
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO INTERSTATE COMPACT ON EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR MILITARY CHILDREN.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that military personnel
2 and their families face numerous barriers due to frequent moves
3 and deployment in ensuring the educational success of their 4 children. Moving and changing schools can be extremely 5 difficult for military families, but especially for military
6 children. The educational curriculum and education requirements
7 vary tremendously between states, school districts, and even

10 children receive an appropriate education through smooth
11 transitions.

12 The legislature finds that several states are currently 13 considering legislation for the enactment of the Interstate
14 Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children.
15 Before considering adoption of the compact, the provisions of 16 the compact, the current practices of the department of 17 education in handling the educational requirements for military

2 issues relating to military children should first be examined.
