A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO TAXATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1       SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act, to be known as the 2 "Ohana Tax Reduction Act," is to provide an additional personal 3 exemption for any dependent age eighteen or younger for families 4 with a federal adjusted gross income of $200,000 or less and to 5 increase the tax relief provided by the child and dependent care
6 credit provided by section 235-55.6, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

7       Taxpayers with children in Hawaii face a daunting challenge
8 due to Hawaii's high cost of living. From birth, children 9 require items necessary to ensure their safety and growth, both 10 physically and mentally. From playpens and safety rails for 11 young children to backpacks, pencils, and paper for school-aged 12 children, parents are faced with providing these necessities to 13 their children. Providing an additional exemption per child 14 would help Hawaii's struggling families to cope with these 15 expenses.

16       In addition, Hawaii's high cost of living has forced a 17 growing number of families and dependent providers to enter the 18 workforce in order to make ends meet. The cost of childcare and

1 elder-dependent care has skyrocketed because of the high demand
2 and absolute need for such services in Hawaii.

3 The legislature finds that families are faced with little 4 alternative with regard to caring for dependents -- either work 5 and pay for care; or not work, care for dependents, and verge on 6 succumbing to poverty. The legislature further finds that the 7 foregoing alternatives are unacceptable for Hawaii taxpayers.

8 The purpose of this Act is to provide meaningful financial 9 relief to the ohana that care for children and dependents in 10 Hawaii.

11 SECTION 2. Section 235-54, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 12 amended to read as follows:

13 "§235-54 Exemptions. (a) In computing the taxable income 14 of any individual, there shall be deducted, in lieu of the 15 personal exemptions allowed by the Internal Revenue Code, 16 personal exemptions computed as follows: Ascertain the number of 17 exemptions which the individual can lawfully claim under the 18 Internal Revenue Code, add an additional exemption for the 19 taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse who is sixty-five years of age 20 or older within the taxable year, and multiply that number by 21 $1,040, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984. A 22 nonresident shall prorate the personal exemptions on account of

1 income from sources outside the State as provided in section 235-
2 5. In the case of an individual with respect to whom an 3 exemption under this section is allowable to another taxpayer for 4 a taxable year beginning in the calendar year in which the 5 individual's taxable year begins, the personal exemption amount 6 applicable to such individual under this subsection for such 7 individual's taxable year shall be zero.

8 (b) In computing the taxable income of an estate or trust 9 there shall be allowed, in lieu of the deductions allowed under 10 subsection (a), the following:

11 (1) An estate shall be allowed a deduction of $400.

12 (2) A trust which, under its governing instrument, is 13 required to distribute all of its income currently 14 shall be allowed a deduction of $200.

15 (3) All other trusts shall be allowed a deduction of $80.

16 (c) A blind person, a deaf person, and any person totally 17 disabled, in lieu of the personal exemptions allowed by the 18 Internal Revenue Code, shall be allowed, and there shall be 19 deducted in computing the taxable income of a blind person, a 20 deaf person, or a totally disabled person, instead of the 21 exemptions provided by subsection (a), the amount of $7,000.

S.B. NO. 3111

1        (d) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2008, 2 an individual taxpayer may claim an additional exemption, in 3 addition to the other exemptions in this section, known as the 4 "Ohana exemption." The additional exemption may be claimed for 5 each qualified dependent, age eighteen and under, which the 6 taxpayer may lawfully claim under the Internal Revenue Code.
 7 The taxpayer may ascertain the additional exemption by 8 multiplying the number of qualified dependents age eighteen and 9 under that may be lawfully claimed under the Internal Revenue
 10 Code by the exemption amount for the respective federal adjusted 11 gross income below:

Federal adjusted gross income	Ohana exemption amount
13 $100,000 and under	$1,000
14 $100,001 up to $200,000	$500
15 Over $200,000	$0

16        For purposes of this subsection, including determination of 17 the adjusted gross income limitation, a married couple filing a 18 joint return will be treated as one taxpayer. A husband and 19 wife filing separate returns for a taxable year for which a 20 joint return could have been filed by them shall claim only the 21 additional exemptions to which they would have been entitled had 22 a joint return been filed."

1 SECTION 3. Section 235-55.6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by amending subsections (a), (b), and (c) to read as 3 follows:

4 "(a) Allowance of credit.

5 (1) In general. For each resident taxpayer, who files an 6 individual income tax return for a taxable year, and 7 who is not claimed or is not otherwise eligible to be 8 claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer for federal 9 or Hawaii state individual income tax purposes, [~~who~~ 10 ~~maintains a household which includes as a member one or~~ 11 ~~more qualifying individuals (as defined in subsection~~ 12 ~~(b)(1))~~], for which there are one or more qualifying 13 individuals (as defined in subsection (b)(1) with 14 respect to such individual), there shall be allowed as 15 a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for 16 the taxable year an amount equal to the applicable 17 percentage of the employment-related expenses (as 18 defined in subsection (b)(2)) paid by such individual 19 during the taxable year. If the tax credit claimed by 20 a resident taxpayer exceeds the amount of income tax 21 payment due from the resident taxpayer, the excess of 22 the credit over payments due shall be refunded to the

1 resident taxpayer; provided that tax credit properly
2 claimed by a resident individual who has no income tax 3 liability shall be paid to the resident individual; and 4 provided further that no refunds or payment on account
5 of the tax credit allowed by this section shall be made 6 for amounts less than $1.

7 (2) Applicable percentage defined. For purposes of 8 paragraph (1), the term "applicable percentage" means

11 fraction thereof) by which the taxpayer's adjusted

SB. NO. 3111

JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Taxation

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION.

PURPOSE: To provide an additional personal exemption for any dependent age eighteen and younger for households with $200,000 or less in federal adjusted gross income. In addition, to increase the amount of qualifying expenses eligible for the credit provided in section 235-55.6, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), and to make other housekeeping amendments to conform to section 21 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

MEANS: Amend sections 235-54 and 235-55.6(a), (b), (c), and (e), HRS.

JUSTIFICATION: Taxpayers with children, dependent elderly parents, and disabled dependents, face a significant additional financial burden in caring for these dependents. In addition to expenses incurred for the basic care of dependents, taxpayers with school-aged dependents often incur costs associated with the purchase of school supplies, after school programs, and other necessities not funded by the school systems. In light of the increased expenses attributable to caring for children, an additional income tax exemption is warranted to provide economic relief to taxpayers with such dependents. The additional exemption provided by this legislation is known as the "Ohana Exemption." Specifically, this legislation allows taxpayers with dependents age eighteen and younger to claim an additional exemption of $1,000 for households with income of $100,000 or less. In addition, this legislation allows taxpayers to claim an additional exemption of $500 for each dependent age eighteen and under for households with income of more than $100,000 and up to $200,000.

The cost of caring for children, disabled dependents, and dependent elderly parents is significant in Hawaii. To ease this burden, this Act increases the amount of qualifying expenses eligible for the credit provided in section 235-55.6, HRS, to $5,000 per dependent. This legislation also makes other housekeeping amendments to section 235-55.6, HRS, to maintain consistent conformity to section 21, IRC.

Impact on the public: All families with school-aged children, disabled dependents, and dependent elderly parents will benefit from these tax provisions and receive much needed economic relief from the rising costs of education-related and care-related expenses.

Impact on the department and other agencies: The department will be responsible for administering the tax exemptions.

GENERAL FUND: $9,000,000 for FY 2009; $25,900,000 for FY 2010 and thereafter.

OTHER FUNDS: None.

PPBS PROGRAM DESIGNATION: TAX 100.

OTHER AFFECTED AGENCIES: None.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon approval, and shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2007; provided that the amendments to section 235-54, HRS, providing an additional exemption for dependents aged 18 and under, shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2008.
