ORDER OF THE DAY

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Keith-Agaran, seconded by Senator Shimabukuro and carried, S.B. No. 2312, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PENAL CODE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, none.

S.B. No. 2314, S.D. 1:

Senator Keith-Agaran moved that S.B. No. 2314, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Shimabukuro.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Mr. President, I’m a member of the Women’s Legislative Caucus, and when this bill came in front of me, what it says is it would prohibit the pleading down, or a deferred acceptance of a guilty plea, when the charge is ‘abuse of a family or household member.’ And as a former practicing attorney, I didn’t sign the bill because I thought, in order for the judicial process to work, I felt that there needed to be the flexibility to do guilty pleas.

“But when the prosecutor came up and testified in front of us, what she said is that they don’t do a deferred acceptance of a guilty plea when somebody has a prior offense of an abuse of family or household member or a violent crime, because they want to reduce the risk of pleading somebody down and then releasing them back into the community. And I asked her, ‘If that’s your policy, how do you make sure that you’re following it, given the volume of cases that come through your office?’ Because in the year 2014, there were 1,453 charges of abuse of a family or household member referred by HPD to the prosecutor’s office, and that’s an annual average that was true for the prior five years. And what the prosecutor told me is, ‘We don’t have the data or mechanism to ensure that we’re not giving a deferred acceptance of guilty plea to somebody who has a prior record; it’s just our policy.’

“So, my office went back and we took a look at the case where – people may have seen this in the news – a young man, Bobby Young-Townsend, was accused in January of setting his 24-year-old girlfriend on fire. Witnesses saw her running from the car with her back, arms, and legs on fire; had to chase her down, help put the flames out. She ended up in intensive care. And in the news, I saw that this ‘gentleman’ had been previously jailed for several days for violating his orders of probation and had just been released prior to this incident. So, we went back and took a look at the record for Mr. Townsend – my staff are not practicing criminal attorneys, so we’re still trying to make sense of the record – but what we saw is in September of 2008, there was a temporary restraining order granted against Mr. Townsend. That was when he was 18 years old; we don’t have access to any prior records when he was a juvenile. In September of 2011, there was a second restraining order granted against Mr. Townsend. In February of 2012, Mr. Townsend entered into a plea agreement dismissing two out of three counts for violation of that second restraining order – so that was a deferred acceptance, or a plea down. In April of 2015, Mr. Young-Townsend entered a guilty plea and a partial plea agreement to assault in the third degree, which may have been a plea down of a violation of an abuse of a family or household member, despite the prior two temporary restraining orders and the violation of a restraining order and a violation of probation. In April of 2015, there was also a charge where there was a deferred acceptance of a guilty plea for unauthorized control, and now this latest on January 25th of 2016: Mr. Young-Townsend has been charged with attempted murder and arson.

"I'm standing here today to say I am really embarrassed and ashamed that I did not sign this bill when it first came across my desk. For those of you who want to give deference to the prosecutor's office, I'm asking you to please support this bill; we need to move this measure forward and force this conversation. This incident could have been avoided. There are many, many, many other incidents that could have been avoided, and we need to start taking these cases more seriously. So I ask that you join in support of this measure. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2314, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE OFFENSE OF ABUSE OF FAMILY OR HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, none.
