Senator Hee moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3285 be adopted and H.B. No. 1787, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

Senator Whalen rose in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

"Mr. President, obviously, this bill is an attempt to address the situation that doesn't really exist in Hawaii. It's been across the mainland where cars have been stolen with a child left inside. The thief usually didn't know about it because the car was quickly abandoned with the child inside. Certainly, in a situation like that, Mr. President, that is a very dangerous situation for a child. But once again, we use the shotgun approach to deal with this problem. We've made it illegal now, or a violation rather, to have a 14-year-old child watch another child in the car if they are under nine years old.

"Mr. President, my 13-year-old son regularly watches my kids when my wife and I aren't available. He makes them their food and takes care of them. He knows our cell numbers. He's a very responsible kid. This bill right now makes it illegal for my wife to stop the car, open the door, take two steps outside to throw something in the garbage can, because under the law, she's leaving the car. She's leaving the children inside unsupervised. It's now a violation.

"If the situation is that a 14-year-old child is not responsible enough to watch another child, then we should make it illegal for that to happen anyplace, anytime, whether it's in a car, a house, an apartment, out in the yard, playing sports.

"The problem that we're trying to deal with here, Mr. President, is the illegal behavior of a car thief, not the responsibility or irresponsibility of a child. What we're doing is we're punishing . . . I know we heard this argument before, but what we're doing is we're punishing law-abiding families for the illegal behavior of some. And if that was dangerous – to leave a 14-year-old with an 8-year-old – we already have a law on the books about endangering the welfare of a minor. So this bill is completely unnecessary if it was endangering. But because it's not endangering, we are now making it illegal.

"I wish, as a body, we would not have these knee-jerk reactions without thinking clearly through what's going on, because even the bill itself might even be deemed unconstitutional because it's so vague about what is leaving.

"One final note, not to draw it on, but on one hand we're saying that if you're 14 years old, you can consent to very dangerous medical procedures without your parent's knowledge or consent, but yet that same 14-year-old is so irresponsible that they can't watch an 8-year-old in the car.

"I urge my colleagues to vote 'no' or at least kill it in Committee."

At 12:11 o'clock p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:29 o'clock p.m.
