Report Title:

Stony Coral and Live Rock; Administrative Penalties

Description:

Increases the maximum penalty for violations concerning damages or breakage to stony corals and live rock.

JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Land and Natural Resources

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES FOR THE DAMAGING OR BREAKING OF STONY CORAL AND LIVE ROCK.

PURPOSE: To increase the maximum fine for violations concerning damages or breakage of stony coral and live rock.

MEANS: Amend section 187A-12.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS).

JUSTIFICATION: The living substrate (coral, live rock and calcareous algae) constitutes the framework of the State's coral reefs and provides the food and shelter for the myriad of native and endemic reef organisms that populate the State's coastal waters. These reef substrates also serve as the backbone to a large part of the State's vibrant marine tourism industry, create many of our world-famous wave breaks, provide subsistence, recreational and commercial fishing for residents, and maintain a marine species endemism rate that ranks amongst the highest in the world.

As presently written, section 187A-12.5, HRS, allows the Board of Land and Natural Resources (Board) to impose administrative fines for the taking, killing, or injuring of aquatic life on a "per specimen" basis. This method, while appropriate for situations involving fish or other quantifiable aquatic life, does not translate well to damage or breakage to living coral colonies and live rock; especially in circumstances involving vessel groundings and other large scale incidents.

This bill would allow the Board to assess administrative penalties for either damage to or the breakage of stony coral and live rock on a per square meter basis. This proposed law would not apply in an emergency and to avoid loss of life or serious bodily injury.

Impact on the public: Would provide effective and substantial financial redress for damage to the State's coral reef ecosystems.

Impact on the department and other agencies: Would allow the Department to vigorously protect its coral reef resources and deter potentially harmful future impacts.

GENERAL FUND: None.

OTHER FUNDS: None.

DESIGNATION: LNR 401.

AGENCIES: None.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon approval.
