
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT ACCOUNTS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that economic stability
2 does not arise solely from income; financial assets, including 3 cash savings, stocks, bonds, and home and business equity are 4 all critical components of economic security. The accumulation
5 of financial assets can offer individuals hope for the future,
6 stimulate growth in all societal sectors, and enhance the 7 welfare of families and children. For example, a home is often 8 a primary asset for a family in Hawaii and forms a large 9 component of household net worth for most Americans.

10 The legislature further finds that saving for a down 11 payment on a home is a formidable prospect for too many low- and 12 moderate-income earners in Hawaii. While developing affordable 13 housing properties is necessary, it is equally important to 14 invest in additional strategies that can also expand a family's 15 ability to purchase a home. Individual development accounts 16 (IDAs) are special savings accounts that match the deposits of 17 low- and moderate-income account holders to save towards certain

1 qualified financial goals. IDAs have provided proven assistance
2 to families who are saving to purchase a home, pay higher 3 education expenses, and fulfill other asset-building goals.

4 The purpose of this Act is to support asset-building among 5 low- and moderate-income families by:

- 6 (1) Clarifying the guidelines for IDAs;
- 7 (2) Designating the department of human services or a 8 contracted agency to administer IDAs; and
- 9 (3) Appropriating funds for IDA programs.

11 amended as follows:

13 and to read:

14 ""Department" means the department of human services or
