
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

SUPPORTING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES
REGARDING THE RIGHT OF ALL CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES TO A PUBLIC EDUCATION OF EQUAL HIGH QUALITY.

1 WHEREAS, public education is the cornerstone of the future
2 strength and viability of our local communities and the state
3 and nation as a whole; and

4
5 WHEREAS, public education is a potential lifeline for the 6 continued evolution and realization of the principles of 7 democracy upon which this nation was founded; and

8
9 WHEREAS, the right to a free and public education is not 10 guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States; and

11
12 WHEREAS, currently the responsibility for creating,
13 funding, and maintaining effective and high-quality public
14 education systems falls on the shoulders of states, state 15 legislatures, local school boards, and disparate populations of 16 taxpayers; and

17
18 WHEREAS, the quality and funding of public education varies
19 greatly among the states, counties, and local school districts; 20 and

21
22 WHEREAS, many states, including Hawaii, do not always have 23 the resources to create the type of high-quality education 24 system that our children, adolescents, and young adults need to 25 acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to lead successful
26 careers and satisfying lives as productive members of society;
27 now, therefore,

28
29 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 30 Twenty-third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session 31 of 2006, the Senate concurring, that the Legislature supports an 32 amendment to the Constitution of the United States regarding the

1 right of all citizens of the United States to a public education
2 of equal high quality, as presented in House Joint Resolution
3 29, which was introduced by United States Representative Jesse 4 L. Jackson, Jr., from the Second Congressional District of 5 Illinois, stating:
