DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

TESTIMONY ON HOUSE BILL 2588
RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC SAFETY &
MILITARY AFFAIRS

JANUARY 31, 2008

BY

OFFICE OF VETERANS' SERVICES

Good morning Chair Cindy Evans, Vice Chair Sharon Har, and members of the Committee.

I am Mark Moses, Director for the Office of Veterans' Services (OVS). We strongly support the intent of House Bill 2588, as long as it does not replace or adversely impact priorities as indicated in the Executive Supplemental Budget Request.

We share this Legislature's interest in residence for tuition fee purposes to veterans who have served our country honorably and want to attend any campus of the University of Hawaii system.

We suggest that tuition residence should be granted to Honorably Discharged veterans who are residents of a state, district or territory, including Washington D.C, Guam, American Samoa, and the Federated States of Micronesia. A tuition residency program targeted to veterans will demonstrate this State's commitment to the men and women who served in dangerous locations. It will also benefit our community, as better-educated veterans will tend to be more employable and eligible for advancement. We defer to the University of Hawaii to determine the cost implications of implementing this program.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to submit testimony.

HB 2588 – Relating to the University of Hawai'i

Chair Evans, Vice Chair Har, and Members of the Committee:

The purpose of HB 2588 is to grant resident tuition to veterans at the University of Hawai'i.

While the University appreciates the outstanding service that military veterans have provided to our country, we are opposed to this bill for both administrative and substantive reasons.

First of all, section 304A-402, Hawai'i Revised Statutes, defines residency for tuition purposes at the University of Hawai'i. All ten campuses of the UH System use this definition, along with Hawai'i Administrative Rules which further delineate the policies of residency for tuition purposes, to determine whether a student is deemed a resident or non-resident in paying tuition. In the past, the Hawai'i Revised Statutes included a section which listed categories of students who were waived the non-resident tuition differential, which allowed them to pay in-state tuition. They were not, however, deemed Hawai'i residents for tuition purposes. This section of HRS was recently repealed and more appropriately placed in UH Board of Regents policy. The pertinent section is attached.

Therefore, we ask that the Legislature not amend the definition of residency for tuition purposes in Section 304A-402 to include veterans, as they should not be deemed a "resident." The more appropriate place for such an amendment to occur should be in Board of Regents policy, where they could be exempted from paying the non-resident tuition differential.

Secondly, and more substantively, as stated, the University has categories of students who are already afforded the privilege of paying resident tuition through an exemption of the non-resident tuition differential. Their waived non-resident tuition differential is foregone revenues for the University. Included in this privilege are active duty military and their dependents, and non-resident National Guard members and reservists.

Veterans, through the Federal Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB) program, receive up to 36 months of education benefits. This benefit may be used for degree and certificate programs, flight training, apprenticeship/on-the-job training and correspondence courses. Even remedial, deficiency, and refresher courses may be approved under certain circumstances. Generally, benefits are payable for 10 years following release from active duty.

Because veterans have the opportunity of special funding for their education, and because they also have the option of returning to their home of record and pay in-state tuition there, the University respectfully opposes passage of this bill.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify.
