A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Hawaii's desire for 2 economic growth that benefits all residents depends on building
3 our State's human resources.

4 Realization of Hawaii's longstanding desire for economic 5 diversification and sustainability turns on applying the State's 6 high skilled resources to the creation and adoption of 7 innovation across the economy.

8 Legislative Package for 2007 Legislative Session

9 This Act is part of an initial package of initiatives
10 focusing on innovation introduced for the 2007 regular session.
11 This package is intended to achieve:

- 12 (1) A twenty-first century workforce with science,
13 technology, engineering, math, and problem-solving
14 skills sufficient to ensure innovation and 15 sustainability of Hawaii's economy;
- 16 (2) Higher education institutions as "drivers" for 17 innovation;

S.B. NO. 1367

- 1 (3) Continued public investment in the State's innovation
2 infrastructure;
- 3 (4) Addressing the capital gap for Hawaii's emerging
4 technology and creative industry companies;
- 5 (5) Opportunities for incumbent workers to engage in life-
6 long learning and skill-building;
- 7 (6) Residents and businesses with international exposure,
8 orientation, and skills to interact with and compete
9 in a global economy;
- 10 (7) An innovation environment that encourages the creation
11 of new products and services that command global 12 market share; and
- 13 (8) Analytical capability to assess policy performance and 14 progress toward innovation economy objectives.

15 In particular, this Act expands the role of the office of 16 international affairs to include the facilitation, coordination, 17 and promotion of educational relationships and exchanges with 18 other countries through collaboration with and funding of 19 existing international programs and organizations. It also 20 clarifies the office's position as the central point of 21 accountability in international affairs.

1 SECTION 2. Globalization refers to the increasing
2 integration of economies and societies around the world, enabled 3 by human innovation and technological progress. It has set in 4 motion the means by which goods, services, ideas, and capital
5 can flow relatively freely across national borders. It has not 6 only enabled new types of activity, but it has also empowered
7 individuals and small businesses to undertake economic activity
8 that previously was reserved for large multinational firms.
9 While it has increased a whole range of opportunities for those 10 with minimum means, ability, and willingness to participate in 11 this new global economy, it has also created major challenges.
12 For young people graduating from high school or college, this 13 has meant that they now have to compete for jobs globally.

14 The new global economy demands that we establish Hawaii as a
15 community of lifelong learners, where children build a strong 16 foundation in internationalism during the K-12 years, and where 17 flexible, responsive, and continuing education and training are 18 available to meet the challenges of the global economy and are 19 available to all of Hawaii's adults.

20 There are a number of factors - including our location,
21 multicultural and ethnic population, and an environment
22 conducive to discussion and negotiation - that support Hawaii as

1 a center for international conferences. However, very little or 2 no concerted effort has been made to bring resources, plans, and 3 programs together and in line with any form of a larger vision
4 for Hawaii, within the context of a rapidly globalizing world.

5 The legislature understands that in order to advance global 6 competitiveness through education, there needs to be 7 coordination between the State, counties, educational 8 institutions, and private agencies on international affairs, as 9 well as a central point of accountability and a leveraging of 10 resources.

11 Section 201-17, Hawaii Revised Statutes, established the 12 office of international affairs to carry out various 13 international responsibilities and duties, but left out
14 education and training as a means to prepare Hawaii for a 15 globalized world. It also did not specify that the office of 16 international affairs would be the coordinator on international
17 matters for the State. And finally, it did not provide funding
18 for the office to carry out its broad mandate. This Act
19 remedies those problems.

20 SECTION 3. Section 201-17, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 21 amended to read as follows:

1 "[+]§201-17[+] Office of international affairs;
