
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO DEFINITIONS FOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that, when it enacted Act
2 11, Special Session Laws of Hawaii 2005, the implementation of
3 that Act had the unintended consequence of prolonging certain
4 processes of the workers' compensation law. For example, with 5 the adoption of the department of labor and industrial
6 relations' definition of the terms "day" or "days" under section
7 1 of Act 11, Special Session Laws of Hawaii 2005, the law now
8 defines these terms to mean working days, as opposed to calendar
9 days. For injured workers waiting for payment of a claim or a
10 decision on a contested claim, the change from calendar days to 11 business days often unnecessarily prolongs the workers'
12 compensation process and, in some cases, requires the injured
13 employee to wait longer for treatment of a work-related injury.

14 The purpose of this Act is to repeal the definition of the 15 terms "day" or "days" in the State's workers' compensation law.

16 SECTION 2. Section 386-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 17 amended by repealing the definition of "day" or "days".

1 [~~"Day" or "days" means working days, unless otherwise~~
2 ~~provided.~~"]

3 SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
4 and stricken.

5 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2006.
