Senator Abercrombie then moved that S.R. No. 344 be adopted, seconded by Senator Mizuguchi.

At this time, Senator Abercrombie rose to state as follows:

"Mr. President, in commenting in favor of moving the resolution, I would like to point out, just as my good friend and colleague Senator Hara has done, that Professor Worster is from Needles, California. I realize that most people believe that only Snoopy's brother lives in Needles, California, but, nonetheless, Professor Worster is from there and now with us here at the University of Hawaii.

"This is a particular pleasure to me because I am an alumnus of the American Studies Department at the University of Hawaii where Professor Worster now teaches.

"I think it's important for us to recognize, whenever we can, the achievements at the University of Hawaii, its scholarly activity, and I would like the members to note that the Bancroft Award is in effect the Pulitzer Prize in history, in terms of academics, and it is not only a great pleasure but a great privilege to have the Professor with us.

"I would like to introduce, just prior to the vote, if I may, as well, my old friend and mentor from the American Studies Department, the chairman of the department in fact, the gentleman who took it from its infancy into the obvious maturity that it now possesses as a department--Professor Seymour Ruskie. Sitting next to Professor Ruskie in the gallery is Beverly Worster, Professor Worster's wife.

"Mr. President, with that in mind that we do have this very great honor of having now a Bancroft prizewinner at the University and I hope the first of more to come, I ask that the resolution be passed."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and S.R. No. 344 was adopted.

At this time, Senator O'Connor rose to speak in favor of the resolution as follows:

"Mr. President, the Judiciary of the State of Hawaii has established a new award called the Distinguished Service Award. The first awardee is the gentleman I first met almost 20 years ago when I came back to Honolulu as young lawyer and to start practicing law. He was at that time clerk of one of the judges in the First Circuit Court and, but for his help and his guidance at a time when I didn't know a law book from a gavel, I would have had just an awful time in my first few trials. He helped tremendously, not just myself but many other young lawyers, to learn where the jury box was, how to put a witness on the stand, and how to handle the paperwork necessary to make the legal system go, and I'm sure that he is held with as much affection by all of those people as I hold him.

"Truly, he is just an outstanding, wonderful person and I just couldn't stand here and say more nice things about anybody than I can about Gunji Izumoto.

"For those reasons, I am 'tickled pink' that the first Distinguished Service Award of the Judiciary is given to him.

"He has risen to be the Chief Clerk of the First Circuit Court; he's the boss down there and he makes a terribly good boss.

"I would ask all to join me in voting in favor of this resolution."

Senator Carroll also rose to speak in favor of the resolution as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise also to speak in favor of the resolution.

"Similar to the chairman of the Judiciary, I've known Gunji for quite a number of years, more than I really like to think about, and as with Senator O'Connor and I think with many other attorneys in town, Gunji was one of the people at the clerk's office that we could go to and rely on not only for information but really for some sincere help that got many of us out of cracks that we probably would have had to spend hours and hours and hours to figure out, had we had to go through the tortured statutes of this state in order to get particular briefs and different matters taken care of.

"It's really a pleasure to be able to vote for this resolution and my only regret is that we didn't offer it on this side of the aisle a number of years sooner. I urge that we all vote aye."

Senator Kuroda then rose to request of Senator O'Connor as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to make a request of the movant, if he would please accommodate me.

"Mr. President, I call your attention to page 2, and the second 'whereas' -- I think it is very important that the taxpayers' watchdog, the vice president of the State Senate, Senator Kawasaki, take special note of this. It says that Mr. Izumoto, during his 37 years service with the State of Hawaii, has not taken a single day of sick leave, possibly an unparalleled feat among state government employees. I think that the movant should ask Senator Kawasaki to not just shake the hand of Mr. Izumoto but pump his hand in appreciation for it."

Senator Kawasaki then rose to reply as follows:

"Mr. President, since that subject was brought up, I want the good Senator from the 4th District to understand that years ago there was a law that said that good conscientious public employees could not accumulate more than 54 days of sick leave. When I was very active as a director of the HGEA, notwithstanding the opinion of the remaining members of the board of the HGEA that this could not be done, I lobbied hard singularly to get that lifted so that a conscientious public employee who does not take sick leave would not be losing any credit beyond 54 days. As a consequence, the law was changed so that there's no limit to the sick leave our state employees can accumulate."

Senator Cayetano also rose to speak in favor of the resolution as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to echo the words and the comments of Senators O'Connor and Carroll with respect to how Mr. Izumoto has helped many of the attorneys in town.

"I think the service that he's provided the state has gone beyond the duties set forth in his job description. I have had great contact with him. He has called me many times to remind me about deadlines, something that happens to many attorneys.

"He's certainly a very warm person and I'm very happy that he is receiving this award today.

"I think the members of this Senate would do well to visit the Judiciary sometimes to see that it is a beehive of activity. Contrary to widespread, I think, misgivings about how state employees work, the employees of the Judiciary are very, very hardworking people. They open at 7:30 or 7:45 in the morning and they work into the late evening. I'm very, very impressed with the way Mr. Izumoto runs the Judiciary department.

"Again, Mr. Izumoto, congratulations, and I urge everyone to vote for this resolution."

Senator Anderson then rose to state as follows:

"Mr. President, speaking for the non-lawyers of this body, Mr. Izumoto you are to be congratulated. The task of teaching the lawyers in this body the difference between a gavel and the law book must have been a tremendous task. There are times we still think they don't know the difference, but you are to be given 'A' for your efforts."

Senator Abercrombie added his comments as follows:

"Mr. President, following Senator Anderson's remarks and agreeing again fully with him, I wonder if we might be able to have the services of this gentleman over here because we have such difficulty with our lawyers here right now."

The Chair then remarked as follows:

"I want to tell you aspiring lawyers who just came back from law school, one of my first jobs in 1966 was a file clerk with the First Circuit Court and I was the guy that went to get all the files for you."

Senator Kawasaki responded to the Chair's comments as follows:

"Mr. President, this is indeed a great state when a file clerk from the Judiciary can aspire to that rostrum that you hold. This gives inspiration and hope for a lot of file clerks in the system."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and S.R. No. 349 was adopted.

At this time, Senator O'Connor introduced to the members the honoree, Mr. Gunji Izumoto, and his sons, Bryan and John. Mr. Izumoto was presented with a lei and a copy of the resolution by Senators Young and O'Connor.

At 11:55 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:59 o'clock a.m.

A resolution (S.R. No. 350), entitled: "SENATE RESOLUTION PROCLAIMING MAY 1980, AS MENTAL HEALTH MONTH IN HAWAII", was jointly offered by Senators Carpenter, Hara, Yamasaki, Kuroda, Machida, Abercrombie, Carroll, Soares, Chong, Kawasaki, Yim, O'Connor, Yee, George, Young, Cayetano, Campbell, Toyofuku, Saiki, Wong, Anderson, Ajifu, Mizuguchi, Ushijima and Cobb.

On motion by Senator Carpenter, seconded by Senator Hara and carried, S.R. No. 350 was adopted.

ORDER OF THE DAY

MATTER DEFERRED
FROM APRIL 14, 1980

FINAL READING

Conference Committee Report No. 4-80
(S.B. No. 2134-80, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Carpenter moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 4-80 be adopted and S.B. No. 2134-80, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Cobb.

At this time, Senator Carpenter rose to speak in favor of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President and fellow colleagues, it is for me a great pleasure to rise in support of the final passage of S.B. 2134, H.D. 1, C.D. 1.

"I am proud to say that the bill before you today is a consumer bill written expressly for the people of this state. Unlike the bill of last year, S.B. 2134 gives the consumer the option to consent to or refuse substitution of generic equivalent drug products. Your conference committee finds that the responsibility of choice should always rest with the consumers since they are the ones directly affected by the cost-savings available through substitution.

"Furthermore, the drug product selection board, which is responsible for developing a safe drug formulary of equivalent drug products, has been placed within the Department of Health, for administrative purposes. The Department of Health was chosen because of its available expertise in medicine and drugs and they will be responsible for the distribution and revisions of the formulary; providing public education; enforcing the provisions of this bill; and monitoring the effects of this bill. Indeed, the success of cost-savings to the consumer rests with this department's carrying-out its responsibilities.

"However, public education is not only the responsibility of the Department of Health, but equally important is the role of the pharmacists and especially the physicians of this state. Because of the primary role of the physicians to their patients, they have the first opportunity to inform their patients on the availability of cost-savings through safe substitution of a lower cost equivalent drug product. Your Committee finds that the physician has indeed the responsibility to their patient to help them in lowering their medical costs at all times. With their support, as well as the pharmacists, the state, the private sector, and the health insurance providers, the consumer will be afforded the maximum cost-savings for which this bill provides.

"This bill has been carefully written with consultation with the Attorney General, and your committee finds that the interests of the consumers have been met.

"On behalf of the consumers of this state, I strongly recommend passage of this bill. Thank you."

Senator Campbell also rose in support of the measure and stated as follows:

"Mr. President, I would like to add a few comments to the remarks of the previous speaker. First of all, I'd like to commend the chairman of the Conference Committee and the members of the Senate and House Conference Committee for a job well done.

"I certainly share the feelings expressed by the previous speaker that this is a historic day in the lives of many of the people of our state, particularly senior citizens and others on fixed income, middle, and low income people.

"This bill will place the State of Hawaii solidly in support of those who have difficulty meeting the high cost of medical drugs.

"On June 23-24, 1978, representing the State Legislature, I attended the First National Conference on Generic Drugs in Washington, D.C. and it was an electrifying conference related to medical cost containment and I returned to Hawaii determined to join my other legislative colleagues in calling to the attention of the people of Hawaii the fact that millions of dollars of taxpayers' money could be saved if we repealed our anti-substitution law and set up a state formulary. It was at that conference that the Food and Drug Administration and the Federal Trade Commission, for the first time in our history, took a very strong stand in favor of generic drug substitution as a means of reducing medical costs for our citizens.

"Prior to this Washington conference, many states in the Union, including Hawaii, had taken the position that generic drugs were unsafe, so in returning to Hawaii in concert with the chairmen of the Health and Consumer Protection and Commerce Committees, we introduced a bill to repeal Hawaii's anti-substitution law. I sent a letter to the Governor asking that the state expand its purchase of drugs, and this of course would mean a tremendous saving to our taxpayers.

"So, Mr. President, today we are at the brink of legislation which will be a turning point in medical drug cost containment. I urge all of our colleagues to strongly support this measure. Thank you."

Senator Kawasaki then added his remarks in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I am delighted to support passage of this bill. I think with the passage of this bill we see here a good object lesson that whenever a good idea is introduced in bill form, sometimes it literally takes years and years before acceptance is on hand. I recall the time when the Honolulu Advertiser article appeared about the possibility of enacting legislation to permit the dispensation of generic drugs -- there was an uproar. The drug industry was, literally, up in arms; the pharmacists group was just up in arms also.

"It takes many, many years sometimes for ideas like this to be accepted and today, I think, we're all delighted it now has taken place. The point here is that the senators should not despair at first when their good ideas do not get accepted. Sometimes it takes a long, long time."

Senator Chong made a very brief remark in support of the measure stating, "I would just like to comment and commend the chairman of the Health Committee for guiding through this much needed legislation."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, and Conference Committee Report No. 4-80 was adopted, and S.B. No. 2134-80, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FOOD, DRUGS, AND COSMETICS", having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Saiki).

Standing Committee Report No. 1075-80 (Gov. Msg. Nos. 235, 236, 237 and 238):

Senator Cayetano moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1075-80 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kawasaki and carried.

Senator Cayetano then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations of Calvin J.H. Chun, Cedric Yamamoto, Earl L. Helm, Kanji Wakamatsu, Joseph A. Tokita, and Regelio A. Saraos to the Board of Taxation Review, First Taxation Division, Oahu, seconded by Senator Kawasaki.

At this time, Senator Cayetano rose to briefly speak on the Governor's messages as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm asking this body to vote for these people (appointments to the Board of Taxation Review) on faith.

"When we held a hearing, no one showed up. We have no information on them. The Governor came down with the messages very late, so, if some of these nominees don't work out, please take that into consideration."

Senator Abercrombie added his remarks as follows:

"Mr. President, I have signed most of the committee reports on the appointments that have come forward with reservations, not to reflect on some of the individuals, although I have objection to one individual here and I will ask that that person be voted down, but I do think we have a problem here that needs to be addressed in legislation. I needn't comment on it further.

"On appointees, I think it's well-known when appointment times are up, and I think that we're finding ourselves in some difficulty because of nominations coming down so late that they can't be dealt with adequately.

"In any event, I have an objection to Governor's Message No. 236, Cedric Yamamoto, gubernatorial nominee for appointment to the Board of Taxation Review, First Taxation District. I think that the financial circumstances that Mr. Yamamoto has been involved in terms of his company with respect to actions with the State, especially where activity has been found to be against the public interest, is such that it would not further the public interest to have Mr. Yamamoto appointed to the Board of Taxation Review.

"Now, I find myself in difficulty then of asking the same thing that the chairman just asked in respect of what constitutes faith. I think this illustrates part of the difficulties that we have in trying to determine whether or not this body will be able to take seriously its duty to advise and consent without finding one's self in a position of simply being designated as engaging in personalities as opposed to substance.

"With that in mind, I ask that a 'no' vote be cast for Governor's Message No. 236 for myself."

At 12:15 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:18 o'clock p.m.

Senator Kawasaki then rose to speak on the appointments as follows:

"Mr. President, while I will vote for these appointments, I believe we really have to rely on our faith in the good judgment and the commitments of the people appointed to the Board of Taxation Review.

"I was a little concerned that the nominees did not see fit to come to the Ways and Means Committee hearing where we could question them relative to their basic philosophy about assessment, valuation, and so forth.

"The tendency in the past has been that, generally, these people tended to rubber-stamp the Tax Office's determination of what a property assessment should be, and they had not taken into consideration several factors that go into valuation of a person's real property. Too often in the past, more weight was given to the fact of sales in the comparable area. What had happened was that if a person lived in a particular locality and he had no intention of selling his property--he just wants to raise his family, that is his residence--and there happened to be a sale in the neighborhood of something that's quite comparable and because of the appreciation that has taken place in values, real property values, and the sale has just reflected a tremendous increase in the value of a property in the vicinity, then the person who has no intention of selling, his property was assessed almost equal to the market value or at least 60-70% of the market value of the property that was sold. This has worked tremendous hardship on people who could not afford to be burdened with this great increase in the value of their property because it means nothing that appreciation has taken place until that person sells his property.

"I've gotten after the Tax Office time and again, and I've made this comment to the Tax Review Board to not tax people practically into hardships, particularly, if they are not going to sell their property.

"Now, I would hope that this new Tax Review Board would take into consideration these things so that we would not be forced to, as we have in the past, raise the home exemption for property owners as an offset to the constantly increasing valuation, assessment valuation, which of course reflects a higher property tax to them. I would hope that this Tax Review Board would be open-minded and not just rubber-stamp the Tax Office's valuation judgments because this does work a hardship and it kills the incentive for people here to own their own homes, with the prices of land and cost of building being what they are today. I hope that this Tax Review Board takes this into consideration."

Senator Chong rose to comment as follows:

"Mr. President, although I don't have any comments directly related to Stand. Com. 1075, I would like to speak to the issue of the delay of the Governor in getting names down to this committee.

"I'd like to continue specifically on the discussion we had at the end of yesterday's session with Senator Abercrombie also. He said the Governor's delay in submitting to the Senate the name of the nominee for the vacant position of the Public Utilities Commission is creating a definite threat to the nominee's reputation and a possible danger to every home in Hawaii.

"The Governor is depriving the Senate the opportunity to examine critically the qualifications of his nominee to the Public Utilities Commission. Even more, he is denying the people of Hawaii the opportunity to learn about or express an opinion about a person who will have a direct influence on their private lives for the next six years. The nominee will become one of three Public Utilities Commissioners; he or she will share the responsibility for decisions involving millions of dollars. These decisions will affect every private individual..."

At this time, Senator Anderson rose on a point of order as follows:

"Mr. President, rising on a point of order, I think the record will show, that we are in the middle of a vote, a motion, and even a recess is questionable in the middle of a vote. Now we're on an entirely different subject and it's not out of order at a different time, Mr. President, but we are ready to vote."

Senator Chong remarked as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm speaking on the question of the Governor's delay in not only these particular nominees, but the nominees of many other important positions right now. I have only a few more statements to make."

The Chair then suggested as follows:

"Senator Chong, the Chair would like to make a suggestion. Comments referred to yesterday and today are quite obvious and we have spoken to the Governor's office relative to this dilemma that we're faced with this morning. I would like for you to make your comments very brief and then we'll continue with the vote."

Senator Chong then concluded his remarks as follows:

"Mr. President, I conclude by pointing out that my committee and the entire Senate must vote on a person whose qualifications we have not had time to examine to our satisfaction. This is what we are doing now, or in the case of the Public Utilities Commission that will continue to function with one member whose term was legally finished last December. The Governor is aware of this; he has been aware of this for some time and I think the delay exhibited by our vote today on Stand. Com. 1075 is really inexcusable."

Senator Cayetano then rose to ask as follows:

"Mr. President, first to clear where we are. I understand that we are in the discussion period prior to the vote. Is that right?"

The Chair replied in the affirmative.

"Mr. President, I share the concerns echoed by the previous speaker, but let me say that I am recommending or moving that these nominees be confirmed primarily because, in fairness to the Governor, I believe that the practice that he has followed has been one that has been followed throughout the years. I think it is incumbent upon us to advise the Governor that that practice must come to a stop.

"I suggest, perhaps for the next session, that the leadership get together and maybe set a deadline, perhaps the 40th day, for such nominations to be made. This will give the Senate and the appropriate committees time to do some legwork, if you will, on the nominees and be able to make recommendations to the rest of the Senate accordingly."

Senator Anderson then rose to concur as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to concur with the Ways and Means chairman, however unpleased I was the other day with the lateness. The Ways and Means Committee did have a hearing; they were late; it has interrupted some of the budgetary hearings, but unlike some other chairmen who have had no hearings in self-decisions, the Ways and Means did have a hearing. If nobody showed up that's not the fault of the Legislature or the Senate and these people should be confirmed."

Roll Call vote having been ordered, the motion to advise and consent to the nomination of Calvin J.H. Chun to the Board of Taxation Review, First Taxation District, Oahu, term to expire December 31, 1982, was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:
