A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. Section 383-30, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3           "§383-30 Disqualification for benefits. (a) An 4 individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

5           (1) Voluntary separation. For any week prior to 6           October 1, 1989, in which the individual has left work 7           voluntarily without good cause, and continuing until 8           the individual has, subsequent to the week in which 9           the voluntary separation occurred, been employed for 10          at least five consecutive weeks of employment. For 11          the purposes of this paragraph, "weeks of employment" 12          means all those weeks within each of which the 13          individual has performed services in employment for 14          not less than two days or four hours per week, for one 15          or more employers, whether or not such employers are 16          subject to this chapter. For any week beginning on 17          and after October 1, 1989, in which the individual has

1 left the individual's work voluntarily without good 2 cause, and continuing until the individual has, 3 subsequent to the week in which the voluntary 4 separation occurred, been paid wages in covered 5 employment equal to not less than five times the 6 individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under 7 section 383-22(b).

8 An owner-employee of a corporation who brings 9 about the owner-employee's unemployment by divesting 10 ownership, leasing the business interest, terminating 11 the business, or by other similar actions where the 12 owner-employee is the party initiating termination of 13 the employment relationship, has voluntarily left 14 employment.

- 15 (2) Discharge or suspension for misconduct. For any week 16 prior to October 1, 1989, in which the individual has 17 been discharged for misconduct connected with work, 18 and continuing until the individual has, subsequent to 19 the week in which the discharge occurred, been 20 employed for at least five consecutive weeks of 21 employment. For the week in which the individual has 22 been suspended for misconduct connected with work and

1 for not less than one or more than four consecutive 2 weeks of unemployment which immediately follow such 3 week, as determined in each case in accordance with 4 the seriousness of the misconduct. For the purposes 5 of this paragraph, "weeks of employment" means all 6 those weeks within each of which the individual has 7 performed services in employment for not less than two 8 days or four hours per week, for one or more
9 employers, whether or not such employers are subject
10 to this chapter. For any week beginning on and after 11 October 1, 1989, in which the individual has been 12 discharged for misconduct connected with work, and 13 until the individual has, subsequent to the week in 14 which the discharge occurred, been paid wages in 15 covered employment equal to not less than five times 16 the individual's weekly benefit amount as determined 17 under section 383-22(b).

- 18 (3) Failure to apply for work, etc. For any week prior to 19 October 1, 1989, in which the individual failed,
20 without good cause, either to apply for available,
21 suitable work when so directed by the employment 22 office or any duly authorized representative of the

1 department of labor and industrial relations, or to 2 accept suitable work when offered and continuing until 3 the individual has, subsequent to the week in which 4 the failure occurred, been employed for at least five 5 consecutive weeks of employment. For the purposes of 6 this paragraph, "weeks of employment" means all those 7 weeks within each of which the individual has 8 performed services in employment for not less than two
9 days or four hours per week, for one or more
10 employers, whether or not such employers are subject
11 to this chapter. For any week beginning on and after 12 October 1, 1989, in which the individual failed,
13 without good cause, either to apply for available,
14 suitable work when so directed by the employment 15 office or any duly authorized representative of the 16 department of labor and industrial relations, or to 17 accept suitable work when offered until the individual 18 has, subsequent to the week in which the failure 19 occurred, been paid wages in covered employment equal 20 to not less than five times the individual's weekly 21 benefit amount as determined under section 383-22(b).

1           (A) In determining whether or not any work is 2           suitable for an individual there shall be 3           considered among other factors and in addition to 4           those enumerated in paragraph (3) (B), the degree 5           of risk involved to the individual's health, 6           safety, and morals, the individual's physical 7           fitness and prior training, the individual's 8           experience and prior earnings, the length of 9           unemployment, the individual's prospects for 10          obtaining work in the individual's customary 11          occupation, the distance of available work from 12          the individual's residence, and prospects for 13          obtaining local work. The same factors so far as 14          applicable shall be considered in determining the 15          existence of good cause for an individual's 16          voluntarily leaving work under paragraph (1).

17          (B) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this 18          chapter, no work shall be deemed suitable and 19          benefits shall not be denied under this chapter 20          to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing 21          to accept new work under any of the following 22          conditions:

- 1                   (i) If the position offered is vacant due
- 2                                 directly to a strike, lockout, or other
- 3                                 labor dispute;
- 4                   (ii) If the wages, hours, or other conditions of
- 5                                 the work offered are substantially less
- 6                                 favorable to the individual than those
- 7                                 prevailing for similar work in the locality;
- 8                   (iii) If as a condition of being employed the
- 9                                 individual would be required to join a
- 10                                company union or to resign from or refrain
- 11                                from joining any bona fide labor
- 12                                organization.
- 13           (4) Labor dispute. For any week with respect to which it
- 14                                is found that unemployment is due to a stoppage of
- 15                                work which exists because of a labor dispute at the
- 16                                factory, establishment, or other premises at which the
- 17                                individual is or was last employed; provided that this
- 18                                paragraph shall not apply if it is shown that:
- 19                    (A) The individual is not participating in or
- 20                                directly interested in the labor dispute which
- 21                                caused the stoppage of work; and

1 (B) The individual does not belong to a grade or 2 class of workers of which, immediately before the 3 commencement of the stoppage, there were members 4 employed at the premises at which the stoppage 5 occurs, any of whom are participating in or 6 directly interested in the dispute; provided that 7 if in any case separate branches of work, which 8 are commonly conducted as separate businesses in 9 separate premises, are conducted in separate 10 departments of the same premises, each such 11 department shall, for the purpose of this 12 paragraph, be deemed to be a separate factory, 13 establishment, or other premises.

14 (5) If the department finds that the individual has within 15 the twenty-four calendar months immediately preceding 16 any week of unemployment made a false statement or 17 representation of a material fact knowing it to be 18 false or knowingly failed to disclose a material fact 19 to obtain any benefits not due under this chapter, the 20 individual shall be disqualified for benefits
21 beginning with the week in which the department makes 22 the determination and for each consecutive week during

1 the current and subsequent twenty-four calendar months 2 immediately following such determination, and such 3 individual shall not be entitled to any benefit under 4 this chapter for the duration of such period; provided 5 that no disqualification shall be imposed if 6 proceedings have been undertaken against the 7 individual under section 383-141.

8 (6) Other unemployment benefits. For any week or part of 9 a week with respect to which the individual has 10 received or is seeking unemployment benefits under any 11 other employment security law, but this paragraph 12 shall not apply (A) if the appropriate agency finally 13 determines that the individual is not entitled to 14 benefits under such other law, or (B) if benefits are 15 payable to the individual under an act of Congress 16 which has as its purpose the supplementation of 17 unemployment benefits under a state law.

18 (b) Effective July 1, 2010, notwithstanding any law or 19 rule to the contrary, an individual shall not be disqualified 20 for benefits for any week in which the individual separates 21 involuntarily or voluntarily without good cause from an employer 22 offering part-time employment, if the individual is:

- 1        (1) Receiving benefits due to separation from a regular
- 2                employer that is not offering work;
- 3        (2) Receiving partial unemployment benefits; and
- 4        (3) Exempt from work search and registration for work
- 5                requirements."

6        SECTION 2. New statutory material is underscored.

7        SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2010.
