We spent millions of dollars already into the rail. Hopefully that a lot of the money that we spent goes directly to construction, instead of how much of it that will go to management and overhead.

"I would hope to see that this rail serve my grandkids later on down the road. Right now, we fight traffic just coming out here, maybe in traffic about an hour and a half just getting to 'Ewa Beach sometimes on a bad day. I can see if my grandkids get older, it's going to be maybe two hours. Quality time for our families is important, and hopefully that we can cut construction and our costs because when this rail was first introduced, it was way lower, but now within the billions of dollars that it cost. I would like to see the cost drop and find a better solution in building this rail. Thank you."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Takayama: "Madam Speaker, I wanted to announce, happy to announce, that this year our office will again be assisting the YWCA in its Dress for Success program, thanks to you, Madam Speaker, approving the request. For new members, the Dress For Success program is an effort by the YWCA to assist women who are seeking a second start in life because of former homelessness or incarceration, sometimes both. And so, the idea is to collect business attire for them to be able to transition to their new jobs. So, members, use this Wednesday and the coming weekend to collect new or gently used women's business attire. And we'll be collecting them in my office starting next week. So, thank you very much."

Speaker Nakamura: "Thank you, Representative Takayama, for doing this every year."

Representative Matsumoto: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. I sent an email out to everybody, but just wanted to remind the body as well as staff, we're going to be filming just out here outside the chamber from 9:30 a.m. till right before session and then for two hours after session, if anybody has a story or something they'd like to share about Representative Gene Ward, so we can share that to him.
