“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

No. 2487 Committee on Water, Land, and Agriculture, then to the Committee on Transportation and Government Operations

“On January 19, 2006, I invoked Rule 84, Mr. President, and posed a series of questions both orally and in writing to the Senate Clerk. To this date, I have not received all the itemized information that I requested. While the Clerk responded just this morning with travel costs and an earlier memo that he is still gathering the information I requested, I have allowed more than adequate time for him to put this information together.

No. 2488 Committee on Transportation and Government Operations, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

“The information that I have requested has been previously asked for by me and is not new and should be readily available by this time. Therefore, Mr. President, under Rule 84 and the uniform information practice, if I do not receive this information by 4:30 today, I ask that the Clerk meet with me tomorrow at 11:00 a.m. to allow me access to the records that I request in his office. I have also submitted a second memo to the Clerk on January 23rd to ensure that what I’m asking for is very clear.

No. 2489 Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs

“Thank you.”
