HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY TO ESTABLISH A TASK FORCE TO STUDY THE FEASIBILITY OF A NATIVE HAWAIIAN HEALING PROGRAM ON THE ISLAND OF KAHO'OLAWE FOR NATIVE HAWAIIANS AND OTHER PERSONS INCARCERATED IN CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES.

WHEREAS, Kahoʻolawe is a sacred island to the native Hawaiian people, as evidenced by ancient chants and archeological sites, and believed to have been inhabited for more than 1,000 years; and

WHEREAS, subsequent to Kahoʻolawe's transfer from the Republic of Hawaiʻi to the United States in 1898, cattle and sheep were introduced to the island, resulting in a negative environmental impacts such as soil erosion; and

WHEREAS, in August 1910, the Territorial Board of Agriculture designated Kahoʻolawe as a forest reserve and attempted to revegetate the island; however, realizing these attempts were futile in light of the proliferation of goats on the island, the Territorial Board redesignated the island, transferred it to the Commissioner of Public Lands, whereby it was leased to cattle ranchers; and

WHEREAS, in 1941, the United States leased part of Kaho'olawe for military purposes, using the island as a testing and training range for military weapons, beginning five decades of military bombardment and control of the island; and

WHEREAS, in 1981, Kahoʻolawe was designated an Archeological District and listed on the National Register of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, in 1993, Title X of the Department of Defense and Appropriations Act conveyed Kahoʻolawe and its surrounding waters to the State, providing for "meaningful safe use of the island for appropriate cultural, historical, archeological, and educational purposes as determined by the State of Hawaii"; and

WHEREAS, in 1993, Chapter 6K, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), was enacted, creating the Kahoʻolawe Island Reserve Commission (KIRC) and reserving its uses solely and exclusively for the:

(1) Preservation and practice of all rights customarily and traditionally exercised by native Hawaiians for cultural, spiritual, and subsistence purposes;

(2) Preservation and protection of its archaeological, historical, and environmental resources;

(3) Rehabilitation, revegetation, habitat restoration, and preservation; and

(4) Education;

WHEREAS, section 6K-9, HRS, provides "that the State shall transfer management and control of the island and its waters to the sovereign native Hawaiian entity upon its recognition by the United States and the State of Hawaii"; and

WHEREAS, Kaho'olawe has served as the foundation for the revitalization of native Hawaiian cultural practices; and

 WHEREAS, the Girls' Court Program, a gender-specific and strength-based program targeting female juvenile offenders, was granted the unique opportunity to volunteer on Kaho'olawe as part of the KIRC's program, where they lived together, shared, and restored the land by planting native species of vegetation, cleared trails and paths, and learned about the island's history; and

WHEREAS, these young women benefited personally, spiritually, and educationally from this unique experience through learning about native Hawaiian culture and traditions, providing community service, and self-discovery about their young womanhood; and

WHEREAS, a similar program for offenders targeted at healing and teaching native Hawaiian traditions and cultural practices would greatly benefit these individuals who could also develop a cultural connection to Kaho'olawe by increasing their knowledge and providing a purpose for them and for future generations of Hawaii's people; and

WHEREAS, according to Department of Public Safety (DPS) statistics published in 2005, approximately 44 percent of female offenders and 37 percent of male offenders are native Hawaiian; and 15

WHEREAS, this program would house at least 40 offenders, preparing them to become stewards of the land, learn life skills with an emphasis on native Hawaiian cultural traditions, and become acquainted or reacquainted with their rich heritage so that in helping to heal Kaho'olawe, they would also help heal themselves; and 19 20 21

23 24

WHEREAS, a volunteer program for such offenders would provide a unique opportunity for the many native Hawaiian offenders and others incarcerated in correctional facilities to return home to be paroled, put on probation, or put on workrelease; and

25 26 27

WHEREAS, volunteers in this program would have regular or instantaneous review immediately prior to and after their participation in this program in much that same way as the operation of Drug Court and Girls' Court; now, therefore,
