Senator Sakamoto moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on April 29, 2003, in adopting Conf. Com. Rep. No. 125 and passing S.B. No. 17, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, on Final Reading, seconded by Senator Taniguchi.

Senator Sakamoto noted:

"Mr. President, S.B. No. 17 is the bill from 2003 that advances the cutoff age for kindergarten. The Senate passed the conference draft on Final Reading on April 29, 2003 and the House recommitted the bill on the same day. Your House and Senate conferees on this measure are working to resolve out differences on the bill and are asking for this measure to be recommitted to Conference Committee for that purpose."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried.

On motion by Senator Sakamoto, seconded by Senator Taniguchi and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 125 and S.B. No. 17, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EDUCATION," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

S.B. No. 2344, S.D. 1 (H.D. 2):

The President appointed Senator Hanabusa as an additional manager on the part of the Senate at the conference to be held for the consideration of amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2344, S.D. 1.

H.B. No. 2703, H.D. 1 (S.D. 2):

The President appointed Senator Taniguchi as an additional co-chair on the part of the Senate at the conference to be held for the consideration of amendments proposed by the Senate to H.B. No. 2703, H.D. 1.

Senator Hemmings rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"I submitted to your office a formal letter addressing this issue this morning. It seems that at the start of the Session we made some calendar changes that at the time did not seem then problematic. Now that we're facing adjournment sine die next week, one of the changes does seem to be an issue that is worthy of the Majority Party's consideration, and that is that we have moved the recess day from Tuesday to Monday next week and a departure from business as usual even during this Session.

"As you well know, having a recess day on Monday allows us to spend the weekend digesting bills and of course caucusing on them on Monday and being able to submit our list of bills that we would like to discuss in Session Tuesday. We can submit that list Monday night. It seems like a fair, equitable and efficient way to do it. It's the way that, as long as I can remember in the Senate, we have been doing it.

"For this year, for reasons we suspect don't have to do with efficiency, the recess day in the last week of the Legislature has been pushed to Tuesday and we have two recess days in a row and the workday is Monday. When you request that the pull list be submitted Saturday evening by 5:00, that's putting our staff and probably more importantly the public at a decided disadvantage of being able to have adequate time to digest and go over all of the bills that weigh such impact on the people of Hawaii.

"I think there is a simple solution, Mr. President, and that is consult with leadership in the House and reinstate Tuesday as the workday and Monday as the recess day. I sure hope that this change in the calendar was not done for the sole reason of considering vetoes that are due Monday. I'm hoping that the Majority Party will see fit to consider this request of the Floor to adjust the days to the more efficient and open way of doing things so that your Minority Party and more importantly, as I've said, the public will have adequate access to the legislation and time to adequately look at it to do whatever's needed to be done.

"So, Mr. President, I would appreciate your consideration."

The President then inquired:

"When did you submit your letter, Senator Hemmings?"

Senator Hemmings replied:

"I drafted the letter this morning and it was submitted to your staff approximately an hour ago."

The President then stated:

"We will digest that letter and we'll bring it up with the House."

Senator Hemmings then said:

"Thank you very much, Mr. President, I appreciate the courtesy."
