The Senate reconvened at 6:36 o'clock p.m.

Senator Chumbley, for the Committee on Judiciary, requested a waiver pursuant to Senate Rule 20 for H.B. No. 162, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I, like many people, was caught by surprise yesterday by the announcement that this body is going to be considering a tax increase bill on Saturday. Here we are on the 38th day of our 60-day session. The opening day . . . we heard speeches all through that week by the President, by the Speaker of the House, by the Governor, telling us how we're going to improve our economy; we're going to lighten the burden for our taxpayers and our single mothers and our small businesses; we're going to cut taxes; we're going to cut back on regulations; we're going to improve the business climate. And for 38 days we've done nothing. We have nothing to show for this, Mr. President.

"And then yesterday, we hear that we're going to have a tax increase -- a general excise tax increase, the 'son of the ERTF' that the taxpayers and the business people fought last year.

"Mr. President, I feel like the Senate which I was very proud to be part of last year when we stood against the tide for increasing taxes, I'm ashamed today that we would even think about this. And all the public hearing on Saturday on Prince Kuhio Day, on the Prince Kuhio weekend . . . I know Prince Kuhio was a Republican but that's no way to treat a Republican. (Laughter.) I can't believe it!

"I remember on opening day, I was sitting here and that wonderful little girl was right by the Majority Leader's desk and she was singing the Oscar Meyer song about baloney. Little did I know, Mr. President, little did I believe that on the 38th day this body would be enveloped in baloney.

"A general excise tax increase! Didn't we learn anything? Where was all that talk about the message that came out of the 1998 general election? I feel like we've been stabbed in the back. I feel like the taxpayers have been betrayed and we're part of it. And some people, some people talk about this bill and they say, 'Oh, this is beneficial. It's going to be beneficial for the taxpayers, for small business, for our keiki.' Everything we say we do in here is for our keiki.

"And then the sponsors of this bill add insult to injury because they tell us, 'It's only a 1.35 percent increase.' It's a 34 percent increase, exactly like the increase last year that was proposed -- 34 percent! And they tell us, 'Yes, but we're going to reduce pyramiding general excise tax and help small business.'

"Mr. President, this body, several weeks ago, passed a good bill to eliminate pyramiding, to help small business. This bill doesn't do it. It phases it out over seven years -- seven years we'll have more dead and dying businesses; we'll have more people that have left this state because of the general excise tax -- a gross income tax, not a sales tax. It's the most insidious, the most onerous tax that we have! We pay it first. We all pay it first and then, maybe later, over seven years we get some benefit. Businesses can't wait that long. Taxpayers can't wait that long. Families can't wait that long. And then the sponsors tell us -- they have the temerity to tell us -- 'Oh yes, but we're going to exempt food also. It's in the bill.' Interesting concept! Republicans have been pushing for the food exemption for 50 years now. All of a sudden, somebody thought about this and tied it into general excise. But there's only one problem -- it's not in this bill, Mr. President. They sold us another bad bill of goods. If we were before the Commerce Committee or DCCA, it would be fraudulent. And that's what this bill is all about.

"Why this bill? Why now? Why, when we haven't done anything for the people? Why do we talk about increasing the taxes more? If someone loses their job, does their child ask for an increase in his allowance? If business is suffering because people aren't buying, do they raise their prices? Only the Legislature seems to act on the idea that if we have more problems brought on by taxes and regulations, we will provide more taxes and more regulations.

"We haven't gotten the message. We're not listening to the people. They didn't send us here to increase their burden. They sent us here to make it lighter. I can't believe this.

"And, Mr. President, I heard again the favorite word that comes out of this body -- it was a collaborative style to introduce this tax increase. What collaboration? Who knew about it? Who collaborated on it? Who cooperated on it? Why now? And is it just for discussion? Is it just for leverage? Is it just to make talk? Why don't we pass good bills? We have good bills. The Senate has passed good bills. But instead, we put this to the forefront.

"Mr. President, everybody is talking about Y2K and the problems and the things, the tragedies, that could happen next year, January 1. If this bill becomes law, this is a bigger tragedy and has a bigger impact than anything that Y2K could do. We've got to stop this bill now. It's no good! We don't need it! We don't want it! And if we believe in the taxpayers of this State, let's stand up and say 'No,' as a body, and make sure that it doesn't even go further than Saturday.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson also rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like the words of the Minority Floor Leader put in the Journal as though they were my own.

"I guess I have an announcement also. Since I wasn't a part of the collaboration, I had made prior commitments, and then I saw that we're going to have WAM meetings scheduled for Saturday at 3:00 and 3:30. I already had commitments. I won't be at the meeting. I wanted to announce that I would hope that the neighbor island people . . . if people want you at a hearing, have it at 8:00 in the morning, 8:30 in the morning, not in mid-afternoon when the public has other things to do and so do your colleagues. We have commitments as well as everybody else. So, I'm going to make my commitment right now -- I'm going to be busy and I'm not going to be there.

"I would hope everybody else just doesn't go, because I don't think that's fair that I have to watch television to find out that we're going to have a raise in taxes. We had people for dinner last night and they said we heard, but it wasn't until television told me that we were having it. Rumors, they said, were around this chamber. That's a helluva way for anybody who is a part of this Senate to find out that we have a possibility of raising taxes, especially when we're asked to do things that would help the economy in other ways. And we have many ways.

"So, I'm sorry, Madam Chair and my fellow colleague, the other co-chair, I would hope that I would have been there but because of the poor collaboration and because of the poor notices, we made other commitments and I'm afraid that I will not be there. So that's my announcement, Mr. President, and I thank you."
