SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THAT THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE ISSUE A COMMEMORATIVE STAMP HONORING PRINCE JONAH KUHIO KALANIANAOLE.

1 WHEREAS, Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalanianaole, known as the last
2 Prince of the Hawaiian Monarchy, was the son of High Chief David
3 Kahalepouli Piikoi and Princess Victoria Kuhio Kinoiki Kekaulike
4 and great-grandson of Kaumualii, the last reigning chief of the 5 island of Kauai; and

6
7 WHEREAS, Kuhio was born on March 26, 1871, at Hoai, Kualu
8 in the Koloa district of the island of Kauai; and

9
10 WHEREAS, his mother and father both died when he was still 11 very young, Kuhio and his brothers were adopted by their aunt,
12 Kapiolani, who was the wife of Kalakaua; and

13
14 WHEREAS, when King Kalakaua and Queen Kapiolani ascended to 15 their thrones in 1874, thirteen-year-old Jonah Kuhio
16 Kalanianaole and his brothers were made Princes by royal decree; 17 and

18
19 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio was very well trained and educated
20 both at home and abroad in England; and

21
22 WHEREAS, upon the death of the Prince's uncle, King
23 Kalakaua, the King's sister Liliuokalani ascended the throne,
24 and upon doing so, named the young Prince as an heir; and

25
26 WHEREAS, in 1893, Queen Liliuokalani was illegally
27 overthrown by a group of foreign businessmen; and

28
29 WHEREAS, in support of his aunt, the Queen, Prince Kuhio
30 joined with a group of Hawaiian Nationals and Loyalists in an 31 attempt to return the Queen to the throne and was subsequently 32 arrested and imprisoned for treason; and

1
2 WHEREAS, at the same time that the Queen was released from 3 imprisonment, Prince Kuhio was also released and pardoned on all 4 charges; and

5
6 WHEREAS, after Hawaii's annexation to the United States and 7 the subsequent passage of the Organic Act of 1902, Prince Kuhio
8 was persuaded to accept the Republican Party's nomination as a
9 delegate to Congress; and

10
11 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio won his first bid for election to 12 Congress, and many more thereafter, serving as Hawaii's delegate 13 from 1903 to 1921; and

14
15 WHEREAS, his keen wit and ready good humor made him well
16 liked by his fellow Hawaiians and fellow legislators in 17 Washington, D.C.; and

18
19 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio earned great respect for his 20 commitment and staunch support of the native Hawaiian people, 21 for whom he worked tirelessly; and

22
23 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio made great achievements in his nearly 24 twenty years in Congress, including securing Kalaupapa Leper
25 Settlement as a territorial institution, establishing county
26 governments, developing Pearl Harbor, advocating for passage of 27 the Hawaiian Rehabilitation Act and the Hawaiian Homes
28 Commission Act; and

29
30 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio endeavored to restore native
31 Hawaiians' pride in their race by organizing the Royal Order of 32 Kamehameha I and the Hawaiian Civic Club, both of which are 33 still very active organizations, and including civic clubs that 34 have been established across the United States to address the 35 concerns of native Hawaiians; and

36
37 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio died at his home on Waikiki Beach on 38 January 7, 1922 at the age of fifty; and

39
40 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio, the last designated heir to the 41 Hawaiian throne, was given the last state funeral held in Hawaii
42 for an alii and is buried at Mauna Ala (Royal Mausoleum) in 43 Nuuanu Valley amongst numerous other members of the Hawaiian 44 Monarchy; and

1
2 WHEREAS, upon his death, the Governor of the Territory of 3 Hawaii proclaimed that Prince Kuhio was sincere, loyal, and 4 courageous and possessed a unique, distinctly Hawaiian kindness
5 of heart that is identified, interpreted, and glorified in 6 Hawaii's Aloha; and 7

8 WHEREAS, Kuhio Park in Koloa, Kauai, was dedicated to and 9 named for him in 1928, only six years after his passing; and 10

11 WHEREAS, numerous places, including schools, roads, parks, 12 housing developments, and a federal building, have all been 13 named for Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole; and 14

15 WHEREAS, in 1949, the territorial Legislature passed a
16 resolution marking March 26th as a holiday honoring Prince
17 Kuhio, which has now become a State holiday known as "Kuhio 18 Day"; and
19

20 WHEREAS, in 2002, a statue in Prince Kuhio's likeness was 21 erected on Waikiki Beach to honor Prince Kuhio; and 22

23 WHEREAS, Prince Kuhio is fondly remembered as "Ke Alii 24 Makaanana" (The Citizen Prince); now, therefore,
25

26 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-fifth 27 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2009, the 28 House of Representatives concurring, that the Legislature, in 29 recognition of the work and achievements of Prince Jonah Kuhio
30 Kalaniana'ole as a representative and supporter of the native
31 Hawaiian people and his significance in Hawaiian history as the 32 last designated heir to the Hawaiian throne, therefore 33 encourages and requests that the United States Postal Service
34 issue a commemorative stamp honoring Prince Jonah Kuhio
35 Kalaniana'ole; and
36

37 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 38 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the United States
39 Postmaster General, the Chief Executive Officer of the United 40 States Postal Service, the Chair of the Citizens' Stamp Advisory 41 Committee of the United States Postal Service, the District
42 Manager of the United States Postal Service for the District of
