§304A-I Pledge of revenue of the university. The 3 resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds may pledge 4 to the payment thereof all or any part of the revenue of the 5 university, and the pledge shall constitute a lien on revenue of 6 the university to the extent and in the manner provided in the 7 resolution prior and paramount to any claim or other obligation 8 of any nature against the revenue of the university so pledged 9 subsequently arising or incurred. The board may provide in the 10 resolution that all revenue bonds of the same issue be equally 11 and ratably secured without priority by reason of number, date, 12 or maturity of the bonds, date of sale, execution, or delivery 13 thereof. Each revenue bond shall recite in 11 substance that the revenue bond, including interest thereon, is 12 payable from and secured by the revenue of the university 13 pledged to the payment thereof, and that the revenue bond does 14 not constitute a general or moral obligation or indebtedness of 15 the State within the meaning of any law. 16
