A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE BUREAU OF CONVEYANCES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to allow the 2 redaction of social security numbers on judgments, decrees, and
3 court orders so that the documents may be recorded at the bureau
4 of conveyances.

5           SECTION 2. Section 501-151, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 6 amended to read as follows:

7           "§501-151 Pending actions, judgments; recording of,
8 notice. No writ of entry, action for partition, or any action
9 affecting the title to real property or the use and occupation
10 thereof or the buildings thereon, and no judgment, nor any 11 appeal or other proceeding to vacate or reverse any judgment,
12 shall have any effect upon registered land as against persons
13 other than the parties thereto, unless a full memorandum
14 thereof, containing also a reference to the number of 15 certificate of title of the land affected is filed or recorded
16 and registered. Except as otherwise provided, every judgment
17 shall contain or have endorsed on it the State of Hawaii general

1 excise taxpayer identification number, the federal employer
2 identification number, or the last four digits only of the 3 social security number for persons, corporations, partnerships,
4 or other entities against whom the judgment is rendered. If the 5 judgment debtor has no social security number, State of Hawaii
6 general excise taxpayer identification number, or federal 7 employer identification number, or if that information is not in 8 the possession of the party seeking registration of the 9 judgment, the judgment shall be accompanied by a certificate
10 that provides that the information does not exist or is not in 11 the possession of the party seeking registration of the 12 judgment. Failure to disclose or disclosure of an incorrect
13 social security number, State of Hawaii general excise taxpayer
14 identification number, or federal employer identification number
15 shall not in any way adversely affect or impair the lien created
16 upon recording of the judgment. This section does not apply to 17 attachments, levies of execution, or to proceedings for the 18 probate of wills, or for administration in a probate court;
19 provided that in case notice of the pendency of the action has 20 been duly registered it is sufficient to register the judgment
21 in the action within sixty days after the rendition thereof.

1 As used in this chapter "judgment" includes an order or 2 decree having the effect of a judgment.

3 Notice of the pendency of an action in a United States
4 District Court, as well as a court of the State of Hawaii, may 5 be recorded.

6 The party seeking registration of a judgment may redact the 7 first five digits of any social security number by blocking the 8 numbers out on the copy of the judgment to be filed or 9 recorded."

10 SECTION 3. Section 636-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
11 amended to read as follows:

12 "§636-3 Judgment, orders, decrees; lien when. Any money
13 judgment, order, or decree of a state court or the United States
14 District Court for the District of Hawaii shall be a lien upon 15 real property when a copy thereof, certified as correct by a 16 clerk of the court where it is entered, is recorded in the 17 bureau of conveyances. No such lien shall continue beyond the 18 length of time the underlying judgment, order, or decree is in 19 force. Except as otherwise provided, every judgment shall 20 contain or have endorsed on it the Hawaii tax identification
21 number, the federal employer identification number, or the last 22 four digits only of the social security number for persons,

1 corporations, partnerships, or other entities against whom the
2 judgment, order, or decree is rendered. If the debtor has no
3 social security number, Hawaii tax identification number, or 4 federal employer identification number, or if that information
5 is not in the possession of the party seeking registration of 6 the judgment, order, or decree, the judgment, order, or decree
7 shall be accompanied by a certificate that provides that the 8 information does not exist or is not in the possession of the 9 party seeking recordation of the judgment. Failure to disclose
10 or disclosure of an incorrect social security number, Hawaii tax
11 identification number, or federal employer identification number
12 shall not in any way adversely affect or impair the lien created
13 upon recordation of the judgment, order, or decree. When any 14 judgment, order, or decree is fully paid, the creditor or the 15 creditor's attorney of record in the action shall, at the 16 expense of the debtor, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the 17 debtor a satisfaction thereof, which may be recorded in the 18 bureau. Every satisfaction or assignment of judgment, order, or 19 decree shall contain a reference to the book and page or 20 document number of the registration of the original judgment.
21 The recording fees for a judgment, order, or decree and for each

1 assignment or satisfaction of judgment, order, or decree shall 2 be as provided by section 502-25.

3 In the case of registered land, section 501-102 and 4 sections 501-241 to 501-248 shall govern.

5 The party seeking to record or register a judgment, order,
6 or decree may redact the first five digits of any social 7 security number by blocking the numbers out on the copy of the 8 judgment, order, or decree to be recorded or registered."

9 SECTION 4. New statutory material is underscored.

10 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
