On behalf of the Judiciary, I would like to commend all of you for your commitment to serving the people of this great State.

"And speaking of commitment, it reminds me of my first year in law school in the State of Iowa, which certainly was a foreign country at that time. And at our orientation program, I recall our Dean giving his orientation speech to the first-year law students, and he spoke about the concept of commitment and he urged us first-year law students to be totally committed to the law and to the profession. And being in the state which is part of the, as you know, the 'Farm Belt' of the United States, he appropriately made his point by discussing a discussion between a pig and a chicken.

"The chicken said, 'I am totally committed to giving eggs in the morning.' And the pig responded, 'That's not total commitment, that's participation. Giving ham is total commitment.' So, I thank you for your total commitment."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION

The following resolution (H.R. No. 2) was read by the Temporary Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ELECTING THE SPEAKER AND VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE," electing the Honorable Calvin K.Y. Say, Representative from the Twentieth District and Jon Riki Karamatsu, Representative from the Forty-First District, as Speaker and Vice Speaker, respectively, of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Hawaii was jointly offered by Representatives Caldwell and Finnegan.

Representative Caldwell moved that H.R. No. 2 be adopted, seconded by Representative Finnegan.

Representative Saiki rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Chair, I rise to speak in opposition to this motion. Mr. Chair, I have some written comments that I'd like to insert into the Journal, and I'd also like to summarize my comments.

"Thank you, Mr. Chair. Mr. Chair, first, I want to apologize to all of the family members and other guests who are here today. It's not ordinary to speak in this context on Opening Day because, after all, this is a ceremonial day for all of us. But the fact of the matter is that we do take important votes on Opening Day, one of which is the vote for the Speaker, and this is the only opportunity that the Members of House have to voice their opinions on this matter.

"Mr. Chair, for the last two years, I have been quiet in hope that things in the House would get better, but they did not, and that is why I am voting "no" on this Resolution, with all due respect to my colleagues in the House.

"As you know, I spelled out some of my reasons for voting "no" in an opinion piece that was published in the Hawaii Tribune Herald and Honolulu Star Bulletin. I received about two dozen responses to that piece. The common reaction was that I should have been more specific, so I'll try to be more specific this morning, again with all due respect to my colleagues and to all of the guests who are here today.

"As a Democratic majority, our responsibility is to enact good legislation to benefit all Hawaii residents, not just a connected few. Eight years ago, the House elected a new Speaker. I was proud to be a part of that movement. I had a lot of hope that the Democrats, with new, young elected Representatives, and through sound leadership, would restore public confidence in government and would make good policy decisions in an honest and informed way. I had a lot of hope that we would recognize changes occurring within our State and work to address them.

"I was a part of that leadership team for six years. We did some good, far-ranging things. By working with the Senate, we passed landmark legislation to enact a bottle recycling bill, reform the school budgeting process, fight the ice epidemic and make prescription drugs affordable. But even while we implemented these programs, I discovered too often that certain individuals were taking us back to the politics of the past.

"The priority for some was to protect narrow interest based on personal relationships with those who would benefit from the legislation. For example, we were asked to approve a $100 million subsidiary for a private raceway park, even if it compromised ethical standards. We were asked to pass legislation to allow the developer to build a subdivision on agricultural land even if it meant circumventing our House Rules and a State court ruling.

"As part of the Majority, we should not have to spend time fighting such bad policies. I believe that we should be asked to do better. We should be asked to restore public confidence in government. We should be asked to carry out our constitutional duty to act as a separate and co-equal branch of State government and to identify policy priorities, develop solutions and enact them even over the Governor's objections and regardless of the Governor's political affiliation. And that is why I believe that we require new leadership.

"New leadership will ask us to enact and enforce ethical standards to prevent self-dealing. New leadership will ask us to approve real renewable energy legislation to protect the environment. New leadership will ask us to approve tax relief for hard working families. New leadership will ask us to raise our standards in terms of how we make decisions, enforce ethical rules and resolve our State's challenges.

"This is what we can do if we are not distracted by bad legislation and narrow interest. I have not given up on this Session. There is great potential for the new Members of the House. If we work with the Senate, we will pass good legislation and we will move our State forward. I hope that the House is up to the challenge. Thank you very much, Mr. Chair."

Representative Saiki's written remarks are as follows:

"State House Needs Real Reform
Representatives Scott K. Saiki and Sylvia J. Luke

One key indicator of how the Legislature will conduct business is the way it selects its leaders and committee chairpersons. The Senate has gone in the right direction with its focus on openness, moving away from petty politics and the status quo. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said of the House of Representatives.

As was recently reported, key community leaders, such as U.S. Senator Daniel Inouye, recognized that House Democrats are factionalized and attempted to fix it. On the day after the general election, Democratic Party Chair Mike McCartney convened a meeting with Representatives Calvin Say, Kirk Caldwell, Marcus Oshiro and ourselves. Senator Inouye specifically requested veteran Finance Committee Chair, Dwight Takamine to attend.

At the meeting, Senator Inouye expressed his hope that the factions would resolve their differences and work together for the good of the State. He then asked Rep. Takamine to serve as a mediator and to bring the sides together to work out a compromise.

Immediately after Senator Inouye and McCartney left the meeting, Rep. Say told the group that he intended to serve as speaker for the next eight years and would do whatever it took to retain that position. The following week, as he gathered votes, he did not respond to Rep. Takamine's requests to meet.

Rep. Say eventually garnered the 26 votes he needed to continue as speaker. But in doing so, he and the House leadership team denied that Senator Inouye had requested a compromise, and then ousted Rep. Takamine and other House members who had not supported them. In doing so, the House lost an opportunity to provide real leadership and to bring about change in the way the House conducts business.

However, moving forward, we must all recognize that we were elected to serve the general public, and that it is not too late to bring about real reform. By working with the Senate leadership, the House can implement a progressive agenda that will improve the Legislature and residents' quality of life. Here are a few things that we can do.

1. Increase ethical standards. The House needs to prevent self-dealing from occurring. Self-dealing results in bad legislation and policy decisions. We must set higher standards and learn to enforce them - even against our colleagues.

2. Approve immediate tax relief for working people. Programs such as the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) can provide over $20 million in annual tax relief for thousands of working families in Hawaii. The federal government and 20 other states have already adopted the EITC. Hawaii should provide this and other tax relief to our residents.

3. Pass an aggressive renewable energy agenda. In recent years, the House has watered down bold proposals to reduce our reliance on oil. We can no longer afford to do this. We must set a comprehensive plan to reduce our dependence on foreign oil and its impact on other facets of our economy. We cannot continue to prolong action if we are to become more self-sufficient.

This is just an example of what is possible. For six years, we served as part of Rep. Say's leadership team, but resigned in 2004 when we realized that Rep. Say was not willing to change.

"It is time to put aside the old way of doing things. We believe that our generation and those that follow deserve a sharp and progressive Legislature that will work for the public interest. We hope the House is up to the task.

Representatives Saiki (D-McCully, Moiliili) and Luke (D-Pauoa, Nuuanu) previously served as Majority Leader and Vice Speaker, respectively, of the House of Representatives"

November 28, 2006

Dear Dwight,

I learned recently what happened in the House leadership organization. I fear that my request of you – to facilitate between the two sides – may have cost you your Chairmanship of the House Finance Committee.

Dwight, I am truly sorry. Had I had any inkling of the harmful position I asked you to assume, I would never have done it. My request to you was based on the high regard I hold you and that you are held in to both chambers and in many leadership circles from business, non-profits to labor. It was also based on the need to at least try to get beyond the factions and focus on strengthening the institution in light of our Democratic victories at the polls. Too much energy had been focused on fighting and stymieing each other across the caucus table, all the while giving the Governor upstairs a free ride.

I fear my friend that I may have made things worse – with more, not less blood, on the floor. If there is anything I can do for you, please do not hesitate to contact me. I owe you one.

Aloha!

The Honorable Sylvia Luke

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Chair, I also rise in opposition to this Resolution and have a few remarks. First, I also apologize to our guests as this is typically a day of ceremony and celebration. However, I cannot in good conscience let this moment pass without recording my dissent.

"It has been whispered about me that I should learn to act like a freshman. That I should know my place. Mr. Chair, my place is on this floor and I refuse to be intimidated from using my voice and exercising my right to vote.

"Mr. Chair, my hope upon being elected was that the leadership of this House would be based on the principles of compromise, fairness and respect. Surely, these same principles should also operate in the policy-making arena to arrive at the very best laws for the entire community. Instead, I am disturbed that we operate within a culture where the politics of retribution and punishment are the norm and protecting our elected positions is more important than the public good.

"Despite my deep concerns about the organization of this House, Mr. Chair, I am optimistic that the people's work will get done and that our Members will strive to pass a progressive package that addresses the concerns of families. We need to do this because despite the recent prosperity of our State, the price of paradise is now exacting too much on our working families and the middle class.

"We must pass the earned income tax credit that provides targeted relief to our families who are struggling the most. We must also preserve Hawaii's environment for future generations and not give in to the temptation to squander our natural resources.

"Mr. Chair, I speak out today and vote "no" to this Resolution because I believe there is still hope. There are problems that Hawaii is facing that are bigger than us all, and this is no time to sacrifice progress so that a few can cling to power and maintain the status quo. I believe this House can still do great things if it chooses to put community before self-interest and people before politics. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Good morning, Mr. Chair. I rise in support of the motion. Mr. Chair, I would say no apology need be given for these statements made on the floor today for this is the people's House, Mr. Chair, and we represent all the people.

"We encourage debate on the important issues and this is one of those debates, and I am proud to be the Majority Leader and stand before this Body and to be part of this discussion in the openness, in open sunshine, in front of our friends, families, honored guests, and others. I think it says everything about what we're about as Americans, as citizens of Hawaii, and about our rough and tumble business of American democracy. This is the people's House. This is the kind of discussion we have.

"This discussion's been ongoing since the reorganization challenge. We've been open in every Caucus to people airing their views and talking about various leadership styles. We have voted and reorganized the House and I am proud to say that out of 18 Chairs, we have 8 chairs who have four or less years of experience. This is not a top down. This is not 'old boy.' This is not a shutting out of discussion. This is opening the House to full discussion and allowing those who may not have much experience in this legislative body to bring fresh and new ideas and perspectives.

"Many of these Chairs come from our Neighbor Islands, and those Neighbor Islands need to be represented. So I am proud to say that this organization structure that has been put in place by Speaker Calvin Say, and with help from many others in our Caucus is about openness, is about giving people a voice, is about moving forward.

"And I welcome the ongoing discussion that we may have as we go forward this Session on many of the important issues of the day. Whether it be on energy, we do owe the people of this State better energy proposals, and we are going to continue to work hard on that. On ethics, we will continue to look at better ways to bring discipline to this House where need be. On involving the public, we are open for business every day of the week in our offices and in our Committee hearings. This is an open House. This is a House, I think, we can all be proud of being members of, and I don't think we owe an apology to anyone here for the debate that we are having right now. But I do request all Members to please vote "yes" on this Resolution. Thank you very much, Mr. Chair."

Representative Luke rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Chair. Mr. Chair, I greatly appreciate the words of the Majority Leader, but I must speak in opposition to this Resolution. And I do appreciate the words of the Majority Leader. And I do believe that we can do great things. Together we can make good legislation and solve more problems. And together we can overcome obstacles and some of the challenges that are faced today and beyond, and to work together to do good for the State of Hawaii. And I do appreciate his words that he, too, will remain open and continue great discussion and debate on this Floor and throughout.

"However, Mr. Chair, as I said before, I rise in opposition to this Resolution. Mr. Chair, we are all reformist by nature and that's why we run for office, to bring changes that will benefit the public and make government responsive to its people.

"However, over the years, our residents have lost faith in government to do the right thing. And at the core of that cynicism is a view that the Legislature is filled with entrenched cronies who benefit from self-dealing and from self-interests. Even last year, when I spoke to the Advertiser's editorial community board members, the biggest issues that they perceive was the self-dealing that was going on at the Legislature and they asked me to look at various ethic laws, Sunshine laws to help the public understand and, perhaps, lead to transparency in the Legislature. Out of all issues, that was their biggest concern and that was their biggest issue that was brought up at the Community Board.

"Because of this cynicism fewer and fewer residents vote as they become more skeptical about our government. So, instead of making reforms, what do we do? We ignore these concerns, and rather clench tighter and tighter to the status quo. We must stop the self-dealing and make reforms to earn the public's trust and make sound policy. We owe it to our constituents to do better. We owe it to ourselves to do better. We owe it to the future to do better.

"Many of us became legislators with hopes and dreams to do great things, solve real problems. Some of us have tried to make changes from within. However, if we cannot trust the process, how can we trust the product? I have lost my faith and trust in the Speaker nominee. The lack of vision, the lack of leadership, and the need to hold on to power and the old ways of doing things have been more than just disappointing. It simply breaks my heart. Because we need to provide hope, because we need to provide courage, I am voting in opposition to this motion. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell rose, stating:

"Yes. Mr. Chair, I don't know if there's going to be any further comments, but when it comes time for a vote on this motion, on this Resolution, which I'm encouraging everyone to vote "yes" on, I would like it to be a roll call vote. To continue that open sunshine, we can see and show to all the people of our State where we stand on this Resolution. Thank you very much, Mr. Chair. So, roll call vote.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I rise in strong support of this Resolution. I want to comment on some of the previous speakers' comments. This process does work. It's incredible. I have been here. This is my third term, my fifth year, and without a doubt, it is a process.

"There are 51 people in this Chamber. It takes a majority to pass legislation. When it came to determining what our leadership team would look like, it was by vote. There was a process. It works. I think the people of Hawaii should be very proud of what comes out of this House, and it is all about process.

"When you start with almost 17, 18 hundred bills in the House and come out with 260 at the end, it's about debate, it's about going around and working on the issues and coming to agreement. So, this does work and I strongly support this Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in support. Under Calvin Say's leadership, Hawaii has realized a thriving economy, a robust construction industry, and a low crime rate. We supported innovative technology. We supported our University with over $50 million in new money last year, and over $100 million for repair and maintenance of our schools. Mr. Speaker, sunny days and bright skies. The future looks bright. And as Believe says, 'Ain't no mountain high enough.' Thank you."

The request for a roll call vote was put to vote by the Chair and upon a show of hands, the roll call was approved.

Roll call having been approved, the motion that H.R. No. 2 be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and carried on the following show of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 48: Representatives Awana, Berg, Bertram, Brower, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Ching, Chong, Evans, Finnegan, Green, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Magaoay, Manahan, Marumoto, McKelvey, Meyer, Mizuno, Morita, Nakasone, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Pine, Rhoads, Sagum, Say, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Souki, Takai, Takamine, Takumi, Thielen, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Ward, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Noes, 3: Representatives Belatti, Luke and Saiki.

The Temporary Chair appointed Representatives Caldwell, B. Oshiro, Finnegan and Meyer to escort the newly elected Speaker to the rostrum.

The Temporary Chair then stated:

"Members of the House of Representatives, I present the Honorable Calvin K.Y. Say, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature," and presented the Speaker with the gavel.

The Speaker then addressed the body, stating:

"Members of the House. Thank you for your vote of confidence and support. I pledge to you that I will execute my duties and responsibilities with fairness consistent with the Hawaii State Constitution and the State statutes.

"I would like to share with the Members of this House, family and friends, people of the State of Hawaii. This is your House. This is your democratic House, and this is how we operate in full and public discussion over these past eight years. I applaud those who voted against me because for me, it is constructive criticism in improving one's behavior and responsibilities for this major institution."

The Chair then appointed Representatives Caldwell and Finnegan to escort the Honorable Jon Riki Karamatsu to the rostrum.

The Chair presented the Vice Speaker, stating:

"Members of the House of Representatives, ladies and gentlemen, I present the Honorable Jon Riki Karamatsu, Vice Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature."

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative Finnegan and carried, H.R. No. 4 was adopted.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 1 and 2) were read by the Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

H.C.R. No. 1, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RELATING TO RECESS DAYS FOR THE REGULAR SESSION OF 2007," relating to the mandatory recess for the Regular Session of 2007, determined to be the 22nd, 23rd, 26th, 27th, and 28th days of February 2007; and the dates of the recesses, other than the dates of the mandatory recess, for the Regular Session of 2007, determined to be the 23rd and 25th days of January, the 5th, 7th, and 28th days of March, the 9th, 11th, and 30th days of April, and the 2nd day of May of 2007, pursuant to Article III, Section 10 of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, was jointly offered by Representatives Caldwell and Finnegan.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative Finnegan and carried, H.C.R. No. 1 was adopted.

H.C.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS THE LEGISLATURE ASSEMBLED IN JOINT SESSION," on the 22nd of January at 10:00 a.m., was jointly offered by Representatives Say, Karamatsu, Caldwell and Finnegan.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative Finnegan and carried, H.C.R. No. 2 was adopted.

At 11:12 o'clock a.m., the Chair declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair.

At this time, the members of the House, their guests and audience were entertained by DeLima Ohana:

The House of Representatives reconvened at 11:44 o'clock a.m.

At this time the Speaker delivered his address, stating:

"Honored guests, Members, ladies and gentlemen. Aloha and welcome. The 24th Hawaii State Legislature convenes today.

"Our nation remains engaged in a war overseas with no end in sight, and our State faces an important turning point in its future.

"I want to talk with you in these next few minutes with as much candor and clarity as possible because I believe the challenge of our times demand it.

"The days ahead will be difficult, but we will be guided forward in the certain knowledge that the talents, creativity, generosity, and resilience of the people of Hawaii are almost unlimited. But for the Members of this House, their patience, however, is not. They expect us to move Hawaii forward without regard to personal politics or special interests.

"Allow me today to share with you where I see our biggest challenges. These challenges are a call for citizenship and each of us must respond on a national, state and community level.

"For all of us, let us begin with our nation.

"There are those who claim that this legislative body should concern itself only with State matters – that the war in Iraq is something for our leaders in Washington to worry about. I am troubled by that thought. It has been estimated that the final costs of this war will be close to $1 trillion.

"For Hawaii alone, the war will cost more than $1.2 billion. Just think – with these resources we could have provided health care for more than 400,000 of our people. Just think. We could have paid the salaries of more than 23,000 elementary school teachers. We could have built 3,800 affordable units. Or we could have hired almost 3,000 public safety officers. Any way you look at it, Hawaii's losses in this war have been substantial.

"However, I would like to point this out, that through it all, our military has stood strong. Their bravery, their dedication to Hawaii and the nation, and their courage in the face of such overwhelming brutality in Iraq is enormous. Our praise and thanks for their sacrifices should be unending.

"As of this month, all of you should know that 181 young men and women with ties to Hawaii have lost their lives. Last year the Legislature honored their memories and families with the Hawaii Medal of Honor and we will continue to award this special recognition as long as this unfortunate war continues.

"For all of us, it is the very least that we can do.

"After serving 30 years in this body, I feel this is a special opportunity to share with you what I have come to see as hard truths we must face together as a people. And I think this day, when so many of us are gathered together in one place – a day when many members of our communities will take time to visit with us –it is a good time to have this frank discussion.

"I believe Hawaii must face the years ahead confident that our people can stand on their own. We depend too much on the outside world for our survival and that's a dangerous thing to do.

"All our food and consumer goods are imported. Our economy runs on tourism and the military. Our transportation system runs on oil and gas that must cross thousands of open miles of ocean space to get here.

"Our electricity system has few backups, because unlike any other state, we don't have a national power-grid to plug into.

"If real trouble comes, our current economic dependency will come to a complete halt. If you think that's an exaggeration, think about what happened in New Orleans, with all the connections to transportation, power, and oil. Look what happened there.

"Former Governor George Ariyoshi was right when he said, 'We must shape our own future, not have it thrust upon us by forces over which we have little or no control.'

"Today, Hawaii remains the most oil dependent State in the nation with over 90 percent of our primary energy coming from oil. And, despite all of the efforts of the Legislature, the Administration and energy stakeholders, we are likely to remain highly dependent on imported oil for many years to come.

"It has been said that Hawaii has more renewable energy resources than any state in the nation. And we do have abundant wind, solar, geothermal, ocean wave, and ocean thermal resources. However, converting those resources into usable electricity and transportation fuels is yet technically or financially not feasible.

"And that's because of our energy geography. Many of our renewable resources are on the Big Island, but most of our State's population is on Oahu.

"Right now, Oahu's only renewable resources are wind, solar and garbage. All of you realize wind is intermittent and even building a wind farm has been difficult because of community opposition. We can expand the amount of solid waste we use for energy, but the total increase will take only a small bite out of our power demand.

"All of you have heard much in the past year about ethanol. At the national level, the ethanol craze seems to be of great benefit to big corporate corn farmers. The production of ethanol from corn may not be saving the country any imported oil.

"For Hawaii, today we do import ethanol into the State. In the future, we could make it here from sugar – and that process is more than six-and-a-half times as efficient as corn-based ethanol.

"We have very generous incentives for investments in ethanol production. And I'm happy to say that in the next two months, we expect at least two Hawaii-based companies will move forward with serious proposals to build an ethanol plant.

"There are even more promising signs.

"Almost half the energy now consumed in Waikiki is used for air-conditioning. Two Hawaii-based companies are moving forward with proven technology that could be used to dramatically cut the costs of cooling buildings in downtown Honolulu and hotels in Waikiki.

"Right now, these hotels and buildings consume four to 12 times more electricity than this new system would require. Makai Ocean Engineering and the Honolulu Sea Water Air Conditioning would use cold seawater pumped from hundreds of feet below the surface to do the job.

"Another promising development is underway by the University of Hawaii and a spin-off company called HR Bio-Petroleum. They have undertaken a pioneering effort to produce renewable fuels. Their goal is to generate fuels for transportation from marine algae and to use carbon dioxide from power plant stacks as the nutrient for its growth.

"This technology will use algae to produce biodiesel, ethanol and animal protein feed. The products will have a much higher market value than if they were made from land-based plants. Only salt water, shorelands, and carbon dioxide are needed.

"I'm happy to report tests of this technology will begin this spring on the Big Island at the Natural Energy Laboratory. This is transforming technology, one that is the basis for a uniquely Hawaiian industry to export to the world.

"Innovation comes from new ideas like this. Innovation changes the way we act and how we think about ourselves. It helps us to diversify our economy, creating better paying jobs for our citizens. It even helps bring affordable homes within reach.

"All of us must redouble our efforts to diversify Hawaii's economy, or we will never be able to break our State's economic addiction to tourism.

"To achieve this goal we must accomplish two things: First, we must expand the base of existing businesses that pay a living wage. And second, we must better train our workforce for the opportunities of tomorrow.

"We must continue to invest in the intellectual capital we have built in the ocean sciences, natural energy research, astronomy, life sciences, technology and agricultural development. And we must continue to invest in the resources that help build the intellectual capital of our children.

"So what we plan to do is to finish what we started – the repair and maintenance of our public schools. We have already made significant progress in cutting the backlog of school repair projects. Last year, we put the cash up front of $168 million so the next generations would not be saddled with our debt.

"Three years ago we passed the Re-inventing Education Act and while there have been a few bumps along the road to better schools, we need to give this measure a fair chance to succeed. Our commitment to the parents, children and citizens of this State is that we won't stop until we get the job done.

"Last year, we had several significant warnings of how unprepared we have become on the disaster front.

"When the Ka Loko Dam on Kauai burst before dawn on the 14th of January, 1.6 million gallons of water came rushing down on unsuspecting residents. Seven people died, homes and land were ruined.

"Our courts will decide the liability issues, but we have already learned a tragic lesson about the disrepair and neglect of our State's aging agriculture water systems.

"On Tuesday, September 5th, if you recall, a truck hit a freeway overpass on Oahu and turned the city of Honolulu into a massive parking lot. People heading west on H-1 took more than eight hours or more to reach their homes.

"Everyone had a story to tell the next day, but the real story was how unprepared civil and State authorities were to deal with the mess. They couldn't handle a big traffic jam on the H-1; imagine if it had been a Tsunami evacuation.

"And finally, forty days later, on Sunday morning, the biggest earthquake to hit Hawaii in more than thirty years struck off the coast of the Big Island.

"Fortunately, no one was seriously injured, but blackouts hit the islands of Hawaii, Maui and Oahu and damages today are heading in the range of a quarter-of-a-billion dollars.

"More than a thousand homes on the Big Island were damaged – churches, schools and public parks too, and a major hotel remains closed today.

"The farming community was particularly hard hit when our century old irrigation system was heavily damaged.

"On Oahu, 291,000 homes were without electricity for most of the day.

"Communication with the public was seriously compromised. Of the almost 50 radio stations on Oahu, only one had a backup generator.

"An investigation has determined that well over a third of our State's 328 civil defense sirens would not have worked if we had to sound a Tsunami alert. The sirens had no backup power supplies.

"So it is obvious to everyone now this level of response is totally unacceptable. The House will introduce a Disaster Preparedness bill this year to make sure we are better prepared the next time a sudden emergency hits the islands.

"We are also long overdue in fulfilling another commitment. A commitment to ensure that all Hawaii's children have adequate health insurance. At least eight other states are working toward similar programs to meet this health care crisis. We can benefit from their experience in creating a children's health care program while not placing an undue burden on our small businesses in Hawaii.

"I agree with Wisconsin Governor Jim Doyle who said, 'This is a human crisis and it demands action now.'

"We will mark an important milestone this year in preserving important agricultural lands. We will consider incentives to keep these lands green forever.

"The final push for agricultural lands comes as our affordable housing crisis has reached its breaking point. The number of our homeless is at a record high. Anger is growing over traffic, inadequate infrastructure and the inability of our citizens to earn a living wage or find a home they can afford.

"I believe we can better deliver affordable rental housing to Hawaii's people with two, two decisive actions: First, we must maintain funding for affordable rental housing. Second, and even more importantly, we must act to create a fast-track permitting process for affordable rental housing.

"This legislative initiative will provide a three-year window to eliminate most of the permitting logjam. This will remove a significant barrier to building affordable rental housing. And we can do this without compromising our local environment, or Hawaii's health and safety codes.

"If the project is built on ceded lands, 20 percent of the rental homes will be set-aside for Native Hawaiians.

"I stand before you today, convinced that if we can find the legislative will, we have a way to meet our challenges. Challenges in affordable housing, energy, education, disaster preparedness, health insurance for our children, and economic diversification. Truly, this is a tall order, but no one said in life that the House would be easy.

"We have thirteen new Members of the House this year. And that's a pretty good size freshman class. These new Members will soon learn that survival in politics is a tricky business.

"All of you, take a stand and don't worry so much about whether you win or lose. The secret is to take care of the basics and think beyond them. Mayor Hannemann knows fixing potholes is important, but he also has the vision to move a big project forward – like the mass transit.

"Don't be afraid to think big like that. Think beyond the immediate.

"Politics may indeed be local, but true achievement in politics comes from vision.

"In 1979, Speaker James Wakatsuki shared these words of advice with me and the Members of the House:

> What we need is the courage to stick to our plans, the courage to keep the petty irritations of the day from blocking our efforts and the courage to keep on going hour after hour.

"I believe the citizens of this State and the people of our nation don't care anymore about whether you are a Republican or a Democrat. And they won't remember you if all you do is get a road repaved. They will remember you, and rally behind you, if you can speak to the people's hopes and then get the job done.

"To do that you will need allies within this body – people who want to get something done, too. Briefly, I share with all the Members, seek out the humble. Seek out the thoughtful, and above all, seek out the doers. Don't be afraid to take a risk. Your constituents hope you will.

"If you listen and watch carefully, your na'au – or your gut – it will help you find the people here with hope and a willingness to try. This is how people work best together – one on one – not by fighting, but by getting to know each other. Imagine what we could achieve by understanding each other just a little better.

"To all of you, to the people of the State of Hawaii, family and friends, thank you very much and good luck in the new Session. Aloha.

The Chair then recognized Representative Finnegan, the Minority Leader, who rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for your address. May I also address the audience as well, Mr. Speaker? Thank you. As we begin the Twenty-Fourth Legislature, we want to be mindful of the issues on two different levels: the overall big picture of creating an environment in which we live while balancing the freedoms and values that we each live by in our daily lives.

"We have a tremendous responsibility. The work we do here at the Capitol shapes the Hawaii we live, work and play in. I'm going to take you back to a personal experience I had recently.

"Two weeks ago I took my children to my niece's 20th birthday party at a beach near Pokai Bay in Waianae. It was about 4 o'clock that Sunday afternoon and we started to clean up, and my sister yelled, 'Lynn, Lynn, look over there.' My 11-year-old daughter, Piikea, was standing on the bridge and was preparing to jump into the ocean and my mom was holding her by her pony tail. Piikea yelled, 'Grandma, let me go.'

"At that moment, I had a flashback of my own anxiety about 25 years ago of doing the same thing. Piikea stood over the water and was shivering from the ocean breeze. I ran over to her and told my mother it was okay to let her go. I asked if she had thought it through and I was pleased to hear she knew how deep the water was, what was beneath the water, and other facts, like waiting for a wave added more depth.

"She just made some friends with some of the local kids and they were all jumping off the bridge. I gave her some tips on how to land in the water. It seemed like she needed to take this risk and I needed to let her do it. Not only did she jump safely, she and her new friend helped my son give it a try. They needed courage and, more importantly, my support. Being able to teach life lessons to my children in the area where I grew up is exactly why I want to live here in Hawaii. I want my children to be able to live the very unique life that I lived when I was young.

"The Hawaii House Republicans want to give every opportunity for our families to remain in Hawaii. This Session is about creating a sustainable and affordable Hawaii and we strive to accomplish this with innovative thinking that focuses on public education, renewable energy, housing, and tax relief. We all agree that equipping our keiki for their future is imperative for a sustainable Hawaii.

"First, your House Republicans are dedicated to public education and educational choice. We want to seize this opportunity in order to find areas of commonalities. Our focus is to concentrate on efforts that empower teachers and principals at the school level, untying their hands and supporting the learning that takes place at the schools.

"Most teachers and principals are not afraid to be held accountable. For example, public Charter School principals and teachers are motivated by an accountability system of annual performance. What this means is that if they don't do a good job, the parents would send their children back to their public Charter School the next year. That is why educational choice is so important in today's evolving and global society.

"Yes, your House Republicans will continue to strongly support public Charter Schools as a means of empowering school communities. Here's an example of what I mean. In the beginning of the school year, the lead teacher from my children's public Charter School was faced with a challenge. She had to attend training on behalf of the public Charter School, but it was held on the mainland during the first two weeks of school. She thought the students would not get a good start if she wasn't there. Instead, she asked the principal and the local school board to approve her class starting two weeks ahead of schedule.

"She learned that renovations from her classroom were not going to be completed. This teacher and the local school board, with the support of the students, principals, parents and the local school board came up with a plan for the students to learn about construction, cost estimates, budgeting, team work and design and planning. And they started classes two weeks early.

"In essence, this was a mini project-base learning opportunity. The school community was able to make an unconventional decision quickly and responded to the needs of the teacher and her students.

"We want more public Charter Schools to be allowed to exist. We want, at least, one more authority other than the Board of Education to authorize Charter Schools, and we want to assure that when parents choose a Charter School, that those schools receive the same financial support and facility support as other public schools.

"Second, the combination of renewable energy sources and innovative technology will give Hawaii the opportunity to be energy independent. We want to support that goal. Extending the ethanol blended gasoline general excise tax exemption and continuing to support a renewable energy portfolio will help to achieve the goal of energy independence.

"Third, lack of shelter, whether it is homelessness or the need for transitional and affordable housing, remains a challenge that we must overcome. The good news is that there are people in our communities that give their time and creativity to figure out solutions. Through public/private partnerships, we are seeing changes that not only heal, but provide a path to self-sufficiency. We want to invest in more opportunities that provide a better tomorrow today.

"For instance, the experience of O'ne Lau Ena in Kalaeloa, incorporates shelter with programs focused on promoting self-sufficiency in a caring atmosphere.

"Finally, we believe that lowering taxes provides people with the opportunity for empowerment. By keeping more of your earnings, we can prevent families from being swallowed up by our high cost of living and cost of paradise. Let's not forget that we still have people trying to deal with last year's property tax increase, higher rents, and now, the increase in the general excise tax, and the reinstatement of the tax on ethanol blended gasoline.

"Of course, we have a preferred method of tax relief, whether it be the constitutionally mandated tax rebate, preferably a large one, Mr. Speaker, eliminating the tax on food and medicine or increasing the standard deduction. But let's face it, tax relief is tax relief, and we want it to be real and we want it to be now.

"Last Friday I attended our Governor's press conference on innovation. I was excited to learn of what Hawaii's future could look like moving forward. It is a comprehensive package of ideas, including public-private partnerships for innovative education, workforce development, follow through on the promise of economic diversity and an overall goal of a sustainable Hawaii. I am very optimistic about this well-thought out deliverable plan that brings in conscientious and resourceful Republic and Democrat ideas.

"Hawaii Republicans have been successful working on many issues of importance, like renewable energy, three strikes, electronic surveillance, tax relief, gas cap suspension, identity theft protection and Megan's Law. We want to redefine what we consider bi-partisanship. Like in a marriage, conflict can be productive and rewarding. The result of tension can be unity in diversity. We are not only the Party of opposition. So, what's in it for Hawaii?

"These packages of ideas will strategically place Hawaii in the line up to catch the waves of the future while preserving the unique lifestyle and blended cultural past. We can teach our keiki life's lessons in our own unique way, like we'd being more successful negotiating prices with the manapua man at the end of the day, instead of the beginning. Or you can be resourceful by using the old brown McDonald's tray to carry your food and also use them for body boarding. Or you can learn cultural sensitivity by knowing that bumbai means later on and is not a town in India. Or the value of family and friends and that everyone is either aunty or uncle.

"With the story of my daughter, Piikea, and me allowing her to jump off the bridge, I gave her the opportunity to courageously conquer fear and strengthen her character. Let us take calculated risks and invest in our future to achieve the preservation of our unique lifestyle and a sustainable and affordable Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, it's about empowerment, opportunity and choices that bring about results. Mr. Speaker, we would like to extend a warm mahalo to the people of Hawaii for giving us this opportunity and for having confidence in all of us to shape public policy and empower lives. We look forward to working with you and the Majority Caucus, the Senate, the Governor for the benefit of Hawaii's future. Aloha and mahalo from your House Republicans.

The Chair then recognized Representative Caldwell, the Majority Leader, who rose and responded:

"Thank you, Minority Leader Finnegan for your very thoughtful comments on Piikea and her future in Hawaii and all our keiki's future in our State. And as Majority Leader we look forward to working with you and your side of the aisle and getting the good deeds done for the people of our State.

"Good morning, Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, honored guests, friends, family, and, most importantly, the people of this great State, the people of Hawaii. It's my privilege to address you as a Majority Leader.

"Mr. Speaker, with your permission, I'd like a moment of thoughtful reflection to think about the fact that today is the anniversary of the overthrow of our monarchy. No matter whether we can trace our lineage back to pre-Cook days, or just a couple of generations, or if we just recently arrived on our shores. The Alii casts a long shadow on all of us and impact our lives in a positive way every single day, and we need to think and reflect on that, and decide in our own ways how we are going to honor that great legacy that makes Hawaii what Hawaii is to all of that. So, if you will just have a quiet moment of reflection. Thank you."

At this time, the House of Representatives stood for a moment of reflection.

"Mr. Speaker, you just encouraged us to be bold, to take risks, to listen carefully to the needs and hopes of our constituents. The House Majority, 43 Members strong, is ready for that challenge, Mr. Speaker. We will approach solving the people's problems as one body, but from many different angles, that reflect each of our own unique histories. Today, Mr. Speaker, your Caucus includes 11 new freshmen Democrats, and I would like to introduce them to the audience. From my right to left, by row, first row, Representative Bertram from Kihei. Representative. Bertram, will you please stand. Thank you.

"Mr. Speaker, I would like each of the Representatives to please stand so kindly hold your applause until we have introduced everyone. So, Representative Bertram will you please stand again and remain standing. Thank you. Second row, right behind me, you've already been introduced to her, Representative Bellati from Makiki. After that, Representative Mizuno from Kalihi. Representative Sagum from Waimea, Kauai. Representative McKelvey from Lahaina. Representative Manahan from Kalihi Kai. Representative Tokioka from Lihue. Representative Hanohano from the great district of Puna. Representative Rhoads from Downtown Honolulu. Representative Brower from Waikiki. And in the third row, last, but not least, Representative Har from Makakilo. Representative Har, please stand up.

"And I would also like to introduce the good freshman Republicans who we are greatly honored to have joining this body. We have Representative Gene Ward from Hawaii Kai. And all the way from Nanakuli, we have Representative Karen Awana. Please remaining standing. As you can see Mr. Speaker and members of the audience, we are as diverse as this State. We reflect all of you up there in the gallery. Thank you.

"Being good Democrats, Mr. Speaker, of course, we will often disagree on the best approach to solving many of the problems that face us today. And we saw a little bit of that this morning and it was a demonstration in our form of democracy. Yet, as Democrats, and as Americans, we embrace the differences of opinion and welcome debate on the strength of our beliefs and ideas. We welcome that, Mr. Speaker. This is the type of debate that our Founders intended when they designed our form of government. Our unique experiment in democracy initiated over 230 years ago.

"We should never fear to debate actively, whether it be within our Caucus, or whether it be with our colleagues across the aisle. Reasoned and driven debate helps make better laws, Mr. Speaker, and we want that reasoned and driven debate.

"Over the last several weeks we have diligently been debating our priorities for this legislative Session. The common message from every district across the State, from Hawi in Kohala on the Big Island, to beautiful Hanalei on Kauai represented by Representative Morita, people are saying that they have to struggle too much to keep up with the cost of living in our State. It is no surprise, Mr. Speaker, that Hawaii is one of the most expensive places to live in the country, and there are many reasons for that. But because we are an island State, the impact is even more devastating.

"Families are split up as members are forced to move away to the mainland. And for some, who can't afford the move, the cost of living drives them to homelessness. Too many, too many of our citizens are losing grasp of the American dream. The shrinking middle class is forced to run faster and faster just to stay in place, or face the prospect of getting poor. They can't keep up with the rising cost of gas and electricity. They can't find affordable housing. They can't afford healthcare. This forces people to choose between financial obligations and family. They should not have to make that choice, Mr. Speaker.

"President Kennedy said in his inaugural address way back in 1961, 'If a free society cannot help the many who are poor, they cannot save the few who are rich.' Mr. Speaker, President Kennedy was saying that our fates are all tied together, everyone in this room, rich and poor. Hawaii's working families are the backbone of our economy, and we must keep the strong if our democracy is to remain healthy. This is absolutely necessary. And it is in everyone's interest.

"In 2007, the House Majority will be focusing our efforts in helping the many to afford the cost of living in Hawaii, and in so doing, will improve the quality of life here for everyone. In the next several days, we'll unveil the details of bills to be included in our Majority Package. But for today, let us be reminded that we are the people's House – your House. That it is the people who have elected us to work on their behalf. This Session, the Majority Caucus, will address the following:

"One, Affordable Housing. We will seek to work with the Administration, with the counties to get people off the streets and the beaches. To help families to find affordable places to rent. And to give our young people the hope of one day owning a home here in Hawaii, something that is becoming an impossible dream for so many of our young people.

"Two, Health Care. We need to ensure that every woman, man, and especially child in our State will be covered by comprehensive health insurance, a lofty goal. Our first step in that direction will be to push our Keiki Care bill that was spear headed by a Dr. Josh Green, the Representative from Kailua-Kona, the new Chair of Health. Where is Dr. Green? Dr. Green, by the way, just very, very recently became a father for the first time to a baby girl named Maia. So, he now will begin to understand how important it is, how important it is to provide health care for our keiki.

"Three, Energy. If we are to make energy more affordable for consumers, we need to bring Hawaii's numerous alternative energy resources on-line much more quickly, much more quickly than we have. To do this, we must change the way we integrate our abundant alternative energy resources into our energy pool.

"Four, Education. We remain committed to the Reinvesting in Education Act, Mr. Speaker, also known as Act 51, which gives local schools the flexibility to manage their own priorities and provides funding based on actual needs of students. We just heard the Minority Leader talk about empowering schools at the local level. This is what this Act does. We believe the Department of Education needs the support and the time to implement the major restructuring successfully, and we stand firmly behind Pat Hamamoto. And, also, we will continue to upgrade our school facilities so that our keiki have a safe and healthy learning environment.

"Five, and last, Disaster Preparedness. On October 15th, a major earthquake, which our Governor experienced firsthand, right near the epicenter, showed us there is more we can do as a State to protect our citizens from the unstoppable forces of nature and the challenges of human fanaticism. The cost of disasters are both financial and emotional, too, Mr. Speaker.

"These problems won't be solved during this Session alone, and to promise otherwise would not be honest to all of you, the people. We will lay the groundwork now and then come back in successive Sessions to move these solutions forward to completion.

"Mr. Speaker, the bottom line is that we do not want to see more of Hawaii's residents falling through the cracks. We just cannot accept this. We need to help our residents, not with a hand out, but with a hand up. Helping people to help themselves is truly the highest calling. Sir Winston Churchill once said, 'We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.'

"When we adjourn, let us look back and say we gave the people of Hawaii a chance to make a better life. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and in conclusion, your Majority Caucus stands ready as one body to give its all to the people of Hawaii. Thank you, very much."

The Chair then stated:

"Once again, thank you very much Minority Leader Finnegan, and Majority Leader Caldwell for your very eloquent speech on the agenda of both Parties."

Tomorrow we are having the small business community come to Room 224 and it's essentially to hash out some of the problems, some of the priorities that they have, and some of the things that they'd like to see us carry off in the 2007 Legislature. And unlike the places where they refuse popcorn, we are actually going to give you pizza. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker then presented to the Members of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature and the audience, the Honorable Linda Lingle, Governor of the State of Hawaii.

The Honorable Linda Lingle, Governor of the State of Hawaii address the Legislature assembled in Joint Session as follows:

"Thank you very much. Madam President, Mr. Speaker, Lt. Governor and Mrs. Aiona, Members of the Legislature, Chief Justice Moon and members of the State Supreme Court, Chair Apoliona, Cabinet members, mayors, military leaders, members of the Counselor Corps, distinguished guests, and to all the people of Hawaii, good morning and aloha.

"It is a great honor to address once again, a joint gathering of the State House and Senate, as well as all the people of Hawaii, to share with you my honest assessment of where we stand, paint a vision for the future, and outline the steps I think we should take to get there.

"It is important for us to have a concrete understanding of where we want to go. Without this common vision, it will be too easy to get off track and stumble on our pathway to the future. I believe there is a broad public consensus about where we should be heading and I believe this consensus has grown stronger over time.

"We all want a higher standard of living for ourselves and our children, and we want to preserve everything that makes Hawaii unique, especially our cultural and natural resources, and our sense of ohana.

"We want Hawaii's young people to have first-rate educational opportunities, we want affordable housing, state-of-the-art healthcare that is accessible to all, and good paying jobs. But we still want to be able to go fishing at the pier or catch a wave after work, and want the time to talk story with our families and friends.

"To achieve this vision, we have to change or economy from one based on land development, to one fueled by innovation and new ideas generated by our universities and a highly-trained work force.

"Some think it is unrealistic to change our decades-long reliance on land development as the foundation of our economy. Some think it is easier to keep doing what we have been doing. They think it is too hard to change. But hard or not, change will happen.

"The question for us to answer is, 'Will we just let change happen to us in the coming years, or will we create the change we want to see, so that future generations are able to live a good life in Hawaii?'

"One of my guests today is part of that next generation. He captured our imagination here at home and around the world just days ago when he made the cut and then went on to finish tied for 20th among the pros at the Sony Open. Please say hello to Tadd Fujikawa, his parents Lori and Doug, and his grandparents and his great grandma.

"The fundamental change in our economy I have been describing will require the Legislature, my Administration, the county governments, our schools and universities, businesses and others to share this vision and to work together to make it happen.

"Our $732,000,000 budget surplus can enable us to dramatically reshape our destiny if we make wise choices. Over the last 15 years, the world has been profoundly changed by the development of the internet and other technologies that make it easier for people to communicate with each other and to shift capital around the world.

"People from different countries can work together on the same project in real time. An engineer in India collaborating with a software programmer in California and a banker in China. A person dressed in shorts and slippers can shake the political world with a blog that he writes from his lanai.

"States used to be economically strong because it had access to natural resources or sat at the crossroads of railroads, rivers, or other lanes of commerce. Those things will still be important in the coming years, but there are rapidly being eclipsed by the significance of human potential.

"The reality is that the future economic fortunes of our Sstate will be determined by the capabilities and creativity of our people, and by their ability to work and communicate effectively with others around the world.

"No one is better suited than the citizens of Hawaii to work with people from diverse backgrounds in a global economy that will be focused on the Asia-Pacific Region. This is our arena and this is our era.

"But we can't wait for the world to come to us. We must seize the moment or it will pass us by. Before outlining the four principles I believe we must follow in order to achieve success in the global information based economy, let me first offer my definition of success. Simply put, success means producing a constantly rising standard of living for all Hawaii's people by using fewer natural resources, including land, and, to do this, while preserving those aspects of life that make our island home so special.

"The four principles that should underlie our future efforts and decisions are simple, but not easy to achieve. If followed, I believe it will lead to a long-term success.

"First, we need to insure that our workforce has the skills and knowledge required to compete effectively in the 21st century.

"Second, we must create an environment in which innovation, entrepreneurship, and risk taking are encouraged, nurtured and rewarded.

"Third, we need to enable all our citizens, regardless of their economic circumstances, to be fully involved in the digital revelation that is sweeping the world.

"Fourth, we must insure that the basic needs of our citizens, including housing and healthcare are met, and that our cultural and natural resources are protected and enhanced.

"First among the principles, is providing the education and training our citizens need to compete with the best and the brightest from around the world, because that is, above all, what it will take for us to succeed. Educator, Mary Jean LeTendre said it best when she observed, 'America's future walks through the front door of our schools everyday.' I would borrow her quote and add to it, 'Hawaii's future walks through the front doors of our schools and universities each day.'

"Our workforce development plan emphasizes the teaching of science, technology, engineering and math skills. These skills are known collectively as STEM.

"I recently returned from New Hampshire where I participated in the annual kick-off for an extra-curricular teenage robotics program that teaches STEM skills known as the first robotics competition. I spent three days there as a guest of FIRST founder and one of America's most imaginative and best-known inventors, Dean Kamen, who last year was inducted into the National Inventors Hall of Fame.

"Dean is a passionate advocate for teaching America's students STEM skills through first robotic competitions that combine the excitement of sports with science and technology to create what he calls a unique varsity sport for the mind. Hawaii currently has four FIRST Robotics teams – Waiakea, Punahou, McKinley, and Waialua High Schools.

"Some of the FIRST students are with us today. Please welcome students from McKinley High School and their teacher, Osa Tui, and FIRST Waialua High School students and their teacher, Glenn Lee.

"During my visit to New Hampshire, FIRST's lead sponsor, NASA, committed $1,000,000 over the next three years to fund up to 20 Hawaii Robotics teams, as well as a regional competition next March here in Honolulu.

"The students you just recognized, their teachers and the entire Hawaii robotics community are very excited about the regional competition. We are grateful for their participation and leadership to bring this important opportunity to other students all across the State.

"NASA Program Executive for Solar System Exploration, Dave Lavery, explained NASA's support for FIRST this way:

"He said, 'On an individual, personal level, FIRST is having a real impact on the lives of these students and helping them realize what they are capable of. On a national level, we are creating new engineers who will drive the entire future economic engine of the country.'

"Well, I believe whether or not students become engineers or scientists, mastering STEM skills will equip them to contribute in significant ways to a sustainable economy based on innovation.

"Earlier this month, I unveiled a series of specific actions we can take together to make this vision a reality. They include:

Providing students in grades 6-9 with enhanced opportunities to develop STEM skills through hands-on, project-based learning.

Establishing high school STEM academies taught with the help of University of Hawaii community college instructors where students will earn both high school and college credits.

"And for students who successfully complete the STEM curriculum, I am proposing we fund undergraduate scholarships at the University of Hawaii or any other local college or technical school of their choice.

"Whether students study STEM subjects or other fields of study, we need to increase the incentives for parents to save for their children's education. I am proposing that we expand the current State sponsored college savings account plan so that parents can reduce their taxable income by $20,000 per year and use that money to pay for tuition at any Hawaii college, university or technical school.

"Those parts of the world that are thriving in the global economy have several common characteristics, including being anchored by strong universities that produce graduates who excel in science, engineering, and math.

"These universities attract talented people who develop new ideas which can be commercially developed in the surrounding community creating the high-paying jobs that we all seek.

"We already have a higher education anchor here in the University of Hawaii, but its potential for driving the economy has barely been tapped.

"I am proposing that we revamp the way the University transforms research ideas into viable businesses, and I am proposing that we provide funding that, if matched by the private sector, will support three new endowed professorships at UH in STEM disciplines.

"But higher education alone is no longer sufficient to guarantee a prosperous future. In today's world, education cannot stop when someone graduates from school.

"The rapid pace of changing technology in all fields requires companies and their employees to seek frequent upgrade training in order to keep up.

"I am proposing a program for portable, "Life Long Learning Accounts" to enable employees to set aside pre-tax dollars matched by tax-free employer contributions to pay for skills training and educations programs.

"Additionally, I believe it is time to recognize that workforce development fundamentally is part of economic development and should be located in the Department of Business and Economic Development rather than in the Department of Labor.

"The second principle is that innovation, entrepreneurship and risk taking need to be encouraged, nurtured, and rewarded.

"Innovation and risk taking are part of our cultural DNA. The Polynesian voyagers were among the foremost innovators and risk takers of their time, from developing and implementing new transportation technologies to their use of the stars as navigation devices.

"The immigrants who arrived later were also risk-takers, and they too had to innovate to get ahead in life.

"It is not enough for us to encourage today's citizens and businesses to innovate and think big ideas – we in government have to be willing to do the same.

"In that spirit, I am following up on Speaker Say's proposal from last year and proposing to establish a $100,000,000 Hawaii Innovation Fund.

"I am proposing that the State Employee's Retirement System invest $100,000,000 in this professionally managed Fund to finance promising high technology and creative industry companies as an affirmation of our belief in Hawaii's innovative capabilities.

"Too often in recent years, we have seen small high-tech companies reach the edge of profitability only to move elsewhere when they cannot get the funding they need to grow.

"The ERS at $10.5 billion is the State's largest institutional investor and can play a major role in spurring new companies that create high paying jobs here at home, while earning good returns for its beneficiaries.

"These newly created companies, including those focused on life sciences, will need quality incubator facilities, including wet lab space in order to succeed.

"We are proposing to meet this need by partnering with Kamehameha Schools which is planning to build the Asia-Pacific Research Center near the Medical School in Kakaako.

"The State's High Technology Development Corporation would become the Center's master lessee.

"Another way we can spur new industries, including renewable energy research and development, is for the State to purchase the 500-acre land holding that the Navy is on the verge of selling in Kalaeloa.

"After reviewing the land use and ownership patterns on Oahu, we have identified Kalaeloa as the best place to achieve positive economic growth for the Leeward Coast, while repositioning our economy to one based on innovation.

"When ownership of this land is coupled with HCDA's zoning authority, opportunities for workforce housing, innovative technologies and job creation, and other government initiatives can be more readily pursued.

"My staff has had some discussions with the Navy about this proposal and I have had conversations with senior Navy officials, as well. I have also had a brief conversation with U.S. Senator Daniel Inouye about this proposal, and a follow-up conversation with his senior staff about how the Senator can help us achieve our vision for a new economic future for West Oahu.

"I have been encouraged by these initial conversations and will be talking further with both the Senator and the Navy in the days and weeks ahead.

"Two other 'Big Idea' innovations I want to discuss with you today are a 'Digital Media Center' and 'MELE', which stands for Music Enterprise Learning Experience.

"As you know, we have spent millions of tax dollars building and renovating the Diamond Head Studio, granting tax credits for both film and television productions, and funding the Academy of Creative Media Program at UH.

"After all that spending, we remain pretty much just a back-lot for Hollywood and other medial industry centers.

"Hawaii's film and television productions, as well as interactive game development and digital design, are all exciting growth industry areas that could flourish here with the development of local incubator facility that provides a cohesive and integrated site with digital media infrastructure.

"In addition to providing a collaborative learning environment for students, faculty, and professionals, this facility will serve as an incubator for digital media businesses and a research and development lab for the creation of intellectual property.

"I think one of the most exciting pieces of our Innovation Initiative is MELE, a partnership with Honolulu Community College to build a training program and facility for the development of Hawaii's music industry.

"While Hawaii has an unusually high concentration of raw musical talent, we have never fully developed a broad support infrastructure needed to create an industry.

"HCC is developing a partnership with Nashville's Belmont University, one of the premier music and entertainment education programs in the nation. HCC proposes that MELE be developed around three strands – artistic creativity, entertainment business expertise, and technical production skills.

"Belmont University will help jump-start the process by collaborating on joint use of their curriculum, technical facility and equipment specifications, training of local faculty, and dual credit for course offerings in Hawaii.

"HCC students will be able to pursue their bachelor's and master's degrees at Belmont University in Nashville, with internships there, as well as in Los Angeles and New York.

"This development model is based on 40 years of industry experience in Nashville, a music center that has created a $5,000,000,000 industry in country music.

"Nashville's success is based on having both a distinctive music and a unique culture. Hawaii possesses its own distinctive music and one of the world's most unique cultures.

"For a modest $2.7 million investment, Honolulu Community College would be on its way to creating a true music industry for Hawaii that could also become a production magnet for the growing music industry through Asia.

"The third principle we need to adopt is the notion that it is important for all of our citizens to be able to take full advantage of the benefits offered by the digital revolution.

"Pulitzer Prize winning author, Thomas Friedman, in his most recent book, The World Is Flat, notes that the internet has leveled the global economic playing field. As a result, opportunities that were once available only to a select few, are available now to anyone, anywhere, with the access to participate in this new borderless society.

"While high-speed broadband access is not the kind of infrastructure we're used to planning for, and connectivity isn't as necessary as food, shelter, clothing, or health care, it is absolutely critical that all the people in Hawaii have affordable internet access in order to participate fully in the 21st century global economy.

"High-speed internet access should not be restricted to those who can afford an expensive broadband connection, nor should out citizens or visitors have to be tethered to a desk in order to communicate across the globe.

"Municipalities across the country are moving to establish wireless internet access, and the City and County of Honolulu has announced a pilot project in Chinatown.

"We need a coordinated approach to ensure that digital democracy becomes a reality in Hawaii, because those without connectivity are falling further and further behind in this new, inter-connected world.

"My Administration will work with the counties and the private sector to establish affordable, wireless internet access everywhere it is feasible by 2010.

"We will begin by establishing wireless service at public libraries across the State, followed by other State buildings, most notably schools.

"If we succeed, Hawaii students will be able to digitally access the best physics instructor in the nation, or watch an art lesson by a renowned painter anywhere in the world.

"These are ambitious goals, and achieving them will require focus and commitment at the highest levels of State government. That is why I am proposing the creation of a Chief Information Technology Officer position to guide this effort.

"The fourth principle recognizes that giving citizens the tools they need to compete in the 21st century economy, increasing their STEM skills, and achieving economic success, will be a fool's choice if we lose the Hawaii that we all cherish.

"Nor will we have succeeded if our citizens' most fundamental needs are unmet and the cost of living rises to a level that forces them to leave Hawaii.

"The recent shame we felt reading about our homeless problem on the front page of the Wall Street Journal and in the New York Times is an uncomfortable reminder that we can't take our eye off the ball in our efforts to help thousands of our fellow citizens regain their self-sufficiency.

"I want to thank the members of the Legislature for supporting my issuance of an emergency proclamation last year that allowed us to move quickly to address this crisis, and for your ongoing financial support of these efforts.

"I also want to thank the many community organizations, churches, temples, businesses, government agencies and individuals for being such an important part of the solution.

"And I want to give special recognition to my Chief of Staff Bob Awana, Comptroller Russ Saito, and Executive Assistant to the Chairman of the Hawaiian Homes Commission, Kaulana Park for working well outside of their job descriptions on this multi-faceted challenge.

"Together we have made a lot of progress addressing the homeless situation over the last few months. We've opened and emergency shelter in Kakaako, another in Waipahu, and a transitional shelter in Kalaeloa during the past few months.

"And our largest transitional housing project to date is set to open across from the Waianae Civic Center by the end of next month.

"But successfully opening emergency and transitional housing alone will not solve the housing problem. To do this, we must generate many more affordable rental and for-sale housing projects. I am calling for an immediate deposit of $50,000,000 in cash into the Rental Housing Trust Fund, $50,000,000 for the Dwelling Unit Revolving Fund, and another $50,000,000 to repair and renovate public housing projects across the State.

"This money, when leveraged with private funds can result in the development of thousands of additional affordable rental units, as well as, for-sale units.

"Finally, we can attack the problem by funding infrastructure that will open up lands for affordable housing that otherwise would have remained unused.

"One such opportunity exists in Kona, where for an expenditure of $14.4 million dollars to develop a water system, we can create a true partnership between the State's Housing Finance and Development Corporation and the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands to build over 2,600 more affordable homes and rental units.

"These are bold steps, and represent a significant commitment of our State's resources. But they are steps that we must take if we wish to erase the stain of homelessness from our community and ensure that the American dream of home ownership remains alive for our families.

"Housing is a fundamental need of all our citizens. Another is affordable, high-quality and accessible health care.

"We were recently rated the fourth healthiest state in the nation. And while that is a great distinction, the paradox is that our own health care system is itself in nearly critical condition.

"The signs are all around us from the decision of Kahuku Hospital to close its doors, to a lack of emergency room physicians at our major trauma center, to a lack of certain specialists, especially on the neighbor islands.

"This problem is most about the bottom line. High costs and low reimbursements are driving hospitals out of business and physicians out of the practice of medicine.

"We must act now or there might not be an emergency room physician or other medical specialists available when our loved ones need them most.

"I am offering several specific health care proposals.

"First, I am renewing the call for sensible medical malpractice reform based on the California model.

"This proposal ensures that plaintiffs can recover for their actual damages, while putting reasonable limits on so-called non-economic damages. This bill has previously been stalled in Committee, while more hospitals threaten to close, and more doctors leave. We can't afford to wait any longer. We must not let anyone hold up this bill.

"I am asking you to make reasonable medical malpractice reform a priority this Session.

"Second, we must revamp the Certificate of Need process, which is used to determine whether a hospital or other medical facility can be built.

"Just last year, this process resulted in the denial of a request to build a privately-funded state-of-the-art hospital on Maui, a facility that was supported by the majority of Maui citizens.

"We must revise this process so that local communities have the final say in determining which new medical facilities and services to support on their islands.

"And let us join together with our Congressional delegation to work at the national level to increase Medicare rates, the basis for most payments to doctors and hospitals.

"I am also proposing that we pass a "Good Samaritan" law that exempts from lawsuits those doctors who provide medical treatment without compensation except in cases of gross negligence.

"I also ask you to reinstate the Insurance Commissioner's authority to disapprove rates that are excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory. This is the same authority he has to review rates for other lines of insurance.

"Finally, we need to make sure that health insurance is affordable by eliminating tax barriers that have kept competition out of the marketplace and by enabling sole proprietors to obtain the same rates as larger companies.

"A lack of nurses is another health care system deficiency that needs to be addressed.

"We are requesting more funding for the University of Hawaii School of Nursing to increase the number of graduates. And we want to create a nursing specialty in geriatrics to prepare for our increasing aging population.

"Many of these initiatives for housing and healthcare focus on affordability, ensuring that our citizens can afford to live in Hawaii.

"The most direct and immediate way government can address affordability, is by lowering the tax burden on its citizens. I am proposing a substantial, but prudent, $346,000,000 tax relief package.

"Passage of this package will show people all across the State that the Legislature really does understand the struggle they face to meet day-to-day expenses, while at the same time saving for their child's education and their own retirement.

"Because the State Constitution requires us to give all taxpayers a refund this year, I have left enough room in my budget for a $100 per person tax refund for those filers with less than $100,000 in income and $25 per person for the small minority of residents whose income exceeds $100,000.

"Besides a one-time refund, we need to give our residents long-overdue, permanent tax relief.

"First, we need to fix an insidious tax problem that affects everyone and causes your taxes to go up without you even knowing it.

"Because tax brackets, personal exemptions and standard deductions are not adjusted for inflation, their value diminishes over time, so you end up paying a bigger sale of your income each year in taxes.

"I am proposing the Tax Payer Protection Act of 2007 that will require the Director of Taxation annually to adjust these three factors.

"It is also time for us to take the first step to eliminate the tax on food that families eat at home. I am proposing that we exempt 11 different foods from the general excise tax, including milk, eggs, cereal, and baby formula – foods recognized by the USDA as healthy and basic to a child's diet.

"This will save the people of Hawaii an estimated $40,000,000 per year.

"To give extra tax relief to families, I am proposing the "Ohana Tax Reduction Act" of 2007. This new law will provide an additional $1,000 exemption for children under 19 years old and more than double allowable dependent care expenses for families caring for young children, aging parents, or both.

"I am also asking you to pass other permanent tax relief, including raising the standard deduction to 75% of the federal level, reinstating the blended gasoline excise tax exemption, and eliminating the taxes and fees on vehicles owned by members of our National Guard and Reserves.

"We are honored today by the presence of soldiers from Charlie Company, First Battalion, 207th Aviation Regiment and their families.

"The 75 members of the 207th will leave in a few months and will be the last major Guard unit to be deployed to Iraq. Please stand and be recognized.

"I will be presenting to you later today a legislative package that is robust in its attempts to deal with our State's ongoing challenges, including preserving agricultural land through incentives and by addressing the issue of fake farms, upgrading our harbors, airports and highways, improving pedestrian safety and lowering crime, expanding consumer protection, increasing renewable energy usage, insuring food security by helping poultry and dairy farmers remain in business and protecting our environment.

"A lot of time and effort has been spent by the staff in our departments to develop the 219 proposals I will send you later today.

"Out of respect for them and the public and in the spirit of collaboration, I ask that you give each of these bills a fair hearing.

"I would be remised if I didn't pause for a moment to recognize the incredible contributions our State government employees have made during my first few years as governor.

"From creating the Next Step shelter in only six days to working around the clock to clear the landslide at the Pali Tunnels, to removing rock slides by hand so that Big Island farmers could get their water they needed to survive after the October earthquake last year, to flying supplies to isolated Kaupo on Maui after that same earthquake.

"To the men and women of our State government work force, I recognize your dedication to the public, and I am personally grateful for your hard work and contribution to the success we have achieved.

"And contrary to public comments by some observers over the last few weeks, my budget recognizes your performance and anticipates fair wage increases.

"As we look into the future, we have a fundamental choice to make. Are we just going to tread water and hope we can somehow sustain our standard of living by doing the same things we have done in the past? Or are we going to be true to the heritage of innovation left to us by our ancestors and embrace the new global economy by making certain our citizens have the education and training we need to compete with anyone, anywhere, anytime.

"I want to lead us down the path of innovation because it is the path of hope and opportunity.

"I recently read the following in a book on leadership. It said, 'Ships in harbor are safe, but that's not what ships are made for."

"The same can be said of governments. It is safe for government to cling to what has been done in the past and hope for the best, but that's not what governments were formed for.

"The people have elected us to leave the harbor, to take to the open seas of new ideas, and to make certain that the Hawaii they know and love will be a place all of their children can afford to live in for generations to come.

"I have tried to outline for you today a shared vision of what our Hawaii of the future can look like. It is a Hawaii in which our location in the Pacific and our cultural diversity will be significant advantages as we compete with the rest of the world. It is a Hawaii in which prosperity will be created more through the power of renovation and new ideas and less through the development of land and overuse of our natural resources.

"And most important, it is a Hawaii that will still be the Hawaii we all love – a place of unsurpassed natural beauty that cares for those in need. A place that honors its rich multicultural heritage and a way of life that is unique in all the world.

"Let us work together this Session to refine this vision and to agree on the steps that we need to take to achieve it.

"The new global economy is a wave crashing on our shores. We can ride it or we can be swept away by it. Please make a choice with me to ride this wave.

"The future begins today. Mahalo and God bless you all."

President Hanabusa then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Governor Lingle. I am certain that this 24th Legislature is ready to work together for the benefit of the people of the State of Hawaii."

At 10:58 o'clock a.m., President Hanabusa declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature adjourned.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2007 was called to order at 10:02 o'clock a.m. by the Honorable Colleen Hanabusa, President of the Senate.

The Senate President then welcomed and recognized the following honored guests:

Governor Linda Lingle, who was presented a lei by Representative Kirk Caldwell;

Lt. Governor James R. Aiona, Jr., who was presented a lei by Senator Rosalyn H. Baker, and Mrs. Vivian Aiona, who was presented a lei by Representative Joseph M. Souki;

Mrs. Stella Moon, wife of the Chief Justice, who was presented a lei by Representative Ryan I. Yamane;

Mr. Joseph Han and Mrs. Mary Han, parents of the Chief Justice, who were presented with leis by Senator Suzanne Chun Oakland and Representative Marcus R. Oshiro, respectively;

Ms. Julie Moon, daughter of the Chief Justice, who was presented a lei by Senator Russell S. Kokubun;

Former Governor George Ariyoshi;

Counsel General and Mrs. Shigeo Iwatani;

Deputy Counsel General Dong Yern Kim;

Deputy Counsel General Irene Natividad;

Director General Philip Wang;

Honolulu Police Chief Boisse Correa; and

Maui Police Chief Thomas Phillips.

President Hanabusa then called upon Senators Clayton Hee, Brian T. Taniguchi and Fred Hemmings, and Representatives Tommy Waters, Blake K. Oshiro and Lynn Finnegan to escort Chief Justice Ronald T.Y. Moon to the rostrum where he was presented leis by Senator Jill N. Tokuda and Representative Jon Riki Karamatsu.

President Hanabusa then presented to the Members of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature and the audience, the Chief Justice of the Hawaii Supreme Court, the Honorable Ronald T.Y. Moon.

The Chief Justice then addressed the Joint Session as follows:

"President Hanabusa, Speaker Say, Governor Lingle, Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Aiona, distinguished members of the twenty-fourth Legislature, fellow judges, Judiciary and other State employees, State cabinet members, judges of the federal bench, members of local and federal law enforcement, former State Chief Justice of the State of Washington, Richard Guy, and former State Chief Justice of the State of Hawaii, William Richardson, my fellow members of the Royal Order of Kamehameha the First, members of the Hawaiian Royal Societies, other special guests, family, friends, and fellow citizens, aloha, good morning, annyong-hi jumu shyossumin ikka. That last greeting was at the request of my mother.

"I am privileged and honored to have this opportunity to address this Joint Session of the Hawai`i State Legislature and extend my sincere appreciation for your kind invitation to speak about the state of the Judiciary. I extend congratulations to Governor Lingle and Lieutenant Governor Aiona on their successful bid for a second term of office and thank them, again, for allowing me the honor of administering their oaths of office last month. I also extend a special aloha to the new legislators whom I had the pleasure and honor of swearing-in last week and thank you for joining us in service to the people of Hawai`i. We, in the Judiciary, look forward to working with all of you. There is no doubt that we -- that is, all three branches of government -- are well aware that we share in the quest for fairness, justice, and good government as we both work collaboratively and separately to serve the people of Hawai`i.

"And speaking of awareness, I am reminded of the vampire bat that came flapping in from the night covered in fresh blood and parked himself on the roof of the cave to get some sleep. Pretty soon, all the other bats smelled the blood and began hassling him about where he got it. He told them to go away and let him sleep, but they persisted until he finally gave in.

"'Okay, follow me,' he said and flew out of the cave with hundreds of bats behind him. Down through a valley they went, across a river, and into a forest of trees. Finally, he slowed down and the other bats excitedly milled around him.

"'Now, do you see that humongous tree over there?' he asked.

"'Yes, yes, yes!!!' the bats all screamed in a frenzy.

"'Good!' said the first bat, 'because I sure didn't.'

"Ladies and gentlemen, the state of the Judiciary remains sound due in large part to the efforts of our hard-working employees and volunteers. I, therefore, take this opportunity to publicly thank each and every one of our judges, administrators, and other Judiciary employees for their continuing commitment, dedication, and outstanding work in helping to promote the effective, efficient, and fair administration of justice. To the many volunteers who give unselfishly of their time and talents to help our overburdened staff, as well as to those who serve on the many Judiciary commissions and committees, we extend a big mahalo for your service. Would you please help me to acknowledge these dedicated Judiciary employees and volunteers, many of whom are here today, by giving them a round of applause?

"As I stated earlier, the state of the Judiciary remains sound; however, I continue to be concerned about the perception of many that our justice system is not functioning as it should and that some of our citizens, therefore, feel they need to take matters into their own hands to fix it. I am, of course, not opposed to our citizens taking a greater interest in public service. In fact, I firmly believe that we need to find ways to better motivate our citizens to more actively participate in government and in such civic matters as voting and jury service. However, I am concerned about some of the initiatives that appeared in other state ballots in the most recent election -- some of which were proposed and promoted as a way to fix our justice system. For example: The citizens of South Dakota voted on a judicial constitutional amendment, voted on a radical judicial constitutional amendment, entitled Judicial Accountability Initiative Law -- commonly referred to as "JAIL for Judges" -- that proposed, among other things, the creation of a new grand jury that would allow citizens to sue judges for decisions they did not like. Although the amendment did not pass, the fact that it was even proposed underscores fundamental misunderstandings of the duties of legislators and judges and how judges are held accountable.

"Legislators, as you well know, enact laws in accordance with what they understand to be the popular will and in the public interest. Judges, however, apply the law that is the result of longstanding common law traditions and legislative processes to the evidence in individual cases; judges do so even when the loudest voices at the time may have other conceptions about what the law or results should be in a particular case. In short, a judge's first and foremost duty is to fairly and impartially apply the constitution and the law to the facts of the case. A judge's personal feelings about what the law "should be" has no place in his or her deliberations. The determination of such broad policy matters as to what the law should be is your kuleana, and you are in a much better position to make that assessment than is a judge hearing the evidence in an individual case.

"Nevertheless, as evinced by initiatives like South Dakota's JAIL for Judges, an alarming number of our citizens continue to believe that the role of the courts is to bend to the whims of the press or, at least, those who have the money to mount advertising campaigns and get press attention. Thus, when some of our citizens disagree with a judge's decision because it is not in conformity with what they perceive the "popular will," they often cry out for reforms, like the election of judges. Indeed, rumor has it that this legislature may be asked to consider proposals calling for the election of judges. And, although such a proposal is not "new," it seems rather ironic since many other jurisdictions are attempting to repeal the election process in their respective states because of the effect judicial elections have on preserving a fair and impartial justice system. Under an elective system for judges, there is the constant threat that an unpopular decision could result in the loss of popular votes -- a consideration that has no place in a judge's decision-making process. And, sadly, judges in elective jurisdictions who have adhered to the high standards of fair and impartial judicial decision-making have paid the ultimate price at the polls -- that is, they have lost their jobs. But, a decision that is made fairly, impartially, and in accordance with the constitution and the law -- even though unpopular -- is, in the words of the late United States Supreme Court Chief Justice William Rehnquist, one of the crown jewels of our democracy. Those who favor electing judges often do because they believe judges are not held accountable for their actions or decisions. They are wrong.

"Hawai`i judges are held accountable in more ways than any other public officer. First, each judge's legal decision is subject to review and reversal by Hawaii's appellate courts and, depending on the issues, by the United States Supreme Court. Each judge's performance, demeanor, and competence are subject to review and sanction by the Commission on Judicial Conduct, which may recommend a judge's removal from office. A judge seeking retention is also subject to review and sanction by the Judicial Selection Commission, which may -- and does -- refuse to retain judges. In addition, the supreme court's Rule 19 committee administers the Judicial Performance Evaluation program under which each judge's performance is evaluated one or more times during the judge's term of office. A Judicial Performance Review Panel -- composed of a retired judge, a retired attorney, and a member of our lay community -- discusses the evaluation results with the judge so that the judge may improve his or her performance for the benefit of the public. In addition, the Hawai`i State Bar Association conducts its own judicial evaluation program and provides the results of its survey to our judges.

"Judges are, to the best of my knowledge, the only public officers in Hawai`i whose decisions, performance, competence, and demeanor are subject to probing, professional, and systematic scrutiny. In short, judges are held accountable by mechanisms that assure accountability, without undermining the impartiality of our courts. Fair and impartial courts provide the balance that is essential to the workings of our government and not only makes our democracy the envy of many of our foreign neighbors, but ensures equal access to justice for all. Undermining the impartiality of the courts jeopardizes the very access our citizens expect. Indeed, without access to the courts, there can be no justice for our citizenry.

"The public's assessment of how well the courts are helping our citizenry also affects the public perception of the Judiciary. As you know, substance abuse, mental illness, and other social problems are the underlying causes of many of the crimes in our community. Acknowledging that the greater majority of offenders who experience these problems will ultimately return to our communities, we have been effectively addressing some of these problems by combining court supervision with treatment and other alternatives to incarceration. These "problem-solving" courts utilize practices that are referred to as intermediate sanctions. Over the past five years, the Judiciary has achieved great success and learned important lessons regarding the effective use of intermediate sanctions through our adult drug court programs, which are operational statewide. We have expanded the philosophy to our family drug court programs on O`ahu and Maui, as well as juvenile drug courts on O`ahu and Kaua`i.

"In a recent 306-page evaluation report written under contract by the National Center for State Courts, the Center found that Hawai`i is satisfactorily meeting nearly all of the key components, strategies, and characteristics for adult, juvenile, and family drug court programs. In commenting on the Judiciary's ongoing efforts to develop and implement drug court performance standards, the Center report states, "These measures place Hawai`i far in advance of many states[.]" Indeed, your support of our drug court initiatives -- for which we are very grateful -- have allowed Hawaii's drug courts to do well and garner national respect and attention.

"In 2004, the Judiciary initiated "Girls Court" in the Family Court of the First Circuit -- one of the first courts in the United States to build a full range of gender-specific programming for female juvenile offenders. The program incorporates practices to help girls get back on a positive development track and to avoid future delinquent behavior. Last month, we celebrated the journey of nine more young women and their families who successfully completed the Girls Court program. We also celebrated the ongoing journey of two "alumni," who had completed the program in the previous year and continued their relationship with the program in order to help those who followed them. The goal of Girls Court is to empower and build on each girl's strengths, focusing on developing the skills necessary to make positive choices in their lives, that will stop them from becoming, for example, involved in the criminal justice system as adult women, or from becoming victims of domestic violence or defendants in the child protective service system later in their lives. By all accounts, thus far, Girls Court is garnering positive and encouraging results. For example, the Girls Court Program has reduced recidivism by 47 per cent, runaways by 60 per cent, and arrests by nearly 63 per cent. Ladies and gentlemen, please join me in acknowledging Girls Court Presiding Judge Karen Radius, the Girls Court staff, and some of their clients, with their parents, who are here in the gallery.

"Also in 2004, the Judiciary launched a pilot program designed to reduce probation violations by drug offenders and others at high risk of re-offending. This high-intensity supervision program -- called Hawaii's Opportunity Probation with Enforcement, or HOPE -- received a major vote of confidence in the form of a 1.2 million dollar appropriation from the 2005 legislature, which we truly appreciate. First Circuit Judge Steven Alm is responsible for bringing the concept of the HOPE Program to the Judiciary, which we believe is the first and only such program in the nation. This past September, representatives from the National Institute of Justice visited our Judiciary to learn more about this unique, innovative program. More recently, on December 8, 2006, both chambers of Congress passed a federal bill authored by Congressman Adam Schiff of California that calls for frequent, mandatory drug testing for chronic drug offenders and includes immediate sanctions for violators. The measure, which has been sent to the President to be signed into law, was modeled after the Hawai`i Judiciary's HOPE Program, of which Congressman Schiff said: "This approach is currently finding great success in Honolulu, Hawai`i, where previous drug tests turned up 21.9% and 10% missed appointments altogether. With this program in place, the positive drug tests dropped to 3.8% and the missed appointment rate dropped to 1.3%."

"Our probation office, like those across the nation, is overwhelmed and severely under-resourced. As a result, probationers who violate their terms of probation -- including continued drug use -- often receive no more than a verbal warning from their probation officers. Continued violations, however, do eventually result in revocation of probation and incarceration, thus compounding our crowded prison situation and increasing costs to the State. Notwithstanding their already heavy workload, our probation officers have demonstrated their commitment to helping probationers succeed by working collaboratively with Judge Alm and other major players in the HOPE Program, such as the prosecutors and public defenders. Such collaboration and teamwork has been the catalyst to the effectiveness of one of the major components of the HOPE Program, which is its pattern of swift, predictable, and immediate sanctions -- typically resulting in several days in jail -- for each detected violation, such as drug use or missed appointments with a probation officer. Originally under the watchful eye of Judge Alm, selected-probationers -- since August of last year -- are now being admitted to the HOPE Program and supervised by each of our nine criminal judges handling felony cases.

"As is evident from the programs that focus on juveniles and their families, the Judiciary adheres to the proposition that "the state of the family determines the state of our society." Family courts throughout the nation have been likened to hospital emergency rooms -- and ours is no exception. People who come to family court are usually in crises and often at their worst. On a daily basis, our family court judges deal with every family situation imaginable.

"Children, sometimes as young as eleven, following arrest, are brought to family court for making poor choices. Our judges must decide if they should be sent to the Hawai`i Youth Correctional Facility, referred to a treatment program, or released back into the community. What does a judge do when parents of a 14-year-old runaway girl, who is pregnant, addicted to ice, and in love with her pimp, look to the judge for "the answer"?

"Parents, too, are brought to family court for harming their children, and our judges must decide whether to terminate their parental rights. What is a judge to do when an infant has been severely injured, but no one can say for sure if either parent did it?

"Our family court judges are routinely asked to play the role of Solomon in deciding which parent will be awarded physical custody of children. Such decisions inevitably alter forever the lives of the children and the parents. What does a judge do when a divorcing parent receives a better opportunity on the mainland and wishes to take the child out-of-state, but the other parent wants the child to remain in Hawai`i?

"These are just a few of the gut-wrenching decisions that our family court judges must not only make on a daily basis, but must do expeditiously because of their crowded dockets. On any given morning – and I repeat, just the morning, with another calendar of cases in the afternoon -- a family court judge has ten to fifteen child protective service cases on the calendar. Another judge might have a morning calendar of twelve to fifteen restraining order cases. And still another judge is hearing a divorce case, involving child custody and property division issues, that must be completed by the end of the day because the judge has another trial -- on another case -- the very next day, and still another new case the day after that. The high volume of cases in the family court places extreme pressures upon our judges -- and, undoubtedly, creates a great deal of internal stress -- as they strive to make the right decision in the best interest of the children.

"Adding to this stark reality is the fact that family court users, as well as our family court judges and staff, are subjected to crowded physical conditions, creating unnecessary tension and heightened security concerns. The waiting area for court users on the second floor of the First Circuit court building -- on any given day of the week -- makes the waiting area of a hospital emergency room seem like an oasis. People are packed together; you can definitely feel the emotions and hostility in the room; and the noise level might lead you to think you're in a train station rather than in a courthouse. And, once the parties enter the courtroom, things aren't much better as parties are literally just a few feet away from each other and no more than five to six feet away from the judge. It is not uncommon to have twelve to fifteen people on a case in a courtroom that was designed to accommodate no more than six to eight people. Such conditions are, to say the least, untenable.

"We are, therefore, deeply grateful for the giant step you took toward improving the situation in family court when you originally authorized 95 million dollars during the 2005 legislative session to build the Kapolei Court Complex. On behalf of the many children, families, and the myriad of other family court users in our community that desperately need the help of our family court, we thank you for supporting our efforts to provide improved services to your constituents. We must now, however, move forward and ensure that the facility is not only large enough, but that we secure an adequate number of judges in order to better meet the needs of family court users, as well as to avoid "burning out" our current judges as a result of the extreme stress and high volume of cases.

"As you know, since your original appropriation in 2005, construction costs -- following Hurricane Katrina -- have risen substantially, resulting in our having to significantly scale-down our original design. Nevertheless, we remained confident that the facilities would still be able to accommodate a full range of judicial services for the Ewa region. However, since then, the cost of construction -- statewide -- has continued to increase, thereby requiring additional reductions to the facilities.

"In light of the increased construction costs, I reluctantly approved the redesign of the new juvenile detention facility. Rather than the 78 beds originally planned, the scaled-down detention facility will have a total of 66 beds. Moreover, in order to stay within the amount of the original appropriation, two of the twelve non-jury courtrooms in the Kapolei court building will have to remain unfinished and unusable. In addition, the original plan for one jury courtroom, associated jury deliberation room, and secure holding cells will necessarily have to wait, unless an additional appropriation is made this session. The loss of these courtrooms and related facilities will seriously impact family court functions, postpone the closure of the Waianae District Court, which is currently housed in leased space, and delay providing a fuller range of court functions at Kapolei. Without an additional appropriation this session, the acquisition of other critical design elements will also be delayed. Indeed, any delay in the construction and/or completion of any aspect of the facilities will lead to increased costs. Consequently, the Judiciary respectfully asks for your support and consideration of an additional appropriation of 15.5 million dollars this session in order that the Kapolei Court Complex, slated for completion in 2010, will open with a full complement of courtrooms and a safer, although slightly smaller, juvenile detention facility. We also respectfully request your help in ensuring the sustainability of our current family court judges by providing them with assistance in the form of two additional family court judges.

"The parties in family-related disputes and our Family Court judges are only part of the equation in family court. The attorneys appointed by the court also play a critical role in representing parents in cases involving the termination of parental rights. In these cases, one of society's most important privileges -- that of being a parent -- is at stake. Parents involved in these termination cases often qualify for court-appointed attorneys because a majority of them are economically disadvantaged.

"Guardians ad litem, appointed by the court to represent the children in these cases also play a critical role -- perhaps the most critical role because these guardians often become ohana to the children with whom they interact. They respond to a child's telephone call for help at all hours of the day; they facilitate therapeutic placements; and, as importantly, they listen. A five-year-old girl, who was being adopted by her grandmother after the mother's parental rights had been terminated, was asked by the presiding judge, "Who is that man standing next to you?" The child looked up at her court-appointed guardian ad litem, then looked back at the judge and said, "He is my guardian angel!"

"For the past twenty years, court-appointed attorneys have been protecting the rights of parents -- and guardians ad litem have been protecting the well-being of children -- at $40.00 an hour for work performed outside of court and $60.00 for in-court time -- which is significantly less than any other type of attorney-work in the State.

"We certainly appreciate the fact that, in 2005, you saw fit to raise the hourly rate for attorneys defending indigent criminal defendants, which became effective on July 1, 2006. As you recognized when considering and passing the 2005 legislation, the courts were finding it difficult to secure competent attorneys to accept court appointments, which created serious concerns among those who prosecute and those who defend indigent criminal defendants, such as increased cases on appeal and cases of ineffective assistance of counsel. I submit that considerations similar to those which prompted you to increase the hourly rate to $90 for the attorneys representing indigent criminal defendants are applicable here. Thus, on behalf of the parents and especially the children involved in these termination cases, the Judiciary respectfully requests your support and consideration of hourly fee increases for court-appointed attorneys and guardians ad litem in these parental rights cases.

"Ladies and gentlemen, my focus this morning has been primarily on our family court and the related issues regarding Kapolei, additional judges, and increased pay for attorneys and guardians ad litem in parental rights termination cases because the Judiciary is convinced that one of our State's greatest challenges is to provide our children a safe, loving, and nurturing environment in which they can flourish and grow into productive and law-abiding citizens, many of whom will become tomorrow's leaders. They certainly deserve no less. They -- along with the rest of our citizenry -- also deserve to have a justice system that is fair, impartial, and free of any undue influences.

"In an interview shortly before her retirement, Justice Sandra Day O'Connor said: "The Framers [of our Constitution] understood quite well, without judges who could enforce the Constitutional rights and guarantees without fear of retaliation, the Constitution would be meaningless... The many calls for retaliation against judges for rulings in particular cases run directly counter to the concept of the Framers of the Constitution."

"Given the current environment, with its various citizen-initiatives aimed at the judicial decision-making process, our challenge -- as judges, lawyers, and lawmakers -- is to maintain the integrity of the third branch of government and to protect the courts from pressures -- political or otherwise -- that may affect, or be perceived as affecting, the decisions of the court. Whether our decisions are correct must be dictated by the law that applies equally to everyone and not by popular concerns of the moment that have not passed through legislative scrutiny. Generally, in any given case, the "winner" will be happy, and the "loser," including those sympathetic to their cause, will not. Ultimately, however, it is the rule of law -- equally and equitably applied -- that we Americans choose to help us resolve our differences and to ensure civic order. In that regard, the Judiciary remains committed to the constitution and the rule of law and to rendering fair and impartial decisions, based upon the facts and the applicable law.

"On behalf of all of the dedicated employees of the Judiciary, we pledge our continued support and look forward to working collaboratively with each of you. Thank you for having me."

Speaker Say then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Chief Justice Moon. The Legislature looks forward to working with you this Session. We are cognizant that the Judiciary is a branch of State government, co-equal with the Legislative and Executive branches and we respect that status.

"We also respect you and the other justices, judges and employees of the Judiciary. This respect, as well as the good will between us, will surely lead to legislation that promotes the public good. Thank you again."

At 10:45 o'clock a.m., Speaker Say declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature adjourned.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1) recommending that H.B. No. 107, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 107, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I would like to express reservations on Standing Committee Report No. 1.

"I did vote for this measure because apparently refund splitting is allowed and performed by the Federal Government. However, I now have reservations because the State Department of Taxation said it would have to devise new forms to comply with this law and reconfigure computer programs to allow refunds to be sent to two places. It seems to be a great deal of trouble to accommodate the few people who will want to split their taxpayer refunds, I guess, only once a year. It seems to me that these few people could receive their refunds and mail it to the second party or to the second financial institution. Thank you."

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The items that were brought up by the previous speaker should be addressed by the Committee on Finance. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 107, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Berg and Har being excused.

Representative Herkes, for the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2) recommending that H.B. No. 373, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 373, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SCRAP DEALERS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Berg and Har being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 638, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On S.B. 638, SD 1, I rise to speak with reservations. This bill provides $11.6 million for the operations of the House through 2007 until June 30th, 2008. The proposed $11.6 million budget is an 11.9% increase of $1.2 million from last year's budget. Last year's budget was $10.4 million.

"This 11.9% increase in this year's budget is on top of an increase of 18.8% for last year's budget, and an additional 16.3% increase in 2005. If this budget bill passes, Mr. Speaker, the budget for the operations of the House will have increased a mind-numbing 54.7%, 54.7% in three years. That's $7.5 million in 2004, to $11.6 million in 2007.

"But it's not only the budget figures that I'm concerned about. I'm even more concerned about the carryover balances that we concealed over the past three years.

"Unlike other State departments, whatever is left over after December 31st of this year can be carried over to 2008 and spent until June 30th. In a sense, our budgets, Mr. Speaker, are for 16 months.

"This is a very important fact in today's discussion because there is a significant overlap of almost half a year for our budget cycle. And we had more than $4.4 million left over on December 31st, 2006 in the 2006 budget.

"In fact, the budget reserves have increased significantly over the past three years. In 2004, we had $2.4 million left over. In 2005, we had an extra $3.3 million left over. And in 2006, as I mentioned, we had $4.4 million left over at the end of last year.

"Some will argue, and I agree, that a reasonable amount of money is needed to carry the House through the first two months of each calendar year. But $4.4 million is a bit excessive. In fact, what is needed is approximately $2 million. So, even without the proposed increases in this bill before us, we have $2.4 million too much.

"Here's another perspective, Mr. Speaker. We had a carryover balance of $3 million on December 31st, 2005. We spent $5.9 million in 2006 for the 2006 budget. Taken together, the House spent $8.9 million in total for 2006 – $8.9 million in total, Mr. Speaker in 2006. But our budget was $10.4 million. We had an extra $1.4 million left to spend. Did we return this money to the State general fund? No. This extra $1.4 million goes into our budget reserves and will be the first money we use this year.

"When we all do our family's budgets, we usually use the previous year's expenditures as a guide. The handout from our House leadership creates a 2007 budget from the 2006 budget, not from the actual expenditures. Again, we actually spent $8.9 million for 2006. The proposed 2007 budget in this bill before us is $2.7 million more than we actually spent for the entire 2006.

"In other words, the budget proposed today is more than 30% over the expenditures from 2006. So while Mr. Speaker, our budget has increased by 54.4% over the last three years, our budget reserves have increased as well from $2.4 million extra in 2004, to $4.4 million at the end of last year.

"Taken another way, our budget reserves went from 32% of our total budget in 2004, to 34% of our total budget in 2005, to 42.9% of our total budget in 2006.

"Some people are heavily critical of a particular local company for keeping what some call, excessive reserves. I believe a 42.9% budget reserve of the House is overly excessive.

"I'm not saying that all of the proposed budget items in this year's budget are not justified. In fact, I do agree with almost all the proposed uses for the $1.2 million.

"However, I believe that we should first utilize the budget reserves before we increase our bottom line. With homelessness as our top issue this year, I believe that the $1.2 million could be better spent by providing …"

Representative Manahan rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Takai continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Again, with homelessness as our top priority this year, I believe that the $1.2 million additional funds could be better spent by providing, let's say, housing for 200 families for one whole year.

"We are asked to be good stewards of our limited resources, our limited and precious resources, Mr. Speaker. This budget request, from my perspective is irresponsible. It represents everything that we don't want to be.

"I urge my colleagues to study the numbers. I urge my colleagues to understand the details of this budget, and I reserve my final vote to Third Reading. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I am also speaking with reservation. The previous Representative spoke about the details of the budget, and unfortunately, the details that were given out in Finance the other day, I guess for my personal checkbook that I do at home, it wasn't enough details for me. So hopefully we'll get the rest of the details soon."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I also rise in reservation. Yesterday I was a member of the Finance Committee who voted like he had never voted before. I voted 'aye, 95 percent'. I left five percent because I had so quickly received the information, and we really appreciate you showing with the Clerk and with the Sergeant-at-Arms actually coming to the Finance Committee. That was a great gesture. But it was too quick to digest all the information.

"So, on reflection, as I was jogging last night, I thought about that five percent. And as I re-looked at the numbers, Mr. Speaker, I'm not sure that my office in 318 needs new curtains, or needs a new rug, or maybe needs repairs. I've got a lot of chips on the wall that may need some touch up paint for maybe $2. But the other things in the budget which I'm not sure in terms of the surpluses. Because my number indicated we have a 40% increase. Actually, not even 30%, if we have the padding.

"So my point is I think we need to look at the budget, we need to be fiscally wise, but we also know planning ahead for all the things that we have in other areas are of extreme importance. So, with that, Mr. Speaker, I am now 90% sure, but not 95% sure. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, would like to thank you for coming to the Finance Committee to explain some of the reasons that we needed this increase, although I didn't agree totally with you. I voted with reservations in the Finance Committee, and I will vote with reservations today, and take another look at the details before Final Reading.

"Yesterday, I got the statement for appropriations and expenditures for December, which I had been waiting for. And while I had estimated we might be left with $4 million, we actually are left with $4,474,000 out of a $10 million budget. That's about 40% to round it off.

"So that is a lot of money and I asked the Clerk, when she spoke about having to return the money to the general fund at the end of the fiscal period, which should be June 30th, I wanted to get an idea of how much money actually went back into the general fund, and she estimated somewhere between $30,000 and $50,000.

"But, you know, I think it's a little bit of 'voodoo' bookkeeping because as the Representative from Pearl City said, we're using that balance that's left as the first money we spend. So we have like one-and-a-half times our budget to work with, and we can use that money up, and apparently we've done a pretty good job of doing that if we can whittle it down to $30,000.

"So, I think if we have that kind of money, we have room to ask for not quite as much of an increase in this budget. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker and Members, I wish to speak in favor of the budget.

"First of all, I want to thank the leadership for providing increases for our Office Managers, a well-deserved increase.

"I want to advise the Members here that we are discussing the prevailing minimum wage right now. In fact, we had a discussion at the Labor Committee. The minimum wage for Hawaii, the prevailing wage is around $50,000. Ninety percent of our staff is making way below that, so, we ourselves, are guilty of not providing a prevailing wage. And so I say, this a gradual increase and well deserved and they need to be continual increases for our staff so that they will be competitive and can support themselves with a living wage. Again, Mr. Speaker, thank you very much."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would also like to stand with reservations. May I have the comments of the Representative from Pearl' City entered as my own comments?" and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti continued, stating:

"I would also like to add, Mr. Speaker that this should not be a debate about raising the wages of our very much, hard working staff members, because my understanding is with the budget reserves that we do have in place, we still can confer upon them the four to five percent increase that was spoken about in the Finance Committee meeting. And, so, I would like to note that I don't think that it's, if we don't agree with the full $1.2 million increase, we are not going to be also conferring salary increases to our staff members. Thank you."

The Chair then stated:

"Thank you, very much. We've had a lot of discussion. Tomorrow will be Third Readings and you will have the opportunity once more to debate this particular issue."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marcus Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. I'll keep my comments brief because I will save some of my remarks for Third Reading. I just wanted to make sure the Members understood what this budget does.

"This particular bill before you contains the appropriations, not only for the Legislative Branch, Mr. Speaker, but also the Auditor, the Ombudsman, the Legislative Reference Bureau, and the Ethics Commission. That's also contained within this bill.

"The second point that needs to be made, Mr. Speaker, and this is to clarify some of the misstatements that have been made in one of the daily newspapers here, that this is nothing near to any kind of 42% or 51% increase. In fact, if I look at the numbers, black and white, plain as day before me, the $2.7 million increase is only a 14.2% increase. So, it is no way near a 51% or 42% increase.

"Of the $2.7 million, Mr. Speaker, it goes to provide, and I'll break it down for you further: personnel cost, per diem cost, travel cost, communications cost, equipment cost, other miscellaneous cost.

"A lot of this goes to support our staff, provide meaningful wages for them. It also provides us the ability to communicate with our constituents, various town meetings, correspondence and mailings. It also allows us to have a broadcast like this live on O'lelo and Capitol TV.

"In fact, Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that part of this budget appropriation would possibly enable us to have two or more cameras set up in our public hearing rooms. In fact one more camera on this very Chamber floor, so that the Members across the way, the Minority Caucus, will also be able to appear on television.

"Mr. Speaker, these budgets that we're working on today, just for the records, so everyone understands and puts things in perspective, have not grown since 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, and 2004. And to also put it into context, Mr. Speaker, in the last four years of the current Governor's term, the Executive budget grew by 51%, and over that same period of time, we've grown about 30%. I will save the rest of my remarks for tomorrow, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I just feel, Mr. Speaker, that we are living in a democracy and … I'm in support, Mr. Speaker. I'm sorry. I'm supporting the measure. I just would like to say that we are living in a democratic world and we, in this Chamber, should exercise the same democracy.

"For those of my colleagues that do not wish that their staff receive a raise, they may do so at their own will. They can withhold the raise for their staff. But, for us, who are willing to give raises to our staff, we should be allowed to do so. There's nothing stifling any Member in this Legislature to not give increase to their staff. They can do that. But for me, I would like to be able to give that to my staff. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Pine rose to respond, stating:

"Just a rebuttal, Mr. Speaker. I'm sorry. I just want to state for the records, to my Office Manager, I'd love for you to have a raise. If we could just keep that in the budget, and everything else out, I think we'll all be fine. Thanks."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 638, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXPENSES OF THE LEGISLATURE, THE AUDITOR, THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU, AND THE OMBUDSMAN," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representative Berg being excused.

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 638, SD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 638, SD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

At this time, Representative Finnegan offered Floor Amendment No. 1, amending S.B. No. 638, SD 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 638, Senate Draft 1, is amended by amending Section 2 to read as follows:

"SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of [~~$11,670,163~~] $9,670,163, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for defraying any and all session and nonsession expenses of the house of representatives up to and including June 30, 2008, including the 2007 regular session, twenty-fourth legislature of the State of Hawaii, and pre-session expenses and the expenses of any committee or committees established during the interim between the 2007 and 2008 regular sessions.

The sum appropriated in this section shall be expended by the house of representatives."

Representative Finnegan moved that Floor Amendment No. 1 be adopted, seconded by Representative Meyer.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to speak in favor of this amendment. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I know that it is not an easy job being the Speaker of the House and our Caucus appreciates the efforts that you put forth answering some of the questions that we had on the House budget. However, these are some numbers that are running and ruminating in my head.

"Of the total 2006 expenditures for the House, and that's including the carry-over money that was expended, as well as what was in the budget, a total of $8.9 million was expended. If this underlying measure is passed as is, we would have access to a total of $16 million in 2007. That is almost two times the amount expended in 2006.

"Mr. Speaker, it is not within the Republican DNA to let this go. We propose that we leave your spending total intact for now at $11.6 million, but appropriate $9.6 million from the general fund, and use $2 million of the $4.4 million of reserves. This means that there are still the cameras, the benches, the raises for staff would still be achievable. And this will also allow for approximately three months or so of reserves according to the actual expenditures from last year. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor of the amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The value of this amendment is that it puts us back to normal rather than special. As the previous speaker mentioned, it essentially allows all the expenses for the existing Session funds to be met. All it does is it essentially do what everybody else does and that is do normal accounting based upon what is actually spent and then you add on top of that. And with this amendment there's still $2.4 million left into the reserve which is sufficient.

"Mr. Speaker, I would also add that part of the difficulty and why this amendment and probably why this confusion has resulted is there's seems to be a difference between cash and accrual and when we are doing one and when we are doing the other. If we may possibly suggest that let's stick to one. Generally, a 'mom and pop' does cash. A larger company like this one, if we are a company, does accrual. And that will show all the expenses, all the things you've committed; the sick leave that you mentioned in the details.

"So we appreciated your giving us the details, but I hope for the next time this will be at least the beginning of getting it and understanding what it is.

"And at the appropriate time Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a roll call vote. Thank you.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support of the amendment. I think our concern is that we have been running a fairly large reserve in the last three or four years, and it looks like this year we would have a reserve from the '05 budget of close to$ 4.5 million. And as the Minority Leader said, if you add what is in the underlying bill $11.6, you come up with close to $16 million.

"I guess it's just in the nature of Republicans to be somewhat prudent when it comes to spending money. And it looks like with the underlying bill, we could easily end up after the '06 Session with more than $4.5 million, and maybe $6 million. That's a lot of general fund money to just be sitting there. And during this Legislative Session, we're going to hear all kinds of worthy organizations and ideas for using money, and it just seems that we should use the money we actually need and not go along and squirrel away a lot of extra money. Although I realize it makes life easier. We don't worry about running out of money.

"But because we have the responsibility to look at all requests and try to fund the worthy causes as best we can, I think that this is a good compromise. So I hope that others in this Chamber will vote for this amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"I am rising in opposition to this amendment. A couple of points. First of all, Mr. Speaker, in no way will the budget go from the $11.5 million budget to a $16 million budget in 2007. That's nothing but nonsense. It only tells me that the GOP DNA stands for 'Does Not Add.'

"Mr. Speaker, the facts speak for themselves in black and white. This is a $2.7 [$1.2] million increase to legislative budget.

"The third point, if the GOP is sincere in this maneuver this morning, then amongst themselves is comprised about 20% of the body. They can save the two million amongst themselves. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in opposition to the proposed Floor Amendment, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, some additional comments that I wanted to provide a bigger perspective on the issue that we're dealing with. I'm standing against the amendment, Mr. Speaker. The big picture, Mr. Speaker. We do have three branches of government, and ours is one of them. If you look at the Executive Branch, they're spending this year about $5.1 … "

Representative Thielen rose stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Would you please ask the speaker to address the amendment that is before us? Not to go and attack the Executive Branch?"

The Chair responded, stating:

"I believe the Representative from Manoa is comparing our legislative budget with the Executive budget, which the Chair will allow him to do because he has done it in the past in allowing Members to compare apples with apples, oranges with oranges."

Representative Thielen: "Actually, Mr. Speaker, I don't believe that's relevant when we're talking about an amendment that deals with the House …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. This current speaker isn't rising on a point of order. She's trying to rise on rebuttal."

Speaker Say: "Correct. Representative Caldwell, please proceed."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. Perhaps I'll start with the Legislature first. Our total legislative budget, the House, Senate, Auditor's office, is $33.4 million for this year, we're requesting. Judicial is a $134 million and the Executive Branch is $5.1 billion. So I just want to give a perspective as to what we're dealing with here. Three co-equal branches of government and the Legislative Branch is spending the least amount of money.

"Now in terms of background and history, we can all be proud of the fact, all of us here today and for those who have been here since '96, that the Legislature in the past eleven years has stuck to a zero budget in seven out of the eleven years. That's something we can all be very proud of. And under your leadership and others, and with the cooperation for all the members of the House, we were able for many years to keep the budget at zero. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said about the Executive Branch. And if you take the Executive Branch budget …"

Representative Thielen: "Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Say: "Representative Thielen, do you rise on a point of order?"

Representative Thielen: "Yes, I rise for a point of order. We're dealing with the House's budget, Mr. Speaker, and that's really the appropriate issue before us. And I would ask that you would direct the speaker across the aisle to leave the Executive Branch out of this. It's not relevant to what we're talking about today.

Speaker Say: "The Chair will allow the Representative from Manoa to use the comparative analysis of the Executive Branch and the Legislative Branch in defense of his position of not voting for the reduction. So please proceed, Representative Caldwell."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'm almost finished with this comparison. The point I'm trying to make, Mr. Speaker, since we've heard that the Republicans say it's in their nature to be fiscally conservative, under the past four years of the Executive Branch, their budget has increased by over fifty percent, far outpacing any increase …"

Representative Meyer rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker: I think there's no comparison between the Executive budget and the Legislative budget. The Executive budget under B&F runs all of the departments of the State. There's nothing that is comparative here."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Meyer, at this point the Chair will rule you out of order because I've already stated to the Representative from Kailua that the Representative from Manoa may make the comparison between the Executive budget and the Legislative budget. Please be seated. Representative Caldwell."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm going to be moving on now. I won't be talking about the comparison anymore.

"The next point I wanted to make is one regarding fiscal responsibility. It's through your leadership and also the cooperation of members of this House that we do have this flow-through reserve that we're talking about right now. And that comes up as a result of fiscal responsibility that we've heard so much talked about today. Somehow that's being turned into a bad thing. The good thing, though, Mr. Speaker is with that reserve, we can pay all of our staff right now. And without that reserve, or a very thin reserve, we'd be pushing the limit as to whether we can pay that staff. It keeps us in operation.

"And part of it is because we have deferred action on certain things that need to be addressed in this House, since they've moved back ten years ago, almost eleven years ago. And this reserve, this flow-through reserve, will be used in the coming year to address some of those. I'd be very surprised if next year we see an additional increase in our Legislative budget. And so this reserve will help us do those things. And partly it's because we're probably going to be faced with probably a flattening of our economy. So it makes fiscal sense to make sure there's a sufficient reserve to do the things we need to do.

"The next point is, how much is sufficient, in terms of reserve. We've heard that discussed. I have right here, Mr. Speaker, eight or nine different financial advisors, nationally known, who talk about what is a sufficient amount of reserve. In a family budget, and we've heard discussion on this floor yesterday, about what is a sufficient reserve. And the average is somewhere between three to six months. The *Wall Street Journa*l recommends six to nine months of reserves."

Speaker Say: "Representative Meyer, yes. For what purpose do you rise?"

Representative Meyer: "The present speaker has exceeded the time."

Representative Karamatsu rose to yield his time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell continued, stating:

"Thank you, Vice Speaker. I appreciate it. The point is, Mr. Speaker, is that this reserve, while it may sound like a lot, may not be sufficient if we were not to reach an agreement with the Senate on the timetable in our budget, and we would not be able to pay the people who work and serve all the people of our State.

"Mr. Speaker, it's a worst case type of reserve. We're assuming what happens in the worst case. Albert Einstein, the great physicist said 'Politics is more difficult than physics, because at least with physics you can always predict with more accuracy.' We're in the people business and it's difficult to predict when you're dealing with people.

"Just this morning, Mr. Speaker, we saw the Governor send out twelve emergency budget bills. Twelve, totaling almost $100 million. We do not have that luxury as a Legislature to submit emergency appropriations. That provides flexibility that we don't have, therefore justifying why we need this reserve.

"Finally Mr. Speaker, all of us as politicians would love to say 'Let's put money back into the general fund.' It's a popular thing to state. But in the end, Mr. Speaker, should this amendment lose and my recommendation is to every Member of this body to vote no on the amendment, the next question is, will those people who supported the amendment accept the money and work with that reserve? And if we face a difficult time, that perhaps they will agree and I'd welcome an agreement on the Floor today, to say that they would not use that reserve. That they would maybe forego some of the requests that they have made.

"So my point is that it's easy to say a popular point like, 'let's give the back'. Lose. And then come back and say, 'but we'll take the money'. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"Thank you very much. We've had a lot of discussion on this particular motion. The Chair recognizes Representative Finnegan for the last comment.

Representative Finnegan rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to ask a question of the Representative from Aiea, Pearl City."

Speaker Say: "Will the Representative from Aiea, Pearl City yield to a question?"

Representative Takai: "Can she ask the question, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Say: "Please proceed in asking the question before he yields to the question."

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, we received a chart that explains the amount of money that was expended last year, both the carry-over money, as well as the – from the budget, the allocation to the House budget. And in this amount, it shows that the total expenditures were $8.9 million. And if we take that amount of $8.9 million for last year and we take the $4.4 in carry-over funds that we have this year, along with what we're about the pass on the underlying measure of $11.6 million, that we will end up with the ability to access, access … Not to just have a $16 million budget, that's not what we're saying. What I'm saying is that we can access $16 million.

"I just want to know because this hard work that was done from the documents that were supplied by the Clerk's Office, if this is what I'm to understand from this, and get from these numbers, are these numbers correct? Are these numbers true? Are these numbers … It would give us basically $16 million in 2007 based upon an $8 million expenditure from last year. That's my question."

The Chair then addressed Representative Takai, stating:

"Representative Takai, would you yield to the question?"

At 1:16 o'clock p.m., Representative Takai requested a recess and the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:22 o'clock p.m.

At this time, the Chair stated:

"At this time, the motion before this body is an amendment offered by Representative Finnegan and Representative Meyer. Representative Ward has called for a roll call vote, and the Chair will recognize the Majority Leader, Representative Caldwell.

Representative Caldwell rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in the spirit of bipartisanship, I'd like to join with the Representative from the Minority Party and ask for a roll call vote also."

Speaker Say: "So there are a majority of votes here. For those who support the motion will say 'Aye'. Those who do not support the motion will say 'No.' Does everyone understand? Representative Bertram, do you understand what the Chair has stated?"

Representative Bertram: "Yes, I have."

Roll call having been requested, the motion that Floor Amendment No. 1, amending S.B. No. 638, SD 1, entitled: " A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXPENSES OF THE LEGISLATURE, THE AUDITOR, THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU, AND THE OMBUDSMAN," be adopted, was put to vote by the Chair and failed to carry on the following show of Noes and Ayes:

Noes, 39: Representatives Berg, Bertram, Brower, Cabanilla, Caldwell, Carroll, Chang, Chong, Evans, Green, Hanohano, Har, Herkes, Ito, Karamatsu, Lee, Luke, Magaoay, Manahan, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morita, Nakasone, Nishimoto, B. Oshiro, M. Oshiro, Rhoads, Sagum, Say, Shimabukuro, Sonson, Souki, Takumi, Tokioka, Tsuji, Wakai, Waters, Yamane and Yamashita.

Ayes, 11: Representatives Awana, Belatti, Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine, Saiki, Takai, Thielen and Ward.

Excused, 1: Representative Takamine.

(Main Motion)

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I'm speaking in opposition to the measure. I'm actually speaking in opposition not because of any of the reasons that were said in the amendment, but really, yesterday I was accused by another Member of the House of not being in favor of pay raises for my staff. And that really got me to thinking. What is this bill really about?

"And with this Session starting with this great ethics bill that I hope gets passed, it also made me start thinking about ethics in this Legislature. And so Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition because I do care about my staff Mr. Speaker, and I think today's a good day to point out what's unethical about how my staff is being paid.

"Mr. Speaker, currently, if you choose to work for a Republican Representative, you will get paid less. It's the policy of this body that every Republican office will be given $500 less to pay their staff. And Mr. Speaker, I just can't stand here to vote in favor for a bill that pays my staff less just because they decided to work for me.

"And I do want to say that I'm so proud of my staff because so many of them could work for someone else and get paid a lot more, but they decided to work for me, a Republican, because they love Ewa Beach, they love the people of Hawaii, and they want the Ewa Beach to be represented a certain way. And so Mr. Speaker, in the spirit of ethics and in the spirit of fairness, I am in opposition.

"I do want to make one more note that I forgot to say. We did bring this up when this policy was first mentioned and we're told that the reason why Republicans got less for their staff is because some of the Democrats had Committee Chairs or Vice Chairs, and we did point out that there are many examples where this was not the case. And it's definitely not the case again this time around. And the only common denominator that gave people more money for their staff was that they were a Democrat office. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 638, SD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXPENSES OF THE LEGISLATURE, THE AUDITOR, THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU, AND THE OMBUDSMAN," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Finnegan, Meyer and Pine voting no, and with Representative Takamine being excused.

At 1:27 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that S.B. No. 638, SD 1, passed Third Reading.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION (FLOOR PRESENTATION)

The following resolution (H.R. No. 19) was announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 19, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING ADMIRAL WILLIAM J. AND MARY FALLON FOR THEIR OUTSTANDING DEDICATION, COMMITMENT, AND SERVICE TO HAWAII'S MILITARY COMMUNITY AND TO THE PEOPLE OF HAWAII," was jointly offered by Representatives Caldwell, Evans and Takai.

Representative Caldwell, moved that H.R. No. 19 be adopted, seconded by Representative Takai.

Representative Caldwell introduced the honorees, Admiral William J. Fallon and Mrs. Mary Fallon, who were seated on the floor of the House.

Representative Takai and Representative Ward further recognized Admiral Fallon and Mrs. Fallon for their dedication, commitment and service to Hawaii.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 19 was adopted with Representative Souki being excused.

At this time, the Chair invited Admiral Fallon to approach the rostrum and address the Members of the House of Representatives.

Admiral Fallon then gave the following remarks:

"Mr. Speaker, distinguished Members of the Legislature, it's a great honor, especially for Mary and I, to be in your midst and to be so honored and recognized as you have done today. We have certainly mixed emotions. All is happening too quickly.

"We have to share with you a couple of thoughts. First, is that in the two years we have had the pleasure of being in your midst, we found the unique experience of being received here to be unlike anything we have found in the world. And this is not to try to 'blow smoke', as they say in our business. In fact, I think that one of the reasons I may have been asked to assume this new responsibility is because I try to do very little of that. And, so, it has been special.

"And we realize that the warmth and genuine spirit of aloha with which we have been received are not unique to the Fallons, but to many, many of our service personnel who have come to live here or to be based here. Thank you for that. It truly makes a difference.

"And I will tell you that, as we prepare to embark on this new challenge, I am aware certainly of the importance, and I am acutely aware of the magnitude of the task.

"I was recently in Iraq visiting our forces, many of whom are based here in Hawaii. And just on Monday, Mary and I were privileged to attend an opening of a very special institution down in Texas at the Brook Army Hospital. And it's called the Center for the Intrepid. I think it would be of value for me to share with you a couple of thoughts about this because it represents so much about our country.

"It's a new facility, a medical facility that was constructed solely with donations from individuals in this country. It's state-of-the-art, world class. They tell me there is nothing like it in the world. And the sole purpose is to try to heal the bodies of the service personnel that have been wounded in defense of our country in distant places.

"The idea that Americans would do this and feel so strongly that it was something they ought to do, besides from the government, speaks volumes.

"The sacrifice of the men and women we saw on Monday, who are going to be able to benefit from this facility, also would bring tears to your eyes because many of these people have given much of themselves on our behalf. And their spirit is incredibly strong. Their will to live and to do good in the world is undiminished by the tortuous experiences of their recent past. I was amazed at their resilience and their example.

"And so it gives me the courage to step to this responsibility that awaits us. And we'll do the best job we can. And I would also encourage you as leaders in this State to continue to demonstrate to people in Hawaii and in the world what it is to be a part of, live in, support and sustain a democratic process in which people have choices and get to say what they think and to debate openly issues and to make progress.

"I also believe that the example here in Hawaii of many peoples of many cultures, ethnic, religious, and political backgrounds coming together to live in harmony is something that we'd love to have exported to some of these places that we'll probably get to see very soon. And so I encourage you to continue by your good example so that all can see and benefit from it.

"As we take our leave, we thank you again for the warm aloha that you have showed to us and to all the military families here in this beautiful State. We don't know when, but we eagerly look forward to a quick return and spend a lot more than a couple of days back in your midst.

"We don't know where the 'anchor will finally drop', but there's a pretty strong tug very close to the place where I'm standing right now. We look forward to it. Thank you for your kindness and your hospitality, and your support and your service."

The Chair then stated:

"Admiral Fallon, on behalf of the House of Representatives, we wish to thank you for the service you have given this nation, and for the stewardship and leadership you have provided as the Commander of forces in the Pacific.

"Mrs. Fallon, we are also indebted to you for your efforts to maintain an open and strong relationship between our military, government, and our local community.

"To the both of you, you will be missed by those of us in Hawaii who have had the opportunity to make your acquaintance and understand the good work you have done here.

"However, please know that we wish you the best of luck as you embark on your new assignment, and we know you will do us proud. Thank you, very much."

At 12:31 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:42 o'clock p.m.

"I stand with reservations on this measure, this report. Standing Report No. 22 is A Bill for an Act Relating to Health Care and what this is about is the State Health Planning and Development Agency to maintain a statewide comprehensive healthcare workforce map and database.

"The reason I'm standing is this has been brought before the Legislature before, and in the Finance Committee, when asking the hard questions, what you realize is that this particular agency within the Department of Health is making decisions constantly on healthcare facilities, and what I'm specifically referring to is the Certificate of Need. It is very surprising that they are asking us to fund them when in reality, they should have this information to make the decisions they make on a regular basis. Thank you."

And the Representative from Kapolei would like to present a lei to you. So, Members, would you join me in singing 'Happy Birthday'?"

I appreciate the intent behind establishing a Hawaii Health Commission to develop a health plan that provides coverage to all people in the State of Hawai`i. I strongly believe that every member of our society needs and deserves a core group of medical and surgical medicine. The issue of universal coverage merits further study.

"The one-year time frame for the Commission to deliver its findings to the Legislature is too brief and the funding assigned to the project is too little. To reiterate the testimony of State Insurance Commissioner J.P. Schmidt testifies on behalf of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, there is no one at the Insurance Division with the expertise needed to develop a health plan. To accomplish the work required to develop the project, more time and more funding above the $200,000 request will be needed.

"Ultimately, because there is an infinite demand for healthcare, placing the decisions in the hands of our government and insurers will not increase the effectiveness of healthcare. Such decisions are best left to patients and their physicians."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I have strong reservations on this bill. This bill creates an undesirable precedent for other Executive branch boards and commissions to request similar compensation. One of the critiques of our current system is that there needs to be clarification of the roles and responsibilities of the BOE and their wants to micromanage the DOE and Charter Schools.

"Therefore, I have some serious reservations and will reserve further comments should there be a Third Reading on this bill. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 26, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Labor & Public Employment, with Representative Takamine being excused.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'd like to register a no vote on House Bill 863. This is a bill that attempts to treat certain private construction projects as if they were public works projects. I would like to have permission to insert additional remarks in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill attempts to treat certain free market, private construction projects conducted on private property as if they were public works projects, unnecessarily driving up costs by subjecting them to Chapter 104 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes. This bill would require these private contractors to sign a lease agreement to pay "prevailing wages" set by the State that may be above fair market wages, driving up costs. This bill would require additional paperwork not currently required, again driving up costs."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand with reservations. I support the intent of H.B. 863, which proposes updating Chapter 104 to require certain private construction projects to pay prevailing wages and file certified payrolls along with other provisions. However, we must be mindful that this legislation is substantively identical to H.B. 2641, vetoed by the Governor in the 2006 Legislative Session.

"H.B. 863 addresses the private development of facilities that are to be used by government, based on a pre-construction agreement to lease back or to turn over outright to the State or county. Expanding coverage to mixed public and private use projects would be confusing and burdensome to the private parties in a construction project. The measure limits the State's or county's ability to negotiate favorable lease terms because inclusion of any State interest in private projects would subject the project to the administrative burden of Chapter 104 and possibly to the penalties and costs of litigation. Also, the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations would have difficulty enforcing Chapter 104 because it would not have access to any construction contract funds that could be withheld in order to pay laborers who were not paid prevailing wages."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 863, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORK PROJECTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Economic Development & Business Concerns with Representative Meyer voting no, and with Representative Takamine being excused.

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill would encourage litigious behavior by disgruntled employees, and could be used as retribution for disciplinary action taken against a poorly performing public employee. Also, requiring "conspicuous" postings of notices in public workplaces encouraging whistleblowers to report acts alleged to be "economically wasteful or involving gross misconduct, incompetence, or inefficiency" would not exactly inspire public confidence in the operations of government."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

"This bill would require the State and counties to offer health insurance to its emergency and temporary hires and to part-time employees who work fewer than twenty hours per week, if those employees do not possess health insurance through an employer or a retirement plan. This would destroy the underwriting rules for eligibility, leading to the State and counties having to offer insurance to people with expensive health problems who have only worked a few hours for the State or counties."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, there were concerns that came up in Committee that cause me to pause and think that giving the Ombudsman this authority is not an overall good policy. By law, the Department of Taxation holds all taxpayer information in strictest confidence. Taxpayer privacy rights far outweigh the Ombudsman's investigative interests for a potential few complaints.

"Also, Department of Taxation will be unable to comply with any requests involving federal information because federal law does not allow for redisclosure to any other State agency.

"Moreover, there is already a procedure in place for disclosure of taxpayer information to third parties. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also am going to register a no vote and I'd like to explain why. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this, this is going to give a great deal of information to the Office of the Ombudsman, and this personal information that could then be subject to problems with identity theft, even though it goes to an Office. The more people's personal information is released, the more likely it is you're going to be one of those who is going to be subject to identity theft. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is very much like a bill we heard, I think, last year, so I'm going to stay consistent and vote no on this."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a strong support. Mr. Speaker, this body passed a similar measure last year. It was vetoed by the Governor, unfortunately. This is a pro-taxpayer bill, Mr. Speaker. Taxpayers who feel aggrieved by the Department of Taxation will have the ability to invoke the Office of Ombudsman to assist them in resolving their dispute with the tax office. This is pro-taxpayer rights. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising to cast a no vote on this.

"Mr. Speaker, this is really the 'son of the van cam', and for those Members that weren't here before when we had the infamous van cam bill, and then law, on the books, it created a great deal of consternation among the motoring population. In fact, consternation was so great that we repealed that bill.

"This is now kind of a side step to come back in. That's why I call it 'son of van cam'. I don't think it's a good idea and I would encourage the Members to look carefully at this as it moves forward, and then maybe we will have enough of a, I guess, enough Members that will decide to vote against it, and the bill would just die a quiet death. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in favor with some reservations. I think that this bill is not quite the same as the one that we repealed a few years ago. This would have the county run it with the Honolulu police, unlike the other one where we had a private vendor.

"This is early in the game, but there are concerns about people being ticketed for going just a few miles over, rather than the way the police do it now, where somewhere, if you were like eight or ten miles over. So I'm concerned about that, but I'll try to keep an open mind. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in opposition to this measure. And, although I'm not in favor of speeding, I understand the van cams are a very efficient way to catch speeders. But on the other hand, the quantity of speeders we were catching was unbelievable, and even if they were going only a mile or two above the speed limit, they were getting caught.

"And what's even worse than the speeding ticket, and the penalty was the fact that, no doubt their insurance went up on all the cars that were on the same policy for about three years. And to me this was a frightening prospect. Somehow or another, this program has to be tamed. Thank you very much."

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wish to speak I favor of this bill.

"You know, what's a frightening prospect is that the continuing fatalities that we have from speeding throughout the State, especially here on Oahu. I'm very surprised that someone would look at the deterrence of speeding and vote against it. It means that your concern for life and welfare is of minimum importance.

"We have the responsibility, Mr. Speaker, to protect the life and welfare of our citizens and that includes those who are speeding. And if you're caught speeding, and if your insurance goes up, so be it. It's the law and they should not be speeding.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I strongly urge the Members to support this, and I'm hopeful that my colleagues on the Judiciary Committee, the Chair, the Committee members will look favorably at this legislation. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of this measure.

"Last week we lost another pedestrian. I think we've lost more pedestrians this year than ever before. More than likely it was due to speeding. And I'm in support of this bill because we're just losing too many people on the road. I was glad to hear the Representative from Laie in support even if it was with reservations, and I would like to have her words included in the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"As many know, I had the opportunity of being away for a while. And upon returning, I could not believe the brazen red-light running that I saw. It was really, really obvious.

"Mr. Chair, I know that the gentleman from Maui who spoke, who removed me from the Floor, of which I never thought I would end up saying now, would you put his remarks in the Journal, as if they were my own? I'll swallow hard on this one."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just note my slight reservations. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 352, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HIGHWAY SAFETY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Marumoto and Thielen voting no, and with Representatives Pine and Souki being excused.

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker this bill would prohibit individuals from leaving children under the age of nine alone in a motor vehicle. Numerous incidents in the last few years have raised awareness of the catastrophic dangers involved when children are left unattended in vehicles. The car could be stolen, the child may put the car in gear, or the child could be kidnapped or sexually assaulted. Especially with the level of drug use in our State, you never know what might occur.

"Even if the time frame is relatively short it is still dangerous. Take for example the following story dated February 16, 2005 from the Maui News:

A 2-year-old Lahaina boy who was left alone for a few seconds in a parked pickup truck managed to put the vehicle in gear, causing the truck to move forward and hit a woman and a building, police said.

"He was alone in the truck for maybe five seconds," said Lahaina patrol Sgt. Ricky Uedoi, who was among officers responding to the 12:46 p.m. accident Monday at Anchor Square. "Within a couple of seconds, the boy somehow managed to get the truck in gear."

The red Dodge extended-cab truck had been parked in front of Pay Day Hawaii in the business complex on Papalaua Street when the boy's mother went to an upstairs office to pay a bill, Uedoi said.

He said the boy was in the truck with his father, who took the child out of his car seat in the back after he started crying.

The truck was in the park position with its engine on when the father stepped out to give the mother some money, leaving the boy in the truck, Uedoi said.

He said the father was around the corner, 20 to 25 feet away, when the truck moved forward five to seven feet into the building, hitting an employee from a nearby business who was taking trash to a bin.

The woman was transported by medics to the hospital.

No customers were in Pay Day Hawaii when the truck rolled into the building, damaging a window and the front door, and blocking the door.

Uedoi said the boy would have had to press on the brakes to activate the shifter and get the truck into the drive gear.

"That's the youngest driver I have ever encountered in an accident," Uedoi said.

Considering the short period that the child was left alone in the car, "This is what you would probably truly consider an accident," said police Capt. Charles Hirata, commander of the Lahaina Patrol District.

"It underscores the necessity to watch children in unattended vehicles, especially if you have the motor running," Hirata said. "It also underscores the purpose of keeping them in the car seat.

"You can't leave kids unattended in cars, even for a second. Things happen. It could have been real tragic."

We don't like to think of these possibilities but things happen.

"In addition, this bill would require applicants of drivers' licenses to be tested for knowledge of this issue, as well as require vehicle lessors to display the information via stickers on cars. We are not trying to criminalize bad parenting. Instead we want parents to realize the dangers. There are few events more traumatizing than losing a child. I just do not want to see that happen.

"In every Session since 2002, I have introduced a bill regarding this important issue. In fact, last year, HB 1787, HD 1, SD 1, made it as far as the Floor of the Hawaii State Senate for final passage where it was recommitted. I don't want this important measure to fall by the wayside again. I urge my colleagues to vote yes on this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

That would be my reservation. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support of the measure. For the edification of the previous speaker, this does not impact Medicare or Medicaid. This is a program that has been implemented by the State of Illinois. And in the last year, State of Illinois estimates that it has saved upwards of over $100 million for its workers and retirees. That's why I think this is something we should pursue. Again, it's voluntary. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"And, Mr. Speaker, I strongly support the fact that Hawaii is now a smoke-free State. The concern I have on this, this bill makes it unlawful for a person under 18 to possess tobacco. The concern I have is that this bill places the blame on minors. It's a Big Tobacco tactic to get out of their responsibility. In other words, Big Tobacco wants to say that the minor is responsible, rather than Big Tobacco for targeting minors to get them to smoke. So, that's my concern on this. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I will be voting no on this measure. I think we all would like to see a statewide, high-speed wireless network, but I don't know whether we should go for a state-owned, state-run system because there's several private providers that can help us now. But apparently the authors of the bill thought that segments of the population would forever lag behind other parts of the population unless the State provided it for them.

"This calls for a State taskforce to study this type of network and it will be established in the Office of the Auditor. It's very heavily populated by nominees from the House and the Senate, generously giving the Governor one appointee. After the taskforce presents this report, it calls for the Auditor to prepare a statewide access plan for the development of a state-owned, high-speed wireless internet broadband system.

"I think we should call for a study of this system before mandating a plan, the drawing up of the plan. And incidentally, we ask whether it would be feasible if the State should partner with private sector internet service providers to provide part of the wireless system.

"I think this is too much State taking over private businesses. So I would strongly request that people in the next Committee, the subsequent Committees to look at this carefully. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some strong reservations and would ask that the words of the previous speaker be inserted in the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I must have gotten up on the negative side of the bed this morning, Mr. Speaker. Another no vote on this particular measure.

"This would set up a separate type of corporation called the 'responsible corporation' and I contend that many of our existing corporations are responsible and very interested in the welfare of our population and the environment of our society.

"The corporations run the gamut from the big mainland corporations to little 'mom and pop' stores, and I don't think we need a new structure to increase responsibility.

"If the introducers are interested in more conscience on the part of our businesses, they certainly could run an educational campaign, but I think this bill is a very heavy-handed way to make this happen. I urge all others to vote no. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with strong reservations, and I ask that the words of my colleague from Kahala be entered as my own, as well.

"I completely support the idea of encouraging corporations to become more responsible citizens and to acknowledge that it's actually good business. 'You do well by doing good,' to quote, and I think, Steve Case … you do well by doing good.

"However, I note the opposition from the Chamber of Commerce here and I think that the business community here has expressed that there are some good Samaritans and I agree with the Representative of Kahala that teaching is sometimes better. Sometimes a carrot works better than a stick. And the only concern I have is that we're meddling further into business and sometimes, like in the eco-system, a certain amount of meddling actually gets a reverse consequence. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Mr. Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to register a vote with reservation. I just wanted to say that I don't know if it's really government's role to mandate good business practices. I think that if the business chooses to go about just purely for profit, that they suffer the consequences of doing so. So I'd like to just register a vote with reservations."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I think that this is actually an innovative idea and we should actually take a look at it more seriously.

"Currently under the law, there are only two ways in which a corporation can register. Either you're for profit or nonprofit, one or the other. But I think what this is asking is whether we should be looking at other alternatives so that people that are doing things in the public interest, perhaps, while not declaring a nonprofit status, and all of the restrictions and regulations that go along with it, if they are going to be providing the public benefit, perhaps, the regulation should be slightly lessened so that we can actually recognize what they are doing for our overall community.

"I support this because I think it's innovative and something we should think about. It's not committing us at any specific direction, but something we should just start considering as we move forward in tomorrow's day and age. Thank you."

Representative Takai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. This is merely a taskforce, Mr. Speaker. It doesn't mandate any requirements upon existing corporations. In fact, this is like the Majority Floor Leader stated earlier. It's another innovative approach to diversify our economy, and I believe we should support this measure as it moves forward. I ask that the words of the Majority Floor Leader be incorporated into the Journal as my very own," and the Chair, "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with strong reservations. The academic that I am, who loves to work on taskforces and with people, I think that our money is better invested in moving us towards self-sufficiency and that vision that we have been talking about, so I rise with strong reservations."

Representative Yamashita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support. This measure, I think, is a good measure, as far as looking forward with the changing world we live in with innovation, with technology, and all kinds of things, how corporations are evolving.

"Mr. Speaker, I think what we need to do is let this measure move forward and have that discussion so that when we regulate, like the words of the Majority Floor Leader, when we regulate, we have a clear idea of what a corporation is doing for our community and how we can further make sure that we don't overburden them and have things in there that will also support their growth. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 687, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORPORATIONS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce with Representatives Belatti, Finnegan, Marumoto and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Pine and Souki being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in favor of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 108. This would provide funds for scholarships to honor the late U.S. Senator Hiram L. Fong and Senator Oren Long, and I urge everyone's support. But I rise just to mention that this body had passed a bill to form a Commission in honor of Senator Fong and this scholarship is one of the recommendations of that Commission.

"Also, the Kalihi/Palama Post Office was renamed the Hiram L. Fong Post Office, thanks very much to our Congressional Delegation. And thanks to the Board of Education, McKinley High School has named a business building in honor of the late Senator. And the Kidney Foundation honored Senator Fong, thanks to the President last year, Sig Kagawa.

Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am going to be voting no on HB 1670. It has some very good features to set up an Ingenuity Charter, supposedly to help high tech and biotech, and inventors and education for high tech. I don't want to take away any of those features.

"Also, labor plays a strong part in this particular Ingenuity Charter Corporation, however, there's some drawbacks to it. This bill did pass the Legislature last year and the Governor vetoed the measure at the time, and I think we should point out as this passes Second Reading, some of the drawbacks and why the bill was vetoed.

"It would set up a private for-profit organization and it wouldn't have any attachment or oversight from a government department. The appropriation would go directly to this Charter, which is highly unusual, if not, illegal. And the arrangement could result in a challenge under the Equal Protection Clause of the Constitution since this entity would not be required to comply with the incorporation laws that other corporations are required to follow before being authorized to do business in the State.

"It also creates confusion as to whether this Corporation is covered by Chapter 91 and Chapter 92 of HRS covering rulemaking, and Sunshine laws. It would be difficult in making changes to the Corporation's Charter because it would require the passage of a legislative Act, and rescission of this Charter would require a two-thirds vote of both Houses. It is inappropriate and outside the scope of law to give a for-profit corporation ability to declare that exercising the power to collectively bargain on behalf of inventors and labor organizations is an exception to all State, anti-trust and federal anti-competitive practice, rules and statutes.

"The veto message also pointed out that the bill may actually hurt the very entity it is intended to help, which is the inventor. Inventors would have no direct representation on the board.

"There are further limits on inventors' return on investment and only allows the inventors to sue the corporation after going through an elaborate and unnecessary grievance process structured to the benefit of the corporation and not the inventor.

"The legislation fails to increase an inventor's ability to compete in a global marketplace and protect his patents beyond what is already available through federal statutes.

"Finally, the Department of Taxation had a question regarding the tax free provision of the measure. On page 17 of the bill, it says, income of the company and the company's distributions to members shall not be subject to State tax.' And so, the Tax Department said that the bill should be amended to clarify that the income of the company shall not be subject to State income tax at the company level. If the company is to be exempt from all State taxes, such as GET, then Section 15 should be amended to so provide. Because of this and many other objections, I feel compelled to vote no. Thank you, very much."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative M. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. Just a few points of clarification.

"First of all, inventors are extremely well represented in this Charter. In fact, I think most inventors, if you look at the testimony as expressed through the Inventors Alliance and the National Hall of Inventors for our country have supported this measure only because they themselves, as inventors, know that through this Charter they might gain additional protection, notwithstanding our current federal patent laws. So, that's one point that needs to be clarified.

"The second point that was made is regarding exemption from any taxation. That's not true. The language of the company reads that as a pass-through entity, the income of the company shall not be subject to State income tax at the company level. And there's a reason for that because taxes as applied to any limited liability company under Hawaii law is assessed to the partners and shareholders of the company.

"The third point that needs to be pointed out, Mr. Speaker, is that we hear a lot of talk about ingenuity, and lot of talk about innovation. Well, the cruel reality is that despite all of the inventions that may come out of the labs and the classrooms and the garages, most of these inventions are taken over by corporate ownership and because they become part of the corporate global mainstream, many of these fine ideas and products seldom find their place to the marketplace for the benefit of the inventors, community at large and for those consumers who might benefit from these new ideas, technologies or tools.

"This Charter, Mr. Speaker, would allow protection of the inventor's ingenuity, bringing better products to the marketplace, and enable America's inventors to compete on the global marketplace by using their ingenuity, coupled with American investment power and, of course, working with the various trade unions both within our country and throughout the world, so that no matter where the product or ingenuity or technique is brought throughout the world, one would have influences upon its use, and how it is produced through our trade unions. So, Mr. Speaker, there are a couple more hearings in the process before this bill gets out. Should the Members have any questions, I make myself available to them. And I appreciate their support at this time. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1670, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INGENUITY CHARTER," passed Second Reading and was referred jointly to the Committee on Education and the Committee on Labor & Public Employment with Representative Marumoto voting no.

Representative Har rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this measure to the extent that it would impact residents of the Leeward Coast and to the extent that it support toll roads.

"Mr. Speaker, over 20 years ago, the State of Hawaii and the City and County of Honolulu decided that Kapolei would be the Second City.

"Subsequently, the developers did their part in building houses and communities to help bring to fruition the vision of the Second City. And in turn, Mr. Speaker, the residents of the Leeward Coast then moved out and bought those homes on the Leeward side to help alleviate the congestion in Honolulu and helped also bring to fruition the idea of the Second City.

"I am opposed to this measure, Mr. Speaker, to the extent that now this bill will support toll roads, and I have problems with the fact that the residents of the Leeward Coast will now be penalized essentially for doing their part.

"When we moved out to the Second City, we did out part. The developers did their part in bringing to fruition the Second City. Unfortunately, government was unable to do its part in building the infrastructure. As a result, the residents of the Leeward Coast should not be penalized in having to pay a toll to get into the city of Honolulu.

"Moreover, Mr. Speaker, if you look at the socio-economic demographics of the residents of the Leeward side versus East Honolulu, Honolulu, or the Windward side, I would contend this toll could arguably be considered discriminatory.

"As a result Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this matter. I agree with the Representative from Kapolei that the people on the Leeward side should not be penalized.

"I'm looking at it from a realistic point of view. We are in a transportation crisis. Federal funds are very limited. We only get $150 million a year. That's not enough to even build roads on one island. If I am to use federal funds to build another access route to Ewa Beach, that would mean the whole entire State would not get their share.

"This measure of tolls, Mr. Speaker, is now used by 17 other states, and it means that residents of the Leeward community, including Kapolei will have another route to solve this transportation crisis and traffic gridlock we face every day by infusing private funds. Nothing is free in this world, Mr. Speaker. We pay for it one way or the other. This consortium or consortia that would come in and build our roads would have to collect money from us. That is true. But at such a time when the mortgage is paid, we will then have the roads.

"If we are to wait for federal funds to build this access route, the people on the Leeward side will be waiting for 30 years, just like the H-3.

"The number one quality of life issue on the Leeward side, especially Ewa Beach, Mr. Speaker, is traffic. You can ask anybody that comes to work to town how early they have to wake up. This toll road is not enforced on everybody. You still can use the regular roads if you so desire and do not want to pay the tolls.

"But one thing nice about it is that it's insurance that if you have to be at the airport at a time, you can pay $2 and be there in ten minutes. It's insurance, a gridlock insurance that people can exercise. It's a choice, Mr. Speaker. We are not shoving this down everybody's throat on the Leeward side. It's a choice. It's another alternative.

"If you do not want to wake up at 4:30 in the morning, like I do to get to the Capitol at 7:00, then I choose to pay $2 and get here. Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, how much do the people who work in town get paid every hour? Minimum wage is $8. If you're going to be on the road for two hours, the $2, isn't that worth to get on it for $2 and sleep two hours more?

"And I don't want to increase taxes for the rest of the State if we are to use State and federal dollars to build this alternate route. Because if you do that, then all the islands would have to pay for it and not benefit from it. If you put a toll road, it's used by choice and it's paid for by the people on the Leeward side.

"I disagree with that and my heart cries for the people in Ewa Beach for paying the toll road, but it's the value, the quality of life that they have. This is an alternative that they can exercise. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Takai rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Har be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support. When I read the bill, I read it differently from my previous colleague from Kapolei and that is, the way the bill was written it applies to existing roads. It also will apply under the definition of eligible facility. It addresses transport, be it highways, boats, vessels, inter-mobile or multi-mobile systems.

"What I see is this brings us into the future. It's about the State of Hawaii. It's about transporting people. It's about the State Department of Transportation and how they are going to address these issues. And one of the ways is to give them the opportunity to enter into public/private partnerships, and to talk about how we're going to move people between the islands and on the island. This is not specific to Oahu and one side of Oahu. This is about the whole State. This is about even taking Queen Kaahumanu Highway, which is being upgraded from a two-lane to a four-lane highway, an existing highway and saying we've got to put a toll on it. We've reached a point of putting a toll. Eventually, existing highways may have to have tolls on them.

"The plan is that we have to give the Department of Transportation the opportunity to have potentially a creative funding mechanism, and that's what I see this as. And this is just an option for the Department of Transportation to address it. The public has to realize that it costs so much money to develop transportation systems in Hawaii and we eventually may have to do this public/private partnership to achieve it. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations on this bill, which proposes to make toll roads of some existing roads and to make use of public/private partnerships to create new toll roads (mainly elevated in nature).

"Our constituents have paid over and over for the existing roads, which are still inadequately maintained. The environmental impact of elevated toll roads is unacceptable and in the long run would only bring more cars into the downtown area faster.

"We need to talk about disincentives to driving, increasing public transportation options and staggered hours before we create more traffic."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in strong support of this and would ask that I be able to insert some remarks in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"I support HB70 HD1, which allows the State to enter into agreements with private developers to build, operate, own, or finance transportation facilities such as toll highways. This approach has several advantages over the current method of building highways via tax assessments.

"The bill would allow the State to alleviate traffic congestion at little or no cost to the taxpayers by financing highways via tolls paid by the users, thus allowing more highways to be built than under the current tax-financed system.

"No residents of our State would be harmed by such a toll highway, since no one would be forced to pay for a road they don't use, unlike the current method of levying taxes upon people who wouldn't use the highway.

"The users of the highway would all benefit – if anyone felt the price was too high, they would be free to use the existing tax-subsidized highways."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 70, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Economic Development & Business Concerns with Representatives Har and Takai voting no.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 564, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of HB 564, Relating to Education. This measure gives teachers the choice of where and how they spend their allotted funds for classroom supplies.

"Our responsibility as the State of Hawaii is to prepare each child to succeed in today's society and work force. Being technologically proficient, and being innovative are important in achieving this goal. This measure, a debit card program for public school teachers, will enhance education for the following reasons.

"One, creative curriculum. Every child is unique and has different learning skills, different needs. One size doesn't fit all. Debit cards liberate the teacher to be free in their way of reaching every child. Elements of innovation are a must in the classroom.

"Second, flexibility. Debit cards give teachers the freedom to go to different providers of supplies, rather than the restricted options of vendors appearing on the supply list. Teachers come across situations in which sometimes there are limited tools and there are better opportunities of curriculum that will reach the child and not all educational events can be foreseen. So, it allows for flexibility.

"Three, enhanced transparency. Debit cards provide a current way, a way where principals, administrators and taxpayers can easily, immediately track and insure what is being spent.

"Four, and perhaps most importantly, debit cards encourage a relationship between businesses in the school's community and the school.

"As members of an island state, we know how relationships help us to succeed, and help us to contribute to the success of us as a whole. When we reach out to 'mom and pop' stores within a community, they are more inclined to support the school and get involved in the school.

"Community relationships will strengthen with the debit card program, as well as boost morale and serve as an appealing recruitment tool for teachers.

"If I may, Mr. Speaker, I'd just to quote the Hawaii State Teachers Association and enter it into the Journal. 'This would be a positive step toward helping teachers, helping students. Input from teachers indicate that they spend approximately $800 each in supplementing their classrooms with supplies to enhance teaching a year.' Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in strong support. Just short comments, Mr. Speaker. I think some of the rules right now with regard to what you can purchase out of the teacher's money is that you can't purchase food, and I can understand why those rules may be in place.

"But this bill is about having the flexibility to best reach and provide for the students' learning, and one of the things that my child's teacher did for me was set up a visit at our home she called it 'cookies and milk.' She came to our home, took a look at our house, and sat down and talked story with my child and parents. I thought that was so creative, and I thought that was so awesome that she would take the time to do that.

"This would allow for teachers to possibly buy cookies and milk, and then they would have to be accountable for how they spent the money. Did it help them in their communication with that child? Or did it help in establishing a relationship with that child or their parents? And what I like about this bill is it gives the teachers flexibility, but also encourages them to basically take on the accountability and say, use this for a specific purpose and hold me accountable for it. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with slight reservations about this bill because I believe it's a homerule. Essentially, what we're doing is telling the counties to round up their illegals. That is, their 'bed and breakfast' illegals, and I think we know from our own membership, the fine individuals who come from the county councils, particularly Kauai comes to mind, that they are more than capable of doing this. What I would suggest is probably a more palliative remedy, is a resolution, encouraging the counties rather than saying, 'You will have a vigilante group and you'll have your counties round up these illegals.' So it's something a little bit more positive, rather than negative and a mandate. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"I rise in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 191 with reservations. What I'd like to point out to this body is that there is no appropriation language in this bill addressing the impact that it will have on our correctional facilities. I believe that the Department of Public Safety, there should be an appropriation language here and it should be addressed what the impact of this law is going to be on our correctional facilities. I believe it's very important when we pass these kinds of bills where it appears we are going to put more people in our prisons that we have to address what the impact is going to be on our correctional facilities. Thank you."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Colleagues, I apologize for being tardy on this measure, but I want to just say that I'm all for growing the technology industry. I'm not too sure if this bill is the proper vehicle to do so. I think it has a few flaws. I just wanted to mention a couple of glaring pukas I see.

"I'm sorry. I rise with reservations. First of all, it's $100 million out of the general fund. I think it's going to be a lot of money to help seed this special fund. It also has a quirky way of providing for future funds into this special fund in that it has an appropriation tied to one-half of 1 percent of all future general funds here in the State. There is no other special fund set up like this.

"The bill also creates a new innovation corporation. I'm not a big fan of increasing the size of government. The Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation, in talking to John Chock is more than capable of administering any kind of Innovation Fund that we create. And as this measure moves forward, I hope that we require some private matching funds with this measure because if we don't have the private sectors buy-in, I don't think we should be risking taxpayer's money and solely funding future ventures on the backs of taxpayers. And so for those reasons, I would like to register a vote with reservations."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I too, rise with reservations. None of us buy houses with cash. We go for long-term loans. And I think when you have a hundred million dollars to seed a fund, it's really a misuse of these types of funds. If it's the right purpose, the right intent, then we've got to seed with the money. I think the government has got a bill that says let's use the ERS fund. That's something that's not going to take immediately away from our existing programs and the need for future programs. I agree with the previous speaker that it needs to be looked at seriously again. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too rise with reservations. It is my understanding that this ability to give grants for entrepreneurial businesses and endeavors is really provided by the Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation. I would caution us to be paying attention to the nature of this corporation and its parameters, as well.

"As I look through, and having been on the Committee and listening to the testimonies as well, the purpose of the Corporation and the way in which the awards will be granted, don't seem to coalesce. And one of the concerns I have, and hope the next Committee will look at, is that if we are going to be giving any extensive amount of money to create a corporation that's going to create more economic opportunity, that we'll tie also into it an expectation for performance measurements. And if one of the purposes is to provide high quality, high income job opportunities, I think the measurement for awarding a grant would also have to include what that means in terms of numbers for people. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Wakai be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

The Chair then announced:

"Members, at this time, the Chair will be taking Stand. Com. Rep. No. 253 on page 11, out of order."

Representative Ito, for the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 253) recommending that H.B. No. 1905, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Caldwell moved that notwithstanding the recommendations contained in Standing Committee Report No. 253, that H.B. No. 1905, HD 1, be recommitted to the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"I rise in support of the recommittal. And I just want to address why the recommittal is necessary. In its present form, the House Draft 1 deletes the Certificate of Authority to impound. And why this is important is that existing dams can be revisited and regulated by the State using newly adopted and stricter provisions.

"Under the 1987 Act, only construction is regulated thus there is little incentive for owners to maintain their dam, and little authority for the State to order a dam owner to repair a dam or drain a reservoir. The House Draft 1 deletes the State's right to maintain control of the dam when an emergency condition exists. The House Draft 1 does not have any provisions to regulate the loan program that's in the bill, in the House Draft 1. From the original version of 1095, there were so many issues that needed to be addressed in the existing statute.

"For example, the definition of dam is outdated in the 1987 Act. If the State happens to find an unreported higher moderate hazard classified dam that is less than 25 feet or that impounds less than 15 acre feet of water, the State cannot regulate it and force the owner to make the repairs or the State to make the repairs itself because it is not a dam by definition. This could be a dangerous situation, especially if you cannot locate the owner and an emergency condition exists. The definitions section in the 1987 Act should be updated, particularly the definitions for 'owner' and 'person' which are not included in this House Draft 1, and leaves ambiguity in the statute as to whom the law applies to.

"The unlawful section left as it is, is weak. And is one of the major findings of the Godbey investigation and report. The monetary penalties for violations of the 1987 Act are low, a maximum of $500 per day and does not provide much incentive to comply with the law. Under the 1987 Act, the board's powers and authorities are vague. These are just some of the problems with the House Draft 1 and therefore it must be recommitted. So I ask the members to support the recommittal."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1905, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DAM SAFETY," was recommitted to the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs, with Representatives M. Oshiro, Souki and Takamine being excused.

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I just wanted to vote no on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 215 for the following reasons. I recognize that this is an attempt to help the rights of women to choose to have emergency contraception after they're raped. However, it does still require St. Francis Medical Center, or I guess it's now called the Hawaii Medical Center, to perform or give out emergency contraception. And while many may believe that since St. Francis sold the hospital to the Hawaii Medical Center, one of the basic agreements of that sale was to allow the Catholic sisters to continue to maintain its religious tenets. And therefore included these tenets as the condition of the sale and lease of the land under two medical centers.

"And so Hawaii Medical Center has agreed to comply with ethical and religious directives for the Catholic health care services. So there's varied concerns that while we're trying to protect the rights of one particular group, that we are taking away the rights of another group that is really trying to help bring healthcare to the people of Hawaii."

Representative Ching rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. My husband works for Hawaii Medical Center," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"I'd like to stand with strong reservations and I ask that the words of the Representative of Ewa Beach be entered as my own."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Briefest of comments. Your Committee on Health believed, or I should say, I believed, that even though there is not a 'carve out' exemption for previous St. Francis, now the new body, we do believe that based on current statute, that people would have the right to refer treatment of someone who needs emergency contraception to another provider at the facility if it was their prerogative to give it. So we do think that that it is taken care of, but I look forward to further discussion of the matter."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in reservations. The matter is very simple. If you're in trouble, you should get emergency contraception. But if you happen to be in St. Francis and you can't, by virtue of the hundreds of years of whatever and however the doctrine is, all we have to do is exempt this one hospital and this bill goes 'lickety split'. One exemption. I think for the sake of the 99.999% of the people who are going to benefit from this, this tug of war has been much ado about nothing. All we have to do is give one exemption and this bill is over with. And I think we have to be more common sensical rather than political with the way this bill has been approached in the past. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"Thank you, very much. This particular measure will be going to the Committee on Judiciary after this, so I hope the Judiciary Committee will have a lively debate on this matter."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 466, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representative Pine voting no, and with Representatives M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1792, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition to this matter. The measure today before us is very flawed in my opinion. It would fast-track the use of a specific drug treatment protocol for the problem of crystal methamphetamine that has not been clinically tested. The Director of the Department of Health who is charged with conducting the review in this measure has expressed that the Department does not review or approve medical treatment protocols which she's being asked to do in this measure.

"The other thing I would point out, Mr. Speaker, is that while this protocol may be an option for the future there are other better ways in which we could invest the monies that would be used in this measure. For instance, on drug treatment programs and substance abuse education which this body has funded before.

"Again, while this may be a promising treatment I would urge that we not pass this because we simply cannot unnecessarily waste the monies when it can be used in other ways."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of this matter. As you all know, we're the number one state in the whole union with the most crystal methamphetamine addicts. This is a drug that's fully approved by FDA. It's been in Hawaii for the last three years.

"In the hearing of the Committee of Health, Kahi Mohala, the Executive Director came forward and said they are now about to use it for their patients, and they're now having dialogue with HMSA to cover some of the costs of this treatment and we now have people in Hawaii that have actively used this drug PROMETA. I think the conflict here, there's a conflict, because there's also other people who are interested who have come forward and said that they have better treatment.

"There are now three states in the nation, Mr. Speaker, in which the criminal justice system has adopted the use of these drugs. Yes, we do have treatment for crystal methamphetamine, which is not medication, in our State. And I think that we should spur every race and implement means that had been proven elsewhere for the benefit of our people. I think that if you look at the affects of crystal methamphetamine or 'ice', we are the state of ice epidemic, in our State, we should be the leader of measures that will cure our people and decrease the number of criminality in our State. PROMETA has been here like I said for three years and it's also only been used by the rich and the famous.

"But unfortunately, Mr. Speaker, the people that are ice addicts do not have medical insurance or neither do they have money to be treated. So this bill is only a measure wherein we can implement public support or public appropriation for this type of people. Otherwise, it's available in this State. There are a few providers here in this State and I've had dialogue with every agency that has something to do with the approval of PROMETA.

"The bill says that we are to review studies done elsewhere. We are not putting any money for any studies here. We merely review and follow up, follow the rules as being implemented by other states. And as far as the Department of Health is concerned, they don't want to review. There are other agencies, Mr. Speaker, that we can approach to study this for our own implementation. Thank you very much."

"I'm rising with some strong reservations. I went to the Neal Blaisdell Center for a review of this program. The people that were involved with it from the very beginning were there. I was not convinced. What I did get was that it was a very expensive program. And I would like to see a lot more data and information as to the real value of it, but I note that in the Committee Report, that the Department of Health and even Elaine Wilson, who used to work in the alcohol addiction area in the Department of Health was against this bill."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I stand in conditional strong support of this bill. Conditional strong support based on one statistic. In the Health Committee, one of the purveyors of the trials that this went through gave us the astounding statistic that 75 to 80 percent of those addicted to drugs were free. That tells me something is happening because that's a rate that no other program gets to. So I think that what we should do is pass, get it on Medicare, see if it works, fund it or throw it out."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"I just want to address, Mr. Speaker, the issue about the cost of PROMETA. It will be expensive, but if you look at the effects of crystal meth, of ice addiction in our State, in our criminal justice system, when they come in and out of probation or incarceration or the families that are broken down because of this addiction and all the crimes that comes to our society because of that addiction. If you add those up, Mr. Speaker, we are better off paying the price for their treatment."

Representative Magaoay rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 222, House Bill No. 843 HD 1, I'm standing in strong support. This is regarding Kahuku Hospital and I appreciate the Committee of Health hearing it. For us on the North Shore, it's really critical that we have this institution saved. This now goes to the Finance Committee. Hawaii HSC is the bearer of it.

"But also with this bill there's linkage involved. The Governor had an emergency appropriation and also a grant, and that's moving. So I'm asking the body to support that as we move on."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 843, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAHUKU HOSPITAL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives M. Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"This bill would allow an employee, only an employee, to elect to use accrued paid leave including vacation, personal or family leave, for any part of a four week period of family leave provided under the law. I'm going to go with reservations, but I'm very concerned about this bill. The measure puts Hawaii's statute in conflict with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and sets a different standard for Hawaii employers."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1691, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

"I stand in strong support of Stand Com. Report 226 for civic responsibility and educating our children in these different disciplines. And I would like to ask if I can have written comments inserted in the Journal."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of House Bill 1522 - Relating to Education.

"I strongly support HB 1522 which would establish a grant program to increase Hawaii school student's understanding of civic responsibility through increased civic learning opportunities. We must be deliberate about preparing our youth to be willing and able to take their active role in civil society. Well-designed classroom, school-wide, and complex level programs that foster an understanding of fundamental constitutional principles through methods such as service learning, integration of current events, or simulations of democratic processes and procedures, together with required assessment and tracking of students' civic learning, will enhance educational accountability.

"Initiatives such as No Child Left Behind have placed enormous emphasis on reading and mathematics, and there is now a growing stress on science and technology. However, Hawaii school children should understand the electoral process and practice other aspects of civic responsibility while in school to be prepared for their roles as citizens in adulthood. In recent decades, increasing numbers of citizens of Hawaii and other Americans have become disengaged from civic and political institutions and electoral activities such as voting. Recent figures show that Hawaii has the lowest voting incidence in the nation. By increasing opportunities for civic learning, this bill will help each generation of Hawaiians understand their rights and responsibilities as citizens as well as the importance of active, informed citizenship.

"I support HB 1522 as a way to engender personal, civic, and academic engagement in our school children and to promote a deep sense of civic responsibility in them, as well a joy in life-long learning."

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1508, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. This particular bill raises the salary cap of the Superintendent of Education, as well as the executive management team from, not all of them, from $150,000 to $200,000. And I actually had some questions for the Board of Education, but they weren't there at the hearing to answer them.

"And in regards to this, I know that we won't be looking into being prescriptive as to what are the outcomes that we expect for our raises, but what I wanted to ask the Board was, what is the system that they have to review the superintendent for raises? And because I don't know that I'm going to move forward with reservations."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The first speaker was interested in knowing how the Board does the review. She could have asked me actually, but that's beside the point. How the Board of Education does a review of the Superintendent is on an annual basis. But the Superintendent also has a multi-year contract and that evaluation is done of course as all evaluations are in executive session. So the criteria that they use for the Superintendent is based upon the Superintendent's plan on how she will improve student achievement and all the different culture that they are going to judge as Superintendent.

"This bill really says … Well, let's backtrack. The Superintendent currently gets paid $150,000. That was her pay when she first got the job over five years ago and it has not budged because the ceiling is $150,000. This bill merely lifts the ceiling to $200,000. It is totally and entirely up the Board as to what degree, $150,000 to $200,000, they want to raise the Superintendent, again based on an evaluation that they review in executive session. I hope the first speaker is not implying that we here at the Legislature ought to get involved in evaluating the superintendent. I think that would be a tricky business indeed.

"And, to keep it in perspective, this current Superintendent, the future superintendent in fact, oversees the ninth largest school district in the United States. If you look at studies, Superintendents of districts in the United States between 100,000 and 200,000 students of which we are one with 180,000 students, gets on average $228,000 in salary. Again, you want to take into account Hawaii's cost of living, $200,000 at the top end is a reasonable amount. And again, that's not to say any superintendent will get that amount. It will be based upon the performance evaluation that's conducted by the Board. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Still with reservations, Mr. Speaker. And just some additional comments. In regards to this particular bill and being able to ask the Board of Education, one of the things I just want to be consistent with is we passed out legislation that required principal performance-based contracts. And as we're going through that, we are expecting a certain agreement as to how we are going to pay principals. And I just want to make sure, because we are spending taxpayer money, that we do our job in reviewing maybe some of the guidelines. Is this performance-based? Those type of things.

"I'm not saying that the Superintendent deserves more or deserves less in comparison with the rest of the State. So it's just a matter of being consistent, saying that is this performance-based, what system is in place that would help us understand the review process."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I'm rising with some strong reservations. I guess the first thing that comes up for me is that the top executive in this State who is the Governor makes $112,000. I've heard the arguments in the past when the superintendent was Superintendent Aizawa, and he was going to step down. They were going to get a … I can't remember whether he had a vote of no confidence, but they were looking for another Superintendent.

"And the salary at that time was about $94,000 and in quotes from the Board of Education it was like it's very hard to get anybody to apply for the job. Actually, a lot of people applied. People from other states. Then when the ceiling was raised to $150,000 it wasn't very long before it just jumped to the cap. I don't have a lot of faith in the Board of Education in that when the further a person is from the money that is earned, and tax money comes in and everything gets spread out. Nobody thinks about how they would spend their money or if they had an employee, what they would do.

"The Chair of Health alluded to the fact that the Superintendent gets a multi-year contract. I think a few years back, the Board of Education decided to renew it when it wasn't up because in their mind they were so happy with the work she was doing and that was good for her. But that was sort of an arbitrary decision made. It wasn't the time to renew the contract. My fear, I guess, is that we're just going to if we pass this, raise it to $200,000, the Board may very well just say, 'Well, I think the Superintendent's worth it. Let's do it.' That's a huge increase. That's tax dollars. I'm not comfortable with that amount."

The Chair then stated:

"May I correct your statement earlier. It was not the Chair of Health. It was the Chair of Education."

Representative Ito rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm in support. I just want to correct the previous speaker. It was not Dr. Aizawa. It was Dr. LeMahieu."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1508, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SALARIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

Representatives Takumi and Chang, for the Committee on Education and the Committee on Higher Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 229) recommending that H.B. No. 1268, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Economic Development & Business Concerns.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1268, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Economic Development & Business Concerns, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"On Stand Com Report 229, HB 1268 HD 1, I'm going with reservations on this one. I stated my concerns in the Committee hearing. I don't want to belabor it here. This still has a long ways to go. But in a nutshell, Mr. Speaker, this measure, this proposal has not had quite the degree of collaboration with all the stakeholders that I think goes into sound public policy. There's still time for that to occur. So I will withhold final judgment on this bill, apart from with the assurances that when in session, it will be a product that all of the stakeholders can say that we had a part in developing it."

Representative Caldwell rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I speak with strong support. First of all Mr. Speaker, I do want to thank the Chair of Education for allowing this to pass out of Committee. This is a good bill that has a lot of promise. And it is quite comprehensive and so there are a lot of parts to this measure that we need to look in and through. But I would like to say that after reading a lot of the information on this bill and other innovations bills that what it did was it allowed for leveraging of existing resources. This is also bringing in things that are successful within the community, or within education and trying to bring that all together under one vision. So although, as we go forward, there's a lot of promise to this bill. There are a lot of good things that are going on in Hawaii that support the parts of this bill. I'm just very thankful that we get to continue the conversation on this."

Representative Takai rose to respond, stating:

"Still in opposition. My reason for opposition is that this is the Governor's bill, and in the hearing we talked a little bit about the collaboration that the Minority Leader just recently discussed. And the fact remains that I don't think to this date that there is enough collaboration and discussion going on in the Department of Education and the University of Hawaii. In fact, when the bill was crafted, my understanding is that neither the University of Hawaii nor the Department of Education was asked to participate. And that troubles me because the focus of this particular measure is at the University of Hawaii and our public schools. If this is in fact a true collaborative effort, those two partners must be involved."

Representative Wakai rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just with strong support, Mr. Speaker. I don't think we should shoot down a great idea just because we left out a person in the discussion. We still have lots of time to include that person or that group and hopefully that will occur. I do want to note that there were multiple testimonies and some from the University of Hawaii strongly supporting this measure. And they were included in those discussions. And I also want to note that despite having numerous, numerous supporters, there was only one opponent. And he was a private citizen. So hopefully we can together as team in this body get those people who we think are left out and pass this measure."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in favor of this Committee Report. And I just would like to point out that the Committee Report mentions that no matter whether we know what happens to Aloha Stadium in the future, whether there will be a new stadium, your Committee finds that the needs of the existing stadium should not be ignored. So our priorities should be placed on addressing the immediate repair and maintenance needs of the stadium.

"The Director of the Department of Accounting and General Services pointed out that if a new stadium is desired, it would take a minimum of ten years to find a suitable site, to do the planning, the permitting, the appropriations and so meanwhile we need the stadium for UH games, for other events of statewide concern for other public events, especially for public high schools. For reasons of health and safety and ADA compliance, we should make sure that we tend to the immediate needs of the Aloha Stadium."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I would like to vote no on this measure and I would like to briefly mention why even though I stand the risk of sounding like a broken record. My opposition is that acquisition of new land, and I know they're looking at land in Ewa, and it would be nice for us to have a stadium there. But we don't have the infrastructure to support it, Mr. Speaker. We've got traffic gridlocked every day and the only reprieve we have is on the weekend. I would really hate those two days be occupied by a whole bunch of people coming to Ewa."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. Basically, Aloha Stadium is right smack dab in the middle of my district and whatever happens, whether it is relocated or we fix up the existing stadium, will have big consequences or benefits on the district. And I haven't been able to … I don't sit in this particular Committee, so I'm going to reserve my vote until Third Reading, but I did want to just note my reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 282, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ALOHA STADIUM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs with Representative Cabanilla voting no, and with Representatives M. Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I am in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 234, House Bill 781 HD1. This would really gut the Works of Art Special Fund, the State Foundation of Culture and Arts program. I'm not quite sure of everything it does but it looks like it would cut the funding for the acquisition and maintenance of the art by 50%. I think we should look at this very carefully."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm rising in strong support of both 243 and 244. It's mainly because we've really been remiss. Hawaii has been historically behind the rest of the nation in spending on pedestrian facilities. It might be a good reason why we're killing so many bicyclists and pedestrians. We lead the nation in those regards.

"So this is just a small step, these first two bills, in actually trying to correct that history. We were 43rd in the nation for expenditure of available federal funds for bike pedestrian facilities. And it's really been because the State DOT is really not focused on walking and biking. Their focus is on automobiles.

"So this is just a first small step in the right direction toward sustainability, and I'm pleased that the Legislature is taking these initial baby steps toward a sustainable pedestrian-oriented transportation system."

Representative Ito's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to make more lands available for the development of affordable housing by:

1) Authorizing the Department of Land and Natural Resources to issue 99-year term leases of ceded lands for the development of low and moderate income housing; and

2) Requiring DLNR to conduct a study and submit a report on the inventory of available ceded land and their suitability for the development of affordable housing to the 2008 and 2009 Legislatures.

"Mr. Speaker, affordable housing throughout the State is in a crisis state. Because of the very active real estate market, families who previously were able to afford affordable housing are now living with relatives or are homeless because they no longer can afford the increase in their rent. Many of OHA's beneficiaries fall within these parameters and are in need of affordable housing.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill will permit the use of ceded lands for the development of affordable housing. It is hoped that through this measure, families who are now living with relatives or on the beach will be able to live in brand new affordable housing.

"Mr. Speaker, I ask all of my colleagues to vote favorable on Standing Committee Report No. 248, H.B. 505, HD 1. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to preserve legislative oversight over small boat harbors statewide, by prohibiting the transfer of jurisdiction, duties, authorization, programs, records, equipment and materials, funding, or personnel relating to State small boat harbors to any county in any manner unless expressly provided by statute.

"Mr. Speaker, our State small boat harbors are a vital part of the State of Hawaii's intra-state transportation system. Passage of H.B. 507, HD 1, will ensure that the legislative branch of our State government continues to have oversight on issues like harbor divesture, and continues to represent the best interests of the people of the State of Hawaii.

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"No vote for me as well. I think I have to apologize to you, Mr. Speaker. I usually don't stand up on Second Reading bills because I know they have a long way to go, but on this particular measure, this bill takes two concerns that perhaps the Economic and Development and Business Concerns Committee, along with Tourism and Culture can take a look at as it goes to their Committees.

"First of all, the bill does not have anything in here that is called 'claw-back' provisions. And what 'claw-back' provisions are is anytime an entity, whether it be the State or the city, gives a subsidy of credit and abatement, any tax thing of that nature, they usually put in a 'claw-back' that says if you don't live up to your end of the bargain, then we can 'claw back' and take back that credit.

"What are some of the provisions, generally? Some of the provisions are, we will employ X number of people at an average wage of this amount. And there is an assurance from us as policymakers that this is indeed in the best interest of the State because it's an income generator, a job creator and of course, a tax generator as well. That is absent from this bill.

"The second point is a real minor point actually, is that it's odd to me that it's a $75 million tax credit which we gave not that long ago for another world-class fish tank, and it seems like this is going to be applied as well. My understanding of tax credits is, it's not like a gift certificate where you can just kind of transfer it over to someone else. Now that may not be of any relevance whatsoever, but I just want the other two Committees as they look at it to take those two points into account."

Representative Morita rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I also rise in opposition to this measure. I would like a no vote cast. Also, it was really difficult to support this measure in Committee because there are really no proponents for it. So it's really difficult to ascertain what the project was like. And I also would like to incorporate the words of the previous speaker of my colleague from Pearl City as my own."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition to this measure. And first of all would like to incorporate the words of the Representative from Pearl City as if they were my own. Mr. Speaker, the Ko Olina tax credit was unnecessary back in 2003. This measure is unnecessary today. No developer has stepped forward to push an aquarium in Kakaako so I'm not too sure who this bill will benefit.

"We have a golden opportunity here to put $75 million back into the State's financial plan. So let's take the first step forward in the right direction by simply wiping the Ko Olina tax credit off the books and then examine using that money in our financial plan for all of the other good, worthy government projects. This effort to me is more about taking advantage of an opportunity than it is about serving a good public need."

Representative Belatti rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representatives Takumi, Morita and Wakai be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"No vote. And may I say a few words? This is not yet been mentioned so what I want to add is this year we came into the Session knowing we had issues about housing and I'd sure like to see a tax credit go for student housing that we need all across the State. And we could maybe get the private sector to build our student housing and put in some tax credit for that."

Representative Ito rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of House Bill 1555, HD 1. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to provide tax credit for costs incurred in the development of a world class aquarium at Kakaako Makai on Oahu, up to a maximum of $75 million to all qualified taxpayers in all years.

"Mr. Speaker, questions have been raised as to the future status of the Waikiki Aquarium which is operated by the University of Hawaii. This measure does not preclude the Waikiki Aquarium from formulating a partnership with the developer of the aquarium. Such a partnership can only enhance the Waikiki Aquarium's research capabilities as well as increasing the visitors count through a shared entrance fee arrangement. Furthermore, House Bill 155 does not preclude the University of Hawaii from developing their own aquarium and utilizing the tax credit or the design and construction costs.

"Mr. Speaker, in 1999 the Hawaii Community Development Authority commissioned PricewaterhouseCoopers to conduct an independent study to investigate the market and the financial potential for a world class aquarium in Kakaako. The Waikiki Aquarium also had input into the study, regarding the programming of the proposed aquarium. Mr. Speaker, this study concluded that a world class aquarium in Kakaako is both financially advantageous and sound investment for the future.

"Back in 1999, it was estimated that in opening year of the aquarium alone, it was predicted to draw an estimated 900,000 to 950,000 annual visitors. The study further stated that such an aquarium in Kakaako could capture upward of 750,000 visitors annually, fully financing its operation from visitor-spending revenues and ultimately creating a surplus that accommodates a meaningful level of debt financing. The study further states that the implementation of HCDA plans for the waterfront development at Kakaako will play an important role in the success of the aquarium by providing an exciting and attractive people place with significant parking. Thus, the aquarium may be only one element of a campus which accommodates other related activities.

"Mr. Speaker, HCDA entered into a development agreement with KUD International, LLC for 11.5 acres of the 221 acre development area. A June 18, 2004 report entitled, "Ocean Science Center at Kakaako Business Plan" concluded that a world class aquarium in Kakaako would be a major anchor for the Kakaako Makai development region through a shared vision branding theme built around science. The result could be a vibrant community, a thriving economy and a recognition of science attached to the name of Kakaako in the State of Hawaii. Mr. Speaker, this is an incredible opportunity for the State of Hawaii to invest its precious tax credit into a fiscally sound investment for our future. I urge my colleagues to pass HB 1555, HD 1."

Representative Brower rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I would first like to incorporate the words of the Chair of the Water and Land Committee on as if they were my own, but also to offer a couple of brief comments.

"This State for many years has talked about building a world class aquarium. And when you think about it, Mr. Speaker, a state like ours in the middle of the Pacific with tourism its number one industry, and with our population enjoying the Pacific every day, we should have an aquarium that can educate our children and our adults and also educate the tourists who visit our State everyday and our growth engine of Waikiki. And despite many attempts to develop public/private partnerships to build such aquariums, it hasn't succeeded.

"Most recently we saw an attempt and instead $75 million went to Ko Olina on the promise that they'd build an aquarium out there which has never transpired. We've lost four years since then. This would allow a public/private partnership to come in, take advantage, build an aquarium, turn it over to UH at some point for them to run and for many, many generations in the future to take their children down there and learn more about the ocean the surrounds all of us.

"It's a good first step, it deserves serious consideration and I hope that this vehicle remains alive and that the Senate will look at it closely too."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, one could argue that this is a revenue-neutral bill. I'm speaking objectively in favor. Because if they don't build it, there's no tax credit. But if they build it, there's going to be income that comes to the State. And I'm not saying we should always dangle tax credits for people to build it, but there's no money leaving the treasury unless it's built. And if money leaves the treasury, it comes back vis-à-vis the private sector and the stimulation of the economy. So it's value-neutral the way it is but if you put it into gear, that's when it has its benefits."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. As a member of the next two Committees I will remain open-minded as to what they will be sharing with us. My concern with this particular bill is that it is actually not value-neutral. It will represent the decision that we have with this that will represent how we feel about Hawaii's movement to diversify our economy away from the visitor industry as the primary source. And I have some concerns about the existing aquarium because we've invested a lot in that as well. So I will remain open-minded."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. And what prompts my reservation are some things that the Majority Leader has said. It is true that we've been down this road before and we tried it before, and it seemed as though that resulted in kind of a failure because we didn't put any type of assurances in the bill, or we didn't put some type of mechanism in the bill to require, or to get assurances that it's actually going to happen for the amount that we're providing the developer or providing people who are going to develop the aquarium.

"It seems like we've been down this road before, and it seems like despite the effort that we try to give similar type of tax credit for $75 million, it didn't happen. And the message at that point in time when we first passed it was that people should be able to do it, or people would be willing to do it despite the $75 million from the State. It seems like we're going down the wrong path again."

Representative Takai rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I wish first to incorporate the words of the Chair of Education and the Representative from Salt Lake as if they were my own. And briefly in opposition, I think a lot has been said already. But one of the things that hasn't been said is that I think we still have the $75 million tax credit on the books for Ko Olina. This bill doesn't even address that. So if this bill passes, not only will we have the $75 million Ko Olina tax credit, but we'll also have this Kakaako tax credit. It already troubles me that we have on the books the Ko Olina tax credit.

"I've said for many years now my concerns regarding that. It also goes back to when we provided $150 million to University when we gave them the funds necessary to construct the UH Medical School. Same concerns there, same concerns when I was in 2001, 2003 with the Ko Olina tax credit, I had the same concerns and those concerns have not been erased."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. Just to add a few more words. I noticed that the Kakaako community I don't believe has weighed in on this yet so it may be very premature. And the other thing is the argument mentioned before about this would help the University in terms of research. Well, there's NELHA and other areas in the State that maybe that synergy of research and development is in the aquarium for that then we should keep ourselves open to different sites around the State."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Saiki rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I am speaking in favor. I'm not addressing all of the comments made about the bill itself. I don't know enough about it, but I do support the vision that Chair Ito brought up mainly because I wasn't in favor of the aquarium we built on Maui at the time because I was against 'fish prisons'. But what I found was that the actual opportunities for education, for kids to sleep over and stay there and the educational facility that has become an exciting partnership that Chair Ito has talked about with the University, I think can be quite a learning tool. Not just for tourism, but for kids who don't get into the water and for the wonderful world that is under the water that many people aren't able to access."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 260. Mr. Speaker, Kukui Gardens is a large affordable housing complex located on a 22-acres parcel just outside of Chinatown in Palama. Kukui Gardens has 857 affordable units and 2,500 residents. Because the Department of Housing and Urban Development funded the Kukui Gardens complex it must remain affordable for 40 years. That 40 year period ends in 2011. After 2011, there is no legal impediment to raising the rents to market levels or to redeveloping the parcel.

"In early 2006, the current owner of Kukui Gardens put the complex up for sale and found a potential buyer, Carmel Partners. Understandably, the residents of Kukui Gardens are very concerned the potential sale of their homes and have fought to find a buyer who would keep the complex affordable after 2011. In response to these developments, last Session the Legislature passed, and Governor signed a bill giving the State authority to condemn the property.

"Since Act 288 became law, Carmel, the Kukui Gardens Resident Association and Faith Action for Community Equity which has been advocating on the residents' behalf, have reached a tentative compromise. This compromise would save half the complex for affordable housing and provide for the replacement of at least 200 of the lost units. Unfortunately, this would still result in the probable loss of about 200 affordable units, not a desirable result in the current tight rental market.

"To keep the Legislature's options open, I've introduced several bills including this one to try to ensure that the necessary vehicles are available to either accept the tentative compromise or to proceed with condemnation if that is the Legislature and the Governor's decision. Mahalo for your attention, and I respectfully urge passage of HB 997 and the other Kukui Gardens measures."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 997, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR KUKUI GARDENS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives M. Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Standing Committee Rep. 263 with reservations. I just want to again mention that when we pass legislation that deals with penalties and putting people in our correctional facilities, that we should always include an appropriation clause and a statement in there about what the impacts are going to be on our correctional facility system."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise in strong reservation in this measure and I would like the words of the Representative from the Big Island as my own. But I also want to add a couple of comments here. The bill says that the purpose of this bill is to provide greater protection to victims of domestic violence. I am not sure at this point what greater protection means, but if you look at the offenses that are described right below in the Standing Committee Report, it also adds terroristic threatening in the first degree. Mr. Speaker, that could be anything."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, instead of voting no on Second Reading on this measure, I'm voting with reservations and I would like to explain why. As an attorney that practiced environmental and land use law for twenty years, I often would make sure that the government had to follow the environmental assessment and environmental impact statement procedures, both federally and under State law. I can understand why people are concerned that the Superferry has not been required to do that and I respect that.

"However, my reservations really relate to the carbon emissions from the various forms of transport. These figures may not be precise, but supposedly in passenger miles a plane will emit 290 grams of CO_2 per mile versus a ship emitting only 15 grams of CO_2 per mile. So it's about almost a one to twenty ratio. So your transport by ferry is a far superior means of transport for our island state, and it also helps us reduce global warming and do our part in that international effort.

"But I go back to the concern about the environmental review. Instead of a no vote as I did in the Committee, I am changing it to an aye vote with reservations."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I stand on this measure with reservations. I understand why people are continuing to pursue the discussion on having an environmental impact statement, but I do believe that it may come because people don't have confidence in the Department of Transportation. But from someone who has monthly meetings on a regular basis with the Department of Transportation, the Superferry and the public get together for discussions, I can tell you that the Department and the people from the Superferry are constantly trying to address the concerns. The concerns tend to be fishermen coming to the Big Island, and coming there and fishing. And DOCARE's not there to control the fisheries.

"The other concern is invasive species and transporting invasive species one island or another. And a third one is potentially the hitting of whales. And the dialogue continues on a regular basis. We've been doing this for a couple of years. Constantly, what are we doing, how are we trying to address it, constantly coming up with plans and trying to work with the communities. And that's why I'm with reservations. I'm not sure we need the environmental impact statement."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This is the bill that's referred to as the 'stop the Superferry bill.' I think that Superferry's going to be a wonderful thing for the State of Hawaii, giving our folks a less expensive way to travel between the islands. It will be good for small businesses. It's been a long time in coming and it would be a shame to have something like this stop it. I think that the ferry, we've seen it in the news, they've already got it out of the factory where it's being built. And some of the barges are already here. It's an exciting time for Hawaii."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 267, House Bill 1359, with reservations. And just a heads up for the next Committee, Consumer Protection and Commerce. Take a look at whether or not, when we combine the Medicare Part D program with the Hawaii Rx Plus Program, whether that basically eliminates the possibility for the Department to negotiate with drug manufacturers.

"As you well know, Mr. Speaker, when the Hawaii Rx law, our Plus law passed, it asked the Department of Human Services to negotiate with drug manufacturers for secondary rebates and therefore lowering the cost even more for those in our State who are either uninsured or underinsured for drug coverage. With the Part D, it's a federal program obviously, and it does not allow, it is illegal to negotiate with the drug manufacturers. So when you combine the two, my concern is whether or not that then precludes the Rx Plus side of that new program from negotiating with drug manufacturers. I realize that the new Congress may change that. I'm not holding my breath."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition to 272. This would provide the legislative agencies with a normal exemption to exempt them from the procurement code when contracting for studies that come back to the Legislature. It seems fairly innocuous, but what is wrong with this, and why am I voting no is that the CPO, the Chief Procurement Officer, Aaron Fujioka, said that this bill sends a mixed message. And I interpret that to mean that everybody else in the Executive departments and UH, the Judiciary and the counties, you must use the procurement system. But we at the Legislature want to be exempt. I think that is a mixed message. The CPO said that exemptions can be granted expeditiously, on a case-by-case basis. So we don't need this exemption and we don't need this bill."

"With reservations for the same concerns I raised on Stand Com. Rep. 229, House Bill 1268."

"This is Stand. Com. Rep. No. 282. Also with reservations. We were in the hearing yesterday and this bill has moving parts. If it is just about encouraging the Employees' Retirement Fund to invest its money in a certain way, then that should be by itself. But there's too many things going on and so we look forward to what the next Committee's going to do."

"Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Also with reservations. I guess the biggest concern I have is that aspect of dealing with the Employee Retirement System. We have a system that we just learned needs billions more in order to meet the needs of our retirees, and yet we have an Executive branch who's wanting to mandate the ERS that they take a sum of money, whether it be $100 million, we heard a lot of debate on $100 million yesterday, Mr. Speaker, and to invest it in a noble cause, but highly risky.

"You talk to any financial advisor and when they get into whether you want to invest in a high-tech start up company, you're looking at a high failure rate. Why would we want to gamble with the retirement money of our retirees and putting it in that kind of investment while at the same time, the same Legislature and this same government is mandating that the ERS get the money, meet the needs of the retires and meet the reserves that are not yet met. We're running in two different directions. I think we should step out of the picture and let the ERS do what they're supposed to be doing and meet the mandates that we provided."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations to the bill, specifically the first part of the bill that removes the liability from the fiduciaries to do the venture capital type of investment."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. In the Committee, actually we heard a lot of testimony and one of the things that I think is most attractive about this measure is that what they are saying is absolutely not telling the ERS what to do specifically with their money. It is much more about allowing them to invest in Hawaii companies. And they invest now a portion of their portfolio to mainland companies. In fact, the mainland sometimes invests in our companies.

"So essentially, to boil it down, to distill it down to a simple concept, we all know the concept, 'Buy Hawaii.' Buy Hawaii. We have a choice, Buy Hawaii. And that's what this is asking for. This is asking for if you have a choice and you file very strict prudent measures, the director of DBEDT was very clear on that, that this would not exempt fiduciary responsibility. That if you have a choice to invest, it makes common sense to me."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"If I could incorporate the words from the Representative from Liliha in strong support as well. And also just in addition, that is exactly right. We are fearful because we do have an unfunded liability in regards to the ERS and we need to be protective of that Fund. We also have to look at, though, and understand what the proposal is. And I don't believe that it's saying that we're being risky with our money or anything like that. In fact, the ERS does do the same type of due diligence that they do currently in their position. And so we need to understand it.

"Kamehameha was also a testifier in this. And the person that was representing Kamehameha was explaining how it works. And I don't quite understand it fully, but I intend to take this time to make sure that this money is safe, that we're exercising, they will be exercising their fiduciary duties, Mr. Speaker.

"The other parts of the measure, including the Mele program and some of the other things, are very good ideas that should keep on going and that we should still have discussion on. Like I said in an earlier bill, that it takes things that people are working on currently and it puts it together and says we are going to support this for future economic reasons."

Representative Morita rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Caldwell be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With strong reservations. I just wanted to make a record of part of this bill about supporting a state operated technology incubator and innovation center in the Kakaako district. Again, my concerns are, I was working with the community and their vision of what should be in Kakaako. And now today we've heard of an aquarium, now we're hearing about this State operated technology incubator, and then we hear about OHA, the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, wanting a facility. So it just seems like we're all over the map. So maybe people are just throwing out, seeing what will stick this year, but I really want the community to weigh in on their vision."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"This bill was put on a stretcher and was carried out of Committee yesterday. It was a wounded bill. I rise with reservations. But again, this is a wounded bill and let me tell you why it's wounded. First, $100 million is sort of a nice round figure, but an allocation of this size should be justified. And DBEDT Director, Ted Liu provided no rationale for coming up with this figure. Who's to say $50 million, or a $150 million wouldn't be a more appropriate figure?

"Second, this bill creates a seven member advisory board. And again we are contemplating growing the size of government, when as I mentioned yesterday, the State already has this Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation, which Director Liu admitted yesterday, could administer this investment front or any investment front.

"Third, the bill includes language reducing the fiduciary responsibility of ERS trustees. That is not clear or it's not clear whether the State picks up some of that liability and Mr. Liu has not gotten an AG's opinion on that.

"Fourth, this measure does not require a private sector match. And I think this is the most important part about why this bill is wounded. At minimum, we should require other investors to join us. If it's not good for investment by the private sector and private investors, it's not a good investment for taxpayers. The idea of growing the tech sector is an excellent idea but this bill is not."

Representative Yamane rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Wakai be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Hanohano rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm rising in support of this bill. I really appreciate the package that the Governor put together and a lot of thought was put into it. I might mention all the testimony yesterday was completely in favor of this. And just on the investment fund part of it, it really seemed clear to me that this is almost just a symbolic gesture more than anything else. They're just recommending that they consider this hundred million that they invest in Hawaii rather than wherever else they may invest. So it's not directing or anything like that. And there has been so much other financial monies put in by Kamehameha Schools and others that have already stepped forward, I think at least we should put a symbolic step forward as well by the State. So I do support this."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"I'm still in strong support and just to say I think I was in the same meeting. And if I were to characterize the testimony and what I think is first and foremost as the people, I would say some of the brightest minds and some of the most honest testimony were in such strong and overwhelming support. So I guess I was at the same meeting, but maybe you can see an accident and come out with a different interpretation."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Caldwell and Wakai be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Nishimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Still in strong support. And I also just had one thing to add. In regards to the amount of the $100 million, I believe that that suggestion did not originate from the DBEDT or the Governor's Office. In fact it was this very own body, this State House that had that as a suggestion all throughout last year until the end of Session and at no time did I hear that question come up as to why the significance of the $100 million. So I just wanted to say maybe there is not an answer, and maybe we should ask other people on this Floor as to what that $100 million is for."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. Very briefly to put on the last comment about the $100 million. It actually wasn't a requirement that the ERS invest the $100 million. It was actually looking at general fund appropriations. And secondly there was a prior comment as to the fiduciary responsibilities. If people would turn to page 21 and page 22 of the bill, it actually does relieve them of that fiduciary responsibility. So that is a primary concern and contrary to what the prior speaker may have said, she was wrong."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservation. And some of my comments were already addressed by many of the speakers, but I wanted to just say on page 20, it is not a permissive language. It's a mandatory language. And even if it is a permissive language, what happens when we say the ERS may, or may consider it. The ERS looks at that as almost a mandatory language. If it is permissive language, then we shouldn't even put it in and allow that to be a permissive language.

