S.B. No. 1131; and
S.B. No. 1136,

and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“We’ve completed one-third of the Session, meaning that we have two-thirds to go, and the skepticism I think that was apparent from the public at the beginning is probably thicker now than it was at that time. We have not really done anything to mitigate the concerns of the public – their concerns that we would not really accomplish anything major. We’ve not really moved along any major tax reduction or standard of living increases, although we’re now moving along a tax increase. We’ve got several other measures that would increase the cost of doing business, the cost of living in this State. We haven’t really done anything to downsize government or to realign or streamline government. We haven’t done anything to solve the problems that have been brought on by the labor negotiations and the many salary demands.

“But what we have done, though, is been very creative in overlapping hearing schedules and in the passage of voluminous omnibus bills on to the next committee, generally Ways and Means.

“We should not be satisfied. We can be patient – as you know, Mr. President, I’m a very patient individual – but we have to remember that in that two-thirds time that we’ve got to come forward and accomplish the things that we said that we all believe in and that we want to do. We’ve got to make those our priorities and not get caught up in the minutia . . . keep our eye on the focus of these activities that the public keeps telling us over and over again are most important.

“So I will remain patient, Mr. President, but I will also remain observant and participate in the process that hopefully will move us along.

“Thank you.”
