Report Title:

Procurement; Mandatory Training

Description:

Coordinates responsibility for procurement training from the department of human resources development to state procurement office; provides that initial training is to be mandatory for all state procurement officers and thereafter follow-up sessions for those officers as determined by the state procurement office to be in need of training based upon the history of compliance with the governmental body to which the procurement officer is attached, or as otherwise selected for attendance for any reason by the state procurement office. Attendance for other state procurement officers at follow-up sessions and for county procurement officers at all sessions is encouraged.
