Senator Solomon moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 11 and S.C.R. No. 11, H.D. 1, be finally adopted, seconded by Senator McCartney.

Senator Solomon explained:

"The House generally has agreed with the Senate. They made no amendments to the resolution and we would like to recommend that we agree."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 11 and S.C.R. No. 11, H.D. 1, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A TASK FORCE ON NATIVE HAWAIIAN CULTURAL FOOD RESOURCES," was finally adopted.

Senator Solomon rose on a point of personal privilege and stated:

"Mr. President, I'd like to rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I'm very pleased to report that your Committee on Water, Land, and Hawaiian Affairs was able to come up with what I feel is a very reasonable package as it pertains to the Hawaiian issues. Mr. President, it was a very, very difficult conference being that we were dealing with the House who had refused to move on the native claims. As of two o'clock this afternoon they were still unwilling to move. The House had very, very strong mana'o and positions that were within the ceded land bill. As to the retroactivity of the Heely decision, we've been able to get the House to move off of that position.

"Mr. President, I'd like to report to my colleagues that we cannot satisfy all of the Hawaiian groups, but I did make a comment to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs chairman, Trustee Hee, who was a fellow colleague of ours here in the Senate, that OHA has resources that they can rally on their own and if they are very dissatisfied with what the bill intends and does, they can act accordingly as to how they can benefit the Hawaiians.

"But I was more concerned, Mr. President, with the native claims which involved 165 kupuna who've been waiting on the Hawaiian Homes list -- some of them for over 50 years, those that were disenfranchised, those that had no real strong advocate on their behalf. I felt it imperative that the Senate package those two bills so that we could kokua those that needed our help most.

"And the reason for that, Mr. President, is that it's really our generation which can do something about it. We saw our parents and our grandparents being kicked out of Kalama Valley, we saw them getting kicked out of Sand Island, we've seen them being displaced off the Hawaiian Homes' waiting list, some of them dying in the process. For me, Mr. President, this is a very emotional issue. I cannot divorce my emotions because we have been deliberating on these issues for the past 20 years in this body.

"I get very, very distressed, Mr. President, when I read in the newspaper that now they're blaming the bond rating of this state on the Hawaiian issue. I cannot accept that. It's not just the Hawaiian issues and the uncertainties by the Judiciary in their interpretations, Mr. President. What about the economy? What about the bankruptcies that we're seeing everyday in the State of Hawaii? And to have the newspapers and some people out there blaming the Hawaiians for the poor bond rating in the State of Hawaii because the Hawaiians only want justice and what they rightfully deserve, I find that totally unacceptable!

"And I'm hoping, Mr. President, that as we bring this Legislature to a close, that I can convince each and every one of my colleagues sitting here as to how ridiculous -- how ridiculous -- that kind of thinking can be. And if I cannot, Mr. President, heaven help this state; heaven help the Democrat Party which struggled, struggled so hard for so many years to help those who are disenfranchised, to help those who have not received justice, to help those who have been unfairly treated, to help lift people up, to give them hope, and to give them guidance. And we in the Senate can come up with just that, Mr. President, in our Hawaiian package. We are creating the process. We've agreed to a land inventory, agreed to a process that would bring these issues to a closure.

"And it disturbs me, Mr. President, when I see many of the law firms downtown getting involved in this issue! When we see the law firms trying to put their mana'o into the bill about the land fees. When we have the law firms downtown, Mr. President, advocating the position that it's the Hawaiians and the uncertainty they created that are causing the problem. That really disturbs me greatly! I thought we had come away from that kind of thinking. That was the kind of mana'o we had 150 years ago when we were dominated by the Big Five, when we were dominated by the plantations, when we were dominated by the missionary influence in this state. We, as all racial groups in this state, have risen above all of that, Mr. President, and how we treat the Hawaiians is how we treat ourselves.

"Yes, I am emotional and I have every right to be so, because in my political tenure I've seen the Hawaiians give up a lot so that we can remain part of this process. We believed in negotiation. Mr. President, we had a kingdom with treaties with 15 foreign nations. We had our own postal service. We had a public education system. We understood what it means to be part of a legislative process. This is why we're not in a situation like Bosnia or Ireland where people are bearing arms to settle their disputes. People have faith in us, faith in the process, faith in democracy, to bring about justice and resolve. This is what Hawaii is all about. This is what makes us great in the world. This is what the Spirit of Aloha is.

"And, Mr. President, I am counting on you and the Senate leadership to guide us through these turbulent times, to bring justice to the Hawaiian people that is the basis of this state, the culture of which has made tourism No. 1 in our economy. The Hawaiians have sacrificed and gave up their primary recreational areas so that we could push and drive our economy forward. I'm counting on you, Mr. President, and the leadership in the House to be sure that when these issues are decided, that we are going to be able to stand firm and 'onipa'a behind what is right.

"Thank you very much."
