Representative Lamosao rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of this measure with deep gratitude as we pass this critical measure to strengthen protections for survivors of domestic violence and ensure greater accountability for those who violate protective orders. I want to thank the chair of Human Services Committee and the chair for Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs for advancing this important bill. I want to acknowledge the hard work of all the advocates who have fought tirelessly to make this a reality.

"This bill is more than just policy. It is protecting lives. By increasing penalties for violations for temporary restraining orders and orders for protection, we are making it clear that domestic violence will not be tolerated in our communities. This measure ensures that offenders are held accountable and required to complete intervention programs aimed at breaking the cycle of abuse.

"We pass this bill in honor of Theresa Cachuela, whose life was tragically taken due to domestic violence. Her story is a painful reminder of why we must continue strengthening protections for survivors. Today, we honor her memory with action, ensuring that no family has to endure the same heartbreak. Thank you so much."

Representative Kila rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Madam Speaker, in support, may I request to adopt the words of the previous speaker and a brief comment. I also would like to thank the vice chair of Water & Land for being the House companion to this bill before us. As the previous speaker mentioned, Theresa Cachuela's life was tragically cut short. And as her mom, who lives in Nanakuli, has worked tirelessly this session for advocacy, this is a step in the right direction. And I'd like to echo the sentiments and thankfulness to the committee chairs for working on this measure," and the Chair "so ordered." (By reference only.)

I just want to thank the Senate introducer of this measure and also our chairs of Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs and also Human Services. Mahalo."

Representative Lamosao's written remarks are as follows:

"In strong support of this critical measure, which seeks to protect survivors of domestic abuse by ensuring that they are not forced into mediation in paternity and divorce proceedings against their will.

"Mediation can be a valuable tool for resolving disputes, but we must recognize that it is not always appropriate—especially in cases where domestic abuse has occurred. Survivors of abuse should never be placed in a position where they must negotiate with their abuser in a setting that could retraumatize them, diminish their sense of security, or coerce them into unfair agreements.

"This measure establishes clear and necessary protections. It prohibits courts from requiring mediation when domestic abuse has been alleged and a restraining order or protective order is in place. Furthermore, it mandates that mediators screen for domestic abuse and ensures that any mediation that does occur is conducted in a manner that prioritizes the safety and well-being of the survivor.

"This legislation sends a strong and unequivocal message: that we will not subject survivors of abuse to further harm under the guise of conflict resolution. Instead, we stand with them, ensuring that they have the autonomy, protection, and support they need during some of the most difficult legal proceedings of their lives."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Lee: "Just a reminder that today at the Rotunda from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. we will be celebrating 50 years of freedom for the Vietnamese refugees who came here and have integrated themselves into our economy, our society, and our daily lives. Please come join us for some food and some music and the Royal Hawaiian Band. Thank you."

Representative Kila: "Mahalo, Madam Speaker. Tomorrow is Alzheimer's Advocacy Day, and on behalf of the Health Committee chairs, the Kupuna Caucus chair conveners in the House, I'd like to welcome all members to attend their press conference that will be happening at 2:00 p.m. after floor session and they'll be visiting their offices tomorrow to talk about the effects of Alzheimer's on their families, mahalo, and to wear purple."

Representative Matayoshi: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Just a reminder for everyone that we're still having our capital blood drive on May 1, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., in Conference Room 329. If you haven't signed up yet, this is for members and their staff, basically anyone who works in this building. Right now, we've got about equal numbers of House and Senate signed up, which means they're winning because there are fewer of them. So, I'd really appreciate the House kind of pulling its weight a little bit more. You can sign up using the QR code in the elevators or you can contact my office. I think my office is also sending out some reminder emails for that. Thank you."

At this time, the Chair stated:

"The Chair would like to remind committee chairs that today is the first crossover filing deadline for House concurrent resolutions. Please file your committee reports and drafts with the Chief Clerk's Office by 6:00 p.m. this evening."

ADJOURNMENT

At 1:01 p.m., on motion by Representative Morikawa, seconded by Representative Garcia and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until noon tomorrow, Thursday, April 3, 2025. (Representative Cochran was excused.)
