

---

---

HOUSE RESOLUTION

PROCLAIMING SEPTEMBER 24, 2009, AS ISLAM DAY.

1           WHEREAS, Hawaii is known for the wealth of its cultural and 2 religious diversity and the harmony with which people of many 3 cultures and religions live together; and 4

5           WHEREAS, Muslims constitute an ethnically diverse part of 6 Hawaii's cultural fabric, with around 3,000 practicing members; 7 and
8

9           WHEREAS, the Prophet Mohammad left his house to migrate to 10 Madinah and reached Quba in the vicinity of Madinah on the 12th
11 day of Rabi ul-Awwal according to the lunar calendar, or 12 September 24th according to the Gregorian calendar, thereby 13 marking the birth of Islam; and 14

15           WHEREAS, Islam, a religion with a long and noble history, 16 is the second largest religion in the world, with over one
17 billion followers spread across every continent, and including 18 members of many nations and cultures; and 19

20           WHEREAS, the Islamic world preserved and made original 21 contributions to works of science and philosophy during the 22 Middle Ages when these disciplines were threatened by bigotry
23 and prejudice in other parts of the world; and 24

25           WHEREAS, Islamic artists, scientists, and philosophers have 26 a rich history of contribution to world literature and our 27 collective scientific understanding; and 28

29           WHEREAS, the Islamic faith shares common teachings found in 30 the texts of both Christianity and Judaism, whose followers are 31 respected and considered "People of the Book"; and 32

33           WHEREAS, Islamic doctrine encourages generosity in its 34 adherents, maintaining that those who possess much have a 35 responsibility to care for those in need; and

1           WHEREAS, Islam, along with its monotheistic counterparts,
2 holds that peace is a divine quality and necessary for 3 collective human happiness; and 4

5           WHEREAS, Islam strives for a world-wide community which, in 6 the words of one Islamic poet-philosopher, "does not recognize 7 the superficial differences of race, or history, or 8 nationality"; and
9

10          WHEREAS, the United States and countries of the Islamic 11 world hold in common many beliefs and values including concepts 12 of world community and mutual responsibility; and 13

14          WHEREAS, international understanding and peace, as well as 15 understanding and peace in our local communities, are 16 strengthened by free and open communications among everyone
17 representing various cultural and religious traditions; and 18

19          WHEREAS, the 96th United States Congress officially 20 recognized the noble qualities of Islam in a concurrent
21 resolution on October 15, 1979 (SCR 43), honoring the religion's 22 14th centennial; now, therefore,
23

24          BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 25 Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
26 of 2009, that September 24, 2009, shall be known as "Islam Day" 27 to recognize the rich religious, scientific, cultural, and 28 artistic contributions Islam and the Islamic world have made 29 since their founding; and 30

31          BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 32 Resolution be transmitted to Hawaii's congressional delegation,
33 the Governor, and the Board of the Muslim Association of Hawaii.

