4 commerce, transportation, banking, and tourism hub of 5 the Pacific;

6 (6) Develop an international affairs and peace education
7 curriculum that includes studies of international 8 affairs and peace initiatives and takes a proactive,
9 strategic approach to the development of policies that 10 promote the prevention of national and international 11 conflict, nonviolent intervention, mediation, peaceful 12 resolution of conflict, and structured mediation of 13 conflict; [~~and~~]

14 (7) Provide for exchanges of individuals between Hawaii
15 and other nations to develop international and peace-
16 based initiatives[-];

17 (8) Support the activities of the peace mission committee
18 pursuant to subsection (d); and

19 (9) Support the activities commemorating Peace Day
20 pursuant to section 8-16.

21 (c) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if any 22 of the responsibilities or duties of the office of international

1 affairs under this section overlap with the responsibilities or 2 duties of another agency or authority under this chapter, the 3 office of international affairs shall have exclusive 4 jurisdiction and authority over those responsibilities and 5 duties.

6 (d) There is established a committee to be known as the 7 peace mission committee, which shall be placed within the office
8 of international affairs for administrative purposes. The 9 purpose of the peace mission committee shall be to plan and 10 develop:

11 (1) Peace missions to other nations and international 12 organizations; provided that the peace mission is not 13 in violation of federal law;

14 (2) Cultural exchange and goodwill programs with other 15 nations' education, business, and community sectors;
16 and

17 (3) Charitable donation programs with other nations,
18 provided that the programs do not violate any treaties
19 or international policies involving the United States.

20 The committee shall be a permanent body within the 21 department of business, economic development, and tourism. The 22 committee shall consist of seven members who shall be appointed,

1 without regard to section 26-34. The committee members shall 2 include members from the private, public, community at large,
3 and academic sectors. The speaker of the house of 4 representatives shall select two members. The president of the 5 senate shall select two members. The governor shall select 6 three members.

7 The members shall not receive compensation for their 8 services but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses, 9 including travel expenses, incurred in the performance of their 10 duties under this subsection. Any member of the committee shall 11 be immune from civil liability, as provided for under section 12 26-35.5.

13 In its efforts to conduct peace missions, initiate cultural 14 exchange and goodwill programs, and develop charitable donation 15 programs with other nations and international organizations, the 16 committee may seek grants from public and private sources and 17 may accept donations to finance its projects, programs, and 18 activities. The director of business, economic development, and 19 tourism may direct any or as many employees the director deems 20 appropriate to staff the committee.

21 The committee shall submit a written report of its 22 activities on an annual basis to the legislature no later than

1 twenty days prior to the convening of each regular session,
2 beginning with the regular session of 2009."

3 SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general
4 revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $ or so 5 much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2008-2009 to be 6 used by the peace mission committee for the purposes of this 7 Act.

8 The sum appropriated shall be expended by the department of 9 business, economic development, and tourism for the purposes of 10 this Act.

11 SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
12 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

13 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2008.