"As far as other comments about buying local or supporting local companies, well you know it's fine if we're talking about different types of manufacturing goods or we're going out and supporting companies. In this situation, what we're talking about is a retirement system for retirees, and if we are going to jeopardize some of the benefits of the future retirees or present retirees, that's a big problem. The fiduciary responsibility that we need to take major consideration for. And because of these and because of some of the comments made by the previous speakers, I vote with reservations."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations for me. I am concerned about the drawdown, the statutory drawdown of the ERS. But that's one concern that I have. The other concern is this. You know if someone gives me or tells me that I could get $20 million or $10 million or whatever it is to do something, I'm going to gladly come to the table and say sure, give it to me.

"Many of these appropriations or some of these appropriations are going to the University of Hawaii. And that troubles me because if you take a look at the University of Hawaii's budget, let me give you an example. We all know that the UH Medical School's in dire need of additional funds. That's basic support for what we already have. $3 million request and a $4 million request. $7.5 million more they need today to operate the medical school. I think all of you have been visited by people throughout the UH system and there's some unmet needs today that the University is requesting that the Legislature fund. And it troubles me when we have all of these things coming at us in addition over and above the basic needs of an institution like the University of Hawaii. Unmet needs, arts and sciences. I mean we already saw just recently the report on the student housing facilities at Manoa. I don't understand. I don't understand how we can start coming up with these great ideas, $50 million here, $100 million here or whatever, when we can't take care of what we have right now."

Representative Takumi rose to respond, stating:

"Still with reservations. Just in response to the Representative from Maui about the testimonies that were in favor. I know it's very difficult as you read testimonies to kind of decipher their real meaning. Sometimes it gets subtle, sometimes a bit nuanced. When testifiers come before a Committee and say, 'I support the intent of a bill,' well if they supported the bill they would say 'I support the bill.' Good intentions do not necessarily mean good legislation. They're two different animals. And so I support the intent of this measure."

"I am standing in support of this measure because I believe there is a collective memory of some of us who were here in the '90s when it was this body that raided statutorily more than what is being asked now for innovation. It was this body that prior to that that's basically bled for decades any investments over 8%. The reason why the ERS is in trouble is because of us. So I don't think we can suddenly turn to the great protectorate of the ERS and not know that the blood on our hands in this body is directly of why it's so difficult.

"And when I hear pleas of individuals saying 'let us protect it,' well, up until a few years ago, we were there bleeding it and we were there robbing it. So now we're going to try to do something innovative and I could see the history that some may have forgotten that they need to remember. Bill moves on to the next Committee."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Wakai and Luke be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Mizuno rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Takumi, Wakai and Caldwell be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Green rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations on 288 as well. This constitutional amendment asks that the age to run for Governor and Lieutenant Governor be lowered to the age of 25. I was 25 years old once Mr. Speaker, and when I was 25 years old, I could run fast and I could stay up all night, but I wouldn't trade it for the knowledge that I had when I was 35. And when I look into this room, I don't see anybody here, correct me if you can, who is 24 years old. And I don't think that we're picking that poll from this office."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm in support. I just want to share a short story with you folks. I received a phone call and numerous faxes from a young man named Reuben Perez and he wanted me to hear this bill. And I thought at first, 'Gee, I'm not going to pass this bill.' I don't think it's a good idea to change the Constitution for one young man who wants to run for Governor.

"At the urging of my Office Manager, I met with him and we sat down and he brought a handful of young adults with him. They were so excited about this bill and its purpose. I asked them, 'Are you running for Governor?' and he said 'No.' But the group of young people got together and they are trying to get other young people involved in the political process, and this was their idea to get other young adults involved. They feel that they're left out of politics and they don't really have a say in what happens in this building.

"So I was so jazzed when they came and talked to me about this, and encouraged them to talk to the rest of you. And I'll have them come talk to you, and talk to you, and everybody else if at all possible. I'm not optimistic that this is going to pass, but I thought it's a good idea to get these young adults involved. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm in strong support. I just want to mention to my colleagues that four years ago when I got elected, next to me was a young lady who was 20 years old that was elected. I was astonished by her abilities and her common sense. She represented her district extremely well. I think this is a wonderful idea.

"People can start to vote at 18. People can go to the war and fight for us at 18. I think there are many people capable and we have to remember it's up to the public to choose who represents them. So, I don't see this as a bad thing at all. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support. Just to comment as the mother of Kids Voting, I would like to thank the Judiciary Chair for his willingness to consider the voice of youth and to stretch the possibilities. Thank you."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'm sorry. I know we don't have much time, but I'd like to speak in support as a grandmother. It reminded me of a quote that I once heard and that is, 'From the mouths of babes oft time come gems,' and we should remember that."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1023, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE V, SECTION 1, OF THE HAWAII CONSTITUTION, TO CHANGE THE AGE QUALIFICATION FOR THE OFFICES OF GOVERNOR AND LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR FROM THE AGE OF THIRTY YEARS TO THE AGE OF TWENTY-FIVE YEARS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives M. Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in serious reservations of 291. These are the genetically modified things that we all eat, whether we know it or not, or like it or not. And this bill says anyone who is creative or innovative is going to have to report to 'Big Brother' which is okay. But it says they have to get a certificate of approval, and I think that's going a bit too far.

"I think it's going to stifle the innovative and creative things of our farmers. And for those us who realize, I think on Kauai there is 80 percent of all of the corn or the seeds for the corn growing in America. And there are things that are already being done by the Department of Agriculture, the federal monitoring, the United Nations monitoring. And I must say, Mr. Speaker, this is more like the bill that would come out of a European Parliament because of the fear of the American agriculture and its prolific ability to produce.

"So, I think we're over reacting and my reservation is, in the bill it says they can notify, but I think notifying and getting a certificate of approval is reacting in the same spirit that we used to put out so much money and fear into the public about Y2K, and then suddenly after Y2K nothing happened. We have to be cautious, but let's not overly engineer it with fear. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. I just want to bring to the body's attention that several days ago, there was a federal court decision broadly affecting field trials of genetically engineered crops, where the judge ruled that the USDA must halt approval on all new field trials until more rigorous environmental reviews are conducted.

"There are a lot of uncertainties about this type of science, and the federal court, in its judgment, has ruled that the public health and safety, and the environment are at risk mainly because of poor regulatory oversight. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ward be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Yes, because of my faith in the federal government, I want to vote with reservations, please."

Oshiro and Takamine being excused.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:57 o'clock p.m.

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 299, I'm in support. When I worked for Representative Lee, I was pretty heavily involved with the drafting of the bills that made the surcharge possible. The intent was never to make money for the State, but it was to help build the rail system. And, if we're talking about $5 million or $6 million here, that will help build the rail system, especially over a 15 year period, so I hope that we move this bill forward. Mahalo."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with mild support. This bill is better than the other one in that it cuts down from 10 percent down to five percent. But in the Finance Committee we heard that it's only $2 million per year that it takes to actually collect this money and we're actually collecting more than we need by double. So, we've gone to better, but I think we can do even much better than we've done here. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 724, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTY SURCHARGE ON STATE GENERAL EXCISE TAX," passed Second Reading and

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some reservations on this measure. This is a bill to create a Maui traffic control center. My reservations are the Department of Transportation was in opposition and I'm not sure what this will cost. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. I rise in support, Mr. Speaker. For the clarifications of the previous speaker, the Department of Transportation did support the bill, however, they felt that we need to plan for an ITS, intelligence traffic system first. That would be the fiber-optic, the cameras and such. And by developing such a plan, they could then go to the federal government and get federal money for the project. Their concern was that by building the Traffic Control Center first, without the outlying infrastructure, that we wouldn't get federal funds and that we would be putting the cart before the horse. So, I hope we can get your support on this. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1605, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRAFFIC CONTROL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising on 304. With reservations. And also the unfunded liability, which has grown by $1 billion, just from 2005 to 2006 could be negatively impacted, as well. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, we should go back to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 310. This is relating to Voluntary Employees' Beneficiary Association Trust, the VEBA Trust. This is going to extend the date that was set, I guess, in 2005. It's a pilot program. I don't have the bill with me today, but it seems to me it extends it out. I don't want to say it's about ten years. It's quite a long ways.

"There's still the problem of adverse selection. The bill in the Committee Report talks about cost savings. I think we will have the opposite effect, but it also doesn't ask for any reporting. The original pilot program asks for reporting, but because of problems with HSTA, it was slow to get started, so obviously there's been no reporting. It's barely started. But I do have reservations about extending the date out as far as we have. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The biggest problem in Committee was that most employers felt that it took away the powers of the employers. We're talking the counties and State. I have strong reservations."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very brief comment in support. This bill has to do with divesting Hawaii's ERS dollars from Darfur where there is just a catastrophic amount of human loss and tragedy going on. We may not have a lot of money invested in that region. Whatever we can do as a message or a symbol for the rest of the country, I think we should do and divest from that country. I think that any contribution we make monetarily there, will only make matters worse, so, thank you for considering this Members."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to add a little bit of up-to-date information on that effort. I'm standing in support. I just wanted to state that the Sudanese Government has purchased advanced Phantom Jet fighters and high attack helicopters from Russia. The same as seen in the movie, Rambo III, and they're going to use these fighter planes to bomb villages and kill men, women and children with complete disregard to human rights and international law. I ask my colleagues to support this measure. I have some drawings in my office drawn by children whose families were killed by these atrocities, and I invite my colleagues to come and see those pictures that were drawn by these children. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 34, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Thielen being excused.

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I also rise in opposition to this measure. There should be a separation between the private and the public sector. This is a big intrusion into private contracts. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 863, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORK PROJECTS," was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Marumoto, Meyer and Ward voting no, and with Representative Thielen being excused.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 638

Honorable Members
Twenty-Fourth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 638, entitled "A Bill for an Act Making Appropriations to Provide for the Expenses of the Legislature, the Auditor, the Legislative Reference Bureau, and the Ombudsman."

This bill appropriates moneys for session and nonsession expenses of both houses of the Legislature for the period up to and including June 30, 2008, including but not limited to, the 2007 regular session, and pre-session expenses and the expenses of any committee or committees established during the interim between the 2007 and 2008 regular sessions; for the expenses of the Legislative Auditor, the State Ethics Commission, the Legislative Reference Bureau, and the Office of the Ombudsman for fiscal year 2007-2008; and for defraying expenses of the legislative information system and the legislative broadcast program.

The general fund expenditure ceiling for fiscal year 2006-2007 was exceeded by Act 246, Session Laws of Hawaii 2006.

A portion of the moneys appropriated by this bill is for fiscal year 2006-2007. Section 9 of Article VII of the State Constitution provides in part: "No appropriations in excess of [the general fund expenditure] ceiling shall be authorized during any legislative session unless the legislature shall, by a two-thirds vote of the members to which each house of the legislature is entitled, set forth the dollar amount and the rate by which the ceiling will be exceeded and the reasons therefor." This bill does not contain the legislative declaration required by Section 9 of Article VII of the State Constitution, and is therefore invalid.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 638 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/Linda Lingle

LINDA LINGLE
Governor of Hawaii"

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I will be voting with reservations. I actually voted no in the Committee, but being that the Judiciary is going to hear it next, I decided to go with reservations. And some of my concerns were from the Attorney General's opinion. But before I go to that, one of the concerns that I have on this is just that it does not comply with the due process requirements for confiscating salaries. Who or what determines that a superior coerced a subordinate? How do you come to that determination would prevent the department heads from ensuring the deputy testified about department policy rather than personal views, and would harm the State by forcing, divulging pending or contemplated litigation.

"So, as we look at this in the future Committee I ask that we take these concerns into consideration and be able to craft a bill that might be able to get to the good intention of the bill. Thank you,"

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, this is a fantastic bill that allows public employees to weigh in on the decision making process here in the Legislature. This bill would not compel or censure anyone for coming forward and stating a position of fact on any measure that we would be considering at this Session.

"It will not cause the divulgement of any material being considered by the Executive Branch on their policy. It will not force the Executive Branch to appoint a certain person and articulate a certain policy. What this bill simply does is track federal law that's in place and has been in place, Mr. Speaker, since 1912 under Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Howard Taft. There is nothing new on the federal books. Mr. Speaker, it's just never been ruled unconstitutional or an abridgment of the separation of powers between the Executive Branch and the Legislative Branch.

"And so, I think this fantastic bill should be moved forward to the next Committee for further work. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to Stand. Com. 382. A horse is a camel designed by a committee. Mr. Speaker, I think when we get the Legislature involved in sanctioning International Trade Agreements, I think it's going to muck up the works with political and other considerations rather than pure trade. As an isolated island, we need all the trade we can get, and this bill, I think, is going to scare people away rather than bring them towards us.

"Also, the greatest trade getter we have, this bill ties her hands. I don't think I have to refer specifically to who 'her' refers to because it means that we're taking stuff away from her department and herself. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in favor. I respectfully disagree with my colleague from Hawaii Kai about this matter. This bill was introduced last year and I have made substantial changes with that bill. As a matter of fact, even at the risk of not concurring with the introducer of the bill. But as far as tying up the Governor's hands, that's what I disagree on.

"I made a provision that in between Sessions, that there is a Committee that will make this recommendation to the Governor. And while we are in Session, as you know, Mr. Speaker, it will require the consent of both houses without the measure.

"And as you know, International Agreements require that the State must agree. So, with those, Mr. Speaker, I urge that this measure be moved forward. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I must regretfully vote no on this measure only because the Legislature meets once a year, and sometimes you need timely approval of these Agreements. If you have to wait until several months, it may slow things down. Thank you."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have reservations on this bill. For the edification and the awareness of those who are not supporting the bill, I share your concerns, obviously. The way this bill is currently worded, it simply says that the Governor shall not enter into any International Trade Agreement without State approval.

"Governors have no standing when it comes to International Trade Agreements. They only have standing as it relates to the procurement section of any International Trade Agreement. We obviously do not engage. That is a role for the federal government. The way the current bill is worded, it assumes we do have a role to play in International Trade Agreements in total, and we certainly do not.

"Let me address the concerns about the procurement section. As you are well aware, Mr. Speaker, we passed a bill last year, the Governor vetoed that bill, asserting that it took away her authority. I think the Legislature's intent is that Governors in all fifty states have absolutely no authority over procurement. After all, Mr. Speaker, we see a whole range of procurement bills that hit the Floor every Session, whether we need to use paper with 10% recycle content, whether or not we're going to give a preference for local contractors, and so on and so forth. That is not something the Governor, any Governor, can do by Executive Order. That is something that has to be done by statute.

"The original bill struck at the heart of that issue. When the Governor signed on to CAFTA, essentially, what the Governor did was to say to the US Trade Representative, you can negotiate a Trade Agreement under CAFTA and anything related to procurement in that trade agreement, the State of Hawaii will abide by. Mr. Speaker, envision if a Central American country uses child labor, and I hope most of us here believe that using child labor in factories is not permissable and is not something the State of Hawaii should be party to. By signing, in affect to CAFTA, we have agreed to that.

"Secondly, Mr. Speaker, there have been concerns raised about the timeliness of International Trade Agreements. As you well know, the GAT, the WTO, CAFTA, NAFTA, the current US Peru Trade Agreements, these are agreements that have taken years – not days, not weeks, not months, but years to conclude. There has never been a trade agreement that was concluded in a matter of months, and therefore the timeliness issue, I believe, is not the issue. We always have the time to come back and hear the concerns of the people of this State, because after all, the legislative hearing should be an opportunity, and it is a process whereby anyone in the general public can come to the Legislature, state their concerns, state their perspectives, and then, only then, we could authorize the Governor to sign on to any given trade agreement.

"As it stands now, the Governor, by herself in this case, unilaterally, without any public hearing, without any public input, without any standing whatsoever, can sign this on to that. The original bill serves to try to correct that omission. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also stand in reservations. I would like to adopt the words of the Representative from Pearl City and hope that subsequent Committees will look at the original language of the bill."

Representative Berg rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Takumi and Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Takumi be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. I would like to ask that the words of the Representative from Pearl City be entered into the Journal as if it were my own.

"I just wanted to make a few more comments. I think the Members should really take a close look at this particular measure because what it does actually is it gives our authority and our responsibility up to a Committee made of four members of the House and four members of the Senate. Regardless of whether we're in Session or out of Session or what not, I think I'm puzzled, probably more troubled that a proposal like this is going through our House, because these types of issues as the Chair of Education has already said, should involve this body and should involve the Senate, as well.

"In fact, Mr. Speaker, I really think that this particular proposal, and I've already spoken to the Chair about this, is unconstitutional. If we move this to the next Committee, that being Finance, I hope the Finance Committee and its Chairman can take a look at the original bill and really take a look at the Governor's concerns in her veto message last year and make changes to address the concerns already raised by the Members already on this Floor. Thank you."

Representative Wakai rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representatives Takumi and Takai be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Evans rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do want to respond to the procurement portion of the bill that was deleted. I consulted with HMSO as well as with the Attorney General, and they said that portion is subject to challenge and for me, it was safer for me to forward a bill that's more acceptable and not subject to challenge.

"And, as far as the portion regarding the timing during Session, we did account for it in this bill that if a decision has to be made during Session, that they need be a concurrence on both houses and it is so stated in this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Just a slight footnote. If the matter is a procurement matter, let us deal with it as a procurement matter. We have as an International Trade Agreement, already overstepped ourselves in that we're not the US Congress. We're the State Legislature. I think we flatter ourselves to think that we actually can go beyond what we've already done. But if it's a procurement issue, let's get a procurement bill and make it where it's a procurement that's internationally related, this body will interfere or it will not. I think that's where it's best done."

The Chair then stated:

"Thank you very much. Your point is well taken and I hope the Finance Committee will consider a hearing on this particular matter and you are a member of the Finance Committee."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you for correcting my misunderstanding that this Committee operated only during the Legislative Session. In fact, it will operate all year round, and I'm troubled by the constitutional problem that this may cause. But I am troubled with the makeup of the Committee because given the current landscape of politics here in Hawaii, there are three members from this House from the Majority and only one from the Minority, and likewise from the Senate. And so this heavily weighs against the current Governor, who is a Republican. So I think it's an imbalance. I think its some kind of an abuse of power, and I really object to this even more so. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 30, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INTERNATIONAL TRADE AGREEMENTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Marumoto, Meyer, Pine and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Chang and Souki being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1618, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 386, I have some reservations. Mr. Speaker, what this bill will do is establish a pilot project to allow video surveillance cameras. The concern that I have, Mr. Speaker, involves government abuse and invasion of privacy. I think we should be very cautious on doing something of this nature, and certainly have some protections in any bill that does make it through. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. My district has been of late marred quite substantially by graffiti to the extent that it was the library, it's the schools, it's across from the Union Hall and it's businesses. And we have been frustrated with this issue for quite some time. I think that this is a bold new idea and experiment to try to solve this problem. Additionally written comments, if I may ,to be inserted in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 1618 - Relating to Property Damage.

"Graffiti vandalism is a significant problem on the national level as well as the local level. The cost of graffiti vandalism nationally is estimated at more than $15 billion, with about $8 billion spent on abatement activities alone, according to the National Center for Problem Oriented Policing. Graffiti vandalism has a significant negative impact on the quality of life for residents, as well as a negative impact on business by contributing to blight and fear and its association with other criminal activity.

"The proposed pilot project for the City and County of Honolulu to implement the use of surveillance cameras in chronic problem areas is a proven, effective deterrent to drug dealing, graffiti, and other street crime in major cities across the United States.

"In Baltimore, over 1,500 arrests attributed to one area where the cameras are installed. Baltimore launched its Citi-Watch surveillance system in 2005. There, surveillance cameras proved their utility in October 2006 when a little Baltimore girl vanished, cameras captured her abduction. Video showed her walking down the street with her abductor. Police followed the trail of recorded video through the neighborhood to her abductor's home.

"The cameras are set to record any incidents that might occur, and officials at police stations can also monitor what the video cameras feed back. Police can't be in every place all the time. These cameras will give Honolulu police officers an extra set of eyes on the street."

Representative Cabanilla rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I requested that it be mandatory that throughout the 9th grade in our public schools, that all students go through an intense assembly class instruction period that teaches the students about the negative effects of graffiti. The bill, HB729 will not be heard by the Chair of Education for his own reasons that I disagree with.

"In this vein, anything that attempts to qualm graffiti is warranted. This measure makes that attempt. Please vote yes to HB1618. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1618, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROPERTY DAMAGE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Chang and Souki being excused.

Representative M. Oshiro, for the Committee on Finance presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 387) recommending that S.B. No. 25, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 25, SD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill provides $11.6 million for the operations of the House through 2007 and until June 30, 2008.

"The proposed $11.6 million budget is an 11.9 percent increase of $1.2 million from last year's budget. Last year's budget was $10.4 million.

"This 11.9 percent increase in this year's budget is on top of an 18.8 percent increase for last year's budget and a 16.3 percent increase in 2005.

"If this budget bill passes, the budgets for the operations of the House will have increased a mind-numbing 54.7 percent in three years ($7.5 million in 2004 to $11.6 million in 2007).

"But, it's not only the budget figures that I'm concerned about. I'm even more concerned about the carry over balances that we've been seeing over the past three years.

"Unlike other State departments, whatever is left over after December 31 of this year can be carried over to 2008 and spent until June 30, 2008. In a sense, our budgets are for 16-months. This is a very important fact in today's discussion because there is a significant overlap of almost a half of year for your budget cycle. We had more than $4.4 million left over on December 31, 2006 in the 2006 budget.

"In fact, our budget reserves have increase significantly over the past three years. In 2004, we have $2.4 million left in the account at the end of the year. In 2005, we had an extra $3 million left over. In 2006, again we had $4.4 million at the end of last year.

"Some will argue (and I agree) that a reasonable amount of money is needed to carry the House through the first two months of the calendar year. But, $4.4 million is a bit excessive. In fact, what is needed is approximately $2 million. So, even without the proposed increases in this bill before us, we have $2.4 million too much!

"Here's another perspective: We had a carry-over balance of $3 million on December 31, 2005. We spent $5.9 million in 2006 for the 2006 budget. Taken together, the House spent $8.9 million in total for 2006. But our budget was $10.4 million. We had an extra $1.4 million left to spend. Do we return this money to the State's general fund? No. This extra $1.4 million goes into our budget reserves and will be the first money used in 2007.

"When we all do our family budgets, usually we use the previous year's expenditures as the guide. The handout from our House Leadership creates the 2007 budget from the 2006 budget, not from the actual expenditures. Again, we actually spent $8.9 million for 2006. The proposed 2007 budget is $2.7 million more than we actually spent for the entire 2006. The budget proposed today is more than 30 percent over the expenditures from 2006.

"So, while our budget has increased by 54.4 percent over the past three years, our budget reserves have increased as well from $2.4 million extra in 2004 to $4.4 million at the end of last year.

"Taken another way, our budget reserves went from 32 percent of our total budget in 2004 ($2.4 million reserves of the $7.5 million budget), to 34.3 percent of our total budget in 2005 ($3.0 million reserves of the $8.8 million budget), to 42.9 percent of our total budget in 2006 ($4.4 million of the $10.4 million budget).

"Some people are heavily critical of a particular local company for keeping what some call 'excessive reserves.' I believe that our 42.9 percent budget reserve of the House is overly excessive.

"I'm not saying the all of the proposed budget items in this year's budget is not justified. In fact, I do agree with almost all of the proposed uses for the $1.2 million. However, I believe that we should first utilize the budget reserves before we increase our bottom line.

"With homelessness the top priority this year, I believe that the $1.2 million additional funds could be better spent by providing housing for 200 families for one whole year.

"We are asked to be good stewards of our limited and precious resources. This budget request is irresponsible. It represents everything that we don't want to be.

"I urge my colleagues to study the numbers. I urge my colleagues to understand the details of this budget . . . and I reserve my final vote for Third and Final Reading."

The Chair then stated:

"Members of this House, I believe you can submit your written comments in support or with reservations on Third Reading. But the Chair will allow you to cast your vote on Second Reading if you so desire. Representative Meyer, would you like to cast your no vote at this point since you did that yesterday?"

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm actually going to let this move on quickly because I'm going to reserve my remarks for tomorrow."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Just to register a no vote. In the spirit of Valentine's Day, I won't speak today."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

"Mr. Speaker, to my good colleague in the Finance Committee, DNA, WR."

Representative Sonson rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I'd to declare a potential conflict on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 395. This is regarding election fraud, and I want to make sure that there is no conflict since I'm an elected official and this may have a great impact on myself and everyone else that's here."

The Chair then ruled, stating:

"No conflict, Representative Sonson since you are in a class of elected officials."

Representative Sonson continued in support with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support with some reservations. The reservations only go to what may be a typo. It seems that we're increasing the penalties from $1,000 to $5,000, but it has language regarding imprisonment and hard labor. I thought that that provision was going to be taken out. If I'm not mistaken Mr. Speaker, breaking rocks is what was contemplated by the original crafter of this bill. I'm not sure if this language should remain given our laws today. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1513, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTION OFFENSES," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Chang and Souki being excused.

Representative Ching: "At this time, I'd just like to wish everyone a Happy Valentine's Day and also just explain what is on your desk, if that is all right. What is on your desk are 10 to 12 cacao beans. Hawaii is the only state in the US that can and does grow cacao. Just for your edification, cacao is never used as sweet candy or treat. Cacao was used for spiritual wisdom, to fortify soldiers in battle, and for priests and sacred use.

"What you have on your desks, the cacao beans, just for your edification is currency, because in the pre-Columbian times of the entire South American continent, it was used as currency. So one cacao bean could have bought you a tamale. Three cacao beans would get you a medium sized salamander, which was a delicacy of Aztec, if you'd like to eat a salamander. A larger one would have cost you four cacao beans. What you have is 10 cacao beans, and it might actually buy a goat, but it wouldn't buy you a hare, because you'd need 40 cacao beans. And if you bought one large turkey, it might cost you 100 of these, what they call black gold or the seed of a gold. It was actually more valuable than gold. Happy Valentine's Day."

Representative Berg: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You also have on your desk, colleagues, is a very significant quote that I wanted to share with you by Mother Theresa. I know that one of our guiding principles here is to have aloha integrated, and what Mother Theresa said to us is what you have on your desk with kisses from my office. 'We cannot do great things. We can only do many small things with great love.' Thank you."

Representative Chong: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just one more thing to let everybody know that your Committee on Water, Land, Ocean and Hawaiian Affairs will be meeting on decision making on this morning's agenda following today's session in Conference Room 312."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm standing in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 407 Relating to the Purpose of the Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility. I think we have a misunderstanding of what's going on here. The bill itself is addressing the Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility and trying to define its purpose. Basically they're removing incarceration and punishment, and substituting custody and rehabilitation. Those who testified for it, the Office of Youth Services, the ACLU and Community Alliance on Prisons were in support.

"My problem with this particular measure is that the purpose that they have placed in this bill is proper for the Office of Youth Services. It is their job to find alternative means, alternative programs for the youth who get into trouble. The purpose of the Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility however, is to ensure that those who are dangerous to the community, those children who have gone through the process and have failed, that they are locked up in this facility. Only the most dangerous, the most hardened of those children who get into trouble, are supposed to be the ones incarcerated. That is the mission of the Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility.

"We must not blend that two. HYCF is only attached to OYS. OYS has its purpose. HYCF also has its mandated purpose. By doing it this way, we blur the distinction between the two and I believe that we we're going to be treating those hardened kids in HYCF as if they were cute and cuddly. Believe me, Mr. Speaker, after I walked through HYCF, you can see why there are correctional officers there. Because they are needed to be there. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of the measure. Notwithstanding the truth in the degree of what the previous speaker had said, this bill basically represents a paradigm shift. The notion of incarceration hasn't worked. The notion of rehabilitation and custody, otherwise giving us a different mindset. We tend to treat things the way we call them. I think if we get to rehabilitation, we get to re-entry into the community. If we get the notion that we're going to do something about it, rather than punish and incarcerate, because we found that it doesn't work. Recidivism is very, very high here and I think these are the ones who are going to be in the prison system later. It's an attempt, albeit unproven, but it's a paradigm shift to think differently about our troubled youth. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in strong support of this measure. I think most of us in this Chamber have read about some of the problems that they've had at the Hawaii Youth Correction Facility, like overcrowding and inappropriate treatment some of these young people have received at the hands of the guards. In listening to testimony in the Finance Committee in the annual briefing, the Youth Correctional Facility directors see that in many instances community homes would work better. Some of these children are from the Neighbor Islands. They are away from family and they're thrown into a pretty much hostile environment.

"So as the Representative from Hawaii Kai stated, this is a paradigm shift. I have visited the Hawaii Youth Correctional Center and, yes, there are troubled youths there, but there are also sweet-tempered youths who are just runaways, and they are not getting better in that environment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1358, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PURPOSE OF THE HAWAII YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Public Safety & Military Affairs with Representative Sonson voting no, and with Representatives Souki and Takamine being excused.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 408. As I mentioned before, my reservations with this bill is that it does not include the impact on the Department of Public Safety and our correctional facilities. I believe there should be appropriation, and I believe there should be impact studies involved in bills like this. Thank you."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 428. In light of the fact that the Sustainability Task Force which we have funded for the past three years, has not completed its work yet with regards to identifying important ag lands, the whole State plan towards self-sufficiency and the Tax Commission Report repeatedly reminds us that tax benefits may not be the way to base our economy, I will voting with reservations."

Representative Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise with reservations on this measure. Mr. Speaker, the Tax Review Commission suggested we rein in all the tax credits and exemptions on the books. This measure is yet another move in the opposite direction by poking yet another hole in our State coffers. Instead of a tax credit, we are providing an exemption. I certainly am all for assisting agricultural uses and growing agricultural business, but I'm not a fond supporter of the manner in which this effort is achieving that. By providing State tax benefits for some, that just means that the burden is placed on the rest of our community to pick up the slack here. So, for those reasons, I would like to voice my reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1639, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IMPORTANT AGRICULTURAL LANDS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Souki and Takamine being excused.

Representative Waters, for the Committee on Judiciary presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 431) recommending that H.B. No. 764, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 764, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"On 431, I would like to express my opposition to this particular measure. This would allow a permanent application for absentee voting. Once you request an absentee ballot, you can continue to receive them without reapplying every election cycle. I think this could create some mischief. In these days when we have very high turnovers, especially in our condominiums in Waikiki, Pearl City and Makiki, there are so many people moving in and out and applying for registration, and they also apply for a permanent ballot. At one place, you'll end up with several ballots arriving at the door and it would be very tempting to want to vote for all of them.

"I think that we don't have enough technology yet to compare signatures and it would be very expensive for the counties to implement this, but I think that this is a particularly bad idea, where I hope that this bill doesn't go much further. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Marumoto be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in support with some reservations. I realize the intent of this bill is good. We're trying to do things to encourage more people to turn out to vote, since we have such a low voter turnout. But at the same time, we have to be very cognizant of trying to make sure that they're qualified voters and that there's no hanky panky that goes on, and this sort of opens the door. I realize it's still early and, hopefully, we'll end up with something that will do what we want it to do and still maintain some strong security. Thank you very much."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Very briefly, I just want to point out that on page 4, we already have a laundry list of safeguards in the bill to make sure that the election fraud or voter fraud doesn't occur. And if people will remember, we already passed out a bill increasing the penalties for election fraud from $100, to $1,000, to $5,000, and we left in the fact that they can still be punished for hard labor. So I think that's enough a deterrent to make sure that people are not going to be committing election fraud. Thank you."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm also in support. On page 3, this permanent absentee voting status is not an automatic thing. It's not as if you request an absentee ballot and that it happens all the time. On page 3, you specifically have to request that you be put on a permanent status. It sure is a service that I would like to take advantage of because every election cycle we ask for an absentee ballot, and I'm always going to vote absentee, and I think it's something that people can opt for. It's not an automatic thing."

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with some serious reservations. We certainly need some incentives to get people to come out to vote, and I know we have safeguards in this, but if someone doesn't show up once, they are taken off the list, which I think is a good safeguard. But when it comes to the point of where you are a normal voter, you're not even a permanent normal voter if you don't vote twice, or let's say, consecutive elections. So, I'm not sure that the safeguards, the structure of incentives equal a better system. And if anyone who is for this can suggest strongly how it's improved voter turnout in California, it might more persuasive. As we know California is the experimental body of this United States. Thank you very much."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. I just wanted to mention that let's not forget the fact that every time we have an election, prior to the election, the Office of Election sends out this card. The card is a very important card because should that card go to a home and you're no longer there, the Postmaster is required to mail it back as non-deliverable. That signifies or signals to the Office of Elections that that particular voter, whether absentee or walk-in, is no longer at that place.

"Now, that's not to say that that voter moves off the voter rolls. In fact, the voter, I think, stays on for two or three cycles, but that absentee ballot will not be mailed to a house where the voter no longer lives. So I think this measure provides another opportunity for us to increase the turnout that are in our elections, and I think it should be supported. Thank you."

Representative Manahan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations. I appreciate the intent, but I also see potential for abuse."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"One thing I forgot to mention, Mr. Speaker, in particular regard to those who move or die. Right now when we send out our stuff during a campaign, how many pieces get returned when we send it first class? It's a huge amount. We can't even keep up with the dead or the mover or the mobiles, let alone keeping up these. I think it's going to be a real headache to keep track of it efficiently, if we want to do it efficiently. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"This particular measure will be moving to the Committee on Finance. I hope the Finance Committee members, the Chair and Vice Chair will look at this measure closely."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 764, HD 1, entitled: "A

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm sorry. I was slow on the uptake here. Must be the remnants of the flu. I meant to cast a no vote, please, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 433 Relating to Election Day Registration.

"Thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to tell you something that really startled me at the hearing. Mr. Speaker, something really surprised me at the hearing. I asked the Executive Director of the Office of Elections if he had met with the Commission on Elections, with the Commission members, and had he discussed any of these bills that he was bringing forward, that he had prepared with his Commission, and he said, no. He hadn't even contacted them about that.

"We established an Elections Commission. It has members that have been appointed, but he has just left them out of the whole process, so they didn't even have an opportunity to weigh in. I thought that had the Commission been able to discuss the Election Day Registration, more information, and I guess more knowledge could have been gained. And had the Commission members come and testified on that at the hearing, it would have helped us with our decision making. As it is, he's just running the show all by himself, and I don't think that's the way the Legislature intended it to happen. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On the same measure, I will be voting no, and request that the testimony of the Clerk from the City and County of Honolulu be inserted in the Journal," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Marumoto submitted the following testimony:

ELECTIONS
OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK
CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU
HONOLULU, HAWAII 96813 / TELEPHONE 523-4293

DENISE C. De COSTA
City Clerk

TESTIMONY FOR HB 1133
RELATING TO ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION.

Committee on Judiciary
Rm. 325

Chairman Waters and members of the Committee:

HB 1133 authorizes the establishment of election day voter registration.

The Office of the City Clerk continues to have reservations concerning election day registration, particularly with regard to the additional responsibilities it places upon pollworkers (to service this new category of voter/registrant) and the impact it could have in closely contested elections.

While removing impediments and increasing accessibility to the election process is a laudable consideration, we believe that the voter registration requirement is neither unreasonable nor onerous for any person wishing to participate in the election. Under present law, registrants have up to 700 of 730 days to register to vote during the election cycle.

We believe that the awareness and process of registering to vote by the deadline should continue to be a first and necessary component of recognizing one's personal civic responsibilities.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify.

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly to counter the statements made by the Representative from Kailua. If she looks at HRS 11-7.5 regarding the duties of the Election Commission, there's nothing that requires Mr. Yoshino to actually go before the Commission to get their approval on any and all proposed legislation. Actually, they're just an advisory body. If that's what she wants the Commission to do, I suggest she put in a bill to clarify that role."

Representative Green rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a respectful no vote. My reason is just that I thought it was a little bit impractical and complicated to do."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And as the Majority Floor Leader said, they're an advisory group. Fine. And the Executive Director should have gone to them for their advice …."

Representative Takai rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Thank you.. Mr. Speaker, I believe that this discussion is not applicable to this particular measure."

The Chair responded, stating:

"The Chair will allow Representative Thielen to continue at this point because the discussion has gone on. Please proceed."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. I was speaking about them being an advisory group, as the Majority Floor Leader said. Unfortunately, we weren't given the advantage of having their advice, and neither was the Executive Director, because he just did this on his own. Thank you."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Thielen, I believe you may be out of order on that last statement."

Representative Marumoto rose to respond, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. In strong opposition. I appreciate your indulgence, Mr. Speaker. This elections group actually hires and fires the Chief Elections Officers, so I think they have a little more clout than as mentioned by the Majority Floor Leader. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Actually, Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in strong support for Stand. Com. Rep. No. 433 regarding same day registration. My people, the people that live in my district, usually have two or three jobs, Mr. Speaker. And sometimes they miss the deadline when they can go and register. I think it will serve them better and it would be a more participatory election if they are given more opportunity to register. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with some very strong reservations. I thought that the City Clerk's testimony was quite compelling. This will put a lot of additional responsibilities on an already stretched-thin poll workers. I think this last election they were just scrambling to get poll workers and there were many precincts that had inadequate help, so this could be a real problem. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of this measure, not only for the chaos on election day as was previously mentioned, but the notion that those who are going to do this need exactly the day of the election. If people are working two or three jobs, let's give them a week or two weeks or ten days. Let's be practical. I think this is pushing it too close to the edge and, obviously, there are people working a lot and they need a break. But I think maybe where it is now is too far out. This one goes too much in the opposite direction, too far in. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm speaking in support. The voting turnout is dismal at best, and we have to start thinking outside of the box. If there's a will, there's a way. If we want people to vote, we have to make it convenient for them to vote. That's why we passed out permanent absentee ballots and same-day registration.

"I understand, and my staff attorney said in the past, in other states, the slogan was, 'Vote early and vote often.' And, of course, nobody wants that. That's why it's important to put in safeguards. Understandably, there may need to be some more work on this bill, but if we keep going down the road that we're currently going down, it's only going to get worse. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With all due respect to the Representative from the Windward side, I do feel that whenever looking at solutions to problems, the first step should be identifying the problem, and identifying it as accurately as possible.

"As convenient as absentee voting has made it, as convenient as it is, I don't think it is the root of why we have one of the lowest turnouts. It has much more to do with some other factors, maybe making things relevant, education, etc. So, I think that thinking out of the box is great, but I don't think that taking into account that there are people who are dead or moved on the current list. You want truth and accuracy to be important, too."

The Chair then stated:

"For the members of the Finance Committee, you'll be given the opportunity for a very lively discussion on this matter."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in strong support, and I look forward to the day that we're like Peru, where on any given day, they can go to a credit card and they can vote on-line because they do that in that country. We have got to move forward. We've got talented people that work at the voter polls. There's no reason why we can't do this and I believe it's in the right direction. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1133, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Ching, Finnegan, Green, Marumoto, Thielen and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Souki and Takamine being excused.

Representative Caldwell rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 436, HB No. 88, HD 1, in support. I just wanted to point something out. I think this is a great effort to try to find some balance in terms of dealing with all forms of insurance fraud, including workers' comp fraud. If you'll read the bill, you'll notice that in the workers' comp area, which is something new, the Insurance Division will be able to investigate that area. That's going to sunset in three years. And the reason for that, Mr. Speaker, I'm going to point out to the Members that we're concerned that when they investigate fraud, that the focus is placed on where the greatest fraud occurs.

"About 80 percent of the fraud is either an employer or healthcare provider, not employee. An employee may be easy to find or easy to point out, but we don't want to see the energy and the resources of that Division concentrated just on that side. We want the largest 'bang for the buck', and we hope that the Insurance Division will do that. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

S.B. No. 25, SD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that S.B. No. 25, SD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Takai rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Takai's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill provides $11.6 million for the operations of the House through 2007 and until June 30, 2008.

"The proposed $11.6 million budget is an 11.9 percent increase of $1.2 million from last year's budget. Last year's budget was $10.4 million.

"This 11.9 percent increase in this year's budget is on top of an 18.8 percent increase for last year's budget and a 16.3 percent increase in 2005.

"If this budget bill passes, the budgets for the operations of the House will have increased a mind-numbing 54.7 percent in three years ($7.5 million in 2004 to $11.6 million in 2007).

"But, it's not only the budget figures that I'm concerned about. I'm even more concerned about the carry over balances that we've been seeing over the past three years.

"Unlike other State departments, whatever is left over after December 31 of this year can be carried over to 2008 and spent until June 30, 2008. In a sense, our budgets are for 16-months. This is a very important fact in today's discussion because there is a significant overlap of almost a half of year for your budget cycle. We had more than $4.4 million left over on December 31, 2006 in the 2006 budget.

"In fact, our budget reserves have increased significantly over the past three years. In 2004, we have $2.4 million left in the account at the end of the year. In 2005, we had an extra $3 million left over. In 2006, again we had $4.4 million at the end of last year.

"Some will argue (and I agree) that a reasonable amount of money is needed to carry the House through the first two months of the calendar year. But, $4.4 million is a bit excessive. In fact, what is needed is approximately $2 million. So, even without the proposed increases in this bill before us, we have $2.4 million too much!

"Here's another perspective: We had a carry-over balance of $3 million on December 31, 2005. We spent $5.9 million in 2006 for the 2006 budget. Taken together, the House spent $8.9 million in total for 2006. But our budget was $10.4 million. We had an extra $1.4 million left to spend. Do we return this money to the State's general fund? No. This extra $1.4 million goes into our budget reserves and will be the first money used in 2007.

"When we all do our family budgets, usually we use the previous year's expenditures as the guide. The handout from our House Leadership creates the 2007 budget from the 2006 budget, not from the actual expenditures. Again, we actually spent $8.9 million for 2006. The proposed 2007 budget is $2.7 million more than we actually spent for the entire 2006. The budget proposed today is more than 30 percent over the expenditures from 2006.

"So, while our budget has increased by 54.4 percent over the past three years, our budget reserves have increased as well from $2.4 million extra in 2004 to $4.4 million at the end of last year.

"Taken another way, our budget reserves went from 32 percent of our total budget in 2004 ($2.4 million reserves of the $7.5 million budget), to 34.3 percent of our total budget in 2005 ($3.0 million reserves of the $8.8 million budget), to 42.9 percent of our total budget in 2006 ($4.4 million of the $10.4 million budget).

"Some people are heavily critical of a particular local company for keeping what some call 'excessive reserves.' I believe that our 42.9 percent budget reserve of the House is overly excessive.

"I'm not saying that all of the proposed budget items in this year's budget is not justified. In fact, I do agree with almost all of the proposed uses for the $1.2 million. However, I believe that we should first utilize the budget reserves before we increase our bottom line.

"With homelessness the top priority this year, I believe that the $1.2 million additional funds could be better spent by providing housing for 200 families for one whole year.

"We are asked to be good stewards of our limited and precious resources. This budget request is irresponsible. It represents everything that we don't want to be.

"I urge my colleagues to study the numbers. I urge my colleagues to understand the details of this budget . . . and I reserve my final vote for Third and Final Reading."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of SB No. 25, SD1. This bill reflects cautious budgeting and planning and deserves our full support.

"The budget before us today reflects fiscal prudence. It makes careful, incremental adjustments to help compensate for the many learn years that the Legislature experienced in earlier Sessions. There were many, many years when the legislative budget remained unchanged in spite of ever-rising costs. To put it simply, this budget is actually helping us to catch up to where we should have been years ago.

"Mr. Speaker, as everyone knows, the Legislature is a co-equal branch of government along with the Executive branch and the Judiciary. The most, yet much-needed increases in this budget enable us to partner more effectively with them.

"Unfortunately, erroneous media accounts may have misled Members and the public into believing that the amount and nature of the increases in this budget were inappropriate. These errors have since been corrected. However, Mr. Speaker, allow me to explain further.

"Over $2 million was added to the budget of the Office of the Auditor so that it could conduct audits on 11 additional State departments, which have thus far been auditing themselves. This increase will help make government more open, transparent, and accountable to the public.

"This budget would provide the House with improved research capabilities, needed computer upgrades, and enhanced professional-development opportunities for both Members and staff. It would also allow us to continue to remain in close communication with our constituents.

In addition, this budget provides for:

(1) Necessary repair and maintenance costs for House offices and conference rooms, which are showing wear and tear after years of use;

(2) Improvements that enhance public access to the House and its work;

(3) Higher annual dues for membership in the National Conference of State Legislatures and the Council of State Governments; and

(4) The rising costs of goods and services purchased by the House.

"Let me reiterate. SB No. 25, SD1 is not paying for unnecessary, wasteful extravagance. It is providing adequate funding for the essential operations of the House – no more and no less.

"SB25, SD1, will help us do the people's work, and I urge all of my colleagues to vote in support of this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition for the reasons as when it originally passed out of the House."

Representative Pine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Just in opposition for the same reason."

The Chair then stated:

"Madame Clerk, do you have the comments for the Bill that went over that was vetoed? Please insert those comments for Representatives Finnegan and Pine for this Senate Bill." (By reference only. See SB No. 638, SD 1.)

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. We had previously voted on this and I voted no, and I'm still going to vote no. Since the veto on this bill, and the new bill that came out of the Senate had a Section 14 added that was asked for by the Governor. It does show that we in our budget of 2006-2007, we had already exceeded the expenditure ceiling by $90 million. And when you add this new legislative budget which is an increase, at least for the House, by about 12% over last year's budget, but further increases the percentage that we exceeded the spending expenditure ceiling. So for that reason and the reasons I expressed the first time this bill passed Third Reading in this Chamber, I'm still going to vote no. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Meyer, before calling for the question, I believe you still have to state for each of the bills the no votes for the Members of the Minority Caucus. Even if it is reflected in the Journal and Members have stood up to vote no, you still have to make that announcement."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you very much Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 25, HD1.

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this measure is to appropriate funds for the Legislature and its service agencies such as the Office of the Auditor, Legislative Reference Bureau, Office of the Ombudsman, State Ethics Commission, Legislative Information System and the Legislative Broadcast System.

"Respectfully, the Legislature, and these agencies provide an invaluable service to the people of Hawaii year after year. Supporting and appropriating the budget request specified, will assist this Legislature and these government agencies in defraying the expenses encumbered through out the fiscal year.

"As Chair of Legislative Management, I would like to see the Legislature and its service agencies, the Office of the Auditor, Legislative Reference Bureau, the Office of the Ombudsman, the State Ethics Commission, the Legislative Information System and the Legislative Broadcast System funded with the appropriate funding so that we as a government can continue to provide service to the people of Hawaii effectively and efficiently.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

So, I think this is something that the Judiciary Committee should consider rather than Water, Land. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm rising in opposition to this measure. This bill, as written prohibits the State Land Use Commission from accepting, processing, and taking action on any boundary amendment requests to reclassify certain lands generally known as East Kapolei in Ewa.

"HB No. 1793 completely ignores the county planning process, in particular, the Ewa Development Plan. This long-range plan recently adopted by ordinance, did not designate the subject area for urban development in a cavalier manner. The past agricultural role of development plans was known as, 'the Plan', and was being prepared and adopted. However, it was decided that given the many public policies and priorities to address the development of these lands, it was necessary to create the desired housing and employment opportunities of a Second City. Preservation priority was placed on other more valued agricultural lands above the H-1 Freeway. This is testimony from the City and County of Honolulu. I believe that this is a county measure and it has already been decided. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. The antecedence for H.B. 1793, H.D. 1 is lodged within the sentiments of the Ewa Neighborhood Board which unanimously approved the action 17 to 0 at its Legislative Committee meeting, and passed a measure 8 to 1 at the Board's meeting on February.

"The Committee is very concerned that these precious ag lands are being developed according to an Ewa Development Plan that failed to actually account for the number of homes to be built at the time that the EDP was last organized, and this was three years ago, Mr. Speaker. The new owner has just recently revealed its plan for these 1,600 acres that are currently being farmed. The value of this acreage is contained in the bill's preface and I invite you to read it.

"So, Mr. Speaker, the bill was amended beautifully by the Committee of Agriculture and I owe a lot to the wisdom of the Committee Chair, who permitted the EDP to go on as planned, but adds one more most important feature. He takes care of the farmers that are displaced per Section 4 of H.D. 1. Where do they go, Mr. Speaker? Who is going to lend them a helping hand? This body has taken action to assist many farmers throughout our State where operations ceased, so we may not extend the same courtesy or privilege to the Ewa Plain?

"Mr. Speaker, I also want to add that our farmers are our endangered species. We need to protect them. We need to protect our precious land. When the people of Kunia got displaced, we, as a body, came forward to help them, Mr. Speaker. It is true that the original bill did not want development in the area because of the many reasons that I have noted in the preface of that bill. We now build three feet by one mile grass. We plant grass and we call it the 'green belt'.

"Mr. Speaker, we come from an agrarian history and we need to protect them. We want sustainability. But the Chair of Agriculture has changed the bill into a compassionate bill and he had every right to do that. We need to protect our farmers, and this bill only asks that we help the farmers before they can apply for a permit to change the zoning.

"When the developer bought the land, Mr. Speaker, the State did not promise to reclassify those lands. They bought them as agricultural zoned. And to talk about the Ewa Development Plan, Mr. Speaker, many years ago, through the wisdom of the engineers of Campbell Estate, they said, for the Ewa Development Plan to work, they have to build an underwater tunnel from Iroquois Point to town. Representative Oshiro at the time drafted a Resolution to study that tunnel. But because it was a Resolution, and there's no funding for it, they came forward and said we cannot build a tunnel. That matter was discontinued. That interest discontinued. However, Mr. Speaker, the problem of transportation still exists and the need for a thoroughfare for the people of the Leeward side still needs to be addressed. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this bill. The ARC (a non-profit agency providing 24-hr care, treatment, habilitation and home to hundreds of adults with mental retardation or developmental disabilities) testified in opposition to this bill. Thomas Huber, Volunteer President, testified that this measure may force The ARC to sharply curtail or terminate their services. I would guess that this bill would have a stunning effect on many similar organizations. We are extremely fortunate to have people to work for these non-profits. The workers are probably not getting paid living wages and some probably see their work as compassion care or fulfilling for reasons other than financial. The reward is not always financial. My concern is that a law like the one proposed in this bill would harm more than it would help. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support of this measure. The purpose of this bill is to establish a process by which Medicaid fee-for-service individual provider reimbursement rates are increased annually for inflation and retroactively adjust for inflation, payments made to providers of hospital outpatient services, and other individual providers to account for the lack of a rate increase for the past five years.

"Hawaii's hospitals have annually lost millions of dollars because government reimbursement is far below cost. Between 2003 and 2005, Medicaid payments to hospitals covered only 73% to 78% of total Medicaid costs, creating a strain on the hospitals financial stability.

"We don't want to create a situation where hospitals start cutting corners or refusing patienst just to save a few bucks. We want them to provide the best care possible and not have to worry about where the money will come from. We need hospitals to see patients as people who need care and not as a financial burden."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 104, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 536, I want to register with reservations. This bill will make a crime of human trafficking, which I think is great, but again, this bill does not have appropriation language or an impact study on how it's going to affect correctional facilities."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"Human trafficking is one of the most obscene offenses which exist in the world today. It involves the commercial sex trade, sweatshops, domestic service, and other types of servitude. Victims are put to work by compulsion and receive only the most basic needs of food and shelter.

"This bill specifies that acts of human trafficking in depth in order to protect all victims of this crime. It also adds human trafficking to the list of offenses addressed by the Crime Victim Compensation Commission. Without this bill many trafficking victims will be unable to afford medical and mental health counseling services that are essential for recovery.

"Currently, there are 27 million slaves being trafficked around the world; more than any time in human history. We trust that this bill will not only send a message to predators that Hawaii has a zero tolerance for modern day slavery, but will also facilitate the healing process of human trafficking victims. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, on HB 1784, I'm rising in strong support of this measure. Human trafficking worldwide affects over 27 million men, women and children and 200,000 of them are in the United States of America.

"These people are kidnapped, branded and forced into low-paying servitude or prostitution. Many are lured from other countries with false promises of well-paying jobs as nannies or housekeepers. In these cases, the 'employer' takes their documentation and then threatens them with jail or deportation if they complain.

"Women and children lured into prostitution are brutalized before they get to the United States and are cowed into cooperation. They could be hidden in plain sight. Makeshift brothels are often set up in basements of single family homes or in apartments. They are usually transient, moving locations from week to week, so as to not draw attention from neighbors or police. The victims rarely seek help for themselves as they are intimidated and often, tortured.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill will create the offense of human trafficking a Class A felony and a violent crime. This is an important part of legislation."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs continues to advocate for commitment to reestablish the relationship between the art of building and the making of community, through citizen-based participatory planning and design. This creation of a task force on Hawaiian homestead communities is an example of participatory planning with decision making capabilities.

"I support the intent of this bill. The Department of Hawaiian Home Lands (DHHL) does have one concern with this bill. It does not believe the Legislature has the authority to appropriate funding from the Native Hawaiian Rehabilitation Fund (NHRF), as proposed in section 2 of the bill. Decisions regarding the use of this fund rest solely with the Hawaiian Homes Commission.

"DHHL believes the objectives of this bill can be achieved through a concurrent resolution and recommends that this might be a more appropriate vehicle to consider. As a matter of information, DHHL has allocated funding from NHRF to support the implementation of Act 302 activities."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1580, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'd like to cast a no vote on the bill that's titled, Relating to Aquatic Resources. Mr. Speaker, I would encourage the Members to take a look at the voting record on this measure. Out of eight votes cast, three were with reservations, and three were no votes."

Representative Morita rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Also, a no vote for me, Mr. Speaker. It's really bad policy that there's nothing for fisheries management, and I'd like to submit additional comments for the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Morita's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. As I mentioned in decision-making on this measure in the Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs Committee, it embarrasses me that this body would even consider this bill. To use 'science' as a guise to hinder the Department of Land & Natural Resources' ability to manage our fisheries is shameful. Last year the previous Chair of the Water, Land and Ocean Resources Committee heard a similar bill, House Bill 2881 on February 2, 2006 during a lengthy evening hearing at the Capitol. The Chair, in his wisdom, saw no value in passing a measure so controversial and had no redeeming value in managing our natural resources.

"The opening paragraphs of testimony submitted by the Department of Land and Natural Resources describes House Bill 1848, House Draft 1 as such:

HB 1848 would impose wide ranging conditions and restrictions on the management of marine fisheries resources. As proposed, this legislation will effectively eliminate the ability of the Department of Land and Natural Resources (Department) Division of Aquatic Resources to manage marine fisheries stock by imposing conditions so restrictive that they are impossible to meet, will severely restrict the Department's range of management options, and will create an autocratic advisory task force heavily slanted toward special interest groups that advocate fishing.

It will also impair the Department's ability to properly manage aquatic resources for the public trust as established in Article 11, Section 1 of the Hawaii state constitution, by forcing all management decisions to be made from the narrow perspective of (a) particular ocean user group or ethnic groups at the expense of all other constituencies.

"Mr. Speaker, the testimony of the Department of Land and Natural Resources is very detailed in its opposition of this measure so I would like to submit the entire testimony for inclusion into the Journal.

"Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1848 gets its origin from model legislation passed around the mainland proposed by 'Right To Fish' groups. There is no 'science' behind these proposals. Hawaii would be the first State throughout the nation that would adopt this 'right to fish' which only benefits the fishers of today and not future generations nor the resource.

"Simply put, Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that does not deserve our support if we truly believe in our obligation to protect and enhance this public trust resource for today and future generations."

TESTIMONY OF THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES

On House Bill 1848 – RELATING TO AQUATIC RESOURCES

SENATE COMMITTEE ON WATER, LAND AND AGRICULTURE AND HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS

HB 1848 would impose wide-ranging conditions and restrictions on the management of marine fisheries resources. As proposed, this legislation will effectively eliminate the ability of the Department of Land and Natural Resources' (Department) Division of Aquatic Resources to manage marine fisheries stocks by imposing conditions so restrictive that they are impossible to meet, will severely restrict the Department's range of management options, and will create an autocratic advisory task force heavily slanted toward special interest groups that advocate fishing.

It will also impair the department's ability to properly manage aquatic resources for the public trust as established in Article 11, Section 1 of the Hawaii state constitution, by forcing all management decisions to be made from the narrow perspective of particular ocean user group or ethnic groups at the expense of all other constituencies.

The Department strongly opposes this bill, and notes that the bill contains substantial elements of a similar measure that failed to pass the Legislature in 2006.

A 2006 audit of the Department's Division of Conservation and Resources Enforcement clearly underscored the need for the Department to take a more proactive role in natural resource management.

This bill would send the department in exactly the opposite direction, forcing it into a perpetually reactive mode by mandating lengthy and in some cases unattainable stock assessments prior to any management action, and by inhibiting and time-limiting the use of one of its most effective resource management strategies, area closures.

In addition, this legislation would dictate that the interests of one special interest lobby, fishermen, will essentially hold hostage the management of the marine resources that affect all of Hawaii's citizens, effectively disenfranchising a significant portion of Hawaii's population, and completely eliminating input from the visitor industry.

By mandating that any new area closures in marine systems be evaluated entirely on the basis of their impact to fishermen, this legislation precludes the establishment of area closures based on scenic or recreational values, or to promote biodiversity conservation.

Had such legislation been in place in 1967, we would never have been able to establish such landmark Marine Life Conservation Districts as Hanauma Bay, Molokini, and Kealakekua Bay, which are now renowned tourist sites enjoyed by thousands of people from around the world, many of whom are not fishermen.

In addition, this legislation requires that any management action that prohibits or limits fishing in any area currently open to public fishing be preceded by a stock assessment for each species involved, across the entire range of that species.

Given that stock assessments are lengthy projects, and that many species in Hawaii range across both the main Hawaiian Islands and the Northwest Hawaiian Islands, and in many cases throughout the Indo-Pacific, meeting this requirement would take years worth of field research and hundreds of thousands of dollars for each species involved, and would effectively put a moratorium on any management actions related to marine fish stocks for the better part of a decade.

For management actions involving gear types such as lay gill nets, which affect a large number of species simultaneously, meeting the law's mandates would require completing dozens of separate stock assessments, a process that would take decades, during which time destructive fishing practices could continue unchecked.

This would preclude any sort of meaningful marine management, much less any sort of proactive management.

In short, passage of this legislation would represent a disaster for marine fisheries management in Hawaii.

Furthermore, the proposed legislation's requirement that any management action that results in a restriction to fishing be based on a peer-reviewed studies, though a laudable ideal, is in practical terms often unrealistic, because the publication of such studies is inevitably subject to a lag of several years following the gathering and analysis of the data on which they are based.

This requirement, coupled with the stock assessment requirement discussed previously, would put the Department into a perpetually reactive rather than proactive mode in regard to fisheries management, resulting in greatly reduced effectiveness in regard to aquatic resource protection.

In addition, this measure is internally inconsistent by requiring that the science supporting management actions be evaluated not only from a scientific perspective, but also from the standpoint of traditional lore and practices. This is essentially a mixture of management based on science and management based on faith, and as such runs counter to the mandate of strict scientific rigor that the bill otherwise implies.

We completely agree with the mandate that all management actions for marine resources should be based on solid scientific analysis, and that they be followed up with sound and statistically defensible monitoring plans, but an examination of our recent actions in regard to various fisheries under our jurisdiction, particularly the Main Hawaiian Islands bottomfishery, will show that we already implement such protocols internally as a matter of standard operating practice (See Exhibit A).

For the past 50 years, peer reviewed studies reveal that stocks of coral reef and bottom fishes have declined by more than 50 percent, indicating that the traditional methods have been woefully inadequate in regard to protecting Hawaii's fishery stocks (See Exhibit B).

The most recent study of this type has concentrated on the Waikiki Fishery Management Area, and demonstrated a steady decline in the densities of all species studied in this area over the last 30 years, despite a history of alternating annual seasonal closures (see Exhibit C).

By contrast, recent analyses of area closures as applied to the bottom fishery of the Main Hawaiian Islands, the coral reef aquarium fishery in West Hawaii, and the State's network of Marine Life Conservation Districts have documented dramatic positive effects (see Exhibits D and E).

Based on the science at hand that is immediately applicable to Hawaii, area closures have been shown to be far superior to seasonal closures in regard to the management of many fishery stocks (see Exhibit F). Yet it is this very method that the current legislation proposes to convert to a measure of last resort.

This is all the more ironic in light of the fact that the Legislature itself has previously acknowledged the effectiveness of this approach by passing legislation in 1998 that established a network of closed areas for the aquarium fishery in West Hawaii.

As noted in the Department's 2004 report to the Legislature, these closed areas have increased the populations of the most heavily harvested aquarium fishes both inside and outside the closed areas, while during the same time period the overall take and dollar value of this fishery have increased.

This experiment has clearly demonstrated that area closures can be mutually beneficial for both fishes and fishermen.

By mandating that any area closure be automatically reopened after three years, this legislation also demonstrates a clear lack of understanding of fisheries biology, given that the reproductive cycles of many reef and bottomfish are such that they do not reach reproductive maturity for 5–7 years.

As a result, the requirements of this bill would all but guarantee the failure of area closures as a management strategy by allowing fishermen to deplete recovering stocks prior the point at which they become capable of once again reproducing.

The Hawaii Fishery Advisory Task Force proposed in this bill is heavily slanted toward and numerically dominated by fishing interests, and as set forth would guarantee that such interests could consistently dominate such a task force, given that "…concurrence of a majority of the members in attendance shall make any action of this task force valid."

As such, this task force is no more than an autocratic process masquerading as a democratic process, and would not provide a representative approach to marine resources management.

Instead, it would give policy guidance over to a minority special interest, in violation of the State's public trust responsibilities as set forth in Article 11, Section 1 of the State constitution.

Instead, we suggest that the functions proposed for this task force can more representatively and responsibly be accomplished within the framework of the scientific and native Hawaiian advisory bodies to the Board of Land and Natural Resources proposed in HB 1788.

Fishing is undoubtedly an important activity in Hawaii, and research by the Department and the Hawaii Coral Reef Initiative Research Program indicate that approximately 250,000 people in Hawaii participate in either recreational or commercial fishing at some time during each calendar year.

We believe their particular special interests, no matter how well funded and articulated, cannot be allowed to disproportionately dictate the aquatic resource management agenda for the remaining citizens of Hawaii, because this would once again violate the department's public trust responsibilities as specified in Article 11, Section 1 of the State constitution.

For these reasons, the Department has serious concerns about our ability to effectively manage the marine resources if this bill were to pass. As noted, the Department relies on the best available science and utilization of the various management tools available. This bill will unreasonably tie our hands, particularly at times when management options must be implemented in order to protect the resources. We oppose this bill.

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of House Bill 959, Relating to Iolani Palace.

"The Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs (AHCC) firmly supports HB 959, and any form of relief for 'Iolani Palace, a wahi pana rich in sacred, cultural, and historic significance. This was the site of Ka'ahaimauli heiau, the first western-style mausoleum for the remains of ali'i, and (at various times) the residence of Kalanimoku, Kamehameha III, Kekauluohi, Kamehameha IV and Emma, Kalama, and Kina'u. 'Iolani Palace served as the Kingdom of Hawaii's seat of government as well as the heart of the Kingdom's social structure, and was the setting of the coronation of Kalakaua and Kapi'olani. The historic significance of the palace and palace grounds are undeniable

"HB 959 seeks to exempt 'Iolani Palace from the standards and conditions related to the receipt of funds contained in chapter 42F, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS).

"The Chapter 42F conditions place too many restrictions on those who seek to provide stewardship, in the form of operation, maintenance and preservation, for 'Iolani Palace. The current stewards, the Friends of 'Iolani Palace, need to be able to apply directly for funding and grants, and should be able to apply directly for funding and grants, and should be able to receive such funding in a direct and timely manner to respond to immediate needs and concerns.

This exemption will ease the Palace operations and budget and will be useful for the Friends of 'Iolani Palace to ensure its ability to preserve, restore, interpret and share the sacred, cultural and historic significance of the palace.

"Passage of this bill would accord 'Iolani Palace the same exemption as that currently provided to the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum under §6E-40, HRS."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB No. 959, Relating to Iolani Palace

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to provide some financial relief for the costly maintenance and operation of Iolani Palace, which has the distinction of being the only official state residence of royalty in the United States. The bill would exempt the Palace from standards related to the receipt of funds in Chapter 42F (Grants and Subsidies).

"The bill will allow the exemption for the Friends of Iolani Palace, but not for providers contracting with the Palace.

"We should do more to assist in this effort, and HB No. 959 is a first step to do this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 959, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO IOLANI PALACE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I rise in opposition to this measure. Mr. Speaker, for some of the freshman class that were here, this issue of moving Honolulu Marine to Keehi Boat Harbor came before this body a couple years ago. I opposed it then and I oppose it now.

"To have the private sector to move out of Kewalo Basin, I didn't agree with the movement at that time and I still don't agree. I believe that having this boat repair, ship building facility is giving, number one, advantage. It could go out potentially to Barbers Point. My argument at the time was I thought the Department of Transportation should be at the table talking about the future of our harbors and where we should put ship building facilities. They should be appropriately put in commercial harbors or industrial areas. In fact they want to put this ship building facility at a small recreational boat harbor.

"Our small boat harbors are in disrepair all over. I would like to see this money that they're asking for, $4 million, to be put into small harbors across the State instead of moving Honolulu Marine and really fixing the harbor or putting money into the harbor for this ship building company. I just think it's the wrong expenditure of money. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some strong reservations. I understand what the State's trying to do. They're trying to get them out of Kewalo Basin. Honolulu Marine still has quite a few years left on their lease. We've given them a pretty sweetheart deal on land over there at Keehi Lagoon. This bill as originally drafted asked for a $4 million appropriation which I agree with the good Representative from Waimea. I'd like to see that kind of money go into the small boat harbors that are in such poor repair right now. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1516, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR IMPROVEMENTS AT AND THE RELOCATION OF HONOLULU MARINE, INC. TO KEEHI SMALL BOAT HARBOR," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representative Evans voting no, and with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HB No. 38, HD 1.

"As a Representative from Kauai, I strongly support this bill that repeals the sunset dates of several laws that limit the liability of the State and county governments relating to public use of certain public lands, public beach parks and the acts of lifeguards.

"Kauai recently had an accidental death of a visitor who went beyond the guard rails, and the liabilities are yet to be determined. Fortunately, the liability protections in place with the present law should reduce the exposure of the State and county governments to substantial damages.

"I also strongly support the permanent exception from liability for the acts and omissions of county lifeguards while acting in the scope of employment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 38, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIABILITY OF STATE AND COUNTY GOVERNMENTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 845, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SHARK FEEDING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Tsuji rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 558, H.B. 1179. In the year 2004, the Mayor of the County of Hawaii declared a state of emergency pertaining to the infestation of the coqui frog on the Big Island. In the succeeding years, the State Legislature has been generous in providing support.

"Throughout these years we must continue to support the war against coqui frog infestation and eradication on the Big Island which is in such a critical state. I rise in support. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Like the Representative from Hawaii Kai, I rise in support because we, too, have the same problem. It's growing. It's small, but we hope to learn from our colleagues from the Big Island."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1179, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO THE COUNTY OF HAWAI'I FOR COQUI FROG ERADICATION AND CONTROL," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 715, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"As stated in the bill, the water on Lanai is provided by a private company that has increased its water rates to such a degree that agriculture is not economically feasible for any farmer. The creation of an agriculture industry necessitates assistance in payment for the water. The Lanai Water Company, a privately-owned company that provides water on Lanai, has offered a match of any water subsidy provided by the State to pay for the purchase of water by farmers on Lanai. It would be in the best interest of all for the creation of an agriculture industry on Lanai, to provide assistance to Lanai farmers in purchasing water.

"I humbly request the support of my colleagues to vote "yes" on HB No. 715 so our farmers on Lana'i who desperately need your assistance in making sure that farming and the agriculture industry continues.

"I thank you in advance for your support of HB No. 715."

Representative Morita rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. My sister is a farmer on Lanai. Lanai is really, really small, and so she is one of the few farmers there," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. During these times of growing financial uncertainty; as we hear news of our economy cooling soon, this body may question why it should hoist the operations of a company already providing a service of water delivery to the people of Lanai. This body may even be worried that this will put one class of customers above another as those who are not farmers will not enjoy the same benefit of a subsidy. Yet the reality is that by doing this we will be helping the farmers of Lanai to succeed in producing locally grown crops that can compete across the State due to the higher profit margin. Such success will undoubtedly breed more success and this will spur the growth of the agriculture industry and create great job opportunities.

"The timing couldn't be better, Mr. Speaker, as a new bio-diesel plant will be starting up in Maui in 2009 and will be looking to acquire local feedstock for Maui Electric's generators. Those of us who know Lanai, know that the community as a whole is ready to make the sacrifice of disparate rates vis a vis this bill to provide the growth of a stable economic source for the island – one that will have the added benefit of keeping the country, country. It will also benefit the entire State by diversifying its economy, providing an alternative food stream and create additional revenue for the State in additional G.E.T. taxes and property taxes for the County.

"In the long run this is an investment whose portfolio will be quite diverse in its aggressive returns for an island worthy of our Aloha."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 715, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR THE PURCHASE OF WATER FOR AGRICULTURAL USE ON LANAI," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1212, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to cast a protest no vote against Stand. Com. Rep. No. 566. It's a protest no vote, Mr. Speaker. The bill is the Judiciary budget. My protest is that the Judiciary is forcing the Family Court to move out to Kapolei. They supposedly are going to keep one token courtroom Downtown. But what this does to people who represent East Honolulu, who represent the Downtown core, and who represent any area on the Windward side, what it does is it means that members who are involved in litigation are going to have to travel all the way to Kapolei for the myriad of hearings that are held on Family Court matters. It's going to be a very big expense in paying for the attorney's fees for that added travel time. It's going to be a very big emotional expense for families that have to go through that to get out to Kapolei.

"I note that the Family Court bar has tried valiantly to talk some sense into the Judiciary, but they have been able to really prevail. The Judiciary has been insistent on having a nice new building in Kapolei and saying that all the Family Court judges, with the exception of one that might ride circuit in here Downtown, all Family Court judges will be out there. That may suit the Family Court judges, but it certainly doesn't serve the people of Hawaii that don't live in those regions.

"So, it's a protest vote, Mr. Speaker, and I would hope that some sense could be brought to this before this bill gets through and that the determination of the Judiciary to put everyone out in Kapolei, that there could be some consensus building and a better solution to it than this bill will allow. Thank you."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker.

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with strong reservations. I share the comments with the previous speaker, the Representative from Kailua. And it pains me when I share the comments with the speaker from Kailua. I believe that the bulk of the population is in the East area and is going to create a terrible hardship on the population here. I would wish that the Finance Committee take a very good look at this measure. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I am equally aggrieved as the Representative from Maui, with reservations. And to know that the Waimanalo Neighborhood Board unanimously voted that this is a fair and undue hardship for the people who have to go to the Family Court all the way out from Waimanalo to the other place.

"But I think we have to remember that we stated that, that was going to be a Second City. It's still not a Second City, and who are we putting the first burden to? It's a regressive thing for those people who have to go that far out and who totally can't afford that by time or by money. So, I agree with the speaker from Maui. We are aggrieved."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some strong reservations. I couldn't agree with the Representative from Kailua more. I would hope that they would come up with some kind of a compromise. I think the Judiciary does need a building out there, but they don't necessarily have to move all of the Family Court out there. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. In support. I just wanted to point out that if you go to Family Court on any given day and look around at who's sitting there, I would venture to say that over half, if not more, are people from the Leeward Coast. And these people are here for matters often with CPS, divorce, all kinds of different matters like that, very frequently low income clients. And I understand what they're saying it's a burden for Downtown attorneys to have to drive out that way, but who's been suffering with this burden all these years? It's been these people that have much less in terms of resources and have to get up at the crack of dawn while it's still dark.

"Hearings start at eight. You have to check in at eight, and you show up, and you sit there, and you have no idea when you're going to really get to go. And, so, if you're lucky enough to have a car, you have to go back to your meter. It's a real hardship. And these are the same arguments, Mr. Speaker, that people brought up when they brought other State and county services out to Kapolei, and now, if you talk to those government workers that are there and the people that go there, they really like being Kapolei. Now you're going against traffic, the parking is much easier, and it's also lessening our traffic situation that's been horrendous. It's going to be painful for now, but it's growing pains. And I think that eventually the move will help us all in the long run. Thank you."

Representative Awana rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Shimabukuro be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Pine rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Shimabukuro be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Cabanilla rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just one brief comment. There was an earlier discussion about the Ewa Development Plan, that we should forego the 16,000 homes because of the Ewa Development Plan.

"Now, the Courthouse is part of the Ewa Development Plan, and the same people that were opposing that measure are now against this issue, which is part of the Ewa Development Plan. And I think this matter now being discussed is contradictory, and I am totally confused where they really stand stand. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just to add something and I hope to add some clarity. I was not against the Judiciary building being built in Kapolei. I think that the Campbell Estate was very generous and it is the Second City. I just question the wisdom of moving all the Family Court out there. You could have a Circuit Court and a Family Court. You don't have to take all the Family Court business out there. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Second time on this. I understand what the Chair on Housing was saying, that 50 percent of the people that are in the Downtown Family Courtroom area are from the Kapolei area. Fine. Build 50 percent of the Family Courtroom out in Kapolei. Keep the other 50 percent downtown. Otherwise, we just totally flip and have the exact same problem with 100 percent of the people having to sit in the courtrooms out in Kapolei and they will be from that area. At least 50 percent of them will be. It makes no sense, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in support of the measure, and I'd like to say in response to the last speaker's comments. I think 25 percent of the people are in Mililani, Wahiawa and North Shore area. So that makes 75 percent of the people living near Kapolei."

Representative Sonson rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I declare a potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. I actually practice in the Family Court, so I will be using that courtroom with pleasure," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Sonson continued in support of the measure, stating:

"I do feel sorry for the attorneys that are from Downtown and from Hawaii Kai and Kailua because they have to travel all the way down to the beautiful Second City of Kapolei. But you know, we built that H-3 so people from Kailua and Kaneohe shouldn't have such problem. Most of the hearings are in the morning and the drive is quite nice.

"Also, for the rest of the population are not heading for court. A lot less of these cars from the Leeward side will be traveling to town during the rush hours, so this is a good way to reduce traffic."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Just to clarify. Look at Stand. Com. Rep. No. 566, H.B. 1212, Page 5, the Judiciary Committee zeroed out the money for the Kapolei Complex. The Judiciary was asking for $15 million and we put zero. If you were at the hearing, we asked the Judiciary to consider keeping a few courtrooms in Honolulu and that's why we put the zero.

"To those of you who voted against the budget, might want to actually support the zero. And those of you out from Waianae and the Leeward side, might want to actually vote no, against this. Just to let you know what you're voting on and what the intent of the Judiciary Committee Chair was.

"Also, we're hoping that we can work with the Judiciary to include a few courtrooms in Honolulu, and, of course, have the bulk of the courtrooms in Kapolei. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'll just change my vote to an aye with reservations. I'll watch that zero to see that the compromise is reached."

Representative Pine rose stating:

"I might as well change support to a vote with reservations. I'm in strong support for the Kapolei Complex, but against that zeroing out. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1212, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE JUDICIARY," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Sonson, for the Committee on Labor & Public Employment presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 567) recommending that H.B. No. 26, as amended in HD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 26, HD 1, be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on this bill. It establishes salaries for the members of the Board of Education. I believe that this will set a precedent for other Boards and Commissions. My understanding is that the Land Use Commission's responsibilities and efforts are at least equivalent if not more than the Board of Education.

"Setting this precedent with the explanation of the Board members' deserving salaries because of the multitude of responsibilities they have could signal to others the lack of worth of other Board and Commission members' time and efforts. These volunteers and the positions they hold are extremely important. Let's not hold one group more valuable than the others."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With strong reservations. The purpose of this bill is to compensate the members of the Board of Education, and this will become effective on July 1, 2007. I think that every election year we don't have any problem getting people to run for the Board of Education. This is kind of a changing of the game in mid-stream. It actually has two different amounts, one for the Chairperson, and one for regular members. I think there should be a lot of public hearings on this before we take this step. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this bill with reservations. I was looking at the Committee Report. I think I might have preferred the original version of this bill that would have changed the formula in determining how much employers have to pay into the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

"Since it's over half a billion dollars already, I feel that we should do something now to change the formula to lower the amount paid into it, rather than throw it to the LRB for study. Sure we could study it and maybe we could change things depending on the study. But I think we should cut the flow of funds in to the Unemployment Insurance Fund now, either reduce it or have a moratorium. And I think five years would be fine. Thank you, very much."

Representative Shimabukuro rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill 1002, which I along with a number of colleagues introduced as part of our House Majority Package.

"This bill is one of many that have been submitted to address the housing crisis we are facing today. It targets the practice of real estate speculation, which is adversely affecting the affordability of homes throughout our islands. It penalizes, though a graduated anti-speculation tax, those who buy and re-sell real property within short periods of time; that is from less than 6 months, up to 24 months.

"Your Committee on Human Services and Housing took to heart much of the constructive criticism and helpful suggestions made by those who testified in public hearing. The HD1 before you reflects their input.

"In response to the Department of Taxation, which noted that the original bill appeared to punish every homeowner, regardless of whether the property in question was their primary residence, HD1 adds language that new tax shall not apply to properties that qualify for county homeowners' exemption.

"The Department further noted that the bill failed to consider military personnel and others who may have to sell due to unforeseen circumstances. The HD 1 addresses these concerns with language exempting military personnel selling property as a result of military relocation orders, as well as those who are compelled to sell a residence due to change in employment or for health reasons.

"The Hawaii Association of Realtors questioned why the sale of unimproved property was not subject to the proposed tax increases. Their testimony envisioned a scenario whereby an investor could demolish a property with existing improvements, evict the tenants, and sell the vacant lot to avoid the anti-speculation tax. In response to this concern, the HD 1 states that the sale of unimproved property shall be subject to this tax.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe House Bill 1002, in its amended form, is a good bill. It deserves the support of my colleagues and should be passed on to the Finance Committee for further consideration."

Representative Brower rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition to 577. Mr. Speaker, I think this is in the right direction, but maybe a better or more improved vehicle could be found. You know, sometimes the Representative from Hawaii Kai talks about DNA, and at times I share some DNA with the Representative in that this is a tax increase. And so, in a sense he's like a brother from another mother. So, I'll leave it at that. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I've got some of that DNA. With reservations, please."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to follow up and just let the body know that the Committee on Human Services and Housing took heart in much of the constructive criticism and helpful suggestions that were made by those who testified, and the HD 1 reflects that input.

"In response to the Department of Taxation which noted that the original bill appeared to punish every homeowner, regardless of whether the property questioned was their primary residence. The HD1, adds language that the new tax shall not apply to properties that qualify for the county homeowner's exemption. The Department further noted that the bill failed to consider military personnel and others who may have to sell due to unforeseen circumstances. The HD 1 address these concerns with language exempting military personnel selling properties as a result of military relocation orders, as well those who are compelled to sell a residence due to change in employment or health situations.

"The Hawaii Association of Realtors questioned why the sale of unimproved property was not subject to the proposed tax increases and their testimony envisioned a scenario whereby an investor could demolish a property with existing improvements, evict the tenants and sell the vacant land to avoid the anti-speculation tax. In response, HD 1 states that the sale of unimproved property shall also be subject to the tax. I believe that this bill in it's amended form is a good bill and deserves support of my colleagues. It should be passed on to the Finance Committee. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this bill. This starts to answer what I've considered unjust. Hawaii's broad based GE Tax taxes food, rent, rental housing, and necessary medical services. Not taxing the food recommended by the WIC program is a step in the right direction. Costs are rising, Mr. Speaker. The dollar is shrinking. Let's help our residents and families try to keep up with inflation especially when it comes to purchasing essential foods."

Representative Cabanilla rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Yes, in support. Mr. Speaker, the bill proposes to provide a tax exemption for WIC foods. These are the basic food items, and it's not only for the poor. It's for the entire State, the entire population. We feel that if they have a healthy start, they'll have less of a chance of having problems in the future, so, I humbly support this measure. Thank, you Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB1547 HD2.

"I was privileged to attend the first ever International Symposium on Tollways and Highways held in Athens, Greece last summer. The information that I garnered to tackle our lane deficient islands was fantastic and promising. It resulted in the introduction of numerous public-private-partnership bills that are now before us.

"Over 500 engineers and financiers from over 22 countries shared their expertise at the symposium. Not too long ago, Athens held the Summer Olympics whereby they constructed over 90 miles of highways in less than five years. How did they do it? The answer lies in providing the means to have the private sector involved. Without the private sector, here is what happens:

"The North-South Road in Ewa being constructed today is roughly 3 miles long and took the State DOT almost a decade to merely plan and design. Another example is when the Legislature in 1999 provided $4 million to the State to build a bike path known as the Leeward bikeway yet today, the State has yet to build an inch.

Simply put, the Stated does not have the personnel, resources, and financial reserve to do what needs to be done.

"Colleagues, we are in a transportation crisis. Let's bring the next International Tollway and Highway Symposium here in order to have hundreds of transportation experts and financiers from all over the globe assist us in resolving our crisis. For your information, the government of Greece contributed roughly a quarter of a million dollars to host the symposium.

"I urge all of my colleagues to vote yes on this measure. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"Referred to by native Hawaiians as kalo, taro (Colocasia esculenta) is a crop of great cultural and spiritual significance to Hawaii's indigenous people, the kanaka maoli. More than simply a highly-prized food staple, the kalo plant is also considered to be the divine ancestor of man. As documented in the kumulipo, the sacred Hawaiian genealogical chant charting the creation of the universe, the sky father, Wakea, and the earth mother, Papa, conceived a daughter named Hoohokulani, with whom Wakea later conceived a second, stillborn son named Haloa-naka. Out of his grave grew the first kalo plant. Soon thereafter, Wakea and Hoohokulani had a second son, also called Haloa, who became the first human being. Therefore, in kinship terms, taro is the elder brother of the Hawaiian people, nourishing and watched over them for generations.

"This spiritual relationship between kalo and the *kanaka maol*i is expressed metaphorically in the concept of 'ohana, the Hawaiian word for family. Like the family system, taro sprouts forth from a single root which, when finally harvested, is reborn yet again via root cuttings that are broken off and then replanted for the next season. Thus, in Hawaiian epistemology, life itself will not die so long as the living waters of the soul continue to nourish it. As testament to the strength of this world view, native Hawaiian farmers have used their horticultural skills to successfully maintain roughly seventy varieties of taro, the majority of which are unique to the Hawaiian Islands.

"The cultivation of kalo, then, intrinsically ties the interdependency of the past, present, and future as the essence of procreation and regeneration, thereby forming the foundation for any sustainable practice. Kalo not only expresses the spiritual and physical wellbeing of the kanaka maoli and their heritage, but also symbolizes the environmental, social, and cultural values important to the State. This relationship is symbolized in the use of the kalo plant upon the crown of King Kalakaua and, today, in the logo of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, along with many commercial enterprises across the State.

"The purpose of this Act is to acknowledge, preserve, and perpetuate the importance and use of kalo in the heritage of the State by establishing a five-year moratorium on the testing, propagating, cultivating, raising, and growing of genetically modified taro in Hawaii."

Representative Sagum rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Sagum's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of HSCR 606, HB No. 704, HD2: Relating to Genetically Modified Organisms.

"Your Committee on Energy & Environmental Protection heard impassioned testimony from taro farmers to cease and desist on improving the taro species by genetic modification. Their concerns came from many fronts: their heritage of the kalo plant, the possible side effects of genetic modification to taro and other crops, and the finances being spent in an area that did not need or want help.

"I agree with the five year moratorium that the amended bill places on testing, propagating, cultivating, growing and raising genetically engineered taro. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 704, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GENETICALLY MODIFIED ORGANISMS," was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce with Representatives Souki, Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representatives Shimabukuro and Green, for the Committee on Human Services & Housing and the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 608) recommending that H.B. No. 1830, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1830, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Ching rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition to this measure, as I have stood many years now on this measure. Maybe I can have a ruling on a conflict. Mr. Speaker, I am an adopted child," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"I am an adopted child and had a very good fortune to have been adopted by my own side of the family, my father's side. And I'm grateful every year of my life when I see how wise my father was because now that I'm a mother, I understand even more how important this tie is.

"Mr. Speaker, I strongly oppose this measure. I appreciate, and I want to underscore, I truly appreciate the intent of this bill because protecting our State's children from harm and abandonment is, indeed, a noble cause. The issue of safe haven bills are a difficult issue to address because while attractively titled, the bill is so well-intentioned, it's a well-intentioned attempt of public policy that however comes with unintended adverse consequences.

"First of all, I'd like to point out that this bill is unnecessary because while the problem of new-born abandonment may be a problem in other states, the State of Hawaii does not experience these problems as do mainland states. It is perhaps because of the support system and the connectivity and the tradition that our island holds, called hanai. The colleagues who may speak Hawaiian, they understand hanai, and that it translates to 'gift'. Because the understanding of Hawaiians was that their child was a gift, and that to give my child to someone was the most highest compliment and the best gift I could give to someone. So, there in the extended family it is commonly recognized as integral part of the nuclear family.

"In Hawaiian cultural practice of open adoption called hanai, it is still common practice. And there is no evidence that this measure will effectively address that problem. It is basically, with no offense at all intended, it is a mainland solution to a problem here where we have more culturally sensitive solutions, and a different kind of environment. Research indicates that even states with safe haven laws, women continue to leave babies in unsafe areas.

"To quickly explain what I think this measure addresses, Mr. Speaker, is that in the case of some women who have had, or having a child who is going to give birth, perhaps, they are distressed, perhaps they are frustrated, they are fearful. But instead of taking a look at the white pages, or the yellow pages, instead of reaching out to anyone they have confidence in, these individuals, this bill of course presumes, will leave a child in a rubbish can or unsafe situation. In thinking about the profile of a person who does that, you think about the profile of a person who is either, like I said, distressed, or perhaps, not aware or educated as to the services involved. That's the real problem, Mr. Speaker.

"The problem is education. They are not aware of the services available to them. So, basically, you have a person who we are afraid is going to be using this measure saying let's drop off the baby with absolute no guarantee. I appreciate the amendment to this bill that says it will be requested. On page 8 it says here, provided the newborn is unharmed. But they will not prevent the child from being dropped off, if the person decides to still drop it off anonymously. There's no way to guarantee that and no way to enforce it.

"So, essentially, it boils it down to what my opposition to this measure is this. We would be opening the door to what we call 'woodworking' in the Legislature. To those who would usually go to a grandparent or a parent, and give their child to a parent and say, 'Look mom and dad, I have a … '"

Representative Pine rose to yield her time, and the Chair, "so ordered."

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"Thank you. Instead of what is currently the situation with most people who would have the, I suppose, sense of mind to just look in the telephone book, you're going to get those types of people dropping off children. People who currently, the profile of a person, a mother who would go to their mom or dad or aunt or uncle and say, 'I have a problem. Can you help me?' And grandma and grandpa will take the baby and loves it and raises it. It's great. It's these kinds of people who will be using this bill because I contend that the profile of a person, and I ask my colleagues in this House, the profile of a person who would drop off a baby in a trash can is not going to be aware of Hawaii Revised Statutes. That's not the profile of a person who knows the law has changed. So, we have a problem. Our heritage is important. We know it is the strength of our people and with this bill, we cut it off for all children and their children, and their children. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, Mr. Speaker, strong support. I have complete respect to the speaker from Liliha and Nuuanu. Mr. Speaker, we've got 47 states right now. We've got 47 states that have already enacted safe haven laws. In fact, there are only three states, Alaska, Hawaii, and Nebraska that have yet to enact this type of legislation. Mr. Speaker, all three states that I've named have legislation before them in their Sessions today.

"Mr. Speaker, this is very important. We are talking about the life of a newborn baby. Mr. Speaker, the testimony that we heard at the Health hearing was compelling. We had a paramedic that said that she delivered and saved ten babies. That's evidence that shows that we are having babies that are being delivered on the spot. In fact, I was concerned there was a 12 year-old that didn't even know she was pregnant. That was the testimony of one of the paramedic. So concerned are the paramedics that they had asked that the language be amended to place them as also a safe haven, which we did.

"Mr. Speaker, regarding the concerns of the Department of Human Services, they too have a concern. And when I asked questions, the answer by the Department representative was this, and I quote, 'This is not common.' I'm kind of perplexed by that answer, 'This is not common,' because I asked her again, 'How can you say this is not common if we are losing a life? A life of a newborn baby?'

"Mr. Speaker, the bottom line is this. It comes down to a balancing test. Unfortunately, the Department of Human Services looks at it as a balancing test. Again, the word I use is 'perplexed' because if you're weighing the life a newborn baby versus a medical data that we can get from the mother, to me, it doesn't even preclude logical reasoning. We are talking about life here. And a life is so important versus any medical history or data that we can get from the other. I just don't comprehend it.

"And I want to say another thing. If we have babies that are put in dumpster, they are not going to be a statistic. We are not going to know, because that will never come up. They're never going to be seen and charged. We will never have that data because that's going to be gone with the trash. We need this legislation, Mr. Speaker.

"Finally, Mr. Speaker, if we won't help our newborn babies, who are the most innocent and vulnerable in our population, who will? This measure will. Again, 47 states already have it. Three states are looking at it right now. I'd hate to be number 50 and lose any more. If we can save just one life, it's well worth it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm rising in opposition to this measure. I guess I'm a little perplexed with the argument here because this is about the fifth year that I have introduced a bill on late term abortions, and I can't even get that bill heard. If we are so concerned about the life of a baby, that bill should have been heard."

The Chair then stated:

"Representative Meyer, you are out of order with that statement."

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"Well, it's a matter of weeks and months. One baby is born, the other is still in vitro so I think that the arguments that the Representative from Liliha makes …"

Representative B. Oshiro rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. You have already made a ruling so unless she is challenging your ruling, you should ask her to sit down. Thank you."

The Chair responded, stating:

"Representative Meyer, please proceed with the bill that is before us and not the issue ..."

Representative Meyer continued, stating:

"I have gotten up in opposition of the bill, but with the sentiments of the value of life and value of these babies. We are talking about a difference of weeks when we talk about late-term abortion and the babies that are unwanted. Thank you."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in support of this measure. Just very briefly, I do respect, again, the comments from the Representative from Liliha. My concern is that sometimes faxes from the mainland find their way to Hawaii, and it has been a very big problem on the mainland with young mothers abandoning babies.

"We have very high teen pregnancy rates in Hawaii in some areas, and we just don't want to see that happen, so we want to err on the side of protecting those children and we will do everything we can, I think, legislatively to encourage were possible extra biographical information for these children because they will be loved, whether they are hanai or adopted or just taken in by the hospital to be safe. We want them to have family history, but we want them to have life first and foremost. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to respond, stating:

"I just want to comment. I did want to offer also that I do have a bill that is Project Cuddle that approaches the real solution, which is education. We have absolutely no proof that any child will be saved, but I will guarantee you lives will be ruined.

"I ask that my colleagues bear in mind babies that we so love and adore, and we are so concerned about and it's like two parents who love a child, but just differently and want different things for them. Children grow up. Babies grow up. They're not just cute things for us. They grow up. And if you talk to adopted children, if you have interviewed people of adoption circle, they will tell you, I would give my right arm to have any shred of information. This guarantees ruining lives, but it does not guarantee saving them. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support of the measure with a heavy heart, and with restricted freedom to make a lot of comments. As an adoptive parent, I speak from experience that abandonment is better than abortion. Abandonment is better than infanticide. Abandonment is better than death. I think that's what this bill is all about. It's not about raising adopted kids, which I am learning every day about. It's about keeping them alive from the beginning and giving them an alternative that is safe.

"And I wanted to mention one other thing. I was inspired by the EMS personnel who testified before the Committee who said, 'Put me into this bill because I had this happen to me.' They're abandoning kids. So, this is for the good, and notwithstanding all of the comments from my colleague, this is the only right thing to do at this time. And other issues that involved some of her comments, I think can be taken on another measure."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in favor of this measure. I want to thank the Health Chairman for introducing this measure as part of the Keiki Caucus package. I think it's a very necessary bill because I do believe it will save lives. If we do not pass this, a mother can be charged with child abandonment and this would give her a degree of immunity. And rather than just abandon a child, we want them to leave them in a safe place. Thank you very much."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Green be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Bertram rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Mizuno be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like a ruling on a potential conflict. I work for a homeless veteran shelter and I notice that this deals with homeless shelters," and the Chair ruled "no conflict."

Representative Thielen rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you. A potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. My daughter-in-law, Laura Ellis Thielen is in charge of the Homeless Alliance Group," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. This measure would limit the amount of non-economic damages that will be awarded to medical tort actions. The cost of malpractice insurance is really driving a lot of very fine physicians out of our State, obstetricians, orthopedic surgeons. Huge costs played a pretty big part in the financial woes of Kahuku Hospital out in my district. I noticed that on the Committee Report virtually all the testifiers were in favor of this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. As this body well knows, there is a perfect storm brewing out there with rising healthcare costs and an aging population, shortages in doctors and nurses and a lack of access to health care for all of the communities in this State, and in particular our rural communities.

"I appreciate that tort reform is being considered by this body, and I look forward to the continued and lively debate that should occur in the Judiciary Committee. I also look forward to the debate among all of our members and in the public discourse. I urge that with this measure that we as a body, also continue to look at other parts of the solution, including increased reimbursements to our medical facilities and providers. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of HB220, HD2. I am thankful that the House has decided to take a serious look at the role that medical liability insurance costs is contributing to the access to healthcare issue. The situation is not a healthy one with these premiums rising sometimes 10 times more than the year previous. Our hospitals are facing skyrocketing malpractice premiums because all of the licensed hospital malpractice insurance companies have left Hawaii. The State hospital system saw premiums increase from $1.5 million to $4.9 million when it had to obtain coverage from surplus lines companies. Kahuku Hospital saw their premium go from 40,000 to 400,000. This increase was one of the major cost items that we will be funding in an emergency funding request to continue emergency medical services on the North Shore.

"Mr. Speaker, there are too many signs and figures to ignore. We need to do something significant this year to help with this problem of lack of access to healthcare to rural areas or in emergency situations. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"If we could, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 610? Just a vote with reservations, and as we go forward on this measure we should all try to follow the money. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 220, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TORTS," was referred to the Committee on Judiciary with Representatives Souki, Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, please register a vote with strong reservations for me."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Very briefly, I rise in support. This bill is meant to give us access to make a plan for universal healthcare, should this situation continue to degenerate in both the United States and the State of Hawaii. We had a previous speaker mention the 'perfect storm' of healthcare which are really the buzz words for 'we're in trouble,' 'doctors are leaving', 'nurses are leaving', 'hospitals are closing,' 'providers don't think that they can stay available to the community to preserve healthcare for the communities.' And, yes, I do hope that we'll make up a lot of ground by looking at these issues, such as we mentioned earlier, like reimbursement, possibly tort reform. But importantly, planning does play a part, and this bill does not force anything on anyone. It just asks us to plan.

"If we don't plan for the future, when the future hits us, it's going to be a punch in the face with no access to healthcare for our people, parents or children. I think we'll regret it, so I think we should plan. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, this will have a commission or authority, if you will, of members to look at our healthcare situation. We all agree that we are having a big problem in healthcare in Hawaii. We need to find a solution to this. I think this will be a first step in the right direction.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, this does not guarantee that we are going to put universal healthcare for everyone. Maybe Hawaii is not ready for universal healthcare, but it will find solutions to provide affordable, accessible quality health care to Hawaii citizens. Therefore, I support this measure and I'd like to have the words of the speaker from Kona to be placed in the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"I'm rising again with reservations. I just want to make sure it goes in the Journal. I really believe we need to promote private healthcare in Hawaii, look at the Certificate of Need, look at how we're expanding the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation when I don't think we should be. I think that we need to build long-term care facilities.

We need to get long-term care people out of these acute beds. There are a lot of solutions that can be done, but I do not agree with Universal Healthcare. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 56, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Marumoto voting no, and with Representatives Souki, Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665, stating:

"I stand in opposition. This is on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665, there will be no smoking on the beaches of Hawaii. I think what this body has done, and I speak as a freshman now, is we've gone very fast, very long, and very effective in terms of discouraging smokers in our youth, and discouraging those who smoke to quit. However, Rome was not built in seven days. I think what we're doing here by taking a broad sweep at tourists, at those who when they said they can't smoke in the restaurants, they said, 'Okay, well, at least I can go outside.' Well, it's 20 feet. And now when you go to the beach, I think it's too much, too fast. It's too extreme. We'll be looked upon as fanatics. If we're going to do this, let's wait until it mellows and marinates to where that would be acceptable.

"Right now, I don't think the timing is right or the intention. And the anger by which this is generating in our community is not healthy for a civil society. And for those who smoke, and I stand as one of those reformed who smoked for 23 years. I don't like smoke. But to the extent that we're pummeling the smokers, I think this bill goes to the extreme, particularly because our beaches, are our environment, and we have to give enjoyment for all people.

"The original intent of the bill, if I may say, from the author's point of view, as the Representative from Maui has indicated, it was originally a 'butt' bill. Let's get the butts off the beach. No pun intended. To get the butts off the beach was the intention, and the only way to get the butt off, is to get the smoker off. And I think that throws the baby out with the bath, Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of my bill. I must say, that as it did start out as an anti-litter law, but also realize you know, you can't go with litter. You have to go for support from a broad array of people. My organization, Greenways Maui is part of the Maui Tobacco-Free Coalition which is also looking at the other health benefits of banning smoking in various areas, especially the beach.

"The beaches have become basically the world's biggest ashtray. And it has been my experience just not only personally, but because I live near a beach. When I go swimming, I'm picking up butts, and when I come back out, there's more butts. And cigarettes butts are the highest percentage of litter that's found on beaches. The Audubon Society and others who have put in testimony talking about the effects on birds and other native species, as well as fish. If this is the only way, and I really do see it as the only way of getting these butts off the beach, and it also increases our health, and I think we can do both.

"I've seen people walking in the water with their cigarette in their hand. And if we can get all the cigarette smokers to be responsible citizens and actually getting 5,000 signatures to get these butts off the beach, then I would be supportive of this, but, unfortunately, that's not the case. So this, to me, seems the best way to start addressing this issue the right way."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support for this bill and the bill before it, the bill relating to flavored tobacco. Mr. Speaker, my colleague from East Honolulu said that smokers are being pummeled. Actually, I think smokers have pummeled a lot of our population, including my son, who was a nonsmoker and developed throat cancer. He's now in his fourth year of remission, but that came about because of the people that were smoking in our society back in that time.

"I'm firmly in support of everything we can do to eliminate the use of those products where they would impact nonsmokers. If the smoker wants to shut himself or herself into a car and puff away, fine. Or do something else where it's out of the breath of a non-smoker, fine. That's really unfortunately, a death sentence for them, but if they're addicted to it, it's going to very difficult for them to stop smoking. I sympathize with that because the tobacco industry is part of making those products addictive.

"I just read in the paper now, Mr. Speaker, where the tobacco industry is now targeting women and putting together kind of a jazzy cigarette package that is designed to entice girls, young women and mature women into smoking because they look at us as the good target, an easy target to get addicted to that cancer-causing product. I think that we should eliminate these.

"I think we should become the Health State and the Smoke-free State. And I strongly, strongly support these kinds of bills and I applaud my colleague from Maui for introducing this. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, are we discussing Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665? My remarks are going to be for 665 and 664 and I'm standing in opposition. Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665 prohibits smoking on beaches, but also in 664 when they amended the bill, they inserted language banning smoking on beaches. So really it is about both bills.

"This body, if I'm not mistaken, has passed a law that says not only can a youth not buy cigarettes, but in fact they can't use cigarettes, the same as with alcohol. So already it's outlawed for children. I'm a believer that we should have restrictions on secondhand smoke, but like last year when I voted no on the smoking bill, I think it's too far when you do a complete ban. I believe there should be designated areas. Thank you."

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In cautious support of this bill. I agree with the previous Representative. Also understand the concerns of our Representative from Hawaii Kai. And I appreciate our enthusiasm from the Representative from Maui. I am sometimes conflicted on his stance with medicinal marijuana and this, but that's okay."

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665. I don't condone smoking Mr. Speaker, but I believe this is a civil rights issue. I don't agree with everything that my neighbor does, however I have to respect their rights as a citizen.

"This bill bans smoking in beaches and parks. I think we're going too fast, just like the other Representative mentioned. We should have some civil liberties left for us even though it's not good. If that's what we decide to do, that we should have the freedom to do that.

"I see this to be an enforcement issue. There are a lot of things that police can work on instead of tagging or following people who smoke. I believe that this is an anti-business, anti-tourist initiative that we're passing here for our State. And I think that we have, in previous legislation, we have punished smokers a lot like increasing their taxes so we can fund our Medical School. If we eradicate smoking altogether in this State, Mr. Speaker, what shall we do with the Medical School? Thank you."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Very brief comments, Mr. Speaker in support of Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 664 and 665. I want to clarify the Health Chair's intent and some of our colleague's intent. The intent is definitely not to be disrespectful to smokers. They're our neighbors and our family members. They're my family members.

"The idea is this: that nicotine in cigarettes is very addictive. We were manipulated by 'Big Tobacco' for decades. They put our neighbors and our family in harm's way by giving us a product that is very addictive and now it's hard to quit. We don't want to be disrespectful, and I really do take to heart a lot of the testimony that was given to us, that people feel estranged from society because there's no place for them to go if they're smoking. The last thing we want to do is hurt our neighbors. But as we go forward, it's at least my inclination as a doctor, and as a person who feels strongly that I don't want my mother or my father to suffer from chronic lung disease or cancer when they've been subjected to an addictive chemical against their will with no proper disclosure, that we do have to fight back the big tobacco companies.

"We will find a way, I hope, to treat our neighbors who do smoke equitably. We'll try to be fair, we'll try to be balanced in our legislation, but we also have to be extremely careful and mindful that there be no access to cigarettes for our minors who, whether or not it's against the law, they get it. Whether or not it's against the law, they get targeted with ad campaigns and with the media and with movies. So we have to go that direction.

"We have to both be respectful and loving of the people who do smoke, but we also have to protect this generation and the next so that they don't have the same problem that we're seeing now which is severe chronic lung disease and just a lot of fatal cancers that are from tobacco. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, in strong support and I ask that the words of the Representative from the Big Island be entered as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"I just wanted to make three points. Number one, beaches are where a lot of children and families go, so you certainly don't want to put your children at risk of any secondhand smoke.

"Number two, to share experiences, Wailana Restaurant is a favorite. And Wailana Restaurant was very concerned when we first made the law that we would not allow smoking in places like where they have the karaoke there at the Wailana. I'll tell you something. If you talk to the manager today, they've got more people than they ever have had ever in that area now that it's smoke free.

"So I think that while there's respect for the rights of others, there's also the respect for health. And their point is we could invest in the wellness industry. Hawaii is a Health State. The wellness industry could be a really important part of the economy."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I'd like to register a no vote on Stand Com Report Nos. 664 and 665, and I would like to make one comment. Wailana may be doing well, but the karaoke in the Temple Valley Shopping Center is about to close down because of the smoking ban."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665 , stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support and not only because of the concerns I have about secondhand smoke, but another concern that now that I'm a grandmother and I take little children to the beach, stepping on a lighted cigarette butt is very painful and can produce a severe burn."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just to add two comments or implications on the discussion so far. One I would suggest is drawn from the fact that litter is concern. I would suggest the Water, Land, Ocean Resources and Hawaiian Affairs Committee look at stronger litter laws. Right now it's only a few bucks. If you litter on the beach, I think it would be easy to get the fines to a point where they're very serious about getting the butts off the beach.

"Number two, I think we're entering into an arena where we want give caution, but outlaw high risk behaviors. We've got a lot of high risk behaviors out there that are much worse than smoking. I won't elaborate on them, but I think we see them with bare heads on motorcycles that go by every day. We don't say 'Hey, you can't do that.' In fact, we know we're being charged thousands of dollars of taxpayers' money when there's a head injury. And there are other high risk behaviors of which when you're intimately involved with people, you are not outlawing that high risk behavior of which then you consequently suffer.

"So I think as we get on this slippery slope, once we the body of the people of the State of Hawaii set off as this Legislature, start saying 'You shall not do these kinds of behaviors.' We forget in the beginning and the origins of the land of the free and the home of the brave, that it was individual freedom that made us all escape the tyranny of government. And I think as we objectively and anecdotally consider each one of these behaviors, we're forgetting a bigger picture of who we are and what we belong to. Letting those other high risk behaviors go unnoticed makes us a bit absentminded in our judicial concerns here. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Awana rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her on both measures, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chang rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 665, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Bertram rose to respond, stating:

"Second time, just to clarify that we did take away the parks restrictions so it's just the beach. So they can still puff away and stop at the beach."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of both measures with reservations, stating:

"Just a vote with reservations, Mr. Speaker, and the words of the Representative from Hawaii Kai entered into the Journal as my own. And also the words of the Representative from Kona entered into the Journal as my own. I think they're both correct."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the reports of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"The purpose of this bill is to ensure parity in emergency health care for residents and visitors of the Haiku region of Maui by providing twenty-four-hour advanced life support ambulance service.

"The Haiku region of Maui is located at the northern tip of the island of Maui and lacks twenty-four-hour, locally-based, advanced life support ambulance service. The nearest ambulance service is located in Makawao, which is forty-five minutes away and the next closest is in Hana, a full ninety minutes away. Both wait times are unacceptably long and endanger the health of residents of the Haiku region of Maui.

"I urge my colleagues to please provide emergency services to our growing community that desperately needs this service now. Mahalo!"

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 672, I would like to vote with reservations and I would like to state my reservation. It's a bill relating to long-term care and asking for an appropriation for the Ombudsman and other members for the Long-term Care Committee. I would like to request that this funding that we're appropriating every day for all these programs and studies, that it be shifted to the direct care providers.

"In the newspaper yesterday, Mr. Speaker, and also in the Committee on Human Services, I have learned that we are now outsourcing the elderly. And the reason for that, Mr. Speaker, this is a matter that's very close to me, it's because we don't pay enough to the long-term care providers, the nursing homes, and the care homes. And we continue to battle whether we should pay for family care providers. But yet we pay hundreds of thousands of dollars for people to do oversight on the people that are willing to take care of them.

"The reason why we don't have nursing homes, Mr. Speaker, is because there's overregulation. The businesspeople that want to deal with this want to walk away from it. And last year we funded a raise for the care homes and the foster home. A one hundred dollar raise they received, when for the last twelve years that they did not get any increase. Mr. Speaker, we need to shift this funding to those people who want to turn those patients, clean them up, feed them, walk them, push their wheelchair. That's the people we should be paying. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 818, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LONG-TERM CARE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Magaoay's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of House Bill 831.

"Mr. Speaker, I believe that the passage of HB No. 831, HD1, will remove a stumbling block that prevents veteran burial grants from reaching those that need it the most.

"Filipino veterans of the New Filipino Scouts are entitled to receive burial grants from the Office of Veterans' Services. However, to qualify for these grants, the Filipino veteran's survivor or an interested party must produce an itemized paid invoice of the services rendered on the behalf of the deceased veteran. Due to the tremendous costs of funeral, burial and transportation services, some families and friends of these veterans cannot afford to pay the costs up front.

"The purpose of this bill is to remove this stumbling block by instead, requiring the submission of an itemized unpaid invoice. This measure would allow grants to be received by those who are in the most financial need, and not just those who can afford to front the costs. These veterans have served bravely for this great country, and it is only right that they receive these benefits.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I ask my colleagues to support me on this bill."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in the utmost support for this measure. This bill, in sum, would allow the State to assist the family members of the New Filipino Scouts so their loved one's remains can be sent back to the Philippines for interment.

"This small sum of money pales to the costs paid by these warriors in defense of our very own. I know there is a program to intern New Filipino Scouts at military burial places in the U.S. and designated ones abroad where they fell, but right now living Scouts who are close to passing will be unable to return to their homeland simply because of money. That is why it is important not to wait until next year as many of these brave New Filipino Scouts are passing every day and time is running out for us to do the right thing.

"I also want to thank Chair Evans personally, Mr. Speaker, for acting on this important piece of legislation before the deadline, as this bill is not only very important to my constituents whose family served the war, but also to me personally as both my father and my great uncle served in this worldwide struggle between good and evil. I also hope my colleagues on the Finance Committee will be able to secure the funding for this legislation and not let dollars and cents stand in the way of what is merely the right thing to do. For all their blood, sweat and sacrifice, the least we can do as a State and a nation is to be able to provide for proper services for them and their families."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 831, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO VETERAN BURIAL GRANTS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some serious concerns on the Kawai Nui Marsh bill. I will be voting in favor of it, but with some reservations.

"Mr. Speaker, this situation between the City and the State has been going on for, I think it's about like eighteen years. The Department of Land and Natural Resources traditionally takes care of our natural resources. The City and County put together the flood control project and the City and County is like the housekeeper. They are responsible for the flood control project, the maintenance of the canal area, and doing the typical maintenance work that they do throughout the Island of Oahu. They have tried to 'weasel out' of doing that job and have tried to say, 'Okay State, you take over everything.' The liability, the day to day maintenance, even though the State is not staffed to do that, and is not funded to do that. It's never been the State's role.

"The Committee Report mentions that the Department of Land and Natural Resources supported the bill with amendments. DLNR did not support the bill as written. So if anyone feels that they're on board with this, they aren't. The last time this happened, last year, you'll remember, Mr. Speaker, we were trying to get a bill through under the Chairmanship of the Chair Ezra Kanoho and we had it done properly. We did it so the State took care of the natural preserves. They would be able to do all of the project improvements with the federal funding that's out there waiting for this split to happen. The City was going to continue with its typical housekeeping maintenance work. Well, now this bill, all it does in the Committee Report it says that, 'Okay, Committee on Finance, please review the bill to ensure that it's clear that maintenance responsibility of the flood control project is to remain with the City and County of Honolulu.' But unfortunately, the language of the bill provides other than that.

"So we're putting together a bill that is going up to the Governor, if it goes in this shape, it's going to be vetoed. And we lose ultimately, we lose that federal funding. Kawai Nui Marsh is a Ramsar listed wetlands site of international significance. As long as we let the City out of its maintenance responsibility and its liability for the maintenance, the bill is going to be, or the proposed law, will be faulty. And it won't be signed by the Governor because it goes right against what the Department of Land and Natural Resources is saying. Don't let the City balk on this responsibility. And we as the State entity can make sure the City takes care of what it's supposed to do, what it does traditionally throughout the whole island, and let the State go back in to doing the wetland and natural resources work that it should do and can do with the federal funding.

"Unfortunately, look at the language of the bill. The newly added language that came out of this HD 1, parses on to the City and County of Honolulu as part of the Oneawa Canal Widening Project, shall also be vested in the State and fee simple. Well, no. That's precisely what cannot happen. So to make a claim on page 1 of the Committee Report that DLNR is fine. DLNR is not fine. And I think that the next Committee, and unfortunately it's not the subject matter committee, but I'm hoping that the next Committee will correct it and listen to the testimony of DLNR, make sure the State keeps the natural resources, makes sure the City and County takes care of its housekeeping responsibilities and its liability. Thank you."

Representative Chong rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Chong's written remarks are as follows:

Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of HB 1899, HD1, Relating to Kawai Nui Marsh.

"Mr. Speaker, for over 17 years the dispute between the State and the City has prevented the restoration of the Marsh. Now in the present both the Hannemann Administration and the Lingle Administration have continued this dispute. Although the prior speaker has said the City needs to meet their responsibility, Act 314, SLH 1990 clearly defines that the State is to take the entire Marsh. This makes sense in the long term since the restoration will affect the entire Marsh in the end. This bill seeks to provide a compromise that the State take all the land and the City continue to maintain the levy."

Representative Cabanilla's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure.

"I want to make my position clear to my colleagues and constituency that I am against taking any existing roads and turning them into a cash cow – tolling them after we already paid for them with our taxes. However, the bill permits the Governor by way of the Department of Transportation to embark upon doing just that. Does anyone here really believe this Administration or a future one would initiate a policy and practice that would take existing roads and make the end user pay another fee, additional tax, or toll to use that road?

"I do not believe that the Governor would initiate such a maneuver. It is for that reason, by leaving the option open for the Governor to consider tolling existing roads, that the language is in this bill. To alleviate the transportation crisis we are in, we must exercise the ability to include all options available and permit these options to be heard. Again, it would be the Governor's prerogative to toll existing roads, whereby such a decision would have to go through a scrutinizing process including public hearings and the like.

"I urge all of my colleagues to vote yes on this measure that is intended to permit our State to design and construct new roads with private financing. This may include utilizing the shoulder lane, or expanding it on a freeway or highway to accommodate a toll road lane as well as utilizing the medial strip, all of which fall under the term 'existing roadway.' Take away the term 'existing roadway,' and we lose out on these two options aforementioned. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, Hawaii has more than 6,000 people behind bars – with more than 1,900 serving their sentences abroad. It is estimated that there are around 6,665 children who have parents incarcerated within our system. Research shows that children who have incarcerated parents suffer strong emotional reactions and are up to six times more likely to become a part of the criminal justice system themselves.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill seeks to help reduce those numbers. This program supports the expansion of parent-child interaction programs such as the SKIP program, at other State correctional facilities to facilitate appropriate child visitation of incarcerated parents. These programs strengthen family relationships and have a positive effect on preventing recidivism. Mr. Speaker, in the words of one of the testifiers who is with the Makua Keiki Program:

"This program is such a valuable and important resource for families of incarcerated parents. It gives them hope and an opportunity to become functioning, loving, nurturing fathers, mothers and/or parents. It empowers people and families who are at rock bottom and believe the only alternative left to them is hurt and pain and to lash out at others. It is a lifeline, to better, secure, loving relationships. It empowers families and communities, and society."

"I urge all of my colleagues to vote in favor of this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, current community based programs are less costly and more effective than incarceration and are a better solution to prison over-crowding for women offenders than sending prisoners to mainland prisons. Nevertheless, the current gender-responsive community based programs for women and girls in the State are inadequate. This bill appropriates funds to the Department of Public Safety and the Office of Youth Services for the expansion of gender-responsive community based programs for women and girls.

"Mr. Speaker, incarcerating women and girls in environments that are designed primarily for men and boys without appropriate programming to address their needs has resulted in recidivism caused primarily by parole violations and minor offenses. Women and girls need comprehensive reentry services and community wrap-around services with case management services. Effective programs link substance abuse, criminal justice, public health, housing, and employment services.

"I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this measure. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I rise in support of this measure with a few brief comments. This bill continues to be a work in progress as one measure to address the affordable housing and affordable rental crisis facing all working families in this State. As amended, this bill strikes a balance between expediting the entitlement process for developers and protecting our limited and precious natural resources. I commend the Chair of the Committee on Human Services and Housing for her work at achieving this balance. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Berg rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do also commend the Chair of this Committee. I rise in support with strong reservations. I commend the Committee, actually, for moving forward with this issue. My concerns have to do with the fact that both the City and County of Honolulu and the County of Maui rose in opposition of this and it appears as if we are encouraging them to do something they don't want to do, and perhaps we can do it through Resolution. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of this measure. This House Draft is a culmination of a vast amount of input from stakeholders. Over the past few weeks a series of meetings was conducted with developers, Committee members, homeless people, the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation and fellow legislators prior to and during the crafting of the draft. All participants, as well as your Committee recognize and emphasize that we are in a housing crisis. However, we should exercise caution and not act hastily in our attempt to solve our housing problem.

"There are certain principles that we as a community should still uphold: protecting the environment, maintaining rural areas and executing our duty as trustees while maintaining the integrity of the ceded lands system. The challenge facing your Committee on Human Services and Housing was how to balance these principles with the need for an expedited permitting process as proposed by the original version of the bill, while providing and adequate amount of incentives to developers to meet our ultimate goal of providing housing to our low-income and work force families.

"In response, your Committee proposes a number of things. And in response to some of the earlier issues, we did require counties of populations greater than 500,000 to create expedited permitting processes and we give the option to those with less. So basically, giving the option to those Neighbor Islands to participate. And Mr. Speaker, I have many other comments I'd like to submit in writing, but I do want to commend all those that have helped to make this bill what it is today. Thank you."

Representative Shimabukuro's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of House Bill 1001, House Draft 1.

"This House Draft is the culmination of a vast amount of input from stakeholders. Over the past two weeks, a series of meetings was conducted with developers, community members, homeless people, the Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation, and fellow legislators prior to and during the crafting of this draft. All participants, as well as your Committee, recognize -- and emphasizes -- that we are in a housing crisis. However, we should exercise caution and not act hastily in our attempt to solve our housing problem.

"There are certain principles that we as a community should still uphold: protecting our environment, maintaining our rural areas, and executing our duty as trustees by maintaining the integrity of the ceded lands system.

"The challenge facing your Committee on Human Services and Housing was how to balance these principles with the need for an expedited permitting process, as proposed by the original version of this bill, while providing an adequate amount of incentives to developers in order to meet our ultimate goal of providing housing to our low-income and workforce families. In response, your Committee proposes the following:

1) Requiring counties with populations greater than 500,000 to create an expedited permitting process that could potentially run in totality, from application to shovel, a total of one-year and ninety days. HHFDC could be engaged by the developer as a back-up authority in order to help process applications that the county does not expedite.

2) Focus on the segment of the population that earns 140% of the average median income and below for homeownership, and 80% of the average median income and below for rentals;

3) Allow leases for state-non-ceded-urban classified lands within the county development boundaries to promote infill, protect our rural communities and preserve ceded lands;

4) Create opportunities for mixed-use rentals by adopting a quota requirement with a sliding-scale, as similar to the requirements employed currently by the County of Hawaii;

5) Maintain compliance with certain environmental protection statutes, like chapters 343, 195D and 205A, while waving others. Compliance with our cultural resources statute is also required;

6) Create a county infrastructure capacity construction loan fund to aid counties in expanding and upgrading infrastructure. This fund will help facilitate the expansion needed to support new affordable housing within urban areas;

7) Provide tax credits to those who invest in low-income areas; and

8) Emphasize collaboration on executing this process and acceptance of dedicated infrastructure. Memoranda of Agreement between the State and counties would help facilitate this working relationship.

"Your Chair recognizes that this House Draft is a good start, but much work remains to be done as affordable housing is a multifarious issue. I urge my fellow members to support this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I too commend the Chair of Human Services and Housing on working on this measure. It's a very difficult measure, a very complicated bill, but she's done outstanding work. We had a number of testifiers, both not only from the State but from the City and County, the counties throughout the islands, all of our State.

"Mr. Speaker, I think we have to give this bill a chance. We can always take a look at it in Finance and if it goes on, we can finish it up in Conference. But I would like to have the comments by the previous speakers be also placed in the Journal as if they were own. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to rise in support. And when we first started working on this bill, I had some strong reservations, but I do commend the Chair of the Committee because she tried her best. And her heart, and the heart of the Committee was in the right place, trying to get the homes to the people as soon as we possibly could. I would like to say, that as a member of the great Finance Committee, we will deal with it there. So I know that a lot of great input from that that great Committee will be dealt with on that issue."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. Testifier after testifier after testifier said the affordable housing system is broken. The housing system is broken. We got this notion of a broken trust, broken system, broken relationships between environmentalists, between developers, between the State, between the counties. It was all broken. This is a way to try it out. It's not a guarantee. And as the previous speaker said, we're going to pay homage to the Finance Committee.

"I wanted to mention that in the discussion within the Housing Committee, there was a proposal to sweeten the incentives to the counties by giving a percentage of the TAT tax, to increase it, so we can engage in this because we need twenty to thirty thousand affordable housing units, because right now at our best speed and with our biggest muscles we're only doing two thousand. So we've got to do something and this is a good beginning and the Chair should be commended. Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It sounds like a lot of work has been done. I'm in support, but with slight reservations. Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations. Looking at this bill, it appears that we're strengthening sentencing for criminal trespass to criminal trespass in the second degree. We're expanding it, so I want to add that we've not put in an appropriation language or an impact study on how it's going to impact our correctional facilities."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. We did in fact increase the penalties for trespassing in public housing projects and for my own district, which includes Mayor Wright Housing, this is a serious problem. This is a compromise solution from what the original bill was. We think that raising the penalty from a violation to a petty misdemeanor is justified under the circumstances and I hope everyone will support it. Mahalo."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Rhoads be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. We are facing, as they've been talking about in other issues, a crisis in our healthcare system. And one of the main problems of this crisis has been a real impediment to private investment in our healthcare system and the CON process has been one of the biggest impediments to that. I know there have been other efforts in previous years to try to address the CON process and they've been unsuccessful.

"So we're really looking forward to this year, actually being able to do something about this so that we can bring private investment into our healthcare system, and so we can actually get some results because the State is too small. The State can't do it alone. And we really have to look at ways that we could get private investment to be helpful in this. Right now we're saying, 'no'. So be it reforming the CON process, not only can we say for the rest of the State, 'yes' to private investment, but perhaps maybe, hopefully, prayerfully, we'll be able to get a hospital on Maui, as we are the only island in the State to have only one. We really need to do something today, this Session, to make sure that we can get our second hospital while the $250 million is on the table to see something happen on our island."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Pine rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"As a general principle, the more we know, the more capable we are to make good decisions. This bill mandates that sexual health educators who receive State funding teach not only abstinence, but also contraception. This comprehensive education will promote healthy behaviors as well as encourage optimal protection from STDs and unintended pregnancies.

"Student sexual behavior statistics allow us to see the dreadful reality of cause for concern: Testimony provides that nearly two-thirds of all high school seniors in the U.S. have had sexual intercourse; each year, approximately 9.1 million 15 to 24 year olds are infected with STDs; and The Centers for Disease Control & Prevention estimate that one-half of all new HIV infections occur among people under age 25, with the majority contracted through sexual intercourse.

"In addition, most parents believe that sex education should encourage young people to delay sexual activity and prepare them to use birth control and practice safe sex once they do become sexually active, according to interviews conducted for the Kaiser Family Foundation 2000.

"It would also be important to note that with the amendment on page 2, those who receive federal funding for abstinence only education will be exempt from this bill.

"I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, is there anything between a no vote and with reservations? Probably not. Mr. Speaker, this bill raises the bar for intellectual honesty in a very small area of which I think we're hypocritical to pass it. With the Committee and the way the bill language reads because much of data is in the eyes of the beholder and the user, when somebody disagrees with people who don't testify and the way that they agree with, this kind of data comes out. And usually democracy is self-correcting and data comes out, but I think the way that we pass bills, we don't have enough information. We don't have enough scientific spin to the things that we do.

"If we pass it, I would hope that we could raise the bar for all of the other things that we pass when we have a lack of information, or someone who has a particular bent towards a particular bill and by their personal persuasion allows others to agree with it. This one says we are going to be scientifically astute and I just don't think that is a truism, nor a bar that we as a body can live up to. So I have very serious reservations."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With all due respect to the speaker from Hawaii Kai, science is a discrete phenomenon. We use science, particularly in the area of health to guide us on best practices so that we make our people safest. I really don't know what he's talking about as far as, 'in the eye of the beholder' when we talk about science, in that what HB No. 464 endeavors to do is to really meet both parties halfway. To neither deny people their right to do sexual health education. If they're religious organization, if they want to focus from their perspective on abstinence, this would not repeal funding from those groups. And on the other hand, we do encourage, in this case, that resources be put in the system based on evidence-based medicine. If we ban evidence-based medicine, Mr. Speaker, we really will need to dissolve the Health Committee. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose in opposition to the measure, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Finnegan's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill. As a mother who is keenly aware of my responsibility as a parent to prepare my children to make good life choices, I also realize that 'good choices' depends on the values that you keep.

"This bill requires those receiving State funding that provide sexual health education to provide medically accurate, factual information that is age-appropriate and includes education on both abstinence and contraception unless it would jeopardize federal funding for the recipient.

"In my opinion sex education should be handled in a delicate and loving way that teaches the values that I would like my children to uphold. I don't expect all parents to believe the way I do. If I find an organization that has the same values as I do, that organization should have the ability to receive State funding. I believe that is appropriate and as a taxpaying citizen those options should also be supported. This bill will stop organizations that believe in abstinence only sex education from receiving State funding. Mr. Speaker, I would like to see us support sex education that includes abstinence only or abstinence/contraception.

"I am also concerned what will be deemed medically accurate, factual information and age appropriate material. Bottom line Mr. Speaker is that we should not penalize organizations from receiving State funding should they choose to teach abstinence-only sex education or penalize the families that choose to send their children there. Thank you."

referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 720, with reservations. The part of the bill that I have reservations on is the development of the pilot program at the University of Hawaii. This is for intervention, if someone comes into a hospital and it appears they have problems with drug abuse or alcohol abuse.

"I like the part of the bill that says it's telling physicians to offer screening and counseling. I believe that is appropriate. But actually intervention, I disagree with. I believe that if someone wants to change their drug or alcohol habit, they will ask for help. I don't believe that it's appropriate that we pay for this intervention program."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Standing in strong support and I'll insert written comments. But this is a very important bill and I think it follows up on the work we've done in preventing addiction. It gets people when they're starting and not when they're ending."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure.

"Mr. Speaker, we know that the abuse of alcohol and drugs in our State is too high. We also know that screening, counseling and referral for those who are abusing are effective techniques in reducing such abuse. It is important then that we help reduce the abuse rate by ensuring that a referral to appropriate alcohol and drug abuse screening and counseling is offered to a patient when an examining physician in a primary care or emergency room setting has good reason to suspect substance abuse by the patient.

"Mr. Speaker, this bill does just this. By investing in treatment we will reduce our incarceration rate and therefore reduce the cost to the State in the long-term. I urge my colleagues to support this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 367, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUBSTANCE ABUSE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1764, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative B. Oshiro rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a ruling on a potential conflict of interest. HHSC is one my clients, but I only advise them on procurement matters," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Green rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, same request please. If you could rule on a potential conflict of interest. I do contract work as a practicing emergency physician at HHSC," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Mizuno rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I ask for the same ruling. I have a spouse that works part-time as a healthcare worker at HHSC," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1764, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ISSUANCE OF REVENUE BONDS TO ASSIST HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION OR ANY OF ITS REGIONAL SUBSIDIARY CORPORATIONS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Green, for the Committee on Health presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 722) recommending that H.B. No. 1828, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1828, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I'm sorry Mr. Speaker. Very briefly. Although I don't expect a lot of attention in opposition on this measure. I just wanted to mention that I'm in strong support. The economic impact of this bill is estimated to be $15,000 per year possibly. So it's very, very, very, very manini considering our budget of billions, but the goal of this bill is to provide some people cost reimbursement if they go and are part of the organ donation system.

"If they're going to get tests, if they have to fly to another island to get their tests and ultimately give a kidney or donate blood products that are special for people that might need bone marrow transplants. It almost doesn't rise to the level of a bill because it's such a small amount of money and so few people. The people that do provide organ donation to other people who are suffering are truly wonderful people and are so giving that I think that it's a good thing for us to pass. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1828, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 231, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 723, I have some reservations on this. I like the direction this is going in, where this bill would exempt healthcare providers from paying the excise tax, but it seems to be limited only to the county surcharge, so that would be half a percent. Perhaps maybe the title makes it so they can't do anything different, but that seems like a small amount of relief for healthcare. What we'd really like to see is all the excise tax taken off of those providers. Thank you."

Representative Green rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. With reference to the previous speaker, some very, very nice Republicans came to me and asked me to submit this bill which I do support, which is exempting them from the general excise tax county surcharge. I think the premise is that the general excise tax issue on healthcare is a big issue, but they wanted to make the statement that paying some of the extra tax from healthcare for rail didn't resonate with them. And that was, I thought, a reasonable position. So I supported some of my Republican friends and put this bill in."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 231, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EXCISE TAX ON HEALTH CARE," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1465, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Finance, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Herkes rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support for HB No. 1465, HD 1 with some very serious concerns. My concern is that the State Department of Health doesn't seem to understand healthcare. What this bill calls for is two 40-foot completely equipped medical vans that will give these very remote areas a level of urgent care. And they will be used as clinics during the day and can be driven to emergencies when and if they occur. These vans are $350,000 each. As my colleague from Kona says, that's about the cost to paint one of our hospitals.

"We have to start thinking less about hospitals and more about these kinds of mobile vans that we can use in rural areas. The bill just before this, where they're asking for a million five for emergency medical services for Mililani, we could put four of these vans there.

"I live 30 miles from a hospital. If you look at the area between Pahala and Nalehu, and if you want to get to Ka'u Hospital where my colleague from Kona does emergency work, and you have flooding in Kawa Flats, then you've got not access at all to that hospital, and that flooding occurs all the time. Then you're 60 miles away from the nearest hospital. And we just have to start thinking about less about hospitals and more about these mobile services. And when the Department of Health says that these emergency vans are no better than ambulances, I really wonder about their capability. We have a dental clinical van on the Big Island that goes around the island, provides valuable service.

"I just hope that this bill can move on and that the Department of Health will take a good hard look at these rural areas there that we're talking about that's bigger than Oahu. There is no Department of Health facility there. That just increases my concern. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1465, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

No. 1534, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR COVERAGE OF CERTIFIED SUBSTANCE ABUSE COUNSELORS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance with Representatives Takai, Takamine and Takumi being excused.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 71, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Cabanilla rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I rise with reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 729. This bill has something to do with nurse aides and putting more requirements for them for any Medicare or Medicaid programs. These are your small nursing homes and foster homes. As I mentioned in my previous speech, Mr. Speaker, we should be heading in a direction that is more friendly and more favorable to these types of providers.

"It is despicable, Mr. Speaker, that we are sending our kupunas to the mainland. And we are doing that because of regulations such as this which makes it very difficult for them to survive. Putting more regulations and oversight on this programs will cost them more money because now they have to have more qualifications and they have to be paid more for those substitute care providers in those care homes and nursing homes, Mr. Speaker. I want them to be paid more, but I don't want too much encumbrance for them to be hired and to work in this facilities.

"These are our unsung heroes, Mr. Speaker. And we should be yielding in favor of them. The people that came and testified for this were the Hawaii Coalition of Care Home Administrators and also DCCA. We need to move away from this type of oversight, Mr. Speaker." Thank you.

"The headlines in the paper this morning should really make us think about how we can encourage our family caregivers to take their loved ones back into their homes. But we need to help them. And Kupuna Care Services is one way we can help caregivers help keep their loved ones at home."

"Mr. Speaker, I ask for a ruling on a potential conflict. Again the same thing, I advise HHSC," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in strong support of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 733. I was not quite aware of when it was coming forward and I commend Representative Nakasone for putting this forward. As you know, as I've spoken before about Maunalani and our real effort right now to create a health system, or health system for Maui which would include Maui Memorial. This will make it a stronger entity to deal with Maulalani and in creating something for Lahaina as well. So I strongly support this."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of the measure before us. This bill will serve as an important tool to help us achieve a victory in the health crisis in Maui and maybe act as a model for the State as a whole. Long this Session, you've heard of my plea on behalf of my community to establish a small footprint hospital in West Maui. Contrary to the rumoring and vicious naysayer in the 'we hate Maui Memorial and want to destroy it all costs' crowd, this emergent/emergency care facility – which is being done by a private firm – needs an independent Maui Memorial if it is to flourish.

"Contrary to popular belief by these very same few, I wholeheartedly support the quest of Kihei for a second hospital, but it must be made clear, not at the expense of one for West Maui. I firmly believe that Malulani or a derivates thereof, can serve the needs of the Kihei community AND Mr. Speaker, co-exist if they work with Maui Memorial instead of against it.

"This bill is necessary so that Maui Memorial can compete and improve and be both an active player in the future of Maui healthcare services and provide a greater long term care bed and specialty care. This will allow Malulani to pursue other agreed upon services and acute care beds for South Maui.

"Unfortunately Maui Memorial's hand are tied when it comes to being able to address the problems of rural care in Maui County and to work with other entities in both West Maui and South Maui. Under the current scheme, they cannot participate as an equal partner in state-of-the-art healthcare delivery for us in West Maui or in South Maui and will be unable to keep up with the demands of modern medicine. I hope this body, for the sake of true integrated healthcare delivery system in Maui, can support this important bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Carroll rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Carroll's written remarks are as follows:

"This bill establishes Aha Moku Commission to assist in the formation regional Aha Moku Councils which shall serve in an advisory capacity on all matters regarding the management of the State's natural resources. It requires the Department of Land and Natural Resources to seek advisory assistance from the Aha Moku Councils in developing a comprehensive set of best practices for natural resource management. (H.B. 1948 H.D. 1)

"DLNR supports the intent of this measure but has concerns over how both the Commission and the Councils will be structured, and how council members will be selected. The Department also has concerns over the range of authorities granted to these councils.

"DLNR feels that there is no guarantee that selection of Commission member would be transparent or inclusive.

"The DLNR feels that "such a poorly designed mission is inappropriate for a cabinet level entity. The Department considers such as lack of detail to be a serious flaw in the bill.

"The DLNR feels that based on these concerns, they feel that this bill would instead be best served in the form of a native Hawaiian advisory group, as proposed in H.B. 1788. The Department welcomes an advisory body to make recommendation concerning Native Hawaiian matters.

"OHA supports the bill with amendments. They feel that "Native Hawaiian natural and cultural resource management skills, methods and abilities must be incorporated into the State's resource management plans."

"OHA feels that the "environment must survive with the culture and vice versa."

"OHA stated, "their only concerns lie with the possible creation of a too-burdensome bureaucratic layer that may so delay the management process of Hawaii's natural and cultural resource that could border on being irresponsible."

"OHA supports the intent of the bill but feels that the language is too broad."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker I rise in the strongest support possible. This bill is a ground breaking measure that not only will it preserve and protect the cultural practices endemic to Hawaii and help to create educational knowledge of the ancient Native Hawaiian ways to our keiki, it would also provide a level of accountability over State government that has been needed far too long.

"I will tell you what this bill is not, Mr. Speaker, and that is sovereignty. What this bill is Mr. Speaker, is a system of community participation that all local people can be involved with, regardless of their background. The Mokus would be a way for agencies who draft rules and regs in high rises in Honolulu to ensure that the community is heard when it comes to the impacts on Native Hawaiian, and by extension, local practices in the areas of fishing, gathering and so on. These councils would operate on very little money, but it offers us a way to pay a big debt in a monumental way that will help to provide redress through the empowerment of the citizenry and not to another agency or group.

"The Mokus have already shown fruit as talks between our kapuna and the Department of Education in the quest of this bill have yielded a commitment to the adoption of education on the ways, practices and arts of the ancient Hawaiian people. In fact Mr. Speaker, I dare say that if the Moku system had been in place this summer, we wouldn't be having all this pilikia with the gill nets and DLNR.

"This is a good bill Mr. Speaker, and one that should also have an intangible return in helping to build bridges between all of us and our host culture through orderly empowerment of the average 'braddah'."

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support as well."

Representative Awana rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support."

As originally drafted, this bill would have adopted a comprehensive public funding system for election campaigns for us, the State House of Representatives. STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Representative Ito, for the Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 758) recommending that H.B. No. 718, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 718, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Waters.

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. I believe the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy Program can serve as a cutting edge model for this project in our community. Also it will assist with aquatic resource management for the Department of Land and Natural Resources. The Department also stands in support of this. I have the documentation in my hand. And it also allows us to bring out Kewalo Basin's unique cultural and historical significance in depicting our evolution in Hawaii's fisheries. Thank you."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Can I have the words of the speaker from Waikiki be placed in the Journal as if they were my own, in support?" and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Mizuno continued, stating:

"In addition, I just wanted to touch on a couple more highlights regarding this measure. This measure will ensure that our keiki have access to fishing opportunities and it also provides them with an educational program as well. The groups are limited to no more than ten. It's also important to note that they will also be available to the disabled and the kupuna. And I really feel that without this program, they wouldn't have an opportunity to experience fishing.

"Furthermore the group also participates in a tag and release program. And finally, this has a strong family component with it. If a parent or parents do not know how to fish, this program will teach both the parents or the parent how to fish, and the next day they'll bring their kids back. And they'll be able to teach their kids how to fish. So for the foregoing reasons I stand in strong support of this measure."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. And I ask that the words of the Representatives from Kalihi and Waikiki be incorporated as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ching continued, stating:

"I've been to fishing expeditions with the students of my district and I can attest to the positive results when children are allowed to get out in the wild. I hope that this has some sort of an impact on crime. So with that, I ask for additional written comments," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I stand in strong support of H.B. 718 – Relating to Kakaako, which would require the Hawaii Community Development Authority to set aside TMK: 2-1-58:41 in Kakaako for use by the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy and to develop a new facility at this site.

"This bill supports a program that is wholesome and profoundly affects our children in a positive manner. Early indoctrination and familiarization of Hawaii's youth to practice sound ocean resource use and conservation measures are the cornerstones toward ensuring sustainable ocean resources for them and the generations to follow. This site will provide a valuable avenue by which our children and grandchildren would be able to experience the privilege and enjoyment of their ancestors in fishing when this island was still developing.

"The efforts of the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy to educate the children of Hawaii through the promotion of good stewardship of our ocean resources including the perpetuation of Hawaiian cultural traditions are commendable. Children benefit in so many different ways by the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy program. They learn a skill which will give them pleasure and enjoyment all their lives. They learn about the need to conserve the fish population and to study the habits of the fish they catch by tagging. They learn principles of the Hawaiian culture. This program re-connects Hawaii keiki to the aina.

"Efforts to preserve and contain these very unique marine ecosystems by programs such as the Kewalo Fishing Conservancy must be given the full support of our community. To ensure the continuation of this valuable educational and youth development program, it is imperative to have the Hawaii Community Development Authority to set aside the approximately 15,000 square feet of Kewalo Basin Cove for continued use by the Kewalo Keiki Fishing Conservancy. Complementing this, the Hawaii Community Development Authority must also proceed with the necessary environmental remediation at the site using existing funds for that purpose. This requires the cooperation of DLNR among other responsible parties. Provided the site is fully cleaned and will exceed the highest environmental standards ensuring the safety of all who use this site, HB 718 has my support."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm in support of the idea, but with some strong reservations. The State created HCDA to create a comprehensive plan for redeveloping the Kakaako and Kewalo area and it seems that every time they come up with an idea, this body slams it down. We're looking at extremely valuable property there. In recent days the newspapers covered the fact that HCDA is going to take over the management of Kewalo Basin and they plan to raise the fees for all the commercial boating enterprises there, double. There's no question that this harbor needs improvement, but it's all going to fall on this fairly small community of commercial fishermen.

"This area that the Kewalo Keiki Fishing folks want is the old ice house. It is waterfront. I think that we've had, HCDA has had numerous, different businesses, offer ideas of promenades, shops, restaurants, various things. It's extremely valuable property and I don't know why we ever created the HCDA if every time they come up with something, put it out to bid, businesses spend hundreds of thousands of dollars coming up with renderings, drawings of their ideas, and we in this Chamber shoot it down. I think this is moving in that direction again. We'll have a lot of spotty development. It just doesn't seem like the wisest thing to do. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, one of my fondest father-daughter activities is fishing. Neither of us are very good except I know that this area has actual fish in it so we can catch fish. In regards to the HCDA and some of the doubts of the previous speaker, I think this is something where the keiki have less activities than they might otherwise have. We have no other place for fishing that's specifically for teaching and for bringing the whole family together. So I think this is a good measure."

Representative Meyer rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't think I'm going to convince anybody in this Chamber, but my son fished in Kewalo Basin off the various piers, caught fish, spent hours down there. I was always amazed at the fish that he caught. It's not as though we don't have miles and miles of shoreline where fishing can take place. And again, I just go back to the fact that we are talking about a very valuable, expensive property. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 718, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAKAAKO," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Awana, Bertram, Caldwell, Karamatsu, Shimabukuro, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Chang, for the Committee on Higher Education presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 759) recommending that H.B. No. 135, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 135, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Waters.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. This bill establishes the Candidate Advisory Council to screen and propose candidates for appointment to the Board of Regents of the University of Hawaii. And my concerns come from some of the testimony. Basically, an advisory council or a screening committee should not be composed of a collection of special interest representatives. Rather, it should be composed of members who have the best interest of the University as a whole in mind and are beholden to no special interest.

"Advisory councils such as the one that is proposed in this bill are strongly opposed by the Association of Governing Boards, the only national organization focused on governance and citizen trusteeship at institutions of higher education in the country. Richard Legon, the president of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges submitted testimony on this stating, "Governing boards should not have designated slots because public citizen trustees should be comprised of outstanding citizens who are independent in their individual and collective judgment. They should be there to serve the people of the state, not segments of the state or special interests." It follows that, "An advisory council or screening committee should not be composed of a collection of special interest representatives, notwithstanding the necessity of these representatives' voices and actions in other important affairs."

"Also, Barbara, I think it's Beno, president of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, which oversees the accreditation process for the seven community colleges in the University of Hawaii system, has expressed reservations about the proposed advisory board stating, "A constituency based advisory body could contribute to the politicization of governance at the UH." Thank you."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. First, I'd like to commend the Chair of Higher Education Committee for doing such a great job on this particular measure. Mr. Speaker, as you recall, the voters of this State in the last election approved the constitutional amendment that establishes what we call now the candidate advisory council for the Board of Regents at the University of Hawaii. And I have some concerns regarding what the previous speaker has spoken about, mainly because the current process before the adoption of the constitutional amendment allowed for the Governor to pick every single one of the twelve members of the Board of Regents. That to me is more political than anything else. I think this process which is prescribed by House Bill 135, HD 1, proposes to involve a whole slew of different constituencies to recommend to the Governor to make the best choices for the Board of Regents. I think this is by far, a step in the right direction.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, if Members take a look at this entire bill, you'd be extremely pleased to note the expansion of the Board in terms of representation of geographical areas of the State, an expansion of the terms from four years to five years, and a few other things. I think that every Member of this House and hopefully the Senate should embrace this because the voters of this state demanded it. Thank you."

Representative Finnegan rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to clarify that you know, I'm not saying to go back to the Governor appointing all the members of the Board of Regents. That's not something that needs to be decided here and now. What needs to be decided is how we select that candidate selection panel. And that is not comparing how it used to be, but how can we make it the best possible process in order to govern our University. And so as we look at it, we still have quite a bit of time in this Session and we need to look at some of these people who deal with this type of issue, and learn from some of the mistakes that other states have made. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a vote with reservations and written comments, please. I'm in full support of an excellent University."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, I stand with reservations. I support the intent of H.B. 135 that would establish a Candidate Advisory Council to screen and propose candidates for appointment to the Board of Regents.

"Dr. Barbara Beno, President of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, which oversees the accreditation process for the seven community colleges in the UH System, expresses concern over the implications of this legislation. Echoing her statements, "a constituency-based advisory body could contribute to the politicization of governance at the University of Hawai`i." While well intended, H.B. 135 in its current form creates more politics in the Regents selection process."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. Just very briefly. I want to counter some of the comments made by the Minority Leader when she called some of these members, 'special interests'. You know, I think that's a mischaracterization that we often throw around in this body. Everybody has an interest and really, is it something you consider special to you? Then I guess it is a special interest. But beyond that I don't think we should necessarily be saying that those interests that the people represent are somehow biased, or actually should be mischaracterized as something negative.

"When you look at the bill on page 5 and 6, the membership of the Council is actually people I would want to have on there anyway to hear from. Specifically it's the faculty, the students, the alumni association. I don't see why we wouldn't want to have those people involved in the overall process. Now there is one member from each Chamber, as well as one from the Governor. But I think as we stated before, we want to make sure that there is some accountability, and that's why we make sure that there's some political appointments. But beyond that the rest of the membership, I don't think is special interest. Thank you very much."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I would like to register a vote with reservations. I note that the way the Regents were selected for many, many decades in this State was that the Governor appointed them. That's how the majority of states across the country do it. And they prefer that over this Council."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 135, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar

Representative B. Oshiro moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1287, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Waters.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 764 with a technical point. I'm in support, but it was a misunderstanding in the Finance Committee. I think the way it's written here, there's a misunderstanding, because House Bill 1287 is not to eliminate escheatment. It's to eliminate permanent escheatment.

"One of the testifiers came in and said "Oh, you mean the State's going to take away the money." Well, in the old system it did after five years. This one says, as long as you haven't claimed your property, it's always going to be available to you. So it's not eliminating escheatment. It's eliminating permanent escheatment. Which means that any time a citizen wants to claim their property, they can do it and the State of Hawaii will relinquish it. So it's a very good bill, but it's improperly written here. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1287, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO UNCLAIMED PROPERTY," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Awana, Bertram, Caldwell, Karamatsu, Shimabukuro, Thielen and Tokioka being excused.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. This bill would allow the Board of Water Supply to issue bonds without oversight by the City Council, giving the Board of Water Supply almost complete autonomy. I saw that Council Chair Barbara Marshall was not in favor of this. I just would question whether this is the way this should go. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

RECEIVED
2007 FEB 16 P 5:51
SPEAKER'S OFFICE

16 February 2007

Dear Mr. Speaker:

This is to inform you that we believe the passage of HB 416 "Relating to Airports" violated the Rules of the House of Representatives and is therefore invalid.

Rule 11.5.(1) of the Rules of the House of Representatives states:

> Meetings, including decision-making sessions, of standing committees shall be public Notice shall be publicly posted or announced on the House floor at least forty-eight hours prior to the meeting. Notice of meetings may be shortened at the discretion of the Speaker upon request on the House floor by a chair or vice-chair and upon good cause shown.

The advancement of HB 416 violated the express requirements of Rule 11.5.(1). The Committee on Water, Land, Ocean Resources & Hawaiian Affairs (WLH) heard HB 416 on February 12, 2007, but deferred decision-making to an unspecified date. At the close of the floor session on February 15, the Vice Chair of the WLH Committee requested a waiver of the 48-hour advance notice requirement to allow the WLH Committee to hold a decision-making session on February 16 at 9:00 a.m. The Vice Chair did not explain why a waiver was necessary. The Speaker granted the request.

We believe the House violated Rule 11.5.(1) when it approved the waiver because the Vice Chair made no showing of good cause that justified the waiver, and the Speaker did not request such a showing. The Sierra Club is not aware of any good cause justifying the waiver. The committee referral for HB 416 is TRN, WLH. It was not necessary to expedite a decision-making session on February 16 because the deadline for WLH to act is March 2.

In light of this violation, we request that the House take immediate action to re-commit HB 416. Otherwise, the Sierra Club will have no recourse but to consider challenging the validity of HB 416.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeff Mikulina

"I was pleased when I learned that the Hawaii Federation of Junior Young Buddhist Association was working on a peace resolution. Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this legislation which officially recognizes the Asian or Lunar New Year.

"This is very similar to HB 941, which I submitted, officially recognizing the Asian New Year, calling for an observance, but not a holiday.

"The Asian New Year, known in China as the Spring Festival, or the Lunar New Year, is the most important of the traditional Eastern holidays. The festival proper begins on the first day of the first lunar month in the Chinese calendar and ends on the15th day, on the Lantern Festival. The beginnings of the Chinese calendar date back thousands of years.

"The New Year falls on different dates each year, between January 21 and February 20, occurring at the time of the full moon. The New Year is celebrated worldwide in areas with large populations of Asians. It is considered a major holiday in Asia by ethnic groups strongly influenced by Chinese culture such as Koreans, Hmong, Mongolians, Vietnamese, Tibetans, the Nepalese and the Bhutanese. The New Year is also the time of the largest human migration, when overseas Chinese all around the world travel home to observe the occasion with their families.

"According to legend, in ancient China, the nian, a man-eating beast from the mountains, could silently infiltrate houses to prey on humans. The people believed that the nian was sensitive to loud noises and the color red, so they scared it away with explosions, fireworks and the liberal use of the color red. These customs led to the first New Year's celebrations.

"I believe that the desire is strong among Hawaii's population for recognition of the Lunar New Year. Among those supporting this recognition are Dr. Chuck Yim Gee, Dean Emeritus of the School of Travel Industry Management at the University, Lily and Larry Chang of the Chinese Community Broadcasting Co., Karl Kao of the World Journal Newspaper, Joseph Chow of the Sing Tao Newspaper, Johnson Choi, President of the Hong Kong-China-Hawaii Chamber of Commerce, and many others too numerous to mention.

"Because of the prominence of Hawaii's Chinese population and the emphasis on promoting tourism from China, several other legislators also introduced bills to establish a Chinese Lunar New Year Day or Week observance. These are: Senate Bill No. 247 establishing the Asian Lunar New Year Commemoration Week, House Bill No. 941, recognizing the Asian Lunar New Year Day, and House Bill No. 1103, a companion measure to SB 247, establishing the Asian Lunar New Year Commemoration Week.

"I am gratified that this bill will accomplish that goal, and I give it my full support."

Representative Ching rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 1103 - Relating to Asian Lunar New Year Commemoration.

"There are many countries that observe the Asian Lunar New Year. These countries – China, including Taiwan and Hong Kong, Vietnam and Thailand – are becoming important markets for Hawaii's products and services. Having an official observance of the Asian Lunar New Year could work in our favor as we establish and solidify relationships with these countries.

"Because we are a multi-cultural community, Hawaii embraces many different ethnic celebrations. Chinese New Year has become a part of our island tradition. One just has to go to Chinatown on the Friday night before Chinese New Year to witness its popularity. Thousands of people are crammed on Maunakea Street to watch the lion dance and spread its good luck amongst the many merchants and businesses in the area. Designating an official State observance of the Asian Lunar New year is a move that would please both our Asian and non-Asian communities alike."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1103, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ASIAN LUNAR NEW YEAR COMMEMORATION," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Carroll, Nishimoto and Thielen being excused.

Representative Ching's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of House Bill 1836 – Relating to Gambling.

"Mr. Speaker, the Legislature has fought gambling for the last ten years. Companies have found a 'loophole' in our current laws banning gambling, and have placed vending machines all over the Honolulu in which they have circumvented the gambling laws here by using the guise of long distance cards. In these vending machines they sell sweepstakes cards, usually for a dollar, very similar to how lottery tickets are sold. When you purchase this card you are given two minutes of long distance phone time.

"It is very clear that the long distance phone time is only offered to get around Hawaii's anti-gambling laws, as two minutes of long distance time to the US mainland does not run anywhere near a dollar and in today's market long distance can be free on your cell phone, cost a few cents with a calling card, or you can get unlimited long distance for a nominal charge. The sole purpose of purchasing these cards is to have a chance at winning the sweepstakes, usually a cash prize worth hundreds of times more than the cost of a single game piece itself.

"HPD has found that many people buy these calling cards in large quantities, often disposing of the card without ever using the long distance time available on the card. HPD has also found that a lot of these cards do not work, even when activated.

"This bill defines in very clear terms the properties of sweepstakes machines that are currently in place in Honolulu locations. This bill makes it known that gambling includes the purchase of a sweepstakes entry that also provides a nominal, non gambling value even if the sweepstakes entry can be obtained without payment of consideration. By passing this legislation it will make it possible to ban these machines and avoid any possible escalation of further gambling of this nature in our State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Just briefly, some of my colleagues may consider this bill an over-reaction of what is a relatively minor problem, but in my district, prostitution is more than a minor problem. There's the drug dealing that goes along with it. There are the pimps and the enforcers along Kukui Street. The residents are afraid to leave their homes after dark, and just going to the grocery store at Long's Pali is an adventure that they don't want to partake in. I ask that my colleagues will keep an open mind about this bill before we get to Third Reading. Mahalo."

Representative Evans rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I stand in opposition. First, I want to comment that for a third and subsequent conviction for prostitution, this bill will make it a Class C felony. One of the things is that there's no language in here for its impact on our correctional facilities and appropriation language.

"But beyond that, I just want to talk about this issue of prostitution. If there is a third offense, they are going to be put in jail for this. I think that prostitution is a symptom. If you want to go to the cause, let's put our money where it counts and look at why are people involved in this business. This is about supply and demand. If you want to take out the demand, put the money where the demand is. And if people are out there, desiring and asking for it, it's going to happen. This has been around forever. I'm a little disappointed that we're going this route. I think we need to look at what's the underlying cause. Thank you."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just in strong support and ask that the comments from the Representative from Downtown and Chinatown be incorporated as my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Souki rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wish to echo the remarks from the representative from Waikoloa, somewhat. At this point, I have strong reservations, but on Third Reading I might be in opposition at that point in time.

"I believe that again, we have another felony charge. We continue not to increase the space at Halawa and the prison space. We cannot continue to do this, adding more felony charges, putting people in jail and not building anymore prisons in here Hawaii. Thank you very much."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just a vote with reservations, Mr. Speaker. And may I request the words of the gentlemen from Kahului be entered into the Journal as my own. In addition, Mr. Speaker, the bill does not specifically address what I believe the Representative from Downtown is complaining about, which is the drug issue. I believe that if the drug issue was incorporated in here, and then make it a Class C felony, it will be a lot easier to pass. Thank you very much."

Representative Lee rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise with reservations on HB330. I am not a proponent of legalized prostitution; however, we need to remember just who is the victim here. I would like to quote from the article recently written by Melissa Farly in the Honolulu Weekly. She said:

> Wherever prostitution thrives, so does sex trafficking. If you were a pimp, where would you market your product? Someplace like Sweden, where there's a law against buying or selling people for sex? Or would you pimp women to countries that lay out a legal welcome mat: the Netherlands, Germany, Australia and wherever prostitution is legal? Sweden has an excellent prostitution law in which buyers and sellers of women are criminalized but prostituted people are not. Trafficking has plummeted in Sweden since the law was passed.
> We need a law that protects victims while it also effectively targets predators. Pimps and sex traffickers are not the only sex predators: Johns are predators, too.

"I am afraid that this law would be mostly applied to the female prostitute who, in many ways, is the tragic victim of greed and violence. Thank you."

Representative Bertram rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Evans be entered in the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. I'm standing with reservations. This issue for me is that some of these women are victims of sex abuse themselves, and throwing the in jail is not addressing the problem. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 330, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROSTITUTION," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Bertram and Evans voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Nishimoto and Thielen being excused.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. This bill will impose mandatory jail time for repeat offenders so again, this does not have appropriation language or an impact study on our correctional facility. There is no language to that effect in this bill."

Representative Waters rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Just to clarify, Mr. Speaker. The original draft called for mandatory jail time. This calls for mandatory community service where the offender needs to go out into the community and repaint graffiti stricken walls."

Representative Ching rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In strong support. In my district, as I suspect in many other districts, graffiti has gotten quite out of control. It's a problem that affects not just the morale of our people who we serve, but also our businesses. And it's a big cost to our State. And the fact is that I do believe that, as in many cases, what we need to do is to make sure we put strict guidelines down and say that this is unacceptable. I think work, community service, is a wonderful way to make sure that the offenders give back to the community of which they have taken away. Thank you."

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"I have reservations on this because I feel the community service is too easy a penalty for people who tend to do graffiti over, and over again. At sometime or another, they should have to face the consequences. I know our jails are crowded, but community service is really a slap on the wrist. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm in support. Just to clarify what the prior people are saying. If you look on Page 3, section 3, it actually talks about aggravated criminal property damage. So anybody that is a repeat offender will now be subject to this new proposed legislation."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 451, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GRAFFITI," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Carroll, Nishimoto and Thielen being excused.

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 818 with reservations. This establishes theft of copper as a felony offense. Again, there is no language for an appropriation and impact study on our prison facilities. Thank you very much."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1246, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO METAL," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Carroll, Nishimoto and Thielen being excused.

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to stand with strong reservations on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 820. The particular section that I'm standing with reservations on is, I believe, the fact that the person has to be already on the list that is to be submitted to the Governor to choose from. The replacement for a vacancy will be coming from the Party of that particular individual.

"I believe that we were trying to address a particular situation where a Representative was chosen after that Representative actually changed Party three days prior to her being selected. The bill addresses that. It requires that a particular candidate for this particular vacancy has to be a member of the Party for at least six months. But I think it goes way too far when we allow the Democratic Party to choose this, especially when the party cannot be neutral in cases where there's a Primary Election. If a Party cannot be neutral in a Primary Election, how can we allow them to choose a particular candidate? By this bill, we're actually having a Party establish their own ways or own rules in order to choose people for this particular list that will be submitted to the Governor.

"I think it's sufficient that we allow the Governor to choose from a final list a few of the individuals who are members of the Party and have been registered for six months. I think it will cure the problem that occurred on the selection of the prior Representative of Downtown. Thank you very much."

Representative Marumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Meyer rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand in opposition to this measure because of the effect it would have on our State court system. This measure seeks to enact the Federal Rules of Evidence 701, 702, and 703 and extend them to the State court system.

"The FRE sections were enacted as a way to guard against junk science being asserted as expert testimony in court hearings, and to ensure that those speaking as expert witnesses were recognized experts in the field that they were testifying on. The rationale behind these adoptions was that given that on the federal level one could call upon a wide variety of experts to testify as to evidence, and as such it was important that the courts ensure that these experts were recognized in their field and were speaking to published scientific theory that was in essence peer reviewed.

"However in Hawaii we have an established system whereby a party who wishes to challenge the credibility of an expert witness to speak to the evidence at hand can be addressed through an ad litum motion which then can be reviewed by a judge. But if we were to adopt the Daubert/Kumho Tire standard embodied in FRE 701, 702, 703, then we would open our State courts up to Daubert type hearings every time a party wishes to challenge the credibility of an expert witness or whether they can speak to a particular piece of testimony. The net effect, Mr. Speaker, is that this would clog our courts immensely and would lead to the use of the Daubert hearings every time an attorney wished to attack the credibility of an expert testimony.

"On the local level a judge can review the motion and make a determination, but if Daubert were to be adopted, then it would allow the attorney to argue their position in a closed hearing which gives them the opportunity to sway the opinion of a judge. I feel that if the wheel isn't broken, then why toy with it? To adopt Daubert locally would do nothing but clog up our courts and lead to a jam of the legal system that would make the traffic in West Maui and Kapolei look like a Sunday drive on the Autobahn."

"I believe that this bill that is going forward, however, is still too broad. I think the purpose of this particular bill that is going forward is to try to connect the abuse of pet animals to the need for counseling, in which case, the inclusion of the existing 711-1109 broadens it so that any mutilation of any animal will subject a particular person not only to the existing punishment of one year in jail and so forth for a misdemeanor crime. It also now adds that if someone that mutilates any animal that is not a pet animal, it adds a section where they will be also subjected to counseling. I believe that the counseling requirement should be tied to where there is an incident where the animal itself is a pet. I can understand that a pet animal is something that one is emotionally tied to by that particular person. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

For a lot of us who like to do some of our office work in the car, it's probably a time that we are going to have to be a little bit more safety conscious, because for the first time after considering it year after year for many years, we will ban the use of cell phones while driving. And as much as I would like to do it, I know it is dangerous and all of us have probably had some close incidents. It's just an idea whose time has come and I'm just in full support of it."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 849, relating to worker's compensation, I'm going to be voting no on this measure. Under the present law, when a worker is out on temporary disability and has had medical care, and when the physician says that they have finished all the treatment and that they're ready to go back to work, they go back to their employer. But if the worker feels that he really isn't ready, then he has to file a claim with the Director of the Department of Labor, and the medication or whatever treatment he's been having stops. This bill would make it so he can continue with his medical treatment.

"I feel that this will drive up the cost of medical workers' compensation insurance. It's not clear who would pay for this extra treatment if, after the Director of Labor looks at all the situations and doesn't find in favor of the employee, who will pay? If you had a physician make a determination that the person has had all the care and he's well enough to go back to work, I don't think that his regular medical coverage is going to cover it. So, my real concern is that there are a lot of gray areas and it could really drive up worker's compensation premiums."

Representative Marumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Meyer be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Meyer: "Well, I think that just puts everybody at a disadvantage."

Speaker Say: "Okay, then before we start, we should recognize Representative Sonson to speak in support of the measure."

Representative Sonson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. This is a very good bill we worked on with, along with the Director of Labor. Thank you very much for your input. Also the HEMIC President, Mr. Bob Dove, for his input on this.

"We put safeguards in this measure so although we're allowing the continued medical treatment for an injured worker, there are also safeguards where the hearing process will be hastened to within 30 days. If the reason for this particular person not returning to work is caused through fraud, that there is a way for the insurance company to get their money.

"The issue here is not that this person is ready to go to work. The issue comes out when there's two doctors with different opinions. The treating physician would say this patient is not ready to go to work, but the insurance doctor or the doctor hired by the insurance company says that, 'No, this person can work'. So, when there is a conflict or there is a disagreement between two doctors, this bill will take affect."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to rise with short comments on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 862. In support with reservations. Just slight reservations. In Committee we were talking about this bill and some of the suggestions and common questions that we were talking about in regards to the back-up generators for the airports and commercial harbors, especially for the airports, was that we were trying to make a decision on what will be the best financial decision, whether to invest in leasing the generators or purchasing. This language only allows for the purchase. We were talking about leasing it because of the high cost of maintenance and those types of issues, so I would prefer a version that would have lease or purchase so that we can allow them to make the best financial decision. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1092, HD 1, entitled:

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 866, I have some reservations and short comments. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. After reviewing this bill, from a homerule person, I think this bill is very anti-homerule. It is very prescriptive. There is one part that I was reading from the HPD testimony that Section 2 of the bill, page 5, line 9, it says, 'including', and it specifies to buy this type of system which is a robotic total station survey system. And what they are saying is that throughout the country there are some better technologies since technology moves quite quickly. To state that you are going to have that specific type of system may be outdated by the time they actually purchase the equipment. So, just some suggestions on how we could do that a little bit better. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1549, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Carroll, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

Representative Karamatsu rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Karamatsu's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support. This bill would authorize the issuance of special purpose revenue bonds in a total amount not to exceed $10,000,000 for the purpose of assisting Sopogy Inc. with the planning, designing, construction, equipping, and operating Sopogy Inc.'s solar farm power plant at the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawaii Authority or at other suitable sites in Hawaii.

"Sopogy Inc. is a renewable energy company based in Hawaii that was spun-off of Hawaii's own Energy Industries. Its purpose is to bring renewable solar energy technologies to Hawaii and its people for the betterment of clean air, independence from imported fossil fuels, and energy stability. This local company is helping in our goal to diversify our economy and make our state more energy efficient. Thank you."

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 854, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising in opposition to Stand. Com. Rep. No. 868. This bill is dealing with workers' compensation temporary total disability benefits. I believe that this bill takes away an employer's discretion on whether an employee can return to work, and instead, hands that decision to the employee's treating physician, who may be biased in favor of the employee.

"Also the undefined phrase 'bona fide' could cause contention as the employer could offer work and the employee could disregard that offer by falsely claiming it wasn't bona fide. Finally, this bill will prevent an employer from terminating temporary disability if they didn't have productive work available to offer to an employee due to a slowing economy. There are a lot of other reasons, but these are some of them and why I can't support this bill."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 854, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONTINUED TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFITS TO INJURED EMPLOYEES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

H.B. No. 718:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 718, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Brower rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support. In the words of the Representative from South Maui, the days of fish prisons are over, and we need to look at Kakaako and not let what's happened there in the past happen again. I received testimony or comments from the Department of Land and Natural Resources and they say an important component to Kakaako's future is the opportunity for a lifelong aquatic research center and we can have a children's fishing boat to complement the Children's Discovery Center in Kakaako. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, on this measure, H.B. 718 Relating to Kakaako, I will have to vote no. I expressed myself on Second Reading as to the value of that property, the intent of the HCDA to plan a comprehensive development there, taking advantage of the position of the area. I just think that when we talk about real estate, they talk about highest and best use, and this is a very questionable, low revenue kind of use for a very, very valuable property."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Having been to the area, there is a small cove in Kewalo Basin and the area is not that big actually. The people that are going to be running this program are not getting paid. In fact, sometimes the best things in life do not cost money. It's hard to put an actual monetary figure on this. They will be allowing youth, the disabled and our kupuna to fish.

"This is a great, in fisherman's terms, this is a 'hot spot'. Again, it's a natural ecosystem. Bay fish come in there, they frolic and we have game fish over there. This place always has fish, akuli, papio, neo-fish. It's seasonal. Also the kupuna, disabled and the youth being taken on fishing excursions will also be taught education and Hawaiian culture.

"Again, you can't put a price tag on this. They do an excellent tag and release program that the Department of Land and Natural Resources Aquatics Division has endorsed wholeheartedly. They have tagged and released over 3,000 fish since the inception of this program back in 2004. They've caught an amazing 30% catch-back rate, and they've caught fish from Ka'u, Molokai, Maui, all over.

"So, again, this is priceless, what they are doing in terms of scientific knowledge, not only for our State, but for the people who actually do this. So, I stand in strong support and I would like to have the words of the speaker from Waikiki placed in the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Bertram rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I stand in strong support and ask that the previous speakers' words in support be inserted as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 718, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KAKAAKO," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

H.B. No. 135, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 135, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. I rise in opposition. I'd like to go ahead and insert my previous comments made on Second Reading," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Finnegan continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And then also just a couple more comments. What I've done was I went back to the testimony from the time that this was heard in Higher Education Committee. I must say that I have recognized the tremendous work that the Chair from the Higher Education Committee has done on this bill. One of the things that I think was not discussed or changed was something that was pointed out in the testimony from Richard Legon, President of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges.

"I just want to read just a part of this that explains what this Association is. It's a national tax exempt, nonprofit organization based in Washington, D.C. AGB, which are their initials, directly serves 35,000 individuals, board members, presidents and senior executives and indirectly thousands of others in public and private higher education. Founded in 1921 as a continuing education resource for trustees and boards, AGB seeks to strengthen the trusteeship and governance of public and independent colleges and universities and is contributor to effective working relationships between higher education and state government. For more than 20 years, AGB has advocated for much greater care in the nomination, selection and education of public college and universities, trustees and regents.

"When I heard this particular testimony, I thought of it as being a very credible source. They would talk about how the constitutional amendment was saying, 'Do we need this Advisory Council? ' And the people of Hawaii spoke and they wanted to see that.

"When I had spoken to my constituents and asked them. And at first I was thinking, you know this is the first time that we've had a Republican governor and I think it's an attack or just talking about things like that, political motivation. Many of the constituents that I spoke to said, 'Well, you know, we want to lessen the politics when it comes to the Board of Regents,' and I respect that. And now so, when I read this particular testimony, what they're saying is when you take, and I won't use 'special interest', although, we've used special interest in many ways, and a lot of the times it hasn't been negative special interest, and it hasn't always been negative.

"But what I will say is, in this particular testimony, it talks about constituency-based members. It says, we also believe that such independent screening committees operate best when enacted and sustained with bipartisan support and that their membership not consist of 'representatives of certain constituency groups.' It also says our reservation centers around the constituent-based nature of the proposed Advisory Council that appears in the bill.

"In addition to those voiced above, that your constituent-based Council may make it difficult for the Council to recruit and screen Regent candidates who possess a broad vision and qualities to lead Hawaii higher education and the challenges ahead.

"If you'll take a look at this testimony and just read it thoroughly, it basically says that what we're trying to do here is get away from the politics in the Board of Regents process. And there are other ways that you can do that. What has happened in the University of Hawaii testimony, it cites Minnesota as the area that has done this constituency-based advisory panel and it brought actually more politics to the table. So, as this bill moves forward, although I will vote no, I hope that we can see there's also a suggestion for a compromise on the make up of the Advisory Council and if we could take a look at that, as well."

Representative Chang rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. In the last election, the voters of Hawaii voted to amend the State Constitution to allow an Advisory Council to assist in naming the members of the University of Hawaii Board of Regents. The proposal was the subject of great debate. In the end, the voters voted, 'Yes'.

"The question remains: What would the Council look like? Your Committee on Higher Education, as well as the Senate Committee on Education, worked hard and long to come out with this very comprehensive bill that we see today. We provided the public and the Administration an opportunity to present concerns regarding a proposed Advisory Council. When the Administration did not submit written testimony at the hearing, we made sure to contact the Governor's point person on education for her input. Instead of commenting on H.B. 135, what we received were comments on H.B. 1431, the Governor's bill that would replace one hand-picked board for another.

"The public has called for real change, Mr. Speaker, in the rules of how the members of the Board of Regents are picked, and this bill sets the framework of a Council of outstanding individuals who share a commitment to rising above the partisan politics and to focus on elevating our State university system to greater heights. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. I stand in support of the bill, but actually my comments are more germane to what the Minority Leader just said. In the pursuit of historical accuracy, there have been Republican governors in the past, as well."

Representative Takai rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. First off, by way of reference, I would like to enter into the Journal my words on Second Reading. And also the words of the Chair of Education as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Takai continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to raise three points. By raising these three points, I reference, three parts of the bill, and I think these parts address the concerns raised by the Minority Leader. The first, on page 5. If you take a look at how the Candidate Advisory Board is composed or how the selection of the members are made, all you need to look at is line 9 and 10 on page 5 because it says, these members that are cited on this particular page, you as being the Speaker of the House, the Senate President, and so on. You're going to choose the representative. You're not going to be the representative.

"In addition, Mr. Speaker, if you look on the next page, the Co-Chairs of the All Campus Council of Faculty Senate Chairs, and the Chairperson of the Executive Council of the University of Hawaii Student Caucus. Those two selectors must select from a list, must select a person to represent that particular constituency who has within the last five years preceding this establishment or vacancy on the Candidate Advisory Council shall not be eligible to serve as members of the Advisory Council. In other words, Mr. Speaker, those two people selecting for those two spots on Advisory Council, must not have been members of those two particular organizations.

"And, finally, Mr. Speaker, on page 7, it says that appointees to the Candidate Advisory Council shall have a general understanding of the purpose of higher education, the mission of the University of Hawaii System and the responsibilities of the Board of Regents.

"I think that what we're doing here today far beats what we do or what we've been doing in the past. In fact, Mr. Speaker, I think if you take a look at this plan, this plan takes the politics out of the selection of the Board of Regents. I think this is far better than any other process that could be proposed because whose going to select the members of the Candidate Advisory Council. I believe that particular organization cited by the Minority Leader suggest that maybe the Governor should select the list of people to screen to give to her. I just think that this is a far better way to go to get the best and brightest on the Board of Education for the University of Hawaii. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 135, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Ching, Finnegan and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

H.B. No. 259, HD 1:

Representative Caldwell moved that H.B. No. 259, HD 1, pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Meyer rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I'm rising to register a no vote on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 766, H.B. 259. This bill extends the authority of county boards to issue revenue bonds. I saw that when this bill was heard in Committee, the City Council Chair, Barbara Marshall, registered her opposition to it. This will allow the Board of Water Supply to issue bonds without oversight by the City Council, giving the Board of Water Supply almost absolute autonomy from the City. I think that the Board of Water Supply got into a little bit of hot water with the bill that we passed which gave them more autonomy and allowed them to pay very generous bonuses to some of their executive employees and that's what worries me about this one, so I'll be voting no."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 259, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTIES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives Finnegan and Meyer voting no, and with Representatives Carroll, Takamine and Thielen being excused.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Representative Ward: "I have a birthday announcement. March 1, 1961. Forty-six years ago, John Kennedy said, 'Ask not what your Country can do for you, but what you can do for your Country.' Forty-six years ago, the Peace Corps was born. Some members in this body, former Representative Jim Shon and myself, answered the call, and today is proclaimed Peace Corps week, February 26 to March 4.

"And so I not only announce that if any of you were considering after retirement, or in your families or with your friends, the Peace Corps is a great option to continue to serve the community, continue to give. Mr. Speaker, the experience has been, everything you give you get back multiple fold. I should also say, Mr. Speaker, they are looking for country directors. Speakers would make very good country directors and they are in need of them, just in case you have any thoughts of that. Happy birthday, 46 years, to the Peace Corps."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have some reservations on this particular measure. There has been, in the past, quite a little bit of fraud by people that file for these Earned Income Tax Credits at the federal level. I'm a little worried about this being tied to the federal program where it gets out of control. If we're always just hiking it up along with the federal program, things are on auto-pilot and we don't have control over it. Also, the Earned Income Tax Credit is for people with children. And while I know that there are so many people here in Hawaii that need tax relief, this just doesn't hit as many as an increased tax deduction would. Thank you."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 954, Making an Emergency Appropriation for the Beverage Container Program, I am with reservations. I'm not sure that this title is appropriate. The Department of Health has so much money over there in that Fund. And I thought, why would they need an emergency appropriation? In fact it is not an emergency appropriation. They are really asking for the ceiling that they have in there to be raised. So I'm a little perplexed at the title and I felt much better to see that we were not going to give them an infusion of general funds in a Fund that's already pretty well padded."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative McKelvey rose in support of the measure and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Aloha, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. The purpose of this bill, Mr. Speaker, is to help nonprofit organizations secure grant funds and perform capital improvements for programs that provide substantial community benefits by providing an exemption to nonprofit corporations from the 15-year limit on the grant of county concessions or concession space.

"This bill is borne out of the fact that many non-profits who are doing the work of government for the people of Maui invest a lot of money and time into the buildings they are leasing not only benefit of the people themselves, but also for the government as well. This is because the government – which are the owners of these buildings – will also be the beneficiaries of these efforts, since the non-profit is taking care of the money and manpower to do these projects so that the counties and, by extension the taxpayers, don't have to come up with the funds to do these types of repairs and improvements.

"It is fundamentally unfair to expect a non-profit, which by the name itself shows they are making no money beyond their expenses, to put all of their valuable resources into the repair and improvement of these buildings to do all of this work and then all of sudden be displaced because of an arbitrary time limit in the law.

"This bill, Mr. Speaker, would also have a secondary, but equally important benefit to the people of Hawaii. Many of the structures that are leased to these non-profits by the county are important historical structures that have a special place in history to the people of our islands. In fact, the genesis of this bill came from a situation where a non-profit in Maui has been leasing the historic Iao Theater in Wailuku and has been making improvements to this historically significant building only to be faced with eviction because of the current law. Because of their fine efforts this significant structure has been saved from being dilapidated and now stands in its former glory and can be used and enjoyed by people today and appreciated by people now and tomorrow. With the Heritage Day coming upon us, I can think of no other finer way to show that we are indeed serious about historic preservation and celebrating our past then to move this bill forward so that the important work being done to save and restore these buildings can continue."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1756, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COUNTY CONCESSIONS," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with strong reservations on that same issue and will reserve my comments for Third Reading."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 238, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SALE OF REAL PROPERTY," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representative Brower voting no, and with Representatives Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

Representatives Waters and Magaoay, for the Committee on Judiciary and the Committee on Legislative Management presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 959) recommending that H.B. No. 1909, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Caldwell moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1909, HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro.

Representative Marumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise to speak in favor of Stand. Com. Rep. No. 959, which has to do with the Legislative Ethics Committee. The name of the bill is Relating to Standards of Conduct. I want to thank the Chairman for putting in the Committee Report that the bill will eventually reflect a balanced membership, because the first draft that we had seen, there were two Majority members, and one Minority member. I would assume that balanced means an equal number of Minority and Majority members, however many that would be.

"Also, I think if my colleague were here, Representative Thielen, she would ask that a ban on fundraisers be added to this bill. But otherwise, I think it's a good start."

Representative Finnegan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On this measure, please note my reservations and I will give my comments on Third Reading."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Chair. I rise with reservations on this measure. Mr. Chair, I think with the other bill that we may or may not hear regarding ethics, this particular naming of a Standard of Conduct Committee, I think is cumbersome in its name. Why don't we just name it the Ethics Committee? I think that's one thing I have reservations about.

"The other thing is that, in all due respect, Mr. Speaker, it puts you and the President of the Senate as the great arbiters of which you can put any of us into the State Ethics Commission according to your particular decision. And notwithstanding what my colleague from East Honolulu said, until I see it in writing that we have equal bipartisan representation, this bill is flawed by virtue of its lack of balance in terms of membership.

"So those are some concerns. I think we're edging up on 1909, which had a head start. At least it had a hearing. It had some possible corrections by membership, and by virtue of the US Senate and the US House have an equal membership, and having those as not under the charge of either the President or the Speaker of the House. It's a more egalitarian way of which ethics should be above political party. It should be above politics. I think we're in the right direction. We just need to refine it. And that's the reason for my reservations. Thank you."

Representative B. Oshiro rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this bill. Just to briefly counter some of the prior characterizations. I think this really is a monumental step forward. Just to put some perspective on this. People don't realize that Hawaii is actually one of the top-rated states when it comes to an ethics law. We have an independent Ethics Commission that handles potential ethics violations. They're completely separate and they do their own work, investigations and findings.

"What this does is set up an alternative procedure for things that may not fall under Ethics Commission violations. And that's why it is a different name. It's called a Standards of Conduct Committee. And so I really support naming it something else, because what we don't want to do is create a dual jurisdiction or confusion, especially for people out there in the public. What we want people to be assured of, is that we will have an internal structure that will deal with standards of conduct and potential violations. That's why I'm in strong support of this.

"One of the other criticisms I think, has to do with the membership or make up of the Committee and I think that's a premature discussion at this point. It's left blank. It's something that we continue to look at. Like every other Committee that we have in this body, it's made up proportionally based off of the Majority and Minority membership. So the question is, what makes this one any different when it's going to be looking at substantive issues? Whether it should be based off of pure partisanship, saying that every issue has a partisan take to it, or taint to it, and that's why we need a partisan membership. Or whether we can rise above it and be as we are in this august body and decide to deal with things on their merits. If we can do that, then I don't think we need to be apportioning things based off of partisanship. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker. Just a brief retort to that. If history's any guide, we know that the State Ethics Commission has always been there. We always go to them. So to have the referral of this Committee as the first instinct to go to them is repeating history. Because if you look at the history of conflict of interest, which hopefully this bill will have something to do with, 99.99999 percent of the time, there's no conflict. So if we're going to get to the matter of the issue, we've got to police ourselves. The State Ethics Commission has not been able to do that. And if we're going to police ourselves, we have to be serious about it and we have to get into these issues by looking at ourselves on an equal basis, not on a partisan basis."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. No. 1909, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STANDARDS OF CONDUCT," passed Second Reading, and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading with Representatives Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

Representative Morita rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"On Stand. Com. Rep. No. 962, H.B. 840, HD 1, I have some reservations on this bill and I just would like to explain my position to the Members. As Chair of your Committee on Energy and Environmental Protection, the tax credit measures that I pass out usually have undergone scrutiny through a cost-benefit analysis. On this specific bill, we haven't looked at its cost-benefit analysis. My basic position at this time is that anybody that can afford a fuel cell, which is very expensive, doesn't need a tax credit. So it's very hard to support a measure like this. But I will go with reservations and I'm open to further discussion on this measure."

Representative Meyer rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm rising with some strong reservations on that same measure. There was testimony in the Finance Committee that in trying to get the hydrogen out of water, a great deal of energy is used to get it. So it's not in the same league with solar and wind. Thank you."

Representative Belatti: rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. I voted with reservations in the Finance Committee in part because I was concerned that this did not get the vetting of the Committee on Energy and Environmental Protection. And I know that this House is struggling to create a comprehensive package that will address many of the issues that we're facing as a State regarding energy. Just reservations, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Evans rose in support of the measure with reservations, and asked that the remarks of Representative Morita be entered in the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. As a representative of Generation X, I am determined to continue striving for peace throughout the world just as the leaders before me.

"I was pleased when I learned that the Hawaii Federation of Junior Young Buddhist Association was working on a peace resolution. After talking to their advisor, I decided to introduce a peace day bill on their behalf. I was touched to know that young leaders in the next generation, Generation Y had the same dream of attaining a more peaceful world.

"House Bill 345 would establish September 21st of each year as "Peace Day" to promote peace programs, improve international relations, and increase educational awareness of peace. Representative Marumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this legislation which officially recognizes the Asian or Lunar New Year.

"This is very similar to HB 941, which I submitted, officially recognizing the Asian New Year, calling for an observance, but not a holiday.

"The Asian New Year, known in China as the Spring Festival, or the Lunar New Year, is the most important of the traditional Eastern holidays. The festival proper begins on the first day of the first lunar month in the Chinese calendar and ends on the15th day, on the Lantern Festival. The beginnings of the Chinese calendar date back thousands of years.

"The New Year falls on different dates each year, between January 21 and February 20, occurring at the time of the full moon. The New Year is celebrated worldwide in areas with large populations of Asians. It is considered a major holiday in Asia by ethnic groups strongly influenced by Chinese culture such as Koreans, Hmong, Mongolians, Vietnamese, Tibetans, the Nepalese and the Bhutanese. The New Year is also the time of the largest human migration, when overseas Chinese all around the world travel home to observe the occasion with their families.

"According to legend, in ancient China, the nian, a man-eating beast from the mountains, could silently infiltrate houses to prey on humans. The people believed that the nian was sensitive to loud noises and the color red, so they scared it away with explosions, fireworks and the liberal use of the color red. These customs led to the first New Year's celebrations.

"I believe that the desire is strong among Hawaii's population for recognition of the Lunar New Year. Among those supporting this recognition are Dr. Chuck Yim Gee, Dean Emeritus of the School of Travel Industry Management at the University, Lily and Larry Chang of the Chinese Community Broadcasting Co., Karl Kao of the World Journal Newspaper, Joseph Chow of the Sing Tao Newspaper, Johnson Choi, President of the Hong Kong-China-Hawaii Chamber of Commerce, and many others too numerous to mention.

"Because of the prominence of Hawaii's Chinese population and the emphasis on promoting tourism from China, several other legislators also introduced bills to establish a Chinese Lunar New Year Day or Week observance. These are: Senate Bill No. 247 establishing the Asian Lunar New Year Commemoration Week, House Bill No. 941, recognizing the Asian Lunar New Year Day, and House Bill No. 1103, a companion measure to SB 247, establishing the Asian Lunar New Year Commemoration Week.

"I am gratified that this bill will accomplish that goal, and I give it my full support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1103, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ASIAN LUNAR NEW YEAR COMMEMORATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.

H.B. No. 1153:

On motion by Representative Caldwell, seconded by Representative B. Oshiro and carried, H.B. No. 1153, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PRECURSORS TO THE MANUFACTURE OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Takamine, Takumi and Thielen being excused.
