ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1022 (Gov. Msg. No. 9):

Senator Baker moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1022 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland and carried.

Senator Baker then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of CHIYOME L. FUKINO, MD, as Director of the Department of Health, term to expire December 4, 2006, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in support of Gov. Msg. No. 9, nominating Dr. Chiyome Leina'ala Fukino, as Director of the Department of Health, the first woman and the first native Hawaiian ever to serve in this important post.

"Before she was nominated to serve as Director of the Department of Health, I did not know Chiyome Fukino. Her resume looked impressive but I was concerned about her seeming lack of administrative and public health experience. However, soon after her nomination was announced, I began receiving additional information that allayed those concerns. The information your Committee received about Dr. Fukino was very positive, almost glowing.

"First, her resume or as one testifier called it, her impeccable credentials: Dr. Fukino is a Kamehameha Schools graduate, received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Brandeis University, is a graduate of the John A. Burns School of Medicine and since 1982 has been licensed to practice medicine in our State. Those who have followed her career note that Dr. Fukino has distinguished herself as a primary care internist, a general consultant, medical director and health care administrator. Her colleagues praise her compassion and professionalism. She was described during our committee hearings, as diligent, smart, fair, focused, objective, ethical, caring and pragmatic – what a role model for young women to follow. Patients expressed their regret that they would no longer have the benefit of her listening ear, sage advice and compassionate care. She will be greatly missed in private practice they said, but hope she will give the state's health care system the same attention that they received from this gentle, soft-spoken physician.

"Dr. Fukino is also well known for her passion about her work. Many testifiers emphasized her leadership and experience with native Hawaiian health issues and programs. Supporters from Ahahui o na Kauka (Association of Native Hawaiian Physicians) and Papa Ola Lokahi spoke of her exemplary advocacy for native Hawaiian health issues. They noted that Dr. Fukino is one of the founders of E Ola Mau, the first non-profit organization of native Hawaiian health care professionals dedicated to addressing the health care needs of native Hawaiians. In addition to leading this organization as president, she has coordinated many statewide programs and workshops on improving the health of native Hawaiians. In that capacity, one testifier wrote she demonstrated the 'value of partnering with others and utilizing a team approach,' a quality, I contend, that will serve her well in government. Some of her prospective staff told me confidentially how she brought together, for the first time, parts of the Department that should have been working together but hadn't been – she brought them together to begin an important dialog of collaboration for problem solving, efficiency and improved program delivery.

"She's been described by a colleague as a big picture person, who doesn't overlook the fine print. I am hopeful that this same dedication and thoroughness will be applied to the three priority areas she has identified: long-term care, substance abuse, and mental health. In addition, Dr. Fukino has acknowledged the importance of devoting resources, time and attention to long term strategies for prevention and wellness programs, areas that always seem to get cut when the budget crunches.

"Whether in meetings with stakeholder groups, testifying before the Health Committee, on a site visit to Kalaupapa or in personal conversations, I have found Dr. Fukino open and direct, a quality her professional colleagues commented on as well. But equally important, she has a profound commitment to serve the most vulnerable among our citizens and a strong sense of urgency for improving the public's health.

"All of Dr. Fukino's professional colleagues attested that she has the management experience and breadth of knowledge to be an effective Director of Health. She has an understanding of numerous issues within the health care industry as well as the requisite analytical and problem-solving skills to tackle the tough issues that will come before her Department. She is also known for her quick and creative mind and understands the importance of valid information in making wise decisions. Finally, her supporters believe she will bring a fresh perspective to a system with deficiencies to be addressed at a time of decreasing fiscal resources and court mandates. Her colleagues praised her ability to think on her feet, and her willingness to 'go outside the box,' even in the complex environment of health care, resource allocation and regulatory compliance. Expectations for this nominee are very high, indeed, regarding her ability to examine the Department of Health from a new perspective and devise original solutions to systemic problems.

"Mr. President, your Committee has performed its due diligence with regards to Gov. Msg. No. 9. We believe that the nominee has the qualities, skills and talents to be an effective leader of this varied and complex department. She will be ably assisted by a seasoned knowledgeable administrator and public health professional Dr. Jane Kadohiro. From my observation, they make a good team and it is truly a delight, Mr. President, to see this department headed up by two such capable women.

"Dr. Fukino has an awesome task ahead – to be an advocate and a leader in a time of increasing demands and dwindling resources. However, Mr. President, your Committee believes she's up to the challenge. As one testifier stated, 'In a world filled with cynicism about how the political process works, you (meaning us Senators) have the opportunity to confirm a woman who brings an integrity and freshness of spirit and focus' to her job.

"Mr. President, I am pleased to stand in strong support of Dr. Chiyome Leina`ala Fukino as the Director of Health and urge my colleagues to join me to advise and consent to this nomination.

"Mahalo."

Senator Hogue rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, on behalf of the Minority, I rise in support of Dr. Fukino, and I guess maybe I rise on behalf of the other sex here. So I rise on behalf of the men who are also impressed with this woman, Dr. Fukino, who has done a terrific, terrific job.

"Like so many of the Governor's nominees, we have seen Dr. Fukino show openness, a willingness to discuss controversial issues and see both sides of these issues. And like so many of the accolades that were given and hoisted upon her by the good Senator from Maui, besides the fact that she is intelligent and focused, Dr. Fukino has also shown that she is animated and enthusiastic. When you get into a personal conversation with her, you can feel that excitement. Colleagues, I must tell you that when you feel that excitement from her, you feel excited about that issue as well.

"So, truly she will bring a positive breath of fresh air to the Department of Health and should be and I believe will be a great director of the Department of Health in this healthy State of Hawaii. So, Dr. Fukino, we'll be voting 'yes.' Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Baker introduced Dr. Fukino, who was seated in the gallery with members of her family.

At 12:04 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:15 o'clock p.m.
