PRESENTATION
OF THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS
TO THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS
BIENNIUM BUDGET REQUEST FOR FISCAL BIENNIUM 2009-2011

TWENTY-FIFTH STATE LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION
JANUARY 16, 2009

TO THE HONORABLE DONNA MERCADO KIM, CHAIR
AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE

I am Lawrence Reifurth, and I am the Director of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. I appreciate this opportunity to discuss the Department's biennium budget request for fiscal biennium 2009-2011 with the committee.

The department's mission is to uphold fairness and public confidence in the marketplace, promote sound consumer practices, and increase knowledge, opportunity, and justice in our community.

Along with the department staff and our customers, I am very appreciative of the foresight shown by the legislature when it brought the entire department under the compliance resolution fund ("CRF"), making this the only state department to be fully self-funding and fiscally self-sufficient. As a result, the department and its customers have fared relatively well this past year, and under the proposed biennium budget. In addition, the State Supreme Court's decision in the HIC v. Lingle case last month strongly vindicated the legislature's vision in establishing the CRF, and the department's management of the public trust accorded it.

The Department's budget is scrutinized closely by the legislative money committees. I believe strongly in the value of that scrutiny. Your oversight helps ensure that our customers and the public can be confident that there is accountability and transparency in the Department's operations. In turn, our responsibility is to provide you with an open book and the best possible revenue/expense projections.

I also believe strongly that it is the department's duty to only collect as much money as it needs to fulfill its obligations. Our philosophy at DCCA is that if we do not need to spend all the money with which our customers entrust us, we return it to them as soon as possible and reduce the amount we collect.

Toward that end, and with the Governor's and the legislature's encouragement and assistance, the Department has been able to reduce fees and assessments by over $20 million during the last two years (FY 07 & FY 08), and expects to add to that amount approximately $7 million this fiscal year. As a result, the State's economy is strengthened, and we have been able to better align our revenues and expenses. We will continue to closely monitor the CRF reserve level to ensure that we are operating with a reasonable reserve margin.

While the immediate impact of budget cuts may not be as pronounced at DCCA as at general-funded agencies, we are fully cognizant of the need to manage our resources with the utmost of diligence. This includes a closer look at travel, filling vacancies, overtime, and electrical and maintenance costs.

The department's strong current position is fortunate as it is quite likely that the economy's slowdown will translate into an increase in demand for departmental assistance, while simultaneously reducing our revenues. Licensing and registration numbers are already falling, while prior downturns teach us that we can expect more frequent utility price increases, unlicensed business activity, and an increase in consumer scams among other "sharp" practices, each of which needs more careful consideration than ever before. As a result, we are called upon to proceed ever more carefully, spending more where our customers need us to, and less where we can.

Thank you for this opportunity to brief you. My staff and I would be pleased to answer any questions that you might have.

1. Introduction:

a. Title of Program ID: CCA 102 – Cable Television

b. Summary of program objectives.

To foster the development of responsive and reliable cable television communications services for the people of Hawaii, by promoting the public interest in authorizations by the state regarding cable television franchises; regulate basic cable television rates and service to ensure compliance with applicable State and Federal law; expand and operate the Statewide Institutional Network (INET); and continue the availability of Public, Education and Government (PEG) cable access.

Statutory reference: Chapter 440G, HRS.

2. Program Performance Results:

a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

Please see the attached spreadsheet.

b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The program helps to promote and protect the interests of Hawaii's consumers, making sure there is fairness in the marketplace. By monitoring the reliability of the cable operators' systems, the program fosters the development of reliable cable television communications services for the people of Hawaii. By reviewing the cable operators' rate filings, the program regulates basic service rates and ensures compliance with applicable state and federal law. The program's efforts to obtain INET connections to public facilities have resulted in expansion of the INET now throughout the whole state. The program continues to support PEG programming.

c. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

The program's efforts and resources are focused on its objectives of franchising (new, renewals and transfers), consumer protection, PEG (public, governmental and educational) programming, and enhancement of the Institutional Network (INET). The program is always focused on the best interests of Hawaii's residents.

d. Identify any modifications to your program's performance measures and discuss the rationale for these modifications.

TO THE HONORABLE DONNA MERCADO KIM, CHAIR

Operational Budget

1. Introduction:

a. Title of Program ID: CCA 103 – Consumer Advocate for Communications, Utilities and Transportation Services

b. Summary of program objectives.

Through advocacy, education, and long range planning, to ensure sustainable, reliable, safe, and quality communications, utility and transportation services at fair cost for Hawaii's consumers for the short and long term.

Statutory reference: Section 269-51, HRS.

2. Program Performance Results:

a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

Please see the attached spreadsheet for a summary of results.

b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The mission of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs is "to uphold fairness and public confidence in the marketplace, promote sound consumer practices, and increase knowledge, opportunity, and justice in our community." The analysis performed by the Consumer Advocate's analysts in matters before the regulatory bodies (e.g., PUC) furthers the mission of the Department by ensuring:

- Fairness in the rates charged to all consumers of a utility service;
- The maintenance of acceptable service standards;
- The provision of safe and reliable utility service to improve the quality of life for Hawaii's utility customers; and
- Promotion of the State's energy policy without compromising service quality.

These goals are also consistent with the Consumer Advocate's program objectives.

The Consumer Advocate's analysis of rate applications and tariff transmittals ensured that the rates charged for utility services were non-discriminatory and reflected reasonable costs of providing the services to all consumers.

The analysis of integrated resource planning, demand-side management and capital improvement applications ensured that utilities had the infrastructure and facilities needed to provide safe and reliable service to its customers, thereby fostering a high quality of life and the promotion of the State's economy. For example, electric service is essential to customers and their everyday existence, whether it be an individual resident or a large business. Consumers' heavy reliance on computer technology to perform many of our daily functions creates a greater need for reliable electric service. In addition, the Consumer Advocate's analysis in these matters helped to achieve the State's energy policy of reducing the State's dependence on fossil fuel without compromising service quality by supporting the use of renewable energy, where appropriate.

The analysis of certification applications ensured that affordable, safe and reliable utility service was provided to all consumers in a designated service area. This analysis is crucial to quality of life since utility services, by their nature, are essential services that may not be available to the consumer in a particular service area, but for the service offered by the applicant seeking certification from the PUC.

b. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

The various measures of effectiveness may vary significantly from year to year, depending on the types and numbers of applications filed by utilities with the PUC. Some results have little affect on the program activities, given that the results differ depending on events outside the Consumer Advocate's control. Furthermore, some achievements of the Consumer Advocate to protect consumers cannot easily be measured. While it is difficult to quantify all money saved for consumers by actions taken by the office, the Consumer Advocate estimates that the total amount of consumer savings for the fiscal year 2008 was in excess of $37 million. This amount is calculated by summing the suggested downward adjustments that are recommended by Consumer Advocate and are adopted by the PUC. In large part, these savings are found in rate case proceedings.

Other measures of effectiveness – for example, the number of customers contacted through outreach events or newsletter distributed have significant impact on the decisions the Consumer Advocate's office makes in terms of what events to attend and how to distribute such newsletters.

JANUARY 16, 2009

TO THE HONORABLE DONNA MERCADO KIM, CHAIR
AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE

Operational Budget

1. Introduction:

a. Title of Program ID: CCA 104 - Financial Institution Services

b. Summary of program objectives.

To ensure the safety and soundness of state-chartered and state-licensed financial institutions by fairly administering applicable statutes and rules in order to protect the rights and funds of depositors, borrowers, consumers, and other members of the community, and to supervise escrow depositories and money transmitters.

Statutory reference: Chapters 412, 449, and 489D, HRS.

2. Program Performance Results:

a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

Please see attached spreadsheet.

b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The mission of the DCCA includes upholding "fairness and public confidence in the marketplace". The mission of the Division of Financial Institutions ("DFI") is to ensure the safety and soundness of Hawaii state-chartered and state-licensed financial institutions and to maintain public confidence in such institutions, and to supervise escrow depositories and money transmitters.

DFI's on-site examination program is the primary means by which DFI ensures that financial institutions are in a safe and sound condition and that financial institutions, escrow depositories, and money transmitters are in compliance with state and applicable federal laws such as those relating to privacy, money laundering and bank secrecy. The review and processing of applications, the off-site review of audited financial statements and other reports; the renewal of licenses, and the processing of consumer complaints are also critical elements in DFI's on-going assessment of the institutions' financial condition; compliance with state and federal laws, rules and regulations; and changing business plans, strategies, and operating results.

c. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

In FY 07 and FY 08, performance results were satisfactory in the areas of examinations, application processing, license renewals, and responding to written inquiries. DFI was able to maintain its satisfactory performance in these areas in FY 08 despite a tremendous increase in workload due to the complexity of applications, complaints and inquiries it receives; the changing nature of the examinations it conducts to deal with new laws and regulations and the evolving nature of the financial services industry; and the new requirement to license money transmitters. In addition, the national mortgage crisis that began in 2007 and evolved into a full-scale financial crisis in 2008 with unprecedented economic disruptions and numerous federal initiatives to restore liquidity and stability to the financial system impacted DFI's activities. While Hawaii-chartered banks remain well-capitalized and are prepared to make credit available to qualified borrowers, DFI has had to monitor the impact of the disruptions and the numerous federal initiatives on the overall industry and on individual institutions.

Although the review of audited financial statements within 30 days of receipt remained at 79% in FY 08, DFI was able to maintain this performance level without increased staffing despite the 173% increase in the number of audited financial statements received in FY 08 due to the implementation of Act 153, 2006 SLH which required money transmitters to be licensed by DFI and to submit audited financial statements when applying for licensure and annually thereafter.

In response to the enactment of Act 153, 2006 SLH, DFI requested and received additional funding and three new positions to implement the money transmitters program beginning in FY 09. However, due to the delayed effective date of Act 195, 2008 SLH, which was intended to provide the necessary revenues for the program, DFI has had to delay the hiring of the additional examiners until late in FY 10 and has only been able to partially implement the money transmitter program using existing staff as and if available.

In dealing with the continually evolving and increasing workload and the complexity of issues involved, DFI has had to prioritize its work; submit legislation to change and enhance conflicting or inconsistent State laws; adopt supervisory protocols and agreements with other state and federal banking agencies for the cooperation and coordination of regulatory activities; increase coordination and cooperation with other federal and state agencies that serve as the functional regulators of certain financial institution activities; implement new examination procedures and enhance other program activities to ensure the safety and soundness of the institutions DFI regulates and their compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The development and maintenance of a highly skilled and efficient work force continues to be a critical factor in DFI's ability to effectively supervise and regulate the financial services industry. Accordingly, continuous training of staff and the increased use of technology remain key DFI priorities.

2. Program Performance Results:

a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

See attached spreadsheet.

The number of consumers affected by OCP's actions continues to grow while the number of staff remains constant. The office has been able to fulfill its mission through selective investigation of cases, increased consumer outreach, and targeted consumer education. During the past few years OCP has become increasingly active in multi-state enforcement actions which have provided several million dollars to the state in the form of fines assessed or costs imposed.

- b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The measures were designed to reflect the program's ability to impact large groups of consumers and businesses. In this regard, the measures reflect that the program's impact continues to grow.

- c. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

Effectiveness is measured by four criteria: consumers affected by office action, businesses affected by investigations, amount of fines assessed in judgments, and the number of disputes handled through alternative dispute resolution. The number of known affected consumers and businesses remains high. During the past year thousands of businesses and consumers received valuable information about consumer protection through various sources, including OCP's website, press releases, and speaking engagements. It is expected that public use and demand for services through the Internet will continue to grow as more information is posted on the website.

Although OCP has been able to effectively prosecute every significant case that has fallen within its jurisdiction, there are a number of small, isolated cases that, due to finite resources, are not being investigated by the office. In addressing this challenge, OCP works with the RICO Consumer Resource Center, to facilitate referrals to mediation, self-help, consumer education, and the like.

1. Introduction:

- a. Title of Program ID: CCA 111 - Business Registration and Securities Regulation
- b. Summary of program objectives.

To ensure that business registration information is accurately maintained for corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, trade names, trademarks, and service marks, to run Business Centers to provide personalized assistance to small and startup businesses and to ensure compliance with and enforcement of securities and franchise laws.

Statutory reference: Chapters 414, 414D, 415A, 417E, 419, 421, 421C, 421I, 423, 424, 425, 425E, 428, 474, 482, 482E, 485A, and 519, HRS.

2. Program Performance Results:

- a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

Please see attached spreadsheet.
- b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The objective of the business registry is to become one of the fastest, most efficient, customer-oriented business registries in the country. The average days to process corporation, partnership, trade name and other business documents provides an indication of processing timeliness. Currently, documents filed for expedited handling are taking 1 business day to process; documents filed for regular handling are taking approximately 3 business days to process. In addition, the business registry online services remain popular with online adoption rates expected to increase.

The objective of the Business Action Center (BAC) is to be a responsive, accessible and helpful point-of-service business center for business registration and licensing and to assist as many businesses as possible. The measure of customers served indicates the reach of the BAC to serve those who wish to conduct business in the State. The BAC has served about 4300 requests per quarter, with a total of over 17,000 served for the fiscal year. The expansion of the offices to the neighbor islands makes the BAC accessible to more people in Hawaii.

The objectives of the Division's securities industry regulatory program is to be more effective and efficient in regulating the securities industry through (1) consistent review of applications, (2) on-sight inspection of the books and records of licensed broker dealers and investment advisers in Hawaii, (3) training to ensure that the professional staff is current with the increasingly complex securities products, (4) aggressive action towards securities violators, (5) active monitoring and appropriate participation in statutory and rule making relevant to securities matters, (6) more efficient investigations and enforcement actions, (7) efficient outreach to the community to help protect the public against investor fraud and to educate them as to financial matters and where to report investor fraud.

The average days to process applications for broker dealers and their sales agents, investment firms and their representatives provides an indication of the timeliness within which these applications are reviewed and approved. Securities compliance continues to process registration applications with a short backlog and responds to applications within 15 to 30 days.

The average age of cases in investigation and pending legal action indicates the timeliness of resolving cases once the Division receives complaints. The average age of cases pending in investigation increased from 432 days in FY07 to 459 days in FY08 and the average age of cases pending in the legal section increased from 527 days in FY07 to 595 in FY08 due to action taken in several large and complex cases. A more detailed review of the caseload indicates that more perpetrators of investment fraud are using multiple accounts and depositories through which illegally obtained funds must be traced in order to build effective enforcement cases. The resolution of cases is directly related to the goals of the Division to effectively take action against violators.

c. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

Maintaining low processing times for business registration filings reflect the effectiveness and customer service of the Division's Business Registration Branch.

Maintaining low processing times for applications for investment advisers, their representatives, broker dealers and their sales agents reflect the responsiveness of the Securities Compliance Branch in its efforts to thoroughly but rapidly review applications.

Working on lowering the average age of cases in investigation, legal and the overall branch helps the Securities Enforcement Branch assess and stay focused on working through old cases in a timely manner while balancing the need to be responsive and thorough with new cases.

- d. Identify any modifications to your program's performance measures and discuss the rationale for these modifications.
- a. Program Activities Item 7 "# of preliminary orders and settlements completed." This item measures the work completed in the Securities Enforcement Branch. Settlements and orders are a significant part of enforcement work.
 - b. Program Activities Item 8 "# of suspensions or bars imposed" was added to measure the impact of the Securities Enforcement Branch's work in suspending and barring securities violators from the industry.
 - c. Program Activities Item 9 "# of persons reached through investor education activity" was added to measure the number of people our investor education program reaches. The investor education program has become a more critical part of securities regulation work and this measure helps us keep track of our level of success..

BIENNIUM BUDGET REQUEST FOR FISCAL BIENNIUM 2009-2011

TWENTY-FIFTH STATE LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION

JANUARY 16, 2009

TO THE HONORABLE DONNA MERCADO KIM, CHAIR
AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE

Operational Budget

1. Introduction:

- a. Title of Program ID: CCA 112 - Regulated Industries Complaints Office
- b. Summary of program objectives.

To assist the general public by providing consumer education outreach activities, investigating complaints from the public and enforcing the licensing laws.

Statutory reference: Section 26-9(h), HRS.

2. Program Performance Results:

- a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

Please see attached spreadsheet.
- b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The primary objectives of the program are (1) to provide information to consumers and businesses to help them make appropriate marketplace choices; (2) to assist consumers and businesses in resolving their complaints where appropriate; and (3) to investigate and enforce the state's licensing laws. The numbers provided in response to question 2a. reflect the number of customers who received assistance from the division through education, complaints information, investigation or enforcement and the number of businesses that were investigated, as well as the amount of fines assessed in successful enforcement actions.

c. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

There is usually a correlation between the amount of fines assessed by a particular board, commission or program, and the seriousness of the violation that was committed, so the amount of fines assessed provides a good indication that the division has been actively enforcing legal actions of a serious nature and of a sufficient amount to deter future violations of the law.

d. Identify any modifications to your program's performance measures and discuss the rationale for these modifications.

None.

Capital Improvement Program (CIP) Budget

2	NUMBER OF BUSINESSES DIRECTLY AFFECTED BY INVESTIGATIONS.	At present, efforts have been focused on decreasing volume of cases assigned to investigation (ie, resolving at the intake stage) so that investigative resources can be devoted to proactive investigations and more complex and/or critical investigations.	3098	2619	2000	2000

REGULAR SESSION

JANUARY 16, 2009

TO THE HONORABLE DONNA MERCADO KIM, CHAIR
AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE

Operational Budget

1. Introduction:

a. Title of Program ID: CCA-191 - General Support

b. Summary of program objectives.

To uphold fairness and public confidence in the marketplace, promote sound consumer practices, and increase knowledge, opportunity, and justice in our community by enhancing program effectiveness and efficiency.

Statutory reference: Section 26-9, HRS.

2. Program Performance Results:

a. Table 6: Program Performance Results.

Please see attached spreadsheet.

b. Discuss how this Program ID's Measures of Effectiveness relate to the department's mission and program objectives.

The performance results are reflective of the flexible and innovative manner in which this program and the entire department responds to the needs of its constituents and to changes in its operating environment. Reducing program fees demonstrates increased program efficiency and increases public confidence in the marketplace. Advancing e-commerce initiatives enhances program effectiveness and efficiency by increasing knowledge and opportunity to consumers. The Department's handling of due process cases and challenges to the procurement process upholds fairness and public confidence, as the cases are heard by professional hearings officers. As a result, justice is increased in the community and program effectiveness and efficiency are enhanced.

c. Discuss how results of measures of effectiveness affect program activities.

In addition to the program planning and budgeting (PPB) measures, the effectiveness of this program should be measured by how well and how openly the department functions and responds to issues and problems related to consumer protection and to the needs of the business community. As a special funded Department, the program should be judged on its ability to align department revenues and expenses to ensure that the Department's customers receive value for the fees charged.

d. Identify any modifications to your program's performance measures and discuss the rationale for these modifications.

None.

Capital Improvement Program (CIP) Budget
