber very efficiently. I would love to start at 9:00."

Representative Meyer: "Okay, I had seen it in the Order of the Day as 10:00, so I thought it was a mistake. Thank you for explaining that."

Speaker Say: "And I need to apologize to all of you because tomorrow night is the House staff party and I think a lot of the staff would like to have a nice time there. But, just be home by 10:00 in the evening."

Representative Meyer then seconded the motion and at 11:20 o'clock p.m., the House of Representatives adjourned until 9:00 a.m. Thursday, May 3, 2007. (Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, McKelvey, Nakasone, Saiki and Takamine were excused.)

Gov. Msg. No. 375, transmitting H.B. No. 910, HD 1, SD 1, without her approval and statement of objections relating to the measure as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
May 1, 2007

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 910

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 910, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Financial Disclosure Statements."

The purpose of this bill is to make the financial disclosure statements of the members of ten boards and commissions a matter of public record and available for inspection and duplication.

This bill is objectionable because it will adversely impact the ability of the State to attract knowledgeable and qualified volunteers to serve on boards and commissions.

Members of boards and commissions already file annual financial disclosure statements with the Ethics Commission. This allows members of the Ethics Commission to determine if conflicts of interest exist. These forms are not made public thus affording a careful balancing of the interests of the public and the privacy of the volunteers who serve. Subjecting a board member's personal financial, proprietary, and commercial information to public disclosure and duplication could adversely affect the ability of these individuals to conduct their business and maintain the confidentiality of their personal assets.

Second, this bill fails to recognize the safeguards already in place to ensure ethical behavior by board and commission members. Board and commission decisions are already subject to the Sunshine law requiring open meetings and public recording of the proceedings. Members of the public who are concerned that a conflict may exist have a reasonable opportunity to raise that concern. Furthermore, members of the public can request the Ethics Commission to investigate a commissioner or board member if they believe a conflict may be present.

Many board and commission members are subject to confirmation by the State Senate. The Senate has the opportunity and an obligation through this process to ensure that the members they are confirming will live up to the highest ethical standards of the State. Additionally, some boards, such as the Board of Land and Natural Resources, are already subject to statutorily mandated disclosure rules that require a member to disqualify themselves from voting or participation in a discussion where they have a direct or indirect interest. This bill fails to recognize these existing safeguards.

Third, this bill singles out ten specific boards and commissions but fails to address why these boards should be subject to public disclosure while numerous other boards and commissions that serve the State will not be subject to the same requirements. Furthermore, this bill attempts to improperly equate members of boards and commissions who serve without compensation as if they were the same as paid State employees or elected officials. If this proposed bill applied only to the Public Utilities Commissioners, it would be an acceptable measure since these commissioners are full-time paid members during their tenure.

Finally, the bill is objectionable because it would change the requirements of financial disclosure in mid-stream. Because this bill would take effect upon approval it would subject existing board and commission members to new rules that were not in place at the time they agreed to serve and were appointed to their positions. Changing the rules is both unfair and inappropriate to those who are giving of their time and talents to improve the operations of State government. If the measure applied prospectively, then it would be less onerous than as currently written.

My Administration has consistently supported open and timely disclosure of potential conflicts by members of all State boards and commissions. However, this disclosure should be handled in a manner that is appropriate to the specific board, such as the current statutory requirements applicable to the Board of Land and Natural Resources. This bill fails to meet that standard.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 910 without my approval.

Respectfully,

LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

ORDER OF THE DAY

COMMITTEE REASSIGNMENT

The following resolution was re-referred to committee by the Speaker:

H.R. No.	Re-referred to:
126	Committee on Higher Education

At this time, Chair stated:

"At this time Members of the House, the Chair will be taking Conference Committee Report No. 143 out of order."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143 and H.B. No. 1292, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee and H.B. No. 1292, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, first of all, I was the author of this bill and I understand why it's being done. I do not approve as to what has happened in the Senate in amending this particular bill and I just want this House to be aware of the manner in which this bill was handled in the Senate. Thank you very much."

At 9:27 o'clock a.m., Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:28 o'clock a.m.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I am going to vote in support of the recommittal, however, I just am regretful that the Senate decided to also make that amendment to what was otherwise a good bill that could have served us well."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee and H.B. No. 1292, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference with Representative Souki voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Takamine being excused.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members at this time, on page 5, House Bill No. 1359, the Chair will be taking Conference Committee Report No. 156 out of order."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 156 and H.B. No. 1359, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee and H.B. No. 1359, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At 9:29 o'clock a.m., Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 9:33 o'clock a.m.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I speak against the recommittal. Mr. Speaker, I understand that there may be a flaw in the bill, and despite that, we've passed out bills that have had flaws before and I haven't had the chance to take a look into details on whether or not that flaw is going to be something that kills the meaning of this bill. However, I did really support the underlying bill of this State pharmacy assistance program, and so one of the concerns on it was that we would need CMS approval. CMS has already given approval to states who have done this already.

"So, the approval from CMS is most likely from what I understand from our Department of Human Services. It's just a matter of communicating that with CMS with this language. So, I do speak against the recommittal and was hoping that we could see this through. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose in opposition to the motion to recommit and asked that the remarks of Representative Finnegan be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also speak against the recommittal. Mr. Speaker, this reommittal is 'penny-wise and pound-foolish'. What we're throwing away is a huge amount of discounting on drugs for the people of Hawaii. With H.B. 10, which is touted as the best way to go, with that bill you can get a one dollar discount, and we have to take it. We have to eat it. With the bill that we're recommitting, we can get huge discounts on drugs.

"I don't see the logic of it. I see the legal twist, but in terms of what we're saving for the people of Hawaii, we are 'penny-wise and pound-foolish'. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm also voting no on the recommittal. This just is a much more comprehensive program and would assist many more people. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her on the motion for recommital, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the recommittal. Very briefly, I just want to counter some of the arguments made. I think that the potential savings to be realized by this bill is very, very speculative. Contrary to what some other speakers have said, I don't believe any states have gotten the CMS approval yet, although currently there are a couple of states that have looked at this potential alternative.

"None, yet, have gotten that CMS approval. Instead, what we should go forward with is our Hawaii Rx Plus, which I think is a definitive way in which we can provide the savings and relief to Hawaii's consumers."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In just brief rebuttal. My understanding is, yes, other states have already received approval from CMS. The second thing is in regards to the discount. At this point and time with Hawaii Rx, the discount is unknown. If you want it more definite, you would have that with the CMS approval and the SPAP because they already give rebates for federal programs, so that is actually a more definitive way to get a definitive type of rebate. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1359, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE PHARMACY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Meyer, Pine and Ward, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Members, can you turn now to page 8. At this time, the Chair will be taking Conference Committee Report No. 179 out of order."

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 179 and S.B. No. 1034, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee and S.B. No. 1034, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Souki rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. Again, I wish to speak against the recommital of this measure. I can understand the reason for the recommittal because the bill itself doesn't provide enough relief that was originally called for. But, again, I believe it was the method and manner in which the Senate handled the bill in returning a flawed bill to the Committee. Whether it was by design or not, I don't know, but it came from the Senate as a flawed bill. I want this on the record. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition, too. I can't say it much better than the Representative from Maui, but I guess, I just want to emphasize it's just a shame. These businesses could use this tax relief. And I wholeheartedly agree with the speaker from Maui. These local airlines need some kind of relief. It's a very competitive business and the huge increase in the cost of fuel is impacting them and it's just a shame that the shoddy work done from our friends on the other side of this building have put this bill out. And, so, if there is to be any help for these industries, they have to wait at least another year and a half. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition of the recommittal. Mr. Speaker, this was a good bill because it was intended to save our airlines a lot of money. And, you know, the airline industry is in deep trouble. If what the Senate did was to be blamed as the good speaker from Maui said, it is clearly at their feet. I would go one step further, Mr. Speaker, and say that they took their eye off the ball because they put their on Peter Young and they forgot some of the details of what their responsibilities were. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Even though I echo some of these comments, I will be supporting the recommittal, but I would like to adopt the words of the Speaker Emeritus, as well as the speaker from Hawaii Kai," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee and S.B. No. 1034, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference, with Representatives

Meyer, Souki and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Nishimoto being excused.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative B. Oshiro, seconded by Representative Meyer and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering bills on Final Reading on the basis of a modified consent calendar. (Representatives Bertram and Nishimoto were excused.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 121 and S.B. No. 709, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 709, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, through the years, I've come to realize, as many of my colleagues, that one of the problems with government is that we don't have enough data. We don't measure where we're going, we don't have as a road map a way of seeing where we're going and how we've done. I think as 'Alice in Wonderland' said, 'If you don't know where you're going, any road will get you there.' And I think this is that road map to say where we're going, where we've been, how much it takes to go further and how we're doing along the way. Thank you."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Senate Bill 709, CD 1 Relating to Economic Development, will improve the State's ability for access and the progress in creating an innovation economy, including such industries as ocean sciences and technology, biotechnology, life sciences, astronomy, film, creative media, diversified agriculture, aquaculture, and specialized tourism. This bill appropriates funds to DBEDT to hire economists to collect, analyze, and publish research data to track the economic progress and develop targeted growth industries. Thank you very much."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Ward and Yamashita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamashita be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In strong support. The future looks bright, I hope the future looks bright, thanks to all the hard work that our Committee Chairman of Economic Development has done on this bill. And he would not be out of place if he said, "Don't hate me 'cause I'm fly.' Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 709, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 122 and S.B. No. 810, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 810, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I just wanted to say that I support this measure and I would like to acknowledge the work of the Chair of Health on the Senate side for his efforts to lead our taskforce in Pearl City as it relates to the usage of Waimano."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 810, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WAIMANO RIDGE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 123 and S.B. No. 1115, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1115, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, and I would like written comments in the Journal. And I'd just like to say this continues our fight against ice, and particularly, helping pregnant women who are using substances to help them have healthy babies. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, last year Act 248 established funding for a pilot clinic to provide comprehensive prenatal, delivery, and postpartum care and social services on the Island of Oahu to women who have a history of methamphetamine and other substance use. That Act was extremely important because it provided women who are or have been substance abusers a place to get treatment without the fear of criminal prosecution.

"This bill, Mr. Speaker, appropriates funds to the Department of Human Services to continue funding the pilot perinatal clinic at the University of Hawaii and provides case management services. Pregnant women need to have good perinatal care, especially women who might be, or might have been substance abusers. I urge my colleagues to support this measure because, as the Drug Policy Forum of Hawaii testified, "without the clinic, services that provide appropriate healthcare to substance using pregnant women to ensure the birth of a healthy baby are either extremely limited or unavailable.""

Representative Waters rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Lee be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1115, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PERINATAL CARE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 124 and S.B. No. 1170, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1170, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support, Mr. Speaker. This will provide TANF funds for this program."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1170, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILDREN," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 125 and S.B. No. 932, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 932, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong support. This was something we started at the very beginning of Session with the concept of reintegration and re-entry into the community. I think it's a great omnibus bill that tries to address what happens when offenders return to our community, because they do come home. And, so it's a great start at looking at what happens in that last year.

"In Hawaii, so many of our offenders are really drug-related offenses. The really violent, serial criminal doesn't really exist in Hawaii. There's a few of them. I visited where they hold them at Halawa. There's less than ten in this State. So mental health issues, drug treatment issues are real prominent in our offender population and I really think this bill moves us in the right direction to start addressing that and I thank you for the support of my colleagues for this."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of this measure. Over the years I've learned so much about recidivism, how prison inmates when they come out, they're not quite prepared to enter back into the community. What this bill does is it definitely starts to head in that direction where it prepares them to go back into the community to provide them with a more successful living arrangement when they get out.

"Recidivism or the revolving door of the prison system is unacceptable, Mr. Speaker, and I just really wanted to recognize the people who have worked so hard on this issue. There are a lot of different ways where we can give prison inmates a second chance back into the community and this starts to do that. It's a commitment that I think that all of our Members here are for and it should deserve all the strong support that it gets. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise also in strong support of this measure. It is said that 40% of our prisoners that are released from prisons go back to the prison system within two years. Forty per cent is a high percentile and the cost of incarceration is in the millions. I think it gives us strong savings to look into that first year or the second year when they get out to society. That we need to nurture them and take care of them and invest resources to their well being.

"It is also said that 40% of people in jail have comorbidity, like mental illness. So, if they had a reason to go in prison, if you don't do anything by the time they come out, they will then have another reason to go back. So, I think this is a worthwhile investment and I'm glad that this House is in support of it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Sorry, Mr. Speaker. I forgot to say one other thing. What this bill does is it doesn't say that we're going to shorten sentences or anything like that. All it does say is that whatever consequences that happened throughout your trial or whatever time you have in prison, all it says is that before you are released that we will prepare you for a better success rate in the community. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 932, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO A COMPREHENSIVE OFFENDER REENTRY SYSTEM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 134 and H.B. No. 104, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 104, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was going to stand up right away. In very, very strong support. We set out this Session all knowing only too well that the healthcare system was in need of some support. Across the board we've all heard that healthcare is in jeopardy in the nation, but also in Hawaii because our hospitals perpetually are under-funded by Medicare and Medicaid. That the private insurers also are having difficulty providing adequate reimbursement at the hospital level, and, frankly, even physicians and nurses are finding it difficult to stay in private practice and provide the care that we all need.

"This bill demonstrates a unique and profound commitment to our healthcare system, financially. We're going to see real resources that are going to be augmented by federal match and then some. So our healthcare system got healthier with this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 104, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 135 and H.B. No. 531, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 531, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of this measure because this insures our often-forgotten children with special needs will receive the proper educational services that will best fit them. Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act requires states to provide early intervention services to special needs children in a natural environment, such as their home or elsewhere. However, these individualized services are available for them only until they reach age three. Simply, what that means is once they reach age three in one day they're no longer allowed to have these specialized services.

"At this time, Part B of the Act directs states to provide special education and related services in a least restrictive environment which sends these children into their classroom. They're now considered special ed kids, but we need more than that because some of these children suffer from substantial delays with their cognitive skills, their adaptability, language barriers. Because of this, we have to have something that will help this group. The target group that I'm talking about would be children three to five. This measure would cover that group.

"The problem that the children have once they make three years of age is that they're still nevertheless behind developmentally. Some of these children are not ready for special education due to developmental and medical needs. They need extra time, nurturing and training to mature. They need more than just educational services. They need proper behavior and intervention which special education doesn't necessarily address.

"We all know that a change in environment can be substantial for children. It can help them, it can also hurt them. The transition from home to school is often a difficult one and in some instances, for special needs children, the transition can be disastrous, especially when special education doesn't ensure that the training personnel or proper resources are available to them.

"To give you a quick example, we have a person that we know that represents Cure Autism Now and her son, actually, he's four years old, he wears a helmet and there's a room for him, it's padded. The reason why is he suffers from autism. One of the characteristics is you just run and you run into things. Your motor skills are delayed. What happens is, Mr. Speaker, is if we have some of these children that are substantially delayed in some of their skills, you'll have a classroom with many of these children running into each other or running into the wall, hurting themselves and possibly other children.

"This measure would cover all those children. This would have a taskforce and it'll be able to guide us with a proper measure to protect them. So, for those reasons, I support this measure and hope all of the Members support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, very briefly in support. I'd just like to dedicate this bill to Gabriel and Matthew, two children of proponents of the measure who spoke passionately at the Health Committee throughout the Session."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 531, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILDREN," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 136 and H.B. No. 226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, the United States is finally waking up to the climate crisis and calling on its leaders to take action When House Bill 226 is enacted, Hawaii will be at the forefront in aggressively reducing its contribution to global climate change. And Hawaii should be a global leader on climate change not only because we face serious harm from climate change, but because we are in the best position to demonstrate to the world how to power our economy sustainability. This is the commitment we are making today by the passage of this bill.

"Global climate change not only threatens Hawaii's environment and economy, but it may dramatically alter our way of life. Current scientific consensus predicts a future very different from the one to which we are accustomed. The Pacific Ocean may inundate most of Waikiki, the business district in Honolulu, and the coastal resort areas on the other islands. Our island aquifers may become increasingly contaminated through salt water intrusion. More severe storms and hurricanes may pummel the State. Droughts may be more prolonged, and the subtle shifts in our island's microclimates may rapidly increase extinctions of endangered plants and animals and increase the viability and spread of invasive species.

"Science tells us there is no escaping some of the consequences of global climate change. But if we act quickly and collectively, we may have a chance to stave off the most severe impacts. For many years now we have talked about the need to reduce our dependence on imported oil and transition to clean, indigenous energy sources. Unfortunately, in 2007, we are consuming more fossil fuels, and emitting more greenhouse gas than any other time in Hawaii's history. The measure before us starts the process of deceasing our statewide greenhouse gas emissions so that we can get back to our 1990 emission levels by 2020. That level is roughly 15% less than what we are currently emitting statewide. But more critically, it is approximately 25% less than the amount of global warming pollution Hawaii would be emitting in 2020 under the 'business as usual' scenario if nothing changes.

"Today, the atmosphere contains 381 parts per million (ppm) carbon dioxide. This is more than any other period in the past one million years and that number continues to grow. Scientific evidence suggests if atmospheric concentrations of greenhouse gases stabilize at or below 450 ppm, humankind has a good chance of holding global average temperature increases below 3.6 degrees Fahrenheit and averting the most severe impacts of global warming. Achieving the goal of stabilizing greenhouse gas concentrations at or below 450 ppm, climatologists believe, will require reducing greenhouse gas emissions 80% of their 1990 levels before 2050. House Bill 226 puts us on the track to meet that goal by starting a steady decline in our annual greenhouse gas emissions.

"Some may ask why Hawaii should take the lead when our contributions to the global problem is nominal. The fact is Hawaii has zero, none, indigenous fossil fuel sources. Nearly all our greenhouse gas emissions start off as expensive carbon imports. Some accept that global climate change is a problem, but fear regulating something so pervasive as carbon dioxide would put the brakes on our economy. The truth is exactly the opposite. Carbon dioxide pollution represents inefficiencies in our economy. The vast majority of that carbon has been imported from Indonesia, the Middle East, and other areas at a cost of over a billion dollars annually to our State.

Representative Takumi rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Morita continued, stating:

"Thank you, Representative Takumi. These dollars should stay in our State, right here in Hawaii, paying for good, green collar jobs in the clean energy industry. Some laugh at the prospect that renewable energy providing much of our power needs, saying that wind, solar, ocean, and other resources could never give us the muscle that today's dirty power plants provide. I say, nonsense. Germany, at 51 degree latitude, has far more installed photovoltaic power than the capacity of all of Hawaii's power plants combined. However, Hawaii's long-term solution will not only be solar, but a mixed plate of energy solutions including new energy storage technologies, like hydrogen, magnetic, electrical, or even pumped water, that will keep the power steady and enable us to power our homes, cars, and perhaps even airplanes. Is this difficult to imagine?

"It would be equally difficult to ask someone 20 years ago to wrap their minds around the concept of "Google" or all of these wireless laptops sitting on our desks today with the ability of people streaming on their computers to view us in session right now. But the money interests that invested in these technologies have turned their interest into renewable and green technology. We really should be taking notice of all the Silicon Valley types, noted venture capitalists, who are investing in renewable energy and green technologies. Setting this emission limit sends a clear market signal to the world that Hawaii is open for business for clean energy investments.

"We have witnessed a sea of change over the past year in public acceptance of the science behind global climate change. People realize that humans are a force of nature who are taking personal action to reduce our own 'four pounds per hour' of global warming pollution by driving less, installing compact florescent lights, or installing solar on their homes. We can all change our habits, but we also need to change some laws. This is what we're doing today.

"Mr. Speaker, everything I have shared with you on this measure is eclipsed by one thing: our moral duty to act. The world's leading climate scientists are telling us we have a narrow window to act to avert the most severe impacts of climate change. Given what we know today about this crisis, history will judge us harshly if we choose inaction.

"In the 1930's, Winston Churchill wrote of those leaders who refused to acknowledge the clear and present danger of the 'gathering storm' in Europe at that time and I quote him: 'The era of procrastination, of half-measures, of soothing and baffling expedients, of delays, is coming to a close. In its place, we are entering a period of consequences.' We are entering a period of consequences with global climate change.

"It is time for Hawaii to take responsibility. House Bill 226 is a meaningful, but measured approach to begin the long process of reducing Hawaii's contribution to global climate change. I urge my colleagues to join me in strong support of this historic and very important measure. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support, and wish to ask the very poetic words of our Representative from Kauai to be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Berg continued, stating:

"I also wish to add just a few more comments to say that I'm really, really proud of this bill and I'm sorry I wasn't on the Committee to be part of the dialogue. This bill is more than about greenhouse gas emissions, Mr. Speaker. This is about authentic economic diversity. It is about offering a vision to engage our community in something bigger and, as you know, the mantra of the Senate has been sustainability. It is also our mantra, but in a very, very grounded way, and I'm very proud that this bill is coming through the House and it's emanated from us.

"It is my hope that the information from the bill and the motivation generated by the bill will be integrated into the 20-50 sustainable plan. One of the things I'm also proud about our House is that in 2006 we passed the measure to encourage the Governor and mayors and our Congressional delegation to support the Kyoto Treaty. This year, through the House, we also passed the measure to embrace the U.N. Earth Charter. Unfortunately, it was compromised in the Senate. We also passed the U.N. millennium goals.

"In keeping with this particular bill, which is founded on the United Nations Intergovernment Panel on Climate Change their assessment on the predictable impact of climate change, I'm really proud to be part of this discussion and hope that this will then land the framework for the House to take leadership with regards to sustainability. And in the words of Ronald Reagan, I shared it when we talked about the kids, we have a 'rendezvous with destiny', and I'm really happy to be part of the House at this time, with this bill and leadership. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure and I would like to make some comments. Mr. Speaker, first, I would like to thank the community members throughout this State and actually the nation who have sent us e-mails, faxes or called to say we need to take this step and watching us every step of the way during the difficult process of getting to where we are today. I also would like to thank two local organizations that have been so key in improving this bill, and that is, Life of the Land and the Sierra Club. They have worked very hard to improve it. It's maybe not where they would ultimately like to see us be, but they agree that it's a good first step, I believe.

"Hawaii doesn't have any law on the books at this point reducing or affecting greenhouse gas emissions that we create as a State, as a people. After today, and when the Governor signs the bill, as I am sure she will, we will have such a law. And I think that's a positive step forward. It's the initial step and that's what I would like to say to my colleagues. We need to do more in the coming years. We are setting up a taskforce. To me, it's a bit slanted toward industry that will be affected. There will be four members versus two members from the environmental groups. So, we're setting up a taskforce that we need to watch. We need to make sure that they are taking serious steps and moving us forward.

"The second thing that we are doing is once the limit is established, there will be an eight year window up to the year 2020 before the standard has to be met. There's no requirement for incremental steps in getting there. So, we could have some of the more serious polluters waiting until the year 2020 and then throwing up their hands and coming to whoever will be in this body at that time saying, 'We need to have relief from this.' So, I think we need to put in incremental steps so we can move ahead. The Kyoto Protocol which was mentioned by my colleague requires a five per cent reduction from 1990 levels by the year 2012. That's a very good immediate objective to achieve.

"I think we need to watch this. We've taken a wonderful first step, but, remember, the responsibility rests on our shoulders to keep on pushing further and further and further, so we become the leader in the nation and the leader in the world showing what can be done, and, in doing so, we would be tapping our renewable energy resources and moving us off the polluting fossil fuel. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Green rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support also. And first, I'd like to incorporate the comments of the Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection as if they were my own. And would also like to point out, Mr. Speaker, that this was a very united effort by many different people, including the Chair of Health, the Vice Chair of Judiciary, along with the Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection. You will see a blending of the language from the three of these individuals and a great deal of work went into this.

"We can be proud of the fact, Mr. Speaker, that we will be the second state in the nation, after California, to have made a very strong, bold step on greenhouse gas emissions and controlling it for many future generations. And as the Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection mentioned, even though we are a very small state, it is our moral duty to act, and we can be proud of the fact that we are acting. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Carroll rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and I would like to adopt the words of the Representative from Kauai, Hanalei, and the Representative from Aina Haina and to say a few comments. Mr. Speaker, like the Representative from Aina Haina, I, too, am proud and have been privileged to sit on the Conference Committee, but also, as the Vice Chair of Energy and Environmental Protection. I'm very proud to be a part of this legislation and proud of our body to support such a thing. And I'd also like to echo the support that we've received from the community, who without their support and organizations who have kept on top of us, and informing us, and sharing their input. It really makes a difference. So, in strong support, and I thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, this is a good bill with a good beginning. I would only say that we need to remember that we need to think globally about global warming. And I say that so we're not myopic about it because just in from Bangkok is a rather shocking report. I said Bangkok where the climate treaty is going on, and not Kahaluu.

"It says that rice patties blamed as big contributor to global warming. The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change meeting this week in Bangkok concludes that rice production was a main cause of rising methane emissions in the twentieth century. Rather surprising. I'm not making this up. If those of you who read the Advertiser, this was in Wednesday's paper, yesterday. It said there is no other crop that is emitting such a large amount of methane gases. The gas is emitted through the plants or directly into the atmosphere because there is a decomposition of manure as fertilizer and other organic matter in the oxygen environment. Rising levels of methane accounts for 23% of the warming potential in the atmosphere, reports the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

"That's rather shocking, Mr. Speaker. Twenty-three per cent coming out of methane, coming out of the rice fields, and what do we all eat in this Chamber, and what do we eat in Asia? Rice fields. My point is that when we think about global warming, let us remember to think globally. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In an effort to have a little bit of balance here, I'm voting no on this measure. I see that we have joined the other European countries to join in on the Kyoto Protocol. I just wanted to share some information about that. Even as Europe preaches to the United States on the necessity to cap carbon dioxide emissions, Europe's emissions are climbing faster than those of the United States. Recent figures from the International Panel on Climate Change show that from 2000 to 2004 greenhouse gas emissions increased by 2.1% in the European Union, but only 1.3% in the United States. Neither amount is a dramatic increase, but Europe is supposed to be reducing its greenhouse gas emissions, not increasing them.

"Almost all the global warming policies have high cost and yield little benefit. The chanters of the global warming mantra want us to believe Europe is doing something and that we should be doing something, too. Indeed, Europe has done something. They have raised prices and not lowered carbon emissions. It seems like everybody in this Chamber wants to march to the music of the 'Music Man', Al Gore. And there's no question in the press, the majority of stories on global warming are talking about drastic reactions.

"I have some prepared remarks, which I would like to read. This bill would give the Department of Health ultimately sweeping new powers to regulate industry for the purpose of reducing greenhouse gases. It was a very eloquent summary of why we shouldn't be passing this bill in the May edition 2007 of Liberty Magazine. It's a rather lengthy article, so I won't try to go into all the specifics, especially since the article has the humorous subtitle, 'The planet has a problem caused by too much hot air.' And I don't believe they're referring to carbon dioxide. That's when you're supposed to laugh.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Basically, they are what might be called the narrow theory of global warming and the grand theory of global warming. The narrow theory is what is discussed in the recent report issued by the IPCC, the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change. Basically, this theory posits three fundamental hypotheses. One, the Earth's climate is warming. Two, this warming is exacerbated in part by the generation of CO2 and other human-caused greenhouse gases. Three, this warming might induce significant wide-scale ecological changes.

"Note that while the majority of climate scientists are convinced that these three hypotheses are likely true, a significant minority of scientists dissent from this view. There simply isn't complete convergence of scientific opinion on this, such as we have with the theories of gravity or the theories of evolution. In fact, the IPCC report only places an 80% confidence level on this narrow theory. A far cry from the virtual certainty that many politicians and special interest groups would have us believe exists."

Representative Finnegan rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

"But even if you are inclined to believe this narrow theory, it is a far cry from the grand theory being promulgated by the likes of Al Gore. These have 12 fundamental hypotheses. The world is warming dramatically. This warming is unlike any other warming or cooling in the history of the planet. This warming is caused almost entirely by humans' burning of fossil fuels, no talk of volcanoes. If we keep burning fossil fuels at the present rate, warming will accelerate and increase without end. The result of warming will be a huge increase in the number of ecological, meteorological disasters, which we will see in biblical proportions. These disasters will not be counterbalanced by any favorable effects of warming. Both warming and disaster will occur with such rapidity that mankind will be unable to adjust. Number eight, the process can be reversed or controlled by drastically curtailing the use of fossil fuels. Nine, the only way to do this is by drastically curtailing the use of fossil fuels. Ten, the best plan is to slash the use of fossil fuels in the United States and other countries of the developed world while leaving the less developed world, including Brazil, India and China, alone. Use of fossil fuel can be best curtailed by the exploitation of wind and solar power and by massive conservation. Twelve, whatever this will cost directly and in directly will be less than the cost of the damage wrought by continued warming.

"This grand theory, which is in the underlying theory behind the bill at hand is a wide-ranging world view that includes theories that are well beyond the purview of climate scientists. If you read the carefully hedged IPCC report, which is full of caveats and qualifications, we simply won't see such a radical, unequivocal set of statements because these hypotheses are largely speculative and not backed up by studies, Mr. Speaker. And, in fact, they are primarily statements about economics, not climate science, which the IPCC is simply unqualified to address.

"The bottom line, if the regulations on business contemplated in this bill were implemented, it would certainly greatly harm our economy and cost many people their jobs. Thus these regulations would without the slightest shadow of a doubt, fail to make any discernable impact on the global climate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with reservations. My reservations have mainly to do with whether we're going far enough, fast enough. We've known since the early 90's that there was a very real possibility that burning of carbon was changing our climate dramatically. We really should be at steps two and three now, and not be looking at step number one by year 2020, so I support the bill. A lot of good work has gone into it and I just think we need to move faster. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I ask that the words of the speaker from Kailua be entered as my own. I want to thank those that worked on this bill and I do want to just put in my own thoughts.

"I think that we've been studying the effects of global warming, I believe, from the '70s on. And a number of people were talking about this early on, so I don't know about maybe some of the '90s. But in all due respect to my good colleague, for myself, I actually took a course on environmental protection in college. And I've known that, I think that we do have to be very judicious about knowing that fossil fuels and a number of the other pollutants we put out, they have adverse effect on our environment. In the long run, I know this is probably going to cost, but in the long run, we have to take preventative measure for a healthy world.

"We cannot control what other countries do. I wish we could in particular parts of Asia. I really wish we could. However, like in most things, we can only control ourselves. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"I have prepared some remarks. I expected the Majority Leader to ask me what planet I was from, but he's left the Chamber, and I would like to read the remarks that I was going to get up in rebuttal. I mean it's hard to balance this Chamber.

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. She's not rebutting anything on this point."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, and may I ask a question of the speaker from the North Shore? What planet are you from?"

Representative Meyer: "I'm from Earth, and I sometimes wonder where the rest of you are from. I would appreciate it if I could put these …"

Speaker Say: "Yes, it could be inserted in the Journal."

Representative Meyer: "No, I would l like to read them because they add to the other remarks."

At 10:22 o'clock a.m., Representative M. Oshiro requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:22 o'clock a.m.

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I did have some additional remarks to make. I wanted to quote some scientists that are on the other side of this issue.

"Sally Baliunas an astronomer, from the Harvard-Smithsonian Center says quite simply, the recent warming trend in the surface temperatures records cannot, I repeat, cannot be caused by the increase of human-made greenhouse in the air.

"Robert Carter, a geologist from James Cook University in Australia says, the essence of the issue is this. Climate changes naturally all the time. Partly in predictable cycles and partly unpredictable. And some of the causes remain unknown.

"William Gray, a professor from Colorado State, says the small warming is likely the result of natural variations in global ocean currents and humankind has little or nothing to do with it.

"And, finally, Orrin Pilkey, a coastal geologist from Duke University says, assumption upon assumption, uncertainty upon uncertainty, and simplification upon simplification are combined to give an ultimate and inevitably shaky answer which is then scaled up to make long term predictions. The objectivity is laudable, but the fact that there are model weaknesses doesn't make the conclusions any stronger or more believable.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for giving me the opportunity to add that into the record."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as his own, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Over 30 years ago the Mauna Loa Climate Observatory first reported documented evidence of increased carbon dioxide levels in the earth's atmosphere. Since that time, the negative impact of global climate change has grown into an internationally recognized problem.

"While opponents of greenhouse gas emissions reduction efforts may argue that Hawaii's contribution of greenhouse gases to the atmosphere is nominal compared to that of other states, such as California, this should not diminish the fact that the Legislature has a responsibility to protect the fragile natural environment of this State. Indeed, the citizens of Hawaii take great pride in the beauty of our island home. It is what attracts visitors from around the world to our shores, and serves as a vital component of our cultural heritage. Moreover, should global trends continue, Hawaii will be immediately impacted as ocean levels rise and hurricanes become more severe and frequent. In this regard, I am in agreement with Vice President Al Gore and his challenge to this generation of leaders.

"Global warming has the incredible potential to adversely impact Hawaii's natural resources, environment, public health, and economy. Examples of negative impacts include rising sea levels, damage to marine ecosystems, extended drought, an increase in the spread of infectious diseases, and an increase in the severity of storms and extreme weather events. Moreover, given our remote location and the high investment in our coastal areas, Hawaii is more susceptible to being negatively impacted by climate change than other parts of the world. Consequently, climate change is not merely an environmental issue, but also an economic and health issue, with direct ties to our quality of life.

"This bill represents a measured and feasible approach to reducing greenhouse gas emissions in the State of Hawaii. This bill convenes stakeholders to develop a precise plan with an implementation timetable for emissions reduction by establishing limits for emission sources in conjunction with the employment of rules and penalties to attain reduction goals. The timeframe outlined in this bill for the careful adoption and implementation of a statewide reduction policy appropriately addresses the urgency that this issue warrants, while allowing sufficient time for the accurate collection of scientific information to establish the maximum technologically feasible and cost-effective reductions.

"This bill reflects the sentiment resonating among many of Hawaii's people. From the local surfer on the beach to the school children learning about Hawaii's watersheds in science class – an intuitive sense of responsibility to protect our island home so that it may be enjoyed by our children and our children's children.

"During the 2006 election, I was asked what issue I felt most important for us to address. I answered that global warming and the effects upon us was the most important issue we faced and must address for current and future generations. By passage of HB 226 CD1, we demonstrate our sobering recognition of the challenge facing this generation, as well as the opportunity to make the change necessary to save our future generations. I am proud to be a member of this Legislature and it is with wholehearted support that I cast my "aye" vote."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Point of information. Point of order. Where does it say in Mason's Rules that when someone is in the position to speak, when one stands to speak, that someone can call a recess, when they're in the process of speaking. Where does it say that in Mason's, Mr. Speaker? Thank you."

At 10:25 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 10:27 o'clock a.m.

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I've been informed that the custom and the practice, not the Rules of the House, supersede the Rules of the House. Sometimes, Mr. Speaker, it's rather impolite to do that. Thank you."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Ward, it has been done in the past Sessions and throughout the years I've been here. It's just trying to run this House in a much more efficient manner at this point and time."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request that the words of the speaker from Kahaluu be inserted as my own. After hearing the debate on this measure, I've been convinced to not to support this measure thanks to the speaker from Kahaluu, planet Earth. Thank you very much."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and Members, I speak in favor of this measure, and probably for the first time in my career as a legislator if you would incorporate the remarks of the Chair of EEP as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as his own, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of House Bill 226. Mr. Speaker, this piece of legislation requires the Department of Health to adopt reporting and verification of Statewide greenhouse gas emissions and to monitor and enforce compliance. This bill requires adoption of a Statewide greenhouse gas emissions limit equivalent to the Statewide greenhouse gas emissions levels in 1990 to be achieved by the year 2020. It also requires the adoption of rules to achieve the maximum technology feasible and cost-effective greenhouse gas emissions reductions and finally Mr. Speaker, this bill authorizes the adoption of market-based compliance mechanisms.

"Global climate changes caused by greenhouse gas emissions from fossil fuels have severe and perhaps irreversible effects, particularly in the State of Hawaii. We must therefore, act immediately to reduce greenhouse gas emissions if we expect to have any hope of slowing or reversing this process. We must aggressively, and I repeat Mr. Speaker, aggressively pursue a portfolio of energy efficient and renewable energy technologies.

"Carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gasses produced in Hawaii are relatively rapidly mixed into the atmosphere and, just as rapidly, contribute to a world wide problem. And because Hawaii imports all of its fossil fuels, energy use and greenhouse gas generation from crude oil production, transportation, and refining further contribute to global climate change.

"Mr. Speaker, in closing, we need to do more and do it faster in reducing greenhouse gas emissions. By doing so, it will take money, initiative, the will to do the right thing and do it right, and creative thinking. If we make the commitment, I believe we could go well beyond the 1990 figure by the year 2020.

"I urge this body, to put forth this piece of crucial legislation for the good of this State, our planet and most importantly Mr. Speaker for the future of our children. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just some brief additional remarks. The jury is already in on the science of climate change. The consensus of scientists is based on numerous peer review studies. The reports that the Representative from Kahaluu cites are usually scientists with no peer review studies in place. And all one has to do is follow the money as to who is supporting the skeptics of climate change. Most of the money can be traced back to Exxon Mobil, but a lot of the money is traced back to the oil companies. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Meyer and Sonson voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 137 and H.B. No. 90, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 90, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INSURANCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 138 and H.B. No. 899, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 899, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. This measure appropriates $450,000 for fiscal year 2007-2008 for the University of Hawaii Center for Conservation Research and Training (CCRT) for a pilot project to develop ecologically-sustainable strategies to improve soil fertility for the production of clean energy feedstocks and food crops. Dr. Kenneth Y. Kaneshiro, Dirctor of the Center for Conservation Research and Training will oversee the administration of this pilot program.

"As we all know, agriculture is an important industry in the State. The productivity of our farms is dependent on sufficient levels of available nutrients in the soil for plants to absorb. However, certain areas, especially tropical regions are nutrient deficient. Thus one of the major determining factors to a successful and sustainable agricultural industry whether for food or energy in Hawaii is an adequate and sustainable fertilizer regime.

"This pilot project will develop biomass-derived charcoal that can be used as a soil additive. The use of biomass-derived charcoal for soil nutrient enhancement will help to absorb and retain nutrients that plants need. Similar techniques have been used since ancient times and have proven to be successful. Also, because the charcoal retains the nutrients derived from fertilizer, it will minimize the need for continuous fertilizing and reduce the amount of polluted run-off entering our streams and the surrounding ocean.

"In addition to the absorption of fertilizer by the biomass-derived charcoal the process locks carbon into the charcoal and over time more and more carbon is sequestered into our soil. Thus, the measure addresses three problems at one time: (1) production of energy sustainability; (2) improving nutrient levels in Hawaii's soil, and (3) decreasing the amount of carbon greenhouse gases released into the atmosphere. "

"It is for these reasons that I ask for this Chamber's wholehearted and unanimous support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 899, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTEGRATED STRATEGIES FOR STATEWIDE FOOD AND ENERGY CROP PRODUCTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 10:30 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 709, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 810, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1115, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1170, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 932, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 104, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 531, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 226, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 90, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 899, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 139 and H.B. No. 1221, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1221, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. At present, Hawaii's egg and dairy industries are in the state of crises teetering on the brink of collapse due primarily to high cost of feed for livestock production. Local farmers have reported that the growing demand for grain by new ethanol production plants have driven the cost of feed upwards to over 30% in the last year. As a result, feed costs now comprise approximately 70% of the total production cost for these local farmers compared to only 50% for mainland farmers with dire consequences for the industry.

"In the last year alone, two egg farms and one dairy farm have gone out of business, with another egg farm and dairy farm now threatened by closure. These closures have grave consequences, grave and far-reaching consequences and implications for everyone in our State. A declining livestock industry contributes to food security issues and results in greater dependence on the continental U.S to meet food needs. Should a natural disaster, dock labor dispute or shipping problem arise, the availability of perishable food would present a major issue.

"This measure then seeks to help our farmers by creating a dairy, chicken and egg revitalization and food security program that would cover up to 60% of their feed costs. Doing so, would provide existing dairy and poultry farmers with the financial assistance they need to stabilize their operations, expand herd and flock size, and make necessary farm improvements while encouraging the continued production of fresh milk and eggs for Hawaii consumers. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I urge your support for this measure. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in the name of sustainability, I stand in strong support of this measure. And since we don't have enough infrastructure in the Leeward side, I would welcome agriculture to come to my side of the island. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support, but I do have some reservations. I think we all want to be able to buy fresh eggs. There's just no comparison between cold storage eggs and fresh eggs, but this bill, which appropriates $3 million each year of the biennium, that's $6 million, which is a lot of money in anybody's book, is a problem that's been created, I believe, because of the push to grow corn for ethanol. There's going to have to be a broad look at this because otherwise we're going to spend $10 a dozen for fresh eggs, or we'll just have to keep subsidizing this business.

"Because ethanol is subsidized, more farmers are growing corn for fuel, rather than for corn, and it's driven the price up, and we're seeing the results of this. We don't want our farmers to go out of business, but I just make the plea that we're going to have to look at a more global look because this isn't going to go away, and the amount of money that the industry will need in the future may be even more. And we can all remember what happened to sugar, when the subsidies went away. We couldn't grow it and be profitable. So anyway, that's my concern. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this measure proposes to subsidize certain farming related industries in the State. Within the past year, two egg farms and a dairy farm have gone out of business. Two other egg and dairy farms are currently threatened by closure because of the increase in the cost of production, due mainly to the rising cost of feed for livestock animals. This measure appropriates $3.0 million in general funds in both fiscal years 2007-2008 and 2008-2009 for the Agricultural Development Division of the Department of Agriculture to disburse to qualified producers of milk, pork, eggs, poultry, and beef, for the cost of feed; and to provide for the administrative costs of the Livestock Revitalization Program.

"Self-sufficiency is important to an isolated State such as ours. If these farms are allowed to close, the residents of the State will be forced to rely on and consume more and more imported goods. Mr. Speaker, dairy, poultry, beef and pork products are perishable in nature, relying on imported products creates an increased risk of food spoilage and resultant food-borne illnesses due to the fact that these products need to be shipped from overseas farms. By the time these products reach the consumer they are already a few days to a few weeks old.

"Also, Mr. Speaker, should there be a natural disaster or problems with transportation on the mainland, the State may face shortages of these essential food products. Furthermore, this measure gives the residents of the State the option to choose locally grown products and will encourage them to buy Hawaii first.

"In closing, I would also like to thank James Jim, Suzie and Mary Peterson of Peterson Upland Farm, Wahiawa for participating in the legislative process and providing important insight into Hawaii's egg industry and sharing their farming experience with us. This legislation will support local farmers like the Petersons whose farm has been in existence since 1910.

"I urge my colleagues' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1221, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 140 and H.B. No. 1211, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1211, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Waters rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Waters' written remarks are as follows:

"With respect to HB 1211, HD2, SD2, CD1, the appropriation amount and the fiscal year for same, as approved by the Finance Committee, are correctly stated in Conference Draft 1. I realize that the Judiciary has expressed serious concerns that the amount appropriated in the CD1 may not be enough to cover the additional costs for fiscal year 2007-2008 created by this measure. Even so, I have chosen to allow this measure to proceed to Final Reading rather than create a risk of non-enactment in future Legislative Sessions.

"I look forward to hearing from the Judiciary concerning further appropriation requests, if necessary, specifically and demonstrably arising from the impact of this measure after it takes effect."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I support House Bill 1211, Conference Draft 1. By raising fees for court-appointed counsel and guardians ad-litem in Family Court cases, this bill provides just compensation for those who represent indigent parents and the best interests of our children in Family Court. The current compensation and inequity in pay between counsel in Family Court and their counterparts in criminal courts does not reflect the severity and importance of Family Court cases in which children can be separated from their parents and families can be torn apart.

"There is nothing more serious than our government reaching into our homes and taking control of our families. Such serious decisions on the part of our State should rest on the most intelligent arguments and best judgment possible. By providing just compensation for counsel and guardians ad-litem, we can attract and retain dedicated and competent individuals to give the interests of families and children in our community the serious consideration they deserve."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1211, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY COURT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 141 and H.B. No. 855, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 855, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to Conference Committee Report No. 141. This bill is dealing with workers' compensation I believe the bill has two bad provisions. One provision would require that the workers' compensation coverage continue for an allegedly disabled worker even after the employer or their health insurer denies further treatment. If the worker disputes a the ruling, the coverage would only end if the Director of the Department of Labor filed a determination that the coverage should end. Not only does this give a worker the power to unilaterally ignore a medically justified determination that the worker was able to return to work, but it could result in the Director of the Department of Labor being overwhelmed by a flood of such requests resulting in healthy workers malingering for months until the Director could get around to reviewing their cases.

"The other bad provision of this bill would prevent the Director of the Department of Labor from adopting, amending or repealing rules with the Governor's concurrence. He couldn't do that unless the Legislature first approved those proposed rule changes. This would be setting a precedent that's never been done before. Directors of departments, all the departments in the State have the right to promulgate rules, but this bill singles out the Director of the Department of Labor and says, any rule changes must come before the Legislature. We are a part-time Legislature. They must wait from year to year and then bring these rules in and the rules will not be adopted unless we adopt them first. Those are my concerns and that's why I'm voting no."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I fear that this bill is really bad for business. I am in strong opposition to this measure. I won't go into detail, but basically we are hurting businesses by passing a bill which will increase cost for workers' compensation and I fear for our business climate here in Hawaii. I urge all Members to vote no. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, brief comments in support. Again, what we're forgetting here is the injured worker who is getting medical treatment, and what happens right now in the current system, Mr. Speaker, is when there's dispute, the treatment stops, even if you really are injured and should continue to get the treatments you can get better and get back to work and become a productive worker in the work force. And we're trying to correct that. And the Chair of Labor has worked hard to do that, and this bill is a step in the right direction to address that imbalance. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"I think employers are all very concerned about the medical care for their workers. They care about injured workers and we would certainly like to make sure that our injured workers receive as much care as they desire. However, our system pays out to too many people and we are unable to give, perhaps, sufficient care or adequate care to some of those that are really hurt.

"However, our system tries to address the problem and a person is able to collect Temporary Total Disability until his doctor says that the injured worker has received maximum medical improvement. Under this bill, yes, the treatment will continue, but even after a doctor has said the injured worker is ready to return to some type of work, you will have to wait until the Director of Labor convenes a hearing and that may be quite some time after the doctor says the patient is well until Temporary Total Disability will cease.

"It is an extremely difficult bill for employers to work with, to receive reimbursements for any unnecessary medical care for them, and it will increase workers' compensation premiums. So, this is why I feel that this bill should not pass. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 855, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 35 ayes to 14 noes, with Representatives Awana, Ching, Evans, Finnegan, Hanohano, Har, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Pine, Sagum, Thielen, Tokioka and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 142 and H.B. No. 833, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 833, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations on Senate Bill 833. I am concerned with the public policy precedent that we set today, should we pass this bill. The State Legislature, time and again, has reinforced this belief through the law that an employer must have the responsibility for insuring healthcare for its employees. Every business, regardless of what industry they engage in, should pay its fair share. This bill would go in direct contrast to this stalwart philosophy. We potentially open the door for other industries to seek a legislative exemption from this duty to its employees and will further erode the reputation that Hawaii has as a leader in healthcare coverage for its citizens.

"Although the promise by employers to pay their employees a higher hourly rate should this bill pass, one should not be fooled into thinking that this is an adequate substitute for their share of the health coverage lost. In the long run, the workers lose out because of the additional medical cost they have to bear. These direct support workers should not be confused with independent contractors. Why would they want to pay for their own insurance?

"If there absolutely has to be an exclusion, the carehome owners and their employees who provide care in said homes should be the only ones excluded. We should not get side tracked by the provision that exempts those who employ part-time employees because they are covered by other employers. These part-time employees are true employees and should not be treated like any other workers in the same situation. Just because these part-timers are healthcare workers should not make any difference. Health industry employers should not be given special treatment.

"Not only should we limit the exemption to carehome owners, but we should also limit the exemption to workers' compensation and TDI. Federal law requires that unemployment insurance be provided for nonprofit and government agency employees. Failure to comply with federal law could result in a penalty to the State. So contentious is this issue that whether the groups pushing for this measure should pay unemployment insurance or not, is a subject of ongoing litigation. The question should be left to the courts to decide.

"Finally, Hawaii's longstanding and historic Prepaid Healthcare Act requires that employers provide health insurance for full- and part-time employees. In the case of part-time workers, this requirement is triggered when an employee works at least 20 hours per week. Having a blanket exemption for an entire class of people by declassifying them from being employees, creates a slippery slope and threatens to erode our precious Prepaid Healthcare Act. In closing, at minimum, this bill should have a sunset date, and I ask my colleagues to think long and hard about their position on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Sonson rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson's written remarks are as follows:

"I support House Bill 833 H.D. 2 S.D. 2 C.D. 1.

"This bill clarifies and actually narrows what are already existing exemptions for Medicaid Waiver Service caregivers. Since 1978, Workers Compensation, TDI and Prepaid Health Insurance laws already exempted caregivers who provide attendant care, and day care services authorized by the department of human services under the Social Security Act. This bill narrows these exemptions by limiting it to Medicaid services performed by contractors outside the facilities of the recipient of social services payments (chore, personal assistance and habilitation, residential habilitation, supported employment, respite, and skilled nursing services).

"The exemptions were originally enacted in 1978 so that the State would not have to increase the payments for the services to cover employment benefits. The State has not increased the payments to cover employment benefits. This situation is distinguishable and fundamentally different from other businesses and industries because the patients who receive the Medicaid services cannot be charged for the services to cover the costs of employment benefits. This is not an exemption for all caregivers in the State of Hawaii. This is only an exemption for a limited number of caregivers providing specific Medicaid services, whose payments are limited to Medicaid payments from the State.

"In the future, we can always amend this law should we decide to fund the millions of dollars required to pay for the employment costs for these caregivers. The bill provides for a study of the financial impact and consequences of the exclusions so that we can accurately gauge the need to increase our Medicaid payments to fund employment benefits for caregivers.

"At this time, however, this bill provides the best solution to avoid disruption of Medicaid services and gives the State time to consider funding for employment benefits. It does this by preserving the way these caregivers have successfully conducted business for years (letters from 1990 and 1991 submitted in support of the bill show that the State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations (DLIR) recognized these caregivers as independent contractors and excluded them from employment benefits until a recent decision by the DLIR appeared to contradict those earlier decisions).

"Many caregivers affected by this bill have testified in support because they are happy with their current businesses, want to maintain their independence and do not want to be employees. Further, this bill requires caregivers to voluntarily agree in writing to be independent contractors in order to be exempt. This gives flexibility to the State and the industry to continue to use employees (where feasible) and independent contractors. These options help the State provide Medicaid services to the people who need them.

"There is no conflict between this bill and the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA). This bill specifically does not exempt any caregiver who is an employee covered by FUTA from the State Unemployment Insurance Law. Thus, there is no risk to the State's FUTA tax credit."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of House Bill 833, Conference Draft 1. This bill has been the source of much discussion this session, and I commend the Conference Chairs and Legislators who carefully considered and crafted the clarifying language for excluding recipients of social service payments from the scope of various employment related laws. However, because of concerns raised throughout the life of this bill, I support this bill and its treatment of caregivers as independent contractors to the extent that this bill limits the application of the exemption from Hawaii's Employment Security Law to individuals not covered by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill 833. Mr. Speaker, care home operators constitute an overwhelming majority of domestic care givers who receive social service payments through contracts with the Department of Human Services to provide care to our kupunas and those who are less fortunate. Although it appears under the current law that these care providers are not employees, insurance companies, state agencies, and the judiciary often confuse domestic care givers as employees.

"Mr. Speaker, the classification of domestic caregivers as employees ignores the reality of the domestic care industry. Truly, domestic caregivers contemplated in this bill operate as independent contractors by forming their own corporate entities with distinct places of businesses and no other supervision or control, except for their own expertise, and the guidelines and regulations imposed by law. Moreover Mr. Speaker, the classification of domestic care givers as employees poses a grave threat to the stability and sustainability of the domestic care industry because of the skyrocketing costs associated with their classification of employees. This issue will cause a domino effect forcing many agencies to cease to operate, many caregivers would be left without any source of income; many patients would be left without caregivers then, Mr. Speaker how do we address this domino effect. Mr. Speaker, this bill would ensure that these upheavals would be avoided, especially in light of the ever-growing demand for domestic care.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill benefits the State of Hawaii, the caregivers and patients in three ways. First, this bill benefits the State by avoiding a substantial increase in the costs of caring for mentally and physically disabled adults in Hawaii. Second, this bill enables the caregivers the flexibility to maintain and operate their independent small businesses, which flexibility, in turn, benefits the patients and lastly Mr. Speaker, this bill allows the patients to continue to receive the care they require to live in the community and not in an institution. To accomplish this, this bill clarifies the already existing employment exemptions under the Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 386 – Hawaii Workers Compensation Law, Chapter 392 – Hawaii's Temporary Disability Insurance Law and Chapter 393 – Hawaii's prepaid Health Care Law. These exemptions currently exclude caregivers from the definition of employment and allow them to operate their own businesses. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1345, HD 2, SD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

Thank you. Mr. Speaker, just in strong support of Conference Committee Report 149, H.B. 1345. This measure gives much needed, much earned relief to many worthy efforts and I just wanted to thank the conferees on this Committee, in particular, my colleague from Waimea, the Chair of Military Affairs, the Chair of Heritage Caucus. I think there's some good relief here and I'm glad that we're going to be taking care of the Big Island and a number of the other counties that are mentioned in this bill and I wanted to thank the Committee members. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with some strong reservations. Mr. Speaker, we had an opportunity at the beginning of this Session to prepare the State for natural disasters and we didn't do that. The House did its share and the Senate declined. All this bill does is to pay for what happened from the last natural disaster and does nothing to prepare us for the next one. I hope we can get something done at the next Session. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1345, HD 2, SD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN EMERGENCY APPROPRIATION FOR NATURAL DISASTERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 150 and H.B. No. 831, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 831, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure and would like also to thank this Chamber that this measure had made it this far. And I would like to share with you a little bit of history on this bill.

"During World War II, the U.S. Army recruited a lot of Filipinos to become soldiers. And after the war they negated on those promises that were made when they recruited these Filipinos. This happened until about the early 90's when Senator Inouye finally acknowledged and recognized their services. So, a lot of them could not resist the temptation to come and see this land of opportunity. But when they got here, they found that they were destitute. They did not have medical coverage, and they were too old to seek employment.

"So, this measure provides for burial expenses for them and for them to be able to be sent home to their native homes with a little bit of subsidy from the State. And with that, I'm grateful that this bill had made it this far. Thank you all."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. In strong support. I would like written comments into the Journal, however, just to explain what this does as far as finances goes. I do know how much it costs to bring a body back to the Philippines. The bill limits it for each person to about $2,000. So about ten people will take advantage of this particular funding.

"When my father died a few months ago, before he died his last request was that he wanted to be buried home in the Philippines. I think that's an important thing that we need to know. For lack for a better word, it's a value that the Filipinos, who came to Hawaii, have always expressed to their children. They want to be buried where they were born, and as far as my father was, he wanted to be buried in our homeland. We actually have a little farm land in the Philippines and he wanted to be buried there with my mother.

"The reason I mention that is because it costs about $8,000 for a body to be shipped to the Philippines. The money that we are providing here is only a partial. I am in support and I really thank the Legislature for providing this subsidy to the Filipino veterans who were actually forced to come here on their last legs because they were hoping that they too can take advantage of the American dream that was promised to them a long time ago.

"However, they really didn't want to come here. They were already too old. They wanted to come here just to lobby us, lobby their representatives in their states, wherever they go, and also lobby the Congress to have a parity law and, hopefully, that this year our delegation will be successful in passing this parity law in Congress.

"This money will really help them to go back home and be buried with their loved ones and their families to the land in which they love. And this will be probably a continuing support if we do so feel like that, if we feel compassion for these individuals who want to be returned home. And hopefully, next year or the following year, until such time as they all return home, we can continue our support. Thank you very much."

Representative Sonson's written remarks are as follows:

"I support House Bill 831 H.D. 2 S.D. 1 C.D. 1. This measure assists Filipino veterans and their families by requiring that the Office of Veteran's Services facilitate the transport of the veteran's body to the Philippines for burial by paying directly to a mortuary or crematory the cost of funeral and burial services and for transporting the veteran's remains to the Philippines.

"Filipino WWII veterans made great sacrifices during the war and enabled the United States to achieve victory in the Pacific theater. The wishes of these veterans and their families should be respected and the State has an interest in supporting their cause. This measure will allow Filipino veterans to return to their homeland and receive the burial they justly deserve."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. And I just want to say that while I share some of the concerns of the good Representative from Waipahu. I think this bill is very worthwhile in that it recognizes the efforts of the brave men and women who fought along side of the U.S. soldiers in the Philippines, and whom without which I don't think we would have had our freedom in that theater. Thank you."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of Conference Committee Report 150: HB 831, HD2, SD1, CD1: A Bill For an Act Relating to Veteran Burial Grants.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill finally pays respect to Filipino veterans who fought for the United State of America in World War II, and at the time of their death, were United States citizens and residents of the State of Hawaii, who wished to be buried in their homeland.

"This bill is long over due, and hopefully, there are still Filipino veterans who might benefit from this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support of this measure. I think this is a good step, a beginning step, to pay the debt of those who have paid our debt. It is a pleasure to support such a bill. Thank you

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On the same measure, in strong support, with written comments in the Journal. I would like to thank the Legislative body for taking a look at this measure because this is one of many that we need to assist our veterans right now as they age. For us, we are the fruits of all the labors they did in the past, but, again, I would like to thank the Chambers on both sides for supporting this measure. Thank you."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of House Bill 831.

"Mr. Speaker, House bill 831 addresses end of life issues, whether the cause of death is cancer or other circumstances, this issue is of the utmost importance in social moral issues. This bill is crucial for our aging Filipino World War II veterans who do not have the financial resources or relatives to make the needed end of life arrangements.

"Mr. Speaker, before my time, Filipinos have placed themselves in harm's way in the line of duty on behalf of the American people during World War II, and yet they had their veterans' benefits rescinded in 1946 by the U.S. Government. This bill provides financial resources for eligible veterans who have unfortunately passed away in destitution with no family members in Hawaii to have their remains be transported back to the Philippines for burial and final reunification with their families.

"Mr. Speaker, on behalf of those who lost their loved ones, I speak before this body with compassion to advocate for full equity for Filipino World War II Veterans. This bill would support a Filipino Scout like Mr. Rudolfo Ramos who unfortunately passed away in November 2006 and others; they risk their lives in aiding American forces in the Philippines. In many instances, due to the lack of finances, and no next of kin in Hawaii, and with our prohibitive immigration and visa policies relatives from the Philippines are still unable or have a very difficult task of entering the United States to transport their remains back to the Philippines for proper burial.

"Mr. Speaker, passage of House Bill 831 would go a long way to bring judicial closure and dignity to U.S. Filipino Veterans who had been stripped of the rights and privileges afforded to all other allied troops who had fought on behalf of the United States in World War II. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 831, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERAN BURIAL GRANTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

No. 24, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TEACHERS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 153 and H.B. No. 1171, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1171, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Nakasone being excused.

At 10:55 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 1572, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1569, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1568, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1345, HD 2, SD 3, CD 1
H.B. No. 831, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 24, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1171, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 154 and H.B. No. 19, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 19, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition of this bill. Actually, in Conference Committee I voted straight yes on this bill and had a chance to review it and the history of this bill. Previously, this House Bill 19 was to establish the Facilities Alignment Commission, something I was very strongly in support of. What we have experienced over the years, is the same amount of children, way back when until now, and I think this was at least within 20 years ago until now, we've had he same amount of children attending schools.

"And what the Facilities Alignment Commission was to do was to analyze all of this information, and it was a really good bill, and then basically recommend where we may consider closing some schools and also consider areas to build and construct new schools, or expand existing schools. And taking a look at this bill now, it talks about school impact fees and how we can recommend and work with the DOE to build new schools.

"The problem that I have with this particular bill now is that it still does not address doing an analysis of schools that are operating that maybe should not be operating due to economies of scale and not having enough students in that area. What happens is it doesn't assist, in my opinion, the moving forward of Act 51's weighted student formula. I think that there should be a balance that we take a look at not only closing some of the schools, but also expanding in other areas. This is for efficiency and effectiveness, Mr. Speaker.

"So, I will be voting no in hopes that we will also address the other part of this. Nobody wants to talk about that issue of closing down possibly some schools, but I've talked to some teachers, I've talked to teachers at schools that have very small numbers, and some of those schools, not all, but some of those schools maybe should be considered for closing. Thank you.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. It may be true that we have the same number of children in public schools right now, but let's not forget that one of the problems that we are now facing is overcrowding in our schools. I believe that building more schools, especially the communities that are growing and sprawling is in good intentions. We need to fix what's broken and overcrowding is one of the broken things in public schools. And funding them through impacts fees is the best way to do it.

"If you remember, Mr. Speaker, we don't have enough State dollars to build infrastructure and we don't want to raise taxes either. So therefore, we need to look into the private sector to help us build the schools, especially, the communities where developers go and build a lot of homes. So, I believe that this measure is in good taste and we should all support it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. Let me respond to the points made by the Minority Leader and her 'apples and oranges' comparison. This bill actually did have two parts to it as it left the House. The impact fees actually, as Members know, impact fees have been assigned to developers for decades, frankly, so this is nothing new. What this bill does, however, is give a sense of uniformity and lets the developers know what is expected of them.

"In the past, with impact fees, it was a 'catch-can' system. The developer did not have any kind of expectation of what that impact fee would be. This bill puts everybody on the same level playing field and lets developers know what fees will be assessed prior to the project being built.

"As far as the second point about realigning our schools and so on. As you know, Mr. Speaker, I've introduced bills the past two Sessions that would do precisely that because I believe that the Board of Education has not moved on this issue. Frankly, I do believe that the Board should be doing this. I don't believe in micromanaging the system, but when they fail to take action on this, bills were introduced last year and this year.

"However, the Board is taking action They've created an Ad Hoc Committee chaired by Board member Breene Harimoto that will do precisely what the Minority Leader talked about in what the bill that I introduced purports to do, and that is take a holistic view of the entire physical inventory of the department, decide which schools may be consolidated, which schools should be expanded given the property that they have, and again, working with developers and the community to figure out what's the best way we can make the most efficient and effective use of our school facilities. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. I'd like to first incorporate the words of the Chairman of the Committee on Education as if they were my own. I'd like to also address the concerns raised by the Minority Leader and just mention this. First of all, I agree with her concerns. In fact, as the Chairman of the Education Committee, already mentioned there have been numerous measures proposed in the past two years. In fact, I've co-introduced the measure from last year. That's not to say, though, that this particular bill that we're looking at right now should not be supported. It is an 'apple and oranges' thing. I do support the apple, I do support the Board of Education focusing its efforts and making determination of how they're going to proceed to close schools down should the need arise, number one.

"Number two, I also support the mandates in this bill which calls for an impact fees for schools. I really feel for new developments across the State. And I understand the concerns of our colleague from Ewa because when you take a look at these new developments, especially the ones over the last decade, we understand very well that these communities, these new communities, don't have the adequate education facilities and infrastructure necessary for those particular communities. Hence, and thus, the reason for this particular measure.

"I've talked to numerous developers over the years because I've supported this effort ten years ago. I told them that however difficult it is to implement the school impact fee would be alleviated on the selling of these units if they tell these prospective buyers that one of the things that they're doing as a developer working with the State is to assure that when you come into a certain community, a new community, that these particular communities will have the school facilities and infrastructure and will be ready to accept kids. I think this is a win-win for everyone. I think it is a win for the State, the Department of Education. I think it's a win for the developers, and I especially think it's a win for these new homeowners in the future. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much. I wish to speak for this measure with some reservations. I admit that as the Chairman of Education stated that impact fees has long been used and this will merely to set parameters so that the contractors will know and the developers will know what the impact fees are going to be. That is good.

"However, we cannot treat this impact fees in a cavalier manner because the impact fees affect the cost of the homes. And as you've been reading just recently, the cost of residences, because you don't have an adequate supply of homes, is continuing to rise. It makes it more difficult for the young people, first-time homebuyers, to purchase a home. It gets worse every day. And these impact fees will not help.

"And, so, I can only state that as we go ahead with our good ideals, we should remember the other side of the coin. Whatever we do has a consequence. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. As a Representative of a community that struggles with chronic overcrowding for 25 years, I support this bill and I'd like the words of the Chair of Education to be inserted in the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered. (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. With all due respect to my good colleague from Wailuku, to put a provincial twist on the whole bill and situation, we're one of these communities where the growth of the developments is outstripping the resources. As you look at the budget, you can see we're putting $32 million into a new school, into our area. A school that's way over needed, and that's coming out of everybody's pockets.

"When I was walking door to door in these new communities, I asked these homeowners, these young families, 'Would you be willing to pay a little extra to have a school ready to go for your kids with the proper amenities, infrastructure, and quality, air conditioning that is expected of a school?' I didn't hear a single homeowner say no. Especially with the fact that they have to drive their kids to an overcrowded school, no air conditioning, and bad playground equipment, where the learning environment is very, very, contrary. It's almost oppressive to them.

"So, you know, I do understand and can appreciate the speaker from Wailuku's concerns about the raising of the prices of homes, but you look at where these communities are growing at such a rate that if we don't do something to put the schools in first and the infrastructure in first, we're just going to keep slipping and sliding downwards and our quality of life is going to continue to slip and slide downwards. And I think that's what everybody wants, is quality of life, especially when it comes to education. Thank you, sir."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you. Just a few more comments, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. First of all, I'd like to continue the analogy of 'apples and oranges'. Yes, I do believe that I'm talking apples, and I do believe that I'm also talking oranges. But these things don't operate independently in and of itself. They belong in a fruit basket and they affect each other. And, so that's why I wanted to make sure that we brought up the discussion as a whole.

"If I could also adopt Speaker Emeritus' comments as well, because I take impact fees seriously. When we talk about development, we are straddling two issues and that's education and housing. I'm not saying do not do impact fees. I'm saying when we do it, and how we do it is very important. And I think that it says that in this measure, as well. But we are straddling two very, very important issues and we should be mindful of that.

"And the last comment, I'm glad that the Board took it upon themselves after introduction of a bill to do a Facilities Alignment Commission two years in a row. I'm glad they're taking it up on their own now. And that's probably what needed to happen is legislation from the Capitol in order for them to actually consider this because it is a difficult issue. But I do also have reservations on the way that the Board and the Department of Education have done things in the past. So, instead of, I was considering changing my vote to a vote with reservations, I will hold to a no just so that we can make a statement that this is a very important part of the whole fruit basket. Thank you."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support, Mr. Speaker. As the Representative from the fastest growing district in the State of Hawaii, it is so frustrating for me to hear the Minority Leader speak out against this measure. Every day new homes are being added, particularly, on the Leeward Coast, and this body knows that I will continue to advocate for the Leeward Coast arduously because I feel so strongly about this issue.

"Over the next 15 or 20 years, there will be 50,000 more homes added to the Leeward Coast. In particular, there is one development, 11,700 new homes will be added to Kapolei-Ewa Beach. So to put things into perspective, there are approximately 11,000 homes in Mililani alone. So a new city will be added into the area of Kapolei-Ewa Beach. My point is that we need to continue to build the infrastructure and infrastructure includes new schools.

"As I walked door to door, I shared the same concerns as the Representative from Lahaina did. My constituents are so frustrated. I have the newest schools in the State of Hawaii, yet, they are already overcrowded. Overcrowding is a problem. It impacts a student's achievement and we must continue to find the resources that this State needs in order to build new schools for our residents, for our communities, for our growing communities.

"Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support. I also ask that the words of the Chair of Education be adopted as my own, as well of the words of the speaker from Lahaina and the speaker from Aiea. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with some very strong reservations. And I agree with my colleague from Wailuku. We keep talking about affordable housing, but we don't look at the cost drivers. Developers don't pay for it, do they? Everything gets passed on to the buyer. The buyer pays taxes, the developer pays taxes, and if we don't have enough sense in our budgets to provide for the necessary schools and good schools, then we're not doing our job. That's all."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Souki and Herkes be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Just a few comments. Still in support, Mr. Speaker. I would like to pick up on what the Representative from the Big Island said about impact fees, that all the developers do is pass it on to the consumers, to the buyers. That's so true, Mr. Speaker. And, in a way, I'm opposed to that.

"The impact fees should be absorbed by the developers, but it should come from the profit margin of the developers, and I think that we should go back next year and put in a definition for impact fees. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, in my district we will be facing a huge, two huge housing developments, Koa Ridge and Gentry Waiawa. And some of the comments earlier stating the impact fees are going to be passed on. I agree. It will be passed on. It's an issue of fairness, Mr. Speaker. I'm not a pro-developer, but I think it needs to be, the cost of everything needs to be spread out equally.

"The concern that I have is our current Department of Education has had a problem putting up schools quickly and efficiently and this will help. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I don't appreciate that we are taking all this time on this measure when there's so many other important measures, but housing is an important measure. We have a terrible situation with the homeless. It's growing every day because they can't afford to buy a home. They can't afford even to get into an apartment. It's so expensive. And government is part of the reason for all of this because we keep on passing on the cost. There's not enough homes to be built.

"And let me tell you about these homes that's been built on the Leeward area. These homes were approved by the respective counties. They're going to have a windfall of the property taxes by the 15,000 homes that are going to be built there. The State had nothing to do with it. Maybe we should re-look at the whole situation and have a law to provide that the counties will provide a rebate on their property taxes to assist the schools to be built. And maybe it's not a far-fetched idea because they become the passive winners in the property tax and in earning an income, and we become the cost drivers. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in inspiration from the previous speaker from Maui because he's actually reaffirming what I think the Minority Leader said about the relationship between 'apples and oranges' being in the same basket because he really brings up the big point of education …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I don't believe he said whether he's in support."

Representative Ward, continued, stating:

"I am speaking in favor."

At 11:15 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:15 o'clock a.m.

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Yes, in support. My point of inspiration was that if we don't see the link between what we're putting in education and what we're getting out, we miss the opportunity that so much is growing now in our private education industry. I was told by the previous Chair of Education that Hawaii's teachers have more per capita children in private schools than any other state in the union.

"We want to build schools, but the people want quality schools. They want quality education. And I think with these impact fees, which is going to bump housing up, it shows how that drain from the economics of housing going into education is very worthwhile if we get our money's worth. I think that's where the apples bump up against the oranges. The oranges squeeze and they put the apples together. We got some kind of a fruit juice here that I think we have to understand the economics of.

"Because in Hawaii, as in any other place in the United States, education is the great equalizer. That's how we lower the differences between the people in Hawaii. That's how we raise up people from poverty, from ignorance, and allow them to become somebody, to do something, to have their dreams realized. But as long as the education is not producing, I can see why realtors and others would say, why should we 'shake down', as it used to be called, the developers to build schools, if in effect the schools aren't producing what they are supposed to be doing.

"So, Mr. Speaker, the apples and the oranges is a very great analogy and we've got to increase educational excellence, otherwise, all we're doing is taxing and taxing and passing on these things without any results. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support, but with the same reservations that the Transportation Chair from Maui expressed. Mr. Speaker, I would really encourage the Chair of Housing and the Chair of Finance to work with the Transportation Chair on his idea about looking at the way that the counties should participate in this.

"He was a former Finance Chair, he certainly understands the financial implications and when the county gets a windfall and we are hitting the developer, forcing the developers to raise the cost of housing, preventing young families from getting in to their first home, we're not doing it in the right way. I think he may have a really excellent answer and I hope we will pursue this, this coming Session. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 19, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Finnegan and Meyer voting no and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 155 and H.B. No. 1003, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1003, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support and I do have some very serious reservations about this measure if I may speak. Mr. Speaker, this bill has good parts. It establishes the Hawaii Natural Energy Institute at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. That's very positive. And it says that the Institute, this new Institute at U.H., shall develop renewable sources of energy for power generation. So far, good.

"However, you go to Part 3 of the bill, and you'll see what the primary focus and objective of this new Institute will be, and that's to develop a Hawaii Renewable Biofuels Program to manage this State's transition to energy self-sufficiency and it's based on biofuels for power generation, looking at biofuels as a significant renewable energy resource. And it goes on, promotion of Hawaii's biofuel resources to potential partners and investors for development in Hawaii, as well as for export purposes. So, not only will we be creating a biofuels industry here to serve Hawaii, but we will be creating it to export to other countries.

"If you take a look at the conflicts with our water resources, and you realize that biofuels will not achieve the objective of energy self-sufficiency. The crops will use agricultural land and water. Both of those resources should be used to produce food for local consumption. We can use solar, wind, and wave for our renewable energy resources, our renewable energy needs. We can use our agricultural land to grow local crops for local consumption.

"I'm opposed to this, what I believe is a misguided approach saying that biofuels will be the savior for Hawaii's energy needs. I think we really need to look at this seriously, rethink it, and keep our ag land for food, crops, so local people can buy local. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. I rise with reservations. And I appreciate that the former speaker pointed out the issue of water and, so that's why I stand with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Just some brief comments in rebuttal, even though the speaker was in support. Just for the edification of members, the Hawaii Natural Energy Institute is not a new Institute. That Institute was formed in 1978 through Session Laws and all we're doing is codifying that section.

"Secondly, I just want to address the issue of biofuels. There's no one magic solution that will be the energy savior for our State. It will take a multi-prong approach in addressing our energy issues. Biofuels could be one of the near term solutions in addressing our energy situation. For example, existing power plants may be able to transition into biodiesel where we can easily use our old infrastructure by using a renewable fuel.

"But one of the things that this bill will address is a bio-energy master plan. How do we get there? How do we make sure that our need for food security isn't overshadowed by our desire for energy security? It's balancing those kinds of needs and, so, I don't want to 'diss', or have anybody 'diss' the approach to looking at biofuels and bio-energy as a bad potential for Hawaii, but as one of the many approaches and strategies that we have to thoroughly investigate to take us to energy independence and security. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen later rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, before you call for a vote on this page, I would like to correct one statement that I made. It relates to Conference Committee Report 155, the biofuel industry bill. On further reflection, I find I cannot vote in favor of that measure. I don't think that is the right way to go. I think we've got to develop our true renewable energy resources and we need to save our agricultural land and our water for agricultural crops. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1003, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENERGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 157 and H.B. No. 55, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 55, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. The purpose of this measure is to establish a statewide youth suicide early intervention and prevention program. Mr. Speaker, more youth die from suicide each year than from cancer, heart disease, AIDS, birth defect, stroke, chronic lung disease combined. In Hawaii, suicide is the second leading cause of death among persons age 15 to 24.

"The first step of prevention of suicide is to identify the warning signs. Knowledge and education about suicide is an essential component in preventing suicides. Comments such as, 'I hate myself,' or 'Soon the pain will be gone,' or 'I want to sleep and never wake up,' may sound like a common gripe or it might even sound like a joke. But those that go through this program and are taught by these coordinators will know that this could be the first sign of a suicide or suicide attempt.

"In fact, they will also look at the person, and these are other factors may indicate that the person is contemplating suicide: their lack of energy, the person is angry for no apparent reason, appears to be confused. They also look at the environment. Does the person have problems at school? Is there a history of family violence? Was there a recent break up in a relationship? Remember, not a single factor, but all these factors together may indicate a pattern. And what I'm touching on is just the tip of the iceberg of what the program and the coordinators will teach.

"The benefit will be to the number of people taking the courses, such as law enforcement personnel, healthcare providers, educators, parents, youth, youth advocates, and many other private and public organizations. Mr. Speaker, this will not only help prevent youth suicide, but it will also help prevent suicide in our adult population as well. For those reasons, I humbly ask that Members of our body support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of this measure. I think this is a good start. I'm disappointed in that this bill has no money in it and that it authorizes, but does not mandate the Department of Health to establish and operate a statewide youth suicide, early intervention and prevention program. But just the fact that it's passing is a good beginning.

"I think that this is a problem that is not publicized very much. When a young person dies, the paper doesn't say they died at their own hand. But with the large problem that we have with drugs, ice addiction, and addiction to other drugs, I think it happens more often than we know. And it's such a devastating thing to happen in any family. I hope that next year we'll put some money in this. And I also hope that the Department of Health will start on this even though they have no additional funding. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in strong support. Mr. Speaker, as a clinician who actually has worked with this type of population since 1990, we have seen the effects of young future leaders having depressed moods, suicide idealizations, and even actually, when I worked at the hospital, dealt with individuals who have attempted to hurt themselves. All I have to say is, it's about time. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose on a point of information, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I did want to note a point of clarification. The financial component was taken out of the bill during Conference, but it is in the budget. That's one of the reasons why that financial component was taken out of the bill. This program is budgeted. It does have monies. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Manahan rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Yamane be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. I'm very pleased we've moved something forward. It's an issue that's been here, I think for several years, the last maybe three or four years that I'm aware of. And we finally get a bill out that is really addressing, which is, I think, a frightening statistic when we look at the number of suicide for youth in Hawaii. We need to continue working on this issue. With the stress that our young people are looking at, potentially maybe even looking at war, the war that's going overseas, obviously, mental health issues that we see on the rise. I can't understate that we have to keep this issue moving forward even next year, and the years coming forward. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Also, in strong support. As a wife of an ER physician, it's unfortunate, but I have heard of the incidences that come through and it is as my colleague from Waimea said, it's alarming in Hawaii. So I'm glad to see that we're moving something through.

"I also wanted to add that creating nurturing communities is an important part of looking at this issue. The youth of today have such challenges and the culture that they're faced with, the contemporary culture, maybe does not lend itself always to a nurturing community. And so efforts in creating nurturing communities, I would hope, is something that we should look at and we don't have hospitable communities that encourages children to know that there are people who can help them out there. That they are wanted. They're welcomed. That there are other support networks if they think that their narrow environment does not provide one. This is why it is important to have nurturing communities because it affects our youth. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 55, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO YOUTH SUICIDE PREVENTION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 158 and H.B. No. 807, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 807, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Also in support. The purpose of this measure is to formally establish the Office of Long Term Care Ombudsman within the Executive Office on Aging. Mr. Speaker, we already have 48 states in our nation that have an office on long term care ombudsman, so, I believe it's time to have this Office established in statute.

"Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, we have about 230,000 kupuna in our State, and as you know, that's the fastest growing segment of our population. This measure will ensure that the Office of Long Term Care Ombudsman will provide information and review the health and safety welfare of our kupuna and I would also like to ask for permission to insert additional comments in the Journal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support of this measure, Mr. Speaker, HB 807. The purpose of this measure is to formally establish an Office of the Long Term Care Ombudsman within the Executive Office on Aging. Mr. Speaker, we already have 48 states in our nation that have an office of a long term care ombudsman and I believe that it is high time that we create our own office of an ombudsman to protect the interests of our kupuna.

"We have more than 230,000 older adults who comprise the population our State. No other part of the population is growing up as rapidly as the age sixty and older group with the number of frail elders who are age 85 and older expected to double up in the next 30 years. Given this figures we have a task to prepare for this aging revolution.

"Creating an Office of the Long Term Care Ombudsman will ensure that the health, safety, welfare of our residents of long term care facilities is not compromised and subjected to abuse by some unscrupulous caregivers who take advantage of the vulnerability of our elders. For this Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this measure."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservation on this matter. I do realize that there is a place in the long term care facilities for an ombudsman. But the ombudsmen may act as policeman in these types of facilities. They are there to monitor the facilities, as well as the patients within. And I believe that this function is now being handled by the Department of Health.

"And let me also remind you and the Chamber that the reason why we don't have long term care facilities now, a lot of them have closed down, and we are now sending our kupuna to the mainland, is because of overregulation.

"I just went to a meeting a couple of weeks ago here in this building called for by the carehome industry complaining about over-regulation and over-visitation. An ombudsman would go and visit these facilities as well. It's well intended. However, I think that it's a side step to the wrong direction. A lot of the patients or residents, we call it, to long term care facilities being nursing homes or carehomes, expect to be treated in a certain way. And I would venture to say, they think they're going to a three star facility in which everything is provided for. And maybe they are entitled for those types of treatment. However, we, as a State, are only willing to pay so much. So whoever own these facilities have to make do with whatever payment they receive.

"Let me just remind this Chamber that this year, we allocated $20 more to their rate per patient. And I think that if we are going to go and offer all the representation that these residents have and be given all the opportunity and make demands on what they rightfully deserve, that we should also be in cadence in protecting these providers. I thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in support. I just want to address some of the comments that were made by the prior speaker. There are approximately 500 carehomes in the State of Hawaii. And I think what happens is this becomes a balancing test. We're looking at overregulation versus policing, I wouldn't even call it policing, versus insuring that the health, safety and welfare of our kupuna are being taken care of.

"In this situation, the Office of Long Term Ombudsman would do everything that that office needs to do to insure safety is preserved for our kupuna, so, I am an advocate for care home operators, but I think that the health and safety more for our kupuna should come first. And, I'll tell you, many of the care home operators too, will say that is true.

"The problems with care home operators aren't much. You only see a few situations where they're mistreating their patients or the clients. So by far and large, most care home operators do a great job, outstanding job. And so again, if you're thinking about over-regulation, I wouldn't use those words. I would probably say, rather, to ensure the safety of our kupuna. Thank you. Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of House Bill 807, Conference Draft 1. This bill formally establishes an Office of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman within the Executive Office on Aging. This office is critical because it provides a voice for our growing elderly population.

"It is becoming increasingly important to provide this voice and protections for our aging citizens today. As the baby boomers begin to retire in the next decade, there will be a dramatic increase in demand for long-term care facilities. Without established protections, potential abuse of our elderly could go unchecked. This bill demonstrates our commitment to look after the health, safety, welfare, and rights of our elderly population."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"In support with some reservations. First, the Ombudsman's responsibility as listed in the bill do not really address the true source of neglect and abuse. If we are really concerned about our kupuna, the Ombudsman should not focus on long term care providers as stated in the bill. Rather, where statistically where it's shown in data, that most of the abuse is really outside of the facilities. That's a fact.

"Also, on page 4 regarding what the Ombudsman's duties are and qualifications, etc., it does say that they should have expertise and experience in the fields of long term care and advocacy. I don't know exactly what is meant, but I hope it would mean that the Ombudsman would at least have an opportunity to work at a long term care facility first, so that such a person who has police powers, as contemplated in this bill, would know what is required, what the issues are in the care of kupuna.

"I think this is a good step. We should feel good that we have, we will show the public that we are creating laws that will protect kupuna. But I think that as we proceed, we have to ensure that these individuals, ombudsmen, as we call them, if they are to be given police powers, we have to ensure that they also will not cause this industry, which is fragile, low paid, and yet performing a very, very important job for our State in the care of kupuna who aren't able to care for themselves. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson later rose, stating:

"Thank you, Speaker. On Stand. Com. Report 158, Relating to Care Giving. I'd like to change my vote from a yes, to a no. On page 2 of this bill, it has actually a misdemeanor charge, and so I will insert comments in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sonson's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in opposition to House Bill 807 H.D. 1 S.D. 2 C.D. 1. This bill imposes overly harsh penalties based on vague standards, to be enforced by a new authority without proper experience or qualifications. H.B. 807 prohibits "willful interference" with or impeding of the long-term care ombudsman, and makes this violation a misdemeanor. However, this bill is written in such a way as to encompass an overly broad range of potential actions that could be classified as a violation. Furthermore, that a person may be found guilty of a misdemeanor based on the actions of a new "Office of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman" is troubling because the proposed new Office does not have the experience nor training to adequately address potential conflict situations. Such enforcement powers are better entrusted to existing authorities."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 807, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAREGIVING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Sonson voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 159 and H.B. No. 843, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 843, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On this measure, I stand in strong support. Closing Kahuku Hospital would have put the people on the North Shore in grave and serious jeopardy. This is about saving lives. And with this measure, Kahuku Hospital's condition has improved dramatically from critical to stable condition, and is well on its way to a healthy recovery.

"This is a long ordeal that we have on this measure, and I really appreciate the community and everybody else involved in it because with that information, with that statement made back in November that this hospital was going to be closing by the end of the year 2006, it brought the community together. Not only legislators, but we had people in all different areas coming to talk to us. This measure is part two of a long ordeal that we have to save it.

"And in the health industries, there are a lot of challenges that we have and, hopefully, as we move forward in approving this measure, the Kahuku Hospital will stand its ground.

"I would also like to thank the money Committees on both the House and the Senate, and also the Health Committees for their long work in pursing this, and all the community people that were involved. It was a long, arduous measure that we need to take a look at because with this industry, as we move forward, in the health industry, as we discussed today on other measures on the Floor, the number one crisis that we have right now is reimbursement for the health industry. And hopefully, that as we further go on, that we can support, and hopefully, put more money into what we have. As we grow older, I know we just finished talking about the bill about kupuna, but for us, as we get older, we have to take a look to health.

"But again, on this measure, I stand in strong support as my colleagues. Thank you very much. And also, we will continue whatever we can do. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support on this measure. I want to thank all the Members in this Chamber for supporting the efforts to save Kahuku Hospital. We wouldn't be here today and the hospital would not be open now unless the people here would hear the problem and support the efforts of the community.

"It was a very gratifying experience working with the Representative from Haleiwa and the Senator from my district, meeting with the community and executives from Kahuku Hospital, and working with the Governor and the Executive Branch, the Director of the Department of Health that were all extremely supportive . So again, a big mahalo to everyone in this Chamber and the Senate Chamber. Thank you very much."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. As someone who has had many families saved at Kahuku Hospital, I do want to thank the Chamber and especially, of course, our Representative from Kahaluu who really got on all of us right away as soon as she heard that there were problems and called the Governor and the Department of Health to commit to save Kahuku Hospital, and of course, our great Representative from the North Shore, as well, for all their hard work. I think this is one of the really great things that we have done this Session."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative Magaoay be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish to speak in favor of this measure, however, I want to alert the members on a situation on an island where you have only one hospital. And you have the far reaches from Hana to Kipahulu to Lahaina and Ulupalakua to go to that one hospital especially when you have an emergency. The results are usually catastrophic.

"So all I can request of this body, as the years go by and more requests come to this body for more assistance, that we look to an island that has only one hospital, and I would hope you would look favorably at that request as it comes along. Thank you very much."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support and I won't dwell on the fact that I'm looking forward to having the people on the North Shore experience the management by HHSC, but I think that the Department of Health should take a good hard look at just what a lot of these rural facilities should be. Should Kahuku Hospital, for example, be like the Ka'u facility, which is a rural health clinic with some longterm care and an emergency room.

"And one of the best things that happened to Maui and the Big Island was the threat of closing Kahuku Hospital, because then maybe the people on this island understand the distances that those of us in the rural areas live with, like my colleague from Wailuku said. For example, this is from the Ka'u facility, the Hilo Hospital is the same as it is from Lanai City to Queen's Hospital. So you want to take about distances.

"I think we need to take a good hard look at how we service these rural areas. The Representative from Kona and I have been working for some years in trying to get more mobile clinics so we can cover these rural areas. These 40-foot vans are the complete facilities. They can be driven to wherever the problems are, and so I hope the Department of Health takes a good hard look not only at Kahuku Hospital, but the entire rural areas. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Magaoay and Souki be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 843, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAHUKU HOSPITAL," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 160 and H.B. No. 1477, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1477, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just very brief comments in support. This is a very good thing that we've done. This is one piece of many to help improve the status of heathcare in the State of Hawaii. This $4 million appropriation over the next two years is being spent on residency programs to train family practice physicians and in that capacity will be expanding to Hilo to expand again the training creation of primary care physicians. This piece of work force development is fundamental to increasing the access to healthcare in the State of Hawaii. So I think we've done a very good thing, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just brief comments in support, Mr. Speaker. I just would like to add that our Chair on Health did his residency in an underserved area, and he had been operating in an underserved area since then. So I think this is a good way to recruit doctors to the underserved area. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. And I wish to comment that this is a significant piece of moving forward on the issue of workforce development. I think one of the problems we're having with doctors in Hawaii is they're reaching retirement age. So again, the 'baby boomer' generation is looking to retire, and the cost of doing business in Hawaii, the stress of the amount of hours that our physicians work is they're considering retirement. It's just so stressful. So workforce development is going to be a key issue even in the healthcare industry, so I really appreciate this work and we have more to do. Thank you."

At 11:46 o'clock a.m., Representative Sonson requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:48 o'clock a.m., with the Speaker presiding.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Conference Committee Report No. 160. I'd like to just adopt the words of the speaker from Kailua-Kona as my own. And also I just want to thank my good friend and sparring partner, the Chairman of Health, for all his hard work on this measure because it's very important in insuring that we have doctors available, especially on the neighbor islands."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. This Legislature has, once again, shown its commitment and dedication to improving healthcare for the citizens of Hawaii. The measure before us goes further by providing much needed help to the rural areas across the State.

"With the money appropriated by the Legislature, $1.5 million in FY08, and $2.5 million in FY09, the Family Medicine Residency Program, in the John A. Burns School of Medicine and a demonstration project currently underway at the Hilo Medical Center, will be strengthened and stabilized.

"This will eventually allow for the expansion of the demonstration projects into fully accredited rural training sites, thereby possibly gaining eligibility to receive Federal CMS (Medicare) Graduate Medical Education funding.

"Mr. Speaker, given the nature of funding this type of graduate education training, this accreditation will go far in drastically improving the quality and availability of healthcare to rural areas.

"This measure demonstrates the obligation and responsibility to the people of this State that this Legislature has when it comes to providing quality healthcare to the citizens. A critical need, the need for more physicians and better access to health services in the rural areas, has been addressed by this measure. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill provides funds to support the existing Family Practice Residency Program of the UH Medical School, and also to support expansion of the program to the Neighbor Islands. This program is important to our State because it is the Family Practice physician who provides much of the primary health care for our people. There is need to support training at facilities both on Oahu and the Neighbor Islands.

"Wahiawa General Hospital has been the site of the Family Practice Residency Program for several years. It is the intent of the Legislature that some monies from this bill will be used to lighten the burden this places on Wahiawa General Hospital for support of the program. I urge the Members' support."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in support of House bill 1477.

"Mr. Speaker, the primary healthcare services are extremely strained in many areas of Hawaii. A physician work force shortage in rural Oahu and all of Hawaii's neighbor islands has reached crises proportions. Population growth, an aging health workforce, and a heavy burden of chronic illness all conspire to worsen this situation in many rural areas. The physician shortage is also exacerbated because physicians who live on Neighbor Islands are leaving.

"House Bill 1477 seeks to stabilize the current fully accredited residency program at Wahiawa General Hospital while developing a statewide primary care training model. This bill is not intended to study the problem, but instead to take immediate steps to create a viable primary care pipeline and improve healthcare access in rural areas.

"Mr. Speaker, the current financial uncertainties at Wahiawa General Hospital have created an unstable environment for the residency program. For several years, Wahiawa General has not been able to cover the full costs of the training program. As this is the only civilian Family Medicine program in the State and as healthcare access worsens, it is essential that the program not be allowed to falter. A stable base program is essential to the development of a state-wide primary care training vision. The residency program at Wahiawa General Hospital provides significant clinical services to the people of Central Oahu and the North Shore. The proposed funding would allow the residency program to continue for the next two years while transition plans are being developed with Wahiawa General Hospital and with the John A Burns School of Medicine.

"The stabilization of the residency program through this piece of legislation positively affects Wahiawa General Hospital, sustains the healthcare delivery services in Central Oahu and the North Shore, promotes primary care, and insures that the planned Hilo residency program continues.

"Mr. Speaker, family physicians are ideally suited for rural healthcare. The family physician is trained in primary care, mental health services, maternity care, general pediatric care, adult healthcare, geriatric care, home visit, and is comfortable in the hospital or outpatient settings. Family physicians form the foundation for a primary care network which supports an environment for sub-specialist physicians to work in a cost-efficient manner. The investment of the State of Hawaii to promote and develop the rural training tracks for family physicians is a suitable method of addressing Hawaii's primary care physician shortage. During the time the resident physicians are in training, they will be providing a significant primary healthcare workforce for that community.

"Mr. Speaker, this matter deserves everyone's full attention. It is critical in insuring that rural areas acquire and maintain an adequate primary care physician work force. Failure to fund this bill may result in the loss of the only Family Medicine Residency Program in the State and will worsen access to healthcare. It is essential to develop a primary care workforce pipeline for a sustainable supply of physicians to staff our community health centers, rural hospitals, and improve access to healthcare for the people of our State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support. This measure is a collaborative effort with the University of Hawaii and the rural communities. As a Representative from a rural community, this bill will help many who are in need of medical assistance. Hopefully many clinicians will enjoy working in a rural setting and eventually move into these areas where work opportunities are in high demand.

"In addition, I appreciate all of the hard work and effort from both the House and Senate to finalizing this important measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1477, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RURAL PRIMARY HEALTH CARE TRAINING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 11:51 o'clock a.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 19, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1003, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 55, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 807, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 843, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1

LATE INTRODUCTIONS

The following late introductions were made to the members of the House:

Representative Mizuno introduced from members of the Farrington High School, T-Shirt Theater: Frankie Amano, Mark Cabico, Honey Grace Gementiza, Jessica Jardinaso, Cleo Mariano; and directors, Mr. George Kon, Mr. Clayton Tom.

Representative Manahan further recognized the Alliance for Drama Education, and presented the Farrington High School T-Shirt Theater who then gave a short performance.

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members of the House, the Chair would like to share with you that we have three Members that will be leaving this Chamber at about 2:00 to 2:30. The Senate has just one page left on their Order of the Day and I thought we would try to control our speeches on the Floor this morning.

"We have seven pages more to go and I am not going to deny any debate on the Floor of this House, but I would like to run it as efficiently as possible because after the original Order of the Day, we also have our yellow Action Sheets to contend with, and also a Supplemental Calendar #1. So, if it is possible, the last Floor Amendment that was filed on this House floor on Tuesday was at 1:59. At 12:25, the Chair will call a recess to break for lunch and also to allow Members of the House to attend a press conference if you folks are invited to that particular press conference.

"I'm just proposing it to the Chamber if you want to speak on the Floor, be my guest. If you want to insert written comments for or against, be my guest, also. But there are deadlines that I have to meet in regards to the members that are leaving at 2:00 to 2:30. And there are three Members that are leaving."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 161 and H.B. No. 367, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 367, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, we know that the abuse of alcohol and drugs in our State is too high. We also know that screening, counseling and referral for those who are abusing are effective techniques in reducing such abuse. One way to help the abuse rate is by ensuring that a referral to appropriate alcohol and drug abuse screening and counseling is offered to a patient when an examining physician in a primary care or emergency room setting has good reason to suspect substance abuse by the patient.

"This initial point of contact in a medical setting is a recognized window of opportunity where patients are most vulnerable and open to intervention and dialogue that address their underlying alcohol or drug issues. It is at this "teachable moment" that individuals can benefit from assessment, education, counseling, or, if necessary, referral to treatment.

"This evidence-based, cost-effective program is recognized as a best practice model by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, an agency of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

Mr. Speaker, by investing in treatment we will reduce our incarceration rate and therefore reduce the cost to the State in the long-term. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 367, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUBSTANCE ABUSE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 162 and H.B. No. 1368, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1368, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL FACILITIES SPECIAL FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 163 and H.B. No. 1220, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1220, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of HB 1220 HD1 SD2 CD1. Broadly speaking, this measure would provide a much-needed fund for the marketing of Hawaii's ag products through the Seal of Quality Program. If a robust, diversified ag industry is to be sustained in Hawaii, we must ensure that the quality of those products is synonymous with Hawaii. The Seal of Quality program accomplishes this task by differentiating, establishing, and certifying locally-produced products through the use of a highly identifiable brand that differentiates those products in the current competitive marketplace.

"For that reason, implementing a special fund to collect revenue from the program would allow it to become self-sufficient and revenue-neutral, thereby contributing greatly to the program's longevity and sustainability without placing a burden on public funds. The value and tangible benefits of such a program are manifold: ranging from protecting the "Hawaii" marketing cachet to validating its authenticity to ensure high quality products and food safety compliance. Given these far-reaching benefits, I urge you to join me, then, in supporting HB 1220 HD1 SD2 CD1."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1220, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL MARKETING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 164 and H.B. No. 400, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 400, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support of HB 400 HD1 SD2 CD1. This measure seeks to combat the adverse effects of drought on our local ag and livestock industries. Although rainfall appears abundant today, our watersheds continue to make up for sustained and ongoing periods of drought that have plagued our state annually, resulting in very large fluctuations in water availability that have negatively impacted our farms.

"HB 400 would provide much-needed funding to implement the Hawaii drought plan, water infrastructure policies, and county water management strategies that were developed in 2004, but which have yet to be put into action due to a lack of resources. These preventive measures would help to safeguard not only our general water supply, but also our local commerce, environment, public health, and overall safety as well.

"In sum, the time to prepare for a drought is not as it occurs, but before it occurs. Taking action at this time is therefore prudent, necessary, and most sensible. For these reasons, I urge you to join me in support of HB 400."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 400, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 165 and H.B. No. 399, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 399, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in favor of this legislation. As you know, the purpose of this bill is to appropriate funds for the operation of our soil and water conservation districts. There are 16 such districts around the State and each is important in its own right.

"Soil and water conservation is extremely critical on all of our islands and is especially critical in my district in Windward Oahu. Water rights have long been an issue in the Koolauloa district. Conservation of water and soil is a daily concern for farmers and community residents alike.

"These soil and water conservation districts play an extremely important role for the members of our agricultural community. I'm proud to stand up for this important appropriation and hope the Legislature and the Executive Branch have the foresight to continue this important funding. Thank you."

Representative Tsuji rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tsuji's written remarks are as follows:

"This measure seeks to allocate funds to the Hawaii Association of Conservation Districts (HACD), comprised of 16 Soil and Water Conservation Districts. The sole purpose of these districts is to educate, construct, maintain, and assist in the development of conservation plans to protect our soil and precious water resources.

"At present, the HACD is notably under-funded to carry out the myriad of important functions they provide to the State's ag industry. The resulting strains on staffing, office expenses, training, and so forth, have made it exceedingly difficult for the district conservation officials to carry out their duties.

"Additional funding is therefore necessary to help fund and maintain resources to sustain current and future operations. For these reasons, I urge my colleagues to join me in support of HB 399."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 399, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 166 and H.B. No. 1435, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1435, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of this bill. This bill continues the Legislature's support of the Honolulu Symphony as it progresses into the 21st Century. The Honolulu Symphony was founded in 1900 and lays claim to the distinction of being one of the oldest symphonies west of the Rocky Mountains. The Honolulu Symphony's benefactors – besides the audience – are the children of Hawaii.

"With the demands of No-Child-Left-Behind requirements, music programs throughout the nation have taken a back seat to core educational programs, such as English, math, and science. The Symphony provides an opportunity for Hawaii's children to listen and experience music through its youth concerts and chamber ensemble performances.

"The Honolulu Symphony has established itself as one of Hawaii's most prominent and recognizable cultural, educational, and entertainment organizations by keep true to its mission to enhance the quality of life of the people of Hawaii by sustaining a symphony orchestra of the highest artistic quality.

"This bill clarifies the Legislature's intent to provide matching funds for the Honolulu Symphony that encourages donors to pledge financial support. Mr. Speaker, as you may recall, last year the Legislature passed H.B. 3235, which became Act 97, Session Laws of Hawaii. Act 97 appropriated $4,000,000 to be deposited into the State of Hawaii endowment fund, from which the income and capital gains shall be used for the production of music by an Oahu based symphony orchestra, provided that the funds appropriated are matched, dollar for dollar, by private funds.

"In an Opinion Letter, however, the Attorney General (AG) called into question the Legislative intent of Act 97 as to what was to be considered as a dollar for dollar match. With the Legislative intent ambiguous, the Attorney General construed the statute in its ordinary and popular sense, and determined that it was reasonable to require the matching funds to be limited to only third party cash contributions. Thus, pledges and other similar promises of monetary contributions were not recognized. On the other hand, the Attorney General also recognized that another rule of statutory construction known as pari materia, would result in a different conclusion and opinion. By applying pari materia rule of statutory construction, the Attorney General construed that Act 97's matching private funds requirements to include the types of funds specified in HRS §40-88 (b).

"Thus, given that there is more than one possible interpretation of Act 97's matching fund requirement, the Attorney General suggested clarifying language to carry out the Legislative intent of Act 97. This bill contains the clarifying language as reviewed and endorsed by the Attorney General's office and is expected to cure any ambiguity that may have affected Act 97. Additionally, the bill will extend the $4,000,000 appropriation another two years to June 30, 2009.

"Finally, I would be remise if I did not express my appreciation for the diligence and tenacity of Mrs. A.Q. McElrath whose fervor and passion for the Honolulu Symphony knows no bounds, but deserves all regard and recognition for this bill. For these reasons, I urge my colleagues to support this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support for the symphony funding."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1435, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE OF HAWAII ENDOWMENT FUND," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

No. 575, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCIES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram and Herkes being excused.

At 12:01 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 367, HD 1, SD 3, CD 1
H.B. No. 1368, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1220, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 400, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 399, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1435, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 575, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 168 and H.B. No. 1866, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1866, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I vote with reservations on Conf. Com. Rep. No. 168. Basically, it has to do with using the CRF, the Compliance Resolution Fund, as the initial funding measure or appropriation and had some real strong reservations on that."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1866, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MIXED MARTIAL ARTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 169 and H.B. No. 1719, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1719, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 170 and H.B. No. 1352, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1352, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thanks, Mr. Speaker. I just have some reservations on this measure and I just wanted to say that I hope the Commissioners appointed as a result of this legislation will have sufficient historic perspective and good sense to appreciate the significance of Iolani Palace and look elsewhere for a focal point for the 50th anniversary celebration. And I have additional written remarks."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I have some reservations regarding House Bill 1352. In lending my support to the establishment of a commission to plan and coordinate our 50th anniversary observance, I urge certain cautions. It is my hope that the Commission will be charged to carry out its mandate with the utmost sensitivity and respect for the culture and traditions of our Native Hawaiian people.

"I am aware that among the Hawaiian community itself, there is a variety of opinions and feelings regarding Statehood, ranging from total acceptance to outright rejection. The sentiments expressed by protesters at last year's Statehood ceremonies at Iolani Palace represent one strong and important point of view on this wide spectrum.

"I would hope the Commissioners, appointed as a result of this legislation, will have sufficient historic perspective and good sense to appreciate the significance of the Iolani palace … and look elsewhere for a focal point for the 50th Anniversary Celebration.

"One way to ensure that the Hawaiian perspective receives proper attention is to see that Native Hawaiians are adequately represented on the 25-member Commission. The inclusion of OHA as one of the four institutional participants, along with Tourism, Culture and the Arts & the Military, is a good, but token, start. Hopefully, those charged with appointing the other 21 Commissioners will see that Hawaiians are included in that number. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1352, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT ESTABLISHING A COMMISSION TO PLAN FOR THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF HAWAII STATEHOOD," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 171 and S.B. No. 1718, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1718, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against the issuance of a special purpose revenue bond for BlueEarth, the biodiesel operation. Mr. Speaker, there are several reasons why I oppose this. Number one, I believe it's premature. To my knowledge, this company, which is registered at, I believe, in Nevada, still hasn't filed its registration forms and given the information they need to give to Hawaii, to the DCCA, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs.

"The other reason is I support renewal of agriculture, support agriculture for food crops and I am concerned with going ahead with the biodiesel as the answer to Hawaii's energy needs.

"The third thing is, there is evidently this BlueEarth is going to have a partnership with Maui Electric, which is a subsidiary of Hawaiian Electric Company. And Hawaiian Electric has looked at biodiesel as the way to get it out of the problem of it failing to develop true renewable energy sources. Hawaiian Electric on Oahu uses 93% fossil fuel. It's now saying, 'Let us build another power plant and King's "X" we will run it on biodiesel'. And I say to Hawaiian Electric, 'Why don't you go out and develop the true renewable energy sources, which Hawaii is blessed with.' We have abundance of wind, solar, and certainly the wave energy. So I think that this is premature and not the good way to use our SPRBs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, this is an opportunity for us to put our money where our mouth is when we say we we're dependent upon imported oil. We don't have enough sustainability in terms of our energy. We're polluting the environment and all the arguments that have been put forward towards us getting more energy efficient and this biodiesel is one opportunity to do that. In fact, to put 60% of our sugar and ag lands that are empty and growing weeds into productive purposes, and I would remind the speaker of Kailua that the biggest problem with American agriculture is overproduction, not underproduction. We have enough land to grow food. Every country has enough land to grow food. It's overproduction. That's the biggest problem of hunger in this country, as well as the world.

"But let's make no mistake. This is a test for HECO, Hawaiian Electric. They are the partners. They are the ones we are going to be watching. They are the ones who are going to deliver on this and lest we malign who they are in agreement with, I think the test of the pudding is going to be in the eating. Can they produce at what presumably is going to be very reasonable rates? Can they produce electricity?

"So the bottom line, Mr. Speaker, rather than saying spend billions of dollars and send them out to sea or to capture the wind, which eventually, we will, let's give them a chance to fight this battle on land, and give them the opportunity by giving them a break with these SPRBs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I would like the comments of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as if they were my own.

"And for the edification of the Members, the land parcels to which this would occur is basically growing weeds. There's nothing there but rocks and weeds. This will provide much needed jobs for our ILWU workers, many of whom are being displaced from the closing of the pineapple factory. And also this will provide basically a way for us to stop shipping crude oil to Maui from the Middle East where our people are dying, and to get off the grid and to be energy self-sufficient.

"So while I do appreciate the concerns of food production and such, I think this is a very good project and I would like to publicly thank the Chair of EEP for all her hard work and her clarity and vision on this issue. Thank you."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of this measure. I'd like to incorporate the words that I spoke on this bill during Third Reading and adopt the words of the speaker from Lahaina, except the part where he talked about me," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. We hear about importing oil. We'll stop importing oil. Of course, when this bill was moving through the House, it was importing palm oil from Southeast Asia and if it is built anytime soon, it will continue to import palm oil from Southeast Asia because that's where most of it is grown. What's the difference between sending dollars out for petroleum or sending dollars out for palm oil?

"I feel like this is a little bit premature. There is a biodiesel factory on Maui that does a true recycle. They take fat that French fries and chickens are in and they recycle it into biodiesel. So those are my reservations on this. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in rebuttal. First off, I don't remember ever a palm oil spill killing wildlife. Second of all, I don't remember a war being conducted for palm oil. Third of all, this is just temporary to bring the …"

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"What does this have to do with anything?"

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Meyer, you're out of order. Representative McKelvey, please proceed in your rebuttal."

Representative McKelvey continued, stating:

"Third of all, this is just temporary until we can get local feed stock production up on-line. So anyways, that's just my point."

Representative Morita rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a couple of items for the edification of the Members. The issue of imported palm oil is speculative at this point. The opponents of this measure are saying that they're going to use imported palm oil from Indonesia, but that was never stated by the proponent of the bill.

"Secondly, all palm oil is not bad palm oil. There is a possibility of rainforest being destroyed for the cultivation of palm oil. But there also palm oil being cultivated not from destroyed rainforest areas. The proponent of this bill stated that the initial feed stock may come from American oil crops and itself.

"So there's a lot of speculation going on about what the feed stock is. This is a 'chicken or egg' thing. In order to get local production of biocrops going, we may have to import feed stock to capture the market early. And all of these have to be discussed and there's a lot of due diligence that has to be done before we see this project."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with a slight reservation. And I do think that there is an issue of getting the fuel that's going to be needed to create electricity. In my travels to Southeast Asia on the front page, they were talking about the new industry, blossoming industry of biofuels and they definitely will be cutting down rainforests to put in the plant material that will be needed for creating this electricity. They had a certain crop that's not palm trees. There was another crop, I can't remember the name of it, that they're going to be planting. They say it burns really, really hot and efficient, and they were seeing this as a new commodity. So, I just wanted to point that out. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Also, in strong support. And in support of palm oil, if I may mention a couple of things. One is there's a proviso, at least it's suggested in the bill that they will not be using palm oil, even though it doesn't say it specifically. The point is to use locally grown ag based kinds of fuels.

"Secondly, I appreciate the speaker from Kauai mentioning not all palm oil is bad. I have personal experience of two years of living in a village of ex-headhunters planting palm oil which saved their lives. They were able to plant, sell, and, in fact, become independent individuals in North Borneo.

"Also, because of the tradition of the losing of rainforests, reforestation is alive and well in Southeast Asia. I don't understand why some people in this country think that people in Southeast Asia are ignorant of ecological agriculture and the otherwise wellbeing of their land. Mr. Speaker, this has been for years and years been the case. And to malign people who have been hungry in the past, and this was many, many years ago when I was in that village, to do something that gives them sustenance and sustainability I think is a misplaced emphasis on this environmental reception. So let's give them a chance on Maui. Let's see what they can do. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Evans be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1718, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS FOR ELECTRICAL GENERATION ON THE ISLAND OF MAUI," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Finnegan, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1614, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support. This measure will appropriate funding for the implementation for a new Human Resource Management Model at Waianae High School and its feeder schools to confront the teacher retention problem at the Waianae schools. If successful, this program will allow the DOE school system to recruit highly qualified teachers systemwide. In addition, human resource goals will include: the establishment of clear expectations to teacher performance, professional development with career focused opportunities and an induction program to acclimate new teachers to the area.

"In closing, this proposal is vital for the Waianae Coast. It will help to recruit and provide highly qualified teachers who will improve the education of the school system and increase the opportunity for students to achieve their dreams. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1614, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 12:13 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 1866, HD 3, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1719, HD 1, SD 1, CD 1
H.B. No. 1352, HD 1, SD 2, CD 1

S.B. No. 688, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 1614, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 175 and S.B. No. 1820, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1820, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support and I would like to thank the Chair of Education for taking an idea that I brought to him four years ago that we worked on together and making sure that that it moved forward through this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1820, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 177 and S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I support Senate Bill 1133, Conference Draft 1 with some reservations. By not allowing the temporary tax increase of $1 on rental motor vehicles to sunset as the original 1999 law provides, this bill maintains the projected and much needed $14,000,000 revenue stream into the State highway fund. However, I think that in fairness to the rental motor vehicle or U-drive industry which has carried the burden of this temporary tax, measures must be taken to ensure adequacy of the State highway fund by looking at all revenue sources. My hope is that the joint Senate and House taskforce will find a fair and equitable resolution to this matter of adequately funding our highways."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"This measure extends the sunset date of the rental motor vehicle surcharge tax, keeping it at $3 per day. The rate that it has been at since 1999. This will allow the State Highway Fund to retain about $14 million per year.

"Recognizing the importance of this matter, a joint taskforce of the House and Senate will be formed to examine the various funding sources for the Highway Fund. The Legislature, through this joint taskforce, will be in a better position to decide if the rental motor vehicle surcharge should be modified, made permanent, extended, or repealed.

"The condition of the roads and highways of the State remain as one of the top concerns of the general public. With repairs and renovations needed and the onset of the City and County of Honolulu's mass transit project, it may not be prudent to take monies away from the State highway fund at this time. A study done by the taskforce will help to clear the uncertainties."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1133, SD 3, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 4 noes, with Representatives Berg, Brower, Pine and Thielen voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 178 and S.B. No. 600, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 600, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Members, I believe that if this measure is passed by the Legislature this Session, it will have gone to great lengths in promoting the conversion of leasehold land to fee simple. It'll have a major impact in helping individuals and families to keep their homes for generations to come. And I believe this will be at a reasonable cost.

"This measure sunsets in five years. The Department of Taxation estimates that this measure has a potential loss revenue of $900,000 each year. On the plus side, though, we pick up the conveyance taxes from the units sold. So I know that a lot of people in this room have some concerns about this measure, but I think there's the greatest concern, and that's the potential for more homelessness without this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative Brower be entered in the Journal as her own, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I support Senate Bill 600, Conference Draft 1. This bill provides an incentive to landowners to voluntarily convert their leasehold interests in condominiums, cooperatives, or planned unit developments during a five-year time period. Because these sales of leased fee interests are to associations of apartment owners or residential cooperative corporations, this bill is intended to assist residential lessees. Despite concerns about State revenue loss, I believe that overall this bill is an effective and targeted policy tool that encourages landowners to voluntarily sell their interests and allow residential lessees to acquire fee simple home ownership."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support, and very briefly, just to point out, this is primarily intended for the 'mom and pop', small owner, those who have bought and built maybe a three, four story and who, without some incentives. And I commend this body for taking the entrepreneurial incentive to task here, and giving them a chance to sell off to enhance ownership.

"Mr. Speaker, we are only 57% owners, the rest are renters. The mainland is about 70%, so we need bills like this. We need to get home ownership to the people of Hawaii. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. I just want a short rebuttal. A 'mom and pop' store of a two story walk up with four units, at a conservative $300,000 per unit, is $2.4 million. That's a millionaire. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a small rebuttal on the question on the lease to fee conversion. Mr. Speaker, who in Hawaii does not have a mortgage? When you sell, you pay."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 600, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEASEHOLD CONVERSION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 180 and S.B. No. 1922, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1922, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support. In recent years, we have passed tax incentives to help attract more film and creative media projects in Hawaii. However, what is the use of having film and creative media projects in Hawaii if the people of Hawaii cannot be a part of it? Therefore, importantly, we supported the inception of the Academy of Creative Media at the University of Hawaii to help prepare our students to become a significant part of Hawaii's film and digital media industry. The Academy is playing a huge role in making sure Hawaii has its share of filmmakers, screen writers, computer graphic designers, and computer game programmers.

"In spite of its success, the Academy for Creative Media is without a central facility or permanent home on any campus and does not receive any funding for programmatic needs outside of faculty salaries. Senate Bill 1922 authorizes the Academy for Creative Media to designate the existing public broadcasting system (PBS Hawaii) facility and a studio located on the University of Hawaii at Manoa campus as an interim home and appropriates $2,870,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008 and $2,000,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2008-2009 for the equipment and installation suitable for the Academy for Creative Media programs, costs associated with handicapped compliance, and common area spaces of the PBS Hawaii facility and studio.

"In addition, we recognize that Hawaii's music industry is an established segment of Hawaii's creative media industries sector, with a growing popularity reaching far beyond the shores of our island state. Full recognition of the merits of Hawaiian music came in 2005 when the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences announced the creation of a Hawaiian music category in its annual Grammy Awards, the world's most prestigious music awards program.

"While Hawaii has an unusually high concentration of raw musical talent and industry professionals, it lacks the technical support infrastructure to assist individuals in the progression of their careers and businesses.

"Thus, Senate Bill 1922 also establishes a music and enterprise learning experience program at the University of Hawaii-Honolulu Community College to develop the technical business skills required by Hawaii's music artists and music industry.

"There is established at the University of Hawaii-Honolulu Community College campus the music and enterprise learning experience program to expand the existing industry capacity, and to create new technological, intercultural, and genre-bending forms of music through creativity and professional business expertise. The program will be developed around artist creativity, entertainment business expertise, and technical production skills.

"The program will collaborate with Belmont University of Nashville, Tennessee, on the joint use of Belmont's curriculum, technical facilities and equipment specifications, training, dual credit course offerings, and will also offer internships in some of the most varied music environments in the world.

"The program will be seeded through a Title III Developing Institutions grant that has been awarded to Honolulu Community College native Hawaiian center, and will provide for some basic program development of course offerings in coordination with Belmont University of Nashville, Tennessee.

"The bill appropriates out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $150,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008 and the same sum or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2008-2009 to carry out the purposes of leasing, operating, and maintaining a music and entertainment business training center. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1922, SD 2, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CREATIVE MEDIA," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

No. 1670, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INGENUITY CHARTER," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 6 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine and Ward voting no and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 12:19 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

No. 1083, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 185 and H.B. No. 1659, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1659, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

Mr. Speaker, one of the most important obligations of this legislative body is to provide accountability for how taxpayer money is spent. The importance with which we should regard this responsibility is reflected in the purpose and provisions of this bill.

"This bill is a mechanism to create greater transparency and accountability by ensuring that funds solicited by government to cover the costs and expenses of state-sponsored trips and other activities to generate business opportunities and goodwill for the State are expended fairly and openly and subject to competitive procedures.

"With a more accurate mechanism to quantify if taxpayer money is being expended in an appropriate manner, government officials and agencies will achieve a greater understanding of the intent, outcome, and effectiveness of their policy decisions. Practices which obscure the entities sponsoring state activities, for example, has the potential to create the harmful and dangerous perception that government is willfully hiding something from the public. Such ambiguity is misaligned with what should be the Legislature's goal of reaching a greater level of fiscal responsibility.

"I urge my colleagues to support this bill."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I am in strong opposition to this measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1659, HD 2, SD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Thielen and Ward voting no and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 188 and H.B. No. 777, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 777, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I just want to thank the Chair of the Higher Education Committee, as well as his counterpart in the Senate for expanding the Hawaii Educator Loan Program and I request permission to enter written comments into the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support on CCR 188, HB 777, HD2, SD 2, CD1.

"Mr. Speaker, in 2001, the Legislature enacted the Hawaii Educator Loan Program ("HELP") to deal with recruitment and retention of public school teachers. HELP was a recommendation made by the National Commission on Teaching and America's Future Hawaii Policy Group that was comprised of a comprehensive group of Hawaii's educational stakeholders including the Representatives from Kaneohe and Aiea, the then Chair and Vice Chair of the Education Committee in the House, respectively, and the Senator from Salt Lake, Chair of the Education Committee in the Senate. I was privileged to work with the NCTAF Hawaii Policy Group as an aide to the Chair of the policy group, Lt. Governor Mazie Hirono, and therefore have a vested interest in this measure.

"HELP is a loan forgiveness program administered by the University of Hawaii College of Education which allows any student who attends the UH COE and receives a degree in education and then teaches in the Department of Education for six consecutive years, to have his or her loan forgiven. In 2001, when the Hawaii Educator Loan Program was enacted, the Legislature appropriated $100,000 to this measure which successfully recruited 23 students who are now teaching in the DOE.

"While the Hawaii Educator Loan Program has proven itself successful, the State unfortunately continues to experience a teacher shortage particularly in hard-to-fill positions such as in rural area schools. HB777 HD2 SD2 CD1 now addresses these hard-to-fill positions by expanding the Hawaii Educator Loan Program to apply to students who teach in our rural area schools.

"Our Legislature this year has appropriated $250,000 to this measure and I want to thank the Chair of Higher Education and the Senate Education Chair for championing HB 777 this Session, which clearly demonstrates our State's commitment to recruiting qualified teachers to address the teacher shortage we are facing in our public schools. Accordingly, I stand in strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Brief comments. When we started this program, I think it was the year 2000, and the NCTAF Hawaii group, National Commission on Teaching and America's Future Hawaii group, led by then Lieutenant Governor Mazie Hirono initiated this. I'm just happy today to see that we're moving forward on this because I think the first time we funded it was for $100,000 in 2000. And for many years now, it has sat there unfunded.

"So I congratulate and commend the introducer of this measure and I look forward to seeing more appropriations in the future for this particular program."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 777, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII EDUCATOR LOAN PROGRAM," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, Hawaii has more than 6,000 people behind bars – with more than 1,900 serving their sentences abroad. It is estimated that there are 6,665 children who have parents incarcerated within our system. Research shows that children of incarcerated parents suffer strong emotional reactions and are up to six times more likely to become a part of the criminal justice system themselves.

Mr. Speaker, this bill seeks to help reduce those numbers. This program supports the expansion of parent-child interaction programs such as the SKIP program at Waiawa to other State correctional facilities and institutions to facilitate appropriate child visitation of incarcerated parents. These programs strengthen family relationships and have a positive effect on preventing recidivism. In the words of one of the supporters of a similar bill:

> This program is such a valuable and important resource for families of incarcerated parents. It gives them hope and an opportunity to become functioning, loving, nurturing fathers, mothers and/or parents. It empowers people and families who are at rock bottom and believe the only alternative left to them is hurt and pain and to lash out at others. It is a lifeline, to better, secure, loving relationships. It empowers families and communities, and society.

"I urge all of my colleagues to vote in favor of this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1174, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCARCERATED PARENTS," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 193 and S.B. No. 613, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 613, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 194 and S.B. No. 885, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 885, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 195 and S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in strong support. I did just want to highlight a couple things. But before I do that, may I have a ruling on a potential conflict? Both my children go to charter schools," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Thank you. I just wanted to thank both the Senator from my area, as well as, the Chair of Education on this bill. The Charter Schools have since its origination has had really difficult time in operation and this bill really does go very, very far to help with the governance, to help with issues of funding. I just wanted to really thank our Education Chair for working so hard on this bill. He has been able to work with the Charter School community and I believe that they really feel heard through this bill passing in the way that it's passing. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I just want to vote with reservations on this one here. I have some concerns with the progress of the Charter Schools in their governance. What we are creating is a two-tiered school system within the public school system, and I believe in time it's going to provide some major problems with the school system as it moves along with an independent policy making board other than the Board of Education and the Legislature. In fact, it becomes a three-tiered situation, so I do have some concerns with this. I think we moved ahead too rapidly on this particular measure. Thank you very much."

Representative Chong rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Souki be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just one short comment in regards to the previous speaker. We actually have moved quite slowly in regards to responding to the Charter School needs, but that's just another day, and another story. But one thing that I really regret not saying is, and now I am saying is, thank you very much to the Chair of Finance for also his support in this measure, as well as in the budget. And of course, without his support, without his taking a look and listening, being able to hear what the Charter Schools were saying, that we would not be able to be in another year where these Charter Schools can still survive. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support. This bill goes a long way towards supporting the Charter Schools."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In very strong support. If it wasn't for Charter Schools, in some areas of my district, there wouldn't be any schools at all."

Representative Souki rose to respond, stating:

'Yes, Mr. Speaker, again, I speak with strong reservations on this measure. I don't know if a lot of the members here realize, some years back we had an English standard and the regular school system within the Board of Education. For those who were privileged, they went to the English standard school, and for those who weren't, they just go to the plain public school system. This is the area that we seem to be going to where we have Charter Schools that provide, not for the equality of the school system that the Board originally was created for, that every school will have a similar method of education that no one would be better than the other.

"Now with this Charter School, you have a whole diverse situation where some of the Charter Schools have the parents and the expertise where they can rise above the other students. Whether this is good in some areas where the community will benefit, mostly it's in the communities where they can afford it. The more affluent communities will be the beneficiaries of this program, rather than those communities of more modest means. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, since the establishment of the Charter School Review Panel last year, the Charter School Administrative Office, charter schools, and other members of the community have highlighted the need to clarify the appropriate relationship between and among the Panel, Board of Education, Charter School Administrative Office's Executive Director, and charter schools. This bill responds to that need and provides clarifications and alterations of roles and responsibilities of these parties. Specifically, one provision entrusts the duties of issuing and revoking charters, currently responsibilities of the Board of Education, to the Charter School Review Panel. This measure endows charter schools with greater autonomy and provides a mechanism for charter schools to carry out a more effective and streamlined administration.

"Additionally, this bill contains a provision requiring the most recently-approved executive budget recommendations for the DOE to be used as the basis for the Charter School Administration Office's annual budget request. This will assure that the appropriate base is applied to the calculation of the funding that charter schools should receive. Although a proper base is identified in this bill, the issue of how to calculate funding still remains. The Administration and the Board of Education need to address this issue in a fair and equitable manner."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"As the Chair stated, the Chair will call a recess to allow some of the Members to go to their press conference. There is lunch for all of you in the parlor adjacent to the Majority Caucus Room.

"Let me say this, the last Senate bill with a Floor Amendment was filed at 1:59 p.m. on Tuesday. Please understand that. So, no matter what happens, we will have to stay here until after 2:00. But I would like to get all of these things done on behalf of three of our colleagues, who will be leaving. That's why the Chair was trying to facilitate the discussion.

"So, at this time, we will recess and reconvene at 1:15 to take up all of the other measures on pages 10, 11, 12, and 13."

At 12:30 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:25 o'clock p.m.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 196 and S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of Senate Bill 1917, Conference Draft 1. For too many of our families, homelessness and the inability to afford the price of rent or a home are problems that demand our attention as legislators. This Session began with many ideas, and, as a legislative body, we are and have to remain committed to finding solutions to the problem of affordable housing and affordable rentals.

"This bill, however, is a good demonstration of our commitment. For example, by extending the 50% allocation of the conveyance tax into the Rental Housing Trust Fund for one more year, we are setting aside monies into a fund that benefits those individuals and families with incomes at or below 30%, 100%, or 140% of the median family income. Equally important are the Legislature's appropriation of $14,000,000 from the Rental Housing Trust Fund for the planning, development, and construction of affordable housing, and another $6,000,000 from general revenues to homeless shelters and services. As one of many steps to solving the homeless and affordable housing crises facing many our residents, this is an important and critical step for this Legislature to take."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mahalo very much to everyone on the money Committees for passing this very important bill for housing, giving $6 million for homeless causes, and also extending the Rental Housing Trust Fund's share the conveyance tax of 50% for another year. And that's going to generate about $14 million into the Rental Housing Trust Fund. So, mahalo. This will be a very good thing for the homeless. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservation. One comment. Some of those funds will be used for the elevators, which are not going to be repaired because of the budget cuts which we spoke about yesterday, and that's in need of repair. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"Sorry. Just in brief response. There is $5 million that was a CIP allocated for the elevator repair and $20 million to HPHA in general for repair and maintenance. So hopefully, a lot of the concerns that have been raised will be addressed with our CIP and other budget items"

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just to clarify. The Governor specifically asked for $15 million, specifically, for repairs of elevators, which were in such bad condition. HUD, and the Justice Department were sending warnings out to fix these elevators for these poor public housing conditions, otherwise, stairwells are going to have to be used. Thank you."

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this measure. The homeless crisis is something that everyone here has seen and recognizes as one of the more pressing dilemmas that we, as lawmakers, must address. This is a problem that must be handled with determination and perseverance.

"Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to say that this Legislature has made a significant commitment to stemming homelessness in the State. The development of affordable housing is the first and primary thing that can de done to combat homelessness in Hawaii. Recognizing this, $14 million has been diverted from the conveyance tax to the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation for the planning, development, and construction of affordable housing in cooperation with private and nonprofit developers.

"An appropriation of $6 million has been made to the Hawaii Public Housing Authority for homeless facilities, emergency shelters, and transitional shelters, outreach and support services for the homeless, continual operational funds to provide matching funds for federal housing programs, and operational funds to nonprofit agencies to develop affordable housing. Besides these appropriations, the biennium budget also provides noteworthy funding for various housing programs and homeless programs.

"Mr. Speaker, though this is a significant commitment, this Legislature must realize that more must be done and that the homeless crisis will not be solved overnight. We, as legislators, must not forget our duty to protect and look out for the best interests of some of the most needy in our society, who may just need a small hand to support themselves and their families."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 198 and S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Yamashita rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of Senate Bill 907, SD2, HD2, CD1, Relating to the Office of Aerospace Development. This measure renames the Office of Space Industry in the Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism (DBEDT) to the Office of Aerospace Development. The primary goal of this Office is to position Hawaii to be nationally and globally competitive in aerospace development.

"The Office shall be tasked with identifying opportunities for expanding and diversifying aerospace-related industries in the State. Its activities will include assisting the University of Hawaii, local companies, research institutions, and other interested organizations in establishing partnerships with corporate, government, and academic organizations that can promote and enhance the State's aerospace industry.

"This bill provides funds to allow DBEDT to establish and operate the Pacific International Center for Space Explorations (PISCES), to support space exploration and settlement. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in infinite support of Conf. Com. Rep. No. 198. As in, 'to infinity and beyond'. I use this not to delay the session, but to say, because I was really enthralled and taken by the implications of this aerospace bill. It will not only identify, promote, expand and diversify aerospace, it will set up the Pacific International Center for Space Exploration. That stretches your mind. That stretches the economy. And it stretches what we as the center of tourism in the world, have a very strong implication coming out of this bill because space tourism is one of the things that we can now concentrate on. So, this bill is an exciting step forward.

"What is space tourism? Before, you had to be a millionaire to get up into space in orbit. Now they have this thing called parabolic flights where you go straight up and down and you experience weightlessness for about a minute in about an hour and a half flight. It costs $3,500. It's prospering in Florida. They've just started last month in Las Vegas. And, Mr. Speaker, this gives DBEDT and the State of Hawaii a chance to get a leg up on that being that we have 7.5 million tourists. This is, to me, a 'no brainer', but something that's very, very exciting.

"Number two, this bill not only opens up for Hawaii through DBEDT with the space tourism, but also we have the best next thing to being on the moon with our lavascape on the Big Island. DBEDT is already in serious discussions with NASA to do simulated life and settlements on the moon. That to me is really exciting. I think the implication is, and it was mentioned in one of the Internet articles I researched, eventually they're going to move into space hotels, and nobody knows hospitality greater than us.

"My point of this, Mr. Speaker, is we talk about diversifying the economy, this is a golden opportunity. It's made for us. And I'm really happy that all of my colleagues have agreed that this is something that we can do and we can give Ted Liu the go ahead, so we will not only be first in hotel tourism in the world, but also the first in space tourism. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Some of the Members will remember in 2000 when we honored Astronaut Buzz Aldren on this very Floor, and he is one of the strongest proponents of space tourism. And, incidentally, he and Neil Armstrong trained for their moon walk on the Big Island on Mauna Loa. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. This bill is out of this world, but it's definitely worth supporting. I just hope that we can still assess the TAT on our space hotels. Thank you."

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support. For nearly half a century, the State has supported our national space efforts, beginning with astronaut training programs in the late 1950s and the development of world-class observatories in the 1960s. Over the past three decades, the University of Hawaii, the United States military, and numerous companies statewide have also engaged in a variety of nationally-funded pioneering programs in planetary geosciences, satellite communications, remote sensing, environmental monitoring, and meteorology.

"The purpose of this bill is to position Hawaii to be nationally and globally competitive and recognized in aerospace development. The measure renames the Office of Space Industry to the Office of Aerospace Development, and adds additional duties and appropriates out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $500,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2007-2008 for the Office of Aerospace Development to carry out its duties to identify and promote opportunities for expanding and diversifying aerospace-related industries in the State. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AEROSPACE DEVELOPMENT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 199 and H.B. No. 1631, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1631, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support, with written comments. Just very briefly, Mr. Speaker, this measure is one of the foundational pieces that we need to put in place to have measurements of what we want to see moving forward into an innovation economy. Mr. Speaker, this bill will gather information that we can analyze. This is one of the foundation pieces, along with the bill that we did hear earlier, Senate Bill 709. Thank you very much."

Representative Yamashita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of House Bill 1631, HD2, SD2, CD1, Relating to High Technology Business Investment Tax Credit. This bill will allow the State to measure and promote greater understanding of the economic impact of the tax credit by gathering and analyzing important information from high technology businesses that are benefiting from it.

"This measure requires businesses that accept investments linked to the tax credit to complete an annual survey designed to measure economic benefits to the State, including criteria such as jobs created, wages paid to employees, revenues, and research activities.

"The information will be collected and analyzed by the Department of Taxation, and the Legislature will receive an annual report. This report will be a critical tool in guiding our policymakers in planning for high technology incentives in the future. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1631, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGH TECHNOLOGY BUSINESS INVESTMENT TAX CREDIT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 1:33 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

S.B. No. 1174, SD 1, HD 1, CD 1
S.B. No. 613, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 885, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1
S.B. No. 603, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 1917, SD 3, HD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 907, SD 2, HD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1631, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 200 and H.B. No. 1008, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 1008, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very brief comments in support. This is the Keiki Care Bill, Members, and I think we should all be proud that we are going to be providing insurance for every single child in the State of Hawaii. It's been a long road supported by Democrats and Republicans alike, including the Administration. Hawaii can now count itself at the top of the nation for taking care of its children. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Green be entered in the Journal as his own, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of H.B. No. 1008, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1. This bill will work toward ensuring that all of Hawaii's children receive appropriate health care.

"Mr. Speaker, Hawaii was progressive in its thinking by establishing the Prepaid Health Care Act in 1974 to ensure that almost all of our residents would be able to receive proper healthcare. In fact, we were often looked at as a model for healthcare. Yet, today, there continues to be a gap group that remains uninsured since they are ineligible for either State or federal healthcare coverage. This gap group often includes many of our most vulnerable residents – our children.

"In this great State of ours, it is unbelievable that a significant number of children, our most precious resource, are forced to go through their most formative years without one of the basic necessities of life – proper healthcare. This bill is a major step in addressing this most pressing need.

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues, many families with uninsured children find themselves in a 'Catch-22' situation: Their incomes are too high for them to qualify for Medicaid or Hawaii's QUEST Program, but too low to afford the high costs of health insurance. The establishment of the Hawaii Infant Health Care Program and the Hawaii Children's Health Care Program, as well as expanding coverage through QUEST-Net for all eligible children up to 300% of the federal poverty level, will make significant strides towards ensuring that all of Hawaii's keiki are receiving the appropriate healthcare they need.

"It has already been estimated that the initiation of these programs will benefit 3,500 of Hawaii's children. That's 3,500 children receiving healthcare who at one time, had no healthcare at all. In my mind, that is a tremendous accomplishment and well worth any costs these programs might incur.

"However, we all know that cost is always a factor that plays into any decision we, as legislators, make. While implementation of these initiatives will have initial costs, I assert that this is a cost-effective investment. Most people without health insurance or proper healthcare inevitably use the hospital emergency room, one of the most expensive healthcare settings, for their non-emergent healthcare needs. This adds to healthcare costs and puts further strain on an already taxed emergency healthcare system. The economy suffers, as work days are lost due to a child's illness.

"In addition, less quantifiable losses are felt by parents who cannot afford healthcare for their children as this adds to the already difficult and stressful job of raising a child in today's world. Thus, I believe our initial investment will pay large dividends to our society over time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1008, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 201 and H.B. No. 212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that H.B. No. 212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting against this measure. This measure will create a temporary Maui Health Initiative Task Force to develop a comprehensive, strategic health plan for Maui County. The problem I have is with the composition of this taskforce. The bill seems to set up a situation that's a foolish attempt by the legislative body to flex its muscles against the Executive Branch. Out of the 15 members on this Board, 7 will be appointed by the Mayor of Maui, 4 will be appointed by the Speaker of the House, and four will be appointed by the President of the Senate, without the need of the Governor's approval."

The Chair then addressed Representative Meyer, stating:

"Is this Conf. Com. Rep. No. 201 that you are addressing?"

Representative Meyer responded, stating:

"Yes, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 201, HB No. 212, Relating to Health Care. It doesn't sound familiar, I guess.

"Also, this bill does not allow for a taskforce member to be employed by the Department of Health or the State Health Planning and Development Agency. It seems to me that we would want members on the Board that are familiar with the problems relating to health and Maui, not this partisan taskforce.

"I also don't understand why the money that is being appropriated in this bill goes to the John A. Burns School of Medicine. The money should go to the Department of Health for they have already dealt with the issue relating to health needs and work force shortages, and would just add all the new data to what they already have.

"Mr. Speaker, I'm disappointed that this Legislature would play partisan politics with the health of the people of Maui. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I did take a look back on this bill. As it left the House that it did establish a statewide comprehensive healthcare work force map, and that was something that I know that the people on our taskforce that we had really wanted. So, I do have reservations. Thank you so much."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 202 and H.B. No. 1529, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1529, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LEGISLATIVE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 203 and S.B. No. 1365, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 1365, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INNOVATION ECONOMY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 50 ayes and, with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 1:37 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Final Reading:

H.B. No. 1008, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 212, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
H.B. No. 1529, HD 2, SD 2, CD 1
S.B. No. 1365, SD 2, HD 3, CD 1

H.B. No. 1757, HD 1, SD 3, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 1757, HD 1, SD 3, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Morita rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, while I wholeheartedly support Part I of this measure, I cannot support Part II of this bill. The general excise tax is a tax for the privilege of doing business in the State on Hawaii. It is a tax on the business (which chooses to pass it on to the consumer), not a sales tax (which is a tax the consumer is responsible for). If we really wanted to give Hawaii taxpayers a break it should be in the form of an income tax credit or tax deduction. Secondly, without a full understanding of gasoline pricing in Hawaii, there is no feasible way to determine if the retailer is actually passing on the savings to the consumer, no matter what goodwill the oil companies claim.

"This is a quote from an article in this morning's paper: "Customers certainly won't have a problem with cheaper gas", said Jordan Barnhorst of Kane'ohe, who paid $3.27 per gallon for super unleaded fuel to fill up his BMW X-5.

""Who doesn't want lower gas prices, right?" Barnhorst said. "No one complains about this, especially those of us with big SUVs that guzzle gas."

"It is ironic that this morning we passed a bill dealing with greenhouse gas emissions reduction. Lower gas prices does nothing to help in this area. We really should be looking at how tax revenues generated from the sale of gasoline can be used to redirect our energy future for the better rather than losing this revenue just to promote energy inefficiencies especially the driving of gas guzzling SUV's. This is a bad tax policy that does not further the interest of Hawaii residents in the long run."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1757, HD 1, SD 3, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Morita voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 1:39 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 1757, HD 1, SD 3, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

At 1:39 o'clock p.m., Representative Finnegan requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:43 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair announced.

"At this time members, at the Chair's recommendation, can you move to page 12, we will be taking S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 3, CD 2, out of order."

S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 3, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 3, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support. I do have some personal reservations, but I stand in support. Where to begin? Members, the healing process must begin. That's the case for healthcare on the individual level, our work as legislators, and our work in the healthcare system of Hawaii. This has been the most complicated bill I have ever seen. It's the largest bill from a healthcare standpoint that we've taken up this Session.

"I'm going to speak about a couple of issues today. I'll speak about my reservations and my support.

"First of all, I want to say the reason that I'm supporting this bill today is because we've come so far this Session. We've worked on many measures. We worked on rate regulation, which I was proud of. We've taken up measures like Keiki Care, and we've recommitted ourselves to reinvesting in the healthcare system. And then comes a bill that relates to our safety net, Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, a bill that, I'm the first to admit, has been so complicated that I've been in favor of it, pretty much right after I submitted my own personal draft. I supported that, of course. And then I was opposed to it when I had concerns that it was too focused on one region. And then, finally, after a lot of gut-wrenching thoughts, realizing that the bill would not make the sky fall.

"We've changed this bill many times. We've looked into it many times. The reservations I had, the most significant reservations, did revolve around a process that I felt at times, we were rushed. This bill is so colossal that it is a bill that in some cases we have to be more careful than any on. But I have read the drafts over and over again, and I really respect the work that all of the Conferees did to find a balance on the Board. The new Boards, the Regional Boards, which is what this creates, do represent each region very well. I think that is important to every Neighbor Islander that's out here. That was one of the most important things to me. Do they trump my concerns about process? Well, I have got to tell you this. At the end of the day, what we're charged to do here is to make sure that Hawaii Health Systems Corporation is our safety net and remains our safety net. That's what we have to be vigilant about.

"So what I would submit to you is that as we go forward and create these Regional Boards, and as those Regional Boards create the Corporate Board, they will be what we make of it as politicians and individuals concerned with healthcare. It's not an easy bill. It's not an easy bill because there are so many people that are passionate about it. Even the Big Island delegation was divided in many ways on this bill. I took my lumps on this bill as a physician. There were a lot of questions as to whether I should be involved. I maintained from the beginning that I should be involved because as a physician, even though I do work as a contract physician in HHSC, I knew this system very well, and I have, therefore, concerns from inside looking out, in addition to looking outside looking in as a member of this body.

"Are there concerns about procurement? We've always had concerns about procurement, and I still have them. I hope that as we go forward with the regional procurement exemption, that we'll audit each of those regions, not out of vindictiveness at all, but out of safety. That was a recommendation that I discussed with one of my colleagues from the Big Island at length.

"At the end of the day, I want you all to know that I spent time with every group. I flew to Maui to discuss it with the Maui CEO and the doctors at that department, and they felt strongly in support of this measure. That was when I was at my lowest and had my greatest concerns. I traveled, of course, around the Big Island and sought opinions, and they were very mixed in their position, Hilo and Kona feeling very differently at different times on this bill.

"I was respectfully asked by the Republican Caucus to address some of my concerns about this bill and I appreciate that. We discussed at length about process, about other issues that were involved in the bill and about the actual composition of the Board itself. I went to the extent of calling the CEO of the company of HHSC to ask what he really believed at the end of the whole process, whether it would hurt the healthcare situation in Hawaii or would it help it. And that CEO did tell me that he thought it was time to move forward. He had great misgivings, of course, but I think that it's important as legislators to hear every opinion.

"And then finally, I leaned on my colleagues and I asked them really, what is our goal? Are we here to make sure HHSC goes forward in a more responsive way? And the answer was a resounding, yes. I do want to honor the amendment that was offered. It greatly improved the bill and allayed many of my concerns.

"So Members, I'll close with this thought. We all are committed to making sure the safety net is stable. We're all committed to making sure everyone has adequate healthcare, whether it's from HHSC or any other provider in the State. So going forward, let's take this chance, whether we're for or against this bill, to shepherd it together to make sure Hawaii Health Systems Corporation in 2008 and 2009 and 2010 becomes a much stronger organization, that the Regional Boards created do not compete amongst themselves, but cooperate together. That they come to us as a legislative body and tell us what they honestly believe will be in the best interest of every citizen in the State of Hawaii.

"So in spite of my misgivings about certain events, I do not harbor any ill feelings and it's not my place to actually place them on this Floor. It's my place to tell you I don't think the sky will fall, and that we have to go forward together to create a better health system. I'm not asking you to vote yes. I'm certainly not asking people to vote no. What I'm asking us is to all come together and make sure that we go in a singular better direction for the state of healthcare in Hawaii. So I cast a yes vote."

Representative Morita rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this bill. Mr. Speaker, while I truly appreciate the efforts of the Representative from Kahului in keeping the essence of the House Draft 3 version of this bill in this Conference Draft, I do have some concerns and would like to explain my opposition. While there are areas of this bill that may be problematic, these can be fixed with future amendments. However, my concerns cannot be fixed by legislation.

"Mr. Speaker, my heart tells me to trust the system, but my na'au feels otherwise. The integrity of preserving the safety net of a statewide health system hinges on the guidance of the Board of the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. The integrity of the Board of the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation is dependent on the selection process and appointments to the Board. It is my hope that when appointed to the HHSC Board, each Board member will rise to the responsibility in assisting the regions to work collaboratively and cooperatively to maintain this important safety net statewide.

"Mr. Speaker, part of the selection process is in your hands. I hope you will help to prove me wrong. My worst fear is that the Board will disintegrate pitting region against region for scarce State resources by individuals who may have only the interest of their region at heart and not the integrity of maintaining a statewide system. Only time will tell if I am wrong in my assessment, and in this case, I hope I am proved wrong. Mr. Speaker, may I submit additional comments just to point out the areas of the Conference Draft that I think may need to be amended. Thank you."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, here are areas of the bill that I find problematic and where we should consider future amendments:

"Although this may be moot by the time the Legislature can address the issue, the measure provides an inadequate transition process, eliminating the existing system board too quickly and not enough time to establish the Regional Boards. The terms of several existing Corporate Board members will be terminated in December 30, 2007, and the remaining will be terminated on September 30, 2008, not leaving in place the experienced Board members to govern the reorganization to regional governance. Healthcare is a complex industry. Coupled with the fact Hawaii Health Systems Corporation (HHSC) is a State agency, it takes six months to a year for Board members to learn enough about the system to become an effective Board member.

"At the same time that the existing, experienced Board is being eliminated, the bill requires the immediate establishment of all 5 Regional Boards. The Regional Boards will assume custodial control of all the assets of the corporation in their respective regions, and will operate the facilities consistent with corporate policies and procedures. In order to set up this system of policies, the Corporation Board must be knowledgeable about the operation of the facilities and system. Not only will the Board members be new, but resources will be overtaxed as the new boards are set up and the Kahuku Hospital acquisition goes forward. To impose this timeline and a new Board of Directors is to set up the reorganization for failure.

"The elimination of the community based input for nominations to the HHSC board does not further the purpose of this measure to increase community involvement and creates an imbalance between the nomination and appointment authorities for the HHSC board.

"The bill provides that 10 of the 15 Corporate Board members shall be appointed by the Governor after nomination by the Senate and House leadership. The purpose of the bill is to "advance the State's commitment to provide quality healthcare for the people of Hawaii, by moving forward on the original taskforce recommendation of community-based governance and establishing regional system boards for all regions, to be governed by a community-based regional system Board of Directors, and to provide the necessary authority for each region to accomplish the goal of community-based governance." The nomination process for the corporate board should be more open so that the community leaders and other interested people who are served by the community hospitals may submit names to the Governor for possible Board membership. In this way, a truly community based system will be established.

"The contract priority clause in this measure may impede the ability of the corporation to conduct systemwide contracting for economies of scale and consistency of care. The contracts clause in Section 23, allows a regional board to enter into a contract exclusively for that region, and if it conflicts with a corporation contract, the regional contract prevails. This clause will put into question the ability of the corporation to do systemwide buying, which is essential to operating a hospital system economically. The system will not be able to sign a contract knowing that it is a conditional approval: conditioned on the regions not signing a conflicting contract.

"The ability of one region to pledge assets of other regions in the corporation in a bond issuance will adversely impact financial security of the entire system. Most of the bond language is not necessary to issue a bond and would be more appropriately placed in the bond covenants. However, the language appears to assume that the regional boards are legal entities, which they are not and there in creates a conflict and legal question.

Other problems for the measure are as follows:

- The Regional Boards are allowed to acquire property in their own names yet they are not legal entities. Other areas of the measure acknowledge that the regions have custodial control of the property recognizing they are not legal entities that can own property.

- Employees retain their rights in the Executive Branch. However, HHSC employees are not employees of the Executive Branch. HHSC has its own civil service jurisdiction. This language should be amended or even eliminated, since there is no change in employment with the establishment of the regional boards where HHSC remains the employer.

- Procurement code exemption is only allowed for Regions, but should include the Corporation so there is no need for two sets of policies and the possibility of confusion that may result.

- Regional CEOs and CFOs can only be fired for malfeasance, like dismissal of a Board member (felony conviction, etc.) until Jan 1, 2009. These exempt employees of the State should not be given this special treatment. (Section 2, pg 5). Only the Regional Boards are involved in the hiring of the Regional CEO until Jan 1, 2009; it should be a joint decision between the Corporate Board and the Regional Board.

- Regional Boards are self-perpetuating after the initial appointments. We need to question whether we really intend such as a policy."

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition to this measure. I think the good doctor from the Big Island said it well; that we need healing. In fact, some of our necks are going back and forth so often, flip flopping on this bill, flop flopping on the way it's been written, flip flopping on the way it's been interpreted. We get a headache, which tells us, as legislators, something's wrong, not only procedurally, that he mentioned and apologized or asked for forgiveness for, but something procedurally in terms of when you got a half-baked legislation, you shouldn't rush it through. If anything, we should probably be doing a sunrise on what we should be doing, rather than rushing into this because there's been so many versions, so many different, very complicated things. Anybody who really knows what is in this bill, intellectually, honestly, probably can't say that they know it, which really means it's going to leave it to chance.

"And Mr. Speaker, I think when we deal with people's lives in the hospital system, we have our first obligation not to our districts, but to the State of Hawaii and the welfare of the people of Hawaii. This bill unfortunately brings us quickly back to the past. It's going towards the future, but back to the past, which, when this body considered it over ten years ago, we were saying they're too independently unstable, they're not systematic, they're not getting the quota of breaks in bulk purchasing. Let's get them all together. Now, we've got the first dismemberment or the first volley to dismemberment before us today. God bless Maui. Maui no ka oi. I really like the spirit that drives Maui. But this bill is not about Maui. It's about the State of Hawaii, the people of Hawaii, the hospitals of Hawaii, and the security and the well-being of those hospitals, of which I believe, Mr. Speaker, is a precipitous step in that direction with this bill.

"The only analogy I can think of is when Yugoslavia sat around the table and Slovenia, who had been paying most of the taxes, said, 'I'm out of here. We supported you guys, we're out of here.' And then after Slovenia, the whole Balkanization of that great country, that great people disintegrated. No one here today, regardless of which way they vote, will know what's going to come out of this by this particular bill. Nobody knows. It's a crapshoot, if I may. It's for some a motion to get particular leaders and other particular management styles maybe put aside, but that's not what this is about. If you've go a problem with a taxi driver, you don't go and change the taxis just because you had a problem with the driver.

"Mr. Speaker, I think this is a bit misguided and we're taking a risk, and in conclusion, I would say cooler minds should prevail. And the way that this bill, right until the last minute, even to this moment on the Floor, of which I was informed of only an hour and a half ago, that some people had changed their minds because some interpretation has changed, that we are now putting legislation, or at least locking it in to a point which I think jeopardizes the whole system. And that's what we're here for, the whole system, not just one. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, if I can have the words from my Chair, the Representative from North Kona, placed into the Journal as if they were my own, notwithstanding, the with reservations vote," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 1792, as we can see, has gone through a number of drafts. This bill has created a passionate response with a great deal of debate through our legislative process. Nearly thousands of testimonies has been received on this measure. In fact, our hearing in your Health Committee had more testimony than we did on the death with dignity, physician assisted suicide bill. Of course, this is a very important issue. As I stated in an earlier floor session, this will affect 12 community hospitals, 13 when Kahuku is added. This is the nation's fourth largest community hospital system, so by no way do I think that we are going too fast. We did a number of safeguards and reviewing and reading before we came up with this conclusion, a number of floor amendments, and a number of drafts.

"Looking through the history of Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, also known as HHSC, 14 years ago, a taskforce was convened to make recommendations on our healthcare system. This is what the taskforce came up with and I quote, "The Hawaii Health Systems Corporation should administer the state facilities in a decentralized fashion with the facilities to be grouped into five regions."

"Mr. Speaker, that was 13 years ago and I humbly ask, Members, to support this. The time is now to initiate that recommendation by creating Regional System Boards responsible for local governance, operations, and administration of the delivery of hospital services in each of the five regions in our State. This will help us to ensure that local community stakeholders through independent regional system boards will be in the best position to make critical decisions relating to their community hospitals.

"One of the rationales behind this, Mr. Speaker, is certain decisions in Ka'u, or Maui, or Lanai City, at their hospitals, may not be appropriate for one of our hospitals on Oahu. It's different. We need to allow our Regional Boards to make those independent decisions because it's affecting them. They would know better than us.

"Mr. Speaker, at the Health Committee hearing, nine members were there, and at the Finance hearing we had 17 members present. Tom Driscoll, who is the President and Chief Executive Officer of HHSC, stated that he knows they have problems with HHSC, with their system. He was very honest and forthcoming. He said he knows they have concerns. And this is what he told us, both at the Health hearing and at the hearing of Finance: 'Please, no to affiliate corporations. You're going to end up breaking HHSC.' But he did say this: 'Let's go with Regional Boards. Let's go with Regional Boards and let's empower them.' Every member that was at the Health hearing and at the Finance hearing knows that. 'Let's go with Regional Boards, let's empower them.'

"I respect Mr. Driscoll and I think that's what we're doing today. I do want to commend Chair Green and Representative Nakasone for an outstanding job they did in Conference, and the Chair and Vice Chair of the WAM Committee on the Senate side. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I support this measure."

Representative Sagum rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. I'm with the Management Advisory Committee, for the Kauai MAC," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Sagum continued, stating:

"With that, I'd like to adopt the words from the Representative from North Kona as my own," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. At my law firm, I represent HHSC on procurement matters," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Green rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do apologize. I meant to ask for a potential conflict. I've asked for it so many times, it actually slipped my mind," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. First, I would like the words of the Representative from Hanalei entered into the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you.

"This is a very difficult issue. I think we can all admit that. Before talking about the CD 2 that we have in front of us, I just wanted to spend a few minutes talking a little bit about what was prior to the invention of the Health Systems Corporation.

"In 1996, when we were here, Mr. Speaker, we voted to create this system, because as you recall, all of the regional hospitals were dilapidated, were worn down, were in terrible disarray. The facilities were old. And it's not for the lack of trying. I think many people throughout the State worked very hard to ensure adequate health system, and healthcare for all. However, we recognized back then in 1996, and even prior, in 1994, when the taskforce came out with their recommendations that in order to be successful, we had to pull these regional hospitals and facilities together as one, one system. And over the course of the next decade or so, they have moved the system forward. Today we have a number of healthcare facilities throughout the State, Neighbor Islands, especially, and the rural areas on Oahu, as well, that are doing quite well in serving their communities.

"That brings me to today's discussion. And I agree with some of the speakers prior regarding their concerns about how quickly we're moving in this direction without total awareness of the consequences of even some of the mandates in CD 2. When we started this Session, many people were concerned. The Senate position coming to us was to breakup this system. Our House Draft 3 position as it left on Second Crossover was that we would empower Regional Boards. The CD 1 that came out on Friday night was very lacking and there were much, much more to be desired, and I'm so glad that there were efforts made both in this house and the other house to deal with some of the major concerns, which we now see addressed in CD 2.

"We do have some problems. I continue to have some problems with CD 2. Just a few I'll mention right now. I think enabling the Regional Boards, providing procurement exemption to them is a step in the right direction. But I question why, why we don't allow the system to have the exemption as well. And I think it's going to be problematic in the future when these bulk purchase agreements come due and the regions can move forward, but as a system, they may not be able to. That's going to be a problem, Mr. Speaker, and I hope we can address it in the future.

"And I think the Representative from Hanalei talked a little bit about the concerns that she had in regards to the makeup of the System Board as we move forward. I share her concerns. I think as I spoke many times on the Floor prior regarding this particular issue, what I do hope we do not see is what we saw in the '90s, prior to the creation of HHSC where each region came to us specifically, and only concerning, their own interest. It was a dog fight, Mr. Speaker, here at the Capitol, and I hope we don't see that again. And like I mentioned before, there's a reason why we have a statewide Department of Education system, and a statewide University of Hawaii system, because by doing so, we promote this idea of a one-state system and we move forward as such. But then, that's for the future to decide and we'll see how well this new Board, with its new members, comprised of a couple of representatives from each of the regional boards can handle this challenge.

"There are a few more concerns that I have, Mr. Speaker, but what I'd like to do is request that I insert written comments in the Journal. Thank you.

"As we move forward, I would like to mention that I, for one, recognize the challenge for this, for us, is really a challenge for the Neighbor Island Representatives and the Representatives in the rural areas of Oahu. But as a public health educator, and one that prior to being elected to this body was really concerned about the healthcare of the State and continues to be concerned, I for one, am willing to put concerns aside and work forward to make sure that we ensure the continuation of a robust healthcare system for our citizens throughout the State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong opposition of this measure.

"The intent of this landmark legislation is to move the community hospital system forward into a structure that will provide the communities served with a more active role in the operations of their local hospitals balanced with oversight by a strong, central, umbrella corporation. This bill should be construed with that balance in mind: the corporation board has the ultimate responsibility and authority as the sole legal entity and State agency while the regional boards have local decision-making power to implement corporate policy in a manner that furthers the needs of the local communities.

"Real local community involvement is necessary to ensure that the community hospitals meet the needs of the people served: our residents and visitors. The Regional Board concept is an evolution of the public health facility Management Advisory Committees, which have been an effective voice in presenting viewpoints to the local hospitals and the corporation, according to the testimony. The success of the 10-year old Corporation and its hospitals in providing quality care and expanding services to meet the needs of the local communities was well documented in the testimony. Although most testimony supports the conclusion that the majority of the regions didn't feel the need to move to the next step of Regional Boards with delegated decision-making authority, there was disagreement on this point. There was strong testimony, primarily from the Maui region, that a change in structure was absolutely mandatory for the survival of their hospitals due to physician disenchantment. In fact, Maui was pushing for the creation of new corporations for each region that would have been separate legal entities.

"I support the public policy behind community involvement in the government owned community hospital system. However, I am voting NO to SB1792 because there are several problems with the bill, as written. In addition, I strongly object to the way it was pushed through the Legislature with last minute changes to the language and toying with the make-up of the Conference Committee members up to the last hour of conference. Finally, this bill is simply premature and too important to rush through the session, without first bringing all the stakeholders together to carefully work out the detailed language that will have such a significant impact on our safety-net healthcare system. This is further exacerbated by the fact no transition time allowed in the bill, with immediate appointment of Regional Boards and early termination of existing Board member terms, with little time for the Corporation to set up a reasonable timeline and processes to increase the chance of successful implementation of this major reengineering effort.

"Some of the specific problems with the bill include the following:

1. The powers section includes a clause giving precedence to regional contracts over conflicting systemwide contracts under certain situations. (Section 23, page 56 to 57; 323F-7(c)(3) (B)). My concern is how this clause may be interpreted. The intent is not to place in jeopardy the ability of the Corporation to conduct multi-regional contracting, which is essential to efficient operation and is one of the benefits of a multi-facility system. The intent of the clause is that it is applicable only if the corporation enters into a contract on behalf of a single region and that region does not agree with the contract and enters into its own conflicting contract that conforms to corporate policies. In that case, the regional contract shall prevail. The ability of the corporation to continue its systemwide or multi-region contracting and ventures is not impeded by this clause, if construed according to this intent.

2. The bill is full of language inserted last minute by Maui bond counsel, which would be more appropriately included in the bond covenants, not the statutes. While there was agreement at the Conference Committee to put the bond language into a separate bill applicable to a specific Maui bond issuance, only one section was deleted and the language remains in several other places. The provisions giving power to the Regional Boards are intended to reassure underwriters and purchasers of the bonds that the agreements signed by the regional boards are enforceable. As stated throughout the bill, these powers must be exercised in conformity with corporate policies and procedures in order to not adversely affect the other regions. (See, for example, Section 23, paragraphs 8, 17, 19, 26; Section 30 (a).).

3. Section 35 of the bill states that certain employees will retain their rights as employees of the executive branch. HHSC has its own separate civil service jurisdiction from the Executive Branch and HHSC is considered "the employer" under applicable statutes. Therefore, this section must be construed as meaning that the referenced civil service employees of HHSC will not lose their status as employees of HHSC. Since the Regional Boards are not separate State agencies, the employment provisions must be construed as not changing the employer to the Executive Branch: they remain employees of HHSC.

4. The Regional Boards are allowed to "acquire" property in their own names yet they are not legal entities. The intent of the bill throughout is clear in stating that the regions shall have custodial control of the property; they are not empowered with ownership because they are not separate legal entities. Therefore, the two sections that allow the regions to "acquire" property must be construed as allowing them to make the purchase or enter into the agreement to obtain the property, as set forth in the powers section, but it does not render the acquiring region the200 title owner of the property. HHSC is the owner of property acquired before and after passage of the bill, as the only legal entity in the system at the time of passage of this bill. (See Section 23, paragraphs 10 and18).

5. The Corporation Board composition provides that two physicians shall be appointed by the Corporation Board. The language states that the physicians shall come from the different regions. Region I (Oahu) is left out of the rotation and the language requires appointment of both physicians from the same region (instead of having physicians from different regions serving at the same time). (Section 19). This last minute language disenfranchises the Oahu region physicians. The physicians should come from different regions to spread the representation and work.

6. The composition of the Corporation Board raises other areas of concern. 10 of the 15 members come from nominees of the Legislature. I agree with some of the comments raised by my colleagues that this process places the Legislature in the realm of implementation of law, rather than authoring law. I do not know the consequences of this feature to HHSC as yet, but raise this as a concern. In order to more fully implement the purpose of this bill which is to enhance local community involvement, the Regional Board members and other people in the local communities should be involved in nomination of the majority of the Board members, not just legislators who may have other agendas.

7. A similar issue is the quick termination of the existing Board members, some of whom have dozens of years of experience working with the community hospitals in various capacities. At a time when stability and knowledgeable governance is required in order to implement the new structure, this bill prematurely dismisses the Board of Directors. The quick transition coupled with the fact most Board members will be nominees of the House and Senate leadership is not in the best interests of the organization.

8. The Procurement Code exemption is granted to the Regional Boards, but not the Corporate Board. This does not make sense and will require different procedures, causing confusion and unnecessary extra work. Rather than encouraging systemwide buying, which is a standard cost cutting measure for hospital systems, this encourages the regions to buy on their own so they do not have to wade thru all the procedures of the Code.

9. The fiscal provisions allow the regions to develop and submit their own budgets through the system board, determine their own rates, handle their own cash flow, spend the money consistent with Corporate wide policies, and keep their excess revenues for the betterment of their regional facilities. In future biennium budget years, the facilities will negotiate with the corporate office for the services the Corporation will provide and the methodology for allocating those costs among the hospitals. With an operating budget of over $400,000,000 of State appropriations split among the 5 regions, the regions have the fiduciary duty to operate in a prudent manner and within corporation policies and procedures. We do not know the impact on the hospital system of these provisions, but we do know that cash flow is a serious problem for HHSC, which is expected to not keep reserves from year to year but is expected to be able to meet its large payroll and vendor payment obligations. The inability of the corporation to move cash around in order to keep up with obligations may prove to be a mistake. The fiscal provisions will need to be studied carefully and the regions and corporation financial management reviewed in order to determine if the system established in this bill is practical and sets up the appropriate checks and balances needed for handling State special funds and providing State services.

"In summary, the bill allows the regional boards to operate the local hospitals with some autonomy within the policies established by the HHSC system board. Construction of the specific provisions must be construed with this balance in mind. Problems in this hastily passed bill will need to be addressed in coming Sessions."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. After the fun that we had last night at our staff party or staff gathering, I put together four pages to address this, but I'm just going to summarize on a couple of things. Much has been said about the Maui delegation and the community hospital from Maui and everything to do with that. But I think this particular bill with its amendments addresses positive benefits for the entire system and very little to do with singularly the position that Maui is going to benefit from this, because I think all four regions will benefit from this.

"I know the Chairman of Health had some concerns that he mentioned here on the Floor about his involvement in this. And if anyone has sat on the Health Committee for the hours that we did, there was never a question on my mind on the Chairman of Health's integrity. He has shepherded this bill from the beginning, and spent many, many hours educating us, especially myself, as a freshman, on what was happening with the healthcare system, and I thank him for that.

"In our Finance Committee meeting, the CEO from Hawaii Health Care Systems came and talked about procurement. This bill addresses that. I think the changes that this bill and the amendments that are added along with it, are going to be a positive thing for the system. And like many things that we do here and we pass, we don't know what the exact outcome is going to be, but I think with working with all of the communities and with all of the Board members, and the Board members that have worked there have done an excellent job. We need to continue to focus on supporting them and moving this forward. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will insert the rest of my comments, and I thank you all for your time."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in strong support of this bill. SB 1792 CD2 has been widely debated this Session. This version of the bill, however, truly addresses the concerns raised by the opponents and represents a fair compromise that will bring the desperately needed changes to the Hawaii Healthcare System Corporation.

"First, there were concerns raised that the transition from the Corporate Board to the Regional Boards may be too rapid. However, this proposed change was originally suggested 13 years ago yet there has been no progress toward the goal of regional control.

"Mr. Speaker, the original 1994 Governor's Task Force that created HHSC stated:

(1) "The Hawaii Health Systems Corporation should administer the state facilities in a decentralized fashion with the facilities to be grouped into regions…"

(2) "Each region should have an operating board of directors with regional boards being initially appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the legislature…"

(3) "Finally, with respect to implementation, it is important to note that merely granting this proposed new corporation greater autonomy is insufficient - - new systems, trained personnel, training for existing personnel, and internal restructuring are also needed to ensure that we are not simply replacing one inappropriate bureaucracy with another."

"Mr. Speaker, 13 years later, we have not evolved into what the taskforce recommended. The concerns raised about the transition occurring too quickly are, in my mind, unwarranted. The time is NOW to incorporate the 1994 Governor's Task Force recommendations which are overdue and which this measure addresses. Moreover, Mr. Speaker, there may be members of the current Board who could be appointed to the Regional Boards to help ensure a seamless transition.

"A second concern that was raised about this bill dealt with preserving certain efficiencies of a Statewide healthcare system. While this bill empowers the regional boards, it continues to preserve the efficiencies that are embedded within HHSC. For example, centralized corporate services will be shared and used appropriately. In fact, the bill itself states, "The purpose of this Act is to advance the State's commitment to provide quality health care for the people of Hawaii by moving forward on the original task force recommendation of community-based governance and establishing regional system boards for all regions… The Hawaii health system corporation will continue to provide system wide functions and governance with enhanced representation of regional system board members." This bill will allow physicians and their communities to share clinical information between regions and facilities to analyze a system wide approach to the delivery of healthcare across regions without duplicating services.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, this bill addresses one of the major concerns raised by the CEO of HHSC, that is the issue of procurement. The CEO asserts that procurement has been a hindrance to the ability of the board to act effectively. By enacting this bill into legislation, the Regional Boards will be able to contract for certain services without utilizing the procurement system thereby expediting the time to respond effectively.

"A final concern that was raised about this bill pertained to the Board composition and that Board members must understand the role of the corporate umbrella so that Regions should not compete with one another for limited funding. Mr. Speaker, membership of the board is critical and this measure addresses that very point. This bill will provide for the training of Board membership in the transition to the new structure in the areas of: (1) clinical aspects of healthcare; (2) healthcare financing; and (3) legal and compliance issues of healthcare.

"The opportunity is tremendous to create a new paradigm and have a fresh start where Board members, medical staff and hospital administration can receive education together to develop a common vision and mission, to evolve HHSC into an organization that can tackle the problems of healthcare in an innovated way. Through this transition, the newly reconstituted board could choose to undertake a new strategic plan prior to being bogged down by daily operations.

"And finally Mr. Speaker, and this time finally means finally. I'd like to thank all of the current Board members, the MAC members, all of the nurses, doctors and staff members at Hawaii Health Care Systems for all of their hard work in maintaining and advancing our public health care facilities for the last decade. Through thick and thin they were there for the people and they deserve our heartfelt appreciation."

The Chair then stated:

"Members of the House, for those who would like to insert comments, this is the proper time now for or against because three of our colleagues will be leaving by 2:15 and I wanted to give them the opportunity to cast their votes, if that is okay with the members of this Chamber."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to submit comments to the Journal, Mr. Speaker, and in support, but with very grave reservations. And the comments are the position paper of HHSC East Hawaii, West Hawaii, Oahu, and Kauai regions. Thank you."

Representative Thielen's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in support, but with grave reservations.

"During the next week, S.B. 1792, C.D. 1 will be discussed extensively among the full House and Senate memberships. Subsequently, a final floor vote will be taken. Unfortunately, the C.D. 1 version passed Friday night with late-night changes, included new and previously not discussed provisions that were added at the last minute. This version creates an unbalanced system for the non-Maui regions with restricted system Board of Directors continuity. This morphed bill, as passed by the Senate-House Conference Committee, will fragment and potentially destroy the system that all of the regions have worked so hard to protect and preserve, thus, putting our Rural Hospitals and Long-Term Care services at Risk!

"The HHSC East Hawaii region (Hilo Medical Center, Hale Ho'ola Hamakua, and Ka'u Hospital), West Hawaii region (Kona Community Hospital and Kohala Hospital), Oahu region (Leahi Hospital and Maluhia), and Kauai region (West Kauai Medical Center and Samuel Mahelona Memorial Hospital) strongly believe that S.B. 1792 is a BAD bill and must not be passed.

"We believe that this bill is premature. More community input is needed to determine the real impact on our facilities, particularly those located in the rural areas of the Neighbor Islands. Healthcare for our communities is too important to jeopardize by a potentially premature bill.

"We believe that the practice of how we contract for services and goods should be the same across the system, to ensure that all of our facilities will be able to effectively respond to the needs of our patients and physicians.

"We believe more time is necessary to ensure effective oversight of both our region and the system – mainly the successful formation of the Regional Boards due to required, normal recruitment and nomination process. The complexity and responsibility of hospital business deserves a sound transition and an effective alliance among the Regional Boards, in addition to the System Board.

"We believe that our regions deserve a fair voice in the Corporation Board by having an equal amount of representatives regardless of whether we provide more acute or long-term care.

"We believe only in a fair and unbiased bill that provides maximum and equal benefits to all regions, not only Maui; our concerns are real. The recent Maui sponsored bill, which attempts to address a number of political concerns on Maui, should not be imposed on the other four regions.

"We believe in a balanced safety-net system that remains intact, in order to be able to continue responding effectively and efficiently to the healthcare needs of our island communities."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, very reluctantly I will have my remarks submitted in the Journal in opposition to this measure, but basically I fear the Balkanization, the fragmentation of this system. I represent an area with Leahi Hospital in it, and I just foresee problems with different regions lobbying us differently. I feel for the financial strength of the system and I feel that united they have a chance, divided they will fall."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Please allow me to express arguments against this measure.

"The good news about this bill is that it allows for greater local control – we call it homerule in this building. Good in theory. We will see greater autonomy in 5 different regions in the State.

"The trouble with this feature, autonomy, is that we stand to lose some of the benefits of central administration such as better fiscal control, increased ability to float bonds, better purchasing power, a coordinated procurement program, and a concerted lobbying effort.

"For instance, we are passing a measure allowing the HHSC to issue revenue bonds. I don't see how a regional district can "afford" such a bond if the entire system currently loses money and requires subsidies every year. Would a region have any more financial clout?

"In my district lies Leahi Hospital, a small long-term care hospital in the HHSC System. Also found on Oahu is Maluhia, another long-term care facility. These Oahu institutions will now be competing against four other regional facilities in the State for resources – operating money, capital improvements. Will Leahi, will Oahu, or will Kauai, or will Kona receive its fair share in the future?

"I suppose some of you can argue that allocations have not been fair in the past and that this bill would improve things, and that may be the case, but on the whole, I do not share this optimism for the future. I fear the fragmentation. The five regional districts will divide the health system, polarize and politicize health care in Hawaii.

"Another serious problem we have seen with this measure is an unprecedented number of charges and rumors of illegal activities, character assassination, and other unsavory charges worthy of a "sausage factory". I have never seen such a toxic atmosphere surrounding a bill. It is most unfortunate, Mr. Speaker, and if there any truth to these rumors, I ask that concerned individuals call for an investigation if they believe that wrongdoing truly exists.

"We are mandating a rapid change in the top administration and State board of HHSC. We are severing the head from the body with this bill. Is this legislative micromanagement? I would have favored a more gradual turnover. I do see a need for new management, because the relationship between the leadership and the Legislature is no longer productive and not good for the System.

"I do not believe there was any wrongdoing. I think that all parties have served to the best of their abilities, and I thank the HHSC leadership for doing their best. I thank them because we will not see them here in the Capitol in future sessions.

"Ironically, if there is new management, Mr. Speaker, I no longer see a need for splitting up the System. I may be wrong, I hope I'm wrong, but as I now see it – united the HHSC stands, divided it falls."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I'll try to be brief. The Big Island group, as we're meeting with a group of physicians from Hilo for over a year. In support. For over a year and those physician groups have also been meeting with Maui physicians to make sure that everybody was moving in the same direction. I've also been in contact with people on the MAC in Kona. It's interesting to me that the physicians in Kona was so dissatisfied with the operation of Kona Hospital that collectively they forced the manager of that hospital out. That kind of thing happening with very little involvement, so they had to take things into their own hands. You take Dr. Lattimer in Kona, he's the only urologist there. He fills the newspapers up with negative comments about Kona Hospital. I had a doctor at Queen's tell me that he would never send a patient to Kona Hospital.

"And those of us that have lived through this over the last ten years know that we have to do something, and I think that we have worked very deliberately with the doctors in Kona and in Hilo, and as a matter of fact, a few weeks ago, a Big Island group always has breakfast on Thursday morning, we invited two members of the Maui Senate delegation, two members from the House, we had a long dialogue to make sure that we were on the same page. So I think we know exactly where we're going and I urge your support."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representatives Mizuno and Tokioka be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and I do have some comments and I did want to share my perspective on this. Mr. Speaker, I was going to vote with reservations and I decided to keep my vote a no vote and the reason being is that this has been, out of the five Sessions that I've been here, this has been the only bill that I've actually had so many accusations and rumors floating around the Capitol on. It really ends up clouding what this bill's policy is. It almost seems as if we're moving forward on this bill, and instead of being a Legislative Branch, we've kind of been like the Judiciary Branch on this, and we're changing the system to reflect not being happy with the leadership of HHSC and that could be true. They may have done stuff that have upset people, but I'm not necessarily sure that you take it out and you put it in a bill; that you address this in a bill in a way that you affect the entire State system, hospital system.

"I would also like to say that I think it's ironic that we would provide a procurement exemption for the Regional Boards in the regions, but not for the system as a whole, and that doesn't sit well with me. As leaders, Mr. Speaker, you and I, it's not easy leading. It's not easy running things. And people will get upset and there will be misinterpretations and misunderstandings, Mr. Speaker. I haven't had the privilege of being a part in the different types of meetings with doctors and all those kinds of things, but I do think that this is premature and for the sake of wanting to move forward and help with the healing, I'm glad that this bill is actually moving forward. And maybe they can deal with it. But I'm just really disappointed that while we are making the policy for the whole State hospital system, that there were so many rumors and accusations along the way."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition. I just simply am concerned about breaking it up into the regions. And my greatest concern is that Kahuku Hospital as the new kid on the block could be mortally wounded by this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"One point rebuttal and solution. Mr. Driscoll was mentioned as being in support of this. The body should know that for four months he fought this tooth and nail and only within the last few hours has changed his mind. The solution I believe, there's rumor that there's going to be an override of vetoes, override of the veto session, why don't we let tempers cool, come back in a few weeks …"

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Ward, you are out of order at this point."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"That was only a suggestion."

At this time, Representative Carroll called for the previous question.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 3, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representatives Belatti, Berg, Finnegan, Luke, Marumoto, Meyer, Morita, Takai, Takumi and Ward voting no, and with Representative Bertram being excused.

At 2:16 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 1792, SD 3, HD 3, CD 2 passed Final Reading.

S.B. No. 1931, SD 2, HD 3, CD 2:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, S.B. No. 1931, SD 2, HD 3, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram, Green, Herkes and Tokioka being excused.

At 2:17 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 1931, SD 2, HD 3, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

H.B. No. 310, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 310, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative M. Oshiro rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker this bill establishes the Hawaii broadband taskforce that will work to remove barriers to broadband access, identify opportunities for increased broadband deployment and adoption, and enable the creation and deployment of new advanced communication technologies in the State. You and the Senate President will appoint the 15 member taskforce, which will receive support from the Office of the Auditor.

"The taskforce is required to issue 2 reports; an initial report 20 days prior to the convening of the 2008 Legislature, and a final report and plan 20 days prior to the convening of the 2009 Legislature. We are providing $50,000 to support and staff this important undertaking.

"While municipalities across the country such as Philadelphia, Boston, and San Francisco, have implemented municipal wireless systems, the State of Hawaii lacks the access to these types of low cost, high capacity digital transport services that have become increasingly available in other communities across the country that are concerned with the accessibility of advanced affordable services. In order for the State to remain competitive on a national and global scale the State needs to take action to support investment in, stimulate the adoption of, and remove barriers to the development and availability of a world-class and universally accessible broadband networks.

"Mr. Speaker, technology may oftentimes be the key to success in today's economy. For people who have access to the Internet, a world of information and opportunity is opened at the click of a mouse. However, the cost of broadband service often prohibits certain sections of our population from accessing such an important tool. It is hoped that the taskforce will come up with a solution to the cost barriers to broadband Internet access for all residents of the State. In this digital age good, high-speed access to the Internet should be available to all and not just to those who are able to afford such a luxury.

"As Hawaii gained national prominence by enactment of near universal healthcare through the Prepaid Health Care Act in 1978, so too, should Hawaii be the leader in providing Internet access to all its people regardless of income, social status, or community. Universal Internet access would make the information super-highway open to all and allow unlimited access to global information. It may also enable more people to access business opportunities from their homes, whether they be in Waialae, Wahiawa, Waianae, or Waimea.

"For these reasons, I ask for Members' wholehearted support."

At 2:17 o'clock p.m., Representative B. Oshiro requested a recess, and the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:18 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 310, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TECHNOLOGY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Green and Herkes being excused.

At 2:18 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 310, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

H.B. No. 1270, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 1270, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE PLANNING," passed Final Reading by a vote of 48 ayes and, with Representatives Bertram, Green and Herkes being excused.

At 2:19 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. 1270, HD 2, SD 2, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Affordable health insurance is one of the State's most pressing concerns. Many of Hawaii's workers are subscribers of individual plans provided by Hawaii's insurers. Because individual plans and group health plans with one or few number of employees are not part of larger employee pools, health insurance premiums for individual plans are generally more expensive than large group health plans. The cost of health insurance, particularly for self-employed workers, single employee corporations or partnerships, and small business group health plans with few number of employees are of significant concern to Hawaii's business and general community.

"S.B. 1803, C.D. 2 is intended to permit insurers to offer a different plan to employer groups of one (sole proprietors, one person corporations and partnerships) compared to what they offer to employer groups of two or more, upon a determination by the Insurance Commissioner that the insurer can adequately deliver services to enrollees of additional groups given its obligations to existing employer groups. This is intended to provide the Division of Insurance the authority and duty to allow broader combinations of insurance benefits. This measure will also provide consumers with greater choices in their health insurance provider. Expanding the available insurance coverage options will increase competition to the consumers' benefit."

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno's written remarks are as follows:

"Approximately 10% of Hawaii's population are medically uninsured. A significant portion of the uninsured are workers not covered by Hawaii's Pre-paid Health Care Act, particularly self-employed workers. It is estimated that about 11,950 self-employed workers are uninsured.

"The Hawaii Uninsured Project also reports that approximately 13,300 part-time workers and 46,500 self-employed workers currently have health insurance. Many of these workers are subscribers of individual plans provided by Hawaii's insurers. Because individual plans and group health plans with one or few number of employees are not part of larger employee pools, health insurance premiums for individual plans are generally more expensive than large group health plans. Larger employee group health plans are able to more effectively spread the health risk amongst their employees to better manage the cost and administration of coverage. The cost of health insurance, particularly for self-employed workers, single employee corporations or partnerships, and small business group health plans with few number of employees are of significant concern to Hawaii's business and general community.

"One of the reasons for higher premiums of individual plans results from impediments to insurers more cost-effectively combining various health-related benefits under the same policy. Although at least one small insurer has combined benefits under a single policy for seventeen years, the Hawaii Insurance Commissioner has recently chosen to interpret Hawaii law as prohibiting combining different types of health and sickness insurance benefits within the same policy. The Insurance Commissioner's position will necessarily increase costs that will be passed onto consumers through increased premiums.

"It is the goal and intent of S.B. 1803 C.D. 2 to expand access to health insurance by allowing broader coverage for less cost. S.B. 1803 C.D. 2 targets coverage to self-employed workers and businesses with one or few employees. It is the Legislature's intent to encourage the existing practice by smaller accident and sickness insurers to "bundle" different classes of insurance, such as health, dental, and vision together, thereby continuing the historical acceptance of this practice by small insurers who lack coercive power in the marketplace. In these circumstances bundling provides broader health care coverage in single unified policies, ultimately resulting in lower overall premiums, fostering greater competition within the Hawaii insurance marketplace, and providing consumers with greater flexibility, coverage and pricing options."

Representative Herkes rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Herkes' written remarks are as follows:

"Affordable health insurance is one of the State's most pressing concerns. According to the Hawaii Uninsured Project, about 120,000 Hawaii residents, ten percent of the State's population, is without health insurance.

Significant portions of Hawaii's medically uninsured are individuals who are part-time or self-employed workers. There are about 2,300 part-time workers and about 11,950 self-employed workers who are uninsured. Those classes of workers are part of the gap group that is not covered under Hawaii's Prepaid Health Care Act. The Prepaid Health Care Act requires employers to provide health insurance to full-time employees, and does not require coverage for self-employed workers.

"The Hawaii Uninsured Project also reports that approximately 13,300 part-time workers and 46,500 self-employed workers currently have health insurance. Many of these workers are subscribers of individual plans provided by Hawaii's insurers. Because individual plans and group health plans with one or few number of employees are not part of larger employee pools, health insurance premiums for individual plans are generally more expensive than large group health plans. Larger employee group health plans are able to more effectively spread the health risk amongst their employees to better manage the cost and administration of coverage. The cost of health insurance, particularly for self-employed workers, single employee corporations or partnerships, and small business group health plans with few number of employees are of significant concern to Hawaii's business and general community.

"One of the reasons for higher premiums of individual plans results from impediments to insurers more cost-effectively combining various health-related benefits under the same policy. Although at least one small insurer has combined benefits under a single policy for seventeen years, the Hawaii Insurance Commissioner has recently chosen to interpret Hawaii law as prohibiting combining different types of health and sickness insurance benefits within the same policy, as a violation of anti-tying statutes described in Haw. Rev. Stat. Section 431:13-103(a)(4)(B). The Insurance Commissioner's position will necessarily increase costs that will be passed on to consumers through increased premiums.

"S.B. 1803 C.D. 2 is intended to provide the Division of Insurance the authority and duty to allow broader combinations of insurance benefits. This measure will also provide consumers with greater choices in their health insurance provider. Expanding the available insurance coverage options will increase competition to the consumer's benefit.

"It is the Legislature's intent to encourage the existing practice by smaller accident and sickness insurers to "bundle" different classes of insurance, such as health, dental, and vision together, thereby continuing the historical acceptance of this practice by small insurers who lack coercive power in the marketplace. In these circumstances, bundling provides broader healthcare coverage in single unified policies, ultimately resulting in lower overall premiums, fostering greater competition within the Hawaii insurance marketplace, and providing consumers with greater flexibility, coverage and pricing options."

Representative Souki rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Souki's written remarks are as follows:

"It is the purpose and intent of S.B. 1803, C.D. 2 to expand access to health insurance by allowing broader coverage for less cost. S.B. 1803, C.D. 2 targets coverage to self-employed workers and businesses with one or few employees. S.B. 1803 provides greater flexibility for small insurers to provide comprehensive coverage to small businesses at a lesser cost.

"One of the reasons for this legislation is that in the past year the current Administration has chosen to interpret Hawaii law in a different way than it has ever been interpreted, to prohibit combining drug and medical coverage, or from combining medical, dental and drug, or any other combination of health related coverages into one insurance policy by small insurers. Numerous Hawaii laws already permit combining various types of health coverages under one policy, and this should be encouraged, not discouraged, to help provide the broadest health coverage possible for Hawaii's residents.

"This Administration has chosen to consider these combined benefits as a violation of State anti-tying laws, even though the U.S. Supreme Court has made clear that a company with less than 30% market share has no coercive power in the marketplace and cannot violate federal anti-tying laws. Jefferson Parish Hospital v. Hyde, U.S. 466 U.S. 2 (1984). Consistent with the federal standard, it is the Legislature's intent to encourage the existing practice by smaller accident and sickness insurers to "bundle" different classes of insurance, such as health, dental, and vision together, thereby continuing the historical acceptance of this practice by small insurers who lack coercive power in the marketplace. In these circumstances, bundling provides broader healthcare coverage in single unified policies, ultimately resulting in lower overall premiums, fostering greater competition within the Hawaii insurance marketplace, and providing consumers with greater flexibility, coverage and pricing options."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 2 noes with Representatives Ching and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Evans, Finnegan and Green being excused.

At 2:20 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 1803, SD 1, HD 1, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

H.B. No. 964, HD 1, SD 2, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 964, HD 1, SD 2, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill 964. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 964 addresses one of the major health and safety challenges that Hawaii's construction industry faces is drug usage. There is more exposure to crystal meth and other drugs, and consequently, substance abuse has become a problem that is leaving the workforce impaired and resulting in higher worker's compensation claims and production quality issues. With the rise of drug use affecting the quality of employees, we are concerned about Hawaii's ability to meet the needs of a growing construction industry. Currently, the number of drug tests is increasing, but as our economy grows and employers rush to fill positions, it is important and necessary that all companies implement a drug-screening program.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill would simply enable the industry to utilize the very latest and most cost-effective advancement in the science and technology of onsite drug detection which is oral fluid screening. This method of drug testing is widely used on the mainland, and this testing method would greatly assist in our fight to rid substance abuse where it might exist within our industry.

"There is nothing we value more than safety on the job. Safety affects not just the physical wellbeing for all concerned but the time, cost and profitability for the construction industry and ultimately the consumers of the industry.

"Mr. Speaker, twenty years ago, the Hawaii Carpenters were the first trade union in Hawaii to institute a drug testing policy for its members. This could not have been done without the support and cooperation of unionized contractors. At the time, they were aware of the costs, both human and monetary however because of drug testing, the industry has taken steps in protecting innocent lives and have improved in the quality of their work.

"Unfortunately Mr. Speaker, in today's drugs, starting with crystal meth, crystal meth is more insidious than ever before. We know the effects of drug abuse across our communities in the crimes and accidents that endanger our innocent children, families and fellow workers.

"Therefore Mr. Speaker, passing House Bill 964 would be a tremendous leap forward in fighting substance abuse and related injuries in Hawaii's construction industry. Given the dangers inherent in our workplace, to which this legislation is intended to address. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 964, HD 1, SD 2, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUBSTANCE ABUSE," passed Final Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 1 no, with Representative McKelvey voting no, and with Representatives Bertram, Evans, Finnegan and Green being excused.

At 2:21 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 964, HD 1, SD 2, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

H.B. No. 928, HD 1, SD 2, CD 2:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 928, HD 1, SD 2, CD

2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOCIAL SERVICES," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Evans, Finnegan and Green being excused.

At 2:21 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 928, HD 1, SD 2, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

H.B. No. 1004, HD 2, SD 1, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 1004, HD 2, SD 1, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in favor of this legislation. The purpose is to help the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs in the areas of regulatory reform by restructuring their division and giving them the resources necessary to do their important jobs.

"This bill also covers the critical area of our State's future energy policy. It will be the purview of the Consumer Advocate's Office to keep up with current regulatory conditions, as well as researching and analyzing important energy data. Because of that major responsibility, the office needs the resources to enable them to do this job well.

This bill will allow the Office to cut through the bureaucratic obstacles and get to the core of the issues at hand. It will also allow the Office to re-structure so that qualified individuals are recruited and retained to fulfill the sometimes arduous requirements of their jobs. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1004, HD 2, SD 1, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONSUMER ADVOCACY," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Evans, Finnegan and Green being excused.

At 2:23 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that H.B. No. 1004, HD 2, SD 1, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, CD 2:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, CD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support, but have some reservations just really briefly. Instead of a tax refund in the mail, we've decided to meet a congressional requirement with an income tax credit. I just personally feel that while I'm relieved that we are helping those that make $30,000 or less, I wish we would have also recognized that the middle class are also struggling and also recognize that this is kind of like a cruel tax credit, because people have to wait a year, until they do their taxes again to get it."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations also. I'm concerned that about 40% of the taxpayers in the State are getting nothing back where they made a very large contribution in taxes and I think the Constitution really meant for them to get something. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have some comments which I would like to have inserted in the Journal. They are in favor and it has to do whether the tax credit should go to all taxpayers."

Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"I am voting with reservations on the Constitutional Refund/Tax Credit, S.B. 148, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1. Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure to meet the constitutional obligation to provide tax relief, but I have some constitutional concerns.

"The Hawaii Constitution requires the Legislature to provide a tax credit or tax refund whenever the State general fund balance at the close of each of two successive fiscal year exceeds 5% of the general fund revenues for each of two fiscal year. These conditions have been met, and this bill is an attempt to grant that tax relief.

"However, this bill does not provide a refund or credit to all taxpayers. Those who make over a certain amount of money will be excluded from this constitutional mandated tax relief.

"For instance, taxpayers who file jointly and make over $60,000 will not get tax relief or those who file singly and/or who are married but file separately and make over $30,000 will not get relief. The Constitution mandates that we give tax relief to the people of Hawaii and now we are excluding certain individuals because they make a certain amount of money. Ironically, it is these individuals who pay most of the taxes that result in the surplus that we now enjoy. Although the federal courts generally give wide latitude to states in setting up their system of taxation, the fact that Hawaii will now give a rebate to some taxpayer, but not all taxpayers, may open the state to liability under the U.S. Constitution's Equal Protection Clause.

"Even if the federal courts do not construe the Equal Protection Clause of the U.S. Constitution as requiring a rebate for all taxpayer, the State Courts, in construing both the rebate requirement of the State Constitution and the Equal Protection clause of the State Constitution, may construe these provisions more strictly. Therefore even if the State is not liable under the federal constitutional analysis, the State may be held liable under the State Constitution if it fails to provide the same refund, particularly to similarly situated taxpayers. The State courts are more likely to base their rulings on an interpretation of the State Constitution because the federal courts will not review State courts' analyses of the State Constitution.

"Although the 1978 Constitutional Convention left it up to the Legislature to determine the refund "according to law", as a former member of the '78 Con Con and as a member of the Taxation and Finance Committee, my understanding of that provision was that the Convention should leave only the amount of the refund up to the Legislature to be determined according to State finances and the condition of the economy at the time. I do not believe that the Convention ever considered a graduated scale for the refund, and the single amount granted to each and every taxpayers seventeen times since adoption of this constitutional provision lends credence to my argument.

"While I cannot oppose this effort to grant tax relief to the hardworking people of Hawaii, I contend that every taxpayer is entitled to relief under this provision. Mahalo nui loa."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. This bill is too little, too late. It's better than nothing. But I think the Star-Bulletin editorial summarized it very well two days ago when the headline read: Tax Legislation Would Not End Hawaii's Misery Policies. I'll just share a couple of quotes: State budget surplus provided an opportunity to give taxpayers the special relief that they needed. Hawaii's tax policy is the meanest toward the working poor. The legislators again thumbed their nose, thumbed their noses, we have more than one nose obviously, at a proposal for the earned income tax credit. Governor Linda Lingle had proposed, and this is my segue into my spiel, Mr. Speaker, that the Governor had proposed more than $300 million that would affect all taxpayers. And thank God for the founding fathers who put this mandated rebate after two consecutive surpluses because without them, skinflint legislators would never give the money back unless the forefathers had the wisdom to mandate it. So I'm thankful to them.

"It was already mentioned why this was too late. I just mentioned that the rebate that comes through the tax system is not the check in the mail, which the Governor had proposed. This one is going to take until the next year starts and then the tax from the next year, which means for those who are expecting that when we beat our chest and say we gave you money back, they have to wait until 2009 before they get it.

"Mr. Speaker, I hope in the next Session we can focus more on delivering the structural flaw, not just saying, I feel your pain, but changing it. This body has the power and the votes, Mr. Speaker. And I speak as a loyal Minority. The loyal opposition. Change the system. Break down this wall between the poor and the tax structure. Mr. Speaker, you can do it. We can do it. It's just a matter of the political will. So this one falls short. It gives a little bit, but it leaves a lot to be desired. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I just wanted to counter some of the, I think, misstatements that the Constitution requires that the tax credit or tax refund go to all taxpayers. This section of the Constitution specifically says the Legislature in the next regular Session shall provide for a tax refund or a tax credit to the taxpayers of the State of Hawaii as provided by law. So because it says as provided by law and does not say that it goes through all or every taxpayer, it's very clear from the language of the Constitution that it is up to the Legislature how they want to do it. And if we in our best judgment and most prudent exercise of our discretion find that this is the best way to do it, then that is constitutional. Thank you very much."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, this measure is the perfect example of the ability of the Legislature to expend funds in a fiscally responsible manner. The fact that this credit has been given in consecutive years is even more amazing. It has been both an honor and a pleasure to learn from Chair of the Finance Committee how to accomplish its feat. More importantly, Mr. Speaker, this measure represents more than just extra money for hard working families and neighbors. It is the fruit of a responsible and balanced budget. Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to insert my additional written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Manahan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this measure is a perfect example of the ability of the Legislature to expend funds in a fiscally responsible manner. The fact that this credit has been given in consecutive years is even more amazing. It has been both an honor and a pleasure to learn from the Chair of the Finance Committee how to accomplish this feat. More importantly, Mr. Speaker, this measure represents more than just extra money for our hardworking families and neighbors; it is the fruit of a responsible, balanced, and parsimonious budget.

"We have provided for our future, we have done our duty to maintain and improve our infrastructure, and we are fortunate enough in these lean times to be able to provide something for our constituents. This budget instills confidence in the government, and provides me with the feeling that we can genuinely pass out good legislation, and that our Members will diligently be able to financially represent the will of the people."

Representative Chong rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. As we talked about the prior bill regarding the food tax credit, this bill also focuses on the middle income, as well as the low-income families. We wanted to focus on the average working family of Hawaii, whether it be the person working at the hotel, working two jobs maybe, or the person working at Longs Drugs. This bill will provide tax relief for those working families of Hawaii.

"And in rebuttal to the issue of time, the Administration's bill was to give the tax credit before or after December '07, at the end of this year. If I'm not mistaken, you still get to start filing your taxes at the beginning of the year, hence, based on the receiving a check versus when they can claim the credit, in reality, it wouldn't have been a year; probably. Just a month or two at the most. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, I do believe in progressive taxation, taxing richer people more and poorer people less. But a legal beagle, a very smart one, pointed out that this particular provision may be in contravention with the equal protection clause of our State Constitution. So I just wanted to point out that possible problem. And we have given a tax refund or tax credit to the people of the State for the past 17 years, to each taxpayer, so, I just wanted to know, since we are departing from this practice, whether it is all on the up and up. Thank you very much."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Just a couple of points. The first one is to touch upon the point made by the Majority Floor Leader. This is a break from tradition, a break from the orthodoxy of the past, whereby we might have passed our measure simply to address the constitutional provision as it is written and provide $1 to every taxpayer. We took a different approach, as the Vice Chair of Water, Land and Hawaiian Affairs mentioned. We took it to focus upon the middle- and low-income families of the state. I believe it is constitutionally correct and will sustain the constitutional scrutiny.

"The second point, Mr. Speaker, is that this measure here is in addition to what we did last year. Let's not forget that we did increase the standard deduction to 40% of the federal deduction. We also expanded the tax brackets for the personal income taxpayer by 20%, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just brief comments in support regarding the constitutional issue. The Majority Floor Leader did read from the Constitution and makes it clear that it is open and flexible. If you look at the legislative history, Mr. Speaker, for this measure when it was passed in 1978, you have delegates who repeat, repeat that they wanted to leave flexibility so that the Legislatures in the future with no end in sight, can come back and decide how to deal with the surplus after two years. And I'd like to insert for the record some of the legislative history to the record, if that's okay with you, Mr. Speaker.

"And there is no suspect class, Mr. Speaker, in this case as was somehow implied. Thank you very much."

Representative Caldwell's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, may I submit the following relevant direct quotes from the September 6, 1978 floor discussion of the 1978 Constitutional Convention:

Delegate Nozaki: Mr. Chairman, I rise to speak in favor of the amendment. I speak in favor of this amendment which comes down on the side of the hard-pressed taxpayers of our State. The intent of the amendment is clear-cut and simple; it says, in effect, whenever government collects too much from the taxpayers, at least a portion of the excess collection would be returned to the taxpayers….

Delegate Burgess: I would also like to speak in favor of the amendment. It compels the legislature to take some action in the event that our spending limitations succeed the way we hope they will, and we do indeed end up with a surplus. It does require the legislature to provide for a tax refund or a tax credit, but it's not so inflexible and rigid as to specify the amount of that tax refund or tax credit. It leaves a wide range of flexibility to the State to make whatever disposition of that surplus is most appropriate in view of the circumstances as they may exist at the time. It, I think, properly does what a constitutional provision should do—that is, to direct but not to be so rigid that it takes away flexibility. So I would support it."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure, asked that the remarks of Representative B. Oshiro be entered in the Journal as her own, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of the measure, which creates a modest $50 million tax relief package giving a one time rebate and a permanent food credit to lower and middle income residents.

"The constitutionally mandated rebate will apply to about 60% of our residents and be given on a graduated basis. Legislators have heard from constituents and from polls such as the "People's Pulse", that instead of a rebate, many would prefer to see us invest in our education system, both higher and lower, and in our health care system. That is exactly what we did."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just to equivocate with equivocation …"

The Chair then stated:

"Mr. Ward, would you like to insert written comments into the Journal?"

Representative Ward: "I was going to insert verbal comments."

Speaker Say: "No, no verbal comments. This is your third time and you're out of order."

Representative Ward: "So no speaking?"

Speaker Say: "No speaking. Just inserts."

Representative Ward: "I believe I only spoke once, actually."

Speaker Say: "I believe twice. Madame Clerk, can you recall? See, I'm already thinking that you did twice. That's only once. So I stand corrected."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, which is my point. Perception is reality. The perception of the law is, all. The perception is all taxpayers will get a rebate. What I've heard in the equivocation that is, well it depends on what 'is' is, and I think that's probably technically able to be squirmed out of. But when the Constitution, the forefathers, the framers of that said taxpayer will get a rebate, I don't think that they meant some and select. And like Representative Marumoto said, I think it's very well taken that we have progressive tax.

"But on this one, I'm still dumbfounded how we can identify as a body with the poor, but still say that just like Alabama, we'll just tax you to death. Mr. Speaker, I'm dumbfounded by that. We are the forty-ninth hardest taxing on our poorest people. I think we got to get out of that bottom forty-nine, Mr. Speaker. And, again, I appeal to you and the Majority, let's get out of this taxing the poor. We speak to them, we have compassion towards them, but let's get the structure of the tax system for them, rather than against them. Just saying I feel your pain and doing nothing about it doesn't make any sense, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for the ability to speak two times."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, CD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME TAX CREDIT," passed Final Reading by a vote of 47 ayes, with Representatives Bertram, Evans, Finnegan and Green being excused.

At 2:35 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 148, SD 2, HD 1, CD 2, passed Final Reading.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 205 and S.C.R. No. 48, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted and that S.C.R. No. 48, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At 2:36 o'clock p.m., Representative Magaoay requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 2:37 o'clock p.m.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, please record a no vote for me on this measure. I just don't think that this body should be carrying out the interest of certain people just trying to do their job. Thank you."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to record a no vote, as well. The subjects that we address in the S.C.R. are probably more properly determined in a court of law where the two interested parties are already fighting it out, so, I think we probably best leave it alone. Mahalo."

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition. I think that this measure is a legislative abuse of our power. It started off inquiring, asking for an Auditor's report, then it moved to Hawaii Disability Rights Center Report, back to the Auditors, and now it's placing responsibility on the Attorney General to look into the Hawaii Disability Rights Center. I don't think that we should be using our power in this matter. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 205 and S.C.R. 48, SD 1, HD 2, CD 1, be laid on the table, seconded by Representative Takai.

At 2:39 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 249, HD 1, SD 2, pass Final Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to speak against this measure. This is the hunting tourism, not hunting tourists bill. And my concern is that Hawaii should be known as a place where people love to come to enjoy the beauty and the environment of our islands and its people. I don't like to see us being known as a destination spot for people that want to shoot animals. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise in opposition. The fact that visitors don't need to have education regarding hunting or regarding anything having to do with Hawaii's history or having any responsibility to Hawaii is onerous to me. I rise in opposition. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 249, H.D. 1 and H.B. Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, bicycles are not only for recreation and exercise, but have become for many the mode of transportation to and from work. With the growing number of vehicles on our roads and the increase in the obesity of our citizens, we should encourage the use of healthy alternatives.

"This bill, Mr. Speaker, earmarks 2% eligible federally funds, and in addition, other State Highway Fund moneys for bicycle paths, installation of signage and safety devices along bicycle lanes and bicycle routes and directs the Department of Transportation to have a public involvement process. Again, this is 2% of the federally eligible moneys, not 2% of all federal moneys.

"This is a good bill and I encourage my colleagues to vote in support of this measure. Thank you."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am in support of this measure. Mr. Speaker, in 1967, the Hawaii State Legislature established the Crime Victim Compensation Commission to mitigate the physical, emotional and financial impact suffered by victims of violent crime. This crucially important organization needs specialized entrepreneurial staff to adequately serve Hawaii's violent crime victims. To help get this staff, and encourage applicants this measure before us will exempt all new employees from the provisions found in our civil service law of Chapter 76. It does allow for new employees collective bargaining rights found under Chapter 89.

"This bill does not exempt current employees from the civil service law, only new ones to maintain staffing levels. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 1493, H.D. 2 and H.B. Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. And for the two in the gallery, congratulations."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Ward, aren't you being a little presumptuous? The Fifth Floor may veto it."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, we depend on our EMS personnel for emergency services statewide, and they often save lives in the field.

"On occasion, EMS staff are physically threatened by violence or terroristic threatening, resulting in injury to personnel themselves or in disruption of their ability to carry out their work. This bill adds violence, or threat of violence, against EMS personnel to the offenses of assault in the second degree and terroristic threatening in the first degree. The bill will ensure that the work of the EMS can be carried out in a timely and effective manner—protecting both patients and those who serve them."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 1721, H.D. 1 and H.B. Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm voting against this bill and I would like to explain why. The bill is for special purpose revenue bonds to assist public utilities, including Hawaiian Electric, and with the dollar figure in the bond, it appears that it couldn't be for anything other than a new power plant. I don't support Hawaiian Electric having another power plant. I think they should be using renewable resources to power our islands. Thank you."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I speak very strongly in favor of this measure. The Constitutional Convention provided for this special revenue bonds just specifically for electric companies so they can stabilize the rates and, hopefully, keep the rates down, and have a lower rate of interest. As far as building a power plant, possibly we should limit the new energy from power plant to not include Kailua. Thank you very much."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In rebuttal to that. Mr. Speaker, when the Hawaiian Electric continues to use fossil fuel and when our law permits them to pass through the cost, the increase cost to fossil fuel, which is constantly going up, to pass that through to the consumer, to make the consumer pay it, Hawaiian Electric is not bringing our rates down. When Hawaiian Electric taps our natural resources which are readily available for a clean, reliable source of energy, then the rates will come down. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the House agreed to the amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 1902 and H.B. No. 1902, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF SPECIAL PURPOSE REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST UTILITIES SERVING THE GENERAL PUBLIC," passed Final Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Thielen voting no, and Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Evans, Finnegan, Green and Nakasone being excused.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR #1

At this time, the Chair announced:

"Members of the House, we have a supplemental calendar to extend our session. Do all of you have your Supplemental Calendar #1?

"Members of the House, please note that House Resolution No. 126 was re-referred solely to the Committee on Higher Education per Committee Referral Sheet No. 60 that was placed on your desk today. The Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection waived its referral to this measure and therefore for the Members of this House, it is appropriate for the House to consider action for adoption."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Representative Caldwell moved to suspend the rules of the House to reconsider action previously taken on H.R. No. 126, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Evans, Finnegan, Green and Nakasone were excused.).

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTION TAKEN

Representative Caldwell moved to reconsider action taken pursuant to the recommendations contained in Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1644 in referring H.R. No. 126 to the Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried. (Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Evans, Finnegan, Green and Nakasone were excused.).

ADOPTIONS

Representative Caldwell then moved that H.R. No. 126 be adopted, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to speak in favor of the Resolution, and in doing so, I would like to thank the Chairman of the Energy, Environmental Protection Committee, Vice Chair from Kauai and from Maui for waiving this and to the leadership of the Higher Education Committee in the House for passing this on at the first Committee referral.

"I'm really happy to see the Resolution pass, not so much for myself, but for the students who had banded together with some faculty members to establish a sustainable Saunders committee. They had wanted to make this classroom-office building seven stories high into a model of energy efficiency and sustainability. They had requested funds in the budget, which didn't make it in there, but they were hoping to have a $1.7 million appropriated for a photovoltaic roof, retrofitting of restrooms, change and improvements in lighting, and perhaps next year they will get their case heard.

"But they established a committee called HUB, Help Us Bridge, and students were very enthusiastic about trying to change the mindset on sustainability and lifestyles. So they really went into a recycle and reuse mode. They started using the stairs, they started saving energy, they tried recycling paper and everything that they used. They were very enthusiastic and were hoping to come down here to testify in the Energy Committee, but at least this will have passed and I'm sure they'll be very happy to hear the news. Mahalo nui loa, and please vote for this Resolution. Thank you."

At 3:29 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 3:31 o'clock p.m.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 126, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION REQUESTING ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND SUPPORT FOR THE "SUSTAINABLE SAUNDERS" PROJECT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII – MANOA THAT SEEKS TO DEVELOP SAUNDERS HALL AS A MODEL FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND SUSTAINABILITY," was adopted, with Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Evans, Finnegan, Green and Nakasone being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, I rise as a freshman to thank the Majority, the Minority, and on behalf of all 13 of us, and I didn't ask them if I could speak for them, but it's been a great reorientation, here on the Floor, where democracy, I think more than ever, has really shown. So, thank you very much, and for those who thought maybe I spoke too much too often or disagreed, my apologies, my forgiveness, and we will see again and meet again on this place, the market place of ideas next Session. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for allowing me to speak on behalf of the Republican Caucus. I first want to thank Boyd Akase and Malia Gray and the rest of the Minority Research staff and all of our staffs of the Republican Caucus and I ask that their names be entered in thanks into the Journal.

"Mr. Speaker, Groucho Marx once said, 'Only one in a thousand men is a leader of men. The other nine hundred and ninety-nine all are women.' So the women of the Republican Caucus want to thank our one man that has allowed us to lead with grace and he has been such a joy to all of us. And his knowledge, from before my time, has helped us to make great decisions.

"Throughout the Session, Mr. Speaker, we have been divided on many issues. We've had press conferences back and forth, separate press conferences, but something really special happened this Session. We started and ended with press conferences together, Republicans and Democrats. We started this Session trying to save the Legislature with ethics reform. Unfortunately, we did fall a little short. But there's always next year. Sadly, we rejected, well, the other house, rejected the Lingle nominations, but she'll come back again next year, and, hopefully, those nominations will go through.

"So we've had our ups and downs, and maybe one of our low points this Session was in trying to divide our State hospitals, we almost divided ourselves. We almost divided ourselves by passing rumors instead of good public policy. And most outstandingly and in the end, the person that was hurt the most showed the most grace.

"So at the end of the Legislature, instead of saving the Legislature from itself, or we can do it next year, we decided to end together by trying to save the world through global warming.

"And so what have we learned this Session? We learned that while we are very different, we can, and we should work together. And, most importantly, we should not pass legislation trying to hurt someone else. When leading, we should always drown the voices of false rumors and allow good public policy to prevail. So thank you, Mr. Speaker, for leading us with such honor and I thank the Majority for respecting us in the end in trying to save the world."

Representative Pine submitted the following names of the House Minority Research permanent staff which are in addition to the Session staff subsequently listed:

Candace Kelsey, Shannon Hough, James Delavan, and Danielle Douglass.

Representative Souki: "Yes, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, as a former Speaker, I wish to congratulate you on running a well-run, and disciplined house; open. But, more so, with the personal tragedies that you had, and in spite of all that, you let it go beyond and still looked out for the welfare of the House and not your own personal welfare and feelings. And for that, Mr. Speaker, a job well done."

Representative Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, on those notes, it is somewhat bittersweet to end the Session because you've all worked so hard together. First, it's difficult to say goodbye to an excellent Session staff. And in that regard, I'd like to enter the names of all our Session staff in the House Journal for posterity, to let the people of this State know the names of those who committed and worked so hard to make a difference for everyone in our State.

"Second, Mr. Speaker, I think we've all discovered and reaffirmed that public service is a noble undertaking and we can be very proud of what we did, both our Majority and our Minority Caucuses. And we remain committed to the theme that we started out with of making Hawaii more affordable for all our residents. We sent the Governor a budget that is fiscally responsible and focuses on the area of housing, healthcare, and education. Many hundreds of millions of dollars in those areas.

"And we provided a meaningful tax relief, Mr. Speaker, for those who are hanging on by their fingernails, the lower sixty percent. We gave the people a tax credit, a food tax credit of $31 million; an excise tax forgiveness on gas of somewhere between $32 million and $48 million; and rebate of $25 million. Compounded with the relief we provided last year that has carried over to this year, there is about $150 million of relief to various sectors of our community.

"And we did it, Mr. Speaker, not with a 'pie in the sky', give the money away, the Hail Mary pass with a hope and a prayer. We worked very hard, Mr. Speaker, through the Finance Committee and Ways and Means to make sure that in a slowing economy in the out years, we don't have to cut and take back what we're funding this year.

"And here are some of the other highlights, Mr. Speaker. We provided meaningful pedestrian safety measures to protect our kupuna and many others on the streets. We provided meaningful rate regulation for health insurance through the guidance and hard work of the Chair of Health. We funded Kukui Gardens to make sure that those units remain affordable. We addressed the issue of medical reimbursements through the DSH, or disproportionate share of hospital allowances.

"We worked hard to make sure another Kaloko Dam breach does not occur again through our dam safety bill. We passed greenhouse gas legislation, Mr. Speaker. We dealt with the issue of copper theft through the leadership of the Chair of Judiciary. We passed true petroleum monitoring transparency by funding with $1.2 million so that when that excise tax forgiveness is provided on gas, we can see whether it's really passed on to the consumer.

"We addressed the issue of innovation that the Governor took on, and through her focusing a bright light on the issue, we were able to even move more innovation legislation through than previously through the guidance of the Economic Development Committee Chair. We funded the West Oahu Campus, Mr. Speaker, after many years of debating this. We funded Kahuku Hospital. These are just some of the highlights, Mr. Speaker, we can all be proud of.

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, our Caucus is a large caucus, 43 strong, with a broad range of ages, from our Vice Speaker who is the youngest, to our Speaker Emeritus who acts likes he's the youngest. We're diverse ethnically, and we approach solving problems from many different angles that reflect the communities that we come from. And we don't always agree, and we can be fractious, Mr. Speaker, both within our caucuses and in public. But, you know, Mr. Speaker, that's very much like our own Party and it only makes us stronger in the end.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, we had 11 freshmen in our Caucus and two on the Minority side, and those freshmen are rapidly becoming mature legislators, except for the Representative from Hawaii Kai, who is somewhat mature already from previous experience. But what is really incredible, Mr. Speaker, is we had seven Chairs of Committees with just two years of experience, who stepped up to the plate and to the challenge that you gave them, and served admirably to the people of the State of Hawaii. And they did so by bringing a fresh approach to the issues facing their Committees. We also had five chairs who were serving as Chairs of Committees that they never served before as Chairs on.

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you on behalf of all of us, both Majority and Minority Members for the guidance, support and leadership that you provided, sometimes through very trying times. And you did it always with grace, with compassion, with love for this body, for this House and for this Chamber.

"Mr. Speaker, on Opening Day, you said and I quote, 'Don't be afraid to think big, to think beyond the immediate. Don't' be afraid to take risks. Your constituents hope you will.' Mr. Speaker, I believe that every Member of this House followed your lead in that way. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Chair addressed the Members, stating:

"Let me begin by saying, thank you. It has been trying times. The passage of my mother in February. The passage of my father in April. But they have given me the strength to carry out the duties of this position. We have all come to the end of the 2007 Legislative Session and I truly believe that we can look back and be proud of the work we have accomplished for the people of the State of Hawaii.

"We had a solid Session. We have passed a balanced budget that invests in public health, Josh, John, Maile, Karl, the Health Committee Chair and Vice Chair and their Committee members, and the Human Services and Housing Committee Chair and Vice Chair. And it is for the greater good of the people of the State of Hawaii.

"People have said that this House is also fiscally conservative. I share with you in the last nights of Conference and negotiations, a House provision in trying to revise the Council on Revenues projections gave way to a 5.5 percent projection. The House of Representatives was looking at a 4 percent and 6 percent projection in anticipation of a downturn in fiscal year '07. I am hopeful. I am optimistic that the projections will achieve this goal of 6 percent. But if not, for every percentage point that we lose on the Council's projection, it equates to about $47 million. And we have been responsible in recognizing that future economic performance and tax revenues will not reach the levels previously projected.

"Today, for the juniors and sophomores of this House, you were very privileged to have three to four years of double digit growth, whereby, the Legislature, along with the Administration, came up in last year of '06, with a $743 million surplus. I'm proud of the way this body has invested that particular surplus. I am not going to dwell on the ten great issues and programs that we have adopted, but I want more to share with all of you that this is your institution that you represent; to keep it open and honest and also transparent so that the general public can have a better understanding of the legislative process.

"The perception out there is this: This is a square building where it's almost like an animal house where things get chaotic. But I'm very, very proud of the performance of all 50 Members of this Chamber. Your contributions, your insights, your debate, and discussions in Committee and on the Floor of the House have contributed to a greater understanding of what this institution is all about.

"I must say this to Chair Waters and Vice Chair Blake Oshiro and your Committee on Judiciary, you all have shown political courage by holding hearings on controversial measures, such as death with dignity, civil unions, and tort reform. Although the measures did not pass this House, we gave the proponents and the opponents the opportunity to present their views in an open, public forum as it should be, as done in a democracy. We may not always agree to the process of setting priorities in making decisions, but despite our differences, we have worked well together.

"I am proud that we've been civil with each other in our debates, in our Committees, and on the Floor. And we have chosen to take care of the people's business in a responsible and high-minded manner. For that, I thank you all, Members of the both the Majority and the Minority parties.

"For the freshmen, this afternoon, even though today is the last day of the Session, we all have much more work to do in the interim. The planning for next year starts tomorrow. Like I shared with President Hanabusa when she came over to say that they had adjourned Sine Die, we will be meeting next week to start planning the appointments of the joint House and Senate Investigative Committee.

"In the upcoming weeks, I share this with all of you. I'll be 'talking story' with you to determine who will be on the taskforce to address ethics and standards of conduct in State government. And for all of you, I wish you the very best as far as being active in your respective program areas as you go through the interim.

"Personally, I know that all of you will be working hard and I have no doubt about it. And I know in 2008 we will be addressing more of the critical issues, those of our constituency, and those of our future generations which will have to be addressed.

"In closing, I'm very proud to be a part of this class. Your dedication to serving your community is the heart and soul of the House of Representatives. Thank you again, for a great Session. Aloha.

"May I share this. Your applause should be for all of you. And I would like to say this: At least my mom and dad are watching me from Heaven. Thank you."

Representative Luke: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Don't look so frightened. I'm not going to make a speech, Rep. Caldwell. Actually, I just wanted to announce the birth of a grandchild for one of our colleagues, and the grandchild's name is Karley Kapuamaikalani Takumi Arion and she is the fifth grandchild of our Representative Roy Takumi, and the second granddaughter. I guess he was always vertically challenged and he wanted his own basketball team. Now he can have one. Born on Sunday, April 29, she weighed six pounds and seven ounces, so, if we could just applaud our grandfather for the fifth time."

Representative Sonson: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I would like to thank Glenn Booth and his staff with Capitol TV for their excellent work this Session covering both the Committee hearings and sessions. They do a great service to our community and is a way for our families, our constituencies to actually participate in the process. When I went home on Tuesday night, my daughter told me that she agreed with me and my point regarding Pufi, her little pet. So it's working. Everyone's watching us on Capitol TV. So thank you very much for your great service."

Representative Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, may I make one last request before we move to adjourn Sine Die. Upon Sine Die, on behalf of both the Majority Caucus and Minority Caucus, I would like, if you would agree, to allow the Representative from Puna and the Representative from Nanakuli along with the rest of the Hawaiian Caucus to lead us in Hawaii Aloha."

Speaker Say: "Yes, I would recommend that we invite just the freshman class to lead us in Hawaii Aloha. Representative Belatti, Representative Mizuno, Representative Sagum, Representative McKelvey, Representative Manahan, Representative Tokioka, Representative Hanohano, Representative Awana, Representative Rhoads, Representative Brower."

Representative Caldwell: "Mr. Speaker, before we actually sing Hawaii Aloha, which should be beautiful, I think we should move to adjourn Sine Die and then we can sing."

Speaker Say: "They can stand up here with me. I have the authority, so come on up, freshmen. Representative Caldwell, would you like to make the proper motion before we start Hawaii Aloha?"

ADJOURNMENT

Representative Caldwell moved that the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2007, adjourn Sine Die, seconded by Representative Thielen.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and at 3:55 o'clock p.m., the Speaker rapped his gavel and declared the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2007, adjourned Sine Die. (Representatives Bertram, Cabanilla, Evans, Finnegan, Green and Nakasone were excused.)
