
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT A FINANCIAL AND MANAGEMENT
AUDIT OF THE CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT AGENCY.

1 WHEREAS, the child support enforcement program implements a
2 federal/state effort to collect child support from absent
3 parents and, in Hawaii, the state agency managing the program is 4 the Child Support Enforcement Agency within the Department of 5 the Attorney General; and 6

7 WHEREAS, the Child Support Enforcement Agency has a staff
8 of support enforcement officers, investigators, accountants,
9 attorneys, paralegals, and other personnel who help establish 10 and enforce orders to collect child support; and 11

12 WHEREAS, the Child Support Enforcement Agency, on a case-
13 by-case basis, offers the following services:
14

- 15 (1) Locating an absent parent;
16
17 (2) Establishing paternity;
18
19 (3) Establishing, modifying, and terminating support
20 obligations;
21
22 (4) Collecting and disbursing support obligations; and 23
24 (5) Enforcing delinquent child support obligations; and 25

26 WHEREAS, the Agency handles more than one hundred eleven 27 thousand active collection accounts involving more than 28 $104,000,000 annually and agency caseworkers handle an average 29 of five hundred twenty cases each; and 30

31 WHEREAS, over the years, there have been persistent
32 complaints about the inefficient operation of the Child Support
33 Enforcement Agency; and

1
2 WHEREAS, for example, The Honolulu Advertiser reported on 3 April 10, 2005, that Hawaii's Child Support Enforcement Agency
4 had failed to collect more than a $500,000 in delinquent
5 payments for parents and their children, ranking last among all 6 states in collecting overdue child support, according to federal 7 and state records; and

8
9 WHEREAS, that figure would have been higher if Child
10 Support and Enforcement Agency officials did not artificially
11 improve the numbers in 2004 by shelving nearly five thousand
12 accounts worth $11,800,000 so that those accounts were no longer 13 reported to federal regulators as delinquent; and

14
15 WHEREAS, in late 2003 independent auditors found that the 16 Agency's past performance has been so dismal that it has cost 17 the State millions of dollars in federal payments that serve as 18 incentives for states to improve their child support collections 19 and distributions; and

20
21 WHEREAS, parents who have custody of their children and 22 have been waiting years for the State to collect at least some 23 of the money owed to them report that the child support
24 enforcement system is broken; some parents have waited decades
25 to see any payment, while others have been forced onto welfare 26 rolls; and

27
28 WHEREAS, state taxpayers absorb some of the cost of the 29 Child Support Enforcement Agency's inefficiency because, to 30 ensure that needy children are provided for even if a parent
31 reneges on child support, the State first provides welfare 32 assistance, and then attempts to collect reimbursement from the 33 responsible parent; and

34
35 WHEREAS, according to the State, 2,491 of the child support 36 accounts that were shelved in 2004 involved $5,900,000 in 37 welfare assistance paid to the custodial parents who were not 38 receiving child support from their former partners--taxpayer
39 money that the Child Support Enforcement Agency will not attempt 40 to recover; and

41
42 WHEREAS, of the five thousand accounts shelved in 2004, 43 1,461 accounts involved $5,800,000 owed to custodial parents and 44 their children by nonpaying responsible parents, averaging

1 $3,986 per account, with one account reaching a debt of $80,000;
2 and

3
4 WHEREAS, according to state and federal figures, in October
5 2003, child-support delinquencies in Hawaii totaled
6 $533,340,151; and

7
8 WHEREAS, for the fiscal year ending in September 2003,
9 Hawaii accounted for 53,681 cases of child-support delinquencies 10 but collected money in just forty per cent of the accounts and 11 ranks below all the other states except the District of Columbia 12 with a thirty-seven per cent collection rate; and

13
14 WHEREAS, independent auditors noted that in 2001 and 2002, 15 the Child Support Enforcement Agency had to return a total of 16 $1,600,000 in federal incentive payments, in part because the 17 agency failed to meet required collection and distribution 18 performance levels and that from 1998 to 2002, the agency had 19 not claimed $3,700,000 in reimbursements available from the 20 federal government for certain administrative expenses; and

21
22 WHEREAS, recurring audits of the Child Support Enforcement
23 Agency have shown a pattern of similar deficiencies over the 24 years including a lack of internal financial and management
25 controls and it is imperative that the child support enforcement 26 system be corrected; now, therefore,

27
28 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 29 Twenty-third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
30 of 2006, the Senate concurring, that the Auditor is requested to 31 conduct a financial and management audit of the Child Support
32 Enforcement Agency; and

33
34 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Attorney General and the 35 Administrator of the Child Support Enforcement Agency are 36 requested to fully cooperate with the Auditor in the conduct of 37 the financial and management audit; and

38
39 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Auditor is requested to 40 submit the results of the financial and management audit,
41 including any necessary proposed legislation, to the Legislature
42 no later than twenty days prior to the convening of the Regular 43 Session of 2007; and

44

H.C.R. NO. 163

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 2 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Auditor, the 3 Attorney General, and the Administrator of the Child Support
4 Enforcement Agency.
