HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

ENCOURAGING PARTICIPATION IN THE BLACK RIBBON AND BLACK ARM BAND CAMPAIGN AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE.

1           WHEREAS, according to the Surgeon General, United States
2 Public Health Service, domestic violence is a problem of 3 epidemic proportions; and

5           WHEREAS, according to the Community Overcoming Relationship 6 Abuse organization, also known as CORA, a woman is abused every 7 nine seconds, 3,000,000 to 10,000,000 children witness domestic
8 violence every year, and one in five high school females
9 experience dating violence; and 10

11           WHEREAS, a fact sheet prepared by the National Coalition
12 Against Domestic Violence stated that in 1999, there were 8,013
13 reported cases of domestic violence in Hawaii; and 14

15           WHEREAS, the Honolulu Police Department estimates that it
16 spends up to one-third to one-half of their work time responding
17 to "domestic" calls; and 18

19           WHEREAS, in addition to the physical and psychological
20 effects of domestic violence on the victim and the victim's
21 family, there are job-related consequences; and 22

23           WHEREAS, domestic violence is the number one cause of 24 injury to women, and CORA estimates that it costs the American 25 economy between $8,000,000,000 to $10,000,000,000 in 26 absenteeism, medical costs, employee turnover, lost
27 productivity, and other costs; and 28

29           WHEREAS, the goals of the Black Ribbon and Black Arm Band
30 Campaign are to urge men to show their support for:
31

32           (1) Ending men's violence against women;

- (2) Raising awareness of the problem in the community;
- (3) Conducting educational work in schools, workplaces, and communities; and
- (4) Supporting organizations that assist with the consequences of violence against women; and

WHEREAS, wearing a black ribbon and black arm band is a statement that an individual will never commit, condone, nor remain silent about violence against women; and

WHEREAS, wearing a black ribbon and black arm band encourages reflection and discussion that will lead to personal and collective action among men to stop violence against women; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fourth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2008, the Senate concurring, that the Legislature encourages participation in the Black Ribbon and Black Arm Band Campaign against domestic violence; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Hawaii State Coalition Against Domestic Violence.
