H.C.R. No. 2, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS THE LEGISLATURE CONCERNING THE AFFAIRS OF THE STATE," resolving that the Governor of Hawaii is requested to address the Legislature pursuant to article V, section 5 of the Hawaii State Constitution at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, January 24, 2022; and that the Governor is requested to deliver the address to the Legislature remotely from the Executive Chambers, was jointly offered by Representatives Saiki and Mizuno.

On motion by Representative Belatti, seconded by Representative Okimoto and carried, H.C.R. No. 2 was adopted.

At this time, the Speaker delivered his address, stating:

"Members, the Chair has some brief remarks. The title of this speech is Justice. Justice. So, I wanted to just start off by saying that over the past two years, Hawaii has worked together to overcome great challenges. It is a reflection of the public's resilience and sense of community. But it is also a reflection of your work here in the Legislature and in your neighborhoods.

"I know that the past seven months have not been easy for you and your constituents. Just when we thought the pandemic was over, the surge overcame all of us. I know that you have worked in your communities to vaccinate and test thousands and thousands of people.

"On September 17, 1959, one month after statehood, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. visited Hawaii and spoke here in the House of Representatives. He spoke of his work in other states and recognized Hawaii as a noble example in the area of racial harmony and racial justice. It has been 62 years since that speech. And as you know, Dr. King's teachings extended beyond race and included economic and environmental justice. It is time to reassess Dr. King's observation about Hawaii and to articulate what we can do to advance his call for justice.

"In January 2020, we were prepared to enact a proposal that would have increased the minimum wage and provided more tax relief to working families. This proposal followed a report conducted by the Aloha United Way that found that 47% of Hawaii's families were financially distressed and simply could not make it here. But six weeks later, the legislative session was suspended when the state was shut down and we were forced to defer action on our ambitious agenda.

"Since that time, I stated publicly that the House would revisit a wage proposal when conditions improved. Well, conditions have improved, and it is now time for us to act. Through the work of Representatives Onishi and Sayama, the House will advance legislation to increase the hourly minimum wage to $18, increase the food tax credit, and make the earned income tax credit refundable and permanent. This package will give a family an additional $33,600 in income.

"But we know that wages alone will not lift working families. Families cannot afford housing and need help. And regrettably, the demographic group that has been hardest hit and most priced out of housing is Native Hawaiians. We will appropriate $600 million to enable beneficiaries of the Hawaiian Home Lands trust to acquire their own homes. Through Representative Holt and Representative Eli, who is the only Hawaiian Home Lands beneficiary in the House, the Hawaii Affairs Caucus will play a leading role on this historic piece of legislation. Members, it is time to give the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands the resources it needs to fulfill its fiduciary duty.

"Cultural justice requires the restoration of cultural practices. The House will expand community-based efforts to restore fish ponds and lo'i, repatriate cultural artifacts, teach financial literacy, and provide cultural training to the military. Related to this is the issue of tourism management. We need to take action now before our visitor count again reaches 10 million people. We need to better incorporate culture into tourism because by doing so, this will also protect our natural resources. We will do this by relying on initiatives and organizations that can assist the Hawaii Tourism Authority.

"Last year, the House created a working group to propose a new governance structure for Mauna Kea. Through the work of Representatives Nakashima, Tarnas, Cullen, and Eli, and 11 community members, the House will advance a proposal that will create a management structure that will care for Mauna Kea above the 6,500-foot elevation line through an integrated, culturally, and environmentally conscious approach.

"When it comes to the environment, just two words exemplify the need for environmental justice: Red Hill. In December, the House called for the defueling and decommissioning of Red Hill. We will reiterate that call for action. The House will not allow the military to put the aquifer that supplies water to all of Oahu's residents at risk. Representatives Yamane, Lowen, Tarnas, Ohno, Ichiyama, Johanson, Ganaden, and Matsumoto began work a few weeks ago to monitor state and military progress on Red Hill. We will continue that work through the formation of a special committee on Red Hill. Its emphasis will be the containment, remediation, and prevention of contamination. And we will continue to insist that the federal government must be responsible for Red Hill costs. State taxpayers should not be asked to pay for this cleanup.

"So, members, this year, the House is proposing unprecedented legislation that, taken together, will help over 100,000 households, provide homes, and restore cultural practices that ordinary people have fought for and even died for throughout their lives. As I've said before, the House of Representatives is a leader on policy. We must continue to be that force for needed change. Like Dr. King, we cannot hesitate to institute reform so that we can achieve justice. Thank you very much and have a productive session."

The Chair then recognized Representative Okimoto, the Minority Leader, to deliver remarks on behalf of the Minority Caucus:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Majority Leader Belatti, friends, colleagues, and members of the public who are watching online, good morning and aloha. This is the first time I've had the privilege of standing before you and addressing you on Opening Day as the representative from District 36 and now as the minority leader.

"My staff knows all too well how difficult these speeches can be for me. The difficulty comes when I reflect on the last four years and how much I want to include in these moments. I remember how different my first session was and how hopeful I was. I had so much to say back then, and now there is too much to say. Over the last two years, the challenges have been extraordinary, but so have our communities and our people.

"First and foremost, I want to say thank you, thank you to our people and to their unwavering spirit. They have fought to lead Hawaii's comeback and recovery from the pandemic. They have made great sacrifices to keep their children educated and in school, change their business models to fit a post-COVID world, and tolerated and adapted to ever-changing mandates and regulations.

"Today, the Legislature opens to a state that needs our leadership more than ever to fight as hard as they have to ensure our future for our children. I am confident that this body is ready for the challenges. And this is why, during one of the most economic downturns in Hawaii history, our Finance Committee moved at an incredible pace to pave the way for our economic recovery, ensure crucial funding during interim, all while still crafting a balanced budget that reflects the values that this state believes in.

"While Finance was doing their diligence with the state budget, our committees on Water & Land and Energy & Environmental Protection make crucial strides towards protecting the critical resources that our state is so beloved for. I mentioned this not to boast of great victories, but because we convene today, not under the shadow of a prolonged period hardship, but under the light of resilience and responsibility, a shared responsibility each of us has to make. That the tragedies we have all gone through are hard life lessons that must be applied to solutions and not just headlines.

"On January 9th, 1790, long before these beautiful islands became a state, George Washington penned a letter to writer and historian Catharine Macaulay that included the sentence, 'The establishment of our new Government seemed to be the last great experiment, for promoting human happiness, by reasonable compact, in civil Society.'

"Through that great experiment, there are many who believe that the experiment has failed. They couldn't be more wrong. They let perfection, or rather their idea of perfection, be the enemy of good. This state isn't perfect, and it will never be. And that is the beauty of it. It can be ever changing, it can adapt and overcome.

"We carry that mantle today in these halls that are constructed to represent that belief of a more perfect union, because the pursuit of happiness is both noble and necessary. Our constituents sent us so we could prove those words right, even in the face of seemingly insurmountable challenges and unfathomable loss.

"Although our state, like the entire country, feels more divided than ever, I have never seen our islands, our people, as united in their vision for their future. We have so much more in common than what divides us, and we feel that the most when we are at home. Whether home is a rental apartment in town, a family ranch nestled in the green rolling hills of Waimea, nani o Waimea ē, or a house that exists in a price range you can afford. Every Hawaiian wants and deserves many of the same things. A safe, reliable place to lay your head to rest. A stable income that allows you to provide for yourself and your family. A life free from violence and discrimination. The sad reality is that far too many Hawaiians have been left behind, and ultimately we are here to change that, to do our part in making sure every person is able to achieve the life and future they envisioned for themselves and their families, to help protect their pursuit of happiness. Therefore, I am really excited for Speaker Saiki's announcement today.

"It has been somewhat cliché for the minority leader to declare on opening day that this upcoming session will be the most consequential in history. That declaration has never felt more appropriate. As we begin the 2022 Legislative Session, with the public left outside government transparency, this has never been more important as we begin to shape Hawaii's future.

"The public's absence in these halls cannot go understated. We are opposed, nay, we must make transformational changes to drastically increase the supply of affordable housing, to expand our workforce, to invest in responsible development, and to stabilize our behavioral health system that has been struggling to help our most vulnerable, and to finally get ahold on the mental health epidemic that plagues our homeless population.

"We will be talking about how to best invest in our most important asset, our children, to make sure they have the education, training, and support that their futures need. We must support small businesses, grow our state's economy, and make sure that our recovery continues to lift up all Hawaii. How can we possibly do that without our people?

"One of the most important lessons I have learned as a legislator is to make the most of every opportunity because a second chance is never guaranteed, and tomorrow is never promised. Each of us will eventually walk out of this chamber for a final time, and once we've said goodbye, our legacy won't be measured by the titles we collect or the size of our office. Our legacy will be measured by all the ways that our people will feel from the choices we make for years to come and the ways they experience what we do with this opportunity to be public servants.

"It is the Hawaiian 'ohana that was able to pull themselves from the brink of homelessness and keep a roof over their heads because we choose to invest in affordable housing. It is the small business owner who keeps their doors open and their employees on the payroll because we created problems that help them weather tough times. It is the young men and women who start to put future as a priority that they can achieve because we work together today to ensure that they have opportunities our parents wanted for us. It is the combat veteran who comes home from deployment and is able to enjoy the freedoms they fought to protect because we fought for them in the Capitol. It is the girl who grew up next to cane fields and blue oceans who ensures that anything is possible and that she will never be Hawaii's last.

"Our legacy will be measured not by whether or not we resolved all our problems in 60 days, but by how we use 60 days to relentlessly pursue a more perfect union.

"This session, especially as the demands of legislating puts us to the test, we cannot lose sight of the fact that Hawaii's future gets brighter when we confront our challenges with the relentless optimism that better is possible, but better will only be possible if we can be honest with ourselves, to admit shortcomings, and to fix the mistakes we've made. We have to choose if we are going to do this in our best interest or the best interest of the people. Let's make that choice together.

"Before I close, and for you all from my soapbox, I want to close by expressing my gratitude. We would not be here today if it were not for the first responders, the doctors, nurses, law enforcement, EMS professionals, and so many more who have made it their mission to help keep Hawaii safe and healthy. We are indebted to them for their service.

"I want to publicly thank my two girls, Rebekah and Emma, for their love and support. I am also grateful for my parents, my friends and loved ones, and to District 36. Thank you for putting your trust in me to represent our community. Majority Leader Belatti and Speaker Saiki, thank you for your collaboration and your commitment to service. I look forward to continuing our work together in leadership. Friends, colleagues, I am with you, let's get to work. Mahalo."

The Chair then recognized Representative Belatti, the Majority Leader, to deliver remarks on behalf of the Majority Caucus:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker, Mr. Vice Speaker, House Minority Leader Okimoto, to all the members of the House of Representatives, and our hardworking staff for this opportunity to address you, and more importantly, to address the people of Hawaii on this auspicious moment. To all of you who are viewing this from your work computer, from home, from school, on your mobile devices, thank you for tuning in to be a part of this day, even though we are not able to welcome you here in person.

"It is hard to believe that we are heading into the third year of this global pandemic. It has disrupted lives, workplaces, and homes. Economic disruption, uncertainty, and pivoting has become the norm.

"One of the biggest highlights and takeaways for me about this pandemic has been how you, the people of Hawaii, have come together as communities across our state to help each other navigate through this storm. I'm going to do something that I shouldn't do, I'm going to mention some agencies, and I know I will have left out some organizations. But as we planned for this moment a month and a half ago, I imagined this room filled with representatives from the community, from places like the Hawaii Community Foundation, Aloha United Way, Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement, Hope Services Hawaii, Catholic Charities Hawaii, Maui Economic Opportunity, Kauai Economic Opportunity, Hawaii Food Bank, all of these rooms filled with people and communities that have helped us weather through this storm.

"We know that navigating this time has not been easy. We are not naive in thinking that this pandemic has treated people equally. We understand and know that inequities that existed previously have only been exacerbated. Today, our Speaker has laid out an ambitious agenda to address these inequities, these inequalities, and to march towards justice.

"We, the Hawaii House of Representatives, are committed to tackling these long standing issues, to reinvest in our communities, to ensure that we have the infrastructure, the social service programs, the schools and the teachers that will build the capacity of our people, our greatest asset. We are here to recommit to our hardworking families and individuals who make our government, businesses, and communities run.

"I'd like to share a little something with you. We have a lot of organizations that bring us ideas and thoughts and agendas and their priorities. But I want to point out one group, Aina Aloha Economic Futures, you can find it at ainaahoeconomicfutures.com. This group did a presentation to the Speaker's COVID committee over a year ago. They gathered thousands of people before this day, before this opening day, and they said, these are the things we need to do. We need to achieve circular economies that prioritize environmental and climate resilience. We need to encourage the development of regenerative business opportunities, including working with all tourism and communities to develop regenerative tourism. We need to address and empower historically marginalized and disempowered populations to advance economic equity.

"We join today with the thousands who have already come together to commit to these things. We will take the next 60 legislative days. There will be ups and downs. There will be discussions, there will be caucuses, there will be hearing and testimonies. And we welcome, we welcome all of you to come and participate. And we will revisit the reopening of our State Capitol. We will revisit the reopening of the people's House. Because it is in person, it is together, and now it is virtually how we can commit to each other. Mr. Speaker, to the House of Representatives, thank you for this opportunity and I look forward to the work of the next 60 days. Aloha."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, my announcement today is to mark this day as a historical day in the history of the people of Hawaii. I'm not referring to 1959, when Martin Luther King was noted, but from 1920 when the Hawaiian Homes Commission was founded. And Mr. Speaker, what came out today, I think is going to be a new day for the people of Hawaii, particularly the Hawaiian community that's on the waitlist that is now 28,000 people strong. Thank you for what you're doing. And I urge all of my colleagues to get behind, to keep the word to the Hawaiian community, which after 100 years has been lacking.

"So, thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mahalo. This is a day that's going to go down in history as marking a turning point for 100 years of neglect to facing it straight on. Genuinely, thank you. And for the Chair of Finance, thank you. And for all of us, this is a day that we could really fulfill a promise that we've given, but we've broken, and now we're going to turn the tide. So, mahalo nui loa."

Representative Kong: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As many know, my office manager, Crystal Kionia, is a Tongan. And it just so happens now my legislative aide, Yehenara Soukop, is also Tongan. In fact, she's the reigning Miss Tonga of Hawaii. And it just so happens, these leis, these beautiful leis that adorn my neck, are also Tongan. So, I ask this body to truly remember Tonga and their people in your hearts and especially in your prayers as we await to hear news from that beautiful, lovely island nation. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Please note that the Governor's State of the State address will be at 10:00 a.m. this morning. The State of the State address will be available for members and the public to view on the House YouTube channel.

"Also, members, please note that the House will stand in recess for the purpose of the State of the State address and tomorrow is a recess day, we will reconvene on Wednesday, January 26th at noon."

RECESS

At 9:07 a.m., the Chair declared a recess and the House of Representatives stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair, and in accordance with House Concurrent Resolution No. 2 met in Joint Session with the Senate to receive the Governor's State of the State address.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Thirty-First Legislature, Regular Session of 2022, was called to order at 10:01 a.m. by the Honorable Scott K. Saiki, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker then stated:

"The Senate President and I extend our warmest aloha and welcome to the Governor of the State of Hawaii, the Honorable David Ige."

The Governor then addressed the Joint Session as follows:

"Good morning and aloha. Before I begin my formal remarks, I wanted to make a few comments. In normal times we would gather together in the House Chambers for the State of the State address. We would have family, friends, former governors, and community leaders, and have opportunities to acknowledge and thank the many people who have helped us along the way.

"Because of the pandemic, they cannot be here in person. But I wanted to take a moment to express my appreciation for their partnership during this crisis. All of them have answered the call to serve the people of Hawaii. Speaker Scott Saiki, Chair Sylvia Luke, and all the members of the House. Senate President Ron Kouchi, Chair Donovan Dela Cruz, and all the members of the Senate. First Lady Dawn Amano Ige, Lt. Governor Josh Green, Dr. Libby Char, and all the members of my cabinet. And Mayors Rick Blangiardi, Mitch Roth, Mike Victorino, and Derek Kawakami, and former Mayors Kirk Caldwell and Harry Kim.

"I also want to thank the business community; the visitor industry, including hotels, airlines, and attractions; the Hawaii Restaurant Association; the Hawaii Business Roundtable; and all the chambers of commerce; and our nonprofit partners who delivered help and services to support so many in need. And there are so many others, too many to name, but I wish I could thank you all. Please know that all of your efforts are very much appreciated by me.

"We've endured tremendous hardship over the last two years. Throughout the pandemic, we've sacrificed, delayed, or canceled so many of life's cherished milestones – weddings and graduations, first birthdays, and holiday gatherings.

"We've had to face shutdowns, restrictions of all kinds, and two variants that have changed how we deal with the coronavirus. And the fight is far from over. But I'm proud of the way that we, as a community, have responded to the pandemic.

"Our nurses, doctors, and healthcare professionals have worked endless shifts to provide quality care and keep our families healthy. Our teachers and principals have gone above and beyond to make sure students have the opportunity to learn despite the many challenges. Our public employees on both the county and state levels have worked together to ensure that we keep everyone safe. And you have done what you've had to do to protect all of us, by getting vaccinated and conducting your daily lives responsibly.

"This pandemic is re-defining us as a generation in the same way that the Great Depression, Pearl Harbor, and the Vietnam War shaped their generations. Events and history have a way of repeatedly testing us. Each generation must find its own strengths, its own answers, and its own path forward.

"In many instances, we've had to choose between what is best for ourselves as individuals and what is best for us as a community. As a state, we've never been one to take the easy path. Instead, we choose to do the right things for the right reasons.

"Last week, we celebrated Martin Luther King Day. He said, the time is always right to do what's right. In Hawaii, we have a name for this, pono or righteousness. An idea so important that it's imprinted on our state seal, Ua Mau ke Ea o ka 'Āina i ka Pono. The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness.

"We have much to do this session. I have three goals this year. To continue to steer us through the pandemic, to strengthen our families and communities, and to move toward full economic recovery. With your help, I know we can accomplish all three.

"I believe everything begins with keeping us healthy and safe. Over the last seven years, we focused on modernizing our telehealth infrastructure, providing health services to underserved populations, and strengthening mental health services.

"In response to the pandemic, we moved quickly to take immediate action to protect our health; provide healthcare for another 110,000 residents under our Medicaid program, a 34% increase since the start of the pandemic; and make sure that everyone had good healthcare coverage.

"At the same time, we distributed critical medical supplies, including PPEs, test kits, vaccines, and medicines to protect the elderly, rural communities, as well as the entire state. I deeply appreciate the thousands involved in this task, whose scale and complexity rivals anything we've ever done statewide.

"Vaccinations have proven to be our strongest weapon against the coronavirus. In all, we've provided more than 2,500,000 shots at hundreds of clinics across the state. Needless to say, this effort remains ongoing.

"But the virus has been relentless in exposing gaps in our healthcare infrastructure, including critical shortages of doctors and nurses. To address these concerns, we're asking the Legislature to fund the expansion of the University of Hawaii's doctor residency program. In this way, we can increase the number of doctors doing their residency on the neighbor islands from only five to fifty. More importantly, the numbers tell us that most young doctors end up practicing where they do their residency.

"We're also asking for funding to strengthen the university's nursing program and add more clinical instructors at our community colleges. We want to add 39 lecturers across multiple campuses to handle the increased demand for nursing programs.

"In addition, a new $3.7 million federally funded project will improve access to health information, especially for underserved communities. The project will train and employ high school and undergraduate students to be health and digital navigators in 50 libraries across the state. These navigators will help individuals access telehealth services and find information on the coronavirus and other health topics.

"COVID outbreaks in Oahu Community Correctional Center made it clear that we also need to strengthen the medical facilities in our prisons to protect the health of our inmates, staff, and the general public. Our plans to relocate OCCC to Halawa will create a modern facility better suited to support the behavioral, mental health, and medical needs of its population. In our current budget request, we've also asked the Legislature for $45 million to build a consolidated healthcare unit at Halawa that will allow us to deliver medical and health services there.

"Clearly, the coronavirus has shown us how persistent and adaptive it can be, as we've seen with the Delta and Omicron variants. Even as we learn how to better protect ourselves, we need to remain vigilant.

"While we work to maintain our health, we must also strengthen our families and communities. To do that, we must first help struggling families to malama pono, make things right for them. It means making sure that they can secure the very basics of food, shelter, and jobs.

"That's why our Department of Human Services developed online applications for SNAP benefits, formerly food stamps, and added 32,000 additional families during the pandemic. As many faced job losses, we provided $6.6 billion in unemployment benefits, allowing those out-of-work to continue to receive essential income for their families.

"The pandemic also caused many workers to lose long-held jobs and pursue new career paths. To help them, the Department of Labor is rolling out the Hawaii Career Acceleration Navigator, with its one-stop online hub to help unemployed workers with new career and training opportunities.

"The pandemic also highlighted the need for childcare for working families and how it is essential for many to continue to hold jobs. To help them, the state's Child Care Program Office is distributing nearly $80 million to support access to childcare and provide much needed relief for young families. These funds will support childcare businesses weathering the challenges of the pandemic, and can be used for personnel costs, training, rent, mortgage, utilities, and supplies, or equipment related to COVID-19.

"To assist renters and homeowners, we provided $260 million in emergency rent and mortgage assistance to ensure that no family would be evicted because of the pandemic. Meanwhile, the Hawaiian Homes Commission postponed mortgage payments and provided its beneficiaries with rent and utility assistance.

"The State is also working closely with the counties to increase the number of affordable rentals on all islands. These projects include rentals in Moiliili, Downtown or Chinatown on Oahu, and more than 1,000 affordable rental units across the neighbor islands since we took office.

"Two years ago, the Legislature created Ohana Zones. Working with the county, we've opened 20 sites across all islands that provide a wide range of services for individuals and families. These projects have assisted over 5,500 homeless individuals statewide, with more than 1,300 placed directly into permanent housing.

"By increasing funding for the homeless by 68% since taking office, we've assisted more individuals to not only find temporary shelter, but to lift them out of the vicious cycle of homelessness. And our proposed infrastructure development in West Oahu will allow us to greatly increase our inventory of affordable homes, including those for teachers.

"But the biggest factor affecting homeownership in Hawaii is supply. That's why we set out to build 10,000 new homes by 2020, and we did it. We also expect to build another 3,000 homes by the end of this year.

"We can strengthen our communities in another way too. Given the recent revenue projections, we're asking the Legislature to return some of those dollars back to taxpayers. We want to issue refund checks of $100 for every taxpayer and for each dependent. For a family of four that means an extra $400. In this way, we'll also inject $110 million back into our economy, giving it a boost as well.

"No community can be strong without taking care of their keiki, our future. Empowering our schools and enriching Hawaii's community of lifelong learners have always been among our top priorities. That's why I've asked legislators to restore funds taken away from our schools during the pandemic, for programs so important to our children's learning and for the upkeep of their classrooms.

"This includes funds to take care of those who teach our students and to support the development of new teachers, especially in areas of chronic shortages such as Hawaiian immersion and special needs.

"That's also why safely reopening schools was one of our top priorities after the pandemic hit. We knew that children learned best when they are physically in the classroom. But that wasn't possible during the early days of the shutdown. Our schools and teachers had to literally reinvent education, overnight. Virtual classrooms became a necessity, but we also learned that they could supplement in-person classes and provide opportunities that would not otherwise be available.

"That's why we're supporting the expansion of virtual classrooms and the Hawaii Virtual Learning Network. If a school on Molokai can't provide a class on physics, why should a student there be denied the opportunity to learn? We've talked a long time about distance learning, but more as an alternative to the traditional classroom. The pandemic made us realize that we could use virtual classrooms to ensure that every student has every opportunity to learn no matter where they live.

"Using the federal Governors' Emergency Education Relief fund, we're also empowering schools and teachers to innovate and create projects to recover learning lost due to the pandemic. We dedicated $5 million for UH to launch Hawaii Online Portal for Education, which is developing curriculum for distance learning and additional training for teachers. The projects include everything from STEM education to agriculture.

"One of these projects is Ka'u Dream, a place-based, community-focused education initiative on Hawaii Island. Educators and the community have worked together to align the curriculum to career and business opportunities in Kau. They created enhanced learning activities that will engage and inspire students beyond graduation. This community-led initiative is a model for building thriving communities across the state.

"And it's time to retool our underutilized community resources. For generations, our public libraries, like the one in Pearl City, have been quietly supporting our students and communities. We want to reimagine how we use those facilities. We want Pearl City to be the role model for other libraries across the state, a place where groups can meet and exchange ideas. We want them to house early learning centers, as well as gathering places for our kūpuna. And we want to equip them with the latest technologies, where the community can learn, create, and enrich their lives. Reimagine, if you will, Pearl City Library becoming a beehive of activity as a community-based learning center.

"There have been a lot of things we've had to postpone because of the pandemic. One of the most important was our proposal to create a universal preschool system in Hawaii. We can't leave it there because research tells us that early learning is crucial in preparing our children for school and life in general. We will continue to nurture our early learners through our community-based centers. But let's work together to take the next step to provide preschools for every child in Hawaii.

"The real balancing act during the pandemic has been between the economy and our health. The fact is that keeping us safe and making Hawaii a safe place to visit is an essential step to restoring our visitor industry, reviving our small businesses, and re-energizing our economy.

"We ordered a mandatory quarantine for all trans-Pacific travelers to slow the spread of COVID-19 in Hawaii. And our Safe Travels program for pre-travel testing and vaccine verification still remains the only program of its kind in the country.

"At the same time, we worked hard to keep insurance rates down for small businesses, even as unemployment ballooned. And as the economy recovers, we'll continue to make sure that our small businesses are brought along with the rising tide, through programs that expand our locally produced goods and services, support business innovations, back local manufacturers, and fund low-interest small business loans. With federal funds, the State is also helping small businesses through digital marketing and e-commerce initiatives, assisting more than 500 companies with training and virtual marketing events.

"Hawaii also became one of the safest locations to film during the pandemic, as our film office worked with producers and unions to create a plan with strict COVID protocols to resume filming here. People all over the world can now watch NCIS Hawaii, as well as Magnum P.I.

"We also know that keeping up is not good enough to be competitive. We must stay ahead of the game. That's why we're proposing to fortify the Hawaii Tourism Authority and the Hawaii Convention Center, support Hawaii Small Business Innovation Research projects, and provide fuel for our business accelerator programs and manufacturing assistance grants. We'll also launch a $56 million State Small Business Credit Initiative to provide capital for local start-up tech companies.

"One of government's primary roles is to provide a strong and reliable infrastructure to support economic growth. Our visitor industry cannot exist without reliable airports. Our stores cannot operate without efficient roads and harbors to transport goods and services. During an economic downturn, public works projects not only build critical infrastructure, but they also provide a shot in the arm to business, labor, and the economy.

"For the last two years, Hawaii's construction industry has led the state's economic recovery, thanks in large part to our investment in public infrastructure. Those investments helped stabilize the local construction industry and, with a record bond sale of $1.88 billion, this trend will continue. In addition, an estimated $2.8 billion from the federal infrastructure law is expected to further boost the development of transportation, clean energy, and our internet capacity.

"And government too needs to upgrade and reinvent itself. That is one of the most important tasks we've been doing over the last seven years. Modernizing government operations across all agencies, transitioning from antiquated paper-based systems to computerized ones, modernizing our tax and payroll system, and transforming walk-in services to convenient virtual centers. And we're asking the Legislature to help us make government more efficient by replacing a statewide accounting system that hasn't been updated in the last 50 years.

"Whether it's filing tax returns or seeking a birth certificate, our goal has centered around creating greater efficiency, a larger return on taxpayer dollars, and better service to the public.

"We cannot be a strong state without protecting the resources upon which we depend. That is also a part of being pono and making things right. At the heart of these resources is our natural environment. In Hawaii, we're no strangers to the need to protect these islands. There's a reverence for the 'āina that goes beyond issues of sustainability. That's why we've always been so protective of the environment.

"As an island community, we see the impacts of climate change and global warming more intensely. In 2015, three category-4 hurricanes approached Hawaii for the first time in recorded history. In 2018, torrential rain in Hanalei dropped more than 49 inches in 24 hours, setting a new U.S. record. And last year, the worst drought in decades on Maui County drove thousands of invasive axis deer into Kahului. And severe drought on Hawaii Island fueled the Mana Road wildfire, amongst the largest ever.

"We know that the climate crisis is real. But by working together, Hawaii has become a world leader in actions to fight the climate crisis. Hawaii was the first state to set a goal of 100% renewable energy by 2045, with 12 other states now following our lead. Hawaii was also the first state to commit, by law, to the goals of the Paris Agreement.

"Still, experiencing first-hand the severe impacts of climate change, we know that net-zero carbon emission is not good enough. That's why Hawaii became the first state to commit to a net-negative goal by 2045 to capture more carbon than we produce. We'll do that by protecting our oceans, expanding our native forests, and supporting sustainable agriculture. Again, my thanks to our legislators for making all of this happen.

"But we need to continue this good work. We need to retire Hawaii's last coal plant this year, establish a rebate for working families to buy electric cars, expand the State-To-Farm program to support local farmers, and move forward with the Royal Kunia Agricultural Park to encourage food self-sufficiency. Creating a more sustainable lifestyle is all part of being good stewards of these islands.

"So is protecting them from harm. The recent events at the Navy's Red Hill facility alarmed and shocked everyone. We've met with Navy leaders and let them know that their first job is to ensure that our drinking water stays safe and clean. Draining the fuel tanks at Red Hill is a good first step. But we must work to find long-term solutions. National security cannot come at the expense of our people's health. I believe we can protect both national security and public health. But it will take determination and the collaborative efforts of everyone.

"In the first year of the pandemic, we were forced to cut over $1 billion from the budget, with every state agency scrambling to find new ways to continue to provide essential services to our residents. More than that, we faced the prospects that it would take the economy decades to recover. Describing our financial prospects back then as bleak would be an understatement.

"But we took the hard and necessary steps to address the very thing that threatened the life of our economy, the pandemic. Many wanted us to immediately fix the symptom of the problem, the devastated economy. But we needed to balance that with putting people's health first. As painful as it was, it was the right remedy for the long term, to make things pono. When things seemed to get better, we tempered our optimism. And we continue to do so, with economic as well as health issues.

"As you heard last month, we now expect a positive balance in our budget of more than $1 billion. Tax collections have jumped by an astounding 27.3% over last year's totals. That's a direct reflection of the rebound in visitor arrivals, increased consumer spending, and the growing strength of our local businesses.

"We have a chance to restore painful cuts that we've made over the last two years, to repay outstanding loans, and to replenish various state funds, including loans to the Unemployment Trust Fund, the state's depleted Rainy Day fund, and cuts from our schools and state agencies that provide essential services to our people. In other words, we have a chance to safeguard our future and our children's future.

"When we face another catastrophic emergency, will we be prepared to deal with it? For the first time in a long time, we have the resources to take care of both our immediate and long-term needs. We can rebuild the solid fiscal foundation that we created before the pandemic.

"We also have a chance to pursue new initiatives, including the development of an all-inclusive broadband infrastructure. If the pandemic has taught us anything, it's about the crucial role that the internet plays in all of our daily lives.

"That's why we're leveraging state resources to maximize federal funding for broadband and proposing the largest investment in technology in our state's history, a total of more than $400 million. We're calling it Apakau Ka La, 'spreading of the sun's rays.' It is critical infrastructure for the future connecting all the main Hawaiian Islands. This initiative will not only close the digital divide between the haves and the have-nots, but strengthen us as a community.

"We also recently launched the Affordable Connectivity Program, which extends federal emergency broadband benefits to those who would not otherwise be able to afford internet service. It's estimated that more than 100,000 Hawaii families will be able to qualify for internet services under this program.

"More than that, we have a chance to lift every business and every family with this incoming tide, to take everyone with us, whether we're talking about business growth, career opportunities, healthcare, housing, or education. Because, in spite of the strengthening economy, there are still many businesses on the brink of failure and many families who are struggling to make ends meet. We cannot leave them behind. As a community, it's not in our nature to leave them behind. The tide is rising, and it should lift all of us.

"Hawaii is unique. Our geography, our people, and our history. As the only island-state in the nation and as an amazing multicultural community, we celebrate our diversity. This distinction is at the heart of how we govern. There's no one-size-fits-all way of governing.

"That's why we're a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. That's not just a cliché, but a recognition that our government should reflect and respond to that diversity. This is also what has directed and shaped my decisions. It's also been one of my greatest challenges.

"There's a popular local saying: Keep the country, country. In an era that is propelling us through unprecedented changes and challenges, how do we keep Hawaii, Hawaii? How do you sustain and nurture what makes us, us? How do you do that, even as we must change to meet the times? How do you make things pono for everyone?

"Like our response to the pandemic, there is no easy answer. But I believe it lies somewhere deep within all of us who call Hawaii home. It lies in our willingness to share, to give even when we have very little to give. It is tucked deep within our desire to lift and lighten the burden of others. It's our deep-seated belief that we're part of a greater 'ohana and that we have a responsibility to our community. We are all connected.

"It's taken generations, stretching back to those pathfinding sea-voyagers, to create this amazing and wonderful sense of community. There are some who fear that we're in danger of losing it through the many changes that we've endured. I am not one of them.

"From my vantage point, I see a Hawaii that remains strong and true to itself. I see families come together, even when they cannot physically get together. I see a generation reaching down to take hold of a younger one, and the young reaching up for guidance from their kūpuna, something we've always done here in the islands. I see a Hawaii that has been tested and tested over and over again during this pandemic. We may have bent, but we did not break.

"I believe in Hawaii, in its people and its purpose. When we work together, we can do great things, like those I've talked about today, to help all who are struggling to make ends meet, whether it's $100 or $400. To provide childcare for working parents and preschools for every child in Hawaii. And to create a broadband network that includes everyone in every community all across the state.

"I am proud of the work that we do. And I am proud, proud to be your governor. For all that you do and all that you are, my thanks and deeply felt aloha. Mahalo."

President Kouchi then rose and stated:

"Thank you, Governor. I appreciate the emotion at the end of your speech and underscores your commitment. Based on the remarks last week in both the House Chamber, where we are today, and the Senate Chamber, we have many shared goals and the Legislature looks forward to working together with you in an effort to deliver what is pono for the people of Hawaii and make sure we lift up everyone in this state. On Wednesday, the Speaker said from this rostrum he supports an $18 minimum wage. Today the Senate is holding a hearing on a bill that would raise the minimum wage to $18. And I believe we're taking a bold first step to deliver on that promise. I'd like to declare this Joint Session adjourned."

At 10:40 a.m., President Kouchi declared the Joint Session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the Thirty-First Legislature, Regular Session of 2022, adjourned.

ADJOURNMENT

At midnight, the House of Representatives adjourned until noon Wednesday, January 26, 2022.

Representative Tokioka: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. It is with great sadness that I would like to announce to the members today, I got a call on Sunday morning from the Kanoho family. For those of you who know, I think there are still 10 members in this body that served with him, but on Sunday he passed away from natural causes.

"I was fortunate enough to be the representative that served after him, and I learned a lot from him. He and my dad worked together for 30 years at the Hawaiian telephone company. He was a great man. And for those of you who are in this body that served with him would know that he was one of those representatives that never had a bad thing to say about anyone. He worked tirelessly for the district that I'm in on Kauai. He always had nice things to say about everybody. And, you know, one of the things that I tried to do, and I think I failed a few times, was whenever something was happening bad here, I would think, what would Ezra do? And so, for the 16 years that I've been here, I've always tried to think of that. And I don't think I've, I think I've failed a few times thinking of that. Because he was just a great man. And I know the senior guys that are here would agree with me 100%.

"So, on behalf of his family, his wife, Pauline, who has passed, and his four children, we just wanted to share our aloha with him and his 'ohana. He served here for 18 years, he was a big Christian, a big family man, and he loved to play golf, and he loved the game of golf. So, at the appropriate time, Mr. Speaker, could I offer a moment of silence for the late Ezra Kanoho?"

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "So ordered, at the appropriate time, a moment of silence."

On motion by Representative Morikawa, seconded by Representative Okimoto and carried, the following Senate Bill passed First Reading by title and further action was deferred:

S.B. No. 2018

ORDER OF THE DAY

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

H.R. No. 4:

Representative Belatti moved that H.R. No. 4 be adopted, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ganaden rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. I'd like to articulate the necessity of continuing the work of the Red Hill committee and the necessity of this resolution. As the representative of Pearl Harbor-Hickam, our office has heard from constituents who continue to be displaced by this ongoing water crisis, doing their best to live out of hotels or transient accommodation, bus their children to schools where water is bottled and trucked in daily for usage.

"This resolution allows our Red Hill community to continue to consolidate the efforts of the House and continue to perform our state constitutional mandate of providing clean water to our communities. Our office and the world have now heard of the terrifying effects on our constituent's health, including not just dizziness and nausea, but neurological effects, seemingly unexplainable conditions on skin, eyes, and mental health. The long-term effects of this exposure, especially to children, is, to put it mildly, concerning.

"Mr. Speaker, almost daily, we are presented with new information. From the Navy's information, jet fuel and other materials were circulating in the Navy's water supply for over a week from on or about November 20th to after November 28th. Three wells which supply water to urban Honolulu remain shuttered. The Navy and our governor have not yet fully committed to defueling and decommissioning the cause of this crisis, the Red Hill Bulk Fuel Storage Facility.

"Mr. Speaker, the public must know that this House is doing something about this conflict and will continue to perform our duty to consolidate and convey information, to hold agencies accountable, and to work with our federal counterparts to ensure the safety of this community. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too arise in strong support. Mr. Speaker, I have a few caveats. First, congratulations for the leadership putting this up, getting the committee formed. It's very, very important. But my advice would be this. No Band-Aids, please. All you committee members stay strong, don't compromise, don't Band-Aid, that fuel tank has to be moved, those fuel tanks have got to be relocated.

"I represent Hawaii Kai, all of our drinking water, including what I drank this morning, comes from those wells. And my people are one to say, national defense is important, but what I drink and what I put in my kid's mouth and stomach is more important than that for immediate purposes. So, my advice to the committee, you're fortunate to be on it. Stay strong and make sure you do the right thing. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative B. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thank you. This committee has a big responsibility because this is not a minor issue and not a short-term issue. I think that this committee may last much longer than we all hope it would.

"May I point out that there is a slight problem in the second whereas of this resolution. The whereas reads, 'WHEREAS, on November 28, 2021, users of the Navy's Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam water system complained of a fuel odor coming from their water.' In fact, as a prior speaker had mentioned, there were complaints prior to this November 28th date. A Washington Post story talks about complaints going back as far as June, August, and October of 2021. These are not substantiated complaints, but from what little I know about people exposed to toxic and other, how would you say, contaminants, the sensitive people are extraordinarily sensitive. And so, there may have been a reaction by the most sensitive people to fuel long before this November 28th date.

"The bigger point is that the Navy is using November 28th as the start date to document exposure recordation. The Washington Post story, December 22nd, 2021, quote, the Navy has created a registry to record people's health concerns, McGinnis said, but it is currently set up to document exposure only from Nov. 28 and forward. He said it could be revised if officials determine exposure may have started earlier. Right now, McGinnis said, we're really focused on what we understand to be the beginning of this event, which is the 28th, unquote.

"So, the 28th is an artificial date selected by the Navy based on its understanding that this is the beginning of this event. But I think that should be one of the items the committee should look into. Thank you."

Representative Johanson rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Ganaden be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 4, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING THE HOUSE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON RED HILL TO ADDRESS ISSUES RELATED TO THE RED HILL BULK FUEL STORAGE FACILITY, WATER CONTAMINATION AND REMEDIATION, AND ALL RELATED IMPACTS," was adopted.

ORDER OF THE DAY

Representative Nakamura: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today at 1:30 p.m. there's going to be an informational briefing sponsored by the House and Senate Committees on Housing and Transportation. The topic of the meeting is an important issue, especially in Honolulu. It's about how do we address the shortage of affordable housing. And you know, there are different ways to approach this. Either you can put them all at one site and impact one community, or you can spread it out along transit-oriented development stations.

"So, this meeting is for members to learn about what's happening along the transit line at the stations by eight state agencies who have been working over the past many years to develop their plans and to share them with you. I encourage all of you to tune in to the House YouTube link at 1:30 p.m. Thank you."

Representative Ward: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to announce that the kickoff of the fellowship luncheon is tomorrow. Everyone, please remember the Mizuno office invitation to book with Christine the plate lunch, which will be right immediately after session, depending on how long we go. And we have a guest speaker called Pastor Jocelyn McMahon. Yes, it's the first woman of the first session of the year for us. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Holt: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As we all know, February is 'Ōlelo Hawai'i month and today is a very auspicious date, which only happens once every hundred years. It's 2/2/22, and it's a day that we all should celebrate and appreciate our *tūtū*s, especially for us in the Hawaiian culture, as evidenced by the representative from Nanakuli's beautiful invocation yesterday. I also take care of my 92-year-old tūtū at home. So just a reminder, give them a call, tell them you love them, give them a hug. But we should all celebrate our *tūtū*s today. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kong: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Tongan community will be holding a relief drive on Saturday, February 12, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at The Parish of St. Clement's Episcopal Church. A mailer will be forwarded from the community to each of us, so if you could keep them in mind, please. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have a no with reservations. I know that doesn't fit, but I want to explain why. First of all, we don't want to promote fraud in COVID-19 vaccinations. But at the same time, there's some flaws in this in that, firstly, it says, and I think unjustifiably puts churches in there. Admittedly, there are some anti-vaccine churches, but that doesn't mean they're fraudulent. So, putting the church and the state together in this bill, I think it's a little bit itchy, sketchy, and unfounded.

"The other thing, Mr. Speaker, is this bill really enforceable? This is telling the AG, get your COVID card police out there and go enforce this, and if it's millions of dollars, so be it. Is this enforceable and do we have the money to do that? That's the second point. Third point is, how, if there is a police, can we say that we want to target the 25% who's not vaccinated? Right now, we've got 75% of all the people of Hawaii are vaccinated. That's pretty high. Do we want to say, you 25%, you're the reason for this? And I know you can buy a false COVID test for $25, evidently. But how many people are doing that? Do we have the metrics to say that this bill is needed? Otherwise, I think it's going to do more harm than good.

"For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think this is a bill that needs a lot more discussion, a lot more kind of aiming a little bit clearer than this broad putting the churches and anybody who doesn't believe any of the issues that scientific evidence points to, whether it be some of the studies that just came out of John Hopkins that says, hey guys, the lockdowns have hurt more than they've helped. Months ago, you could be censored for saying that, you could be taken off Twitter, you could be taken off of YouTube. And now it's the truth, and John Hopkins is not a fly-by-night organization.

"The point is, we've had the moving goalposts. We've had science that says water is H₂O in Honolulu, but hey, look, if you're in Israel, it's H₃O, and if you're in Washington, D.C., water is H₅O. This science has not been good for us as policymakers. And to put this into a bill and say, look, you guys, you're a bunch of phonies, we're going to put you in jail or we're going to get the AG police to come and get you, is not good policy, Mr. Speaker. Let's ride out this wave. We don't need to put this in legislation. And for those reasons, I'm very much against this bill. Thank you."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Thank you, Representative Ward, can I ask you, was that a WR or a no vote?"

Representative Ward: "No with a WR."

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is clearly a with reservations, primarily for two reasons. One is, it's well-intended. We have the ALICE study that says, hey, 40% of our people are one check away from basically going to the poorhouse. The poor need money, no question. My difficulty is in the second reason here, is that there's no nexus between education or student performance and the money. It just says if you're poor and you've got a kid in school, doesn't say your grade point average or some incentivization, if you will, that tells the kid, hey, your family is going to get a thousand bucks if you can get at least a 2.0 or a 2.5. And we know there's an inverse correlation between prosperity and academic achievement.

"So, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to see this bill tightened up a bit to where there's a nexus between giving the family money and the reason why it's being done, and it's called the DOE. Unless this is a slush fund the DOE has got too much money for, they're kind of bumping over into the Department of Human Services, and I'd like to see it encourage academic performance rather than just cash a check and forget about school. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kong rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, quick comment. If you were to Google this, the carbon dioxide in the air is .042%, but I'll use Blue Planet's numbers, they say it's 412 parts per million, which is .0412%. So that's a carbon reading of .000412. According to Blue Planet, 50 years ago it was

.000362. So, the difference from 50 years ago to today in the carbon reading is literally .00005. That is what carbon is in the atmosphere. So, we have to really take a good look at what we're doing scientifically. Just look at the numbers. And of course, when you graph this, it seems like it's such a huge difference, but it really is not. So, I just want you to know, Mr. Speaker, that this is what the truth is. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

No. 2016, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SAND ISLAND STATE RECREATION AREA," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Gates, LoPresti, McDermott, and McKelvey being excused.

Representative Tarnas, for the Committee on Water & Land, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 26-22) recommending that H.B. No. 2288, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2288, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Takayama rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with reservations. I'd like to thank the Chair of Water & Land as well as the author of this measure for their work on this bill. However, my reservations stem from the fact that this parcel of land is located adjacent to Leahi Hospital as well as Kapiolani Community College and would be an ideal place for a center with health as well as education as its focus. And in fact, the UH is in the process of exploring this possibility at the present time. So, with that, I'd simply like to ask that there be further consideration of the best use of this parcel. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of this measure. Anything that adds to the DHHL land allotment allocation is welcome, whether it's transferred from the federal, from the state, from the neighborhood board, from any other place. I think any bill that would obviate that is missing what otherwise for 100 years has been an obviously obfuscation of our responsibility, a breach of trust, if you will, to build Hawaiian homes for the Hawaiians. There are 28,000 on the waitlist, and look, this parcel is only going to make a few units, but at least it's a step forward for DHHL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Holt rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. With all due respect to the Chair of the Higher Education Committee, the fact that we're looking to transfer land to the Department of Hawaiian Homes is an amazing idea. When is the last time we tried to do it? We're 100 years into the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act and where are we at? So, although it is a small parcel with only a few, options for a few units, it's a great step forward."

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. We talk about helping Native Hawaiians and we talk about putting them in the urban core. This measure does exactly that. This lot, even though it wouldn't house many, is next to a community college, next to health services, and this would be a prime spot to put Native Hawaiians and we need to consider that. Mahalo."

"Also, the University of Hawaii has been sitting on this lot for many years. Since 2017, they've also testified that they had plans, and nothing has come to fruition. So, it's time for us to act to help Native Hawaiians. Mahalo."

Representative B. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support with reservations. This plot of land, as well as other plots of land around Leahi Hospital, has been unused or underutilized for many, many decades, not years but decades. So, I welcome any opportunity to make better use of this land. I can tell you that over the decades, several ideas have popped up, none have been finalized and near approval."

"On a second note, I would suggest that language be added to the House draft. The current House draft says, 'notwithstanding any law to the contrary.' I would suggest that perhaps the words 'any law or provision to the contrary' be added. One of the main obstacles in use of this land is that the land was executive ordered by the governor to the University of Hawaii. The University of Hawaii claims that since it is a body corporate, only the university can decide what to do with this land. As you know, the University as a body corporate can own and transfer land, a responsibility that is rare in other state agencies. So, the words 'and provision' would incorporate the obstacle of the executive order by the governor."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, also in support and continuing. Contrary to the good gentleman from Diamond Head, this body, the Senate, the House trumps whatever the University is doing. Recall, we used to give them what was called sovereignty or their own autonomy. Given what we have now, we kind of cherry pick what we want to give for autonomy and what we don't. And this piece of land, which again, for the sake of the Hawaii community that's waited 100 years, that is a cheap excuse. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2288, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, with Representatives B. Kobayashi and Takayama voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Gates, LoPresti, McDermott, and McKelvey being excused.

Representative Okimoto rose in opposition to the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Okimoto's written remarks are as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure."

"Mr. Speaker, as written, this is a very broad and undefined policy we would be implementing on our keiki."

"Overall, I don't believe that the Legislature has any business creating school curriculum—especially one of such a sensitive nature."

"I believe that a prudent, representative government would consult with parents first and create an open dialogue among parents, administrators, students, and educators. As written, it is a top-down mandate that does not allow parents to have their voices heard."

"I commend the efforts by the Children and Youth Summit attendees, and I believe that a solution can be found through input by parents first and foremost. I look forward to further discussion on this measure moving forward."

"Mahalo, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tam rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support, permission to insert written comments."

Representative Tam's written remarks are as follows:

"In support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The bill that we are debating on the floor today updates our sexual education standards in our public school to be more inclusive of all students. Currently, our standards follow a narrow view that excludes the LGBTQ+ community. A concern has been raised that students are not ready to learn this information and it may be uncomfortable to learn. However, public education aims to ready our students for adulthood. The Legislature should not prevent standards simply because it is uncomfortable because that would be a disservice to our kids and could lead to unintended consequences in this adulthood. It is important to note that Section 3 of the bill requires all programs under this proposal to be medical and factually accurate. I would never vote for a bill such as this unless it is medically and factually accurate."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Reservations, brief comment. I was a no on this bill in committee, and I've really been thinking about it a lot over the last few days. And while I do still have serious reservations about the bill, I realize that ultimately, it's about the kids and how they feel in their environment. I would just like to caution the Legislature and really recommend to the body that we make sure that we consult parents and have them be a big part of whatever it is we're doing. So, thank you very much."

Representative Woodson rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to commend my colleague for reconsideration of his vote in committee. And I did want to inform the body that this is a Keiki Caucus priority, it's part of our bill package. And it came to be part of our package as the top priority of the Children and Youth Summit. So, the young people involved in that summit identified this above even the climate crisis as something that they really felt strongly about. And over the course of the interim and in preparation for session, I've heard a great deal from young people, and all of the response has been supportive across the spectrum. So, thank you for considering this bill and I hope to see it passed. Mahalo."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just a small comment with a no vote and not in support of this. No vote and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this bill says, hey look, we tried to make the Hawaii Hospital Service Corporation work. It hasn't worked. Now we're going to do a Hail Mary and we're going to give the hospitals over to the Department of Health. Mr. Speaker, the countless amount of emergency funding that we did to keep our hospitals afloat. Why do we think that if we give it over to government, it's going to work? I'm not going to talk about the rail and the money that they've spent and not spent. And in the hearts and minds of many constituents in this state, are totally incompetent to do it when they can't even have the rails where the tracks fit the wheels, how can we have a hospital system that's going to be run by the government? The government has shown it is not able to run what otherwise should be in the private sector. And this bill is saying, hey, Hail Mary, give it to the Department of Health, and let's see what, this is a crap shoot, is the point, Mr. Speaker, and I don't want to be part of that. Thank you."

Representative Marten rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in support. I used to work there. It's very under-utilized. And having the Department of Health take it over to have programs that focus on mental health, I know that's something that we really need in my community and we have a shortage of, and that's not something that private hospitals do. So that's something that our Department of Health needs to take over. Thank you."

These are statistics that the state has known about for many years.

"This bill is the result of many people from the academic, private, and state sector talking about how to implement these practices, how to talk about them in a way that's civil, and how to work with an emerging body of knowledge from an international diaspora of intellectuals talking about how to reduce the over incarceration of native peoples, people of color, and juveniles in our community. It's a cost saving measure. And for those of you who might be hearing it in the next few committees, I implore you to just listen to the testimony and check out what the School of Law has supplied to us. Thank you so much."

"In support, Mr. Speaker. So, we've been dealing with these sandbags, burritos, tarps and things for years now and what I've consistently heard back from OCCL and various departments at the university is that they're not 100% sure exactly what the effects are on the neighboring landowners. They have some ideas, they have some theories, but we've never studied it in any meaningful way.

"So, what I'd like to do is just study the problem and let us learn to see if sand burritos are an appropriate tool for our toolbox. I'm certainly not suggesting that we would just start using them everywhere, but there may be certain instances at certain homes or certain properties where they could be appropriate. So, I'd just like to find out. Thanks very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I know it's not third reading, but I never know when I'll have the chance to make my comments so I'm doing it now. Kona coffee and Kau coffee and other specialty coffees are world renowned products. They are difficult to farm, limited in quantity, and they're special. Other regions, other states, other countries don't allow what we allow here, which is for their geographic origin name for a specialty product like this to be used on products that aren't that product and that don't reflect the quality that people expect.

"In Hawaii, we allow coffee blends that contain only 10% of Kona coffee or whatever origin coffee, one coffee bean in 10, an amount that in blind taste tests cannot be detected, to be sold under the name Kona. Some people will say the important thing is truth in labeling, but the reality is we know that these labels mislead people. If they didn't, they wouldn't be used. That is the point, to put the name Kona or Kau or Hawaii on coffee that is 90% not that and sell it for more. The deception is the point.

"By allowing this deceptive practice, we're damaging the reputation of our specialty products and we're decreasing the value of the products that are grown here and are 100% that product and we decrease the revenue to the farmers that grow them. Every farmer that testified on this bill testified in support. And I would argue that the Legislature has a greater obligation to support our local farmers than to undercut them with a state law that allows people to make a little more profit on imported coffee they are selling based on deceptive labeling.

"People have also made the argument this year that there's inflation and we have some obligation to provide affordable coffee. I think it's a completely fallacious argument. This is a specialty product. We're not here to provide affordable luxury sports cars or designer brand clothing or specialty coffee. There are other choices on the shelves if people want affordable coffee, and we shouldn't undercut our farmers and then make the argument that this is somehow for the good of low-income families. I guess those are the comments I wanted to make, and I think it's long past time that we pass this legislation. I hope this is the year that we can do it."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. We must protect our local coffee market. And may the comments of the previous speaker be entered into the Journal as my own. A historical moment for both of us."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. And I ask that the words of the Representative from Kailua-Kona be inserted into the Journal as if they were my own.

"One of the most important and special things about Kona coffee is that it's one of the only coffees in the world that is picked and produced by hand. And that's something that's special about Kona and Kona coffee. It contributes to the flavor, but it's also something that we need to think about when we're thinking about the farmers who do this every single day and spend their livelihoods doing something like this. So, thank you very much to the chair for passing this out, and I hope that it will continue forward, and we can get it passed this year. Thank you."

Representative Tarnas rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Holt rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Yesterday I gave a speech that was written 40 years ago about the plight of the Hawaiians and the hope that they had in the creation upon OHA. I've had a lot of people come up to me and tell me it was a great speech, thank you, everybody. But one that really got to me said, it was a great speech, but it was really sad that to see the hope they had 40 years ago, and nothing happened. Nothing happened.

"So, here we are 40 years later. One of the lines in the speech is that the dream of salvation is founded upon the belief that the Hawaiian will one day control his own destiny. Last year, they wanted to pass a bill to possibly do some casino to fund DHHL. We didn't pass it. It was approved by the commission this year, this study is approved by the commission, the Hawaiian Homes Commission, and I just hope that we can put it back into our own hands. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Marten rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, no vote, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this is a good shot across the bow which says, hey, we need money. We're DHHL, we don't have enough money, as the previous speaker from downtown said. We had hopes and then the funding would go and hopefully the $600 million that's on its way will not be interrupted or diverted or detoured.

"But Mr. Speaker, gambling is not the way to fund the Hawaiian Homes Commission. This is not the right way, but it's kind of like, hey, we'll take anything we can get. But this is not the legitimate way for this body to treat the people who are the host culture, the ones who have waited 100 years for housing, the ones who have actually been very patient, very gentle. But to say we've got to put in gambling to do that, the quick fix is the wrong way to go. We have got to more genuinely look them straight in the eye and say, look, you deserve this, we're going to fund you legitimately. We're not going to do it on a crap shoot, we're not going to do it on the game of chance, which this is.

"So, with that, Mr. Speaker, good intention but it's a shot across the bow saying, hey, we need money. And I totally agree with that. But in terms of the methodology of it, I totally disagree. Thank you."

Representative Kapela rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Mizuno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support. Mr. Speaker, I agree, gaming can be dangerous. We have issues with gambling. People have lost their houses, families. I get that, I get that. This bill is for a study. And whether you're for gambling or not, the simple fact remains, people in Hawaii take 300,000 visits a year to Las Vegas, Nevada. People of Hawaii spend approximately $1 billion in Las Vegas, Nevada, every year.

"Again, I'm not saying gambling is bad or good, but it is legal in 48 other states. I don't know where this will go, but I think a study will probably look at the pros and cons and tell us maybe gambling is not good for Hawaii. But I'd like to see that study done so at least we know. For those reasons, I support this measure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Eli rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tam rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"No vote and a brief comment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate what this is trying to do for the Native Hawaiian community. But we already know what the studies have shown, and that is that gambling is one of the leading causes of bankruptcy amongst families right now. And I get that many people will fly to Las Vegas to gamble, but at least they have a round trip ticket to come back so they can build back some of the funds that they lost and for their family. And for those reasons, I'm still going to be a no vote."

Representative Holt rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Second time. At the base of this, I understand it's about gambling, but I'll read it one more time. The dream of salvation is founded on the belief that the Hawaiian will one day control his own destiny. His own destiny. Mr. Speaker, I thank you for putting forth the $600 million for DHHL, but this is their plan. This is how they want to fund the housing. So, we're saying that we're just going to tell them what to do? That whenever we feel like we're going to fund them, we're going to give them money? So, why do we have a department, then? We should just get rid of the department. The commission should just go away."

"Forty years, Mr. Speaker. I know this is not OHA. DHHL has been around for 100 years, 100 years, people dying on the list. Anybody else go to the gaming conference this year? I did because I went to go find about all the ails of gambling. No, they don't exist. Las Vegas doesn't want Hawaii to gamble. No, that's not the truth. I went, I talked to these guys."

"We're just going to sit here and talk about bankruptcy. What about all the bankrupt Hawaiians? What are we doing to help them? We're making like gambling doesn't exist. HPD has testified that there's 70 to 100 game rooms on Oahu at any given time. What are we doing about that? Do we have any gambling mitigation in place? Hawaiians are going into bankruptcy. Everybody's going into bankruptcy. What is our solutions, Mr. Speaker? Yesterday we've got, trying not to transfer lands to DHHL. We always have excuses not to do it. What is our excuse to do it? When are we going to help? Thank you."

Representative Sayama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in support. When we say that a lot of folks from Hawaii like to go to Las Vegas, it's very true. But they're also moving there. Why? Because they don't have homes. Many of those families, hundreds, if not thousands, locals, Native Hawaiians are alike. And I believe that while gambling may not be a golden ticket, it might not be a perfect answer, it's something that the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands is requesting that we study. I think that's really worthy of studying, investing in the money to do that."

"Like the previous speakers have mentioned, it's no secret that gambling is prevalent in Hawaii. I think it's going to happen anyway. We might as well regulate it safely, responsibly, in a way that mitigates the social negatives that come with gambling and try to take all the advantages of gambling and dedicate that to a worthy cause to create homes for our local families, our Native Hawaiian families who've been waiting for years, generations, really. So, with that, I stand in support. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Thank you very much. I voted many times against gambling bills on this very floor. But what this bill asks for specifically, in bold print, study the feasibility of revenue generation from limited casino gaming, and address the potential public health and safety concerns arising from limited casino gaming. That's what it says in the bill. So, I don't think we can make bad decisions with too much information. And for those reasons, I support this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support. I think the Vice Chair of Economic Development hit the nail on the head. This is an issue of self-determination, the commission voted on it, the commission wants it, and that is why I support it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kapela rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. Hawaii is home to over 2,500 unique and individual sex trafficking survivors. These are women and children who are victimized and trafficked here on our shores. And bringing in gambling will only make that number rise. If we care about women and children, then we need to ensure that gambling doesn't happen on our shores. And if we truly care about the future of Native Hawaiians, then we should be focusing on economic and social justice initiatives, not gambling with their futures."

Representative Todd rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in support. I just wanted to note that there are some legitimate concerns regarding the future of gaming within our state, which is why we should study those potential concerns and potential negative health outcomes, which is exactly what the study intends to do."

"I also did find it pretty ironic last year that many of the folks who came out to testify against the legalization of some sort of limited casino gaming are many of the same folks who support the legalization of marijuana. I think that there is a very distinct parallel between the two in that marijuana is already being consumed in Hawaii, but we're not stepping up as a regulator to capture that revenue, there are negative health outcomes but those health outcomes already exist. I feel like gaming is very similar in that anyone who wants to gamble within Hawaii is already gambling in Hawaii. The difference is, we are not stepping up as the regulator, we're relying on institutes like VICE to try and control these operations, but they're happening in all of our communities as is. Anyone who wants to gamble on an app can do so already with no consequences, but we are not capturing any of that tax revenue, we are not stepping up as a regulator, we are not collecting data."

"So, I believe a study like this, which again is just a study, and which could potentially discuss, out in the open, all of the potential negative outcomes and all of the positive outcomes, makes a lot of sense, in the same way that I think studying the impact of legalizing and regulating marijuana makes a lot of sense. That's all I have. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time in opposition. Mr. Speaker, for a few of us who have been here for a little while, particularly the old, the longest serving is underneath the clock to the left or at least to my left, he knows and I know that we've heard, we've been here, done this, the same old, same old. Study it, we're going to do it, we travel there, we do it. So, nothing is new, even though the need for revenue of DHHL is very real."

"But do we want to make the poorest community in Hawaii poorer? That's what this is going to do, 80% of all the people who gamble lose. So, if we only got the people and the dens for gambling, whether there be wherever they are on Oahu, let those guys carry on. And for those who say, well, we're foregoing revenue, if you look at the other states who did this, Mr. Speaker, they back out the appropriation from their departments and they fill it with gambling. Then when gambling goes down, they say, well look, we don't have any money."

"My point is, DHHL is going to lose money if this bill passes and gambling is legalized, because the states that have relied upon education say, oh, this is great for the keiki. As soon as the gambling revenue went down, they didn't replace it with actually executive budget. So, this is a lose-lose proposition. And again, for those who have been here for a while, this is kind of the same old, same old that we've gone through, and it's no different. What we've got to do is legitimately fund DHHL. That's what the whole argument is about. This is kind of like another way of getting our attention. As I said earlier, it's a shot across the bow. Pay attention to the Hawaiians. Keep our promise. Put the $600 million that was in there steady as you go and every year, increase it. But gambling is a quick fix, it is the wrong way to go. Thank you."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and brief comments. Thank you, sir. I see this as not just a study. I've been around the block enough times to know that when a department says they want to do something and then they ask you for money to do a study, it's basically they're asking for a budget to create an argument for why they should be allowed to do what they already want to do or what they said they want to do. And I'm not interested in giving half a million-dollar budget to create a study that tells us the foregone conclusion of what they want the answer to be. So, I have little trust that that would actually happen. So, for now, I'm at reservations, but in the future, I can't see supporting this. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matayoshi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker, brief comment. I generally am against gambling and legalized gambling in Hawaii. I really consider it something of a regressive tax on the middle- and lower-income individuals living here. And whilst casino gambling, if we do legalize it in a limited capacity, it'll still go underground for the people who don't meet whatever qualifications we put in.

"So generally, again, I'm still against legalized gambling. I'm voting with reservations because this is just a study. But as the Representative from Ewa pointed out, studies typically go a certain way, they're almost like expert witnesses in law, they're going to go a certain way if the department wants it to go a certain way. I'm certainly going to keep an open mind as I read the study, but with reservations for now. Thank you."

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. We love to use Hawaiian phrases to look across the ocean or travel or to search for knowledge. We love to use our Hawaiian words. We love to use our old 'ōlelo noeau to generally support our arguments. But when it comes to Hawaiians actually looking for knowledge, you're going to use that against us.

"I remind everyone, this is a study. My community does not agree with gambling. But this is a study, this is an opportunity for information, and this is an opportunity for the Hawaiian people to self-determine their future. So, let's stop saying what is right or what is wrong for Hawaiians and let's let Hawaiians speak for themselves, because I'm getting tired of other people telling our people what is right. So, let's remember that. This is a study seeking knowledge. We always want other people to seek knowledge. Mahalo."

Representative Gates rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, brief comments. I appreciate the passion from many of our members. At this time, Mr. Speaker, may I please incorporate the words of the Representative from Lihue, the Vice Chair of Economic Development, and the Representative from Kailua into the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1962, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GAMBLING," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representatives Gates, LoPresti, Marten, Matayoshi, McKelvey, Okimoto, and Tarnas voting aye with reservations, with Representatives Eli, Kapela, Perruso, Tam, and Ward voting no, and with Representatives Luke and McDermott being excused.

Representative Quinlan, for the Committee on Economic Development, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 118-22) recommending that

H.B. No. 2177, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2177, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"This is requiring if you're young or old, that you are to file your taxes electronically. Mr. Speaker, I have reservations as my position. Some people in any district that we represent, number one, may not have a computer, and number two, may not be very savvy to be able to file by technology. I can see why our former colleague, who's now the head of taxation, would want to do this, because it makes their job much, much easier, and they can flag different difficulties, et cetera. But I think this is a little bit too much, too quick, unless they phase it in or have it, if you're a particular age you don't have to do it, I don't know. There's a better way to do it, and I'm not sure how many places in the rest of the country that they would require electronic filing. I know the IRS is nearing that, but whether the state should be doing that to me is very questionable. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, reservations."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2177, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE TAX ADMINISTRATION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative Ward voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Luke and McDermott being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition, very brief comment. This bill actually imposes a fee on the land that you put renewable energy, which is basically storage batteries, et cetera. Why would we want to tax those when we're trying to do all this getting out of biofuel, we're trying to get solar, we're trying to do all these other things, why would we want to tax land to do that? I hope somebody knows and can explain why this bill would be as it is because we should be incentivizing these people to do solar supply energy, whether it's the panel or the batteries, rather than taxing them. It's like taxing yourself out of debt, I just don't see how it can be done. So, with that, Mr. Speaker, no and confusion that sends the wrong signal to our energy-wise community. Thank you."

"Brief comment with reservations. Mr. Speaker, who's going to disagree with the right to clean water and health and all the other stuff? The only difficulty is that we've had this before on this floor. When you put something in the Constitution at that level and it becomes a right like the Bill of Rights, if you don't get clean water like this, if this bill was in effect, everybody on Red Hill, in the Army or in the Navy who drank that water could sue us. So, this is a huge liability, even though it's a warm and fuzzy, feels good, in terms of what the litigation that it can raise is very, very serious. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, it's good, but it's got some really downside economic fines that could be levied. For those reasons, with reservations."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, no vote, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this allows advanced practice nurses to administer death with dignity, i.e. assisted suicide. If you look at the numbers, the metrics are the majority, if not over 90% of the doctors, don't want anything to do with death and dying. I mean, it's like your cardiologist on the morning they're doing some of that and then some of the other things that they may be associated with.

"What we're doing is passing it off, if you will, to the nurses. I asked in the committee, I never got an answer, how many of the nurses would be like the doctors saying, hey, this is fine, but I don't want to do it. I know it's an accessibility issue. And in the hearing, it also said it was like, hey, the waiting period is too short, and I know this tries to correct that. And I said, you should do what the poster child of the death with dignity has done, that's John Radcliffe. The Representative of District 40 and I met with him regularly throughout the last 18 months of his life. He stockpiled, or no, he preordered, if you will, almost six months ahead of time his medicines that he would actually take and then his demise would then follow.

"So, I don't see the need for the bill in the sense until we know what the nurses are going to do, in terms of what people could stockpile for it. So, with those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think we need to examine this rather than loosening it up. Thank you."

Representative Kitagawa rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and a few comments. Last year, I shared my concerns regarding piecemealing APRN legislation and shared the need to look at legislation related to APRNs in a holistic manner. As you may remember, I introduced two resolutions last year in an attempt to address these concerns. These resolutions passed the House but did not pass the Senate in its original form, which originally included convening a working group to determine the gaps in access to health care and the potential role APRNs may play in addressing these gaps, as well as an unbiased analysis of APRNs and physician assistants by the Legislative Reference Bureau. Therefore, because these did not pass the Senate, there was no working group to discuss these issues and no report from LRB.

"My concerns still exist regarding the way we are looking at expanding the scope of practice for APRNs. I very much appreciate the work that APRNs and nurses do, especially during this pandemic, and my concerns do not take away from the fact that they play a critical role in our healthcare system.

"However, like I shared last year, I still believe it's important to have conversations that look at this issue holistically, including with multiple stakeholders, to discuss what the role of APRNs and other healthcare professionals should be in addressing the many healthcare concerns that we have in our communities. At some point, without having these discussions, the distinctions between the different types of healthcare providers, including physicians, becomes blurred. Thank you for letting me share my opposition to this bill."

We got all the housing projects, we got all the homeless people, we got the homeless shelter. And we got the jail. It's been 100 years. And about 10 years or so, our community was told that we're finally going to get rid of the jail. We're going to get rid of the jail, we're going to move it, and we're going to get all these great services or whatever we're going to get to replace the jail. And now we're here saying, no, psych, we're not going to do it. So, I appreciate the introducer and the intention of the measure, but our community has been bearing the brunt of this for too long, and I really look forward to moving this forward. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support. As the representative of District 30, which includes Oahu Community Correctional Center, I am proud to support this bill. The replacement of the Oahu Community Correctional Center will stand to cost the State around $1 billion, as articulated by Architects Hawaii, the current plan by the Department of Public Safety. This bill and its amendment represents a compromise between advocates, the Criminal Justice Oversight Commission, and the Department of Public Safety. The Department of Public Safety has articulated in numerous ways as well alongside the community that we need to replace the Oahu Community Correctional Center. It stands on 19 acres of state land.

"Just last week, there were instances of attacks on guards and numerous safety issues regarding inmates. There are not many individuals who are articulating for the entire abolition of a new facility here in the state, as has happened in the Bronx, New York, San Francisco or Los Angeles, California. The Hawaii State Oversight Commission, the Hawaii Criminal Justice Research Institute, have not yet really been involved in policy here at the state, and this is an opportunity to slow this project down to allow them to be involved.

"There are numerous bills being moved through the Legislature right now, years in the making, discussing bail and parole reform, alternatives to incarceration, which discuss alternatives to incarceration primarily targeted towards women, towards parents, and towards Native Hawaiians. The task force on HCR 85 discussed this in 2019. The oversight commission was unanimous in saying that they want a moratorium or a pause on a new facility. If we are indeed intent on allowing them to perform their statutory duties, then this bill will allow the public to engage in that process, to engage in a conversation in those meetings. If the public wants more input on an RFQ or an RFP process or a moratorium, or to avoid the instances of inappropriate lobbying by corporate prisons, as has happened here in this state and in other states, then that will happen through this bill. Thank you so much."

Representative Holt rose to respond, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Still in opposition. The current Representative from District 30 makes a good point. People are getting attacked and it's going to cost us $1 billion. So, if we don't move it, how much is it going to cost and when are we going to start moving it? When are you going to be okay to move the jail? If we don't go now, it's going to cost $1.5, $2 billion, more people are going to get attacked?"

"I grew up in the district. That thing, that's a, you go down Dillingham and you come up on this big fenced-off barbed wire building. We're going to leave it there so we can check with different people how to build a jail? We went through all these processes. EISs are done. Plans are made. Money is spent. I appreciate the previous speaker's commitment to the Native Hawaiians, but Mr. Speaker, our community needs this jail gone. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2516, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, with Representative Kong voting aye with reservations, with Representatives Holt and Okimoto voting no, and with Representative McDermott being excused.

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition, brief comment, please. This is formally known as HB 1567. On the streets it's known as get out of jail free or felon privileges and rights. My point, Mr. Speaker, is this is a no bail bill. You don't have to show up because you don't have any skin in the game. And I think this is in an opposite direction. If we look on the mainland, what's going on in these cities that where there is just a real outbreak of a crime—"

Representative Belatti rose to a point of order, stating:

"Point of order. We just need to see Minority Leader Emeritus on the screen. We can't see him. Thank you."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"I was looking at the bill, actually. Hold on one second. I'm going right back. Thank you, Majority Leader, I didn't know my face was so desirable.

"On the street, it's known as a get out of jail free. It's for the felons who basically know that it's a revolving door. And this, having no bail or no skin in the game is not going to stop them. The point is, this issue I brought up in the committee hearing, and Kat Brady, all of you know who Kat Brady is, she said, well, because I said the bill is not needed and it's going to be to a disadvantage and encourage or enable, if you will, people who are criminal. And she said, well, in 2019, we passed a promissory note option where if you don't have the money, and I know there's a bleeding heart, look, you're poor, we don't want to punish the poor, but the poor can sign an IOU, a promissory note. And if they do show up, it's canceled.

"So, Mr. Speaker, the point is we don't need this. It's an encouragement and it's an enabling which if we see what's going on in the mainland and we learn from it, hey guys, this is not good policy, it's just not good policy. I don't care how many people are getting overcrowded or whatever. We've got to protect our citizens, our constituents, and this is not the way to go. Let's do the promissory note, make them sign. If they have less than $100 to their name, let them sign their promissory note, let them show up. That's the whole point. Let them show up and let the judicial process and the wheels of justice move. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I hope this bill doesn't go farther than today or next week. Thank you."

Representative Matayoshi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, brief comment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I do want to point out that, as the previous speaker said, the previous speaker doesn't seem to be against the concept of this because he is in favor of the promissory note provision. What this bill does is it simply allows certain nonviolent offenders with a bunch, kind of a laundry list of exemptions, to be not jailed prior to their hearing.

"So, we all know about the jail overcrowding situation. This bill was meant to alleviate that. If they commit another crime while they're out, this bill does not apply. So, we're not releasing violent offenders onto the streets. If someone is unlikely to return, then this bill will not apply. I think the Representative from Hawaii Kai is maybe misconstruing and over inflating the risk to society that this bill purportedly causes. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time in opposition, just a brief retort. If what the good representative has just said is true, then the mainland crime spree would not be in the no bail areas and particularly those cities where it's a revolving door and they look at the smash and grab guys, they're in and then they're out, they're in and they're out, because they know they don't have any skin in the game, they don't have to put up bail.

"Pretrial hearings are weeks and sometimes months delayed. The point is, when you do the crime, you should do the time. And this says, basically, if you do the crime, you got all the time in the world to do anything you want to do. And to say that there's nobody committing crimes after they're out and no bail is incorrect, incomplete, and there's plenty on the record, which I don't have immediately to cite, but there's plenty on the record, otherwise I wouldn't be so against this bill. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, this is a get out of jail free. It's, what do they call it, soft on crime and it's not good policy for the State of Hawaii and for our constituents. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1567, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CRIMINAL PRETRIAL REFORM," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representative Okimoto voting aye with reservations, with Representative Ward voting no, and with Representative McDermott being excused.

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I rise in support. I know it's second reading, but I did want to make some brief comments because I don't know if we'll hear this again. Mr. Speaker, water is life, and as you know, our state's currently facing immediate threats to this essential and vital part of our daily life. The threat of water quality is imminent, highlighted by the water crisis at Red Hill. And the lack of access to water because of pollution has been compounded by the direct impacts of climate change, which has limited our supply of fresh water natural resources.

"These are just a few examples of why our states and cities and counties have been advocating for water conservation for many years. For these reasons, I have introduced HB 1757 to help allow for xeriscaping in planned community associations. Xeriscaping, if used in the state, can help to save up to 70% of water that is currently being dumped into the ground in places like Ewa Beach where it's practically a desert climate. And we need to start doing more commonsense things and allowing xeriscaping, whereas most homeowner associations disallow that. So, thank you very much, and I want to thank the chairman of CPC for passing this."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A no vote and a brief comment, please. Mr. Speaker, this bill puts us on a very slippery ideological slope. It's basically a snitch bill. And we have told the counties, if you get somebody who turns in somebody regarding fireworks, you're going to get a reward. You know, they do that in China, they do it in other very highly ideological, dictatorial, and super control states.

"Do we want to put this on a slippery slope and say, well look, if we can get them on fireworks, we could probably do it if they did big drugs, Schedule I, Schedule A drugs, or we could do it when they do certain other things that are not legal.

"So, this is a bad precedent. Very, very, very bad precedent, which I think we need to avoid lest we get into an ideological, hey, we can tell you whatever to do and we're going to reward you, particularly your neighbors.

"I know the nation really just cringed when it was where you turned your neighbors in in the Soviet Union, and now it's such an everyday occurrence in China. This is just not the best place to go. And for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I hope everybody sees this. We always talk about slippery slopes, but we never know what it means. This one really means what it says. Turn in your neighbor and you get money. Very bad incentive system. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, no vote and a brief comment, please. Mr. Speaker, this is relating to Medical Cannabis Day. First, let me say, medical cannabis has done miraculous things for people with cancer and as a palliative. My difficulty with the bill is it sends the wrong message. When we say this is cannabis day, it says to young people, hey, this is cool, it's cannabis day, let's get on with it. But why not a codeine day or when people really are almost near death, they use morphine, why not a celebrate morphine day?"

"I'm not sure, Mr. Speaker, this is what it's supposed to be or is this sending a subtle message from this legislature to the public saying, hey, we're coming up on recreational marijuana and this is our—"

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Representative Ward, focus on the merits. Focus on the merits, good or bad, focus on the merits."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"I know I can't say motive, but I can't see any reason why we want to do cannabis day when we've got really a drug epidemic, we've got a suicide epidemic, we've got all of these things that are drug related, opioids, et cetera. And I can think of more honorable things, as I said earlier, a morphine day would make more sense. There's more use of morphine in hospitals than there is cannabis. So why we're celebrating cannabis, particularly for young people, for old people, not a problem, but for young people seeing that this is a day we can celebrate, that's not the message that I think a legislature responsible for the welfare of its citizens and their safety is what we should be sending. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Kong rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. For some years now, we have heard of the destruction and the problems associated with sea level rise. But no one actually explains to us what the rate of sea level rise is, they just presume. So, like I did with the carbon readings, I used a third party, in that case was Blue Planet, this time I'll use the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's data to highlight what sea level rise is.

"So, NOAA has records not just for the last year or 10 years, but for the past 100 years on sea level rise. And sea level rise is 1.55 millimeters per year stated for Honolulu, which this bill refers to in Waikiki. You have to imagine 1.55 millimeters. There's 10 millimeters in a centimeter, approximately two and a half centimeters per inch. Now, when we refer to tides, we're talking about feet. But when we're talking about sea level rise, we're actually referring to millimeters. So, if all this destruction has been happening in the past, it kind of doesn't really make sense because 1.55 millimeters is literally this big. It's real tiny.

"So now they talk about example, king tides, right? So that's on average, what, nine, ten inches above the high tide? But we all know, from our elementary school science, that this is affected by the moon and possibly the sun, depending upon its alignment. So, we're comparing feet to millimeters. And we're attributing all this destruction to the rise in millimeters, one or two millimeters. So, if it's two and a half, three feet at the king tide, one and a half millimeters doesn't even show up. You can't fathom how minuscule this is. So, I could go on, but I think my point is made. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Todd rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. In support. I just want to note that there was an interagency report released literally today that was kind of led by NOAA, which is referenced by the prior speaker, and they anticipate 10 to 12 inches of sea level rise by 2050. So, I think it's an appropriate time to really start planning ahead. What we really should be doing is dedicating hundreds of millions of dollars per year specifically to this issue. If you're on the Big Island and you're very mountainous, outside of maybe the downtown Hilo and Kona area, there's not going to be as much impact. But if you're in Waikiki and you're practically built on a swamp as is and a lot of it's backfill, then there's going to be significant impacts. Thank you."

Representative B. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Sea level rise is visible in Waikiki in very dramatic fashion. I would point out that three coconut trees fronting the Outrigger Reef Hotel have been cut at their base because they have been damaged by sea level rise and has had water lapping up to them for so many years that they finally were a danger. Also, at Outrigger Reef Hotel, the outer wall facing the ocean has boards covering holes in the wall for about 40 feet or so. I can show you pictures of these damages in my office. I can also show you, on the internet, pictures of the Outrigger Reef Hotel with these three coconut trees still standing.

"Further, there is a cut or a break in the concrete walkway in front of the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel. A concrete stairs that used to descend from the walkway is no longer open because the concrete foundation under this walkway has completely washed away. The stairs are literally standing there in midair without any base to them. There is also another place in Waikiki closer to the Outrigger Reef Hotel, where the concrete walkway has fallen into the ocean. So, we have dramatic instances of sea level rise in Waikiki. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. If the first speaker's data is true, even though they're citing the same source with different interpretation, this is the state of the art of science, and unfortunately, the weaponization of science. Also regarding the last speaker, as a retailer in Waikiki at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel for 15 years, I literally saw what he just said come and go, because the tides shift the sand from the Ewa to the Diamond Head every so many years. So, what he's observing is a natural phenomenon. The sand comes back. And if that doesn't happen, we buy sand from California and fill in in front of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and fill in in front of the Sheraton Waikiki. That has happened year and year again.

"Again, the data is there, but what we've got to do is interpret it correctly. And that's where the first speaker is saying, let's follow the science to where it's exact, and know that when you cite the source that it's real. So, Mr. Speaker, I have reservations because this is almost like COVID. It depends on where you get your data and what country and what organization is giving it to you. And for those reasons, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Tam rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. I would like to have the words of the Representative from Hilo and the Representative from Diamond Head inserted into the Journal as if they were my own. And a brief comment in support. As the representative from Waikiki, we see sea level rise. As a resident and as their representative, I see it every single day. And last year we poured millions of dollars in beach reclamation just so we can combat it. This bill would give us another tool to help us save money in the long run and to help us combat this devastating effect so that we can continue to have this beach for generations to come," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kong rose to respond, stating:

"With reservations, thank you. You cannot actually change the data. This is interesting. So, we have scientific data and we have scientific consensus. Two different things. They don't take into account, like the good Representative from Hawaii Kai mentioned, the tides, the erosion that takes place. So, there are other factors in play here. If you can see sea level rise, I'm amazed, at 1.55 millimeters. I mean, that's a stated data fact. You can't change that. You can change the consensus, though. For example, real quickly, if I may digress, when I gave my carbon readings, .00036, that came from Blue Planet, and then someone spoke up and said, well, it's a 15% increase. Well, you get .00036 times 15% or .15, it's still .00005. The data hasn't changed, but the way they use a consensus is it changes your mindset, and they are two different things. So as a technician, as you well know, I'm following the data, not the consensus. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

"Mr. Speaker, no vote with a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this bill hopefully is probably out of the time warp that we are in right now. Basically, it says if you have a mandate for a COVID test, you're going to get severely punished. I think we've probably gone beyond the mandate stage. The truckers in Canada are part of that whole anti-mandate, five of the ten provinces in Canada. And I'm not sure what the truckers are going to do in Washington. But the point is, there's probably a couple of dozen states that have put down mandates, and now we're putting all of this stuff in Hawaii to be more severe.

"I would lastly cite the John Hopkins study that I think probably is probably the more credible of any institution or data research, a set of experts who said, hey, mandates are more harm than good. So, I think it's like, it's out of the, I think that's called an iconic, no that's, there's a term that says you're out of sync with the times that you're in. This bill is out of sync with what we need in terms of what hopefully in a few months, there are not going to be any mandates. So, if we pass this and I think it goes in effect in June 2023, no it is repealed in June 2023, which is good as a safeguard but I think it'll look a little funny if in effect before that, we've basically taken down the mandates and we've opened up this beautiful building again to the people of Hawaii, which we should be doing, hopefully, Mr. Speaker very, very soon and very, very quickly."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"So, please refrain and keep your remarks on this bill only."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"And I know there's a lot of people watching this bill because they're thinking that this is a little bit going after them. And I would yield to the next speaker who probably is going to say what it means to those who have not a vaccination. Thank you. Mr. Speaker."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to try not to get emotional about this because I am extremely concerned because I have seen the impact of these burritos on my favorite surf spot and it's pretty devastating. They're being washed into the ocean and breaking up into really unrecoverable microplastics. I am really hopeful that, moving forward, the study does not leave these unpermitted tools in place because they're not effective. That shouldn't be our question. Our question should be, what next? Our question should be, how do we engage in managed retreat? How do we stop building houses on sand dunes? So, yeah, for all of those reasons, I am a strong WR on this measure."

Representative LoPresti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, brief comments. I share a lot of the same concerns as the previous speakers. I'm not sure that beach burritos are the way to go in the future. But Ehukai is the test case for the entire state. We're going to see this sort of erosion on all of our coastlines in the next 20 or 30 years. So, I think it is very appropriate that we take the time to study these measures. And I would also like to point out that in the current version of the bill, OCCL still retains all their powers and abilities to find and remove burritos as they see fit. Thank you very much."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition and brief comment. This bill gives DOBOR much greater power to impose parking fees without public input. There have been issues with this in my district repeatedly for many years. And I would just propose that if this does move forward, it should be considered that this power shouldn't apply to imposing new parking fees where they never existed before, or to imposing parking fees over a certain percent increase, perhaps, or maybe narrowing it down to just Ala Wai. But this is hugely concerning and should be for anyone who's had issues with DOBOR in their districts with small boat harbors."

Representative Marten rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations please and brief comments. I have concerns, I'm not sure, I tried to find out how this will apply to the parking in the Ala Wai area for surfers currently using Kaiser's, Ala Moana Bowls, and I would oppose any measure to make that paid parking. So, I haven't clarified how this bill will impact that. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations as well. I know there's more discussion to be had and it may be limited to certain situations or areas, but I'm getting a lot of concern from my local permit holders who are worried that without this kind of mechanism for public input, that fees could be raised. And while the commercial entities would have no problem being able to pay them, that could displace them by a matter of fact from being able to use the facilities to which they are permittees. So, thank you."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tam rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. This bill was brought forth by constituents of Waikiki who are fearful of their safety or have been victims of criminal activity in the area and sometimes in their own homes. It is no secret that Waikiki is one of the most well-known areas in the world. Millions flock there every year, believing that it is a safe area to spend their vacation. However, they soon find out the hard way that they end up becoming victims or statistics, and that ultimately affects the surrounding neighborhood and the people that live there. As a result, we see headlines like, Waikiki crime made up 17% of Oahu offenses over past week, recent violent crime leaves Waikiki residents on edge, or HPD searching for attempted murder suspect after Waikiki shooting, and the list goes on.

"It has gotten very bad that Waikiki residents have teamed up with Honolulu Police Department for neighborhood patrols, and the prosecutor is working to solve the habitual offender situation going on. Despite our efforts, members of the patrol have found 85 repeat offenders, all who have been arrested and cited in Waikiki, and the number continues to grow. Frustration over this has been echoed by the city prosecutor and police officers who believe the system is broken.

"We often see Waikiki as a tourist destination and a business destination, but it's also a neighborhood. We have families and senior citizens that are scared that they're going to be victims. And I am grateful for the many who have testified in support of this measure and some who are willing to share their stories of what happened to them.

"By passing this bill, we will provide some much-needed support to the city when it comes to protecting our neighborhood. And I wanted to thank the Chair of Economic Development for giving this bill a chance. For these reasons, I stand in support of this measure."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, a no vote for me and comments. I fear this kind of measure sets a very dangerous precedent. The last thing I think Hawaii wants to become is a place where there are certain enclaves where locals aren't allowed, regardless of the reason. And while that's not the intent of the measure, I'm sure that could snowball into something like that. If you go to places in the Bahamas, in the Caribbean, and Jamaica, there are places where it's very clear that only people of a certain type are even allowed in those areas. And I really don't think we want to become that, and this kind of measure starts to move us down that path. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. And because of the enforceability of this, the only way it can be enforced if we adopt some of the things that they do in communist China."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations and two comments, if I will. First is, what's missing is how they define civic education. This is about an appropriation to get more civic education in the school system, which is, actually it's quite good. Some people don't even know where Canada is or that we've got three branches of government. But what I'm concerned with, secondly, is that this doesn't drift into a critical race theory. Because it does say it's going to teach critical thinking and it's got more money to expand what we're doing. And I don't think we, as Hawaii, deserve anything close to critical race theory as we are not only the melting pot of all the races, all the countries of the world, we are better than that. So, I hope this is not a sneak or, what would you call, a Trojan horse for critical race theory. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support and just a brief comment. I did want to provide clarification that critical thinking is not critical race theory, they're two very different things. So, let's stick with the language of the measure. Mahalo."

"Mr. Speaker, in support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and if you'll indulge me a few comments, even though it's second reading, I wanted to speak today on behalf of many of my constituents residing in planned community associations. Many of us have been affected one way or another by restricted access to our own yards for personal agriculture. That is to say, they can't grow tomatoes, they can't grow cucumbers, they can't grow their own food. When today's high costs of living are so, the inflation is going up because of the high cost of living, in part because of food, and we are having so many different measures that move through this body to try to encourage local food production, we really need to enable and allow and empower people to grow their own food in their own gardens. And that's simply what this measure does.

"There's other exciting measures going through the body right now related to gardening in schools, and this dovetails perfectly with that. So, I really hope that this measure moves forward and these other gardening activities are allowed. We shouldn't outlaw gardening. And this bill helps to get rid of that ridiculous thing. Thank you."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Sorry for jumping out ahead, which probably personifies the intensity of what I feel about this bill. In fact, this bill is an imperative must-pass, if you will. In support, strongly, maybe too strongly in support. But it basically says that if we don't pass the bill, what we've said in terms of keeping our commitment to the Hawaiian community, we will have reneged on that, we will have put it aside, we'll have said that, we really want to give you lip service, but we don't want to really give you what is, in effect, to build the land, or to build upon the land of which 28,000 people have been on the waitlist for years and years and years.

"You might say, well, it's such a small piece of land, you can't really do that much to take the 28,000 off the waitlist. But Mr. Speaker, you know of the poetic, I think it's a short story where the starfish have filled the shoreline and the beach is just filled with starfish. And this bright young man kind of walks up to it and says, oh, this is really bad news, I'm going to start throwing them back into the water. But another young man comes up and says, hey, what are you doing? You got so much here there's going to be no difference at all that you're going to make in doing this. And he says, well, watch this. He picks up another one and throws it in. It'll make a big difference to that one.

"Mr. Speaker, this is the whole thing about this little piece of land that the UH is probably going to fight for. But I think it's a very significant move that we mean what we say when we're for the Hawaiians to get back on the land. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations. This is the relating to education, which is actually a great gesture for those families who have low income, they can get a scholarship for their kids. And this bill reminds me that 48% of the people of Hawaii, the ALICE study says they are one paycheck away from homelessness.

"The difficulty I have with this is that this is supposed to incentivize education, but there's no nexus between their kids in school and the amount of money. My fear is that they get an extra few hundred bucks, they're not going to spend it on their kid's education, which I would hope that this bill would be aimed for. So, for those kids who are poor and the really high achievers, I would say by all means we should just let it go. But some of those are perhaps not.

"And as I said in an earlier speech, the highest correlation between student achievement is parental involvement. If the kids don't have their parents care about what they're doing, the kids don't care. The parents don't care, the kids don't care. So, this thing is missing the nexus between the parents and the kids to give the kids an incentive to excel in school. Otherwise, I'm not sure why we're doing this, because otherwise they have welfare and other things to subsidize them. And this is for educational purposes, but it needs a nexus. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think we can improve it. Thank you."

Representative Todd rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you. I'm in support. I first want to start, I'd like to thank the Chairs of Agriculture and Consumer Protection & Commerce for hearing the measure and moving things along. I do think that it's part of an important conversation about how we're going to make good on our strategic agricultural goals that we've set for ourselves. But also, we're trying to find the proper balance between meeting those goals and ensuring that we are a good steward for our public trust lands. So, I'm excited that we're having this conversation.

"Just for perspective, this bill only would apply to the neighbor islands. And specifically, the issue I'm trying to address is that in East Hawaii, we have two agricultural parks, one in Panaewa, just outside of my district, and one in Pahoa. And in those areas, over 90% of those leases are due to expire in the near future. In the Panaewa area, 20 out of 22 will expire on the exact same day. Those leases average around 12 acres. So, relatively small family-run farms. And in the Pahoa area, 90% of them will expire in a six- to seven-year window, and those farms average out about eight acres.

"So, what we're trying to address specifically is these small family operations, these are not large industrial farm enterprises, and the fact that we do not have the demand to replace these farms as it currently stands. The current waiting list on the Big Island specifically, which is island wide, is about 50 who have actually shown interest. That does not mean that they will have the qualifications or the follow through necessary to actually take on these leases should they expire. It's also worth noting that these leases do not expire tomorrow, so anyone expressing interest currently would not necessarily be interested in taking on those leases down the road.

"So, to me, we do have a problem to address, and it's not the fact that we have these leases held by current productive small family farms, but the problem that we need to address is the lack of agricultural land made available on the neighbor islands to meet this demand. So if we are 50 short, or whatever that metric would be for fully qualified, bona fide farmers, whether it ends up being 20 to 30 that can actually meet those qualifications and who are interested, then we should simply open up another agricultural park to make those lands available. The response should not be essentially forcing these folks to relocate if they have the funding or to shut down. Nothing is accomplished if we do that.

"But I do recognize that there is an important balance to strike here between providing a fair opportunity for farmers to enter these lands, while also ensuring that the lands continue to be productive and that we move towards our strategic goals. So once again, I'd just like to thank the body for continuing the conversation. And I recognize that there is more work to do to strike that proper balance, and I'm committed to doing my best to find that balance. Thank you."

"No vote, please, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, this bill is conceived with good intentions. I mean, we want to treat anybody with HIV. But we don't want to fracture the family in doing that because the long-term relationship between the person that this identity is being protected, is obviously going to be when the parents do find out. Inevitably, they will find out that their child has HIV. So, this to me is kind of a wedge between parental authority and government authority or what physicians in their Hippocratic Oath. There's nothing bad that's going to happen, generally speaking, when parents love their kids and their kids need their nurturing if they're sick or whatever, but this one puts that wedge there. I don't think that's good for the family, which we have now weakened so much and given the government so much power that this is just another one in that direction, I think we need to stop it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McDermott rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. A living wage is a human right. According to the self-sufficiency study conducted by the Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism, a minimum wage worker needed to earn over $19 per hour to survive in Hawaii last year. According to the National Low Income Housing Coalition's most recent Out of Reach report, minimum wage employees must work 114 hours per week, roughly the equivalent of three full time jobs, in order to afford a one bedroom apartment here in the state.

"Last year, as working families struggled to recover financially from the pandemic, the median price of a single-family home in our state surpassed $1 million, as property investors just continue to use our islands as their own private monopoly board. Working families need relief now. They cannot afford to wait until 2030 to earn enough money to survive, as this bill proposes.

"This isn't about money, it's about people. It's about the people in our communities, it's about the people in my community who can't afford their rent, who struggle to pay their bills, and who don't know if they're going to be able to feed their own children tonight. If we truly care about the most vulnerable members of our community, then we cannot in good conscience tell them that they have to wait another decade to earn what our own government says they needed to earn just to survive last year.

"We continuously guarantee our constituents that we will put people before profit. Now we finally have that chance. Senate Bill 2018 crossed over to the House and is waiting for action. It raises the minimum wage to $18 per hour by 2026 and has a clean date. We should refer Senate Bill 2018 to committee. We should hear it. We should send it to the governor's desk as quickly as possible. Doing so would send a clear message that we are committed to putting people's needs before corporate greed and delivering hope to all in our state.

"I wholeheartedly support some of the tax credits and the provisions in this bill, like making the earned income tax credit permanent and refundable and increasing the food credit. Other vehicles, though, are moving through both chambers, in the House and the Senate, to address those issues, and we can pass those to deliver the tax fairness that Hawaii's people need and deserve.

"This year, let's not run away from change. Let's find the audacity to overcome political interest for the sake of the public interest. And let's act swiftly to uplift the fortunes of working families who will never attain a basic survival wage if this bill becomes law. Working families are the backbone of our economy. They deserve immediate support now, not another decade of broken promises. And that's why I'm in opposition to this bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Well, first I'd like to incorporate the words of the speaker from the Big Island as if they were my own, but I vote in support. The working people of the state deserve a significant pay raise. I know that there's some pressure to vote with reservations and no on this, but the way I see a vote on second reading, Mr. Speaker, is that we're voting on whether or not to send this bill on to the next committee. And I have faith in the process and in my colleagues in the Finance Committee that they're going to improve this bill.

"There are some really good things in here that I couldn't in good conscience vote against. The refundable earned income tax credit, in part two. The expansion of the food tax credit in part three. Part four I think needs the most work, I agree SB 2018 would be much better, and I fully expect, again, the Finance Committee will help improve this part of the bill. I also expect if, Mr. Speaker, if this bill moves over to the Senate, that they'll probably substitute part four with what they put in SB 2018. Part five expands the eligibility for household independent tax credit. That's great. Part six helps to educate citizens about withholding options so you don't need a Ph.D. in economics and taxes to understand how taxes work and how you can save your family money.

"For these sorts of reasons, I think this bill takes concrete steps to improve the quality of life for working families, and I cannot in good conscience vote against a minimum wage increase. Thank you."

Representative Ganaden rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tam rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matsumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support, please, brief comment. As many of you know, I've championed a $15 minimum wage since I came to the House in 2019. I had high hopes that my story as a small business owner already paying that wage since 2015 would help move this issue. Well, albeit late to the game and behind the market, I'm thrilled to see this body endeavoring to bring higher wages, not just $15 an hour, but $18 an hour, eventually to working families across the state.

"In Hawaii, we have arguably the highest cost of living. It's exacerbated by the pandemic impacts for the last two years. This wage relief, combined with the refundable earned income tax credit, will be a welcome step up for struggling families trying to make ends meet. Thanks, Mr. Speaker."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, comments. So, I've heard a lot of criticisms on this bill from both sides. There are hopes for me that we can fix some of the problems with this bill by amending it in future committees. So, I take a similar position to some of the prior speakers that let's try to get this through and see if we can fix some of the issues, like not doing it until 2030 to get to $18, a dollar a year for eight years, I think we can do better than that.

"Also, maybe not the same increase for the tip credit, which allows sub-minimum wage to be paid to tip-receiving employees. And also take a look at increases where we've adjusted that to only increase the wage based on average wages that employers might decide to pay, rather than the CPI, which reflects actual cost of living for people.

"So, these are all issues that hopefully we can address with future amendments. I'm just kind of realistic on it that we have far less ambitious wage bills in the non-election year that were not passed. This is our chance to get it, when we're trying to do bills like this in election year, I think we take what we got here. So, that's the basis for my support for this. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition with brief comments. In my view, this vote is about trust. Over the last several years, as long as I've been in office and prior to that, working class people in Hawaii have been hurting. And throughout this time period, they have continued to put their trust in us. And on Opening Day, we as a body really stood before the people of Hawaii and committed to fight for them, by making the EITC refundable and permanent and by raising the minimum wage to 2018. They heard our promises. My community heard our promises, and they're trusting us to make good on those promises.

"I think to operate in good faith, we really need to radically amend this bill so that these changes happen sooner. The expectation of my community is not that they would have to wait until 2030. I think for that reason, this bill threatens to betray the trust that my community has put in me.

"I agree with previous speakers. This bill does make important steps in the right direction around EITC, making it refundable and permanent. But I just think we have to go further, and we have to do better, and we can. So, I trust that the House will be the body that comes up with the best measure for the State of Hawaii, and this bill is not it. For that reason, I vote in opposition."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have a with reservations and a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, we tend to treat something the way we call it. If this is a living wage, it's too low. If it's a training wage, it's too high. What's the reality here? Well, the reality is, if you listen to what the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants have said, hey guys, the timing is not good. We're basically surviving and now we want to hit them with a minimum wage.

"Now remember, for those of you who think of only the employer as the bad guys, they are the ones who hire the people that give us wages. Our economy is 30% government, about 70% private sector. So, we got to keep the private sector alive. So, we got to know what the timing is. The second thing is, if we're going to have young high school kids starting out at $18, some of these guys are just going to shed employees or they're not going to hire them or they're going to cut back hours of some. The point is, they've got to survive, they have to adjust, and right now they're having the most difficult time to survive.

"Some people tend to forget also that we have mandated health care, Mr. Speaker. That adds $3 to $4 per hour. Right now, according to the highest paid minimum wage in the nation is Washington, D.C., at $15.20. New York City is $15. If we take ours to $3 to $4 to $5 on top of our minimum wage, we are, without even this bill, one of the highest, if not the highest in the nation because most states don't have mandatory health care. That is a very key issue.

"But Mr. Speaker, let me back up and look at really the wide angle of what we're talking about. I was particularly impressed with the Big Island Representative's speech. What we have is a failure of this economy to meet the needs of our people. If we are the progenitors or the architects of the economy, we have failed, Mr. Speaker. Forty-eight percent of our people, and I said earlier the ALICE study, I just can't get that out of my system, 48% are one paycheck away. I make it as a metaphor of the family of eight.

This guy's got a job, he's got eight kids, three he can feed okay, two are on rations, and the other three are totally food bank or welfare.

"Our economy doesn't fit the size of the needs of our families. We've got to work on economic diversification. We've got to work on higher jobs. And I've said so many times on this floor, we have the opportunity to create a pharmaceutical industry with high paying jobs that does COVID-19 testing, and we've kind of sat on our hands. You've got to be a bit more entrepreneurial. You've got to be a bit more sympathetic to those who don't have the wages per hour to do have the wages per hour.

"And lastly, Mr. Speaker, I would say in all humility, we as representatives make $32 an hour, and that's certainly something that's not in this bill, but it is one of the statistics. So, $15.20 DC, $15 for New York City, and probably the equivalent in Honolulu with health benefits. Thank you."

Representative McDermott rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, just to amplify my reservations, I don't want them to be construed as any way negatively towards the Chair, I know he's trying to find a balance and strike and even temper. And so, my reservation was simply for me to tag it and keep an eye on it as it makes its way through. I know the Chair and the committee are doing the best they can. Thank you, sir."

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I do have some concerns on this second reading bill, but if I can get permission to enter those comments into the Journal, I'll do it that way. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"I rise in support, but as I've said before in the past, my major concern is the impact on the very small mom-and-pop businesses. My grave concern is the tip credit because if we fail to raise the amount, those very small mom-and-pop businesses will either 1. Shut down or 2. Pay employees under the table. Either way, it's not good for the economy."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support and would like the words of the speakers from Ewa and South Maui entered into the record as if they were my own. Hits the nail on the head insofar as how I feel with this vehicle moving forward. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Wildberger rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, one more brief comment. I would just like the record to show that benefits are not wages. People cannot pay their rent or buy groceries with benefits. Businesses have been paying prepaid healthcare for over 50 years. Just like work comp, it's a cost of doing business. You cannot call benefits wages. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2510, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INCOME," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Finance, with Representatives Matsumoto, McDermott, Tam, and Ward voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Ganaden, Har, Kapela, Okimoto, Perruso, Quinlan, and Takumi voting no.

Representative Onishi, for the Committee on Labor & Tourism, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 552-22) recommending that H.B. No. 2440, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs.

On motion by Representative Belatti, seconded by Representative Morikawa and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2440, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC WORKS," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

On motion by Representative Morikawa, seconded by Representative Matsumoto and carried, the rules were suspended for the purpose of considering a certain House Bill for Third Reading by consent calendar.

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 2272, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 2272, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative LoPresti rose to disclose a potential conflict of interest, stating:

"Strong support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think this is a really important measure, and actually, I should ask for a ruling on a potential conflict, I apologize. I'm the president of a homeowner association," and the Chair ruled, "no conflict," and that the ruling would extend through sine die.

Representative LoPresti continued to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thanks. The reason I stand up on this, Mr. Speaker, is I think this is one of the most important actual affordable housing bills we're going to pass, I hope, out of the Legislature this year. Because what it does is it requires developers to do a study to determine what the real cost of the housing is going to be. There's been so many projects, in fact, I can't think of a single project in the history of the state where the developers have done a really good job of estimating for the consumer what it's going to cost to own a unit when it's a condo or a townhome like where I live. Because inevitably what happens, Mr. Speaker, is when those associations are turned over to the people who live there and not just run by the developer, the prices skyrocket, the prices skyrocket because there were bad estimates, if we can even call them estimates, as to what it would really cost for maintenance fees and the like. And I believe this bill will help to address that.

"One of the things I'd like to see improved before this passes into law, and I hope the Senate looks at this in particular, is that it can be greatly improved if we require an independent third party to make those estimates. Otherwise, we might be setting ourselves up to have another bill a few years down the road when perhaps an unscrupulous developer, such things are fictions, but they might just make up numbers that qualify and meet some loophole in this law, but really fail to meet the intent of the law. So, I do hope that the Senate and that our House colleagues can make sure that it's an independent third-party review and not just something by the developer. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2272, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes.

At 12:43 p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 2272, HD 1

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 9) was announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 9, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING A COMMISSION TO IMPROVE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT," was jointly offered by Representatives Saiki, Aquino, Belatti, Branco, Clark, Eli, Ganaden, Gates, Hashem, Hashimoto, Holt, Ichiyama, Ilagan, Johanson, Kapela, Kitagawa, B. Kobayashi, LoPresti, Lowen, Luke, Marten, Matayoshi, Matsumoto, McKelvey, Mizuno, Morikawa, Nakamura, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Okimoto, Onishi, Perruso, Quinlan, Sayama, Takayama, Takumi, Tam, Tarnas, Todd, Woodson, Yamane, and Yamashita.

Representative Belatti moved that H.R. No. 9 be adopted, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Perruso rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I just wanted to say that I support this resolution. I think it's really important that we create this commission, this external commission, and I have a lot of confidence in the people who have been named to it, and I'm excited to examine their findings."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I have a yes vote with a couple of comments, which means with reservations. This bill is very, very, very needed. It's very timely. We have been embarrassed by what happened last week and the week before, in which actually started years and years ago.

"But this is the equivalent of having a commission that says, look, when you see a car thief, they walk by a car and the keys are in the car. We only then look at the car thief as the issue, the behavior of the car thief. This commission is going to look at behavior and what the structure is, but I think we need to look at what is it when the structure of the situation, i.e. the keys are in the car, that we need to pay attention to also.

"And Mr. Speaker, I do this with all respect, that the structure of our committee system that concentrates, and this is a bit of what Gary Hooser said, concentrates power in so few people, is when you have a committee chairmanship, look at the people who got the corruption charges. They were in those positions because there was no accountability or check and balance to them. And there is discipline where you don't want to lose the size of your office or the position that you have, that's I know too much inside baseball, but the public needs to know this.

"And particularly the last issue that I would say that should be amended into this bill, is that the way that we're doing our hearings almost conditioning testifiers to stand on their testimony because we want to get through it quickly. But if you're a member of the public, you don't get any testimony until the hearing is over and then you can see it. And if everybody stands on their testimony, even we legislators don't get the testimony until 10 minutes before the hearings."

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Alright Representative Ward, please confine your remarks to the resolution."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"So, I'm saying that that is a flaw. Which means, okay, the guy who steals the car, you've got to teach them ethics. You've got to pump it into their system to be more accountable. But if you've got the structure of the situation where it makes these temptations happen, we're looking at only some of the symptoms rather than the cause. And that's the structure of our system needs to be more open to the public. It needs to be more transparent and accountable. If there was accountability, that would be it. And I know this is going to address that, but it's not the full picture because it says you've got to teach the thief in the car not to steal the car if the keys are in it. And I'm saying you've got to look at the keys in the car. And this bill does not go that far. Therefore, it's good, but it's with a lot of flaws. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose to respond, stating:

"I just wanted to point out that this resolution does call upon the commission to provide recommendations to further the goals of the Code of Ethics, lobbying laws, campaign finance laws, and other applicable laws and rules. So, I think that it's important that we understand that our internal rules will also be subject to scrutiny, and I think that's really important and I think that that actually reflects a great deal of courage on the part of the House leadership and I applaud that. So, I look forward to pretty substantive recommendations."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you. Support with reservations. So, to take the example by the Representative from Hawaii Kai one step further, to me, this is more a situation of we're focused on stopping people from stealing cars while we have a state-sanctioned program that allows widespread theft of cars. So, we work on the margins about how to react to a situation where we have a couple of reps that were accused of taking money under the table.

"Now what happens every day, which is really the elephant in the room to me and it's completely legal, is for people to give large campaign contributions, either personally, through PACs, through every relative they have, through the employees of their company, to politicians that can then legally take whatever action to support that donor. Now that is where pay for play and money in politics comes from. I think everybody knows that.

"So, if we want to address the real issue, say we had campaign contribution limit of $20, $100. Problem solved, money is out of politics, pay for play is over. So, there are obvious prescriptions to fix this, and I wish we would start taking a harder look at those. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to commend the person from Wahiawa, the representative who said, well, we're going to look at our House Rules. My point is to look at the House structure. And Mr. Speaker, some of us were here in the early '90s when, some of you freshmen will be shocked at this, we didn't have voting in committees. There was no voting in this legislature. I mean, it shows how far we've come, but how much the power has been so centralized, and the accountability has been lessened. And because of that, that's what happened in these last two instances of corruption. The point is, look at the structure of the situation, function, and design, and all those things make a huge difference as to the way people behave.

"Having said that, Mr. Speaker, I would hope what the good Representative from Wahiawa said is true and we will look at the structure of the Legislature, we'll look at the way hearings are held, we'll look at the way the people are not really involved to the point of having immediate information to give feedback to the issues at hand in the hearings. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. I'd like to adopt the words of the speaker from Manoa as if they were my own. And I totally agree with him. And actually, there are vehicles, Mr. Speaker, I think in JHA right now, that would provide an avenue to actually put some of these discussions into motion. So, I hope that gets considered, with all due blessing from my end, obviously, and because I believe there are things we can do now rather than waiting for a commission to make recommendations. But that being said, I support the measure."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 9 was adopted, with Representatives D. Kobayashi and Ward voting aye with reservations.

By unanimous consent, the following concurrent resolution (H.C.R. No. 11) was referred to Printing and further action was deferred:

H.C.R. No. 11, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE CREATION AND ESTABLISHMENT OF A TASK FORCE WITHIN THE JUDICIARY TO DETERMINE THE FEASIBILITY OF AND BEST SYSTEM TO TRANSMIT SERVICE OF NOTICE AND PROCESS VIA ELECTRONIC EMAIL," was jointly offered by Representatives Tarnas, Branco, Hashimoto, Matayoshi, Nakashima, Onishi, and Takayama.

Representative Aquino: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Filipino Caucus members, if you haven't reached out to my office already, please do so for festivities on Tuesday the 22nd. Thank you very much."

Representative Okimoto: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to wish a huge congratulations to the Mililani High School girls soccer and boys basketball. The varsity teams were able to win the OIA Championships, and we're very proud of our public education system and I wanted to congratulate them and wish them the best in the state tournament. Go Trojans."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"This is a reminder for committee chairs that today is the first lateral filing deadline. This deadline is for bills that need to move to their final committee. Please file your committee reports and drafts with the Chief Clerk's Office by 9:00 p.m. this evening."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Strong support commending, not only this is a new industry, but to commend the introducer from the North Shore, because this is the way entrepreneurial thinking happens. Getting an industry that's got really a good trajectory and then boosting it even higher, so it's a great bill. Thank you."

Representative Wildberger rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Perruso rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Just in response, Mr. Speaker. Again, strong support. But people should realize this is a billion-dollar industry and could be multi-billion dollars because of our beautiful environment and the way that people find this very attractive. So, contrary to the fact that it's expensive, even with the tax credit, even though I know that's not on this particular bill, we have a ratio for every dollar that the state spends, we get $4 to $5 back because of the labor and all the expenses that we are having been paid by the industry. So, this is a moneymaker.

"And Mr. Speaker, even if you're just, I forget what they call him, a grabber, you carry the camera around, you're making $75,000 to $85,000.

These are the kind of jobs that we need to get out of that ALICE study where 48% of the people in Hawaii are one paycheck away. This is a great bill, and I look forward to everybody voting for it. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative D. Kobayashi rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, in opposition. I have yet to see a justification from a cost benefit standpoint of the existing film credit that we have. Now we're throwing this infrastructure film credit in addition to what we already have. I'd like to see a little bit more considered approach taken to be able to determine whether all of this is even justifiable, or whether we could have other ways to encourage growth in this besides just throwing a tax credit set, I think and in a lot of cases get gamed in different ways. Thank you."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support and may I have the words of the Representative from Manoa entered into the Journal as if they were my own."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support and would like to have comments entered into the Journal."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise and strong support of the measure. Mr. Speaker, this measure seeks to waive one's right to judicial contest if they didn't contest an allegation of the commission and did not have a contested case hearing beforehand. Mr. Speaker, while there are concerns about this bill insofar as inadvertently cutting off due process should timely notification not be given, it overall strikes a steadfast blow for much needed campaign and ethics reform. This measure, like many others, is the product of the commission, good government advocates, and the Legislature working together, and that underscores the fact that this action is needed and not that of any ad hoc committees."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1426, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ORDERS OF THE CAMPAIGN SPENDING COMMISSION," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, with Representatives Eli and Kapela being excused.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1880, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support and would like to have comments entered into the Journal."

Representative McKelvey's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, this measure looks to strengthen our electioneering communication laws by requiring a person or political action committee to file a statement of information with the campaign spending commission for every expenditure of an electioneering communication they make. Mr. Speaker, as you know, dark money has also eroded the public's trust and confidence in their elected government and has made campaigns toxic, like that of the mainland. This measure is yet another product of cooperation between government advocates, the commission, and the Legislature, and illustrates that immediate action is already occurring."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. recordings for public meetings that would be preserved in perpetuity for the record. Mr. Speaker, these kinds of resources are critical not only for any litigation which may arise because of the issues at hand, but also to provide a well of legislative and policy information for different branches of government in Hawaii and other interested parties. The complaints of the agencies fall on deaf ears as they continue the old grid there is not enough processing power nor space to create digital archives of all these recordings. However, Mr. Speaker, due to advances such as IaaS, there is a depth of cloud resources for both storage and enumeration of these meetings as to create meaningful compendium of all of the various government and public hearings that have occurred which have been recorded."

"Mr. Speaker, this is yet another measure that seeks to stem the influence of dark money, particularly through that of shadow nonprofits, that are created solely to engineer money towards the defeat or advocacy of certain candidates all while enjoying the fiscal umbrella given to nonprofits for their work. There is obviously great concern about the fact that not all nonprofits who engage in candidate advocacy or recommendations may be incorporated as a 501(c). However, I believe the change we made to ensure that it only applies to nonprofits that have filed a report with the campaign spending commission will limit its scope to political PACs as opposed to that of other types of nonprofits. This measure also showcases the things that are being done by this legislature to bolster transparency and accountability thereby bolstering public support."

And I'm not sure if there's a difference between synthetic and natural, I have no idea. But smoking cessation programs, it doesn't look like they're exempt. Now, if I missed it, I'm sorry, I'm getting old, I can't see everything, but I appreciate that. Thank you."

"I stand with reservations on HB 1570, HD1. As we have seen with previous bans throughout history, blanket bans do not necessarily stop our constituents from finding ways to purchase things like flavored vapes. With minors not allowed to purchase flavored tobacco products, they unfortunately resort to the black market which are substantially more dangerous to the end user. Black markets will continue to sell prohibited products, which is why I am in support of placing taxes on these items for the funding of cessation programs to help those with smoking addictions."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, not quite a no, because this is all about the pCard, which departments, when they charge stuff, use this. This is saying, if you bid it, you got to bid an advantage for a local bank. My point, Mr. Speaker, is that when we have our current account, i.e. our checking account, which has millions and millions of dollars in it, which either is now either Bank of Hawaii or First Hawaiian Bank and it rotates with CPB, et cetera, the pCard should be in those accounts. We shouldn't have to do it separately, and we shouldn't have to have a bill like this. Because of that, I have reservations, because the local banks are making a lot of money on this and they should be able to put this pCard in there without any inconvenience whatsoever. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. So, I think it's framed as really a buy local issue. Really what it is, is what we've been talking about, it's a giveaway to some local moneyed interests here that's really not in the interests of the taxpayers of Hawaii. As a result, I'm a no vote on this measure. Thank you."

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support with a brief comment. The agency that awarded this contract to the Bank of America testified that they did not know that the Bank of America owes the State of Hawaii and the people of Hawaii hundreds of millions of dollars due to bad mortgage practices. And while I like to see state agencies saving money and that not necessarily a local bank should be given priority over another bank that can provide electronic services that could save the state money, at what point do we declare an entity unqualified for such benefit if they have been a bad actor? Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1909, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROCUREMENT," passed Second Reading and was referred to the Committee on Consumer Protection & Commerce, with Representative Ward voting aye with reservations, with Representative D. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, it's less an announcement, probably more a heads up or an alert. All of America knows that Russia has gone into the Ukraine. And even though we're not directly there, we could indirectly have some consequences. Some of which, according to Homeland Security, launching shields up, America be aware of what's going on on the internet. And Mr. Speaker, I think it's relevant to us here, for the Sergeant-at-Arms, et cetera, to know that there may be some pushback in the price of gas because we are so dependent, even in the state, from Russian imports of gas. We have to be mindful that it may be costly. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, what's going on now in Eastern Europe is not good and we should be aware and prepared if it does come onto our shores. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Aquino: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just wanted to thank the Filipino Caucus members for participating yesterday, as well as Speaker Saiki for giving the remarks. I just want to let everybody know that the photos that was taken yesterday will be shared by the Filipino courier, the Fil-Am Courier, in the next issue. Thank you very much."

However, I think it's a total contrast or contract to hold cyber level of having digital currency, to have it regulated by the State of Hawaii. And so, I think trying to regulate it would be futile. And I also think it runs counter to what it is and what it does. Thank you."

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations. I appreciate the effort from the commissioner for Financial Institutions to try to regulate cryptocurrency. And this is something that our consumers desperately want. We need to be able to allow them to trade in this market. This is the way of the future. And so, I just wanted to mark my reservations because of the fee structure is very onerous. If we adopt the fee structure in the current bill, it will make us the most expensive fee structure in the country. And also, we need to clarify what the reserve ratio is for these companies. A one to one reserve ratio in a small market like Hawaii would actually stop business, and I think the goal of this measure is to increase business for cryptocurrency companies. Mahalo."

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1567, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition. Mr. Speaker, this is the no bail bill, this is the get out of jail free bill, and this is a killer bill. Mr. Speaker, this is why the lady was bludgeoned outside of the courthouse in Kapolei just a few weeks ago. This is somebody who committed a crime against a policeman then turned around, got let out without any bail, turned around with the club, basically said it was the trunk of a tree, and bludgeoned a woman. This is what this bill does, it'll allow these guys to go out scot-free.

"Mr. Speaker, this is not the policy we want to have. Crime is on the uptick. People need to know that we are protected, that there's safety and we're not soft on crime. And this is probably the worst possible thing that we're learning from the mainland, that it's happening time and time again. That with no bail, you got no skin in the game. And no skin in the game means you go out and you do anything you want to do.

"Now, having said that, I brought this up in committee, and Kat Brady, and all of you know who Kat Brady is, she said, actually, we have a promissory note. A thing that you can sign if you can't afford bail, you just do an IOU. So, Mr. Speaker, this bill is not necessary. It's contrary to all civilized society. And in terms of the Pavlovian cause and effect, stimulus and response, this incentivizes these people, particularly when we see smash and grab in any and all things happening in this nation. This is bad news, this is a bad bill, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support, Mr. Speaker. Okay, so first of all, it's very clear in the bill that if you are a violent offender, this does not apply to you in any way, shape, or form, including if you are on parole or a number of other factors are taken into account. But really, I want to speak to why this bill is important. In this country and in this state, it is possible to go to jail for traffic offenses. So, we've essentially done, imagine this, you're a low-income person, you're driving your car, you get pulled over by the police for speeding but you're also uninsured. And then things happen, life happens, you miss your court date, now you've got a bench warrant out for your arrest. So you get picked up another time because you're riding dirty because you can't afford to get your tags fixed, you can't afford to pay your registration, and now you've got a bench warrant out for your arrest and now you're going to jail. So, what we've essentially done is criminalized poverty. Thank you very much."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, regarding my good friend from the North Shore, I think he's very good at the euphemism that this is. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that basically, because we're so full in our prisons, it's a money saver. We're jeopardizing the safety of the public by saying, hey, we don't want to spend money on a new prison, we don't want to spend money on keeping the prisoners in there. This is simply a cost-cutting mechanism. And if you look at all the literature, that's basically the only theme that consistently puts this together. This crying for the victim or for the poor guy who does all of these felony things, that's all nonsense. This is simply about saving money, taking the overcrowding, and endangering the public. It's that simple. It's that all about the Benjamins, it's about the money. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"Okay thank you Representative, and members, again, please focus on the merits of the bill. Why is this bill good for the state or why is this bill bad for the state."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'd first like the words of the Representative from the North Shore entered into the record as they were my own. And I would just like to say to speaker that the last time I checked in this country, someone is innocent until proven guilty," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Lowen rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Lowen's written remarks are as follows:

"Kona coffee is a world-renowned specialty product grown on Hawaii Island, with a rich cultural legacy that is entwined with Hawaii's history. Kona coffee is difficult to farm, limited in quantity, expensive, and special. Other regions, other states, and other countries don't allow what we allow here. They observe strong protections of their geographic origin names which guarantee the quality and authenticity of their regional products—Idaho potatoes cannot be called Idaho potatoes if they are not actually 100% Idaho potatoes; the same applies for Vermont maple syrup, and France's Champagne wine, to name a few. Not so in Hawaii, where we allow our valuable geographic origin names to be used to market products as being something that they are not. The geographic origin name for a specialty product like Kona Coffee should not be used on products that aren't representative of the region, that don't reflect the quality or the value that people expect, and that contain only 10% Kona Coffee.

"Under Hawaii law, we allow coffee blends that contain only 10% Kona coffee—one coffee bean in 10—an amount that cannot be detected in a blind taste test—to be sold under the name Kona. The labeling law requires that the '10%' is disclosed on the label, and some argue that the important thing is truth in labeling, and that consumers know what they are buying. But the reality is that we know that these labels mislead people—if they didn't, they wouldn't be used. That is the point—to use the name Kona or Kau or Hawaii on coffee that is 90% not that, and to sell it for more. The deception is the point: to allow this exploitation of the good reputation of real Hawaii coffee to increase the amount of money that blenders can make on cheap, imported coffee beans by passing them off as a boutique product from Hawaii. While this increases profits for coffee importers, it undercuts the price of authentic locally grown coffee beans, reduces revenues for hard-working local farmers, and exports the economic benefits of our coffee industry out of state instead of keeping dollars in the local economy.

"House Bill 1517 proposes to increase the percentage requirement from 10% to 51%. For many years we've fought to get 100%, so this bill represents a compromise reached in hopes of moving the needle in the right direction. During the hearings that this bill has had thus far in the 2022 legislative session, every farmer that submitted testimony was in support—all of them. Opposition came from mainland-owned blenders ('Hawaii Coffee Company') and greedy retailers and restaurants who want to be able to offer a product that looks like it is locally produced, and to claim that they are an establishment that supports local farmers, without having to pay the higher cost to actually support local farmers. It is time that the Legislature listens to the farmers about what is best for them, and not to other entities with their own self-interest in mind who claim to be able to tell us what they think is best for farmers.

"The opponents of the changes to our origin labeling laws have made the fallacious argument that inflation and rising costs for consumers mean that we should not pass this bill. We, the State Legislature, do not have an obligation to make a specialty product (which isn't even authentic) affordable over helping the local farmers that grow it. While the Legislature does have a duty to ensure that our citizens have access to food, water, shelter, and many other things, gourmet specialty coffee isn't on that list. The Legislature has an obligation to support our local farmers, not to undercut them with a state law that devalues their authentic locally grown products.

"Coffee importers also sometimes argue that should they stop buying Kona coffee for blends, coffee cherry will go unsold and unused. However, we have seen this disproven over the past couple years. The pandemic led to a huge drop in the sale of blends due to a lack of tourists, yet coffee cherry prices are at their highest point ever, and demand has not decreased. The market for Hawaii coffee has changed dramatically over the last two decades and many growers are now able to sell their crops direct-to-consumer via online sales. The worldwide demand for 100% Kona coffee far exceeds supply and the value of the crop is at a record high. Hawaii's coffee farmers have among the highest cost of production anywhere, particularly due to labor shortages, inflationary pressures, and the threat of invasive species on the island. Inflation, supply chain issues, labor shortages—these are all arguments for why our farmers need our support more than ever, not arguments for why we should continue to allow 10% blends that benefit retailers, restaurants, and blenders who are only interested in their bottom line.

"Questions were also raised this year about challenges with enforcement and the lack of technological capacity in the state to test roasted and blended coffees to determine authenticity. Enforcement of coffee blend laws is not dependent on DNA or other testing technology—there are ways to determine if coffee counterfeiting is occurring without these tests. Furthermore, simply passing any law that increases the minimum percentage will have a huge effect on the market regardless of enforcement capacity, because all but a few bad actors will choose to comply with the law, and won't risk the consequences of breaking it. So, while the Legislature should also support funding of additional staff and equipment to facilitate enforcement of coffee labeling laws, lack of enforcement capacity is not a valid argument against passing a stronger law; it is a red herring.

"Coffee labeling bills have been introduced and have failed to pass the Legislature for decades now. Some of my colleagues now roll their eyes and say 'this, again?' and crack jokes about the coffee bill. Their attitudes teach the new members—wrongly—that this isn't an issue worth taking seriously. However, the truth is that the Legislature has failed for so many years to act in the best interest of local farmers, to support Hawaii-grown products, and to protect our local economy. It's time to do more than just talk about the value of supporting local agriculture. It's time for this legislation to be passed."

"Mr. Speaker, no vote with a brief comment please. Mr. Speaker, this is about electric guns, which is for self-protection. And what we've got here is a bill that says, well, you can use it just about anywhere except where it's useful. What we've got are so many geographical restrictions that in the hearing it became where one lady was saying, all the creeps and the other guys are now going to be emboldened because they followed her from the bus stop, onto the bus, when she would move seats, et cetera. She said, this is something that would help protect me. So, for the women and for those who are subject to working late at night are in the streets, this bill says, you know, anywhere nearing public transportation, any public building, even this building, our parking lot, electric tasers would not be useful.

"So, I think we're doing kind of an overkill. We're trying to do with electric tasers, which is now legal, the same that we've done with arms. And I think that's going to be very unfair to those who are vulnerable, who are having predators and other people who they can actually push back if they have this, or they don't have this bill, but they've got the taser where they can actually use it. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I know it surprises a lot of people that I support this bill, but it's from personal experience and I feel I owe my constituents and my colleagues an explanation. For me, it has to do with personal experiences of attempted violence against me and my family members. The current law requires you to retreat, and in each of the situations where I've found myself in situations of potential violence, I've been able to do that. I have self-defense training, I know that's the wisest thing to do, and I was able to do it. But it's not always the case that people can do that.

"This is especially the case in situations if you can think of a lone female being assaulted. The law requires her to potentially retreat. And the fact of the matter is, if that's a situation that you can imagine, you can also imagine that person is going to be followed and be in a more vulnerable situation in retreating.

"That's exactly what happened to me and my wife in Chinatown a few years ago. There was an attempted mugging next to the police station. I was literally touching the police station and a guy came up and tried to mug us. And without getting into the details on the Floor of the House, the safest thing for me to do in that situation would have been to physically, actively defend myself, and I'll tell you why. Because we did retreat into the police station, the guy followed us into the police station and continued trying to press his assault. At which point I had to very clearly demonstrate to them that he was surrounded by police officers. They were all behind the glass. And he finally came to and realized where he was and that's why he left. Now imagine if I'd gone into a 7-Eleven instead of a bodega or a restaurant, the guy would have continued to press this assault and we would have been cornered.

"There are situations where we need to be able to help people know that they have a strong right to self-defense. That they don't have to run away and cower because they might be prosecuted for simply standing up for themselves, their family, defending their children. That's happened to me at a public park where a group of guys tried to come at me with my kids. It's one thing when I'm by myself and I have to defend myself, but when you're with family or with friends or with children, you need to have a much stronger protection so that you're not thinking about, well, what am I legally allowed and not allowed to do in this situation? But you can act in the right way for that situation.

"This is not a shoot first bill. Hawaii does not have the same epidemic of gun violence that we have in the mainland. If we did, I wouldn't support this bill. If we had laws that allowed everybody to go around concealed carry, then this could be potentially very dangerous. But it's not that, it's something that I think has been blown out of proportion when you look at the actual kinds of gun violence in our state versus the mainland. I don't suspect we're going to have the same problems that we've seen elsewhere. That's why I support it. Thank you."

Representative Belatti: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I wanted to apprise you, Mr. Speaker, and the Members of the House, that self-advocates and advocates of the State Council on Developmental Disabilities have today sponsored their annual Day at the Capitol virtually. March is Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month, a nationwide campaign to raise public awareness about the abilities and strengths of individuals with developmental disabilities.

"This year, the self-advocates from across the state created their own theme to commemorate DD Awareness Month, Respect others and all people with Disabilities! Normally, they would be here for their annual Day at the Capitol, but today they are participating through the use of technology, and they're putting their skills to use by participating in an online training with the Public Access Room and attending a mock hearing. On behalf of this House, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to extend our thanks to Daintry Bartoldus and the State Council on Developmental Disabilities, who have continued to work during this pandemic to make sure there's access to this capitol for people with disabilities. And we want to commend them for participating on this day with us as we ran our session virtually. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tam: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Friends, many of you may be distressed, as I am, about the recent events in Ukraine. As many of you may know, sunflowers are the national flower of Ukraine, and they also represent peace and hope and are a symbol of strength and endurance. To show our solidarity and support for the Ukrainian people, our office would like to share sunflowers with each of you to display outside of your office. They are grown locally and organically in Waimanalo. As we navigate our busy work schedules, I hope these sunflowers add a bit of light and joy to your day and serve as a reminder to keep the people of Ukraine in your thoughts. So, please stop by our office in Room 317 to pick up one."

Representative Eli: "Mahalo. I wanted to congratulate our colleague, the Representative from Kaneohe. Yesterday, he and his wife welcomed a healthy baby boy, Connor George Matayoshi. So, just wanted to congratulate he and his wife."

So hopefully I can speak on behalf of all men to all the women who once were girls, Happy Girls' Day. And for everybody here that, if it wasn't for a woman, you wouldn't be here today. Thank you."

Representative Marten: "I just wanted to wish a Happy Birthday to the Chair of Agriculture."

Representative Matsumoto: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Speaking of Girls' Day, it's that time again, the Women's Legislative Caucus Easter Basket Drive. So we're going to be donating to the same four organizations, the Domestic Violence Action Center, IHS, Parents And Children Together, and the Salvation Army. So, you can do a hybrid again. You can either donate money virtually on their individual sites or you can put together a basket. The event is actually going to be on April 7th, but I always like to give people a lot of heads up to start putting their baskets together. So, there will be a flyer in each of your emails today, so please check that out."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "I did have a question, Representative, if I may, who's going to be the Easter Bunny this year?"

Representative Matsumoto: "That one's still under wraps. That's going to be coming up. There will be some videos leading up to the event and you can all guess at that point."

Representative Ward: "I have two announcements. Good news, bad news. No, great news. I'm very honored to say, and I know many of you heard me speak on the floor. The FDA has approved Oceanit, Patrick Sullivan, spit in the cup, after two years of trying hard. Now the gates are open for a spit in the cup 10-minute test, $20. Well, hopefully it's going to be on the shelves soon in Longs and CVS and Walgreens, et cetera."

"The bad news. All of you know, the pincer movement in Ukraine has begun. The suffering among the Ukrainians is severe. So, in addition to the great gesture of putting sunflower in your front office, also come by my office and get a flag. This is something we've printed up and something that I think will show our solidarity. And for all of those who are drinkers of vodka, please don't drink Russian vodka. Thank you."

Vice Speaker Mizuno: "Thank you, Representative Ward and other members, along with Representative Tam and Representative Gates, I know there are so many other members who are working to stand in solidarity with Ukraine. Thank you so much members."

And if you know the footprint of Hawaii in terms of the global warming, we are minuscule of a minuscule, lower than I think one of the representatives who used to own a flower shop said, is the rise of the sea in Waikiki.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, we are going from one, getting rid of plastics, getting rid of plastic reinforced food cups for luaus, to now for those boxes that most of us now shop with on Amazon. Mr. Speaker, who knows, if we continue in this direction, pretty soon we will allow three wipes of toilet paper for each person otherwise we're going to fine them for what they're doing in their own houses with their toilet paper. I find this really anti-business, it's something that is not worthy of this office. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations and brief comments please, Mr. Speaker. I want to be very clear, I do support the intent of this bill and I want to thank the Chair of Agriculture for introducing it. What had happened though, and I apologize, please give me some deference from my neighbor island colleagues, this is an Oahu issue. The City and County is under a mandate to close down Waimanalo Gulch. And what had happened in previous sessions is we had passed a buffer zone bill which prohibited the city from siting a new landfill within a certain amount of feet from residential areas. What ended up happening was then because of the buffer zone that we created, now the City and County is only able to site a new waste disposal area facility on agricultural lands. So, in the Committee on Consumer Protection, the City and County basically testified that if this bill were to pass, they would have nowhere else to site a new landfill on Oahu. And my concern is that now Waimanalo Gulch will not be shut down, the lease will be extended because the Legislature will not allow us to have any place where the City and County can site a new landfill. So, for those reasons, I'm with reservations. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In support. I'd like to thank the committee chairs for moving this bill forward from last year, it means a lot to the service members' families who will be affected by this bill if we're to pass it. I know there's been some discussion about whether or not it's necessary because there's already federal tuition support for dependents of deceased veterans. And basically, the main goal of this bill is to broaden the scope so that dependents of combat related, 100% totally disabled veterans and Purple Heart recipients can qualify. And there is a robust residency requirement for this, and I think it's at least five years, forgive me for not having that detail. This bill was modeled after a program at Oregon State University. One in four respiratory claims are for a sleeping disorder. And so, I totally support the intent of it. But if you suddenly develop a sleeping disorder, now your kids get to go to college for free. And that's not what we're trying to do with this bill, I'm sure. Thank you."

"I have always supported the military but as a representative who has introduced bills for tuition waivers at community colleges and as a Native Hawaiian who has always advocated for educational waivers for Hawaiians, I think we should start there first."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Probably not my job to do this, but I did pull up the bill, which is pretty easy to do. In support. And it does clarify that the disabilities are caused by military service and also that these tuition benefits would apply to people who have been domiciled in the state for at least five years. So, those concerns that have been raised are actually addressed in the bill already."

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to say, well, to you, I guess, I don't know if I can say in response, is that you can actually still get a sleep apnea designation from that definition. Thank you."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition and with a brief comment. This measure is a SPRB for a waste to energy plant. A waste to energy plant is a waste management facility that combusts waste, or burns it, to produce electricity. This type of power plant is sometimes called a trash to energy municipal waste incineration energy recovery or resource recovery plant. Waste to energy is often described as a good way to extract energy from resources, but in fact, it works against the circular economy, producing toxic waste, air pollution, and contributing to climate change, all without delivering on what it promises.

"We have to oppose incineration of all kinds. Incineration is not considered acceptable because of its adverse environmental and health effects and the destruction of materials that can be conserved while saving energy through other management methods. Incineration is a form of destructive disposal, and no type of incineration, including waste to energy and plastic to fuel, mislabeled as chemical recycling, are considered recycling.

"Furthermore, such facilities tend to be sited in disadvantaged or oftentimes Native Hawaiian communities, thus raising environmental justice issues. We, as a legislature, have a commitment to having 100% renewable energy and being a clean economy by 2045. If we are going to meet those goals, then we cannot support any type of project like this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, 919 is about the unsettled issue of Mauna Kea, the smoldering issue of Mauna Kea. In opposition, strongly in opposition. In the committee hearing, it was basically said, we can't have a win-win situation. And basically, what this bill does is kick the can down the mountain because nobody is satisfied on either side. And they said, well you can never have a bill that satisfies everybody. Well, if you talk long enough, you can have a bill that satisfies everybody. And all this is going to do is kind of put a blanket over of the side of the issue and then it's going to flare up again because people are not happy with what this bill has come up with.

"They say half a loaf is better than no loaf. But this is a half a loaf that's going to rot away and it's just going to kick the can down the mountain and we're going to come back again and again and again. Look what we've done for two years. We've sat on our hands about this issue. Mauna Kea is still a very important issue to the Hawaiian community, and all of those issues, and the scientific issues, have to be taken into consideration. So far, again, I repeat, we're kicking the can down the mountain and we're going to come back and it's going to bite us. Thank you."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Perruso rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 28) and concurrent resolution (H.C.R. No. 32) were announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 28, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION CONDEMNING RUSSIA'S ATTACK ON UKRAINE AND SUPPORTING SWIFT AND SEVERE ECONOMIC SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON RUSSIA," was jointly offered by Representatives Tam, Aquino, Belatti, Branco, Eli, Gates, Har, Hashimoto, Ichiyama, Ilagan, Kapela, Kitagawa, B. Kobayashi, LoPresti, Lowen, Marten, Matayoshi, Mizuno, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Perruso, Quinlan, Saiki, Sayama, Takayama, Tamas, Tokioka, Ward, Wildberger, Woodson, and Yamane; and

H.C.R. No. 32, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CONDEMNING RUSSIA'S ATTACK ON UKRAINE AND SUPPORTING SWIFT AND SEVERE ECONOMIC SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON RUSSIA," was jointly offered by Representatives Tam, Aquino, Belatti, Branco, Eli, Gates, Har, Hashimoto, Ichiyama, Ilagan, Kapela, Kitagawa, B. Kobayashi, LoPresti, Lowen, Marten, Matayoshi, Mizuno, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Perruso, Quinlan, Saiki, Sayama, Takayama, Tamas, Tokioka, Ward, Wildberger, Woodson, and Yamane.

Representative Belatti moved that H.R. No. 28 and H.C.R. No. 32 be adopted, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Tam rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, the resolution before us today calls on us to take a side. One side of war and aggression and the other side of peace and unity. I think it is very clear where we must stand, and that is why this resolution was brought forth today. This resolution is in no way targeted towards the Russian people. This resolution actually asks for the Russian government to release any Russian protesters that have been detained for exercising their right to speak.

"Although Hawaii may be a world away from this conflict, it is our moral obligation to stand with the Ukrainian people. And I want to thank you, Mr. Speaker, and this body for allowing the Chair of Culture, Arts, & International Affairs and I to introduce this resolution. Thank you."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. Slava Ukraini."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, everything that President Zelenskyy said is true. The Ukrainians are resolute, they're strong, they're committed. And I have personal experience, having been at the Bush White House, working with Ukrainians on democracy and governance. I've jogged around the track in Kyiv. And everything that's going on points to either a withdrawal of the Russians or elongated urban warfare. It's unfortunate.

"So, this is a very timely piece of legislation. I commend the author for bringing it to us, for passing out sunflowers yesterday. And by the way, there's still some flags left in my office for those of you who want the Ukrainian flag. But the point is, it's very timely and it's very pointed to what otherwise we would think that people could get away in the 21st century with such behavior as this.

"And lastly, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the CEO of Par Pacific, who if you read the Civil Beat this morning, they said that they are suspending all petroleum oil and other products from Russia for our consumption. So, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, it looks like the price of gas will go up, but it's for a great cause for a great people. And as my colleague from the North Shore said, Slava Ukraini. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Gates rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. May I have permission to insert the words of the Representative from Waikiki into the Journal as if they were my own. And I want to thank this House for standing with the people of Ukraine. As we know, it's a travesty what's going on there, humanitarian crisis. And even though it may not be so close to home, we know that it's affecting us across the board, whether it's through economy, through our gas prices, or just the hurt and pain that our residents are feeling for the people of Ukraine. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In strong support. Many of you know, I served as a U.S. diplomat prior, defending American values across in the most volatile regions across the world. Whether I was in Venezuela or whether I was in Colombia or Pakistan, there was always one pervasive factor working against our diplomatic efforts, and that was Russia.

"I experienced Russia's antagonistic influence directly when we received information, when I was in the Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan's Office, that Russia was paying bounties to the Taliban for the killing of American soldiers. And experienced it again while stationed in Venezuela and saw Russia's financial and military aid thwart a popular uprising that just barely failed to oust the brutal dictator Nicolas Maduro from power.

"The world is witnessing a new Russian-made crisis. Putin now intends to attempt to seize key population centers, decapitate Ukraine's government, and install his own handpicked regime in its place. Putin is attempting to upend the post-Cold War order and has plunged Europe into its gravest security crisis since World War II. For those of us living in Hawaii, it may be tempting to think, why should I care about a conflict happening almost 8,000 miles away, halfway around the world. Members, I'm telling you, it's imperative that we do.

"Ukraine is fighting to enjoy the same basic rights that Americans are promised at birth. Free speech, security in a democratic society, and equal protection under the law. Ukraine's courage to defend its democracy threatens despots like Putin. And if the United States does not respond vigorously to Russia's attack, it would only embolden other adversaries around the world to challenge the delicate global security order. Given Hawaii's strategic position in the Pacific, this would put our state at particular risk.

"While cyberattacks originating from Russia are a daily reality for American businesses and government agencies, the Department of Homeland Security has warned that we should be on heightened alert and be prepared for potentially crippling Russian cyberattacks. Everything from power grids to internet service and air travel. Hawaii is no stranger to these kinds of attacks. Just a couple of months ago, cyber attackers shut down three of Hawaii's government systems, and Hawaiian Electric reports they are attacked by hackers originating from Russia almost daily.

"This crisis is still developing, and the situation on the ground is going to change quickly. Russia's disinformation campaigns will go into overdrive, and it's more important than ever to only trust information that is verified and reported by trusted sources. Just as we are sending our prayers to the people of Ukraine, we must also send our prayers to the Russian people. Let's remember that this is not the Russian people's war, this is Putin's premeditated and unprovoked attack.

"While no one knows how this crisis will be resolved, it is important that we put our political differences aside and come together as Americans to stand for our values and our allies' struggles for freedom. The peace, safety, and livelihood of millions depend on it. Thank you."

Representative B. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'd like to remind people that Hawaii has had Ukrainian immigrants from over 100 years ago. Before and after 1900, there were two groups of Ukrainians, one approximately 600 people, who came to work at the sugar plantations. In addition to those people who worked at the sugar plantations, there were individuals from Ukraine that came to Hawaii. One very notable family, the Lui-Kwan family from Hilo with 11 siblings, has a grandmother from Kyiv. So, the world is small. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support of this resolution. And I just wanted to encourage this body at this moment to do the difficult work of critical self-reflection about American military intervention in other countries. And I look forward to similar kinds of opposition from this body to those kinds of interventions. Mahalo."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Speak in opposition. I've heard all the comments, valid comments from a lot of my colleagues on this issue, if you replaced in all of these comments the country of Russia with the United States, and Ukraine with any of these countries, Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, Yemen, Somalia, or Pakistan, you would also have valid statements. Our country, in an average year recently, has dropped 26,000 bombs on other countries of this planet. That's an average of 72 bombs a day, average of three bombs an hour.

"So, my criticism is not in saying what the Russian government is doing is improper, but I just have not seen similar resolutions condemning us for our military aggression as the United States, the country that Martin Luther King Jr. describes as the greatest purveyor of death and destruction and war in the history of the world. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time in support. First to request the remarks of the Representative from Kailua and Waikiki be entered into the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"And then I would add, one of the implications that we've not spoke of, but I think the last two speakers are oblivious of the role of America in keeping the peace in the world, is that when Xi Jinping looks at Taiwan and sees what Putin did to Ukraine, this is going to come close to us. If Taiwan is attacked, Okinawa and a lot of the Pacific Islands are not going to be safe.

"This is real politics, this is not love America, hate America, this is about the reality of those guys who have got power and what they'll do with it. And remember, America, if we weren't in World War II, we would have land in Asia, we'd have land in Europe, if we were not the peacekeepers. So, we have a big role to play.

"Don't blame your government, blame people who are asleep in what the reality is of what Putin is going to do and what Xi Jinping, for the last 20 years, has also had his eyes on Taiwan the way Putin has had his eyes since 1991, when Ukraine became an independent country. So, let us wake up America, let us wake up Hawaii. Be attentive to our good brothers and sisters in Taiwan, maybe the next target. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In strong support. While this isn't the place to debate American foreign policy, I do reject the shocking, utterly shocking equivocation stated earlier by a couple of colleagues. But my main concern for history with this crisis is, I teach political science, among other things, and one of the things that my students and I discussed last week when this invasion began is the historical consequences for nuclear proliferation.

"In the 1990s, Ukraine gave up its nuclear weapons, in part to demonstrate that a smaller country doesn't need nuclear weapons to survive. And they gave them back up to Russia. And the idea was that the international community was going to stand by them and help protect them. And sadly, that has not come to pass. And also sadly and dangerously, the lesson to be taken by other smaller nations in the future is perhaps that they'll need to maintain their nuclear arsenal to prevent this sort of aggression in the future. And so even if, God willing, things work out somehow with this current crisis, future states will look back and try to learn the lessons that perhaps they should maintain their weapons.

"I participated with many of my colleagues in visiting our sister state, Hiroshima, a few years back. And I got to visit ground zero of one of the nuclear bombs that went off there and the horrible devastation that that has wrought. And it's led me to commit myself to try to do things to help prevent nuclear proliferation. And if anything, that should have been included in this. Sorry, I'm a little emotional. Very strong support. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In support. And I think by Par doing what they did sends a clear message to everyone in the state, and I think we can all do our little part. If anybody, which I highly doubt in this body, eats beluga caviar, then don't purchase it, or Russian vodka, don't purchase it. We can send messages that way as well. So, thank you for the authors who drafted the resolution and I'm in strong support."

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thanks to the two reps that put this resolution together. And I hope that people in charge of airspace are making sure that oligarch types are not coming into Hawaii by private aircraft. It's much too easy to leave anywhere around the Pacific and fly into Hawaii without a whole lot of notice, especially into Maui, where we have high end resorts that attract that ilk. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 28 and H.C.R. No. 32 were adopted, with Representative D. Kobayashi voting no, and with Representatives Matayoshi, McDermott, and Nakashima being excused.

By unanimous consent, the following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 22 through 27) and concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 24 through 31) were referred to Printing and further action was deferred:

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1988, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a no vote for 930. It's not because it's not a good bill, this is about Maui Divers, formed in 1958. This bill would knock them out, basically. They were formed as a very responsive entrepreneur, Cliff Slater, very conscientious citizen. And I'm afraid that if we don't grandfather these guys in, this is like knocking out Chanel or knocking out Bvlgari or any of those really serious top-class designers. Mr. Speaker, I don't think it's fair to Maui Divers that's been around for 70 years or so that we suddenly should just zap them out. We have to protect our coral, but we also have to protect our businesses. And they hire dozens of people, and for dozens of years, they've been an integral part of our community. So if we're eliminating them with this bill, I would ask for further consideration by the ongoing committees that they look at this as a way of at least grandfathering those that were in business doing this before 1960 or 1990 or something to that effect. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. To the comments from the Representative from Hawaii Kai, this bill is not about stopping industry. There is an exemption in the bill. In order for companies to harvest black coral, pink coral, gold coral, they need a state-issued permit from DLNR. In the bill, state-issued permits are exempted. So, this is not about killing business, this is about protecting our coral and understanding business as well. Mahalo."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1988, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORAL," passed Third Reading by a vote of 49 ayes to 1 no, with Representative Ward voting no.

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2280, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL PROPERTY," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes.

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support of 933. Mr. Speaker, although the Department of Health emphasizes the danger of unpasteurized milk, this fear mongering must be confronted. Forty-four states have already legalized the sale and distribution of raw milk. It's time to Hawaii to also do the same. The DOH uses CDC data from 1993 to 2006, a span of 13 years where there are 1,500 cases of unpasteurized products causing illness. Not unpasteurized milk, unpasteurized products. Milk, which equates to approximately 115 cases per year, these incidents of illness must be placed in context and be examined from the relative risk, not single points of data. For example, the same timeframe, the FDA estimated that fresh produce was responsible for 8,000 E. coli infections. Eggs were responsible for over 6,500, processed foods over 3,000, sprouts 1,500, where raw milk during that same time period was associated with 10.

"The CDC reports that there are an estimated 48 million foodborne illnesses diagnosed each year in the U.S., of which the consumption of which only about 42 or .005% each year are due to the consumption of raw fresh milk.

"We want to support local farmers, where responsible farmers know their animals, their cows are pasture raised. Raw milk will be produced on a micro scale. And this bill supports local businesses, animal welfare, sustainability, and local economy, and individual rights to have the freedom to access an in-demand commodity. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Matayoshi rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Morikawa rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, when I was a very young child, we grew up in poverty and raw milk was all that my family could get their hands on. So, I enjoyed this very delicious milk, for those of you who never tried it. When they started to pasteurize it, I told my mom, this milk is green, it's not ripe yet. Mr. Speaker, if we talk about sustainability, this is where we have to think about going. I'd also like to request the words of the Representative from District 1 to be inserted as my own. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2028, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RAW MILK," passed Third Reading by a vote of 40 ayes to 10 noes, with Representative Tokioka voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Har, Kong, Marten, Matayoshi, Okimoto, Onishi, Perruso, Sayama, Tam, and Tarnas voting no.

Representative Nakashima, for the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 937-22) recommending that H.B. No. 1860, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1860, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Sayama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. First, I'd like to thank the Chairs from the Consumer Protection & Commerce Committee, as well as the Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs Committee for their help in passing and improving this measure. During a time when workers were being laid off and families were struggling with the pandemic, catalytic converter thefts were sweeping the nation. In Hawaii, thousands of catalytic converter thefts were stolen and being sold off to recyclers and scrap dealers without oversight and regulation, leaving families with no car to go to grocery or to get their kids to school or go to work. These catalytic converters costs anywhere between $500 to $1,000 to replace and take months to get to Hawaii.

"Mr. Speaker, over the past two years, I've worked with HPD, the City and County's Prosecuting Attorney's Office, the Attorney General's Office, as well as members of this House and Senate to draft a bill that addresses this issue, and today I am proud to have the bill that we have today to vote on, and I look forward to seeing it pass through the Legislature. Thank you."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, reservations and a brief comment. I just am very concerned that this bill specifically targets the good guys, Mr. Speaker. I am totally for transparency and funding of campaign expenditures by non-candidate committees, that's why I signed the bill. But I did not realize that we were just going after non-profits who, frankly, many of them in my mind are the good guys. Thanks."

Representative Kitagawa rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support with a few comments. Over the past year, I have been working with the Campaign Spending Commission as well as the Attorney General's Office to come up with this bill that addresses the issue of dark money in campaign spending. Dark money occurs when an organization, such as the 501(c)(4) nonprofit, raises funds to use on campaign expenditures, such as donations to candidates, mailers and fliers, and other electioneering activities, in an attempt to influence the outcome of an election. It is dark money because the organization is currently not required by law to disclose the identity of its donors. They simply can funnel money into a non-candidate committee as a lump sum donation so the public never knows who the money came from.

"501(c)(4) organizations are tax exempt social welfare organizations. They must be operated exclusively to further the common good and general welfare of the community. Unlike 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations that cannot engage in political activities, 501(c)(4) organizations can engage in some political and campaign-related activities as long as it is not their primary function. Arguably, this means that a 501(c)(4) could use 49.99% of its funds to influence elections while still maintaining its tax-exempt status and hiding their donors' involvement in political campaigning.

"Currently, the IRS does not use any of their funds to investigate these activities to ensure compliance. Therefore, 501(c)(4)s can engage in and spend unregulated amounts of money on political activity without consequence or oversight, conceivably well above the allowed 49.99%. This is happening not only at the national level, but also at the local level.

"To clarify some false narratives about this bill, I'd like to highlight a few points. This bill only applies to 501(c)(4) organizations that meet the current requirements under law for non-candidate committees. If a 501(c)(4) does not engage in campaign-related activities, this bill would not apply to them. Concerns were raised in testimony that this bill would create a chilling effect on individuals participation in the political and democratic process, and that people may be discouraged or afraid to donate to organizations that engage in electioneering because their identities would be disclosed.

"However, this bill better protects community members who choose to donate to 501(c)(4)s. Under this bill, the donor must give consent to have their donation used towards elections or supporting candidates. This provides the donor with upfront information on what their donation will be used for. If a community member does not want their identity disclosed, they would choose to not have their donation be used towards election-related purposes. This protects the donor and uses their donation only for the purposes that they intend.

"Concerns were also raised that 501(c)(4)s are being singled out through this bill, when other entities also engage in dark money. I agree that we should address all aspects of dark money and that it is in the best interest of the public to do so. The first draft of this bill cast a wide net and attempted to address all forms of dark money. However, in doing so, concerns arose, since it is difficult to create a one-size-fits-all solution to addressing all avenues of dark money.

"This bill is a first step in the right direction. The public deserves to be informed of who is paying to influence elections. Just as maximum disclosure and transparency of currently regulated candidate contributions and expenditures are important, closing the loophole on dark money to ensure maximum transparency and disclosure only serves to achieve the same public good. We must not let the perfect be the enemy of the good. Through this bill, we are taking steps to ensure disclosure and transparency in elections and are moving the state in the right direction. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative LoPresti rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like to change my vote to a no vote. I think quoting Voltaire on something like that just is a bit over the edge. Again, this is clearly targeting something like the Sierra Club, which has nationally thousands of people who are donating a few bucks to them. And yeah, occasionally they might do a mailer against one of us, and it doesn't mean that we should then legislate against them. It's really disappointing because there is dark money in politics. There's severe dark money in politics from big moneyed interests that have far more an effect on elections than a few 501(c)(4)s. So, I'm going to change my vote after that speech to a no. Thanks."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support and may I have the words of the Representative from Kaneohe adopted as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2416, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN SPENDING," passed Third Reading by a vote of 48 ayes to 2 noes, with Representatives D. Kobayashi and LoPresti voting no.

On motion by Representative Belatti, seconded by Representative Morikawa and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2025, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE SUNSHINE LAW," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes.

Representative Nakashima, for the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 950-22) recommending that H.B. No. 2125, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2125, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong opposition. This bill relates to official school business, we could say official monkey business, Mr. Speaker. As I've said many times on this floor, there is a very, very, very strong correlation between parental involvement and student achievement. This bill throws a blanket of cold water on parental involvement.

"Basically, it's a Loudoun County bill where all this started, where the parents were objecting to curriculum, i.e. CRT. If any of you were aware of what took place yesterday, 1697 regarding teachers being forced to teach sexual practices using basically a graphic cartoon pornography. Mr. Speaker, maybe a lot on this floor are not listening, but the mama bears are listening, and they came out really in large numbers yesterday.

"So, Mr. Speaker, let us know that transparency in curriculum is going to be an issue if 1697 passed, and it's now in the Senate. And it's something that this bill says, if you harass or impede or intervene with a government 'education worker,' you can be fined $2,000 or put one year in jail. Can you imagine that, Mr. Speaker? That's shooting a fly with a shotgun. The point is that parents have a right to curriculum transparency, and right now we don't have that.

"Also, during the Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs hearing, which I sit on, we were promised that we would have a letter from the attorney general that would explain their approval and how they, in effect, wrote the bill. We were also promised in the Judiciary Committee that Acting Superintendent Hayashi would give us a number of experiential or, the metrics, if you will, which I always ask for in committees, how much has this been a problem? And he said, well, so far, we can only count six instances where the parents really interfered with an education worker. Six, Mr. Speaker. I mean, I can think of six times a policeman is spit on, but we don't categorize, if you spit on a policeman, you're going to get a $2,000 fine or a year in jail.

"So, Mr. Speaker, this is really an overkill. It's really something that says, you parents, we don't want you to become too involved in the PTA. We don't want you to object in the curriculum. We don't want you to say what is your values versus our, quote, the state values. And Mr. Speaker, if we look at what Loudoun County did to the election in Virginia, Governor Youngkin, on this basis, basically won his race because the government said, we are in charge of your kids, you have nothing to say.

"Mr. Speaker, this goes beyond, it's an overreach. And Mr. Speaker, I therefore say the only way we can make fair the fine of $2,000 or one year in jail is to recommit this bill to committee, to work on it, to make those penalties fit what otherwise is the charge. Mr. Speaker, I therefore move to recommit this bill."

Representative Ward moved to recommit H.B. No. 2125, HD 2, seconded by Representative McDermott.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, right now, we know that we have to protect. We love our teachers. This is not anti-teachers. But we also love people getting involved in their government. You know, a lot of us get harassed--"

The Chair addressed Representative Ward, stating:

"Alright, Representative Ward, the Chair will provide latitude, but please confine your remarks to the recommittal."

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"Well, primarily because, as I said earlier, $2,000 fine and one year in jail is overkill, Mr. Speaker. That's basically the basis of it. But I want you to know that this body, Mr. Speaker, in the last election, in the last, how would you call it, Star Advertiser, in otherwise the survey of how we're doing, we had an approval rating of 18%. This makes us a class of our own. If we don't lower those things, they're saying, you guys elevate yourself as the political class, we peons who are not of any standing have to be punished by doing this.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, we should treat everybody equally. And if we want a bill like this that says, and there is one legitimate complaint there, they're doing the voicemail, they're plugging up the email lists. But Mr. Speaker, that should be across the board. It shouldn't be just the DOE. It should be any department. If you're jamming their voicemail, if you're jamming up their email, this should be committed to that transfer just for all departments and not just the DOE. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, I think we would be better in the eyes of the electorate if we treated and respected parents more than this bill does because it basically says you have no rights in our school system, sit down and shut up. Thank you."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition to the motion to recommit. First, Mr. Speaker, I would note that this bill has a defective date, so this has to still continue on to the process. And secondly, what we've seen during the course of this pandemic is that educational workers in particular have been the subject of much harassment, and that is what this current bill is seeking to address. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"I stand in strong opposition to recommitment for many of the reasons mentioned by the previous speaker. But I will also say that this bill does not call for an unreasonable expectation to be placed upon parents and their behavior on public school campuses. I think that it's reasonable to expect them to engage in civil behavior. Thank you."

Representative Woodson rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"In opposition to the recommitment please. Mr. Speaker, this bill, HB 2125, HD 2, is not about taking away parental voice. It is not. This bill is about protecting our principals and our vice principals and our other administrators in this new world we find ourselves in as it relates to the COVID-19 pandemic and some of the frustrations that our parents have shared. Of course, it's common sense that the Department of Education, within their constructs, they have systems and subsystems in place that not only encourage parental involvement, they actually facilitate parental involvement. That is very important to mention.

"It's also important to mention, as the previous speaker in favor of the recommitment had said, that there is a direct positive correlation between parental involvement and increased learning outcomes over time. And so of course, that is articulated in our Hawaii Revised Statutes. That is also in many ways promulgated in Board of Education policy around this particular issue.

"But again, if parents have legitimate concerns about pandemic operations, or more broadly speaking, it is okay, and it is encouraged for our parents to share those concerns. That is healthy in our system. However, it is not okay if those same parents are being abusive to our administrators, as has been reported across the state. It is not okay if our administrators, principals, vice principals, others are receiving harassing comments on a regular basis. It is not okay if they are receiving sexual and lewd comments, as has been reported across the state. It is not okay if they're receiving death threats on a daily basis across the state, as has been reported. It is not okay if these administrators are receiving comments like, we know how many kids you have, we know where you live and we're coming for you shortly. All of that is not okay.

"And so, what this bill does is it seeks to provide additional statutory layers of support to address that particular issue and also subsystems in place to support that aim because our principals and vice principals cannot do their job optimally if they are worrying about themselves, safety, or their family's safety. And so for that reason and others, I humbly ask his body to not support this recommitment and to support this bill. Thank you."

Representative Tam rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"In opposition to the recommitment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This bill is a good bill. I believe that parents should have the right to engage in civil discourse. But no one should have to be harassed when they're doing their job, especially education workers. And when they are harassed, I believe that it will have a negative impact on the education of our kids. So, for these reasons, I am in opposition to the recommitment and I am in support of this bill."

The motion was put to a vote by the Chair and upon a voice vote, failed to carry, with Representative Holt being excused.

(Main Motion)

Representative Matayoshi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations and a brief comment. As a former educational worker who has been harassed in the past, I really do sympathize with the administration and the teachers who have to continually go through that kind of harassment. But that being said, we have laws on the books already to protect educational workers and everyone in our society from harassment. And if this harassment is taking place, and it is, I really encourage the Attorney General's Office to vigorously prosecute those people who are taking actions that rise to the levels of harassment that are currently on the books.

"That being said, it seems like the issue that this bill is trying to address is harassment, not against necessarily the people, which we already have laws on the books for that, but harassment against the educational institutions itself. We kept getting testimony from the superintendent and others about parents filling up voicemail boxes and doing other harassment-like activities to the institution. So, I think that this bill should probably be amended to allow for a different harassment standard or crime against educational institutions themselves, rather than the employees who are already protected under our harassment statutes.

"And I'd just like to really encourage the Attorney General's Office too, to start more vigorously pursuing and prosecuting those parents who are harassing educational workers and administrative staff to the level where it falls under our harassment statutes. I think it's absolutely unacceptable that parents have been taking these actions and threatening teachers and administrative staff, even veiled threats, and have not been pursued to the fullest extent of the law. We've got to crack down on that and I encourage the AG to do so. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Unfortunately, because it's final call time, I'm going to have to go no on this measure. But I do want to vigorously adopt the words of the previous speaker in encapsulating my concerns with the measure. I applaud the Jud Chair for working on this thing, trying to aim it at educational institutions. But the examples given in the committee hearing by the department, I think, concern me. Because when pressed, they said it had to do with parents leaving too many emails, too many phone calls. And we really start to hit a slippery slope when that becomes the metric of possibly applying a law that could have serious ramifications to the individual.

"Parents are concerned, especially parents with SPED kids. Rightfully so. They may call or email several times because they're not getting an answer. But to have that over them potentially is a little too much. I'm hoping the Senate can work on this measure, though, and incorporate the comments of the previous speaker and that it can come back to us with these things addressed. But until then, I'm not going to be able to support the measure. Thanks."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I voted with reservations in the committee and we were fortunate enough to have a good debate and dialog. And a colleague sitting right next to me talked about two words that were in that bill that was going to be hard to enforce, and it was annoy and alarm. During the committee, the Judiciary Chair heard from all of us and said he was going to take out annoy. He wasn't certain on alarm, but when I'm looking at the bill, alarm is out. So, I support the bill now because it's a lot easier to enforce. So, thank you for that opportunity and thank the Judiciary Chair and the members for the dialog during committee."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I just want to reiterate what my previous colleague had mentioned on the Judiciary Committee. We went over this with a fine-tooth comb, Mr. Speaker. And we took out, I think, those aspects that were objectionable. Certainly, some people had spoken that harassment does and should cover some of the activities that teachers and administrators have experienced. And I echo my colleague from the windward side who is saying we really need to see that the AG follows through on prosecuting some of these things.

"But this bill, I think, has evolved and been reshaped so that it is simply looking at the harassment of the institution in a way. And that is, I think, fine. I don't think it's going to in any way hamper parent involvement with their student's education. Thank you."

Representative Okimoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations please, brief comment. I just want to say that I think I'm probably one of the few people that can understand both ends of the spectrum in this bill, from the teacher perspective and the parent perspective. And while, again, I appreciate the intent, I do have to vote with reservations at this time because I think that this bill needs to really get the consideration of the parents. We really need to consider that. And I would like to ask for permission to adopt the words of the Representative from the windward side, from Kaneohe, into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Kapela rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. We already have harassment laws and they really just need to be implemented and used. I'm concerned that if we create another harassment law, that those two things could be conflicting. So, I would also like the words of the Representative from Kaneohe to be inserted into the Journal as if they were my own. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Kitagawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Branco rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Matayoshi be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ohno rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, I support this bill because of a discussion with other DOE employees who are affected by this bill. I do certainly believe that they should have employees within the department to handle these harassment claims specifically. And while there are laws on the books, there is a very nuanced way in which parents can threaten DOE employees. The amount of personal information that is available for anyone is alarming. When someone calls you, leaves anonymous voicemails or emails citing your family and your children, I think we have an obligation to do something more, and it certainly alarms me. So, I do hope the department can do more for this because the way that the public can find personal information about DOE employees while also knowing where you work on a daily basis is a scary thing. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Second time in opposition, Mr. Speaker. If it is the will of this body, Mr. Speaker, to pass this and allow it to take effect in law, I would say, just be apprised that the mama bears in HB 1697, which says you will teach Pono Choices 2, when they storm the Capitol, if they do, or if they come and they say bad things and they shout a little bit, don't be surprised, Mr. Speaker. Because this is the bill that would protect them. This is now the bill that's going to put them either one year in jail or $2,000 fine. HB 1697 is coming, and we'll see what happens. But if it's the will of the people here, just be prepared to stick with what you've said today on this floor. So, when it does happen, you're not going to backpedal and say, well, we didn't really realize that the mama bears protecting their kids and knowing what curriculum they want or don't want in school is not allowable. For that, Mr. Speaker, this is a wake-up call with this vote. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2125, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OFFICIAL SCHOOL BUSINESS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 43 ayes to 7 noes, with Representatives Branco, Kitagawa, Matayoshi, and Okimoto voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Kapela, D. Kobayashi, Kong, Matsumoto, McDermott, McKelvey, and Ward voting no.

Representative Nakashima, for the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 952-22) recommending that H.B. No. 1986, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1986, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Just reservations and brief comments. My concern is that when the Board of Education became an appointed board, which frankly I disagree with, I think we should go back to an elected board, there was a push to get specific members for specific subjects. We require math and social studies and ELA and all sorts of things. I think it is, to quote my colleague in front of me, a slippery slope, but a real one to start saying this board member must be an expert in this and this board member must be an expert in that. And that is my concern with this. Certainly, I think the governor who appoints these positions should consider having somebody with expertise in various areas, I don't know that we should legislate it. Thank you."

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. This bill would appoint one of the representatives at large on the Board of Education to be a Hawaiian immersion expert. You asked why we may need this? It's about equity. We are a state that has two languages, English and ʻōlelo Hawaiʻi, and unfortunately our ʻōlelo Hawaiʻi community has gotten the short end of the stick. And so, this is to make sure that our Hawaiian speakers, our kumu, our Hawaiian immersion schools have the proper voice and the proper advocacy at the forefront of education policymaking.

"I can share with you a story, my own personal story. My great grandfather would go to school and get beaten for speaking Hawaiian. He would then go home and he would also get lickins for speaking English. A child who had nothing wrong for just speaking his native tongue. And this is a history that is still here in this body. This is a history that's still here in this state, and this is generational trauma. I'm not the only Hawaiian family that has stories like this. We have to start a process of healing and we have to uplift our native people. Mahalo."

Representative Holt rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. I would just like to read a little bit of the preamble of this measure. 'The legislature also finds that Native Hawaiians currently make up almost twenty-four per cent of the entire student population in the State. Due to the high presence of Native Hawaiian students in the public school system, it is imperative that the State guarantee appropriate representation on the board of education to fulfill its constitutional duty to promote Hawaiian studies and the Hawaiian language and to provide a voice for Native Hawaiian students, teachers, and faculty.

The legislature also finds that existing law does not require any member of the board of education to be an individual who has expertise in Hawaiian studies, the Hawaiian language, or Hawaiian immersion education. The legislature believes that to better promote the study of Hawaiian culture, history, and language in public schools, as required by the state constitution, there must be some representation of the Hawaiian community on the board of education.' Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support. Mr. Speaker, education is the engine of upward social economic mobility. We know that the Hawaiian community is lacking in some of those areas, socioeconomically near the bottom of the ladder. But lest I say things that are redundant and less eloquent as the Representative from Kailua, for the second time on this floor, Mr. Speaker, would you enter his remarks into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Just as someone who studied languages in university, I would like everyone to understand that if you don't perpetuate and encourage and preserve language, then you cannot perpetuate and preserve culture. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1986, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative LoPresti voting aye with reservations.

Representative Nakashima, for the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 954-22) recommending that H.B. No. 1823, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1823, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Matsumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matsumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"The title of this bill is 'Our Care, Our Choice Act.' This title refers to the patient's ability to choose the way in which they pass on, but there is another person affected by this bill that should also have a choice – the medical personnel. In the past few years, we have been reminded of how important it is to value and respect our medical workers, and an important aspect of this respect is allowing them to make their own choices in the types of medicine they practice.

"Nurses and physician assistants often join the medical field because they want to help others, because they want to save lives. Medical personnel who do not wish to participate in ending another person's life should not be forced to do so. Even if a bill does not explicitly state that staff will be required to participate in euthanasia, there needs to be a clause outlining their right to refuse without repercussion from their employers.

"In addition to expanding the types of medical professionals that can perform medically assisted death (MAID), this bill proposes to reduce and remove certain safeguards that were put in place to protect patients. Perhaps most concerning, this bill waives the waiting period entirely for patients whose attending provider attests that the patient will die within the 15-day waiting period. A physician can only reliably predict that a patient will survive days and not weeks once the patient has entered the actively dying phase. Additionally, economic considerations surrounding medical assistance in dying may urge certain individuals and organizations to promote potential savings in [1] medical care (aggressive treatments, costly medications, long durations of hospital visits) and [2] social security (the elderly constitute a majority of terminally ill patients who are likely to consider MAID). There are well-documented disparities in access to health-care services, with people from lower socioeconomic backgrounds, those with lower health literacy, and members of ethnic and racial minorities being less likely to receive adequate care, including palliative care services. This also especially affects individuals with physical disabilities or with psychiatric illnesses.

"Leaving the option of MAID open, as well as putting the onus on the patient, does not allow them the time and structure for processing the meaning of their request. Waiving a mandatory waiting period may be peripheral to the parallel, comparatively quick timeframe wherein individuals typically decide their EOL care."

Representative Wildberger rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition, Mr. Speaker. While I applaud this measure's efforts to incentivize landlords to rent to recipients of Section 8 housing vouchers, I am unable to support this proposal in its current form because it does not include a strong prohibition against housing discrimination based on an individual source of income. Honolulu remains one of the largest metropolitan areas in the United States that does not prohibit this kind of discrimination, which worsens housing insecurity for low income residents, the majority of whom are women. Eighty-three percent of Section 8 recipients are women. As of November 2020, 17 states also prevent discrimination against Section 8 housing voucher recipients. We need to join those locations and prohibit rental discrimination for our most economically vulnerable neighbors."

Representative Perruso rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Kapela be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Nakamura rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. There's a lot of problems with the Section 8 program, which is why a lot of landlords don't participate in it. Section 8 is an incredible federal resource that gives money to the tenants directly, and they only pay 30% of their income on housing and the federal government picks up that balance.

"And I understand the concerns raised by the previous speakers, but I'd like to say that there's a problem with the Section 8 program in Hawaii which prevents landlords from participating when they don't have enough security deposit to pay for trashed units. When it takes months and months to even get into the program because of the paperwork involved. When it takes several months to even get the unit inspected. These are reasons why landlords are not participating in the program.

"So that's why we have to fix the system to encourage landlords to participate, because even if we pass a bill to say you cannot discriminate, we're still going to have these problems. These are the underlying fixes that are needed. And I really want to acknowledge the Vice Chair of Housing, Representative from Wailuku, who spent the interim with stakeholders to address these concerns to get to the root of the problem and to recognize that we need to deal with the staffing issues, we need to improve the systems and create incentives for landlords in order to fix the problem. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, what's missing in this whole debate is one factor that I will cite Senator Inouye for being the progenitor and the genius behind it, and with Peter Savio's suggestion. Little known to very many people is the fact that Section 8 can actually be rent-to-own, there's actually an ownership provision. And as we bemoan the lack of housing in Hawaii, I've never seen one instance where you can actually be Section 8 and become a homeowner. Mr. Speaker, that needs to be somewhere built into our housing policies and it's not and I don't see it in this bill, but that is a key issue. Senator Inouye did it out of a discussion between housing experts, in particular Peter Savio, and how we can leverage the poor to be homeowners. And when you're a homeowner, you've got a stake in the American dream. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I would like to add the words of the Chair of Housing into the record as if they were my own. She's absolutely correct. Until this problem can be fixed and modernized at the federal level, what she is doing will go a long way towards getting landlords to accept Section 8 clients and providing more housing opportunity in our very tight affordable housing rental market right now. So again, thank you, in support," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Branco rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. I think the wealthy should pay their fair share of taxes. But according to the Tax Foundation of Hawaii, the bill includes a broad-based tax increase, perhaps larger than what we intended. And so, I'm just concerned with our fragile economy that a tax increase would be inappropriate at this current time. Mahalo."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. First off, I have to thank the Chair of the Finance Committee as well as the Chair of the Economic Development Committee for moving this measure forward. It's time for Hawaii to tax the rich. Hawaii saddles our low-income neighbors with the second heaviest state and local tax burden in the nation. While families who earn less than $20,000 per year pay 15% of their income in state and local taxes, those who make over $450,000 annually pay only 9%.

"Hawaii is also one of only nine states that taxes all capital gains profits that are from the sale of stocks, bonds, investment real estate, art, and antiques at a lower rate than ordinary income. This capital gains tax loophole privileges almost entirely high-income taxpayers, including nonresidents who profit from investing in real estate in the islands.

"If Hawaii were to tax capital gains at the top marginal tax rate, we would bring in $160 to $180 million in new revenue, according to the Hawaii Department of Taxation, 97% of which would be paid by the top 5% of income earners in our state. The bottom 80% would pay nothing at all. That amount is far more than enough to make our state's earned income tax credit refundable and permanent. As an economic stimulus, the EITC contributes up to $1.24 in economic activity for every $1 it returns to workers.

"As the Hawaii Budget and Policy Center noted in a recent report, research on the EITC shows that the credit contributes to long term economic and health gains for families and people of color who are much more likely to earn low wages in Hawaii due to systemic racism. These are the individuals who would experience the greatest benefit from strengthening the EITC, making it an effective anti-racist policy as well.

"The benefits of strengthening the EITC are clear in the islands, especially given our skyrocketing cost of living and housing crisis, both of which have worsened during the COVID-19 pandemic. Asking our state's wealthiest residents to pay their fair share to deliver financial security for our most vulnerable neighbors is a deal that working families cannot miss out on. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Ganaden rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In strong support, requesting the words of the Representative from Kau entered into the Journal as if they were my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative LoPresti rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Kapela be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Also in support on the measure and just a few comments. Remember when we passed EITC before, there was a lot of lament, a hollow victory because it wasn't refundable. And this bill finally closes the gap in doing that. It's a meaningful tax credit for working class people. We give tax credits to a lot of people who, quite frankly, are wealthy and don't need them. This one actually goes to the people who need them the most. And it's very fiscally responsible in generating new revenue from increasing, as a previous speaker said, capital gains tax rates on those areas, which will bring us in line with other states. So, thank you."

Representative Perruso rose in support of the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Kapela be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition. I just want to share a story about a development project in Maui that the developer cleverly chopped up their 30-acre parcel into 15 acres so that they could get away with not having the robust examination of the Land Use Committee. And with the exasperated testimony of the Land Use Committee, frankly I'm surprised to see this measure going forward. They're a pragmatic organization, they know that we pass stuff that might not be great for our communities, and so they offered amendments.

"But this is just developers coming to the Legislature and getting the rules changed so that they don't have to abide by the oversight. And sometimes the Land Use Committee is the last stop to protecting our community plans and the development that we would like to see instead of the luxury development that builders want to build but are not necessarily serving our communities. So, thank you, in opposition, Mr. Speaker."

Representative LoPresti rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Hashimoto rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Strong support. First off, I would like to thank all of the committees that heard this bill, including Water & Land Committee, Finance Committee. I think this is a true work in progress and it is something that we've been working very hard on through the interim. And I think we finally, through the Finance Committee, came to some type of agreement with the State Land Use Commission that is somewhat something that both the counties and the State Land Use Commission can agree with. And I think in the previous version, up to 50 acres would be delegated to the county. And I think that gave some type of heartache to the Land Use Commission, but I think we came up with some proposal that made it palatable to both.

"There still will be some State Land Use Commission approval after the counties get to approve it, but it does add a timeframe that the State Land Use Commission gets to approve it. And it also adds in very specific criteria that the State Land Use Commission has to review, they cannot be more broad than what the counties reviewed. So, it should speed up the process of what the State Land Use Commission is able to review projects. This will also not allow parceling, and I think a lot of times developers were looking at parceling because they wanted to get under that 15 acres. And so, we're giving the counties the ability to look at 50 acres. So, we stopped the parceling and the correct provisions of what we put in place to protect land use designations are actually followed.

"So, I think this is a very good bill. It's something that I think the counties really wanted, and we worked closely with the counties because they believe in true home rule. And I also believe that the counties are the ones that have to enforce a lot of the provisions that are put in in land use decisions. And so, we wanted to figure out if we could find a way and move forward. So, again, I thank the Water & Land Chair and the Finance Chair for really making this happen, and the CPC Chair, to really figure out a way to make this all work. So, thank you. For those reasons, I truly support this bill."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In opposition, and may I please have the words of the Representative from Wailuku entered into the Journal as if they were my own with a brief comment. Mr. Speaker, while I'm in opposition to this bill, I strenuously object to the notion that this is simply developers coming to the Legislature. It strikes me at this time, the eyes of the state are upon us, the eyes of the public are upon us. And to imply simply that because one does not agree with the contents of a bill that the process has been somehow unduly influenced, I think is very unfair. And I don't think that that's what this body needs at this time. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1840, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DISTRICT BOUNDARY AMENDMENTS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 41 ayes to 9 noes, with Representative LoPresti voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Kapela, D. Kobayashi, Kong, Lowen, Marten, McKelvey, Perruso, Quinlan, and Wildberger voting no.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1025-22) recommending that H.B. No. 2511, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2511, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Holt rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. Last year, Mr. Speaker, our budget included a record amount of CIP to DHHL, over $70 million. Thank you very much to the Finance Chair and CIP Chair for that, and everybody. That's over $20 million than the previous high, which is amazing. And Mr. Speaker, this measure appropriates $600 million, $600 million with the intention of assisting 6,000 individuals getting off of this waitlist. By my math, with ten Hawaiians per household, nah, five Hawaiian per household, it's about 30,000 people who will attain housing by this measure. We still have a long way to go, Mr. Speaker. It's still 22,000 people who will still be on the list after this measure.

"I've always been a strong advocate for Hawaiian issues, but as the kids say, this one hits a little bit different. In the fall of last year, I had the privilege of attending the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act in Washington, D.C. It was only my second time in D.C. as it's not really my favorite place, it's cold, it's far, the food is different, but the reason for being there in the company that I had made it well worth it.

"We were able to take a tour of the Capitol, provide ho'okupu at the Kamehameha statue, visit the Library of Congress where we met Deb Haaland, the first Native American to serve as cabinet secretary, where she addressed all of us who were there. We were able to view the original documents of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act. They brought it out so we could take a look at it.

"We had a good number of participants, including the Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement, Kamehameha Schools, the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs, Hale O Na Alii O Hawaii, Native Hawaiian Education Council, Papa Ola Lōkahi, OHA, DHHL, and other organizations. We had about 40 or 50 of us, which is a good-sized delegation. but in what's going on in all of D.C., we're just a small part. And to think that 100 years ago, Prince Kuhio was all by himself. One individual, all by himself, 100 years ago.

"Thank you to all of you who helped play a part in this role. Like I said, we have a long way to go. But Mr. Speaker, I'm very proud to stand here on this floor, taking this step forward to help make an impact and remove people off this list."

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support."

Representative Marten rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"I rise in strong support and I wanted to express my appreciation to House leadership for putting so much money, rather than just words, on this important issue."

Representative Nakamura rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you very much. Mr. Speaker, in strong support. This bill will help build housing for Native Hawaiians who are disproportionately homeless, disproportionately living in overcrowded living conditions, and who have been waiting on the DHHL waiting list for years. So, I'd like to ask that the words of the speaker from Kalihi be included as my own. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Strong support. Mr. Speaker, I hope this is the beginning of a wonderful relationship. I want to thank the Chair of Finance and the creative ideas that she has put forward in this. I'd like to request the words of the Hawaiian Caucus Chair be entered into my own. And to know, Mr. Speaker, this is probably going to build probably at $500,000, maybe 1,200 homes. I would think if we convene and do the same thing next year and the year after, then the wish of Prince Kuhio will have been fulfilled. That there will be Hawaiians returned to the land, there will be justice. And for those that have waited so long, hopefully they will come with open Capitol and thank everybody for what they're doing. This is a great beginning, we just have to follow through. Thank you," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support. When I look at the amount of money here, $600 million, it's more than just a dollar sign. For us Hawaiians, this is a fulfillment of dreams. Dreams of our ancestors wanting to own their own home or having their own home in their own native land. And so, I thank the body for working on this. This is a great step forward. But this doesn't mean we're pau. We have a lot of work still to do. We also need to couple this with land in the urban cores across the islands. And so, I look forward to continuing the work on housing Native Hawaiians. Mahalo."

Representative Ichiyama rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support with a brief comment. A few weeks ago, a constituent called me, she lives in Moanalua Valley, her name is Kaimo, and she wanted to share with me her support of this bill and ask that I support it because her father was Dickie Nelson. And he recently passed away in Kona, and he was one of the beneficiaries who died on the waiting list. And she asked that I share his name in his memory and her support for this bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 2511, HD 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes.

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1026-22) recommending that H.B. No. 2510, HD 1, as amended in HD 2, pass Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2510, HD 2 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Wildberger rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. I do have some concerns, but I'd like to ask permission to insert comments into the Journal. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka's written remarks are as follows:

"I am voting in support of this bill but I do have concerns for the very small 'mom and pop' business, especially right now as we are coming out of a global and economic pandemic. This bill includes an increase in the tip credit that is meant to help small restaurants who have tipped employees. In the Senate's version of a wage bill, it does not address tip credit at all. I would like to see the tip credit increased going forward because the current tip credit affords restaurants 13% of the minimum wage to be reduced from the current hourly wage. When the minimum wage gets to $18 per hour, the tip credit will only be 6.5% of the hourly wage. What I see potentially happening is restaurants will either be closing because they can't afford to pay their employees or paying their employees cash, under the table. Neither of which would be good for the employee or the state. My passion for this particular section of the bill comes from being a part owner of three restaurants prior to my time in office. I understand the struggles that restaurants go through and how hard it is to keep the doors open."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"In opposition. Today is International Women's Day. And I wanted to take this moment to remind us that fighting for a living wage is also fighting for gender equity. A substandard minimum wage such as that included in this bill, while I appreciate the movement that we have made on the measure, does mean the continued exploitation of women's labor because 60% of minimum wage workers are women and 22% of those have children. A sub minimum wage tip credit, such as that included in this measure, also means the continued exploitation of women's labor because 70% of tipped workers nationwide are women. And the poverty rate for women working in tipped roles was nearly two and a half times the rate for workers overall.

"I want to be clear that a living wage is not about providing relief or assistance to the working class. This is not about legislators or businesses helping workers. This is simply about fair compensation for the labor of minimum wage workers who are disproportionately women and people of color. If you spend eight hours a day laboring to build profit for your employer, it is my view that you deserve to be paid enough to meet your basic needs for that day, and anything less than that is theft of your time, your labor, and your life. Thank you."

Representative Sayama rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, with strong reservations. First, I'd like to thank the Chair of the Labor & Tourism Committee for his work to addressing this complex and contentious issue. Over the course of this and previous sessions, this body has reviewed and debated various versions of this measure, with a focus to help families who are really struggling to continue life in Hawaii, and they're wondering whether to move to the mainland. Now, after a long two years of this pandemic, we have an opportunity to help them. To provide Hawaii with a holistic policy to assist those laboring to earn a better life for themselves and their families.

"Unfortunately, I cannot say this measure in its current form lives up to this objective. After speaking with economists, business leaders, advocates, and business owners in my district in Kaimuki, I urge members of this House and Senate to consider a more gradual rate of increase in the state's minimum wage, as was reflected in the original version of 2510.

"To tell a story of a business owner in Kaimuki, she started her business from a food truck with a simple goal and dream to provide quality ice cream products with local flavors. After a year of hard work, she opened a store in Kaimuki, employing 15 staff, with the lowest paid worker being a high school student making $12 an hour with an additional $7 an hour in tip. When the pandemic hit, and faced with new financial challenges, she, like many other business owners in my district, made the difficult decision to cut her own salary to keep her staff. During these two years she made no money from her business, drawing from her reserves to make ends meet and keep her business afloat and employees employed.

"Like her, many businesses in my district have sacrificed to help the community to keep people employed during an economic and health crisis. I cannot speak on behalf of all small businesses in Hawaii, but for the businesses in Kaimuki I can say for certainty that a $13 jump by 2023 will mean cutting jobs, it will mean price increases, it would mean that this inflation that we are currently experiencing now would be exacerbated. It simply would be crippling.

"I know this House and Senate wants to ensure working families can earn a quality life. But this measure does not accomplish that. And so, I urge this body, as well as the Senate, to further consider amendments to this measure as it passes through this legislative session. Thank you."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition. I appreciate the Chair of the Finance Committee for accelerating the timeline for implementing an $18 per hour minimum wage increase for low income employees. Yet this measure still falls short of what working families truly deserve. The Raise Up Hawaii Coalition recently released a profile of the average minimum wage worker in Hawaii. Oftentimes, we think this worker is a high school student or a teenager. That is incorrect. The worker is likely to be female between the ages of 25 and 39. She possesses some college experience and often works in the service industry.

"When we hear comments from the business community about the minimum wage being a training wage, we know that it's a falsehood. Similarly, we have data to prove that raising the minimum wage will not have a significant impact on small businesses. During the last round of minimum wage increases from 2014 to 2018, the number of people employed by small businesses grew by 3% and the total number of small businesses grew by 8%. When we hear people from the business community or from the restaurant industry say that creating a living wage will lead to job losses, we know that too is a falsehood.

"I continue to oppose increasing the tip credit as this bill does. We need to stop using the phrase 'tip credit.' What we really are talking about is a tip penalty, where tipped employees are paid less simply because they have the kind of job that they perform and they get tips. Studies have shown that the tip penalty significantly worsens sexual harassment and sexual violence in the service industry, which is dominated by female employees. They are reluctant to report misconduct from customers who sexually harass them because those are the same people who pay the tips that they rely on to pay their bills.

"The heartlessness of those who oppose a living wage was on full display at the very first hearing for this bill, at which the president of the Retail Merchants of Hawaii, Tina Yamaki, said the minimum wage worker doesn't deserve a raise because, in her words, they don't know how to brush their teeth or take a bath without training from their employers. That is classist, that is racist, and that is wrong.

"We still have time to do better. And that is why I urge this body once again to hear and pass Senate Bill 2018, which raises the minimum wage to $18 an hour by 2026 without increasing the tip credit. That is the kind of economic justice that working families deserve. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Matsumoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure. I'll start with what I agree with. I agree that our families are hurting in Hawaii. People are living paycheck to paycheck and they're leaving our state because they cannot afford to live here. We need to change that. People are struggling and they need help. What I don't agree with is the how.

"When we were considering a minimum wage increase to $13 in 2020, I was willing to support the bill. Then COVID hit, and before we shut down the Legislature, I gave a speech on this floor stating I agreed with the increase, but now is probably not the time. Here we are today considering a much greater increase, a 78% increase to the minimum wage, when the economic climate is much worse.

"We are putting almost all of our hope in raising the minimum wage when there are so many other ways to achieve the same goal. And it's something that I have been focused on for the last few years. It's why I've introduced bills to help local families, like a bill to lower the income tax. A third of our paycheck is taken away from taxes. Collectively, we have some of the highest taxes in the nation. Imagine the impact that we could make if we gave people more of their hard-earned money back so they can spend it the way that they feel is best for them.

"For years, I've introduced a bill to eliminate tax on necessities like food and medical services. This would immediately help people in their everyday lives, and it's a measure that almost all of the other states have enacted in our country. I've also introduced bills for those with children, opportunities for assistance with childcare. And these are the things we need to focus on more, not just a dramatic increase in the minimum wage.

"Raising our minimum wage is not going to ultimately help the people of Hawaii in the long run. Over the last two years, our island's small businesses have weathered storm after storm. They've had to deal with government-imposed restrictions that were put there for the intended health and safety of our population. But there was constant uncertainty. They were forced to close, and then they were allowed to reopen, and then they got closed again, and then reopened. And it was back and forth. And with mounting pressure from stifling mandates to supply chain crises, hundreds of businesses ranging from startups to family legacies were given no choice but to close their doors. And for those who remain, the challenges are far from over.

"Just a few days ago, the vaccination passport requirement was lifted. We are not well into an economic recovery. We're still in the midst of really difficult times. I think so often we think we're just going to raise the minimum wage and it's not going to affect some corporate employer. And in so many cases, it's not just a faceless employer, it's people like my mother.

"My family has had Peterson's Upland Farm in Wahiawa for 112 years. My great grandfather started the farm in 1910 and we supply local fresh eggs to people in our communities, as many of you know. My mother works 12 to 14 hours a day to keep our farm afloat, but we operate on razor thin margins as many farmers do. And these last few years have been especially difficult. Not only has there been uncertainty with what we are allowed and not allowed to do, but the general cost of business is going up.

"At the beginning of last year, it was $14,000 to ship and buy feed for our chickens. Just last month, it was $18,600. That is a $4,000 increase just for the cost to feed the chickens, not wages. That's a 33% increase. Being an island state with no feed grown here locally, we have no option but to ship in. And with all of the unrest currently going on throughout the world, it's only going to get worse. Just yesterday, my mom had to order more egg cartons, and that price has gone up astronomically because the price of cardboard has gone up.

"People say it's not going to matter, but if this bill passes, the best-case scenario is that we cut half of our labor force on the farm. We would have to let go of half of our workers, some of which who have worked on our farm for over 30 years. It's hard enough as it is to find people to work on the farm. But if this passes, who is going to want to work on the farm that is a very labor intensive job?"

Representative Okimoto rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matsumoto continued, stating:

"We talk about supporting agriculture on this floor all the time. Use it as an industry to replace tourism to be self-sufficient. But yet we're passing policies that are detrimental to so many farmers. But more realistically, if this bill passes, we will have to shut our doors within the next two years. And we have seen historically in our state, once a farm goes out of business, they're not going to start up again. Once it's gone, it's gone.

"My heart breaks for my mother. After four generations of serving our community, our farm is probably going to be forced to close its doors and I know she's going to feel personally responsible that the business closed under her watch. But with everything compounded and everything going on, it's not her fault.

"My family's story is not unique. This is the story of small businesses across our state. We're currently in a high inflation environment, and it's only going to get more difficult for businesses to operate. The big box and the chain stores will be fine. They can afford to automate their systems, they can have more self-checkout lines. Who we're really hurting is our local business owner and ultimately their staff. All we're doing is inviting big businesses to come in and take over our state because the small guys can't make it.

"Testimony from local businesses made it clear that the significant wage increase is going to be a final blow. The chamber did a survey with 450 members, with 50% having 25 or less employees. Two thirds of the businesses responded that they'd have to cut staff. Twenty-seven percent said they'd have to lay off half of their staff. And a third of the businesses said they would be forced to shut down completely. This is going to result with a lot of people without jobs.

"So, with all of the uncertainty of the pandemic, with all of the unrest going on around the world, and still being in a very difficult economic climate, this is not the time to be significantly raising the minimum wage. But it is the time to help those in our community by other means, and we can do that. The Legislature can help people. I completely agree with the section of the bill that ensures that the state earned income tax credit is permanent and refundable. But the majority of the burden should not be on the backs of local businesses who are trying to provide goods and services for our local communities, like my family. We, the Legislature, need to find a reasonable, multi-pronged solution for the people of our state, and we should be the ones to help. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Sayama rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, still with reservations. While I do like to cite economic papers, case study, economic theory to inform my decisions on legislative matters, when it comes to the minimum wage and how it could affect small businesses, I like to listen to small business owners. Specifically, small business owners in my district. They're the ones with the most skin in the game and I know that these business owners care for their employees. The reason why I know that? During the pandemic, some of these guys said they were going out of business. The community came in full force to purchase these products. We've lost five small businesses in Kaimuki, and I know there would have been more if the community did not support a lot more of them. And so, I could trust my business owners when they tell me that this minimum wage increase will cripple them, that they will lay off workers. I don't turn to economic theories. I don't turn to case studies. I listen to my constituents. I listen to my business owners. And I trust them when they tell me that this policy would hurt them. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Tarnas rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition. I've heard the falsehood that this is not a training wage. The falsehood is, in effect, it is a training wage and it's not a living wage. How you name something is how you treat it. That's why we are against profiling and other kinds of discriminatory terms. When you call somebody something, you treat them in such a way. If this is a living wage, we've got a mistaken idea of what is macro and microeconomics or what capitalism is.

"The second falsehood, Mr. Speaker, is that my good friend from being raised on an egg farm was joking when she said, hey, if we're going to survive after 100-and-some years as an egg farmer, we're going to have to cut employees. Mr. Speaker, that is not a falsehood, that's the reality, and that's the reality that's missing in the speaker from the Big Island who said that was a falsehood.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, we have not enough economic business, entrepreneurial sense to know and understand what's going on out there. But I know this, people are leaving. We're the highest taxed, we're the highest you name it, and we are not fulfilling our role. And I call this, and I usually put a metaphor together, it's like a guy who's got a job, he's got eight kids, he makes enough money to feed three of them, two of them are on rations, and the other three are right with the government welfare, food stamps, and everything else.

"We have not the size of the economy to feed our families, to make our families supportable. This is a macro economic issue down at the micro level at the minimum wage. But Mr. Speaker, when falsehoods come to this floor, they have to be refuted. So, this is a training wage."

At 12:06 p.m., the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:09 p.m.

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 2075, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. No vote and just a short comment. I think we have ample gun laws in Hawaii, and we don't need this bill to protect anybody. Thank you."

Representative Matsumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matsumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"I stand with reservations on this bill as it is unconstitutional as determined in Yukutake vs. Conners in the US District Court of Hawaii on August 16, 2021.

"The bill extends the permitting time period from 10 days to 30 days for gun acquisitions, but that does not change the unconstitutionality of the permit requirement. And narrowing the scope of the inspection from all guns to a specified subset does not change the judgement that says the Police Departments 'are permanently enjoined from enforcing ... in-person firearm inspection and registration requirement.'"

"The modifications of the statutes in this bill are going to be taken to court again at great time and expense. Changing minor details of the unconstitutional practice does not uphold the spirit of the District Court's decision.

"Here is the decision from J. Michael Seabright, Chief United States District Judge (pgs:31-32):

HRS § 134-2(e)'s requirement that "[p]ermits issued to acquire any pistol or revolver shall be void unless used within ten days after the date of issue" is declared unconstitutional in violation of the Second Amendment. Defendant's officers, agents, servants, employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with Defendant are permanently enjoined from enforcing HRS § 134-2(e)'s 10-day permit use requirement for handguns. To be clear, no other language in HRS § 134-2(e) is found unconstitutional.

HRS § 134-3(c)'s requirement that, with the exception of certain licensed dealers, "[a]ll other firearms and firearm receivers registered under [HRS § 134] shall be physically inspected by the respective county chief of police or the chief's representative at the time of registration" is unconstitutional in violation of the Second Amendment. Defendant's officers, agents, servants, employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with Defendant are permanently enjoined from enforcing HRS § 134-3(c)'s in-person firearm inspection and registration requirement. To be clear, no other language in HRS § 134-3(c) is found unconstitutional."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2075, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 44 ayes to 6 noes, with Representative Matsumoto voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Har, Kong, McDermott, Okimoto, Tokioka, and Ward voting no.

H.B. No. 1459, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 1459, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Har rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1459, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO JUVENILE RESTITUTION," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representatives Har and Tokioka voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Kapela, D. Representative Matsumoto rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matsumoto's written remarks are as follows:

"In 2021, the Legislature allowed for citizens to carry electric guns for their protection. This bill would not allow the owner of the electric gun to carry it, even if not operational, basically anywhere they would need to use it. For example, not at a public school, not on public transportation, no state or city building or their parking lots, and the stadium. This seems to defeat the purpose of allowing electric guns for personal protection."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Matayoshi rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, reservations and brief comment. I'm not against the concept of this bill, I do think it's, on further reading, it might be a little bit too broad, but I just want to note my reservations as to the number of locations that this would cover. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1732, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTRIC GUNS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 38 ayes to 12 noes, with Representatives Matayoshi and Matsumoto voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Eli, Gates, Har, Kitagawa, Kong, LoPresti, McDermott, McKelvey, Okimoto, Takumi, Tokioka, and Ward voting no.

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 2213, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just with reservations. I support the idea behind this bill, but, as I've noted before, the title, Relating to Mail Theft, the contents of the bill have to do with FedEx and UPS packages property and not with mail or mail service. And so, I think this could present a constitutional issue down the road. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2213, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MAIL THEFT," passed Third Reading by a vote of 47 ayes to 3 noes, with Representative McKelvey voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives Har, Kapela, and Tokioka voting no.

H.B. No. 2024, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 2024, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Tarnas rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this measure. With your direction, this House took on a job that nobody else was willing to do. But we needed to do it, and that was to evaluate an alternative management framework for Mauna Kea. If people had listened to the University of Hawaii's presentation to the Land Board when they were requesting their new lease, they did evaluate several different possible futures. And when they came to this particular one, which is a management framework without the UH, they said, we really aren't going to evaluate this, we'll leave this to somebody else to do. Well, with your leadership, this House did exactly that.

"I recognize this is a challenging bill. And this is my district, I have constituents who support astronomy on Mauna Kea and constituents who say Native Hawaiians need a greater voice in the governance of Mauna Kea. My goal in taking part in this whole process was to achieve both of those. I recognize the paramount importance of Mauna Kea and the very serious responsibility that we have to manage this public trust resource. There is very strong opinions on all sides of this. And this debate is not over as to what is the best management framework for Mauna Kea.

"Through this bill, I'm seeking a path forward that provides for a substantive role for Native Hawaiians in decision making about the management of Mauna Kea and a stable future for astronomy on Mauna Kea. I hear from opponents of the bill that the future of astronomy is endangered with this bill. I respond by saying that this new management authority will need to decide about future leases for the existing observatories and for any new observatory that is proposed for the mauna. These decisions must be made after careful review of the proposed facility, close consultation with all stakeholders, evaluation of the environmental impact, and the determination of just and fair compensation that is to be paid for the privilege of building and operating a facility on Mauna Kea.

"The directive to the authority to prepare a plan to return the summit to its natural state is justified as an alternative option when evaluating the continued use of the existing observatories or the construction of any new observatory. The bill was amended to say that this plan to return the summit to its natural state should be prepared at the time that the ground-based observatories are considered obsolete because of space-based technology.

"Personally, I hope that the observatories will be allowed to continue to operate on Mauna Kea for many, many years to come and continue the great discoveries that they are providing to all of us on Earth. I don't expect that space-based telescopes will replace ground-based telescopes anytime soon. But this decision that we are talking about really needs to be made by the authority, not by the Legislature. And this authority is to have a greater, more substantive involvement of Native Hawaiians in the decision making on the mauna.

"We made significant improvements to the bill. It still needs more work. This reason I want to continue the discussion on the bill, send it to the Senate, I urge the Senate to work with this bill and improve it, send it back to the House so we can conference on it and find a path forward that is best for the mauna and for Hawaii. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Nakashima rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I rise in strong support of HB 2024, Relating to Mauna Kea. Last year, this body adopted House Resolution 33, House Draft 1, establishing the Mauna Kea Working Group to develop recommendations for a new governance and management structure for Mauna Kea that collaboratively engaged all stakeholders, particularly the Native Hawaiian community.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for giving me, representative for Mauna Kea, the honor and privilege of serving as the chair of this critical working group. The working group developed a report of its recommendations and it was presented to you in January. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for giving me and the working group this opportunity to chart a new course for the mauna. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2024 reflects the Mauna Kea Working Group's vision for a new future for Mauna a Wākea. It reflects a shared hope and dream for a better future for the mauna that includes astronomy and reflects our Native Hawaiian values. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2024 shows that we can do better for Hawaii and care for our environment and our mauna.

"In closing, Mr. Speaker, I would like to acknowledge the members of the working group. We dedicated six months to support this assignment and share information, learn together, and more importantly, shared our respect and aloha for Mauna a Wākea. There were several members in the audience earlier today, and I would like to ask that we include the list of the community members of the working group in my text. Thank you."

The members of the Mauna Kea Working Group are as follows:

Representative Mark Nakashima, Chair, House of Representatives;
Representative Ty J.K. Cullen, House of Representatives;
Representative Stacelynn K.M. Eli, House of Representatives;
Representative David A. Tarnas, House of Representatives;
Ms. Jocelyn Leialoha M. Doane, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Dr. Lui Hokoana, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Dr. Bonnie Irwin, Chancellor, University of Hawai'i at Hilo;
Dr. Pualani Kanaka'ole Kanahele, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Mr. Joshua Lanakila Mangauli, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Mr. Robert K. Masuda, First Deputy, Board of Land and Natural Resources;
Mr. Rich Matsuda, Interim Chief of Operations, W.M. Keck Observatory;
Ms. Brialyn Onodera, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Mr. Shane Palacat-Nelsen, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Mr. Sterling Wong, Office of Hawaiian Affairs;
Dr. Noe Noe Wong-Wilson, Native Hawaiian Community Representative;
Mr. Wayne Tanaka, Office of Hawaiian Affairs; and
Dr. Sylvia Hussey, Office of Hawaiian Affairs.

Representative Holt rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations. I previously voted no on this measure, and my opposition to this measure was never about the contents and the work that has been done by the working group. I appreciate the chair, I appreciate all the members who have taken the time over the months and many, many, numerous meetings to get to where we are today.

"I still have the same concerns, the strong concerns that a lot of members expressed when we did that decision making for the one hearing we had. I wish that we had more than one hearing in the House. I wish that we had, you hear the voices, they're here, it's loud. They need a venue to speak their truths. By us putting it one day on a Saturday, I don't feel like that was the best way to go about it.

"But Mr. Speaker, this measure is of such importance, I will not let the mechanics of it be the reason I vote no. Last Friday, we had our last talk story with the Hawaiian Caucus with Auntie Noe Noe Wong-Wilson, Auntie Pua Kanahele, and Mahina Paishon-Duarte, who are all participants of the working group. The discussion that we had put to rest a lot of the fears and concerns which brought about my previous no vote.

"Mr. Speaker, when I initially heard about the privacy agreement and saw the meeting minutes that came out of the working group, I had major concerns. This is not how we do any other working groups, why are there special conditions for us? But what I learned through the discussions was that although there was a little bit of a slow start to get to know each other and build the respect level, that there were a lot of very respectful and productive conversations which produced this product, what you have today.

"Mr. Speaker, we as a government have a long way to build back the trust of the Hawaiian community and the community in general. But to me, this could be a first step, but only the first step. Whether we pass this bill or not this year, this working group needs to continue with broader support from the public, hopefully including the other house. And we need to continue these conversations and we need to build upon what has been worked on over these last few months.

"But in our discussion, we learned that these meetings only started in September, and we're in March now. It's not even one year. We can't stand here and say that we're going to put to rest decades-long issues in six months. So, although I do appreciate and thank everybody for all the work that's done, I look forward to the long process going forward and continuing to work on this issue. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too stand with reservations on the measure. I would first like to adopt the words of the previous speaker as if they were my own, because it really hits the nail on the head, my concerns going along," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative McKelvey continued, stating:

"In committee, I said this bill represents the good, the bad, and the ugly. The good were some of the amendments that were made in response to public testimony, like for instance, removing the old abandoned not used telescopes that are up there anymore.

"When I was your Economic Development chair, I went up there with some professors who lamented the fact that you have students who could benefit from the use of telescope time, Native Hawaiian students. And telescope time, Mr. Speaker, is like pilot hours for pilots. It's what gives kids who want to be in the astronomy field a chance to up their credentials to stand out from other programs. And here they were, like you once mentioned, like the thing out of Star Wars with the eye coming out of it, this rusty shuddered telescope just sitting there. And also reexamining the issue of commercial activity, as was stated by the speaker from Kihei back in the committee hearing as well.

"Unfortunately, though, there are some bad things, and one is that this is an authority, an absolute authority, one that will last. This bill is envisioned, and the commission is envisioned to last in perpetuity. Twenty, thirty, forty years, what happens in that time if they make decisions in that group that run counter to the community, to Native Hawaiians everywhere? I mean, this is something that needs to be examined.

"But I think the one thing about it, though, is I've heard over and over again in talking to many people on the sides of the issue, and that is this. The present situation is untenable. To do nothing, to have no conversation whatsoever basically kicks the can down the road. And I think that's one thing. And speaking to one person of the bill, I said, if you were a representative, how would you go on this thing if you were in my shoes? And they said, we would support it with reservations to signify the amount of work that needs to be done. But the work cannot continue, the conversation can't continue unless there is a way to continue it. And so, I just want to echo my reservations on the measure today. Thank you."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate this measure's efforts to address the longstanding criticism of the University of Hawaii's mismanagement of the mauna. I agree with those criticisms and the fact that we must remove UH as the manager of Mauna Kea. As a Native Hawaiian woman though, I want to state that this measure must not enable a process that leads to the construction of TMT on Mauna Kea. This is not just about a telescope or the role of astronomy in Hawaii. It's about the ongoing displacement of Hawaiian people within our own homeland.

"We are taking steps this year to rectify some of the problems facing Native Hawaiian people, including appropriating $600 million for Hawaiian Home Lands. That is a generational investment in the well-being of Hawaii's native people. We should sustain our focus on undoing the legacy of colonialism and historical trauma that continues to harm the Native Hawaiian community. We should rededicate ourselves to restoring Hawaiian stewardship of our āina. It is, after all, our land, Hawaiian's land, that was stolen, colonized, and corporatized. To repair those historical injustices, we should uplift Hawaiian's rights to self-determination, especially when it comes to the fate of our most sacred spaces.

"I am glad that we are finally addressing the mismanagement of Mauna Kea, which has been detailed by Hawaiian cultural practitioners and our state auditor for over a decade. Let's use this as an opportunity to rebuild the public trust for our islands, for native people, and not just another telescope on sacred ground. Thank you."

Representative Takumi rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. With reservations and hopes for an inclusive process for this very important work. I was very encouraged after the Hawaiian Caucus meeting we had the other day, that the folks that have worked on this have been extremely comprehensive, extremely cooperative, and extremely collaborative. And I look forward to this being a healing and inclusive result. Thank you."

Representative Kitagawa rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Perruso rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Kapela be entered into the Journal as her own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, no vote with reservations. And I know there is not a category no with reservations. But there is something good in the bill, it's better than nothing. But there is something better than nothing that I think we can do and that we should still be working on. My problem is that there's too much virtue signaling of what we've done and what we can do. My sense is, eventually this is just going to kick the can down the mountain and this stuff is going to rise up again and hit us in the face. For those reasons, Mr. Speaker, no vote with some virtue and with reservations. Thank you."

Representative Okimoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Quinlan rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representatives McKelvey and Holt be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Matsumoto rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Gates rose in support of the measure with reservations and asked that the remarks of Representative Holt be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations, stating:

"With reservations and may I adopt the words of the Representative from Kamuela as if they're my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Branco continued, stating:

"And a brief comment as well. The Mauna a Wākea stewardship authority legislation will establish a new paradigm for managing and caring for our wahi pana, significant cultural, historic, and ecological important places in Hawaii based on Hawaiian culture, values, and principles. Also important is the need for the Native Hawaiian and community participation in the formation and ongoing oversight of these entities and these special places.

"This is one of the reasons I vote WR, is I believe that the astronomical community should have a seat at the table. But more importantly, this hard conversation happened, and this is a move forward. And only with hard conversations can we get to a consensus. And I believe that we have gotten there, but we still need one more voice at the table. But also, what's most important is to note that this is equity for Native Hawaiians. And with the working group that is proposed, Native Hawaiians will have a significant amount of equity at the table. Mahalo."

Representative Ward rose in opposition to the measure and asked that the remarks of Representative Holt be entered into the Journal as his own, and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2024, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MAUNA KEA," passed Third Reading by a vote of 45 ayes to 5 noes, with Representatives Branco, Gates, Holt, Kapela, Kitagawa, Matsumoto, McKelvey, Okimoto, Perruso, Quinlan, Takumi, and Wildberger voting aye with reservations, and with Representatives B. Kobayashi, D. Kobayashi, LoPresti, Lowen, and Ward voting no.

At 12:41 p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1597, HD 1

END OF CALENDAR

THIRD READING

H.B. No. 2464, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 2464, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Nakashima moved that H.B. No. 2464, HD 1 be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, seconded by Representative Belatti.

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, would it be possible to hear some rationale why it's being recommitment? Just as a rationale for the recommitment just as a query, point of information."

Representative Belatti rose to speak in support of the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support of the motion for recommitment. This measure is addressing a very critical and important issue in our community, but it needs more time for discussion and further development in the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Okimoto rose to speak in opposition to the motion to recommit, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to the recommitment. Mr. Speaker, our America's founders considered self-preservation to be a fundamental natural right of all people, so much so that they codified this in the Second Amendment. Recommitting this bill feeds into the idea that citizens must seek permission to exercise their fundamental right to self-preservation. Therefore, I urge this body to send this piece of legislation to the Senate, Mr. Speaker. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward rose, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. Is this a recommittal time certain or a recommittal that goes forever and ever?"

The Chair then stated:

"The latter, this is a permanent recommittal."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 2464, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO USE OF FORCE IN SELF-PROTECTION," was recommended to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, with Representatives Okimoto and Tokioka voting no, and with Representative Holt being excused.

ADJOURNMENT

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

Monday, March 14, 2022

The House of Representatives of the Thirty-First Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2022, convened at 12:02 p.m., with Vice Speaker Mizuno presiding.

The invocation was delivered by Representative Angus L.K. McKelvey, after which the Roll was called showing all members present, with Representative Ichiyama participating remotely via videoconference, and with the exception of Representative Kitagawa, who was excused.

By unanimous consent, reading and approval of the Journal of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Eighth Day was deferred.

INTRODUCTIONS

The following introductions were made to the members of the House:

Representative McKelvey introduced his nephew visiting from North Carolina, James Nicklaus Dockins; his wife, Valerie McKelvey; and his office manager, Wendee Wilson.

Representative Ward introduced House staff and newlyweds, Jay Payne and Tiana Elisara-Payne.

ORDER OF THE DAY

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Representative Luke, for the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1027-22) recommending that H.B. No. 1600, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committee be adopted, and that H.B. No. 1600, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"In support with a very brief comment. Because before third reading, I hope it can change one thing and there's one thing missing, otherwise it's a great bill. What's missing is the founding of the first pharmaceutical industry in the State of Hawaii to prevent COVID because of the tests. And I've spoken, I know you guys don't want to hear, but you have to hear it. Spit in a cup, $20, 10 minutes, and COVID is over. That's Oceanit, Patrick Sullivan. It should be in the budget. He needs a small amount to form the first pharmaceutical industry in the State of Hawaii. I can't say it loud and strong enough. But we've got a $16 billion budget and if we can't give some chump change to start the prevention of COVID for the future of the State of Hawaii, for the people of Hawaii, we are conspicuously absent. For those things, Mr. Speaker, I'll save the $600 million for the Hawaiians for the third reading. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committee was adopted and H.B. No. 1600, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," passed Second Reading and was placed on the calendar for Third Reading, with Representative Kitagawa being excused.

Representatives Tamas and Hashem, for the Committee on Water & Land and the Committee on Agriculture, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1028-22) recommending that H.C.R. No. 17 be referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs.

On motion by Representative Belatti, seconded by Representative Morikawa and carried, the report of the Committees was adopted and H.C.R. No. 17, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO CONVENE A TASK FORCE TO DEVELOP A FERAL UNGULATE MANAGEMENT PLAN FOR WEST HAWAII," was referred to the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, with Representative Kitagawa being excused.

Representative Woodson: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today is the first day of the 2022 Education Week. Education Week is an annual tradition here at the Hawaii State Capitol where the chairs of the Senate and House Committees on Education collaborate to recognize our selfless and hardworking students, educators, staff, and schools. In observance of the COVID-19 pandemic and health and safety guidelines, we are unfortunately unable to recognize our honorees here in person at the Capitol, as we typically would during this week. Instead, we have worked with Senator Kidani's office to make sure that we have drafted certificates and mailed them to each and every one of our honorees.

"Mahalo to all the representatives that have collaborated with my office to honor these remarkable individuals in their particular districts. There is a pamphlet on your desk with all of our outstanding awardees who have put in the hard work and dedication to get them to where they are today. They have gone above and beyond what is expected to positively impact our schools, our communities, and our society. The work that they have done paves the path to a better tomorrow. I, along with the Hawaii State House of Representatives, express our deepest, deepest gratitude to them all. Thank you and aloha."

H.B. No. 1600, HD 1:

Representative Belatti moved that H.B. No. 1600, HD 1 pass Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Luke rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise to speak in favor of House Bill 1600, House Draft 1, this is the budget for the executive branch. But before we begin, let me first thank the committee and the chairs. The last two years have been really difficult, and I know the chairs struggle, alongside with every member of the House, as we looked at some of the devastating cuts. And we just wanted to thank all the chairs for their patience and working with the Finance Committee and our staff to craft the budget that we have today. I know it's been challenging, and we're just thankful that we are here today to address all the needed programs within the State of Hawaii. So, I just wanted to send my deepest appreciation to all the chairs and the committees for their hard work.

"I also wanted to send a special thanks to the Vice Chair. He has not just taken the role of the vice chair, but he has also done CIP for the State and for the House as well. So, my deepest appreciation to my friend from Makawao for stepping up and filling this really difficult role. One of the first things he said to me was, oh this kind of not easy, eh? So, I know he has a deeper appreciation for what we do as well, but I really appreciate him, and I see the diligence and the hard work that he puts in. So, my deepest appreciation to the Vice Chair.

"And, of course, everything that we do and even in our in our offices, we can't do our work, whether it's House majority or House minority or even the running of session through Clerk's and Sergeant-at-Arms, we can't do our job the way that we can without our staff. So, I would like to introduce my staff. First up, of course, we have Nan Kalupahana, who doesn't sit with his colleagues but sits behind me just to make sure that I don't make mistakes, and watching, make sure that I say everything correctly. But, Nandana Kalupahana, I couldn't do my job if it wasn't for Nan. So, if you can give a big round of applause to Nan.

"And my office manager is here, when I call your names, if you could stand up very quickly. My office manager is Rachele Lamosao. And members, you can hold your applause until I'm done. So, in the front staff we also have Edwin 'Maka' Ayers and Devan 'Kahale' Ibuos. And under the research staff, it's headed by Randall Hiyoto, and you guys just remain standing, and then his right hand is Stacey Tagala. And under the research section we have Jackie Araki, Anita Hsiung, Joy Nakashima, and Cindy Ng. Under the budget section, we have the budget chief who is Riley Fujisaki, he also stepped up in this role really quickly. Missing is Julie Yang, the supervisor. And with him will be Aldric Ulep, Jon Kawamura, and our session staff Casey Nakamura, who is none other than the daughter of Representative Nakamura, Jared Kimura, and Megan Reish. And so, if the members could help me in congratulating and thanking the Finance staff. Thank you very much.

"Mr. Speaker, this budget includes $8.5 billion in general funds and $16.6 billion in all means of financing. As I stated earlier, to state that the last two years have been difficult would be an understatement. The State faced a budget deficit nearing $3 billion just a few years ago. But thanks to the federal relief funds and the Legislature's commitment to build up the rainy day fund, we were able to salvage many of the critical social safety net programs which were planned for a significant reduction."

Representative Tarnas rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke continued, stating:

"Thank you very much, Representative. This year, we're seeing a completely different budget scenario. After the governor submitted his budget to the Legislature, the Council on Revenues upgraded its revenue projections twice. What we have today is an unprecedented opportunity to address many unmet needs within the state with strategic and forward-thinking approach.

"I want to begin by talking about our obligation to our Native Hawaiian population and honoring our Hawaiian culture and heritage. As we announced at the beginning of this session, I'm proud that this legislature is making a significant commitment to address the long-awaited individuals on the DHHL waitlist. Although that is not incorporated within this budget, the money commitment is a part of the overall financial plan.

"In addition to the $600 million set aside by the Legislature, this budget, thanks to the CIP Chair, also includes $41.5 million to build an affordable rental project for DHHL beneficiaries. In addition to that, $30 million for lot development and $5 million for repair and maintenance. Together, this is the largest single appropriation made in one year. At the same time, we cannot forget the needs of the homestead communities. That is why this budget also includes $10 million for homestead services.

"The resurgence of Native Hawaiian language has to be supported. ʻŌlelo Hawaii is an official language in the State of Hawaii, and we should encourage parents who want their keiki to be educated through Hawaiian immersion programs. That education actually starts at the preschool level. That is why this budget includes $2.8 million, including 14 positions under the Imi Loa program at the University of Hawaii, Hilo, to begin a teaching pathway for emergent preschool programs.

"Mr. Speaker, it is our responsibility to preserve and protect our natural resources and provide the means to manage our state lands. Kahoolawe Island Reserve has made tremendous strides toward restoration of the land and cultivation of Hawaiian culture on Kahoolawe. This budget provides additional positions and $500,000 to support their good work.

"At the Legislature, we have the benefit of sharing ideas and expanding on the successes within our state. Building on the good work of the Hanalei community and the Hanalei Representative to re-envision Haena park, this budget provides $16 million ceiling and $1.2 million to fund 28 positions at the state parks to address destination management and for upkeep of state parks.

"Also part of our mission is to protect our natural resources in controlling invasive species. Time and time again, we hear new species coming onto our shores and damaging some of our natural areas. I'm proud that the House has continuously demonstrated our commitment to aggressively tackle state's invasive species program problem. That's why this budget includes multiple areas that we're planning to tackle. Let me spell out a few of them. Four hundred twenty-five thousand dollars to fight invasive pest species such as the coffee berry borer beetle, which has been something that, especially the Kona representatives, had fought really strongly for; spittle bug problem; and now, the Japanese beetle. These all impact the state's coffee and ranching industries, and they need our support.

"This budget also provides $900,000 to address the increasing axis deer population. And it's a huge problem, especially on the neighbor islands. Albizia trees have continued to be a problem, so this provides $645,000 to clear albizia trees surrounding the State Veterans Cemetery, and I want to thank especially the Hilo representatives who have fought really hard for the clearing of albizia. This also provides $1.7 million for Rapid 'Ōhia Death Response. This was not included in the governor's budget, but because the House has been really aggressive on this front, I wanted to thank the members for again fighting for 'ōhia death response."

Representative Morikawa rose to yield her time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke continued, stating:

"And because we're constantly trying to tackle problems after the invasive species are here, we will be providing an additional $1.5 million to fund Hawaii Invasive Species Council so that they can be ready when the next invasive species come ashore.

"Mr. Speaker, what is special about Hawaii is its people. We have a duty to care for the most vulnerable. This budget makes significant investments to individuals in need. But I want to highlight just a few of them. Just in the recent years, and time after time we hear horrific accounts of failures within our state to care for children under the state's jurisdiction. This budget provides $2.9 million in new money and to establish 48 new positions, along with extensive training for personnel and IT improvements at the Child Welfare Services Program. And thanks to many of the efforts, especially the Waimanalo Representative and the Leeward Representative, for making this a priority. I fear that this may not be enough because it's not really about funding. But I think we have to do better. And the Finance Committee members will continue to work with our subject matter chairs, Health and Human Services Chairs, to do what is necessary in the best interests of the child.

"The Office of Long-Term Care Ombudsman ensures that our kūpuna are safe and getting the care they deserve. However, relying on volunteers with limited resources deprives the agencies of fulfilling that mandate. This budget provides $276,000 for five new program specialists to make sure that every island is staffed correctly.

"Criminal justice reform continues to be a priority for the House, and thanks to the CMV Chair and Vice Chair for continuing on this fight. And I think we are proud to say that the Finance Committee, along with the House, did not fund the $15 million request for the construction of the new OCCC. And thank you for all your efforts in making sure that this was heard loud and clear by the committee members.

"Rather, our focus was on reentry. The recidivism rate among incarcerated women is 50%. Out of 200 incarcerated women, for 100 women to continue to go through our jail system is not a good response. In order to reverse that trend, this budget invests $5 million for reentry program and support services at the Women's Community Corrections Center's Intake Center. We are hopeful that this will reverse the trend and provide the support services as they come out of prison. And we want to especially thank the Women's Caucus for leading the effort and especially the only member who was on Zoom today, thanks to her efforts and the Women's Caucus, Majority Leader, and all the members of the Women's Caucus for fighting for justice for the incarcerated women population. So, my heart goes out to all of you folks.

"Substantial amounts of federal relief funds were used to stabilize both the Department of Education and the University of Hawaii budgets last year. This budget goes beyond just restoring federal ARPA and ESSER funds with general funds. For DOE, to name a few, this budget provides $32.5 million to address shortage differentials to retain and recruit teachers for special education, Hawaiian language immersion, and the hard-to-fill locations. This also provides $1.1 million for classroom supplies, instructional materials, and technology to provide equity of access to students. It also provides over $1 million for 17 positions to make the pilot Special Education Teacher Mentoring Program permanent. In addition, $500,000 for commercial enterprises to allow high school students to expand and invest in their commercial enterprises, $2.4 million for 18 positions to establish a new nursing section for the DOE, $6.3 million to furnish equipment to equip new classroom and school buildings across the state. These are some of the few things that we're putting into the DOE."

Representative Branco rose to yield his time, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Luke continued, stating:

"Thank you very much. In addition to that, for the University of Hawaii, this budget provides $4.8 million for the expansion of Community College Promise Program. This will serve an additional 2,164 students. This budget also expands the Promise Program to the four-year colleges, including UH Manoa, UH Hilo, and West Oahu, $19.3 million will serve an additional 4,882 students. And I think this House will commit that this is to ensure that money is not going to be a barrier to higher education, and I wanted to thank the House members for their support. In addition, this budget made significant investments toward Title IX programs and JABSOM's graduate residency programs for neighbor islands.

"Lastly, one item to note is the $33 million for broadband expansion, which will be used to match over $200 million in federal funds for broadband. This is an example of how this budget sets the framework for the future. We have a lot of work to do, but I'm glad to be a part of this body to do that work together. I humbly present this budget for your consideration and support. Mahalo."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise in support of this budget, it's a good budget, and I agree with just about everything the Chair of Finance has said, except for a couple of things and particularly for two things that are missing. The first thing that I said was conspicuously absent was in my second reading speech which says, we should have our own pharmaceutical industry. Oceanit, spit in a cup, 20 bucks, 10 minutes, we need to promote as much as we can to keep our people safe. Which is related to the second thing that's missing.

"Mr. Speaker, half of the kids that are in public school are low income. If we are in charge, as the managers of the governing body which has an effect on the economy, if half of our citizens are low economic, on the low-income level, we're not doing our job. So, it's a great budget, but if we still have half of our kids, half our families that are low income, all of you know the ALICE study that says 48% are one paycheck away from homelessness, that is totally unacceptable. If we're responsible, we need to do a better job.

"Now to the good part of the budget, $600 million for the Hawaiian Homes Commission. That is historical. It's inspiring. It offers hope to a community that's been waiting 100 years and has 28,000 people on the waitlist. Mr. Speaker, not because the money is going to go a long way, if you actually look at the numbers when you look at infrastructure and probably the house running 250, maybe infrastructure running $100,000. It's going to probably make maybe 1,200 houses or 1,200 people off the waitlist, which is 2,800. Which means if we do this every year for the next two sessions, we're going to be able to take the waitlist down to zero. Not rocket science, but it's leverageable.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, we've got to do for the Hawaiian community, which we promised long, long, long time ago. And as you know, when you're at the bottom of the socioeconomic ladder, highest incarcerated, highest incidence of diabetes, least in homeownership, educational achievement, this bill means an awful lot. I hope DHHL can deliver it, they can put the houses in the place that they're supposed to be. And Mr. Speaker, that this body not weary in its well doing, that we continue to support what, as the Chair said, this is a historical moment for the Hawaiian community to have so much money so quickly. But still, we've got a long ways to go, Mr. Speaker.

"So, thank you for this, for the Speaker, for the Vice Speaker, and for the Finance Committee for the progress that we've made. And hopefully the progress will make an economic development in the near future. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.B. No. 1600, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," passed Third Reading by a vote of 51 ayes.

At 12:35 p.m., the Chair noted that the following bill passed Third Reading:

H.B. No. 1600, HD 1

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Tokioka: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On behalf of the Kauai delegation, I'd like to announce, and I'm sure most of us saw this morning, that the John A. Burns School of Medicine announced that Dr. Priscilla Chan and Mark Zuckerberg gifted a $10 million, six-year commitment that directly assists Kauai's physician shortage. Kauai's medical training track is one of the multi-pronged programs that the funding will go to and be directed at. Through the Kauai medical training track, six medical students from JABSOM will be accepted into this program annually beginning this summer, July 2022. The program will fund tuition fees for all four years and will also fund transportation and lodging. The students will have to have ties from Kauai or any neighbor island.

"This is an incredible, incredible grant. I know the chairs of Health and Education appreciate this grant as well. I also found out that the Kauai health indicators note that Kauai alone has more uninsured people, more strokes, and more hypertension, and more adults with cancer than the rest of the State of Hawaii. I just got this information today, and that's astounding. We also know that education is the equalizer for local students, and this gift is going to make a big, big difference in the community that these kids come from and will hopefully stay and live on Kauai and work on Kauai.

"And speaking to Dr. Jerris Hedges, the dean of the medical school, and I completely agree with him when he explains, to address Kauai's physician shortage we need more medical students from Kauai, and we must expand our medical training on Kauai. So, in closing, once again, on behalf of the Kauai delegation, we just want to thank Dr. Priscilla Chan, Mark Zuckerberg, and his entire team for this generous, generous gift. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for this opportunity to say that publicly."

"Mr. Speaker, I'm going to be voting no on this. I am concerned about the purpose of this measure, and I think that it is in conflict with earlier legislation that we passed. So, when we move to make the Board of Education an appointed body, we did so with the idea in mind that the governor could be held and should be held responsible for the actions of the board. So, if we move this measure, it actually conflicts with that intention, because then the new chair of the Board of Education could be elected by people who had been appointed by a previous governor, because they have overlapping terms. So, I just wanted to point that out to the body and maybe I am in need of more clarification, but that's my sense of the issue right now."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Quinlan, for the Committee on Economic Development, requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement for the purpose of hearing the following measure on Friday, March 18, 2022, at 10:30 a.m. in Conference Room 312, and the Chair "so ordered."

S.B. No. 3143, Relating to Conformity to the Internal Revenue Code.

Representative Quinlan: "So, today is St. Patrick's Day. And about 200 years ago, my ancestors got on a ship, they left Ireland, and they travelled across the world to Australia. Please don't ask me why they were on the ship, we don't have to speculate about that. But even though it has been literally centuries since my family has lived in Ireland, we're still very proud of our culture, our heritage, and our lineage. So, to that effect, I'd like to invite all the members who wish to attend to come up to the Rotunda and take a picture with me and the Irish flag, which we will be transmitting to the Irish Senate. And afterwards, there will be Shepherd's pie and refreshments in my office, and I don't know what my room number is. Oh yeah, and I forgot to wear green, so sorry about that too. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey, for the Committee on Government Reform, requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement for the purpose of reconsideration of prior decision making on the following measure on Friday, March 18, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. in Conference Room 309, and the Chair "so ordered."

S.B. No. 3373, SD 2, Relating to Public Procurement.

Representative McKelvey: "Also, around the same time, my ancestors too left Ireland and headed to Australia and were probably on the same ship. So, I'm sure we have plenty of tales to tell, don't we lad?"

Representative Belatti: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Just two quick announcements. First, to the Representative from the North Shore, I just want to thank him for his graciousness and for his beautiful pins that he's gifted to members. As well as, just to note, that his name, on a quick search means, Quinlan means descendent of a handsome man. So, that's my first announcement.

"Second announcement, members, I just wanted to note, as we were proceeding through this hearing, this was the first time in perhaps two years when all 51 members of the House were present. So, it does mark a very important day. And it is, as the person who provided the invocation did, a very special privilege to be in this House every day. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"The Chair would like to remind members of today's triple referral filing deadline. For any bills moving from their first committee to their second committee in a triple referral, you must file the committee reports with the Chief Clerk's Office by 7:00 p.m. this evening. Please allow yourselves and your staff sufficient time to file your reports before the deadline."

Representative Ganaden rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Strong support. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides education, and more than that, a plan for women who are reentering society after serving their time in incarceration. Many of us on the CMV Committee were shocked by how unprepared many of these individuals leave incarceration without plans. They are released back into society with very little skills or capacity, despite years of incarceration and missed opportunities.

"We were also surprised this year by the lobbying efforts of the Women's Prison Project, a coalition that spans multiple sectors and is across party lines. I was pleasantly surprised in how much I agreed with former Republican Governor Linda Lingle that we need to effectuate significant criminal justice change here and across America. Just years ago, versions of the corrections committee was all about enhancing sentencing. Now, the conversation has changed to reduce incarceration, to rehabilitate community members, and to support victims.

"If we pass this and the other measures that are before us, about half a dozen of them, we will be making a significant change here in the State of Hawaii. We are all very close to the justice system. Addiction, poor decisions can affect all of us or all of our families. This measure shows our shared humanity across multiple sectors, across party lines. Thank you so much. I think that we should pass it and pass the other bills that are associated with it for future generations. Thank you so much."

"Mr. Speaker, with reservations, a very brief comment. Mr. Speaker, the issue of exempting people from public bidding, particularly parking lots, seems to be probably a not very good excuse to do this. And this says that if you have a parking lot at the airport or at the beach fronts or wherever the areas that are not manned by our employees, should be exempt. I think that's going a little bit too far. I know they need the money, but the way that they're going about this really suggests too much leeway for an exemption. To have an exemption, you should have a higher level and a higher standard than what this bill says. Thank you."
