Representative Nakamura rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"I just want to register a no vote, with comments. The Department of Accounting and General Services noted several concerns, one being that the definition of construction also includes altering, repairing, and improving, it's not just new buildings that might be impacted by this. Also, that projects that are already in the process of being developed, or close to being in the construction phase, would be impacted by the July 1, 2018 start date. Finally, there's no distinction in the type of facilities.

"So while it might be appropriate to put a shelter in a high school, a new high school, it may not be appropriate for a restroom facility at a state park, that distinction is not made in this bill. And finally, there is no guidance on the number of individuals that would be protected in these shelters, so that guidance is also missing. So while I support the intent of the bill and what it's trying to accomplish, I believe there's more work that needs to be done to address these concerns to provide guidance for the people who are going to have to implement this. Thank you."

Representative Kobayashi rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, we have heard this bill for probably five sessions in a row. We just heard it in Finance last week. B&F came vehemently against the bill even though the bill has evidently, from the veto of last year, been fixed. But they said basically, this increases the cost of government, and that's why they were against it. I have some reasons why I'm with reservations. Not because I've been a graduate assistant, but because if you add the numbers up, if you put the $17,000 that they get in wages, added to the 8 to 10 or 11 or $12,000 of tuition, that's probably $25,000 to $30,000, plus they get a master's degree, and they get a PhD in the end of it, and that can go three, four, five years.

"In fact, Mr. Speaker, last night at my beer summit, at Kona Brewery, Coach Rolovich said he has four graduate assistants. They are the ones who help analyze the plays and basically put the data into gear. I asked him if they were for this bill. He said, I don't know, but I know there was a move afoot in some college football teams to unionize the players. So I thought, well why don't we unionize the undergraduates then? But he said the football team actually backed off after they realized that they could lose their scholarships. Right now, you can get a scholarship at the UH, 85% of the football team, which is 100 members, they can't lose their scholarship unless they do something illegal.

"So my point is, they're probably well-protected, well-funded, except there's always a grievance. Nobody at the University is really happy because what you're learning is to be critical as a thinker, critical as an analyst, and the more critical you are, the better grade you get.

"But for the job that we have as the governing body of the State, I think we have to be fiscally responsible, and for someone who's getting a master's degree getting $25,000 to $30,000 a year, it's not a bad deal. I lived on it, in fact even saved money while I was a graduate assistant. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I hope the Governor stays true, vetoes this thing again, and that we will get on with academic excellence, rather than complaining about what they said in the Finance Committee was, we're poorly paid and harassed. Mr. Speaker, that was the quote of the representative, the graduate person. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I'm, again, still with reservations."

Representative Say rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. Representative Tupola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. The DLIR did include testimony referencing a court case that kind of addressed some of this. They had some really good reasons why they opposed it, but also, I think the bigger conversation that was had was about how it will affect small businesses. Per the state law right now, employers are already mandated to pay all treatment related to compensable injury, and adding this additional burden on top of it, and then some of these businesses not even having the funds to do it, dependent on their employee base. So those are my reservations. Thank you."

Representative DeCoite rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Tupola be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Nakamura rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations has raised numerous concerns, as key provisions of this bill are contradictory and could result in legal ambiguities, including employers' due process rights and logistics relating to reimbursements if claims are non-compensable. So for these reasons, with reservations."

Representative Har rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Nakamura be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Thielen rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. For so many years, a lot of employers have stopped paying for medical services for disputed claims, and so a lot of injured employees have gone without, to detriment to having worse industries because of it. I believe this is a small step towards what workers' comp was meant for. So, in strong support."

Representative Tupola rose, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, if you could change my reservations to a no."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2364, SD 2, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 46 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives DeCoite,

Representative Nishimoto, for the Committee on Judiciary, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1923-18) recommending that S.B. No. 2609, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that S.B. No. 2609, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Thielen moved to recommit Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1923-18 and S.B. No. 2609, SD 1, HD 1, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, what this bill is, it's relating to the financial disclosure statements that are available for the public to see when people are appointed to boards and commissions of the State. The reason it is necessary to recommit the bill, and that's what I'm speaking on now, is that Article XIV of our constitution requires all boards and commission members who wield significant discretionary or fiscal powers to file financial disclosure statements to promote transparency and accountability. It doesn't matter whether these board and commission members are nonpaid volunteers, they still wield significant discretionary or fiscal powers.

"This bill that I'm asking to recommit, Senate Bill 2609, will require the redaction or the hiding of all financial interest amounts on the financial disclosure statements. So in other words, the public would be able to look at a meaningless document, because the financial information would not be included on that, it would be hidden.

"There were a number of good government testifiers that opposed this bill, and they include League of Women Voters of Hawaii, they include the Hawaii Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists, they include Common Cause Hawaii, they include the Kupuna Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawaii, Hawaii Advocates For Consumer Rights, and the Hawaii State Ethics Commission.

"The bill should be recommitted, Mr. Speaker, to allow the Judiciary Committee to have time to analyze the constitutional provision, because I believe the measure, as it stands, is unconstitutional. Thank you."

Representative Tupola rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you. In support of the recommitment. I just wanted to also share that there's 160 boards and commissions. Just so that those members know that it's not every single board and commission, but it's actually outlined in the bill which ones, and so the number one board and commission is actually the Agribusiness Development Corporation. The second one is the Board of Agriculture, State Ethics Commission, Hawaii Community Development Authority, HCDA—"

Representative Belatti rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Debate on the motion to recommit should be confined to the merits of the motion, and not the substance of the bill being recommitted."

The Chair addressed Representative Tupola, stating:

"Yes, please confine your remarks, Representative Tupola."

Representative Tupola continued, stating:

"Thank you. And so the point I'm making is that the recommitment, because this is including boards that I don't think everyone is aware of, I heard that some of the testimonies in Labor saying that it's for all the boards and that this is why people don't want to join boards, which that wasn't the reason. And so, definitely on the recommitment, it's to look at, really, the content of this, and make sure that we're not doing something that we don't totally understand how the effects are going to be had. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the motion to recommit. While I think this body always brings up good points on the floor, what I will say is that the bill has a defective date, so all these questions that people have still have time to be considered, including whether or not it's constitutional, in the conference committee, thus not needing to be recommitted today. Thank you."

Representative Thielen rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A brief rebuttal to my colleague across the aisle. Conference committee is no place to examine whether or not a measure is constitutional. The proper place is to look at that in the Judiciary Committee. My colleague, our Minority Leader, brought up a very good point when she was cut short. It is relevant to list the entities, the boards and commissions that would be exempt from having these financial disclosures of their members, because what it could do is stop government from functioning. The ADC may be somewhat minor, rather secretive, but you take a look at some of the others, such as—"

Representative Belatti rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Again, motion to recommit debate must be confined to the procedural debate, and not the substance."

The Chair addressed Representative Thielen, stating:

"Representative Thielen, could you please confine your remarks? Thank you."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"I am. What I'm saying, Mr. Speaker, the need to recommit is very drastic, because when you look at the HCDA, you look at HHFDC, you look at the Board of Land and Natural Resources, if their decisions are challenged because this measure is unconstitutional, we are going to create vast chaos within our government and in the public sector. We can't go ahead with a measure that is constitutionally infirm, and that's why recommitment is very appropriate at this point. Thank you."

Representative Nishimoto rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you. Just very briefly, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, the previous speaker serves on the Judiciary Committee, and she never did raise a constitutional issue."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"For the motion to recommit, Mr. Speaker. Couple of reasons. In support. Judge Brandeis said that sunlight is the best disinfectant. I think those were guiding words for all of us and what we do publicly, what we do administratively, et cetera. This is a season of unethical behavior in government. Not only nationally, but locally, Mr. Speaker. This is a—"

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, please confine your remarks to the motion before us. It's a procedural motion to recommit."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Procedural motion is saying we need more deliberation. We need to put more sunlight onto this bill before we go quickly, to allow redacting. The irony, Mr. Speaker, is that the Ethics Commission itself will be exempt from this. Isn't that a great irony? And as my colleague indicated, the Ethics Commission is against this. They are the ones who the adjudicators of, if you will, are the referees of what's ethical. And they don't think this is ethical. So what we're doing by speeding this thing up and committing it to a vote is unethical.

"Redacting should not be allowed for the sake of openness in government and transparency, of which all of us preach and all of us run for reelection on. Mr. Speaker, let us not be hypocritical. Let's recommit this bill, let it go back to be digested in its proper form, and get this ethical cloud that's over the State of Hawaii away. It'll benefit all of us. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, this is a very good recommitment motion."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of the recommitment. I was going to stand and speak in opposition to the bill, and I still plan to do that if we fail on the recommitment. I support a recommitment because I don't think that this body should even consider this bill. I'll reserve my remarks for what I suspect will be voting down of the recommitment and voting no on the bill itself."

The motion was put to a vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representative Holt being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative McDermott rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in opposition to the measure. Mr. Speaker, financial disclosure statements are very broad and nebulous by nature. They include ranges of ownership and ranges of income, denoted by alphabetical numbers, for somewhat protection of the people filing. We all here in this body file financial disclosure forms. I suggest you look at mine, you will not be impressed. But we have folks, there was a case of a well known banker a few years ago who decided not to serve on the UH Board of Regents because he didn't want to disclose his holdings. Well everybody knew he was rich already, I mean, that wasn't the deal. He just didn't want to disclose his holdings. And a bank president has his fingers in many things, so maybe he felt uncomfortable.

"But there are plenty of good people in this community, in a state of 1.2 million folks, who would gladly serve. Good, talented folks who will gladly display their assets and wealth, because there's not that many of us that are that wealthy, Mr. Speaker. Most of us come to work every day, do the best we can and try to put away a couple bucks. But this measure, I don't know the majority would put this forth, Mr. Speaker. Oh, by the way, I did vote no in committee, and so did my colleague, the Representative from Kailua, just as a point of information. After studying it, we might want to ask more questions on the floor, and of course conference committee, it's pointless at that time.

"The disclosure forms are broad and nebulous, and so for the majority to put this forward, the same body that, as I recall, unless I have early onset of Alzheimer's, last year was asking for the President's tax returns, which is detailed information, down to how much interest you got on municipal bonds. So I'm trying to reconcile the schizophrenia between asking for tax returns from some officials, and then more locally where it actually impacts us, on a daily basis, people in powerful positions being exempt from disclosing what holdings they have. I mean, this is very real. Imagine someone on DLNR has land holdings that are adjacent to a development property, and they're going to vote whether that development goes through, yes or no. We have no way of knowing if they have a personal interest in it. And Mr. Speaker, history is rife with people taking advantage of government and the system to personally benefit themselves.

"And so we would be well advised not to proceed with this measure, because we're tempting people. We're tempting them. We're saying, don't disclose anything and you can vote on these measures, which you may have a personal interest in. Even if the fella or gal is honest and votes up because they think it's a good idea, and they have an interest next to it, we'll never know. So for those reasons, sir, I just think that this is inconsistent with the majority's mindset as a body, and what they certainly put forward last year, repeatedly, regarding tax returns. If we're going to ask for someone's tax return on a national level, and then we don't ask for local guys, who actually impact us, for their own financial disclosure, it makes no sense to me, sir. And for that reason, I'll be voting no."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong opposition. I'd first like to adopt the words of my colleague from Ewa Beach as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative LoPresti continued, stating:

"Don't have a heart attack. Mr. Speaker, I think this is a very serious matter. There is a lack of confidence in government today, across the nation and in Hawaii. There is the perception that we are a government of the rich, by the rich, and for the rich. This bill encourages that view, because it will erode confidence in government. Mr. Speaker, I've had several of these wealthy folks in my office, as I know many of my colleagues have had, and I've been floored by the obtuse audacity that some of these people have declared that the reason we don't have smart people on boards and commissions is because we're not allowing wealthy people on them. And this false equivalency between wealth and intelligence, between wealth and ability, is offensive. It's also just plain wrong.

"Indeed, most spiritual traditions, most intellectual traditions, most philosophical traditions draw a very clear, sensible line, and puts arguments against the idea that somehow seeking wealth is wise, that the truly wise actually avoid wealth. And instead what we're going to do is encourage the hiding of wealth and encouraging opportunities for conflicts that the people will be ignorant of. That is the only purpose of this measure, and it is wrong. It's a shameful proposal, and I'm strongly opposed to it."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. Mr. Speaker, in addition to adopting the remarks of the two gentlemen from Ewa Beach, may I add a few words," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, the reality is that boards and commissions are appointed with political flavoring, political spin, political ingredients. They are appointed by either yourself, or the President of the Senate, or the Governor, and there's usually a connectivity between that person and something political in who they are or what organization they represent. And my point, Mr. Speaker, is disclosures are intended and our very purpose is to defuse the politicization of those things by being open and by having disclosure. Saying, here if there is some, if you're on a particular board and you happen to have interest in something that's very conflicting with that particular board, the public should know.

"Mr. Speaker, I wrote a book on disclosure of politics for USAID. When the people of South America realized that their president was elected by drug money, they were aghast. But because of disclosure, not redacted financial but actual physical evidence of where money came from.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, this bill is inflaming the political process of appointments, instead of defusing it. And the whole purpose of disclosure is to defuse the politicization of these things and to make it open for the public to see. Mr. Speaker, we have an obligation to be open with the public, and to do what we're doing here shows we got something to hide or somebody to protect or some agency that is up to something untoward, because who they don't want to attract and who they may want to attract. It doesn't pass the smell test, Mr. Speaker. My colleague used the famous quote of Hamlet the other day, something is rotten in the state of Denmark, something is rotten in the state of this bill, and it should be rejected. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Mr. Speaker, when we look at the bill before us, at HD 1, the only thing being redacted are the amounts reported. What continues to be reported these nonpaid volunteer members who we are asking to serve the public, the source of the income is still reported, as well as a whole list of things identified in HRS 84-17(f). So, there is still much transparency, it's simply the amounts that are going to be redacted. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Johanson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. This is one of the many measures that I think the body has considered with respect to how do we attract the most qualified people to serve in nonpaid boards. And whether this is the perfect vehicle or not, I think the Majority Leader just made the most salient point, which is that any conflict can still be diagnosed, it is still transparent. It's not obscuring that fact. So there can still be investigation, there can still be transparency there. But I think it's important, especially in a small state, and it's not necessarily respect of your income, but I do think some of the testimony we heard in the Labor and Judiciary Committees, there are people who are sometimes discouraged, inadvertently, by what we may have on the books, from serving.

"And so I think this is part of a necessary and broader conversation of how do we ensure that our current laws most enable the best qualified people to serve in the most transparent manner possible. So again, whether or not this is the perfect vehicle, it's part of a broader conversation that I think we need to ensure that our boards and commissions that are unpaid are full of people who do want to serve, who have the necessary expertise to help advise and/or oversee. Again, while remaining transparent. Thank you."

Representative San Buenaventura rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"I'd like to declare a conflict. My husband serves as a volunteer with one of the state boards," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative San Buenaventura continued, stating:

"I'd like to have it continue for the rest of the session, however short it is. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative San Buenaventura continued and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Now I can speak on the bill itself. I continue to be in opposition of the bill and in favor of the failed recommitment. The Majority Leader brought up a point, basically, don't worry about it, only the amount is redacted or hidden, but just take a look at this. This bill covers the powerful Public Utilities Commission members. So, someone is appointed to that body and puts down one of their holdings happens to be Hawaiian Electric. It's meaningless if you don't have the alphabet letter showing what is the amount, the range of amount, of those holdings.

"The only good thing I can find about this bill is that it didn't originate in this body. It came out of the Senate, sponsored by the Ways and Means Chair. We didn't start this, he did. And then you take a look at it, as it came out of Ways and Means and passed from the Senate, it's pretty dramatic that they had seven noes voting against this measure, and on top of that they had three with reservations. So, 10 out of the 25 on the Senate side were signaling, this is a bad policy, it's a bad bill. And I think if you all take a look at the names, there's some very, I maybe need to say a conflict, potential conflict, Mr. Speaker. Senator Laura Thielen, my daughter, was one of the noes."

Representative Belatti rose to a point of order, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Mr. Speaker, it's inappropriate to be speaking about the other Chamber. It's also inappropriate to be speaking to the intent of--"

At 1:28 o'clock p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 1:30 o'clock p.m.

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to have a ruling on that potential conflict," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict."

Representative Thielen continued, stating:

"Thank you. Mr. Speaker, when we try to show that we are being open with our government and that we're being responsive to our constituents and to the broad community out there, I think that we need to take the high road. And I look at this bill as trying to go underground and saying, gee we want to have these powerful members of these powerful Board of Land and Natural Resources, Public Utilities Commissions, Land Use Commission, which makes major, major land use decisions on reclassifying land, and we want to be able to put these people on there, but hide, basically hide from the public what their value is of their different holdings. It's not a specific dollar figure, it's a broad range, as we all know, because we file those reports.

"This is such a step on the road to degradation, to bad government. I just can't believe our body accepting something like this that came over from the other Chamber. It should have just sat and not had any movement on it. So I would ask members, I know what the reality is, I mean we're sort of outnumbered here, although we do have some, I want to appreciate that some colleagues from the other side of the aisle that are also opposing this, but I know there are overwhelming numbers that will be able to pass this through. It does not have to ever have a conference committee scheduled. And I would say that that at least would allow us to keep the dignity and the necessary open government that we should all be proud of. And I say again, the only good thing is, this did not originate in this body. Thank you."

Representative Tupola rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong opposition. Thank you. Two things. One is that I don't think we've ever all seen any research studies showing us that there is a direct nexus between us not showing dollar amounts and all of a sudden people signing up to be on boards and commissions. There's other reasons which, one, some of the members of boards and commissions that I've talked to that live on neighbor islands that don't get reimbursed for that. Two, perhaps not even being appointed. Some of the vacancies were not even filled, not even asked, actually. Three, it could be anything from the effectivity of the boards.

"There's many reasons why there wouldn't be these filled vacancies for boards that are voluntary, but we don't know for sure if by clearing out the number of how much they've given to other companies is actually going to make people just come by the hordes to come sign up for boards and commissions. And so I see that that's maybe the reason for some people, but it shouldn't be the underlying reason as to us believing that this is going to fill all the boards and commissions.

"And I did want to say that in committee, one of the testimonies that I heard even said that the CDC chair had stepped aside when she was found to have disclosed that she was putting money into tobacco settlements. And so what it is, is that yes, we want to see what people are contributing to, but the amounts do make a difference.

"And I want to read the boards so that everyone knows what boards these are. These are very big boards that make lots of decisions for our state. The Commission on Water Resource Management, the Public Utilities Commissions, the Board of Directors at Hawaii Public Housing Authority, the Board of Directors of the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawaii Authority, the Natural Area Reserves Systems Commissions, the Legacy Land Conservation Commission, the State Land Use Commission, BLNR, the Board of Directors of HHFDC, Hawaiian Homes Commission, the Hawaii Community Development Authority, State Ethics Commission, the Board of Agriculture, and the Board of Directors of the Agribusiness Development Corporation. So that people know that those are the boards that we're talking about. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"I'll be brief, Mr. Speaker, I'm getting hungry. Still in opposition. Just a thought, the majority party has always fought for the little guy. Is that what you're doing here? Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time in opposition, Mr. Speaker. Speaking of the majority, I want to commend the majority leadership for giving the great leaky roof analogy. Hey, 90% of the roof is fixed, but you know, Mr. Speaker, if you fix 90% of the roof, it still leaks. This bill is leaking all over us. It's lowering the ethical standards that we have, it's lowering the bar. It's the common denominator that keeps us with moral authority in the eyes of the public, but this bill lowers us in the eyes of the public, Mr. Speaker. No good can come out of this bill. Bottom line, it's a bad bill. Thank you."

Representative LoPresti rose to respond, stating:

"Still opposition, I'll be brief. I just wanted to state, some of you know I recently had a health scare, and it helped to really clarify things for me that if I don't vote my conscience, I have no right being here. And I don't ask any of you to listen to me, I ask you to listen to your conscience, and vote against this unethical bill. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wasn't going to rise, and I'm in support, because you're in support, because this is you and I, we're the ones that did the underlying measure on this. Remember a few years ago when we took a bill that was supposed to disclose a salary range, like other state employees, for, I believe, just the PUC, and then we expanded it to everybody. And along the way we made it detailed amounts. And so what happened was, this bill came forward."

"I agree with my colleague from Kailua, perhaps the genesis of the bill is not one that makes me grow to love it, but at the same time I think that having classifications, that you can easily look up on the internet, that we all have to file, doesn't take away what we're trying to do, which was, what is the source of the outside income, and does that source, that range of source, perhaps, could that play into, perhaps, troubling decisions or issues that are in front of these boards and commissions."

"So because you see that there's a discussion still to go on, 2050, it's going to conference, and because I think what we were trying to do is still intact in the bill, I'm standing in support of it. Thank you."

Representative Evans rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise with reservations. Mr. Speaker, I know that so many people in the community really want transparency, and I believe that's why we passed this bill that was referred to by the previous speaker. But I do think, hopefully as it moves through conference, maybe there's a way to find some compromise language and really come up with some way to determine what really we want in terms of transparency and accountability for people that, I believe these boards and commissions they make some major, major decisions that impact everybody's life in the state. So, with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Matsumoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matsumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this bill."

"This bill would prevent the disclosure of financial information owed to the public."

"Article XIV of our constitution requires all board and commission members who wield 'significant discretionary or fiscal powers' to file financial disclosure statements to promote transparency and accountability."

"Without the disclosure of the magnitude of their interests, the public may not trust the actions of the member or even the board/commission. For members of very high-profile boards and commissions, such as the Board of Land and Natural Resources, the Hawaii Community Development Authority, and the Ethics Commission, the public would still be allowed to see that an individual held a financial interest in a particular entity but would have no way of knowing whether the interest was $1,000 or $1,000,000. I have concerns that this bill moves in a direction that is not transparent – the public has a right to know about financial interests, and redaction of the financial interests would render the disclosures meaningless."

"Disclosure, transparency and accountability are hallmarks of good government. We need to do everything we can to improve public confidence in our government, and this bill is moving in the wrong direction."

"For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I am in opposition to this measure. Mahalo for the opportunity to speak."

Representative Cachola rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'll be voting with reservations, and just like the Representative from Maui, the effective date is still defective, so hopefully in conference they'll fix it, and we'll decide later on what comes out in conference committee. Thank you."

Representative Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Sometimes, one size does not fit all. Having financial disclosure categories like above and below $1,000, above and below $5,000, above and below $10,000, may be insignificant, but at a certain point, I'm not sure when, maybe it's six digits, it does become significant. So maybe there could be disclosure, but perhaps in different categories or ranges. Thank you."

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Please have the Clerk note my reservations, and change my vote from in opposition, please."

Representative Fukumoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and request to insert written comments, please. Thank you."

Representative Fukumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of this measure. I am grateful for the collective efforts of the Women's Legislative Caucus in introducing this bill and the companion House bill which moves Hawaii closer to equal pay for all of its citizens. Over 50 years after the women's movement began, it is atrocious that women still only make 80 cents for every dollar that men make. We must do better, and this is an excellent first step.

"I have issue with how we have behaved as elected officials over this measure, however. That an issue like equal pay, for which women have been fighting for so long, should be used as a vehicle of political chess playing and creating division between women is disappointing and disrespectful. As the individual who drafted the language of this bill, I believe both this measure and its House companion, HB 2137, should have been moved through the legislative process to allow for the issue to be thoroughly vetted and assessed by all interested parties prior to landing in conference committee.

"The people of Hawaii deserve better from us on issues of such import. We can and should do better for them."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and S.B. No. 2351, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EQUAL PAY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes, with Representative Holt being excused.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to cast a no vote on Senate Bill 2519 and a few comments. Mr. Speaker, this bill will authorize the Agribusiness Development Corporation, the ADC, to enter into contracts with private businesses to remove select municipal solid waste, glass, food and green waste from the waste stream, to use in other business sectors, and it also will enable them to contract out for particular projects. It's another, I guess another example of how we're continuing to throw scope of work and money at ADC, an entity that very severely needs to be audited, and we need to know more about what it's been doing, what it hasn't been doing. Has it been making errors, has it been operating correctly, using the taxpayers' money. We need to find that out before we do anything more. So, a no vote."

Representative Nakamura rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and comments. I'm concerned that some of the recycling may be appropriate on agricultural lands controlled by ADC. I think green waste and maybe composting if it's related to an agricultural use seems appropriate, but other types of recycling, used tires, building materials, and other industrial waste, to me may not be appropriate on ADC lands. And so for these reasons, with reservations."

Representative Lee rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support, Mr. Speaker. I just note that while this bill moves on to the conference committee, some of these issues which have been raised I think by some of our colleagues will be looked at and sorted out. We do think there's potential to leverage some of the resources available in our municipal waste stream for better purposes. We note that some of the contracts the City and County has with H-POWER and other entities which currently capture most of that waste stream are probably not the absolute most efficient and highest priority use of those materials. So we do want to explore these other options, and just ask for that opportunity to continue the conversation. Thank you."

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 2821, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that S.B. No. 2821, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just wanted to make it clear for the members. My apologies to the members that what we had intended to do in this bill, we need to correct in conference. So for the college savings account, 529 account, the intent was to apply it so that we don't conform to the federal 529 tax reform, which now allows college savings accounts to be used for private, lower K-12 private school education as well, which the members felt is not a good policy, but we expanded it so that all 529 would not be conformed. So we will fix that in conference, for transparency. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2821, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONFORMITY TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives Say and Tokioka voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Choy and Holt being excused.

S.B. No. 3095, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that S.B. No. 3095, SD 1, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Say rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Creagan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I ask that I be allowed to submit written comments to the Journal in support, strong support. Thank you."

Representative Creagan's written remarks are as follows:

"I am in strong support of SB 3095, SD 1, HD 1.

"When I first came to the Legislature I had not heard of chlorpyrifos by that name and had to learn to spell and pronounce it. But I did my homework and realized what a disaster this pesticide has been for the brains of our country's babies and children. It is an organophosphate that acts by inhibiting acetylcholinesterase – an enzyme that breaks down acetylcholine. Acetylcholine is a neurotransmitter that controls the nerves in the bodies of insects, and in our own brains and bodies.

"While organophosphates were originally developed as pesticides by German chemist Gerhard Schrader to help produce food for the Nazi war effort, they were so toxic they could not be safely used. They were then turned into weapons of war and Schrader and others developed the organophosphate nerve agents Tabun and later Sarin. Sarin was recently used by the Syrian dictator Assad to murder civilians including babies and children. Chlorpyrifos was developed by the chemical company that was the precursor to Dow in the 1960s. Lest we forget Dow was one of the major manufacturers of Agent Orange that is still devastating the countries where it was indiscriminately and massively sprayed. Not a very reassuring pedigree.

