14
15 WHEREAS, many forms of alternative medicine, such as 16 naturopathy, acupuncture, and massage therapy, require 17 practitioners to be licensed; and

18
19 WHEREAS, in order for the residents of Hawaii to have a

21 require health insurers to cover alternative, complementary, and 22 integrative forms of health care services; and

23
24 WHEREAS, a comparison of health care legislation in other
25 states is essential to show trends in alternative health care
26 insurance coverage, cost benefits experienced by other states,
27 and guidelines for drafting new insurance plans in Hawaii; now, 28 therefore,

29
