And if you know the footprint of Hawaii in terms of the global warming, we are minuscule of a minuscule, lower than I think one of the representatives who used to own a flower shop said, is the rise of the sea in Waikiki.

"The point is, Mr. Speaker, we are going from one, getting rid of plastics, getting rid of plastic reinforced food cups for luaus, to now for those boxes that most of us now shop with on Amazon. Mr. Speaker, who knows, if we continue in this direction, pretty soon we will allow three wipes of toilet paper for each person otherwise we're going to fine them for what they're doing in their own houses with their toilet paper. I find this really anti-business, it's something that is not worthy of this office. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, please note my reservations and brief comments please, Mr. Speaker. I want to be very clear, I do support the intent of this bill and I want to thank the Chair of Agriculture for introducing it. What had happened though, and I apologize, please give me some deference from my neighbor island colleagues, this is an Oahu issue. The City and County is under a mandate to close down Waimanalo Gulch. And what had happened in previous sessions is we had passed a buffer zone bill which prohibited the city from siting a new landfill within a certain amount of feet from residential areas. What ended up happening was then because of the buffer zone that we created, now the City and County is only able to site a new waste disposal area facility on agricultural lands. So, in the Committee on Consumer Protection, the City and County basically testified that if this bill were to pass, they would have nowhere else to site a new landfill on Oahu. And my concern is that now Waimanalo Gulch will not be shut down, the lease will be extended because the Legislature will not allow us to have any place where the City and County can site a new landfill. So, for those reasons, I'm with reservations. Thank you."

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In support. I'd like to thank the committee chairs for moving this bill forward from last year, it means a lot to the service members' families who will be affected by this bill if we're to pass it. I know there's been some discussion about whether or not it's necessary because there's already federal tuition support for dependents of deceased veterans. And basically, the main goal of this bill is to broaden the scope so that dependents of combat related, 100% totally disabled veterans and Purple Heart recipients can qualify. And there is a robust residency requirement for this, and I think it's at least five years, forgive me for not having that detail. This bill was modeled after a program at Oregon State University. One in four respiratory claims are for a sleeping disorder. And so, I totally support the intent of it. But if you suddenly develop a sleeping disorder, now your kids get to go to college for free. And that's not what we're trying to do with this bill, I'm sure. Thank you."

"I have always supported the military but as a representative who has introduced bills for tuition waivers at community colleges and as a Native Hawaiian who has always advocated for educational waivers for Hawaiians, I think we should start there first."

Representative Lowen rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Probably not my job to do this, but I did pull up the bill, which is pretty easy to do. In support. And it does clarify that the disabilities are caused by military service and also that these tuition benefits would apply to people who have been domiciled in the state for at least five years. So, those concerns that have been raised are actually addressed in the bill already."

Representative Kapela rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in opposition and with a brief comment. This measure is a SPRB for a waste to energy plant. A waste to energy plant is a waste management facility that combusts waste, or burns it, to produce electricity. This type of power plant is sometimes called a trash to energy municipal waste incineration energy recovery or resource recovery plant. Waste to energy is often described as a good way to extract energy from resources, but in fact, it works against the circular economy, producing toxic waste, air pollution, and contributing to climate change, all without delivering on what it promises.

"We have to oppose incineration of all kinds. Incineration is not considered acceptable because of its adverse environmental and health effects and the destruction of materials that can be conserved while saving energy through other management methods. Incineration is a form of destructive disposal, and no type of incineration, including waste to energy and plastic to fuel, mislabeled as chemical recycling, are considered recycling.

"Furthermore, such facilities tend to be sited in disadvantaged or oftentimes Native Hawaiian communities, thus raising environmental justice issues. We, as a legislature, have a commitment to having 100% renewable energy and being a clean economy by 2045. If we are going to meet those goals, then we cannot support any type of project like this. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representatives Tamas, Nakashima, and Luke, for the Committee on Water & Land, the Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs, and the Committee on Finance, presented a report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 919-22) recommending that H.B. No. 2024, as amended in HD 1, pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading.

Representative Belatti moved that the report of the Committees be adopted, and that H.B. No. 2024, HD 1 pass Second Reading and be placed on the calendar for Third Reading, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Ward rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, 919 is about the unsettled issue of Mauna Kea, the smoldering issue of Mauna Kea. In opposition, strongly in opposition. In the committee hearing, it was basically said, we can't have a win-win situation. And basically, what this bill does is kick the can down the mountain because nobody is satisfied on either side. And they said, well you can never have a bill that satisfies everybody. Well, if you talk long enough, you can have a bill that satisfies everybody. And all this is going to do is kind of put a blanket over of the side of the issue and then it's going to flare up again because people are not happy with what this bill has come up with.

"They say half a loaf is better than no loaf. But this is a half a loaf that's going to rot away and it's just going to kick the can down the mountain and we're going to come back again and again and again. Look what we've done for two years. We've sat on our hands about this issue. Mauna Kea is still a very important issue to the Hawaiian community, and all of those issues, and the scientific issues, have to be taken into consideration. So far, again, I repeat, we're kicking the can down the mountain and we're going to come back and it's going to bite us. Thank you."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Perruso rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for her, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Branco rose and asked that the Clerk record an aye vote with reservations for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"No vote please. I just wanted to make it a bit clear, my opposition is largely to do, well almost entirely, to do with the process not the intent. I support the intent, but not the process. Thank you."

Representative Holt rose and asked that the Clerk record a no vote for him, and the Chair "so ordered."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and the report of the Committees was adopted and H.B. ## INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution (H.R. No. 28) and concurrent resolution (H.C.R. No. 32) were announced by the Clerk and the following action taken:

H.R. No. 28, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION CONDEMNING RUSSIA'S ATTACK ON UKRAINE AND SUPPORTING SWIFT AND SEVERE ECONOMIC SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON RUSSIA," was jointly offered by Representatives Tam, Aquino, Belatti, Branco, Eli, Gates, Har, Hashimoto, Ichiyama, Ilagan, Kapela, Kitagawa, B. Kobayashi, LoPresti, Lowen, Marten, Matayoshi, Mizuno, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Perruso, Quinlan, Saiki, Sayama, Takayama, Tamas, Tokioka, Ward, Wildberger, Woodson, and Yamane; and

H.C.R. No. 32, entitled: "HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CONDEMNING RUSSIA'S ATTACK ON UKRAINE AND SUPPORTING SWIFT AND SEVERE ECONOMIC SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON RUSSIA," was jointly offered by Representatives Tam, Aquino, Belatti, Branco, Eli, Gates, Har, Hashimoto, Ichiyama, Ilagan, Kapela, Kitagawa, B. Kobayashi, LoPresti, Lowen, Marten, Matayoshi, Mizuno, Nakashima, Nishimoto, Ohno, Perruso, Quinlan, Saiki, Sayama, Takayama, Tamas, Tokioka, Ward, Wildberger, Woodson, and Yamane.

Representative Belatti moved that H.R. No. 28 and H.C.R. No. 32 be adopted, seconded by Representative Morikawa.

Representative Tam rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In support. Mr. Speaker, the resolution before us today calls on us to take a side. One side of war and aggression and the other side of peace and unity. I think it is very clear where we must stand, and that is why this resolution was brought forth today. This resolution is in no way targeted towards the Russian people. This resolution actually asks for the Russian government to release any Russian protesters that have been detained for exercising their right to speak.

"Although Hawaii may be a world away from this conflict, it is our moral obligation to stand with the Ukrainian people. And I want to thank you, Mr. Speaker, and this body for allowing the Chair of Culture, Arts, & International Affairs and I to introduce this resolution. Thank you."

Representative Quinlan rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In strong support, Mr. Speaker. Slava Ukraini."

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support, brief comment. Mr. Speaker, everything that President Zelenskyy said is true. The Ukrainians are resolute, they're strong, they're committed. And I have personal experience, having been at the Bush White House, working with Ukrainians on democracy and governance. I've jogged around the track in Kyiv. And everything that's going on points to either a withdrawal of the Russians or elongated urban warfare. It's unfortunate.

"So, this is a very timely piece of legislation. I commend the author for bringing it to us, for passing out sunflowers yesterday. And by the way, there's still some flags left in my office for those of you who want the Ukrainian flag. But the point is, it's very timely and it's very pointed to what otherwise we would think that people could get away in the 21st century with such behavior as this.

"And lastly, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the CEO of Par Pacific, who if you read the Civil Beat this morning, they said that they are suspending all petroleum oil and other products from Russia for our consumption. So, Mr. Speaker and colleagues, it looks like the price of gas will go up, but it's for a great cause for a great people. And as my colleague from the North Shore said, Slava Ukraini. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Gates rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. In strong support. May I have permission to insert the words of the Representative from Waikiki into the Journal as if they were my own. And I want to thank this House for standing with the people of Ukraine. As we know, it's a travesty what's going on there, humanitarian crisis. And even though it may not be so close to home, we know that it's affecting us across the board, whether it's through economy, through our gas prices, or just the hurt and pain that our residents are feeling for the people of Ukraine. Thank you, Mr. Speaker," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Branco rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"In strong support. Many of you know, I served as a U.S. diplomat prior, defending American values across in the most volatile regions across the world. Whether I was in Venezuela or whether I was in Colombia or Pakistan, there was always one pervasive factor working against our diplomatic efforts, and that was Russia.

"I experienced Russia's antagonistic influence directly when we received information, when I was in the Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan's Office, that Russia was paying bounties to the Taliban for the killing of American soldiers. And experienced it again while stationed in Venezuela and saw Russia's financial and military aid thwart a popular uprising that just barely failed to oust the brutal dictator Nicolas Maduro from power.

"The world is witnessing a new Russian-made crisis. Putin now intends to attempt to seize key population centers, decapitate Ukraine's government, and install his own handpicked regime in its place. Putin is attempting to upend the post-Cold War order and has plunged Europe into its gravest security crisis since World War II. For those of us living in Hawaii, it may be tempting to think, why should I care about a conflict happening almost 8,000 miles away, halfway around the world. Members, I'm telling you, it's imperative that we do.

"Ukraine is fighting to enjoy the same basic rights that Americans are promised at birth. Free speech, security in a democratic society, and equal protection under the law. Ukraine's courage to defend its democracy threatens despots like Putin. And if the United States does not respond vigorously to Russia's attack, it would only embolden other adversaries around the world to challenge the delicate global security order. Given Hawaii's strategic position in the Pacific, this would put our state at particular risk.

"While cyberattacks originating from Russia are a daily reality for American businesses and government agencies, the Department of Homeland Security has warned that we should be on heightened alert and be prepared for potentially crippling Russian cyberattacks. Everything from power grids to internet service and air travel. Hawaii is no stranger to these kinds of attacks. Just a couple of months ago, cyber attackers shut down three of Hawaii's government systems, and Hawaiian Electric reports they are attacked by hackers originating from Russia almost daily.

"This crisis is still developing, and the situation on the ground is going to change quickly. Russia's disinformation campaigns will go into overdrive, and it's more important than ever to only trust information that is verified and reported by trusted sources. Just as we are sending our prayers to the people of Ukraine, we must also send our prayers to the Russian people. Let's remember that this is not the Russian people's war, this is Putin's premeditated and unprovoked attack.

"While no one knows how this crisis will be resolved, it is important that we put our political differences aside and come together as Americans to stand for our values and our allies' struggles for freedom. The peace, safety, and livelihood of millions depend on it. Thank you."

Representative B. Kobayashi rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in support. I'd like to remind people that Hawaii has had Ukrainian immigrants from over 100 years ago. Before and after 1900, there were two groups of Ukrainians, one approximately 600 people, who came to work at the sugar plantations. In addition to those people who worked at the sugar plantations, there were individuals from Ukraine that came to Hawaii. One very notable family, the Lui-Kwan family from Hilo with 11 siblings, has a grandmother from Kyiv. So, the world is small. Thank you."

Representative Perruso rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I am in strong support of this resolution. And I just wanted to encourage this body at this moment to do the difficult work of critical self-reflection about American military intervention in other countries. And I look forward to similar kinds of opposition from this body to those kinds of interventions. Mahalo."

Representative D. Kobayashi rose to speak in opposition to both measures, stating:

"Speak in opposition. I've heard all the comments, valid comments from a lot of my colleagues on this issue, if you replaced in all of these comments the country of Russia with the United States, and Ukraine with any of these countries, Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, Yemen, Somalia, or Pakistan, you would also have valid statements. Our country, in an average year recently, has dropped 26,000 bombs on other countries of this planet. That's an average of 72 bombs a day, average of three bombs an hour.

"So, my criticism is not in saying what the Russian government is doing is improper, but I just have not seen similar resolutions condemning us for our military aggression as the United States, the country that Martin Luther King Jr. describes as the greatest purveyor of death and destruction and war in the history of the world. Thank you."

Representative Ward rose to respond, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, second time in support. First to request the remarks of the Representative from Kailua and Waikiki be entered into the Journal as my own," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

Representative Ward continued, stating:

"And then I would add, one of the implications that we've not spoke of, but I think the last two speakers are oblivious of the role of America in keeping the peace in the world, is that when Xi Jinping looks at Taiwan and sees what Putin did to Ukraine, this is going to come close to us. If Taiwan is attacked, Okinawa and a lot of the Pacific Islands are not going to be safe.

"This is real politics, this is not love America, hate America, this is about the reality of those guys who have got power and what they'll do with it. And remember, America, if we weren't in World War II, we would have land in Asia, we'd have land in Europe, if we were not the peacekeepers. So, we have a big role to play.

"Don't blame your government, blame people who are asleep in what the reality is of what Putin is going to do and what Xi Jinping, for the last 20 years, has also had his eyes on Taiwan the way Putin has had his eyes since 1991, when Ukraine became an independent country. So, let us wake up America, let us wake up Hawaii. Be attentive to our good brothers and sisters in Taiwan, maybe the next target. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative LoPresti rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In strong support. While this isn't the place to debate American foreign policy, I do reject the shocking, utterly shocking equivocation stated earlier by a couple of colleagues. But my main concern for history with this crisis is, I teach political science, among other things, and one of the things that my students and I discussed last week when this invasion began is the historical consequences for nuclear proliferation.

"In the 1990s, Ukraine gave up its nuclear weapons, in part to demonstrate that a smaller country doesn't need nuclear weapons to survive. And they gave them back up to Russia. And the idea was that the international community was going to stand by them and help protect them. And sadly, that has not come to pass. And also sadly and dangerously, the lesson to be taken by other smaller nations in the future is perhaps that they'll need to maintain their nuclear arsenal to prevent this sort of aggression in the future. And so even if, God willing, things work out somehow with this current crisis, future states will look back and try to learn the lessons that perhaps they should maintain their weapons.

"I participated with many of my colleagues in visiting our sister state, Hiroshima, a few years back. And I got to visit ground zero of one of the nuclear bombs that went off there and the horrible devastation that that has wrought. And it's led me to commit myself to try to do things to help prevent nuclear proliferation. And if anything, that should have been included in this. Sorry, I'm a little emotional. Very strong support. Thank you."

Representative Tokioka rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you. In support. And I think by Par doing what they did sends a clear message to everyone in the state, and I think we can all do our little part. If anybody, which I highly doubt in this body, eats beluga caviar, then don't purchase it, or Russian vodka, don't purchase it. We can send messages that way as well. So, thank you for the authors who drafted the resolution and I'm in strong support."

Representative Wildberger rose to speak in support of both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, in strong support. Thanks to the two reps that put this resolution together. And I hope that people in charge of airspace are making sure that oligarch types are not coming into Hawaii by private aircraft. It's much too easy to leave anywhere around the Pacific and fly into Hawaii without a whole lot of notice, especially into Maui, where we have high end resorts that attract that ilk. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 28 and H.C.R. No. 32 were adopted, with Representative D. Kobayashi voting no, and with Representatives Matayoshi, McDermott, and Nakashima being excused.

By unanimous consent, the following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 22 through 27) and concurrent resolutions (H.C.R. Nos. 24 through 31) were referred to Printing and further action was deferred:
