
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO HOUSING.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. According to the most recent census data,
2 grandparents and other relatives are raising more than six
3 million children in the United States. The United States Census
4 Bureau reports that more than two million grandparents are 5 raising 4.5 million children in the United States, and other 6 relatives are raising an additional 1.5 million children. In 7 Hawaii, more than fourteen thousand grandparents are the primary 8 caregivers for their grandchildren.

9 Families in Hawaii headed by grandparents and other elderly
10 relatives who need assistance with affordable housing are faced
11 with age restrictions on residents living in elder housing 12 facilities.

13 The purpose of this Act is to extend eligibility for elder 14 or elderly housing to a member of an elder household who is the 15 primary caregiver for a minor child to whom the caregiver is 16 related by blood or marriage.

1 SECTION 2. Section 201G-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by adding a new definition to be appropriately inserted
3 and to read as follows:

4 "Relative caregiver" means a relative of a minor child by 5 blood or marriage, who is a resident of the State and:

6 (1) Lives with the child; and

7 (2) Is the child's primary caregiver, whether formally or 8 informally, because the biological or adoptive parents
9 are unwilling or unable to serve as the primary 10 caregiver for the child."

11 SECTION 3. Section 201G-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 12 amended by amending the definition of "elder or elderly 13 households" to read as follows:

14 "Elder or elderly households" means households in which at 15 least one member is sixty-two years of age, the spouse or 16 partner has attained the age of majority, and the remaining 17 members have attained the age of fifty-five years at the time of 18 application to the public housing project[-]; provided that it
19 also may include households in which an elder is the relative 20 caregiver for one or more minor children. Such a child shall 21 cease to be a resident of the household upon attaining the age
22 of majority, or upon the removal from the project of the elder.

1 A live-in aide shall cease to be a resident therein upon the 2 recovery of, or removal from the project of, the elder."

3 SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
4 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

5 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2006.
