
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

DESIGNATING THE FIRST WEEK IN FEBRUARY 2010 AS HAWAII TEEN DATING VIOLENCE AWARENESS AND PREVENTION WEEK.

1 WHEREAS, one in three female teenagers in a dating
2 relationship has feared for her physical safety when with a
3 partner; and
4

5 WHEREAS, one in two teenagers in a serious relationship
6 reports having compromised personal beliefs to please a partner; 7 and
8

9 WHEREAS, one in five teenagers in a serious relationship 10 reports having been hit, slapped, or pushed by a partner; and 11

12 WHEREAS, 27 percent of teenagers have been in dating 13 relationships in which their partners have called them names or 14 "put them down"; and 15

16 WHEREAS, 29 percent of girls who have been in a 17 relationship report having been pressured to have sex or to 18 engage in sexual activities that they did not want; and 19

20 WHEREAS, technologies such as cell phones and the Internet
21 have made dating abuse both more pervasive and more hidden; and 22

23 WHEREAS, 30 percent of teenagers who have been in a dating
24 relationship say they have been text-messaged between ten and 30 25 times per hour by a partner seeking to determine their 26 whereabouts, what they are doing, or who they are with; and 27

28 WHEREAS, 72 percent of teenagers who reported that they had 29 been checked on by a boyfriend or girlfriend ten times or more
30 per hour by email or text message did not tell their parents;
31 and
32

1 WHEREAS, parents are largely unaware of cell phone and 2 Internet harassment experienced by teenagers; and 3

4 WHEREAS, involvement in violent relationships during the 5 adolescent years can have serious ramifications for victims,
6 putting them at higher risk for substance abuse, eating
7 disorders, risky sexual behavior, suicide, and adult re-
8 victimization; and
9

10 WHEREAS, the severity of violence between intimate partners
11 has been observed to be greater in cases in which a pattern of 12 violence has been established in adolescence; and 13

14 WHEREAS, the establishment of "Hawaii Teen Dating Violence
15 Awareness and Prevention Week" will benefit schools,
16 communities, and families regardless of socioeconomic status,
17 race, or sex; now, therefore,
18

19 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 20 Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
21 of 2009, the Senate concurring, that the first week in February
22 2010 is hereby designated as "Hawaii Teen Dating Violence 23 Awareness and Prevention Week"; and 24

25 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature calls upon the 26 people of Hawaii, high schools, law enforcement personnel, state
27 and local officials, and interested groups to observe "Hawaii 28 Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Week" with 29 appropriate programs and activities that promote awareness and 30 encourage prevention of teen dating violence in their 31 communities; and
32

33 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this
34 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Governor, Director
35 of Health, Superintendent of Education, President of the 36 University of Hawaii, Attorney General, the mayor of each
37 county, and the Executive Director of the Hawaii State Coalition
38 Against Domestic Violence.