"One of the testifiers in a recent hearing on chlorpyrifos stated, 'Chlorpyrifos is an efficient and cost-effective tool that is used by landscapers, government, golf courses (don't pregnant women play golf?), hotel industry (that should reassure our pregnant tourists), and farmers to control pests.' It also seems that Assad appears to find Sarin gas, the close cousin of chlorpyrifos, a very efficient and cost-effective tool in eradicating pesky civilians who opposed his dictatorship.

"Nicholas Kristoff of the New York Times says since chlorpyrifos is too big a mouthful for some (perhaps those exposed to chlorpyrifos as babies) we should just call it 'Dow's nerve gas pesticide.' While a small amount is needed to cause symptoms in adults, in unborn babies there is no known lower limit that will not cause some permanent brain damage. Even if our pregnant women are not sprayed with this nerve-gas pesticide they will get a dose toxic to their unborn child in the 'fresh fruits and vegetables' they are advised to eat, which are too often laden with chlorpyrifos.

"We are currently experiencing a growing epidemic of neurodevelopmental disorders including autism and ADHD in our children. While we know there may be a genetic component to conditions such as autism, we saw that condition rarely in the past and therefore it is clear that environmental factors are largely responsible for this increase. Dow's nerve gas pesticide is not the only environmental culprit, but it seems to be the worst and the evidence that chlorpyrifos alone can cause these harms is steadily accumulating and is now overwhelming.

"Our own EPA when it was less compromised back in 2001 recognized that the indoor use of specifically chlorpyrifos was causing brain damage to babies and children in the apartments of New York where it was used to control roaches and other vermin. Studies of exposed children have continued and have now been going on for 18 years and continue to document the severe brain damage caused by that exposure. The EPA was poised to ban chlorpyrifos completely but settled for a ban on most indoor uses in 2001. Our recent EPA was poised to extend that ban to all food uses last year, but then we elected President Trump and Scott Pruitt took over the EPA, and that ban supported by 10,000 pages of evidence was scrapped.

"The European Union has now banned chlorpyrifos for all but a tiny exception of brassica seedlings, based on all the accumulating evidence, and by the economic harm caused by the neurodevelopmental injuries to their children which were estimated to be $120 billion per year!

"Our keiki are born into an increasingly competitive world. Jobs requiring high intelligence are very desirable and often pay the best. Why then would we continue to use a pesticide that damages our children's brains? What is the benefit? The benefit is to the bulging coffers of the chemical companies. We have recently and rightfully spent a lot of money to cool our children's classrooms. How sad that we are cooling our classrooms but doing little to prevent future students' brains being fried by a brain damaging chemical. We can correct inadequate classroom environments, but we cannot correct the irreversible damage caused by Dow's nerve gas pesticide.

"People might ask, what good would it do to ban chlorpyrifos in our state if so much of the produce coming into our state from California and Mexico and elsewhere is laden with chlorpyrifos. If we ban it here our locally produced food will be 'Hawaii grown – Chlorpyrifos free.' Organic food would be the safest for our pregnant mothers and other states do recommend that, and our state should be properly warning our pregnant mothers and those with small children; but a ban of this toxic chemical could give a great boost to the safety and desirability of our locally grown food, organic or otherwise. In a time when rat lungworm disease is causing concerns about our local produce, a ban on chlorpyrifos in this state would boost the relative safety of locally grown food. California has placed chlorpyrifos on its Proposition 65 lists as a chemical known to cause harm to unborn babies and young children. Soon produce coming in from California may bear a warning label. Let Hawaii be proactive and warn our people now and provide a safer local alternative. Let us support our local farmers in protecting themselves and their customers by helping them find safer alternatives to chlorpyrifos.

"Lastly, this is a moral issue. This is a social justice issue. This poison disproportionately effects farmworkers, unborn babies of mothers without medical or prenatal care, the poor who cannot afford chlorpyrifos free organic food, and the less educated who aren't aware of the danger to the brains of their children and unborn babies. It has been pointed out that 90 to 100 countries are still using chlorpyrifos. How many countless millions of babies and children are being injured in those countries? Is that not a crime against humanity? Should we not speak up for those who are still being fed fake reassurances and fake science? Let us be a beacon of sanity in a world being rapidly obscured by a fog of chemicals and a fog of misinformation by the chemical companies. Let us ban chlorpyrifos now!

"As Rachel Carson wrote in her seminal book on pesticides, Silent Spring, '...we should no longer accept the counsel of those who tell us that we must fill our world with poisonous chemicals; we should look about and see what other course is open to us.'"

Representative DeCoite rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, while I'd like to thank the Chair of Finance for making the amendments to the bill, pesticides in all shape or form kills. Without proper education for all of those who buy pesticides off the shelf, and the relationship of incidents of the evacuation, whether it be schools or residents, I believe the incorporation of all pesticides and the safety of all our kids at the school should be incorporated into the bill. And I would like to add additional comments to the Journal. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative DeCoite's written remarks are as follows:

"With reservations. I have reservations about this bill because it is incomplete. All pesticides are poisons and if we are going to ban pesticides containing chlorpyrifos, then we should ban all pesticides. No exemption should also be given to pest control operators. Pesticides and harmful chemicals used inside the home or school also must be a part of this bill. This bill seeks to address the risk of agricultural pesticide drift to Hawaii's schools but does not address concerns associated with pesticide drift attributed to residential use. The Department of Agriculture has testified that pesticide odor complaints have been attributed to residential use. Another major concern I have with this bill is that it may negatively impact not only the large agricultural producers, but also the smaller local farms that are trying to grow and at the same time stay in business. Mahalo."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kong rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I stand in support of Senate Bill 3095, House Draft 1.

"Crafting good laws and policies is a balancing act. This is especially true – and especially difficult – in the case of pesticides. We rely on the food produced by farmers, but we also need to be mindful of the unintended negative effects of food production. Lawmakers in this Chamber have grappled with the issue of pesticides year after year. This is among the most carefully balanced proposals seen by this body.

"Section 1 of this bill creates a program within the Department of Agriculture that collects and discloses information to the public about which Restricted Use Pesticides – or RUPs, the most potentially harmful kind of pesticide – are used in and around their neighborhoods by agricultural businesses. Furthermore, out of an abundance of caution, this bill also creates buffer zones around schools where RUPs may not be used during instructional hours.

"Section 3, beginning in 2019, bans the use of chlorpyrifos without a permit. Businesses may obtain permits to use chlorpyrifos until the end of 2021. This multiyear timespan allows farmers to gradually transition their crops away from chlorpyrifos and to alternative pesticides.

"The bill also appropriates money and creates positions within the Department of Agriculture to enforce the act and educate the public about its requirements.

"Senate Bill 3095, House Draft 1 affirms the public's interest in knowing what is going on in their neighborhoods without forbidding existing agricultural practices except in the case of a single pesticide and around children – our most sensitive population. What new requirements this bill imposes, it balances with additional employees, education, and accommodations.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 3095, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes, with Representatives DeCoite, Har, Kong, Say and Tokioka voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Choy and Holt being excused.

At 1:52 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 2821, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 3095, SD 1, HD 1

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Nakashima: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, I am saddened today by the news this morning of the passing of retired United States Senator Daniel Akaka. A warm and gentle man who served with dignity, respect and humility, he shared the spirit of aloha with everyone who came into contact with him, be it in Hawaii, Washington, D.C., or across the world, and he never lost sight of his values and the need to protect Hawaii and its people.

"I mourn the loss of this great educator, statesman, and favorite son of Hawaii, and extend my sincere condolences and aloha to Mrs. Akaka and the Akaka 'ohana, as our thoughts are with them.

"At the appropriate time, I would like to request a moment of silence in memory of Senator Daniel Akaka."

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, is it possible to put something in the Journal for the good Senator who we've just lost? Comments of condolences. He's a special guy, special Senator. Thank you."

Representative Ward submitted the following:

"Mr. Speaker, words cannot express the collective gratitude that this State has for Senator Daniel Kahikina Akaka. Phrases such as 'a true statesman' and the 'embodiment of aloha' used to describe him are ones seldom used in today's political arena. It is without question that Senator Akaka was a very special man.

"No matter who he interacted with, the Senator treated all with dignity and aloha. In the political arena, he put the needs of his constituents first and strayed away from most of the national political battles of that day. This style of quiet, modest leadership was rare, and history will remember Senator Akaka as a man of truly upright character.

"Today, Hawaii has lost one of its heroes. As we move forward in our history without his warmth and influence, it is my sincerest hope that present and future leaders pay special attention to the legacy and character of Senator Akaka. He has touched countless lives and inspired countless more. My prayers, thoughts and condolences are with Millie and his entire 'ohana. He will be truly missed."

Representative Tokioka: "Same request."

Representative Tokioka submitted the following:

"I had tears in my eyes when I found out about the death of the favorite son of Hawaii. Through his political accomplishments and contributions to the State, Senator Akaka has earned a long-lasting legacy that, in my opinion, will never be duplicated. We will forever be grateful to him for his lifelong commitment to the betterment of the State of Hawaii and its people. I wish Auntie Millie and the Akaka 'ohana all the best and will keep them in my thoughts and prayers."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late Senator Daniel Akaka.
