
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO UNEMPLOYMENT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that immediate, speedy
2 action must be taken to reduce unemployment in this State. The 3 present decline in the health of the state and national 4 economies and the high rates of unemployment that will accompany 5 this decline will cause considerable hardship among the 6 residents of the State. The legislature further finds it is 7 therefore prudent at this time to take steps to alleviate the 8 effects of a high rate of unemployment through the development
9 of a state unemployment program. The purpose of this Act is to:

10 (1) Assist unemployed persons who have used all available
11 unemployment insurance benefits with employment in 12 needed public service jobs, and, whenever feasible,
13 related training and manpower services, to enable them
14 to move into temporary full-time or part-time
15 employment or training supported under this chapter; 16 and

1 (2) Provide subsidies for certain private employers to 2 participate in the employment programs involving the 3 training and hiring of unemployed persons.

4 SECTION 2. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by 5 adding a new chapter to be appropriately designated and to read
6 as follows:
