

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

Tuesday, March 3, 1987

The Senate of the Fourteenth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1987, convened at 11:11 o'clock a.m., with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Very Reverend Hollinshead T. Knight, Dean, St. Andrew's Cathedral, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Blair and Holt who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-Eighth Day.

The following introductions were made to the members of the Senate:

Senator Hagino introduced Senator Franklin J. A. Quitugua, speaker of the Guam Legislature, accompanied by Mrs. Dolly Ching and Mr. Bob Bloom, as follows:

"Mr. President, today, it is my distinct pleasure to introduce a colleague from Guam who has done much to improve the educational system of Guam. (Just as Senator Mizuguchi will do before the end of the session.)

"Mr. President, Senators, and guests, at this time, I would like to introduce the Honorable Franklin J.A. Quitugua, Speaker of the Senate of Guam. (Speaker Quitugua rose to be recognized.) Yes, I did say Speaker and I did say Senate. Just a word of explanation. In Guam it is a unicameral legislature and he is the Speaker.

"Accompanying the speaker is Mrs. Dolly Ching, senior vice president of the Bank of Hawaii. She was very recently promoted to this position. As I understand it, she is the first woman to be elevated to such a prestigious position in a major organization. (Mrs. Ching rose to be recognized.)

"Next to Mrs. Ching is Bob Bloom, vice president and regional manager of the Pacific Islands Division of the Bank of Hawaii. (Mr. Bloom rose to be recognized.)

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker Quitugua has devoted his life to education and has served twice as chairman of the committee on education.

"Speaker Quitugua earned his bachelor of science degree in education in 1956 and his masters in secondary school administration in 1962 from Northern Arizona University. In 1975, he received a doctor of philosophy degree in educational administration from the University of Oregon. His teaching experience started 30 years ago and he became a principal 24 years ago which, if my math is correct, means that he became a principal just six years after becoming a teacher.

"One of the first bills he introduced as a senator provided for an alternative education program with which we are all familiar with.

"During his term as chairman of the education committee, he increased funding for education by 40 percent during his two terms. Such impressive accomplishments are indeed worthy of our esteem and it is my privilege to present him to this body."

The honoree was presented a Senate Certificate by Senator Hagino and Senator Young presented him with a lei.

Senator Hee introduced Mr. Bud Pinkosh of Kailua and his son who were sitting in the gallery. Senator Hee added that "Bud Pinkosh is working for Representative Reb Bellinger. He at various times served as the president of the Chamber of Commerce and the Kailua Community Council. In short, when Bud speaks E.F. Hutton listens."

At this time, the Chair invited the Honorable Franklin J.A. Quitugua to the rostrum, escorted by Senator Young, and Mr. Quitugua addressed the members of the Senate as follows:

"Thank you very much, Mr. President.

"Mr. President, esteemed members of the Hawaii Senate, I'm overwhelmed. I really did not expect to be accorded this honor that you have bestowed on me this morning. I hope that when you visit Guam, which is only 6,000 miles away to the West, we accord you the same honor that you have given me. I appreciate this very much.

"I hope that in our relationship in the future that we will be working very closely as island residents, as people in the Pacific, in politics, in social as well as economic ... I hope that our island people can really be together as we move forward in this decade of the Pacific.

"Thank you very much for this."

At 11:20 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:23 o'clock a.m., with the Vice President in the Chair.
