PROCLAIMING 2009 AS THE YEAR OF THE NONCOMMISSIONED OFFICER
CORPS OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY.

1           WHEREAS, the United States Army's professional 2 Noncommissioned Officer Corps has a proud history and has 3 distinguished itself throughout the world as the backbone of the 4 Army by leading the way with two tasks in mind: obeying the 5 orders of the Corps' superior officers to accomplish the 6 mission, and looking out for the welfare of the Corps' soldiers; 7 and 8

9           WHEREAS, noncommissioned officers in the Noncommissioned
10 Officer Corps occupy a position of respect and leadership, and 11 have performed fundamental tasks such as serving as small unit 12 leaders, technical experts, trainers, and perhaps most 13 importantly, as guardians of the Army's standards; and 14

15           WHEREAS, the United States Army depends on the knowledge 16 and timeless qualities of leadership and courage that these 17 dedicated men and women possess, assigning them to lead the 18 charge from the front on today's battlefields in Operation Iraqi 19 Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan and the 20 Philippines, and in other locations throughout the world; and 21

22           WHEREAS, noncommissioned officers and their families have 23 made daily sacrifices and exemplified courage and a deep sense 24 of patriotism in their commitment to provide continual and 25 invaluable service to our State and to this great nation, and 26 have demonstrated their dedication and willingness to sacrifice
27 on behalf of their fellow Americans; and 28

29           WHEREAS, the Noncommissioned Officer Corps of the United 30 States Army has faced danger, endured hardships, and made the 31 ultimate sacrifice to defend our nation's freedoms; now, 32 therefore,
33

34           BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-fifth
